that the child is in need of the care and services provided by that group home program.

(f) The interagency placement committee shall document the results of the assessment required by subdivision (e) and shall notify the appropriate group home provider and county placing agency, in writing, of those results within 10 days of the completion of the assessment.

(g) If the child's placement is not funded by the Aid to Families with Dependent Children-Foster Care Program, a licensed mental health professional, as defined in Sections 629 to 633, inclusive, of Title 9 of the California Code of Regulations, shall certify that the child is seriously emotionally disturbed, as defined in Section 5600.3 and Section 1502.4 of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 3. Section 4096.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

4096.5. (a) The department shall make a determination, within 45 days of receiving a request from a group home to be classified at RCL 13 or RCL 14 pursuant to Section 11462.01, to certify or deny certification that the group home program includes provisions for mental health treatment services that meet the needs of seriously emotionally disturbed children. The department shall issue each certification for a period of one year and shall specify the effective date the program met the certification requirements. A program may be recertified if the program continues to meet the criteria for certification.

(b) The department shall, in consultation with the Conference of Local Mental Health Directors and representatives of provider organizations, develop the criteria for the certification required by subdivision (a) by July 1, 1992.

(c) (1) The department may, upon the request of a county, delegate to that county the certification task.

(2) Any county to which the certification task is delegated pursuant to paragraph (1) shall use the criteria and format developed by the department.

(d) The department or delegated county shall notify the State Department of Social Services Community Care Licensing Division immediately upon the termination of any certification issued in accordance with subdivision (a).

SEC. 4. Section 11462.01 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11462.01. (a) As of July 1, 1994, group home programs that meet all of the following requirements shall be classified at RCL 13 and RCL 14:

(1) Generate the requisite number of points for RCL 13 or RCL 14.

(2) Only accept children with special treatment needs, as determined through the assessment process required by subdivision (d) of Section 11467.

(3) Have, as part of the group home program, measurable performance standards developed by the county of placement.

(b) Commencing July 1, 1992, and until June 30, 1994, a group home program shall be classified at RCL 13 or RCL 14 if the program meets all of the following requirements:

(1) The group home program is providing, or has proposed to provide, the level of care and services necessary to generate sufficient points in the ratesetting process to be classified at RCL 13 if the rate application is for RCL 13 or to be classified at RCL 14 if the rate application is for RCL 14.

(2) (A) (i) The group home provider shall agree not to accept for placement into a group home program AFDC-FC funded children, including voluntary placements and seriously emotionally disturbed children placed out-of-home pursuant to an individualized education program developed under Section 7572.5 of the Government Code, who have not been approved for placement by an interagency placement committee, as described by Section 4096. The approval shall be in writing and shall indicate that the interagency placement committee has determined the child is seriously emotionally disturbed, as defined by Section 5600.3 and subject to Section 1502.4 of the Health and Safety Code, and that the child needs the level of care provided by the group home.

(ii) For purposes of clause (i), group home providers who accept seriously emotionally disturbed children who are assessed and placed out-of-home pursuant to an individualized education program developed under Section 7572.5 of the Government Code shall be deemed to have met the interagency placement committee approval for placement requirements of clause (i) if the individualized education program assessment indicates that the child has been determined to be seriously emotionally disturbed, as defined in Section 5600.3 and subject to Section 1502.4 of the Health and Safety Code, and needs the level of care described in clause (i).

(iii) Any group home program that, during the 1991–92 fiscal year, was paid a rate at RCL 13 or RCL 14 and applied for RCL 13 or RCL 14 on the 1992–93 fiscal year annual rate application, shall not be required by this subdivision to obtain an interagency placement committee approval, as required by this subdivision, for children placed prior to July 1, 1992, if the child has been certified pursuant to clauses (i) and (ii) of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (3) or clauses (i) and (ii) of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (5) of subdivision (g) of Section 11462, as amended by Section 4 of Chapter 610 of the Statutes of 1991.

(B) (i) Nothing in this subdivision shall prevent the emergency placement of a child into a group home program prior to the determination by the interagency placement committee pursuant to subclause (i) of subparagraph (A) if a licensed mental health professional, as defined in the department's AFDC-FC ratesetting regulations, has evaluated, in writing, the child within 72 hours of placement, and determined the child to be seriously emotionally disturbed and in need of the care and services provided by the group home program.

(ii) The interagency placement committee shall, within 30 days of placement pursuant to clause (i), make the determination required by clause (i) of subparagraph (A).

(iii) If, pursuant to clause (ii), the placement is determined to be appropriate, the committee shall transmit the approval, in writing, to the county placing agency and the group home provider.

(iv) If, pursuant to clause (ii) the placement is determined not to be appropriate, the child shall be removed from the group home and referred to a more appropriate placement, as specified in subdivision (g).

(C) (i) If a county does not have an interagency placement committee, or if a county has an interagency placement committee but procedures are not in place, the placing agency may, until 90 days from the effective date of the amendments adding this provision to this section, make placements in RCL 13 or RCL 14 group homes, if a licensed mental health professional, as defined in Sections 629 to 633, inclusive, of Title 9 of the California Code of Regulations, makes a determination prior to placement that the child is seriously emotionally disturbed.

(ii) With respect to the referral of children referred during the period commencing July 1, 1992, and ending 90 days from the effective date of the amendments adding this provision to this section, without the approval of an interagency placement committee, the committee shall subsequently review the referral within 30 days of the establishment of the committee or the adoption of procedures for the committee. If the committee determines that the placement is not appropriate or that the child no longer needs, or is not benefiting from, placement in an RCL 13 or RCL 14 group home, the committee shall require the removal of the child and a new disposition of the child.

(iii) Commencing 90 days from the effective date of the amendments adding this provision to this section, with respect to AFDC-FC funded children, only those children who are approved for placement by an interagency placement committee may be accepted by a group home under this subdivision.

(iv) Any county that does not establish an interagency placement committee or does not adopt procedures for the committee within 90 days from the effective date of the amendments adding this provision to this section, shall remove any child placed in an RCL 13 or RCL 14 group home within 30 days. Any county that does not remove a child pursuant to this subclause shall be subject to a penalty in the amount of the state and federal financial participation in the AFDC-FC rate paid on behalf of the child commencing on the 31st day and continuing thereafter until the child is removed.

(3) The group home program is certified by the State Department of Mental Health pursuant to Section 4096.5.

(c) The department shall not establish a rate for a group home requesting a program change to RCL 13 or RCL 14 unless the group home provider submits a recommendation from both the host county and the primary placing county that the program is needed and that the provider is willing and capable of operating the program at the level sought. For purposes of this paragraph, "host county," "primary placing county," and "program change" mean the same as defined in the department's AFDC-FC ratesetting regulations.

(d) The effective date of rates set at RCL 13 or RCL 14 shall be the date that all the requirements are met, but not prior to July 1 of that fiscal year. Nothing in this section shall affect RCL 13 or RCL 14 ratesetting determinations in prior years.

(e) Any group home program that has been classified at RCL 13 or RCL 14 pursuant to the requirements of subdivision (b) shall immediately be reclassified at the appropriate lower RCL with a commensurate reduction in rate if either of the following occurs:

(1) The group home program fails to maintain the level of care and services necessary to generate the necessary number of points for RCL 13 or RCL 14, as required by paragraph (1) of subdivision (b), during any 90-day period. No average fiscal year RCL, as used in the department's AFDC-FC ratesetting regulations, or corrective action, as defined in the department's AFDC-FC ratesetting regulations, shall be used to determine the date at which that event has occurred.

(2) The group home program fails to maintain a certified mental health treatment program as required by paragraph (3) of subdivision (b).

(f) The interagency placement committee shall periodically review, but no less often than that required by current law, the placement of the child. If the committee determines that the child no longer needs, or is not benefiting from, placement in a RCL 13 or RCL 14 group home, the committee shall require the removal of the child and a new disposition.

(g) (1) (A) If, at any time subsequent to placement in an RCL 13 or RCL 14 group home program, the interagency placement committee determines either that the child is not seriously emotionally disturbed or is not in need of the care and services provided by the group home program, it shall notify, in writing, both the county placing agency and the group home provider within 10 days of the determination.

(B) The county placing agency shall notify the group home provider, in writing, within five days from the date of the notice from the committee, of the county's plan for removal of the child.

(C) The county placing agency shall remove the child from the group home program within 30 days from the date of the notice from the interagency placement committee.

(2) (A) If a county placing agency does not remove a child within 30 days from the date of the notice from the interagency placement committee, the group home provider shall notify the interagency placement committee and the department, in writing, of the county's failure to remove the child from the group home program.

(B) The group home provider shall make the notification required by subparagraph (A) within five days of the expiration of the 30-day removal period.

(3) Any county placing agency that fails to remove a child from a group home program under this paragraph within 30 days from the date of the notice from the interagency placement committee shall be assessed a penalty in the amount of the state and federal financial participation in the AFDC-FC rate paid on behalf of the child commencing on the 31st day and continuing until the child is removed.

(h) (1) Except as provided in subparagraph (C) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), any RCL 13 or RCL 14 group home provider discovers that it does not have written approval for placement of any AFDC-FC funded child placed on or after July 1, 1992, from the interagency placement committee, it shall notify the county placing agency, in writing, and shall request the county to obtain approval from the interagency placement committee or remove the child from the group home program. A group home provider shall have 30 days from the child's first day of placement to discover the placement error and to notify the county placing agency.

(2) Any county placing agency that receives notification pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (g) shall obtain approval for placement from the interagency placement committee or remove the child from the group home program within 30 days from the date of the notice from the group home provider. The program shall not be reclassified to a lower RCL for a violation of the provisions referred to in this paragraph.

(3) (A) If a county placing agency does not have the placement of a child approved by the interagency placement committee or removed from the group home within 30 days from the date of the notice from the group home provider, the group home provider shall notify the county placing agency and the department, in writing, of the county's failure to have the placement of the child approved or remove the child from the group home program.

(B) The group home provider shall make the notification required by subparagraph (A) within five days after the expiration of the 30-day approval or removal period.

(C) Any group home provider that fails to notify the county placing agency pursuant to subparagraph (A) shall be assessed a penalty in the amount of the AFDC-FC rate paid to the group home provider on behalf of the child commencing on the 31st day of placement and continuing until the county placing agency is notified.

(4) Any county placing agency that fails to have the placement of a child approved or to have the child removed from the group home program within 30 days shall be assessed a penalty in the amount of the state and federal financial participation in the AFDC-FC rate paid on behalf of the child commencing on the 31st day of placement and continuing until the child is removed.

(5) If an RCL 13 or RCL 14 group home provider discovers that it does not have the child's certification as required by clauses (i) and (ii) of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (3) and clauses (i) and (ii) of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (5), of subdivision (g) of Section 11462, as amended by Section 4 of Chapter 610 of the Statutes of 1991 for a child placed prior to July 1, 1992, the group home provider shall be subject to all requirements and penalties provided for in this section beginning July 1, 1992.

(i) The department shall develop regulations to reclassify a program RCL, to reduce a program rate, to recover overpayment, and to obtain payment of assessed penalties as provided in this section.

(j) (1) Nothing in this subparagraph shall prohibit a group home classified at RCL 13 or RCL 14 for purposes of the AFDC-FC program, from accepting private placements of children.

(2) In cases where a referral is not from a public agency and no public funding is involved, there shall be no requirement for public agency review or determination of need.

(3) Children subject to paragraphs (1) and (2) shall have been assessed as seriously emotionally disturbed, as defined in Section 5600.3 and subject to Section 1502.4 of the Health and Safety Code, by a licensed mental health professional, as defined in Sections 629 to 633, inclusive, of Title 9 of the California Code of Regulations.

(k) A child shall not be placed in a group home program classified at an RCL 13 or RCL 14 if the placement is paid for with county-only funds unless the child is assessed as seriously emotionally disturbed, as defined in Section 5600.3, subject to Section 1502.4 of the Health and Safety Code, by a licensed mental health professional, as defined in Sections 629 to 633, inclusive, of Title 9 of the California Code of Regulations.

(m) Notwithstanding subparagraph (B) of paragraph (8) of subdivision (g) of Section 11462, as amended by Section 4 of Chapter 610 of the Statutes of 1991, a group home provider shall be assessed a penalty in the amount of the difference between the rate paid and the standard rate for RCL 3 for the 1991–92 fiscal year for each month of placement for each child for which a program audit conducted on or after July 1, 1992, pursuant to Section 11466.2, finds that the child was not certified during the 1991–92 fiscal year, as required by clauses (i) and (ii) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 1502.4 of the Health and Safety Code, and clauses (i) and (ii) of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (3) and clause (i) of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (5) of subdivision (g) of Section 11462, as amended by Section 4 of Chapter 610 of the Statutes of 1991. The program shall not be reclassified to a lower RCL for a violation of the requirements referred to in this paragraph.

(n) This section shall remain in effect only until July 1, 1994, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before July 1, 1994, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 5. Section 11462.01 is added to Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

11462.01. (a) Commencing July 1, 1994, a group home program shall be classified at RCL 13 or RCL 14 if the program meets all of the following requirements:

(1) The group home program is providing, or has proposed to provide, the level of care and services necessary to generate sufficient points in the ratesetting process to be classified at RCL 13 if the rate application is for RCL 13 or to be classified at RCL 14 if the rate application is for RCL 14.

(2) (A) (i) The group home provider shall agree not to accept for placement into a group home program AFDC-FC funded children, including voluntary placements and seriously emotionally disturbed children placed out-of-home pursuant to an individualized education program developed under Section 7572.5 of the Government Code, who have not been approved for placement by an interagency placement committee, as described by Section 4096. The approval shall be in writing and shall indicate that the interagency placement committee has determined the child is seriously emotionally disturbed, as defined by Section 5600.3 and subject to Section 1502.4 of the Health and Safety Code, and that the child needs the level of care provided by the group home.

(ii) For purposes of clause (i), group home providers who accept seriously emotionally disturbed children who are assessed and placed out-of-home pursuant to an individualized education program developed under Section 7572.5 of the Government Code shall be deemed to have met the interagency placement committee approval for placement requirements of clause (i) if the individualized education program assessment indicates that the child has been determined to be seriously emotionally disturbed, as defined in Section 5600.3 and subject to Section 1502.4 of the Health and Safety Code, and needs the level of care described in clause (i).

(B) (i) Nothing in this subdivision shall prevent the emergency placement of a child into a group home program prior to the determination by the interagency placement committee pursuant to subclause (i) of subparagraph (A) if a licensed mental health professional, as defined in the department's AFDC-FC ratesetting regulations, has evaluated, in writing, the child within 72 hours of placement, and determined the child to be seriously emotionally disturbed and in need of the care and services provided by the group home program.

(ii) The interagency placement committee shall, within 30 days of placement pursuant to clause (i), make the determination required by clause (i) of subparagraph (A).

(iii) If, pursuant to clause (ii), the placement is determined to be appropriate, the committee shall transmit the approval, in writing, to the county placing agency and the group home provider.

(iv) If, pursuant to clause (ii) the placement is determined not to be appropriate, the child shall be removed from the group home and referred to a more appropriate placement, as specified in subdivision (f).

(C) Commencing December 15, 1992, with respect to AFDC-FC funded children, only those children who are approved for placement by an interagency placement committee may be accepted by a group home under this subdivision.

(3) The group home program is certified by the State Department of Mental Health pursuant to Section 4096.5.

(b) The department shall not establish a rate for a group home requesting a program change to RCL 13 or RCL 14 unless the group home provider submits a recommendation from the host county or the primary placing county that the program is needed and that the provider is willing and capable of operating the program at the level sought. For purposes of this subdivision, "host county," "primary placing county," and "program change" mean the same as defined in the department's AFDC-FC ratesetting regulations.

(c) The effective date of rates set at RCL 13 or RCL 14 shall be the date that all the requirements are met, but not prior to July 1 of that fiscal year. Nothing in this section shall affect RCL 13 or RCL 14 ratesetting determinations in prior years.

(d) Any group home program that has been classified at RCL 13 or RCL 14 pursuant to the requirements of subdivision (a) shall immediately be reclassified at the appropriate lower RCL with a commensurate reduction in rate if either of the following occurs:

(1) The group home program fails to maintain the level of care and services necessary to generate the necessary number of points for RCL 13 or RCL 14, as required by paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), during any 90-day period. No average fiscal year RCL, as used in the department's AFDC-FC ratesetting regulations, or corrective action, as defined in the department's AFDC-FC ratesetting regulations, shall be used to determine the date at which that event has occurred.

(2) The group home program fails to maintain a certified mental health treatment program as required by paragraph (3) of subdivision (a).

(e) The interagency placement committee shall periodically review, but no less often than that required by current law, the placement of the child. If the committee determines that the child no longer needs, or is not benefiting from, placement in a RCL 13 or RCL 14 group home, the committee shall require the removal of the child and a new disposition.

(f) (1) (A) If, at any time subsequent to placement in an RCL 13 or RCL 14 group home program, the interagency placement committee determines either that the child is not seriously emotionally disturbed or is not in need of the care and services provided by the group home program, it shall notify, in writing, both the county placing agency and the group home provider within 10 days of the determination.

(B) The county placing agency shall notify the group home provider, in writing, within five days from the date of the notice from the committee, of the county's plan for removal of the child.

(C) The county placing agency shall remove the child from the group home program within 30 days from the date of the notice from the interagency placement committee.

(2) (A) If a county placing agency does not remove a child within 30 days from the date of the notice from the interagency placement committee, the group home provider shall notify the interagency placement committee and the department, in writing, of the county's failure to remove the child from the group home program.

(B) The group home provider shall make the notification required by subparagraph (A) within five days of the expiration of the 30-day removal period. If notification is made, a group home provider shall not be subject to an overpayment determination due to failure of the county placing agency to remove the child.

(3) Any county placing agency that fails to remove a child from a group home program under this paragraph within 30 days from the date of the notice from the interagency placement committee shall be assessed a penalty in the amount of the state and federal financial participation in the AFDC-FC rate paid on behalf of the child commencing on the 31st day and continuing until the child is removed.

(g) (1) If any RCL 13 or RCL 14 group home provider discovers that it does not have written approval for placement of any AFDC-FC funded child placed on or after December 15, 1992, from the interagency placement committee, it shall notify the county placing agency, in writing, and shall request the county to obtain approval from the interagency placement committee or remove the child from the group home program. A group home provider shall have 30 days from the child's first day of placement to discover the placement error and to notify the county placing agency.

(2) Any county placing agency that receives notification pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (f) shall obtain approval for placement from the interagency placement committee or remove the child from the group home program within 30 days from the date of the notice from the group home provider. The program shall not be reclassified to a lower RCL for a violation of the provisions referred to in this paragraph.

(3) (A) If a county placing agency does not have the placement of a child approved by the interagency placement committee or removed from the group home within 30 days from the date of the notice from the group home provider, the group home provider shall notify the county placing agency and the department, in writing, of the county's failure to have the placement of the child approved or remove the child from the group home program.

(B) The group home provider shall make the notification required by subparagraph (A) within five days after the expiration of the 30-day approval or removal period. If notification is made, a group home provider shall not be subject to an overpayment determination due to failure of the county placing agency to remove the child.

(C) Any group home provider that fails to notify the county placing agency pursuant to subparagraph (A) shall be assessed a penalty in the amount of the AFDC-FC rate paid to the group home provider on behalf of the child commencing on the 31st day of placement and continuing until the county placing agency is notified.

(4) Any county placing agency that fails to have the placement of a child approved or to have the child removed from the group home program within 30 days shall be assessed a penalty in the amount of the state and federal financial participation in the AFDC-FC rate paid on behalf of the child commencing on the 31st day of placement and continuing until the child is removed.

(h) The department shall develop regulations to obtain payment of assessed penalties as provided in this section. For audit purposes and the application of penalties for RCL 13 and RCL 14 programs, the department shall apply statutory provisions that were in effect during the period for which the audit was conducted.

(i) (1) Nothing in this subparagraph shall prohibit a group home classified at RCL 13 or RCL 14 for purposes of the AFDC-FC program, from accepting private placements of children.

(2) In cases where a referral is not from a public agency and no public funding is involved, there shall be no requirement for public agency review or determination of need.

(3) Children subject to paragraphs (1) and (2) shall have been assessed as seriously emotionally disturbed, as defined in Section 5600.3 and subject to Section 1502.4 of the Health and Safety Code, by a licensed mental health professional, as defined in Sections 629 to 633, inclusive, of Title 9 of the California Code of Regulations.

(j) A child shall not be placed in a group home program classified at an RCL 13 or RCL 14 if the placement is paid for with county-only funds unless the child is assessed as seriously emotionally disturbed, as defined in Section 5600.3, subject to Section 1502.4 of the Health and Safety Code, by a licensed mental health professional, as defined in Sections 629 to 633, inclusive, of Title 9 of the California Code of Regulations.

(k) This section shall become operative on July 1, 1994.

SEC. 6. The State Department of Social Services shall adopt regulations to implement this act in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code). The adoption of any emergency regulations that are filed with the Office of Administrative Law within one year or other reasonable time period up to 18 months after the effective date of this act shall be deemed an emergency necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, safety, or general welfare.

Regulations adopted pursuant to this section shall remain in effect for nor more than 120 days.

SEC. 7. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide for continuity and stability of services to seriously emotionally disturbed children, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 200

An act to amend Section 830.1 of the Penal Code, relating to peace officers, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor July 15, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 830.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

830.1. (a) Any sheriff, undersheriff, or deputy sheriff, employed in that capacity, of a county, any chief of police, employed in that capacity, of a city, any police officer, employed in that capacity and appointed by the chief of police or the chief executive of the agency, of a city, any chief of police, or police officer of a district (including police officers of the San Diego Unified Port District Harbor Police) authorized by statute to maintain a police department, any marshal or deputy marshal of a municipal court, any constable or deputy constable, employed in that capacity, of a judicial district, any port warden or special officer of the Harbor Department of the City of Los Angeles, or any inspector or investigator employed in that capacity in the office of a district attorney, is a peace officer. The authority of these peace officers extends to any place in the state, as follows:

(2) Where the peace officer has the prior consent of the chief of police, or person authorized by him or her to give consent, if the place is within a city or of the sheriff, or person authorized by him or her to give consent, if the place is within a county.

(3) As to any public offense committed or which there is probable cause to believe has been committed in the peace officer's presence, and with respect to which there is immediate danger to person or property, or of the escape of the perpetrator of the offense.

(b) Special agents and Attorney General investigators of the Department of Justice are peace officers, and those assistant chiefs, deputy chiefs, chiefs, deputy directors, and division directors designated as peace officers by the Attorney General are peace officers. The authority of these peace officers extends to any place in the state where a public offense has been committed or where there is probable cause to believe one has been committed.

CHAPTER 201

An act to add Section 32100.7 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to hospital districts, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 15, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 32100.7 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

32100.7. Notwithstanding Section 32100.01, the Board of Directors of Valley Health System, a local hospital district, may adopt a resolution to increase the number of members of its board of directors from five to seven without the necessity of a petition or approval thereof by voters residing within the district. The resolution shall become effective on the date and subject to any conditions specified in the resolution. The additional vacancies created by the expansion shall be filled by election. Notwithstanding Section 32100.02, if Valley Health System has duly adopted election of directors by zones pursuant to Section 32100.1, the additional vacancies created by expansion shall likewise be filled by election by zones. Notwithstanding Section 32100.1, the initial election to fill the additional vacancies may be at any one of the regular election dates provided for in Section 2500 of the Elections Code and the resolution shall designate the election date. The director elected at the election but receiving the lesser number of votes shall hold office until a successor elected at the next following general election takes office pursuant to Section 23556 of the Elections Code, and the director elected at the election receiving the greater number of votes shall hold office until a successor elected at the general election two years thereafter takes office. After the expiration of the initial terms as provided in the previous sentence, the terms of directors elected to fill each of the additional vacancies shall be as provided in Section 32100.

SEC. 2. Section 1 of this act shall become operative only if the executive officer of the Riverside County Local Agency Formation Commission executes a certificate of completion pursuant to Section 57200 of the Government Code for Riverside County Local Agency Formation Commission Case No. 94-16.

SEC. 3. The Legislature finds and declares that a special law is necessary and that a general law cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution because of unique circumstances with respect to the Valley Health System Hospital District. The facts constituting this necessity are the necessity for needed reorganization, the creation of zones, and boundary changes to enhance the efficiency and the services of the district.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order for needed reorganization, the creation of zones, and boundary changes to occur, as soon as possible, to make the Valley Health System Hospital District more efficient and better able to provide services, this act must take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 202

An act to amend Section 146c of the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor July 15, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 146c of the Penal Code is amended to read:

146c. Every person who designates any nongovernmental organization by any name, including, but not limited to any name that incorporates the term "peace officer," "police," or "law enforcement," that would reasonably be understood to imply that the organization is composed of law enforcement personnel, when, in fact, less than 80 percent of the voting members of the organization are law enforcement personnel or firefighters, active or retired, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Every person who solicits another to become a member of any organization so named, of which less than 80 percent of the voting members are law enforcement personnel or firefighters, or to make a contribution thereto or subscribe to or advertise in a publication of the organization, or who sells or gives to another any badge, pin, membership card, or other article indicating membership in the organization, knowing that less than 80 percent of the voting members are law enforcement personnel or firefighters, active or retired, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

As used in this section, "law enforcement personnel" includes those mentioned in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2, plus any other officers in any segment of law enforcement who are employed by the state or any of its political subdivisions.

CHAPTER 203

An act to amend Sections 6401 and 6401.5 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to unlawful detainer assistants, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 15, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6401 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6401. This chapter does not apply to any of the following:

(a) Any government employee who is acting in the course of his or her employment.

(b) A member of the State Bar of California, or his or her employee or agent, or an independent contractor while acting on behalf of a member of the State Bar.

(c) Any employee of a nonprofit, tax-exempt corporation who assists clients free of charge.

(d) A licensed real estate broker or licensed real estate salesperson, as defined in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 10130) of Part 1 of Division 4, who acts pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 10131 on an unlawful detainer claim as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 6400, and who is a party to the unlawful detainer action.

SEC. 2. Section 6401.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6401.5. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to sanction, authorize, or encourage the practice of law by nonlawyers. Registration under this chapter, or an exemption from registration, shall not serve in any way to insulate or immunize any person from prosecution pursuant to Section 6125, 6126, or 6127.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

To avoid interference with the ability of licensed real estate brokers and salespersons to participate in unlawful detainer proceedings, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 204

An act to add Section 1363.5 to the Civil Code, relating to common interest developments.

[Approved by Governor July 15, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1363.5 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

1363.5. (a) The articles of incorporation of any common interest development association filed with the Secretary of State on or after January 1, 1995, shall include a statement that shall be in addition to the statement of purposes of the corporation, and that (1) identifies the corporation as an association formed to manage a common interest development under the Davis-Stirling Common Interest Development Act, (2) states the business or corporate office of the association, if any, and, if the office is not on the site of the common interest development, states the nine-digit ZIP Code, front street, and nearest cross street for the physical location of the common interest development, and (3) states the name and address of the association's managing agent, as defined in Section 1363.1, if any.

(b) The statement of principal business activity contained in the annual statement filed by an incorporated association with the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 1502 of the Corporations Code shall also contain the statement specified in subdivision (a).

CHAPTER 205

An act to add Section 375.5 to the Water Code, relating to water.

[Approved by Governor July 15, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 375.5 is added to the Water Code, to read:

375.5. (a) A public entity, as defined by Section 375, may undertake water conservation and public education programs in conjunction with school districts, public libraries, or any other public entity.

(b) A public entity may take into account any programs undertaken pursuant to this section in a rate structure design implemented pursuant to Section 375.

(c) The Legislature finds and declares that a program undertaken pursuant to this section is in the public interest, serves a public purpose, and will promote the health, welfare, and safety of the people of the state.

CHAPTER 206

An act relating to local agency costs, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 15, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of twenty-four million two hundred fifty-two thousand dollars ($24,252,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Controller for the payment of claims for reimbursement of state-mandated costs, according to the following schedule:

(a) The sum of twenty-two million eight hundred forty-one thousand dollars ($22,841,000) for the reimbursement of claims of school districts, as specified, to be allocated as follows:

(1) Six hundred forty-five thousand dollars ($645,000) for the payment of claims of school districts seeking reimbursable one-time state-mandated costs incurred pursuant to Chapter 416 of the Statutes of 1991 (Iraq-Kuwait Military Duty), for the 1990–91 and 1991–92 fiscal years.

(2) Four million nine hundred forty-nine thousand dollars ($4,949,000) for the payment of claims of school districts seeking reimbursable state-mandated costs incurred pursuant to Chapter 818 of the Statutes of 1991 (AIDS Prevention Instruction), for January 1, 1992, to June 30, 1992, and the 1992–93, 1993–94, and 1994–95 fiscal years.

(3) Three million nine hundred thousand dollars ($3,900,000) for the payment of claims of school districts seeking reimbursable state-mandated costs incurred pursuant to Chapter 1675 of the Statutes of 1984 (School Testing-Physical Fitness), for the 1990–91 through the 1994–95 fiscal years.

(4) Five million one hundred ninety-one thousand dollars ($5,191,000) for the payment of claims of school districts seeking reimbursable state-mandated costs that were deferred by the Legislature for costs incurred pursuant to Chapter 1659 of the Statutes of 1984 (Emergency Procedures), for the 1985–86 through 1993–94 fiscal years.

(5) Two million eight hundred six thousand dollars ($2,806,000) for the payment of claims of school districts seeking reimbursable state-mandated costs that were deferred by the Legislature for costs incurred pursuant to Chapter 498 of the Statutes of 1983 (Model Curriculum Standards), for the 1988–89 through 1992–93 fiscal years.

(6) Nine hundred fifty thousand dollars ($950,000) for the payment of claims of school districts seeking one-time reimbursable state-mandated costs that were deferred by the Legislature for costs incurred pursuant to Chapter 498 of the Statutes of 1983 (Exam Proctors), for the 1987–88 and 1988–89 fiscal years.

(7) Four million four hundred thousand dollars ($4,400,000) for the payment of claims of school districts seeking reimbursable state-mandated costs that were deferred by the Legislature for costs incurred pursuant to Chapter 1607 of the Statutes of 1984, Chapter 78 of the Statutes of 1988, Chapter 1457 of the Statutes of 1989 (School Crimes Statistics Reporting and Validation), for the 1988–89 through 1992–93 fiscal years.

(b) One million four hundred eleven thousand dollars ($1,411,000) to the State Mandates Claims Fund, for the payment of claims from local agencies and school districts, including, but not limited to, Chapter 1088 of the Statutes of 1988 (Search Warrant for AIDS), and Chapter 1171 of the Statutes of 1989 (Cancer Presumption-Peace Officers).

(c) All amounts appropriated in subdivision (a) are for the purposes of meeting the funding guarantee for education programs pursuant to Section 8 of Article XVI of the California Constitution.

(d) If any of the scheduled amounts in subdivision (a) are insufficient to provide full reimbursement of costs, the Controller may, upon notifying the Director of Finance in writing, augment those deficient amounts from the unencumbered balance of any other scheduled amounts therein, except that unencumbered balances in any paragraph of subdivision (a) may be used to augment deficient amounts only in those items. No order may be issued pursuant to this provision unless written notification of necessity is provided to the chairperson of the committee in each house which considers appropriations and the Chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee or his or her designee.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to settle local government claims against the state for mandated costs and end hardship to local governments, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 207

An act to amend Section 24953 of, and to add Sections 676.5, 25278, and 25281 to, the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 15, 1998. Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 676.5 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

676.5. A "water tender vehicle" is a vehicle designed to carry not less than 1,500 gallons of water, and used primarily for transporting and delivering water to be applied by other vehicles or pumping equipment at fire emergency scenes.

SEC. 2. Section 24953 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

24953. (a) Any turn signal system used to give a signal of intention to turn right or left shall project a flashing white or amber light visible to the front and a flashing red or amber light visible to the rear.

(b) Side-mounted turn signal lamps projecting a flashing amber light to either side may be used to supplement the front and rear turn signals. Side-mounted turn signal lamps mounted to the rear of the center of the vehicle may project a flashing red light no part of which shall be visible from the front.

(c) In addition to any required turn signal lamps, any vehicle may be equipped with supplemental rear turn signal lamps mounted to the rear of the rearmost portion of the driver's seat in its rearmost position.

(d) In addition to any required or authorized turn signal lamps, any vehicle may be equipped with supplemental rear turn signal lamps that are mounted on, or are an integral portion of, the outside rearview mirrors, so long as the lamps flash simultaneously with the rear turn signal lamps, the light emitted from the lamps is projected only to the rear of the vehicle and is not visible to the driver under normal operating conditions, and the lamps do not project a glaring light.

SEC. 3. Section 25278 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

25278. Any vehicle owned or operated by a land surveyor or civil engineer licensed to practice in the this state may display flashing amber warning lights to the front, sides, or rear, if the vehicle is engaged in any phase of a project that requires surveying or surveying related activities to be performed on a highway, or in the vicinity of a highway, and the vehicle is parked on the highway or moving at a speed lower than the normal flow of traffic. The use of, or absence of, amber warning lights as authorized in this section shall not serve as the basis for any civil action, a defense to a civil action, or establish negligence as a matter of law or negligence per se for comparative fault purposes.

SEC. 4. Section 25281 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

25281. A privately owned or operated water tender vehicle, when used exclusively for contract emergency services provided to any public agency, may display flashing amber warning lights to the front, sides, or rear of the vehicle when necessarily parked on a highway or other public road, blocking or partially blocking a highway or other public road, traveling at a speed slower than the normal flow of traffic, or crossing or entering a highway or other public road. The flashing amber lights shall not be displayed when the water tender vehicle is traveling to or from an emergency at the normal speed and flow of traffic, except when the vehicle is traveling in escort with a fire engine or other authorized emergency vehicle. The lights shall be covered with an opaque material when not being displayed.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

To improve visibility and warning of potential dangers on the highways, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 208

An act to add Section 19413.1 to the Business and Professions Code, relating to horses.

[Approved by Governor July 15, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19413.1 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

19413.1. "Prohibited drug substance" is any drug substance, medication, or chemical, whether natural or synthetic, or a metabolite or analogue thereof, foreign to the horse, whose use is not expressly authorized by the board. This includes, but is not limited to, any substance determined to be a stimulant, depressant, local anesthetic, or narcotic, or any drug, regardless of how harmless or innocuous it might otherwise be, which could interfere with the detection of any prohibited drug. "Prohibited drug substance" includes any substance not approved for use in the United States, including, but not limited to, any drug or substance available in a country outside the United States, any controlled substance listed in Part 1308 of Title 21 of the Code of Federal Regulations, and any substance the approval of which has been withdrawn.

CHAPTER 209

An act to amend Section 15333.3 of the Government Code, relating to economic development.

[Approved by Governor July 15, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 15333.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15333.3. (a) The Western Commercial Space Center, a nonprofit corporation, is designated as the California Spaceport Authority to foster the development of support and other unique services required for the development of commercial launch, manufacturing, and academic and research operations related to space flight.

(b) The California Spaceport Authority shall be an official recipient of federal grants for programs other than for-profit commercial activities, and which may include space related studies, services, infrastructure improvements and modernization, and defense transition programs to the extent permitted by federal law. Any other entity eligible under federal law may also receive federal grant funds.

(c) The authority shall be an advocate in support of commercial space businesses, facilities, programs, developments, alterations, modifications, and other actions impacting development of commercial space business by state agencies and commissions. To the extent authorized under the Internal Revenue Code, the authority shall define and promote regulatory changes throughout the state that will enhance the development of commercial space business. To the extent authorized under the Internal Revenue Code, the authority shall report on the economic impact of commercial space business in terms of jobs to the Legislature and other state agencies and commissions developing laws, regulations, decisions, or determinations affecting the creation of commercial space businesses throughout the state.

(d) In accordance with the California Defense Conversion Act of 1993 (Article 3.6 (commencing with Section 15346)) and with the concurrence of the California Defense Conversion Council, the authority shall coordinate with regional technology alliances in the development of commercial space businesses to achieve the optimum utilization of defense conversion and other federal and state grant funds.

The authority shall evaluate the benefits of establishing a Central Coast Regional Technology Alliance around the California Commercial Spaceport being built at Vandenberg Air Force Base, and report its recommendation to the California Defense Conversion Council.

CHAPTER 210

An act to amend Section 2052 of the Public Contract Code, relating to public contracts.

[Approved by Governor July 15, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2052 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

2052. (a) All awarding departments and local agencies shall accept a certification by any participating state agency whose certification criteria complies with Part 23 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations. All awarding departments shall, and local agencies may, accept a certification by any participating local agency whose certification criteria complies with Part 23. Those participating state or local agency certifications shall be deemed sufficient to qualify minority, women, and disadvantaged business enterprises for purposes of contracts that are fully or partially funded by the federal government, contracts fully or partially funded by all state agencies, and contracts fully or partially funded by all local agencies, as defined in Part 3 (commencing with Section 20100).

An act to amend Sections 7151.5 and 7152.5 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to anatomical gifts.

[Approved by Governor July 15, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7151.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

7151.5. (a) Except as provided in Section 7152, the coroner or medical examiner may release and permit the removal of a part from a body within that official's custody, for transplantation, therapy, or reconditioning, if all of the following occur:

(1) The official has received a request for the part from a hospital, physician, surgeon, or procurement organization or, in the case of a pacemaker, from a person who reconditions pacemakers.

(2) A reasonable effort has been made to locate and inform persons listed in subdivision (a) of Section 7151 of their option to make, or object to making, an anatomical gift. Except in the case of corneal material to be used for the purpose of transplantation or where the useful life of the part does not permit, a reasonable effort shall be deemed to have been made when a search for the persons has been underway for at least 12 hours.

(3) The official does not know of a refusal or contrary indication by the decedent or objection by a person having priority to act as listed in subdivision (a) of Section 7151.

(4) The removal will be by a physician, surgeon, or technician; but in the case of eyes, by one of them or by an enucleator.

(5) The removal will not interfere with any autopsy or investigation.

(6) The removal will be in accordance with accepted medical standards.

(7) Cosmetic restoration will be done, if appropriate.

(b) Except as provided in Section 7152, if the body is not within the custody of the coroner or medical examiner, a hospital may release and permit the removal of a part from a body if the hospital, after a reasonable effort has been made to locate and inform persons listed in subdivision (a) of Section 7151 of their option to make, or object to the making, an anatomical gift, determines and certifies that the persons are not available. A search for the persons listed in subdivision (a) of Section 7151 may be initiated in anticipation of death, but, except in the case of corneal material to be used for the purpose of transplantation or where the useful life of the part does not permit, the determination may not be made until the search has been underway for at least 12 hours. The search shall include a check of local police missing persons records, examination of personal effects, and the questioning of any persons visiting the decedent before his or her death or in the hospital, accompanying the decedent's body, or reporting the death, in order to obtain information that might lead to the location of any persons listed in subdivision (a) of Section 7151.

(c) Except as provided in Section 7152, if the body is not within the custody of the coroner or medical examiner or a hospital, the local public health officer may release and permit the removal of any part from a body in the local public health officer's custody for transplantation, therapy, or reconditioning if the requirements of subdivision (a) are met.

(d) An official or hospital releasing and permitting the removal of a part shall maintain a permanent record of the name of the decedent, the person making the request, the date and purpose of the request, the part requested, and the person to whom it was released.

SEC. 2. Section 7152.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

7152.5. (a) If, at or near the time of death of a patient, there is no medical record that the patient has made or refused to make an anatomical gift, the hospital shall comply with the protocol developed pursuant to Section 7184.

(b) The following persons shall make a reasonable search for a document of gift or other information identifying the bearer as a donor or as an individual who has refused to make an anatomical gift:

(1) A law enforcement officer finding an individual who the officer believes is dead or near death.

(2) A hospital, upon the admission of an individual at or near the time of death, if there is not immediately available any other source of that information.

(3) Ambulance or emergency medical personnel, upon providing emergency medical services to an individual, when it appears that death of that individual may be imminent. This requirement shall be secondary to the requirement that ambulance or emergency medical personnel provide emergency medical services to the patient.

(c) If a document of gift or evidence of refusal to make an anatomical gift is located by the search required by paragraph (1) of subdivision (b), and the individual or body to whom it relates is taken to a hospital, the hospital shall be notified of the contents and the document or other evidence shall be sent to the hospital.

(d) If, at or near the time of death of a patient, a hospital knows that an anatomical gift has been made pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 7151 or a release and removal of a part has been permitted pursuant to Section 7151.5, or that a patient or an individual identified as in transit to the hospital is a donor, the hospital shall notify the donee if one is named and known to the hospital; if not, it shall notify an appropriate procurement organization. The hospital shall cooperate in the implementation of the anatomical gift or release and removal of a part.

(e) A person who fails to discharge the duties imposed by this section is not subject to criminal or civil liability but is subject to appropriate administrative sanctions.

CHAPTER 212

An act to add Section 6524 to the Government Code, relating to joint exercise of powers.

[Approved by Governor July 15, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6524 is added to the Government Code, to read:

6524. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, a private, nonprofit children's hospital in a county of the third class may enter into a joint powers agreement with any public agency, as defined in Section 6500.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares that a special law is necessary and that a general law cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution because of the unique circumstances facing the Children's Hospital and Health Center of San Diego as it works with San Diego and Imperial Counties, and other adjacent counties, in moving towards a comprehensive and cost-effective system of managed care for children.

An act to amend Section 654.2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to minors.

[Approved by Governor July 15, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 654.2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

654.2. (a) If a petition has been filed by the prosecuting attorney to declare a minor a ward of the court under Section 602, the court may, without adjudging the minor a ward of the court and with the consent of the minor and the minor's parents or guardian, continue any hearing on a petition for six months and order the minor to participate in a program of supervision as set forth in Section 654. If the probation officer recommends additional time to enable the minor to complete the program, the court at its discretion may order an extension. Fifteen days prior to the final conclusion of the program of supervision undertaken pursuant to this section, the probation officer shall submit to the court a followup report of the minor's participation in the program. The minor and the minor's parents or guardian shall be ordered to appear at the conclusion of the six-month period and at the conclusion of each additional three-month period. If the minor successfully completes the program of supervision, the court shall order the petition be dismissed. If the minor has not successfully completed the program of supervision, proceedings on the petition shall proceed no later than 12 months from the date the petition was filed.

(b) If the minor is eligible for Section 654 supervision, and the probation officer believes the minor would benefit from a program of supervision pursuant to this section, the probation officer may, in referring the affidavit described in Section 653.5 to the prosecuting attorney, recommend informal supervision as provided in this section.

CHAPTER 214

An act to amend Section 2891 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to public utilities.

[Approved by Governor July 15, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2891 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

2891. (a) No telephone or telegraph corporation shall make available to any other person or corporation, without first obtaining the residential subscriber's consent, in writing, any of the following information:

(1) The subscriber's personal calling patterns, including any listing of the telephone or other access numbers called by the subscriber, but excluding the identification to the person called of the person calling and the telephone number from which the call was placed, subject to the restrictions in Section 2893, and also excluding billing information concerning the person calling which federal law or regulation requires a telephone corporation to provide to the person called.

(2) The residential subscriber's credit or other personal financial information, except when the corporation is ordered by the commission to provide this information to any electrical, gas, heat, telephone, telegraph, or water corporation, or centralized credit check system, for the purpose of determining the creditworthiness of new utility subscribers.

(3) The services which the residential subscriber purchases from the corporation or from independent suppliers of information services who use the corporation's telephone or telegraph line to provide service to the residential subscriber.

(4) Demographic information about individual residential subscribers, or aggregate information from which individual identities and characteristics have not been removed.

(b) Any residential subscriber who gives his or her written consent for the release of one or more of the categories of personal information specified in subdivision (a) shall be informed by the telephone or telegraph corporation regarding the identity of each person or corporation to whom the information has been released, upon written request. The corporation shall notify every residential subscriber of the provisions of this subdivision whenever consent is requested pursuant to this subdivision.

(c) Any residential subscriber who has, pursuant to subdivision (b), given written consent for the release of one or more of the categories of personal information specified in subdivision (a) may rescind this consent upon submission of a written notice to the telephone or telegraph corporation. The corporation shall cease to make available any personal information about the subscriber, within 30 days following receipt of notice given pursuant to this subdivision.

(d) This section does not apply to any of the following:

(1) Information provided by residential subscribers for inclusion in the corporation's directory of subscribers.

(2) Information customarily provided by the corporation through directory assistance services.

(3) Postal ZIP Code information.

(4) Information provided under supervision of the commission to a collection agency by the telephone corporation exclusively for the collection of unpaid debts.

(5) Information provided to an emergency service agency responding to a 911 telephone call or any other call communicating an imminent threat to life or property.

(6) Information provided to a law enforcement agency in response to lawful process.

(7) Information which is required by the commission pursuant to its jurisdiction and control over telephone and telegraph corporations.

(8) Information transmitted between telephone or telegraph corporations pursuant to the furnishing of telephone service between or within service areas.

(9) Information required to be provided by the corporation pursuant to rules and orders of the commission or the Federal Communications Commission regarding the provision over telephone lines by parties other than the telephone and telegraph corporations of telephone or information services.

(10) The name and address of the lifeline customers of a telephone corporation provided by that telephone corporation to a public utility for the sole purpose of low-income ratepayer assistance outreach efforts. The telephone corporation receiving the information request pursuant to this paragraph may charge the requesting utility for the cost of the search and release of the requested information. The commission, in its annual low-income ratepayer assistance report, shall assess whether this information has been helpful in the low-income ratepayer assistance outreach efforts.

(e) Every violation is a grounds for a civil suit by the aggrieved residential subscriber against the telephone or telegraph corporation and its employees responsible for the violation.

(f) For purposes of this section, "access number" means a telex, teletex, facsimile, computer modem, or any other code which is used by a residential subscriber of a telephone or telegraph corporation to direct a communication to another subscriber of the same or another telephone or telegraph corporation.

CHAPTER 215

An act to add Section 828.3 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to juveniles.

[Approved by Governor July 15, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 828.3 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

828.3. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, information relating to the taking of a minor into custody on the basis that he or she has committed a crime against the property, students, or personnel of a school district or a finding by the juvenile court that the minor has committed such a crime may be exchanged between law enforcement personnel, the school district superintendent, and the principal of a public school in which the minor is enrolled as a student if the offense was against the property, students, or personnel of that school.

An act to amend Section 12001 of, and to add and repeal Section 12001.5 of, the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to pest control.

[Approved by Governor July 15, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12001 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

12001. No person shall act, or offer to act, as an agricultural pest control adviser without first having secured an agricultural pest control adviser license from the director. Officials of federal, state, and county departments of agriculture and the University of California personnel engaged in official duties relating to agricultural use are exempt from this section if any recommendation by any of these persons as to a specific application on a specific parcel is made in writing. Officials of districts formed pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 5780) of Division 5 of the Public Resources Code are exempt from this section until July 1, 1995, if any recommendation by any of these persons as to a specific application on a specific parcel is in writing.

SEC. 2. Section 12001.5 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

12001.5. (a) The director may adopt, by regulation, alternative minimum criteria based on education or technical experience for applicants for an agricultural pest control adviser license. These alternative minimum qualifications shall apply only to persons who, at the time of license application, are officials of districts formed pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 5780) of Division 5 of the Public Resources Code.

(b) This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1995, and, as of January 1, 1996, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1996, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

CHAPTER 217

An act to amend Section 653t of the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor July 15, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 653t of the Penal Code is amended to read:

653t. (a) A person commits a public offense if the person knowingly and maliciously interrupts, disrupts, impedes, or otherwise interferes with the transmission of a communication over an amateur or a citizen's band radio frequency, the purpose of which communication is to inform or inquire about an emergency.

(b) In this section, "emergency" means a condition or circumstance in which an individual is or is reasonably believed by the person transmitting the communication to be in imminent danger of serious bodily injury, in which property is or is reasonably believed by the person transmitting the communication to be in imminent danger of extensive damage or destruction, or in which that injury or destruction has occurred and the person transmitting is attempting to summon assistance.

(c) A violation of this section is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000), by imprisonment in a county jail not to exceed six months, or by both, unless, as a result of the commission of the offense, serious bodily injury or property loss in excess of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) occurs, in which event the offense is a felony.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Section 4035.1 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to pharmacy.

[Approved by Governor July 15, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4035.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4035.1. "Hospital pharmacy" means and includes a pharmacy, licensed by the board, located within any hospital, institution or establishment that maintains and operates organized facilities for the diagnosis, care and treatment of human illnesses to which persons may be admitted for overnight stay and that meets all of the requirements of this chapter and the rules and regulations of the board.

When, in the opinion of the board, a high standard of patient safety, consistent with good patient care, can be provided by the licensure of a pharmacy within a hospital, that does not meet all of the requirements for licensure as a hospital pharmacy, the board may waive any requirements pertaining to minimum equipment, minimum space, sanitary facilities, waiting area, or any other licensing requirements, provided that when the waiver of any of the above requirements is granted by the board the pharmaceutical services to be rendered by this pharmacy shall be limited to the furnishing of drugs to patients registered for treatment in the hospital, whether or not they are actually staying in the hospital, or to emergency cases under treatment in the hospital.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a hospital pharmacy may be located outside of the hospital, in another physical plant that is regulated under a hospital's consolidated license issued pursuant to Section 1250.8 of the Health and Safety Code. As a condition of licensure by the board, the pharmacy in another physical plant shall provide pharmaceutical services only to registered hospital patients who are on the premises of the same physical plant in which the pharmacy is located. The pharmacy services provided shall be directly related to the services or treatment plan administered in the physical plant. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to restrict or expand the services that a hospital pharmacy may provide.

An act to amend Section 798.80 of the Civil Code, relating to mobilehomes.

[Approved by Governor July 15, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 798.80 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

798.80. (a) Not less than 30 days nor more than one year prior to an owner of a mobilehome park entering into a written listing agreement with a licensed real estate broker, as defined in Article 1 (commencing with Section 10130) of Chapter 3 of Part 1 of Division 4 of the Business and Professions Code, for the sale of the park, or offering to sell the park to any party, the owner shall provide written notice of his or her intention to sell the mobilehome park by first-class mail or by personal delivery to the president, secretary, and treasurer of any resident organization formed by homeowners in the mobilehome park as a nonprofit corporation, pursuant to Section 23701v of the Revenue and Taxation Code, stock cooperative corporation, or other entity for purposes of converting the mobilehome park to condominium or stock cooperative ownership interests and for purchasing the mobilehome park from the management of the mobilehome park. An offer to sell a park shall not be construed as an offer under this subdivision unless it is initiated by the park owner or agent.

(b) An owner of a mobilehome park shall not be required to comply with subdivision (a) unless the following conditions are met:

(2) The resident organization has first notified the park owner or manager in writing that the park residents are interested in purchasing the park. The initial notice by the resident organization shall be made prior to a written listing or offer to sell the park by the park owner, and the resident organization shall give subsequent notice once each year thereafter that the park residents are interested in purchasing the park.

(3) The resident organization has furnished the park owner or park manager a written notice, within five days, of any change in the name or address of the officers of the resident organization to whom the notice of sale shall be given.

(c) Nothing in this section affects the validity of title to real property transferred in violation of this section, although a violation shall subject the seller to civil action pursuant to Article 8 (commencing with Section 798.84) by homeowner residents of the park or the resident organization.

(d) Nothing in this section affects the ability of a licensed real estate broker, as defined in Article 1 (commencing with Section 10130) of Chapter 3 of Part 1 of Division 4 of the Business and Professions Code, to collect a commission pursuant to an executed contract between the broker and the mobilehome park owner.

(e) Subdivision (a) does not apply to any of the following:

(1) Any sale or other transfer by a park owner who is a natural person to any relation specified in Section 6401 or 6402 of the Probate Code.

(2) Any transfer by gift, devise, or operation of law.

(3) Any transfer by a corporation to an affiliate. As used in this paragraph, "affiliate" means any shareholder of the transferring corporation, any corporation or entity owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by the transferring corporation, or any other corporation or entity controlled, directly or indirectly, by any shareholder of the transferring corporation.

(4) Any transfer by a partnership to any of its partners.

(5) Any conveyance resulting from the judicial or nonjudicial foreclosure of a mortgage or deed of trust encumbering a mobilehome park or any deed given in lieu of such a foreclosure.

(6) Any sale or transfer between or among joint tenants or tenants in common owning a mobilehome park.

(7) The purchase of a mobilehome park by a governmental entity under its powers of eminent domain.

CHAPTER 220

An act to amend Section 2825 of the Fish and Game Code, relating to conservation.

[Approved by Governor July 15, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2825 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

2825. (a) The department may prepare nonregulatory guidelines for the development and implementation of natural community conservation plans. The guidelines are exempt from Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. The guidelines may include, but are not limited to, all of the following:

(1) Defining the scope of a conservation planning area.

(2) Determining conservation standards, guidelines, and objectives for the planning area.

(3) Appointing one or more advisory committees to review and make recommendations regarding the preparation and implementation of natural community conservation plans. The advisory committee membership may include representation from the local community near the plan area.

(4) Coordinating with local, state, and federal agencies, including the Trade and Commerce Agency.

(5) Incorporating public input.

(6) Ensuring compatibility with the federal Endangered Species Act (16 U.S.C. Sec. 1531 et seq.).

(7) Obtaining approval of the natural community conservation plan by the department.

(8) Provisions for implementation of the plan.

(9) Monitoring and reporting on plan implementation.

(10) Amending the plan consistent with the initial intent of the plan.

(b) Nothing in this chapter exempts projects proposed in a natural community conservation planning area from the requirements of the California Environmental Quality Act (Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code).

(c) Natural community conservation plans, as appropriate, shall be implemented pursuant to Section 2081.

(d) To the extent practicable, implementation of natural community conservation plans shall use the services of either the California Conservation Corps or local community conservation corps.

CHAPTER 221

An act to amend Sections 22522 and 42001.5 of, and add Sections 22511.57 and 22652.6 to, the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor July 15, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22511.57 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

22511.57. Local authorities may, by ordinance or resolution, prohibit or restrict the parking or standing of a vehicle on streets or highways or from a disabled person's parking stall or space of a privately or publicly owned or operated offstreet parking facility within their jurisdiction when the vehicle displays, in order to obtain special parking privileges, a disabled placard issued pursuant to Section 22511.55, and the Department of Motor Vehicles record for the identification number assigned to the placard indicates that the card has been reported as lost or stolen, or was issued to a person who has been reported as being deceased for a period exceeding 60 days.

SEC. 2. Section 22522 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

22522. No person shall park a vehicle within three feet of any sidewalk access ramp constructed adjacent to a crosswalk so as to be accessible to and usable by the physically disabled, if the area adjoining the ramp is designated by either a sign or red paint.

SEC. 3. Section 22652.6 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

22652.6. Any peace officer, as defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2 of the Penal Code, or any regularly employed and salaried employee engaged in directing traffic or enforcing parking laws and regulations of a city or county, may remove any vehicle parked or standing on the streets or highways or from a stall or space of a privately or publicly owned or operated offstreet parking facility within the jurisdiction of the city or county when the vehicle is in violation of a local ordinance or resolution adopted pursuant to Section 22511.57.

SEC. 4. Section 42001.5 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

42001.5. Every person convicted of an infraction for a violation of subdivision (i) or (l) of Section 22500, Section 22507.8, or Section 22522 shall be punished by a fine of not less than two hundred fifty dollars ($250). No part of any fine imposed shall be suspended, except the court may suspend that portion of the fine above one hundred dollars ($100) for a violation of subdivision (i) or (l) of Section 22500 or of Section 22522, and the court may suspend the imposition of the fine for a conviction for a violation of Section 22507.8 if the person convicted possessed at the time of the offense, but failed to display, a valid distinguishing license plate or placard issued pursuant to Section 22511.5. The fine may be paid in installments if the court determines that the defendant is unable to pay the entire amount in one payment.

SEC. 5. This act shall become operative on July 1, 1995.

CHAPTER 222

An act to amend Section 2241.5 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to medicine.

[Approved by Governor July 15, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2241.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2241.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a physician and surgeon may prescribe or administer controlled substances to a person in the course of the physician and surgeon's treatment of that person for a diagnosed condition causing intractable pain.

(b) "Intractable pain," as used in this section, means a pain state in which the cause of the pain cannot be removed or otherwise treated and which in the generally accepted course of medical practice no relief or cure of the cause of the pain is possible or none has been found after reasonable efforts including, but not limited to, evaluation by the attending physician and surgeon and one or more physicians and surgeons specializing in the treatment of the area, system, or organ of the body perceived as the source of the pain.

(c) No physician and surgeon shall be subject to disciplinary action by the board for prescribing or administering controlled substances in the course of treatment of a person for intractable pain.

(d) This section shall not apply to those persons being treated by the physician and surgeon for chemical dependency because of their use of drugs or controlled substances.

(e) This section shall not authorize a physician and surgeon to prescribe or administer controlled substances to a person the physician and surgeon knows to be using drugs or substances for nontherapeutic purposes.

(f) This section shall not affect the power of the board to deny, revoke, or suspend the license of any physician and surgeon who does any of the following:

(1) Prescribes or administers a controlled substance or treatment that is nontherapeutic in nature or nontherapeutic in the manner the controlled substance or treatment is administered or prescribed or is for a nontherapeutic purpose in a nontherapeutic manner.

(2) Fails to keep complete and accurate records of purchases and disposals of substances listed in the California Controlled Substances Act, or of controlled substances scheduled in, or pursuant to, the federal Comprehensive Drug Abuse Prevention and Control Act of 1970. A physician and surgeon shall keep records of his or her purchases and disposals of these drugs, including the date of purchase, the date and records of the sale or disposal of the drugs by the physician and surgeon, the name and address of the person receiving the drugs, and the reason for the disposal of or the dispensing of the drugs to the person and shall otherwise comply with all state recordkeeping requirements for controlled substances.

(3) Writes false or fictitious prescriptions for controlled substances listed in the California Controlled Substances Act or scheduled in the federal Comprehensive Drug Abuse Prevention and Control Act of 1970.

(4) Prescribes, administers, or dispenses in a manner not consistent with public health and welfare controlled substances listed in the California Controlled Substance Act or scheduled in the federal Comprehensive Drug Abuse Prevention and Control Act of 1970.

(5) Prescribes, administers, or dispenses in violation of either Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 11150) or Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11210) of Division 10 of the Health and Safety Code or this chapter.

(g) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the governing body of a hospital from taking disciplinary actions against a physician and surgeon, as authorized pursuant to Sections 809.05, 809.4, and 809.5.

CHAPTER 223

An act to amend and renumber Section 27202 of, to add Section 27202 to, and to repeal and add Article 2 (commencing with Section 27231) to Chapter 6 of Part 3 of Division 12 of, the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to food.

[Approved by Governor July 15, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 27202 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended and renumbered to read:

27203. "Poultry meat" means the carcass of poultry or any part of the carcass. It does not include live poultry or manufactured products in which poultry is not the main ingredient.

SEC. 2. Section 27202 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

27202. "Poultry" means domesticated fowl that is intended for use for human food. It includes chickens, game hens, turkeys, ducks, geese, and other domesticated birds.

SEC. 3. Article 2 (commencing with Section 27231) of Chapter 6 of Part 3 of Division 12 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Article 2 (commencing with Section 27231) is added to Chapter 6 of Part 3 of Division 12 of the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

Article 2. Marks and Labels

27231. Before being offered for retail sale in this state, poultry meat of poultry that was grown or raised in this state may be advertised, labeled, described, sold, marked, or otherwise held out, with the words "California grown," or other similar language indicating that the meat is from California grown or raised poultry.

27232. (a) Poultry meat of poultry that was not grown or raised in this state and packages of that meat shall not be advertised, labeled, described, sold, marked, or otherwise held out as "California grown," or in any way as to imply that the meat is from California grown or raised poultry.

(b) It is unlawful for any person to violate this section.

(c) A violation of this section constitutes an unfair and unlawful business act or practice under Section 17200 of the Business and Professions Code, and a false or misleading statement under Section 17500 of the Business and Professions Code.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 667.9, 999e, 1203.055, 1203.06, 1203.075, 1203.09, 1601, 3420, and 13853 of the Penal Code, and to amend Sections 6500 and 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to sentencing.

[Approved by Governor July 15, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 667.9 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

667.9. (a) Any person who commits one or more of the crimes listed in subdivision (c) against a person who is 65 years of age or older, or against a person who is blind, a paraplegic, or a quadriplegic, or against a person who is under the age of 14 years, and that disability or condition is known or reasonably should be known to the person committing the crime, shall receive a one-year enhancement for each violation in addition to the sentence provided under Section 667.

(b) Any person who has a prior conviction for any of the offenses listed in subdivision (c), and who commits one or more of the crimes listed in that subdivision against a person who is 65 years of age or older, or against a person who is blind, deaf, developmentally disabled, a paraplegic, or a quadriplegic, or against a person who is under the age of 14 years, and that disability or condition is known or reasonably should be known to the person committing the crime, shall receive a two-year enhancement for each violation in addition to the sentence provided under Section 667.

(c) Subdivisions (a) and (b) apply to the following crimes:

(1) Robbery, in violation of Section 211.

(2) Kidnapping, in violation of Section 207.

(3) Kidnapping, in violation of Section 209.

(4) Rape by force, violence, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person in violation of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 261.

(5) Sodomy or oral copulation by force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person in violation of Section 286 or 288a.

(6) Mayhem, as defined in Section 203.

(7) Carjacking, in violation of Section 215.

(8) Kidnapping, in violation of Section 209.5.

(9) Burglary of the first degree, as defined in Section 460.

(d) The existence of any fact which would bring a person under subdivision (a) or (b) shall be alleged in the information or indictment and either admitted by the defendant in open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury.

(e) As used in this section, "developmentally disabled" means a severe, chronic disability of a person, which is all of the following:

(1) Attributable to a mental or physical impairment or a combination of mental and physical impairments.

(2) Likely to continue indefinitely.

(3) Results in substantial functional limitation in three or more of the following areas of life activity:

(A) Self-care.

(B) Receptive and expressive language.

(C) Learning.

(D) Mobility.

(E) Self-direction.

(F) Capacity for independent living.

(G) Economic self-sufficiency.

SEC. 2. Section 999e of the Penal Code is amended to read:

999e. (a) An individual shall be the subject of career criminal prosecution efforts who is under arrest for the commission or attempted commission of one or more of the following felonies: robbery, carjacking, burglary, arson, any unlawful act relating to controlled substances in violation of Section 11351, 11351.5, or 11352 of the Health and Safety Code, receiving stolen property, grand theft and grand theft auto, and lewd or lascivious conduct upon a child; and who is either being prosecuted for three or more separate offenses not arising out of the same transaction involving one or more of these felonies, or has suffered at least one conviction during the preceding 10 years for any felony listed in paragraph (1) of this subdivision, or at least two convictions during the preceding 10 years for any felony listed in paragraph (2) of this subdivision:

(1) Robbery of the first degree, carjacking, burglary of the first degree, arson as defined in Section 451, unlawfully causing a fire as defined in Section 452, forcible rape, sodomy or oral copulation committed with force, lewd or lascivious conduct committed upon a child, kidnapping as defined in Section 209 or 209.5, or murder.

(2) Grand theft, grand theft auto, receiving stolen property, robbery of the second degree, burglary of the second degree, kidnapping as defined in Section 207, assault with a deadly weapon or instrument, or any unlawful act relating to controlled substances in violation of Section 11351 or 11352 of the Health and Safety Code.

For purposes of this chapter, the 10-year periods specified in this section shall be exclusive of any time which the arrested person has served in state prison.

(b) In applying the career criminal selection criteria set forth above, a district attorney may elect to limit career criminal prosecution efforts to persons arrested for any one or more of the felonies listed in subdivision (a) of this section if crime statistics demonstrate that the incidence of one or more of these felonies presents a particularly serious problem in the county.

(c) In exercising the prosecutorial discretion granted by Section 999g, the district attorney shall consider the following: (1) the character, background, and prior criminal background of the defendant; and (2) the number and the seriousness of the offenses currently charged against the defendant.

SEC. 3. Section 1203.055 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203.055. (a) Notwithstanding any other law, in sentencing a person convicted of committing or of attempting to commit one or more of the offenses listed in subdivision (b) against a person who is a passenger, operator, driver, or other occupant of any public transit vehicle whether the offense or attempt is committed within the vehicle or directed at the vehicle, the court shall require that the person serve some period of confinement. If probation is granted, it shall be a condition of probation that the person shall be confined in the county jail for some period of time. If the time spent in jail prior to arraignment is less than 24 hours, it shall not be considered to satisfy the requirement that some period of confinement be imposed.

As used in this subdivision, "public transit vehicle" means any motor vehicle, streetcar, trackless trolley, bus, shuttle, light rail system, rapid transit system, subway, train, taxi cab, or jitney, which transports members of the public for hire.

(b) Subdivision (a) applies to the following crimes:

(1) Murder.

(2) A violation of Section 241, 241.3, 241.4, 244, 245, 245.2, or 246.

(3) Robbery, in violation of Section 211.

(4) Kidnapping, in violation of Section 207.

(5) Kidnapping, in violation of Section 209.

(6) Battery, in violation of Section 243, 243.1, or 243.3.

(7) Rape, in violation of Section 261, 262, 264, or 264.1.

(8) Assault with intent to commit rape or sodomy, in violation of Section 220.

(9) Any other offense in which the defendant inflicts great bodily injury on any person other than an accomplice. As used in this paragraph, "great bodily injury" means "great bodily injury" as defined in Section 12022.7.

(10) Grand theft, in violation of subdivision (1) of Section 487.

(11) Throwing of a hard substance or shooting a missile at a transit vehicle, in violation of Section 219.2.

(12) Unlawfully causing a fire, in violation of Section 452.

(13) Drawing, exhibiting, or using a firearm or deadly weapon, in violation of Section 417.

(14) A violation of Section 214.

(15) A violation of Section 215.

(16) Kidnapping, in violation of Section 209.5.

(c) Probation shall not be granted to, nor shall the execution or imposition of sentence be suspended for, any person convicted of a felony offense falling within this section if the person has been previously convicted and sentenced pursuant to this section.

(d) (1) The existence of any fact which would make a person ineligible for probation under subdivisions (a) and (c) shall be alleged in the accusatory pleading, and either admitted by the defendant in open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by a plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by a trial by the court sitting without a jury.

A finding bringing the defendant within this section shall not be stricken pursuant to Section 1385 or any provision of law.

(2) This subdivision does not prohibit the adjournment of criminal proceedings pursuant to Division 3 (commencing with Section 3000) or Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) The court shall require, as a condition of probation for any person convicted of committing a crime which took place on a public transit vehicle, except in any case in which the court makes a finding and states on the record clear and compelling reasons why the condition would be inappropriate, that the person make restitution to the victim. If restitution is found to be inappropriate, the court shall require as a condition of probation, except in any case in which the court makes a finding and states on the record its reasons that the condition would be inappropriate, that the defendant perform specified community service. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to limit the authority of a court to provide additional conditions of probation.

(f) In any case in which a person is convicted of committing a crime which took place on a public transit vehicle, the probation officer shall immediately investigate and report to the court at a specified time whether, as a result of the crime, property damage or loss or personal injury was caused by the defendant, the amount of the damage, loss, or injury, and the feasibility of requiring restitution to be made by the defendant. When a probation report is required pursuant to Section 1203 the information required by this subdivision shall be added to that probation report.

SEC. 4. Section 1203.06 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203.06. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1203:

(a) Probation shall not be granted to, nor shall the execution or imposition of sentence be suspended for, any of the following persons:

(1) Any person who personally used a firearm during the commission or attempted commission of any of the following crimes:

(A) Murder.

(B) Robbery, in violation of Section 211.

(C) Kidnapping, in violation of Section 207.

(D) Kidnapping, in violation of Section 209.

(E) Burglary of the first degree, as defined in Section 460.

(F) Except as provided in Section 1203.065, rape in violation of subdivision (2) of Section 261.

(G) Assault with intent to commit rape or sodomy, in violation of Section 220.

(H) Escape, in violation of Section 4530 or 4532.

(I) A felony violation of Section 136.1 or 137.

(J) Carjacking, in violation of Section 215.

(K) Kidnapping, in violation of Section 209.5.

(2) Any person previously convicted of a felony specified in subparagraphs (A) to (H), inclusive, or subparagraphs (J) and (K), of paragraph (1), or assault with intent to commit murder under former Section 217, who is convicted of a subsequent felony and who was personally armed with a firearm at any time during its commission or attempted commission or was unlawfully armed with a firearm at the time of his or her arrest for the subsequent felony.

(b) (1) The existence of any fact which would make a person ineligible for probation under subdivision (a) shall be alleged in the accusatory pleading, and either admitted by the defendant in open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury.

(2) This subdivision does not prohibit the adjournment of criminal proceedings pursuant to Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(3) As used in subdivision (a) "used a firearm" means to display a firearm in a menacing manner, to intentionally fire it, or to intentionally strike or hit a human being with it.

(4) As used in subdivision (a) "armed with a firearm" means to knowingly carry a firearm as a means of offense or defense.

SEC. 5. Section 1203.075 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203.075. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1203:

(a) Probation shall not be granted to, nor shall the execution or imposition of sentence be suspended for, nor shall a finding bringing the defendant within this section be stricken pursuant to Section 1385 for, any person who, with the intent to inflict the injury, personally inflicts great bodily injury on the person of another in the commission or attempted commission of any of the following crimes:

(1) Murder.

(2) Robbery, in violation of Section 211.

(3) Kidnapping, in violation of Section 207.
(4) Kidnapping, in violation of Section 209.
(5) Burglary of the first degree, as defined in Section 460.
(6) Rape, in violation of subdivision (2) of Section 261.
(7) Assault with intent to commit rape or sodomy, in violation of Section 220.
(8) Escape, in violation of Section 4530 or 4532.
(9) A violation of subdivision (a) of Section 289.
(10) Sodomy, in violation of Section 286.
(11) Oral copulation, in violation of Section 288a.
(12) Carjacking, in violation of Section 215.
(13) Kidnapping, in violation of Section 209.5.

(b) (1) The existence of any fact which would make a person ineligible for probation under subdivision (a) shall be alleged in the accusatory pleading, and either admitted by the defendant in open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by a plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by a trial by the court sitting without a jury.

(2) This subdivision does not prohibit the adjournment of criminal proceedings pursuant to Division 3 (commencing with Section 3000) or Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(3) As used in subdivision (a), "great bodily injury" means "great bodily injury" as defined in Section 12022.7.

SEC. 6. Section 1203.09 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203.09. (a) Notwithstanding any other law, probation shall not be granted to, nor shall the execution or imposition of sentence be suspended for, any person who commits or attempts to commit one or more of the crimes listed in subdivision (b) against a person who is 60 years of age or older; or against a person who is blind, a paraplegic, a quadriplegic, or a person confined to a wheelchair and that disability is known or reasonably should be known to the person committing the crime; and who during the course of the offense inflicts great bodily injury upon the person.

(b) Subdivision (a) applies to the following crimes:
(1) Murder.
(2) Robbery, in violation of Section 211.
(3) Kidnapping, in violation of Section 207.
(4) Kidnapping, in violation of Section 209.
(5) Burglary of the first degree, as defined in Section 460.
(6) Rape by force or violence, in violation of subdivision (2) of Section 261.
(7) Assault with intent to commit rape or sodomy, in violation of Section 220.
(8) Carjacking, in violation of Section 215.
(9) Kidnapping, in violation of Section 209.5.

(c) The existence of any fact which would make a person ineligible for probation under either subdivision (a) or (f) shall be alleged in the information or indictment, and either admitted by the defendant in open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury.

(d) As used in this section "great bodily injury" means "great bodily injury" as defined in Section 12022.7.

(e) This section shall apply in all cases, including those cases where the infliction of great bodily injury is an element of the offense.

(f) Except in unusual cases where the interests of justice would best be served if the person is granted probation, probation shall not be granted to, nor shall the execution or imposition of sentence be suspended for, any person convicted of having committed one or more of the following crimes against a person who is 60 years of age or older: assault with a deadly weapon or instrument, battery which results in physical injury which requires professional medical treatment, carjacking, robbery, or mayhem.

SEC. 7. Section 1601 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1601. (a) In the case of any person charged with and found incompetent on a charge of, convicted of, or found not guilty by reason of insanity of murder, mayhem, aggravated mayhem, a violation of Section 207, 209, or 209.5 in which the victim suffers intentionally inflicted great bodily injury, robbery or carjacking with a deadly or dangerous weapon or in which the victim suffers great bodily injury, a violation of subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 451, a violation of paragraph (2) or (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, a violation of Section 459 in the first degree, a violation of Section 220 in which the victim suffers great bodily injury, a violation of Section 288, a violation of Section 12303.1, 12303.2, 12303.3, 12308, 12309, or 12310, or any felony involving death, great bodily injury, or an act which poses a serious threat of bodily harm to another person, outpatient status under this title shall not be available until that person has actually been confined in a state hospital or other facility for 180 days or more after having been committed under the provisions of law specified in Section 1600.

(b) In the case of any person charged with, and found incompetent on a charge of, or convicted of, any misdemeanor or any felony other than those described in subdivision (a), or found not guilty of any misdemeanor by reason of insanity, outpatient status under this title may be granted by the court prior to actual confinement in a state hospital or other treatment facility under the provisions of law specified in Section 1600.

SEC. 8. Section 3420 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

3420. (a) Within five days after the receipt of an inmate by the Department of Corrections who has already applied for admission to a program, or of her application for admission to a program, whichever is later, the department shall give notice of her application to the child's current caretaker or guardian, if any, and if it has not already been notified pursuant to Section 3415, the appropriate local social services agency that conducts investigations for child neglect and dependency hearings.

(b) The department and the individuals and agencies notified shall have five days from the date of notice to decide whether or not to challenge the appropriateness of the applicant's entry into the program. Lack of a petition filed by that time shall result in a presumption that the individuals and agencies notified do not challenge the appropriateness of the applicant's entry into the program.

(c) The local agency which has been notified pursuant to Section 3415 shall not initiate the process of considering whether or not to file until after the sentencing court has sentenced the applicant.

(d) The appropriate local agency that conducts investigations for child neglect and dependency hearings, the Department of Corrections, and the current guardian or caretaker of the child, shall have the authority to file for a fitness proceeding against the mother after the mother has applied in writing to participate in the program.

(e) The determination of whether or not to file shall be based in part on the likelihood of the mother being a fit parent for the child in question both during the program and afterwards. Program content shall be taken into account in this determination. There shall be a presumption affecting the burden of producing evidence in favor of filing for a fitness proceeding under the following circumstances:

(1) The applicant was convicted of one or more of the following violent felonies:

(A) Murder.

(B) Mayhem.

(C) Aggravated mayhem.

(D) Kidnapping as defined in Section 207 or 209.

(E) Lewd acts on a child under 14 as defined in Section 288.

(F) Any felony in which the defendant inflicts great bodily injury on a person other than accomplices which has been alleged and proven.

(G) Forcible rape in violation of subdivision (2), (3), or (4) of Section 261.

(H) Sodomy by force, violence, duress, menace, or threat of great bodily injury.

(I) Oral copulation by force, violence, duress, menace, or threat of great bodily injury.

(2) The applicant was convicted of child abuse in the current or any proceeding.

(f) Fitness petitions shall be resolved in the court of first instance as soon as possible for purposes of this section. Given the need to place the child as soon as possible, the first determination by the court as to the applicant's fitness as a mother shall determine her eligibility for the program for the current application. Outcomes of appeals shall not affect eligibility.

SEC. 9. Section 13853 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

13853. An individual may be the subject of career criminal apprehension efforts who is under investigation for the commission or attempted commission of one or more of the following felonies: homicide, rape or sexual assault, child molestation, robbery, carjacking, burglary, arson, any unlawful act relating to controlled substances in violation of Section 11351 or 11352 of the Health and Safety Code, receiving stolen property, grand theft and grand theft auto; and who is determined to have committed three or more separate felony offenses not arising out of the same transaction, or has suffered at least one conviction during the preceding 10 years for the commission or attempted commission of any felony listed in subdivision (a), or at least two convictions during the preceding 10 years for the commission or attempted commission of any felony listed in subdivision (b):

(a) Robbery of the first degree, carjacking, burglary of the first degree, arson as defined in Section 451 or 452, forcible rape, sodomy or oral copulation committed with force, lewd or lascivious conduct committed upon a child, kidnapping as defined in Section 209 or 209.5, or murder.

(b) Grand theft, grand theft auto, receiving stolen property, robbery of the second degree, burglary of the second degree, kidnapping as defined in Section 207, assault with a deadly weapon or instrument, or any unlawful act relating to controlled substances in violation of Section 11351 or 11352 of the Health and Safety Code.

For purposes of this chapter, the 10-year periods specified in this section shall be exclusive of any time which the arrested person has served in state prison.

SEC. 10. Section 6500 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

6500. On and after July 1, 1971, no mentally retarded person may be committed to the State Department of Developmental Services pursuant to this article, unless he or she is a danger to himself or herself or others. For the purposes of this article, dangerousness to self or others shall be considered to include, but not be limited to, a finding of incompetence to stand trial pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 1367) of Title 10 of Part 2 of the Penal Code when the defendant has been charged with murder, mayhem, aggravated mayhem, a violation of Section 207, 209, or 209.5 of the Penal Code in which the victim suffers intentionally inflicted great bodily injury, robbery perpetrated by torture or by a person armed with a dangerous or deadly weapon or in which the victim suffers great bodily injury, carjacking perpetrated by torture or by a person armed with a dangerous or deadly weapon or in which the victim suffers great bodily injury, a violation of subdivision (b) of Section 451 of the Penal Code, a violation of paragraph (2) or (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 261 of the Penal Code, a violation of Section 459 of the Penal Code in the first degree, assault with intent to commit murder, a violation of Section 220 of the Penal Code in which the victim suffers great bodily injury, a violation of Section 12303.1, 12303.3, 12308, 12309, or 12310 of the Penal Code, or if the defendant has been charged with a felony involving death, great bodily injury, or an act which poses a serious threat of bodily harm to another person.

Any order of commitment made pursuant to this article shall expire automatically one year after the order of commitment is made. This section shall not be construed to prohibit any party enumerated in Section 6502 from filing subsequent petitions for additional periods of commitment. In the event such subsequent petitions are filed, the procedures followed shall be the same as with an initial petition for commitment.

In any proceedings conducted under the authority of this article the alleged mentally retarded person shall be informed of his or her right to counsel by the court; and if the person does not have an attorney for the proceedings the court shall immediately appoint the public defender or other attorney to represent him or her. The person shall pay the cost for such legal service if he or she is able to do so. At any judicial proceeding under the provisions of this article, allegations that a person is mentally retarded and a danger to himself or herself or to others shall be presented by the district attorney for the county unless the board of supervisors, by ordinance or resolution, delegates this authority to the county counsel.

SEC. 11. Section 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

8103. (a) (1) No person who after October 1, 1955, has been adjudicated by a court of any state to be a danger to others as a result of mental disorder or mental illness, or who has been adjudicated to be a mentally disordered sex offender, shall purchase or receive, or attempt to purchase or receive, or have in his or her possession, custody, or control any firearm or any other deadly weapon unless there has been issued to the person a certificate by the court of adjudication upon release from treatment or at a later date stating that the person may possess a firearm or any other deadly weapon without endangering others, and the person has not, subsequent to the issuance of the certificate, again been adjudicated by a court to be a danger to others as a result of a mental disorder or mental illness.

(2) The court shall immediately notify the Department of Justice of the court order finding the individual to be a person described in paragraph (1). The court shall also notify the Department of Justice of any certificate issued as described in paragraph (1).

(b) (1) No person who has been found, pursuant to Section 1026 of the Penal Code or the law of any other state or the United States, not guilty by reason of insanity of murder, mayhem, a violation of Section 207, 209, or 209.5 of the Penal Code in which the victim suffers intentionally inflicted great bodily injury, carjacking or robbery in which the victim suffers great bodily injury, a violation of Section 451 or 452 of the Penal Code involving a trailer coach, as defined in Section 635 of the Vehicle Code, or any dwelling house, a violation of paragraph (2) or (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 261 of the Penal Code, a violation of Section 459 of the Penal Code in the first degree, assault with intent to commit murder, a violation of Section 220 of the Penal Code in which the victim suffers great bodily injury, a violation of Section 12303.1, 12303.2, 12303.3, 12308, 12309, or 12310 of the Penal Code, or of a felony involving death, great bodily injury, or an act which poses a serious threat of bodily harm to another person, or a violation of the law of any other state or the United States that includes all the elements of any of the above felonies as defined under California law, shall purchase or receive, or attempt to purchase or receive, or have in his or her possession or under his or her custody or control any firearm or any other deadly weapon.

(2) The court shall immediately notify the Department of Justice of the court order finding the person to be a person described in paragraph (1).

(c) (1) No person who has been found, pursuant to Section 1026 of the Penal Code or the law of any other state or the United States, not guilty by reason of insanity of any crime other than those described in subdivision (b) shall purchase or receive, or attempt to purchase or receive, or shall have in his or her possession, custody, or control any firearm or any other deadly weapon unless the court of commitment has found the person to have recovered sanity, pursuant to Section 1026.2 of the Penal Code or the law of any other state or the United States.

(2) The court shall immediately notify the Department of Justice of the court order finding the person to be a person described in paragraph (1). The court shall also notify the Department of Justice when it finds that the person has recovered his or her sanity.

(d) (1) No person found by a court to be mentally incompetent to stand trial, pursuant to Section 1370 or 1370.1 of the Penal Code or the law of any other state or the United States, shall purchase or receive, or attempt to purchase or receive, or shall have in his or her possession, custody, or control any firearm or any other deadly weapon, unless there has been a finding with respect to the person of restoration to competence to stand trial by the committing court, pursuant to Section 1372 of the Penal Code or the law of any other state or the United States.

(2) The court shall immediately notify the Department of Justice of the court order finding the person to be mentally incompetent as described in paragraph (1). The court shall also notify the Department of Justice when it finds that the person has recovered his or her competence.

(e) (1) No person who has been placed under conservatorship by a court, pursuant to Section 5350 or the law of any other state or the United States, because the person is gravely disabled as a result of a mental disorder or impairment by chronic alcoholism shall purchase or receive, or attempt to purchase or receive, or shall have in his or her possession, custody, or control any firearm or any other deadly weapon while under the conservatorship if, at the time the conservatorship was ordered or thereafter, the court which imposed the conservatorship found that possession of a firearm or any other deadly weapon by the person would present a danger to the safety of the person or to others. Upon placing any person under conservatorship, and prohibiting firearm or any other deadly weapon possession by the person, the court shall notify the person of this prohibition.

(2) The court shall immediately notify the Department of Justice of the court order placing the person under conservatorship and prohibiting firearm or any other deadly weapon possession by the person as described in paragraph (1). The notice shall include the date the conservatorship was imposed and the date the conservatorship is to be terminated. If the conservatorship is subsequently terminated before the date listed in the notice to the Department of Justice or the court subsequently finds that possession of a firearm or any other deadly weapon by the person would no longer present a danger to the safety of the person or others, the court shall immediately notify the Department of Justice.

(3) All information provided to the Department of Justice pursuant to paragraph (2) shall be kept confidential, separate, and apart from all other records maintained by the department, and shall be used only to determine eligibility to purchase or possess firearms or other deadly weapons. Any person who knowingly furnishes that information for any other purpose is guilty of a misdemeanor. All the information concerning any person shall be destroyed upon receipt by the Department of Justice of notice of the termination of conservatorship as to that person pursuant to paragraph (2).

(f) (1) No person who has been (A) taken into custody as provided in Section 5150 because that person is a danger to himself, herself, or to others, (B) assessed within the meaning of Section 5151, and (C) admitted to a designated facility within the meaning of Sections 5151 and 5152 because that person is a danger to himself, herself, or others, shall own, possess, control, receive, or purchase, or attempt to own, possess, control, receive, or purchase any firearm for a period of five years after the person is released from the facility. A person described in the preceding sentence, however, may own, possess, control, receive, or purchase, or attempt to own, possess, control, receive, or purchase any firearm if the superior court has, pursuant to paragraph (4), upon petition of the person, found, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the person is likely to use firearms in a safe and lawful manner.

(2) For each person subject to this subdivision, the facility shall immediately, on the date of admission, submit a report to the Department of Justice, on a form prescribed by the department, containing information that includes, but is not limited to, the identity of the person and the legal grounds upon which the person was admitted to the facility.

Any report prescribed by this subdivision shall be confidential, except for purposes of the court proceedings described in this subdivision and for determining the eligibility of the person to own, possess, control, receive, or purchase a firearm.

(3) Prior to, or concurrent with, the discharge, the facility shall inform a person subject to this subdivision that he or she is prohibited from owning, possessing, controlling, receiving, or purchasing any firearm for a period of five years. Simultaneously, the facility shall inform the person that he or she may petition a court, as provided in this subdivision, for an order permitting the person to own, possess, control, receive, or purchase a firearm.

(4) Any person who is subject to paragraph (1) may petition the superior court of his or her county of residence for an order that he or she may own, possess, control, receive, or purchase firearms. At the time the petition is filed, the clerk of the court shall set a hearing date and notify the person, the Department of Justice, and the district attorney. The People of the State of California shall be the respondent in the proceeding and shall be represented by the district attorney. Upon motion of the district attorney, or on its own motion, the superior court may transfer the petition to the county in which the person resided at the time of his or her detention, the county in which the person was detained, or the county in which the person was evaluated or treated. Within seven days after receiving notice of the petition, the Department of Justice shall file copies of the reports described in this section with the superior court. The reports shall be disclosed upon request to the person and to the district attorney. The district attorney shall be entitled to a continuance of the hearing to a date of not less than 14 days after the district attorney was notified of the hearing date by the clerk of the court. The district attorney may notify the county mental health director of the petition who shall provide information about the detention of the person that may be relevant to the court and shall file that information with the superior court. That information shall be disclosed to the person and to the district attorney. The court, upon motion of the person subject to paragraph (1) establishing that confidential information is likely to be discussed during the hearing that would cause harm to the person, shall conduct the hearing in camera with only the relevant parties present, unless the court finds that the public interest would be better served by conducting the hearing in public. Notwithstanding any other law, declarations, police reports, including criminal history information, and any other material and relevant evidence that is not excluded under Section 352 of the Evidence Code, shall be admissible at the hearing under this section. If the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the person would be likely to use firearms in a safe and lawful manner, the court may order that the person may own, control, receive, possess, or purchase firearms. A copy of the order shall be submitted to the Department of Justice. Upon receipt of the order, the Department of Justice shall delete any reference to the prohibition against firearms from the person's state summary criminal history information.

(5) Nothing in this subdivision shall prohibit the use of reports filed pursuant to this section to determine the eligibility of persons to own, possess, control, receive, or purchase a firearm if the person is the subject of a criminal investigation, a part of which involves the ownership, possession, control, receipt, or purchase of a firearm.

(g) (1) No person who has been certified for intensive treatment under Section 5250, 5260, or 5270.15 shall own, possess, control, receive, or purchase, or attempt to own, possess, control, receive, or purchase any firearm for a period of five years.

Any person who meets the criteria contained in subdivision (e) or (f) who is released from intensive treatment shall nevertheless, if applicable, remain subject to the prohibition contained in subdivision (e) or (f).

(2) For each person certified for intensive treatment under paragraph (1), the facility shall immediately submit a report to the Department of Justice, on a form prescribed by the department, containing information regarding the person, including, but not limited to, the legal identity of the person and the legal grounds upon which the person was certified. Any report submitted pursuant to this paragraph shall only be used for the purposes specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (f).

(3) Prior to, or concurrent with, the discharge of each person certified for intensive treatment under paragraph (1), the facility shall inform the person of that information specified in paragraph (3) of subdivision (f).

(4) Any person who is subject to the prohibition contained in paragraph (1) may fully invoke paragraph (4) of subdivision (f).

(h) For all persons identified in subdivisions (f) and (g), facilities shall report to the Department of Justice as specified in those subdivisions, except facilities shall not report persons under subdivision (g) if the same persons previously have been reported under subdivision (f).

Additionally, all facilities shall report to the Department of Justice upon the discharge of persons from whom reports have been submitted pursuant to subdivision (f) or (g). However, a report shall not be filed for persons who are discharged within 31 days after the date of admission.

(j) "Deadly weapon," as used in this section, has the meaning prescribed by Section 8100.

CHAPTER 225

An act to amend Section 1785.3 of the Civil Code, relating to consumer credit.

[Approved by Governor July 15, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1785.3 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1785.3. The following terms as used in this title have the meaning expressed in this section:

(a) "Adverse action" means a denial or revocation of credit, a change in the terms of an existing credit arrangement which is adverse to the interests of the consumer, or a refusal to grant credit in substantially the amount or on substantially the terms requested. "Adverse action" includes all of the following:

(1) Any denial of, increase in any charge for, or reduction in the amount of, insurance for personal, family, or household purposes made in connection with the underwriting of insurance.

(2) Any denial of employment or any other decision made for employment purposes which adversely affects any current or prospective employee.

(3) Any action taken, or determination made, with respect to a consumer (A) for an application for an extension of credit, or an application for the hiring of a dwelling unit, and (B) that is adverse to the interests of the consumer.

"Adverse action" does not include (A) a refusal to extend additional credit to a consumer under an existing credit arrangement if (i) the applicant is delinquent or otherwise in default under that credit arrangement or (ii) the additional credit would exceed a credit limit previously established for the consumer or (B) a refusal or failure to authorize an account transaction at a point of sale.

(b) "Consumer" means a natural individual.

(c) "Consumer credit report" means any written, oral, or other communication of any information by a consumer credit reporting agency bearing on a consumer's credit worthiness, credit standing, or credit capacity, which is used or is expected to be used, or collected in whole or in part, for the purpose of serving as a factor in establishing the consumer's eligibility for: (1) credit to be used primarily for personal, family, or household purposes, or (2) employment purposes, or (3) hiring of a dwelling unit, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 1940, or (4) other purposes authorized in Section 1785.11.

The term does not include (1) any report containing information solely as to transactions or experiences between the consumer and the person making the report, (2) any communication of that information or information from a credit application by a consumer that is internal within the organization that is the person making the report or that is made to an entity owned by, or affiliated by corporate control with, that person; provided that the consumer is informed by means of a clear and conspicuous written disclosure that information contained in the credit application may be provided to these persons; however, where a credit application is taken by telephone, disclosure shall initially be given orally at the time the application is taken, and a clear and conspicuous written disclosure shall be made to the consumer in the first written communication to that consumer after the application is taken, (3) any authorization or approval of a specific extension of credit directly or indirectly by the issuer of a credit card or similar device, (4) any report by a person conveying a decision whether to make a specific extension of credit directly or indirectly to a consumer in response to a request by a third party, if the third party advises the consumer of the name and address of the person to whom the request was made and the person makes the disclosures to the consumer required under Section 1785.20, (5) any report containing information solely on a consumer's character, general reputation, personal characteristics, or mode of living which is obtained through personal interviews with neighbors, friends, or associates of the consumer reported on, or others with whom he is acquainted or who may have knowledge concerning those items of information, (6) any communication about a consumer in connection with a credit transaction which is not initiated by the consumer, between persons who are affiliated (as defined in Section 150 of the Corporations Code) by common ownership or common corporate control (as defined by Section 160 of the Corporations Code), if either of those persons has complied with paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 1785.20.1 with respect to a prequalifying report from which the information communicated is taken and provided the consumer has consented to the provision and use of the prequalifying report in writing, or (7) any consumer credit report furnished for use in connection with a transaction which consists of an extension of credit to be used solely for a commercial purpose.

(d) "Consumer credit reporting agency" means any person who, for monetary fees, dues, or on a cooperative nonprofit basis, regularly engages in whole or in part in the business of assembling or evaluating consumer credit information or other information on consumers for the purpose of furnishing consumer credit reports to third parties, but does not include any governmental agency whose records are maintained primarily for traffic safety, law enforcement, or licensing purposes.

(e) "Credit transaction that is not initiated by the consumer" does not include the use of a consumer credit report by an assignee for collection or by a person with which the consumer has an account for purposes of (1) reviewing the account or (2) collecting the account. For purposes of this subdivision, "reviewing the account" includes activities related to account maintenance and monitoring, credit line increases, and account upgrades and enhancements.

(f) "Employment purposes," when used in connection with a consumer credit report, means a report used for the purpose of evaluating a consumer for employment, promotion, reassignment, or retention as an employee.

(g) "File," when used in connection with information on any consumer, means all of the information on that consumer recorded and retained by a consumer credit reporting agency, regardless of how the information is stored.

(h) "Firm offer of credit" means any offer of credit to a consumer that will be honored if, based on information in a consumer credit report on the consumer and other information bearing on the creditworthiness of the consumer, the consumer is determined to meet the criteria used to select the consumer for the offer and the consumer is able to provide any real property collateral specified in the offer. For purposes of this subdivision, the phrase "other information bearing on the creditworthiness of the consumer" means information that the person making the offer is permitted to consider pursuant to any rule, regulation, or formal written policy statement relating to the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act, as amended (15 U.S.C. Sec. 1681 et seq.), promulgated by the Federal Trade Commission or any federal bank regulatory agency.

(i) "Item of information" means any of one or more informative entries in a credit report which causes a creditor to deny credit to an applicant or increase the cost of credit to an applicant or deny an applicant a checking account with a bank or other financial institution.

(j) "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, trust, estate, cooperative, association, government or governmental subdivision or agency, or other entity.

(k) "Prequalifying report" means a report containing the limited information permitted under paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 1785.11.

(l) "State or local child support enforcement agency" means the district attorney acting pursuant to Section 11475.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code to establish or enforce child support obligations, and any state or local agency or official that succeeds to these responsibilities under a successor statute.

CHAPTER 226

An act to amend Section 14529 of the Government Code, relating to transportation.

[Approved by Governor July 15, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14529 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14529. (a) The commission shall adopt and submit to the Legislature and the Governor not later than August 1, 1990, and April 1 of each even-numbered year thereafter, a state transportation improvement program. The program shall cover a period of seven years, beginning with July 1 of the year it is adopted, and shall be a statement of intent by the commission for the allocation of funds during those seven years.

(b) The state transportation improvement program shall include all major projects, as determined by the commission, to be funded from state transportation funds, including revenues from transportation bond acts allocated by the commission during those seven years, and shall be limited to intercity, commuter and urban rail capital improvements, flexible congestion relief, interregional road systems, and retrofit soundwalls.

(c) The state transportation improvement program shall include a list of projects which are expected to be advertised prior to July 1 of the year of adoption, but for which the commission has not yet allocated funds.

(d) Prior to the adoption of the state transportation improvement program, the commission shall hold at least one hearing in northern California and one hearing in southern California to reconcile any objections by any county or regional agency to the department's program or the department's objections to any regional program.

(e) The projects included in the adopted state transportation improvement program shall be limited to those projects that are included in the immediately prior state transportation improvement program and projects submitted or recommended pursuant to Sections 14526 and 14527.

(f) In no event shall the state transportation improvement program exceed the funds reasonably expected to be available as set forth in the estimate adopted pursuant to Section 14525.

(1) The state transportation improvement program is a schedule for project delivery and shall specify the year of delivery. Each project to be included in the program shall include the escalated current cost of the project updated to at least November 1 of the preceding year. While it is recognized that the initial escalated current cost cannot be based on a full study of all aspects of the project, nevertheless, any project previously included in a program, where the state and federal share of the latest escalated current cost exceeds 120 percent of the state and federal share of the project's base cost, shall not be included in the next adopted program unless the commission determines that the project is the most cost-effective of all the projects in the county that are not included in the program. The project's base cost shall be the cost at which the project was originally placed in the program or the cost established by the commission upon its determination that this project is the most cost-effective for projects that have been reviewed under this section, whichever is higher.

(2) If, as a result of cost increases, funding restrictions require the delay of projects, the commission shall give consideration to delaying projects with the greatest cost increases.

(g) The state transportation improvement program shall identify and include the cost of project development, including, but not limited to, design and estimating costs and the costs of environmental studies.

CHAPTER 227

An act to amend Sections 24001, 24002, 24003, 24006, 24007, 24008, 24009, 24010, 24011, 24012, 24013, 24015, and 24018 of, and to add Section 24013.5 to, the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to horses, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor July 15, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 24001 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

24001. For the purposes of this chapter:

(a) "Event" means any public horse show, competition (including cutting horse competitions, endurance riding competitions, competitive trail competitions, gymkhanas, and any other competition as determined by the secretary by regulation), or sale, in which money, goods, or services are exchanged for the right to compete for a single set of placings leading to points or awards at the show or competition, or to permit a horse to be consigned for sale. "Event" does not include any of the following:

(1) Those competitions subject to the jurisdiction of the California Horse Racing Board.

(2) Sales consisting solely of racing stock.

(3) A rodeo related competition including both rough stock and timed performance competitions when held apart from a horse show.

(4) Roping club events when held apart from a horse show.
(5) Cattle team pennings when held apart from a horse show.
(6) Barrel racing when held apart from a horse show.
(7) Parade horse competitions.
(8) Public horse shows and public horse competitions that do not last longer than one day and whose total cumulative fees to enter into any one or all classes do not exceed four dollars and ninety-nine cents ($4.99), unless otherwise prescribed by the secretary by regulation. "Grounds fees," "stall fees," or any other fee composed of money, goods, or services, which is assessed to permit competitors or consignors to enter into an event are considered a part of this total cumulative fee.

(b) "Event manager" means the person in charge of an event, including the person responsible for registering the event with the department, and the person responsible for the assessment, collection, and remittance of fees. "Event manager" includes horse show secretaries and managers, competitive event managers, and horse sale managers and sale owners.

(c) "Horse" means and includes all horses, mules, and asses.

(d) "Licensed veterinarian" means any person licensed as a veterinarian by the State of California.

(e) "Prohibited substance" is any stimulant, depressant, tranquilizer, anesthetic, including any local anesthetic, sedative analgesic, corticosteroid anabolic steroid, nonsteroidal anti-inflammatory drug, or agent that would sore a horse, which could affect the performance, soundness, or disposition of a horse, or any drug regardless of how harmless or innocuous it might otherwise be that could interfere with the detection of any prohibited substance. It also includes any metabolite or derivative of any prohibited substance.

(f) "Exempt medications" are those medications containing prohibited substances determined by the secretary to be exempt from this chapter. With respect to public horse shows or competitions, in addition to any other "exempt medication," the administration of a single nonsteroidal anti-inflammatory substance in accordance with the recommendations on the manufacturer's label shall also constitute the administration of an "exempt medication." However, the administration of two or more nonsteroidal anti-inflammatory substances within 72 hours prior to the show or competition constitutes the administration of a prohibited substance.

(g) "Public" horse shows, competitions, or sales are those events that permit a person to enter or consign a horse for sale in exchange for money, goods, or services. Any club or group that permits people to join, enter into competition, or consign a horse for sale in exchange for money, goods, or services, is "public" for the purposes of this chapter.

(h) "Stimulant or depressant" means any medication that stimulates or depresses the circulatory, respiratory, or central or peripheral nervous system.

(i) To "sore" means to apply an irritating or blistering agent internally or externally for the purpose of affecting the performance, soundness, or disposition of a horse.

(j) "Trainer" means any person who has the responsibility for the care, training, custody, or performance of a horse, including, but not limited to, any person who signs any entry blank of any public horse show, competition, or sale, whether that person is an owner, rider, agent, coach, adult, or minor.

SEC. 2. Section 24002 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

24002. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b), the secretary has jurisdiction of all events under this chapter and shall administer and enforce this chapter.

(b) This chapter does not apply to any individual horse show, competition, or sale that is certified by the secretary. The secretary may, with the concurrence of the advisory committee established pursuant to Section 24013.5 and after holding a public hearing, certify any horse show, competition, or sale, if the secretary determines all of the following are satisfied:

(1) The sponsoring organization or association requests certification in writing.

(2) The event manager of the individual event requests certification of that event in writing at least 30 days prior to the event.

(3) The drug usage at the event is subject to the supervision of a qualified licensed veterinarian.

(4) Adequate security and identification of test samples are maintained, and analysis of specimens is done by a laboratory that is approved by the secretary.

(5) Actions to be taken and the penalties imposed for violating the rules or regulations of the organization or association as to drug usage are as severe or more severe as those imposed by this chapter for any similar violation.

(6) An effective enforcement procedure is followed to control drug usage at the event.

The certification shall be effective and operate on a one-time basis as to any individual horse show, competition, or sale. The secretary shall withdraw the certification for any horse show, competition, or sale, if the secretary finds that the drug prevention program of the organization or association that requested certification is not satisfactorily accomplishing the intent and objectives of this chapter. The secretary may deny certification to any horse show, competition, or sale to be given by the same organization or association as a horse show, competition, or sale from which certification is withdrawn pursuant to this paragraph.

SEC. 3. Section 24003 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

24003. Except as otherwise prohibited by law, the full use of modern therapeutic measures for the improvement and protection of the health of the horses is permitted.

SEC. 4. Section 24006 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

24006. Any trainer or owner, or both the trainer and owner, event manager, or any person who administers, attempts to administer, instructs, authorizes, aids, conspires with another to administer, or employs anyone who administers or attempts to administer a prohibited substance to a horse in violation of this chapter shall be subject to the penalties provided in this chapter that are applicable to the trainer or owner. The trainer or owner is responsible for complying with this chapter after any course of medical therapy has been administered or prescribed by a licensed veterinarian employed by the trainer or owner to examine and treat a horse. A licensed veterinarian who is employed by a trainer or owner to examine and treat a horse is not subject to the penalties provided in this chapter solely on account of that examination and treatment or prescription.

SEC. 5. Section 24007 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

24007. (a) In addition to any other penalty or fine prescribed by law, a trainer or owner, or both the trainer and owner, of a horse found to have received a prohibited substance in violation of this chapter shall be subject to a civil penalty of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) or more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for each violation, to be recovered by the secretary in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) In addition to the penalty specified in subdivision (a) or any other penalty or fine prescribed by law, the secretary may suspend any trainer or owner, or both the trainer and owner, from all competitions at any public horse show or competition for a period of not less than 90 days or more than one year for each violation. It is unlawful for any person suspended from competition by the secretary to compete in any public horse show or competition during the period of suspension. Any person suspended from competition by the secretary who competes in any public horse show or competition during the period of suspension is subject to the civil penalty prescribed by subdivision (a) for each entry during the period of suspension.

(c) The owner or owners of a horse found to have received a prohibited substance in violation of this chapter shall forfeit all prize money or sweepstakes and any trophies, ribbons, and points won at any public horse show or competition by the horse and the same shall be redistributed by the horse show or competition in accordance with its rules or bylaws. The owner shall pay a fee of fifty dollars ($50) to the public horse show or competition. The horse may be suspended for any period of time specified by the secretary. If the violation occurs at a horse sale, the contract of sale is voidable at the buyer's discretion.

(d) In lieu of civil prosecution by the secretary, the secretary may levy a civil penalty against a person violating any provision of this chapter.

(e) Before a civil penalty is levied, the person charged with the violation shall receive notice of the nature of the violation and shall be given an opportunity to be heard, including the right to review the secretary's evidence and a right to present evidence on his or her own behalf.

(f) Review of the decision of the secretary may be sought by the person against whom the penalty was levied within 30 days of the date of the decision pursuant to Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(g) After the exhaustion of the review procedure provided in this section, the secretary or his or her representative, may file a certified copy of a final decision of the secretary that directs the payment of a civil penalty and, if applicable, any order that denies a petition for a writ of administrative mandamus, with the clerk of the superior court of any county. Judgment shall be entered immediately by the clerk in conformity with the decision or order. No fees shall be charged by the clerk of the superior court for the performance of any official service required in connection with the entry of judgment pursuant to this section.

SEC. 6. Section 24008 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

24008. The horses at a public horse show, competition, or horse sale are subject to examination under the direction of a licensed veterinarian of the department or agent thereof. The appointed licensed veterinarian, with the approval of the secretary, may appoint technicians and agents to perform certain duties under this chapter that are not prohibited by other provisions of law. The examination may include physical, saliva, urine, blood tests, or any other tests or procedure in the discretion of the licensed veterinarian necessary to effectuate the purposes of this chapter. Any or all horses in or from a class or all classes in a public horse show or competition or any horse entered into or from any class or competition or sale, whether in competition or not, if the horse is on the show or sale grounds, or any horse withdrawn by any person or trainer within 24 hours prior to a class for which it has been entered as well as any horse withdrawn from any horse sale, may be examined.

SEC. 7. Section 24009 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

24009. Whether a horse is in competition or not, refusal to submit a horse in a public horse show, competition, or sale for examination or to cooperate with the licensed veterinarian or his or her technicians and agents shall constitute a violation of, and subject the responsible person to, penalties under this chapter. A suitable sample shall be collected from a horse selected for testing by a drug testing agent of the department unless the agent releases the horse from testing.

SEC. 8. Section 24010 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

24010. If the chemical analysis of blood, urine, saliva, or other samples taken from a horse indicate the presence of a prohibited substance or any metabolite or derivative thereof, it shall be prima facie evidence that the prohibited substance has been administered to the horse. A hearing shall be held when a positive report is received from a chemist identifying a prohibited substance or any metabolite or derivative thereof, unless the requirements of Section 24011 have been met or the prohibited substance consists solely of an exempt medication. The trainer or owner, or both the trainer and owner, responsible for the condition of the horse shall not be subject to the penalty prescribed under this chapter or suspended, and no horse shall be barred from competition until after the conclusion of the hearing and a written ruling thereon has been made by the secretary.

SEC. 9. Section 24011 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

24011. A horse exhibited at an event that receives a prohibited substance, excluding exempt medications, within 48 hours prior to any withdrawal time established by or pursuant to this chapter, shall not be eligible for show, competition, or sale, unless the following requirements have been met and the facts requested are submitted to the secretary in writing:

(a) Medication shall be therapeutic and necessary for treatment of an illness or injury.

(b) The horse shall be withdrawn from show, competition, or the sale for a period of not less than 24 hours after a prohibited substance is administered, unless the secretary determines a different withdrawal period for a specific prohibited substance or class of substances. The withdrawal period for anabolic steroids is 90 days after administration.

(c) The medication shall be administered by a licensed veterinarian, the trainer, or owner.

(d) Medication shall be identified as to the amount, strength, and mode of administration.

(e) The statement shall include the date and time of administration of the medication.

(f) The horse shall be identified by its name, age, sex, color, and entry number.

(g) The statement shall contain diagnosis and reason for administering the medication.

(h) The statement shall be signed by the person administering the medication.

(i) The statement shall be filed with the event manager of the public horse show or competition or general manager of the horse sale within one hour after administration or one hour after the event manager of the event returns to duty, if administration is at a time other than during show or sale hours.

(j) The statement shall be signed by the event manager or his or her designated representative and time of receipt recorded on the statement by the event manager or his or her designated representative.

If the chemical analysis of the sample taken from a horse so treated indicates the presence of a prohibited substance and all the requirements of this section have been fully complied with, the information contained in the medication report and any other relevant evidence shall be considered at any hearing provided under this chapter in determining whether any provision of this chapter has been violated.

SEC. 10. Section 24012 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

24012. (a) To provide funds for enforcement of this chapter, the event manager of every event shall charge and collect a fee of not more than three dollars ($3) through the 1997-98 fiscal year for each horse entered or exhibited in the event, and each horse consigned for public sale, as determined by the secretary to be necessary to carry out this chapter. Event managers shall be notified of the applicable fee at the time of registration of an event. The event manager of the registered event shall remit the fee established pursuant to this section, in addition to the completed assessment summary, as prescribed by the secretary, to the department within 15 days after completion of the event.

Commencing with the 1998–99 fiscal year, the secretary, based on the recommendation of the advisory committee appointed under Section 24013.5, shall set the fee at a rate higher or lower than the fee established through the 1997–98 fiscal year, but the fee shall not exceed five dollars ($5).

(b) Any event manager who does not pay to the department the full amount that is due pursuant to this section shall pay a civil penalty of 10 percent of the amount due plus interest at the rate of 1½ percent per month of the unpaid balance computed from the date of the event. The event manager is personally liable for fees and penalties owed the department pursuant to this section.

(c) Fees and penalties collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Department of Food and Agriculture Fund. All funds received by the department from fees and penalties pursuant to this section shall be used exclusively to carry out the intent and purpose of this chapter, including, but not limited to, pharmacological studies, drug testing, and drug research, inspection for drugs, prosecution of alleged offenders, administrative costs, attorneys and expert witness fees, and any other costs necessary to carry out this chapter.

SEC. 11. Section 24013 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

24013. (a) The secretary shall adopt such reasonable rules and regulations as are necessary to carry out this chapter.

(b) The secretary shall adopt an exempt medications list, and shall annually revise the list on October 1 of each subsequent year. All changes to the list shall take effect on January 1 of the following year. At the time an event is registered pursuant to Section 24015, a copy of the exempt medications list shall be provided to the event manager for reference purposes. The exempt medications list shall also be made available to any person upon request.

(c) In making and adopting regulations, the secretary shall first consult with the advisory committee appointed pursuant to Section 24013.5.

SEC. 12. Section 24013.5 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

24013.5. The secretary shall appoint an advisory committee to serve without compensation. The committee shall meet at least twice a year and shall elect a chairperson at its first meeting after appointment. Thereafter selection of the chairperson shall take place as deemed appropriate by the committee. Members of the committee and their alternates may include, but not be limited to, representation from the California State Horsemen's Association, the Equestrian Trails, Inc., the California Professional Horsemen's Association, the Los Angeles County Horse Show Exhibitors Association, the California Dressage Society, the Pacific Coast Quarter Horse Association, the Central California Quarter Horse Association, the Division of Fairs and Expositions, the North American Trail Ride Conference, the American Horse Shows Association, the University of California School of Veterinary Medicine, the Appaloosa Club, the International Arabian Horse Association, the Pinto Horse Association of America, the California Veterinary Medical Association, the NorCal Hunter Jumper Association, the California Farm Bureau Federation, the California Gymkhana Association, the American Morgan Horse Association, the Pacific Coast Cutting Horse Association, the Pacific Coast Horse Shows Association, and any other organization the secretary deems appropriate. These advisory committee members and their alternates shall be representative of the industry that this chapter regulates. The members of the committee may also include, but are not limited to, representatives of breed associations represented within the state and other organizations with an interest in the deterrence of drug abuse in the industry that this chapter regulates. In addition, the secretary may appoint one public member to the committee.

Upon the secretary's request, the committee shall submit to the secretary the names of three or more natural persons, each of whom shall be a citizen and resident of this state for appointment by the secretary as a public member and an alternate public member of the committee. The secretary may appoint one of the nominees as the public member on the committee. If all nominees are unsatisfactory to the secretary, the committee shall continue to submit lists of nominees until the secretary has made a selection. Any vacancy in the office of the public member of the committee shall be filled by appointment by the secretary from the nominee or nominees similarly qualified and submitted by the committee. The public member of the committee shall represent the interests of the general public in all matters considered by the committee and shall have the same voting and other rights and immunities as other members of the committee.

SEC. 13. Section 24015 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

24015. (a) Every event shall be registered with the department, unless otherwise prescribed by the secretary by regulation. The event manager of an event shall file a completed registration form with the department, as prescribed by the secretary, at least 30 days prior to the beginning of the event, which shall constitute the registration of the event.

(b) An event manager who fails to register an event required to be registered pursuant to this chapter is subject to a civil penalty to be levied by the secretary in an amount not less than one hundred dollars ($100) or more than two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500). In determining the amount of the penalty, the secretary shall consider any previous violations, and whether the event manager cooperated in good faith with the department.

SEC. 14. Section 24018 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

24018. The secretary may accept on behalf of the state, donations of money from any person, association, or agency interested in the control of drugging of horses. Any fines, penalties, fees, or donations collected by the secretary under this chapter shall be deposited in the Department of Food and Agriculture Fund. Any interest earned from the investment of moneys derived pursuant to this chapter shall also be deposited in the fund. These moneys shall be used by the department to carry out this chapter.

SEC. 15. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to add Section 1297.119 to the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to arbitrators.

[Approved by Governor July 15, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1297.119 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

1297.119. An arbitrator has the immunity of a judicial officer from civil liability when acting in the capacity of arbitrator under any statute or contract.

The immunity afforded by this section shall supplement, and not supplant, any otherwise applicable common law or statutory immunity.

CHAPTER 229

An act to amend Section 54902 of the Government Code, and to amend Sections 2189 and 2229 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor July 15, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 54902 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54902. On or before December 1 of the year immediately preceding the year in which the assessments or taxes are to be levied, the statement and the map or plat shall be filed with each assessor whose roll is used for the levy and with the State Board of Equalization in Sacramento.

SEC. 2. Section 2189 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2189. (a) A tax on personal property is a lien on any real property on the secured roll also belonging to the owner of the personal property, if the personal property is located upon that real property on the lien date, and if the fact of the lien is shown on the secured roll opposite the description of the real property. However, if that real property is transferred or conveyed to a bona fide purchaser for value after the lien date, but prior to the date upon which the assessment on the personal property is made, and the purchaser of that property did not own, claim, possess, or control the personal property at any time from the lien date until the date upon which that assessment was made, the taxes on the personal property shall be placed on the unsecured roll and shall not be a lien on the real property.

(b) Any failure or omission to show the fact of a lien as described in subdivision (a) for personal property taxes on the secured roll opposite the description of real property shall not operate to invalidate those personal property taxes, but in that case the tax shall be collected in the same manner as taxes on the unsecured roll. However, if the fact of lien is erroneously entered on the secured roll opposite the description of real property belonging to someone other than the owner of the personal property on the lien date, then the delinquency penalty provided for in Chapter 4 of Part 5 shall not attach until December 10 at 5 p.m. or, if December 10th falls on Saturday, Sunday, or a holiday at 5 p.m. on the next business day.

SEC. 3. Section 2229 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2229. (a) Any classification or exemption of property for purposes of ad valorem property taxation enacted by the Legislature after January 1, 1973, shall be reimbursed by the state for the 1973–1974 fiscal year and for each fiscal year thereafter.

(b) For purposes of this section the actual loss of revenue does not include potential revenue from property of a type which was not being assessed and taxed on January 1, 1973.

(c) Upon appropriation of reimbursement funds by the Legislature, each county auditor shall file a claim with the Controller on or before September 30 for reimbursement of the tax loss attributable to the exemption. The Controller shall pay on or before December 30 of each year one-half of the amount claimed and shall pay the other one-half on or before April 30. The Controller may audit, or may request the State Board of Equalization to audit, any of these claims or payments. This section does not apply to classes of property affected by Sections 988, 1152, 5303, and subdivision (c) of Section 227.

(d) The Legislative Analyst shall review any classification or exemption of property to which this section is applicable and shall report to the Legislature on the general economic effects thereof. This report shall be submitted at least one year prior to the date on which the classification or exemption is scheduled to terminate.

(e) Any claim alleging that the reimbursement requirements of this section have not been complied with shall be presented directly to the Legislature and Sections 905.2 and 945.4 of the Government Code shall not apply thereto.

CHAPTER 230

An act to add Section 6524 to the Government Code, relating to water, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 15, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6524 is added to the Government Code, to read:

6524. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any public agency that is a member of the South East Regional Reclamation Authority, the Aliso Water Management Agency, the South Orange County Reclamation Authority, or the San Juan Basin Authority may exercise any power granted to those entities by any of the joint powers agreements creating those entities, whether or not that public agency is a signatory to any of these joint powers agreements granting that power or is otherwise authorized by law to exercise that power, for the purpose of promoting efficiency in the administration of these joint powers entities.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order for prescribed local agencies to coordinate the management of water resources and water quality as soon as possible, thereby protecting the public health and safety, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 231

An act to amend Section 116.420 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to small claims court.

[Approved by Governor July 15, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 116.420 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

116.420. (a) No claim shall be filed or maintained in small claims court by the assignee of the claim.

(b) This section does not prevent the filing or defense of an action in the small claims court by (1) a trustee in bankruptcy in the exercise of the trustee's duties as trustee, or (2) by the holder of a security agreement, retail installment contract, or lien contract subject to the Unruh Act (Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1801) of Title 2 of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code) or the Automobile Sales Finance Act (Chapter 2b (commencing with Section 2981) of Title 14 of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code), purchased by the holder for the holder's portfolio of investments, provided that the holder is not an assignee for the purpose of collection.

(c) This section does not prevent the filing in small claims court by a local government which is self-insured for purposes of workers' compensation and is seeking subrogation pursuant to Section 3852 of the Labor Code.

CHAPTER 232

An act to amend Section 16754.3 of the Government Code, relating to general obligation bonds.

[Approved by Governor July 15, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 16754.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

16754.3. (a) The bonds specified in the resolution shall be sold by the Treasurer, at the time fixed by the Treasurer, and upon the notice that the Treasurer may deem advisable, or at the time to which the sale shall have been so continued, either at public sale, upon sealed bids, to the bidder whose bid will result in the lowest interest cost on account of those bonds or by negotiated sale if the Treasurer determines it will result in a lower interest cost. With respect to bonds sold by the Treasurer by negotiated sales, the Treasurer shall make a finding on the public record as to why a public sale was not used. The Treasurer may sell the bonds at a price below the par value thereof, but the discount on bonds so sold shall not exceed 3 percent of the par value. The interest, if any, accrued to the date of delivery of, and payment for, the bonds shall be added to the sale price of the bonds in any case.

bid under which the amount so ascertained is the least shall be deemed to be the bid resulting in the lowest net interest cost. Under the true interest cost method, the bonds shall be awarded to the bidder submitting the lowest interest rate bid determined by the nominal interest rate that, when compounded semiannually and used to discount the debt service payments on the bonds to the date of the bonds, results in an amount equal to the price bid for the bonds, excluding interest accrued to the date of delivery. Under either method the sale shall be for cash, payable upon the delivery of the bonds in definitive form, or if the right to deliver temporary securities has been reserved, then upon the delivery of the temporary securities.

(c) This section shall apply to any bonds authorized at any statewide election held at any time after the effective date of this section. Section 16754 shall apply only to bonds authorized at elections held before the effective date of this section.

CHAPTER 233

An act relating to the Santa Monica Bay Restoration Plan.

[Approved by Governor July 15, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature hereby finds and declares all of the following:

(a) The Santa Monica Bay is an extraordinary natural resource of national, state, and local significance.

(b) The quality of the water within the Santa Monica Bay has been degraded and has adversely affected the beneficial uses of the bay. The water quality of the bay is at risk of further impairment even though pollution from industry and sewage treatment plants has been reduced significantly over the last decade.

(c) The Santa Monica Bay Restoration Project was formed under the National Estuary Program of the federal Clean Water Act to identify critical problems of the bay and to develop and implement solutions to remedy those problems.

(d) Under the National Estuary Program, a management conference developed a comprehensive management plan for the Santa Monica Bay entitled the Santa Monica Bay Restoration Plan.

(e) The goals of the Santa Monica Bay Restoration Plan, which identifies 73 priority actions, include the protection, restoration, and enhancement of the beneficial uses of the bay.

CHAPTER 234

An act to amend Section 68926.3 of the Government Code, relating to courts.

[Approved by Governor July 15, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 68926.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68926.3. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, fifty dollars ($50) of each fee collected in a civil case by the clerk of each court of appeal pursuant to Section 68926 shall be paid into the treasury for deposit in a special account in the General Fund to be known as the California State Law Library Special Account, which account is hereby created.

Moneys deposited in the California State Law Library Special Account during the 1992–93 fiscal year are hereby appropriated for that fiscal year to the California State Law Library for its support. In fiscal years subsequent to the 1992–93 fiscal year, these moneys shall be available for the support of the California State Law Library upon appropriation thereto by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act.

This section shall be repealed on January 1, 2000, unless a later statute which is enacted before that date extends or repeals that date.

CHAPTER 235

An act to amend Sections 22825.2 and 75002 of, and to repeal Sections 75029.2, 75030.7, 75030.8, 75075.1, 75090.1, 75090.2, 75090.3, 75093.1, 75094, and 75095.1 of, the Government Code, relating to judges.

[Approved by Governor July 15, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22825.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

22825.2. (a) Notwithstanding Sections 22825 and 22825.1, state employees first hired on or after January 1, 1985, shall not be vested for the full employer contribution payable for annuitants unless those employees have 10 years of credited state service at time of service retirement. For purposes of this section, "state service" includes all municipal, superior, and justice court services rendered by a justice of the Supreme Court or Court of Appeal, or by a judge of the superior court.

(b) For the purpose of meeting the vesting requirements of subdivision (a), employees of the County of Merced who became employees of the state as a result of the state's assuming firefighting functions for that county shall be credited with each complete year of service with the county which would have been credited to them by the county for the vesting of postretirement health benefits, as if that service had been with the state. Subdivision (f) of Section 22825.3 does not apply to employees of the County of Merced who became employees of the state as a result of the state assuming firefighter functions for the county on or before August 1, 1988.

(c) This section does not apply to employees of the California State University or of the Legislature.

SEC. 3. Section 75002 of the Government Code is amended to read:

75002. "Judge" means a justice of the Supreme Court or of a court of appeal, or a judge of a superior court, municipal court, or justice court. A retired justice court judge does not acquire status as a judge for the purposes of this chapter by reason of designation as a judge pro tempore of, or assignment by the Chairperson of the Judicial Council to, any of these courts.

"Judge" shall not mean a justice court judge who elected pursuant to Section 75029.5 to be restored to membership in the Public Employees' Retirement System.

SEC. 4. Section 75029.2 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 75030.7 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 75030.8 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 75075.1 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 8. Section 75090.1 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 9. Section 75090.2 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 10. Section 75090.3 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 11. Section 75093.1 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 12. Section 75094 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 13. Section 75095.1 of the Government Code is repealed.

CHAPTER 236

An act to amend Section 1597.14 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to child day care facilities.

[Approved by Governor July 15, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1597.14 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1597.14. (a) Notwithstanding Section 1596.858, in the event of a sale of a licensed child day care center where the sale will result in a new license being issued, the sale and transfer of property and business shall be subject to both of the following:

(1) The licensee shall provide written notice to the department and to the child's parent or his or her legal guardian of the licensee's intent to sell the child day care center at least 30 days prior to the transfer of the property or business, or at the time that a bona fide offer is made, whichever period is longer.

(2) The licensee shall, prior to entering into an admission agreement, inform the child's parent or his or her legal guardian, admitted to the facility after notification to the department, of the licensee's intent to sell the property or business.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (e), the property and business shall not be transferred until the buyer qualifies for a license or provisional license pursuant to this chapter.

(1) The seller shall notify, in writing, a prospective buyer of the necessity to obtain a license, as required by this chapter, if the buyer's intent is to continue operating the facility as a child day care center. The seller shall send a copy of this written notice to the licensing agency.

(2) The prospective buyer shall submit an application for a license, as specified in Section 1596.95, within five days of the acceptance of the offer by the seller.

(c) No transfer of the facility shall be permitted until 30 days have elapsed from the date when notice has been provided to the department pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a).

(d) The department shall give priority to applications for licensure that are submitted pursuant to this section in order to ensure timely transfer of the property and business. The department shall make a decision within 60 days after a complete application is submitted on whether to issue a license pursuant to Section 1596.95.

(e) If the parties involved in the transfer of the property and business fully comply with this section, then the transfer may be completed and the buyer shall not be considered to be operating an unlicensed facility while the department makes a final determination on the application for licensure.

CHAPTER 237

An act to amend and renumber Section 383 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to class actions, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 15, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 383 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended and renumbered to read:

384. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to ensure that the unpaid residuals in class action litigation are distributed, to the extent possible, in a manner designed either to further the purposes of the underlying causes of action, or to promote justice for all Californians. The Legislature finds that the use of funds collected by the State Bar pursuant to this section for these purposes is in the public interest, is a proper use of the funds, and is consistent with essential public and governmental purposes.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (d), prior to the entry of any judgment in a class action established pursuant to Section 382, the court shall determine the total amount that will be payable to all class members, if all class members are paid the amount to which they are entitled pursuant to the judgment. The court shall also set a date when the parties shall report to the court the total amount that was actually paid to the class members. After the report is received, the court shall amend the judgment to direct the defendant to pay the sum of the unpaid residue, plus interest on that sum at the legal rate of interest from the date of entry of the initial judgment, in any manner the court determines is consistent with the objectives and purposes of the underlying cause of action, including to child advocacy programs and to the California Legal Corps, as established pursuant to Section 6034 of the Business and Professions Code. The court shall ensure that notice is given to the State Bar of California of any such order.

(c) Nothing in this section shall create an obligation or pledge of the credit of the State Bar of California. Neither the State Bar nor its officers and employees shall be liable for damage or injury arising out of any act or omission in the implementation or administration of this section.

(d) This section shall not apply to any class action brought against any public entity, as defined in Section 811.2 of the Government Code, or against any public employee, as defined in Section 811.4 of the Government Code. Provided, however, that this section shall not be construed to abrogate any equitable cy pres remedy which may be available in any class action with regard to all or part of the residue.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to avoid unintended fiscal liability for the State of California and other public entities, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 238

An act to amend Section 12804 of the Government Code, and to amend Sections 63 and 74 of the Military and Veterans Code, relating to the Department of Veterans Affairs, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 19, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 20, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12804 of the Government Code is amended to read:

12804. The Agriculture and Services Agency is hereby renamed the State and Consumer Services Agency.

The State and Consumer Services Agency consists of the following: the Department of General Services; the Department of Consumer Affairs; the Franchise Tax Board; the Public Employees' Retirement System; the State Fire Marshal; the State Teachers' Retirement System; the Department of Fair Employment and Housing; the California Museum of Science and Industry; and the State Building and Standards Commission.

SEC. 2. Section 63 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

63. There is in the state government a Department of Veterans Affairs.

SEC. 3. Section 74 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

74. (a) The chief administrative officer of the Department of Veterans Affairs shall be the Director of Veterans Affairs who shall be a civil executive officer.

(b) The Director of Veterans Affairs shall be a veteran as "veteran" is defined in Section 18540.4 of the Government Code.

SEC. 4. This is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order, as soon as possible, to more efficiently protect the desperate needs of veterans and their dependents, numbering approximately 9,000,000 in California, and to enable the Department of Veterans Affairs to fulfill its statutory responsibilities, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 239

An act to amend Section 35145.5 of, and to add Section 35147 to, the Education Code, relating to schools, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 35145.5 of the Education Code is amended to read:

35145.5. It is the intent of the Legislature that members of the public be able to place matters directly related to school district business on the agenda of school district governing board meetings. Every agenda for regular meetings shall provide an opportunity for members of the public to directly address the governing board on any item of interest to the public, before or during the governing board's consideration of the item, that is within the subject matter jurisdiction of the governing board. Governing boards shall adopt reasonable regulations to insure that this intent is carried out. The regulations may specify reasonable procedures to insure the proper functioning of governing board meetings.

This subdivision shall not preclude the taking of testimony at regular meetings on matters not on the agenda which any member of the public may wish to bring before the board, provided that, except as authorized by Section 54954.2 of the Government Code, no action is taken by the board on those matters at the same meeting at which the testimony is taken. Nothing in this paragraph shall be deemed to limit further discussion on the same subject matter at a subsequent meeting.

SEC. 2. Section 35147 is added to the Education Code, to read:

35147. (a) Except as specified in this section, any meeting of the councils or committees specified in subdivision (b) is exempt from the provisions of this article, the Bagley-Keene Open Meeting Act (Article 9 (commencing with Section 11120) of Chapter 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code), and the Ralph M. Brown Act (Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 54950) of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code).

(b) The councils and schoolsite advisory committees established pursuant to Sections 52012, 52065, 52176, and 52852, subdivision (b) of Section 54425, Sections 54444.2, 54724, and 62002.5, and committees formed pursuant to Section 11503 or Section 2604 of Title 25 of the United States Code, are subject to this section.

(c) Any meeting held by a council or committee specified in subdivision (b) shall be open to the public and any member of the public shall be able to address the council or committee during the meeting on any item within the subject matter jurisdiction of the council or committee. Notice of the meeting shall be posted at the schoolsite, or other appropriate place accessible to the public, at least 72 hours before the time set for the meeting. The notice shall specify the date, time, and location of the meeting and contain an agenda describing each item of business to be discussed or acted upon. The council or committee may not take any action on any item of business unless that item appeared on the posted agenda or unless the council or committee members present, by unanimous vote, find that there is a need to take immediate action and that the need for action came to the attention of the council or committee subsequent to the posting of the agenda. Questions or brief statements made at a meeting by members of the council, committee, or public that do not have a significant effect on pupils or employees in the school or school district or that can be resolved solely by the provision of information need not be described on an agenda as items of business. If a council or committee violates the procedural meeting requirements of this section and upon demand of any person, the council or committee shall reconsider the item at its next meeting, after allowing for public input on the item.

(d) Any materials provided to a schoolsite council shall be made available to any member of the public who requests the materials pursuant to the California Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1).

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to clarify how legislation that became effective on April 1, 1994, applies to schools, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 240

An act to amend Section 18613.1 of, and to add Section 18613.4 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to housing, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18613.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18613.1. The requirements for any installation of a manufactured home or mobilehome shall not exceed the requirements set forth in Sections 18613 and 18613.4.

SEC. 2. Section 18613.4 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

18613.4. (a) All manufactured homes or mobilehomes, when initially installed or subsequently reinstalled on a different lot pursuant to Section 18613, shall be installed to resist, in conjunction with vertical loads, either forces from horizontal wind pressures of 15 pounds per square foot or the design wind load of the home, whichever is greater.

(b) For the purposes of complying with subdivision (a), all manufactured homes or mobilehomes with manufacturer's installation instructions that include requirements for tiedowns shall be installed in accordance with all of the following:

(1) The manufacturer's installation instructions.

(2) If not included in the manufacturer's installation instructions, a minimum of four additional tiedowns per section shall be installed to resist the same wind forces in the longitudinal direction of the manufactured home or mobilehome as the total of those forces required to be resisted in the transverse direction. No portion of the tiedown extending beyond the vertical plane of an exterior wall of the manufactured home or mobilehome shall be above the ground.

(3) When used, concrete or steel piers shall have mechanical connections to the home and their footing that resist separation of the supports from the home and the footing. Mechanical connections shall not require modifications to the manufactured home or mobilehome.

(c) For the purposes of complying with subdivision (a), when no manufacturer's installation instructions are available that include requirements for tiedowns, the manufactured home or mobilehome shall be installed in accordance with both of the following:

(1) Department regulations, which shall include requirements for tiedowns meeting the standards in subdivision (a).

(2) The requirements specified in paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (b).

(d) For the purposes of complying with subdivision (a), all manufactured homes or mobilehomes may be installed or reinstalled in accordance with plans and specifications signed by a licensed architect or engineer that meet the requirements of this section.

(e) Manufactured homes or mobilehomes installed before the effective date of the act that added this section that do not meet the standards in subdivision (a) and need to be reinstalled due to damage caused by wind or seismic forces shall be reinstalled to meet the requirements of subdivision (a) and paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (b), if federal funds are available for grants or direct payment of the additional installation costs.

(f) Nothing in this section prohibits the use of alternative materials, installation methods, devices, et cetera, as permitted in Section 18305, as long as the forces specified in subdivision (a) and in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) are resisted.

(g) The department shall adopt emergency regulations in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code in order to implement the purposes of this section.

(h) The department shall develop standards for mechanical connections for concrete block supports that connect the blocks to the manufactured homes or mobilehomes and their footing and resist the separation of the supports from the home and the footing. By the adoption of the act that adds this subdivision, it is not the intent of the Legislature that the concrete blocks used as vertical supports be required to be mechanically attached to the manufactured homes or mobilehomes and their footings.

(i) This section shall not apply to the installation of any manufactured home or mobilehome for which escrow has been opened in accordance with Section 18035 prior to the operative date of the act that adds this section.

(j) This section shall become operative 60 days after the date that the act that adds this section is chaptered.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

To ensure that as many manufactured homes and mobilehomes as possible are protected at the earliest possible time from sudden devastation by earthquakes, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 241

An act to add Section 57087.3 to the Government Code, and to amend Sections 97.35 and 97.38 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to local government, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 57087.3 is added to the Government Code, to read:

57087.3. The merger of a subsidiary district with a city, of which the city council is also the governing board of that subsidiary district, shall not be subject to Sections 99 and 99.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code if the city council adopts a resolution that states that the city shall do all of the following:

(a) Continue providing the services of the subsidiary district at the same level to those areas outside the city's boundaries, but within the territory of the subsidiary district, as the services provided for territory within the city limits.

(b) Assume all assets of the subsidiary district.

(c) Assume all liabilities of the subsidiary district.

(d) Assume all ad valorem taxes, other accounts receivable, and other revenues of the subsidiary district.

SEC. 2. Section 97.35 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

97.35. (a) In each county, other than the County of Ventura, having within its boundaries a qualifying city, the computations made pursuant to Section 97, for the 1989–90 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, shall be modified as follows:

With respect to tax rate areas within the boundaries of a qualifying city, there shall be excluded from the aggregate amount of "property tax revenue allocated pursuant to this chapter to local agencies, other than for a qualifying city, in the prior fiscal year," an amount equal to the sum of the amounts calculated pursuant to the TEA formula.

(b) (1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, each qualifying city shall, for the 1989–90 fiscal year and each year thereafter, be allocated by the auditor an amount determined pursuant to the TEA formula.

(2) For each qualifying city, the auditor shall, for the 1989–90 fiscal year and each year thereafter, allocate the amount determined pursuant to the TEA formula to all tax rate areas within that city in proportion to each tax rate area's share of the total assessed value in the city for the applicable fiscal year, and the amount so determined shall be subtracted from the county's proportionate share of property tax revenue for that fiscal year within those tax rate areas.

(3) After making the allocations pursuant to paragraphs (1) and (2), but before making the calculations pursuant to Section 98, the auditor shall, for all tax rate areas in the qualifying city, calculate the proportionate share of property tax revenue allocated pursuant to this section and Section 97 in the 1989–90 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter to each jurisdiction in the tax rate area.

(4) In lieu of making the allocations of annual tax increment pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 98, the auditor shall, for the 1989–90 fiscal year and each year thereafter, allocate the amount of property tax revenue determined pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 98 to jurisdictions in the tax rate area using the proportionate shares derived pursuant to paragraph (3).

(5) For purposes of the calculations made pursuant to Section 97, in the 1990–91 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, the amounts that would have been allocated to qualifying cities pursuant to this subdivision shall be deemed to be the "amount of property tax revenue allocated in the prior fiscal year."

(c) "TEA formula" means the Tax Equity Allocation formula, and shall be calculated by the auditor for each qualifying city as follows:

(1) For the 1988–89 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, the auditor shall determine the total amount of property tax revenue to be allocated to all jurisdictions in all tax rate areas within the qualifying city, before the allocation and payment of funds in that fiscal year to a community redevelopment agency within the qualifying city, as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 33670 of the Health and Safety Code.

(2) The auditor shall determine the total amount of funds allocated in each fiscal year to a community redevelopment agency in accordance with subdivision (b) of Section 33670 of the Health and Safety Code.

(3) The auditor shall determine the total amount of funds paid in each fiscal year by a community redevelopment agency within the city to jurisdictions other than the city pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 33401 and Section 33676 of the Health and Safety Code, and the cost to the redevelopment agency of any land or facilities transferred and any amounts paid to jurisdictions other than the city to assist in the construction or reconstruction of facilities pursuant to an agreement entered into under Section 33401 or 33445.5 of the Health and Safety Code.

(4) The auditor shall subtract the amount determined in paragraph (3) from the amount determined in paragraph (2).

(5) The auditor shall subtract the amount determined in paragraph (4) from the amount determined in paragraph (1).

(6) The amount computed in paragraph (5) shall be multiplied by the following percentages in order to determine the TEA formula amount to be distributed to the qualifying city in each fiscal year:

(A) For the first fiscal year in which the qualifying city receives a distribution pursuant to this section, 1 percent of the amount determined in paragraph (5).

(B) For the second fiscal year in which the qualifying city receives a distribution pursuant to this section, 2 percent of the amount determined in paragraph (5).

(C) For the third fiscal year in which the qualifying city receives a distribution pursuant to this section, 3 percent of the amount determined in paragraph (5).

(D) For the fourth fiscal year in which the qualifying city receives a distribution pursuant to this section, 4 percent of the amount determined in paragraph (5).

(E) For the fifth fiscal year in which the qualifying city receives a distribution pursuant to this section, 5 percent of the amount determined in paragraph (5).

(F) For the sixth fiscal year in which the qualifying city receives a distribution pursuant to this section, 6 percent of the amount determined in paragraph (5).

(G) For the seventh fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter in which the city receives a distribution pursuant to this section, 7 percent of the amount determined in paragraph (5).

(d) "Qualifying city" means any city, except a qualifying city as defined in Section 97.3, which incorporated prior to June 5, 1987, and had an amount of property tax revenue allocated to it pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 97 in the 1988–89 fiscal year which is less than 7 percent of the amount of property tax revenue computed as follows:

(1) The auditor shall determine the total amount of property tax revenue allocated to the city in the 1988–89 fiscal year.

(2) The auditor shall subtract the amount in the 1988–89 fiscal year determined in paragraph (3) of subdivision (c) from the amount determined in paragraph (2) of subdivision (c).

(3) The auditor shall subtract the amount determined in paragraph (2) from the amount of property tax revenue determined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (c).

(4) The auditor shall divide the amount of property tax revenue determined in paragraph (1) of this subdivision by the amount of property tax revenue determined in paragraph (3) of this subdivision.

(5) If the quotient determined in paragraph (4) of this subdivision is less than 0.07, the city is a qualifying city. If the quotient determined in that paragraph is equal to or greater than 0.07, the city is not a qualifying city.

(e) The auditor may assess each qualifying city its proportional share of the actual costs of making the calculations required by this section, and may deduct that assessment from the amount allocated pursuant to subdivision (b). For purposes of this subdivision, a qualifying city's proportional share of the auditor's actual costs shall not exceed the proportion it receives of the total amounts excluded in the county pursuant to subdivision (a).

(f) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), in any fiscal year in which a qualifying city is to receive a distribution pursuant to this section, the auditor shall reduce the actual amount distributed to the qualifying city by the sum of the following:

(1) The amount of property tax revenue which was exchanged between the county and the qualifying city as a result of negotiation pursuant to Section 99.6.

(2) The amount of revenue not collected by the qualifying city in the first fiscal year following the city's reduction after January 1, 1988, of the tax rate or tax base of any locally imposed general or special tax, except any tax which was imposed after January 1, 1988. In the case of a tax which existed before January 1, 1988, this paragraph shall apply only with respect to an amount attributable to a reduction of the rate or base to a level lower than the rate or base applicable on January 1, 1988. The amount so computed by the auditor shall constitute a reduction in the amount of property tax revenue distributed to the qualifying city pursuant to this section in each succeeding fiscal year. That amount shall be aggregated with any additional amount computed pursuant to this paragraph as the result of the city's reduction in any subsequent year of the tax rate or tax base of the same or any other locally imposed general or special tax.

(3) The amount of property tax revenue received pursuant to this chapter in excess of the amount allocated for the 1986–87 fiscal year by all special districts that are governed by the city council of the qualifying city or whose governing body is the same as the city council of the qualifying city with respect to all tax rate areas within the boundaries of the qualifying city. Notwithstanding this paragraph, commencing with the 1994–95 fiscal year, the auditor shall not reduce the amount distributed to a qualifying city under this section by reason of that city becoming the successor agency to a special district that is dissolved, merged with that city, or becomes a subsidiary district of that city, on or after July 1, 1994.

(g) If the auditor determines that the amount to be distributed to a qualifying city pursuant to subdivision (b), as modified by subdivisions (e) and (f), would result in a qualifying city having proceeds of taxes in excess of its appropriation limit, the auditor shall reduce the amount, on a dollar-for-dollar basis, by the amount which exceeds the city's appropriations limit.

(h) The amount not distributed to the tax rate areas of a qualifying city as a result of this section shall be distributed by the auditor to the county.

(i) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, no qualifying city shall be distributed an amount pursuant to this section which is less than the amount the city would have been allocated without the application of the TEA formula.

(j) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the auditor shall not distribute any amount determined pursuant to this section to any qualifying city which has in the prior fiscal year used any revenues or issued bonds for the construction, acquisition, or development, of any facility which is defined in Section 103(b)(4), 103(b)(5), or 103(b)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 prior to the enactment of the Tax Reform Act of 1986 (P.L. 99-514) and is no longer eligible for tax-exempt financing.

SEC. 3. Section 97.38 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

97.38. (a) In the County of Ventura, the computations made pursuant to Section 97, for the 1989–90 fiscal year and each year thereafter, shall be modified as follows:

With respect to tax rate areas, except excluded tax rate areas, within the boundaries of a qualifying city, there shall be excluded from the aggregate amount of "property tax revenue allocated pursuant to this chapter to local agencies, other than for a qualifying city, in the prior fiscal year," an amount equal to the sum of the amounts calculated pursuant to the TEA formula.

(b) (1) Each qualifying city shall, for the 1989–90 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, be allocated by the auditor an amount determined pursuant to the TEA formula.

(2) For each qualifying city, the auditor shall, for the 1989–90 fiscal year and each year thereafter, distribute the amount determined pursuant to the TEA formula to all tax rate areas, except excluded tax rate areas, within that city in proportion to each tax rate area's share of the total assessed value in the city for the applicable fiscal year, and the amount so determined shall be subtracted from the county's proportionate share of the property tax revenue for that fiscal year within those tax rate areas.

(3) After making the allocations pursuant to paragraphs (1) and (2), but before making the calculations pursuant to Section 98, the auditor shall, for all tax rate areas, except excluded tax rate areas, in the qualifying city, calculate the proportionate share of property tax revenue allocated pursuant to this section and Section 97 in the 1989–90 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter to each jurisdiction in the tax rate area.

(4) In lieu of making the allocations of annual tax increment pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 98, the auditor shall for the 1989–90 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, allocate the amount of property tax revenue determined pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 98 to jurisdictions in the tax rate area, except an excluded tax rate area, using the proportionate shares derived pursuant to paragraph (3).

(5) For purposes of the calculations made pursuant to Section 97, in the 1990–91 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, the amounts that would have been allocated to all tax rate areas, except excluded tax rate areas, of qualifying cities pursuant to this subdivision shall be deemed to be the "amount of property tax revenue allocated to those tax rate areas in the prior fiscal year."

(c) "TEA formula" means the Tax Equity Allocation formula, and shall be calculated by the auditor for each qualifying city as follows:

(1) For the 1988–89 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, the auditor shall determine the total amount of property tax revenue to be allocated to all jurisdictions in all tax rate areas, except excluded tax rate areas, within the qualifying city, before the allocation and payment of funds in that fiscal year to a community redevelopment agency within the qualifying city, as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 33670 of the Health and Safety Code.

(2) The auditor shall determine the amount of funds allocated in each fiscal year to those tax rate areas, except excluded tax rate areas, within a community redevelopment agency in accordance with subdivision (b) of Section 33670 of the Health and Safety Code.

(3) (A) The auditor shall determine the total amount of funds paid in each fiscal year by a community redevelopment agency within the city to jurisdictions other than the city pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 33401 and Section 33676 of the Health and Safety Code, and the cost to the redevelopment agency of any land or facilities transferred and any amounts paid to jurisdictions other than the city to assist in the construction or reconstruction of facilities pursuant to an agreement entered into under Section 33401 or 33445.5 of the Health and Safety Code.

(B) Of the total amount determined in subparagraph (A), the auditor shall compute a proportionate amount to be attributed to all tax rate areas, except excluded tax rate areas, within the community redevelopment agency. That proportionate amount shall be equal to that proportion which the amount determined in paragraph (2) in each fiscal year bears to the total amount of funds allocated in each fiscal year to a community redevelopment agency in accordance with subdivision (b) of Section 33670 of the Health and Safety Code.

(4) The auditor shall subtract the amount determined in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (3) from the amount determined in paragraph (2).

(5) The auditor shall subtract the amount determined in paragraph (4) from the amount determined in paragraph (1).

(6) The amount computed in paragraph (5) shall be multiplied by the following percentages in order to determine the TEA formula amount to be distributed to the qualifying city in each fiscal year:

(A) For the first fiscal year in which the qualifying city receives a distribution pursuant to this section, 1 percent of the amount determined in paragraph (5).

(B) For the second fiscal year in which the qualifying city receives a distribution pursuant to this section, 2 percent of the amount determined in paragraph (5).

(C) For the third fiscal year in which the qualifying city receives a distribution pursuant to this section, 3 percent of the amount determined in paragraph (5).

(D) For the fourth fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter in which the qualifying city receives a distribution pursuant to this section, 4 percent of the amount determined in paragraph (5).

(d) For purposes of this section, "excluded tax rate area" means either of the following:

(1) Any tax rate area included in territory annexed by the qualifying city and allocated a prescribed percentage of property tax revenue pursuant to an existing agreement between the qualifying city and the county.

(2) Any tax rate area described in paragraph (1) which was detached from the county library district and which is also allocated an additional prescribed percentage of property tax revenue pursuant to an existing agreement between the qualifying city and the county.

(e) (1) All existing agreements between the qualifying city and the county covering the allocation of property tax revenues to tax rate areas described in subdivision (d) shall remain in force.

(2) All existing agreements between the qualifying city and the county covering the allocation of property tax revenues to tax rate areas which were detached from the county library district but are not included in territory which was annexed by the qualifying city shall remain in force.

(3) All allocations to those tax rate areas described in subdivision (d), including allocations of annual tax increments, made pursuant to the existing agreements between the qualifying city and the county shall be governed by subdivision (a) of Section 97 and Section 98.

(4) All allocations to those tax rate areas described in paragraph (2), including allocations of annual tax increments, made pursuant to the existing agreements between the qualifying city and the county shall be governed by subdivision (a) of Section 97 and Section 98. However, the tax rate areas referred to in this paragraph shall also be distributed an amount of property tax revenue determined pursuant to the TEA formula which is over and above the amount allocated as provided in the preceding sentence.

(f) "Qualifying city" means any city which incorporated prior to June 5, 1987, and had an amount of property tax revenue allocated to it pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 97 in the 1988–89 fiscal year which is less than 4 percent of the amount of property tax revenue computed as follows:

(1) The auditor shall determine the total amount of property tax revenue allocated to all tax rate areas, except excluded tax rate areas, in the city in the 1988–89 fiscal year.

(2) The auditor shall subtract the amount in the 1988–89 fiscal year determined in paragraph (3) of subdivision (c) from the amount determined in paragraph (2) of subdivision (c).

(3) The auditor shall subtract the amount determined in paragraph (2) from the amount of property tax revenue in paragraph (1) of subdivision (c).

(4) The auditor shall divide the amount of property tax revenue determined in paragraph (1) of this subdivision by the amount of property tax revenue determined in paragraph (3) of this subdivision.

(5) If the quotient determined in paragraph (4) of this subdivision is less than 0.04, the city is a qualifying city. If the quotient determined in that paragraph is equal to or greater than 0.04, the city is not a qualifying city.

(g) The auditor may assess each qualifying city its proportional share of the actual costs of making the calculations required by this section, and may deduct that assessment from the amount allocated pursuant to subdivision (b). For purposes of this subdivision, a qualifying city's proportional share of the auditor's actual costs shall not exceed the proportion it receives of the total amounts excluded in the county pursuant to subdivision (a).

(h) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), in any fiscal year in which a qualifying city receives a distribution pursuant to this section, the auditor shall reduce the actual amount distributed to the qualifying city by the amount of revenue not collected by the qualifying city in the first fiscal year following the city's reduction after January 1, 1988, of the tax rate or tax base of any locally imposed general or special tax. The amount so computed by the auditor shall constitute a reduction in the amount of property tax revenue distributed to the qualifying city pursuant to this section in each succeeding fiscal year. That amount shall be aggregated with any additional amount computed pursuant to this paragraph as the result of the city's reduction in any subsequent year of the tax rate or tax base of the same or any other locally imposed general or special tax.

(i) If the auditor determines that the amount to be distributed to a qualifying city pursuant to subdivision (b), as modified by subdivisions (g) and (h), would result in a qualifying city having proceeds of taxes in excess of its appropriation limit, the auditor shall reduce the amount, on a dollar-for-dollar basis, by the amount which exceeds the city's appropriations limit.

(j) The amount not distributed to tax rate areas, except excluded tax rate areas, of a qualifying city as a result of this section shall be distributed by the auditor to the county.

(k) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, no qualifying city shall be distributed an amount pursuant to this section which is less than the amount the city would have been allocated without the application of the TEA formula.

(l) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, commencing with the 1994–95 fiscal year, the auditor shall not reduce the amount distributed to a qualifying city under this section by reason of that city becoming the successor agency to a special district that is dissolved, merged with that city, or becomes a subsidiary district of that city, on or after July 1, 1994.

(m) The amount not distributed as a result of this section to the tax rate areas, except excluded tax rate areas, in each qualifying city shall be allocated by the auditor to the county.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to further the timely consolidations of cities and special districts undertaken as cost-saving measures in response to budgetary shortfalls projected for the 1994–95 fiscal year, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 242

An act to amend Section 870 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and to add Part 8 (commencing with Section 17700) to Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code, relating to validating proceedings, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 870 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

870. (a) The judgment, if no appeal is taken, or if taken and the judgment is affirmed, shall, notwithstanding any other provision of law including, without limitation, Sections 473 and 473.5, thereupon become and thereafter be forever binding and conclusive, as to all matters therein adjudicated or which at that time could have been adjudicated, against the agency and against all other persons, and the judgment shall permanently enjoin the institution by any person of any action or proceeding raising any issue as to which the judgment is binding and conclusive.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law including, without limitation, Section 901 and any rule of court, no appeal shall be allowed from any judgment entered pursuant to this chapter unless a notice of appeal is filed within 30 days after the notice of entry of the judgment, or, within 30 days after the entry of the judgment if there is no answering party. If there is no answering party, only issues related to the jurisdiction of the court to enter a judgment in the action pursuant to this chapter may be raised on appeal.

SEC. 2. Part 8 (commencing with Section 17700) is added to Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code, to read:

PART 8. VALIDATING PROCEEDINGS

17700. The state or any state board, department, agency, or authority, including without limitation, the State Public Works Board, may bring an action to determine the validity of its bonds, warrants, contracts, obligations, or evidences of indebtedness pursuant to Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 860) of Title 10 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure. For the purposes of Section 860 of the Code of Civil Procedure, any action initiated pursuant to this section shall be brought in the Superior Court of the County of Sacramento.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that the state may be authorized to bring a validating proceeding, and in order for a public agency to establish the validity of its obligations at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 243

An act to amend Section 1547 of the Penal Code, and to add Section 4417.5 to the Public Resources Code, relating to fire protection, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1547 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1547. (a) The Governor may offer a reward of not more than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), payable out of the General Fund, for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any of the following:

(1) Any convict who has escaped from a state prison, prison camp, prison farm, or the custody of any prison officer or employee or as provided in Section 3059 or 4530.

(2) Any person who has committed, or is charged with the commission of, an offense punishable by death.

(3) Any person engaged in the robbery or hijacking of, or any attempt to rob or hijack, any person upon or in charge of, in whole or in part, any public conveyance engaged at the time in carrying passengers within this state.

(4) Any person who kills, assaults with a deadly weapon, or inflicts serious bodily harm upon a police officer who is acting in the line of duty.

(5) Any person who has committed a crime involving the burning or bombing of public property, including any public hospital housed in a privately owned facility.

(6) Any person who has committed a crime involving the burning or bombing of any private hospital. A reward may be offered by the Governor in conjunction with such a crime only if a reward in conjunction with the same crime is offered by the hospital, or any other public or private donor on its behalf. The amount of the reward offered by the Governor shall not exceed the aggregate amount offered privately, or fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), whichever is less. Nothing in this paragraph shall preclude a private hospital, or any public or private donor on its behalf, from offering a reward in an amount exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000). If a person providing information for a reward under this paragraph so requests, his or her name and address shall remain confidential. This confidentiality, however, shall not preclude or obstruct the investigations of law enforcement authorities.

(7) Any person who commits a violation of Section 11413.

(8) Any person who commits a violation of Section 207.

(9) Any person who has committed a crime involving the burning or bombing of any bookstore or public or private library not subject to Section 11413. A reward may be offered by the Governor in conjunction with such a crime only if a reward in conjunction with the same crime is offered by the bookstore or library, or any other public or private donor on its behalf. The amount of the reward offered by the Governor shall not exceed the aggregate amount offered privately, or fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), whichever is less. Nothing in this paragraph shall preclude a bookstore or public or private library, or any public or private donor on its behalf, from offering a reward in an amount exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000). If a person providing information for a reward under this paragraph so requests, his or her name and address shall remain confidential. This confidentiality, however, shall not preclude or obstruct the investigations of law enforcement authorities.

(10) Any person who commits a violation of Section 454 or 463.

(11) Any person who willfully and maliciously sets fire to, or who attempts to willfully and maliciously set fire to, any property that is included within a hazardous fire area designated by the State Board of Forestry pursuant to Section 4252 of the Public Resources Code or by the Director of Forestry and Fire Protection pursuant to Section 4253 of the Public Resources Code, if the fire, or attempt to set a fire, results in death or great bodily injury to anyone, including fire protection personnel, or if the fire causes substantial structural damage.

(b) The reward shall be paid to the person giving the information, immediately upon the conviction of the person so arrested.

(c) As used in this section, "hijacking" means an unauthorized person causing, or attempting to cause, by violence or threat of violence, a public conveyance to go to an unauthorized destination.

SEC. 2. Section 4417.5 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

4417.5. (a) For the purpose of obtaining information leading to the arrest and conviction of persons who willfully and maliciously set fire to, or who attempt to willfully and maliciously set fire to, any property which is included within a state responsibility area, as defined in Section 4102, including a hazardous fire area designated by the board pursuant to Section 4252 or by the director pursuant to Section 4253, the department shall, during the fire season, make a toll-free 800 telephone number available for, and establish, a program to protect the anonymity of persons providing that information and to facilitate the identification of persons who are eligible for the payment of rewards authorized pursuant to Section 1547 of the Penal Code and Section 4417.

(b) The department may cooperate, and enter into interagency agreements, with other state agencies in carrying out this section, including, but not limited to, the Cal-TIP program of the Department of Fish and Game.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Due to extreme drought conditions, California is facing the potential for an unusually severe fire season and has already experienced numerous damaging wildfires much earlier than normal. In order to prevent and discourage wildland fires started by arsonists, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 244

An act to add Section 7262.7 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7262.7 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

7262.7. (a) In addition to the tax levied pursuant to Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 7200), and any other tax authorized by this part, the Board of Supervisors of the County of Stanislaus may impose a transactions and use tax by adoption of an ordinance in accordance with this part if each of the following conditions are met:

(1) The ordinance imposing the tax is submitted to and approved by the voters of the county in accordance with Article 3.7 (commencing with Section 53720) of Chapter 4 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code.

(2) The tax is imposed at a rate of one-eighth of 1 percent for a period not to exceed five years.

(3) The revenues collected from the tax shall be used only for funding countywide library programs and operations.

(b) The Board of Supervisors of the County of Stanislaus may impose a transactions and use tax in any succeeding period not to exceed five years per period if all of the conditions specified in subdivision (a) are met for that succeeding period.

CHAPTER 245

An act to add Section 1374 to the Civil Code, relating to common interest developments.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1374 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

1374. Nothing in this title may be construed to apply to a development wherein there does not exist a common area as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 1351, nor may this title be construed to confer standing pursuant to Section 383 of the Code of Civil Procedure to an association created for the purpose of managing a development wherein there does not exist a common area.

This section is declaratory of existing law.

CHAPTER 246

An act to amend Section 1596.866 of, and to add Sections 1797.113 and 1797.191 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to child day care, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1596.866 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1596.866. (a) In addition to any other required training, at least one director or teacher at each day care center, and each family day care home licensee who provides care shall have at least 15 hours of training on preventive health practices. The training shall include pediatric cardiopulmonary resuscitation, pediatric first aid, recognition, management, and prevention of infectious diseases, including immunizations, and prevention of childhood injuries. The training may include training in sanitary food handling, child nutrition, emergency preparedness and evacuation, caring for children with special needs, and identification and reporting of signs and symptoms of child abuse.

(b) A day care center director shall ensure that at least one staff member who has a current certificate in pediatric first aid and pediatric cardiopulmonary resuscitation issued by a training program that has been approved by the Emergency Medical Services Authority pursuant to this section and Section 1797.191 shall be available at all times when children are present at the facility, or when children are offsite of the facility for facility activities. Similarly, a licensee of a large family day care home shall ensure that at least one person who has a current certificate in pediatric first aid and pediatric cardiopulmonary resuscitation shall be available at all times when children are present at the facility, or when children are offsite of the facility for facility activities. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to require, in the event of an emergency, additional staff members, who are available when children are present at the facility, to have a current certificate in pediatric first aid and pediatric cardiopulmonary resuscitation.

(c) All personnel and licensees described in subdivision (a) shall complete 15 hours of preventive health practices training as described in subdivision (a) on or before January 1, 1995, and completion of the health training shall be a condition of licensure.

(1) The department shall issue a provisional license for otherwise qualified applicants who are not in compliance with this section. This provisional license shall expire 90 days after the date of issuance and shall not be extended.

(2) A notice of deficiency shall be issued by the department at the time of a site visit to any licensee who is not in compliance with this section. The licensee shall, at the time the notice is issued, develop a plan of correction to correct the deficiency within 90 days of receiving the notice. The facility's license may be revoked if it fails to correct the deficiency within the 90-day period. Section 1596.890 shall not apply to this paragraph.

(d) Completion of the training required pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (b) shall be demonstrated, upon request of the licensing agency, by the following:

(1) A current pediatric cardiopulmonary resuscitation card issued either by the American Red Cross or the American Heart Association, or by a training program that has been approved by the Emergency Medical Services Authority pursuant to Section 1797.191.

(2) A current pediatric first aid card issued either by the American Red Cross or by a training program that has been approved by the Emergency Medical Services Authority pursuant to Section 1797.191.

(3) A certificate of completion of a course or courses in preventive health practices as defined in subdivision (a) or certified copies of transcripts that identify the number of hours and the specific course or courses taken for training in preventative health practices as defined in subdivision (a).

(e) The training required under subdivision (a) shall not be provided by a home study course. This training may be provided through on-the-job training, workshops, or classes.

(f) All personnel and licensees described in subdivision (a) shall maintain a current, unexpired pediatric cardiopulmonary resuscitation card and a pediatric first aid card in accordance with subdivision (d).

(g) The department shall have the authority to grant exceptions to the requirements imposed by this section in order to meet the requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 12101 et seq.).

(h) The department shall adopt regulations to implement this section.

SEC. 2. Section 1797.113 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1797.113. The Emergency Medical Services Training Program Approval Fund is hereby established in the State Treasury and, notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, is continuously appropriated to the authority for the authority's training program review and approval activities. The fees charged by the authority under subdivision (b) of Section 1797.191 shall be deposited in this fund. The authority may transfer unexpended and unencumbered moneys contained in the Emergency Medical Services Training Program Approval Fund to the Surplus Money Investment Fund for investment pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 16470) of Chapter 3 of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. All interest, dividends, and pecuniary gains from such investments or deposits shall accrue to the Emergency Medical Services Training Program Approval Fund.

SEC. 3. Section 1797.191 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1797.191. (a) The authority shall establish minimum standards for the training in pediatric first aid and pediatric cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) that is required by Section 1596.866.

(b) The authority shall establish a process for the ongoing review and approval of training programs in pediatric first aid and CPR to ensure that those programs meet the minimum standards established pursuant to subdivision (a). The authority shall charge fees equal to its costs incurred for the pediatric first aid and CPR training standards program and for the ongoing review and approval of these programs.

(c) In order to ensure that adequate qualified training programs are available to provide training in pediatric first aid and pediatric CPR to all persons who are required to have that training by January 1, 1995, the authority may, after approval of the commission pursuant to Section 1799.50, establish temporary standards for training programs for use until permanent standards can be adopted pursuant to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(d) Persons who, prior to July 1, 1994, have completed a course in pediatric first aid or pediatric CPR, and have a current certificate or course completion card, shall be deemed to have met the requirement for training in that subject if the course they took meets the requirements established by the authority pursuant to this section and that course is either subsequently approved by the authority or was provided by either the American Red Cross or the American Heart Association as permitted by paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (d) of Section 1596.866.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to meet the requirement of existing law that all child day care facility personnel be trained in CPR and first aid by January 1, 1995, standards must first be developed to ensure that the training received meets certain uniform health and safety standards in accordance with the mechanisms provided for by this act. In order for the standards to be developed and the training to be provided by January 1, 1995, it is necessary that this act must take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 247

An act to add Section 40730 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to air pollution.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 40730 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

40730. (a) A district may establish programs to assist the public, government agencies, and businesses in complying with district regulations.

(b) For the purposes of a program established pursuant to subdivision (a), a district may provide to any person any factual nonconfidential information regarding any product or service that is in compliance with district regulations, and regarding the air emissions associated with a particular use of that product or service. The provision of that information, upon request or otherwise, shall not include any recommendation to any person with respect to any product or service.

CHAPTER 248

An act to amend Section 4336 of the Fish and Game Code, relating to game.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4336 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

4336. The holder of a deer license tag shall carry the tag while hunting deer, and upon the killing of any deer, shall immediately fill out both parts of the tag and permanently mark the date of the kill. One part of the deer license tag shall be immediately attached to the antlers of antlered deer or to the ear of any other deer and kept attached during the open season and for 15 days thereafter. The other part of the tag shall be sent to the department.

Except as otherwise provided, possession of any untagged deer shall be a violation of this section.

CHAPTER 249

An act to amend Section 18931 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to building standards.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18931 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18931. The commission shall perform the following:

(a) In accordance with Section 18930 and within 120 days from the date of receipt of adopted standards, review the standards of adopting agencies and approve, return for amendment with recommended changes, or reject building standards submitted to the commission for its approval. When building standards are returned for amendment or rejected, the commission shall inform the adopting agency or state agency that proposes the building standards of the specific reasons for the recommended changes or rejection, citing the criteria required under Section 18930. When standards are not acted upon by the commission within 120 days, the standards shall be approved, including codification and publication in the California Building Standards Code, without further review and without return or rejection by the commission.

(b) Codify, including publish, all building standards of adopting agencies or state agencies that propose the building standards and statutes defining building standards into one California Building Standards Code.

(c) Resolve conflict, duplication, and overlap in building standards in the code.

(d) Ensure consistency in nomenclature and format in the code.

(e) In accordance with Section 18945, hear appeals resulting from the administration of state building standards.

(f) Adopt any procedural regulations which it deems necessary to administer this part.

(g) The commission shall direct the executive director to prepare a comprehensive listing of all state amendments developed for publication in the California State Building Code (Part 2 (commencing with Section 101), Title 24, California Code of Regulations), referencing the 1994 Edition of the Uniform Building Code, as published by the International Conference of Building Officials, for the period beginning January 1, 1995, through December 31, 1995. The listing shall identify the following:

(1) Each new state amendment to the 1994 Edition of the Uniform Building Code, as published by the International Conference of Building Officials, and the state agency that adopted the new amendment.

(2) (A) The analysis justifying the adoption or proposal of the amendment identified in paragraph (1), submitted pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 18930.

(B) The analysis justifying the adoption or proposal of the amendment identified in paragraph (1), submitted pursuant to paragraph (3) of Section 18930.

(C) The analysis justifying the adoption or proposal of the amendment identified in paragraph (1), submitted pursuant to paragraph (5) of Section 18930.

(D) The analysis justifying the adoption or proposal of the amendment identified in paragraph (1), submitted pursuant to paragraph (7), or to subparagraph (A) or (B) of paragraph (7) of subdivision (a) of Section 18930.

(3) Existing state amendments, published in earlier editions of the California State Building Code (Part 2 (commencing with Section 101), Title 24, California Code of Regulations), which are published in the California State Building Code referencing the 1994 Edition of the Uniform Building Code, as published by the International Conference of Building Officials.

(4) The California Building Standards Commission's determination as to whether the amendment referred to in paragraph (3) continues to be justified under the criteria set forth in Section 18930. The commission shall use information gathered in the study required by Chapter 1289 of the Statutes of 1990 in making its determination, and may also request information from the state agency that adopted or proposed the amendments.

The commission shall perform this task to the extent feasible, and within the existing budget constraints during the triennial adoption process of the California Building Standards Code, referencing the 1994 Edition of the Uniform Building Code as published by the International Conference of Building Officials. The commission shall be authorized to reduce the scope of the review should fiscal restraints warrant this action. In the event a reduction in the scope of the review is made, the commission shall give priority to those sections of the California State Building Code (Part 2 (commencing with Section 101), Title 24, California Code of Regulations) that directly affect residential construction.

(5) Upon completion of the comprehensive listing required by this subdivision, the commission shall inform the public and all state agencies with the authority to develop building standards that the listing has been completed, and that copies will be made available upon request.

CHAPTER 250

An act to add Section 6525 to the Government Code, relating to water.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6525 is added to the Government Code, to read:

6525. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, a mutual water company may enter into a joint powers agreement with any public agency for the purpose of jointly exercising any power common to the contracting parties.

CHAPTER 251

An act to amend Sections 4010, 4018, 4022, 4023, 4023.1, 4023.2, and 4030 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to drinking water.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4010 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

4010. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) Every citizen of California has the right to pure and safe drinking water.

(b) Feasible and affordable technologies are available and shall be used to remove toxic contaminants from public water supplies.

(c) According to the State Department of Health Services, over 95 percent of all large public water systems in California are in compliance with health-based action levels established by the state department for various contaminants.

(d) It is the policy of the state to reduce to the lowest level feasible all concentrations of toxic chemicals that when present in drinking water may cause cancer, birth defects, and other chronic diseases.

(e) This chapter is intended to ensure that the water delivered by public water systems of this state shall at all times be pure, wholesome, and potable. The provisions of this chapter provide the means to accomplish this objective.

(f) It is the intent of the Legislature to improve laws governing drinking water quality to improve upon the minimum requirements of the federal Safe Drinking Water Act Amendments of 1986, to establish primary drinking water standards that are at least as stringent as those established under the federal Safe Drinking Water Act, and to establish a program under this chapter that is more protective of public health than the minimum federal requirements.

(g) It is the further intent of the Legislature to establish a drinking water regulatory program within the State Department of Health Services in order to provide for the orderly and efficient delivery of safe drinking water within the state and to give the establishment of drinking water standards and recommended public health goals greater emphasis and visibility within the state department.

SEC. 2. Section 4018 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

4018. (a) The department shall develop and publish a list of all existing or proposed maximum contaminant levels that are set at a level substantially less stringent, as determined by the department, than their corresponding recommended public health goals due to limitations of technology or excessive costs.

(b) Public water systems that serve more than 10,000 service connections and that exceed, for organic contaminants on a running quarterly average basis, or for inorganic contaminants on a basis established by the department, a recommended public health goal listed by the department pursuant to subdivision (a), shall do the following:

(1) The water system shall evaluate in writing all reasonable means of reducing the level of the contaminant to as close to the recommended public health goal as feasible, and submit the written evaluation to the department at least once annually.

(2) After the written evaluation has been submitted and upon being notified by the department of the need to do so, the water system shall submit a water quality improvement plan to the department, based upon the evaluation. The water quality improvement plan shall identify all reasonable measures available to the water system to reduce the level of the contaminant, the costs to consumers and the water system of implementing the measures, and a proposed schedule of actions to be undertaken by the water system to reduce the level of the contaminant. If the water system determines that it is unable to reduce the level of the contaminant due to technical or economic limitations, the basis for that determination shall be described in the plan.

(c) The department shall review the water quality improvement plan and may approve it as submitted or may require additional information from the water system. Upon approval of the plan, the department shall amend or revise the domestic water supply permit issued to the water system pursuant to this chapter to include a time schedule for implementation of those measures which are technically and economically feasible.

SEC. 3. Section 4022 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

4022. (a) On or before July 1, 1991, the department shall submit to the Legislature a comprehensive Safe Drinking Water Plan for California.

(b) The Safe Drinking Water Plan shall include, but not be limited to, the following information:

(1) An analysis of the overall quality of California's drinking water and the identification of specific water quality problems.

(2) Types and levels of contaminants found in public drinking water systems that have less than 10,000 service connections. The discussion of these water systems shall include the following:

(A) Estimated costs of requiring these systems to meet primary drinking water standards and recommended public health goals.

(B) Recommendations for actions that could be taken by the Legislature, the department, and these systems to improve water quality.

(3) A discussion and analysis of the known and potential health risks that may be associated with drinking water contamination in California.

(4) An evaluation of how existing water quality information systems currently maintained by local or state agencies can be more effectively used to protect drinking water.

(5) An evaluation of the research needed to develop inexpensive methods and instruments to ensure better screening and detection of water borne chemicals, and inexpensive detection methods that could be used by small utilities and consumers to detect harmful microbial agents in drinking water.

(6) An analysis of the technical and economic viability and the health benefits of various treatment techniques that can be used to reduce levels of trihalomethanes, lead, nitrates, synthetic organic chemicals, micro-organisms, and other contaminants in drinking water.

(7) A discussion of alternative methods of financing the construction, installation, and operation of new treatment technologies, including, but not limited to user charges, state or local taxes, state planning and construction grants, loans, and loan guarantees.

(9) An analysis of the current cost of drinking water paid by residential, business, and industrial consumers based on a statewide survey of large, medium, and small public water systems.

(10) Specific recommendations, including recommendations developed pursuant to paragraph (6), to improve the quality of drinking water in California and a detailed five-year implementation program.

SEC. 4. Section 4023 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

4023. The Office of Environmental Health Hazard Assessment shall establish recommended public health goals for contaminants in drinking water in accordance with all of the following criteria:

(a) Recommended public health goals, including those implementing the criteria set forth in subdivisions (b) to (h), inclusive, shall be set at a level that does not exceed the national primary drinking water standard adopted by the United States Environmental Protection Agency.

(b) Any recommended public health goals for an acutely toxic substance shall be set at a level at which scientific evidence indicates that no known or anticipated adverse effects on health will occur, plus an adequate margin of safety.

(c) Any recommended public health goal established for a carcinogen or other substance which may cause chronic disease shall be based solely on health effects without regard to cost impacts or other factors, and shall be set at a level which the office has determined, based upon currently available data, does not pose any significant risk to health.

(d) To the extent the information is available, the office shall consider possible synergistic effects resulting from exposure to, or interaction by, two or more contaminants.

(e) The office shall consider the existence of groups or individuals in the population that are more susceptible to adverse effects of contaminants than a normal healthy adult.

(f) The office shall consider the contaminant exposure and body burden levels that alter physiological function or structure in a manner that may significantly increase the risk of illness.

(g) In cases of scientific ambiguity, the office shall use criteria most protective of public health and shall incorporate safety factors of noncarcinogenic substances for which generally accepted scientific research indicates there is a safe dose-response threshold.

(h) The office shall consider exposure to contaminants in media other than drinking water, including, but not limited to, exposures in food, in the ambient and indoor air, and the resulting body burden.

(i) Recommended public health goals established by the office shall be reviewed periodically and revised as necessary based upon the availability of new scientific data.

SEC. 5. Section 4023.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

4023.1. (a) In addition to, and concurrent with, adoption of recommended public health goals established by the office pursuant to Section 4023, the department shall adopt primary drinking water standards for contaminants found in drinking water in accordance with the following criteria:

(1) Primary drinking water standards shall be set at a level that is as close as practical to recommended public health goals placing primary emphasis on protection of public health.

(2) Primary drinking water standards shall be set using considerations of technical feasibility and economic costs of compliance to water purveyors and consumers.

(3) In no event shall primary drinking water standards be set at levels less stringent than primary drinking water standards set by the United States Environmental Protection Agency.

(b) At least once every five years after adoption, the department shall review primary drinking water standards, and, using the criteria set forth in subdivision (a), shall amend any standard if any of the following occur:

(1) Changes in technology or treatment techniques permit greater protection of public health or attainment of the recommended public health goal.

(2) New scientific evidence indicates that a substance may present a substantially different risk to public health than was previously determined.

(3) The department determines that a primary standard no longer meets the requirements of this chapter.

(c) The department may, by regulation, require the use of a specified treatment technique in lieu of establishing a maximum contaminant level for a contaminant if the department determines that it is not economically or technologically feasible to ascertain the level of the contaminant.

SEC. 6. Section 4023.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

4023.2. On or before January 1, 1992, the department shall propose, hold a public hearing, and promulgate a finding of the best available technology for each contaminant for which a recommended public health goal and a primary drinking water standard have been adopted. Thereafter, the department shall promulgate a finding of best available technology for each contaminant for which a recommended public health goal and a primary drinking water standard have been adopted at the time the levels and standards are adopted. The finding of the department shall take into consideration the costs and benefits of best available treatment technology that have been proven effective under full-scale field applications.

SEC. 7. Section 4030 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

4030. The department shall require every public water system, as a condition of operation, to report at least once annually to water consumers on the level of contaminants in drinking water which pose a potential risk to human health. The report shall include, but not be limited to, information on source, content, and quality of water purveyed, a comparison between levels of contaminants and recommended public health goals; and information on compliance with primary drinking water standards.

CHAPTER 252

An act to amend Section 1596.8716 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to child day care.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1596.8716 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1596.8716. (a) For licensing purposes, employees of a child care and development program operated by a school district, county office of education, or community college under contract with the State Department of Education pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 8200) of Part 6 of the Education Code who have received a physical examination as a condition of employment with the district or office are not required to have a health screening as required by Section 101216 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations.

(b) For licensing purposes, a school principal of a public school that operates a child care and development program under contract with the State Department of Education pursuant to Article 7 (commencing with Section 8235) of Chapter 2 of Part 6 of the Education Code shall be deemed qualified to be a day care center director pursuant to Section 101315 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations only when the program is located on the campus of an operating public school, with staff who are employees of the public school.

An act to amend Sections 14601, 14601.1, and 14601.2 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14601 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

14601. (a) No person shall drive a motor vehicle at any time when that person's driving privilege is suspended or revoked for reckless driving in violation of Section 23103 or 23104, any reason listed in subdivision (a) or (c) of Section 12806 authorizing the department to refuse to issue a license, negligent or incompetent operation of a motor vehicle as prescribed in subdivision (e) of Section 12809, or negligent operation as prescribed in Section 12810, if the person so driving has knowledge of the suspension or revocation. Knowledge shall be presumed if notice has been given by the department to the person. The presumption established by this subdivision is a presumption affecting the burden of proof.

(b) Any person convicted under this section shall be punished as follows:

(1) Upon a first conviction, by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than five days or more than six months and by fine of not less than three hundred dollars ($300) or more than one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(2) If the offense occurred within five years of a prior offense which resulted in a conviction of a violation of this section or Section 14601.1, 14601.2, or 14601.5, by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than 10 days or more than one year and by fine of not less than five hundred dollars ($500) or more than two thousand dollars ($2,000).

(c) If the offense occurred within five years of a prior offense which resulted in a conviction of a violation of this section or Section 14601.1, 14601.2, or 14601.5 and is granted probation, the court shall impose as a condition of probation that the person be confined in the county jail for at least 10 days.

(d) Nothing in this section prohibits a person from driving a motor vehicle, which is owned or utilized by the person's employer, during the course of employment on private property which is owned or utilized by the employer, except an offstreet parking facility as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 12500.

SEC. 2. Section 14601.1 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

14601.1. (a) No person shall drive a motor vehicle when his or her driving privilege is suspended or revoked for any reason other than those listed in Section 14601, 14601.2, or 14601.5, if the person so driving has knowledge of the suspension or revocation. Knowledge shall be presumed if notice has been given by the department to the person. The presumption established by this subdivision is a presumption affecting the burden of proof.

(b) Any person convicted under this section shall be punished as follows:

(1) Upon a first conviction, by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months or by a fine of not less than three hundred dollars ($300) or more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that fine and imprisonment.

(2) If the offense occurred within five years of a prior offense which resulted in a conviction of a violation of this section or Section 14601, 14601.2, or 14601.5, by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than five days or more than one year and by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars ($500) or more than two thousand dollars ($2,000).

(c) Nothing in this section prohibits a person from driving a motor vehicle, which is owned or utilized by the person's employer, during the course of employment on private property which is owned or utilized by the employer, except an offstreet parking facility as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 12500.

SEC. 3. Section 14601.2 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

14601.2. (a) No person shall drive a motor vehicle at any time when that person's driving privilege is suspended or revoked for a conviction of a violation of Section 23152 or 23153, if the person so driving has knowledge of the suspension or revocation.

(b) Except in full compliance with the restriction, no person shall drive a motor vehicle at any time when that person's driving privilege is restricted pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 23152) of Chapter 12 of Division 11, if the person so driving has knowledge of the restriction.

(c) Knowledge of suspension or revocation of the driving privilege shall be presumed if notice has been given by the department to the person and knowledge of restriction of the driving privilege shall be presumed if notice has been given by the court to the person. The presumption established by this subdivision is a presumption affecting the burden of proof.

(d) Any person convicted of a violation of this section shall be punished as follows:

(1) Upon a first conviction, by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than 10 days or more than six months and by a fine of not less than three hundred dollars ($300) or more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), unless the person has been designated an habitual traffic offender under subdivision (b) of Section 23170 or subdivision (b) of Section 23175, in which case the person shall, in addition, be sentenced as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 14601.3.

14601 , 14601.1, or 14601.5, by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than 30 days or more than one year and by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars ($500) or more than two thousand dollars ($2,000), unless the person has been designated an habitual traffic offender under subdivision (b) of Section 23170 or subdivision (b) of Section 23175, in which case the person shall, in addition, be sentenced as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 14601.3.

(e) If any person is convicted of a first offense under this section and is granted probation, the court shall impose as a condition of probation that the person be confined in the county jail for at least 10 days.

(f) If the offense occurred within five years of a prior offense which resulted in a conviction of a violation of this section or Section 14601 , 14601.1, or 14601.5, and is granted probation, the court shall impose as a condition of probation that the person be confined in the county jail for at least 30 days.

(g) If any person is convicted of a second or subsequent offense which results in a conviction of this section within seven years, but over five years, of a prior offense which resulted in a conviction of a violation of this section or Section 14601, 14601.1, or 14601.5 and is granted probation, the court shall impose as a condition of probation that the person be confined in the county jail for at least 10 days.

(h) Nothing in this section prohibits a person who is participating in, or has completed, an alcohol or drug rehabilitation program from driving a motor vehicle, which is owned or utilized by the person's employer, during the course of employment on private property which is owned or utilized by the employer, except an offstreet parking facility as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 12500.

(i) Nothing in this section prohibits a person with a suspended license from driving a motor vehicle when emergency medical service is needed immediately.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 100014, 100060, 100061, 100062, 100063, 100070, 100071, 100080, 100082, 100090, 100100, 100114, 100122, 100171, and 100500 of, to add Sections 100014.1, 100060.2, 100062.1, 100126, 100308, and 100309 to, to repeal Sections 100081, 100083, 100091, 100092, and 100093 of, and to repeal Article 4 (commencing with Section 100140), Article 7 (commencing with Section 100180), and Article 8 (commencing with Section 100200) of, Chapter 5 of Part 12 of Division 10 of, the Public Utilities Code, relating to transportation.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 100014 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

100014. "Board of directors" and "board" means the board of directors of the district.

SEC. 2. Section 100014.1 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

100014.1. "Director" means a member of the board of directors of the district.

SEC. 3. Section 100060 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

100060. The government of the district shall be vested in a board of directors which shall consist of 12 members, as follows:

(1) Two representatives of the county and one alternate who shall be members of the board of supervisors of the county, appointed by the board of supervisors.

(2) Five representatives of the City of San Jose and one alternate who shall be city council members of the City of San Jose appointed by the city council.

(3) Five city council members selected from among the city councils of all of the cities in the county, other than the City of San Jose, as provided by joint powers agreements among those cities. The joint powers agreements may provide for the appointment of alternates, who shall be city council members, for those city representatives.

(b) An alternate may vote in the place of a director represented by that alternate if the director is absent.

(c) To the extent possible, the appointing powers shall appoint individuals who have expertise, experience, or knowledge relative to transportation issues.

SEC. 4. Section 100060.2 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

100060.2. Except as otherwise provided, the term of office for each director shall be two years and until the appointment and qualification of his or her successor. A successor shall be appointed not later than 30 days immediately upon the expiration of a director's term. The first directors shall include those who are members of the board of directors of the Santa Clara County Congestion Management Agency as of January 1, 1995, and their terms shall be equal to the time that would otherwise be remaining in their congestion management agency offices. A vacancy exists whenever a director ceases to hold office on the city council or board of supervisors from which be or she was appointed. Any vacancy shall, within 60 days of its occurrence, be filled for the balance of the term by the body which made the original appointment.

SEC. 5. Section 100061 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

100061. The board of directors, annually, at the first meeting in January, shall elect a chairperson who shall preside at all meetings. The board of directors shall also, at that meeting, elect a vice chairperson, who, in the event of the chairperson's absence or inability to act, shall act as chairperson, and while so acting, shall have all of the authority of the chairperson.

SEC. 6. Section 100062 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

100062. The board shall establish rules for its proceedings. A majority of the members of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and no act of the board shall be valid unless at least seven concur therein. The acts of the board shall be expressed by motion, resolution, or ordinance. All meetings of the board shall be conducted in the manner prescribed by the Ralph M. Brown Act, Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 54950), Part 1, Division 2, Title 5 of the Government Code.

SEC. 7. Section 100062.1 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

100062.1. (a) No ordinance, except an urgency ordinance, shall be passed by the board on the day of its introduction, nor within three days thereafter, nor at any time other than at a regular or adjourned regular meeting. The enacting clause of all ordinances shall be as follows:

"The Board of Directors of the Santa Clara County Transit District ordains as follows:"

(b) All ordinances shall be signed by the chairperson of the board or the vice chairperson and attested by the secretary. Before the expiration of 15 days after the passage of an ordinance, it shall be published once in a newspaper of general circulation in the district as provided by law for ordinances adopted by counties. An order entered in the minutes of the board that the ordinance has been duly published is prima facie proof of publication.

(c) Urgency ordinances shall be adopted in the same manner as provided by law for the adoption of urgency ordinances by counties.

SEC. 8. Section 100063 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

100063. The board may fix the amount of compensation to be paid each member of the board for services and for each meeting attended by the member. The compensation shall not exceed one hundred dollars ($100) for each meeting of the board attended by the member or for each day's service rendered as a member by request of the board, not exceeding a total of six days in any calendar month, together with any expenses incident thereto.

SEC. 9. Section 100070 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

100070. The board of directors is the legislative body of the district and shall determine all questions of district policy.

SEC. 10. Section 100071 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

100071. It shall be the duty of the board of directors and it shall have the power to:

(a) Determine the transit facilities to be acquired and constructed by the district, the manner of operation, and the means to finance them.

(b) Adopt an annual budget for the district and fix the compensation of its officers and employees.

(c) Fix rates, rentals, charges and classifications of transit service operated by the district.

(d) Adopt an administrative code, by ordinance, which shall prescribe the powers and duties of district officers and the method of appointment of district employees and methods, procedures and systems of operation and management of the district.

(e) Adopt by ordinance, rules and regulations governing the use of transit facilities owned or operated by the district.

(f) Cause a postaudit of the financial transactions and records of the district to be made at least annually by a certified public accountant or public accountant.

(g) Adopt reasonable rules and regulations providing for the administration of employer-employee relations.

(h) Do any and all things necessary to carry out the purposes of this part.

SEC. 11. Section 100080 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

100080. The board of directors shall establish at least one advisory committee.

SEC. 12. Section 100081 of the Public Utilities Code is repealed.

SEC. 13. Section 100082 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

100082. The advisory committees shall provide advice to the board of directors on matters of district policy and shall have additional duties as provided by the board of directors.

SEC. 14. Section 100083 of the Public Utilities Code is repealed.

SEC. 15. Section 100090 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

100090. The officers of the district shall consist of the members of the board of directors, the chairperson and vice chairperson of the board, a secretary, a general manager, a legal counsel, a controller, a treasurer, and such other officers, assistants and deputies as the board may deem necessary and provide for by ordinance.

SEC. 16. Section 100091 of the Public Utilities Code is repealed.

SEC. 17. Section 100092 of the Public Utilities Code is repealed.

SEC. 18. Section 100093 of the Public Utilities Code is repealed.

SEC. 19. Section 100100 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

100100. The power and duties of the general manager are:

(a) To head the administrative branch of the district and to be responsible to the board of directors for the proper administration of all affairs of the district.

(b) To appoint, supervise, suspend or remove, district officers other than the members of the board and officers appointed by the board.

(c) To supervise and direct the preparation of the annual budget for the board and be responsible for its administration after its adoption.

(d) To formulate and present to the board plans for transit facilities within the district and the means to finance them.

(e) To supervise the planning, acquisition, construction, maintenance and operation of the transit facilities of the district.

(f) To attend all meetings of the board.

(g) To prepare and submit to the board as soon as practicable after the end of each fiscal year a complete report of the finances and administrative activities of the district for the preceding year.

(h) To perform such other and additional duties as the board may require.

SEC. 20. Section 100114 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

100114. Except as otherwise provided in this part, district elections shall be called, held, and conducted as provided by the Uniform District Election Law.

SEC. 21. Section 100122 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

100122. The purchase of all supplies, equipment, materials, and services shall be subject to the same limitations as are applicable to the County of Santa Clara.

SEC. 22. Section 100126 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

100126. The district, which was established with the approval of the voters in 1972, shall continue as an entity under the control of its governing board as reorganized pursuant to the amendments to this part by statutes that were enacted in 1994. Nothing in the act that added this section during the second year of the 1993–94 Regular Session shall be construed to alter, impair, or terminate existing contracts between the district and other parties, including, but not limited to, funding agreements, grants, labor agreements, agreements entered into pursuant to Section 13(c) of the Federal Transit Act and its antecedents, bonds, notes, equipment trust certificates, or other obligations of the district. All rights and powers of the district shall continue in full force and effect and no affirmation, adoption, or assumption by the board of directors is required for that continuation. The district shall become the successor to certain county contracts as provided by agreement between the county and the district.

SEC. 23. Article 4 (commencing with Section 100140) of Chapter 5 of Part 12 of Division 10 of the Public Utilities Code is repealed.

SEC. 24. Section 100171 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

100171. The district may obtain temporary transfers of funds in accordance with the last paragraph of Section 6 of Article XVI of the California Constitution.

SEC. 25. Article 7 (commencing with Section 100180) of Chapter 5 of Part 12 of Division 10 of the Public Utilities Code is repealed.

SEC. 26. Article 8 (commencing with Section 100200) of Chapter 5 of Part 12 of Division 10 of the Public Utilities Code is repealed.

SEC. 27. Section 100308 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

100308. County employees and employees of the Santa Clara County Congestion Management Agency who, on a date or dates determined by the board of directors, terminate their employment and immediately thereafter become employees of the district, shall transfer to the district, and the district shall assume liability for, all of their accrued and unused vacation, sick leave, personal leave, compensating time off and STO balances and days of accrued service in accordance with the records of their former employer in lieu of any payment by the former employer for those balances. Those employees who were covered by a county or congestion management agency pension plan shall be entitled to the same or equivalent rights, options, privileges, benefits, obligations, accrued service, and status under the pension plan of the district.

SEC. 28. Section 100309 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

The district shall assume and observe all applicable provisions, including wages, of existing written memoranda of understanding in effect between the county and the above recognized labor organizations for those former county employees described in Section 100308 who are employed by the district in positions which would have been covered by those memoranda if the employees had remained employed by the county. This obligation extends only for the remainder of the term of the respective existing written memoranda of understanding and to the extent not superseded by a successor agreement between the district and a recognized labor organization.

SEC. 29. Section 100500 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

100500. The district may be dissolved pursuant to the Cortese-Knox Local Government Reorganization Act of 1985.

SEC. 30. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 31. Sections 3 and 4 of this act shall not become operative until each house of the Legislature is notified by the Santa Clara County Transit District that an audit of the financial condition of the district has been performed by a certified public accountant.

CHAPTER 255

An act to add Section 1294.1 to the Education Code, relating to employees.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1294.1 is added to the Education Code, to read:

1294.1. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this code, a county superintendent of schools may employ substitute or temporary employees in a position requiring certification requirements to serve for periods of less than one year to provide instructional and related educational services in county community schools operated pursuant to Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 1980) of Part 2 and juvenile court schools operated pursuant to Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 48645) of Chapter 4 of Part 27 if a temporary increase in enrollment exists.

(b) The number of employees hired under this section shall not exceed the number necessary to accommodate the temporary increase in enrollment and shall not increase established class size or pupil-to-teacher ratios, or both.

(c) If a substitute or temporary employee serves more than 60 schooldays, the employee is deemed to have been hired as a substitute or temporary employee for the duration of the semester in which the employee renders the substitute or temporary service.

(d) Notwithstanding Sections 44917 and 44920, it is not required that substitute or temporary employees employed under this section replace regularly employed persons absent from service.

(e) For purposes of this section, a temporary increase in enrollment exists when the number of pupils enrolled is more than the average enrollment of the preceding two fiscal years prior to the year in which the substitute or temporary employee was hired under this section.

CHAPTER 256

An act to amend Section 15200.97 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to support enforcement, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 15200.97 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

15200.97. (a) Any funds paid to a county pursuant to this chapter which exceed the county's cost of administering the child support program of the district attorney pursuant to Section 11475.1 (hereafter called excess funds) shall be expended by the county only upon that program. All these excess funds shall be deposited by the county into a special fund established by the county for this purpose. Funds to be deposited shall include, but not be limited to, excess incentive funds paid pursuant to Sections 15200.1, 15200.2, 15200.3, 15200.6, 15200.7, 15200.8, 15200.85, and 15200.9, and all interest earned on deposits in the special fund.

(b) (1) By March 1, 1993, the department shall provide the appropriate policy and fiscal committees of the Legislature with information on the amount of excess funds, if any, accumulated by each county.

(2) Commencing July 1, 1993, all excess funds shall be expended by the county on the support enforcement program of the district attorney within two fiscal years following the fiscal year of receipt of the funds by the county. Except as provided in subdivision (c), any excess funds paid pursuant to this chapter since July 1, 1992, that the department determines have not been spent within the required two-year period shall revert to the General Fund, and shall be distributed by the department only to counties that have complied with this section. The formula for distribution shall be based on the number of AFDC-FG cases within each county.

(3) Not later than June 30, 1994, each county shall expend on the support enforcement program any excess funds accrued from July 1, 1989, to June 30, 1992, inclusive, that have not been expended on the support enforcement program. The funds expended shall be in an amount that is greater than the county's 1991–92 expenditures for the program.

(c) A county that submits to the department a written plan approved by that county's district attorney for the expenditure of excess funds shall be exempted from the requirements of subdivision (b), if the department determines that the expenditure will be cost-effective and the expenditure plan will require more than the time provided for in subdivision (b) to expend or encumber the funds, or both. Once the department approves a plan pursuant to this subdivision, funds received by a county and designated for an expenditure in the plan shall not be expended by the county for any other purpose without the prior approval of the department.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure that optimal use is made of county funds that would otherwise be required to be expended by June 30, 1994, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 257

An act to amend Sections 49110 and 49130 of the Education Code, relating to pupils.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 49110 of the Education Code is amended to read:

49110. It is the intent of the Legislature that school district personnel responsible for issuing work permits to minors have a working knowledge of California labor laws as they relate to minors; and further, that personnel be trained to provide the pupils practical personal guidance in career education. The superintendent of any school district in which any minor resides, a person holding a services credential with a specialization in pupil personnel services authorized by the superintendent in writing, or a certificated work experience education teacher or coordinator authorized by the superintendent in writing, may issue to certain minors permits to work. If the minor resides in a portion of a county not under the jurisdiction of the superintendent of any school district, the permit to work shall be issued by the superintendent of schools of the county, by a person holding a services credential with a specialization in pupil personnel services authorized by the superintendent in writing, or a certificated work experience education teacher or coordinator authorized by the superintendent in writing. No permit to work shall be issued until the written request therefor from the parent, guardian, foster parent, or residential shelter services provider, has been filed with the issuing authority. "Residential shelter services" refers to residential and other support services provided to minors by a governmental agency, a person or agency under contract with a governmental agency to provide these services, an agency receiving funding from community funds, or a licensed community care facility or crisis resolution center on a temporary or emergency basis in a facility that services only minors.

In the event that the certificated person designated by the superintendent to issue work permits is not available, and delay in issuing a permit would jeopardize the ability of a pupil to secure work, a person authorized by the superintendent may issue the work permit.

In the event that a district does not employ or contract with a person holding a services credential with a specialization in pupil personnel services or with a certificated work experience education teacher or coordinator, the superintendent may authorize, in writing, a person who does not hold that credential to issue permits to work during periods of time in which the superintendent is absent from the district.

SEC. 2. Section 49130 of the Education Code is amended to read:

49130. A permit to work full time may be issued to a minor under the age of 16 years and over the age of 14 years who holds a diploma of graduation from the prescribed elementary school course under both of the following circumstances:

(a) The permit expires not later than the end of the current school year.

(b) Any of the following conditions:

(1) The parent or guardian of the minor child presents a sworn statement that the parent or guardian of the minor is incapacitated for labor through illness or injury, or that through the death or desertion of the father or mother of the minor, the family is in need of the earnings of the minor and that sufficient aid cannot be secured in any other manner.

(2) The minor is unable to reside with his or her family and the earnings of the minor are necessary for the support of the minor.

(3) The minor is residing with a foster care provider, or guardian receiving foster care funds for the minor, if the provider or guardian obtains written authorization from the minor's social worker, probation officer, or child protective services worker acting as an officer of the court. A permit may be issued to a minor who is subject to this paragraph only if the child's case plan documents that the purpose of the employment is to further the goal of emancipation pursuant to Part 6 (commencing with Section 7000) of Division 11 of the Family Code, or to enable the minor to gain knowledge of necessary work skills and work habits, and of the responsibilities related to maintaining employment.

The person issuing the permit shall sign a statement that he or she, or a competent person designated by him or her, has investigated the conditions under which the application for the permit has been made and has found that, in his or her judgment, the earnings of the minor are necessary for the family to support the minor or that the earnings of the minor are necessary to support the minor and that sufficient aid cannot be secured in any other manner. Before issuing a work permit to a minor who is subject to paragraph (3) of subdivision (b), the person issuing the permit shall sign a statement that he or she has received authorization from the minor's social worker, probation officer, or child protective services worker.

A minor who applies for a work permit pursuant to this section shall be duly enrolled in a work experience education program.

CHAPTER 258

An act to amend Section 5536 of, and to add Section 5586 to, the Business and Professions Code, relating to architects.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5536 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5536. (a) It is a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by both fine and imprisonment, for any person who is not licensed to practice architecture under this chapter, to practice architecture in this state or to use any term confusingly similar to the word architect, or to use the stamp of a licensed architect, as provided in Section 5536.1, or to advertise or put out any sign or card or other device which might indicate to the public that he or she is an architect or that he or she is qualified to engage in the practice of architecture or is an architectural designer.

(b) It is a misdemeanor, punishable as specified in subdivision (a), for any person not registered or licensed by the state to prepare plans, specifications, and instruments of service for others to affix a stamp or seal which bears the legend "State of California" or words or symbols that represent or imply that he or she is so registered or licensed by the state to prepare plans, specifications, or instruments of service for the construction, alteration, improvement, or repair of buildings or structures that are submitted to a state or local governmental entity for approval or the issuance of a permit.

(c) It is a misdemeanor, punishable as specified in subdivision (a), for any person to advertise or represent that he or she is a "registered building designer" or is registered or otherwise licensed by the state as a building designer.

SEC. 2. Section 5586 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

5586. The fact that the holder of a license has had disciplinary action taken by any public agency for any act substantially related to the qualifications, functions, or duties as an architect constitutes a ground for disciplinary action.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Section 50517.5 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to housing, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 50517.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50517.5. (a) (1) The department shall establish a Farmworker Housing Grant Program under which, subject to the availability of funds therefor, grants shall be made to local public entities and nonprofit corporations for the construction or rehabilitation of housing for agricultural employees and their families. Under this program, grants may also be made for the purchase of land in connection with housing assisted pursuant to this section and for the construction and rehabilitation of related support facilities necessary to the housing. In its administration of this program, the department shall disburse grant funds to the local public entities and nonprofit corporations or may, at the request of the local public entity or nonprofit corporation which sponsors and supervises the rehabilitation program, disburse grant funds to agricultural employees who are participants in a rehabilitation program sponsored and supervised by the local public entity or nonprofit corporation. No part of a grant made pursuant to this section may be used for project organization or planning.

(2) The program shall be administered by the Director of Housing and Community Development and officers and employees of the department as he or she may designate.

(3) It is the intent of the Legislature that, in administering the program, the director shall facilitate, to the greatest extent possible, the construction and rehabilitation of permanent dwellings for year-round occupancy and ownership by agricultural employees, including ownership of the sites upon which the dwellings are located.

(b) (1) The Farmworker Housing Grant Fund is hereby created in the State Treasury. Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, all money in the fund is continuously appropriated to the department for making grants pursuant to this section and for costs incurred by the department in administering the grant program.

(2) There shall be paid into the fund the following:

(A) Any moneys appropriated and made available by the Legislature for purposes of the fund.

(B) Any moneys which the department receives in repayment or return of grants from the fund, including any interest therefrom.

(C) Any other moneys which may be made available to the department for the purposes of this chapter from any other source or sources.

(c) Grants made pursuant to this section shall be matched by grantees with at least equal amounts of federal moneys, other cash investments, or in-kind contributions.

(d) With respect to the supervision of grantees, the department shall do the following:

(1) Establish minimum capital reserves to be maintained by grantees.

(2) Fix and alter from time to time a schedule of rents that may be necessary to provide residents of housing assisted pursuant to this section with affordable rents to the extent consistent with the maintenance of the financial integrity of the housing project. No grantee shall increase the rent on any unit constructed or rehabilitated with the assistance of funds granted pursuant to this section without the prior permission of the department, which shall be given only if the grantee affirmatively demonstrates that the increase is required to defray necessary operating costs or avoid jeopardizing the fiscal integrity of the housing project.

(3) Determine standards for, and control selection by grantees of, tenants and subsequent purchasers of housing constructed or rehabilitated with the assistance of funds granted pursuant to this section.

(4) (A) Require as a condition precedent to a grant of funds that the grantee be record owner in fee of the assisted real property and that the grantee shall have entered into a written agreement with the department binding upon the grantee and successors in interest to the grantee. The agreement shall include the conditions under which the funds advanced may be repaid. The agreement shall include provisions for a lien on the assisted real property in favor of the State of California for the purpose of securing performance of the agreement. The agreement shall also provide that the lien shall endure until released by the Director of Housing and Community Development.

(B) In the event that funds granted pursuant to this section constitute less than 25 percent of the total development cost or value, whichever is applicable, of a project assisted under this section, the department may adopt, by regulation, criteria for determining the number of units in a project to which the restrictions on occupancy contained in the agreement apply. In no event may these regulations provide for the application of the agreement to a percentage of units in a project which is less than the percentage of total development costs which funds granted pursuant to this section represent.

(C) Contemporaneously with the disbursement of the initial funds to a grantee, the department shall cause to be recorded, in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the assisted real property is located, a notice of lien executed by the Director of Housing and Community Development. The notice of lien shall refer to the agreement required by this paragraph for which it secures and it shall include a legal description of the assisted real property which is subject to the lien. The notice of lien shall be indexed by the recorder in the Grantor Index to the name of the grantee and in the Grantee Index to the name of the State of California, Department of Housing and Community Development. The department shall adopt by regulation criteria for the determination of the lien period. This regulation shall take into account whether the property is held by multifamily rental, single-family ownership, or cooperative ownership and whether it is new construction or rehabilitative construction.

(D) Pursuant to regulations adopted by the department, the department may execute and cause to be recorded in the office of the recorder of the county in which a notice of lien has been recorded, a subordination of the lien. The regulations adopted by the department shall provide that any subordination of the lien shall not jeopardize the security interest of the state and shall further the interest of farmworker housing. The recitals contained in the subordination shall be conclusive in favor of any bona fide purchaser or lender relying thereon.

(5) Regulate the terms of occupancy agreements or resale controls, to be used in housing assisted pursuant to this section.

(6) Provide bilingual services and publications, or require grantees to do so, as necessary to implement the purposes of this section.

(7) The agreement between the department and the grantee shall provide, among other things, that both of the following occur:

(A) Upon the sale or conveyance of the real property, or any part thereof, for use other than for agricultural employee occupancy, the grantee or its successors shall, as a condition for the release of the lien provided pursuant to paragraph (4), repay to the fund the department's grant funds.

(B) Upon the sale or conveyance of the real property or any part thereof for continued agricultural employee occupancy, the transferee shall assume the obligation of the transferor and the real property shall be transferred to the new owner; provided that the transferee agrees to abide by the agreement entered into between the transferor and the department and that the new owner takes the property subject to the lien provided pursuant to paragraph (4), except that this lien shall, at the time of the transfer of the property to the new owner, be extended for an additional lien period determined by the department pursuant to paragraph (4), and the new owner shall not be credited with the lien period that had run from the time the transferor had acquired the property to the time of transfer to the new owner, unless the department determines that it is in the best interest of the state and consistent with the intent of this section to so credit the lien period to the new owner. However, the lien shall have priority as of the recording date of the lien for the original grantee, pursuant to paragraph (4).

(e) The department may do any of the following with respect to grantees:

(1) Through its agents or employees enter upon and inspect the lands, buildings, and equipment of a grantee, including books and records, at any time before, during, or after construction or rehabilitation of units assisted pursuant to this section. However, there shall be no entry or inspection of any unit which is occupied, whether or not any occupant is actually present, without the consent of the occupant.

(2) Supervise the operation and maintenance of any housing assisted pursuant to this section and order repairs as may be necessary to protect the public interest or the health, safety, or welfare of occupants of the housing.

(f) The department shall include in its annual report required by Section 50408, a current report of the Farmworker Housing Grant Program. The report shall include, but need not be limited to, (1) the number of households assisted, (2) the average income of households assisted and the distribution of annual incomes among assisted households, (3) the rents paid by households assisted, (4) the number and amount of grants made to each nonprofit corporation and local public entity in the preceding year, (5) the dollar value of funding derived from sources other than the state for each project receiving a grant under this section, and an identification of each source, (6) recommendations, as needed, to improve operations of the program and respecting the desirability of extending its application to other groups in rural areas identified by the department as having special need for state housing assistance, and (7) the number of manufactured housing units assisted under this section.

(g) As used in this section:

(1) "Agricultural employee" has the same meaning as specified in subdivision (b) of Section 1140.4 of the Labor Code, but also includes any person who works at a packing shed for a labor contractor or other entity that contracts with an agricultural employer in order to perform services in connection with handling, drying, packing, or storing any agricultural commodity in its raw or natural state, whether or not this person is encompassed within the definition specified in subdivision (b) of Section 1140.4 of the Labor Code.

(2) "Grantee" means the local public entity or nonprofit corporation that is awarded the grant under this section and, at the request thereof, may include an individual homeowner receiving direct payment of a grant for rehabilitation under this section who occupies the assisted housing both before and after the rehabilitation and who is a participant in a rehabilitation program sponsored and supervised by a local public entity or nonprofit corporation.

(3) "Housing" may include, but need not be limited to, conventionally constructed units, and manufactured housing.

(h) The department may offer the assistance offered pursuant to this chapter in any area where there is a substantial unmet need for farmworker housing.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide immediate assistance for agricultural employees who are in dire need of housing, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 260

An act to amend Sections 40101, 40158, 40374, 40701.5, and 41080 of, and to add Sections 40100.7 and 40152.5 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to air pollution, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 40100.7 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

40100.7. (a) On and after July 1, 1994, Section 40100.5 shall not apply to a county district if each city in the county consents, by the adoption of an ordinance or resolution, to the exclusion of the county district from the requirements of Section 40100.5. Within 60 days from the date of the adoption of an ordinance or resolution by all cities in the county to exclude the county district from the requirements of Section 40100.5, if requested by a majority of the cities in the county, the county district shall establish an advisory committee consisting of a mayor, or a city council member, from each city in the county. The members shall be selected by the city selection committee.

(b) Subdivision (a) shall become inapplicable, and Section 40100.5 shall apply, if, at any time after the condition prescribed in subdivision (a) has been met, a majority of the cities which contain a majority of the population in the incorporated areas of the county, as established by the most recent census data, have adopted resolutions requesting the application of Section 40100.5.

SEC. 2. Section 40101 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

40101. (a) (1) The board of supervisors of a county in which a county district is functioning may appropriate funds to the county district, which funds shall be deposited in the treasury of the county district.

(2) All such appropriations are legal charges against the county.

(b) A county district may contract, by a memorandum of understanding, joint powers agreement, or other agreement, with the county in which the county district is functioning, to provide facilities and administrative, legal, health coverage, risk management, clerical, and other support services, including, but not limited to, those facilities and services that the county provided to the county district prior to July 1, 1994.

SEC. 3. Section 40152.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

40152.5. (a) On and after July 1, 1994, Section 40152 shall not apply to a unified district if each city in the district consents, by the adoption of an ordinance or resolution, to the exclusion of the district from the requirements of Section 40152. Within 60 days from the date of the adoption of an ordinance or resolution by all cities in the district to exclude the district from the requirements of Section 40152, if requested by a majority of the cities in the district, the district shall establish an advisory committee consisting of a mayor, or a city council member, from each city in the district. Each city shall select its representative to the advisory committee.

(b) Subdivision (a) shall become inapplicable, and Section 40152 shall apply, if, at any time after the condition prescribed in subdivision (a) has been met, a majority of the cities which contain a majority of the population in the incorporated areas of the district, as established by the most recent census data, have adopted resolutions requesting the application of Section 40152.

SEC. 4. Section 40158 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

40158. (a) The board of supervisors of each county included, in whole or in part, within the unified district shall appropriate such funds as are necessary to carry out the purposes of the unified district, as determined by the unified district board, in accordance with the funding provisions specified in the agreement which created the unified district under Section 40151.

(b) A unified district may contract, by a memorandum of understanding, joint powers agreement, or other agreement, with a county or counties in which the unified district is functioning, to provide facilities and administrative, legal, health coverage, risk management, clerical, and other support services, including, but not limited to, those facilities and services that the county or counties provided to the unified district prior to July 1, 1994.

SEC. 5. Section 40374 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

40374. (a) (1) At any time prior to the first receipt by a regional district of revenues from taxation, the counties within the regional district may loan any available money to the regional district for purposes of organization and operation, and such expenditures shall constitute a proper expenditure of county funds.

(2) The regional district board shall add the sums of money so borrowed from the counties to the first amount apportioned by the regional district board pursuant to Section 40371, and shall repay the counties for all money borrowed from the first revenues received from taxation.

(b) A regional district may contract, by a memorandum of understanding, joint powers agreement, or other agreement, with a county or counties in which the regional district is functioning, to provide facilities and administrative, legal, health coverage, risk management, clerical, and other support services, including, but not limited to, those services that the county or counties provided to the regional district prior to July 1, 1994.

SEC. 6. Section 40701.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

40701.5. (a) Funding for a district may be provided by, but is not limited to, any one or any combination of the following sources:

(1) Grants.

(2) Subventions.

(3) Permit fees.

(4) Penalties.

(5) A surcharge or fee pursuant to Section 41081 or 44223 on motor vehicles registered in the district.

(b) Expenses of a district that are not met by the funding sources identified in subdivision (a), shall be provided by an annual per capita assessment on those cities which have agreed to have a member on the district board for purposes of Section 40100, 40152, 40322.5, 40704.5, or 40980 and on the county or counties included within the district. Any annual per capita assessment imposed by the district on those cities and counties included within the district shall be imposed on an equitable per capita basis.

(c) Subdivision (b) does not apply to the San Joaquin Valley Unified Air Pollution Control District or, if that unified district ceases to exist, the valley district.

SEC. 7. Section 41080 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

41080. (a) The Sacramento district may adopt a schedule of fees, levied on permitted and other sources of air pollution, subject to regulation by the Sacramento district, to recover its costs of implementing this chapter.

(b) The Sacramento district may contract with a county or counties, in which the Sacramento district is functioning, to provide facilities and administrative, legal, health coverage, risk management, clerical, and other support services, including, but not limited to, those facilities and services that the county or counties provided to the Sacramento district prior to July 1, 1994.

SEC. 8. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 9. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to except certain air pollution control districts from required changes in the composition of the membership of air pollution control district boards, which will become operative on July 1, 1994, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 261

An act to amend Section 1281 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to clinical laboratories.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1281 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

1281. It is unlawful for any person to own, operate, maintain, direct, or engage in the business of operating a clinical laboratory, as defined in this chapter, unless he or she possesses a valid clinical laboratory license issued by the department. In the event a health facility does not perform clinical laboratory services, but provides laboratory services to its patients under an agreement with another person or entity that holds and is operating under a valid clinical laboratory license, the health facility shall not be required to obtain a clinical laboratory license.

CHAPTER 262

An act to add Section 653l to the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 653l is added to the Penal Code, to read:

653l. (a) Every person who telephones the 911 emergency line with the intent to annoy or harass another person is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than six months, or by both the fine and imprisonment. Nothing in this section shall apply to telephone calls made in good faith.

(b) An intent to annoy or harass is established by proof of repeated calls over a period of time, however short, that are unreasonable under the circumstances.

(c) Upon conviction of a violation of this section, a person also shall be liable for all reasonable costs incurred by any unnecessary emergency response.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 263

An act to amend Sections 41220 and 41221 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to air pollution.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 41220 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

41220. (a) The Mojave Desert district shall be governed by a district board composed of the following members:

(1) The members of the San Bernardino County Board of Supervisors who represent the first and third supervisorial districts of the county, or who, after reapportionment affecting the county supervisorial districts, represent any supervisorial district of the county that lies in whole or in part within the Mojave Desert district.

(2) One member of the city council of each incorporated city within the Mojave Desert district, who shall be appointed by the city council.

(3) Upon the incorporation of any new city within the boundaries of the Mojave Desert district, the city council of that city shall appoint one member of the city council to the Mojave Desert district board.

(4) If a district submits a resolution of inclusion pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 41210, one or more members of the county board of supervisors or of a city council from the area to be included shall be appointed to the Mojave Desert district board, pursuant to agreement between the county board of supervisors or the city council, or both, and the Mojave Desert district board.

(5) At the time of the appointment of a member of the city council of a newly incorporated city to the Mojave Desert district board, as specified in paragraph (3), or upon making an agreement to appoint a member from an area included in the Mojave Desert district pursuant to paragraph (4), the Mojave Desert district board may revise the remaining membership of the Mojave Desert district board, as previously constituted, by adding or removing one or more members of the board of supervisors of a county having territory in the district, adding or removing one or more members of the city councils of previously incorporated cities within the district, or both.

(b) As used in this section, "city" means any city, town, or municipal corporation incorporated under the laws of this state.

SEC. 2. Section 41221 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

41221. The Mojave Desert district board shall elect a chairperson every year from its membership. No member shall serve more than two consecutive terms as chairperson.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 264

An act to add Section 25417.1 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous materials.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25417.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25417.1. The department shall publish a new edition of the consumer information booklet described in Section 10084.1 of the Business and Professions Code. The booklet shall, among other things, be in substantial compliance with the federal disclosure requirements regarding the safe management of lead and radon gas in housing, and shall be made available to the public on or before the date on which the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development submits to Congress the report required pursuant to subpart (B) of subdivision (d) of Section 4822 of Title 42 of the United States Code.

CHAPTER 265

An act to amend Section 1788 of, and to add Sections 1788.3 and 1793.6 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to continuing care contracts.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1788 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1788. (a) Any continuing care contract shall contain all of the following:

(1) The legal name and address of the provider.

(2) The name and address of the facility.

(3) The resident's name and address.

(4) If the transferor is someone other than the resident, the transferor's name and address shall be separately designated.

(5) If the provider has used the name of any charitable or religious or nonprofit organization in its title before January 1, 1979, and continues to use that name, and that organization is not responsible for the financial and contractual obligations of the provider, the provider shall include in every continuing care contract a conspicuous statement which clearly informs the transferor that the organization is not financially responsible.

(6) The date the contract is signed by the transferor.

(7) The duration of the contract.

(8) A list of the basic services to be provided to the resident.

(9) A list of all basic services for which charges in excess of the monthly fee will be made and the fees at the date of the contract for those services.

(10) The procedures and conditions under which residents may be voluntarily or involuntarily transferred from their designated living units. The transfer procedures, at a minimum, shall provide for all of the following:

(A) When, in the opinion of, at a minimum, the facility management, a physician and surgeon, appropriate specialist, or licensing official, any of the following conditions exist:

(i) The resident is nonambulatory. The definition of nonambulatory, as defined in Section 13131, shall either be stated in the contract or be cited, with a copy of it made available, as an attachment or by specifying that it will be provided upon request. If the resident occupies a room that has a fire clearance for nonambulatory residence, provision for transfer under the above circumstances is unnecessary.

(ii) Resident becomes mentally ill.

(iii) Transfer to the facility's skilled nursing facility or personal care unit is required for more efficient care and/or to protect the health of other residents, or because the level of care needed cannot lawfully be provided in the living unit.

(iv) Transfer to a nursing home or hospital is required and the provider has no facilities available for such care.

(B) Provision for transfer of a second resident when a shared accommodation arrangement is terminated.

(C) When transfer is requested or required for any other reason.

(11) Provisions for any change in the monthly rate and any refund of entrance fees when a resident transfers from any unit.

(12) The obligations of the provider in the event a resident is transferred.

(13) Whether the provider has any responsibility to resume care.

(14) The obligations of the provider for services provided while the resident is absent from the facility.

(15) The conditions under which the resident permanently releases his or her living unit.

(16) All real and personal properties transferred, their value at the time of transfer, and how the value was ascertained.

(A) An itemized receipt which includes the information described above is acceptable, if incorporated as a part of the contract.

(B) With respect to the transfer of real property, a statement that the deed or other instrument of conveyance shall contain a recital that the transaction is made pursuant to a "continuing care contract" and may be subject to rescission by the transferor within 90 days from the date of the transfer.

(C) The failure to comply with this paragraph (16) shall not affect the validity of title to real property transferred pursuant to this chapter.

(17) The amount of the entrance fee.

(18) In the event two parties have jointly paid the entrance fee or other payment which allows them to occupy the unit, the contract shall define the allocation of fees.

(19) The amount of any processing fee.

(20) The amount of any monthly care fee.

(21) For contracts which require a monthly care fee or other periodic rate, the contract shall provide statements concerning all of the following:

(A) That the occupancy and use of the accommodations by the resident is contingent upon the regular payment of the fee.

(B) The regular rate of payment agreed upon (per day, week, or month).

(C) Whether payment will be made in advance or after services have been provided.

(D) Whether any adjustment in the monthly care fees is to be made by the provider for the support, maintenance, board, or lodging, which is supplied to a resident who requires medical attention when he or she is absent from the facility.

(E) If any credit or allowance is to be given to a resident who is absent from the facility or from meals, and if such credit is to be permitted at the discretion or by special permission of the provider.

(22) All contracts shall specify one of the following basic methods for calculating changes in monthly care fees:

(A) For prepaid contracts, which include monthly care fees, one of the following methods:

(i) Fees shall not be subject to change during the lifetime of the agreement.

(ii) Fees shall not be increased by more than a specified number of dollars in any one year and not more than a specified number of dollars during the lifetime of the agreement.

(iii) Fees shall not be increased in excess of a specified percentage over the preceding year and not more than a specified percentage during the lifetime of the agreement.

(B) For monthly fee contracts, changes in monthly fees shall be based on projected costs, prior year per capita costs, and economic indicators.

(23) The contract shall provide for notification of the resident at least 30 days in advance of any change in the scope or price of any component of care or other services.

(24) The contract shall include a provision indicating whether the resident's rights under the contract include any proprietary interests in the assets of the provider or in the facility, or both.

(25) If there is a loan on the property, the contract shall advise residents that rights they may have to enforce continuing care contracts are subordinate to the rights of the lender.

(26) Notice that the living units are licensed as residential care facilities for the elderly and, as such, any duly authorized agent of the department may, upon proper identification and upon stating the purpose of his or her visit, enter and inspect the entire premises at any time, without advance notice.

(27) A conspicuous statement, in at least 10-point boldface type in immediate proximity to the space reserved for the signature of the transferor, that provides as follows: "You, the transferor, may cancel the transaction without cause at any time within 90 days from the date of this transaction. See the attached notice of cancellation form for an explanation of this right."

(28) Notice that during the cancellation period, the contract may be cancelled by the provider without cause.

(29) The terms and conditions under which the contract may be terminated after the cancellation period by either party, including any health or financial conditions.

(30) A statement that involuntary termination of the resident by the provider after the cancellation period shall be only for good and sufficient cause. Good and sufficient cause does not include participation in a residents' coalition, or contacting or filing a complaint with the State Department of Social Services or any other state, county, or city agency, or any office of an elected or appointed government official.

(31) A statement that at least 90 days written notice is required for an involuntary termination.

(32) A statement concerning the length of notice that is required by a resident for the voluntary termination after the cancellation period.

(33) The policy for refunding any portion of the entrance fee, in the event of cancellation, termination, or death.

(34) The following notice at the bottom of the signatory page:

This is a continuing care contract as defined by Section 1771(j) or 1771(w) of Chapter 10 of Division 2 of the California Health and Safety Code. This contract form has been approved by the State Department of Social Services as required by Section 1787(b) of the California Health and Safety Code. The basis for this approval was a determination that (provider name) has complied with specific requirements of the statutes. Approval by the department is neither a guaranty of performance nor an endorsement of contract provisions. Prospective transferors and residents are encouraged to carefully consider the benefits and risks of this contract before signing. You should seek financial and legal advice as needed.

(b) The contract may include, but is not limited to, and need not include, any of the following items:

(1) Provision for a resident who becomes financially unable to pay for his or her monthly care fees at some future date to be subsidized. If provision for subsidizing a resident is included, the following provisions may be included:

(A) A stipulation that the resident shall apply for any public assistance or other aid for which eligible and that the provider may apply on behalf of the resident.

(B) A stipulation that the provider shall be the final and conclusive determining body of any adjustments to be made or any action to be taken regarding any charitable consideration to be extended to any of its residents.

(C) Provision for the payment or entitlement of actual costs of care from any property acquired by the resident subsequent to the adjustment, as provided in subparagraph (B), or from any property not disclosed by the resident at the time of application.

(D) Provision that the provider may pay the monthly premium of the resident's health insurance coverage under Medicare to ensure that such payments will be made.

(E) Provision that the provider may receive an assignment from the resident of the right to apply for and to receive such benefits, for and on behalf of the resident.

(F) Provision that the provider is not responsible for the costs of furnishing the resident with any services, supplies, and medication, when reimbursement is available from any governmental agency.

(2) Provisions which limit responsibility for costs associated with the treatment or medication of an ailment or illness existing prior to the date of admission. In such cases, the medical or surgical exceptions, as disclosed by the medical entrance examination, shall be listed in the contract or in the medical report, which may be attached to and made a part of the contract.

(3) Legal remedies which may be applied in case any material misrepresentation or omission pertaining to assets or health has been made by the resident.

(4) A clause which restricts transfer or assignments of the resident's rights and privileges under a continuing care contract because of the personal nature of the contract.

(5) A clause for the protection of the provider in instances where it may wish to waive any of the terms or provisions of the contract in specific instances where the resident has breached the contract without relinquishment of its right to insist upon compliance by the resident with all of the other terms or provisions.

(6) Provision for the reimbursement of any loss or damage beyond normal wear and tear suffered by the provider as the result of carelessness or negligence on the part of the resident.

(7) Provision that the resident agrees to observe off-limit areas of the facility as designated by the provider for safety reasons. However, the provider shall not attempt to absolve itself in the contract from liability for past or future negligence by any statement to that effect.

(8) Provision for the subrogation to the provider of the resident's rights in the case of injury to a resident caused as a result of the act or negligence of a third party.

(9) Provision for a lien on any judgment, settlement, or recovery for any additional expense incurred by the provider in caring for the resident as a result of injury.

(10) Provision that requires the cooperation of the resident in assisting in the diligent prosecution of any claim or action against any third party.

(11) Provision for the appointment of a conservator or guardian by a court of competent jurisdiction in the event a resident becomes unable to handle his or her personal or financial affairs.

(12) Provision that, in the event a provider whose property is tax exempt is required to pay property taxes, or in-lieu taxes, the additional costs will be charged to the resident on a pro rata basis.

(13) Other provisions approved by the department.

(c) Every contract shall contain a copy of the current audited financial statement. For a new provider unable to furnish a current audited financial statement, which will accurately reflect the financial ability of the provider to fulfill the continuing care contract promises, this requirement shall include the provider's current audited financial statement, and any supplemental statements that have been submitted to the department after the date of the audited financial statement, together with an additional attachment that discloses all of the following:

(1) That the reserve requirement has not yet been determined or met, but that entrance fees shall be held in escrow until the requirements of Section 1783.2 have been met.

(2) That the ability to provide the services promised in the continuing care contract will depend on successful compliance with the approved financial plan.

(3) The approved financial plan for meeting the reserve requirements.

(d) Every contract shall contain a completed form in duplicate, captioned "Notice of Cancellation." Such notice shall be attached to the contract, be easily detachable, and shall contain, in at least 10-point boldface type, the following statement:

"NOTICE OF CANCELLATION" (date)

/Enter date of transaction/

You may cancel this transaction, without any penalty within 90 calendar days from the above date.

If you cancel, any property transferred, any payments made by you under the contract, and any negotiable instrument executed by you will be returned within 14 calendar days after making possession of the living unit available to the provider, and any security interest arising out of the transaction will be canceled.

If you cancel, you are obligated for a reasonable processing fee to cover costs and the reasonable value of the services received by you from the provider up to the date you canceled or made available to the provider the possession of any living unit delivered to you under this contract, whichever is later.

If you cancel, you must return possession of any living unit delivered to you under this contract to the provider in substantially the same condition as when received.

Possession of the living unit must be made available to the provider within 20 calendar days of your notice of cancellation. If you fail to make the possession of any living unit available to the provider, then you remain liable for performance of all obligations under the contract.

To cancel this transaction, mail or deliver a signed and dated copy of this cancellation notice, or any other written notice, or send a telegram to _____

/Name of Provider/

at _____

/Address of provider's place of business/not later than midnight of _____(date).

I hereby cancel this transaction _____

SEC. 2. Section 1788.3 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1788.3. (a) Any contract containing a clause that provides for a resident to be evicted, or provides for a contract to be canceled for "just cause," "good cause," "good and sufficient cause," or other similar provision, shall also include a provision that none of the following activities by the resident, or on behalf of the resident, constitutes "just cause," "good cause," "good and sufficient cause," or otherwise activates the eviction or cancellation provision:

(1) Filing or lodging a formal or informal complaint with the department or other appropriate authority.

(2) Participation in an organization or affiliation of residents, or other similar lawful activity.

(b) No provider shall discriminate or retaliate in any manner against any resident of the continuing care retirement community for contacting the State Department of Social Services, or any other state, county, or city agency, or any elected or appointed government official, to file a complaint or for any other reason, or for participation in a residents' coalition.

SEC. 3. Section 1793.6 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1793.6. (a) The department may issue citations pursuant to this section containing orders of abatement and assessing civil penalties against any person who violates Section 1771.2 or 1793.5.

(b) If upon inspection or investigation, the department has probable cause to believe that an entity is violating Section 1771.2 or 1793.5, the department may issue a citation to that entity. Each citation shall be in writing and shall describe with particularity the basis of the citation. Each citation shall contain an order of abatement. In addition to the civil penalties pursuant to Section 1793.27, a provider in violation of the abatement order shall be liable for an assessment of a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred dollars ($200) per day for violation of the abatement order.

(c) The civil penalty authorized in subdivision (b) shall be imposed if an uncertified facility is operated and the operator refuses to seek a certificate of authority or the operator seeks a certificate of authority and the application is denied and the operator continues to operate the uncertificated facility, unless other remedies available to the department, including prosecution, are deemed more effective by the department.

(d) Service of a citation issued under this section may be made by certified mail at the last known business address or residence address of the person cited.

(e) Any person served with a citation under this section may appeal to the department in writing within 15 working days after service of the citation with respect to violations alleged, scope of the order of abatement, or amount of civil penalty assessed.

(f) If the person cited fails to appeal to the department in writing within 15 working days after service of the citation, the citation shall be a final order of the department and shall not be subject to review by any court or agency. The department may extend the 15-day period for good cause.

(g) If the person cited under this section makes a timely appeal of the citation, the department shall provide an opportunity for a hearing. The department shall thereafter issue a decision, based on findings of fact, affirming, modifying, or vacating the citation or directing other appropriate relief. The proceedings under this section shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and the department shall have all the powers granted therein.

(h) After exhaustion of the review procedures specified in this section, the department may apply to the appropriate superior court for a judgment in the amount of the civil penalty and an order compelling the cited entity to comply with the order of abatement. The application shall include a certified copy of the final order of the department, and shall constitute a sufficient showing to warrant the issuance of the judgment and order.

(i) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the department may waive part of the civil penalty if the entity against whom the civil penalty is assessed satisfactorily completes all the requirements for, and is issued, a certificate of authority.

(j) Civil penalties recovered pursuant to this section shall be deposited into the Continuing Care Provider Fee Fund, but notwithstanding Section 1778 shall be available for expenditure only upon express appropriation by the Legislature.

CHAPTER 266

An act to amend Section 25503.9 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to alcoholic beverages.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25503.9 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

25503.9. Nothing in this division prohibits a winegrower from giving or selling wine, a beer manufacturer from giving or selling beer, or a licensed importer from giving or selling beer or wine, at prices other than those contained in schedules filed with the department, to any of the following:

(a) A nonprofit charitable corporation or association exempt from payment of income taxes under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 of the United States and Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 23701) of Part 11 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(b) A nonprofit incorporated trade association that is exempt from payment of income taxes under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 of the United States and Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 23701) of Part 11 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, the members of which trade association are licensed under this division. However, the wine and beer shall be used solely for a convention or meeting of the nonprofit incorporated trade association.

(c) A nonprofit corporation or association that is exempt from payment of income taxes under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 of the United States and is defined as a tax exempt organization under Section 23701a, 23701d, 23701e, 23701f, or 23701r of the Revenue and Taxation Code. Wine or beer given or sold by a winegrower, beer manufacturer, or licensed importer pursuant to this subdivision may be furnished only in connection with public service or fundraising activities including picnics, parades, fairs, amateur sporting events, agricultural exhibitions, or similar events.

CHAPTER 267

An act to add Section 12001.5 to the Fish and Game Code, relating to fish and game.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12001.5 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

12001.5. (a) In addition to any other penalty or fine imposed pursuant to this code, if a person has been convicted of one or more offenses that was a violation of a section listed in subdivision (b) separate from the offense before the court, the court may order as a condition of probation upon conviction of the offense before the court that is also a violation of a section listed in subdivision (b), that the person attend the hunter safety course designated in Section 3051 and perform community service, preferably relating to natural resources if that type of community service is available, as follows:

(1) If the person has one separate conviction, not more than 200 hours of community service.

(2) If the person has two or more separate convictions, not more than 300 hours of community service.

(b) This section applies to violations relating to a taking in Sections 3007, 3700, 4330, and 4750, and a sale or purchase of parts of a bear in Section 4758.

CHAPTER 268

An act to amend Sections 12110 and 22651 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12110 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

12110. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), no towing service shall provide and no person or public entity shall accept any direct or indirect commission, gift, or any compensation whatever from a towing service in consideration of arranging or requesting the services of a tow truck. As used in this section, "arranging" does not include the activities of employees or principals of a provider of towing services in responding to a request for towing services.

(c) Any towing service or any employee of a towing service that accepts or agrees to accept any money or anything of value from a repair shop and any repair shop or any employee of a repair shop that pays or agrees to pay any money or anything of value as a commission, referral fee, inducement, or in any manner a consideration, for the delivery or the arranging of a delivery of a vehicle, not owned by the repair shop or towing service, for the purpose of storage or repair, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 2. Section 22651 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

22651. Any peace officer, as defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2 of the Penal Code; or any regularly employed and salaried employee, who is engaged in directing traffic or enforcing parking laws and regulations, of a city or a county in which a vehicle is located, may remove a vehicle located within the territorial limits in which the officer or employee may act, under any of the following circumstances:

(a) When any vehicle is left unattended upon any bridge, viaduct, or causeway or in any tube or tunnel where the vehicle constitutes an obstruction to traffic.

(b) When any vehicle is parked or left standing upon a highway in a position so as to obstruct the normal movement of traffic or in a condition so as to create a hazard to other traffic upon the highway.

(c) When any vehicle is found upon a highway or any public lands and a report has previously been made that the vehicle has been stolen or a complaint has been filed and a warrant thereon issued charging that the vehicle has been embezzled.

(d) When any vehicle is illegally parked so as to block the entrance to a private driveway and it is impractical to move the vehicle from in front of the driveway to another point on the highway.

(e) When any vehicle is illegally parked so as to prevent access by firefighting equipment to a fire hydrant and it is impracticable to move the vehicle from in front of the fire hydrant to another point on the highway.

(f) When any vehicle, except any highway maintenance or construction equipment, is stopped, parked, or left standing for more than four hours upon the right-of-way of any freeway which has full control of access and no crossings at grade and the driver, if present, cannot move the vehicle under its own power.

(g) When the person or persons in charge of a vehicle upon a highway or any public lands are, by reason of physical injuries or illness, incapacitated to an extent so as to be unable to provide for its custody or removal.

(h) When an officer arrests any person driving or in control of a vehicle for an alleged offense and the officer is, by this code or other law, required or permitted to take, and does take, the person into custody.

(i) (1) When any vehicle, other than a rented vehicle, is found upon a highway or any public lands, or is removed pursuant to this code, and it is known to have been issued five or more notices of parking violation, to which the owner or person in control of the vehicle has not responded within 21 days of citation issuance or 10 days of a notice of delinquent parking violation to the agency responsible for processing notices of parking violation or the registered owner of the vehicle is known to have been issued five or more notices for failure to pay or failure to appear in court for traffic violations for which no certificate has been issued by the magistrate or clerk of the court hearing the case showing that the case has been adjudicated or concerning which the registered owner's record has not been cleared pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 41500) of Division 17, the vehicle may be impounded until that person furnishes to the impounding law enforcement agency all of the following:

(A) Evidence of his or her identity.

(B) An address within this state at which he or she can be located.

(C) Satisfactory evidence that all parking penalties due for the vehicle and any other vehicle registered to the registered owner of the impounded vehicle, and all traffic violations of the registered owner, have been cleared.

(2) The requirements in subparagraph (C) of paragraph (1) shall be fully enforced by the impounding law enforcement agency on and after the time that the Department of Motor Vehicles is able to provide access to the necessary records.

(3) A notice of parking violation issued for an unlawfully parked vehicle shall be accompanied by a warning that repeated violations may result in the impounding of the vehicle. In lieu of furnishing satisfactory evidence that the full amount of parking penalties or bail has been deposited, that person may demand to be taken without unnecessary delay before a magistrate, for traffic offenses, or a hearing examiner, for parking offenses, within the county in which the offenses charged are alleged to have been committed and who has jurisdiction of the offenses and is nearest or most accessible with reference to the place where the vehicle is impounded. Evidence of current registration shall be produced after a vehicle has been impounded, or, at the discretion of the impounding law enforcement agency, a notice to appear for violation of subdivision (a) of Section 4000 shall be issued to that person.

(4) A vehicle shall be released to the legal owner, as defined in Section 370, if the legal owner does all of the following:

(A) Pays the cost of towing and storing the vehicle.

(B) Submits evidence of payment of fees as provided in Section 9561.

(C) Completes an affidavit in a form acceptable to the impounding law enforcement agency stating that the vehicle was not in possession of the legal owner at the time of occurrence of the offenses relating to standing or parking. A vehicle released to a legal owner under this subdivision is a repossessed vehicle for purposes of disposition or sale. The impounding agency shall have a lien on any surplus that remains upon sale of the vehicle to which the registered owner is or may be entitled, as security for the full amount of the parking penalties for all notices of parking violations issued for the vehicle and for any local administrative charges imposed pursuant to Section 22850.5. The legal owner shall promptly remit to, and deposit with, the agency responsible for processing notices of parking violations from that surplus, on receipt thereof, full amount of the parking penalties for all notices of parking violations issued for the vehicle and for any local administrative charges imposed pursuant to Section 22850.5.

(5) The impounding agency that has a lien on the surplus that remains upon the sale of a vehicle to which a registered owner is entitled pursuant to paragraph (4) has a deficiency claim against the registered owner for the full amount of the parking penalties for all notices of parking violations issued for the vehicle and for any local administrative charges imposed pursuant to Section 22850.5, less the amount received from the sale of the vehicle.

(j) When any vehicle is found illegally parked and there are no license plates or other evidence of registration displayed, the vehicle may be impounded until the owner or person in control of the vehicle furnishes the impounding law enforcement agency evidence of his or her identity and an address within this state at which he or she can be located.

(k) When any vehicle is parked or left standing upon a highway for 72 or more consecutive hours in violation of a local ordinance authorizing removal.

(l) When any vehicle is illegally parked on a highway in violation of any local ordinance forbidding standing or parking and the use of a highway, or a portion thereof, is necessary for the cleaning, repair, or construction of the highway, or for the installation of underground utilities, and signs giving notice that the vehicle may be removed are erected or placed at least 24 hours prior to the removal by local authorities pursuant to the ordinance.

(m) Wherever the use of the highway, or any portion thereof, is authorized by local authorities for a purpose other than the normal flow of traffic or for the movement of equipment, articles, or structures of unusual size, and the parking of any vehicle would prohibit or interfere with that use or movement, and signs giving notice that the vehicle may be removed are erected or placed at least 24 hours prior to the removal by local authorities pursuant to the ordinance.

(n) Whenever any vehicle is parked or left standing where local authorities, by resolution or ordinance, have prohibited parking and have authorized the removal of vehicles. No vehicle may be removed unless signs are posted giving notice of the removal.

(o) (1) When any vehicle is found upon a highway, any public lands, or an offstreet parking facility with a registration expiration date in excess of one year before the date it is found on the highway, public lands, or the offstreet parking facility. However, if the vehicle is occupied, only a peace officer, as defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2 of the Penal Code, may remove the vehicle. For purposes of this subdivision, the vehicle shall be released to the owner or person in control of the vehicle only after the owner or person furnishes the storing law enforcement agency with proof of current registration and a currently valid driver's license to operate the vehicle.

(2) As used in this subdivision, "offstreet parking facility" means any offstreet facility held open for use by the public for parking vehicles and includes any publicly owned facilities for offstreet parking, and privately owned facilities for offstreet parking where no fee is charged for the privilege to park and which are held open for the common public use of retail customers.

(p) When the peace officer issues the driver of a vehicle a notice to appear for a violation of Section 12500, 14601, 14601.1, 14601.2, 14601.3, 14601.4, or 14601.5 and there is no passenger in the vehicle who has a valid driver's license and authorization to operate the vehicle. Any vehicle so removed from the highway or any public lands or from private property after having been on a highway or public lands shall not be released to the registered owner or his or her agent, except upon presentation of the registered owner's or his or her agent's currently valid driver's license to operate the vehicle and proof of current vehicle registration, or upon order of a court.

(q) Whenever any vehicle is parked for more than 24 hours on a portion of highway which is located within the boundaries of a common interest development, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 1351 of the Civil Code, and signs, as required by Section 22658.2, have been posted on that portion of highway providing notice to drivers that vehicles parked thereon for more than 24 hours will be removed at the owner's expense, pursuant to a resolution or ordinance adopted by the local authority.

(r) When any vehicle is illegally parked and blocks the movement of a legally parked vehicle.

(s) (1) When any vehicle, except highway maintenance or construction equipment, an authorized emergency vehicle, or a vehicle which is properly permitted or otherwise authorized by the Department of Transportation, is stopped, parked, or left standing for more than eight hours within a roadside rest area or viewpoint.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision, a roadside rest area or viewpoint is a publicly maintained vehicle parking area, adjacent to a highway, utilized for the convenient, safe stopping of a vehicle to enable motorists to rest or to view the scenery. If two or more roadside rest areas are located on opposite sides of the highway, or upon the center divider, within seven miles of each other, then that combination of rest areas is considered to be the same rest area.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Section 1465.5 of the Penal Code, and to amend Section 9394.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to vehicle parking.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1465.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1465.5. An assessment of two dollars ($2) for every ten dollars ($10) or fraction thereof, for every fine, forfeiture, or parking penalty imposed and collected pursuant to Section 42001.5 of the Vehicle Code for violation of Section 22507.8 of the Vehicle Code, may be imposed by each county upon the adoption of a resolution by the board of supervisors. An assessment imposed by this section shall be collected and disbursed as provided in Section 9394.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

SEC. 2. Section 9394.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

9394.5. (a) Each county shall deposit funds collected pursuant to Section 1465.5 of the Penal Code in its general fund, to be available for use only for the support of services provided under this chapter in that county, including county administrative costs not exceeding 10 percent of the funds collected, except as otherwise provided in this subdivision. A county may join with other counties to establish and fund a program of services under this chapter. A county or a number of counties may, in cooperation with the department, fund or jointly fund a project or projects pursuant to Section 9314.5.

(b) Funds utilized pursuant to this section shall not supplant, be offset against, or in any way reduce funds otherwise appropriated for the support of services provided under this chapter.

An act to repeal Sections 3339, 3347, and 3348 of the Civil Code, to repeal Sections 4182, 4187, 4601, 4602, 4603, 4604, and 4605 of the Fish and Game Code, to repeal Sections 11241, 11242, 11243, 16701, 16702, 16703, 16801, 16802, 16803, and 16804 of the Food and Agricultural Code, to repeal Sections 14710 and 14711 of the Government Code, to repeal Sections 3294, 3302, 3303, 3304, 3305, 3306, 3307, 3308, 3309, 3310, 4665.6, and 5617 of the Health and Safety Code, and to repeal Sections 225, 226, 227, 228, 229, 230, 231, 232, 366, 367, 652, 779, and 780 of the Penal Code, and to repeal Sections 2266 and 27601 of the Vehicle Code, relating to obsolete laws.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

CHAPTER 271

An act to amend Sections 19005 and 19134 of, to add Section 19011 to, and to repeal Section 19029 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19005 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19005. (a) The tax, and any interest and penalties, shall be paid to the Franchise Tax Board. Except as provided in Section 19011, remittances may be in the form of a check, payable in United States funds to the Franchise Tax Board, at the time and in the manner as the Franchise Tax Board may prescribe. If a check is not paid by the bank on which it is drawn, the taxpayer tendering the check remains liable for the payment of the tax, and all interest and penalties, as if the check had not been tendered.

(b) Notwithstanding Title 1.3 (commencing with Section 1747) of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, the Franchise Tax Board may allow remittances to be in the form of a credit account number and authorization to draw upon a specified credit account, at that time and under those conditions as the Franchise Tax Board may prescribe. Remittances in the form of an authorization to draw upon a specified credit account shall include an amount, not to exceed 2 percent of the balance otherwise due, for purposes of paying the discount rate associated with drawing upon the credit account.

(c) Remittances made pursuant to subdivision (b) may be drawn on an account with a financial institution which agrees to add the discount rate associated with the use of the credit account number to the credit card holder's billing. Remittances drawn as described in this subdivision shall not include an amount for purposes of paying the discount rate associated with drawing upon the credit account.

SEC. 2. Section 19011 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

19011. (a) All payments required under this part, regardless of the income (or taxable) year to which the payments apply shall be remitted to the Franchise Tax Board by electronic funds transfer pursuant to Division 11 (commencing with Section 11101) of the Commercial Code, once any of the following conditions are met:

(1) With respect to any bank or corporation, the estimated tax payment made pursuant to Section 19025 or the payment made pursuant to Section 18604 with regard to an extension of time to file exceeds fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) in any income year beginning on or after January 1, 1991, or exceeds twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) in any income year beginning on or after January

(2) With respect to any bank or corporation, the total tax liability exceeds two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) in any income year beginning on or after January 1, 1991, or exceeds eighty thousand dollars ($80,000) in any income year beginning on or after January 1, 1995. For purposes of this section, total tax liability shall be the total tax liability as shown on the original return, after any adjustment made pursuant to Section 19051.

(3) A partnership or taxpayer (for purposes of this section, "taxpayer") submits a request to the Franchise Tax Board and is granted permission to make electronic funds transfers.

(b) A taxpayer required to remit payments to the Franchise Tax Board by electronic funds transfer may elect to discontinue making payments where the threshold requirements set forth in paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (a) were not met for the preceding income (or taxable) year. The election shall be made in a form and manner prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board.

(c) Any taxpayer required to remit payment by electronic funds transfer pursuant to this section who makes payment by other means shall pay a penalty of 10 percent of the amount paid, unless it is shown that the failure to make payment as required was for reasonable cause and was not the result of willful neglect.

(d) Any taxpayer required to remit payments by electronic funds transfer pursuant to this section may request a waiver of those requirements from the Franchise Tax Board. The Franchise Tax Board may grant a waiver only if it determines that the particular amounts paid in excess of the threshold amounts established in this section were not representative of the taxpayer's tax liability. If a taxpayer is granted a waiver, subsequent remittances by electronic funds transfer shall be required only on those terms set forth in the waiver.

(e) The Franchise Tax Board shall accept remittances by electronic funds transfer pursuant to this section no later than January 1, 1993. Electronic funds transfer procedures, in addition to those described in subdivision (f), shall be as prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board. Payment is deemed complete on the date the electronic funds transfer is initiated, if settlement to the state's demand account occurs on or before the banking day following the date the transfer is initiated. If settlement to the state's demand account does not occur on or before the banking day following the date the transfer is initiated, payment is deemed to occur on the date settlement occurs.

(f) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Electronic funds transfer" means any transfer of funds, other than a transaction originated by check, draft, or similar paper instrument, that is initiated through an electronic terminal, telephonic instrument, or computer or magnetic tape, so as to order, instruct, or authorize a financial institution to debit or credit an account. Electronic funds transfer shall be accomplished by an automated clearinghouse debit, automated clearinghouse credit, a Federal Reserve Wire Transfer (Fedwire), or by an international funds transfer.

(2) "Automated clearinghouse" means any federal reserve bank, or an organization established by agreement with the National Automated Clearing House Association, that operates as a clearinghouse for transmitting or receiving entries between banks or bank accounts and that authorizes an electronic transfer of funds between those banks or bank accounts.

(3) "Automated clearinghouse debit" means a transaction in which any department of the state, through its designated depository bank, originates an automated clearinghouse transaction debiting the taxpayer's bank account and crediting the state's bank account for the amount of tax. Banking costs incurred for the automated clearinghouse debit transaction by the taxpayer shall be paid by the state.

(4) "Automated clearinghouse credit" means an automated clearinghouse transaction in which the taxpayer, through its own bank, originates an entry crediting the state's bank account and debiting its own bank account. Banking costs incurred by the state for the automated clearinghouse credit transaction may be charged to the taxpayer.

(5) "Fedwire" means any transaction originated by the taxpayer and utilizing the national electronic payment system to transfer funds through federal reserve banks, pursuant to which the taxpayer debits its own bank account and credits the state's bank account. Electronic funds transfers may be made by Fedwire only if prior approval is obtained from the Franchise Tax Board and the taxpayer is unable, for reasonable cause, to make payments pursuant to paragraph (3) or (4). Banking costs charged to the taxpayer and to the state may be charged to the taxpayer.

(6) "International funds transfer" means any transaction originated by the taxpayer and utilizing the international electronic payment system to transfer funds, pursuant to which the taxpayer debits its own bank account and credits the state's bank account.

(7) In determining whether a payment or total tax liability exceeds the amounts established in subdivision (a), the income of all taxpayers whose income derived from, or attributable to, sources within this state is required to be determined by a combined report shall be aggregated and the total aggregate amount shall be considered to be the income of a single taxpayer for purposes of determining the payment or total tax liability of a single taxpayer.

SEC. 3. Section 19029 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 19134 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19134. (a) The provisions of Section 6657 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to bad checks, shall apply except as otherwise provided.

(b) Section 6657 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to bad checks, is modified to apply to payments made by credit card remittance or electronic funds transfer (as provided by Section 19011) in addition to payments made by check or money order.

(c) For payments received prior to January 1, 1993, this section shall be applied only to payments pertaining to taxable (or income) years beginning on or after January 1, 1990.

(d) For payments received on or after January 1, 1993, this section shall be applied to all payments, without regard to taxable (or income) year.

CHAPTER 272

An act to amend Sections 14504 and 14551 of, and to repeal Sections 14502.5, 14537.5, 14542.5, 14543, 14544, 14586.6, and 14587.5 of, the Public Resources Code, relating to beverage containers.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14502.5 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 14504 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

14504. (a) "Beverage" means beer and other malt beverages, wine and distilled spirit coolers, carbonated mineral and soda waters, and similar carbonated soft drinks in liquid form which are intended for human consumption.

(b) "Beverage" does not include wine, or wine from which alcohol has been removed in whole or in part, whether or not sparkling or carbonated.

(c) "Soft drink" does not include 100 percent fruit juice to which carbonation is added.

SEC. 3. Section 14537.5 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 14542.5 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 14543 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 14544 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 14551 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

14551. (a) The department shall establish reporting periods for the reporting of redemption rates and recycling rates. Each reporting period shall be six months. The department shall determine all of the following for each reporting period and shall issue a report on its determinations, within 70 days of the end of each reporting period:

(1) Sales of beverages in aluminum beverage containers, bimetal beverage containers, glass beverage containers, plastic beverage containers, and other beverage containers in this state, including refillable beverage containers.

(2) Returns for recycling, and returns not for recycling, of empty aluminum beverage containers, bimetal beverage containers, glass beverage containers, plastic beverage containers, and other beverage containers in this state, including refillable beverage containers returned to distributors pursuant to Section 14572. These numbers shall be calculated using the average current weights of beverage containers, as determined and reported by the department. To these numbers shall be added and separately reported the following, if greater than, or equal to, zero:

(A) All empty postfilled aluminum, glass, and plastic food or drink packaging materials sold in the state, returned for recycling, and reported by weight to the department which do not have a refund value less the number specified in subparagraph (B).

(B) The number of beverage containers which comprise the first five percentage points of the redemption rate without including the empty postfilled aluminum, glass, and plastic food or drink packaging materials sold in the state, returned for recycling and reported by weight to the department which do not have a refund value.

(3) An aluminum beverage container redemption rate, the numerator of which shall be the number of empty aluminum beverage containers returned, including refillable aluminum beverage containers and empty postfilled aluminum food or drink packaging material included in paragraph (2), and the denominator of which shall be the number of aluminum beverage containers sold in this state.

(4) An aluminum beverage container recycling rate, the numerator of which shall be the number of empty aluminum beverage containers returned for recycling, including refillable aluminum beverage containers, and the denominator of which shall be the number of aluminum beverage containers sold in this state.

(5) A bimetal beverage container redemption rate, the numerator of which shall be the number of empty bimetal beverage containers returned, and the denominator of which shall be the number of bimetal beverage containers sold in this state.

(6) A bimetal beverage container recycling rate, the numerator of which shall be the number of empty bimetal containers returned for recycling, including refillable bimetal beverage containers, and the denominator of which shall be the number of bimetal beverage containers sold in this state.

(7) A glass beverage container redemption rate, the numerator of which shall be the number of empty glass beverage containers returned, including refillable glass beverage containers and empty postfilled food or drink packaging materials included in paragraph (2), and the denominator of which shall be the number of glass beverage containers sold in this state.

(8) A glass beverage container recycling rate, the numerator of which shall be the number of empty glass beverage containers returned for recycling, including refillable glass beverage containers, and the denominator of which shall be the number of glass beverage containers sold in this state.

(9) A plastic beverage container redemption rate, the numerator of which shall be the number of empty plastic beverage containers returned, including refillable plastic beverage containers and empty postfilled food or drink packaging materials included in paragraph (2), and the denominator of which shall be the number of plastic beverage containers sold in this state.

(10) A plastic beverage container recycling rate, the numerator of which shall be the number of empty plastic beverage containers returned for recycling, including refillable plastic beverage containers, and the denominator of which shall be the number of plastic beverage containers sold in this state.

(12) A recycling rate for other beverage containers, the numerator of which shall be the number of empty beverage containers other than those containers specified in paragraphs (1) to (10), inclusive, returned for recycling, and the denominator of which shall be the number of beverage containers, other than those containers specified in paragraphs (1) to (10), inclusive, sold in this state.

(13) The department may define categories of other beverage containers, and report a redemption rate and a recycling rate for each such category of other beverage containers.

(14) The volumes of materials collected from certified recycling centers, by city or county, as requested by the city or county, if the reporting is consistent with the procedures established pursuant to Section 14554 to protect proprietary information.

(b) The department shall determine the manner of collecting the information for the reports specified in subdivision (a), including establishing procedures, to protect any proprietary information concerning the sales and purchases.

SEC. 8. Section 14586.6 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

SEC. 9. Section 14587.5 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

CHAPTER 273

An act to amend Section 12730 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to weights and measures.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12730 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

12730. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 12701 or this section, farm products sold by bulk weight or delivered to a processing or conditioning establishment for processing, conditioning, or sale, shall be weighed by a weighmaster, and a weighmaster certificate of the weight shall be issued to the producer with a duplicate copy issued to the buyer, conditioner, or processor.

(b) When the processing or conditioning charges or purchase is based on the bulk weight of the finished product, the finished product shall also be weighed by a weighmaster, and a second weighmaster certificate shall be issued to the producer with a duplicate copy issued to the buyer, conditioner, or processor.

(c) A producer whose product is delivered, but is not sold, to a processor or conditioner for processing or conditioning, may waive, in writing, his or her right to have the product weighed when the processing or conditioning establishment is operated by a producer of farm products and the processing or conditioning is incidental to the production of farm products. As used in this subdivision, "incidental" means that the income derived from the processing or conditioning operation represents not more than 25 percent of the total income of the producer operating the processing or conditioning establishment.

(d) This section does not apply to any nonprofit cooperative association that is organized and operating pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 54001) of Division 20 of the Food and Agricultural Code, except as to that portion of activities that involves the handling or dealing in any farm product of any nonmember of the nonprofit cooperative association.

(e) Subdivision (a), as it applies to tree nuts delivered for processing or conditioning, does not apply to tree nut hullers and shellers, if there is a written contract which waives the producer's right to have the unprocessed or unconditioned product weighed. Notwithstanding the waiver, the finished product shall be weighed by a weighmaster and a weighmaster certificate shall be issued to the grower, with a duplicate copy issued to the buyer, conditioner, or processor.

(f) The term "farm products" includes all agricultural, horticultural, viticultural, and vegetable products of the soil, flaxseed, and cottonseed, but does not include timber, timber products, milk, and milk products.

CHAPTER 274

An act to add Section 87104 to the Government Code, relating to the Political Reform Act of 1974.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 87104 is added to the Government Code, to read:

87104. (a) No public official of a state agency shall, for compensation, act as an agent or attorney for, or otherwise represent, any other person by making any formal or informal appearance before, or by making any oral or written communication to, his or her state agency or any officer or employee thereof, if the appearance or communication is made for the purpose of influencing action on a contract, grant, loan, license, permit, or other entitlement for use.

(b) For purposes of this section, a "public official" is any person defined in Section 82048, and every member of any advisory committee of a state agency, whether the committee is created by statute or otherwise.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 3. The Legislature finds and declares that the provisions of this act further the purposes of the Political Reform Act of 1974 within the meaning of subdivision (a) of Section 81012 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 275

An act to amend Section 27604 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to food facilities.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 27604 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

27604. (a) (1) No unpackaged food that has been served to any person or returned from any eating area shall be served again or used in the preparation of other food.

(2) No food prepared or stored in a private home shall be used, stored, served, offered for sale, sold, or given away in a food facility.

(3) Except as provided in paragraph (4), a private home shall not be used for the purpose of giving away, selling, or handling food at retail, as defined in Section 27536.

(4) Nonperishable, prepackaged food may be given away, sold, or handled from a private home.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (c) of Section 27621, every bakery product shall have a protective wrapping which shall bear a label which complies with the labeling requirements prescribed by the Sherman Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Law (Division 21 (commencing with Section 26000)). Bakery products sold directly to a restaurant, catering service, retail bakery, or sold over the counter directly to the consumer by the manufacturer or bakery distributor shall be exempt from the provisions of this subdivision. French style, hearth-baked, or hard-crusted loaves and rolls shall be considered properly wrapped if contained in an open-end bag of sufficient size to enclose the loaves or rolls.

CHAPTER 276

An act to amend Section 25201.5 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous waste.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25201.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25201.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a hazardous waste facilities permit is not required for a generator who treats hazardous waste of a total weight of not more than 500 pounds, or a total volume of not more than 55 gallons, in any calendar month, if both of the following conditions are met:

(1) The hazardous waste is not an extremely hazardous waste and is listed in Section 67450.11 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, as in effect on January 1, 1992, as eligible for treatment pursuant to the regulations adopted by the department for operation under a permit-by-rule and the treatment technology used is approved for that waste stream in Section 67450.11 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations for treatment under a permit-by-rule.

(2) The generator is not otherwise required to obtain a hazardous waste facilities permit or other grant of authorization for any other hazardous waste management activity at the facility.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, treatment in the following units is ineligible for exemption pursuant to subdivision (a) or (c):

(1) Landfills.

(2) Surface impoundments.

(3) Injection wells.

(4) Waste piles.

(5) Land treatment units.

(6) Thermal destruction units.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a hazardous waste facilities permit or other grant of authorization is not required to conduct the following treatment activities, if the generator treats the following hazardous waste streams using the treatment technology required by this subdivision:

(1) The generator treats resins which are mixed or cured in accordance with the manufacturer's instructions, including the treatment of multicomponent and preimpregnated resins by mixing or curing resins in accordance with the manufacturer's instructions.

(2) The generator treats a container of 110 gallons or less capacity, which is not constructed of wood, paper, cardboard, fabric, or any other similar absorptive material, for the purposes of emptying the container as specified by Section 66261.7 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, as revised July 1, 1990, or treats the inner liners removed from empty containers that once held hazardous waste or hazardous material. The generator shall treat the container or inner liner by using the following technologies, if the treated containers and rinseate are managed in compliance with the applicable requirements of this chapter:

(A) The generator rinses the container or inner liner with a suitable liquid capable of dissolving or removing the hazardous constituents which the container held.

(B) The generator uses physical processes, such as crushing, shredding, grinding, or puncturing, that change only the physical properties of the container or inner liner, if the container or inner liner is first rinsed as provided in subparagraph (A) and the rinseate is removed from the container or inner liner.

(3) The generator conducts drying by pressing or by passive or heat-aided evaporation to remove water from wastes classified as special wastes by the department pursuant to Section 66261.124 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations.

(4) The generator conducts magnetic separation or screening to remove components from wastes classified as special wastes by the department pursuant to Section 66261.124 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations.

(5) The generator neutralizes wastes which are hazardous solely due to corrosivity or toxicity that results only from the acidic or alkaline material, in elementary neutralization units, as defined in Section 66260.10 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, if the wastes result solely from the regeneration of ion exchange media used to demineralize water, do not contain more than 10 percent acid or base concentration by weight, and are treated in vessels and piping constructed of materials compatible with the range of temperatures and pH levels, and subject to appropriate pH and temperature controls.

(6) The generator neutralizes acidic wastes which are hazardous solely due to corrosivity resulting from the presence of food or food by-products, and alkaline or acidic waste, other than wastes containing nitric acid, at SIC Code Group 20, food and kindred product facilities, as defined in subdivision (p) of Section 25501, if both of the following conditions are met:

(A) The neutralization process does not result in the emission of volatile hazardous waste constituents or toxic air contaminants.

(B) The neutralization process is required in order to meet discharge or other regulatory requirements.

(7) The generator processes effluent hazardous waste for disposal from the processing of silver halide-based imaging products, if all of the following conditions are met:

(A) The effluent is a hazardous waste solely due to its silver content.

(B) The effluent is treated within 90 days of its generation.

(C) The effluent is treated in a tank or container.

(D) The total influent hazardous waste stream treated does not exceed 500 gallons in any calendar month.

(E) The effluent is treated with a technology or combination of technologies which recover the silver to a level less than 5 mg/l total silver in the final waste water discharge, or a lower level as may be set by the local publicly owned treatment works.

(8) Except as provided for specific waste streams in Section 25200.3, the generator conducts the separation by gravity of the following, if the activity is conducted in impervious tanks or containers constructed of noncorrosive materials, the activity does not involve the addition of heat or other form of treatment, or the addition of chemicals other than flocculants and demulsifiers, and the activity is managed in compliance with applicable requirements of federal, state, or local agency or treatment works:

(A) The settling of solids from waste where the resulting aqueous stream is not hazardous.

(B) The separation of oil/water mixtures and separation sludges, if the average oil recovered per month is less than 25 barrels.

(9) The generator is a laboratory which is certified by the State Department of Health Services, or is a laboratory which is operated by an educational institution, which treats waste water which is generated onsite solely as a result of analytical testing, or which is a laboratory which treats less than one gallon of hazardous waste, which is generated onsite, in any single batch, subject to the following:

(A) The waste water treated is hazardous solely due to corrosivity or toxicity that results only from the acidic or alkaline material, as defined in Section 66260.10 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, or is excluded from the definition of hazardous waste by subparagraph (E) of paragraph (2) of subsection (a) of Section 66261.3 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, or both.

(B) The treatment meets the following requirements, in addition to all other requirements of this section:

(i) The treatment complies with all applicable pretreatment requirements.

(ii) Neutralization occurs in elementary neutralization units, as defined in Section 66260.10 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations; wastes to be neutralized do not contain any more than 10 percent acid or base concentration by weight, or any other concentration limit which may be imposed by the department; and vessels and piping for neutralization are constructed of materials compatible with the range of temperatures and pH levels, and subject to appropriate pH temperature controls.

(iii) Treatment does not result in the emission of volatile hazardous waste constituents or toxic air contaminants.

(10) The hazardous waste treatment is carried out in a quality control or quality assurance laboratory at a facility that is not an offsite hazardous waste facility and the treatment activity otherwise meet the requirements of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a).

(11) Any wastestream technology combination certified by the department, pursuant to Section 25200.1.5, as suitable for authorization pursuant to this section, that operates pursuant to the conditions imposed on that certification.

(d) A generator conducting treatment pursuant to subdivision (a) or (c) shall meet all of the following conditions:

(1) The waste being treated is generated onsite, and a residual material from the treatment of a hazardous waste generated offsite is not a waste that has been generated onsite.

(2) The treatment does not require a hazardous waste facilities permit pursuant to the federal act.

(3) The generator prepares and maintains written operating instructions and a record of the dates, amounts, and types of waste treated.

(4) The generator prepares and maintains a written inspection schedule and log of inspections conducted.

(5) The records specified in paragraphs (3) and (4) are maintained onsite for a period of three years.

(6) The generator maintains adequate records to demonstrate that it is in compliance with all applicable pretreatment standards and with all applicable industrial waste discharge requirements issued by the agency operating the publicly owned treatment works into which the wastes are discharged.

(7) (A) The generator submits a notification to the department and to the local health officer or other local public officer authorized to implement this chapter pursuant to Section 25180 on or before April 1, 1993, or if the generator is commencing the first treatment of waste pursuant to this section, not more than 60 days before commencing treatment of that waste pursuant to this section. The notification shall be completed, dated, and signed in accordance with the requirements of Section 66270.11 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, as those requirements apply to permit applications, shall be on a form prescribed by the department, and shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following information:

(i) The name, identification number, site address, mailing address, and telephone number of the generator to whom the conditional exemption applies.

(ii) A description of the physical characteristics and chemical composition of the hazardous waste to which the conditional exemption applies.

(iii) A description of the hazardous waste treatment activity to which the conditional exemption applies, including, but not limited to, the basis for determining that a hazardous waste permit is not required under the federal act.

(iv) A description of the characteristics and management of any treatment residuals.

(B) The development and publication of the notification form specified in subparagraph (A) is not subject to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. The department shall hold at least one public workshop concerning the development of the notification form.

(C) Any notification submitted pursuant to this paragraph shall supersede any prior notice of intent submitted by the same generator in order to obtain a permit-by-rule under the regulations adopted by the department. This subparagraph does not require the department to refund any fees paid for any application in conjunction with the submission of a notice of intent for a permit-by-rule.

(8) (A) Upon terminating operation of any treatment process or unit exempted pursuant to this section, the generator who conducted the treatment shall remove or decontaminate all waste residues, containment system components, soils, and other structures or equipment contaminated with hazardous waste from the unit. The removal of the unit from services shall be conducted in a manner that does both of the following:

(i) Minimizes the need for further maintenance.

(ii) Eliminates the escape of hazardous waste, hazardous constituents, leachate, contaminated runoff, or waste decomposition products to the environment after treatment process is no longer in operation.

(B) Any owner or operator who permanently ceases operation of a treatment process or unit that is conditionally exempted pursuant to this section shall provide written notification to the department and to the local health officer or other local public officer designated by the director pursuant to Section 25180 upon completion of all activities required under this subdivision.

(9) The waste is managed in accordance with all applicable requirements for generators of hazardous waste under this chapter and the regulations adopted by the department pursuant to this chapter.

(10) The generator submits a fee in the amount required by Section 25205.14. The generator shall submit that fee within 30 days of the date that the fee is assessed by the State Board of Equalization, in the manner specified by Section 43152.10 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(11) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the generator shall submit the fee required by Section 25205.14 for the 1993 reporting period to the department as part of, and at the same time as, the notification required pursuant to paragraph (7) of subdivision (d) that is due on April 1, 1993. Any notification not accompanied by payment of the fee is invalid and shall not result in a grant of conditional exemption.

(e) (1) Unless otherwise required by federal law, ancillary equipment for a tank or container treating hazardous wastes solely pursuant to this section, is not subject to Section 66265.193 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, if the ancillary equipment's integrity is attested to pursuant to Section 62265.191 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations every two years from the date that retrofitting requirements would otherwise apply.

(2) The Legislature hereby finds and declares that, in the case of underground, gravity-pressured sewer systems, integrity testing is often not feasible. Therefore, on or before June 30, 1994, the department shall, by regulation, determine the best feasible leak detection measures which are sufficient to ensure that underground gravity-pressured sewer systems, for which it is not feasible to conduct integrity testing, do not leak. On and after July 1, 1994, if it is not feasible for an operator's ancillary equipment, or a portion thereof, to undergo integrity testing, the operator is not subject to Section 66265.193 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, if the operator implements the best feasible leak detection measures that are determined to be sufficient by the department in those regulations, and those leak detection measures do not reveal any leaks emanating from the operator's ancillary equipment. Any ancillary equipment found to leak shall be retrofitted by the operator to meet the full secondary containment standards of Section 66265.196 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations.

(f) Nothing in this section shall abridge any authority granted to the department by any other provision of law to impose any further restrictions or limitations upon facilities subject to this section, that the department determines to be necessary to protect human health and safety or the environment.

(g) A generator may contract with another party to provide onsite treatment in accordance with the permit exemption provisions of this section. Any person who performs onsite treatment in a transportable treatment unit pursuant to this subdivision shall comply with the standards set forth in this chapter for the same treatment units treating the same waste streams and shall be subject to any additional requirements for transportable treatment units that are imposed by the department by regulations adopted pursuant to this section. The additional requirements may include, but shall not be limited to, a waste analysis plan, site-specific notification, financial assurances for third-party liability, operating standards, records retention, and time limits for the operation of the transportable treatment unit at a particular site.

(h) A generator conducting activities which are exempt from this chapter pursuant to Section 66261.7 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, as that section read on January 1, 1993, is not required to comply with this section.

CHAPTER 277

An act to amend Section 987.87 of the Military and Veterans Code, relating to veterans.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 987.87 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

987.87. (a) The department shall establish the actual interest rate to be paid. To this end, the department, by a two-thirds vote of California Veterans Board members and with the approval of the Veterans' Finance Committee of 1943, is empowered to establish a uniform rate of interest payable upon the amount remaining unpaid under any veteran's purchase contract executed on or after September 26, 1974. The board and the committee shall periodically, at least once each year, make a finding as to the rate of interest to be charged, determined by a floating rate based upon the actual cost of general obligation bond and revenue bond sales, plus a certain percent for administrative costs to be determined annually by the board and committee, taking into consideration the current value of money, the solvency of the Veterans' Farm and Home Building Fund of 1943, and the interest paid on any participation contracts to which the interest of the department may be subject. The board and the committee may raise or lower the effective rate of interest payable under these contracts annually as they deem to be for the best interests of the department, as well as the contractholders, if in so doing this action is made applicable alike to any and all of these contracts. The interest rate shall not be raised so that the effective date of a higher rate of interest occurs more than once in any calendar year, unless the board and committee, by a two-thirds vote of the members of each, make a finding that an additional increase in the interest rate is necessary to enable the department to maintain the financial solvency of the fund or to meet its obligations to bondholders or purchasers. At least 90 days' advance written notice to the contractholders shall be given before any increase in the interest rate becomes effective.

(b) The total amount of any installment payment shall be raised or lowered to reflect any change in the effective rate of interest. The department may, however, adjust or postpone any installment payment for good cause pursuant to Section 987.71 and, for these purposes, good cause shall include a consideration of whether an increased installment payment would be excessively burdensome in light of a purchaser's financial circumstances. The department shall include notice of this provision in the 90 days' advance notice required under subdivision (a).

CHAPTER 278

An act relating to public utilities.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(a) The longstanding cornerstone of state and federal telecommunications policy is universal service, which requires that telephone service be affordable and ubiquitously available.

(b) Increasing competition in telecommunication services markets and newly emerging telecommunications technologies demand a critical reexamination of the definition, objectives, and subsidy support for universal telephone service.

(c) The Public Utilities Commission should initiate this reexamination immediately, with policy guidelines from the Legislature and participation by all elements of California society. Universal service must be defined in a way that ensures all segments of California society have access to the technology that will allow them to enjoy the benefits of the information age and the information superhighway.

(d) California telecommunications policy recognizes that:

(1) We must ensure the widespread availability of high-quality telecommunications service to all Californians.

(2) Advanced telecommunications services should be made available as ubiquitously and economically as possible to California's citizens, institutions, and businesses.

(3) Consumers must be provided with sufficient information upon which to make informed choices among telecommunications providers.

SEC. 2. (a) The Public Utilities Commission shall, on or before February 1, 1995, issue an order initiating an investigation and open a proceeding to examine the current and future definitions of universal service in telecommunications. The proceedings shall include public hearings that encourage participation by a broad and diverse range of interests from all areas in the state, including, but not limited to, consumer groups, service providers, rural and urban users, small and large business representatives, representatives of ethnic groups, and state agencies such as the Trade and Commerce Agency and the State and Consumer Services Agency. The objectives of the proceeding shall be to do the following:

(1) Define the goals of universal service given the new technologies and increasingly competitive markets, with emphasis on the role of basic service in education, health care, and in the workplace.

(2) Delineate the subsidy support needed to maintain universal service in the new competitive market.

(3) Design and recommend equitable and broad based subsidy support for universal service in freely competitive markets.

(4) Develop a process to periodically review and revise the definition of universal service to reflect new technology and markets.

(5) Address the issues of "carrier of last resort" and "franchise obligations."

(b) The recommendations shall be consistent with the state policies for telecommunications in Section 709 of the Public Utilities Code, and with the following principles:

(1) Essential telecommunications services should be provided at affordable prices to all Californians regardless of linguistic, cultural, ethnic, physical, geographic, or income considerations.

(2) In order to avoid an "information rich" and "information poor" stratification, there must be an ongoing evaluation of which services are deemed essential and therefore a part of universal service.

(3) Any subsidy that may be required to ensure that universal service remains a viable reality must have a clearly stated purpose and scope, include a broad based and competitively neutral funding mechanism, and be imposed in a manner that clearly identifies the source of the subsidy.

(4) Public policy should provide incentives as needed to promote deployment of advanced telecommunications technology to all customer segments.

(5) Consumers should be able to have access to all the information needed in order for them to make timely and informed choices about telecommunications products and services, and how to best use them.

(6) Because of their economic and social impact, education, health care, community, and government institutions must be positioned to be early recipients of the benefits of the information age.

(7) All parties involved in providing services utilizing evolving public networks should adhere to the same guidelines regarding mutual interconnectivity and interoperability, common carriage, reliability, privacy, and security.

(c) The commission shall complete its investigation and report to the Legislature its findings and recommendations for legislative action with respect to subdivisions (a) and (b), no later than January 1, 1996.

CHAPTER 279

An act to amend Sections 7002 and 7003 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to contractors.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7002 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7002. One member of the board shall be a general engineering contractor, two members shall be general building contractors, two members shall be specialty contractors, one member shall be a member of a labor organization representing the building trades, and seven members shall be public members, one of whom shall be an active local building official.

For the purposes of construing this article, the terms "general engineering contractor," "general building contractor," and "specialty contractor" shall have the meanings given in Article 4 (commencing with Section 7055) of this chapter.

Each contractor member of the board shall be of recognized standing in his or her branch of the contracting business. Each member of the board shall be at least 30 years of age and of good character.

Each member of the board shall have been a citizen and resident of the State of California for at least five years next preceding his or her appointment.

SEC. 2. Section 7003 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7003. Except as otherwise provided, an appointment to fill a vacancy caused by the expiration of the term of office shall be for a term of four years and shall be filled, except for a vacancy in the term of a public member, by a member from the same branch of the contracting business as was the branch of the member whose term has expired. A vacancy in the term of a public member shall be filled by another public member. Each member shall hold office until the appointment and qualification of his or her successor or until one year shall have elapsed since the expiration of the term for which he or she was appointed, whichever first occurs.

Vacancies occurring in the membership of the board for any cause shall be filled by appointment for the balance of the unexpired term.

No person shall serve as a member of the board for more than two consecutive terms.

The Governor shall appoint five of the public members, including the local building official, and the six members qualified as provided in Section 7002. The Senate Rules Committee and the Speaker of the Assembly shall each appoint a public member.

CHAPTER 280

An act to amend Sections 2 and 5 of Chapter 909 of the Statutes of 1991, relating to crimes, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2 of Chapter 909 of the Statutes of 1991 is amended to read:

Sec. 2. (a) The Judicial Council may establish in one county in which the board of supervisors by resolution agrees to the participation by the county, a three-year pilot program which shall implement a day-fine system commencing on July 1, 1993, and ending on July 1, 1996. Any decrease in revenue attributable to the day-fine project shall not adversely impact the county's share of court-generated revenue. The court will closely monitor court-generated revenue and will notify the state immediately regarding any decrease of funds paid to the state attributable to the day-fine project. In the event that the county's share of revenue decreases during the term of the pilot project, the state promises to restore and shall restore county revenues in the amount of the shortfall, but not exceeding thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000), at the end of the year in which a shortfall occurs from any source the state deems appropriate. The state will not decrease any amount otherwise payable to a participant county under any other law or state-funded program due to the restoration of a shortfall under this section. Either the state or the county may discontinue the project if any decrease in funds has, in its judgment, a significant impact on revenues.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if a person is convicted of a misdemeanor or a misdemeanor charged as an infraction within the discretion of the district attorney pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 17 and Section 19.8 of the Penal Code and the offense is included as part of the day-fine project in the pilot county, that person shall be fined pursuant to this section unless the court finds that unusual circumstances exist to justify avoidance of a fine. The court shall state on the record the circumstances that, in the interest of justice, necessitate an alternative disposition. Any minimum fine shall be calculated pursuant to subdivision (e), and the maximum fine shall not exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for each offense for which the defendant is convicted. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the court may prohibit day-fine offenders from serving time in jail, performing community service, or any other alternative sentence in lieu of payment of the day fine. The court shall use a percentage formula for allocation of the fines to various funds, including those established by Sections 1463 and 1464 of the Penal Code. There shall not be any penalty assessments, but those funds to which penalty assessments are distributed shall be included in the percentage formula in proportion to that amount provided for under present law. This section shall not be applicable to infractions, except for the infractions described in this subdivision.

(c) In the pilot county, the presiding judge of the superior court, the presiding judge of the municipal court, and the other municipal court judges, or if there are more than three municipal court judges, then three municipal court judges appointed by the presiding judge, the district attorney, the public defender, and a member of the Judicial Council shall constitute a planning group to devise a set of scales of day-fine units for misdemeanors and misdemeanors charged as infractions pursuant to subdivision (b) ranked according to their gravity. Specific conduct of the offender, including prior offenses, may be included in establishing the scale. After ranking the crimes, each offense shall be assigned a presumptive number of day-fine units. Each offense shall also be assigned a mitigating and aggravating number of units. The number of units for an offense shall not exceed the maximum number of jail days permitted under the applicable code section for the offense. This planning group shall also determine a daily allowance for each dependent.

(d) This section shall not apply to juvenile cases tried under the juvenile court law.

(e) When assessing a day fine, the court shall locate the conviction charge by the code section on the scale prepared under subdivision (c). The court shall use the presumptive units unless the court determines there are aggravating or mitigating factors. If there are aggravating or mitigating factors, the court may use the aggravating or mitigating units.

The net daily income of the offender is the reported family gross income divided by the period of time that income covers less one-third. For those offenders whose family gross income is equal to or lower than the federal minimum wage multiplied by 40 hours per week, a minimum fine shall be imposed. The net daily income figure or the minimum fine shall be reduced by the daily allowance for the number of dependents of the offender. The number of persons for whom an offender is financially responsible is the sum of the offender plus all other persons who derive support from his or her income. For an offender who is a dependent, the number includes the head of the household and each supported family member, including the offender.

The day fine for each offense for which there is a conviction is the product of the day-fine units times the net daily income adjusted for the number of dependents.

(f) The fine order shall be deemed a money judgment for the fine. The county agency in charge of collections shall enforce the judgment. If the agency determines that installment payments are necessary, the number of payments shall be as few as possible, and the total fine amount shall be collected in the shortest time possible. If the agency has to use the civil process of the court to collect the fine, they shall be awarded costs and attorney's fees. The agency shall closely monitor the offender's performance, and take immediate action for nonpayment. Additionally, if the convicted person is on probation and the fine is a condition of probation, the court may revoke probation for willful nonpayment.

(g) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the court may order the production of income tax records or other income documents in order to determine net daily income. All financial information provided for the purpose of calculating net daily income shall be confidential and shall only be used to determine the amount of the day fine. Pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 987 of the Penal Code, that information shall not be used for any other purpose, including, but not limited to, any criminal or civil proceeding, or as evidence in any other case.

SEC. 2. Section 5 of Chapter 909 of the Statutes of 1991 is amended to read:

Sec. 5. The Judicial Council shall report to the Legislature on October 1, 1996, regarding its evaluation of the pilot project and its identification of factors for legislative consideration in determining whether to adopt a day-fine system in other courts. This act shall remain in effect only until July 1, 1997, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before July 1, 1997, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to avoid a lapse in the operative date of the day-fine pilot project provisions, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 281

An act to amend Section 33681.5 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to local agencies, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 33681.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

33681.5. (a) (1) During each of the 1993–94 and 1994–95 fiscal years, a redevelopment agency shall remit prior to May 10 an amount equal to the amount determined for that agency pursuant to subparagraph (D) of paragraph (2) to the county auditor for deposit in the Educational Revenue Augmentation Fund created pursuant to Section 97.03 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(2) For each of the 1993–94 and 1994–95 fiscal years, on or before October 1, the Director of Finance shall do each of the following:

(A) Determine the net tax increment apportioned to each agency pursuant to Section 33670, excluding any amounts apportioned to affected taxing agencies pursuant to Section 33401 or 33676, in the 1990–91 fiscal year.

(B) Determine the net tax increment apportioned to all agencies pursuant to Section 33670, excluding any amounts apportioned to affected taxing agencies pursuant to Section 33401 or 33676, in the 1990–91 fiscal year.

(C) Determine a percentage factor by dividing sixty-five million dollars ($65,000,000) by the amount determined pursuant to subparagraph (B).

(D) Determine an amount for each agency by multiplying the amount determined pursuant to subparagraph (A) by the percentage factor determined pursuant to subparagraph (C).

(E) Notify each agency and each legislative body of the amount determined pursuant to subparagraph (D).

(F) Notify each county auditor of the amounts determined pursuant to subparagraph (D) for each agency in his or her county.

(b) (1) Notwithstanding Sections 33334.2, 33334.3, and 33334.6, and any other provision of law, in order to make the full allocation required by this section, an agency may borrow up to 50 percent of the amount required to be allocated to the Low- and Moderate-Income Housing Fund pursuant to Sections 33334.2, 33334.3, and 33334.6 during the 1993–94 and 1994–95 fiscal years, unless executed contracts exist that would be impaired if the agency reduced the amount allocated to the Low- and Moderate-Income Housing Fund pursuant to the authority of this section.

(2) As a condition of borrowing pursuant to this subdivision, an agency shall make a finding that there are insufficient other moneys to meet the requirements of subdivision (a). Funds borrowed pursuant to this subdivision shall be repaid in full on or before June 30, 2004.

(c) In order to make the allocation required by this section, an agency may use any funds that are legally available and not legally obligated for other uses, including, but not limited to, reserve funds, proceeds of land sales, proceeds of bonds or other indebtedness, lease revenues, interest, and other earned income. No moneys held in a low- and moderate-income fund as of July 1 of that fiscal year may be used for this purpose.

(d) The legislative body shall by March 1 report to the county auditor as to how the agency intends to fund the allocation required by this section.

(e) The allocation obligations imposed by this section, including amounts owed, if any, created under this section, are hereby declared to be an indebtedness of the redevelopment project to which they relate, payable from taxes allocated to the agency pursuant to Section 33670, and shall constitute an indebtedness of the agency with respect to the redevelopment project until paid in full.

(f) It is the intent of the Legislature, in enacting this section, that these allocations directly or indirectly assist in the financing or refinancing, in whole or in part, of the community's redevelopment projects pursuant to Section 16 of Article XVI of the California Constitution.

(g) For the purpose of making the determinations required by subdivision (a), the Director of Finance shall use those amounts reported as the "net tax increment to agency" for all agencies and for each agency in Table 6 of the 1990–91 fiscal year Controller's Annual Report on Financial Transactions Concerning Community Redevelopment Agencies of California.

(h) In the event that revised reports have been accepted by the Controller on or before January 1, 1994, the Director of Finance shall use appropriate data that has been certified by the Controller for the purpose of making the determinations required by subdivision (a). If this subdivision requires the Director of Finance to revise the determinations for the 1993–94 and 1994–95 fiscal years, the director shall not make those changes for the 1993–94 fiscal year, but instead shall apply the revised determinations for both fiscal years to the 1994–95 fiscal year.

(i) This section shall be operative only until July 1, 2004. This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2005, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to alleviate undue fiscal hardship to affected redevelopment agencies, including the Redevelopment Agency of the City of Norwalk, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 282

An act to amend Sections 8505.1, 8505.14, 8505.15, 8506.1, 8641, and 8663 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to structural pest control.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8505.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8505.1. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c), for the purpose of this act, "fumigation" shall be defined as the use within an enclosed space for the destruction of plant or animal life, a substance having a vapor pressure greater than 5 millimeters of mercury at 25 degrees centigrade when the substance is labeled for those purposes.

The following is a list of lethal fumigants:

(1) Methyl bromide.
(2) Sulfur dioxide.
(3) Propylene oxide.
(4) Sulfuryl fluoride.
(5) Aluminum phosphide.

The board may adopt, and may as necessary amend, by regulation, a list of fumigants.

(b) For the purpose of this act, "warning agent" shall be any agent used in combination with any fumigant that lacks warning properties.

The following is a warning agent:

Chloropicrin.

The board may adopt, and may as necessary amend, by regulation, a list of warning agents.

(c) For the purpose of this act "simple asphyxiants" shall not be deemed to be fumigants.

The following is a list of simple asphyxiants:

(1) Liquid nitrogen.

(2) Carbon dioxide.

The board may adopt, and may as necessary amend, by regulation, a list of simple asphyxiants.

SEC. 2. Section 8505.14 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8505.14. "Fumigator" means any individual licensed by the board as a structural pest control operator or as a structural pest control field representative in the branch of pest control which includes fumigation as set forth in Section 8560.

SEC. 3. Section 8505.15 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8505.15. Two effective masks of a type approved by the National Institute of Occupational Safety and Health for protection against the fumigant being used shall be made readily available by the registered company to a fumigating crew whenever a fumigant is introduced into or removed from a structure.

SEC. 4. Section 8506.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8506.1. A "registered company" is any sole proprietorship, partnership, corporation, or other organization or any combination thereof which is registered with the Structural Pest Control Board to engage in the practice of structural pest control.

A registered company may secure structural pest control work, submit bids, or otherwise contract for pest control work. A registered company may hire licensed field representatives and licensed operators to identify infestations or infections, make inspections, and represent the company in the securing of pest control work. A registered company may hire or employ individuals who are not licensed under this chapter to perform work on contracts covering wood-destroying organisms only after an operator or field representative has fully completed the negotiation or signing of the contract covering a given job.

A registered company may hire and use individuals who are not licensed under this chapter on service contracts already established.

SEC. 5. Section 8641 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8641. Failure to comply with the provisions of this chapter, or any rule or regulation adopted by the board, or the furnishing of a report of inspection without the making of a bona fide inspection of the premises for wood-destroying pests or organisms, or furnishing a notice of work completed prior to the completion of the work specified in the contract, is a ground for disciplinary action.

SEC. 6. Section 8663 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8663. (a) This section only applies to work conducted under a Branch 1 license.

(b) The board or county agricultural commissioners, when acting pursuant to Section 8616.4, may levy a fine of up to five hundred dollars ($500) against a registered company acting as a prime contractor for any major violation committed by any licensee with whom the prime contractor has subcontracted if, before that violation occurred, the prime contractor had been notified by certified mail, return receipt requested, of more than two major violations committed by the subcontractor within 12 consecutive months.

Fines collected pursuant to this section shall be paid to the Education and Enforcement Account in the Structural Pest Control Education and Enforcement Fund.

(c) For purposes of this section, "major violation" means a violation of any of the following provisions of this code or of the California Code of Regulations that poses a serious hazard to humans:

(1) A violation of subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 1970.4 of Title 16 of, or Section 6454 or 6455 of Title 3 of, the California Code of Regulations, or a violation of Section 8505.5.

(2) Any violation of the structural pest control law that results in a serious injury to any person.

(3) A violation of Section 8505.2 or 8505.3, relating to direct and personal supervision.

(4) A violation of Section 8505.7, relating to vacating and securing structures.

(5) A violation of subdivision (a) of Section 6780 of Title 3 of the California Code of Regulations.

(6) A violation of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) of, or subdivision (e) of, Section 6454 of, or a violation of subparagraph (C) or clause (i) of subparagraph (D) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 6455 of, or a violation of subdivision (c) of Section 6455 of, Title 3 of the California Code of Regulations.

(7) A violation of Section 8505.12, relating to warning agents.

(8) A violation of Section 8505.9 or 8505.10, relating to warning signs.

(d) A copy of a notice of violation issued for any violation committed by a subcontractor shall be sent by certified mail to the prime contractor by the issuing authority within 15 days from the date the violation was committed.

(e) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), a prime contractor may be fined for a subcontractor's first violation for failing to have a signed factsheet on the premises being treated, or if the subcontractor fails to provide advance notice of a treatment to the occupants of the premises being treated.

CHAPTER 283

An act to amend Sections 26625.2, 26625.3, 26625.4, 26625.5, 26625.6, 26625.7, 26625.8, and 26625.9 of the Government Code, relating to county officers.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 26625.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26625.2. There is a court security bureau within the Contra Costa County Sheriff's Department to serve the superior and municipal courts. The relationship between the sheriff's department and the court security bureau shall be similar to that which exists between the Sheriff's Department of Contra Costa County and certain cities in the county that contract for police services. The court security bureau shall maintain a branch office in each municipal court district with the exception of the Walnut Creek-Danville Judicial District.

SEC. 2. Section 26625.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26625.3. There is a Court Security Oversight Committee consisting of three municipal court judges and two superior court judges in even-numbered years and three superior court judges and two municipal court judges in odd-numbered years elected annually by a majority of their respective benches. The duties of the committee shall be those prescribed by this article, and include, but are not limited to, the following:

(a) To approve all transfers out of and into the court security bureau.

(b) To approve staffing levels and the recommended budget prior to submission to the board of supervisors.

(c) To approve security measures and plans prepared by the sheriff, through the court security bureau commander.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the sheriff shall provide bailiffing, court security, and prisoner holding in the Superior Court and Municipal Courts of Contra Costa County.

SEC. 3. Section 26625.4 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26625.4. (a) The sheriff shall be the appointing authority for all court security bureau positions and employees.

(b) The incumbent marshal of the Contra Costa County Municipal Court shall become the assistant sheriff (exempt) of the court security bureau upon the operative date of this section and may not be removed except by a four-fifths majority vote of the Court Security Oversight Committee. He or she shall hold the permanent rank of captain in the merit system. Whenever the salary of assistant sheriff is adjusted by the board of supervisors, the salary of assistant sheriff, court security bureau, shall be adjusted in the same amount with the same effective date.

(c) The selection, appointment, and removal of subsequent management heads of the court security bureau shall be made by a majority vote of the superior court judges of Contra Costa County and majority vote of the municipal court judges of Contra Costa County from a list of qualified lieutenants submitted by the sheriff.

(d) The two incumbent assistant marshals in the marshal's office shall become marshals, court security bureau, in the sheriff's department and assigned to the court security bureau upon the operative date of this section and may not be removed except by a four-fifths majority vote of the Court Security Oversight Committee. They shall be allocated to a salary level which is 67 levels on the C5 salary schedule above that of lieutenant in the service of Contra Costa County. Whenever the salary of lieutenant is adjusted by the board of supervisors, the salary of these two individuals shall be adjusted in the same percentage or levels with the same effective date.

SEC. 4. Section 26625.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26625.5. (a) All personnel of the marshal's office who are assigned to court services on the operative date of this section shall become members of the court security bureau at their existing salaries and benefits. Permanent employees presently holding the rank of deputy or sergeant, respectively, in the marshal's office shall become deputy sheriffs or sheriff's sergeants upon the operative date of this section.

(b) Sworn personnel described in subdivision (a) may be transferred to another position in the sheriff's office at the same or an equivalent classification, but shall not be involuntarily transferred out of court services.

(c) Permanent employees of the sheriff's office assigned to court services on the operative date of this section and permanent employees of the marshal's office on the operative date of this section shall be deemed qualified for employment and retention in the Sheriff's Department of Contra Costa County. Probationary employees of the sheriff's department assigned to court services on the operative date of this section and probationary employees of the marshal's office on the operative date of this section shall retain their probationary status and rights, and shall not be required to start a new probationary period.

(d) For personnel of the sheriff's office assigned to court services on the operative date of this section and personnel of the marshal's office on the operative date of this section, all county service shall be counted toward county seniority, and all time spent in the same classification, and all time spent in the equivalent or higher classification shall be counted toward classification seniority. All county seniority shall be credited as departmental seniority. For layoff and displacement purposes all covered service in the sheriff's department and marshal's office shall be counted equally, and the County's Personnel Management Regulations and other governing county ordinances and resolutions shall determine the class, county, and departmental seniority dates, the seniority and layoff order, and displacement rights of all employees.

(e) No employee of the sheriff's office assigned to court services on the operative date of this section or employee of the marshal's office on the operative date of this section shall lose peace officer status or be demoted or otherwise adversely affected by the consolidation of court services accomplished by this section. Peace Officer Standards and Training certificates held on the operative date of this section by employees of the Marshal's Department of Contra Costa County and the Sheriff's Department of Contra Costa County shall be considered the same for purposes of this section.

SEC. 5. Section 26625.6 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26625.6. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, the sheriff through the court security bureau commander shall make all transfers within the court security bureau consistent with existing personnel policies of the sheriff, memoranda of understanding, if any, and other county personnel management rules and regulations.

(b) A deputy marshal or deputy marshal sergeant on the operative date of this section who transfers out of the court security bureau to another division of the sheriff's office and subsequently fails to meet the employment standards of the other division may be transferred back to the court security bureau at the sole discretion of the sheriff.

SEC. 6. Section 26625.7 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26625.7. An employee of the sheriff's office who desires to transfer into the office of court services shall make application through the appropriate division to the court security bureau commander. That employee, if approved by the Court Security Oversight Committee for transfer to the court security bureau, shall execute an agreement to serve in the court security bureau for a minimum term of three years.

SEC. 7. Section 26625.8 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26625.8. Since the sheriff's department previously required each of its deputies to serve on its jail detention staff, and a deputy was permitted to credit time spent as a superior court bailiff prior to January 5, 1987, in lieu of all or part of this jail requirement, employees of the marshal's office on the operative date of this section shall be required to serve on the jail staff only if they transfer out of the court security bureau. In addition, those employees shall receive day-for-day credit on the jail requirement for time spent prior to the operative date of this section in bailiff-related services in the municipal court to the same extent as sheriff's deputies receive such credit for time spent in bailiff-related services in the superior court. The purpose of this section is to provide equality of treatment for those who have provided equivalent service in the municipal and superior courts.

SEC. 8. Section 26625.9 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26625.9. All sworn permanent employees subsequently assigned to the court security bureau shall be required to meet those requirements of the California Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training imposed on all marshal's departments in California.

CHAPTER 284

An act to amend Sections 10351 and 10364 of the Public Contract Code, relating to state procurement.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10351 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

10351. (a) The department shall exempt from its approval contracts under seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) that any state agency awards if the agency does all of the following:

(1) Designates an agency officer as responsible and directly accountable for the agency's contracting program.

(2) Establishes written policies and procedures and a management system that will ensure the agency's contracting activities comply with applicable provisions of law and regulations and that it has demonstrated the ability to carry out these policies and procedures and to implement the management system.

(3) Establishes a plan for ensuring that contracting personnel are adequately trained in contract administration and contract management.

(4) Conducts an audit every two years of the contracting program and reports to the department as it may require.

(5) Establishes procedures for reporting to the department and the Legislature on such contracts as the Legislature may require in the Budget Act.

(b) Any state agency may request the department to exempt from its approval classes or types of contracts under this section. When the department receives such a request but refuses to grant the exemption, it shall state in writing the reasons for the refusal. It is the intent of the Legislature that the department shall actively implement the provisions of this section and shall exempt from its approval as wide a range of classes or types of contracts as is consistent with proper administrative controls and the best interests of the state.

SEC. 2. Section 10364 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

10364. (a) The department shall exempt from its approval consulting services contracts under seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) that any state agency awards if the agency does all of the following:

(1) Designates an agency officer as responsible and directly accountable for the agency's contracting program.

(2) Establishes written policies and procedures and a management system that will ensure the agency's contracting activities comply with applicable provisions of law and regulations and that it has demonstrated the ability to carry out these policies and procedures and to implement the management system.

(3) Establishes a plan for ensuring that contracting personnel are adequately trained in contract administration and contract management.

(4) Conducts an audit every two years of the contracting program and reports to the department as it may require.

(5) Establishes procedures for reporting to the department and the Legislature on such contracts as the Legislature may require in the Budget Act.

(b) Any state agency may request the department to exempt from its approval classes or types of contracts under this section. When the department receives such a request but refuses to grant the exemption, it shall state in writing the reasons for the refusal. It is the intent of the Legislature that the department shall actively implement the provisions of this section and shall exempt from its approval as wide a range of classes or types of contracts as is consistent with proper administrative controls and the best interests of the state.

CHAPTER 285

An act to amend Sections 4600.5, 5173, 5177, 5179, 5182, and 5188 of the Labor Code, relating to workers' compensation.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4600.5 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

4600.5. (a) Any health care service plan licensed pursuant to the Knox-Keene Health Care Service Plan Act, a disability insurer licensed by the Department of Insurance, or any entity, including, but not limited to, medical groups, workers' compensation insurers, and third-party administrators authorized as a workers' compensation health care provider organization by the Commissioner of Corporations, may make written application to the administrative director to become certified as a health care organization to provide health care to injured employees for injuries and diseases compensable under this article.

(b) Each application for certification shall be accompanied by a reasonable fee prescribed by the administrative director. A certificate is valid for such period as the director may prescribe unless sooner revoked or suspended.

(c) If the health care organization is a health care service plan licensed pursuant to the Knox-Keene Health Care Service Plan Act, the administrative director shall certify the plan to provide health care pursuant to Section 4600.3 if the director finds that the plan is in good standing with the Department of Corporations and meets the following additional requirements:

(1) Proposes to provide all medical and health care services that may be required by this article.

(2) Provides a program involving cooperative efforts by the employees, the employer, and the health plan to promote workplace health and safety, consultative and other services, and early return to work for injured employees.

(3) Proposes a timely and accurate method to meet the requirements set forth by the administrative director for all carriers of workers' compensation coverage to report necessary information regarding medical and health care service cost and utilization, rates of return to work, average time in medical treatment, and other measures as determined by the administrative director to enable the director to determine the effectiveness of the plan.

(4) Agrees to provide the administrative director with information, reports, and records prepared and submitted to the Department of Corporations in compliance with the Knox-Keene Health Care Service Plan Act, relating to financial solvency, provider accessibility, peer review, utilization review, and quality assurance, upon request, if the administrative director determines the information is necessary to verify that the plan is providing medical treatment to injured employees in compliance with the requirements of this code.

Disclosure of peer review proceedings and records to the administrative director shall not alter the status of the proceedings or records as privileged and confidential communications pursuant to Sections 1370 and 1370.1 of the Health and Safety Code.

(5) Demonstrates the capability to provide occupational medicine and related disciplines.

(6) Complies with any other requirement the administrative director determines is necessary to provide medical services to injured employees consistent with the intent of this article, including, but not limited to, a written patient grievance policy.

(d) If the health care organization is a disability insurer licensed by the Department of Insurance, the administrative director shall certify the plan to provide health care pursuant to Section 4600.3 if the director finds that the plan is in good standing with the Department of Insurance and in compliance with subdivision (d) of Section 10133 and Section 10133.5 of the Insurance Code, and meets the following additional requirements:

(1) Proposes to provide all medical and health care services that may be required by this article.

(2) Provides a program involving cooperative efforts by the employees, the employer, and the health plan to promote workplace health and safety, consultative and other services, and early return to work for injured employees.

(3) Proposes a timely and accurate method to meet the requirements set forth by the administrative director for all carriers of workers' compensation coverage to report necessary information regarding medical and health care service cost and utilization, rates of return to work, average time in medical treatment, and other measures as determined by the administrative director to enable the director to determine the effectiveness of the plan.

(4) Agrees to provide the administrative director with information, reports, and records prepared and submitted to the Department of Insurance in compliance with the Insurance Code relating to financial solvency, provider accessibility, peer review, utilization review, and quality assurance, upon request, if the administrative director determines the information is necessary to verify that the plan is providing medical treatment to injured employees consistent with the intent of this article.

Disclosure of peer review proceedings and records to the administrative director shall not alter the status of the proceedings or records as privileged and confidential communications pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 10133 of the Insurance Code.

(5) Demonstrates the capability to provide occupational medicine and related disciplines.

(6) Complies with any other requirement the administrative director determines is necessary to provide medical services to injured employees consistent with the intent of this article, including, but not limited to, a written patient grievance policy.

(e) If the health care organization is a workers' compensation health care provider organization authorized by the Department of Corporations, the administrative director shall certify the plan to provide health care pursuant to Section 4600.3 if the director finds that the plan is in good standing with the Department of Corporations, and it meets the following additional requirements:

(1) Proposes to provide all medical and health care services that may be required by this article.

(2) Provides a program involving cooperative efforts by the employees, the employer, and the health plan to promote workplace health and safety, consultative and other services, and early return to work for injured employees.

(3) Proposes a timely and accurate method to meet the requirements set forth by the administrative director for all carriers of workers' compensation coverage to report necessary information regarding medical and health care service cost and utilization, rates of return to work, average time in medical treatment, and other measures as determined by the administrative director to enable the director to determine the effectiveness of the plan.

(4) Agrees to provide the administrative director with information, reports, and records prepared and submitted to the Department of Corporations in compliance with Section 54 and Part 3.2 (commencing with Section 5150) relating to financial solvency, provider accessibility, peer review, utilization review, and quality assurance, upon request, if the administrative director determines the information is necessary to verify that the plan is providing medical treatment to injured employees consistent with the intent of this article.

Disclosure of peer review proceedings and records to the administrative director shall not alter the status of the proceedings or records as privileged and confidential communications pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 10133 of the Insurance Code.

(5) Demonstrates the capability to provide occupational medicine and related disciplines.

(6) Complies with any other requirement the administrative director determines is necessary to provide medical services to injured employees consistent with the intent of this article, including, but not limited to, a written patient grievance policy.

(f) The provisions of this section shall not affect the confidentiality or admission in evidence of a claimant's medical treatment records.

(g) Charges for services arranged for or provided by health care service plans certified by this section and which are paid on a capitated basis shall not be subject to the schedules adopted by the administrative director pursuant to Section 5307.1.

(h) Nothing in this section shall be construed to expand or constrict any requirements imposed by law on a health care service plan or insurer when operating as other than a health care organization pursuant to this section.

(i) In consultation with interested parties, including the Department of Corporations and the Department of Insurance, the administrative director shall adopt rules necessary to carry out this section.

(j) The administrative director shall refuse to certify or may revoke or suspend the certification of any health care organization under this section if the director finds that:

(1) The plan for providing medical treatment fails to meet the requirements of this section.

(2) A health care service plan licensed by the Department of Corporations, a workers' compensation health care provider organization authorized by the Department of Corporations, or a carrier licensed by the Department of Insurance is not in good standing with its licensing agency.

(3) Services under the plan are not being provided in accordance with the terms of a certified plan.

(k) (1) When an injured employee requests chiropractic treatment for work-related injuries, the health care organization shall provide the injured worker with access to the services of a chiropractor pursuant to guidelines for chiropractic care established by paragraph (2). Within five working days of the employee's request to see a chiropractor, the health care organization and any person or entity who directs the kind or manner of health care services for the plan shall refer an injured employee to an affiliated chiropractor for work-related injuries that are within the guidelines for chiropractic care established by paragraph (2). Chiropractic care rendered in accordance with guidelines for chiropractic care established pursuant to paragraph (2) shall be provided by duly licensed chiropractors affiliated with the plan.

(2) The health care organization shall establish guidelines for chiropractic care in consultation with affiliated chiropractors who are participants in the health care organization's utilization review process for chiropractic care, which may include qualified medical evaluators knowledgeable in the treatment of chiropractic conditions. The guidelines for chiropractic care shall, at a minimum, explicitly require the referral of any injured employee who so requests to an affiliated chiropractor for the evaluation or treatment, or both of neuromusculoskeletal conditions.

(3) Whenever a dispute concerning the appropriateness or necessity of chiropractic care for work-related injuries arises, the dispute shall be resolved by the health care organization's utilization review process for chiropractic care in accordance with the health care organization's guidelines for chiropractic care established by paragraph (2).

Chiropractic utilization review for work-related injuries shall be conducted in accordance with the health care organization's approved quality assurance standards and utilization review process for chiropractic care. Chiropractors affiliated with the plan shall have access to the health care organization's provider appeals process and, in the case of chiropractic care for work-related injuries, the review shall include review by a chiropractor affiliated with the health care organization, as determined by the health care organization.

(4) The health care organization shall inform employees of the procedures for processing and resolving grievances, including those related to chiropractic care, including the location and telephone number where grievances may be submitted.

(5) All guidelines for chiropractic care and utilization review shall be consistent with the standards of this code that require care to cure or relieve the effects of the industrial injury.

SEC. 2. Section 5173 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

5173. (a) The commissioner shall require the use by each organization of disclosure forms or materials containing such information regarding the health care and terms of the workers' compensation health care contract as the commissioner may require, so as to afford the public, employers, and employees with a full and fair disclosure of the provisions of the contract in readily understood language and in a clearly organized manner. The commissioner may require that the materials be presented in a reasonably uniform manner so as to facilitate comparisons between contracts of the same or other types of organizations. The disclosure form shall describe the health care that is required by the Director of the Department of Industrial Relations under Sections 4600.3 and 4600.5, and shall provide that all information be in concise and specific terms, relative to the contract, together with such additional information as may be required by the commissioner, in connection with the organization or contract.

(c) In addition to the other disclosures required by this section, every organization and any agent or employee of the organization shall, when representing an organization for examination or sale to any individual purchaser or the representative of a group consisting of 25 or fewer individuals, disclose in writing the ratio of premium costs to health care paid for contracts with individuals and with groups of the same or similar size for the organization's preceding fiscal year. An organization may report that information by geographic area, provided the organization identifies the geographic area and reports information applicable to that geographic area.

SEC. 3. Section 5177 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

5177. Each organization shall meet the following requirements:

(a) All facilities located in this state, including, but not limited to, clinics, hospitals, and skilled nursing facilities, to be utilized by the organization shall be licensed by the State Department of Health Services, if that licensure is required by law. Facilities not located in this state shall conform to all licensing and other requirements of the jurisdiction in which they are located.

(b) All personnel employed by or under contract to the organization shall be licensed or certified by their respective board or agency, where that licensure or certification is required by law.

(c) All equipment required to be licensed or registered by law shall be so licensed or registered and the operating personnel for that equipment shall be licensed or certified as required by law.

(d) The organization shall furnish services in a manner providing continuity of care and ready referral of patients to other providers at such times as may be appropriate consistent with good professional practice.

(e) All health care shall be readily available at reasonable times to all employees. To the extent feasible, the organization shall make all health care readily accessible to all employees.

(f) The organization shall employ and utilize allied health manpower for the furnishing of health care to the extent permitted by law and consistent with good health care practice.

(g) The organization shall have the organizational and administrative capacity to provide services to employees. The organization shall be able to demonstrate to the department that health care decisions are rendered by qualified providers, unhindered by fiscal and administrative management.

(h) All contracts with employers, insurers of employers, and self-insured employers and all contracts with providers, and other persons furnishing services, equipment, or facilities to or in connection with the workers' compensation health care provider organization, shall be fair, reasonable, and consistent with the objectives of this part.

(i) Each organization shall provide to employees all workers' compensation health care required by this code. The commissioner shall not determine the scope of workers' compensation health care to be offered by an organization.

SEC. 4. Section 5179 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

5179. Every organization shall establish procedures in accordance with department regulations for continuously reviewing the quality of care, performance of medical personnel, utilization of services and facilities, and costs. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, there shall be no monetary liability on the part of, and no cause of action for damages shall arise against, any person who participates in quality of care or utilization reviews by peer review committees which are composed chiefly of physicians, as defined by Section 3209.3, for any act performed during the reviews if the person acts without malice, has made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter, and believes that the action taken is warranted by the facts, and neither the proceedings nor the records of the reviews shall be subject to discovery, nor shall any person in attendance at the reviews be required to testify as to what transpired thereat. Disclosure of the proceedings or records to the governing body of an organization or to any person or entity designated by the organization to review activities of the committees shall not alter the status of the records or of the proceedings as privileged communications.

The above prohibition relating to discovery or testimony shall not apply to the statements made by any person in attendance at a review who is a party to an action or proceeding the subject matter of which was reviewed, or to any person requesting hospital staff privileges, or in any action against an insurance carrier alleging bad faith by the carrier in refusing to accept a settlement offer within the policy limits, or to the commissioner in conducting surveys pursuant to Section 5186.

This section shall not be construed to confer immunity from liability on any workers' compensation health care provider organization. In any case in which, but for the enactment of the preceding provisions of this section, a cause of action would arise against an organization, the cause of action shall exist notwithstanding the provisions of this section.

SEC. 5. Section 5182 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

5182. (a) No organization shall conduct any activity regulated by this part in contravention of such rules and regulations as the commissioner may prescribe as necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of organizations and employees to provide safeguards with respect to the requirements of the preceding section.

(b) Each solicitor and solicitor firm shall handle funds received for the account of workers' compensation health care provider organizations, subscribers, or groups in accordance with such rules as the commissioner may adopt pursuant to this subdivision.

SEC. 6. Section 5188 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

(b) The expense of conducting any additional or nonroutine examinations pursuant to this section, and the expense of conducting any additional or nonroutine medical surveys pursuant to Section 5186 shall be charged against the organization being examined or surveyed. The amount shall include the actual salaries or compensation paid to the persons making the examination or survey, the expenses incurred in the course thereof, and overhead costs in connection therewith as fixed by the commissioner. In determining the cost of examinations or surveys, the commissioner may use the estimated average hourly cost for all persons performing examinations or surveys of workers' compensation health care provider organizations for the fiscal year. The amount charged shall be remitted by the organization to the commissioner. If recovery of these costs cannot be made from the organization, these costs may be added to, but subject to the limitation of, the assessment provided for in subdivision (b) of Section 5166.

(c) Reports of all examinations shall be open to public inspection, except that no examination shall be made public, unless the organization has had an opportunity to review the examination report and file a statement or response within 30 days, to be attached to the report. Deficiencies shall not be made public if they are corrected within 30 days of the date that the organization was notified of the deficiency.

(d) Upon receipt of the written request of the Director of the Department of Industrial Relations, the commissioner may, consistent with Section 6254.5 of the Government Code, permit the Department of Industrial Relations to review the organization's examination report.

CHAPTER 286

An act to amend Sections 6010.65 and 24384 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6010.65 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

6010.65. (a) "Sale" and "purchase," for purposes of this part, do not include any transfer of title to, nor any lease of, tangible personal property pursuant to an acquisition sale and leaseback. An acquisition sale and leaseback is a sale by a person and leaseback to that person of tangible personal property where both of the following conditions are satisfied:

(1) That person has paid sales tax reimbursement or use tax with respect to that person's purchase of the property.

(2) The acquisition sale and leaseback is consummated within 90 days of that person's first functional use of the property.

(b) "Sale" and "purchase" include, for purposes of this part, the transfer of title to a lessee upon termination of an acquisition sale and leaseback.

(c) This section shall apply to acquisition sale and leaseback arrangements executed on or after the operative date of this section.

SEC. 2. Section 24384 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24384. (a) There shall be allowed as a deduction the amount of net interest received by the taxpayer in payment of indebtedness of either of the following:

(1) A qualified business (as defined in Section 7082 of the Government Code).

(2) A person or entity engaged in trade or business located in an enterprise zone (as defined in Section 7073 of the Government Code).

(b) No deduction shall be allowed under this section unless at the time the indebtedness is incurred each of the following requirements are met:

(1) The qualified business is located solely within a program area

(as defined in Section 7082 of the Government Code), or the trade or business is located solely within an enterprise zone (as defined in Section 7073 of the Government Code).

(2) The indebtedness is incurred solely in connection with activity within the program area or enterprise zone.

(3) The taxpayer has no equity or other ownership interest in the debtor.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 2230 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act and the state shall not reimburse any local agency for any sales and use tax revenues lost by it under this act.

SEC. 4. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. However, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the first day of the first calendar quarter commencing more than 90 days after the effective date of this act.

CHAPTER 287

An act to amend Section 11000.7 of the Government Code, relating to public agencies.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11000.7 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11000.7. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, every state agency shall establish the license periods and renewal dates for all licenses issued by the agencies in the manner as best to distribute the renewal work of all agencies throughout each year and permit the most efficient and economical use of personnel and equipment. To the extent practicable, provision shall be made for the proration or other adjustment of fees in the manner that no person shall be required to pay a greater or lesser fee than he or she would have been required to pay if the change in license periods or renewal dates had not occurred.

Nothing in this section shall authorize any state agency to vary the period of any license which is issued other than as authorized by law.

CHAPTER 288

An act to amend Section 340.1 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to commencement of actions.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 340.1 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

340.1. (a) In any civil action for recovery of damages suffered as a result of childhood sexual abuse, the time for commencement of the action shall be within eight years of the date the plaintiff attains the age of majority or within three years of the date the plaintiff discovers or reasonably should have discovered that psychological injury or illness occurring after the age of majority was caused by the sexual abuse, whichever period expires later.

(b) "Childhood sexual abuse" as used in this section includes any act committed by the defendant against the plaintiff that occurred when the plaintiff was under the age of 18 years and that would have been proscribed by Section 266j of the Penal Code; Section 285 of the Penal Code; paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (b), or of subdivision (c), of Section 286 of the Penal Code; subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 288 of the Penal Code; paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (b), or of subdivision (c), of Section 288a of the Penal Code; subdivision (h), (i), or (j) of Section 289 of the Penal Code; Section 647.6 of the Penal Code; or any prior laws of this state of similar effect at the time the act was committed.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed to alter the otherwise applicable burden of proof, as defined in Section 115 of the Evidence Code, that a plaintiff has in a civil action subject to this section.

(d) Every plaintiff 26 years of age or older at the time the action is filed shall file certificates of merit as specified in subdivision (e).

(e) Certificates of merit shall be executed by the attorney for the plaintiff and by a licensed mental health practitioner selected by the plaintiff declaring, respectively, as follows, setting forth the facts which support the declaration:

(1) That the attorney has reviewed the facts of the case, that the attorney has consulted with at least one mental health practitioner who is licensed to practice and practices in this state and who the attorney reasonably believes is knowledgeable of the relevant facts and issues involved in the particular action, and that the attorney has concluded on the basis of that review and consultation that there is reasonable and meritorious cause for the filing of the action. The person consulted may not be a party to the litigation.

(2) That the mental health practitioner consulted is licensed to practice and practices in this state and is not a party to the action, that the practitioner is not treating and has not treated the plaintiff, and that the practitioner has interviewed the plaintiff and is knowledgeable of the relevant facts and issues involved in the particular action, and has concluded, on the basis of his or her knowledge of the facts and issues, that in his or her professional opinion there is a reasonable basis to believe that the plaintiff had been subject to childhood sexual abuse.

(3) That the attorney was unable to obtain the consultation required by paragraph (1) because a statute of limitations would impair the action and that the certificates required by paragraphs (1) and (2) could not be obtained before the impairment of the action. If a certificate is executed pursuant to this paragraph, the certificates required by paragraphs (1) and (2) shall be filed within 60 days after filing the complaint.

(f) Where certificates are required pursuant to subdivision (d), separate certificates shall be filed for each defendant named in the complaint.

(g) A complaint subject to subdivision (d) may not be served upon the defendant or defendants until the court has reviewed the certificates of merit filed pursuant to subdivision (e) and has found, in camera, based solely on those certificates of merit, that there is reasonable and meritorious cause for the filing of the action. At that time, the complaint may be served upon the defendant or defendants. The duty to serve the defendant or defendants with process shall not attach until that time.

(h) A violation of this section may constitute unprofessional conduct and may be the grounds for discipline against the attorney.

(i) The failure to file certificates in accordance with this section shall be grounds for a demurrer pursuant to Section 430.10 or a motion to strike pursuant to Section 435.

(j) In any action subject to subdivision (d), the defendant or defendants may not be named except by "Doe" designation in any pleadings or papers filed in the action until there has been a showing of corroborative fact as to the charging allegations against any defendant alleged to have committed an act or acts of childhood sexual abuse against the plaintiff.

(k) At any time after the action is filed, plaintiff may apply to the court for permission to amend the complaint to substitute the name of the defendant or defendants for the fictitious designation, as follows:

(1) The application shall be accompanied by a certificate of corroborative fact executed by the attorney for the plaintiff. The certificate shall declare that the attorney has discovered one or more facts corroborative of one or more of the charging allegations against a defendant or defendants, and shall set forth in clear and concise terms the nature and substance of the corroborative fact. If the corroborative fact is evidenced by the testimony of a witness or the contents of a document, the identity and location of the witness or document shall be included in the certificate. For purposes of this section, a fact is corroborative of an allegation if it confirms or supports the allegation. The opinion of any mental health practitioner concerning the plaintiff shall not constitute a corroborative fact for purposes of this section.

(2) Where the application to name a defendant is made prior to that defendant's appearance in the action, neither the application nor the certificate of corroborative fact by the attorney shall be served on the defendant or defendants, nor on any other party or their counsel of record.

(3) Where the application to name a defendant is made after that defendant's appearance in the action, the application shall be served on all parties and proof of service thereof provided to the court, but the certificate of corroborative fact by the attorney shall not be served on any party or their counsel of record.

(l) The court shall review the application and the certificate of corroborative fact in camera and, based solely on the certificate and any reasonable inferences to be drawn therefrom, shall, if one or more facts corroborative of one or more of the charging allegations against a defendant has been shown, order that the complaint may be amended to substitute the name of the defendant or defendants.

(m) The court shall keep under seal and confidential from the public and all parties to the litigation other than the plaintiff any and all certificates of corroborative fact filed pursuant to subdivision (k).

(n) Upon the favorable conclusion of the litigation with respect to any defendant for whom a certificate of merit was filed or for whom a certificate of merit should have been filed pursuant to this section, the court may, upon the motion of a party or upon the court's own motion, verify compliance with this section by requiring the attorney for the plaintiff who was required by subdivision (e) to execute the certificate to reveal the name, address, and telephone number of the person or persons consulted with pursuant to subdivision (e) that were relied upon by the attorney in preparation of the certificate of merit. The name, address, and telephone number shall be disclosed to the trial judge in camera and in the absence of the moving party. If the court finds there has been a failure to comply with this section, the court may order a party, a party's attorney, or both, to pay any reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred by the defendant for whom a certificate of merit should have been filed.

(o) The amendments to this section enacted at the 1990 portion of the 1989–90 Regular Session shall apply to any action commenced on or after January 1, 1991, including any action otherwise barred by the period of limitations in effect prior to January 1, 1991, thereby reviving those causes of action which had lapsed or technically expired under the law existing prior to January 1, 1991.

(p) The Legislature declares that it is the intent of the Legislature, in enacting the amendments to this section enacted at the 1994 portion of the 1993–94 Regular Session, that the express language of revival added to this section by those amendments shall apply to any action commenced on or after January 1, 1991.

CHAPTER 289

An act to amend Section 854.1 of the Financial Code, relating to financial institutions.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 854.1 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

854.1. Notwithstanding Section 10145 of the Business and Professions Code or any other provision of law, but subject to the limitations of Section 854, benefits accruing from the placement in a non-interest bearing account of a commercial bank (including a national banking association) of funds received by a real estate broker who collects payments or provides services in connection with a loan secured by a lien on real property under subdivision (d) of Section 10131 or Section 10131.1 of the Business and Professions Code shall inure to the broker, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the broker and the lender or note owner on the loan. A borrower shall receive at least two percent simple interest per annum on impound account payments covered by Section 2954.8 of the Civil Code.

CHAPTER 290

An act to amend Section 463 of the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 463 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

463. (a) Every person who violates Section 459, punishable as a second-degree burglary pursuant to subdivision 2 of Section 461, during and within an affected county in a "state of emergency" or a "local emergency" resulting from an earthquake, fire, flood, riot, or other natural or manmade disaster shall be guilty of the crime of looting, punishable by imprisonment in a county jail for one year or in the state prison. Any person convicted under this subdivision who is eligible for probation and who is granted probation shall, as a condition thereof, be confined in a county jail for at least 180 days, except that the court may, in the case where the interest of justice would best be served, reduce or eliminate that mandatory jail sentence, if the court specifies on the record and enters into the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interest of justice would best be served by that disposition. In addition to whatever custody is ordered, the court, in its discretion, may require any person granted probation following conviction under this subdivision to serve up to 240 hours of community service in any program deemed appropriate by the court, including any program created to rebuild the community.

For purposes of this section, the fact that the structure entered has been damaged by the earthquake, fire, flood, or other natural or manmade disaster shall not, in and of itself, preclude conviction.

(b) Every person who commits the crime of grand theft, as defined in Section 487, except grand theft of a firearm, during and within an affected county in a "state of emergency" or a "local emergency" resulting from an earthquake, fire, flood, riot, or other natural or unnatural disaster shall be guilty of the crime of looting, punishable by imprisonment in a county jail for one year or in the state prison. Every person who commits the crime of grand theft of a firearm, as defined in Section 487, during and within an affected county in a "state of emergency" or a "local emergency" resulting from an earthquake, fire, flood, riot, or other natural or unnatural disaster shall be guilty of the crime of looting, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, as set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 489. Any person convicted under this subdivision who is eligible for probation and who is granted probation shall, as a condition thereof, be confined in a county jail for at least 180 days, except that the court may, in the case where the interest of justice would best be served, reduce or eliminate that mandatory jail sentence, if the court specifies on the record and enters into the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interest of justice would best be served by that disposition. In addition to whatever custody is ordered, the court, in its discretion, may require any person granted probation following conviction under this subdivision to serve up to 160 hours of community service in any program deemed appropriate by the court, including any program created to rebuild the community.

(c) Every person who commits the crime of petty theft, as defined in Section 488, during and within an affected county in a "state of emergency" or a "local emergency" resulting from an earthquake, fire, flood, riot, or other natural or manmade disaster shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in a county jail for six months. Any person convicted under this subdivision who is eligible for probation and who is granted probation shall, as a condition thereof, be confined in a county jail for at least 90 days, except that the court may, in the case where the interest of justice would best be served, reduce or eliminate that mandatory minimum jail sentence, if the court specifies on the record and enters into the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interest of justice would best be served by that disposition. In addition to whatever custody is ordered, the court, in its discretion, may require any person granted probation following conviction under this subdivision to serve up to 80 hours of community service in any program deemed appropriate by the court, including any program created to rebuild the community.

(d) (1) For purposes of this section, "state of emergency" means conditions which, by reason of their magnitude, are, or are likely to be, beyond the control of the services, personnel, equipment, and facilities of any single county, city and county, or city and require the combined forces of a mutual aid region or regions to combat.

(2) For purposes of this section, "local emergency" means conditions which, by reason of their magnitude, are, or are likely to be, beyond the control of the services, personnel, equipment, and facilities of any single county, city and county, or city and require the combined forces of a mutual aid region or regions to combat.

(3) For purposes of this section, a "state of emergency" shall exist from the time of the proclamation of the condition of the emergency until terminated pursuant to Section 8629 of the Government Code. For purposes of this section only, a "local emergency" shall exist from the time of the proclamation of the condition of the emergency by the local governing body until terminated pursuant to Section 8630 of the Government Code.

(4) Consensual entry into a commercial structure with the intent to commit a violation of Section 470, 476, 476a, 484f, or 484g of the Penal Code, shall not be charged as a violation under this section.

CHAPTER 291

An act to add Chapter 36 (commencing with Section 24950) to Part 13 of, and to repeal Sections 22331, 22332, 22333, and 22957 of, the Education Code, relating to teachers' retirement.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22331 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 22332 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 22333 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 22957 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Chapter 36 (commencing with Section 24950) is added to Part 13 of the Education Code, to read:

CHAPTER 36. ANNUITY CONTRACT AND CUSTODIAL ACCOUNTS

24950. An annuity contract and custodial account as described in Section 403(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 shall be offered to all employees of any state agency who are members of the system or any employee of a local public agency or political subdivision of this state that employs persons in positions requiring or allowing membership in the system. The following criteria shall apply to that annuity contract and custodial account:

(a) The annuity contract and custodial account shall be offered for not less than five years.

(b) The annuity contract and custodial account may be administered by a qualified third-party administrator that shall, under agreement with the system, provide custodial, investment, recordkeeping, or administrative services, or any combination thereof. The third-party administrator shall not provide investment options.

(c) The investment options offered shall be determined by the board consistent with those annuity contract and custodial accounts described in Section 403(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

(d) The system's investment staff shall make recommendations to the board as to the appropriate investment options. At a minimum, the board shall offer at least three investment options. The board shall have sole responsibility for the selection of service providers.

(e) All contributions made by participants shall be remitted directly to the administrator and held by the administrator under custody. Any investment gains or losses shall be credited to participant accounts. The forms of payment and disbursement procedure shall be consistent with those generally offered by similar annuity contracts and custodial accounts and applicable federal and state statutes governing those contracts and accounts.

(f) Any employer, other than the state, may elect to make contributions to the employee's annuity contract and custodial account on behalf of the employee. The employer shall take whatever action is necessary to implement this section, including the adoption of an annuity contract and custodial account, or provide the appropriate authorization in accordance with the provision of Section 403(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. Contributions made by an employer under this section are excluded from the definition of "compensation" and "salary" as provided in Section 22114.

(g) The design and administration of the annuity contract and custodial account shall comply with the applicable provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and the Revenue and Taxation Code. Section 770.3 of the Insurance Code shall not be applicable.

24951. If the rate of participation in the annuity contract and custodial account is less than 2 percent of the system's active membership upon the completion of the initial five years of administration, the board may elect to terminate the offering of the annuity contract and custodial account as described in Section 403(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. The board shall provide two years' notice to the annuity contract and custodial account participants of its intention to terminate.

24952. (a) Any annuity contract and custodial account advertised, promoted, or offered through one or more third-party service providers, shall provide for recovery of all costs and expenses of its own administration, including, but not limited to, advertising, promotion, legal, accounting, recordkeeping, and investment costs and expenses.

(b) Any annuity contract and custodial account administered by the system shall provide for the recovery of all costs and expenses of its administration.

(c) The system may promote and advertise an annuity contract and custodial account administered directly by the system or by a third-party administrator.

CHAPTER 292

An act to amend Section 76219 of the Government Code, relating to courts.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 76219 of the Government Code is amended to read:

76219. (a) The Courthouse Construction Fund established in Los Angeles County pursuant to Section 76100 shall be known as the Robbins Courthouse Construction Fund.

(b) All courtroom construction in the County of Los Angeles which utilizes moneys from the Robbins Courthouse Construction Fund or moneys borrowed and owed against the Robbins Courthouse Construction Fund shall be within the boundaries of the San Fernando Valley Statistical Area and the Los Cerritos Municipal Court District, until the time that the County of Los Angeles has spent a total of at least forty-three million dollars ($43,000,000) on courthouse construction within the San Fernando Valley Statistical Area and at least eight million dollars ($8,000,000) within the Los Cerritos Municipal Court District for the Bellflower Courthouse.

(c) All courtroom construction in the County of Los Angeles which utilizes moneys from the Robbins Courthouse Construction Fund or moneys borrowed against the Robbins Courthouse Construction Fund shall be within the boundaries of the San Fernando Valley Statistical Area, within the boundaries of the Los Cerritos Municipal Court District, within the boundaries of the East

Los Angeles Municipal Court District, within the Downey Municipal Court District, within the community of Hollywood, or within the West Los Angeles Branch of the Los Angeles Municipal Court District, until the time that the County of Los Angeles has fulfilled the requirements of subdivision (b) and has additionally spent at least sixteen million five hundred thousand dollars ($16,500,000) on courthouse construction within the East Los Angeles Municipal Court District, has spent at least ten million dollars ($10,000,000) on courthouse construction within the Downey Municipal Court District, has commenced construction on a courthouse with at least six courtrooms in the West San Fernando Valley, has commenced construction on a courthouse with at least two courtrooms in the community of Hollywood, and has commenced construction on a courthouse for the West Los Angeles Branch of the Los Angeles Municipal Court District.

(d) All courtroom construction in the County of Los Angeles which utilizes moneys from the Robbins Courthouse Construction Fund or moneys borrowed against the Robbins Courthouse Construction Fund shall be within the boundaries of the San Fernando Valley Statistical Area, within the boundaries of the Los Cerritos Municipal Court District, within the boundaries of the East Los Angeles Municipal Court District, within the Downey Municipal Court District, within the community of Hollywood, within the West Los Angeles Branch of the Los Angeles Municipal Court District, within the Pasadena Judicial District, within the Southeast Municipal Court District, within the South Bay Judicial District, within the Santa Monica Judicial District, within the Antelope Valley Judicial District, or within the Long Beach Judicial District until the time that the County of Los Angeles has fulfilled the requirements of subdivisions (b) and (c), and has commenced construction of new facilities or the expansion of existing facilities for the municipal courts in the Pasadena Judicial District, the north and south branches of the Southeast Municipal Court District, and the South Bay Judicial District, has commenced construction on a courthouse for the superior court with at least 18 courtrooms in the North Hollywood Redevelopment Project Area of the City of Los Angeles or immediately adjacent thereto, and has commenced construction of new facilities for the superior and municipal courts in the Santa Monica Judicial District, the Antelope Valley Judicial District, and the Long Beach Judicial District.

(e) For purposes of this section, the San Fernando Valley Statistical Area includes all land within the San Fernando Valley Statistical Area (as defined in subdivision (e) of Section 11093) as well as the City of San Fernando, the City of Hidden Hills, and the unincorporated areas of Los Angeles County located west of the City of Los Angeles, east and south of the Ventura County line, and north of a line extended westerly from the southern boundary of the San Fernando Valley Statistical Area (as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 11093).

(f) The moneys of the Robbins Courthouse Construction Fund together with any interest earned thereon shall be payable only for courtroom construction and land acquisition as authorized in subdivision (b) and, after the requirement of subdivision (b) has been met, shall be payable only for courtroom construction and land acquisition as authorized in subdivision (c) and, after the requirements of subdivisions (b) and (c) have been met, shall be payable only for courtroom construction and land acquisition as authorized in subdivision (d).

(g) Deposits to the fund shall continue through and including either (1) the 25th year after the initial calendar year in which the surcharge is collected or (2) whatever period of time is necessary to repay any borrowings made by the county to pay for construction provided for in this section, whichever time is longer.

(h) The resolution adopted by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Los Angeles on September 2, 1980, stating that the provisions of Chapter 578 of the Statutes of 1980 are necessary to the establishment of adequate courtroom facilities in the County of Los Angeles shall be deemed a resolution stating that the provisions of this section are necessary to the establishment of adequate courtroom facilities in the county, and shall satisfy the requirements of this section.

SEC. 2. Nothing in this act shall be construed to, in any way, modify the Community Redevelopment Law (Part 1 (commencing with Section 33000) of Division 24 of the Health and Safety Code). Nothing in this act shall be construed to either express legislative intent relative to inclusion of the courthouse in the North Hollywood Redevelopment Plan or in any way provide authority to the Los Angeles Redevelopment Agency to assist in the construction of the North Hollywood Courthouse.

CHAPTER 293

An act to add Section 6516.6 to, and to add Chapter 6.6 (commencing with Section 54773) to Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of, the Government Code, and to amend Sections 4703, 4703.2, and 4705 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to local agency bonds, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6516.6 is added to the Government Code, to read:

6516.6. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a joint powers agency established pursuant to a joint powers agreement in accordance with this chapter may issue bonds pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 6540) of this chapter or Article 4 (commencing with Section 6584) of this chapter, in order to purchase obligations of local agencies or make loans to local agencies, which moneys the local agencies are hereby authorized to borrow, to finance the local agencies' unfunded actuarial pension liability or to purchase, or to make loans to finance the purchase of, delinquent assessments or taxes levied on the secured roll by the local agencies, the county, or any other political subdivision of the state. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, including Section 53854, the local agency obligations or loans, if any, shall be repaid in the time, manner and amounts, with interest, security, and other terms as agreed to by the local agency and the joint powers authority.

SEC. 2. Chapter 6.6 (commencing with Section 54773) is added to Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, to read:

CHAPTER 6.6. BONDS

54773. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Teeter Plan Bond Law of 1994.

54773.1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) There is a need within the state to finance the alternative method of distribution of tax levies and collections of tax sale proceeds authorized pursuant to Sections 4701 to 4717, inclusive, of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(b) That it is the intent of the Legislature to assist local agencies in obtaining sources of financing for these purposes.

54774. The definitions in this section shall govern the construction and interpretation of this chapter:

(a) "Bond purchase agreement" means a contractual agreement executed between the county and one or more investment bankers that underwrite the bonds.

(b) "Bonds" means evidences of indebtedness, including, but not limited to, bonds, notes, commercial paper, floating rate and variable maturity securities, and certificates of participation.

(c) "County" means any county or city and county of this state which has adopted an alternative method of distribution of tax levies and collections of tax sale proceeds authorized pursuant to Sections 4701 to 4717, inclusive, of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(d) "Indenture" means any indenture, trust agreement, or similar document entered into by the county and a trustee or other fiduciary with respect to the bonds.

(e) "Tax revenues" means all current or delinquent taxes (and, if a county has made an election under Section 4702.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, assessments), redemption amounts, and delinquent penalties for which the county has advanced funds pursuant to Sections 4701 to 4717, inclusive, of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

54777. (a) The bonds may be issued as serial bonds or as term bonds, in one or more series. The bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the county approved by a majority vote of its board of supervisors, and shall, as provided by the resolution or by the terms of an indenture pursuant to which the bonds are issued, bear the date of issuance; the date of maturity not exceeding seven years from their date of issuance; the rate of interest, either fixed or variable, and if variable, not in excess of the maximum rate of interest specified therein; be in the form provided; be in registered form; be payable in lawful money of the United States at the place or places provided within or without the State of California; and be subject to the terms of redemption provided.

(b) The bonds shall be sold by the county at the time and in the manner set out in the county's resolution. The sale may be a public or private sale, and for the price or prices, and on terms and conditions, as the county determines proper. Pending preparation of the definitive bonds, the county may issue interim receipts, certificates, or temporary bonds that shall be exchanged for definitive bonds.

(c) The bonds shall be repaid from tax revenues and any other legally available funds of the county.

54778. Any resolution authorizing any bond or any issue of bonds may contain the following provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds to be authorized.

(a) Provisions pledging the tax revenues and any other legally available funds of the county to secure the payment of the bonds.

(b) Provisions setting aside reserves or sinking funds, and the regulation and disposition thereof.

(c) Limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds of any issue of bonds may be applied, and pledging the proceeds to secure the payment of the bonds.

(d) Limitations on the issuance of additional bonds, the terms on which additional bonds may be issued and secured, and the refunding of outstanding bonds.

(e) The procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds and the holders thereof that are required to give consent thereto, and the manner in which the consent may be given.

(f) Definitions of acts or omissions to act that constitute a default in the duties of the county to holders of its obligations, and providing the rights and remedies of the holders in the event of a default.

54779. The county may, out of any funds available therefor, purchase its bonds. The county may hold, pledge, cancel, or resell the bonds, subject to, and in accordance with, agreements with bondholders.

54780. Any bonds issued under this chapter may be secured by an indenture between the county and a corporate trustee or trustees, which may include any trust company or bank having the power of a trust company within or without the State of California.

(a) The indenture or the resolution providing for the issuance of the bonds may pledge or assign the tax revenues to be received. The indenture or resolution providing for the issuance of the bonds may contain provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including provisions specifically authorized to be included in any resolution or resolutions of the county authorizing bonds.

(b) Any bank or trust company doing business under the laws of the State of California, which may act as a depository of the proceeds of bonds or of tax revenues or other moneys, shall furnish indemnifying bonds or pledge securities when required by the county.

(c) The indenture may set forth the rights and remedies of the bondholders and of the trustee or trustees, and may restrict the individual right of action of bondholders. In addition, any indenture or resolution may contain other provisions the county determines to be reasonable and proper for the security of the bondholders.

54781. (a) The county may issue bonds for the purpose of refunding any bonds then outstanding, including the payment of any redemption premium thereon and any interest accrued, or to accrue, on their earliest or any subsequent date of redemption, purchase or maturity of these bonds. The limitations of Section 54776, as to the aggregate principal amount of bonds that may be issued in any fiscal year, shall not apply to bonds issued under this section.

(b) The proceeds of any bonds issued for the purpose of refunding outstanding bonds may be applied to the purchase or retirement at maturity or redemption of those outstanding bonds either on their earlier or any subsequent redemption date or upon the purchase or retirement at the maturity thereof and may, pending this application, be placed in escrow to be applied to the purchase or retirement at maturity or redemption of those outstanding bonds on the date as may be determined by the county.

(c) Pending the foregoing use, the escrowed proceeds may be invested and reinvested in obligations of, or guaranteed by, the United States, or in certificates of deposit or time deposits secured by obligations of, or guaranteed by, the United States, maturing at the time or times appropriate to assure prompt payment of the principal, interest, and redemption premium, if any, of the outstanding bonds to be refunded. The interest, income and profits, if any, earned or realized on the investment may also be applied to the payment of the outstanding bonds to be refunded. After the terms of the escrow have been fully satisfied and carried out, any balance of the proceeds and interest, income and profits, if any, earned or realized on the investments thereof, shall be returned to the county.

54782. Bonds issued by the county are legal investments for all trust funds, the funds of all insurance companies, banks, both commercial and savings, trust companies, executors, administrators, trustees and other fiduciaries, for state school funds and for any funds which may be invested in county, municipal or school district bonds. The bonds are securities that may legally be deposited with, and received by, any state or municipal officer or agency or political subdivision of the state for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or obligations of the state is now, or may hereafter be, authorized by law, including deposits to secure public funds.

54783. Interest earned on any bond issued by the county shall at all times be free from state personal income tax and corporate income tax.

SEC. 3. Section 4703 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

4703. In each county that elects to adopt the procedure authorized by this chapter there is hereby created a tax losses reserve fund.

(a) The tax losses reserve fund shall be used exclusively, as hereinafter provided, to cover losses that may occur in the amount of tax liens as a result of special sales of tax-defaulted property. Whenever in any year the amount of the tax losses reserve fund has reached an amount equivalent to 3 percent of the total of all taxes and assessments levied on the secured roll for that year, the amounts hereinafter authorized to be credited to that fund may, for the remainder of that year, be credited to the county general fund.

(b) The auditor and treasurer shall keep apportioned tax resources accounts in such a manner that the balance of amounts apportioned to funds on an accrual basis shall be known by both officers. In addition, the auditor shall keep secured taxes receivable accounts in such a manner as to establish accountability for the amounts receivable on the secured tax rolls. Secured tax rolls, as used in this chapter, include delinquent rolls prescribed by Section 2627.

SEC. 4. Section 4703.2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

4703.2. (a) In any county electing to follow the procedure authorized by this chapter, the board of supervisors may, by September 1 of any fiscal year, on the recommendation of the county auditor, adopt a resolution electing to be governed by this section rather than the provisions of Section 4703. Upon adoption, a copy of this resolution shall be filed with the county auditor, the county treasurer, and the county tax collector. This election shall remain in effect each fiscal year unless the board of supervisors adopts another resolution by September 1 of a fiscal year electing to be governed instead by Section 4703. For the 1993–94 fiscal year only, the election to be governed by this section rather than Section 4703 may be made no later than January 15, 1994.

(b) In each county that elects to adopt the procedure authorized by this chapter and elects to be governed by this section rather than Section 4703 there shall be created a tax losses reserve fund.

(c) The tax losses reserve fund shall be used exclusively, as hereinafter provided, to cover losses that may occur in the amount of tax liens as a result of special sales of tax-defaulted property. In a county electing to be subject to this section rather than Section 4703, the tax losses reserve fund shall be maintained at not less than 50 percent of the total delinquent secured taxes and assessments as calculated at the end of the fiscal year. At the end of the fiscal year, amounts in the tax losses reserve fund that are in excess of 50 percent of the total delinquent secured taxes and assessments may be credited to the county general fund.

(d) The auditor and treasurer shall keep apportioned tax resources accounts in such a manner that the balance of amounts apportioned to funds on an accrual basis shall be known by both officers. In addition, the auditor shall keep secured taxes receivable accounts in such a manner as to establish accountability for the amounts receivable on the secured tax rolls. Secured tax rolls as used in this chapter include delinquent rolls prescribed by Section 2627.

SEC. 5. Section 4705 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

4705. (a) Upon completion of the tax roll as prescribed by Section 2152, the county auditor shall determine the total amount of taxes actually extended thereon for each fund for which a tax levy has been included. The amount so determined for each fund shall forthwith be apportioned to the credit of those funds on the accounts of the county auditor and county treasurer and the total thereof shall be entered on the apportioned tax resources accounts of both officers.

(b) Assessments entered on the secured tax roll shall be apportioned in the same manner if the board of supervisors has extended these procedures to assessments under Section 4702.5.

(c) Upon completion of the tax roll the auditor shall record the total amount due on the secured taxes receivable accounts.

(d) The board of supervisors shall provide which moneys in the county treasury, including but not limited to those credited to the tax losses reserve, shall be available to be drawn on to the extent of the amount of uncollected taxes credited to each fund for which a tax levy has been included, and those moneys may thereafter be drawn against in an amount not to exceed the amount of uncollected taxes credited to each fund for which a tax levy has been included in the same manner as if the amount credited had been collected. To the extent that moneys are so expended for a fund in advance of receipt of tax revenue therefor, the tax revenue may not be expended upon receipt. Moneys in the amount credited to the tax losses reserve, as well as tax revenues actually received for funds to the extent moneys have been expended therefor in advance of receipt, shall be available in the county treasury for payment for the same purposes and in the same amounts as the money advance was available prior to being advanced; provided however, that if the moneys so advanced were derived from the proceeds of the sale of bonds, including notes, certificates of participation, or other instruments evidencing indebtedness, authorized pursuant to subdivision (e) or otherwise permitted by law, or the investment of those amounts, then tax revenues actually received, including delinquent penalties, shall be used for the repayment of the bonds or the replenishment of any reserve fund for these bonds, or both.

(e) Any county that has elected to adopt the procedure authorized by this chapter is hereby authorized, in addition to any other financing permitted by law, to fund the procedure by the issuance of bonds payable from any delinquent taxes, assessments, and delinquent penalties in accordance with Chapter 6.6 (commencing with Section 54773) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code. Once the procedure authorized by this chapter is adopted, the obligation of the county to fund the procedure is an obligation imposed by law.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that joint powers authorities may be authorized to issue bonds to purchase obligations of local agencies, or make loans to local agencies, to finance the local agencies' unfunded actuarial pension liability, or to purchase, or make loans to finance the purchase of, delinquent assessments or taxes levied on the secured roll by the local agencies, the county or any other political subdivision of the state at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 294

An act to amend Section 1012.3 of the Military and Veterans Code, relating to veterans' institutions.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1012.3 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

1012.3. Members of the home shall pay fees and charges as determined by the department, except that the total of the individual member's fees and charges for any fiscal year shall not be greater than as set forth in the following schedule:

(a) Fifty-five percent of the member's annual income, or one thousand two hundred dollars ($1,200) per month, for residential care, whichever is less.

(b) Sixty-five percent of the member's annual income, or two thousand three hundred dollars ($2,300) per month, for intermediate care, whichever is less.

(c) Seventy percent of the member's annual income, or two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) per month, for skilled nursing care, whichever is less.

CHAPTER 295

An act to amend Sections 888.2 and 940 of the Penal Code, relating to grand juries.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 888.2 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

888.2. As used in this title as applied to a grand jury, "required number" means:

(a) Twenty-three in a county having a population exceeding 4,000,000.

(b) Eleven in a county having a population of 20,000 or less, upon the approval of the board of supervisors.

(c) Nineteen in all other counties.

SEC. 2. Section 940 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

940. An indictment cannot be found without concurrence of at least 14 grand jurors in a county in which the required number of members of the grand jury prescribed by Section 888.2 is 23, at least eight grand jurors in a county in which the required number of members is 11, and at least 12 grand jurors in all other counties. When so found it shall be endorsed, "A true bill," and the endorsement shall be signed by the foreman of the grand jury.

CHAPTER 296

An act to amend Sections 25299.51 and 25299.57 of, to add Article 10 (commencing with Section 25299.82) to Chapter 6.75 of Division 20 of, and to repeal Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 25299.82) of Chapter 6.75 of Division 20 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to underground storage tanks, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25299.51 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25299.51. The board may expend the money in the fund for all the following purposes:

(a) In addition to the purposes specified in subdivisions (c), (d), and (e), for expenditure by the board for the costs of implementing this chapter, which shall include costs incurred by the board pursuant to Article 10 (commencing with Section 25299.82).

(b) To pay for the administrative costs of the State Board of Equalization in collecting the fee imposed by Article 5 (commencing with Section 25299.40).

(c) To pay for the reasonable and necessary costs of the regional board or local agency for corrective action pursuant to Section 25299.36, up to one million dollars ($1,000,000) per occurrence. The Legislature may appropriate the money in the fund for expenditure by the board, without regard to fiscal year, for prompt action in response to any unauthorized release.

(d) To pay for the costs of an agreement for the abatement of, and oversight of the abatement of, an unauthorized release of hazardous substances from underground storage tanks, by a local agency, as authorized by Section 25297.1 or by any other provision of law, except that, for the purpose of expenditure of these funds, only underground storage tanks, as defined in Section 25299.24, shall be the subject of the agreement.

(e) To pay for the costs of cleanup and oversight of unauthorized releases at abandoned tank sites. The board shall not expend more than 25 percent of the total amount of money collected and deposited in the fund annually for the purposes of this subdivision and subdivision (h).

(f) To pay claims pursuant to Section 25299.57.

(g) To pay, upon order of the Controller, for refunds pursuant to Part 26 (commencing with Section 50101) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(h) To pay for the reasonable and necessary costs of the regional board or the local agency for corrective action pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 25299.3.

(i) To pay claims pursuant to Section 25299.58.

SEC. 2. Section 25299.57 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25299.57. (a) If the board makes the determination specified in subdivision (d), the board may only pay for the costs of corrective actions which exceed the level of financial responsibility required to be obtained pursuant to Section 25299.32, but not more than nine hundred ninety thousand dollars ($990,000) for each occurrence. In the case of an owner or operator who, as of January 1, 1988, was required to perform corrective action, who initiated that corrective action in accordance with Division 7 (commencing with Section 13000) of the Water Code or Chapter 6.7 (commencing with Section 25280), and who is undertaking the corrective action in compliance with waste discharge requirements or other orders issued pursuant to Division 7 (commencing with Section 13000) of the Water Code or Chapter 6.7 (commencing with Section 25280), the owner or operator may apply to the board for satisfaction of a claim filed pursuant to this article.

(b) For claims eligible for reimbursement pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 25299.55, the claimant shall submit the actual cost of corrective action to the board, which shall either approve or disapprove the costs incurred as reasonable and necessary.

(c) For claims eligible for prepayment pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 25299.55, the claimant shall submit the estimated cost of the corrective action to the board, which shall approve or disapprove the reasonableness of the cost estimate.

(d) A claim specified in subdivision (a) may be paid if the board makes all of the following findings:

(1) There has been an unauthorized release of petroleum into the environment from an underground storage tank.

(2) The claimant is required to undertake or contract for corrective action pursuant to Section 25299.37, or, as of January 1, 1988, the claimant has initiated corrective action in accordance with Division 7 (commencing with Section 13000) of the Water Code.

(3) (A) Except as provided in subparagraph (B), the claimant has complied with Section 25299.31 and the permit requirements of Chapter 6.7 (commencing with Section 25280).

(B) All claimants who file their claim on or after January 1, 1994, and all claimants who filed their claim prior to that date but are not eligible for a waiver of the permit requirement pursuant to board regulations in effect on the date of the filing of the claim, and who did not obtain or apply for any permit required by subdivision (a) of Section 25284 by January 1, 1990, shall be subject to subparagraph (A) regardless of the reason or reasons that the permit was not obtained or applied for. However, on and after January 1, 1994, the board may waive the provisions of subparagraph (A) as a condition for payment from the fund if the board finds all of the following:

(i) The claimant was unaware of the permit requirement prior to January 1, 1990, and there was no intent to intentionally avoid the permit requirement or the fees associated with the permit.

(ii) Prior to submittal of the claim application, the claimant has complied with Section 25299.31 and has obtained and paid for all permits currently required by this paragraph.

(iii) Prior to submittal of the claim application, the claimant has paid all current underground storage tank fees imposed pursuant to Section 25299.41 and all prior fees due on and after January 1, 1991.

(C) (i) A claimant who is exempted pursuant to subparagraph (B) shall obtain a level of financial responsibility pursuant to Section 25299.32 of at least twenty thousand dollars ($20,000).

(ii) The board may waive the requirements of clause (i) if the claimant can demonstrate that the conditions specified in clauses (i) to (iii), inclusive, of subparagraph (B) were satisfied prior to the causing of any contamination. That demonstration may be made through a certification issued by the permitting agency based on site and tank tests at the time of permit application or in any other manner that is acceptable to the board.

(D) The board shall rank all claims resubmitted pursuant to subparagraph (B) lower than all claims filed before January 1, 1994, within their respective priority classes specified in subdivision (b) of Section 25299.52.

(4) The board has approved either the costs incurred for the corrective action pursuant to subdivision (b) or the estimated costs for corrective action pursuant to subdivision (c).

(e) The board shall provide the claimant, whose cost estimate has been approved, a letter of credit authorizing payment of the costs from the fund.

(f) The claimant may submit a claim for partial payment to cover the costs of corrective action performed in stages, as approved by the board.

(g) (1) Any claimant who submits a claim for payment to the board shall submit multiple bids for prospective costs as prescribed in regulations adopted by the board pursuant to Section 25299.77.

(2) Paragraph (1) does not apply to a tank owned or operated by a public agency if the prospective costs are for private professional services within the meaning of Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 4525) of Division 5 of Title 1 of the Government Code and those services are procured in accordance with the requirements of that chapter.

SEC. 3. Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 25299.82) of Chapter 6.75 of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Article 10 (commencing with Section 25299.82) is added to Chapter 6.75 of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 10. Blythe Environmental Remediation Demonstration Project

25299.82. The Legislature hereby finds and declares all of the following:

(b) The magnitude of contamination within such a confined geographic area makes it difficult for the local agency, the regional board, and responsible parties to identify the sources of contamination and to avoid further contamination once a particular site is cleaned up.

(c) An integrated effort to take corrective action will enable cleanup actions to proceed efficiently, quickly, and at less cost than would be the case if cleanup were to be conducted by individual actions.

(d) It is in the best interests of the residents of the City of Blythe and the people of this state, and of significant statewide benefit, for the board, in conjunction with the regional boards and local agencies, to establish cleanup procedures for groundwater plumes contaminated with petroleum that is commingled from several responsible parties to ensure the adequate protection of groundwater and efficient use of the fund.

25299.83. In carrying out its duties pursuant to this chapter, the board shall address the issue of groundwater plumes that are contaminated with petroleum that is commingled from several responsible parties, and shall take any action that is reasonably necessary to address that issue. Those actions shall include, but are not limited to, all of the following:

(a) Not later than January 1, 1996, the board shall, if it determines that regulations are necessary, develop proposed regulations that, if adopted, will govern all of the following:

(1) Cleanup and plume management procedures applicable when unauthorized releases from multiple responsible parties have resulted in commingled contamination of groundwater plumes.

(2) Handling of claims filed against the fund pursuant to this chapter involving multiple claimants when the unauthorized releases have resulted in commingled contamination of groundwater plumes, including claims payments made pursuant to cooperative remediation efforts by responsible parties.

(b) Include in the annual report required by Section 25299.81, which is due on or before September 30, 1995, the board's conclusions concerning the board's authority to adopt the regulations that may be developed pursuant to subdivision (a). If the board determines that it does not have sufficient authority, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 11349 of the Government Code, to adopt the regulations, the board shall recommend legislation which the board believes is needed to adopt regulations that address the matters set forth in paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (a).

(c) In conjunction with the City of Blythe and the local agency, establish the Blythe Environmental Remediation Demonstration Project to identify the locations of unauthorized releases which have occurred within the City of Blythe, provide estimates regarding the amount of funding and potential funding mechanisms that would be needed to remediate those releases, and recommend the nature and extent of corrective action and plume management that may be necessary to take pursuant to Section 25299.37.

(d) The board shall enter into a contract with the City of Blythe for the purpose of establishing the demonstration project pursuant to subdivision (c).

(e) Not later than May 1, 1995, report to the Legislature on the status of the demonstration project.

SEC. 5. The sum of one hundred sixty thousand dollars ($160,000) is hereby appropriated from the Underground Storage Tank Cleanup Fund to the State Water Resources Control Board for the purposes specified in Section 25299.83 of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the California Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to enable the City of Blythe and the state to establish an environmental remediation demonstration project within the City of Blythe to ensure adequate protection of groundwater at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 297

An act to amend Sections 11715 and 11716.01 of the Insurance Code, relating to workers' compensation insurance.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that the federal government has encouraged all state and local governments to issue their tax-exempt debt in "book entry" form. The State of California now issues all of its bonds in "book entry" form. Most municipalities in California now issue their bonds in "book entry" form. These bonds finance needed infrastructure improvements in California. Therefore, it is in the best interest of the state that workers' compensation insurers be permitted to purchase and invest in these securities.

SEC. 2. Section 11715 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11715. (a) Any workers' compensation insurer may, in lieu of and for the same purpose as the bond required by Section 11690, and upon payment of the fee prescribed in this article, deposit cash instruments, approved letters of credit, or approved interest-bearing securities or approved stocks readily convertible into cash, investment certificates or share accounts issued by a savings and loan association doing business in this state and insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, certificates of deposit or savings deposits in a bank licensed to do business in this state, or approved securities registered with a qualified depository located in a reciprocal state as defined in Section 1104.9. The deposit shall be made from time to time as demanded by the commissioner and may be made with the Treasurer, or a bank or savings and loan association authorized to engage in the trust business pursuant to Division 1 (commencing with Section 99) or Division 2 (commencing with Section 5000) of the Financial Code, or a trust company. A deposit of securities registered with a qualified depository located in a reciprocal state as defined in Section 1104.9 may only be made in a bank licensed to do business and located in this state that is a qualified custodian as defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 1104.9 and that maintains deposits of at least seven hundred fifty million dollars ($750,000,000). The deposit shall be made subject to the approval of the commissioner under those rules and regulations that he or she shall promulgate. The deposit shall be maintained at a deposit value of not less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), nor less than the reserves required of the insurer to be maintained under any of the provisions of Article 1 (commencing with Section 11550) of Chapter 1 of Part 3 of Division 2, relating to loss reserves on workers' compensation business of the insurer in this state, nor less than the sum of the amounts specified in subdivision (a) of Section 11699.

(b) Any workers' compensation insurer electing to bring itself within the provisions of subdivision (a) by submitting securities, stock, investment certificates, or share deposits registered in a depositor's name, shall execute a trust agreement in a form approved by the commissioner between the insurer, the institution in which the deposit is made or, where applicable, the qualified custodian of the deposit, and the commissioner, that grants to the commissioner the authority to withdraw the deposit as set forth in Section 11716. The insurer shall also execute and deliver in duplicate to the commissioner a power of attorney in favor of the commissioner for the purposes specified in Section 11690, supported by a resolution of the depositor's board of directors. The power of attorney and director's resolution shall be on forms approved by the commissioner, shall provide that the power of attorney cannot be revoked or withdrawn without the consent of the commissioner, and shall be acknowledged as required by law.

(c) The commissioner shall require payment of one hundred seventy-seven dollars ($177) in advance as a fee for the initial filing and the first semiannual review of each letter of credit specified in subdivision (a). In addition, each workers' compensation insurer depositing a letter of credit shall pay an annual fee of one hundred eighteen dollars ($118) in advance on account of the letter until its expiration or revocation. This fee shall be for annual periods commencing each January 1 and shall be due and payable on the following April 1.

(d) The commissioner shall require payment of one hundred eighteen dollars ($118) in advance as a fee for the initial filing of a trust agreement with a bank, savings and loan association, or trust company on deposits made pursuant to subdivision (a). An additional fee of one hundred eighteen dollars ($118) shall be payable for each amendment, supplement, or other change to the deposit agreement. In addition, the commissioner shall require the payment of fifty-eight dollars ($58) in advance for receiving and processing deposit schedules pursuant to this section. An additional fee of twenty-nine dollars ($29) shall be payable for each withdrawal, substitution, or any other change in the deposit.

SEC. 3. Section 11716.01 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11716.01. (a) If the commissioner has been named conservator or liquidator of that insurer pursuant to Article 14 (commencing with Section 1010) of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 1 and has determined that the insurer shall not continue to carry on its business as a workers' compensation insurer, or, if it appears to the commissioner that any of the conditions set forth in Section 1011 exist or that irreparable loss and injury to the property and business of a workers' compensation insurer has occurred or may occur unless the commissioner acts immediately without notice and before applying to the court for any order, the commissioner shall use the obligations of the surety on the bond and the proceeds of the deposit to pay or procure the payment of such obligations as set forth in this article. The obligations of the bond and the proceeds of the deposit shall in such event inure to the commissioner as a trust to be held separate and apart from all other assets of the insurer held by the commissioner. They shall be used only for the purposes set forth and in accordance with the procedures established in this article and shall only be subject to the orders of the court in which the conservation or liquidation proceedings are pending to the extent provided in this article.

securities registered with a qualified depository has been executed upon at any time by any creditor of an insurer and that execution has been affirmed by a written opinion of a court of competent federal appellate jurisdiction, the commissioner may, after a public hearing and upon a finding that deposits of securities registered with that depository do not allow the commissioner to discharge his or her responsibilities as set forth in this chapter, require workers' compensation insurers authorized to transact insurance in this state to cease and desist making any further deposits authorized by Section 11715 in approved securities registered with that depository.

An act to add Section 8565.6 to the Business and Professions Code, to amend Sections 12203 and 14153 of, and to add Article 16 (commencing with Section 29320) to Chapter 1 of Division 13 of, the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to bees.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8565.6 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

8565.6. An applicant for a Branch 2 license may elect to be certified in the handling, control, and techniques of removal of Africanized honey bees. The board shall develop a program to certify applicants in this specialty, or may approve a program for certification developed by the Pest Control Operators of California.

SEC. 2. Section 12203 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

12203. (a) Applicants shall be examined on the requirements of laws and regulations concerning pesticide use and shall elect to be examined for licensing in one or more of the following categories:

(1) Residential, industrial, and institutional pest control.
(2) Landscape maintenance pest control.
(3) Right-of-way pest control.
(4) Agricultural pest control.
(5) Forest pest control.
(6) Aquatic pest control.
(7) Regulatory pest control.
(8) Seed treatment.
(9) Agricultural pest control-animal.
(10) Demonstration and research.
(11) Health-related pest control.

(b) In addition to being licensed in one or more of the categories in subdivision (a), an applicant for licensing may elect to be trained in the handling, control, and techniques of removal of Africanized honey bees.

(c) The director may develop a training program that covers the handling, control, and techniques of removal of Africanized honey bees or may approve a training program developed by the Pest Control Operators of California or any other equivalent training program, subject to the following requirements:

(1) A certificate of training shall be presented by the training provider to the applicant upon completion of the approved training program.

(2) Providers of approved Africanized honey bee training shall submit to the director a listing of those persons who have completed the training, including, but not limited to, the following information:

(A) The full name of each person who has completed the training.

(B) The license or certificate number of each person who has completed the training, if the person trained is licensed by the Department of Pesticide Regulation.

(3) The providers of approved Africanized honey bee training shall maintain a record for three years of the individuals who have completed the training.

SEC. 3. Section 14153 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

14153. (a) Applicants shall be examined on the requirements of laws and regulations concerning pesticide use and shall elect to be examined for certification in one or more of the following categories:

(1) Residential, industrial, and institutional pest control.

(2) Landscape maintenance pest control.

(3) Right-of-way pest control.

(4) Agricultural pest control.

(5) Forest pest control.

(6) Aquatic pest control.

(7) Regulatory pest control.

(8) Seed treatment.

(9) Agricultural pest control-animal.

(10) Demonstration and research.

(11) Health-related pest control.

(b) In addition to being certified in one or more of the categories in subdivision (a), an applicant may elect to be trained in the handling, control, and techniques of removal of Africanized honey bees.

(c) The director may develop a training program that covers the handling, control, and techniques of removal of Africanized honey bees or may approve a training program developed by the Pest Control Operators of California or any other equivalent training program, subject to the following requirements:

(1) A certificate of training shall be presented by the training provider to the applicant upon completion of the approved training program.

(2) Providers of approved Africanized honey bee training shall submit to the director a listing of those persons who have completed the training, including, but not limited to, the following information:

(A) The full name of each person who has completed the training.

(B) The license or certificate number of each person who has completed the training, if the person trained is licensed by the Department of Pesticide Regulation.

(3) The providers of approved Africanized honey bee training shall maintain a record for three years of the individuals who have completed the training.

SEC. 4. Article 16 (commencing with Section 29320) is added to Chapter 1 of Division 13 of the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

Article 16. Africanized Honey Bees

29320. The secretary, in cooperation with the Regents of the University of California, may approve programs statewide to train, on a voluntary basis, beekeepers in the maintenance of colonies free of Africanized honey bees.

29321. (a) Any hive or comparable apparatus that is not occupied by a live bee colony, and that is accessible to bees, is a public nuisance. The hive or apparatus shall be subject to abatement in the manner provided for in Article 14 (commencing with Section 29200).

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), if the commissioner determines that any bees present in an abandoned hive or comparable apparatus are not aggressive and harbor no diseases, the abandoned hive or comparable apparatus shall not be deemed a public nuisance. In those cases, the commissioner may request that any beekeeper remove the hive or comparable apparatus from the premises. Any beekeeper who complies with the commissioner's request may take permanent possession of the abandoned hive or apparatus.

CHAPTER 299

An act to add Section 33445.3 to the Health and Safety Code, and to add Section 5025 to the Public Resources Code, relating to historical resources.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 33445.3 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

33445.3. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the California City Redevelopment Agency shall not directly support the activities of, or pay for any part of the land or any building, facility, structure, or other improvements that specifically benefit, the California City Museum and Restoration Facility.

SEC. 2. Section 5025 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

5025. (a) The Legislature hereby finds and declares that there is a need for state repositories dedicated to the preservation and restoration of historic artifacts relating to the science, art, and practice of aviation in this state and the nation.

(b) The California City Museum and Restoration Facility is hereby designated a state aviation museum.

(c) The department may extend technical assistance and other nonfinancial support to the California City Museum and Restoration Facility. The California City Museum and Restoration Facility shall reimburse the department for all costs incurred pursuant to this subdivision.

(d) The California City Museum and Restoration Facility may serve as a repository for the purpose of collecting, preserving, restoring, and displaying artifacts and memorabilia of the significant role that the state has played in the development of aviation, and may also store and display national and international memorabilia of the aviation industry and its pioneers and practitioners.

(e) Prior to the acceptance of any aircraft, any aircraft-related artifacts, tools, or supplies, or any other materials for display in the aviation museum, it is the intent of the Legislature that the California City Museum and Restoration Facility execute an agreement with any donor of those materials that provides for the disposition of the materials if the museum closes or otherwise becomes inaccessible to the public.

CHAPTER 300

An act to add Chapter 9.3 (commencing with Section 66030) to Division 1 of Title 7 of the Government Code, relating to land use.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 9.3 (commencing with Section 66030) is added to Division 1 of Title 7 of the Government Code, to read:

CHAPTER 9.3. MEDIATION AND RESOLUTION OF LAND USE DISPUTES

66030. (a) The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(1) Current law provides that aggrieved agencies, project proponents, and affected residents may bring suit against the land use decisions of state and local governmental agencies. In practical terms, nearly anyone can sue once a project has been approved.

(2) Contention often arises over projects involving local general plans and zoning, redevelopment plans, the California Environmental Quality Act (Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code), development impact fees, annexations and incorporations, and the Permit Streamlining Act (Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 65920)).

(3) When a public agency approves a development project that is not in accordance with the law, or when the prerogative to bring suit is abused, lawsuits can delay development, add uncertainty and cost to the development process, make housing more expensive, and damage California's competitiveness. This litigation begins in the superior court, and often progresses on appeal to the Court of Appeal and the Supreme Court, adding to the workload of the state's already overburdened judicial system.

(b) It is, therefore, the intent of the Legislature to help litigants resolve their differences by establishing formal mediation processes for land use disputes. In establishing these mediation processes, it is not the intent of the Legislature to interfere with the ability of litigants to pursue remedies through the courts.

66031. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any action brought in the superior court relating to any of the following subjects may be subject to a mediation proceeding conducted pursuant to this chapter:

(1) The approval or denial by a public agency of any development project.

(2) Any act or decision of a public agency made pursuant to the California Environmental Quality Act (Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code).

(3) The failure of a public agency to meet the time limits specified in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 65920), commonly known as the Permit Streamlining Act, or in the Subdivision Map Act (Division 2 (commencing with Section 66410)).

(4) Fees determined pursuant to Sections 53080 to 53082, inclusive, or Chapter 4.9 (commencing with Section 65995).

(5) Fees determined pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 66000).

(6) The adequacy of a general plan or specific plan adopted pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 65100).

(7) The validity of any sphere of influence, urban service area, change of organization or reorganization, or any other decision made pursuant to the Cortese-Knox Local Government Reorganization Act (Division 3 (commencing with Section 56000) of Title 5).

(8) The adoption or amendment of a redevelopment plan pursuant to the Community Redevelopment Law (Part 1 (commencing with Section 33000) of Division 24 of the Health and Safety Code).

(b) Within five days after the deadline for the respondent or defendant to file its reply to an action, the court may invite the parties to consider resolving their dispute by selecting a mutually acceptable person to serve as a mediator, or an organization or agency to provide a mediator.

(c) In selecting a person to serve as a mediator, or an organization or agency to provide a mediator, the parties shall consider the following:

(1) The council of governments having jurisdiction in the county where the dispute arose.

(2) Any subregional or countywide council of governments in the county where the dispute arose.

(3) The Office of Permit Assistance within the Trade and Commerce Agency, pursuant to its authority in Article 1 (commencing with Section 15399.50) of Chapter 11 of Part 6.7 of Division 3 of Title 2.

(4) Any other person with experience or training in mediation including those with experience in land use issues, or any other organization or agency which can provide a person with experience or training in mediation, including those with experience in land use issues.

(d) If the court invites the parties to consider mediation, the parties shall notify the court within 30 days if they have selected a mutually acceptable person to serve as a mediator. If the parties have not selected a mediator within 30 days, the action shall proceed. The court shall not draw any implication, favorable or otherwise, from the refusal by a party to accept the invitation by the court to consider mediation. Nothing in this section shall preclude the parties from using mediation at any other time while the action is pending.

66032. (a) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, all time limits with respect to an action shall be tolled while the mediator conducts the mediation, pursuant to this chapter.

(b) Mediations conducted by a mediator pursuant to this chapter that involve less than a quorum of a legislative body or a state body shall not be considered meetings of a legislative body pursuant to the Ralph M. Brown Act (Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 54950) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5), nor shall they be considered meetings of a state body pursuant to the Bagley-Keene Open Meeting Act (Article 9 (commencing with Section 11120) of Chapter 1 of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2).

(c) Any action taken regarding mediation conducted pursuant to this chapter shall be taken in accordance with the provisions of current law.

(d) Ninety days after the commencement of the mediation, and every 90 days thereafter, the action shall be reactivated unless the parties to the action do either of the following:

(1) Arrive at a settlement and implement it in accordance with the provisions of current law.

(2) Agree by written stipulation to extend the mediation for an another 90-day period.

(e) A mediator shall not file, and a court shall not consider, any declaration or finding of any kind by the mediator, other than a required statement of agreement or nonagreement, unless all parties in the mediation expressly agree otherwise, in writing.

(f) Sections 703.5 and 1152.5 of the Evidence Code shall apply to any mediation conducted pursuant to this chapter.

66033. (a) At the end of the mediation, the mediator shall file a report with the Office of Permit Assistance, consistent with Section 1152.5 of the Evidence Code, containing each of the following:

(1) The title of the action.

(2) The names of the parties to the action.

(3) An estimate of the costs avoided, if any, because the parties used mediation instead of litigation to resolve their dispute.

(b) The sole purpose of the report required by this section is the collection of information needed by the office to prepare its report to the Legislature pursuant to Section 66036.

66034. If the mediation does not resolve the action, the court may, in its discretion, schedule a settlement conference before a judge of the superior court. If the action is later heard on its merits, the judge hearing the action shall not be the same judge who conducted the settlement conference, except in counties with only one judge of the superior court.

66035. The Judicial Council may adopt rules, forms, and standards necessary to implement this chapter.

66036. By January 1, 2001, the Office of Permit Assistance within the Trade and Commerce Agency, in cooperation with the Judicial Council, shall report to the Legislature regarding the implementation of this chapter. The office shall consult with persons and interest groups with knowledge of the mediation process, and affected public agencies, including, but not limited to, councils of governments. The report may recommend the extension of the chapter, changes to the chapter, or the repeal of the chapter.

66037. No action filed on or after January 1, 2002, shall be subject to this chapter unless a later enacted statute which is chaptered before January 1, 2002, extends this date or deletes this section.

CHAPTER 301

An act to amend Section 1872.83 of the Insurance Code, and to amend Section 139.2 of the Labor Code, relating to workers' compensation, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1872.83 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1872.83. (a) The commissioner shall ensure that the Bureau of Fraudulent Claims aggressively pursues all reported incidents of probable workers' compensation fraud, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 1871.4 and Section 549 of the Penal Code, and forwards to the appropriate disciplinary body the names, along with all supporting evidence, of any individuals licensed under the Business and Professions Code who are suspected of actively engaging in fraudulent activity. The Bureau of Fraudulent Claims shall forward to the Insurance Commissioner or the Director of Industrial Relations, as appropriate, the name, along with all supporting evidence, of any insurer, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 1877.1, suspected of actively engaging in the fraudulent denial of claims.

(b) To fund increased investigation and prosecution of workers' compensation fraud, there shall be an annual assessment as follows:

(1) The aggregate amount of the assessment shall be determined by the Fraud Assessment Commission, which is hereby established. The commission shall be composed of five members consisting of two representatives of self-insured employers, one representative of insured employers, one representative of workers' compensation insurers, and the President of the State Compensation Insurance Fund, or his or her designee.

The Governor shall appoint members representing self-insured employers, insured employers, and insurers. The term of office of members of the commission shall be four years, and a member shall hold office until the appointment of a successor. However, the initial terms of three of the members appointed by the Governor shall expire, respectively, on December 31, 1992, December 31, 1993, and December 31, 1994. The President of the State Compensation Insurance Fund shall be an ex officio, voting member of the commission. Members of the commission shall receive one hundred dollars ($100) for each day of actual attendance at commission meetings and other official commission business, and shall also receive their actual and necessary traveling expenses incurred in the performance of commission duties. Payment of per diem and travel expenses shall be made from the Workers' Compensation Fraud Account in the Insurance Fund, established in paragraph (4), upon appropriation by the Legislature.

(2) In determining the aggregate amount of the assessment, the Fraud Assessment Commission shall consider the advice and recommendations of the Bureau of Fraudulent Claims and the commissioner.

(3) The aggregate amount of the assessment shall be collected by the Director of Industrial Relations pursuant to Section 62.6 of the Labor Code. The Fraud Assessment Commission shall annually advise the Director of Industrial Relations, not later than March 15, of the aggregate amount to be assessed for the next fiscal year.

(4) The amount collected, together with the fines collected for violations of the unlawful acts specified in Section 1871.4 and Section 549 of the Penal Code, shall be deposited in the Workers' Compensation Fraud Account in the Insurance Fund, which is hereby created, and may be used, upon appropriation by the Legislature, only for enhanced workers' compensation fraud investigation and prosecution as provided in this section.

(c) For each fiscal year, the total amount of revenues derived from the assessment pursuant to subdivision (b) shall, together with amounts collected pursuant to fines imposed for unlawful acts described in Section 1871.4 and Section 549 of the Penal Code, not be less than three million dollars ($3,000,000). Any funds appropriated by the Legislature pursuant to subdivision (b) that are not expended in the fiscal year for which they have been appropriated shall be applied to satisfy for the immediately following fiscal year the minimum total amount required by this subdivision.

(d) After incidental expenses, 50 percent of the funds to be used for the purposes of this section shall be provided to the Bureau of Fraudulent Claims of the Department of Insurance for enhanced investigative efforts and 50 percent of the funds shall be distributed to district attorneys, pursuant to a determination by the commissioner with the advice and consent of the bureau and the Fraud Assessment Commission, as to the most effective distribution of moneys for purposes of the investigation and prosecution of workers' compensation insurance fraud cases. Each district attorney seeking a portion of the funds shall submit to the commissioner an application setting forth in detail their proposed use of any funds provided. Any district attorney receiving funds pursuant to this subdivision shall submit an annual report to the commissioner with respect to the success of their efforts. Upon receipt, the commissioner shall provide copies to the bureau and the Fraud Assessment Commission of any application, annual report, or other documents with respect to the allocation of money pursuant to this subdivision. These documents shall be public records.

(e) If any district attorney is determined by the commissioner to be unable or unwilling to investigate and prosecute workers' compensation fraud claims, the commissioner shall discontinue distribution of funds allocated for that county and may redistribute those funds according to this subdivision.

(1) The commissioner shall promptly determine whether any other county could assert jurisdiction to prosecute the fraud claims that would have been brought in the nonparticipating county, and if so, the commissioner may award funds to conduct the prosecutions redirected pursuant to this subdivision, which funds may be in addition to any other fraud prosecution funds otherwise awarded under this section. Any district attorney receiving funds pursuant to this subdivision shall first agree that the funds shall be used solely for investigating and prosecuting those cases of workers' compensation fraud redirected pursuant to this subdivision and submit an annual report to the commissioner with respect to the success of the district attorney's efforts. The commissioner shall keep the Fraud Assessment Commission fully informed of all reallocations of funds under this paragraph.

(2) If the commissioner determines that no district attorney is willing or able to investigate and prosecute the workers' compensation fraud claims arising in the nonparticipating county, the commissioner, with the advice and consent of the Fraud Assessment Commission, may award to the Attorney General some or all of the funds previously awarded to the nonparticipating county. Before the commissioner may award any funds, the Attorney General shall submit to the commissioner an application setting forth in detail his or her proposed use of any funds provided and agreeing that any funds awarded shall be used solely for investigating and prosecuting those cases of workers' compensation fraud redirected pursuant to this subdivision. The Attorney General shall submit an annual report to the commissioner with respect to the success of the fraud prosecution efforts of his or her office.

(3) Neither the Attorney General nor any district attorney shall be required to relinquish control of any investigation or prosecution undertaken pursuant to this subdivision unless the commissioner determines that satisfactory progress is no longer being made on the case or the case has been abandoned.

(4) No county that has become a nonparticipating county due to the inability or unwillingness of its district attorney to investigate and prosecute workers' compensation fraud shall become eligible to receive funding under this section until it has submitted a new application that meets the requirements of subdivision (d) and the applicable regulations.

(f) The commissioner shall adopt rules and regulations to implement this section in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code). Included in the rules and regulations shall be the criteria for redistributing funds to district attorneys and the Attorney General. The adoption of the rules and regulations shall be deemed to be an emergency and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, or general welfare.

SEC. 2. Section 139.2 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

139.2. (a) The Industrial Medical Council shall appoint qualified medical evaluators in each of the respective specialties as required for the evaluation of medical issues. The appointments shall be for two-year terms.

(b) The council shall appoint as qualified medical evaluators physicians, as defined in Section 3209.3, who are licensed to practice in this state and who demonstrate that they meet each of the following requirements:

(1) Pass an examination written and administered by the Industrial Medical Council for the purpose of demonstrating competence in evaluating medical issues in the workers' compensation system. The council shall administer the first examination on or before July 1, 1994. Physicians qualified immediately before the first examination is administered shall pass an examination by November 1, 1994, to meet this requirement. Any physician applying for appointment after July 1, 1994, shall pass an examination prior to his or her appointment as a qualified medical evaluator. Physicians are not required to pass an additional examination for reappointment. For preparation of the first examination, a panel of not more than 40 experts, appointed by the Industrial Medical Council, representing the physician specialties required to take the qualified medical evaluator examination, shall assist the council in determining the knowledge, skills, and abilities required by the qualified medical evaluator, writing items for the examination, and conducting pretest and posttest reviews of the items. This panel of experts shall be exempt from the requirement of having to pass the examination to be appointed as a qualified medical evaluator. This panel of experts shall include: current or past council members, or both, representatives from the professional associations of those physician specialties required for the evaluation of medical issues, or physicians deemed to be well qualified in the evaluation of medical issues and having a minimum of 10 years in practice, five years of workers' compensation evaluation, and having served as an agreed medical evaluator at least eight times in the previous 12 months.

(2) Devote at least one-third of total practice time to providing direct medical treatment, or has served as an agreed medical evaluator on eight or more occasions in the 12 months prior to applying to be a qualified medical evaluator.

(3) Meet one of the following requirements:

(A) Is board certified, or board eligible, within a time period specified by the council, in his or her specialty by an appropriate board recognized by the council or, if a chiropractor, is certified in California workers' compensation evaluation by an appropriate California professional chiropractic association or accredited California college recognized by the council, or, if a psychologist, meets one of the following requirements:

(i) Is board certified in clinical psychology by a board recognized by the council.

(ii) Holds a doctoral degree in psychology from a university or professional school recognized by the council and has not less than five years' postdoctoral experience in the diagnosis and treatment of emotional and mental disorders.

(iii) Has not less than five years' postdoctoral experience in the diagnosis and treatment of emotional and mental disorders, and has served as an agreed medical evaluator on eight or more occasions prior to January 1, 1990.

(B) Served as an agreed medical evaluator on eight or more occasions prior to January 1, 1970.

(4) Does not have a conflict of interest as determined under the regulations promulgated by the administrative director pursuant to subdivision (o).

(5) Meets any additional medical or professional standards adopted pursuant to paragraph (6) of subdivision (j).

(c) The council shall promulgate standards for appointment of physicians who are retired or who hold teaching positions who are exceptionally well qualified to serve as a qualified medical evaluator even though they do not otherwise qualify under paragraph (1) of subdivision (b). In no event shall a physician whose full-time practice is limited to the forensic evaluation of disability be appointed as a qualified medical evaluator under this subdivision.

(d) The qualified medical evaluator, upon request, shall be reappointed if he or she meets the qualifications for appointment and meets all of the following criteria:

(1) Has completed all medical evaluations within a reasonable time after assignment.

(2) Has not had more than five of his or her evaluations which were considered by a workers' compensation judge at a contested hearing rejected by the judge or the appeals board pursuant to this section during the most recent two-year period during which the physician served as a qualified medical evaluator. If the judge or the appeals board rejects the qualified medical evaluator's report on the basis that it fails to meet the minimum standards for those reports established by the Industrial Medical Council or the appeals board, the judge or the appeals board, as the case may be, shall make a specific finding to that effect, and shall give notice to the medical evaluator and to the Industrial Medical Council. Any rejection shall not be counted as one of the five qualifying rejections until the specific finding has become final and time for appeal has expired.

(3) Has completed within the previous 24 months at least 12 hours of continuing education in impairment evaluation or workers' compensation-related medical dispute evaluation approved by the Industrial Medical Council.

(4) Has not been terminated, suspended, placed on probation, or otherwise disciplined by the council during his or her most recent term as a qualified medical evaluator.

If the evaluator does not meet any one of these criteria, the Industrial Medical Council may in its discretion reappoint or deny reappointment according to regulations promulgated by the council. In no event may a physician who does not currently meet the requirements for initial appointment or who has been terminated under subdivision (e) be reappointed.

(e) Except as provided in subdivision (k), the evaluator shall not be terminated during his or her term of office unless his or her licensing authority has suspended, revoked, or terminated his or her license to practice in California.

(f) The Industrial Medical Council shall furnish a physician, upon request, a written statement of its reasons for termination of or for denying appointment or reappointment as a qualified medical evaluator. Upon receipt of a specific response to the statement of reasons, the Industrial Medical Council shall review its decision not to appoint or reappoint the physician or to terminate the physician and shall notify the physician of its final decision within 60 days after receipt of the physician's response.

(g) The council shall establish agreements with qualified medical evaluators to assure the expeditious evaluation of cases assigned to them for comprehensive medical evaluations.

(h) When the injured worker is not represented by an attorney, the medical director appointed pursuant to Section 122, shall assign three-member panels of qualified medical evaluators within five working days after receiving a request for a panel. If a panel is not assigned within 15 working days, the employee shall have the right to obtain a medical evaluation from any qualified medical evaluator of his or her choice. The medical director shall use a random selection method for assigning panels of qualified medical evaluators. The medical director shall select evaluators who are specialists of the type selected by the employee. The medical director shall advise the employee that he or she should consult with his or her treating physician prior to deciding which type of specialist to request. The Industrial Medical Council shall promulgate a form which shall notify the employee of the physicians selected for his or her panel. The form shall include, for each physician on the panel, the physician's name, address, telephone number, specialty, number of years in practice, and a brief description of his or her education and training, and shall advise the employee that he or she is entitled to receive transportation expenses and temporary disability for each day necessary for the examination. The form shall also state in a clear and conspicuous location and type: "You have the right to consult with an information and assistance officer at no cost to you prior to selecting the doctor to prepare your evaluation, or you may consult with an attorney. If your claim eventually goes to court, the judge will consider the evaluation prepared by the doctor you select to decide your claim." When compiling the list of evaluators from which to select randomly, the medical director shall include all qualified medical evaluators who do not have a conflict of interest in the case, as defined by regulations adopted pursuant to subdivision (o) of the appropriate specialty type as recognized by an appropriate, recognized board within the general geographic area of the employee's residence, and shall have no authority to exclude qualified medical evaluators based on any other criteria. When the medical director determines that an employee has requested an evaluation by a type of specialist which is appropriate for the employee's injury, but there are not enough qualified medical evaluators of that type within the general geographic area of the employee's residence to establish a three-member panel, the medical director shall include sufficient qualified medical evaluators from other geographic areas and the employer shall pay all necessary travel costs incurred in the event the employee selects an evaluator from another geographic area.

(i) The medical director appointed pursuant to Section 122, shall continuously review the quality of comprehensive medical evaluations and reports prepared by agreed and qualified medical evaluators and the timeliness with which evaluation reports are prepared and submitted. The review shall include, but not be limited to, a review of a random sample of reports submitted to the division, and a review of all reports alleged to be inaccurate or incomplete by a party to a case for which the evaluation was prepared. The medical director shall submit to the administrative director an annual report summarizing the results of the continuous review of medical evaluations and reports prepared by agreed and qualified medical evaluators and make recommendations for the improvement of the system of medical evaluations and determinations.

(j) After public hearing pursuant to Section 5307.4, the council shall promulgate rules and regulations concerning the following medical issues:

(1) Standards governing the timeframes within which medical evaluations shall be prepared and submitted by agreed and qualified medical evaluators. The timeframe for initial medical evaluations to be prepared and submitted shall be no more than 30 days after the evaluator has seen the employee or otherwise commenced the medical evaluation procedure. The council shall develop a written policy governing the provision of extensions of the 30-day period in cases where the evaluator has not received test results or consulting physician's evaluations in time to meet the 30-day deadline. The council shall develop timeframes governing availability of qualified medical evaluators for unrepresented employees under Section 4061. These timeframes shall give the employee the right to the addition of a new evaluator to his or her panel, selected at random, for each evaluator not available to see the employee within a specified period of time, but shall also permit the employee to waive this right for a specified period of time thereafter.

(2) Procedures to be followed by all physicians in evaluating the existence and extent of permanent impairment and limitations resulting from an injury. In order to produce complete, accurate, uniform, and replicable evaluations, the procedures shall require that an evaluation of anatomical loss, functional loss, and the presence of physical complaints be supported, to the extent feasible, by medical findings based on standardized examinations and testing techniques generally accepted by the medical community.

(3) Procedures governing the determination of any disputed medical issues.

(4) Procedures to be used in determining the compensability of psychiatric injury. The procedures shall be in accordance with Section 3208.3 and shall require that the diagnosis of a mental disorder be expressed using the terminology and criteria of the American Psychiatric Association's Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders, Third Edition-Revised, or the terminology and diagnostic criteria of other psychiatric diagnostic manuals generally approved and accepted nationally by practitioners in the field of psychiatric medicine.

(5) Guidelines for the range of time normally required to perform the following:

(A) A medical-legal evaluation that has not been defined and valued pursuant to Section 5307.6. However, the council may recommend guidelines for evaluations that have been defined and valued pursuant to Section 5307.6 for the purpose of governing the appointment, reappointment, and discipline of qualified medical evaluators. The guidelines shall establish minimum times for patient contact in the conduct of the evaluations, and shall be consistent with regulations adopted pursuant to Section 5307.6.

(B) Any treatment procedures that have not been defined and valued pursuant to Section 5307.1.

(C) Any other evaluation procedure requested by the administrative director, the Insurance Commissioner, or the council itself.

If, without good cause, the council fails to adopt the guidelines required by subparagraph (A) or (B) by March 31, 1994, or fails, without good cause, to adopt a guideline pursuant to subparagraph (C) within six months after a request by the administrative director or the Insurance Commissioner, then the administrative director shall have the authority to adopt the guideline.

(6) Any additional medical or professional standards which a medical evaluator shall meet as a condition of appointment, reappointment, or maintenance in the status of a medical evaluator.

(k) The Industrial Medical Council may, in its discretion, suspend or terminate the privilege of a physician to serve as a qualified medical evaluator if the council, after hearing pursuant to subdivision (l), determines, based on substantial evidence, that a qualified medical evaluator:

(1) Has violated any material statutory or administrative duty.

(2) Has failed to follow the medical procedures or qualifications established by the council pursuant to paragraph (2), (3), (4), or (5) of subdivision (j).

(3) Has failed to comply with the timeframe standards established by the council pursuant to subdivision (j).

(4) Has failed to meet the requirements of subdivision (b) or (c).

(5) Has prepared medical-legal evaluations that fail to meet the minimum standards for those reports established by the Industrial Medical Council or the appeals board.

(l) The council shall cite the qualified medical evaluator for a violation listed in subdivision (k) and shall set a hearing on the alleged violation within 30 days of service of the citation on the qualified medical evaluator. In addition to the authority to terminate or suspend the qualified medical evaluator upon finding a violation listed in subdivision (k), the council may, in its discretion, place a qualified medical evaluator on probation subject to appropriate conditions, including ordering continuing education or training. The council shall report to the appropriate licensing board the name of any qualified medical evaluator who is disciplined pursuant to this subdivision.

(m) The council shall terminate from the list of medical evaluators any physician where licensure has been terminated by the relevant licensing board, or who has been convicted of a misdemeanor or felony related to the conduct of his or her medical practice, or of a crime of moral turpitude. The council shall suspend or terminate as a medical evaluator any physician who has been suspended or placed on probation by the relevant licensing board.

(n) Each qualified medical evaluator shall pay a fee, as determined by the Industrial Medical Council, for appointment or reappointment. Any qualified medical evaluator appointed prior to January 1, 1993, shall also pay the same fee as specified herein. These fees shall be based on a sliding scale as established by the council. All revenues from fees paid under this subdivision shall be deposited into the Industrial Medicine Fund, which is hereby created for the administration of the Industrial Medical Council. Moneys paid into the Industrial Medicine Fund for the activities of the Industrial Medical Council shall not be used by any other department or agency or for any purpose other than administration of the council. The funds provided to the council from the Industrial Medicine Fund shall not supplant any funds appropriated to the council from the Workers' Compensation Administration Revolving Fund, the General Fund, or any other governmental source. Any future annual appropriation to the council from the Workers' Compensation Administration Revolving Fund, the General Fund, or any other governmental source shall not be less than the amount appropriated or provided during the 1991–92 fiscal year.

(o) An evaluator may not request or accept any compensation or other thing of value from any source that does or could create a conflict with his or her duties as an evaluator under this code. The administrative director, after consultation with the council and the Commission on Health and Safety and Workers' Compensation, shall adopt regulations to implement this subdivision on or before July 1, 1994.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to specify the requirements for a written examination for qualified medical evaluator at the earliest opportunity, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 302

An act to amend Section 1067.02 of the Insurance Code, relating to insurance, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1067.02 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1067.02. (a) This article shall provide coverage for the policies and contracts specified in subdivision (b) to all of the following:

(1) To persons who, regardless of where they reside (except for nonresident certificate holders under group policies or contracts), are the beneficiaries, assignees, or payees of the persons covered under paragraph (2).

(2) To persons who are owners of or certificate holders under those policies or contracts, and who either:

(A) Are residents of this state.

(B) Are not residents, but only under all of the following conditions:

(i) The insurers that issued the policies or contracts are domiciled in this state.

(ii) The insurers never held a license or certificate of authority in the states in which the persons reside.

(iii) The states in which the persons reside have associations similar to the association created by this article.

(iv) The persons are not eligible for coverage by those associations.

(b) (1) This article shall provide coverage to the persons specified in subdivision (a) for direct, nongroup life, health, annuity, and supplemental policies or contracts and for certificates under direct group life, health, annuity, and supplemental policies and contracts, except as limited by this article. Annuity contracts and certificates under group annuity contracts include, but are not limited to, structured settlement agreements, allocated annuity contracts, and any immediate or deferred annuity contracts, and unallocated annuity contracts except those expressly excluded pursuant to subparagraph (D) of paragraph (2) of this subdivision.

(2) This article shall not provide coverage for any of the following:

(A) Any portion of a policy or contract not guaranteed by the insurer, or under which the risk is borne by the policyholder or contractholder.

(B) Any policy or contract of reinsurance, unless assumption certificates have been issued.

(C) Any portion of a policy or contract to the extent that the rate of interest on which it is based exceeds either or both of the following:

(i) The extent to which the rate of interest, averaged over the period of four years prior to the date on which the association becomes obligated with respect to the policy or contract, exceeds a rate of interest determined by subtracting six percentage points from Moody's Corporate Bond Yield Average averaged for that same four-year period or for such lesser period if the policy or contract was issued less than four years before the association became obligated, not to go below a minimum of 0 percent.

(ii) The extent to which the rate of interest, on and after the date on which the association becomes obligated with respect to the policy or contract, exceeds the rate of interest determined by subtracting six percentage points from Moody's Corporate Bond Yield Average as most recently available, not to go below a minimum of 3 percent.

(D) Guaranteed investment contracts, guaranteed interest contracts, funding agreements, deposit administration contracts, and all other unallocated annuity contracts; provided however, coverage may be provided for unallocated annuity contracts sold by an insurer as to which an order of liquidation, which contained a finding of insolvency and which later became final, was entered by a court of competent jurisdiction in the state of its domicile, after December 20, 1991, but prior to December 20, 1992, and sold to an employer or a trustee or other plan fiduciary in connection with a plan or program of an employer prior to December 20, 1992, for purposes of providing the employees of the employer with deferred compensation or pension benefits and (i) the individual employees have an option to participate or not participate, in whole or in part, in the contract, and (ii) the individual employee contributes from his or her wages some portion of the funds paid into the plan or program.

(E) Any plan or program of an employer, association, or similar entity to provide life, health, or annuity benefits to its employees or members to the extent that the plan or program is self-funded or uninsured, including, but not limited to, benefits payable by an employer, association, or similar entity under any of the following:

(i) A multiple employer welfare arrangement as defined in Section 514 of the federal Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended.

(ii) A minimum premium group insurance plan.

(iii) A stop-loss group insurance plan.

(iv) An administrative services only contract.

(F) Any portion of a policy or contract to the extent that it provides dividends or experience rating credits, or provides that any fees or allowances be paid to any person, including the policyholder or contractholder, in connection with the service to or administration of the policy or contract.

(G) Any policy or contract issued in this state by a member insurer at a time when it was not licensed or did not have a certificate of authority to issue the policy or contract in this state.

(H) Any annuity issued by a charitable organization that is duly qualified as such under applicable provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, and that is not engaged in the business of insurance as its primary business.

(c) The benefits for which the association may become liable for life insurance and annuity policies shall in no event exceed the lesser of the following:

(1) Eighty percent of the contractual obligations for each policy or contract as modified pursuant to subparagraph (C) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), for which the insurer is liable or would have been liable if it were not an impaired or insolvent insurer.

(2) (A) With respect to any one life, regardless of the number of policies or contracts:

(i) Two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) in life insurance death benefits, but not more than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) in net cash surrender and net cash withdrawal values for life insurance.

(ii) One hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) in the present value of annuity benefits, including net cash surrender and net cash withdrawal values.

(B) However, in no event shall the association be liable to expend more than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) in the aggregate with respect to any one individual under subparagraph (A).

(C) With respect to any one owner of multiple policies of individual life insurance, whether the policyowner is an individual, firm, corporation, or other legal entity, and whether the persons insured are officers, employees, or other persons in whose lives the policyowner has an insurable interest, five million dollars ($5,000,000) in benefits regardless of the number of the policies and contracts held by the owner.

(d) The health insurance benefits for which the association may become liable shall in no event exceed the lesser of the following:

(1) The contractual obligations for which the insurer is liable or for which the insurer would have been liable if it were not an impaired or insolvent insurer.

(2) Two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) in health insurance benefits; an amount that shall annually increase or decrease based upon the health care cost component of the consumer price index.

(e) An unallocated annuity contract that is not covered by the association may not be offered to an employer, after January 1, 1994, unless prior to being offered to the employer, or the participation by the employee, the insurer or agent has disclosed to the employer, and employee in writing in a conspicuous manner that the contract is not covered by the association.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the California Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to clarify and ensure compliance at the earliest possible time with the intent of Chapter 975 of the Statutes of 1993 (Senate Bill 435), it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 303

An act to amend Sections 1192.9 and 1210 of the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1192.9 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1192.9. Notwithstanding Section 1100, an insurer may make excess funds investments in shares of an open-end diversified management investment company, as defined in the Federal Investment Company Act of 1940, that meets all of the following standards:

(a) It is registered with and reporting to the United States Securities and Exchange Commission.

(b) It is domiciled in the United States with all assets held in the United States by a bank, trust company, or other authorized custodian chartered by the United States, its territories, possessions, or states.

(c) It has assets in excess of one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000).

(d) Its annual management investment fee shall not exceed six-tenths of 1 percent of the average daily asset value, and no other fees or commissions shall be charged to the insurer by any person.

(e) All of its assets are composed of (1) debt obligations issued by or on behalf of the United States, its territories and possessions, the District of Columbia, and states or their political subdivisions, agencies, and instrumentalities, including industrial development obligations; (2) corporate debt obligations other than debt obligations of the insurer or any company affiliated with the insurer; or, (3) accounts, deposits, or obligations of banks or savings and loan associations. The assets shall be required to meet the requirements of and be authorized for investment by the insurer under Articles 3 (commencing with Section 1170) and 4 (commencing with Section 1190) of Chapter 2.

(f) Shares of the management investment company shall be issued to the insurer or be retained by a bank, trust company, or other entity other than the management investment company which is authorized by the United States to act as a transfer and dividend paying agent for the management investment company.

(g) All shares of the management investment company shall be of the same class with equal rights and privileges. Each share shall be entitled to one vote and to participate equally in dividends and distributions declared by the management investment company and in the net distributable assets of the management investment company on liquidation. When issued, the share shall be fully paid and nonassessable and shall have no preemptive, conversion, or exchange rights.

(h) Shareholders shall be entitled to require the management investment company to redeem all shares.

SEC. 2. Section 1210 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1210. (a) Any domestic incorporated insurer, after investing an amount equal to its required minimum paid-in capital in securities specified in Article 3 (commencing with Section 1170), may make such investments as it may see fit in the purchase of, or loans upon, properties and securities other than or in addition to or in excess of those set forth in Articles 2 (commencing with Section 1150), 3 (commencing with Section 1170) and 4 (commencing with Section 1190) of this chapter. Investments under this section shall not exceed, in the aggregate, the lesser of any of the following:

(1) Five percent of the insurer's admitted assets.

(2) Fifty percent of the excess of admitted assets over the sum of capital paid up, liabilities and the surplus required by Section 700.02. The percentage or dollar value of admitted assets and capital paid up and liabilities shall be determined by the insurer's last preceding annual statement of conditions and affairs made as of the preceding December 31st and which has been filed with the commissioner pursuant to law. The investments shall be subject to the provisions of Sections 1153.5, 1154, 1200, 1201, and 1202 as if they were excess funds investments. This section shall apply to an insurer other than life only if the insurer has aggregate capital and surplus of at least ten million dollars ($10,000,000).

(b) An investment originally made by an insurer pursuant to this section which subsequently meets the requirements of an investment contained in Article 2 (commencing with Section 1150), 3 (commencing with Section 1170) or 4 (commencing with Section 1190) may, at the election of the insurer, be considered to be held pursuant to any provision contained in those articles.

(c) Pursuant to the authority conferred by subdivision (a), notwithstanding Section 1100, an insurer may make discretionary investments in shares of an open-end diversified management investment company, as defined in the federal Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended. Nothing in this subdivision is intended to prohibit any other discretionary investment, now or in the future, that might otherwise be made by an insurer, whether expressly identified in this section or not.

CHAPTER 304

An act to amend Section 2 of Chapter 588 of the Statutes of 1991 and Section 6 of Chapter 1143 of the Statutes of 1982, relating to real property, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature hereby finds and declares all of the following:

(a) Certain real property located in the County of Sonoma, City of Santa Rosa, consisting of .06 acre of land that borders the Santa Rosa Junior College was acquired by the state at little or no cost.

(b) The state has not expended a significant amount of state funds to improve the land.

(c) Santa Rosa Junior College's use of the land for establishing a child development and child care facility constitutes a public purpose with a broad public benefit.

SEC. 2. The Director of General Services, through the Office of Real Estate and Design Services, shall transfer at fair market value to Santa Rosa Junior College real property located in the County of Sonoma, City of Santa Rosa, consisting of .06 acre of land. The property to be transferred is a strip of land ranging from 10.30 to 12.58 feet in width and is 222 feet in length and lies on the Santa Rosa Junior College side of a common fence that separates property owned by the state and the Santa Rosa Junior College at 1501 Mendocino Avenue.

(a) The net proceeds, if any, received from the disposition of the parcel described shall be deposited in the Armory Fund.

(b) The Director of General Services, as to the property transferred pursuant to this act, shall except and reserve to the state all mineral deposits, as defined in Section 6407 of the Public Resources Code, below a depth of 500 feet, without surface rights of entry.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of Chapter 588 of the Statutes of 1991 is amended to read:

Sec. 2. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the buildings currently leased by the Mendocino-Lake Community College District, and located at 525 North Main Street in Lakeport, California, and at the Willits Center at 11 Marin Street in Willits Center, are exempt from Article 7 (commencing with Section 81130) and Article 8 (commencing with Section 81160) of Chapter 1 of Part 49 of the Education Code until the date upon which the construction of permanent facilities of the Lake County Center and the Willits Center of Mendocino College is complete or December 31, 2001, whichever date occurs first.

(b) Mendocino-Lake Community College District shall inform students of the risks that may be incurred by the continued occupation of a building that is not in compliance with the earthquake safety standards prescribed by the Field Act, by posting a sign alerting those who use the building of its potentially unsafe conditions.

(c) The amendments to this section by the 1993–94 Regular Session of the Legislature shall become operative only upon adoption of a resolution by the governing board of the Mendocino-Lake Community College District, whereby the district agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the State of California from any legal claims that may arise from the continued use of buildings specified in subdivision (a).

SEC. 4. Section 6 of Chapter 1143 of the Statutes of 1982, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 217 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

Sec. 6. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the governing board of the Lake Tahoe Community College District may continue to use until June 30, 2001, an existing building leased by the district located at 970 Lodi Avenue, South Lake Tahoe, California. During the period of use authorized by this section, the building shall not be subject to Article 7 (commencing with Section 81130) or Article 8 (commencing with Section 81160) of Chapter 1 of Part 49 of the Education Code.

(b) The Lake Tahoe Community College District shall inform students of the risks that may be incurred by the continued occupation of a building which is not in compliance with the earthquake safety standards prescribed by the Field Act, by posting a sign alerting those who use the building of its potentially unsafe condition.

(c) The amendments to this section by the 1993–94 Regular Session of the Legislature shall become operative only upon adoption of a resolution by the governing board of the Lake Tahoe Community College District whereby the district agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the State of California from any legal claims that may arise from the continued use of buildings specified in subdivision (a).

SEC. 5. Due to the unique circumstances concerning the parcel of state-owned land located in the City of Santa Rosa that borders the Santa Rosa Junior College and certain school facilities leased by the Mendocino-Lake Community College District and the Lake Tahoe Community College District, the Legislature finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that a specified parcel of state-owned land may be transferred at fair market value to the Santa Rosa Junior College and in order that certain Field Act exemptions may be extended until December 31, 2001, without interruption, at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 305

An act to amend Sections 402, 501, and 508 of the Odessa Water District Act (Chapter 533 of the Statutes of 1991), relating to the Odessa Water District.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 402 of the Odessa Water District Act (Chapter 533 of the Statutes of 1991) is amended to read:

Sec. 402. The boundaries of the district are the corporate boundaries of the City of Barstow, California. If the City of Barstow annexes territory to, or detaches territory from, its boundaries, that territory shall be deemed annexed to, or detached from, the district, as the case may be, so that the boundaries of the City of Barstow and the boundaries of the district remain coterminous. Nothing in this section exempts the district or the City of Barstow from complying with the Cortese-Knox Local Government Reorganization Act of 1985 (Division 3 (commencing with Section 56000) of Title 5 of the Government Code).

SEC. 2. Section 501 of the Odessa Water District Act (Chapter 533 of the Statutes of 1991) is amended to read:

Sec. 501. The board consists of the members of the City Council of the City of Barstow. The board is authorized to adopt reasonable rules and regulations to facilitate the exercise of its powers and duties.

SEC. 3. Section 508 of the Odessa Water District Act (Chapter 533 of the Statutes of 1991) is amended to read:

Sec. 508. The district shall determine which projects or works of improvement shall be carried out and shall determine, as to each project or work of improvement, that it is for the common benefit of the district as a whole.

CHAPTER 306

An act to amend Section 1104.9 of the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1104.9 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1104.9. (a) (1) As used in this section, "qualified custodian" means: (A) commercial banks (as defined in Section 105 of the Financial Code), savings and loan associations (as defined in Section 5102 of the Financial Code), and trust companies (other than trust departments of title insurance companies), or any entity approved by the commissioner as a qualified custodian; (B) that is domiciled and has a principal place of business in this state; and (C) that either has a net worth of at least one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000) or is able to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the commissioner that it is financially secure. The commissioner may consider, among other factors, evidence of the following in order to determine whether a custodian is financially secure for the purpose of this subdivision: (i) its obligations under an agreement approved by the commissioner pursuant to subdivision (c) are guaranteed by its parent holding company, (ii) its parent holding company has a net worth of at least one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000), or (iii) it is a member of a holding company system with a net worth of at least one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000).

(2) As used in this section, "qualified depository" means an entity that is located in this state or a reciprocal state and is (A) a depository that provides for the long-term immobilization of securities or a clearing corporation that is also a depository, and that in either case has been approved by or registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission, (B) a Federal Reserve bank, or (C) an entity approved by the commissioner as a qualified depository.

A "qualified depository" may also include an entity that is located outside the United States, which entity shall be a securities depository and clearing agency, incorporated or organized under the laws of a country other than the United States, (i) that operates a transnational system for securities or equivalent book entries (specifically Euroclear and Cedel, or successors to all or substantially all of their operations), or (ii) that operates a central system for securities or equivalent book entries, but solely for securities issued by, or by entities within, the country in which the securities depository and clearing agency is incorporated or organized, provided, that the depository meets all qualifying requirements imposed by this section upon Euroclear or Cedel.

(3) As used in this section, "qualified subcustodian" means an entity located in this state or a reciprocal state (A) that holds securities of the domestic insurer, and maintains an account through which the securities are held, in this state or a reciprocal state and (B) that has a net worth of at least one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000) or is able to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the commissioner that it is financially secure. The qualified subcustodian shall be: (A) a commercial bank, a savings and loan association, or a trust company (other than trust departments of title insurance companies); (B) a subsidiary of a qualified custodian; or (C) any entity approved by the commissioner as a qualified subcustodian. The commissioner may consider, among other factors, evidence of the following in order to determine whether a subcustodian is financially secure for the purpose of this subdivision: (i) its obligations are guaranteed by its parent company, (ii) its parent holding company has a net worth of at least one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000), or (iii) it is a member of a holding company system with a net worth of at least one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000). A "qualified subcustodian" may also include an entity that is located outside the United States, that is used by the domestic insurer for the purpose of obtaining access to a qualified depository located outside the United States. The qualified foreign subcustodian shall have a net worth of at least one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000) or is able to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the commissioner that it is financially secure, and shall be: (A) a banking institution or trust company, incorporated or organized under the laws of a country other than the United States, that is regulated by that country's government or an agency thereof, and that has shareholders' equity in excess of two hundred million dollars ($200,000,000), whether in United States dollars or the equivalent of United States dollars, as of the close of its most recently completed fiscal year; (B) a majority-owned direct or indirect subsidiary of a qualified United States bank or bank holding company, which subsidiary is incorporated or organized under the laws of a country other than the United States and has shareholders' equity in excess of one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000), whether in United States dollars or the equivalent of United States dollars, as of the close of its most recently completed fiscal year.

(4) As used in this section, "subsidiary" means: (A) an entity all of whose voting securities (other than director qualifying shares, if any) are owned, directly or indirectly, by a qualified custodian; or (B) any affiliated entity approved by the commissioner as a subsidiary of a qualified custodian. For the purpose of this section, an affiliated entity means an entity that (A) controls or is controlled, either directly or indirectly or through one or more intermediaries by a qualified custodian or (B) is under the common control, directly or indirectly, as or with a qualified custodian.

(5) As used in this section, "entity approved by the commissioner as a qualified custodian," "entity approved by the commissioner as a qualified depository," "entity approved by the commissioner as a qualified subcustodian," and "entity approved by the commissioner as a subsidiary of a qualified custodian" mean those entities that meet the conditions or standards established by the commissioner. The commissioner shall charge and collect in advance a one-time fee of one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500) to review an application for approval of any entity pursuant to this section.

(6) As used in this section, "reciprocal state" has the same meaning as in subdivision (f) of Section 1064.1.

(7) As used in this section, "moneys" means cash held incidental to securities transactions occurring in the ordinary course of business with respect to securities held pursuant to the custodial agreements under this section.

(8) (A) Except as provided in subparagraph (B), as used in this section, "insurer," "domestic insurer," and "domestic admitted insurer" mean any insurer, other than a domestic life insurer that is incorporated or which has its principal place of business in this state. Except as provided in subparagraph (B), no portion of this section shall apply to domestic life insurers nor shall this section affect the interpretation of any other portion of this code with respect to domestic life insurers nor is it intended to create a precedent for the application of its provisions to those insurers. However, the exclusion of domestic life insurers from this section shall not be construed to diminish the commissioner's existing authority over those insurers under any other provision of this code.

(B) Domestic life insurers that are wholly owned by any insurer other than a domestic life insurer or are part of an insurance holding company system whose other insurer affiliates are not domestic life insurers may elect to be subject to this section by affirmatively stating that election in the statement otherwise required to be filed by that system pursuant to Section 1215.4.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 1104.1, a domestic admitted insurer may maintain its securities and moneys in a reciprocal state, subject to the requirements of this section, through a custodian account located in California in or with a qualified custodian, and that qualified custodian may maintain those securities or moneys in a qualified depository or qualified subcustodian, either or both of which may be located in a reciprocal state. In addition, a domestic insurer that has foreign investments or any other investments that require delivery outside of the United States upon sale or maturity that qualify under Section 1240, 1241, or 10506, or any other provision of this code may maintain those securities or moneys in or with a qualified depository located in a jurisdiction outside the United States. However, the aggregate amount of general account investments so deposited shall not exceed the lesser of 5 percent of the total admitted assets of the insurer or 25 percent of the excess of admitted assets over the sum of paid up capital, liabilities, and surplus required by Section 700.02. However, not more that 50 percent of that amount of assets that an insurer is authorized to invest pursuant to Section 1241 may be maintained in a qualified depository as defined in clause (ii) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 1104.9 and not more than 12.5 percent of that amount of assets that an insurer is authorized to invest pursuant to Section 1241 may be maintained in any single country in a qualified depository as defined in clause (ii) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 1104.9. The percentage or dollar value of admitted assets and paid up capital and liabilities shall be determined by the insurer's last preceding annual statement of conditions and affairs made as of the preceding December 31 that has been filed with the commissioner pursuant to law. No broker or agent, as defined in the Federal Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C.A. Sec. 78c et seq.), may serve as a qualified custodian, qualified subcustodian, or qualified depository under this section. However, no otherwise qualified custodian or subcustodian shall be disqualified on account of its activities as a broker or dealer, as so defined, when the activities are incidental to its custodial or other business.

(c) No securities shall be deposited in or with a qualified custodian, qualified depository, or qualified subcustodian except as authorized by an agreement between the insurer and the qualified custodian, which agreement is satisfactory to and has been approved by the commissioner. The agreement shall require that the securities be held by the qualified custodian for the benefit of the insurer and that the books and records of the qualified custodian shall so designate. The agreement shall further require that beneficial title to the securities shall remain in the insurer and shall require that the qualified subcustodian and qualified depository be the agents of the qualified custodian. The agreement shall also specifically require that the qualified custodian shall exercise the standard of care of a professional custodian engaged in the banking or trust company industry and having professional expertise in financial and securities processing transactions and custody would observe in these affairs. This section shall not affect the burden of proof under applicable law with respect to the assertion of liability in any claim, action, or dispute alleging any breach of, or failure to observe, that standard of care.

(d) No agreement between the qualified custodian and the insurer shall be approved by the commissioner unless the qualified custodian agrees therein to comply with this section. Except when the agreement is submitted in conjunction with an application for an original certificate of authority or variable contract qualification, a fee of five hundred dollars ($500) shall be paid to the commissioner at the time of filing the agreement for approval. However, no fee shall be required if the form of the agreement has been previously submitted for approval and approved by the commissioner as certified by the insurer and qualified custodian submitting the agreement to the commissioner. The agreement shall be deemed approved unless, within 60 days after receipt by the commissioner of that agreement and any required filing fee, the commissioner has disapproved the agreement in writing citing specific reasons for disapproval.

(e) Notwithstanding the maintenance of securities with an out-of-state qualified depository or qualified subcustodian pursuant to agreement, if the commissioner has reasonable cause to believe that the domestic insurer (1) is conducting its business and affairs in such a manner as to threaten to render it insolvent, or (2) is in a hazardous condition or is conducting its business and affairs in a manner that is hazardous to its policyholders, creditors, or the public, or (3) has committed or is committing or has engaged or is engaging in any act that would constitute grounds for rendering it subject to conservation or liquidation proceedings, or if the commissioner determines that irreparable loss and injury to the property and business of the domestic insurer has occurred or may occur unless the commissioner acts immediately, then the commissioner may, without hearing, order the insurer and the qualified custodian promptly to effect the transfer of the securities back to a qualified custodian, qualified subcustodian, or qualified depository located in this state from any qualified depository or qualified subcustodian located outside of this state (the transfer order). Upon receipt of the transfer order, the qualified custodian shall promptly effect the return of the securities. Notwithstanding the pendency of any hearing or action provided for in subdivision (f), the transfer order shall be complied with by those persons subject to that order. Any challenge to the validity of the transfer order shall be made in accordance with subdivision (f). It shall be the responsibility of both the insurer and the qualified custodian to oversee that compliance with the transfer order is completed as expeditiously as possible. Upon receipt of a transfer order, there shall be no trading of the securities without specific instructions from the commissioner until the securities are received in this state, except to the extent trading transactions are in process on the day the transfer order is received by the insurer and the failure to complete the trade may result in loss to the insurer's account. Issuance of a transfer order shall not affect the qualified custodian's liabilities with regard to the securities that are the subject of the order.

designated in the agreement. If, as a result of the hearing, any of the statements as to conduct, conditions, or grounds for the transfer order are found to be true, or if other conditions or grounds are discovered or become known at the hearing and are found to be true, the commissioner shall affirm the transfer order and may make additional order or orders, pertaining to the transfer order, as may be reasonably necessary.

The insurer subject to the transfer order, shall be entitled to judicial review in the state of the commissioner's order issued as a result of the hearing.

Alternatively, at any time prior to the commencement of the hearing on the transfer order, the insurer may waive the hearing and have judicial review in this state of the transfer order by petition for writ of mandate and declaratory relief without first exhausting administrative remedies or procedures. In that event the insurer shall not be entitled to any extraordinary remedies prior to trial.

No person other than the insurer shall have standing at the hearing by the commissioner or for any judicial review of the transfer order.

3721. For the purposes of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 4300) of Part 2 of Division 4.5, in the case of a principal who is an absentee, an attorney-in-fact or third person shall be deemed to be without actual knowledge of the following:

(a) The principal's death or incapacity while the absentee continues in missing status and until the attorney-in-fact or third person receives notice of the determination of the absentee's death by the secretary concerned or the head of the department or agency concerned or the delegate of the secretary or head.

(b) Revocation by the principal during the period described in subdivision (a).

SEC. 15. Section 3722 is added to the Probate Code, to read:

3722. If after the absentee executes a power of attorney, the principal's spouse who is the attorney-in-fact commences a proceeding for dissolution, annulment, or legal separation, or a legal separation is ordered, the attorney-in-fact's authority is revoked. This section is in addition to the provisions of Section 4154.

SEC. 16. Division 4.5 (commencing with Section 4000) is added to the Probate Code, to read:

DIVISION 4.5. POWERS OF ATTORNEY

PART 1. DEFINITIONS AND GENERAL PROVISIONS

CHAPTER 1. SHORT TITLE AND DEFINITIONS

4000. This division may be cited as the Power of Attorney Law.

4001. Sections 4124, 4125, 4126, 4127, 4206, 4304, and 4305 may be cited as the Uniform Durable Power of Attorney Act.

4010. Unless the provision or context otherwise requires, the definitions in this chapter govern the construction of this division.

4014. (a) "Attorney-in-fact" means a person granted authority to act for the principal in a power of attorney, regardless of whether the person is known as an attorney-in-fact or agent, or by some other term.

(b) "Attorney-in-fact" includes a successor or alternate attorney-in-fact and a person delegated authority by an attorney-in-fact.

4018. "Durable power of attorney" means a power of attorney that satisfies the requirements for durability provided in Section 4124.

4022. "Power of attorney" means a written instrument, however denominated, that is executed by a natural person having the capacity to contract and that grants authority to an attorney-in-fact. A power of attorney may be durable or nondurable.

4026. "Principal" means a natural person who executes a power of attorney.

4030. "Springing power of attorney" means a power of attorney that by its terms becomes effective at a specified future time or on the occurrence of a specified future event or contingency, including, but not limited to, the subsequent incapacity of the principal. A springing power of attorney may be a durable power of attorney or a nondurable power of attorney.

4034. "Third person" means any person other than the principal or attorney-in-fact.

CHAPTER 2. GENERAL PROVISIONS

4050. (a) This division applies to the following:

(1) Durable powers of attorney.

(2) Statutory form powers of attorney under Part 3 (commencing with Section 4400).

(3) Durable powers of attorney for health care under Part 4 (commencing with Section 4600).

(4) Any other power of attorney that incorporates or refers to this division or the provisions of this division.

(b) This division does not apply to the following:

(1) A power of attorney to the extent that the authority of the attorney-in-fact is coupled with an interest in the subject of the power of attorney.

(2) Reciprocal or interinsurance exchanges and their contracts, subscribers, attorneys-in-fact, agents, and representatives.

(3) A proxy given by an attorney-in-fact to another person to exercise voting rights.

(c) This division is not intended to affect the validity of any instrument or arrangement that is not described in subdivision (a).

4051. Except where this division provides a specific rule, the general law of agency, including Article 2 (commencing with Section 2019) of Chapter 2 of Title 6 of, and Title 9 (commencing with Section 2295) of, Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, applies to powers of attorney.

4052. (a) If a power of attorney provides that the Power of Attorney Law of this state governs the power of attorney or otherwise indicates the principal's intention that the Power of Attorney Law of this state governs the power of attorney, this division governs the power of attorney and applies to acts and transactions of the attorney-in-fact in this state or outside this state where any of the following conditions is satisfied:

(1) The principal or attorney-in-fact was domiciled in this state when the principal executed the power of attorney.

(2) The authority conferred on the attorney-in-fact relates to property, acts, or transactions in this state.

(3) The acts or transactions of the attorney-in-fact occurred or were intended to occur in this state.

(4) The principal executed the power of attorney in this state.

(5) There is otherwise a reasonable relationship between this state and the subject matter of the power of attorney.

(b) If subdivision (a) does not apply to the power of attorney, this division governs the power of attorney and applies to the acts and transactions of the attorney-in-fact in this state where either of the following conditions is satisfied:

(1) The principal was domiciled in this state when the principal executed the power of attorney.

(2) The principal executed the power of attorney in this state.

(c) A power of attorney described in this section remains subject to this division despite a change in domicile of the principal or the attorney-in-fact, or the removal from this state of property that was the subject of the power of attorney.

4053. A durable power of attorney executed in another state or jurisdiction in compliance with the law of that state or jurisdiction or the law of this state is valid and enforceable in this state to the same extent as a durable power of attorney executed in this state, regardless of whether the principal is a domiciliary of this state.

4054. Except as otherwise provided by statute:

(a) On and after January 1, 1995, this division applies to all powers of attorney regardless of whether they were executed before, on, or after January 1, 1995.

(b) This division applies to all proceedings concerning powers of attorney commenced on or after January 1, 1995.

(c) This division applies to all proceedings concerning powers of attorney commenced before January 1, 1995, unless the court determines that application of a particular provision of this division would substantially interfere with the effective conduct of the proceedings or the rights of the parties and other interested persons, in which case the particular provision of this division does not apply and prior law applies.

PART 2. POWERS OF ATTORNEY GENERALLY

CHAPTER 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

4100. This part applies to all powers of attorney under this division, subject to any special rules applicable to statutory form powers of attorney under Part 3 (commencing with Section 4400) or durable powers of attorney for health care under Part 4 (commencing with Section 4600).

4101. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), the principal may limit the application of any provision of this division by an express statement in the power of attorney or by providing an inconsistent rule in the power of attorney.

(b) A power of attorney may not limit either the application of a statute specifically providing that it is not subject to limitation in the power of attorney or a statute concerning any of the following:

(1) Warnings or notices required to be included in a power of attorney.

(2) Operative dates of statutory enactments or amendments.

(3) Execution formalities.

(4) Qualifications of witnesses.

(5) Qualifications of attorneys-in-fact.

(6) Protection of third persons from liability.

4102. Notwithstanding Section 4128:

(a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), on and after January 1, 1995, a printed form of a durable power of attorney may be sold or otherwise distributed if it satisfies the requirements of former Section 2510.5 of the Civil Code.

(b) A printed form of a durable power of attorney printed on or after January 1, 1986, that is sold or otherwise distributed in this state for use by a person who does not have the advice of legal counsel shall comply with former Section 2510 of the Civil Code or with Section 4128 of this code.

(c) A durable power of attorney executed on or after January 1, 1995, using a printed form that complies with subdivision (b) of former Section 2400 of the Civil Code, as enacted by Chapter 511 of the Statutes of 1981, or with former Section 2510 of the Civil Code, is as valid as if it had been executed using a printed form that complies with Section 4128 of this code.

CHAPTER 2. CREATION AND EFFECT OF POWERS OF ATTORNEY

4120. A natural person having the capacity to contract may execute a power of attorney.

4121. A power of attorney is legally sufficient if all of the following requirements are satisfied:

(a) The power of attorney contains the date of its execution.

(b) The power of attorney is signed either (1) by the principal or (2) in the principal's name by some other person in the principal's presence and at the principal's direction.

(c) The power of attorney is either (1) acknowledged before a notary public or (2) signed by at least two witnesses who satisfy the requirements of Section 4122.

4122. If the power of attorney is signed by witnesses, as provided in Section 4121, the following requirements shall be satisfied:

(a) The witnesses shall be adults.

(b) The attorney-in-fact may not act as a witness.

(c) Each witness signing the power of attorney shall witness either the signing of the instrument by the principal or the principal's acknowledgment of the signature or the power of attorney.

(d) In the case of a durable power of attorney for health care, the additional requirements of Section 4701.

4123. (a) In a power of attorney, a principal may grant authority to an attorney-in-fact to act on the principal's behalf with respect to all lawful subjects and purposes or with respect to one or more express subjects or purposes. The attorney-in-fact may be granted authority with regard to the principal's property, personal care, health care, or any other matter.

(b) With regard to property matters, a power of attorney may grant authority to make decisions concerning all or part of the principal's real and personal property, whether owned by the principal at the time of the execution of the power of attorney or thereafter acquired or whether located in this state or elsewhere, without the need for a description of each item or parcel of property.

(c) With regard to personal care, a power of attorney may grant authority to make decisions relating to the personal care of the principal, including, but not limited to, determining where the principal will live, providing meals, hiring household employees, providing transportation, handling mail, and arranging recreation and entertainment.

(d) With regard to health care, a power of attorney may grant authority to make health care decisions, both before and after the death of the principal, as provided in Part 4 (commencing with Section 4600).

4124. A durable power of attorney is a power of attorney by which a principal designates another person as attorney-in-fact in writing and the power of attorney contains any of the following statements:

(a) "This power of attorney shall not be affected by subsequent incapacity of the principal."

(b) "This power of attorney shall become effective upon the incapacity of the principal."

(c) Similar words showing the intent of the principal that the authority conferred shall be exercisable notwithstanding the principal's subsequent incapacity.

4125. All acts done by an attorney-in-fact pursuant to a durable power of attorney during any period of incapacity of the principal have the same effect and inure to the benefit of and bind the principal and the principal's successors in interest as if the principal had capacity.

4126. (a) A principal may nominate, by a durable power of attorney, a conservator of the person or estate or both, or a guardian of the person or estate or both, for consideration by the court if protective proceedings for the principal's person or estate are thereafter commenced.

(b) If the protective proceedings are conservatorship proceedings in this state, the nomination has the effect provided in Section 1810 and the court shall give effect to the most recent writing executed in accordance with Section 1810, whether or not the writing is a durable power of attorney.

4127. Unless a power of attorney states a time of termination, the authority of the attorney-in-fact is exercisable notwithstanding any lapse of time since execution of the power of attorney.

4128. (a) Subject to subdivision (b), a printed form of a durable power of attorney that is sold or otherwise distributed in this state for use by a person who does not have the advice of legal counsel shall contain, in not less than 10-point boldface type or a reasonable equivalent thereof, the following warning statement:

Notice to Person Executing Durable Power of Attorney

A durable power of attorney is an important legal document. By signing the durable power of attorney, you are authorizing another person to act for you, the principal. Before you sign this durable power of attorney, you should know these important facts:

Your agent (attorney-in-fact) has no duty to act unless you and your agent agree otherwise in writing.

This document gives your agent the powers to manage, dispose of, sell, and convey your real and personal property, and to use your property as security if your agent borrows money on your behalf.

Your agent will have the right to receive reasonable payment for services provided under this durable power of attorney unless you provide otherwise in this power of attorney.

The powers you give your agent will continue to exist for your entire lifetime, unless you state that the durable power of attorney will last for a shorter period of time or unless you otherwise terminate the durable power of attorney. The powers you give your agent in this durable power of attorney will continue to exist even if you can no longer make your own decisions respecting the management of your property.

You can amend or change this durable power of attorney only by executing a new durable power of attorney or by executing an amendment through the same formalities as an original. You have the right to revoke or terminate this durable power of attorney at any time, so long as you are competent.

This durable power of attorney must be dated and must be acknowledged before a notary public or signed by two witnesses. If it is signed by two witnesses, they must witness either (1) the signing of the power of attorney or (2) the principal's signing or acknowledgment of his or her signature. A durable power of attorney that may affect real property should be acknowledged before a notary public so that it may easily be recorded.

You should read this durable power of attorney carefully. When effective, this durable power of attorney will give your agent the right to deal with property that you now have or might acquire in the future. The durable power of attorney is important to you. If you do not understand the durable power of attorney, or any provision of it, then you should obtain the assistance of an attorney or other qualified person.

(b) Nothing in subdivision (a) invalidates any transaction in which a third person relied in good faith on the authority created by the durable power of attorney.

(c) This section does not apply to the following:

(1) A statutory form power of attorney under Part 3 (commencing with Section 4400).

(2) A durable power of attorney for health care under Part 4 (commencing with Section 4600).

4129. (a) In a springing power of attorney, the principal may designate one or more persons who, by a written declaration under penalty of perjury, have the power to determine conclusively that the specified event or contingency has occurred. The principal may designate the attorney-in-fact or another person to perform this function, either alone or jointly with other persons.

(c) This section applies to a power of attorney whether executed before, on, or after January 1, 1991, if the power of attorney contains the designation described in subdivision (a).

(d) This section does not provide the exclusive method by which a power of attorney may be limited to take effect on the occurrence of a specified event or contingency.

4130. (a) If a principal grants inconsistent authority to one or more attorneys-in-fact in two or more powers of attorney, the authority granted last controls to the extent of the inconsistency.

(b) This section is not subject to limitation in the power of attorney.

CHAPTER 3. MODIFICATION AND REVOCATION OF POWERS OF ATTORNEY

4150. (a) A principal may modify a power of attorney as follows:

(1) In accordance with the terms of the power of attorney.

(2) By an instrument executed in the same manner as a power of attorney may be executed.

(b) An attorney-in-fact or third person who does not have notice of the modification is protected from liability as provided in Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 4300).

4151. (a) A principal may revoke a power of attorney as follows:

(1) In accordance with the terms of the power of attorney.

(2) By a writing. This paragraph is not subject to limitation in the power of attorney.

(b) An attorney-in-fact or third person who does not have notice of the revocation is protected from liability as provided in Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 4300).

4152. (a) Subject to subdivision (b), the authority of an attorney-in-fact under a power of attorney is terminated by any of the following events:

(1) In accordance with the terms of the power of attorney.

(2) Extinction of the subject or fulfillment of the purpose of the power of attorney.

(3) Revocation of the attorney-in-fact's authority, as provided in Section 4153.

(4) Death of the principal, except as to specific authority permitted by statute to be exercised after the principal's death.

(5) Removal of the attorney-in-fact.

(6) Resignation of the attorney-in-fact.

(7) Incapacity of the attorney-in-fact, except that a temporary incapacity suspends the attorney-in-fact's authority only during the period of the incapacity.

(8) Dissolution or annulment of the marriage of the attorney-in-fact and principal, as provided in Section 4154.

(9) Death of the attorney-in-fact.

(b) An attorney-in-fact or third person who does not have notice of an event that terminates the power of attorney or the authority of an attorney-in-fact is protected from liability as provided in Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 4300).

4153. (a) The authority of an attorney-in-fact under a power of attorney may be revoked as follows:

(1) In accordance with the terms of the power of attorney.

(2) Where the principal informs the attorney-in-fact orally or in writing that the attorney-in-fact's authority is revoked or when and under what circumstances it is revoked. This paragraph is not subject to limitation in the power of attorney.

(3) Where the principal's legal representative, with approval of the court as provided in Section 4206, informs the attorney-in-fact in writing that the attorney-in-fact's authority is revoked or when and under what circumstances it is revoked. This paragraph is not subject to limitation in the power of attorney.

(b) An attorney-in-fact or third person who does not have notice of the revocation is protected from liability as provided in Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 4300).

4154. (a) If after executing a power of attorney the principal's marriage to the attorney-in-fact is dissolved or annulled, the principal's designation of the former spouse as an attorney-in-fact is revoked.

(b) If the attorney-in-fact's authority is revoked solely by subdivision (a), it is revived by the principal's remarriage to the attorney-in-fact.

4155. (a) Subject to subdivision (b), the authority of an attorney-in-fact under a nondurable power of attorney is terminated by the incapacity of the principal to contract.

(b) An attorney-in-fact or third person who does not have notice of the incapacity of the principal is protected from liability as provided in Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 4300).

(c) This section is not subject to limitation in the power of attorney.

CHAPTER 4. ATTORNEYS-IN-FACT

Article 1. Qualifications and Authority of Attorneys-in-Fact 4200. Only a person having the capacity to contract is qualified to act as an attorney-in-fact.

4201. Designating an unqualified person as an attorney-in-fact does not affect the immunities of third persons nor relieve the unqualified person of any applicable duties to the principal or the principal's successors.

4202. (a) A principal may designate more than one attorney-in-fact in one or more powers of attorney.

(b) Authority granted to two or more attorneys-in-fact is exercisable only by their unanimous action.

(c) If a vacancy occurs, the remaining attorneys-in-fact may exercise the authority conferred as if they are the only attorneys-in-fact.

(d) If an attorney-in-fact is unavailable because of absence, illness, or other temporary incapacity, the other attorneys-in-fact may exercise the authority under the power of attorney as if they are the only attorneys-in-fact, where necessary to accomplish the purposes of the power of attorney or to avoid irreparable injury to the principal's interests.

(e) An attorney-in-fact is not liable for the actions of other attorneys-in-fact, unless the attorney-in-fact participates in, knowingly acquiesces in, or conceals a breach of fiduciary duty committed by another attorney-in-fact.

4203. (a) A principal may designate one or more successor attorneys-in-fact to act if the authority of a predecessor attorney-in-fact terminates.

(b) The principal may grant authority to another person, designated by name, by office, or by function, including the initial and any successor attorneys-in-fact, to designate at any time one or more successor attorneys-in-fact. This subdivision does not apply to a durable power of attorney for health care under Part 4 (commencing with Section 4600).

(c) A successor attorney-in-fact is not liable for the actions of the predecessor attorney-in-fact.

4204. An attorney-in-fact is entitled to reasonable compensation for services rendered to the principal as attorney-in-fact and to reimbursement for reasonable expenses incurred as a result of acting as attorney-in-fact.

4205. (a) An attorney-in-fact may revocably delegate authority to perform mechanical acts to one or more persons qualified to exercise the authority delegated.

(b) The attorney-in-fact making a delegation remains responsible to the principal for the exercise or nonexercise of the delegated authority.

4206. (a) If, following execution of a durable power of attorney, a court of the principal's domicile appoints a conservator of the estate, guardian of the estate, or other fiduciary charged with the management of all of the principal's property or all of the principal's property except specified exclusions, the attorney-in-fact is accountable to the fiduciary as well as to the principal. Except as provided in subdivision (b), the fiduciary has the same power to revoke or amend the durable power of attorney that the principal would have had if not incapacitated, subject to any required court approval.

(b) If a conservator of the estate is appointed by a court of this state, the conservator can revoke or amend the durable power of attorney only if the court in which the conservatorship proceeding is pending has first made an order authorizing or requiring the fiduciary to modify or revoke the durable power of attorney and the modification or revocation is in accord with the order.

(c) This section does not apply to a durable power of attorney for health care.

(d) This section is not subject to limitation in the power of attorney.

4207. (a) An attorney-in-fact may resign by any of the following means:

(1) If the principal is competent, by giving notice to the principal.

(2) If a conservator has been appointed, by giving notice to the conservator.

(3) On written agreement of a successor who is designated in the power of attorney or pursuant to the terms of the power of attorney to serve as attorney-in-fact.

(4) Pursuant to a court order.

(b) This section is not subject to limitation in the power of attorney.

Article 2. Duties of Attorneys-in-Fact

4230. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c), a person who is designated as an attorney-in-fact has no duty to exercise the authority granted in the power of attorney and is not subject to the other duties of an attorney-in-fact, regardless of whether the principal has become incapacitated, is missing, or is otherwise unable to act.

(b) Acting for the principal in one or more transactions does not obligate an attorney-in-fact to act for the principal in a subsequent transaction, but the attorney-in-fact has a duty to complete a transaction that the attorney-in-fact has commenced.

(c) If an attorney-in-fact has expressly agreed in writing to act for the principal, the attorney-in-fact has a duty to act pursuant to the terms of the agreement. The agreement to act on behalf of the principal is enforceable against the attorney-in-fact as a fiduciary regardless of whether there is any consideration to support a contractual obligation.

4231. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c), in dealing with property of the principal, an attorney-in-fact shall observe the standard of care that would be observed by a prudent person dealing with property of another and is not limited by any other statute restricting investments by fiduciaries.

(b) If an attorney-in-fact is not compensated, the attorney-in-fact is not liable for a loss to the principal's property unless the loss results from the attorney-in-fact's bad faith, intentional wrongdoing, or gross negligence.

(c) An attorney-in-fact who has special skills or expertise or was designated as an attorney-in-fact on the basis of representations of special skills or expertise shall observe the standard of care that would be observed by others with similar skills or expertise.

4232. (a) An attorney-in-fact has a duty to act solely in the interest of the principal and to avoid conflicts of interest.

(b) An attorney-in-fact is not in violation of the duty provided in subdivision (a) solely because the attorney-in-fact also benefits from acting for the principal, has conflicting interests in relation to the property, care, or affairs of the principal, or acts in an inconsistent manner regarding the respective interests of the principal and the attorney-in-fact.

4233. (a) The attorney-in-fact shall keep the principal's property separate and distinct from other property in a manner adequate to identify the property clearly as belonging to the principal.

(b) An attorney-in-fact holding property for a principal complies with subdivision (a) if the property is held in the name of the principal or in the name of the attorney-in-fact as attorney-in-fact for the principal.

4234. (a) To the extent reasonably practicable under the circumstances, an attorney-in-fact has a duty to keep in regular contact with the principal, to communicate with the principal, and to follow the instructions of the principal.

(b) With court approval, the attorney-in-fact may disobey instructions of the principal.

4236. (a) The attorney-in-fact shall keep records of all transactions entered into by the attorney-in-fact on behalf of the principal.

(b) The attorney-in-fact does not have a duty to make an account of transactions entered into on behalf of the principal, except in the following circumstances:

(1) At any time requested by the principal.

(2) Where the power of attorney requires the attorney-in-fact to account and specifies to whom the account is to be made.

(3) On request by the conservator of the estate of the principal while the principal is living.

(4) On request by the principal's personal representative or successor in interest after the death of the principal.

(5) Pursuant to court order.

(c) The following persons are entitled to examine and copy the records kept by the attorney-in-fact:

(1) The principal.

(2) The conservator of the estate of the principal while the principal is living.

(3) The principal's personal representative or successor in interest after the death of the principal.

(4) Any other person, pursuant to court order.

(d) This section is not subject to limitation in the power of attorney.

4237. An attorney-in-fact with special skills has a duty to apply the full extent of those skills.

4238. (a) On termination of an attorney-in-fact's authority, the attorney-in-fact shall promptly deliver possession or control of the principal's property as follows:

(1) If the principal is not incapacitated, to the principal or as directed by the principal.

(2) If the principal is incapacitated, to the following persons with the following priority:

(A) To a qualified successor attorney-in-fact.

(B) As to any community property, to the principal's spouse.

(C) To the principal's conservator of the estate or guardian of the estate.

(3) In the case of the death of the principal, to the principal's personal representative, if any, or the principal's successors.

(b) On termination of an attorney-in-fact's authority, the attorney-in-fact shall deliver copies of any records relating to transactions undertaken on the principal's behalf that are requested by the person to whom possession or control of the property is delivered.

(c) Termination of an attorney-in-fact's authority does not relieve the attorney-in-fact of any duty to render an account of actions taken as attorney-in-fact.

(d) The attorney-in-fact has the powers reasonably necessary under the circumstances to perform the duties provided by this section.

Article 3. Authority of Attorneys-in-Fact

4260. This article does not apply to the following:

(a) Statutory form powers of attorney under Part 3 (commencing with Section 4400).

(b) Durable powers of attorney for health care under Part 4 (commencing with Section 4600).

4261. If a power of attorney grants general authority to an attorney-in-fact and is not limited to one or more express actions, subjects, or purposes for which general authority is conferred, the attorney-in-fact has all the authority to act that a person having the capacity to contract may carry out through an attorney-in-fact specifically authorized to take the action.

4262. Subject to this article, if a power of attorney grants limited authority to an attorney-in-fact, the attorney-in-fact has the following authority:

(a) The authority granted in the power of attorney, as limited with respect to permissible actions, subjects, or purposes.

(b) The authority incidental, necessary, or proper to carry out the granted authority.

4263. (a) A power of attorney may grant authority to the attorney-in-fact by incorporating powers by reference to another statute, including, but not limited to, the following:

(1) Powers of attorneys-in-fact provided by the Uniform Statutory Form Power of Attorney Act (Part 3 (commencing with Section 4400)).

(2) Powers of guardians and conservators provided by Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 2350) and Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 2400) of Part 4 of Division 4.

(3) Powers of trustees provided by Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 16200) of Part 4 of Division 9.

(b) Incorporation by reference to another statute includes any amendments made to the incorporated provisions after the date of execution of the power of attorney.

4264. A power of attorney may not be construed to grant authority to an attorney-in-fact to perform any of the following acts unless expressly authorized in the power of attorney:

(a) Create, modify, or revoke a trust.

(b) Fund with the principal's property a trust not created by the principal or a person authorized to create a trust on behalf of the principal.

(c) Make or revoke a gift of the principal's property in trust or otherwise.

(d) Exercise the right to make a disclaimer on behalf of the principal. This subdivision does not limit the attorney-in-fact's authority to disclaim a detrimental transfer to the principal with the approval of the court.

(e) Create or change survivorship interests in the principal's property or in property in which the principal may have an interest.

(f) Designate or change the designation of beneficiaries to receive any property, benefit, or contract right on the principal's death.

(g) Make a loan to the attorney-in-fact.

4265. A power of attorney may not authorize an attorney-in-fact to perform any of the following acts:

(a) Make, publish, declare, amend, or revoke the principal's will.

(b) Consent to any action under a durable power of attorney for health care forbidden by Section 4722.

4266. The grant of authority to an attorney-in-fact, whether by the power of attorney, by statute, or by the court, does not in itself require or permit the exercise of the power. The exercise of authority by an attorney-in-fact is subject to the attorney-in-fact's fiduciary duties.

CHAPTER 5. RELATIONS WITH THIRD PERSONS

4300. A third person shall accord an attorney-in-fact acting pursuant to the provisions of a power of attorney the same rights and privileges that would be accorded the principal if the principal were personally present and seeking to act. However, a third person is not required to honor the attorney-in-fact's authority or conduct business with the attorney-in-fact if the principal cannot require the third person to act or conduct business in the same circumstances.

4301. A third person may rely on, contract with, and deal with an attorney-in-fact with respect to the subjects and purposes encompassed or expressed in the power of attorney without regard to whether the power of attorney expressly authorizes the specific act, transaction, or decision by the attorney-in-fact.

4302. When requested to engage in transactions with an attorney-in-fact, a third person, before incurring any duty to comply with the power of attorney, may require the attorney-in-fact to provide identification, specimens of the signatures of the principal and the attorney-in-fact, and any other information reasonably necessary or appropriate to identify the principal and the attorney-in-fact and to facilitate the actions of the third person in transacting business with the attorney-in-fact. A third person may require an attorney-in-fact to provide the current and permanent residence addresses of the principal before agreeing to engage in a transaction with the attorney-in-fact.

4303. (a) A third person who acts in good faith reliance on a power of attorney is not liable to the principal or to any other person for so acting if all of the following requirements are satisfied:

(1) The power of attorney is presented to the third person by the attorney-in-fact designated in the power of attorney.

(2) The power of attorney appears on its face to be valid.

(3) The power of attorney includes a notary public's certificate of acknowledgment or is signed by two witnesses.

(b) Nothing in this section is intended to create an implication that a third person is liable for acting in reliance on a power of attorney under circumstances where the requirements of subdivision (a) are not satisfied. Nothing in this section affects any immunity that may otherwise exist apart from this section.

4304. (a) The death of a principal who has executed a power of attorney, whether durable or nondurable, does not revoke or terminate the agency as to the attorney-in-fact or a third person who, without actual knowledge of the principal's death, acts in good faith under the power of attorney. Any action so taken, unless otherwise invalid or unenforceable, binds the principal's successors in interest.

(b) The incapacity of a principal who has previously executed a nondurable power of attorney does not revoke or terminate the agency as to the attorney-in-fact or a third person who, without actual knowledge of the incapacity of the principal, acts in good faith under the power of attorney. Any action so taken, unless otherwise invalid or unenforceable, binds the principal and the principal's successors in interest.

4305. (a) As to acts undertaken in good faith reliance thereon, an affidavit executed by the attorney-in-fact under a power of attorney, whether durable or nondurable, stating that, at the time of the exercise of the power, the attorney-in-fact did not have actual knowledge of the termination of the power of attorney or the attorney-in-fact's authority by revocation or of the principal's death or incapacity is conclusive proof of the nonrevocation or nontermination of the power at that time. If the exercise of the power of attorney requires execution and delivery of any instrument that is recordable, the affidavit when authenticated for record is likewise recordable.

(b) This section does not affect any provision in a power of attorney for its termination by expiration of time or occurrence of an event other than express revocation or a change in the principal's capacity.

4306. (a) If an attorney-in-fact furnishes an affidavit pursuant to Section 4305, whether voluntarily or on demand, a third person dealing with the attorney-in-fact who refuses to accept the exercise of the attorney-in-fact's authority referred to in the affidavit is liable for attorney's fees incurred in an action or proceeding necessary to confirm the attorney-in-fact's qualifications or authority, unless the court determines that the third person believed in good faith that the attorney-in-fact was not qualified or was attempting to exceed or improperly exercise the attorney-in-fact's authority.

(b) The failure of a third person to demand an affidavit pursuant to Section 4305 does not affect the protection provided the third person by this chapter, and no inference as to whether a third person has acted in good faith may be drawn from the failure to demand an affidavit from the attorney-in-fact.

4307. (a) A copy of a power of attorney certified under this section has the same force and effect as the original power of attorney.

(b) A copy of a power of attorney may be certified by any of the following:

(1) An attorney authorized to practice law in this state.

(2) A notary public in this state.

(3) An official of a state or of a political subdivision who is authorized to make certifications.

(c) The certification shall state that the certifying person has examined the original power of attorney and the copy and that the copy is a true and correct copy of the original power of attorney.

(d) Nothing in this section is intended to create an implication that a third person may be liable for acting on good faith reliance on a copy of a power of attorney that has not been certified under this section.

4308. (a) A third person who conducts activities through employees is not charged under this chapter with actual knowledge of any fact relating to a power of attorney, nor of a change in the authority of an attorney-in-fact, unless both of the following requirements are satisfied:

(1) The information is received at a home office or a place where there is an employee with responsibility to act on the information.

(2) The employee has a reasonable time in which to act on the information using the procedure and facilities that are available to the third person in the regular course of its operations.

(b) Knowledge of an employee in one branch or office of an entity that conducts business through branches or multiple offices is not attributable to an employee in another branch or office.

4309. Nothing in this chapter requires a third person to engage in any transaction with an attorney-in-fact if the attorney-in-fact has previously breached any agreement with the third person.

4402. A statutory form power of attorney under this part is legally sufficient if all of the following requirements are satisfied:

(a) The wording of the form complies substantially with Section 4401. A form does not fail to comply substantially with Section 4401 merely because the form does not include the provisions of Section 4401 relating to designation of co-agent. A form does not fail to comply substantially with Section 4401 merely because the form uses the sentence "Revocation of the power of attorney is not effective as to a third party until the third party learns of the revocation" in place of the sentence "Revocation of the power of attorney is not effective as to a third party until the third party has actual knowledge of the revocation," in which case the form shall be interpreted as if it contained the sentence "Revocation of the power of attorney is not effective as to a third party until the third party has actual knowledge of the revocation."

(b) The form is properly completed.

(c) The signature of the principal is acknowledged.

4403. If the line in front of (N) of the statutory form under Section 4401 is initialed, an initial on the line in front of any other power does not limit the powers granted by line (N).

4404. A statutory form power of attorney legally sufficient under this part is durable to the extent that the power of attorney contains language, such as "This power of attorney will continue to be effective even though I become incapacitated," showing the intent of the principal that the power granted may be exercised notwithstanding later incapacity.

4405. (a) A statutory form power of attorney under this part that limits the power to take effect upon the occurrence of a specified event or contingency, including, but not limited to, the incapacity of the principal, may contain a provision designating one or more persons who, by a written declaration under penalty of perjury, have the power to determine conclusively that the specified event or contingency has occurred.

(b) A statutory form power of attorney that contains the provision described in subdivision (a) becomes effective when the person or persons designated in the power of attorney execute a written declaration under penalty of perjury that the specified event or contingency has occurred, and any person may act in reliance on the written declaration without liability to the principal or to any other person, regardless whether the specified event or contingency has actually occurred.

(c) The provision described in subdivision (a) may be included in the "Special Instructions" portion of the form set forth in Section 4401.

(d) Subdivisions (a) and (b) do not provide the exclusive method by which a statutory form power of attorney under this part may be limited to take effect upon the occurrence of a specified event or contingency.

4406. (a) If a third person to whom a properly executed statutory form power of attorney under this part is presented refuses to honor the agent's authority under the power of attorney within a reasonable time, the third person may be compelled to honor the agent's authority under the power of attorney in an action brought against the third person for this purpose, except that the third person may not be compelled to honor the agent's authority if the principal could not compel the third person to act in the same circumstances.

(b) If an action is brought under this section, the court shall award attorney's fees to the agent if the court finds that the third person acted unreasonably in refusing to accept the agent's authority under the statutory form power of attorney.

(c) For the purpose of subdivision (b), and without limiting any other grounds that may constitute a reasonable refusal to accept an agent's authority under a statutory form power of attorney, a third person shall not be deemed to have acted unreasonably in refusing to accept an agent's authority if the refusal is authorized or required by state or federal statute or regulation.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivision (c), a third person's refusal to accept an agent's authority under a statutory form power of attorney under this part shall be deemed unreasonable if the only reason for the refusal is that the power of attorney is not on a form prescribed by the third person to whom the power of attorney is presented.

(e) The remedy provided in this section is cumulative and nonexclusive.

4407. Unless there is a conflicting provision in this part, in which case the provision of this part governs, the other provisions of this division apply to a statutory form power of attorney.

4408. Nothing in this part affects or limits the use of any other form for a power of attorney. A form that complies with the requirements of any law other than the provisions of this part may be used instead of the form set forth in Section 4401, and none of the provisions of this part apply if the other form is used.

4409. (a) A statutory short form power of attorney executed before, on, or after the repeal of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2450) of Title 9 of Part 4 of the Civil Code by Chapter 986 of the Statutes of 1990, using a form that complied with former Section 2450 of the Civil Code, as originally enacted by Chapter 602 of the Statutes of 1984, or as amended by Chapter 403 of the Statutes of 1985, is as valid as if Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2450) of Title 9 of Part 4 of the Civil Code had not been repealed by, and former Section 2511 of the Civil Code amended by, Chapter 986 of the Statutes of 1990.

(b) A statutory form power of attorney executed before, on, or after the repeal of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 2475) of Title 9 of Part 4 of the Civil Code by the act that enacted this section, using a form that complied with the repealed chapter of the Civil Code is as valid as if that chapter had not been repealed.

CHAPTER 2. CONSTRUCTION OF POWERS

4450. By executing a statutory form power of attorney with respect to a subject listed in Section 4401, the principal, except as limited or extended by the principal in the power of attorney, empowers the agent, for that subject, to do all of the following:

(a) Demand, receive, and obtain by litigation or otherwise, money or other thing of value to which the principal is, may become, or claims to be entitled, and conserve, invest, disburse, or use anything so received for the purposes intended.

(b) Contract in any manner with any person, on terms agreeable to the agent, to accomplish a purpose of a transaction, and perform, rescind, reform, release, or modify the contract or another contract made by or on behalf of the principal.

(c) Execute, acknowledge, seal, and deliver a deed, revocation, mortgage, lease, notice, check, release, or other instrument the agent considers desirable to accomplish a purpose of a transaction.

(d) Prosecute, defend, submit to arbitration, settle, and propose or accept a compromise with respect to, a claim existing in favor of or against the principal or intervene in litigation relating to the claim.

(e) Seek on the principal's behalf the assistance of a court to carry out an act authorized by the power of attorney.

(f) Engage, compensate, and discharge an attorney, accountant, expert witness, or other assistant.

(g) Keep appropriate records of each transaction, including an accounting of receipts and disbursements.

(h) Prepare, execute, and file a record, report, or other document the agent considers desirable to safeguard or promote the principal's interest under a statute or governmental regulation.

(i) Reimburse the agent for expenditures properly made by the agent in exercising the powers granted by the power of attorney.

(j) In general, do any other lawful act with respect to the subject.

4451. In a statutory form power of attorney, the language granting power with respect to real property transactions empowers the agent to do all of the following:

(a) Accept as a gift or as security for a loan, reject, demand, buy, lease, receive, or otherwise acquire, an interest in real property or a right incident to real property.

(b) Sell, exchange, convey with or without covenants, quitclaim, release, surrender, mortgage, encumber, partition, consent to partitioning, subdivide, apply for zoning, rezoning, or other governmental permits, plat or consent to platting, develop, grant options concerning, lease, sublease, or otherwise dispose of, an interest in real property or a right incident to real property.

(c) Release, assign, satisfy, and enforce by litigation or otherwise, a mortgage, deed of trust, encumbrance, lien, or other claim to real property which exists or is asserted.

(d) Do any act of management or of conservation with respect to an interest in real property, or a right incident to real property, owned, or claimed to be owned, by the principal, including all of the following:

(1) Insuring against a casualty, liability, or loss.

(2) Obtaining or regaining possession, or protecting the interest or right, by litigation or otherwise.

(3) Paying, compromising, or contesting taxes or assessments, or applying for and receiving refunds in connection with them.

(4) Purchasing supplies, hiring assistance or labor, and making repairs or alterations in the real property.

(e) Use, develop, alter, replace, remove, erect, or install structures or other improvements upon real property in or incident to which the principal has, or claims to have, an interest or right.

(f) Participate in a reorganization with respect to real property or a legal entity that owns an interest in or right incident to real property and receive and hold shares of stock or obligations received in a plan of reorganization, and act with respect to them, including all of the following:

(1) Selling or otherwise disposing of them.

(2) Exercising or selling an option, conversion, or similar right with respect to them.

(3) Voting them in person or by proxy.

(g) Change the form of title of an interest in or right incident to real property.

4452. In a statutory form power of attorney, the language granting power with respect to tangible personal property transactions empowers the agent to do all of the following:

(a) Accept as a gift or as security for a loan, reject, demand, buy, receive, or otherwise acquire ownership or possession of tangible personal property or an interest in tangible personal property.

(b) Sell, exchange, convey with or without covenants, release, surrender, mortgage, encumber, pledge, hypothecate, create a security interest in, pawn, grant options concerning, lease, sublease to others, or otherwise dispose of tangible personal property or an interest in tangible personal property.

(c) Release, assign, satisfy, or enforce by litigation or otherwise, a mortgage, security interest, encumbrance, lien, or other claim on behalf of the principal, with respect to tangible personal property or an interest in tangible personal property.

(d) Do an act of management or conservation with respect to tangible personal property or an interest in tangible personal property on behalf of the principal, including all of the following:

(1) Insuring against casualty, liability, or loss.

(2) Obtaining or regaining possession, or protecting the property or interest, by litigation or otherwise.

(3) Paying, compromising, or contesting taxes or assessments or applying for and receiving refunds in connection with taxes or assessments.

(4) Moving from place to place.

(5) Storing for hire or on a gratuitous bailment.

(6) Using, altering, and making repairs or alterations.

4453. In a statutory form power of attorney, the language granting power with respect to stock and bond transactions empowers the agent to do all of the following:

(a) Buy, sell, and exchange stocks, bonds, mutual funds, and all other types of securities and financial instruments except commodity futures contracts and call and put options on stocks and stock indexes.

(b) Receive certificates and other evidences of ownership with respect to securities.

(c) Exercise voting rights with respect to securities in person or by proxy, enter into voting trusts, and consent to limitations on the right to vote.

4454. In a statutory form power of attorney, the language granting power with respect to commodity and option transactions empowers the agent to do all of the following:

(a) Buy, sell, exchange, assign, settle, and exercise commodity futures contracts and call and put options on stocks and stock indexes traded on a regulated option exchange.

(b) Establish, continue, modify, and terminate option accounts with a broker.

4455. In a statutory form power of attorney, the language granting power with respect to banking and other financial institution transactions empowers the agent to do all of the following:

(a) Continue, modify, and terminate an account or other banking arrangement made by or on behalf of the principal.

(b) Establish, modify, and terminate an account or other banking arrangement with a bank, trust company, savings and loan association, credit union, thrift company, industrial loan company, brokerage firm, or other financial institution selected by the agent.

(c) Hire or close a safe deposit box or space in a vault.

(d) Contract to procure other services available from a financial institution as the agent considers desirable.

(e) Withdraw by check, order, or otherwise money or property of the principal deposited with or left in the custody of a financial institution.

(f) Receive bank statements, vouchers, notices, and similar documents from a financial institution and act with respect to them.

(g) Enter a safe deposit box or vault and withdraw or add to the contents.

(h) Borrow money at an interest rate agreeable to the agent and pledge as security personal property of the principal necessary in order to borrow, pay, renew, or extend the time of payment of a debt of the principal.

(i) Make, assign, draw, endorse, discount, guarantee, and negotiate promissory notes, checks, drafts, and other negotiable or nonnegotiable paper of the principal, or payable to the principal or the principal's order, receive the cash or other proceeds of those transactions, and accept a draft drawn by a person upon the principal and pay it when due.

(j) Receive for the principal and act upon a sight draft, warehouse receipt, or other negotiable or nonnegotiable instrument.

(k) Apply for and receive letters of credit, credit cards, and traveler's checks from a financial institution, and give an indemnity or other agreement in connection with letters of credit.

(l) Consent to an extension of the time of payment with respect to commercial paper or a financial transaction with a financial institution.

4456. In a statutory form power of attorney, the language granting power with respect to business operating transactions empowers the agent to do all of the following:

(a) Operate, buy, sell, enlarge, reduce, and terminate a business interest.

(b) To the extent that an agent is permitted by law to act for a principal and subject to the terms of the partnership agreement:

(1) Perform a duty or discharge a liability and exercise a right, power, privilege, or option that the principal has, may have, or claims to have, under a partnership agreement, whether or not the principal is a partner.

(2) Enforce the terms of a partnership agreement by litigation or otherwise.

(3) Defend, submit to arbitration, settle, or compromise litigation to which the principal is a party because of membership in the partnership.

(c) Exercise in person or by proxy, or enforce by litigation or otherwise, a right, power, privilege, or option the principal has or claims to have as the holder of a bond, share, or other instrument of similar character, and defend, submit to arbitration, settle, or compromise litigation to which the principal is a party because of a bond, share, or similar instrument.

(d) With respect to a business owned solely by the principal:

(1) Continue, modify, renegotiate, extend, and terminate a contract made with an individual or a legal entity, firm, association, or corporation by or on behalf of the principal with respect to the business before execution of the power of attorney.

(2) Determine the policy of the business as to (A) the location of its operation, (B) the nature and extent of its business, (C) the methods of manufacturing, selling, merchandising, financing, accounting, and advertising employed in its operation, (D) the amount and types of insurance carried, and (E) the mode of engaging, compensating, and dealing with its accountants, attorneys, and other agents and employees.

operation of the business.

(4) Demand and receive money due or claimed by the principal or on the principal's behalf in the operation of the business, and control and disburse the money in the operation of the business.

(e) Put additional capital into a business in which the principal has an interest.

(f) Join in a plan of reorganization, consolidation, or merger of the business.

(g) Sell or liquidate a business or part of it at the time and upon the terms the agent considers desirable.

(h) Represent the principal in establishing the value of a business under a buy-out agreement to which the principal is a party.

(i) Prepare, sign, file, and deliver reports, compilations of information, returns, or other papers with respect to a business which are required by a governmental agency or instrumentality or which the agent considers desirable, and make related payments.

(j) Pay, compromise, or contest taxes or assessments and do any other act which the agent considers desirable to protect the principal from illegal or unnecessary taxation, fines, penalties, or assessments with respect to a business, including attempts to recover, in any manner permitted by law, money paid before or after the execution of the power of attorney.

4457. In a statutory form power of attorney, the language granting power with respect to insurance and annuity transactions empowers the agent to do all of the following:

(a) Continue, pay the premium or assessment on, modify, rescind, release, or terminate a contract procured by or on behalf of the principal which insures or provides an annuity to either the principal or another person, whether or not the principal is a beneficiary under the contract.

(b) Procure new, different, and additional contracts of insurance and annuities for the principal and the principal's spouse, children, and other dependents, and select the amount, type of insurance or annuity, and mode of payment.

(c) Pay the premium or assessment on, modify, rescind, release, or terminate a contract of insurance or annuity procured by the agent.

(d) Designate the beneficiary of the contract, but the agent may be named a beneficiary of the contract, or an extension, renewal, or substitute for it, only to the extent the agent was named as a beneficiary under a contract procured by the principal before executing the power of attorney.

(e) Apply for and receive a loan on the security of the contract of insurance or annuity.

(f) Surrender and receive the cash surrender value.

(g) Exercise an election.

(h) Change the manner of paying premiums.

(i) Change or convert the type of insurance contract or annuity as to any insurance contract or annuity with respect to which the principal has or claims to have a power described in this section.

(j) Change the beneficiary of a contract of insurance or annuity, but the agent may not be designated a beneficiary except to the extent permitted by subdivision (d).

(k) Apply for and procure government aid to guarantee or pay premiums of a contract of insurance on the life of the principal.

(l) Collect, sell, assign, hypothecate, borrow upon, or pledge the interest of the principal in a contract of insurance or annuity.

(m) Pay from proceeds or otherwise, compromise or contest, and apply for refunds in connection with, a tax or assessment levied by a taxing authority with respect to a contract of insurance or annuity or its proceeds or liability accruing by reason of the tax or assessment.

4458. In a statutory form power of attorney, the language granting power with respect to estate, trust, and other beneficiary transactions, empowers the agent to act for the principal in all matters that affect a trust, probate estate, guardianship, conservatorship, escrow, custodianship, or other fund from which the principal is, may become, or claims to be entitled, as a beneficiary, to a share or payment, including the power to do all of the following:

(a) Accept, reject, disclaim, receive, receipt for, sell, assign, release, pledge, exchange, or consent to a reduction in or modification of a share in or payment from the fund.

(b) Demand or obtain by litigation or otherwise money or other thing of value to which the principal is, may become, or claims to be entitled by reason of the fund.

(c) Initiate, participate in, and oppose litigation to ascertain the meaning, validity, or effect of a deed, will, declaration of trust, or other instrument or transaction affecting the interest of the principal.

(d) Initiate, participate in, and oppose litigation to remove, substitute, or surcharge a fiduciary.

(e) Conserve, invest, disburse, and use anything received for an authorized purpose.

(f) Transfer an interest of the principal in real property, stocks, bonds, accounts with financial institutions, insurance, and other property, to the trustee of a revocable trust created by the principal as settlor.

4459. In a statutory form power of attorney, the language with respect to claims and litigation empowers the agent to do all of the following:

(a) Assert and prosecute before a court or administrative agency a claim, claim for relief, cause of action, counterclaim, cross-complaint, or offset, and defend against an individual, a legal entity, or government, including suits to recover property or other thing of value, to recover damages sustained by the principal, to eliminate or modify tax liability, or to seek an injunction, specific performance, or other relief.

(b) Bring an action to determine adverse claims, intervene in litigation, and act as amicus curiae.

(c) In connection with litigation:

(1) Procure an attachment, garnishment, libel, order of arrest, or other preliminary, provisional, or intermediate relief and use any available procedure to effect, enforce, or satisfy a judgment, order, or decree.

(2) Perform any lawful act, including acceptance of tender, offer of judgment, admission of facts, submission of a controversy on an agreed statement of facts, consent to examination before trial, and binding the principal in litigation.

(d) Submit to arbitration, settle, and propose or accept a compromise with respect to a claim or litigation.

(e) Waive the issuance and service of process upon the principal, accept service of process, appear for the principal, designate persons upon whom process directed to the principal may be served, execute and file or deliver stipulations on the principal's behalf, verify pleadings, seek appellate review, procure and give surety and indemnity bonds, contract and pay for the preparation and printing of records and briefs, receive and execute and file or deliver a consent, waiver, release, confession of judgment, satisfaction of judgment, notice, agreement, or other instrument in connection with the prosecution, settlement, or defense of a claim or litigation.

(f) Act for the principal with respect to bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings, whether voluntary or involuntary, concerning the principal or some other person, or with respect to a reorganization proceeding, or with respect to an assignment for the benefit of creditors, receivership, or application for the appointment of a receiver or trustee which affects an interest of the principal in property or other thing of value.

(g) Pay a judgment against the principal or a settlement made in connection with litigation and receive and conserve money or other thing of value paid in settlement of or as proceeds of a claim or litigation.

4460. In a statutory form power of attorney, the language granting power with respect to personal and family maintenance empowers the agent to do all of the following:

(a) Do the acts necessary to maintain the customary standard of living of the principal, the principal's spouse, children, and other individuals customarily or legally entitled to be supported by the principal, including providing living quarters by purchase, lease, or other contract, or paying the operating costs, including interest, amortization payments, repairs, and taxes on premises owned by the principal and occupied by those individuals.

(b) Provide for the individuals described in subdivision (a) all of the following:

(1) Normal domestic help.

(2) Usual vacations and travel expenses.

(3) Funds for shelter, clothing, food, appropriate education, and other current living costs.

(c) Pay for the individuals described in subdivision (a) necessary medical, dental, and surgical care, hospitalization, and custodial care.

(d) Continue any provision made by the principal, for the individuals described in subdivision (a), for automobiles or other means of transportation, including registering, licensing, insuring, and replacing them.

(e) Maintain or open charge accounts for the convenience of the individuals described in subdivision (a) and open new accounts the agent considers desirable to accomplish a lawful purpose.

(f) Continue payments incidental to the membership or affiliation of the principal in a church, club, society, order, or other organization and continue contributions to those organizations.

4461. In a statutory form power of attorney, the language granting power with respect to benefits from social security, medicare, medicaid, or other governmental programs, or civil or military service, empowers the agent to do all of the following:

(a) Execute vouchers in the name of the principal for allowances and reimbursements payable by the United States or a foreign government or by a state or subdivision of a state to the principal, including allowances and reimbursements for transportation of the individuals described in subdivision (a) of Section 4460, and for shipment of their household effects.

(b) Take possession and order the removal and shipment of property of the principal from a post, warehouse, depot, dock, or other place of storage or safekeeping, either governmental or private, and execute and deliver a release, voucher, receipt, bill of lading, shipping ticket, certificate, or other instrument for that purpose.

(c) Prepare, file, and prosecute a claim of the principal to a benefit or assistance, financial or otherwise, to which the principal claims to be entitled, under a statute or governmental regulation.

(d) Prosecute, defend, submit to arbitration, settle, and propose or accept a compromise with respect to any benefits the principal may be entitled to receive.

(e) Receive the financial proceeds of a claim of the type described in this section, conserve, invest, disburse, or use anything received for a lawful purpose.

4462. In a statutory form power of attorney, the language granting power with respect to retirement plan transactions empowers the agent to do all of the following:

(a) Select payment options under any retirement plan in which the principal participates, including plans for self-employed individuals.

(b) Designate beneficiaries under those plans and change existing designations.

(c) Make voluntary contributions to those plans.

(d) Exercise the investment powers available under any self-directed retirement plan.

(e) Make rollovers of plan benefits into other retirement plans.

(f) If authorized by the plan, borrow from, sell assets to, and purchase assets from the plan.

(g) Waive the right of the principal to be a beneficiary of a joint or survivor annuity if the principal is a spouse who is not employed.

4463. In a statutory form power of attorney, the language granting power with respect to tax matters empowers the agent to do all of the following:

(a) Prepare, sign, and file federal, state, local, and foreign income, gift, payroll, Federal Insurance Contributions Act returns, and other tax returns, claims for refunds, requests for extension of time, petitions regarding tax matters, and any other tax-related documents, including receipts, offers, waivers, consents (including consents and agreements under Internal Revenue Code Section 2032A or any successor section), closing agreements, and any power of attorney required by the Internal Revenue Service or other taxing authority with respect to a tax year upon which the statute of limitations has not run and to the tax year in which the power of attorney was executed and any subsequent tax year.

(b) Pay taxes due, collect refunds, post bonds, receive confidential information, and contest deficiencies determined by the Internal Revenue Service or other taxing authority.

(c) Exercise any election available to the principal under federal, state, local, or foreign tax law.

(d) Act for the principal in all tax matters for all periods before the Internal Revenue Service and any other taxing authority.

4464. The powers described in this chapter are exercisable equally with respect to an interest the principal has when the statutory form power of attorney is executed or acquires later, whether or not the property is located in this state, and whether or not the powers are exercised or the power of attorney is executed in this state.

4465. A statutory form power of attorney under this part does not empower the agent to modify or revoke a trust created by the principal unless that power is expressly granted by the power of attorney. If a statutory form power of attorney under this part empowers the agent to modify or revoke a trust created by the principal, the trust may only be modified or revoked by the agent as provided in the trust instrument.

PART 4. DURABLE POWERS OF ATTORNEY FOR HEALTH CARE

CHAPTER 1. DEFINITIONS AND GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1. Definitions

4600. Unless the provision or context otherwise requires, the definitions in this article govern the construction of this part.

4603. "Community care facility" means a community care facility as defined in Section 1502 of the Health and Safety Code.

4606. "Durable power of attorney for health care" means a durable power of attorney to the extent that it authorizes an attorney-in-fact to make health care decisions for the principal.

4609. "Health care" means any care, treatment, service, or procedure to maintain, diagnose, or treat an individual's physical or mental condition and includes decisions affecting the principal after death.

4612. "Health care decision" means consent, refusal of consent, or withdrawal of consent to health care, or a decision to begin, continue, increase, limit, discontinue, or not to begin any health care.

4615. "Health care provider" means a person who is licensed, certified, or otherwise authorized or permitted by the law of this state to administer health care in the ordinary course of business or practice of a profession.

4618. "Residential care facility for the elderly" means a residential care facility for the elderly as defined in Section 1569.2 of the Health and Safety Code.

4621. "Statutory form durable power of attorney for health care" means a durable power of attorney for health care that satisfies the requirements of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 4770).

Article 2. General Provisions

4650. (a) A durable power of attorney executed on or after January 1, 1984, is effective to authorize the attorney-in-fact to make health care decisions for the principal only if the durable power of attorney complies with this chapter.

(b) A durable power of attorney executed before January 1, 1984, that specifically authorizes the attorney-in-fact to make decisions relating to the medical or health care of the principal shall be deemed to be valid under this chapter after January 1, 1984, notwithstanding that it fails to comply with subdivision (a) or (c) of Section 4121 or subdivision (a) of Section 4704; but, to the extent that the durable power of attorney authorizes the attorney-in-fact to make health care decisions for the principal, the durable power of attorney is subject to all the provisions of this chapter and to Part 5 (commencing with Section 4900).

(c) Nothing in this chapter affects the validity of a decision made under a durable power of attorney before January 1, 1984.

4651. (a) Notwithstanding Section 4703, on and after January 1, 1986, a printed form of a durable power of attorney for health care may be sold or otherwise distributed if it complies with former Section 2433 of the Civil Code as amended by Section 5 of Chapter 312 of the Statutes of 1984, or with former Section 2433 of the Civil Code as in effect at the time of sale or distribution. However, any printed form of a durable power of attorney for health care printed on or after January 1, 1986, that is sold or otherwise distributed in this state for use by a person who does not have the advice of legal counsel shall comply with former Section 2433 of the Civil Code or Section 4703 of this code in effect at the time of printing.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 4700, a printed form of a durable power of attorney for health care may be sold or otherwise distributed if it complies with former Section 2432 of the Civil Code as enacted by Section 10 of Chapter 1204 of the Statutes of 1983 or as subsequently amended, or with Section 4700 of this code. However, any printed form of a durable power of attorney for health care printed on or after January 1, 1986, shall comply with the requirements of former Section 2432 of the Civil Code or Section 4700 of this code in effect at the time of printing.

(c) A durable power of attorney for health care executed on or after January 1, 1986, is not invalid if it complies with former Section 2432 of the Civil Code as originally enacted or as subsequently amended. A durable power of attorney for health care executed on or after January 1, 1986, using a printed form that complied with former Section 2433 of the Civil Code, as amended by Section 5 of Chapter 312 of the Statutes of 1984, is as valid as if it had been executed using a printed form that complied with former Section 2433 of the Civil Code as thereafter amended or with Section 4703 of this code.

4652. (a) Subject to Section 4720, nothing in this part affects any right a person may have to make health care decisions on behalf of another.

(b) This part does not affect the law governing health care treatment in an emergency.

4654. (a) This section applies only to a durable power of attorney for health care that satisfies one of the following requirements:

(1) The power of attorney was executed after January 1, 1984, but before January 1, 1992.

(2) The power of attorney was executed on or after January 1, 1992, and contains a warning statement that refers to a seven-year limit on its duration.

(b) Unless a shorter period is provided in the durable power of attorney for health care, a durable power of attorney for health care described in subdivision (a) expires seven years after the date of its execution unless at the end of the seven-year period the principal lacks the capacity to make health care decisions for himself or herself, in which case the durable power of attorney for health care continues in effect until the time when the principal regains the capacity to make health care decisions for himself or herself.

CHAPTER 2. DURABLE POWERS OF ATTORNEY FOR HEALTH CARE

Article 1. Creation and Effect of Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care

4700. An attorney-in-fact under a durable power of attorney may not make health care decisions unless the durable power of attorney satisfies all of the following requirements:

(a) The power of attorney specifically grants authority to the attorney-in-fact to make health care decisions.

(b) The power of attorney is executed as provided in Section 4121.

(c) The power of attorney satisfies the requirements of this article.

4701. If the durable power of attorney for health care is signed by witnesses, as provided in Section 4121, in addition to the requirements applicable to witnesses under Section 4122, the following requirements shall be satisfied:

(a) None of the following persons may act as a witness:

(1) The principal's health care provider or an employee of the principal's health care provider.

(2) The operator or an employee of a community care facility.

(3) The operator or an employee of a residential care facility for the elderly.

(b) Each witness shall make the following declaration in substance:

"I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of California that the person who signed or acknowledged this document is personally known to me to be the principal, or that the identity of the principal was proved to me by convincing evidence, that the principal signed or acknowledged this durable power of attorney in my presence, that the principal appears to be of sound mind and under no duress, fraud, or undue influence, that I am not the person appointed as attorney-in-fact by this document, and that I am not the principal's health care provider, an employee of the principal's health care provider, the operator of a community care facility, an employee of an operator of a community care facility, the operator of a residential care facility for the elderly, nor an employee of an operator of a residential care facility for the elderly."

(c) At least one of the witnesses shall be a person who is not one of the following:

(1) A relative of the principal by blood, marriage, or adoption.

(2) A person who would be entitled to any portion of the principal's estate upon the principal's death under a will existing at the time of execution of the durable power of attorney for health care or by operation of law then existing.

(d) The witness satisfying the requirement of subdivision (c) shall also sign the following declaration in substance:

"I further declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of California that I am not related to the principal by blood, marriage, or adoption, and, to the best of my knowledge, I am not entitled to any part of the principal's estate upon the principal's death under a will now existing or by operation of law."

(e) If the principal is a patient in a skilled nursing facility, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code, at the time the durable power of attorney for health care is executed, the power of attorney is not effective unless one of the witnesses is a patient advocate or ombudsman as may be designated by the Department of Aging for this purpose pursuant to any other applicable provision of law. The patient advocate or ombudsman shall declare that he or she is serving as a witness as required by this subdivision. It is the intent of this subdivision to recognize that some patients in skilled nursing facilities are insulated from a voluntary decisionmaking role, by virtue of the custodial nature of their care, so as to require special assurance that they are capable of willfully and voluntarily executing a durable power of attorney for health care.

4702. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), the following persons may not exercise authority to make health care decisions under a durable power of attorney:

(1) The treating health care provider or an employee of the treating health care provider.

(2) An operator or employee of a community care facility.

(3) An operator or employee of a residential care facility for the elderly.

(b) An employee of the treating health care provider or an employee of an operator of a community care facility or an employee of a residential care facility for the elderly may be designated as the attorney-in-fact to make health care decisions under a durable power of attorney for health care if (1) the employee is a relative of the principal by blood, marriage, or adoption, and (2) the other requirements of this chapter are satisfied.

(c) Except as provided in subdivision (b), if a health care provider becomes the principal's treating health care provider, the health care provider or an employee of the health care provider may not exercise authority to make health care decisions under a durable power of attorney.

(d) A conservator may not be designated as the attorney-in-fact to make health care decisions under a durable power of attorney for health care executed by a person who is a conservatee under the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act (Part 1 (commencing with Section 5000) of Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code), unless all of the following are satisfied:

(1) The power of attorney is otherwise valid.

(2) The conservatee is represented by legal counsel.

(3) The lawyer representing the conservatee signs a certificate stating in substance:

"I am a lawyer authorized to practice law in the state where this power of attorney was executed, and the principal was my client at the time this power of attorney was executed. I have advised my client concerning his or her rights in connection with this power of attorney and the applicable law and the consequences of signing or not signing this power of attorney, and my client, after being so advised, has executed this power of attorney."

4703. (a) A printed form of a durable power of attorney for health care that is sold or otherwise distributed in this state for use by a person who does not have the advice of legal counsel shall provide no other authority than the authority to make health care decisions on behalf of the principal and shall contain, in not less than 10-point boldface type or a reasonable equivalent thereof, the following warning statement:

WARNING TO PERSON EXECUTING THIS DOCUMENT

This is an important legal document. Before executing this document, you should know these important facts:

This document gives the person you designate as your agent (the attorney-in-fact) the power to make health care decisions for you. Your agent must act consistently with your desires as stated in this document or otherwise made known.

Except as you otherwise specify in this document, this document gives your agent the power to consent to your doctor not giving treatment or stopping treatment necessary to keep you alive.

Notwithstanding this document, you have the right to make medical and other health care decisions for yourself so long as you can give informed consent with respect to the particular decision. In addition, no treatment may be given to you over your objection, and health care necessary to keep you alive may not be stopped or withheld if you object at the time.

This document gives your agent authority to consent, to refuse to consent, or to withdraw consent to any care, treatment, service, or procedure to maintain, diagnose, or treat a physical or mental condition. This power is subject to any statement of your desires and any limitations that you include in this document. You may state in this document any types of treatment that you do not desire. In addition, a court can take away the power of your agent to make health care decisions for you if your agent (1) authorizes anything that is illegal, (2) acts contrary to your known desires, or (3) where your desires are not known, does anything that is clearly contrary to your best interests.

This power will exist for an indefinite period of time unless you limit its duration in this document.

You have the right to revoke the authority of your agent by notifying your agent or your treating doctor, hospital, or other health care provider orally or in writing of the revocation.

Your agent has the right to examine your medical records and to consent to their disclosure unless you limit this right in this document.

Unless you otherwise specify in this document, this document gives your agent the power after you die to (1) authorize an autopsy, (2) donate your body or parts thereof for transplant or therapeutic or educational or scientific purposes, and (3) direct the disposition of your remains.

If there is anything in this document that you do not understand, you should ask a lawyer to explain it to you.

(b) The printed form described in subdivision (a) shall also include the following notice:

"This power of attorney will not be valid for making health care decisions unless it is either (1) signed by two qualified adult witnesses and who are present when you sign or acknowledge your signature or (2) acknowledged before a notary public in California."

(c) This section does not apply to the statutory form provided by Section 4771.

4704. (a) A durable power of attorney prepared for execution by a person resident in this state that permits the attorney-in-fact to make health care decisions and that is not a printed form shall include one of the following:

(1) The substance of the statements provided in subdivision (a) of Section 4703 in capital letters.

(2) A certificate signed by the principal's lawyer stating: "I am a lawyer authorized to practice law in the state where this power of attorney was executed, and the principal was my client at the time this power of attorney was executed. I have advised my client concerning his or her rights in connection with this power of attorney and the applicable law and the consequences of signing or not signing this power of attorney, and my client, after being so advised, has executed this power of attorney."

(b) If a durable power of attorney includes the certificate provided for in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) and permits the attorney-in-fact to make health care decisions for the principal, the applicable law of which the client is to be advised by the lawyer signing the certificate includes, but is not limited to, the matters listed in subdivision (a) of Section 4703.

Article 2. Authority of Attorney-in-Fact Under Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care

4720. (a) Unless the durable power of attorney provides otherwise, the attorney-in-fact designated in a durable power of attorney for health care who is known to the health care provider to be available and willing to make health care decisions has priority over any other person to act for the principal in all matters of health care decisions, but the attorney-in-fact does not have authority to make a particular health care decision if the principal is able to give informed consent with respect to that decision.

(b) Subject to any limitations in the durable power of attorney, the attorney-in-fact designated in a durable power of attorney for health care may make health care decisions for the principal, before or after the death of the principal, to the same extent as the principal could make health care decisions if the principal had the capacity to do so, including the following:

(1) Making a disposition under the Uniform Anatomical Gift Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 7150) of Part 1 of Division 7 of the Health and Safety Code).

(2) Authorizing an autopsy under Section 7113 of the Health and Safety Code.

(3) Directing the disposition of remains under Section 7100 of the Health and Safety Code.

(c) In exercising the authority under the durable power of attorney for health care, the attorney-in-fact has a duty to act consistent with the desires of the principal as expressed in the durable power of attorney or otherwise made known to the attorney-in-fact at any time or, if the principal's desires are unknown, to act in the best interests of the principal.

(d) Nothing in this chapter affects any right the person designated as attorney-in-fact may have, apart from the durable power of attorney for health care, to make or participate in the making of health care decisions on behalf of the principal.

4721. Except to the extent the right is limited by the durable power of attorney for health care, an attorney-in-fact designated to make health care decisions under a durable power of attorney for health care has the same right as the principal to receive information regarding the proposed health care, to receive and review medical records, and to consent to the disclosure of medical records.

4722. A power of attorney may not authorize the attorney-in-fact to consent to any of the following on behalf of the principal:

(a) Commitment to or placement in a mental health treatment facility.

(b) Convulsive treatment (as defined in Section 5325 of the Welfare and Institutions Code).

(c) Psychosurgery (as defined in Section 5325 of the Welfare and Institutions Code).

(d) Sterilization.

(e) Abortion.

4724. Nothing in this chapter authorizes an attorney-in-fact to consent to health care, or to consent to the withholding or withdrawal of health care necessary to keep the principal alive, if the principal objects to the health care or to the withholding or withdrawal of the health care. In such a case, the case is governed by the law that would apply if there were no durable power of attorney for health care.

4725. No health care provider, health care service plan, insurer issuing disability insurance, self-insured employee welfare plan, or nonprofit hospital plan or similar insurance plan, may condition admission to a facility, or the providing of treatment, or insurance, on the requirement that a patient execute a durable power of attorney for health care.

4726. Any person who, except where justified or excused by law, alters or forges a durable power of attorney for health care of another, or willfully conceals or withholds personal knowledge of a revocation as provided under Section 4727, with the intent to cause a withholding or withdrawal of health care necessary to keep the principal alive contrary to the desires of the principal, and thereby, because of that act, directly causes health care necessary to keep the principal alive to be withheld or withdrawn and the death of the principal thereby to be hastened, is subject to prosecution for unlawful homicide as provided in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 187) of Title 4 of Part 1 of the Penal Code.

4727. (a) At any time while the principal has the capacity to give a durable power of attorney for health care, the principal may do any of the following:

(1) Revoke the appointment of the attorney-in-fact under the durable power of attorney for health care by notifying the attorney-in-fact orally or in writing.

(2) Revoke the authority granted to the attorney-in-fact to make health care decisions by notifying the health care provider orally or in writing.

(b) If the principal notifies the health care provider orally or in writing that the authority granted to the attorney-in-fact to make health care decisions is revoked, the health care provider shall make the notification a part of the principal's medical records and shall make a reasonable effort to notify the attorney-in-fact of the revocation.

(c) It is presumed that the principal has the capacity to revoke a durable power of attorney for health care. This presumption is a presumption affecting the burden of proof.

(d) Unless it provides otherwise, a valid durable power of attorney for health care revokes any prior durable power of attorney for health care.

(e) Unless the durable power of attorney for health care expressly provides otherwise, if after executing a durable power of attorney for health care the principal's marriage is dissolved or annulled, the dissolution or annulment revokes any designation of the former spouse as an attorney-in-fact to make health care decisions for the principal. If any designation is revoked solely by this subdivision, it is revived by the principal's remarriage to the former spouse.

(f) If authority granted by a durable power of attorney for health care is revoked under this section, a person is not subject to criminal prosecution or civil liability for acting in good faith reliance upon the durable power of attorney for health care unless the person has actual knowledge of the revocation.

Article 3. Protections and Immunities

4750. (a) Subject to any limitations stated in the durable power of attorney for health care and to subdivision (b) and to Sections 4722, 4723, 4724, 4725, and 4726, a health care provider is not subject to criminal prosecution, civil liability, or professional disciplinary action except to the same extent as would be the case if the principal, having had the capacity to give informed consent, had made the health care decision on his or her own behalf under like circumstances, if the health care provider relies on a health care decision and both of the following requirements are satisfied:

(1) The decision is made by an attorney-in-fact who the health care provider believes in good faith is authorized under this chapter to make the decision.

(2) The health care provider believes in good faith that the decision is not inconsistent with the desires of the principal as expressed in the durable power of attorney for health care or otherwise made known to the health care provider, and, if the decision is to withhold or withdraw health care necessary to keep the principal alive, the health care provider has made a good faith effort to determine the desires of the principal to the extent that the principal is able to convey those desires to the health care provider and the results of the effort are made a part of the principal's medical records.

(b) Nothing in this chapter authorizes a health care provider to do anything illegal.

(c) Notwithstanding the health care decision of the attorney-in-fact designated by a durable power of attorney for health care, the health care provider is not subject to criminal prosecution, civil liability, or professional disciplinary action for failing to withdraw health care necessary to keep the principal alive.

4751. For the purposes of the declaration of witnesses required by Section 4701 or 4771, "convincing evidence" means the absence of any information, evidence, or other circumstances which would lead a reasonable person to believe that the person signing or acknowledging the durable power of attorney for health care as principal is not the individual he or she claims to be and any one of the following:

(a) Reasonable reliance on the presentation of any one of the following, if the document is current or has been issued within five years:

(1) An identification card or driver's license issued by the California Department of Motor Vehicles.

(2) A passport issued by the Department of State of the United States.

(b) Reasonable reliance on the presentation of any one of the following, if the document is current or has been issued within five years and contains a photograph and description of the person named on it, is signed by the person, bears a serial or other identifying number, and, in the event that the document is a passport, has been stamped by the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service:

(1) A passport issued by a foreign government.

(2) A driver's license issued by a state other than California or by a Canadian or Mexican public agency authorized to issue drivers' licenses.

(3) An identification card issued by a state other than California.

(4) An identification card issued by any branch of the armed forces of the United States.

(c) If the principal is a patient in a skilled nursing facility, a witness who is a patient advocate or ombudsman may, for the purposes of Section 4701 or 4771, rely upon the representations of the administrators or staff of the skilled nursing facility, or of family members, as convincing evidence of the identity of the principal if the patient advocate or ombudsman believes that the representations provide a reasonable basis for determining the identity of the principal.

4752. In the absence of knowledge to the contrary, a physician and surgeon or other health care provider may presume that a durable power of attorney for health care or similar instrument, whether executed in another state or jurisdiction or in this state, is valid.

CHAPTER 3. STATUTORY FORM DURABLE POWER OF ATTORNEY FOR HEALTH CARE

4770. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Keene Health Care Agent Act.

4771. The use of the following form in the creation of a durable power of attorney for health care under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 4600) is lawful, and when used, the power of attorney shall be construed in accordance with this chapter and is subject to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 4600), provided, however, that the use of a form previously authorized by this statute (at the time it was so authorized) remains valid.

STATUTORY FORM

DURABLE POWER OF ATTORNEY FOR HEALTH CARE

(California Probate Code Section 4771)

WARNING TO PERSON EXECUTING

THIS DOCUMENT

THIS IS AN IMPORTANT LEGAL DOCUMENT WHICH IS AUTHORIZED BY THE KEENE HEALTH CARE AGENT ACT. BEFORE EXECUTING THIS DOCUMENT, YOU SHOULD KNOW THESE IMPORTANT FACTS:

THIS DOCUMENT GIVES THE PERSON YOU DESIGNATE AS YOUR AGENT (THE ATTORNEY-IN-FACT) THE POWER TO MAKE HEALTH CARE DECISIONS FOR YOU. YOUR AGENT MUST ACT CONSISTENTLY WITH YOUR DESIRES AS STATED IN THIS DOCUMENT OR OTHERWISE MADE KNOWN.

EXCEPT AS YOU OTHERWISE SPECIFY IN THIS DOCUMENT, THIS DOCUMENT GIVES YOUR AGENT THE POWER TO CONSENT TO YOUR DOCTOR NOT GIVING TREATMENT OR STOPPING TREATMENT NECESSARY TO KEEP YOU ALIVE.

NOTWITHSTANDING THIS DOCUMENT, YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO MAKE MEDICAL AND OTHER HEALTH CARE DECISIONS FOR YOURSELF SO LONG AS YOU CAN GIVE INFORMED CONSENT WITH RESPECT TO THE PARTICULAR DECISION. IN ADDITION, NO TREATMENT MAY BE GIVEN TO YOU OVER YOUR OBJECTION AT THE TIME, AND HEALTH CARE NECESSARY TO KEEP YOU ALIVE MAY NOT BE STOPPED OR WITHHELD IF YOU OBJECT AT THE TIME.

THIS DOCUMENT GIVES YOUR AGENT AUTHORITY TO CONSENT, TO REFUSE TO CONSENT, OR TO WITHDRAW CONSENT TO ANY CARE, TREATMENT, SERVICE, OR PROCEDURE TO MAINTAIN, DIAGNOSE, OR TREAT A PHYSICAL OR MENTAL CONDITION. THIS POWER IS SUBJECT TO ANY STATEMENT OF YOUR DESIRES AND ANY LIMITATIONS THAT YOU INCLUDE IN THIS DOCUMENT. YOU MAY STATE IN THIS DOCUMENT ANY TYPES OF TREATMENT THAT YOU DO NOT DESIRE. IN ADDITION, A COURT CAN TAKE AWAY THE POWER OF YOUR AGENT TO MAKE HEALTH CARE DECISIONS FOR YOU IF YOUR AGENT (1) AUTHORIZES ANYTHING THAT IS ILLEGAL, (2) ACTS CONTRARY TO YOUR KNOWN DESIRES, OR (3) WHERE YOUR DESIRES ARE NOT KNOWN, DOES ANYTHING THAT IS CLEARLY CONTRARY TO YOUR BEST INTERESTS.

THE POWERS GIVEN BY THIS DOCUMENT WILL EXIST FOR AN INDEFINITE PERIOD OF TIME UNLESS YOU LIMIT THEIR DURATION IN THIS DOCUMENT.

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO REVOKE THE AUTHORITY OF YOUR AGENT BY NOTIFYING YOUR AGENT OR YOUR TREATING DOCTOR, HOSPITAL, OR OTHER HEALTH CARE PROVIDER ORALLY OR IN WRITING OF THE REVOCATION.

YOUR AGENT HAS THE RIGHT TO EXAMINE YOUR MEDICAL RECORDS AND TO CONSENT TO THEIR DISCLOSURE UNLESS YOU LIMIT THIS RIGHT IN THIS DOCUMENT.

UNLESS YOU OTHERWISE SPECIFY IN THIS DOCUMENT, THIS DOCUMENT GIVES YOUR AGENT THE POWER AFTER YOU DIE TO (1) AUTHORIZE AN AUTOPSY, (2) DONATE YOUR BODY OR PARTS THEREOF FOR TRANSPLANT OR THERAPEUTIC OR EDUCATIONAL OR SCIENTIFIC PURPOSES, AND (3) DIRECT THE DISPOSITION OF YOUR REMAINS.

THIS DOCUMENT REVOKES ANY PRIOR DURABLE POWER OF ATTORNEY FOR HEALTH CARE.

YOU SHOULD CAREFULLY READ AND FOLLOW THE WITNESSING PROCEDURE DESCRIBED AT THE END OF THIS FORM. THIS DOCUMENT WILL NOT BE VALID UNLESS YOU COMPLY WITH THE WITNESSING PROCEDURE.

IF THERE IS ANYTHING IN THIS DOCUMENT THAT YOU DO NOT UNDERSTAND, YOU SHOULD ASK A LAWYER TO EXPLAIN IT TO YOU.

YOUR AGENT MAY NEED THIS DOCUMENT IMMEDIATELY IN CASE OF AN EMERGENCY THAT REQUIRES A DECISION CONCERNING YOUR HEALTH CARE. EITHER KEEP THIS DOCUMENT WHERE IT IS IMMEDIATELY AVAILABLE TO YOUR AGENT AND ALTERNATE AGENTS OR GIVE EACH OF THEM AN EXECUTED COPY OF THIS DOCUMENT. YOU MAY ALSO WANT TO GIVE YOUR DOCTOR AN EXECUTED COPY OF THIS DOCUMENT.

DO NOT USE THIS FORM IF YOU ARE A CONSERVATEE UNDER THE LANTERMAN-PETRIS-SHORT ACT AND YOU WANT TO APPOINT YOUR CONSERVATOR AS YOUR AGENT. YOU CAN DO THAT ONLY IF THE APPOINTMENT DOCUMENT INCLUDES A CERTIFICATE OF YOUR ATTORNEY.

1. DESIGNATION OF HEALTH CARE AGENT.

I, _____

(Insert your name and address)

do hereby designate and appoint _____

(Insert name, address, and telephone number of one individual only as your agent to make health care decisions for you. None of the following may be designated as your agent: (1) your treating health care provider, (2) a nonrelative employee of your treating health care provider, (3) an operator of a community care facility, (4) a nonrelative employee of an operator of a community care facility, (5) an operator of a residential care facility for the elderly, or (6) a nonrelative employee of an operator of a residential care facility for the elderly.)

as my agent to make health care decisions for me as authorized in this document. For the purposes of this document, "health care decision" means consent, refusal of consent, or withdrawal of consent to any care, treatment, service, or procedure to maintain, diagnose, or treat an individual's physical or mental condition.

2. CREATION OF DURABLE POWER OF ATTORNEY FOR HEALTH CARE.

By this document I intend to create a durable power of attorney for health care under Sections 4600 to 4752, inclusive, of the California Probate Code. This power of attorney is authorized by the Keene Health Care Agent Act and shall be construed in accordance with the provisions of Sections 4770 to 4779, inclusive, of the Probate Code. This power of attorney shall not be affected by my subsequent incapacity.

3. GENERAL STATEMENT OF AUTHORITY GRANTED.

Subject to any limitations in this document, I hereby grant to my agent full power and authority to make health care decisions for me to the same extent that I could make those decisions for myself if I had the capacity to do so. In exercising this authority, my agent shall make health care decisions that are consistent with my desires as stated in this document or otherwise made known to my agent, including, but not limited to, my desires concerning obtaining or refusing or withdrawing life-prolonging care, treatment, services, and procedures.

(If you want to limit the authority of your agent to make health care decisions for you, you can state the limitations in paragraph 4 ("Statement of Desires, Special Provisions, and Limitations") below. You can indicate your desires by including a statement of your desires in the same paragraph.)

4. STATEMENT OF DESIRES, SPECIAL PROVISIONS, AND LIMITATIONS.

(Your agent must make health care decisions that are consistent with your known desires. You can, but are not required to, state your desires in the space provided below. You should consider whether you want to include a statement of your desires concerning life-prolonging care, treatment, services, and procedures. You can also include a statement of your desires concerning other matters relating to your health care. You can also make your desires known to your agent by discussing your desires with your agent or by some other means. If there are any types of treatment that you do not want to be used, you should state them in the space below. If you want to limit in any other way the authority given your agent by this document, you should state the limits in the space below. If you do not state any limits, your agent will have broad powers to make health care decisions for you, except to the extent that there are limits provided by law.)

In exercising the authority under this durable power of attorney for health care, my agent shall act consistently with my desires as stated below and is subject to the special provisions and limitations stated below:

(a) Statement of desires concerning life-prolonging care, treatment, services, and procedures:

(b) Additional statement of desires, special provisions, and limitations: _____

(You may attach additional pages if you need more space to complete your statement. If you attach additional pages, you must date and sign EACH of the additional pages at the same time you date and sign this document.)

5. INSPECTION AND DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION RELATING TO MY PHYSICAL OR MENTAL HEALTH.

Subject to any limitations in this document, my agent has the power and authority to do all of the following:

(a) Request, review, and receive any information, verbal or written, regarding my physical or mental health, including, but not limited to, medical and hospital records.

(b) Execute on my behalf any releases or other documents that may be required in order to obtain this information.

(c) Consent to the disclosure of this information.

(If you want to limit the authority of your agent to receive and disclose information relating to your health, you must state the limitations in paragraph 4 ("Statement of Desires, Special Provisions, and Limitations") above.)

6. SIGNING DOCUMENTS, WAIVERS, AND RELEASES.

Where necessary to implement the health care decisions that my agent is authorized by this document to make, my agent has the power and authority to execute on my behalf all of the following:

(a) Documents titled or purporting to be a "Refusal to Permit Treatment" and "Leaving Hospital Against Medical Advice."

(b) Any necessary waiver or release from liability required by a hospital or physician.

7. AUTOPSY; ANATOMICAL GIFTS; DISPOSITION OF REMAINS.

Subject to any limitations in this document, my agent has the power and authority to do all of the following:

(a) Authorize an autopsy under Section 7113 of the Health and Safety Code.

(b) Make a disposition of a part or parts of my body under the Uniform Anatomical Gift Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 7150) of Part 1 of Division 7 of the Health and Safety Code).

(c) Direct the disposition of my remains under Section 7100 of the Health and Safety Code.

(If you want to limit the authority of your agent to consent to an autopsy, make an anatomical gift, or direct the disposition of your remains, you must state the limitations in paragraph 4 ("Statement of Desires, Special Provisions, and Limitations") above.)

8. DURATION.

(Unless you specify otherwise in the space below, this power of attorney will exist for an indefinite period of time.)

This durable power of attorney for health care expires on _____ (Fill in this space ONLY if you want to limit the duration of this power of attorney.)

9. DESIGNATION OF ALTERNATE AGENTS.

(You are not required to designate any alternate agents but you may do so. Any alternate agent you designate will be able to make the same health care decisions as the agent you designated in paragraph 1, above, in the event that agent is unable or ineligible to act as your agent. If the agent you designated is your spouse, he or she becomes ineligible to act as your agent if your marriage is dissolved.)

If the person designated as my agent in paragraph 1 is not available or becomes ineligible to act as my agent to make a health care decision for me or loses the mental capacity to make health care decisions for me, or if I revoke that person's appointment or authority to act as my agent to make health care decisions for me, then I designate and appoint the following persons to serve as my agent to make health care decisions for me as authorized in this document, these persons to serve in the order listed below:

A. First Alternate Agent _____

(Insert name, address, and telephone number of first alternate agent)

B. Second Alternate Agent _____

(Insert name, address, and telephone number of second alternate agent)

10. NOMINATION OF CONSERVATOR OF PERSON.

(A conservator of the person may be appointed for you if a court decides that one should be appointed. The conservator is responsible for your physical care, which under some circumstances includes making health care decisions for you. You are not required to nominate a conservator but you may do so. The court will appoint the person you nominate unless that would be contrary to your best interests. You may, but are not required to, nominate as your conservator the same person you named in paragraph 1 as your health care agent. You can nominate an individual as your conservator by completing the space below.)

If a conservator of the person is to be appointed for me, I nominate the following individual to serve as conservator of the person:

(Insert name and address of person nominated as conservator of the person)

11. PRIOR DESIGNATIONS REVOKED. I revoke any prior durable power of attorney for health care.

DATE AND SIGNATURE OF PRINCIPAL

(YOU MUST DATE AND SIGN THIS POWER OF ATTORNEY)

I sign my name to this Statutory Form Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care on _____ at (Date)

_____, _____.
(City) (State)

(You sign here)

(THIS POWER OF ATTORNEY WILL NOT BE VALID UNLESS IT IS SIGNED BY TWO QUALIFIED WITNESSES WHO ARE PRESENT WHEN YOU SIGN OR ACKNOWLEDGE YOUR SIGNATURE. IF YOU HAVE ATTACHED ANY ADDITIONAL PAGES TO THIS FORM, YOU MUST DATE AND SIGN EACH OF THE ADDITIONAL PAGES AT THE SAME TIME YOU DATE AND SIGN THIS POWER OF ATTORNEY.)

STATEMENT OF WITNESSES

(This document must be witnessed by two qualified adult witnesses. None of the following may be used as a witness: (1) a person you designate as your agent or alternate agent, (2) a health care provider, (3) an employee of a health care provider, (4) the operator of a community care facility, (5) an employee of an operator of a community care facility, (6) the operator of a residential care facility for the elderly, or (7) an employee of an operator of a residential care facility for the elderly. At least one of the witnesses shall make the additional declaration set out following the place where the witnesses sign.)

(READ CAREFULLY BEFORE SIGNING. You can sign as a witness only if you personally know the principal or the identity of the principal is proved to you by convincing evidence.)

(To have convincing evidence of the identity of the principal, you must be presented with and reasonably rely on any one or more of the following:

(1) An identification card or driver's license issued by the California Department of Motor Vehicles that is current or has been issued within five years.

(2) A passport issued by the Department of State of the United States that is current or has been issued within five years.

(3) Any of the following documents if the document is current or has been issued within five years and contains a photograph and description of the person named on it, is signed by the person, and bears a serial or other identifying number:

(a) A passport issued by a foreign government that has been stamped by the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service.

(b) A driver's license issued by a state other than California or by a Canadian or Mexican public agency authorized to issue drivers' licenses.

(c) An identification card issued by a state other than California.

(d) An identification card issued by any branch of the armed forces of the United States.

(4) If the principal is a patient in a skilled nursing facility, a witness who is a patient advocate or ombudsman may rely upon the representations of the administrator or staff of the skilled nursing facility, or of family members, as convincing evidence of the identity of the principal if the patient advocate or ombudsman believes that the representations provide a reasonable basis for determining the identity of the principal.)

(Other kinds of proof of identity are not allowed.)

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of California that the person who signed or acknowledged this document is personally known to me (or proved to me on the basis of convincing evidence) to be the principal, that the principal signed or acknowledged this durable power of attorney in my presence, that the principal appears to be of sound mind and under no duress, fraud, or undue influence, that I am not the person appointed as agent by this document, and that I am not a health care provider, an employee of a health care provider, the operator of a community care facility, an employee of an operator of a community care facility, the operator of a residential care facility for the elderly, nor an employee of an operator of a residential care facility for the elderly.

STATEMENT OF PATIENT ADVOCATE OR OMBUDSMAN

(If you are a patient in a skilled nursing facility, one of the witnesses must be a patient advocate or ombudsman. The following statement is required only if you are a patient in a skilled nursing facility—a health care facility that provides the following basic services: skilled nursing care and supportive care to patients whose primary need is for availability of skilled nursing care on an extended basis. The patient advocate or ombudsman must sign both parts of the "Statement of Witnesses" above AND must also sign the following statement.)

I further declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of California that I am a patient advocate or ombudsman as designated by the State Department of Aging and that I am serving as a witness as required by subdivision (e) of Section 4701 of the Probate Code.

4772. (a) Notwithstanding Section 4703, except as provided in subdivision (b), a statutory form durable power of attorney for health care, to be valid, shall contain, in not less than 10-point boldface type or a reasonable equivalent thereof, the warning statement that is set forth in capital letters at the beginning of Section 4771.

(b) Subdivision (a) does not apply if the statutory form durable power of attorney for health care contains a certificate signed by the principal's lawyer stating the following: "I am a lawyer authorized to practice law in the state where this power of attorney was executed, and the principal was my client at the time when this power of attorney was executed. I have advised my client concerning his or her rights in connection with this power of attorney and the applicable law and the consequences of signing or not signing this power of attorney, and my client, after being so advised, has executed this power of attorney."

4773. (a) Notwithstanding subdivision (c) of Section 4121, a statutory form durable power of attorney for health care is valid, and the designated attorney-in-fact may make health care decisions pursuant to its authority, only if it (1) contains the date of its execution, (2) is signed by the principal, and (3) is signed by two qualified witnesses, each of whom executes, under penalty of perjury, the declaration set forth in the first paragraph of the "Statement of Witnesses" in the form set forth in Section 4771, and one of whom also executes the declaration under penalty of perjury set forth in the second paragraph of the "Statement of Witnesses" in the form set forth in Section 4771.

(b) Nothing in this section excuses compliance with the special requirements imposed by subdivision (e) of Section 4701 and subdivision (d) of Section 4702.

4774. (a) Subject to subdivisions (b), (c), and (d), a power of attorney is a "statutory form durable power of attorney for health care," as this phrase is used in this chapter, if it meets both of the following requirements:

(1) It meets the requirements of Sections 4772 and 4773.

(2) It includes the exact wording of the text of paragraphs 1, 2, 3, and 4 of the form set forth in Section 4771.

(b) A statutory form durable power of attorney for health care may include one or more or all of paragraphs 5 to 11, inclusive, of the form set forth in Section 4771.

(c) A printed statutory form durable power of attorney for health care sold or otherwise distributed in this state for use by a person who does not have the advice of legal counsel shall contain the exact wording of the form set forth in Section 4771, including the warning and instructions, and nothing else. Nothing in this subdivision prohibits selling or otherwise distributing with the printed form (1) material that explains the form and its use if the material is separate from the printed form itself and is not a part of the form executed by the principal or (2) one or more additional pages that are separate from the printed form itself that a person may attach to the printed form as provided in subdivision (d) if the person so chooses.

(d) If one or more additional pages are attached to a statutory form durable power of attorney for health care as a statement, or additional statement, to be a part of subparagraph (a) or (b), or both, of paragraph 4 ("Statement of Desires, Special Provisions, and Limitations") of the form set forth in Section 4771, each of the additional pages shall be dated and signed by the principal at the same time the principal dates and signs the statutory form durable power of attorney for health care.

4775. (a) A statutory form durable power of attorney for health care executed on or after January 1, 1992, using a form that complies with former Section 2500 of the Civil Code is as valid as if it had been executed using a form that complies with Section 4771 of this code.

(b) Notwithstanding former Section 2501 of the Civil Code or Section 4772 of this code, a statutory form durable power of attorney for health care executed on or after January 1, 1992, is not invalid if it contains the warning using the language set forth in former Section 2500 of the Civil Code instead of the warning using the language set forth in Section 4771 of this code.

(c) For the purposes of subdivision (c) of former Section 2503 of the Civil Code and subdivision (c) of Section 4774 of this code, on and after January 1, 1992, a printed statutory form durable power of attorney for health care may be sold or otherwise distributed if it contains the exact wording of the form set forth in former Section 2500 of the Civil Code or the exact wording of the form set forth in Section 4771 of this code, including the warning and instructions, and nothing else; but any printed statutory form durable power of attorney for health care printed on or after January 1, 1992, that is sold or otherwise distributed in this state for use by a person who does not have the advice of legal counsel shall contain the exact wording of the form set forth in former Section 2500 of the Civil Code or the exact wording of the form set forth in Section 4771 of this code, including the warning and instructions, and nothing else.

4776. In a statutory form durable power of attorney for health care, the language conferring general authority with respect to "health care decisions" authorizes the attorney-in-fact to select and discharge physicians, dentists, nurses, therapists, and other health care professionals as the attorney-in-fact determines necessary to carry out the health care decisions the attorney-in-fact is authorized by the power of attorney to make.

4777. If a document described in paragraph 5 or 6 of the form set forth in Section 4771 is executed on behalf of the principal by the attorney-in-fact in the exercise of authority granted to the attorney-in-fact by paragraph 5 or 6 of the form set forth in Section 4771, the document has the same effect as if the principal had executed the document at the same time and under the same circumstances and had the capacity to execute the document at that time.

4778. If the authority of the attorney-in-fact under the statutory form durable power of attorney for health care is terminated by the court under Part 5 (commencing with Section 4900), an alternate attorney-in-fact designated in the statutory form durable power of attorney for health care is not authorized to act as the attorney-in-fact unless the court so orders. In the order terminating the authority of the attorney-in-fact to make health care decisions for the principal, the court shall authorize the alternate attorney-in-fact, if any, designated in the statutory form durable power of attorney for health care to act as the attorney-in-fact to make health care decisions for the principal under the durable power of attorney for health care unless the court finds that authorizing that alternate attorney-in-fact to make health care decisions for the principal would not be in the best interests of the principal.

4779. Nothing in this chapter affects or limits the use of any other form for a durable power of attorney for health care. Any form complying with the requirements of Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 4600) may be used in lieu of the form provided by Section 4771, and none of the provisions of this chapter apply if the other form is used.

PART 5. JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS CONCERNING POWERS OF ATTORNEY

CHAPTER 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

4900. A power of attorney is exercisable free of judicial intervention, subject to this part.

4901. The remedies provided in this part are cumulative and not exclusive of any other remedies provided by law.

4902. Except as provided in Section 4903, this part is not subject to limitation in the power of attorney.

4903. (a) Subject to subdivision (b), a power of attorney may expressly eliminate the authority of a person listed in Section 4940 to petition the court for any one or more of the purposes enumerated in Section 4941 or 4942 if both of the following requirements are satisfied:

(1) The power of attorney is executed by the principal at a time when the principal has the advice of a lawyer authorized to practice law in the state where the power of attorney is executed.

(2) The principal's lawyer signs a certificate stating in substance:

"I am a lawyer authorized to practice law in the state where this power of attorney was executed, and the principal was my client at the time this power of attorney was executed. I have advised my client concerning his or her rights in connection with this power of attorney and the applicable law and the consequences of signing or not signing this power of attorney, and my client, after being so advised, has executed this power of attorney."

(b) A power of attorney may not limit the authority of the following persons to petition under this part:

(1) The attorney-in-fact, the principal, the conservator of the estate of the principal, or the public guardian, with respect to a petition for a purpose specified in Section 4941.

(2) The conservator of the person of the principal, with respect to a petition relating to a durable power of attorney for health care for a purpose specified in subdivision (a), (c), or (d) of Section 4942.

(3) The attorney-in-fact, with respect to a petition relating to a durable power of attorney for health care for a purpose specified in subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 4942.

4904. There is no right to a jury trial in proceedings under this division.

4905. Except as otherwise provided in this division, the general provisions in Division 3 (commencing with Section 1000) apply to proceedings under this division.

CHAPTER 2. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4920. (a) The superior court has jurisdiction in proceedings under this division.

(b) The court in proceedings under this division is a court of general jurisdiction and the court, or a judge of the court, has the same power and authority with respect to the proceedings as otherwise provided by law for a superior court, or a judge of the superior court, including, but not limited to, the matters authorized by Section 128 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

4921. The court may exercise jurisdiction in proceedings under this division on any basis permitted by Section 410.10 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

4922. Without limiting Section 4921, a person who acts as an attorney-in-fact under a power of attorney governed by this division is subject to personal jurisdiction in this state with respect to matters relating to acts and transactions of the attorney-in-fact performed in this state or affecting property or a principal in this state.

4923. The proper county for commencement of a proceeding under this division shall be determined in the following order of priority:

(a) The county in which the principal resides.

(b) The county in which the attorney-in-fact resides.

(c) A county in which property subject to the power of attorney is located.

(d) Any other county that is in the principal's best interest.

CHAPTER 3. PETITIONS, ORDERS, AND APPEALS

4940. Subject to Section 4903, a petition may be filed under this part by any of the following persons:

(a) The attorney-in-fact.

(b) The principal.

(c) The spouse of the principal.

(d) A relative of the principal.

(e) The conservator of the person or estate of the principal.

(f) The court investigator, described in Section 1454, of the county where the power of attorney was executed or where the principal resides.

(g) The public guardian of the county where the power of attorney was executed or where the principal resides.

(h) A treating health care provider, with respect to a durable power of attorney for health care.

(i) The personal representative or trustee of the principal's estate.

(j) The principal's successor in interest.

(k) A person who is requested in writing by an attorney-in-fact to take action.

(l) Any other interested person or friend of the principal.

4941. With respect to a power of attorney other than a durable power of attorney for health care, a petition may be filed under this part for any one or more of the following purposes:

(a) Determining whether the power of attorney is in effect or has terminated.

(b) Passing on the acts or proposed acts of the attorney-in-fact, including approval of authority to disobey the principal's instructions pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 4234.

(c) Compelling the attorney-in-fact to submit the attorney-in-fact's accounts or report the attorney-in-fact's acts as attorney-in-fact to the principal, the spouse of the principal, the conservator of the person or the estate of the principal, or to any other person required by the court in its discretion, if the attorney-in-fact has failed to submit an accounting or report within 60 days after written request from the person filing the petition.

(d) Declaring that the authority of the attorney-in-fact is revoked on a determination by the court of all of the following:

(1) The attorney-in-fact has violated or is unfit to perform the fiduciary duties under the power of attorney.

(2) At the time of the determination by the court, the principal lacks the capacity to give or to revoke a power of attorney.

(3) The revocation of the attorney-in-fact's authority is in the best interest of the principal or the principal's estate.

(e) Approving the resignation of the attorney-in-fact:

(1) If the attorney-in-fact is subject to a duty to act under Section 4230, the court may approve the resignation, subject to any orders the court determines are necessary to protect the principal's interests.

(2) If the attorney-in-fact is not subject to a duty to act under Section 4230, the court shall approve the resignation, subject to the court's discretion to require the attorney-in-fact to give notice to other interested persons.

(f) Compelling a third person to honor the authority of an attorney-in-fact.

4942. With respect to a durable power of attorney for health care, a petition may be filed under this part for any one or more of the following purposes:

(a) Determining whether the durable power of attorney for health care is in effect or has terminated.

(b) Determining whether the acts or proposed acts of the attorney-in-fact are consistent with the desires of the principal as expressed in the durable power of attorney for health care or otherwise made known to the court or, where the desires of the principal are unknown or unclear, whether the acts or proposed acts of the attorney-in-fact are in the best interests of the principal.

(c) Compelling the attorney-in-fact to report the attorney-in-fact's acts as attorney-in-fact to the principal, the spouse of the principal, the conservator of the person of the principal, or to any other person required by the court in its discretion, if the attorney-in-fact has failed to submit the report within 10 days after written request from the person filing the petition.

(d) Declaring that the durable power of attorney for health care is terminated upon a determination by the court that the attorney-in-fact has made a health care decision for the principal that authorized anything illegal or upon a determination by the court of both of the following:

(1) The attorney-in-fact has violated, has failed to perform, or is unfit to perform, the duty under the durable power of attorney for health care to act consistent with the desires of the principal or, where the desires of the principal are unknown or unclear, is acting (by action or inaction) in a manner that is clearly contrary to the best interests of the principal.

(2) At the time of the determination by the court, the principal lacks the capacity to execute or to revoke a durable power of attorney for health care.

(e) Approving the resignation of the attorney-in-fact:

(1) If the attorney-in-fact is subject to a duty to act under Section 4230, the court may approve the resignation, subject to any orders the court determines are necessary to protect the principal's interests.

(2) If the attorney-in-fact is not subject to a duty to act under Section 4230, the court shall approve the resignation, subject to the court's discretion to require the attorney-in-fact to give notice to other interested persons.

4943. A proceeding under this part is commenced by filing a petition stating facts showing that the petition is authorized under this part, the grounds of the petition, and, if known to the petitioner, the terms of the power of attorney.

4944. The court may dismiss a petition if it appears that the proceeding is not reasonably necessary for the protection of the interests of the principal or the principal's estate and shall stay or dismiss the proceeding in whole or in part when required by Section 410.30 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

4945. (a) Subject to subdivision (b), at least 15 days before the time set for hearing, the petitioner shall serve notice of the time and place of the hearing, together with a copy of the petition, on the following:

(1) The attorney-in-fact if not the petitioner.

(2) The principal if not the petitioner.

(b) In the case of a petition to compel a third person to honor the authority of an attorney-in-fact, notice of the time and place of the hearing, together with a copy of the petition, shall be served on the third person in the manner provided in Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 413.10) of Title 5 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

4946. With respect to a durable power of attorney for health care, the court in its discretion, upon a showing of good cause, may issue a temporary order prescribing the health care of the principal until the disposition of the petition filed under Section 4942. If a durable power of attorney for health care is in effect and a conservator (including a temporary conservator) of the person is appointed for the principal, the court that appoints the conservator in its discretion, upon a showing of good cause, may issue a temporary order prescribing the health care of the principal, that order to continue in effect for such time as is ordered by the court but in no case longer than the time necessary to permit the filing and determination of a petition filed under Section 4942.

4947. In a proceeding under this part commenced by the filing of a petition by a person other than the attorney-in-fact, the court may in its discretion award reasonable attorney's fees to one of the following:

(a) The attorney-in-fact, if the court determines that the proceeding was commenced without any reasonable cause.

(b) The person commencing the proceeding, if the court determines that the attorney-in-fact has clearly violated the fiduciary duties under the power of attorney or has failed without any reasonable cause or justification to submit accounts or report acts to the principal or conservator of the estate or of the person, as the case may be, after written request from the principal or conservator.

4948. An appeal may be taken from any of the following:

(a) Any final order made pursuant to Section 4941, except an order pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 4941.

(b) Any final order made pursuant to Section 4942, except an order pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 4942.

(c) An order dismissing the petition or denying a motion to dismiss under Section 4944.

SEC. 17. Section 5204 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

5204. (a) In addition to a power of attorney otherwise authorized by law, a special power of attorney is authorized under this section to apply to one or more accounts at a financial institution. For the purposes of this section, "account" includes checking accounts, savings accounts, certificates of deposit, savings certificates, and any other depository relationship with the financial institution.

(b) The special power of attorney under this section shall:

(1) Be in writing.

(2) Be signed by the person or persons giving the power of attorney.

(3) Explicitly identify the attorney-in-fact or attorneys-in-fact, the financial institution, and the account or accounts subject to the power.

(c) Language in substantially the following form is sufficient to create a power of attorney under this section: "Transactions regarding this account or certificate of deposit may be made by the named agent(s). This agency is governed by Section 5204 of the California Probate Code. Under Section 5204, (1) the agent has no present or future ownership or right of survivorship in this account, (2) the agent must keep a record of the transactions and disbursements made under the agency, and (3) the agent may make disbursements from this account only to or for the benefit of the account owner unless the account owner has authorized the disbursement in writing."

(d) The power of attorney granted under this section shall endure as between the grantor and grantee of the power until the earliest of the following occurs:

(1) Revocation by the grantor of the power.

(2) Termination of the account.

(3) Death of the grantor of the power.

(4) Appointment of a guardian or conservator of the estate of the grantor of the power.

(e) A financial institution may rely in good faith upon the validity of the power of attorney granted under this section and is not liable to the principal or any other person for doing so if (1) the power of attorney is on file with the financial institution and the transaction is made by the attorney-in-fact named in the power of attorney, (2) the power of attorney appears on its face to be valid, and (3) the financial institution has convincing evidence of the identity of the person signing the power of attorney as principal.

(f) For the purposes of subdivision (e), "convincing evidence" requires both of the following:

(1) Reasonable reliance on a document that satisfies the requirement of Section 4751.

(g) The protection provided by subdivision (e) does not extend to payments made after written notice is received by the financial institution as to any of the events of termination of the power under subdivision (d) if the financial institution has had a reasonable time to act on the notice. No other notice or any other information shown to have been available to the financial institution shall affect its right to the protection provided by this subdivision.

(h) The attorney-in-fact acting under the power of attorney granted under this section shall maintain books or records to permit an accounting of the acts of the attorney-in-fact if an accounting is requested by a legal representative of the grantor of the power.

(i) The attorney-in-fact acting under a power of attorney granted under this section is liable for any disbursement other than a disbursement to or for the benefit of the grantor of the power, unless the grantor has authorized the disbursement in writing.

(j) Nothing in this section limits the use or effect of any other form of power of attorney for transactions with a financial institution. Nothing in this section creates an implication that a financial institution is liable for acting in reliance upon a power of attorney under circumstances where the requirements of subdivision (e) are not satisfied. Nothing in this section affects any immunity that may otherwise exist apart from this section.

(k) Nothing in this section prevents the attorney-in-fact from also being designated as a P.O.D. payee.

CHAPTER 308

An act to amend Sections 22825, 24353, 68085, 68101, 68502.5, and 77003 of, to add Sections 22754.35, 77006.5, and 77205.1 to, to repeal and add Sections 68073, 77203.5, 77205, and 77208 of, and to repeal Sections 22754.1, 22816.32, 22816.35, 22816.4, 68206, 77200, 77202, 77204, 77205.3, 77205.5, 77206, 77300, and 77301 of, the Government Code, and to amend Sections 11205 and 42201 of the Vehicle Code, relating to trial court funding, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that, since 1991, it has been the policy of the state to examine the operation and financing of superior, municipal, and justice courts in light of the need to reexamine and reconstruct the roles of each branch of government.

(b) It is also the policy of the state that the funding of trial court operations is most logically a candidate for state funding and that the state will progressively increase its share of funding of the annual costs for court operations to 65 percent for the 1994–95 fiscal year and to 70 percent for the 1995–96 fiscal year and will achieve savings in court operations costs through the enactment of administrative efficiencies.

(c) The Legislature further finds that it is the policy of the state to create a judicial branch budgeting system that protects the independence of the judiciary and optimizes local trial court control and responsibility, while preserving financial accountability to the overall State Budget.

(d) The Legislature further finds that, pursuant to these policies, courts are making a transition from budgeting through the counties to becoming a direct part of the state's annual budget.

(e) The Legislature declares its intent to do each of the following:

(1) Beginning in the 1994–95 fiscal year, to include the funding for the various functions of trial court operations specifically as allocations in the Budget Act as part of the judicial branch budget.

(2) To require progressively more careful identification of the costs of services obtained by the courts from county agencies, and to require the negotiation of agreements on the cost of county provided services.

(3) Through enactment of this act, to enable the transition to full state funding of the trial courts.

SEC. 2. Section 22754.1 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 22754.35 is added to the Government Code, to read:

22754.35. (a) As used in this part, "employee" includes any judge of a municipal or justice court.

(b) As used in this part, "annuitant" includes any judge of a municipal or justice court retired under the Judges' Retirement System.

(c) For purposes of this part, a municipal or justice court judge's entitlement shall be the same as a superior court judge in terms of health benefits and employer contributions, and the continuation of health benefits coverage shall be administered by the board.

(d) The state shall provide each sitting municipal court and justice court judge with health, dental, and vision care benefits equal to and in the same manner as the health, dental, and vision care benefits provided to superior court judges. These benefits shall be paid from funds provided pursuant to Section 77006.5.

(e) No judge shall have any salary or benefits reduced solely by reason of the enactment of this section.

(f) If a judge opts to receive health, dental, or vision care benefits from the state, the county shall reduce the judge's compensation by an amount equal to the amount the state pays for his or her health, dental, or vision care benefits.

SEC. 4. Section 22816.32 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 22816.35 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 22816.4 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 22825 of the Government Code is amended to read:

22825. (a) The employer and each employee or annuitant shall contribute a portion of the cost of providing for each employee and annuitant the benefit coverage afforded under any health benefit plan which the board has approved or for which it has executed a contract pursuant to this part, and in which the employee or annuitant may be enrolled.

The employer's contribution for each employee or annuitant shall be the amount necessary to pay the cost of his or her enrollment, including the enrollment of his family members, in a health benefits plan or plans, or, if less, sixteen dollars ($16) per month. There shall be only one such contribution with respect to all annuitants receiving allowances as survivors of the same employee or annuitant.

The contribution of each employee and annuitant shall be the total cost per month of the benefit coverage afforded him or her under the plan or plans less the portion thereof to be contributed by the employer.

(b) If the provisions of this section are in conflict with the provisions of a memorandum of understanding reached pursuant to Section 3517.5, the memorandum of understanding shall be controlling without further legislative action, except that if such provisions of a memorandum of understanding require the expenditure of funds, the provisions shall not become effective unless approved by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act.

SEC. 8. Section 24353 of the Government Code is amended to read:

24353. Each officer of a county or judicial district authorized to collect money shall pay into the county treasury all money collected by him or her, or under his or her control, that is payable into the treasury in the form and at the time the county auditor requires. No officer who collects money as described in this section shall be required to accept payment in coin. If the county auditor finds that an officer of the county has failed to comply with the requirements for payment of moneys pursuant to this section or Section 68101, which directly results in the assessment of a financial penalty pursuant to Section 68085, the county department which failed to comply shall reimburse the judicial district in an amount equal to the actual penalty.

SEC. 9. Section 68073 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 10. Section 68073 is added to the Government Code, to read:

68073. (a) Commencing July 1, 1994, a board of supervisors, subject to the funding limitation set forth in subdivision (b), shall provide suitable rooms for holding the superior, municipal, and justice courts, for the chambers of the judges of these courts and for court attendants, together with sufficient attendants, heat, light, furniture, furnishings, equipment, stationery, supplies, and other personal property, for the rooms and chambers and for the transaction of the business of the courts.

(b) Commencing July 1, 1994, and each year thereafter, with regard to court operations as defined in Section 77003, no board of supervisors shall be required to provide funding for those functions of the trial courts which are provided for in the state budget; however, in each county the board of supervisors shall provide funding for those functions for which funds are not provided for in the state budget, in an amount which complies with subdivision (a), recognizing the needs of the court, the county's fiscal condition, and the budget adopted by the Judicial Council, pursuant to paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 68502.5 and approved by the Legislature pursuant to paragraph (7) of subdivision (a) of Section 68502.5.

(c) If the board of supervisors of any county fails to provide funding as described in subdivision (b), the court shall give notice to the board of a specific deficiency. If the board then fails to provide funding necessary to comply with subdivision (b), the court may direct the appropriate officers of the county to provide the funding. The expenses incurred, certified by the judge or judges to be correct, are a charge against the county treasury and shall be paid out of the general fund.

(d) Prior to the taking action pursuant to subdivision (c), a court shall present to the Trial Court Budget Commission a written finding attesting to the necessity of the action. The finding shall include a summary of relevant facts, an assessment of the operational consequences of not receiving the funds at issue, and an outline of the steps taken to the exercise of this section. Upon review, the commission, upon authorization of the Judicial Council, may or may not reallocate trial court funds from other trial courts, if it deems appropriate, in order to address the needs of the court. If moneys are not reallocated by the commission, the court may then direct the appropriate officers of the county to provide for the necessary resources to perform the court's functions, if the court deems it appropriate to do so.

(e) Prior to the construction of new court facilities or the alteration, remodeling, or relocation of existing court facilities, the board of supervisors shall submit proposed plans to the judge or judges of the court affected for review and recommendations as to the adequacy and standard of design, and that review and recommendation shall not be disregarded without reasonable grounds.

(f) This section shall not be construed as authorizing the county to supply to the official reporters of the courts stenograph, stenotype, or other shorthand machines; nor as authorizing the county to supply to the official reporters of the courts, for use in the preparation of transcripts, typewriters, transcribing equipment, supplies, or other personal property.

SEC. 11. Section 68085 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68085. (a) (1) There is hereby established the Trial Court Trust Fund, the proceeds of which shall be apportioned quarterly by the Controller on or before the 25th day of the month following the end of that quarter, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for the purpose of funding trial court operations, as defined in Section 77003.

(2) The quarterly apportionment payments shall be made by the Controller, except that the quarterly apportionment shall be withheld from any county that is delinquent in making the full transfer of funds pursuant to this section.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the fees listed in subdivision (c) shall all be deposited upon collection in a special account in the county treasury, and transmitted therefrom monthly to the Controller for deposit in the Trial Court Trust Fund.

(c) Except as specified in subdivision (d), this section applies to all fees collected pursuant to Sections 26820.4, 26826, 26827, 68086, 72055, and 72056.

(d) This section does not apply to that portion of a filing fee collected pursuant to Section 26820.4, 26826, 26827, 72055, or 72056 which is allocated for dispute resolution pursuant to Section 470.3 of the Business and Professions Code, the county law library pursuant to Section 6320 of the Business and Professions Code, the Judges' Retirement Fund pursuant to Section 26822.3, automated recordkeeping or conversion to micrographics pursuant to Sections 26863 and 68090.7, and courthouse financing pursuant to Section 76238.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no agency shall take action to change the amounts allocated to any of the above funds.

(f) Before making any apportionments under this section, the Controller shall deduct, from the annual appropriation for that purpose, the actual administrative costs that will be incurred under this section. Costs reimbursed under this section shall be determined on an annual basis in consultation with the Judicial Council.

(g) Any amounts required to be transmitted by a county to the state pursuant to this section shall be remitted to the Controller no later than 45 days after the end of the month in which the fees were collected. This remittance shall be accompanied by a remittance advice identifying the collection month and the appropriate account in the Trial Court Trust Fund to which it is to be deposited. Any remittance which is not made by the county in accordance with this section shall be considered delinquent, and subject to the penalties pursuant to this section.

(h) Upon receipt of any delinquent payment, the Controller shall make the quarterly apportionment on or before the 25th day of the month following the month in which the delinquent payment was received from the county. The Controller shall calculate a penalty on any delinquent payment and that amount shall be deducted from the next quarterly apportionment. The penalty shall be calculated by multiplying the amount of the delinquent payment by the Pooled Money Investment Account rate at the end of the prior fiscal year.

(i) Penalty amounts withheld under subdivision (h) shall be reserved in the Trial Court Trust Fund. The Judicial Council shall allocate these moneys based upon the recommendations of the Trial Court Budget Commission.

(j) The Trial Court Trust Fund shall be invested in the Surplus Money Investment Fund and all interest earned shall be allocated to the Trial Court Trust Fund semiannually and shall be allocated among the counties in accordance with the requirements of subdivision (a). The specific allocations shall be specified by the Judicial Council, based upon recommendations from the Trial Court Budget Commission.

(k) Funds accrued in the Trial Court Trust Fund during the 1993–94 fiscal year shall be allocated pursuant to subdivision (j) to each option county in the month of November of 1993, and in the months of February, May, and August of 1994.

SEC. 12. Section 68101 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68085.

Any judge imposing or collecting those fines or forfeitures shall keep a record of them and at least monthly transmit a record thereof to the county auditor. The county auditor shall transmit a record of the imposition, collection and payment of such fines or forfeitures to the Controller at the time of transmittal of each warrant to the Treasurer pursuant to this section.

SEC. 13. Section 68206 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 14. Section 68502.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68502.5. (a) The Judicial Council shall provide by rule for the appointment of a standing Trial Court Budget Commission and the deadlines for meeting its various responsibilities. The commission shall have the authority to:

(1) Receive budget requests from the trial courts. Trial courts shall send to the county board of supervisors a copy of their proposed budgets and any revisions or appeals at the time their budget requests are submitted to the Trial Court Budget Commission, pursuant to this section. The counties may submit timely comments to the commission regarding the contents of the proposed budgets of their respective trial courts.

(2) Review the trial courts' budget requests and evaluate them against performance criteria established by the Judicial Council by which a court's performance, level of coordination, and efficiency can be measured.

(3) Annually recommend to the Judicial Council for its approval the projected cost in the subsequent fiscal year of court operations as defined in Section 77003 for each trial court. This estimation shall serve as the basis for court budgets, which shall be developed programmatically by court function, as approved by the Judicial Council, for comparison purposes and to delineate the funding responsibilities.

(4) Annually prepare a recommended schedule for the allocation of moneys to individual courts and a recommended overall trial court budget for approval by the Judicial Council and forwarding to the Governor for inclusion in the Governor's proposed State Budget. The recommended schedule shall be based on the performance criteria established pursuant to paragraph (2) and on a minimum standard established by the Judicial Council for the operation and staffing of all trial court operations. This minimum standard shall be modeled on court operations using all reasonable and available measures to increase court efficiency and coordination. The schedule of allocations shall assure that all trial courts receive funding for the minimum operating and staffing standards before funding operating and staffing requests above the minimum standards, and shall include incentives and rewards for any trial court's implementation of efficiencies and cost saving measures.

(5) Reallocate funds in accordance with Judicial Council rules during the course of the fiscal year to ensure equal access to the trial courts by the public, to improve trial court operations, and to meet trial court emergencies. Reallocations shall be limited to 15 percent of that portion of any court's annual budget amount funded by the state, excluding any amount derived from trial court funding moneys appropriated to a county by the Legislature. Counties shall have no obligation to replace moneys reallocated pursuant to this paragraph.

(6) Allocate funds in the Trial Court Improvement Fund in accordance to Judicial Council rules to ensure equal access to trial courts by the public, to improve trial court operations, and to meet trial court emergencies.

(7) Upon approval of the trial courts' budget by the Legislature, prepare during the course of the fiscal year an allocation schedule for quarterly payments to the counties, consistent with Sections 68085 and 77205.1, which shall be submitted to the Controller's office by the 10th day of the month in which payments are to be made.

(8) Establish rules, pursuant to the authority of the Judicial Council, regarding a court's authority to transfer trial court funding moneys from one functional category to another in order to address needs in any functional category.

(9) At the request of the presiding judge of a trial court, conduct an independent review of the funding level of the court to determine whether it is adequate to enable the court to discharge its statutory and constitutional responsibilities.

(10) From time to time, review the level of fees charged by the courts for various services and prepare recommended adjustments for approval and forwarding to the Legislature by the Judicial Council.

(b) Members of the commission shall receive no compensation from the state for their services. When called into session, they shall receive their actual and necessary expenses for travel, board, and lodging, which shall be paid from the funds appropriated for this use. These expenses shall be appropriated in the manner as the Judicial Council directs, and shall be audited by the Controller in accordance with the rules of the State Board of Control.

SEC. 15. Section 77003 of the Government Code is amended to read:

77003. (a) As used in this chapter, "court operations" means all of the following:

(1) Salaries, benefits, and public agency retirement contributions for superior, municipal, and justice court judges and for subordinate judicial officers.

(2) The salary, benefits, and public agency retirement contributions for other court staff including all municipal court staff positions specifically prescribed by statute.

(3) Those marshals, constables, and sheriffs as the court deems necessary for court operations.

(4) Court-appointed counsel in juvenile court dependency proceedings and counsel appointed by the court to represent a minor pursuant to Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 3150) of Part 2 of Division 8 of the Family Code.

(5) Services and supplies relating to court operations.

(6) Collective bargaining under the Meyers-Milias-Brown Act with respect to court employees specified in Section 3501.5.

(7) Actual indirect costs, not to exceed 18 percent of state trial court funding payments to counties for county general services attributable to court operations, but specifically excluding, but not limited to, law library operations conducted by a trust pursuant to statute; courthouse construction; district attorney services; probation services; indigent criminal defense; grand jury expenses and operations; and pretrial release services.

(8) The salaries, benefits, and public agency retirement contributions to be used in computing "court operations" are those salaries, benefits, and public agency retirement contributions in existence on June 30, 1991, and any reclassification made thereafter primarily for purposes of granting a salary increase shall not be applicable for purposes of this section.

SEC. 16. Section 77006.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

77006.5. As used in this chapter, "trial court funding" means the amount of state funds provided for the operation of the trial courts, as defined in Section 77003, appropriated in the Budget Act, and allocated or reallocated by the Trial Court Budget Commission, upon authorization of the Judicial Council, created pursuant to Section 68502.5.

SEC. 17. Section 77200 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 18. Section 77202 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 19. Section 77203.5 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 20. Section 77203.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

77203.5. (a) For the purpose of funding trial court operations, each board of supervisors shall establish in the county treasury a Trial Court Operations Fund, which will operate as a special revenue fund. All funds appropriated in the Budget Act and allocated and reallocated by the Trial Court Budget Commission created pursuant to Section 68502.5 shall be deposited into the fund.

(b) The moneys of the Trial Court Operations Fund shall be payable only for purposes set forth pursuant to Sections 77003 and 77006.5. The presiding judge or his or her designee, in consultation with the county executive/administrator, shall authorize the expenditures from this fund, consistent with the trial court's budget, as recommended by the Trial Court Budget Commission and approved by the Judicial Council. All state allocations deposited into this fund shall be exclusively dedicated to offset the costs identified in the approved trial court budget. The purpose of this requirement is to produce a reduction in the net county costs of trial courts.

(c) Interest received by a county from the investment of money in its Trial Court Operations Fund shall be deposited in the fund and shall be used for trial court operations purposes.

(d) Pursuant to Section 77205, the Controller, at the request of the Legislature or Judicial Council, may perform financial and fiscal audits of this fund.

SEC. 21. Section 77204 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 22. Section 77205 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 23. Section 77205 is added to the Government Code, to read:

77205. (a) The Judicial Council shall adopt appropriate rules for budget submission, budget management, and reporting of revenues and expenditures by each court. The Controller, in consultation with the Judicial Council, shall maintain appropriate regulations for recordkeeping and accounting by the county and the courts, in order to determine all moneys collected by the county and the courts, including filing fees, fines, forfeitures, and penalties, and all revenues and expenditures relating to court operations.

(b) Regulations, rules, and reporting requirements adopted pursuant to this chapter shall be exempt from review and approval or other processing by the Office of Administrative Law as provided for in Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2.

(c) The Controller, at the request of the Legislature or the Judicial Council, may perform and publish financial and fiscal compliance audits of the reports submitted by the counties under this chapter. The Controller shall report the results of these audits to the Legislature.

SEC. 24. Section 77205.1 is added to the Government Code, to read:

77205.1. Upon appropriation by the Legislature, the Controller shall make quarterly payments of trial court funding on or before the 25th day of that quarter.

SEC. 25. Section 77205.3 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 26. Section 77205.5 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 27. Section 77206 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 28. Section 77208 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 29. Section 77208 is added to the Government Code, to read:

77208. (a) The state shall provide municipal court and justice court judges retired under the Judges' Retirement System with retiree health, dental, and vision care plans equal to and in the same manner as the health, dental, and vision benefits provided to retired superior court judges.

(b) No judge shall have any salary or benefits reduced solely by reason of the enactment of this section.

SEC. 30. Section 77300 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 31. Section 77301 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 32. Section 11205 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11205. (a) The department shall publish a traffic violator school referral list of all the approved locations of traffic violator school classes, by school name, to be transmitted to each municipal and justice court in the state in sufficient quantity to allow the courts to provide a copy to each person referred to traffic violator school. The list shall be revised at least twice annually and transmitted to the courts by the first day of January and the first day of July. It shall include all of the following:

(1) The name of each traffic violator school or, pursuant to subdivision (d), the general term "traffic violator school" followed by its traffic violator school license number.

(2) A phone number used for student information.

(3) The county and the judicial district.

(4) The cities where classes are available.

(b) Each traffic violator school owner shall be permitted one school name in a judicial district.

(c) The list shall be organized alphabetically in sections for each county and subsections for each judicial district within the county. The order of the names within each judicial district shall be random pursuant to a drawing or lottery conducted by the department.

(d) On the list prepared by the department under subdivision (c), each traffic violator school shall appear by name unless a court determines, pursuant to subdivision (e), that a name is inappropriate and directs the department to delete the name and instead list the school by the term "traffic violator school" followed by its license number. The deletion of the name of a school from the list for a judicial district shall not affect whether that school appears by name on the list for any other judicial district within the state. In making a determination under this subdivision regarding the deletion of a name from the list, the court shall use as its criteria whether the name is misleading to the public, undignified, or implies that the school offers inducements or premiums which derogate or distort the instructional intent of the traffic safety program.

(e) When the department transmits any referral list to each municipal and justice court pursuant to subdivision (a), each municipal and justice court shall do all of the following:

(1) Within 30 days of receipt of the list, notify the school owner of any school name that the court intends to remove from the referral list.

(2) Within 60 days of receipt of the list, make every effort to schedule, conduct, and complete a hearing for the school owner, or a representative, if requested, at which the sole issue shall be whether the name violates the standards set forth in subdivision (d). A substitute name may be submitted to the court at the conclusion of the hearing, pursuant to subdivision (h).

(3) Within 10 days of the completion of that hearing, notify the department and school owner of any school names it intends to remove from the referral list.

(f) In order for a court action to delete a school name from the next referral list published by the department, the department shall receive court notification no later than 90 days prior to publication of the next referral list and, absent a direct order by a superior court or court of higher jurisdiction, the department shall not fail to publish a referral list on the grounds that there exists pending litigation or appeals concerning the lists.

(g) Any court notifying the department of a school name it intends to remove from the list, pursuant to this section, shall provide the school owner with the name of the judge making those findings.

(h) When a court informs a school owner, pursuant to subdivision (e), of its decision to delete the name of a traffic violator school from that judicial district's subsection of the department's traffic violator school referral list, the owner may, on a form approved by the department, submit a substitute name to the court and request approval of that name. The court shall, within 30 days of receipt of the request for approval of the substitute name, inform the department and the school owner, on a form approved by the department, of its approval or rejection of the substitute name. The school owner may continue this appeal process for approval of a substitute name until the court determines that the name does not violate the standard set forth in subdivision (d). A name approval in a judicial district shall not affect the school's name or listing in any other district in the state. The department shall not impose any fee or license requirement under this subdivision.

(i) If a court fails to act within 30 days on a request of a traffic violator school owner, pursuant to subdivision (h), the proposed substitute name shall be deemed approved by the court for the purposes of the traffic violator school referral list.

(j) (1) Every application filed with the department on and after June 1, 1991, for an original license by a traffic school owner or for approval to conduct classes in a judicial district not previously approved, shall be accompanied by the approval of the court in each judicial district proposed for those operations of the name of the school, on a form approved by the department for that purpose. For the approved name to be included in the traffic violator school referral list, the form shall be received by the department no later than 90 days prior to publication.

(2) When a court disapproves a school name pursuant to this subdivision, the court shall notify the school owner within 30 days of its disapproval and schedule a hearing for that school owner, or a representative, if requested, at which the sole issue shall be whether the name violates the standards set forth in subdivision (d). A substitute name may be submitted to the court at the conclusion of the hearing, pursuant to subdivision (h).

(3) The court shall make every effort to schedule, conduct, and complete a hearing within 60 days of receipt of the school owner's request for a school name approval. A name approval in a judicial district shall not affect the school's name or listing in any other district in the state. A change in physical location by a school within a judicial district shall not require approval pursuant to this subdivision.

(k) The department shall publish a list of the owners of traffic violator schools. One copy shall be provided to each municipal and justice court in the state. This list shall be revised at least twice annually and transmitted to the courts by the first day of January and the first day of July. This list shall include all of the following:

(1) The name of each school, grouped by owner.

(2) The business office address.

(3) The business office telephone number.

(4) The license number.

(5) The owner's name.

(6) The operator's name.

(l) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (d) of Section 42005, the court shall use either the current list of traffic violator schools published by the department when it orders a person to complete a traffic violator school pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 42005 or, when a court utilizing a nonprofit agency for traffic violator school administration and monitoring services in which all traffic violator schools licensed by the department are allowed the opportunity to participate, a statewide referral list may be published by the nonprofit agency and distributed by the court. The agency shall monitor each classroom location represented on its referral list at least once every 90 days with reports forwarded to the department and the respective courts on a monthly basis.

(m) The court may charge a traffic violator a fee to defray the costs incurred by the agency for the monitoring reports and services provided to the court. The court may delegate collection of the fee to the agency. Fees shall be approved and regulated by the court. Until December 31, 1994, the fee shall not exceed the actual cost incurred by the agency or six dollars ($6), whichever is less. From January 1, 1995, until June 30, 1995, the fee shall not exceed the actual cost incurred by the agency or five dollars ($5), which ever is less. This subdivision shall remain operative until June 30, 1995, and on that date shall become inoperative unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted on or before June 30, 1995, deletes or extends that date.

(o) If any provision of subdivision (d) or (e), as added by Section 4 of Assembly Bill 185 of the 1991–92 Regular Session, or the application thereof to any person, is held to be unconstitutional, this section is repealed on the date the decision of the court so holding becomes final.

SEC. 33. Section 11205 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11205. (a) The department shall publish semiannually, or more often as necessary to serve the purposes of this act, a list of all traffic violator schools which are licensed pursuant to this section. The list shall identify classroom facilities within a judicial district that are at a different location from a licensed school's principal facility. The department shall transmit the list to each municipal and justice court with a sufficient number of copies to allow the courts to provide one copy to each person referred to a licensed traffic violator school. The department shall, at least semiannually, revise the list to ensure that each court has a current list of all licensed traffic violator schools.

(b) Each licensed traffic violator school owner shall be permitted one school name per judicial district.

(c) The referral list shall be organized alphabetically, in sections for each county, and contain subsections for each judicial district within the county. The order of the names within each judicial district shall be random pursuant to a drawing or lottery conducted by the department.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (d) of Section 42005, the court shall use either the current referral list of traffic violator schools published by the department when it orders a person to complete a traffic violator school pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 42005 or, when a court utilizing a nonprofit agency for traffic violator school administration and monitoring services in which all traffic violator schools licensed by the department are allowed the opportunity to participate, a statewide referral list may be published by the nonprofit agency and distributed by the court. The agency shall monitor each classroom location represented on its referral list at least once every 90 days with reports forwarded to the department and the respective courts on a monthly basis.

(e) The court may charge a traffic violator a fee to defray the costs incurred by the agency for the monitoring reports and services provided to the court. The court may delegate collection of the fee to the agency. Fees shall be approved and regulated by the court. Until December 31, 1994, the fee shall not exceed the actual cost incurred by the agency or six dollars ($6), whichever is less. From January 1, 1995, until June 30, 1995, the fee shall not exceed the actual cost incurred by the agency or five dollars ($5), whichever is less. This subdivision shall remain operative until June 30, 1995, and on that date shall become inoperative unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted on or before June 30, 1995, deletes or extends that date.

(f) If any provision of subdivision (d) or (e) of Section 11205, as added by Section 4 of Assembly Bill 185 of the 1991–92 Regular Session, or the application thereof to any person, is held to be unconstitutional, that Section 11205 is repealed on the date the decision of the court so holding becomes final, and on that date, this section shall become operative.

SEC. 34. Section 42201 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

42201. (a) Of the total amount of fines and forfeitures received by a county under Section 1463.001 of the Penal Code, fines and forfeitures collected from any person charged with a misdemeanor under this code following arrest by any officer employed by the state or by the county shall be paid into the general fund of the county. However, the board of supervisors of the county may, by resolution, provide that a portion thereof be transferred into the road fund of the county.

(b) The board of supervisors of a county may enter into a contract with the Department of the California Highway Patrol for the purpose of providing adequate protection for school pupils who are required to cross heavily traveled streets, highways, and roadways in the unincorporated areas of the county. When requested, the Department of the California Highway Patrol may provide such service and the county shall reimburse the state for salaries and wages of crossing guards furnished by the Department of the California Highway Patrol pursuant to such contract, including any necessary retirement and general administrative costs and expenses in connection therewith, and may pay the costs thereof from amounts deposited in the road fund pursuant to this section.

(c) Fines and forfeitures received by a county under Section 1463.001 of the Penal Code may be used to pay the compensation of school crossing guards and necessary equipment costs and administrative costs.

(d) When requested by any county which had in effect on June 30, 1979, a contract with the Department of the California Highway Patrol, to provide protection for school pupils at school crossings, the department upon request of a county shall continue to administer such school crossing program until June 30, 1980. The county shall reimburse the Department of the California Highway Patrol for general administrative costs and expenses in connection therewith, except that, effective January 1, 1980, the crossing guards shall be furnished to the California Highway Patrol and such crossing guards shall be employees of the county, the county superintendent of schools, the affected school districts, or both the superintendent and the affected school districts, at the option of the board of supervisors of the county. Any salaries and wages of crossing guards, including necessary retirement and equipment costs and any administrative costs shall be paid or reimbursed by the county from amounts deposited in the road fund pursuant to this section.

(e) The board of supervisors may adopt standards for the provision of school crossing guards. The board has final authority over the total cost of the school crossing guard program of any agency to be paid or reimbursed from amounts deposited in the road fund pursuant to this section. The board of supervisors may specify that a designated county officer, employee, or commissioner is to hire school crossing guards, or, in the alternative, the board may specify that any school district crossing guard program in unincorporated areas shall be maintained by the school districts desiring the program.

SEC. 35. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 36. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide adequate trial court funding for the 1994–95 fiscal year, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 309

An act to amend Section 24308 of the Government Code, relating to county government.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that many statutory and regulatory provisions imposed upon county government prevent counties from organizing the administrative structure most fitting for the individual county. Counties vary greatly in size, need for particular services, and financial capability.

Therefore, the Legislature further finds and declares that each county should be granted the widest possible latitude in organizing its administrative structure, restricted only by provisions of the state constitution and statutes regarding elected officials.

SEC. 2. Section 24308 of the Government Code is amended to read:

24308. (a) Notwithstanding Sections 24300 and 24304, the board of supervisors of any county may organize, pursuant to ordinance or charter, the delivery of any services for which county government is responsible under state law, into departments or agencies that provide multiple services, except those duties and responsibilities of other elected county officials mandated by the California Constitution or by statute. Any county board of supervisors that elects to organize the delivery of services may consolidate, integrate, or separate duties and functions of county offices and organizational units within departments, to the extent deemed necessary by the board of supervisors.

(b) All personnel, including the heads of units within departments organized pursuant to this section and formed from units formerly within other county departments, shall possess the particular qualifications required by the statutes governing provision of the services provided by those departments. These qualifications include standards of education and experience to assure competence appropriate for the direction of the departments or the local administration of county functions.

(c) This section shall not permit the occupant of a consolidated, integrated, or separated office to practice any profession or trade for the practice of which a license, permit, or registration is required, without that license, permit, or registration.

(d) This section shall not be construed to affect any other statutory or regulatory provision governing county services or programs, however reorganized or renamed, except for the organizational requirements specified in this section. In no case may a state department or agency reject a county plan required by the Health and Safety Code or the Welfare and Institutions Code or regulations enacted pursuant to either of those codes or impose sanctions for any program or service due to the organization or reorganization of county departments as authorized under this section or Division 5 (commencing with Section 33200). Prior to taking action to reject a county plan or impose sanctions, the department or agency shall inform the county board of supervisors in writing of the deficiency.

CHAPTER 310

An act to add Section 6404.5 to the Labor Code, relating to occupational safety and health.

[Approved by Governor July 21, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6404.5 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

6404.5. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that regulation of smoking in the workplace is a matter of statewide interest and concern. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to prohibit the smoking of tobacco products in all (100 percent of) enclosed places of employment in this state, as covered by this section, thereby eliminating the need of local governments to enact workplace smoking restrictions within their respective jurisdictions. It is further the intent of the Legislature to create a uniform statewide standard to restrict and prohibit the smoking of tobacco products in enclosed places of employment, as specified in this section, in order to reduce employee exposure to environmental tobacco smoke to a level that will prevent anything other than insignificantly harmful effects to exposed employees, and also to eliminate the confusion and hardship that can result from enactment or enforcement of disparate local workplace smoking restrictions. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, it is the intent of the Legislature that any area not defined as a "place of employment" pursuant to subdivision (d) or in which the smoking of tobacco products is not regulated pursuant to subdivision (e) shall be subject to local regulation of smoking of tobacco products.

(b) No employer shall knowingly or intentionally permit, and no person shall engage in, the smoking of tobacco products in an enclosed space at a place of employment.

(c) For purposes of this section, an employer who permits any nonemployee access to his or her place of employment on a regular basis has not acted knowingly or intentionally if he or she has taken the following reasonable steps to prevent smoking by a nonemployee:

(1) Posted clear and prominent signs, as follows:

(A) Where smoking is prohibited throughout the building or structure, a sign stating "No smoking" shall be posted at each entrance to the building or structure.

(B) Where smoking is permitted in designated areas of the building or structure, a sign stating "Smoking is prohibited except in designated areas" shall be posted at each entrance to the building or structure.

(2) Has requested, when appropriate, that a nonemployee who is smoking refrain from smoking in the enclosed workplace.

For purposes of this subdivision, "reasonable steps" does not include (A) the physical ejectment of a nonemployee from the place of employment or (B) any requirement for making a request to a nonemployee to refrain from smoking, under circumstances involving a risk of physical harm to the employer or any employee.

(d) For purposes of this section, "place of employment" does not include any of the following:

(1) Sixty-five percent of the guest room accommodations in a hotel, motel, or similar transient lodging establishment.

(2) Areas of the lobby in a hotel, motel, or other similar transient lodging establishment designated for smoking by the establishment. Such an establishment may permit smoking in a designated lobby area that does not exceed 25 percent of the total floor area of the lobby or, if the total area of the lobby is 2,000 square feet or less, that does not exceed 50 percent of the total floor area of the lobby. For purposes of this paragraph, "lobby" means the common public area of such an establishment in which registration and other similar or related transactions, or both, are conducted and in which the establishment's guests and members of the public typically congregate.

(3) Meeting and banquet rooms in a hotel, motel, other transient lodging establishment similar to a hotel or motel, restaurant, or public convention center, except while food or beverage functions are taking place, including setup, service, and cleanup activities, or when the room is being used for exhibit purposes. At times when smoking is not permitted in such a meeting or banquet room pursuant to this paragraph, the establishment may permit smoking in corridors and prefunction areas adjacent to and serving the meeting or banquet room if no employee is stationed in that corridor or area on other than a passing basis.

(4) Retail or wholesale tobacco shops and private smokers' lounges. For purposes of this paragraph:

(A) "Private smokers' lounge" means any enclosed area in or attached to a retail or wholesale tobacco shop that is dedicated to the use of tobacco products, including, but not limited to, cigars and pipes.

(B) "Retail or wholesale tobacco shop" means any business establishment the main purpose of which is the sale of tobacco products, including, but not limited to, cigars, pipe tobacco, and smoking accessories.

(5) Cabs of motortrucks, as defined in Section 410 of the Vehicle Code, or truck tractors, as defined in Section 655 of the Vehicle Code, if no nonsmoking employees are present.

(6) Warehouse facilities. For purposes of this paragraph, "warehouse facility" means a warehouse facility with more than 100,000 square feet of total floor space, and 20 or fewer full-time employees working at the facility, but does not include any area within such a facility that is utilized as office space.

(7) Gaming clubs, in which smoking is permitted by subdivision (f). For purposes of this paragraph, "gaming club" means any gaming club as defined in Section 19802 of the Business and Professions Code or bingo facility as defined in Section 326.5 of the Penal Code that restricts access to minors under 18 years of age.

(8) Bars and taverns, in which smoking is permitted by subdivision (f). For purposes of this paragraph, "bar" or "tavern" means a facility primarily devoted to the serving of alcoholic beverages for consumption by guests on the premises, in which the serving of food is incidental. "Bar or tavern" includes those facilities located within a hotel, motel, or other similar transient occupancy establishment. However, when located within a building in conjunction with another use, including a restaurant, "bar" or "tavern" includes only those areas used primarily for the sale and service of alcoholic beverages. "Bar" or "tavern" does not include the dining areas of a restaurant, regardless of whether alcoholic beverages are served therein.

(9) Theatrical production sites, if smoking is an integral part of the story in the theatrical production.

(10) Medical research or treatment sites, if smoking is integral to the research and treatment being conducted.

(11) Private residences, except for private residences licensed as family day care homes, during the hours of operation as family day care homes and in those areas where children are present.

(12) Patient smoking areas in long-term health care facilities, as defined in Section 1418 of the Health and Safety Code.

(13) Breakrooms designated by employers for smoking, provided that all of the following conditions are met:

(A) Air from the smoking room shall be exhausted directly to the outside by an exhaust fan. Air from the smoking room shall not be recirculated to other parts of the building.

(B) The employer shall comply with any ventilation standard or other standard utilizing appropriate technology, including, but not limited to, mechanical, electronic, and biotechnical systems, adopted by the Occupational Safety and Health Standards Board or the federal Environmental Protection Agency. If both adopt inconsistent standards, the ventilation standards of the Occupational Safety and Health Standards Board shall be no less stringent than the standards adopted by the federal Environmental Protection Agency.

(C) The smoking room shall be located in a nonwork area where no one, as part of his or her work responsibilities, is required to enter. For purposes of this paragraph, "work responsibilities" does not include any custodial or maintenance work carried out in the breakroom when it is unoccupied.

(D) There are sufficient nonsmoking breakrooms to accommodate nonsmokers.

(14) Employers with a total of five or fewer employees, either full-time or part-time, may permit smoking where all of the following conditions are met:

(A) The smoking area is not accessible to minors.

(B) All employees who enter the smoking area consent to permit smoking. No one, as part of his or her work responsibilities, shall be required to work in an area where smoking is permitted. An employer who is determined by the division to have used coercion to obtain consent or who has required an employee to work in the smoking area shall be subject to the penalty provisions of Section 6427.

(C) Air from the smoking area shall be exhausted directly to the outside by an exhaust fan. Air from the smoking area shall not be recirculated to other parts of the building.

(D) The employer shall comply with any ventilation standard or other standard utilizing appropriate technology, including, but not limited to, mechanical, electronic, and biotechnical systems, adopted by the Occupational Safety and Health Standards Board or the federal Environmental Protection Agency. If both adopt inconsistent standards, the ventilation standards of the Occupational Safety and Health Standards Board shall be no less stringent than the standards adopted by the federal Environmental Protection Agency.

This paragraph shall not be construed to (i) supersede or render inapplicable any condition or limitation on smoking areas made applicable to specific types of business establishments by any other paragraph of this subdivision or (ii) apply in lieu of any otherwise applicable paragraph of this subdivision that has become inoperative.

(e) Paragraphs (13) and (14) of subdivision (d) shall not be construed to require employers to provide reasonable accommodation to smokers, or to provide breakrooms for smokers or nonsmokers.

(f) (1) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, smoking may be permitted in gaming clubs, as defined in paragraph (7) of subdivision (d), and in bars and taverns, as defined in paragraph (8) of subdivision (d), until the earlier of the following:

(A) January 1, 1997.

(B) The date of adoption of a regulation (i) by the Occupational Safety and Health Standards Board reducing the permissible employee exposure level to environmental tobacco smoke to a level that will prevent anything other than insignificantly harmful effects to exposed employees or (ii) by the federal Environmental Protection Agency establishing a standard for reduction of permissible exposure to environmental tobacco smoke to an exposure level that will prevent anything other than insignificantly harmful effects to exposed persons.

(2) If a regulation specified in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) is adopted on or before January 1, 1997, smoking may thereafter be permitted in gaming clubs and in bars and taverns, subject to full compliance with, or conformity to, the standard in the regulation within two years following the date of adoption of the regulation. An employer failing to achieve compliance with, or conformity to, such a regulation within this two-year period shall prohibit smoking in the gaming club, bar, or tavern until compliance or conformity is achieved. If the Occupational Safety and Health Standards Board and the federal Environmental Protection Agency both adopt regulations specified in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) that are inconsistent, the regulations of the Occupational Safety Standards Board shall be no less stringent than the regulations of the federal Environmental Protection Agency.

(3) If a regulation specified in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) is not adopted on or before January 1, 1997, the exemptions specified in paragraphs (7) and (8) of subdivision (d) shall be inoperative on and after January 1, 1997, until such a regulation is adopted. Upon adoption of such a regulation on or after January 1, 1997, smoking may thereafter be permitted in gaming clubs and in bars and taverns, subject to full compliance with, or conformity to, the standard in the regulation within two years following the date of adoption of the regulation. An employer failing to achieve compliance with, or conformity to, such a regulation within this two-year period shall prohibit smoking in the gaming club, bar, or tavern until compliance or conformity is achieved. If the Occupational Safety and Health Standards Board and the federal Environmental Protection Agency both adopt regulations specified in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) that are inconsistent, the regulations of the Occupational Safety Standards Board shall be no less stringent than the regulations of the federal Environmental Protection Agency.

(g) The smoking prohibition set forth in this section shall constitute a uniform statewide standard for regulating the smoking of tobacco products in enclosed places of employment and shall supersede and render unnecessary the local enactment or enforcement of local ordinances regulating the smoking of tobacco products in enclosed places of employment. Insofar as the smoking prohibition set forth in this section is applicable to all (100 percent of) places of employment within this state and, therefore, provides the maximum degree of coverage, the practical effect of this section is to eliminate the need of local governments to enact enclosed workplace smoking restrictions within their respective jurisdictions.

(h) Nothing in this section shall prohibit an employer from prohibiting smoking in an enclosed place of employment for any reason.

(i) The enactment of local regulation of smoking of tobacco products in enclosed places of employment by local governments shall be suspended only for as long as, and to the extent that, the (100 percent) smoking prohibition provided for in this section remains in effect. In the event this section is repealed or modified by subsequent legislative or judicial action so that the (100 percent) smoking prohibition is no longer applicable to all enclosed places of employment in California, local governments shall have the full right and authority to enforce previously enacted, and to enact and enforce new, restrictions on the smoking of tobacco products in enclosed places of employment within their jurisdictions, including a complete prohibition of smoking. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, any area not defined as a "place of employment" or in which the smoking is not regulated pursuant to subdivision (d) or (e), shall be subject to local regulation of smoking of tobacco products.

(j) Any violation of the prohibition set forth in subdivision (b) is an infraction subject to subdivision (d) of Section 17 of the Penal Code and, notwithstanding Section 19.8 of the Penal Code, is punishable by a fine not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) for a first violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for a second violation within one year, and five hundred dollars ($500) for a third and for each subsequent violation within one year. This subdivision shall be enforced by local law enforcement agencies including, but not limited to, local health departments, as determined by the local governing body.

(k) Notwithstanding Section 6309, the division shall not be required to respond to any complaint regarding the smoking of tobacco products in an enclosed space at a place of employment, unless the employer has been found guilty pursuant to subdivision (j) of a third violation of subdivision (b) within the previous year.

(l) If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act that can be given effect without the invalid provision of application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 311

An act to amend Sections 19414.5, 19596, 19605, 19607.5, 19610.5, and 19612.3 of, to add Sections 19525, 19592.5, 19596.2, and 19642 to, and to repeal and add Section 19601 of, the Business and Professions Code, and to repeal and add Sections 3853 and 3856.5 of the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to horseracing, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 21, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19414.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19414.5. (a) "Racing days" are days on which a licensed racing association or fair is authorized by the board to conduct horseracing.

(b) "Racing weeks" are seven consecutive days during which a licensed racing association or fair is authorized by the board to conduct horseracing for a minimum of five racing days. The board, however, upon joint petition of the association or fair and the organization representing horsemen participating in the meeting of that association or fair, may authorize the conduct of horseracing for a minimum of four racing days. Fractional racing weeks of four days or less may be authorized by the board at the beginning and end of any horseracing meeting. Fractional weeks may also be authorized during weeks containing holidays and during periods of overlap with thoroughbred meetings and fairs if the total number of weeks authorized by the board in any calendar year for each breed does not exceed the maximum annual allocation of racing weeks provided for in Article 6 (commencing with Section 19530). If a licensed racing association holds a split meeting, each part of the split meeting shall be deemed a horseracing meeting solely for the purposes of authorizing fractional racing weeks.

SEC. 2. Section 19525 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

19525. No licensee or any other person may receive a commission, fee, gratuity, or any other form of compensation in connection with the sale or purchase of a racehorse, prospective racehorse, stallion, or brood mare, unless the purchaser and seller have agreed in writing to the payment of the commission, fee, gratuity, or other compensation. No contract or agreement shall be enforceable by way of an action or defense unless there is a writing sufficient to indicate that the party against whom enforcement is sought or his or her authorized agent or broker has agreed to the commission, fee, gratuity, or other form of compensation. Anyone who receives a commission, fee, gratuity or any other form of compensation in violation of this section is subject to treble damages to the injured purchaser or seller. The board may suspend or revoke the license of any person who violates this section. Any transfer of an interest in a racehorse, prospective racehorse, stallion, or brood mare shall be accompanied by a written bill of sale setting forth the purchase price.

SEC. 3. Section 19592.5 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

19592.5. In order to facilitate the intrastate transmission of racing programs, the board shall adopt regulations that provide for the compatibility of parimutuel totalizator systems within the state, including uniform procedures for the issuance and cashing of parimutuel tickets.

SEC. 4. Section 19596 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19596. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the board may do any of the following:

(1) Authorize an association conducting a racing meeting in this state to accept wagers on the results of out-of-state feature races having a gross purse of at least fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) during the period the association is conducting the racing meeting on days when live races are being run.

(2) Authorize an association in this state to accept wagers on any stakes race conducted by the racing association that conducts the Kentucky Derby, the Preakness Stakes, or the Belmont Stakes, if the stakes race is conducted on the same day as the Kentucky Derby, the Preakness Stakes, or the Belmont Stakes, and if the association in this state that accepts those wagers is then conducting a live racing meeting.

(3) Authorize the inclusion of wagers authorized pursuant to this section in the parimutuel pools of the out-of-state association that conducts the races on which the wagers are placed.

(b) The board authorization may be granted under this section only if both of the following conditions are met:

(1) The authorization complies with federal laws, including, but not limited to, Chapter 57 (commencing with Section 3001) of Title 15 of the United States Code.

(2) Wagering is offered only within the racing enclosure and only within seven days of the running of the out-of-state feature race.

SEC. 5. Section 19596.2 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

19596.2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a thoroughbred racing association may accept wagers on the results of out-of-country thoroughbred races during the period the association is conducting a race meeting without the consent of the organization that represents horsemen participating in the race meeting and without regard to the amount of purses, provided the association conducts not less than eight live races per day on days the association is licensed to conduct racing.

SEC. 6. Section 19601 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 19601 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

19601. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a licensed association or fair that is conducting a live meeting in any racing zone may accept wagers on any race conducted in this state, if all of the following requirements are met:

(2) The association or fair that conducts the racing meeting and the organization that is responsible for negotiating purse agreements, satellite wagering agreements, and all other business agreements on behalf of the horsemen participating in that racing meeting consent to the acceptance of the wagers. However, if consent is withheld, any party may appeal the withholding of consent to the board, which may determine that consent is not required.

(3) The association or fair conducts not less that eight races on days when the association or fair is licensed to conduct racing, except that fewer than eight live races per day may be conducted by the mutual agreement of the association or fair and the organization that is responsible for negotiating purse agreements, satellite wagering agreements, and all other business agreements on behalf of the horsemen participating in the racing meeting.

(4) Wagering is offered only within the association's or fair's racing inclosure or within the satellite wagering facility and only within seven days of the commencement of the racing program with the transmitted race.

(5) All wagers are included in the appropriate parimutuel pool at the racetrack of the association or fair where the race is conducted, or, at the election of the parties to the agreement required by paragraph (1), in the appropriate parimutuel pool of the racetrack of the association or fair that accepts the transmitted race.

(6) The association or fair accepting wagers on an out-of-zone transmitted race distributes the audiovisual signal of the race to, and accepts wagers from, all eligible satellite wagering facilities.

(b) Any association or fair accepting wagers under subdivision (a) shall deduct from the total amount handled in each conventional and exotic parimutuel pool on the transmitted race, the same percentages deducted pursuant to Article 9.5 (commencing with Section 19610) for races at its own meeting. However, if the wagers are from a quarter horse race meeting, then the amounts deducted shall be the same as for a quarter horse race meeting. Amounts deducted under this section, including amounts deducted from wagers on out-of-zone races within the inclosure of the association or fair, shall be distributed as provided under Section 19605.7 with respect to wagers made within the northern zone, or Section 19605.71 with respect to wagers made within the central or southern zone, except that amounts distributed for purposes other than state license fees and fees payable to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis, and the California Diagnostic Veterinary Lab System shall be proportionally reduced by the amount of any fees paid as compensation to the association or fair conducting the transmitted race pursuant to subdivision (c). The method used to calculate the reduction in proportionate share shall be approved by the board. For wagers on out-of-zone races made within the association's or fair's inclosure, the percentage amount normally distributed as a satellite wagering facility commission, less any pro rata reduction required by this subdivision, shall be distributed instead as additional commissions and purses pursuant to Section 19605.8. Additionally, for all wagers on out-of-zone races, the percentage amount normally distributed for promotion of the program at satellite wagering facilities, less any pro rata reduction required by this subdivision, shall be distributed instead as additional commissions and purses pursuant to Section 19605.8.

(c) Nothing in this section precludes an association or fair from charging a fee as a condition of transmitting its races to another zone, except that any fee shall be allocated among all associations, fairs, and satellite wagering facilities receiving the transmitted race in proportion to the amount wagered at each location, and the fee shall not exceed 2.5 percent of the total amount wagered on each out-of-zone race. Any fees received by the association or fair that conducts the transmitted race shall be divided equally between commissions to the association or fair conducting the out-of-zone race and purses to horsemen that participate in the association's or fair's racing meeting.

(d) All breakage and unclaimed tickets, including unclaimed refunds, on wagers on out-of-zone races shall be distributed equally between the association or fair that accepts wagers on the transmitted race, and the horsemen, in the form of purses, who participate in the racing meeting of the association or fair that accepts wagers on the transmitted race.

(e) All wagers made pursuant to this section shall be considered to have been wagered at a satellite wagering facility and shall be excluded from total handle for the purposes of Section 19611.

(f) Notwithstanding Section 19530.5, satellite wagering facilities operated by a county fair, district agricultural association fair, or citrus fruit fair in the Counties of Kern, Fresno, or Tulare shall be considered northern zone facilities and shall receive their audiovisual signal from the association or fair conducting a racing meeting in the northern zone that is authorized to distribute the signal and accept wagers on central and southern zone races. Satellite wagering facilities operated by a county fair, district agricultural association, or citrus fruit fair in the Counties of Santa Barbara or Ventura shall be considered central-southern zone facilities and shall receive the audiovisual signal from the association or fair conducting a racing meeting in the central or southern zone that is authorized to distribute the signal and accept wagers on central and southern zone races.

(g) All purse moneys derived from wagering on out-of-zone races at fair racing meetings conducted within the northern zone shall be distributed to all breeds of horses participating in the fair meeting in direct proportion to the purse money generated by breed on live races conducted during the fair race meeting.

(h) During calendar periods when both a fair and a thoroughbred association conduct live racing, the thoroughbred association shall be the association authorized to distribute the signal and accept wagers on out-of-zone races. The amounts deducted under this section shall be distributed on any day of overlap as provided in Section 19607.5 subject to the agreements specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), except that the applicable state license fee shall be at the rate or rates specified for nonfair meetings in subdivision (b) of Section 19605.7.

(i) During calendar periods when a thoroughbred association and any other breed association are conducting a racing meeting in the same zone, the thoroughbred association shall be the association authorized to distribute out-of-zone thoroughbred or fair races, except that the thoroughbred association may waive this right and allow the other breed racing association conducing a race meeting to distribute the signal and accept wagers on out-of-zone thoroughbred or fair races for any racing day or days. For the purposes of this subdivision, the combined central and southern zone shall be considered one zone.

(j) In order to encourage additional intrastate simulcasting, maximize state revenues, and further the purposes of this section, the board may adopt regulations to ensure that all horseracing programs conducted within the state are exposed to the maximum number of racing fans. The regulations may include, but are not limited to, the following:

(1) Establishing a minimum number of out-of-zone races that must be accepted by associations and fairs that contract to accept out-of-zone wagers pursuant to subdivision (a).

(2) Requiring associations, fairs, and satellite wagering facilities to present out-of-zone audiovisual signals to racing fans in substantially the same manner as in-zone signals are presented.

(3) Giving racing fans the opportunity to make wagers on out-of-zone racing programs at all parimutuel terminals where wagers on in-zone races are accepted.

SEC. 8. Section 19605 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19605. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the board may authorize an association licensed to conduct a racing meeting in the northern zone to operate a satellite wagering facility for wagering on races conducted in the northern zone at its racetrack inclosure subject to all of the conditions specified in Section 19605.3, and may authorize an association licensed to conduct a racing meeting in the central or southern zone to operate a satellite wagering facility for wagering on races conducted in the central or southern zone at its racetrack inclosure subject to the conditions specified in subdivisions (a) to (e), inclusive, of Section 19605.3 and the conditions and limitations set forth in Section 19605.6.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no satellite wagering facility, except a facility that is located at a track where live racing is conducted, shall be located within 20 miles of any existing satellite wagering facility or of any track where a racing association conducts a live racing meeting. However, in the northern zone, a racing association or any existing satellite wagering facility may waive the prohibition contained in this subdivision and may consent to the location of another satellite wagering facility within 20 miles of the facility or track. This subdivision does not apply to an association described in subdivision (g) of Section 19531.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), the Department of Food and Agriculture may approve not more than three satellite wagering facilities that are licensed jointly to the 1a District Agricultural Association and the 5th District Agricultural Association and that are located on the fairgrounds of the 1a District Agricultural Association or within the boundaries of the City and County of San Francisco. Before a satellite wagering facility may be licensed for the 1997 and subsequent calendar years under this subdivision, the department shall conduct a one-year test at the proposed site in order to determine the impact of the proposed facility on total state parimutuel revenues and on attendance and wagering at existing racetracks and fair satellite wagering facilities in the Counties of Alameda, San Mateo, Santa Clara, and Solano. Notwithstanding Section 19605.1, a satellite wagering facility may be located on property leased to one or both fairs. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the fairs may contract for the operation and management of a satellite wagering facility with an individual racing association or a partnership, joint venture, or other affiliation of two or more racing associations that are licensed to conduct thoroughbred meetings within the northern zone.

SEC. 9. Section 19607.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19607.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, when both a fair and a thoroughbred association are licensed by the board to conduct live racing meetings within the northern zone during the same calendar period, signals of both racing programs shall be accepted at each live racing meeting within the northern zone and at all satellite wagering facilities eligible to receive these programs.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in order to ensure that fairs which previously had an exclusive right to send their signals to satellite wagering facilities in the northern zone during periods of overlap do not lose commission revenues from satellite wagering, each fair that conducts its meeting during the period described in subdivision (a) shall receive the following satellite wagering commissions:

(1) With respect to the 2nd District Agricultural Association in Stockton, the commissions payable to the fair from satellite wagering during the period described in subdivision (a) shall be the greater of any of the following:

(A) The actual commission earned by the fair from satellite wagering on its live races during that period.

(B) Fifty percent of the total combined satellite wagering commissions payable to the thoroughbred association and the fair during that period.

(C) One hundred ten percent of the satellite wagering commissions paid to the fair during its live racing meeting in 1990.

If the satellite wagering commissions received by the 2nd District Agricultural Association are less than the greater of the amounts specified in subparagraph (B) or (C), the thoroughbred association shall pay to the fair from amounts deducted from satellite wagering on its meeting and before distribution of any satellite wagering commissions and purses on its meeting, an amount equal to the difference between the actual satellite wagering commissions received by the fair in that year and the applicable amount from subparagraph (B) or (C). No additional satellite wagering commission shall be paid to the fair by an association unless the fair conducts live racing during the period described in subdivision (a).

(2) With respect to the California Exposition and State Fair in Sacramento, the commissions payable to the fair from satellite wagering during the period described in subdivision (a) shall be the greater of either of the following:

(A) The actual commission earned by the fair from satellite wagering on its live races during that period.

(B) Sixty percent of the total combined satellite wagering commissions payable to the thoroughbred association and the fair during that period.

If the satellite wagering commissions received by the California Exposition and State Fair are less than the amount described in (B), the thoroughbred association shall pay to the fair from amounts deducted from satellite wagering on its meeting and before distribution of any satellite wagering commissions and purses on its meeting, an amount equal to the difference between the actual satellite wagering commissions received by the fair in that year and the amount described in (B). No additional satellite wagering commission shall be paid to the fair by an association unless the fair conducts live racing during the period described in subdivision (a).

(c) During any periods described in subdivision (a), including periods of overlap for fairs not specified in subdivision (b), the thoroughbred association shall deduct the same percentage from the total amount wagered in its daily conventional and exotic parimutuel pools as the percentage deducted by the fair meeting. The amounts deducted shall be distributed as otherwise provided in this article, with the following exceptions:

(1) If the percentages deducted from the conventional and exotic parimutuel pools of the thoroughbred association under this subdivision exceed the percentages deducted from the association's pools during periods other than those described under subdivision (a), the amount deducted which is equivalent to the difference between those percentages shall be distributed by the thoroughbred association equally between commissions and purses.

(2) If a thoroughbred association and the 2nd District Agricultural Association in Stockton or the California Exposition and State Fair in Sacramento both conduct live racing meetings during any period described in subdivision (a), the total amount deducted shall be distributed by both the association and fair in the percentages specified for fair meetings in subdivision (b) of Section 19605.7.

Nothing in this subdivision requires any portion of the additional deduction to be distributed pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 19614.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an association and fair that conduct their meeting pursuant to subdivision (b) shall combine the operating expenses incurred at satellite wagering facilities during the period described in subdivision (a). For purposes of this subdivision only, the combined satellite wagering operating expenses of the association and the fair during the period described in subdivision (a) shall not exceed the actual expenses, or 6 percent of the combined parimutuel pool at satellite wagering facilities, whichever is less.

(e) Notwithstanding Section 19606.4, it is the intent of the Legislature that during the period described in subdivision (a) the funds allocated pursuant to Section 19606.3 shall be used to bring purses at the fair racing meetings conducted by the 2nd District Agricultural Association and the California Exposition and State Fair to a level of at least 100 percent of purses for similar classes of horses at the private association which is conducting the simultaneous program.

SEC. 10. Section 19610.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19610.5. In addition to the amounts required to be paid as license fees under any other provision of this chapter, every association, except an association conducting a racing meeting pursuant to Section 19612.6 or 19614 or an association conducting a harness meeting or a quarter horse meeting, shall pay 1 percent of its exotic parimutuel pools, excluding wagering at a satellite wagering facility, to the state as an additional license fee.

SEC. 11. Section 19612.3 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19612.3. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, with respect to harness racing associations other than those conducting a meeting pursuant to Section 19612.6, an additional 1 percent of the parimutuel pool shall be retained and shall be distributed equally between purses and commissions.

(b) With respect to harness racing associations conducting a meeting pursuant to Section 19549.2 or 19612.6, an additional 1 percent of the parimutuel pool shall be retained and shall be distributed as additional commissions.

SEC. 12. Section 19642 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

19642. Cash vouchers that are not redeemed within 365 days of the close of the racing meeting at which the voucher was purchased shall be distributed to a nonprofit organization designated by the board for purposes of maintaining a data base of horseracing information to further the purposes of Section 19444.

SEC. 13. Section 3853 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 14. Section 3853 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

3853. District 1a is the County of San Mateo and the City and County of San Francisco.

SEC. 15. Section 3856.5 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 16. Section 3856.5 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

3856.5. District 5 is the City and County of San Francisco.

SEC. 17. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

State revenues from parimutuel horseracing have increased in 1994 due largely to legislation expanding intrastate simulcasting of horseracing (Chapter 577 of the Statutes of 1993), which was repealed on July 1, 1994. In order for the state to continue to receive needed revenues from intrastate simulcasting as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 312

An act making an appropriation for the payment of judgments and settlement claims against the State of California, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Became law without Governor's signature. Filed with Secretary of State August 12, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of one hundred seventy-eight thousand one hundred twenty-five dollars ($178,125) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of Justice to pay any judgment or settlement claim, including any applicable interest payment, for Butt v. Richmond Unified School District (Contra Costa Superior Court Case No. C-91-01645). Any amounts appropriated in excess of the amounts actually required for the payment of that judgment or settlement claim shall revert to the General Fund on June 30 of the fiscal year in which the payments are made.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to pay judgments and settlement claims against the state and end hardship to claimants as quickly as possible, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 313

An act to repeal Section 5 of Chapter 116 of the Statutes of 1993, relating to housing, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 15, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 15, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5 of Chapter 116 of the Statutes of 1993 is repealed.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to delete the authority for submission of the California Housing and Jobs Investments Bond Act to the voters at the November 8, 1994, statewide general election, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 314

An act to amend Sections 11471, 11488.1, 11488.6, and 11492 of, to add Sections 11469 and 11495 to, to repeal Sections 11471.1, 11473.2, and 11473.3 of, to repeal and amend Section 11489 of, and to repeal and add Sections 11470, 11488, 11488.4, 11488.5, and 11494 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to asset forfeiture, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 19, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 19, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11469 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

11469. In order to ensure the proper utilization of the laws permitting the seizure and forfeiture of property under this chapter, the Legislature hereby establishes the following guidelines:

(a) Law enforcement is the principal objective of forfeiture. Potential revenue must not be allowed to jeopardize the effective investigation and prosecution of criminal offenses, officer safety, the integrity of ongoing investigations, or the due process rights of citizens.

(b) No prosecutor's or sworn law enforcement officer's employment or salary shall be made to depend upon the level of seizures or forfeitures he or she achieves.

(c) Whenever appropriate, prosecutors should seek criminal sanctions as to the underlying criminal acts which give rise to the forfeiture action.

(d) Seizing agencies shall have a manual detailing the statutory grounds for forfeiture and all applicable policies and procedures. The manual shall include procedures for prompt notice to interestholders, the expeditious release of seized property, where appropriate, and the prompt resolution of claims of innocent ownership.

(e) Seizing agencies shall implement training for officers assigned to forfeiture programs, which training should be ongoing.

(f) Seizing agencies shall avoid any appearance of impropriety in the sale or acquisition of forfeited property.

(g) Seizing agencies shall not put any seized or forfeited property into service.

(h) Unless otherwise provided by law, forfeiture proceeds shall be maintained in a separate fund or account subject to appropriate accounting controls and annual financial audits of all deposits and expenditures.

(i) Seizing agencies shall ensure that seized property is protected and its value preserved.

(j) Although civil forfeiture is intended to be remedial by removing the tools and profits from those engaged in the illicit drug trade, it can have harsh effects on property owners in some circumstances. Therefore, law enforcement shall seek to protect the interests of innocent property owners, guarantee adequate notice and due process to property owners, and ensure that forfeiture serves the remedial purpose of the law.

SEC. 2. Section 11470 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Section 1 of Chapter 924 of the Statutes of 1987, is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 11470 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

11470. The following are subject to forfeiture:

(a) All controlled substances which have been manufactured, distributed, dispensed, or acquired in violation of this division.

(b) All raw materials, products, and equipment of any kind which are used, or intended for use, in manufacturing, compounding, processing, delivering, importing, or exporting any controlled substance in violation of this division.

(c) All property except real property or a boat, airplane, or any vehicle which is used, or intended for use, as a container for property described in subdivision (a) or (b).

(d) All books, records, and research products and materials, including formulas, microfilm, tapes, and data which are used, or intended for use, in violation of this division.

(e) The interest of any registered owner of a boat, airplane, or any vehicle other than an implement of husbandry, as defined in Section 36000 of the Vehicle Code, which has been used as an instrument to facilitate the possession for sale or sale of 14.25 grams or more of heroin or cocaine base as specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (f) of Section 11054, or a substance containing 14.25 grams or more of heroin or cocaine base as specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (f) of Section 11054, or 14.25 grams or more of a substance containing heroin or cocaine base as specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (f) of Section 11054, or 28.5 grams or more of Schedule I controlled substances except marijuana, peyote, or psilocybin; 10 pounds dry weight or more of marijuana, peyote, or psilocybin; or 28.5 grams or more of cocaine, as specified in paragraph (6) of subdivision (b) of Section 11055, or methamphetamine; or a substance containing 28.5 grams or more of cocaine, as specified in paragraph (6) of subdivision (b) of Section 11055, or methamphetamine; or 57 grams or more of a substance containing cocaine, as specified in paragraph (6) of subdivision (b) of Section 11055, or methamphetamine; or 28.5 grams or more of Schedule II controlled substances. No interest in a vehicle which may be lawfully driven on the highway with a class C, class M1, or class M2 license, as prescribed in Section 12804 of the Vehicle Code, may be forfeited under this subdivision if there is a community property interest in the vehicle by a person other than the defendant and the vehicle is the sole class C, class M1, or class M2 vehicle available to the defendant's immediate family.

(f) All moneys, negotiable instruments, securities, or other things of value furnished or intended to be furnished by any person in exchange for a controlled substance, all proceeds traceable to such an exchange, and all moneys, negotiable instruments, or securities used or intended to be used to facilitate any violation of Section 11351, 11351.5, 11352, 11355, 11359, 11360, 11378, 11378.5, 11379, 11379.5, 11379.6, or 11382 of this code, or Section 182 of the Penal Code, insofar as the offense involves manufacture, sale, possession for sale, offer for sale, or offer to manufacture, or conspiracy to commit at least one of those offenses, if the exchange, violation, or other conduct which is the basis for the forfeiture occurred within five years of the seizure of the property, or the filing of a petition under this chapter, or the issuance of an order of forfeiture of the property, whichever comes first.

(g) The real property of any property owner who is convicted of violating Section 11366, 11366.5, or 11366.6 with respect to that property. However, property which is used as a family residence or for other lawful purposes, or which is owned by two or more persons, one of whom had no knowledge of its unlawful use, shall not be subject to forfeiture.

(h) Subject to the requirements of Section 11488.5 and except as further limited by this subdivision to protect innocent parties who claim a property interest acquired from a defendant, all right, title, and interest in any personal property described in this section shall vest in the state upon commission of the act giving rise to forfeiture under this chapter, if the state or local governmental entity proves a violation of Section 11351, 11351.5, 11352, 11355, 11359, 11360, 11378, 11378.5, 11379, 11379.5, 11379.6, or 11382 in accordance with the burden of proof set forth in paragraph (1) of subdivision (i) of Section 11488.4 or, in the case of cash or negotiable instruments in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), paragraph (4) of subdivision (i) of Section 11488.4.

The operation of the special vesting rule established by this subdivision shall be limited to circumstances where its application will not defeat the claim of any person, including a bona fide purchaser or encumbrancer who, pursuant to Section 11488.5, 11488.6, or 11489, claims an interest in the property seized, notwithstanding that the interest in the property being claimed was acquired from a defendant whose property interest would otherwise have been subject to divestment pursuant to this subdivision.

SEC. 4. Section 11471 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11471. Property subject to forfeiture under this division may be seized by any peace officer upon process issued by any court having jurisdiction over the property. Seizure without process may be made if any of the following situations exist:

(a) The seizure is incident to an arrest or a search under a search warrant.

(b) The property subject to seizure has been the subject of a prior judgment in favor of the state in a criminal injunction or forfeiture proceeding based upon this division.

(c) There is probable cause to believe that the property is directly or indirectly dangerous to health or safety.

(d) There is probable cause to believe that the property was used or is intended to be used in violation of this division.

(e) Real property subject to forfeiture may not be seized, absent exigent circumstances, without notice to the interested parties and a hearing to determine that seizure is necessary to preserve the property pending the outcome of the proceedings. At the hearing, the prosecution shall bear the burden of establishing that probable cause exists for the forfeiture of the property and that seizure is necessary to preserve the property pending the outcome of the forfeiture proceedings. The court may issue seizure orders pursuant to this section if it finds that seizure is warranted or pendente lite orders pursuant to Section 11492 if it finds that the status quo or value of the property can be preserved without seizure.

(f) Where business records are seized in conjunction with the seizure of property subject to forfeiture, the seizing agency shall, upon request, provide copies of the records to the person, persons, or business entity from whom such records were seized.

SEC. 5. Section 11471.1 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 11473.2 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 11473.3 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 924 of the Statutes of 1987, is repealed.

SEC. 8. Section 11488 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Section 3 of Chapter 924 of the Statutes of 1987, is repealed.

SEC. 9. Section 11488 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

11488. (a) Any peace officer of this state, subsequent to making or attempting to make an arrest for a violation of Section 11351, 11351.5, 11352, 11355, 11359, 11360, 11378, 11378.5, 11379, 11379.5, 11379.6, or 11382 of this code, or Section 182 of the Penal Code insofar as the offense involves manufacture, sale, purchase for the purpose of sale, possession for sale or offer to manufacture or sell, or conspiracy to commit one of those offenses, may seize any item subject to forfeiture under subdivisions (a) to (f), inclusive, of Section 11470. The peace officer shall also notify the Franchise Tax Board of a seizure where there is reasonable cause to believe that the value of the seized property exceeds five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(c) There shall be a presumption affecting the burden of proof that the person to whom a receipt for property was issued is the owner thereof. This presumption may, however, be rebutted at the forfeiture hearing specified in Section 11488.5.

SEC. 10. Section 11488.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11488.1. Property seized pursuant to Section 11488 may, where appropriate, be held for evidence. The Attorney General or the district attorney for the jurisdiction involved shall institute and maintain the proceedings.

SEC. 11. Section 11488.4 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Section 4 of Chapter 924 of the Statutes of 1987, is repealed.

SEC. 12. Section 11488.4 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Section 5 of Chapter 924 of the Statutes of 1987, is repealed.

SEC. 13. Section 11488.4 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

11488.4. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (j), if the Department of Justice or the local governmental entity determines that the factual circumstances do warrant that the moneys, negotiable instruments, securities, or other things of value seized or subject to forfeiture come within the provisions of subdivisions (a) to (g), inclusive, of Section 11470, and are not automatically made forfeitable or subject to court order of forfeiture or destruction by another provision of this chapter, the Attorney General or district attorney shall file a petition of forfeiture with the superior court of the county in which the defendant has been charged with the underlying criminal offense or in which the property subject to forfeiture has been seized or, if no seizure has occurred, in the county in which the property subject to forfeiture is located. If the petition alleges that real property is forfeitable, the prosecuting attorney shall cause a lis pendens to be recorded in the office of the county recorder of each county in which the real property is located.

A petition of forfeiture under this subdivision shall be filed as soon as practicable, but in any case within one year of the seizure of the property which is subject to forfeiture, or as soon as practicable, but in any case within one year of the filing by the Attorney General or district attorney of a lis pendens or other process against the property, whichever is earlier.

(b) Physical seizure of assets shall not be necessary in order to have that particular asset alleged to be forfeitable in a petition under this section. The prosecuting attorney may seek protective orders for any asset pursuant to Section 11492.

(c) The Attorney General or district attorney shall make service of process regarding this petition upon every individual designated in a receipt issued for the property seized. In addition, the Attorney General or district attorney shall cause a notice of the seizure, if any, and of the intended forfeiture proceeding, as well as a notice stating that any interested party may file a verified claim with the superior court of the county in which the property was seized or if the property was not seized, a notice of the initiation of forfeiture proceedings with respect to any interest in the property seized or subject to forfeiture, to be served by personal delivery or by registered mail upon any person who has an interest in the seized property or property subject to forfeiture other than persons designated in a receipt issued for the property seized. Whenever a notice is delivered pursuant to this section, it shall be accompanied by a claim form as described in Section 11488.5 and directions for the filing and service of a claim.

(d) An investigation shall be made by the law enforcement agency as to any claimant to a vehicle, boat, or airplane whose right, title, interest, or lien is of record in the Department of Motor Vehicles or appropriate federal agency. If the law enforcement agency finds that any person, other than the registered owner, is the legal owner thereof, and such ownership did not arise subsequent to the date and time of arrest or notification of the forfeiture proceedings or seizure of the vehicle, boat, or airplane, it shall forthwith send a notice to the legal owner at his or her address appearing on the records of the Department of Motor Vehicles or appropriate federal agency.

(e) When a forfeiture action is filed, the notices shall be published once a week for three successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the seizure was made or where the property subject to forfeiture is located.

(f) All notices shall set forth the time within which a claim of interest in the property seized or subject to forfeiture is required to be filed pursuant to Section 11488.5.

(g) Nothing contained in this chapter shall preclude a person, other than a defendant, claiming an interest in property actually seized from moving for a return of property if that person can show standing by proving an interest in the property not assigned subsequent to the seizure or filing of the forfeiture petition.

(h) If there is an underlying or related criminal action, a defendant may move for the return of the property on the grounds that there is not probable cause to believe that the property is forfeitable pursuant to subdivisions (a) to (g), inclusive, of Section 11470 and is not automatically made forfeitable or subject to court order of forfeiture or destruction by another provision of this chapter. The motion may be made prior to, during, or subsequent to the preliminary examination. If made subsequent to the preliminary examination, the Attorney General or district attorney may submit the record of the preliminary hearing to establish that probable cause exists to believe that the underlying or related criminal violations have occurred.

Within 15 days after a defendant's motion is granted, the people may file a petition for a writ of mandate or prohibition seeking appellate review of the ruling.

(i) (1) With respect to property described in subdivisions (e) and (g) of Section 11470 for which forfeiture is sought and as to which forfeiture is contested, the state or local governmental entity shall have the burden of proving beyond a reasonable doubt that the property for which forfeiture is sought was used, or intended to be used, to facilitate a violation of one of the offenses enumerated in subdivision (f) or (g) of Section 11470.

(2) In the case of property described in subdivision (f) of Section 11470, except cash, negotiable instruments, or other cash equivalents of a value of not less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), for which forfeiture is sought and as to which forfeiture is contested, the state or local governmental entity shall have the burden of proving beyond a reasonable doubt that the property for which forfeiture is sought meets the criteria for forfeiture described in subdivision (f) of Section 11470.

(3) In the case of property described in paragraphs (1) and (2), a judgment of forfeiture requires as a condition precedent thereto, that a defendant be convicted in an underlying or related criminal action of an offense specified in subdivision (f) or (g) of Section 11470 which offense occurred within five years of the seizure of the property subject to forfeiture or within five years of the notification of intention to seek forfeiture. If the defendant is found guilty of the underlying or related criminal offense, the issue of forfeiture shall be tried before the same jury, if the trial was by jury, or tried before the same court, if trial was by court, unless waived by all parties. The issue of forfeiture shall be bifurcated from the criminal trial and tried after conviction unless waived by all the parties.

(4) In the case of property described in subdivision (f) of Section 11470 that is cash or negotiable instruments of a value of not less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), the state or local governmental entity shall have the burden of proving by clear and convincing evidence that the property for which forfeiture is sought is such as is described in subdivision (f) of Section 11470. There is no requirement for forfeiture thereof that a criminal conviction be obtained in an underlying or related criminal offense.

(5) If there is an underlying or related criminal action, and a criminal conviction is required before a judgment of forfeiture may be entered, the issue of forfeiture shall be tried in conjunction therewith. Trial shall be by jury unless waived by all parties. If there is no underlying or related criminal action, the presiding judge of the superior court shall assign the action brought pursuant to this chapter for trial.

(j) The Attorney General or the district attorney of the county in which property is subject to forfeiture under Section 11470 may, pursuant to this subdivision, order forfeiture of personal property not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) in value. The Attorney General or district attorney shall provide notice of proceedings under this subdivision pursuant to subdivisions (c), (d), (e), and (f), including:

(1) A description of the property.

(2) The appraised value of the property.

(3) The date and place of seizure or location of any property not seized but subject to forfeiture.

(4) The violation of law alleged with respect to forfeiture of the property.

(5) The instructions for filing and serving a claim with the Attorney General or the district attorney pursuant to Section 11488.5 and time limits for filing a claim and claim form.

If no claims are timely filed, the Attorney General or the district attorney shall prepare a written declaration of forfeiture of the subject property to the state and dispose of the property in accordance with Section 11489. A written declaration of forfeiture signed by the Attorney General or district attorney under this subdivision shall be deemed to provide good and sufficient title to the forfeited property. The prosecuting agency ordering forfeiture pursuant to this subdivision shall provide a copy of the declaration of forfeiture to any person listed in the receipt given at the time of seizure and to any person personally served notice of the forfeiture proceedings.

If a claim is timely filed, then the Attorney General or district attorney shall file a petition of forfeiture pursuant to this section within 30 days of the receipt of the claim. The petition of forfeiture shall then proceed pursuant to other provisions of this chapter, except that no additional notice need be given and no additional claim need be filed.

(k) If in any underlying or related criminal action or proceeding, in which a petition for forfeiture has been filed pursuant to this section, and a criminal conviction is required before a judgment of forfeiture may be entered, the defendant willfully fails to appear as required, there shall be no requirement of a criminal conviction as a prerequisite to forfeiture. In these cases, forfeiture shall be ordered as against the defendant and judgment entered upon default, upon application of the state or local governmental entity. In its application for default, the state or local governmental entity shall be required to give notice to the defendant's attorney of record, if any, in the underlying or related criminal action, and to make a showing of due diligence to locate the defendant. In moving for a default judgment pursuant to this subdivision, the state or local governmental entity shall be required to establish a prima facie case in support of its petition for forfeiture.

SEC. 14. Section 11488.5 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Section 6 of Chapter 924 of the Statutes of 1987, is repealed.

SEC. 14.5. Section 11488.5 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Section 7 of Chapter 924 of the Statutes of 1987, is repealed.

SEC. 15. Section 11488.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

11488.5. (a) (1) Any person claiming an interest in the property seized pursuant to Section 11488 may, unless for good cause shown the court extends the time for filing, at any time within 30 days from the date of the first publication of the notice of seizure, if that person was not personally served or served by mail, or within 30 days after receipt of actual notice, file with the superior court of the county in which the defendant has been charged with the underlying or related criminal offense or in which the property was seized or, if there was no seizure, in which the property is located, a claim, verified in accordance with Section 446 of the Code of Civil Procedure, stating his or her interest in the property. An endorsed copy of the claim shall be served by the claimant on the Attorney General or district attorney, as appropriate, within 30 days of the filing of the claim. The Judicial Council shall develop and approve official forms for the verified claim that is to be filed pursuant to this section. The official forms shall be drafted in nontechnical language, in English and in Spanish, and shall be made available through the office of the clerk of the appropriate court.

(2) Any person who claims that the property was assigned to him or to her prior to the seizure or notification of pending forfeiture of the property under this chapter, whichever occurs first, shall file a claim with the court and prosecuting agency pursuant to Section 11488.5 declaring an interest in that property and such interest shall be adjudicated at the forfeiture hearing. The property shall remain under control of the law enforcement or prosecutorial agency until the adjudication of the forfeiture hearing. Seized property shall be protected and its value shall be preserved pending the outcome of the forfeiture proceedings.

(3) The clerk of the court shall not charge or collect a fee for the filing of a claim in any case in which the value of the respondent property as specified in the notice is five thousand dollars ($5,000) or less.

(4) The claim of a law enforcement agency to property seized pursuant to Section 11488 or subject to forfeiture shall have priority over a claim to the seized or forfeitable property made by the Franchise Tax Board in a notice to withhold issued pursuant to Section 18817 or 26132 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(b) (1) If at the end of the time set forth in subdivision (a) there is no claim on file, the court, upon motion, shall declare the property seized or subject to forfeiture pursuant to subdivisions (a) to (g), inclusive, of Section 11470 forfeited to the state. In moving for a default judgment pursuant to this subdivision, the state or local governmental entity shall be required to establish a prima facie case in support of its petition for forfeiture.

(2) The clerk of the court shall dispose of the forfeited property as set forth in Section 11489.

(c) (1) If a verified claim is filed, the forfeiture proceeding shall be set for hearing on a day not less than 30 days therefrom, and the proceeding shall have priority over other civil cases. Notice of the hearing shall be given in the same manner as provided in Section 11488.4. Such a verified claim or a claim filed pursuant to subdivision (j) of Section 11488.4 shall not be admissible in the proceedings regarding the underlying or related criminal offense set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 11488.

(2) The hearing shall be by jury, unless waived by consent of all parties.

(3) The provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure shall apply to proceedings under this chapter unless otherwise inconsistent with the provisions or procedures set forth in this chapter. However, in proceedings under this chapter, there shall be no joinder of actions, coordination of actions, except for forfeiture proceedings, or cross-complaints, and the issues shall be limited strictly to the questions related to this chapter.

(d) (1) At the hearing, the state or local governmental entity shall have the burden of establishing, pursuant to subdivision (i) of Section 11488.4, that the owner of any interest in the seized property consented to the use of the property with knowledge that it would be or was used for a purpose for which forfeiture is permitted, in accordance with the burden of proof set forth in subdivision (i) of Section 11488.4.

(2) No interest in the seized property shall be affected by a forfeiture decree under this section unless the state or local governmental entity has proven that the owner of such interest consented to the use of the property with knowledge that it would be or was used for the purpose charged. Forfeiture shall be ordered when, at the hearing, the state or local governmental entity has shown that the assets in question are subject to forfeiture pursuant to Section 11470, in accordance with the burden of proof set forth in subdivision (i) of Section 11488.4.

(e) The forfeiture hearing shall be continued upon motion of the prosecution or the defendant until after a verdict of guilty on any criminal charges specified in this chapter and pending against the defendant have been decided. The forfeiture hearing shall be conducted in accordance with Sections 220 to 222.5, inclusive, and Sections 224 to 234, inclusive, of the Code of Civil Procedure if a trial by jury, and by Sections 607 to 630, inclusive, of the Code of Civil Procedure if by the court. Unless the court or jury finds that the seized property was used for a purpose for which forfeiture is permitted, the court shall order the seized property released to the person it determines is entitled thereto.

If the court or jury finds that the seized property was used for a purpose for which forfeiture is permitted, but does not find that a person claiming an interest therein, to which the court has determined he or she is entitled, had actual knowledge that the seized property would be or was used for a purpose for which forfeiture is permitted and consented to that use, the court shall order the seized property released to the claimant.

(f) All seized property which was the subject of a contested forfeiture hearing and which was not released by the court to a claimant shall be declared by the court to be forfeited to the state, provided the burden of proof required pursuant to subdivision (i) of Section 11488.4 has been met. The clerk of the court shall dispose of the forfeited property as set forth in Section 11489.

(g) All seized property which was the subject of the forfeiture hearing and which was not forfeited shall remain subject to any order to withhold issued with respect to the property by the Franchise Tax Board.

SEC. 16. Section 11488.6 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11488.6. (a) If the court or jury at the forfeiture hearing finds that the property is forfeitable pursuant to Section 11470, but does not find that a person having a valid ownership interest, which includes, but is not limited to, a valid lien, mortgage, security interest, or interest under a conditional sales contract acquired such interest with actual knowledge that the property was to be used for a purpose for which forfeiture is permitted, and the amount due such person is less than the appraised value of the property, such person may pay to the state or the local governmental entity which initiated the forfeiture proceeding the amount of the equity, which shall be deemed to be the difference between the appraised value and the amount of the lien, mortgage, security interest, or interest under a conditional sales contract. Upon such payment, the state or local governmental entity shall relinquish all claims to the property. If the holder of the interest elects not to make such payment to the state or local governmental entity, the property shall be deemed forfeited to the state or local governmental entity and the ownership certificate shall be forwarded. The appraised value shall be determined as of the date judgment is entered on a wholesale basis either by agreement between the legal owner and the governmental entity involved, or if they cannot agree, then by the inheritance tax appraiser for the county in which the action is brought. A person having a valid ownership interest, which includes, but is not limited to, a valid lien, mortgage, security interest, or interest under a conditional sales contract shall be paid the appraised value of his or her interest in accordance with the provisions of Section 11489.

(b) If the amount due to a person having a valid ownership interest, which includes, but is not limited to, a valid lien, mortgage, security interest, or interest under a conditional sales contract is less than the value of the property and the person elects not to make payment to the governmental entity, the property shall be sold at public auction by the Department of General Services or by the local governmental entity which shall provide notice of such sale by one publication in a newspaper published and circulated in the city, community, or locality where the sale is to take place.

(c) The proceeds of sale pursuant to subdivision (b) shall be first distributed in accordance with the provisions of Section 11489.

SEC. 17. Section 11489 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Section 4 of Chapter 722 of the Statutes of 1992, is repealed.

SEC. 18. Section 11489 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Section 5 of Chapter 722 of the Statutes of 1992, is repealed.

SEC. 19. Section 11489 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Section 7 of Chapter 722 of the Statutes of 1992, is amended to read:

11489. Notwithstanding Section 11502 and except as otherwise provided in Section 11473, in all cases where the property is seized pursuant to this chapter and forfeited to the state or local governmental entity and, where necessary, sold by the Department of General Services or local governmental entity, the money forfeited or the proceeds of sale shall be distributed by the state or local governmental entity as follows:

(a) To the bona fide or innocent purchaser, conditional sales vendor, or mortgagee of the property, if any, up to the amount of his or her interest in the property, when the court declaring the forfeiture orders a distribution to that person.

(b) The balance, if any, to accumulate, and to be distributed and transferred quarterly in the following manner:

(1) To the state agency or local governmental entity for all expenditures made or incurred by it in connection with the sale of the property, including expenditures for any necessary repairs, storage, or transportation of any property seized under this chapter.

(2) The remaining funds shall be distributed as follows:

(A) Sixty-five percent to the state, local, or state and local law enforcement entities that participated in the seizure distributed so as to reflect the proportionate contribution of each agency.

(i) Fifteen percent of the funds distributed pursuant to this subparagraph shall be deposited in a special fund maintained by the county, city, or city and county of any agency making the seizure or seeking an order for forfeiture. This fund shall be used for the sole purpose of funding programs designed to combat drug abuse and divert gang activity, and shall wherever possible involve educators, parents, community-based organizations and local businesses, and uniformed law enforcement officers. Those programs that have been evaluated as successful shall be given priority. These funds shall not be used to supplant any state or local funds that would, in the absence of this clause, otherwise be made available to the programs.

It is the intent of the Legislature to cause the development and continuation of positive intervention programs for high-risk elementary and secondary schoolage students. Local law enforcement should work in partnership with state and local agencies and the private sector in administering these programs.

(ii) The actual distribution of funds set aside pursuant to clause (i) is to be determined by a panel consisting of the sheriff of the county, a police chief selected by the other chiefs in the county, and the district attorney and the chief probation officer of the county.

(B) Ten percent to the prosecutorial agency which processes the forfeiture action.

(C) Twenty-four percent to the General Fund. Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, the moneys are hereby continuously appropriated to the General Fund. For the calendar year beginning January 1, 1995, and ending December 31, 1995, all moneys deposited in the General Fund pursuant to this subparagraph, in an amount not to exceed ten million dollars ($10,000,000), shall be made available for school safety and security, upon appropriation by the Legislature, and shall be disbursed pursuant to Senate Bill 1255 of the 1993-94 Regular Session, as enacted.

(D) One percent to a private nonprofit organization composed of local prosecutors which shall use these funds for the exclusive purpose of providing a statewide program of education and training for prosecutors and law enforcement officers in ethics and the proper use of laws permitting the seizure and forfeiture of assets under this chapter.

(c) Notwithstanding Item 0820-101-469 of the Budget Act of 1985 (Chapter 111 of the Statutes of 1985), all funds allocated to the Department of Justice pursuant to subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) shall be deposited into the Department of Justice Special Deposit Fund–State Asset Forfeiture Account and used for the law enforcement efforts of the state or for state or local law enforcement efforts pursuant to Section 11493.

All funds allocated to the Department of Justice by the federal government under its Federal Asset Forfeiture program authorized by the Comprehensive Crime Control Act of 1984 may be deposited directly into the Narcotics Assistance and Relinquishment by Criminal Offender Fund and used for state and local law enforcement efforts pursuant to Section 11493.

Funds which are not deposited pursuant to the above paragraph shall be deposited into the Department of Justice Special Deposit Fund-Federal Asset Forfeiture Account.

(d) All the funds distributed to the state or local governmental entity pursuant to subparagraphs (A) and (B) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) shall not supplant any state or local funds that would, in the absence of this subdivision, be made available to support the law enforcement and prosecutorial efforts of these agencies.

The court shall order the forfeiture proceeds distributed to the state, local, or state and local governmental entities as provided in this section.

For the purposes of this section, "local governmental entity" means any city, county, or city and county in this state.

(e) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1994.

SEC. 20. Section 11492 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11492. (a) Concurrent with, or subsequent to, the filing of the petition, the prosecuting agency may move the superior court for the following pendente lite orders to preserve the status quo or value of the property alleged in the complaint for forfeiture.

(1) An injunction to restrain all interested parties and enjoin them from transferring, encumbering, hypothecating, or otherwise disposing of that property.

(3) Order an interlocutory sale of the property named in the petition when the property is liable to perish, to waste, or to be significantly reduced in value, or when the expenses of maintaining the property are disproportionate to the value thereof, and the proceeds thereof shall be deposited with the court or as directed by the court pending determination of the forfeiture proceeding.

(b) No preliminary injunction may be granted, receiver appointed, or interlocutory sale ordered without notice to the interested parties and a hearing to determine that the order is necessary to preserve the property named in the petition, pending the outcome of the proceedings, and that there is probable cause to believe that the property is subject to forfeiture under Section 11470. However, a temporary restraining order may issue pending that hearing pursuant to the provisions of Section 527 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the court in granting these motions may order a surety bond or undertaking to preserve the property interests of the interested parties.

SEC. 21. Section 11494 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 22. Section 11494 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

11494. In the case of any property seized or forfeiture proceeding initiated before January 1, 1994, the proceeding to forfeit the property and the distribution of any forfeited property shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter in effect on December 31, 1993, as if those sections had not been repealed, replaced, or amended.

SEC. 23. Section 11495 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

11495. (a) The funds received by the law enforcement agencies under Section 11489 shall be deposited into an account maintained by the Controller, county auditor, or city treasurer. These funds shall be distributed to the law enforcement agencies at their request. The Controller, auditor, or treasurer shall maintain a record of these disbursements which records shall be open to public inspection, subject to the privileges contained in Sections 1040, 1041, and 1042 of the Evidence Code.

(b) Upon request of the governing body of the jurisdiction in which the distributions are made, the Controller, auditor, or treasurer shall conduct an audit of these funds and their use. In the case of the state, the governing body shall be the Legislature.

(c) Each year, the Attorney General shall publish a report which sets forth the following information for the state, each county, each city, and each city and county:

(1) The number of forfeiture actions initiated.

(2) The number of cases and the administrative number or court docket number of each case for which forfeiture was ordered or declared.

(3) The value of the assets forfeited.

(4) The recipients of the forfeited assets, the amounts received, and the date of the disbursement.

(d) The Attorney General shall develop administrative guidelines for the collection and publication of the information required in subdivision (c).

(e) The Attorney General's report shall cover the calendar year and shall be made no later than March 1 of each year beginning with the year after the enactment of this law.

SEC. 24. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 25. It is the intent of the Legislature in repealing Sections 11470, 11473.3, 11488, 11488.4, and 11488.5 of the Health and Safety Code, as set forth in Sections 2, 7, 8, 11, 12, 14, and 14.5 of this act, to reduce the confusion and ambiguity which presently exist with respect to which, if any, version of those sections is operative.

SEC. 26. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to effectively implement the provisions relating to the forfeiture and seizure of property involved in, or purchased with the proceeds from, a controlled substance offense, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 315

An act relating to elected officials, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 19, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 19, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding Section 10220 of the Elections Code, in the case of candidates for Justice of the Supreme Court and court of appeal whose names appear on the November 8, 1994, general election ballot, underneath each ballot heading there shall appear the words "Shall (name of justice) be elected to the office for a _____ year term as provided by law?" The requirements of Section 10220 shall be applicable in all other respects.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to clarify certain ambiguities in the law in time for the November 8, 1994, general election, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 316

An act to amend Section 10094.2 of, and to add Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 10108) to Part 1 of Division 2 of, the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor August 21, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 22, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10094.2 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10094.2. The facility shall, pursuant to regulations adopted by the commissioner, provide for a method whereby insurers who voluntarily write basic property insurance on risks located in areas designated as brush hazard areas by the Pacific Fire Rating Bureau will, to that extent, be proportionately relieved of the liability to participate in a plan adopted pursuant to this chapter. Furthermore, the facility shall, pursuant to regulations adopted by the commissioner, provide for a method whereby insurers who voluntarily write basic property insurance or business owners package insurance on risks located in areas designated as inner-city areas by the commissioner will, to that extent, be proportionately relieved of the liability to participate in a plan adopted pursuant to this chapter. Nothing in this chapter shall preclude adoption of a plan or plans to allow proportionate credit for voluntary writings in other areas or for other classes of insurance.

SEC. 2. Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 10108) is added to Part 1 of Division 2 of the Insurance Code, to read:

CHAPTER 11. SMALL BUSINESS GUIDE TO COMMERCIAL INSURANCE

10108. (a) The commissioner shall develop a pamphlet which provides information to small business owners and others on the key features of, and suggested ways of, purchasing commercial property insurance. The commissioner may develop this pamphlet with the assistance of an advisory panel consisting of persons representing small business owners, insurers, consumer organizations, and other persons deemed necessary by the commissioner.

(b) The pamphlet shall be completed by July 1, 1995, and to the extent feasible, copies shall be made available to persons operating small businesses, business groups, chambers of commerce, and other persons and groups.

(c) The pamphlet shall provide information on the key features of commercial property insurance and recommend steps for purchasing this insurance. The pamphlet shall include, but not be limited to, providing information on the following:

(1) Various types of commercial insurance.

(2) Limits of liability in policies, including that for the following:

(A) Structures.

(B) Personal property.

(C) Inventory.

(D) Business interruption.

(3) Deductibles.

10108.1. (a) As used in this chapter, "policy of commercial property insurance" has the same meaning as defined in Section 675.5.

(b) As used in this chapter, "insurer" has the same meaning as defined in Section 10091.

CHAPTER 317

An act to amend Sections 19702 and 19705 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to mule racing, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 21, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 22, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19702 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19702. The board shall administer this chapter and shall issue a license for the conducting of a mule racing meeting or mule races.

SEC. 2. Section 19705 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19705. Associations licensed pursuant to this chapter shall deduct the applicable license fees, commissions, and purses in the same percentages as provided for in Article 9.5 (commencing with Section 19610) of Chapter 4. Associations may also deduct an additional amount of up to 3 percent on multiple wagering pools in the same manner as provided for by Section 19614.2.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order for this act to apply to the 1994 summer fair racing season, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 318

An act to amend Section 25503.15, and to repeal Sections 23358.1, 23358.5, and 23358.6 of, the Business and Professions Code, relating to alcoholic beverages.

[Approved by Governor August 21, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 22, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 23358.1 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 23358.5 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 23358.6 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 25503.15 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

25503.15. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, a winegrower who manufactures, produces, bottles, processes, imports, or sells wine only, or any officer, director, or agent of that person, may hold the ownership of any interest in any on-sale license, or the business conducted under that license, provided that the person or the officer, director, or agent of that person, shall have entered into an undertaking approved by the department stating both of the following:

(2) That neither that person nor any officer, director, or agent of that person shall enter into any collusive scheme whereby he or she unfairly sells or promotes, in his or her on-sale businesses, the wine of another winegrower who manufactures, produces, bottles, processes, imports, or sells wine only, in return for his or her wine being unfairly sold or promoted in the on-sale businesses of that winegrower.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, any licensed winegrower or any officer, director, or agent of that person, may hold, directly or indirectly, the ownership of any interest in an on-sale license, provided that each of the following conditions is met:

(1) The licensed on-sale premises are licensed as a bona fide public eating place as defined in Section 23038, or as a bona fide bed and breakfast inn as defined in Section 24045.11.

(2) The licensed on-sale premises purchases all alcoholic beverages sold and served at the on-sale licensed premises only from California wholesale licensees, unless one of the following conditions is met:

(A) The wine purchased is produced or bottled by, or produced and packaged for, the same licensed winegrower that holds an interest in the on-sale license.

(B) The wine is produced or bottled by, and is purchased from, a licensed winegrower who sells no more than 125,000 gallons of wine per year for distribution in this state under all brands or trade names owned by that winegrower.

(C) The wine is purchased by an on-sale licensee in whose on-sale license a licensed winegrower holds an interest, provided that the winegrower sells no more than 125,000 gallons of wine per year for distribution in this state under all brands or trade names owned by that winegrower.

(3) The licensed winegrower and any officer, director, or agent of that person do not sell and serve the wine products produced or bottled under any brand or trade name owned by that winegrower, whether individually or in the aggregate, through more than two on-sale licensed premises in which any of them holds an ownership interest.

(4) The number of wine items by brand offered for sale by the on-sale licensed premises that are produced, bottled, processed, imported, or sold by the licensed winegrower or by any person holding any interest in the winegrower does not exceed 15 percent of the total wine items by brand listed and offered for sale in the licensed bona fide public eating place selling and serving that wine. This paragraph shall not apply to a bona fide bed and breakfast inn.

(c) The Legislature finds that it is necessary and proper to require a separation between manufacturing interests, wholesale interests, and retail interests in the production and distribution of alcoholic beverages in order to prevent suppliers from dominating local markets through vertical integration and to prevent excessive sales of alcoholic beverages produced by overly aggressive marketing techniques. The Legislature further finds that the exceptions established by this section to the general prohibition against tied interests must be limited to their express terms so as not to undermine the general prohibition, and intends that this section be construed accordingly.

CHAPTER 319

An act to amend Sections 54685, 54685.1, 54685.3, 54685.9, and 54686.2 of the Education Code, relating to education, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 21, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 22, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 54685 of the Education Code is amended to read:

54685. (a) The Legislature finds that many public school pupils enrolled in preschool, kindergarten, and grades 1 and 2 arrive at school with a wide variety of abilities and experiences. Many have been unable to succeed in traditional school programs.

(b) The Legislature also finds and declares that there is a need to do all of the following:

(1) To establish a system to assess pupils in preschool, kindergarten, and grades 1 and 2 to establish developmental stages and adapt instruction to prevent school failure.

(2) To implement developmentally appropriate instructional programs to reduce the frequency and severity of learning problems for these pupils in later years.

(3) To reduce the likelihood that these pupils eventually will need to be placed in remedial programs with higher costs.

(4) To help schools adjust curriculum and instruction to meet the needs of these pupils.

(c) The Legislature further finds and declares that the Early Intervention for School Success Program is a model capable of providing a comprehensive range of materials and services to identify developmental stages and increase school success in pupils in preschool, kindergarten, and grades 1 and 2 by helping schools provide individually and developmentally appropriate instruction.

SEC. 2. Section 54685.1 of the Education Code is amended to read:

54685.1. It is the intent of the Legislature to do all of the following:

(a) To continue the Early Intervention for School Success Program.

(b) To implement the program at 300 public schoolsites within the state between July 1, 1994, and June 30, 1999.

(c) To enable school personnel to acquire the skills necessary to determine developmental stages and learning styles of pupils based on an initial assessment, validated and supported by using authentic assessment techniques, and the necessary knowledge, techniques, and materials to provide age-appropriate and individual-appropriate instruction. Authentic assessments are defined as teacher observations, anecdotal records, and portfolios of work samples collected over time as pupils are engaged in age-appropriate classroom activities.

(d) To develop and identify model demonstration sites.

(e) To provide for the certification as a trainer of one member of the school personnel at each funded schoolsite.

(f) To conduct an independent evaluation of the program.

SEC. 3. Section 54685.3 of the Education Code is amended to read:

54685.3. The management plan required by Section 54685.2 shall include the following activities:

(a) The dissemination of program information.

(b) The awarding of incentive grants to schools representative of the ethnic, socioeconomic, and geographic diversity of the public school system.

(c) Provisions for training, materials, and technical assistance.

(d) Adaptation of the Early Intervention for School Success Program to meet local school needs, including identification of existing materials and development of new materials, if needed.

(e) Selection of successful sites as demonstration models for additional implementation of the plan.

(f) Certification of one teacher for each funded schoolsite to serve as a local trainer.

(g) Provision for an annual program progress report and program evaluation by the Orange County Superintendent of Schools to be submitted to the State Department of Education.

SEC. 4. Section 54685.9 of the Education Code is amended to read:

54685.9. The techniques that shall be included in the Early Intervention for School Success Program include all of the following:

(a) The use of a collaborative team approach for the initial assessment validated and supported through ongoing authentic assessment techniques of the developmental learning needs of pupils in preschool, kindergarten, and grades 1 and 2, as appropriate.

The collaborative team, when appropriate, shall use the home language of the pupil to assess the pupil's developmental stages. The results of these observations and assessments shall not be used to deny or delay school admissions or to track pupils.

(b) The selection and application of educational materials and instructional strategies that will be appropriate to pupils' developmental stages and individual learning needs. These materials and strategies will be selected with the purpose of providing an active and experiential learning environment.

SEC. 5. Section 54686.2 of the Education Code is amended to read:

54686.2. This article shall become inoperative on July 1, 1999, and as of January 1, 2000, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 2000, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to continue during the entire 1994–95 school year the Early Intervention for School Success Program, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 320

An act to amend Sections 3031, 3100, and 6323 of the Family Code, relating to family law.

[Approved by Governor August 21, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 22, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3031 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3031. (a) Where the court considers the issue of custody or visitation the court is encouraged to make a reasonable effort to ascertain whether or not any emergency protective order, protective order, or other restraining order is in effect that concerns the parties or the minor. The court is encouraged not to make a custody or visitation order that is inconsistent with the emergency protective order, protective order, or other restraining order, unless the court makes both of the following findings:

(1) The custody or visitation order cannot be made consistent with the emergency protective order, protective order, or other restraining order.

(2) The custody or visitation order is in the best interest of the minor.

(c) When making an order for custody or visitation in a case in which domestic violence is alleged and an emergency protective order, protective order, or other restraining order has been issued, the court shall consider whether the best interest of the child, based upon the circumstances of the case, requires that any custody or visitation arrangement shall be limited to situations in which a third person, specified by the court, is present, or whether custody or visitation shall be suspended or denied.

SEC. 2. Section 3100 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3100. (a) In making an order pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 3080), the court shall grant reasonable visitation rights to a parent unless it is shown that the visitation would be detrimental to the best interest of the child. In the discretion of the court, reasonable visitation rights may be granted to any other person having an interest in the welfare of the child.

(b) If a protective order, as defined in Section 6218, has been directed to a parent, the court shall consider whether the best interest of the child requires that any visitation by that parent shall be limited to situations in which a third person, specified by the court, is present, or whether visitation shall be suspended or denied. The court shall include in its deliberations a consideration of the nature of the acts from which the parent was enjoined and the period of time that has elapsed since that order. A parent may submit to the court the name of a person that the parent deems suitable to be present during visitation.

(c) Whenever visitation is ordered in a case in which domestic violence is alleged and an emergency protective order, protective order, or other restraining order has been issued, the visitation order shall specify the time, day, place, and manner of transfer of the child, so as to limit the child's exposure to potential domestic conflict or violence and to ensure the safety of all family members.

(d) Where the court finds a party is staying in a place designated as a shelter for victims of domestic violence or other confidential location, the court's order for time, day, place, and manner of transfer of the child for visitation shall be designed to prevent disclosure of the location of the shelter or other confidential location.

SEC. 3. Section 6323 of the Family Code is amended to read:

6323. (a) Subject to Section 3064:

(1) The court may issue an ex parte order determining the temporary custody of a minor child on the conditions the court determines.

(2) The court may issue an ex parte order determining the right of a party to visit a minor child on the conditions the court determines in a proceeding for dissolution of marriage, nullity of marriage, or legal separation of the parties, in an action under the Uniform Parentage Act (Part 3 (commencing with Section 7600) of Division 12), or in a proceeding commenced under this division in the case of a marital relationship between the parties.

(b) When making any order for custody or visitation pursuant to this section, the court's order shall specify the time, day, place, and manner of transfer of the child for custody or visitation to limit the child's exposure to potential domestic conflict or violence and to ensure the safety of all family members. Where the court finds a party is staying in a place designated as a shelter for victims of domestic violence or other confidential location, the court's order for time, day, place, and manner of transfer of the child for custody or visitation shall be designed to prevent disclosure of the location of the shelter or other confidential location.

(c) When making an order for custody or visitation pursuant to this section, the court shall consider whether the best interest of the child, based upon the circumstances of the case, requires that any visitation or custody arrangement shall be limited to situations in which a third person, specified by the court, is present, or whether visitation or custody shall be suspended or denied.

CHAPTER 321

An act to amend Section 18973.5 of, and to repeal and add Section 18978 of, the Government Code, relating to civil service, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 21, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 22, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18973.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

18973.5. For purposes of Section 18973, an entrance examination is any open competitive examination other than one for a class having a requirement of both college graduation and two or more years of experience.

SEC. 2. Section 18978 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 18978 is added to the Government Code, to read:

18978. (a) For any entrance examination held on an open, nonpromotional basis under Section 18950, a veteran shall be allowed the following additional credits:

(1) Disabled veterans, 10 points.

(2) Other veterans, five points.

(b) For purposes of this section, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Veteran" means any person who has served full time for one year or more in the armed services that included at least 30 days in time of war or 30 days in time of peace during which the veteran served in a campaign or expedition for service in which a medal has been authorized by the government of the United States.

(2) "Disabled veteran" has the same meaning as that term is used in Section 18973.

(c) Individuals who received veterans points under this section are not eligible for career credits pursuant to Sections 18950.1, 18951, and 18951.5.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that the changes made by this act to examinations for vacancies in civil service positions can take effect at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this bill take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 322

An act to amend Sections 51600, 51605, 51607, 51608, 51611, 51615, and 51618 of, and to repeal Sections 51609 and 51610 of, the Water Code, relating to water, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 21, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 22, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 51600 of the Water Code is amended to read:

51600. (a) After any installment of an unpaid assessment on which bonds have not been issued has become delinquent, the county treasurer may, only upon the request of the district, publish once a week for two weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published in each county where delinquency exists a notice containing a list of all delinquencies in the county. At the same time as the publication, the county treasurer shall mail the notice to the last known address of the property owner, as shown on the latest county tax roll.

(b) No property may be sold pursuant to this article in the absence of publication and notice to the owner pursuant to subdivision (a).

SEC. 2. Section 51605 of the Water Code is amended to read:

51605. At the time of the sale, the county treasurer shall sell the parcel to himself or herself and his or her successors in office, as trustee for the district, for the amount due on the installment, accrued interest, penalty, and costs.

SEC. 3. Section 51607 of the Water Code is amended to read:

51607. The owner of any parcel offered for sale to pay a delinquent assessment or installment thereof may designate in writing to the county treasurer prior to the sale the portion he or she wishes first sold if less than the whole.

SEC. 4. Section 51608 of the Water Code is amended to read:

51608. If the owner fails to designate the portion of the parcel he or she wishes sold for a delinquent assessment, the county treasurer may sell the whole or the least portion of the land that will bring the amount due for the assessment, accrued interest, penalty and costs.

SEC. 5. Section 51609 of the Water Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 51610 of the Water Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 51611 of the Water Code is amended to read:

51611. A certificate of sale shall be executed by the county treasurer to the county treasurer, as trustee for the district, and the certificate of sale shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder in the county where the parcel described in the certificate is situated. The district shall reimburse the county treasurer for any costs incurred pursuant to this section.

SEC. 8. Section 51615 of the Water Code is amended to read:

51615. If no redemption is made within one year, the district is entitled to a deed executed by the county treasurer. The district shall reimburse the county treasurer for any costs incurred pursuant to this section.

SEC. 9. Section 51618 of the Water Code is amended to read:

51618. If, prior to the redemption, the parcel has been sold at a delinquency sale, the money paid by the county treasurer at the sale shall be refunded to him or her upon redemption of the parcel.

SEC. 10. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to remove third party purchasers from reclamation district delinquency sales, and limit those sales to the county treasurer as trustee for the district as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 323

An act to add Section 10006 to the Penal Code, relating to inmates.

[Approved by Governor August 21, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 22, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10006 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

10006. (a) The Department of the Youth Authority and local juvenile halls and camps are prohibited from allowing a minor detained in any institution or facility under their respective jurisdiction to view a videotape or movie shown by the institution or facility that contains harmful matter, as specified in Chapter 7.6 (commencing with Section 313) of Title 9 of Part 1.

(b) The Department of Corrections, the Department of the Youth Authority, county juvenile halls and camps, and local adult detention facilities may promulgate regulations regarding the showing of videotapes and movies at any institution or facility under their respective jurisdiction in order to provide for the reasonable security of the institution or facility in which a minor or adult is confined and for the reasonable protection of the public consistent with Section 2600.

CHAPTER 324

An act to amend Section 366.26 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to minors.

[Approved by Governor August 21, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 22, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 366.26 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

366.26. (a) This section applies to minors who are adjudged dependent children of the juvenile court pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 360 on or after January 1, 1989. The procedures specified herein are the exclusive procedures for conducting these hearings; Part 2 (commencing with Section 3020) of Division 8 of the Family Code is not applicable to these proceedings. For minors who are adjudged dependent children of the juvenile court pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 360 on or after January 1, 1989, this section and Sections 8604, 8605, 8606, and 8700 of the Family Code and Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 7660) of Part 3 of Division 12 of the Family Code specify the exclusive procedures for permanently terminating parental rights with regard to, or establishing legal guardianship of, the minor while the minor is a dependent child of the juvenile court.

(b) At the hearing, which shall be held in juvenile court for all minors who are dependents of the juvenile court, the court, in order to provide stable, permanent homes for these minors, shall review the report as specified in Section 361.5, 366.21, or 366.22, shall indicate that the court has read and considered it, shall receive other evidence that the parties present, and then shall do one of the following:

(1) Permanently sever the rights of the parent or parents and order that the child be placed for adoption and, upon the filing of a petition for adoption in the juvenile court, order that a hearing be set. The court shall proceed with the adoption after the appellate rights of the natural parents have been exhausted.

(2) Without permanently terminating parental rights, identify adoption as the permanent placement goal and order that efforts be made to locate an appropriate adoptive family for the minor for a period not to exceed 90 days.

(3) Without permanently terminating parental rights, appoint a legal guardian for the minor and issue letters of guardianship.

(4) Order that the minor be placed in long-term foster care, subject to the regular review of the juvenile court.

In choosing among the above alternatives the court shall proceed pursuant to subdivision (c).

(c) At the hearing the court shall proceed pursuant to one of the following procedures:

(1) The court shall terminate parental rights only if it determines by clear and convincing evidence that it is likely that the minor will be adopted. If the court so determines, the findings pursuant to subdivision (b) or paragraph 1 of subdivision (e) of Section 361.5 that reunification services shall not be offered, or the findings pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 366.21 that the whereabouts of a parent have been unknown for six months or that the parent has failed to visit or contact the child for six months or that the parent has been convicted of a felony indicating parental unfitness, or pursuant to Section 366.21 or 366.22 that a minor cannot or should not be returned to his or her parent or guardian, shall then constitute a sufficient basis for termination of parental rights unless the court finds that termination would be detrimental to the minor due to one of the following circumstances:

(A) The parents or guardians have maintained regular visitation and contact with the minor and the minor would benefit from continuing the relationship.

(B) A minor 12 years of age or older objects to termination of parental rights.

(C) The child is placed in a residential treatment facility, adoption is unlikely or undesirable, and continuation of parental rights will not prevent finding the child a permanent family placement if the parents cannot resume custody when residential care is no longer needed.

(D) The minor is living with a relative or foster parent who is unable or unwilling to adopt the minor because of exceptional circumstances, which do not include an unwillingness to accept legal responsibility for the minor, but who is willing and capable of providing the minor with a stable and permanent environment and the removal of the minor from the physical custody of his or her relative or foster parent would be detrimental to the emotional well-being of the minor.

(3) If the court finds that termination of parental rights would not be detrimental to the minor pursuant to paragraph (1) and that the minor has a probability for adoption but is difficult to place for adoption and there is no identified or available prospective adoptive parent, the court may identify adoption as the permanent placement goal and without terminating parental rights, order that efforts be made to locate an appropriate adoptive family for the minor for a period not to exceed 90 days. During this 90-day period, the public agency responsible for seeking adoptive parents, for each child shall, to the extent possible, contact other private and public adoption agencies regarding the availability of the child for adoption. During the 90-day period, the public agency shall conduct the search for adoptive parents pursuant to Section 8708 of the Family Code. At the expiration of this period, another hearing shall be held and the court shall proceed pursuant to paragraph (1), (3), or (4) of subdivision (b). For purposes of this section, a minor may only be found to be difficult to place for adoption if there is no identified or available prospective adoptive parent for the minor because of the minor's membership in a sibling group, or the presence of a diagnosed medical, physical, or mental handicap, or the minor is the age of seven years or more.

(4) If the court finds that adoption of the minor or termination of parental rights is not in the interests of the minor, or that one of the conditions in subparagraph (A), (B), (C), or (D) of paragraph (1) or in paragraph (2) applies, the court shall either order that the present caretakers or other appropriate persons shall become legal guardians of the minor or order that the minor remain in long-term foster care. Legal guardianship shall be considered before long-term foster care, if it is in the best interests of the child and if a suitable guardian can be found. When the minor is living with a relative or a foster parent who is willing and capable of providing a stable and permanent environment, but not willing to become a legal guardian, the minor shall not be removed from the home if the court finds the removal would be seriously detrimental to the emotional well-being of the minor because the minor has substantial psychological ties to the relative caretaker or foster parents. The court shall also make an order for visitation with the parents or guardians unless the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the visitation would be detrimental to the physical or emotional well-being of the minor.

(5) If the court finds that the child should not be placed for adoption, that legal guardianship shall not be established, and that there are no suitable foster parents except exclusive-use homes available to provide the minor with a stable and permanent environment, the court may order the care, custody, and control of the minor transferred from the county welfare department or probation department to a licensed foster family agency. The court shall consider the written recommendation of the county welfare director or chief probation officer regarding the suitability of such a transfer. The transfer shall be subject to further court orders.

The licensed foster family agency shall place the minor in a suitable licensed or exclusive-use home which has been certified by the agency as meeting licensing standards. The licensed foster family agency shall be responsible for supporting the minor and for providing appropriate services to the minor, including those services ordered by the court. Responsibility for the support of the minor shall not, in and of itself, create liability on the part of the foster family agency to third persons injured by the minor. Those minors whose care, custody, and control are transferred to a foster family agency shall not be eligible for foster care maintenance payments or child welfare services, except for emergency response services pursuant to Section 16504.

(d) The proceeding for the appointment of a guardian for a minor who is a dependent of the juvenile court shall be in the juvenile court. If the court finds pursuant to this section that legal guardianship is the appropriate permanency plan, it shall appoint the legal guardian and issue letters of guardianship. The assessment prepared pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 361.5, subdivision (i) of Section 366.21, and subdivision (b) of Section 366.22 shall be read and considered by the court prior to the appointment, and this shall be reflected in the minutes of the court. The person preparing the assessment may be called and examined by any party to the proceeding.

(e) The proceeding for the adoption of a minor who is a dependent of the juvenile court shall be in the juvenile court if the court finds pursuant to this section that adoption is the appropriate permanency plan and the petition for adoption is filed in the juvenile court. Upon the filing of a petition for adoption, the juvenile court shall order that an adoption hearing be set. The court shall proceed with the adoption after the appellate rights of the natural parents have been exhausted. The assessment prepared pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 361.5, subdivision (i) of Section 366.21, and subdivision (b) of Section 366.22 shall be read and considered by the court prior to the adoption and this shall be reflected in the minutes of the court. The person preparing the assessment may be called and examined by any party to the proceeding. It is the intent of the Legislature, pursuant to this subdivision, to give potential adoptive parents the option of filing in the juvenile court the petition for the adoption of a minor who is a dependent of the juvenile court. Nothing in this section is intended to prevent the filing of such a petition for adoption in any other court as permitted by law, instead of in the juvenile court.

(f) At the beginning of any proceeding pursuant to this section, if the minor or the parents are not being represented by previously retained or appointed counsel, the court shall proceed as follows:

(1) The court shall consider whether the interests of the minor require the appointment of counsel. If the court finds that the interests of the minor do require this protection, the court shall appoint counsel to represent the minor. If the court finds that the interests of the minor require the representation of counsel, counsel shall be appointed whether or not the minor is able to afford counsel. The minor shall not be present in court unless the minor so requests or the court so orders.

(2) If a parent appears without counsel and is unable to afford counsel, the court shall appoint counsel for the parent, unless this representation is knowingly and intelligently waived. The same counsel shall not be appointed to represent both the minor and his or her parent. The public defender or private counsel may be appointed as counsel for the parent.

(3) Private counsel appointed under this section shall receive a reasonable sum for compensation and expenses, the amount of which shall be determined by the court. The amount shall be paid by the real parties in interest, other than the minor, in any proportions the court deems just. However, if the court finds that any of the real parties in interest are unable to afford counsel, the amount shall be paid out of the general fund of the county.

(g) The court may continue the proceeding for not to exceed 30 days as necessary to appoint counsel, and to enable counsel to become acquainted with the case.

(h) At all termination proceedings, the court shall consider the wishes of the child and shall act in the best interests of the child.

The testimony of the minor may be taken in chambers and outside the presence of the minor's parent or parents if the minor's parent or parents are represented by counsel, the counsel is present, and any of the following circumstances exist:

(1) The court determines that testimony in chambers is necessary to ensure truthful testimony.

(2) The minor is likely to be intimidated by a formal courtroom setting.

(3) The minor is afraid to testify in front of his or her parent or parents.

After testimony in chambers, the parent or parents of the minor may elect to have the court reporter read back the testimony or have the testimony summarized by counsel for the parent or parents.

The testimony of a minor also may be taken in chambers and outside the presence of the guardian or guardians of a minor under the circumstances specified in this subdivision.

(i) Any order of the court permanently terminating parental rights under this section shall be conclusive and binding upon the minor person, upon the parent or parents and upon all other persons who have been served with citation by publication or otherwise as provided in this chapter. After making such an order, the court shall have no power to set aside, change, or modify it, but nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the right to appeal the order.

(j) If the court, by order or judgment declares the minor free from the custody and control of both parents, or one parent if the other does not have custody and control, the court shall at the same time order the minor referred to the State Department of Social Services or a licensed adoption agency for adoptive placement by the agency. However, no petition for adoption may be granted until the appellate rights of the natural parents have been exhausted. The State Department of Social Services or licensed adoption agency shall be responsible for the custody and supervision of the minor and shall be entitled to the exclusive care and control of the minor at all times until a petition for adoption is granted. With the consent of the agency, the court may appoint a guardian of the minor, who shall serve until the minor is adopted.

(k) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the application of any person who, as a relative caretaker or foster parent, has cared for a dependent child for whom the court has approved a permanent plan for adoption, or who has been freed for adoption, shall be given preference with respect to that child over all other applications for adoptive placement if the agency making the placement determines that the child has substantial emotional ties to the relative caretaker or foster parent and removal from the relative caretaker or foster parent would be seriously detrimental to the child's emotional well-being.

As used in this subdivision, "preference" means that the application shall be processed and, if satisfactory, the family study shall be completed before the processing of the application of any other person for the adoptive placement of the child.

(l) An order by the court directing that a hearing pursuant to this section be held is not an appealable order, but may be the subject of review by extraordinary writ.

SEC. 2. Section 366.26 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

366.26. (a) This section applies to minors who are adjudged dependent children of the juvenile court pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 360 on or after January 1, 1989. The procedures specified herein are the exclusive procedures for conducting these hearings; Part 2 (commencing with Section 3020) of Division 8 of the Family Code is not applicable to these proceedings. For minors who are adjudged dependent children of the juvenile court pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 360 on or after January 1, 1989, this section and Sections 8604, 8605, 8606, and 8700 of the Family Code and Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 7660) of Part 3 of Division 12 of the Family Code specify the exclusive procedures for permanently terminating parental rights with regard to, or establishing legal guardianship of, the minor while the minor is a dependent child of the juvenile court.

(b) At the hearing, which shall be held in juvenile court for all minors who are dependents of the juvenile court, the court, in order to provide stable, permanent homes for these minors, shall review the report as specified in Section 361.5, 366.21, or 366.22, shall indicate that the court has read and considered it, shall receive other evidence that the parties present, and then shall do one of the following:

(1) Permanently sever the rights of the parent or parents and order that the child be placed for adoption and, upon the filing of a petition for adoption in the juvenile court, order that a hearing be set. The court shall proceed with the adoption after the appellate rights of the natural parents have been exhausted.

(2) Without permanently terminating parental rights, identify adoption as the permanent placement goal and order that efforts be made to locate an appropriate adoptive family for the minor for a period not to exceed 90 days.

(3) Without permanently terminating parental rights, appoint a legal guardian for the minor and issue letters of guardianship.

(4) Order that the minor be placed in long-term foster care, subject to the regular review of the juvenile court.

In choosing among the above alternatives the court shall proceed pursuant to subdivision (c).

(c) At the hearing the court shall proceed pursuant to one of the following procedures:

(1) The court shall terminate parental rights only if it determines by clear and convincing evidence that it is likely that the minor will be adopted. If the court so determines, the findings pursuant to subdivision (b) or paragraph 1 of subdivision (e) of Section 361.5 that reunification services shall not be offered, or the findings pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 366.21 that the whereabouts of a parent have been unknown for six months or that the parent has failed to visit or contact the child for six months or that the parent has been convicted of a felony indicating parental unfitness, or pursuant to Section 366.21 or 366.22 that a minor cannot or should not be returned to his or her parent or guardian, shall then constitute a sufficient basis for termination of parental rights unless the court finds that termination would be detrimental to the minor due to one of the following circumstances:

(A) The parents or guardians have maintained regular visitation and contact with the minor and the minor would benefit from continuing the relationship.

(B) A minor 12 years of age or older objects to termination of parental rights.

(C) The child is placed in a residential treatment facility, adoption is unlikely or undesirable, and continuation of parental rights will not prevent finding the child a permanent family placement if the parents cannot resume custody when residential care is no longer needed.

(D) The minor is living with a relative or foster parent who is unable or unwilling to adopt the minor because of exceptional circumstances, which do not include an unwillingness to accept legal responsibility for the minor, but who is willing and capable of providing the minor with a stable and permanent environment and the removal of the minor from the physical custody of his or her relative or foster parent would be detrimental to the emotional well-being of the minor.

(2) The court shall not terminate parental rights if at each and every hearing at which the court was required to consider reasonable efforts or services, the court has found that reasonable efforts were not made or that reasonable services were not offered or provided.

(3) If the court finds that termination of parental rights would not be detrimental to the minor pursuant to paragraph (1) and that the minor has a probability for adoption but is difficult to place for adoption and there is no identified or available prospective adoptive parent, the court may identify adoption as the permanent placement goal and without terminating parental rights, order that efforts be made to locate an appropriate adoptive family for the minor for a period not to exceed 90 days. During this 90-day period, the public agency responsible for seeking adoptive parents, for each child shall, to the extent possible, contact other private and public adoption agencies regarding the availability of the child for adoption. During the 90-day period, the public agency shall conduct the search for adoptive parents pursuant to Section 8708 of the Family Code. At the expiration of this period, another hearing shall be held and the court shall proceed pursuant to paragraph (1), (3), or (4) of subdivision (b). For purposes of this section, a minor may only be found to be difficult to place for adoption if there is no identified or available prospective adoptive parent for the minor because of the minor's membership in a sibling group, or the presence of a diagnosed medical, physical, or mental handicap, or the minor is the age of seven years or more.

permanent environment, but not willing to become a legal guardian, the minor shall not be removed from the home if the court finds the removal would be seriously detrimental to the emotional well-being of the minor because the minor has substantial psychological ties to the relative caretaker or foster parents. The court shall also make an order for visitation with the parents or guardians unless the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the visitation would be detrimental to the physical or emotional well-being of the minor.

(5) If the court finds that the child should not be placed for adoption, that legal guardianship shall not be established, and that there are no suitable foster parents except exclusive-use homes available to provide the minor with a stable and permanent environment, the court may order the care, custody, and control of the minor transferred from the county welfare department or probation department to a licensed foster family agency. The court shall consider the written recommendation of the county welfare director or chief probation officer regarding the suitability of such a transfer. The transfer shall be subject to further court orders.

The licensed foster family agency shall place the minor in a suitable licensed or exclusive-use home which has been certified by the agency as meeting licensing standards. The licensed foster family agency shall be responsible for supporting the minor and for providing appropriate services to the minor, including those services ordered by the court. Responsibility for the support of the minor shall not, in and of itself, create liability on the part of the foster family agency to third persons injured by the minor. Those minors whose care, custody, and control are transferred to a foster family agency shall not be eligible for foster care maintenance payments or child welfare services, except for emergency response services pursuant to Section 16504.

(d) The proceeding for the appointment of a guardian for a minor who is a dependent of the juvenile court shall be in the juvenile court. If the court finds pursuant to this section that legal guardianship is the appropriate permanency plan, it shall appoint the legal guardian and issue letters of guardianship. The assessment prepared pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 361.5, subdivision (i) of Section 366.21, and subdivision (b) of Section 366.22 shall be read and considered by the court prior to the appointment, and this shall be reflected in the minutes of the court. The person preparing the assessment may be called and examined by any party to the proceeding.

(e) The proceeding for the adoption of a minor who is a dependent of the juvenile court shall be in the juvenile court if the court finds pursuant to this section that adoption is the appropriate permanency plan and the petition for adoption is filed in the juvenile court. Upon the filing of a petition for adoption, the juvenile court shall order that an adoption hearing be set. The court shall proceed with the adoption after the appellate rights of the natural parents have been exhausted. The assessment prepared pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 361.5, subdivision (i) of Section 366.21, and subdivision (b) of Section 366.22 shall be read and considered by the court prior to the adoption and this shall be reflected in the minutes of the court. The person preparing the assessment may be called and examined by any party to the proceeding. It is the intent of the Legislature, pursuant to this subdivision, to give potential adoptive parents the option of filing in the juvenile court the petition for the adoption of a minor who is a dependent of the juvenile court. Nothing in this section is intended to prevent the filing of such a petition for adoption in any other court as permitted by law, instead of in the juvenile court.

(f) At the beginning of any proceeding pursuant to this section, if the minor or the parents are not being represented by previously retained or appointed counsel, the court shall proceed as follows:

(1) The court shall consider whether the interests of the minor require the appointment of counsel. If the court finds that the interests of the minor do require this protection, the court shall appoint counsel to represent the minor. If the court finds that the interests of the minor require the representation of counsel, counsel shall be appointed whether or not the minor is able to afford counsel. The minor shall not be present in court unless the minor so requests or the court so orders.

(2) If a parent appears without counsel and is unable to afford counsel, the court shall appoint counsel for the parent, unless this representation is knowingly and intelligently waived. The same counsel shall not be appointed to represent both the minor and his or her parent. The public defender or private counsel may be appointed as counsel for the parent.

(3) Private counsel appointed under this section shall receive a reasonable sum for compensation and expenses, the amount of which shall be determined by the court. The amount shall be paid by the real parties in interest, other than the minor, in any proportions the court deems just. However, if the court finds that any of the real parties in interest are unable to afford counsel, the amount shall be paid out of the general fund of the county.

(g) The court may continue the proceeding for not to exceed 30 days as necessary to appoint counsel, and to enable counsel to become acquainted with the case.

(h) At all termination proceedings, the court shall consider the wishes of the child and shall act in the best interests of the child.

The testimony of the minor may be taken in chambers and outside the presence of the minor's parent or parents if the minor's parent or parents are represented by counsel, the counsel is present, and any of the following circumstances exist:

(1) The court determines that testimony in chambers is necessary to ensure truthful testimony.

(2) The minor is likely to be intimidated by a formal courtroom setting.

(3) The minor is afraid to testify in front of his or her parent or parents.

The testimony of a minor also may be taken in chambers and outside the presence of the guardian or guardians of a minor under the circumstances specified in this subdivision.

(i) Any order of the court permanently terminating parental rights under this section shall be conclusive and binding upon the minor person, upon the parent or parents and upon all other persons who have been served with citation by publication or otherwise as provided in this chapter. After making such an order, the court shall have no power to set aside, change, or modify it, but nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the right to appeal the order.

(j) If the court, by order or judgment declares the minor free from the custody and control of both parents, or one parent if the other does not have custody and control, the court shall at the same time order the minor referred to the State Department of Social Services or a licensed adoption agency for adoptive placement by the agency. However, no petition for adoption may be granted until the appellate rights of the natural parents have been exhausted. The State Department of Social Services or licensed adoption agency shall be responsible for the custody and supervision of the minor and shall be entitled to the exclusive care and control of the minor at all times until a petition for adoption is granted. With the consent of the agency, the court may appoint a guardian of the minor, who shall serve until the minor is adopted.

(k) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the application of any person who, as a relative caretaker or foster parent, has cared for a dependent child for whom the court has approved a permanent plan for adoption, or who has been freed for adoption, shall be given preference with respect to that child over all other applications for adoptive placement if the agency making the placement determines that the child has substantial emotional ties to the relative caretaker or foster parent and removal from the relative caretaker or foster parent would be seriously detrimental to the child's emotional well-being.

As used in this subdivision, "preference" means that the application shall be processed and, if satisfactory, the family study shall be completed before the processing of the application of any other person for the adoptive placement of the child.

(l) An order by the court directing that a hearing pursuant to this section be held is not at any time an appealable order, but may be the subject of review exclusively by extraordinary writ filed within 60 days of the making of the order. If the petition for extraordinary writ is timely filed and supported by an adequate record, the court of appeal after first providing the other parties with an opportunity to respond shall consider and decide the matter on the merits.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 366.26 of the Welfare and Institutions Code proposed by both this bill and SB 1531. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 366.26 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 1531, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 325

An act to amend Section 35183 of the Education Code, relating to schools.

[Approved by Governor August 23, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 23, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 35183 of the Education Code is amended to read:

35183. (a) The Legislature finds and declares each of the following:

(1) The children of this state have the right to an effective public school education. Both students and staff of the primary, elementary, junior and senior high school campuses have the constitutional right to be safe and secure in their persons at school. However, children in many of our public schools are forced to focus on the threat of violence and the messages of violence contained in many aspects of our society, particularly reflected in gang regalia that disrupts the learning environment.

(2) "Gang-related apparel" is hazardous to the health and safety of the school environment.

(3) Instructing teachers and administrators on the subtleties of identifying constantly changing gang regalia and gang affiliation takes an increasing amount of time away from educating our children.

(4) Weapons, including firearms and knives, have become common place upon even our elementary school campuses. Students often conceal weapons by wearing clothing, such as jumpsuits and overcoats, and by carrying large bags.

(5) The adoption of a schoolwide uniform policy is a reasonable way to provide some protection for students. A required uniform may protect students from being associated with any particular gang. Moreover, by requiring schoolwide uniforms teachers and administrators may not need to occupy as much of their time learning the subtleties of gang regalia.

(6) To control the environment in public schools to facilitate and maintain an effective learning environment and to keep the focus of the classroom on learning and not personal safety, schools need the authorization to implement uniform clothing requirements for our public school children.

(7) Many educators believe that school dress significantly influences pupil behavior. This influence is evident on school dressup days and color days. Schools that have adopted school uniforms experience a "coming together feeling," greater school pride, and better behavior in and out of the classroom.

(b) The governing board of any school district may adopt or rescind a reasonable dress code policy that requires pupils to wear a schoolwide uniform or prohibits pupils from wearing "gang-related apparel" if the governing board of the school district approves a plan that may be initiated by an individual school's principal, staff, and parents and determines that the policy is necessary for the health and safety of the school environment. Individual schools may include the reasonable dress code policy as part of its school safety plan, pursuant to Section 35294.1.

(c) Adoption and enforcement of a reasonable dress code policy pursuant to subdivision (b) is not a violation of Section 48950. For purposes of this section, Section 48950 shall apply to elementary, high school, and unified school districts. If a schoolwide uniform is required, the specific uniform selected shall be determined by the principal, staff, and parents of the individual school.

(d) A dress code policy that requires pupils to wear a schoolwide uniform shall not be implemented with less than six months' notice to parents and the availability of resources to assist economically disadvantaged pupils.

(e) The governing board shall provide a method whereby parents may choose not to have their children comply with an adopted school uniform policy.

(f) If a governing board chooses to adopt a policy pursuant to this section, the policy shall include a provision that no pupil shall be penalized academically or otherwise discriminated against nor denied attendance to school if the pupil's parents chose not to have the pupil comply with the school uniform policy. The governing board shall continue to have responsibility for the appropriate education of those pupils.

(g) A policy adopted pursuant to this section shall not preclude pupils that participate in a nationally recognized youth organization from wearing organization uniforms on days that the organization has a scheduled meeting.

CHAPTER 326

An act to add Section 33320.7 to, and to add Article 3 (commencing with Section 33515) to Chapter 5 of Part 1 of Division 24 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to redevelopment, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 33320.7 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

33320.7. (a) Notwithstanding Section 21090 of the Public Resources Code, the Inland Valley Development Agency may determine at a noticed public hearing that the amendment of a redevelopment plan for the Norton Air Force Base Redevelopment Project Area pursuant to this chapter is not subject to the California Environmental Quality Act (Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code), except that projects implementing the redevelopment plan, including specific plans, rezonings, and ministerial projects that may have a significant effect on the environment, shall be subject to the California Environmental Quality Act. The environmental document for any implementing project shall include an analysis and mitigation of potential cumulative impacts that otherwise will not be known until an environmental impact report for the redevelopment plan is certified.

(b) The notice of the public hearing required pursuant to subdivision (a) shall include the date, time, and place of the hearing, a brief description of the proposed project and its location, the date when notice will be provided pursuant to Section 21092 of the Public Resources Code, and the address where copies of the notice of exemption are available for review.

(c) The notice required by this section shall be given to all organizations and individuals who have previously requested notice pursuant to the California Environmental Quality Act, and shall be given by publication, no fewer times than required by Section 6061 of the Government Code, by the public agency in a newspaper of general circulation in the area affected by the proposed project.

(d) If the Inland Valley Development Agency determines, pursuant to subdivision (a), that the amendment of a redevelopment plan is not subject to the California Environmental Quality Act, the redevelopment agency shall prepare and certify an environmental impact report for the redevelopment plan amendment within 12 months after effective date of the ordinance amending the redevelopment plan.

(e) An environmental impact report prepared and certified for a specific plan or other comprehensive land use plan for the applicable portion of the Inland Valley Redevelopment Project Area shall satisfy the requirement of subdivision (d) if the plan covers the same area and project as the amendment to the redevelopment plan and is certified within 12 months after the effective date of the ordinance amending the redevelopment plan.

(f) The redevelopment agency shall revise the redevelopment plan if necessary to mitigate any impacts and comply with the California Environmental Quality Act and adopt mitigation measures as conditions of project approval.

(g) This section shall only apply to a redevelopment plan amendment approved on or before September 1, 1995.

SEC. 2. Article 3 (commencing with Section 33515) is added to Chapter 5 of Part 1 of Division 24 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 3. Actions Involving Public Agencies

33515. (a) A redevelopment agency shall not, either directly or indirectly, use its funds to file or maintain an action or proceeding in either of the following circumstances:

(1) Against a public agency that does not have jurisdiction to conduct its governmental activities within the jurisdiction of the redevelopment agency.

(2) The subject matter of the action involves real property outside the jurisdictional boundaries of the redevelopment agency.

(b) The prohibition in subdivision (a) shall not preclude a redevelopment agency from using its funds to:

(1) Defend itself against any action.

(2) File or maintain an action against a public agency or private entity regarding the interpretation or enforcement of a written agreement between the redevelopment agency and that public agency or private entity.

(c) No funds of a redevelopment agency shall be loaned or granted to any person, corporation, or public agency to finance, in whole or in part, an action the financing of which by a redevelopment agency is prohibited by subdivision (a). In addition, a redevelopment agency shall not borrow funds from its community or any other source to file or maintain an action which is prohibited by subdivision (a).

(d) Nothing in this section shall prohibit a community from filing or maintaining an action on behalf of the community and its redevelopment agency as long as funds of the redevelopment agency are not used, either directly or indirectly, on behalf of the lawsuit.

(e) For purposes of this article:

(1) "Finance" includes, but is not necessarily limited to, the payment of filing fees, attorneys' fees, service fees, expert witness fees, consultants' fees, or any other expenses or costs incurred in connection with an action.

(2) "Public agency" includes a local agency as defined in Section 54951 of the Government Code and includes a joint powers agency or authority and a redevelopment agency.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that the Community Redevelopment Law be amended to authorize local agencies to adapt their redevelopment projects to address the changing needs of their communities, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 327

An act to amend Section 1141.19.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to arbitration.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1141.19.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1141.19.5. In any arbitration proceeding under this chapter, no party may require the production of evidence specified in subdivision (a) of Section 3295 of the Civil Code at the arbitration, unless the court enters an order permitting pretrial discovery of that evidence pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 3295 of the Civil Code.

CHAPTER 328

An act to amend Section 26020 of the Public Resources Code, relating to energy resources, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 26020 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

26020. The authority may incur indebtedness and issue and renew negotiable bonds, notes, debentures, or other securities of any kind or class. All indebtedness, however evidenced, shall be payable solely from revenues of the authority and the proceeds of its negotiable bonds, notes, debentures, or other securities and shall not exceed the sum of three hundred fifty million dollars ($350,000,000) of total debt. As used in this section, "total debt" does not include indebtedness which is incurred to refund existing debts, except to the extent that the indebtedness exceeds the amount of those debts.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to meet the growing demand for revenue bond financing for alternative energy projects that are necessary to meet consumer energy needs, promote business development, and improve air quality and public health in this state, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 329

An act to amend Section 4080 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to mental health.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4080 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

4080. (a) Psychiatric health facilities, as defined in Section 1250.2 of the Health and Safety Code, shall only be licensed by the State Department of Mental Health subsequent to application by counties, county contract providers, or other organizations pursuant to this part.

(b) (1) For counties or county contract providers that choose to apply, the local mental health director shall first present to the local mental health advisory board for its review an explanation of the need for the facility and a description of the services to be provided. The local mental health director shall then submit to the governing body the explanation and description. The governing body, upon its approval, may submit the application to the State Department of Mental Health.

(2) Other organizations that will be applying for licensure and do not intend to use any Bronzan-McCorquodale funds pursuant to Section 5707 shall submit to the local mental health director and the governing body in the county in which the facility is to be located a written and dated proposal of the services to be provided. The local mental health director and governing body shall have 30 days during which to provide any advice and recommendations regarding licensure, as they deem appropriate. At any time after the 30-day period, the organizations may then submit their applications, along with the mental health director's and governing body's advice and recommendations, if any, to the State Department of Mental Health.

(c) The State Fire Marshal and other appropriate state agencies, to the extent required by law, shall cooperate fully with the State Department of Mental Health to ensure that the State Department of Mental Health approves or disapproves the licensure applications not later than 90 days after the application submission by a county, county contract provider, or other organization.

(d) Every psychiatric health facility and program for which a license has been issued shall be periodically inspected by a multidisciplinary team appointed or designated by the State Department of Mental Health. The inspection shall be conducted no less than once every two years and as often as necessary to ensure the quality of care provided. During the inspections the review team shall offer such advice and assistance to the psychiatric health facility as it deems appropriate.

(e) (1) The program aspects of a psychiatric health facility that shall be reviewed and may be approved by the State Department of Mental Health shall include, but not be limited to:

(A) Activities programs.
(B) Administrative policies and procedures.
(C) Admissions, including provisions for a mental evaluation.
(D) Discharge planning.
(E) Health records content.
(F) Health records services.
(G) Interdisciplinary treatment teams.
(H) Nursing services.
(I) Patient rights.
(J) Pharmaceutical services.
(K) Program space requirements.
(L) Psychiatrist and clinical psychological services.
(M) Rehabilitation services.
(N) Restraint and seclusion.
(O) Social work services.
(P) Space, supplies, and equipment.
(Q) Staffing standards.
(R) Unusual occurrences.
(S) Use of outside resources, including agreements with general acute care hospitals.
(T) Linguistic access and cultural competence.
(U) Structured outpatient services to be provided under special permit.

(2) The State Department of Mental Health has the sole authority to grant program flexibility.

(f) The State Department of Mental Health shall adopt regulations that shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) Procedures by which the State Department of Mental Health shall review and may approve the program and facility requesting licensure as a psychiatric health facility as being in compliance with program standards established by the department.

(2) Procedures by which the Director of Mental Health shall approve, or deny approval of, the program and facility licensed as a psychiatric health facility pursuant to this section.

(3) Provisions for site visits by the State Department of Mental Health for the purpose of reviewing a facility's compliance with program and facility standards.

(4) Provisions for the State Department of Mental Health for any administrative proceeding regarding denial, suspension, or revocation of a psychiatric health facility license.

(g) Regulations shall be adopted by the State Department of Mental Health, which shall establish standards for pharmaceutical services in psychiatric health facilities. Licensed psychiatric health facilities shall be exempt from requirements to obtain a separate pharmacy license or permit.

(h) (1) It is the intent of the Legislature that the State Department of Mental Health shall license the facility in order to establish innovative and more competitive acute care services as alternatives to hospital care.

(2) The State Department of Mental Health shall review and may approve the program aspects of public or private facilities, with the exception of those facilities that are federally certified or accredited by a nationally recognized commission that accredits health care facilities, only if the average per diem charges or costs of service provided in the facility is approximately 60 percent of the average per diem charges or costs of similar psychiatric services provided in a general hospital.

(3) (A) When a private facility is accredited by a nationally recognized commission that accredits health care facilities, the department shall review and may approve the program aspects only if the average per diem charges or costs of service provided in the facility do not exceed approximately 75 percent of the average per diem charges or costs of similar psychiatric service provided in a psychiatric or general hospital.

(B) When a private facility serves county patients, the department shall review and may approve the program aspects only if the facility is federally certified by the Health Care Financing Administration and serves a population mix that includes a proportion of Medi-Cal patients sufficient to project an overall cost savings to the county, and the average per diem charges or costs of service provided in the facility do not exceed approximately 75 percent of the average per diem charges or costs of similar psychiatric service provided in a psychiatric or general hospital.

(4) When a public facility is federally certified by the Health Care Financing Administration and serves a population mix that includes a proportion of Medi-Cal patients sufficient to project an overall program cost savings with certification, the department shall approve the program aspects only if the average per diem charges or costs of service provided in the facility do not exceed approximately 75 percent of the average per diem charges or costs of similar psychiatric service provided in a psychiatric or general hospital.

(5) (A) The State Department of Mental Health may set a lower rate for private or public facilities than that required by paragraph (3) or paragraph (4), respectively if so required by the federal Health Care Financing Administration as a condition for the receipt of federal matching funds.

(B) This section does not impose any obligation on any private facility to contract with a county for the provision of services to Medi-Cal beneficiaries, and any contract for that purpose is subject to the agreement of the participating facility.

(6) (A) In using the guidelines specified in this subdivision, the department shall take into account local conditions affecting the costs or charges.

(B) In those psychiatric health facilities authorized by special permit to offer structured outpatient services not exceeding 10 daytime hours, the following limits on per diem rates shall apply:

(i) The per diem charge for patients in both a morning and an afternoon program on the same day shall not exceed 60 percent of the facility's authorized per diem charge for inpatient services.

(ii) The per diem charge for patients in either a morning or afternoon program shall not exceed 30 percent of the facility's authorized per diem charge for inpatient services.

(i) The licensing fees charged for these facilities shall be credited to the State Department of Mental Health for its costs incurred in the review of psychiatric health facility programs, in connection with the licensing of these facilities.

(j) Proposed changes in the standards or regulations affecting health facilities that serve the mentally disordered shall be effected only with the review and coordination of the Health and Welfare Agency.

(k) In psychiatric health facilities where the clinical director is not a physician, a psychiatrist, or if one is temporarily not available, a physician shall be designated who shall direct those medical treatments and services that can only be provided by, or under the direction of, a physician.

CHAPTER 330

An act to add Sections 42801.5 and 72507 to the Education Code, and to add Article 1.7 (commencing with Section 53226) to Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, relating to local government.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 42801.5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

42801.5. Notwithstanding the requirement to provide for indemnity bonds pursuant to Sections 42650 and 42801, the governing board of a school district may, in lieu thereof, insure against losses caused by an employee or an officer of a school district if the insurance gives the same or greater protection to the school district that a bond would provide in indemnifying the school district against any loss caused by the employee or officer of the district.

SEC. 2. Section 72507 is added to the Education Code, to read:

72507. Notwithstanding the requirement to provide for indemnity bonds pursuant to Section 85266.5, the governing board of a community college district may, in lieu thereof, insure against all losses caused by an employee or an officer of a community college district if the insurance gives the same or greater protection to the community college district that a bond would provide in indemnifying the community college districts against any loss caused by the employee or officer of the community college district.

SEC. 3. Article 1.7 (commencing with Section 53226) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, to read:

Article 1.7. Local District Bonds

53226. This article shall apply to districts other than school districts.

53226.1. The legislative body of any district electing to adopt by resolution the procedures in this chapter shall, prior to an election of officers of the districts, prescribe the amounts of officials' bonds of the officers of the district.

53226.2. As an alternative or supplementary to the bonds required by this article, the legislative body may establish a master bond pursuant to Section 1481.

CHAPTER 331

An act to repeal Section 130554 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to transportation.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 130554 of the Public Utilities Code is repealed.

CHAPTER 332

An act to amend Section 998 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to civil actions.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 998 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

998. (a) The costs allowed under Sections 1031 and 1032 shall be withheld or augmented as provided in this section.

(b) Not less than 10 days prior to commencement of trial, any party may serve an offer in writing upon any other party to the action to allow judgment to be taken in accordance with the terms and conditions stated at that time.

(1) If the offer is accepted, the offer with proof of acceptance shall be filed and the clerk or the judge shall enter judgment accordingly.

(2) If the offer is not accepted prior to trial or within 30 days after it is made, whichever occurs first, it shall be deemed withdrawn, and cannot be given in evidence upon the trial.

(3) For purposes of this subdivision, a trial shall be deemed to be actually commenced at the beginning of the opening statement of the plaintiff or counsel, and if there is no opening statement, then at the time of the administering of the oath or affirmation to the first witness, or the introduction of any evidence.

(c) If an offer made by a defendant is not accepted and the plaintiff fails to obtain a more favorable judgment, the plaintiff shall not recover his or her costs and shall pay the defendant's costs from the time of the offer. For purposes of this section, a plaintiff in a cause of action not based on tort shall not be deemed to have obtained a more favorable judgment unless the judgment obtained by the plaintiff, exclusive of attorney's fees and costs, exceeds the offer made by the defendant pursuant to this section. In addition, in any action or proceeding other than an eminent domain action, the court, in its discretion, may require the plaintiff to pay the defendant's costs from the date of filing of the complaint and a reasonable sum to cover costs of the services of expert witnesses, who are not regular employees of any party, actually incurred and reasonably necessary in either, or both, the preparation or trial of the case by the defendant.

(d) If an offer made by a plaintiff is not accepted and the defendant fails to obtain a more favorable judgment, the court in its discretion may require the defendant to pay a reasonable sum to cover costs of the services of expert witnesses, who are not regular employees of any party, actually incurred and reasonably necessary in either, or both, the preparation or trial of the case by the plaintiff, in addition to plaintiff's costs.

(e) If an offer made by a defendant is not accepted and the plaintiff fails to obtain a more favorable judgment, the costs under this section shall be deducted from any damages awarded in favor of the plaintiff. If the costs awarded under this section exceed the amount of the damages awarded to the plaintiff the net amount shall be awarded to the defendant and judgment shall be entered accordingly.

(f) Police officers shall be deemed to be expert witnesses for the purposes of this section; plaintiff includes a cross-complainant and defendant includes a cross-defendant. Any judgment entered pursuant to this section shall be deemed to be a compromise settlement.

(g) This chapter does not apply to an offer which is made by a plaintiff in an eminent domain action.

(h) The costs for services of expert witnesses for trial under subdivisions (c) and (d) shall not exceed those specified in Section 68092.5 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 333

An act to amend Section 56728.9 of the Education Code, relating to special education.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 56728.9 of the Education Code is amended to read:

56728.9. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, any special education local plan area that is a single district and that is severely impacted by pupils who reside in licensed children's institutions, as defined in Section 56155.5, shall be entitled to a support services amount calculated pursuant to Section 56734, except that the quotient computed pursuant to Section 56733 shall be multiplied by 150 percent for classes in which a majority of the pupils enrolled reside in licensed children's institutions, if the special education local plan area meets all of the requirements of this section.

(b) A special education local plan area is severely impacted, for purposes of this section, if all of the following requirements are satisfied:

(1) Pupils who reside in licensed children's institutions represent more than 15 percent of the special education enrollment of the special education local plan area.

(2) Special education enrollment of pupils who reside in licensed children's institutions has increased by more than 50 percent since 1985.

(3) The special education local plan area does not enroll more than 10 percent of its pupils who do not reside in licensed children's institutions in special education programs.

(c) Any special education local plan area that is severely impacted pursuant to subdivision (b) may make the calculation adjustments provided by subdivision (a) only for those classes in which a majority of the pupils enrolled during the 1989–90 school year resided in licensed children's institutions.

(d) The calculation provided by this section is a base year calculation, based on the enrollment in classes in the 1989–90 school year, creating a limit on funding adjustments provided by this section. Special education local plan areas shall not be required to maintain the 1989–90 level of eligible classes in order to be eligible for the calculation in future years. Special education local plan areas are encouraged to place pupils who reside in licensed children's institutions in the educational environment that best meets the pupil's needs in keeping with the least restrictive environment requirements of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (20 U.S.C. Sec. 1400 et seq.) and the Master Plan for Special Education.

(e) A special education local plan area may claim an amount of funding in a fiscal year that is not greater than the amount claimed pursuant to this section in the prior fiscal year. The amount claimed may be increased only if a specific appropriation is made for that purpose in that fiscal year. A special education local plan area that received funding for purposes of this section in the 1994–95 fiscal year shall continue to receive that funding in a subsequent fiscal year only if it continues to meet the qualifications of this section and an appropriation is made for those purposes in the annual Budget Act. A special education local plan area that did not receive funding for purposes of this section in the 1994–95 fiscal year that subsequently qualifies for that funding, shall not receive that funding unless an additional appropriation is made for those purposes in the annual Budget Act.

(f) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1998, and as of that date is repealed, unless Assembly Bill 3757 or Senate Bill 1640 of the 1993–94 Regular Session is enacted and becomes operative on or before January 1, 1996, in which case this section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1996, and as of that date is repealed.

CHAPTER 334

An act to amend Section 699.5 of the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 699.5 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

699.5. (a) The ownership or financial control, in part, direct or indirect, of any domestic, foreign, or alien insurer, by any state of the United States or by a foreign government or by any political subdivision of either, or by an agency of any other state, government, or subdivision thereof, shall not, provided the insurer complies with all other requirements for issuance, renewal, or continuation of a license, restrict the commissioner from issuing, renewing, or continuing in effect the license of that insurer to transact in this state the kinds of insurance business for which that insurer is otherwise qualified under the provisions of this chapter and under its charter unless the commissioner shall find that (1) the insurer is subject to any form of subsidy that would enable it to compete unfairly with domestic insurers, (2) the insurer is subject to governmental practices that discriminate on the basis of race, color, creed, or national origin, (3) the ownership or financial control will create the presence of any sovereign immunity in the insurer, (4) appropriate measures and controls do not exist to avoid security problems resulting from an insurer's access to confidential information and data of its insured, or (5) the ownership or financial control results in substantial or undue influence being asserted over the insurer.

(b) The failure by any applicant for a license to submit the information requested by the commissioner for the purposes of determining whether to make a finding pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be sufficient to deny the application.

(c) Nothing in the amendments to this section enacted during the 1994 portion of the 1993–94 Regular Session of the Legislature shall be interpreted to authorize the issuance of a license to an insurer wholly owned by any governmental entity described in subdivision (a).

CHAPTER 335

An act to add Sections 40455 and 40456 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to air pollution.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 40455 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

40455. Notwithstanding subdivision (e) of Section 40717, the south coast district shall not require any local agency to implement any transportation control measure that the district itself is prohibited from enacting pursuant to Section 40454, unless required by the federal Clean Air Act.

SEC. 2. Section 40456 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

40456. Except as provided in Section 43845, the south coast district shall not require any employer to charge its employees for parking.

CHAPTER 336

An act to repeal and add Section 19503 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to rehabilitation.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19503 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 19503 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

19503. The Director of Rehabilitation shall appoint an administrator for each orientation center for the blind who shall administer and supervise the program at the center in accordance with this article and under the supervision of the Director of Rehabilitation. The administrator of each orientation center for the blind shall be either a sighted or visually handicapped person and shall have all of the following minimum qualifications:

(a) Four years of full time, paid experience working in a program for the education or rehabilitation of adults who are legally blind, with emphasis on nonvisual living techniques, including, but not limited to, daily living, mobility, and communication skills. At least two years' experience shall have been in a supervisory or administrative capacity.

(b) Proficiency in Braille as a second language.

(c) Education equivalent to graduation from college with a bachelor's degree. Additional qualifying experience may be substituted on a year-for-year basis.

CHAPTER 337

An act to repeal Section 1568.22 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to day care.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1568.22 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

CHAPTER 338

An act to add Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 9250) to Part 1 of Division 8.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to elderly persons.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 9250) is added to Part 1 of Division 8.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

CHAPTER 3.5. CALIFORNIA SENIOR LEGISLATURE

9250. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that the needs of senior citizens for public programs in health, social services, recreation, transportation, education, housing, cultural services, and other appropriate areas of service can best be assessed by senior citizens.

(b) The Legislature also finds and declares that the California Senior Legislature, having been in continuous service since the first session in 1980 has proved its usefulness in providing model legislation for older citizens and advocating for the needs of seniors, shall be established through this chapter and shall operate according to the procedures set forth in this chapter.

9251. (a) The California Senior Legislature shall be composed of two houses, the California Senior Senate, composed of 40 members, and the California Senior Assembly, composed of 80 members.

(b) Members of the California Senior Legislature shall serve two-year terms.

9252. The members of the California Senior Legislature shall be elected, in all 33 planning and service areas in California, according to rules developed by the California Senior Legislature in cooperation with the California Association of Area Agencies on Aging and the California Commission on Aging.

9253. The California Commission on Aging shall render such services as are necessary to implement this chapter pursuant to an agreement entered into with the California Senior Legislature.

9254. The California Senior Legislature shall have the full authority to define its program and utilize its funds in any way necessary to carry out the duties of this chapter, provided that no such program or activity is in violation of state law or regulation.

9255. The funds for the California Senior Legislature and the supportive activities of the Commission on Aging for the California Senior Legislature shall be entirely allocated from the California Fund for Senior Citizens.

It is the intent of the Legislature that the General Fund shall not be liable for any of the costs of the California Senior Legislature.

CHAPTER 339

An act to amend Sections 2079 and 2079.3 of the Civil Code, relating to real property.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2079 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2079. (a) It is the duty of a real estate broker or salesperson, licensed under Division 4 (commencing with Section 10000) of the Business and Professions Code, to a prospective purchaser of residential real property comprising one to four dwelling units, including a manufactured home as defined in Section 18007 of the Health and Safety Code, to conduct a reasonably competent and diligent visual inspection of the property offered for sale and to disclose to that prospective purchaser all facts materially affecting the value or desirability of the property that such an investigation would reveal, if that broker has a written contract with the seller to find or obtain a buyer or is a broker who acts in cooperation with that broker to find and obtain a buyer.

(b) It is the duty of a real estate broker or salesperson licensed under Division 4 (commencing with Section 10000) of the Business and Professions Code to comply with this section and any regulations imposing standards of professional conduct adopted pursuant to Section 10080 of the Business and Professions Code with reference to Sections 10176 and 10177 of the Business and Professions Code.

SEC. 2. Section 2079.3 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2079.3. The inspection to be performed pursuant to this article does not include or involve an inspection of areas that are reasonably and normally inaccessible to such an inspection, nor an affirmative inspection of areas off the site of the subject property or public records or permits concerning the title or use of the property, and, if the property comprises a unit in a planned development as defined in Section 11003 of the Business and Professions Code, a condominium as defined in Section 783, or a stock cooperative as defined in Section 11003.2 of the Business and Professions Code, does not include an inspection of more than the unit offered for sale, if the seller or the broker complies with the provisions of Section 1368.

SEC. 3. This act is intended to clarify the obligations of real estate licensees and is not intended to change any existing duty of a broker or salesperson to disclose material facts within the knowledge of the licensee, including the existence of nuisances or other conditions of nearby properties that may affect the value or desirability of the property offered for sale.

CHAPTER 340

An act to amend Sections 798.23, 798.49, and 798.53 of the Civil Code, relating to mobilehomes.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 798.23 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

798.23. (a) The owner of the park, and any person employed by the park, shall be subject to, and comply with, all park rules and regulations, to the same extent as residents and their guests.

(b) This section shall not apply to either of the following:

(1) Any rule or regulation that governs the age of any resident or guest.

(2) Acts of a park owner or park employee which are undertaken to fulfill a park owner's maintenance, management, and business operation responsibilities.

(c) This section shall not affect in any way, either to validate or invalidate, nor does this section express a legislative policy judgment in favor of or against, the enforcement of a park rule or regulation which prohibits or restricts the subletting of a mobilehome park space by a tenant.

SEC. 2. Section 798.49 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

798.49. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (d), the local agency of any city, including a charter city, county, or city and county, which administers an ordinance, rule, regulation, or initiative measure that establishes a maximum amount that management may charge a tenant for rent shall permit the management to separately charge a homeowner for any of the following:

(1) The amount of any fee, assessment or other charge first imposed by a city, including a charter city, a county, a city and county, the state, or the federal government on or after January 1, 1995, upon the space rented by the homeowner.

(2) The amount of any increase on or after January 1, 1995, in an existing fee, assessment or other charge imposed by any governmental entity upon the space rented by the homeowner.

(3) The amount of any fee, assessment or other charge upon the space first imposed or increased on or after January 1, 1993, pursuant to any state or locally mandated program relating to housing contained in the Health and Safety Code.

(b) If management has charged the homeowner for a fee, assessment, or other charge specified in subdivision (a) that was increased or first imposed on or after January 1, 1993, and the fee, assessment, or other charge is decreased or eliminated thereafter, the charge to the homeowner shall be decreased or eliminated accordingly.

(c) The amount of the fee, assessment or other charges authorized by subdivision (a) shall be separately stated on any billing to the homeowner. Any change in the amount of the fee, assessment, or other charges that are separately billed pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be considered when determining any rental adjustment under the local ordinance.

(d) This section shall not apply to any of the following:

(1) Those fees, assessments, or charges imposed pursuant to the Mobilehome Parks Act (Part 2.1 (commencing with Section 18200) of Division 13 of the Health and Safety Code), unless specifically authorized by Section 18502 of the Health and Safety Code.

(2) Those costs that are imposed on management by a court pursuant to Section 798.42.

(3) Any fee or other exaction imposed upon management for the specific purpose of defraying the cost of administration of any ordinance, rule, regulation, or initiative measure that establishes a maximum amount that management may charge a tenant for rent.

(4) Any tax imposed upon the property by a city, including a charter city, county, or city and county.

(e) Those fees and charges specified in subdivision (a) shall be separately stated on any monthly or other periodic billing to the homeowner. If the fee or charge has a limited duration or is amortized for a specified period, the expiration date shall be stated on the initial notice and each subsequent billing to the homeowner while the fee or charge is billed to the homeowner.

SEC. 3. Section 798.53 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

798.53. The management shall meet and consult with the homeowners, upon written request, within 30 days of the request, either individually, collectively, or with representatives of a group of homeowners who have signed a request to be so represented on the following matters:

(a) Resident concerns regarding existing park rules that are not subject to Section 798.25.

(b) Standards for maintenance of physical improvements in the park.

(c) Addition, alteration, or deletion of service, equipment, or physical improvements.

(d) Rental agreements offered pursuant to Section 798.17.

Any collective meeting shall be conducted only after notice thereof has been given to all the requesting homeowners 10 days or more before the meeting.

CHAPTER 341

An act to add Section 53075.61 to the Government Code, relating to taxicabs.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 53075.61 is added to the Government Code, to read:

53075.61. A transportation inspector, authorized by a local government to cite any person for operating as a taxicab without a valid taxicab certificate, license, or permit required by any ordinance, may impound and retain possession of any vehicle used in a violation of the ordinance.

If the vehicle is seized from a person who is not the owner of the vehicle, the impounding authority shall immediately give notice to the owner by first-class mail.

The vehicle shall immediately be returned to the owner without cost to the owner if the infraction or violation is not prosecuted or is dismissed, the owner is found not guilty of the offense, or it is determined that the vehicle was used in violation of the ordinance without the knowledge and consent of the owner. Otherwise, the vehicle shall be returned to the owner upon payment of any fine ordered by the court. After the expiration of six weeks from the final disposition of the criminal case, the impounding authority may deal with the vehicle as lost or abandoned property under Section 1411 of the Penal Code.

At any time, a person may make a motion in municipal court for the immediate return of a vehicle on the ground that there was no probable cause to seize it or that there is some other good cause, as determined by the court, for the return of the vehicle.

No officer or employee, however, shall impound any vehicle owned or operated by a nonprofit organization exempt from taxation pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code which serves youth or senior citizens and provides transportation incidental to its programs or services.

CHAPTER 342

An act to amend Section 94350 of the Education Code, relating to postsecondary education, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 94350 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94350. This chapter shall become inoperative on June 30, 1997, and as of January 1, 1998, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1998, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

CHAPTER 343

An act to amend Section 27521 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to food facilities.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 27521 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

27521. (a) "Food facility" means all of the following:

(1) Any food establishment, vehicle, vending machine, produce stand, swap meet prepackaged food stand, temporary food facility, satellite food distribution facility, stationary mobile food preparation unit, and mobile food preparation unit.

(2) Any place used in conjunction with the operations described in paragraph (1), including, but not limited to, storage facilities for food-related utensils, equipment, and materials.

(3) A certified farmers' market, for purposes of permitting and enforcement.

(b) "Food facility" does not include any of the following:

(1) A cooperative arrangement wherein no permanent facilities are used for storing or handling food, or a private home, church, private club, or other nonprofit association that gives or sells food to its members and guests at occasional events, as defined in Section 27528, or a for-profit entity that gives or sells food at occasional events, as defined in Section 27528, for the benefit of a nonprofit association, if the for-profit entity receives no monetary benefit, other than that resulting from recognition for participating in the event.

(2) Premises set aside for winetasting, as that term is used in Section 23356.1 of the Business and Professions Code and in the regulations adopted pursuant to that section, if no food or beverage is offered for sale for onsite consumption.

CHAPTER 344

An act to add Section 97.031 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to local government finance.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 97.031 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

97.031. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, for the 1994–95 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, the amount of property tax revenue deemed allocated in the prior fiscal year to a county free library, or a library established as an independent special district, shall not be reduced for purposes of increasing the amount of property tax revenue to be allocated to another jurisdiction.

(b) Any person employed in the classifications described in subdivision (a) in the department indicated may elect, within 90 days of the operative date of this section, to remain subject to the miscellaneous service retirement benefit by filing an irrevocable notice of election with the board. A member who so elects shall be subject to the reduced benefit factors specified in Section 21251.13 of the Government Code only for service also included in the federal system.

(c) This section shall not become applicable to any member included in a classification until the time a ruling or regulation authorizing the inclusion of persons employed in that classification within the definition of "policeman" or "fireman," or both, is issued by the federal agency for purposes of Section 218(d)(5)(A) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C.A. 418 (d)(5)(A)).

CHAPTER 346

An act to amend Section 58004 of, and to add Section 58005 to, the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to agriculture, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 58004 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

58004. Except as provided in Section 58005, fees, charges, and costs that are collected under this chapter shall be paid into the State Treasury to the credit of the General Fund.

SEC. 2. Section 58005 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

58005. All fees, charges, and costs that are received under this chapter for the collection, analysis, and dissemination of market news shall be paid into the State Treasury monthly to the credit of the Department of Food and Agriculture Fund. Funds received for these purposes, upon appropriation, shall be expended by the department for market news services. The secretary may adopt regulations implementing procedures for receiving fees, charges, and reimbursement for costs from users of market news.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide the people of California with an opportunity to provide funding as soon as possible for the dissemination of commodity pricing information for agriculture which has become an essential component in the marketing of California's agricultural products, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 347

An act to amend Section 13554.2 of the Water Code, relating to water.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13554.2 of the Water Code is amended to read:

13554.2. (a) Any person or entity proposing the use of recycled water shall reimburse the State Department of Health Services for reasonable costs that department actually incurs in performing duties pursuant to this chapter.

(b) (1) Upon a request from the person or entity proposing the use of recycled water, the State Department of Health Services shall, within a reasonable time after the receipt of the request, provide an estimate of the costs that it will reasonably incur in the performance of its duties pursuant to this chapter.

(2) For purposes of implementing subdivision (a), that department shall maintain a record of its costs. In determining those costs, that department may consider costs that include, but are not limited to, costs relating to personnel requirements, materials, travel, and office overhead. The amount of reimbursement shall be equal to, and may not exceed, that department's actual costs.

(c) With the consent of the person or entity proposing the use of recycled water, the State Department of Health Services may delegate all or part of the duties that department performs pursuant to this chapter within a county to a local health agency authorized by the board of supervisors to assume these duties, if, in the judgment of that department, the local health agency can perform these duties. Any person or entity proposing the use of recycled water shall reimburse the local health agency for reasonable costs that the local health agency actually incurs in the performance of its duties delegated pursuant to this subdivision.

(d) (1) Upon a request from the person or entity proposing the use of recycled water, the local health agency shall, within a reasonable time after the receipt of the request, provide an estimate of the cost it will reasonably incur in the performance of its duties delegated under subdivision (c).

(2) The local health agency, if delegated duties pursuant to subdivision (c), shall maintain a record of its costs that include, but is not limited to, costs relating to personnel requirements, materials, travel, and office overhead. The amount of reimbursement shall be equal to, and may not exceed, the local health agency's actual costs.

(e) The State Department of Health Services or local health agency shall complete its review of a proposed use of recycled water within a reasonable period of time. That department shall submit to the person or entity proposing the use of recycled water a written determination as to whether the proposal submitted is complete for purposes of review within 30 days from the date of receipt of the proposal and shall approve or disapprove the proposed use within 30 days from the date on which that department determines that the proposal is complete.

(f) An invoice for reimbursement of services rendered shall be submitted to the person or entity proposing the use of recycled water subsequent to completion of review of the proposed use, or other services rendered, that specifies the number of hours spent by the State Department of Health Services or local health agency, specific tasks performed, and other costs actually incurred. Supporting documentation, including receipts, logs, timesheets, and other standard accounting documents, shall be maintained by that department or local health agency and copies, upon request, shall be provided to the person or entity proposing the use of recycled water.

(g) For the purposes of this section, "person or entity proposing the use of recycled water" means the producer or distributor of recycled water submitting a proposal to the department.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 348

An act to amend Section 853.2 of the Penal Code, relating to peace officers.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 853.2 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

853.2. (a) All courts and officers now or hereafter having and exercising jurisdiction in any county which is now or may hereafter be formed in any part of this state bordering upon the Colorado River, or any lake formed by, or which is a part of, the Colorado River, shall have and exercise jurisdiction in all criminal cases upon those waters concurrently with the courts of and officers of the State of Arizona, so far and to the extent that any of these bodies of water form a common boundary between this state and the State of Arizona. In addition, the officers shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the officers of the State of Arizona on any land mass within 25 air miles of the Colorado River, or within 25 air miles of any lake formed by, or that is a part of, the Colorado River.

(b) This section applies only to those crimes which are established in common between the States of Arizona and California; and an acquittal or conviction and sentence by one state shall bar a prosecution for the same act or omission by the other.

(c) This compact shall not be construed to bar the enforcement of the penal laws of either state not established in common with the other, provided that the act or omission proscribed occurs on that state's side of the river channel boundary.

(d) This compact does not apply to Division 3.5 (commencing with Section 9840) of the Vehicle Code, relating to registration of vessels, or to Section 658.7 of the Harbors and Navigation Code, relating to the display of a ski flag.

CHAPTER 349

An act to add Section 12304.2 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to public social services.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12304.2 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

12304.2. (a) A recipient who receives services under this article through either a contract or managed care provider may, subject to program requirements, select any qualified person to provide care under this article.

(b) For purposes of this section, "qualified person" means any employee of the contract or managed care provider through which the recipient may receive services under this article who is available and eligible to provide the services.

CHAPTER 350

An act to amend Section 44670.6 of the Education Code, relating to educational programs.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 44670.6 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44670.6. (a) Schools may include as part of their school development plan, the provision of time during the regular school year to conduct professional development activities pursuant to a school development plan and shall receive full average daily attendance reimbursement under the provisions of Section 46300. The time shall not exceed eight days each year.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature that school districts revise salary schedules to allow for and give priority to salary increments related to continuing professional development on the basis of time spent in high quality professional development, including subject matter coursework, pursuant to school development plans created under this article, and school improvement plans created pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 52000) of Part 28. The salary schedule revision should include incentives for instructional paraprofessionals to pursue education and training to improve instructional skills and to obtain teaching credentials.

(c) (1) In the event a school district revises its salary schedules pursuant to this section, any activity engaged in by a teacher for professional development to enable the teacher to obtain a salary increment on a revised salary schedule shall satisfy both of the following conditions:

(A) The activity shall be approved, in advance, by the district superintendent or site administrator.

(B) The activity shall meet the requirements of subdivision (b) of Section 44277.

(2) Any activity specified in paragraph (1) shall also satisfy one of the following:

(A) The activity shall relate to the current teaching assignment of the teacher.

(B) The activity shall be consistent with the school development plan created under this article or school improvement plan created pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 52000) of Part 28 for the school in which the teacher is currently employed.

(d) It is the intent of the Legislature that school districts revise procedures related to professional growth activities required by Section 44277 to ensure that activities consistent with school and school district development plans created pursuant to this article, and school improvement plans created pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 52000) of Part 28 satisfy the requirements.

CHAPTER 351

An act to amend Section 8670.31 of the Government Code, relating to oil spills.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8670.31 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8670.31. (a) In accordance with the rules, regulations, and policies established by the administrator pursuant to Section 8670.28, each operator of a vessel or a marine facility shall prepare and implement an oil spill contingency plan applicable to the vessel or marine facility. Blanket contingency plans for similar vessels and marine facilities may be used for this purpose.

(b) Each contingency plan required under this section shall be submitted to the administrator within 90 days after the effective date of the rules, regulations, and policies required under Section 8670.28.

(c) The administrator shall review each submitted contingency plan to determine whether it complies with the administrator's rules, policies, and regulations.

(d) Each contingency plan submitted shall be approved or disapproved within 180 days after receipt by the administrator. The administrator may approve or disapprove portions of a plan. A plan is not deemed approved until all portions are approved pursuant to this section. The disapproved portion shall be subject to the procedures contained in subdivision (e).

(e) If the administrator finds the submitted contingency plan is inadequate under the rules, policies, and regulations of the administrator, the plan shall be returned to the submitter with written reasons why the plan was found inadequate and, if practicable, suggested modifications or alternatives, if appropriate. The submitter shall submit a new or modified plan within 90 days after the earlier plan was returned, responding to the findings and incorporating any suggested modifications. Such a resubmittal shall be treated as a new submittal and processed according to the provisions of this section, except that the resubmitted plan shall be deemed approved unless the administrator acts pursuant to subdivision (d). Failure to gain approval after the second submission may be determined by the administrator to be a violation of this chapter.

(f) Prior to considering a contingency plan for approval, the administrator may make an onsite inspection and require a drill of any contingency plan that is submitted.

(g) After the plan has been approved, it shall be resubmitted on April 1, 1996, and on April 1, 1998, and every five years thereafter. The administrator may require earlier or more frequent resubmission, if warranted. Circumstances that would require an earlier resubmission include, but are not limited to, changes in regulations, new oil spill response technologies, deficiencies identified in the evaluation conducted pursuant to Section 8670.19, or a need for a different oil spill response because of increased need to protect endangered species habitat. The administrator may deny approval of the resubmitted plan if it is no longer considered adequate according to the adopted rules, regulations, and policies of the administrator at the time of resubmission.

(2) A vessel or marine facility operator is not required to submit a copy of the response plan or update specified in paragraph (1) to the administrator if either the vessel or facility is exempt from having to file a response plan with the state, or if the content of the response plan submitted by the operator pursuant to Section 8670.28 is substantially the same as the federal response plan or update.

CHAPTER 352

An act to add Section 1170.82 to the Penal Code, relating to sentencing.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1170.82 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

1170.82. Upon a conviction of a violation of Section 11352, 11360, 11379, or 11379.5 of the Health and Safety Code, the fact that the person who committed the offense knew, or reasonably should have known, that any of the following circumstances existed with regard to the person to whom he or she unlawfully sold, furnished, administered, or gave away a controlled substance, shall be a circumstance in aggravation of the crime in imposing a term pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1170:

(a) The person was pregnant at the time of the selling, furnishing, administering, or giving away of the controlled substance.

(b) The person had been previously convicted of a violent felony, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5.

(c) The person was in psychological treatment for a mental disorder or for substance abuse at the time of the selling, furnishing, administering, or giving away of the controlled substance.

CHAPTER 353

An act to amend Sections 12382.2 and 12382.5 of the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12382.2 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

12382.2. (a) Out of total charges for policies of title insurance, a title insurer shall add to and set aside in its unearned premium reserve commencing as of January 1, 1965, an amount equal to 2 percent of those total charges for policies of title insurance, which amount shall be deemed and shall constitute the unearned premiums due or received from all such policies or contracts. Except as otherwise provided in Section 12382.6, if any policy of title insurance shall be reinsured, the reinsuring company shall be required to set aside in its unearned premium reserve only that portion, if any, of that 2 percent as shall have not theretofore been set aside by the ceding company. This subdivision shall apply to policies issued and reinsured prior to January 1, 1988.

(b) Out of total charges for policies of title insurance, a title insurer shall add to and set aside in its unearned premium reserve, an amount equal to 2½ percent of those total charges for policies of title insurance, which amount shall be deemed and shall constitute the unearned premiums due or received from all such policies or contracts. Except as otherwise provided in Section 12382.6, if any policy of title insurance shall be reinsured, the reinsurer shall be required to set aside in its unearned premium reserve only that portion, if any, of the 2½ percent as shall have not theretofore been set aside by the ceding company. This subdivision shall apply to policies issued and reinsured on and after January 1, 1988, and prior to January 1, 1994.

(c) Out of total charges for policies of title insurance and, commencing no later than the year beginning January 1, 1994, a title insurer shall add to and set aside in its unearned premium reserve an amount equal to 4½ percent of the sum of the following items, for all jurisdictions where the title insurer operates, set forth in the title insurer's annual statement filed in this state:

(1) "Direct premiums written" as set forth in Schedule T.

(2) "Other income" as set forth in Schedule T.

(3) "Premiums written during year—reinsurance assumed" less "Premiums for reinsurance ceded during year."

(d) The insurer shall calculate an adjusted unearned premium reserve as of December 31, 1993. The adjusted unearned premium reserve shall be calculated as if subdivision (c) of this section and subdivision (c) of Section 12382.5 had been in effect for all years beginning on or after January 1, 1974. For purposes of this calculation, the balance of the unearned premium reserve as of December 31, 1973, shall be deemed to be zero. If the adjusted unearned premium reserve so calculated exceeds the aggregate amount set aside for unearned premiums in the insurer's December 31, 1993, Annual Statement (Form 9), the insurer shall, out of total charges for policies of title insurance, increase its unearned premium reserve by an amount that is not less than one-sixth of that excess in each of the succeeding six years, commencing no later than the year beginning January 1, 1994, until the entire excess has been added.

SEC. 2. Section 12382.5 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

12382.5. (a) The aggregate of the amounts set aside in unearned premium reserve in any calendar year pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 12382.2 shall be released from that reserve and restored to net profits pursuant to the following formula: one-tenth of that aggregate sum on July 1 of each of the five years next succeeding the year of addition to the reserve and one-thirtieth of that aggregate sum on July 1 of each succeeding year thereafter until the entire sum shall have been so released and restored to net profits. The aggregate of the amounts set aside in unearned premium reserve pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 12382 shall be released from the reserve and restored to net profits and surplus pursuant to the foregoing formula, provided that the amounts so set aside shall be treated as if subdivision (a) of Section 12382 and this section had been effective during the calendar years 1962, 1963, and 1964.

(b) The aggregate of the amounts set aside in unearned premium reserve in any calendar year pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 12382.2 shall be released from the reserve and restored to net profits pursuant to the following formula: one-tenth of the aggregate sum on July 1 of each of the 10 years next succeeding the year of addition to the reserve until the entire sum shall have been so released and restored to net profits.

(c) The aggregate of the amounts set aside in unearned premium reserve in any calendar year pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 12382.2 shall be released from the reserve and restored to net profits over a period of 20 years pursuant to the following formula: 10 percent of the aggregate sum on July 1 of each of the five years next succeeding the year of addition; 9 percent of the aggregate sum on July 1 of each of the next succeeding five years; and one-half of 1 percent of the aggregate sum on July 1 of each of the last 10 years.

(d) The aggregate of the amounts set aside in unearned premium reserve in any calendar year as adjustments to the insurer's unearned premium reserve pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 12382.2 shall be released from the reserve and restored to net profits, or equity if the additions required by subdivision (d) of Section 12382.2 reduced equity directly, over a period not exceeding 10 years pursuant to the following table:

Year of addition	Release
1994, or earlier	Equally over 10 years
1995	Equally over 9 years
1996	Equally over 8 years
1997	Equally over 7 years

SEC. 3. This act does not constitute a change in, but is declaratory of, existing law.

CHAPTER 354

An act to amend Section 4502 of the Penal Code, relating to prison weapons.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4502 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

4502. (a) Every person who, while at or confined in any penal institution, while being conveyed to or from any penal institution, or while under the custody of officials, officers, or employees of any penal institution, possesses or carries upon his or her person or has under his or her custody or control any instrument or weapon of the kind commonly known as a blackjack, slungshot, billy, sandclub, sandbag, or metal knuckles, any explosive substance, or fixed ammunition, any dirk or dagger or sharp instrument, any pistol, revolver, or other firearm, or any tear gas or tear gas weapon, is guilty of a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or four years, to be served consecutively.

(b) Every person who, while at or confined in any penal institution, while being conveyed to or from any penal institution, or while under the custody of officials, officers, or employees of any penal institution, manufactures or attempts to manufacture any instrument or weapon of the kind commonly known as a blackjack, slungshot, billy, sandclub, sandbag, or metal knuckles, any explosive substance, or fixed ammunition, any dirk or dagger or sharp instrument, any pistol, revolver, or other firearm, or any tear gas or tear gas weapon, is guilty of a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years, to be served consecutively.

(c) For purposes of this section, "penal institution" means the state prison, a prison road camp, prison forestry camp, or other prison camp or farm, or a county jail or county road camp.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 355

An act to add Section 5626.1 to the Public Resources Code, relating to the Olivehurst Youth Center Building.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5626.1 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

5626.1. (a) Notwithstanding Sections 5625 and 5626, the Olivehurst Public Utility District may use the Youth Center Building in Olivehurst, which was developed pursuant to a grant made under Section 5625, for youth and adult recreational programs, community service programs, and other public benefit and recreational programs consistent with the jurisdiction of the Olivehurst Public Utility District.

(b) Notwithstanding Sections 5625 and 5626, the Olivehurst Public Utility District may lease or enter into other forms of agreement for the recreational or community service use of the Youth Center Building in Olivehurst by public or private organizations or individuals, under terms and conditions approved by the Board of Directors of the Olivehurst Public Utility District.

CHAPTER 356

An act to amend Section 2954.7 of the Civil Code, relating to mortgages.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2954.7 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2954.7. Except when a statute, regulation, rule, or written guideline promulgated by an institutional third party applicable to notes or evidence of indebtedness secured by a deed of trust or mortgage purchased in whole or in part by an institutional third party specifically prohibits cancellation during the term of the indebtedness, if a borrower so requests and the conditions established by paragraphs (1) to (6), inclusive, of subdivision (a) are met, a borrower may terminate future payments for private mortgage insurance, or mortgage guaranty insurance as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 12640.02 of the Insurance Code, issued as a condition to the extension of credit in the form of a loan evidenced by a note or other evidence of indebtedness which is secured by a deed of trust or mortgage on the subject real property.

(a) The following conditions shall be satisfied in order for a borrower to be entitled to terminate payments for private mortgage insurance or mortgage guaranty insurance:

(1) The request to terminate future payments for private mortgage insurance or mortgage guaranty insurance shall be in writing.

(2) The origination date of the note or evidence of indebtedness shall be at least two years prior to the date of the request.

(3) The note or evidence of indebtedness shall be for personal, family, household, or purchase money purposes, secured by a deed of trust or mortgage on owner-occupied, one to four unit, residential real property.

(4) The unpaid principal balance owed on the secured obligation that is the subject of the private mortgage insurance or mortgage guaranty insurance shall not be more than 75 percent, unless the borrower and lender or servicer of the loan agree in writing upon a higher loan to value ratio, of either of the following:

(A) The sale price of the property at the origination date of the note or evidence of indebtedness, provided that the current fair market value of the property is equal to or greater than the original appraised value used at the origination date.

(B) The current fair market value of the property as determined by an appraisal, the cost of which shall be paid for by the borrower. The appraisal shall be ordered and the appraiser shall be selected by the lender or servicer of the loan.

(5) The borrower's monthly installments of principal, interest, and escrow obligations on the encumbrance or encumbrances secured by the real property shall be current at the time the request is made and those installments shall not have been more than 30 days past due over the 24-month period immediately preceding the request, provided further, that no notice of default has been recorded against the security real property pursuant to Section 2924, as a result of a nonmonetary default by the borrower (trustor) during the 24-month period immediately preceding the request.

(b) This section does not apply to any of the following:

(1) A note or evidence of indebtedness secured by a deed of trust or mortgage, or mortgage insurance, executed under the authority of Part 3 (commencing with Section 50900) or Part 4 (commencing with Section 51600) of Division 31 of the Health and Safety Code.

(2) Any note or evidence of indebtedness secured by a deed of trust or mortgage that is funded in whole or in part pursuant to authority granted by statute, regulation, or rule that, as a condition of that funding, prohibits or limits termination of payments for private mortgage insurance or mortgage guaranty insurance during the term of the indebtedness.

(3) Notes or evidence of indebtedness that require private mortgage insurance and were executed prior to January 1, 1991.

(c) If the note secured by the deed of trust or mortgage will be or has been sold in whole or in part to an institutional third party, adherence to the institutional third party's standards for termination of future payments for private mortgage insurance or mortgage guaranty insurance shall be deemed in compliance with the requirements of this section.

(d) For the purposes of this section, "institutional third party" means the Federal National Mortgage Association, the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, the Government National Mortgage Association and other substantially similar institutions, whether public or private, provided the institutions establish and adhere to rules applicable to the right of cancellation of private mortgage insurance or mortgage guaranty insurance, which are the same or substantially the same as those utilized by the above-named institutions.

SEC. 2. The amendments made by this act to Section 2954.7 of the Civil Code shall not apply to notes or evidence of indebtedness that require private mortgage insurance and were executed prior to March 1, 1995.

CHAPTER 357

An act to amend Section 21200 of the Vehicle Code, relating to bicycles.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 21200 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

21200. (a) Every person riding a bicycle upon a highway has all the rights and is subject to all the provisions applicable to the driver of a vehicle by this division, including, but not limited to, provisions concerning driving under the influence of alcoholic beverages or drugs, and by Division 10 (commencing with Section 20000), Section 27400, Division 16.7 (commencing with Section 39000), Division 17 (commencing with Section 40000.1), and Division 18 (commencing with Section 42000), except those provisions which by their very nature can have no application.

(b) (1) Any peace officer, as defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2 of the Penal Code, operating a bicycle during the course of his or her duties is exempt from the requirements of subdivision (a), except as those requirements relate to driving under the influence of alcoholic beverages or drugs, if the bicycle is being operated under any of the following circumstances:

(A) In response to an emergency call.

(B) While engaged in rescue operations.

(C) In the immediate pursuit of an actual or suspected violator of the law.

(2) This subdivision does not relieve a peace officer from the duty to operate a bicycle with due regard for the safety of all persons using the highway.

CHAPTER 358

An act to amend Section 229.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to juveniles.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 229.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

229.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a juvenile justice commission may inquire into the operation of any group home that serves wards or dependent children of the juvenile court and is located in the county or region the commission serves. The commission may review the safety and well-being of wards or dependent children placed in the group home and the program and services provided in relation to the home's published program statement.

(b) In conducting its review, the commission shall respect the confidentiality of minors' records and other information protected under other provisions of law. It may not review confidential records, such as court or case records of a child, personnel records of employees, or financial or donor records of the group home.

(c) The commission shall give the group home manager at least 24 hours' advance notice of a visit to a group home. If the commission believes that there is a serious violation of applicable licensing laws or regulations or that residents of a group home are in danger of physical or mental abuse, abandonment or other substantial threat to their health and safety, the commission shall notify the Community Care Licensing Division of the State Department of Social Services for appropriate action, shall consult with the presiding judge of the juvenile court and chief probation officer as to whether or not a visit is appropriate, and shall notify other juvenile justice commissions of its actions, as appropriate.

(d) Upon the completion of a visit, if the commission finds any condition in the group home that poses a danger to its residents or otherwise violates any applicable law, ordinance, or regulation, the commission shall verbally advise the group home manager of its findings, unless it determines that the advisement could be detrimental to the children placed there, and shall send written confirmation of its findings to the group home manager within 14 days. The commission may also report its findings to the presiding judge of the juvenile court, chief probation officer, State Department of Social Services, or other juvenile justice commissions as appropriate. A group home manager may meet with the juvenile justice commission, chief probation officer, county welfare director, juvenile court, or the State Department of Social Services to resolve any problem or to submit a plan of correction.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Section 11580.06 of the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11580.06 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11580.06. Except as may be otherwise provided in this article:

(a) The term "motor vehicle" means any vehicle designed for use principally upon streets and highways and subject to motor vehicle registration under the laws of this state.

(b) The term "insured" shall include the person or persons to whom any policy subject to this article is issued as named insured and any other person to whom coverage is afforded under the terms of any such policy.

(c) The term "bodily injury" shall include sickness or disease, including death resulting therefrom.

(d) The term "automobile" means any self-propelled motor vehicle, with neither more than nor less than four wheels, designed for use principally upon streets and highways and subject to motor vehicle registration under the laws of this state.

(e) The term "arrest" shall have the same meaning as set forth in Section 834 of the Penal Code.

(f) The term "operated by" or "when operating" shall be conclusively presumed to describe the conduct of the person sitting immediately behind the steering controls of the motor vehicle. The person shall be conclusively presumed to be the sole operator of the motor vehicle.

(g) The term "use" when applied to a motor vehicle shall only mean operating, maintaining, loading, or unloading a motor vehicle.

(h) The word "terms" when used with reference to a policy or endorsement includes the provision of coverage, exclusions, restrictions, conditions, deductions, and limits.

(i) Unless otherwise provided in this code, the term "leased motor vehicle" means a motor vehicle leased or rented by a lessor licensed to lease motor vehicles under a written contract for a period of six months or longer.

CHAPTER 360

An act to amend Sections 8552.7 and 8552.9 of the Fish and Game Code, relating to commercial fishing.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8552.7 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8552.7. The department shall reissue a herring permit which has been transferred pursuant to Section 8552.2 or 8552.6 upon payment of a transfer fee by the transferee of the permit. Before April 1, 1997, the transfer fee is two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500), and, on and after April 1, 1997, the transfer fee is five thousand dollars ($5,000). The fees shall be deposited in the Fish and Game Preservation Fund and shall be expended for research and management activities to maintain and enhance herring resources pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 8052.

SEC. 2. Section 8552.9 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8552.9. (a) Notwithstanding Section 8552.7, herring permits issued for use in Tomales Bay may be transferred to another person for continued use in Tomales Bay upon payment of a transfer fee of one thousand dollars ($1,000) to be paid by the transferee.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until April 1, 1997, and as of that date is repealed unless a later enacted statute which is enacted before April 1, 1997, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 361

An act to add Section 7044.1 to the Business and Professions Code, relating to contractors.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7044.1 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

7044.1. This chapter does not apply to a real estate licensee acting within the course and scope of his or her license pursuant to the Real Estate Law (Part 1 (commencing with Section 10000) of Division 4). However, nothing in this section shall authorize a real estate licensee or a property manager to act in the capacity of a contractor unless licensed by the board.

CHAPTER 362

An act to amend Sections 7110 and 7159 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to contractors.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7110 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7110. Willful or deliberate disregard and violation of the building laws of the state, or of any political subdivision thereof, or of the minimum painting standards adopted pursuant to Section 37040 of the Health and Safety Code, or of Section 8505 or 8556 of this code, or of Sections 1689.5 to 1689.8, inclusive, or Sections 1689.10 to 1689.13, inclusive, of the Civil Code, or of the safety laws or labor laws or compensation insurance laws or Unemployment Insurance Code of the state, or violation by any licensee of any provision of the Health and Safety Code or Water Code, relating to the digging, boring, or drilling of water wells, or Article 2 (commencing with Section 4216) of Chapter 3.1 of Division 5 of Title 1 of the Government Code, constitutes a cause for disciplinary action.

SEC. 2. Section 7159 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7159. This section shall apply only to home improvement contracts, as defined in Section 7151.2, between a contractor, whether a general contractor or a specialty contractor, who is licensed or subject to be licensed pursuant to this chapter with regard to the transaction and who contracts with an owner or tenant for work upon a residential building or structure, or upon land adjacent thereto, for proposed repairing, remodeling, altering, converting, modernizing, or adding to the residential building or structure or land adjacent thereto, and where the aggregate contract price specified in one or more improvement contracts, including all labor, services, and materials to be furnished by the contractor, exceeds five hundred dollars ($500).

Every home improvement contract and every contract the primary purpose of which is the construction of a swimming pool, shall be subject to the provisions of this section. Every contract and any changes in the contract subject to the provisions of this section shall be evidenced by a writing and shall be signed by all the parties to the contract thereto. The writing shall contain the following:

(a) The name, address, and license number of the contractor, and the name and registration number of any salesperson who solicited or negotiated the contract.

(b) The approximate dates when the work will begin and on which all construction is to be completed.

(c) A plan and scale drawing showing the shape, size dimensions, and construction and equipment specifications for a swimming pool and for other home improvements, a description of the work to be done and description of the materials to be used and the equipment to be used or installed, and the agreed consideration for the work.

(d) If the payment schedule contained in the contract provides for a downpayment to be paid to the contractor by the owner or the tenant before the commencement of work, the downpayment shall not exceed two hundred dollars ($200) or 2 percent of the contract price for swimming pools, or one thousand dollars ($1,000) or 10 percent of the contract price for other home improvements, excluding finance charges, whichever is the lesser.

(e) A schedule of payments showing the amount of each payment as a sum in dollars and cents. In no event shall the payment schedule provide for the contractor to receive, or shall the contractor actually receive, payments in excess of 100 percent of the value of the work performed on the project at any time, excluding finance charges, except that the contractor may receive an initial downpayment authorized by subdivision (d). With respect to a swimming pool contract, the final payment may be made at the completion of the final plastering phase of construction, provided that any installation or construction of equipment, decking, or fencing required by the contract is also completed. A failure by the contractor without lawful excuse to substantially commence work within 20 days of the approximate date specified in the contract when work will begin shall postpone the next succeeding payment to the contractor for that period of time equivalent to the time between when substantial commencement was to have occurred and when it did occur. The schedule of payments shall be stated in dollars and cents, and shall be specifically referenced to the amount of work or services to be performed and to any materials and equipment to be supplied. With respect to a contract that provides for a schedule of monthly payments to be made by the owner or tenant and for a schedule of payments to be disbursed to the contractor by a person or entity to whom the contractor intends to assign the right to receive the owner's or tenant's monthly payments, the payments referred to in this subdivision mean the payments to be disbursed by the assignee and not those payments to be made by the owner or tenant.

(f) The contract shall state that upon satisfactory payment being made for any portion of the work performed, the contractor shall, prior to any further payment being made, furnish to the person contracting for the home improvement or swimming pool a full and unconditional release from any claim or mechanic's lien pursuant to Section 3114 of the Civil Code, for that portion of the work for which payment has been made.

(g) The requirements of subdivisions (d), (e), and (f) shall not apply when the contract provides for the contractor to furnish a performance and payment bond, lien and completion bond, bond equivalent, or joint control approved by the Registrar of Contractors covering full performance and completion of the contract and the bonds or joint control is or are furnished by the contractor, or when the parties agree for full payment to be made upon or for a schedule of payments to commence after satisfactory completion of the project. The contract shall contain in close proximity to the signatures of the owner and contractor a notice in at least 10-point type stating that the owner or tenant has the right to require the contractor to have a performance and payment bond.

(h) No extra or change-order work shall be required to be performed without prior written authorization of the person contracting for the construction of the home improvement or swimming pool. Any change-order forms for changes or extra work shall be incorporated in, and become a part of the contract.

(i) If the contract provides for a payment of a salesperson's commission out of the contract price, that payment shall be made on a pro rata basis in proportion to the schedule of payments made to the contractor by the disbursing party in accordance with subdivision (e).

(j) The language of the notice required pursuant to Section 7018.5.

(k) What constitutes substantial commencement of work pursuant to the contract.

(l) A notice that failure by the contractor without lawful excuse to substantially commence work within 20 days from the approximate date specified in the contract when work will begin is a violation of the Contractors' State License Law.

(m) If the contract provides for a contractor to furnish joint control, the contractor shall not have any financial or other interest in the joint control.

A failure by the contractor without lawful excuse to substantially commence work within 20 days from the approximate date specified in the contract when work will begin is a violation of this section.

This section shall not be construed to prohibit the parties to a home improvement contract from agreeing to a contract or account subject to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1801) of Title 2 of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code.

The writing may also contain other matters agreed to by the parties to the contract.

The writing shall be legible and shall be in a form that clearly describes any other document which is to be incorporated into the contract, and before any work is done, the owner shall be furnished a copy of the written agreement, signed by the contractor.

For purposes of this section, the board shall, by regulation, determine what constitutes "without lawful excuse."

The provisions of this section are not exclusive and do not relieve the contractor or any contract subject to it from compliance with all other applicable provisions of law.

A violation of this section by a licensee, or a person subject to be licensed, under this chapter, his or her agent, or salesperson is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by both fine and imprisonment.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, an indictment or information shall be brought, or a complaint filed, for a violation of this section, within three years from the effective date of the contract.

SEC. 3. Section 7159 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7159. This section shall apply only to home improvement contracts, as defined in Section 7151.2, between a contractor, whether a general contractor or a specialty contractor, who is licensed or subject to be licensed pursuant to this chapter with regard to the transaction and who contracts with an owner or tenant for work upon a residential building or structure, or upon land adjacent thereto, for proposed repairing, remodeling, altering, converting, modernizing, or adding to the residential building or structure or land adjacent thereto, and where the aggregate contract price specified in one or more improvement contracts, including all labor, services, and materials to be furnished by the contractor, exceeds five hundred dollars ($500).

Every home improvement contract and every contract the primary purpose of which is the construction of a swimming pool, shall be subject to the provisions of this section. Every contract and any changes in the contract subject to the provisions of this section shall be evidenced by a writing and shall be signed by all the parties to the contract thereto. The writing shall contain the following:

(a) The name, address, and license number of the contractor, and the name and registration number of any salesperson who solicited or negotiated the contract.

(b) The approximate dates when the work will begin and on which all construction is to be completed.

(c) A plan and scale drawing showing the shape, size dimensions, and construction and equipment specifications for a swimming pool and for other home improvements, a description of the work to be done and description of the materials to be used and the equipment to be used or installed, and the agreed consideration for the work.

(d) If the payment schedule contained in the contract provides for a downpayment to be paid to the contractor by the owner or the tenant before the commencement of work, the downpayment shall not exceed two hundred dollars ($200) or 2 percent of the contract price for swimming pools, or one thousand dollars ($1,000) or 10 percent of the contract price for other home improvements, excluding finance charges, whichever is the lesser.

(e) A schedule of payments showing the amount of each payment as a sum in dollars and cents. In no event shall the payment schedule provide for the contractor to receive, or shall the contractor actually receive, payments in excess of 100 percent of the value of the work performed on the project at any time, excluding finance charges, except that the contractor may receive an initial downpayment authorized by subdivision (d). With respect to a swimming pool contract, the final payment may be made at the completion of the final plastering phase of construction, provided that any installation or construction of equipment, decking, or fencing required by the contract is also completed. A failure by the contractor without lawful excuse to substantially commence work within 20 days of the approximate date specified in the contract when work will begin shall postpone the next succeeding payment to the contractor for that period of time equivalent to the time between when substantial commencement was to have occurred and when it did occur. The schedule of payments shall be stated in dollars and cents, and shall be specifically referenced to the amount of work or services to be performed and to any materials and equipment to be supplied. With respect to a contract that provides for a schedule of monthly payments to be made by the owner or tenant and for a schedule of payments to be disbursed to the contractor by a person or entity to whom the contractor intends to assign the right to receive the owner's or tenant's monthly payments, the payments referred to in this subdivision mean the payments to be disbursed by the assignee and not those payments to be made by the owner or tenant.

(f) The contract shall state that upon satisfactory payment being made for any portion of the work performed, the contractor shall, prior to any further payment being made, furnish to the person contracting for the home improvement or swimming pool a full and unconditional release from any claim or mechanic's lien pursuant to Section 3114 of the Civil Code, for that portion of the work for which payment has been made.

(g) The requirements of subdivisions (d), (e), and (f) shall not apply when the contract provides for the contractor to furnish a performance and payment bond, lien and completion bond, bond equivalent, or joint control approved by the Registrar of Contractors covering full performance and completion of the contract and the bonds or joint control is or are furnished by the contractor, or when the parties agree for full payment to be made upon or for a schedule of payments to commence after satisfactory completion of the project. The contract shall contain in close proximity to the signatures of the owner and contractor a notice in at least 10-point type stating that the owner or tenant has the right to require the contractor to have a performance and payment bond.

(h) No extra or change-order work shall be required to be performed without prior written authorization of the person contracting for the construction of the home improvement or swimming pool. Any change-order forms for changes or extra work shall be incorporated in, and become a part of the contract.

(i) If the contract provides for a payment of a salesperson's commission out of the contract price, that payment shall be made on a pro rata basis in proportion to the schedule of payments made to the contractor by the disbursing party in accordance with subdivision (e).

(j) The language of the notice required pursuant to Section 7018.5.

(k) What constitutes substantial commencement of work pursuant to the contract.

(l) A notice that failure by the contractor without lawful excuse to substantially commence work within 20 days from the approximate date specified in the contract when work will begin is a violation of the Contractors' State License Law.

(m) If the contract provides for a contractor to furnish joint control, the contractor shall not have any financial or other interest in the joint control.

A failure by the contractor without lawful excuse to substantially commence work within 20 days from the approximate date specified in the contract when work will begin is a violation of this section.

This section shall not be construed to prohibit the parties to a home improvement contract from agreeing to a contract or account subject to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1801) of Title 2 of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code.

The writing may also contain other matters agreed to by the parties to the contract.

The writing shall be legible and shall be in a form that clearly describes any other document which is to be incorporated into the contract, and before any work is done, the owner shall be furnished a copy of the written agreement, signed by the contractor.

For purposes of this section, the board shall, by regulation, determine what constitutes "without lawful excuse."

The provisions of this section are not exclusive and do not relieve the contractor or any contract subject to it from compliance with all other applicable provisions of law.

A violation of this section by a licensee, or a person subject to be licensed, under this chapter, his or her agent, or salesperson is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than five thousand dollars ($5,000), or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by both that fine and imprisonment.

(n) Any person who violates this section as part of a plan or scheme to defraud an owner of a residential or nonresidential structure, including a mobilehome or manufactured home, in connection with the offer or performance of repairs to the structure for damage caused by a natural disaster, shall be ordered by the court to make full restitution to the victim based on the person's ability to pay, as defined in subdivision (e) of Section 1203.1b of the Penal Code. In addition to full restitution and imprisonment authorized by this section, the court may impose a fine of not less than five hundred dollars ($500) nor more than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), based upon the defendant's ability to pay. This subdivision applies to natural disasters for which a state of emergency is proclaimed by the Governor pursuant to Section 8625 of the Government Code or for which an emergency or major disaster is declared by the President of the United States.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, an indictment or information shall be brought, or a complaint filed, for a violation of this section, within three years from the effective date of the contract.

SEC. 4. Section 3 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 7159 of the Business and Professions Code proposed by both this bill and SB 634. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 7159 of the Business and Professions Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 634, in which case Section 7159 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by SB 634, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 3 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 2 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 363

An act to amend Section 54726 of the Education Code, relating to juveniles.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 54726 of the Education Code is amended to read:

54726. For school-based motivation and maintenance programs, the schoolsite council shall develop a school plan for increasing the retention rate of the school for all pupils with special emphasis on the needs of high-risk pupils. For schools establishing school-based motivation and maintenance programs, the plan shall include, but need not be limited to, all of the following:

(a) A staff development program for teachers, other school personnel, paraprofessionals, and volunteers, including those participating in special programs.

(b) Provisions for the utilization of the student study team process to identify and assess the needs of pupils who are dropouts or potential dropouts, and to develop programs to meet the needs of those pupils. Each student study team shall include all of the following:

(1) Students identified as dropouts or potential dropouts wherever appropriate.

(2) The pupil's parents or guardians.

(3) One of the pupil's teachers or, in the case of a school dropout, a teacher who would have provided instruction to the pupil if he or she were still attending school.

(4) The school principal or the principal's designee.

(5) Other appropriate resource teachers or specialists.

(6) Whenever appropriate, representatives of public or private community organizations, law enforcement agencies, or business and industry.

(c) Procedures for coordinating services from funding sources at the school level to assist pupils to participate successfully in the core academic curricula and specialized curricula related to jobs and career opportunities.

(d) Instructional and auxiliary services to meet the special needs of pupils identified as being at high risk of not succeeding in the regular school program or dropping out of school, non-English-speaking or limited-English-speaking pupils, including instruction in a language these pupils understand; educationally disadvantaged pupils; gifted and talented pupils; and pupils with exceptional needs.

(e) At the elementary school level, provisions for early identification and intervention to address learning problems including, but not limited to, the assessment of primary grade pupils to identify and commence remediation of developmental and other learning difficulties.

(f) An emphasis on literacy and basic skills development.

(g) An emphasis on curriculum content and teaching strategies that are relevant to job or career opportunities.

(h) A plan that integrates and coordinates the skills and talents of outreach consultants.

(i) Other activities and objectives established by the council.

(j) The proposed expenditure of funds available to the school through the programs described in Section 54723 and other available funds.

(k) The schoolsite council shall consult with local officials, including officials from law enforcement and public health, and with representatives from nonprofit organizations that work with at-risk youth before making this proposal.

The schoolsite council shall annually review the school plan, establish a new budget, and, if necessary, make other modifications in the plan to reflect changing needs and priorities.

CHAPTER 364

An act to amend Section 47 of the Civil Code, relating to liability.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 47 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

47. A privileged publication or broadcast is one made:

(a) In the proper discharge of an official duty.

(b) In any (1) legislative or (2) judicial proceeding, or (3) in any other official proceeding authorized by law, or (4) in the initiation or course of any other proceeding authorized by law and reviewable pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1084) of Title 1 of Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure, except as follows:

(1) An allegation or averment contained in any pleading or affidavit filed in an action for marital dissolution or legal separation made of or concerning a person by or against whom no affirmative relief is prayed in the action shall not be a privileged publication or broadcast as to the person making the allegation or averment within the meaning of this section unless the pleading is verified or affidavit sworn to, and is made without malice, by one having reasonable and probable cause for believing the truth of the allegation or averment and unless the allegation or averment is material and relevant to the issues in the action.

(2) This subdivision does not make privileged any communication made in furtherance of an act of intentional destruction or alteration of physical evidence undertaken for the purpose of depriving a party to litigation of the use of that evidence, whether or not the content of the communication is the subject of a subsequent publication or broadcast which is privileged pursuant to this section. As used in this paragraph, "physical evidence" means evidence specified in Section 250 of the Evidence Code or evidence that is property of any type specified in Section 2031 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(3) A recorded lis pendens is not a privileged publication unless it identifies an action previously filed with a court of competent jurisdiction which affects the title or right of possession of real property, as authorized or required by law.

(c) In a communication, without malice, to a person interested therein, (1) by one who is also interested, or (2) by one who stands in such a relation to the person interested as to afford a reasonable ground for supposing the motive for the communication to be innocent, or (3) who is requested by the person interested to give the information. This subdivision applies to and includes a communication concerning the job performance or qualifications of an applicant for employment, based upon credible evidence, made without malice, by a current or former employer of the applicant to, and upon request of, the prospective employer. This subdivision shall not apply to a communication concerning the speech or activities of an applicant for employment if the speech or activities are constitutionally protected, or otherwise protected by Section 527.3 of the Code of Civil Procedure or any other provision of law.

(d) By a fair and true report in a public journal, of (1) a judicial, (2) legislative, or (3) other public official proceeding, or (4) of anything said in the course thereof, or (5) of a verified charge or complaint made by any person to a public official, upon which complaint a warrant has been issued.

(e) By a fair and true report of (1) the proceedings of a public meeting, if the meeting was lawfully convened for a lawful purpose and open to the public, or (2) the publication of the matter complained of was for the public benefit.

CHAPTER 365

An act to add Section 1684 to the Business and Professions Code, relating to dentistry.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1684 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

1684. In addition to other acts constituting unprofessional conduct under this chapter, it is unprofessional conduct for a person licensed under this chapter to perform, or hold himself or herself out as able to perform, professional services beyond the scope of his or her license and field or fields of competence as established by his or her education, experience, training, or any combination thereof. This includes, but is not limited to, the use of any instrument or device in a manner that is not in accordance with the customary standards and practices of the dental profession.

This section shall not apply to research conducted by accredited dental schools or colleges, or to research conducted pursuant to an investigational device exemption issued by the United States Food and Drug Administration.

CHAPTER 366

An act to amend Sections 10631 and 10632 of the Water Code, relating to water.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10631 of the Water Code is amended to read:

10631. A plan shall be adopted in accordance with this chapter and shall do all of the following:

(a) Include an estimate of past, current, and projected potable and recycled water use and, to the extent records are available, segregate those uses between residential, industrial, commercial, and governmental uses.

(b) (1) Identify conservation and reclamation measures currently adopted and being practiced.

(2) Urban water suppliers that are members of the California Urban Water Conservation Council and submit annual reports to that council in accordance with the "Memorandum of Understanding Regarding Urban Water Conservation in California," dated September 1991, may submit the annual reports for the purposes of identifying conservation measures as required by paragraph (1).

(c) Describe alternative conservation measures, including, but not limited to, consumer education, metering, water saving fixtures and appliances, pool covers, lawn and garden irrigation techniques, and low water use landscaping, that would improve the efficiency of water use with an evaluation of their costs and their environmental and other significant impacts.

(d) Provide a schedule of implementation for proposed actions as indicated by the plan.

(e) Provide an urban water shortage contingency plan that includes all of the following elements that are within the authority of the urban water supplier:

(1) Past, current, and projected water use and, to the extent records are available, a breakdown of those uses on the basis of single-family residential, multifamily residential, commercial, industrial, governmental, and agricultural use.

(2) An estimate of the minimum water supply available at the end of 12, 24, and 36 months, assuming the worst case water supply shortages.

(3) Stages of action to be undertaken by the urban water supplier in response to water supply shortages, including up to a 50 percent reduction in water supply, and an outline of specific water supply conditions that are applicable to each stage.

(4) Mandatory provisions to reduce water use that include prohibitions against specific wasteful practices, such as gutter flooding.

(5) Consumption limits in the most restrictive stages. Each urban water supplier may use any type of consumption limit in its water shortage contingency plan that would reduce water use and is appropriate for its area. Examples of consumption limits that may be used include, but are not limited to, percentage reductions in water allotments, per capita allocations, an increasing block rate schedule for high usage of water with incentives for conservation, or restrictions on specific uses.

(6) Penalties or charges for excessive use.

(7) An analysis of the impacts of the plan on the revenues and expenditures of the urban water supplier, and proposed measures to overcome those impacts, such as the development of reserves and rate adjustments.

(8) A draft water shortage contingency resolution or ordinance to carry out the urban water shortage contingency plan.

(9) A mechanism for determining actual reductions in water use pursuant to the urban water shortage contingency plan.

(f) Describe the frequency and magnitude of supply deficiencies, based on available historic data and future projected conditions comparing water supply and demand, including a description of deficiencies in time of drought and emergency and the ability to meet deficiencies.

(g) To the extent feasible, describe the method which will be used to evaluate the effectiveness of each conservation measure implemented under the plan.

(h) Describe the steps which would be necessary to implement any proposed actions in the plan.

(i) Describe findings, actions, and planning relating to all of the following:

(1) The use of internal and external water audits for single-family residential, multifamily residential, institutional, commercial, industrial, and governmental customers, and the use of incentive programs to encourage customer audits and program participation.

(2) The use of distribution system water audits.

(3) Leak detection and repair.

(4) The use of large landscape water audits.

(j) Describe actions and planning to eliminate the use of once-through cooling systems, nonrecirculating water systems, and nonrecycling decorative water fountains, and to encourage the recirculation of water if proper public health and safety standards are maintained.

(k) Describe actions and plans to enforce conservation measures.

(l) To the extent feasible, describe the amount of water saved through water conservation measures employed by user groups.

(m) Describe actions and planning to ensure the involvement of community members within the service area with regard to water management planning.

SEC. 2. Section 10632 of the Water Code is amended to read:

10632. (a) In addition to the elements required pursuant to Section 10631, a plan projecting a future use which indicates a need for expanded or additional water supplies shall be adopted in accordance with this chapter and shall include an evaluation of the following alternatives:

(1) Recycled water. The plan's evaluation of this alternative shall provide information on recycled water and its potential for use as a water source in the service area of the urban water supplier and shall include all of the following information:

(A) A description of the waste water collection and treatment systems in the supplier's service area, including a quantification of the amount of waste water collected and treated and the methods of waste water disposal.

(B) A description of the recycled water currently being used in the supplier's service area, including, but not limited to, the type, place, and quantity of use.

(C) A description and quantification of the potential uses of recycled water, including, but not limited to, agricultural irrigation, landscape irrigation, wildlife habitat enhancement, wetlands, industrial reuse, groundwater recharge, and other appropriate uses, and a determination with regard to the technical and economic feasibility of serving those uses.

(D) The projected use of recycled water within the supplier's service area at the end of 5, 10, 15, and 20 years.

(E) A description of actions, including financial incentives, which may be taken to encourage the use of recycled water where fresh water is not necessary, and the projected results of these actions in terms of acre-feet of recycled water used per year.

(F) A plan for optimizing the use of recycled water in the supplier's service area, including actions to facilitate the installation of dual distribution systems and to promote recirculating uses.

(2) Exchanges or transfer of water on a short-term or long-term basis.

(3) Management of water system pressures and peak demands.

(4) Issues relevant to meter retrofitting for all uses.

(5) Incentives to alter water use practices, including fixture and appliance retrofit programs.

(6) Public information and educational programs to promote wise use and eliminate waste.

(7) Changes in pricing, rate structures, and regulations.

(b) The preparation of the plan shall be coordinated with local water, waste water, and planning agencies.

CHAPTER 367

An act to amend Section 23305.1 of, and to add Article 8 (commencing with Section 19191) to Chapter 4 of Part 10.2 of Division 2 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that it is in the general public interest that all business entities present and active within this state be lawfully registered with the appropriate authorized public agencies.

(b) The Legislature further finds and declares all of the following:

(1) The tax laws of this state should be administered in a manner that encourages, facilitates, and places a premium on voluntary compliance by all taxpayers who are subject to those laws.

(2) The collection of state taxes from all taxpayers who are required to pay those taxes is of vital importance to the citizens of this state.

(3) The expansion of the number of taxpayers who conduct business in this state and pay taxes to this state on that business activity reduces the tax burden for all citizens of this state.

(4) An increase in the state revenues collected in accordance with the tax laws of this state contributes to the public welfare by increasing revenues available to the state to use in the discharge of its various functions.

(5) Voluntary compliance with the tax laws of this state by business entities spares the state the administrative expense of enforcing compliance through involuntary means.

(6) The reasons for a business entity's past noncompliance with state business registration and franchise or income tax laws vary and sometimes the entity may be less culpable due to reasonable and understandable causes, particularly when the determination of a multistate business' obligations to the various states may be subtle and complex.

(7) A state tax policy that encourages good faith efforts by business entities to voluntarily come forward to disclose and pay past tax liabilities, that distinguishes between voluntary and recalcitrant taxpayers, and that only imposes penalties that are commensurate with actions and intent, results in an overall benefit for the state.

(8) A policy that imposes financial and reporting burdens on businesses for past omissions that threaten the future continuance of business activity or discourages business expansion in this state is ultimately harmful to the state's economy.

(9) A program that extends some measure of relief from the potential for tax liabilities and penalties accrued over an unlimited period in the past will result in the gain of future revenues in the form of taxes paid by business entities who are encouraged to come forward.

SEC. 2. Article 8 (commencing with Section 19191) is added to Chapter 4 of Part 10.2 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

Article 8. Voluntary Disclosure Program For Business Entities

19191. (a) The Franchise Tax Board may enter into a voluntary disclosure agreement with any qualified business entity, as defined in Section 19192, that is binding on both the Franchise Tax Board and the qualified business entity.

(b) The Franchise Tax Board shall do all of the following:

(1) Provide guidelines and establish procedures for business entities to apply for voluntary disclosure agreements.

(2) Accept applications on an anonymous basis from business entities for voluntary disclosure agreements.

(3) Implement procedures for accepting applications for voluntary disclosure agreements through the National Nexus Program administered by the Multistate Tax Commission.

(4) For purposes of considering offers from business entities to enter into voluntary disclosure agreements, take into account the following criteria:

(A) The nature and magnitude of the business entity's previous presence and activity in this state and the facts and circumstances by which the nexus of the business entity was established.

(B) The extent to which the weight of the factual circumstances demonstrates that a prudent business person exercising reasonable care would conclude that the previous activities and presence in this state were or were not immune from taxation by this state by reason of Public Law 86-272 or otherwise.

(C) Reliance on the advice of a person in a fiduciary position or other competent advice that the business entity's activities were immune from taxation by this state.

(D) Lack of evidence of willful disregard or neglect of the tax laws of this state on the part of the business entity.

(E) Demonstrations of good faith on the part of the business entity.

(F) Benefits that will accrue to the state by entering into a voluntary disclosure agreement.

(5) Act on any application of a voluntary disclosure agreement within 120 days of receipt.

(6) Enter into voluntary disclosure agreements with qualified business entities, as authorized in subdivision (a) and based on the criteria set forth in paragraph (4).

(c) Before any voluntary disclosure agreement becomes binding, the Franchise Tax Board, itself, shall approve the agreement in the following manner:

(1) The Executive Officer and Chief Counsel of the Franchise Tax Board shall recommend and submit the voluntary disclosure agreement to the Franchise Tax Board for approval.

(2) Each voluntary disclosure agreement recommendation shall be submitted in a manner as to maintain the anonymity of the taxpayer applying for the voluntary disclosure agreement.

(3) Any recommendation for approval of a voluntary disclosure agreement shall be approved or disapproved by the Franchise Tax Board, itself, within 45 days of the submission of that recommendation to the board.

(4) Any recommendation of a voluntary disclosure agreement that is not either approved or disapproved by the board within 45 days of the submission of that recommendation shall be deemed approved.

(5) Disapproval of a recommendation of a voluntary disclosure agreement shall be made only by a majority vote of the Franchise Tax Board.

(6) The members of the Franchise Tax Board shall not participate in any voluntary disclosure agreement except as provided in this subdivision.

(d) The voluntary disclosure agreement entered into by the Franchise Tax Board and the qualified business entity as provided for in subdivision (a) shall to the extent applicable specify that:

(1) The Franchise Tax Board shall:

(A) Waive its authority under this part, Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001), with respect to the qualified business entity, to assess or propose to assess taxes, additions to tax, fees, or penalties with respect to each taxable or income year ending prior to six years from the signing date of the voluntary disclosure agreement.

(B) With respect to each of the six taxable or income years ending immediately preceding the signing date of the voluntary disclosure agreement, based on its discretion, agree to waive any or all of the following:

(i) Any penalty related to a failure to make and file a return, as provided in Section 19131.

(ii) Any penalty related to a failure to pay any amount due by the date prescribed for payment, as provided in Section 19132.

(iii) Any addition to tax related to an underpayment of estimated tax, as provided in Section 19136.

(iv) Any penalty related to Section 6810 or subdivision (a) of Section 8810 of the Corporations Code, as provided in Section 19141.

(v) Any penalty related to a failure to furnish information or maintain records, as provided in Section 19141.5.

(vi) Any addition to tax related to an underpayment of tax imposed under Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001), as provided in Section 19142.

(vii) Any penalty related to a partnership required to file a return under Section 18633, as provided in Section 19172.

(viii) Any penalty related to a failure to file information returns, as provided in Section 19183.

(ix) Any penalty related to relief from contract voidability, as provided in Section 23305.1.

(2) The qualified business entity shall:

(A) With respect to each of the six taxable or income years ending immediately preceding the signing date of the written agreement:

(i) Voluntarily and fully disclose all material facts pertinent to the business entity's liability for any taxes imposed under Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001).

(ii) Except as provided in clause (iii), within 30 days from the signing date of the voluntary disclosure agreement:

(I) File all returns required under this part, Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001).

(II) Pay in full any tax, interest, and penalties (other than those penalties specifically waived by the Franchise Tax Board under the terms of the voluntary disclosure agreement) imposed under this part, Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001) in a manner as may be prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board.

(iii) The Franchise Tax Board may extend the time for filing returns and paying amounts due to 120 days from the signing date of the voluntary disclosure agreement.

(B) Agree to comply with all franchise and income tax laws of this state in subsequent income or taxable years by filing all returns required and paying all amounts due under this part, Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001).

19192. For purposes of this article:

(a) (1) "Qualified business entity" means an entity that is all of the following:

(A) An entity that is any of the following:

(i) A corporation, as defined in Section 23038.

(ii) A bank, as defined in Section 23039.

(B) A business entity, including any predecessors to the business entity, that previously has never filed a return with the Franchise Tax Board pursuant to this part, Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23011).

(C) A business entity, including any predecessors to the business entity, that previously has not been the subject of an inquiry by the Franchise Tax Board with respect to liability for any of the taxes imposed under Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001).

(D) A business entity that voluntarily comes forward prior to any unilateral contact from the Franchise Tax Board, makes application for a voluntary disclosure agreement in a form and manner prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board, and makes a full and accurate statement of its activities in this state for the six immediately preceding taxable or income years.

(2) (A) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), a qualified business entity does not include any of the following:

(i) A business entity that is organized and existing under the laws of this state.

(ii) A business entity that is qualified or registered with the office of the Secretary of State.

(iii) A business entity that maintains and staffs a permanent facility in this state.

(B) For purposes of this paragraph, the storing of materials, goods, or products in a public warehouse pursuant to a public warehouse contract does not constitute maintaining a permanent facility in this state.

(b) "Signing date" of the voluntary disclosure agreement means the date on which a person duly authorized by the Franchise Tax Board signs the agreement.

19193. Nothing in this article shall be construed to mean that by accepting and signing a voluntary disclosure agreement the Franchise Tax Board abdicates the right and authority to examine returns and determine the correct amount of tax for any of the taxable or income years covered by the voluntary disclosure period agreed upon and to assess any additional tax, penalty, or interest owed as a result of that examination.

19194. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, a voluntary disclosure agreement shall be null and void in the event that the Franchise Tax Board finds that with respect to the agreement any of the following circumstances exist:

(1) The qualified business entity has misrepresented any material fact in applying for the voluntary disclosure agreement or in entering into the agreement.

(2) The qualified business entity fails to file any returns for any taxable or income year covered by the voluntary disclosure period agreed upon on or before the due date prescribed under the terms of the agreement in accordance with paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) of Section 19191.

(3) (A) The qualified business entity fails to pay in full any tax, penalty, or interest due within the time prescribed under the terms of the voluntary disclosure agreement in accordance with paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) of Section 19191 or to pay any installments thereof due within the time prescribed under the terms of an installment payment arrangement in accordance with subparagraph (B).

(B) The Franchise Tax Board may enter into an installment payment arrangement, which shall include provisions for interest, in lieu of the full payment required under paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) of Section 19191. Failure by the qualified business entity to comply with the terms of the installment payment arrangement shall also render the voluntary disclosure arrangement null and void.

(4) The tax shown by the qualified business entity on its tax return filed for any taxable or income year covered by the voluntary disclosure agreement, including any amount shown on a qualified amended return, as defined in Section 1.6664-2(c)(3) of Title 26 of the Code of Federal Regulations, understates by 10 percent or more the tax imposed under either Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001) and the qualified business cannot demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Franchise Tax Board that a good-faith effort was made to accurately compute the tax.

(5) The qualified taxpayer fails to begin to prospectively comply with all franchise and income tax laws of this state as agreed upon under the terms of the voluntary disclosure agreement in accordance with paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) of Section 19191.

(b) In the event that the Franchise Tax Board finds that the qualified business entity has failed to comply under any of the circumstances which render the voluntary disclosure agreement null and void as set forth in subdivision (a), the limitation on assessment for any taxable or income years and the waiver of any penalties as provided for in paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) of Section 19191 shall not be binding on the Franchise Tax Board.

SEC. 3. Section 23305.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23305.1. (a) A taxpayer may make application to the Franchise Tax Board for relief from the voidability provisions of Section 23304.1. To be relieved from voidability, the taxpayer shall do all of the following:

(1) Provide the Franchise Tax Board with an application for relief from contract voidability in a form and manner prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board.

(2) Include on the application the period for which relief is requested in accordance with subdivision (b).

(3) File any tax returns required to be filed under this part with the Franchise Tax Board, including returns for the period for which relief is requested.

(4) Pay any tax, additions to tax, penalties, interest, and any other amounts owing to the Franchise Tax Board, including any liability attributable to the period for which relief is requested.

(5) Pay any penalty imposed under subdivision (b) for the period for which relief is requested.

(6) In the case of a taxpayer that applies for and enters into an approved voluntary disclosure agreement in accordance with Article 8 (commencing with Section 19191) of Chapter 4 of Part 10.2, for purposes of this section, the taxpayer shall be considered to have met the requirements of paragraphs (3), (4), and (5) if the taxpayer fulfills to the satisfaction of the Franchise Tax Board all the specifications of the voluntary disclosure agreement within the meaning of paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) of Section 19191 and if the Franchise Tax Board has not found that any of the circumstances described in Section 19194 has rendered the voluntary disclosure agreement null and void.

(b) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), both of the following shall apply:

(A) The period for which relief is requested shall begin on the date that one of the taxpayer's income years begins and ends on the date that relief is granted.

(B) The Franchise Tax Board shall assess a daily penalty equal to one hundred dollars ($100) for each day of the period for which relief from voidability is granted, but not to exceed a total penalty equal to the amount of the tax for the period for which relief is requested.

(2) If an application for relief from voidability is filed for a period in which an application for revivor has been filed and the certificate of revivor has been issued, all of the following shall apply:

(A) The period for which relief is requested shall begin on the date the taxpayer's powers, rights, and privileges had been suspended or forfeited and ends on the date relief is granted.

(B) The Franchise Tax Board shall assess a daily penalty equal to one hundred dollars ($100) for each day of the period for which relief from voidability is granted, but not to exceed a total penalty equal to that amount of the tax that would be imposed under Section 23151 and, except as provided in subparagraph (C), that penalty shall be equal to no less than the amount of the minimum tax provided under Section 23153 for the period for which relief is requested.

(C) In the case of an exempt organization or trust subject to Article 2 (commencing with Section 23731) of Chapter 4 (the tax on unrelated business taxable income), the daily penalty provided in subparagraph (B) shall not exceed a total penalty equal to the amount of tax imposed upon its unrelated business taxable income for the period for which relief is requested.

(3) Any penalty imposed under this subdivision shall, subject to Section 23305.2, be due and payable on demand by the Franchise Tax Board.

(c) (1) Upon satisfaction of the conditions specified in subdivision (a), including through the application of Section 23305.2, the following shall apply:

(A) All contracts entered into during the period for which relief is granted that have not been rescinded by a final court order pursuant to Section 23304.5 may be enforced in the same manner and to the same extent, with regard to both the parties to the contract and any third parties, as if the contract had never been voidable.

(B) Any sale, transfer, or exchange of real property in California during the period for which relief is granted and which the taxpayer at that time was not entitled to sell, transfer, or exchange by reason of subdivision (d) of Section 23302 and which has not been rescinded by a final court order pursuant to Section 23304.5, shall be as valid as if the taxpayer had not been subject to subdivision (d) of Section 23302 at the time of the sale, transfer, or exchange.

(2) Upon being granted relief from voidability, the Franchise Tax

Board shall certify that relief to the taxpayer in a form and manner as prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board. The certificate shall be issued or mailed to the taxpayer, or as directed by the taxpayer, and shall indicate the period for which relief is granted.

(d) The fact that a certificate of relief from voidability was issued pursuant to this section and the information contained on that certificate shall be subject to public disclosure. The certificate shall be prima facie evidence of the relief from voidability for contracts entered into during the period of relief stated on the certificate and the certificate may be recorded in the office of the county recorder of any county of this state.

(e) Subject to limitations set forth in Section 17 of Chapter 926 of the Statutes of 1990, a taxpayer that received a certificate of revivor between January 1, 1990, and January 1, 1991, may apply for relief from voidability under this section.

SEC. 4. The Franchise Tax Board shall conduct a study of the effectiveness of the voluntary disclosure program evaluating the benefits accruing to the state as a result of the program and shall report the results of the study to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1998. The Legislative Analyst's Office shall review the Franchise Tax Board's study of the voluntary disclosure program and include their findings in the Budget Bill analysis for the 1999-2000 fiscal year.

SEC. 5. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 368

An act to amend Section 1218 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to contempt.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1218 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1218. (a) Upon the answer and evidence taken, the court or judge must determine whether the person proceeded against is guilty of the contempt charged, and if it be adjudged that he or she is guilty of the contempt, a fine may be imposed on him or her not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or he or she may be imprisoned not exceeding five days, or both. In addition, a person who is subject to a court order as a party to the action, or any agent of this person, who is adjudged guilty of contempt for violating that court order may be ordered to pay to the party initiating the contempt proceeding the reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred by this party in connection with the contempt proceeding.

(b) No party, who is in contempt of a court order or judgment in a dissolution of marriage or legal separation action, shall be permitted to enforce such an order or judgment, by way of execution or otherwise, either in the same action or by way of a separate action, against the other party. This restriction shall not affect nor apply to the enforcement of child or spousal support orders.

(c) In any court action in which a party is found in contempt of court for failure to comply with a court order pursuant to the Family Code, or Sections 11350 to 11476.1, inclusive, of the Welfare and Institutions Code, the court shall order the following:

(1) Upon a first finding of contempt, the court shall order the contemner to perform community service of up to 120 hours, in lieu of imprisonment of up to 120 hours, for each count of contempt.

(2) Upon the second finding of contempt, the court shall order the contemner to perform community service of up to 120 hours, in addition to ordering imprisonment of the contemner up to 120 hours or the payment of a fine of up to one thousand dollars ($1,000), or both such imprisonment and fine, for each count of contempt.

(3) Upon the third or any subsequent finding of contempt, the court shall order both of the following:

(A) The court shall order the contemner to serve a term of imprisonment of up to 240 hours, and to pay a fine of one thousand dollars ($1,000) or perform community service of up to 240 hours, or both such fine and community service, for each count of contempt.

(B) The court shall order the contemner to pay an administrative fee, not to exceed the actual cost of the contemner's administration and supervision, while assigned to a community service program pursuant to this paragraph.

(4) The court shall take parties' employment schedules into consideration when ordering either community service or imprisonment, or both.

CHAPTER 369

An act to amend Sections 6590, 6595, and 6596 of the Fish and Game Code, relating to fish.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6590 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

6590. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) Substantial declines in various species of desirable fish that are caught in southern California ocean waters have adversely affected recreational and commercial fishing and their related industries.

(b) Research and development of artificial propagation, rearing, and stocking techniques and equipment have been sufficiently developed. The purpose of this article is to determine if hatchery-released fish can artificially enhance certain stocks of various desirable species, through increased hatchery production of fish and increased monitoring of fisheries to assess the contribution of hatchery-released fish to that enhancement.

(c) Funding for research pertaining to enhancement and artificial propagation, rearing, and stocking are most appropriately borne by a special fund derived from user fees on recreational and commercial fishermen who stand to directly benefit from the resurgence of depressed marine fisheries.

(d) The department has continuing resource management, administrative, and policy review responsibility in marine resources issues.

(e) Volunteers from the recreational fishing community have developed and operated grow-out facilities with private funding. These volunteer activities greatly enhance the effectiveness of the program and are fully compatible with the overall program objectives.

(f) As white sea bass hatchery production is established, additional grow-out facilities will be required and coordination between these facilities will be necessary. The ocean resources enhancement advisory panel may encourage contracts to carry out coordination activities and recommend to the director that this coordination remain a high priority. Those coordination activities may be funded with fees collected by the department pursuant to this article.

(g) The use of federal matching funds, including sportfish restoration account funds, shall be a high priority for use to match state dollars for this program.

SEC. 2. Section 6595 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

6595. (a) All fees collected by the department pursuant to this article, and any interest earned on those fees, shall be deposited in the Fish and Game Preservation Fund and shall be available, upon appropriation by the Legislature, solely for purposes of the program. The department shall maintain the internal accountability necessary to ensure that expenditures of these funds meet the requirements and restrictions of the purposes of the program.

(b) An amount, not to exceed 15 percent of the total annual revenues deposited in the fund pursuant to this article, may be appropriated for the administration of the program, including any reasonable and necessary expenses incurred by members of the ocean resources enhancement advisory panel in the discharge of their duties pursuant to this article.

(c) No part of the program may be financed pursuant to this article unless it has been approved by both the director and a majority of the members of the ocean resources enhancement advisory panel.

SEC. 3. Section 6596 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

6596. (a) In addition to a valid California fishing license issued pursuant to Section 7149 and any applicable license stamp issued pursuant to this code, a person taking fish from ocean waters south of a line extending due west from Point Arguello for sport purposes shall have permanently affixed to his or her fishing license an ocean fishing enhancement stamp. A license stamp issued under this subdivision shall be issued for the following fees:

(1) A stamp for an annual sportfishing or sport ocean fishing license, a fee of two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50).

(2) A stamp for each single day sportfishing or sport ocean fin fishing license, a fee of fifty cents ($0.50).

(b) In addition to a valid California commercial passenger fishing boat license issued pursuant to Section 7920, the owner of any boat or vessel who, for profit, permits any person to fish therefrom, south of a line extending due west from Point Arguello, shall obtain and permanently affix to the license a commercial ocean fishing enhancement stamp which may be obtained from the department upon payment of a fee of twenty-five dollars ($25).

(c) In addition to a valid California commercial fishing license issued pursuant to Section 7852, a person who lands, or causes to be brought ashore, any white sea bass, south of a line extending due west from Point Arguello, shall obtain and permanently affix to the commercial fishing license a commercial ocean fishing enhancement stamp which may be obtained from the department upon payment of a fee of twenty-five dollars ($25).

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 370

An act to amend and renumber Section 25244.1101 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous waste, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25244.1101 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

25244.11.5. (a) The department shall, to the extent that meritorious applications are received, and to the extent that funds are available, as determined by the department, provide grants to local government agency hazardous waste reduction programs to assist businesses in the establishment of effective hazardous waste reduction practices. The grants shall be used for all of the following purposes:

(1) Identification of the most significant hazardous waste streams in the local government agency's jurisdiction and the businesses that produce them.

(2) Education of governmental agencies, community and industry groups, and individual businesses concerning the concepts of hazardous waste reduction, including, but not limited to, process modifications, raw material substitution, recycling, treatment options, and housekeeping methods.

(3) Dissemination of information on best demonstrated available hazardous waste reduction, recycling, and treatment technologies to businesses through workshops and educational materials.

(4) Waste stream-specific and process-specific waste reduction audits of businesses in the jurisdiction of the local government agency.

(5) Other innovative methods to bring hazardous waste reduction techniques and practices to the attention of businesses in the jurisdiction of the local government agency, including the use of technical consulting services for businesses of small and medium size.

(b) A grant made by the department to a local government agency shall not exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) per year, and the total amount of grants awarded by the department each year pursuant to this section shall not exceed two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000).

(c) In awarding grants to local government agencies pursuant to this section, the department shall give preference to local government agencies which offer matching funds to the grant funds.

(d) It is the intent of the Legislature that funding for grants pursuant to this section shall be provided from funds made available for the purposes of this article.

(e) This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1999, and, as of January 1, 2000, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 2000, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to continue the provision of grants to local government agencies for the purpose of local hazardous waste reduction programs, thereby protecting public health and safety and the environment, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 371

An act to amend Section 50712.5 of, and to add Section 50710.1 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to housing.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 50710.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

50710.1. (a) If all the development costs of any migrant farm labor center assisted pursuant to this chapter are provided by federal, state, or local grants, and if inadequate funds are available from any federal, state, or local service to write-down operating costs, the department may approve rents for that center which are in excess of rents charged in other centers assisted by the Office of Migrant Services. However, prior to approving these rents, the department shall consider the adequacy of evidence presented by the entity operating the center that the rents reimburse actual, reasonable, and necessary costs of operation.

(b) At the end of each fiscal year, any entity operating a migrant farm labor center pursuant to this chapter may establish a reserve account comprised of the excess funds provided through the annual operating contract received from the department, if the department certifies there is no need to address reasonable general maintenance requirements or repairs, rehabilitation, and replacement needs of the requesting migrant farm labor center which affect the immediate health and safety of residents. The cumulative balance of the reserve account shall not exceed 10 percent of the annual operating funds annually committed to the entity by the department. Funds in the reserve account shall be used only for capital improvements such as replacing or repairing structural elements, furniture, fixtures, or equipment of the migrant farm labor center, the replacement or repair of which are reasonably required to preserve the migrant farm labor center. Withdrawals from the reserve account shall be made only upon the written approval of the department of the amount and nature of expenditures.

(c) A migrant farm labor center governed by this chapter may be operated for an extended period beyond 180 days, provided that all of the following conditions are satisfied:

(1) No additional subsidies provided by the department are used for the operation or administration of the migrant farm center during the extended period.

(2) Rents are not to be increased above the rents charged during the period immediately prior to the extension unless the department finds that an increase is necessary to cover reasonable operating costs and the housing authority certifies that it has made a good faith effort to obtain additional sources of funds to cover these costs, such as contributions from agricultural employers or other federal, local, or private sources.

(3) In no event shall the rent exceed the average daily operating cost of the center, less any subsidy funds found to be available pursuant to paragraph (2), provided that at least one-third of the residents of the center who will remain in residency during an extension have petitioned to keep the center open for an extended period at rents which are the same or higher than rents during the regular period of occupancy. The Legislature finds and declares that because the number of residents may be substantially reduced during the extension period, a rent increase may be necessary to cover operating costs. It is the intent of the Legislature that the public sector, private sector, and farmworkers each play an important role in ensuring the financial viability of this important source of needed housing.

(4) An extension is requested by an entity operating the migrant farm labor center, and occupancy will be limited to migrant farmworkers and their families who resided at a migrant center during the regular period of occupancy. Before granting an extension, the housing authority shall take into consideration the structural condition of the center, the climate, and other factors affecting the health and safety of migrant farmworkers and their families.

(5) The extension is deemed necessary and approved by the department for the health and safety of agricultural workers.

(6) The occupancy during the extended season represents a new tenancy and is not subject to existing and statutory and regulatory limitations governing rents. Prior to the beginning of the extension period, residents shall be provided at least two days' advance written notice of any rent increase and of the expected length of the extension, including the date of closure of the center.

SEC. 2. Section 50712.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50712.5. (a) The Department of Housing and Community

Development, through its Office of Migrant Services, pursuant to the authority granted in subdivision (n) of Section 50406 and this chapter shall assist in the development, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, or operation of migrant farm labor centers. The department shall encourage and assist in the development of family units, or dormitory-style units, as may be appropriate, in migrant farm labor centers in any county or counties where there is a substantial unmet need for migrant farmworker housing. It is the intent of the Legislature in permitting the development of dormitory-style housing that family households not be mixed with single person households unless the contractor or sponsor can make reasonable accommodations to provide separate living and sleeping areas in the dormitory to those family households.

(b) The department may use funds appropriated for the purposes of the Office of Migrant Services to maximize the utility of any other local, federal, state, or private funds or other assistance made available for the purposes of this section. These appropriated funds may be used for costs including, but not limited to, the following items:

(1) Predevelopment costs incurred in the process of securing construction or long-term financing site acquisition development, architectural, engineering, or legal expenses, or construction costs, including construction interest, or both. These costs shall not be subject to reimbursement from construction or permanent financing, as the case may be, if the reimbursement would contribute to, or result in, rents substantially in excess of those in other migrant farm labor centers assisted by the Office of Migrant Services, as determined by the department.

(2) A grant or deferred payment loan for acquisition, development, and related infrastructure costs, including construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, or operation, which may be forgiven, matching or supplementing the permanent financing or grant made available by a federal, state, or local housing assistance program.

(3) Operating cost reductions to the extent necessary to ensure that the rents in the migrant farm center are not substantially in excess of those in other migrant farm labor centers operated by the Office of Migrant Services.

(c) The department shall seek the maximum possible contribution of funds, land, and other incentives from local, federal, state, and private sources for all the purposes described in subdivision (b). Funds transferred pursuant to Part 8 (commencing with Section 53130) shall not be used in a manner inconsistent with this part.

(d) To the extent that any migrant farm labor center assisted pursuant to this section is financed or otherwise assisted by the United States Farmers Home Administration, and to the extent the Farmers Home Administration requires compliance with construction, operating, term of use, or residency standards which differ from those required by the department pursuant to regulations adopted to implement and interpret this chapter, those Farmers Home Administration standards shall supersede the department's regulations.

(e) The Office of Migrant Services may authorize the use of dormitory-style housing in a migrant farm labor center.

CHAPTER 372

An act to amend Sections 699.5, 975.5, 987.61, 987.71, 987.86, and 1038.5 of, and to repeal Sections 897, 987.567, 987.861, 987.93, and 987.94 of, the Military and Veterans Code, relating to veterans.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 699.5 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

699.5. (a) The department may assist every veteran of the United States and the dependent or survivor of every veteran in presenting and pursuing the claim as the veteran, dependent, or survivor may have against the United States arising out of war service and in establishing the veteran's, dependent's, or survivor's right to any privilege, preference, care, or compensation provided for by the laws of the United States or of this state. The department may cooperate and, with the approval of the Department of Finance, contract with any organization of veterans chartered by the Congress of the United States and authorized by the Veterans Administration to pursue claims before federal agencies and that has regularly, for a period of five years next preceding the date of the contract, maintained an established committee or agency, in a Veterans Administration regional office in the State of California, rendering similar services to veterans, dependents, and survivors as the services referred to in this section and pursuant to the contract may compensate the organization for services within the scope of this section rendered by it to any veteran, dependent, or survivor. The department also may cooperate and, with the approval of the Department of Finance, contract with any other organization of veterans authorized by the Veterans Administration to pursue claims before federal agencies and that has regularly, for a period of 12 years next preceding the date of the contract, maintained an established committee or agency, in a Veterans Administration regional office in the State of California, rendering similar services to veterans, dependents, and survivors as the services referred to in this section and pursuant to the contract may compensate the organization for services within the scope of this section rendered by it to any veteran, dependent, or survivor. The contract shall not be made unless the department determines that, owing to the confidential relationships involved and the necessity of operating through agencies that the veterans, dependents, or survivors involved will feel to be sympathetic towards their problems, the services cannot satisfactorily be rendered otherwise than through the agency of the veterans organization and that the best interests of the veterans, dependents, or survivors involved will be served if the contract is made.

(b) For the purposes of this section "survivor" means any relation of a deceased veteran who may be entitled to make a claim for any privilege, preference, care, or compensation under the laws of the United States or this state based upon the veteran's war service.

SEC. 2. Section 897 of the Military and Veterans Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 975.5 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

975.5. (a) The Department of Veterans Affairs shall provide for one paid veterans assistant position within the office of the county veteran service officer for the County of Los Angeles. The department shall establish one similar position for the County of San Diego and one similar position for the City and County of San Francisco.

(b) The veterans assistants employed under subdivision (a) shall conduct outreach programs in order to make veterans aware of readjustment counseling services and alcohol and drug abuse programs offered by community-based organizations and city, county, and federal agencies. The veterans assistants shall advise and counsel veterans concerning readjustment counseling programs and refer veterans to appropriate community-based or city, county, or federal counseling programs.

SEC. 4. Section 987.567 of the Military and Veterans Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 987.61 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

987.61. The department may purchase property, subject to a participation contract providing for a loan term of not less than 23 years. The purchase price plus the participation contract shall not exceed the maximum purchase prices available under this article.

SEC. 6. Section 987.71 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

987.71. (a) The purchaser shall make an initial payment of at least 5 percent of the selling price of the property. Purchasers of homes where the purchase price is equal to or less than sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) shall make an initial payment of at least 3 percent of the selling price of the property. The department may waive the initial payment in any case where the value of the property as determined by the department appraisal equals the amount to be paid by the department plus at least 5 percent where the purchase price is greater than sixty thousand dollars ($60,000). In the case of homes where the purchase price is equal to or less than sixty thousand dollars ($60,000), the department may waive the initial payment where the value of the property as determined by the department appraisal equals the amount to be paid by the department plus at least 3 percent.

(b) The balance of the purchase price may be amortized over a period fixed by the department, not exceeding 40 years for farms or homes and not exceeding 30 years for mobilehomes, together with interest thereon at the rate determined by the department pursuant to Section 987.87 for these amortization purposes.

(c) The department may, in order to allow the veteran to purchase the home selected without incurring excessive monthly payments, at the time of initial purchase, postpone the commencement of payment of the principal balance for not to exceed five years if the veteran's current income meets the standards for purchase on these terms and if the department determines, in accordance with previously established criteria for these determinations, that the veteran's income can reasonably be expected to increase sufficiently within the five-year period to make the transition to fully amortized principal and interest payments, so long as the total term of the contract of purchase does not exceed 40 years.

(d) The purchaser on any installment date may pay any or all installments still remaining unpaid.

(e) In any individual case, the department may for good cause postpone, from time to time, upon terms the department determines to be proper, the payment of the whole or any part of any installment of the purchase price or interest thereon.

(f) Each installment shall include an amount sufficient to pay the principal and interest on the participation contract to which the interest of the department is subject, and any amount as may be required by a covenant or provision contained in any resolution of issuance.

SEC. 7. Section 987.86 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

987.86. (a) Any veteran for whom a farm or home is purchased under this article may be granted a subsequent opportunity to purchase another farm or home when the farm or home purchased under this article is sold, or the veteran's interest is divested through divorce or dissolution of marriage, and the purchase contract is paid in full. The maximum amount that the department may advance under this subdivision is limited to the maximum amounts set forth in Section 987.65 at the time the application is made for the subsequent loan.

(b) Only one farm or home purchased under this article shall be owned by a veteran or a veteran and the veteran's spouse at any one time. This subdivision does not apply to an interest, acquired pursuant to Section 987.721, of a former spouse.

(c) Any veteran for whom a farm or home is purchased under this article may be granted a subsequent opportunity to purchase another farm or home if he or she has paid the initial purchase contract in full and qualifies as a veteran as described in Section 980 under another separate period of service, or the veteran and the veteran's spouse each qualify as a veteran, as described in Section 980.

(d) A member of the armed forces, eligible for military retirement, who meets the requirements of Section 980, or a veteran as described in Section 980 who is receiving military retirement pay, for whom a farm or home was purchased under this article while in active military service, may be granted a subsequent opportunity to purchase another farm or home, if he or she has paid the initial purchase contract in full and has served during more than one period for which eligibility is granted.

SEC. 8. Section 987.861 of the Military and Veterans Code is repealed.

SEC. 9. Section 987.93 of the Military and Veterans Code is repealed.

SEC. 10. Section 987.94 of the Military and Veterans Code is repealed.

SEC. 11. Section 1038.5 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

1038.5. Any money deposited with the home by a veteran shall be credited with interest at no more than the State Monetary Investment Fund rate, less 0.75 percent, and shall be paid to the veteran or to his or her heirs, devisees, legatees, or the qualified executor or the administrator of his or her estate pursuant to Section 1037 or Section 1038.

CHAPTER 373

An act to amend Section 11870 of the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11870 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11870. The state, any agency, department, division, commission, board, bureau, officer or other authority thereof, and each county, city and county, city, school district, irrigation district, any other district established by law, or other public corporation or quasi public corporation within the state, including any public utility operated by a private corporation may insure against its liability for compensation with the State Compensation Insurance Fund. Where the state or any agency, department, division, commission, board, bureau, officer or authority thereof is the insured, the premium for that insurance shall be a proper charge against any moneys appropriated for the support of or expenditure by the insured, except that in the case of an insured supported by or authorized to expend moneys appropriated out of more than one fund, the insured, with the approval of the Director of Finance, may determine the proportion of the premium to be paid out of each fund. In that case the insured, with the approval of the Director of Finance, may pay the entire premium out of any of those funds and thereafter the funds used for payment shall be reimbursed in proper proportion out of the other funds. In case a county, city and county, city, school district, irrigation district, or other district established by law, or other public corporation or quasi public corporation within the state is the insured, the premium therefor shall be a proper charge against the general fund of the insured.

CHAPTER 374

An act to amend Sections 2941 and 2943 of the Civil Code, relating to mortgages.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2941 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2941. (a) Within 30 days after any mortgage has been satisfied, the mortgagee or the assignee of the mortgagee shall execute a certificate of the discharge thereof, as provided in Section 2939, and shall record or cause to be recorded, except as provided in subdivision (c), in the office of the county recorder in which the mortgage is recorded. The mortgagee shall then deliver, upon the written request of the mortgagor or the mortgagor's heirs, successors, or assignees, as the case may be, the original note and mortgage to the person making the request.

(b) (1) When the obligation secured by any deed of trust has been satisfied, the beneficiary or the assignee of the beneficiary shall execute and deliver to the trustee the original note, deed of trust, request for a full reconveyance, and other documents as may be necessary to reconvey, or cause to be reconveyed, the deed of trust.

(A) The trustee shall execute the full reconveyance and shall record or cause it to be recorded, except as provided in subdivision (c), in the office of the county recorder in which the deed of trust is recorded within 21 calendar days after receipt by the trustee of the original note, deed of trust, request for a full reconveyance, the fee that may be charged pursuant to subdivision (e), recorder's fees, and other documents as may be necessary to reconvey, or cause to be reconveyed, the deed of trust.

(B) The trustee shall deliver a copy of the reconveyance to the beneficiary, its successor in interest, or its servicing agent, if known.

(C) Following execution and recordation of the full reconveyance, upon receipt of a written request by the trustor or the trustor's heirs, successors, or assignees, the trustee shall then deliver the original note and deed of trust to the person making that request.

(2) If the trustee has failed to execute and record, or cause to be recorded, the full reconveyance within 60 calendar days of satisfaction of the obligation, the beneficiary, upon receipt of a written request by the trustor or trustor's heirs, successor in interest, agent, or assignee, shall execute and acknowledge a document pursuant to Section 2934a substituting itself or another as trustee and issue a full reconveyance.

(3) If a full reconveyance has not been executed and recorded pursuant to either paragraph (1) or paragraph (2) within 75 calendar days of satisfaction of the obligation, then a title insurance company may prepare and record a release of the obligation. However, at least 10 days prior to the issuance and recording of a full release pursuant to this paragraph, the title insurance company shall mail by first-class mail with postage prepaid, the intention to release the obligation to the trustee, trustor, and beneficiary of record, or their successor in interest of record, at the last known address.

(A) The release shall set forth:

(i) The name of the beneficiary.

(ii) The name of the trustor.

(iii) The recording reference to the deed of trust.

(iv) A recital that the obligation secured by the deed of trust has been paid in full.

(v) The date and amount of payment.

(B) The release issued pursuant to this subdivision shall be entitled to recordation and, when recorded, shall be deemed to be the equivalent of a reconveyance of a deed of trust.

(4) Where an obligation secured by a deed of trust was paid in full prior to July 1, 1989, and no reconveyance has been issued and recorded by October 1, 1989, then a release of obligation as provided for in paragraph (3) may be issued.

(5) Paragraphs (2) and (3) do not excuse the beneficiary or the trustee from compliance with paragraph (1). Paragraph (3) does not excuse the beneficiary from compliance with paragraph (2).

(6) In addition to any other remedy provided by law, a title insurance company preparing or recording the release of the obligation shall be liable to any party for damages, including attorneys' fees, which any person may sustain by reason of the issuance and recording of the release, pursuant to paragraphs (3) and (4).

(c) The mortgagee or trustee shall not record or cause the certificate of discharge or full reconveyance to be recorded when any of the following circumstances exists:

(1) The mortgagee or trustee has received written instructions to the contrary from the mortgagor or trustor, or the owner of the land, as the case may be, or from the owner of the obligation secured by the deed of trust or his or her agent, or escrow.

(2) The certificate of discharge or full reconveyance is to be delivered to the mortgagor or trustor, or the owner of the land, as the case may be, through an escrow to which the mortgagor, trustor, or owner is a party.

(3) When the personal delivery is not for the purpose of causing recordation and when the certificate of discharge or full reconveyance is to be personally delivered with receipt acknowledged by the mortgagor or trustor or owner of the land, as the case may be, or their agent if authorized by mortgagor or trustor or owner of the land.

(d) The violation of this section shall make the violator liable to the person affected by the violation for all damages which that person may sustain by reason of the violation, and shall require that the violator forfeit to that person the sum of three hundred dollars ($300).

(e) (1) The trustee, beneficiary, or mortgagee may charge a reasonable fee to the trustor or mortgagor, or the owner of the land, as the case may be, for all services involved in the preparation, execution, and recordation of the full reconveyance, including, but not limited to, document preparation and forwarding services rendered to effect the full reconveyance, and, in addition, may collect official fees. This fee may be made payable no earlier than the opening of a bona fide escrow or no more than 60 days prior to the full satisfaction of the obligation secured by the deed of trust or mortgage.

(2) If the fee charged pursuant to this subdivision does not exceed sixty-five dollars ($65), the fee is conclusively presumed to be reasonable. This paragraph shall only be operative until January 1, 1998.

(f) For purposes of this section, "original" may include an optically imaged reproduction when the following requirements are met:

(1) The trustee receiving the request for reconveyance and executing the reconveyance as provided in subdivision (b) is an affiliate or subsidiary of the beneficiary or an affiliate or subsidiary of the assignee of the beneficiary, respectively.

(2) The optical image storage media used to store the document shall be nonerasable write once, read many (WORM) optical image media that does not allow changes to the stored document.

(3) The optical image reproduction shall be made consistent with the minimum standards of quality approved by either the National Institute of Standards and Technology or the Association for Information and Image Management.

(4) Written authentication identifying the optical image reproduction as an unaltered copy of the note, deed of trust, or mortgage shall be stamped or printed on the optical image reproduction.

SEC. 2. Section 2943 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2943. (a) As used in this section:

(1) "Beneficiary" means a mortgagee or beneficiary of a mortgage or deed of trust, or his or her assignees.

(2) "Beneficiary statement" means a written statement showing:

(A) The amount of the unpaid balance of the obligation secured by the mortgage or deed of trust and the interest rate, together with the total amounts, if any, of all overdue installments of either principal or interest, or both.

(B) The amounts of periodic payments, if any.

(C) The date on which the obligation is due in whole or in part.

(D) The date to which real estate taxes and special assessments have been paid to the extent the information is known to the beneficiary.

(E) The amount of hazard insurance in effect and the term and premium of that insurance to the extent the information is known to the beneficiary.

(F) The amount in an account, if any, maintained for the accumulation of funds with which to pay taxes and insurance premiums.

(G) The nature and, if known, the amount of any additional charges, costs, or expenses paid or incurred by the beneficiary which have become a lien on the real property involved.

(H) Whether the obligation secured by the mortgage or deed of trust can or may be transferred to a new borrower.

(3) "Delivery" means depositing or causing to be deposited in the United States mail an envelope with postage prepaid, containing a copy of the document to be delivered, addressed to the person whose name and address is set forth in the demand therefor. The document may also be transmitted by facsimile machine to the person whose name and address is set forth in the demand therefor.

(4) "Entitled person" means the trustor or mortgagor of, or his or her successor in interest in, the mortgaged or trust property or any part thereof, any beneficiary under a deed of trust, any person having a subordinate lien or encumbrance of record thereon, the escrow holder licensed as an agent pursuant to Division 6 (commencing with Section 17000) of the Financial Code, or the party exempt by virtue of Section 17006 of the Financial Code who is acting as the escrow holder.

(5) "Payoff demand statement" means a written statement, prepared in response to a written demand made by an entitled person or authorized agent, setting forth the amounts required as of the date of preparation by the beneficiary, to fully satisfy all obligations secured by the loan that is the subject of the payoff demand statement. The written statement shall include information reasonably necessary to calculate the payoff amount on a per diem basis for the period of time, not to exceed 30 days, during which the per diem amount is not changed by the terms of the note.

(b) (1) A beneficiary, or his or her authorized agent, shall, within 21 days of the receipt of a written demand by an entitled person or his or her authorized agent, prepare and deliver to the person demanding it a true, correct, and complete copy of the note or other evidence of indebtedness with any modification thereto, and a beneficiary statement.

(2) A request pursuant to this subdivision may be made by an entitled person or his or her authorized agent at any time before, or within two months after, the recording of a notice of default under a mortgage or deed of trust, or may otherwise be made more than 30 days prior to the entry of the decree of foreclosure.

(c) A beneficiary, or his or her authorized agent, shall, on the written demand of an entitled person, or his or her authorized agent, prepare and deliver a payoff demand statement to the person demanding it within 21 days of the receipt of the demand. However, if the loan is subject to a recorded notice of default or a filed complaint commencing a judicial foreclosure, the beneficiary shall have no obligation to prepare and deliver this statement as prescribed unless the written demand is received prior to the first publication of a notice of sale or the notice of the first date of sale established by a court.

(d) (1) A beneficiary statement or payoff demand statement may be relied upon by the entitled person or his or her authorized agent in accordance with its terms, including with respect to the payoff demand statement reliance for the purpose of establishing the amount necessary to pay the obligation in full. If the beneficiary notifies the entitled person or his or her authorized agent of any amendment to the statement, then the amended statement may be relied upon by the entitled person or his or her authorized agent as provided in this subdivision.

(2) If notification of any amendment to the statement is not given in writing, then a written amendment to the statement shall be delivered to the entitled person or his or her authorized agent no later than the next business day after notification.

(3) Upon the dates specified in subparagraphs (A) and (B) any sums that were due and for any reason not included in the statement or amended statement shall continue to be recoverable by the beneficiary as an unsecured obligation of the obligor pursuant to the terms of the note and existing provisions of law.

(A) If the transaction is voluntary, the entitled party or his or her authorized agent may rely upon the statement or amended statement upon the earlier of (i) the close of escrow, (ii) transfer of title, or (iii) recordation of a lien.

(B) If the loan is subject to a recorded notice of default or a filed complaint commencing a judicial foreclosure, the entitled party or his or her authorized agent may rely upon the statement or amended statement upon the acceptance of the last and highest bid at a trustee's sale or a court supervised sale.

(e) The following provisions apply to a demand for either a beneficiary statement or a payoff demand statement:

(1) Where an entitled person or his or her authorized agent requests a statement pursuant to this section and does not specify a beneficiary statement or a payoff demand statement the beneficiary shall treat the request as a request for a payoff demand statement.

(2) Where the entitled person or the entitled person's authorized agent includes in the written demand a specific request for a copy of the deed of trust or mortgage, it shall be furnished with the written statement at no additional charge.

(3) The beneficiary may, before delivering a statement, require reasonable proof that the person making the demand is, in fact, an entitled person or an authorized agent of an entitled person, in which event the beneficiary shall not be subject to the penalties of this section until 21 days after receipt of the proof herein provided for. A statement in writing signed by the entitled person appointing an authorized agent when delivered personally to the beneficiary or delivered by registered return receipt mail shall constitute reasonable proof as to the identity of an agent. Similar delivery of a policy of title insurance, preliminary report issued by a title company, original or photographic copy of a grant deed or certified copy of letters testamentary, guardianship, or conservatorship shall constitute reasonable proof as to the identity of a successor in interest, provided the person demanding a statement is named as successor in interest in the document.

(4) If a beneficiary for a period of 21 days after receipt of the written demand willfully fails to prepare and deliver the statement, he or she is liable to the entitled person for all damages which he or she may sustain by reason of the refusal and, whether or not actual damages are sustained, he or she shall forfeit to the entitled person the sum of three hundred dollars ($300). Each failure to prepare and deliver the statement, occurring at a time when, pursuant to this section, the beneficiary is required to prepare and deliver the statement, creates a separate cause of action, but a judgment awarding an entitled person a forfeiture, or damages and forfeiture, for any failure to prepare and deliver a statement bars recovery of damages and forfeiture for any other failure to prepare and deliver a statement, with respect to the same obligation, in compliance with a demand therefor made within six months before or after the demand as to which the award was made. For the purposes of this subdivision, "willfully" means an intentional failure to comply with the requirements of this section without just cause or excuse.

(5) If the beneficiary has more than one branch, office, or other place of business, then the demand shall be made to the branch or office address set forth in the payment billing notice or payment book, and the statement, unless it specifies otherwise, shall be deemed to apply only to the unpaid balance of the single obligation named in the request and secured by the mortgage or deed of trust which is payable at the branch or office whose address appears on the aforesaid billing notice or payment book.

(6) The beneficiary may make a charge not to exceed sixty dollars ($60) for furnishing each required statement. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to mortgages or deeds of trust insured by the Federal Housing Administrator or guaranteed by the Administrator of Veterans Affairs.

CHAPTER 375

An act to amend Section 94316.18 of the Education Code, relating to postsecondary education.

[Approved by Governor August 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 94316.18 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94316.18. (a) Every institution shall designate and maintain an agent for service of process within this state and provide the name, address, and telephone number of the agent to the council. The council shall furnish the agent's name, address, and telephone number to any person upon request.

(b) If an institution is not operating in California when it applies for approval to operate, the institution shall set forth the name, address, and telephone number of its agent for service of process in the institution's application.

(c) If an institution fails to designate or maintain an agent for service of process pursuant to subdivision (a) and if service on the institution cannot reasonably be effected in the manner provided in Section 415.10, 415.20, 415.30, or 415.40 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the institution may be served by leaving a copy of the process or any other document in an office of the council and by sending, by first-class mail, a notice of the service upon the council and a copy of the process or other document to the institution at its last address on file with the council. Service in this manner shall be deemed complete on the 10th day after that mailing to the institution. Proof of service may be made by a declaration showing compliance with this subdivision.

CHAPTER 376

An act to amend Section 44425 of the Education Code, relating to teacher credentialing.

[Approved by Governor August 29, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 44425 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44425. Whenever the holder of any credential issued by the State Board of Education or the Commission on Teacher Credentialing has been convicted of any sex offense as defined in Section 44010 or controlled substance offense as defined in Section 44011, the commission shall forthwith suspend the credential. If the conviction is reversed and the holder is acquitted of the offense in a new trial or the charges against him or her are dismissed, the commission shall forthwith terminate the suspension of the credential. When the conviction becomes final or when imposition of sentence is suspended, the commission shall forthwith revoke the credential. Notwithstanding any other law, revocation shall be final without possibility of reinstatement of the credential if the conviction is for a felony sex offense, as defined in Section 44010, or a felony controlled substance offense, as defined in Section 44011, in which an element of the controlled substance offense is either the distribution to, or use of a controlled substance by, a minor.

Upon a plea of nolo contendere to any sex offense specified in Section 44010, which plea does not constitute a conviction pursuant to Section 1016 of the Penal Code, all credentials held by the respondent shall be suspended until a final disposition regarding those credentials is made by the commission. Any action that the commission is permitted to take following a conviction may be taken after the time for appeal has elapsed, or the judgment of conviction has been affirmed on appeal, or when an order granting probation is made suspending the imposition of sentence and the time for appeal has elapsed or the judgment of conviction has been affirmed on appeal, irrespective of a subsequent order under the provisions of Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code.

CHAPTER 377

An act to amend Sections 8880.29, 8880.30, and 8880.53 of the Government Code, relating to the state lottery, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 29, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8880.29 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8880.29. (a) The commission shall promulgate regulations that specify the number and value of prizes for winning tickets or shares in each lottery game including, without limitation, cash prizes, merchandise prizes, prizes consisting of deferred payments or annuities, and prizes of tickets or shares in the same lottery game or other games conducted by the lottery, provided:

(1) In lottery games utilizing tickets, the overall estimated odds of winning some prize or some cash prize as appropriate for the lottery game shall be printed on each ticket or on a play slip.

(2) A detailed tabulation of the estimated number of prizes of each particular prize denomination that are expected to be awarded in each lottery game, or the estimated odds of winning the prizes, shall be available at each location at which tickets or shares in the lottery games are offered for sale to the public.

(b) Annuity contracts that are purchased for prizes shall be exempt from the requirements of Section 8880.57.

SEC. 2. Section 8880.30 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8880.30. The commission shall promulgate regulations that specify the method for determining winners in each lottery game, provided:

(a) No lottery game shall be based on the results of a horserace.

(b) If a lottery game utilizes a drawing of winning numbers, a drawing among entries, or a drawing among finalists, the drawings shall always be open to the public; no manual or physical selection in the drawings shall be conducted by any employee of the lottery; except for computer automated drawings, drawings shall be witnessed by a representative of a firm of independent certified public accountants; any equipment used in the drawings shall be inspected by the representative of the firm of independent certified public accountants and an employee of the lottery both before and after the drawings; and the drawings and the inspections shall be recorded on both videotape and audiotape.

(c) It is the intent of this chapter that the commission may use any of a variety of existing or future methods or technologies in determining winners.

SEC. 3. Section 8880.53 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8880.53. No lottery tickets or shares shall be sold by a lottery game retailer unless the retailer has a certificate of authority, issued by the lottery, to sell lottery tickets.

SEC. 4. The Legislature finds and declares that this act furthers the purposes of the California State Lottery Act of 1984.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that the changes made by this act may be put into effect at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 378

An act to amend Sections 8880.28 and 8880.30 of the Government Code, relating to the state lottery.

[Approved by Governor August 29, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8880.28 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8880.28. (a) The commission shall promulgate regulations specifying the types of lottery games to be conducted by the lottery, provided:

(1) No lottery game may use the theme of bingo, roulette, dice, baccarat, blackjack, Lucky 7's, draw poker, slot machines, or dog racing.

(2) In lottery games utilizing tickets, each ticket in these games shall bear a unique number distinguishing it from every other ticket in that game; and no name of an elected official shall appear on these tickets.

(3) In games utilizing computer terminals or other devices, no coins or currency shall be dispensed to players from these computer terminals or devices.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), no changes in the types of games or methods of delivery of these games that incorporate technologies or mediums that did not exist, were not widely available, or were not commercially feasible at the time of the enactment of this chapter in 1984 shall be made, unless all of the following conditions are met:

(1) This chapter is amended by statute to expressly authorize these changes.

(2) The act making the amendments contains express legislative findings that the amendments are consistent with the terms of, and further the purposes of, this chapter.

(3) The amendments comport with applicable state and federal law.

(c) For purposes of this section, a change in the method of delivery means a material change in the way a consumer directly interacts with the game.

(d) Subdivision (b) shall not apply to technological changes implemented prior to the effective date of this subdivision.

(e) This section shall not be construed to limit any internal technological changes made to the equipment or components utilized by the lottery.

SEC. 2. Section 8880.30 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8880.30. The commission shall promulgate regulations that specify the method for determining winners in each lottery game, provided:

(a) A lottery game may be based on the results of a horserace with the consent of the association conducting the race and the California Horse Racing Board. Any compensation received by an association for the use of its races to determine the winners of a lottery game shall be divided equally between commissions and purses.

(b) If a lottery game utilizes a drawing of winning numbers, a drawing among entries, or a drawing among finalists, the drawings shall always be open to the public; no manual or physical selection in the drawings shall be conducted by any employee of the lottery; except for computer automated drawings, drawings shall be witnessed by a representative of a firm of independent certified public accountants; any equipment used in the drawings shall be inspected by the representative of the firm of independent certified public accountants and an employee of the lottery both before and after the drawings; and the drawings and the inspections shall be recorded on both videotape and audiotape.

(c) It is the intent of this chapter that the commission may use any of a variety of existing or future methods or technologies in determining winners.

SEC. 3. The Legislature finds and declares that this act furthers the purposes of the California State Lottery Act of 1984.

CHAPTER 379

An act to amend Sections 33741, 33742, 34377, 34377.2, 52101, and 52102 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to housing.

[Approved by Governor August 30, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 33741 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

33741. An agency may issue bonds to provide funds to be loaned by the agency to nonprofit organizations exempt from federal income taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (26 U.S.C. Sec. 501(c)(3)), for use by the organization to finance the acquisition of multifamily rental housing, including mobilehome parks that are or will be nonprofit or cooperatively-owned, or both, in which residents rent spaces and either rent or own the mobilehomes occupying these spaces, to provide housing within the territorial jurisdiction of the agency in accordance with the organization's tax-exempt purposes under that federal law. The bonds shall be issued so as to satisfy the requirements of Section 145 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (26 U.S.C. Sec. 145).

SEC. 2. Section 33742 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

33742. (a) Occupancy and rent restrictions with respect to housing acquired pursuant to this chapter shall either meet the requirements of subparagraphs (A) and (B) of paragraph (1) or the requirements of paragraph (2), as follows:

(1) (A) Not less than 20 percent of the total number of units in a multifamily rental housing development financed, or for which financing has been extended or committed, pursuant to this chapter from the proceeds of the sale of bonds of each bond issuance of the agency shall be for occupancy on a priority basis by lower income households, as defined by Section 50079.5. If a multifamily rental housing development is located within a targeted area project, as defined by Section 103(b)(12)(A) of Title 26 of the United States Code, not less than 15 percent of the total number of units financed, or for which financing has been extended or committed pursuant to this chapter, shall be for occupancy on a priority basis by lower income households. Not less than one-half of the units required for occupancy on a priority basis by lower income households shall be for occupancy on a priority basis for very low income households, as defined by Section 50105.

(B) (i) With respect to multifamily rental developments that are not mobilehome parks, the rental payments on the units required for occupancy by very low income households paid by the persons occupying the units (excluding any supplemental rental assistance from the state, the federal government, or any other public agency to those persons or on behalf of those units) shall not exceed 30 percent of an amount equal to 50 percent of area median income. If the nonprofit organization elects to establish a base rent for all or part of the units for lower income households and very low income households, the base rents shall be adjusted for household size. In adjusting rents for household size for this purpose, it shall be assumed that one person will occupy a studio unit, two persons will occupy a one-bedroom unit, three persons will occupy a two-bedroom unit, four persons will occupy a three-bedroom unit, and five persons will occupy a four-bedroom unit.

(ii) With respect to mobilehome parks:

(I) Where a resident rents both the mobilehome and the space occupied by the mobilehome, for spaces and mobilehomes required for occupancy by very low income households, the total rental payments paid by the household on the mobilehome and the space occupied by the mobilehome (excluding any supplemental rental assistance from the state, the federal government, or any other public agency to that household or on behalf of that space and mobilehome) shall not exceed 30 percent of an amount equal to 50 percent of the area median income, adjusted for household size as appropriate for the unit that occupies the space.

(II) Where a resident is both the registered and legal owner of the mobilehome, is not making mortgage payments for the purchase of that mobilehome, and rents the space that the mobilehome occupies, for spaces and mobilehomes required for occupancy by very low income households, the total rental charge for occupancy of that space, excluding a reasonable allowance for other related housing costs determined at the time of acquisition of the mobilehome park by the nonprofit corporation, excluding any supplemental rental assistance from the state, the federal government, or any other public agency to that household on behalf of that space and mobilehome, shall not exceed 30 percent of 50 percent of the area median income, adjusted for household size as appropriate for the unit that occupies the space.

(III) Where a resident is the registered owner of the mobilehome, is making mortgage payments for the purchase of that mobilehome, and rents the space occupied by the mobilehome, for spaces and mobilehomes required for occupancy by very low income households, the rental charge for occupancy of a space by a mobilehome, exclusive of any charges for utilities and storage (excluding any supplemental rental assistance from the state, the federal government, or any other public agency to that household or on behalf of that space and mobilehome), shall not exceed 15 percent of 50 percent of the area median income, adjusted for household size as appropriate for the unit that occupies the space.

(IV) In adjusting rents for household size, either the occupancy standards established in clause (i) of subparagraph (B) of paragraph

(1) of subdivision (a) or the alternative standards that assume that one person will occupy a recreational vehicle, two persons will occupy a single-wide mobilehome, and three persons will occupy a multisectional mobilehome may be utilized.

(2) The multifamily rental housing development is a "qualified low-income housing project," within the meaning of Section 42(g) of the federal Internal Revenue Code (26 U.S.C. Sec. 42), because it meets the criteria set forth in Section 42 (g) (1) (B) and (2) of the federal Internal Revenue Code.

(b) If at the time of acquisition any of the units or mobilehome spaces are occupied by ineligible households, that fact alone shall neither constitute a cause for the tenant's eviction nor render the project ineligible. Upon vacation of any unit initially occupied by an ineligible household, that unit shall be rented to an eligible household until the required residency by eligible households is attained.

(c) As a condition of financing pursuant to this chapter, the nonprofit organization shall enter into a regulatory agreement with the agency, which shall require that units reserved for occupancy by lower income households shall remain available on a priority basis for occupancy for the term of the bonds issued to provide the financing or 30 years, whichever is greater. The regulatory agreement shall contain a provision making the covenants and conditions of the agreement binding upon successors in interest of the nonprofit organization. The regulatory agreement shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the multifamily rental housing development is located. The regulatory agreement shall be recorded in the grantor-grantee index to the name of the property owner as grantor and to the name of the agency as grantee.

SEC. 3. Section 34377 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

34377. An authority may issue bonds to provide funds to be loaned by the authority to nonprofit organizations exempt from federal income taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (26 U.S.C. Sec. 501(c)(3)), for use by the organization to finance the acquisition of multifamily rental housing, including mobilehome parks that are or will be nonprofit or cooperatively-owned, or both, in which residents rent spaces and either rent or own the mobilehomes occupying these spaces, to provide housing within the territorial jurisdiction of the authority in accordance with the organization's tax-exempt purposes under that federal law. The bonds shall be issued so as to satisfy the requirements of Section 145 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (26 U.S.C. Sec. 145).

SEC. 4. Section 34377.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

34377.2. (a) Occupancy and rent restrictions with respect to housing acquired pursuant to this article shall either meet the requirements of subparagraphs (A) and (B) of paragraph (1) or the requirements of paragraph (2) as follows:

(1) (A) Not less than 20 percent of the total number of units in a multifamily rental housing development financed, or for which financing has been extended or committed, pursuant to this article from the proceeds of the sale of bonds of each bond issuance of the authority shall be for occupancy on a priority basis by lower income households, as defined by Section 50079.5. If a multifamily rental housing development is located within a targeted area project, as defined by Section 103(b)(12)(A) of Title 26 of the United States Code, not less than 15 percent of the total number of units financed, or for which financing has been extended or committed pursuant to this chapter, shall be for occupancy on a priority basis by lower income households. Not less than one-half of the units required for occupancy on a priority basis by lower income households shall be for occupancy on a priority basis for very low income households, as defined by Section 50105.

(B) (i) With respect to multifamily rental developments that are not mobilehome parks, the rental payments on the units required for occupancy by very low income households paid by the persons occupying the units (excluding any supplemental rental assistance from the state, the federal government, or any other public agency to those persons or on behalf of those units) shall not exceed 30 percent of an amount equal to 50 percent of area median income. If the nonprofit organization elects to establish a base rent for all or part of the units for lower income households and very low income households, the base rents shall be adjusted for household size. In adjusting rents for household size for this purpose, it shall be assumed that one person will occupy a studio unit, two persons will occupy a one-bedroom unit, three persons will occupy a two-bedroom unit, four persons will occupy a three-bedroom unit, and five persons will occupy a four-bedroom unit.

(ii) With respect to mobilehome parks:

(I) Where a resident rents both the mobilehome and the space occupied by the mobilehome, for spaces and mobilehomes required for occupancy by very low income households, the total rental payments paid by the household on the mobilehome and the space occupied by the mobilehome (excluding any supplemental rental assistance from the state, the federal government, or any other public agency to that household or on behalf of that space and mobilehome) shall not exceed 30 percent of an amount equal to 50 percent of the area median income, adjusted for household size as appropriate for the unit that occupies the space.

(II) Where a resident is both the registered and legal owner of the mobilehome, is not making mortgage payments for the purchase of that home, and rents the space that the mobilehome occupies, for spaces and mobilehomes required for occupancy by very low income households, the total rental charge for occupancy of that space, excluding a reasonable allowance for other related housing costs determined at the time of acquisition of the mobilehome park by the nonprofit corporation, excluding any supplemental rental assistance from the state, the federal government, or any other public agency to that household on behalf of that space and mobilehome, shall not exceed 30 percent of 50 percent of the area median income, adjusted for household size as appropriate for the unit that occupies the space.

(III) Where a resident is the registered owner of the mobilehome, is making mortgage payments for the purchase of that mobilehome, and rents the space occupied by the mobilehome, for spaces and mobilehomes required for occupancy by very low income households, the rental charge for occupancy of a space by a mobilehome, exclusive of any charges for utilities and storage (excluding any supplemental rental assistance from the state, the federal government, or any other public agency to that household or on behalf of that space and mobilehome), shall not exceed 15 percent of 50 percent of the area median income, adjusted for household size as appropriate for the unit that occupies the space.

(IV) In adjusting rents for household size, either the occupancy standards established in clause (i) of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) or the alternative standards that assume that one person will occupy a recreational vehicle, two persons will occupy a single-wide mobilehome, and three persons will occupy a multisectional mobilehome may be utilized.

(2) The multifamily rental housing development is a "qualified low-income housing project," within the meaning of Section 42(g) of the Internal Revenue Code (26 U.S.C. Sec. 42), because it meets the criteria set forth in Section 42(g)(1)(B) and (2) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) If at the time of acquisition any of the units or mobilehome spaces are occupied by ineligible households, that fact alone shall neither constitute a cause for the tenant's eviction nor render the project ineligible. Upon vacation of any unit initially occupied by an ineligible household, that unit shall be rented to an eligible household until the required residency by eligible households is attained.

(c) As a condition of financing pursuant to this article, the nonprofit organization shall enter into a regulatory agreement with the authority, which shall require that units reserved for occupancy by lower income households shall remain available on a priority basis for occupancy for the term of the bonds issued to provide the financing or 30 years, whichever is greater. The regulatory agreement shall contain a provision making the covenants and conditions of the agreement binding upon successors in interest of the nonprofit organization. The regulatory agreement shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the multifamily rental housing development is located. The regulatory agreement shall be recorded in the grantor-grantee index to the name of the property owner as grantor and to the name of the authority as grantee.

SEC. 5. Section 52101 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

52101. A city or county may issue bonds to provide funds to be loaned by the city or county to nonprofit organizations exempt from federal income taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (26 U.S.C. Sec. 501(c)(3)), for use by the organization to finance the acquisition of multifamily rental housing, including mobilehome parks that are or will be nonprofit or cooperatively-owned, or both, in which residents rent spaces and either rent or own the mobilehomes occupying these spaces, to provide housing within the territorial jurisdiction of the city or county in accordance with the organization's tax-exempt purposes under that federal law. The bonds shall be issued so as to satisfy the requirements of Section 145 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (26 U.S.C. Sec. 145).

SEC. 6. Section 52102 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

52102. (a) Occupancy and rent restrictions with respect to housing acquired pursuant to this chapter shall either meet the requirements of subparagraphs (A) and (B) of paragraph (1) or the requirements of paragraph (2), as follows:

(1) (A) Not less than 20 percent of the total number of units in a multifamily rental housing development financed, or for which financing has been extended or committed, pursuant to this chapter from the proceeds of the sale of bonds of each bond issuance of the city or county shall be for occupancy on a priority basis by lower income households, as defined by Section 50079.5. If a multifamily rental housing development is located within a targeted area project, as defined by Section 103(b)(12)(A) of Title 26 of the United States Code, not less than 15 percent of the total number of units financed, or for which financing has been extended or committed pursuant to this chapter, shall be for occupancy on a priority basis by lower income households. Not less than one-half of the units required for occupancy on a priority basis by lower income households shall be for occupancy on a priority basis for very low income households, as defined by Section 50105.

(B) (i) With respect to multifamily rental developments that are not mobilehome parks, the rental payments on the units required for occupancy by very low income households paid by the persons occupying the units (excluding any supplemental rental assistance from the state, the federal government, or any other public agency to those persons or on behalf of those units) shall not exceed 30 percent of an amount equal to 50 percent of area median income. If the nonprofit organization elects to establish a base rent for all or part of the units for lower income households and very low income households, the base rents shall be adjusted for household size. In adjusting rents for household size for this purpose, it shall be assumed that one person will occupy a studio unit, two persons will occupy a one-bedroom unit, three persons will occupy a two-bedroom unit, four persons will occupy a three-bedroom unit, and five persons will occupy a four-bedroom unit.

(ii) With respect to mobilehome parks:

(I) Where a resident rents both the mobilehome and the space occupied by the mobilehome, for spaces and mobilehomes required for occupancy by very low income households, the total rental payments paid by the household on the mobilehome and the space occupied by the mobilehome (excluding any supplemental rental assistance from the state, the federal government, or any other public agency to that household or on behalf of that space and mobilehome) shall not exceed 30 percent of an amount equal to 50 percent of the area median income, adjusted for household size as appropriate for the unit that occupies the space.

(II) Where a resident is the registered and legal owner of the mobilehome, is not making mortgage payments for the purchase of that mobilehome, and rents the space that the mobilehome occupies, for spaces and mobilehomes required for occupancy by very low income households, the total rental charge for occupancy of that space, excluding a reasonable allowance for other related housing costs determined at the time of acquisition of the mobilehome park by the nonprofit corporation, excluding any supplemental rental assistance from the state, the federal government, or any other public agency to that household on behalf of that space and mobilehome, shall not exceed 30 percent of 50 percent of the area median income, adjusted for household size as appropriate for the unit that occupies the space.

(III) Where a resident is the registered owner of the mobilehome, is making mortgage payments for the purchase of that mobilehome, and rents the space occupied by the mobilehome, for spaces and mobilehomes required for occupancy by very low income households, the rental charge for occupancy of a space by a mobilehome, exclusive of any charges for utilities and storage (excluding any supplemental rental assistance from the state, the federal government, or any other public agency to that household or on behalf of that space and mobilehome), shall not exceed 15 percent of 50 percent of the area median income, adjusted for household size as appropriate for the unit that occupies the space.

(IV) In adjusting rents for household size, either the occupancy standards established in clause (i) of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) or the alternative standards that assume that one person will occupy a recreational vehicle, two persons will occupy a single-wide mobilehome, and three persons will occupy a multisectional mobilehome may be utilized.

(2) The multifamily rental housing development is a "qualified low-income housing project," within the meaning of Section 42(g) of the Internal Revenue Code (26 U.S.C. Sec. 42), because it meets the criteria set forth in Section 42(g)(1)(B) and (2) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) If at the time of acquisition any of the units or mobilehome spaces are occupied by ineligible households, that fact alone shall neither constitute a cause for the tenant's eviction nor render the project ineligible. Upon vacation of any unit initially occupied by an ineligible household, that unit shall be rented to an eligible household until the required residency by eligible households is attained.

(c) As a condition of financing pursuant to this chapter, the nonprofit organization shall enter into a regulatory agreement with the city or county, which shall require that units reserved for occupancy by lower income households shall remain available on a priority basis for occupancy for the term of the bonds issued to provide the financing or 30 years, whichever is greater. The regulatory agreement shall contain a provision making the covenants and conditions of the agreement binding upon successors in interest of the nonprofit organization. The regulatory agreement shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the multifamily rental housing development is located. The regulatory agreement shall be recorded in the grantor-grantee index to the name of the property owner as grantor and to the name of the city or county as grantee.

CHAPTER 380

An act to amend Section 798.24 of the Civil Code, relating to mobilehome parks.

[Approved by Governor August 30, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 798.24 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

798.24. Each common area facility shall be open or available to residents at all reasonable hours and the hours of the common area facility shall be posted at the facility. No homeowner shall be required to obtain liability insurance in order to use common area facilities for the purposes specified in Section 798.51.

CHAPTER 381

An act to add Section 33420.2 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to redevelopment.

[Approved by Governor August 30, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 33420.2 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

33420.2. Within a project area, an agency may take any actions that the agency determines are necessary to remove graffiti from public or private property upon making a finding that, because of the magnitude and severity of the graffiti within the project area, the action is necessary to effectuate the purposes of the redevelopment plan, and that the action will assist with the elimination of blight, as defined in Section 33031.

CHAPTER 382

An act to amend Section 714 of the Civil Code, relating to solar energy.

[Approved by Governor August 30, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 714 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

714. (a) Any covenant, restriction, or condition contained in any deed, contract, security instrument, or other instrument affecting the transfer or sale of, or any interest in, real property that effectively prohibits or restricts the installation or use of a solar energy system is void and unenforceable.

(b) This section shall not apply to provisions which impose reasonable restrictions on solar energy systems. However, it is the policy of the state to promote and encourage the use of solar energy systems and to remove obstacles thereto. Accordingly, reasonable restrictions on a solar energy system are those restrictions that do not significantly increase the cost of the system or significantly decrease its efficiency or specified performance, or that allow for an alternative system of comparable cost, efficiency, and energy conservation benefits.

(c) For the purposes of this section:

(1) "Significantly" means an amount exceeding 20 percent of the cost of the system or decreasing the efficiency of the solar energy system by an amount exceeding 20 percent, as originally specified and proposed. Solar collectors shall meet applicable standards and requirements imposed by state and local permitting authorities. Specifically, solar energy systems shall be certified by the Solar Rating Certification Corporation (SRCC) or other nationally recognized certification agencies. SRCC is a nonprofit third-party supported by the United States Department of Energy. The certification shall be for the entire solar energy system and installation.

(2) "Solar energy system" has the same meaning as defined in Section 801.5.

(d) Whenever approval is required for the installation or use of a solar energy system, the application for approval shall be processed and approved by the appropriate approving entity in the same manner as an application for approval of an architectural modification to the property, and shall not be willfully avoided or delayed.

(e) Any entity, other than a public entity, that willfully violates this section shall be liable to the applicant or other party for actual damages occasioned thereby, and shall pay a civil penalty to the applicant or other party in an amount not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(f) In any action to enforce compliance with this section, the prevailing party shall be awarded reasonable attorney's fees.

SEC. 2. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act to remove obstacles to the use of solar energy systems, and to encourage their installation in order to achieve maximum efficiency at an affordable cost.

CHAPTER 383

An act to add and repeal Sections 9143.5 and 13310 of the Government Code, relating to state fiscal analysis.

[Approved by Governor August 30, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act to ensure that the Legislature and the Governor are presented with reliable information from the Legislative Analyst's office and the Department of Finance as to the probable behavioral responses of taxpayers, businesses, and other citizens to changes in state tax laws. Specifically, the Legislature intends that dynamic estimating techniques be used in estimating the state fiscal impact of proposals to change those laws, to the extent that data are available to permit estimates to be made in that manner.

SEC. 2. Section 9143.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

9143.5. (a) To the extent that any fiscal estimate prepared by the Legislative Analyst regarding the annual state budget involves one or more proposed changes in state tax law, the Legislative Analyst shall prepare the estimate, except where it is unreasonable to do so, on the basis of assumptions that estimate the probable behavioral responses of taxpayers, businesses, and other citizens to those proposed changes, and shall include in the fiscal estimate a statement identifying those assumptions. The requirement set forth in this section applies only to a proposed change in state tax law determined by the Legislative Analyst, pursuant to a static fiscal estimate, to have a fiscal impact in excess of ten million dollars ($10,000,000) in any one fiscal year.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2000, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 2000, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Section 13310 is added to the Government Code, to read:

13310. (a) To the extent that any fiscal impact estimate prepared by the Department of Finance involves one or more proposed changes in state tax law, the department shall prepare the estimate, except where it is unreasonable to do so, on the basis of assumptions that estimate the probable behavioral responses of taxpayers, businesses, and other citizens to those proposed changes, and shall include in the fiscal impact estimate a statement identifying those assumptions. The requirement set forth in this section shall apply only to a proposed change in state tax law determined by the Department of Finance, pursuant to a static fiscal estimate, to have a fiscal impact in excess of ten million dollars ($10,000,000) in any one fiscal year.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2000, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 2000, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 384

An act to amend Section 53088.2 of the Government Code, relating to cable television.

[Approved by Governor August 30, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 53088.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53088.2. (a) Every video provider shall render reasonably efficient service, make repairs promptly, and interrupt service only as necessary.

(b) All video provider personnel contacting subscribers or potential subscribers outside the office of the provider shall be clearly identified as associated with the video provider.

(c) At the time of installation, and annually thereafter, all video providers shall provide to all customers a written notice of the programming offered, the prices for that programming, the provider's installation and customer service policies, and the name, address, and telephone number of the local franchising authority.

(d) All video providers shall have knowledgeable, qualified company representatives available to respond to customer telephone inquiries Monday through Friday, excluding holidays, during normal business hours.

(e) All video providers shall provide to customers a toll-free or local telephone number for installation, and service, and complaint calls. These calls shall be answered promptly by the video providers. The city, county, or city and county may establish standards for what constitutes promptness.

(f) All video providers shall render bills which are accurate and understandable.

(g) All video providers shall respond to a complete outage in a customer's service promptly. The response shall occur within 24 hours of the reporting of such outage to the provider, except in those situations beyond the reasonable control of the video provider. A video provider shall be deemed to respond to a complete outage when a company representative arrives at the outage location within 24 hours and begins to resolve the problem.

(h) All video providers shall provide a minimum of 30 days' written notice before increasing rates or deleting channels. All video providers shall make every reasonable effort to submit the notice to the city, county, or city and county in advance of the distribution to customers. The 30-day notice is waived if the increases in rates or deletion of channels were outside the control of the video provider. In those cases the video provider shall make reasonable efforts to provide customers with as much notice as possible.

(i) Every video provider shall allow every residential customer who pays his or her bill directly to the video provider at least 15 days from the date the bill for services is mailed to the customer, to pay the listed charges unless otherwise agreed to pursuant to a residential rental agreement establishing tenancy. Customer payments shall be posted promptly. No video provider may terminate residential service for nonpayment of a delinquent account unless the video provider furnishes notice of the delinquency and impending termination at least 15 days prior to the proposed termination. The notice shall be mailed, postage prepaid, to the customer to whom the service is billed. Notice shall not be mailed until the 16th day after the date the bill for services was mailed to the customer. The notice of delinquency and impending termination may be part of a billing statement. No video provider may assess a late fee any earlier than the 22nd day after the bill for service has been mailed.

(j) Every notice of termination of service pursuant to subdivision (i) shall include all of the following information:

(1) The name and address of the customer whose account is delinquent.

(2) The amount of the delinquency.

(3) The date by which payment is required in order to avoid termination of service.

(4) The telephone number of a representative of the video provider who can provide additional information and handle complaints or initiate an investigation concerning the service and charges in question.

Service may only be terminated on days in which the customer can reach a representative of the video provider either in person or by telephone.

(k) Any service terminated without good cause shall be restored without charge for the service restoration. Good cause includes, but is not limited to, failure to pay, payment by check for which there are insufficient funds, theft of service, abuse of equipment or system personnel, or other similar subscriber actions.

(l) All video providers shall issue requested refund checks promptly, but no later than 45 days following the resolution of any dispute, and following the return of the equipment supplied by the video provider, if service is terminated.

(m) All video providers shall issue security or customer deposit refund checks promptly, but no later than 45 days following the termination of service, less any deductions permitted by law.

(n) Video providers shall not disclose the name and address of a subscriber for commercial gain to be used in mailing lists or for other commercial purposes not reasonably related to the conduct of the businesses of the video providers or their affiliates , unless the video providers have provided to the subscriber a notice, separate or included in any other customer notice, that clearly and conspicuously describes the subscriber's ability to prohibit the disclosure. Video providers shall provide an address and telephone number for a local subscriber to use without toll charge to prevent disclosure of the subscriber's name and address.

(o) Disputes concerning the provisions of this article shall be resolved by the city, county, or city and county in which the customer resides. For video providers under Section 53066, the franchising authority shall resolve disputes. All other video providers shall register with the city in which they provide service or, where the customers reside in an unincorporated area, in the county in which they provide service. The registration shall include the name of the company, its address, its officers, telephone numbers, and customer service and complaint procedures. Counties and cities may charge these other video providers operating in the state a fee to cover the reasonable cost of administering this division.

(p) Nothing in this division limits any power of a city, county, or city and county or video provider to adopt and enforce service standards and consumer protection standards which exceed those established in this division.

(q) The legislative body of the city, county, or city and county, may, by ordinance, provide a schedule of penalties for the material breach by a video provider of subdivisions (a) to (n), inclusive. No monetary penalties shall be assessed for a material breach where the breach is out of the reasonable control of the video provider. Further, no monetary penalties may be imposed prior to the effective date of this section. Any schedule of monetary penalties adopted pursuant to this section shall in no event exceed two hundred dollars ($200) for each day of each material breach, not to exceed six hundred dollars ($600) for each occurrence of material breach. However, where a material breach of any of subdivisions (a) to (n), inclusive, has occurred and the city, county, or city and county has provided notice and a fine or penalty has been assessed, in a subsequent material breach of the same nature occurring within 12 months, the penalties may be increased by the city, county, or city and county to a maximum of four hundred dollars ($400) for each day of each material breach, not to exceed twelve hundred dollars ($1,200) for each occurrence of the material breach. Where a third or further material breach of the same nature occurs within those same 12 months, and the city, county, or city and county has provided notice and a fine or penalty has been assessed, the penalties may be increased to a maximum of one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each day of each material breach, not to exceed three thousand dollars ($3,000) for each occurrence of the material breach. With respect to video providers subject to a franchise or license, any monetary penalties assessed under this section shall be reduced dollar for dollar to the extent any liquidated damage or penalty provision of a current cable television ordinance, franchise contract, or license agreement imposes a monetary obligation upon a video provider for the same customer service failures, and no other monetary damages may be assessed. However, this section shall in no way affect the right of franchising authorities concerning assessment or renewal of a cable television franchise under the provisions of the Cable Communications Policy Act of 1984.

(r) If the legislative body of a city, county, or city and county adopts a schedule of monetary penalties pursuant to subdivision (o), the following procedures shall be followed:

(1) The city, county, or city and county shall give the video provider written notice of any alleged material breaches of the consumer service standards of this division and allow the video provider at least 30 days from receipt of the notice to remedy the specified breach.

(2) A material breach for the purposes of assessing penalties shall be deemed to have occurred for each day, following the expiration of the period specified in paragraph (1), that any material breach has not been remedied by the video provider, irrespective of the number of customers affected.

(s) Notwithstanding subdivision (m), or any other provision of law, this section shall not preclude a party affected by this section from utilizing any judicial remedy available to that party without regard to this section. Actions taken by a local legislative body, including a franchising authority, pursuant to this section shall not be binding upon a court of law. For this purpose a court of law may conduct de novo review of any issues presented.

(t) If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

(u) This section shall become operative on September 1, 1993.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 385

An act to amend Section 1190 of the Harbors and Navigation Code, relating to pilotage, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor August 30, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1190 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1190. (a) Every vessel spoken inward or outward bound, shall pay the following rate of bar pilotage through the Golden Gate and into or out of the Bays of San Francisco, San Pablo, and Suisun:

(1) Seven dollars and thirty-five cents ($7.35) per draft foot of the vessel's deepest draft and fractions of a foot pro rata, and an additional charge of 64.88 mills per high gross registered ton.

(A) This additional charge of 64.88 mills may be augmented by an incremental rate of 0.78 additional mill for each pilot appointed by the board in excess of 60 pilots.

(B) In addition to the rate augmentation specified in subparagraph (A), the additional charge of 64.88 mills per high gross registered ton shall be adjusted quarterly effective on April 1, July 1, October 1, and January 1 of each year based solely upon a quarterly recalculation of actual gross registered tonnage made during the quarter preceding the effective date of change, based upon the most recent four quarters' traffic volume. This quarterly adjustment shall be calculated by the fiduciary selected by the board pursuant to Section 1162. The fiduciary shall determine the quarterly adjusted rate by a calculation wherein the total revenue to be generated by the mill rate, as approved by the board at a public hearing on May 26, 1994, pursuant to Section 1201.6, is the dividend and the total of the actual gross registered tonnage from the four most recent quarters preceding the quarter ending immediately before the effective date of the adjustment is the divisor. The resultant quotient, calculated to the nearest one-hundredth of a mill, shall be the new mill rate effective on the first day of the succeeding quarter and will remain in effect for that quarter or until otherwise adjusted.

(C) If the actual cost to the pilots during 1995 for extraordinary maintenance and repair of two pilot boats is less than two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000), the board shall temporarily reduce the additional charge proportionate to the savings.

(2) A minimum charge for bar pilotage shall be six hundred dollars ($600) for each vessel piloted.

(3) The vessel's deepest draft shall be the maximum draft attained, on a stillwater basis, at any part of the vessel during the course of such transit inward or outward.

(b) The rate specified in subdivision (a) shall apply only to a pilotage which passes through the Golden Gate to or from the high seas to or from a berth within an area bounded by the Southern Pacific Bridge to the north and Hunter's Point to the south. The rate for pilotage to or from the high seas to or from a point past the Southern Pacific Bridge or Hunter's Point shall include a movement fee in addition to the basic bar pilotage rate as specified by the board pursuant to Section 1191.

(c) The rate established in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) shall be for a trip from the high seas to dock or from the dock to high seas. The rate specified in Section 1191 shall not be charged by pilots for docking and undocking vessels. This subdivision does not apply to the rates charged by inland pilots for their services.

(d) The board shall determine the number of pilots to be licensed based on the 1986 manpower study adopted by the board.

CHAPTER 386

An act to amend Section 87103 of the Government Code, relating to the Political Reform Act of 1974.

[Became law without Governor's signature. Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 87103 of the Government Code is amended to read:

87103. A public official has a financial interest in a decision within the meaning of Section 87100 if it is reasonably foreseeable that the decision will have a material financial effect, distinguishable from its effect on the public generally, on the official, a member of his or her immediate family, or on any of the following:

(a) Any business entity in which the public official has a direct or indirect investment worth one thousand dollars ($1,000) or more.

(b) Any real property in which the public official has a direct or indirect interest worth one thousand dollars ($1,000) or more.

(c) Any source of income, other than gifts and other than loans by a commercial lending institution in the regular course of business on terms available to the public without regard to official status, aggregating two hundred fifty dollars ($250) or more in value provided to, received by or promised to the public official within 12 months prior to the time when the decision is made.

(d) Any business entity in which the public official is a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or holds any position of management.

For purposes of this section, indirect investment or interest means any investment or interest owned by the spouse or dependent child of a public official, by an agent on behalf of a public official, or by a business entity or trust in which the official, the official's agents, spouse, and dependent children own directly, indirectly, or beneficially a 10-percent interest or greater.

SEC. 2. The amount of the value of gifts subject to subdivision (e) of Section 87103 of the Government Code shall, effective January 1, 1995, be two hundred seventy dollars ($270) until adjusted by the Fair Political Practices Commission at the same time and in the same amount as the amount determined pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 89504.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 4. The Legislature finds and declares that the provisions of this act further the purpose of the Political Reform Act of 1974 within the meaning of subdivision (a) of Section 81012 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 387

An act calling a special election to be consolidated with the general election of November 8, 1994, to take effect immediately, as an act calling an election.

[Approved by Governor August 31, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State August 31, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A special election is hereby called to be held throughout the state on November 8, 1994. The election shall be consolidated with the general election to be held on that date. The consolidated election shall be held and conducted in all respects as if there were only one election and only one form of ballot shall be used.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Sections 3525 and 10218 of the Elections Code, or any other provision of law, at the election called by this act the following measures, if enacted during the 1993–94 Regular Session, shall be submitted to the voters and shall appear on the ballot of that election: Senate Constitutional Amendment 7, Assembly Constitutional Amendment 37, Assembly Constitutional Amendment 40, and Assembly Constitutional Amendment 46.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 10302.5 of the Elections Code, the public shall be permitted to examine the condensed statement of the ballot title for the measures specified in Section 2 of this act for not more than eight days. Any voter may seek a writ of mandate for the purpose of requiring any statement of the ballot title, or portion thereof, to be amended or deleted only within that eight-day period.

SEC. 4. This is an act calling an election pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (c) of Section 8 of Article IV of the Constitution, and shall take effect immediately.

SEC. 5. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 388

An act to add Chapter 4.1 (commencing with Section 4451) to Division 2 of the Public Utilities Code, and to add Part 21 (commencing with Section 42000) to Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to public utilities.

[Approved by Governor August 31, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 4.1 (commencing with Section 4451) is added to Division 2 of the Public Utilities Code, to read:

CHAPTER 4.1 ENFORCEMENT OF FEDERAL PIPELINE SAFETY STANDARDS FOR PROPANE OPERATORS

4451. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Supplier" means a person or corporation, other than a public utility, who sells propane and arranges for its delivery to the operator's tank.

(b) "Distribution system" means a system of pipes, operated by a person or corporation other than a public utility, serving 10 or more customers, within a citywide area, an apartment house, a condominium, a cluster of homes, a shopping center, a combination of any of the above, or a mobilehome park with two or more customers, which is connected to tank or tanks, for the purpose of distribution of propane to the end customers.

(c) "Operator" means the owner of the mobilehome park or the distribution system, or the designated responsible employee, manager, or legal representative.

(d) "Tank" means a vessel for the storage and distribution of propane.

(e) "Department" means the Department of Housing and Community Development.

(f) "Local enforcement agency" means the city, county, or city and county that has assumed the responsibility for the enforcement of Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 18300) of Part 2.1 of Division 13 of the Health and Safety Code.

(g) "Federal law" or "federal pipeline standards" means the Federal Natural Gas Pipeline Safety Act of 1968 (49 U.S.C. Sec. 1671 et seq.) and the regulations contained in Parts 190, 191, and 192 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(h) "Propane" means propane gas, also known as liquid petroleum gas or LPG.

(i) "NFPA 58" means National Fire Protection Association Standard number 58, which covers rules and standards for propane service. The Legislature finds and declares that NFPA 58 is overseen by a national committee that ensures that the standard incorporates the latest in current and approved technology.

(j) "Commission" means the Public Utilities Commission.

(k) "Board" means the State Board of Equalization.

(l) "General Order (or GO) 112" means the commission's general order that sets out rules governing design, construction, testing, maintenance, and operation of utility gas gathering, transmission, and distribution piping systems. GO 112 incorporates, by reference, all the pertinent federal laws defined in subdivision (g).

4452. (a) On or before July 1, 1995, the commission shall undertake a propane safety inspection and enforcement program for propane distribution systems to ensure compliance with the federal pipeline standards by propane operators within the state. The commission may adopt rules, which shall be at least as stringent as the federal law, in order to protect the health and safety of customers served by propane distribution systems. Nothing in this chapter prohibits the commission from adopting more stringent standards than those in the federal pipeline standards.

(b) As part of this propane safety inspection and enforcement program, the commission inspectors may:

(1) Enter public or private property as is necessary to carry out this chapter.

(2) Enter and inspect all propane distribution systems, wherever situated, and inspect all documents (including those records listed in subdivision (a) of Section 4453), accommodations, equipment, or paraphernalia used in connection with or related to the distribution system.

(c) The commission's propane safety inspection and enforcement program shall not cover propane used by any of the following:

(1) Single customers served by single tanks.

(2) Distribution systems, other than mobilehome parks, that serve less than 10 customers.

(3) Recreational vehicles and appliances.

(4) Vehicular fuel.

(5) Agricultural, commercial serving less than 10 customers, industrial, and refinery systems.

(6) Cylinder exchange operations.

4453. (a) The commission shall conduct an initial inspection of each distribution system which shall take place on the premises. The inspection shall determine if the distribution system falls under the commission's safety program pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 4452. If it is determined that it does not, then the inspection shall be terminated immediately. Otherwise, the inspection, and all followup inspections, shall consist of all of the following:

(1) A review of the adequacy of the operator's operation and maintenance plan, emergency plan, and system map or maps.

(2) Evaluation of the information contained in the required annual report.

(3) A review of the records of leak surveys and repairs, corrosion control, and cathodic protection of the system.

(4) If deemed appropriate from the review of the records, a physical inspection of the propane distribution system to ensure compliance with the federal law, the applicable sections of General Order 112 relating to the distribution system, NFPA 58, and any rules and orders adopted by the commission pursuant to this chapter.

(b) If the operator demonstrates compliance pursuant to subdivision (a), the distribution system shall thereafter be inspected once every five years for distribution systems with less than 100 customers, once every three years for distribution systems with 100 or more but less than 200 customers, and once every two years for distribution systems with 200 or more customers. The subsequent inspections shall consist of the elements specified in subdivision (a). However, the commission may institute an inspection for a distribution system of any size, at any time, if it determines, following a review of a subsequent annual report or receipt of a complaint, that an additional inspection is necessary.

(c) If the operator does not demonstrate compliance pursuant to subdivision (a), the distribution system may be inspected on an annual basis until such time as there is compliance, and thereafter, shall be inspected as specified in subdivision (b).

(d) If upon the initial inspection or any subsequent inspection, the commission determines the presence of a propane leak or other safety hazard in the distribution system that poses a significant or immediate danger to the health and safety of the customers, the distribution system may be inspected more frequently until the condition is corrected. Once corrected, the distribution system shall be inspected as specified in subdivision (b).

(e) The commission may require an operator to provide necessary assistance to commission inspectors in entering and inspecting the distribution systems, including, but not limited to:

(1) Allowing commission inspectors entry to the premises.

(2) Having, upon notice, the necessary records specified in subdivision (a) available for the commission inspector's review during the physical inspection.

(3) Assisting in surveying or uncovering portions of distribution system for purposes of inspection, verification, and testing.

(f) It shall be a violation for an operator to willfully obstruct a commission inspector's access, entry, or inspection of a distribution system.

(g) The commission may enforce subdivision (f) by issuing a citation in the manner specified in subdivision (b) of Section 4457, and shall notify the department or local enforcement agency, the supplier serving the distribution system, the State Fire Marshal, local fire districts, and the operator of any citation issued pursuant to this subdivision.

(h) If the commission determined, upon inspection or a receipt of a complaint or disclosure, that a distribution system pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 4452 is serving more than nine customers, then the distribution system shall be subject to the commission's safety program as set forth out in this chapter.

4454. (a) Every operator of a system serving 10 or more units, with the exception of mobilehome parks operators, shall prepare and submit to the commission annually a report on the distribution system. The report shall be submitted by March 31 of each year and shall cover the previous calendar year.

(b) In the case of mobilehome parks, the report shall be submitted to the commission at the same time the annual application for a permit to operate the mobilehome park is submitted to the department or the local enforcement agency.

(c) The report shall be prepared using a form or forms required by the commission, and shall contain the information the commission finds necessary to carry out the intent of this chapter. In developing the form or forms, the commission shall consult with interested parties to ensure that the form contains no more than the necessary and appropriate information to carry out the intent of this chapter.

(d) Upon receipt of the report, the commission shall examine the report for violations of either applicable federal pipeline safety laws or regulations or any applicable commission rules or orders. The commission may inspect the operator's distribution system for the purpose of verifying whether or not a violation of federal or state pipeline safety laws or regulations, or NFPA 58 rules, has occurred or is occurring.

4454.5. (a) Every operator shall maintain all of the following:

(1) A map, drawing, or diagram that indicates the location of the distribution system's main and service lines, tank (or tanks), regulators, the identity and location of key valves, and the identity of the supplier.

(2) A copy of each annual report that has been submitted pursuant to the federal law or this chapter.

(3) A copy of any record of leak surveys and repairs, corrosion control, and cathodic protection of the system.

(4) An operation and maintenance plan, and an emergency plan.

(b) The information and records listed in subdivision (a) shall be provided to any subsequent operator of the distribution system upon the sale, transfer, or other conveyance of title to the distribution system.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, there shall be no penalty pursuant to Section 4457 imposed upon a subsequent operator of the distribution system who has not received the information and records listed in subdivision (a) from the transferring operator or upon any operator who fails to have the information and records for any period on or before the effective date of this section.

4455. Except as specified in Section 4456, after each inspection, the commission shall furnish the operator, or a representative designated in writing by the operator, with a written copy of the inspection report within 30 days of the inspection. The report shall indicate any violations of applicable federal or state pipeline safety regulations. The operator shall then file, within 30 days, a written response with the commission that acknowledges receipt of the report and specifies a compliance plan for correcting the safety violations, including, if appropriate, a timetable for completing necessary repairs or improvements to the distribution system.

4456. (a) If the commission determines the presence of a propane leak or other safety hazard in the distribution system, which poses a significant or immediate danger to the health and safety of the distribution system's customers, it shall notify the supplier serving the distribution system; the operator, who shall provide notice to the affected customers; and local authorities, as deemed necessary.

(b) The commission shall require the operator to take immediate steps to correct and repair the propane leak or other hazard. The operator of a mobilehome park shall obtain permits from the department or local enforcement agency, as required by Part 2.1 (commencing with Section 18200) of Division 13 of the Health and Safety Code. Other operators shall obtain permits from local agencies, such as the county or fire district. The commission may direct the serving supplier to terminate service to the tank if an operator does not comply with this requirement. The cost of repair or corrective action shall be borne by the operator.

4457. (a) Any operator who commits a violation enumerated in subdivision (f) of Section 4453 or who fails to file the report required by Section 4454 or fails to comply with a directive of the commission pursuant to Section 4456 is subject to a civil penalty of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each day that the violation, or failure to file the report or respond to the directive continues, but not to exceed two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) for a single violation or related series of violations. The commission shall enforce this subdivision.

(b) The commission may enforce subdivision (a) in the following manner:

(1) By issuing a citation to the operator, as defined by Section 18603 of the Health and Safety Code. In the event of a violation that constitutes a significant or immediate danger to the health and safety of the customers, the citation shall be issued immediately and served upon the responsible person or the holder of the permit to operate the distribution system. The operator shall be responsible for the correction of any violations for which a citation has been given pursuant to this subdivision.

(2) Service of the citation shall be effected either personally or by first-class mail. Each citation shall be in writing and shall describe with particularity the nature of the violation, including a reference to the statutory provisions or regulations alleged to have been violated, as well as any penalty provided by law for failure to make a timely correction. The citation shall fix the earliest feasible time, as determined by the commission, for the elimination of the condition constituting the alleged violation.

(3) A distribution system operator may request an informal conference with the commission staff to challenge any citation alleging a violation, or any directive to correct a violation. The informal conference, any subsequent hearings, or appeals of a decision of the commission shall be conducted in accordance with the rules and procedures prescribed by the commission.

(c) The remedies provided by this chapter are cumulative and shall not be construed to supersede other provisions of law providing sanctions for violators of this chapter, including, but not limited to, Sections 2112 and 2113.

(d) Nothing in this chapter affects the tort liability of the operator of a distribution system.

4458. (a) The commission, together with the board, shall establish a uniform billing per gallon of propane (or, alternatively, a uniform billing per space or customer) surcharge to be paid by operators with distribution systems subject to this chapter on propane purchased for distribution to their customers. The surcharge shall be designed to recover the commission's costs of the propane safety inspection and enforcement program required by this chapter, and to recover the board's costs of collecting and administering the surcharge. The board shall collect the surcharge from the operators and deposit it into the Propane Safety Inspection and Enforcement Program Trust Fund. In the case of a mobilehome park, the surcharge shall be assessed on a per space or lot basis, shall not exceed twenty-five cents ($0.25) per month, and shall not be collected by the board on less than a quarterly basis.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law or local ordinance, rule, regulation, or initiative measure, the operator shall be entitled to recover the surcharge collected pursuant to subdivision (a) from its customers. However, the charge to any customer, to allow for the operator's recovery, shall not exceed the actual surcharge.

(c) The board, pursuant to Part 21 (commencing with Section 42000) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, shall annually transfer funds from the Propane Safety Inspection and Enforcement Trust Fund and shall deposit them in the Public Utilities Commission's Utilities Reimbursement Account in the General Fund, which shall be used, upon appropriation, for the purposes of this chapter.

4459. The commission may adopt rules and orders to carry out this chapter.

4460. (a) In each distribution system, the operator shall post on the premises the current emergency telephone numbers for, at a minimum, the operator, supplier, the fire department, and the responsible person as defined by Section 18603 of the Health and Safety Code, and shall maintain on the premises a copy of an emergency procedures that shall be used in the event there is a propane leak or other safety hazard in the distribution system. The operator shall inform each of the customers of the location of these emergency telephone numbers and the emergency procedure.

(b) Any operator who fails to comply with subdivision (a) shall be subject to the same penalty as set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 4457. The commission shall enforce this subdivision pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 4457.

4461. Prior to January 1, 1996, the Occupational Safety and Health Standards Board shall adopt by reference the 1992 edition of NFPA 58 Standard for the Storage and Handling of Liquified Petroleum Gasses, or as that 1992 edition may be subsequently amended or supplemented. It is the intent of the Legislature that the NFPA 58 Standard supersede any inconsistent state standards, including, but not limited to, Sections 470 to 494, inclusive, of Chapter 4 of Title 8 of the California Administrative Code. Nothing in this section prohibits the Occupational Safety and Health Standards Board from adopting more stringent standards than those in NFPA 58.

SEC. 2. Part 21 (commencing with Section 42000) is added to Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

PART 21. PROPANE SAFETY INSPECTION AND ENFORCEMENT PROGRAM SURCHARGE AND TRUST FUND

42000. As used in this part:

(a) "Board" means the State Board of Equalization.

(b) "Commission" means the California Public Utilities Commission.

(c) "Trust fund" means the Propane Safety Inspection and Enforcement Program Trust Fund.

(d) "Distribution system" means a system of pipes, operated by a person or corporation other than a public utility, serving 10 or more customers, within a citywide area, an apartment house, a condominium, a cluster of homes, a shopping center, a combination of any of this above, or a mobilehome park with two or more customers, which is connected to a tank or tanks, for the purpose of distribution of propane to the end customers.

(e) "Operator" means the owner of the mobilehome park or the distribution system, or the designated responsible employee, manager, or legal representative.

(f) "Tank" means a vessel for the storage and distribution of propane.

(g) "Propane" means propane gas, also known as liquid petroleum gas, or LPG.

42001. (a) This chapter hereby creates a trust fund known as Propane Safety Inspection and Enforcement Program Trust Fund. The trust fund shall be administered by the board.

(b) The trust fund shall be used to fully support the funding requirements of the propane safety program of the commission pursuant to Chapter 4.1 (commencing with Section 4451) of Division 2 of the Public Utilities Code.

(c) The trust fund shall also be used to fully support the administrative expenses incurred by the board in its task of administrating the trust fund.

42003. (a) The board, together with the commission, shall establish a uniform billing per gallon of propane sold (or, alternatively, per space or customer served) surcharge to by paid by operators. The surcharge shall be designed to support the commission's propane safety program for multicustomers' systems pursuant to Section 4458 of the Public Utilities Code, as well as to recover the board's costs in administering the trust fund. The surcharge shall be collected from the operators, and deposited into the trust fund. In the case of a mobilehome park, the surcharge shall be assessed on a per space or lot basis, shall not exceed twenty-five cents ($0.25) per month, and shall not be collected by the board on less than a quarterly basis.

(b) The board shall annually transfer funds from the trust fund and shall deposit them in the commission's Utilities Reimbursement Account in the General Fund, which shall be used upon appropriation by the Legislature, for the purposes of Chapter 4.1 (commencing with Section 4451) of Division 2 of the Public Utilities Code.

(c) The board shall annually transfer funds from the trust fund and shall deposit them in the board's Reimbursement Account in the General Fund, which shall be used, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for the purposes of administering the trust fund.

42004. (a) The board, in administering the trust fund, shall be responsible for identification of the pertinent operators, for the collection of the surcharges from the operators, and for disbursement of the funds. The commission shall assist the board in identifying the operators.

(b) The board may use a balancing account, in conjunction with the trust fund, to account for any overcollection or undercollection on a yearly basis.

(c) The board's administrative responsibility and surcharge collection shall exempt all propane used by the following:

(1) Agricultural, commercial serving less than 10 customers, industrial, and refinery systems.

(2) Recreational vehicles and appliances.

(3) Vehicular fuel.

(4) Single customers served by single tanks.

(5) Multicustomer systems, other than mobilehome parks, which serve less than 10 customers.

(6) Cylinder exchange operations.

(d) The board may adopt rules and orders to carry out this chapter. However, on matters that involve setting surcharges and identification of operators, the board shall coordinate with the commission to set the proper policy and procedures.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 389

An act to amend Sections 22754.35, 68112, 68113, 68502.5, 69753, 71341, 72190, 77203, and 77205.1 of, to add Sections 22754.3, 68114.9, 68502.7, 77203.6, 77300, and 77301 to, and to repeal Sections 74191.5, 74198, 74199, and 74200 of, the Government Code, and to add Section 1462.25 to the Penal Code, relating to courts, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 31, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22754.3 is added to the Government Code, to read:

22754.3. Any person who retired under the Judges' Retirement System as a municipal or justice court judge, or eligible surviving spouse or dependent of such a person, or any municipal or justice court judge who separated on deferred retirement status pursuant to Section 75033 or 75033.5 prior to July 21, 1994, shall be entitled to enroll himself or herself in any health plan provided under this part without restriction, provided that person enrolls on or before December 31, 1994. Neither the system, the state, nor the employer shall have any obligation to seek out and notify potentially eligible enrollees. All such enrollees shall be subject to all of the terms and conditions of this part and any regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

SEC. 2. Section 22754.35 of the Government Code is amended to read:

22754.35. (a) As used in this part, "employee" includes any judge of a municipal or justice court.

(b) As used in this part, "annuitant" includes any judge of a municipal or justice court retired under the Judges' Retirement System.

(c) For purposes of this part, a municipal or justice court judge's entitlement shall be the same as a superior court judge in terms of health benefits and employer contributions, and the continuation of health benefits coverage shall be administered by the board.

(d) The state shall provide each sitting and retired municipal court and justice court judge with health, dental, and vision care benefits equal to and in the same manner as the health, dental, and vision care benefits provided to superior court judges. These benefits shall be paid from funds provided pursuant to Section 77006.5.

(e) No judge shall have any salary or benefits reduced solely by reason of the enactment of this section.

(f) If a judge opts to receive health, dental, or vision care benefits from the state, the county shall reduce the judge's compensation by an amount equal to the amount the state pays for his or her health, dental, or vision care benefits.

SEC. 3. Section 68112 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68112. (a) On or before March 1, 1992, each superior, municipal, and justice court in each county, in consultation with the local bar, shall prepare and submit to the Judicial Council for review and approval a trial court coordination plan designed to achieve maximum utilization of judicial and other court resources and statewide cost reductions in court operations of at least 3 percent in the 1992–93 fiscal year, a further 2 percent in the 1993–94 fiscal year, and a further 2 percent in the 1994–95 fiscal year, as applicable. The cost reduction shall be based on the prior year actual expenditures, plus any amount reduced from the budget for court operations by a county as a result of any reduction in state funding made pursuant to Section 13308, increased by the percentage change in population for the prior calendar year and the Department of Commerce implicit price deflator for state and local government for the prior calendar year. The coordination plan for each court shall be reviewed and approved by the Judicial Council on or before July 1, 1992. Thereafter, commencing in 1995 each court shall submit an updated coordination plan to the Judicial Council every other year on or before March 1, for review and approval by July 1. Any plan disapproved by the Judicial Council shall be revised and resubmitted within 60 days of notification of disapproval. The Judicial Council may by rule exempt any court from the requirement of filing a new coordination plan for any year if the court has (1) totally consolidated administrative functions under a single administrative entity, and (2) adopted and implemented a coordination plan in which the participating superior court and each participating municipal court share each other's work so that cases in the participating courts are substantially assigned without regard to whether a judge is on the superior court or the municipal court, and which provides for procedures that implement that sharing of work.

(b) The coordination plan shall take into consideration the elements of those plans specified in standards adopted by the Judicial Council and applicable case processing time standards adopted by the Judicial Council. The standards adopted by the Judicial Council shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(1) The use of blanket cross-assignments allowing judges to hear civil, criminal, or other types of cases within the jurisdiction of another court.

(2) The coordinated or joint use of subordinate judicial officers to hear or try matters.

(3) The coordinated, joint use, sharing or merger of court support staff among trial courts within a county or across counties. In a county with a population of less than 100,000 the coordination plan need not involve merger of superior and justice court staffs if the court can reasonably demonstrate that the maintenance of separate administrative staffs would be more cost-effective and provide better service.

(4) The assignment of civil, criminal, or other types of cases for hearing or trial, regardless of jurisdictional boundaries, to any available judicial officer.

(5) The assignment of any type of case to a judge for all purposes commencing with the filing of the case and regardless of jurisdictional boundaries.

(6) The establishment of separate calendars or divisions to hear a particular type of case.

(7) In rural counties, the use of all court facilities for hearings and trials of all types of cases and to accept for filing documents in any case before any court in the county participating in the coordination plan.

(8) The coordinated or joint use of alternative dispute resolution programs such as arbitration.

(9) The unification of the trial courts within a county to the maximum extent permitted by the Constitution.

(10) The joint development of automated accounting and case-processing systems, including joint use of moneys available under Section 68090.8.

(c) In preparing coordination plans a court or courts in a county may petition the Judicial Council to permit division of the court or courts into smaller administrative units where a courtwide plan would impose an undue burden because of the number of judges or the physical location of the divisions of the court or courts.

(d) In preparing coordination plans, the courts are strongly encouraged to develop a plan that includes all superior, municipal, and justice courts in the county.

SEC. 4. Section 68113 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68113. (a) The superior, municipal, and justice courts in each county shall submit a report to the Judicial Council on progress towards achieving the cost reduction goals associated with the coordination plans and factors impacting the cost of court operations and the collection of revenues. The report shall also include financial information prepared by the county auditor on expenditures for court operations and revenues according to a uniform chart of accounts adopted by the Judicial Council. The reports shall be submitted quarterly on or before the first day of the third month following the end of the quarter, except the fourth-quarter report shall be submitted on the first day of the fourth month following the end of the fourth quarter.

(b) For purposes of the reporting requirements of this section, a court or courts in a county may petition the Judicial Council to permit division of the court or courts into smaller administrative units corresponding to the organization of the court or courts under a coordination plan where reporting courtwide would impose an undue burden because of the number of judges or the physical location of the divisions of the court or courts.

(c) The Judicial Council shall submit a report to the Legislature on or before November 1 following the end of each fiscal year setting forth all of the following:

(1) The revenues and expenditures for each superior, municipal, and justice court in the state and statewide totals.

(2) A summary of the savings achieved by each county and statewide.

(3) Factors impacting the cost of court operations and the collection of revenues.

SEC. 5. Section 68114.9 is added to the Government Code, to read:

68114.9. To facilitate implementation of a coordination plan approved pursuant to Section 68112:

(a) The clerk of the municipal court may authorize personnel of the municipal court to be cross-deputized by the clerk of the superior court to perform comparable court duties. Personnel deputized pursuant to this section shall serve without additional compensation.

(b) The clerk of the superior court may authorize personnel of the clerk of the superior court to be cross-deputized by the clerk of the municipal court to perform comparable court duties. Personnel deputized pursuant to this section shall serve without additional compensation.

SEC. 6. Section 68502.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68502.5. (a) The Judicial Council shall provide by rule for the appointment of a standing Trial Court Budget Commission and the deadlines for meeting its various responsibilities. The commission shall have the authority to:

(1) Receive budget requests from the trial courts. Trial courts shall send to the county board of supervisors a copy of their proposed budgets and any revisions or appeals at the time their budget requests are submitted to the Trial Court Budget Commission, pursuant to this section. The counties may submit timely comments to the commission regarding the contents of the proposed budgets of their respective trial courts. The commission shall consider the counties' comments when determining appropriate budgets for the courts.

(2) Review the trial courts' budget requests and evaluate them against performance criteria established by the Judicial Council by which a court's performance, level of coordination, and efficiency can be measured.

(3) Annually recommend to the Judicial Council for its approval the projected cost in the subsequent fiscal year of court operations as defined in Section 77003 for each trial court. This estimation shall serve as the basis for court budgets, which shall be developed programmatically by court function, as approved by the Judicial Council, for comparison purposes and to delineate the funding responsibilities.

(4) Annually prepare a recommended schedule for the allocation of moneys to individual courts and a recommended overall trial court budget for approval by the Judicial Council and forwarding to the Governor for inclusion in the Governor's proposed State Budget. The recommended schedule shall be based on the performance criteria established pursuant to paragraph (2) and on a minimum standard established by the Judicial Council for the operation and staffing of all trial court operations. This minimum standard shall be modeled on court operations using all reasonable and available measures to increase court efficiency and coordination. The schedule of allocations shall assure that all trial courts receive funding for the minimum operating and staffing standards before funding operating and staffing requests above the minimum standards, and shall include incentives and rewards for any trial court's implementation of efficiencies and cost saving measures.

(5) Reallocate funds in accordance with Judicial Council rules during the course of the fiscal year to ensure equal access to the trial courts by the public, to improve trial court operations, and to meet trial court emergencies. Reallocations shall be limited to 15 percent of that portion of any court's annual budget amount funded by the state. Neither the state nor the counties shall have any obligation to replace moneys appropriated for trial courts and reallocated pursuant to this paragraph.

(6) Allocate funds in the Trial Court Improvement Fund in accordance to Judicial Council rules to ensure equal access to trial courts by the public, to improve trial court operations, and to meet trial court emergencies.

(7) Upon approval of the trial courts' budget by the Legislature, prepare during the course of the fiscal year an allocation schedule for quarterly payments to the counties, consistent with Sections 68085 and 77205.1, which shall be submitted to the Controller's office by the 10th day of the month in which payments are to be made.

(8) Establish rules, pursuant to the authority of the Judicial Council, regarding a court's authority to transfer trial court funding moneys from one functional category to another in order to address needs in any functional category.

(9) At the request of the presiding judge of a trial court, conduct an independent review of the funding level of the court to determine whether it is adequate to enable the court to discharge its statutory and constitutional responsibilities.

(10) From time to time, review the level of fees charged by the courts for various services and prepare recommended adjustments for approval and forwarding to the Legislature by the Judicial Council.

(b) Members of the commission shall receive no compensation from the state for their services. When called into session, they shall receive their actual and necessary expenses for travel, board, and lodging, which shall be paid from the funds appropriated for this use. These expenses shall be appropriated in the manner as the Judicial Council directs, and shall be audited by the Controller in accordance with the rules of the State Board of Control.

SEC. 7. Section 68502.7 is added to the Government Code, to read:

68502.7. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to require the state in any fiscal year to provide money for trial court costs from any state fund that is in excess of the total amount available for disbursement from that fund during the fiscal year. The Trial Court Budget Commission may reallocate moneys pursuant to Section 68502.5 if at any time during the fiscal year it determines that the amount available for disbursement from any state fund will be less than or greater than the amount already allocated from that fund for that fiscal year.

SEC. 8. Section 69753 of the Government Code is amended to read:

69753. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this code, the presiding or sole judge of a superior court may, if the session is held in furtherance of a coordination plan approved under Section 68112 or in the absence of a timely objection in a civil case or proceeding or with the express consent of the parties in a criminal action, direct that a session of the court be held at any place in the county where a municipal or justice court regularly conducts sessions, if:

(1) The judge presiding at the superior court session is a judge of a municipal or justice court or a retired judge assigned to serve as a superior court judge under Section 6 of Article VI of the California Constitution.

(2) The presiding or sole judge of the municipal or justice court has informed the presiding judge of the superior court that the superior court session will not interfere with the normal conduct of municipal or justice court business.

(b) The Judicial Council shall provide by rule for the timely filing of any objection to hearing a civil matter at a municipal or justice court location, and for obtaining the consent of the parties in a criminal action.

SEC. 9. Section 71341 of the Government Code is amended to read:

71341. (a) Sessions of a municipal or justice court may be held at any place or places within the district for which the court is established. The board of supervisors shall designate by ordinance the place or places within the district where sessions of the justice court shall be held. It may change the places if public convenience requires.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the presiding or sole judge of a municipal or justice court may direct that a session of the court be held at any place in the county where any superior, municipal, or justice court regularly conducts sessions, if each of the following applies:

(1) The judge presiding at the court session is a judge of a municipal or justice court or a retired judge assigned to serve as a municipal or justice court judge under Section 6 of Article VI of the Constitution.

(2) The presiding or sole judge of the superior, municipal, or justice court has informed the presiding judge of the municipal or justice court that the court session will not interfere with the normal conduct of court business.

(3) The session is held in furtherance of a coordination plan approved under Section 68112.

Any type of proceeding may be heard in these sessions.

SEC. 10. Section 72190 of the Government Code is amended to read:

72190. Within the jurisdiction of the court and under the direction of the judges, commissioners of municipal courts or justice courts shall exercise all the powers and perform all of the duties authorized by law to be performed by commissioners of superior courts and such additional powers and duties as may be prescribed by law. At the direction of the judges, commissioners may have the same jurisdiction and exercise the same powers and duties as the judges of the court with respect to any infraction or small claims action. The commissioners of municipal courts or justice courts shall possess the same qualifications the law requires of a judge and shall hold office during the pleasure of the court appointing them and shall not engage in the private practice of law. They shall be ex officio deputy clerks.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a commissioner of a municipal court or a justice court of any judicial district in this state who has been duly appointed and has thereafter been retired for service, or a commissioner of a superior court in this state who has been duly appointed and has thereafter been retired from service, may be assigned by the presiding judge or sole judge of a municipal court or a justice court to serve as a court commissioner of the court for any periods of time as he or she is needed for the prompt and efficient discharge of the business of that court. While serving, he or she shall be paid the full compensation of a court commissioner, payable as follows: he or she shall continue to receive his or her retirement allowance, and in addition the county shall pay him or her the amount equal to the difference between the retirement allowance and full compensation. That employment shall not operate to reinstate him or her as a member of the county retirement system or to terminate or suspend his or her retirement rights or allowance, and no deductions shall be made from his or her compensation as contributions to the retirement system.

SEC. 11. Section 74191.5 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 12. Section 74198 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 13. Section 74199 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 14. Section 74200 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 15. Section 77203 of the Government Code is amended to read:

77203. Reimbursement to a county pursuant to this chapter shall be in lieu of any payment for any prior or current program for which reimbursement of state-mandated local programs for the trial courts is claimed, and any payment as provided in Section 77203.6. No claim for reimbursement of a state-mandated local program may be made by an option county for any cost of court operations, nor may any claim be made for state-mandated local programs arising from the enactment of the Trial Court Realignment and Efficiency Act of 1991 (Chapter 90 of the Statutes of 1991) as revised by Chapter 189 of the Statutes of 1991 and Chapter 308 of the Statutes of 1994.

SEC. 16. Section 77203.6 is added to the Government Code, to read:

77203.6. (a) The initial decision by a county to accept state funding pursuant to Section 77300 shall constitute a waiver of all claims for reimbursement for state-mandated local programs not previously approved by the State Board of Control, the Commission on State Mandates, or the courts to the extent the Governor, in his or her discretion, determines that waiver to be appropriate. However, a decision by a county to opt into the system pursuant to Section 77300 beginning with the second half of the 1988–89 fiscal year shall not constitute a waiver of a claim for reimbursement based on a statute chaptered on or before the date the act which added this chapter is chaptered, which is filed in acceptable form on or before the date the act which added this chapter is chaptered. A county may petition the Governor to exempt any such claim from this waiver requirement; and the Governor, in his or her discretion, may grant the exemption in whole or in part. The waiver shall not apply to or otherwise affect any claims accruing after initial notification. Renewal, renegotiation, or subsequent notification to continue in the program shall not constitute a waiver.

(b) The initial decision by a county to accept state funding pursuant to Section 77300 shall constitute a waiver of any claim, cause of action, or action whenever filed, with respect to the Trial Court Funding Act of 1985, Chapter 1607 of the Statutes of 1985, or Chapter 1211 of the Statutes of 1987.

SEC. 17. Section 77205.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

77205.1. (a) Upon appropriation by the Legislature, the Controller shall make quarterly payments of trial court funding on or before the 25th day of that quarter. The quarterly apportionment shall be withheld from any county that is delinquent in making the full transfer of funds pursuant to Section 1463.001 of the Penal Code.

(b) Upon receipt of any delinquent payment, the Controller shall make the quarterly apportionment on or before the 25th day of the month following the month in which the delinquent payment was received from the county. The Controller shall calculate a penalty on any delinquent payment and that amount shall be deducted from the next quarterly apportionment. The penalty shall be calculated by multiplying the amount of the delinquent payment by the Pooled Money Investment Account rate at the end of the prior fiscal year.

(c) Penalty amounts withheld under subdivision (b) shall be allocated by the Judicial Council the following quarter, based upon the recommendations of the Trial Court Budget Commission.

SEC. 18. Section 77300 is added to the Government Code, to read:

77300. (a) A county shall notify the Controller of its decision to accept state funding for a specific fiscal year, on or before March 1 of the preceding fiscal year.

The Controller shall advise the chairpersons of the legislative fiscal committees and the chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee by March 15 of each year regarding those counties that have notified the state of their decision to opt into the system for the succeeding fiscal year.

(b) However, a county that has reached its constitutional spending limit pursuant to Article XIII B of the California Constitution may notify the state of its decision to accept state funding after a successful override election allowing the county to use state funding for local trial courts, to be effective commencing with the next quarter following notification.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit the state and a county, by mutual agreement between the Director of Finance and the parties signing the resolution accepting state funding, from entering into a two-year term.

By accepting state funding of trial courts, the county agrees to perform all duties and provide services required by this chapter and all other provisions of law.

SEC. 19. Section 77301 is added to the Government Code, to read:

77301. A county shall notify the state of its decision to accept state funding by transmitting to the Controller a resolution agreeing without qualification or condition to be bound by the provisions of this chapter in consideration for state funding of trial courts in that county.

SEC. 20. Section 1462.25 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

1462.25. (a) A defendant formally charged with a violation of Vehicle Code Section 14601 in one court ("the first court"), against whom a formal charge of a violation of Vehicle Code Section 14601 is pending in one or more other courts, may state in writing his or her agreement to plead guilty or nolo contendere to some or all of the charges pending in the other courts, to waive trial or hearing in the other courts, and to consent to disposition of the case in the first court. The defendant's agreement is ineffective unless the district attorney for the other county approves in writing. Upon receipt of the defendant's agreement and the district attorney's approval, the clerk of court in the other court shall transfer the pending matter to the first court, and transmit the papers or certified copies. The prosecution of each transferred matter shall proceed in the first court as part of the case pending against the defendant there, but shall be limited to proceedings upon the defendant's plea of guilty or nolo contendere, and sentencing or probation. If the defendant pleads not guilty, the clerk shall retransfer the transferred case to the court of origin, and the prosecution shall be resumed in that court. The defendant's statement that the defendant agreed to plead guilty or nolo contendere shall not be used against the defendant.

(b) The procedure specified in subdivision (a) may be used only if the defendant is represented by counsel in the other courts, or the defendant has expressly waived his or her right to counsel in the other courts.

(c) A defendant may request appointment of counsel in the other courts by a written request. Upon receiving the defendant's written request, the other court shall appoint counsel to represent the defendant if he or she otherwise qualifies for appointed counsel.

(d) The appearance of the defendant in proceedings transferred pursuant to subdivision (a) shall not commence the running of time limits under Section 859b, 860, 861, or 1382.

SEC. 21. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 22. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide adequate trial court funding for the 1994–95 fiscal year, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 390

An act to amend Section 69955 of the Government Code, relating to court reporters.

[Approved by Governor August 31, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 69955 of the Government Code is amended to read:

69955. (a) As used in this section, "reporting notes" are the reporting notes of all court reporters employed to report in the courts of California, who may be known as official and pro tempore court reporters. Reporting notes are official records of the court. Reporting notes shall be kept by the reporter taking the notes in a place designated by the court, or, upon order of the court, delivered to the clerk of the court.

(b) The reporting notes may be kept in any form of communication or representation including paper, electronic, or magnetic media or other technology capable of reproducing for transcription the testimony of the proceedings according to standards or guidelines for the preservation and reproduction of the medium adopted by the American National Standards Institute or the Association for Information and Image Management. Reporting notes shall be stored in an environment free from excessive moisture, temperature variation, and electromagnetic fields if stored on a medium other than paper.

(c) The reporting notes shall be labeled with the date recorded, the department number of the court, and the name of the court reporter. The reporting notes shall be indexed for convenient retrieval and access. Instructions for access to data stored on a medium other than paper shall be documented.

(d) If the reporting notes are kept in any form other than paper, one duplicate backup copy of the notes shall be stored in a manner and place that reasonably assures its preservation.

(e) Reporting notes produced under subdivision (b) may be destroyed upon the order of the court after 10 years from the taking of the notes in criminal proceedings and after five years from the taking of the notes in all other proceedings, unless the notes report proceedings in capital felony cases including the preliminary hearing. No reporting notes in a capital felony case proceeding shall be destroyed until such time as the Supreme Court on request by the court clerk authorizes the destruction.

(f) A periodic review of the media on which the reporting notes are stored shall be conducted to assure that a storage medium is not obsolete and that current technology is capable of accessing and reproducing the records for the required retention period.

(g) If the reporting notes of an official or pro tempore court reporter have not been delivered to the clerk of the court, the notes shall be delivered by the reporter to the clerk of the court upon the reporter's retirement, resignation, dismissal, termination of appointment, or in the case of any other absence for a period of more than 30 days or longer as designated by the court. Upon the order of the court, the notes shall be returned to the reporter upon the reporter's return from such absence. In the event of the reporter's death, the notes shall be delivered to the clerk of the court by the reporter's personal representative.

(h) If reporting notes delivered to the clerk of the court are to be transcribed, the court reporter who took the notes shall be given the first opportunity to make the transcription, unless the reporter cannot be located, refuses to transcribe the notes, or is found to be incompetent to transcribe the notes.

(i) A court reporter shall be reimbursed for the actual cost of the medium on which the reporting notes are kept, whether on paper, diskette, or other media in compliance with this section.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 391

An act to amend Section 4 of Chapter 620 of the Statutes of 1989, to amend Section 3 of Chapter 625 of the Statutes of 1991, and to repeal Section 9 of Chapter 620 of the Statutes of 1989, relating to state real property.

[Approved by Governor August 31, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Director of General Services, with the approval of the State Public Works Board, may sell, exchange, lease, or transfer for current market value or for any lesser consideration authorized by law and upon those terms and conditions and subject to those reservations and exceptions as the Director of General Services determines are in the best interest of the state, all or any part of the following real property:

Parcel 1. Approximately 0.45 acre, with a structure used by the State Board of Equalization, located at 233 North Second Street, Covina, Los Angeles County.

Parcel 2. Approximately 0.53 acre of vacant land adjacent to the California Highway Patrol Office located at 430 South Broadway, Blythe, Riverside County.

Parcel 3. Approximately 0.47 acre, with structures used by the California Highway Patrol, located at 86 West Main Street, Quincy, Plumas County.

Parcel 4. Approximately 0.57 acre, with a structure used by the Employment Development Department, located at 1640 West "F" Street, Oakdale, Stanislaus County.

Parcel 5. Approximately 1.84 acres of unimproved land adjacent to the Employment Development Department Office, located at 2348 Baldwin Avenue, Oroville, Butte County.

Parcel 6. Approximately 3.17 acres of improved land, being a portion of the California State Prison at Folsom, Sacramento County.

SEC. 2. The Director of General Services, with the approval of the State Public Works Board and the Director of Parks and Recreation, is hereby authorized to exchange with the County of Del Norte, approximately 17 acres of vacant state land at Lakes Earl and Talawa for adjoining county land of similar size and value, upon those terms and conditions and subject to those reservations and exceptions as the Director of General Services determines to be in the best interest of the state.

SEC. 3. (a) Notices of every public auction or bid opening shall be posted on the property to be sold under this act and shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which the real property to be sold is situated.

(b) Any sale, exchange, lease, or transfer of the parcels described in this act is exempt from Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 21100) to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 21165), inclusive, of Division 13 of the Public Resources Code.

SEC. 4. (a) The Department of General Services shall be reimbursed for any cost or expense incurred in the disposition of any parcels.

(b) The net proceeds of any moneys received from the disposition of any parcels described in this act shall be deposited in the General Fund and be available for appropriation in accordance with Section 15863 of the Government Code, except as follows:

(1) The net proceeds received from the disposition of Parcels 2 and 3 in Section 1 shall be deposited in the Motor Vehicle Account in the State Transportation Fund.

(2) The net proceeds received from the disposition of Parcels 4 and 5 in Section 1 shall be deposited in the Employment Development Department Building Fund.

SEC. 5. As to any property sold pursuant to this act consisting of 15 acres or less, the Director of General Services shall except and reserve to the state all mineral deposits, as defined in Section 6407 of the Public Resources Code, below a depth of 500 feet, without surface rights of entry. As to property sold pursuant to this act consisting of more than 15 acres, the Director of General Services shall except and reserve to the state all mineral deposits, as defined in Section 6407 of the Public Resources Code, together with the right to prospect for, mine, and remove the deposits. The rights to prospect for, mine, and remove the deposits shall be limited to those areas of the property conveyed that the director, after consultation with the State Lands Commission, determines to be reasonably necessary for the removal of the deposits.

SEC. 6. Section 4 of Chapter 620 of the Statutes of 1989 is amended to read:

Sec. 4. The Director of General Services, with the approval of the State Public Works Board, may sell, exchange, or lease for current market value or for any lesser consideration authorized by law and upon such terms and conditions and subject to such reservations and exceptions as the Director of General Services determines are in the best interests of the state, all or any part of the following real property:

PARCEL 1. Approximately 0.5 acre, consisting of a vacant parcel adjoining the campus of California State University, San Bernardino, and fronting on North Park Circle near its intersection with State College Parkway in the City of San Bernardino.

PARCEL 2. Approximately 0.4 acre with a structure, known as the Paskenta Residence of the Department of Forestry and Fire Protection and fronting on Toomes Camp Road near its intersection with Mountain View Road in Tehama County.

PARCEL 3. Approximately 2.68 acres in two parcels known as Rio Vista North Fishing Access No. 1 of the Department of Fish and Game and lying between State Highway Route 84 and the Sacramento River downstream of its confluence with Cache Slough and Steamboat Slough in Solano County.

PARCEL 4. Approximately 1.0 acre known as Rio Vista North Fishing Access No. 2 of the Department of Fish and Game and fronting on the west side of State Highway Route 84 and the Sacramento River downstream of its confluence with Cache Slough and Steamboat Slough in Solano County.

PARCEL 5. Approximately 2.22 acres, consisting of part of the Los Ranchos Wildlife Area of the Department of Fish and Game fronting on the eastern right-of-way of State Highway Route 227 near its intersection with the right-of-way of the Southern Pacific Transportation Company in San Luis Obispo County near the unincorporated community of Edna.

PARCEL 6. Approximately 0.86 acre with a structure utilized as office space by the Department of Motor Vehicles and known as 379 Colusa Avenue, Yuba City.

PARCEL 7. Approximately 4.5 acres, being the Military Department's Manhattan Beach Armory located at 3601 Bell Avenue, Manhattan Beach. This parcel shall not be disposed of, however, until the City of Manhattan Beach amends its zoning ordinance to rezone approximately 2.5 acres of this parcel as R-1, and the Adjutant General determines that operations of the Military Department conducted on this parcel can be relocated to alternative facilities at another location. Upon both these conditions being satisfied, the Department of General Services shall, notwithstanding Section 11011.1 of the Government Code, convey to the City of Manhattan Beach, for municipal purposes only and at no cost to the city, the remaining part of this parcel that was not rezoned to R-1.

PARCEL 9. Approximately 0.13 acre, consisting of an unimproved, subdivided lot fronting on Palisades Beach Road immediately adjacent to Santa Monica State Beach.

PARCEL 10. Approximately 0.12 acre, consisting of an unimproved, subdivided lot fronting on Palisades Beach Road immediately adjacent to Santa Monica State Beach.

PARCEL 11. Approximately 0.23 acre, consisting of an unimproved, subdivided lot fronting on Palisades Beach Road immediately adjacent to Santa Monica State Beach.

SEC. 7. Section 9 of Chapter 620 of the Statutes of 1989 is repealed.

SEC. 8. Section 3 of Chapter 625 of the Statutes of 1991 is amended to read:

Sec. 3. The Director of General Services, with the approval of the State Public Works Board, may sell or lease for current market value only, all or any part of the following property:

Parcel 2. Approximately 1.07 acres, with a structure used by the Employment Development Department, located at 1313 Pine Avenue, Long Beach, Los Angeles County.

Parcel 3. Approximately 0.43 acre, with a structure used by the Employment Development Department, located at 660 Tule Street, Mendota, Fresno County.

Parcel 4. Approximately 1.1 acres, with a structure used by the Employment Development Department, located at 480 Mountain View Avenue, San Bernardino, San Bernardino County.

Parcel 5. Approximately 0.18 acre, with a structure used by the Employment Development Department, located at 500 North Garden, Visalia, Tulare County.

Parcel 6. Approximately 1.46 acres, with a structure used by the Employment Development Department, located at 100 North Imperial Avenue, El Centro, Imperial County.

Parcel 7. Approximately 0.63 acre, with a structure used by the Employment Development Department, located at 240 West 7th Street, Chico, Butte County.

Parcel 8. Approximately 1.17 acres, with a structure used by the Employment Development Department, located at 346 Front Street, Salinas, Monterey County.

Parcel 9. Approximately 0.85 acre with a structure used by the Employment Development Department, located at 805 R Street, Sacramento, Sacramento County.

SEC. 9. The authorization for disposal of the following properties is rescinded by Sections 6 to 8, inclusive, of this act, as the concerned state agencies have reported that the properties are no longer considered surplus:

(a) Parcel 8 of Section 4 of Chapter 620 of the Statutes of 1989.

(b) The property described in Section 9 of Chapter 620 of the Statutes of 1989.

(c) Parcel 1 of Section 3 of Chapter 625 of the Statutes of 1991.

CHAPTER 392

An act to amend Section 25600 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to alcoholic beverages.

[Approved by Governor August 31, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25600 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

25600. (a) (1) No licensee shall, directly or indirectly, give any premium, gift, or free goods in connection with the sale or distribution of any alcoholic beverage, except as provided by rules that shall be adopted by the department to implement this section or as authorized by this division.

(2) (A) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), for purposes of this section, a refund to, or exchange of products for, a dissatisfied consumer by a licensee authorized to sell to consumers shall not be deemed a premium, gift, or free goods given in connection with the sale or distribution of an alcoholic beverage.

(B) A winegrower may advertise or otherwise offer consumers a guarantee of product satisfaction only in newsletters or other publications of the winegrower or at the winegrower's premises. A winegrower may refund to a dissatisfied consumer the entire purchase price of wine produced by that winegrower and sold to that consumer, regardless of where the wine was purchased.

(b) No rule of the department may permit a licensee to give any premium, gift, or free goods of greater than inconsequential value in connection with the sale or distribution of beer. With respect to beer, premiums, gifts, or free goods, including advertising specialties that have no significant utilitarian value other than advertising, shall be deemed to have greater than inconsequential value if they cost more than twenty-five cents ($0.25) per unit, or cost more than fifteen dollars ($15) in the aggregate for all those items given by a single supplier to a single retail premises per calendar year.

(c) With respect to distilled spirits and wines, a licensee may furnish, give, rent, loan, or sell advertising specialties to a retailer provided those items bear conspicuous advertising required of a sign and the total value of all retailer advertising specialties furnished by a supplier, directly or indirectly, to a retailer shall not exceed fifty dollars ($50) per brand in any one calendar year per retail premises. The value of a retailer advertising specialty is the actual cost of that item to the supplier who initially purchased it. Transportation and installation costs are excluded. The furnishing or giving of any retailer advertising specialty shall not be conditioned upon the purchase of the suppliers' product. Retail advertising specialties given or furnished free of charge may not be sold by the retail licensee.

CHAPTER 393

An act to add Section 6073.2 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 31, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6073.2 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

6073.2. (a) Section 6073 shall not apply to any of the following:

(1) An event or show for which all exhibitors' contracts prohibit any sale of tangible personal property at the event or show and at which no tangible personal property is actually sold.

(2) An event or show that is conducted for informational or educational purposes only, and at which no sales of tangible personal property occur.

(3) A trade show.

(b) For purposes of this section, a "trade show" means an event or show that complies with all of the following conditions:

(1) The event or show is not open to the general public for any portion of the show.

(2) Only orders for tangible personal property are solicited or taken during the event or show from sellers, as defined in Section 6014, for purposes of subsequent resale.

(3) The event or show is operated by an organization that qualifies for tax exempt status under Section 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) When the board determines it is necessary for the efficient administration of this part, the board may require the operator of a trade show, within 10 days from the close of that show, to provide the board with a listing of the names and addresses of the agents or representatives soliciting orders at the trade show, and their principals, including, but not limited to, manufacturers, wholesalers, distributors, or suppliers.

(d) Any operator of a trade show who willfully fails or refuses to comply with subdivision (c) is subject to a penalty in an amount not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each offense.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order for operators of special events or trade shows to hold those events or shows in California under circumstances in which they can successfully compete with those events or shows held in other states, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 394

An act to amend Sections 23661.2 and 25503.4 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to alcoholic beverages.

[Approved by Governor August 31, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 23661.2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

23661.2. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any unlicensed adult resident of California may apply to the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control and be issued a permit to receive a shipment of wine, including vermouth and champagne, from any state of the United States that allows adult residents of that state to receive by permit of nominal cost shipments of no less than nine liters of wine, including vermouth and champagne, per month from California. The shipment into this state shall be made in accordance with rules adopted by the department, but the total shipments permitted in any calendar month to a person shall not be in excess of nine liters. A common carrier to whom the permit is presented is authorized to make delivery of the shipment to the person named in the permit. Delivery of a shipment pursuant to the permit shall not be deemed to constitute a sale in this state.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an individual or licensee in a state that affords California licensees or individuals an equal reciprocal shipping privilege, may ship, for personal use and not for resale, no more than two cases of wine (no more than nine liters each case) per month to any adult resident in this state. Delivery of a shipment pursuant to this subdivision shall not be deemed to constitute a sale in this state.

The shipping container of any wine sent into or out of this state under this section shall be clearly labeled to indicate that the package cannot be delivered to a minor or to an intoxicated person.

SEC. 2. Section 25503.4 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

25503.4. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, a winegrower, California winegrower's agent, wine importer, or any director, partner, officer, agent, or representative of that person, may conduct or participate in, and serve wine at, an instructional event for consumers held at a retailer's premises featuring wines produced by or for the winegrower or, imported by the wine importer, subject to the following conditions:

(1) No premium, gift, free goods, or other thing of value shall be given away in connection with the instructional event by the winegrower, California winegrower's agent, wine importer, or retailer, except as authorized by this division.

(2) No alcoholic beverages shall be given away in connection with the instructional event; provided, however, that wine, taken from barrels or from tanks, may be sampled at the instructional event. For the purposes of this section, minimal amounts of the samples provided for tasting at the instructional event in addition to the wines being featured shall not constitute a thing of value.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, a winegrower, California winegrower's agent, or wine importer, in advance of an instructional event for consumers being held at a retailer's premises, may list in an advertisement the name and address of the retailer, the names of the wines being featured at the instructional event, and the time, date, and location of, and other information about, the instructional event, provided:

(1) The advertisement does not also contain the retail price of the wines.

(2) The listing of the retailer's name and address is the only reference to the retailer in the advertisement and is relatively inconspicuous in relation to the advertisement as a whole. Pictures or illustrations of the retailer's premises and laudatory references to the retailer in such advertisements are not hereby authorized.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, the name and address of a winegrower, wine importer, or winegrower's agent licensee, the brand names of wine being featured, and the time, date, location, and other identifying information of a wine promotional lecture at retail premises may be listed in advance of the event in an advertisement of the off-sale or on-sale retail licensee.

(d) Nothing in this section authorizes a winegrower, wine importer, or winegrower's agent licensee to share in the costs, if any, of the retailer licensee's advertisement.

(e) Nothing in this section authorizes any person to consume any alcoholic beverage on any premises licensed with an off-sale retail license.

SEC. 3. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting Section 1 of this act to encourage the adoption of reciprocal wine shipping privileges legislation in other states for purposes of improving fairness and equity for the small, family vintners and winegrowers of California. Currently, only 12 states have adopted reciprocal wine shipping privileges legislation.

The Legislature encourages the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to notify other states of California laws relating to reciprocal wine shipping privileges through established channels of communication.

CHAPTER 395

An act to amend Section 1808.21 of the Vehicle Code, relating to confidential information.

[Approved by Governor August 31, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1808.21 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

1808.21. (a) Any residence address in any record of the department is confidential and shall not be disclosed to any person, except a court, law enforcement agency, or other government agency, or as authorized in Section 1808.22.

(b) Release of any mailing address or part thereof in any record of the department may be restricted to a release for purposes related to the reasons for which the information was collected, including, but not limited to, the assessment of driver risk, or ownership of vehicles or vessels. This restriction does not apply to a release to a court, a law enforcement agency, or other governmental agency, or a person who has been issued a requester code pursuant to Section 1810.2.

(c) Any person providing the department with a mailing address shall declare, under penalty of perjury, that the mailing address is a valid, existing, and accurate mailing address and shall consent to receive service of process pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 415.20, subdivision (a) of Section 415.30, and Section 416.90 of the Code of Civil Procedure at the mailing address.

(d) (1) Any registration or driver's license record of a person may be suppressed from any other person, except those persons specified in subdivision (a), if the person requesting the suppression submits verification acceptable to the department that he or she has reasonable cause to believe either of the following:

(A) That he or she is the subject of stalking, as specified in Section 1708.7 of the Civil Code or Section 646.9 of the Penal Code.

(B) That there exists a threat of death or great bodily injury to his or her person, as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 12022.7 of the Penal Code.

(2) Upon suppression of a record, each request for information about that record shall be authorized by the subject of the record or verified as legitimate by other investigative means by the department before the information is released.

(e) Suppression of a record pursuant to subdivision (d) shall occur for one year after approval by the department. Not less than 60 days prior to the date the suppression of the record would otherwise expire, the department shall notify the subject of the record of its impending expiration. The suppression may be continued for a period determined by the department if the person submits verification acceptable to the department that he or she continues to have reasonable cause to believe that he or she is the subject of stalking. The notification shall instruct the person of the method to reapply for record suppression.

For the purposes of subdivisions (d) and (e), "verification acceptable to the department" means recent police reports, court documentation, or other documentation from a law enforcement agency.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for those costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district that will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

However, notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains other costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

CHAPTER 396

An act to amend Sections 130051 and 130051.9 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to transportation.

[Approved by Governor August 31, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 130051 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

130051. The Los Angeles County Metropolitan Transportation Authority consists of 14 members, as follows:

(a) Five members of the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors.

The board of supervisors may appoint, as an alternate member to a supervisor, a mayor or member of a city council of any city, other than the City of Los Angeles, within Los Angeles County, or a member of the public. If the number of members of the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors is increased, the authority shall, within 60 days of the increase, submit a plan to the Legislature for revising the composition of the authority.

(b) The Mayor of the City of Los Angeles or an alternate appointed by the mayor.

(c) Two public members and one member of the City Council of the City of Los Angeles appointed by the Mayor of the City of Los Angeles.

(d) Four members, each of whom shall be a mayor or a member of a city council, appointed by the Los Angeles County City Selection Committee. For purposes of the selection of these four members, the County of Los Angeles, excluding the City of Los Angeles, shall be divided into the following four sectors:

(1) The North County/San Fernando Valley sector.

(2) The Southwest Corridor sector.

(3) The San Gabriel Valley sector.

(4) The Southeast Long Beach sector.

The League of California Cities, Los Angeles County Division, shall define the sectors. Every city within a sector shall be entitled to vote to nominate one or more candidates from that sector for consideration for appointment by the Los Angeles County City Selection Committee. A city's vote shall be weighted in the same proportion that its population bears to the total population of all cities within the sector.

The members appointed pursuant to this subdivision, and their alternates, shall be appointed by the Los Angeles County City Selection Committee upon an affirmative vote of its members which represent a majority of the population of all cities within the county, excluding the City of Los Angeles.

The members selected by the city selection committee shall serve four-year terms with no limitation on the number of terms that may be served by any individual. The city selection committee may shorten the initial four-year term for one or more of the members for the purpose of ensuring that the members will serve staggered terms.

(e) If the population of the City of Los Angeles, at any time, becomes less than 35 percent of the combined population of all cities in the county, the position of one of the two public members appointed pursuant to subdivision (c), as determined by the Mayor of the City of Los Angeles by lot, shall be vacated, and the vacant position shall be filled by appointment by the city selection committee pursuant to subdivision (d) from a city not represented by any other member appointed pursuant to subdivision (d).

(f) One nonvoting member appointed by the Governor.

SEC. 2. Section 130051.9 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

130051.9. (a) The Los Angeles County Metropolitan Transportation Authority shall appoint a full-time chief executive officer who shall act for the authority under its direction and perform those duties delegated by the authority.

(b) The Los Angeles County Metropolitan Transportation Authority shall appoint a general counsel, inspector general, and board secretary.

(c) The inspector general shall, at a noticed public hearing of the authority, report quarterly on the expenditures of the authority for travel, meals and refreshments, private club dues, membership fees and other charges, and any other expenditures which are specified by the authority.

(d) Any investigatory file compiled by the inspector general is an investigatory file compiled by a local law enforcement agency subject to disclosure pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 6254 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 397

An act to add Section 5006.5 to the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor August 31, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5006.5 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

5006.5. (a) The department may issue, for a fee determined by the department to be sufficient to reimburse the department for actual costs incurred pursuant to this section, distinctive license plates for motor vehicles owned or leased by an officer or a designated employee of a foreign organization recognized by the United States pursuant to the Taiwan Relations Act (22 U.S.C. Sec. 3301 et seq.) when the department is otherwise satisfied that the issuance of the license plates is in order.

(b) The distinctive license plates shall be designed by the department and shall contain the words "Foreign Organization."

(c) The department shall establish procedures for both of the following:

(1) To verify the eligibility of an applicant for plates issued pursuant to this section.

(2) To authorize a recognized foreign organization to apply on behalf of its officers for plates issued pursuant to this section.

CHAPTER 398

An act to add Section 11664 to the Insurance Code, relating to workers' compensation, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 31, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11664 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

11664. (a) This section applies only to policies of workers' compensation insurance.

(b) A notice of nonrenewal shall be in writing and shall be delivered or mailed to the producer of record and to the named insured at the mailing address shown on the policy. Subdivision (a) of Section 1013 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall be applicable if the notice is mailed.

(c) An insurer, at least 30 days, but not more than 120 days, in advance of the end of the policy period, shall give notice of nonrenewal, and the reasons for the nonrenewal, if the insurer intends not to renew the policy.

(d) If an insurer fails to give timely notice required by subdivision (c), the policy of insurance shall be continued, with no change in its premium rate, for a period of 60 days after the insurer gives the notice.

(e) A notice of nonrenewal shall not be required in any of the following situations:

(1) The transfer of, or renewal of, a policy without a change in its terms or conditions or the rate on which the premium is based between insurers which are members of the same insurance group.

(2) The policy has been extended for 90 days or less, if the notice required in subdivision (c) has been given prior to the extension.

(3) The named insured has obtained replacement coverage or has agreed, in writing, within 60 days of the termination of the policy, to obtain that coverage.

(4) The policy is for a period of no more than 60 days and the insured is notified at the time of issuance that it may not be renewed.

(5) The named insured requests a change in the terms or conditions or risks covered by the policy within 60 days prior to the end of the policy period.

(6) The insurer has made a written offer to the insured, within the time period specified in subdivision (c), to renew the policy at a changed premium rate.

(f) This section shall become operative on November 30, 1994, in order to enable employers to be notified of an insurer's intent to nonrenew 30 days prior to January 1, 1995.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Due to the implementation of open rating for workers' compensation insurance on January 1, 1995, it is critical that employers have adequate notice of an insurer's intent to nonrenew workers' compensation insurance. There is no provision of current law to provide that notice.

CHAPTER 399

An act to amend Section 9026.5 of the Government Code, relating to the Legislature, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 31, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 9026.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

9026.5. (a) No television signal generated by the Assembly shall be used for any political or commercial purpose, including, but not limited to, any campaign for elective public office or any campaign supporting or opposing a ballot proposition submitted to the electors.

As used in this section, "commercial purpose" does not include either of the following:

(1) The use of any television signal generated by the Assembly by an accredited news organization or any nonprofit organization for educational or public affairs programming.

(2) As authorized by the Assembly, the transmission by a third party to paid subscribers of an unedited video feed of the television signal generated by the Assembly.

(b) Any person or organization who violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to authorize the transmission to state offices, media representatives, and others of televised proceedings relating to the budget and other legislative matters during the current calendar year, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 400

An act to amend Section 1645 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to dentistry.

[Approved by Governor August 31, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1645 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

1645. (a) Effective with the 1974 license renewal period, if the board determines that the public health and safety would be served by requiring all holders of licenses under this chapter to continue their education after receiving a license, it may require, as a condition to the renewal thereof, that they submit assurances satisfactory to the board that they will, during the succeeding two-year period, inform themselves of the developments in the practice of dentistry occurring since the original issuance of their licenses by pursuing one or more courses of study satisfactory to the board or by other means deemed equivalent by the board.

The board shall adopt regulations providing for the suspension of the licenses at the end of the two-year period until compliance with the assurances provided for in this section is accomplished.

(b) The board may also, as a condition of license renewal, require licentiates to successfully complete a portion of the required continuing education hours in specific areas adopted in regulations by the board. The board may prescribe this mandatory coursework within the general areas of patient care, health and safety, and law and ethics. The mandatory coursework prescribed by the board shall not exceed fifteen hours per renewal period for dentists, and seven and one-half hours per renewal period for dental auxiliaries. Any mandatory coursework required by the board shall be credited toward the continuing education requirements established by the board pursuant to subdivision (a).

CHAPTER 401

An act to amend Section 302 of the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor August 31, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 302 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

302. (a) Every person who intentionally disturbs or disquiets any assemblage of people met for religious worship at a tax-exempt place of worship, by profane discourse, rude or indecent behavior, or by any unnecessary noise, either within the place where the meeting is held, or so near it as to disturb the order and solemnity of the meeting, is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by imprisonment in a county jail for a period not exceeding one year, or by both that fine and imprisonment.

(b) A court may require performance of community service of not less than 50 hours and not exceeding 80 hours as an alternative to imprisonment or a fine.

(c) In addition to the penalty set forth in subdivision (a), a person who has suffered a previous conviction of a violation of this section or Section 403, shall be required to perform community service of not less than 120 hours and not exceeding 160 hours.

(d) The existence of any fact which would bring a person under subdivision (c) or (d) shall be alleged in the complaint, information, or indictment and either:

(1) Admitted by the defendant in open court.

(2) Found to be true by a jury trying the issue of guilt.

(3) Found to be true by the court where guilt is established by a plea of guilty or nolo contendere.

(4) Found to be true by trial by the court sitting without a jury.

(e) Upon conviction of any person under this section for disturbances of religious worship, the court may, in accordance with the performance of community service imposed under this section, consistent with public safety interests and with the victim's consent, order the defendant to perform a portion of, or all of, the required community service at the place where the disturbance of religious worship occurred.

(f) The court may waive the mandatory minimum requirements for community service whenever it is in the interest of justice to do so. When a waiver is granted, the court shall state on the record all reasons supporting the waiver.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 402

An act to amend Sections 19550 and 19554 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to horseracing, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 31, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19550 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19550. (a) The board shall require each licensed racing association that conducts 14 or less weeks of racing to designate 3 racing days, and each licensed racing association that conducts more than 14 weeks of racing to designate five racing days during any one meeting, to be conducted as charity days by the licensee for the purpose of distribution of the net proceeds therefrom to beneficiaries through the distributing agent. For the purposes of this section, a split meeting shall be considered a single meeting and the appropriate number of charity days shall be based on the total weeks of racing allocated for both periods of the meeting.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a) or any other provision of law, no racing association shall be required to pay to a distributing agent for the purpose of distribution to beneficiaries more than an amount equal to two-tenths of 1 percent of the association's total on-track handle on live races conducted by the association at the meeting.

(c) This section does not apply to the California Exposition and State Fair, a county or district agricultural association fair, or to a licensed racing association conducting three weeks of racing or less.

SEC. 2. Section 19554 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19554. The distributing agent for charity distributions shall always be a nonprofit organization or corporation, or nonprofit organizations or corporations, selected by the licensee of the meeting and approved by the board.

(a) Each distributing agent to be qualified hereunder shall conform to the then existing laws and regulations of this state and the United States, so as to be exempt or be entitled to exemption from the payment of any tax measured by income.

(b) Each distributing agent shall have not less than five trustees or directors. None of the individuals constituting the governing board of trustees or directors of the distributing agent shall be directly connected with, be a stockholder, or have any interest in the racing association that is the licensee of the race meeting. Each of the individual trustees or directors shall be a person who is, at the time, both a resident of this state, and an executive, officer, director, trustee, or member of the governing body or board, by whatever name the governing body or board may be known, of an organization engaged in civic, religious, charitable, educational, or veteran activities in this state.

(c) Each distributing agent shall adopt bylaws, shall provide for election to fill vacancies in the board of directors or trustees, and shall hold at least one meeting each year.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, with the approval of the board, a racing association whose board of trustees or directors is precluded by its articles of incorporation, bylaws, or by contract from receiving compensation for services in the capacity of trustee or director may act as its own distributing agent.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure viable horseracing meetings during the 1994 season and thereafter, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 403

An act to add Section 3056 to the Business and Professions Code, relating to optometry.

[Approved by Governor August 31, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3056 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

3056. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the board may issue a certificate of registration to a person who meets all of the following qualifications:

(a) Has a degree as a doctor of optometry issued by an accredited school or college of optometry.

(b) Is currently licensed in another state.

(c) Is currently a full-time faculty member of an accredited California school or college of optometry and has served in that capacity for a period of at least five continuous years.

(d) Has attained, at an accredited California school or college of optometry, the academic rank of professor, associate professor, or clinical professor, except that the status of adjunct or affiliated faculty member shall not be deemed sufficient.

(e) Has successfully passed the board's jurisprudence examination.

(f) Is in good standing, with no past or pending malpractice awards or judicial or administrative actions.

(g) Has met the minimum continuing education requirements set forth in Section 3059 for the current and preceding year.

(h) Has met the requirements of Section 3041.2 regarding the use of pharmaceutical agents under subdivision (e) of Section 3041.

(i) Has never had his or her license to practice optometry revoked or suspended.

(j) Is not subject to denial based on any of the grounds listed in Section 480.

(k) Pays an application fee in an amount equal to the application fee prescribed by the board pursuant to Section 3152.

(l) Files an application on a form prescribed by the board.

Any certificate of registration issued pursuant to this section shall expire as provided in Section 3146, and may be renewed as provided in this chapter, subject to the same conditions as other certificates of registration issued under this chapter.

CHAPTER 404

An act to amend Sections 42238.2 and 42238.3 of the Education Code, relating to education funding.

[Approved by Governor August 31, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 42238.2 of the Education Code is amended to read:

42238.2. (a) Notwithstanding Section 42238.5, a school district that experiences a decline in the number of units of average daily attendance in excess of 10 percent of its total average daily attendance as a result of the closure of a facility operated by a branch of the United States Armed Forces in that school district's boundaries shall be entitled to an adjustment to its units of average daily attendance pursuant to this section. The year preceding a decline shall be the base year.

(b) In the second year after the base year, the district average daily attendance pursuant to Section 42238.5 may, if the district chooses, be increased by 75 percent of the difference between the base year units of average daily attendance and the units of average daily attendance in the first year of decline. In the third year after the base year, the district average daily attendance pursuant to Section 42238.5 may, if the district chooses, be increased by 50 percent of the difference between the base year units of average daily attendance and the units of average daily attendance in the first year of decline. The amount of money represented by these increases shall be considered a loan to the school district. Loan repayments shall commence no later than the fourth year after the base year.

(c) (1) The Superintendent of Public Instruction, in consultation with a school district subject to this section, shall determine a schedule for repayment of the total amount loaned pursuant to this section which may not exceed 10 years. Payments shall include interest charged at a rate based on the most current investment rate of the Pooled Money Investment Account in the General Fund as of the date of the disbursement of funds to the school district.

(2) Upon written notification by the Superintendent of Public Instruction that the school district has not made one or more of the payments required by the schedule established pursuant to paragraph (1), the Controller shall withhold from Section A of the State School Fund the defaulted payment which shall not exceed the amount of any apportionment entitlement of the district to moneys in Section A of the State School Fund. In that regard, the Controller shall withhold the amount of any payment made under this subdivision, including reimbursement of the Controller's administrative costs as determined under a schedule approved by the California Debt Advisory Commission, from subsequent apportionments to the school district from Section A of the State School Fund.

(3) Any apportionments made by the Controller pursuant to paragraph (2) shall be deemed to be an allocation to the school district for purposes of subdivision (b) of Section 8 of Article XVI of the California Constitution, and for purposes of Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 41200) of Part 24.

(d) In no event shall the adjustment provided by this section cause the apportionment to a school district to exceed the amount that would otherwise be calculated for apportionment to the district pursuant to Sections 42238 and 42238.1.

(e) This section does not apply to a school district that experiences a decline in enrollment as a result of a school district reorganization pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 35500) of Part 21 or any other law.

SEC. 2. Section 42238.3 of the Education Code is amended to read:

42238.3. (a) For each year during the loan repayment period provided for in Section 42238.2, any district utilizing the adjustment pursuant to Section 42238.2 may adjust its revenue limit computed pursuant to Section 42238 to the statewide average revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance for its size and type of district in proportion to the percentage of the loan that the school district has repaid up to and including the year in which the revenue limit adjustment is made.

(b) This section does not apply to a school district that experiences a decline in enrollment as a result of a school district reorganization pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 35500) of Part 21 or any other law.

CHAPTER 405

An act to amend Section 30796.7 of the Streets and Highways Code, relating to toll bridges.

[Approved by Governor August 31, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 30796.7 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

30796.7. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the San Diego Association of Governments may impose a toll on vehicles crossing the San Diego-Coronado Bridge. The toll shall be established by the association after conducting at least one public hearing.

(b) The authority of the commission relative to tolls on the bridge is hereby transferred to the San Diego Association of Governments. All tolls established by the commission shall remain in effect until June 30, 1995, unless changed by the San Diego Association of Governments. Thereafter, all tolls on the bridge shall be at the rates established by the San Diego Association of Governments, except that at no time shall the rate of toll for Class 1 vehicles exceed one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) per vehicle.

(c) (1) The revenues from any tolls imposed on the bridge shall be used first for expenses related to the collection of tolls and operation of the bridge, including, but not limited to, reimbursement for any operating and maintenance costs and, second, for improvements to the bridge and its approaches. Tolls shall be established at an amount which will generate revenue sufficient to meet the requirements set forth in this paragraph, as determined by the department.

(2) The revenues from any tolls imposed on the bridge may also be used for costs incurred by the San Diego Association of Governments in administering this section and for any of the following:

(A) Transportation services that either increase the capacity of the bridge and its approaches or reduce the demand for travel in the transportation corridor that includes the bridge.

(B) Alternative forms of transportation, within the transportation corridor that includes the bridge, that reduce congestion and air pollution, including, but not limited to, ferry service and public transit.

(C) Capital improvements and related expenditures within the transportation corridor for construction and maintenance of bikeways.

(d) For the purposes of this section, "transportation corridor" means the San Diego-Coronado Bridge and its approaches which extend from Route 5 in the City of San Diego to the North Island Naval Air Station via Route 282, and to the Naval Amphibious Base via Route 75 in the City of Coronado.

(e) All money deposited in the San Diego-Coronado Toll Bridge Revenue Fund prior to March 26, 1992, and not expended, encumbered, or programmed before January 1, 1994, is appropriated to the Controller for allocation to the San Diego Association of Governments for the purposes of paragraph (2) of subdivision (c).

(f) Not later than June 30, 1995, and not later than June 30 of every even-numbered year thereafter, the San Diego Association of Governments shall adopt an expenditure plan specifying the projects and programs that are to be funded with toll revenues, and shall submit copies of each plan to the Senate Committee on Transportation and the Assembly Committee on Transportation.

(g) If the San Diego Association of Governments imposes tolls pursuant to subdivision (a), it shall reimburse the department for costs incurred by the department in operating the bridge, collecting tolls, and performing other related services. The association and the department shall enter into an agreement which provides for the full reimbursement of the department for all operating and maintenance costs.

(h) The San Diego Association of Governments, not later than June 30, 1995, and not later than June 30 of each year thereafter, shall prepare an audit, to be funded solely with toll revenues, of all expenditures and revenue collected pursuant to this section. The first audit shall include all expenditures and revenue collected prior to January 1, 1995. A report of the audit shall be published and made available to the members of the San Diego Association of Governments, and to any member of the public who submits a written request therefor within 30 days upon receipt of the request.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 406

An act to amend Section 25201.5 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous waste.

[Approved by Governor August 31, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25201.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25201.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a hazardous waste facility permit is not required for a generator who treats hazardous waste of a total weight of not more than 500 pounds, or a total volume of not more than 55 gallons, in any calendar month, if both of the following conditions are met:

(1) The hazardous waste is not an extremely hazardous waste and is listed in Section 67450.11 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, as in effect on January 1, 1992, as eligible for treatment pursuant to the regulations adopted by the department for operation under a permit-by-rule and the treatment technology used is approved for that waste stream in Section 67450.11 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations for treatment under a permit-by-rule.

(2) The generator is not otherwise required to obtain a hazardous waste facility permit or other grant of authorization for any other hazardous waste management activity at the facility.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, treatment in the following units is ineligible for exemption pursuant to subdivision (a) or (c):

(1) Landfills.

(2) Surface impoundments.

(3) Injection wells.

(4) Waste piles.

(5) Land treatment units.

(6) Thermal destruction units.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a hazardous waste facility permit or other grant of authorization is not required to conduct the following treatment activities, if the generator treats the following hazardous waste streams using the treatment technology required by this subdivision:

(1) The generator treats resins mixed in accordance with the manufacturer's instructions.

(2) The generator treats a container of 110 gallons or less capacity, which is not constructed of wood, paper, cardboard, fabric, or any other similar absorptive material, for the purposes of emptying the container as specified by Section 66261.7 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, as revised July 1, 1990, or treats the inner liners removed from empty containers that once held hazardous waste or hazardous material. The generator shall treat the container or inner liner by using the following technologies, if the treated containers and rinseate are managed in compliance with the applicable requirements of this chapter:

(A) The generator rinses the container or inner liner with a suitable liquid capable of dissolving or removing the hazardous constituents which the container held.

(B) The generator uses physical processes, such as crushing, shredding, grinding, or puncturing, that change only the physical properties of the container or inner liner, if the container or inner liner is first rinsed as provided in subparagraph (A) and the rinseate is removed from the container or inner liner.

(3) The generator conducts drying by pressing or by passive or heat-aided evaporation to remove water from wastes classified as special wastes by the department pursuant to Section 66261.124 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations.

(4) The generator conducts magnetic separation or screening to remove components from wastes classified as special wastes by the department pursuant to Section 66261.124 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations.

(5) The generator neutralizes wastes which are hazardous solely due to corrosivity or toxicity that results only from the acidic or alkaline material, in elementary neutralization units, as defined in Section 66260.10 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, if the wastes result solely from the regeneration of ion exchange media used to demineralize water, do not contain more than 10 percent acid or base concentration by weight, and are treated in vessels and piping constructed of materials compatible with the range of temperatures and pH levels, and subject to appropriate pH and temperature controls.

(6) The generator neutralizes acidic wastes which are hazardous solely due to corrosivity resulting from the presence of food or food by-products, and alkaline or acidic waste, other than wastes containing nitric acid, at SIC Code Group 20, food and kindred product facilities, as defined in subdivision (p) of Section 25501, if both of the following conditions are met:

(A) The neutralization process does not result in the emission of volatile hazardous waste constituents or toxic air contaminants.

(B) The neutralization process is required in order to meet discharge or other regulatory requirements.

(7) The generator processes effluent hazardous waste for disposal from the processing of silver halide-based imaging products, if all of the following conditions are met:

(A) The effluent is a hazardous waste solely due to its silver content.

(B) The effluent is treated within 90 days of its generation.

(C) The effluent is treated in a tank or container.

(D) The total influent hazardous waste stream treated does not exceed 500 gallons in any calendar month.

(E) The effluent is treated with a technology or combination of technologies which recover the silver to a level less than 5 mg/l total silver in the final waste water discharge, or a lower level as may be set by the local publicly owned treatment works.

(8) Except as provided for specific waste streams in Section 25200.3, the generator conducts the separation by gravity of the following, if the activity is conducted in impervious tanks or containers constructed of noncorrosive materials, the activity does not involve the addition of heat or other form of treatment, or the addition of chemicals other than flocculants and demulsifiers, and the activity is managed in compliance with applicable requirements of federal, state, or local agency or treatment works:

(A) The settling of solids from waste where the resulting aqueous stream is not hazardous.

(B) The separation of oil/water mixtures and separation sludges, if the average oil recovered per month is less than 25 barrels.

(9) The generator is a laboratory which is certified by the State Department of Health Services, or is a laboratory which is operated by an educational institution, which treats waste water which is generated onsite solely as a result of analytical testing, or which is a laboratory which treats less than one gallon of hazardous waste, which is generated onsite, in any single batch, subject to the following:

(A) The waste water treated is hazardous solely due to corrosivity or toxicity that results only from the acidic or alkaline material, as defined in Section 66260.10 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, or is excluded from the definition of hazardous waste by subparagraph (E) of paragraph (2) of subsection (a) of Section 66261.3 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, or both.

(B) The treatment meets the following requirements, in addition to all other requirements of this section:

(i) The treatment complies with all applicable pretreatment requirements.

(ii) Neutralization occurs in elementary neutralization units, as defined in Section 66260.10 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations; wastes to be neutralized do not contain any more than 10 percent acid or base concentration by weight, or any other concentration limit which may be imposed by the department; and vessels and piping for neutralization are constructed of materials compatible with the range of temperatures and pH levels, and subject to appropriate pH temperature controls.

(iii) Treatment does not result in the emission of volatile hazardous waste constituents or toxic air contaminants.

(10) The hazardous waste treatment is carried out in a quality control or quality assurance laboratory at a facility that is not an offsite hazardous waste facility and the treatment activity otherwise meet the requirements of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a).

(11) Any wastestream technology combination certified by the department, pursuant to Section 25200.1.5, as suitable for authorization pursuant to this section, that operates pursuant to the conditions imposed on that certification.

(12) The generator uses any technology that is certified by the department pursuant to Section 25200.1.5. as effective for the treatment of formaldehyde or glutaraldehyde solutions used in health care facilities that are operated pursuant to the conditions imposed on the certification and which makes the operation appropriate to this tier. The technology may be certified using a pilot certification process until the department adopts regulations pursuant to Section 25200.1.5. This paragraph shall be operative only until April 11, 1996.

(d) A generator conducting treatment pursuant to subdivision (a) or (c) shall meet all of the following conditions:

(1) The waste being treated is generated onsite, and a residual material from the treatment of a hazardous waste generated offsite is not a waste that has been generated onsite.

(2) The treatment does not require a hazardous waste facilities permit pursuant to the federal act.

(3) The generator prepares and maintains written operating instructions and a record of the dates, amounts, and types of waste treated.

(4) The generator prepares and maintains a written inspection schedule and log of inspections conducted.

(5) The records specified in paragraphs (3) and (4) are maintained onsite for a period of three years.

(6) The generator maintains adequate records to demonstrate that it is in compliance with all applicable pretreatment standards and with all applicable industrial waste discharge requirements issued by the agency operating the publicly owned treatment works into which the wastes are discharged.

(7) (A) The generator submits a notification to the department and to the local health officer or other local public officer authorized to implement this chapter pursuant to Section 25180 on or before April 1, 1993, or if the generator is commencing the first treatment of waste pursuant to this section, not more than 60 days before commencing treatment of that waste pursuant to this section. The notification shall be completed, dated, and signed in accordance with the requirements of Section 66270.11 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, as those requirements apply to permit applications, shall be on a form prescribed by the department, and shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following information:

(i) The name, identification number, site address, mailing address, and telephone number of the generator to whom the conditional exemption applies.

(ii) A description of the physical characteristics and chemical composition of the hazardous waste to which the conditional exemption applies.

(iii) A description of the hazardous waste treatment activity to which the conditional exemption applies, including, but not limited to, the basis for determining that a hazardous waste permit is not required under the federal act.

(iv) A description of the characteristics and management of any treatment residuals.

(B) The development and publication of the notification form specified in subparagraph (A) is not subject to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. The department shall hold at least one public workshop concerning the development of the notification form.

(C) Any notification submitted pursuant to this paragraph shall supersede any prior notice of intent submitted by the same generator in order to obtain a permit-by-rule under the regulations adopted by the department. This subparagraph does not require the department to refund any fees paid for any application in conjunction with the submission of a notice of intent for a permit-by-rule.

(8) (A) Upon terminating operation of any treatment process or unit exempted pursuant to this section, the generator who conducted the treatment shall remove or decontaminate all waste residues, containment system components, soils, and other structures or equipment contaminated with hazardous waste from the unit. The removal of the unit from services shall be conducted in a manner that does both of the following:

(i) Minimizes the need for further maintenance.

(ii) Eliminates the escape of hazardous waste, hazardous constituents, leachate, contaminated runoff, or waste decomposition products to the environment after treatment process is no longer in operation.

(B) Any owner or operator who permanently ceases operation of a treatment process or unit that is conditionally exempted pursuant to this section shall provide written notification to the department and to the local health officer or other local public officer designated by the director pursuant to Section 25180 upon completion of all activities required under this subdivision.

(9) The waste is managed in accordance with all applicable requirements for generators of hazardous waste under this chapter and the regulations adopted by the department pursuant to this chapter.

(10) The generator submits a fee in the amount required by Section 25205.14. The generator shall submit that fee within 30 days of the date that the fee is assessed by the State Board of Equalization, in the manner specified by Section 43152.10 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(11) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the generator shall submit the fee required by Section 25205.14 for the 1993 reporting period to the department as part of, and at the same time as, the notification required pursuant to paragraph (7) of subdivision (d) that is due on April 1, 1993. Any notification not accompanied by payment of the fee is invalid and shall not result in a grant of conditional exemption.

(e) (1) Unless otherwise required by federal law, ancillary equipment for a tank or container treating hazardous wastes solely pursuant to this section, is not subject to Section 66265.193 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, if the ancillary equipment's integrity is attested to pursuant to Section 62265.191 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations every two years from the date that retrofitting requirements would otherwise apply.

(2) The Legislature hereby finds and declares that, in the case of underground, gravity-pressured sewer systems, integrity testing is often not feasible. Therefore, on or before June 30, 1994, the department shall, by regulation, determine the best feasible leak detection measures which are sufficient to ensure that underground gravity-pressured sewer systems, for which it is not feasible to conduct integrity testing, do not leak. On and after July 1, 1994, if it is not feasible for an operator's ancillary equipment, or a portion thereof, to undergo integrity testing, the operator is not subject to Section 66265.193 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, if the operator implements the best feasible leak detection measures that are determined to be sufficient by the department in those regulations, and those leak detection measures do not reveal any leaks emanating from the operator's ancillary equipment. Any ancillary equipment found to leak shall be retrofitted by the operator to meet the full secondary containment standards of Section 66265.196 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations.

(f) Nothing in this section shall abridge any authority granted to the department by any other provision of law to impose any further restrictions or limitations upon facilities subject to this section, that the department determines to be necessary to protect human health or the environment.

(g) A generator may contract with another party to provide onsite treatment in accordance with the permit exemption provisions of this section. Any person who performs onsite treatment in a transportable treatment unit pursuant to this subdivision shall comply with the standards set forth in this chapter for the same treatment units treating the same waste streams and shall be subject to any additional requirements for transportable treatment units that are imposed by the department by regulations adopted pursuant to this section. The additional requirements may include, but shall not be limited to, a waste analysis plan, site/specific notification, financial assurances for third-party liability, operating standards, records retention, and time limits for the operation of the transportable treatment unit at a particular site.

(h) A generator conducting activities which are exempt from this chapter pursuant to Section 66261.7 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, as that section read on January 1, 1993, is not required to comply with this section.

CHAPTER 407

An act to amend Section 51.7 of the Civil Code, and to amend Sections 422.6, 422.7, 422.75, and 1170.75 of the Penal Code, relating to hate crimes.

[Approved by Governor August 31, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 51.7 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

51.7. (a) All persons within the jurisdiction of this state have the right to be free from any violence, or intimidation by threat of violence, committed against their persons or property because of their race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, political affiliation, sex, sexual orientation, age, disability, or position in a labor dispute, or because another person perceives them to have one or more of those characteristics. The identification in this subdivision of particular bases of discrimination is illustrative rather than restrictive.

This section does not apply to statements concerning positions in a labor dispute which are made during otherwise lawful labor picketing.

(b) As used in this section, "sexual orientation" means heterosexuality, homosexuality, or bisexuality.

SEC. 2. Section 422.6 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

422.6. (a) No person, whether or not acting under color of law, shall by force or threat of force, willfully injure, intimidate, interfere with, oppress, or threaten any other person in the free exercise or enjoyment of any right or privilege secured to him or her by the Constitution or laws of this state or by the Constitution or laws of the United States because of the other person's race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, disability, gender, or sexual orientation, or because he or she perceives that the other person has one or more of those characteristics.

(b) No person, whether or not acting under color of law, shall knowingly deface, damage, or destroy the real or personal property of any other person for the purpose of intimidating or interfering with the free exercise or enjoyment of any right or privilege secured to the other person by the Constitution or laws of this state or by the Constitution or laws of the United States, because of the other person's race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, disability, gender, or sexual orientation, or because he or she perceives that the other person has one or more of those characteristics.

(c) Any person convicted of violating subdivision (a) or (b) shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail not to exceed one year, or by a fine not to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine. However, no person shall be convicted of violating subdivision (a) based upon speech alone, except upon a showing that the speech itself threatened violence against a specific person or group of persons and that the defendant had the apparent ability to carry out the threat.

SEC. 3. Section 422.7 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

422.7. Except in the case of a person punished under Section 422.6, any crime which is not made punishable by imprisonment in the state prison shall be punishable by imprisonment in the state prison or in a county jail not to exceed one year, by a fine not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine, if the crime is committed against the person or property of another for the purpose of intimidating or interfering with that other person's free exercise or enjoyment of any right secured to him or her by the Constitution or laws of this state or by the Constitution or laws of the United States and because of the other person's race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, disability, gender, or sexual orientation, or because the defendant perceives that the other person has one or more of those characteristics, under any of the following circumstances, which shall be charged in the accusatory pleading:

(a) The crime against the person of another either includes the present ability to commit a violent injury or causes actual physical injury.

(b) The crime against property causes damage in excess of five hundred dollars ($500).

(c) The person charged with a crime under this section has been convicted previously of a violation of subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 422.6, or has been convicted previously of a conspiracy to commit a crime described in subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 422.6.

SEC. 4. Section 422.75 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

422.75. (a) Except in the case of a person punished under Section 422.7, a person who commits a felony or attempts to commit a felony because of the victim's race, color, religion, nationality, country of origin, ancestry, disability, or sexual orientation, or because he or she perceives that the victim has one or more of those characteristics, shall receive an additional term of one, two, or three years in the state prison, at the court's discretion.

(b) Except in the case of a person punished under Section 422.7 or subdivision (a) of this section, any person who commits a felony or attempts to commit a felony because of the victim's race, color, religion, nationality, country of origin, ancestry, disability, or sexual orientation, or because he or she perceives that the victim has one or more of those characteristics, and who voluntarily acted in concert with another person either personally or by aiding and abetting another person shall receive an additional two, three, or four years in the state prison, at the court's discretion.

(c) For the purpose of imposing an additional term under subdivision (a) or (b), it shall be a factor in aggravation that the defendant personally used a firearm in the commission of the offense. Nothing in this subdivision shall preclude a court from also imposing a sentence enhancement pursuant to Section 12022.5 or 12022.55, or any other law.

(d) A person who is punished pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) also shall receive an additional term of one year in the state prison for each prior felony conviction on charges brought and tried separately in which it was found by the trier of fact or admitted by the defendant that the crime was committed because of the victim's race, color, religion, nationality, country of origin, ancestry, disability, or sexual orientation, or that the crime was committed because the defendant perceived that the victim had one or more of those characteristics. This additional term shall only apply where a sentence enhancement is not imposed pursuant to Section 667 or 667.5.

(e) The additional term in subdivisions (a), (b), and (d) shall not be imposed unless the allegation is charged in the accusatory pleading and admitted by the defendant or found to be true by the trier of fact.

(f) The additional term in subdivisions (a), (b), and (d) shall be in addition to any other punishment provided by law.

(g) Notwithstanding any other law, the court may strike the additional term in subdivisions (a), (b), and (d) if the court determines that there are mitigating circumstances and states on the record the reasons for striking the additional punishment.

SEC. 5. Section 1170.75 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1170.75. Except where the court imposes additional punishment under Section 422.75 or in a case in which the person has been convicted of an offense subject to Section 1170.8, the fact that a person committed a felony or attempted to commit a felony because of the victim's race, color, religion, nationality, country of origin, ancestry, disability, gender, or sexual orientation, or because he or she perceived that the victim had one or more of those characteristics, shall be considered a circumstance in aggravation of the crime in imposing a term under subdivision (b) of Section 1170.

SEC. 6. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the amendments of Section 51.7 of the Civil Code and Sections 422.6, 422.7, 422.75, and 1170.75 of the Penal Code made by this act do not constitute changes in, but are declaratory of, existing law.

SEC. 7. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 408

An act to amend Sections 20022.01, 20024.002, 20523, 21251.133, 21263.1, 21263.4, 21263.5, 21365.5, and 21365.7 of, and to repeal Section 21364.5 of, the Government Code, relating to the Public Employees' Retirement System.

[Approved by Governor August 31, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 20022.01 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20022.01. A contracting agency may report an amount for each member that is equal to a uniformly applied percentage of salary in lieu of computing and reporting the actual compensation attributable to each individual member if the contracting agency has agreed in a memorandum of understanding reached pursuant to Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 3500) of Division 4 of Title 1 that the aggregate amount to be reported by the contracting agency for all members within a membership classification bears a reasonable relation to the aggregate amount that would otherwise be required to be reported pursuant to Section 20023.

SEC. 1.5. Section 20024.002 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20024.002. (a) Notwithstanding Section 20024.01, "final compensation" for the purposes of determining any pension or benefit with respect to a state member who retires or dies on or after July 1, 1991, and with respect to benefits based on service with the state, means the highest annual compensation which was earnable by the state member during the consecutive 12-month period of employment immediately preceding the effective date of his or her retirement or the date of his or her last separation from state service if earlier or during any other period of 12 consecutive months during his or her membership in the system which the member designates on the application for retirement.

(b) With respect to a state member who retires or dies on or after July 1, 1991, and who was a managerial employee, as defined by subdivision (e) of Section 3513, or a supervisory employee, as defined by subdivision (g) of Section 3513, whose monthly salary range was administratively reduced by 5 percent because of the salary range reductions administratively imposed upon managers and supervisors during the 1991–92 fiscal year, "final compensation" means the highest annual compensation the state member would have earned had his or her salary range not been reduced by the 5-percent reduction. This subdivision shall only apply if the period during which the state member's salary was reduced would have otherwise been included in determining his or her final compensation. The costs, if any, that may result from the use of the higher final compensation shall be paid for by the employer in the same manner as other retirement benefits are funded.

SEC. 2. Section 20523 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20523. (a) Shares of members in the funds of a local employer shall be credited to the respective individual accounts of the local agency members who have been included in this system, and administered as if made during membership in this system, except that the annuity provided by those contributions with accumulated interest shall be deducted first from the pension which otherwise would be payable on account of prior service and the balance of the contributions with accumulated interest shall be deducted from the pension which otherwise would be payable on account of current service. The total of the funds transferred to this system shall be offset against the prior or current service liability, as the case may be, before determining the contribution to be paid by the contracting agency.

(b) A former member of the local retirement system who withdrew any contributions prior to the effective date of that agency's contract with this system is entitled to credit for the service upon which those contributions were made if he or she elects to deposit any of those withdrawn contributions with this system under the terms and conditions specified in Section 20654. Any amounts so deposited with this system shall be administered as provided in this section.

(c) As used in subdivision (b), "former member" shall also include any former member of the local retirement system who failed to exercise the right of election pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) of 24810 of the Education Code.

SEC. 3. Section 21251.133 of the Government Code is amended to read:

21251.133. (a) The service retirement allowance for a local miscellaneous member who is subject to Article 3.6 (commencing with Section 20547) of Chapter 4 of this part is a pension derived from the contributions of the employer sufficient, when added to the service retirement annuity that is derived from the accumulated normal contributions of the member at the date of retirement, to equal the fraction of one-hundredth of the member's final compensation set forth opposite the member's age at retirement, taken to the preceding completed quarter year in the following table, multiplied by the member's number of years of local miscellaneous service subject to Article 3.6 (commencing with Section 20547) of Chapter 4 of this part:

(b) The service retirement allowance for a local miscellaneous member who, pursuant to Section 20547.4, elects to be subject to Article 3.6 (commencing with Section 20547) of Chapter 4 of this part shall be: the sum of the allowance for service rendered subsequent to the effective date of the election computed pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section, added to the allowance for service rendered as a local miscellaneous member prior to the effective date of the election, computed pursuant to the formula specified in the employer's contract with the board.

SEC. 4. Section 21263.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

21263.1. "Member" for purposes of Section 21263 also includes those local miscellaneous members and local safety members who on the day preceding the operative date of this section were subject to Sections 21264 and 21264.1 as those sections read prior to their repeal on such operative date. "Member" shall not include any other local miscellaneous or local safety member or apply to any contracting agency employing such member unless and until the agency elects to be subject to the provisions of Section 21263 by amendment to its contract made in the manner prescribed for approval of contracts, except that an election among employees shall not be required or, in the case of contracts made on or after the operative date of this section, by express provision of such contract. Such election may be exercised separately with respect to local safety members who are firemen, local safety members who are policemen, local safety members other than policemen or firemen, and local miscellaneous members. The operative date of Section 21263 for purposes of application to that section to such local members shall be the effective date of such contract or contract amendment.

"Surviving spouse" shall mean, for a member subject to Section 21263, who retires for disability retirement on or after January 1, 1995, a husband or wife who was married to the member on the date of his or her retirement and continuously to the date of his or her death.

SEC. 5. Section 21263.4 of the Government Code is amended to read:

21263.4. Upon the death, after the effective date of retirement, of a state miscellaneous member none of whose service rendered in state employment has been included in the federal system and whose retirement is effective on or after July 1, 1974, or of a school member or school safety member none of whose service rendered in school service or school safety service has been included in the federal system and whose retirement is effective on or after July 1, 1983, a monthly allowance derived from employer contributions equal to 50 percent of the amount of his or her retirement allowance as it was at his or her death and based on service credited to him or her as a member subject to this section but excluding any portion of the retirement allowance derived from additional contributions of the member shall be paid to the surviving spouse throughout life or until remarriage. If there be no surviving spouse, or upon the death or remarriage of the surviving spouse, the allowance shall be paid collectively to every unmarried child of the deceased member who has not attained age 18, or who is disabled by a condition which disabled that child prior to attaining age 18 and which has continued without interruption after age 18, until the disability ceases. If at the time of the retired member's death there is no eligible surviving spouse or children, the allowance shall be paid to a parent, or collectively to parents, of the deceased member dependent upon him or her for support. If on the effective date of retirement there is a person who will be eligible if the person survives, the member's election of an optional settlement other than optional settlement 1 shall apply only to a portion of his or her allowance as provided in Section 21330 with respect to allowances under Section 21263. If on the effective date of his or her retirement the member has no surviving spouse, eligible children, or dependent parents and elected an optional settlement, no allowance under this section shall be paid.

"Surviving spouse," for purposes of service retirement subject to this section, means a husband or wife who was married to the member for a continuous period beginning at least one year prior to his or her retirement and ending on the date of his or her death and, for purposes of disability retirement subject to this section where the member retired on or after January 1, 1995, means a husband or wife who who was married to the member on the date of his or her retirement and continuously to the date of his or her death.

SEC. 6. Section 21263.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

21263.5. Upon death after the effective date of retirement of a state miscellaneous member some of whose service rendered in state employment has been included in the federal system and whose retirement is effective on or after July 1, 1975, or of a school member or school safety member some of whose service rendered in school employment has been included in the federal system and whose retirement is effective on or after July 1, 1983, a monthly allowance, derived from employer contributions, equal to a percentage of the amount of his or her retirement allowance as it was at his or her death based on service credited to him or her as a member subject to this section but excluding any portion of the retirement allowance derived from additional contributions of the member shall be paid to the surviving spouse throughout life or until remarriage. The percentage shall be 25 percent for an allowance based on service which was also covered under the federal system and 50 percent for an allowance based on any other service, except that the percentage shall be 50 percent for the allowance of a member whose service was subject to Section 21251.146 or 21251.147 and who had become a member prior to November 1, 1988. If there is no surviving spouse, or upon the death or remarriage of the surviving spouse, the allowance shall be paid collectively to every unmarried child of the deceased member who has not attained age 18, or who is disabled by a condition which disabled that child prior to attaining age 18 and which has continued without interruption after age 18, until the disability ceases. If at the time of the retired member's death there is no eligible surviving spouse or children, the allowance shall be paid to a parent, or collectively to parents, of the deceased member dependent upon him or her for support. If on the effective date of retirement there is a person who will be eligible if the person survives, the member's election of an optional settlement, other than optional settlement 1, shall apply only to a portion of the allowance as provided in Section 21330 with respect to allowances under Section 21263. If on the effective date of his or her retirement the member has no surviving spouse, eligible children, or dependent parents and elected an optional settlement, no allowance under this section shall be paid.

"Surviving spouse" for purposes of service retirement subject to this section means a husband or wife who was married to the member for a continuous period beginning at least one year prior to his or her retirement and ending on the date of his or her death and, for purposes of disability retirement subject to this section where the member retired on or after January 1, 1995, means a husband or wife who was married to the member on the date of his or her retirement and continuously to the date of his or her death.

SEC. 7. Section 21364.5 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 8. Section 21365.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

21365.5. Upon the death of a member who has attained the minimum age for voluntary service retirement applicable to him or her in his or her last employment preceding death, and who is eligible to retire and in circumstances in which the basic death benefit is payable other than solely that of membership in a county retirement system, or a retirement system maintained by the university, a monthly allowance equal to one-half of and derived from the same source as the unmodified retirement allowance which the member would have been entitled to receive if he or she had retired for service on the date of his or her death shall be payable:

(a) To the member's surviving spouse as long as he or she lives or until his or her remarriage.

(b) To the children under age 18 collectively if there is no surviving spouse or if the surviving spouse dies or remarries before all children of the deceased member attain age 18, until every child dies or attains age 18; provided, that no child shall receive any allowance after marrying or attaining the age of 18.

Where a member does not have a surviving spouse nor any children under the age of 18 years at the time of death, no allowance shall be payable under this section.

No allowance shall be payable under this section if a special death benefit is payable.

The allowance provided by this section shall be paid in lieu of the basic death benefit but a surviving spouse qualifying for the allowance may elect before the first payment on account of it to receive the basic death benefit in lieu of the allowance.

The allowance provided by this section shall be paid in lieu of the basic death benefit but the guardian of the minor child or children qualifying for the allowance may elect, before the first payment on account of it, to receive the basic death benefit in lieu of the allowance. If an election of the basic death benefit is made, the basic death benefit shall be paid to all the member's surviving children, regardless of age or marital status, in equal shares.

If the total of the payments made are less than the basic death benefit which was otherwise payable on account of the member's death, the amount of the basic death benefit less any payments made pursuant to this section shall be paid in a lump sum as follows:

(a) If the person last entitled to the allowance is the remarried spouse of the member, to the remarried spouse.

(b) Otherwise, to the surviving children of the member, share and share alike, or if there are no children, to the estate of the person last entitled to the allowance.

The board shall compute the amount by which benefits paid pursuant to this section exceed the benefits which would otherwise be payable and shall charge any excess against the contributions of the state so that there shall be no increase in contributions of members by reason of benefits paid pursuant to this section. As used in this section, "a surviving spouse" means a spouse that was married to the member for at least one year prior to his or her death, and "child" includes a posthumously born child of the member.

On and after April 1, 1972, this section shall apply to all contracting agencies and to the employees of those agencies with respect to deaths occurring after that operative date, whether or not the agencies have previously elected to be subject to this section.

SEC. 9. Section 21365.7 of the Government Code is amended to read:

21365.7. When a member, who is eligible to retire and who has attained the minimum age for voluntary service retirement applicable to him or her in his or her last employment preceding death, dies in circumstances in which the basic death benefit is payable other than solely upon the basis of membership in a county retirement system or a retirement system maintained by the university, and when the member has made a preretirement election of the benefits provided by Section 21365.5 for his or her surviving spouse and, if none, for any eligible surviving children or Section 21365.6, if payable, for his or her surviving spouse, and the designated spouse or children survive the member, a monthly allowance equal to the amount provided by the elected benefit shall be payable to the designated spouse or children.

No benefit is payable under this section if the special death benefit is payable.

The allowance provided by this section shall be paid in lieu of the basic death benefit, but a surviving spouse designated for the allowance may elect, before the first payment on account of it, to receive the basic death benefit in lieu of the allowance.

The allowance provided by this section shall be paid in lieu of the basic death benefit but the guardian of the minor child or children designated for the allowance may elect, before the first payment on account of it, to receive the basic death benefit in lieu of the allowance. If an election of the basic death benefit is made, the basic death benefit shall be paid to all the member's surviving children, regardless of age or marital status, in equal shares.

If the accrued allowance paid under this section is less than the basic death benefit payable, any such balance shall be paid as a lump sum to the remarried spouse; if there is no remarried spouse, then to the surviving children of the member, share and share alike; if there is no remarried spouse and no surviving children, then to the estate of the person last entitled.

This section shall apply only to a member whose death occurs on or after January 1, 1990.

As used in this section, "a surviving spouse" means a husband or wife who was married to the member for a continuous period beginning at least one year prior to his or her death. "Children" means unmarried children under age 18, until they reach age 18 or marry prior to age 18.

Nothing in this section is intended to, or shall be construed to, diminish any rights conferred by Section 21365.5 or 21365.6 or by any other provision of this part.

CHAPTER 409

An act to amend Section 799 of the Penal Code, relating to criminal procedure.

[Approved by Governor August 31, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 799 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

799. Prosecution for an offense punishable by death or by imprisonment in the state prison for life or for life without the possibility of parole, or for the embezzlement of public money, may be commenced at any time.

This section shall apply in any case in which the defendant was a minor at the time of the commission of the offense and the prosecuting attorney could have petitioned the court for a fitness hearing pursuant to Section 707 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

CHAPTER 410

An act to amend Sections 19051 and 19055 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to home furnishings.

[Approved by Governor August 31, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19051 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19051. Every upholstered-furniture retailer, unless he or she holds a furniture manufacturer's license, a wholesale furniture dealer's license, a custom upholsterer's license, or a retail furniture and bedding dealer's license shall hold a retail furniture dealer's license.

This section does not apply to an individual or firm whose sole business is designing and specifying for interior spaces, and who purchases specific amenable upholstered furniture items on behalf of a client, provided that the furniture is purchased from an appropriately licensed wholesaler or retailer.

SEC. 2. Section 19055 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19055. Every bedding retailer, unless he or she holds a bedding manufacturer's license, a wholesale bedding dealer's license, a bedding renovator's license, or a retail furniture and bedding dealer's license, shall hold a retail bedding dealer's license.

This section does not apply to an individual or firm whose sole business is designing and specifying for interior spaces, and who purchases specific amenable bedding items on behalf of a client, provided that the bedding is purchased from an appropriately licensed wholesaler or retailer.

CHAPTER 411

An act to amend Section 5054.1 of the Penal Code, relating to corrections.

[Approved by Governor August 31, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5054.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

5054.1. The Director of Corrections has full power to order returned to custody any person under the director's jurisdiction. The written order of the Director of Corrections shall be sufficient warrant for any peace officer to return to actual custody any escaped state prisoner or any state prisoner released prior to his or her scheduled release date who should be returned to custody. It is hereby made the duty of all peace officers to execute the order in like manner as ordinary criminal process.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 412

An act to amend Section 217 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to health.

[Approved by Governor August 31, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 217 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

217. (a) For purposes of this section, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) "SIDS" means sudden infant death syndrome.

(2) "SIDS Advisory Council" or "advisory council" means the Sudden Infant Death Syndrome Advisory Council established pursuant to subdivision (b).

(b) The State Department of Health Services shall establish a Sudden Infant Death Syndrome Advisory Council. The advisory council shall consist of nine members who shall be chosen by the State Director of Health Services in consultation with regional SIDS parent advisory councils. At least one-third of the members of the advisory council chosen by the director shall be representatives of SIDS parents' groups. The membership of the advisory council shall also include, but not be limited to, a coroner, a medical examiner, a public health nurse, a physician and surgeon with expertise in SIDS, and a representative from a police or fire department.

(c) The SIDS Advisory Council shall do all of the following:

(1) Provide guidance to the state department in the development of training, educational, and research programs regarding SIDS.

(2) Provide ongoing guidance to the Governor and the Legislature regarding the need for specific programs regarding SIDS for specific targeted groups of persons.

(3) In conjunction with the state department or a person with whom the state department contracts to provide SIDS education, convene a statewide conference annually to examine the progress in discovering the cause of SIDS, explore the progress of newly established programs and services related to SIDS, identify future needs for legislation and program development regarding SIDS, and make recommendations on the needs of programs regarding SIDS. Conference participants shall include professionals and service providers in the area of SIDS, family members of SIDS victims, and the staff of members of the Legislature and departments of the state.

(d) The members of the advisory council shall serve at the pleasure of the director. The members of the advisory council shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for necessary and travel expenses incurred in the performance of the duties of the advisory council.

(e) The requirements contained in this section shall be subject to the annual Budget Act and shall be operative only to the extent that funds are appropriated for the purposes of this section.

CHAPTER 413

An act to amend Sections 7011.4 and 7027.1 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to contractors.

[Approved by Governor August 31, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7011.4 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7011.4. (a) Notwithstanding Section 7011, there is in the Contractors' State License Board, a separate enforcement unit which shall rigorously enforce this chapter prohibiting all forms of unlicensed activity.

(b) Persons employed as deputy registrars in this unit and designated by the Director of Consumer Affairs are not peace officers and are not entitled to safety member retirement benefits. They do not have the power of arrest. However, they may issue a written notice to appear in court pursuant to Chapter 5c (commencing with Section 853.5) of Title 3 of Part 2 of the Penal Code.

SEC. 2. Section 7027.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7027.1. (a) It is a misdemeanor for any person to advertise for construction or work of improvement covered by this chapter unless that person holds a valid license under this chapter in the classification so advertised, except that a licensed building or engineering contractor may advertise as a general contractor.

(b) "Advertise," as used in this section, includes, but not by way of limitation, the issuance of any card, sign, or device to any person, the causing, permitting, or allowing of any sign or marking on or in any building or structure, or in any newspaper, magazine, or by airwave transmission, or in any directory under a listing for construction or work of improvement covered by this chapter, with or without any limiting qualifications.

(c) A violation of this section is punishable by a fine of not less than seven hundred dollars ($700) and not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), which fine shall be in addition to any other punishment imposed for a violation of this section.

(d) If upon investigation, the registrar has probable cause to believe that an unlicensed individual is in violation of this section, the registrar may issue a citation pursuant to Section 7028.7 or 7099.10.

CHAPTER 414

An act to amend Section 564 of the Code of Civil Procedure, to add Section 87104 to the Government Code, to amend Section 436.20 of, and to add Sections 436.42, 436.805, 436.221, 436.222, and 436.29 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to state government, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 31, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that the provisions added by Section 7 of this act are declaratory of existing law regarding the Cal-Mortgage Loan Insurance Program and do not constitute a change to the California Health Facility Construction Loan Insurance Law.

By this act, the Legislature intends to clarify the existing rights of the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development pursuant to its regulatory agreement, contract of insurance, and other contractual agreements developed under the Cal-Mortgage Loan Insurance Program and pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 436) of the Health and Safety Code. The office shall have these rights notwithstanding the requirements of Sections 580a, 580b, 580d, and 726 of the Code of Civil Procedure in order that the office may expeditiously and efficiently enforce its statutory mandate to provide an insurance program for health facility construction, improvement, and expansion loans, at no cost to the state.

SEC. 2. Section 564 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

564. (a) A receiver may be appointed, in the manner provided in this chapter, by the court in which an action or proceeding is pending in any case in which the court is empowered by law to appoint a receiver.

(b) In superior court a receiver may be appointed by the court in which an action or proceeding is pending, or by a judge thereof, in the following cases:

(1) In an action by a vendor to vacate a fraudulent purchase of property, or by a creditor to subject any property or fund to the creditor's claim, or between partners or others jointly owning or interested in any property or fund, on the application of the plaintiff, or of any party whose right to or interest in the property or fund, or the proceeds thereof, is probable, and where it is shown that the property or fund is in danger of being lost, removed, or materially injured.

(2) In an action by a secured lender for the foreclosure of the deed of trust or mortgage and sale of the property upon which there is a lien under a deed of trust or mortgage, where it appears that the property is in danger of being lost, removed, or materially injured, or that the condition of the deed of trust or mortgage has not been performed, and that the property is probably insufficient to discharge the deed of trust or mortgage debt.

(3) After judgment, to carry the judgment into effect.

(4) After judgment, to dispose of the property according to the judgment, or to preserve it during the pendency of an appeal, or pursuant to Title 9 (commencing with Section 680.010) (enforcement of judgments), or after sale of real property pursuant to a decree of foreclosure, during the redemption period, to collect, expend, and disburse rents as directed by the court or otherwise provided by law.

(5) In the cases when a corporation has been dissolved, or is insolvent, or in imminent danger of insolvency, or has forfeited its corporate rights.

(6) In an action of unlawful detainer.

(7) At the request of the Public Utilities Commission pursuant to Section 855 of the Public Utilities Code.

(8) In all other cases where receivers have heretofore been appointed by the usages of courts of equity.

(9) At the request of the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development, or the Attorney General, pursuant to Section 436.222 of the Health and Safety Code.

(c) A receiver may be appointed, in the manner provided in this chapter, including, but not limited to, Section 566, by the superior court in an action brought by a secured lender to enforce the rights provided in Section 2929.5 of the Civil Code, to enable the secured lender to enter and inspect the real property security for the purpose of determining the existence, location, nature, and magnitude of any past or present release or threatened release of any hazardous substance into, onto, beneath, or from the real property security. The secured lender shall not abuse the right of entry and inspection or use it to harass the borrower or tenant of the property. Except in case of an emergency, when the borrower or tenant of the property has abandoned the premises, or if it is impracticable to do so, the secured lender shall give the borrower or tenant of the property reasonable notice of the secured lender's intent to enter and shall enter only during the borrower's or tenant's normal business hours. Twenty-four hours' notice shall be presumed to be reasonable notice in the absence of evidence to the contrary.

(d) Any action by a secured lender to appoint a receiver pursuant to this section shall not constitute an action within the meaning of subdivision (a) of Section 726.

(e) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Borrower" means the trustor under a deed of trust, or a mortgagor under a mortgage, where the deed of trust or mortgage encumbers real property security and secures the performance of the trustor or mortgagor under a loan, extension of credit, guaranty, or other obligation. The term includes any successor-in-interest of the trustor or mortgagor to the real property security before the deed of trust or mortgage has been discharged, reconveyed, or foreclosed upon.

(2) "Hazardous substance" means (A) any "hazardous substance" as defined in subdivision (f) of Section 25281 of the Health and Safety Code as effective on January 1, 1991, or as subsequently amended, (B) any "waste" as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 13050 of the Water Code as effective on January 1, 1991, or as subsequently amended, or (C) petroleum, including crude oil or any fraction thereof, natural gas, natural gas liquids, liquefied natural gas, or synthetic gas usable for fuel, or any mixture thereof.

(3) "Real property security" means any real property and improvements, other than a separate interest and any related interest in the common area of a residential common interest development, as the terms "separate interest," "common area," and "common interest development" are defined in Section 1351 of the Civil Code, or real property consisting of one acre or less which contains 1 to 15 dwelling units.

(4) "Release" means any spilling, leaking, pumping, pouring, emitting, emptying, discharging, injecting, escaping, leaching, dumping, or disposing into the environment, including continuing migration, of hazardous substances into, onto, or through soil, surface water, or groundwater.

(5) "Secured lender" means the beneficiary under a deed of trust against the real property security, or the mortgagee under a mortgage against the real property security, and any successor-in-interest of the beneficiary or mortgagee to the deed of trust or mortgage.

SEC. 3. Section 87104 is added to the Government Code, to read:

87104. (a) No public official of a state agency shall, for compensation, act as an agent or attorney for, or otherwise represent, any other person by making any formal or informal appearance before, or by making any oral or written communication to, his or her state agency or any officer or employee thereof, if the appearance or communication is made for the purpose of influencing action on a contract, grant, loan, license, permit, or other entitlement for use.

(b) For purposes of this section, a "public official" is any person defined in Section 82048, and every member of any advisory committee of a state agency, whether the committee is created by statute or otherwise.

SEC. 4. Section 436.42 is added to the Health and Safety Code, immediately following Section 436.4, to read:

436.42. Applications submitted to the office shall be signed under penalty of perjury by the applicant.

SEC. 5. Section 436.805 is added to the Health and Safety Code, immediately following Section 436.8, to read:

436.805. A pledge by or to the office of, or the grant to the office of a security interest in, revenues, moneys, accounts, accounts receivable, contract rights, general intangibles, documents, instruments, chattel paper, and other rights to payment of whatever kind made by or to the office pursuant to the authority granted in this chapter shall be valid and binding from the time the pledge is made for the benefit of pledgees and successors thereto. The revenues, moneys, accounts, accounts receivable, contract rights, general intangibles, documents, instruments, chattel paper, and other rights to payment of whatever kind pledged by or to the office or its assignees shall immediately be subject to the lien of the pledge without physical delivery or further act. The lien of such pledge shall be valid and binding against all parties, irrespective of whether the parties have notice of the lien. The indenture, trust agreement, resolution, or another instrument by which such pledge is created need not be recorded or the security interest otherwise perfected.

SEC. 6. Section 436.20 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

436.20. (a) All debentures issued under this chapter to any lender or bondholder shall be executed in the name of the fund as obligor, shall be signed by the State Treasurer, and shall be negotiable. Pursuant to Sections 436.13 and 436.14, all debentures shall be dated as of the date of the institution of foreclosure proceedings or as of the date of the acquisition of the property after default by other than foreclosure, or as of another date as the office, in its discretion, may establish. The debentures shall bear interest from that date at a rate approved by the State Treasurer, equal to either the rate applicable to the most recent issue of State General Fund bonds or that specified in Section 436.14, which shall be payable on the dates as the office, in its discretion, may establish except in the case of bonds or other evidences of indebtedness as specified in Section 436.14, and shall have the same maturity date as the loan which they insured. All debentures shall be exempt, both as to principal and interest, from all taxation now or hereafter imposed by the state or local taxing agencies, shall be paid out of the fund, which shall be primarily liable therefor, and shall be, pursuant to Section 4 of Article XVI of the California Constitution, fully and unconditionally guaranteed as to principal and interest by the State of California, which guaranty shall be expressed on the face of the debentures. In the event that the fund fails to pay upon demand, when due, the principal of or interest on any debentures issued under this chapter, the State Treasurer shall pay to the holders the amount thereof which is authorized to be appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, and thereupon to the extent of the amount so paid the State Treasurer shall succeed to all the rights of the holders of the debentures. The fund shall be liable for repayment to the Treasury of any money paid therefrom pursuant to this section in accordance with procedures jointly established by the State Treasurer and the office.

(b) In the event of a default, any debenture issued under this article shall be paid on a par with general obligation bonds issued by the state.

SEC. 7. Section 436.221 is added to the Health and Safety Code, immediately following Section 436.22, to read:

436.221. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if, prior to foreclosing on any collateral provided by a borrower, the office institutes a judicial proceeding or takes any action against a borrower to enforce compliance with the obligations set out in the regulatory agreement, the contract of insurance, or any other contractual loan closing document or law, including, but not limited to, Section 436.222, that remedy or action shall not constitute an action within the meaning of subdivision (a) of Section 726 of the Code of Civil Procedure, or in any way constitute a violation of the intent or purposes of Section 726 of the Code of Civil Procedure, or constitute a money judgment or a deficiency judgment within the meaning of Sections 580a, 580b, 580d, or subdivision (b) of Section 726 of the Code of Civil Procedure. However, these provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure shall apply to any judicial proceeding instituted, or nonjudicial foreclosure action taken by the office to collect the principal and interest due on the loan with the borrower.

SEC. 8. Section 436.222 is added to the Health and Safety Code, immediately following Section 436.221, to read:

436.222. In fulfilling the purposes of this article, as set forth in Section 436.1, and upon making a determination that the financial status of a borrower may jeopardize a borrower's ability to fulfill its obligations under any insured loan transaction so as to threaten the economic interest of the office in the borrower or to jeopardize the borrower's ability to continue to provide needed healthcare services in its community, including, but not limited to, a declaration of default under any contract related to the transaction, the borrower missing any payment to its lender, or the borrower's accounts payable exceeding three months, the office may assume or direct managerial or financial control of the borrower in any or all of the following ways:

(a) The office may supervise and prescribe the activities of the borrower in the manner and under the terms and conditions as the office may stipulate in any contract with the borrower.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of the articles of incorporation or other documents of organization of a nonprofit corporation borrower, this control may be exercised through the removal and appointment by the office of members of the governing body of the borrower sufficient such that the new members constitute a voting majority of the governing body.

(c) In the event the borrower is a nonprofit corporation or a political subdivision, the office may request the Secretary of the Health and Welfare Agency to appoint a trustee, this trustee shall have full and complete authority of the borrower over the insured project, including all property on which the office holds a security interest. No trustee shall be appointed unless approved by the office. A trustee appointed by the secretary pursuant to this subdivision may exercise all the powers of the officers and directors of the borrower, including the filing of a petition for bankruptcy. No action at law or in equity may be maintained by any party against the office or a trustee by reason of their exercising the powers of the officers and directors of a borrower pursuant to the direction of, or with the approval of, the secretary.

(d) The office may institute any action or proceeding, or the office may request the Attorney General to institute any action or proceeding against any borrower, to obtain injunctive or other equitable relief, including the appointment of a receiver for the borrower or the borrower's assets, in the superior court in and for the county in which the assets or a substantial portion of the assets are located. The proceeding under this section for injunctive relief shall conform with the requirements of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, except that the office shall not be required to allege facts necessary to show lack of adequate remedy at law, or to show irreparable loss or damage. Injunctive relief may compel the borrower, its officers, agents, or employees to perform each and every provision contained in any regulatory agreement, contract of insurance, or any other loan closing document to which the borrower is a party, or any obligation imposed on the borrower by law, and require the carrying out of any and all covenants and agreements and the fulfillment of all duties imposed on the borrower by law or such documents.

A receiver may be appointed pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 564) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure. Upon a proper showing, the court shall grant the relief provided by law and requested by the office or the Attorney General. No receiver shall be appointed unless approved by the office. A receiver appointed by the superior court pursuant to this subdivision and Section 564 of the Code of Civil Procedure may, with the approval of the court, exercise all of the powers of the officers and directors of the borrower, including the filing of a petition for bankruptcy. No action at law or in equity may be maintained by any party against the office, the Attorney General, or a receiver by reason of their exercising the powers of the officers and directors of a borrower pursuant to the order of, or with the approval of, the superior court.

(e) The borrower shall inform the office in advance of all meetings of its governing body. The borrower shall not exclude the office from attending any meeting of the borrower's governing body.

SEC. 9. Section 436.29 is added to the Health and Safety Code, immediately following Section 436.28, to read:

436.29. The Health Facility Construction Loan Insurance Fund, established pursuant to Section 436.26, shall be a trust fund and neither the fund nor the interest or other earnings generated by the fund shall be used for any purpose other than those purposes authorized by this chapter.

SEC. 10. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 11. The Legislature finds and declares that the provisions of this act further the purposes of the Political Reform Act of 1974 within the meaning of subdivision (a) of Section 81012 of the Government Code.

SEC. 12. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that as soon as possible state public officials be prohibited from representing other for compensation before their state agencies and that the California Health Facility Construction Loan Insurance Program be given protection from the one-action rule governing loan defaults, and be able to enforce its loan covenants to the maximum protection of the full faith and credit of the General Fund, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 415

An act to amend Section 4068 of, and to repeal Article 3 (commencing with Section 3680) of Chapter 6 of Part 1 of Division 9 of, the Family Code, relating to family law.

[Approved by Governor August 31, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 3 (commencing with Section 3680) of Chapter 6 of Part 1 of Division 9 of the Family Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 4068 of the Family Code is amended to read:

4068. (a) The Judicial Council may develop the following:

(1) Model worksheets to assist parties in determining the approximate amount of child support due under the formula provided in subdivision (a) of Section 4055 and the approximate percentage of time each parent has primary physical responsibility for the children.

(2) A form to assist the courts in making the findings and orders required by this article.

(b) The Judicial Council, in consultation with representatives of the State Department of Social Services, the California Family Support Council, the Senate Judiciary Committee, the Assembly Judiciary Committee, the Family Law Section of the State Bar of California, a legal services organization providing representation on child support matters, a custodial parent group, and a noncustodial parent group, shall develop a simplified income and expense form for determining child support under the formula provided in subdivision (a) of Section 4055, by June 1, 1995. The Judicial Council, also in consultation with these groups, shall develop factors to use to determine when the simplified income and expense form may be used and when the standard income and expense form must be used.

CHAPTER 416

An act to add Section 5028 to the Penal Code, relating to undocumented aliens.

[Approved by Governor August 31, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5028 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

5028. (a) Upon the entry of any person who is an undocumented alien subject to deportation into a facility operated by the Department of Corrections, and at least every year thereafter, the Director of Corrections shall inform the person that he or she may apply to be transferred to serve the remainder of his or her prison term in his or her country of origin.

(b) The Department of Corrections shall implement and maintain procedures to process applications for the transfer of prisoners to their countries of origin under subdivision (a), and shall forward the applications to the Board of Prison Terms for appropriate action.

(c) The Department of Corrections may pay any foreign country to which an inmate is transferred under subdivision (a) no more than two thousand dollars ($2,000) from moneys appropriated by the Legislature for that purpose for every year that the inmate is imprisoned until he or she has completed the prison term which he or she began serving in this state.

CHAPTER 417

An act to amend Section 74808 of, to add Section 74810 to, and to repeal Sections 73484, 73706, and 74804 of, the Government Code, relating to courts.

[Approved by Governor August 31, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 73484 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 73706 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 74804 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 74808 of the Government Code is amended to read:

74808. Whenever the salary of a related class, or classes, of San Joaquin County employees is adjusted, the salary of the following classes may be adjusted by a percentage not to exceed the percentage of adjustment granted to the class, or classes, deemed by the board of supervisors to be related:

(a) Deputy clerk I.
(b) Deputy clerk II.
(c) Deputy clerk III.
(d) Judicial secretary.
(e) Municipal Courtroom Clerks.
(f) Clerk/Administrator.
(g) Courtroom calendar coordinator.
(h) Deputy marshal.
(i) Senior deputy marshal.
(j) Director of court operations.
(k) Secretary.
(l) Accounting technician II.
(m) Specialist clerk.
(n) Court reporter.
(o) Office systems analyst.

All adjustments to the salaries of the above-named classes shall be effective as of the same date as the adjustment for the class, or classes, deemed to be related, and shall be effective only until January 1 of the second year following the year in which the adjustment is made, unless earlier ratified by the Legislature.

SEC. 5. Section 74810 is added to the Government Code, to read:

74810. (a) (1) Because cost savings or operational efficiencies, or both, can be realized by consolidation of the three separate marshal's offices within the county, there shall be one marshal for San Joaquin County designated as the Marshal of San Joaquin County. The marshal shall be deemed the head of the department denominated as the San Joaquin County Marshal's Office. It is the intent of this section to create a unified, appointive marshal's office.

(2) The office shall be responsible for all municipal court services, including bailiff duties in such courts, service of process and other papers as required by such courts, and service of criminal warrants issued by such courts. The marshal shall have the rights, duties, and powers imposed upon marshals generally by law.

(b) (1) The marshal shall be appointed by, and serve at the pleasure of, the majority of judges of all municipal courts in the county. When making such appointment, the judges shall consider, but shall not be bound by, the recommendation of a committee comprised of the presiding judges of each municipal court in the county.

(2) The marshal initially appointed pursuant to this section shall be selected from those individuals who hold the position of marshal of one of the municipal courts of the county immediately prior to the operative date of subdivision (a).

(c) (1) The salary range of the marshal originally appointed pursuant to this section shall be at a minimum level of salary range 69E ($2,430.40 biweekly). The salary range for any individual appointed marshal after the original appointment of the marshal pursuant to this section shall be set by the board of supervisors of the county.

(2) Until the end of the term of office to which he or she was elected immediately prior to the operative date of this section, the marshal initially appointed pursuant to this section shall receive all benefits currently received by the elected department heads of the county. Thereafter, the marshal shall receive all benefits received by appointed department heads of the county. The specific terms and conditions of the benefits to be received by the marshal initially appointed pursuant to this section, including the rates of accrual and accumulation, shall be set forth in a memorandum of understanding between the county and the three elected marshals of the county which memorandum shall be adopted prior to the operative date of subdivision (a).

(3) Unless otherwise provided for in this section, salary and benefit adjustments for the marshal shall be made by the board of supervisors of the county.

(d) (1) The marshal shall appoint, as necessary, an assistant marshal or assistant marshals who shall serve at the pleasure of the marshal.

(2) The marshal shall initially appoint two assistant marshals who shall serve at the pleasure of the marshal, but who shall not serve longer than is provided for in subdivision (h). The two assistant marshals initially appointed pursuant to this section shall be selected from those individuals who hold the position of marshal of one of the municipal courts of the county immediately prior to the operative date of subdivision (a). Upon the first occurrence of a vacancy in an assistant marshal's position, that position shall cease to exist.

(e) (1) The salary range of the two assistant marshals appointed pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) shall be at a minimum level of salary range 66.8E ($2,089.60 biweekly). The salary differential between the marshal and the two assistant marshals initially appointed pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) shall be maintained until the vacancy in the second of the original two assistant marshal positions created by this section. The salary range for any individual appointed to the assistant marshal position after the vacancy of the second of the original two assistant marshal positions created by this section shall be set by the board of supervisors of the county.

(2) Until the end of the term of office to which they were elected immediately prior to the operative date of subdivision (a), the two assistant marshals appointed pursuant to this subdivision shall receive all benefits currently received by the elected department heads of the county. The specific terms and conditions of the benefits to be received by the two assistant marshals initially appointed pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (d), including the rates of accrual and accumulation, shall be set forth in a memorandum of understanding between the county and the three elected marshals of the county which memorandum shall be adopted prior to the operative date of subdivision (a). Thereafter, they shall receive the benefits received by appointed department heads of the county. After the occurrence of a vacancy in the remaining assistant marshal position, any individual appointed to fill that position shall receive all benefits received by assistant department heads of the county.

(3) Unless otherwise provided for in this subdivision, salary and benefit adjustments for assistant marshal positions shall be made by the board of supervisors of the county.

(f) The office of the marshal shall be maintained in the Stockton Judicial District. A branch office of the marshal shall be maintained in the Lodi Judicial District and one in the Manteca-Ripon-Escalon-Tracy Judicial District.

(g) (1) All personnel of the Lodi Marshal's Office, the Manteca-Ripon-Escalon-Tracy Marshal's Office, and the Stockton Marshal's Office on the operative date of this section shall automatically become members of the consolidated San Joaquin County Marshal's Office at their existing classifications, salaries, and benefits. All personnel assigned to the separate marshal's offices as of the operative date of this section shall not lose peace officer status, or be demoted or otherwise adversely affected by the consolidation. All county municipal court marshal's office civil service time of personnel affected by this consolidation shall be counted toward county civil service seniority.

(2) Permanent employees described in this section shall be deemed qualified, and no other qualifications shall be required for employment or retention as a result of this consolidation. Probationary employees on the operative date of subdivision (a) shall retain their probationary status and rights, and shall not be deemed to have transferred so as to require serving a new probationary period.

(h) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the marshal originally appointed pursuant to this section, and the two assistant marshals originally appointed pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (d), shall be retired not later than the last day of the calendar month in which such individuals attain age 65.

(i) Subdivision (a) shall become operative on January 2, 1995, and on that date the three elected marshal positions in San Joaquin County are abolished.

SEC. 6. Sections 1 to 3, inclusive, of this act shall become operative on January 2, 1995.

SEC. 7. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 418

An act to add Section 21080.24 to the Public Resources Code, relating to environmental quality.

[Approved by Governor August 31, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 21080.24 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

21080.24. This division does not apply to the issuance, modification, amendment, or renewal of any permit by an air pollution control district or air quality management district pursuant to Title V, as defined in Section 39053.3 of the Health and Safety Code, or pursuant to a district Title V program established under Sections 42301.10, 42301.11, and 42301.12 of the Health and Safety Code, unless the issuance, modification, amendment, or renewal authorizes a physical or operational change to a source or facility.

(b) Nothing in this section is intended to result in the application of this division to any physical or operational change which, prior to January 1, 1995, was not subject to this division.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 419

An act to amend Sections 39005 and 39006 of the Education Code, relating to school facilities.

[Approved by Governor August 31, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 39005 of the Education Code is amended to read:

39005. (a) The requirements set forth in this section are designed to promote the safety of pupils, comprehensive community planning, and greater educational usefulness of schoolsites.

(b) Before acquiring title to property for a new schoolsite, or for an addition to a present site, as to any site that is within two miles, measured by air line, of any point on an airport runway, or a runway proposed by an airport master plan, that is nearest the site, the governing board of each school district, including any district governed by a city board of education, shall give the Department of Transportation written notice of the proposed acquisition and shall submit any information required by the department. If the Department of Transportation is no longer in operation, the school district governing board shall, in lieu of notifying the Department of Transportation, notify the United States Department of Transportation or any other appropriate agency, in writing, of the proposed acquisition for the purpose of obtaining from the department or other agency any information or assistance that it may desire to give.

(c) The Department of Transportation shall investigate the proposed site and, within 30 working days after receipt of the notice, shall submit to the governing board a written report and its recommendations concerning acquisition of the site. In developing its recommendations, the department shall take into consideration both of the following:

(1) Specific characteristics of the airport, including the number of flights handled each year, the type of aircraft that uses the airport, and any other relevant aspects of the usage of the airport facilities.

(2) Whether the boundaries of the city limits within the school district proposing the schoolsite fall completely within that two-mile radius.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be construed in any way as limiting the authority of the department to consider other factors in developing its recommendations.

(e) The governing board shall not acquire title to the property until the report of the Department of Transportation has been received. If the report does not favor the acquisition of the property for a schoolsite or an addition to a present schoolsite, the governing board shall not acquire title to the property until 30 days after the department's report is received and until the department's report has been read at a public hearing duly called after 10 days' notice published once in a newspaper of general circulation within the school district or, if there is no newspaper of general circulation within the school district, in a newspaper of general circulation within the county in which the property is located.

SEC. 2. Section 39006 of the Education Code is amended to read:

39006. (a) Notwithstanding Section 39005, immediately after receiving notice of a proposed acquisition of property which is within two miles, measured by air line, of that point on an airport runway, or runway proposed by an airport master plan, which is nearest the site, the Department of Transportation shall make an investigation and report to the school district governing board within 30 working days after receipt of the notice. As part of the investigation, the Department of Transportation shall give notice thereof to the owner and operator of the airport who shall be granted the opportunity to comment upon the proposed schoolsite. In addition, before making its report, the department shall consider both of the following:

(1) Specific characteristics of the airport, including the number of flights handled each year, the type of aircraft that uses the airport, and any other relevant aspects of the usage of the airport facilities.

(2) Whether the boundaries of the city limits within the school district proposing the schoolsite fall completely within that two-mile radius.

(b) Nothing in this section shall be construed in any way as limiting the authority of the department to consider other factors in making its report.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 39005, if the report of the Department of Transportation required by that section does not favor the acquisition of the property for a schoolsite, or an addition to a present schoolsite, the governing body shall not acquire title to the property until 30 days after the department's report is received and until the department's report has been read at a public hearing duly called after 10 days' notice by publication in a newspaper of general circulation within the school district or, if there is no newspaper of general circulation within the school district, in a newspaper of general circulation within the county in which the property is located.

CHAPTER 420

An act to add Section 1875.8 to the Insurance Code, relating to arson, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 6, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1875.8 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

1875.8. (a) There is hereby created the Arson Information Reporting System to permit insurers, law enforcement agencies, fire investigative agencies, and district attorneys to deposit arson case information in a common data base within the Department of Justice. The State Fire Marshal shall oversee the establishment, operation, and maintenance of the Arson Information Reporting System. The Department of Justice shall implement the Arson Information Reporting System in consultation with the State Fire Marshal.

(b) The purpose of the data base is to identify utilization patterns by individual claimants and the methods of operation of individuals, groups, or businesses engaged in the commission of arson, and to prevent the commission of insurance fraud by arson.

(c) The use of the information deposited pursuant to this article shall be made available to law enforcement agencies, fire investigative agencies, district attorneys, and insurers, via modem, for the purpose of investigating and prosecuting arson and arson-related insurance fraud, or evaluating the validity and payment of fire-related insurance claims. The State Fire Marshal shall establish rules governing the access to, and use of, information and the circumstances under which information may be accessed and corrected.

(d) Any information acquired pursuant to this section shall not be a part of any public record. Except as otherwise provided by law, any authorized governmental agency, an insurer, or an agent authorized by an insurer to act on its behalf, which receives any information furnished pursuant to this section, shall not release that information to public inspection until the time that its release is required in connection with a criminal or civil proceeding.

(e) Information submitted to the State Fire Marshal pursuant to this section concerning active cases shall be confidential.

(f) Nothing in this section shall prohibit the accumulation and public distribution by the bureau of statistical data if that data does not reveal the identity of specific claimants, injured parties, attorneys, physicians, or other service providers.

SEC. 2. (a) There is hereby appropriated from the Insurance Fund the sum of three million dollars ($3,000,000) to the State Fire Marshal for the implementation of this act. The appropriation made by this section shall not be made from funds deposited in the Insurance Fund pursuant to Section 1872.8 or 1872.83 of the Insurance Code, nor from funds appropriated to the Department of Insurance through the Budget Act of 1994.

(b) The funds appropriated by this section may be expended over the 1994–95, 1995–96, 1996–97, 1997–98, and 1998–99 fiscal years to establish, operate, and maintain the Arson Information and Reporting System created pursuant to Section 1875.8 of the Insurance Code.

CHAPTER 421

An act to amend Sections 451, 454, and 1203.06 of, and to add Sections 451.1, 451.5, and 452.1 to, the Penal Code, relating to arson, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 6, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 451 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

451. A person is guilty of arson when he or she willfully and maliciously sets fire to or burns or causes to be burned or who aids, counsels, or procures the burning of, any structure, forest land, or property.

(a) Arson that causes great bodily injury is a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for five, seven, or nine years.

(b) Arson that causes an inhabited structure or inhabited property to burn is a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for three, five, or eight years.

(c) Arson of a structure or forest land is a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for two, four, or six years.

(d) Arson of property is a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, two, or three years. For purposes of this paragraph, arson of property does not include one burning or causing to be burned his or her own personal property unless there is an intent to defraud or there is injury to another person or another person's structure, forest land, or property.

(e) In the case of any person convicted of violating this section while confined in a state prison, prison road camp, prison forestry camp, or other prison camp or prison farm, or while confined in a county jail while serving a term of imprisonment for a felony or misdemeanor conviction, any sentence imposed shall be consecutive to the sentence for which the person was then confined.

SEC. 2. Section 451.1 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

451.1. (a) Notwithstanding any other law, any person who is convicted of a felony violation of Section 451 shall be punished by a three-, four-, or five-year enhancement if one or more of the following circumstances is found to be true:

(1) The defendant has been previously convicted of a felony violation of Section 451 or 452.

(2) A firefighter, peace officer, or other emergency personnel suffered great bodily injury as a result of the offense. The additional term provided by this subdivision shall be imposed whenever applicable, including any instance in which there is a violation of subdivision (a) of Section 451.

(3) The defendant proximately caused great bodily injury to more than one victim in any single violation of Section 451. The additional term provided by this subdivision shall be imposed whenever applicable, including any instance in which there is a violation of subdivision (a) of Section 451.

(4) The defendant proximately caused multiple structures to burn in any single violation of Section 451.

(5) The defendant committed arson as described in subdivision (a), (b), or (c) of Section 451 and the arson was caused by use of a device designed to accelerate the fire or delay ignition.

(b) The additional term specified in subdivision (a) shall not be imposed unless the existence of any fact required under this section shall be alleged in the accusatory pleading and either admitted by the defendant in open court or found to be true by the trier of fact.

SEC. 3. Section 451.5 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

451.5. (a) Any person who willfully, maliciously, deliberately, with premeditation, and with intent to cause injury to one or more persons or to cause damage to property under circumstances likely to produce injury to one or more persons or to cause damage to one or more structures or inhabited dwellings, sets fire to, burns, or causes to be burned, or aids, counsels, or procures the burning of any residence, structure, forest land, or property is guilty of aggravated arson if one or more of the following aggravating factors exists:

(1) The defendant has been previously convicted of arson on one or more occasions within the past 10 years.

(2) (A) The fire caused property damage and other losses in excess of five million dollars ($5,000,000).

(B) In calculating the total amount of property damage and other losses under subparagraph (A), the court shall consider the cost of fire suppression. It is the intent of the Legislature that this paragraph be reviewed within five years to consider the effects of inflation on the dollar amount stated herein. For that reason, this paragraph shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1999, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends that date.

(3) The fire caused damage to, or the destruction of, five or more inhabited structures.

(b) Any person who is convicted under subdivision (a) shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for 10 years to life.

(c) Any person who is sentenced under subdivision (b) shall not be eligible for release on parole until 10 calendar years have elapsed.

SEC. 4. Section 452.1 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

452.1. (a) Notwithstanding any other law, any person who is convicted of a felony violation of Section 452 shall be punished by a one-, two-, or three-year enhancement for each of the following circumstances that is found to be true:

(1) The defendant has been previously convicted of a felony violation of Section 451 or 452.

(2) A firefighter, peace officer, or other emergency personnel suffered great bodily injury as a result of the offense. The additional term provided by this subdivision shall be imposed whenever applicable, including any instance in which there is a violation of subdivision (a) of Section 452.

(3) The defendant proximately caused great bodily injury to more than one victim in any single violation of Section 452. The additional term provided by this subdivision shall be imposed whenever applicable, including any instance in which there is a violation of subdivision (a) of Section 452.

(4) The defendant proximately caused multiple structures to burn in any single violation of Section 452.

(b) The additional term specified in subdivision (a) of Section 452.1 shall not be imposed unless the existence of any fact required under this section shall be alleged in the accusatory pleading and either admitted by the defendant in open court or found to be true by the trier of fact.

SEC. 5. Section 454 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

454. (a) Every person who violates Section 451, 452, or subdivision (b) of Section 453 during and within an area of any of the following, when proclaimed by the Governor, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison, as specified in subdivision (b):

(1) A state of insurrection pursuant to Section 143 of the Military and Veterans Code.

(2) A state of emergency pursuant to Section 8625 of the Government Code.

(b) Any person who is described in subdivision (a) and who violates subdivision (a), (b), or (c) of Section 451 shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for five, seven, or nine years. All other persons who are described in subdivision (a) shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for three, five, or seven years.

(c) Probation shall not be granted to any person who is convicted of violating this section, except in unusual cases where the interest of justice would best be served.

SEC. 6. Section 1203.06 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203.06. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1203:

(a) Probation shall not be granted to, nor shall the execution or imposition of sentence be suspended for, any of the following persons:

(1) Any person who personally used a firearm during the commission or attempted commission of any of the following crimes:

(A) Murder.

(B) Robbery, in violation of Section 211.

(C) Kidnapping, in violation of Section 207 or 209.5.

(D) Kidnapping for ransom, extortion, or robbery, in violation of Section 209.

(E) Burglary of the first degree, as defined in Section 460.

(F) Except as provided in Section 1203.065, rape in violation of subdivision (2) of Section 261.

(G) Assault with intent to commit rape or sodomy, in violation of Section 220.

(H) Escape, in violation of Section 4530 or 4532.

(I) A felony violation of Section 136.1 or 137.

(J) Carjacking, in violation of Section 215.

(2) Any person previously convicted of a felony specified in subparagraphs (A) to (H), inclusive, or subparagraph (J), of paragraph (1), or assault with intent to commit murder under former Section 217, who is convicted of a subsequent felony and who was personally armed with a firearm at any time during its commission or attempted commission or was unlawfully armed with a firearm at the time of his or her arrest for the subsequent felony.

(3) Aggravated arson, in violation of Section 451.5.

(b) (1) The existence of any fact which would make a person ineligible for probation under subdivision (a) shall be alleged in the accusatory pleading, and either admitted by the defendant in open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury.

(2) This subdivision does not prohibit the adjournment of criminal proceedings pursuant to Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(3) As used in subdivision (a) "used a firearm" means to display a firearm in a menacing manner, to intentionally fire it, or to intentionally strike or hit a human being with it.

(4) As used in subdivision (a) "armed with a firearm" means to knowingly carry a firearm as a means of offense or defense.

SEC. 7. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to establish a meaningful deterrent to the increase in the incidence of arson throughout the state and to reduce the devastation created therefrom, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 422

An act to amend Sections 32320, 76300, 76330, 76355, 94302, 94310, 94311, 94311.1, 94311.4, 94312, 94312.2, and 94330 of, to add Section 94311.8 to, and to repeal Section 94319.7 of, the Education Code, and to amend Sections 11011.21, 11126, and 15814.21 of the Government Code, relating to postsecondary education, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 6, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 32320 of the Education Code is amended to read:

32320. No state-owned college, university, community college, or other school shall charge any tuition or fees, including enrollment fees, registration fees, differential fees, or incidental fees to any of the following:

(a) Any dependent eligible to receive assistance under Article 2 (commencing with Section 890) of Chapter 4 of Division 4 of the Military and Veterans Code.

(b) Any child of any veteran of the United States military who has a service-connected disability, has been killed in service, or has died of a service-connected disability, where the annual income of the child, including the value of any support received from a parent, does not exceed seven thousand dollars ($7,000).

(c) Notwithstanding Section 893 of the Military and Veterans Code, the Department of Veterans Affairs may determine the eligibility for fee waivers for a child described in subdivision (b).

(d) Any dependent, or surviving spouse who has not remarried, of any member of the California National Guard who, in the line of duty, and while in the active service of the state, was killed, died of a disability resulting from an event that occurred while in the active service of the state, or is permanently disabled as a result of an event that occurred while in the active service of the state. "Active service of the state," for the purposes of this subdivision, means a member of the California National Guard activated pursuant to Section 146 of the Military and Veterans Code.

Nothing contained in this section shall prevent the Regents of the University of California from charging to, and collecting from, nonresident students an admission fee and rate of tuition, nor shall anything in this section prevent the charging and collecting of fees required of nonresident students admitted to a community college or to a state university under the jurisdiction of the Trustees of the California State University.

This section shall not apply to a dependent of a veteran within the meaning of paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 890 of the Military and Veterans Code.

(e) This section shall become operative on July 1, 1994.

SEC. 2. Section 76300 of the Education Code, as amended by Section 10 of Chapter 153 of the Statutes of 1994, is amended to read:

76300. (a) The governing board of each community college district shall charge each student a fee pursuant to this section.

(b) The fee prescribed by this section shall be thirteen dollars ($13) per unit per semester.

The chancellor shall proportionately adjust the amount of the fee for term lengths based upon a quarter system and also shall proportionately adjust the amount of the fee for summer sessions, intersessions, and other short-term courses. In making these adjustments, the chancellor may round the per unit fee and the per term or per session fee to the nearest dollar.

(c) For the purposes of computing apportionments to community college districts pursuant to Section 84750, the chancellor shall subtract from the total revenue owed to each district, 98 percent of the revenues received by districts from charging a fee pursuant to this section.

(d) The chancellor shall reduce apportionments by up to 10 percent to any district that does not collect the fees prescribed by this section.

(e) The fee requirement does not apply to any of the following:

(1) Students enrolled in the noncredit courses designated by Section 84711.

(2) California State University or University of California students enrolled in remedial classes provided by a community college district on a campus of the University of California or a campus of the California State University, for whom the district claims an attendance apportionment pursuant to an agreement between the district and the California State University or the University of California.

(f) The governing board of a community college district may exempt special part-time students admitted pursuant to Section 76001 from the fee requirement.

(g) The fee requirements of this section shall be waived for any student who, at the time of enrollment, is a recipient of benefits under the Aid to Families with Dependent Children program, the Supplemental Security Income/State Supplementary Program, or a general assistance program or has demonstrated financial need in accordance with the methodology set forth in federal law or regulation for determining the expected family contribution of students seeking financial aid. The governing board of a community college district also shall waive the fee requirements of this section for any student who demonstrates eligibility according to income standards established by the board of governors and contained in Section 58620 of Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations.

(h) The fee requirements of this section shall be waived for any student who, at the time of enrollment is a dependent, or surviving spouse who has not remarried, of any member of the California National Guard who, in the line of duty and while in the active service of the state, was killed, died of a disability resulting from an event that occurred while in the active service of the state, or is permanently disabled as a result of an event that occurred while in the active service of the state. "Active service of the state," for the purposes of this subdivision, means a member of the California National Guard activated pursuant to Section 146 of the Military and Veterans Code.

(i) It is the intent of the Legislature that sufficient funds be provided to support the provision of a fee waiver for every student who demonstrates eligibility pursuant to subdivisions (g) and (h).

From funds provided in the annual Budget Act, the board of governors shall allocate to community college districts, pursuant to this subdivision, an amount equal to 2 percent of the fees waived pursuant to subdivisions (g) and (h). From funds provided in the annual Budget Act, the board of governors shall allocate to community college districts, pursuant to this subdivision, an amount equal to 7 percent of the fee waivers provided pursuant to subdivisions (g) and (h) for determination of financial need and delivery of student financial aid services, on the basis of the number of students for whom fees are waived. Funds allocated to a community college district for determination of financial need and delivery of student financial aid services shall supplement, and shall not supplant, the level of funds allocated for the administration of student financial aid programs during the 1992–93 fiscal year.

(j) The board of governors shall adopt regulations implementing this section.

(k) This section shall remain in effect only until July 1, 1995, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before July 1, 1995, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Section 76330 of the Education Code, as amended by Section 11 of Chapter 153 of the Statutes of 1994, is amended to read:

76330. (a) The governing board of each community college district shall charge a fee of fifty dollars ($50) per semester unit, or the quarter unit equivalent, to each student who previously has been awarded a baccalaureate or graduate degree from any public postsecondary educational institution or any private postsecondary educational institution approved to operate by the Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education, accredited by an agency recognized by the United States Department of Education, or operated pursuant to Section 94303. Any student charged a fee pursuant to this section shall be exempt from the fees required pursuant to Section 76300.

(b) The governing board shall exempt from subdivision (a), and charge the fees specified in Section 76300 to, a student who is any of the following:

(1) A dislocated worker, as certified by a state agency in accordance with Subchapter III of the federal Job Training Partnership Act (29 U.S.C. Sec. 1651 et seq.).

(2) A displaced homemaker, as defined in accordance with the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended (20 U.S.C. Sec. 1001 et seq.).

(3) A recipient of benefits under the Aid to Families with Dependent Children program, the Supplemental Security Income/State Supplementary Program, or a general assistance program.

(4) An enrollee in a course offered pursuant to a contract between the community college and a public or private entity if (A) the contract provides for the payment by the public or private entity of all costs associated with the course and (B) full-time equivalent student enrollment in the course is not counted for the purpose of determining district or statewide apportionment.

(5) A student who demonstrates financial need in excess of the amount of the total fee payable pursuant to subdivision (a) in accordance with the methodology set forth in federal law or regulation for determining the expected family contribution of students seeking financial aid.

(6) A student who demonstrates eligibility according to income standards established by the board of governors and contained in Section 58620 of Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations.

(c) Nonresident students who pay nonresident tuition shall be exempt from subdivision (a).

(d) The governing board of a community college district may require each student not required to pay the fee charged pursuant to subdivision (a) to file a written oath or affirmation, at the time of enrollment, that he or she either does not have a baccalaureate degree or higher degree or is eligible for an exemption.

(e) It is the intent of the Legislature that governing boards conduct selective audits of any oath or affirmation filed by students pursuant to subdivision (d). If any audit conducted under this subdivision results in a finding by the community college district that a student owes additional fees pursuant to this section, the district may require the student to pay the additional fees, plus an amount not to exceed two times the additional fees.

(f) For the purposes of computing apportionments to community college districts pursuant to Section 84750, the chancellor shall subtract from the total revenue owed to each district, 98 percent of the revenues received by each district from charging a fee pursuant to this section.

(g) The chancellor shall reduce apportionments by up to 10 percent to any district that does not collect the fees prescribed by this section.

(h) It is the further intent of the Legislature that students who previously have not been awarded a baccalaureate or graduate degree be given priority for enrollment.

(i) Notwithstanding subdivision (c) of Section 84750, decreases in the 1992–93 fiscal year in credit full-time equivalent students (FTES) resulting from the implementation of this section shall not result in any reduction in revenue for the 1993–94 fiscal year. Decreases in FTES in the 1992–93 fiscal year shall result in a revenue reduction over the three-year period beginning with the 1994–95 fiscal year, except that community college districts shall be entitled to restore any reductions in apportionment revenue if there is a subsequent increase in FTES. For purposes of this paragraph, any revenue loss associated with decreases in FTES shall be distributed on a district-by-district basis. District revenue loss shall not be distributed on a statewide average basis.

(j) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1996, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1996, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4. Section 76355 of the Education Code is amended to read:

76355. (a) The governing board of a district maintaining a community college may require community college students to pay a fee in the total amount of not more than ten dollars ($10) for each semester, seven dollars ($7) for summer school, seven dollars ($7) for each intersession of at least four weeks, or seven dollars ($7) for each quarter for health supervision and services, including direct or indirect medical and hospitalization services, or the operation of a student health center or centers, or both.

Commencing with the semester or quarter that begins after January 1, 1993, the governing board of each community college district may increase this fee by the same percentage increase as the Implicit Price Deflator for State and Local Government Purchase of Goods and Services. Whenever that calculation produces an increase of one dollar ($1) above the existing fee, the fee may be increased by one dollar ($1).

(b) If pursuant to this section a fee is required, the governing board of the district shall decide the amount of the fee, if any, that a part-time student is required to pay. The governing board may decide whether the fee shall be mandatory or optional.

(c) The governing board of a district maintaining a community college shall adopt rules and regulations that exempt the following students from any fee required pursuant to subdivision (a):

(1) Students who depend exclusively upon prayer for healing in accordance with the teachings of a bona fide religious sect, denomination, or organization.

(2) Students who are attending a community college under an approved apprenticeship training program.

(3) Low-income students, including those students receiving financial aid pursuant to subdivision (g) or (h) of Section 76300.

(d) All fees collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the fund of the district designated by the California Community Colleges Budget and Accounting Manual. These fees shall be expended only to provide health services as specified in regulations adopted by the board of governors.

Authorized expenditures shall not include, among other things, athletic trainers' salaries, athletic insurance, medical supplies for athletics, physical examinations for intercollegiate athletics, ambulance services and the salaries of health professionals for athletic events, any deductible portion of accident claims filed for athletic team members, or any other expense that is not available to all students. No student shall be denied a service supported by student health fees on account of participation in athletic programs.

(e) Any community college district that provided health services in the 1986–87 fiscal year shall maintain health services, at the level provided during the 1986–87 fiscal year, in the 1987–88 fiscal year, and each fiscal year thereafter. If the cost to maintain that level of service exceeds the limits specified in subdivision (a), the excess cost shall be borne by the district.

(f) A district that begins charging a health fee during the 1992–93 fiscal year, or any fiscal year thereafter, may use funds for startup costs from other district funds and recover all or part of those funds from health fees collected within the first five years following the commencement of charging the fee.

(g) The board of governors shall adopt regulations that generally describe the types of health services included in the health service program.

SEC. 5. Section 94302 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94302. As used in this chapter, unless the context requires otherwise, the following definition shall apply:

(a) "Accredited" means that an institution has been recognized or approved as meeting the standards established by an accrediting agency recognized by the United States Department of Education, or the Committee of Bar Examiners for the State of California. It shall not include those institutions that have applied for accreditation, or are identified by accrediting associations as candidates for accreditation or have provisional accreditation.

(b) "Agency" means any person or business entity, regardless of the form of organization, that employs, or in any manner contracts with, one or more agents. "Agency" does not include an institution.

(c) "Agency approval" means a written document issued by the Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education authorizing a business entity or an institution to engage in the recruitment of students for enrollment in private postsecondary and vocational institutions approved under this chapter.

(d) "Agent" means any person who, at a place away from the institution's premises or site of instruction, for consideration, solicits, promotes, advertises, offers, or attempts to secure enrollment for an institution, refers any person to an institution either for enrollment or to receive a solicitation for enrollment, or accepts application fees or admissions fees for education in an institution. Administrators and faculty who make informational public appearances, but whose primary task does not include service as a paid recruiter, are exempted from this definition.

(e) "Agent's permit" means a nontransferable written document issued to an agent pursuant to this chapter by the Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education.

(f) "Applicant" means a new institution that has submitted an application but has not been evaluated by the council. An applicant institution shall not enroll students or offer educational services.

(g) "Approval" or "approval to operate" means that the council has determined and certified that an institution meets minimum standards established by the council for integrity, financial stability, and educational quality, including the offering of bona fide instruction by qualified faculty and the appropriate assessment of students' achievement prior to, during, and at the end of its program.

(h) "Branch" means a site located within 50 miles of the main location. Only educational services that are approved at the main location shall be offered at the branch. For the purpose of conducting onsite inspections and evaluations, hotel conference rooms, faculty offices, and homes are not considered branches.

(i) "Certificate of authorization for service" means a written, nontransferable document issued by the council authorizing an individual to be an instructor or administrator in any private vocational postsecondary educational institution in California that is approved under subdivision (a) of Section 94311.

(j) "Change of location" means a move of up to 25 miles of the location at which an institution offers any education, training, or instruction. A change of location of 25 or more miles is deemed the establishment of a new location of instruction requiring a separate approval to operate, unless otherwise provided by the council.

(k) "Correspondence school" or "home study school" means any institution that provides correspondence lessons for study and completion by a student at a location separate from the institution, including those institutions which offer that instruction by correspondence in combination with in-residence instruction.

(l) "Council" means the Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education established pursuant to Section 94304.

(m) "Course of study" means either a single course or a set of related courses for which a student enrolls.

(n) "Degree" means any "academic degree" or "honorary degree" or title of any designation, mark, appellation, series of letters or words such as, but not limited to, associate, bachelor, master, doctor, or fellow which signifies, purports, or is generally taken to signify satisfactory completion of the requirements of an academic, educational, technological, or professional program of study beyond the secondary school level or is an honorary title conferred for recognition of some meritorious achievement.

(o) "Degree title" means a discipline, major, or subject area of study, the completion of which leads to the award of a degree.

(p) "Diploma" means any "diploma," "certificate," "transcript," "document," or other writing in any language other than a degree which signifies, purports, or is generally taken to signify satisfactory completion of the requirements of an academic, educational, technological, or professional program of study beyond the secondary school level.

(q) "Education," or "education services," or "educational program" includes, but is not limited to, any class, course, or programs of training, instruction, or study.

(r) "Institution" means any private postsecondary educational institution. An "institution" includes its branch and satellite campuses, unless otherwise provided by the council.

(s) "Institutional approval" means an institution that has been evaluated by the council and has been found to be in compliance with the council's standards pursuant to this chapter.

(t) "Instruction" includes any specific, formal arrangement by an institution or its enrollees to participate in learning experiences in which the institution's faculty or contracted instructors present a planned curriculum appropriate to the enrollee's educational program.

(u) "Out-of-state school" means any private postsecondary or vocational educational institution offering career or job training programs, including both an in-residence institution and a home study institution that has its place of instruction or its principal location outside the boundaries of the state, or that offers or conducts courses of instruction or subjects on premises maintained by the school outside the boundaries of the state, or that provides correspondence or home study lesson materials from a location outside the boundaries of this state, or that evaluates completed lesson materials or otherwise conducts its evaluation service from a location outside the boundaries of this state, or that otherwise offers or provides California students with courses of instruction or subjects through activities engaged in or conducted outside the boundaries of the state.

(v) "Person" means a natural person or any business entity, regardless of the form or organization.

(w) "Private postsecondary educational institution" means any person doing business in California that offers to provide or provides, for a tuition, fee, or other charge, any instruction, training, or education primarily to people who have completed or terminated their secondary education or are beyond the age of compulsory high school attendance. The following are not considered to be private postsecondary educational institutions under this chapter:

(1) Institutions exclusively offering instruction at any or all levels from preschool through the 12th grade.

(2) Education solely avocational or recreational in nature, and institutions offering this education exclusively.

(3) Education sponsored by a bona fide trade, business, professional, or fraternal organization, solely for that organization's membership.

(4) Postsecondary or vocational educational institutions established, operated, and governed by the federal government or by this state, or its political subdivisions.

(5) A nonprofit institution owned, controlled, and operated and maintained by a bona fide church or religious denomination, lawfully operating as a nonprofit religious corporation pursuant to Part 4 (commencing with Section 9110) of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code, if the education is limited to instructions in the principles of that church or denomination, or to courses offered pursuant to Section 2789 of the Business and Professions Code, and the diploma or degree is limited to evidence of completion of that education, and the meritorious recognition upon which any honorary degree is conferred is limited to the principles of that church or denomination. Institutions operating under this paragraph shall offer degrees and diplomas only in the beliefs and practices of the denomination, church, or religion. The enactment of this paragraph expresses legislative intent that the state shall not involve itself in the content of degree programs awarded by any institution operating under this paragraph, as long as the institution awards degrees and diplomas only in areas specified in the previous sentence. Institutions operating under this paragraph shall not award degrees in any area of physical science. Any degree or diploma granted in any area of study under these provisions shall contain on its face, in the written description of the title of the degree being conferred, a reference to the theological or religious aspect of the degree's subject area. The enactment of this paragraph is intended to prevent any entity claiming to be a nonprofit institution owned, controlled, and operated and maintained by a bona fide church or religious denomination, lawfully operating as a nonprofit religious corporation pursuant to Part 4 (commencing with Section 9110) of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code, from marketing and granting degrees or diplomas that are represented as being linked to their church or denomination but which, in reality, are degrees in secular areas of study.

(x) "Satellite" means an auxiliary classroom located within 50 miles of a branch or the main location. A satellite is a facility whose sole purpose is to function as a teaching site. All of the following shall apply to a satellite:

(1) Only educational services that are approved at the main location shall be offered at the satellite.

(2) The institution shall maintain no permanent records of attendance or academic progress at the satellite.

(3) No solicitation or enrollment of students shall occur at the satellite.

(4) The satellite shall not be identified in any advertising.

For the purpose of conducting onsite inspections and evaluations, hotel conference rooms, faculty offices, and homes are not considered satellites.

(y) (1) "Short-term seminar training" means an educational service consisting of either of the following:

(A) Fifty hours or less of instruction, the total charge for which is less than five hundred dollars ($500).

(B) Instruction approved by a governmental licensing authority to be offered exclusively as continuing education in subjects licensees are required to take as a condition of continued licensure.

(2) "Short-time seminar training" does not include any of the following:

(A) Instruction in how to prepare for, take, or pass a licensing examination or other test qualifying a person for employment.

(B) Instruction in which the institution awards any credits or units other than continuing education units pursuant to instruction described in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1).

(C) Any educational service, other than instruction described in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1), consisting of more than 50 hours of instruction or costing five hundred dollars ($500) or more in total charges that is divided or structured into one or more segments that consist of 50 or fewer hours of instruction, the total charge for which is less than five hundred dollars ($500).

(z) "To offer" includes, in addition to its usual meanings, advertising, publicizing, soliciting, or encouraging any person, directly or indirectly, in any form, to perform the act described.

(aa) "To operate" an educational institution, or like term, means to establish, keep, or maintain any facility or location in this state where, or from or through which, educational services are offered or educational degrees or diplomas are offered or granted.

SEC. 6. Section 94310 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94310. No private postsecondary educational institution may issue, confer, or award an academic or honorary degree unless the institution meets the requirements of subdivision (a) or (i), as follows:

(a) The institution is approved by the council to operate in California and award degrees. The council shall not issue an approval under subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) or a conditional approval under subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) until it has conducted a qualitative review and assessment of, and has approved, each degree program offered by the institution, and all of the operations of the institution, and has determined all of the following:

(1) The institution has the facilities, financial resources, administrative capabilities, faculty, and other necessary educational expertise and resources to ensure its capability of fulfilling the program or programs for enrolled students.

(2) The faculty are fully qualified to undertake the level of instruction that they are assigned and shall possess appropriate degrees or credentials and have demonstrated professional achievement in the major field or fields offered, in sufficient numbers to provide the educational services.

(3) The education services and curriculum clearly relate to the objectives of the proposed program or programs and offer students the opportunity for a quality education.

(4) The facilities are appropriate for the defined educational objectives and are sufficient to ensure quality educational services to the students enrolled in the program or programs.

(5) The course of study for which the degree is granted provides the curriculum necessary to achieve its professed or claimed academic objective for higher education, and the institution requires a level of academic achievement appropriate to that degree.

(6) The institution provides adequate student advisement services, academic planning and curriculum development activities, research supervision for students enrolled in Ph.D. programs, and clinical supervision for students enrolled in various health profession programs.

(7) If the institution offers credit for prior experiential learning it may do so only after an evaluation by qualified faculty and only in disciplines within the institution's curricular offerings that are appropriate to the degree to be pursued. The council shall develop specific standards regarding the criteria for awarding credit for prior experiential learning at the graduate level, including the maximum number of hours for which credit may be awarded.

(b) The approval process shall include a qualitative review and assessment of all of the following:

(1) Institutional purpose, mission, and objectives.
(2) Governance and administration.
(3) Curriculum.
(4) Instruction.
(5) Faculty, including their qualifications.
(6) Physical facilities.
(7) Administrative personnel.
(8) Procedures for keeping educational records.
(9) Tuition, fee, and refund schedules.
(10) Admissions standards.
(11) Financial aid policies and practices.
(12) Scholastic regulations and graduation requirements.
(13) Ethical principles and practices.
(14) Library and other learning resources.
(15) Student activities and services.
(16) Degrees offered.

The standards and procedures utilized by the council shall foster the development of high quality, innovative educational programs and emerging new fields of study within postsecondary education. In addition, the standards and procedures utilized by the council shall not unreasonably hinder educational innovation and competition.

It is the intent of the Legislature that the minimum standards for approval for degree-granting institutions established in Section 94310 not exceed the accreditation standards utilized by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges.

(c) The council, at its discretion, may delegate the responsibilities for regulation and oversight of accredited degree-granting law schools to the Committee of Bar Examiners of the State of California, and that accreditation may be accepted by the council in lieu of state approval.

(d) (1) The council shall conduct a qualitative review and assessment of the institution and all programs offered, including the items listed in subdivision (b), through a comprehensive onsite review process, performed by a qualified visiting committee impaneled by the council for that purpose. Except as provided in subdivision (f) of Section 94330, each institution shall submit a single application for all operations in California, its main location, branches, and satellites. The application shall include a single fee that is institution based and not site based. The visiting committee shall be impaneled by the council within 90 days of the date of the receipt of a completed application and shall be composed of educators, and other individuals with expertise in the areas listed in subdivision (b), from degree-granting institutions legally operating within the state. Within 90 days of the receipt of the visiting committee's evaluation report and recommendations, or any reasonable extension of time not to exceed 90 days, the council shall take one of the following actions:

(A) If the institution is in compliance with this chapter and has not operated within three years before the filing of the application in violation of this chapter then in effect, the council may grant an approval to operate for a period not to exceed five years.

(B) If the institution is in compliance with this chapter, but has operated within three years before the filing of the application in violation of this chapter then in effect, or if the council, in its discretion, determines that an unconditional grant of approval to operate is not in the public interest, the council may grant a conditional approval to operate subject to whatever restrictions the council deems appropriate. The council shall notify the institution of the restrictions or conditions, the bases for the restrictions or conditions, and the right to request a hearing to contest them. Conditional approval shall not exceed two years.

(C) The council may deny the application. If the application is denied, the council may permit the institution to continue offering the course of instruction to students already enrolled or may order the institution to cease instruction and provide a refund of tuition and all other charges to students.

(2) When evaluating an institution whose purpose is to advance postsecondary education through innovative methods, the visiting committee shall comprise educators who are familiar with and receptive to evidence bearing on the educational quality and accomplishments of those methods.

(3) The standards and procedures utilized by the council shall not unreasonably hinder educational innovation and competition.

(4) It is the intent of the Legislature that the council, prior to June 1, 1992, conduct an onsite review of all institutions approved by the Superintendent of Public Instruction between January 1, 1989, and December 31, 1990, that did not receive an onsite review by a visiting committee that included at least one permanent employee of the Private Postsecondary Education Division of the State Department of Education.

(5) Each institution or instructional program offering education for entry into a health care profession in which the provider has primary care responsibilities shall offer that education within a professional degree program which shall be subject to approval by the council pursuant to this section.

(e) (1) If an institution is not operating in California when it applies for approval to operate for itself or a branch or satellite campus, the institution shall file with its application an operational plan establishing that the institution will satisfy the minimum standards set forth in subdivision (a). The operational plan also shall include a detailed description of the institution's program for implementing the operational plan, including proposed procedures, financial resources, and the qualifications of owners, directors, officers, and administrators employed at the time of the filing of the application. The council may request additional information to enable the council to determine whether the operational plan and its proposed implementation will satisfy these minimum standards.

(2) If the council determines that the operational plan satisfies the minimum standards described in subdivision (a), that the institution demonstrates that it will implement the plan, and that no ground for denial of the application exists, the council shall grant a temporary approval to operate, subject to any restrictions the council reasonably deems necessary to ensure compliance with this chapter, pending a qualitative review and assessment as provided in subdivisions (a) and (b). The council shall inspect pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (d), the institution, or branch or satellite campus if approval is sought for that campus between 90 days and 180 days after operation has begun under the temporary approval to operate. Following receipt of the visiting committee's report, the council shall act as provided in subparagraph (A), (B), or (C) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (d).

(f) If at any time the council determines that an institution has deviated from the standards for approval, the council, after identifying for the institution the areas in which it has deviated from the standards, and after giving the institution due notice and an opportunity to be heard, may place the institution on probation for a prescribed period of time, not to exceed 24 calendar months. During the period of probation, the institution shall be subject to special monitoring. The conditions for probation may include the required submission of periodic reports, as prescribed by the council, and special visits by authorized representatives of the council to determine progress toward total compliance. If, at the end of the probationary period, the institution has not taken steps to eliminate the cause or causes for its probation to the satisfaction of the council, the council may revoke the institution's approval to award degrees and provide notice to the institution to cease its operations.

(g) An institution may not advertise itself as an approved institution unless each degree program offered by the institution has been approved in accordance with the requirements of this section. The council shall review all operations of the institution, both within and outside of California. The council shall have the authority to conduct site visits outside of California when it deems these visits to be necessary. The council may authorize any institution approved to issue degrees under this section to issue diplomas for the completion of courses of study that are within the institution's approved degree-granting programs.

(h) (1) All institutions operating on December 31, 1990, pursuant to licensure received under subdivision (a) of Section 94310.1 or approval received under Section 94310.2, shall receive approval for a period not to exceed four years. On a specified date prior to January 1, 1995, to be determined by the council, each institution granted approval pursuant to this subdivision shall file a completed application for reapproval pursuant to this section.

(2) All institutions operating on December 31, 1990, pursuant to candidate for approval status received pursuant to Section 94310.2 shall receive candidate for approval status for a period not to exceed two years. On a specified date prior to January 1, 1993, as determined by the council, each institution granted candidate for approval status pursuant to this subdivision shall file a completed application for approval pursuant to this section.

(i) All institutions operating pursuant to authorization received under Section 94310.3 or 94310.4, as in effect on December 31, 1990, shall receive candidate for approval status for a period not to exceed three years. On a specified date prior to January 1, 1994, to be determined by the council, each institution granted candidate for approval status pursuant to this subdivision shall file a completed application for approval pursuant to this section.

(j) Any public or private postsecondary educational institution incorporated in another state that has accreditation from a regional accrediting association recognized by the United States Department of Education at the time of the issuance of a degree, and that is approved by the council, may issue degrees, diplomas, or certificates. Accredited public or private postsecondary educational institutions incorporated in another state shall not offer degrees, diplomas, or certificates in California unless they comply with this subdivision.

(1) The council shall not approve an institution to issue degrees, diplomas, or certificates pursuant to this subdivision until the council has conducted a qualitative review and assessment of, and has approved, the operations of the institution in California, and the council has determined that the institution meets all of the following standards:

(A) The institution has financial resources to ensure the capability of fulfilling the program or programs for enrolled students.

(B) The faculty includes personnel who possess appropriate degrees from institutions accredited by a regional accrediting association recognized by the United States Department of Education in the degree major field or fields offered, in sufficient number to provide the educational services.

(C) The education services and curriculum clearly relate to the objectives of the proposed program or programs.

(D) The facilities are appropriate for the defined educational objectives and are sufficient to ensure quality educational services to the students enrolled in the program or programs.

(E) The institution has verifiable evidence of academic achievement comparable to that required of graduates of other institutions operating in this state for the program or programs upon which the degree, diploma, or certificate is based.

(2) The council shall grant approved status under this subdivision for a period consistent with the postsecondary educational institution's regional accrediting association, but not to exceed five years.

(3) Institutions approved under this subdivision shall offer in California only programs that the institution can document to have been acknowledged and favorably reviewed by the home regional accrediting association.

(4) In reviewing the out-of-state accredited institutions, the council shall use as guidelines the standards and procedures developed by the special committee created pursuant to paragraph (5) of subdivision (b) of Section 94310.1, as in effect on December 31, 1989, and adopted by the California Postsecondary Education Commission. These standards and procedures were based on all of the following principles:

(A) Following the initial state review, subsequent onsite reviews by the council may be conducted in conjunction with institutional reviews by the regional accrediting association. However, if there is substantial evidence that the institution is not in compliance with state standards, the council may initiate a special review of the California operations of the institution.

(B) Each institution shall submit a single application for all operations in California, and the application shall include a single fee which is institution based and not site based.

(C) The council shall develop a procedural rationale to justify the number of sites to be visited by the state in the review of the institution's operations in California.

(D) The purpose of the onsite review by the council shall be to determine that operations by the institution in California meet the minimum state standards identified in statute.

(E) The standards and procedures shall not unreasonably hinder educational innovation and competition.

(5) The regulations adopted by the council to implement this chapter shall provide for consideration of the accredited institutions' stated educational goals, purposes, and objectives, in conducting the approval review of the California operations of out-of-state based institutions.

(A) These regulations shall include a formula to determine the institutional approval fee and the number of sites to be visited by the state.

(B) The regulations adopted by the council shall be based on the procedures and standards recommended by the special committee and acted upon by the commission. In conducting the approval review of the operation of out-of-state accredited institutions in California, the council shall interpret the regulations based upon each institution's accredited educational purposes and objectives.

(6) All institutions operating under subdivision (b) of Section 94310.1, as it read on December 31, 1990, shall receive approval for a period not to exceed five years from the date of the institution's last review by the state. On a date to be specified by the council on or before January 1, 1996, each institution granted approval under this subdivision shall file a completed application for reapproval under this section.

(k) An institution shall not offer any educational program or degree title that was not offered by the institution at the time the institution applied for approval to operate, and shall not offer any educational program or degree title at a campus that had not offered the program or degree title at the time the institution applied for approval to operate that campus, unless the council first approves the offering of the program or degree title after determining that it satisfies the minimum standards established by this section.

SEC. 7. Section 94311 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94311. No private postsecondary educational institution, except those offering degrees and approved under Section 94310, may offer education services or an education program, unless the institution or the branch or satellite campus at which these programs are offered, has been approved by the council as meeting the requirements of this section and, if regulated by an agency within the Department of Consumer Affairs, has obtained and retained the approval of that agency:

(a) If an institution is operating under the council's prior approval and the institution has applied for approval to operate for itself or a branch or satellite campus that is operating, the council shall not grant approval to operate until it has conducted a qualitative review and assessment of the operations of the institution in California, and determined that all of the following minimum standards have been satisfied:

(1) The quality and content of each course or program of instruction, training, or study may reasonably and adequately be expected to achieve the objective for which the course or program is offered. All courses offered by the institution shall meet the minimum standards prescribed by this subdivision. If an institution represents that a course or program leads to employment, the quality, content, and instruction of the course or program shall be sufficient to assure that students may acquire the necessary level of education, training, skill, and experience to obtain employment in the occupation or job title to which the course or program of instruction is represented to lead.

(2) There is in the institution adequate space, equipment, instructional material, and instructor personnel to provide training of the quality needed to attain the objective described in paragraph (1).

(3) Every instructor and administrator possess adequate academic, experiential, and professional qualifications to teach the course or to perform the duties that the person is assigned and satisfies all standards established by the council by regulation, and holds an applicable and valid certificate of authorization for service issued by the council in the specified competence area in which the individual will serve. No person shall serve as an instructor or member of the administrative staff if that person has been convicted of, or has pled nolo contendere or guilty to, a crime involving the acquisition, use, or expenditure of federal or state funds, or who has been judicially or administratively determined to have committed any violation of this chapter or of any law involving state or federal funds.

(4) The institution maintains for at least five years written records of the student's previous education and training, where applicable.

(5) A copy of the course outline, description of the occupations or job titles, if any, to which the course of instruction is represented to lead, schedule of tuition, fees and other charges, refund policy, regulations pertaining to tardiness, absence, grading policy and rules of operation and conduct is given to students prior to enrollment.

(6) The institution maintains and enforces adequate standards relating to, and maintains records of, attendance, satisfactory academic progress, and student performance to achieve the objective described in paragraph (1).

(7) The institution complies with all local city, county, municipal, state, and federal regulations relative to the safety and health of all persons upon the premises such as fire, building, and sanitation codes. The council may require evidence of compliance.

(8) The institution does not exceed enrollment which the facilities and equipment of the institution can reasonably handle.

(9) The institution's officers, directors, and owners demonstrate financial and fiduciary responsibility, as prescribed by statute, or by regulations adopted by the council.

(10) The institution is in compliance with this chapter and has developed policies and procedures designed to ensure that compliance.

(11) No circumstances exist which are grounds for the revocation or suspension of an approval to operate.

(12) The institution complies with Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 94316) if that article is applicable.

(13) Application for approval shall be made in writing on forms prescribed by the council, which shall include, if applicable to the institution, a statement of whether the institution claims that it is exempt or that a course or other educational service it offers is exempt from Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 94316), and the information required by subdivision (f) of Section 94319.2.

(b) Within 90 days following the receipt of an application from an institution that is operating under the superintendent's prior authorization or approval or the council's prior approval, and prior to granting any approval, a representative of the council shall personally inspect the institution and verify the institution's compliance with the standards prescribed by this chapter. The onsite inspection shall include an inspection of the institution's facilities and records, interviews of administrators, faculty, and students, and an observation of class instruction, as determined to be appropriate by the council. If the application is for approval to operate a branch or satellite campus that is in operation, the council shall inspect that branch or satellite campus as provided herein and also may inspect the institution operating the branch or satellite campus. The council may waive or modify the onsite inspection for an institution located outside of California or for an institution offering home study or correspondence courses. For the purposes of this section, "council's prior approval" includes the prior approval or authorization of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, if applicable.

(c) Within 90 days following the inspection described in subdivision (b) or any reasonable extension of time not to exceed 90 days, the council shall reach a decision on the merits and shall do one of the following:

(1) If the institution is in compliance with this chapter and has not operated within three years before the filing of the application in violation of this chapter then in effect, the council may grant approval for a period not to exceed three years.

(2) If the institution is in compliance with this chapter, but has operated within three years before the filing of the application in violation of this chapter then in effect, or if the council, in its discretion, determines that an unconditional grant of approval to operate is not in the public interest, the council may grant a conditional approval to operate subject to whatever restrictions the council deems appropriate. The council shall notify the institution of the restrictions, the bases for the restrictions, and the right to request a hearing to contest the restrictions.

(3) The council may deny the application if the institution does not comply with this chapter, including the minimum standards established in subdivision (a), or has operated within three years before the filing of the application in violation of this chapter then in effect. If the application is denied, the council, in its discretion, may permit the institution to continue offering the course or courses of instruction to students already enrolled or may order the institution to cease all instruction and provide a refund of tuition and all other charges to students. The council shall notify the institution of the denial, the bases for the denial, and the right of the institution to request a hearing to contest the denial.

(d) (1) If an institution is not operating in California when it applies for approval to operate for itself or a branch or satellite campus, the institution shall file with its application an operational plan establishing that the institution will satisfy the minimum standards set forth in subdivision (a). The operational plan also shall include a detailed description of the institution's program for implementing the operational plan, including proposed procedures, financial resources, and the qualifications of owners, directors, officers, and administrators employed at the time of the application's filing. The council may request additional information to enable the council to determine whether the operational plan and its proposed implementation will satisfy these minimum standards.

(2) If the council determines that the operational plan satisfies the minimum standards described in subdivision (a), that the institution demonstrates that it will implement the plan, and that no ground for denial of the application exists, the council shall grant a temporary approval to operate, subject to any restrictions the council reasonably deems necessary to assure compliance with this chapter, pending a qualitative review and assessment as provided in subdivisions (a) and (b). The council shall inspect the institution, or branch or satellite campus if approval is sought for that campus, between 90 days and 180 days after operation has begun under the temporary approval to operate. Within 90 days following the council's inspection of the institution, the council shall act as provided in subdivision (c).

(e) If an institution that is operating in California applies for approval to operate a branch or satellite campus that has not operated in this state, the institution shall file an operational plan for the branch or satellite campus as described in subdivision (d). The council shall evaluate the branch or satellite campus as provided in subdivision (d). The council also may evaluate the institution as provided in subdivisions (a) and (b) before determining whether to grant to the institution temporary or final approval to operate the branch or satellite campus. If the institution or the branch or satellite campus does not meet the requirements of this chapter or if the institution has operated within three years before the filing of the application in violation of this chapter then in effect, the council may deny the application for approval to operate the branch or satellite campus or may grant a conditional approval to operate the branch or satellite campus subject to whatever restrictions the superintendent deems appropriate. The provisions for notice and hearing described in paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (c) shall apply.

(f) No institution shall offer a course or program of instruction, training, or study at a campus that had not offered the course or program at the time the institution applied for approval to operate that campus unless the council first approves the offering of the course or program after determining that it satisfies the minimum standards established in subdivision (a).

(g) All institutions operating in California on December 31, 1989, pursuant to the prior authority of subdivision (c) of former Section 94311, and which continued to operate under the requirements of this chapter on the operative date of this section, shall receive an approval status for a period not to exceed three years. On a specified date to be determined by the council on or before June 30, 1993, each institution granted an approval pursuant to this subdivision shall file a completed application for reapproval pursuant to this section.

All institutions operating in California on December 31, 1990, pursuant to prior authority of subdivision (a) or (b) of former Section 94311, shall receive approval from the council for a period not to exceed three years. On or before June 30, 1994, the council shall work in cooperation with the appropriate state boards or agencies, to review each of these institutions to determine whether the institution is in compliance with the requirements of this chapter. It is the intent of the Legislature that the council develop a memorandum of understanding with each of the appropriate state boards or agencies to delineate the responsibilities of each agency for the approval and monitoring of these private vocational institutions that were operating on December 31, 1990, under the prior authority of subdivisions (a) and (b) of former Section 94311. It is further the intent of the Legislature that these memorandums of understanding be introduced as legislation on or before February 1, 1994, for enactment as amendments to this act.

All institutions operating in California on December 31, 1990, pursuant to the prior authority of subdivision (d) of former Section 94311, shall receive an approval for a period not to exceed three years. On a specified date to be determined by the council on or before December 31, 1993, each institution granted an approval pursuant to this subdivision, shall file a completed application for reapproval pursuant to this section.

(h) The council may enter into an agreement for the regulation and oversight of nondegree-granting private postsecondary institutions with the Federal Aviation Administration or with the state agency responsible for administering Article 1 (commencing with Section 1250) of Chapter 2 of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code.

The council may enter into a regulatory agreement only when the appropriate agency can demonstrate that its standards and procedures for the review of institutions encompass the standards and consumer protection requirements prescribed by this chapter and that these standards and procedures are rigorously enforced.

Nothing in this section shall modify the existing authority of regulatory agencies within the Department of Consumer Affairs relating to schools or programs.

(i) If at any time the council determines that an institution has deviated from the standards for approval, the council, after giving the institution due notice and an opportunity to be heard, may place the institution on probation for a specified period of time not to exceed 24 calendar months. During the period of probation, the institution shall be subject to special monitoring. The conditions for probation may include the required submission of periodic reports, as prescribed by the council, and special visits by authorized representatives of the council to determine progress toward total compliance. If at the end of the specified probationary period the institution has not taken steps to eliminate the causes for its probation to the satisfaction of the council, the council may revoke the institution's approval and provide notice to the institution to cease its operations.

SEC. 8. Section 94311.1 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94311.1. (a) Each individual submitting an application for a certificate of authorization for service, pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 94311, shall provide the council with the following information:

(1) A completed application as supplied by the council.

(2) Certified copies of educational transcripts, where applicable.

(3) Verified employment history.

(4) Other documentation of prior experience or education as may be required for verification.

(b) To be eligible for a certificate of authorization for service, the applicant shall fulfill the applicable requirements as follows:

(1) Instructors shall have all of the following qualifications:

(A) No record of any violations of this chapter.

(B) Verification that he or she possesses a combination of at least three years' experience and training or education in the occupation or job title category for which certification is sought.

(C) An instructor for a program which leads to a degree shall possess a degree of equal or higher level in the occupation for which certification is sought.

(2) Directors shall have both of the following qualifications:

(A) Five years' experience in an administrative position in a public or an approved private postsecondary school.

(B) No record of any violations of this chapter.

(3) Associate directors shall have both of the following qualifications:

(A) Two years' experience in an administrative or other responsible position in a public or state approved private postsecondary school.

(B) No record of any violations of this chapter.

(4) Financial aid directors shall have all of the following qualifications:

(A) Five years' experience in an administrative position in the financial aid office of a public or approved private postsecondary school.

(B) Verification of completion within the previous two years of a training seminar or workshop certified by the California Student Aid Commission as providing up-to-date comprehensive information on financial aid programs and policies.

(C) No record of any violations of this chapter.

(D) Any other requirements the council deems necessary.

(5) Financial aid officers shall possess all of the following qualifications:

(A) Verification of completion within the previous two years of a training seminar or workshop certified by the California Student Aid Commission as providing up-to-date comprehensive information on financial aid programs and policies.

(B) No record of any violations of this chapter.

(C) Other requirements the council deems necessary.

(c) Each individual certified for authorization for service in the positions listed in paragraphs (1), (4), and (5) of subdivision (b) shall maintain at each private postsecondary educational institution where he or she is employed a validated transcript evidencing the successful completion of three continuing education units of recognized in-service training in their education, job title category, or employment field during every period of certification. These units may be completed through in-service training offered by accrediting associations, professional organizations, or council-approved programs.

(d) Every certificate of authorization issued to a person who possesses the qualifications described in paragraphs (1), (4), and (5) of subdivision (b) shall be valid for a period of three years.

(e) In addition to the requirements set forth in this section, the council may impose additional requirements by regulation.

SEC. 9. Section 94311.4 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94311.4. (a) The review of a private postsecondary educational institution's original application for approval, or a renewal application to the council, or an approved institution already in operation, shall include a determination of the institution's financial responsibility. An institution shall be considered financially responsible if it has sufficient assets for all of the following:

(1) To provide the educational services stated in its official publications and statements.

(2) To comply with the standards and requirements specified in Sections 94310 and 94311.

(3) To provide the administrative and financial resources to fully comply with Section 94312.

(b) An institution shall not be considered financially responsible under any of the following conditions:

(1) The institution, under generally accepted accounting principles, has had operating losses in, at a minimum, the two most recent years.

(2) Under generally accepted accounting principles, the institution had, at the end of its latest fiscal year, a ratio of current assets to current liabilities of less than 1.25 to 1.

(3) Under a fund accounting system, the institution's unrestricted current or operating fund reflects sustained material deficits over at least its two most recent fiscal years.

(4) The institution is not in compliance either with the regulations adopted by the council or with any existing statutes relating to the requirements for maintaining sufficient funds to cover all operating expenses.

(c) If the council determines that an institution is not financially responsible, the council, under terms and conditions prescribed by the council, may require the institution to submit for its latest complete fiscal year and its current fiscal year, each of the following:

(1) A financial audit of the institution conducted by a licensed certified public accountant, in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards.

(2) The institution's financial plan for establishing financial responsibility.

(3) Any other information requested by the council.

This subdivision shall not prevent the council from taking any other actions authorized under this chapter.

(d) This section shall not apply to institutions subject to Section 94316.6.

SEC. 10. Section 94311.8 is added to the Education Code, to read:

94311.8. (a) All institutions that were certified to offer flight instruction by the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) and that operated in California on December 31, 1990, pursuant to prior authority of subdivision (a) or (b) of former Section 94311, shall receive approval from the council for a period not to exceed three years. On or before June 30, 1995, the council shall work in cooperation with the FAA to review each of these institutions to determine whether the institution is in compliance with the requirements of this chapter. It is the intent of the Legislature that the council develop a memorandum of understanding with the FAA to delineate the responsibilities of each agency for the approval and monitoring of these private vocational institutions that were operating on December 31, 1990, under the prior authority of subdivision (a) or (b) of former Section 94311. It is further the intent of the Legislature that this memorandum of understanding be introduced as legislation on or before February 1, 1995, for enactment as amendments to this act. It is the intent of the Legislature that all institutions whose cumulative gross student loan default rate is above 40 percent, as determined by the Student Aid Commission, shall be reviewed by the FAA and the council to determine if these institutions are in compliance with the requirements of this chapter and should continue to be approved to offer educational programs in California.

(b) Institutions certified to offer flight instruction by the FAA, or its successor agency, shall comply with all of the requirements of Section 94312 or Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 94316), whichever is applicable, but shall not be required to file any materials with the council that are not required by the FAA or its successor agency, except those minimally necessary to administer the Student Tuition Recovery Fund, pursuant to Section 94342, as determined by the council. The responsibility for monitoring and enforcing institutional compliance for these institutions shall be with the council.

(c) This chapter shall not apply to individual flight instructors not requiring any advance payments, who do not negotiate a formal contract of indebtedness, and who do not have an established place of business other than their residences.

SEC. 11. Section 94312 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94312. All institutions approved under this chapter shall be maintained and operated, or in the case of a new institution, shall demonstrate that it will be maintained and operated, in compliance with all of the following minimum standards:

(a) That the institution is financially capable of fulfilling its commitments to its students.

(b) That the institution and its agents do not utilize advertising of any type that is false or misleading, either by actual statement, omission, or intimation.

(c) That the institution designates an agent for service of process within this state.

(d) That the institution has and maintains the following specified policy for the refund of the unused portion of tuition fees and other charges in the event the student does not register for the period of attendance or withdraws therefrom at any time prior to completion of the courses, or otherwise fails to complete the period of enrollment. The institutional refund policy for students who have completed 60 percent or less of the course of instruction shall be a pro rata refund. Except as provided in paragraph (1), the refund shall be the amount the student paid for the instruction multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of hours of instruction or the number of lessons in a home study or correspondence course which the student has not received but for which the student has paid, and the denominator of which is the total number of hours of instruction or the number of lessons in a home study or correspondence course for which the student has paid.

(1) The institution, for all students, without penalty or obligation, shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or application fee not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100), if notice of cancellation is made prior to or on the first day of instruction. If the first lesson in a home study or correspondence course is sent to the student by mail, the institution shall send it by first-class mail, postage prepaid, documented by a certificate of mailing, and the student shall have the right to cancel until midnight of the eighth business day after the first lesson was mailed. The institution shall advise each student that any notification of withdrawal or cancellation and any requests for a refund must be made in writing.

(2) The institution shall provide a written statement containing its refund policy, together with examples of the application of the policy, to each student prior to signing the enrollment contract, and shall make its policy known to currently enrolled students.

(3) Institutions shall pay or credit refunds due on a reasonable or timely basis, not to exceed 30 days following the date upon which the student's withdrawal has been determined.

(4) Each institution shall publish a current schedule of all student charges, a statement of the purpose for those charges, and a statement of the cancellation and refund policies with examples of the application of the policies, and shall provide the schedule to all current and prospective students prior to enrollment. The schedule shall clearly indicate and differentiate all mandatory and optional student charges. The institution shall include a clear statement written in English describing the procedures that a student must follow to cancel the contract or agreement and obtain a refund. If the institution solicited the student or negotiated the agreement in a language other than English, the notice to the student shall be in that same language. The schedule shall specify the total costs of attendance which shall include, but not be limited to, tuition, fees, equipment costs, housing, transportation, books, necessary supplies, materials, shop and studio fees, and any other fees and expenses that the student will incur upon enrollment.

The schedule shall clearly identify all charges and deposits that are nonrefundable.

(5) The council shall determine the details of the other refund policy through regulations and shall take into consideration the contract for educational services entered into with the student, as well as the length and character of the educational program in determining standards for refunds. The decision of the council shall be final.

(e) That any written contract or agreement signed by a prospective student will not become operative until the student makes an initial visit to the institution or attends the first class or session of instruction. The school officials are obligated to provide the student with a thorough tour of the campus facilities and to place a written statement, signed by the student, in the student's file to verify that the visitation and campus tour were provided. This provision does not apply to correspondence schools or other distance learning programs.

(f) That any written contract or agreement for educational services with an institution shall include each of the following:

(1) On the first page of the agreement or contract, in 12-point boldface print or larger, the following statement:

"Any questions or problems concerning this school which have not been satisfactorily answered or resolved by the school should be directed to the Council for Private Postsecondary Education, Sacramento, California 95814."

(2) In underlined capital letters on the same page of the contract or agreement in which the student's signature is required, the total amount that the student is obligated to pay for the course of instruction and all other services and facilities furnished or made available to the student by the school, including any charges made by the school for tuition, room and board, books, materials, supplies, shop and studio fees, and any other fees and expenses that the student will incur upon enrollment.

(3) A list of any charges and deposits that are nonrefundable clearly identified as "nonrefundable" charges.

(4) A written statement signed by a representative of the institution, which certifies that the institution has met all disclosure requirements required by this section and, for institutions participating in state or federal student assistance programs, has met all requirements for the administration of any state financial aid program under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 69500) of Part 42 or any federal student assistance program under Title IV of the federal Higher Education Act of 1965 (P.L. 89-329), extensions of that act, amendments to that act, and the rules and regulations adopted under that act.

(5) The name and address of the school and the addresses where instruction will be provided.

(6) The name and description of the course of instruction, including the total number of classes, hours, or lessons required to complete the course of instruction.

(7) A clear and conspicuous statement that the agreement or contract is a legally binding instrument when signed by the student and accepted by the school.

(8) A clear and conspicuous caption, "BUYER'S RIGHT TO CANCEL" under which it is explained that the student has the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund, the form and means of notice that the student should use in the event that he or she elects to cancel the enrollment agreement, and the title and address of the school official to whom the notice should be sent or delivered.

(9) A clear statement of the refund policy written in plain English.

(10) The signature of the student under the following statement that is presented in 12-point boldface or larger print: "My signature below certifies that I have read, understood, and agreed to my rights and responsibilities, and that the institution's cancellation and refund policies have been clearly explained to me."

The council, in consultation with its appropriate advisory committee, shall adopt a model contract form that shall be used by each institution. However, if, in the opinion of the council, a contract already in use at a particular institution fulfills all the requirements of this act, the council may approve the contract used by that institution in lieu of the model form.

All contracts and enrollment agreements signed by the student shall be written in language that is capable of being easily understood. If English is not the primary language spoken by the student, the student shall have the right to obtain a clear explanation of the terms and conditions of the agreement and all cancellation and refund policies in his or her primary language.

(g) That neither the institution nor its agents engage in sales, collection, credit, or other practices of any type that are false, deceptive, misleading, or unfair.

(h) That the institution provides to students and other interested persons, prior to enrollment, a catalog or brochure containing at a minimum the following information:

(1) Descriptions of the instruction provided under each course offered by the institution.

(2) The number of credit hours or clock hours of instruction or training per unit or units required for completion of the educational degree or certificate program.

(3) The attendance, dropout, and leave-of-absence policies.

(4) The faculty and their qualifications.

(5) The schedule of tuition, fees, and all other charges and expenses necessary for the term of instruction and the completion of the course of study.

(6) The cancellation and refund policies.

(7) For institutions which participate in federal and state financial aid programs, all consumer information which the institution is required to disclose to the student.

(8) All other material facts concerning the institution and the program or course of instruction that are reasonably likely to affect the decision of the student to enroll, as prescribed by rules and regulations adopted by the council.

(9) No written contract signed by the student shall be enforceable unless the information specified in this subdivision has been disclosed to the student.

(i) That each institution offering a degree or diploma program designed to prepare students for a particular vocational, trade, or career field shall provide to each prospective student a school performance fact sheet disclosing the following information:

(1) The number and percentage of students who begin the institution's program and successfully complete the entire program. The rate shall be calculated by determining the percentage of students enrolled in the program who were originally scheduled, at the time of enrollment, to complete the program in that calendar year and who successfully completed the program.

(2) The passage rates of graduates in the program for the most recent calendar year that ended not less than six months prior to the date of disclosure on any licensure or certificate examination required by the state for employment in the particular vocational, trade, or career field.

(3) The number and percentage of students who begin the program and secure employment in the field for which they were trained. In calculating this rate, the institution shall consider as not having obtained employment, any graduate for whom the institution does not possess evidence, documented in his or her file, showing that he or she has obtained employment in the occupation for which the program is offered.

(4) The average annual starting wages or salary of graduates of the institution's program, if the institution makes a claim to prospective students regarding the starting salaries of its graduates, or the starting salaries or local availability of jobs in a field. The institution shall disclose to the prospective student the objective sources of information necessary to substantiate the truthfulness of the claim.

Each school that offers or advertises placement assistance for any course of instruction shall file with the council its placement statistics for the 12-month period or calendar year immediately preceding the date of the school's application for annual review for every course of instruction.

The council shall develop standards and criteria to be used by each institution in determining the statistical information required by this subdivision.

(j) That upon satisfactory completion of training, the student is given an appropriate degree or diploma by the institution, indicating that the course or courses of instruction or study have been satisfactorily completed by the student.

(k) In addition to withholding services as described in Section 94344, an institution may withhold a student's transcript or grades if the student is in default on a student tuition contract.

If the student has made partial payment of his or her tuition obligation, the institution may only withhold that portion of the grades or transcript that corresponds on a pro rata basis to the amount of tuition or loan obligation the student has not paid. If the course of study consists of only one course, the institution may withhold the grades or the transcript until the tuition or loan obligation is paid in full.

(l) That adequate and accurate records are maintained by the institution, in accordance with regulations adopted by the council, and that satisfactory standards are enforced relating to attendance, progress, and performance.

(m) That the institution maintains current records for a period of not less than five years at its principal place of business within the State of California, immediately available during normal business hours, for inspection by the council or the Attorney General of California showing all of the following:

(1) The names and addresses, both local and home, including city and state, of each of its students.

(2) The courses of study offered by the institution.

(3) The names and addresses, including city and street, of its faculty, together with a record of the educational qualifications of each.

(4) The degrees or diplomas and honorary degrees and diplomas granted, the date of granting, together with the curricula upon which the diplomas and degrees were based.

(n) That the institution provides instruction as part of its educational program. Instruction shall include any specific, formal arrangement by an institution for its enrollees to participate in learning experiences wherein the institution's faculty or contracted instructors present a planned curriculum appropriate to the enrollee's educational program.

(o) The council shall take into consideration the character of the educational program in determining whether specific types of institutions may be excluded from application of subdivision (i).

SEC. 12. Section 94312.2 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94312.2. Each institution approved to operate under this chapter shall be required to report to the council, by July 1 of each year, or another date designated by the council, the following information for educational programs offered in the prior calendar year:

(a) The total number of students enrolled, by level of degree or type of diploma program, and by gender, ethnicity, and race.

(b) The number of degrees and diplomas awarded, by level of degree, and by gender, ethnicity, and race.

(c) The degree levels offered.

(d) Program completion rates.

(e) Placement data for vocational training programs, unless that data already is required to be provided by the institution under other requirements of this chapter.

(f) The schedule of tuition and fees required for each term, program, course of instruction, or degree offered.

(g) If an institution submits an audited financial statement to the United States Department of Education, the institution shall submit a copy of that financial statement to the council.

(h) Financial information demonstrating compliance with subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 94316.6.

(i) Institutions having a probationary or conditional status shall submit an annual report reviewing their progress in meeting the standards required for approval status.

(j) Any additional information that the council may prescribe.

(k) Colleges and universities operating under paragraph (5) of subdivision (w) of Section 94302 shall comply with the reporting requirements of subdivisions (a), (b), (c), and (f) of this section.

Program completion rates and placement data shall be reported in accordance with the standards and criteria prescribed by the council pursuant to subdivision (i) of Section 94312 or Section 94316.10, whichever is applicable. Based on the review of information submitted to fulfill the requirements of this section, the council may initiate a compliance review and may place the institution on probation pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 94310 and subdivision (i) of Section 94311, and may require evidence of financial stability and responsibility pursuant to Section 94311.5 or 94316.6.

This section shall not apply to institutions or programs subject to the requirements of Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 94316).

SEC. 13. Section 94319.7 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 14. Section 94330 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94330. (a) Each institution desiring to operate in this state shall make application to the council, upon forms to be provided by the council. The application shall include, as a minimum, at least all of the following:

(1) A catalog published, or proposed to be published, by the institution containing the information specified in the criteria adopted by the council. The catalog shall include specific dates as to when the catalog applies.

(2) A description of the institution's placement assistance, if any.

(3) Copies of media advertising and promotional literature.

(4) Copies of all student enrollment agreement or contract forms and instruments evidencing indebtedness.

(5) Copies of participation agreements for state and federal financial aid programs.

(6) The name and California address of a designated agent upon whom any process, notice, or demand may be served.

(7) The information specified in Section 94312.2.

(8) The institution's most current profit and loss statement and current balance sheet, or an audit prepared by a licensed certified public accountant in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards.

(b) Each application shall be signed and certified under oath by the owners of the school or, if the school is incorporated, by the principal owners of the school (those who own at least 10 percent of the stock), or by the governing body of a nonprofit school.

(c) Following review of the application and any other further information submitted by the applicant, or required in conformity with Sections 94310 and 94311, and any investigation of the applicant as the council may deem necessary or appropriate, the council either, shall grant or deny approval to operate to the applicant.

(d) The council shall review and investigate all institutions and courses of instruction approved under this chapter. Consideration in the scheduling of reviews and investigations shall be afforded to student complaints and information collected by the Attorney General, the Student Aid Commission, any board within the Department of Consumer Affairs, or any other federal, state, or local agency.

(e) The approval to operate shall be issued to the owner or the governing body of the applicant institution, and shall be nontransferable. Any person that makes a proper application and complies with this chapter and each standard, rule, and regulation pertaining to this chapter shall be qualified to receive an approval to operate or an approval of the transfer of ownership.

(f) In the event that a shift in control or change of ownership of an institution occurs, an application for a new approval to operate for the institution under the changed ownership or control shall be filed with the council at least 20 days prior to the shift in control or change in ownership. Whenever an institution is operated at different locations, an application for approval shall be filed for each location.

(g) No application for ownership or transfer of ownership shall be approved for any applicant that has been found previously in any judicial or administrative proceeding to have violated this chapter, or if there exists any of the grounds for denial set forth in Section 480 of the Business and Professions Code.

(h) No change in ownership of the institution shall be made until the application is approved. If an application for a new approval to operate is not timely filed as required by this section, the institution's approval to operate shall terminate. Upon approval of a change in ownership, the council shall give written notice to the Student Aid Commission.

(i) For purposes of this section, a change in ownership occurs when there is a change of control of the institution, or where a person that previously did not own at least 25 percent of the stock or controlling interest of an institution or its parent corporation, acquires ownership of at least 25 percent of the stock of the institution or its parent corporation.

(j) At least 60 days prior to the expiration of an approval to operate, the institution shall complete and file with the council an application form for renewal of its approval to operate. The renewal application shall be reviewed and acted upon as provided in this section.

(k) The council may refuse to issue or renew any private postsecondary or vocational educational institution's approval to operate, or may revoke any approval to operate for any one, or any combination, of the following causes:

(1) A violation of this chapter, or any standard, rule, or regulation established under this chapter.

(2) Furnishing false, misleading, or incomplete information to the council, or the failure to furnish information requested by the council or required by this chapter.

(3) A finding that an owner, a person in control, a director, or an officer of an institution is not in compliance with Section 94311.5, 94316.6, or 94316.8, whichever is applicable.

(4) A finding that a signatory to an application for an approval to operate was responsible for the closure of any institution in which there were unpaid liabilities to the state or federal government, or uncompensated pecuniary losses suffered by students without restitution.

(5) The failure of the institution to maintain the minimum educational standards prescribed by this chapter, or to maintain standards that are the same as, or substantially equivalent to, those represented in the school's applications and advertising.

(6) Presenting to prospective students information that is false or misleading relating to the school, to employment opportunities, or to enrollment opportunities in institutions of higher learning after entering into or completing courses offered by the school.

(7) The failure to maintain financial resources adequate for the satisfactory conduct of the courses of instruction offered as required by statute.

(8) The failure to provide timely and correct refunds to students.

(9) Paying a commission or valuable consideration to any persons for acts or services in violation of this chapter.

(10) Attempting to confer a degree, diploma, or certificate to any student in violation of this chapter.

(11) Misrepresenting to any students or prospective students that they are qualified, upon completion of any course, for admission to professional examination under any state occupational licensing provision.

(12) The failure to correct any deficiency or act of noncompliance under this chapter, or the standards, rules, regulations, and orders established and adopted under this chapter within reasonable time limits set by the council.

(13) The conducting of business or instructional services at any location not approved by the council.

(14) Failure on the part of an institution to comply with provisions of law or regulations governing sanitary conditions of that institution specified in Division 2 (commencing with Section 500) and Division 3 (commencing with Section 5000) of the Business and Professions Code.

If there is reasonable cause to believe that there has been a violation by a private postsecondary or vocational educational institution of the standards prescribed by this chapter, the council shall conduct an investigation of the institution.

(15) The applicant, owner, or persons in control have been found previously in any judicial or administrative procedure to have violated this chapter or admitted to having violated this chapter.

(l) Proceedings in connection with the denial of an application to operate or the revocation of an approval to operate shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and the council shall have all of the powers granted in that chapter. Any action by the council to place an institution on probation shall be subject to appeal to the full council, and the council shall establish procedures that provide the institution with adequate notice and an opportunity to be heard and to present evidence as to why the action recommended by staff or by a visiting committee shall not be taken.

(m) Upon taking any action to suspend or revoke an institution's approval to operate, the council shall provide written notice to the Student Aid Commission and to any appropriate accrediting association.

(n) A college or university operating under paragraph (5) of subdivision (w) of Section 94302 shall file annually with the council evidence to demonstrate its status as a nonprofit religious corporation under the Corporations Code.

SEC. 15. Section 11011.21 of the Government Code, as added by Chapter 150 of the Statutes of 1994, is amended to read:

11011.21. In addition to surplus property otherwise identified pursuant to this article, the Department of General Services, prior to January 1, 1995, shall identify state-owned real property that is or will be unused or underutilized by the landholding agency both at present and in the foreseeable future. Properties identified through this process shall be compiled into a list that shall be known as Surplus Property Inventory. Properties identified in the Surplus Property Inventory shall be available for sale, lease, or exchange to state agencies, local government entities, and the public.

Commencing with the 1995–96 fiscal year, the Department of General Services shall sell, lease, or exchange annually, at fair market value, not less than 10 percent of the real property on the Surplus Property Inventory, the proceeds from the sale of which is required to be deposited into the General Fund. The Department of General Services shall prepare a plan for, and submit a report to, the Legislature regarding, the sale of these properties by January 1, 1995.

State agencies, when purchasing real property, shall review the state Surplus Property Inventory and purchase, lease, or trade property on that list if possible, prior to purchasing property not on the Surplus Property Inventory.

The Department of General Services shall compile information regarding activity with regard to property listed on the Surplus Property Inventory related to the disposition of that real property and shall report to the Legislature annually by January 1 of each year.

This section shall not apply to property under the control or ownership of the Trustees of the California State University.

SEC. 15.5. Section 11126 of the Government Code, as amended by Chapter 26 of the Statutes of 1994, is amended to read:

11126. (a) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body from holding closed sessions during a regular or special meeting to consider the appointment, employment, or dismissal of a public employee or to hear complaints or charges brought against that employee by another person or employee unless the employee requests a public hearing. As a condition to holding a closed session on the complaints or charges to consider disciplinary action or to consider dismissal, the employee shall be given written notice of his or her right to have a public hearing, rather than a closed session, which notice shall be delivered to the employee personally or by mail at least 24 hours before the time for holding a regular or special meeting. If notice is not given, any disciplinary or other action taken against any employee at the closed session shall be null and void. The state body also may exclude from any public or closed session, during the examination of a witness, any or all other witnesses in the matter being investigated by the state body. Following the public hearing or closed session, the body may deliberate on the decision to be reached in a closed session.

For the purposes of this section, "employee" shall not include any person who is elected to, or appointed to a public office by, any state body. However, officers of the California State University who receive compensation for their services, other than per diem and ordinary and necessary expenses, shall, when engaged in that capacity, be considered employees.

(b) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent state bodies which administer the licensing of persons engaging in businesses or professions from holding closed sessions to prepare, approve, grade, or administer examinations.

(c) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent an advisory body of a state body which administers the licensing of persons engaged in businesses or professions from conducting a closed session to discuss matters which the advisory body has found would constitute an unwarranted invasion of the privacy of an individual licensee or applicant if discussed in an open meeting, provided the advisory body does not include a quorum of the members of the state body it advises. Those matters may include review of an applicant's qualifications for licensure and an inquiry specifically related to the state body's enforcement program concerning an individual licensee or applicant where the inquiry occurs prior to the filing of a civil, criminal, or administrative disciplinary action against the licensee or applicant by the state body.

(d) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prohibit a state body from holding a closed session to deliberate on a decision to be reached in a proceeding required to be conducted pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 or similar provisions of law.

(e) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent any state body from holding a closed session to consider matters affecting the national security.

(f) Nothing in this article shall be construed to grant a right to enter any correctional institution or the grounds of a correctional institution where that right is not otherwise granted by law, nor shall anything in this article be construed to prevent a state body from holding a closed session when considering and acting upon the determination of a term, parole, or release of any individual or other disposition of an individual case, or if public disclosure of the subjects under discussion or consideration is expressly prohibited by statute.

(g) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent any closed session to consider the conferring of honorary degrees, or gifts, donations, and bequests which the donor or proposed donor has requested in writing to be kept confidential.

(h) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board from holding a closed session for the purpose of holding a deliberative conference as provided in Section 11125.

(i) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body from holding closed sessions with its negotiator prior to the purchase, sale, exchange, or lease of real property by or for the state body to give instructions to its negotiator regarding the price and terms of payment for the purchase, sale, exchange, or lease.

However, prior to the closed session, the state body shall hold an open and public session in which it identifies the real property or real properties which the negotiations may concern and the person or persons with whom its negotiator may negotiate.

For purposes of this subdivision, the negotiator may be a member of the state body.

For purposes of this subdivision, "lease" includes renewal or renegotiation of a lease.

Nothing in this subdivision shall preclude a state body from holding a closed session for discussions regarding eminent domain proceedings pursuant to subdivision (q).

(j) (1) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the California Postsecondary Education Commission from holding closed sessions to consider matters pertaining to the appointment or termination of the Director of the California Postsecondary Education Commission.

(2) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education from holding closed sessions to consider matters pertaining to the appointment or termination of the Executive Director of the Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education.

(3) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the Student Aid Commission from holding closed sessions to consider matters pertaining to the appointment or termination of the Director of the Student Aid Commission.

(k) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the Franchise Tax Board from holding closed sessions for the purpose of discussion of confidential tax returns or data the public disclosure of which is prohibited by law, or from considering matters pertaining to the appointment or removal of the executive officer of the Franchise Tax Board.

(l) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the Board of Corrections from holding closed sessions when considering reports of crime conditions under Section 6027 of the Penal Code.

(m) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the State Air Resources Board from holding closed sessions when considering the proprietary specifications and performance data of manufacturers.

(n) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body that invests retirement, pension, or endowment funds from holding closed sessions when considering investment decisions. For purposes of consideration of shareholder voting on corporate stocks held by the state body, closed sessions for the purposes of voting may be held only with respect to election of corporate directors, election of independent auditors, and other financial issues that could have a material effect on the net income of the corporation. For the purpose of real property investment decisions that may be considered in a closed session pursuant to this subdivision, a state body shall also be exempt from the provision of subdivision (i) relating to the identification of real properties prior to the closed session.

(o) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body, or boards, commissions, administrative officers, or other representatives that may properly be designated by law or by a state body, from holding closed sessions with its representatives in discharging its responsibilities under Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 3500) of Division 4 of Title 1 as the sessions relate to salaries, salary schedules, or compensation paid in the form of fringe benefits. For the purposes enumerated in the preceding sentence, a state body may also meet with a state conciliator who has intervened in the proceedings.

(p) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any meeting of the Public Utilities Commission at which the rates of entities under the commission's jurisdiction are changed shall be open and public.

Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the Public Utilities Commission from holding closed sessions to deliberate on the institution of proceedings, or disciplinary actions against regulated utilities.

(q) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body, based on the advice of its legal counsel, from holding a closed session to confer with, or receive advice from, its legal counsel regarding pending litigation when discussion in open session concerning those matters would prejudice the position of the state body in the litigation.

For purposes of this article, all expressions of the lawyer-client privilege other than those provided in this subdivision are hereby abrogated. This subdivision is the exclusive expression of the lawyer-client privilege for purposes of conducting closed-session meetings pursuant to this article. For purposes of this subdivision, litigation shall be considered pending when any of the following circumstances exist:

(1) An adjudicatory proceeding before a court, an administrative body exercising its adjudicatory authority, a hearing officer, or an arbitrator, to which the state body is a party, has been initiated formally.

(2) (A) A point has been reached where, in the opinion of the state body on the advice of its legal counsel, based on existing facts and circumstances, there is a significant exposure to litigation against the state body; or

(B) Based on existing facts and circumstances, the state body is meeting only to decide whether a closed session is authorized pursuant to subparagraph (A).

(3) Based on existing facts and circumstances, the state body has decided to initiate or is deciding whether to initiate litigation.

The legal counsel of the state body shall prepare and submit to it a memorandum stating the specific reasons and legal authority for the closed session. If the closed session is pursuant to paragraph (1), the memorandum shall include the title of the litigation. If the closed session is pursuant to paragraph (2) or (3), the memorandum shall include the existing facts and circumstances on which it is based. The legal counsel shall submit the memorandum to the state body prior to the closed session, if feasible, and in any case no later than one week after the closed session. The memorandum shall be exempt from disclosure pursuant to Section 6254.25.

For purposes of this subdivision, "litigation" includes any adjudicatory proceeding, including eminent domain, before a court, administrative body exercising its adjudicatory authority, hearing officer, or arbitrator.

Disclosure of a memorandum required under this subdivision shall not be deemed as a waiver of the lawyer-client privilege, as provided for under Article 3 (commencing with Section 950) of Chapter 4 of Division 8 of the Evidence Code.

(r) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body operating under a joint powers agreement for insurance pooling from holding a closed session to discuss a claim for the payment of tort liability or public liability losses incurred by the state body or any member agency under the joint powers agreement.

(s) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the examining committee established by the State Board of Forestry, pursuant to Section 763 of the Public Resources Code, from conducting a closed session to consider disciplinary action against an individual professional forester prior to the filing of an accusation against the forester pursuant to Section 11503.

(t) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent an administrative committee established by the State Board of Accountancy pursuant to Section 5020 or 5020.3 of the Business and Professions Code from conducting a closed session to consider disciplinary action against an individual accountant prior to the filing of an accusation against the accountant pursuant to Section 11503. Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent an examining committee established by the Board of Accountancy pursuant to Section 5023 of the Business and Professions Code from conducting a closed hearing to interview an individual applicant or accountant regarding the applicant's qualifications.

(u) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body, as defined in Section 11121.2, from conducting a closed session to consider any matter that properly could be considered in closed session by the state body whose authority it exercises.

(v) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body, as defined in Section 11121.7, from conducting a closed session to consider any matter that properly could be considered in a closed session by the body defined as a state body pursuant to Section 11121, 11121.2, or 11121.5.

(w) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body, as defined in Section 11121.8, from conducting a closed session to consider any matter that properly could be considered in a closed session by the state body it advises.

(x) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the State Board of Equalization from holding closed sessions for either of the following:

(1) When considering matters pertaining to the appointment or removal of the executive secretary of the State Board of Equalization.

(2) For the purpose of hearing confidential taxpayer appeals or data, the public disclosure of which is prohibited by law.

(y) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the California Earthquake Prediction Evaluation Council, or other body appointed to advise the Director of the Office of Emergency Services or the Governor pursuant to Section 8590 concerning matters relating to volcanic or earthquake predictions, from holding closed sessions when considering the evaluation of possible predictions.

(z) This article shall not prevent the Teachers' Retirement Board or the Board of Administration of the Public Employees' Retirement System from holding closed sessions when considering matters pertaining to the recruitment, appointment, employment, or removal of the chief executive officer or when considering matters pertaining to the recruitment or removal of the chief investment officer of the State Teachers' Retirement System or the Public Employees' Retirement System.

(aa) This article shall not prevent the Commission on Teacher Credentialing from holding closed sessions when considering matters relating to the recruitment, appointment, or removal of its executive director.

SEC. 15.7. Section 15814.21 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15814.21. (a) In addition to revenues calculated for apportionment to community college districts pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 84750) of Chapter 5 of Part 50 of the Education Code, if a community college capital outlay project has been approved by the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges, the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges shall apportion state aid equal to the amount necessary for each district to meet its energy service contract obligation determined pursuant to this chapter. It is the intent of the Legislature that these funds be appropriated annually as a part of the state's general apportionment funds for the community colleges.

(b) If a community college district enters into an energy service contract with the State Public Works Board pursuant to this chapter, the district, as a part of that energy service contract, shall authorize the chancellor and Controller to withhold from its annual apportionment the amount of funds necessary to satisfy its annual energy service contract obligation to the State Public Works Board. The agreement shall include authorization to withhold the additional apportionment amount and the amount determined to be the district's proportional share of the energy service contract obligation as determined pursuant to subdivision (a). The authorization shall have precedence over other expenditure obligations of the district. The chancellor shall certify the amounts, by district, to the Controller. The Controller shall withhold the amount so reported for each district and, acting on behalf of each district, shall transfer the appropriate amount from Section B of the State School Fund to the State Public Works Board for the purpose of payment of the debt service obligation for the bonds sold to finance the projects.

SEC. 16. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the amendment made to Section 94330 of the Education Code by Section 14 of this act is not a change of, but is declaratory of, the law as it existed immediately prior to the effective date of the Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education Reform Act of 1989.

SEC. 17. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 18. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to effectuate changes in California's public postsecondary institutions at the earliest possible time and particularly in order to limit the scope of a certain surplus property inventory required to be completed by January 1, 1995, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 423

An act to amend Sections 17331.2 and 17414 of, and to add Section 17606.1 to, the Financial Code, relating to escrow agents.

[Approved by Governor September 6, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17331.2 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17331.2. (a) Fidelity Corporation shall deny the application for a certificate or revoke the certificate of any person, upon any of the following grounds:

(1) The application contains a material misrepresentation of fact or fails to disclose a material fact so as to render the application false or misleading, or if any fact or condition exists which, if it had existed at the time of the original application for a certificate, reasonably would have warranted Fidelity Corporation to refuse originally to issue such certificate.

(2) That the person has been convicted of, or pleaded nolo contendere to, a crime or offense, whether a felony, an offense punishable as a felony, or a misdemeanor, which involved dishonesty, fraud, deceit, embezzlement, fraudulent conversion, misappropriation of property, or any other crime reasonably related to the qualifications, functions, or duties of a person engaged in business in accordance with this division, which conviction has not been expunged and the person has not obtained a certificate of rehabilitation, as allowed by the Penal Code. If, however, the conviction is more than 10 years old, or if the conviction is for a minor offense or infraction, then the person may have a Fidelity Corporation certificate upon showing by clear and convincing proof to a reasonable certainty that the conviction is no longer reasonably related to the qualifications, functions, or duties of that person's employment with a member.

(3) That the person has been held liable in a civil action by final judgment of any court except small claims courts, if the judgment involved dishonesty, fraud, deceit, embezzlement, fraudulent conversion, or misappropriation of property. The person may have a Fidelity Corporation certificate upon showing by clear and convincing proof to a reasonable certainty that the judgment is no longer reasonably related to the qualifications, functions, or duties of that person's employment with a member.

(4) That the person has (A) committed or caused to be committed an act which caused any member to suffer a loss; (B) committed or caused to be committed or colluded with any other person committing any act which caused a loss, for which Fidelity Corporation or the insurer on any insurance policy or fidelity bond purchased by Fidelity Corporation, or both, to become liable to indemnify any member; or (C) committed or caused to be committed an act of dishonesty, fraud, deceit, embezzlement, fraudulent conversion, or misappropriation of property, to the material damage of a member or for which the member has been held liable to any third party, by final judgment.

(5) That the person has been barred from employment by final order of the commissioner pursuant to Section 17423.

(6) That the person has been deemed not qualified to serve in any capacity as a director or officer or in any other position involving management duties with a financial institution, pursuant to Division 1.8 (commencing with Section 4990).

(7) That the person has been denied coverage or reinstatement by any insurer under any fidelity bond or crime policy, unless a decision of reinstatement of coverage has been made after such denial. A person who obtained a decision of reinstatement of coverage prior to the effective date of this section may have a Fidelity Corporation certificate notwithstanding paragraphs (2) and (3) of this subdivision, unless any other ground for denial or revocation applies to that person.

(b) Fidelity Corporation may suspend the certificate of any person upon any of the following grounds:

(1) That the person has been censured or suspended from any position of employment or management or control of any escrow agent, by final order of the commissioner.

(2) That there is an action commenced by the commissioner to either suspend or bar such person, under Section 17423.

(3) That any member with whom the person was employed has given a proof of loss or a notice of an occurrence which may give rise to a claim for a loss of trust obligations either of which identifies the person as the person responsible for the loss or as a person acting in collusion with the person causing the loss.

(c) Upon denial of an application for, or upon suspension or revocation of the certificate of any person, Fidelity Corporation shall provide written notice to the member with whom that person is employed of the decision, pending any appeal therefrom which might be made. Thereafter, the member shall not allow that person to have access to money or negotiable securities belonging to or in the possession of the escrow agent, or to draw checks upon the escrow agent or the trust accounts of the escrow agent. Fidelity Corporation shall notify the person in writing of the decision to deny, suspend, or revoke the certificate and of the person's right of appeal, together with the notice of appeal. The grounds and basis for the decision shall be stated in the notice thereof. All notices may be served either personally or by mail, properly addressed to the address of record for the member and the person.

(d) Any person whose application for a certificate has been denied, or whose certificate has been suspended or revoked, may appeal the decision, as provided in Section 17331.3. While such appeal is pending, the person may not have access to money or negotiable securities belonging to or in the possession of the escrow agent, or to draw checks upon the escrow agent or the trust accounts of the escrow agent. Failure to remove the person whose application has been denied, or whose certificate has been suspended or revoked, as a signer on the trust accounts may be subject to action by the commissioner as provided for in this division and shall be subject to penalties as set forth in Section 17331.1.

(e) Upon expiration of the time for an appeal, or upon conclusion of the appeal, the decision to deny an application for or to suspend or revoke the certificate of any person shall become final. Fidelity Corporation shall give written notice to the member and to the person of the final decision within 10 days. Thereafter, Fidelity Corporation shall disclose in writing to all members the identity of persons whose application has been denied or whose certificate has been revoked.

SEC. 2. Section 17414 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17414. (a) It is a violation for any person subject to this division or any director, stockholder, trustee, officer, agent, or employee of any such person to do any of the following:

(1) Knowingly or recklessly disburse or cause the disbursal of escrow funds otherwise than in accordance with escrow instructions, or knowingly or recklessly to direct, participate in, or aid or abet in a material way, any activity which constitutes theft or fraud in connection with any escrow transaction.

(2) Knowingly or recklessly make or cause to be made any misstatement or omission to state a material fact, orally or in writing, in escrow books, accounts, files, reports, exhibits, statements, or any other document pertaining to an escrow or escrow affairs.

(b) Any director, officer, stockholder, trustee, employee, or agent of an escrow agent, who abstracts or willfully misappropriates money, funds, trust obligations or property deposited with an escrow agent, is guilty of a felony. Upon conviction, of an offense under this section or similar offenses specified in Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 470), Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 484), or Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 503) of Title 13 of Part 1 of the Penal Code, the court shall, in addition to any other punishment imposed, order the person to make full restitution, first to the escrow agent and then to Fidelity Corporation, to the extent it has indemnified the escrow agent. Nothing in this section shall be deemed or construed to repeal, amend, or impair any existing provision of law prescribing a punishment for such an offense.

(c) Any person subject to this division who knows of a person's involvement in an abstraction or misappropriation of money, funds, trust obligations, or property deposited with a licensed escrow agent shall immediately report the abstraction or misappropriation in writing to the commissioner and to Fidelity Corporation. No person shall be civilly liable for reporting as required under this subdivision, unless the information provided in the report is false and the person providing false information does so with knowledge and malice. The reports filed under this section, including the identity of the person making the filing, shall remain confidential pursuant to state law.

SEC. 3. Section 17606.1 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

17606.1. The license of an escrow agent shall be deemed revoked upon the completion or closure of a court approved liquidation of the business of the escrow agent, whether pursuant to Section 17635 or 17636, or otherwise, unless the escrow agent within 10 days of the court's order approving the closing or completion of liquidation secures a court order restraining the revocation from taking effect.

CHAPTER 424

An act to amend Sections 830.8 and 847 of the Penal Code, relating to peace officers.

[Approved by Governor September 6, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 830.8 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

830.8. (a) Federal criminal investigators and law enforcement officers are not California peace officers, but may exercise the powers of arrest of a peace officer in any of the following circumstances:

(1) Any circumstances specified in Section 836 or Section 5150 of the Welfare and Institutions Code for violations of state or local laws.

(2) When these investigators and law enforcement officers are engaged in the enforcement of federal criminal laws and exercise the arrest powers only incidental to the performance of these duties.

(3) When requested by a California law enforcement agency to be involved in a joint task force or criminal investigation.

(4) When probable cause exists to believe there is any public offense that involves immediate danger to persons or property.

In all of these instances, the provisions of Section 847 shall apply. These investigators and law enforcement officers, prior to the exercise of these arrest powers, shall have been certified by their agency heads as having satisfied the training requirements of Section 832, or the equivalent thereof.

(b) Duly authorized federal employees who comply with the training requirements set forth in Section 832 are peace officers when they are engaged in enforcing applicable state or local laws on property owned or possessed by the United States government, or on any street, sidewalk, or property adjacent thereto, and with the written consent of the sheriff or the chief of police, respectively, in whose jurisdiction the property is situated.

(c) National park rangers are not California peace officers but may exercise the powers of arrest of a peace officer as specified in Section 836 and the powers of a peace officer specified in Section 5150 of the Welfare and Institutions Code for violations of state or local laws provided these rangers are exercising the arrest powers incidental to the performance of their federal duties or providing or attempting to provide law enforcement services in response to a request initiated by California state park rangers to assist in preserving the peace and protecting state parks and other property for which California state park rangers are responsible. National park rangers, prior to the exercise of these arrest powers, shall have been certified by their agency heads as having satisfactorily completed the training requirements of Section 832.3, or the equivalent thereof.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, during a state of war emergency or a state of emergency, as defined in Section 8558 of the Government Code, federal criminal investigators and law enforcement officers who are assisting California law enforcement officers in carrying out emergency operations are not deemed California peace officers, but may exercise the powers of arrest of a peace officer as specified in Section 836 and the powers of a peace officer specified in Section 5150 of the Welfare and Institutions Code for violations of state or local laws. In these instances, the provisions of Section 847 and of Section 8655 of the Government Code shall apply.

SEC. 2. Section 847 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

847. A private person who has arrested another for the commission of a public offense must, without unnecessary delay, take the person arrested before a magistrate, or deliver him or her to a peace officer. There shall be no civil liability on the part of, and no cause of action shall arise against, any peace officer or federal criminal investigator or law enforcement officer described in subdivision (a) or (d) of Section 830.8, acting within the scope of his or her authority, for false arrest or false imprisonment arising out of any arrest when any one of the following circumstances exist:

(a) The arrest was lawful or when the peace officer, at the time of the arrest had reasonable cause to believe the arrest was lawful.

(b) When the arrest was made pursuant to a charge made, upon reasonable cause, of the commission of a felony by the person to be arrested.

(c) When the arrest was made pursuant to the requirements of Section 142, 838, or 839.

CHAPTER 425

An act to add Section 40928 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to air pollution.

[Approved by Governor September 6, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 40928 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

40928. (a) For purposes of this section, the following terms have the following meaning:

(1) "Event center" means a community center, activity center, auditorium, convention center, stadium, coliseum, arena, sports facility, racetrack, pavilion, amphitheater, theme park, amusement park, fairgrounds, or other building, collection of buildings, or facility which is used exclusively or primarily for the holding of sporting events, athletic contests, contests of skill, exhibitions, conventions, meetings, spectacles, concerts, or shows, or for providing public amusement or entertainment.

(2) "Average vehicle ridership" means the total number of attendees arriving in vehicles parking in areas controlled by the event center, divided by the total number of those vehicles parking in areas controlled by the event center.

(b) (1) Notwithstanding Section 40717, or any other provision of this chapter, and to the extent consistent with federal law, no district, or regional or local agency to which a district has delegated the authority to implement transportation control measures pursuant to Section 40717, and which is acting pursuant to that delegated authority, shall do either of the following:

(A) Require an event center which achieves an average vehicle ridership greater than 2.20 to implement any transportation control requirements that are intended to achieve reductions in vehicle trips or vehicle miles traveled by event center attendees.

(B) Require an event center which, since 1987, has achieved a 12.5 percent reduction in vehicle trips or vehicle miles traveled, to implement additional transportation control requirements that are also intended to achieve reductions in vehicle trips or vehicle miles traveled by event center attendees.

(2) A district, or regional or local agency, may require event centers which achieve an average vehicle ridership greater than 2.20, or which, since 1987, has achieved a 12.5 percent reduction in vehicle trips or vehicle miles traveled, to implement approved alternative strategies which will achieve emission reductions that are equivalent to those that would be achieved by the imposition of transportation control requirements intended to reduce vehicle trips or vehicle miles traveled by event center attendees, including, but not limited to, those strategies specified in subdivision (c).

(c) A district or regional or local agency may impose requirements on any event center, without permitting that event center to implement alternative strategies to achieve equivalent emissions reductions, for any of the following purposes:

(1) Traffic management before and after events.

(2) Parking management and vehicle flow within parking areas controlled by the event center.

(3) Reducing the amount of vehicle idling before and after events.

(4) Implementing marketing or education programs designed to educate attendees on mass transit or other alternative transportation methods for transit to and from the event center.

(5) Achieving a designated average vehicle ridership for vehicles which carry persons who are traveling to or from their employment at an event center.

(6) Other emission reduction strategies not relating to reductions in vehicle trips or vehicle miles traveled by event center attendees.

CHAPTER 426

An act to add Section 12828.5 to the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to economic poisons.

[Approved by Governor September 6, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12828.5 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

12828.5. (a) A registrant at any time may request that the registration of any of its economic poisons be voluntarily canceled. The request shall be in writing and shall include a waiver of the registrant's right to a hearing on the cancellation.

(b) The director shall mail a notice of cancellation of registration of the economic poison to the registrant. The notice shall specify the effective date of the cancellation.

(c) The economic poison for which the registration is canceled may be sold and possessed as if the product's registration was not renewed unless the director determines that protection of human health or the environment require otherwise, in which case the cancellation notice shall specify the conditions under which the product may be sold or possessed after cancellation of its registration.

CHAPTER 427

An act to add Section 54042 to the Food and Agricultural Code, and to amend Section 23153 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to cooperative associations, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor September 6, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 54042 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

54042. (a) An association organized pursuant to this chapter may request the board of supervisors of the county in which the association's principal place of business is located to issue a certificate stating that the association meets the requirements of subdivision (b). When the certificate is provided by the board of supervisors to the association, the Franchise Tax Board shall exempt the association from the minimum franchise tax as provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 23153 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(b) The board of supervisors shall issue a certificate if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The association is located in an economically distressed area.

(2) At least 90 percent of the association's members are, or have been, within the previous 12 months unemployed or dependent on public social services for their income.

(3) The request is made during the association's first income year.

(c) The certificate issued by the board of supervisors shall be retained by the association. The association shall forward a copy of the certificate to the Franchise Tax Board upon request.

(d) As used in this section, "economically distressed area" means a county in which the unemployment rate is either 9 percent, or 2 percent above the statewide average, whichever is greater; or in which 8 percent of the residents are dependent on public social services for their income, or 2 percent more of the residents than the statewide average are dependent on public social services for their income, whichever is greater.

SEC. 2. Section 23153 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23153. (a) Every bank and corporation described in subdivision (b) shall be subject to the minimum franchise tax specified in subdivision (d) from the earlier of the date of incorporation, qualification, or commencing to do business within this state, until the effective date of dissolution or withdrawal as provided in Section 23331 or, if later, the date the corporation ceases to do business within the limits of this state.

(b) Unless expressly exempted by this part or the California Constitution, subdivision (a) shall apply to each of the following:

(1) Every bank or corporation that is incorporated under the laws of this state.

(2) Every bank or corporation that is qualified to transact intrastate business in this state pursuant to Chapter 21 (commencing with Section 2100) of Division 1 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code.

(3) Every bank or corporation that is doing business within the limits of this state.

(c) The following entities are not subject to the minimum franchise tax specified in this section:

(1) Credit unions.

(2) Nonprofit cooperative associations organized pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 54001) of Division 20 of the Food and Agricultural Code that have been issued the certificate of the board of supervisors prepared pursuant to Section 54042 of the Food and Agricultural Code. The association shall be exempt from the minimum franchise tax for five consecutive income years, commencing with the first income year for which the certificate is issued pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 54042 of the Food and Agricultural Code. This paragraph only applies to nonprofit cooperative associations organized on or after January 1, 1994.

(d) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), banks and corporations subject to the minimum franchise tax shall pay annually to the state a minimum franchise tax of eight hundred dollars ($800).

(2) The minimum franchise tax shall be twenty-five dollars ($25) for each of the following:

(A) A corporation formed under the laws of this state whose principal business when formed was gold mining, which is inactive and has not done business within the limits of the state since 1950.

(B) A corporation formed under the laws of this state whose principal business when formed was quicksilver mining, which is inactive and has not done business within the limits of the state since 1971, or has been inactive for a period of 24 consecutive months or more.

(3) For purposes of paragraph (2), a corporation shall not be considered to have done business if it engages in other than mining.

(e) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), a domestic bank or domestic corporation, as defined in Section 167 of the Corporations Code, that files a certificate of dissolution in the office of the Secretary of State pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 1905 of the Corporations Code and that does not thereafter do business shall not be subject to the minimum franchise tax for income years beginning on or after the date of that filing.

(f) The minimum franchise tax imposed by paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) shall not be increased by the Legislature by more than 10 percent during any calendar year.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 4. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 428

An act to amend Sections 11503 and 11504 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 6, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11503 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11503. The department may refuse to issue a license to an applicant when it determines any of the following:

(a) The applicant was previously the holder, or a managerial employee of the holder, of a license issued under this chapter which was revoked for cause and never reissued by the department, or which was suspended for cause and the terms of suspension have not been fulfilled.

(b) The applicant was previously a business representative whose license issued under this chapter was revoked for cause and never reissued or was suspended for cause and the terms of suspension have not been fulfilled.

(c) If the applicant is a business, a business representative was previously the holder of a license, or was a business representative of a business whose license, issued under this chapter was revoked for cause and never reissued or was suspended for cause and the terms of suspension have not been fulfilled; or, by reason of the facts and circumstances related to the organization, control, and management of the business, the operation of that business will be directed, controlled, or managed by individuals who, by reason of their conviction of violations of this code, would be ineligible for a license and, by licensing that business, the purposes of this chapter would be defeated.

(d) The applicant, or a business representative if the applicant is a business, has been convicted of a crime or has committed any act or engaged in conduct involving moral turpitude which is substantially related to the qualifications, functions, or duties of the licensed activity. A conviction after a plea of nolo contendere is a conviction within the meaning of this section.

(e) The information contained in an application is incorrect .

(f) A decision of the department to cancel, suspend, or revoke a license has been made, and the applicant was a business representative of the business regulated under that license.

SEC. 2. Section 11504 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11504. (a) Every applicant who applies for a license pursuant to Section 11501 shall submit an application to the department on the forms prescribed by the department. The applicant shall provide the department with information as to the applicant's character, honesty, integrity, and reputation, as the department may consider necessary. The department, by regulation, shall prescribe what information is required of the applicant for the purposes of this subdivision, and the applicant shall provide that information under penalty of perjury. In addition to any other information required by the department, the department shall require the applicant to furnish all of the following information on any application for a new license or the renewal of a license, if the applicant is required by other provisions of law to have the following permits, numbers, or plan:

(1) Board of Equalization resale permit number.

(2) Identification number issued by the California Environmental Protection Agency.

(3) A statement indicating that the applicant has either filed an application for a storm water permit or is not required to obtain a storm water permit.

(4) A statement indicating that the applicant has either filed a hazardous materials business plan or is not required to file that plan.

(5) The tax identification number assigned by the Franchise Tax Board.

(b) Upon receipt of an application for a license that is accompanied by the appropriate fee, the department shall, not later than 120 days from the receipt of that application, make a thorough investigation of the information contained in the application, except the information specified in paragraphs (1) to (5), inclusive, of subdivision (a).

(c) Every person holding a license issued pursuant to Section 11501 shall notify the department, within 10 days, of any change in the ownership or corporate structure of the licensee.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 429

An act to amend Section 39620 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to air pollution.

[Approved by Governor September 6, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 39620 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

39620. (a) The state board shall implement a program to assist districts to improve efficiencies in the issuance of permits pursuant to this division. The program shall be consistent with the requirements of Title V.

(b) (1) The program shall include a process, developed in coordination with the districts, for the state board to precertify simple, commonly used equipment and processes as being in compliance with applicable air quality rules and regulations, under conditions specified by the state board. The state board shall develop criteria and guidelines for precertification in coordination with the districts.

(2) The state board shall charge a reasonable fee for precertification, not to exceed the state board's estimated costs. Payment of the fee shall be a condition of precertification.

(3) Precertification shall not affect any existing authority of a district regarding permitting and compliance requirements. Precertification shall constitute a preliminary evaluation of the equipment or process, and a recommendation by the state board for permit conditions to be adopted by a district having jurisdiction over particular equipment or a particular process, that would allow district permitting staff to more quickly process permit applications for air pollution sources.

(4) The California Environmental Protection Agency, within existing resources, and in consultation with appropriate state and local regulatory agencies, shall evaluate the feasibility and benefits of expanding the precertification program to involve other state and local regulatory agencies with jurisdiction over other environmental media, including land and water.

CHAPTER 430

An act to amend Section 40916 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to air pollution.

[Approved by Governor September 6, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 40916 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

40916. (a) The state board shall make technical assistance available to a district, at the district's request, to support attainment planning and air pollutant transport planning and associated analyses. If the state board lacks sufficient resources to make technical assistance available to each district which requests assistance, the state board shall give priority to those districts which have limited financial or technical capabilities.

(b) The state board shall develop guidelines for use by the districts to prepare emission inventories, develop monitoring networks, and develop methods for the validation of air quality models.

(c) The state board shall develop and periodically update guidelines to be used by the districts for the purpose of establishing equivalent emission reduction targets for alternative strategies to vehicle trip reduction transportation control measures that are required pursuant to Sections 40918, 40919, 40920, and 40920.5.

CHAPTER 431

An act to add Sections 24104 and 24104.5 to the Food and Agricultural Code, and to add Chapter 1.5 (commencing with Section 13050) to Title 3 of Part 4 of the Penal Code, relating to livestock.

[Approved by Governor September 6, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 24104 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

24104. Each sheriff or other officer to whom a complaint that relates to the loss or theft of any animal is made shall, in a timely manner, transmit to the Bureau of Livestock Identification a report that contains all of the following:

(a) A complete description of each animal lost or stolen including approximate age, height, and weight, sex, breed, color, natural marks, scars, a description of each brand or tattoo and its location on the animal, and any other information that may be of use in identifying, locating and receiving the lost or stolen animal.

(b) The county or city where the loss or theft occurred.

(c) The approximate date and time of the loss or theft.

(d) The law enforcement agency's report identification or number.

(e) The name, address, and telephone number of the law enforcement agency that completed the report.

(f) The name of that law enforcement agency's investigating officer to be contacted relating to the loss or theft.

SEC. 2. Section 24104.5 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

24104.5. The Bureau of Livestock Identification shall compile a report on information received pursuant to Section 24104. The bureau shall distribute the report to all county sheriffs' departments in a timely manner.

SEC. 3. Chapter 1.5 (commencing with Section 13050) is added to Title 3 of Part 4 of the Penal Code, to read:

CHAPTER 1.5. REPORTS TO THE BUREAU OF LIVESTOCK IDENTIFICATION

13050. Each sheriff or other officer to whom a complaint that relates to the loss or theft of any equine animal is made shall, in a timely manner, transmit to the Bureau of Livestock Identification a report pursuant to Section 24104 of the Food and Agricultural Code.

13051. The Bureau of Livestock Identification shall compile a report on information received pursuant to Section 24104 of the Food and Agricultural Code. The bureau shall distribute the report to all county sheriffs' departments in a timely manner.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 432

An act to amend Section 10164 of the Public Contract Code, relating to contracting by state agencies.

[Approved by Governor September 6, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10164 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

10164. In all state projects where federal funds are involved, no bid submitted shall be invalidated by the failure of the bidder to be licensed in accordance with the laws of this state. However, at the time the contract is awarded, the contractor shall be properly licensed in accordance with the laws of this state. The contract shall not be awarded unless the state agency has verified that the contractor has a valid license in the appropriate classification for the work performed. Any bidder or contractor not so licensed shall be subject to all legal penalties imposed by law, including, but not limited to, any appropriate disciplinary action by the Contractors State License Board. The department shall include a statement to that effect in the standard form of prequalification questionnaire and financial statement. Failure of the bidder to obtain proper and adequate licensing for an award of a contract shall constitute a failure to execute the contract as provided in Section 10181 and shall result in the forfeiture of the security of the bidder.

CHAPTER 433

An act to amend Section 711.4 of the Fish and Game Code, relating to environmental review fees, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 6, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 711.4 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

711.4. (a) The department shall impose and collect a filing fee in the amount prescribed in subdivision (d) to defray the costs of managing and protecting fish and wildlife trust resources, including, but not limited to, consulting with other public agencies, reviewing environmental documents, recommending mitigation measures, developing monitoring requirements for purposes of the California

Environmental Quality Act (Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code), consulting pursuant to Section 21104.2 of the Public Resources Code, and other activities protecting those trust resources identified in the review pursuant to the California Environmental Quality Act.

(b) The filing fees shall be proportional to the cost incurred by the department and shall be annually reviewed and adjustments recommended to the Legislature in an amount necessary to pay the full costs of department programs as specified.

(c) (1) All project applicants and public agencies subject to the California Environmental Quality Act shall pay a filing fee for each proposed project.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), no filing fee shall be paid pursuant to this section if the lead or certified regulatory program agency finds that the project is either of the following:

(A) Categorically exempt from the California Environmental Quality Act.

(B) De minimis in its effect on fish and wildlife.

(3) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), no filing fee shall be paid pursuant to this section if all the following conditions exist:

(A) The project is being undertaken by the department.

(B) The project costs are payable from any of the following sources:

(i) The Public Resources Account in the Cigarette and Tobacco Products Surtax Fund.

(ii) The California Wildlife, Coastal, and Park Land Conservation Fund of 1988.

(iii) The Habitat Conservation Fund.

(iv) The Fisheries Restoration Account in the Fish and Game Preservation Fund.

(v) The Commercial Salmon Stamp Account in the Fish and Game Preservation Fund.

(vi) Striped bass stamp funds collected pursuant to Section 7360.

(C) The project is implemented through a contract with either a nonprofit entity or a local government agency. The filing fee shall be paid at the time and in the amount specified in subdivision (d). Notwithstanding Sections 21080.5 and 21081 of the Public Resources Code, no project shall be operative, vested, or final until the filing fees required pursuant to this section are paid.

(d) The fees shall be in the following amounts:

(1) For a project which is found by the lead or certified regulatory agency to be de minimis in its effect on fish and wildlife, no filing fee shall be paid, whether or not a negative declaration or an environmental impact report is prepared pursuant to the California Environmental Quality Act.

(2) For a project which is statutorily or categorically exempt from the California Environmental Quality Act, including those certified regulatory programs which incorporate statutory and categorical exemptions, no filing fee shall be paid.

(3) For a project for which a negative declaration is prepared pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 21080 of the Public Resources Code, the filing fee is one thousand two hundred fifty dollars ($1,250). The filing fee shall be paid to the county clerk at the time of filing a notice of determination pursuant to Section 21152 of that code or to the Office of Planning and Research at the time of filing a notice of determination pursuant to Section 21108 of that code, as appropriate.

(4) For a project with an environmental impact report prepared pursuant to the California Environmental Quality Act, the filing fee is eight hundred fifty dollars ($850). The filing fee shall be paid to the county clerk at the time of filing a notice of determination pursuant to Section 21152 of the Public Resources Code or to the Office of Planning and Research at the time of filing a notice of determination pursuant to Section 21108 of that code.

(5) For a project which is subject to a certified regulatory program pursuant to Section 21080.5 of the Public Resources Code, the filing fee is eight hundred fifty dollars ($850). The filing fee shall be paid to the Secretary of the Resources Agency upon filing of the notice of determination pursuant to Section 21080.5 of that code. If the filing fee is to be paid by the state lead agency, the payment shall be made pursuant to a memorandum of understanding with the department.

(e) The county clerk may charge a documentary handling fee of twenty-five dollars ($25) per filing in addition to the filing fee specified in subdivision (d).

(1) The county clerk of each county and the Office of Planning and Research shall maintain a record of all environmental documents received. The record shall include, for each environmental document received, the name of each applicant or lead agency, the document filing number, and the filing date. The record shall be made available for examination or audit by authorized personnel of the department during normal business hours.

(2) The filing fee imposed and collected pursuant to subdivision (d) shall be remitted monthly to the department within 30 days after the end of each month. The amount of fees due shall be reported on forms prescribed and provided by the department.

(3) The department shall assess a penalty of 10 percent of the amount of fees due for any failure to remit the amount payable when due. The department may pursue collection of delinquent fees through the Controller's office pursuant to Section 12419.5 of the Government Code.

(f) Notwithstanding Section 12000, failure to pay the fee under subdivision (d) is not a misdemeanor. All unpaid fees are a statutory assessment subject to collection under procedures as provided in the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(g) Only one filing fee shall be paid for each project unless the project is tiered or phased, and separate environmental documents or review by the department is required.

(h) This section does not preclude or modify the duty of the department to recommend, require, permit, or engage in mitigation activities pursuant to the California Environmental Quality Act.

(i) The permit process of the California Coastal Commission, as certified by the Secretary of the Resources Agency, is exempt from the payment of the filing fees prescribed by paragraph (5) of subdivision (d) insofar as the permits are issued under any of the following regulations:

(1) Subchapter 4 (commencing with Section 13136) of Chapter 5 of Division 5.5 of Title 14 of the California Code of Regulations.

(2) Subchapter 1 (commencing with Section 13200), Subchapter 3 (commencing with Section 13213), Subchapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 13214), Subchapter 4 (commencing with Section 13215), Subchapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 13238), Subchapter 5 (commencing with Section 13240), Subchapter 6 (commencing with Section 13250), and Subchapter 8 (commencing with Section 13255) of Chapter 6 of Division 5.5 of Title 14 of the California Code of Regulations.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order for this act to take effect in time for the 1994 summer construction season, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 434

An act to amend Sections 221, 19315, and 19447 of, to add Section 19228 to, and to add and repeal Section 19227 of, the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to agriculture, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 6, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 221 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

221. The "Department of Food and Agriculture Fund," which is a special fund, is continued in existence. Any money that is directed by law to be paid into the fund shall be paid into it and, unless otherwise specifically provided, shall be expended solely for the enforcement of the law under which the money was derived. The expenditure from the fund for the enforcement of any law shall not, unless otherwise specifically provided, exceed the amount of money that is credited to the fund pursuant to the law.

Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, all money deposited in the fund under the provisions enumerated below is hereby continuously appropriated to the department without regard to fiscal years for expenditure in carrying out the purposes for which the money was deposited and for making the refunds authorized by Section 302.

All money deposited in the fund under the provisions enumerated below is hereby exempted from Sections 13320 to 13324, inclusive, of the Government Code.

(a) Article 7 (commencing with Section 5821) of Chapter 8 of Part 1 of Division 4, Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 6701) of Part 3 of Division 4, and Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 53301) of Division 18.

(b) Article 5 (commencing with Section 6001) of Chapter 9 of Part 1 of Division 4.

(c) Article 4.5 (commencing with Section 6971) and Article 5 (commencing with Section 6981) of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 4.

(d) Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 14200), Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 14501), and Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 14901) of Division 7.

(e) Part 1 (commencing with Section 16301) and Part 2 (commencing with Section 17401) of Division 9.

(f) Sections 19225, 19227, 19312, and 19315.

(g) Division 10 (commencing with Section 20001).

(h) Division 11 (commencing with Section 23001).

(i) Part 4 (commencing with Section 27501) of Division 12.

(j) Division 16 (commencing with Section 40501).

(k) Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 44971) of Division 17.

(l) Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 52001) of Division 18.

(m) Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 52251) of Division 18.

(n) Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 52651) of Division 18.

(o) Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 52851) of Division 18.

(p) Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 55401), Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 56101), and Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 56701) of Division 20.

(q) Section 58582.

(r) Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 61301), Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 61801), and Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 62700) of Part 3 of Division 21.

(s) Chapter 5.5 (commencing with Section 12531) of Division 5 of the Business and Professions Code.

(t) Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 12700) of Division 5 of the Business and Professions Code.

(u) Chapter 14 (commencing with Section 13400) and Chapter 15 (commencing with Section 13700) of Division 5 of the Business and Professions Code.

SEC. 2. Section 19227 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code,

to read:

19227. (a) In addition to the license fee required pursuant to Section 19225, the department may charge each licensed renderer and collection center an additional fee necessary to cover the costs of administering Article 5 (commencing with Section 19280), Article 6 (commencing with Section 19300), Article 6.5 (commencing with Section 19310), Article 7 (commencing with Section 19320), and Article 8 (commencing with Section 19340). The additional fees authorized to be imposed by this section may not exceed three thousand dollars ($3,000) per year per each licensed rendering plant or collection center.

(b) The secretary shall fix the annual fee established pursuant to this section and may fix different fees for renderers and collection centers. The secretary shall also fix the date the fee is due and the method of collecting the fee. If an additional fee is imposed on licensed renderers pursuant to subdivision (a) and an additional fee is imposed on registered transporters pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 19315, only one additional fee may be imposed on a person or firm that is both licensed as a renderer pursuant to Article 6 (commencing with Section 19300) and registered as a transporter of inedible kitchen grease pursuant to Article 6.5 (commencing with Section 19310), which fee shall be the higher of the two fees.

(c) If the fee established pursuant to this section is not paid within one calendar month of the date it is due, a penalty shall be imposed in the amount of 10 percent per annum on the amount of the unpaid fee.

(d) This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 2000, and, as of January 1, 2001, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 2001, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 19228 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

19228. All fees, charges, and collections collected pursuant to Sections 19225, 19227, 19312, and 19315 shall be paid into the State Treasury monthly to the credit of the Department of Food and Agriculture Fund. All fees, charges, and collections collected pursuant to Sections 19225, 19227, 19312, and 19315 shall be used for the enforcement of this chapter.

SEC. 4. Section 19315 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

19315. (a) In addition to the registration fee required by Section 19312, the department may charge an additional fee necessary to cover the costs of administering this article. Any additional fee charged pursuant to this section shall not exceed three hundred dollars ($300) per year per vehicle that is operated to transport kitchen grease, and shall not exceed three thousand dollars ($3,000) per year per registered transporter.

(b) The secretary shall fix the annual fee established pursuant to this section and may fix different fees for transporters of inedible kitchen grease and collection centers. The secretary shall also fix the date the fee is due and the method of collecting the fee. If an additional fee is imposed on licensed renderers pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 19227 and an additional fee is imposed on registered transporters pursuant to subdivision (a), only one additional fee may be imposed on a person or firm that is both licensed as a renderer pursuant to Article 6 (commencing with Section 19300) and registered as a transporter of inedible kitchen grease pursuant to this article, which fee shall be the higher of the two fees.

(c) If the fee established pursuant to this section is not paid within one calendar month of the date it is due, a penalty shall imposed in the amount of 10 percent per annum on the amount of the unpaid fee.

SEC. 5. Section 19447 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

19447. (a) In lieu of any civil action pursuant to Section 19445, and in lieu of seeking prosecution, the secretary may levy a civil penalty against a person who violates Article 6 (commencing with Section 19300), Article 6.5 (commencing with Section 19310), or any regulation adopted pursuant to those articles, in an amount not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each violation.

(b) Before a civil penalty is levied, the person charged with the violation shall receive notice of the nature of the violation and shall be granted an opportunity to be heard. This shall include the right to review evidence and a right to present evidence on his or her own behalf.

(c) Any person upon whom a civil penalty is levied may appeal to the secretary within 10 days of the date of receiving notification of the penalty, as follows:

(1) The appeal shall be in writing and signed by the appellant or his or her authorized agent and shall state the grounds for the appeal.

(2) Any party may, at the time of filing the appeal, or within 10 days thereafter, present written evidence and a written argument to the secretary.

(3) The secretary may grant oral arguments upon application made at the time written arguments are made.

(4) If an application to present an oral argument is granted, written notice of the time and place for the oral argument shall be given at least 10 days prior to the date set therefor. This time requirement may be altered by an agreement between the secretary and the person appealing the penalty.

(5) The secretary shall decide the appeal on any oral or written arguments, briefs, and evidence that he or she has received.

(6) The secretary shall render a written decision within 45 days of the date of appeal, or within 15 days of the date of oral arguments. A copy of the secretary's decision shall be delivered or mailed to the appellant.

(7) The secretary may sustain the decision, modify the decision by reducing the amount of the penalty levied, or reverse the decision.

(8) A review of the decision of the secretary may be sought by the appellant pursuant to Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(d) Any penalties levied by the secretary pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the General Fund.

CHAPTER 435

An act to amend Section 25261 of, and to add Chapter 6.85 (commencing with Section 25396) to Division 20 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous substances.

[Approved by Governor September 6, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25261 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25261. (a) There is within the California Environmental Protection Agency a Site Designation Committee. The membership of the committee consists of the following six persons:

(1) Secretary for Environmental Protection.

(2) Director of Toxic Substances Control.

(3) Chairperson of the State Water Resources Control Board.

(4) Director of Fish and Game.

(5) Director of the Office of Environmental Health Hazard Assessment.

(6) Chairperson of the State Air Resources Board.

(b) The committee shall carry out the functions described in Sections 25262, 25263, and 25265 and shall meet as necessary to ensure that those functions are carried out in a timely manner. The decisions of the committee shall be subject to the concurrence of four members. The committee shall choose a chairperson from among its members. A committee member may designate an employee of the member's agency to participate in committee meetings in the member's place.

SEC. 2. Chapter 6.85 (commencing with Section 25396) is added to Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 6.85. CALIFORNIA EXPEDITED REMEDIAL ACTION REFORM ACT OF 1994

Article 1. Definitions

25396. Unless the context indicates otherwise, the following definitions govern the construction of this chapter.

(a) "Affected community" means the local residents or workers living or working, and owners of businesses operating, in proximity to the site, who are, or may be, directly impacted by the conditions at the site, or by any response action. "Affected community" also includes the legislative body of the jurisdiction in which a site is located.

(b) "Agency" means the California Environmental Protection Agency.

(c) "Arbitration panel" means the arbitration panel convened pursuant to Section 25398.10.

(d) "Beneficial uses of water" means uses of the waters of the state that are identified in the current State Water Resources Control Board and regional water quality control boards' water quality control plans for the area in which the site is located.

(e) "Department" means the Department of Toxic Substances Control.

(f) "Engineering controls" means measures to control or contain migration of hazardous substances or to prevent, minimize or mitigate environmental damage which may otherwise result from a release or threatened release, including, but not limited to, caps, covers, dikes, trenches, leachate collection systems, treatment systems, and groundwater containment systems or procedures.

(g) "Federal act" means the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980, as amended, (42 U.S.C. Sec. 9601 et seq.).

(h) "Fund administrator" means the state officer assigned the responsibility of protecting the viability of the trust fund as the representative of the state for the orphan share in all actions concerning apportionment of liability if there is a potential apportionment of liability to the orphan share for payment from the trust fund.

(i) "Hazardous substance" shall have the same meaning as set forth in Sections 25316 and 25317.

(j) (1) "Insolvent" means a person or entity who has received a discharge of liability under Section 727, 944, or 1141 of Title 11 of the United States Code, for pre-petition response costs relating to a site selected for response actions pursuant to this chapter.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), a person or entity is not insolvent with respect to any payment that the department receives or will receive for any pre-petition response costs as a result of the bankruptcy, or with respect to any post-petition response costs.

(k) "Interim endangerment" means conditions at a site which pose a significant risk either of harm to human health or of serious environmental damage unless immediate response action is initiated before remedial action measures set forth in a remedial action plan prepared for the site are implemented.

(l) "Land use controls" means recorded instruments restricting the present and future uses of the site, including, but not limited to, recorded easements, covenants, restrictions or servitudes, or any combination thereof, as appropriate. Land use controls shall run with the land from the date of recordation, shall bind all of the owners of the land, and their heirs, successors, and assignees, and the agents, employees, and lessees of the owners, heirs, successors, and assignees, and shall be enforceable by the department pursuant to Article 8 (commencing with Section 25180) of Chapter 6.5.

(m) "Orphan share" means that share of liability for the costs of response actions apportioned to responsible persons who are insolvent or cannot be identified or located. The department may adopt regulations to further define a process to determine when a responsible person cannot be identified or located.

(n) "Person" shall have the same meaning as set forth in Section 25319.

(o) "Planned use" means the reasonably expected future land uses based on all of the following factors:

(1) The land use history of the site and surrounding properties, the current land uses of the site and surrounding properties and recent development patterns in the area where the site is located.

(2) Land use designations at the site and surrounding properties, including current and likely future zoning and local land use plans and the presence, if any, of groundwater and surface water recharge areas.

(3) The potential for economic redevelopment.

(4) Current plans for the site by the property owner or owners.

(5) Affected community comments on the proposals for use of the site.

(p) "Release" has the same meaning as set forth in Sections 25320 and 25321.

(q) "Remedy" or "remedial action" means actions that are necessary to prevent, minimize, or mitigate damage that may result from a release or threatened release of a hazardous substance and that, when carried through to completion, allow a site to be permanently used for its planned use without any significant risk to human health or any significant potential for future environmental damage. "Remedy" or "remedial action" includes, but is not limited to, all of the following:

(1) Actions at the location of the release, such as storage, confinement, perimeter protection using dikes, trenches, or ditches, clay cover, neutralization, cleanup of released hazardous substances and associated contaminated materials, recycling, reuse, diversion, destruction, or segregation of reactive wastes, dredging, excavation, repair, or replacement of leaking containers, collection of leachate and runoff, onsite treatment or incineration, provision of alternative water supplies, and any monitoring reasonably required to ensure that these actions protect the public health and the environment.

(2) The costs of permanent relocation of residents and businesses and community facilities where the Governor determines that, alone or in combination with other measures, this relocation is more cost-effective than, and environmentally preferable to, the transportation, storage, treatment, destruction, or secure disposition offsite of hazardous substances, or may otherwise be necessary to protect the public health.

(3) Offsite transport and offsite storage, treatment, destruction, or secure disposition of hazardous substances and associated contaminated materials.

(r) "Remove" or "removal" means the cleanup or removal of released hazardous substances from the environment, those actions which may be necessarily taken in the event of the threat or release of hazardous substances into the environment, those actions which may be necessary to monitor, assess, and evaluate the release, or threat of release, of hazardous substances, the disposal of removed material, and the taking of other actions which may be necessary to prevent, minimize, or mitigate damage to the public health or the environment, which may otherwise result from a release or threat of release. "Remove" or "removal" also includes, but is not limited to, security fencing or other measures to limit access, provision of alternative water supplies, and temporary evacuation and housing of threatened individuals not otherwise provided.

(s) "Respond," "response," or "response action" means removal actions, and remedial actions, including, but not limited to, operation and maintenance measures.

(t) "Response costs" means all costs incurred by the state or any responsible person in taking response actions under this chapter, including costs incurred by any state agency in implementing and administering this chapter and in overseeing response actions under this chapter. These costs shall include all costs incurred by the state in relation to any judicial review of a decision of an arbitration panel pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 25398.10 or any arbitration conducted pursuant to this chapter.

(u) "Responsible person" has the same meaning as set forth in Section 25323.5 for "responsible party" or "liable person."

(v) "Secretary" means the Secretary for Environmental Protection.

(w) "Site" means any building, structure, installation, equipment, pipe or pipeline (including any pipe into a sewer or publicly owned treatment works), well, pit, pond, lagoon, impoundment, ditch, landfill, storage container, motor vehicle, rolling stock, or aircraft, or any area where a hazardous substance has been deposited, stored, disposed of, or placed, or otherwise come to be located; but does not include any consumer product in consumer use or any vessel.

(x) "Site Designation Committee" or "committee" means the Site Designation Committee created pursuant to Section 25261.

(y) "State board" means the State Water Resources Control Board.

(2) "Trust fund" means the Expedited Site Remediation Trust Fund created pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 25399.1.

25396.1. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the California Expedited Remedial Action Reform Act of 1994.

25396.2. Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 856) of Title 3 of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Civil Code does not apply to a site which is subject to a response action pursuant to this chapter.

Article 2. Site Selection

25396.5. (a) The intent of this chapter is to establish a pilot program to determine if expedited procedures for carrying out response actions at response action sites are appropriate and protective of human health and the environment.

(b) This chapter is applicable to not more than 30 response action sites, of which not more than 10 may have an orphan share. The department, upon a request from a responsible person for consideration of a site for remediation pursuant to this program, shall forward the request to the Site Designation Committee, along with the department's recommendation as to whether the site should be selected. The department shall also forward the request to the local jurisdiction in which the site is located, to allow that local jurisdiction to submit comments to the committee concerning the request.

25396.6. The committee may select a site for remediation pursuant to this chapter only if the site meets all of the following conditions:

(a) The department is the appropriate administering agency for the site pursuant to Section 25236 and the committee designates the department as the administering agency.

(b) The responsible person or persons requesting selection of the site have submitted a completed preliminary endangerment assessment, as defined in Section 25319.5, which concludes that significant response actions are necessary at the site and includes an analysis of the scope and identity of the affected community.

(c) The committee finds all of the following:

(1) The site is not on, or eligible to be placed on, the National Priority List prepared pursuant to the federal act, or is not a site which is owned or operated by a department, agency, or instrumentality of the United States.

(2) There are funds available in the trust fund to cover all of the response action costs that will or may be assigned to the orphan share at the site, unless one or more of the responsible persons who have submitted a notice of intent under paragraph (3) agree in writing to pay for the orphan share at the site that cannot be paid by the state because of insufficient funding in the trust fund. Any agreement to pay orphan share costs, which the fund cannot pay, shall be backed by adequate forms of financial security, as determined by the department.

(3) One or more responsible persons submit a notice of intent to the department to do all of the following:

(A) Be bound by the requirements of this chapter.

(B) Enter into an enforceable agreement with the department, as set forth in paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 25398.2.

(C) Pay all response costs not otherwise paid by the trust fund or another responsible person.

(4) There is no known condition of interim endangerment existing at the site at the time it is selected for response actions pursuant to this chapter.

(5) (A) Except as provided in subparagraph (B), the department has not already issued an order or entered into an enforceable agreement with responsible parties at the site under Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300), the department has not commenced a judicial action against responsible persons at the site, and no orders have been issued by a court requiring responsible persons at the site to take response actions or to pay the department's response costs at the site.

(B) The committee may waive the requirements of subparagraph (A) for not more than five sites if the committee determines that the selection of the site, for response action pursuant to this chapter, will not delay response action at the site and is otherwise in the public interest.

25397. (a) Except to the extent otherwise specified in this chapter, response actions for a site selected pursuant to Section 25396.6 shall be taken pursuant to this chapter, and the requirements of Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300) shall not apply. In addition, the provisions of Chapter 6.65 (commencing with Section 25260) shall apply to all response actions taken at sites selected pursuant to this chapter, including the requirement that the response action be implemented in compliance with all state and local laws, ordinances, regulations, and standards that are applicable to the response action.

(b) The committee may, as part of the findings required by Section 25396.6, direct that an advisory committee be convened pursuant to Section 25263 to ensure that the department receives adequate guidance in overseeing response action at a site that is selected for remedial action under this chapter.

(c) An advisory committee convened pursuant to subdivision (b) shall have the same powers and duties as an advisory committee that is convened pursuant to Section 25263. The advisory committee shall be bound by the decisions of an arbitration panel and any court decisions rendered upon judicial review.

(d) The department shall maintain a list of sites selected for response action pursuant to this chapter and shall make this list available to interested parties.

Article 3. Prerequisites of the Program

25397.1. Any action taken by the department pursuant to this chapter shall be consistent with all applicable regulations adopted by the State Water Resources Control Board, all applicable water quality control plans adopted pursuant to Section 13170 of the Water Code and Article 3 (commencing with Section 13240) of Chapter 4 of Division 7 of the Water Code, and all applicable state policies for water quality control adopted pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 13140) of Chapter 3 of Division 7 of the Water Code, to the extent the department determines that those regulations, plans, and policies are not less stringent than this chapter and the regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter.

25397.2. The department shall ensure that the public is given the opportunity to participate in response actions taken pursuant to this chapter in accordance with the department's public policy and procedures manual, No. OPP-94-002.

25397.3. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to restrict the rights of responsible persons and the department to agree upon other voluntary methods of remediation.

Article 4. Expedited Site Remediation

25398. (a) The department shall serve as the lead agency for implementing this chapter and shall act as the oversight agency for purposes of all response actions taken pursuant to this chapter.

(b) After a site has been selected for response action under this chapter, and prior to holding the conference specified in Section 25398.2, the department shall, after necessary investigation, including a title search of the site, if appropriate, notify appropriate state and local agencies and all known potentially responsible persons for that site of all of the following:

(1) The names and addresses of all potentially responsible persons who the department has identified at the site, and the factual and statutory basis for that identification.

(2) That the site has been selected for response action under this chapter, that the potentially responsible person's rights and liabilities with respect to the site will be determined under this chapter, and that the potentially responsible person will be bound by that determination.

(3) A description of the known extent and type of hazardous substance that has been released or is threatened to be released on, at, or from the site.

(4) The date, time, and place for the conference specified in Section 25398.2.

(c) After the notice provided for in subdivision (b) has been issued, the department shall notify any additional persons who have been subsequently identified by the department as potentially responsible persons, of the selection of the site under this chapter. This notification shall include all the information specified in subdivision (b) except that the date, time, and place of the conference specified in Section 25398.2 need not be included if that conference has already taken place. The department shall also send such notifications to the other potentially responsible parties who have already been identified.

(d) (1) The department shall notify the city or county in which any site is located that a response action has been initiated pursuant to this chapter. The department shall provide the city or county with notice of the time, date, and place of all public hearings and meetings regarding the response action, shall provide the city or county with regular response action progress reports, and shall involve the city or county in any deliberation concerning land use controls or actions proposed pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 25398.7. The department shall request the city or county to provide the department with the city's or county's assessment of the planned use of the site, including the current and future zoning and general plan designations for the site and the city's or county's determination as to the appropriate planned use designation in the remedial action plan prepared for the site. The city's or county's determination as to the appropriate planned use designation shall be presumed by the department to be the appropriate planned use for the site. In any action or proceeding to attack, set aside, void, or annul a determination of the appropriate planned use by the city or county pursuant to this section, there shall be a rebuttable presumption of the validity of the determination by the city or county. The department may rebut that presumption by showing, based upon substantial evidence in the record, that the requirements of this chapter are more fully satisfied by a determination that there should be a different planned use for the site.

(2) Before making a determination regarding the planned use for the site, the department shall hold a public hearing on that issue and shall consider all comments received at the hearing. The department shall thereafter determine the planned use and provide a written explanation supporting its determination to the city or county and to any person requesting an explanation.

(e) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to affect the authority of a city or county pursuant to Title 7 (commencing with Section 65000) of the Government Code.

25398.2. (a) Within 90 days of the selection of a site pursuant to Section 25396.6, the department shall hold a conference with the identified potentially responsible persons for purposes of explaining all of the following:

(1) The department's requirements for the performance of a site investigation and the preparation of a site investigation report to determine the nature and extent of possible releases of hazardous substances at the site.

(2) The department's requirements for a community assessment.

(3) The department's procedures for carrying out response activities, including requirements for public participation.

(b) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), within 90 days after the conference, the department may enter into an enforceable agreement with one or more responsible persons for a site selected pursuant to Section 25396.6. The enforceable agreement shall require all of the following:

(A) The responsible person shall take necessary response actions at the site pursuant to this chapter.

(B) The responsible person or persons shall pay all of the state's response costs that are related to the site on an ongoing basis, within 60 days from the date of receipt of each invoice from the department. After liability is finally apportioned pursuant to this chapter, each participating responsible person's share of response costs may be adjusted in relation to the shares of other participating responsible persons. Any agreement to pay orphan share costs, which the fund cannot pay, shall be backed by adequate forms of financial security, as determined by the department.

(C) The department and the responsible person enter into a covenant not to sue each other or any responsible person who has entered into an enforceable agreement under this section pursuant to the federal act. However, any site selected for remediation pursuant to this chapter shall not be immune from, and, if appropriate, may be subject to, natural resource damage claims pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 9607 of the federal act.

(D) If a responsible person subject to the agreement fails to comply with the requirements of this chapter or any regulation, requirement, or order issued or adopted pursuant to this chapter, the department shall remove the site from eligibility for response action pursuant to Chapter 6.65 (commencing with Section 25260) and this chapter, and may direct that any further response actions at that site be taken pursuant to Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300), unless one or more of the remaining responsible persons, if any, agree to assume the noncomplying responsible person's responsibilities under the agreement.

(2) The 90-day period to enter into an agreement may be extended by agreement of the department and responsible person.

(c) The covenants not to sue executed by responsible persons and the department shall be expressly conditioned upon performance of all obligations under this chapter and the enforceable agreement.

(d) If no responsible person enters into an enforceable agreement pursuant to subdivision (b), the response actions at the site shall no longer be governed by this chapter.

(e) A draft remedial action plan shall be prepared pursuant to Section 25398.6 by the responsible person. The draft remedial action plan shall be approved by the department pursuant to Section 25398.6 for each site selected. Preliminary and intermediate actions may be taken prior to the approval of a remedial action plan to ensure protection of public health and the environment.

(f) To the extent consistent with the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, as amended (42 U.S.C. Sec. 6901 et seq.), the department may exclude from the hazardous waste facilities permit requirements of Section 25201, those portions of any response action selected and carried out pursuant to this chapter, that complies with all laws, rules, regulations, standards, requirements, criteria, or limitations applicable to the construction, operation, and closure of the type of facility at the site, and with any other condition imposed by the department as necessary to protect public health or the environment. The department may enforce any federal or state law, rule, regulation, standard, requirement, criteria, or limitation with which the response action is required to comply pursuant to this subdivision.

25398.3. (a) If the department determines that an interim endangerment exists at any site after it has been selected for response action pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 25396.5), the department may take those actions necessary to contain or eliminate the interim endangerment.

(b) When actions are required to be taken to immediately contain or eliminate an interim endangerment, the department shall, whenever practicable, given the risk of harm to human health and the environment, provide the potentially responsible person or persons, who have entered into an agreement pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 25398.2, a reasonable opportunity to initiate or take over the interim endangerment response actions as soon as possible.

(c) To contain or eliminate an interim endangerment at any site undergoing remediation pursuant to this chapter, the department may take either of the following actions:

(1) Order the responsible persons to take or pay for all appropriate remedial actions necessary to contain or eliminate the interim endangerment.

(2) Take or contract for any appropriate response actions necessary to contain or eliminate the interim endangerment and if so, the provisions of Section 25358.5 shall apply with respect to response actions taken or contracted for by the department.

(d) Any person subject to an order issued pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) who does not comply with the order without a showing of good cause shall be subject to a civil penalty of not more than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) for each day of noncompliance. Liability under this subdivision may be imposed in a civil action or liability may be imposed administratively pursuant to Section 25359.3.

25398.4. Any remedial action plan prepared pursuant to this chapter shall require response actions that, when fully implemented, place the site for which the plan is prepared in a condition that allows it to be permanently used for its planned use without any significant risk to human health or any significant potential for future environmental damage. To ensure that those objectives are met and permanently maintained, response actions shall be based on a site specific assessment that evaluates the potential human health risks, if any, that are posed by the hazardous substance release or threatened release at the site, the potential human health risks, if any, that may result if the site is permanently used for its planned use after response actions have been completed, and the adverse effects on the environment, if any, of the hazardous substance release. The site-specific assessment required by this section shall be carried out using standard criteria, principles, and protocols for risk assessments adopted by the department. Those criteria, principles, and protocols shall be based on sound scientific methods, knowledge, and practice, and shall reflect criteria, principles, and protocols developed for risk assessment pursuant to Section 57003, to the extent relevant to risk assessments conducted pursuant to this chapter.

25398.5. (a) (1) To expedite the conversion of property into productive use and to provide funds for response activities, the department may approve a site owner's request to modify the boundaries of a site selected for response action under this chapter. The department may approve a site owner's request for that modification only if all of the following apply to the site:

(A) A remedial action plan has been approved by the department for the site.

(B) The holder of the first deed of trust, if any, has concurred in the modification of the boundaries of the site.

(C) The portions of the site proposed to be removed from the site by the boundary modification do not require any response action.

(D) The planned use for the portions of the site proposed to be removed from the site by the boundary modification will not result in an unacceptable risk of human exposure to hazardous substances from the site.

(E) Hazardous substances have not migrated, and are not expected to migrate, onto the portions of the site proposed to be removed from the site by the boundary modification.

(F) The modification of the boundaries of the site will not significantly interfere with response actions at the site.

(2) As a condition to approving a site owner's request to modify the boundaries of a site pursuant to paragraph (1), the department shall require that the owner, after complying with the Subdivision Map Act (Division 2 (commencing with Section 66410) of Title 7 of the Government Code), deposit the net proceeds of the sale, after payment of expenses necessary and appropriate to the subdivision and sale, of the portions of the site proposed to be removed from the site by the boundary modification, into a special trust account to be applied towards the cost of response actions at the site if the department determines that adequate funds may not otherwise be available to pay for all costs of response actions at the site. The department shall also require that the site owner provide the department with access to any of the portions of the site proposed to be removed from the site by a boundary modification for the purpose of taking a response action.

(b) Purchasers and their lessees of the portions of the site proposed to be removed from the site by a boundary modification approved pursuant to this section which do not require any response action under this chapter shall not acquire liability under this chapter solely based on that purchase or lease if both of the following apply:

(1) The purchaser or lessee is not affiliated with any other person liable for response costs at the site including any direct or indirect familial relationship, or any contractual, corporate, or financial relationship other than that created by the instruments by which title to the parcel is conveyed or financed or the instruments by which a lease is created.

(2) Hazardous substances have not been released from the portions of the site proposed to be removed from the site by a boundary modification subsequent to the date of the purchase or lease.

(c) The department's approval of a site owner's request to modify the boundaries of a site pursuant to this section shall not constitute a subdivision of any parcel within the boundaries of the site. Any subdivision of any parcels within the boundaries of the site shall comply with the requirements of the Subdivision Map Act (Division 2 (commencing with Section 66410) of Title 7 of the Government Code).

25398.6. (a) All remedies selected at a site subject to this chapter shall meet all of the following criteria:

(1) Be protective of human health and the environment.

(2) Provide long-term reliability at reasonable cost.

(3) Provide reasonable protection to the waters of the state, as required by the Water Code.

(4) Leave the site in a condition that allows it to be permanently used for its planned use and free of any significant risk to human health or any potential for any future significant environmental damage.

(b) A response action may achieve protection of human health and the environment by any of the following methods:

(1) Proven and effective engineering controls and appropriate land use controls to eliminate or mitigate risk at a site when utilized for its planned use.

(2) Treatment that reduces the toxicity, mobility, or volume of hazardous substances.

(3) Removal of hazardous substances.

(4) A combination of engineering and land use controls, treatment, and removal.

(5) Other methods of protection.

(c) Except as provided in subdivision (d), the department shall give no special preference to one or more available types of response action, including engineering and land use controls, treatment, removal, or other methods of protection, but shall evaluate available response action options on the individual merits of each option, or combination of options, reasonably available in light of site-specific conditions. In selecting the appropriate remedy, the department shall balance all of the following factors:

(1) The effectiveness of the remedy.

(2) The long-term reliability of the remedy.

(3) Any short-term risk to the affected community, to those engaged in the remediation effort, or to the environment.

(4) The reasonableness of the cost of the remedy.

(d) For discrete areas within a site that contain hazardous substances which are: (1) present in high concentrations or (2) are highly mobile, and for which containment cannot prevent significant risk of harm to human health or the environment from exposure to the hazardous substances, the department shall select treatment or removal, or both, as the remedial alternative or alternatives. The department may, however, select engineering and land use controls, or other methods of protection, to be implemented in combination with treatment or removal, or both, if such a combination will prevent a significant risk of harm from exposure.

(e) A remedial action plan prepared pursuant to this chapter shall include all of the following:

(1) The selection of a response action alternative or combination of alternatives described in subdivision (b) that are appropriate for the site and that satisfy the response action criteria set forth in this section.

(2) A site-specific assessment prepared for the site pursuant to Section 25398.4.

(3) A description of the characteristics of the site, including the potential for offsite migration of hazardous substances, the condition of surface or subsurface soil, and the hydrogeologic conditions.

(4) An analysis of the cost-effectiveness of the remedial action measures.

(5) An analysis of the ability to implement the remedial action measures.

(6) Consideration of the historical use of the site, background levels of hazardous substances present there due to natural conditions, and the existing and planned use of the site, in determining the extent, type, and scope of the remedy appropriate for the site.

(f) A remedial action plan prepared pursuant to this chapter shall include all of the following:

(1) A summary of the site investigation report setting forth the full extent of contamination at the site, including an assessment of potential human health risks from exposure to the hazardous substances and an assessment of environmental impacts which shall include the impact of the contamination on the planned uses of the site and the beneficial uses of water.

(2) An analysis of the long-term and short-term protection afforded by the remedial action with regard to human health and the environment.

(3) An analysis of the compliance of the remedial action with federal, state, and local statutes, regulations, and ordinances.

(g) In addition to the requirements of subdivision (a), a remedial action plan prepared pursuant to this chapter shall do all of the following:

(1) Describe all proposed remedial action measures in detail.

(2) Set forth a schedule for implementation of the plan.

(3) Set forth a plan for long-term operation and maintenance of the remedial action measures, if any are required.

(h) Any remedial action plan approved pursuant to this section shall include a statement of reasons setting forth the basis for the remedial action selected. The statement shall include a description of each alternative evaluated and the reasons for the rejection of alternatives that were evaluated and not selected.

(i) Before approving a remedial action plan, the department shall do all of the following:

(1) Notify the public, including those persons reasonably believed to be members of the affected community, of the response action proposed in the plan in a manner that provides reasonable assurance of reaching those persons on a timely basis. The notice shall include posting notices in the area where the proposed remedial action would be taken and notification, by direct mail, of the recorded owners of property contiguous to the site addressed by the plan, as shown in the latest equalized assessment roll and all potentially responsible persons identified in the plan.

(2) Provide at least 30 days for comment by the potentially responsible persons, appropriate federal, state, and local agencies, the affected community, and other members of the Public.

(3) Hold one or more public meetings with the potentially responsible persons, the affected community, and other members of the public, if any, seeking information or desiring to comment, concerning the response action. The information provided shall include an assessment of the degree of contamination, the characteristics of the hazardous substances, an estimate of the time required to carry out the response action and a description of the proposed response action, the planned use, and the remedial objectives. The department shall give all of the parties entitled by this section to a public meeting a fair opportunity to comment on the merits of the plan.

(4) Comply with Section 25397.2.

(j) After complying with subdivision (i), the department shall review and consider any comments received at the public meeting or by other means within the specified time period, shall consider the affected community's acceptance of the proposed remedial alternative or alternatives, and shall propose revisions to the draft plan, if appropriate.

(k) When reviewing a remedial action plan, the department shall give no special preferences to one or more available types of response action, including engineering and land use controls, treatment, removal, or other types of corrective action, but shall evaluate available response action options on the individual merits of each option reasonably available in light of specific site conditions.

(l) Within 60 days after the close of the comment period set forth in paragraph (2) of subdivision (i), the department shall approve the final remedial action plan, or issue a notice of deficiency to the person who submitted the plan that describes, in detail, any deficiencies in the plan. A remedial action plan found to be deficient shall be modified in a reasonable time. However, any notice of rejection of the notice of deficiency shall be filed with the department within 30 days from the date of receipt of the notice of deficiency. Within 60 days of receiving a modified plan, the department shall approve the plan or advise the person who prepared the plan, in detail, of the new or continuing deficiencies. Any failure to act by the department as provided in this subdivision may be appealed to the secretary. If the secretary fails to act on behalf of the department within 30 days after the appeal is filed, the department's failure to act may be challenged by any responsible person for the site pursuant to the provisions of Section 1085 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(m) Once approved by the department, a draft plan shall become final 60 days from the date that notice of its approval is provided in writing by appropriate means, as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 25398.10, unless a petition for review is filed prior to that time pursuant to Section 25398.10.

(n) A remedial action plan is not required for the abatement of an interim endangerment pursuant to Section 25398.2.

(o) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to change the standards for response actions taken at voluntary action sites that are overseen by the department pursuant to Section 25201.9 or any other authority.

25398.7. (a) A remedial action plan may utilize land use controls to limit or restrict land use where appropriate. All land use controls shall be recorded by the site owner in the county in which the site is located. The site owner shall provide the department with a copy of the land use controls which have been appropriately recorded.

(b) Any person who violates the terms of a land use control which that person knew, or reasonably should have known, applied to the property, shall be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) per day for each day of violation.

(c) The terms and conditions of a land use control may be modified only with the express written consent of the department, based on a determination that the response actions implemented at the site provide sufficient protection of human health and the environment required by subdivision (a) of Section 25398.6, and are sufficient to permit the planned use of the site. If additional response action is required to provide that protection, the department shall not approve the request for modification of the restriction or control until completion of the additional response action. Implementation of a modification to a land use control shall be in accordance with the following procedure:

(1) The person requesting the modification to the permitted use of the site shall provide the request in writing to the department for the site to approve a modification to an existing land use control. The request shall be accompanied by supporting documentation demonstrating that the response action implemented at the site provides the required protection. The request shall be accompanied by any applicable costs.

(2) Within 120 days of receiving the request, and after a public notice is placed in a newspaper of general circulation in the affected area, and after a 30-day public comment period, a duly noticed public meeting shall be held on the merits of the request, the department shall do one of the following:

(A) Approve the proposed modification.

(B) Approve the proposed modification with conditions for implementation of additional response action.

(C) Disapprove the proposed modification and provide the owner with the reasons for that disapproval.

(3) (A) The approval or denial of a request for modification shall become final within 30 days from the date that the department acts to approve or deny the modification and provides notice to all persons required to receive notice pursuant to, and in the manner required by, paragraph (2). Within 30 days from the date that any decision to approve a request for modification becomes final, the site owner shall record the modified land use control in the county in which the site is located and provide the department with a copy of the land use control which has been endorsed by the county recorder. The approved modification shall take effect upon recordation and after notice of the final decision is given in writing, by appropriate means, to immediately adjacent property owners, commenters, and persons who attended the public meeting and requested this notice.

(B) If the approval is accompanied with conditions which require compliance prior to modification of the land use control, the site owner shall provide the department with a copy of the land use control which has been appropriately recorded within 30 days after the department has notified the site owner that compliance with those conditions has been demonstrated. The approved modification shall take effect upon recordation.

25398.8 (a) At the same time that the department gives notice of the approval of the remedial action plan for a site, or prior to the time that the department issues its first notice of deficiency regarding the remedial action plan, the department shall, based on all available information before the department at that time, do both of the following:

(1) Notify, in writing, and by appropriate means, all of the responsible persons, the affected community, and the public, of the department's proposed apportionment of liability for the costs of response for the site which is the subject of the remedial action plan.

(2) Indicate in the notice whether there are orphan shares that will, or may be, paid from the trust fund.

(b) The department shall apportion liability for the response actions taken pursuant to this chapter to each responsible person for that person's share of response costs, based upon equitable factors and fairness principles so that total shares, including orphan shares, if any, total 100 percent. The fund administrator shall represent any orphan share with respect to actions concerning apportionment of liability if there is a proposed apportionment of liability to the orphan share for payment from the trust fund. The department shall provide any person who has requested notification of the department's proposed apportionment of liability with a copy of the proposed apportionment within 10 days after the department completes its proposal for apportionment of liability.

(c) The department shall weigh each factor considered appropriate under the circumstances of the release for which the remedial action was initiated. The department shall emphasize timely apportionment of approximate shares of liability and is not required to precisely determine all relevant factors, as long as substantial justice among the parties is achieved. Equitable factors that shall guide the apportionment decision include, but are not limited to, all of the following:

(1) The amount of hazardous substance for which each person is responsible.

(2) The degree of toxicity of the hazardous substance, its contribution to the contamination at the site, and the total expense involved in the remediation effort attributable to the hazardous substances for which each person is responsible.

(3) The degree of involvement of the person in the generation, transportation, treatment, or disposal of the hazardous substance for which each person is responsible.

(4) The degree of care exercised by the responsible person with respect to the hazardous substances for which each person is responsible, taking into account the characteristics of the substance.

(5) The degree of cooperation by the responsible person with federal, state, and local officials to prevent harm to human health and the environment.

(d) The site owner shall pay for all additional costs of response actions performed pursuant to this chapter at the request of the site owner that exceed the costs that would be incurred if the response action were limited to those required by this chapter.

(e) The apportionment of liability pursuant to this section shall not be subject to judicial review, except as provided in Section 25398.10.

(f) Notwithstanding the requirements of subdivisions (a) to (d), inclusive, the potentially responsible persons may agree upon an allocation of liability among themselves at a particular site, that, in the absence of an allocation of liability to an orphan share for payment from the trust fund, shall be adopted by the department as the apportionment of liability for the site.

25398.9. (a) Prior to the date that the department apportions liability pursuant to Section 25398.8, the department shall, when it determines that it is in the best interests of the public, propose a final administrative or judicial expedited settlement with responsible persons who, in the judgment of the department, meet either of the following conditions for eligibility for such an expedited settlement:

(1) The responsible person's individual contribution of hazardous substances at the site is de minimis. The contribution of hazardous substance to a site by a responsible person is de minimis if both of the following apply:

(A) The responsible person's volumetric contribution of materials containing hazardous substances is minimal in comparison to the total volumetric contributions of materials containing hazardous substances at the site, and that individual contribution is presumed to be minimal if it is 1 percent or less of the total volumetric contribution at the site, unless the department identifies a lower threshold based on site-specific factors.

(B) The responsible person's contribution of materials containing hazardous substances does not present toxic or other hazardous effects that are significantly greater than those of other hazardous substances at the site.

(2) (A) The responsible person is the site owner, did not conduct or permit the generation, transportation, storage, treatment, or disposal of any hazardous substance at the site, and did not contribute to the release or threat of release of a hazardous substance at the site through any action or omission.

(B) Paragraph (A) does not apply if the responsible person purchased the site with actual or constructive knowledge that the site was used for the generation, transportation, storage, treatment, or disposal of any hazardous substance.

(b) The department may reach an expedited settlement with responsible persons only when the aggregate shares of liability determined pursuant to subdivision (a) do not exceed 10 percent of the projected cost of the response action at the site.

(c) Any person who enters into a settlement pursuant to this section shall provide any information relevant to the administration of this chapter which is requested by the department. The determination of whether a person is eligible for an expedited settlement shall be made on the basis of all information available to the department at the time the determination is made. If the department determines not to apply the provisions of this section at a site, the basis for that determination shall be explained in writing to any person who requests such a settlement.

(d) A responsible person who has reached a final settlement under this section and paid any response costs which are part of the settlement, is not liable for claims for contribution from any other party for the costs of the response action at the site.

(e) At the same time that notice is provided pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 25398.8, the department shall provide written notice of the proposed settlement to all other responsible persons, the affected community, and the public by appropriate means. The notice shall identify the site and the parties to the proposed settlement.

(f) The department shall consider any written comments submitted regarding the proposed expedited settlement in determining whether or not to consent to the proposed settlement. The department may withhold consent to the proposed settlement if the comments disclose factors or considerations that indicate the proposed settlement is inappropriate, improper, or inadequate. The department shall withhold consent to the proposed settlement if any responsible person for the site petitions the department to invoke an arbitration panel to evaluate the merits of the settlement before the settlement agreement becomes final.

25398.10. (a) The Director of Environmental Health Hazard Assessment shall convene an arbitration panel, if a timely petition is filed with the director, for purposes of resolving all disputes with any responsible person concerning any of the following:

(1) The remedial action plan developed pursuant to Section 25398.6, including disputes regarding remedy selection, other technical issues, conditions of approval, or any other element of the plan.

(2) The department's proposed apportionment of liability pursuant to Section 25398.8.

(3) Any proposed de minimis settlements pursuant to Section 25398.9.

(4) The department's approval or denial of a change in land use pursuant to Section 25398.7.

(5) The department's approval or denial of a certificate of completion pursuant to Section 25398.15, as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 25398.15.

(b) (1) Petitions for disputes concerning the matters specified in paragraphs (1) to (3), inclusive, of subdivision (a) shall be filed within 60 days from the date that the notice of approval of the remedial action plan is issued, or from the date that the responsible person or persons preparing the remedial action plan notify the department in writing, by appropriate means, of the responsible person or person's rejection of a notice of deficiency. Within 10 days of the department's approval of the remedial action plan or receipt of a notice of a rejection of a notice of deficiency for the remedial action plan, the department shall provide notice in writing, by appropriate means, of its approval, or receipt of the notice of rejection, to all responsible persons for the site and to the public. The notice shall indicate the rights of the parties to file petitions for arbitration of the disputes concerning the matters specified in paragraphs (1) to (3), inclusive, of subdivision (a) and the deadline for the filing of a petition. Petitions for arbitration of disputes concerning the matters specified in paragraphs (1) to (3), inclusive, of subdivision (a) may be made by any responsible person. Petitions for arbitration of disputes concerning the matter specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) may also be filed by the affected community, and petitions for arbitration of disputes concerning the matters specified in paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (a) may be filed by any member of the public if orphan shares that are to be paid from the trust fund are at issue.

(2) Petitions for the arbitration of all disputes concerning the matters specified in paragraphs (4) and (5) of subdivision (a) may be made by any responsible person for the site, the affected community, or the public, and shall be made prior to the time that the action in dispute becomes final.

(3) Prior to submitting a petition for arbitration, the responsible persons shall make all reasonable efforts to resolve the dispute.

(4) If one or more petitions for arbitration have been filed for any combination of review of the remedial action plan, apportionment of liability, or de minimis settlements, the arbitration panel shall review all of these petitions in a consolidated hearing. The arbitration panel shall minimize the need for hearings on all other issues by consolidating hearings in all cases where reasonably possible.

(5) The arbitrators shall be selected as provided in subdivision (d) of Section 25356.2.

(c) All the provisions of Sections 25356.2, 25356.3, 25356.4 and 25356.6 apply to arbitration proceedings conducted pursuant to this section, except for all of the following:

(1) The arbitration panel shall apply the factors and standards for liability apportionment set forth in subdivision (c) of Section 25398.8, instead of those set forth in subdivision (c) of Section 25356.2.

(2) The provisions of subdivision (a) of Section 25356.3 and the provisions of subdivisions (c) and (e) of Section 25356.4 shall not apply.

(3) The arbitrators shall be bound by, and shall apply, the requirements and standards set forth in this chapter and Chapter 6.65 (commencing with Section 25260) that are applicable to the dispute that is the subject of the arbitration.

(4) The arbitrators shall have the expertise and experience appropriate to understand and critically evaluate the issues to be arbitrated.

(d) The arbitration panel shall hold a public hearing on any matter presented to the panel for evaluation, shall take all evidence presented, shall keep a record of the proceedings, including all testimony and evidence presented, and shall have discretion in the determination of facts. All findings and decisions of the panel shall be supported by substantial evidence in light of the whole record. The response action for which the arbitration panel has been requested to act pursuant to this section shall not be stayed during the pendency of the arbitration proceedings. Notice of the arbitration panel's decision shall be provided in writing, by appropriate means, within five days from the date that the arbitration panel has reached a decision, to the responsible persons, the affected community, the public, and any other person or entity who participated in the arbitration proceeding and requested notice of the decision.

(e) The department, any member of the advisory committee described in Section 25263, or, for purposes of appealing the approval of a remedial action plan by the arbitration panel, any member of the affected community, may seek judicial review of a decision of the arbitration panel by filing a petition for a writ of mandate pursuant to Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure not more than 30 days from the date that notice of the decision is provided in writing by appropriate means to those entities or persons. Any person authorized to petition for arbitration may also seek judicial review of a decision of the arbitration panel concerning any matter for which the person is authorized pursuant to subdivision (b) to submit a petition for arbitration, by filing a petition for writ of mandate pursuant to Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure not more than 30 days from the date that notice of the decision is provided in writing by appropriate means to that person. No person may seek judicial review of a matter that is subject to arbitration, if requested, that has not been first presented to an arbitration panel.

(f) Except for acts of recklessness, gross negligence, fraud, deceit, or other criminal activity, the arbitrators are immune from liability for any actions taken in their role as arbitrators.

25398.11. (a) (1) The secretary shall ensure that all arbitration panels are provided with the necessary technical support services by a team of state employees with experience and expertise appropriate to the issue or issues in dispute, including, but not limited to, where necessary, expertise in hydrogeology, geology, chemical engineering, toxicology, hazardous substance response action law, soil science, environmental health and engineering, industrial hygiene, and other related disciplines. The team of state employees shall provide a written report to the panel setting forth the team recommendations on all technical issues before the arbitrators, and the arbitrators shall give substantial weight to the team's recommendations. The team's report shall be a public record.

(2) The Director of Environmental Health Hazard Assessment shall adopt procedures for the removal of arbitrators from panels for inadequate performance of their assigned responsibilities.

(b) (1) The department shall notify all responsible persons who have been identified and located, the affected community, the team of state employees, and the public, of the arbitration hearing request and the location and scheduling of the arbitration hearing, in writing, by appropriate means, as soon as reasonably practicable after an arbitration hearing is requested.

(2) All responsible persons for the site notified by the department of the arbitration shall be subject to arbitration by the arbitration panel, and all response costs shall be apportioned among all responsible persons notified of the arbitration proceedings regardless of whether those persons appear before the arbitration panel.

25398.12. (a) No person may serve as an arbitrator for a site for which that person has a conflict of interest. A conflict of interest, for purposes of this section, includes the following:

(1) Employment at any time in the past by one or more of the responsible persons for the site.

(2) Existence of a potentially material financial impact from one or more of the decisions the arbitrator may be asked to make involving the site.

(b) Any person may challenge the selection of any arbitrator on grounds of (1) conflict of interest, or (2) lack of one or more of the qualifications required by Section 25398.10. Any challenge shall be filed with the Director of Environmental Health Hazard Assessment within 10 days of the provision of public notice of the arbitration hearing pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 25398.11. The Director of Environmental Health Hazard Assessment shall, within 20 days thereafter, determine the arbitrator's fitness to serve. Any arbitrator that is disqualified from serving on a particular panel shall be replaced in a timely manner in the same manner as the disqualified arbitrator was chosen.

25398.13. All decisions of the arbitration panel shall be made by majority vote.

25398.14. Upon completion of an engineering design to implement an approved remedial action plan, the responsible persons for the site shall submit the design to the department for approval. The department shall approve, modify, or deny the design within 60 days from the date of receipt.

(b) The department shall review each request for a certificate of completion and shall approve the request if the department determines that the response action plan and any other directive of the department have been satisfactorily completed and that the site has been placed into a condition that allows it to be permanently used for its planned use without any significant risk to human health or potential for any future significant environmental damage. The department shall approve or deny the request for a certificate of completion within 90 days after it is filed with the department. Any failure of the department to act on the submittal of a request for a certificate of completion within the time periods provided in this section may be appealed to the secretary. If the secretary fails to act on behalf of the department within 30 days after the appeal is filed, the department's failure to act may be challenged by any responsible person for the site pursuant to the provisions of Section 1085 of the Code of Civil Procedure. Any person who disputes the approval or denial of a request for a certificate of completion may, before the approval or denial becomes final pursuant to subdivision (c), file a petition for review of that denial pursuant to Section 25398.10 except that the petition may request review only concerning those issues in dispute that were heard before an arbitration panel in a prior hearing concerning the remedial action plan. All other disputes concerning the approval or denial of a request for a certificate of completion may be resolved by the secretary, at the discretion of the secretary.

(c) Notice of any approval or denial of a request for a certificate of completion shall be provided to the responsible persons for the site and to the public, by appropriate means, within five days from the date that the decision is made by the department. The approval or denial shall become final within 30 days from the date that notice is provided pursuant to this subdivision, unless a review of that approval or denial is requested, pursuant to subdivision (b), before the expiration of that 30-day period.

(d) A certificate of completion that becomes final pursuant to this section shall be deemed to have been issued pursuant to Section 25264, and Sections 25264 and 25265 shall apply to the site.

Article 5. Inspection, Security, and Damages

25398.16. The department shall have the same authority with regard to a remedial action site selected for response pursuant to this chapter as the authority provided in Sections 25358.1 and 25359.5 and all potentially responsible persons are entitled to the trade secret protection set forth in Section 25358.2 with regard to any action taken by the department pursuant to this chapter.

25398.17. (a) A responsible person who has entered into an agreement with the department, and is in compliance with the terms of that agreement and who is in compliance with all orders issued by the department, may seek, in addition to contribution, treble damages from any responsible person who has failed or refused to comply with any order or agreement relating to a site selected for response action under this chapter, was named in the order or agreement, and is subject to contribution. A responsible person from whom treble damages is sought in a contribution action shall not be assessed treble damages by any court where the responsible person, for sufficient cause, as determined by the court, failed to comply with an agreement or with an order issued by the department, or where the principles of fundamental fairness will be violated, as determined by the court. A responsible person seeking treble damages pursuant to this section shall show that notice of the order or agreement was provided to the responsible person against whom treble damages are being sought.

(b) One-half of any treble damages awarded pursuant to this section shall be paid to the department for deposit in the trust fund. Nothing in this subdivision affects the rights of any party to seek contribution pursuant to any other statute or under common law.

(c) If treble damages are assessed against any person pursuant to this section, that person shall be deemed to have acted willfully with respect to the conduct that gave rise to this liability for purposes of Section 533 of the Insurance Code.

Article 6. Recovery Actions

25399. (a) A responsible person is liable to the department and the trust fund for the response costs as provided in the agreement entered into pursuant to Section 25398.2, and for any other response costs incurred by the state, which are allocated to the responsible person in a final liability apportionment decision by the department pursuant to Section 25398.8 or the final decision of an arbitration panel pursuant to Section 25398.10 and which have been paid, or assigned for payment, from the trust fund.

(b) Actions to recover any response costs incurred by the state shall be commenced by the Attorney General, upon the request of the department or the fund administrator, against the responsible person or persons.

(c) The department and the fund administrator shall only seek response costs in an action pursuant to paragraph (b) from those responsible persons who have not paid their apportioned share of response costs to the department, or who have otherwise failed to comply with this chapter or any regulation, agreement, or order adopted pursuant to this chapter.

(d) Any person who has incurred response costs in accordance with this chapter may seek contribution or indemnity from any person who is liable pursuant to this chapter, except that no claim may be asserted against a person whose liability has been determined and which has been or is being fully discharged pursuant to this chapter, or against a person who has executed an agreement with the department pursuant to Section 25398.2, and is in compliance with this chapter and any regulation, agreement, or order adopted pursuant to this chapter. An action to enforce a claim may be brought as a cross-complaint by a defendant in an action brought pursuant to this section, or in a separate action for contribution or indemnity after the plaintiff has paid the department for response costs in accordance with this chapter. Any plaintiff or cross-complainant seeking contribution or indemnity shall give written notice to the department upon filing an action or cross-complaint under this section. In resolving claims for contribution or indemnity, the court shall allocate costs among liable parties, including the orphan shares, as set forth in the department's final liability apportionment decision or an arbitration panel decision pursuant to this chapter, except in instances where responsible parties have agreed to pay for orphan shares pursuant to the agreement provided for in Section 25398.2.

(e) (1) An action under this section for the recovery of response costs shall be commenced within three years after a certificate of completion is issued pursuant to Section 25398.15 or, in cases where responsible persons are identified by the department after that three-year period, within three years after the responsible persons are identified.

(2) A subsequent action or actions under this section for further response costs may be maintained at any time during the response action, but shall be commenced no later than three years after the date of completion of all response action.

Article 7. Office of Trust Fund Administrator

25399.1. (a) The Expedited Site Remediation Trust Fund is hereby created in the State Treasury and the money in the trust fund may be expended by the department, upon appropriation by the Legislature, to carry out this chapter.

(b) All expenses that are incurred by the state pursuant to this chapter shall be paid solely by the responsible parties or the trust fund. No liability or obligation is imposed upon the state pursuant to this chapter, and the state shall not incur a liability or obligation beyond the extent to which money is provided by the responsible parties or the trust fund for the purposes of this chapter.

25399.2. (a) A fund administrator shall be designated by the Governor.

(b) The fund administrator shall prudently administer the trust fund and shall protect the trust fund against unreasonable assessments of liability to the orphan share in all liability apportionment actions under this chapter where funding for all or a part of an orphan share is sought from the trust fund. The fund administrator shall have the same authority as a responsible person specified in this chapter with regard to a site where the orphan share is to be funded in whole, or in part, from the trust fund.

SEC. 3. (a) The Department of Toxic Substances Control, the Office of Environmental Health Hazard Assessment, and the California Environmental Protection Agency may adopt regulations necessary to implement Section 25344 of the Health and Safety Code and Chapter 6.85 (commencing with Section 25396) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Section 3 of this act.

(b) (1) Any regulations adopted pursuant to this section, which are filed with the Office of Administrative Law on or before June 30, 1995, shall be deemed to be emergency regulations necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, safety, and general welfare.

(2) If the Department of Toxic Substances Control, the Office of Environmental Health Hazard Assessment, or the California Environmental Protection Agency adopts emergency regulations pursuant to this subdivision, the emergency regulations, the rulemaking file, and the certification of compliance required by subdivision (e) of Section 11346.1 of the Government Code shall be transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law within 180 days of filing with the Secretary of State. The emergency regulations shall be deemed repealed, and shall not be in effect, if the certification of compliance required by Section 11346.1 of the Government Code is not transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law within that 180-day period.

SEC. 4. The Department of Toxic Substances Control shall report annually to the Governor and the Legislature on its progress in implementing the pilot program established by Chapter 6.85 (commencing with Section 25396) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Section 2 of this act. The report shall describe the activities which the department has taken during the past year in implementing the pilot program, list the sites that have been selected for response action and the sites that have been issued a certificate of completion under the program, evaluate its effectiveness in expediting the cleanup of selected sites, compare its effectiveness with that of the voluntary cleanup "walk-in" program that the department administers pursuant to Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 25100) of, and Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300) of, Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, and make recommendations concerning the administration of the pilot program.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 436

An act to amend Sections 42002 and 42010 of the Public Resources Code, relating to solid waste.

[Approved by Governor September 6, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 42002 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

42002. The following definitions govern the construction of this chapter:

(a) "Applicant" means a person, as defined in Section 40170, who applies for designation as a Recycling Market Development Zone.

(b) "Postconsumer waste material" means any product generated by a business or a consumer which has served its intended end use, and which has been separated from solid waste for the purposes of collection, recycling, and disposal, and which does not include secondary waste material.

(c) "Recycling-based business" means any business that increases market demand for, or adds value to, postconsumer waste material or secondary waste material.

(d) "Recycling market development zone" or "zone" means any single or joint, contiguous parcels of property that, based on the determination of the board, meets the following criteria:

(1) The area has been zoned an appropriate land use for the development of commercial, industrial, or manufacturing purposes.

(2) The area is identified in the countywide or regional agency integrated waste management plan as part of the market development area.

(3) The area is located in a city with an existing postconsumer waste collection infrastructure.

(4) The area may be used to establish commercial, manufacturing, or industrial processes which would produce end products that consist of not less than 50 percent recycled materials.

(e) "Revolving loan program" means the Recycling Market Development Revolving Loan Program established pursuant to Section 42010.

(f) "Secondary waste material" means industrial byproducts which would otherwise go to disposal facilities and wastes generated after completion of a manufacturing process, but does not include internally generated scrap commonly returned to industrial or manufacturing processes, such as home scrap and mill broke.

(g) "Subaccount" means the Recycling Market Development Revolving Loan Subaccount created pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) of Section 42010.

SEC. 2. Section 42010 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

42010. (a) The local governing body may, either by ordinance or resolution, upon the recommendation of the appropriate land use planning agency, propose eligible parcels of property within its jurisdiction as a recycling market development zone.

(b) The proposal of a recycling market development zone shall be based upon the following findings by the local governing body:

(1) The current waste management practices and conditions are favorable to the development of postconsumer waste material markets.

(2) The designation as a recycling market development zone is necessary in order to assist in attracting private sector recycling investments to the area.

(c) (1) The Recycling Market Development Revolving Loan Subaccount is hereby created in the account for the purpose of providing loans for purposes of the Recycling Market Development Revolving Loan Program established pursuant to this article. The money from any loan repayments and fees, including, but not limited to, principal and interest repayments, fees and points, recovery of collection costs, income earned on any asset recovered pursuant to a loan default, and funds collected through foreclosure actions, shall be deposited in the subaccount.

(2) Upon appropriation by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act, the board may make low-interest loans to local governing bodies and private business entities within a recycling market development zone from money in the subaccount for the purpose of assisting the board and local agencies in complying with Section 40051 and to assist cities and counties in complying with Section 41780.

(3) The board shall establish and collect fees for applications for loans authorized by this section. The application fee shall be set at a level that is sufficient to fund the board's cost of processing applications for loans. In addition, the board shall establish a schedule of fees, or points, for loans which are entered into by the board, to fund the board's administration of the revolving loan program.

(4) The board may, upon appropriation by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act, use the money in the subaccount for the administration of the revolving loan program. In addition, the board may fund administration of the revolving loan program from the account upon appropriation by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act. However, funding for the administration of the revolving loan program from the account shall be provided only if there are not sufficient funds in the subaccount to fully fund administration of the program.

(d) Loans made pursuant to subdivision (c) shall be subject to all of the following requirements:

(1) The terms of any approved loan shall be specified in a loan agreement between the borrower and the board. The loan agreement shall include a requirement that the failure to comply with the agreement shall result in any remaining unpaid amount of the loan, with accrued interest, being immediately due and payable. Notwithstanding any term of the agreement, any recipient of a loan that the board approves shall repay the principal amount, plus interest on the basis of the rate of return for money in the Pooled Money Investment Account. Except as provided in subdivision (g), all money received as repayment and interest on loans made pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the subaccount.

(2) The term of any loan made pursuant to this section shall be not more than 10 years.

(3) The board shall approve only those loan applications which demonstrate the applicant's ability to repay the loan. The highest priority for funding shall be given to projects which demonstrate that the project will increase market demand for recycling the project's type of postconsumer waste material.

(4) The board shall finance not more than one-half of the cost of the project, or not more than one million dollars ($1,000,000) for loans to the project, whichever is less.

(5) The Department of Finance may audit the expenditure of the proceeds of any loan made pursuant to this section.

(e) Upon authorization by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act, the Controller shall transfer the sum of five million dollars ($5,000,000) from the account to the subaccount for the purpose of making loans pursuant to this section. That amount shall be a loan to the subaccount, repayable with interest to the account at the rate of return for money in the Pooled Money Investment Account, and shall be repaid on or before July 1, 1997.

(f) As part of the annual report which the board is required to submit on or before March 31, 1996, to the Legislature pursuant to Section 40507, the board shall submit a report on the revolving loan program .

(g) (1) This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1997, and, as of January 1, 1998, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1998, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), any loan that is outstanding on July 1, 1997, shall be repaid as provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) until repaid in full. Any unexpended funds in the subaccount on July 1, 1997, shall be transferred to the account, and any proceeds from loans outstanding on that date shall be deposited in the account.

CHAPTER 437

An act to amend Section 15202 of the Government Code, and to amend Section 4 of Chapter 1649 of the Statutes of 1990, relating to trial costs.

[Approved by Governor September 6, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the Hauser-Leslie Criminal Justice Act.

SEC. 2. Section 15202 of the Government Code, as amended by Section 1 of Chapter 1649 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended to read:

15202. (a) A county with a population of 300,000 or less, at the time of the 1980 decennial census, which is responsible for the cost of a trial or trials or any hearing of a person for the offense of homicide may apply to the Controller for reimbursement of 90 percent of the costs incurred by the county for each such trial or hearing, without regard to fiscal years, in excess of the amount of money derived by the county from a tax of 0.00625 of 1 percent of the full value of property assessed for purposes of taxation within the county.

(b) (1) A county with a population of 200,000 or less, as of January 1, 1990, which is responsible for the cost of two or more trials or hearings within a fiscal year of a person or persons for the offense of homicide may apply to the Controller for reimbursement of 90 percent of the costs incurred in a fiscal year by the county for the conduct of the first trial within a fiscal year, and 85 percent of the costs incurred in a fiscal year by the county for the conduct of any and all subsequent trials or hearings in excess of the amount of money derived by the county from a tax of 0.00625 of 1 percent of the full value of property assessed for purposes of taxation within the county.

(2) A county with a population of 200,000 or less, as of January 1, 1990, which, within a fiscal year, is reimbursed for costs incurred by the county for the conduct of only one trial or hearing pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be reimbursed for that one trial or hearing in subsequent fiscal years for costs incurred in those subsequent fiscal years without again being required to expend county funds equal to 0.00625 of 1 percent of the full value of property assessed for purposes of taxation within the county, so long as all reimbursements to the county under this paragraph are for only that one trial or hearing.

For purposes of this subdivision, in determining the costs of a homicide trial, trials, hearing, or hearings, the costs shall include, all pretrial, trial, and posttrial costs incurred in connection with the investigation, prosecution, and defense of a homicide case or cases within a fiscal year, including, but not limited to, the costs incurred by the district attorney, sheriff, public defender, and witnesses, which were reasonably required by the court and participants in the case or cases, and other extraordinary costs associated with the investigation in homicide cases.

(c) A county with a population exceeding 300,000 at the time of the 1980 decennial census which is responsible for the cost of a trial or trials or any hearing of a person for the offense of homicide may apply to the Controller for reimbursement of 80 percent of the costs incurred by the county in excess of the amount of money derived by the county from a tax of 0.00625 of 1 percent, and not in excess of the amount of money derived from a tax of 0.0125 of 1 percent, and for reimbursement of 100 percent of the costs incurred in excess of the amount of money derived from a tax of 0.0125 percent, of the full value of property assessed for purposes of taxation within the county.

(d) The Controller shall not reimburse any county for costs that exceed the standards for travel and per diem expenses set forth in Sections 700 to 715, inclusive, and Section 718 of Title 2 of the California Code of Regulations. The Controller may reimburse extraordinary costs in unusual cases if the county provides sufficient justification of the need for these expenditures. Nothing in this section shall permit the reimbursement of costs for travel in excess of 1,000 miles on any single round trip, without the prior approval of the Attorney General.

(e) The Legislature recognizes that the conduct of trials for persons accused of homicide should not be hampered or delayed because of a lack of funds available to the counties for that purpose. While this section is intended to provide an equitable basis for determining the allocation to the state of the costs of homicide trials in any particular county, the rising costs of those trials necessitate an objective study to assure reasonable financial restraints and incentives for cost-effectiveness that do not place an unreasonable burden on the treasury of the smaller counties.

This section shall remain operative only until January 1, 2000, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 15202 of the Government Code, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 1649 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended to read:

15202. A county which is responsible for the cost of a trial or trials or any hearing of a person for the offense of homicide may apply to the Controller for reimbursement of the costs incurred by the county in excess of the amount of money derived by the county from a tax of 0.0125 of 1 percent of the full value of property assessed for purposes of taxation within the county.

The Controller shall not reimburse any county for costs that exceed the State Board of Control's standards for travel and per diem expenses. The Controller may reimburse extraordinary costs in unusual cases if the county provides sufficient justification of the need for these expenditures. Nothing in this section shall permit the reimbursement of costs for travel in excess of 1,000 miles on any single round trip, without the prior approval of the Attorney General.

This section shall become operative on January 1, 2000.

SEC. 4. Section 4 of Chapter 1649 of the Statutes of 1990 is amended to read:

Sec. 4. The Legislature finds and declares that under existing law, including, but not limited to, Sections 11019.6 and 15202 of the Government Code, the County of Calaveras will not be reimbursed for the extraordinary expenses related to the homicide trial of Charles Chitat Ng which will cause a severe drain on its cash-flow. Therefore, notwithstanding any other provision of law, the County of Calveras may apply to the Controller for reimbursement of 100 percent of its costs incident to the homicide trial of Charles Chitat Ng, incurred between January 1, 1991, and January 1, 2000. Nothing in this section shall permit the reimbursement of costs for travel in excess of 1,000 miles on any single round trip, without the prior approval of the Attorney General.

CHAPTER 438

An act to add Section 21096 to the Public Resources Code, relating to environmental quality.

[Approved by Governor September 6, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 21096 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

21096. (a) If a lead agency prepares an environmental impact report for a project situated within airport comprehensive land use plan boundaries, or, if a comprehensive land use plan has not been adopted, for a project within two nautical miles of a public airport or public use airport, the Airport Land Use Planning Handbook published by the Division of Aeronautics of the Department of Transportation, in compliance with Section 21674.5 of the Public Utilities Code and other documents, shall be utilized as technical resources to assist in the preparation of the environmental impact report as the report relates to airport-related safety hazards and noise problems.

(b) A lead agency shall not adopt a negative declaration for a project described in subdivision (a) unless the lead agency considers whether the project will result in a safety hazard or noise problem for persons using the airport or for persons residing or working in the project area.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 439

An act to amend Sections 8561, 8568, 8569, 8573, 8575, 8576, and 8577 of, and to repeal Sections 8560, 8568.5, 8570, 8578, and 8583 of, the Fish and Game Code, relating to commercial fishing, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 6, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8560 of the Fish and Game Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 8561 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8561. (a) Notwithstanding Sections 8394 and 8603, shark and swordfish may not be taken for commercial purposes with drift gill nets except under a revocable drift gill net shark and swordfish permit issued annually by the department. These permits shall be revoked or suspended by the director upon a conviction for a willful violation of any provision of this article, Article 1 (commencing with Section 8601) or Article 5 (commencing with Section 8680) of Chapter 3, or violation of any condition of the permit by the permittee or the permittee's agent, servant, employee, or person acting under the permittee's direction or control.

(b) A drift gill net shark and swordfish permit shall not be required for the taking of sharks with drift gill nets with a mesh size smaller than eight inches in stretched mesh and twine size no. 18 or the equivalent of this twine size or smaller.

SEC. 3. Section 8568 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8568. Drift gill net shark and swordfish permits shall be issued to any prior permittee who possesses a valid drift gill net shark and swordfish permit issued pursuant to this section or to any experimental swordfish permittee who possessed a valid 1994–95 limited entry experimental swordfish permit issued pursuant to Section 8586.2, as it read on January 1, 1994, but only if the permittee meets all of the following requirements:

(a) Possesses a valid permit for the use of gill nets authorized pursuant to Section 8681.

(b) Possessed a valid drift gill net shark and swordfish permit or a valid limited entry experimental swordfish permit during the preceding season and that permit was not subsequently revoked.

(c) During one of the two immediately preceding permit years, either landed at least 2,500 pounds of swordfish or 1,000 pounds of shark or landed shark or swordfish for which the permittee was paid at least one thousand dollars ($1,000). Landings shall be verified by the applicant's submission of landing receipts as provided in Section 8043.

SEC. 4. Section 8568.5 of the Fish and Game Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 8569 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8569. (a) Any person who possessed a valid drift gill net shark and swordfish permit or a valid limited entry experimental swordfish permit during the preceding season and whose application has been denied because the permittee failed to meet the landing requirements specified in subdivision (c) of Section 8568, may appeal to the commission, submitting circumstances surrounding nonuse of the permit and request a waiver of the landing requirement. The commission may authorize issuance of the permit to the applicant if it finds the nonuse of the permit during the preceding season was for reasons beyond the control of the applicant under the circumstances.

(b) The commission may establish conditions for the issuance of a permit if the person's drift gill net shark and swordfish permit or limited entry experimental swordfish permit was revoked during a preceding season or if the person possessed a valid permit during the preceding season but did not apply for renewal of his or her permit on or before April 30. The applicant for a permit under this subdivision may appeal to the director for the issuance of the permit under those conditions.

SEC. 6. Section 8570 of the Fish and Game Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 8573 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8573. Drift gill nets may be used to take shark and swordfish under the permit provided in this article and are subject to Section 8610.3 and the following restrictions:

(a) From June 1 to November 15, inclusive, shark or swordfish gill nets shall not be in the water from two hours after sunrise to two hours before sunset east of a line described as follows:

From a point beginning at Las Pitas Point to San Pedro Point on Santa Cruz Island, thence to Gull Island Light, thence to the northeast extremity of San Nicolas Island, thence along the high water mark on the west side of San Nicolas Island to the southeast extremity of San Nicolas Island, thence to the northwest extremity of San Clemente Island, thence along the high water mark on the west side of San Clemente Island to the southeast extremity of San Clemente Island, thence along a line running 150° true from the southeast extremity of San Clemente Island to the westerly extension of the boundary line between the Republic of Mexico and San Diego County.

(b) (1) The total maximum length of a shark or swordfish gill net on the net reel on a vessel, on the deck of the vessel, and in the water at any time shall not exceed 6,000 feet in float line length. The float line length shall be determined by measuring the float line, as tied, of all the net panels, excluding the bridle, towline, or stotza and excluding the parachute or other drogue device.

(2) Any shark or swordfish gill net on the reel shall have the float lines of the adjacent panels tied together, the lead lines of the adjacent panels tied together, and the web of the adjacent panels laced together. No quick disconnect device may be used unless the total maximum length of all shark and swordfish gill nets, including all spare gill nets or net panels on the vessel and all gill nets or net panels on the net reels on the vessel, on the deck of the vessel, stored aboard the vessel, and in the water, does not exceed 6,000 feet in float line length as determined under paragraph (1).

(3) Spare shark or swordfish gill net aboard the vessel shall not exceed 250 fathoms (1,500 feet) in total length, and the spare net shall be in separated panels of not to exceed 100 fathoms (600 feet) in float line length for each panel, with the float lines and leadlines attached to each panel separately gathered and tied, and the spare net panels stowed in lockers, wells, or other storage space.

(4) If a torn panel is replaced in a working shark or swordfish gill net, the torn panel shall be removed from the working net before the replacement panel is attached to the working net.

(c) Any end of a shark or swordfish gill net not attached to the permittee's vessel shall be marked by a pole with a radar reflector. The reflector shall be at least six feet above the surface of the ocean and not less than 10 inches in any dimension except thickness. The permittee's permit number shall be permanently affixed to at least one buoy or float which is attached to the radar reflector staff. The permit number shall be at least one and one-half inches in height and all markings shall be at least one-quarter inch in width.

(d) For the purposes of this article, "shark or swordfish gill net" means a drift gill net of 14-inch or greater mesh size.

SEC. 8. Section 8575 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8575. Drift gill nets used to take shark and swordfish under the permit provided in this article shall not be used under the following circumstances:

(a) From May 1 through July 31, within six nautical miles westerly, northerly, and easterly of the shoreline of San Miguel Island between a line extending six nautical miles west magnetically from Point Bennett and a line extending six nautical miles east magnetically from Cardwell Point and within six nautical miles westerly, northerly, and easterly of the shoreline of Santa Rosa Island between a line extending six nautical miles west magnetically from Sandy Point and a line extending six nautical miles east magnetically from Skunk Point.

(b) From May 1 through July 31, within 10 nautical miles westerly, southerly, and easterly of the shoreline of San Miguel Island between a line extending 10 nautical miles west magnetically from Point Bennett and a line extending 10 nautical miles east magnetically from Cardwell Point and within 10 nautical miles westerly, southerly, and easterly of the shoreline of Santa Rosa Island between a line extending 10 nautical miles west magnetically from Sandy Point and a line extending 10 nautical miles east magnetically from Skunk Point.

(c) From May 1 through July 31, within a radius of 10 nautical miles of the west end of San Nicolas Island.

(d) From August 15 through September 30, in ocean waters bounded as follows: beginning at Dana Point, Orange County, in a direct line to Church Rock, Catalina Island; thence in a direct line to Point La Jolla, San Diego County; and thence northwesterly along the mainland shore to Dana Point.

(e) From August 15 through September 30, in ocean waters within six nautical miles of the coastline on the northerly and easterly side of San Clemente Island, lying between a line extending six nautical miles west magnetically from the extreme northerly end of San Clemente Island to a line extending six nautical miles east magnetically from Pyramid Head.

(f) From December 15 through January 31, in ocean waters within 25 nautical miles of the mainland coastline.

SEC. 9. Section 8576 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8576. (a) Drift gill nets shall not be used to take shark or swordfish from February 1 to April 30, inclusive.

(b) Drift gill nets shall not be used to take shark or swordfish in ocean waters within 75 nautical miles from the mainland coastline between the westerly extension of the California-Oregon boundary line and the westerly extension of the United States-Republic of Mexico boundary line from May 1 to August 14, inclusive.

(c) Subdivisions (a) and (b) apply to any drift gill net used pursuant to a permit issued under Section 8561 or 8681.

(d) Notwithstanding the closure from May 1 to August 14, inclusive, in subdivision (b), a permittee may land swordfish or thresher shark taken in ocean waters more than 75 nautical miles from the mainland coastline in that period if, for each landing during that closed period, the permittee signs a written declaration under penalty of perjury that the fish landed were taken more than 75 nautical miles from the mainland coastline.

(e) If any person is convicted of falsely swearing a declaration under subdivision (d), in addition to any other penalty prescribed by law, the following penalties shall be imposed:

(1) The fish landed shall be forfeited, or, if sold, the proceeds from the sale shall be forfeited, pursuant to Sections 12159, 12160, 12161, and 12162.

(2) All shark or swordfish gill nets possessed by the permittee shall be seized and forfeited pursuant to Section 8630 or 12157.

(f) From August 15 of the year of issue to January 31, inclusive, of the following year, swordfish may be taken under a permit issued pursuant to this article.

SEC. 10. Section 8577 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8577. Notwithstanding Section 8394, the director may close the drift gill net shark and swordfish fishery, the swordfish harpoon fishery, or any area where either or both fisheries are conducted, if, after a public hearing, the director determines the action is necessary to protect the swordfish or thresher shark and bonito (mako) shark resources.

The director shall reopen a fishery or any fishing areas previously closed pursuant to this section if the director determines that the conditions which necessitated the closure no longer exist.

SEC. 11. Section 8578 of the Fish and Game Code is repealed.

SEC. 12. Section 8583 of the Fish and Game Code is repealed.

SEC. 13. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 440

An act to add Section 25201.5.1 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous waste.

[Approved by Governor September 6, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25201.5.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25201.5.1. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a hazardous waste facilities permit is not required for a generator whose hazardous waste treatment activities meet all of the following conditions:

(1) The hazardous waste being treated is effluent hazardous waste from the processing of silver halide-based imaging products.

(2) The effluent is a hazardous waste solely due to its silver content.

(3) Not more than 10 gallons are treated in any calendar month.

(4) The effluent is treated with a technology or combination of technologies which recover the silver to a level less than 5 mg /l total silver in the final wastewater discharge, or a lower level as may be set by the local publicly owned treatment works, without being diluted by wash water or other photoprocessing solutions.

(5) The hazardous waste is treated on the site where it is generated.

(6) The hazardous waste is treated within 90 days of its generation.

(7) The hazardous waste is treated in a tank or container.

(b) To qualify for the exemption provided by subdivision (a), the generator shall be in compliance with all regulatory requirements applicable to generators of hazardous waste specified in Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 66262.10) of Division 4.5 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations.

(c) Upon terminating treatment exempted pursuant to this section, the generator shall remove or decontaminate all waste residues, containment system components, soils, and other structures or equipment that were contaminated with hazardous waste during treatment. The removal of any unit from service shall be conducted in a manner that does both of the following:

(1) Minimizes the need for further maintenance.

(2) Eliminates the escape of hazardous waste, hazardous constituents, leachate, contaminated runoff, or waste decomposition products to the environment after the treatment process is no longer in operation.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 441

An act to amend Sections 25356.1 and 25358.9 of, and to add Section 25323.1 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous waste.

[Approved by Governor September 6, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25323.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25323.1. "Removal action workplan" means a workplan prepared or approved by the department or a California regional water quality control board which is developed to carry out a removal action, in an effective manner, which is protective of the public health and safety and the environment. The removal action workplan shall include a detailed engineering plan for conducting the removal action, a description of the onsite contamination, the goals to be achieved by the removal action, and any alternative removal options that were considered and rejected and the basis for that rejection.

SEC. 2. Section 25356.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25356.1. (a) For purposes of this section, "regional board" means a California regional water quality control board and "state board" means the State Water Resources Control Board.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (h), the department, or, if appropriate, the regional board shall prepare or approve remedial action plans for all sites listed pursuant to Section 25356.

(c) A potentially responsible party may request the department or the regional board, when appropriate, to prepare or approve a remedial action plan for any site not listed pursuant to Section 25356, if the department or the regional board determines that a removal or remedial action is required to respond to a release of a hazardous substance. The department or the regional board shall respond to a request to prepare or approve a remedial action plan within 90 days of receipt. This subdivision does not affect the authority of any regional board to issue and enforce a cleanup and abatement order pursuant to Section 13304 of the Water Code or a cease and desist order pursuant to Section 13301 of the Water Code.

(d) All remedial action plans prepared or approved pursuant to this section shall be based upon Section 25350, Subpart F of the National Oil and Hazardous Substances Pollution Contingency Plan (40 C.F.R. 300.61 et seq.), and any amendments thereto, and upon all of the following factors, to the extent that these factors are consistent with these federal regulations and do not require a less stringent level of cleanup than these federal regulations:

(1) Health and safety risks posed by the conditions at the site. When considering these risks, the department or the regional board shall consider scientific data and reports which may have a relationship to the site.

(2) The effect of contamination or pollution levels upon present, future, and probable beneficial uses of contaminated, polluted, or threatened resources.

(3) The effect of alternative remedial action measures on the reasonable availability of groundwater resources for present, future, and probable beneficial uses. The department or the regional board shall consider the extent to which remedial action measures are available which use, as a principal element, treatment that significantly reduces the volume, toxicity, or mobility of the hazardous substances, as opposed to remedial actions which do not use this treatment. The department or the regional board shall not select remedial action measures which use offsite transport and disposal of untreated hazardous substances or contaminated materials if practical and cost-effective treatment technologies are available.

(4) Site specific characteristics, including the potential for offsite migration of hazardous substances, the surface or subsurface soil, and the hydrogeologic conditions, as well as preexisting background contamination levels.

(5) Cost-effectiveness of alternative remedial action measures. In evaluating the cost-effectiveness of proposed alternative remedial action measures, the department or the regional board shall consider, to the extent possible, the total short-term and long-term costs of these actions and shall use, as a major factor, whether the deferral of a remedial action will result, or is likely to result, in a rapid increase in cost or in the hazard to public health or the environment posed by the site. Land disposal shall not be deemed the most cost-effective measure merely on the basis of lower short-term cost.

(6) The potential environmental impacts of alternative remedial action measures, including, but not limited to, land disposal of the untreated hazardous substances as opposed to treatment of the hazardous substances to remove or reduce its volume, toxicity, or mobility prior to disposal.

(e) A remedial action plan prepared or approved pursuant to this section shall include a statement of reasons setting forth the basis for the removal and remedial actions selected. The statement shall include an evaluation of each proposed alternative submitted to, or prepared by, the department or the regional board for a particular site. The statement shall also include an evaluation of the consistency of the removal and remedial actions proposed by the plan with the federal regulations and factors specified in subdivision (d) and shall set forth the reasons for rejection of alternative removal and remedial actions. The statement shall also include a nonbinding preliminary allocation of responsibility among all identifiable potentially responsible parties at a particular site, including those parties which may have been released, or may otherwise be immune, from liability pursuant to this chapter or any other provision of law. Before adopting a final remedial action plan, the department or the regional board shall prepare or approve a draft remedial action plan and shall do all of the following:

(1) Circulate the draft plan for at least 30 days for public comment.

(2) Notify affected local and state agencies of the removal and remedial actions proposed in the remedial action plan and publish a notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the area affected by the draft remedial action plan. The department or the regional board shall also post notices in the location where the proposed removal or remedial action would be located and shall notify, by direct mailing, the owners of property contiguous to the site addressed by the plan, as shown in the latest equalized assessment roll.

(3) Hold one or more meetings with the lead and responsible agencies for the removal and remedial actions, the potentially responsible parties for the removal and remedial actions, and the interested public, to provide the public with the information which is necessary to address the issues which concern the public. The information to be provided shall include an assessment of the degree of contamination, the characteristics of the hazardous substances, an estimate of the time required to carry out the removal and remedial actions, and a description of the proposed removal and remedial actions.

(4) Comply with Section 25358.7.

(f) After complying with subdivision (e), the department or the regional board shall review and consider any public comments, and shall revise the draft plan, if appropriate. The department or the regional board shall then issue the final remedial action plan.

(g) (1) A potentially responsible party named in the final remedial action plan issued by the department or the regional board may seek judicial review of the final remedial action plan by filing a petition for writ of mandate pursuant to Section 1085 of the Code of Civil Procedure within 30 days after the final remedial action plan is issued by the department or the regional board. Any other person who has the right to seek judicial review of the final remedial action plan by filing a petition for writ of mandate pursuant to Section 1085 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall do so within one year after the final remedial action plan is issued. No action may be brought by a potentially responsible party to review the final remedial action plan if the petition for writ of mandate is not filed within 30 days of the date that the final remedial action plan was issued. No action may be brought by any other person to review the final remedial action plan if the petition for writ of mandate is not filed within one year of the date that the final remedial action plan was issued. The filing of a petition for writ of mandate to review the final remedial action plan shall not stay any removal or remedial action specified in the final plan.

(2) For purposes of judicial review, the court shall uphold the final remedial action plan if the plan is based upon substantial evidence available to the department or the regional board, as the case may be.

(3) This subdivision does not prohibit the court from granting any appropriate relief within its jurisdiction, including, but not limited to, enjoining the expenditure of funds pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 25385.6.

(h) (1) This section does not require the department or a regional board to prepare a remedial action plan if conditions present at a site present an imminent or substantial endangerment to the public health and safety or to the environment or, if the department, a regional board, or a responsible party takes a removal action at a site and the estimated cost of the removal action is less than one million dollars ($1,000,000). The department or a regional board shall prepare or approve a removal action workplan for all sites where a nonemergency removal action is proposed and where a remedial action plan is not required. For sites where removal actions are planned and are projected to cost less than one million dollars ($1,000,000), the department or a regional board shall make the local community aware of the hazardous substance release site and shall prepare, or direct the parties responsible for the removal action to prepare, a community profile report to determine the level of public interest in the removal action. Based on the level of expressed interest, the department or regional board shall take appropriate action to keep the community informed of project activity and to provide opportunities for public comment which may include conducting a public meeting on proposed removal actions.

(2) A remedial action plan is not required pursuant to subdivision (b) if the site is listed on the National Priority List by the Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to the federal act, if the department or the regional board concurs with the remedy selected by the Environmental Protection Agency's record of decision. The department or the regional board may sign the record of decision issued by the Environmental Protection Agency if the department or the regional board concurs with the remedy selected.

(3) The department may waive the requirement that a remedial action plan meet the requirements specified in subdivision (d) if all of the following apply:

(A) The responsible party adequately characterizes the hazardous substance conditions at a site listed pursuant to Section 25356.

(B) The responsible party submits to the department, in a form acceptable to the department, all of the following:

(i) A description of the techniques and methods to be employed in excavating, storing, handling, transporting, treating, and disposing of materials from the site.

(ii) A listing of the alternative remedial measures which were considered by the responsible party in selecting the proposed removal action.

(iii) A description of methods that will be employed during the removal action to ensure the health and safety of workers and the public during the removal action.

(iv) A description of prior removal actions with similar hazardous substances and with similar public safety and environmental considerations.

(C) The department determines that the remedial action plan provides protection of human health and safety and for the environment at least equivalent to that which would be provided by a remedial action plan prepared in accordance with subdivision (c).

(D) The total cost of the removal action is less than two million dollars ($2,000,000).

(4) For purposes of this section, the cost of a removal action includes the cleanup of removal of released hazardous substances from the environment or the taking of other actions which are necessary to prevent, minimize, or mitigate damage which may otherwise result from a release or threatened release, as further defined by Section 9601 (23) of Title 42 of the United States Code.

(5) Paragraph (2) of this subdivision does not apply to a removal action paid from the Hazardous Substance Cleanup Fund.

(i) Article 2 (commencing with Section 13320), Article 3 (commencing with Section 13330), Article 5 (commencing with Section 13350), and Article 6 (commencing with Section 13360) of Chapter 5 of Division 7 of the Water Code apply to any action or failure to act by a regional board pursuant to this section.

SEC. 3. Section 25358.9 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25358.9. (a) To the extent consistent with the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, as amended, (42 U.S.C. Sec. 6901 et seq.), the department may exclude any portion of a response action conducted entirely onsite from the hazardous waste facility permit requirements of Section 25201 if both of the following apply:

(1) The removal or remedial action is carried out pursuant to a removal action workplan or a remedial action plan prepared pursuant to Section 25356.1.

(2) The removal action workplan or the remedial action plan requires that the response action complies with all laws, rules, regulations, standards, and requirements, criteria, or limitations applicable to the construction, operation, and closure of the type of facility at the hazardous substance release site and with any other condition imposed by the department as necessary to protect public health and safety and the environment.

(b) The department may enforce in the court for the county in which a response action exempted pursuant to subdivision (a) is located any federal or state law, rule, regulation, standard, requirements, criteria, or limitation with which the remedial or removal action is required to comply. Any consent decree entered into pursuant to an enforcement action authorized by this subdivision shall require the parties to attempt expeditiously to informally resolve any disagreements concerning the implementation of the response action with the appropriate federal and state agencies and shall provide for administrative enforcement. The consent decree shall stipulate that the penalty for violation of the consent decree shall be in an amount of not more than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) per day, which may be enforced by the state. These penalties do not impair or affect the authority of the court to order compliance with the specific terms of the consent decree.

CHAPTER 442

An act to amend Section 25323.5 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous substances.

[Approved by Governor September 6, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25323.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25323.5. (a) (1) "Responsible party" or "liable person," for the purposes of this chapter, means those persons described in Section 107(a) of the federal act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 9607(a)).

(2) (A) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), but except as provided in subparagraph (B), a person is not a responsible party or liable person, for purposes of this chapter, for the reason that the person has developed or implemented innovative investigative or innovative remedial technology with regard to a release site, if the use of the technology has been approved by the department for the release site and the person would not otherwise be a responsible party or liable person. Upon approval of the use of the technology, the director shall acknowledge, in writing, that, upon proper completion of the innovative investigative or innovative remedial action at the release site, the immunity provided by this subparagraph shall apply to the person.

(B) Subparagraph (A) does not apply in any of the following cases:

(i) Conditions at the release site have deteriorated as a result of the negligence of the person who developed or implemented the innovative investigative or innovative remedial technology.

(ii) The person who developed or implemented the innovative investigative or innovative remedial technology withheld or misrepresented information that was relevant to the potential risks or harms of the technology.

(iii) The person who implemented the innovative investigative or innovative remedial technology did not follow the implementation process approved by the department.

(b) For the purposes of this chapter, the defenses available to a responsible party or liable person shall be those defenses specified in Sections 101(35) and 107(b) of the federal act (42 U.S.C. Secs. 9601(35) and 9607(b)).

CHAPTER 443

An act to amend Section 42352.5 of, and to add Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 42365) to Chapter 4 of Part 4 of Division 26 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to air pollution, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 6, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 42352.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

42352.5. (a) The hearing board, in determining whether or not the petitioner has presented evidence sufficient to make the finding specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 42352 or paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 42368, shall consider, in addition to any other relevant factors, both of the following:

(1) In determining whether or not conditions exist which are beyond the reasonable control of the petitioner, the hearing board shall consider the extent to which the petitioner took actions to comply or seek a variance, which were timely and reasonable under the circumstances. In so doing, the hearing board shall consider actions taken by the petitioner since the adoption of the rule, regulation, or order from which the variance is sought.

(2) In determining whether or not requiring compliance would result in either an arbitrary or unreasonable taking of property or the practical closing and elimination of a lawful business, the hearing board shall consider whether or not an unreasonable burden would be imposed upon the petitioner if immediate compliance is required.

(b) (1) As used in this subdivision, "small business" has the same meaning as defined by the Small Business Administration, except that no stationary source which is a major source, as defined by applicable provisions of the federal Clean Air Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 7661(2)), is a small business.

(2) If the petitioner is a small business and emits 10 tons or less per year of air contaminants, the hearing board shall consider the factors specified in subdivision (a) in the following manner:

(A) In determining the extent to which the petitioner took timely actions to comply or seek a variance, the hearing board shall make specific inquiries into, and shall take into account, the reasons for any claimed ignorance of the requirement from which a variance is sought.

(B) In determining the extent to which the petitioner took reasonable actions to comply, the hearing board shall make specific inquiries into, and shall take into account, the petitioner's financial and other capabilities to comply.

(C) In determining whether or not the burden of requiring immediate compliance would be unreasonable, the hearing board shall make specific inquiries into, and shall consider, the impact on the petitioner's business and the benefit to the environment which would result if the petitioner is required to immediately comply.

SEC. 2. Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 42365) is added to Chapter 4 of Part 4 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 2.5. Product Variances

42365. Any person who manufactures a product may petition the hearing board for a product variance from a rule or regulation of the district pursuant to this article.

42366. A product variance is only available if, to provide effective relief, the variance is required to be granted for, and attached to, a particular product, as distinguished from the variance that may be granted to an individual petitioner pursuant to Section 42352. A product variance shall be granted only when a product does not comply with district rules or regulations and the variance is necessary for the sale, supply, distribution, or use of the product.

42367. No product variance shall be granted pursuant to this article from a requirement for a permit to build, erect, alter, or replace any article, machine, equipment, or other contrivance pursuant to Section 42300.

42368. (a) No product variance shall be granted unless the hearing board makes all of the following findings:

(1) The manufacture, distribution, offering for sale, sale, application, soliciting the application, or use of the product is, or will be, in violation of a rule, regulation, or order of the district.

(2) Due to conditions beyond the reasonable control of the petitioner, requiring compliance would result in either (A) an arbitrary or unreasonable taking of property, or (B) the practical closing and elimination of a lawful business.

(3) The taking or closing would be without a corresponding benefit in reducing air contaminants.

(4) The petitioner exercised due diligence in attempting to locate, research, or develop a product that is in compliance with district rules and regulations.

(5) During the period that the product variance is in effect, the petitioner shall quantify any excess emissions to the maximum extent feasible and report the emission levels to the district, if requested by the district.

(b) If the product variance is granted subject to conditions on the use of the product, within 10 days from the effective date of the variance, and for the duration of the time period of the variance, the petitioner shall cause a written notice to be furnished to any retailer, distributor, and purchaser of the product who is located within the district. The written notice shall be, attached to, or otherwise accompany, the product, and shall include all of the following information:

(1) That the product is being sold pursuant to a product variance granted by the district hearing board.

(2) The beginning and ending dates of the product variance.

(3) Any other conditions set forth in the product variance.

(c) Within 10 days from the effective date of the granting of the product variance, the district shall cause to be published pursuant to Section 6061 of the Government Code, the information specified in subdivision (b).

(d) The district hearing board may prescribe requirements or conditions in the product variance that are applicable to the product, other than those imposed by statute or by any rule, regulation, or order of the district board, if those requirements or conditions are not more onerous.

42369. (a) No product variance shall be granted if the use of the product under the variance will result in a violation of Section 41700.

(b) No emergency product variance shall be granted pursuant to this article.

42370. If the product variance is granted and the product is in compliance with subdivisions (b) and (d) of Section 42368, the petitioner may manufacture, and any person may distribute, offer for sale, sell, apply, solicit the application of, or use the product under the conditions set forth in the product variance.

42371. Sections 42350.5, 42351, 42351.5, 42352.5, 42354 to 42357, inclusive, 42359, and 42362 to 42364, inclusive, shall apply to the granting of product variances pursuant to this article.

42372. (a) The hearing board, in making any order permitting a product variance, shall specify the time during which the order shall be effective, which, except as provided in subdivision (b), shall not exceed one year, and shall set a final compliance date.

(b) A product variance may be issued for a period exceeding one year, but in no event to exceed two years from the date of the granting of the initial product variance, if the product variance includes a schedule of increments of progress specifying a final compliance date by which the emission of air contaminants from the product for which the product variance is granted will be brought into compliance with applicable emission standards and all district rules, regulations, and orders. No extension may be granted to a petitioner without a showing of good cause and proof of compliance with the findings required by Section 42368.

(c) If the product variance is for a process or product that is equivalent to, or exceeds, the applicable standards required by the district's rules and regulations, and the hearing board granting the variance specifies that the only way to achieve compliance will be for the district to adopt or amend a rule or regulation, the air pollution control officer within 180 days from the effective date of the variance, shall set a public hearing before the district governing board and make a recommendation on whether or not the board should adopt or amend a rule or regulation to bring the product into compliance. The district governing board shall, within one year of the effective date of the variance, take action to (1) adopt or amend a district rule or regulation to bring the product into compliance, or (2) determine that no amendment, rule, or regulation is warranted. If the district governing board fails to take either action, nothing in this subdivision shall limit the petitioner's rights and remedies under existing law.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure the continued operation and competitiveness of businesses and manufacturers in this state, thereby preserving jobs and improving the general economic climate, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 444

An act to amend Section 13009 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to emergency response.

[Approved by Governor September 6, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13009 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

13009. (a) Any person (1) who negligently, or in violation of the law, sets a fire, allows a fire to be set, or allows a fire kindled or attended by him or her to escape onto any public or private property, (2) other than a mortgagee, who, being in actual possession of a structure, fails or refuses to correct, within the time allotted for correction, despite having the right to do so, a fire hazard prohibited by law, for which a public agency properly has issued a notice of violation respecting the hazard, or (3) including a mortgagee, who, having an obligation under other provisions of law to correct a fire hazard prohibited by law, for which a public agency has properly issued a notice of violation respecting the hazard, fails or refuses to correct the hazard within the time allotted for correction, despite having the right to do so, is liable for the fire suppression costs incurred in fighting the fire and for the cost of providing rescue or emergency medical services, and those costs shall be a charge against that person. The charge shall constitute a debt of that person, and is collectible by the person, or by the federal, state, county, public, or private agency, incurring those costs in the same manner as in the case of an obligation under a contract, expressed or implied.

(b) Public agencies participating in fire suppression, rescue, or emergency medical services as set forth in subdivision (a), may designate one or more of the participating agencies to bring an action to recover costs incurred by all of the participating agencies. An agency designated by the other participating agencies to bring an action pursuant to this section shall declare that authorization and its basis in the complaint, and shall itemize in the complaint the total amounts claimed under this section by each represented agency.

(c) Any costs incurred by the Department of Forestry and Fire Protection in suppressing any wildland fire originating or spreading from a prescribed burning operation conducted by the department pursuant to a contract entered into pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 4475) of Chapter 7 of Part 2 of Division 4 of the Public Resources Code shall not be collectible from any party to the contract, including any private consultant or contractor who entered into an agreement with that party pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 4475.5 of the Public Resources Code, as provided in subdivision (a), to the extent that those costs were not incurred as a result of a violation of any provision of the contract.

(d) This section applies to all areas of the state, regardless of whether primarily wildlands, sparsely developed, or urban.

CHAPTER 445

An act to repeal and add Section 6404 of the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to agriculture.

[Approved by Governor September 6, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6404 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 6404 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

6404. The secretary may enter into agreements with regulatory officials of other states and the United States Department of Agriculture to provide for the use of various pest risk mitigation measures at the place of origin of the shipment of the plants. The agreement may designate the plants or varieties of plants to which those measures are applied as being commodities that may be released upon arrival at ports of entry or terminals in this state without being held and inspected for compliance with standards and quarantine requirements.

CHAPTER 446

An act to amend Section 667.71 of the Penal Code, relating to criminal law.

[Approved by Governor September 8, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 667.71 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

667.71. (a) For the purpose of this section, a habitual sexual offender is a person who previously has served at least one prison term for one or more of the offenses listed in subdivision (d) and is convicted in the present proceeding of one of those offenses.

(b) A habitual sexual offender is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for 25 years to life. Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 2930) of Chapter 7 of Title 1 of Part 3 shall not apply to reduce any minimum term of 25 years in the state prison imposed pursuant to this section. However, no habitual sexual offender sentenced under this subdivision may be released on parole until he or she has been incarcerated for at least 25 years.

(c) At the request of the prosecutor and in lieu of the punishment specified in subdivision (b), the court shall order that the defendant be punished pursuant to Section 667.6, 667.7, or 1170.1, if applicable.

(d) This section shall apply to persons found guilty of violating paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, Section 264.1, subdivision (a) of Section 289, or of committing sodomy or oral copulation in violation of Section 286 or 288a by force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person, or found guilty of kidnapping, as punished in subdivision (d) of Section 208, or an offense committed in another jurisdiction that has all the elements of an offense specified in this subdivision.

(e) This section shall apply only if the defendant's status as a habitual sexual offender is alleged in the information, and either admitted by the defendant in open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by a plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by court sitting without a jury.

CHAPTER 447

An act to amend Sections 667.71 and 1203.066 of, and to add Section 667.61 to, the Penal Code, relating to sex offenses.

[Approved by Governor September 8, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 667.61 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

667.61. (a) A person who is convicted of an offense specified in subdivision (c) under one or more of the circumstances specified in subdivision (d) or under two or more of the circumstances specified in subdivision (e) shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for life and shall not be eligible for release on parole for 25 years except as provided in subdivision (j).

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (a), a person who is convicted of an offense specified in subdivision (c) under one of the circumstances specified in subdivision (e) shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for life and shall not be eligible for release on parole for 15 years except as provided in subdivision (j).

(c) This section shall apply to any of the following offenses:

(1) A violation of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 261.

(2) A violation of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262.

(3) A violation of Section 264.1.

(4) A violation of subdivision (b) of Section 288.

(5) A violation of subdivision (a) of Section 289.

(6) Sodomy or oral copulation in violation of Section 286 or 288a by force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person.

(7) A violation of subdivision (a) of Section 288, unless the defendant qualifies for probation under subdivision (c) of Section 1203.066.

(d) The following circumstances shall apply to the offenses specified in subdivision (c):

(1) The defendant has been previously convicted of an offense specified in subdivision (c), including an offense committed in another jurisdiction that includes all of the elements of an offense specified in subdivision (c).

(2) The defendant kidnapped the victim of the present offense and the movement of the victim substantially increased the risk of harm to the victim over and above that level of risk necessarily inherent in the underlying offense in subdivision (c).

(3) The defendant inflicted aggravated mayhem or torture on the victim or another person in the commission of the present offense in violation of Section 205 or 206.

(4) The defendant committed the present offense during the commission of a burglary, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 460, with intent to commit an offense specified in subdivision (c).

(e) The following circumstances shall apply to the offenses specified in subdivision (c):

(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (d), the defendant kidnapped the victim of the present offense in violation of Section 207, 208, 209, or 209.5.

(2) Except as provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (d), the defendant committed the present offense during the commission of a burglary, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 460, or during the commission of a burglary of a building, including any commercial establishment, which was then closed to the public, in violation of Section 459.

(3) The defendant personally inflicted great bodily injury on the victim or another person in the commission of the present offense in violation of Section 12022.7 or 12022.8.

(4) The defendant personally used a dangerous or deadly weapon or firearm in the commission of the present offense in violation of Section 12022, 12022.3, or 12022.5.

(5) The defendant has been convicted in the present case or cases of committing an offense specified in subdivision (c) against more than one victim.

(6) The defendant engaged in the tying or binding of the victim or another person in the commission of the present offense.

(7) The defendant administered a controlled substance to the victim by force, violence, or fear in the commission of the present offense in violation of Section 12022.75.

(f) If only the minimum number of circumstances specified in subdivision (d) or (e) which are required for the punishment provided in subdivision (a) or (b) to apply have been pled and proved, that circumstance or those circumstances shall be used as the basis for imposing the term provided in subdivision (a) or (b) rather than being used to impose the punishment authorized under any other law, unless another law provides for a greater penalty. However, if any additional circumstance or circumstances specified in subdivision (d) or (e) have been pled and proved, the minimum number of circumstances shall be used as the basis for imposing the term provided in subdivision (a), and any other additional circumstance or circumstances shall be used to impose any punishment or enhancement authorized under any other law. Notwithstanding any other law, the court shall not strike any of the circumstances specified in subdivision (d) or (e).

(g) The term specified in subdivision (a) or (b) shall be imposed on the defendant once for any offense or offenses committed against a single victim during a single occasion. If there are multiple victims during a single occasion, the term specified in subdivision (a) or (b) shall be imposed on the defendant once for each separate victim. Terms for other offenses committed during a single occasion shall be imposed as authorized under any other law, including Section 667.6, if applicable.

(h) Probation shall not be granted to, nor shall the execution or imposition of sentence be suspended for, any person who is subject to punishment under this section for any offense specified in paragraphs (1) to (6), inclusive, of subdivision (c).

(i) For the penalties provided in this section to apply, the existence of any fact required under subdivision (d) or (e) shall be alleged in the accusatory pleading and either admitted by the defendant in open court or found to be true by the trier of fact.

(j) Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 2930) of Chapter 7 of Title 1 of Part 3 shall apply to reduce the minimum term of 25 years in the state prison imposed pursuant to subdivision (a) or 15 years in the state prison imposed pursuant to subdivision (b). However, in no case shall the minimum term of 25 or 15 years be reduced by more than 15 percent for credits granted pursuant to Section 2933, 4019, or any other law providing for conduct credit reduction. In no case shall any person who is punished under this section be released on parole prior to serving at least 85 percent of the minimum term of 25 or 15 years in the state prison.

SEC. 2. Section 667.71 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

667.71. (a) For the purpose of this section, a habitual sexual offender is a person who has been previously convicted of one or more of the offenses listed in subdivision (d) and who is convicted in the present proceeding of one of those offenses.

(b) A habitual sexual offender is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for 25 years to life. Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 2930) of Chapter 7 of Title 1 of Part 3 shall apply to reduce any minimum term of 25 years in the state prison imposed pursuant to this section. However, in no case shall the minimum term of 25 years be reduced by more that 15 percent for credits granted pursuant to Section 2933, 4019, or any other law providing for conduct credit reduction. In no case shall any person who is punished under this section be released on parole prior to serving at least 85 percent of the minimum term of 25 years in the state prison.

(c) At the request of the prosecutor and in lieu of the punishment specified in subdivision (b), the court shall order that the defendant be punished pursuant to Section 667.6, 667.61, 667.7, or 1170.1, if applicable.

(d) This section shall apply to persons found guilty of violating paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262, Section 264.1, subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 288, subdivision (a) of Section 289, or of committing sodomy or oral copulation in violation of Section 286 or 288a by force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person, or found guilty of kidnapping, as punished in subdivision (d) of Section 208, or an offense committed in another jurisdiction that has all the elements of an offense specified in this subdivision.

(e) This section shall apply only if the defendant's status as a habitual sexual offender is alleged in the information, and either admitted by the defendant in open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by a plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by court sitting without a jury.

SEC. 3. Section 1203.066 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203.066. (a) Notwithstanding Section 1203 or any other law, probation shall not be granted to, nor shall the execution or imposition of sentence be suspended for, nor shall a finding bringing the defendant within the provisions of this section be stricken pursuant to Section 1385 for, any of the following persons:

(1) A person who is convicted of violating Section 288 or 288.5 when the act is committed by the use of force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person.

(2) A person who caused bodily injury on the child victim in committing a violation of Section 288 or 288.5.

(3) A person who is convicted of a violation of Section 288 or 288.5 and who was a stranger to the child victim or befriended the child victim for the purpose of committing an act in violation of Section 288 or 288.5, unless the defendant honestly and reasonably believed the victim was 14 years of age or older.

(4) A person who used a weapon during the commission of a violation of Section 288 or 288.5.

(5) A person who is convicted of committing a violation of Section 288 or 288.5 and who has been previously convicted of a violation of Section 261, 262, 264.1, 266, 266c, 267, 285, 286, 288, 288.5, 288a, or 289, or of assaulting another person with intent to commit a crime specified in this paragraph in violation of Section 220, or who has been previously convicted in another state of an offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would constitute an offense enumerated in this paragraph.

(6) A person who violated Section 288 or 288.5 while kidnapping the child victim in violation of Section 207, 208, or 209.

(7) A person who is convicted of committing a violation of Section 288 or 288.5 against more than one victim.

(8) A person who, in violating Section 288 or 288.5, has substantial sexual conduct with a victim who is under 14 years of age.

(9) A person who, in committing a violation of Section 288 or 288.5, used obscene matter, as defined in Section 311, or matter, as defined in Section 311, depicting sexual conduct, as defined in Section 311.3.

(b) As used in this section, "substantial sexual conduct" means penetration of the vagina or rectum by the penis of the offender or by any foreign object, oral copulation, or masturbation of either the victim or the offender.

(c) Paragraph (7), (8), or (9) of subdivision (a) shall not apply when the court makes all of the following findings:

(1) The defendant is the victim's natural parent, adoptive parent, stepparent, relative, or is a member of the victim's household who has lived in the household.

(2) A grant of probation to the defendant is in the best interest of the child.

(3) Rehabilitation of the defendant is feasible, and the defendant is placed in a recognized treatment program that is designed to deal with child molestation immediately after the grant of probation or the suspension of execution or imposition of sentence.

(4) The defendant is removed from the household of the victim until the court determines that the best interests of the victim would be served by returning the defendant to the household of the victim.

(5) There is no threat of physical harm to the child victim if probation is granted. The court upon making its findings pursuant to this subdivision is not precluded from sentencing the defendant to jail or prison, but retains the discretion not to do so. The court shall state its reasons on the record for whatever sentence it imposes on the defendant.

The court shall order the psychiatrist or psychologist who is appointed pursuant to Section 288.1 to include a consideration of the factors specified in paragraphs (2), (3), and (4) in making his or her report to the court.

(d) The existence of any fact which would make a person ineligible for probation under subdivision (a) shall be alleged in the accusatory pleading and either admitted by the defendant in open court or found to be true by the trier of fact.

SEC. 4. This bill shall become operative only if Assembly Bill 2261 and Assembly Bill 3707 of the 1993–94 Regular Session, and Assembly Bill 19 and Senate Bill 26 of the 1993–94 First Extraordinary Session, are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1995.

CHAPTER 448

An act to amend Sections 207.1, 707, 707.1, 707.2, and 800 of, and to add Sections 707.01 and 785 to, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to juveniles.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 207.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as amended by Section 24 of Chapter 695 of the Statutes of 1992, is amended to read:

207.1. (a) No court, judge, referee, peace officer, or employee of a detention facility shall knowingly detain any minor in a jail or lockup, except as provided in subdivision (b) or (d).

(b) Any minor who is alleged to have committed an offense described in subdivision (b) of Section 707 whose case is transferred to a court of criminal jurisdiction pursuant to Section 707.1 after a finding is made that he or she is not a fit and proper subject to be dealt with under the juvenile court law, or any minor who has been charged directly in or transferred to a court of criminal jurisdiction pursuant to Section 707.01, may be detained in a jail or other secure facility for the confinement of adults, if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The juvenile court or the court of criminal jurisdiction makes a finding that the minor's further detention in the juvenile hall would endanger the safety of the public or would be detrimental to the other minors in the juvenile hall.

(2) Contact between the minor and adults in the facility is restricted in accordance with Section 208.

(3) The minor is adequately supervised.

(c) A minor who is either found not to be a fit and proper subject to be dealt with under the juvenile court law or who will be transferred to a court of criminal jurisdiction pursuant to Section 707.01, at the time of transfer to a court of criminal jurisdiction or at the conclusion of the fitness hearing, as the case may be, shall be entitled to be released on bail or on his or her own recognizance upon the same circumstances, terms, and conditions as an adult who is alleged to have committed the same offense.

(d) A minor 14 years of age or older who is taken into temporary custody by a peace officer on the basis of being a person described by Section 602, and who, in the reasonable belief of the peace officer, presents a serious security risk of harm to self or others, may be securely detained in a law enforcement facility that contains a lockup for adults, if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The minor is held in temporary custody for the purpose of investigating the case, facilitating release of the minor to a parent or guardian, or arranging transfer of the minor to an appropriate juvenile facility.

(2) The minor is detained in the law enforcement facility for a period that does not exceed six hours except as provided in subdivision (g).

(3) The minor is informed at the time he or she is securely detained of the purpose of the secure detention, of the length of time the secure detention is expected to last, and of the maximum six-hour period the secure detention is authorized to last. In the event an extension is granted pursuant to subdivision (g), the minor shall be informed of the length of time the extension is expected to last.

(4) Contact between the minor and adults confined in the facility is restricted in accordance with Section 208.

(5) The minor is adequately supervised.

(6) A log or other written record is maintained by the law enforcement agency showing the offense which is the basis for the secure detention of the minor in the facility, the reasons and circumstances forming the basis for the decision to place the minor in secure detention, and the length of time the minor was securely detained.

Any other minor who is taken into temporary custody by a peace officer on the basis that the minor is a person described by Section 602, may be taken to a law enforcement facility that contains a lockup for adults and may be held in temporary custody in the facility for the purposes of investigating the case, facilitating the release of the minor to a parent or guardian, or arranging for the transfer of the minor to an appropriate juvenile facility. However, while in the law enforcement facility, the minor may not be securely detained and shall be supervised in a manner so as to ensure that there will be no contact with adults in custody in the facility. If the minor is held in temporary, nonsecure custody within the facility, the peace officer shall exercise one of the dispositional options authorized by Sections 626 and 626.5 without unnecessary delay and, in every case, within six hours.

"Law enforcement facility," as used in this subdivision, includes a police station or a sheriff's station, but does not include a jail, as defined in subdivision (i).

(e) The Department of the Youth Authority shall assist law enforcement agencies, probation departments, and courts with the implementation of this section by doing all of the following:

(1) The Department of the Youth Authority shall advise each law enforcement agency, probation department, and court affected by this section as to its existence and effect.

(2) The Department of the Youth Authority shall make available and, upon request, shall provide technical assistance to each governmental agency that reported the confinement of a minor in a jail or lockup in calendar year 1984 or 1985. The purpose of this technical assistance is to develop alternatives to the use of jails or lockups for the confinement of minors. These alternatives may include secure or nonsecure facilities located apart from an existing jail or lockup; improved transportation or access to juvenile halls or other juvenile facilities; and other programmatic alternatives recommended by the Department of the Youth Authority. The technical assistance shall take any form the Department of the Youth Authority deems appropriate for effective compliance with this section.

(f) The Department of the Youth Authority may exempt a county that does not have a juvenile hall, or may exempt an offshore law enforcement facility, from compliance with this section for a reasonable period of time, until December 1, 1992, for the purpose of allowing the county or the facility to develop alternatives to the use of jails and lockups for the confinement of minors, if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The county or the facility submits a written request to the Department of the Youth Authority for an extension of time to comply with this section.

(2) The Department of the Youth Authority agrees to make available, and the county or the facility agrees to accept, technical assistance to develop alternatives to the use of jails and lockups for the confinement of minors during the period of the extension.

(3) The county or the facility requesting the extension submits to the Department of the Youth Authority a written plan for full compliance with this section by September 1, 1987.

(g) (1) Under the limited conditions of inclement weather, acts of God, or natural disasters that result in the temporary unavailability of transportation, an extension of the six-hour maximum period of detention set forth in paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) may be granted to a county by the Department of the Youth Authority. The extensions may only be granted by the Department of the Youth Authority on an individual, case-by-case basis. If the extension is granted, the detention of minors under those conditions shall not exceed the duration of the special conditions, plus a period reasonably necessary to accomplish transportation of the minor to a suitable juvenile facility, not to exceed six hours after the restoration of available transportation.

A county that receives an extension under this paragraph shall comply with the requirements set forth in subdivision (d). The county also shall provide a written report to the Department of the Youth Authority that specifies when the inclement weather, act of God, or natural disaster ceased to exist, when transportation availability was restored, and when the minor was delivered to a suitable juvenile facility. In the event that the minor was detained in excess of 24 hours, the Department of the Youth Authority shall verify the information contained in the report.

(2) Under the limited condition of temporary unavailability of transportation, an extension of the six-hour maximum period of detention set forth in paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) may be granted by the Department of the Youth Authority to an offshore law enforcement facility. The extension may be granted only by the Department of the Youth Authority on an individual, case-by-case basis. If the extension is granted, the detention of minors under those conditions shall extend only until the next available mode of transportation can be arranged.

An offshore law enforcement facility that receives an extension under this paragraph shall comply with the requirements set forth in subdivision (d). The facility also shall provide a written report to the Department of the Youth Authority that specifies when the next mode of transportation became available, and when the minor was delivered to a suitable juvenile facility. In the event that the minor was detained in excess of 24 hours, the Department of the Youth Authority shall verify the information contained in the report.

(3) At least annually, the Department of the Youth Authority shall review and report on extensions sought and granted under this subdivision. If, upon that review, the Department of the Youth Authority determines that a county has sought one or more extensions resulting in the excessive confinement of minors in adult facilities, or that a county is engaged in a pattern and practice of seeking extensions, it shall require the county to submit a detailed explanation of the reasons for the extensions sought and an assessment of the need for a conveniently located and suitable juvenile facility. Upon receiving this information, the Department of the Youth Authority shall make available, and the county shall accept, technical assistance for the purpose of developing suitable alternatives to the confinement of minors in adult lockups. Based upon the information provided by the county, the Department of the Youth Authority also may place limits on, or refuse to grant, future extensions requested by the county under this subdivision.

(h) Any county that did not have a juvenile hall on January 1, 1987, may establish a special purpose juvenile hall, as defined by the Department of the Youth Authority, for the detention of minors for a period not to exceed 96 hours. Any county that had a juvenile hall on January 1, 1987, also may establish, in addition to the juvenile hall, a special purpose juvenile hall. The Department of the Youth Authority shall prescribe minimum standards for any such facility.

(i) (1) "Jail," as used in this chapter, means any building that contains a locked facility administered by a law enforcement or governmental agency, the purpose of which is to detain adults who have been charged with violations of criminal law and are pending trial, or to hold convicted adult criminal offenders sentenced for less than one year.

(2) "Lockup," as used in this chapter, means any locked room or secure enclosure under the control of a sheriff or other peace officer which is primarily for the temporary confinement of adults upon arrest.

(3) "Offshore law enforcement facility," as used in this section, means a sheriff's station containing a lockup for adults that is located on an island located at least 22 miles from the California coastline.

(j) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to prevent a peace officer or employee of an adult detention facility or jail from escorting a minor into the detention facility or jail for the purpose of administering an evaluation, test, or chemical test pursuant to Section 23157 of the Vehicle Code, if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The minor is taken into custody by a peace officer on the basis of being a person described by Section 602 and there is no equipment for the administration of the evaluation, test, or chemical test located at a juvenile facility within a reasonable distance of the point where the minor was taken into custody.

(2) The minor is not locked in a cell or room within the adult detention facility or jail, is under the continuous, personal supervision of a peace officer or employee of the detention facility or jail, and is not permitted to come in contact or remain in contact with in-custody adults.

(3) The evaluation, test, or chemical test administered pursuant to Section 23157 of the Vehicle Code is performed as expeditiously as possible, so that the minor is not delayed unnecessarily within the adult detention facility or jail. Upon completion of the evaluation, test, or chemical test, the minor shall be removed from the detention facility or jail as soon as reasonably possible. No minor shall be held in custody in an adult detention facility or jail under the authority of this paragraph in excess of two hours.

(k) This section shall remain operative until July 1, 1995, on which date it shall be repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 207.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as added by Section 25 of Chapter 695 of the Statutes of 1992, is amended to read:

207.1. (a) No court, judge, referee, peace officer, or employee of a detention facility shall knowingly detain any minor in a jail or lockup, except as provided in subdivision (b) or (d).

(b) Any minor who is alleged to have committed an offense described in subdivision (b) of Section 707 whose case is transferred to a court of criminal jurisdiction pursuant to Section 707.1 after a finding is made that he or she is not a fit and proper subject to be dealt with under the juvenile court law, or any minor who has been charged directly in or transferred to a court of criminal jurisdiction pursuant to Section 707.01, may be detained in a jail or other secure facility for the confinement of adults, if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The juvenile court or the court of criminal jurisdiction makes a finding that the minor's further detention in the juvenile hall would endanger the safety of the public or would be detrimental to the other minors in the juvenile hall.

(2) Contact between the minor and adults in the facility is restricted in accordance with Section 208.

(3) The minor is adequately supervised.

(4) The adult facility has been approved by the Department of the Youth Authority as an appropriate place for the detention of minors so transferred.

(c) A minor who is either found not to be a fit and proper subject to be dealt with under the juvenile court law or who will be transferred to a court of criminal jurisdiction pursuant to Section 707.01, at the time of transfer to a court of criminal jurisdiction or at the conclusion of the fitness hearing, as the case may be, shall be entitled to be released on bail or on his or her own recognizance upon the same circumstances, terms, and conditions as an adult who is alleged to have committed the same offense.

(d) A minor 14 years of age or older who is taken into temporary custody by a peace officer on the basis of being a person described by Section 602, and who, in the reasonable belief of the peace officer, presents a serious security risk of harm to self or others, may be securely detained in a law enforcement facility that contains a lockup for adults, if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The minor is held in temporary custody for the purpose of investigating the case, facilitating release of the minor to a parent or guardian, or arranging transfer of the minor to an appropriate juvenile facility.

(2) The minor is detained in the law enforcement facility for a period that does not exceed six hours except as provided in subdivision (g).

(3) The minor is informed at the time he or she is securely detained of the purpose of the secure detention, of the length of time the secure detention is expected to last, and of the maximum six-hour period the secure detention is authorized to last. In the event an extension is granted pursuant to subdivision (g), the minor shall be informed of the length of time the extension is expected to last.

(4) Contact between the minor and adults confined in the facility is restricted in accordance with Section 208.

(5) The minor is adequately supervised.

(6) A log or other written record is maintained by the law enforcement agency showing the offense which is the basis for the secure detention of the minor in the facility, the reasons and circumstances forming the basis for the decision to place the minor in secure detention, and the length of time the minor was securely detained.

Any other minor who is taken into temporary custody by a peace officer on the basis that the minor is a person described by Section 602, may be taken to a law enforcement facility that contains a lockup for adults and may be held in temporary custody in the facility for the purposes of investigating the case, facilitating the release of the minor to a parent or guardian, or arranging for the transfer of the minor to an appropriate juvenile facility. However, while in the law enforcement facility, the minor may not be securely detained and shall be supervised in a manner so as to ensure that there will be no contact with adults in custody in the facility. If the minor is held in temporary, nonsecure custody within the facility, the peace officer shall exercise one of the dispositional options authorized by Sections 626 and 626.5 without unnecessary delay and, in every case, within six hours.

"Law enforcement facility," as used in this subdivision, includes a police station or a sheriff's station, but does not include a jail, as defined in subdivision (i).

(e) The Department of the Youth Authority shall assist law enforcement agencies, probation departments, and courts with the implementation of this section by doing all of the following:

(1) The Department of the Youth Authority shall advise each law enforcement agency, probation department, and court affected by this section as to its existence and effect.

(2) The Department of the Youth Authority shall make available and, upon request, shall provide technical assistance to each governmental agency that reported the confinement of a minor in a jail or lockup in calendar year 1984 or 1985. The purpose of this technical assistance is to develop alternatives to the use of jails or lockups for the confinement of minors. These alternatives may include secure or nonsecure facilities located apart from an existing jail or lockup; improved transportation or access to juvenile halls or other juvenile facilities; and other programmatic alternatives recommended by the Department of the Youth Authority. The technical assistance shall take any form the Department of the Youth Authority deems appropriate for effective compliance with this section.

(f) The Department of the Youth Authority may exempt a county that does not have a juvenile hall, or may exempt an offshore law enforcement facility, from compliance with this section for a reasonable period of time, until December 1, 1992, for the purpose of allowing the county or the facility to develop alternatives to the use of jails and lockups for the confinement of minors, if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The county or the facility submits a written request to the Department of the Youth Authority for an extension of time to comply with this section.

(2) The Department of the Youth Authority agrees to make available, and the county or the facility agrees to accept, technical assistance to develop alternatives to the use of jails and lockups for the confinement of minors during the period of the extension.

(3) The county or the facility requesting the extension submits to the Department of the Youth Authority a written plan for full compliance with this section by September 1, 1987.

(g) (1) Under the limited conditions of inclement weather, acts of God, or natural disasters that result in the temporary unavailability of transportation, an extension of the six-hour maximum period of detention set forth in paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) may be granted to a county by the Department of the Youth Authority. The extensions may only be granted by the Department of the Youth Authority on an individual, case-by-case basis. If the extension is granted, the detention of minors under those conditions shall not exceed the duration of the special conditions, plus a period reasonably necessary to accomplish transportation of the minor to a suitable juvenile facility, not to exceed six hours after the restoration of available transportation.

A county that receives an extension under this paragraph shall comply with the requirements set forth in subdivision (d). The county also shall provide a written report to the Department of the Youth Authority that specifies when the inclement weather, act of God, or natural disaster ceased to exist, when transportation availability was restored, and when the minor was delivered to a suitable juvenile facility. In the event that the minor was detained in excess of 24 hours, the Department of the Youth Authority shall verify the information contained in the report.

(2) Under the limited condition of temporary unavailability of transportation, an extension of the six-hour maximum period of detention set forth in paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) may be granted by the Department of the Youth Authority to an offshore law enforcement facility. The extension may be granted only by the Department of the Youth Authority on an individual, case-by-case basis. If the extension is granted, the detention of minors under those conditions shall extend only until the next available mode of transportation can be arranged.

An offshore law enforcement facility that receives an extension under this paragraph shall comply with the requirements set forth in subdivision (d). The facility also shall provide a written report to the Department of the Youth Authority that specifies when the next mode of transportation became available, and when the minor was delivered to a suitable juvenile facility. In the event that the minor was detained in excess of 24 hours, the Department of the Youth Authority shall verify the information contained in the report.

(3) At least annually, the Department of the Youth Authority shall review and report on extensions sought and granted under this subdivision. If, upon that review, the Department of the Youth Authority determines that a county has sought one or more extensions resulting in the excessive confinement of minors in adult facilities, or that a county is engaged in a pattern and practice of seeking extensions, it shall require the county to submit a detailed explanation of the reasons for the extensions sought and an assessment of the need for a conveniently located and suitable juvenile facility. Upon receiving this information, the Department of the Youth Authority shall make available, and the county shall accept, technical assistance for the purpose of developing suitable alternatives to the confinement of minors in adult lockups. Based upon the information provided by the county, the Department of the Youth Authority also may place limits on, or refuse to grant, future extensions requested by the county under this subdivision.

(h) Any county that did not have a juvenile hall on January 1, 1987, may establish a special purpose juvenile hall, as defined by the Department of the Youth Authority, for the detention of minors for a period not to exceed 96 hours. Any county that had a juvenile hall on January 1, 1987, also may establish, in addition to the juvenile hall, a special purpose juvenile hall. The Department of the Youth Authority shall prescribe minimum standards for any such facility.

(i) (1) "Jail," as used in this chapter, means any building that contains a locked facility administered by a law enforcement or governmental agency, the purpose of which is to detain adults who have been charged with violations of criminal law and are pending trial, or to hold convicted adult criminal offenders sentenced for less than one year.

(2) "Lockup," as used in this chapter, means any locked room or secure enclosure under the control of a sheriff or other peace officer which is primarily for the temporary confinement of adults upon arrest.

(3) "Offshore law enforcement facility," as used in this section, means a sheriff's station containing a lockup for adults that is located on an island located at least 22 miles from the California coastline.

(j) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to prevent a peace officer or employee of an adult detention facility or jail from escorting a minor into the detention facility or jail for the purpose of administering an evaluation, test, or chemical test pursuant to Section 23157 of the Vehicle Code, if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The minor is taken into custody by a peace officer on the basis of being a person described by Section 602 and there is no equipment for the administration of the evaluation, test, or chemical test located at a juvenile facility within a reasonable distance of the point where the minor was taken into custody.

(2) The minor is not locked in a cell or room within the adult detention facility or jail, is under the continuous, personal supervision of a peace officer or employee of the detention facility or jail, and is not permitted to come in contact or remain in contact with in-custody adults.

(3) The evaluation, test, or chemical test administered pursuant to Section 23157 of the Vehicle Code is performed as expeditiously as possible, so that the minor is not delayed unnecessarily within the adult detention facility or jail. Upon completion of the evaluation, test, or chemical test, the minor shall be removed from the detention facility or jail as soon as reasonably possible. No minor shall be held in custody in an adult detention facility or jail under the authority of this paragraph in excess of two hours.

(k) This section shall become operative on July 1, 1995.

SEC. 3. Section 707 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

707. (a) In any case in which a minor is alleged to be a person described in Section 602 by reason of the violation, when he or she was 16 years of age or older, of any criminal statute or ordinance except those listed in subdivision (b), upon motion of the petitioner made prior to the attachment of jeopardy the court shall cause the probation officer to investigate and submit a report on the behavioral patterns and social history of the minor being considered for a determination of unfitness. Following submission and consideration of the report, and of any other relevant evidence which the petitioner or the minor may wish to submit, the juvenile court may find that the minor is not a fit and proper subject to be dealt with under the juvenile court law if it concludes that the minor would not be amenable to the care, treatment, and training program available through the facilities of the juvenile court, based upon an evaluation of the following criteria:

(1) The degree of criminal sophistication exhibited by the minor.

(2) Whether the minor can be rehabilitated prior to the expiration of the juvenile court's jurisdiction.

(3) The minor's previous delinquent history.

(4) Success of previous attempts by the juvenile court to rehabilitate the minor.

(5) The circumstances and gravity of the offense alleged to have been committed by the minor.

A determination that the minor is not a fit and proper subject to be dealt with under the juvenile court law may be based on any one or a combination of the factors set forth above, which shall be recited in the order of unfitness. In any case in which a hearing has been noticed pursuant to this section, the court shall postpone the taking of a plea to the petition until the conclusion of the fitness hearing, and no plea which may already have been entered shall constitute evidence at the hearing.

(b) Subdivision (c) shall be applicable in any case in which a minor is alleged to be a person described in Section 602 by reason of the violation, when he or she was 16 years of age or older, of one of the following offenses:

(1) Murder.

(2) Arson of an inhabited building.

(3) Robbery while armed with a dangerous or deadly weapon.

(4) Rape with force or violence or threat of great bodily harm.

(5) Sodomy by force, violence, duress, menace, or threat of great bodily harm.

(6) Lewd or lascivious act as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 288 of the Penal Code.

(7) Oral copulation by force, violence, duress, menace, or threat of great bodily harm.

(8) Any offense specified in subdivision (a) of Section 289 of the Penal Code.

(9) Kidnapping for ransom.

(10) Kidnapping for purpose of robbery.
(11) Kidnapping with bodily harm.
(12) Attempted murder.
(13) Assault with a firearm or destructive device.
(14) Assault by any means of force likely to produce great bodily injury.
(15) Discharge of a firearm into an inhabited or occupied building.
(16) Any offense described in Section 1203.09 of the Penal Code.
(17) Any offense described in Section 12022.5 of the Penal Code.
(18) Any felony offense in which the minor personally used a weapon listed in subdivision (a) of Section 12020 of the Penal Code.
(19) Any felony offense described in Section 136.1 or 137 of the Penal Code.
(20) Manufacturing, compounding, or selling one-half ounce or more of any salt or solution of a controlled substance specified in subdivision (e) of Section 11055 of the Health and Safety Code.
(21) Any violent felony, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5 of the Penal Code, which would also constitute a felony violation of subdivision (b) of Section 186.22 of the Penal Code.
(22) Escape, by the use of force or violence, from any county juvenile hall, home, ranch, camp, or forestry camp in violation of subdivision (b) of Section 871 where great bodily injury is intentionally inflicted upon an employee of the juvenile facility during the commission of the escape.
(23) Torture as described in Sections 206 and 206.1 of the Penal Code.
(24) Aggravated mayhem as described in Section 205 of the Penal Code.
(25) Carjacking, as described in Section 215 of the Penal Code, while armed with a dangerous or deadly weapon.

(c) With regard to a minor alleged to be a person described in Section 602 by reason of the violation, when he or she was 16 years of age or older, of any of the offenses listed in subdivision (b), upon motion of the petitioner made prior to the attachment of jeopardy the court shall cause the probation officer to investigate and submit a report on the behavioral patterns and social history of the minor being considered for a determination of unfitness. Following submission and consideration of the report, and of any other relevant evidence which the petitioner or the minor may wish to submit the minor shall be presumed to be not a fit and proper subject to be dealt with under the juvenile court law unless the juvenile court concludes, based upon evidence, which evidence may be of extenuating or mitigating circumstances, that the minor would be amenable to the care, treatment, and training program available through the facilities of the juvenile court based upon an evaluation of each of the following criteria:
(1) The degree of criminal sophistication exhibited by the minor.
(2) Whether the minor can be rehabilitated prior to the expiration of the juvenile court's jurisdiction.

(3) The minor's previous delinquent history.

(4) Success of previous attempts by the juvenile court to rehabilitate the minor.

(5) The circumstances and gravity of the offenses alleged to have been committed by the minor.

A determination that the minor is a fit and proper subject to be dealt with under the juvenile court law shall be based on a finding of amenability after consideration of the criteria set forth above, and findings therefor recited in the order as to each of the above criteria that the minor is fit and proper under each and every one of the above criteria. In making a finding of fitness, the court may consider extenuating or mitigating circumstances in evaluating each of the above criteria. In any case in which a hearing has been noticed pursuant to this section, the court shall postpone the taking of a plea to the petition until the conclusion of the fitness hearing and no plea which may already have been entered shall constitute evidence at the hearing.

SEC. 3.5. Section 707.01 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

707.01. (a) If a minor is found an unfit subject to be dealt with under the juvenile court law pursuant to Section 707, then the following shall apply:

(1) The jurisdiction of the juvenile court with respect to any previous adjudication resulting in the minor being made a ward of the juvenile court that did not result in the minor's commitment to the Youth Authority shall not terminate, unless a hearing is held pursuant to Section 785 and the jurisdiction of the juvenile court over the minor is terminated.

(2) The jurisdiction of the juvenile court and the Youth Authority with respect to any previous adjudication resulting in the minor being made a ward of the juvenile court that resulted in the minor's commitment to the Youth Authority shall not terminate.

(3) All petitions pending against the minor shall be transferred to the court of criminal jurisdiction where one of the following applies:

(A) Jeopardy has not attached and the minor was 16 years of age or older at the time he or she is alleged to have violated the criminal statute or ordinance.

(B) Jeopardy has not attached and the minor is alleged to have violated a criminal statute for which he or she may be presumed or may be found to be not a fit and proper subject to be dealt with under the juvenile court law.

(4) All petitions pending against the minor shall be disposed of in the juvenile court pursuant to the juvenile court law, where one of the following applies:

(A) Jeopardy has attached.

(B) The minor was under 16 years of age at the time he or she is alleged to have violated a criminal statute for which he or she may not be presumed or may not be found to be not a fit and proper subject to be dealt with under the juvenile court law.

(5) If, subsequent to a finding that a minor is an unfit subject to be dealt with under the juvenile court law, the minor is convicted of the violations which were the subject of the proceeding that resulted in a finding of unfitness, a new petition or petitions alleging the violation of any law or ordinance defining crime which would otherwise cause the minor to be a person described in Section 602 committed by the minor prior to or after the finding of unfitness need not be filed in the juvenile court if one of the following applies:

(A) The minor was 16 years of age or older at the time he or she is alleged to have violated a criminal statute or ordinance.

(B) The minor is alleged to have violated a criminal statute for which he or she may be presumed or may be found to be not a fit and proper subject to be dealt with under the juvenile court law.

(6) Subsequent to a finding that a minor is an unfit subject to be dealt with under the juvenile court law, which finding was based solely on either or both the minor's previous delinquent history or a lack of success of previous attempts by the juvenile court to rehabilitate the minor, and the minor was not convicted of the offense, a new petition or petitions alleging the violation of any law or ordinance defining crime which would otherwise cause the minor to be a person described in Section 602 committed by the minor prior to or after the finding of unfitness need not be filed in the juvenile court if one of the following applies:

(A) The minor was 16 years of age or older at the time he or she is alleged to have violated a criminal statute or ordinance.

(B) The minor is alleged to have violated a criminal statute for which he or she may be presumed or may be found to be not a fit and proper subject to be dealt with under the juvenile court law.

(7) If, subsequent to a finding that a minor is an unfit subject to be dealt with under the juvenile court law, the minor is not convicted of the violations which were the subject of the proceeding that resulted in a finding of unfitness and the finding of unfitness was not based solely on either or both the minor's previous delinquent history or a lack of success of previous attempts by the juvenile court to rehabilitate the minor, a new petition or petitions alleging the violation of any law or ordinance defining a crime which would otherwise cause the minor to be a person described in Section 602 committed by the minor prior to or after the finding of unfitness shall be first filed in the juvenile court. This subparagraph does not preclude the prosecuting attorney from seeking to find the minor unfit pursuant to this section in the subsequent petition.

(b) As to a violation referred to in paragraph (5) or (6) of subdivision (a), if a petition based on those violations has already been filed in the juvenile court, it shall be transferred to the court of criminal jurisdiction without any further proceedings.

(c) The probation officer shall not be required to investigate or submit a report regarding the fitness of a minor for any charge specified in paragraph (5) or (6) of subdivision (a) which is refiled in the juvenile court.

(d) This section shall not be construed to affect the right to appellate review of a finding of unfitness or the duration of the jurisdiction of the juvenile court as specified in Section 607.

SEC. 4. Section 707.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

707.1. (a) If the minor is declared not a fit and proper subject to be dealt with under the juvenile court law, the district attorney, or other appropriate prosecuting officer may file an accusatory pleading against the minor in a court of criminal jurisdiction. The case shall proceed from that point according to the laws applicable to a criminal case. If a prosecution has been commenced in another court but has been suspended while juvenile court proceedings are being held, it shall be ordered that the proceedings upon that prosecution shall resume.

(b) (1) The juvenile court, as to a minor alleged to have committed an offense described in subdivision (b) of Section 707 and who has been declared not a fit and proper subject to be dealt with under the juvenile court law, or as to a minor for whom charges in a petition or petitions in the juvenile court will be transferred to a court of criminal jurisdiction pursuant to Section 707.01, or as to a minor whose case has been filed directly in or transferred to a court of criminal jurisdiction pursuant to Section 707.01, may order the minor to be delivered to the custody of the sheriff upon a finding that the presence of the minor in the juvenile hall would endanger the safety of the public or be detrimental to the other inmates detained in the juvenile hall. Other minors declared not fit and proper subjects to be dealt with under the juvenile court law, if detained, shall remain in the juvenile hall pending final disposition by the criminal court or until they attain the age of 18, whichever occurs first.

(2) Upon attainment of the age of 18 such a person who is detained in juvenile hall shall be delivered to the custody of the sheriff unless the court finds that it is in the best interests of the person and the public that he or she be retained in juvenile hall. If a hearing is requested by the person, the transfer shall not take place until after the court has made its findings.

(3) When a person under 18 years of age is detained pursuant to this section in a facility in which adults are confined the detention shall be in accordance with the conditions specified in subdivision (b) of Section 207.1.

(4) A minor found not a fit and proper subject to be dealt with under the juvenile court law shall, upon the conclusion of the fitness hearing, be entitled to release on bail or on his or her own recognizance on the same circumstances, terms, and conditions as an adult alleged to have committed the same offense.

SEC. 5. Section 707.2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

707.2. This section applies only to minors who are eligible for commitment to the Youth Authority. Prior to sentence, the court of criminal jurisdiction may remand a minor to the custody of the Youth Authority for a period not to exceed 90 days for the purpose of evaluation and report concerning the minor's amenability to training and treatment offered by the Youth Authority. No minor who was under the age of 18 years when he or she committed any criminal offense and who has been found not a fit and proper subject to be dealt with under the juvenile court law, or who was charged directly in or whose case was transferred to a court of criminal jurisdiction pursuant to Section 707.01, shall be sentenced to the state prison unless he or she has first been remanded to the custody of the Youth Authority for evaluation and report pursuant to this section.

The need to protect society, the nature and seriousness of the offense, the interests of justice, the suitability of the minor to the training and treatment offered by the Youth Authority, and the needs of the minor shall be the primary considerations in the court's determination of the appropriate disposition for the minor.

SEC. 6. Section 785 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

785. (a) Where a minor is a ward of the juvenile court, the wardship did not result in the minor's commitment to the Youth Authority, and the minor is found not to be a fit and proper subject to be dealt with under the juvenile court law with respect to a subsequent allegation of criminal conduct, any parent or other person having an interest in the minor, or the minor, through a properly appointed guardian, the prosecuting attorney, or probation officer, may petition the court in the same action in which the minor was found to be a ward of the juvenile court for a hearing for an order to terminate or modify the jurisdiction of the juvenile court. The court shall order that a hearing be held and shall give prior notice, or cause prior notice to be given, to those persons and by the means prescribed by Sections 776 and 779, or where the means of giving notice is not prescribed by those sections, then by such means as the court prescribes.

(b) The petition shall be verified and shall state why jurisdiction should be terminated or modified in concise language.

(c) In determining whether or not the wardship shall terminate or be modified, the court shall be guided by the policies set forth in Section 202.

(d) In addition to its authority under this chapter, the Judicial Council shall adopt rules providing criteria for the consideration of the juvenile court in determining whether or not to terminate or modify jurisdiction pursuant to this section.

SEC. 7. Section 800 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

800. (a) A judgment in a proceeding under Section 601 or 602 may be appealed from, by the minor, in the same manner as any final judgment, and any subsequent order may be appealed from, by the minor, as from an order after judgment. Pending appeal of the order or judgment, the granting or refusal to order release shall rest in the discretion of the juvenile court. The appeal shall have precedence over all other cases in the court to which the appeal is taken.

A ruling on a motion to suppress pursuant to Section 700.1 shall be reviewed on appeal even if the judgment is predicated upon an admission of the allegations of the petition.

A judgment or subsequent order entered by a referee shall become appealable whenever proceedings pursuant to Section 252, 253, or 254 have become completed or, if proceedings pursuant to Section 252, 253, or 254 are not initiated, when the time for initiating the proceedings has expired.

(b) An appeal may be taken by the people from any of the following:

(1) A ruling on a motion to suppress pursuant to Section 700.1 even if the judgment is a dismissal of the petition or any count or counts of the petition. However, no appeal by the people shall lie as to any count which, if the people are successful, will be the basis for further proceedings subjecting any person to double jeopardy.

(2) An order made after judgment entered pursuant to Section 777 or 785.

(3) An order modifying the jurisdictional finding by reducing the degree of the offense or modifying the offense to a lesser offense.

(4) An order or judgment dismissing or otherwise terminating the action before the minor has been placed in jeopardy, or where the minor has waived jeopardy. If, pursuant to this paragraph, the people prosecute an appeal of the decision or any review of that decision, it shall be binding upon the people and they shall be prohibited from refiling the case which was appealed.

(5) The imposition of an unlawful order at a dispositional hearing, whether or not the court suspends the execution of the disposition.

(c) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to authorize an appeal from an order granting probation. Instead, the people may seek appellate review of any grant of probation, whether or not the court imposes disposition, by means of a petition for a writ of mandate or prohibition which is filed within 60 days after probation is granted. The review of any grant of probation shall include review of any order underlying the grant of probation.

(d) An appellant unable to afford counsel, shall be provided a free copy of the transcript in any appeal.

(e) The record shall be prepared and transmitted immediately after filing of the notice of appeal, without advance payment of fees. If the appellant is able to afford counsel, the county may seek reimbursement for the cost of the transcripts under subdivision (c) of Section 68511.3 of the Government Code as though the appellant had been granted permission to proceed in forma pauperis.

(f) All appeals shall be initiated by the filing of notice of appeal in conformity with the requirements of Section 1240.1 of the Penal Code.

SEC. 8. If both this bill and AB 3565 are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1995, and this bill is chaptered last, Section 5 of this bill shall not become operative, and Section 707.2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as amended by AB 3565, shall become operative.

SEC. 9. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 449

An act to amend Section 707.2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to juveniles.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 707.2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

707.2. Prior to sentence and after considering a recommendation on the issue which shall be made by the probation department, the court of criminal jurisdiction may remand the minor to the custody of the Department of the Youth Authority for a period not to exceed 90 days for the purpose of evaluation and report concerning his or her amenability to training and treatment offered by the Department of the Youth Authority. If the court decides not to remand the minor to the custody of the Department of the Youth Authority, the court shall make a finding on the record that the amenability evaluation is not necessary. However, a court of criminal jurisdiction shall not sentence any minor who was under the age of 16 years when he or she committed any criminal offense to the state prison unless he or she has first been remanded to the custody of the Department of the Youth Authority for evaluation and report pursuant to this section.

The need to protect society, the nature and seriousness of the offense, the interests of justice, and the needs of the minor shall be the primary considerations in the court's determination of the appropriate disposition for the minor.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 450

An act to amend Sections 653 and 653.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to juveniles.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 653 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

653. Whenever any person applies to the probation officer or the district attorney in accordance with subdivision (e) of Section 601.3, to commence proceedings in the juvenile court, the application shall be in the form of an affidavit alleging that there was or is within the county, or residing therein, a minor within the provisions of Section 601 and setting forth facts in support thereof. The probation officer or the district attorney, in consultation with the probation officer, shall immediately make any investigation he or she deems necessary to determine whether proceedings in the juvenile court should be commenced.

SEC. 2. Section 653.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as amended by Section 15 of Chapter 1125 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended to read:

653.5. (a) Whenever any person applies to the probation officer to commence proceedings in the juvenile court, the application shall be in the form of an affidavit alleging that there was or is within the county, or residing therein, a minor within the provisions of Section 602, or that a minor committed an offense described in Section 602 within the county, and setting forth facts in support thereof. The probation officer shall immediately make any investigation he or she deems necessary to determine whether proceedings in the juvenile court shall be commenced.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (c), if the probation officer determines that proceedings pursuant to Section 650 should be commenced to declare a person to be a ward of the juvenile court on the basis that he or she is a person described in Section 602, the probation officer shall cause the affidavit to be taken to the prosecuting attorney.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), the probation officer shall cause the affidavit to be taken within 48 hours to the prosecuting attorney in all of the following cases:

(1) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor has been referred to the probation officer for any violation of an offense listed in subdivision (b) of Section 707.

(2) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor is under 16 years of age at the date of the offense and that the offense constitutes a second felony referral to the probation officer.

(3) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor was 16 years of age or older at the date of the offense and that the offense constitutes a felony referral to the probation officer.

(4) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor has been referred to the probation officer for the sale or possession for sale of a controlled substance as defined in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11053) of Division 10 of the Health and Safety Code.

(5) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor has been referred to the probation officer for a violation of Section 11350 or 11377 of the Health and Safety Code where the violation takes place at a public or private elementary, vocational, junior high school, or high school, or a violation of Section 245.5, 626.9, or 626.10 of the Penal Code.

(6) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor was 14 years of age or older at the date of the offense and the offense for which the referral was made constitutes a violation of Section 487h of the Penal Code or Section 10851 of the Vehicle Code.

(7) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor has been referred to the probation officer for a violation of Section 186.22 of the Penal Code.

(8) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor has previously been placed in a program of informal probation pursuant to Section 654.

(9) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor has committed an offense in which the restitution owed to the victim exceeds one thousand dollars ($1,000). For purposes of this paragraph, the definition of "victim" in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 729.6 and "restitution" in subdivision (d) of Section 729.6 shall apply.

Except for offenses listed in paragraph (5), the provisions of subdivision (c) shall not apply to a narcotics and drug offense set forth in Section 1000 of the Penal Code.

The prosecuting attorney shall within his or her discretionary power institute proceedings in accordance with his or her role as public prosecutor pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 650 and Section 26500 of the Government Code. However, if it appears to the prosecuting attorney that the affidavit was not properly referred, that the offense for which the minor was referred should be charged as a misdemeanor, or that the minor may benefit from a program of informal supervision, he or she shall refer the matter to the probation officer for whatever action the probation officer may deem appropriate.

(d) In all matters where the minor is not in custody and is already a ward of the court or a probationer under Section 602, the prosecuting attorney, within five judicial days of receipt of the affidavit from the probation officer, shall institute proceedings in accordance with his or her role as public prosecutor pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 650 of this code and Section 26500 of the Government Code, unless it appears to the prosecuting attorney that the affidavit was not properly referred or that the offense for which the minor was referred requires additional substantiating information, in which case he or she shall immediately notify the probation officer of what further action he or she is taking.

(e) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1997, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 653.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as added by Section 16 of Chapter 1125 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended to read:

653.5. (a) Whenever any person applies to the probation officer to commence proceedings in the juvenile court, the application shall be in the form of an affidavit alleging that there was or is within the county, or residing therein, a minor within the provisions of Section 602, or that a minor committed an offense described in Section 602 within the county, and setting forth facts in support thereof. The probation officer shall immediately make any investigation he or she deems necessary to determine whether proceedings in the juvenile court shall be commenced.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (c), if the probation officer determines that proceedings pursuant to Section 650 should be commenced to declare a person to be a ward of the juvenile court on the basis that he or she is a person described in Section 602, the probation officer shall cause the affidavit to be taken to the prosecuting attorney.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (b), the probation officer shall cause the affidavit to be taken within 48 hours to the prosecuting attorney in all of the following cases:

(1) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor has been referred to the probation officer for any violation of an offense listed in subdivision (b) of Section 707.

(2) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor is under 16 years of age at the date of the offense and that the offense constitutes a second felony referral to the probation officer.

(3) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor was 16 years of age or older at the date of the offense and that the offense constitutes a felony referral to the probation officer.

(4) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor has been referred to the probation officer for the sale or possession for sale of a controlled substance as defined in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11053) of Division 10 of the Health and Safety Code.

(5) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor has been referred to the probation officer for a violation of Section 11350 or 11377 of the Health and Safety Code where the violation takes place at a public or private elementary, vocational, junior high school, or high school, or a violation of Section 245.5, 626.9, or 626.10 of the Penal Code.

(6) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor has been referred to the probation officer for a violation of Section 186.22 of the Penal Code.

(7) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor has previously been placed in a program of informal probation pursuant to Section 654.

(8) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor has committed an offense in which the restitution owed to the victim exceeds one thousand dollars ($1,000). For purposes of this paragraph, the definition of "victim" in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 729.6 and "restitution" in subdivision (d) of Section 729.6 shall apply.

Except for offenses listed in paragraph (5), the provisions of subdivision (c) shall not apply to a narcotics and drug offense set forth in Section 1000 of the Penal Code.

The prosecuting attorney shall within his or her discretionary power institute proceedings in accordance with his or her role as public prosecutor pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 650 and Section 26500 of the Government Code. However, if it appears to the prosecuting attorney that the affidavit was not properly referred, that the offense for which the minor was referred should be charged as a misdemeanor, or that the minor may benefit from a program of informal supervision, he or she shall refer the matter to the probation officer for whatever action the probation officer may deem appropriate.

(d) In all matters where the minor is not in custody and is already a ward of the court or a probationer under Section 602, the prosecuting attorney, within five judicial days of receipt of the affidavit from the probation officer, shall institute proceedings in accordance with his or her role as public prosecutor pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 650 of this code and Section 26500 of the Government Code, unless it appears to the prosecuting attorney that the affidavit was not properly referred or that the offense for which the minor was referred requires additional substantiating information, in which case he or she shall immediately notify the probation officer of what further action he or she is taking.

(e) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1997.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 451

An act to amend Sections 186.22, 1203, 1203.1, 12021, 12026.2, 12070, 12072, 12076, 12078, 12084, and 12101 of the Penal Code, and to amend Section 8101 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to firearms.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 186.22 of the Penal Code, as amended by Chapter 47 of the Statutes of 1994, is amended to read:

186.22. (a) Any person who actively participates in any criminal street gang with knowledge that its members engage in or have engaged in a pattern of criminal gang activity, and who willfully promotes, furthers, or assists in any felonious criminal conduct by members of that gang, shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail for a period not to exceed one year, or by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or 2 or 3 years.

(b) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), any person who is convicted of a felony committed for the benefit of, at the direction of, or in association with any criminal street gang, with the specific intent to promote, further, or assist in any criminal conduct by gang members, shall, upon conviction of that felony, in addition and consecutive to the punishment prescribed for the felony or attempted felony of which he or she has been convicted, be punished by an additional term of one, two, or three years at the court's discretion. However, if the underlying felony is committed on the grounds of, or within 1,000 feet of, a public or private elementary, vocational, junior high, or high school, during hours in which the facility is open for classes or school related programs or when minors are using the facility, the additional term shall be two, three, or four years, at the court's discretion. The court shall order the imposition of the middle term of the sentence enhancement, unless there are circumstances in aggravation or mitigation. The court shall state the reasons for its choice of sentence enhancements on the record at the time of the sentencing.

(2) Any person who violates this subdivision in the commission of a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for life, shall not be paroled until a minimum of 15 calendar years have been served.

(c) If the court grants probation or suspends the execution of sentence imposed upon the defendant for a violation of subdivision (a), or in cases involving a true finding of the enhancement enumerated in subdivision (b), the court shall require that the defendant serve a minimum of 180 days in a county jail as a condition thereof.

(d) Notwithstanding any other law, the court may strike the additional punishment for the enhancements provided in this section or refuse to impose the minimum jail sentence for misdemeanors in an unusual case where the interests of justice would best be served, if the court specifies on the record and enters into the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interests of justice would best be served by that disposition.

(e) As used in this chapter, "pattern of criminal gang activity" means the commission, attempted commission, or solicitation of two or more of the following offenses, provided at least one of those offenses occurred after the effective date of this chapter and the last of those offenses occurred within three years after a prior offense, and the offenses are committed on separate occasions, or by two or more persons:

(1) Assault with a deadly weapon or by means of force likely to produce great bodily injury, as defined in Section 245.

(2) Robbery, as defined in Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 211) of Title 8 of Part 1.

(3) Unlawful homicide or manslaughter, as defined in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 187) of Title 8 of Part 1.

(4) The sale, possession for sale, transportation, manufacture, offer for sale, or offer to manufacture controlled substances as defined in Sections 11054, 11055, 11056, 11057, and 11058 of the Health and Safety Code.

(5) Shooting at an inhabited dwelling or occupied motor vehicle, as defined in Section 246.

(6) Discharging or permitting the discharge of a firearm from a motor vehicle, as defined in subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 12034.

(7) Arson, as defined in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 450) of Title 13.

(8) The intimidation of witnesses and victims, as defined in Section 136.1.

(9) Grand theft, as defined in Section 487, when the value of the money, labor, or real or personal property taken exceeds ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

(10) Grand theft of any vehicle, trailer, or vessel, as described in Section 487h.

(11) Burglary, as defined in Section 459.

(12) Rape, as defined in Section 261.

(13) Looting, as defined in Section 463.

(14) Moneylaundering, as defined in Section 186.10.

(15) Kidnapping, as defined in Section 207.

(16) Mayhem, as defined in Section 203.

(17) Aggravated mayhem, as defined in Section 205.

(18) Torture, as defined in Section 206.

(19) Felony extortion, as defined in Sections 518 and 520.

(20) Felony vandalism, as defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 594.

(21) Carjacking, as defined in Section 215.

(22) The sale, delivery, or transfer of a firearm as described in Section 12072.

(23) Possession of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person in violation of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 12101.

(f) As used in this chapter, "criminal street gang" means any ongoing organization, association, or group of three or more persons, whether formal or informal, having as one of its primary activities the commission of one or more of the criminal acts enumerated in paragraphs (1) to (23), inclusive, of subdivision (e), having a common name or common identifying sign or symbol, and whose members individually or collectively engage in or have engaged in a pattern of criminal gang activity.

(g) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1997, and on that date is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 1203 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203. (a) As used in this code, "probation" means the suspension of the imposition or execution of a sentence and the order of conditional and revocable release in the community under the supervision of a probation officer. As used in this code, "conditional sentence" means the suspension of the imposition or execution of a sentence and the order of revocable release in the community subject to the conditions established by the court without the supervision of the probation officer. It is the intent of the Legislature that both conditional sentence and probation are authorized whenever probation is authorized in any code as a sentencing option for infractions or misdemeanors.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (j), if a person is convicted of a felony and is eligible for probation, before judgment is pronounced, the court shall immediately refer the matter to a probation officer to investigate and report to the court, at a specified time, upon the circumstances surrounding the crime and the prior history and record of the person, which may be considered either in aggravation or mitigation of the punishment. The probation officer shall immediately investigate and make a written report to the court of his or her findings and recommendations, including his or her recommendations as to the granting or denying of probation and the conditions of probation, if granted. Pursuant to Section 828 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, the probation officer shall include in his or her report any information gathered by a law enforcement agency relating to the taking of the defendant into custody as a minor, which shall be considered for purposes of determining whether adjudications of commissions of crimes as a juvenile warrant a finding that there are circumstances in aggravation pursuant to Section 1170 or to deny probation. The probation officer shall also include in the report his or her recommendation of the amount the defendant should be required to pay as a restitution fine pursuant to Section 13967 of the Government Code. The probation officer shall also include in his or her report a recommendation as to whether the court shall require, as a condition of probation, restitution to the victim or to the Restitution Fund. The report shall be made available to the court and the prosecuting and defense attorneys at least five days, or, upon request of the defendant or prosecuting attorney, nine days, prior to the time fixed by the court for the hearing and determination of the report, and shall be filed with the clerk of the court as a record in the case at the time of the hearing. The time within which the report shall be made available and filed may be waived by written stipulation of the prosecuting and defense attorneys which is filed with the court or an oral stipulation in open court which is made and entered upon the minutes of the court. At a time fixed by the court, the court shall hear and determine the application, if one has been made, or, in any case, the suitability of probation in the particular case. At the hearing, the court shall consider any report of the probation officer and shall make a statement that it has considered the report which shall be filed with the clerk of the court as a record in the case. If the court determines that there are circumstances in mitigation of the punishment prescribed by law or that the ends of justice would be served by granting probation to the person, it may place the person on probation. If probation is denied, the clerk of the court shall immediately send a copy of the report to the Department of Corrections at the prison or other institution to which the person is delivered.

(c) If a defendant is not represented by an attorney, the court shall order the probation officer who makes the probation report to discuss its contents with the defendant.

(d) If a person is convicted of a misdemeanor, the court may either refer the matter to the probation officer for an investigation and a report or summarily pronounce a conditional sentence. If the case is not referred to the probation officer, in sentencing the person, the court may consider any information concerning the person which could have been included in a probation report. The court shall inform the person of the information to be considered and permit him or her to answer or controvert the information. For this purpose, upon the request of the person, the court shall grant a continuance before the judgment is pronounced.

(e) Except in unusual cases where the interests of justice would best be served if the person is granted probation, probation shall not be granted to any of the following persons:

(1) Unless the person had a lawful right to carry a deadly weapon, other than a firearm, at the time of the perpetration of the crime or his or her arrest, any person who has been convicted of arson, robbery, carjacking, burglary, burglary with explosives, rape with force or violence, murder, attempt to commit murder, trainwrecking, kidnapping, escape from the state prison, or a conspiracy to commit one or more of those crimes and who was armed with the weapon at either of those times.

(2) Any person who used, or attempted to use, a deadly weapon upon a human being in connection with the perpetration of the crime of which he or she has been convicted.

(3) Any person who willfully inflicted great bodily injury or torture in the perpetration of the crime of which he or she has been convicted.

(4) Any person who has been previously convicted twice in this state of a felony or in any other place of a public offense which, if committed in this state, would have been punishable as a felony.

(5) Unless the person has never been previously convicted once in this state of a felony or in any other place of a public offense which, if committed in this state, would have been punishable as a felony, any person who has been convicted of burglary with explosives, rape with force or violence, murder, attempt to commit murder, trainwrecking, extortion, kidnapping, escape from the state prison, a violation of Section 286, 288, 288a, or 288.5, or a conspiracy to commit one or more of those crimes.

(6) Any person who has been previously convicted once in this state of a felony or in any other place of a public offense which, if committed in this state, would have been punishable as a felony, if he or she committed any of the following acts:

(A) Unless the person had a lawful right to carry a deadly weapon at the time of the perpetration of the previous crime or his or her arrest for the previous crime, he or she was armed with a weapon at either of those times.

(B) The person used, or attempted to use, a deadly weapon upon a human being in connection with the perpetration of the previous crime.

(C) The person willfully inflicted great bodily injury or torture in the perpetration of the previous crime.

(7) Any public official or peace officer of this state or any city, county, or other political subdivision who, in the discharge of the duties of his or her public office or employment, accepted or gave or offered to accept or give any bribe, embezzled public money, or was guilty of extortion.

(8) Any person who knowingly furnishes or gives away phencyclidine.

(9) Any person who intentionally inflicted great bodily injury in the commission of arson under subdivision (a) of Section 451 or who intentionally set fire to, burned, or caused the burning of, an inhabited structure or inhabited property in violation of subdivision (b) of Section 451.

(10) Any person who, in the commission of a felony, inflicts great bodily injury or causes the death of a human being by the discharge of a firearm from or at an occupied motor vehicle proceeding on a public street or highway.

(11) Any person who possesses a short-barreled rifle or a short-barreled shotgun under Section 12020, a machine gun under Section 12220, or a silencer under Section 12520.

(12) Any person who is convicted of violating Section 8101 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(13) Any person who is described in paragraph (2) or (3) of subdivision (g) of Section 12072.

(f) When probation is granted in a case which comes within subdivision (e), the court shall specify on the record and shall enter on the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interests of justice would best be served by that disposition.

(g) If a person is not eligible for probation, the judge shall refer the matter to the probation officer for an investigation of the facts relevant to determination of the amount of a restitution fine pursuant to Section 13967 of the Government Code in all cases where the determination is applicable. The judge, in his or her discretion, may direct the probation officer to investigate all facts relevant to the sentencing of the person. Upon that referral, the probation officer shall immediately investigate the circumstances surrounding the crime and the prior record and history of the person and make a written report to the court of his or her findings. The findings shall include a recommendation of the amount of the restitution fine as provided in Section 13967 of the Government Code.

(h) If a defendant is convicted of a felony and a probation report is prepared pursuant to subdivision (b) or (g), the probation officer may obtain and include in the report a statement of the comments of the victim concerning the offense. The court may direct the probation officer not to obtain a statement if the victim has in fact testified at any of the court proceedings concerning the offense.

(i) No probationer shall be released to enter another state unless his or her case has been referred to the Administrator, Interstate Probation and Parole Compacts, pursuant to the Uniform Act for Out-of-State Probationer or Parolee Supervision (Article 3 (commencing with Section 11175) of Chapter 2 of Title 1 of Part 4) and the probationer has reimbursed the county that has jurisdiction over his or her probation case the reasonable costs of processing his or her request for interstate compact supervision. The amount and method of reimbursement shall be in accordance with Section 1203.1b.

(j) In any court where a county financial evaluation officer is available, in addition to referring the matter to the probation officer, the court may order the defendant to appear before the county financial evaluation officer for a financial evaluation of the defendant's ability to pay restitution, in which case the county financial evaluation officer shall report his or her findings regarding restitution and other court-related costs to the probation officer on the question of the defendant's ability to pay those costs.

Any order made pursuant to this subdivision may be enforced as a violation of the terms and conditions of probation upon willful failure to pay and at the discretion of the court and as stated in the order, may be enforced in the same manner as a judgment in a civil action, if any balance remains unpaid at the end of the defendant's probationary period.

SEC. 3. Section 1203.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203.1. (a) The court, or judge thereof, in the order granting probation, may suspend the imposing, or the execution, of the sentence and may direct that the suspension may continue for a period of time not exceeding the maximum possible term of the sentence, except as hereinafter set forth, and upon those terms and conditions as it shall determine. The court, or judge thereof, in the order granting probation and as a condition thereof, may imprison the defendant in a county jail for a period not exceeding the maximum time fixed by law in the case.

However, where the maximum possible term of the sentence is five years or less, then the period of suspension of imposition or execution of sentence may, in the discretion of the court, continue for not over five years. The following shall apply to this subdivision:

(1) The court may fine the defendant in a sum not to exceed the maximum fine provided by law in the case.

(2) The court may, in connection with granting probation, impose either imprisonment in a county jail or a fine, both, or neither.

(3) The court shall provide for restitution in proper cases.

(4) The court may require bonds for the faithful observance and performance of any or all of the conditions of probation.

(b) The court shall consider whether the defendant as a condition of probation shall make restitution to the victim or the Restitution Fund. Any restitution payment received by a probation department in the form of cash or money order shall be forwarded to the victim within 30 days from the date the payment is received by the department. Any restitution payment received by a probation department in the form of a check or draft shall be forwarded to the victim within 45 days from the date the payment is received by the department, provided, that payment need not be forwarded to a victim until 180 days from the date the first payment is received, if the restitution payments for that victim received by the probation department total less than fifty dollars ($50). In cases where the court has ordered the defendant to pay restitution to multiple victims and where the administrative cost of disbursing restitution payments to multiple victims involves a significant cost, any restitution payment received by a probation department shall be forwarded to multiple victims when it is cost effective to do so, but in no event shall restitution disbursements be delayed beyond 180 days from the date the payment is received by the probation department.

(c) In counties or cities and counties where road camps, farms, or other public work is available the court may place the probationer in the road camp, farm, or other public work instead of in jail. In this case, Section 25359 of the Government Code shall apply to probation and the court shall have the same power to require adult probationers to work, as prisoners confined in the county jail are required to work, at public work. Each county board of supervisors may fix the scale of compensation of the adult probationers in that county.

(d) In all cases of probation the court may require as a condition of probation that the probationer go to work and earn money for the support of his or her dependents or to pay any fine imposed or reparation condition, to keep an account of his or her earnings, to report them to the probation officer and apply those earnings as directed by the court.

(e) The court shall also consider whether the defendant as a condition of probation shall make restitution to a public agency for the costs of an emergency response pursuant to Article 8 (commencing with Section 53150) of Chapter 1 of Part 1 of Division 2 of the Government Code.

(f) In all cases in which, as a condition of probation, a judge of the superior court sitting by authority of law elsewhere than at the county seat requires a convicted person to serve his or her sentence at intermittent periods the sentence may be served on the order of the judge at the city jail nearest to the place at which the court is sitting, and the cost of his or her maintenance shall be a county charge.

(g) (1) The court and prosecuting attorney shall consider whether any defendant who has been convicted of a nonviolent or nonserious offense and ordered to participate in community service as a condition of probation shall be required to engage in the removal of graffiti in the performance of the community service. For the purpose of this subdivision, a nonserious offense shall not include the following:

(A) Offenses in violation of the Dangerous Weapons' Control Law (Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 12000) of Title 2 of Part 4).

(B) Offenses involving the use of a dangerous or deadly weapon, including all violations of Section 417.

(C) Offenses involving the use or attempted use of violence against the person of another or involving injury to a victim.

(D) Offenses involving annoying or molesting children.

(2) Notwithstanding subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1), any person who violates Section 12101 shall be ordered to perform not less than 100 hours and not more than 500 hours of community service as a condition of probation.

(3) The court and the prosecuting attorney need not consider a defendant pursuant to paragraph (1) if the following circumstances exist:

(A) The defendant was convicted of any offense set forth in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5 or subdivision (c) of Section 1192.7.

(B) The judge believes that the public safety may be endangered if the person is ordered to do community service or the judge believes that the facts or circumstances or facts and circumstances call for imposition of a more substantial penalty.

(h) The probation officer or his or her designated representative shall consider whether any defendant who has been convicted of a nonviolent and nonserious offense and ordered to participate in community service as a condition of probation shall be required to engage in the performance of house repairs or yard services for senior citizens and the performance of repairs to senior centers through contact with local senior service organizations in the performance of the community service.

(i) Upon conviction of any offense involving child abuse or neglect, the court may require, in addition to any or all of the above-mentioned terms of imprisonment, fine, and other reasonable conditions, that the defendant shall participate in counseling or education programs, or both, including, but not limited to, parent education or parenting programs operated by community colleges, school districts, other public agencies, or private agencies.

(j) The court may impose and require any or all of the above-mentioned terms of imprisonment, fine, and conditions, and other reasonable conditions, as it may determine are fitting and proper to the end that justice may be done, that amends may be made to society for the breach of the law, for any injury done to any person resulting from that breach, and generally and specifically for the reformation and rehabilitation of the probationer, and that should the probationer violate any of the terms or conditions imposed by the court in the matter, it shall have authority to modify and change any and all the terms and conditions and to reimprison the probationer in the county jail within the limitations of the penalty of the public offense involved. Upon the defendant being released from the county jail under the terms of probation as originally granted or any modification subsequently made, and in all cases where confinement in a county jail has not been a condition of the grant of probation, the court shall place the defendant or probationer in and under the charge of the probation officer of the court, for the period or term fixed for probation. However, upon the payment of any fine imposed and the fulfillment of all conditions of probation, probation shall cease at the end of the term of probation, or sooner, in the event of modification. In counties and cities and counties in which there are facilities for taking fingerprints, those of each probationer shall be taken and a record of them kept and preserved.

(k) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law to the contrary, except as provided in Sections 13967 and 13967.5 of the Government Code and Sections 1202.4, 1203.04, 1463.16, paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 1463.18, and Section 1464, all fines collected by a county probation officer in any of the courts of this state, as a condition of the granting of probation or as a part of the terms of probation, shall be paid into the county treasury and placed in the general fund for the use and benefit of the county.

(l) If the court orders restitution to be made to the victim, the board of supervisors may add a fee to cover the actual administrative cost of collecting restitution but not to exceed 10 percent of the total amount ordered to be paid. The fees shall be paid into the general fund of the county treasury for the use and benefit of the county.

SEC. 4. Section 12021 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12021. (a) (1) Any person who has been convicted of a felony under the laws of the United States, the State of California, or any other state, government, or country, or of an offense enumerated in subdivision (a), (b), or (d) of Section 12001.6, or who is addicted to the use of any narcotic drug, who owns, or has in his or her possession or under his or her custody or control, any firearm is guilty of a felony.

(2) Any person who has two or more convictions for violating paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 417 and who owns or has in his or her possession or under his or her custody or control any firearm is guilty of a felony.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), any person who has been convicted of a felony or of an offense enumerated in Section 12001.6, when that conviction results from certification by the juvenile court for prosecution as an adult in an adult court under Section 707 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, who owns or has in his or her possession or under his or her custody or control any firearm is guilty of a felony.

(c) (1) Except as provided in subdivision (a) or paragraph (2) of this subdivision, any person who has been convicted of a misdemeanor violation of Section 136.5, 140, 171b, 171c, 171d, 240, 241, 242, 243, 244.5, 245, 245.5, 246.3, 247, 273.5, 273.6, 417, 417.2, 626.9, 646.9, or 12023, subdivision (b) or (d) of Section 12034, subdivision (a) of former Section 12100, Section 12320 or 12590, or Section 8101 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, or of the conduct punished in paragraph (3) of subdivision (g) of Section 12072, and who, within 10 years of the conviction, owns, or has in his or her possession or under his or her custody or control, any firearm is guilty of a public offense, which shall be punishable by imprisonment in the state prison or in a county jail not exceeding one year, by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine. The court, on forms prescribed by the Department of Justice, shall notify the department of persons subject to this subdivision. However, the prohibition in this paragraph may be reduced, eliminated, or conditioned as provided in paragraph (2) or (3).

(2) Any person employed as a peace officer described in Section 830.1, 830.2, 830.31, 830.32, 830.33, or 830.5 whose employment or livelihood is dependent on the ability to legally possess a firearm, who is subject to the prohibition imposed by this subdivision because of a conviction under Section 273.5, 273.6, or 646.9, may petition the court only once for relief from this prohibition. The petition shall be filed with the court in which the petitioner was sentenced. If possible, the matter shall be heard before the same judge that sentenced the petitioner. Upon filing the petition, the clerk of the court shall set the hearing date and shall notify the petitioner and the prosecuting attorney of the date of the hearing. Upon making each of the following findings, the court may reduce or eliminate the prohibition, impose conditions on reduction or elimination of the prohibition, or otherwise grant relief from the prohibition as the court deems appropriate:

(A) Finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the petitioner is likely to use a firearm in a safe and lawful manner.

(B) Finds that the petitioner is not within a prohibited class as specified in subdivision (a), (b), (d), (e), or (g) or Section 12021.1, and the court is not presented with any credible evidence that the petitioner is a person described in Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(C) Finds that the petitioner does not have a previous conviction under subdivision (c) no matter when the prior conviction occurred.

In making its decision, the court shall consider the petitioner's continued employment, the interest of justice, any relevant evidence, and the totality of the circumstances. The court shall require, as a condition of granting relief from the prohibition under this section, that the petitioner agree to participate in counseling as deemed appropriate by the court. Relief from the prohibition shall not relieve any other person or entity from any liability that might otherwise be imposed. It is the intent of the Legislature that courts exercise broad discretion in fashioning appropriate relief under this paragraph in cases in which relief is warranted. However, nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to require courts to grant relief to any particular petitioner. It is the intent of the Legislature to permit persons who were convicted of an offense specified in Section 273.5, 273.6, or 646.9 to seek relief from the prohibition imposed by this subdivision.

(3) Any person who is subject to the prohibition imposed by this subdivision because of a conviction prior to January 1, 1991, may petition the court only once for relief from this prohibition. The petition shall be filed with the court in which the petitioner was sentenced. If possible, the matter shall be heard before the same judge that sentenced the petitioner. Upon filing the petition, the clerk of the court shall set the hearing date and notify the petitioner and the prosecuting attorney of the date of the hearing. Upon making each of the following findings, the court may reduce or eliminate the prohibition, impose conditions on reduction or elimination of the prohibition, or otherwise grant relief from the prohibition as the court deems appropriate:

(A) Finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the petitioner is likely to use a firearm in a safe and lawful manner.

(B) Finds that the petitioner is not within a prohibited class as specified in subdivision (a), (b), (d), (e), or (g) or Section 12021.1, and the court is not presented with any credible evidence that the petitioner is a person described in Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(C) Finds that the petitioner does not have a previous conviction under this subdivision, no matter when the prior conviction occurred.

In making its decision, the court may consider the interest of justice, any relevant evidence, and the totality of the circumstances. It is the intent of the Legislature that courts exercise broad discretion in fashioning appropriate relief under this paragraph in cases in which relief is warranted. However, nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to require courts to grant relief to any particular petitioner.

(4) Law enforcement officials who enforce the prohibition specified in this subdivision against a person who has been granted relief pursuant to paragraph (2) or (3), shall be immune from any liability for false arrest arising from the enforcement of this subdivision unless the person has in his or her possession a certified copy of the court order that granted the person relief from the prohibition. This immunity from liability shall not relieve any person or entity from any other liability that might otherwise be imposed.

(d) Any person who, as an express condition of probation, is prohibited or restricted from owning, possessing, controlling, receiving, or purchasing a firearm and who owns, or has in his or her possession or under his or her custody or control, any firearm but who is not subject to subdivision (a) or (c) is guilty of a public offense, which shall be punishable by imprisonment in the state prison or in a county jail not exceeding one year, by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine. The court, on forms provided by the Department of Justice, shall notify the department of persons subject to this subdivision. The notice shall include a copy of the order of probation and a copy of any minute order or abstract reflecting the order and conditions of probation.

(e) Any person who (1) is alleged to have committed an offense listed in subdivision (b) of Section 707 of the Welfare and Institutions Code or an offense described in subdivision (b) of Section 1203.073, (2) is found to be a fit and proper subject to be dealt with under the juvenile court law, and (3) is subsequently adjudged a ward of the juvenile court within the meaning of Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because the person committed an offense listed in subdivision (b) of Section 707 of the Welfare and Institutions Code or an offense described in subdivision (b) of Section 1203.073 shall not own, or have in his or her possession or under his or her custody or control, any firearm until the age of 30 years. A violation of this subdivision shall be punishable by imprisonment in the state prison or in a county jail not exceeding one year, by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine. The juvenile court, on forms prescribed by the Department of Justice, shall notify the department of persons subject to this subdivision. Notwithstanding any other law, the forms required to be submitted to the department pursuant to this subdivision may be used to determine eligibility to acquire a firearm.

(f) Subdivision (a) shall not apply to a person who has been convicted of a felony under the laws of the United States unless either of the following criteria is satisfied:

(1) Conviction of a like offense under California law can only result in imposition of felony punishment.

(2) The defendant was sentenced to a federal correctional facility for more than 30 days, or received a fine of more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or received both punishments.

(g) Every person who purchases or receives, or attempts to purchase or receive, a firearm knowing that he or she is subject to a protective order as defined in Section 6218 of the Family Code, is guilty of a public offense, which shall be punishable by imprisonment in the state prison or in a county jail not exceeding one year, by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or both that imprisonment and fine. This subdivision does not apply unless the copy of the restraining order personally served on the person against whom the restraining order is issued contains a notice in bold print stating (1) that the person is prohibited from purchasing or receiving or attempting to purchase or receive a firearm and (2) specifying the penalties for violating this subdivision, or a court has provided actual verbal notice of the firearm prohibition and penalty as provided in Section 6304 of the Family Code. However, this subdivision does not apply if the firearm is received as part of the disposition of community property pursuant to Division 7 (commencing with Section 2500) of the Family Code.

SEC. 5. Section 12026.2 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12026.2. (a) Section 12025 does not apply to or affect any of the following:

(1) The possession of a firearm by an authorized participant in a motion picture, television, or video production or entertainment event when the participant lawfully uses the firearm as part of that production or event or while going directly to, or coming directly from, that production or event.

(2) The possession of a firearm in a locked container by a member of any club or organization, organized for the purpose of lawfully collecting and lawfully displaying pistols, revolvers, or other firearms, while the member is at meetings of the clubs or organizations or while going directly to, and coming directly from, those meetings.

(3) The transportation of a firearm by a participant when going directly to, or coming directly from, a recognized safety or hunter safety class, or a recognized sporting event involving that firearm.

(4) The transportation of a firearm by a person listed in Section 12026 directly between any of the places mentioned in Section 12026.

(5) The transportation of a firearm by a person when going directly to, or coming directly from, a fixed place of business or private residential property for the purpose of the lawful repair or the lawful transfer, sale, or loan of that firearm.

(6) The transportation of a firearm by a person listed in Section 12026 when going directly from the place where that person lawfully received that firearm to that person's place of residence or place of business or to private property owned or lawfully possessed by that person.

(7) The transportation of a firearm by a person when going directly to, or coming directly from, a gun show, swap meet, or similar event to which the public is invited, for the purpose of displaying that firearm in a lawful manner.

(8) The transportation of a firearm by an authorized employee or agent of a supplier of firearms when going directly to, or coming directly from, a motion picture, television, or video production or entertainment event for the purpose of providing that firearm to an authorized participant to lawfully use as a part of that production or event.

(9) The transportation of a firearm by a person when going directly to, or coming directly from, a target range, which holds a regulatory or business license, for the purposes of practicing shooting at targets with that firearm at that target range.

(10) The transportation of a firearm by a person when going directly to, or coming directly from, a place designated by a person authorized to issue licenses pursuant to Section 12050 when done at the request of the issuing agency so that the issuing agency can determine whether or not a license should be issued to that person to carry that firearm.

(11) The transportation of a firearm by a person when going directly to, or coming directly from, a law enforcement agency for the purpose of a lawful transfer, sale, or loan of that firearm pursuant to Section 12084.

(12) The transportation of a firearm by a person when going directly to, or coming directly from, a lawful camping activity for the purpose of having that firearm available for lawful personal protection while at the lawful campsite. This paragraph shall not be construed to override the statutory authority granted to the Department of Parks and Recreation or any other state or local governmental agencies to promulgate rules and regulations governing the administration of parks and campgrounds.

(13) The transportation of a firearm by a person in order to comply with subdivision (c) or (i) of Section 12078 as it pertains to that firearm.

(14) The transportation of a firearm by a person in order to utilize subdivision (l) of Section 12078 as it pertains to that firearm.

(15) The transportation of a firearm by a person when going directly to, or coming directly from, a gun show or event, as defined in Section 178.100 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations for the purpose of lawfully transferring, selling, or loaning that firearm in accordance with subdivision (d) of Section 12072.

(b) In order for a firearm to be exempted under subdivision (a), while being transported to or from a place, the firearm shall be unloaded, kept in a locked container, as defined in subdivision (d), and the course of travel shall include only those deviations between authorized locations as are reasonably necessary under the circumstances.

(c) This section does not prohibit or limit the otherwise lawful carrying or transportation of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person in accordance with this chapter.

(d) As used in this section, "locked container" means a secure container which is fully enclosed and locked by a padlock, key lock, combination lock, or similar locking device. The term "locked container" does not include the utility or glove compartment of a motor vehicle.

SEC. 6. Section 12070 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12070. (a) No person shall sell, lease, or transfer firearms unless he or she has been issued a license pursuant to Section 12071. Any person violating this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(b) Subdivision (a) does not include any of the following:

(1) The sale, lease, or transfer of any firearm by a person acting pursuant to operation of law, a court order, or pursuant to the Enforcement of Judgments Law (Title 9 (commencing with Section 680.010) of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure), or by a person who liquidates a personal firearm collection to satisfy a court judgment.

(2) A person acting pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 186.22a or subdivision (c) of Section 12028.

(3) The sale, lease, or transfer of a firearm by a person who obtains title to the firearm by intestate succession or by bequest or as a surviving spouse pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 13500) of Part 2 of Division 8 of the Probate Code, provided the person disposes of the firearm within 60 days of receipt of the firearm.

(4) The infrequent sale, lease, or transfer of firearms.

(5) The sale, lease, or transfer of used firearms other than pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, at gun shows or events, as specified in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 12071, by a person other than a licensee or dealer, provided the person has a valid federal firearms license and a certificate of eligibility issued by the Department of Justice, as specified in Section 12071, and provided all the sales, leases, or transfers fully comply with subdivision (d) of Section 12072. However, the person shall not engage in the sale, lease, or transfer of used firearms other than pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person at more than 12 gun shows or events in any calendar year and shall not sell, lease, or transfer more than 15 used firearms other than pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person at any single gun show or event. In no event shall the person sell more than 75 used firearms other than pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person in any calendar year.

A person described in this paragraph shall be known as a "Gun Show Trader."

The Department of Justice shall adopt regulations to administer this program and shall recover the full costs of administration from fees assessed applicants.

As used in this paragraph, the term "used firearm" means a firearm that has been sold previously at retail and is more than three years old.

(6) The activities of a law enforcement agency pursuant to Section 12084.

(7) Deliveries, sales, or transfers of firearms between or to importers and manufacturers of firearms licensed to engage in business pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(8) The sale, delivery, or transfer of firearms by manufacturers or importers licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto to dealers or wholesalers.

(9) Deliveries and transfers of firearms made pursuant to Section 12028, 12028.5, or 12030.

(10) The loan of a firearm for the purposes of shooting at targets, if the loan occurs on the premises of a target facility which holds a business or regulatory license or on the premises of any club or organization organized for the purposes of practicing shooting at targets upon established ranges, whether public or private, if the firearm is at all times kept within the premises of the target range or on the premises of the club or organization.

(11) Sales, deliveries, or transfers of firearms by manufacturers, importers, or wholesalers licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto to persons who reside outside this state who are licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto, if the sale, delivery, or transfer is in accordance with Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(12) Sales, deliveries, or transfers of firearms by persons who reside outside this state and are licensed outside this state pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto to wholesalers, manufacturers, or importers, if the sale, delivery, or transfer is in accordance with Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(13) Sales, deliveries, or transfers of firearms by wholesalers to dealers.

(14) Sales, deliveries, or transfers of firearms by persons who reside outside this state to persons licensed pursuant to Section 12071, if the sale, delivery, or transfer is in accordance with Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code, and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(15) Sales, deliveries, or transfers of firearms by persons who reside outside this state and are licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto to dealers, if the sale, delivery, or transfer is in accordance with Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(16) The delivery, sale, or transfer of an unloaded firearm by one wholesaler to another wholesaler if that firearm is intended as merchandise in the receiving wholesaler's business.

(17) The loan of an unloaded firearm or the loan of a firearm loaded with blank cartridges for use solely as a prop for a motion picture, television, or video production or entertainment or theatrical event.

(c) (1) As used in this section, "infrequent" means:

(A) For pistols, revolvers, and other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, less than six transactions per calendar year. For this purpose, "transaction" means a single sale, lease, or transfer of any number of pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person.

(B) For firearms other than pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, occasional and without regularity.

(2) As used in this section, "operation of law" includes, but is not limited to, any of the following:

(A) The executor or administrator of an estate, if the estate includes firearms.

(B) A secured creditor or an agent or employee thereof when the firearms are possessed as collateral for, or as a result of, a default under a security agreement under the Commercial Code.

(C) A levying officer, as defined in Section 481.140, 511.060, or 680.260 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(D) A receiver performing his or her functions as a receiver, if the receivership estate includes firearms.

(E) A trustee in bankruptcy performing his or her duties, if the bankruptcy estate includes firearms.

(F) An assignee for the benefit of creditors performing his or her functions as an assignee, if the assignment includes firearms.

(G) A transmutation of property between spouses pursuant to Section 850 of the Family Code.

(d) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1994.

SEC. 7. Section 12072 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12072. (a) (1) No person, corporation, or firm shall knowingly supply, sell, or give possession or control of a firearm to any person within any of the classes prohibited by Section 12021 or 12021.1.

(2) No person, corporation, or dealer shall sell, deliver, or otherwise transfer a firearm to any person whom he or she has cause to believe to be within any of the classes prohibited by Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(3) No person, corporation, or firm shall sell, loan, or transfer a firearm to a minor.

(b) No person licensed under Section 12071 shall sell, deliver, or transfer a pistol, revolver, or firearm capable of being concealed upon the person to any person under the age of 21 years or any other firearm to a person under the age of 18 years.

(c) No dealer, whether or not acting pursuant to Section 12082, shall deliver a firearm to a person, as follows:

(1) Prior to January 1, 1996, within 15 days of the application for the purchase, or, after notice by the department pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 12076, within 15 days of the submission to the department of corrected copies of the register, or within 15 days of the submission to the department of any fee required pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 12076, whichever is later. On or after January 1, 1996, within 15 days of the application for the purchase of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person, or, after notice by the department pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 12076, within 15 days of the submission to the department of corrected copies of the register, or within 15 days of the submission to the department of any fee required pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 12076, whichever is later. On or after January 1, 1996, within 10 days of the application for the purchase of any other firearm, or, after notice by the department pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 12076, within 10 days of the submission to the department of corrected copies of the register, or within 10 days of the submission to the department of any fee required pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 12076, whichever is later.

(2) Unless unloaded and securely wrapped or unloaded and in a locked container.

(3) Unless the purchaser, transferee, or person being loaned the firearm presents clear evidence of his or her identity and age, as defined in Section 12071, to the dealer.

(4) Whenever the dealer is notified by the Department of Justice that the person is in a prohibited class described in Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(5) Commencing April 1, 1994, no pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person shall be delivered unless the purchaser, transferee, or person being loaned the firearm presents to the dealer a basic firearm safety certificate.

(d) Where neither party to the transaction holds a dealer's license issued pursuant to Section 12071, in order for a person to sell, loan, or transfer a firearm, the parties to the transaction shall complete the transaction through either of the following:

(1) A licensed dealer pursuant to Section 12082.

(2) A law enforcement agency pursuant to Section 12084.

(e) No person may commit an act of collusion relating to Article 8 (commencing with Section 12800) of Chapter 6. For purposes of this section and Section 12071, collusion may be proven by any one of the following factors:

(1) Answering a test applicant's questions during an objective test relating to basic firearms safety.

(2) Knowingly misgrading the examination.

(3) Providing an advance copy of the test to an applicant.

(4) Taking or allowing another person to take the basic firearms safety course for one who is the applicant for the basic firearms safety certificate.

(5) Allowing another to take the objective test for the applicant, purchaser, or transferee.

(6) Allowing others to give unauthorized assistance during the examination.

(7) Reference to materials during the examination and cheating by the applicant.

(8) Providing originals or photocopies of the objective test, or any version thereof, to any person other than as specified in subdivision (f) of Section 12805.

(f) (1) No wholesaler shall deliver, sell, or transfer a firearm to a person who is licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and whose licensed premises are located in this state unless one of the following conditions is met:

(A) The person presents proof of licensure pursuant to Section 12071 to the wholesaler.

(B) The person presents proof that he or she is exempt from licensure under Section 12071 to the wholesaler, in which case the person also shall present proof that the transaction is also exempt from the provisions of subdivision (d).

(2) No importer or manufacturer who is licensed to engage in that business pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto shall deliver, sell, or transfer a firearm to a person who is licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section

921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and whose licensed premises are located in this state unless one of the following conditions is met:

(A) The person presents a proof of licensure pursuant to Section 12071 to the importer or manufacturer.

(B) The person presents proof that he or she is exempt from licensure under Section 12071 to the importer or manufacturer, in which case the person also shall present proof that the transaction is also exempt from the provisions of subdivision (d).

(g) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2) or (3), a violation of this section is a misdemeanor.

(2) If any of the following circumstances apply, a violation of this section is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or four years:

(A) If the violation is of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a).

(B) If the defendant has a prior conviction of violating this section or former Section 12100 of this code or Section 8101 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(C) If the defendant has a prior conviction of violating any offense specified in subdivision (b) of Section 12021.1 or a violation of Section 12020, 12220, or 12520, or former Section 12560.

(D) If the defendant is in a prohibited class described in Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(E) A violation of this section by a person who actively participates in a "criminal street gang" as defined in Section 186.22.

(3) If any of the following circumstances apply, a violation of this section is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, or in a county jail for a period not exceeding one year, or by a fine of not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both the fine and imprisonment:

(A) If the violation is of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a).

(B) A violation of subdivision (b) involving the delivery of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person to a minor.

(C) A violation of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) involving the sale, loan, or transfer of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person to a minor.

SEC. 7.5. Section 12072 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12072. (a) (1) No person, corporation, or firm shall knowingly supply, sell, or give possession or control of any firearm to any person within any of the classes prohibited by Section 12021 or 12021.1.

(2) No person, corporation, or dealer shall sell, deliver, or otherwise transfer any firearm to any person whom he or she has cause to believe to be within any of the classes prohibited by Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(3) No person, corporation, or firm shall sell, loan, or transfer any firearm to a minor.

(4) No person, corporation, or dealer shall sell, loan, or transfer any firearm to any person whom he or she knows or has cause to believe is not the actual purchaser or transferee of the firearm, or to any person who is not the person actually being loaned the firearm, if the person, corporation, or dealer has either of the following:

(A) Knowledge that the firearm is to be subsequently loaned, sold, or transferred to avoid the provisions of subdivision (d).

(B) Knowledge that the firearm is to be subsequently loaned, sold, or transferred to avoid the requirements of any exemption to the provisions of subdivision (d).

(5) No person, corporation, or dealer shall acquire a firearm for the purpose of selling, transferring, or loaning the firearm, if the person, corporation, or dealer has either of the following:

(A) In the case of a dealer, intent to violate subdivision (b) or (c).

(B) In any other case, intent to avoid either of the following:

(i) The provisions of subdivision (d).

(ii) The requirements of any exemption to the provisions of subdivision (d).

(b) No person licensed under Section 12071 shall sell, deliver, or transfer any pistol, revolver, or firearm capable of being concealed upon the person to any person under the age of 21 years or any other firearm to a person under the age of 18 years.

(c) No dealer, whether or not acting pursuant to Section 12082, shall deliver a firearm to a person, as follows:

(1) Prior to January 1, 1996, within 15 days of the application for the purchase, or, after notice by the department pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 12076, within 15 days of the submission to the department of corrected copies of the register, or within 15 days of the submission to the department of any fee required pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 12076, whichever is later. On or after January 1, 1996, within 15 days of the application for the purchase of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person, or, after notice by the department pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 12076, within 15 days of the submission to the department of corrected copies of the register, or within 15 days of the submission to the department of any fee required pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 12076, whichever is later. On or after January 1, 1996, within 10 days of the application for the purchase of any other firearm, or, after notice by the department pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 12076, within 10 days of the submission to the department of corrected copies of the register, or within 10 days of the submission to the department of any fee required pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 12076, whichever is later.

(2) Unless unloaded and securely wrapped or unloaded and in a locked container.

(3) Unless the purchaser, transferee, or person being loaned the firearm presents clear evidence of his or her identity and age, as defined in Section 12071, to the dealer.

(4) Whenever the dealer is notified by the Department of Justice that the person is in a prohibited class described in Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(5) Commencing April 1, 1994, no pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person shall be delivered unless the purchaser, transferee, or person being loaned the firearm presents to the dealer a basic firearm safety certificate.

(d) Where neither party to the transaction holds a dealer's license issued pursuant to Section 12071, the parties to the transaction shall complete the sale, loan, or transfer of that firearm through either of the following:

(1) A licensed dealer pursuant to Section 12082.

(2) A law enforcement agency pursuant to Section 12084.

(e) No person may commit an act of collusion relating to Article 8 (commencing with Section 12800) of Chapter 6. For purposes of this section and Section 12071, collusion may be proven by any one of the following factors:

(1) Answering a test applicant's questions during an objective test relating to basic firearms safety.

(2) Knowingly misgrading the examination.

(3) Providing an advance copy of the test to an applicant.

(4) Taking or allowing another person to take the basic firearms safety course for one who is the applicant for the basic firearms safety certificate.

(5) Allowing another to take the objective test for the applicant, purchaser, or transferee.

(6) Allowing others to give unauthorized assistance during the examination.

(7) Reference to materials during the examination and cheating by the applicant.

(8) Providing originals or photocopies of the objective test, or any version thereof, to any person other than as specified in subdivision (f) of Section 12805.

(f) No person who is licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code shall deliver, sell, or transfer a firearm to a person who is licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and whose licensed premises are located in this state unless one of the following conditions is met:

(1) The person presents proof of licensure pursuant to Section 12071 to that person.

(2) The person presents proof that he or she is exempt from licensure under Section 12071 to that person, in which case the person also shall present proof that the transaction is also exempt from the provisions of subdivision (d).

(g) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2) or (3), a violation of this section is a misdemeanor.

(2) If any of the following circumstances apply, a violation of this section shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for two,

three, or four years:

(A) If the violation is of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a).

(B) If the defendant has a prior conviction of violating this section or former Section 12100 of this code or Section 8101 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(C) If the defendant has a prior conviction of violating any offense specified in subdivision (b) of Section 12021.1 or of a violation of Section 12020, 12220, 12520, or of former Section 12560.

(D) If the defendant is in a prohibited class described in Section 12021 or 12021.1 or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(E) A violation of this section by a person who actively participates in a criminal street gang as defined in Section 186.22.

(3) If any of the following circumstances apply, a violation of this section shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison or in a county jail not to exceed one year, or by a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both the fine and imprisonment:

(A) A violation of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a).

(B) A violation of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) involving the sale, loan, or transfer of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person to a minor.

(C) A violation of paragraph (4) of subdivision (a).

(D) A violation of paragraph (5) of subdivision (a).

(E) A violation of subdivision (b) involving the delivery of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person to a minor.

(F) A violation of paragraph (1), (3), (4), or (5) of subdivision (c) involving a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person.

(G) A violation of subdivision (d) involving a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person.

(H) A violation of subdivision (e).

SEC. 8. Section 12076 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12076. (a) The purchaser of any firearm shall be required to present clear evidence of his or her identity and age, as defined in Section 12071, to the dealer, and the dealer shall require him or her to sign his or her current legal name and affix his or her residence address and date of birth to the register in quadruplicate. The salesperson shall affix his or her signature to the register in quadruplicate as a witness to the signature and identification of the purchaser. Any person furnishing a fictitious name or address or knowingly furnishing any incorrect information or knowingly omitting any information required to be provided for the register and any person violating any provision of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(b) (1) Two copies of the original sheet of the register, on the date of sale, shall be placed in the mail, postage prepaid, and properly addressed to the Department of Justice in Sacramento.

(2) One copy of the original shall be mailed, postage prepaid, to the chief of police, or other head of the police department, of the city or county wherein the sale is made. Where the sale is made in a district where there is no municipal police department, the copy of the original sheet shall be mailed to the sheriff of the county wherein the sale is made. This copy, as it relates to firearms, other than pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, shall be destroyed within five days of receipt and no information shall be compiled therefrom.

(c) The department shall examine its records, as well as those records that it is authorized to request from the State Department of Mental Health pursuant to Section 8104 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, in order to determine if the purchaser is a person described in Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

If the department determines that the purchaser is a person described in Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, it shall immediately notify the dealer and the chief of the police department of the city or county in which the sale was made, or if the sale was made in a district in which there is no municipal police department, the sheriff of the county in which the sale was made, of that fact.

If the department determines that the copies of the register submitted to it pursuant to subdivision (b) contain any blank spaces or inaccurate, illegible, or incomplete information, preventing identification of the purchaser, or of the pistol, revolver, or other firearm to be purchased, transferred, or loaned, or if any fee required pursuant to subdivision (d) is not submitted by the dealer in conjunction with submission of copies of the register, the department may notify the dealer of that fact. Upon notification by the department, the dealer shall submit corrected copies of the register to the department, or shall submit any fee required pursuant to subdivision (d), or both, as appropriate and, if notification by the department is received by the dealer at any time prior to delivery of the firearm to be purchased or transferred, the dealer shall withhold delivery until the conclusion of the waiting period described in Sections 12071 and 12072.

(d) The Department of Justice may charge the dealer a fee sufficient to reimburse all of the following:

(1) (A) The department for the cost of furnishing this information.

(B) The department for the cost of meeting its obligations under paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 8100 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(2) Local mental health facilities for state-mandated local costs resulting from the reporting requirements imposed by the amendments to Section 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, made by the act which also added this paragraph.

(3) The State Department of Mental Health for the costs resulting from the requirements imposed by the amendments to Section 8104 of the Welfare and Institutions Code made by the act which also added this paragraph.

(4) Local mental hospitals, sanitariums, and institutions for state-mandated local costs resulting from the reporting requirements imposed by Section 8105 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(5) Local law enforcement agencies for state-mandated local costs resulting from the notification requirements set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 6385 of the Family Code created by the act that also added this paragraph.

(6) Local law enforcement agencies for state-mandated local costs resulting from the notification requirements set forth in subdivision (c) of Section 8105 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

The fee established pursuant to this subdivision shall not exceed the sum of the actual processing costs of the department, the estimated reasonable costs of the local mental health facilities for complying with the reporting requirements imposed by the act which added paragraph (2) to this subdivision, the costs of the State Department of Mental Health for complying with the requirements imposed by the act which added paragraph (3) to this subdivision, the estimated reasonable costs of local mental hospitals, sanitariums, and institutions for complying with the reporting requirements imposed by the act which added paragraph (4) to this subdivision, the estimated reasonable costs of local law enforcement agencies for complying with the notification requirements set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 6385 of the Family Code created by the act that added paragraph (5) to this subdivision, and the estimated reasonable costs of local law enforcement agencies for complying with the notification requirements set forth in subdivision (c) of Section 8105 of the Welfare and Institutions Code created by the act which added paragraph (6) to this subdivision.

(e) (1) The Department of Justice may charge a fee sufficient to reimburse it for each of the following:

(A) For the actual costs associated with the preparation, sale, processing, and filing of forms or reports required or utilized pursuant to Section 12078 if neither a dealer nor a law enforcement agency acting pursuant to Section 12084 is filing the form or report.

(B) For the actual processing costs associated with the submission of a Dealers' Record of Sale to the department by a dealer or of the submission of a LEFT to the department by a law enforcement agency acting pursuant to Section 12084 if the waiting period described in Sections 12071, 12072, and 12084 does not apply.

(C) For the actual costs associated with the preparation, sale, processing, and filing of reports utilized pursuant to subdivision (l) of Section 12078.

(2) If the department charges a fee pursuant to subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of this subdivision, it shall be charged in the same amount to all categories of transaction that are within that subparagraph.

(3) Any costs incurred by the Department of Justice to implement this subdivision shall be reimbursed from fees collected and charged pursuant to this subdivision. No fees shall be charged to the dealer pursuant to subdivision (d) or to a law enforcement agency acting pursuant to paragraph (6) of subdivision (d) of Section 12084 for costs incurred for implementing this subdivision.

(f) All money received by the department pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Dealers' Record of Sale Special Account of the General Fund, which is hereby created, to be available, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for expenditure by the department to offset the costs incurred pursuant to this section and Sections 12289 and 12809.

(g) (1) Only one fee shall be charged pursuant to this section for a single transaction on the same date for the sale of any number of firearms that are not pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person or for the taking of possession of those firearms.

(2) In a single transaction on the same date for the sale of any number of firearms that are pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, the department shall charge a reduced fee pursuant to this section for the second and subsequent firearms that are part of that transaction.

(h) Only one fee shall be charged pursuant to this section for a single transaction on the same date for taking title or possession of any number of firearms pursuant to subdivision (c) or (i) of Section 12078.

(i) Whenever the Department of Justice acts pursuant to this section as it pertains to firearms other than pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, the department's acts or omissions shall be deemed to be discretionary within the meaning of the California Tort Claims Act pursuant to Division 3.6 (commencing with Section 810) of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(j) As used in this section:

(1) "Purchaser" means the purchaser or transferee of a firearm or the person being loaned a firearm.

(2) "Purchase" means the purchase, loan, or transfer of a firearm.

(3) "Sale" means the sale, loan, or transfer of a firearm.

SEC. 8.5. Section 12076 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12076. (a) The purchaser of any firearm shall be required to present clear evidence of his or her identity and age, as defined in Section 12071, to the dealer, and the dealer shall require him or her to sign his or her current legal name and affix his or her residence address and date of birth to the register in quadruplicate. The salesperson shall affix his or her signature to the register in quadruplicate as a witness to the signature and identification of the purchaser. Any person furnishing a fictitious name or address or knowingly furnishing any incorrect information or knowingly omitting any information required to be provided for the register and any person violating any provision of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(b) (1) Two copies of the original sheet of the register, on the date of sale, shall be placed in the mail, postage prepaid, and properly addressed to the Department of Justice in Sacramento.

(2) One copy of the original shall be mailed, postage prepaid, to the chief of police, or other head of the police department, of the city or county wherein the sale is made. Where the sale is made in a district where there is no municipal police department, the copy of the original sheet shall be mailed to the sheriff of the county wherein the sale is made. This copy, as it relates to firearms, other than pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person shall be destroyed within five days of receipt and no information shall be compiled therefrom.

(3) A photocopy of the original shall be provided to the purchaser by the dealer.

(4) If the transaction is one conducted pursuant to Section 12082, a photocopy of the original shall be provided to the seller by the dealer.

(c) The department shall examine its records, as well as those records that it is authorized to request from the State Department of Mental Health pursuant to Section 8104 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, in order to determine if the purchaser is a person described in Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

If the department determines that the purchaser is a person described in Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, it shall immediately notify the dealer and the chief of the police department of the city or county in which the sale was made, or if the sale was made in a district in which there is no municipal police department, the sheriff of the county in which the sale was made, of that fact.

If the department determines that the copies of the register submitted to it pursuant to subdivision (b) contain any blank spaces or inaccurate, illegible, or incomplete information, preventing identification of the purchaser, or of the pistol, revolver, or other firearm to be purchased, or if any fee required pursuant to subdivision (d) is not submitted by the dealer in conjunction with submission of copies of the register, the department may notify the dealer of that fact. Upon notification by the department, the dealer shall submit corrected copies of the register to the department, or shall submit any fee required pursuant to subdivision (d), or both, as appropriate and, if notification by the department is received by the dealer at any time prior to delivery of the firearm to be purchased, the dealer shall withhold delivery until the conclusion of the waiting period described in Sections 12071 and 12072.

(d) The Department of Justice may charge the dealer a fee sufficient to reimburse all of the following:

(1) (A) The department for the cost of furnishing this information.

(B) The department for the cost of meeting its obligations under paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 8100 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(2) Local mental health facilities for state-mandated local costs resulting from the reporting requirements imposed by the amendments to Section 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, made by the act which also added this paragraph.

(3) The State Department of Mental Health for the costs resulting from the requirements imposed by the amendments to Section 8104 of the Welfare and Institutions Code made by the act which also added this paragraph.

(4) Local mental hospitals, sanitariums, and institutions for state-mandated local costs resulting from the reporting requirements imposed by Section 8105 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(5) Local law enforcement agencies for state-mandated local costs resulting from the notification requirements set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 6385 of the Family Code created by the act that also added this paragraph.

(6) Local law enforcement agencies for state-mandated local costs resulting from the notification requirements set forth in subdivision (c) of Section 8105 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

The fee established pursuant to this subdivision shall not exceed the sum of the actual processing costs of the department, the estimated reasonable costs of the local mental health facilities for complying with the reporting requirements imposed by the act which added paragraph (2) to this subdivision, the costs of the State Department of Mental Health for complying with the requirements imposed by the act which added paragraph (3) to this subdivision, the estimated reasonable costs of local mental hospitals, sanitariums, and institutions for complying with the reporting requirements imposed by the act which added paragraph (4) to this subdivision, the estimated reasonable costs of local law enforcement agencies for complying with the notification requirements set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 6385 of the Family Code created by the act that also added this paragraph, and the estimated reasonable costs of local law enforcement agencies for complying with the notification requirements set forth in subdivision (c) of Section 8105 of the Welfare and Institutions Code created by the act which added paragraph (6) to this subdivision.

(e) (1) The Department of Justice may charge a fee sufficient to reimburse it for each of the following:

(A) For the actual costs associated with the preparation, sale, processing, and filing of forms or reports required or utilized pursuant to Section 12078 if neither a dealer nor a law enforcement agency acting pursuant to Section 12084 is filing the form or report.

(B) For the actual processing costs associated with the submission of a Dealers' Record of Sale to the department by a dealer or of the submission of a LEFT to the department by a law enforcement agency acting pursuant to Section 12084 if the waiting period described in Sections 12071, 12072, and 12084 does not apply.

(C) For the actual costs associated with the preparation, sale, processing, and filing of reports utilized pursuant to subdivision (l) of Section 12078 or paragraph (18) of subdivision (b) of Section 12071.

(2) If the department charges a fee pursuant to subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of this subdivision, it shall be charged in the same amount to all categories of transaction that are within that subparagraph.

(3) Any costs incurred by the Department of Justice to implement this subdivision shall be reimbursed from fees collected and charged pursuant to this subdivision. No fees shall be charged to the dealer pursuant to subdivision (d) or to a law enforcement agency acting pursuant to paragraph (6) of subdivision (d) of Section 12084 for costs incurred for implementing this subdivision.

(f) All money received by the department pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Dealers' Record of Sale Special Account of the General Fund, which is hereby created, to be available, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for expenditure by the department to offset the costs incurred pursuant to this section and Sections 12289 and 12809.

(g) (1) Only one fee shall be charged pursuant to this section for a single transaction on the same date for the sale or transfer of any number of firearms that are not pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person or for the taking of possession of those firearms.

(2) In a single transaction on the same date for the delivery of any number of firearms that are pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, the department shall charge a reduced fee pursuant to this section for the second and subsequent firearms that are part of that transaction.

(h) Only one fee shall be charged pursuant to this section for a single transaction on the same date for taking title or possession of any number of firearms pursuant to paragraph (18) of subdivision (b) of Section 12071 or subdivision (c) or (i) of Section 12078.

(i) Whenever the Department of Justice acts pursuant to this section as it pertains to firearms other than pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, the department's acts or omissions shall be deemed to be discretionary within the meaning of the California Tort Claims Act pursuant to Division 3.6 (commencing with Section 810) of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(j) As used in this section, the following definitions shall control:

(1) "Purchaser" means the purchaser or transferee of a firearm or a person being loaned a firearm.

(2) "Purchase" means the purchase, loan, or transfer of a firearm.

(3) "Sale" means the sale, loan, or transfer of a firearm.

(4) "Seller" means, if the transaction is being conducted pursuant to Section 12082, the person selling, loaning, or transferring the firearm.

SEC. 9. Section 12078 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12078. (a) (1) The preceding provisions of this article, except subdivision (e) of Section 12076, do not apply to deliveries, transfers, or sales of firearms made to persons properly identified as full-time paid peace officers as defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2, provided that the peace officers are authorized by their employer to carry firearms while in the performance of their duties, nor to deliveries, transfers, or sales of firearms made to authorized representatives of cities, cities and counties, counties, state or federal governments for use by those governmental agencies. Proper identification is defined as verifiable written certification from the head of the agency by which the purchaser or transferee is employed, identifying the purchaser or transferee as a peace officer who is authorized to carry firearms while in the performance of his or her duties, and authorizing the purchase or transfer. The certification shall be delivered to the seller or transferor at the time of purchase or transfer and the purchaser or transferee shall identify himself or herself as the person authorized in the certification. On the day the sale, delivery, or transfer is made, where a peace officer is receiving the firearm, and either a dealer is not the seller or transferor, or is not otherwise the person responsible for the delivery of the firearm, or the transfer or sale is not conducted through a law enforcement agency pursuant to Section 12084, the peace officer shall forward by prepaid mail to the Department of Justice a report of the same and the type of information concerning the seller or transferor, the buyer or transferee, the firearm as is indicated in Section 12077, together with the original certification. On the day the sale, delivery, or transfer is made, where a dealer is the seller, transferor, or otherwise responsible for delivery of the firearm, the dealer shall forward by prepaid mail to the Department of Justice a report of the same and the type of information concerning the buyer or transferee and the firearm as is indicated in Section 12077, together with the original certification. On the day the sale, delivery, or transfer is made, where the transfer is conducted pursuant to Section 12084, the law enforcement agency shall forward by prepaid mail to the Department of Justice a report of the same and the type of information concerning the buyer or transferee and the firearm as is indicated in Section 12084, together with the original certification. The reports which peace officers shall complete shall be provided to them by the department. No report need be submitted to the Department of Justice where a peace officer receiving the firearm received it from his or her employer in accordance with the applicable rules, regulations, or procedures of the employer.

(2) The preceding provisions of this article, except subdivision (e) of Section 12076, do not apply to deliveries, transfers, or sales of firearms made to peace officers as defined in Chapter 4.5

(commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2 made pursuant to Section 10334 of the Public Contract Code. On the day the sale, delivery, or transfer is made, and a dealer is not the person responsible for the delivery of the firearm or the transfer or sale is not conducted through a law enforcement agency pursuant to Section 12084, the peace officer receiving the firearm shall forward by prepaid mail to the Department of Justice a report of the same and the type of information concerning the seller or transferor, the buyer or transferee, and the firearm as is indicated in Section 12077. On the day the sale, delivery, or transfer is made, where a dealer is responsible for delivery of the firearm, the dealer shall forward by prepaid mail to the Department of Justice a report of the same and the type of information concerning the buyer or transferee and the firearm as is indicated in Section 12077. On the day the sale, delivery, or transfer is made where the transfer is conducted pursuant to Section 12084, the law enforcement agency shall forward by prepaid mail to the Department of Justice a report of the same and the type of information concerning the buyer or transferee and the firearm as is indicated in Section 12084. The reports which peace officers shall complete shall be the same as those set forth in paragraph (1) of this subdivision and shall be provided to them by the department.

(3) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 does not apply to sales, deliveries, or transfers of firearms to authorized representatives of cities, cities and counties, counties, or state or federal governments for those governmental agencies where the entity is acquiring the weapon as part of an authorized, voluntary program where the entity is buying or receiving weapons from private individuals. Any weapons acquired pursuant to this subdivision shall be disposed of pursuant to the applicable provisions of Section 12028 or 12032.

(b) Section 12071 and subdivisions (c) and (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to deliveries, sales, or transfers of firearms between or to importers and manufacturers of firearms licensed to engage in that business pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(c) (1) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the infrequent transfer of a firearm that is not a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person by gift, bequest, intestate succession, or other means by one individual to another if both individuals are members of the same immediate family.

(2) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the infrequent transfer of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person by gift, bequest, intestate succession, or other means by one individual to another if both individuals are members of the same immediate family and both of the following conditions are met:

(A) The person to whom the firearm is transferred shall, within 30 days of taking possession of the firearm, forward by prepaid mail or deliver in person to the Department of Justice, a report that includes information concerning the individual taking possession of the firearm, how title was obtained and from whom, and a description of the firearm in question. The report forms that individuals complete pursuant to this paragraph shall be provided to them by the Department of Justice.

(B) Prior to taking possession of the firearm, the person taking title to the firearm shall obtain a basic firearm safety certificate.

(3) As used in this subdivision, immediate family member means any one of the following relationships:

(A) Parent and child.

(B) Grandparent and grandchild.

(d) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the infrequent loan of firearms between persons who are personally known to each other for any lawful purpose, if the loan does not exceed 30 days in duration.

(e) Section 12071 and subdivisions (c) and (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the delivery of a firearm to a gunsmith for service or repair.

(f) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the sale, delivery, or transfer of firearms by persons who reside in this state to persons who reside outside this state who are licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto, if the sale, delivery, or transfer is in accordance with Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(g) (1) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the infrequent sale or transfer of a firearm, other than a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person, at auctions or similar events conducted by nonprofit mutual or public benefit corporations organized pursuant to the Corporations Code.

As used in this paragraph, the term "infrequent" shall not be construed to prohibit different local chapters of the same nonprofit corporation from conducting auctions or similar events, provided the individual local chapter conducts the auctions or similar events infrequently. It is the intent of the Legislature that different local chapters, representing different localities, be entitled to invoke the exemption created by this paragraph, notwithstanding the frequency with which other chapters of the same nonprofit corporation may conduct auctions of similar events.

(2) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the transfer of a firearm other than a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person, if the firearm is donated for an auction or similar event described in paragraph (1) and the firearm is delivered to the nonprofit corporation immediately preceding, or contemporaneous with, the auction or similar event.

(3) The waiting period described in Sections 12071 and 12072 shall not apply to a dealer who delivers a firearm other than a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person, at an auction or similar event described in paragraph (1), as authorized by subparagraph (C) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 12071. Within 48 hours of the sale, delivery, or transfer, the dealer shall forward by prepaid mail to the Department of Justice a report of the same as is indicated in paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 12077.

(h) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the loan of a firearm for the purposes of shooting at targets if the loan occurs on the premises of a target facility which holds a business or regulatory license or on the premises of any club or organization organized for the purposes of practicing shooting at targets upon established ranges, whether public or private, if the firearm is at all times kept within the premises of the target range or on the premises of the club or organization.

(i) (1) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to a person who takes title or possession of firearms by operation of law if all the following conditions are met:

(A) The person is not prohibited by Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code from possessing firearms.

(B) If the firearms are pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, and the person is not a levying officer as defined in Section 481.140, 511.060, or 680.210 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the person shall, within 30 days of taking possession, deliver in person or forward by prepaid mail to the Department of Justice, a report of the same and the type of information concerning the individual taking possession of the firearm, how title or possession was obtained and from whom, and a description of the firearm in question. The reports which individuals complete pursuant to this paragraph shall be provided to them by the Department of Justice.

(C) In the case of a transmutation of property between spouses made in accordance with Section 850 of the Family Code consisting of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person, taking place on or after April 1, 1994, a basic firearm safety certificate shall be required prior to taking possession of the firearm.

(2) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to a person who takes possession of a firearm by operation of law in a representative capacity who transfers ownership of the firearm to himself or herself in his or her individual capacity. In the case of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person, on and after April 1, 1994, that individual shall have a basic firearm safety certificate in order for the exemption set forth in this paragraph to apply.

(j) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to deliveries, transfers, or returns of firearms made pursuant to Section 12028, 12028.5, or 12030.

(k) Section 12071 and subdivision (c) of Section 12072 shall not apply to:

(1) The delivery, sale, or transfer of unloaded firearms that are not pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person by a dealer to another dealer upon proof that the person receiving the firearm is licensed pursuant to Section 12071.

(2) The delivery, sale, or transfer of unloaded firearms by dealers to persons who reside outside this state who are licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(3) The delivery, sale, or transfer of unloaded firearms to a wholesaler if the firearms are being returned to the wholesaler and are intended as merchandise in the wholesaler's business.

(4) The delivery, sale, or transfer of unloaded firearms by one dealer to another dealer if the firearms are intended as merchandise in the receiving dealer's business upon proof that the person receiving the firearm is licensed pursuant to Section 12071.

(5) The delivery, sale, or transfer of an unloaded firearm that is not a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person by a dealer to himself or herself.

(6) The loan of an unloaded firearm by a dealer who also operates a target facility which holds a business or regulatory license on the premises of the building designated in the license or whose building designated in the license is on the premises of any club or organization organized for the purposes of practicing shooting at targets upon established ranges, whether public or private, to a person at that target facility, club, or organization, if the firearm is at all times kept within the premises of the target range or on the premises of the club or organization.

(l) A person who is exempt from subdivision (d) of Section 12072 or is otherwise not required by law to report his or her acquisition, ownership, or disposal of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person or who moves out of this state with his or her pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person may submit a report of the same to the Department of Justice in a format prescribed by the department.

(m) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the delivery, sale, or transfer of unloaded firearms to a wholesaler as merchandise in the wholesaler's business by manufacturers or importers licensed to engage in that business pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto, or by another wholesaler, if the delivery, sale, or transfer is made in accordance with Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code.

(n) (1) The waiting period described in Section 12071 or 12072 shall not apply to the delivery, sale, or transfer of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person by a dealer in either of the following situations:

(A) The dealer is delivering the firearm to another dealer and it is not intended as merchandise in the receiving dealer's business.

(B) The dealer is delivering the firearm to himself or herself and it is not intended as merchandise in his or her business.

(2) In order for this subdivision to apply, both of the following shall occur:

(A) If the dealer is receiving the firearm from another dealer, the dealer receiving the firearm shall present proof to the dealer delivering the firearm that he or she is licensed pursuant to Section 12071.

(B) Whether the dealer is delivering, selling, or transferring the firearm to himself or herself or to another dealer, on the date that the delivery, sale, or transfer is made, the dealer delivering the firearm shall forward by prepaid mail to the Department of Justice a report of the same and the type of information concerning the purchaser or transferee as is indicated in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 12077.

(o) Section 12071 and subdivisions (c) and (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the delivery, sale, or transfer of firearms regulated pursuant to Section 12020, Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 12200), or Chapter 2.3 (commencing with Section 12275), if the delivery, sale, or transfer is conducted in accordance with the applicable provisions of Section 12020, Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 12200), or Chapter 2.3 (commencing with Section 12275).

(p) (1) Paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) and subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the loan of a firearm that is not a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person to a minor, with the express permission of the parent or legal guardian of the minor, if the loan does not exceed 30 days in duration, and is for a lawful purpose.

(2) Paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) and subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the loan of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person to a minor by a person who is not the parent or legal guardian of the minor if all of the following circumstances exist:

(A) The minor has the written consent of his or her parent or legal guardian that is presented at the time of, or prior to the time of, the loan, or is accompanied by his or her parent or legal guardian at the time the loan is made.

(B) The minor is being loaned the firearm for the purpose of engaging in a lawful, recreational sport, including, but not limited to, competitive shooting, or agricultural, ranching, or hunting activity, or a motion picture, television, or video production, or entertainment or theatrical event.

(C) The duration of the loan does not exceed the amount of time that is reasonably necessary to engage in the lawful, recreational sport, including, but not limited to, competitive shooting, or agricultural, ranching, or hunting activity, or a motion picture, television, or video production, or entertainment or theatrical event, the nature of which involves the use of a firearm.

(D) The duration of the loan does not, in any event, exceed 10 days.

(3) Paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) and subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the loan of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person to a minor by his or her parent or legal guardian if both of the following circumstances exist:

(A) The minor is being loaned the firearm for the purposes of engaging in a lawful, recreational sport, including, but not limited to, competitive shooting, or agricultural, ranching, or hunting activity, or a motion picture, television, or video production, or entertainment or theatrical event, the nature of which involves the use of a firearm.

(B) The duration of the loan does not exceed the amount of time that is reasonably necessary to engage in the lawful, recreational sport, including, but not limited to, competitive shooting, or agricultural, ranching, or hunting activity, or a motion picture, television, or video production, or entertainment or theatrical event.

(4) Paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the transfer or loan of a firearm that is not a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person to a minor by his or her parent or legal guardian.

(5) Paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the transfer or loan of a firearm that is not a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person to a minor by his or her grandparent who is not the legal guardian of the minor if the transfer is done with the express permission of the parent or legal guardian of the minor.

(q) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the loan of a firearm that is not a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person to a licensed hunter for use by that licensed hunter for a period of time not to exceed the duration of the hunting season for which that firearm is to be used.

(r) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the loan of an unloaded firearm or the loan of a firearm loaded with blank cartridges for use solely as a prop for a motion picture, television, or video production or entertainment or theatrical event.

(s) As used in this section:

(1) "Infrequent" has the same meaning as in paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) of Section 12070.

(2) "A person taking title or possession of firearms by operation of law" includes, but is not limited to, any of the following instances wherein an individual receives title to, or possession of, firearms:

(A) The executor or administrator of an estate if the estate includes firearms.

(B) A secured creditor or an agent or employee thereof when the firearms are possessed as collateral for, or as a result of, a default under a security agreement under the Commercial Code.

(C) A levying officer, as defined in Section 481.140, 511.060, or 680.260 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(D) A receiver performing his or her functions as a receiver if the receivership estate includes firearms.

(E) A trustee in bankruptcy performing his or her duties if the bankruptcy estate includes firearms.

(F) An assignee for the benefit of creditors performing his or her functions as an assignee, if the assignment includes firearms.

(G) A transmutation of property consisting of firearms pursuant to Section 850 of the Family Code.

(H) Firearms passing to a surviving spouse pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 13500) of Part 2 of Division 8 of the Probate Code.

SEC. 9.5. Section 12078 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12078. (a) (1) The preceding provisions of this article, except subdivision (e) of Section 12076, do not apply to deliveries, transfers, or sales of firearms made to persons properly identified as full-time paid peace officers as defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2, provided that the peace officers are authorized by their employer to carry firearms while in the performance of their duties, nor to deliveries, transfers, or sales of firearms made to authorized representatives of cities, cities and counties, counties, state or federal governments for use by those governmental agencies. Proper identification is defined as verifiable written certification from the head of the agency by which the purchaser or transferee is employed, identifying the purchaser or transferee as a peace officer who is authorized to carry firearms while in the performance of his or her duties, and authorizing the purchase or transfer. The certification shall be delivered to the seller or transferor at the time of purchase or transfer and the purchaser or transferee shall identify himself or herself as the person authorized in the certification. On the day the sale, delivery, or transfer is made, where a peace officer is receiving the firearm, and either a dealer is not the seller or transferor, or is not otherwise the person responsible for the delivery of the firearm, or the transfer or sale is not conducted through a law enforcement agency pursuant to Section 12084, the peace officer shall forward by prepaid mail to the Department of Justice a report of the same and the type of information concerning the seller or transferor, the buyer or transferee, the firearm as is indicated in Section 12077, together with the original certification. On the day the sale, delivery, or transfer is made, where a dealer is the seller, transferor, or otherwise responsible for delivery of the firearm, the dealer shall forward by prepaid mail to the Department of Justice a report of the same and the type of information concerning the buyer or transferee and the firearm as is indicated in Section 12077, together with the original certification. On the day the sale, delivery, or transfer is made, where the transfer is conducted pursuant to Section 12084, the law enforcement agency shall forward by prepaid mail to the Department of Justice a report of the same and the type of information concerning the buyer or transferee and the firearm as is indicated in Section 12084, together with the original certification. The reports which peace officers shall complete shall be provided to them by the department. No report need be submitted to the Department of Justice where a peace officer receiving the firearm received it from his or her employer in accordance with the applicable rules, regulations, or procedures of the employer.

(2) The preceding provisions of this article, except subdivision (e) of Section 12076, do not apply to deliveries, transfers, or sales of firearms made to peace officers as defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2 made pursuant to Section 10334 of the Public Contract Code. On the day the sale, delivery, or transfer is made, and a dealer is not the person responsible for the delivery of the firearm or the transfer or sale is not conducted through a law enforcement agency pursuant to Section 12084, the peace officer receiving the firearm shall forward by prepaid mail to the Department of Justice a report of the same and the type of information concerning the seller or transferor, the buyer or transferee, and the firearm as is indicated in Section 12077. On the day the sale, delivery, or transfer is made, where a dealer is responsible for delivery of the firearm, the dealer shall forward by prepaid mail to the Department of Justice a report of the same and the type of information concerning the buyer or transferee and the firearm as is indicated in Section 12077. On the day the sale, delivery, or transfer is made where the transfer is conducted pursuant to Section 12084, the law enforcement agency shall forward by prepaid mail to the Department of Justice a report of the same and the type of information concerning the buyer or transferee and the firearm as is indicated in Section 12084. The reports which peace officers shall complete shall be the same as those set forth in paragraph (1) of this subdivision and shall be provided to them by the department.

(3) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 does not apply to sales, deliveries, or transfers of firearms to authorized representatives of cities, cities and counties, counties, or state or federal governments for those governmental agencies where the entity is acquiring the weapon as part of an authorized, voluntary program where the entity is buying or receiving weapons from private individuals. Any weapons acquired pursuant to this subdivision shall be disposed of pursuant to the applicable provisions of Section 12028 or 12032.

(b) Section 12071 and subdivisions (c) and (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to deliveries, sales, or transfers of firearms between or to importers and manufacturers of firearms licensed to engage in that business pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(c) (1) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the infrequent transfer of a firearm that is not a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person by gift, bequest, intestate succession, or other means by one individual to another if both individuals are members of the same immediate family.

(2) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the infrequent transfer of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person by gift, bequest, intestate succession, or other means by one individual to another if both individuals are members of the same immediate family and both of the following conditions are met:

(A) The person to whom the firearm is transferred shall, within 30 days of taking possession of the firearm, forward by prepaid mail or deliver in person to the Department of Justice, a report that includes information concerning the individual taking possession of the firearm, how title was obtained and from whom, and a description of the firearm in question. The report forms that individuals complete pursuant to this paragraph shall be provided to them by the Department of Justice.

(B) Prior to taking possession of the firearm, the person taking title to the firearm shall obtain a basic firearm safety certificate.

(3) As used in this subdivision, immediate family member means any one of the following relationships:

(A) Parent and child.

(B) Grandparent and grandchild.

(d) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the infrequent loan of firearms between persons who are personally known to each other for any lawful purpose, if the loan does not exceed 30 days in duration.

(e) Section 12071 and subdivisions (c) and (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the delivery of a firearm to a gunsmith for service or repair.

(f) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the sale, delivery, or transfer of firearms by persons who reside in this state to persons who reside outside this state who are licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto, if the sale, delivery, or transfer is in accordance with Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(g) (1) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the infrequent sale or transfer of a firearm, other than a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person, at auctions or similar events conducted by nonprofit mutual or public benefit corporations organized pursuant to the Corporations Code.

As used in this paragraph, the term "infrequent" shall not be construed to prohibit different local chapters of the same nonprofit corporation from conducting auctions or similar events, provided the individual local chapter conducts the auctions or similar events infrequently. It is the intent of the Legislature that different local chapters, representing different localities, be entitled to invoke the exemption created by this paragraph, notwithstanding the frequency with which other chapters of the same nonprofit corporation may conduct auctions of similar events.

(2) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the transfer of a firearm other than a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person, if the firearm is donated for an auction or similar event described in paragraph (1) and the firearm is delivered to the nonprofit corporation immediately preceding, or contemporaneous with, the auction or similar event.

(3) The waiting period described in Sections 12071 and 12072 shall not apply to a dealer who delivers a firearm other than a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person, at an auction or similar event described in paragraph (1), as authorized by subparagraph (C) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 12071. Within 48 hours of the sale, delivery, or transfer, the dealer shall forward by prepaid mail to the Department of Justice a report of the same as is indicated in paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 12077.

(h) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the loan of a firearm for the purposes of shooting at targets if the loan occurs on the premises of a target facility which holds a business or regulatory license or on the premises of any club or organization organized for the purposes of practicing shooting at targets upon established ranges, whether public or private, if the firearm is at all times kept within the premises of the target range or on the premises of the club or organization.

(i) (1) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to a person who takes title or possession of firearms by operation of law if all the following conditions are met:

(A) The person is not prohibited by Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code from possessing firearms.

(B) If the firearms are pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, and the person is not a levying officer as defined in Section 481.140, 511.060, or 680.210 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the person shall, within 30 days of taking possession, forward by prepaid mail or deliver in person to the Department of Justice, a report of the same and the type of information concerning the individual taking possession of the firearm, how title or possession was obtained and from whom, and a description of the firearm in question. The reports which individuals complete pursuant to this paragraph shall be provided to them by the Department of Justice.

(C) In the case of a transmutation of property between spouses made in accordance with Section 850 of the Family Code consisting of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person, taking place on or after April 1, 1994, a basic firearm safety certificate shall be required prior to taking possession of the firearm.

(2) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to a person who takes possession of a firearm by operation of law in a representative capacity who transfers ownership of the firearm to himself or herself in his or her individual capacity. In the case of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person, on and after April 1, 1994, that individual shall have a basic firearm safety certificate in order for the exemption set forth in this paragraph to apply.

(j) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to deliveries, transfers, or returns of firearms made pursuant to Section 12028, 12028.5, or 12030.

(k) Section 12071 and subdivision (c) of Section 12072 shall not apply to:

(1) The delivery, sale, or transfer of unloaded firearms that are not pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person by a dealer to another dealer upon proof that the person receiving the firearm is licensed pursuant to Section 12071.

(2) The delivery, sale, or transfer of unloaded firearms by dealers to persons who reside outside this state who are licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(3) The delivery, sale, or transfer of unloaded firearms to a wholesaler if the firearms are being returned to the wholesaler and are intended as merchandise in the wholesaler's business.

(4) The delivery, sale, or transfer of unloaded firearms by one dealer to another dealer if the firearms are intended as merchandise in the receiving dealer's business upon proof that the person receiving the firearm is licensed pursuant to Section 12071.

(5) The delivery, sale, or transfer of an unloaded firearm that is not a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person by a dealer to himself or herself.

(6) The loan of an unloaded firearm by a dealer who also operates a target facility that holds a business or regulatory license on the premises of the building designated in the license or whose building designated in the license is on the premises of any club or organization organized for the purposes of practicing shooting at targets upon established ranges, whether public or private, to a person at that target facility or that club or organization, if the firearm is at all times kept within the premises of the target range or on the premises of the club or organization.

(l) A person who is exempt from subdivision (d) of Section 12072 or is otherwise not required by law to report his or her acquisition, ownership, or disposal of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person or who moves out of this state with his or her pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person may submit a report of the same to the Department of Justice in a format prescribed by the department.

(m) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the delivery, sale, or transfer of unloaded firearms to a wholesaler as merchandise in the wholesaler's business by manufacturers or importers licensed to engage in that business pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto, or by another wholesaler, if the delivery, sale, or transfer is made in accordance with Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code.

(n) (1) The waiting period described in Section 12071 or 12072 shall not apply to the delivery, sale, or transfer of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person by a dealer in either of the following situations:

(A) The dealer is delivering the firearm to another dealer and it is not intended as merchandise in the receiving dealer's business.

(B) The dealer is delivering the firearm to himself or herself and it is not intended as merchandise in his or her business.

(2) In order for this subdivision to apply, both of the following shall occur:

(A) If the dealer is receiving the firearm from another dealer, the dealer receiving the firearm shall present proof to the dealer delivering the firearm that he or she is licensed pursuant to Section 12071.

(B) Whether the dealer is delivering, selling, or transferring the firearm to himself or herself or to another dealer, on the date that the delivery, sale, or transfer is made, the dealer delivering the firearm shall forward by prepaid mail to the Department of Justice a report of the same and the type of information concerning the purchaser or transferee as is indicated in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 12077.

(o) Section 12071 and subdivisions (c) and (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the delivery, sale, or transfer of firearms regulated pursuant to Section 12020, Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 12200), or Chapter 2.3 (commencing with Section 12275), if the delivery, sale, or transfer is conducted in accordance with the applicable provisions of Section 12020, Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 12200), or Chapter 2.3 (commencing with Section 12275).

(p) (1) Paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) and subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the loan of a firearm that is not a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person to a minor, with the express permission of the parent or legal guardian of the minor, if the loan does not exceed 30 days in duration and is for a lawful purpose.

(2) Paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) and subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the loan of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person to a minor by a person who is not the parent or legal guardian of the minor if all of the following circumstances exist:

(A) The minor has the written consent of his or her parent or legal guardian that is presented at the time of, or prior to the time of, the loan, or is accompanied by his or her parent or legal guardian at the time the loan is made.

(B) The minor is being loaned the firearm for the purpose of engaging in a lawful, recreational sport, including, but not limited to, competitive shooting, or agricultural, ranching, or hunting activity, or a motion picture, television, or video production, or entertainment or theatrical event, the nature of which involves the use of a firearm.

(C) The duration of the loan does not exceed the amount of time that is reasonably necessary to engage in the lawful, recreational sport, including, but not limited to, competitive shooting, or agricultural, ranching, or hunting activity, or a motion picture, television, or video production, or entertainment or theatrical event, the nature of which involves the use of a firearm.

(D) The duration of the loan does not, in any event, exceed 10 days.

(3) Paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) and of subdivision (d) Section 12072 shall not apply to the loan of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person to a minor by his or her parent or legal guardian if both of the following circumstances exist:

(A) The minor is being loaned the firearm for the purposes of engaging in a lawful, recreational sport, including, but not limited to, competitive shooting, or agricultural, ranching, or hunting activity, or a motion picture, television, or video production, or entertainment or theatrical event, the nature of which involves the use of a firearm.

(B) The duration of the loan does not exceed the amount of time that is reasonably necessary to engage in the lawful, recreational sport, including, but not limited to, competitive shooting, or agricultural, ranching, or hunting activity, or a motion picture, television, or video production, or entertainment, or theatrical event, the nature of which involves the use of a firearm.

(4) Paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the transfer or loan of a firearm that is not a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person to a minor by his or her parent or legal guardian.

(5) Paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the transfer or loan of a firearm that is not a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person to a minor by his or her grandparent who is not the legal guardian of the minor if the transfer is done with the express permission of the parent or legal guardian of the minor.

(q) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the loan of a firearm that is not a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person to a licensed hunter for use by that licensed hunter for a period of time not to exceed the duration of the hunting season for which that firearm is to be used.

(r) The waiting period described in Section 12071, 12072, or 12084 shall not apply to the delivery, sale, or transfer of a firearm to the holder of a special weapons permit issued by the Department of Justice issued pursuant to Section 12095, 12230, 12250, 12305. On the date that the delivery, sale, or transfer is made, the dealer delivering the firearm or the law enforcement agency processing the transaction pursuant to Section 12084, shall forward by prepaid mail to the Department of Justice a report of the information concerning the purchaser or transferee as described in subdivision (a) of Section 12077 or Section 12084.

(s) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the loan of an unloaded firearm or the loan of a firearm loaded with blank cartridges for use solely as a prop for a motion picture, television, or video production or entertainment or theatrical event.

(t) As used in this section:

(1) "Infrequent" has the same meaning as in paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) of Section 12070.

(2) "A person taking title or possession of firearms by operation of law" includes, but is not limited to, any of the following instances wherein an individual receives title to, or possession of, firearms:

(A) The executor or administrator of an estate if the estate includes firearms.

(B) A secured creditor or an agent or employee thereof when the firearms are possessed as collateral for, or as a result of, a default under a security agreement under the Commercial Code.

(C) A levying officer, as defined in Section 481.140, 511.060, or 680.260 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(D) A receiver performing his or her functions as a receiver if the receivership estate includes firearms.

(E) A trustee in bankruptcy performing his or her duties if the bankruptcy estate includes firearms.

(F) An assignee for the benefit of creditors performing his or her functions as an assignee, if the assignment includes firearms.

(G) A transmutation of property consisting of firearms pursuant to Section 850 of the Family Code.

(H) Firearms passing to a surviving spouse pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 13500) of Part 2 of Division 8 of the Probate Code.

SEC. 10. Section 12084 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12084. (a) As used in this section, the following definitions shall control:

(1) "Agency" means a sheriff's department in a county of less than 200,000 persons, according to the most recent federal decennial census that elects to process purchases, sales, loans, or transfers of firearms.

(2) "Seller" means the seller or transferor of a firearm or the person loaning the firearm.

(3) "Purchaser" means the purchaser or transferee of a firearm or the person being loaned a firearm.

(4) "Purchase" means the purchase, loan, sale, or transfer of a firearm.

(5) "Department" means the Department of Justice.

(6) "LEFT" means the Law Enforcement Firearms Transfer Form consisting of the transfer form utilized to purchase a firearm in accordance with this section.

(b) As an alternative to completing the sale, transfer, or loan of a firearm through a licensed dealer pursuant to Section 12082 in order to comply with the provisions of subdivision (d) of Section 12072, the parties to the purchase of a firearm may complete the transaction through an agency in accordance with this section in order to comply with the provisions of subdivision (d) of Section 12072.

(c) (1) LEFTs shall be prepared by the State Printer and shall be furnished to agencies on application at a cost to be determined by the Department of General Services for each 100 leaves in quintuplicate, one original and four duplicates for the making of carbon copies. The original and duplicate copies shall differ in color, and shall be in the form provided by this section. The State Printer, upon issuing the LEFT, shall forward to the department the name and address of the agency together with the series and sheet numbers on the LEFT. The LEFT shall not be transferable.

(2) The department shall prescribe the form of the LEFT. It shall be in the same exact format set forth in Sections 12077 and 12082, with the same distinct formats for firearms that are pistols, revolvers, and other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person and for firearms that are not pistols, revolvers, and other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, except that instead of the listing of information concerning a dealer, the LEFT shall contain the name, telephone number, and address of the law enforcement agency.

(3) The original of each LEFT shall be retained in consecutive order. Each book of 50 originals shall become the permanent record of transactions that shall be retained not less than three years from the date of the last transaction and shall be provided for the inspection of any peace officer, department employee designated by the Attorney General, or agents of the federal Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms upon the presentation of proper identification.

(4) Ink shall be used to complete each LEFT. The agency shall ensure that all information is provided legibly. The purchaser and seller shall be informed that incomplete or illegible information delays purchases.

(5) Each original LEFT shall contain instructions regarding the procedure for completion of the form and the routing of the form. The agency shall comply with these instructions which shall include the information set forth in this subdivision.

(6) One firearm transaction shall be reported on each LEFT. For purposes of this paragraph, a "transaction" means a single sale, loan, or transfer of any number of firearms that are not pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person between the same two persons.

(d) The following procedures shall be followed in processing the purchase:

(1) Without waiting for the conclusion of any waiting period to elapse, the seller shall immediately deliver the firearm to the agency solely to complete the LEFT. Upon completion of the LEFT, the firearm shall be immediately returned by the agency to the seller without waiting for the waiting period to elapse.

(2) The purchaser shall be required to present clear evidence of his or her identity and age, as defined in Section 12071, to the agency. The agency shall require the purchaser to complete the original and one copy of the LEFT. An employee of the agency shall then affix his or her signature as a witness to the signature and identification of the purchaser.

(3) Two copies of the LEFT shall, on that date of purchase, be placed in the mail, postage prepaid to the department at Sacramento. The third copy shall be provided to the purchaser and the fourth copy to the seller.

(4) The department shall examine its records, as well as those records that it is authorized to request from the State Department of Mental Health pursuant to Section 8104 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, in order to determine if the purchaser is a person described in Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(5) If the department determines that the copies of the LEFT submitted to it pursuant to paragraph (3) contain any blank spaces or inaccurate, illegible, or incomplete information, preventing identification of the purchaser or the firearm to be purchased, or if any fee required pursuant to paragraph (6) is not submitted by the agency in conjunction with submission of the copies of the LEFT, or if the department determines that the person is a person described in Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, it shall immediately notify the agency of that fact. Upon notification by the department, the purchaser shall submit any fee required pursuant to paragraph (6), as appropriate, and if notification by the department is received by the agency at any time prior to delivery of the firearm, the delivery of the firearm shall be withheld until the conclusion of the waiting period described in paragraph (7).

(6) The department and the agency may both charge a fee not to exceed the actual cost of processing the purchaser sufficient to reimburse both of the following:

(A) The agency for processing the transfer.

(B) The department for providing the information. The department shall charge the same fee as it would charge a dealer pursuant to Section 12082.

(7) The firearm shall not be delivered to the purchaser as follows:

(A) Prior to January 1, 1996, within 15 days of application for the purchase or, after notice by the department pursuant to paragraph (5), within 15 days of the submission to the department of any fees required pursuant to this subdivision, or within 15 days of a corrected LEFT, whichever is later. On or after January 1, 1996, within 15 days of the application for the purchase of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person, or after notice by the department pursuant to paragraph (5), within 15 days of the submission to the department of any fees required pursuant to this subdivision, or within 15 days of the submission to the department of corrected copies of the LEFT, whichever is later. On or after January 1, 1996, within 10 days of the application for purchase of a firearm other than a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person, or after notice by the department pursuant to paragraph (5), or within 10 days of submission to the department of any fees required pursuant to this subdivision, or within 10 days of the submission to the department of corrected copies of the LEFT, whichever is later.

(B) Unless unloaded.

(C) In the case of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person, unless securely wrapped or in a locked container.

(D) Unless the purchaser presents clear evidence of his or her identity and age to the agency.

(E) Whenever the agency is notified by the department that the person is in a prohibited class described in Section 12021 or 12021.1 or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(F) Unless done at the agency's premises.

(G) In the case of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person, commencing April 1, 1994, unless the purchaser presents to the seller a basic firearm safety certificate.

(H) Unless the purchaser is at least 18 years of age.

(e) The action of a law enforcement agency acting pursuant to Section 12084 shall be deemed to be a discretionary act within the meaning of the California Tort Claims Act pursuant to Division 3.6 (commencing with Section 810) of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(f) Whenever the Department of Justice acts pursuant to this section as it pertains to firearms other than pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, its acts or omissions shall be deemed to be discretionary within the meaning of the California Tort Claims Act pursuant to Division 3.6 (commencing with Section 810) of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(g) Any person furnishing a fictitious name or address or knowingly furnishing any incorrect information or knowingly omitting any information required to be provided for the LEFT is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(h) All sums received by the department pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Dealers' Record of Sale Special Account of the General Fund.

SEC. 11. Section 12101 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12101. (a) (1) A minor shall not possess a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall not apply if one of the following circumstances exists:

(A) The minor is accompanied by his or her parent or legal guardian, and the minor is actively engaged in, or is in direct transit to or from, a lawful, recreational sport, including, but not limited to, competitive shooting, or agricultural, ranching, or hunting activity, or a motion picture, television, or video production, or entertainment or theatrical event, the nature of which involves this use of a firearm.

(B) The minor is accompanied by a responsible adult, the minor has the prior written consent of his or her parent or legal guardian, and the minor is actively engaged in, or is in direct transit to or from, a lawful, recreational sport, including, but not limited to, competitive shooting, or agricultural, ranching, or hunting activity, or a motion picture, television, or video production, or entertainment or theatrical event, the nature of which involves the use of a firearm.

(C) The minor is at least 16 years of age, the minor has the prior written consent of his or her parent or legal guardian, and the minor is actively engaged in, or is in direct transit to or from, a lawful recreational sport, including, but not limited to, competitive shooting, or agricultural, ranching, or hunting activity, or a motion picture, television, or video production, or entertainment or theatrical event, the nature of which involves the use of a firearm.

(D) The minor has the prior written consent of his or her parent or legal guardian, the minor is on lands owned or lawfully possessed by his or her parent or legal guardian, and the minor is actively engaged in, or is in direct transit to or from, a lawful, recreational sport, including, but not limited to, competitive shooting, or agricultural, ranching, or hunting activity, or a motion picture, television, or video production, or entertainment or theatrical event, the nature of which involves the use of a firearm.

(b) (1) A minor shall not possess live ammunition.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall not apply if one of the following circumstances exists:

(A) The minor has the written consent of his or her parent or legal guardian to possess live ammunition.

(B) The minor is accompanied by his or her parent or legal guardian.

(C) The minor is actively engaged in, or is going to or from, a lawful, recreational sport, including, but not limited to, competitive shooting, or agricultural, ranching, or hunting activity, the nature of which involves the use of a firearm.

(c) Every minor who violates this section shall be punished as follows:

(1) By imprisonment in the state prison or in a county jail if one of the following applies:

(A) The minor has been found guilty previously of violating this section.

(B) The minor has been found guilty previously of an offense specified in subdivision (b) of Section 12021.1 or in Section 12020, 12220, 12520, or 12560.

(C) The minor has been found guilty of a violation of paragraph

(1) of subdivision (a).

(2) Violations of this section other than those violations specified in paragraph (1) shall be punishable as a misdemeanor.

(d) In addition to any other penalty provided by law, a minor who violates this section shall suffer revocation or withholding of issuance of his or her driver's license by the Department of Motor Vehicles, until he or she attains the age of 18 years, pursuant to direction from the court. If the driver's license or driving privilege is under suspension or revocation until the age of 18 years at the time that a violation of this section is found, the court shall direct the department to extend the period of suspension or revocation for an additional period of up to one year. If, in the judgment of the court, a personal or family hardship exists that requires the minor to have a driver's license for his or her own, or a member of his or her own family's, employment or for medically related purposes, the revocation may be waived and the court may restrict the minor's driving privilege to only those employment or medical purposes.

(e) As used in this section, "responsible adult" means a person at least 21 years of age who is not within a class of persons prohibited from owning or possessing firearms by virtue of Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code, or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(f) It is not the intent of the Legislature in enacting the amendments to this section or to Section 12078 to expand or narrow the application of current statutory or judicial authority to limit the rights of minors to be loaned or to possess live ammunition or a firearm for the purpose of self-defense or the defense of others.

SEC. 12. Section 8101 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

8101. (a) Any person who shall knowingly supply, sell, give, or allow possession or control of a deadly weapon to any person described in Section 8100 or 8103 shall be punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, or in a county jail for a period of not exceeding one year, by a fine of not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both the fine and imprisonment.

(b) Any person who shall knowingly supply, sell, give, or allow possession or control of a firearm to any person described in Section 8100 or 8103 shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or four years.

(c) "Deadly weapon," as used in this section, has the meaning prescribed by Section 8100.

SEC. 13. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 14. Section 7.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 12072 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and only in part by SB 1308. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 12072 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 1308, in which case Section 7 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 15. Section 8.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 12076 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and SB 1308. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 12076 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 1308, in which case Section 8 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 16. Section 9.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 12078 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and SB 1308. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 12078 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 1308, in which case Section 9 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 17. This bill shall become operative only if Assembly Bill 2428 of the 1993–94 Regular Session of the Legislature is chaptered and becomes effective on or before January 1, 1995.

CHAPTER 452

An act to amend Sections 1731, 1767.1, and 1769 of, to add Section 1000.1 to, and to add Article 11 (commencing with Section 1910) to Chapter 1 of Division 2.5 of, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to minors.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1000.1 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

1000.1. In order to provide counties with alternative placement options, the Department of the Youth Authority is authorized to establish, maintain, or facilitate the development of regional centers, which may be available on a contract basis to counties for the placement of wards. The regional centers, depending on the services needed, may provide, but are not limited to, the following: mental health programs, short-term incarceration and treatment services, and boot camp programs. This section shall not be interpreted to prohibit counties from jointly developing regional centers.

SEC. 2. Section 1731 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

1731. (a) When in any criminal proceeding in a court of this State a person has been convicted of a public offense and the person was a minor when he or she committed the offense, the court shall determine whether the person was less than 21 years of age at the time of the apprehension from which the criminal proceeding resulted. Proceedings in a juvenile court in respect to a juvenile are not criminal proceedings as that phrase is used in this chapter.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no court shall have the power to order an adult convicted of a public offense in a court of criminal jurisdiction to be committed to the Youth Authority. This subdivision shall not apply to a transfer pursuant to Section 1731.5.

SEC. 3. Section 1767.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

1767.1. At least 30 days before the Youthful Offender Parole Board meets to review or consider the parole of any person who has been committed to the control of the Department of the Youth Authority for the commission of any offense described in subdivision (b) of Section 707, or for the commission of an offense in violation of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 261 of the Penal Code, the board shall send written notice of the hearing to each of the following persons: the judge of the court which committed the person to the Youth Authority, the attorney for the person, the district attorney of the county from which the person was committed, and the law enforcement agency that investigated the case.

Each of the persons so notified shall have the right to submit a written statement to the board at least 10 days prior to the scheduled hearing for the board's consideration at the hearing. Nothing in this section shall be construed to permit any person so notified to attend the hearing. With respect to the parole of any person over the age of 18 years, the presiding officer shall state findings and supporting reasons for the decision of the board at the hearing. The findings and reasons shall be reduced to writing, and shall be made available for inspection by members of the public no later than 30 days from the date of the hearing.

The Youthful Offender Parole Board, when it sends the required written notice to the judge of the court which committed the person to the Department of the Youth Authority, shall send the progress report prepared by the Department of the Youth Authority regarding the ward.

SEC. 4. Section 1769 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

1769. (a) Every person committed to the Department of the Youth Authority by a juvenile court shall, except as provided in subdivision (b), be discharged upon the expiration of a two-year period of control or when the person reaches his or her 21st birthday, whichever occurs later, unless an order for further detention has been made by the committing court pursuant to Article 6 (commencing with Section 1800).

(b) Every person committed to the Department of the Youth Authority by a juvenile court who has been found to be a person described in Section 602 by reason of the violation of any of the offenses listed in subdivision (b) of Section 707, shall be discharged upon the expiration of a two-year period of control or when the person reaches his or her 25th birthday, whichever occurs later, unless an order for further detention has been made by the committing court pursuant to Article 6 (commencing with Section 1800).

SEC. 5. Article 11 (commencing with Section 1910) is added to Chapter 1 of Division 2.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

Article 11. Classification and Information System

1910. The Legislature hereby finds that wards are committed to the Department of the Youth Authority at rates and for seriousness of risks and needs which vary considerably from county to county. Current law requires the Department of the Youth Authority to accept a person committed to it if it believes that the person can be materially benefited by its reformatory and educational discipline, and if it has adequate facilities to provide that care. The Legislature also finds that, with an increasing youth population in California, some persons committed to the department may not be accepted because of insufficient facilities. Further, objective systems for classifying the risks posed by a minor and the needs of the minor for training and treatment can increase the equity in acceptance decisions and allocate custody and services to the minors throughout the state who can most materially benefit from a Youth Authority commitment.

1911. The Department of the Youth Authority shall, as resources are available, develop and implement a system to classify persons committed to the department. In developing this classification system, the Department of the Youth Authority shall consult with the Association of Chief Probation Officers of California and the Juvenile Court Judges section of the California Judges Association. This classification system shall include objective categories to assess the risks and needs of each person committed to the Department of the Youth Authority. The aggregate information from the classification system shall become the basis for the development of standardized criteria to determine suitability for commitment to the Department of the Youth Authority.

1912. The Department of the Youth Authority shall, as resources are available, conduct an assessment of the feasibility and costs of developing and implementing a statewide juvenile information system, to include information on the offenses, characteristics, and dispositions of individual youths from referral to probation through discharge from the Department of the Youth Authority and for a period of time after discharge. This system shall be designed to ensure that the Department of the Youth Authority receives the information needed for each person committed to it, in order to plan properly for his or her program of training and treatment. This system shall also be designed to permit the Department of the Youth Authority to obtain information on subsequent offenses and other characteristics after release from Youth Authority institutions and after discharge from parole, for use in evaluating the department's programs.
