AND DIGESTS OF MEASURES

Constitution of 1879 as Amended

Measures Submitted to Vote of Electors, Primary Election, June 7, 1994
and General Election, November 8, 1994

General Laws, Amendments to the Codes, Resolutions, and Constitutional Amendments passed by the California Legislature

1993–94 Regular Session
1993–94 First Extraordinary Session

Compiled by
BION M. GREGORY

require the successful bidder to file with the board good and sufficient bonds to be approved by the board conditioned upon the faithful performance of the contract and upon the payment of all claims for labor and material, the bonds to contain the terms and conditions set forth in Title 15 (commencing with Section 3082) of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, and to be subject to the provisions of that title. The board shall also have the right to reject any bid, in which case the board may advertise for new bids.

(b) In the event no proposals are received pursuant to advertisement, where the estimated cost of the work does not exceed two thousand dollars ($2,000), the board of directors, by unanimous vote of all members present, may without advertising for bids, have the work done by force account. In case of an emergency, if notice for bids to let contracts will not be given, the board shall comply with Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 22050).

(c) The district may purchase in the open market without advertisement for bids, materials and supplies for use in any work either under contract or by force account; provided, however, that materials and supplies for use in any new construction work or improvement, except work referred to in subdivision (b), may not be purchased if the cost exceeds two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500), without advertising for bids and awarding the contract to the lowest responsible bidder.

(d) The provisions of this section have no application to a contract entered into with the United States under the authority of Section 3 of Chapter 2127 of the Statutes of 1959, or to a contract authorized by a vote of the electorate of the district.

SEC. 62. Section 21441 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

21441. All contracts for any improvement or unit of work, when the cost according to the estimate of the engineer will exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder or bidders as provided in this article. The board shall first determine whether the contract shall be let as a single unit, or divided into severable parts. The board shall advertise for bids by three insertions in a daily newspaper of general circulation or by two insertions in a weekly newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the authority, inviting sealed proposals for the construction or performance of the improvement work. The call for bids shall state whether the work shall be performed in one unit or divided into parts. The work may be let under a single contract or several contracts, as stated in the call. The board shall require the successful bidders to file with the board good and sufficient bonds to be approved by the board conditioned upon the faithful performance of the contract and upon the payment of their claims for labor and material. The bonds shall comply with Title 15 (commencing with Section 3082) of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code. The board may reject any bid. In the event all proposals are rejected or no proposals are received, or the estimated cost of the work does not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000), or the work consists of channel protection, maintenance work, or emergency work, the board may have the work done by force account without advertising for bids. In case of an emergency, if notice for bids to let contracts will not be given, the board shall comply with Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 22050). The authority may purchase in the open market without advertising for bids, materials and supplies for use in any work, either under contract or by force account.

SEC. 63. Section 21451 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

21451. All contracts for any improvement or unit of work, when the cost according to the estimate of the engineer will exceed twelve thousand five hundred dollars ($12,500), shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder or bidders as provided in this article. The board shall first determine whether the contract shall be let as a single unit or divided into severable parts. The board shall advertise for bids by three insertions in a daily newspaper of general circulation or by two insertions in a weekly newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the agency, inviting sealed proposals for the construction or performance of the improvement or work. The call for bids shall state whether the work shall be performed in one unit or divided into parts. The work may be let under a single contract or several contracts, as stated in the call. The board shall require the successful bidders to file with the board good and sufficient bonds to be approved by the board conditioned upon the faithful performance of the contract and upon the payment of their claims for labor and material. The payment bonds shall comply with Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 3247) of Division 3 of Title 15 of the Civil Code. The board may reject any bid. If all proposals are rejected or no proposals are received, or the estimated cost of the work does not exceed twelve thousand five hundred dollars ($12,500), or the work consists of channel protection, maintenance work, or emergency work, the board may have the work done by force account without advertising for bids. In case of an emergency, if notice for bids to let contracts will not be given, the board shall comply with Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 22050). The agency may purchase in the open market without advertising for bids, materials and supplies for use in any work, either under contract or by force account.

SEC. 64. Section 21461 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

21461. All contracts for any improvement or unit of work, when the cost according to the estimate of the engineer will exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000), shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder or bidders as provided in this article. The board shall first determine whether the contract shall be let as a single unit, or divided into severable parts. The board shall advertise for bids by three insertions in a daily newspaper of general circulation or by two insertions in a weekly newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the agency, inviting sealed proposals for the construction or performance of the improvement or work. The call for bids shall state whether the work shall be performed in one unit or divided into parts. The work may be let under a single contract or several contracts, as stated in such call. The board shall require the successful bidders to file with the board good and sufficient bonds to be approved by the board conditioned upon the faithful performance of the contract and upon payment of their claims for labor and material. The bonds shall comply with Title 15 (commencing with Section 3082) of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code. The board may reject any and all bids. In the event all proposals are rejected or no proposals are received, or the estimated cost of the work does not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000), or the work consists of channel protection, maintenance work, or emergency work, the board of supervisors may have the work done by force account without advertising for bids. In case of an emergency, if notice for bids to let contracts will not be given, the board shall comply with Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 22050). The district may purchase in the open market without advertising for bids, materials and supplies for use in any work, either under contract or by force account.

SEC. 65. Section 21472 is added to the Public Contract Code, to read:

21472. In case of an emergency, if notice for bids to let contracts will not be given, the agency shall respond to the emergency pursuant to Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 22050).

SEC. 66. Section 21482 is added to the Public Contract Code, to read:

21482. In case of an emergency, if notice for bids to let contracts will not be given, the agency shall comply with Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 22050).

SEC. 67. Section 21491 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

21491. (a) All contracts for any improvement or unit of work, when the cost according to the estimate of the engineer will exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000), shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder or bidders as provided in this article. The board shall first determine whether the contract shall be let as a single unit, or divided into severable parts. The board shall advertise for bids by three insertions in a daily newspaper of general circulation or by two insertions in a weekly newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the agency, inviting sealed proposals for the construction or performance of the improvement or work. The call for bids shall state whether the work shall be performed in one unit or divided into parts. The work may be let under a single contract or several contracts, as stated in such call. The board shall require the successful bidders to file with the board good and sufficient bonds to be approved by the board conditioned upon the faithful performance of the contract and upon the payment of their claims for labor and material. The bonds shall comply with Title 15 (commencing with Section 3082) of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code. The board may reject any bid.

(b) In the event all proposals are rejected or no proposals are received, or the estimated cost of the work does not exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or the work consists of channel protection, maintenance work, or emergency work, the board may have the work done by force account without advertising for bids. In case of an emergency, if notice for bids to let contracts will not be given, the board shall comply with Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 22050).

(c) The agency may purchase in the open market without advertising for bids, materials and supplies for use in any work, either under contract or by force account; provided, however, that materials and supplies for use in any new construction work or improvement, except work referred to in subdivision (b), may not be purchased if the cost exceeds ten thousand dollars ($10,000), without advertising for bids and awarding the contract to the lowest responsible bidder.

SEC. 68. Section 21492 is added to the Public Contract Code, to read:

21492. In case of an emergency, if notice for bids to let contracts will not be given, the board shall comply with Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 22050).

SEC. 69. Section 21501 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

21501. (a) All contracts for any improvement or unit of work, when the cost according to the estimate of the engineer will exceed fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000), shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder or bidders as provided in this article. The board shall first determine whether the contract shall be let as a single unit, or divided into severable parts. The board shall advertise for bids by three insertions in a daily newspaper of general circulation or by two insertions in a weekly newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the agency, inviting sealed proposals for the construction or performance of the improvement or work. The call for bids shall state whether the work shall be performed in one unit or divided into parts. The work may be let under a single contract or several contracts, as stated in such call. The board shall require the successful bidders to file with the board good and sufficient bonds to be approved by the board conditioned upon the faithful performance of the contract and upon the payment of their claims for labor and material. The bonds shall comply with Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 3247) of Title 15 of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code. The board may reject any and all bids.

(b) The board may have work done by force account without advertising for bids or by informal bidding procedures in any of the following situations:

(1) All proposals are rejected.

(2) No proposals are received.

(3) The estimated cost of the work does not exceed fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) until January 1, 1989. After January 1, 1989, the estimated cost of the work shall not exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

(4) The work consists of channel protection.

(5) The work consists of maintenance work, except that informal bidding procedures may be used only where the estimated cost does not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000).

(6) The work consists of emergency work. In case of an emergency, if notice for bids to let contracts will not be given, the board shall comply with Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 22050).

(c) The agency may purchase in the open market without advertising for bids, materials and supplies for use in any work, either under contract or by force account, except that, materials and supplies for use in any new construction work or improvement, except work referred to in subdivision (b), may not be purchased, if the cost exceeds fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000), without advertising for bids and awarding the contract to the lowest responsible bidder.

(d) As used in this section, "informal bidding procedures" means that the board shall, at a minimum, award a contract to the lowest responsible bidder after publishing a notice which generally describes the work to be performed and invites written bids in a newspaper of general circulation in the agency once a week for two successive weeks. The board shall obtain a minimum of three written bids.

SEC. 70. Section 21511 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

21511. (a) All contracts for any improvement or unit of work, when the cost according to the estimate of the engineer will exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000), shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder or bidders as provided in this article. The board shall first determine whether the contract shall be let as a single unit or divided into severable parts. The board shall advertise for bids by three insertions in a daily newspaper of general circulation or by two insertions in a weekly newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the agency, inviting sealed proposals for the construction or performance of the improvement or work. The call for bids shall state whether the work shall be performed in one unit or divided into parts. The work may be let under a single contract or several contracts, as stated in the call. The board shall require the successful bidders to file with the board good and sufficient bonds to be approved by the board conditioned upon the faithful performance of the contract and upon the payment of their claims for labor and material. The bonds shall comply with Title 15 (commencing with Section 3082) of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code. The board may reject any and all bids.

(b) In the event all proposals are rejected or no proposals are received, or the estimated cost of the work does not exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or the work consists of channel protection, maintenance work, or emergency work, the board may have the work done by force account without advertising for bids. In case of an emergency, if notice for bids to let contracts will not be given, the board shall comply with Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 22050).

(c) The agency may purchase in the open market without advertising for bids, materials and supplies for use in any work, either under contract or by force account; provided, however, that materials and supplies for use in any new construction work or improvement, except work referred to in subdivision (b), may not be purchased, if the cost exceeds ten thousand dollars ($10,000), without advertising for bids and awarding the contract to the lowest responsible bidder.

SEC. 71. Section 21521 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

21521. All contracts for any improvement or unit of work, when the cost according to the estimate of the engineer will exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder or bidders as provided in this article. The board shall first determine whether the contract shall be let as a single unit, or divided into severable parts. The board shall advertise for bids by three insertions in a daily newspaper of general circulation or by two insertions in a weekly newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the agency, inviting sealed proposals for the construction or performance of the improvement or work. The call for bids shall state whether the work shall be performed in one unit or divided into parts. The work may be let under a single contract or several contracts, as stated in the call. The board shall require the successful bidders to file with the board good and sufficient bonds to be approved by the board conditioned upon the faithful performance of the contract and upon the payment of their claims for labor and material. The bonds shall comply with Title 15 (commencing with Section 3082) of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code. The board may reject any bid. In the event all proposals are rejected or no proposals are received, or the estimated cost of the work does not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000), or the work consists of channel protection, maintenance work, or emergency work, the board may have the work done by force account without advertising for bids. In case of an emergency, if notice for bids to let contracts will not be given, the board shall comply with Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 22050). In that event a majority vote of all board members shall be required. The board may purchase in the open market without advertising for bids, materials and supplies for use in any work, either under contract or by force account.

SEC. 72. Section 21531 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

21531. (a) The Castaic Lake Water Agency shall have power to prescribe methods for the construction of works and for the letting of contracts for the construction of works, structures, or equipment, or the performance or furnishing of labor, materials, or supplies, necessary or convenient for carrying out any of the purposes of this act or for the acquisition or disposal of any real or personal property; provided, that all contracts for any improvement or unit of work, when the cost according to the estimate of the engineer will exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000), shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder or bidders as provided in this article. The board shall first determine whether the contract shall be let as a single unit or divided into severable parts. The board shall advertise for bids by three insertions in a daily newspaper of general circulation published in the agency or by two insertions in a nondaily newspaper of general circulation published in the agency or, if no newspaper is published in the agency, in any newspaper of general circulation distributed in the agency, inviting sealed proposals for the construction or performance of the improvement or work. The call for bids shall state whether the work shall be performed in one unit or divided into parts. The work may be let under a single contract or several contracts, as stated in the call. The board shall require the successful bidders to file with the board good and sufficient bonds to be approved by the board conditioned upon the faithful performance of the contract and upon the payment of their claims for labor and material. The bonds shall comply with Title 15 (commencing with Section 3082) of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code. The board may reject any bid.

(b) In the event all proposals are rejected or no proposals are received, or the estimated cost of the work does not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000), or the work consists of channel protection, maintenance work, or emergency work, the board may have the work done by force account without advertising for bids. In case of an emergency, if notice for bids to let contracts will not be given. The board shall comply with Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 22050).

(c) The agency may purchase in the open market without advertising for bids, materials and supplies for use in any work, either under contract or by force account; provided, however, that materials and supplies for use in any new construction work or improvement, except work referred to in subdivision (b), may not be purchased if the cost exceeds five thousand dollars ($5,000), without advertising for bids and awarding the contract to the lowest responsible bidder.

SEC. 73. Section 21541 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

21541. (a) The Crestline-Lake Arrowhead Water Agency shall have power to prescribe methods for the construction of works and for the letting of contracts for the construction of works, structures, or equipment, or the performance or furnishing of labor, materials, or supplies, necessary or convenient for carrying out any of the purposes of this act or for the acquisition or disposal of any real or personal property; provided, that all contracts for the construction of any improvement or unit of work, when the cost, according to the estimate of the engineer, will exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000), shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder or bidders as provided in this article. The board shall first determine whether the contract shall be let as a single unit or divided into severable parts. The board shall advertise for bids by three insertions in a daily newspaper of general circulation or by two insertions in a weekly newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the agency, inviting sealed proposals for the construction or performance of the improvement or work. The call for bids shall state whether the work shall be performed in one unit or divided into parts. The work may be let under a single contract or several contracts, as stated in the call. The board shall require the successful bidders to file with the board good and sufficient bonds to be approved by the board conditioned upon the faithful performance of the contract and upon the payment of their claims for labor and material. The bonds shall comply with Title 15 (commencing with Section 3082) of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code. The board may reject any bid.

(b) In the event all proposals are rejected or no proposals are received, or the estimated cost of the work does not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000), or the work consists of channel protection, maintenance work, or emergency work, the board may have the work done by force account without advertising for bids. In case of an emergency, if notice for bids to let contracts will not be given, the board shall comply with Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 22050).

(c) The agency may purchase in the open market without advertising for bids, materials and supplies for use in any work, either under contract or by force account; provided, however, that materials and supplies for use in any new construction work or improvement, except work referred to in subdivision (b), may not be purchased if the cost exceeds five thousand dollars ($5,000), without advertising for bids and awarding the contract to the lowest responsible bidder.

SEC. 74. Section 21552 is added to the Public Contract Code, to read:

21552. In case of an emergency, if notice for bids to let contracts will not be given, the district shall comply with Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 22050).

SEC. 75. Section 21567 of the Public Contract Code is repealed.

SEC. 76. Section 21567 is added to the Public Contract Code, to read:

21567. (a) Notwithstanding the requirements of Section 21566, contracts, in writing or otherwise, may be let without advertising for, or inviting bids, when any repairs, alterations, or other work, or the purchase of materials, supplies, equipment, or other property is deemed by the board to be for an emergency.

(b) In case of an emergency, if notice for bids to let contracts will not be given, the board shall comply with Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 22050).

SEC. 77. Section 21572 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

21572. Any improvement or unit of work, except as provided in this article, estimated to cost in excess of five thousand dollars ($5,000), shall be done by contract and let to the lowest responsible bidder in the manner provided in this article. The board of directors of the agency shall advertise by three insertions in a daily newspaper of general circulation or two insertions in a weekly newspaper of general circulation published in the agency, inviting sealed proposals for the construction of the work before any contract shall be made, and may let by contract separately any part of the work. The board shall require the successful bidder to file with the board good and sufficient bonds to be approved by the board, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the contract, and upon the payment of the claims for labor and material, the bonds to contain the terms and conditions set forth in Title 15 (commencing with Section 3082) of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, and to be subject to the provisions of that title. The board shall also have the right to reject any and all bids, and readvertise for new bids, or by a two-thirds vote may elect to undertake the work by force account. In the event no proposals are received pursuant to advertisement, or where the estimated cost of such work does not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000), the board of directors by unanimous vote of all members present may without advertising for bids have the work done by force account. In case of an emergency, if notice for bids to let contracts will not be given, the board shall comply with Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 22050). The agency may purchase in the open market without advertisement for bids, materials and supplies for use in any work either under contract or by force account.

SEC. 78. Section 21581 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

21581. (a) Any improvement or unit of work when the cost according to the estimate of the engineer will exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000), shall be done by contract and shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder or bidders in the manner provided in this article. The board shall first determine whether the contract shall be let as a single unit or shall be divided into severable parts, or both, according to the best interests of the district. The board shall call for bids and advertise the call by three insertions in a daily newspaper of general circulation or by two insertions in a weekly newspaper of general circulation printed in the district inviting sealed proposals for the construction or performance of the improvement or work before any contract is made. The call for bids shall state whether the work is to be performed as a unit or shall be divided into severable specific parts, or both, as stated in the call. The board may let the work by single contract for the whole or it may divide the work into severable parts by separate contracts, as stated in the call, according to the best interests of the district. The board shall require the successful bidder or bidders to file with the board a good and sufficient bond to be approved by the board conditioned upon the payment of their claims for labor and material, the bond to contain the terms and conditions set forth in Title 15 (commencing with Section 3082) of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code and to be subject to the provisions of that title. The board shall also have the right to reject any and all bids and readvertise for new bids, or by a two-thirds vote may elect to undertake the work by force account.

(b) In the event no proposals are received pursuant to advertisement, or the estimated cost of the work does not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000), or the work consists of channel protection, maintenance work, or emergency work, the board of supervisors may, without advertising for bids, have the work done by employees of the district, by day labor, under the direction of the board, by contract, or by any combination of those methods. In case of an emergency, if notice for bids to let contracts will not be given, the board shall comply with Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 22050).

(c) The district may acquire in the open market without advertising for bids, materials, equipment, and supplies for use in any work or for any other purpose; provided, however, that materials and supplies for use in any new construction work or improvement, except work referred to in subdivision (b), may not be purchased if the cost exceeds five thousand dollars ($5,000), without advertising for bids and awarding the contract to the lowest responsible bidder.

SEC. 79. Section 21591 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

21591. (a) Any improvement or unit of work, when the cost, according to the estimate of the engineer, will exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), shall be done by contract and shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder or bidders as provided in this article. The board shall first determine whether the contract shall be let as a single unit or divided into severable parts. The board shall advertise for bids by three insertions in a daily newspaper of general circulation or by two insertions in a weekly newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the agency, if there is a newspaper printed and published in the agency, inviting sealed proposals for the construction or performance of the improvement or work. The call for bids shall state whether the work shall be performed in one unit or divided into parts. The work may be let under a single contract or several contracts, as stated in the call. The board shall require the successful bidders to file with the board good and sufficient bonds to be approved by the board conditioned upon the faithful performance of the contract and upon the payment of their claims for labor and material. The bonds shall comply with Title 15 (commencing with Section 3082) of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code. The board may reject any and all bids and readvertise, or by a two-thirds vote may elect to undertake work by force account.

(b) If no proposals are received, or the estimated cost of the work does not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), or the work consists of channel protection, maintenance work, or emergency work, the board may have the work done by force account without advertising for bids. In case of an emergency, if notice for bids to let contracts will not be given, the board shall comply with Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 22050).

(c) The agency may purchase in the open market without advertising for bids, materials and supplies for use in any work, either under contract or by force account; provided, however, that materials and supplies for use in any new construction work or improvement, except work referred to in subdivision (b), may not be purchased if the cost exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), without advertising for bids and awarding the contract to the lowest responsible bidder.

SEC. 80. Section 21601 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

21601. Any improvement or unit of work, when the cost, according to the estimate of the engineer, will exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000), shall be done by contract and let to the lowest responsible bidder or bidders as provided in this article. The board shall first determine whether the contract shall be let as a single unit, or divided into severable parts. The board shall advertise for bids by three insertions in a daily newspaper of general circulation or by two insertions in a weekly newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the agency, inviting sealed proposals for the construction or performance of the improvement or work. The call for bids shall state whether the work shall be performed in one unit or divided into parts. The work may be let under a single contract or several contracts, as stated in the call. The board shall require the successful bidders to file with the board good and sufficient bonds to be approved by the board conditioned upon the faithful performance of the contract and upon payment of their claims for labor and material. The bonds shall comply with Title 15 (commencing with Section 3082) of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code. The board may reject any and all bids and readvertise, or, by a two-thirds vote, may elect to undertake the work by force account. In the event no proposals are received, or the estimated cost of the work does not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000), or the work consists of channel protection, maintenance work, or emergency work, the board of supervisors may have the work done by force account without advertising for bids. In case an emergency, if notice for bids to let contracts will not be given, the board shall comply with Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 22050). The district may purchase in the open market without advertising for bids, materials, and supplies for use in any work, either under contract or by force account.

SEC. 81. Section 21618 is added to the Public Contract Code, to read:

21618. In case of an emergency, if notice for bids to let contracts will not be given, the board shall comply with Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 22050).

SEC. 82. Section 21621 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

21621. Any improvement or unit of work, when the cost, according to the estimate of the engineer, will exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000), shall be done by contract and shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder or bidders in the manner provided in this article. The board shall first determine whether the contract shall be let as a single unit or shall be divided into severable parts, according to the best interests of the district. The board shall call for bids and advertise the call by publication pursuant to Section 6061.3 of the Government Code in a newspaper of general circulation published or circulated in the district, inviting sealed proposals for the construction or performance of the improvement or work before any contract is made. The call for bids shall state whether the work is to be performed as a unit or is to be divided into parts, as stated in the call. The board may let the work by single contract or it may divide the work into parts by separate contracts, as stated in the call.

SEC. 83. Section 21624 is added to the Public Contract Code, to read:

21624. In case of an emergency, if notice for bids to let contracts will not be given, the board shall comply with Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 22050).

SEC. 84. Section 21631 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

21631. (a) Any improvement or unit of work when the cost, according to the estimate of the engineer, will exceed six thousand five hundred dollars ($6,500), shall be done by contract and shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder or bidders in the manner provided in this article. The board shall first determine whether the contract shall be let as a single unit, or shall be divided into severable parts, or both, according to the best interests of the district. The board shall call for bids and advertise the call by three insertions in a daily newspaper of general circulation or by two insertions in a weekly newspaper of general circulation printed in the district inviting sealed proposals for the construction or performance of the improvement or work before any contract is made. The call for bids shall state whether the work is to be performed as a unit or shall be divided into severable parts, or both, as stated in the call. The board may let the work by single contract or it may divide the work into severable parts by separate contracts, as stated in the call, according to the best interests of the district. The board shall require the successful bidder or bidders to file with the board a good and sufficient bond, to be approved by the board, conditioned upon the payment of their claims for labor and material. The bond shall contain the terms and conditions set forth in Title 15 (commencing with Section 3082) of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code and be subject to the provisions of that title. The board may reject any and all bids and readvertise for new bids, or by a two-thirds vote may elect to undertake the work by force account.

(b) If no proposals are received pursuant to advertisement or the estimated cost of the work does not exceed six thousand five hundred dollars ($6,500), or the work consists of channel protection, maintenance work, or emergency work, the board of supervisors may, without advertising for bids, have the work done by employees of the district, by day labor, under the direction of the board, by contract, or by a combination of those methods. In case of an emergency, if notice for bids to let contracts will not be given, the board shall comply with Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 22050).

(c) The district may acquire in the open market, without advertising for bids, materials, equipment, and supplies for use in any work or for any other purpose; provided, however, that materials and supplies for use in any new construction work or improvement, except that work referred to in subdivision (b), may not be purchased if the cost exceeds six thousand five hundred dollars ($6,500), without advertising for bids and awarding the contract to the lowest responsible bidder.

SEC. 85. Section 21641 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

21641. (a) All contracts for the construction of any unit of work, except as provided, estimated to cost in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder in the manner provided in this article.

(b) The board shall advertise by three insertions in a daily newspaper of general circulation or two insertions in a weekly newspaper of general circulation published in the district inviting sealed proposals for the construction of the work before any contract shall be made, and may let by contract separately any part of the work. The board shall require the successful bidder to file with the board good and sufficient bonds to be approved by the board conditioned upon the faithful performance of the contract and upon the payment of the claims for labor and material. The board may reject any bid.

(c) If all proposals are rejected or no proposals are received pursuant to advertisement, or where the estimated cost of the work does not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), or where the work consists of channel protection, maintenance work, or emergency work, the board, by unanimous vote of all members present, may, without advertising for bids, have the work done by force account. In case of an emergency, if notice for bids to let contracts will not be given, the board shall comply with Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 22050). The district may purchase in the open market, without advertising for bids, materials and supplies for use in any work either under contract or by force account.

(d) The provisions of this section have no application to a contract entered into with the United States or to a contract authorized by a vote of the eligible voters of the district or a zone.

SEC. 86. Section 22035 of the Public Contract Code is repealed.

SEC. 87. Section 22035 is added to the Public Contract Code, to read:

22035. (a) In cases of emergency when repair or replacements are necessary, the governing body may proceed at once to replace or repair any public facility without adopting plans, specifications, strain sheets, or working details, or giving notice for bids to let contracts. The work may be done by day labor under the direction of the governing body, by contractor, or by a combination of the two.

(b) In case of an emergency, if notice for bids to let contracts will not be given, the public agency shall comply with Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 22050).

SEC. 88. Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 22050) is added to Part 3 of Division 2 of the Public Contract Code, to read:

CHAPTER 2.5. EMERGENCY CONTRACTING PROCEDURES

22050. (a) (1) In the case of an emergency, a public agency, pursuant to a four-fifths vote of the governing body, may repair or replace a public facility, take any directly related and immediate action required by that emergency, and procure the necessary equipment, services, and supplies for those purposes, without giving notice for bids to let contracts.

(2) Before a governing body takes any action pursuant to paragraph (1), it shall make a finding, based on substantial evidence set forth in the minutes of its meeting, that the emergency will not permit a delay resulting from a competitive solicitation for bids, and that the action is necessary to respond to the emergency.

(b) (1) The governing body, by a four-fifths vote, may delegate, by resolution or ordinance, to the appropriate county administrative officer, city manager, chief engineer, or other nonelected agency officer the authority to order any action pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a).

(2) If the public agency has no county administrative officer, city manager, chief engineer, or other nonelected agency officer, the governing body, by a four-fifths vote, may delegate to an elected officer the authority to order any action specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a).

(3) If a person with authority delegated pursuant to paragraph (1) or (2) of this section orders any action specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), that person shall report to the governing body, at its next meeting required pursuant to this section, the reasons justifying why the emergency will not permit a delay resulting from a competitive solicitation for bids and why the action is necessary to respond to the emergency.

(c) (1) If the governing body orders any action specified in subdivision (a), the governing body shall review the emergency action at its next regularly scheduled meeting and, except as specified below, at every regularly scheduled meeting thereafter until the action is terminated, to determine, by a four-fifths vote, that there is a need to continue the action. If the governing body meets weekly, it may review the emergency action in accordance with this paragraph every 14 days.

(2) If a person with authority delegated pursuant to subdivision (b) orders any action specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), the governing body shall initially review the emergency action not later than seven days after the action, or at its next regularly scheduled meeting if that meeting will occur not later than 14 days after the action, and at least at every regularly scheduled meeting thereafter until the action is terminated, to determine, by a four-fifths vote, that there is a need to continue the action, unless a person with authority delegated pursuant to subdivision (b) has terminated that action prior to the governing body reviewing the emergency action and making a determination pursuant to this subdivision. If the governing body meets weekly, it may, after the initial review, review the emergency action in accordance with this paragraph every 14 days.

(3) When the governing body reviews the emergency action pursuant to paragraph (1) or (2), it shall terminate the action at the earliest possible date that conditions warrant so that the remainder of the emergency action may be completed by giving notice for bids to let contracts.

(d) As used in this section, "public agency" has the same meaning as defined in Section 22002.

(e) A three-member governing body may take actions pursuant to subdivision (a), (b), or (c) by a two-thirds vote.

(f) This section applies only to emergency action taken pursuant to Sections 20133, 20168, 20193, 20205.1, 20134, 20168, 20205.1, 20213, 20223, 20233, 20253, 20273, 20283, 20293, 20313, 20331, 20567, 20586, 20604, 20635, 20645, 20685, 20736, 20751.1, 20806, 20812, 20914, 20918, 20926, 20931, 20941, 20961, 20991, 21020.2, 21024, 21031, 21043, 21061, 21072, 21081, 21091, 21101, 21111, 21121, 21131, 21141, 21151, 21161, 21171, 21181, 21191, 21196, 21203, 21212, 21221, 21231, 21241, 21251, 21261, 21271, 21290, 21311, 21321, 21331, 21341, 21351, 21361, 21371, 21381, 21391, 21401, 21411, 21421, 21431, 21441, 21451, 21461, 21472, 21482, 21491, 21501, 21511, 21521, 21531, 21541, 21552, 21567, 21572, 21581, 21591, 21601, 21618, 21624, 21631, 21641, and 22035.

CHAPTER 804

An act to add Section 1281.95 to the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to arbitration.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1281.95 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

1281.95. (a) In a binding arbitration of any claim for more than three thousand dollars ($3,000) pursuant to a contract for the construction or improvement of residential property consisting of one to four units, the arbitrator shall, within 10 days following his or her appointment, provide to each party a written declaration under penalty of perjury. This declaration shall disclose (1) whether the arbitrator or his or her employer or arbitration service had or has a personal or professional affiliation with either party, and (2) whether the arbitrator or his or her employer or arbitration service has been selected or designated as an arbitrator by either party in another transaction.

(b) If the arbitrator discloses an affiliation with either party, discloses that the arbitrator has been selected or designated as an arbitrator by either party in another arbitration, or fails to comply with this section, he or she may be disqualified from the arbitration by either party.

(c) A notice of disqualification shall be served within 15 days after the arbitrator makes the required disclosures or fails to comply. The right of a party to disqualify an arbitrator shall be waived if the party fails to serve the notice of disqualification pursuant to this subdivision unless the arbitration makes a material omission or material misrepresentation in his or her disclosure. Nothing in this section shall limit the right of a party to vacate an award or to disqualify an arbitrator pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 1282, Section 1286.2, or any other law or statute.

An act to amend Section 15379.20 of, to amend the heading of Chapter 3.6 (commencing with Section 15379.20) of Part 6.7 of Division 3 of Title 2 of, to amend and renumber Sections 15379.21, 15379.31, 15379.32, and 15379.34 of, to add Sections 15379.23, 15379.24, and 15379.25 to, and to repeal and add Sections 15379.70 and 15379.80 of, the Government Code, relating to postsecondary education.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The heading of Chapter 3.6 (commencing with Section 15379.20) of Part 6.7 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

CHAPTER 3.6. CALIFORNIA COMMUNITY COLLEGES ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

SEC. 2. Section 15379.20 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15379.20. The following definitions govern the construction of this chapter:

(a) "California Community Colleges Economic Development Program," "economic development program," and "ED > Net Program" mean the program, the mission of which is described in Section 15379.21.

(b) "Small Business Innovation Research Program (SBIR)" means that program enacted pursuant to the Small Business Innovation Development Act of 1982 (Public Law 97-219) that provides funds to small businesses to conduct innovative research having commercial application.

(c) "Small business" means a corporation, partnership, sole proprietorship, or individual operating a business for profit with 500 employees or less, including employees employed in any subsidiary or affiliated corporation which otherwise meets the requirements of the federal SBIR program.

(d) "Phase I award" means federal SBIR awards of between twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) and fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) in support of approximately a six-month research effort that will demonstrate to the federal funding agency all of the following:

(1) That the proposing firm can perform high quality research and development.

(2) That the proposed effort is technically feasible.

(3) That sufficient progress had been made to justify a much larger agency investment in Phase II.

(e) "Phase II award" means federal SBIR awards, ranging between two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) and five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), funding the principal research and development effort with a duration normally not exceeding two years.

SEC. 3. Section 15379.21 of the Government Code is amended and renumbered to read:

15379.27. (a) There is hereby created in state government a California Small Business Innovation Research Program for purposes of providing educational, technical, and financial assistance to any California small business enterprise engaging in, or intending to engage in, research and development that is deemed to be innovative and in the long-term interest of the economy of the state.

(b) The California Small Business Innovation and Research Program shall be administered by the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges. Administrative operation and control expenses necessary to carry out this chapter shall be covered by existing resources in the chancellor's office.

SEC. 4. Section 15379.23 is added to the Government Code, to read:

15379.23. Commencing January 1, 1996, notwithstanding Section 7550.5, the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges shall submit an annual report of the economic development program to the Governor and the Legislature.

The report shall be prepared by the chancellor, and, at a minimum, shall contain all of the following information:

(a) A summary of economic development program activities that enhance the programmatic mission, as described in Section 15379.21.

(b) Progress made in eliminating business access barriers to community colleges work force development, retraining, and economic development programs and services.

(c) The type of services provided to colleges and employers and the resulting outcomes.

(d) Statistical data, by factors including, but not limited to, industry, gender, and ethnicity regarding the level of services provided to program participants served by economic development training and technical assistance programs in each program area. The program areas shall include, but need not be limited to, program participants in the California Small Business Innovation Research Pilot Projects, as authorized by Sections 15379.50 and 15379.61, the California Procurement and Technical Assistance Network, as authorized by Section 15397.1, and the regional Business Resource, Assistance and Innovation network infrastructure plan, as authorized by subdivision (c) of Section 15379.25.

(e) A status report on contract education activities.

(f) Recommendations on the level of services to be provided, by program category, for college and participant services for the succeeding fiscal year.

(g) Budget expenditures for the fiscal years reviewed for program performance and outcomes.

SEC. 5. Section 15379.24 is added to the Government Code, to read:

15379.24. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature to maximize the resources of the California Community Colleges to fulfill its role as the primary provider in fulfilling the vocational education and training needs of California business and industry, as described in Section 15379.21. Fulfilling that mission will require strengthened leadership, communication, and liaisons with the private sector as well as with public sector education and training providers. The California Community Colleges shall work with businesses and employers to identify, on a region-by-region basis, work force education and training needs, including the needs of small business, and create networks of service providers that meet identified needs in the most cost-effective and timely manner.

(b) The Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges, not later than April 1, 1995, shall modify and strengthen the existing California Community Colleges Economic Development Program Executive Committee to be comprised of not more than 27 members, including the following:

(1) The Chancellor of the California Community Colleges, or his or her designee.

(2) The chair of the Economic Development and Vocational Education Committee of the Board of Governors.

(3) A faculty representative selected by the Academic Senate.

(4) A classified employee representative selected by an employees bargaining unit.

(5) A labor representative nominated by a statewide labor union and designated by the board of governors.

(6) One representative of each of the 10 California Community Colleges Economic Development Program regions, nominated by the community college chief executive officers of that region, and who are representative of both rural and urban areas of the state.

(7) A representative of the California State University designated by the Chancellor of the California State University.

(8) A representative of the University of California designated by the President of the University of California.

(9) The Secretary of the Trade and Commerce Agency, or his or her designee.

(10) The Director of the Employment Development Department, or his or her designee.

(11) The Superintendent of Public Instruction, or his or her designee.

(12) Representatives of the California Community Colleges Economic Development Program Private Sector and Employer Advisory Council, equal to the number of state representatives, comprised of business, industry, and employers, including small, minority-owned and women-owned businesses, nominated by statewide business, industry, and employer or trade associations.

Private sector and employer members shall be selected by the chancellor and approved by the board of governors.

(c) Members of the committee shall be subject to the conflict-of-interest provisions in Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 87100) of Title 9.

(d) Members of the committee shall be representative of the geographic and ethnic diversity of the state.

(e) Members shall serve without compensation.

(f) The committee shall meet as necessary, but not less than two times annually, and shall report biannually to the Economic Development and Vocational Education Committee of the Board of the Governors of the California Community Colleges.

(g) The chair of the executive committee shall be appointed by majority vote of the committee.

SEC. 6. Section 15379.25 is added to the Government Code, to read:

15379.25. The California Community Colleges Economic Development Program Executive Committee shall serve the California Community Colleges in the following capacity:

(a) Perform policy and advisory functions to the board of governors regarding the California Community Colleges Economic Development Program.

(b) Guide overall program development and implementation and recommend resource development and deployment strategies.

(c) Develop and implement, through community colleges, a regional Business Resource, Assistance, and Innovation network infrastructure plan for each region to support the mission of the economic development program, as described in Section 15379.21, including an assessment of human resource needs in critical high growth industrial sectors. The plan shall integrate all economic development programs and services in the region. The objectives of the plan shall be to provide a full range of services to the region, to coordinate service delivery with other service providers, and to identify gaps in services needed by the region. The plan shall provide a resource inventory of service providers for clients in the region.

(d) Recommend vocational education priorities and explore new avenues for expanding the vocational and technical training role of the California Community Colleges, including strategies to provide access by culturally and ethnically disadvantaged individuals to program resources.

(e) Establish an effective liaison with business and industry to further define the mission of the California Community Colleges Economic Development Program.

(f) Establish connections with other institutions of higher education including the California State University and the University of California to coordinate resources for economic development activities, vocational education, training, and cooperative and compatible network development.

(g) Recommend incentives to strengthen economic development programs within local community college districts, including identification of policy, procedural, and political barriers to that development.

(h) Review published reports and documents relating to the role of community colleges in economic development, as described in Section 15379.21. Upon review of these reports and documents, develop and recommend to the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges and the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges the actions necessary to implement the role of the California Community Colleges in California's economic development.

(i) Review and update the strategic plan of the California Community Colleges Economic Development Program as deemed necessary to maintain the community college support of California's work force and economic competitiveness pursuant to Section 15379.21.

(j) Develop for implementation a resource development plan to expand the services of the economic development program to business and employers pursuant to Section 15379.21 and Article 3 (commencing with Section 15379.40).

SEC. 7. Section 15379.31 of the Government Code is amended and renumbered to read:

15379.22. (a) After conferring with the California Community Colleges Economic Development Program Executive Committee, as established by Section 15379.24, the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges shall submit to the board of governors, for its approval, a comprehensive annual plan and budget, including specified funding sources, for the California Community Colleges Economic Development Program. The chancellor may contract with local community colleges to provide staff support for the program. The annual plan shall include, but shall not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) Programmatic priorities and anticipated outcomes for the California Community Colleges Economic Development Program, including target industries and identified occupational education and training needs.

(2) Anticipated administrative staffing needs by community college district and within the Chancellor's Office of the California Community Colleges.

(3) An itemized accounting of proposed budget requests to support the proposed annual program plan, including an accounting of income and proposed expenditures for the California Community Colleges Business Resource Assistance and Innovation Network Trust Fund, as specified in Section 15379.40.

(b) The board of governors shall review regulations and guidelines governing the hiring and employment of staff support for ED > Net Program Initiatives and, as appropriate, adopt policy revisions consistent with state criteria for hiring and employment.

SEC. 8. Section 15379.32 of the Government Code is amended and renumbered to read:

15379.21. (a) The mission of the economic development program, subject to approval and amendment by the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges, shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) To advance California's economic growth and global competitiveness through quality education and services focusing on continuous work force improvement, technology deployment, and business development.

(2) To coordinate a community college response to meet statewide work force needs that attracts, retains, and expands businesses.

(3) To develop innovative solutions, as needed, in identified strategic priority areas, including, but not limited to, advanced transportation technologies, biotechnologies, small business applications, applied competitive technologies, including computer integrated manufacturing, production, and continuous quality improvement, environmental technologies, health care delivery, international trade, and work place literacy.

(4) To identify, acquire, and leverage resources to support local, regional, and statewide economic development.

(5) To create logistical, technical, and marketing infrastructure support for economic development activities within the California Community Colleges.

(6) To optimize access to community colleges' economic development services.

(7) To develop strategic public and private sector partnerships.

(b) The board of governors and the chancellor may award grants to districts for leadership in accomplishing the mission and goals of the economic development program, as described in subdivision (a).

SEC. 9. Section 15379.34 of the Government Code is amended and renumbered to read:

15379.35. Among other activities, the network shall implement the California Small Business Innovation Research Program and shall collaborate with all public and private institutions of higher education and with the Trade and Commerce Agency, including the California Small Business Development Center Program, and all state and federal agencies interested in referring small businesses to the network for purposes of facilitating state SBIR program services.

SEC. 10. Section 15379.70 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 11. Section 15379.70 is added to the Government Code, to read:

15379.70. (a) Not later than July 1, 1997, the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges shall initiate a review of the California Community Colleges Economic Development Program for purposes of determining whether the operation of the program should be extended. The review shall assess the effectiveness of the California Community Colleges Economic Development Program in advancing the programmatic mission as described in Section 15379.21.

(b) Following completion of the review required by subdivision (a), the independent contractor shall report findings to the board of governors and the California Community Colleges Economic Development Program Executive Committee.

(c) Not later than September 1, 1997, the board of governors shall transmit the review, along with its recommendations, as appropriate, to the Governor, appropriate legislative committees, and the Legislative Analyst.

SEC. 12. Section 15379.80 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 13. Section 15379.80 is added to the Government Code, to read:

15379.80. (a) This chapter shall become inoperative on June 30, 1998, and as of January 1, 1999, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes operative and is repealed.

(b) The Legislative Analyst shall conduct a review of the effectiveness of this chapter for submission to the Governor, the Legislature, and the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges as part of the Legislative Analyst's analysis of the Budget Bill to be issued in February 1998. In evaluating the program, the Legislative Analyst shall consider all of the following:

(1) The findings of the report required by Section 15379.70.

(2) An assessment of whether any identified problems are issues that affect the implementation of this chapter or issues that warrant revisions of statutes or regulations. The assessment shall include recommendations to improve the California Community Colleges Economic Development Program while maintaining its basic purposes, including the program mission as established by Section 15379.21.

CHAPTER 806

An act to amend Section 1060 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and to amend Sections 285, 1000, 1220, 1460, 1834, 2252, 2333, 2340, 2341, 2342, 2343, 2616, 2683, 3110, 7050, 7240, 7604, 8200, 8404, 8488, 8545, 8901, 9861, 10832, 11854, 13540, 15401, 16247, and 17203 of, to amend the heading of Article 4 (commencing with Section 2340) of Chapter 4 of Part 4 of Division 4 of, to add Sections 81.5, 1218, 2529, 9869, and 11754 to, to add Part 16 (commencing with Section 800) to Division 2 of, to repeal Section 8874 of, to repeal Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 6140) of Part 1 of Division 6 of, and to repeal and add Part 1 (commencing with Section 21101) of Division 11 of, the Probate Code, relating to estates and trusts.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1060 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1060. Any person interested under a written instrument, excluding a will or a trust, or under a contract, or who desires a declaration of his or her rights or duties with respect to another, or in respect to, in, over or upon property, or with respect to the location of the natural channel of a watercourse, may, in cases of actual controversy relating to the legal rights and duties of the respective parties, bring an original action or cross-complaint in the superior court or in the municipal or justice court to the extent allowed pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 86) of Chapter 5 of Title 1 of Part 1 for a declaration of his or her rights and duties in the premises, including a determination of any question of construction or validity arising under the instrument or contract. He or she may ask for a declaration of rights or duties, either alone or with other relief; and the court may make a binding declaration of these rights or duties, whether or not further relief is or could be claimed at the time. The declaration may be either affirmative or negative in form and effect, and the declaration shall have the force of a final judgment. The declaration may be had before there has been any breach of the obligation in respect to which said declaration is sought.

SEC. 2. Section 81.5 is added to the Probate Code, to read:

81.5. "Transferee" means the beneficiary, donee, or other recipient of an interest transferred by an instrument.

SEC. 3. Section 285 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

285. (a) A disclaimer may not be made after the beneficiary has accepted the interest sought to be disclaimed.

(b) For the purpose of this section, a beneficiary has accepted an interest if any of the following occurs before a disclaimer is filed with respect to that interest:

(1) The beneficiary, or someone acting on behalf of the beneficiary, makes a voluntary assignment, conveyance, encumbrance, pledge, or transfer of the interest or part thereof, or contracts to do so; provided, however, that a beneficiary will not have accepted an interest if the beneficiary makes a gratuitous conveyance or transfer of the beneficiary's entire interest in property to the person or persons who would have received the property had the beneficiary made an otherwise qualified disclaimer pursuant to this part.

(2) The beneficiary, or someone acting on behalf of the beneficiary, executes a written waiver under Section 284 of the right to disclaim the interest.

(3) The beneficiary, or someone acting on behalf of the beneficiary, accepts the interest or part thereof or benefit thereunder.

(4) The interest or part thereof is sold at a judicial sale.

(c) An acceptance does not preclude a beneficiary from thereafter disclaiming all or part of an interest if both of the following requirements are met:

(1) The beneficiary became entitled to the interest because another person disclaimed an interest.

(2) The beneficiary or other person acting on behalf of the beneficiary at the time of the acceptance had no knowledge of the interest to which the beneficiary so became entitled.

(d) The acceptance by a joint tenant of the joint tenancy interest created when the joint tenancy is created is not an acceptance by the joint tenant of the interest created when the joint tenant survives the death of another joint tenant.

SEC. 4. Part 16 (commencing with Section 800) is added to Division 2 of the Probate Code, to read:

PART 16. JURISDICTION

800. The court in proceedings under this code is a court of general jurisdiction and the court, or a judge of the court, has the same power and authority with respect to the proceedings as otherwise provided by law for a superior court, or a judge of the superior court, including, but not limited to, the matters authorized by Section 128 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 5. Section 1000 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

1000. Except to the extent that this code provides applicable rules, the rules of practice applicable to civil actions, including discovery proceedings, apply to, and constitute the rules of practice in, proceedings under this code.

SEC. 6. Section 1218 is added to the Probate Code, to read:

1218. If a notice or other paper is required or permitted to be mailed, delivered, served, or otherwise given to a person who is represented by an attorney of record, the notice or other paper shall also be mailed to this attorney, unless otherwise specified in a request for special notice.

SEC. 7. Section 1220 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

1220. (a) When notice of hearing is required to be given as provided in this section:

(1) At least 15 days before the time set for the hearing, the petitioner or the person filing the report, account, or other paper shall cause notice of the time and place of the hearing to be mailed to the persons required to be given notice.

(2) Unless the statute requiring notice specifies the persons to be given notice, notice shall be mailed to all of the following:

(A) The personal representative.

(B) All persons who have requested special notice in the estate proceeding pursuant to Section 1250.

(3) Subject to Section 1212, the notice shall be addressed to the person required to be given notice at the person's place of business or place of residence.

(b) Subject to subdivision (c), nothing in this section excuses compliance with the requirements for notice to a person who has requested special notice pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 1250).

(c) The court for good cause may dispense with the notice otherwise required to be given to a person as provided in this section.

SEC. 8. Section 1460 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

1460. (a) Subject to Sections 1202 and 1203, if notice of hearing is required under this division but the applicable provision does not fix the manner of giving notice of hearing, the notice of the time and place of the hearing shall be given at least 15 days before the day of the hearing as provided in this section.

(b) Subject to subdivision (e), the petitioner (which includes for the purposes of this section a person filing a petition, report, or account) shall cause the notice of hearing to be mailed to each of the following persons:

(1) The guardian or conservator.

(2) The ward if 12 years of age or older or the conservatee.

(3) The spouse of the ward or conservatee, if the ward or conservatee has a spouse.

(4) Any interested person who has appeared in the particular matter to which the hearing relates.

(5) For any hearing on a petition to terminate a guardianship, to accept the resignation of, or to remove the guardian, the persons described in subdivision (c) of Section 1510.

(6) For any hearing on a petition to terminate a conservatorship, to accept the resignation of, or to remove the conservator, the persons described in subdivision (b) of Section 1821.

(c) The clerk of the court shall cause the notice of the hearing to be posted as provided in Section 1230 if the posting is required by subdivision (c) of Section 2543 (sales).

(d) Except as provided in subdivision (e), nothing in this section excuses compliance with the requirements for notice to a person who has requested special notice pursuant to Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 2700) of Part 4.

(e) The court for good cause may dispense with the notice otherwise required to be given to a person as provided in this section.

SEC. 8.5. Section 1460 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

1460. (a) Subject to Sections 1202 and 1203, if notice of hearing is required under this division but the applicable provision does not fix the manner of giving notice of hearing, the notice of the time and place of the hearing shall be given at least 15 days before the day of the hearing as provided in this section.

(b) Subject to subdivision (e), the petitioner (which includes for the purposes of this section a person filing a petition, report, or account) shall cause the notice of hearing to be mailed to each of the following persons:

(1) The guardian or conservator.

(2) The ward if 12 years of age or older or the conservatee.

(3) The spouse of the ward or conservatee, if the ward or conservatee has a spouse, or the domestic partner of the conservatee, if the conservatee has a domestic partner.

(4) Any interested person who has appeared in the particular matter to which the hearing relates.

(5) For any hearing on a petition to terminate a guardianship, to accept the resignation of, or to remove the guardian, the persons described in subdivision (c) of Section 1510.

(6) For any hearing on a petition to terminate a conservatorship, to accept the resignation of, or to remove the conservator, the persons described in subdivision (b) of Section 1821.

(c) The clerk of the court shall cause the notice of the hearing to be posted as provided in Section 1230 if the posting is required by subdivision (c) of Section 2543 (sales).

(d) Except as provided in subdivision (e), nothing in this section excuses compliance with the requirements for notice to a person who has requested special notice pursuant to Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 2700) of Part 4.

(e) The court for good cause may dispense with the notice otherwise required to be given to a person as provided in this section.

SEC. 9. Section 1834 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

1834. (a) Before letters are issued, the conservator (other than a trust company or a public conservator) shall file an acknowledgment of receipt of (1) a statement of duties and liabilities of the office of conservator, and (2) a copy of the conservatorship information required under Section 1835. The acknowledgment and the statement shall be in the form prescribed by the Judicial Council.

(b) The court may by local rules require the acknowledgment of receipt to include the conservator's birth date and driver's license number, if any, provided that the court ensures their confidentiality.

(c) The statement of duties and liabilities prescribed by the Judicial Council shall not supersede the law on which the statement is based.

SEC. 10. Section 2252 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

2252. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivisions (b) and (c), a temporary guardian or temporary conservator has only those powers and duties of a guardian or conservator that are necessary to provide for the temporary care, maintenance, and support of the ward or conservatee and that are necessary to conserve and protect the property of the ward or conservatee from loss or injury.

(b) Unless the court otherwise orders:

(1) A temporary guardian of the person has the powers and duties specified in Section 2353 (medical treatment).

(2) A temporary conservator of the person has the powers and duties specified in Section 2354 (medical treatment).

(3) A temporary guardian of the estate or temporary conservator of the estate may marshal assets and establish accounts at financial institutions.

(c) The temporary guardian or temporary conservator has the additional powers and duties as may be ordered by the court (1) in the order of appointment or (2) by subsequent order made with or without notice as the court may require.

(d) The terms of any order made under subdivision (b) or (c) shall be included in the letters of temporary guardianship or conservatorship.

(e) A temporary conservator is not permitted to sell or relinquish, on the conservatee's behalf, any lease or estate in real or personal property used as or within the conservatee's place of residence without the specific approval of the court. This approval may be granted only if the conservatee has been served with notice of the hearing, the notice to be personally delivered to the temporary conservatee unless the court for good cause otherwise orders, and only if the court finds that the conservatee will be unable to return to the residence and exercise dominion over it and that the action is necessary to avert irreparable harm to the conservatee. The temporary conservator is not permitted to sell or relinquish on the conservatee's behalf any estate or interest in other real or personal property without specific approval of the court, which may be granted only upon a finding that the action is necessary to avert irreparable harm to the conservatee. A finding of irreparable harm as to real property may be based upon a reasonable showing that the real property is vacant, that it cannot reasonably be rented, and that it is impossible or impractical to obtain fire or liability insurance on the property.

SEC. 11. Section 2333 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

2333. (a) In case of a breach of a condition of the bond, an action may be brought against the sureties on the bond for the use and benefit of the ward or conservatee or of any person interested in the estate.

(b) No action may be maintained against the sureties on the bond unless commenced within four years from the discharge or removal of the guardian or conservator or within four years from the date the order surcharging the guardian or conservator becomes final, whichever is later.

(c) In any case, and notwithstanding subdivision (b) of Section 2103, no action may be maintained against the sureties on the bond unless the action commences within six years from the date the judgment under Section 2103 or the later of the orders under subdivision (b) of this section becomes final.

SEC. 12. The heading of Article 4 (commencing with Section 2340) of Chapter 4 of Part 4 of Division 4 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

Article 4. Registration of Private Professional Conservators and Private Professional Guardians

SEC. 13. Section 2340 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

2340. No superior court may appoint a private professional conservator or private professional guardian, or permit any person to continue to serve as a private professional conservator or private professional guardian, pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 2350) or Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 2400) unless the conservator or guardian has filed the information required by Sections 2342 and 2343 with the county clerk in each county where a petition for appointment has been filed.

SEC. 14. Section 2341 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

2341. (a) As used in this article, "private professional conservator" means a person or entity appointed as conservator of the person or estate, or both, of two or more conservatees at the same time who are not related to the conservator by blood or marriage, except a bank or other entity authorized to conduct the business of a trust company, or any public officer or public agency including the public guardian, public conservator, or other agency of the State of California. In the case of an entity, all natural persons who are authorized by the entity to perform the functions of a conservator shall comply with this article. The court may, at its discretion, require any person who is the conservator for only one conservatee not related to the conservator by blood or marriage to comply with this article, and in that case, references in this article to a "private professional conservator" includes those persons.

(b) As used in this article, "private professional guardian" means a person or entity appointed as guardian of the person or estate, or both, of two or more wards at the same time who are not related to the guardian by blood or marriage, except a bank or other entity authorized to conduct the business of a trust company, or any public officer or public agency including the public guardian, public conservator, or other agency of the State of California. In the case of an entity, all natural persons who are authorized by the entity to perform the functions of a guardian shall comply with this article. The court may, at its discretion, require any person who is the guardian for only one ward not related to the guardian by blood or marriage to comply with this article, and in that case, references in this article to a "private professional guardian" includes those persons.

SEC. 15. Section 2342 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

2342. (a) All private professional conservators or private professional guardians shall file annually with the county clerk a statement, under penalty of perjury, containing the following information:

(1) His or her educational background and professional experience.

(2) At least three professional references.

(3) The names of the conservator's or guardian's current conservatees.

(4) The aggregate dollar value of all assets currently under the conservator's or guardian's supervision.

(5) The conservator's or guardian's addresses and telephone numbers for his or her place of business and place of residence.

(6) Whether the conservator or guardian has ever been removed for cause as conservator or guardian or has resigned as conservator or guardian in a specific case, the circumstances causing that removal or resignation, and the case names, court locations, and case numbers.

(7) The case names, court locations, and case numbers of all conservatorship or guardianship cases which are closed for which the private professional conservator or private professional guardian served as the conservator or private professional guardian.

(b) Upon filing of a petition for appointment, a private professional conservator or private professional guardian shall state that he or she is a private professional conservator or private professional guardian, and that the information required by this section is on file with the county clerk.

(c) The county clerk shall order a background fingerprint check from the Department of Justice and may request a background fingerprint check from the Federal Bureau of Investigation on each private professional conservator or private professional guardian. The background check shall include a record of all arrests resulting in conviction and all arrests for which final disposition is pending. The Department of Justice shall retain these fingerprints in its files and shall provide any subsequent arrest information to the county clerk pursuant to Section 11105.2 of the Penal Code until notified by the county clerk that the person is no longer serving in the capacity of a private professional conservator or private professional guardian. The superior court shall review the background fingerprint check prior to the appointment of a private professional conservator or private professional guardian. The court shall review annual updates to the criminal background check on persons currently serving in the capacity of a private professional conservator or private professional guardian under the court's jurisdiction. The background fingerprint check may be dispensed with by the court if the petitioner was appointed as a private professional conservator or private professional guardian, or served in the capacity of a private professional conservator or private professional guardian, during the previous year and a background fingerprint check was previously made.

(d) The information required by this section shall be made available to the court for any purpose, including the determination of the appropriateness of appointing or continuing the appointment of, or removing, the conservator or guardian, but shall otherwise be kept confidential.

(e) This section applies to all private professional conservators or private professional guardians regardless of the date of appointment.

SEC. 16. Section 2343 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

2343. The county clerk shall charge each private professional conservator or private professional guardian an annual filing fee which does not exceed the average per-conservator or per-guardian annual cost in complying with this article. This fee shall also include the cost of submitting the fingerprint card to the Department of Justice.

SEC. 17. Section 2529 is added to the Probate Code, to read:

2529. A person in possession of another's personal property or in possession of the deed, stock certificate, passbook, or other document of title of another person's personal or real property, who has actual knowledge that there is a guardian or conservator of the estate of that other person, shall disclose to this guardian or conservator the nature and location of the property and supply a copy of evidence of title. The person shall be liable for all damages suffered by the estate of the conservatee as the result of any failure to make this disclosure.

SEC. 18. Section 2616 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

2616. (a) A petition may be filed under this article by any one or more of the following:

(1) The guardian or conservator.

(2) The ward or conservatee.

(3) A creditor or other interested person, including persons having only an expectancy or prospective interest in the estate.

(b) Upon the filing of a petition under this article, the court may order that a citation be issued to a person to answer interrogatories, or to appear before the court and be examined under oath, or both, concerning any of the following allegations made in the petition:

(1) The person has wrongfully taken, concealed, or disposed of property of the ward or conservatee.

(2) The person has knowledge or possession of any of the following:

(A) A deed, conveyance, bond, contract, or other writing that contains evidence of or tends to disclose the right, title, interest, or claim of the ward or conservatee to property.

(B) An instrument in writing belonging to the ward or conservatee.

(3) The person asserts a claim against the ward or conservatee or the estate.

(4) The estate asserts a claim against the person.

(c) If the citation requires the person to appear before the court, the court and the petitioner may examine the person under oath upon the matters recited in the petition. The citation may include a requirement for this person to produce documents and other personal property specified in the citation.

(d) Disobedience of a citation issued pursuant to this section may be punished as a contempt of the court issuing the citation.

SEC. 19. Section 2683 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

2683. (a) At least 15 days before the hearing on the petition for appointment of a successor conservator, notice of the time and place of the hearing shall be given as provided in this section. The notice shall be accompanied by a copy of the petition.

(b) Notice shall be mailed to the persons designated in Section 1460 and to the relatives named in the petition.

(c) If notice is required by Section 1461 to be given to the Director of Mental Health or the Director of Developmental Services, notice shall be mailed as so required.

(d) If notice is required by Section 1461.5 to be given to the Veterans Administration, notice shall be mailed as so required.

SEC. 19.5. Section 2683 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

2683. (a) At least 15 days before the hearing on the petition for appointment of a successor conservator, notice of the time and place of the hearing shall be given as provided in this section. The notice shall be accompanied by a copy of the petition.

(b) Notice shall be mailed to the persons designated in Section 1460 and to the relatives named in the petition.

(c) If notice is required by Section 1461 to be given to the Director of Mental Health or the Director of Developmental Services, notice shall be mailed as so required.

(d) If notice is required by Section 1461.5 to be given to the Veterans Administration, notice shall be mailed as so required.

SEC. 20. Section 3110 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

3110. (a) A proceeding under this chapter shall be brought by a petition filed in the superior court.

(b) The proper county for commencement of the proceeding is the county in which a conservatorship proceeding of one of the spouses is pending. If a conservatorship proceeding is not pending, then in either of the following:

(1) The county in which one or both of the spouses resides.

(2) Any other county as may be in the best interests of the spouses.

SEC. 21. Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 6140) of Part 1 of Division 6 of the Probate Code is repealed.

SEC. 22. Section 7050 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

7050. The superior court has jurisdiction of proceedings under this code concerning the administration of the decedent's estate.

SEC. 23. Section 7240 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

7240. An appeal may be taken from the making of, or the refusal to make, any of the following orders:

(a) Granting or revoking letters, but not letters of special administration or letters of special administration with general powers.

(b) Admitting a will to probate or revoking the probate of a will.

(c) Setting aside a small estate under Section 6609.

(d) Setting apart a probate homestead or property claimed to be exempt from enforcement of a money judgment.

(e) Granting, modifying, or terminating a family allowance.

(f) Directing or authorizing the sale or conveyance or confirming the sale of property.

(g) Directing or authorizing the granting of an option to purchase property.

(h) Adjudicating the merits of a claim under Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 9860) of Part 5.

(i) Allocating debts under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 11440) of Part 9.

(j) Settling an account of a personal representative.

(k) Instructing or directing a personal representative.

(l) Directing or allowing the payment of a debt, claim, devise, attorney's fee, or personal representative's compensation.

(m) Determining heirship or the persons to whom distribution should be made.

(n) Distributing property.

(o) Determining that property passes to, or confirming that property belongs to, the surviving spouse under Section 13656.

(p) Authorizing a personal representative to invest or reinvest surplus money under Section 9732.

(q) Determining whether a specific beneficiary action constitutes a contest under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 21320) of Part 3 of Division 11.

SEC. 24. Section 7604 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

7604. If the public administrator takes possession or control of property of a decedent under this article, but another person is subsequently appointed personal representative or subsequently takes control or possession, the public administrator is entitled to reasonable costs incurred for the preservation of the estate, together with reasonable compensation for services. The costs and compensation are a proper expense of administration.

SEC. 25. Section 8200 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

8200. (a) Unless a petition for probate of the will is earlier filed, the custodian of a will shall, within 30 days after having knowledge of the death of the testator, do both of the following:

(1) Deliver the will to the clerk of the superior court of the county in which the estate of the decedent may be administered. No fee shall be charged for compliance with the requirement of this paragraph.

(2) Mail a copy of the will to the person named in the will as executor, if the person's whereabouts is known to the custodian, or if not, to a person named in the will as a beneficiary, if the person's whereabouts is known to the custodian.

(b) A custodian of a will who fails to comply with the requirements of this section is liable for all damages sustained by any person injured by the failure.

(c) The clerk shall release a copy of a will delivered under this section for attachment to a petition for probate of the will or otherwise on receipt of payment of the required fee and either a court order for production of the will or a certified copy of a death certificate of the decedent.

SEC. 26. Section 8404 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

8404. (a) Before letters are issued, the personal representative (other than a trust company or a public administrator) shall file an acknowledgment of receipt of a statement of duties and liabilities of the office of personal representative. The statement shall be in the form prescribed by the Judicial Council.

(b) The court may by local rule require the acknowledgment of receipt to include the personal representative's birth date and driver's license number, if any, provided that the court ensures their confidentiality.

(c) The statement of duties and liabilities prescribed by the Judicial Council does not supersede the law on which the statement is based.

SEC. 27. Section 8488 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

8488. (a) In case of a breach of a condition of the bond, an action may be brought against the sureties on the bond for the use and benefit of the decedent's estate or of any person interested in the estate.

(b) No action may be maintained against the sureties on the bond of the personal representative unless commenced within four years from the discharge or removal of the personal representative or within four years from the date the order surcharging the personal representative becomes final, whichever is later.

(c) In any case, and notwithstanding subdivision (c) of Section 7250, no action may be maintained against the sureties on the bond unless commenced within six years from the date the judgment under Section 7250 or the later of the orders under subdivision (b) of this section becomes final.

SEC. 28. Section 8545 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

8545. (a) Notwithstanding Section 8544, the court may grant a special administrator the same powers, duties, and obligations as a general personal representative where to do so appears proper. Notwithstanding Section 8541, if letters have not previously been issued to a general personal representative, the grant shall be on the same notice required under Section 8003 for appointment of a personal representative, unless the appointment is made at a hearing on a petition for appointment of a general personal representative and the notice of that petition required under Section 8003 has been given.

(b) Subject to Section 8543, the court may require as a condition of the grant that the special administrator give any additional bond that the court deems proper. From the time of approving and filing any required additional bond, the special administrator shall have the powers, duties, and obligations of a general personal representative.

(c) If a grant is made under this section, the letters shall recite that the special administrator has the powers, duties, and obligations of a general personal representative.

SEC. 29. Section 8874 of the Probate Code is repealed.

SEC. 30. Section 8901 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

8901. The personal representative shall appraise the following property, excluding items whose fair market value is, in the opinion of the personal representative, an amount different from the face value of the property:

(a) Money and other cash items. As used in this subdivision, a "cash item" is a check, draft, money order, or similar instrument issued on or before the date of the decedent's death that can be immediately converted to cash.

(b) The following checks issued after the date of the decedent's death:

(1) Checks for wages earned before death.

(2) Refund checks, including tax and utility refunds, and Medicare, medical insurance, and other health care reimbursements and payments.

(c) Accounts (as defined in Section 21) in financial institutions.

(d) Cash deposits and money market mutual funds, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 9730, whether in a financial institution or otherwise, including a brokerage cash account. All other mutual funds, stocks, bonds, and other securities shall be appraised pursuant to Sections 8902 to 8909, inclusive.

(e) Proceeds of life and accident insurance policies and retirement plans and annuities payable on death in lump sum amounts.

SEC. 31. Section 9861 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

9861. (a) At least 30 days prior to the day of the hearing, the petitioner shall cause notice of the hearing and a copy of the petition to be served in the manner provided in Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 413.10) of Title 5 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure on all of the following persons:

(1) The personal representative.

(2) Each person claiming an interest in, or having title to or possession of, the property.

(b) Except for those persons given notice pursuant to subdivision (a), notice of the hearing, together with a copy of the petition, shall be given as provided in Section 1220 to all of the following persons:

(1) Each person listed in Section 1220.

(2) Each known heir whose interest in the estate would be affected.

(3) Each known devisee whose interest in the estate would be affected.

(c) The court may not shorten the time for giving the notice of hearing under this section.

SEC. 32. Section 9869 is added to the Probate Code, to read:

9869. A person who, in bad faith, has wrongfully taken, concealed, or disposed of property in the estate of the decedent is liable for twice the value of the property, recoverable in an action by the personal representative for the benefit of the estate.

SEC. 33. Section 10832 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

10832. Notwithstanding Sections 10830 and 10831, the court may allow compensation to the personal representative or to the attorney for the personal representative for extraordinary services before final distribution when any of the following requirements is satisfied:

(a) It appears likely that administration of the estate will continue, whether due to litigation or otherwise, for an unusually long time.

(b) Present payment will benefit the estate or the beneficiaries of the estate.

(c) Other good cause is shown.

SEC. 34. Section 11754 is added to the Probate Code, to read:

11754. Expenses of administration of the estate shall include reasonable storage, delivery, and shipping costs for distribution of tangible personal property to a distributee.

SEC. 35. Section 11854 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

11854. (a) A person may claim money on deposit in the county treasury by filing a petition with the court that made the order for distribution. The petition shall show the person's claim or right to the property. Unless the petition is filed by the person named in the decree for distribution of a decedent's estate, or the legal representative of the person or the person's estate, the petition shall state the facts required to be stated in a petition for escheated property filed under Section 1355 of the Code of Civil Procedure. On the filing of the petition, the same proceedings shall be had as are required by that section, except that the hearing shall be ex parte unless the court orders otherwise.

(b) If so ordered by the court, a copy of the petition shall be served on the Attorney General. The Attorney General may answer the petition, at the Attorney General's discretion.

(c) If the court is satisfied that the claimant has a right to the property claimed, the court shall make an order establishing the right. On presentation of a certified copy of the order, the county auditor shall draw a warrant on the county treasurer for the amount of money covered by the order.

(d) A claim for money distributed in the estate of a deceased person made after the deposit of the property in the State Treasury is governed by the provisions of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1335) of Title 10 of Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 36. Section 13540 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

13540. (a) Except as provided in Section 13541, after 40 days from the death of a spouse, the surviving spouse or the personal representative, guardian of the estate, or conservator of the estate of the surviving spouse has full power to sell, convey, lease, mortgage, or otherwise deal with and dispose of the community or quasi-community real property, and the right, title, and interest of any grantee, purchaser, encumbrancer, or lessee shall be free of rights of the estate of the deceased spouse or of devisees or creditors of the deceased spouse to the same extent as if the property had been owned as the separate property of the surviving spouse.

(b) The surviving spouse or the personal representative, guardian of the estate, or conservator of the estate of the surviving spouse may record, prior to or together with the instrument that makes a disposition of property under this section, an affidavit of the facts that establish the right of the surviving spouse to make the disposition.

(c) Nothing in this section affects or limits the liability of the surviving spouse under Sections 13550 to 13553, inclusive, and Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 13560).

SEC. 37. Section 15401 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

15401. (a) A trust that is revocable by the settlor may be revoked in whole or in part by any of the following methods:

(1) By compliance with any method of revocation provided in the trust instrument.

(2) By a writing (other than a will) signed by the settlor and delivered to the trustee during the lifetime of the settlor. If the trust instrument explicitly makes the method of revocation provided in the trust instrument the exclusive method of revocation, the trust may not be revoked pursuant to this paragraph.

(b) Unless otherwise provided in the instrument, if a trust is created by more than one settlor, each settlor may revoke the trust as to the portion of the trust contributed by that settlor, except as provided in Section 761 of the Family Code.

(c) A trust may not be modified or revoked by an attorney in fact under a power of attorney unless it is expressly permitted by the trust instrument.

(d) Nothing in this section limits the authority to modify or terminate a trust pursuant to Section 15403 or 15404 in an appropriate case.

(e) The manner of revocation of a trust revocable by the settlor that was created by an instrument executed before July 1, 1987, is governed by prior law and not by this section.

SEC. 38. Section 16247 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

16247. The trustee has the power to hire persons, including accountants, attorneys, auditors, investment advisers, appraisers (including probate referees appointed pursuant to Section 400), or other agents, even if they are associated or affiliated with the trustee, to advise or assist the trustee in the performance of administrative duties.

SEC. 39. Section 17203 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

17203. At least 30 days before the time set for the hearing on the petition, the petitioner shall cause notice of the time and place of hearing to be mailed to all of the following persons:

(a) All trustees.

(b) All beneficiaries, subject to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 15800) of Part 3.

(c) The Attorney General, if the petition relates to a charitable trust subject to the jurisdiction of the Attorney General, unless the Attorney General waives notice.

SEC. 40. Part 1 (commencing with Section 21101) of Division 11 of the Probate Code is repealed.

SEC. 41. Part 1 (commencing with Section 21101) is added to Division 11 of the Probate Code, to read:

PART 1. RULES FOR INTERPRETATION OF INSTRUMENTS

CHAPTER 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

21101. Unless the provision or context otherwise requires, this part shall apply to a will, trust, deed, and any other instrument.

21102. (a) The intention of the transferor as expressed in the instrument controls the legal effect of the dispositions made in the instrument.

(b) The rules of construction expressed in this part apply where the intention of the transferor is not indicated by the instrument.

21103. The meaning and legal effect of a disposition in an instrument shall be determined by the local law of a particular state selected by the transferor in the instrument unless the application of that law is contrary to the rights of the surviving spouse to community and quasi-community property, to any other public policy of this state applicable to the disposition, or, in the case of a will, Part 3 (commencing with Section 6500) of Division 6.

21104. As used in this part, "testamentary gift" means a transfer in possession or enjoyment that takes effect at or after death.

21105. Except as provided in Sections 641 and 642, a will passes all property the testator owns at death, including property acquired after execution of the will.

21106. A transfer of property to more than one person vests the property in them as owners in common.

21107. If an instrument directs the conversion of real property into money at the transferor's death, the property and its proceeds shall be deemed personal property from the time of the transferor's death.

21108. The law of this state does not include (a) the common-law rule of worthier title that a transferor cannot devise an interest to his or her own heirs or (b) a presumption or rule of interpretation that a transferor does not intend, by a transfer to his or her own heirs or next of kin, to transfer an interest to them. The meaning of a transfer of a legal or equitable interest to a transferor's own heirs or next of kin, however designated, shall be determined by the general rules applicable to the interpretation of instruments. This section applies to all cases in which a final judgment had not been entered as of September 18, 1959.

21109. (a) A transferee who fails to survive the transferor or until any future time required by the instrument does not take under the instrument.

(b) If it cannot be established by clear and convincing evidence that the transferee has survived the transferor, it is deemed that the beneficiary did not survive the transferor.

(c) If it cannot be established by clear and convincing evidence that the transferee survived until a future time required by the instrument, it is deemed that the transferee did not survive until the required future time.

21110. (a) Subject to subdivision (b), if a transferee is dead when the instrument is executed, or is treated as if the transferee predeceased the transferor, or fails to survive the transferor or until a future time required by the instrument, the issue of the deceased transferee take in the transferee's place in the manner provided in Section 240. A transferee under a class gift shall be a transferee for the purpose of this subdivision unless the transferee's death occurred before the execution of the instrument and that fact was known to the transferor when the instrument was executed.

(b) The issue of a deceased transferee do not take in the transferee's place if the instrument expresses a contrary intention or a substitute disposition. A requirement that the initial transferee survive for a specified period of time after the death of the transferor constitutes a contrary intention. A requirement that the initial transferee survive until a future time that is related to the probate of the transferor's will or administration of the estate of the transferor constitutes a contrary intention.

(c) As used in this section, "transferee" means a person who is kindred of the transferor or kindred of a surviving, deceased, or former spouse of the transferor.

21111. Except as provided in Section 21109:

(a) If a transfer, other than a residuary gift or a transfer of a future interest, fails for any reason, the property transferred becomes a part of the residue transferred under the instrument.

(b) If a residuary gift or a future interest is transferred to two or more persons and the share of a transferee fails for any reason, the share passes to the other transferees in proportion to their other interest in the residuary gift or the future interest.

21112. A condition in a transfer of a present or future interest that refers to a person's death "with" or "without" issue, or to a person's "having" or "leaving" issue or no issue, or a condition based on words of similar import, is construed to refer to that person's being dead at the time the transfer takes effect in enjoyment and to his or her either having or not having, as the case may be, issue who are alive at the time of enjoyment.

21113. (a) A transfer of a present interest to a class includes all persons answering the class description at the transferor's death.

(b) A transfer of a future interest to a class includes all persons answering the class description at the time the transfer is to take effect in enjoyment.

(c) A person conceived before but born after the transferor's death or after the time the transfer takes effect in enjoyment takes if the person answers the class description.

21114. A transfer of a present or future interest to the transferor's or another designated person's "heirs," "next of kin," "relatives," or "family," or to "the persons entitled thereto under the intestate succession laws," or to persons described by words of similar import, is a transfer to those who would be the transferor's or other designated person's heirs, their identities and respective shares shall be determined as if the transferor or other designated person were to die intestate at the time when the transfer is to take effect in enjoyment and according to the California statutes of intestate succession of property not acquired from a predeceased spouse in effect at that time. If the designated person's surviving spouse is living but is remarried at the time the transfer is to take effect in enjoyment, the surviving spouse is not an heir of the designated person for purposes of this section.

21115. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), halfbloods, adopted persons, persons born out of wedlock, stepchildren, foster children, and the issue of these persons when appropriate to the class, are included in terms of class gift or relationship in accordance with the rules for determining relationship and inheritance rights for purposes of intestate succession.

(b) In construing a transfer by a transferor who is not the natural parent, a person born to the natural parent shall not be considered the child of that parent unless the person lived while a minor as a regular member of the household of the natural parent or of that parent's parent, brother, sister, spouse, or surviving spouse. In construing a transfer by a transferor who is not the adoptive parent, a person adopted by the adoptive parent shall not be considered the child of that parent unless the person lived while a minor (either before or after the adoption) as a regular member of the household of the adopting parent or of that parent's parent, brother, sister, or surviving spouse.

(c) Subdivisions (a) and (b) shall also apply in determining:

(1) Persons who would be kindred of the transferor or kindred of a surviving, deceased, or former spouse of the transferor under Section 21110.

(2) Persons to be included as issue of a deceased transferee under Section 21110.

(3) Persons who would be the transferor's or other designated person's heirs under Section 21114.

21116. A testamentary disposition by an instrument, including a transfer to a person on attaining majority, is presumed to vest at the transferor's death.

21117. Testamentary gifts are classified as follows:

(a) A specific gift is a transfer of specifically identifiable property.

(b) A general gift is a transfer from the general assets of the transferor that does not give specific property.

(c) A demonstrative gift is a general gift that specifies the fund or property from which the transfer is primarily to be made.

(d) A general pecuniary gift is a pecuniary gift within the meaning of Section 21118.

(e) An annuity is a general pecuniary gift that is payable periodically.

(f) A residuary gift is a transfer of property that remains after all specific and general gifts have been satisfied.

21118. (a) If an instrument authorizes a fiduciary to satisfy a pecuniary gift wholly or partly by distribution of property other than money, property selected for that purpose shall be valued at its fair market value on the date of distribution, unless the instrument expressly provides otherwise. If the instrument permits the fiduciary to value the property selected for distribution as of a date other than the date of distribution, then, unless the instrument expressly provides otherwise, the property selected by the fiduciary for that purpose shall have an aggregate fair market value on the date or dates of distribution that, when added to any cash distributed, will amount to no less than the amount of the pecuniary gift as stated in, or determined by, the instrument.

(b) As used in this section, "pecuniary gift" means a transfer of property made in an instrument that either is expressly stated as a fixed dollar amount or is a dollar amount determinable by the provisions of the instrument.

CHAPTER 2. ASCERTAINING MEANING OF LANGUAGE USED IN THE INSTRUMENT

21120. The words of an instrument are to receive an interpretation that will give every expression some effect, rather than one that will render any of the expressions inoperative. Preference is to be given to an interpretation of an instrument that will prevent intestacy, rather than one that will result in an intestacy.

21121. All the parts of an instrument are to be construed in relation to each other and so as, if possible, to form a consistent whole. If the meaning of any part of an instrument is ambiguous or doubtful, it may be explained by any reference to or recital of that part in another part of the instrument.

21122. The words of an instrument are to be given their ordinary and grammatical meaning unless the intention to use them in another sense is clear and their intended meaning can be ascertained. Technical words are not necessary to give effect to a disposition in an instrument. Technical words in an instrument are to be considered as having been used in their technical sense unless (a) the context clearly indicates a contrary intention or (b) it satisfactorily appears that the instrument was drawn solely by the transferor and that the transferor was unacquainted with the technical sense.

CHAPTER 3. EXONERATION; ADEMPTION

21131. A specific gift passes the property transferred subject to any mortgage, deed of trust, or other lien existing at the date of death, without right of exoneration, regardless of a general directive to pay debts contained in the instrument of transfer.

21132. (a) If the transferor intended a specific gift of certain securities rather than the equivalent value thereof, the beneficiary of the specific gift is entitled only to:

(1) As much of the transferred securities as is a part of the estate at the time of the transferor's death.

(2) Any additional or other securities of the same entity owned by the transferor by reason of action initiated by the entity excluding any acquired by exercise of purchase options.

(3) Securities of another entity owned by the transferor as a result of a merger, consolidation, reorganization or other similar action initiated by the entity.

(4) Any additional securities of the entity owned by the transferor as a result of a plan of reinvestment if it is a regulated investment company.

(b) Distributions prior to death with respect to a security specifically given and not provided for in subdivision (a) are not part of the specific gift.

21133. A recipient of a specific gift has the right to the remaining property specifically given and all of the following:

(a) Any balance of the purchase price (together with any security interest) owing from a purchaser to the transferor at death by reason of sale of the property.

(b) Any amount of an eminent domain award for the taking of the property unpaid at death.

(c) Any proceeds unpaid at death on fire or casualty insurance on the property.

(d) Property owned by the transferor at death as a result of foreclosure, or obtained in lieu of foreclosure, of the security for a specifically given obligation.

21134. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, if specifically given property is sold by a conservator, the beneficiary of the specific gift has the right to a general pecuniary gift equal to the net sale price of the property.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this section, if an eminent domain award for the taking of specifically given property is paid to a conservator, or if the proceeds on fire or casualty insurance on specifically gifted property are paid to a conservator, the recipient of the specific gift has the right to a general pecuniary gift equal to the eminent domain award or the insurance proceeds.

(c) This section does not apply if, after the sale, condemnation, fire, or casualty, the conservatorship is terminated and the transferor survives the termination by one year.

(d) The right of the beneficiary of the specific gift under this section shall be reduced by any right the beneficiary has under Section 21133.

21135. (a) Property given by a transferor during his or her lifetime to a beneficiary is treated as a satisfaction of a testamentary gift to that person in whole or in part only if one of the following conditions is satisfied:

(1) The instrument provides for deduction of the lifetime gift from the testamentary gift.

(2) The transferor declares in a contemporaneous writing that the transfer is to be deducted from the testamentary gift or is in satisfaction of the testamentary gift.

(3) The transferee acknowledges in writing that the gift is in satisfaction of the testamentary gift.

(b) Subject to subdivision (c), for the purpose of partial satisfaction, property given during lifetime is valued as of the time the transferee came into possession or enjoyment of the property or as of the time of death of the transferor, whichever occurs first.

(c) If the value of the gift is expressed in the contemporaneous writing of the transferor, or in an acknowledgment of the transferee made contemporaneously with the gift, that value is conclusive in the division and distribution of the estate.

21136. If the transferor after execution of the transfer instrument enters into an agreement for the sale or transfer of specifically given property, the beneficiary of the specific gift has the right to the property subject to the remedies of the purchaser or transferee.

21137. If the transferor after execution of the transfer instrument places a charge or encumbrance on specifically given property for the purpose of securing the payment of money or the performance of any covenant or agreement, the beneficiary of the specific gift has the right to the property subject to the charge or encumbrance.

21138. If the transferor after execution of the transfer instrument alters, but does not wholly divest, the transferor's interest in property that is specifically given by a conveyance, settlement, or other act, the beneficiary of the specific gift has the right to the remaining interest of the transferor in the property.

21139. The rules stated in Sections 21133 to 21138, inclusive, are not exhaustive, and nothing in those sections is intended to increase the incidence of ademption under the law of this state.

CHAPTER 4. EFFECTIVE DATES

21140. (a) Except as otherwise provided and subject to subdivision (b), this part applies to all instruments, regardless of when they were executed.

(b) The repeal of former Sections 1050, 1051, 1052, and 1053 and the amendment of former Section 1054, by Chapter 842 of the Statutes of 1983, do not apply to cases where the decedent died before January 1, 1985. If the decedent died before January 1, 1985, the case is governed by the former provisions as they would exist had Chapter 842 of the Statutes of 1983 not been enacted.

SEC. 42. Section 8.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 1460 of the Probate Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2810. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 1460 of the Probate Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2810, in which case Section 8 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 43. Section 19.5 of this bill, in substantive effect, incorporates amendments to Section 2683 of the Probate Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2810. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 2683 of the Probate Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2810 in which case Section 19 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 44. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Section 12301 of the Penal Code, relating to firearms.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12301 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12301. (a) The term "destructive device," as used in this chapter, shall include any of the following weapons:

(1) Any projectile containing any explosive or incendiary material or any other chemical substance, including, but not limited to, that which is commonly known as tracer or incendiary ammunition, except tracer ammunition manufactured for use in shotguns.

(2) Any bomb, grenade, explosive missile, or similar device or any launching device therefor.

(3) Any weapon of a caliber greater than 0.60 caliber which fires fixed ammunition, or any ammunition therefor, other than a shotgun (smooth or rifled bore) conforming to the definition of a "destructive device" found in subsection (b) of Section 179.11 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations, shotgun ammunition (single projectile or shot), antique rifle, or an antique cannon. For purposes of this section, the term "antique cannon" means any cannon manufactured before January 1, 1899, which has been rendered incapable of firing or for which ammunition is no longer manufactured in the United States and is not readily available in the ordinary channels of commercial trade. The term "antique rifle" means a firearm conforming to the definition of an "antique firearm" in Section 179.11 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(4) Any rocket, rocket-propelled projectile, or similar device of a diameter greater than 0.60 inch, or any launching device therefor, and any rocket, rocket-propelled projectile, or similar device containing any explosive or incendiary material or any other chemical substance, other than the propellant for such device, except such devices as are designed primarily for emergency or distress signaling purposes.

(5) Any breakable container which contains a flammable liquid with a flashpoint of 150 degrees Fahrenheit or less and has a wick or similar device capable of being ignited, other than a device which is commercially manufactured primarily for the purpose of illumination.

(6) Any sealed device containing dry ice (CO_2) or other chemically reactive substances assembled for the purpose of causing an explosion by a chemical reaction.

(b) The term "explosive," as used in this chapter, shall mean any explosive defined in Section 12000 of the Health and Safety Code.

CHAPTER 808

An act relating to the Bear Valley Unified School District, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that the Bear Valley Unified School District, located in the San Bernardino Mountain area, consists of pupils who live in a population service area that ranges in elevation as high as 6,560 feet. Because of the configuration of the school district, including poor weather conditions in the district in the winter, it is unsafe to transport some of the district's pupils, especially those pupils whose residences are at high elevations, over 40 miles each way to attend schools in the Bear Valley Unified School District. Thus, certain pupils in that district are attending schools in the Yucaipa-Calimesa Joint Unified School District. The Redlands Unified School District provides transportation to its secondary school campuses within the City of Redlands for secondary school pupils living in severe and remote geographical conditions, as described in this section. The financial impact on all three school districts has been significant.

SEC. 2. (a) The sum of seventy-seven thousand nine hundred dollars ($77,900) is hereby appropriated to the Superintendent of Public Instruction from the General Fund for the 1994–95 fiscal year for allocation as follows:

(1) Thirty-six thousand five hundred dollars ($36,500) to the Bear Valley Unified School District for the 1994–95 fiscal year for the purpose of costs of transporting pupils to the Yucaipa-Calimesa Joint Unified School District.

(2) Forty-one thousand four hundred dollars ($41,400) to the Redlands Unified School District for the 1994–95 fiscal year for the purpose of the costs of transporting pupils residing in severe and remote geographical conditions, as described in Section 1.

(b) As a condition to the allocations, the Bear Valley Unified School District, the Yucaipa-Calimesa Joint Unified School District, and the Redlands Unified School District shall provide evidence to the Superintendent of Public Instruction that the districts are negotiating a solution to the transportation problem described in Section 1 that provides the safest and most cost-effective method of transporting pupils to the appropriate schools.

(c) Not later than February 1, 1995, the Bear Valley Unified School District and the Redlands Unified School District jointly shall file a report with the Superintendent of Public Instruction that specifies the negotiated solution to the transportation problem, pursuant to subdivision (b). If a report is not filed by February 1, 1995, any funds allocated to the school districts pursuant to this section shall revert to the General Fund of the state prior to June 30, 1995.

(d) It is the intent of the Legislature that no funds shall be appropriated for, or allocated to, the Bear Valley Unified School District or the Redlands Unified School District for the purposes specified in subdivision (a) in any fiscal year after the 1994–95 fiscal year.

SEC. 3. The Legislature finds and declares that due to the unique circumstances in Section 1 of this act regarding the Bear Valley Unified School District, a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution.

An act to amend Section 94342 of, and to add Sections 94323 and 94324 to, the Education Code, relating to postsecondary education.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 94323 is added to the Education Code, to read:

94323. (a) This section establishes the procedure for notice and hearing required under this chapter and, except as provided in Sections 94319.12 and 94322, may be used in lieu of other notice or hearing requirements provided in this chapter.

(b) If notice of administrative action is required by this chapter, the council shall serve notice stating the following:

(1) The action, including the penalties and administrative sanctions sought.

(2) The grounds for the action with sufficient particularity to give notice of the transactions, occurrences, violations, or other matters on which the action is based.

(3) The right to a hearing and the time period within which the party subject to the notice may request a hearing in writing. The time period shall not be less than 15 days after service of the notice unless a longer period is provided by statute.

(4) The right to be present at the hearing, to be represented by counsel, to cross-examine witnesses, and to present evidence.

(5) The administrative action set forth in the notice will be taken and shall become final if the party subject to the notice does not request a hearing in writing within the time period expressed in the notice.

(c) If a party subject to a notice provided pursuant to subdivision (b) requests a hearing in writing within 10 days of receiving the notice, the council shall schedule a hearing. The hearing shall be held in a location determined pursuant to Section 11508 of the Government Code. The council shall serve reasonable notice of the time and place for the hearing at least 10 days before the hearing. The council may continue the date of the hearing upon a showing of good cause.

(d) (1) Any party, including the council, may submit a written request to any other party before the hearing to obtain the names and addresses of any person who has personal knowledge, or who the party receiving the request claims to have personal knowledge, of any of the transactions, occurrences, violations, or other matters that are the bases of the administrative action. In addition, the requesting party shall have the right to inspect and copy any written statement made by that person and any writing, as defined by Section 250 of the Evidence Code, or thing that is in the custody, or under the control, of the party receiving the request and that is relevant and not privileged. This subdivision shall constitute the exclusive method for prehearing discovery. However, nothing herein shall affect the council's authority, at any time, to investigate, inspect, monitor, or obtain and copy information under any provision of this chapter.

(2) The written request described in paragraph (1) shall be made before the hearing and within 30 days of the service of the notice described in subdivision (b). Each recipient of a request shall comply with the request within 15 days of its service by providing the names and addresses requested and by producing at a reasonable time at the council's office or another mutually agreed reasonable place the requested writings and things. The council may extend the time for response upon a showing of good cause.

(3) Except as provided in this paragraph, no party may introduce the testimony or statement of any person or any writing or thing into evidence at the hearing if that party failed to provide the name and address of the person or to produce the writing or thing for inspection and copying as provided by this subdivision. A party may introduce the testimony, statement, writing, or thing that was not identified or produced as required herein only if there is no objection or if the party establishes that the person, writing, or thing was unknown at the time when the response was made to the written request, the party could not have informed other parties within a reasonable time after learning of the existence of the person, writing, or thing, and no party would be prejudiced by the introduction of the evidence.

(e) Before the hearing has commenced, the council shall issue subpoenas at the written request of any party for the attendance of witnesses or the production of documents or other things in the custody or under the control of the person subject to the subpoena. Subpoenas issued pursuant to this section shall be subject to Section 11510 of the Government Code.

(f) (1) The council shall designate an impartial hearing officer to conduct the hearing. The hearing officer may administer oaths and affirmations, regulate the course of the hearing, question witnesses, and otherwise investigate the issues, take official notice according to the procedure provided in Division 4 (commencing with Section 450) of the Evidence Code of any technical or educational matter in the council's special field of expertise and of any matter that may be judicially noticed, set the time and place for continued hearings, fix the time for the filing of briefs and other documents, direct any party to appear and confer to consider the simplification of issues by consent, and prepare a statement of decision.

(2) Neither a hearing officer nor any person who has a direct or indirect interest in the outcome of the hearing shall communicate directly or indirectly with each other regarding any issue involved in the hearing while the proceeding is pending without notice and opportunity for all parties to participate in the communication. A hearing officer who receives any ex parte communication shall immediately disclose the communication to the council and all other parties. The council may disqualify the hearing officer if necessary to eliminate the effect of the ex parte communication. If the council finds that any party willfully violated, or caused the violation of, this paragraph, the council shall enter that party's default and impose the administrative sanction set forth in the notice provided pursuant to subdivision (b).

(g) (1) Each party at the hearing shall be afforded an opportunity to present evidence, respond to evidence presented by other parties, cross-examine, and present written argument or, if permitted by the hearing officer, oral argument on the issues involved in the hearing. The council may call any party as a witness who may be examined as if under cross-examination.

(2) Each party may appear through its representative or through legal counsel.

(3) The technical rules relating to evidence and witnesses shall not apply. However, only relevant evidence is admissible.

(4) Oral evidence shall be taken only upon oath or affirmation. The hearing shall be conducted in the English language. The proponent of any testimony to be offered by a witness who is not proficient in English shall provide, at the proponent's cost, an interpreter proficient in English and the language in which the witness will testify.

(5) The hearing shall be recorded by tape recording or other phonographic means unless all parties agree to another method of recording the proceedings.

(6) (A) At any time 10 or more days before the hearing, any party may serve on the other parties a copy of any declaration which the party proposes to introduce in evidence.

(B) The declaration shall be accompanied by a notice indicating the date of service of the notice and stating that the declarations will be offered into evidence, the declarants will not be called as witnesses, and there will be no right of cross-examination unless the party receiving the notice requests the right to cross-examine, in writing, within seven days of the service of the declarations and notice.

(C) If no request for cross-examination is served within seven days of the service of the declarations and notice described in subparagraph (B), the right to cross-examination is deemed waived and the declaration shall have the same effect as if the declarant testified orally. Notwithstanding this paragraph, a declaration may be admitted as hearsay evidence without cross-examination.

(7) Disposition of any issues involved in the hearing may be made by stipulation or settlement.

(8) If a party fails to appear at a hearing, that party's default shall be taken and the party shall be deemed to have waived the hearing and agreed to the administrative action and the grounds for that action described in the notice given pursuant to subdivision (b). The council shall serve the party with an order of default including the administrative action ordered. The order shall be effective upon service or at any other time designated by the council. The council may relieve a party from an order of default if the party applies for relief within 15 days after the service of an order of default and establishes good cause for relief. An application for relief from default shall not stay the effective date of the order unless expressly provided by the council.

(h) (1) At any time before the matter is submitted for decision, the council may amend the notice provided pursuant to subdivision (b) to set forth any further grounds for the originally noticed administrative action or any additional administrative action and the grounds therefor. The statement of the further grounds for the originally noticed administrative action, or of the grounds for any additional administrative action, shall be made with sufficient particularity to give notice of the transactions, occurrences, violations, or other matters on which the action or additional action is based. The amended notice shall be served on all parties. All parties affected by the amended notice shall be given reasonable opportunity to respond to the amended notice as provided in this section.

(2) The council may amend the notice after the case is submitted for decision. The council shall serve each party with notice of the intended amendment and shall provide the party with an opportunity to show that the party will be prejudiced by the amendment unless the case is reopened to permit the party to introduce additional evidence. If prejudice is shown, the council shall reopen the case to permit the introduction of additional evidence.

(i) (1) Within 30 days after the conclusion of the hearing or at another time established by the council, the hearing officer shall submit a written statement of decision setting forth a recommendation for a final decision and explaining the factual and legal basis for the decision as to each of the grounds for the administrative action set forth in the notice or amended notice. The council shall serve the hearing officer's statement of decision on each party and its counsel within 10 days of its submission by the hearing officer.

(2) The council shall make the final decision which shall be based exclusively on evidence introduced at the hearing. The final decision shall be supported by substantial evidence in the record. The council also shall issue a statement of decision explaining the factual and legal basis for the final decision as to each of the grounds for the administrative action set forth in the notice or amended notice. The council shall issue an order based on its decision which shall be effective upon service or at any other time designated by the council. The council shall serve a copy of the final decision and order, within 10 days of their issuance, on each party and its counsel.

(3) The council may hold a closed session to deliberate on a decision to be reached based upon evidence introduced at the hearing.

(4) The council shall serve a certified copy of the complete record of the hearing, or any part thereof designated by a party, within 30 days after receiving the party's written request and payment of the cost of preparing the requested portions of the record. The complete record shall include all notices and orders issued by the council, a transcript of the hearing, the exhibits admitted or rejected, the written evidence and any other papers in the case, the hearing officer's statement of decision, and the final decision and order.

(j) The council shall serve all notices and other documents that are required to be served by this section on each party by personal delivery, by certified mail, return receipt requested, or by any other means designated by the council.

(k) (1) Any party aggrieved by the council's final decision and order may seek judicial review by filing a petition for a writ of mandate pursuant to Section 1085 of the Code of Civil Procedure within 30 days of the issuance of the final decision and order. If review is not sought within that period, the party's right to review shall be deemed waived.

(2) The aggrieved party shall present the complete record of the hearing or all portions of the record necessary for the court's review of the council's final decision and order. The court shall deny the petition for a writ of mandate if the record submitted by the party is incomplete. The court shall not consider any matter not contained in the record. The factual bases supporting the final decision set forth in the council's statement of decision shall be conclusive if supported by substantial evidence on the record considered as a whole.

(3) The final order shall not be stayed or enjoined during review except upon the court's grant of an order on a party's application after due notice to the council and the Attorney General. The order shall be granted only if the party establishes the substantial likelihood that it will prevail on the merits and posts a bond sufficient to protect fully the interests of the students, the council, and the Student Tuition Recovery Fund, from any loss.

(l) The council may adopt regulations establishing alternative means of providing notice and an opportunity to be heard in circumstances in which a full hearing is not required by law.

(m) For purposes of this section, "good cause" shall require sufficient ground or reason for the determination to be made by the council.

SEC. 2. Section 94324 is added to the Education Code, to read:

94324. An institution may not claim an exception pursuant to Section 94316.1, if the council finds, after notice and hearing as provided in Section 94323, that the institution adopted a form of organization or method of operation for the purpose of avoiding any provision of this chapter.

SEC. 3. Section 94342 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94342. (a) The council shall establish and maintain a Student Tuition Recovery Fund, with a degree-granting postsecondary educational institution account and a vocational educational institution account, for the purpose of relieving or mitigating pecuniary losses suffered by any California resident who is a student of an approved institution and who meets either of the following conditions:

(1) The student was enrolled in an institution, prepaid tuition, and suffered loss as a result of (A) the closure of the institution, (B) the institution's failure to pay refunds or charges on behalf of a student to a third party for license fees or any other purposes, or to provide equipment or materials for which a charge was collected within 180 days before the institution's closure, (C) the institution's failure to pay or reimburse loan proceeds under a federally guaranteed student loan program as required by law or to pay or reimburse proceeds received by the institution prior to closure in excess of tuition and other costs, (D) the institution's breach or anticipatory breach of the agreement for the course of instruction, or (E) a decline in the quality or value of the course of instruction within the 30-day period before the institution's closure or, if the decline began before that period, the period of decline determined by the council. For the purpose of this section, "closure" includes closure of a branch or satellite campus, the termination of either the correspondence or residence portion of a home study or correspondence course, and the termination of a course of instruction for some or all of the students enrolled in the course before the time these students were originally scheduled to complete it, or before a student who has been continuously enrolled in a course of instruction has been permitted to complete all the educational services and classes that comprise the course.

(2) The student obtained a judgment against the institution for any violation of this chapter and the student certifies that the judgment cannot be collected after diligent collection efforts.

(b) Payments from the fund to any student shall be made from the appropriate account with the fund, as determined by the type of institution into which the student has paid his or her fees, and shall be subject to any regulations and conditions as the council shall prescribe.

(c) (1) The institution shall provide to the council at the time of the institution's closure the names and addresses of persons who were students of an institution within 60 days prior to its closure, and shall notify these students, within 30 days of the institution's closure, of their rights under the Student Tuition Recovery Fund and how to apply for payment. If the institution fails to comply with this subdivision, the council shall attempt to obtain the names and addresses of these students and shall notify them, within 90 days of the institution's closure, of their rights under the Student Tuition Recovery Fund and how to apply for payment.

The council shall develop a form in English and Spanish fully explaining a student's rights, which shall be used by the institution or the council to comply with this paragraph. The form shall include or be accompanied by a claim application and an explanation of how to complete the application.

(2) If an institution fails to comply with paragraph (1), the council shall order the institution, or any person responsible for the failure to provide notice as required by paragraph (1), to reimburse the council for all reasonable costs and expenses incurred in notifying students as required in paragraph (1). In addition, the council may impose a penalty of up to five thousand dollars ($5,000) against the institution and any person found responsible for the failure to provide notice. The amount of the penalty shall be based on the degree of culpability and the ability to pay. Any order may impose joint and several liability. Before any order is made pursuant to this paragraph, the council shall provide written notice to the institution and any person from whom the council seeks recovery of the council's claim and of the right to request a hearing within 30 days of the service of the notice. If a hearing is not requested within 30 days of service of the notice, the council may order payment in the amount of the claim. If a hearing is requested, Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code shall apply, and the council shall have all of the powers therein prescribed. Within 30 days after the effective date of the issuance of an order, the council may enforce the order in the same manner as if it were a money judgment pursuant to Title 9 (commencing with Section 680.010) of Part 1 of the Code of Civil Procedure. All penalties and reimbursements paid pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education Administration Fund established pursuant to Section 94331 or any successor fund.

(d) (1) Students entitled to payment as provided in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) shall file with the council a verified application indicating each of the following:

(A) The student's name, address, telephone number, and social security number.

(B) If any portion of the tuition was paid from the proceeds of a loan, the name of the lender and any state or federal agency that guaranteed or reinsured the loan.

(C) The amount of the prepaid tuition, the amount and description of the student's loss, and the amount of the student's claim.

(D) The date the student started and ceased attending the institution.

(E) A description of the reasons the student ceased attending the institution.

(F) If the student ceased attending because of a breach or anticipatory breach or because of the decline in the quality or value of the course of instruction as described in subparagraph (E) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), a statement describing in detail the nature of the loss incurred. The application shall be filed within one year of the council's service on the student of the notice described in paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) or, if no notice is served, within four years of the institution's closure.

(2) Students entitled to payment as provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) shall file with the council a verified application indicating the student's name, address, telephone number, and social security number, the amount of the judgment obtained against the institution, a statement that the judgment cannot be collected, and a description of the efforts attempted to enforce the judgment. The application shall be accompanied by a copy of the judgment and any other documents indicating the student's efforts made to enforce the judgment.

The application shall be filed within two years after the date upon which the judgment became final.

(3) The council may require additional information designed to facilitate payment to entitled students. The council shall relieve a student from the requirement to provide all of the information required by this subdivision if the council has the information or the information is not reasonably necessary for the resolution of a student's claim.

(e) Within 60 days of the council's receipt of a completed application for payment, the council shall pay the claim from the Student Tuition Recovery Fund or deny the claim. The council , for good cause, may extend the time period for up to an additional 90 days to investigate the accuracy of the claim.

(f) (1) If the council pays the claim, the amount of the payment shall be (A) the greater of either (i) the total guaranteed student loan debt incurred by the student in connection with attending the institution, or (ii) the total of the student's tuition and the cost of equipment and materials related to the course of instruction, less (B) the amount of any refund, reimbursement, indemnification, restitution, compensatory damages, settlement, debt forgiveness, discharge, cancellation, or compromise, or any other benefit received by, or on behalf of, the student before the council's payment of the claim in connection with the student loan debt or cost of tuition, equipment, and materials. The payment also shall include the amount the institution collected and failed to pay to third parties on behalf of the student for license fees or any other purpose.

However, if the claim is based solely on the circumstances described in subparagraph (B) or (C) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), the amount of the payment shall be the amount of the loss suffered by the student.

In addition to the amount determined under this paragraph, the amount of the payment shall include all interest and collection costs on all student loan debt incurred by the student in connection with attending the institution.

(2) The council may reduce the total amount specified in paragraph (1) by the value of the benefit, if any, of the education obtained by the student before the closure of the institution. If the council makes any reduction pursuant to this paragraph, the council shall notify the claimant in writing at the time the claim is paid of the basis of its decision and provide a brief explanation of the reasons upon which the council relied in computing the amount of the reduction.

(3) No reduction shall be made to the amount specified in paragraph (1) if (A) the student did not receive adequate instruction to obtain the training, skills, or experience, or employment to which the instruction was represented to lead, or (B) credit for the instruction obtained by the student is not generally transferable to other institutions approved by the council.

(4) The amount of the payment determined under this subdivision is not dependent on the amount of the refund to which the student would have been entitled after a voluntary withdrawal.

(5) Upon payment of the claim, all of the student's rights against the institution shall be deemed assigned to the council to the extent of the amount of the payment.

(g) (1) The director of the council may negotiate with a lender, holder, guarantee agency, or the United States Department of Education for the full compromise or write-off of student loan obligations to relieve students of loss and thereby reduce the amount of student claims.

(2) The director of the council, with the student's permission, may pay a student's claim directly to the lender, holder, guarantee agency, or United States Department of Education under a federally guaranteed student loan program only if the payment of the claim fully satisfies all of the student's loan obligations related to attendance at the institution for which the claim was filed.

(3) Notwithstanding subdivision (e), the council may delay the payment of a claim pending the resolution of the council's attempt to obtain a compromise or write-off of the claimant's student loan obligation. However, the council shall immediately pay the claim in the event any adverse action that is not stayed is taken against the claimant, including the commencement of a civil or administrative action, tax offset, the enforcement of a judgment, or the denial of any government benefit.

(h) If the council denies the claim, or reduces the amount of the claim pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (f), the council shall notify the student of the denial or reduction and of the student's right to request a hearing within 60 days or any longer period permitted by the council. If a hearing is not requested within 60 days or any additional period reasonably requested by the student, the council's decision shall be final. If a hearing is requested, Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code shall apply.

It is the intent of the Legislature that, when a student is enrolled in an institution that closes prior to the completion of the student's program, the student shall have the option for a teach-out at another institution approved by the council. The council shall seek to promote teach-out opportunities wherever possible and shall inform the student of his or her rights, including payment from the fund, transfer opportunities, and available teach-out opportunities, if any.

(i) This section applies to all claims filed or pending after January 1, 1990.

CHAPTER 810

An act to add Section 625.5 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to juveniles.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 625.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

625.5. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to accomplish the following purposes:

(1) To safeguard the fiscal integrity of cities and counties by enabling them to recoup the law enforcement costs of identifying, detaining, and transporting minors who violate curfew ordinances to their places of residence.

(2) To encourage parents and legal guardians to exercise reasonable care, supervision, and control over their minor children so as to prevent them from committing unlawful acts.

(3) To help eradicate criminal street gang activity.

(b) This section shall only apply to a city, county, or city and county in which the governing body of the city, county, or city and county has enacted an ordinance prohibiting minors from remaining in or upon the public streets unsupervised after hours and has adopted a resolution to implement this section.

(c) Except as provided in subdivision (d), law enforcement personnel are authorized to temporarily detain any minor upon a reasonable suspicion based on articulable facts that the minor is in violation of the ordinance described in subdivision (b) and to transport that minor to his or her place of permanent or temporary residence within the state, whether the place of residence is located within or without the jurisdiction of the governing body, or to the custody of his or her parents or legal guardian. A law enforcement officer may decide not to temporarily detain and transport a minor if he or she determines that the minor has a legitimate reason based on extenuating circumstances for violating the ordinance.

(d) Upon the first violation of the ordinance described in subdivision (b), the law enforcement officer shall issue to the minor a warning citation regarding the consequences of a second violation of the ordinance. A designated representative of the governmental entity issuing the citation shall mail to the parents of the minor or legal guardian a notification that states that upon a second violation, the parents or legal guardian may be held liable for actual administrative and transportation costs, and that requires the parents or legal guardian to sign and return the notification. This notification shall include a space for the explanation of any circumstances relevant to an applicable exemption from the fee as provided by subdivision (e). This explanation shall be reviewed by a designated representative of the governmental entity that issued the citation and notification. If the explanation is found to be insufficient, the representative may request a consultation with the parents or legal guardian for the purpose of discussing the circumstances claimed to be relevant to an applicable exemption.

(e) A fee for the actual costs of administrative and transportation services for the return of the minor to his or her place of residence, or to the custody of his or her parents or legal guardian, may be charged jointly or severally to the minor, his or her parents, or legal guardian, in an amount not to exceed those actual costs. Upon petition of the person required to pay the fee, the governmental entity issuing the citation shall conduct a hearing as to the validity of the fees charged, and may waive payment of the fee by the minor, his or her parents, or legal guardian, upon a finding of good cause. If authorized by the governing body, the city, county, or city and county may charge this fee, in which case the city, county, or city and county may (1) provide for waiver of the payment of the fee by the parents or legal guardian upon a determination that the person has made reasonable efforts to exercise supervision and control over the minor, (2) provide for a determination of the ability to pay the fee and provide that the fee may be waived if neither the minor nor the parents or legal guardian has the ability to pay the fee, (3) provide for the performance of community service in lieu of imposition of the fee, and (4) provide for waiver of the payment of the fee by the parents or legal guardian upon a determination that the parents or legal guardian has limited physical or legal custody and control of the minor.

(f) In a civil action commenced by a city, county, or city and county to collect the fee, a court may waive payment of the fee by the minor, his or her parents, or legal guardian, upon a finding of good cause.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 70141, 70141.9, 73649.1, 73672.6, 73960, 74001.5, 74346, 74701.5, 74743, and 74841.5 of, to add Sections 73435.1, 74143.2, and 74603 to, and to repeal Section 73960.1 of, the Government Code, relating to courts.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 70141 of the Government Code is amended to read:

70141. (a) To assist the court in disposing of its business connected with the administration of justice, the superior court of any city and county may appoint not exceeding 10 commissioners, and the superior court of every county, except a county with a population of 4,000,000 or over, may appoint one commissioner. Each person so appointed shall be designated as "court commissioner" of the county.

(b) In addition to the court commissioners authorized by subdivision (a) or any other provision of law, either the superior court or the municipal court, but not both, of any county or city and county may appoint one additional commissioner, at the same rate of compensation as the other commissioner or commissioners for that court, upon adoption of a resolution by the board of supervisors pursuant to subdivision (c).

(c) The county or city and county shall be bound by, and the resolution adopted by the board of supervisors shall specifically recognize, the following conditions:

(1) The county or city and county has sufficient funds for the support of the position and any staff who will provide direct support to the position, agrees to assume any and all additional costs that may result therefrom, and agrees that no state funds shall be made available, or shall be used, in support of this position or any staff who provide direct support to this position.

(2) The additional commissioner shall not be deemed a judicial position for purposes of calculating trial court funding pursuant to Section 77202.

(3) The salary for this position and for any staff who provide direct support to this position shall not be considered as part of court operations for purposes of Sections 77003 and 77204.

(4) The county or city and county agrees not to seek funding from the state for payment of the salary, benefits, or other compensation for such a commissioner or for any staff who provide direct support to such a commissioner.

(d) The court may provide that the additional commissioner may perform all duties authorized for a commissioner of that court in the county. In a county or city and county that has undertaken a consolidation of the trial courts, the additional commissioner shall be appointed by the superior, municipal, or justice courts pursuant to the consolidation agreement.

SEC. 2. Section 70141.9 of the Government Code is amended to read:

70141.9. In a county of the 11th class, the superior court, subject to prior approval by the board of supervisors, may appoint four commissioners. However, at such time as the board of supervisors finds that there are sufficient funds for up to seven commissioners, and adopts a resolution to that effect, there shall be seven commissioners for the superior court. Authorization of the fifth, sixth, and seventh positions shall not increase trial court funding provided to Riverside County pursuant to Sections 77003 and 77004. The superior court may provide that the commissioners, in addition to the duties prescribed in Section 259 of the Code of Civil Procedure, shall perform the duties of a probate commissioner appointed pursuant to Section 69897. The superior court may also authorize the commissioners to perform the duties of a juvenile court referee appointed pursuant to Section 247 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. Any commissioner authorized to perform the duties set forth above shall receive a salary equal to 75, 80, or 85 percent of the salary of a judge of the superior court. The court shall determine the level of the salary to be received by a court commissioner, making adjustments on the three levels in accordance with the qualifications, performance, and other factors deemed relevant by the court. The salary shall be adjusted by the court at the time and in the manner specified in Section 68203. Each commissioner shall also be allowed actual traveling expenses pursuant to Section 70148.

The amendment of this section made at the 1985-86 Regular Session of the Legislature does not constitute a change in, but is declaratory of, the existing law.

SEC. 3. Section 73435.1 is added to the Government Code, to read:

73435.1. (a) The judges of the East Kern Municipal Court may appoint one commissioner. The commissioner shall possess the same qualifications as the law requires of a judge of the court. Within the jurisdiction of the court and under the direction of the judges, the commissioner shall exercise the powers and perform the duties authorized by law to be performed by the commissioners of the superior court and any additional powers and duties as may be prescribed by law.

(b) The commissioner shall be paid biweekly, pursuant to the payroll procedures in effect in the County of Kern, in an amount equal to 70 to 85 percent of a municipal court judge's salary. The court shall recommend to the board of supervisors the level of salary to be received by the commissioner based on his or her qualifications, performance, and other factors deemed relevant by the court, and the board of supervisors shall determine the salary level within the specified range. The biweekly salary rate of the commissioner shall be adjusted at the same time and manner and in the same percentage amount as set forth in Section 68203.

(c) In addition to the compensation provided for in this section, each commissioner shall be entitled to and shall receive on the same basis as other county employees, the same benefits and privileges with respect to retirement, group insurance, sick leave, and vacation. The commissioner shall observe the same holidays as other court employees.

SEC. 4. Section 73649.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73649.1. (a) By order entered in the minutes of the court, a majority of judges may appoint two commissioners. However, if the board of supervisors finds that there are sufficient funds for one additional commissioner and adopts a resolution to that effect, a majority of judges may appoint an additional commissioner. The commissioners shall serve at the pleasure of the judges and shall receive a salary equal to 80 percent of the salary of a judge of the municipal court.

(b) A commissioner shall receive and be entitled to the same number of holidays, leaves of absence, and all other fringe benefits as are now or may hereafter be provided for a deputy county counsel IV in the classified service of the County of San Diego. However, a commissioner shall be entitled to (1) earn sick leave credit at the rate of 5 percent of each hour of paid service during the pay period, and (2) earn vacation credit at the rate of 8.075 percent of each hour of paid service during the pay period.

(c) With the approval of a majority of judges of the court and the board of supervisors, a commissioner may be reimbursed for any payment he or she makes for his or her annual State Bar of California membership fee.

SEC. 5. Section 73672.6 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73672.6. There is one municipal court commissioner, who shall be appointed pursuant to Article 10 (commencing with Section 72450) of Chapter 9. However, operative July 1, 1992, there shall be two municipal court commissioners.

Any municipal court commissioner appointed pursuant to Article 10 (commencing with Section 72450) of Chapter 9 to serve a municipal court district in the County of Solano shall receive compensation at a range of 60 to 80 percent of a superior court judge's salary. The presiding judge of the municipal court has the authority to place individuals in this range.

SEC. 6. Section 73960 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73960. (a) By order entered in the minutes of the court, a majority of judges may appoint three commissioners. However, if the board of supervisors finds that there are sufficient funds for up to two additional commissioners and adopts a resolution or resolutions to that effect, a majority of judges may appoint up to two additional commissioners. A commissioner shall serve at the pleasure of the judges and shall receive a biweekly salary equal to 80 percent of the salary of a judge of a municipal court.

(b) A commissioner shall receive and be entitled to the same number of holidays, leaves of absence, and all other fringe benefits as are now or may hereafter be provided for a deputy county counsel IV in the classified service of the County of San Diego. However, a commissioner shall be entitled to (1) earn sick leave credit at the rate of 5 percent of each hour of paid service during the pay period, and (2) earn vacation credit at the rate of 8.075 percent of each hour of paid service during the pay period.

(c) With the approval of a majority of judges of the court and the board of supervisors, each commissioner may be reimbursed for any payment he or she makes for his or her annual State Bar of California membership fee.

SEC. 7. Section 73960.1 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 8. Section 74001.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

74001.5. The judges of the Central Orange County Judicial District may appoint two court commissioners. The judges of the Orange County Harbor Judicial District may appoint two court commissioners. The judges of the North Orange County Judicial District may appoint two court commissioners, provided that at such time as the board of supervisors finds that there are sufficient funds for one additional court commissioner and adopts a resolution to that effect, there shall be up to three court commissioners. The judges of the South Orange County Judicial District may appoint one court commissioner, provided that at such time as the board of supervisors finds that there are sufficient funds for up to three additional court commissioners and adopts a resolution or resolutions to that effect, there shall be up to four court commissioners. The judges of the West Orange County Judicial District may appoint two court commissioners.

The commissioners shall have the additional powers and duties prescribed by Section 259 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The commissioners shall possess the same qualifications as the law requires of a judge of the municipal court. The commissioners shall hold office at the pleasure of the judges and shall receive a monthly salary in the same sum as is paid a commissioner of the Orange County Superior Court. The commissioners shall be ex officio deputy clerks of the court and shall be members of any retirement system which includes the attachés of the court. The commissioners shall not engage in the private practice of law.

SEC. 9. Section 74143.2 is added to the Government Code, to read:

74143.2. When the board of supervisors finds that there are sufficient funds for a second court commissioner for the Three Lakes Judicial District and adopts a resolution to that effect, there shall be two court commissioners for the Three Lakes Judicial District. However, if the Legislature subsequently authorizes one additional judge for the district and the board of supervisors finds there are sufficient funds for the additional judge, the board of supervisors may eliminate the second commissioner position for the Three Lakes Judicial District at any time after the additional judge is sworn into office. The second court commissioner shall have the same powers and receive the same salary specified in Section 74135.1.

The second commissioner position shall not be counted in the calculation of trial court funding pursuant to Section 77202, and the salary for this position shall not be considered as part of court operations for Riverside County for purposes of Sections 77003 and 77204.

SEC. 10. Section 74346 of the Government Code is amended to read:

74346. (a) There shall be eight commissioners who shall hold office at the pleasure of the judges. A commissioner shall receive a salary equal to 80 percent of the salary of a judge of the municipal court.

(b) A commissioner shall receive and be entitled to the same number of holidays, leaves of absence, and all other fringe benefits as are now or may hereafter be provided for a deputy county counsel IV in the classified service of the County of San Diego. However, a commissioner shall be entitled to (1) earn sick leave credit at the rate of 5 percent of each hour of paid service during the pay period; and (2) earn vacation credit at the rate of 8.075 percent of each hour of paid service during the pay period.

(c) With the approval of a majority of the judges of the court and the board of supervisors, each commissioner may be reimbursed for any payment he or she makes for his or her annual State Bar of California membership fee.

SEC. 11. Section 74603 is added to the Government Code, to read:

74603. There shall be one commissioner of the San Luis Obispo County Municipal Court, who shall be appointed by the presiding judge with the concurrence of a majority of the judges of the court, and shall hold office at the pleasure of a majority of the judges. The commissioner shall possess the same qualifications as the law requires of a judge of the municipal court. The appointment shall be pursuant to Section 72190 and the commissioner shall receive a salary which equals 85 percent of the annual salary of a municipal court judge. The commissioner is a court employee within the meaning of Section 74609. The duties of the commissioner shall be as prescribed by law.

SEC. 12. Section 74701.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

74701.5. The judges of the Sonoma County Municipal Court may, by majority vote, appoint two court commissioners who shall meet the qualifications and have the powers and duties specified in Sections 72190 and 72190.1 of this code, and Section 259 of the Code of Civil Procedure. However, if the board of supervisors finds that there are sufficient funds for one additional court commissioner and adopts a resolution to that effect, there shall be three court commissioners. Any commissioner so appointed shall also have the power and duties of a traffic referee, as provided in Article 9 (commencing with Section 72400) of Chapter 8 of Title 8. The salary of the commissioner for all duties performed pursuant to this section shall be equal to 85 percent of the annual salary of a judge of a municipal court. The commissioner shall be a member of the Sonoma County Retirement System and shall receive vacation, sick leave, and fringe benefits identical to those provided Sonoma County administrative management employees.

SEC. 13. Section 74743 of the Government Code is amended to read:

74743. (a) By order entered in the minutes of the court, a majority of judges may appoint two commissioners. However, if the board of supervisors finds that there are sufficient funds for one additional commissioner and adopts a resolution to that effect, a majority of judges may appoint an additional commissioner. The commissioners shall serve at the pleasure of the judges and shall receive a salary equal to 80 percent of the salary of a judge of the municipal court.

(b) A commissioner shall receive and be entitled to the same number of holidays, leaves of absence, and all other fringe benefits as are now or may hereafter be provided for a deputy county counsel IV in the classified service of the County of San Diego. However, a commissioner shall be entitled to (1) earn sick leave credit at the rate of 5 percent of each hour of paid service during the pay period; and (2) earn vacation credit at the rate of 8.075 percent of each hour of paid service during the pay period.

(c) With the approval of a majority of the judges of the court and the board of supervisors, a commissioner may be reimbursed for any payment he or she makes for his or her annual State Bar of California membership fee.

SEC. 14. Section 74841.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

74841.5. There is one traffic trial commissioner, who shall be appointed by the presiding judge with concurrence of the judges of the court, and shall hold office at the pleasure of the judges.

The qualifications, powers and duties, and compensation of the commissioner shall be determined pursuant to Article 10 (commencing with Section 72450) of Chapter 9.

The traffic trial commissioner position shall not be counted in the calculation of trial court funding pursuant to Section 77202, and the salary for this position shall not be considered as a part of court operations for Solano County for purposes of Sections 77003 and 77204.

SEC. 15. The authorization of any additional court commissioner position by this act is subject to the following conditions:

(a) The court has consolidated its municipal and superior court administration.

(b) The court has achieved at least 70 percent coordination of its superior and municipal courts and other functions pursuant to a coordination plan approved by the Judicial Council pursuant to Section 68112 of the Government Code.

(c) The court commissioner positions shall not be funded with funds received pursuant to the Brown-Presley Trial Court Funding Act (Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 77000) of Title 8 of the Government Code), and the county has agreed not to seek funding from the state for these positions.

SEC. 16. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to add Part 1.98 (commencing with Section 449.10) to Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to health facilities.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Part 1.98 (commencing with Section 449.10) is added to Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

PART 1.98. HOSPITALS: COMMUNITY BENEFITS

449.10. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) Private not-for-profit hospitals meet certain needs of their communities through the provision of essential health care and other services. Public recognition of their unique status has led to favorable tax treatment by the government. In exchange, nonprofit hospitals assume a social obligation to provide community benefits in the public interest.

(b) Hospitals and the environment in which they operate have undergone dramatic changes. The pace of change will accelerate in response to health care reform. In light of this, significant public benefit would be derived if private not-for-profit hospitals reviewed and reaffirmed periodically their commitment to assist in meeting their communities' health care needs by identifying and documenting benefits provided to the communities which they serve.

(c) California's private not-for-profit hospitals provide a wide range of benefits to their communities in addition to those reflected in the financial data reported to the state.

(d) Unreported community benefits that are often provided but not otherwise reported include, but are not limited to, all of the following:

(1) Community-oriented wellness and health promotion.

(2) Prevention services, including, but not limited to, health screening, immunizations, school exams, and disease counseling and education.

(3) Adult day care.

(4) Child care.

(5) Medical research.

(6) Medical education.

(7) Nursing and other professional training.

(8) Home-delivered meals to the homebound.

(9) Sponsorship of free food, shelter, and clothing to the homeless.

(10) Outreach clinics in socioeconomically depressed areas.

(e) Direct provision of goods and services, as well as preventive programs, should be emphasized by hospitals in the development of community benefit plans.

449.15. As used in this part, the following terms have the following meanings:

(a) "Community benefits plan" means the written document prepared for annual submission to the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development that shall include, but shall not be limited to, a description of the activities that the hospital has undertaken in order to address identified community needs within its mission and financial capacity, and the process by which the hospital developed the plan in consultation with the community.

(b) "Community" means the service areas or patient populations for which the hospital provides health care services.

(c) Solely for the planning and reporting purposes of this part, "community benefit" means a hospital's activities that are intended to address community needs and priorities primarily through disease prevention and improvement of health status, including, but not limited to, any of the following:

(1) Health care services, rendered to vulnerable populations, including, but not limited to, charity care and the unreimbursed cost of providing services to the uninsured, underinsured, and those eligible for Medi-Cal, Medicare, California Childrens Services

Program, or county indigent programs.

(2) The unreimbursed cost of services included in subdivision (d) of Section 449.10.

(3) Financial or in-kind support of public health programs.

(4) Donation of funds, property, or other resources that contribute to a community priority.

(5) Health care cost containment.

(6) Enhancement of access to health care or related services that contribute to a healthier community.

(7) Services offered without regard to financial return because they meet a community need in the service area of the hospital, and other services including health promotion, health education, prevention, and social services.

(8) Food, shelter, clothing, education, transportation, and other goods or services that help maintain a person's health.

(d) "Community needs assessment" means the process by which the hospital identifies, for its primary service area as determined by the hospital, unmet community needs.

(e) "Community needs" means those requisites for improvement or maintenance of health status in the community.

(f) "Hospital" means a private not-for-profit acute hospital licensed under subdivision (a), (b), or (f) of Section 1250 and is owned by a corporation that has been determined to be exempt from taxation under the United States Internal Revenue Code. "Hospital" does not mean any of the following:

(1) Hospitals that are dedicated to serving children and that do not receive direct payment for services to any patient.

(2) Small and rural hospitals as defined in Section 1188.855.

(g) "Mission statement" means a hospital's primary objectives for operation as adopted by its governing body.

(h) "Vulnerable populations" means any population that is exposed to medical or financial risk by virtue of being uninsured, underinsured, or eligible for Medi-Cal, Medicare, California Childrens Services Program, or county indigent programs.

449.20. Each hospital shall do all of the following:

(a) By July 1, 1995, reaffirm its mission statement that requires its policies integrate and reflect the public interest in meeting its responsibilities as a not-for-profit organization.

(b) By January 1, 1996, complete, either alone, in conjunction with other health care providers, or through other organizational arrangements, a community needs assessment evaluating the health needs of the community serviced by the hospital, that includes, but is not limited to, a process for consulting with community groups and local government officials in the identification and prioritization of community needs that the hospital can address directly, in collaboration with others, or through other organizational arrangement. The community needs assessment shall be updated at least once every three years.

(c) By April 1, 1996, and annually thereafter adopt and update a community benefits plan for providing community benefits either alone, in conjunction with other health care providers, or through other organizational arrangements.

(d) Annually submit its community benefits plan, including, but not limited to, the activities that the hospital has undertaken in order to address community needs within its mission and financial capacity to the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development. The hospital shall, to the extent practicable, assign and report the economic value of community benefits provided in furtherance of its plan. Effective with hospital fiscal years, beginning on or after January 1, 1996, each hospital shall file a copy of the plan with the office not later than 150 days after the hospital's fiscal year ends. The reports filed by the hospitals shall be made available to the public by the office. Hospitals under the common control of a single corporation or another entity may file a consolidated report.

449.25. The hospital shall include all of the following elements in its community benefits plan:

(a) Mechanisms to evaluate the plan's effectiveness including, but not limited to, a method for soliciting the views of the community served by the hospital and identification of community groups and local government officials consulted during the development of the plan.

(b) Measurable objectives to be achieved within specified timeframes.

(c) Community benefits categorized into the following framework:

(1) Medical care services.

(2) Other benefits for vulnerable populations.

(3) Other benefits for the broader community.

(4) Health research, education, and training programs.

(5) Nonquantifiable benefits.

449.30. Nothing in this part shall be construed to authorize or require specific formats for hospital needs assessments, community benefit plans, or reports until recommendations pursuant to Section 449.35 are considered and enacted by the Legislature.

Nothing in this part shall be used to justify the tax-exempt status of a hospital under state law. Nothing in this part shall preclude the office from requiring hospitals to directly report their charity activities.

449.35. The Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development shall prepare and submit a report to the Legislature by October 1, 1997, including all of the following:

(a) The identification of all hospitals that did not file plans on a timely basis.

(b) A statement regarding the most prevalent characteristics of plans in terms of identifying and emphasizing community needs.

(c) Recommendations for standardization of plan formats, and recommendations regarding community benefits and community priorities that should be emphasized. These recommendations shall be developed after consultation with representatives of the hospitals, local governments, and communities.

CHAPTER 813

An act to amend Sections 14115, 14125, and 14125.4 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to Medi-Cal.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14115 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14115. (a) Bills for service under this chapter shall be submitted not more than six months after the month in which the service is rendered, and shall be in the form prescribed by the director, except that in the event the patient does not identify himself or herself to the provider as a Medi-Cal beneficiary within four months after the month in which the service was rendered, the provider shall be entitled to submit his or her statement at any time within 60 days after that date certified by the provider as the date the patient was first identified as a Medi-Cal beneficiary. However, the date certified by the provider as the date the patient was first so identified shall not be later than one year after the month in which the service was rendered. Whenever a provider has submitted a claim to a liable third party, the provider shall have one year after the month in which the service is rendered for submission of the bill. Whenever a legal proceeding has been commenced with either an administrative or judicial tribunal concerning a bill for which the provider is attempting to obtain payment from a liable third party, the provider shall have one year in which to submit the bill after the month in which the services have been rendered. A copy of the pleadings shall be conclusively presumed to be sufficient evidence of commencement of a legal proceeding.

(b) The director may, where he or she finds that delay in the submission of bills was caused by circumstances beyond the control of the provider, extend the period for submission of bills for a period not to exceed one year.

(c) (1) Reimbursement for an original claim, submitted for payment between six and 12 months after the month of service, that does not meet any of the exceptions allowing billing after six months as specified in subdivisions (a) and (b), or the exception specified in subdivision (f), shall be reduced as follows:

(A) The amount otherwise payable by Medi-Cal shall be reduced by 25 percent for claims submitted during the seventh through the ninth month after the month of service.

(B) The amount otherwise payable by Medi-Cal shall be reduced by 50 percent for claims submitted during the 10th through the 12th month after the month of service.

(2) In no event shall the provider be reimbursed for claims submitted more than one year after the month of service.

(d) For the purposes of this section, identification of a patient as a Medi-Cal beneficiary shall mean presentation to the provider of the patient's Medi-Cal card.

(e) No further followup shall be required, after the provider receives acknowledgment of a claim inquiry from the fiscal intermediary, until the claim is paid or denied, except that this period shall not exceed one year from the date of acknowledgment. Within one year from the date of acknowledgment the next level of appeal shall be utilized by the provider.

(f) To the extent permitted by federal law, when a state of emergency has been declared by either the President of the United States or the Governor, the director, in order to ensure continued access to health care services, may remit payment for services without the submission of required documentation, to any provider in good standing under the Medi-Cal program who, due to destruction, loss, or inaccessibility of data as a result of the emergency situation, is unable to submit claims. Emergency payments may be made for a period of up to six months from the date of the emergency declaration. All requests for emergency payment shall include adequate justification for payment, as required by the director, and shall be paid based on the previous claims history of the requesting provider held by the department.

SEC. 2. Section 14125 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14125. The purpose of this article is to establish provider reimbursement rates for incontinence medical supplies covered by the Medi-Cal program. Reimbursement for incontinence medical supplies shall consist of the weighted average of the negotiated contract prices within each product category , plus a markup fee equal to 40 percent of the resulting adjusted contract price.

SEC. 3. Section 14125.4 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14125.4. (a) No later than January 1, 1994, the department shall establish utilization controls that limit expenditures for incontinence medical supplies per beneficiary to no more than one hundred sixty-five dollars ($165) per month. Incontinence creams and washes shall be excluded from this limitation. The expenditure limit established by this section may be adjusted in the annual Budget Act to reflect changes in wholesale prices. These utilization controls shall be published in provider bulletins.

(b) The department shall, by prior authorization, allow a beneficiary to exceed the utilization limits established by this section when justified to the department's satisfaction not later than January 1, 1994.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no regulations shall be necessary to define the incontinence medical supplies subject to the reductions required in Section 14125.3, or to establish and implement the utilization controls required in this section.

CHAPTER 814

An act to amend Sections 19574.2, 19575, and 19584 of, and to add Section 18671.2 to, the Government Code, relating to state civil service.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18671.2 is added to the Government Code, to read:

18671.2. (a) The total cost to the state of maintaining and operating the hearing office of the board shall be determined by the board, in advance or upon any other basis as it may determine, utilizing information from the state agencies for which services are provided by the hearing office.

(b) The board shall be reimbursed for the entire cost of hearings conducted by the hearing office pursuant to statutes administered by the board, or by interagency agreement. The board may bill the appropriate state agencies for the costs incurred in conducting hearings involving employees of those state agencies. All costs collected by the board pursuant to this section shall only be used for purposes of maintaining and operating the hearing office of the board.

SEC. 2. Section 19574.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

19574.2. (a) Any party claiming that his or her request for discovery pursuant to Section 19574.1 has not been complied with may serve and file a petition to compel discovery with the Hearing Office of the State Personnel Board, naming as respondent the party refusing or failing to comply with Section 19574.1. The petition shall state facts showing that the respondent party failed or refused to comply with Section 19574.1, a description of the matters sought to be discovered, the reason or reasons why the matter is discoverable under Section 19574.1, and the ground or grounds of respondent's refusal so far as known to petitioner.

(b) The petition shall be served upon respondent party and filed within 14 days after the respondent party first evidenced his or her failure or refusal to comply with Section 19574.1 or within 30 days after the request was made and the party has failed to reply to the request, whichever period is longer. However, no petition may be filed within 15 days of the date set for commencement of the administrative hearing, except upon a petition and a determination by the administrative law judge of good cause. In determining good cause, the administrative law judge shall consider the necessity and reasons for the discovery, the diligence or lack of diligence of the moving party, whether the granting of the petition will delay the commencement of the administrative hearing on the date set, and the possible prejudice of the action to any party. The respondent shall have a right to file a written answer to the petition. Any answer shall be filed with the Hearing Office of the State Personnel Board and the petitioner within 15 days of service of the petition.

Unless otherwise stipulated by the parties and as provided by this section, the administrative law judge shall review the petition and any response filed by the respondent and issue a decision granting or denying the petition within 20 days after the filing of the petition. Nothing in this section shall preclude the administrative law judge from determining that an evidentiary hearing shall be conducted prior to the issuance of a decision on the petition. In the event that a hearing is ordered, the decision of the administrative law judge shall be issued within 20 days of the closing of the hearing.

A party aggrieved by the decision of the administrative law judge may, within 30 days of service of the decision, file a petition to compel discovery in the superior court for the county in which the administrative hearing will be held or in the county in which the headquarters of the appointing power is located. The petition shall be served on the respondent party.

(c) If from a reading of the petition the court is satisfied that the petition sets forth good cause for relief, the court shall issue an order to show cause directed to the respondent party; otherwise the court shall enter an order denying the petition. The order to show cause shall be served upon the respondent and his or her attorney of record in the administrative proceeding by personal delivery or certified mail and shall be returnable no earlier than 10 days from its issuance nor later than 30 days after the filing of the petition. The respondent party shall have the right to serve and file a written answer or other response to the petition and order to show cause.

(d) The court may, in its discretion, order the administrative proceeding stayed during the pendency of the proceeding, and, if necessary, for a reasonable time thereafter to afford the parties time to comply with the court order.

(e) Where the matter sought to be discovered is under the custody or control of the respondent party and the respondent party asserts that the matter is not a discoverable matter under Section 19574.1, or is privileged against disclosure under Section 19574.1, the court may order lodged with it matters which are provided in subdivision (b) of Section 915 of the Evidence Code and shall examine the matters in accordance with the provisions thereof.

(f) The court shall decide the case on the matters examined by the court in camera, the papers filed by the parties, and such oral argument and additional evidence as the court may allow.

(g) Unless otherwise stipulated by the parties, the court shall no later than 45 days after the filing of the petition file its order denying or granting the petition; provided, however, that the court may on its own motion for good cause extend the time an additional 45 days. The order of the court shall be in writing setting forth the matters or parts the petitioner is entitled to discover under Section 19574.1. A copy of the order shall forthwith be served by mail by the clerk upon the parties. Where the order grants the petition in whole or in part, the order shall not become effective until 10 days after the date the order is served by the clerk. Where the order denies relief to the petitioning party, the order shall be effective on the date it is served by the clerk.

(h) The order of the superior court shall be final and, except for this subdivision, shall not be subject to review by appeal. A party aggrieved by the order, or any part thereof, may within 30 days after the service of the superior court's order serve and file in the district court of appeal for the district in which the superior court is located, a petition for a writ of mandamus to compel the superior court to set aside, or otherwise modify, its order. Where a review is sought from an order granting discovery, the order of the trial court and the administrative proceeding shall be stayed upon the filing of the petition for writ of mandamus; provided, however, that the court of appeal may dissolve or modify the stay thereafter, if it is in the public interest to do so. Where the review is sought from a denial of discovery, neither the trial court's order nor the administrative proceeding shall be stayed by the court of appeal except upon a clear showing of probable error.

(i) Where the superior court finds that a party or his or her attorney, without substantial justification, failed or refused to comply with Section 19574.1, or, without substantial justification, filed a petition to compel discovery pursuant to this section, or, without substantial justification, failed to comply with any order of court made pursuant to this section, the court may award court costs and reasonable attorney fees to the opposing party. Nothing in this subdivision shall limit the power of the superior court to compel obedience to its orders by contempt proceedings.

SEC. 3. Section 19575 of the Government Code is amended to read:

19575. No later than 30 calendar days after service of the notice of adverse action, the employee may file with the board a written answer to the notice, which answer shall be deemed to be a denial of all of the allegations of the notice of adverse action not expressly admitted and a request for hearing or investigation as provided in this article. With the consent of the board or its authorized representative an amended answer may subsequently be filed. If the employee fails to answer within the time specified or after answer withdraws his or her appeal the adverse action taken by the appointing power shall be final. A copy of the employee's answer and of any amended answer shall promptly be given by the board to the appointing power.

SEC. 4. Section 19584 of the Government Code is amended to read:

19584. Whenever the board revokes or modifies an adverse action and orders that the employee be returned to his or her position, it shall direct the payment of salary and all interest accrued thereto, and the reinstatement of all benefits that otherwise would have normally accrued. "Salary" shall include salary, as defined in Section 18000, salary adjustments and shift differential, and other special salary compensations, if sufficiently predictable. Benefits shall include, but shall not be limited to, retirement, medical, dental, and seniority benefits pursuant to memoranda of understanding for that classification of employee to the employee for that period of time as the board finds the adverse action was improperly in effect.

Salary shall not be authorized or paid for any portion of a period of adverse action that the employee was not ready, able, and willing to perform the duties of his or her position, whether the adverse action is valid or not or the causes on which it is based state facts sufficient to constitute cause for discipline.

From any such salary due there shall be deducted compensation that the employee earned, or might reasonably have earned, during any period commencing more than six months after the initial date of the suspension.

CHAPTER 815

An act to amend Section 43.7 of the Civil Code, to amend Section 13401.5 of the Corporations Code, and to amend Section 1157 of the Evidence Code, relating to acupuncture.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 43.7 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

43.7. (a) There shall be no monetary liability on the part of, and no cause of action for damages shall arise against, any member of a duly appointed mental health professional quality assurance committee that is established in compliance with Section 4070 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, for any act or proceeding undertaken or performed within the scope of the functions of the committee which is formed to review and evaluate the adequacy, appropriateness, or effectiveness of the care and treatment planned for, or provided to, mental health patients in order to improve quality of care by mental health professionals if the committee member acts without malice, has made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter as to which he or she acts, and acts in reasonable belief that the action taken by him or her is warranted by the facts known to him or her after the reasonable effort to obtain facts.

(b) There shall be no monetary liability on the part of, and no cause of action for damages shall arise against, any professional society, any member of a duly appointed committee of a medical specialty society, or any member of a duly appointed committee of a state or local professional society, or duly appointed member of a committee of a professional staff of a licensed hospital (provided the professional staff operates pursuant to written bylaws that have been approved by the governing board of the hospital), for any act or proceeding undertaken or performed within the scope of the functions of the committee which is formed to maintain the professional standards of the society established by its bylaws, or any member of any peer review committee whose purpose is to review the quality of medical, dental, dietetic, chiropractic, optometric, acupuncture, or veterinary services rendered by physicians and surgeons, dentists, dental hygienists, podiatrists, registered dietitians, chiropractors, optometrists, acupuncturists, veterinarians, or psychologists which committee is composed chiefly of physicians and surgeons, dentists, dental hygienists, podiatrists, registered dietitians, chiropractors, optometrists, acupuncturists, veterinarians, or psychologists for any act or proceeding undertaken or performed in reviewing the quality of medical, dental, dietetic, chiropractic, optometric, acupuncture, or veterinary services rendered by physicians and surgeons, dentists, dental hygienists, podiatrists, registered dietitians, chiropractors, optometrists, acupuncturists, veterinarians, or psychologists or any member of the governing board of a hospital in reviewing the quality of medical services rendered by members of the staff if the professional society, committee, or board member acts without malice, has made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter as to which he, she, or it acts, and acts in reasonable belief that the action taken by him, her, or it is warranted by the facts known to him, her, or it after the reasonable effort to obtain facts. "Professional society" includes legal, medical, psychological, dental, dental hygiene, dietetic, accounting, optometric, acupuncture, podiatric, pharmaceutic, chiropractic, physical therapist, veterinary, licensed marriage, family, and child counseling, licensed clinical social work, and engineering organizations having as members at least 25 percent of the eligible persons or licentiates in the geographic area served by the particular society. However, if the society has less than 100 members, it shall have as members at least a majority of the eligible persons or licentiates in the geographic area served by the particular society.

"Medical specialty society" means an organization having as members at least 25 percent of the eligible physicians within a given professionally recognized medical specialty in the geographic area served by the particular society.

(c) This section does not affect the official immunity of an officer or employee of a public corporation.

(d) There shall be no monetary liability on the part of, and no cause of action for damages shall arise against, any physician and surgeon, podiatrist, or chiropractor who is a member of an underwriting committee of an interindemnity or reciprocal or interinsurance exchange or mutual company for any act or proceeding undertaken or performed in evaluating physicians and surgeons, podiatrists, or chiropractors for the writing of professional liability insurance, or any act or proceeding undertaken or performed in evaluating physicians and surgeons for the writing of an interindemnity, reciprocal, or interinsurance contract as specified in Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code, if the evaluating physician or surgeon, podiatrist, or chiropractor acts without malice, has made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter as to which he or she acts, and acts in reasonable belief that the action taken by him or her is warranted by the facts known to him or her after the reasonable effort to obtain the facts.

(e) This section shall not be construed to confer immunity from liability on any quality assurance committee established in compliance with Section 4070 of the Welfare and Institutions Code or hospital. In any case in which, but for the enactment of the preceding provisions of this section, a cause of action would arise against a quality assurance committee established in compliance with Section 4070 of the Welfare and Institutions Code or hospital, the cause of action shall exist as if the preceding provisions of this section had not been enacted.

(f) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1990.

SEC. 2. Section 13401.5 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

13401.5. Notwithstanding subdivision (d) of Section 13401 and any other provision of law, the following licensed persons may be shareholders, officers, directors, or professional employees of the professional corporations designated in this section so long as the sum of all shares owned by those licensed persons does not exceed 49 percent of the total number of shares of the professional corporation so designated herein, and so long as the number of those licensed persons owning shares in the professional corporation so designated herein does not exceed the number of persons licensed by the governmental agency regulating the designated professional corporation:

SEC. 3. Section 1157 of the Evidence Code is amended to read:

1157. (a) Neither the proceedings nor the records of organized committees of medical, medical-dental, podiatric, registered dietitian, psychological, or veterinary staffs in hospitals, or of a peer review body, as defined in Section 805 of the Business and Professions Code, having the responsibility of evaluation and improvement of the quality of care rendered in the hospital, or for that peer review body, or medical or dental review or dental hygienist review or chiropractic review or podiatric review or registered dietitian review or veterinary review or acupuncturist review committees of local medical, dental, dental hygienist, podiatric, dietetic, veterinary, acupuncture, or chiropractic societies, or psychological review committees of state or local psychological associations or societies having the responsibility of evaluation and improvement of the quality of care, shall be subject to discovery.

(b) Except as hereinafter provided, no person in attendance at a meeting of any of those committees shall be required to testify as to what transpired at that meeting.

(c) The prohibition relating to discovery or testimony does not apply to the statements made by any person in attendance at a meeting of any of those committees who is a party to an action or proceeding the subject matter of which was reviewed at that meeting, or to any person requesting hospital staff privileges, or in any action against an insurance carrier alleging bad faith by the carrier in refusing to accept a settlement offer within the policy limits.

(d) The prohibitions in this section do not apply to medical, dental, dental hygienist, podiatric, dietetic, psychological, veterinary, acupuncture, or chiropractic society committees that exceed 10 percent of the membership of the society, nor to any of those committees if any person serves upon the committee when his or her own conduct or practice is being reviewed.

(e) The amendments made to this section by Chapter 1081 of the Statutes of 1983, or at the 1985 portion of the 1985–86 Regular Session of the Legislature, or at the 1990 portion of the 1989–90 Regular Session of the Legislature, do not exclude the discovery or use of relevant evidence in a criminal action.

CHAPTER 816

An act to amend Section 44234 of the Education Code, relating to teachers.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 44234 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44234. (a) There is in the State Treasury the Teacher Credentials Fund. All fees levied and collected by the commission shall be deposited in the Teacher Credentials Fund and shall not be transferred to any other fund.

(b) Notwithstanding any other law, if at the beginning of any fiscal year the commission has unencumbered funds in an amount which is in excess of its operating budget, plus funds required to implement statutory mandates and other changes to teacher credentials, plus a prudent reserve, which reserve shall not exceed 10 percent of the total amount that the commission is authorized to spend in that fiscal year, as determined by the Department of Finance, the department shall recommend a reduction in credential or other fees, whether fixed by statute or determined by this commission within limits fixed by statute, in an amount which will reduce any surplus funds of the commission.

(c) Nothing in this section shall preclude the implementation of multiyear mandates that require a reserve amount that is greater than 10 percent in one fiscal year.

An act to amend Sections 1102 and 1102.6 of the Civil Code, relating to civil law.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1102 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1102. (a) Except as provided in Section 1102.1, this article applies to any transfer by sale, exchange, installment land sale contract, as defined in Section 2985, lease with an option to purchase, any other option to purchase, or ground lease coupled with improvements, of real property, or residential stock cooperative, improved with or consisting of not less than one nor more than four dwelling units.

(b) Any waiver of the requirements of this article is void as against public policy.

SEC. 2. Section 1102.6 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1102.6. The disclosures required by this article pertaining to the property proposed to be transferred are set forth in, and shall be made on a copy of, the following disclosure form:

SECTION 1102.2 OF THE CIVIL CODE PROVIDES A BUYER WITH THE RIGHT TO RESCIND A PURCHASE CONTRACT FOR AT LEAST THREE DAYS AFTER THE DELIVERY OF THIS DISCLOSURE IF DELIVERY OCCURS AFTER THE SIGNING OF AN OFFER TO PURCHASE. IF YOU WISH TO RESCIND THE CONTRACT, YOU MUST ACT WITHIN THE PRESCRIBED PERIOD.

A REAL ESTATE BROKER IS QUALIFIED TO ADVISE ON REAL ESTATE. IF YOU DESIRE LEGAL ADVICE, CONSULT YOUR ATTORNEY.

SEC. 3. It is the intent of the Legislature to clarify and facilitate the use of the real estate disclosure statement specified in Section 1102.6 of the Civil Code. The Legislature does not intend to adversely affect the existing obligations of the parties to a real estate contract, including their agents, to disclose any fact, including the physical conditions of the property and previously received reports of physical inspections, materially affecting the value and desirability of the property.

It is also the intent of the Legislature that the delivery of a real estate transfer disclosure statement may not be waived in an "as is" sale, as was held in Loughrin v. Superior Court (1993), 15 Cal. App. 4th 1188.

CHAPTER 818

An act to amend Section 29622 of, and to add Section 18522 to, the Elections Code, relating to elections.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18522 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

18522. Neither a person nor a controlled committee shall directly or through any other person or controlled committee pay, lend, or contribute, or offer or promise to pay, lend, or contribute, any money or other valuable consideration to or for any voter or to or for any other person to:

(a) Induce any voter to:

(1) Refrain from voting at any election.

(2) Vote or refrain from voting at an election for any particular person or measure.

(3) Remain away from the polls at an election.

(b) Reward any voter for having:

(1) Refrained from voting.

(2) Voted for any particular person or measure.

(3) Refrained from voting for any particular person or measure.

(4) Remained away from the polls at an election.

Any person or candidate violating this section is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months or two or three years.

SEC. 2. Section 29622 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

29622. Neither a person nor a controlled committee shall directly or through any other person or controlled committee pay, lend, or contribute, or offer or promise to pay, lend, or contribute, any money or other valuable consideration to or for any voter or to or for any other person to:

(a) Induce any voter to:
(1) Refrain from voting at any election.
(2) Vote or refrain from voting at an election for any particular person or measure.
(3) Remain away from the polls at an election.
(b) Reward any voter for having:
(1) Refrained from voting.
(2) Voted for any particular person or measure.
(3) Refrained from voting for any particular person or measure.
(4) Remained away from the polls at an election.

Any person or candidate violating this section is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months or two or three years.

SEC. 3. Section 1 of this bill shall become operative only if this bill and SB 1547 are both chaptered, in which case Section 2 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Section 15035 of, and to add Section 15076.7 to, the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to employment.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 15035 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

15035. To promote integration of work force preparation programs at the state level, to further cooperation between government and the private sector in meeting California employers' needs for well-trained workers and California workers' needs for good jobs, to provide oversight of programs operated pursuant to the division, and to meet federal requirements of Section 122 of Part B of Title I of the Job Training Partnership Act of 1982, the State Job Training Coordinating Council is established.

SEC. 2. Section 15076.7 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Code, to read:

15076.7. The State Job Training Coordinating Council, based upon input from employment, training, and education providers, including, but not limited to, the Employment Development Department, the State Department of Education, the California Community Colleges, the California State University, the University of California, and the Trade and Commerce Agency, shall submit to the Legislature and the Governor on or before April 1, 1995, all of the following:

(a) An assessment of existing state and federal employment and training programs, including, but not limited to, goals and objectives, funding sources, funding levels, numbers served, and outcome measurements, and recommendations on the development of performance-based accountability for these programs.

(b) Recommendations to create an integrated employment and training system in California, including, but not limited to, recommendations on coordinated planning, eligibility criteria, service delivery, and advisory bodies.

(c) Recommendations on strategies to link work force preparation to the current and future economic needs of California.

(d) Recommendations on the appropriate organizational structure for a statewide work force preparation council, including, but not limited to, recommendations on the scope, mission, governance, and composition of the council.

CHAPTER 820

An act to amend Sections 76 and 602.1 of, and to add Section 12021.3 to, the Penal Code, relating to threats.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 76 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

76. (a) Every person who knowingly and willingly threatens the life of, or threatens serious bodily harm to, any elected public official, county public defender, county clerk, exempt appointee of the Governor, or judge, or the staff or immediate family of any elected public official, county public defender, county clerk, exempt appointee of the Governor, or judge, with the specific intent that the statement is to be taken as a threat, and the apparent ability to carry out that threat by any means, is guilty of a public offense, punishable as follows:

(1) Upon a first conviction, the offense is punishable by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars ($5,000), or by imprisonment in the state prison, or in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by both that fine and imprisonment.

(2) If the person has been convicted previously of violating this section, the previous conviction shall be charged in the accusatory pleading, and if the previous conviction is found to be true by the jury upon a jury trial, or by the court upon a court trial, or is admitted by the defendant, the offense is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison.

(b) (1) Any law enforcement agency which has knowledge of a violation of this section shall immediately report that information to the California Department of Justice.

(2) In addition to the reporting requirement imposed by paragraph (1), if a violation of this section occurs that involves a constitutional officer of the state, a Member of the Legislature, or a member of the judiciary, the law enforcement agency which has knowledge of the violation shall immediately report that information to the California State Police.

(c) For purposes of this section, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) "Apparent ability to carry out that threat" includes the ability to fulfill the threat at some future date when the person making the threat is an incarcerated prisoner with a stated release date.

(2) "Serious bodily harm" includes serious physical injury or serious traumatic condition.

(3) "Immediate family" means a spouse, parent, or child, or anyone who has regularly resided in the household for the past six months.

(4) "Staff of a judge" means court officers and employees.

(5) "Threat" means a verbal or written threat or a threat implied by a pattern of conduct or a combination of verbal or written statements and conduct made with the intent and the apparent ability to carry out the threat so as to cause the person who is the target of the threat to reasonably fear for his or her safety or the safety of his or her immediate family.

(d) As for threats against staff, the threat must relate directly to the official duties of the staff of the elected public official, county public defender, county clerk, exempt appointee of the Governor, or judge in order to constitute a public offense under this section.

SEC. 2. Section 76 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

76. (a) Every person who knowingly and willingly threatens the life of, or threatens serious bodily harm to, any elected public official, county public defender, county clerk, exempt appointee of the Governor, judge, prosecuting attorney, or peace officer, or the staff or immediate family of any elected public official, county public defender, county clerk, exempt appointee of the Governor, judge, prosecuting attorney, or peace officer, with the specific intent that the statement is to be taken as a threat, and the apparent ability to carry out that threat by any means, is guilty of a public offense, punishable as follows:

(1) Upon a first conviction, the offense is punishable by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars ($5,000), or by imprisonment in the state prison, or in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by both that fine and imprisonment.

(2) If the person has been convicted previously of violating this section, the previous conviction shall be charged in the accusatory pleading, and if the previous conviction is found to be true by the jury upon a jury trial, or by the court upon a court trial, or is admitted by the defendant, the offense is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison.

(b) (1) Any law enforcement agency that has knowledge of a threat to any elected public official, exempt appointee of the Governor, judge, or the immediate family of the official, appointee, or judge shall report that information to the Department of Justice. A threat to any county public defender, county clerk, prosecuting attorney, peace officer, or the immediate family of the attorney, clerk, or officer shall be reported to local law enforcement authorities.

(2) In addition to the reporting requirement imposed by paragraph (1), if a violation of this section occurs that involves a constitutional officer of the state, a Member of the Legislature, or a member of the judiciary, the law enforcement agency that has knowledge of the violation shall immediately report that information to the California State Police.

(c) For purposes of this section, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) "Apparent ability to carry out that threat" includes the ability to fulfill the threat at some future date when the person making the threat is an incarcerated prisoner with a stated release date.

(2) "Serious bodily harm" includes serious physical injury or serious traumatic condition.

(3) "Immediate family" means a spouse, parent, or child, or anyone who has regularly resided in the household for the past six months.

(4) "Staff of a judge" means court officers and employees.

(5) "Threat" means a verbal or written threat or a threat implied by a pattern of conduct or a combination of verbal or written statements and conduct made with the intent and the apparent ability to carry out the threat so as to cause the person who is the target of the threat to reasonably fear for his or her safety or the safety of his or her immediate family.

(6) "Peace officer" means any person who is described in Section 830.1, 830.2, or 830.3.

(d) As for threats against staff, the threat must relate directly to the official duties of the staff of the elected public official, county public defender, county clerk, exempt appointee of the Governor, or judge in order to constitute a public offense under this section.

(e) A threat must relate directly to the official duties of a prosecuting attorney or peace officer in order to constitute a public offense under this section.

SEC. 3. Section 602.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

602.1. (a) Any person who intentionally interferes with any lawful business or occupation carried on by the owner or agent of a business establishment open to the public, by obstructing or intimidating those attempting to carry on business, or their customers, and who refuses to leave the premises of the business establishment after being requested to leave by the owner or the owner's agent, or by a peace officer acting at the request of the owner or owner's agent, is guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in a county jail for up to 90 days, or by a fine of up to four hundred dollars ($400), or by both that imprisonment and fine.

(b) Any person who intentionally interferes with any lawful business carried on by the employees of a public agency open to the public, by obstructing or intimidating those attempting to carry on business, or those persons there to transact business with the public agency, and who refuses to leave the premises of the public agency after being requested to leave by the office manager or a supervisor of the public agency, or by a peace officer acting at the request of the office manager or a supervisor of the public agency, is guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in a county jail for up to 90 days, or by a fine of up to four hundred dollars ($400), or by both that imprisonment and fine.

(c) This section shall not apply to any of the following persons:

(1) Any person engaged in lawful labor union activities that are permitted to be carried out on the property by state or federal law.

(2) Any person on the premises who is engaging in activities protected by the California Constitution or the United States Constitution.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to supersede the application of any other law.

SEC. 4. Section 12021.3 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

12021.3. Except as provided in subdivision (a) of Section 12021 or paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 12021, any person who has been convicted of a misdemeanor violation of Section 76 and who, within 10 years of the conviction, owns, or has in his or her possession or under his or her custody or control, any firearm is guilty of a public offense, which shall be punishable by imprisonment in the state prison or in a county jail not exceeding one year, by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine. The court, on forms prescribed by the Department of Justice, shall notify the department of persons subject to this section. However, the prohibition in this section may be reduced, eliminated, or conditioned as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (c) of Section 12021.

SEC. 5. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 76 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 136 of the 1993–94 First Extraordinary Session of the Legislature. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective, (2) each bill amends Section 76 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 136. In which case, one of the following alternatives shall be applicable:

(A) If this bill becomes operative before AB 136, Section 1 of this bill shall be operative until the operative date of AB 136, at which time Section 2 of this bill shall become operative.

(B) If this bill becomes operative after AB 136, Section 76 of the Penal Code, as amended by AB 136, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 2 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 69893.5, 74131, 74134, 74135.1, 74191.7, 77203.5, and 77205 of, and to add Sections 74135 and 77205.3 to, the Government Code, relating to courts.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 69893.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

69893.5. (a) In each county with a population of 480,000 and not more than 503,000, as determined by the 1960 Federal Census, the superior court may establish such titles as are required and, with the approval of the board of supervisors, may appoint and employ a court administrator, probate file examiner, master calendar clerk, legal secretaries, assistants, and other employees as it deems necessary for the performance of the duties and exercise of the powers conferred by law upon it and its members. Rates of compensation of all officers, assistants, and other employees may be established and adjusted by the board of supervisors.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, juvenile court referees appointed pursuant to Section 247 of the Welfare and Institutions Code and superior court commissioners in this county shall receive a salary equal to 85 percent of the annual salary for a superior court judge and shall earn vacation credit at the rate of 6.5

hours for each biweekly pay period of full-time service, except that a juvenile court referee appointed by the court prior to August 28, 1990, and who has been employed by the county since August 5, 1974, at the time of the appointment shall be entitled to earn vacation credit at the rate of 7.7 hours for each biweekly pay period of full-time service.

(c) The presiding judge of the superior and municipal courts may authorize a court commissioner and juvenile court referees to exercise all the powers and perform all the duties authorized by law to be performed by a commissioner of the superior court, a commissioner of the municipal court appointed pursuant to Section 72190, and a referee of the juvenile court appointed pursuant to Section 247 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

SEC. 2. Section 74131 of the Government Code, as amended by Section 3 of Chapter 1032 of the Statutes of 1992, is amended to read:

74131. (a) There are nine judges in the Western Riverside County Judicial District, which shall include the City of Riverside and the Cities of Corona, Norco, and Moreno Valley.

(b) There are seven judges in the Desert Judicial District, which shall include the Cities of Palm Springs, Indio, and Blythe.

(c) There are three judges in the Mt. San Jacinto Judicial District, which shall include the Cities of Hemet, San Jacinto, Beaumont, and Banning. However, if the Riverside County Board of Supervisors finds there are sufficient funds for an additional judge for the Mt. San Jacinto Judicial District and adopts a resolution to that effect, there shall be four judges in the Mt. San Jacinto Judicial District.

(d) There are two judges in the Three Lakes Judicial District.

SEC. 3. Section 74134 of the Government Code is amended to read:

74134. In the Western Riverside County Judicial District, the salary of the clerk/administrator shall be on range 417 and the clerk/administrator may appoint:

(a) One accounting technician on range 245.
(b) One assistant clerk/administrator on range 358.

(r) Five court reporters at one thousand nine hundred fifty-nine dollars and twenty cents ($1,959.20) biweekly.

(s) One departmental aide on range 129.

(t) One programmer/analyst IV on range 342.

(u) One senior judicial courtroom assistant on range 268.

(v) One staff analyst I on range 277.

SEC. 4. Section 74135 is added to the Government Code, to read:

74135. The board of supervisors may provide that municipal court commissioners shall receive the same compensation as superior court commissioners while serving on assignment with the superior court.

SEC. 5. Section 74135.1 of the Government Code, as amended by Section 5.5 of Chapter 1032 of the Statutes of 1992, is amended to read:

74135.1. By majority vote, the judges may appoint three court commissioners for the Western Riverside County Judicial District. However, when the board of supervisors finds there are sufficient funds for a fourth commissioner and adopts a resolution to that effect, there shall be four court commissioners; provided, that if the Legislature authorizes one additional judge for the district and the board of supervisors finds there are sufficient funds for that additional judge and adopts a resolution to that effect, following the appointment or election of the additional judge, there shall be no more than three court commissioners in the Western Riverside County Judicial District.

The court commissioners shall meet the qualifications and have powers and duties specified in Sections 72190 and 72190.1 of this code, and Section 259 of the Code of Civil Procedure. Any commissioner so appointed shall also have the power and duties of a traffic referee, as provided in Article 9 (commencing with Section 72400) of Chapter 8 of Title 8. The salary of a commissioner for all duties performed pursuant to this section shall be equal to 75, 80, or 85 percent of the salary of a judge of the municipal court, as determined by the court.

The additional commissioner position authorized by amendments to this section enacted during the 1990 portion of the 1989–90 Regular Session shall not be counted in the calculation of trial court funding pursuant to Section 77202, and the salary for this position shall not be considered as a part of court operations for Riverside County for purposes of Sections 77003 and 77204.

SEC. 6. Section 74191.7 of the Government Code is amended to read:

74191.7. (a) The judges of the Sacramento Municipal Court District shall appoint four and one-half commissioners as the business of the court requires. The commissioners shall possess the same qualifications as the law requires of a judge of the court. These appointments shall be pursuant to Section 72190 and the commissioners shall receive a salary equal to 85 percent of the annual salary for a court judge.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, commissioners shall earn vacation credit at the rate of 6.5 hours for each biweekly pay period of full-time service, except as follows: (1) any commissioner appointed by the court prior to July 16, 1979, shall be entitled to earn vacation credit at the rate of 7.7 hours for each biweekly pay period of full-time service and (2) any commissioner appointed by the court after July 16, 1979, and prior to February 12, 1981, shall be entitled to earn vacation credit for each biweekly pay period of full-time service, and commencing January 22, 1995, this rate shall increase to 7.4 hours for each biweekly pay period of full-time service.

(c) The presiding judge of the superior and municipal courts may authorize a court commissioner to exercise all the powers and perform all the duties authorized by law to be performed by a commissioner of the superior court and a referee of the juvenile court appointed pursuant to Section 247 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

SEC. 7. Section 77203.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

77203.5. (a) For the purpose of funding trial court operations, each board of supervisors shall establish in the county treasury a Trial Court Operations Fund, which will operate as a special revenue fund. All funds appropriated in the Budget Act and allocated and reallocated by the Trial Court Budget Commission created pursuant to Section 68502.5 shall be deposited into the fund.

(b) The moneys of the Trial Court Operations Fund shall be payable only for purposes set forth pursuant to Sections 77003 and 77006.5. The presiding judge or his or her designee, in consultation with the county executive/administrator, shall authorize the expenditures from this fund, consistent with the trial court's budget, as recommended by the Trial Court Budget Commission and approved by the Judicial Council. All state allocations deposited into this fund shall be exclusively dedicated to offset the costs identified in the approved trial court budget. The purpose of this requirement is to produce a reduction in the net county costs of trial courts.

(c) Interest received by a county from the investment of money in its Trial Court Operations Fund shall be deposited in the fund and shall be used for trial court operations purposes.

(d) Pursuant to Section 77205, the Controller, at the request of the Legislature or Judicial Council, may perform financial and fiscal compliance audits of this fund.

SEC. 8. Section 77205 of the Government Code is amended to read:

77205. (a) The Judicial Council shall adopt appropriate rules for budget submission, budget management, and reporting of revenues and expenditures by each court. The Controller, in consultation with the Judicial Council, shall maintain appropriate regulations for recordkeeping and accounting by the county and the courts, in order to determine all moneys collected by the county and the courts, including filing fees, fines, forfeitures, and penalties, and all revenues and expenditures relating to court operations.

(b) Regulations, rules, and reporting requirements adopted pursuant to this chapter shall be exempt from review and approval or other processing by the Office of Administrative Law as provided for in Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2.

(c) The Controller, at the request of the Legislature or the Judicial Council, may perform and publish financial and fiscal compliance audits of the reports of court revenues and expenditures submitted by the counties. The Controller shall report the results of these audits to the Legislature.

(d) The Judicial Council shall provide for the transmission of summary information concerning court revenues and expenditures to the Controller.

SEC. 9. Section 77205.3 is added to the Government Code, to read:

77205.3. Amounts appropriated in the annual Budget Act for assigned judges shall be transferred to the Judicial Council on a monthly basis. The Judicial Council shall certify the amount expended for judicial assignment purposes monthly, and the Controller shall transfer to the Judicial Council the amount certified. The amounts so transferred by the Controller shall be credited to the appropriation available to the Judicial Council in augmentation of the Budget Act.

SEC. 10. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act.

However, notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Section 14085.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to health services.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14085.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14085.5. (a) Each disproportionate share hospital contracting to provide services under this article or contracting with a county organized health system, and which has or would have met the state criteria developed pursuant to the federal medicaid requirements regarding disproportionate hospitals for the three most recent years, may, in addition to the rate of payment provided for in the contract entered into under this article, receive supplemental reimbursement to the extent provided for in this section.

(b) (1) (A) A hospital qualifying pursuant to subdivision (a) shall submit documentation regarding debt service on revenue bonds used for financing the construction, renovation, or replacement of hospital facilities, including buildings and fixed equipment.

(B) Qualified hospitals may submit debt service instruments to the department and to the commission regarding debt issued for new capital projects.

(C) Eligible projects shall include those new capital projects funded by new debt for which final plans have been submitted to the Office of the State Architect and the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development after September 1, 1988, and prior to June 30, 1994, except that projects submitted between September 1, 1988, and June 30, 1989, shall be eligible only if the submitting hospital had all of the following additional characteristics during the 1989 calendar year:

(i) No less than 400 general acute care licensed beds.

(ii) An average Medi-Cal patient census of not less than 30 percent of the total patient days.

(iii) No less than 50,000 emergency department visits.

(iv) An existing basic emergency department, obstetrical services, and a neonatal intensive care unit.

(D) The department shall confirm in writing hospital and project eligibility for partial financing under this section.

(E) Department advisory letters, conditioned on hospital and project conformity to plans, may be requested by hospitals prior to final plan submission.

(F) Capital projects receiving partial financing under this section shall finance the upgrading or construction of buildings and equipment to a level required by currently accepted medical practice standards, including projects designed to correct Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals and Health Systems fire and life safety, seismic, or other related regulatory standards.

(2) Projects may also expand service capacity as needed to maintain current or reasonably foreseeable necessary bed capacity to meet the needs of Medi-Cal beneficiaries after giving consideration to bed capacity needed for other patients, including unsponsored patients.

(3) (A) Debt service shall only be paid for projects, or for that portion of projects, that are available and accessible to patients treated under this article or by successor programs.

(B) Each project shall cost at least five million dollars ($5,000,000) or, if less than five million dollars ($5,000,000), the project shall be necessary for retention of federal and state licensing and certification and for meeting fire and life safety, seismic, or other related regulatory standards.

(4) Supplemental reimbursement payments shall commence no later than 30 days after receipt of the certificate of occupancy by the hospital.

(5) (A) The state shall pledge to, and agree with, the holders of any revenue bonds issued to finance projects qualifying under this section that until debt service on the revenue bonds is fully paid, or until the supplemental rate is no longer required as provided by this section, the state will not limit or alter the rights vested in the hospital to receive supplemental reimbursement pursuant to this section.

(B) The state shall pledge, and the hospital shall, as a condition of encumbering supplemental reimbursement payments received pursuant to this section, pledge that supplemental reimbursement payments shall be used for the payment of debt service on the revenue bonds. The hospital shall include its pledge and the agreement with the state in any agreement with the holders of the revenue bonds.

(c) The hospital's supplemental reimbursement for a project qualifying pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (b) shall be calculated as follows:

(1) For any fiscal year for which the hospital is eligible to receive reimbursement, the hospital shall report to the department the amount of debt service on the revenue bonds issued to finance the project.

(2) (A) The department shall use the medicaid inpatient utilization rate as determined pursuant to Section 4112 of the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1987 (Public Law 100-203) to determine the ratio of the hospital's total paid Medi-Cal patient days to total patient days.

(B) (i) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in determining the hospital's medicaid inpatient utilization rate for the purposes of this section, the department shall include in both the numerator and denominator all Medi-Cal inpatient days of care provided by the hospital after December 31, 1994, to Medi-Cal beneficiaries who are enrolled in prepaid health plans contracting with the department. Where reliable data regarding those days are available from Medi-Cal prepaid health plans contracting with participating hospitals for services rendered prior to January 1, 1995, that data may be used by the department in the calculations.

(ii) For purposes of this section, Medi-Cal prepaid health plan programs, and the days relating thereto, shall include, but not be limited to, the programs listed in paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 14105.985, Section 14089, and any prepaid programs implemented under Section 14087.3, including the two-plan model described in the report issued on March 31, 1993, by the department, entitled "The State Department of Health Services' Plan for Expanding Medi-Cal Managed Care: Protecting Vulnerable Populations."

(3) (A) (i) The supplemental Medi-Cal reimbursement to the hospital for each fiscal year shall equal the amount determined annually in paragraph (1) multiplied by the percentage figure determined in paragraph (2). In no instance shall the percentage figure determined pursuant to the ratio derived under paragraph (2) be decreased by more than 10 percent of the initial ratio determined pursuant to paragraph (2) prior to the retirement of the debt.

(ii) Hospitals whose Medi-Cal ratio falls below 90 percent of the initial level established at the point of final plan submission shall at least maintain the volume of Medi-Cal utilization which was recorded at the time of final plan submission unless forces beyond the hospital's control have decreased the absolute volume of care.

(B) (i) In no instance shall the total amount of reimbursement received under this section combined with that received from all other sources dedicated exclusively to debt service exceed 100 percent of the debt service over the life of the loan.

(ii) A hospital qualifying for and receiving supplemental Medi-Cal reimbursement shall continue to receive the reimbursement until the qualifying loan is paid off, or the hospital is terminated as a Medi-Cal selective contractor and the hospital does not contract with a county organized health system.

(iii) It is the intent of the Legislature that the state and the qualifying hospital shall negotiate in good faith for rates sufficient to ensure continued hospital participation in the program and to ensure adequate access to services for Medi-Cal beneficiaries.

(iv) The state shall not terminate a contract with a qualified provider for the purpose of terminating the capital supplement.

(v) If negotiations fail to permit continuation of a contract of a hospital qualifying for the supplemental Medi-Cal reimbursement, the supplemental Medi-Cal reimbursement shall cease as of the date of discontinuance of the selective provider contract.

(4) In order to ensure provision of qualified supplemental payments to disproportionate share hospitals contracting with county organized health systems, the department shall make the qualified supplemental payments directly to these hospitals.

(5) Funding for these supplemental payments shall be separately appropriated as a line item in the Budget Act for each fiscal year for any project for which a request for payment is received after April 1 of each fiscal year. The department shall request a deficiency appropriation if funds for the payment are not appropriated in the Budget Act.

(6) The department shall provide the Department of Finance, the Legislative Analyst, and the Joint Legislative Budget Committee with its estimate of the budget year costs of the supplemental reimbursement program, on January 10 and May 15 of each year.

(7) (A) Paragraphs (1) to (4), inclusive, shall be incorporated into an amendment to any contract entered into by a hospital pursuant to this article.

(B) (i) Any contract amendment required by paragraph (A) shall include a payment methodology based on inpatient hospital services rendered to Medi-Cal patients, either on a per diem basis, a per-discharge basis, or any other federally permissible basis, and which is consistent with the hospital's Medi-Cal contract.

(ii) The payment methodology specified in clause (i) shall ensure that the hospital, on an annual basis, receives the amount of supplemental reimbursement calculated pursuant to paragraph (3), excluding only the federal portion of costs which have been determined by the federal government not to be allowable under Title XIX of the federal Social Security Act (Subchapter 19 (commencing with Section 1396) of Chapter 7 of Title 42 of the United States Code).

(iii) The payment methodology specified in clause (i) shall contain a retrospective adjustment mechanism to ensure that, regardless of the payment methodology, the department shall pay the hospital the full amount owed to the hospital for the year, as determined pursuant to this section.

(8) In negotiating contracts with hospitals receiving payments under this section, the commission shall take appropriate steps to ensure the duplicate payments are not made to the hospital for the debt service costs relating to the eligible project.

(d) All reimbursement received by a hospital pursuant to this section shall be placed in a special account, the funds in which shall be used exclusively for the payment of debt service on the revenue bonds issued to finance the project.

(e) If contracting under this section is superseded by other arrangements for payment of inpatient hospital services, the successor program shall include separate reimbursement, as determined pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (c).

(f) (1) For purposes of this section, "revenue bonds" are defined as that term is defined in subdivision (c) of Section 15459 of the Government Code, and shall also include general obligation bonds issued by or on behalf of eligible hospitals for projects of more than five million dollars ($5,000,000).

(2) (A) The aggregate principal amount of general obligation bonds to be issued as revenue bonds under this subdivision for the anticipated allowable portion of projects shall not, in any fiscal year, exceed a statewide amount established in the Medi-Cal estimates submitted to the fiscal committees of the Legislature pursuant to Section 14100.5, or as otherwise statutorily determined by the Legislature.

(B) In preparing Medi-Cal estimates, the department shall consider, but need not include, all actual and anticipated projects.

(g) (1) The department shall promptly seek any necessary federal approvals for the implementation of this section, and, if necessary to obtain federal approval, the department may, for federal purposes, limit the program to those costs which are allowable expenditures under Title XIX of the federal Social Security Act (Subchapter 19 (commencing with Section 1396) of Chapter 7 of Title 42 of the United States Code), subject to paragraph (2).

(2) The department shall continue to be responsible for the reimbursement of eligible providers from state funds for the amount of supplemental reimbursement pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (c), excluding only the federal portion of costs which have been determined by the federal government not to be allowable under Title XIX of the federal Social Security Act.

(h) (1) A hospital receiving supplemental reimbursement pursuant to this section shall be liable for any reduced federal financial participation resulting from the implementation of this section.

(2) The department shall submit claims for federal financial participation for all elements of the supplemental reimbursements which are allowable expenditures under federal law.

(3) The department shall, on an annual basis, submit any necessary materials to the federal government to provide assurances that claims for federal financial participation will include only those expenditures which are allowable under federal law.

(4) (A) The department may require that hospitals receiving supplemental reimbursement submit data necessary for the department to determine the appropriate amounts to claim as expenditures qualifying for federal financial participation.

(B) Unless otherwise permitted by federal law, the total statewide payment under the selective provider contracting program, in the aggregate on an annual basis, shall not exceed an amount that would otherwise have been paid under the Medi-Cal program on a statewide basis for the same services, in the aggregate on an annual basis, if the contracting program were not implemented.

An act to amend Section 10815 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to child support, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10815 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

10815. (a) The department shall ensure the efficient, effective, and equitable administration of public assistance programs by implementing, in accordance with this chapter, a statewide automated welfare system based upon state-mandated standards for the following public assistance programs: Aid to Families with Dependent Children-unemployed parents, Aid to Families with Dependent Children-family group, Aid to Families with Dependent Children-foster care, food stamps, Medi-Cal eligibility, aid for adoption of children, special adult programs, and, to the extent feasible, social services programs.

(b) In addition, for the child support enforcement program, the department shall submit an advance automated planning document to the Secretary of Health and Human Services on or before October 1, 1990, that does all of the following:

(1) Meets all of the requirements for a statewide automated system specified in Title IV-D of the federal Social Security Act (Part D (commencing with Section 651) of Subchapter IV of Chapter 7 of Title 42 of the United States Code).

(2) Interfaces with the system or systems developed for public assistance programs.

(3) Operates in all political subdivisions, except Los Angeles County. Los Angeles County shall develop and implement an automated system that interfaces with the statewide automated system.

(c) (1) The department shall ensure that the Statewide Automated Child Support System (SACSS) is operational in all counties, except Los Angeles County, by October 1, 1995. The system used by Los Angeles County shall interface with the statewide system, and all other counties shall participate in the statewide system.

(2) The requirement for county participation in SACSS shall be incorporated in the Plans of Cooperation with the department, as defined in paragraph (6) of subdivision (f).

(3) The requirement that the Los Angeles ACSES Replacement System (ARS), as defined in paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (f), interface with SACSS shall be incorporated in the Los Angeles

Plan of Cooperation with the department.

(d) (1) The department shall continue to work with counties when changes are proposed to SACSS.

(2) To the extent enhanced federal funding is approved for development and implementation of the statewide system, the state shall pay 100 percent of the nonfederal share of costs for those development and implementation costs incurred prior to October 1, 1995, including county staff costs related to development and implementation of the statewide system. The nonfederal share of county facility modification or acquisition and all costs related to the purchase of computer hardware, including delivery and installation costs, shall not be paid by the state. This paragraph does not apply to the County of Los Angeles.

(3) (A) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 15200.6, the department shall loan to the County of Los Angeles, from funds authorized by subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 15200.6, an amount not to exceed three million five hundred fifty-seven thousand dollars ($3,557,000) in the 1994–95 fiscal year for the nonfederal share of the ARS, for the period commencing July 1, 1993, and ending September 30, 1995, costs that are eligible for enhanced federal funding. This loan does not constitute a shift in financial responsibility for any portion of the child support enforcement program implemented under this chapter. The nonfederal share of county facility modification or acquisition and all costs related to the purchase of computer hardware, including delivery and installation costs, shall not be paid by the state nor with funds loaned to the County of Los Angeles pursuant to this paragraph.

(B) In order for the funds to be loaned, the county shall enter into a memorandum of understanding with the department. The memorandum of understanding shall be approved by the Department of Finance and shall contain all of the following specific conditions under which the loan will be made:

(i) On or before September 1, 1995, Los Angeles County shall do all of the following:

(I) Complete development and implementation of a Family Support Act certifiable automated child support enforcement system.

(II) Fully implement ARS countywide, including loading all cases into ARS, a fully functioning collections and distribution system operating within ARS and a financial reporting system operating within ARS.

(III) Complete the identification and transfer of all duplicate cases with other counties when the case is received by Los Angeles County no later than June 1, 1995, as specified in the memorandum of understanding between the department and the county.

(IV) Complete programming and acceptance testing necessary for ARS to interface with SACSS.

(ii) If the conditions in clause (i) are not met by September 1,

1995, all funds loaned to Los Angeles County shall pursuant to subparagraph (A) for ARS be immediately due and payable to the department.

(iii) If Los Angeles County meets all of the conditions in clause (i) by September 1, 1995, and achieves all of the following goals in the 1995–96 fiscal year, the county shall not be required to repay the loan authorized by this section:

(I) Increase the number of successful locates by 75 percent over those located in the 1992–93 fiscal year.

(II) Increase the number of paternities established by 75 percent over those established in the 1992–93 fiscal year.

(III) Increase the number of child support enforcement orders established by 75 percent over those established in the 1992–93 fiscal year.

(4) If Los Angeles County meets all of the conditions in clause (i) by September 1, 1995, but does not meet the goals in clause (iii) by June 30, 1996, any funds loaned to the county pursuant to subparagraph (A) of paragraph (3) for ARS shall be repaid by the county to the department over a period of four consecutive quarters beginning January 1, 1997. The funds shall be deducted from incentive funds earned or welfare recoupment realized by the county during the repayment period.

(5) Prior to the release of any funds, Los Angeles County shall provide an accounting of expenditures claimed prior to the date of enactment of this section and a schedule of payments for the period July 1, 1994, to the end of the project.

(e) The counties shall pay the nonfederal share of the ongoing operational and maintenance costs of SACSS that are attributable to local government.

(f) As used in this section, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) "ACSES" means the Los Angeles County Automated Child Support Enforcement System.

(2) "ACSES Replacement System" or "ARS" means the modifications to ACSES that are developed by Los Angeles County pursuant to this section.

(3) "Plan of cooperation" means an agreement between a county district attorney and the department that specifies the responsibilities and activities to be performed by each party, as described in the department's manual of policies and procedures.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure adequate implementation of the Los Angeles County Automated Child Support Enforcement System Replacement System in a timely manner, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 824

An act to amend Section 33126 of the Education Code, relating to schools.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 33126 of the Education Code is amended to read:

33126. In order to promote a model statewide standard of instructional accountability and conditions for teaching and learning, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall, by March 1, 1989, develop and present to the State Board of Education for adoption a statewide model school accountability report card.

(a) The model school accountability report card shall include, but is not limited to, assessment of the following school conditions:

(1) Pupil achievement in and progress toward meeting reading, writing, arithmetic, and other academic goals.

(2) Progress toward reducing drop-out rates.

(3) Estimated expenditures per pupil and types of services funded.

(4) Progress toward reducing class sizes and teaching loads.

(5) Any assignment of teachers outside their subject areas of competence.

(6) Quality and currency of textbooks and other instructional materials.

(7) The availability of qualified personnel to provide counseling and other pupil support services.

(8) Availability of qualified substitute teachers.

(9) Safety, cleanliness, and adequacy of school facilities.

(10) Adequacy of teacher evaluations and opportunities for professional improvement.

(11) Classroom discipline and climate for learning.

(12) Teacher and staff training, and curriculum improvement programs.

(13) Quality of school instruction and leadership.

(14) The degree to which pupils are prepared to enter the workforce.

(15) The total number of instructional minutes offered in the school year, separately stated for each grade level, as compared to the total number of the instructional minutes per school year required by state law, separately stated for each grade level.

(16) The total number of minimum days, as specified in Sections 46112, 46113, 46117, and 46141, in the school year.

(b) In developing the statewide model school accountability report, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall consult with a Task Force on Instructional Improvement, to be appointed by the superintendent, composed of practicing classroom teachers, school administrators, parents, school board members, classified employees, and educational research specialists. However, the majority of the task force shall consist of practicing classroom teachers.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares that this act furthers the purposes of the Classroom Instructional Improvement and Accountability Act.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 825

An act to add Section 35185 to the Education Code and to add Article 8.2 (commencing with Section 12620) to Chapter 6 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, relating to international student exchange visitors.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that international student exchange visitors are placed in a vulnerable position in a foreign land at a tender age and are unfamiliar with the legal protections available to them in the United States. Thus, the integrity, expertise, and professionalism of the international student exchange visitor placement organizations with which they do business must be beyond reproach. Therefore, it is the intent of the Legislature to establish a mechanism to accomplish the following:

(a) To protect the health, safety, and welfare of elementary and secondary international student exchange visitors participating in international student exchange visitor programs in California.

(b) To promote a quality education and living experience for each international student exchange visitor participating in programs in California.

(c) To promote the participation of international student exchange visitors in programs in California by creating a climate that ensures the safety of those students while simultaneously promoting international awareness among California residents by encouraging California residents to interact with international student exchange visitors.

(d) To encourage public confidence, both in this state and internationally, in international student visitor exchange programs in California.

(e) To encourage and assist international student exchange visitor programs to comply with federal immigration law relating to visas (8 U.S.C. Sec. 1101) and the Mutual Educational and Cultural Exchange Act of 1961 (22 U.S.C. Sec. 2451; 22 C.F.R. 514.1 et seq.).

SEC. 2. Article 8.2 (commencing with Section 12620) is added to Chapter 6 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, to read:

Article 8.2. International Student Exchange Visitor Placement Organizations

12620. This article shall be known and may be cited as the Uniform Supervision of International Student Exchange Visitor Placement Organizations Act of 1994.

12621. For the purposes of this article, the following terms shall have the following meaning unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(a) "International student exchange visitor placement organization" or "organization" means a person, partnership, corporation, or other entity that regularly arranges the placement of international student exchange visitors for the purpose, in whole or in part, of providing the students with the opportunity to attend a school that maintains kindergarten and grades 1 to 12, inclusive, in the United States.

(b) "International student exchange visitor" or "student" means any person 18 years of age or under, or up to 21 years of age if enrolled or to be enrolled in high school in this state, who enters the United States on a nonimmigrant visa and who is placed by an international student exchange visitor placement organization in an elementary or secondary school or other educational program in this state.

(c) "Nonimmigrant visa" means a visa category assigned by the federal Immigration and Naturalization Service pursuant to Section 1101 of Title 8 of the United States Code to nonresident aliens whose primary purpose for visiting the United States is to study at the elementary or secondary school level or participate in any other educational program.

(d) "USIA" means the United States Information Agency designated to administer the Mutual Educational and Cultural Exchange Act of 1961 (22 U.S.C. Sec. 2451; 22 C.F.R. 514.1 et seq.).

12622. The Attorney General shall establish and maintain a register of organizations subject to this article. The registry shall be known as the Registry of International Student Exchange Visitor Placement Organizations.

12623. (a) Each organization shall, prior to arranging the placement of any international student exchange visitor in any school in California, register with the Attorney General's Registry of International Student Exchange Visitor Placement Organizations on the registration form prescribed by the Attorney General. Renewals of registration shall be filed with the registry by January 15 of each calendar year in which the organization does business and shall be effective for one year.

(b) The fee for registration and renewal shall be calculated as follows:

(1) All organizations designated by the USIA shall remit the following:

(A) A registration fee of one hundred fifty dollars ($150) shall be required for the initial registration of an organization and shall be payable by certified or cashier's check to the Attorney General's Registry of International Student Exchange Visitor Placement Organizations at the time of registration.

(B) An annual renewal fee of fifty dollars ($50) shall be required for renewal of registration of an organization payable as specified in subparagraph (A).

(C) The Attorney General may seek legislative approval to adjust the registration or renewal fee. Upon petition by the Attorney General, the Legislature may adjust the fees in the annual Budget Act. In no event shall the fees exceed the costs necessary to administer this article.

(2) All organizations not designated by the USIA shall remit the following:

(A) A registration fee shall be required for the initial registration of an organization and shall be payable by certified or cashier's check to the Attorney General's Registry of International Student Exchange Visitor Placement Organizations at the time of registration. The Attorney General shall establish the registration fee described in this subparagraph.

(B) An annual renewal fee shall be required for renewal of registration of an organization payable as specified in paragraph (1). The Attorney General shall establish the renewal fee described in this subparagraph.

(C) In no event shall the fees enumerated in this paragraph exceed the costs necessary to administer this article.

(c) The Attorney General may grant an extension of time to file annual registration.

(d) Failure to register is a violation of this chapter.

(e) Registration pursuant to this article shall not be considered or be represented as an endorsement of the organization by the Attorney General or this state.

12624. The Registry of International Student Exchange Visitor Placement Organizations Fund is hereby created in the State Treasury. All fees collected by the Attorney General pursuant to this article shall be deposited into that fund. All money in the Registry of International Student Exchange Visitor Placement Organizations Fund shall, upon appropriation by the Legislature, be expended by the Attorney General for the exclusive purpose of administering this article.

12625. Subject to reasonable rules and regulations adopted by the Attorney General, the registry and copies of instruments and the documents filed with the Attorney General pursuant to this article shall be open to public inspection.

12626. (a) An application for registration pursuant to this article shall be submitted in the manner and on the forms prescribed by the Attorney General. The application shall include all of the following:

(1) Evidence that the organization meets the standards established by the Attorney General pursuant to Section 12627.

(2) The name, address, and telephone number of the organization, its chief executive officer, and the person within the organization who has primary responsibility for supervising placements within the state.

(3) If the organization has been designated by the USIA pursuant to the Mutual Educational and Cultural Exchange Act of 1961 (22 U.S.C. Sec. 2451); 22 C.F.R. 514.1 et seq.), the designation number provided to the organizations pursuant to that act.

(4) Whether the organization is exempt from federal income tax.

(5) A list of the organization's placements in California for the previous academic year, including the number of students placed, their home countries, the school district in which they were placed, and the length of their placements.

(6) Any other information required by the Attorney General to carry out the regulations adopted pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 12627.

(b) The application shall be signed by the chief executive officer of the organization and the person within the organization who has primary responsibility for supervising placements of international student exchange visitors within California. If the Attorney General determines that the application is complete, the Attorney General shall file the application and the applicant shall then be registered.

(c) Each organization registered pursuant to this article shall inform the Attorney General of any changes in the information required by subdivision (a) within 30 days of the change.

12627. The Attorney General shall adopt regulations pursuant to the portion of the Administrative Procedures Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2) pertaining to rulemaking, as follows:

(a) Regulations on the standards and requirements that organizations must meet that are consistent with the regulations adopted by the USIA pursuant to the Mutual Educational and Cultural Exchange Act of 1961 (22 U.S.C. Sec. 2451) as set forth in Section 514.1 and following of Title 22 of the Code of Federal Regulations as those regulations existed on March 19, 1993. If the federal regulations adopted by the USIA at a minimum require the same standards and requirements of this article, the Attorney General shall permit organizations designated by the USIA pursuant to those regulations to, in lieu of documentation that would otherwise be required by this article and the regulations adopted pursuant to this subdivision, provide evidence of designation by the USIA.

(b) Any regulations that are necessary for the administration of this article.

12628. Each organization shall provide an informational document, in English, to each student, host family, and designated school official in which the student is being placed. The informational document shall be provided before placement of the student in any host family or school district and shall include the following:

(a) An explanation of services to be performed by the organization for the student, host family, and the school district in which the student will be enrolled.

(b) A summary of the requirements of this chapter and any regulations adopted thereto.

(c) Telephone numbers that the student, host family, and school district may call for assistance. The telephone numbers shall include, at a minimum, a telephone number in this state for the organization and the telephone numbers of the organization's national headquarters, if any, the USIA, and the Attorney General.

12629. (a) If the Attorney General has probable cause to believe that the organization is not complying with this article, the Attorney General may conduct whatever investigation is necessary, and may seek a subpoena to obtain from public records, court officers, taxing authorities, trustees, officers and employees of an organization, and other sources, whatever information, copies of instruments, documents, reports, and records that are needed for the establishment and maintenance of the register.

(b) The Attorney General may, upon receipt of a complaint regarding an international student exchange organization, report the matter to the organization involved, the USIA, or the Council on Standards for International Educational Travel, as the Attorney General deems appropriate.

12630. Any person or organization who violates any provision of this article or who willfully and knowingly provides false or incorrect information to the Attorney General in filing documents required by this article, whether or not the documents are verified, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 3. Section 35185 is added to the Education Code, to read:

35185. A school district may require proof of registration pursuant to Article 8.2 (commencing with Section 12620) of Chapter 6 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, as a condition to agreement to enroll that student.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 13600 and 13601 of the Penal Code, relating to correctional facilities.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

13600. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that peace officers of the state correctional system, including youth and adult correctional facilities, have a role in the criminal justice system that has been previously ignored in terms of creation and application of sound selection criteria for applicants and their training prior to assuming their duties. For the purposes of this section, correctional peace officers are peace officers as defined in Section 830.5 and employed by the Department of Corrections or the Department of the Youth Authority.

The Legislature further finds that sound applicant selection and training are essential to public safety and in carrying out the missions of the Youth and Adult Correctional Agency in the custody and care of the state's offender population. The greater degree of professionalism which will result from sound screening criteria and a significant training curriculum will greatly aid the Youth and Adult Correctional Agency in maintaining smooth, efficient, and safe operations and effective programs in the Department of Corrections and the Department of the Youth Authority.

(b) There is within the Youth and Adult Correctional Agency a Commission on Correctional Peace Officers' Standards and Training, hereafter referred to as the CPOST. The Department of Corrections-Department of the Youth Authority Joint Apprenticeship Committee, as referred to in the Memorandum of Understanding for Unit 6, is hereby renamed the Commission on Correctional Peace Officers' Standards and Training. Any reference to the Department of Corrections-Department of the Youth Authority Joint Apprenticeship Committee shall be deemed to refer to the CPOST.

(c) (1) The executive board of the CPOST shall be composed of six voting members.

(A) Two members from, appointed by, and representing the management of, the Department of Corrections and one member from, appointed by, and representing the Department of the Youth Authority.

(B) Three members from, appointed by, and representing the membership of, the California Correctional Peace Officers' Association. Two members shall be rank and file persons from State Bargaining Unit 6 and one member shall be supervisory.

(2) Each appointing authority shall appoint one alternate member for each regular member who they appoint pursuant to paragraph (1). Every alternate member shall possess the same qualifications as the regular member and shall substitute for, and vote in place of, the regular member whenever he or she is absent.

(d) The rules for voting on the executive board of the CPOST shall be as follows:

(1) Decisions shall be made by a majority vote.

(2) Proxy voting shall not be permitted.

(3) Tentative approval of a decision may be taken by a telephone vote. The CPOST members' decision shall be documented in writing and submitted to the CPOST for confirmation at the next scheduled CPOST meeting so as to become a part of the permanent record.

(e) The executive board of the CPOST shall adopt rules as it deems necessary for efficient operations, including, but not limited to, the appointment of advisory members for forming whatever subcommittee it deems necessary to conduct its business. These rules shall be in conformance with the State Personnel Board rules and regulations, the Department of Personnel Administration rules and regulations, and the provisions of the State Bargaining Unit 6 Memorandum of Understanding.

SEC. 2. Section 13601 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

13601. (a) The CPOST shall develop, approve, and monitor standards for the selection and training of state correctional peace officer apprentices. Any standard for selection established under this subdivision shall be subject to approval by the State Personnel Board. The CPOST may disapprove any training courses created pursuant to the standards developed by the committee if it determines that the courses do not meet the prescribed standards.

(b) The CPOST shall develop, approve, and monitor standards for advanced state correctional peace officer and supervisory curricula. When a correctional peace officer is promoted, he or she shall be required to complete these secondary training experiences.

(c) The CPOST shall develop, approve, and monitor standards for the training of state correctional peace officers in the handling of stress associated with their duties. The CPOST may disapprove any training courses created pursuant to the standards developed by the committee if it determines that the courses do not meet the prescribed standards.

(d) Toward the accomplishment of the objectives of this act, the CPOST may confer with, and may avail itself of the assistance and recommendations of, other state and local agencies, boards, or commissions.

(e) Notwithstanding the authority of the CPOST, the departments shall design and deliver training programs, shall conduct validation studies, and shall provide program support. The CPOST shall monitor program compliance by the departments.

(f) The objective of the CPOST shall address standards for the training of rank and file correctional peace officer classes and first-line supervisors in each department.

CHAPTER 827

An act to add Section 17052.25 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17052.25 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

17052.25. (a) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1994, there shall be allowed as a credit against the "net tax," as defined in Section 17039, an amount equal to 50 percent of the costs paid or incurred by a taxpayer for the adoption of any minor child who is a citizen or legal resident of the United States and was in the custody of a public agency of either this state or a political subdivision of this state. The credit shall not exceed two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) per minor child.

(b) "Costs" eligible for the credit pursuant to subdivision (a) shall include the following:

(1) Fees for required services of either the Department of Social Services or a licensed adoption agency.

(2) Travel and related expenses for the adoptive family that are directly related to the adoption process.

(3) Medical fees and expenses that are not reimbursed by insurance and are directly related to the adoption process.

(c) The credit authorized by this section shall only be claimed for the taxable year in which the decree or order of adoption is entered pursuant to Section 8612 of the Family Code. However, the allowable credit claimed may include any costs of that adoption paid or incurred in any prior taxable year.

(d) In the case where the credit allowed by this section exceeds the "net tax," the excess may be carried over to reduce the "net tax" in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary, until the total credit of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) per minor child is exhausted.

(e) Any deduction otherwise allowed under this part for any amount paid or incurred by the taxpayer upon which the credit is based shall be reduced by the amount of the credit allowed under this section.

SEC. 2. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 828

An act to amend Sections 25102 and 25608 of the Corporations Code, relating to corporations, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

25102. The following transactions are exempted from the provisions of Section 25110:

(a) Any offer (but not a sale) not involving any public offering and the execution and delivery of any agreement for the sale of securities pursuant to the offer if (1) the agreement contains substantially the following provision: "The sale of the securities which are the subject of this agreement has not been qualified with the Commissioner of Corporations of the State of California and the issuance of the securities or the payment or receipt of any part of the consideration therefor prior to the qualification is unlawful, unless the sale of securities is exempt from the qualification by Section 25100, 25102, or 25105 of the California Corporations Code. The rights of all parties to this agreement are expressly conditioned upon the qualification being obtained, unless the sale is so exempt"; and (2) no part of the purchase price is paid or received and none of the securities are issued until the sale of the securities is qualified under this law unless the sale of securities is exempt from the qualification by this section, Section 25100 or 25105.

(b) Any offer (but not a sale) of a security for which a registration statement has been filed under the Securities Act of 1933 but has not yet become effective, or for which an offering statement under Regulation A has been filed but has not yet been qualified, if no stop order or refusal order is in effect and no public proceeding or examination looking toward such an order is pending under Section 8 of the act and no order under Section 25140 or subdivision (a) of Section 25143 is in effect under this law.

(c) Any offer (but not a sale) and the execution and delivery of any agreement for the sale of securities pursuant to the offer as may be permitted by the commissioner upon application. Any negotiating permit under this subdivision shall be conditioned to the effect that none of the securities may be issued and none of the consideration therefor may be received or accepted until the sale of the securities is qualified under this law.

(d) Any transaction or agreement between the issuer and an underwriter or among underwriters if the sale of the securities is qualified, or exempt from qualification, at the time of distribution thereof in this state, if any.

(e) Any offer or sale of any evidence of indebtedness, whether secured or unsecured, and any guarantee thereof, in a transaction not involving any public offering.

(f) Any offer or sale of any security in a transaction (other than an offer or sale to a pension or profit-sharing trust of the issuer) which meets each of the following criteria:

(1) Sales of the security are not made to more than 35 persons, including persons not in this state.

(2) All purchasers either have a preexisting personal or business relationship with the offeror or any of its partners, officers, directors or controlling persons, or by reason of their business or financial experience or the business or financial experience of their professional advisors who are unaffiliated with and who are not compensated by the issuer or any affiliate or selling agent of the issuer, directly or indirectly, could be reasonably assumed to have the capacity to protect their own interests in connection with the transaction.

(3) Each purchaser represents that the purchaser is purchasing for the purchaser's own account (or a trust account if the purchaser is a trustee) and not with a view to or for sale in connection with any distribution of the security.

(4) The offer and sale of the security is not accomplished by the publication of any advertisement. The number of purchasers referred to above is exclusive of any described in subdivision (i), any officer, director or affiliate of the issuer and any other purchaser who the commissioner designates by rule. For purposes of this section, a husband and wife (together with any custodian or trustee acting for the account of their minor children) are counted as one person and a partnership, corporation or other organization which was not specifically formed for the purpose of purchasing the security offered in reliance upon this exemption, is counted as one person. The commissioner may by rule require the issuer to file a notice of transactions under this subdivision; provided, however, that the failure to file the notice or the failure to file the notice within the time specified by the rule of the commissioner shall not affect the availability of this exemption. An issuer who fails to file the notice as provided by rule of the commissioner shall, within 15 business days after demand by the commissioner, file the notice and pay to the commissioner a fee equal to the fee payable had the transaction been qualified under Section 25110.

(g) Any offer or sale of conditional sale agreements, equipment trust certificates, or certificates of interest or participation therein or partial assignments thereof, covering the purchase of railroad rolling stock or equipment or the purchase of motor vehicles, aircraft, or parts thereof, in a transaction not involving any public offering.

(h) Any offer or sale of voting common stock by a corporation incorporated in any state if, immediately after the proposed sale and issuance, there will be only one class of stock of the corporation outstanding which is owned beneficially by no more than 35 persons, provided all of the following requirements have been met:

(1) All of the stock shall be evidenced by certificates which shall have stamped or printed prominently on their face a legend in a form to be prescribed by rule of the commissioner restricting transfer of the stock in the manner that the rule provides.

(2) The offer and sale of the stock is not accompanied by the publication of any advertisement, and no selling expenses have been given, paid, or incurred in connection therewith.

(3) The consideration to be received by the issuer for the stock to be issued shall consist of (i) only assets (which may include cash) of an existing business enterprise transferred to the issuer upon its initial organization, of which all of the persons who are to receive the stock to be issued pursuant to this exemption were owners during, and the enterprise was operated for, a period of not less than one year immediately preceding the proposed issuance, and the ownership of the enterprise immediately prior to the proposed issuance was in the same proportions as the shares of stock are to be issued, or (ii) only cash or cancellation of indebtedness for money borrowed or both upon the initial organization of the issuer, provided all of the stock is issued for the same price per share, or (iii) only cash, provided the sale is approved in writing by each of the existing shareholders and the purchaser or purchasers are existing shareholders, or (iv), in a case where after the proposed issuance there will be only one owner of the stock of the issuer, any legal consideration.

(4) No promotional consideration has been given, paid, or incurred in connection with the issuance. Promotional consideration means any consideration paid directly or indirectly to a person who, acting alone or in conjunction with one or more other persons, takes the initiative in founding and organizing the business or enterprise of an issuer, for services rendered in connection with the founding or organizing.

(5) A notice in a form prescribed by rule of the commissioner, signed by an active member of the State Bar of California, shall be filed with or mailed for filing to the commissioner not later than 10 business days after receipt of consideration for the securities by the issuer, which notice shall contain an opinion of the member of the State Bar of California that the exemption provided by this subdivision is available for the offer and sale of the securities; provided, however, that the failure to file the notice as required by this subdivision and the rules of the commissioner shall not affect the availability of this exemption. An issuer who fails to file the notice within the time specified by this subdivision shall, within 15 business days after demand by the commissioner, file the notice and pay to the commissioner a fee equal to the fee payable had the transaction been qualified under Section 25110. The notice, except when filed on behalf of a California corporation, shall be accompanied by an irrevocable consent, in the form that the commissioner by rule prescribes, appointing the commissioner or his or her successor in office to be the issuer's attorney to receive service of any lawful process in any noncriminal suit, action, or proceeding against it or its successor which arises under this law or any rule or order hereunder after the consent has been filed, with the same force and validity as if served personally on the issuer. An issuer on whose behalf a consent has been filed in connection with a previous qualification or exemption from qualification under this law (or application for a permit under any prior law if the application or notice under this law states that the consent is still effective) need not file another. Service may be made by leaving a copy of the process in the office of the commissioner but it is not effective unless (1) the plaintiff, who may be the commissioner in a suit, action or proceeding instituted by him, forthwith sends notice of the service and a copy of the process by registered or certified mail to the defendant or respondent at its last address on file with the commissioner, and (2) the plaintiff's affidavit of compliance with this section is filed in the case on or before the return day of the process, if any, or within the further time as the court allows.

For the purposes of this subdivision, all securities held by a husband and wife, whether or not jointly, shall be considered to be owned by one person, and all securities held by a corporation which has issued stock pursuant to this exemption shall be considered to be held by the shareholders to whom it has issued the stock.

(i) Any offer or sale (1) to a bank, savings and loan association, trust company, insurance company, investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, pension or profit-sharing trust (other than a pension or profit-sharing trust of the issuer, a self-employed individual retirement plan, or individual retirement account), or other institutional investor or governmental agency or instrumentality that the commissioner may designate by rule, whether the purchaser is acting for itself or as trustee, or (2) to any corporation with outstanding securities registered under Section 12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or any wholly owned subsidiary of such a corporation which after the offer and sale will own directly or indirectly 100 percent of the outstanding capital stock of the issuer; provided the purchaser represents that it is purchasing for its own account (or for the trust account) for investment and not with a view to or for sale in connection with any distribution of the security.

(j) Any offer or sale of any certificate of interest or participation in an oil or gas title or lease (including subsurface gas storage and payments out of production) if (1) all of the purchasers: (i) are and have been during the preceding two years engaged primarily in the business of drilling for, producing, or refining oil or gas (or whose corporate predecessor, in the case of a corporation, has been so engaged), or (ii) are persons described in clause (1) of subdivision (i) of this section, or (iii) have been found by the commissioner upon written application to be substantially engaged in the business of drilling for, producing or refining oil or gas so as not to require the protection provided by this law (which finding shall be effective until rescinded), or (2) the security is concurrently hypothecated to a bank in the ordinary course of business to secure a loan made by the bank; provided each purchaser represents that it is purchasing for its own account for investment and not with a view to or for sale in connection with any distribution of the security.

(k) Any offer or sale of any security under, or pursuant to, a plan of reorganization under Chapter 11 of the federal bankruptcy law which has been confirmed or is subject to confirmation by the decree or order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

(l) Any offer or sale of an option, warrant, put, call, or straddle, and any guarantee of any of these securities, by a person who is not the issuer of the security subject to the right, if the transaction, had it involved an offer or sale of the security subject to the right by the person, would not have violated Section 25110 or 25130.

(m) Any offer or sale of a stock to a pension, profit-sharing, stock bonus or employee stock ownership plan provided that (1) the plan meets the requirements for qualification under Section 401 of the Internal Revenue Code, and (2) the employees are not required or permitted individually to make any contributions to the plan. The exemption provided by this subdivision shall not be affected by whether the stock is contributed to the plan, purchased from the issuer with contributions by the issuer or an affiliate of the issuer, or purchased from the issuer with funds borrowed from the issuer, an affiliate of the issuer or any other lender.

(n) Any offer or sale of any security in a transaction, other than an offer or sale of a security in a rollup transaction, that meets all of the following criteria:

(1) The issuer is (A) a California corporation or foreign corporation that, at the time of the filing of the notice required under this subdivision, is subject to Section 2115, without regard to the notice filing requirement under Section 2108, or (B) any other form of business entity, including without limitation a partnership or trust organized under the laws of this state. The exemption provided by this subdivision is not available to a "blind pool" issuer, as that term is defined by the commissioner, or to an investment company subject to the Investment Company Act of 1940.

(2) Sales of securities are made only to qualified purchasers or other persons the issuer reasonably believes, after reasonable inquiry, to be qualified purchasers. A corporation, partnership, or other organization specifically formed for the purpose of acquiring the securities offered by the issuer in reliance upon this exemption may be a qualified purchaser if each of the equity owners of the corporation, partnership, or other organization is a qualified purchaser. Qualified purchasers include the following:

(A) A person designated in Section 260.102.13 of Title 10 of the California Code of Regulations.

(B) A person designated in subdivision (i) or any rule of the commissioner adopted thereunder.

(C) A pension or profit-sharing trust of the issuer, a self-employed individual retirement plan, or an individual retirement account, if the investment decisions made on behalf of the trust, plan, or account are made solely by persons who are qualified purchasers.

(D) An organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, corporation, Massachusetts or similar business trust, or partnership, each with total assets in excess of five million dollars ($5,000,000) according to its most recent audited financial statements.

(E) With respect to the offer and sale of one class of voting common stock of an issuer or of preferred stock of an issuer entitling the holder thereof to at least the same voting rights as the issuer's one class of voting common stock, provided that the issuer has only one-class voting common stock outstanding upon consummation of the offer and sale, a natural person who, either individually or jointly with the person's spouse, (i) has a minimum net worth of two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) and had, during the immediately preceding tax year, gross income in excess of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) and reasonably expects gross income in excess of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) during the current tax year or (ii) has a minimum net worth of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000). "Net worth" shall be determined exclusive of home, home furnishings, and automobiles. Other assets included in the computation of net worth may be valued at fair market value.

Each such natural person, by reason of his or her business or financial experience, or the business or financial experience of his or her professional advisor, who is unaffiliated with and who is not compensated, directly or indirectly, by the issuer or any affiliate or selling agent of the issuer, can be reasonably assumed to have the capacity to protect his or her interests in connection with the transaction. The amount of the investment of each natural person shall not exceed 10 percent of the net worth, as determined by this subparagraph, of that natural person.

(F) Any other purchaser designated as qualified by rule of the commissioner.

(3) Each purchaser represents that the purchaser is purchasing for the purchaser's own account (or trust account, if the purchaser is a trustee) and not with a view to or for sale in connection with a distribution of the security.

(4) Each natural person purchaser, including a corporation, partnership, or other organization specifically formed by natural persons for the purpose of acquiring the securities offered by the issuer, receives, at least five business days before securities are sold to, or a commitment to purchase is accepted from, the purchaser, a written offering disclosure statement, which shall meet the disclosure requirements of Regulation D (17 C.F.R. 230.501 et seq.), and any other information as may be prescribed by rule of the commissioner; provided that the issuer shall not be obligated pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph to provide this disclosure statement to a natural person qualified under Section 260.102.13 of Title 10 of the California Code of Regulations. The offer or sale of securities pursuant to a disclosure statement required by this paragraph in violation of Section 25401, or which fails to meet the disclosure requirements of Regulation D (17 C.F.R. 230.501 et seq.), shall not render unavailable to the issuer the claim of an exemption from the provisions of Section 25110 afforded by this subdivision. This paragraph does not impose, directly or indirectly, any additional disclosure obligation with respect to any other exemption from qualification available under any other provision of this section.

(5) (A) A general announcement of proposed offering may be published by written document only, provided that the general announcement of proposed offering sets forth the following required information:

(i) The name of the issuer of the securities.

(ii) The full title of the security to be issued.

(iii) The anticipated suitability standards for prospective purchasers.

(iv) A statement that (I) no money or other consideration is being solicited or will be accepted, (II) an indication of interest made by a prospective purchaser involves no obligation or commitment of any kind, and, if the issuer is required by paragraph (4) to deliver a disclosure statement to prospective purchasers, (III) no sales will be made or commitment to purchase accepted until five business days after delivery of a disclosure statement and subscription information to the prospective purchaser in accordance with the requirements of this subdivision.

(v) Any other information required by rule of the commissioner.

(vi) The following legend: "For more complete information about (Name of Issuer) and (Full Title of Security), send for additional information from (Name and Address) by sending this coupon or calling (Telephone Number)."

(B) The general announcement of proposed offering referred to in subparagraph (A) may also set forth the following information:

(i) A brief description of the business of the issuer.

(ii) The geographic location of the issuer and its business.

(iii) The price of the security to be issued, or, if the price is not known, the method of its determination or the probable price range as specified by the issuer, and the aggregate offering price.

(C) The general announcement of proposed offering shall contain only the information that is set forth in this paragraph.

(D) Dissemination of the general announcement of proposed offering to persons who are not qualified purchasers, without more, shall not disqualify the issuer from claiming the exemption under this subdivision.

(6) No telephone solicitation shall be permitted until the issuer has determined that the prospective purchaser to be solicited is a qualified purchaser.

(7) The issuer files a notice of transaction under this subdivision both (A) concurrent with the publication of a general announcement of proposed offering or at the time of the initial offer of the securities, whichever occurs first, accompanied by a filing fee, and (B) within 10 business days following the close or abandonment of the offering, but in no case more than 210 days from the date of filing the first notice. The first notice of transaction under subparagraph (A) shall contain an undertaking, in a form acceptable to the commissioner, to deliver any disclosure statement required by paragraph (4) to be delivered to prospective purchasers, and any supplement thereto, to the commissioner within 10 days of the commissioner's request for the information. The exemption from qualification afforded by this subdivision is unavailable if an issuer fails to file the first notice required under subparagraph (A) or to pay the filing fee. The commissioner has the authority to assess an administrative penalty of up to one thousand dollars ($1,000) against an issuer that fails to deliver the disclosure statement required to be delivered to the commissioner upon the commissioner's request within the time period set forth above. Neither the filing of the disclosure statement nor the failure by the commissioner to comment thereon precludes the commissioner from taking any action deemed necessary or appropriate under this division with respect to the offer and sale of the securities.

SEC. 2. Section 25608 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

25608. (a) The commissioner shall charge and collect the fees fixed in this section. All fees charged and collected under this section shall be transmitted to the Treasurer at least weekly, accompanied by a detailed statement thereof and shall be credited to the State Corporations Fund.

(b) The fee for filing an application for a negotiating permit under subdivision (c) of Section 25102 is fifty dollars ($50).

(c) The fee for filing a notice pursuant to paragraph (5) of subdivision (h) of Section 25102, the fee for filing a notice pursuant to paragraph (4) of subdivision (f) of Section 25102, and the fee for filing a notice pursuant to paragraph (6) of subdivision (h) of Section 25103, in addition to the fee prescribed in those paragraphs, if applicable, shall be determined based on the value of the securities proposed to be sold in the transaction for which the notice is filed and in accordance with subdivision (g), and shall be as follows:

Value of Securities Proposed to be Sold	Filing Fee
$25,000 or less	$ 25
$25,001 to $100,000	$ 35
$100,001 to $500,000	$ 50
$500,001 to $1,000,000	$150
Over $1,000,000	$300

(d) The fee for filing an application for designation of an issuer pursuant to subdivision (k) of Section 25100 is fifty dollars ($50).

(e) The fee for filing an application for qualification of the sale of securities by notification under Section 25112 or by permit under paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 25113 (except applications for qualification by permit of the sale of any guarantee of any security, the fees for which applications are fixed in subdivision (k)) is two hundred dollars ($200) plus one-fifth of 1 percent of the aggregate value of the securities sought to be sold in this state up to a maximum aggregate fee of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500).

The fee for filing a small company application for qualification of the sale of securities by permit under paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 25113 is two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500). In the case where the costs of processing a small company application exceed the filing fee, an additional fee shall be charged, not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000), over and above the filing fee based on the costs of the salary or other compensation paid to persons processing the application plus overhead costs reasonably incurred in the performance of the work. In determining the costs, the commissioner may use the estimated average hourly cost for all persons processing applications for the fiscal year.

(f) The fee for filing an application for qualification of the sale of securities by coordination under Section 25111 is two hundred dollars ($200) plus one-fifth of 1 percent of the aggregate value of the securities sought to be sold in this state up to a maximum aggregate fee of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500).

(g) For the purpose of determining the fees fixed in subdivisions (e) and (f):

(1) The value of the securities shall be the price at which the company proposes to sell the securities, or the value, as alleged in the application, or the actual value, as determined by the commissioner, of the consideration (if other than money) to be received in exchange therefor, or of the securities when sold, whichever is greater.

(2) Interim or voting trust certificates shall have a value equal to the aggregate value of the securities to be represented by the interim or voting trust certificates.

(3) The value of a warrant or right to purchase or subscribe to another security of the same or another issuer shall be an amount equal to the consideration to be paid for that warrant or right plus an amount equal to the consideration to be paid upon purchase of the additional securities, provided that if the latter amount is not determinable at the time of qualification, that amount shall then be the value of the additional securities as determined by the commissioner.

(4) In the case of a share dividend where the shareholders are given an option to accept either cash or additional shares of common stock, the value of the securities to be sold shall be the maximum amount of cash which would be payable in the event that all shareholders elected to accept cash.

(h) The fee for filing an application for qualification of the sale of securities by permit under Section 25121 is:

(1) Two hundred dollars ($200) in connection with any change (including any stock split or reverse stock split or stock dividend, except a stock dividend where the shareholders are given an option to accept either cash or additional shares of common stock) in the rights, preferences, privileges, or restrictions of or on outstanding securities.

(2) Two hundred dollars ($200) plus one-fifth of 1 percent of the value, as alleged in the application, or the actual value, as determined by the commissioner, of the consideration to be received in exchange therefor, up to a maximum aggregate fee of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500), in any exchange of securities by the issuer with its existing security holders exclusively, or in any exchange in connection with any merger or consolidation or purchase of corporate assets in consideration of the issuance of securities.

(i) The fee for filing an application for qualification of the sale of securities by notification under Section 25131 shall be one hundred dollars ($100).

(j) The fee for an application for the removal of any condition under Section 25141 is fifty dollars ($50).

(k) The fee for filing any application for a permit to execute or issue any guarantee of any security is fifty dollars ($50).

(l) The fee for acting as escrow holder for securities under Section 25149 is fifty dollars ($50). In addition, a fee of two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50) shall be paid for the deposit with the commissioner of each new certificate or other document resulting from a transfer in escrow.

(m) The fee for filing an application for an order (1) consenting to the transfer in escrow of securities, (2) consenting to the transfer of securities subject to any condition imposed by the commissioner requiring the commissioner's consent to the transfer, or (3) consenting to the transfer of securities subject to a legend stamped or printed on the certificates evidencing the securities pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 25102, is twenty dollars ($20) for each transferor.

(n) The filing fee for an amendment to an application filed after the effective date of the qualification of the sale of securities is fifty dollars ($50) plus any additional fee which would have been required to be paid with the original application for qualification of the sale of securities under this section if the matters set forth in the amendment had been included in the original application.

(o) (1) The fee for filing an application for a broker-dealer certificate under Section 25211 is three hundred dollars ($300).

(2) Each broker-dealer shall pay to the commissioner its pro rata share of all costs and expenses, reasonably incurred in the administration of the broker-dealer program under this division, as estimated by the commissioner for the ensuing year and any deficit actually incurred or anticipated in the administration of the program in the year in which the assessment is made. The pro rata share shall be the proportion which the broker-dealer and the number of its agents in this state bears to the aggregate number of broker-dealers and agents in this state as shown by records maintained by or on behalf of the commissioner. The pro rata share may include the costs of any examinations, audit, or investigation provided for in subdivision (r).

(3) On or before the 30th day of May in each year, the commissioner shall notify each broker-dealer by mail of the amount assessed and levied against it and that amount shall be paid within 20 days thereafter. If payment is not made within 20 days, the commissioner shall assess and collect a penalty in addition to the assessment, of 1 percent of the assessment for each month or part of a month that the payment is delayed or withheld.

(4) In the levying and collection of the assessment, a broker-dealer shall not be assessed for, nor be permitted to pay, less than seventy-five dollars ($75) per year.

(5) In determining the amount assessed, the commissioner shall consider all appropriations from the State Corporations Fund for the support of the broker-dealer program under this division and all reimbursements applicable to the administration of the broker-dealer program under this division.

(6) If a broker-dealer fails to pay the assessment on or before the 30th day of June following the day upon which payment is due, the commissioner may by order summarily suspend or revoke the certificate issued to the broker-dealer. If, after that order is made, a request for hearing is filed in writing and a hearing is not held within 60 days thereafter, the order is deemed rescinded as of its effective date. During any period when its certificate is revoked or suspended, a broker-dealer shall not conduct business pursuant to this division except as may be permitted by order of the commissioner; provided, however, that the revocation, suspension, or surrender of a certificate shall not affect the powers of the commissioner as provided under this division.

(p) The commissioner shall charge a fee of twenty-five dollars ($25) for the filing of a notice or report required by rule adopted pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 25210.

(q) The fee for filing an application for an investment adviser under Section 25231 is one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125), and payment of this amount shall keep the certificate, if granted, in effect during the calendar year during which it is granted. Every investment adviser who has secured from the commissioner a certificate shall, in order to keep the certificate in effect for an additional period, pay a renewal fee of one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125) on or before the 15th day of December preceding the additional period.

(r) The fee for any examination, audit, or investigation is the amount of the salary or other compensation paid to the persons making the examination, audit, or investigation plus the amount of expenses including overhead reasonably incurred in the performance of the work. In determining the costs associated with an examination, audit, or investigation, the commissioner may use the estimated average hourly cost for all persons performing examinations, audits, or investigations for the fiscal year.

(s) The fee for any hearing held by the commissioner pursuant to Section 25142 shall be the sum determined by the commissioner to cover the actual expense of noticing and holding the hearing.

(t) The commissioner may fix by rule a reasonable charge for any publications issued under his or her authority. The charges shall not apply to reports of the commissioner in the ordinary course of distribution.

(u) The fee for filing an offer under subdivision (b) of Section 25507 shall be the amount of filing fee payable under subdivision (e), (f), (h), or (i) of this section if an application had been filed to qualify the transaction in which the securities upon which the offer is to be made were sold in violation of the qualification provisions of this law.

(v) The fee for filing an application for exemption pursuant to subdivision (l) of Section 25100 is two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

(w) The commissioner may by rule require payment of a fee for filing a notice or report required by a rule adopted pursuant to Section 25105. The fee required in connection with a transaction as defined by that rule shall not exceed the fees specified in subdivision (c) based on the value of the securities sold, but the commissioner may permit a single notice for more than one transaction.

(x) The fee for filing the first notice of transaction under subdivision (n) of Section 25102 is six hundred dollars ($600).

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to facilitate the ability of small companies to raise capital to finance their growth, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 829

An act to amend Section 1035 of the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1035 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1035. In any proceeding under this article, the commissioner shall have the power to appoint and employ under his or her hand and official seal, special deputy commissioners, as his or her agents, and to employ clerks and assistants and to give to each of them those powers that he or she deems necessary. Upon appointing or employing special deputy commissioners, clerks, or assistants, the commissioner shall notify the Chair of the Joint Budget Committee of the Legislature, by letter, of the action. The costs of employing special deputy commissioners, clerks, and assistants appointed to carry out this article, and all expenses of taking possession of, conserving, conducting, liquidating, disposing of, or otherwise dealing with the business and property of that person under this article, shall be fixed by the commissioner, subject to the approval of the court, and shall be paid out of the assets of that person to the department. In the event the property of that person does not contain cash or liquid assets sufficient to defray the cost of the services required to be performed under the terms of this article, the commissioner may at any time or from time to time pay the cost of those services out of the appropriation for the maintenance of the department, but not out of the assets of other estates. Any amounts so paid shall be deemed expense of administration and shall be repaid to the fund out of the first available moneys in the estate.

CHAPTER 830

An act to add Section 15334.3 to the Government Code, relating to economic and business development.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 15334.3 is added to the Government Code, to read:

15334.3. The Legislature finds and declares that a statewide network of visitor information centers, to be known as California Welcome Centers, readily accessible to and recognizable by tourists, would encourage tourism in California and provide benefits to the state economy. The Office of Tourism shall perform the following functions and activities for the purpose of establishing and enhancing a statewide network of California Welcome Centers:

(a) The Office of Tourism shall designate a statewide network of California Welcome Centers. Centers that may be so designated shall include, but not be limited to, centers operated by convention centers and visitor bureaus, chambers of commerce, local governments, state government, federal government, or private entities. California Welcome Centers may be designated through a method employing solicitations for negotiation or for proposal from interested entities. Only an entity that wishes to be designated a California Welcome Center may be so designated by the Office of Tourism. Criteria for designation shall include, but not be limited to, accessibility, proximity to tourist attractions, size, appearance, and maintenance. The Office of Tourism may limit the number of designated California Welcome Centers within any geographic area of the state should the office determine that a limit is needed to prevent an excessive density of centers.

(b) Designation of an entity as a California Welcome Center shall be based on conditions established by the Office of Tourism through written agreement with the entity. Conditions in the agreement shall require, at a minimum, that the entity operate at hours convenient to visitors and display visitor information produced by government entities at no cost to the government entity. Agreements may vary in their requirements according to local conditions and needs. Agreements shall not be construed as agreements for the performance of services to be provided to the state, or by the state, with any person or public body. Nothing in this subdivision shall preclude a California Welcome Center from displaying visitor information produced by a tourism-related trade association or any other appropriate entity.

(c) The Office of Tourism shall designate a logo for California Welcome Centers. The logo shall be displayed prominently on the exterior of any California Welcome Center.

(d) The Department of Transportation, to the maximum extent feasible, shall install and maintain California Welcome Center highway signs when requested by the Office of Tourism. The Office of Tourism shall consult with the Department of Transportation in the design and placement of California Welcome Center highway signs to ensure that design and placement of the highway signs are reasonably consistent with state and federal standards.

(e) The Office of Tourism shall collect fees from any entity operating a California Welcome Center in an amount sufficient to defray the costs incurred by the state in administering this section, including, but not limited to, costs incurred by the Department of Transportation pursuant to subdivision (d). Costs associated with the ongoing maintenance and upkeep of these centers shall be borne by the entity operating a California Welcome Center. The amount collected shall be deposited in a special account in the State Treasury maintained for that purpose and shall be available, when appropriated by the Legislature, for the purposes of this section.

(f) Every entity of state government shall cooperate with the Office of Tourism in furthering the provisions of this section.

(g) In the event that the Office of Tourism drafts regulations implementing this section, the office shall submit the regulations to the California Tourism Commission for the commission's review prior to the adoption of the regulations.

CHAPTER 831

An act to amend Section 39831.5 of the Education Code, and to amend Section 22112 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 39831.5 of the Education Code is amended to read:

39831.5. (a) All pupils in prekindergarten, kindergarten, and grades 1 to 12, inclusive, in public or private school who are transported in a schoolbus or school pupil activity bus shall receive instruction in schoolbus emergency procedures and passenger safety. The county superintendent of schools, superintendent of the school district, or owner/operator of a private school, as applicable, shall ensure that the instruction is provided as follows:

(1) Upon registration, the parents or guardians of all pupils not previously transported in a schoolbus or school pupil activity bus and who are in prekindergarten, kindergarten, and grades 1 to 6, inclusive, shall be provided with written information on schoolbus safety. The information shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(A) A list of schoolbus stops near each pupil's home.

(B) General rules of conduct at schoolbus loading zones.

(C) Red light crossing instructions.

(D) Schoolbus danger zone.

(E) Walking to and from schoolbus stops.

(2) At least once in each school year, all pupils in prekindergarten, kindergarten, and grades 1 to 8, inclusive, who receive home-to-school transportation shall receive safety instruction which includes, but is not limited to, proper loading and unloading procedures, including escorting by the driver, proper passenger conduct, bus evacuation, and location of emergency equipment. Instruction also may include responsibilities of passengers seated next to an emergency exit. As part of the instruction, pupils shall evacuate the schoolbus through emergency exit doors.

(3) Prior to departure on a school activity trip, all pupils riding on a schoolbus or school pupil activity bus shall receive safety instruction which includes, but is not limited to, location of emergency exits, and location and use of emergency equipment. Instruction also may include responsibilities of passengers seated next to an emergency exit.

(b) The following information shall be documented each time the instruction required by paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) is given:

(1) Name of school district, county office of education, or private school.

(2) Name and location of school.

(3) Date of instruction.

(4) Names of supervising adults.

(5) Number of pupils participating.

(6) Grade levels of pupils.

(7) Subjects covered in instruction.

(8) Amount of time taken for instruction.

(9) Bus driver's name.

(10) Bus number.

(11) Additional remarks.

The information recorded pursuant to this subdivision shall remain on file at the district or county office, or at the school, for one year from the date of the instruction, and shall be subject to inspection by the Department of the California Highway Patrol.

SEC. 2. Section 22112 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

22112. (a) On approach to a schoolbus stop where pupils are loading or unloading from a schoolbus and must cross a highway or private road, the driver of the schoolbus shall activate an approved flashing amber light warning system, if the bus is so equipped, beginning 200 feet before the bus stop. When safe to do so the driver shall operate the flashing red signal lights and stop signal arm, as required on the schoolbus, at all times when the schoolbus is stopped for the purpose of loading or unloading pupils who must cross a highway or private road upon which the schoolbus is stopped. The flashing red signal lights, amber warning lights, and stop signal arm system shall not be operated at any place where traffic is controlled by a traffic officer or official traffic control signal. The schoolbus flashing red signal lights, amber warning lights, and stop signal arm system shall not be operated at any other time.

(b) The driver shall stop to load or unload pupils only at a schoolbus stop designated for pupils by the school district superintendent or authorized by the superintendent for school activity trips.

(c) When pupils need to cross a highway or private road upon which the schoolbus is stopped, at a location where traffic is not controlled by a traffic officer or official traffic control signal, the driver shall do all of the following:

(1) Check for approaching traffic in all directions and activate the flashing red light signal system and stop signal arm, as defined in Section 25257, if equipped with a stop signal arm, only when safe to do so.

(2) Before opening the door, ensure that the flashing red signal lights and stop signal arm are activated, and that it is safe to exit the schoolbus.

(3) Escort all pupils in prekindergarten, kindergarten, or any of grades 1 to 8, inclusive, across the highway or private road. The driver shall use an approved hand-held "STOP" sign while escorting all pupils.

(4) Require all pupils to walk in front of the bus as they cross the highway or private road.

(5) Ensure that all pupils who need to cross the highway or private road have crossed safely, and that all other unloaded pupils and pedestrians are a safe distance from the bus and it is safe to move before setting the bus in motion.

(d) A school district may designate selected schoolbus stops as stops that may require the activation of the flashing red light as required in subdivision (a) even though there are no pupils crossing the roadway. These stops shall only be so designated because they present unique traffic hazards which can only be addressed by the use of the flashing red lights. No school district shall designate a schoolbus stop under this subdivision without the prior approval of the department and the agency having traffic engineering responsibility for the street on which the stop is located.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to prevent accidents and improve the safety of school pupils, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 832

An act to amend Section 34501 of, and to add Sections 595 and 34520 to, the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 595 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

595. "Terminal" is a place where a vehicle of a type listed in Section 34500 is regularly garaged or maintained, or from which the vehicle is operated or dispatched.

SEC. 2. Section 34501 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

34501. (a) (1) The department shall adopt reasonable rules and regulations which, in the judgment of the department, are designed to promote the safe operation of vehicles described in Section 34500, regarding, but not limited to, controlled substances and alcohol testing of drivers by motor carriers, hours of service of drivers, equipment, fuel containers, fueling operations, inspection, maintenance, recordkeeping, accident reports, and drawbridges. The rules and regulations shall not, however, be applicable to schoolbuses, which shall be subject to rules and regulations adopted pursuant to Section 34501.5.

The rules and regulations shall exempt local law enforcement agencies, within a single county, engaged in the transportation of inmates or prisoners when those agencies maintain other motor vehicle operations records which furnish hours of service information on drivers which are in substantial compliance with the rules and regulations. This exemption does not apply to any local law enforcement agency engaged in the transportation of inmates or prisoners outside the county in which the agency is located, if that agency would otherwise be required, by existing law, to maintain driving logs.

(2) The commissioner shall appoint a committee of 15 members, consisting of representatives of industry subject to the regulations to be adopted pursuant to this section, to act in an advisory capacity to the department, and the department shall cooperate and confer with the advisory committee so appointed. The commissioner shall appoint a separate committee to advise the department on rules and regulations concerning wheelchair lifts for installation and use on buses, consisting of persons who use the wheelchair lifts, representatives of transit districts, representatives of designers or manufacturers of wheelchairs and wheelchair lifts, and representatives of the Department of Transportation.

(3) The department may inspect any vehicles in maintenance facilities or terminals, as well as any records relating to the dispatch of vehicles or drivers, and the pay of drivers, to assure compliance with this code and regulations adopted pursuant to this section.

(b) The department, using the definitions adopted pursuant to Section 2402.7, shall adopt regulations for the transportation of hazardous materials in this state, except the transportation of materials which are subject to other provisions of this code, that the department determines are reasonably necessary to ensure the safety of persons and property using the highways. The regulations may include provisions governing the filling, marking, packing, labeling, and assembly of, and containers that may be used for, hazardous materials shipments, and the manner by which the shipper attests that the shipments are correctly identified and in proper conditions for transport.

(c) At least once every 13 months, the department shall inspect every maintenance facility or terminal of any person who at any time operates any bus. If the bus operation includes more than 100 buses, the inspection shall be without prior notice.

(d) The commissioner shall adopt and enforce regulations which will make the public or private users of any bus aware of the operator's last safety rating.

(e) It is unlawful and constitutes a misdemeanor for any person to operate any bus without the inspection specified in subdivision (c) having been conducted.

(f) The department may adopt regulations restricting or prohibiting the movement of any vehicle from a maintenance facility or terminal if the vehicle is found in violation of this code or regulations adopted pursuant to this section.

SEC. 3. Section 34520 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

34520. (a) Motor carriers and drivers shall comply with the controlled substances and alcohol use and testing requirements of the United States Secretary of Transportation as set forth in Part 382 (commencing with Section 382.101) of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(b) (1) Every motor carrier shall make available for inspection, upon the request of an authorized employee of the department, copies of all results and other records pertaining to controlled substances and alcohol use and testing conducted pursuant to federal law, as specified in subdivision (a), including those records contained in individual driver qualification files.

(2) For purposes of complying with the return-to-duty alcohol or controlled substances test requirements, or both, of Section 382.309 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations and the followup alcohol or controlled substances test requirements, or both, of Section 382.311 of that title, the department may use those test results to monitor drivers who are motor carriers.

(3) No evidence derived from a positive test result in the possession of a motor carrier shall be admissible in a criminal prosecution concerning unlawful possession, sale, or distribution of controlled substances.

(c) Any drug or alcohol testing consortium, as defined in Section 382.107 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations, shall mail a copy of all drug and alcohol positive test result summaries to the department within three days of the test. This requirement applies only to drug and alcohol positive tests of those drivers employed by motor carriers who operate terminals within this state.

(d) It is a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for six months and a fine not to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000), or by both the imprisonment and fine, for any person to willfully violate this section.

As used in this section, "willfully" has the same meaning as defined in Section 7 of the Penal Code.

(e) This section does not apply to a driver operating any of the vehicles specified in Section 35002 if that driver is participating in a substance abuse detection program sponsored by the driver's employer.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act implements a federal law or regulation and involves only "costs mandated by the federal government," as defined by Section 17513 of the Government Code. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 833

An act to add Section 1365.9 to the Civil Code, relating to common interest developments.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1365.9 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

1365.9. Any cause of action in tort against any person arising solely by reason of an ownership interest in the common area of a common interest development shall be brought against the association and not against the individual owners of the separate interests, as defined in subdivision (l) of Section 1351, provided that all of the following insurance requirements are met:

(a) The association maintained and had in effect at the time the alleged act or omission occurred and at the time a claim is made, one or more policies of insurance which include coverage for (1) general liability of the association and (2) individual liability of officers and directors of the association for negligent acts or omissions of those persons acting in their capacity as officers and directors.

(b) Both types of coverage described in paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (a) are in the following minimum amounts:

(1) At least two million dollars ($2,000,000) per occurrence if the common interest development consists of 100 or fewer separate interests.

(2) At least three million dollars ($3,000,000) per occurrence if the common interest development consists of more than 100 separate interests.

(c) The association shall, upon issuance or renewal of insurance, but no less than annually, notify its homeowners as to the amount and type of insurance carried by the association, and it shall accompany this notification with statements to the effect that the association is or is not insured to the levels specified by this section, and that if not so insured, owners may be individually liable for the entire amount of a judgment, and if the association is insured to the levels specified in this section, then owners may be individually liable only for their proportional share of assessments levied to pay the amount of any judgment which exceeds the limits of the association's insurance.

CHAPTER 834

An act to add Section 8547.12 to the Government Code, relating to improper governmental activities.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8547.12 is added to the Government Code, to read:

8547.12. (a) A California State University employee, including an officer or faculty member, or applicant for employment may file a written complaint with his or her supervisor or manager, or with any other university officer designated for that purpose by the trustees, alleging actual or attempted acts of reprisal, retaliation, threats, coercion, or similar improper acts for having disclosed improper governmental activities, together with a sworn statement that the contents of the written complaint are true, or are believed by the affiant to be true, under penalty of perjury. The complaint shall be filed within 12 months of the most recent act of reprisal complained about.

(b) Any person who intentionally engages in acts of reprisal, retaliation, threats, coercion, or similar acts against a California State University employee, including an officer or faculty member, or applicant for employment for having disclosed improper governmental activities, is subject to a fine not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000) and imprisonment in the county jail for up to a period of one year. Any university employee, including an officer or faculty member, who intentionally engages in that conduct shall also be subject to discipline by the university.

(c) In addition to all other penalties provided by law, any person who intentionally engages in acts of reprisal, retaliation, threats, coercion, or similar acts against a university employee, including an officer or faculty member, or applicant for employment for having disclosed improper governmental activities shall be liable in an action for damages brought against him or her by the injured party. Punitive damages may be awarded by the court where the acts of the offending party are proven to be malicious. Where liability has been established, the injured party shall also be entitled to reasonable attorney's fees as provided by law. However, any action for damages shall not be available to the injured party unless the injured party has first filed a complaint with the university officer identified pursuant to subdivision (a), and the university has failed to reach a decision regarding that complaint within the time limits established for that purpose by the trustees. Nothing in this section is intended to prohibit the injured party from seeking a remedy if the university has not satisfactorily addressed the complaint within 18 months.

(d) This section is not intended to prevent a manager or supervisor from taking, directing others to take, recommending, or approving any personnel action, or from taking or failing to take a personnel action with respect to any university employee, including an officer or faculty member, or applicant for employment if the manager or supervisor reasonably believes any action or inaction is justified on the basis of evidence separate and apart from the fact that the person has disclosed improper governmental activities.

(e) If the provisions of this section are in conflict with the provisions of a memorandum of understanding reached pursuant to Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 3560) of Division 4 of Title 1, the memorandum of understanding shall be controlling without further legislative action.

CHAPTER 835

An act to amend Sections 781 and 826 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to juvenile court law.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

781. (a) In any case in which a petition has been filed with a juvenile court to commence proceedings to adjudge a person a ward of the court, in any case in which a person is cited to appear before a probation officer or is taken before a probation officer pursuant to Section 626, or in any case in which a minor is taken before any officer of a law enforcement agency, the person or the county probation officer may, five years or more after the jurisdiction of the juvenile court has terminated as to the person, or, in a case in which no petition is filed, five years or more after the person was cited to appear before a probation officer or was taken before a probation officer pursuant to Section 626 or was taken before any officer of a law enforcement agency, or, in any case, at any time after the person has reached the age of 18 years, petition the court for sealing of the records, including records of arrest, relating to the person's case, in the custody of the juvenile court and probation officer and any other agencies, including law enforcement agencies, and public officials as the petitioner alleges, in his or her petition, to have custody of the records. The court shall notify the district attorney of the county and the county probation officer, if he or she is not the petitioner, and the district attorney or probation officer or any of their deputies or any other person having relevant evidence may testify at the hearing on the petition. If, after hearing, the court finds that since the termination of jurisdiction or action pursuant to Section 626, as the case may be, he or she has not been convicted of a felony or of any misdemeanor involving moral turpitude and that rehabilitation has been attained to the satisfaction of the court, it shall order all records, papers, and exhibits in the person's case in the custody of the juvenile court sealed, including the juvenile court record, minute book entries, and entries on dockets, and other records relating to the case in the custody of the other agencies and officials as are named in the order. In any case in which a ward of the juvenile court is subject to the registration requirements set forth in Section 290 of the Penal Code, a court, in ordering the sealing of the juvenile records of the person, also shall provide in the order that the person is relieved from the registration requirement and for the destruction of all registration information in the custody of the Department of Justice and other agencies and officials. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the court shall not order the person's records sealed in any case in which the person has been found by the juvenile court to have committed an offense listed in subdivision (b) of Section 707 until at least three years have elapsed since commission of the offense listed in subdivision (b) of Section 707. Once the court has ordered the person's records sealed, the proceedings in the case shall be deemed never to have occurred, and the person may properly reply accordingly to any inquiry about the events, the records of which are ordered sealed. The court shall send a copy of the order to each agency and official named therein, directing the agency to seal its records and stating the date thereafter to destroy the sealed records. Each such agency and official shall seal the records in its custody as directed by the order, shall advise the court of its compliance, and thereupon shall seal the copy of the court's order for sealing of records that it, he, or she received. The person who is the subject of records sealed pursuant to this section may petition the superior court to permit inspection of the records by persons named in the petition, and the superior court may so order. Otherwise, except as provided in subdivision (b), the records shall not be open to inspection.

(b) In any action or proceeding based upon defamation, a court, upon a showing of good cause, may order any records sealed under this section to be opened and admitted into evidence. The records shall be confidential and shall be available for inspection only by the court, jury, parties, counsel for the parties, and any other person who is authorized by the court to inspect them. Upon the judgment in the action or proceeding becoming final, the court shall order the records sealed.

(c) (1) Subdivision (a) does not apply to Department of Motor Vehicle records of any convictions for offenses under the Vehicle Code or any local ordinance relating to the operation, stopping and standing, or parking of a vehicle where the record of any such conviction would be a public record under Section 1808 of the Vehicle Code. However, if a court orders a case record containing any such conviction to be sealed under this section, and if the Department of Motor Vehicles maintains a public record of such a conviction, the court shall notify the Department of Motor Vehicles of the sealing and the department shall advise the court of its receipt of the notice.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, subsequent to the notification, the Department of Motor Vehicles shall allow access to its record of convictions only to the subject of the record and to insurers which have been granted requester code numbers by the department. Any insurer to which such a record of conviction is disclosed, when such a conviction record has otherwise been sealed under this section, shall be given notice of the sealing when the record is disclosed to the insurer. The insurer may use the information contained in the record for purposes of determining eligibility for insurance and insurance rates for the subject of the record, and the information shall not be used for any other purpose nor shall it be disclosed by an insurer to any person or party not having access to the record.

(2) This subdivision shall not be construed as preventing the sealing of any record which is maintained by any agency or party other than the Department of Motor Vehicles.

(3) This subdivision shall not be construed as affecting the procedures or authority of the Department of Motor Vehicles for purging department records.

(d) Unless for good cause the court determines that the juvenile court record shall be retained, the court shall order the destruction of a person's juvenile court records that are sealed pursuant to this section as follows: five years after the record was ordered sealed, if the person who is the subject of the record was alleged or adjudged to be a person described by Section 601; or when the person who is the subject of the record reaches the age of 38 if the person was alleged or adjudged to be a person described by Section 602. Any other agency in possession of sealed records may destroy its records five years after the record was ordered sealed.

(e) This section shall not permit the sealing of a person's juvenile court records for an offense where the person is convicted of that offense in a criminal court pursuant to the provisions of Section 707.1. This subdivision is declaratory of existing law.

SEC. 1.2. Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

781. (a) In any case in which a petition has been filed with a juvenile court to commence proceedings to adjudge a person a ward of the court, in any case in which a person is cited to appear before a probation officer or is taken before a probation officer pursuant to Section 626, or in any case in which a minor is taken before any officer of a law enforcement agency, the person or the county probation officer may, five years or more after the jurisdiction of the juvenile court has terminated as to the person, or, in a case in which no petition is filed, five years or more after the person was cited to appear before a probation officer or was taken before a probation officer pursuant to Section 626 or was taken before any officer of a law enforcement agency, or, in any case, at any time after the person has reached the age of 18 years, petition the court for sealing of the records, including records of arrest, relating to the person's case, in the custody of the juvenile court and probation officer and any other agencies, including law enforcement agencies, and public officials as the petitioner alleges, in his or her petition, to have custody of the records. The court shall notify the district attorney of the county and the county probation officer, if he or she is not the petitioner, and the district attorney or probation officer or any of their deputies or any other person having relevant evidence may testify at the hearing on the petition. If, after hearing, the court finds that since the termination of jurisdiction or action pursuant to Section 626, as the case may be, he or she has not been convicted of a felony or of any misdemeanor involving moral turpitude and that rehabilitation has been attained to the satisfaction of the court, it shall order all records, papers, and exhibits in the person's case in the custody of the juvenile court sealed, including the juvenile court record, minute book entries, and entries on dockets, and other records relating to the case in the custody of the other agencies and officials as are named in the order. In any case in which a ward of the juvenile court is subject to the registration requirements set forth in Section 290 of the Penal Code, a court, in ordering the sealing of the juvenile records of the person, also shall provide in the order that the person is relieved from the registration requirement and for the destruction of all registration information in the custody of the Department of Justice and other agencies and officials. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the court shall not order the person's records sealed in any case in which the person has been found by the juvenile court to have committed an offense listed in subdivision (b), paragraph (2) of subdivision (d), or subdivision (e) of Section 707 until at least six years have elapsed since commission of the offense listed in subdivision (b), paragraph (2) of subdivision (d), or subdivision (e) of Section 707. Once the court has ordered the person's records sealed, the proceedings in the case shall be deemed never to have occurred, and the person may properly reply accordingly to any inquiry about the events, the records of which are ordered sealed. The court shall send a copy of the order to each agency and official named therein, directing the agency to seal its records and stating the date thereafter to destroy the sealed records. Each such agency and official shall seal the records in its custody as directed by the order, shall advise the court of its compliance, and thereupon shall seal the copy of the court's order for sealing of records that it, he, or she received. The person who is the subject of records sealed pursuant to this section may petition the superior court to permit inspection of the records by persons named in the petition, and the superior court may so order. Otherwise, except as provided in subdivision (b), the records shall not be open to inspection.

(b) In any action or proceeding based upon defamation, a court, upon a showing of good cause, may order any records sealed under this section to be opened and admitted into evidence. The records shall be confidential and shall be available for inspection only by the court, jury, parties, counsel for the parties, and any other person who is authorized by the court to inspect them. Upon the judgment in the action or proceeding becoming final, the court shall order the records sealed.

(c) (1) Subdivision (a) does not apply to Department of Motor Vehicle records of any convictions for offenses under the Vehicle Code or any local ordinance relating to the operation, stopping and standing, or parking of a vehicle where the record of any such conviction would be a public record under Section 1808 of the Vehicle Code. However, if a court orders a case record containing any such conviction to be sealed under this section, and if the Department of Motor Vehicles maintains a public record of such a conviction, the court shall notify the Department of Motor Vehicles of the sealing and the department shall advise the court of its receipt of the notice.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, subsequent to the notification, the Department of Motor Vehicles shall allow access to its record of convictions only to the subject of the record and to insurers which have been granted requester code numbers by the department. Any insurer to which such a record of conviction is disclosed, when such a conviction record has otherwise been sealed under this section, shall be given notice of the sealing when the record is disclosed to the insurer. The insurer may use the information contained in the record for purposes of determining eligibility for insurance and insurance rates for the subject of the record, and the information shall not be used for any other purpose nor shall it be disclosed by an insurer to any person or party not having access to the record.

(2) This subdivision shall not be construed as preventing the sealing of any record which is maintained by any agency or party other than the Department of Motor Vehicles.

(3) This subdivision shall not be construed as affecting the procedures or authority of the Department of Motor Vehicles for purging department records.

(d) Unless for good cause the court determines that the juvenile court record shall be retained, the court shall order the destruction of a person's juvenile court records that are sealed pursuant to this section as follows: five years after the record was ordered sealed, if the person who is the subject of the record was alleged or adjudged to be a person described by Section 601; or when the person who is the subject of the record reaches the age of 38 if the person was alleged or adjudged to be a person described by Section 602. Any other agency in possession of sealed records may destroy its records five years after the record was ordered sealed.

(e) This section shall not permit the sealing of a person's juvenile court records for an offense where the person is convicted of that offense in a criminal court pursuant to the provisions of Section 707.1. This subdivision is declaratory of existing law.

SEC. 1.3. Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

781. (a) In any case in which a petition has been filed with a juvenile court to commence proceedings to adjudge a person a ward of the court, in any case in which a person is cited to appear before a probation officer or is taken before a probation officer pursuant to Section 626, or in any case in which a minor is taken before any officer of a law enforcement agency, the person or the county probation officer may, five years or more after the jurisdiction of the juvenile court has terminated as to the person, or, in a case in which no petition is filed, five years or more after the person was cited to appear before a probation officer or was taken before a probation officer pursuant to Section 626 or was taken before any officer of a law enforcement agency, or, in any case, at any time after the person has reached the age of 18 years, petition the court for sealing of the records, including records of arrest, relating to the person's case, in the custody of the juvenile court and probation officer and any other agencies, including law enforcement agencies, and public officials as the petitioner alleges, in his or her petition, to have custody of the records. The court shall notify the district attorney of the county and the county probation officer, if he or she is not the petitioner, and the district attorney or probation officer or any of their deputies or any other person having relevant evidence may testify at the hearing on the petition. If, after hearing, the court finds that since the termination of jurisdiction or action pursuant to Section 626, as the case may be, he or she has not been convicted of a felony or of any misdemeanor involving moral turpitude and that rehabilitation has been attained to the satisfaction of the court, it shall order all records, papers, and exhibits in the person's case in the custody of the juvenile court sealed, including the juvenile court record, minute book entries, and entries on dockets, and other records relating to the case in the custody of the other agencies and officials as are named in the order. In any case in which a ward of the juvenile court is subject to the registration requirements set forth in Section 290 of the Penal Code, a court, in ordering the sealing of the juvenile records of the person, also shall provide in the order that the person is relieved from the registration requirement and for the destruction of all registration information in the custody of the Department of Justice and other agencies and officials. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the court shall not order the person's records sealed in any case in which the person has been found by the juvenile court to have committed an offense listed in subdivision (b) of Section 707 until at least six years have elapsed since commission of the offense listed in subdivision (b) of Section 707. Once the court has ordered the person's records sealed, the proceedings in the case shall be deemed never to have occurred, and the person may properly reply accordingly to any inquiry about the events, the records of which are ordered sealed. The court shall send a copy of the order to each agency and official named therein, directing the agency to seal its records and stating the date thereafter to destroy the sealed records. Each such agency and official shall seal the records in its custody as directed by the order, shall advise the court of its compliance, and thereupon shall seal the copy of the court's order for sealing of records that it, he, or she received. The person who is the subject of records sealed pursuant to this section may petition the superior court to permit inspection of the records by persons named in the petition, and the superior court may so order. Otherwise, except as provided in subdivision (b), the records shall not be open to inspection.

(b) In any action or proceeding based upon defamation, a court, upon a showing of good cause, may order any records sealed under this section to be opened and admitted into evidence. The records shall be confidential and shall be available for inspection only by the court, jury, parties, counsel for the parties, and any other person who is authorized by the court to inspect them. Upon the judgment in the action or proceeding becoming final, the court shall order the records sealed.

(c) (1) Subdivision (a) does not apply to Department of Motor Vehicle records of any convictions for offenses under the Vehicle Code or any local ordinance relating to the operation, stopping and standing, or parking of a vehicle where the record of any such conviction would be a public record under Section 1808 of the Vehicle Code. However, if a court orders a case record containing any such conviction to be sealed under this section, and if the Department of Motor Vehicles maintains a public record of such a conviction, the court shall notify the Department of Motor Vehicles of the sealing and the department shall advise the court of its receipt of the notice.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, subsequent to the notification, the Department of Motor Vehicles shall allow access to its record of convictions only to the subject of the record and to insurers which have been granted requester code numbers by the department. Any insurer to which such a record of conviction is disclosed, when such a conviction record has otherwise been sealed under this section, shall be given notice of the sealing when the record is disclosed to the insurer. The insurer may use the information contained in the record for purposes of determining eligibility for insurance and insurance rates for the subject of the record, and the information shall not be used for any other purpose nor shall it be disclosed by an insurer to any person or party not having access to the record.

(2) This subdivision shall not be construed as preventing the sealing of any record which is maintained by any agency or party other than the Department of Motor Vehicles.

(3) This subdivision shall not be construed as affecting the procedures or authority of the Department of Motor Vehicles for purging department records.

(d) Unless for good cause the court determines that the juvenile court record shall be retained, the court shall order the destruction of a person's juvenile court records that are sealed pursuant to this section as follows: five years after the record was ordered sealed, if the person who is the subject of the record was alleged or adjudged to be a person described by Section 601; or when the person who is the subject of the record reaches the age of 38 if the person was alleged or adjudged to be a person described by Section 602. Any other agency in possession of sealed records may destroy its records five years after the record was ordered sealed.

(e) This section shall not permit the sealing of a person's juvenile court records for an offense where the person is convicted of that offense in a criminal court pursuant to the provisions of Section 707.1.

This subdivision is declaratory of existing law.

SEC. 1.4. Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

781. (a) (1) In any case in which a petition has been filed with a juvenile court to commence proceedings to adjudge a person a ward of the court, in any case in which a person is cited to appear before a probation officer or is taken before a probation officer pursuant to Section 626, or in any case in which a minor is taken before any officer of a law enforcement agency, the person or the county probation officer may, five years or more after the jurisdiction of the juvenile court has terminated as to the person, or, in a case in which no petition is filed, five years or more after the person was cited to appear before a probation officer or was taken before a probation officer pursuant to Section 626 or was taken before any officer of a law enforcement agency, or, in any case, at any time after the person has reached the age of 18 years, petition the court for sealing of the records, including records of arrest, relating to the person's case, in the custody of the juvenile court and probation officer and any other agencies, including law enforcement agencies, and public officials as the petitioner alleges, in his or her petition, to have custody of the records.

(2) The court shall notify the district attorney of the county and the county probation officer, if he or she is not the petitioner, and the district attorney or probation officer or any of their deputies or any other person having relevant evidence may testify at the hearing on the petition.

(3) If, after hearing, the court finds that since the termination of jurisdiction or action pursuant to Section 626, as the case may be, he or she has not been convicted of a felony or of any misdemeanor involving moral turpitude and that rehabilitation has been attained to the satisfaction of the court, it shall order all records, papers, and exhibits in the person's case in the custody of the juvenile court sealed, including the juvenile court record, minute book entries, and entries on dockets, except as provided in subdivision (d). The court shall order all other records relating to the case in the custody of the other agencies and officials as are named in the order.

(4) In any case in which a ward of the juvenile court is subject to the registration requirements set forth in Section 290 of the Penal Code, a court, in ordering the sealing of the juvenile records of the person, also shall provide in the order that the person is relieved from the registration requirement and for the destruction of all registration information in the custody of the Department of Justice and other agencies and officials.

(5) Notwithstanding any other law, the court shall not order the person's records sealed in any case in which the person has been found by the juvenile court to have committed an offense listed in subdivision (b) of Section 707 until at least three years have elapsed since commission of the offense listed in subdivision (b) of Section 707.

(6) Once the court has ordered the person's records sealed, the proceedings in the case shall be deemed never to have occurred, and the person may properly reply accordingly to any inquiry about the events, the records of which are ordered sealed, except as provided in subdivision (d).

(7) The court shall send a copy of the order to each agency and official named therein, directing the agency to seal its records and stating the date thereafter to destroy the sealed records. Each agency and official shall seal the records in its custody as directed by the order, shall advise the court of its compliance, and thereupon shall seal the copy of the court's order for sealing of records that it, he, or she received.

(8) The person who is the subject of records sealed pursuant to this section may petition the superior court to permit inspection of the records by persons named in the petition, and the superior court may so order. Otherwise, except as provided in subdivision (b), the records shall not be open to inspection.

(b) In any action or proceeding based upon defamation, a court, upon a showing of good cause, may order any records sealed under this section to be opened and admitted into evidence. The records shall be confidential and shall be available for inspection only by the court, jury, parties, counsel for the parties, and any other person who is authorized by the court to inspect them. Upon the judgment in the action or proceeding becoming final, the court shall order the records sealed.

(c) (1) Subdivision (a) does not apply to Department of Motor Vehicle records of any convictions for offenses under the Vehicle Code or any local ordinance relating to the operation, stopping and standing, or parking of a vehicle where the record of the conviction would be a public record under Section 1808 of the Vehicle Code. However, if a court orders a case record containing the conviction to be sealed under this section, and if the Department of Motor Vehicles maintains a public record of the conviction, the court shall notify the Department of Motor Vehicles of the sealing and the department shall advise the court of its receipt of the notice.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, subsequent to the notification, the Department of Motor Vehicles shall allow access to its record of convictions only to the subject of the record and to insurers which have been granted requester code numbers by the department. Any insurer to which the record of conviction is disclosed, when the conviction record has otherwise been sealed under this section, shall be given notice of the sealing when the record is disclosed to the insurer. The insurer may use the information contained in the record for purposes of determining eligibility for insurance and insurance rates for the subject of the record, and the information shall not be used for any other purpose nor shall it be disclosed by an insurer to any person or party not having access to the record.

(2) This subdivision shall not be construed as preventing the sealing of any record which is maintained by any agency or party other than the Department of Motor Vehicles.

(3) This subdivision shall not be construed as affecting the procedures or authority of the Department of Motor Vehicles for purging department records.

(d) (1) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the court for the purposes of determining circumstances in mitigation or aggravation in any adult criminal proceeding involving a felony conviction shall have access to a juvenile court record sealed pursuant to this section with regard to any case in which a person has been adjudged to be a ward of the juvenile court pursuant to Section 602 and the juvenile court has made a finding that the person committed any offense listed in subdivision (b) of Section 707.

(2) A record described in this subdivision shall not be destroyed pursuant to subdivision (e).

(3) A juvenile adjudication in a previously sealed juvenile court record obtained by the court pursuant to paragraph (1) shall not constitute a prior felony conviction for purposes of subdivisions (b) to (i), inclusive, of Section 667, or Section 1170.12 if added to this code by initiative statute at the November 8, 1994, general election.

(e) Unless for good cause the court determines that the juvenile court record shall be retained, and except as provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (d), the court shall order the destruction of a person's juvenile court records that are sealed pursuant to this section as follows: five years after the record was ordered sealed, if the person who is the subject of the record was alleged or adjudged to be a person described by Section 601; or when the person who is the subject of the record reaches the age of 38 if the person was alleged or adjudged to be a person described by Section 602. Any other agency in possession of sealed records may destroy its records five years after the record was ordered sealed.

(f) This section shall not permit the sealing of a person's juvenile court records for an offense where the person is convicted of that offense in a criminal court pursuant to the provisions of Section 707.1. This subdivision is declaratory of existing law.

SEC. 1.5. Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

781. (a) (1) In any case in which a petition has been filed with a juvenile court to commence proceedings to adjudge a person a ward of the court, in any case in which a person is cited to appear before a probation officer or is taken before a probation officer pursuant to Section 626, or in any case in which a minor is taken before any officer of a law enforcement agency, the person or the county probation officer may, five years or more after the jurisdiction of the juvenile court has terminated as to the person, or, in a case in which no petition is filed, five years or more after the person was cited to appear before a probation officer or was taken before a probation officer pursuant to Section 626 or was taken before any officer of a law enforcement agency, or, in any case, at any time after the person has reached the age of 18 years, petition the court for sealing of the records, including records of arrest, relating to the person's case, in the custody of the juvenile court and probation officer and any other agencies, including law enforcement agencies, and public officials as the petitioner alleges, in his or her petition, to have custody of the records.

(2) The court shall notify the district attorney of the county and the county probation officer, if he or she is not the petitioner, and the district attorney or probation officer or any of their deputies or any other person having relevant evidence may testify at the hearing on the petition.

(3) If, after hearing, the court finds that since the termination of jurisdiction or action pursuant to Section 626, as the case may be, he or she has not been convicted of a felony or of any misdemeanor involving moral turpitude and that rehabilitation has been attained to the satisfaction of the court, it shall order all records, papers, and exhibits in the person's case in the custody of the juvenile court sealed, including the juvenile court record, minute book entries, and entries on dockets, except as provided in subdivision (d). The court shall order all other records relating to the case in the custody of the other agencies and officials as are named in the order.

(4) In any case in which a ward of the juvenile court is subject to the registration requirements set forth in Section 290 of the Penal Code, a court, in ordering the sealing of the juvenile records of the person, also shall provide in the order that the person is relieved from the registration requirement and for the destruction of all registration information in the custody of the Department of Justice and other agencies and officials.

(5) Notwithstanding any other law, the court shall not order the person's records sealed in any case in which the person has been found by the juvenile court to have committed an offense listed in subdivision (b), paragraph (2) of subdivision (d), or subdivision (e) of Section 707 until at least six years have elapsed since commission of the offense listed in subdivision (b), paragraph (2) of subdivision (d), or subdivision (e) of Section 707.

(6) Once the court has ordered the person's records sealed, the proceedings in the case shall be deemed never to have occurred, and the person may properly reply accordingly to any inquiry about the events, the records of which are ordered sealed, except as provided in subdivision (d).

(7) The court shall send a copy of the order to each agency and official named therein, directing the agency to seal its records and stating the date thereafter to destroy the sealed records. Each agency and official shall seal the records in its custody as directed by the order, shall advise the court of its compliance, and thereupon shall seal the copy of the court's order for sealing of records that it, he, or she received.

(8) The person who is the subject of records sealed pursuant to this section may petition the superior court to permit inspection of the records by persons named in the petition, and the superior court may so order. Otherwise, except as provided in subdivision (b), the records shall not be open to inspection.

(b) In any action or proceeding based upon defamation, a court, upon a showing of good cause, may order any records sealed under this section to be opened and admitted into evidence. The records shall be confidential and shall be available for inspection only by the court, jury, parties, counsel for the parties, and any other person who is authorized by the court to inspect them. Upon the judgment in the action or proceeding becoming final, the court shall order the records sealed.

(c) (1) Subdivision (a) does not apply to Department of Motor Vehicle records of any convictions for offenses under the Vehicle Code or any local ordinance relating to the operation, stopping and standing, or parking of a vehicle where the record of the conviction would be a public record under Section 1808 of the Vehicle Code. However, if a court orders a case record containing the conviction to be sealed under this section, and if the Department of Motor Vehicles maintains a public record of the conviction, the court shall notify the Department of Motor Vehicles of the sealing and the department shall advise the court of its receipt of the notice.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, subsequent to the notification, the Department of Motor Vehicles shall allow access to its record of convictions only to the subject of the record and to insurers which have been granted requester code numbers by the department. Any insurer to which the record of conviction is disclosed, when the conviction record has otherwise been sealed under this section, shall be given notice of the sealing when the record is disclosed to the insurer. The insurer may use the information contained in the record for purposes of determining eligibility for insurance and insurance rates for the subject of the record, and the information shall not be used for any other purpose nor shall it be disclosed by an insurer to any person or party not having access to the record.

(2) This subdivision shall not be construed as preventing the sealing of any record which is maintained by any agency or party other than the Department of Motor Vehicles.

(3) This subdivision shall not be construed as affecting the procedures or authority of the Department of Motor Vehicles for purging department records.

(d) (1) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the court for the purposes of determining circumstances in mitigation or aggravation in any adult criminal proceeding involving a felony conviction shall have access to a juvenile court record sealed pursuant to this section with regard to any case in which a person has been adjudged to be a ward of the juvenile court pursuant to Section 602 and the juvenile court has made a finding that the person committed any offense listed in subdivision (b) of Section 707.

(2) A record described in this subdivision shall not be destroyed pursuant to subdivision (e).

(3) A juvenile adjudication in a previously sealed juvenile court record obtained by the court pursuant to paragraph (1) shall not constitute a prior felony conviction for purposes of subdivisions (b) to (i), inclusive, of Section 667, or Section 1170.12 if added to this code by initiative statute at the November 8, 1994, general election.

(e) Unless for good cause the court determines that the juvenile court record shall be retained, and except as provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (d), the court shall order the destruction of a person's juvenile court records that are sealed pursuant to this section as follows: five years after the record was ordered sealed, if the person who is the subject of the record was alleged or adjudged to be a person described by Section 601; or when the person who is the subject of the record reaches the age of 38 if the person was alleged or adjudged to be a person described by Section 602. Any other agency in possession of sealed records may destroy its records five years after the record was ordered sealed.

(f) This section shall not permit the sealing of a person's juvenile court records for an offense where the person is convicted of that offense in a criminal court pursuant to the provisions of Section 707.1. This subdivision is declaratory of existing law.

SEC. 1.6. Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

781. (a) (1) In any case in which a petition has been filed with a juvenile court to commence proceedings to adjudge a person a ward of the court, in any case in which a person is cited to appear before a probation officer or is taken before a probation officer pursuant to Section 626, or in any case in which a minor is taken before any officer of a law enforcement agency, the person or the county probation officer may, five years or more after the jurisdiction of the juvenile court has terminated as to the person, or, in a case in which no petition is filed, five years or more after the person was cited to appear before a probation officer or was taken before a probation officer pursuant to Section 626 or was taken before any officer of a law enforcement agency, or, in any case, at any time after the person has reached the age of 18 years, petition the court for sealing of the records, including records of arrest, relating to the person's case, in the custody of the juvenile court and probation officer and any other agencies, including law enforcement agencies, and public officials as the petitioner alleges, in his or her petition, to have custody of the records.

(2) The court shall notify the district attorney of the county and the county probation officer, if he or she is not the petitioner, and the district attorney or probation officer or any of their deputies or any other person having relevant evidence may testify at the hearing on the petition.

(3) If, after hearing, the court finds that since the termination of jurisdiction or action pursuant to Section 626, as the case may be, he or she has not been convicted of a felony or of any misdemeanor involving moral turpitude and that rehabilitation has been attained to the satisfaction of the court, it shall order all records, papers, and exhibits in the person's case in the custody of the juvenile court sealed, including the juvenile court record, minute book entries, and entries on dockets, except as provided in subdivision (d). The court shall order other records relating to the case in the custody of the other agencies and officials as are named in the order.

(4) In any case in which a ward of the juvenile court is subject to the registration requirements set forth in Section 290 of the Penal Code, a court, in ordering the sealing of the juvenile records of the person, also shall provide in the order that the person is relieved from the registration requirement and for the destruction of all registration information in the custody of the Department of Justice and other agencies and officials.

(5) Notwithstanding any other law, the court shall not order the person's records sealed in any case in which the person has been found by the juvenile court to have committed an offense listed in subdivision (b) of Section 707 until at least six years have elapsed since commission of the offense listed in subdivision (b) of Section 707.

(6) Once the court has ordered the person's records sealed, the proceedings in the case shall be deemed never to have occurred, and the person may properly reply accordingly to any inquiry about the events, the records of which are ordered sealed, except as provided in subdivision (d).

(7) The court shall send a copy of the order to each agency and official named therein, directing the agency to seal its records and stating the date thereafter to destroy the sealed records. Each agency and official shall seal the records in its custody as directed by the order, shall advise the court of its compliance, and thereupon shall seal the copy of the court's order for sealing of records that it, he, or she received.

(8) The person who is the subject of records sealed pursuant to this section may petition the superior court to permit inspection of the records by persons named in the petition, and the superior court may so order. Otherwise, except as provided in subdivision (b), the records shall not be open to inspection.

(b) In any action or proceeding based upon defamation, a court, upon a showing of good cause, may order any records sealed under this section to be opened and admitted into evidence. The records shall be confidential and shall be available for inspection only by the court, jury, parties, counsel for the parties, and any other person who is authorized by the court to inspect them. Upon the judgment in the action or proceeding becoming final, the court shall order the records sealed.

(c) (1) Subdivision (a) does not apply to Department of Motor Vehicle records of any convictions for offenses under the Vehicle Code or any local ordinance relating to the operation, stopping and standing, or parking of a vehicle where the record of the conviction would be a public record under Section 1808 of the Vehicle Code. However, if a court orders a case record containing the conviction to be sealed under this section, and if the Department of Motor Vehicles maintains a public record of the conviction, the court shall notify the Department of Motor Vehicles of the sealing and the department shall advise the court of its receipt of the notice.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, subsequent to the notification, the Department of Motor Vehicles shall allow access to its record of convictions only to the subject of the record and to insurers which have been granted requester code numbers by the department. Any insurer to which the record of conviction is disclosed, when the conviction record has otherwise been sealed under this section, shall be given notice of the sealing when the record is disclosed to the insurer. The insurer may use the information contained in the record for purposes of determining eligibility for insurance and insurance rates for the subject of the record, and the information shall not be used for any other purpose nor shall it be disclosed by an insurer to any person or party not having access to the record.

(2) This subdivision shall not be construed as preventing the sealing of any record which is maintained by any agency or party other than the Department of Motor Vehicles.

(3) This subdivision shall not be construed as affecting the procedures or authority of the Department of Motor Vehicles for purging department records.

(d) (1) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the court for the purposes of determining circumstances in mitigation or aggravation in any adult criminal proceeding involving a felony conviction shall have access to a juvenile court record sealed pursuant to this section with regard to any case in which a person has been adjudged to be a ward of the juvenile court pursuant to Section 602 and the juvenile court has made a finding that the person committed any offense listed in subdivision (b) of Section 707.

(2) A record described in this subdivision shall not be destroyed pursuant to subdivision (e).

(3) A juvenile adjudication in a previously sealed juvenile court record obtained by the court pursuant to paragraph (1) shall not constitute a prior felony conviction for purposes of subdivisions (b) to (i), inclusive, of Section 667, or Section 1170.12 if added to this code by initiative statute at the November 8, 1994, general election.

(e) Unless for good cause the court determines that the juvenile court record shall be retained, and except as provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (d), the court shall order the destruction of a person's juvenile court records that are sealed pursuant to this section as follows: five years after the record was ordered sealed, if the person who is the subject of the record was alleged or adjudged to be a person described by Section 601; or when the person who is the subject of the record reaches the age of 38 if the person was alleged or adjudged to be a person described by Section 602. Any other agency in possession of sealed records may destroy its records five years after the record was ordered sealed.

(f) This section shall not permit the sealing of a person's juvenile court records for an offense where the person is convicted of that offense in a criminal court pursuant to the provisions of Section 707.1. This subdivision is declaratory of existing law.

SEC. 2. Section 826 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

826. (a) After five years from the date on which the jurisdiction of the juvenile court over a minor is terminated, the probation officer may destroy all records and papers in the proceedings concerning the minor.

The juvenile court record, which includes all records and papers, any minute book entries, dockets and judgment dockets, shall be destroyed by order of the court as follows: when the person who is the subject of the record reaches the age of 28 years, if the person was alleged or adjudged to be a person described by Section 300, when the person who is the subject of the record reaches the age of 21 years, if the person was alleged or adjudged to be a person described by Section 601, or when the person reaches the age of 38 years if the person was alleged or adjudged to be a person described by Section 602, unless for good cause the court determines that the juvenile record shall be retained, or unless the juvenile court record is released to the person who is the subject of the record pursuant to this section. However, a juvenile court record which is not permitted to be sealed pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 781 shall not be destroyed pursuant to this section.

Any person who is the subject of a juvenile court record may by written notice request the juvenile court to release the court record to his or her custody. Wherever possible, the written notice shall include the person's full name, the person's date of birth, and the juvenile court case number. Any juvenile court receiving the written notice shall release the court record to the person who is the subject of the record five years after the jurisdiction of the juvenile court over the person has terminated, if the person was alleged or adjudged to be a person described by Section 300, or when the person reaches the age of 21 years, if the person was alleged or adjudged to be a person described by Section 601, unless for good cause the court determines that the record shall be retained. Exhibits shall be destroyed as provided under Sections 1418, 1418.5, and 1419 of the Penal Code. For the purpose of this section "destroy" means destroy or dispose of for the purpose of destruction. The proceedings in any case in which the juvenile court record is destroyed or released to the person who is the subject of the record pursuant to this section shall be deemed never to have occurred, and the person may reply accordingly to any inquiry about the events in the case.

(b) If an individual whose juvenile court record has been destroyed or released under subdivision (a) discovers that any other agency still retains a record, the individual may file a petition with the court requesting that the records be destroyed. The petition will include the name of the agency and the type of record to be destroyed. The court shall order that such records also be destroyed unless for good cause the court determines to the contrary. The court shall send a copy of the order to each agency and each agency shall destroy records in its custody as directed by the order, and shall advise the court of its compliance. The court shall then destroy the copy of the petition, the order, and the notice of compliance from each agency. Thereafter, the proceedings in such case shall be deemed never to have occurred.

(c) Juvenile court records in juvenile traffic matters, which include all records and papers, any minute book entries, dockets and judgment dockets, may be destroyed after five years from the date on which the jurisdiction of the juvenile court over a minor is terminated, or when the minor reaches the age of 21 years, if the person was alleged or adjudged to be a person described by Section 601. Prior to such destruction the original record may be microfilmed or photocopied. Every such reproduction shall be deemed and considered an original; and a transcript, exemplification or certified copy of any such reproduction shall be deemed and considered a transcript, exemplification or certified copy, as the case may be, of the original.

SEC. 3. (a) Section 1.2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code proposed by both this bill and Section 13 of AB 560. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1995, (2) this bill and Section 13 of AB 560 both are operative to amend Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, (3) SB 1792 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 560, in which case Sections 1, 1.3, 1.4, 1.5, and 1.6 of this bill shall not become operative.

(b) Section 1.3 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code proposed by both this bill and Section 13.5 of AB 560. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1995, (2) this bill and Section 13.5 of AB 560 both are operative to amend Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, (3) SB 1792 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 560, in which case Sections 1, 1.2, 1.4, 1.5, and 1.6 of this bill shall not become operative.

(c) Section 1.4 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code proposed by both this bill and SB 1792. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, (3) AB 560 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after SB 1792, in which case Sections 1, 1.2, 1.3, 1.5, and 1.6 of this bill shall not become operative.

(d) Section 1.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 781

of the Welfare and Institutions Code proposed by this bill, Section 13 of AB 560, and SB 1792. It shall only become operative if (1) all three bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1995, (2) this bill, SB 1792, and Section 13 of AB 560 are operative to amend Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 560 and SB 1792, in which case Sections 1, 1.2, 1.3, 1.4, and 1.6 of this bill shall not become operative.

(e) Section 1.6 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code proposed by this bill, Section 13.5 of AB 560, and SB 1792. It shall only become operative if (1) all three bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1995, (2) this bill, SB 1792, and Section 13.5 of AB 560 are operative to amend Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 560 and SB 1792, in which case Sections 1, 1.2, 1.3, 1.4, and 1.5 of this bill shall not become operative.

An act to amend Sections 656, 659, 700, 729.6, and 731.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to juveniles.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 656 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

656. A petition to commence proceedings in the juvenile court to declare a minor a ward of the court shall be verified and shall contain all of the following:

(a) The name of the court to which it is addressed.

(b) The title of the proceeding.

(c) The code section and subdivision under which the proceedings are instituted.

(d) The name, age, and address, if any, of the minor upon whose behalf the petition is brought.

(e) The names and residence addresses, if known to petitioner, of both of the parents and any guardian of the minor. If there is no parent or guardian residing within the state, or if his or her place of residence is not known to petitioner, the petition shall also contain the name and residence address, if known, of any adult relative residing within the county, or, if there are none, the adult relative residing nearest to the location of the court.

(f) A concise statement of facts, separately stated, to support the conclusion that the minor upon whose behalf the petition is being brought is a person within the definition of each of the sections and subdivisions under which the proceedings are being instituted.

(g) The fact that the minor upon whose behalf the petition is brought is detained in custody or is not detained in custody, and if he or she is detained in custody, the date and the precise time the minor was taken into custody.

(h) A notice to the father, mother, spouse, or other person liable for support of the minor child, that: (1) Section 903 may make that person, the estate of that person, and the estate of the minor child, liable for the cost of the care, support, and maintenance of the minor child in any county institution or any other place in which the child is placed, detained, or committed pursuant to an order of the juvenile court; (2) Section 903.1 may make that person, the estate of that person, and the estate of the minor child, liable for the cost to the county of legal services rendered to the minor by a private attorney or a public defender appointed pursuant to the order of the juvenile court; (3) Section 903.2 may make that person, the estate of that person, and the estate of the minor child, liable for the cost to the county of the probation supervision of the minor child by the probation officer pursuant to the order of the juvenile court; and (4) the liabilities established by these sections are joint and several.

(i) In a proceeding alleging that the minor comes within Section 601, notice to the parent, guardian, or other person having control or charge of the minor that failure to comply with the compulsory school attendance laws is an infraction, which may be charged and prosecuted before the juvenile court judge sitting as a municipal court judge. In those cases, the petition shall also include notice that the parent, guardian, or other person having control or charge of the minor has the right to a hearing on the infraction before a judge different than the judge who has heard or is to hear the proceeding pursuant to Section 601. The notice shall explain the provisions of Section 170.6 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(j) If a proceeding is pending against a minor child for a violation of Section 640.5 or 640.6 of the Penal Code, a notice to the parent or legal guardian of the minor that if the minor is found to have violated either or both of these provisions that (1) any community service which may be required of the minor may be performed in the presence, and under the direct supervision, of the parent or legal guardian pursuant to either or both of these provisions; and (2) if the minor is personally unable to pay any fine levied for the violation of either or both of these provisions, that the parent or legal guardian of the minor shall be liable for payment of the fine pursuant to those sections.

(k) A notice to the parent or guardian of the minor that if the minor is ordered to make restitution to the victim pursuant to Section 729.6 or 731.1, the parent or guardian may be liable for the payment of restitution.

SEC. 2. Section 659 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

659. The notice shall contain all of the following:

(a) The name and address of the person to whom the notice is directed.

(b) The date, time, and place of the hearing on the petition.

(c) The name of the minor upon whose behalf the petition has been brought.

(d) Each section and subdivision under which the proceeding has been instituted.

(e) A statement that the minor and his or her parent or guardian or adult relative, as the case may be, to whom notice is required to be given, are entitled to have an attorney present at the hearing on the petition, and that, if the parent or guardian or the adult relative is indigent and cannot afford an attorney, and the minor or his or her parent or guardian or the adult relative desires to be represented by an attorney, the parent or guardian or adult relative shall promptly notify the clerk of the juvenile court, and that in the event counsel or legal assistance is furnished by the court, the parent or guardian or adult relative shall be liable to the county, to the extent of his, her, or their financial ability, for all or a portion of the cost thereof.

(f) A statement that the parent or parents or responsible relative or guardian may be liable for the costs of support of the minor in a county institution.

(g) A statement that the parent or guardian of the minor may be liable for the payment of restitution if the minor is ordered to make restitution to the victim.

SEC. 3. Section 700 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

700. At the beginning of the hearing on a petition filed pursuant to Article 16 (commencing with Section 650) of this chapter, the judge or clerk shall first read the petition to those present and upon request of the minor upon whose behalf the petition has been brought or upon the request of any parent, relative or guardian, the judge shall explain any term of allegation contained therein and the nature of the hearing, its procedures, and possible consequences. The judge shall advise those present that if the petition or petitions are sustained and the minor is ordered to make restitution to the victim, the parent or guardian may be liable for the payment of restitution. The judge shall ascertain whether the minor and his or her parent or guardian or adult relative, as the case may be, has been informed of the right of the minor to be represented by counsel, and if not, the judge shall advise the minor and such a person, if present, of the right to have counsel present and where applicable, of the right to appointed counsel. The court shall appoint counsel to represent the minor if he or she appears at the hearing without counsel, whether he or she is unable to afford counsel or not, unless there is an intelligent waiver of the right of counsel by the minor; and, in the absence of such a waiver, if the parent or guardian does not furnish counsel and the court determines that the parent or guardian has the ability to pay for counsel, the court shall appoint counsel at the expense of the parent or guardian. The court shall continue the hearing for not to exceed seven days, as necessary to make an appointment of counsel, or to enable counsel to acquaint himself or herself with the case, or to determine whether the parent or guardian or adult relative is unable to afford counsel at his or her own expense, and shall continue the hearing as necessary to provide reasonable opportunity for the minor and the parent or guardian or adult relative to prepare for the hearing.

SEC. 4. Section 729.6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

729.6. (a) If a minor is found to be a person described in Section 602, the court shall require as a condition of probation, that the minor make restitution as follows:

(1) To the victim, if the crime involved a victim. For purposes of this section, "victim" shall include the immediate surviving family of the actual victim in homicide cases. Payments shall be made to the Restitution Fund to the extent that the victim has received assistance pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 13959) of Chapter 5 of Part 4 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(2) To the Restitution Fund, if the crime did not involve a victim.

(b) If the court finds, and states its reasons for the finding on the record, that there are compelling and extraordinary reasons why restitution should not be required as provided in subdivision (a), the court shall require, as a condition of probation, that the minor perform specified community services.

(c) The court may avoid imposing the requirement of community service as a condition of probation only if it finds, and states its reasons for the finding on the record, that there are compelling and extraordinary reasons not to require community service in addition to its finding as to why restitution pursuant to subdivision (a) should not be required.

(d) For purposes of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), "restitution" means full or partial payment for the value of stolen or damaged property, medical expenses, and wages or profits lost due to injury or to time spent as a witness or in assisting the police or prosecution, which losses were caused by the minor as a result of committing the offense for which he or she was found to be a person described in Section 602. The value of stolen or damaged property shall be the replacement cost of like property, or the actual cost of repairing the property when repair is possible. Restitution collected pursuant to this section shall be credited to any other judgments obtained by the victim against the minor arising out of the offense for which the minor was found to be a person described in Section 602.

(e) A restitution order imposed pursuant to this section shall identify the losses to which it pertains, and may be enforced in a manner provided for the enforcement of money judgments.

(f) In a case where the minor is ordered to make restitution to the victim pursuant to this section or Section 731.1, a parent or guardian who has joint or sole legal and physical custody and control of the minor shall be rebuttably presumed to be jointly and severally liable with the minor in accordance with Sections 1714.1 and 1714.3 of the Civil Code for the amount of restitution so ordered, up to the limits provided in those sections subject to the court's consideration of the financial resources of the parent or guardian, and the parent or guardian shall have the burden to disprove the existence of that liability by showing by a preponderance of the evidence that the parent or guardian was either not given notice of potential liability for payment of restitution prior to the petition being sustained by an admission or adjudication, or that he or she was not present during the proceedings wherein the petition was sustained either by admission or adjudication and any hearings thereafter related to restitution.

(g) The victim in whose favor the restitution order has been made shall be notified within 60 days after restitution has been ordered of all of the following:

(1) The name and address of the minor ordered to make restitution.

(2) The amount and any terms or conditions of restitution.

(3) The offense or offenses that were sustained.

(4) The name and address of the parent or guardian of the minor.

(5) That the parent or guardian may be rebuttably presumed to be jointly and severally liable with the minor for the amount of restitution so ordered in accordance with Sections 1714.1 and 1714.3 of the Civil Code, up to the limits provided in those sections, and that the parent or guardian has the burden to disprove the existence of that liability by showing by a preponderance of the evidence that the parent or guardian was either not given notice of potential liability for payment of restitution prior to the petition being sustained by an admission or adjudication, or that he or she was not present during the proceedings wherein the petition was sustained by an admission or adjudication and any hearings thereafter related to restitution.

(6) Whether or not the notice and presence requirements of paragraph (5) were met.

(7) That the victim has a right to a certified copy of the order reflecting the information specified in this subdivision.

(h) Upon request, the victim has a right to a certified copy of the order reflecting the information specified in subdivision (g).

(i) For purposes of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), the amount of restitution to be paid to the Restitution Fund shall be set at the discretion of the court and commensurate with the seriousness of the offense; but shall not be less than one hundred dollars ($100), subject to the defendant's ability to pay, and shall not exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) if the person is found to have committed a felony; and shall not exceed one hundred dollars ($100) if the person is found to have committed a misdemeanor.

(j) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the authority of the court to grant or deny probation or provide conditions of probation.

SEC. 5. Section 731.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

731.1. (a) When a minor is committed to the Youth Authority, in lieu of imposing all or a portion of the restitution fine required by Section 730.6, the court shall order restitution to be paid to the victim in cases in which the victim has suffered economic loss as a result of the minor's criminal conduct. For purposes of this section, "victim" shall include the immediate surviving family of the actual victim in homicide cases. For purposes of this section, "restitution" means payment described in subdivision (d) of Section 729.6.

(b) A restitution order imposed pursuant to this section shall identify the losses to which it pertains and may be enforced in a manner provided for the enforcement of money judgments. The making of a restitution order pursuant to this section shall not affect the right of a victim to recovery from the Restitution Fund as provided by law, except to the extent that restitution is actually collected pursuant to the order. Restitution collected pursuant to this section shall be credited to any other judgments obtained by the victim against the minor arising out of the offense for which the minor was found to be a person described in Section 602.

(c) In a case where the minor is ordered to make restitution to the victim pursuant to this section or Section 729.1, a parent or guardian who has joint or sole legal and physical custody and control of the minor shall be rebuttably presumed to be jointly and severally liable with the minor in accordance with Sections 1714.1 and 1714.3 of the Civil Code for the amount of restitution so ordered, up to the limits provided in those sections, and the parent or guardian shall have the burden to disprove the existence of that liability by showing by a preponderance of the evidence that the parent or guardian was either not given notice of potential liability for payment of restitution prior to the petition being sustained by an admission or adjudication, or that he or she was present during the proceedings wherein the petition was sustained either by admission or adjudication and any hearings thereafter related to restitution.

(d) The probation officer shall notify the victim in whose favor the order has been made within 60 days after restitution has been ordered, of the information specified in subdivision (g) of Section 729.6.

(e) If the victim so requests, the probation officer shall furnish to the victim a certified copy of the order reflecting the information specified in subdivision (g) of Section 729.6.

(f) If the court finds that there are compelling and extraordinary reasons, the court may waive imposition of restitution. When such a waiver is granted, the court shall state on the record all reasons supporting the waiver.

SEC. 6. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 837

An act to amend Sections 11301, 11302, 11313, 11321, 11340, 11344, 11350, 11400, and 11411 of, and to add Sections 11315, 11319, 11327, 11328, and 11352 to, the Business and Professions Code, relating to real estate.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11301 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

11301. There is hereby created within the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency an Office of Real Estate Appraisers to administer and enforce this part.

SEC. 2. Section 11302 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

11302. For the purpose of applying this part, the following terms, unless otherwise expressly indicated, shall mean and have the following definitions:

(a) "Agency" means the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency.

(b) "Appraisal" means a written statement independently and impartially prepared by a qualified appraiser setting forth an opinion in a federally related transaction as to the market value of an adequately described property as of a specific date, supported by the presentation and analysis of relevant market information.

The term "appraisal" does not include an opinion given by a real estate licensee or engineer or land surveyor in the ordinary course of his or her business in connection with a function for which a license is required under Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 6700) or Chapter 15 (commencing with Section 8700) of Division 3, or Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 10130) or Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 10500) and the opinion shall not be referred to as an appraisal. This part does not apply to a probate referee acting pursuant to Sections 400 to 408, inclusive, of the Probate Code unless the appraised transaction is federally related.

(c) "Appraisal Foundation" means the Appraisal Foundation that was incorporated as an Illinois not-for-profit corporation on November 30, 1987.

(d) "Appraisal Subcommittee" means the Appraisal Subcommittee of the Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council.

(e) "Certificate" means a certificate issued by the office authorizing the person to whom it is issued to act within this state as a state certified real estate appraiser.

(f) "Certification" means the procedures and requirements a person shall comply with in order to qualify for issuance of a certificate and includes the issuance of the certificate.

(g) "Committee" means the Real Estate Appraisers' Advisory Committee.

(h) "Director" means the Director of the Office of Real Estate Appraisers.

(i) "Federal financial institutions regulatory agency" means the Federal Reserve Board, Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, Office of Thrift Supervision, Federal Home Loan Bank System, National Credit Union Administration, the Resolution Trust Corporation, and any other agency determined by the director to have jurisdiction over transactions subject to this part.

(j) "Federally related real estate appraisal activity" means the act or process of making or performing an appraisal on real estate or real property in a federally related transaction and preparing an appraisal as a result of that activity.

(k) "Federally related transaction" means any real estate-related financial transaction which a federal financial institutions regulatory agency engages in, contracts for or regulates and which requires the services of a state licensed real estate appraiser or state certified real estate appraiser regulated by this part. This term also includes any transaction identified as such by a federal financial institutions regulatory agency.

(l) "License" means a license issued by the office authorizing the person to whom it is issued to act within this state as a state licensed real estate appraiser.

(m) "Licensure" means the procedures and requirements a person shall comply with in order to qualify for issuance of a license and includes the issuance of the license.

(n) "Office" means the Office of Real Estate Appraisers.

(o) "Secretary" means the Secretary of the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency.

(p) "State certified real estate appraiser" is a person who holds a current valid certificate issued to him or her under this part to perform, make, or approve and sign an appraisal. A state certified real estate appraiser may use the abbreviation SCREA in his or her real property appraisal business.

(q) "State licensed real estate appraiser" is a person who is issued and holds a current valid license under this part to perform, make, or approve and sign an appraisal. A state licensed real estate appraiser may use the abbreviation SLREA in his or her real property appraisal business.

(r) "Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice" are the standards of professional appraisal practice established by the Appraisal Foundation.

SEC. 3. Section 11313 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

11313. The office is under the supervision and control of the secretary. The duty of enforcing and administering this part is vested in the director and he or she is responsible to the secretary therefor. The director shall adopt and enforce rules and regulations as are determined reasonably necessary to carry out the purposes of this part. Those rules and regulations shall be adopted pursuant to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 4. Section 11315 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

11315. (a) The director may issue to a state licensed real estate appraiser, or a state certified real estate appraiser, a citation that may contain an order to pay an administrative fine assessed by the office if the appraiser is in violation of this part or any regulations adopted to carry out its purposes.

(b) A citation shall be written and describe with particularity the nature of the violation, including a specific reference to the provision of law determined to have been violated.

(c) If appropriate, the citation shall contain an order of abatement fixing a reasonable time for abatement of the violation.

(d) In no event shall the administrative fine assessed by the office exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000) per incident. In assessing a fine, the office shall give due consideration to the appropriateness of the amount of the fine with respect to factors such as the gravity of the violation, the good faith of the state licensed real estate appraiser or state certified real estate appraiser, and the history of previous violations.

(e) A citation or fine assessment issued pursuant to a citation shall inform the state licensed real estate appraiser or state certified real estate appraiser that, if he or she desires a hearing to contest the finding of a violation, he or she must request a hearing by written notice to the office within 30 days of the date of issuance of the citation or assessment. Hearings shall be held pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(f) (1) Failure of a state licensed real estate appraiser or state certified real estate appraiser to pay a fine within 30 days of the date of assessment, unless the citation is being appealed, shall result in disciplinary action by the office. If a state licensed real estate appraiser or state certified real estate appraiser fails to pay a fine within 30 days, the director shall charge him or her interest and a penalty of 10 percent of the fine amount. Interest shall be charged at the pooled money investment rate.

(2) If a citation is not contested and a fine is not paid, the full amount of the assessed fine shall be added to the fee for renewal of the license or certificate. A license or certificate shall not be renewed prior to payment of the renewal fee and fine.

(g) A citation may be issued without the assessment of an administrative fine.

(h) Administrative fines collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Administration Account of the Real Estate Appraisers Regulation Fund.

SEC. 5. Section 11319 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

11319. Notwithstanding any other provision of this code, the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice constitute the minimum standard of conduct and performance for a state licensed real estate appraiser or state certified real estate appraiser in any work or service performed that is addressed by those standards. If a state licensed real estate appraiser or state certified real estate appraiser also is certified by the Board of Equalization, he or she shall follow the standards established by the Board of Equalization when fulfilling his or her responsibilities for assessment purposes.

SEC. 6. Section 11321 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

11321. (a) No person other than a state licensed real estate appraiser or state certified real estate appraiser may assume or use that title or any title, designation, or abbreviation likely to create the impression of state licensure or certification as a real estate appraiser in this state.

(b) No person other than a state licensed real estate appraiser or state certified real estate appraiser may sign an appraisal. A trainee licensed pursuant to Section 11327 may sign an appraisal if it is also signed by either a state licensed real estate appraiser or a state certified real estate appraiser.

SEC. 7. Section 11327 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

11327. The director shall adopt regulations governing the process and procedure of applying for a trainee license, which shall meet, at a minimum, the requirements of the Appraisal Foundation.

SEC. 8. Section 11328 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

11328. To substantiate documentation of appraisal experience, or to facilitate the investigation of illegal or unethical activities by a state licensed real estate appraiser or state certified real estate appraiser, the appraiser shall, upon the request of the director, submit copies of appraisals, or any work product which is addressed by the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice, and all supporting documentation and data to the office. This material shall be confidential in accordance with the confidentiality provisions of Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice.

SEC. 9. Section 11340 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

11340. The director shall adopt regulations governing the process and the procedure of applying for a real estate appraiser license and real estate appraiser certificate which shall include, but not be limited to, necessary experience or education, equivalency, and minimum requirements of the Appraisal Foundation, if any.

(a) For purposes of the educational background requirements established under this section, the director shall grant credits for any courses taken on real estate appraisal ethics or practices pursuant to Section 10153.2, or which are deemed by the director to meet standards established pursuant to this part and federal law.

(b) For the purpose of implementing and applying this section, the director shall, with the advice and assistance of the committee, prescribe by regulation "equivalent courses" and "equivalent experience." The experience of employees of an assessor's office or of the State Board of Equalization in setting forth opinions of value of real property for tax purposes shall be deemed equivalent to experience in federally related real estate appraisal activity. Notwithstanding any other law, a holder of a valid real estate broker license shall be deemed to have completed appraisal license application experience requirements upon proof that he or she has accumulated 1,000 hours of experience in the valuation of real property.

(c) The director shall adopt regulations governing the process of applying for certification as a state certified real estate appraiser which shall meet, at a minimum, the requirements and standards established by the Appraisal Foundation, the Resolution Trust Corporation, and the federal financial institutions regulatory agencies acting pursuant to Section 1112 of the Financial Institutions Reform Recovery and Enforcement Act of 1989, Public Law 101-73 (FIRREA). The director shall, by regulation, require the application for a real estate appraiser license and real estate appraiser certificate to include the applicant's social security number.

(d) In evaluating the experience of any applicant for licensure, regardless of the number of hours required of that applicant, the director shall apply the same standards to the experience of all applicants.

(e) No license or certificate shall be issued to an applicant who is less than 18 years of age.

SEC. 10. Section 11344 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

11344. (a) Notwithstanding Sections 11341 and 11342, a temporary license or a temporary certificate may be issued pending the outcome of the fingerprint check. A temporary license or temporary certificate is valid for up to 120 days. A temporary license or temporary certificate may be renewed once at the discretion of the director.

(b) The director may issue a probationary license or certificate as

(1) By term.

(2) By conditions to be observed in the exercise of the privileges granted.

SEC. 11. Section 11350 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

11350. The director shall adopt regulations governing the process and procedure of applying for reciprocity, which shall meet, at a minimum, the requirements of the Appraisal Subcommittee.

SEC. 12. Section 11352 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

11352. The director shall adopt regulations governing the process and procedure of applying for temporary practice, which shall meet, at a minimum, the requirements of the Appraisal Subcommittee.

SEC. 13. Section 11400 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

11400. (a) Initial application fees, including examination fees, shall be paid to the office at the time of application.

(b) All issuance-related fees shall be paid to the office at the time the issuance application is submitted to the office.

(c) All fees shall be paid by cashier's check, certified check, money order, or government purchase order. In addition, the office may accept personal checks or credit cards for the payment of fees. All fees shall be deemed earned by the office upon receipt and are refundable at the discretion of the director.

SEC. 14. Section 11411 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

11411. There shall be separate accounts in the Real Estate Appraisers Regulation Fund for purposes of administration and for purposes of recovery. These accounts shall be known respectively as the Administration Account and the Recovery Account. On and after January 1, 1996, five percent of the amount of any license or certificate fee collected under this part shall be credited to the Recovery Account. The Recovery Account is a continuing appropriation for carrying out this chapter.

CHAPTER 838

An act to amend Section 6254.4 of the Government Code, and to amend Section 1808.4 of the Vehicle Code, relating to public records.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6254.4 of the Government Code is amended to read:

6254.4. (a) The home address, telephone number, occupation, precinct number, and prior registration information shown on the voter registration card for the following persons is confidential if the person requests confidentiality of that information at the time of registration or reregistration and shall not be disclosed to any person except pursuant to Section 615 of the Elections Code:

(1) Any active or retired judge, magistrate, or court commissioner.

(2) Any active or retired district attorney, assistant district attorney, or deputy district attorney.

(3) Any active or retired public defender or assistant public defender or public defender investigator.

(4) Any active or retired peace officer, as defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2 of the Penal Code.

(5) Any employee of a city police department or county sheriff's office.

(6) Any active or retired city parking enforcement officer engaged in the enforcement of the Vehicle Code or municipal parking ordinances.

(7) The spouse or children of any person included in paragraphs (1) to (6), inclusive, who are living with that person.

(b) Confidentiality granted under this section shall apply only to records prepared or generated on or after the date that the voter is granted confidentiality.

(c) A person who requests confidentiality of the information specified in subdivision (a) shall register or reregister to vote by means of a confidential affidavit of registration form which shall be prescribed by the Secretary of State and which shall be attested to under penalty of perjury by the affiant that he or she is a person entitled to confidential treatment pursuant to this section.

(d) The disclosure of the home address or telephone number of a peace officer, as specified in paragraph (4) of subdivision (a), an employee of a city police department or county sheriff's office, or the spouse or children of these persons who live with these persons by any person or public entity in violation of subdivision (a) is a misdemeanor. A violation of this subdivision that results in bodily injury to the peace officer, employee of the city police department or county sheriff's office, or the spouse or children of these persons is a felony.

(e) For purposes of this section, "home address" means only street address and does not include an individual's city or post office address.

SEC. 2. Section 1808.4 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

1808.4. (a) The home address of any of the following persons, that appears in any record of the department, is confidential, if the person requests the confidentiality of that information:

(1) Attorney General.

(2) State public defender.

(3) Members of the Legislature.

(4) Judges or court commissioners.
(5) District attorneys.
(6) Public defenders.
(7) Attorneys employed by the Department of Justice, the office of the State Public Defender, or a county office of the district attorney or public defender.
(8) City attorneys and attorneys who submit verification from their public employer that they represent the city in matters that routinely place them in personal contact with persons under investigation for, charged with, or convicted of, committing criminal acts, if those attorneys are employed by city attorneys.
(9) Nonsworn police dispatchers.
(10) Child abuse investigators or social workers, working in child protective services within a social services department.
(11) Active or retired peace officers, as defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2 of the Penal Code.
(12) Employees of the Department of Corrections, the Department of the Youth Authority, or the Prison Industry Authority specified in Sections 20017.77 and 20017.79 of the Government Code.
(13) Nonsworn employees of a city police department, a county sheriff's office, the Department of the California Highway Patrol, federal, state, and local detention facilities, and local juvenile halls, camps, ranches, and homes, who submit agency verification that, in the normal course of their employment, they control or supervise inmates or are required to have a prisoner in their care or custody.
(14) County counsels assigned to child abuse cases.
(15) Investigators employed by the Department of Justice, a county district attorney, or a county public defender.
(16) Members of a city council.
(17) Members of a board of supervisors.
(18) Federal prosecutors and criminal investigators and National Park Service Rangers working in this state.
(19) Any active or retired city enforcement officer engaged in the enforcement of the Vehicle Code or municipal parking ordinances.
(20) The spouse or children of persons listed in this section, regardless of the spouse's or child's place of residence.
(b) The confidential home address of any of the persons listed in subdivision (a) shall not be disclosed to any person, except a court, a law enforcement agency, the State Board of Equalization, or any governmental agency to which, under any provision of law, information is required to be furnished from records maintained by the department.
(c) Any record of the department containing a confidential home address shall be open to public inspection, as provided in Section 1808, if the address is completely obliterated or otherwise removed from the record. The home address shall be withheld from public inspection for three years following termination of office or employment except with respect to retired peace officers, whose home addresses shall be withheld from public inspection permanently upon request of confidentiality at the time the information would otherwise be opened. The department shall inform any person who requests a confidential home address what agency the individual whose address was requested is employed by or the court at which the judge or court commissioner presides.

(d) A violation of subdivision (a) by the disclosure of the confidential home address of a peace officer, as specified in paragraph (11) of subdivision (a), a nonsworn employee of the city police department or county sheriff's office, or the spouse or children of these persons that results in bodily injury to the peace officer, employee of the city police department or county sheriff's office, or the spouse or children of these persons is a felony.

SEC. 3. Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative if (1) this bill and SB 1518 are both chaptered, (2) SB 1518 repeals and adds Section 6254.4 of the Government Code, and (3) this bill is chaptered last.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 839

An act to amend Sections 17039 and 23036 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to business development, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17039 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17039. (a) Notwithstanding any provision in this part to the contrary, for the purposes of computing tax credits, the term "net tax" means the tax imposed under either Section 17041 or 17048 plus the tax imposed under Section 17504 (relating to lump-sum distributions) less the credits allowed by Section 17054 (relating to personal exemption credits) and any amount imposed under paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) and paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) of Section 17560. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, the "net tax" shall not be less than the tax imposed under Section 17504 (relating to the separate tax on lump-sum distributions), if any. Credits shall be allowed against "net tax" in the following order:

(1) Credits that do not contain carryover or refundable provisions, except those described in paragraphs (4) and (5).

(2) Credits that contain carryover provisions but do not contain refundable provisions.

(3) Credits that contain both carryover and refundable provisions.

(4) The minimum tax credit allowed by Section 17063 (relating to the alternative minimum tax).

(5) Credits for taxes paid to other states allowed by Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 18001).

(6) Credits that contain refundable provisions but do not contain carryover provisions.

The order within each paragraph shall be determined by the Franchise Tax Board.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 17053.5 (relating to the renter's credit), 17061 (relating to refunds pursuant to the Unemployment Insurance Code), and 19002 (relating to tax withholding), the credits provided in those sections shall be allowed in the order provided in paragraph (6) of subdivision (a).

(c) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this part, no tax credit shall reduce the tax imposed under Section 17041 or 17048 plus the tax imposed under Section 17504 (relating to the separate tax on lump-sum distributions) below the tentative minimum tax, as defined by Section 17062, except the following credits, but only after allowance of the credit allowed by Section 17063—

(A) The credit allowed by former Section 17052.4 (relating to solar energy).

(B) The credit allowed by former Section 17052.5 (relating to solar energy).

(C) The credit allowed by Section 17052.5 (relating to solar energy).

(D) The credit allowed by Section 17052.12 (relating to research expenses).

(E) The credit allowed by Section 17052.13 (relating to sales and use tax credit).

(F) The credit allowed by Section 17052.15 (relating to Los Angeles Revitalization Zone sales tax credit).

(G) The credit allowed by Section 17053.5 (relating to the renter's credit).

(H) The credit allowed by Section 17053.8 (relating to enterprise zone hiring credit).

(I) The credit allowed by Section 17053.10 (relating to Los Angeles Revitalization Zone hiring credit).

(J) The credit allowed by Section 17053.11 (relating to program area hiring credit).

(K) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1994, the credit allowed by Section 17053.17 (relating to Los Angeles Revitalization Zone hiring credit).

(L) The credit allowed by Section 17053.49 (relating to qualified property).

(M) The credit allowed by Section 17057 (relating to clinical testing expenses).

(N) The credit allowed by Section 17058 (relating to low-income housing).

(O) The credit allowed by Section 17061 (relating to refunds pursuant to the Unemployment Insurance Code).

(P) Credits for taxes paid to other states allowed by Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 18001).

(Q) The credit allowed by Section 19002 (relating to tax withholding).

(2) Any credit which is partially or totally denied under paragraph (1) shall be allowed to be carried over and applied to the net tax in succeeding taxable years, if the provisions relating to that credit include a provision to allow a carryover when that credit exceeds the net tax.

(d) Unless otherwise provided, any remaining carryover of a credit allowed by a section that has been repealed or made inoperative shall continue to be allowed to be carried over under the provisions of that section as it read immediately prior to being repealed or becoming inoperative.

(e) (1) Unless otherwise provided, if two or more taxpayers (other than husband and wife) share in costs that would be eligible for a tax credit allowed under this part, each taxpayer shall be eligible to receive the tax credit in proportion to his or her respective share of the costs paid or incurred.

(2) In the case of a partnership, the credit may be divided among the partners pursuant to a written partnership agreement in accordance with Section 704 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to partner's distributive share.

(3) In the case of a husband and wife who file separate returns, the credit may be taken by either or equally divided between them.

SEC. 2. Section 23036 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23036. (a) (1) The term "tax" includes any of the following:

(A) The tax imposed under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23101).

(B) The tax imposed under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 23501).

(C) The tax on unrelated business taxable income, imposed under Section 23731.

(D) The tax on S corporations imposed under Section 23802.

(2) The term "tax" does not include any amount imposed under paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) of Section 24667 or paragraph (2)

of subdivision (f) of Section 24667.

(b) For purposes of Article 5 (commencing with Section 18661) of Chapter 2, Article 3 (commencing with Section 19031) of Chapter 4, Article 6 (commencing with Section 19101) of Chapter 4, and Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 19501) of Part 10.2, and for purposes of Sections 18601, 19001, and 19005, the term "tax" shall also include all of the following:

(1) The tax on limited partnerships, imposed under Section 23081.

(2) The alternative minimum tax imposed under Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 23400).

(3) The tax on built-in gains of S corporations, imposed under Section 23809.

(4) The tax on excess passive investment income of S corporations, imposed under Section 23811.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this part, credits shall be allowed against the "tax" in the following order:

(1) Credits which do not contain carryover provisions.

(2) Credits which, when the credit exceeds the "tax," allow the excess to be carried over to offset the "tax" in succeeding taxable years. The order of credits within this paragraph shall be determined by the Franchise Tax Board.

(3) The minimum tax credit allowed by Section 23453.

(4) Credits for taxes withheld under Section 18662.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this part, each of the following shall be applicable:

(1) No credit shall reduce the "tax" below the tentative minimum tax (as defined by paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 23455), except the following credits, but only after allowance of the credit allowed by Section 23453—

(A) The credit allowed by former Section 23601 (relating to solar energy).

(B) The credit allowed by former Section 23601.4 (relating to solar energy).

(C) The credit allowed by Section 23601.5 (relating to solar energy).

(D) The credit allowed by Section 23609 (relating to research expenditures).

(E) The credit allowed by Section 23609.5 (relating to clinical testing expenses).

(F) The credit allowed by Section 23610.5 (relating to low-income housing).

(G) The credit allowed by Section 23612 (relating to sales and use tax credit).

(H) The credit allowed by Section 23612.6 (relating to Los Angeles Revitalization Zone sales tax credit).

(I) The credit allowed by Section 23622 (relating to enterprise zone hiring credit).

(J) The credit allowed by Section 23623 (relating to program area hiring credit).

(K) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1994, the credit allowed by Section 23623.5 (relating to Los Angeles Revitalization Zone hiring credit).

(L) The credit allowed by Section 23625 (relating to Los Angeles Revitalization Zone hiring credit).

(M) The credit allowed by Section 23649 (relating to qualified property).

(N) Credits for taxes withheld under Section 18662.

(2) No credit against the tax shall reduce the minimum franchise tax imposed under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23101).

(e) Any credit which is partially or totally denied under subdivision (d) shall be allowed to be carried over to reduce the "tax" in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary, if the provisions relating to that credit include a provision to allow a carryover of the unused portion of that credit.

(f) Unless otherwise provided, any remaining carryover from a credit that has been repealed or made inoperative shall continue to be allowed to be carried over under the provisions of that section as it read immediately prior to being repealed or becoming inoperative.

(g) Unless otherwise provided, if two or more taxpayers share in costs that would be eligible for a tax credit allowed under this part, each taxpayer shall be eligible to receive the tax credit in proportion to its respective share of the costs paid or incurred.

SEC. 2.3. Section 23036 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23036. (a) (1) The term "tax" includes any of the following:

(A) The tax imposed under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23101).

(B) The tax imposed under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 23501).

(C) The tax on unrelated business taxable income, imposed under Section 23731.

(D) The tax on S corporations imposed under Sections 23802 and 23812.

(2) The term "tax" does not include any amount imposed under paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) of Section 24667 or paragraph (2) of subdivision (f) of Section 24667.

(b) For purposes of Article 5 (commencing with Section 18661) of Chapter 2, Article 3 (commencing with Section 19031) of Chapter 4, Article 6 (commencing with Section 19101) of Chapter 4, and Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 19501) of Part 10.2, and for purposes of Sections 18601, 19001, and 19005, the term "tax" shall also include all of the following:

(1) The tax on limited partnerships, imposed under Section 23081.

(2) The alternative minimum tax imposed under Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 23400).

(3) The tax on built-in gains of S corporations, imposed under Section 23809.

(4) The tax on excess passive investment income of S corporations, imposed under Section 23811.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this part, credits shall be allowed against the "tax" in the following order:

(1) Credits which do not contain carryover provisions.

(2) Credits which, when the credit exceeds the "tax," allow the excess to be carried over to offset the "tax" in succeeding taxable years. The order of credits within this paragraph shall be determined by the Franchise Tax Board.

(3) The minimum tax credit allowed by Section 23453.

(4) Credits for taxes withheld under Section 18662.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this part, each of the following shall be applicable:

(1) No credit shall reduce the "tax" below the tentative minimum tax (as defined by paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 23455), except the following credits, but only after allowance of the credit allowed by Section 23453—

(A) The credit allowed by former Section 23601 (relating to solar energy).

(B) The credit allowed by former Section 23601.4 (relating to solar energy).

(C) The credit allowed by Section 23601.5 (relating to solar energy).

(D) The credit allowed by Section 23609 (relating to research expenditures).

(E) The credit allowed by Section 23609.5 (relating to clinical testing expenses).

(F) The credit allowed by Section 23610.5 (relating to low-income housing).

(G) The credit allowed by Section 23612 (relating to sales and use tax credit).

(H) The credit allowed by Section 23612.6 (relating to Los Angeles Revitalization Zone sales tax credit).

(I) The credit allowed by Section 23622 (relating to enterprise zone hiring credit).

(J) The credit allowed by Section 23623 (relating to program area hiring credit).

(K) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1994, the credit allowed by Section 23623.5 (relating to Los Angeles Revitalization Zone hiring credit).

(L) The credit allowed by Section 23625 (relating to Los Angeles Revitalization Zone hiring credit).

(M) The credit allowed by Section 23649 (relating to qualified property).

(N) Credits for taxes withheld under Section 18662.

(2) No credit against the tax shall reduce the minimum franchise tax imposed under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23101).

(e) Any credit which is partially or totally denied under subdivision (d) shall be allowed to be carried over to reduce the "tax" in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary, if the provisions relating to that credit include a provision to allow a carryover of the unused portion of that credit.

(f) Unless otherwise provided, any remaining carryover from a credit that has been repealed or made inoperative shall continue to be allowed to be carried over under the provisions of that section as it read immediately prior to being repealed or becoming inoperative.

(g) Unless otherwise provided, if two or more taxpayers share in costs that would be eligible for a tax credit allowed under this part, each taxpayer shall be eligible to receive the tax credit in proportion to its respective share of the costs paid or incurred.

SEC. 2.5. Section 23036 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23036. (a) (1) The term "tax" includes any of the following:

(A) The tax imposed under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23101).

SEC. 3. (a) Section 2.3 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 23036 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by both this bill and AB 73. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 23036 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, (3) SB 469 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 73, in which case Section 23036 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by AB 73, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 2.3 of this bill shall become operative, and Sections 2, 2.5, and 2.7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(b) Section 2.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 23036 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by both this bill and SB 469. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 23036 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, (3) AB 73 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after SB 469, in which case Section 23036 of the Revenue and Taxation Code as amended by SB 469 shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 2.5 of this bill shall become operative, and Sections 2, 2.3, and 2.7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(c) Section 2.7 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 23036 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by this bill, AB 73, and SB 469. It shall only become operative if (1) all three bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1995, (2) all three bills amend Section 23036 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 73 and SB 469, in which case Section 23036 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by either AB 73 or SB 469, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 2.7 of this bill shall become operative, and Sections 2, 2.3, and 2.5 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 4. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect.

An act to amend Sections 10020, 33511, 33595, 35275, 39002, 41375, 41380, 42127.8, 44704, 44785, 45355, 49411, 51262, 51778, 51791, 52033, 52204, 54021, 56462, and 58557 of, and to repeal Sections 22326, 33124, 33132, 33519, 44564, 44670.8, 47615, 48342, 48342.5, 48803, 51910, 51912, 52112, 52347, 52385, and 60249 of, the Education Code, relating to education.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature finds and declares the following:

(1) The annotated version of the Education Code is currently 11 volumes. According to the California Law Revision Commission, the Education Code is about one-twelfth the total body of California statutory law. It contains numerous reporting provisions that may be in conflict, are unnecessary, or may be of marginal use.

(2) Efforts spent on reporting contribute to the administrative costs and detract from the educational mission of state and local agencies.

(3) According to the California Law Revision Commission, the last complete reorganization of the Education Code was done in 1976. In 1986, legislation was enacted that directed the Legislative Analyst to contract with a private individual or organization to conduct a study to identify those sections in the Education Code that were inconsistent, ambiguous, obsolete, or otherwise inappropriate. This study was completed in August 1986, and based on its recommendations, subsequent legislation was carried to remove the obsolete provisions identified in the study.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature, in light of budget restraints facing state agencies, county offices of education, and school districts, to eliminate all reporting provisions from the Education Code that are not vital to maintaining the fiscal health, or the oversight of fiscal health, of agencies delivering educational services, or are not vital to the primary mission of those agencies.

SEC. 2. Section 10020 of the Education Code is amended to read:

10020. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as preventing school districts from hiring, employing, or otherwise using teacher aides, instructional aides, or teacher-assistants under the terms of existing law and financial support formulas. The commission may study the various roles of such paraprofessionals.

Public and private colleges, universities, and community colleges may develop cooperative programs with school districts or school governing boards to place undergraduate and graduate students in public and private classrooms as teacher aides or assistants. Such assignment may be, at the discretion of the institution, the basis for securing college credit.

A certificate to serve as a temporary teacher-assistant shall be issued, by the county superintendent of schools of the county in which service is to be rendered, to the holder of a recommendation from an accredited college, university, or community college. The certificate shall authorize the holder to serve as a teacher-assistant. No such certificate shall be granted for a period exceeding two years.

The teacher-assistant certificate shall not be used in lieu of a teaching credential. The holder of such a certificate shall work under the immediate supervision of a credentialed classroom teacher to whom the teacher-assistant is assigned, who shall be present in the classroom while the teacher-assistant is performing his or her classroom duties or who shall be available at all times to provide guidance and direction to the teacher-assistant.

SEC. 3. Section 22326 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 33124 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 33132 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 33511 of the Education Code is amended to read:

33511. The commission may do all of the following:

(a) Advise the state educational agency on the preparation of, and policy matters arising in the administration of, the state plan, including the development of criteria for the distribution of funds and the approval of applications for assistance under Title IV.

(b) Assist the State Board of Education and the Department of Education in the planning, development, and improvement of educational programs.

(c) Evaluate all programs and projects assisted under Title IV.

SEC. 7. Section 33519 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 8. Section 33595 of the Education Code is amended to read:

33595. (a) The commission shall study and provide assistance and advice to the State Board of Education, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the Legislature, and the Governor in new or continuing areas of research, program development, and evaluation in special education.

(b) Commission requests shall be transmitted by letter from the commission chairperson to the president of the State Board of Education. Each communication shall be placed on the agenda of the next forthcoming state board meeting in accordance with the announced annual state board agenda cutoff dates. Following the state board meeting, the commission shall be notified by the state board as to what action has been taken on each request. Commission requests shall also be transmitted by letter from the commission chairperson to the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the Governor, and to appropriate Members of the Legislature.

SEC. 9. Section 35275 of the Education Code is amended to read:

35275. The governing board of any school district shall meet with appropriate local government recreation and park authorities to review all possible methods of coordinating planning, design, and construction of new school facilities and schoolsites or major additions to existing school facilities and recreation and park facilities in the community.

SEC. 10. Section 39002 of the Education Code is amended to read:

39002. The governing board of a school district, prior to acquiring any site on which it proposes to construct any school building as defined in Section 39141 shall have the site, or sites, under consideration investigated by competent personnel to ensure that the final site selection is determined by an evaluation of all factors affecting the public interest and is not limited to selection on the basis of raw land cost only. If the prospective schoolsite is located within the boundaries of any special studies zone or within an area designated as geologically hazardous in the safety element of the local general plan as provided in subdivision (g) of Section 65302 of the Government Code, the investigation shall include any geological and soil engineering studies by competent personnel needed to provide an assessment of the nature of the site and potential for earthquake or other geologic hazard damage.

The geological and soil engineering studies of the site shall be of such a nature as will preclude siting of a school in any location where the geological and site characteristics are such that the construction effort required to make the school building safe for occupancy is economically unfeasible. No studies are required to be made if the site or sites under consideration have been the subject of adequate prior studies. The evaluation shall also include location of the site with respect to population, transportation, water supply, waste disposal facilities, utilities, traffic hazards, surface drainage conditions, and other factors affecting the operating costs, as well as the initial costs, of the total project.

For the purposes of this article, a special studies zone is an area which is identified as a special studies zone on any map, or maps, compiled by the State Geologist pursuant to Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 2621) of Division 2 of the Public Resources Code.

SEC. 11. Section 41375 of the Education Code is amended to read:

41375. It is the intent and purpose of the Legislature to encourage, by every means possible, the reduction of class sizes and the ratio of pupils to teachers in all grade levels in the public schools, and to urge every effort to this end to be undertaken by the local school administrative authorities.

SEC. 12. Section 41380 of the Education Code is amended to read:

41380. The Covina Valley Unified School District may conduct an experimental kindergarten program pursuant to this section.

The provisions of Section 45342, of subdivision (a) of Section 45347, and of Sections 41378 are not applicable to the experimental kindergarten program which may be conducted by the Covina Valley Unified School District in three schools which has been approved by the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

SEC. 13. Section 42127.8 of the Education Code is amended to read:

42127.8. (a) The governing board provided for in subdivision (b) shall establish a unit to be known as the County Office Fiscal Crisis and Management Assistance Team. The team shall consist of persons having extensive experience in school district budgeting, accounting, data processing, risk management, food services, pupil transportation, purchasing and warehousing, facilities maintenance and operation, personnel administration, organization, and staffing. The Superintendent of Public Instruction may appoint one employee of the State Department of Education to serve on the unit. The unit shall be operated under the immediate direction of an appropriate county office of education selected jointly, in response to an application process, by the superintendent and the Secretary of Child Development and Education.

(b) The unit established under subdivision (a) shall be selected and governed by an eleven-member governing board consisting of one representative chosen by the California Association of County Superintendents of Schools from each of the 10 county service regions designated by the association, and one representative from the state department chosen by the superintendent.

(c) The superintendent may request the unit to provide the assistance described in subdivision (b) of Section 1624, Section 1630, subdivision (b) of Section 42127.3, subdivision (c) of Section 42127.6, and Section 42127.9, and to review the fiscal and administrative condition of any county office of education.

(d) In addition to the functions described in subdivision (c), the unit shall provide management assistance at the request of any school district or county office of education. Each district or county office of education receiving that assistance shall be required to pay the onsite personnel costs and travel costs incurred by the unit for that purpose, pursuant to rates determined by the governing board established under subdivision (b). The governing board annually shall distribute rate information to each school district and county office of education.

(e) The governing board shall reserve not less than 25 percent, nor more than 50 percent, of its revenues each year for expenditure for the costs of contracts and professional services as management assistance to school districts or county offices of education in which the board determines a fiscal emergency to exist.

(f) The governing board established under subdivision (b) may levy an annual assessment against each county office of education that elects to participate under this section in an amount not to exceed twenty cents ($0.20) per unit of total average daily attendance for all school districts within the county. The revenues collected pursuant to that assessment shall be applied to the expenses of the unit.

(g) The governing board established under subdivision (b) may pay to the state department, from any available funds, a reasonable amount to reimburse the state department for actual administrative expenses incurred in the review of the budgets and fiscal conditions of school districts and county offices of education.

(h) When employed as a fiscal adviser by the state department pursuant to Section 1630, employees of the unit established pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be considered employees of the state department for purposes of errors and omissions liability insurance.

SEC. 14. Section 44564 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 15. Section 44670.8 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 16. Section 44704 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44704. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature that the Budget Act for each fiscal year appropriate funds for purposes of this chapter in an amount equal to 5 percent of the number of permanent full-time teachers, exclusive of teachers in adult education, child care and development, and regional occupational centers and programs, multiplied by two thousand dollars ($2,000).

(b) The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall compute each fiscal year for each school district, an entitlement equal to 5 percent of the number of permanent, full-time teachers, exclusive of teachers in adult education, child care and development, and regional occupational centers and programs, multiplied by two thousand dollars ($2,000). The superintendent shall apportion to each school district from funds appropriated for the purposes of this chapter in that fiscal year, the amount certified by the governing board pursuant to Section 44703, but not in excess of the district's entitlement.

In the event that, in any fiscal year, sufficient funds are not appropriated to fully fund each school district requesting apportionments for purposes of this chapter, the superintendent shall reduce each district's apportionment on a pro rata basis.

SEC. 17. Section 44785 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44785. The Legislature recognizes that evaluation of the project, which may be accomplished by such methods as teacher attitude surveys and pretesting and posttesting of the international skills and knowledge of the students reached by the program, can serve as a useful tool for self-assessment and improvement of the resource centers.

Each resource center shall conduct an annual evaluation to measure the international skills of students reached by the site program, the attitudes of project site participants toward the effectiveness of the project, the rate of participation by teachers, the application by teachers of training materials and techniques to instructional purposes, the dissemination of training materials and techniques to other teachers, and other information the site directors deem appropriate.

SEC. 18. Section 45355 of the Education Code is amended to read:

45355. The Department of Finance shall determine the amount of the examination fee that would be sufficient to generate the revenues necessary to maintain and administer the examination described in Section 45350.

SEC. 19. Section 47615 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 20. Section 48342 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 21. Section 48342.5 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 23. Section 49411 of the Education Code is amended to read:

49411. (a) The State Department of Education, in cooperation with the Division of Occupational Safety and Health within the Department of Industrial Relations, shall formulate a listing of chemical compounds used in school programs that includes the potential hazards and estimated shelf life of each compound.

(b) The Superintendent of Public Instruction, in cooperation with the Division of Occupational Safety and Health within the Department of Industrial Relations, shall develop guidelines for school districts for the regular removal and disposal of all chemicals whose estimated shelf life has elapsed.

(c) The county superintendent of schools may implement a system for disposing of chemicals from schools within the county or may permit school districts to arrange for the disposal of the chemicals.

SEC. 24. Section 51262 of the Education Code is amended to read:

51262. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the use of anabolic steroids to expedite the physical development and to enhance the performance level of secondary school athletes presents a serious health hazard to these student athletes. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this measure that, beginning with the 1987–88 school year, schools be encouraged to include in instruction in grades 7 to 12, inclusive, in science, health, drug abuse, or physical education programs a lesson on the effects of the use of anabolic steroids.

SEC. 25. Section 51778 of the Education Code is amended to read:

51778. (a) The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall establish a Work Experience Education Consortia Steering Committee comprised of certificated representatives of consortia of school districts established under this article. The steering committee, in consultation with the superintendent, utilizing applicable program standards and regulations regarding work experience education programs shall develop all of the following materials:

(1) Program quality indicators.

(2) Training materials.

(3) Guide books.

(4) Program review reports.

(b) The Work Experience Education Consortia Steering Committee shall contract with appropriate personnel to conduct in-service training programs for work experience education teachers and coordinators who will be conducting schoolsite reviews of work experience education programs. The training shall include, but is not necessarily limited to, all of the following:

(1) A program quality review instrument.

(2) The compliance review instrument developed by the department.

(3) Reporting and review materials.

(4) Program review methodologies.

(5) The preparation of summary reports.

Only persons who have been certified by the steering committee as having completed the training program shall be eligible to conduct work experience education program quality reviews.

(c) Utilizing the compliance review instrument described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), the advisory committee shall recommend a followup review for schools that have not met a prescribed number of the work experience education compliance criteria. The followup review required by this subdivision shall be conducted within one year of the initial review.

SEC. 26. Section 51791 of the Education Code is amended to read:

51791. The governing board of each district is encouraged to develop aims and purposes of aviation education designed to include: (a) integration of appropriate aviation concepts throughout the elementary school with units of instruction in science, social studies, and arithmetic; (b) aviation experiences in junior high schools in the areas of social studies, science, and arithmetic; and (c) elective courses in senior high schools and four-year high schools including air transportation, vocational training, economic, social and political implications of aviation, the science of flight, history of aviation, and flight experience where appropriate airports, planes, and pilots are available, and the need for this instruction is indicated.

SEC. 27. Section 51910 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 28. Section 51912 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 29. Section 52033 of the Education Code is amended to read:

52033. Any district governing board, on behalf of a schoolsite council, may request the State Board of Education to grant a waiver of any provision of this code if such waiver is necessary or beneficial to the successful implementation of a school improvement plan. Waivers may not be granted of any of the following: Sections 41000 to 41360, inclusive; Sections 41420 to 41423, inclusive; Sections 41600 to 41854, inclusive; Sections 41920 to 42850, inclusive; Article 3 (commencing with Section 44930) of Chapter 4 of Part 25, Part 26 (commencing with Section 46000) and Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 48900) and Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 49060) of Part 27; or Title 5 of the California Administrative Code, except Title 5 regulations adopted pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 44930) of Chapter 4 of Part 25. The State Board of Education may grant any such request when the facts indicate the failure to do so would hinder the implementation or maintenance of a successful school improvement program. Such action shall be taken not later than the second regular meeting of the State Board of Education following receipt of a waiver request or the request for a waiver shall be deemed approved. In the event the request for a waiver is denied, the reasons for the denial shall be communicated without delay to the applicant district and school. The district governing board may request a single waiver of a provision of this code on behalf of more than one school in the district. Such waiver shall apply only to the applicant school or schools.

SEC. 30. Section 52112 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 31. Section 52204 of the Education Code is amended to read:

52204. Any school district governing board that provided a mentally gifted minor program in the 1978–79 school year may elect to provide a program for gifted and talented pupils pursuant to this chapter, subject to Section 52211.

SEC. 32. Section 52347 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 34. Section 54021 of the Education Code is amended to read:

54021. The Legislature finds that in order to allow districts sufficient time to plan for programs authorized pursuant to this chapter, notification of entitlements shall be made to districts several months prior to actual disbursement of funds. The Legislature, therefore, shall announce its intent to appropriate funds for this chapter at least one year in advance of the normal budgetary appropriation process.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall calculate district entitlements for any fiscal year by June 15 of the prior fiscal year utilizing the latest information available at that time and assuming the appropriation announced by the Legislature will be available for the fiscal year in question. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall notify districts of their expected entitlements no later than July 1 of that fiscal year.

This section shall become operative for calculation of district entitlements for the 1979–80 fiscal year, and shall be utilized in calculation of entitlements for every fiscal year thereafter.

SEC. 35. Section 56462 of the Education Code is amended to read:

56462. The transition services shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(a) In-service training programs, resource materials, and handbooks that identify the following:

(1) The definition of "transition," including the major components of an effective school-based transition program.

(2) Relevant laws and regulations.

(3) The roles of other agencies in the transition process including, but not limited to, the scope of their services, eligibility criteria, and funding.

(4) The components of effective transition planning.

(5) The role of families in the individualized transition process.

(6) Resources and model programs currently available in this state.

(b) Development of the role and responsibilities of special education in the transition process, including the following:

(1) The provision of work skills training, including those skills that are necessary in order to exhibit competence on the job.

(2) The provision of multiple employment options and facilitating job or career choice by providing a variety of vocational experiences.

(3) The collection and analysis of data on what happens to pupils once they leave the school system and enter the adult world.

(4) The coordination of the transition planning process, including development of necessary interagency agreements and procedures at both state and local levels.

(5) The provision of instructional learning strategies that will assist pupils who find learning difficult in acquiring skills that will enable them to obtain diplomas, promote a positive attitude toward secondary and postsecondary education and training, and make a successful transition to postsecondary life.

(c) The development and implementation of systematic and longitudinal vocational education curriculum including the following:

(1) Instructional strategies that will prepare pupils with severe disabilities to make a successful transition to supported employment and the community.

(2) The introduction of vocational and career education curriculum in the elementary grades for those pupils who can benefit from it.

(d) Materials, resource manuals, and in-service training programs to support the active participation of families in the planning and implementation of transition-related goals and activities.

(e) The development of resources and in-service training that will support the implementation of individualized transition planning for all pupils with exceptional needs.

(f) The development of a network of model demonstration sites that illustrate a wide variety of transition models and implementation strategies.

(g) Coordination with other specialized programs that serve students who face barriers to successful transition.

(h) A research, evaluation, and dissemination program that will support the major programmatic aspects of transition services. Through a variety of competitive grants, bids, contracts, and other awards specific content areas will be developed in cooperation with a variety of field-based agencies, including local education agencies, special education local plan areas, county offices, institutions of higher education, and in-service training agencies.

SEC. 36. Section 58557 of the Education Code is amended to read:

58557. (a) A certified educational clinic shall not charge any fee for services provided under this chapter for which the clinic receives reimbursement to any pupil or to the parent, guardian, or custodian of any pupil.

(b) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit a certified educational clinic from accepting donations from private entities, including foundations, corporations, and individuals, to supplement any other funds received by the educational clinic.

SEC. 37. Section 60249 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 38. Any section of any act enacted by the Legislature during the 1994 calendar year that takes effect on or before January 1, 1995, and that amends, amends and renumbers, adds, repeals and adds, or repeals a section amended or repealed by this act, shall prevail over this act, whether that act is enacted prior to, or subsequent to, this act.

CHAPTER 841

An act to amend Sections 548, 549, and 801.5 of, and to amend, repeal, and add Section 550 of, the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 548 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

548. (a) Every person who willfully injures, destroys, secretes, abandons, or disposes of any property which at the time is insured against loss or damage by theft, or embezzlement, or any casualty with intent to defraud or prejudice the insurer, whether the property is the property or in the possession of such person or any other person, is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or five years and by a fine not exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000).

For purposes of this section, "casualty" does not include fire.

(b) Any person who violates subdivision (a) and who has a prior conviction of the offense set forth in that subdivision, in Section 550 of this code, or in former Section 556 or former Section 1871.1 of the Insurance Code, shall receive a two-year enhancement for each prior conviction in addition to the sentence provided under subdivision (a). The existence of any fact which would subject a person to a penalty enhancement shall be alleged in the information or indictment and either admitted by the defendant in open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury.

SEC. 2. Section 549 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

549. Any firm, corporation, partnership, or association, or any person acting in his or her individual capacity, or in his or her capacity as a public or private employee, who solicits, accepts, or refers any business to or from any individual or entity with the knowledge that, or with reckless disregard for whether, the individual or entity for or from whom the solicitation or referral is made, or the individual or entity who is solicited or referred, intends to violate Section 550 of this code or Section 1871.4 of the Insurance Code is guilty of a crime, punishable upon a first conviction by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, two years, or three years, or by a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or by both that fine and imprisonment. A second or subsequent conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison.

SEC. 3. Section 550 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

550. (a) It is unlawful to do any of the following:

(1) Knowingly present or cause to be presented any false or fraudulent claim for the payment of a loss, including payment of a loss under a contract of insurance.

(2) Knowingly present multiple claims for the same loss or injury, including presentation of multiple claims to more than one insurer, with an intent to defraud.

(3) Knowingly cause or participate in a vehicular collision, or any other vehicular accident, for the purpose of presenting any false or fraudulent claim.

(4) Knowingly present a false or fraudulent claim for the payments of a loss for theft, destruction, damage, or conversion of a motor vehicle, a motor vehicle part, or contents of a motor vehicle.

(5) Knowingly prepare, make, or subscribe any writing, with the intent to present or use it, or to allow it to be presented in support of any false or fraudulent claim.

(6) Knowingly assist, abet, solicit, or conspire with any person described as follows:

(A) Any person who knowingly presents any false or fraudulent claim for the payment of a loss, including payment of a loss under a contract of insurance.

(B) Any person who knowingly presents multiple claims for the same loss or injury, including presentation of multiple claims to more than one insurer, with an intent to defraud.

(C) Any person who knowingly causes or participates in a vehicular collision, or any other vehicular accident, for the purpose of presenting any false or fraudulent claim.

(D) Any person who knowingly prepares, makes, or subscribes any writing, with the intent to present or use it, or to allow it to be presented in support on any claim.

(7) Knowingly make or cause to be made any false or fraudulent claim for payment of a health care benefit.

(8) Knowingly submit a claim for a health care benefit which was not used by, or on behalf of, the claimant.

(9) Knowingly present multiple claims for payment of the same health care benefit with an intent to defraud.

(10) Knowingly present for payment any undercharges for health care benefits on behalf of a specific claimant unless any known overcharges for health care benefits for that claimant are presented for reconciliation at that same time.

(11) For purposes of paragraphs (7) to (10), inclusive, a claim or a claim for payment of a health care benefit also means a claim or claim for payment submitted by or on the behalf of a provider of any workers' compensation health benefits under the Labor Code.

(b) (1) Every person who violates paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), or (6) of subdivision (a) shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or five years, or by a fine not exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine, unless the value of the fraud is fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) or more. Whenever the value of the fraud is fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) or more, the fine may be double the amount of the value of the fraud.

(2) Every person who violates paragraph (7), (8), (9), or (10) of subdivision (a) is guilty of a public offense.

(A) Where the claim or amount at issue exceeds four hundred dollars ($400), the offense is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or five years, by a fine not exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine, unless the value of the fraud exceeds fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), in which event the fine may not exceed the value of the fraud, or by imprisonment in a county jail not to exceed one year, by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine.

(B) Where the claim or amount at issue is four hundred dollars ($400) or less, the offense is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not to exceed six months, by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine unless the aggregate amount of the claims or amount at issue exceeds four hundred dollars ($400) in any 12 consecutive month period, in which case the claims or amounts may be charged as in subparagraph (A).

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, probation shall not be granted to, nor shall the execution or imposition of a sentence be suspended for, any adult person convicted of felony violations of this section who previously has been convicted of felony violations of this section as an adult under charges separately brought and tried two or more times. The existence of any fact which would make a person ineligible for probation under this subdivision shall be alleged in the information or indictment, and either admitted by the defendant in an open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury.

Except where the existence of the fact was not admitted or found to be true or the court finds that a prior felony conviction was invalid, the court shall not strike or dismiss any prior felony convictions alleged in the information or indictment.

This subdivision shall not prohibit the adjournment of criminal proceedings pursuant to Division 3 (commencing with Section 3000) of, or Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of, the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(d) Any person who violates subdivision (a) and who has a prior felony conviction of the offense set forth in that subdivision or in Section 548 shall receive a two-year enhancement for each prior felony conviction in addition to the sentence provided in subdivision (b). The existence of any fact which would subject a person to a penalty enhancement shall be alleged in the information or indictment and either admitted by the defendant in open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury.

(e) This section shall not be construed to preclude the applicability of any other provision of criminal law that applies or may apply to any transaction.

(f) Any person who violates any provision of subdivision (a) shall be liable, in addition to any other penalty prescribed by law, for a civil penalty of up to five thousand dollars ($5,000) per claim or act, plus an assessment of not more than three times the amount of each claim for compensation submitted in violation of this section. The penalties provided for in this subdivision may be assessed and recovered in a civil action brought in the name of the people of the State of California by any district attorney, city attorney, or the Attorney General. Any civil penalty recovered shall be allocated as follows:

(1) If the action was brought by the Attorney General, 50 percent of the penalty collected shall be paid to the General Fund, and 50 percent of the penalty collected shall be paid to the Department of Insurance Fraud Account in the Insurance Fund.

(2) If the action was brought by a district attorney, 25 percent of the penalty collected shall be paid to the treasurer of the county in which the judgment was entered, 25 percent of the penalty collected shall be paid to the General Fund, and 50 percent of the penalty collected shall be paid to the Department of Insurance Fraud Account in the Insurance Fund.

(3) If the action was brought by a city attorney, 25 percent of the penalty collected shall be paid to the treasurer of the city in which the judgment was entered, 25 percent of the penalty collected shall be paid to the General Fund, and 50 percent of the penalty collected shall be paid to the Department of Insurance Fraud Account in the Insurance Fund.

(4) Moneys collected by the Department of Insurance pursuant to this subdivision shall be deposited in the Workers' Compensation Fraud Account in the Insurance Fund and shall be used solely for the investigation and prosecution of insurance fraud, as appropriated by the Legislature.

(g) This section shall remain operative only until January 1, 1999, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 3.5. Section 550 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

550. (a) It is unlawful to do any of the following:

(1) Knowingly present or cause to be presented any false or fraudulent claim for the payment of a loss, including payment of a loss under a contract of insurance.

(2) Knowingly present multiple claims for the same loss or injury, including presentation of multiple claims to more than one insurer, with an intent to defraud.

(3) Knowingly cause or participate in a vehicular collision, or any other vehicular accident, for the purpose of presenting any false or fraudulent claim.

(4) Knowingly present a false or fraudulent claim for the payments of a loss for theft, destruction, damage, or conversion of a motor vehicle, a motor vehicle part, or contents of a motor vehicle.

(5) Knowingly prepare, make, or subscribe any writing, with the intent to present or use it, or to allow it to be presented in support of any false or fraudulent claim.

(6) Knowingly assist, abet, solicit, or conspire with any person described as follows:

(A) Any person who knowingly presents any false or fraudulent claim for the payment of a loss, including payment of a loss under a contract of insurance.

(B) Any person who knowingly presents multiple claims for the same loss or injury, including presentation of multiple claims to more than one insurer, with an intent to defraud.

(C) Any person who knowingly causes or participates in a vehicular collision, or any other vehicular accident, for the purpose of presenting any false or fraudulent claim.

(D) Any person who knowingly prepares, makes, or subscribes any writing, with the intent to present or use it, or to allow it to be presented in support on any false or fraudulent claim.

(7) Knowingly make or cause to be made any false or fraudulent claim for payment of a health care benefit.

(8) Knowingly submit a claim for a health care benefit which was not used by, or on behalf of, the claimant.

(9) Knowingly present multiple claims for payment of the same health care benefit with an intent to defraud.

(10) Knowingly present for payment any undercharges for health care benefits on behalf of a specific claimant unless any known overcharges for health care benefits for that claimant are presented for reconciliation at that same time.

(11) For purposes of paragraphs (7) to (10), inclusive, a claim or a claim for payment of a health care benefit also means a claim or claim for payment submitted by or on the behalf of a provider of any workers' compensation health benefits under the Labor Code.

(b) It is unlawful to do, or to knowingly assist or conspire with any person to do, any of the following:

(1) Present or cause to be presented any written or oral statement as part of, or in support of or opposition to, a claim for payment or other benefit pursuant to an insurance policy, knowing that the statement contains any false or misleading information concerning any material fact.

(2) Prepare or make any written or oral statement that is intended to be presented to any insurer or any insurance claimant in connection with, or in support of or opposition to, any claim or payment or other benefit pursuant to an insurance policy, knowing that the statement contains any false or misleading information concerning any material fact.

(3) Conceal or knowingly fail to disclose the occurrence of an event that affects any person's initial or continued right or entitlement to any insurance benefit or payment, or the amount of any benefit or payment to which the person is entitled.

(4) Prepare or make any written or oral statement, intended to be presented to any insurer or producer for the purpose of obtaining a motor vehicle insurance policy, that the person to be the insured resides or is domiciled in this state when, in fact, that person resides or is domiciled in a state other than this state.

(c) (1) Every person who violates paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), or (6) of subdivision (a) is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or five years, and by a fine not exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), unless the value of the fraud exceeds fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), in which event the fine may not exceed double the value of the fraud.

(2) Every person who violates paragraph (7), (8), (9), or (10) of subdivision (a) is guilty of a public offense.

(A) Where the claim or amount at issue exceeds four hundred dollars ($400), the offense is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or five years, by a fine not exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine, unless the value of the fraud exceeds fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), in which event the fine may not exceed double the value of the fraud, or by imprisonment in a county jail not to exceed one year, by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine.

(B) Where the claim or amount at issue is four hundred dollars ($400) or less, the offense is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not to exceed six months, by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine unless the aggregate amount of the claims or amount at issue exceeds four hundred dollars ($400) in any 12 consecutive month period, in which case the claims or amounts may be charged as in subparagraph (A).

(3) Every person who violates paragraph (1), (2), (3), or (4) of subdivision (b) shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or five years, by a fine not exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), unless the value of the fraud exceeds fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), in which event the fine may not exceed double the value of the fraud, by both that imprisonment and fine, or by imprisonment in a county jail not to exceed one year, by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, probation shall not be granted to, nor shall the execution or imposition of a sentence be suspended for, any adult person convicted of felony violations of this section who previously has been convicted of felony violations of this section as an adult under charges separately brought and tried two or more times. The existence of any fact which would make a person ineligible for probation under this subdivision shall be alleged in the information or indictment, and either admitted by the defendant in an open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury.

Except where the existence of the fact was not admitted or found to be true or the court finds that a prior felony conviction was invalid, the court shall not strike or dismiss any prior felony convictions alleged in the information or indictment.

This subdivision shall not prohibit the adjournment of criminal proceedings pursuant to Division 3 (commencing with Section 3000) of, or Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of, the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) Any person who violates subdivision (a) and who has a prior felony conviction of the offense set forth in that subdivision or in Section 548 shall receive a two-year enhancement for each prior felony conviction in addition to the sentence provided in subdivision (b). The existence of any fact which would subject a person to a penalty enhancement shall be alleged in the information or indictment and either admitted by the defendant in open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury.

(f) This section shall not be construed to preclude the applicability of any other provision of civil or criminal law that applies or may apply to any act committed or alleged to have been committed by a person.

(g) Any person who violates any provision of subdivision (a) shall be liable, in addition to any other penalty prescribed by law, for a civil penalty of up to five thousand dollars ($5,000) per claim or act, plus an assessment of not more than three times the amount of each claim for compensation submitted in violation of this section. The penalties provided for in this subdivision may be assessed and recovered in a civil action brought in the name of the people of the State of California by any district attorney, city attorney, or the Attorney General. Any civil penalty recovered shall be allocated as follows:

(1) If the action was brought by the Attorney General, 50 percent of the penalty collected shall be paid to the General Fund, and 50 percent of the penalty collected shall be paid to the Department of Insurance Fraud Account in the Insurance Fund.

(2) If the action was brought by a district attorney, 25 percent of the penalty collected shall be paid to the treasurer of the county in which the judgment was entered, 25 percent of the penalty collected shall be paid to the General Fund, and 50 percent of the penalty collected shall be paid to the Department of Insurance Fraud Account in the Insurance Fund.

(3) If the action was brought by a city attorney, 25 percent of the penalty collected shall be paid to the treasurer of the city in which the judgment was entered, 25 percent of the penalty collected shall be paid to the General Fund, and 50 percent of the penalty collected shall be paid to the Department of Insurance Fraud Account in the Insurance Fund.

(4) Moneys collected by the Department of Insurance pursuant to this subdivision shall be deposited in the Workers' Compensation Fraud Account in the Insurance Fund and shall be used solely for the investigation and prosecution of insurance fraud, as appropriated by the Legislature.

(h) This section shall remain operative only until January 1, 1999, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 550 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

550. (a) It is unlawful to do any of the following:

(1) Knowingly present or cause to be presented any false or fraudulent claim for the payment of a loss, including payment of a loss under a contract of insurance.

(2) Knowingly present multiple claims for the same loss or injury, including presentation of multiple claims to more than one insurer, with an intent to defraud.

(3) Knowingly cause or participate in a vehicular collision, or any other vehicular accident, for the purpose of presenting any false or fraudulent claim.

(4) Knowingly present a false or fraudulent claim for the payments of a loss for theft, destruction, damage, or conversion of a motor vehicle, a motor vehicle part, or contents of a motor vehicle.

(5) Knowingly prepare, make, or subscribe any writing, with the intent to present or use it, or to allow it to be presented in support of any false or fraudulent claim.

(6) Knowingly assist, abet, solicit, or conspire with any person described as follows:

(A) Any person who knowingly presents any false or fraudulent claim for the payment of a loss, including payment of a loss under a contract of insurance.

(B) Any person who knowingly presents multiple claims for the same loss or injury, including presentation of multiple claims to more than one insurer, with an intent to defraud.

(C) Any person who knowingly causes or participates in a vehicular collision, or any other vehicular accident, for the purpose of presenting any false or fraudulent claim.

(D) Any person who knowingly prepares, makes, or subscribes any writing, with the intent to present or use it, or to allow it to be presented in support on any claim.

(7) Knowingly make or cause to be made any false or fraudulent claim for payment of a health care benefit.

(8) Knowingly submit a claim for a health care benefit which was not used by, or on behalf of, the claimant.

(9) Knowingly present multiple claims for payment of the same health care benefit with an intent to defraud.

(10) Knowingly present for payment any undercharges for health care benefits on behalf of a specific claimant unless any known overcharges for health care benefits for that claimant are presented for reconciliation at that same time.

(11) For purposes of paragraphs (7) to (10), inclusive, a claim or a claim for payment of a health care benefit also means a claim or claim for payment submitted by or on the behalf of a provider of any workers' compensation health benefits under the Labor Code.

(b) (1) Every person who violates paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), or (6) of subdivision (a) shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or five years, or by a fine not exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine, unless the value of the fraud is fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) or more. Whenever the value of the fraud is fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) or more, the fine may be double the amount of the value of the fraud.

(2) Every person who violates paragraph (7), (8), (9), or (10) of subdivision (a) is guilty of a public offense.

(A) Where the claim or amount at issue exceeds four hundred dollars ($400), the offense is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or five years, by a fine not exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine, unless the value of the fraud exceeds fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), in which event the fine may not exceed the value of the fraud, or by imprisonment in a county jail not to exceed one year, by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine.

(B) Where the claim or amount at issue is four hundred dollars ($400) or less, the offense is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not to exceed six months, by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine unless the aggregate amount of the claims or amount at issue exceeds four hundred dollars ($400) in any 12 consecutive month period, in which case the claims or amounts may be charged as in subparagraph (A).

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, probation shall not be granted to, nor shall the execution or imposition of a sentence be suspended for, any adult person convicted of felony violations of this section who previously has been convicted of felony violations of this section as an adult under charges separately brought and tried two or more times. The existence of any fact which would make a person ineligible for probation under this subdivision shall be alleged in the information or indictment, and either admitted by the defendant in an open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury.

Except where the existence of the fact was not admitted or found to be true or the court finds that a prior felony conviction was invalid, the court shall not strike or dismiss any prior felony convictions alleged in the information or indictment.

This subdivision shall not prohibit the adjournment of criminal proceedings pursuant to Division 3 (commencing with Section 3000) of, or Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of, the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(d) Any person who violates subdivision (a) and who has a prior felony conviction of the offense set forth in that subdivision or in Section 548 shall receive a two-year enhancement for each prior felony conviction in addition to the sentence provided in subdivision (b). The existence of any fact which would subject a person to a penalty enhancement shall be alleged in the information or indictment and either admitted by the defendant in open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury.

(e) This section shall not be construed to preclude the applicability of any other provision of criminal law that applies or may apply to any transaction.

(f) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1999.

SEC. 4.5. Section 550 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

550. (a) It is unlawful to do any of the following:

(1) Knowingly present or cause to be presented any false or fraudulent claim for the payment of a loss, including payment of a loss under a contract of insurance.

(2) Knowingly present multiple claims for the same loss or injury, including presentation of multiple claims to more than one insurer, with an intent to defraud.

(3) Knowingly cause or participate in a vehicular collision, or any other vehicular accident, for the purpose of presenting any false or fraudulent claim.

(4) Knowingly present a false or fraudulent claim for the payments of a loss for theft, destruction, damage, or conversion of a motor vehicle, a motor vehicle part, or contents of a motor vehicle.

(5) Knowingly prepare, make, or subscribe any writing, with the intent to present or use it, or to allow it to be presented in support of any false or fraudulent claim.

(6) Knowingly assist, abet, solicit, or conspire with any person described as follows:

(A) Any person who knowingly presents any false or fraudulent claim for the payment of a loss, including payment of a loss under a contract of insurance.

(B) Any person who knowingly presents multiple claims for the same loss or injury, including presentation of multiple claims to more than one insurer, with an intent to defraud.

(C) Any person who knowingly causes or participates in a vehicular collision, or any other vehicular accident, for the purpose of presenting any false or fraudulent claim.

(D) Any person who knowingly prepares, makes, or subscribes any writing, with the intent to present or use it, or to allow it to be presented in support on any false or fraudulent claim.

(7) Knowingly make or cause to be made any false or fraudulent claim for payment of a health care benefit.

(8) Knowingly submit a claim for a health care benefit which was not used by, or on behalf of, the claimant.

(9) Knowingly present multiple claims for payment of the same health care benefit with an intent to defraud.

(10) Knowingly present for payment any undercharges for health care benefits on behalf of a specific claimant unless any known overcharges for health care benefits for that claimant are presented for reconciliation at that same time.

(11) For purposes of paragraphs (7) to (10), inclusive, a claim or a claim for payment of a health care benefit also means a claim or claim for payment submitted by or on the behalf of a provider of any workers' compensation health benefits under the Labor Code.

(b) It is unlawful to do, or to knowingly assist or conspire with any person to do, any of the following:

(1) Present or cause to be presented any written or oral statement as part of, or in support of or opposition to, a claim for payment or other benefit pursuant to an insurance policy, knowing that the statement contains any false or misleading information concerning any material fact.

(2) Prepare or make any written or oral statement that is intended to be presented to any insurer or any insurance claimant in connection with, or in support of or opposition to, any claim or payment or other benefit pursuant to an insurance policy, knowing that the statement contains any false or misleading information concerning any material fact.

(3) Conceal or knowingly fail to disclose the occurrence of an event that affects any person's initial or continued right or entitlement to any insurance benefit or payment, or the amount of any benefit or payment to which the person is entitled.

(4) Prepare or make any written or oral statement, intended to be presented to any insurer or producer for the purpose of obtaining a motor vehicle insurance policy, that the person to be the insured resides or is domiciled in this state when, in fact, that person resides or is domiciled in a state other than this state.

(c) (1) Every person who violates paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), or (6) of subdivision (a) is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or five years, and by a fine not exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), unless the value of the fraud exceeds fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), in which event the fine may not exceed double the value of the fraud.

(2) Every person who violates paragraph (7), (8), (9), or (10) of subdivision (a) is guilty of a public offense.

(A) Where the claim or amount at issue exceeds four hundred dollars ($400), the offense is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or five years, by a fine not exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine, unless the value of the fraud exceeds fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), in which event the fine may not exceed double the value of the fraud, or by imprisonment in a county jail not to exceed one year, by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine.

(B) Where the claim or amount at issue is four hundred dollars ($400) or less, the offense is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not to exceed six months, by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine unless the aggregate amount of the claims or amount at issue exceeds four hundred dollars ($400) in any 12 consecutive month period, in which case the claims or amounts may be charged as in subparagraph (A).

(3) Every person who violates paragraph (1), (2), (3), or (4) of subdivision (b) shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or five years, by a fine not exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), unless the value of the fraud exceeds fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), in which event the fine may not exceed double the value of the fraud, by both that imprisonment and fine, or by imprisonment in a county jail not to exceed one year, by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, probation shall not be granted to, nor shall the execution or imposition of a sentence be suspended for, any adult person convicted of felony violations of this section who previously has been convicted of felony violations of this section as an adult under charges separately brought and tried two or more times. The existence of any fact which would make a person ineligible for probation under this subdivision shall be alleged in the information or indictment, and either admitted by the defendant in an open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury.

Except where the existence of the fact was not admitted or found to be true or the court finds that a prior felony conviction was invalid, the court shall not strike or dismiss any prior felony convictions alleged in the information or indictment.

This subdivision shall not prohibit the adjournment of criminal proceedings pursuant to Division 3 (commencing with Section 3000) of, or Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of, the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) Any person who violates subdivision (a) and who has a prior felony conviction of the offense set forth in that subdivision or in Section 548 shall receive a two-year enhancement for each prior felony conviction in addition to the sentence provided in subdivision (b). The existence of any fact which would subject a person to a penalty enhancement shall be alleged in the information or indictment and either admitted by the defendant in open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury.

(f) This section shall not be construed to preclude the applicability of any other provision of civil or criminal law that applies or may apply to any act committed or alleged to have been committed by a person.

SEC. 5. Section 801.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

801.5. Notwithstanding Section 801 or any other provision of law, prosecution for a violation of Section 550 of this code or former Section 1871.1, or Section 187.4, of the Insurance Code shall be commenced within three years after discovery of the commission of the offense.

SEC. 6. Sections 3.5 and 4.5 incorporate amendments to Section 550 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and SB 1833. They shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective, (2) each bill amends Section 550 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 1833, in which case Sections 3 and 4 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 842

An act to add and repeal Section 21083.8 of the Public Resources Code, relating to environmental quality.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature hereby declares its intent that, if there is sufficient federal funding available and an environmental impact statement for a military base reuse plan has not been prepared pursuant to the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 4321 et seq.) prior to the preparation of an environmental impact report pursuant to the California Environmental Quality Act (Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code), a state or local lead agency shall make reasonable and feasible efforts to prepare the environmental impact report jointly with the preparation of the environmental impact statement by the federal lead agency. If such a joint report and statement is not feasible, it is the intent of the Legislature that the state or local lead agency prepare an environmental impact report, but may utilize, pursuant to Section 21083.8 of the Public Resources Code, an environmental impact statement if one has been prepared.

(b) It is not the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act to prevent a local agency from utilizing other provisions of the California Environmental Quality Act (Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code) that may be relevant.

SEC. 2. Section 21083.8 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

21083.8. (a) For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the following meaning:

(1) "Reuse plan" means an initial plan for the reuse of a military base adopted by a local government or a redevelopment agency in the form of a general plan, general plan amendment, specific plan, redevelopment plan, or other planning document.

(2) "Base" means any military base either closed by, or scheduled for closure by, the federal government.

(b) If an environmental impact statement on the closure and reuse of a military base has been prepared and filed pursuant to the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 4321 et seq.), the lead agency that is responsible for the preparation of an environmental impact report for a reuse plan for the same base may proceed in the following manner:

or 21080.6 and shall include a description of the reuse plan and a copy of the environmental impact statement. The notice shall indicate that the lead agency intends to utilize the environmental impact statement as a draft environmental impact report and that the lead agency requests comments on whether, and to what extent, the environmental impact statement provides adequate information to serve as a draft environmental impact report, and what specific additional information, if any, is necessary to comply with this division. The notice shall also indicate the address to which written comments may be sent and the deadline for submitting comments.

(2) Upon the close of the comment period on the notice of preparation, the lead agency may proceed with preparation of the environmental impact report on the reuse plan. The lead agency shall, to the greatest extent feasible, avoid duplication and utilize information in the environmental impact statement consistent with this division. The draft environmental impact report shall consist of all or part of the environmental impact statement and any additional information that is necessary to prepare a draft environmental impact report in compliance with this division.

(3) In all other respects, the environmental impact report for the reuse plan shall be completed in compliance with this division.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2001, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 2001, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. This act shall become operative only if Senate Bill 354 of the 1993–94 Regular Session of the Legislature is enacted and takes effect on or before January 1, 1995.

CHAPTER 843

An act to add Sections 51178.5 and 51189 to the Government Code, to amend Sections 13108.5 and 13132.7 of the Health and Safety Code, and to add Section 4205 to the Public Resources Code, relating to fire safety, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 51178.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

51178.5. Within 30 days after receiving a transmittal from the director that identifies very high fire hazard severity zones, a local agency shall make the information available for public review. The information shall be presented in a format that is understandable and accessible to the general public, including, but not limited to, maps.

SEC. 2. Section 51189 is added to the Government Code, to read:

51189. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that space and structure defensibility is essential to diligent fire prevention. This defensibility extends beyond the vegetation management practices required by this chapter, and includes, but is not limited to, measures that increase the likelihood of a structure to withstand intrusion by fire, such as building design and construction requirements that use fire resistant building materials, and provide protection of structure projections, including porches, decks, balconies and eaves, and structure openings including attic and eave vents and windows.

(b) No later than July 1, 1996, the State Fire Marshal, in consultation with the Director of Forestry and Fire Protection, shall prepare and adopt a model ordinance that provides for comprehensive space and structure defensibility, including in very high fire severity zones.

(c) Upon adoption of the model ordinances, the State Fire Marshal shall transmit copies of the ordinance to the appropriate local agencies in every jurisdiction that contains a very high fire hazard severity zone, and to the Director of Forestry and Fire Protection.

(d) The State Fire Marshal shall make every feasible effort to obtain funds from federal, state, local, and other appropriate sources to assist in developing and preparing the model ordinance.

SEC. 3. Section 13108.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

13108.5. The State Fire Marshal shall propose, and the State Building Standards Commission shall adopt, amend, and repeal regulations for openings into the attic areas of buildings in those fire hazard severity zones, including very high fire hazard severity zones, designated by the Director of Forestry and Fire Protection pursuant to Article 9 (commencing with Section 4201) of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 4 of the Public Resources Code, and in very high fire hazard severity zones designated by a local agency pursuant to Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 51175) of Part 1 of Division 1 of Title 5 of the Government Code.

SEC. 4. Section 13132.7 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

13132.7. (a) Within a very high fire hazard severity zone designated by the Director of Forestry and Fire Protection pursuant to Article 9 (commencing with Section 4201) of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 4 of the Public Resources Code and within a very high hazard severity zone designated by a local agency pursuant to Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 51175) of Part 1 of Division 1 of Title 5 of the Government Code, every new structure, and every existing structure when 50 percent or more of the total roof area is reroofed within any one-year period, shall have a fire retardant roof covering that is at least class B as defined in the Uniform Building Code, as adopted and amended by the State Building Standards Commission.

(b) On or after July 1, 1995, in all other areas, every new structure, and every existing structure when 50 percent or more of the total roof area is reroofed within any one-year period, commencing any date on or after July 1, 1995, shall have a fire retardant roof covering that is at least class C as defined in the Uniform Building Code, as adopted and amended by the State Building Standards Commission.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), on or after July 1, 1995, within state responsibility areas classified by the Board of Forestry pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 4125) of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 4 of the Public Resources Code, except for those state responsibility areas designated as moderate fire hazard responsibility zones, every new structure, and every existing structure when 50 percent or more of the total roof area is reroofed within any one-year period commencing any date on or after July 1, 1995, shall have a fire retardant roof covering that is at least class B as defined in the Uniform Building Code, as adopted and amended by the State Building Standards Commission.

(d) (1) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), (b), or (c), on or after January 1, 1997, within very high fire hazard severity zones designated by the Director of Forestry and Fire Protection pursuant to Article 9 (commencing with Section 4201) of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 4 of the Public Resources Code or by a local agency pursuant to Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 51175) of Part 1 of Division 1 of Title 5 of the Government Code, every new structure, and every existing structure when 50 percent or more of the total roof area is reroofed within any one-year period commencing on any date on or after January 1, 1997, shall have a fire retardant roof covering that is at least class A as defined in the Uniform Building Code, as adopted and amended by the State Building Standards Commission.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to any jurisdiction containing a very high fire hazard severity zone if the jurisdiction fulfills both of the following requirements:

(A) Adopts the model ordinance approved by the State Fire Marshal pursuant to Section 51189 of the Government Code or an ordinance that substantially conforms to the model ordinance of the State Fire Marshal.

(B) Transmits, upon adoption, a copy of the ordinance to the State Fire Marshal.

(c) The State Building Standards Commission shall incorporate the requirements set forth in subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) by publishing them on January 1, 1995, as an amendment to the California Building Standards Code, commencing with the 1991 edition, in accordance with Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 18935) of Part 2.5 of Division 13.

(d) Nothing in this section shall limit the authority of a city, county, city and county, or fire protection district in establishing more restrictive requirements, in accordance with current law, than those specified in this section.

(e) This section shall not affect the validity of an ordinance, adopted prior to the effective date for the relevant roofing standard specified in subdivisions (a) and (b), by a city, county, city and county, or fire protection district, unless the ordinance mandates a standard that is less stringent than the standards set forth in subdivision (a), in which case the ordinance shall not be valid on or after the effective date for the relevant roofing standard specified in subdivisions (a) and (b).

(f) Any qualified historical building or structure as defined in Section 18955 may, on a case-by-case basis, utilize alternative roof constructions as provided by the State Historical Building Code, that meet the same level of fire protection as described in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a).

(g) The installer of the roof covering shall provide certification of the roof covering classification to the building owner and, when requested, to the agency responsible for enforcement of this part. The installer shall also install the roof covering in accordance with the manufacturer's listing.

(h) Wood-roofing materials shall have passed a 10-year weather test and a rain test approved by a testing laboratory recognized by the State Fire Marshal.

SEC. 5. Section 4205 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

4205. The Director of Forestry and Fire Protection shall, not later than December 1, 1995, report to the appropriate committees of the Legislature on the impacts of designating very high fire hazard severity zones pursuant to Article 9 (commencing with Section 4201) of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 4, and Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 51175) of Part 1 of Division 1 of Title 5 of the Government Code, including identifying and recommending how to reconcile any disparities between the different mapping programs.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for those costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

However, notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains other costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 7. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Because of the damage and devastation caused by recent fires in California, and in order to, as soon as possible, reduce the risk of future fire disasters by requiring that fire retardant roof coverings be used on new structures and reroofed structures, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

An act to amend Sections 8505.5, 8505.10, 8505.13, 8505.16, 8505.17, 8512, 8513, 8515, 8516, 8516.1, 8516.5, 8528, 8538, 8550, 8551.5, 8555, 8560, 8562, 8564, 8564.5, 8565, 8565.5, 8566, 8566.5, 8567, 8590, 8591, 8592, 8593, 8611, 8616, 8616.4, 8616.5, 8616.6, 8620, 8622, 8642, 8649, 8651, 8652, 8655, 8674, 8675, and 8690 of, to add Sections 8507.1, 8564.6, 8590.1, 8593.1, 8616.9, 8618, 8619, and 8665 to, and to repeal Section 8572 of, the Business and Professions Code, relating to structural pest control, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8505.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8505.5. If requested, notice of the date and place of fumigation shall be given to the fire department serving the area in which fumigation is to be performed not less than two hours prior to the time fumigation begins. The fire department shall not charge a fee exceeding twenty-five dollars ($25) for receipt of this notification.

If requested by the county agricultural commissioner, notice of each fumigation to be performed shall be given to the commissioner in the county in which the job is to be performed. The notice, which may be mailed or given by telephone, at the option of the commissioner, shall be given at least 24 hours prior to the time fumigation begins, unless the commissioner determines that less time is sufficient. No fee shall be assessed for processing the notice which may be requested by the commissioner.

SEC. 2. Section 8505.10 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8505.10. Warning signs shall be printed in red on white background and shall contain the following statement in letters not less than two inches in height: "DANGER—FUMIGATION." They shall also depict a skull and crossbones not less than one inch in height and shall state in letters not less than one-half inch in height the name of the fumigant, the date and time fumigant was injected, and the name, address and telephone number of the registered company performing the fumigation. Warning signs placed under a tarpaulin shall not be required to state the time the fumigant was injected.

SEC. 3. Section 8505.13 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8505.13. A registered company shall maintain a log of each fumigation job performed by it in this state. The log shall be in the form required by the regulations of the board and shall be preserved for a period of at least three years, during which time it shall be available at all times during business hours for inspection by the board and its authorized representatives.

SEC. 4. Section 8505.16 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8505.16. All fumigators shall be familiar with and able to administer artificial respiration by the best method or methods recommended currently by the Red Cross in its standard texts on first aid.

All fumigating crews shall be outfitted with a safety kit containing safety equipment as specified by the manufacturer's label instructions and by all applicable laws and regulations.

SEC. 5. Section 8505.17 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8505.17. (a) There is hereby created in the State Treasury a special fund to be known as the Structural Pest Control Education and Enforcement Fund. Funds derived from the pesticide use report filing fee provided for in Section 8674 and all proceeds from civil penalties collected by the board pursuant to Section 8617 shall be deposited in the Education and Enforcement Account which is hereby created in the fund. The account shall be used by the board (1) for the purposes of training as provided in Section 8616, (2) for reimbursement to the Director of Pesticide Regulation for work performed as the agent of the board pursuant to Sections 8616, 8616.4, and 8617 and Section 15202 of the Food and Agricultural Code and for cases referred to the board pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 8616.5, and (3) for reasonable expenses incurred by the Disciplinary Review Committee. There is no reimbursement from this fund for inspections and routine investigations.

(b) The board may withhold funds from its agent if it is not satisfied that its agent has corrected the problems which resulted in a suspension as provided in Section 8616.6. The authority to withhold funds shall be limited only to the withholding of an amount otherwise due the agent for reimbursable activities performed in the county or counties for which a notice has been filed pursuant to Section 8616.6.

(c) Registered structural pest control companies shall prepare and submit to the county agricultural commissioner a monthly report of all pesticides used in that county. The report shall be on a form approved by the Director of Pesticide Regulation and shall contain the name and registration number of each pesticide, the amount used, and the number of applications made. The report shall be submitted to the commissioner by the 10th day of the month following the month of application. Each pesticide use report or combination of use reports representing a registered structural pest control company's total county pesticide use for the month shall have affixed thereto a pesticide use stamp issued by the board in the denomination fixed by the board in accordance with Section 8674 as the pesticide use report filing fee. The board shall provide for the sale of these stamps and for the refund of moneys paid for stamps which are returned to it unused. When a registered structural pest control company performs no pest control during a month in a county in which it has given notice pursuant to Section 15204 of the Food and Agricultural Code, the registered company shall submit a use report stating this fact to the commissioner. No pesticide use stamp is required on negative use reports.

(d) All other proceeds from civil penalties collected by the board shall be deposited in the Civil Penalties Account which is hereby created in the fund. These funds shall be available to the board upon appropriation by the Legislature for the purposes of enforcing this chapter.

SEC. 6. Section 8507.1 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

8507.1. (a) "Structural pest control applicator" is any individual who is licensed by the board to apply a pesticide, rodenticide, or allied chemicals or substances for the purpose of eliminating, exterminating, controlling, or preventing infestation or infections of pests or organisms included in Branch 2, Branch 3, or wood roof cleaning and treatment on behalf of a registered company.

A structural pest control applicator shall not contract for pest control work or perform pest control work in his or her own behalf.

(b) As used in this chapter, "applicator" refers to "structural pest control applicator."

SEC. 7. Section 8512 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8512. "Employer" refers to a registered company which hires operators, field representatives, applicators, and other individuals, the latter not being required to be licensed under this chapter, and who work on pest control jobs under the supervision of an operator or field representative.

SEC. 8. Section 8513 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8513. (a) The board shall prescribe a form entitled "Notice to Owner" which shall describe, in nontechnical language and in a clear and coherent manner using words with common and everyday meaning, the pertinent provisions of this state's mechanics' lien laws and the rights and responsibilities of an owner of property and a registered pest control company thereunder. Each company registered under this chapter, prior to entering into a contract with an owner for work for which a company registration is required, shall give a copy of this "Notice to Owner" to the owner, his or her agent, or the payer.

(b) No company which is required to be registered under this chapter shall require or request a waiver of lien rights from any subcontractor, employee, or supplier.

(c) Each company registered under this chapter which acts as a subcontractor for another company registered under this chapter shall, within 20 days of commencement of any work for which a company registration is required, give the preliminary 20-day notice (private work) in accordance with the provisions of Section 3097 of the Civil Code, to the owner, his or her agent, or the payer.

(d) Each company registered under this chapter which acts as a prime contractor for work for which a company registration is required shall, prior to accepting payment for the work, furnish to the owner, his or her agent, or the payer a full and unconditional release from any claim of mechanics' lien by any subcontractor entitled to enforce a mechanics' lien pursuant to Section 3114 of the Civil Code.

(e) Each company registered under this chapter which subcontracts to another company registered under this chapter work for which a company registration is required shall furnish to the subcontractor the name of the owner, his or her agent, or the payer.

(f) The provisions of this section shall be applicable only to those registered companies, as defined in Section 8506.1, operating pursuant to a Branch 1, Branch 3, or wood roof cleaning and treatment registration.

(g) A violation of the provisions of this section is a ground for disciplinary action.

SEC. 9. Section 8515 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8515. Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit a company registered hereunder from authorizing an officer, partner, or employee to submit bids, after an inspection by an individual licensed as an operator or field representative under this act, or to sign contracts after negotiation by an individual licensed as an operator or field representative under this act, on behalf of the registered company.

SEC. 10. Section 8516 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8516. (a) This section, and Section 8519, apply only to wood destroying pests or organisms, but do not apply to work conducted pursuant to Section 8516.1.

(b) No registered company or licensee shall commence work on a contract, or sign, issue, or deliver any documents expressing an opinion or statement relating to the absence or presence of wood destroying pests or organisms until an inspection has been made by a licensed Branch 3 field representative or operator. The registered company shall retain for three years all field reports from which a verbal or written estimate of or solutions for work are made. A written inspection report conforming to this section and on a form prescribed by the board shall be prepared and delivered to the person requesting the inspection or to the person's designated agent. A copy of each report shall be filed with the board at the time the report is delivered or not later than 10 working days after the date the inspection is commenced, except an inspection report prepared for use by an attorney for litigation is not required to be filed with the board. The report shall be delivered to the person requesting the inspection, or to the person's designated agent, before work is commenced. The following shall be set forth in the report:

(1) The date of the inspection and the name of the licensee making the inspection.

(2) The name and address of the person or firm ordering the report.

(3) The name and address of any person who is a party in interest.

(4) The address or location of the property.

(5) A general description of the building or premises inspected.

(6) A foundation diagram or sketch of the structure or structures or portions of the structure or structures inspected, indicating thereon the approximate location of any infested or infected areas evident, and the parts of the structure where conditions which would ordinarily subject those parts to attack by wood destroying pests or organisms exist.

(7) Information regarding the substructure, foundation walls and footings, porches, patios and steps, air vents, abutments, attic spaces, roof framing that includes the eaves, rafters, fascias, exposed timbers, exposed sheathing, ceiling joists, and attic walls, or other parts subject to attack by wood destroying pests or organisms. Conditions usually deemed likely to lead to infestation or infection, such as earth wood contacts, excessive cellulose debris, faulty grade levels, excessive moisture conditions, evidence of roof leaks, and insufficient ventilation are to be reported.

(8) One of the following statements, as appropriate, printed in bold type:

(A) The exterior surface of the roof was not inspected. If you want the water tightness of the roof determined, you should contact a roofing contractor who is licensed by the Contractors' State License Board.

(B) The exterior surface of the roof was inspected to determine whether or not wood destroying pests or organisms are present.

(9) Indication or description of any areas that are inaccessible or not inspected with recommendation for further inspection if practicable. If, after the report has been made in compliance with this section, authority is given later to open inaccessible areas, a supplemental report on conditions in these areas shall be made.

(10) Recommendations for corrective measures.

(11) Information regarding the pesticide or pesticides to be used for their control as set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 8538.

(12) The inspection report shall clearly disclose that if requested by the person ordering the original report, a reinspection of the structure will be performed if an estimate or bid for making repairs was given with the original inspection report, or thereafter.

An estimate or bid for repairs shall be given separately allocating the costs to perform each and every recommendation for corrective measures as specified in subdivision (c) with the original inspection report if the person who ordered the original inspection report so requests, and if the registered company is regularly in the business of performing corrective measures.

If no estimate or bid was given with the original inspection report, or thereafter, then the registered company shall not be required to perform a reinspection.

A reinspection shall be an inspection of those items previously listed on an original report to determine if the recommendations have been completed. Each reinspection shall be reported on an original inspection report form and shall be labeled "Reinspection" in capital letters by rubber stamp or typewritten. Each reinspection shall also identify the original report by date and stamp numbers.

After four months from an original inspection, all inspections shall be original inspections and not reinspections.

Any reinspection shall be performed for not more than the price of the registered company's original inspection price and shall be completed within 10 working days after a reinspection has been ordered.

(c) At the time a report is ordered, the registered company or licensee shall inform the person or entity ordering the report, that a separated report is available pursuant to this subdivision. If a separated report is requested at the time the inspection report is ordered, the registered company or licensee shall separately identify on the report each recommendation for corrective measures as follows:

(1) The infestation or infection that is evident.

(2) The conditions that are present that are deemed likely to lead to infestation or infection.

If a registered company or licensee fails to inform as required by this subdivision and a dispute arises, or if any other dispute arises as to whether this subdivision has been complied with, a separated report shall be provided within 24 hours of the request but, in no event, later than the next business day, and at no additional cost.

(d) When a corrective condition is identified, either as paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (c), and the responsible party, as negotiated between the buyer and the seller, chooses not to correct those conditions, the registered company or licensee shall not be liable for damages resulting from a failure to correct those conditions or subject to any disciplinary action by the board. Nothing in this subdivision, however, shall relieve a registered company or a licensee of any liability resulting from negligence, fraud, dishonest dealing, other violations pursuant to this chapter, or contractual obligations between the registered company or licensee and the responsible parties.

(e) The inspection report form prescribed by the board shall separately identify the infestation or infection that is evident and the conditions that are present that are deemed likely to lead to infestation or infection. If a separated form is requested, the form shall explain the infestation or infection that is evident and the conditions that are present that are deemed likely to lead to infestation or infection and the difference between those conditions. In no event, however, shall conditions deemed likely to lead to infestation or infection be characterized as actual "defects" or as actual "active" infestations or infections or in need of correction as a precondition to issuing a certification pursuant to Section 8519.

(f) The report and any contract entered into shall also state specifically when any guarantee for the work is made, and if so, the specific terms of the guarantee and the period of time for which the guarantee shall be in effect.

(g) Control service is defined as the regular reinspection of a property after a report has been made in compliance with this section and such corrections as have been agreed upon have been completed. Under a control service agreement a registered company shall refer to the original report and contract in a manner as to identify them clearly, and the report shall be assumed to be a true report of conditions as originally issued, except it may be modified after a control service inspection. A registered company is not required to issue a report as outlined in paragraphs (1) to (9), inclusive, of subdivision (b) after each control service inspection. If after control service inspection, no modification of the original report is made in writing, then it will be assumed that conditions are as originally reported. A control service contract shall state specifically the particular wood destroying pests or organisms and the portions of the buildings or structures covered by the contract.

(h) A registered company or licensee may enter into and maintain a control service agreement provided the following requirements are met:

(1) The control service agreement shall be in writing, signed by both parties, and shall specifically include the following:

(A) The wood destroying pests and organisms that could infest and infect the structure.

(B) The wood destroying pests and organisms covered by the control service agreement. Any wood destroying pest or organism that is not covered must be specifically listed.

(C) The type and manner of treatment to be used to correct the infestations or infections.

(D) The structures or buildings, or portions thereof, covered by the agreement, including a statement specifying whether the coverage for purposes of periodic inspections is limited or full. Any exclusions from those described in the original report must be specifically listed.

(E) A reference to the original inspection report and agreement.

(F) The frequency of the inspections to be provided, the fee to be charged for each renewal, and the duration of the agreement.

(G) Whether the fee includes structural repairs.

(H) If the services provided are guaranteed, and, if so, the terms of the guarantee.

(I) A statement that all corrections of infestations or infections covered by the control service agreement shall be completed within six months of discovery, unless otherwise agreed to in writing by both parties.

(2) Inspections made pursuant to a control service agreement shall be conducted by a Branch 3 licensee. Section 8506.1 does not modify this provision.

(3) A full inspection of the property covered by the control service agreement shall be conducted and a report filed pursuant to subdivision (b) at least once every three years from the date that the agreement was entered into, unless the consumer cancels the contract within three years from the date the agreement was entered into.

(4) A written report shall be required for the correction of any infestation or infection unless all of the following conditions are met:

(A) The infestation or infection has been previously reported.

(B) The infestation or infection is covered by the control service agreement.

(C) There is no additional charge for correcting the infestation or infection.

(D) Correction of the infestation or infection takes place within 45 days of its discovery.

(E) Correction of the infestation or infection does not include fumigation.

(5) All notice requirements pursuant to Section 8538 shall apply to all pesticide treatments conducted under control service agreements.

(6) For purposes of this section, "control service agreement" means any agreement, including extended warranties, to have a licensee conduct over a period of time regular inspections and other activities related to the control or eradication of wood destroying pests and organisms.

(i) All work recommended by a registered company, where an estimate or bid for making repairs was given with the original inspection report, or thereafter, shall be recorded on this report or a separate work agreement and shall specify a price for each recommendation. This information shall be provided to the person requesting the inspection, and shall be retained by the registered company with the inspection report copy for three years.

SEC. 11. Section 8516.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8516.1. (a) This section applies only to work conducted by a wood roof cleaning and treatment registered company or licensee.

(b) No wood roof cleaning and treatment registered company or licensee shall commence work on a contract, or sign, issue, or deliver any documents expressing an opinion or statement relating to the absence or presence of wood destroying organisms or nondecay fungi on a wood shake or shingle roof until an inspection has been made. All inspections performed by these registered companies or licensees shall be on properties that are not offered for sale, lease, or exchange, and shall be limited to the wood shakes or shingles on wood shake or shingle roofs and may only be performed for purposes of detecting the presence or absence of wood destroying organisms such as decay fungi on the wood shakes or shingles and resulting decay, or nondecay fungi such as mold, mildew, lichen, or moss on the wood shakes or shingles.

(c) All wood roof cleaning and treatment registered companies shall retain for three years all field reports from which a verbal or written estimate of or solutions for work are made. A written inspection report conforming to this section shall be on a form prescribed by the board and shall be prepared and delivered to the person requesting the inspection or to the person's designated agent within five days of the inspection if a contract is executed to perform the work. A copy of each report shall be filed with the board at the time the report is delivered or not later than five working days after the date the contract is executed to perform corrective work, except a report prepared for use by an attorney for litigation is not required to be filed with the board. The report shall be delivered to the person requesting the inspection, or to the person's designated agent, before work is commenced. The following items shall be set forth in the report:

(1) The date of the inspection and the name of the licensee making the inspection.

(2) The name and address of the person or firm ordering the report.

(3) The name and address of any person who is a party in interest.

(4) The address or location of the property.

(5) A general description of the roof covering inspected.

(6) A diagram or sketch of the roof inspected indicating thereon the type and approximate location of any infection of wood destroying organisms or nondecay fungi.

(7) Information regarding conditions usually deemed likely to lead to infection of wood destroying organisms and nondecay fungi.

(8) Recommendations for corrective measures.

(9) Information regarding the wood preservative to be used for control of the wood destroying organisms and nondecay fungi as set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 8538.

(10) A statement printed in 10-point boldface type, stating that the corrective measures will not improve the water tightness of the roof and if the person or entity who ordered the report wants the roof inspected for a determination of water tightness, that person or entity should contact a roofing contractor who is licensed by the Contractors' State License Board.

(11) For purposes of this section and Section 8516, "water tightness" means that at the time the inspection was performed the roof would not, under normal climatic conditions, leak.

(d) At the time the report is ordered, the registered company or licensee shall inform the person or entity ordering the report, that a separated report is available pursuant to this subdivision. If a separated report is requested at the time the inspection report is ordered, the registered company or licensee shall separately identify on the report each recommendation for corrective measures as follows:

(1) The infection that is evident.

(2) The conditions that are present that are deemed likely to lead to infection of wood destroying organisms such as decay fungus.

(3) The conditions that are present that are nondecay fungi such as mold, mildew, lichen, or moss.

If the registered company or licensee fails to comply with the requirements of this subdivision and a dispute arises, or if any dispute arises as to whether this subdivision has been complied with, a separate report shall be provided to the person or entity ordering the report within 24 hours of that request, but in no event later than the next business day, and at no additional cost.

(e) The report and any contract entered into shall also state specifically when any guarantee for the work is made, and if so, the specific terms of the guarantee and the period of time for which the guarantee shall take effect.

(f) All work recommended by the registered company, where an estimate or bid for making repairs was given with the original inspection report, or thereafter, shall be recorded on that report or a separate work agreement and shall specify a price for each recommendation. This information shall be provided to the person requesting the inspection, and shall be retained by the registered company with the inspection report copy for two years.

(g) All wood roof cleaning and treatment registered companies shall possess a current roofing contractor's license issued by the Contractors' State License Board.

SEC. 12. Section 8516.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8516.5. Any registered company that makes an inspection of any property relating to the absence or presence of wood destroying pests or organisms on such property and makes a report of such inspection shall furnish a copy of the report either to the owner of the property or to the agent of the owner, within 10 working days after the date the inspection is commenced, except an inspection report prepared for use by an attorney for litigation is not required to be furnished.

SEC. 13. Section 8528 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8528. With the approval of the director, the board shall appoint a registrar, fix his or her compensation and prescribe his or her duties.

The registrar is the executive officer and secretary of the board.

SEC. 14. Section 8538 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8538. (a) A registered structural pest control company shall provide the owner, or owner's agent, and tenant of the premises for which the work is to be done with clear written notice which contains the following statements and information using words with common and everyday meaning:

(1) The pest to be controlled or in the case of wood roof cleaning and treatment registered company applications, the purpose of applying the wood preservative or preservatives.

(2) The pesticide or pesticides proposed to be used, and the active ingredient or ingredients.

(3) "State law requires that you be given the following information: CAUTION—PESTICIDES ARE TOXIC CHEMICALS. Structural Pest Control Companies are registered and regulated by the Structural Pest Control Board, and apply pesticides which are registered and approved for use by the California Department of Pesticide Regulation and the United States Environmental Protection Agency. Registration is granted when the state finds that based on existing scientific evidence there are no appreciable risks if proper use conditions are followed or that the risks are outweighed by the benefits. The degree of risk depends upon the degree of exposure, so exposure should be minimized."

"If within 24 hours following application you experience symptoms similar to common seasonal illness comparable to the flu, contact your physician or poison control center (telephone number) and your pest control company immediately." (This statement shall be modified to include any other symptoms of overexposure which are not typical of influenza.)

"For further information, contact any of the following: Your Pest Control Company (telephone number); for Health Questions—the County Health Department (telephone number); for Application Information—the County Agricultural Commissioner (telephone number) and for Regulatory Information—the Structural Pest Control Board (telephone number and address)."

(b) In the case of Branch 1 applications, the notice, as prescribed by subdivision (a), shall be provided at least 48 hours prior to application unless fumigation follows inspection by less than 48 hours.

In the case of Branch 2, Branch 3, or wood roof cleaning and treatment registered company applications, the notice, as prescribed by subdivision (a) shall be provided no later than prior to application.

In either case, the notice shall be given to the owner, or owner's agent, and tenant, if there is a tenant, in at least one of the following ways:

(1) First-class mail.

(2) Posting in a conspicuous place on the real property.

(3) Personal delivery.

If the building is commercial or industrial, a notice shall be posted in a conspicuous place, unless the owner or owner's agent objects, in addition to any other notification required by this section.

The notice shall only be required to be provided at the time of the initial treatment if a contract for periodic service has been executed. If the pesticide to be used is changed, another notice shall be required to be provided in the manner previously set forth herein.

(c) Any person or licensee who, or registered company which, violates any provision of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and is punishable as set forth in Section 8553.

SEC. 15. Section 8550 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8550. (a) It is unlawful for any individual to engage or offer to engage in the business of, act in the capacity of, or advertise himself or herself as, or assume to act as, an operator or a field representative, or to engage or offer to engage in the practice of structural pest control, unless he or she is licensed under this chapter. For purposes of this subdivision, "engage in the practice of structural pest control" shall not include price quotations given by unlicensed employees of a registered company in response to a request for that information.

(b) It is unlawful for any firm, partnership, corporation, association, or other organization or combination thereof to engage or offer to engage in the practice of structural pest control, unless registered in accordance with Article 6 (commencing with Section 8610).

SEC. 16. Section 8551.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8551.5. No unlicensed individual in the employ of a registered company shall apply any pesticide, rodenticide, or allied chemicals or substances for the purpose of eliminating, exterminating, controlling, or preventing infestation or infections of pests, or organisms included in Branch 2, Branch 3, or wood roof cleaning and treatment. However, an individual may, for 30 days from the date of hire, apply pesticides, rodenticides, or allied chemicals for the purposes of training under the direct supervision of a licensed field representative or operator employed by the company. This direct supervision means in the presence of the licensed field representative or operator at all times. The 30-day time period may not be extended.

SEC. 17. Section 8555 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8555. This chapter does not apply to:

(a) Public utilities operating under the regulations of the State Railroad Commission, except to work performed upon property of the utilities not subject to the jurisdiction of the Railroad Commission or work done by the utility for hire.

(b) Persons engaged only in agricultural pest control work under permit or license by the State Department of Pesticide Regulation or a county agricultural commissioner.

(c) Pest control performed by persons upon property that they own, lease or rent, except that the persons shall be subject to the limitations imposed by Article 3 of this chapter.

(d) Governmental agencies, state, federal, city, or county officials, and their employees while officially engaged.

(e) Authorized representatives of any educational institution or state or federal agency engaged in research or study of pest control, or engaged in investigation or preparation for expert opinion or testimony. Any professional engaging in research, study, investigation, or preparation for expert opinion or testimony on his or her own behalf shall comply with the requirements of this chapter.

(f) Certified architects and registered civil engineers, acting solely within their professional capacity, except that they shall be subject to the limitations imposed by Article 3 of this chapter.

SEC. 18. Section 8560 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8560. (a) Licenses issued to operators, field representatives, or applicators shall be limited to the branch or branches of pest control or wood roof cleaning and treatment for which the applicant has qualified by application and examination.

(1) For the purpose of delimiting the type and character of work authorized by the various branch licenses hereinafter set forth, the practice of pest control is classified into the following branches, namely:

Branch 1. Fumigation. The practice relating to the control of household and wood destroying pests or organisms by fumigation with poisonous or lethal gases.

Branch 2. General pest. The practice relating to the control of household pests, excluding fumigation with poisonous or lethal gases.

Branch 3. Termite. The practice relating to the control of wood destroying pests or organisms by the use of insecticides, or structural repairs and corrections, excluding fumigation with poisonous or lethal gases.

(2) For the purposes of delimiting the type and character of work authorized for wood roof cleaning and treatment registered companies, the following apply:

The practice of inspecting wood shake or shingle roofs to determine the presence or absence of (A) wood destroying organisms including decay fungi on the wood shakes or shingles, and resulting decay, and (B) nondecay fungi including mold, mildew, lichen, or moss; cleaning the wood shakes or shingles; and applying wood preservatives to the wood shakes or shingles to prevent infection of wood destroying organisms or nondecay fungi or further damage from wood destroying organisms.

(b) The board may issue a license for a combination of two or more branches and wood roof cleaning and treatment for which an applicant qualifies under the provisions of this chapter, and the combination license shall be considered one license.

(c) Unless otherwise authorized by the board, all written examinations shall be in ink in books supplied by the board. All examination papers shall be kept for a period of one year, upon the expiration of which these papers may be destroyed on order of the board. Each applicant for license as an operator or a field representative shall be designated by a number instead of by name, and the identity thereof shall not be disclosed until the examination papers are graded. No person shall be admitted to the examination room except members of the board, the examining personnel, and the applicants for license.

(d) The board shall make rules and regulations for the purpose of securing fair, impartial, and proper examinations.

(e) Licensees may be licensed in other branches or in wood roof cleaning and treatment upon complying with the requirements for qualification and by examination in those other branches, or wood roof cleaning and treatment. No failure of the licensee to pass examination in the other branch or branches or wood roof cleaning and treatment shall have any effect on existing licenses.

(f) The examination shall be in each of the subjects specified in the branch, branches, or wood roof cleaning and treatment relating to the respective applications. License according to the applications shall be granted to any applicant who shall make a general average of not less than 70 percent on each of the subjects of the branch or branches or wood roof cleaning and treatment.

SEC. 19. Section 8562 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8562. To obtain an original operator's license, an applicant shall submit to the registrar an application in writing containing the statement that the applicant desires the issuance of an operator's license under the terms of this chapter.

The application shall be made on forms prescribed by the board and issued by the registrar in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the board, and shall contain the following:

(a) The name of the applicant.

(b) Proof satisfactory to the board that the applicant has had actual experience for a period of not less than the time specified opposite the branches of pest control or wood roof cleaning and treatment listed below in the employ of a registered company in the State of California in the particular branch or branches of pest control or wood roof cleaning and treatment for which the applicant desires to be licensed, or the equivalent of that experience:

Branch 1	2 years
Branch 2	2 years
Branch 3	4 years
Wood roof cleaning and treatment	2 years

For the purpose of this subdivision one year shall equal 1,600 hours of actual experience in the field. However, any person applying for a license in wood roof cleaning and treatment on or before June 30, 1995, who was actively involved in the business of commercially applying wood preservatives to wood shake or shingle roofs for at least two years in the five-year period prior to July 1, 1990, is deemed to have sufficient experience for wood roof cleaning and treatment, provided the person submits proof to the board of that experience, and that person shall not be required to demonstrate to the board that he or she has satisfactorily passed the courses specified in Section 8565.5 as a condition for the issuance of that operator's license.

(c) A designation of the branch, branches, or wood roof cleaning and treatment for which the application is made.

(d) The fees prescribed by this chapter.

(e) No operator's license shall be issued to an individual under 18 years of age.

(f) Effective January 1, 1993, an operator's license shall not be issued to an individual unless that individual has been licensed as a field representative in the branch or in wood roof cleaning and treatment in which the individual has applied for an operator's license for a period of at least one year, in the case of Branches 1 and 2, and wood roof cleaning and treatment, or for a period of at least two years for Branch 3, or has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the board that he or she has the equivalent of that training and experience.

SEC. 20. Section 8564 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8564. To obtain an original field representative's license, an applicant shall submit to the registrar an application in writing containing a statement that the applicant desires the issuance of a field representative's license under the terms of this chapter.

The application shall be made on a form prescribed by the board and issued by the registrar in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the board, and shall contain the following:

(a) The length of time during which the applicant has engaged in any work relating to pest control.

(b) The name and place of business of the person who last employed him or her.

(c) The name of the person by whom the applicant is employed.

(d) The name of the registered company by which the applicant is to be employed.

(e) The fees prescribed by this chapter.

The board shall not accept any application for a field representative's license in Branch 1 unless the applicant submits proof satisfactory to the board that he or she has had six months' training and experience in the practice of fumigating with poisonous or lethal gases under the immediate supervision of an individual licensed to practice fumigating, or the equivalent of that training and experience.

The board shall not accept any application for a field representative's license in Branch 2 unless the applicant submits proof satisfactory to the board that he or she has had training and experience in the practice of pesticide application, Branch 2 pest identification and biology, pesticide application equipment, and pesticide hazards and safety practice under the immediate supervision of an operator or field representative licensed in Branch 2, or the equivalent of that training and experience.

The board shall not accept any application for a field representative's license in Branch 3 unless the applicant submits proof satisfactory to the board that he or she has had training and experience in the practice of pesticide application, Branch 3 pest identification and biology, pesticide application equipment, pesticide hazards and safety practices, structural repairs, and structural inspection procedures and report writing under the immediate supervision of an operator or field representative licensed in Branch 3, or the equivalent of that training and experience.

The board shall not accept any application for a field representative's license in wood roof cleaning and treatment unless the applicant submits proof satisfactory to the board that he or she has had experience and training in the practice of identification of wood destroying organisms and nondecay fungi on wood shake or shingle roofs, wood preservative application equipment, wood preservative hazards and safety practices, wood shake or shingle roof inspection procedures and report writing under the immediate supervision of an operator or field representative licensed in wood roof cleaning and treatment, and wood preservative application procedures, or the equivalent of that experience and training.

SEC. 21. Section 8564.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8564.5. (a) Any individual 18 years of age or older may apply for a license as applicator.

(b) The board shall ascertain by written examination that an applicant for a license as applicator in Branch 2 or Branch 3 has sufficient knowledge in pesticide equipment, pesticide mixing and formulation, pesticide application procedures and pesticide label directions.

(c) The board shall ascertain by written examination that an applicant for a license as applicator in wood roof cleaning and treatment has sufficient knowledge of wood preservative application equipment, wood preservative application procedures, mixing and formulation and wood preservative label directions.

(d) Passage of the written examination authorizes an individual to apply any chemical substance in Branch 2 or Branch 3 or any wood preservative as part of a roof restoration process for a period not to exceed three years at which time he or she shall again apply for renewal of his or her license and successfully pass the written examination.

(e) The board may charge a fee for any examination required by this section in an amount sufficient to cover the cost of administering the examination, provided, however, that the fee shall not exceed fifteen dollars ($15).

(f) Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit an applicator, authorized to apply any chemical substance in Branch 2 or Branch 3 or wood preservative as part of a roof restoration process before January 1, 1995, from acting as an applicator pursuant to that authorization. Upon expiration of the authorization, an applicator's license shall be required.

SEC. 22. Section 8564.6 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

8564.6. To obtain an original applicator's license, an applicant shall submit to the registrar an application in writing containing a statement that the applicant requests the issuance of an applicator's license under the terms of this chapter.

The application shall be made on a form prescribed by the board and issued by the registrar in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the board and shall contain the following:

(a) The name of the registered company by which the applicant is to be employed.

(b) The fee prescribed by this chapter.

SEC. 23. Section 8565 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8565. The board shall ascertain by written examination that an applicant for a license as operator is qualified in the use and understanding of all of the following:

(a) The English language, including reading, writing, and spelling.

(b) The building and safety laws of the state and any of its political subdivisions, if the branch or branches of pest control, or wood roof cleaning and treatment for which he or she is applying, require that knowledge.

(c) The labor laws of the state.

(d) The provisions of this chapter.

(e) Poisonous and other dangerous chemicals used in pest control, if the branch license or licenses for which he or she is applying, require that knowledge.

(f) The theory and practice of the branch or branches of pest control or wood roof cleaning and treatment in which the applicant desires to be licensed.

(g) Other state laws, safety or health measures, or practices that are reasonably within the scope of structural pest control in the various branches or in wood roof cleaning and treatment, including an applicant's knowledge of the requirements regarding health effects and restrictions on applications, as set forth in Section 8538.

SEC. 24. Section 8565.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8565.5. (a) An applicant for a Branch 1 operator's license shall demonstrate to the board that he or she has passed satisfactorily board-approved courses in the following areas:

(1) Pesticides.
(2) Pest identification and biology.
(3) Contract law.
(4) Rules and regulations.
(5) Business practices.
(6) Fumigation safety.

(b) An applicant for a Branch 2 operator's license shall demonstrate to the board that he or she has passed satisfactorily board-approved courses in the following areas:

(1) Pesticides.
(2) Pest identification and biology.
(3) Contract law.
(4) Rules and regulations.
(5) Business practices.

(c) An applicant for a Branch 3 operator's license shall demonstrate to the board that he or she has passed satisfactorily board-approved courses in the following areas:

(1) Pesticides.
(2) Pest identification and biology.
(3) Contract law.
(4) Rules and regulations.
(5) Business practices.
(6) Construction repair and preservation techniques.

(d) An applicant for a wood roof cleaning and treatment operator's license shall demonstrate to the board that he or she has passed satisfactorily board-approved courses in the following areas:

(1) Contract law.
(2) Rules and regulations.
(3) Business practices.
(4) Wood preservatives.
(5) Identification of wood destroying organisms and nondecay fungi on wood shake or shingle roofs.

The board shall develop a correspondence course or courses with any educational institution or institutions as it deems appropriate. These courses may be used to fulfill the requirements of this section. The institution may charge a reasonable fee for each course.

SEC. 25. Section 8566 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8566. The board shall ascertain by written examination that an applicant for a license as field representative is qualified in the use and understanding of the following:

(a) The safety laws of the state, if the branch or branches of pest control or wood roof cleaning and treatment for which he or she is applying, require that knowledge.

(b) The provisions of this chapter.

(c) Poisonous and other dangerous chemicals used in pest control and wood roof cleaning and treatment, if the branch or branches of pest control or wood roof cleaning and treatment for which he or she is applying, require that knowledge.

(d) The theory and practice of pest control in the branch or branches thereof or in wood roof cleaning and treatment for which the applicant desires to be licensed.

(e) Other state laws, safety or health measures, or practices as are reasonably within the scope of structural pest control in the various branches and in wood roof cleaning and treatment.

SEC. 26. Section 8566.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8566.5. An individual shall be permitted to hold only one license in the same branch or in wood roof cleaning and treatment at the same time.

If an individual who holds an operator's license requests to be licensed as a field representative or applicator, he or she may apply for a field representative's license or applicator's license and shall be granted the license without examination, if he or she surrenders his or her operator's license to the board, and provided that no disciplinary action has been initiated against the operator's license prior to the date of the individual's application for a field representative's license or applicator's license.

If an individual who holds a field representative's license requests to be licensed as an applicator, he or she may apply for an applicator's license and he or she shall be granted the license without examination, if he or she surrenders his or her field representative's license to the board, and if no disciplinary action has been initiated against the field representative's license prior to the date of the individual's application for an applicator's license.

SEC. 27. Section 8567 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8567. Should a field representative or applicator change his or her employment, or should an operator enter the employ of a registered company, or being already employed by a registered company change his or her employment, or being employed by a registered company leave that employment and enter the pest control business on his or her own behalf, he or she shall notify the registrar in writing, on a form prescribed by the board and issued by the registrar in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the board. Whereupon the registrar shall register the change in his or her records.

SEC. 28. Section 8572 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 29. Section 8590 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8590. Except as otherwise provided herein, all operator's and field representative's licenses shall expire at 12 midnight on June 30 of every third year and all applicator's licenses shall expire at 12 midnight three years from the date of issue.

An individual licensed in more than one category may request that each license expire on the same date. The date requested shall be the date of the earliest expiration.

Every operator and every field representative shall pay a fee for the renewal of his or her license.

The board shall on or before the first day of June of each year mail to each operator and field representative whose license will expire in that year, addressed to him or her at his or her last known address, a notice that his or her renewal fee is due and payable and that, if not paid by June 30, a penalty will be added thereto.

In no case shall the penalty be waived.

Upon the receipt of the fee the board shall cause the renewal certificate to be issued.

SEC. 30. Section 8590.1 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

8590.1. All applicator's licenses shall expire at 12 midnight three years from the date of issue. Every applicator shall pay a fee for the renewal of his or her license.

The board shall, on or before 60 days prior to the expiration of an applicator's license, mail to the applicator whose license will expire, addressed to him or her at his or her last known address, a notice that his or her renewal fee is due and payable and that, if not paid by the due date, a penalty will be added thereto. In no case shall the penalty be waived. Upon the receipt of the fee, the board shall cause the renewal certificate to be issued.

SEC. 31. Section 8591 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8591. If delinquency in the payment of the fee for renewal of any operator's or field representative's license extends beyond three months, the license may not be reinstated and the licensee may be required to obtain a new license in accordance with the provisions of Article 4 (commencing with Section 8560).

SEC. 32. Section 8592 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8592. Any operator, field representative, or applicator whose license is under suspension may make application for renewal of his or her license as provided in this article, but the board may not renew his or her license until the suspension has been lifted.

SEC. 33. Section 8593 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8593. The board shall require as a condition to the renewal of each operator's and field representative's license that the holder thereof submit proof satisfactory to the board that he or she has informed himself or herself of developments in the field of pest control either by completion of courses of continuing education in pest control approved by the board or equivalent activity approved by the board. In lieu of submitting that proof, the license holder, if he or she so desires, may take and successfully complete an examination given by the board, designed to test his or her knowledge of developments in the field of pest control since the issuance of his or her license.

The board shall develop a correspondence course or courses with any educational institution or institutions as it deems appropriate. This course may be used to fulfill the requirements of this section. The institution may charge a reasonable fee for each course.

The board may charge a fee for the taking of an examination in each branch of pest control and in wood roof cleaning and treatment pursuant to this section in an amount sufficient to cover the cost of administering each examination, provided, however, that in no event shall the fee exceed fifty dollars ($50) for each examination.

SEC. 34. Section 8593.1 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

8593.1. The board shall require as a condition to the renewal of each applicator's license that the holder thereof submit proof satisfactory to the board that he or she has completed courses of continuing education in pesticide application and use approved by the board or equivalent activity approved by the board. In lieu of submitting that proof, the licenseholder, if he or she so desires, may successfully apply for and pass an appropriate written applicator's examination for renewal of a license given by the board.

SEC. 35. Section 8611 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8611. Each branch office shall have a branch supervisor designated by the registered company to supervise and assist the company's employees who are located at that branch. The branch supervisor shall be an individual who is licensed by the board as an operator or a field representative.

If a branch supervisor ceases for any reason to be connected with a registered company, the company shall notify the registrar in writing within 10 days from that cessation. If this notice is given, the company's branch office registration shall remain in force for a reasonable length of time to be determined by rules of the board, during which period the company shall submit to the registrar in writing the name of another qualified branch supervisor.

SEC. 36. Section 8616 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8616. The Director of Pesticide Regulation shall be designated by the board as its agent for the purposes of carrying out Section 8616.4. The board and the Department of Pesticide Regulation shall jointly develop a training program specifically relating to the various aspects of structural pest control and train all county agricultural commissioners and other personnel involved in structural pest control investigations and enforcement. No disciplinary action pursuant to Section 8617 may be taken by a county agricultural commissioner until training has been completed.

SEC. 37. Section 8616.4 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8616.4. The Director of Pesticide Regulation shall designate county agricultural commissioners as his or her representatives to carry out the provisions of Sections 8616.5, 8616.7, and 8617. The Director of Pesticide Regulation shall enter into a contract specifying their responsibilities and providing for reimbursement in accordance with Section 8505.17.

SEC. 38. Section 8616.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8616.5. (a) The county agricultural commissioner shall be the lead agency for inspections and routine investigations of pesticide use by the board licensees and registered companies. When a matter is referred to the board for action, the board shall be the lead agency and may require that the commissioner assist in any investigation.

(b) The board and the Director of Pesticide Regulation shall jointly develop the list of the types of investigations to be conducted by the commissioner that may result in the suspension of a license or company registration, or the imposition of a fine, pursuant to Section 8617 and the list of the types of violations that the commissioner shall refer to the board for disciplinary action.

(c) As used in subdivision (a), the term "routine investigations" means all investigations of pesticide misuse by a board licensee or registered company except (1) investigation of misuse incidents which are referred to the board for disciplinary action or which are the basis for county actions to suspend or fine structural pest control or wood cleaning and treatment licensees or registered companies in accordance with the lists promulgated pursuant to subdivision (b), or (2) any investigation performed by the county agricultural commissioner which has been requested by the board and involves exclusively a violation of this code.

SEC. 39. Section 8616.6 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8616.6. The Director of Pesticide Regulation shall be notified by the board when it determines that persons acting pursuant to Sections 8616 and 8616.4 have not fulfilled their responsibilities under this chapter in a specific county or counties. The notice to the Director of Pesticide Regulation, which shall be dealt with in a timely manner, shall specifically list the actions which caused the filing of the notice. If the notice is not dealt with in a manner satisfactory to the board, the board may then suspend the activities of its agent pursuant to Section 8616.5, who is subject to the notice in the specific county or counties for which the notice was filed for a period not to exceed 60 days.

SEC. 39.5. Section 8616.9 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

8616.9. If an employee is found during an inspection or investigation not wearing personal protective equipment required by regulation, the commissioner shall have the option to use discretion in citing an employer only if evidence of all of the following is provided:

(a) The employer has a written training program, has provided training to the employee, and has maintained a record of training as required by regulation.

(b) The employer provided personal protective equipment required by regulation, the equipment was available at the site when the employee was handling the pesticide or pesticides, and the equipment was properly maintained and in good working order.

(c) The employer is in compliance with regulations relating to the workplace and supervision of employees.

(d) The employer has implemented and adheres to a written company policy of disciplinary action for employees who violate company policy or state or local laws or regulations.

(e) The employer has no history of repeated violations of this section.

SEC. 40. Section 8618 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

8618. Documents as specified by regulation must be maintained by all registered companies for three years.

SEC. 41. Section 8619 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

8619. (a) An inspection tag shall be posted whenever an inspection for wood destroying pests or organisms is made.

(b) If the registered company completes any work with respect to wood destroying pests or organisms, it shall post a completion tag next to the inspection tag.

SEC. 42. Section 8620 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8620. The board may upon its own motion, and shall upon verified complaint in writing of any person, investigate the actions of any individual acting as a licensee, or making application for a license.

After a hearing, the board may temporarily suspend or permanently revoke a license issued under this chapter if the holder, while a licensee or applicant, is guilty of or commits any one or more of the acts or omissions constituting grounds for disciplinary action. In addition to its authority to suspend or revoke a license, the board may assess a civil penalty as follows:

(a) Upon the conclusion of a hearing held pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, if the proposed decision of the hearing officer is that the licensee is guilty of or has committed any one of the acts or omissions constituting grounds for disciplinary action, the proposed decision shall provide for the imposition of a suspension or for the revocation of the license. In this case, the board may impose the suspension or revocation. The board may also, in lieu of a suspension, assess a civil penalty. The licensee may express a preference for a form of discipline, but the board shall not be bound by any expression of preference.

If a licensee elects to stipulate to a disciplinary action prior to an administrative hearing, the board may impose a civil penalty, in accordance with this section, in lieu of suspension.

If a proposed stipulation is rejected by the board, it is null and void and does not constitute an admission of any violation charged.

(b) The civil penalty shall not be more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) for an actual suspension of one to 19 days.

(c) The civil penalty shall not be more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for an actual suspension of 20 to 45 days.

(d) If a licensee is assessed the civil penalty in lieu of an actual suspension, the penalty shall be paid before the effective date of the decision.

(e) If the civil penalty is not paid before the effective date of the suspension, the license shall be suspended until the penalty is paid or until the actual suspension is served.

No civil penalty shall be assessed in lieu of any suspension which exceeds 45 days. With the exception of the proceedings on suspensions undertaken or on fines levied pursuant to Section 8617, the proceedings under this article shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and the board shall have all the powers granted therein.

In any order of suspension or revocation, the board may authorize the completion of any contract or work contracted for under terms and conditions set forth in the order.

SEC. 43. Section 8622 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8622. When a complaint is accepted for investigation of a registered company, the board, through an authorized representative, may inspect any or all properties on which a report has been issued pursuant to Section 8516 or a notice of completion has been issued pursuant to Section 8518 by such registered company to determine compliance with the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations issued thereunder. If the board determines the property or properties are not in compliance, a notice shall be sent to the registered company so stating. The registered company shall have 30 days from the receipt of the notice to bring such property into compliance, and it shall submit a new original report or completion notice or both and an inspection fee of not more than one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125) for each property inspected. If a subsequent reinspection is necessary, pursuant to the board's review of the corrected report or notice or both, a commensurate reinspection fee shall also be charged. If the board's authorized representative makes no determination or determines the property is in compliance, no inspection fee shall be charged.

The notice sent to the registered company shall inform the registered company that if it desires a hearing to contest such finding of noncompliance, the hearing shall be requested by written notice to the board within 20 days of receipt of the notice of noncompliance from the board. Where a hearing is not requested pursuant to this section, payment of any assessment shall not constitute an admission of any noncompliance charged.

SEC. 44. Section 8642 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8642. The commission of any grossly negligent or fraudulent act by the licensee as a pest control operator, field representative, or applicator or by a registered company is a ground for disciplinary action.

SEC. 45. Section 8649 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8649. Conviction of a crime substantially related to the qualifications, functions, and duties of a structural pest control operator, field representative, applicator, or registered company is a ground for disciplinary action. The certified record of conviction shall be conclusive evidence thereof.

SEC. 46. Section 8651 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8651. The performing or soliciting of structural pest control work, the inspecting for structural or household pests, or the applying of any pesticide, chemical, or allied substance for the purpose of eliminating, exterminating, controlling, or preventing structural pests in branches of pest control or wood roof cleaning and treatment other than those for which the operator, field representative, or applicator is licensed or the company is registered is a ground for disciplinary action.

SEC. 47. Section 8652 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8652. Failure of a registered company to make and keep all inspection reports, contracts, documents, and records, other than financial records, for a period of not less than three years after completion of any work or operation for the control of structural pests or organisms, is a ground for disciplinary action. These records shall be made available to the registrar during business hours.

SEC. 48. Section 8655 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8655. A plea or verdict of guilty or a conviction following a plea of nolo contendere made to a charge substantially related to the qualifications, functions, and duties of a structural pest control operator, field representative, applicator, or registered company is deemed to be a conviction within the meaning of this article or Section 8568 of this chapter. The board may order the license or registration suspended or revoked, or may decline to issue a license, when the time for appeal has elapsed, or the judgment of conviction has been affirmed on appeal or when an order granting probation is made suspending the imposition of sentence, irrespective of a subsequent order under the provisions of Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code allowing the individual or registered company to withdraw a plea of guilty and to enter a plea of not guilty, or setting aside the verdict of guilty, or dismissing the accusation, information or indictment.

SEC. 49. Section 8665 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

8665. The fact that an applicator is licensed shall not affect any liability or responsibility for disciplinary action of any operator, field representative, or registered company that employs or supervises an applicator.

SEC. 50. Section 8674 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8674. The amount of the fees prescribed by this chapter is that fixed by the following schedule:

(a) A duplicate license fee of not more than two dollars ($2).

(b) A fee for filing a change of name of a licensee of not more than two dollars ($2).

(c) An operator's examination fee of not more than twenty-five dollars ($25).

(d) An operator's license fee of not more than one hundred fifty dollars ($150).

(e) An operator's license renewal fee of not more than one hundred fifty dollars ($150).

(f) A company registration fee of not more than one hundred twenty dollars ($120).

(g) A branch office registration fee of not more than sixty dollars ($60).

(h) A field representative's examination fee of not more than fifteen dollars ($15).

(i) A field representative's license fee of not more than forty-five dollars ($45).

(j) A field representative's license renewal fee of not more than forty-five dollars ($45).

(k) An applicator's examination fee of not more than fifteen dollars ($15).

(l) An applicator's license fee of not more than fifty dollars ($50).

(m) An applicator's license renewal fee of not more than fifty dollars ($50).

(n) An inspection report filing fee of not more than three dollars ($3).

(o) A fee for certifying a copy of an inspection report of not more than three dollars ($3).

(p) A fee for filing a notice of work completed of not more than two dollars ($2).

(q) A fee for filing a change of a registered company's name, principal office address, or branch office address, qualifying manager, or the names of a registered company's officers, or bond or insurance of not more than twenty-five dollars ($25) for each change.

(r) A fee for approval of continuing education providers of not more than fifty dollars ($50).

(s) A pesticide use report filing fee of not more than five dollars ($5) for each pesticide use report or combination of use reports representing a registered structural pest control company's total county pesticide use for the month.

(t) A fee for approval of continuing education courses of not more than twenty-five dollars ($25).

(u) (1) Any person who pays a fee pursuant to subdivision (s) shall, in addition, pay a fee of two dollars ($2) for each pesticide use stamp purchased from the board. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the fee established pursuant to this subdivision shall be deposited with a bank or other depository approved by the Department of Finance and designated by the Research Advisory Panel or into the Structural Pest Control Research Fund which is hereby created and continuously appropriated to be used only for structural pest control research. If the Research Advisory Panel designates that the fees be deposited in an account other than the Structural Pest Control Research Fund, any moneys in the fund shall be transferred to the designated account.

(2) Prior to the deposit of any funds, the depository shall enter into an agreement with the Department of Consumer Affairs that shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following requirements:

(A) The depository shall serve as custodian for the safekeeping of the funds.

(B) Funds deposited in the designated account shall be encumbered solely for the exclusive purpose of implementing and continuing the program for which they were collected.

(C) Funds deposited in the designated account shall be subject to an audit at least once every two years by an auditor selected by the Director of Consumer Affairs. A copy of the audit shall be provided to the director within 30 days of completion of the audit.

(D) The Department of Consumer Affairs shall be reimbursed for all expenses it incurs that are reasonably related to implementing and continuing the program for which the funds were collected in accordance with the agreement.

(E) A reserve in an amount sufficient to pay for costs arising from unanticipated occurrences associated with administration of the program shall be maintained in the designated account.

(3) A charge for administrative expenses of the board in an amount not to exceed 5 percent of the amount collected and deposited in the Structural Pest Control Research Fund may be assessed against the fund. The charge shall be limited to expenses directly related to the administration of the fund.

(4) The board shall, by regulation, establish a five-member research advisory panel including, but not limited to, representatives from each of the following: (1) the Structural Pest Control Board, (2) the structural pest control industry, (3) the Department of Pesticide Regulation, and (4) the University of California. The panel shall solicit and review research proposals for recommendation to the board. The board shall distribute funds to qualified applicants, pursuant to the panel's recommendation, upon a two-thirds vote.

SEC. 51. Section 8675 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8675. The fee for a renewal of any license issued under this chapter applied for after the expiration date of the license shall be 50 percent of the fee required for the renewal of the license applied for before the expiration date but not more than one hundred dollars ($100).

SEC. 52. Section 8690 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8690. The board shall not issue any company registration under this chapter unless the applicant shall have filed with the board on a form prescribed by the board written evidence of an insurance policy approved by the board or a bond as specified in this article, being in effect at the time of the issuance of the company registration. This written evidence shall include a provision that the board shall be given a 10-day notice by the insurance company or bonding company should the policy or bond be canceled or changed during the policy or bond period in a manner as to affect the written evidence.

CHAPTER 845

An act to amend Section 11126 of the Government Code, relating to open meetings.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11126 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11126. (a) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body from holding closed sessions during a regular or special meeting to consider the appointment, employment, or dismissal of a public employee or to hear complaints or charges brought against that employee by another person or employee unless the employee requests a public hearing. As a condition to holding a closed session on the complaints or charges to consider disciplinary action or to consider dismissal, the employee shall be given written notice of his or her right to have a public hearing, rather than a closed session, which notice shall be delivered to the employee personally or by mail at least 24 hours before the time for holding a regular or special meeting. If notice is not given, any disciplinary or other action taken against any employee at the closed session shall be null and void. The state body also may exclude from any public or closed session, during the examination of a witness, any or all other witnesses in the matter being investigated by the state body. Following the public hearing or closed session, the body may deliberate on the decision to be reached in a closed session.

For the purposes of this section, "employee" shall not include any person who is elected to, or appointed to a public office by, any state body. However, officers of the California State University who receive compensation for their services, other than per diem and ordinary and necessary expenses, shall, when engaged in that capacity, be considered employees. Furthermore, for purposes of this section, the term employee shall include a person exempt from civil service pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 4 of Article VII of the California Constitution.

(b) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent state bodies which administer the licensing of persons engaging in businesses or professions from holding closed sessions to prepare, approve, grade, or administer examinations.

(c) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent an advisory body of a state body which administers the licensing of persons engaged in businesses or professions from conducting a closed session to discuss matters which the advisory body has found would constitute an unwarranted invasion of the privacy of an individual licensee or applicant if discussed in an open meeting, provided the advisory body does not include a quorum of the members of the state body it advises. Those matters may include review of an applicant's qualifications for licensure and an inquiry specifically related to the state body's enforcement program concerning an individual licensee or applicant where the inquiry occurs prior to the filing of a civil, criminal, or administrative disciplinary action against the licensee or applicant by the state body.

(d) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prohibit a state body from holding a closed session to deliberate on a decision to be reached in a proceeding required to be conducted pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 or similar provisions of law.

(e) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent any state body from holding a closed session to consider matters affecting the national security.

(f) Nothing in this article shall be construed to grant a right to enter any correctional institution or the grounds of a correctional institution where that right is not otherwise granted by law, nor shall anything in this article be construed to prevent a state body from holding a closed session when considering and acting upon the determination of a term, parole, or release of any individual or other disposition of an individual case, or if public disclosure of the subjects under discussion or consideration is expressly prohibited by statute.

(g) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent any closed session to consider the conferring of honorary degrees, or gifts, donations, and bequests which the donor or proposed donor has requested in writing to be kept confidential.

(h) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board from holding a closed session for the purpose of holding a deliberative conference as provided in Section 11125.

(i) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body from holding closed sessions with its negotiator prior to the purchase, sale, exchange, or lease of real property by or for the state body to give instructions to its negotiator regarding the price and terms of payment for the purchase, sale, exchange, or lease.

However, prior to the closed session, the state body shall hold an open and public session in which it identifies the real property or real properties which the negotiations may concern and the person or persons with whom its negotiator may negotiate.

For purposes of this subdivision, the negotiator may be a member of the state body.

For purposes of this subdivision, "lease" includes renewal or renegotiation of a lease.

Nothing in this subdivision shall preclude a state body from holding a closed session for discussions regarding eminent domain proceedings pursuant to subdivision (q).

(j) (1) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the California Postsecondary Education Commission from holding closed sessions to consider matters pertaining to the appointment or termination of the Director of the California Postsecondary Education Commission.

(2) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education from holding closed sessions to consider matters pertaining to the appointment or termination of the Executive Director of the Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education.

(k) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the Franchise Tax Board from holding closed sessions for the purpose of discussion of confidential tax returns or data the public disclosure of which is prohibited by law, or from considering matters pertaining to the appointment or removal of the Executive Officer of the Franchise Tax Board.

(l) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the Board of Corrections from holding closed sessions when considering reports of crime conditions under Section 6027 of the Penal Code.

(m) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the State Air Resources Board from holding closed sessions when considering the proprietary specifications and performance data of manufacturers.

(n) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body that invests retirement, pension, or endowment funds from holding closed sessions when considering investment decisions. For purposes of consideration of shareholder voting on corporate stocks held by the state body, closed sessions for the purposes of voting may be held only with respect to election of corporate directors, election of independent auditors, and other financial issues that could have a material effect on the net income of the corporation. For the purpose of real property investment decisions that may be considered in a closed session pursuant to this subdivision, a state body shall also be exempt from the provision of subdivision (i) relating to the identification of real properties prior to the closed session.

(o) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body, or boards, commissions, administrative officers, or other representatives that may properly be designated by law or by a state body, from holding closed sessions with its representatives in discharging its responsibilities under Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 3500) of Division 4 of Title 1 as the sessions relate to salaries, salary schedules, or compensation paid in the form of fringe benefits. For the purposes enumerated in the preceding sentence, a state body may also meet with a state conciliator who has intervened in the proceedings.

(p) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any meeting of the Public Utilities Commission at which the rates of entities under the commission's jurisdiction are changed shall be open and public.

Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the Public Utilities Commission from holding closed sessions to deliberate on the institution of proceedings, or disciplinary actions against regulated utilities.

(q) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body, based on the advice of its legal counsel, from holding a closed session to confer with, or receive advice from, its legal counsel regarding pending litigation when discussion in open session concerning those matters would prejudice the position of the state body in the litigation.

For purposes of this article, all expressions of the lawyer-client privilege other than those provided in this subdivision are hereby abrogated. This subdivision is the exclusive expression of the lawyer-client privilege for purposes of conducting closed-session meetings pursuant to this article. For purposes of this subdivision, litigation shall be considered pending when any of the following circumstances exist:

(1) An adjudicatory proceeding before a court, an administrative body exercising its adjudicatory authority, a hearing officer, or an arbitrator, to which the state body is a party, has been initiated formally.

(2) (A) A point has been reached where, in the opinion of the state body on the advice of its legal counsel, based on existing facts and circumstances, there is a significant exposure to litigation against the state body; or

(B) Based on existing facts and circumstances, the state body is meeting only to decide whether a closed session is authorized pursuant to subparagraph (A).

(3) Based on existing facts and circumstances, the state body has decided to initiate or is deciding whether to initiate litigation.

The legal counsel of the state body shall prepare and submit to it a memorandum stating the specific reasons and legal authority for the closed session. If the closed session is pursuant to paragraph (1), the memorandum shall include the title of the litigation. If the closed session is pursuant to paragraph (2) or (3), the memorandum shall include the existing facts and circumstances on which it is based. The legal counsel shall submit the memorandum to the state body prior to the closed session, if feasible, and in any case no later than one week after the closed session. The memorandum shall be exempt from disclosure pursuant to Section 6254.25.

For purposes of this subdivision, "litigation" includes any adjudicatory proceeding, including eminent domain, before a court, administrative body exercising its adjudicatory authority, hearing officer, or arbitrator.

Disclosure of a memorandum required under this subdivision shall not be deemed as a waiver of the lawyer-client privilege, as provided for under Article 3 (commencing with Section 950) of Chapter 4 of Division 8 of the Evidence Code.

(r) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body operating under a joint powers agreement for insurance pooling from holding a closed session to discuss a claim for the payment of tort liability or public liability losses incurred by the state body or any member agency under the joint powers agreement.

(s) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the examining committee established by the State Board of Forestry, pursuant to Section 763 of the Public Resources Code, from conducting a closed session to consider disciplinary action against an individual professional forester prior to the filing of an accusation against the forester pursuant to Section 11503.

(t) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent an administrative committee established by the State Board of Accountancy pursuant to Section 5020 or 5020.3 of the Business and Professions Code from conducting a closed session to consider disciplinary action against an individual accountant prior to the filing of an accusation against the accountant pursuant to Section 11503. Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent an examining committee established by the Board of Accountancy pursuant to Section 5023 of the Business and Professions Code from conducting a closed hearing to interview an individual applicant or accountant regarding the applicant's qualifications.

(u) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body, as defined in Section 11121.2, from conducting a closed session to consider any matter that properly could be considered in closed session by the state body whose authority it exercises.

(v) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body, as defined in Section 11121.7, from conducting a closed session to consider any matter that properly could be considered in a closed session by the body defined as a state body pursuant to Section 11121, 11121.2, or 11121.5.

(w) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body, as defined in Section 11121.8, from conducting a closed session to consider any matter that properly could be considered in a closed session by the state body it advises.

(x) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the State Board of Equalization from holding closed sessions for either of the following:

(1) When considering matters pertaining to the appointment or removal of the executive secretary of the State Board of Equalization.

(2) For the purpose of hearing confidential taxpayer appeals or data, the public disclosure of which is prohibited by law.

(y) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the California Earthquake Prediction Evaluation Council, or other body appointed to advise the Director of the Office of Emergency Services or the Governor pursuant to Section 8590 concerning matters relating to volcanic or earthquake predictions, from holding closed sessions when considering the evaluation of possible predictions.

(z) This article shall not prevent the Teachers' Retirement Board or the Board of Administration of the Public Employees' Retirement System from holding closed sessions when considering matters pertaining to the recruitment, appointment, employment, or removal of the chief executive officer or when considering matters pertaining to the recruitment or removal of the Chief Investment Officer of the State Teachers' Retirement System or the Public Employees' Retirement System.

(aa) This article shall not prevent the Commission on Teacher Credentialing from holding closed sessions when considering matters relating to the recruitment, appointment, or removal of its executive director.

An act to amend Sections 2051 and 10115.1 of the Public Contract Code, relating to public contracts.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2051 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

2051. As used in this chapter, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Awarding department" means any state agency, department, governmental entity, including the California State University, or officer or entity empowered by law to enter into contracts on behalf of the State of California.

(b) "Department" means the Department of Transportation.

(c) "Minority," for purposes of this section, means a citizen or lawful permanent resident of the United States who is an ethnic person of color and who is: Black (a person having origins in any of the Black racial groups of Africa); Hispanic (a person of Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban, Central or South American, or other Spanish or Portuguese culture or origin regardless of race); Native American (an American Indian, Eskimo, Aleut, or Native Hawaiian); Pacific-Asian (a person whose origins are from Japan, China, Taiwan, Korea, Vietnam, Laos, Cambodia, the Philippines, Samoa, Guam, or the United States Trust Territories of the Pacific or including the Northern Marianas); Asian-Indian (a person whose origins are from India, Pakistan, or Bangladesh); or any other group of natural persons identified as minorities in the respective project specifications of an awarding department or participating local agency.

(d) "Minority business enterprise" means a business concern that meets all of the following criteria:

(1) The business is at least 51 percent owned by one or more minorities or, in the case of any business whose stock is publicly held, at least 51 percent of the stock is owned by one or more minorities.

(2) A business whose management and daily operations are controlled by one or more minorities who own the business.

(3) A business concern with its home office located in the United States which is not a branch or subsidiary of a foreign corporation, firm, or other business.

(e) "Women business enterprise" means a business concern that meets all of the following criteria:

(1) The business is at least 51 percent owned by one or more women or, in the case of any business whose stock is publicly held, at least 51 percent of the stock is owned by one or more women.

(2) A business whose management and daily operations are controlled by one or more women who own the business.

(3) A business concern with its home office located in the United States which is not a branch or subsidiary of a foreign corporation, firm, or other business.

(f) A "disadvantaged business enterprise" means a business concern that is all of the following:

(1) A "disadvantaged business" as that term is used in Section 23.62 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(2) An individual proprietorship, partnership, corporation, or joint venture.

(3) Organized for profit, with a place of business located in the United States and which makes a significant contribution to the United States economy through payment of taxes or use of American products, materials, or labor.

(g) "Participating state or local agency" means any state or local agency that elects to participate in the certification process pursuant to this chapter. For purposes of this subdivision, the following definitions apply:

(1) "State agency" means any department, division, board, bureau, commission, or agency of the executive branch of government.

(2) "Local agency" means a county or city, whether general law or chartered, city and county, school district, or other district.

(3) "District" means an agency of the state, formed pursuant to general law or special act, for the local performance of governmental or proprietary functions within limited boundaries.

SEC. 2. Section 10115.1 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

10115.1. As used in this article, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Awarding department" means any state agency, department, governmental entity, or other officer or entity empowered by law to enter into contracts on behalf of the State of California.

(b) "Contract" includes any agreement or joint development agreement to provide labor, services, material, supplies, or equipment in the performance of a contract, franchise, concession, or lease granted, let, or awarded for and on behalf of the State of California.

(c) "Contractor" means any person or persons, regardless of race, color, sex, ethnic origin or ancestry, or any firm, partnership, corporation, or combination thereof, whether or not a minority or women business enterprise, who submits a bid and enters into a contract with a representative of a state agency, department, governmental entity, or other officer empowered by law to enter into contracts on behalf of the State of California.

(d) "Minority," for purposes of this section, means a citizen or lawful permanent resident of the United States who is an ethnic person of color and who is: Black (a person having origins in any of the Black racial groups of Africa); Hispanic (a person of Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban, Central or South American, or other Spanish or Portuguese culture or origin regardless of race); Native American (an American Indian, Eskimo, Aleut, or Native Hawaiian); Pacific-Asian (a person whose origins are from Japan, China, Taiwan, Korea, Vietnam, Laos, Cambodia, the Philippines, Samoa, Guam, or the United States Trust Territories of the Pacific including the Northern Marianas); Asian-Indian (a person whose origins are from India, Pakistan, or Bangladesh); or any other group of natural persons identified as minorities in the respective project specifications of an awarding department or participating local agency.

(e) "Minority business enterprise" means a business concern that meets all of the following criteria:

(1) The business is an individual proprietorship, partnership, corporation, or joint venture at least 51 percent owned by one or more minorities or, in the case of any business whose stock is publicly held, at least 51 percent of the stock is owned by one or more minorities.

(2) A business whose management and daily operations are controlled by one or more minorities who own the business.

(3) A business concern with its home office located in the United States which is not a branch or subsidiary of a foreign corporation, firm, or other business.

(f) "Women business enterprise" means a business concern that meets all of the following criteria:

(1) The business is an individual proprietorship, partnership, corporation, or joint venture at least 51 percent owned by one or more women or, in the case of any business whose stock is publicly held, at least 51 percent of the stock is owned by one or more women.

(2) A business whose management and daily operations are controlled by one or more women who own the business.

(3) A business concern with its home office located in the United States which is not a branch or subsidiary of a foreign corporation, firm, or other business.

(g) "Goal" means a numerically expressed objective that awarding departments and contractors are required to make efforts to achieve.

CHAPTER 847

An act to amend Section 8670.37.53 of the Government Code, relating to oil spills.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8670.37.53 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8670.37.53. In order to receive a certificate of financial responsibility, an applicant shall demonstrate to the satisfaction of the administrator all of the following:

(a) For a certificate for a vessel or for all of the oil contained within a vessel, the applicant shall demonstrate the financial ability to pay at least five hundred million dollars ($500,000,000) for any damages which may arise during the term of the certificate. The level of required financial responsibility shall increase to seven hundred million dollars ($700,000,000) on February 20, 1995, to seven hundred fifty million dollars ($750,000,000) on February 20, 1998, and to one billion dollars ($1,000,000,000) on February 20, 2000. The administrator may establish a lower standard of financial responsibility for small barges. That standard shall be based on the quantity of oil that can be carried by the barge and the risk of spill from the barge into marine waters. The administrator shall not set a standard that is less than the expected costs from a reasonable worst case oil spill into marine waters.

(b) (1) To receive a certificate for a marine facility, the applicant shall demonstrate the financial ability to pay for any damages which might arise during a reasonable worst case oil spill into marine waters that results from the operations of the marine facility. The administrator shall consider such criteria as the amount of oil that could be spilled into marine waters from the marine facility, the cost of cleaning up the spilled oil, the frequency of operations at the marine facility, and the damages that could result from a spill.

(2) The administrator may issue a certificate for a marine facility upon a lesser showing of financial resources for a period of not longer than three years if the administrator makes all of the following findings:

(A) The marine facility was operating on January 1, 1991.

(B) Continued operation is necessary to finance abandonment of the marine facility.

(C) The financial resources the operator is able to demonstrate are reasonably sufficient to cover the damages from foreseeable spills from the marine facility.

CHAPTER 848

An act to add Sections 1597.20 and 1597.21 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to schoolage day care.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1597.20 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1597.20. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) There is a critical need to increase opportunities for children to engage in positive activities during after school hours.

(b) There is a need for staff with the capacity to make after school programs interesting and relevant for schoolage children.

(c) California's juvenile incarceration rate is twice the national average and has increased 65 percent since 1975.

(d) Twice as many California young people were victims of homicide in 1990 than in 1974.

(e) Compared to 1960, American children spend an average of 10 to 12 fewer hours per week with their parents.

SEC. 2. Section 1597.21 is added to the Health and Safety Code,

to read:

1597.21. The following requirements shall apply to schoolage day care centers:

(a) The State Department of Social Services shall permit the substitution of 20 training hours for each required unit of education.

(b) In addition to an administration course consisting of three units or 60 training hours and three units or 60 training hours in early childhood education, child development, or schoolage child courses, the site director may, as an alternative to existing regulations, complete nine core units or 180 training hours from the following:

(1) Recreation, which includes, but is not limited to, art, music, and dance.

(2) Physical education, which includes, but is not limited to, indoor and outdoor sports activities.

(3) Human services and social welfare, which includes, but is not limited to, nursing, psychology, sociology, or home economics.

(4) Units earned toward an elementary or middle school teaching credential.

(5) Early childhood education, child development, or schoolage child units.

A director is required to complete 12 units or 240 training hours prior to employment. The remaining three units must be completed within one year of employment.

(c) The State Department of Social Services shall expand the list of college degrees that satisfy current site director educational requirements to include degrees in recreation, physical education, human services, and social welfare, as described in paragraph (3) of subdivision (b), and education, as described in paragraphs (2) and (4) of subdivision (b).

(d) As an alternative to satisfying the educational requirements of teachers contained in the regulations, a teacher may substitute 12 units or 240 training hours in any combination of the following:

(1) Recreation, which includes, but is not limited to, art, music, and dance.

(2) Physical education, which includes, but is not limited to, indoor and outdoor sports activities.

(3) Human services and social welfare, which includes, but is not limited to, nursing, psychology, sociology, or home economics.

(4) Units earned toward an elementary or middle school teaching credential.

(5) Early childhood education, child development, or schoolage child units.

A teacher is required to complete six units or 120 training hours prior to employment.

(e) The department shall accept the following alternative types of experience for site directors and teachers, if the experience was obtained working directly with children: classroom teaching or teacher assisting experience in elementary or middle school education; paid or volunteer work experience in physical education or recreation programs; college work-study or internship in recreation or youth development; paid or volunteer work experience in human services as described in paragraph (3) of subdivision (b); or paid or volunteer work experience in school guidance or in other counseling programs.

(f) In addition to existing approved sources of education, the following are approved sources of education that may be used to satisfy the education required of staff at a schoolage child care center:

(1) Vocational school training in recreation, physical education, human services, social welfare, and education as described in subdivisions (b) and (d).

(2) Professional training that qualifies as continuing education credits in the child care or elementary education area.

(3) Standard training programs that are provided by statewide or nationally recognized or community-based youth service organizations and offered or approved by an accredited educational institution or the Commission on Teacher Credentialing.

(g) Upon the receipt of a completed application for a license to operate a schoolage day care program at a functioning schoolsite from an organization that is currently licensed to operate a schoolage day care program at another site, the department shall have 30 days to make a final determination on whether to issue a license to operate the program. A functioning schoolsite shall meet the requirements of paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 1596.806.

(h) (1) If the department, for any reason, is unable to comply with subdivision (g), it shall, within 30 days of the receipt of the application described in subdivision (g), grant a provisional license to the applicant to operate for a period not to exceed six months. The provisional license shall be granted provided the department has conducted a site visit and has not found any life safety risks, the criminal records clearances are complete, and the school fire inspection has been verified. The requirement for criminal records clearances may be satisfied by transfer of current criminal records clearances, pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 1596.871. For purposes of a schoolage day care program operating on a functioning schoolsite, the school fire inspection shall be accepted as sufficient fire clearance.

(2) While a provisional license is in effect, the department shall continue its investigation and shall make a final determination on the application prior to the expiration of the provisional license. If the department does not issue a provisional license pursuant to paragraph (1), the department shall follow the procedures for notifying applicants as set forth in subdivision (d) of Section 1596.96.

An act to amend Sections 1002, 1051, 1053, 1777.2, 1784, 3033, 6651, 7150, 7151, 7921, 8232, 8233.3, 8233.4, 8233.8, 8234, 8585.9, and 8598.3 of, to amend the heading of Article 3 (commencing with Section 3270) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 4 of, to amend, repeal, and add Section 3270 of, and to repeal Sections 3270.5, 3271, 3272, 3273, 3274, 3275, 3277, 3278, 3280, 3281, 3282, 3283, 3284, 3286, 3287, 3288, 3289, 3290, 3291, and 3517 of, the Fish and Game Code, relating to fish and game, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1002 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

1002. (a) The department may issue permits, subject to restrictions and regulations that the commission determines are desirable, to take or possess, in any part of the state, for scientific, educational, or propagation purposes, mammals, birds and the nests and eggs thereof, fish, amphibia, reptiles, or any other form of plant or animal life.

(b) The department may issue a permit that is valid for 24 months from the date of issuance to a resident of this state on the payment of a base fee of thirty dollars ($30), as adjusted under Section 713.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), the department may issue a permit without fee that is valid for 12 months from the date of issuance for either of the following purposes:

(1) To authorize only the banding of birds and the exhibition of live or dead wildlife specimens by public zoological gardens, scientific, or educational institutions.

(2) To a student who is regularly enrolled in a commercial fishing class in a school operating under the jurisdiction of the State Board of Education or in a commercial fishing class in a community college and to a faculty member of those schools or a community college when conducting a regularly enrolled class in commercial fishing. Any permit issued under this paragraph shall be valid only when the student is under the direct supervision of the instructor who is approved by the school or community college to teach the class and who has obtained a permit under subdivision (b) or this paragraph from the department. All fish taken shall be taken in accordance with state law, except that Sections 7850, 7880, and 7881 do not apply to persons or equipment operating under this paragraph. All fish taken under a permit issued under this paragraph may be sold only to a person licensed to receive fish from commercial fishermen as provided in Section 8032 or 8033 or donated to a charitable institution. All funds received from the sale of the fish shall be used solely for the support of the commercial fishing classes.

(d) The department may issue a special student permit that is valid for 12 months from the date of issuance on the payment of a base fee of ten dollars ($10), as adjusted under Section 713, to any student in a school of collegiate level who is required by an instructor in wildlife research in the school to collect specimens used in laboratory work in the school under supervision and in connection with a course in wildlife research or in the conduct of wildlife investigations and studies on behalf of the public.

(e) The department may issue a nonresident permit that is valid for 24 months from the date of issuance on application and payment of a base fee of one hundred dollars ($100) as adjusted under Section 713.

(f) It is not necessary for the possessor of the permit to have a sportfishing or hunting license to collect any fish, reptile, aquatic animal or plant, bird, or mammal for scientific, educational, or propagation purposes in this state.

(g) Nothing in this section authorizes any act which violates Section 597 of the Penal Code.

(h) A permit under this section does not authorize the taking of fish or mammals from the ocean waters of this state which are within the boundaries of any city if the city has filed with the department an objection to the taking.

(i) The adjustment of the base fees pursuant to Section 713 that is specified in subdivisions (b), (d), and (e) shall be applicable to permits issued on or after January 1, 1991.

SEC. 2. Section 1051 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

1051. Licenses of each class shall be consecutively numbered. Every license shall contain its expiration date and the amount of the fee for which it is issued. If no fee is either required by this code or established by the commission pursuant to Section 1050, the license shall so indicate.

SEC. 3. Section 1053 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

1053. (a) Not more than one license or not more than the number of license tags authorized by statute or regulation of the same class shall be issued to or purchased by a person for the same license year, except upon:

(1) The expiration of the license.

(2) Except as provided in paragraph (3) or (4), the filing of an affidavit showing the loss or destruction of an unexpired license or license tag previously issued and payment of a fee in an amount determined by the department to pay the cost of issuing a duplicate license or license tag, not to exceed the fee for issuing the original license or license tag.

(3) The filing of an affidavit showing the loss or destruction of an unexpired hunting license, and payment of a base fee of five dollars ($5), as adjusted pursuant to Section 713. Duplicate hunting licenses issued pursuant to this subdivision shall be issued only by the department.

(4) The surrender of a valid license receipt for an unexpired license issued pursuant to paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (a) or subdivision (b) of Section 7149 and the payment of a base fee of five dollars ($5), as adjusted pursuant to Section 713. A duplicate license issued pursuant to this paragraph may be issued by any person authorized by the department to issue licenses.

(b) Any person authorized by the department to issue licenses may administer the oath for purposes of the affidavit without any fee. Each of the affidavits provided for under subdivision (a) shall be filed with the department at the times and in the manner prescribed by the department.

(c) The adjustment of the base fee pursuant to Section 713 specified in subdivision (a) shall be applicable to the hunting license years beginning on or after July 1, 1995, and the fishing license years beginning on or after January 1, 1996.

SEC. 4. Section 1777.2 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

1777.2. "Bank site" or "mitigation bank site" means a publicly or privately owned and operated site on which wetlands have been or will be created in accordance with this chapter to compensate for adverse impacts caused by removal or fill permit activities authorized pursuant to Section 404 of the federal Clean Water Act (33 U.S.C. Sec. 1344 et seq.). "Bank site" or "mitigation bank site" does not include land on which rice is produced that provides significant wetland habitat value.

SEC. 5. Section 1784 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

1784. (a) The department, in cooperation with those agencies specified in Section 1786, shall adopt regulations that establish standards and criteria for the bank site qualification process, for the evaluation of wetland acreage and habitat values created at the bank sites, and for the operation and evaluation of bank sites, and any other regulations that are necessary to implement this chapter.

These criteria shall require, at a minimum, that the newly created wetland provide the hydrologic, vegetative, and wildlife characteristics, including the food web components, of a naturally occurring wetland system.

(b) With respect to bank site standards and operator qualifications, the department shall consider, at a minimum, all of the following criteria:

(1) A requirement that the bank site have a reliable, adequate, and available water supply necessary to provide wetland values. For wetlands dependent only on rainfall, rainfall satisfies this requirement.

(2) The relative ease or difficulty of converting uplands into wetlands at the bank site.

(3) The anticipated maintenance necessary to sustain the recreated and created wetlands at the bank site.

(4) The proximity of the bank site to other established preserves or natural features historically associated with abundant wildlife values.

(5) The proximity of the bank site to urban or populated areas that could reduce the bank site's long-term biological values.

(6) The demonstrated ability of the bank site operator to create, administer, maintain, and protect the bank site in perpetuity, including financial, technical, and management ability.

(7) The relative abundance or scarcity of the wetland type to be created at the bank site.

(c) No wetland mitigation bank shall be established on land on which rice is produced that provides significant wetland habitat value.

SEC. 6. Section 3033 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

3033. (a) The department shall, upon application and payment of a fee, issue a reduced fee hunting license, that authorizes the licensee to take any bird or mammal as otherwise authorized pursuant to this code and regulations adopted pursuant thereto, to a disabled veteran, as defined in subdivision (b), who has not been convicted of any violation of this code. The base license fee for a reduced fee hunting license shall be four dollars ($4) for the hunting license year beginning on July 1, 1995, and, for the following years, this license fee may be annually reviewed and adjusted in accordance with Section 713.

(b) "Disabled veteran" means a person having a 70 percent or greater service-connected disability and an honorable discharge from military service. The person shall be eligible upon presentation of proof of an honorable discharge from military service and proof of the disability. Proof of the disability shall be by certification from the United States Department of Veterans' Affairs or by presentation of a license issued pursuant to this section in the preceding license year.

SEC. 7. The heading of Article 3 (commencing with Section 3270) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 4 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

Article 3. Licensed Domesticated Game Bird Hunting Clubs

SEC. 8. Section 3270 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

3270. (a) In order to provide additional hunting by stocking domestically propagated pheasants, and to permit the taking of pheasants under conditions which will not conflict with the public interest, any person who owns or controls the shooting rights on a tract of land may apply to the department for a licensed pheasant club license authorizing the killing by shooting of pheasants upon such land in accordance with the provisions of this article and the regulations of the commission for the administration of this article.

(b) This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1995, and as of January 1, 1996, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1996, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 9. Section 3270 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

3270. (a) In order to provide additional hunting by stocking domestically propagated game birds, and to permit the taking of game birds under conditions that will not conflict with the public interest, any person who owns or controls the hunting rights on a tract of land may apply to the department for a game bird club license authorizing the taking of game birds upon that land in accordance with the regulations of the commission for the administration, including the implementation and enforcement, of this section.

(b) This section shall become operative on July 1, 1995.

SEC. 10. Section 3270.5 of the Fish and Game Code is repealed.

SEC. 11. Section 3271 of the Fish and Game Code is repealed.

SEC. 12. Section 3272 of the Fish and Game Code is repealed.

SEC. 13. Section 3273 of the Fish and Game Code is repealed.

SEC. 14. Section 3274 of the Fish and Game Code is repealed.

SEC. 15. Section 3275 of the Fish and Game Code is repealed.

SEC. 16. Section 3277 of the Fish and Game Code is repealed.

SEC. 17. Section 3278 of the Fish and Game Code is repealed.

SEC. 18. Section 3280 of the Fish and Game Code is repealed.

SEC. 19. Section 3281 of the Fish and Game Code is repealed.

SEC. 20. Section 3282 of the Fish and Game Code is repealed.

SEC. 21. Section 3283 of the Fish and Game Code is repealed.

SEC. 22. Section 3284 of the Fish and Game Code is repealed.

SEC. 23. Section 3286 of the Fish and Game Code is repealed.

SEC. 24. Section 3287 of the Fish and Game Code is repealed.

SEC. 25. Section 3288 of the Fish and Game Code is repealed.

SEC. 26. Section 3289 of the Fish and Game Code is repealed.

SEC. 27. Section 3290 of the Fish and Game Code is repealed.

SEC. 28. Section 3291 of the Fish and Game Code is repealed.

SEC. 29. Section 3517 of the Fish and Game Code is repealed.

SEC. 30. Section 6651 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

6651. (a) A license granting the privilege to harvest kelp or other aquatic plants shall be issued upon application and the payment of a fee of one hundred dollars ($100) to the department. The license shall be valid from January 1 to December 31, inclusive, or, if issued after the beginning of that term, for the remainder thereof.

(b) This chapter does not apply to aquatic plants grown on private land or on state water bottoms leased pursuant to Division 12 (commencing with Section 15000).

SEC. 31. Section 7150 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

7150. (a) Upon application to the department's headquarters office in Sacramento and payment of a base fee of four dollars ($4), as adjusted pursuant to Section 713, the following persons, who have not been convicted of any violation of this code, shall be issued a reduced fee sportfishing license that is valid for the calendar year of issue, or, if issued after the beginning of the year, for the remainder thereof and that authorizes the licensee to take any fish, reptile, or amphibia anywhere in this state as otherwise authorized pursuant to this code and regulations adopted pursuant thereto for purposes other than profit:

(1) A disabled veteran having a 70 percent or greater service connected disability upon presentation of proof of an honorable discharge from military service and proof of the disability. Proof of the disability shall be by certification from the United States Veterans Administration or by presentation of a license issued pursuant to this paragraph in the preceding license year.

(2) A person receiving aid to the aged under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 12000) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(3) A person over 65 years of age who is a resident of this state and whose total monthly income from all sources, including any old age assistance payments, does not exceed the amount in effect on September 1 of each year contained in subdivision (c) of Section 12201 of the Welfare and Institutions Code for single persons or subdivision (d) of Section 12201 of the Welfare and Institutions Code combined income for married persons, as adjusted pursuant to that section.

The amount in effect on September 1 of each year shall be the amount used to determine eligibility for a reduced fee license during the following calendar year.

(b) A person applying for a reduced fee sportfishing license shall submit adequate documentation for the department to determine whether the applicant is, in fact, eligible for a reduced fee sportfishing license. The documentation shall be in the form of a letter or other document, as specified by the department, from a public agency, except as provided in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a). The department shall not issue a reduced fee sportfishing license to any person unless it is satisfied that the applicant has provided adequate documentation of eligibility for that license.

(c) The adjustment of the base fee pursuant to Section 713 specified in subdivision (a) shall be applicable to the fishing license years beginning on or after January 1, 1996.

SEC. 32. Section 7151 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

7151. (a) Upon application to the headquarters office of the department in Sacramento, the following persons, who have not been convicted of any violation of this code, shall be issued, free of any charge or fee, a free sportfishing license, which is valid for the calendar year of issue or, if issued after the beginning of the year, for the remainder thereof and which authorizes the licensee to take any fish, reptile, or amphibia anywhere in this state for purposes other than profit:

(1) A blind person upon presentation of proof of blindness. "Blind person" means a person with central vision acuity of 20/200 or less in the better eye, with the aid of the best possible correcting glasses, or central visual acuity better than 20/200 if the widest diameter of the remaining visual field is no greater than 20 degrees. Proof of blindness shall be by certification from a qualified licensed optometrist or opthamologist or by presentation of a license issued pursuant to this paragraph in the preceding license year.

(2) Every resident Indian who, in the discretion of the department, is financially unable to pay the fee required for the license.

(3) Upon certification by the person in charge of a state hospital, a person who is a ward of the state and who is a patient in, and resides in, the state hospital.

(4) Upon certification by the person in charge of the regional center for the developmentally disabled, a developmentally disabled person receiving services from the regional center.

(5) A person who is a resident of the state and who is so severely physically disabled as to be permanently unable to move from place to place without the aid of a wheelchair, walker, or forearm crutches.

(b) Upon application to the headquarters office of the department in Sacramento, the department may issue, free of any charge or fee, a sportfishing permit to fish to groups of mentally or physically handicapped persons under the care of a certified federal, state, county, city, or private licensed care center. The care center shall provide evidence that it is a legitimate licensed care center. The permit shall be issued to the person in charge of the group and shall be in his or her possession when the group is fishing. The permit shall include the location where the activity will take place and the maximum number of people in the group. The permitholder shall notify the local department office before fishing and indicate where, when, and how long the group will fish.

(c) On January 15 of each year, the department shall determine the number of free sportfishing licenses issued under subdivisions (a) and (b) to blind persons, indigent resident Indians, wards of the state, developmentally disabled persons, and physically disabled persons.

(d) There shall be appropriated from the General Fund a sum equal to two dollars ($2) per free sportfishing license issued under subdivisions (a) and (b), as determined by the department pursuant to subdivision (c). That sum may be appropriated annually in the Budget Act for transfer to the Fish and Game Preservation Fund and appropriated in the Budget Act from the Fish and Game Preservation Fund to the department for the purposes of this part.

SEC. 33. Section 7921 of the Fish and Game Code, as amended by Section 3 of Chapter 1177 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended to read:

7921. The license shall be valid during the period from April 1 to March 31 of the year following, or, if issued after the beginning of that term, for the remainder thereof, and, for a fee of four hundred dollars ($400), shall be issued to the holder of a certificate of boat registration issued pursuant to Section 7881.

This section shall become operative April 1, 1993, and shall remain in effect only until March 31, 1995, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before March 31, 1995, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 34. Section 7921 of the Fish and Game Code, as added by Section 4 of Chapter 1177 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended to read:

7921. (a) The license shall be valid during the period from April 1 to March 31 of the year following, or, if issued after the beginning of that term, for the remainder thereof, and for a fee of two hundred dollars ($200) shall be issued to the holder of a certificate of boat registration issued pursuant to Section 7881.

(b) This section shall become operative on April 1, 1995.

SEC. 35. Section 8232 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8232. It is unlawful to take or possess salmon for commercial purposes on a vessel unless all of the following conditions are met:

(a) The vessel is registered with the department pursuant to Section 7881, and the owner of the vessel has a valid commercial salmon vessel permit for the use of that vessel.

(b) The permit for the use of the vessel is affixed to the vessel adjacent to the department registration number unless otherwise authorized by the department.

(c) The permit affixed to the vessel is visible at all times.

SEC. 36. Section 8233.3 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8233.3. Except as otherwise provided in this article, the department shall issue a permit, upon application and payment of the renewal fees pursuant to Section 8235, that is valid for the subsequent permit year, to the owner of a permitted vessel that is registered with the department pursuant to Section 7881.

SEC. 37. Section 8233.4 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8233.4. Except as otherwise provided in this article, the department shall issue a permit, upon payment of the transfer fees pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 8239 and surrender to the department of the permit for the use of the permitted vessel, to the owner of a replacement vessel that is registered with the department pursuant to Section 7881, if the transfer has been approved pursuant to Section 8241.

SEC. 38. Section 8233.8 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8233.8. Except as otherwise provided in this article, the department shall issue a permit to the owner of a commercial salmon fishing vessel that is registered with the department pursuant to Section 7881 for the new entry of that vessel into the commercial salmon fishery if that owner is authorized to be issued a permit for the use of that new entry vessel pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 8245.

SEC. 39. Section 8234 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8234. (a) The department shall not issue a permit under this article unless one of the following first occurs:

(1) The applicant presents to the department a commercial fishing salmon stamp issued to the owner or an agent of the owner. No commercial fishing salmon stamp shall be presented or accepted by the department to authorize issuance of a permit under this section for more than one vessel.

(2) The applicant obtains a commercial fishing salmon stamp and pays the fees for the stamp.

(3) On or before April 1 of the current license year, the owner is 70 years of age.

(b) The first commercial fishing salmon stamp issued to an owner, or to that owner's agent, shall be affixed to the commercial fishing license of that owner or agent. Any additional commercial fishing salmon stamps issued to the owner or the owner's agent pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) for purposes of obtaining permits for use of additional commercial salmon fishing vessels shall be affixed to each additional vessel's registration issued pursuant to Section 7881.

SEC. 40. Section 8585.9 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8585.9. (a) When a person applies for a permit issued under this article, the person shall specify the vessel he or she will use in operations authorized by the permit and the permit shall be used on operations on that vessel. The permittee shall be the owner or operator of that vessel and shall be listed on the boat registration application or statement filed with the department pursuant to Section 7881.

(b) Any transfer shall be authorized by the department only after receipt of proof of a compelling reason that shall be submitted with the request for transfer, such as the sinking of the vessel or sale and purchase of another vessel specified for use in operations authorized by the permit.

SEC. 41. Section 8598.3 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8598.3. (a) An applicant for a marine aquaria collector's permit shall be a commercial fisherman licensed pursuant to Section 7850.

(b) If a vessel is used in the taking or transporting of species identified in subdivision (a) of Section 8597 for commercial purposes, the vessel shall be registered pursuant to Section 7881.

(c) An application for a marine aquaria collector's permit shall be made on the forms and contain the information that the department may require. Except as provided in subdivision (d) of Section 8597, the requirement for a marine aquaria collector's permit is in addition to any other commercial fishing requirements.

(d) The fee for a marine aquaria collector's permit shall be three hundred thirty dollars ($330).

(e) A marine aquaria collector's permit shall be valid from April 1 to March 31, inclusive, of the following year, or, if issued after the beginning of that term, for the remainder thereof.

(f) A person engaged in taking or possessing marine species under a marine aquaria collector's permit shall not take or possess any species under the authority of a scientific collector's permit issued pursuant to Section 1002, 5515, or 10660 on the same fishing trip.

SEC. 42. Section 7 and Sections 10 to 29, inclusive, of this act shall become operative July 1, 1995.

CHAPTER 850

An act to amend Section 15346.5 of the Government Code, relating to defense conversion.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares the following:

(a) There have been three "rounds" of military base closures in this state: 1988, 1991, and 1993. There will be a fourth round in 1995, a round that is expected to result in more military base job losses than any of the prior rounds.

(b) In the past three rounds of base closures, California lost more base jobs than all of the other states combined—losing 82,127 jobs (69 percent) of the national total of 119,084.

(c) In the 1993 base closure round, California lost 33,322 jobs or 88 percent of the base jobs that were lost nationally.

(d) In California, local communities have borne virtually all of the responsibility to protect bases and base employment.

SEC. 2. Section 15346.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15346.5. The council shall do all of the following:

(a) Develop and recommend to the Governor and the Legislature a strategic plan for federal, state, and local defense conversion and training programs. The plan shall address the state's role in assisting communities impacted by base closures. The opportunity shall be provided for public review and comments on the strategic plan prior to release to the Governor and the Legislature.

(b) Provide a central clearinghouse for all base reuse, community assistance and training funding, regulations, and application procedures to expedite the transfer of state and federal funds to state and local projects in a timely and efficient manner, and to provide technical assistance to communities and businesses.

(c) Provide a central clearinghouse for all defense conversion funding, regulations, and application procedures to expedite the transfer of funds to state and local projects in a timely and efficient manner.

(d) Serve as a central clearinghouse for input and information, including needs, issues, and recommendations from businesses, industry representatives, labor, local government, and communities.

(e) Identify available state and federal resources to assist businesses (with emphasis on small and minority, women, and disabled veteran-owned businesses), workers, communities, and educational institutions affected by defense expenditure reduction.

(f) Provide one-stop coordination, maintain and disseminate information, standardize state endorsement procedures and develop fast-track review procedures for proposals seeking state funds to match federal defense conversion funding programs.

(g) Review recommendations for state funding awards by regional technology alliances.

(h) Establish criteria under which regional technology alliances may apply for designation.

(i) Where funds and resources are available, maintain and establish data bases in such fields as defense-related companies, industry organization proposers for state and federal defense industry conversion, community assistance, training, and base reuse funds, and provide electronic access to the data bases.

(j) Conduct outreach to entities and parties involved in defense conversion across the state and provide a network to facilitate assistance and coordination for all defense conversion activities within the state.

(k) The council shall help develop and coordinate state advocacy efforts on the federal level.

(l) The council shall conduct an evaluation of the impact of the state's matching fund expenditures on the California economy. This evaluation shall be transmitted to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1995, and again on January 1, 1997, and shall consider job growth, increased state and local revenues, and other factors for measuring the effectiveness of this program.

(m) Prepare and implement a plan to minimize California's loss of bases and jobs in the 1995 round of base closures. This plan shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) Identification of which bases are threatened with closure.

(2) Determination of how best to defend existing bases and base employment in this state.

(3) Coordination with communities that may face base closures.

(4) Development of data and analyses on bases in this state and elsewhere.

(5) Coordination with the congressional delegation, the Legislature, and the office of the Governor.

With the consent of the appropriate authority, the council may temporarily borrow technical, policy, and administrative staff from other state agencies, including the Legislature.

CHAPTER 851

An act to amend Section 6203 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature find and declares all of the following:

(a) California retailers suffer from unfair competition because out-of-state retailers without a physical presence in California cannot be compelled to collect California sales and use taxes on purchases by California customers, whereas California retailers are required to collect those taxes on similar purchases.

(b) The United States Supreme Court, in the case of Quill v. North Dakota, 112 U.S. 1904, has held that the United States Congress may authorize state governments to require out-of-state retailers to collect state and local sales and use taxes, and S. 1825 has been introduced in the United States Senate for that purpose.

(c) While the Legislature is strongly supportive of S. 1825 as the long-term solution to sales and use tax disadvantages faced by California retailers with respect to their out-of-state competitors, the short-term clarification of the impact of the Quill decision upon California law is necessary to assure uniformity and certainty in the application of sales and use tax laws, pending the operation of a Congressional enactment.

SEC. 2. Section 6203 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

6203. Except as provided by Sections 6292 and 6293, every retailer engaged in business in this state and making sales of tangible personal property for storage, use, or other consumption in this state, not exempted under Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6271) or Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 6351), shall, at the time of making the sales or, if the storage, use, or other consumption of the tangible personal property is not then taxable hereunder, at the time the storage, use, or other consumption becomes taxable, collect the tax from the purchaser and give to the purchaser a receipt therefor in the manner and form prescribed by the board.

As respects leases constituting sales of tangible personal property, the tax shall be collected from the lessee at the time amounts are paid by the lessee under the lease.

"Retailer engaged in business in this state" as used in this and the preceding section means and includes any of the following:

(a) Any retailer maintaining, occupying, or using, permanently or temporarily, directly or indirectly, or through a subsidiary, or agent, by whatever name called, an office, place of distribution, sales or sample room or place, warehouse or storage place, or other place of business.

(b) Any retailer having any representative, agent, salesperson, canvasser, independent contractor, or solicitor operating in this state under the authority of the retailer or its subsidiary for the purpose of selling, delivering, installing, assembling, or the taking of orders for any tangible personal property.

(c) As respects a lease, any retailer deriving rentals from a lease of tangible personal property situated in this state.

(d) Any retailer soliciting orders for tangible personal property by means of a telecommunication or television shopping system (which utilizes toll free numbers) which is intended by the retailer to be broadcast by cable television or other means of broadcasting, to consumers located in this state.

(e) Any retailer who, pursuant to a contract with a broadcaster or publisher located in this state, solicits orders for tangible personal property by means of advertising which is disseminated primarily to consumers located in this state and only secondarily to bordering jurisdictions.

(f) Any retailer soliciting orders for tangible personal property by mail if the solicitations are substantial and recurring and if the retailer benefits from any banking, financing, debt collection, telecommunication, or marketing activities occurring in this state or benefits from the location in this state of authorized installation, servicing, or repair facilities.

(g) Any retailer owned or controlled by the same interests which own or control any retailer engaged in business in the same or a similar line of business in this state.

(h) Any retailer having a franchisee or licensee operating under its trade name if the franchisee or licensee is required to collect the tax under this section.

(i) Any retailer who, pursuant to a contract with a cable television operator located in this state, solicits orders for tangible personal property by means of advertising which is transmitted or distributed over a cable television system in this state.

(j) Notwithstanding Section 7262, a retailer specified in subdivision (d), (e), (f), (g), (h), or (i) above, and not specified in subdivision (a), (b), or (c) above, is a "retailer engaged in business in this state" for the purposes of this part and Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 7200) only.

(k) (1) For purposes of this section, "engaged in business in this state" does not include the taking of orders from customers in this state through a computer telecommunications network located in this state which is not directly or indirectly owned by the retailer when the orders result from the electronic display of products on that same network. The exclusion provided by this subdivision shall apply only to a computer telecommunications network that consists substantially of on-line communications services other than the displaying and taking of orders for products.

(2) This subdivision shall become inoperative upon the earlier of the following dates:

(A) The operative date of either (i) provisions of S. 1825 of the 103rd Congress of the United States that authorize states to compel the collection of state sales and use taxes by out-of-state retailers or (ii) substantially similar provisions of another Congressional act.

(B) The date five years from the effective date of the act adding this subdivision.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 2230 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act and the state shall not reimburse any local agency for any sales and use tax revenues lost by it under this act.

SEC. 4. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. However, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the first day of the first calendar quarter commencing more than 90 days after the effective date of this act.

An act to amend Section 16112.7 of, and to add Sections 6523 and 53226.3 to, the Government Code, and to amend Section 97.035 of, and to add Section 98.65 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to local government.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that operating costs can be decreased by reducing the number of separate bills affecting related topics by consolidating these bills into a single measure. Therefore, in enacting this act, it is the intent of the Legislature to consolidate several minor, noncontroversial statutory changes relating to public agencies into a single measure.

SEC. 2. Section 6523 is added to the Government Code, to read:

6523. A joint powers entity that is created pursuant to an agreement entered into, in accordance with this article, by the City of West Sacramento, Reclamation District No. 537, and Reclamation District No. 900 may exercise the authority granted to reclamation districts under Part 7 (commencing with Section 51200) and Part 8 (commencing with Section 52100) of Division 15 of the Water Code for the purposes of Sections 12670.2, 12670.3, and 12670.4 of the Water Code.

SEC. 3. Section 16112.7 of the Government Code is amended to read:

16112.7. Notwithstanding Sections 16111 and 16112, redevelopment agencies shall receive state subventions for the 1990–91 fiscal year in accordance with the following procedures:

(a) The Department of Finance shall calculate an amount equal to 25 percent of the total amount all redevelopment agencies would otherwise be entitled to receive in the 1990–91 fiscal year pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (c) of Section 16111.

(b) On or before December 31, 1990, for the 1990–91 fiscal year, the Controller shall allocate the amount calculated pursuant to subdivision (a) to each redevelopment agency in accordance with the percentage entitlement of the total amount that would otherwise be allocated to that agency pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (c) of Section 16111.

(c) The Department of Finance shall calculate an amount equal to 50 percent of the total amount all redevelopment agencies would otherwise be entitled to receive in the 1990–91 fiscal year pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (c) of Section 16111.

(d) On July 1, 1991, the Controller shall allocate the amount calculated pursuant to subdivision (c) to each redevelopment agency in accordance with the percentage entitlement of the total amount that would otherwise be allocated to that agency pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (c) of Section 16111.

(e) Subdivisions (a) to (d), inclusive, shall not apply to any redevelopment agency which has stated in bond instruments and supporting documents that the amounts received pursuant to Section 16111 are pledged as security for payment of the principal and interest of those bonds and that the bond reserve account is insufficient to cover the bond payments. Any redevelopment agency within this subdivision shall, for the 1990–91 fiscal year, instead receive two payments allocated by the Controller, with each payment equal to 50 percent of the amount that would otherwise be allocated to that agency pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (c) of Section 16111. The first payment pursuant to this subdivision shall be made on or before December 31, 1990, and the second payment shall be made on July 1, 1991. No redevelopment agency shall, on or after the effective date of this section, pledge the amounts received pursuant to Section 16111 as security for payment of the principal and interest of bonds, provided, however, that the amounts received pursuant to Section 16111 may be pledged as security for the payment of principal of, and interest on, bonds issued to refund all or a portion of the bonds described in the first sentence of this subdivision if (1) the total debt service on the refunding bonds, as calculated by an accounting firm or other verification agent selected by the redevelopment agency, is not greater than the total debt service on the bonds to be refunded, (2) the term of the refunding bonds is not greater than the term of the bonds to be refunded, and (3) the maximum amount of debt service will in no year be greater than the maximum annual debt service on the bonds to be refunded.

(f) Notwithstanding the prohibition contained in subdivision (e), relating to the pledge of amounts received pursuant to Section 16111 as security for the payment of bonds, a redevelopment agency within a city with a population of less than 20,000 which receives amounts pursuant to Section 16111 in the 1989–90 fiscal year in excess of one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000) but less than two million five hundred thousand dollars ($2,500,000), may pledge amounts received pursuant to Section 16111, which amounts shall not be less than the amounts allocated to the agency for the 1984–85 fiscal year, as security for the payment of the principal and interest on bonds issued prior to January 1, 1992.

SEC. 4. Section 53226.3 is added to the Government Code, to read:

53226.3. The legislative body of a district, other than a school district, may, by resolution, insure against losses caused by an employee or officer of the district in lieu of providing a bond or bonds. After the resolution is adopted, any requirements of law regarding faithful performance or revolving fund bonds shall be inapplicable to the district or any officer or employee of the district. The amount of the insurance shall be determined pursuant to Sections 1480 and 1481 and shall give the same or greater protection to the district that a bond would provide in indemnifying the district against any loss caused by the employee or officer of the district.

SEC. 5. Section 97.035 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

97.035. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the computations and allocations made by each county pursuant to Section 97, as modified by Section 97.03 for the 1992–93 fiscal year, shall be modified for the 1993–94 fiscal year pursuant to subdivisions (a) to (c), inclusive, as follows:

(a) The amount of property tax revenue deemed allocated in the prior fiscal year to each county and city and county shall be reduced by an amount to be determined by the Director of Finance in accordance with the following:

(1) The total amount of the property tax reductions for counties and cities and counties determined pursuant to this section shall be one billion nine hundred ninety-eight million dollars ($1,998,000,000) in the 1993–94 fiscal year.

(2) The Director of Finance shall determine the amount of the reduction for each county or city and county as follows:

(A) The proportionate share of the property tax revenue reduction for each county or city and county that would have been imposed on all counties under the proposal specified in the "May Revision of the 1993–94 Governor's Budget" shall be determined by reference to the document entitled "Estimated County Property Tax Transfers Under Governor's May Revision Proposal," published by the Legislative Analyst's Office on June 1, 1993.

(B) Each county's or city and county's proportionate share of total taxable sales in all counties in the 1991–92 fiscal year shall be determined.

(C) An amount for each county and city and county shall be determined by applying its proportionate share determined pursuant to subparagraph (A) to the one billion nine hundred ninety-eight million dollar ($1,998,000,000) statewide reduction for counties and cities and counties.

(D) An amount for each county and city and county shall be determined by applying its proportionate share determined pursuant to subparagraph (B) to the one billion nine hundred ninety-eight million dollar ($1,998,000,000) statewide reduction for counties and cities and counties.

(E) The Director of Finance shall add the amounts determined pursuant to subparagraphs (C) and (D) for each county and city and county, and divide the resulting figure by two. The amount so determined for each county and city and county shall be divided by a factor of 1.038. The resulting figure shall be the amount of property tax revenue to be subtracted from the amount of property tax revenue deemed allocated in the prior fiscal year.

(3) The Director of Finance shall, by July 15, 1993, report to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee its determination of the amounts determined pursuant to paragraph (2).

(4) On or before August 15, 1993, the Director of Finance shall notify the auditor of each county and city and county of the amount of property tax revenue reduction determined for each county and city and county.

(5) Notwithstanding any other provision of this subdivision, the amount of the reduction specified in paragraph (2) for any county or city and county that has first implemented, for the 1993–94 fiscal year, the alternative procedure for the distribution of property tax levies authorized by Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 4701) of Part 8 shall be reduced, for the 1993–94 fiscal year only, in the amount of any increased revenue allocated to each qualifying school entity that would not have been allocated for the 1993–94 fiscal year but for the implementation of that alternative procedure. For purposes of this paragraph, "qualifying school entity" means any school district, county office of education, or community college district that is not an excess tax school entity as defined in Section 95.1. Notwithstanding any other provision of this paragraph, the amount of any reduction calculated pursuant to this paragraph for any county or city and county shall not exceed the reduction calculated for that county or city and county pursuant to paragraph (2).

(b) The amount of property tax revenue deemed allocated in the prior fiscal year to each city shall be reduced by an amount to be determined by the Director of Finance in accordance with the following:

(1) The total amount of the property tax reductions determined for cities pursuant to this section shall be two hundred eighty-eight million dollars ($288,000,000) in the 1993–94 fiscal year.

(2) The Director of Finance shall determine the amount of reduction for each city as follows:

(A) The amount of property tax revenue that is estimated to be attributable in the 1993–94 fiscal year to the amount of each city's state assistance payment received by that city pursuant to Chapter 282 of the Statutes of 1979 shall be determined.

(B) A factor for each city equal to the amount determined pursuant to subparagraph (A) for that city, divided by the total of the amounts determined pursuant to subparagraph (A) for all cities, shall be determined.

(C) An amount for each city equal to the factor determined pursuant to subparagraph (B), multiplied by three hundred eighty-two million five hundred thousand dollars ($382,500,000), shall be determined.

(D) In no event shall the amount for any city determined pursuant to subparagraph (C) exceed a per capita amount of nineteen dollars and thirty-one cents ($19.31), as determined in accordance with that city's population on January 1, 1993, as estimated by the Department of Finance.

(E) The amount determined for each city pursuant to subparagraphs (C) and (D) shall be the amount of property tax revenue to be subtracted from the amount of property tax revenue deemed allocated in the prior year.

(3) The Director of Finance shall, by July 15, 1993, report to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee those amounts determined pursuant to paragraph (2).

(4) On or before August 15, 1993, the Director of Finance shall notify each county auditor of the amount of property tax revenue reduction determined for each city located within that county.

(c) (1) The amount of property tax revenue deemed allocated in the prior fiscal year to each special district, as defined pursuant to subdivision (m) of Section 95, shall be reduced by the amount determined for the district pursuant to paragraph (3) and increased by the amount determined for the district pursuant to paragraph (4). The total net amount of these changes is intended to equal two hundred forty-four million dollars ($244,000,000) in the 1993–94 fiscal year.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of this subdivision, no reduction shall be made pursuant to this subdivision with respect to any of the following special districts:

(A) A local hospital district as described in Division 23 (commencing with Section 32000) of the Health and Safety Code.

(B) A water agency that does not sell water at retail, but not including an agency the primary function of which, as determined on the basis of total revenues, is flood control.

(C) A transit district.

(D) A police protection district formed pursuant to Part 1

(commencing with Section 20000) of Division 14 of the Health and Safety Code.

(E) A special district that was a multicounty special district as of July 1, 1979.

(3) (A) On or before September 15, 1993, the county auditor shall determine an amount for each special district equal to the amount of its allocation determined pursuant to Sections 96 or 97, and 98 for the 1993–94 fiscal year multiplied by the ratio determined pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 98.6 as that section read on June 15, 1993. In those counties that were subject to Sections 98.65, 98.66, 98.67, and 98.68, the county auditor shall determine an amount for each special district that represents the current amount of its allocation determined pursuant to Sections 96 or 97, and 98 for the 1993–94 fiscal year that is attributed to the property tax shift from schools required by Chapter 282 of the Statutes of 1979. In determining this amount, the county auditor shall adjust for the influence of increased assessed valuation within each district, including the effect of jurisdictional changes, and the reductions in property tax allocations required in the 1992–93 fiscal year by Chapters 699 and 1369 of the Statutes of 1992. In the case of a special district that has been consolidated or reorganized, the auditor shall determine the amount of its current property tax allocation that is attributable to the prior district's or districts' receipt of state assistance payments pursuant to Chapter 282 of the Statutes of 1979. Notwithstanding any other provision of this paragraph, for a special district that is governed by a city council or whose governing board has the same membership as a city council and that is a subsidiary district as defined in subdivision (e) of Section 16271 of the Government Code, the county auditor shall multiply the amount that otherwise would be calculated pursuant to this paragraph by 0.38 and the result shall be used in the calculations required by paragraph (5). In no event shall the amount determined by this paragraph be less than zero.

(B) Notwithstanding subparagraph (A), beginning with the 1994–95 fiscal year in the County of Sacramento, the auditor shall determine the amount for each special district that represents the current amount of its allocations determined pursuant to Section 96, 97, 98, or 98.65 for the 1994–95 fiscal year that is attributed to the property tax shift from schools required by Chapter 282 of the Statutes of 1979.

(4) (A) On or before September 15, 1993, the county auditor shall determine an amount for each special district that is engaged in fire protection activities, as reported to the Controller for inclusion in the 1989–90 Edition of the Financial Transactions Report Concerning Special Districts under the heading of "Fire Protection," that is equal to the amount of revenue allocated to that special district from the Special District Augmentation Fund for fire protection activities in the 1992–93 fiscal year. In the case of a special district, other than a special district governed by the county board of supervisors or whose governing body is the same as the county board of supervisors, that is engaged in fire protection activities as reported to the Controller, the county auditor shall also determine the amount by which the district's amount determined pursuant to paragraph (3) exceeds the amount by which its allocation was reduced by operation of Section 98.6 in the 1992–93 fiscal year. This amount shall be added to the amount otherwise determined for the district under this paragraph. In any county subject to Section 98.65, 98.66, 98.67, or 98.68, the county auditor shall determine for each special district that is engaged in fire protection activities an amount that is equal to the amount determined for that district pursuant to paragraph (3).

(B) For purposes of this paragraph, a special district includes any special district that is allocated property tax revenue pursuant to this chapter and does not appear in the State Controller's Report on Financial Transactions Concerning Special Districts, but is engaged in fire protection activities and appears in the State Controller's Report on Financial Transactions Concerning Counties.

(5) The total amount of property taxes allocated to special districts by the county auditor as a result of paragraph (4) shall be subtracted from the amount of property tax revenues not allocated to special districts by the county auditor as a result of paragraph (3) to determine the amount to be deposited in the Education Revenue Augmentation Fund as specified in subdivision (d).

(6) On or before September 30, 1993, the county auditor shall notify the Director of Finance of the net amount determined for special districts pursuant to paragraph (5).

(d) (1) The amount of property tax revenues not allocated to the county, city and county, cities within the county, and special districts as a result of the reductions required by subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) shall instead be deposited in the Educational Revenue Augmentation Fund established in each county or city and county pursuant to Section 97.03. The amount of revenue in the Educational Revenue Augmentation Fund, derived from whatever source, shall be allocated pursuant to paragraphs (2) and (3) to school districts and county offices of education, in total, and to community college districts, in total, in the same proportion that property tax revenues were distributed to school districts and county offices of education, in total, and community college districts, in total, during the 1992–93 fiscal year.

(2) The county auditor shall, based on information provided by the county superintendent of schools pursuant to this paragraph, allocate that proportion of the revenue in the Educational Revenue Augmentation Fund to be allocated to school districts and county offices of education only to those school districts and county offices of education within the county that are not excess tax school entities, as defined in Section 95.1. The county superintendent of schools shall determine the amount to be allocated to each school district in inverse proportion to the amounts of property tax revenue per average daily attendance in each school district. For each county office of education, the allocation shall be made based on the historical split of base property tax revenue between the county office of education and school districts within the county. In no event shall any additional money be allocated from the Educational Revenue Augmentation Fund to a school district or county office of education upon that district or county office of education becoming an excess tax school entity. If, after determining the amount to be allocated to each school district and county office of education, the county superintendent of schools determines there are still additional funds to be allocated, the county superintendent of schools shall determine the remainder to be allocated in inverse proportion to the amounts of property tax revenue, excluding Educational Revenue Augmentation Fund moneys, per average daily attendance in each remaining school district, and on the basis of the historical split described above for each county office of education, that is not an excess tax school entity until all funds that would not result in a school district or county office of education becoming an excess tax school entity are allocated. The county superintendent of schools may determine the amounts to be allocated between each school district and county office of education to ensure that all funds that would not result in a school district or county office of education becoming an excess tax school entity are allocated.

(3) The county auditor shall, based on information provided by the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges pursuant to this paragraph, allocate that proportion of the revenue in the Educational Revenue Augmentation Fund to be allocated to community college districts only to those community college districts within the county that are not excess tax school entities, as defined in Section 95.1. The chancellor shall determine the amount to be allocated to each community college district in inverse proportion to the amounts of property tax revenue per funded full-time equivalent student in each community college district. In no event shall any additional money be allocated from the Educational Revenue Augmentation Fund to a community college district upon that district becoming an excess tax school entity.

(4) If, after making the allocation required pursuant to paragraph (2), the auditor determines that there are still additional funds to be allocated, the auditor shall allocate those excess funds pursuant to paragraph (3). If, after making the allocation pursuant to paragraph (3), the auditor determines that there are still additional funds to be allocated, the auditor shall allocate those excess funds pursuant to paragraph (2). If, after determining the amount to be allocated to each community college district, the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges determines that there are still additional funds to be allocated, the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges shall determine the remainder to be allocated to each community college district in inverse proportion to the amounts of property tax revenue, excluding Educational Revenue Augmentation Fund moneys, per funded full-time equivalent student in each remaining community college district that is not an excess tax school entity until all funds that would not result in a community college district becoming an excess tax school entity are allocated.

(5) For purposes of allocations made pursuant to Section 97 for the 1994–95 fiscal year, the amounts allocated from the Educational Revenue Augmentation Fund pursuant to this subdivision, other than those amounts deposited in the Educational Revenue Augmentation Fund pursuant to any provision of the Health and Safety Code, shall be deemed property tax revenue allocated to the Educational Revenue Augmentation Fund in the prior fiscal year.

SEC. 6. Section 98.65 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

98.65. (a) For the 1989–90 and 1990–91 fiscal years, property tax revenue shall be allocated by the Sacramento County Auditor to special districts, as defined in subdivision (b), consistent with the holding of American River Fire Protection District v. Board of Supervisors (1989) 211 Cal. App. 3d 1076 and as implemented in American River Fire Protection District, et al. v. Board of Supervisors of the County of Sacramento, et al., Sacramento Superior Court Case No. 431637, and for the 1991–92 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, shall be allocated pursuant to subdivisions (c), (d), and (e).

(b) The amount allocated for the 1990–91 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter pursuant to Section 96 or 97, and Section 98 to a special district, as defined in Article 1 (commencing with Section 2201) of Chapter 3 of Part 4, including that portion of any multicounty district located within the County of Sacramento, and the amount allocated pursuant to Section 75.70 to a special district which is governed by the Board of Supervisors of Sacramento County or whose governing body is the same as the Board of Supervisors of Sacramento County, shall be governed by this section.

(c) For the 1991–92 fiscal year, the amount of property tax revenue that would otherwise be allocated to the special districts described in subdivision (b) pursuant to Section 75.70, or Section 96 or 97, and Section 98, shall be reduced or otherwise adjusted by the difference between the following amounts:

(1) The reduction, if any, made to the amount of property tax revenues allocated to each special district pursuant to Section 98.6 in the 1990–91 fiscal year as determined by the Sacramento County Auditor.

(2) The allocations approved by the Board of Supervisors of Sacramento County to each special district pursuant to Section 98.6 in the 1990–91 fiscal year.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, for the 1992–93 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, the Sacramento County Auditor shall allocate to the special districts described in subdivision (b) the total amount of property tax revenue allocated in the prior fiscal year as calculated in subdivisions (c) and (e).

(e) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 97, for the 1991–92 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, the annual tax increment as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 97 for the special districts described in subdivision (b) in each tax rate area shall be the sum of the following amounts:

(1) Each special district's share of property tax revenues in each of the tax rate areas within their respective jurisdictions without regard to this subdivision.

(2) The ratio of the amount determined for each special district in subdivision (c) and the special district's property tax revenue for the 1990–91 fiscal year, multiplied by the special district's share of property tax revenues in each tax rate area for the 1990–91 fiscal year.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, this section shall not be operative in the 1993–94 fiscal year.

SEC. 7. (a) In addition to the authority granted in Section 54953 of the Government Code, the Board of Supervisors of Santa Barbara County and a standing committee composed of members of the Board of Supervisors of Santa Barbara County that is a legislative body within the meaning of subdivision (b) of Section 54952 of the Government Code may use teleconferencing for the benefit of the public or the legislative body in connection with any meeting or proceeding authorized by law. The use of teleconferencing by the board under this section shall be limited to receipt of testimony by staff and members of the public and to deliberations of the legislative body. If the legislative body elects to use teleconferencing, it shall post agendas at all teleconference locations which shall be open to the public. The legislative body shall adopt reasonable regulations to adequately protect the statutory or constitutional rights of the parties or the public appearing before the legislative body. On or before June 30, 1996, the board of supervisors shall submit a report to the Legislature evaluating the county's experience pursuant to this act.

(b) The term "teleconference" as used in this section means a system that provides for audio participation between all members of the legislative body and the public attending a meeting or hearing.

(c) The Legislature finds and declares that a special law is necessary and that a general law cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution because of the unique circumstances of Santa Barbara County that require extensive travel by county supervisors and staff to attend regular meetings.

(d) This section shall remain in effect until January 1, 1997, and on that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1997, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 8. The Legislature finds and declares, with respect to Section 2 of this act, that a special law is necessary and that a general law cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution because of the unique circumstances of the City of West Sacramento, Reclamation District No. 537, and Reclamation District No. 900.

SEC. 9. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act affirms for the state, as described in subdivision (b) of Section 17556 of the Government Code, that which has been declared to be existing law in American River Fire Protection District v. Board of Supervisors (1989) 211 Cal. App. 3d 1076 and has been implemented in American River Fire Protection District, et al. v. Board of Supervisors of Sacramento County, et al., Sacramento Superior Court Case No. 431637.

SEC. 10. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

CHAPTER 853

An act to add Section 7073.3 to the Government Code, relating to enterprise zones.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7073.3 is added to the Government Code, to read:

7073.3. An existing enterprise zone that is located in the unincorporated area of a county may propose to use eligible expansion allotment to expand into an adjacent city or cities pursuant to Section 7073 and this section if, in addition to approving the expansion based on the criterion described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) of Section 7073, the agency finds that all of the following conditions exist:

(a) Each of the cities' governing bodies approves the expansion by adoption of an ordinance or resolution.

(b) Land included within the proposed expansion is zoned for industrial or commercial use.

(c) Basic infrastructure, including, but not limited to, gas, water, electrical service, and sewer systems, is available to the area that would be included in the expansion.

CHAPTER 854

An act relating to small business, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of seventy-six thousand dollars ($76,000) is appropriated for the 1995–96 fiscal year from the General Fund to the Trade and Commerce Agency to pay for the operation costs of the Small Business Development Corporation Expansion Center established by the California Southern Small Business Development Corporation, as authorized in Chapter 1273 of the Statutes of 1993.

CHAPTER 855

An act to add Section 6363.2 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, and to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6363.2 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

6363.2. There are exempted from the taxes imposed by this part, the gross receipts from the sale in this state of, and the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of, tangible personal property that is sold to a successful bidder at an auction that is conducted by, or affiliated with, a nonprofit organization, if the purpose of that auction is to obtain revenue for the funding of a shelter for homeless individuals and families and those revenues obtained are actually expended for that purpose. For purposes of this section, "nonprofit organization" means an organization that is exempt from taxation under Section 23701d. This section shall not apply to any sale at an auction that is conducted more than once during any 12-month period.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 2230 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act and the state shall not reimburse any local agency for any sales and use tax revenues lost by it under this act.

SEC. 3. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. However, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the first day of the first calendar quarter commencing more than 90 days after the effective date of this act.

CHAPTER 856

An act to add Sections 4833.1 and 4985.3 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(1) The recession of the early 1990's has had a disproportionate negative impact on the state of California and its residents with respect to employment, personal income, and real property values.

(2) Many property owners are entitled to the property tax relief available through the local equalization or assessment appeals process, and have filed valid appeals, thereby creating workloads that cannot be addressed by county boards of equalization or county assessment appeals boards in a timely fashion.

(3) As a result of the current law's waiver of penalties where there is any subsequent devaluation in the assessed value of the property by the local assessment appeals board, many taxpayers have found it economically rewarding to simply fail to timely remit their property taxes once an appeal for reassessment has been filed. With the recession making the likelihood of some devaluation high, the taxpayer no longer has the potential of penalties for failure to pay as an encouragement to keep current on tax payments, pending a resolution with the assessment appeals board.

(4) The failure of taxpayers to keep current with tax payments due under the law has created a substantial cash-flow burden on Los Angeles County in particular.

(5) Failure to address these problems could result in the effective denial of due process to taxpayers as well as undeserved reductions in property tax values, thereby creating additional financial hardship for local governments and schools.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this measure to protect taxpayers' rights, to preserve local government and school funding, and to assist counties in property tax administration by establishing or ensuring that the taxpayer, while being protected in his or her right to seek reassessment through the local assessment appeals process, is not afforded an unfair advantage over other taxpayers by not being subject to penalties for failure to timely remit payment of property taxes pending an appeal of his or her request of reassessment.

SEC. 2. Section 4833.1 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

4833.1. (a) Notwithstanding Section 2610.5, in the case of corrections made to the roll pursuant to Section 1646.1, where a taxpayer has failed to pay an amount of tax computed upon assessed value that is the subject of a pending assessment appeal, the relief from penalties shall apply only to the difference between the county board's final determination of value and the value on the assessment roll for the fiscal year covered by the application. For purposes of this section, "county board" means either a county board of supervisors that meets as a county board of equalization or an assessment appeals board.

(b) The county board shall cause notice of the requirements of this section to be mailed to each taxpayer or to be presented to each taxpayer upon filing an application for reduction in assessment with the county board if that taxpayer will be impacted by the penalty provisions of this section.

(c) For any taxpayer who has paid at least 80 percent of the amount of tax finally determined due by the county board within 60 days of mailing or presentation of the notice prescribed in subdivision (b), the tax collector shall accept payment of the balance of the tax due without penalties or interest.

(d) This section shall apply only to those properties upon which an application for reduction in assessment is pending before the county board on the effective date of the act adding this section or those applications for reduction in assessment that are filed with the county board after the effective date of the act adding this section.

(e) This section shall only become operative if the board of supervisors of a county, with the approval of the county's tax collector and the county's auditor, adopts a resolution or ordinance approving this section.

SEC. 3. Section 4985.3 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

4985.3. (a) Notwithstanding Section 2610.5, in the case of cancellations made to the roll pursuant to Section 1646.1, where a taxpayer has failed to pay an amount of tax computed upon assessed value that is the subject of a pending assessment appeal, the relief from penalties shall apply only to the difference between the county board's final determination of value and the value on the assessment roll for the fiscal year covered by the application. For purposes of this section, "county board" means either a county board of supervisors that meets as a county board of equalization or an assessment appeals board.

(b) The county board shall cause notice of the requirements of this section to be mailed to each taxpayer or to be presented to each taxpayer upon filing an application for reduction in assessment with the county board if that taxpayer will be impacted by the penalty provisions of this section.

(c) For any taxpayer who has paid at least 80 percent of the amount of tax finally determined due by the county board within 60 days of mailing or presentation of the notice prescribed in subdivision (b), the tax collector shall accept payment of the balance of the tax due without penalties or interest.

(d) This section shall apply only to those properties upon which an application for reduction in assessment is pending before the county board on the effective date of the act adding this section or those applications for reduction in assessment that are filed with the county board after the effective date of the act adding this section.

(e) This section shall only become operative if the board of supervisors of a county, with the approval of the county's tax collector and the county's auditor, adopts a resolution or ordinance approving this section.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to appropriately address the currently massive backlog of assessment appeals that contains a substantial number of appeals that are frivolous or made in bad faith, and thereby preclude an imminent, improper, and crippling reduction in already severely restricted amounts of local government revenues, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 857

An act to amend Section 6369 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy, and declaring the urgency thereof.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) The Legislature previously exempted from the sales and use tax the gross receipts from the sale of, and the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of, prescription pharmaceuticals.

(b) The use tax is intended to be a companion tax to the sales tax and generally is intended to apply to storage, use, or consumption of property in this state which was not subject to sales tax because it was purchased outside the state. The use tax is not intended to apply to property of a class that would have been exempt if sold with the state.

(c) Pharmaceutical manufacturers often furnish free samples of prescription medicines to licensed physicians, surgeons, dentists, and podiatrists and to other health care facilities, including, but not limited to, hospitals, clinics, and institutions of higher education.

(d) The recipients of those free samples often furnish them to indigent patients or furnish those free samples to other patients to enable them to test the efficacy of a particular product before buying it.

(e) The Legislature intends that the exemption from the sales and use tax include the manufacture and distribution of those free samples, including the acquisition of any constituent elements incorporated in the manufactured pharmaceutical.

SEC. 2. Section 6369 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

6369. (a) There are exempted from the taxes imposed by this part the gross receipts from the sale in this state of, and the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of, medicines:

(1) Prescribed for the treatment of a human being by a person authorized to prescribe the medicines, and dispensed on prescription filled by a registered pharmacist in accordance with law.

(2) Furnished by a licensed physician and surgeon, dentist, or podiatrist to his or her own patient for treatment of the patient.

(3) Furnished by a health facility for treatment of any person pursuant to the order of a licensed physician and surgeon, dentist, or podiatrist.

(4) Sold to a licensed physician and surgeon, podiatrist, dentist, or health facility for the treatment of a human being.

(5) Sold to this state or any political subdivision or municipal corporation thereof, for use in the treatment of a human being; or furnished for the treatment of a human being by a medical facility or clinic maintained by this state or any political subdivision or municipal corporation thereof.

(6) Furnished without charge by a pharmaceutical manufacturer or distributor to a licensed physician, surgeon, dentist, podiatrist, or health facility for the treatment of a human being, or furnished by a pharmaceutical manufacturer or distributor without charge to an institution of higher education for instruction or research, provided that the exemption provided in this paragraph is limited to medicines of a type that can be dispensed only (A) for the treatment of a human being and (B) pursuant to prescriptions issued by persons authorized to prescribe medicines. The exemption provided in this paragraph shall include the materials used to package, and the constituent elements and ingredients used to produce, the medicines described in this paragraph and is intended to preclude any imposition of tax pursuant to Section 6094 or 6095 with respect to those materials, elements, and ingredients.

(b) "Medicines" as used in this section, means any substance or preparation intended for use by external or internal application to the human body in the diagnosis, cure, mitigation, treatment, or prevention of disease and commonly recognized as a substance or preparation intended for that use. However, "medicines" does not include any of the following:

(1) Any auditory, prosthetic, ophthalmic, or ocular device or appliance.

(2) Articles that are in the nature of splints, bandages, pads, compresses, supports, dressings, instruments, apparatus, contrivances, appliances, devices, or other mechanical, electronic, optical, or physical equipment or article or the component parts and accessories thereof.

(3) Any alcoholic beverage the manufacture, sale, purchase, possession, or transportation of which is licensed and regulated by the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act (Division 9 (commencing with Section 23000) of the Business and Professions Code).

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), "medicines" as used in this section means and includes any of the following:

(1) Sutures, whether or not permanently implanted.

(2) Bone screws, bone pins, pacemakers, and other articles, other than dentures, permanently implanted in the human body to assist the functioning of any natural organ, artery, vein, or limb and which remain or dissolve in the body.

(3) (A) Orthotic devices, other than orthodontic devices, designed to be worn on the person of the user as a brace, support, or correction for the body structure, and replacement parts for these devices. However, orthopedic shoes and supportive devices for the foot are not exempt unless they are custom-made biomechanical foot orthoses or are an integral part of a leg brace or artificial leg.

(B) For purposes of this paragraph, "custom-made biomechanical foot orthoses" means an individually prescribed foot orthosis which is custom fabricated over a neutral or near neutral subtalar joint with a pronated midtarsal joint position positive plaster model of the patient's foot, which model, when the cast is modified to support the osseous position of the forefoot in relationship to the rearfoot, embodies the angular osseous relationships of the anterior and posterior portions of the foot.

(4) Prosthetic devices, and replacement parts for those devices, designed to be worn on or in the person of the user to replace or assist the functioning of a natural part of the human body, other than auditory, ophthalmic, and ocular devices or appliances, and other than dentures, removable or fixed bridges, crowns, caps, inlays, artificial teeth, and other dental prosthetic materials and devices.

(5) Artificial limbs and eyes, or their replacement parts, for human beings.

(6) Programmable drug infusion devices to be worn on or implanted in the human body.

(d) "Health facility" as used in this section has the meaning ascribed to it in Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code.

(e) Insulin and insulin syringes furnished by a registered pharmacist to a person for treatment of diabetes as directed by a physician shall be deemed to be dispensed on prescription within the meaning of this section.

(f) Orthotic and prosthetic devices, and replacement parts for these devices, furnished pursuant to the written order of a physician or podiatrist, shall be deemed to be dispensed on prescription within the meaning of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), whether or not the devices are furnished by a registered pharmacist.

(g) Mammary prostheses, and any appliances and related supplies necessary as the result of any surgical procedure by which an artificial opening is created in the human body for the elimination of natural waste, shall be deemed to be dispensed on prescription within the meaning of this section.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 2230 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act and the state shall not reimburse any local agency for any sales and use tax revenues lost by it under this act.

SEC. 4. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. However, notwithstanding this section or Section 5 of this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the first day of the first calendar quarter commencing more than 90 days after the effective date of this act.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to clarify the tax status on the furnishing of free pharmaceutical samples as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 858

An act to amend Sections 22952 and 22953 of, and to add Sections 22218.5 and 24411.5 to, the Education Code, relating to the State Teachers' Retirement System, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22218.5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

22218.5. (a) The board on March 1, 1995, and annually thereafter, shall report to the fiscal committees of the Legislature and to the Director of Finance the return on investments and actual payroll subject to the system for the prior fiscal year.

SEC. 2. Section 22952 of the Education Code is amended to read:

22952. (a) Effective January 1, 1980, the school districts and other employing agencies in the state, in addition to all other contributions required by this part, on account of liability for benefits pursuant to Section 24407, shall contribute monthly to the Teachers' Retirement Fund 0.307 percent of the total of the salaries upon which members' contributions are based.

(b) The Controller shall adjust the contributions required by this section within 10 days of notification by the board of the actual creditable earnings on which the contributions are based. A copy of the notification shall be transmitted to the Legislature, the Director of Finance, the Office of the Legislative Analyst, and the Commission on State Mandates. The payroll data shall be subject to audit by the Controller pursuant to Section 17558.5 of the Government Code.

SEC. 3. Section 22953 of the Education Code is amended to read:

22953. (a) Effective January 1, 1981, the school districts and other employing agencies in the state, in addition to all other contributions required by this chapter, on account of liability for benefits pursuant to Section 24408, shall contribute monthly to the Teachers' Retirement Fund 0.108 percent of the total of the salaries upon which members' contributions are based.

(b) The Controller shall adjust the contributions required by this section within 10 days of notification by the board of the actual creditable earnings on which the contributions are based. A copy of the notification shall be transmitted to the Legislature, the Director of Finance, the Office of the Legislative Analyst, and the Commission on State Mandates. The payroll data shall be subject to audit by the Controller pursuant to Section 17558.5 of the Government Code.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1997, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1997, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4. Section 24411.5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

24411.5. In furtherance of the policy stated in subdivision (e) of Section 24411, the Legislature hereby declares that it is the intent of the State of California to ensure a common minimum purchasing power protection level equal to 75 percent of the purchasing power of the original allowance. It is the intent to meet this goal from funds appropriated for purchasing power protection from revenues from state school lands in the California desert, the Elk Hills Naval Petroleum Reserve, and all other state school and lieu land revenues, as well as state appropriations, and all other sources that may be used to meet this goal.

CHAPTER 859

An act to amend Section 1502 of, and to add Section 1507 to, the Public Utilities Code, relating to water service.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1502 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

1502. (a) As used in this chapter, "political subdivision" means a county, city and county, city, municipal water district, county water district, irrigation district, public utility district, California water district, or any other public corporation.

(b) As used in this chapter, "service area" means an area served by a privately owned public utility in which the facilities have been dedicated to public use and in which territory the utility is required to render service to the public.

(c) As used in this chapter, "operating system" means an integrated water system for the supply of water to a service area of a privately owned public utility.

(d) As used in this chapter, "private utility" means a privately owned public utility providing a water service.

(e) As used in this chapter, "type of service" means, among other things, domestic, commercial, industrial, fire protection, wholesale, or irrigation service.

(f) As used in this chapter, "reclaimed water" means reclaimed water as defined in Section 13050 of the Water Code.

(g) As used in this chapter, "private use" means an entity's use of its own reclaimed water.

SEC. 2. Section 1507 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

1507. This chapter shall not be applicable if all of the following conditions are met:

(a) The use is limited to the private use of reclaimed water by an entity that owns a water reclamation plant.

(b) The use is limited to the premises of a water reclamation plant or landfill owned by the entity that owns or operates the water reclamation plant.

(c) The use is limited to dust suppression, and irrigation purposes, and other uses on the site for which reclaimed water has been approved by the State Department of Health Services.

(d) No existing reclaimed water facilities, whether owned or operated by a private utility or political subdivision, can reasonably and economically serve the intended use.

(e) If reclaimed water is used on the premises of a landfill, the entity provides appropriate compensation to the private utility or political subdivision for those facilities directly used for the water services being replaced by reclaimed water service. Appropriate compensation shall not include valuations based on revenues lost by the private utility or political subdivision due to replacement of water service with reclaimed water.

(f) This section shall apply only in Los Angeles County.

SEC. 3. Due to the unique circumstances concerning the relationship between the retail water suppliers and the sanitation districts in Los Angeles County, the Legislature finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 860

An act to amend Sections 50078.6, 50078.15, and 54954.6 of the Government Code, and to amend Sections 5222, 10311, 18364, 18691, and 22626 of the Streets and Highways Code, relating to local taxes.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 50078.6 of the Government Code is amended to read:

50078.6. The clerk of the local agency shall cause a copy of the notice of the filing of the report and of the time, date, and place of hearing thereon to be mailed to each parcel or property owner whose property would be subject to the assessment. The notice shall be mailed at least 45 days prior to the date set for hearing pursuant to Section 54954.6 by name to those persons whose name and address appear on the last equalized county assessment roll, the State Board of Equalization assessment roll, or as known to the clerk. The envelope or cover of the mailing shall include the name of the local agency and the return address of the sender. The mailed notice shall include the name of the local agency, the return address of the sender, the amount of the initial assessment, the basis of the assessment, a summary of the procedures for making a protest pursuant to Section 50078.12, and if applicable, the amount of the maximum assessment and the duration of the assessment. The notice shall also contain the name and telephone number of the person designated by the legislative body to answer inquiries regarding the protest proceedings.

SEC. 2. Section 50078.15 of the Government Code is amended to read:

50078.15. If no protests or objections in writing have been delivered to the clerk up to the hour set for hearing thereon, or if valid protests have been found by the legislative body to be less than 10 percent of the total amount of expected revenue, the legislative body may, upon the conclusion of the hearing, adopt, revise, change, reduce, or modify each or any assessment. The legislative body shall make a determination upon each assessment as described in the report or as determined at the hearing, and thereafter, by ordinance or resolution, shall determine and levy the assessment.

SEC. 3. Section 54954.6 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54954.6. (a) (1) Before adopting any new or increased general tax or any new or increased assessment, the legislative body of a city, county, special district, or joint powers authority shall conduct at least one public meeting at which local officials must allow public testimony regarding the proposed new or increased general tax or new or increased assessment in addition to the noticed public hearing at which the legislative body proposes to enact or increase the general tax or assessment.

For purposes of this section, the term "new or increased assessment" does not include any of the following:

(A) A fee which does not exceed the reasonable cost of providing the services, facilities, or regulatory activity for which the fee is charged.

(B) A service charge, rate, or charge, unless a special district's principal act requires the service charge, rate, or charge to conform to the requirements of this section.

(C) An ongoing annual assessment if it is imposed at the same or lower amount as any previous year.

(D) An assessment which does not exceed an assessment formula or range of assessments previously specified in the notice given to the public pursuant to subparagraph (G) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 54954.6 and which was previously adopted by the agency or approved by the voters in the area where the assessment is imposed.

(E) Standby or immediate availability charges.

(2) The legislative body shall provide at least 45 days' public notice of the public hearing at which the legislative body proposes to enact or increase the general tax or assessment. The legislative body shall provide notice for the public meeting at the same time and in the same document as the notice for the public hearing, but the meeting shall occur prior to the hearing.

(b) (1) The joint notice of both the public meeting and the public hearing required by subdivision (a) with respect to a proposal for a new or increased general tax shall be accomplished by placing a display advertisement of at least one-eighth page in a newspaper of general circulation for three weeks pursuant to Section 6063 and by a first-class mailing to those interested parties who have filed a written request with the local agency for mailed notice of public meetings or hearings on new or increased general taxes. The public meeting pursuant to subdivision (a) shall take place no earlier than 10 days after the first publication of the joint notice pursuant to this subdivision. The public hearing shall take place no earlier than seven days after the public meeting pursuant to this subdivision. Notwithstanding paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), the joint notice need not include notice of the public meeting after the meeting has taken place. The public hearing pursuant to subdivision (a) shall take place no earlier than 45 days after the first publication of the joint notice pursuant to this subdivision. Any written request for mailed notices shall be effective for one year from the date on which it is filed unless a renewal request is filed. Renewal requests for mailed notices shall be filed on or before April 1 of each year. The legislative body may establish a reasonable annual charge for sending notices based on the estimated cost of providing the service.

(2) The notice required by paragraph (1) of this subdivision shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(A) The amount or rate of the tax. If the tax is proposed to be increased from any previous year, the joint notice shall separately state both the existing tax rate and the proposed tax rate increase.

(B) The activity to be taxed.

(C) The estimated amount of revenue to be raised by the tax annually.

(D) The method and frequency for collecting the tax.

(E) The dates, times, and locations of the public meeting and hearing described in subdivision (a).

(F) The phone number and address of an individual, office, or organization that interested persons may contact to receive additional information about the tax.

(c) (1) The joint notice of both the public meeting and the public hearing required by subdivision (a) with respect to a proposal for a new or increased assessment on real property shall be accomplished through a mailing, postage prepaid, in the United States mail and shall be deemed given when so deposited. The public meeting pursuant to subdivision (a) shall take place no earlier than 10 days after the joint mailing pursuant to this subdivision. The public hearing shall take place no earlier than seven days after the public meeting pursuant to this subdivision. The envelope or the cover of the mailing shall include the name of the local agency and the return address of the sender. This mailed notice shall be in at least 10-point type and shall be given to all property owners proposed to be subject to the new or increased assessment by a mailing by name to those persons whose names and addresses appear on the last equalized county assessment roll or the State Board of Equalization assessment roll, as the case may be.

(2) The joint notice required by paragraph (1) of this subdivision shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(A) The estimated amount of the assessment per parcel. If the assessment is proposed to be increased from any previous year, the joint notice shall separately state both the amount of the existing assessment and the proposed assessment increase.

(B) A general description of the purpose or improvements that the assessment will fund.

(C) The address to which property owners may mail a protest against the assessment.

(D) The phone number and address of an individual, office, or organization that interested persons may contact to receive additional information about the assessment.

(E) A statement that a majority protest will cause the assessment to be abandoned if the assessment act used to levy the assessment so provides. Notice must also state the percentage of protests required to trigger an election, if applicable.

(F) The dates, times, and locations of the public meeting and hearing described in subdivision (a).

(G) A proposed assessment formula or range as described in subparagraph (D) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) if applicable and that is noticed pursuant to this section.

(3) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), in the case of an assessment which is proposed exclusively for operation and maintenance expenses for an entire city, county, or district, or exclusively for operation and maintenance assessments proposed to be levied on 50,000 parcels or more, notice may be provided pursuant to this subdivision or pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) and shall include the estimated amount of the assessment of various types, amounts, or uses of property and the information required by subparagraphs (B) to (G), inclusive, of paragraph (2) of subdivision (c).

(4) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), in the case of an assessment proposed to be levied pursuant to Part 2 (commencing with Section 22500) of Division 2 of the Streets and Highways Code by a regional park district, regional park and open-space district, or regional open-space district formed pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 5500) of Chapter 3 of Division 5 of, or pursuant to Division 26 (commencing with Section 35100) of, the Public Resources Code, notice may be provided pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b).

(d) The notice requirements imposed by this section shall be construed as additional to, and not to supersede, existing provisions of law, and shall be applied concurrently with the existing provisions so as to not delay or prolong the governmental decisionmaking process.

(e) This section shall not apply to any new or increased general tax or any new or increased assessment that requires an election of either of the following:

(1) The property owners subject to the assessment.

(2) The voters within the city, county, special district, or joint powers authority imposing the tax or assessment.

(f) Nothing in this section shall prohibit a local agency from holding a consolidated meeting or hearing at which the legislative body discusses multiple tax or assessment proposals.

(g) The local agency may recover the reasonable costs of public meetings, public hearings, and notice required by this section from the proceeds of the tax or assessment. The costs recovered for these purposes, whether recovered pursuant to this subdivision or any other provision of law, shall not exceed the reasonable costs of the public meetings, public hearings, and notice.

SEC. 4. Section 5222 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

5222. If the protest is against the proposed work and the legislative body finds that the protest is made by the owners of more than one-half of the area of the property to be assessed for the improvements, and protests are not withdrawn so as to reduce the same to less than a majority, no further proceedings shall be taken for a period of one year from the date of the decision of the legislative body on the hearing, unless the protests are overruled by an affirmative vote of four-fifths of the members of the legislative body finding that the public health and safety require that the improvements be made. The determination of the legislative body shall be final and conclusive.

SEC. 5. Section 10311 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

10311. If the protest is against the proposed improvement and the legislative body finds that the protest is made by the owners of more than one-half of the area of the land to be assessed for the improvements, and protests are not withdrawn so as to reduce the protests to less than a majority, no further proceedings shall be taken for a period of one year from the date of the decision of the legislative body on the hearing, unless the protests are overruled by an affirmative vote of four-fifths of the members of the legislative body finding that the public health and safety require that the improvements be made. The determination of the legislative body shall be final and conclusive. Any person making a protest may withdraw the protest, in writing, at any time prior to the conclusion of the protest hearing. The legislative body may confirm, modify, or correct the proposed assessment.

SEC. 6. Section 18364 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

18364. If there is a majority protest by the landowners in any zone to the improvement in that zone, or if the street superintendent reports that it is practical to subdivide a zone and a majority of the landowners in that subdivided zone protest the improvement in that subdivided zone, the city council shall strike that zone or subdivided zone from the proceedings and correct the proposed assessment accordingly, unless that body, by a four-fifths affirmative vote of all its members finds that the public health and safety require that street lights in that zone or subdivided zone be improved. The determination of the city council shall be final and conclusive.

SEC. 7. Section 18691 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

18691. The city council may, by four-fifths vote, deny all protests finding that the public health and safety require that the improvements be made and its decision thereon shall be final and conclusive. If any protests on matters which can not be modified as provided in Section 18690 hereof are sustained, the proceedings shall be abandoned but may be renewed at any time. No land shall be included within the district which in the judgment of the city council will not be benefited by the street lighting system as that body has finally determined to maintain and operate it.

SEC. 8. Section 22626 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

22626. Notice of the hearing shall be given by either of the following methods:

(a) If the assessments are to be levied in the same or lesser amounts than in any previous year, the clerk shall give notice by causing the resolution of intention to be published pursuant to Sections 22552 and 22553.

(b) If the assessments are to be increased from any previous year, notice of the public meeting and public hearing required by Section 54954.6 of the Government Code shall be mailed as provided in subdivision (c) of that section.

CHAPTER 861

An act to amend Sections 24353, 24916, and 25128 of, and to add Sections 17249, 17279, 17748, 18035, 18060, 18166, 18173, 24355, 24355.5, 24966.3, 24990.8, and 24990.9 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17249 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

17249. (a) The amendments to Section 167(c) of the Internal Revenue Code made by Section 13261(b)(2) of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), relating to amortization of goodwill and certain other intangibles, shall apply.

(b) Section 167(f) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to treatment of property excluded from Section 197, as added by Section 13261(b) of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

SEC. 2. Section 17279 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

17279. (a) Section 197 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to amortization of goodwill and certain other intangibles, as added by Section 13261 of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(b) (1) Section 13261(g) of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), relating to effective dates, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(2) (A) If a taxpayer has, at any time, made an election for federal purposes under Section 13261(g)(2) of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), relating to election to have amendments apply to property acquired after July 25, 1991, or Section 13261(g)(3) of that act, relating to elective binding contract exception, a separate election for state purposes shall not be allowed under paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 17024.5 and the federal election shall be binding for purposes of this part.

(B) If a taxpayer has not made an election for federal purposes under Section 13261(g)(2) of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), relating to election to have amendments apply to property acquired after July 25, 1991, or Section 13261(g)(3) of that act, relating to elective binding contract exception, with respect to property acquired before August 11, 1993, then the taxpayer shall not be allowed to make an election under Section 13261(g) of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), for purposes of this part, with respect to that property.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, each of the following shall apply:

(1) No deduction shall be allowed under this section for any taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1994.

(2) No inference is intended with respect to the allowance or denial of any deduction for amortization in any taxable year beginning before January 1, 1994.

(3) In the case of an intangible that was acquired in a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1994, the amount to be amortized shall not exceed the adjusted basis of that intangible as of the first day of the first taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1994, and that amount shall be amortized ratably over the period beginning with the first month of the first taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1994, and ending 15 years after the month in which the intangible was acquired.

SEC. 3. Section 17748 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

17748. The amendments to Section 642 of the Internal Revenue Code made by Section 13261(f)(2) of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), relating to amortization of goodwill and certain other intangibles, shall apply.

SEC. 4. Section 18035 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

18035. The amendments to Section 1016 of the Internal Revenue Code made by Section 13261(f)(3) of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), relating to amortization of goodwill and certain other intangibles, shall apply.

SEC. 5. Section 18060 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

18060. The amendments to Section 1060 of the Internal Revenue

Code made by Section 13261(e) of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), relating to amortization of goodwill and certain other intangibles, shall apply.

SEC. 6. Section 18166 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

18166. The amendments to Section 1245 of the Internal Revenue Code made by paragraphs (4) and (5) of Section 13261(f) of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), relating to amortization of goodwill and certain other intangibles, shall apply.

SEC. 7. Section 18173 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

18173. The amendments to Section 1253 of the Internal Revenue Code made by Section 13261(c) of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), relating to amortization of goodwill and certain other intangibles, shall apply.

SEC. 8. Section 24353 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24353. (a) The basis on which exhaustion, wear and tear, and obsolescence are to be allowed in respect of any property shall be the adjusted basis provided in Section 24911 for the purpose of determining the gain on the sale or other disposition of the property.

(b) If any property is acquired subject to a lease, each of the following shall apply:

(1) No portion of the adjusted basis shall be allocated to the leasehold interest.

(2) The entire adjusted basis shall be taken into account in determining the depreciation deduction, if any, with respect to the property subject to lease.

SEC. 9. Section 24355 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

24355. Section 167(f) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to treatment of property excluded from Section 197, as added by Section 13261(b) of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

SEC. 10. Section 24355.5 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

24355.5. (a) Section 197 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to amortization of goodwill and certain other intangibles, as added by Section 13261 of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(b) (1) Section 13261(g) of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), relating to effective dates, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(2) (A) If a taxpayer has, at any time, made an election for federal purposes under Section 13261(g)(2) of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), relating to election to have amendments apply to property acquired after July 25, 1991, or Section 13261(g)(3) of that act, relating to elective binding contract exception, a separate election for state purposes shall not be allowed under paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 23051.5 and the federal election shall be binding for purposes of this part.

(B) If a taxpayer has not made an election for federal purposes under Section 13261(g)(2) of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), relating to election to have amendments apply to property acquired after July 25, 1991, or Section 13261(g)(3) of that act, relating to elective binding contract exception, with respect to property acquired before August 11, 1993, then the taxpayer shall not be allowed to make an election under Section 13261(g) of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), for purposes of this part, with respect to that property.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, each of the following shall apply:

(1) No deduction shall be allowed under this section for any income year beginning prior to January 1, 1994.

(2) No inference is intended with respect to the allowance or denial of any deduction for amortization in any income year beginning before January 1, 1994.

(3) In the case of an intangible that was acquired in an income year beginning before January 1, 1994, the amount to be amortized shall not exceed the adjusted basis of that intangible as of the first day of the first income year beginning on or after January 1, 1994, and that amount shall be amortized ratably over the period beginning with the first month of the first income year beginning on or after January 1, 1994, and ending 15 years after the month in which the intangible was acquired.

SEC. 11. Section 24916 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24916. Proper adjustment with regard to the property shall in all cases be made as follows:

(a) For expenditures, receipts, losses, or other items properly chargeable to capital account. However, no adjustment shall be made for any of the following:

(1) Sales or use tax paid or incurred in connection with the acquisition of property for which a tax credit is claimed pursuant to Section 23612.

(2) Taxes or other carrying charges described in Section 24426, or for expenditures described in Sections 24364 and 24369 for which deductions have been taken in determining net income for the income year or any prior income year.

(b) For exhaustion, wear and tear, obsolescence, amortization, and depletion:

(1) In the case of banks or corporations subject to the tax imposed by Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23101), to the extent sustained prior to January 1, 1928, and to the extent allowed (but not less than the amount allowable) under this part, except that no deduction shall be made for amounts in excess of the amount which would have been allowable had depreciation not been computed on the basis of January 1, 1928, value and amounts in excess of the adjustments required by Section 113(b)(1)(B) of the Federal Revenue Act of 1938 for depletion prior to January 1, 1932.

(2) In the case of a taxpayer subject to the tax imposed by Chapter 3, to the extent sustained prior to January 1, 1937, and for periods thereafter to the extent allowed (but not less than the amount allowable) under the provisions of this part.

(3) If a taxpayer has not claimed an amortization deduction for an emergency facility, the adjustment under paragraph (1) shall be made only to the extent ordinarily provided under Sections 24349 and 24372.

(c) In the case of stock (to the extent not provided for in the foregoing subdivisions) for the amount of distributions previously made which, under the law applicable to the year in which the distribution was made, either were tax free or were applicable in reduction of basis (not including distributions made by a corporation, which was classified as a personal service corporation under the provisions of the Federal Revenue Act of 1918 or 1921, out of its earnings or profits which were taxable in accordance with the provisions of Section 218 of the Federal Revenue Act of 1918 or 1921).

(d) (1) In the case of banks or corporations subject to the tax imposed by Chapter 2, in the case of any bond, as defined in Section 24363, to the extent of the deductions allowable pursuant to Section 24360 with respect thereto.

(2) In the case of taxpayers subject to the tax imposed by Chapter 3, in the case of any bond, as defined in Section 24363, the interest on which is wholly exempt from the tax imposed by this part, to the extent of the amortizable bond premium disallowable as a deduction pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 24360, and in the case of any other bond, as defined in Section 24363, to the extent of the deductions allowable pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 24360 (or the amount applied to reduce interest payments under paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 24363.5) with respect thereto.

(3) In the case of property pledged to the Commodity Credit Corporation, to the extent of the amount received as a loan from the Commodity Credit Corporation and treated by the taxpayer as income for the year in which received pursuant to Section 24273, and to the extent of any deficiency on that loan with respect to which the taxpayer has been relieved from liability.

(e) For amounts allowed as deductions as deferred expenses under Section 616(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to certain expenditures in the development of mines, and resulting in a reduction of the taxpayer's tax, but not less than the amounts allowable under that section for the income year and prior years.

(f) For amounts allowable as deductions as deferred expenses under Section 617(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to certain exploration expenditures, and resulting in a reduction of the taxpayer's tax, but not less than the amounts allowable under that section for the income year and prior years.

(g) For amounts allowed as deductions as deferred expenses under subdivision (a) of Section 24366, relating to research and experimental expenditures, and resulting in a reduction of the bank or corporations' taxes under this part, but not less than the amounts allowable under that section for the income year and prior years.

(h) For amounts allowed as deductions under Sections 24356.2, 24356.3, and 24356.4.

(i) (1) To the extent provided in Section 179A(e)(6)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to basis reduction for clean-fuel vehicles and certain refueling property.

(2) This subdivision shall apply to property placed in service after June 30, 1993, without regard to income year.

SEC. 12. Section 24966.3 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

24966.3. The amendments to Section 1060 of the Internal Revenue Code made by Section 13261(e) of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), relating to amortization of goodwill and certain other intangibles, shall apply.

SEC. 13. Section 24990.8 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

24990.8. The amendments to Section 1245 of the Internal Revenue Code made by paragraphs (4) and (5) of Section 13261(f) of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), relating to amortization of goodwill and certain other intangibles, shall apply.

SEC. 14. Section 24990.9 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

24990.9. The amendments to Section 1253 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to transfers of franchises, trademarks, and trade names by Section 13261(c) of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), relating to amortization of goodwill and certain other intangibles, shall apply.

SEC. 15. Section 25128 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

25128. (a) Notwithstanding Section 38006, all business income shall be apportioned to this state by multiplying the business income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor plus twice the sales factor, and the denominator of which is four, except as provided in subdivision (b) or (c).

(b) If a taxpayer derives more than 50 percent of its "gross business receipts" from conducting one or more qualified business activities, all business income of the taxpayer shall be apportioned to this state by multiplying business income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor plus the sales factor, and the denominator of which is three.

(c) For purposes of this section, a "qualified business activity" means the following:

(1) An agricultural business activity.

(2) An extractive business activity.

(3) A savings and loan activity.

(4) A banking or financial business activity.

(d) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Gross business receipts" means gross receipts described in subdivision (e) of Section 25120 (other than gross receipts excluded in paragraph (5) of this subdivision), whether or not the receipts are excluded from the sales factor by operation of Section 25137.

(2) "Agricultural business activity" means activities relating to any stock, dairy, poultry, fruit, furbearing animal, or truck farm, plantation, ranch, nursery, or range. "Agricultural business activity" also includes activities relating to cultivating the soil or raising or harvesting any agricultural or horticultural commodity, including, but not limited to, the raising, shearing, feeding, caring for, training, or management of animals on a farm as well as the handling, drying, packing, grading, or storing on a farm any agricultural or horticultural commodity in its unmanufactured state, but only if the owner, tenant, or operator of the farm regularly produces more than one-half of the commodity so treated.

(3) "Extractive business activity" means activities relating to the production, refining, or processing of oil, natural gas, or mineral ore.

(4) "Savings and loan activity" means any activities performed by savings and loan associations or savings banks which have been chartered by federal or state law.

(5) "Banking or financial business activity" means activities attributable to dealings in money or moneyed capital in substantial competition with the business of national banks.

(6) Paragraph (4) of subdivision (c) shall apply only if the Franchise Tax Board adopts the Proposed Multistate Tax Commission Formula for the Uniform Apportionment of Net Income from Financial Institutions, or its substantial equivalent, and shall become operative upon the same operative date as the adopted formula.

(7) In any case where the income and apportionment factors of two or more affiliated banks, savings associations, or corporations are required to be included in a combined report under Section 25101, both of the following shall apply:

(A) The application of the 50 percent test of subdivision (b) shall be made with respect to the "gross business receipts" of the entire group, excluding gross receipts from sales or other transactions between members of the group.

(B) The entire business income of the group shall be apportioned in accordance with either subdivision (a) or (b), as applicable.

SEC. 16. It is the intent of the Legislature that the Franchise Tax Board staff take into account the principles of Section 197 of the Internal Revenue Code, as incorporated by this act into Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) and Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, in resolving issues involving the amortization of intangible assets for periods prior to the enactment of this act so as to produce consistent results for similarly situated taxpayers. However, no inference is intended that any deduction should be allowed in these cases for assets that are not amortizable under either Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code as they read immediately prior to the amendments made by this act.

SEC. 17. At least 45 days before adoption of any regulation that adopts the Proposed Multistate Tax Commission Formula for the Uniform Apportionment of Net Income from Financial Institutions, or its substantial equivalent, the Franchise Tax Board shall report to the Legislature the board staff's estimate of the impact on franchise and income tax revenues as a result of the adoption of the regulation. That report shall compare the revenue resulting from the law in existence immediately prior to the enactment of this act, to the revenue resulting from adoption, by regulation, of the Proposed Multistate Tax Commission Formula.

SEC. 18. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 862

An act to add and repeal Section 21083.8 of the Public Resources Code, relating to environmental quality.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature hereby declares its intent that, if there is sufficient federal funding available and an environmental impact statement for a military base reuse plan has not been prepared pursuant to the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 4321 et seq.) prior to the preparation of an environmental impact report pursuant to the California Environmental Quality Act (Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code), a state or local lead agency shall make reasonable and feasible efforts to prepare the environmental impact report jointly with the preparation of the environmental impact statement by the federal lead agency. If such a joint report and statement is not feasible, it is the intent of the Legislature that the state or local lead agency prepare an environmental impact report, but may utilize, pursuant to Section 21083.8 of the Public Resources Code, an environmental impact statement if one has been prepared.

It is not the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act to prevent a local agency from utilizing other provisions of the California Environmental Quality Act (Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code) that may be relevant.

SEC. 2. Section 21083.8 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

21083.8. (a) For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the following meaning:

(1) "Reuse plan" means an initial plan for the reuse of a military base adopted by a local government or a redevelopment agency in the form of a general plan, general plan amendment, specific plan, redevelopment plan, or other planning document.

(2) "Base" means any military base either closed by, or scheduled for closure by, the federal government.

(b) If an environmental impact statement on the closure and reuse of a military base has been prepared and filed pursuant to the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 4321 et seq.), the lead agency that is responsible for the preparation of an environmental impact report for a reuse plan for the same base may proceed in the following manner:

(1) A notice of the preparation of an environmental impact report on a reuse plan shall be prepared pursuant to either Section 21080.4 or 21080.6 and shall include a description of the reuse plan and a copy of the environmental impact statement. The notice shall indicate that the lead agency intends to utilize the environmental impact statement as a draft environmental impact report and requests comments on whether, and to what extent, the environmental impact statement provides adequate information to serve as a draft environmental impact report, and what specific additional information, if any, is necessary to comply with this division. The notice shall also indicate the address to which written comments may be sent and the deadline for submitting comments.

(2) Upon the close of the comment period on the notice of preparation, the lead agency may proceed with preparation of the environmental impact report on the reuse plan. The lead agency shall, to the greatest extent feasible, avoid duplication and utilize information in the environmental impact statement consistent with this division. The draft environmental impact report shall consist of all or part of the environmental impact statement and any additional information that is necessary to prepare a draft environmental impact report in compliance with this division.

(3) In all other respects, the environmental impact report for the reuse plan shall be completed in compliance with this division.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2001, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 2001, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. This act shall become operative only if Assembly Bill 3774 is also enacted and takes effect on or before January 1, 1995.

CHAPTER 863

An act to amend Sections 290, 290.1, and 4852.01 of the Penal Code, relating to sex offenders.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 290 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290. (a) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or is hereafter convicted in this state of assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220, or of any offense defined in paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, or of any offense defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to the state prison, or of any offense defined in Section 264.1, 266, 267, 285, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, 289, or 647.6 or former Section 647a, subdivision (d) of Section 647, or subdivision 1 or 2 of Section 314, or of any offense involving lewd and lascivious conduct under Section 272, or of any felony violation of Section 288.2; or any person who since that date has been or is hereafter convicted of the attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses; or any person who since that date or at any time hereafter is discharged or paroled from a penal institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the above-mentioned offenses; or any person who since that date or at any time hereafter is determined to be a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code; or any person who since that date has been or is hereafter convicted in any other state of any offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the above-mentioned offenses, shall, within 30 days after the effective date of this section or within 14 days of coming into any county, city, or city and county in which he or she temporarily resides or is domiciled for that length of time, register with the chief of police of the city in which he or she is domiciled, or the sheriff of the county if he or she is domiciled in an unincorporated area, and, additionally, with the chief of police of a campus of the University of California or the California State University if he or she is domiciled upon the campus or in any of its facilities.

(b) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is discharged or paroled from a jail, prison, school, road camp, or other institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) or is released from a state hospital to which he or she was committed as a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall, prior to discharge, parole, or release, be informed of his or her duty to register under this section by the official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital, and the official shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to the person. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release and shall report the address to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall give one copy of the form to the person and shall send one copy to the Department of Justice and one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having jurisdiction over the place the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release. If the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, the official in charge shall, not later than 45 days prior to the scheduled release of the person, send one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release; one copy to the prosecuting agency which prosecuted the person; and one copy to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement shall retain one copy. All forms shall, if the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, be transmitted within those times as to be received by the local law enforcement agency or agencies and prosecuting agency 30 days prior to the discharge, parole, or release of the person.

(c) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is convicted in this state of the commission or attempted commission of any of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) and who is released on probation or discharged upon payment of a fine shall, prior to release or discharge, be informed of the duty to register under this section by the court in which the person has been convicted, and the court shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to him or her. The court shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon release or discharge and shall report within three days the address to the Department of Justice. The court shall give one copy of the form to the person, send one copy to the Department of Justice, and forward one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release.

(d) (1) Any person who, on or after January 1, 1986, is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the following offenses shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section:

(A) Assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220.

(B) Any offense defined in Section 288 or 288.5, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 286, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 288a, paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, or subdivision (a) of Section 289.

(C) Any offense under Section 264.1 involving rape in concert with force or fear of bodily injury or penetration by any foreign object in concert with force or fear of bodily injury.

(2) Any person who is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the offense set forth in Section 647.6, occurring on or after January 1, 1988, shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(4) All records specifically relating to the registration in the custody of the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, and other agencies or public officials shall be destroyed when the person who is required to register has his or her records sealed under the procedures set forth in Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. This subdivision shall not be construed as requiring the destruction of other criminal offender or juvenile records relating to the case which are maintained by the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, the juvenile court, or other agencies and public officials unless ordered by a court under Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) The registration shall consist of (1) a statement in writing signed by the person, giving information as may be required by the Department of Justice, and (2) the fingerprints and photograph of the person. Within three days thereafter, the registering law enforcement agency or agencies shall forward the statement, fingerprints, and photograph to the Department of Justice.

(f) If any person who is required to register pursuant to this section changes his or her residence address, the person shall inform, in writing within 10 days, the law enforcement agency or agencies with whom he or she last registered of the new address. The law enforcement agency or agencies shall, within three days after receipt of this information, forward it to the Department of Justice. The Department of Justice shall forward appropriate registration data to the law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction of the new place of residence.

(g) (1) Any person who is required to register under this section who violates any of its provisions is guilty of a misdemeanor. Any person who has been convicted of assault with intent to commit rape, oral copulation, or sodomy under Section 220, any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220, any violation of Section 261, any offense defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to the state prison, or any violation of Section 264.1, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289, and who is required to register under this section who willfully violates any of the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail for not less than 90 days nor more than one year. In no event does the court have the power to absolve a person who willfully violates this section from the obligation of spending at least 90 days of confinement in a county jail and of completing probation of at least one year.

(2) Any person who has two prior convictions for the offense of failing to register under this section and who subsequently and willfully commits that offense is, upon each subsequent conviction, guilty of a public offense and shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail for not exceeding one year or by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years.

The existence of any fact which would bring a person under this paragraph shall be alleged in the information or indictment and either admitted by the defendant in open court or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury.

(h) Whenever any person is released on parole or probation and is required to register under this section but fails to do so within the time prescribed, the parole authority, the Youthful Offender Parole Board, or the court, as the case may be, shall order the parole or probation of the person revoked. For purposes of this subdivision, "parole authority" has the same meaning as described in Section 3000.

(i) The statements, photographs, and fingerprints required by this section shall not be open to inspection by the public or by any person other than a regularly employed peace officer or other law enforcement officer.

(j) In any case in which a person who would be required to register pursuant to this section for a felony conviction is to be temporarily sent outside the institution where he or she is confined on any assignment within a city or county including firefighting, disaster control, or of whatever nature the assignment may be, the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the place or places where the assignment shall occur shall be notified within a reasonable time prior to removal from the institution. This provision shall not apply to any person who is temporarily released under guard from the institution where he or she is confined.

(k) As used in this section, "mentally disordered sex offender" includes any person who has been determined to be a sexual psychopath or a mentally disordered sex offender under any provision which, on or before January 1, 1976, was contained in Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(l) Every person who, prior to January 1, 1985, is required to register under this section, shall be notified whenever he or she next reregisters of the reduction of the registration period from 30 to 14 days. This notice shall be provided in writing by the registering agency or agencies. Failure to receive this notification shall be a defense against the penalties prescribed by subdivision (g) if the person did register within 30 days.

SEC. 1.1. Section 290 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290. (a) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or is hereafter convicted in any court in this state or in any federal or military court of assault with intent to commit a violation of subdivision (b) of Section 207, subdivision (b) or (c) of Section 243.4, or subdivision (a), (b), or (c) of Section 311.4, rape, sodomy, oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220, or of any offense defined in paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, or of any offense defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to the state prison, or of any offense defined in Section 264.1, 266, 267, 285, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, 289, or 647.6 or former Section 647a, subdivision (d) of Section 647, or subdivision 1 or 2 of Section 314, or of any offense involving lewd and lascivious conduct under Section 272, or of any felony violation of Section 288.2; or any person who since that date has been or is hereafter convicted of the attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses; or any person who since that date or at any time hereafter is released, discharged, or paroled from a penal institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the above-mentioned offenses; or any person who since that date or at any time hereafter is determined to be a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code; or any person who since that date has been or is hereafter convicted in any other state, or in any federal or military court, of any offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the above-mentioned offenses, shall, within 30 days after the effective date of this section or within 14 days of coming into any county, city, or city and county in which he or she temporarily resides or is domiciled for that length of time, register with the chief of police of the city in which he or she is domiciled, or the sheriff of the county if he or she is domiciled in an unincorporated area, and, additionally, with the chief of police of a campus of the University of California or the California State University if he or she is domiciled upon the campus or in any of its facilities.

(b) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is released, discharged, or paroled from a jail, state or federal prison, school, road camp, or other institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) or is released from a state hospital to which he or she was committed as a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall, prior to discharge, parole, or release, be informed of his or her duty to register under this section by the official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital, and the official shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to the person. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release and shall report the address to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall give one copy of the form to the person and shall send one copy to the Department of Justice and one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having jurisdiction over the place the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release. If the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, the official in charge shall, not later than 45 days prior to the scheduled release of the person, send one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release; one copy to the prosecuting agency which prosecuted the person; and one copy to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement shall retain one copy. All forms shall, if the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, be transmitted within those times as to be received by the local law enforcement agency or agencies and prosecuting agency 30 days prior to the discharge, parole, or release of the person.

(c) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is convicted in this state of the commission or attempted commission of any of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) and who is released on probation or discharged upon payment of a fine shall, prior to release or discharge, be informed of the duty to register under this section by the court in which the person has been convicted, and the court shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to him or her. The court shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon release or discharge and shall report within three days the address to the Department of Justice. The court shall give one copy of the form to the person, send one copy to the Department of Justice, and forward one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release.

(d) (1) Any person who, on or after January 1, 1986, is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the following offenses shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section:

(A) Assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220.

(B) Any offense defined in Section 288 or 288.5, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 286, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 288a, paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, or subdivision (a) of Section 289.

(C) Any offense under Section 264.1 involving rape in concert with force or fear of bodily injury or penetration by any foreign object in concert with force or fear of bodily injury.

(2) Any person who is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the offense set forth in Section 647.6, occurring on or after January 1, 1988, shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(4) All records specifically relating to the registration in the custody of the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, and other agencies or public officials shall be destroyed when the person who is required to register has his or her records sealed under the procedures set forth in Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. This subdivision shall not be construed as requiring the destruction of other criminal offender or juvenile records relating to the case which are maintained by the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, the juvenile court, or other agencies and public officials unless ordered by a court under Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) The registration shall consist of (1) a statement in writing signed by the person, giving information as may be required by the Department of Justice, and (2) the fingerprints and photograph of the person. Within three days thereafter, the registering law enforcement agency or agencies shall forward the statement, fingerprints, and photograph to the Department of Justice.

(f) If any person who is required to register pursuant to this section changes his or her residence address, the person shall inform, in writing within 10 days, the law enforcement agency or agencies with whom he or she last registered of the new address. The law enforcement agency or agencies shall, within three days after receipt of this information, forward it to the Department of Justice. The Department of Justice shall forward appropriate registration data to the law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction of the new place of residence.

(g) (1) Any person who is required to register under this section who violates any of its provisions is guilty of a misdemeanor. Any person who has been convicted of assault with intent to commit rape, oral copulation, or sodomy under Section 220, any violation of Section 264.1 or 289 under Section 220, any violation of Section 261, any offense defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to the state prison, or any violation of Section 264.1, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289, and who is required to register under this section who willfully violates any of the provisions of this section shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years, or in a county jail for not less than 90 days nor more than one year. In no event does the court have the power to absolve a person who willfully violates this section from the obligation of spending at least 90 days of confinement in a county jail and of completing probation of at least one year.

(2) Any person who has been convicted of any violation of Section 288 and who willfully violates this section is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years. Any person who has a prior conviction of failing to register under this section and who subsequently and willfully commits that offense is, upon each subsequent conviction, guilty of a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years. If, after discharge from parole, the person is convicted of a felony as specified in this paragraph, he or she shall be required to complete parole of at least one year, in addition to any other punishment imposed under this paragraph. A person convicted of a felony as specified in this paragraph may be granted probation only in the unusual case where the interests of justice would best be served. When probation is granted under this paragraph, the court shall specify on the record and shall enter in the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interests of justice would best be served by the disposition.

The existence of any fact which would bring a person under this paragraph shall be alleged in the information or indictment and either admitted by the defendant in open court or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury.

(h) Whenever any person is released on parole or probation and is required to register under this section but fails to do so within the time prescribed, the parole authority, the Youthful Offender Parole Board, or the court, as the case may be, shall order the parole or probation of the person revoked. For purposes of this subdivision, "parole authority" has the same meaning as described in Section 3000.

(i) The statements, photographs, and fingerprints required by this section shall not be open to inspection by the public or by any person other than a regularly employed peace officer or other law enforcement officer.

(j) In any case in which a person who would be required to register pursuant to this section for a felony conviction is to be temporarily sent outside the institution where he or she is confined on any assignment within a city or county including firefighting, disaster control, or of whatever nature the assignment may be, the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the place or places where the assignment shall occur shall be notified within a reasonable time prior to removal from the institution. This provision shall not apply to any person who is temporarily released under guard from the institution where he or she is confined.

(l) Every person who, prior to January 1, 1985, is required to register under this section, shall be notified whenever he or she next reregisters of the reduction of the registration period from 30 to 14 days. This notice shall be provided in writing by the registering agency or agencies. Failure to receive this notification shall be a defense against the penalties prescribed by subdivision (g) if the person did register within 30 days.

SEC. 1.2. Section 290 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290. (a) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or is hereafter convicted in this state of assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220, or of any offense defined in paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, or of any offense defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to the state prison, or of any offense defined in Section 264.1, 266, 267, 285, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, 289, or 647.6 or former Section 647a, subdivision (d) of Section 647, or subdivision 1 or 2 of Section 314, or of any offense involving lewd and lascivious conduct under Section 272, or of any felony violation of Section 288.2; or any person who since that date has been or is hereafter convicted of the attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses; or any person who since that date or at any time hereafter is discharged or paroled from a penal institution where he or she was confined because of the commission attempted commission of one of the above-mentioned offenses; or any person who since that date or at any time hereafter is determined to be a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code; or any person who since that date has been or is hereafter convicted in any other state of any offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the above-mentioned offenses, shall, within 30 days after the effective date of this section or within 14 days of coming into any county, city, or city and county in which he or she temporarily resides or is domiciled for that length of time, register with the chief of police of the city in which he or she is domiciled, or the sheriff of the county if he or she is domiciled in an unincorporated area, and, additionally, with the chief of police of a campus of the University of California or the California State University if he or she is domiciled upon the campus or in any of its facilities.

(b) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is discharged or paroled from a jail, prison, school, road camp, or other institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) or is released from a state hospital to which he or she was committed as a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall, prior to discharge, parole, or release, be informed of his or her duty to register under this section by the official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital, and the official shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to the person. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release and shall report the address to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall give one copy of the form to the person and shall send one copy to the Department of Justice and one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having jurisdiction over the place the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release. If the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, the official in charge shall, not later than 45 days prior to the scheduled release of the person, send one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release; one copy to the prosecuting agency which prosecuted the person; and one copy to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement shall retain one copy. All forms shall, if the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, be transmitted within those times as to be received by the local law enforcement agency or agencies and prosecuting agency 30 days prior to the discharge, parole, or release of the person.

(c) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is convicted in this state of the commission or attempted commission of any of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) and who is released on probation or discharged upon payment of a fine shall, prior to release or discharge, be informed of the duty to register under this section by the court in which the person has been convicted, and the court shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to him or her. The court shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon release or discharge and shall report within three days the address to the Department of Justice. The court shall give one copy of the form to the person, send one copy to the Department of Justice, and forward one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release.

(2) Any person who, on or after January 1, 1995, is discharged or paroled from a facility in another state that is equivalent to the Department of the Youth Authority, to the custody of which he or she was committed because of an offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses described in paragraphs (3) and (4), shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(3) The following offenses shall apply for the purpose of this subdivision:

(A) Assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220.

(B) Any offense defined in Section 288 or 288.5, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 286, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 288a, paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, or subdivision (a) of Section 289.

(C) Any offense under Section 264.1 involving rape in concert with force or fear of bodily injury or penetration by any foreign object in concert with force or fear of bodily injury.

(4) Any person who is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court

pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the offense set forth in Section 647.6, occurring on or after January 1, 1988, shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(6) All records specifically relating to the registration in the custody of the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, and other agencies or public officials shall be destroyed when the person who is required to register has his or her records sealed under the procedures set forth in Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. This subdivision shall not be construed as requiring the destruction of other criminal offender or juvenile records relating to the case which are maintained by the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, the juvenile court, or other agencies and public officials unless ordered by a court under Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) The registration shall consist of (1) a statement in writing signed by the person, giving information as may be required by the Department of Justice, and (2) the fingerprints and photograph of the person. Within three days thereafter, the registering law enforcement agency or agencies shall forward the statement, fingerprints, and photograph to the Department of Justice.

(f) If any person who is required to register pursuant to this section changes his or her residence address, the person shall inform, in writing within 10 days, the law enforcement agency or agencies with whom he or she last registered of the new address. The law enforcement agency or agencies shall, within three days after receipt of this information, forward it to the Department of Justice. The Department of Justice shall forward appropriate registration data to the law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction of the new place of residence.

(g) (1) Any person who is required to register under this section who violates any of its provisions is guilty of a misdemeanor. Any person who has been convicted of assault with intent to commit rape, oral copulation, or sodomy under Section 220, any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220, any violation of Section 261, any offense defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to state prison, or any violation of Section 264.1, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289, and who is required to register under this section who willfully violates any of the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail for not less than 90 days nor more than one year. In no event does the court have the power to absolve a person who willfully violates this section from the obligation of spending at least 90 days of confinement in a county jail and of completing probation of at least one year.

(2) Any person who has two prior convictions for the offense of failing to register under this section and who subsequently and willfully commits that offense is, upon each subsequent conviction, guilty of a public offense and shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail for not exceeding one year or by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years.

The existence of any fact which would bring a person under this paragraph shall be alleged in the information or indictment and either admitted by the defendant in open court or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury.

(h) Whenever any person is released on parole or probation and is required to register under this section but fails to do so within the time prescribed, the parole authority, the Youthful Offender Parole Board, or the court, as the case may be, shall order the parole or probation of the person revoked. For purposes of this subdivision, "parole authority" has the same meaning as described in Section 3000.

(i) Except as provided in Section 290.4, the statements, photographs, and fingerprints required by this section shall not be open to inspection by the public or by any person other than a regularly employed peace officer or other law enforcement officer.

(j) In any case in which a person who would be required to register pursuant to this section for a felony conviction is to be temporarily sent outside the institution where he or she is confined on any assignment within a city or county including firefighting, disaster control, or of whatever nature the assignment may be, the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the place or places where the assignment shall occur shall be notified within a reasonable time prior to removal from the institution. This provision shall not apply to any person who is temporarily released under guard from the institution where he or she is confined.

(l) Every person who, prior to January 1, 1985, is required to register under this section, shall be notified whenever he or she next reregisters of the reduction of the registration period from 30 to 14 days. This notice shall be provided in writing by the registering agency or agencies. Failure to receive this notification shall be a defense against the penalties prescribed by subdivision (g) if the person did register within 30 days.

SEC. 1.3. Section 290 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290. (a) (1) Every person described in paragraph (2), for the rest of his or her life while residing in California, shall be required to register with the chief of police of the city in which he or she is domiciled, or the sheriff of the county if he or she is domiciled in an unincorporated area, and, additionally, with the chief of police of a campus of the University of California or the California State University if he or she is domiciled upon the campus or in any of its facilities, within 14 days of coming into any county, city, or city and county in which he or she temporarily resides or is domiciled for that length of time. The person shall be required annually thereafter, within 10 days of his or her birthday, to update his or her registration with the entities described in this paragraph, including, verifying his or her address on a form as may be required by the Department of Justice.

(2) The following persons shall be required to register pursuant to paragraph (1):

(A) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or is hereafter convicted in this state of a violation of subdivision (b) of Section 207, Section 220, except assault to commit mayhem, or 243.4, paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 261 or paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to the state prison, Section 264.1, 266, 266c, 266j, 267, 285, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289, subdivision (b), (c), or (d) of Section 311.2, Section 311.3, 311.4, 311.10, 311.11, or 647.6 or former Section 647a, subdivision (d) of Section 647, or subdivision 1 or 2 of Section 314, or of any offense involving lewd and lascivious conduct under Section 272, or of any felony violation of Section 288.2; or any person who since that date has been or is hereafter convicted of the attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses.

(B) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is released, discharged, or paroled from a penal institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(C) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is determined to be a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(D) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been, or is hereafter convicted in any other court of any offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(E) Any person ordered by any court to register pursuant to this section for any offense not included specifically in this section if the court finds at the time of conviction that the person committed the offense as a result of sexual compulsion or for purposes of sexual gratification. The court shall state on the record the reasons for its findings and the reasons for requiring registration.

(b) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is released, discharged, or paroled from a jail, prison, school, road camp, or other institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) or is released from a state hospital to which he or she was committed as a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall, prior to discharge, parole, or release, be informed of his or her duty to register under this section by the official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital, and the official shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to the person. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release and shall report the address to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall give one copy of the form to the person and shall send one copy to the Department of Justice and one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having jurisdiction over the place the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release. If the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, the official in charge shall, not later than 45 days prior to the scheduled release of the person, send one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release; one copy to the prosecuting agency which prosecuted the person; and one copy to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement shall retain one copy. All forms shall, if the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, be transmitted within those times as to be received by the local law enforcement agency or agencies and prosecuting agency 30 days prior to the discharge, parole, or release of the person.

(c) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is convicted in this state of the commission or attempted commission of any of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) and who is released on probation or discharged upon payment of a fine shall, prior to release or discharge, be informed of the duty to register under this section by the court in which the person has been convicted, and the court shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to him or her. The court shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon release or discharge and shall report within three days the address to the Department of Justice. The court shall give one copy of the form to the person, send one copy to the Department of Justice, and forward one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release.

(A) Assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220.

(B) Any offense defined in Section 288 or 288.5, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 286, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 288a, paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, or subdivision (a) of Section 289.

(C) Any offense under Section 264.1 involving rape in concert with force or fear of bodily injury or penetration by any foreign object in concert with force or fear of bodily injury.

(2) Any person who is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the offense set forth in Section 647.6, occurring on or after January 1, 1988, shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(4) All records specifically relating to the registration in the custody of the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, and other agencies or public officials shall be destroyed when the person who is required to register has his or her records sealed under the procedures set forth in Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. This subdivision shall not be construed as requiring the destruction of other criminal offender or juvenile records relating to the case which are maintained by the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, the juvenile court, or other agencies and public officials unless ordered by a court under Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) (1) The registration shall consist of the following:

(A) A statement in writing signed by the person, giving information as may be required by the Department of Justice.

(B) The fingerprints and photograph of the person.

(C) The license plate number of any vehicle owned by or registered in the name of the person.

(2) Within three days thereafter, the registering law enforcement agency or agencies shall forward the statement, fingerprints, photograph, and vehicle license plate number, if any, to the Department of Justice.

(f) If any person who is required to register pursuant to this section changes his or her residence address, the person shall inform, in writing within 10 days, the law enforcement agency or agencies with whom he or she last registered of the new address. The law enforcement agency or agencies shall, within three days after receipt of this information, forward it to the Department of Justice. The Department of Justice shall forward appropriate registration data to the law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction of the new place of residence.

(g) (1) Any person who is required to register under this section based on a misdemeanor conviction who willfully violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year.

(2) Any person required to register under this section based on a felony conviction who willfully violates this section is guilty of a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months or two or three years.

If the person has been sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the state prison, the penalty described in this paragraph shall apply whether or not the person has been released on parole or has been discharged from parole.

(h) Whenever any person is released on parole or probation and is required to register under this section but fails to do so within the time prescribed, the parole authority, the Youthful Offender Parole Board, or the court, as the case may be, shall order the parole or probation of the person revoked. For purposes of this subdivision, "parole authority" has the same meaning as described in Section 3000.

(i) The statements, photographs, and fingerprints required by this section shall not be open to inspection by the public or by any person other than a regularly employed peace officer or other law enforcement officer.

(j) In any case in which a person who would be required to register pursuant to this section for a felony conviction is to be temporarily sent outside the institution where he or she is confined on any assignment within a city or county including firefighting, disaster control, or of whatever nature the assignment may be, the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the place or places where the assignment shall occur shall be notified within a reasonable time prior to removal from the institution. This provision shall not apply to any person who is temporarily released under guard from the institution where he or she is confined.

(l) Every person who, prior to January 1, 1985, is required to register under this section, shall be notified whenever he or she next reregisters of the reduction of the registration period from 30 to 14 days. This notice shall be provided in writing by the registering agency or agencies. Failure to receive this notification shall be a defense against the penalties prescribed by subdivision (g) if the person did register within 30 days.

(m) A felony conviction under this section shall not constitute a present felony conviction for purposes of subdivisions (b) to (i), inclusive, of Section 667, or Section 1170.12 if added to this code by initiative statute at the November 8, 1994, general election.

(n) The Department of Corrections shall not take custody of any person who is convicted under this section if, as a result of its taking custody of the person, a person who was convicted of a serious felony, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 1192.7, or a violent felony, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5, must be released.

SEC. 1.4. Section 290 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290. (a) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or is hereafter convicted in any court in this state or in any federal or military court of assault with intent to commit a violation of subdivision (b) of Section 207, subdivision (b) or (c) of Section 243.4, or subdivision (a), (b), or (c) of Section 311.4, rape, sodomy, oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220, or of any offense defined in paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, or of any offense defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to the state prison, or of any offense defined in Section 264.1, 266, 267, 285, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, 289, or 647.6 or former Section 647a, subdivision (d) of Section 647, or subdivision 1 or 2 of Section 314, or of any offense involving lewd and lascivious conduct under Section 272, of or any felony violation of Section 288.2; or any person who since that date has been or is hereafter convicted of the attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses; or any person who since that date or at any time hereafter is released, discharged, or paroled from a penal institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the above-mentioned offenses; or any person who since that date or at any time hereafter is determined to be a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code; or any person who since that date has been or is hereafter convicted in any other state, or in any federal or military court, of any offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the above-mentioned offenses, shall, within 30 days after the effective date of this section or within 14 days of coming into any county, city, or city and county in which he or she temporarily resides or is domiciled for that length of time, register with the chief of police of the city in which he or she is domiciled, or the sheriff of the county if he or she is domiciled in an unincorporated area, and, additionally, with the chief of police of a campus of the University of California or the California State University if he or she is domiciled upon the campus or in any of its facilities.

(b) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is released, discharged, or paroled from a jail, state or federal prison, school, road camp, or other institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) or is released from a state hospital to which he or she was committed as a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall, prior to discharge, parole, or release, be informed of his or her duty to register under this section by the official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital, and the official shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to the person. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release and shall report the address to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall give one copy of the form to the person and shall send one copy to the Department of Justice and one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having jurisdiction over the place the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release. If the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, the official in charge shall, not later than 45 days prior to the scheduled release of the person, send one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release; one copy to the prosecuting agency which prosecuted the person; and one copy to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement shall retain one copy. All forms shall, if the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, be transmitted within those times as to be received by the local law enforcement agency or agencies and prosecuting agency 30 days prior to the discharge, parole, or release of the person.

(c) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is convicted in this state of the commission or attempted commission of any of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) and who is released on probation or discharged upon payment of a fine shall, prior to release or discharge, be informed of the duty to register under this section by the court in which the person has been convicted, and the court shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to him or her. The court shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon release or discharge and shall report within three days the address to the Department of Justice. The court shall give one copy of the form to the person, send one copy to the Department of Justice, and forward one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release.

(d) (1) Any person who, on or after January 1, 1986, is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the offenses described in paragraph (3) shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(2) Any person who, on or after January 1, 1995, is discharged or paroled from a facility in another state that is equivalent to the Department of the Youth Authority, to the custody of which he or she was committed because of an offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses described in paragraphs (3) and (4), shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(3) The following offenses shall apply for the purpose of this subdivision:

(A) Assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220.

(B) Any offense defined in Section 288 or 288.5, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 286, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 288a, paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, or subdivision (a) of Section 289.

(C) Any offense under Section 264.1 involving rape in concert with force or fear of bodily injury or penetration by any foreign object in concert with force or fear of bodily injury.

(4) Any person who is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the offense set forth in Section 647.6, occurring on or after January 1, 1988, shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(6) All records specifically relating to the registration in the custody of the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, and other agencies or public officials shall be destroyed when the person who is required to register has his or her records sealed under the procedures set forth in Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. This subdivision shall not be construed as requiring the destruction of other criminal offender or juvenile records relating to the case which are maintained by the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, the juvenile court, or other agencies and public officials unless ordered by a court under Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) The registration shall consist of (1) a statement in writing signed by the person, giving information as may be required by the Department of Justice, and (2) the fingerprints and photograph of the person. Within three days thereafter, the registering law enforcement agency or agencies shall forward the statement, fingerprints, and photograph to the Department of Justice.

(f) If any person who is required to register pursuant to this section changes his or her residence address, the person shall inform, in writing within 10 days, the law enforcement agency or agencies with whom he or she last registered of the new address. The law enforcement agency or agencies shall, within three days after receipt of this information, forward it to the Department of Justice. The Department of Justice shall forward appropriate registration data to the law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction of the new place of residence.

(g) (1) Any person who is required to register under this section who violates any of its provisions is guilty of a misdemeanor. Any person who has been convicted of assault with intent to commit rape, oral copulation, or sodomy under Section 220, any violation of Section 264.1 or 289 under Section 220, any violation of Section 261, any offense defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to state prison, or any violation of Section 264.1, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289, and who is required to register under this section who willfully violates any of the provisions of this section shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years, or in a county jail for not less than 90 days nor more than one year. In no event does the court have the power to absolve a person who willfully violates this section from the obligation of spending at least 90 days of confinement in a county jail and of completing probation of at least one year.

(2) Any person who has been convicted of any violation of Section 288 and who willfully violates this section is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years. Any person who has a prior conviction of failing to register under this section and who subsequently and willfully commits that offense is, upon each subsequent conviction, guilty of a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years. If, after discharge from parole, the person is convicted of a felony as specified in this paragraph, he or she shall be required to complete parole of at least one year, in addition to any other punishment imposed under this paragraph. A person convicted of a felony as specified in this paragraph may be granted probation only in the unusual case where the interests of justice would best be served. When probation is granted under this paragraph, the court shall specify on the record and shall enter in the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interests of justice would best be served by the disposition.

The existence of any fact which would bring a person under this paragraph shall be alleged in the information or indictment and either admitted by the defendant in open court or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury.

(h) Whenever any person is released on parole or probation and is required to register under this section but fails to do so within the time prescribed, the parole authority, the Youthful Offender Parole Board, or the court, as the case may be, shall order the parole or probation of the person revoked. For purposes of this subdivision, "parole authority" has the same meaning as described in Section 3000.

(j) In any case in which a person who would be required to register pursuant to this section for a felony conviction is to be temporarily sent outside the institution where he or she is confined on any assignment within a city or county including firefighting, disaster control, or of whatever nature the assignment may be, the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the place or places where the assignment shall occur shall be notified within a reasonable time prior to removal from the institution. This provision shall not apply to any person who is temporarily released under guard from the institution where he or she is confined.

(l) Every person who, prior to January 1, 1985, is required to register under this section, shall be notified whenever he or she next reregisters of the reduction of the registration period from 30 to 14 days. This notice shall be provided in writing by the registering agency or agencies. Failure to receive this notification shall be a defense against the penalties prescribed by subdivision (g) if the person did register within 30 days.

SEC. 1.5. Section 290 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290. (a) (1) Every person described in paragraph (2), for the rest of his or her life while residing in California, shall be required to register with the chief of police of the city in which he or she is domiciled, or the sheriff of the county if he or she is domiciled in an unincorporated area, and, additionally, with the chief of police of a campus of the University of California or the California State University if he or she is domiciled upon the campus or in any of its facilities, within 14 days of coming into any county, city, or city and county in which he or she temporarily resides or is domiciled for that length of time. The person shall be required annually thereafter, within 10 days of his or her birthday, to update his or her registration with the entities described in this paragraph, including, verifying his or her address on a form as may be required by the Department of Justice.

(2) The following persons shall be required to register pursuant to paragraph (1):

(A) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or is hereafter convicted in any court in this state or in any federal or military court of a violation of subdivision (b) of Section 207, Section 220, except assault to commit mayhem, or 243.4, paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 261 or paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to the state prison, Section 264.1, 266, 266c, 266j, 267, 285, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289, subdivision (b), (c), or (d) of Section 311.2, Section 311.3, 311.4, 311.10, 311.11, or 647.6 or former Section 647a, subdivision (d) of Section 647, or subdivision 1 or 2 of Section 314, or of any offense involving lewd and lascivious conduct under Section 272, or of any felony violation of Section 288.2; or any person who since that date has been or is hereafter convicted of the attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses.

(B) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is released, discharged, or paroled from a penal institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(C) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is determined to be a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(D) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been, or is hereafter convicted in any other court, including any federal or military court, of any offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(E) Any person ordered by any court to register pursuant to this section for any offense not included specifically in this section if the court finds at the time of conviction that the person committed the offense as a result of sexual compulsion or for purposes of sexual gratification. The court shall state on the record the reasons for its findings and the reasons for requiring registration.

(b) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is released, discharged, or paroled from a jail, state or federal prison, school, road camp, or other institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) or is released from a state hospital to which he or she was committed as a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall, prior to discharge, parole, or release, be informed of his or her duty to register under this section by the official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital, and the official shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to the person. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release and shall report the address to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall give one copy of the form to the person and shall send one copy to the Department of Justice and one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having jurisdiction over the place the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release. If the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, the official in charge shall, not later than 45 days prior to the scheduled release of the person, send one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release; one copy to the prosecuting agency which prosecuted the person; and one copy to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement shall retain one copy. All forms shall, if the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, be transmitted within those times as to be received by the local law enforcement agency or agencies and prosecuting agency 30 days prior to the discharge, parole, or release of the person.

(c) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is convicted in this state of the commission or attempted commission of any of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) and who is released on probation or discharged upon payment of a fine shall, prior to release or discharge, be informed of the duty to register under this section by the court in which the person has been convicted, and the court shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to him or her. The court shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon release or discharge and shall report within three days the address to the Department of Justice. The court shall give one copy of the form to the person, send one copy to the Department of Justice, and forward one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release.

(d) (1) Any person who, on or after January 1, 1986, is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the following offenses shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section:

(A) Assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220.

(B) Any offense defined in Section 288 or 288.5, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 286, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 288a, paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, or subdivision (a) of Section 289.

(C) Any offense under Section 264.1 involving rape in concert with force or fear of bodily injury or penetration by any foreign object in concert with force or fear of bodily injury.

(2) Any person who is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the offense set forth in Section 647.6, occurring on or after January 1, 1988, shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(4) All records specifically relating to the registration in the custody of the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, and other agencies or public officials shall be destroyed when the person who is required to register has his or her records sealed under the procedures set forth in Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. This subdivision shall not be construed as requiring the destruction of other criminal offender or juvenile records relating to the case which are maintained by the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, the juvenile court, or other agencies and public officials unless ordered by a court under Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) (1) The registration shall consist of the following:

(A) A statement in writing signed by the person, giving information as may be required by the Department of Justice.

(B) The fingerprints and photograph of the person.

(C) The license plate number of any vehicle owned by or registered in the name of the person.

(2) Within three days thereafter, the registering law enforcement agency or agencies shall forward the statement, fingerprints, photograph, and vehicle license plate number, if any, to the Department of Justice.

(f) If any person who is required to register pursuant to this section changes his or her residence address, the person shall inform, in writing within 10 days, the law enforcement agency or agencies with whom he or she last registered of the new address. The law enforcement agency or agencies shall, within three days after receipt of this information, forward it to the Department of Justice. The Department of Justice shall forward appropriate registration data to the law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction of the new place of residence.

(g) (1) Any person who is required to register under this section based on a misdemeanor conviction who willfully violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), any person who has been convicted of assault with intent to commit rape, oral copulation, or sodomy under Section 220, any violation of Section 264.1 or 289 under Section 220, any violation of Section 261, any offense defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to state prison, or any violation of Section 264.1, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289, and who is required to register under this section who willfully violates this section is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years.

A person punished pursuant to this paragraph or paragraph (2) shall be sentenced to serve a term of not less than 90 days nor more than one year in a county jail. In no event does the court have the power to absolve a person who willfully violates this section from the obligation of spending at least 90 days of confinement in a county jail and of completing probation of at least one year.

If the person has been sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the state prison, the penalty described in this paragraph shall apply whether or not the person has been released on parole or has been discharged from parole.

(4) If, after discharge from parole, the person is convicted of a felony as specified in this subdivision, he or she shall be required to complete parole of at least one year, in addition to any other punishment imposed under this subdivision. A person convicted of a felony as specified in this subdivision may be granted probation only in the unusual case where the interests of justice would best be served. When probation is granted under this paragraph, the court shall specify on the record and shall enter into the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interests of justice would best be served by the disposition.

(h) Whenever any person is released on parole or probation and is required to register under this section but fails to do so within the time prescribed, the parole authority, the Youthful Offender Parole Board, or the court, as the case may be, shall order the parole or probation of the person revoked. For purposes of this subdivision, "parole authority" has the same meaning as described in Section 3000.

(i) The statements, photographs, and fingerprints required by this section shall not be open to inspection by the public or by any person other than a regularly employed peace officer or other law enforcement officer.

(j) In any case in which a person who would be required to register pursuant to this section for a felony conviction is to be temporarily sent outside the institution where he or she is confined on any assignment within a city or county including firefighting, disaster control, or of whatever nature the assignment may be, the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the place or places where the assignment shall occur shall be notified within a reasonable time prior to removal from the institution. This provision shall not apply to any person who is temporarily released under guard from the institution where he or she is confined.

(l) Every person who, prior to January 1, 1985, is required to register under this section, shall be notified whenever he or she next reregisters of the reduction of the registration period from 30 to 14 days. This notice shall be provided in writing by the registering agency or agencies. Failure to receive this notification shall be a defense against the penalties prescribed by subdivision (g) if the person did register within 30 days.

(m) A felony conviction under this section shall not constitute a present felony conviction for purposes of subdivisions (b) to (i), inclusive, of Section 667, or Section 1170.12 if added to this code by initiative statute at the November 8, 1994, general election.

(n) The Department of Corrections shall not take custody of any person who is convicted under this section if, as a result of its taking custody of the person, a person who was convicted of a serious felony, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 1192.7, or a violent felony, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5, must be released.

SEC. 1.6. Section 290 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290. (a) (1) Every person described in paragraph (2), for the rest of his or her life while residing in California, shall be required to register with the chief of police of the city in which he or she is domiciled, or the sheriff of the county if he or she is domiciled in an unincorporated area, and, additionally, with the chief of police of a campus of the University of California or the California State University if he or she is domiciled upon the campus or in any of its facilities, within 14 days of coming into any county, city, or city and county in which he or she temporarily resides or is domiciled for that length of time. The person shall be required annually thereafter, within 10 days of his or her birthday, to update his or her registration with the entities described in this paragraph, including, verifying his or her address on a form as may be required by the Department of Justice.

(2) The following persons shall be required to register pursuant to paragraph (1):

(A) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or is hereafter convicted in this state of a violation of subdivision (b) of Section 207, Section 220, except assault to commit mayhem, or 243.4, paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 261 or paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to the state prison, Section 264.1, 266, 266c, 266j, 267, 285, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289, subdivision (b), (c), or (d) of Section 311.2, Section 311.3, 311.4, 311.10, 311.11, or 647.6 or former Section 647a, subdivision (d) of Section 647, or subdivision 1 or 2 of Section 314, or of any offense involving lewd and lascivious conduct under Section 272, or of any felony violation of Section 288.2; or any person who since that date has been or is hereafter convicted of the attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses.

(B) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is released, discharged, or paroled from a penal institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(C) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is determined to be a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(D) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been, or is hereafter convicted in any other court of any offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(b) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is released, discharged, or paroled from a jail, prison, school, road camp, or other institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) or is released from a state hospital to which he or she was committed as a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall, prior to discharge, parole, or release, be informed of his or her duty to register under this section by the official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital, and the official shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to the person. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release and shall report the address to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall give one copy of the form to the person and shall send one copy to the Department of Justice and one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having jurisdiction over the place the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release. If the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, the official in charge shall, not later than 45 days prior to the scheduled release of the person, send one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release; one copy to the prosecuting agency which prosecuted the person; and one copy to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement shall retain one copy. All forms shall, if the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, be transmitted within those times as to be received by the local law enforcement agency or agencies and prosecuting agency 30 days prior to the discharge, parole, or release of the person.

(c) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is convicted in this state of the commission or attempted commission of any of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) and who is released on probation or discharged upon payment of a fine shall, prior to release or discharge, be informed of the duty to register under this section by the court in which the person has been convicted, and the court shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to him or her. The court shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon release or discharge and shall report within three days the address to the Department of Justice. The court shall give one copy of the form to the person, send one copy to the Department of Justice, and forward one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release.

(2) Any person who, on or after January 1, 1995, is discharged or paroled from a facility in another state that is equivalent to the Department of the Youth Authority, to the custody of which he or she was committed because of an offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable by one or more of the offenses described in paragraphs (3) and (4), shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(3) The following offenses shall apply for the purpose of this subdivision:

(A) Assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220.

(B) Any offense defined in Section 288 or 288.5, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 286, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 288a, paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, or subdivision (a) of Section 289.

(C) Any offense under Section 264.1 involving rape in concert with force or fear of bodily injury or penetration by any foreign object in concert with force or fear of bodily injury.

(4) Any person who is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the offense set forth in Section 647.6, occurring on or after January 1, 1988, shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(6) All records specifically relating to the registration in the custody of the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, and other agencies or public officials shall be destroyed when the person who is required to register has his or her records sealed under the procedures set forth in Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. This subdivision shall not be construed as requiring the destruction of other criminal offender or juvenile records relating to the case which are maintained by the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, the juvenile court, or other agencies and public officials unless ordered by a court under Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) (1) The registration shall consist of the following:

(A) A statement in writing signed by the person, giving information as may be required by the Department of Justice.

(B) The fingerprints and photograph of the person.

(C) The license plate number of any vehicle owned by or registered in the name of the person.

(2) Within three days thereafter, the registering law enforcement agency or agencies shall forward the statement, fingerprints, photograph, and vehicle license plate number, if any, to the Department of Justice.

(f) If any person who is required to register pursuant to this section changes his or her residence address, the person shall inform, in writing within 10 days, the law enforcement agency or agencies with whom he or she last registered of the new address. The law enforcement agency or agencies shall, within three days after receipt of this information, forward it to the Department of Justice. The Department of Justice shall forward appropriate registration data to the law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction of the new place of residence.

(g) (1) Any person who is required to register under this section based on a misdemeanor conviction who willfully violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year.

(2) Any person required to register under this section based on a felony conviction who willfully violates this section is guilty of a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months or two or three years.

If the person has been sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the state prison, the penalty described in this paragraph shall apply whether or not the person has been released on parole or has been discharged from parole.

(h) Whenever any person is released on parole or probation and is required to register under this section but fails to do so within the time prescribed, the parole authority, the Youthful Offender Parole Board, or the court, as the case may be, shall order the parole or probation of the person revoked. For purposes of this subdivision, "parole authority" has the same meaning as described in Section 3000.

(j) In any case in which a person who would be required to register pursuant to this section for a felony conviction is to be temporarily sent outside the institution where he or she is confined on any assignment within a city or county including firefighting, disaster control, or of whatever nature the assignment may be, the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the place or places where the assignment shall occur shall be notified within a reasonable time prior to removal from the institution. This provision shall not apply to any person who is temporarily released under guard from the institution where he or she is confined.

(k) As used in this section, "mentally disordered sex offender" includes any person who has been determined to be a sexual psychopath or a mentally disordered sex offender under any provision which, on or before January 1, 1976, was contained in Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(l) Every person who, prior to January 1, 1985, is required to register under this section, shall be notified whenever he or she next reregisters of the reduction of the registration period from 30 to 14 days. This notice shall be provided in writing by the registering agency or agencies. Failure to receive this notification shall be a defense against the penalties prescribed by subdivision (g) if the person did register within 30 days.

(m) A felony conviction under this section shall not constitute a present felony conviction for purposes of subdivisions (b) to (i), inclusive, of Section 667, or Section 1170.12 if added to this code by initiative statute at the November 8, 1994, general election.

(n) The Department of Corrections shall not take custody of any person who is convicted under this section if, as a result of its taking custody of the person, a person who was convicted of a serious felony, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 1192.7, or a violent felony, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5, must be released.

SEC. 1.7. Section 290 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290. (a) (1) Every person described in paragraph (2), for the rest of his or her life while residing in California, shall be required to register with the chief of police of the city in which he or she is domiciled, or the sheriff of the county if he or she is domiciled in an unincorporated area, and, additionally, with the chief of police of a campus of the University of California or the California State University if he or she is domiciled upon the campus or in any of its facilities, within 14 days of coming into any county, city, or city and county in which he or she temporarily resides or is domiciled for that length of time. The person shall be required annually thereafter, within 10 days of his or her birthday, to update his or her registration with the entities described in this paragraph, including, verifying his or her address on a form as may be required by the Department of Justice.

(2) The following persons shall be required to register pursuant to paragraph (1):

(A) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or is hereafter convicted in any court in this state or in any federal or military court of a violation of subdivision (b) of Section 207, Section 220, except assault to commit mayhem, or 243.4, paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 261 or paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to the state prison, Section 264.1, 266, 266c, 266j, 267, 285, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289, subdivision (b), (c), or (d) of Section 311.2, Section 311.3, 311.4, 311.10, 311.11, or 647.6 or former Section 647a, subdivision (d) of Section 647, or subdivision 1 or 2 of Section 314, or of any offense involving lewd and lascivious conduct under Section 272, or of any felony violation of Section 288.2; or any person who since that date has been or is hereafter convicted of the attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses.

(B) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is released, discharged, or paroled from a penal institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(C) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is determined to be a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(D) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been, or is hereafter convicted in any other court, including any federal or military court, of any offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(b) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is released, discharged, or paroled from a jail, state or federal prison, school, road camp, or other institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) or is released from a state hospital to which he or she was committed as a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall, prior to discharge, parole, or release, be informed of his or her duty to register under this section by the official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital, and the official shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to the person. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release and shall report the address to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall give one copy of the form to the person and shall send one copy to the Department of Justice and one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having jurisdiction over the place the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release. If the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, the official in charge shall, not later than 45 days prior to the scheduled release of the person, send one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release; one copy to the prosecuting agency which prosecuted the person; and one copy to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement shall retain one copy. All forms shall, if the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, be transmitted within those times as to be received by the local law enforcement agency or agencies and prosecuting agency 30 days prior to the discharge, parole, or release of the person.

(c) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is convicted in this state of the commission or attempted commission of any of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) and who is released on probation or discharged upon payment of a fine shall, prior to release or discharge, be informed of the duty to register under this section by the court in which the person has been convicted, and the court shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to him or her. The court shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon release or discharge and shall report within three days the address to the Department of Justice. The court shall give one copy of the form to the person, send one copy to the Department of Justice, and forward one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release.

(2) Any person who, on or after January 1, 1995, is discharged or paroled from a facility in another state that is equivalent to the Department of the Youth Authority, to the custody of which he or she was committed because of an offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable by one or more of the offenses described in paragraphs (3) and (4), shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(3) The following offenses shall apply for the purpose of this subdivision:

(A) Assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220.

(B) Any offense defined in Section 288 or 288.5, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 286, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 288a, paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, or subdivision (a) of Section 289.

(C) Any offense under Section 264.1 involving rape in concert with force or fear of bodily injury or penetration by any foreign object in concert with force or fear of bodily injury.

(4) Any person who is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court

pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the offense set forth in Section 647.6, occurring on or after January 1, 1988, shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(6) All records specifically relating to the registration in the custody of the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, and other agencies or public officials shall be destroyed when the person who is required to register or has his or her records sealed under the procedures set forth in Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. This subdivision shall not be construed as requiring the destruction of other criminal offender or juvenile records relating to the case which are maintained by the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, the juvenile court, or other agencies and public officials unless ordered by a court under Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) (1) The registration shall consist of the following:

(A) A statement in writing signed by the person, giving information as may be required by the Department of Justice.

(B) The fingerprints and photograph of the person.

(C) The license plate number of any vehicle owned by or registered in the name of the person.

(2) Within three days thereafter, the registering law enforcement agency or agencies shall forward the statement, fingerprints, photograph, and vehicle license plate number, if any, to the Department of Justice.

(f) If any person who is required to register pursuant to this section changes his or her residence address, the person shall inform, in writing within 10 days, the law enforcement agency or agencies with whom he or she last registered of the new address. The law enforcement agency or agencies shall, within three days after receipt of this information, forward it to the Department of Justice. The Department of Justice shall forward appropriate registration data to the law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction of the new place of residence.

(g) (1) Any person who is required to register under this section based on a misdemeanor conviction who willfully violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), any person who has been convicted of assault with intent to commit rape, oral copulation, or sodomy under Section 220, any violation of Section 264.1 or 289 under Section 220, any violation of Section 261, any offense defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to state prison, or any violation of Section 264.1, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289, and who is required to register under this section who willfully violates this section is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years.

(3) Any person required to register under this section based on a felony conviction who willfully violates this section or who has a prior conviction for the offense of failing to register under this section and who subsequently and willfully commits that offense is, upon each subsequent conviction, guilty of a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months or two or three years.

A person punished pursuant to this paragraph or paragraph (2) shall be sentenced to serve a term of not less than 90 days nor more than one year in a county jail. In no event does the court have the power to absolve a person who willfully violates this section from the obligation of spending at least 90 days of confinement in a county jail and of completing probation of at least one year.

If the person has been sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the state prison, the penalty described in this paragraph shall apply whether or not the person has been released on parole or has been discharged from parole.

(4) If, after discharge from parole, the person is convicted of a felony as specified in this subdivision, he or she shall be required to complete parole of at least one year, in addition to any other punishment imposed under this subdivision. A person convicted of a felony as specified in this subdivision may be granted probation only in the unusual case where the interests of justice would best be served. When probation is granted under this paragraph, the court shall specify on the record and shall enter into the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interests of justice would best be served by the disposition.

(h) Whenever any person is released on parole or probation and is required to register under this section but fails to do so within the time prescribed, the parole authority, the Youthful Offender Parole Board, or the court, as the case may be, shall order the parole or probation of the person revoked. For purposes of this subdivision, "parole authority" has the same meaning as described in Section 3000.

(j) In any case in which a person who would be required to register pursuant to this section for a felony conviction is to be temporarily sent outside the institution where he or she is confined on any assignment within a city or county including firefighting, disaster control, or of whatever nature the assignment may be, the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the place or places where the assignment shall occur shall be notified within a reasonable time prior to removal from the institution. This provision shall not apply to any person who is temporarily released under guard from the institution where he or she is confined.

(k) As used in this section, "mentally disordered sex offender" includes any person who has been determined to be a sexual psychopath or a mentally disordered sex offender under any provision which, on or before January 1, 1976, was contained in Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(l) Every person who, prior to January 1, 1985, is required to register under this section, shall be notified whenever he or she next reregisters of the reduction of the registration period from 30 to 14 days. This notice shall be provided in writing by the registering agency or agencies. Failure to receive this notification shall be a defense against the penalties prescribed by subdivision (g) if the person did register within 30 days.

(m) A felony conviction under this section shall not constitute a present felony conviction for purposes of subdivisions (b) to (i), inclusive, of Section 667, or Section 1170.12 if added to this code by initiative statute at the November 8, 1994, general election.

(n) The Department of Corrections shall not take custody of any person who is convicted under this section if, as a result of its taking custody of the person, a person who was convicted of a serious felony, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 1192.7, or a violent felony, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5, must be released.

SEC. 2. Section 290.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290.1. Notwithstanding Section 1203.4 and except as provided in Section 290.5, a person who is convicted of a sex offense for which registration is required under Section 290 shall not be relieved from the duty to register under that section.

SEC. 3. Section 4852.01 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

4852.01. (a) Any person convicted of a felony who has been released from a state prison or other state penal institution or agency in California, whether discharged on completion of the term for which he was sentenced or released on parole prior to May 13, 1943, who has not been incarcerated in a state prison or other state penal institution or agency since his release and who presents satisfactory evidence of a three-year residence in this state immediately prior to the filing of the petition for a certificate of rehabilitation and pardon provided for by this chapter, may file such petition pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

(b) Any person convicted of a felony who, on May 13, 1943, was confined in a state prison or other institution or agency to which he was committed and any person convicted of a felony after that date who is committed to a state prison or other institution or agency may file a petition for a certificate of rehabilitation and pardon pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

(c) Any person convicted of a felony or any person who is convicted of a misdemeanor violation of any sex offense specified in Section 290 the accusatory pleading of which has been dismissed pursuant to Section 1203.4 may file a petition for certificate of rehabilitation and pardon pursuant to the provisions of this chapter; provided the petitioner has not been incarcerated in any prison, jail, detention facility or other penal institution or agency since the dismissal of the accusatory pleading and is not on probation for the commission of any other felony, and petitioner presents satisfactory evidence of three years residence in this state prior to the filing of the petition.

(d) This chapter shall not apply to persons serving a mandatory life parole; to persons committed under death sentences; or to persons in the military service.

SEC. 4. (a) Section 1.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 290 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 1211. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 290 of the Penal Code, (3) AB 2500 and AB 3513 are not enacted or as enacted do not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 1211, in which case Sections 1, 1.2, 1.3, 1.4, 1.5, 1.6, and 1.7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(b) Section 1.2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 290 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2500. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 290 of the Penal Code, (3) AB 1211 and AB 3513 are not enacted or as enacted do not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 2500, in which case Sections 1, 1.1, 1.3, 1.4, 1.5, 1.6, and 1.7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(c) Section 1.3 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 290 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3513. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 290 of the Penal Code, (3) AB 1211 and AB 2500 are not enacted or as enacted do not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 3513, in which case Sections 1, 1.1, 1.2, 1.4, 1.5, 1.6, and 1.7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(d) Section 1.4 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 290 of the Penal Code proposed by this bill, AB 1211, and AB 2500. It shall only become operative if (1) all three bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1995, (2) all three bills amend Section 290 of the Penal Code, (3) AB 3513 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 1211 and AB 2500, in which case Sections 1, 1.1, 1.2, 1.3, 1.5, 1.6, and 1.7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(e) Section 1.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 290 of the Penal Code proposed by this bill, AB 1211, and AB 3513. It shall only become operative if (1) all three bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1995, (2) all three bills amend Section 290 of the Penal Code, (3) AB 2500 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 1211 and AB

3513, in which case Sections 1, 1.1, 1.2, 1.3, 1.4, 1.6, and 1.7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(f) Section 1.6 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 290 of the Penal Code proposed by this bill, AB 2500, and AB 3513. It shall only become operative if (1) all three bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1995, (2) all three bills amend Section 290 of the Penal Code, (3) AB 1211 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 2500 and AB 3513, in which case Sections 1, 1.1, 1.2, 1.3, 1.4, 1.5, and 1.7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(g) Section 1.7 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 290 of the Penal Code proposed by this bill, AB 1211, AB 2500, and AB 3513. It shall only become operative if (1) all four bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1995, (2) all four bills amend Section 290 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 1211, AB 2500, and AB 3513, in which case Sections 1, 1.1, 1.2, 1.3, 1.4, 1.5, and 1.6 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 5. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 864

An act to amend Section 290 of the Penal Code, relating to registration of sex offenders.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 290 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290. (a) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or is hereafter convicted in any court in this state or in any federal or military court of the offense of assault with intent to commit a violation of subdivision (b) of Section 207, subdivision (b) or (c) of Section 243.4, or subdivision (a), (b), or (c) of Section 311.4, rape, sodomy, oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220, or of any offense defined in paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, or any offense defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to state prison, or of any offense defined in Section 264.1, 266, 267, 285, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, 289, or 647.6 or former Section 647a, subdivision (d) of Section 647, or subdivision 1 or 2 of Section 314, or of any offense involving lewd and lascivious conduct under Section 272, or any felony violation of Section 288.2; or any person who since that date has been or is hereafter convicted of the attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses; or any person who since that date or at any time hereafter is released, discharged, or paroled from a penal institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempt to commit one of the above-mentioned offenses; or any person who since that date or at any time hereafter is determined to be a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code; or any person who has been since that date or is hereafter convicted in any other state, or in any federal or military court, of any offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the above-mentioned offenses, shall, within 30 days after the effective date of this section or within 14 days of coming into any county, city, or city and county in which he or she temporarily resides or is domiciled for that length of time, register with the chief of police of the city in which he or she is domiciled, or the sheriff of the county if he or she is domiciled in an unincorporated area, and, additionally, with the chief of police of a campus of the University of California or the California State University if he or she is domiciled upon the campus or in any of its facilities.

(b) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is released, discharged, or paroled from a jail, state or federal prison, school, road camp, or other institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempt to commit one of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) or is released from a state hospital to which he or she was committed as a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall, prior to discharge, parole, or release, be informed of his or her duty to register under this section by the official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital and the official shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to the person. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release and shall report the address to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall give one copy of the form to the person, and shall send one copy to the Department of Justice and one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having jurisdiction over the place the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release. If the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, the official in charge shall, not later than 45 days prior to the scheduled release of the person, send one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release; one copy to the prosecuting agency which prosecuted the person; and one copy to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement shall retain one copy. All forms shall, if the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, be transmitted within those times as to be received by the local law enforcement agency or agencies, and prosecuting agency 30 days prior to the discharge, parole, or release of the person.

(c) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is convicted in this state of the commission or attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses and who is released on probation or discharged upon payment of a fine shall, prior to release or discharge, be informed of the duty to register under this section by the court in which the person has been convicted and the court shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to him or her. The court shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon release or discharge and shall report within three days the address to the Department of Justice. The court shall give one copy of the form to the person, send one copy to the Department of Justice, and forward one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release.

(d) (1) Any person who, on or after January 1, 1986, is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the following offenses shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section:

(A) Assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220.

(B) Any offense defined in Section 288 or 288.5, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 286, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 288a, paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, or subdivision (a) of Section 289.

(C) Any offense under Section 264.1 involving rape in concert with force or fear of bodily injury or penetration by any foreign object in concert with force or fear of bodily injury.

(2) Any person who is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the offense set forth in Section 647.6, occurring on or after January 1, 1988, shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(3) Prior to discharge or parole from the Department of the Youth Authority, all persons subject to registration shall be informed of the duty to register under the procedures set forth in this section. Department of the Youth Authority officials shall transmit the required forms and information to the Department of Justice.

(4) The duty to register under this section for offenses adjudicated by a juvenile court shall terminate when a person reaches the age of 25 years.

(5) All records specifically relating to the registration in the custody of the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, and other agencies or public officials shall be destroyed when the person required to register attains the age of 25 years or has his or her records sealed under the procedures set forth in Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, whichever event occurs first. This subdivision shall not be construed as requiring the destruction of other criminal offender or juvenile records relating to the case which are maintained by the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, the juvenile court, or other agencies and public officials unless ordered by a court under Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) The registration shall consist of (1) a statement in writing signed by the person, giving information as may be required by the Department of Justice, and (2) the fingerprints and photograph of the person. Within three days thereafter, the registering law enforcement agency or agencies shall forward the statement, fingerprints, and photograph to the Department of Justice.

(f) If any person required to register pursuant to this section changes his or her residence address, the person shall inform, in writing within 10 days, the law enforcement agency or agencies with whom he or she last registered of the new address. The law enforcement agency or agencies shall, within three days after receipt of this information, forward it to the Department of Justice. The Department of Justice shall forward appropriate registration data to the law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction of the new place of residence.

(g) (1) Any person required to register under this section who violates any of its provisions is guilty of a misdemeanor. Any person who has been convicted of assault with intent to commit rape, oral copulation, or sodomy under Section 220, any violation of Section 264.1 or 289 under Section 220, any violation of Section 261, any offense defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to state prison, or any violation of Section 264.1, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289, and who is required to register under this section who willfully violates any of the provisions of this section shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years, or a term of not less than 90 days nor more than one year in a county jail. In no event does the court have the power to absolve a person who willfully violates this section from the obligation of spending at least 90 days of confinement in a county jail and of completing probation of at least one year.

(2) Any person who has been convicted of any violation of Section 288 and who willfully violates this section is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years. Any person who has a prior conviction of failing to register under this section and who subsequently and willfully commits that offense is, upon each subsequent conviction, guilty of a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years. If, after discharge from parole, the person is convicted of a felony as specified in this paragraph, he or she shall be required to complete parole of at least one year, in addition to any other punishment imposed under this paragraph. A person convicted of a felony as specified in this paragraph may be granted probation only in the unusual case where the interests of justice would best be served. When probation is granted under this paragraph, the court shall specify on the record and shall enter in the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interests of justice would best be served by the disposition.

The existence of any fact which would bring a person under this paragraph shall be alleged in the information or indictment and either admitted by the defendant in open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury.

(h) Whenever any person is released on parole or probation and is required to register under this section but fails to do so within the time prescribed, the parole authority, the Youthful Offender Parole Board, or the court, as the case may be, shall order the parole or probation of the person revoked. For purposes of this subdivision, "parole authority" has the same meaning as described in Section 3000.

(i) The statements, photographs, and fingerprints required by this section shall not be open to inspection by the public or by any person other than a regularly employed peace or other law enforcement officer.

(j) In any case in which a person who would be required to register pursuant to this section for a felony conviction is to be temporarily sent outside the institution where he or she is confined on any assignment within a city or county including firefighting, disaster control, or of whatever nature the assignment may be, the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the place or places where the assignment shall occur shall be notified within a reasonable time prior to removal from the institution. This provision shall not apply to any person temporarily released under guard from the institution where he or she is confined.

(k) As used in this section, "mentally disordered sex offender" includes any person who has been determined to be a sexual psychopath or a mentally disordered sex offender under any provision which, on or before January 1, 1976, was contained in Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Section 290 of the Penal Code, relating to sex offenders.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 290 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290. (a) (1) Every person described in paragraph (2), for the rest of his or her life while residing in California, shall be required to register with the chief of police of the city in which he or she is domiciled, or the sheriff of the county if he or she is domiciled in an unincorporated area, and, additionally, with the chief of police of a campus of the University of California or the California State University if he or she is domiciled upon the campus or in any of its facilities, within 14 days of coming into any county, city, or city and county in which he or she temporarily resides or is domiciled for that length of time. The person shall be required annually thereafter, within 10 days of his or her birthday, to update his or her registration with the entities described in this paragraph, including, verifying his or her address on a form as may be required by the Department of Justice.

(2) The following persons shall be required to register pursuant to paragraph (1):

(A) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or is hereafter convicted in this state of a violation of subdivision (b) of Section 207, Section 220, except assault to commit mayhem, or 243.4, paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 261 or paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to the state prison, Section 264.1, 266, 266c, 266j, 267, 285, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289, subdivision (b), (c), or (d) of Section 311.2, Section 311.3, 311.4, 311.10, 311.11, or 647.6 or former Section 647a, subdivision (d) of Section 647, or subdivision 1 or 2 of Section 314, or of any offense involving lewd and lascivious conduct under Section 272, or any felony violation of Section 288.2; or any person who since that date has been or is hereafter convicted of the attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses.

(B) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is released, discharged, or paroled from a penal institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempt to commit one of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(C) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is determined to be a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(D) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been, or is hereafter convicted in any other court of any offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(b) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is released, discharged, or paroled from a jail, prison, school, road camp, or other institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempt to commit one of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) or is released from a state hospital to which he or she was committed as a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall, prior to discharge, parole, or release, be informed of his or her duty to register under this section by the official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital and the official shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to the person. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release and shall report the address to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall give one copy of the form to the person, and shall send one copy to the Department of Justice and one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having jurisdiction over the place the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release. If the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, the official in charge shall, not later than 45 days prior to the scheduled release of the person, send one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release; one copy to the prosecuting agency which prosecuted the person; and one copy to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement shall retain one copy. All forms shall, if the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, be transmitted within those times as to be received by the local law enforcement agency or agencies, and prosecuting agency 30 days prior to the discharge, parole, or release of the person.

(c) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is convicted in this state of the commission or attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses and who is released on probation or discharged upon payment of a fine shall, prior to release or discharge, be informed of the duty to register under this section by the court in which the person has been convicted and the court shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to him or her. The court shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon release or discharge and shall report within three days the address to the Department of Justice. The court shall give one copy of the form to the person, send one copy to the Department of Justice, and forward one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release.

(d) (1) Any person who, on or after January 1, 1986, is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the following offenses shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section:

(A) Assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220.

(B) Any offense defined in Section 288 or 288.5, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 286, paragraph

(1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 288a, paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, or subdivision (a) of Section 289.

(C) Any offense under Section 264.1 involving rape in concert with force or fear of bodily injury or penetration by any foreign object in concert with force or fear of bodily injury.

(2) Any person who is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the offense set forth in Section 647.6, occurring on or after January 1, 1988, shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(3) Prior to discharge or parole from the Department of the Youth Authority, all persons subject to registration shall be informed of the duty to register under the procedures set forth in this section. Department of the Youth Authority officials shall transmit the required forms and information to the Department of Justice.

(4) The duty to register under this section for offenses adjudicated by a juvenile court shall terminate when a person reaches the age of 25 years.

(5) All records specifically relating to the registration in the custody of the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, and other agencies or public officials shall be destroyed when the person required to register attains the age of 25 years or has his or her records sealed under the procedures set forth in Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, whichever event occurs first. This subdivision shall not be construed as requiring the destruction of other criminal offender or juvenile records relating to the case which are maintained by the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, the juvenile court, or other agencies and public officials unless ordered by a court under Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) (1) The registration shall consist of the following:

(A) A statement in writing signed by the person, giving information as may be required by the Department of Justice.

(B) The fingerprints and photograph of the person.

(C) The license plate number of any vehicle owned by or registered in the name of the person.

(2) Within three days thereafter, the registering law enforcement agency or agencies shall forward the statement, fingerprints, photograph, and vehicle license plate number, if any, to the Department of Justice.

(f) If any person required to register pursuant to this section changes his or her residence address, the person shall inform, in writing within 10 days, the law enforcement agency or agencies with whom he or she last registered of the new address. The law enforcement agency or agencies shall, within three days after receipt of this information, forward it to the Department of Justice. The Department of Justice shall forward appropriate registration data to the law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction of the new place of residence.

(g) (1) Any person required to register under this section based on a misdemeanor conviction who willfully violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year.

(2) Any person required to register under this section based on a felony conviction who willfully violates this section is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months or two or three years. If the person has been sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the state prison, the penalty described in this paragraph shall apply whether or not the person has been released on parole or has been discharged from parole.

(h) Whenever any person is released on parole or probation and is required to register under this section but fails to do so within the time prescribed, the parole authority, the Youthful Offender Parole Board, or the court, as the case may be, shall order the parole or probation of the person revoked. For purposes of this subdivision, "parole authority" has the same meaning as described in Section 3000.

(i) The statements, photographs, and fingerprints required by this section shall not be open to inspection by the public or by any person other than a regularly employed peace or other law enforcement officer.

(j) In any case in which a person who would be required to register pursuant to this section for a felony conviction is to be temporarily sent outside the institution where he or she is confined on any assignment within a city or county including firefighting, disaster control, or of whatever nature the assignment may be, the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the place or places where the assignment shall occur shall be notified within a reasonable time prior to removal from the institution. This provision shall not apply to any person temporarily released under guard from the institution where he or she is confined.

(l) Every person who, prior to January 1, 1985, is required to register under this section, shall be notified whenever he or she next reregisters of the reduction of the registration period from 30 to 14 days. This notice shall be provided in writing by the registering agency or agencies. Failure to receive this notification shall be a defense against the penalties prescribed by subdivision (g) if the person did register within 30 days.

SEC. 1.1. Section 290 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290. (a) (1) Every person described in paragraph (2), for the rest of his or her life while residing in California, shall be required to register with the chief of police of the city in which he or she is domiciled, or the sheriff of the county if he or she is domiciled in an unincorporated area, and, additionally, with the chief of police of a campus of the University of California or the California State University if he or she is domiciled upon the campus or in any of its facilities, within 14 days of coming into any county, city, or city and county in which he or she temporarily resides or is domiciled for that length of time. The person shall be required annually thereafter, within 10 days of his or her birthday, to update his or her registration with the entities described in this paragraph, including, verifying his or her address on a form as may be required by the Department of Justice.

(2) The following persons shall be required to register pursuant to paragraph (1):

(A) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or is hereafter convicted in any court in this state or in any federal or military court of a violation of subdivision (b) of Section 207, Section 220, except assault to commit mayhem, or 243.4, paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 261 or paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to the state prison, Section 264.1, 266, 266c, 266j, 267, 285, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289, subdivision (b), (c), or (d) of Section 311.2, Section 311.3, 311.4, 311.10, 311.11, or 647.6 or former Section 647a, subdivision (d) of Section 647, or subdivision 1 or 2 of Section 314, or of any offense involving lewd and lascivious conduct under Section 272, or any felony violation of Section 288.2; or any person who since that date has been or is hereafter convicted of the attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses.

(B) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is released, discharged, or paroled from a penal institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempt to commit one of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(C) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is determined to be a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(D) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been, or is hereafter convicted in any other court, including any federal or military court, of any offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(b) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is released, discharged, or paroled from a jail, state or federal prison, school, road camp, or other institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempt to commit one of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) or is released from a state hospital to which he or she was committed as a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall, prior to discharge, parole, or release, be informed of his or her duty to register under this section by the official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital and the official shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to the person. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release and shall report the address to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall give one copy of the form to the person, and shall send one copy to the Department of Justice and one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having jurisdiction over the place the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release. If the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, the official in charge shall, not later than 45 days prior to the scheduled release of the person, send one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release; one copy to the prosecuting agency which prosecuted the person; and one copy to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement shall retain one copy. All forms shall, if the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, be transmitted within those times as to be received by the local law enforcement agency or agencies, and prosecuting agency 30 days prior to the discharge, parole, or release of the person.

(c) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is convicted in this state of the commission or attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses and who is released on probation or discharged upon payment of a fine shall, prior to release or discharge, be informed of the duty to register under this section by the court in which the person has been convicted and the court shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to him or her. The court shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon release or discharge and shall report within three days the address to the Department of Justice. The court shall give one copy of the form to the person, send one copy to the Department of Justice, and forward one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release.

(d) (1) Any person who, on or after January 1, 1986, is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the following offenses shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section:

(A) Assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220.

(B) Any offense defined in Section 288 or 288.5, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 286, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 288a, paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, or subdivision (a) of Section 289.

(C) Any offense under Section 264.1 involving rape in concert with force or fear of bodily injury or penetration by any foreign object in concert with force or fear of bodily injury.

(2) Any person who is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the offense set forth in Section 647.6, occurring on or after January 1, 1988, shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(3) Prior to discharge or parole from the Department of the Youth Authority, all persons subject to registration shall be informed of the duty to register under the procedures set forth in this section. Department of the Youth Authority officials shall transmit the required forms and information to the Department of Justice.

(4) The duty to register under this section for offenses adjudicated by a juvenile court shall terminate when a person reaches the age of 25 years.

(5) All records specifically relating to the registration in the custody of the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, and other agencies or public officials shall be destroyed when the person required to register attains the age of 25 years or has his or her records sealed under the procedures set forth in Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, whichever event occurs first. This subdivision shall not be construed as requiring the destruction of other criminal offender or juvenile records relating to the case which are maintained by the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, the juvenile court, or other agencies and public officials unless ordered by a court under Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) (1) The registration shall consist of the following:

(A) A statement in writing signed by the person, giving information as may be required by the Department of Justice.

(B) The fingerprints and photograph of the person.

(C) The license plate number of any vehicle owned by or registered in the name of the person.

(2) Within three days thereafter, the registering law enforcement agency or agencies shall forward the statement, fingerprints, photograph, and vehicle license plate number, if any, to the Department of Justice.

(f) If any person required to register pursuant to this section changes his or her residence address, the person shall inform, in writing within 10 days, the law enforcement agency or agencies with whom he or she last registered of the new address. The law enforcement agency or agencies shall, within three days after receipt of this information, forward it to the Department of Justice. The Department of Justice shall forward appropriate registration data to the law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction of the new place of residence.

(g) (1) Any person required to register under this section based on a misdemeanor conviction who willfully violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), any person who has been convicted of assault with intent to commit rape, oral copulation, or sodomy under Section 220, any violation of Section 264.1 or 289 under Section 220, any violation of Section 261, any offense defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to state prison, or any violation of Section 264.1, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289, and who is required to register under this section who willfully violates this section is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years.

(3) Any person required to register under this section based on a felony conviction who willfully violates this section or who has a prior conviction for the offense of failing to register under this section and who subsequently and willfully commits that offense is, upon each subsequent conviction, guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months or two or three years.

A person punished pursuant to this paragraph or paragraph (2) shall be sentenced to serve a term of not less than 90 days nor more than one year in a county jail. In no event does the court have the power to absolve a person who willfully violates this section from the obligation of spending at least 90 days of confinement in a county jail and of completing probation of at least one year.

If the person has been sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the state prison, the penalty described in this paragraph shall apply whether or not the person has been released on parole or has been discharged from parole.

(4) If, after discharge from parole, the person is convicted of a felony as specified in this subdivision, he or she shall be required to complete parole of at least one year, in addition to any other punishment imposed under this subdivision. A person convicted of a felony as specified in this subdivision may be granted probation only in the unusual case where the interests of justice would best be served. When probation is granted under this paragraph, the court shall specify on the record and shall enter in the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interests of justice would best be served by the disposition.

(h) Whenever any person is released on parole or probation and is required to register under this section but fails to do so within the time prescribed, the parole authority, the Youthful Offender Parole Board, or the court, as the case may be, shall order the parole or probation of the person revoked. For purposes of this subdivision, "parole authority" has the same meaning as described in Section 3000.

(i) The statements, photographs, and fingerprints required by this section shall not be open to inspection by the public or by any person other than a regularly employed peace or other law enforcement officer.

(j) In any case in which a person who would be required to register pursuant to this section for a felony conviction is to be temporarily sent outside the institution where he or she is confined on any assignment within a city or county including firefighting, disaster control, or of whatever nature the assignment may be, the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the place or places where the assignment shall occur shall be notified within a reasonable time prior to removal from the institution. This provision shall not apply to any person temporarily released under guard from the institution where he or she is confined.

(l) Every person who, prior to January 1, 1985, is required to register under this section, shall be notified whenever he or she next reregisters of the reduction of the registration period from 30 to 14 days. This notice shall be provided in writing by the registering agency or agencies. Failure to receive this notification shall be a defense against the penalties prescribed by subdivision (g) if the person did register within 30 days.

SEC. 1.2. Section 290 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290. (a) (1) Every person described in paragraph (2), for the rest of his or her life while residing in California, shall be required to register with the chief of police of the city in which he or she is domiciled, or the sheriff of the county if he or she is domiciled in an unincorporated area, and, additionally, with the chief of police of a campus of the University of California or the California State University if he or she is domiciled upon the campus or in any of its facilities, within 14 days of coming into any county, city, or city and county in which he or she temporarily resides or is domiciled for that length of time. The person shall be required annually thereafter, within 10 days of his or her birthday, to update his or her registration with the entities described in this paragraph, including, verifying his or her address on a form as may be required by the Department of Justice.

(2) The following persons shall be required to register pursuant to paragraph (1):

(A) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or is hereafter convicted in this state of a violation of subdivision (b) of Section 207, Section 220, except assault to commit mayhem, or 243.4, paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 261 or paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to the state prison, Section 264.1, 266, 266c, 266j, 267, 285, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289, subdivision (b), (c), or (d) of Section 311.2, Section 311.3, 311.4, 311.10, 311.11, or 647.6 or former Section 647a, subdivision (d) of Section 647, or subdivision 1 or 2 of Section 314, or of any offense involving lewd and lascivious conduct under Section 272, or any felony violation of Section 288.2; or any person who since that date has been or is hereafter convicted of the attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses.

(B) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is released, discharged, or paroled from a penal institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempt to commit one of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(C) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is determined to be a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(D) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been, or is hereafter convicted in any other court of any offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(b) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is released, discharged, or paroled from a jail, prison, school, road camp, or other institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempt to commit one of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) or is released from a state hospital to which he or she was committed as a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall, prior to discharge, parole, or release, be informed of his or her duty to register under this section by the official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital and the official shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to the person. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release and shall report the address to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall give one copy of the form to the person, and shall send one copy to the Department of Justice and one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having jurisdiction over the place the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release. If the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, the official in charge shall, not later than 45 days prior to the scheduled release of the person, send one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release; one copy to the prosecuting agency which prosecuted the person; and one copy to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement shall retain one copy. All forms shall, if the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, be transmitted within those times as to be received by the local law enforcement agency or agencies, and prosecuting agency 30 days prior to the discharge, parole, or release of the person.

(c) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is convicted in this state of the commission or attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses and who is released on probation or discharged upon payment of a fine shall, prior to release or discharge, be informed of the duty to register under this section by the court in which the person has been convicted and the court shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to him or her. The court shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon release or discharge and shall report within three days the address to the Department of Justice. The court shall give one copy of the form to the person, send one copy to the Department of Justice, and forward one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release.

(d) (1) Any person who, on or after January 1, 1986, is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the offenses described in paragraph (3) shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(2) Any person who, on or after January 1, 1995, is discharged or paroled from a facility in another state that is equivalent to the Department of the Youth Authority, to the custody of which he or she was committed because of an offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable by one or more the offenses described in paragraphs (3) and (4), shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(3) The following offenses shall apply for the purpose of this subdivision:

(A) Assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220.

(B) Any offense defined in Section 288 or 288.5, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 286, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 288a, paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, or subdivision (a) of Section 289.

(C) Any offense under Section 264.1 involving rape in concert with force or fear of bodily injury or penetration by any foreign object in concert with force or fear of bodily injury.

(4) Any person who is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the offense set forth in Section 647.6, occurring on or after January 1, 1988, shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(5) Prior to discharge or parole from the Department of the Youth Authority, all persons subject to registration shall be informed of the duty to register under the procedures set forth in this section. Department of the Youth Authority officials shall transmit the required forms and information to the Department of Justice.

(6) The duty to register under this section for offenses adjudicated by a juvenile court shall terminate when a person reaches the age of 25 years.

(7) All records specifically relating to the registration in the custody of the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, and other agencies or public officials shall be destroyed when the person required to register attains the age of 25 years or has his or her records sealed under the procedures set forth in Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, whichever event occurs first. This subdivision shall not be construed as requiring the destruction of other criminal offender or juvenile records relating to the case which are maintained by the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, the juvenile court, or other agencies and public officials unless ordered by a court under Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) (1) The registration shall consist of the following:

(A) A statement in writing signed by the person, giving information as may be required by the Department of Justice.

(B) The fingerprints and photograph of the person.

(C) The license plate number of any vehicle owned by or registered in the name of the person.

(2) Within three days thereafter, the registering law enforcement agency or agencies shall forward the statement, fingerprints, photograph, and vehicle license plate number, if any, to the Department of Justice.

(f) If any person required to register pursuant to this section changes his or her residence address, the person shall inform, in writing within 10 days, the law enforcement agency or agencies with whom he or she last registered of the new address. The law enforcement agency or agencies shall, within three days after receipt of this information, forward it to the Department of Justice. The Department of Justice shall forward appropriate registration data to the law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction of the new place of residence.

(g) (1) Any person required to register under this section based on a misdemeanor conviction who willfully violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year.

(2) Any person required to register under this section based on a felony conviction who willfully violates this section is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months or two or three years.

If the person has been sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the state prison, the penalty described in this paragraph shall apply whether or not the person has been released on parole or has been discharged from parole.

(h) Whenever any person is released on parole or probation and is required to register under this section but fails to do so within the time prescribed, the parole authority, the Youthful Offender Parole Board, or the court, as the case may be, shall order the parole or probation of the person revoked. For purposes of this subdivision, "parole authority" has the same meaning as described in Section 3000.

(j) In any case in which a person who would be required to register pursuant to this section for a felony conviction is to be temporarily sent outside the institution where he or she is confined on any assignment within a city or county including firefighting, disaster control, or of whatever nature the assignment may be, the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the place or places where the assignment shall occur shall be notified within a reasonable time prior to removal from the institution. This provision shall not apply to any person temporarily released under guard from the institution where he or she is confined.

(k) As used in this section, "mentally disordered sex offender"

includes any person who has been determined to be a sexual psychopath or a mentally disordered sex offender under any provision which, on or before January 1, 1976, was contained in Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(l) Every person who, prior to January 1, 1985, is required to register under this section, shall be notified whenever he or she next reregisters of the reduction of the registration period from 30 to 14 days. This notice shall be provided in writing by the registering agency or agencies. Failure to receive this notification shall be a defense against the penalties prescribed by subdivision (g) if the person did register within 30 days.

SEC. 1.3. Section 290 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290. (a) (1) Every person described in paragraph (2), for the rest of his or her life while residing in California, shall be required to register with the chief of police of the city in which he or she is domiciled, or the sheriff of the county if he or she is domiciled in an unincorporated area, and, additionally, with the chief of police of a campus of the University of California or the California State University if he or she is domiciled upon the campus or in any of its facilities, within 14 days of coming into any county, city, or city and county in which he or she temporarily resides or is domiciled for that length of time. The person shall be required annually thereafter, within 10 days of his or her birthday, to update his or her registration with the entities described in this paragraph, including, verifying his or her address on a form as may be required by the Department of Justice.

(2) The following persons shall be required to register pursuant to paragraph (1):

(A) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or is hereafter convicted in this state of a violation of subdivision (b) of Section 207, Section 220, except assault to commit mayhem, or 243.4, paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 261 or paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to the state prison, Section 264.1, 266, 266c, 266j, 267, 285, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289, subdivision (b), (c), or (d) of Section 311.2, Section 311.3, 311.4, 311.10, 311.11, or 647.6 or former Section 647a, subdivision (d) of Section 647, or subdivision 1 or 2 of Section 314, or of any offense involving lewd and lascivious conduct under Section 272, or of any felony violation of Section 288.2; or any person who since that date has been or is hereafter convicted of the attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses.

(B) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is released, discharged, or paroled from a penal institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(C) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is determined to be a mentally disordered sex offender under Article

1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(D) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been, or is hereafter convicted in any other court of any offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(E) Any person ordered by any court to register pursuant to this section for any offense not included specifically in this section if the court finds at the time of conviction that the person committed the offense as a result of sexual compulsion or for purposes of sexual gratification. The court shall state on the record the reasons for its findings and the reasons for requiring registration.

(b) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is released, discharged, or paroled from a jail, prison, school, road camp, or other institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) or is released from a state hospital to which he or she was committed as a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall, prior to discharge, parole, or release, be informed of his or her duty to register under this section by the official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital, and the official shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to the person. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release and shall report the address to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall give one copy of the form to the person and shall send one copy to the Department of Justice and one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having jurisdiction over the place the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release. If the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, the official in charge shall, not later than 45 days prior to the scheduled release of the person, send one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release; one copy to the prosecuting agency which prosecuted the person; and one copy to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement shall retain one copy. All forms shall, if the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, be transmitted within those times as to be received by the local law enforcement agency or agencies and prosecuting agency 30 days prior to the discharge, parole, or release of the person.

(c) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is convicted in this state of the commission or attempted commission of any of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) and who is released on probation or discharged upon payment of a fine shall, prior to release or discharge, be informed of the duty to register under this section by the court in which the person has been convicted, and the court shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to him or her. The court shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon release or discharge and shall report within three days the address to the Department of Justice. The court shall give one copy of the form to the person, send one copy to the Department of Justice, and forward one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release.

(d) (1) Any person who, on or after January 1, 1986, is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the following offenses shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section:

(A) Assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220.

(B) Any offense defined in Section 288 or 288.5, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 286, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 288a, paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, or subdivision (a) of Section 289.

(C) Any offense under Section 264.1 involving rape in concert with force or fear of bodily injury or penetration by any foreign object in concert with force or fear of bodily injury.

(2) Any person who is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the offense set forth in Section 647.6, occurring on or after January 1, 1988, shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(4) All records specifically relating to the registration in the custody of the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, and other agencies or public officials shall be destroyed when the person who is required to register has his or her records sealed under the procedures set forth in Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. This subdivision shall not be construed as requiring the destruction of other criminal offender or juvenile records relating to the case which are maintained by the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, the juvenile court, or other agencies and public officials unless ordered by a court under Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) (1) The registration shall consist of the following:

(A) A statement in writing signed by the person, giving information as may be required by the Department of Justice.

(B) The fingerprints and photograph of the person.

(C) The license plate number of any vehicle owned by or registered in the name of the person.

(2) Within three days thereafter, the registering law enforcement agency or agencies shall forward the statement, fingerprints, photograph, and vehicle license plate number, if any, to the Department of Justice.

(f) If any person who is required to register pursuant to this section changes his or her residence address, the person shall inform, in writing within 10 days, the law enforcement agency or agencies with whom he or she last registered of the new address. The law enforcement agency or agencies shall, within three days after receipt of this information, forward it to the Department of Justice. The Department of Justice shall forward appropriate registration data to the law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction of the new place of residence.

(g) (1) Any person who is required to register under this section based on a misdemeanor conviction who willfully violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year.

(2) Any person required to register under this section based on a felony conviction who willfully violates this section is guilty of a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months or two or three years.

If the person has been sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the state prison, the penalty described in this paragraph shall apply whether or not the person has been released on parole or has been discharged from parole.

(h) Whenever any person is released on parole or probation and is required to register under this section but fails to do so within the time prescribed, the parole authority, the Youthful Offender Parole Board, or the court, as the case may be, shall order the parole or probation of the person revoked. For purposes of this subdivision, "parole authority" has the same meaning as described in Section 3000.

(i) The statements, photographs, and fingerprints required by this section shall not be open to inspection by the public or by any person other than a regularly employed peace officer or other law enforcement officer.

on any assignment within a city or county including firefighting, disaster control, or of whatever nature the assignment may be, the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the place or places where the assignment shall occur shall be notified within a reasonable time prior to removal from the institution. This provision shall not apply to any person who is temporarily released under guard from the institution where he or she is confined.

(k) As used in this section, "mentally disordered sex offender" includes any person who has been determined to be a sexual psychopath or a mentally disordered sex offender under any provision which, on or before January 1, 1976, was contained in Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(l) Every person who, prior to January 1, 1985, is required to register under this section, shall be notified whenever he or she next reregisters of the reduction of the registration period from 30 to 14 days. This notice shall be provided in writing by the registering agency or agencies. Failure to receive this notification shall be a defense against the penalties prescribed by subdivision (g) if the person did register within 30 days.

SEC. 1.4. Section 290 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290. (a) (1) Every person described in paragraph (2), for the rest of his or her life while residing in California, shall be required to register with the chief of police of the city in which he or she is domiciled, or the sheriff of the county if he or she is domiciled in an unincorporated area, and, additionally, with the chief of police of a campus of the University of California or the California State University if he or she is domiciled upon the campus or in any of its facilities, within 14 days of coming into any county, city, or city and county in which he or she temporarily resides or is domiciled for that length of time. The person shall be required annually thereafter, within 10 days of his or her birthday, to update his or her registration with the entities described in this paragraph, including, verifying his or her address on a form as may be required by the Department of Justice.

(2) The following persons shall be required to register pursuant to paragraph (1):

(A) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or is hereafter convicted in any court in this state or in any federal or military court of a violation of subdivision (b) of Section 207, Section 220, except assault to commit mayhem, or 243.4, paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 261 or paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to the state prison, Section 264.1, 266, 266c, 266j, 267, 285, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289, subdivision (b), (c), or (d) of Section 311.2, Section 311.3, 311.4, 311.10, 311.11, or 647.6 or former Section 647a, subdivision (d) of Section 647, or subdivision 1 or 2 of Section 314, or of any offense involving lewd and lascivious conduct under Section 272, or any felony violation of Section 288.2; or any person who since that date has been or is hereafter convicted of the attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses.

(B) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is released, discharged, or paroled from a penal institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempt to commit one of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(C) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is determined to be a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(D) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been, or is hereafter convicted in any other court, including any federal or military court, of any offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(b) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is released, discharged, or paroled from a jail, state or federal prison, school, road camp, or other institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempt to commit one of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) or is released from a state hospital to which he or she was committed as a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall, prior to discharge, parole, or release, be informed of his or her duty to register under this section by the official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital and the official shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to the person. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release and shall report the address to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall give one copy of the form to the person, and shall send one copy to the Department of Justice and one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having jurisdiction over the place the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release. If the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, the official in charge shall, not later than 45 days prior to the scheduled release of the person, send one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release; one copy to the prosecuting agency which prosecuted the person; and one copy to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement shall retain one copy. All forms shall, if the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, be transmitted within those times as to be received by the local law enforcement agency or agencies, and prosecuting agency 30 days prior to the discharge, parole, or release of the person.

(c) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is convicted in this state of the commission or attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses and who is released on probation or discharged upon payment of a fine shall, prior to release or discharge, be informed of the duty to register under this section by the court in which the person has been convicted and the court shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to him or her. The court shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon release or discharge and shall report within three days the address to the Department of Justice. The court shall give one copy of the form to the person, send one copy to the Department of Justice, and forward one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release.

(d) (1) Any person who, on or after January 1, 1986, is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the offenses described in paragraph (3) shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(2) Any person who, on or after January 1, 1995, is discharged or paroled from a facility in another state that is equivalent to the Department of the Youth Authority, to the custody of which he or she was committed because of an offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable by one or more the offenses described in paragraphs (3) and (4), shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(3) The following offenses shall apply for the purpose of this subdivision:

(A) Assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220.

(B) Any offense defined in Section 288 or 288.5, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 286, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 288a, paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, or subdivision (a) of Section 289.

(C) Any offense under Section 264.1 involving rape in concert with force or fear of bodily injury or penetration by any foreign object in concert with force or fear of bodily injury.

(4) Any person who is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the offense set forth in Section 647.6, occurring on or after January 1, 1988, shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(5) Prior to discharge or parole from the Department of the Youth Authority, all persons subject to registration shall be informed of the duty to register under the procedures set forth in this section. Department of the Youth Authority officials shall transmit the required forms and information to the Department of Justice.

(6) The duty to register under this section for offenses adjudicated by a juvenile court shall terminate when a person reaches the age of 25 years.

(7) All records specifically relating to the registration in the custody of the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, and other agencies or public officials shall be destroyed when the person required to register attains the age of 25 years or has his or her records sealed under the procedures set forth in Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, whichever event occurs first. This subdivision shall not be construed as requiring the destruction of other criminal offender or juvenile records relating to the case which are maintained by the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, the juvenile court, or other agencies and public officials unless ordered by a court under Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) (1) The registration shall consist of the following:

(A) A statement in writing signed by the person, giving information as may be required by the Department of Justice.

(B) The fingerprints and photograph of the person.

(C) The license plate number of any vehicle owned by or registered in the name of the person.

(2) Within three days thereafter, the registering law enforcement agency or agencies shall forward the statement, fingerprints, photograph, and vehicle license plate number, if any, to the Department of Justice.

(f) If any person required to register pursuant to this section changes his or her residence address, the person shall inform, in writing within 10 days, the law enforcement agency or agencies with whom he or she last registered of the new address. The law enforcement agency or agencies shall, within three days after receipt of this information, forward it to the Department of Justice. The Department of Justice shall forward appropriate registration data to the law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction of the new place of residence.

(g) (1) Any person required to register under this section based on a misdemeanor conviction who willfully violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), any person who has been convicted of assault with intent to commit rape, oral copulation, or sodomy under Section 220, any violation of Section 264.1 or 289 under Section 220, any violation of Section 261, any offense defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to state prison, or any violation of Section 264.1, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289, and who is required to register under this section who willfully violates this section is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years.

(3) Any person required to register under this section based on a felony conviction who willfully violates this section or who has a prior conviction for the offense of failing to register under this section and who subsequently and willfully commits that offense is, upon each subsequent conviction, guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months or two or three years.

A person punished pursuant to this paragraph or paragraph (2) shall be sentenced to serve a term of not less than 90 days nor more than one year in a county jail. In no event does the court have the power to absolve a person who willfully violates this section from the obligation of spending at least 90 days of confinement in a county jail and of completing probation of at least one year.

If the person has been sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the state prison, the penalty described in this paragraph shall apply whether or not the person has been released on parole or has been discharged from parole.

(4) If, after discharge from parole, the person is convicted of a felony as specified in this subdivision, he or she shall be required to complete parole of at least one year, in addition to any other punishment imposed under this subdivision. A person convicted of a felony as specified in this subdivision may be granted probation only in the unusual case where the interests of justice would best be served. When probation is granted under this paragraph, the court shall specify on the record and shall enter into the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interests of justice would best be served by the disposition.

(h) Whenever any person is released on parole or probation and is required to register under this section but fails to do so within the time prescribed, the parole authority, the Youthful Offender Parole Board, or the court, as the case may be, shall order the parole or probation of the person revoked. For purposes of this subdivision, "parole authority" has the same meaning as described in Section 3000.

(i) Except as provided in Section 290.4, the statements, photographs, and fingerprints required by this section shall not be open to inspection by the public or by any person other than a regularly employed peace or other law enforcement officer.

(j) In any case in which a person who would be required to register pursuant to this section for a felony conviction is to be temporarily sent outside the institution where he or she is confined on any assignment within a city or county including firefighting, disaster control, or of whatever nature the assignment may be, the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the place or places where the assignment shall occur shall be notified within a reasonable time prior to removal from the institution. This provision shall not apply to any person temporarily released under guard from the institution where he or she is confined.

(k) As used in this section, "mentally disordered sex offender" includes any person who has been determined to be a sexual psychopath or a mentally disordered sex offender under any provision which, on or before January 1, 1976, was contained in Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(l) Every person who, prior to January 1, 1985, is required to register under this section, shall be notified whenever he or she next reregisters of the reduction of the registration period from 30 to 14 days. This notice shall be provided in writing by the registering agency or agencies. Failure to receive this notification shall be a defense against the penalties prescribed by subdivision (g) if the person did register within 30 days.

SEC. 1.5. Section 290 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290. (a) (1) Every person described in paragraph (2), for the rest of his or her life while residing in California, shall be required to register with the chief of police of the city in which he or she is domiciled, or the sheriff of the county if he or she is domiciled in an unincorporated area, and, additionally, with the chief of police of a campus of the University of California or the California State University if he or she is domiciled upon the campus or in any of its facilities, within 14 days of coming into any county, city, or city and county in which he or she temporarily resides or is domiciled for that length of time. The person shall be required annually thereafter, within 10 days of his or her birthday, to update his or her registration with the entities described in this paragraph, including, verifying his or her address on a form as may be required by the Department of Justice.

(2) The following persons shall be required to register pursuant to paragraph (1):

(A) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or is hereafter convicted in any court in this state or in any federal or military court of a violation of subdivision (b) of Section 207, Section 220, except assault to commit mayhem, or 243.4, paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 261 or paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to the state prison, Section 264.1, 266, 266c, 266j, 267, 285, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289, subdivision (b), (c), or (d) of Section 311.2, Section 311.3, 311.4, 311.10, 311.11, or 647.6 or former Section 647a, subdivision (d) of Section 647, or subdivision 1 or 2 of Section 314, or of any offense involving lewd and lascivious conduct under Section 272, or of any felony violation of Section 288.2; or any person who since that date has been or is hereafter convicted of the attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses.

(B) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is released, discharged, or paroled from a penal institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(C) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is determined to be a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(D) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been, or is hereafter convicted in any other court, including any federal or military court, of any offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(b) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is released, discharged, or paroled from a jail, state or federal prison, school, road camp, or other institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) or is released from a state hospital to which he or she was committed as a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall, prior to discharge, parole, or release, be informed of his or her duty to register under this section by the official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital, and the official shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to the person. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release and shall report the address to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall give one copy of the form to the person and shall send one copy to the Department of Justice and one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having jurisdiction over the place the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release. If the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, the official in charge shall, not later than 45 days prior to the scheduled release of the person, send one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release; one copy to the prosecuting agency which prosecuted the person; and one copy to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement shall retain one copy. All forms shall, if the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, be transmitted within those times as to be received by the local law enforcement agency or agencies and prosecuting agency 30 days prior to the discharge, parole, or release of the person.

(c) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is convicted in this state of the commission or attempted commission of any of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) and who is released on probation or discharged upon payment of a fine shall, prior to release or discharge, be informed of the duty to register under this section by the court in which the person has been convicted, and the court shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to him or her. The court shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon release or discharge and shall report within three days the address to the Department of Justice. The court shall give one copy of the form to the person, send one copy to the Department of Justice, and forward one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release.

(d) (1) Any person who, on or after January 1, 1986, is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the following offenses shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section:

(A) Assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220.

(B) Any offense defined in Section 288 or 288.5, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 286, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 288a, paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, or subdivision (a) of Section 289.

(C) Any offense under Section 264.1 involving rape in concert with force or fear of bodily injury or penetration by any foreign object in concert with force or fear of bodily injury.

(2) Any person who is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the offense set forth in Section 647.6, occurring on or after January 1, 1988, shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(3) Prior to discharge or parole from the Department of the Youth Authority, any person who is subject to registration shall be informed of the duty to register under the procedures set forth in this section. Department of the Youth Authority officials shall transmit the required forms and information to the Department of Justice.

(4) All records specifically relating to the registration in the custody of the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, and other agencies or public officials shall be destroyed when the person who is required to register has his or her records sealed under the procedures set forth in Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. This subdivision shall not be construed as requiring the destruction of other criminal offender or juvenile records relating to the case which are maintained by the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, the juvenile court, or other agencies and public officials unless ordered by a court under Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) (1) The registration shall consist of the following:

(A) A statement in writing signed by the person, giving information as may be required by the Department of Justice.

(B) The fingerprints and photograph of the person.

(C) The license plate number of any vehicle owned by or registered in the name of the person.

(2) Within three days thereafter, the registering law enforcement agency or agencies shall forward the statement, fingerprints, photograph, and vehicle license plate number, if any, to the Department of Justice.

(f) If any person who is required to register pursuant to this section changes his or her residence address, the person shall inform, in writing within 10 days, the law enforcement agency or agencies with whom he or she last registered of the new address. The law enforcement agency or agencies shall, within three days after receipt of this information, forward it to the Department of Justice. The Department of Justice shall forward appropriate registration data to the law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction of the new place of residence.

(g) (1) Any person who is required to register under this section based on a misdemeanor conviction who willfully violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), any person who has been convicted of assault with intent to commit rape, oral copulation, or sodomy under Section 220, any violation of Section 264.1 or 289 under Section 220, any violation of Section 261, any offense defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to state prison, or any violation of Section 264.1, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289, and who is required to register under this section who willfully violates this section is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years.

(3) Any person required to register under this section based on a felony conviction who willfully violates this section or who has two prior convictions for the offense of failing to register under this section and who subsequently and willfully commits that offense is, upon each subsequent conviction, guilty of a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months or two or three years.

A person punished pursuant to this paragraph or paragraph (2) shall be sentenced to serve a term of not less than 90 days nor more than one year in a county jail. In no event does the court have the power to absolve a person who willfully violates this section from the obligation of spending at least 90 days of confinement in a county jail and of completing probation of at least one year.

If the person has been sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the state prison, the penalty described in this paragraph shall apply whether or not the person has been released on parole or has been discharged from parole.

(4) If, after discharge from parole, the person is convicted of a felony as specified in this subdivision, he or she shall be required to complete parole of at least one year, in addition to any other punishment imposed under this subdivision. A person convicted of a felony as specified in this subdivision may be granted probation only in the unusual case where the interests of justice would best be served. When probation is granted under this paragraph, the court shall specify on the record and shall enter into the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interests of justice would best be served by the disposition.

(h) Whenever any person is released on parole or probation and is required to register under this section but fails to do so within the time prescribed, the parole authority, the Youthful Offender Parole Board, or the court, as the case may be, shall order the parole or probation of the person revoked. For purposes of this subdivision, "parole authority" has the same meaning as described in Section 3000.

(i) The statements, photographs, and fingerprints required by this section shall not be open to inspection by the public or by any person other than a regularly employed peace officer or other law enforcement officer.

(j) In any case in which a person who would be required to register pursuant to this section for a felony conviction is to be temporarily sent outside the institution where he or she is confined on any assignment within a city or county including firefighting, disaster control, or of whatever nature the assignment may be, the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the place or places where the assignment shall occur shall be notified within a reasonable time prior to removal from the institution. This provision shall not apply to any person who is temporarily released under guard from the institution where he or she is confined.

(k) As used in this section, "mentally disordered sex offender" includes any person who has been determined to be a sexual psychopath or a mentally disordered sex offender under any provision which, on or before January 1, 1976, was contained in Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(l) Every person who, prior to January 1, 1985, is required to register under this section, shall be notified whenever he or she next reregisters of the reduction of the registration period from 30 to 14 days. This notice shall be provided in writing by the registering agency or agencies. Failure to receive this notification shall be a defense against the penalties prescribed by subdivision (g) if the person did register within 30 days.

SEC. 1.6. Section 290 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290. (a) (1) Every person described in paragraph (2), for the rest of his or her life while residing in California, shall be required to register with the chief of police of the city in which he or she is domiciled, or the sheriff of the county if he or she is domiciled in an unincorporated area, and, additionally, with the chief of police of a campus of the University of California or the California State University if he or she is domiciled upon the campus or in any of its facilities, within 14 days of coming into any county, city, or city and county in which he or she temporarily resides or is domiciled for that length of time. The person shall be required annually thereafter, within 10 days of his or her birthday, to update his or her registration with the entities described in this paragraph, including, verifying his or her address on a form as may be required by the Department of Justice.

(2) The following persons shall be required to register pursuant to paragraph (1):

(A) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or is hereafter convicted in this state of a violation of subdivision (b) of Section 207, Section 220, except assault to commit mayhem, or 243.4, paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 261 or paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to the state prison, Section 264.1, 266, 266c, 266j, 267, 285, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289, subdivision (b), (c), or (d) of Section 311.2, Section 311.3, 311.4, 311.10, 311.11, or 647.6 or former Section 647a, subdivision (d) of Section 647, or subdivision 1 or 2 of Section 314, or of any offense involving lewd and lascivious conduct under Section 272, or of any felony violation of Section 288.2; or any person who since that date has been or is hereafter convicted of the attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses.

(B) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is released, discharged, or paroled from a penal institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(C) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is determined to be a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(D) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been, or is hereafter convicted in any other court of any offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(b) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is released, discharged, or paroled from a jail, prison, school, road camp, or other institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) or is released from a state hospital to which he or she was committed as a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall, prior to discharge, parole, or release, be informed of his or her duty to register under this section by the official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital, and the official shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to the person. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release and shall report the address to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall give one copy of the form to the person and shall send one copy to the Department of Justice and one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having jurisdiction over the place the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release. If the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, the official in charge shall, not later than 45 days prior to the scheduled release of the person, send one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release; one copy to the prosecuting agency which prosecuted the person; and one copy to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement shall retain one copy. All forms shall, if the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, be transmitted within those times as to be received by the local law enforcement agency or agencies and prosecuting agency 30 days prior to the discharge, parole, or release of the person.

(c) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is convicted in this state of the commission or attempted commission of any of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) and who is released on probation or discharged upon payment of a fine shall, prior to release or discharge, be informed of the duty to register under this section by the court in which the person has been convicted, and the court shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to him or her. The court shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon release or discharge and shall report within three days the address to the Department of Justice. The court shall give one copy of the form to the person, send one copy to the Department of Justice, and forward one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release.

(d) (1) Any person who, on or after January 1, 1986, is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the offenses described in paragraph (3) shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(2) Any person who, on or after January 1, 1995, is discharged or paroled from a facility in another state that is equivalent to the Department of the Youth Authority, to the custody of which he or she was committed because of an offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable by one or more of the offenses described in paragraphs (3) and (4), shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(3) The following offenses shall apply for the purpose of this subdivision:

(A) Assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220.

(B) Any offense defined in Section 288 or 288.5, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 286, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 288a, paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, or subdivision (a) of Section 289.

(C) Any offense under Section 264.1 involving rape in concert with force or fear of bodily injury or penetration by any foreign object in concert with force or fear of bodily injury.

(4) Any person who is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the offense set forth in Section 647.6, occurring on or after January 1, 1988, shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(6) All records specifically relating to the registration in the custody of the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, and other agencies or public officials shall be destroyed when the person who is required to register has his or her records sealed under the procedures set forth in Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. This subdivision shall not be construed as requiring the destruction of other criminal offender or juvenile records relating to the case which are maintained by the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, the juvenile court, or other agencies and public officials unless ordered by a court under Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) (1) The registration shall consist of the following:

(A) A statement in writing signed by the person, giving information as may be required by the Department of Justice.

(B) The fingerprints and photograph of the person.

(C) The license plate number of any vehicle owned by or registered in the name of the person.

(2) Within three days thereafter, the registering law enforcement agency or agencies shall forward the statement, fingerprints, photograph, and vehicle license plate number, if any, to the Department of Justice.

(f) If any person who is required to register pursuant to this section changes his or her residence address, the person shall inform, in writing within 10 days, the law enforcement agency or agencies with whom he or she last registered of the new address. The law enforcement agency or agencies shall, within three days after receipt of this information, forward it to the Department of Justice. The Department of Justice shall forward appropriate registration data to the law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction of the new place of residence.

(g) (1) Any person who is required to register under this section based on a misdemeanor conviction who willfully violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year.

(2) Any person required to register under this section based on a felony conviction who willfully violates this section is guilty of a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months or two or three years.

If the person has been sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the state prison, the penalty described in this paragraph shall apply whether or not the person has been released on parole or has been discharged from parole.

(h) Whenever any person is released on parole or probation and is required to register under this section but fails to do so within the time prescribed, the parole authority, the Youthful Offender Parole Board, or the court, as the case may be, shall order the parole or probation of the person revoked. For purposes of this subdivision, "parole authority" has the same meaning as described in Section 3000.

(j) In any case in which a person who would be required to register pursuant to this section for a felony conviction is to be temporarily sent outside the institution where he or she is confined on any assignment within a city or county including firefighting, disaster control, or of whatever nature the assignment may be, the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the place or places where the assignment shall occur shall be notified within a reasonable time prior to removal from the institution. This provision shall not apply to any person who is temporarily released under guard from the institution where he or she is confined.

(l) Every person who, prior to January 1, 1985, is required to register under this section, shall be notified whenever he or she next reregisters of the reduction of the registration period from 30 to 14 days. This notice shall be provided in writing by the registering agency or agencies. Failure to receive this notification shall be a defense against the penalties prescribed by subdivision (g) if the person did register within 30 days.

SEC. 1.7. Section 290 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290. (a) (1) Every person described in paragraph (2), for the rest of his or her life while residing in California, shall be required to register with the chief of police of the city in which he or she is domiciled, or the sheriff of the county if he or she is domiciled in an unincorporated area, and, additionally, with the chief of police of a campus of the University of California or the California State University if he or she is domiciled upon the campus or in any of its facilities, within 14 days of coming into any county, city, or city and county in which he or she temporarily resides or is domiciled for that length of time. The person shall be required annually thereafter, within 10 days of his or her birthday, to update his or her registration with the entities described in this paragraph, including, verifying his or her address on a form as may be required by the Department of Justice.

(2) The following persons shall be required to register pursuant to paragraph (1):

(A) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or is hereafter convicted in any court in this state or in any federal or military court of a violation of subdivision (b) of Section 207, Section 220, except assault to commit mayhem, or 243.4, paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 261 or paragraph (1) of subdivision

(a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to the state prison, Section 264.1, 266, 266c, 266j, 267, 285, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289, subdivision (b), (c), or (d) of Section 311.2, Section 311.3, 311.4, 311.10, 311.11, or 647.6 or former Section 647a, subdivision (d) of Section 647, or subdivision 1 or 2 of Section 314, or of any offense involving lewd and lascivious conduct under Section 272, or of any felony violation of Section 288.2; or any person who since that date has been or is hereafter convicted of the attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses.

(B) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is released, discharged, or paroled from a penal institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(C) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is determined to be a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(D) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been, or is hereafter convicted in any other court, including any federal or military court, of any offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(b) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is released, discharged, or paroled from a jail, state or federal prison, school, road camp, or other institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) or is released from a state hospital to which he or she was committed as a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall, prior to discharge, parole, or release, be informed of his or her duty to register under this section by the official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital, and the official shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to the person. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release and shall report the address to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall give one copy of the form to the person and shall send one copy to the Department of Justice and one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having jurisdiction over the place the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release. If the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, the official in charge shall, not later than 45 days prior to the scheduled release of the person, send one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release; one copy to the prosecuting agency which prosecuted the person; and one copy to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement shall retain one copy. All forms shall, if the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, be transmitted within those times as to be received by the local law enforcement agency or agencies and prosecuting agency 30 days prior to the discharge, parole, or release of the person.

(c) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is convicted in this state of the commission or attempted commission of any of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) and who is released on probation or discharged upon payment of a fine shall, prior to release or discharge, be informed of the duty to register under this section by the court in which the person has been convicted, and the court shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to him or her. The court shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon release or discharge and shall report within three days the address to the Department of Justice. The court shall give one copy of the form to the person, send one copy to the Department of Justice, and forward one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release.

(2) Any person who, on or after January 1, 1995, is discharged or paroled from a facility in another state that is equivalent to the Department of the Youth Authority, to the custody of which he or she was committed because of an offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable by one or more the offenses described in paragraphs (3) and (4), shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(3) The following offenses shall apply for the purpose of this subdivision:

(A) Assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220.

(B) Any offense defined in Section 288 or 288.5, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 286, paragraph

(1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 288a, paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, or subdivision (a) of Section 289.

(C) Any offense under Section 264.1 involving rape in concert with force or fear of bodily injury or penetration by any foreign object in concert with force or fear of bodily injury.

(4) Any person who is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the offense set forth in Section 647.6, occurring on or after January 1, 1988, shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(6) All records specifically relating to the registration in the custody of the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, and other agencies or public officials shall be destroyed when the person who is required to register or has his or her records sealed under the procedures set forth in Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. This subdivision shall not be construed as requiring the destruction of other criminal offender or juvenile records relating to the case which are maintained by the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, the juvenile court, or other agencies and public officials unless ordered by a court under Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) (1) The registration shall consist of the following:

(A) A statement in writing signed by the person, giving information as may be required by the Department of Justice.

(B) The fingerprints and photograph of the person.

(C) The license plate number of any vehicle owned by or registered in the name of the person.

(2) Within three days thereafter, the registering law enforcement agency or agencies shall forward the statement, fingerprints, photograph, and vehicle license plate number, if any, to the Department of Justice.

(f) If any person who is required to register pursuant to this section changes his or her residence address, the person shall inform, in writing within 10 days, the law enforcement agency or agencies with whom he or she last registered of the new address. The law enforcement agency or agencies shall, within three days after receipt of this information, forward it to the Department of Justice. The Department of Justice shall forward appropriate registration data to the law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction of the new place of residence.

(g) (1) Any person who is required to register under this section based on a misdemeanor conviction who willfully violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), any person who has been convicted of assault with intent to commit rape, oral copulation, or sodomy under Section 220, any violation of Section 264.1 or 289 under Section 220, any violation of Section 261, any offense defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to state prison, or any violation of Section 264.1, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289, and who is required to register under this section who willfully violates this section is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years.

(3) Any person required to register under this section based on a felony conviction who willfully violates this section or who has a prior conviction for the offense of failing to register under this section and who subsequently and willfully commits that offense is, upon each subsequent conviction, guilty of a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months or two or three years.

A person punished pursuant to this paragraph or paragraph (2) shall be sentenced to serve a term of not less than 90 days nor more than one year in a county jail. In no event does the court have the power to absolve a person who willfully violates this section from the obligation of spending at least 90 days of confinement in a county jail and of completing probation of at least one year.

If the person has been sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the state prison, the penalty described in this paragraph shall apply whether or not the person has been released on parole or has been discharged from parole.

(4) If, after discharge from parole, the person is convicted of a felony as specified in this subdivision, he or she shall be required to complete parole of at least one year, in addition to any other punishment imposed under this subdivision. A person convicted of a felony as specified in this subdivision may be granted probation only in the unusual case where the interests of justice would best be served. When probation is granted under this paragraph, the court shall specify on the record and shall enter into the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interests of justice would best be served by the disposition.

(h) Whenever any person is released on parole or probation and is required to register under this section but fails to do so within the time prescribed, the parole authority, the Youthful Offender Parole Board, or the court, as the case may be, shall order the parole or probation of the person revoked. For purposes of this subdivision, "parole authority" has the same meaning as described in Section 3000.

(i) Except as provided in Section 290.4, the statements, photographs, and fingerprints required by this section shall not be open to inspection by the public or by any person other than a regularly employed peace officer or other law enforcement officer.

(j) In any case in which a person who would be required to register pursuant to this section for a felony conviction is to be temporarily sent outside the institution where he or she is confined on any assignment within a city or county including firefighting, disaster control, or of whatever nature the assignment may be, the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the place or places where the assignment shall occur shall be notified within a reasonable time prior to removal from the institution. This provision shall not apply to any person who is temporarily released under guard from the institution where he or she is confined.

(l) Every person who, prior to January 1, 1985, is required to register under this section, shall be notified whenever he or she next reregisters of the reduction of the registration period from 30 to 14 days. This notice shall be provided in writing by the registering agency or agencies. Failure to receive this notification shall be a defense against the penalties prescribed by subdivision (g) if the person did register within 30 days.

SEC. 2. (a) Section 1.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 290 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 1211. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 290 of the Penal Code, (3) AB 2500 and AB 3456 are not enacted or as enacted do not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 1211, in which case Sections 1, 1.2, 1.3, 1.4, 1.5, 1.6, and 1.7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(b) Section 1.2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 290 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2500. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 290 of the Penal Code, (3) AB 1211 and AB 3456 are not enacted or as enacted do not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 2500, in which case Sections 1, 1.1, 1.3, 1.4, 1.5, 1.6, and 1.7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(c) Section 1.3 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 290 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3456. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 290 of the Penal Code, (3) AB 1211 and AB 2500 are not enacted or as enacted do not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 3456, in which case Sections 1, 1.2, 1.4, 1.5, 1.6, and 1.7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(d) Section 1.4 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 290 of the Penal Code proposed by this bill, AB 1211, and AB 2500. It shall only become operative if (1) all three bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1995, (2) all three bills amend Section 290 of the Penal Code, (3) AB 3456 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 1211 and AB 2500, in which case Sections 1, 1.2, 1.3, 1.5, 1.6, and 1.7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(e) Section 1.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 290 of the Penal Code proposed by this bill, AB 1211, and AB 3456. It shall only become operative if (1) all three bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1995, (2) all three bills amend Section 290 of the Penal Code, (3) AB 2500 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 1211 and AB 3456, in which case Sections 1, 1.2, 1.3, 1.4, 1.6, and 1.7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(f) Section 1.6 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 290 of the Penal Code proposed by this bill, AB 2500, and AB 3456. It shall only become operative if (1) all three bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1995, (2) all three bills amend Section 290 of the Penal Code, (3) AB 1211 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 2500 and AB 3456, in which case Sections 1, 1.1, 1.2, 1.3, 1.4, 1.5, and 1.7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(g) Section 1.7 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 290 of the Penal Code proposed by this bill, AB 1211, AB 2500, and AB 3456. It shall only become operative if (1) all four bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1995, (2) all four bills amend Section 290 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 1211, AB 2500, and AB 3456, in which case Sections 1, 1.1, 1.2, 1.3, 1.4, 1.5, and 1.6 of this bill shall not become operative.

No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for those costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

However, notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains other costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 866

An act to amend Section 290.3 of, and to add Section 290.7 to, the Penal Code, relating to sex offenders.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 290.3 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290.3. (a) Every person who is convicted of any offense specified in subdivision (a) of Section 290 shall, in addition to any imprisonment or fine, or both, imposed for violation of the underlying offense, be punished by a fine of two hundred dollars ($200) upon the first conviction or a fine of three hundred dollars ($300) upon the second and each subsequent conviction, unless the court determines that the defendant does not have the ability to pay the fine. An amount equal to all fines collected pursuant to this subdivision during the preceding month upon conviction of, or upon the forfeiture of bail by, any person arrested for, or convicted of, committing an offense specified in subdivision (a) of Section 290, shall be transferred once a month by the county treasurer to the Controller for deposit in the General Fund. Moneys deposited in the General Fund pursuant to this subdivision shall be transferred by the Controller as provided in subdivision (b).

(b) Out of the moneys deposited pursuant to subdivision (a) as a result of second and subsequent convictions of Section 290, one-third shall first be transferred to the Sexual Habitual Offender Fund, as provided in paragraph (1) of this subdivision. Out of the remainder of all moneys deposited pursuant to subdivision (a), 50 percent shall be transferred to the Sexual Habitual Offender Fund, as provided in paragraph (1), 25 percent shall be transferred to the DNA Testing Fund, as provided in paragraph (2), and 25 percent shall be allocated equally to counties that maintain a local DNA testing laboratory, as provided in paragraph (3).

(1) Those moneys so designated shall be transferred to the Department of Justice Sexual Habitual Offender Fund created pursuant to paragraph (5) of subdivision (b) of Section 11170 and, when appropriated by the Legislature, shall be used for the purposes of Chapter 9.5 (commencing with Section 13885) and Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 13890) of Title 6 of Part 4 for the purpose of monitoring, apprehending, and prosecuting sexual habitual offenders.

(2) Those moneys so designated shall be directed to the Department of Justice and transferred to the Department of Justice DNA Testing Fund, which is hereby created, for the exclusive purpose of testing deoxyribonucleic acid (DNA) samples for law enforcement purposes. The moneys in that fund shall be available for expenditure upon appropriation by the Legislature.

(3) Those moneys so designated shall be allocated equally and distributed quarterly to counties that maintain a local DNA testing laboratory. Before making any allocations under this paragraph, the Controller shall deduct the estimated costs that will be incurred to set up and administer the payment of these funds to the counties. Any funds allocated to a county pursuant to this paragraph shall be used by that county for the exclusive purpose of testing DNA samples for law enforcement purposes.

SEC. 2. Section 290.3 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290.3. (a) Every person who is convicted of any offense specified in subdivision (a) of Section 290 shall, in addition to any imprisonment or fine, or both, imposed for violation of the underlying offense, be punished by a fine of two hundred dollars ($200) upon the first conviction or a fine of three hundred dollars ($300) upon the second and each subsequent conviction, unless the court determines that the defendant does not have the ability to pay the fine.

An amount equal to all fines collected pursuant to this subdivision during the preceding month upon conviction of, or upon the forfeiture of bail by, any person arrested for, or convicted of, committing an offense specified in subdivision (a) of Section 290, shall be transferred once a month by the county treasurer to the Controller for deposit in the General Fund. Moneys deposited in the General Fund pursuant to this subdivision shall be transferred by the Controller as provided in subdivision (b).

(b) Out of the moneys deposited pursuant to subdivision (a) as a result of second and subsequent convictions of Section 290, one-third shall first be transferred to the Sexual Habitual Offender Fund, as provided in paragraph (1) of this subdivision. Out of the remainder of all moneys deposited pursuant to subdivision (a), 50 percent shall be transferred to the Sexual Habitual Offender Fund, as provided in paragraph (1), 25 percent shall be transferred to the DNA Testing Fund, as provided in paragraph (2), and 25 percent shall be allocated equally to counties that maintain a local DNA testing laboratory, as provided in paragraph (3).

(1) Those moneys so designated shall be transferred to the Department of Justice Sexual Habitual Offender Fund created pursuant to paragraph (5) of subdivision (b) of Section 11170 and, when appropriated by the Legislature, shall be used for the purposes of Chapter 9.5 (commencing with Section 13885) and Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 13890) of Title 6 of Part 4 for the purpose of monitoring, apprehending, and prosecuting sexual habitual offenders.

(2) Those moneys so designated shall be directed to the Department of Justice and transferred to the Department of Justice DNA Testing Fund, which is hereby created, for the exclusive purpose of testing deoxyribonucleic acid (DNA) samples for law enforcement purposes. The moneys in that fund shall be available for expenditure upon appropriation by the Legislature.

(3) Those moneys so designated shall be allocated equally and distributed quarterly to counties that maintain a local DNA testing laboratory. Before making any allocations under this paragraph, the Controller shall deduct the estimated costs that will be incurred to set up and administer the payment of these funds to the counties. Any funds allocated to a county pursuant to this paragraph shall be used by that county for the exclusive purpose of testing DNA samples for law enforcement purposes.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the Department of Corrections or the Department of the Youth Authority may collect a fine imposed pursuant to this section from a person convicted of a violation of any offense listed in subdivision (a) of Section 290, that results in incarceration in a facility under the jurisdiction of the Department of Corrections or the Department of the Youth Authority. All moneys collected by the Department of Corrections or the Department of the Youth Authority under this subdivision shall be transferred, once a month, to the Controller for deposit in the General Fund, as provided in subdivision (a), for transfer by the Controller, as provided in subdivision (b).

SEC. 3. Section 290.7 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

290.7. The Department of Corrections shall provide samples of blood and saliva taken from a prison inmate pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 290.2 to the county in which the inmate is to be released if the county maintains a local DNA testing laboratory.

SEC. 4. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 290.3 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2500. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 290.3 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2500, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 867

An act to amend Sections 290 and 290.3 of, and to add and repeal Section 290.4 of, the Penal Code, relating to sex offenders, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. This bill shall be known and may be cited as the Child Protective Act of 1994.

SEC. 2. Section 290 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290. (a) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or is hereafter convicted in this state of the offense of assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220, or of any offense defined in paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, or any offense defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to state prison, or of any offense defined in Section 264.1, 266, 267, 285, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, 289, or 647.6 or former Section 647a, subdivision (d) of Section 647, or subdivision 1 or 2 of Section 314, or of any offense involving lewd and lascivious conduct under Section 272, or any felony violation of Section 288.2; or any person who since that date has been or is hereafter convicted of the attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses; or any person who since that date or at any time hereafter is discharged or paroled from a penal institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempt to commit one of the above-mentioned offenses; or any person who since that date or at any time hereafter is determined to be a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code; or any person who has been since that date or is hereafter convicted in any other state of any offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the above-mentioned offenses, shall, within 30 days after the effective date of this section or within 14 days of coming into any county, city, or city and county in which he or she temporarily resides or is domiciled for that length of time, register with the chief of police of the city in which he or she is domiciled, or the sheriff of the county if he or she is domiciled in an unincorporated area, and, additionally, with the chief of police of a campus of the University of California or the California State University if he or she is domiciled upon the campus or in any of its facilities.

(b) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is discharged or paroled from a jail, prison, school, road camp, or other institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempt to commit one of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) or is released from a state hospital to which he or she was committed as a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall, prior to discharge, parole, or release, be informed of his or her duty to register under this section by the official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital and the official shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to the person. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release and shall report the address to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall give one copy of the form to the person, and shall send one copy to the Department of Justice and one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having jurisdiction over the place the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release. If the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, the official in charge shall, not later than 45 days prior to the scheduled release of the person, send one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release; one copy to the prosecuting agency which prosecuted the person; and one copy to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement shall retain one copy. All forms shall, if the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, be transmitted within those times as to be received by the local law enforcement agency or agencies, and prosecuting agency 30 days prior to the discharge, parole, or release of the person.

(c) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is convicted in this state of the commission or attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses and who is released on probation or discharged upon payment of a fine shall, prior to release or discharge, be informed of the duty to register under this section by the court in which the person has been convicted and the court shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to him or her. The court shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon release or discharge and shall report within three days the address to the Department of Justice. The court shall give one copy of the form to the person, send one copy to the Department of Justice, and forward one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release.

(d) (1) Any person who, on or after January 1, 1986, is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the offenses described in paragraph (3) shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(2) Any person who, on or after January 1, 1995, is discharged or paroled from a facility in another state that is equivalent to the Department of the Youth Authority, to the custody of which he or she was committed because of an offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses described in paragraphs (3) and (4), shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(3) The following offenses shall apply for the purpose of this subdivision:

(A) Assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220.

(B) Any offense defined in Section 288 or 288.5, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 286, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 288a, paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, or subdivision (a) of Section 289.

(C) Any offense under Section 264.1 involving rape in concert with force or fear of bodily injury or penetration by any foreign object in concert with force or fear of bodily injury.

(4) Any person who is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the offense set forth in Section 647.6, occurring on or after January 1, 1988, shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(5) Prior to discharge or parole from the Department of the Youth Authority, all persons subject to registration shall be informed of the duty to register under the procedures set forth in this section. Department of the Youth Authority officials shall transmit the required forms and information to the Department of Justice.

(6) The duty to register under this section for offenses adjudicated by a juvenile court shall terminate when a person reaches the age of 25 years.

(7) All records specifically relating to the registration in the custody of the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, and other agencies or public officials shall be destroyed when the person required to register attains the age of 25 years or has his or her records sealed under the procedures set forth in Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, whichever event occurs first. This subdivision shall not be construed as requiring the destruction of other criminal offender or juvenile records relating to the case which are maintained by the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, the juvenile court, or other agencies and public officials unless ordered by a court under Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) The registration shall consist of (1) a statement in writing signed by the person, giving information as may be required by the Department of Justice, and (2) the fingerprints and photograph of the person. Within three days thereafter, the registering law enforcement agency or agencies shall forward the statement, fingerprints, and photograph to the Department of Justice.

(f) If any person required to register pursuant to this section changes his or her residence address, the person shall inform, in writing within 10 days, the law enforcement agency or agencies with whom he or she last registered of the new address. The law enforcement agency or agencies shall, within three days after receipt of this information, forward it to the Department of Justice. The Department of Justice shall forward appropriate registration data to the law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction of the new place of residence.

(g) (1) Any person required to register under this section who violates any of its provisions is guilty of a misdemeanor. Any person who has been convicted of assault with intent to commit rape, oral copulation, or sodomy under Section 220, any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220, any violation of Section 261, any offense defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to state prison, or any violation of Section 264.1, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289, and who is required to register under this section who willfully violates any of the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be sentenced to serve a term of not less than 90 days nor more than one year in a county jail. In no event does the court have the power to absolve a person who willfully violates this section from the obligation of spending at least 90 days of confinement in a county jail and of completing probation of at least one year.

(2) Any person who has two prior convictions for the offense of failing to register under this section and who subsequently and willfully commits that offense is, upon each subsequent conviction, guilty of a public offense, punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years.

The existence of any fact which would bring a person under this paragraph shall be alleged in the information or indictment and either admitted by the defendant in open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury.

(h) Whenever any person is released on parole or probation and is required to register under this section but fails to do so within the time prescribed, the parole authority, the Youthful Offender Parole Board, or the court, as the case may be, shall order the parole or probation of the person revoked. For purposes of this subdivision, "parole authority" has the same meaning as described in Section 3000.

(j) In any case in which a person who would be required to register pursuant to this section for a felony conviction is to be temporarily sent outside the institution where he or she is confined on any assignment within a city or county including firefighting, disaster control, or of whatever nature the assignment may be, the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the place or places where the assignment shall occur shall be notified within a reasonable time prior to removal from the institution. This provision shall not apply to any person temporarily released under guard from the institution where he or she is confined.

(k) As used in this section, "mentally disordered sex offender" includes any person who has been determined to be a sexual psychopath or a mentally disordered sex offender under any provision which, on or before January 1, 1976, was contained in Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(l) Every person who, prior to January 1, 1985, is required to register under this section, shall be notified whenever he or she next reregisters of the reduction of the registration period from 30 to 14 days. This notice shall be provided in writing by the registering agency or agencies. Failure to receive this notification shall be a defense against the penalties prescribed by subdivision (g) if the person did register within 30 days.

SEC. 2.1. Section 290 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290. (a) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or is hereafter convicted in any court in this state or in any federal or military court of the offense of assault with intent to commit a violation of subdivision (b) of Section 207, subdivision (b) or (c) of Section 243.4, or subdivision (a), (b), or (c) of Section 311.4, rape, sodomy, oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220, or of any offense defined in paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, or any offense defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to state prison, or of any offense defined in Section 264.1, 266, 267, 285, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, 289, or 647.6 or former Section 647a, subdivision (d) of Section 647, or subdivision 1 or 2 of Section 314, or of any offense involving lewd and lascivious conduct under Section 272, or any felony violation of Section 288.2; or any person who since that date has been or is hereafter convicted of the attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses; or any person who since that date or at any time hereafter is released, discharged, or paroled from a penal institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempt to commit one of the above-mentioned offenses; or any person who since that date or at any time hereafter is determined to be a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code; or any person who has been since that date or is hereafter convicted in any other state, or in any federal or military court, of any offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the above-mentioned offenses, shall, within 30 days after the effective date of this section or within 14 days of coming into any county, city, or city and county in which he or she temporarily resides or is domiciled for that length of time, register with the chief of police of the city in which he or she is domiciled, or the sheriff of the county if he or she is domiciled in an unincorporated area, and, additionally, with the chief of police of a campus of the University of California or the California State University if he or she is domiciled upon the campus or in any of its facilities.

(b) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is released, discharged, or paroled from a jail, state or federal prison, school, road camp, or other institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempt to commit one of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) or is released from a state hospital to which he or she was committed as a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall, prior to discharge, parole, or release, be informed of his or her duty to register under this section by the official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital and the official shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to the person. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release and shall report the address to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall give one copy of the form to the person, and shall send one copy to the Department of Justice and one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having jurisdiction over the place the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release. If the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, the official in charge shall, not later than 45 days prior to the scheduled release of the person, send one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release; one copy to the prosecuting agency which prosecuted the person; and one copy to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement shall retain one copy. All forms shall, if the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, be transmitted within those times as to be received by the local law enforcement agency or agencies, and prosecuting agency 30 days prior to the discharge, parole, or release of the person.

(c) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is convicted in this state of the commission or attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses and who is released on probation or discharged upon payment of a fine shall, prior to release or discharge, be informed of the duty to register under this section by the court in which the person has been convicted and the court shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to him or her. The court shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon release or discharge and shall report within three days the address to the Department of Justice. The court shall give one copy of the form to the person, send one copy to the Department of Justice, and forward one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release.

(d) (1) Any person who, on or after January 1, 1986, is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the offenses described in paragraph (3) shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(2) Any person who, on or after January 1, 1995, is discharged or paroled from a facility in another state that is equivalent to the Department of the Youth Authority, to the custody of which he or she was committed because of an offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses described in paragraphs (3) and (4), shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(3) The following offenses shall apply for the purpose of this subdivision:

(A) Assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220.

(B) Any offense defined in Section 288 or 288.5, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 286, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 288a, paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, or subdivision (a) of Section 289.

(C) Any offense under Section 264.1 involving rape in concert with force or fear of bodily injury or penetration by any foreign object in concert with force or fear of bodily injury.

(4) Any person who is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the offense set forth in Section 647.6, occurring on or after January 1, 1988, shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(5) Prior to discharge or parole from the Department of the Youth Authority, all persons subject to registration shall be informed of the duty to register under the procedures set forth in this section. Department of the Youth Authority officials shall transmit the required forms and information to the Department of Justice.

(6) The duty to register under this section for offenses adjudicated by a juvenile court shall terminate when a person reaches the age of 25 years.

(7) All records specifically relating to the registration in the custody of the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, and other agencies or public officials shall be destroyed when the person required to register attains the age of 25 years or has his or her records sealed under the procedures set forth in Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, whichever event occurs first. This subdivision shall not be construed as requiring the destruction of other criminal offender or juvenile records relating to the case which are maintained by the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, the juvenile court, or other agencies and public officials unless ordered by a court under Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) The registration shall consist of (1) a statement in writing signed by the person, giving information as may be required by the Department of Justice, and (2) the fingerprints and photograph of the person. Within three days thereafter, the registering law enforcement agency or agencies shall forward the statement, fingerprints, and photograph to the Department of Justice.

(f) If any person required to register pursuant to this section changes his or her residence address, the person shall inform, in writing within 10 days, the law enforcement agency or agencies with whom he or she last registered of the new address. The law enforcement agency or agencies shall, within three days after receipt of this information, forward it to the Department of Justice. The Department of Justice shall forward appropriate registration data to the law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction of the new place of residence.

(g) (1) Any person required to register under this section who violates any of its provisions is guilty of a misdemeanor. Any person who has been convicted of assault with intent to commit rape, oral copulation, or sodomy under Section 220, any violation of Section 264.1 or 289 under Section 220, any violation of Section 261, any offense defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to state prison, or any violation of Section 264.1, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289, and who is required to register under this section who willfully violates any of the provisions of this section shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years, or a term of not less than 90 days nor more than one year in a county jail. In no event does the court have the power to absolve a person who willfully violates this section from the obligation of spending at least 90 days of confinement in a county jail and of completing probation of at least one year.

(2) Any person who has been convicted of any violation of Section 288 and who willfully violates this section is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years. Any person who has a prior conviction of failing to register under this section and who subsequently and willfully commits that offense is, upon each subsequent conviction, guilty of a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years. If, after discharge from parole, the person is convicted of a felony as specified in this paragraph, he or she shall be required to complete parole of at least one year, in addition to any other punishment imposed under this paragraph. A person convicted of a felony as specified in this paragraph may be granted probation only in the unusual case where the interests of justice would best be served. When probation is granted under this paragraph, the court shall specify on the record and shall enter in the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interests of justice would best be served by the disposition.

The existence of any fact which would bring a person under this paragraph shall be alleged in the information or indictment and either admitted by the defendant in open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury.

(h) Whenever any person is released on parole or probation and is required to register under this section but fails to do so within the time prescribed, the parole authority, the Youthful Offender Parole Board, or the court, as the case may be, shall order the parole or probation of the person revoked. For purposes of this subdivision, "parole authority" has the same meaning as described in Section 3000.

(j) In any case in which a person who would be required to register pursuant to this section for a felony conviction is to be temporarily sent outside the institution where he or she is confined on any assignment within a city or county including firefighting, disaster control, or of whatever nature the assignment may be, the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the place or places where the assignment shall occur shall be notified within a reasonable time prior to removal from the institution. This provision shall not apply to any person temporarily released under guard from the institution where he or she is confined.

(l) Every person who, prior to January 1, 1985, is required to register under this section, shall be notified whenever he or she next reregisters of the reduction of the registration period from 30 to 14 days. This notice shall be provided in writing by the registering agency or agencies. Failure to receive this notification shall be a defense against the penalties prescribed by subdivision (g) if the person did register within 30 days.

SEC. 2.2. Section 290 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290. (a) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or is hereafter convicted in this state of assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220, or of any offense defined in paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, or of any offense defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to the state prison, or of any offense defined in Section 264.1, 266, 267, 285, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, 289, or 647.6 or former Section 647a, subdivision (d) of Section 647, or subdivision 1 or 2 of Section 314, or of any offense involving lewd and lascivious conduct under Section 272, or of any felony violation of Section 288.2; or any person who since that date has been or is hereafter convicted of the attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses; or any person who since that date or at any time hereafter is discharged or paroled from a penal institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the above-mentioned offenses; or any person who since that date or at any time hereafter is determined to be a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code; or any person who since that date has been or is hereafter convicted in any other state of any offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the above-mentioned offenses, shall, within 30 days after the effective date of this section or within 14 days of coming into any county, city, or city and county in which he or she temporarily resides or is domiciled for that length of time, register with the chief of police of the city in which he or she is domiciled, or the sheriff of the county if he or she is domiciled in an unincorporated area, and, additionally, with the chief of police of a campus of the University of California or the California State University if he or she is domiciled upon the campus or in any of its facilities.

(b) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is discharged or paroled from a jail, prison, school, road camp, or other institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) or is released from a state hospital to which he or she was committed as a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall, prior to discharge, parole, or release, be informed of his or her duty to register under this section by the official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital, and the official shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to the person. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release and shall report the address to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall give one copy of the form to the person and shall send one copy to the Department of Justice and one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having jurisdiction over the place the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release. If the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, the official in charge shall, not later than 45 days prior to the scheduled release of the person, send one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release; one copy to the prosecuting agency which prosecuted the person; and one copy to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement shall retain one copy. All forms shall, if the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, be transmitted within those times as to be received by the local law enforcement agency or agencies and prosecuting agency 30 days prior to the discharge, parole, or release of the person.

(c) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is convicted in this state of the commission or attempted commission of any of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) and who is released on probation or discharged upon payment of a fine shall, prior to release or discharge, be informed of the duty to register under this section by the court in which the person has been convicted, and the court shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to him or her. The court shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon release or discharge and shall report within three days the address to the Department of Justice. The court shall give one copy of the form to the person, send one copy to the Department of Justice, and forward one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release.

(2) Any person who, on or after January 1, 1995, is discharged or paroled from a facility in another state that is equivalent to the Department of the Youth Authority, to the custody of which he or she was committed because of an offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses described in paragraphs (3) and (4), shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(3) The following offenses shall apply for the purpose of this subdivision:

(A) Assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220.

(B) Any offense defined in Section 288 or 288.5, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 286, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 288a, paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, or subdivision (a) of Section 289.

(C) Any offense under Section 264.1 involving rape in concert with force or fear of bodily injury or penetration by any foreign object in concert with force or fear of bodily injury.

(4) Any person who is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the offense set forth in Section 647.6, occurring on or after January 1, 1988, shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(6) All records specifically relating to the registration in the custody of the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, and other agencies or public officials shall be destroyed when the person who is required to register has his or her records sealed under the procedures set forth in Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. This subdivision shall not be construed as requiring the destruction of other criminal offender or juvenile records relating to the case which are maintained by the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, the juvenile court, or other agencies and public officials unless ordered by a court under Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) The registration shall consist of (1) a statement in writing signed by the person, giving information as may be required by the Department of Justice, and (2) the fingerprints and photograph of the person. Within three days thereafter, the registering law enforcement agency or agencies shall forward the statement, fingerprints, and photograph to the Department of Justice.

(f) If any person who is required to register pursuant to this section changes his or her residence address, the person shall inform, in writing within 10 days, the law enforcement agency or agencies with whom he or she last registered of the new address. The law enforcement agency or agencies shall, within three days after receipt of this information, forward it to the Department of Justice. The Department of Justice shall forward appropriate registration data to the law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction of the new place of residence.

(g) (1) Any person who is required to register under this section who violates any of its provisions is guilty of a misdemeanor. Any person who has been convicted of assault with intent to commit rape, oral copulation, or sodomy under Section 220, any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220, any violation of Section 261, any offense defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to state prison, or any violation of Section 264.1, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289, and who is required to register under this section who willfully violates any of the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail for not less than 90 days nor more than one year. In no event does the court have the power to absolve a person who willfully violates this section from the obligation of spending at least 90 days of confinement in a county jail and of completing probation of at least one year.

(2) Any person who has two prior convictions for the offense of failing to register under this section and who subsequently and willfully commits that offense is, upon each subsequent conviction, guilty of a public offense and shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail for not exceeding one year or by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years.

The existence of any fact which would bring a person under this paragraph shall be alleged in the information or indictment and either admitted by the defendant in open court or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury.

(h) Whenever any person is released on parole or probation and is required to register under this section but fails to do so within the time prescribed, the parole authority, the Youthful Offender Parole Board, or the court, as the case may be, shall order the parole or probation of the person revoked. For purposes of this subdivision, "parole authority" has the same meaning as described in Section 3000.

(j) In any case in which a person who would be required to register pursuant to this section for a felony conviction is to be temporarily sent outside the institution where he or she is confined on any assignment within a city or county including firefighting, disaster control, or of whatever nature the assignment may be, the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the place or places where the assignment shall occur shall be notified within a reasonable time prior to removal from the institution. This provision shall not apply to any person who is temporarily released under guard from the institution where he or she is confined.

(k) As used in this section, "mentally disordered sex offender" includes any person who has been determined to be a sexual psychopath or a mentally disordered sex offender under any provision which, on or before January 1, 1976, was contained in Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(l) Every person who, prior to January 1, 1985, is required to register under this section, shall be notified whenever he or she next reregisters of the reduction of the registration period from 30 to 14 days. This notice shall be provided in writing by the registering agency or agencies. Failure to receive this notification shall be a defense against the penalties prescribed by subdivision (g) if the person did register within 30 days.

SEC. 2.3. Section 290 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290. (a) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or is hereafter convicted in any court in this state or in any federal or military court of assault with intent to commit a violation of subdivision (b) of Section 207, subdivision (b) or (c) of Section 243.4, or subdivision (a), (b), or (c) of Section 311.4, rape, sodomy, oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220, or of any offense defined in paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, or of any offense defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to the state prison, or of any offense defined in Section 264.1, 266, 267, 285, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, 289, or 647.6 or former Section 647a, subdivision (d) of Section 647, or subdivision 1 or 2 of Section 314, or of any offense involving lewd and lascivious conduct under Section 272, or of any felony violation of Section 288.2; or any person who since that date has been or is hereafter convicted of the attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses; or any person who since that date or at any time hereafter is released, discharged, or paroled from a penal institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the above-mentioned offenses; or any person who since that date or at any time hereafter is determined to be a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code; or any person who since that date has been or is hereafter convicted in any other state, or in any federal or military court, of any offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the above-mentioned offenses, shall, within 30 days after the effective date of this section or within 14 days of coming into any county, city, or city and county in which he or she temporarily resides or is domiciled for that length of time, register with the chief of police of the city in which he or she is domiciled, or the sheriff of the county if he or she is domiciled in an unincorporated area, and, additionally, with the chief of police of a campus of the University of California or the California State University if he or she is domiciled upon the campus or in any of its facilities.

(b) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is released, discharged, or paroled from a jail, state or federal prison, school, road camp, or other institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) or is released from a state hospital to which he or she was committed as a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall, prior to discharge, parole, or release, be informed of his or her duty to register under this section by the official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital, and the official shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to the person. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release and shall report the address to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall give one copy of the form to the person and shall send one copy to the Department of Justice and one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having jurisdiction over the place the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release. If the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, the official in charge shall, not later than 45 days prior to the scheduled release of the person, send one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release; one copy to the prosecuting agency which prosecuted the person; and one copy to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement shall retain one copy. All forms shall, if the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, be transmitted within those times as to be received by the local law enforcement agency or agencies and prosecuting agency 30 days prior to the discharge, parole, or release of the person.

(c) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is convicted in this state of the commission or attempted commission of any of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) and who is released on probation or discharged upon payment of a fine shall, prior to release or discharge, be informed of the duty to register under this section by the court in which the person has been convicted, and the court shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to him or her. The court shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon release or discharge and shall report within three days the address to the Department of Justice. The court shall give one copy of the form to the person, send one copy to the Department of Justice, and forward one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release.

(2) Any person who, on or after January 1, 1995, is discharged or paroled from a facility in another state that is equivalent to the Department of the Youth Authority, to the custody of which he or she was committed because of an offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses described in paragraphs (3) and (4), shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(3) The following offenses shall apply for the purpose of this subdivision:

(A) Assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220.

(B) Any offense defined in Section 288 or 288.5, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 286, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 288a, paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, or subdivision (a) of Section 289.

(C) Any offense under Section 264.1 involving rape in concert with force or fear of bodily injury or penetration by any foreign object in concert with force or fear of bodily injury.

(4) Any person who is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the offense set forth in Section 647.6, occurring on or after January 1, 1988, shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(6) All records specifically relating to the registration in the custody of the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, and other agencies or public officials shall be destroyed when the person who is required to register has his or her records sealed under the procedures set forth in Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. This subdivision shall not be construed as requiring the destruction of other criminal offender or juvenile records relating to the case which are maintained by the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, the juvenile court, or other agencies and public officials unless ordered by a court under Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) The registration shall consist of (1) a statement in writing signed by the person, giving information as may be required by the Department of Justice, and (2) the fingerprints and photograph of the person. Within three days thereafter, the registering law enforcement agency or agencies shall forward the statement, fingerprints, and photograph to the Department of Justice.

(f) If any person who is required to register pursuant to this section changes his or her residence address, the person shall inform, in writing within 10 days, the law enforcement agency or agencies with whom he or she last registered of the new address. The law enforcement agency or agencies shall, within three days after receipt of this information, forward it to the Department of Justice. The Department of Justice shall forward appropriate registration data to the law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction of the new place of residence.

(g) (1) Any person who is required to register under this section who violates any of its provisions is guilty of a misdemeanor. Any person who has been convicted of assault with intent to commit rape, oral copulation, or sodomy under Section 220, any violation of Section 264.1 or 289 under Section 220, any violation of Section 261, any offense defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to state prison, or any violation of Section 264.1, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289, and who is required to register under this section who willfully violates any of the provisions of this section shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years, or in a county jail for not less than 90 days nor more than one year. In no event does the court have the power to absolve a person who willfully violates this section from the obligation of spending at least 90 days of confinement in a county jail and of completing probation of at least one year.

(2) Any person who has been convicted of any violation of Section 288 and who willfully violates this section is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years. Any person who has a prior conviction of failing to register under this section and who subsequently and willfully commits that offense is, upon each subsequent conviction, guilty of a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years. If, after discharge from parole, the person is convicted of a felony as specified in this paragraph, he or she shall be required to complete parole of at least one year, in addition to any other punishment imposed under this paragraph. A person convicted of a felony as specified in this paragraph may be granted probation only in the unusual case where the interests of justice would best be served. When probation is granted under this paragraph, the court shall specify on the record and shall enter in the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interests of justice would best be served by the disposition.

The existence of any fact which would bring a person under this paragraph shall be alleged in the information or indictment and either admitted by the defendant in open court or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury.

(h) Whenever any person is released on parole or probation and is required to register under this section but fails to do so within the time prescribed, the parole authority, the Youthful Offender Parole Board, or the court, as the case may be, shall order the parole or probation of the person revoked. For purposes of this subdivision, "parole authority" has the same meaning as described in Section 3000.

(j) In any case in which a person who would be required to register pursuant to this section for a felony conviction is to be temporarily sent outside the institution where he or she is confined on any assignment within a city or county including firefighting, disaster control, or of whatever nature the assignment may be, the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the place or places where the assignment shall occur shall be notified within a reasonable time prior to removal from the institution. This provision shall not apply to any person who is temporarily released under guard from the institution where he or she is confined.

(l) Every person who, prior to January 1, 1985, is required to register under this section, shall be notified whenever he or she next reregisters of the reduction of the registration period from 30 to 14 days. This notice shall be provided in writing by the registering agency or agencies. Failure to receive this notification shall be a defense against the penalties prescribed by subdivision (g) if the person did register within 30 days.

SEC. 2.4. Section 290 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290. (a) (1) Every person described in paragraph (2), for the rest of his or her life while residing in California, shall be required to register with the chief of police of the city in which he or she is domiciled, or the sheriff of the county if he or she is domiciled in an unincorporated area, and, additionally, with the chief of police of a campus of the University of California or the California State University if he or she is domiciled upon the campus or in any of its facilities, within 14 days of coming into any county, city, or city and county in which he or she temporarily resides or is domiciled for that length of time. The person shall be required annually thereafter, within 10 days of his or her birthday, to update his or her registration with the entities described in this paragraph, including, verifying his or her address on a form as may be required by the Department of Justice.

(2) The following persons shall be required to register pursuant to paragraph (1):

(A) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or is hereafter convicted in this state of a violation of subdivision (b) of Section 207, Section 220, except assault to commit mayhem, or 243.4, paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 261 or paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to the state prison, Section 264.1, 266, 266c, 266j, 267, 285, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289, subdivision (b), (c), or (d) of Section 311.2, Section 311.3, 311.4, 311.10, 311.11, or 647.6 or former Section 647a, subdivision (d) of Section 647, or subdivision 1 or 2 of Section 314, or of any offense involving lewd and lascivious conduct under Section 272, or any felony violation of Section 288.2; or any person who since that date has been or is hereafter convicted of the attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses.

(B) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is released, discharged, or paroled from a penal institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempt to commit one of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(C) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is determined to be a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(D) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been, or is hereafter convicted in any other court of any offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(b) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is released, discharged, or paroled from a jail, prison, school, road camp, or other institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempt to commit one of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) or is released from a state hospital to which he or she was committed as a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall, prior to discharge, parole, or release, be informed of his or her duty to register under this section by the official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital and the official shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to the person. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release and shall report the address to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall give one copy of the form to the person, and shall send one copy to the Department of Justice and one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having jurisdiction over the place the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release. If the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, the official in charge shall, not later than 45 days prior to the scheduled release of the person, send one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release; one copy to the prosecuting agency which prosecuted the person; and one copy to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement shall retain one copy. All forms shall, if the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, be transmitted within those times as to be received by the local law enforcement agency or agencies, and prosecuting agency 30 days prior to the discharge, parole, or release of the person.

(c) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is convicted in this state of the commission or attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses and who is released on probation or discharged upon payment of a fine shall, prior to release or discharge, be informed of the duty to register under this section by the court in which the person has been convicted and the court shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to him or her. The court shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon release or discharge and shall report within three days the address to the Department of Justice. The court shall give one copy of the form to the person, send one copy to the Department of Justice, and forward one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release.

(d) (1) Any person who, on or after January 1, 1986, is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the offenses described in paragraph (3) shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(2) Any person who, on or after January 1, 1995, is discharged or paroled from a facility in another state that is equivalent to the Department of the Youth Authority, to the custody of which he or she was committed because of an offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable by one or more the offenses described in paragraphs (3) and (4), shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(3) The following offenses shall apply for the purpose of this subdivision:

(A) Assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220.

(B) Any offense defined in Section 288 or 288.5, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 286, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 288a, paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, or subdivision (a) of Section 289.

(C) Any offense under Section 264.1 involving rape in concert with force or fear of bodily injury or penetration by any foreign object in concert with force or fear of bodily injury.

(4) Any person who is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the offense set forth in Section 647.6, occurring on or after January 1, 1988, shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(5) Prior to discharge or parole from the Department of the Youth Authority, all persons subject to registration shall be informed of the duty to register under the procedures set forth in this section. Department of the Youth Authority officials shall transmit the required forms and information to the Department of Justice.

(6) The duty to register under this section for offenses adjudicated by a juvenile court shall terminate when a person reaches the age of 25 years.

(7) All records specifically relating to the registration in the custody of the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, and other agencies or public officials shall be destroyed when the person required to register attains the age of 25 years or has his or her records sealed under the procedures set forth in Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, whichever event occurs first. This subdivision shall not be construed as requiring the destruction of other criminal offender or juvenile records relating to the case which are maintained by the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, the juvenile court, or other agencies and public officials unless ordered by a court under Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) (1) The registration shall consist of the following:

(A) A statement in writing signed by the person, giving information as may be required by the Department of Justice.

(B) The fingerprints and photograph of the person.

(C) The license plate number of any vehicle owned by or registered in the name of the person.

(2) Within three days thereafter, the registering law enforcement agency or agencies shall forward the statement, fingerprints, photograph, and vehicle license plate number, if any, to the Department of Justice.

(f) If any person required to register pursuant to this section changes his or her residence address, the person shall inform, in writing within 10 days, the law enforcement agency or agencies with whom he or she last registered of the new address. The law enforcement agency or agencies shall, within three days after receipt of this information, forward it to the Department of Justice. The Department of Justice shall forward appropriate registration data to the law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction of the new place of residence.

(g) (1) Any person required to register under this section based on a misdemeanor conviction who willfully violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year.

(2) Any person required to register under this section based on a felony conviction who willfully violates this section is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months or two or three years.

If the person has been sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the state prison, the penalty described in this paragraph shall apply whether or not the person has been released on parole or has been discharged from parole.

(h) Whenever any person is released on parole or probation and is required to register under this section but fails to do so within the time prescribed, the parole authority, the Youthful Offender Parole Board, or the court, as the case may be, shall order the parole or probation of the person revoked. For purposes of this subdivision, "parole authority" has the same meaning as described in Section 3000.

(i) Except as provided in Section 290.4, the statements, photographs, and fingerprints required by this section shall not be open to inspection by the public or by any person other than a regularly employed peace or other law enforcement officer.

(j) In any case in which a person who would be required to register pursuant to this section for a felony conviction is to be temporarily sent outside the institution where he or she is confined on any assignment within a city or county including firefighting, disaster control, or of whatever nature the assignment may be, the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the place or places where the assignment shall occur shall be notified within a reasonable time prior to removal from the institution. This provision shall not apply to any person temporarily released under guard from the institution where he or she is confined.

(k) As used in this section, "mentally disordered sex offender" includes any person who has been determined to be a sexual psychopath or a mentally disordered sex offender under any provision which, on or before January 1, 1976, was contained in Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(l) Every person who, prior to January 1, 1985, is required to register under this section, shall be notified whenever he or she next reregisters of the reduction of the registration period from 30 to 14 days. This notice shall be provided in writing by the registering agency or agencies. Failure to receive this notification shall be a defense against the penalties prescribed by subdivision (g) if the person did register within 30 days.

SEC. 2.5. Section 290 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290. (a) (1) Every person described in paragraph (2), for the rest of his or her life while residing in California, shall be required to register with the chief of police of the city in which he or she is domiciled, or the sheriff of the county if he or she is domiciled in an unincorporated area, and, additionally, with the chief of police of a campus of the University of California or the California State University if he or she is domiciled upon the campus or in any of its facilities, within 14 days of coming into any county, city, or city and county in which he or she temporarily resides or is domiciled for that length of time. The person shall be required annually thereafter, within 10 days of his or her birthday, to update his or her registration with the entities described in this paragraph, including, verifying his or her address on a form as may be required by the Department of Justice.

(2) The following persons shall be required to register pursuant to paragraph (1):

(A) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or is hereafter convicted in any court in this state or in any federal or military court of a violation of subdivision (b) of Section 207, Section 220, except assault to commit mayhem, or 243.4, paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 261 or paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to the state prison, Section 264.1, 266, 266c, 266j, 267, 285, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289, subdivision (b), (c), or (d) of Section 311.2, Section 311.3, 311.4, 311.10, 311.11, or 647.6 or former Section 647a, subdivision (d) of Section 647, or subdivision 1 or 2 of Section 314, or of any offense involving lewd and lascivious conduct under Section 272, or any felony violation of Section 288.2; or any person who since that date has been or is hereafter convicted of the attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses.

(B) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is released, discharged, or paroled from a penal institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempt to commit one of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(C) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is determined to be a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division

6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(D) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been, or is hereafter convicted in any other court, including any federal or military court, of any offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(E) Any person ordered by any court to register pursuant to this section for any offense not included specifically in this section if the court finds at the time of conviction that the person committed the offense as a result of sexual compulsion or for purposes of sexual gratification. The court shall state on the record the reasons for its findings and the reasons for requiring registration.

(b) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is released, discharged, or paroled from a jail, state or federal prison, school, road camp, or other institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempt to commit one of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) or is released from a state hospital to which he or she was committed as a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall, prior to discharge, parole, or release, be informed of his or her duty to register under this section by the official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital and the official shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to the person. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release and shall report the address to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall give one copy of the form to the person, and shall send one copy to the Department of Justice and one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having jurisdiction over the place the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release. If the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, the official in charge shall, not later than 45 days prior to the scheduled release of the person, send one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release; one copy to the prosecuting agency which prosecuted the person; and one copy to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement shall retain one copy. All forms shall, if the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, be transmitted within those times as to be received by the local law enforcement agency or agencies, and prosecuting agency 30 days prior to the discharge, parole, or release of the person.

(c) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is convicted in this state of the commission or attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses and who is released on probation or discharged upon payment of a fine shall, prior to release or discharge, be informed of the duty to register under this section by the court in which the person has been convicted and the court shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to him or her. The court shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon release or discharge and shall report within three days the address to the Department of Justice. The court shall give one copy of the form to the person, send one copy to the Department of Justice, and forward one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release.

(d) (1) Any person who, on or after January 1, 1986, is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the offenses described in paragraph (3) shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(2) Any person who, on or after January 1, 1995, is discharged or paroled from a facility in another state that is equivalent to the Department of the Youth Authority, to the custody of which he or she was committed because of an offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable by one or more the offenses described in paragraphs (3) and (4), shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(3) The following offenses shall apply for the purpose of this subdivision:

(A) Assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220.

(B) Any offense defined in Section 288 or 288.5, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 286, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 288a, paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, or subdivision (a) of Section 289.

(C) Any offense under Section 264.1 involving rape in concert with force or fear of bodily injury or penetration by any foreign object in concert with force or fear of bodily injury.

(4) Any person who is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the offense set forth in Section 647.6, occurring on or after January 1, 1988, shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(5) Prior to discharge or parole from the Department of the Youth Authority, all persons subject to registration shall be informed of the duty to register under the procedures set forth in this section.

Department of the Youth Authority officials shall transmit the required forms and information to the Department of Justice.

(6) The duty to register under this section for offenses adjudicated by a juvenile court shall terminate when a person reaches the age of 25 years.

(7) All records specifically relating to the registration in the custody of the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, and other agencies or public officials shall be destroyed when the person required to register attains the age of 25 years or has his or her records sealed under the procedures set forth in Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, whichever event occurs first. This subdivision shall not be construed as requiring the destruction of other criminal offender or juvenile records relating to the case which are maintained by the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, the juvenile court, or other agencies and public officials unless ordered by a court under Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) (1) The registration shall consist of the following:

(A) A statement in writing signed by the person, giving information as may be required by the Department of Justice.

(B) The fingerprints and photograph of the person.

(C) The license plate number of any vehicle owned by or registered in the name of the person.

(2) Within three days thereafter, the registering law enforcement agency or agencies shall forward the statement, fingerprints, photograph, and vehicle license plate number, if any, to the Department of Justice.

(f) If any person required to register pursuant to this section changes his or her residence address, the person shall inform, in writing within 10 days, the law enforcement agency or agencies with whom he or she last registered of the new address. The law enforcement agency or agencies shall, within three days after receipt of this information, forward it to the Department of Justice. The Department of Justice shall forward appropriate registration data to the law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction of the new place of residence.

(g) (1) Any person required to register under this section based on a misdemeanor conviction who willfully violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), any person who has been convicted of assault with intent to commit rape, oral copulation, or sodomy under Section 220, any violation of Section 264.1 or 289 under Section 220, any violation of Section 261, any offense defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to state prison, or any violation of Section 264.1, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289, and who is required to register under this section who willfully violates this section is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years.

(3) Any person required to register under this section based on a felony conviction who willfully violates this section or who has a prior conviction for the offense of failing to register under this section and who subsequently and willfully commits that offense is, upon each subsequent conviction, guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months or two or three years.

A person punished pursuant to this paragraph or paragraph (2) shall be sentenced to serve a term of not less than 90 days nor more than one year in a county jail. In no event does the court have the power to absolve a person who willfully violates this section from the obligation of spending at least 90 days of confinement in a county jail and of completing probation of at least one year.

If the person has been sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the state prison, the penalty described in this paragraph shall apply whether or not the person has been released on parole or has been discharged from parole.

(4) If, after discharge from parole, the person is convicted of a felony as specified in this subdivision, he or she shall be required to complete parole of at least one year, in addition to any other punishment imposed under this subdivision. A person convicted of a felony as specified in this subdivision may be granted probation only in the unusual case where the interests of justice would best be served. When probation is granted under this paragraph, the court shall specify on the record and shall enter into the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interests of justice would best be served by the disposition.

(h) Whenever any person is released on parole or probation and is required to register under this section but fails to do so within the time prescribed, the parole authority, the Youthful Offender Parole Board, or the court, as the case may be, shall order the parole or probation of the person revoked. For purposes of this subdivision, "parole authority" has the same meaning as described in Section 3000.

(j) In any case in which a person who would be required to register pursuant to this section for a felony conviction is to be temporarily sent outside the institution where he or she is confined on any assignment within a city or county including firefighting, disaster control, or of whatever nature the assignment may be, the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the place or places where the assignment shall occur shall be notified within a reasonable time prior to removal from the institution. This provision shall not apply to any person temporarily released under guard from the institution where he or she is confined.

(k) As used in this section, "mentally disordered sex offender"

includes any person who has been determined to be a sexual psychopath or a mentally disordered sex offender under any provision which, on or before January 1, 1976, was contained in Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(l) Every person who, prior to January 1, 1985, is required to register under this section, shall be notified whenever he or she next reregisters of the reduction of the registration period from 30 to 14 days. This notice shall be provided in writing by the registering agency or agencies. Failure to receive this notification shall be a defense against the penalties prescribed by subdivision (g) if the person did register within 30 days.

SEC. 2.6. Section 290 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290. (a) (1) Every person described in paragraph (2), for the rest of his or her life while residing in California, shall be required to register with the chief of police of the city in which he or she is domiciled, or the sheriff of the county if he or she is domiciled in an unincorporated area, and, additionally, with the chief of police of a campus of the University of California or the California State University if he or she is domiciled upon the campus or in any of its facilities, within 14 days of coming into any county, city, or city and county in which he or she temporarily resides or is domiciled for that length of time. The person shall be required annually thereafter, within 10 days of his or her birthday, to update his or her registration with the entities described in this paragraph, including, verifying his or her address on a form as may be required by the Department of Justice.

(2) The following persons shall be required to register pursuant to paragraph (1):

(A) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or is hereafter convicted in this state of a violation of subdivision (b) of Section 207, Section 220, except assault to commit mayhem, or 243.4, paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 261 or paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to the state prison, Section 264.1, 266, 266c, 266j, 267, 285, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289, subdivision (b), (c), or (d) of Section 311.2, Section 311.3, 311.4, 311.10, 311.11, or 647.6 or former Section 647a, subdivision (d) of Section 647, or subdivision 1 or 2 of Section 314, or of any offense involving lewd and lascivious conduct under Section 272, or of any felony violation of Section 288.2; or any person who since that date has been or is hereafter convicted of the attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses.

(B) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is released, discharged, or paroled from a penal institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(C) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is determined to be a mentally disordered sex offender under Article

1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(D) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been, or is hereafter convicted in any other court of any offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(E) Any person ordered by any court to register pursuant to this section for any offense not included specifically in this section if the court finds at the time of conviction that the person committed the offense as a result of sexual compulsion or for purposes of sexual gratification. The court shall state on the record the reasons for its findings and the reasons for requiring registration.

(b) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is released, discharged, or paroled from a jail, prison, school, road camp, or other institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) or is released from a state hospital to which he or she was committed as a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall, prior to discharge, parole, or release, be informed of his or her duty to register under this section by the official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital, and the official shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to the person. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release and shall report the address to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall give one copy of the form to the person and shall send one copy to the Department of Justice and one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having jurisdiction over the place the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release. If the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, the official in charge shall, not later than 45 days prior to the scheduled release of the person, send one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release; one copy to the prosecuting agency which prosecuted the person; and one copy to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement shall retain one copy. All forms shall, if the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, be transmitted within those times as to be received by the local law enforcement agency or agencies and prosecuting agency 30 days prior to the discharge, parole, or release of the person.

(c) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is convicted in this state of the commission or attempted commission of any of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) and who is released on probation or discharged upon payment of a fine shall, prior to release or discharge, be informed of the duty to register under this section by the court in which the person has been convicted, and the court shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to him or her. The court shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon release or discharge and shall report within three days the address to the Department of Justice. The court shall give one copy of the form to the person, send one copy to the Department of Justice, and forward one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release.

(d) (1) Any person who, on or after January 1, 1986, is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the offenses described in paragraph (3) shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(2) Any person who, on or after January 1, 1995, is discharged or paroled from a facility in another state that is equivalent to the Department of the Youth Authority, to the custody of which he or she was committed because of an offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable by one or more of the offenses described in paragraphs (3) and (4), shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(3) The following offenses shall apply for the purpose of this subdivision:

(A) Assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220.

(B) Any offense defined in Section 288 or 288.5, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 286, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 288a, paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, or subdivision (a) of Section 289.

(C) Any offense under Section 264.1 involving rape in concert with force or fear of bodily injury or penetration by any foreign object in concert with force or fear of bodily injury.

(4) Any person who is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the offense set forth in Section 647.6, occurring on or after January 1, 1988, shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(5) Prior to discharge or parole from the Department of the Youth Authority, any person who is subject to registration shall be informed of the duty to register under the procedures set forth in this section.

Department of the Youth Authority officials shall transmit the required forms and information to the Department of Justice.

(6) All records specifically relating to the registration in the custody of the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, and other agencies or public officials shall be destroyed when the person who is required to register has his or her records sealed under the procedures set forth in Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. This subdivision shall not be construed as requiring the destruction of other criminal offender or juvenile records relating to the case which are maintained by the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, the juvenile court, or other agencies and public officials unless ordered by a court under Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) (1) The registration shall consist of the following:

(A) A statement in writing signed by the person, giving information as may be required by the Department of Justice.

(B) The fingerprints and photograph of the person.

(C) The license plate number of any vehicle owned by or registered in the name of the person.

(2) Within three days thereafter, the registering law enforcement agency or agencies shall forward the statement, fingerprints, photograph, and vehicle license plate number, if any, to the Department of Justice.

(f) If any person who is required to register pursuant to this section changes his or her residence address, the person shall inform, in writing within 10 days, the law enforcement agency or agencies with whom he or she last registered of the new address. The law enforcement agency or agencies shall, within three days after receipt of this information, forward it to the Department of Justice. The Department of Justice shall forward appropriate registration data to the law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction of the new place of residence.

(g) (1) Any person who is required to register under this section based on a misdemeanor conviction who willfully violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year.

(2) Any person required to register under this section based on a felony conviction who willfully violates this section is guilty of a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months or two or three years.

If the person has been sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the state prison, the penalty described in this paragraph shall apply whether or not the person has been released on parole or has been discharged from parole.

(h) Whenever any person is released on parole or probation and is required to register under this section but fails to do so within the time prescribed, the parole authority, the Youthful Offender Parole Board, or the court, as the case may be, shall order the parole or probation of the person revoked. For purposes of this subdivision,

"parole authority" has the same meaning as described in Section 3000.

(j) In any case in which a person who would be required to register pursuant to this section for a felony conviction is to be temporarily sent outside the institution where he or she is confined on any assignment within a city or county including firefighting, disaster control, or of whatever nature the assignment may be, the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the place or places where the assignment shall occur shall be notified within a reasonable time prior to removal from the institution. This provision shall not apply to any person who is temporarily released under guard from the institution where he or she is confined.

(l) Every person who, prior to January 1, 1985, is required to register under this section, shall be notified whenever he or she next reregisters of the reduction of the registration period from 30 to 14 days. This notice shall be provided in writing by the registering agency or agencies. Failure to receive this notification shall be a defense against the penalties prescribed by subdivision (g) if the person did register within 30 days.

SEC. 2.7. Section 290 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290. (a) (1) Every person described in paragraph (2), for the rest of his or her life while residing in California, shall be required to register with the chief of police of the city in which he or she is domiciled, or the sheriff of the county if he or she is domiciled in an unincorporated area, and, additionally, with the chief of police of a campus of the University of California or the California State University if he or she is domiciled upon the campus or in any of its facilities, within 14 days of coming into any county, city, or city and county in which he or she temporarily resides or is domiciled for that length of time. The person shall be required annually thereafter, within 10 days of his or her birthday, to update his or her registration with the entities described in this paragraph, including, verifying his or her address on a form as may be required by the Department of Justice.

(2) The following persons shall be required to register pursuant to paragraph (1):

(A) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or is hereafter convicted in any court in this state or in any federal or military court of a violation of subdivision (b) of Section 207, Section 220, except assault to commit mayhem, or 243.4, paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 261 or paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to the state prison, Section 264.1, 266, 266c, 266j, 267, 285, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289, subdivision (b), (c), or (d) of Section 311.2, Section 311.3, 311.4, 311.10, 311.11, or 647.6 or former Section 647a, subdivision (d) of Section 647, or subdivision 1 or 2 of Section 314, or of any offense involving lewd and lascivious conduct under Section 272, or of any felony violation of Section 288.2; or any person who since that date has been or is hereafter convicted of the attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses.

(B) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is released, discharged, or paroled from a penal institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(C) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or hereafter is determined to be a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(D) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been, or is hereafter convicted in any other court, including any federal or military court, of any offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses described in subparagraph (A).

(b) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is released, discharged, or paroled from a jail, state or federal prison, school, road camp, or other institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempted commission of one of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) or is released from a state hospital to which he or she was committed as a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall, prior to discharge, parole, or release, be informed of his or her duty to register under this section by the official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital, and the official shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to the person. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release and shall report the address to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall give one copy of the form to the person and shall send one copy to the Department of Justice and one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having jurisdiction over the place the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release. If the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, the official in charge shall, not later than 45 days prior to the scheduled release of the person, send one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release; one copy to the prosecuting agency which prosecuted the person; and one copy to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement shall retain one copy. All forms shall, if the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, be transmitted within those times as to be received by the local law enforcement agency or agencies and prosecuting agency 30 days prior to the discharge, parole, or release of the person.

(c) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is convicted in this state of the commission or attempted commission of any of the offenses specified in subdivision (a) and who is released on probation or discharged upon payment of a fine shall, prior to release or discharge, be informed of the duty to register under this section by the court in which the person has been convicted, and the court shall require the person to read and sign any form that may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to him or her. The court shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon release or discharge and shall report within three days the address to the Department of Justice. The court shall give one copy of the form to the person, send one copy to the Department of Justice, and forward one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release.

(2) Any person who, on or after January 1, 1995, is discharged or paroled from a facility in another state that is equivalent to the Department of the Youth Authority, to the custody of which he or she was committed because of an offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable by one or more the offenses described in paragraphs (3) and (4), shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(3) The following offenses shall apply for the purpose of this subdivision:

(A) Assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220.

(B) Any offense defined in Section 288 or 288.5, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 286, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 288a, paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, or subdivision (a) of Section 289.

(C) Any offense under Section 264.1 involving rape in concert with force or fear of bodily injury or penetration by any foreign object in concert with force or fear of bodily injury.

(4) Any person who is discharged or paroled from the Department of the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the offense set forth in Section 647.6, occurring on or after January 1, 1988, shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section.

(6) All records specifically relating to the registration in the custody of the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, and other agencies or public officials shall be destroyed when the person who is required to register or has his or her records sealed under the procedures set forth in Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. This subdivision shall not be construed as requiring the destruction of other criminal offender or juvenile records relating to the case which are maintained by the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, the juvenile court, or other agencies and public officials unless ordered by a court under Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) (1) The registration shall consist of the following:

(A) A statement in writing signed by the person, giving information as may be required by the Department of Justice.

(B) The fingerprints and photograph of the person.

(C) The license plate number of any vehicle owned by or registered in the name of the person.

(2) Within three days thereafter, the registering law enforcement agency or agencies shall forward the statement, fingerprints, photograph, and vehicle license plate number, if any, to the Department of Justice.

(f) If any person who is required to register pursuant to this section changes his or her residence address, the person shall inform, in writing within 10 days, the law enforcement agency or agencies with whom he or she last registered of the new address. The law enforcement agency or agencies shall, within three days after receipt of this information, forward it to the Department of Justice. The Department of Justice shall forward appropriate registration data to the law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction of the new place of residence.

(g) (1) Any person who is required to register under this section based on a misdemeanor conviction who willfully violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), any person who has been convicted of assault with intent to commit rape, oral copulation, or sodomy under Section 220, any violation of Section 264.1 or 289 under Section 220, any violation of Section 261, any offense defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 involving the use of force or violence for which the person is sentenced to state prison, or any violation of Section 264.1, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289, and who is required to register under this section who willfully violates this section is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years.

(3) Any person required to register under this section based on a felony conviction who willfully violates this section or who has a prior conviction for the offense of failing to register under this section and who subsequently and willfully commits that offense is, upon each subsequent conviction, guilty of a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months or two or three years.

A person punished pursuant to this paragraph or paragraph (2) shall be sentenced to serve a term of not less than 90 days nor more than one year in a county jail. In no event does the court have the power to absolve a person who willfully violates this section from the obligation of spending at least 90 days of confinement in a county jail and of completing probation of at least one year.

If the person has been sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the state prison, the penalty described in this paragraph shall apply whether or not the person has been released on parole or has been discharged from parole.

(4) If, after discharge from parole, the person is convicted of a felony as specified in this subdivision, he or she shall be required to complete parole of at least one year, in addition to any other punishment imposed under this subdivision. A person convicted of a felony as specified in this subdivision may be granted probation only in the unusual case where the interests of justice would best be served. When probation is granted under this paragraph, the court shall specify on the record and shall enter into the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interests of justice would best be served by the disposition.

(h) Whenever any person is released on parole or probation and is required to register under this section but fails to do so within the time prescribed, the parole authority, the Youthful Offender Parole Board, or the court, as the case may be, shall order the parole or probation of the person revoked. For purposes of this subdivision, "parole authority" has the same meaning as described in Section 3000.

(i) Except as provided in Section 290.4, the statements, photographs, and fingerprints required by this section shall not be open to inspection by the public or by any person other than a regularly employed peace officer or other law enforcement officer.

(j) In any case in which a person who would be required to register pursuant to this section for a felony conviction is to be temporarily sent outside the institution where he or she is confined on any assignment within a city or county including firefighting, disaster control, or of whatever nature the assignment may be, the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the place or places where the assignment shall occur shall be notified within a reasonable time prior to removal from the institution. This provision shall not apply to any person who is temporarily released under guard from the institution where he or she is confined.

(l) Every person who, prior to January 1, 1985, is required to register under this section, shall be notified whenever he or she next reregisters of the reduction of the registration period from 30 to 14 days. This notice shall be provided in writing by the registering agency or agencies. Failure to receive this notification shall be a defense against the penalties prescribed by subdivision (g) if the person did register within 30 days.

SEC. 3. Section 290.3 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290.3. (a) Every person convicted of a violation of any offense listed in subdivision (a) of Section 290, in addition to any imprisonment or fine, or both, imposed for violation of the underlying offense, shall be punished by a fine of one hundred dollars ($100) upon the first conviction or a fine of two hundred dollars ($200) upon the second and each subsequent conviction, unless the court determines that the defendant does not have the ability to pay the fine.

(b) Out of the moneys deposited with the county treasurer pursuant to this section, there shall be transferred, once a month, to the Controller for deposit in the General Fund, an amount equal to all fines collected during the preceding month upon conviction of, or upon the forfeiture of bail by, any person arrested for, or convicted of, committing an offense listed in Section 290. Moneys deposited in the General Fund pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Department of Justice Sexual Habitual Offender Fund created pursuant to paragraph (5) of subdivision (b) of Section 11170 and, when appropriated by the Legislature, shall be used for the purposes of Chapter 9.5 (commencing with Section 13885) and Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 13890) of Title 6 of Part 4 for the purpose of monitoring, apprehending, and prosecuting sexual habitual offenders.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), the Department of Corrections or the Department of the Youth Authority may collect a fine imposed pursuant to this section from a person convicted of a violation of any offense listed in subdivision (a) of Section 290, that results in incarceration in a facility under the jurisdiction of the Department of Corrections or the Department of the Youth Authority. All moneys collected by the Department of Corrections or the Department of the Youth Authority under this subdivision shall be transferred, once a month, to the Controller for deposit in the General Fund, as provided in subdivision (b), for deposit in the Department of Justice Sexual Habitual Offender Fund.

SEC. 3.5. Section 290.3 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

290.3. (a) Every person who is convicted of any offense specified in subdivision (a) of Section 290 shall, in addition to any imprisonment or fine, or both, imposed for violation of the underlying offense, be punished by a fine of two hundred dollars ($200) upon the first conviction or a fine of three hundred dollars ($300) upon the second and each subsequent conviction, unless the court determines that the defendant does not have the ability to pay the fine.

An amount equal to all fines collected pursuant to this subdivision during the preceding month upon conviction of, or upon the forfeiture of bail by, any person arrested for, or convicted of, committing an offense specified in subdivision (a) of Section 290, shall be transferred once a month by the county treasurer to the Controller for deposit in the General Fund. Moneys deposited in the General Fund pursuant to this subdivision shall be transferred by the Controller as provided in subdivision (b).

(b) Out of the moneys deposited pursuant to subdivision (a) as a result of second and subsequent convictions of Section 290, one-third shall first be transferred to the Sexual Habitual Offender Fund, as provided in paragraph (1) of this subdivision. Out of the remainder of all moneys deposited pursuant to subdivision (a), 50 percent shall be transferred to the Sexual Habitual Offender Fund, as provided in paragraph (1), 25 percent shall be transferred to the DNA Testing Fund, as provided in paragraph (2), and 25 percent shall be allocated equally to counties that maintain a local DNA testing laboratory, as provided in paragraph (3).

(1) Those moneys so designated shall be transferred to the Department of Justice Sexual Habitual Offender Fund created pursuant to paragraph (5) of subdivision (b) of Section 11170 and, when appropriated by the Legislature, shall be used for the purposes of Chapter 9.5 (commencing with Section 13885) and Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 13890) of Title 6 of Part 4 for the purpose of monitoring, apprehending, and prosecuting sexual habitual offenders.

(2) Those moneys so designated shall be directed to the Department of Justice and transferred to the Department of Justice DNA Testing Fund, which is hereby created, for the exclusive purpose of testing deoxyribonucleic acid (DNA) samples for law enforcement purposes. The moneys in that fund shall be available for expenditure upon appropriation by the Legislature.

(3) Those moneys so designated shall be allocated equally and distributed quarterly to counties that maintain a local DNA testing laboratory. Before making any allocations under this paragraph, the Controller shall deduct the estimated costs that will be incurred to set up and administer the payment of these funds to the counties. Any funds allocated to a county pursuant to this paragraph shall be used by that county for the exclusive purpose of testing DNA samples for law enforcement purposes.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the Department of Corrections or the Department of the Youth Authority may collect a fine imposed pursuant to this section from a person convicted of a violation of any offense listed in subdivision (a) of Section 290, that results in incarceration in a facility under the jurisdiction of the Department of Corrections or the Department of the Youth Authority. All moneys collected by the Department of Corrections or the Department of the Youth Authority under this subdivision shall be transferred, once a month, to the Controller for deposit in the General Fund, as provided in subdivision (a), for transfer by the Controller, as provided in subdivision (b).

SEC. 4. Section 290.4 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

290.4. (a) (1) The Department of Justice shall continually compile information as described in paragraph (2) regarding any person required to register under Section 290 for a conviction of Section 261 if the victim is a minor, or Section 266 or 267, subdivision (b) or (c) of Section 286, Section 288, paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) or subdivision (c) of Section 288a, Section 288.5, subdivision (i) or (j) of Section 289, Section 647.6, or the statutory predecessor of any of these offenses. This requirement shall not be applied to a person whose duty to register has been terminated pursuant to paragraphs (6) and (7) of subdivision (d) of Section 290, or to a person who has been relieved of his or her duty to register under Section 290.5.

(2) The information shall include the names of these persons categorized by community of residence and ZIP Code. The information shall include a physical description and criminal history and the address of these persons.

(3) The department shall operate a "900" telephone number that members of the public may call and inquire whether a named individual is listed among those described in this subdivision. The caller shall furnish his or her first name, middle initial, and last name. The department shall ascertain whether a named person reasonably appears to be a person so listed and provide the caller with the information described in paragraph (2), except the department shall not disclose the address or criminal history of a person listed, except to describe the specific crimes for which the registrant was required to register. The department shall decide whether the named person reasonably appears to be a person listed, based upon information from the caller providing information that shall include (A) an exact street address, including apartment number, social security number, California driver's license or identification number, or birth date along with additional information that may include any of the following: name, hair color, eye color, height, weight, distinctive markings, ethnicity; or (B) any combination of at least six of the above listed characteristics if an exact birth date or address is not available. If three of the characteristics provided include ethnicity, hair color, and eye color, a seventh identifying characteristic shall be provided. Any information identifying the victim by name, birth date, address, or relation to the registrant shall be excluded by the department.

(4) (A) The income from the operation of the "900" number shall be deposited in the Sexual Predator Public Information Account, which is hereby established within the Department of Justice for the purpose of the implementation of this section by the Department of Justice, including all actual and reasonable costs related to establishing and maintaining the information described in subdivision (a) and the subdirectory described in this subdivision.

(B) The moneys in the Sexual Predator Public Information Account shall consist of income from the operation of the "900" telephone number program authorized by this section, proceeds of the loan made pursuant to Section 6 of the act adding this section, and any other funds made available to the account by the Legislature. Moneys in the account shall be available to the Department of Justice upon appropriation by the Legislature for the purpose specified in subparagraph (A).

(C) When the "900" number is called, a preamble shall be played before charges begin to accrue. The preamble shall run at least the length of time required by federal law and shall provide the following information:

(i) Notice that the caller's telephone number will be recorded.

(ii) The charges for use of the "900" number.

(iii) Notice that the caller is required to identify himself or herself to the operator.

(iv) Notice that the caller is required to be 18 years of age or older.

(v) A warning that it is illegal to use information obtained through the "900" number to commit a crime against any registrant or to engage in illegal discrimination or harassment against any registrant.

(vi) Notice that the caller is required to have the birth date, California driver's license or identification number, social security number, or address or other identifying information regarding the person about whom information is sought in order to achieve a positive identification of that person.

(vii) A statement that the number is not a crime hotline and that any suspected criminal activity should be reported to local authorities.

(viii) A statement that the caller should have a reasonable suspicion that a child is at risk.

(D) The Department of Justice shall expend no more than six hundred thousand dollars ($600,000) per year from any moneys appropriated by the Legislature from the account.

(b) (1) The Department of Justice shall maintain a subdirectory of persons described in subdivision (a) who are deemed by the department to be sexual habitual offenders and a threat to the public safety. The subdirectory shall include a photograph of the offender along with the following information, if available: name, physical description, age, and distinctive markings. The subdirectory shall not include the exact address or the criminal history of the person listed, except to describe the specific crimes for which the registrant was required to register.

(2) The subdirectory shall be organized by county and ZIP Code.

(3) A copy of the subdirectory shall annually be distributed to the offices of county sheriffs and police departments for purposes of public access.

(4) County sheriff's and police departments may require that a person express an articulable purpose in order to have access to the subdirectory.

(5) Any information identifying the victim by name, birthdate, address, or relation to the registrant shall be excluded from the subdirectory distributed for purposes of public access.

(c) (1) Any person who uses information disclosed pursuant to this section to commit a felony shall be punished, in addition and consecutive to, any other punishment, by a five-year term of imprisonment in the state prison.

(2) Any person who uses information disclosed pursuant to this section to commit a misdemeanor shall be subject to, in addition to any other penalty or fine imposed, a fine of not less than five hundred dollars ($500) and not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(d) Any person who makes a photocopy of any part of the subdirectory of sexual habitual offenders is guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed six months or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both. This subdivision shall not apply to a law enforcement officer who makes a photocopy as part of his or her official duties in the course of a criminal investigation or court case.

(e) Unauthorized removal of the subdirectory of sexual habitual offenders from the offices of county sheriffs or any police department is a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed one year or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both.

(f) (1) A person is authorized to use information disclosed pursuant to this section only to protect a child at risk. Authorized use includes, but is not limited to, either of the following:

(A) A person in a position of authority or special trust who by reason of that position is able to exercise undue influence over a minor. A position of authority includes, but is not limited to, a natural parent, adoptive parent, stepparent, foster parent, relative, household member, adult youth leader, recreational director who is an adult, adult athletic manager, adult coach, teacher, counselor, religious leader, doctor, or employer.

(B) A person possessing a license or holding an employment or volunteer position with supervisory or disciplinary power over a minor or any person under his or her care, a person who supervises a slumber party, or a babysitter.

This act shall not affect authorized access to, or use of, information pursuant to, among other provisions, Sections 11105 and 11105.3 of this code, Section 226.55 of the Civil Code, Sections 777.5 and 14409.2 of the Financial Code, Sections 1596.871 and 1597.81 of the Health and Safety Code, and Section 432.7 of the Labor Code.

(2) Except as authorized under another provision of law, use of any of the following information disclosed pursuant to this section is prohibited:

(A) Health insurance.

(B) Insurance.

(C) Loans.

(D) Credit.

(E) Employment, except as specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (f).

(F) Education, scholarships, or fellowships.

(G) Housing or accommodations.

(H) Benefits, privileges, or services provided by any business establishment.

(3) (A) Any use of information disclosed pursuant to this section for purposes other than those provided by paragraph (1) of subdivision (f) or in violation of paragraph (2) of subdivision (f) shall make the user liable for the actual damages, and any amount that may be determined by a jury or a court sitting without a jury, not exceeding three times the amount of actual damage, and not less than two hundred fifty dollars ($250), and attorney's fees, exemplary damages, or a civil penalty not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000).

(B) Whenever there is reasonable cause to believe that any person or group of persons is engaged in a pattern or practice of misuse of the "900" number in violation of paragraph (2) of subdivision (f), the Attorney General, any district attorney, or city attorney, or any person aggrieved by the misuse of that number is authorized to bring a civil action in the appropriate court requesting preventive relief, including an application for a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or other order against the person or group of persons responsible for the pattern or practice of misuse. The foregoing remedies shall be independent of any other remedies or procedures that may be available to an aggrieved party under other provisions of law, including Part 2 (commencing with Section 43) of Division 1 of the Civil Code.

(g) This section shall not be deemed to authorize the publication, distribution, or disclosure of the address of any person about whom information can be published, distributed, or disclosed pursuant to this section.

(h) The Department of Justice shall submit to the Legislature an annual report on the operation of the "900" telephone number required by paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) on July 1, 1996, July 1, 1997, and July 1, 1998. The annual report shall include all of the following:

(1) Number of calls received.

(2) Amount of income earned per year through operation of the "900" telephone number.

(3) A detailed outline of the amount of money expended and the manner in which it was expended for purposes of this section.

(4) Number of calls that resulted in an affirmative response and the number of calls that resulted in a negative response with regard to whether a named individual was listed pursuant to subdivision (a).

(5) Number of persons listed pursuant to subdivision (a).

(6) A summary of the success of the "900" telephone number program based upon selected factors.

(i) The "900" telephone number program authorized by this section shall terminate operation on January 1, 1998.

(j) This section shall become operative on July 1, 1995, and shall become inoperative on January 1, 1999, and as of that date is repealed unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 4.5. (a) Section 2.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 290 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 1211. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 290 of the Penal Code, (3) AB 3456 and AB 3513 are not enacted or as enacted do not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 1211, in which case Sections 2, 2.2, 2.3, 2.4, 2.5, 2.6, and 2.7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(b) Section 2.2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 290 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3456. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 290 of the Penal Code, (3) AB 1211 and AB 3513 are not enacted or as enacted do not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 3456 in which case Sections 2, 2.1, 2.3, 2.4, 2.5, 2.6, and 2.7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(c) Section 2.3 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 290 of the Penal Code proposed by this bill, AB 1211, and AB 3456. It shall only become operative if (1) all three bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1995, (2) all three bills amend Section 290 of the Penal Code, (3) AB 3513 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 1211 and AB 3456, in which case Sections 2, 2.1, 2.2, 2.4, 2.5, 2.6, and 2.7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(d) Section 2.4 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 290 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3513. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 290 of the Penal Code, (3) AB 1211 and AB 3456 are not enacted or as enacted do not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 3513, in which case Sections 2, 2.1, 2.2, 2.3, 2.5, 2.6, and 2.7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(e) Section 2.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 290 of the Penal Code proposed by this bill, AB 1211, and AB 3513. It shall only become operative if (1) all three bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1995, (2) all three bills amend Section 290 of the Penal Code, (3) AB 3456 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 1211 and AB 3513, in which case Sections 2, 2.2, 2.3, 2.4, 2.6, and 2.7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(f) Section 2.6 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 290 of the Penal Code proposed by this bill, AB 3513, and AB 3456. It shall only become operative if (1) all three bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1995, (2) all three bills amend Section 290 of the Penal Code, (3) AB 1211 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 3513 and AB 3456, in which case Sections 2, 2.1, 2.2, 2.3, 2.4, 2.5, and 2.7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(g) Section 2.7 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 290 of the Penal Code proposed by this bill, AB 1211, AB 3513, and AB 3456. It shall only become operative if (1) all four bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1995, (2) all four bills amend Section 290 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 1211, AB 3513, and AB 3456, in which case Sections 2, 2.1, 2.2, 2.3, 2.4, 2.5, and 2.6 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 4.7. Section 3.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 290.3 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 304. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 290.3 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 304, in which case Section 3 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 6. (a) The sum of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) is hereby appropriated from the Sexual Predator Public Information Account to the Department of Justice for the purpose of implementing this act.

(b) The Department of Finance shall transfer the sum of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) from a special account used by the Department of Justice that is not in the General Fund to the Sexual Predator Public Information Account as a loan. That money shall be repaid from the Sexual Predator Public Information Account with interest at the Pooled Money Investment Account rate not later than January 1, 1998.

SEC. 7. This act shall become operative only if Assembly Bill 3026 of the 1993–94 Regular Session is enacted and becomes effective on or before January 1, 1995.

CHAPTER 868

An act to add Section 6103.7 to the Business and Professions Code, relating to attorneys.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. No later than March 1, 1995, the State Bar of California shall submit to the Supreme Court for approval a rule of professional conduct governing trial publicity and extrajudicial statements made by attorneys concerning adjudicative proceedings.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares the following:

(1) Recent legal proceedings have generated extraordinary media coverage and raised serious questions regarding the potentially prejudicial and otherwise harmful effect of some media coverage. Important constitutional issues of free speech, the right to a fair trial, and related questions are implicated and require thorough review by the State Bar.

(2) In light of the fact that the American Bar Association has now reformed its rule on this subject, it is appropriate to require the State Bar to commence and complete its rulemaking process no later than March 1, 1995.

(3) During the rulemaking process, the State Bar shall, among other materials, review and consider the American Bar Association's Model Rule 3.6, as modified.

SEC. 3. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act to memorialize the Supreme Court expeditiously to review and, as appropriate, approve the rule adopted by the State Bar pursuant to this section.

CHAPTER 869

An act to add Section 1669.7 to the Civil Code, and to amend Section 1122 of, and to add Sections 116.5 and 132.5 to, the Penal Code, relating to trials.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1669.7 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

1669.7. A contract for the payment of money or other consideration in violation of Section 132.5 of the Penal Code is void as contrary to public policy. The Attorney General or the district attorney of the county in which a violation of Section 132.5 of the Penal Code occurs may bring a civil action, or intervene in any civil action, to enjoin the enforcement of a contract that violates that section.

SEC. 2. Section 116.5 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

116.5. (a) A person is guilty of tampering with a jury when, prior to, or within 90 days of, discharge of the jury in a criminal proceeding, he or she does any of the following:

(1) Confers, or offers or agrees to confer, any payment or benefit upon a juror or upon a third person who is acting on behalf of a juror in consideration for the juror or third person supplying information in relation to an action or proceeding.

(2) Acting on behalf of a juror, accepts or agrees to accept any payment or benefit for himself or herself or for the juror in consideration for supplying any information in relation to an action or proceeding.

(3) Acting on behalf of himself or herself, agrees to accept, directly or indirectly, any payment or benefit in consideration for supplying any information in relation to an action or proceeding.

(b) Any person who violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(c) In the case of a juror who is within 90 days of having been discharged, otherwise lawful compensation not exceeding fifty dollars ($50) in value shall not constitute a criminal violation of this section.

(d) Upon conviction under this section, in addition to the penalty described in subdivision (b), any compensation received in violation of this section shall be forfeited by the defendant and deposited in the Victim Restitution Fund.

SEC. 3. Section 132.5 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

132.5. (a) A person who is a witness to an event or occurrence that he or she knows, or reasonably should know, is a crime or who has personal knowledge of facts that he or she knows, or reasonably should know, may require that person to be called as a witness in a criminal prosecution shall not accept or receive, directly or indirectly, any payment or benefit in consideration for providing information obtained as result of witnessing the event or occurrence or having personal knowledge of the facts.

(b) A violation of this section is a misdemeanor and shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail for not exceeding six months, by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine.

(c) Upon conviction under this section, in addition to the penalty described in subdivision (b), any compensation received in violation of this section shall be forfeited by the defendant and deposited in the Victim Restitution Fund.

(d) This section shall not apply if more than one year has elapsed from the date of any criminal act related to the information that is provided under subdivision (a) unless prosecution has commenced for that criminal act. If prosecution has commenced, this section shall remain applicable until the final judgment in the action.

(e) This section shall not apply to any of the following circumstances:

(1) Lawful compensation paid to expert witnesses, investigators, employees, or agents by a prosecutor, law enforcement agency, or an attorney employed to represent a person in a criminal matter.

(2) Lawful compensation provided to an informant by a prosecutor or law enforcement agency.

(3) Compensation paid to a publisher, editor, reporter, writer, or other person connected with or employed by a newspaper, magazine, or other publication or a television or radio news reporter or other person connected with a television or radio station, for disclosing information obtained in the ordinary course of business.

(4) Statutorily authorized rewards offered by governmental agencies for information leading to the arrest and conviction of specified offenders.

(f) For purposes of this section, "information" does not include a photograph, videotape, audiotape, or any other direct recording of events or occurrences.

SEC. 4. Section 1122 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1122. (a) After the jury has been sworn and before the people's opening address, the court shall instruct the jury generally concerning its basic functions, duties, and conduct. The instructions shall include, among other matters, admonitions that the jurors shall not converse among themselves, or with anyone else, on any subject connected with the trial; that they shall not read or listen to any accounts or discussions of the case reported by newspapers or other news media; that they shall not visit or view the premises or place where the offense or offenses charged were allegedly committed or any other premises or place involved in the case; that prior to, and within 90 days of, discharge, they shall not request, accept, agree to accept, or discuss with any person receiving or accepting, any payment or benefit in consideration for supplying any information concerning the trial; and that they shall promptly report to the court any incident within their knowledge involving an attempt by any person to improperly influence any member of the jury.

(b) The jury shall also, at each adjournment of the court before the submission of the cause to the jury, whether permitted to separate or kept in charge of officers, be admonished by the court that it is their duty not to converse among themselves, or with anyone else, on any subject connected with the trial, or to form or express any opinion thereon until the cause is finally submitted to them.

SEC. 5. If any provision enacted by this act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect any other provision or application of this act that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end those provisions are severable.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 870

An act to add Sections 132.5 and 1122.5 to the Penal Code, relating to criminal procedure.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 132.5 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

132.5. (a) The Legislature supports and affirms the constitutional right of every person to communicate on any subject. This section is intended to preserve the right of every accused person to a fair trial, the right of the people to due process of law, and the integrity of judicial proceedings. This section is not intended to prevent any person from disseminating any information or opinion.

The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the disclosure for valuable consideration of information relating to crimes by prospective witnesses can cause the loss of credible evidence in criminal trials and threatens to erode the reliability of verdicts.

The Legislature further finds and declares that the disclosure for valuable consideration of information relating to crimes by prospective witnesses creates an appearance of injustice that is destructive of public confidence.

(b) A person who is a witness to an event or occurrence that he or she knows is a crime or who has personal knowledge of facts that he or she knows or reasonably should know may require that person to be called as a witness in a criminal prosecution shall not accept or receive, directly or indirectly, any money or its equivalent in consideration for providing information obtained as result of witnessing the event or occurrence or having personal knowledge of the facts.

(c) Any person who is a witness to an event or occurrence that he or she reasonably should know is a crime shall not accept or receive, directly or indirectly, any money or its equivalent in consideration for providing information obtained as a result of his or her witnessing the event or occurrence.

(d) The Attorney General or the district attorney of the county in which an alleged violation of subdivision (c) occurs may institute a civil proceeding. Where a final judgment is rendered in the civil proceeding, the defendant shall be punished for the violation of subdivision (c) by a fine equal to 150 percent of the amount received or contracted for by the person.

(e) A violation of subdivision (b) is a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months in a county jail, a fine not exceeding three times the amount of compensation requested, accepted, or received, or both the imprisonment and fine.

(f) This section does not apply if more than one year has elapsed from the date of any criminal act related to the information that is provided under subdivision (b) or (c) unless prosecution has commenced for that criminal act. If prosecution has commenced, this section shall remain applicable until the final judgment in the action.

(g) This section does not apply to any of the following circumstances:

(1) Lawful compensation paid to expert witnesses, investigators, employees, or agents by a prosecutor, law enforcement agency, or an attorney employed to represent a person in a criminal matter.

(2) Lawful compensation provided to an informant by a prosecutor or law enforcement agency.

(3) Compensation paid to a publisher, editor, reporter, writer, or other person connected with or employed by a newspaper, magazine, or other publication or a television or radio news reporter or other person connected with a television or radio station, for disclosing information obtained in the ordinary course of business.

(4) Statutorily authorized rewards offered by governmental agencies for information leading to the arrest and conviction of specified offenders.

(h) For purposes of this section, "information" does not include a photograph, videotape, audiotape, or any other direct recording of an event or occurrence.

SEC. 2. Section 1122.5 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

1122.5. (a) The court, in its discretion, may, at each adjournment of the court before the submission of the cause to the jury, admonish the jury, whether permitted to separate or kept in charge of officers, that, on pain of contempt of court, no juror shall, prior to discharge, accept, agree to accept, or benefit, directly or indirectly, from any payment or other consideration for supplying any information concerning the trial.

(b) In enacting this section, the Legislature recognizes that the appearance of justice, and justice itself, may be undermined by any juror who, prior to discharge, accepts, agrees to accept, or benefits from valuable consideration for providing information concerning a criminal trial.

SEC. 3. If any provision enacted by this act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect any other provision or application of this act that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end those provisions are severable.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 871

An act to amend Section 6385 of, and to add Section 6389 to, the Family Code, and to amend Section 12028.5 of the Penal Code, relating to domestic violence.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6385 of the Family Code is amended to read:

6385. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), on receipt of a copy of a protective order, as defined in Section 6218, the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the residence of the petitioner shall immediately notify the Department of Justice regarding the name, race, date of birth, and other personal descriptive information as required by a form prescribed by the Department of Justice, the date of issuance of the order, and the duration of the order or its expiration date.

(b) Proof of service of the protective order is not required for the purposes of this section if the order indicates on its face that both parties were personally present at the hearing where the order was issued and that, for the purpose of Section 6384, no proof of service is required.

(c) The failure of the local law enforcement agency to provide the Department of Justice with the personal descriptive information regarding the person restrained does not invalidate the protective order.

(d) If a court issues a modification, extension, or termination of the protective order described in subdivision (a), the court shall notify the law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the residence of the petitioner. The law enforcement agency shall then immediately notify the Department of Justice.

(e) There is no civil liability on the part of, and no cause of action arises against, an employee of a local law enforcement agency or the Department of Justice, acting within the scope of employment, if a person described in subdivision (g) of Section 12021 of the Penal Code unlawfully purchases, receives, owns, or possesses, or attempts to purchase, receive, own, or possess a firearm and a person is injured by that firearm or a person who is otherwise entitled to receive a firearm is denied a firearm and either wrongful action is due to a failure of a court to provide the notification provided for in this section.

SEC. 2. Section 6389 is added to the Family Code, to read:

6389. (a) A person subject to a protective order, as defined in Section 6218, may not own or possess a firearm while that protective order is in effect when prohibited by an order issued pursuant to this section.

(b) The Judicial Council shall provide a notice on all forms requesting a protective order that, at the hearing for a protective order, the respondent may be ordered to relinquish possession or control of any firearms for a period not to exceed the duration of the restraining order.

(c) If the respondent is present in court at a duly noticed hearing, and if the court determines by a preponderance of the evidence that the respondent is likely to use or display or threaten to use a firearm in any further act of violence, the court may order the respondent to relinquish any firearm in that person's immediate possession or control, or subject to that person's immediate possession or control, within 24 hours of the order, by either surrendering the firearm to the control of local law enforcement officials, or by selling the firearm to a licensed gun dealer, as specified in Section 12071 of the Penal Code. If the respondent is not present at the hearing, the respondent shall relinquish the firearm within 48 hours after being served with the order. A person ordered to relinquish any firearm pursuant to this subdivision shall file with the court a receipt showing the firearm was surrendered to the local law enforcement agency or sold to a licensed gun dealer within 72 hours after receiving the order. However, a court may either extend or shorten these time requirements based upon good cause shown. In the event that it is necessary to continue the date of any hearing due to a request for a relinquishment order pursuant to this section, the court shall ensure that all applicable protective orders described in Section 6218 remain in effect or bifurcate the issues and grant the permanent restraining order pending the date of the hearing.

(d) If the respondent declines to relinquish possession of any firearm based upon the assertion of the right against self-incrimination, as provided by the Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution and Section 15 of Article I of the California Constitution, the court may grant use immunity for the act of relinquishing the firearm.

(e) A local law enforcement agency may charge the respondent a fee for the storage of any firearm pursuant to this section. This fee shall not exceed the actual cost incurred by the local law enforcement agency for the storage of the firearm. For purposes of this subdivision, "actual cost" means expenses directly related to taking possession of a firearm, storing the firearm, and surrendering possession of the firearm to a licensed dealer as defined in Section 12071 of the Penal Code or to the respondent.

(f) Any restraining order requiring a person to relinquish a firearm pursuant to subdivision (c) shall state on its face that the firearm shall be relinquished to the local law enforcement agency for that jurisdiction or sold to a licensed gun dealer, and that proof of surrender or sale shall be filed with the court within a specified period of receipt of the order. The order shall also state on its face the expiration date for relinquishment. Nothing in this section shall limit a respondent's right under existing law to petition the court at a later date for modification of the order.

(g) Any restraining order requiring a person to relinquish a firearm pursuant to subdivision (c) shall prohibit the person from possessing or controlling any firearm for the duration of the order, unless a shorter time period is specified by the court. At the expiration of the order, the local law enforcement agency shall return possession of any surrendered firearm to the respondent, within five days after the expiration of the relinquishment order, unless the local law enforcement agency determines that either (1) the firearm has been stolen or (2) the respondent is prohibited from possessing a firearm because the respondent is in any prohibited class for the possession of firearms, as defined in Sections 12021 and 12021.1 of the Penal Code and Sections 8100 and 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. If the local law enforcement agency determines that the respondent is the legal owner of any firearm deposited with the local law enforcement agency and is prohibited from possessing any firearm, the respondent shall be entitled to sell or transfer the firearm to a licensed dealer as defined in Section 12071 of the Penal Code. If the firearm has been stolen, the firearm shall be restored to the lawful owner upon his or her identification of the firearm and proof of ownership.

(h) The court may, as part of the relinquishment order, grant an exemption from the relinquishment requirements of this section for a particular firearm if the respondent can show that a particular firearm is necessary as a condition of continued employment and that the current employer is unable to reassign the respondent to another position where a firearm is unnecessary. If an exemption is granted pursuant to this subdivision, the order shall provide that the firearm shall be in the physical possession of the respondent only during scheduled work hours and during travel to and from his or her place of employment.

(i) During the period of the relinquishment order, a respondent is entitled to make one sale of all firearms that are in the possession of a local law enforcement agency pursuant to this section. A licensed gun dealer, who presents a local law enforcement agency with a bill of sale indicating that all firearms owned by the respondent that are in the possession of the local law enforcement agency have been sold by the respondent to the licensed gun dealer, shall be given possession of those firearms, at the location where a respondent's firearms are stored, within five days of presenting the local law enforcement agency with a bill of sale.

(j) The disposition of any unclaimed property under this section shall be made pursuant to Section 1413 of the Penal Code.

(k) The return of a firearm to any person pursuant to subdivision (g) shall not be subject to the requirements of subdivision (d) of Section 12072 of the Penal Code.

(l) If the judge orders the person subject to the protective order to relinquish his or her firearms and the defendant notifies the court that he or she owns a firearm that is not in his or her immediate possession, the court may limit the order to exclude that firearm if the judge is satisfied the defendant will not gain access to that firearm while the protective order is in effect.

(m) Any respondent to a protective order who violates any order issued pursuant to this section is guilty of a misdemeanor, which shall be punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year, by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine.

SEC. 3. Section 12028.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12028.5. (a) As used in this section, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) "Abuse" means intentionally or recklessly causing or attempting to cause bodily injury, or placing another person in reasonable apprehension of imminent serious bodily injury to himself, herself, or another.

(2) "Family violence" has the same meaning as domestic violence as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 13700, and also includes any abuse perpetrated against a family or household member.

(3) "Family or household member" means a spouse, former spouse, parent, child, any person related by consanguinity or affinity within the second degree, or any person who regularly resides or who regularly resided in the household.

The presumption applies that the male parent is the father of any child of the female pursuant to the Uniform Parentage Act (Part 3 (commencing with Section 7600) of Division 12 of the Family Code).

(4) "Deadly weapon" means any weapon, the possession or concealed carrying of which is prohibited by Section 12020.

(b) A sheriff, undersheriff, deputy sheriff, marshal, deputy marshal, or police officer of a city, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 830.1, a member of the University of California Police Department, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 830.2, an officer listed in Section 830.6 while acting in the course and scope of his or her employment as a peace officer, a member of a California State University Police Department, as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 830.2, a peace officer of the Department of Parks and Recreation, as defined in subdivision (g) of Section 830.2, a peace officer, as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 830.31, and a peace officer, as defined in Section 830.5, who is at the scene of a family violence incident involving a threat to human life or a physical assault, may take temporary custody of any firearm or other deadly weapon in plain sight or discovered pursuant to a consensual search as necessary for the protection of the peace officer or other persons present. Upon taking custody of a firearm or other deadly weapon, the officer shall give the owner or person who possessed the firearm a receipt. The receipt shall describe the firearm or other deadly weapon and list any identification or serial number on the firearm. The receipt shall indicate where the firearm or other deadly weapon can be recovered and the date after which the owner or possessor can recover the firearm or other deadly weapon. No firearm or other deadly weapon shall be held less than 48 hours. Except as provided in subdivision (e), if a firearm or other deadly weapon is not retained for use as evidence related to criminal charges brought as a result of the family violence incident or is not retained because it was illegally possessed, the firearm or other deadly weapon shall be made available to the owner or person who was in lawful possession 48 hours after the seizure or as soon thereafter as possible, but no later than 72 hours after the seizure. In any civil action or proceeding for the return of firearms or ammunition or other deadly weapon seized by any state or local law enforcement agency and not returned within 72 hours following the initial seizure, except as provided in subdivision (c) or (e), the court shall allow reasonable attorney's fees to the prevailing party.

(c) Any firearm or other deadly weapon which has been taken into custody that has been stolen shall be restored to the lawful owner, as soon as its use for evidence has been served, upon his or her identification of the firearm or other deadly weapon and proof of ownership.

(d) Any firearm or other deadly weapon taken into custody and held by a police, university police, or sheriff's department or by a marshal's office, by a peace officer of the Department of Parks and Recreation, as defined in subdivision (g) of Section 830.2, by a peace officer, as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 830.31, or by a peace officer, as defined in Section 830.5, for longer than 12 months and not recovered by the owner or person who has lawful possession at the time it was taken into custody, shall be considered a nuisance and sold or destroyed as provided in subdivision (c) of Section 12028. Firearms or other deadly weapons not recovered within 12 months due to an extended hearing process as provided in subdivision (i), are not subject to destruction until the court issues a decision, and then only if the court does not order the return of the firearm or other deadly weapon to the owner.

(e) In those cases where a law enforcement agency has reasonable cause to believe that the return of a firearm or other deadly weapon would be likely to result in endangering the victim or the person reporting the assault or threat, the agency shall advise the owner of the firearm or other deadly weapon, and within 10 days of the seizure, initiate a petition in superior court to determine if the firearm or other deadly weapon should be returned.

(f) The law enforcement agency shall inform the owner or person who had lawful possession of the firearm or other deadly weapon, at that person's last known address by registered mail, return receipt requested, that he or she has 30 days from the date of receipt of the notice to respond to the court clerk to confirm his or her desire for a hearing, and that the failure to respond shall result in a default order forfeiting the confiscated firearm or other deadly weapon. For the purposes of this subdivision, the person's last known address shall be presumed to be the address provided to the law enforcement officer by that person at the time of the family violence incident. In the event the person whose firearm or other deadly weapon was seized does not reside at the last address provided to the agency, the agency shall make a diligent, good faith effort to learn the whereabouts of the person and to comply with these notification requirements.

(g) If the person requests a hearing, the court clerk shall set a hearing no later than 30 days from receipt of that request. The court clerk shall notify the person, the law enforcement agency involved, and the district attorney of the date, time, and place of the hearing. Unless it is shown by clear and convincing evidence that the return of the firearm or other deadly weapon would result in endangering the victim or the person reporting the assault or threat, the court shall order the return of the firearm or other deadly weapon and shall award reasonable attorney's fees to the prevailing party.

(h) If the person does not request a hearing or does not otherwise respond within 30 days of the receipt of the notice, the law enforcement agency may file a petition for an order of default and may dispose of the firearm or other deadly weapon as provided in Section 12028.

(i) If, at the hearing, the court does not order the return of the firearm or other deadly weapon to the owner or person who had lawful possession, that person may petition the court for a second hearing within 12 months from the date of the initial hearing. If the owner or person who had lawful possession does not petition the court within this 12-month period for a second hearing or is unsuccessful at the second hearing in gaining return of the firearm or other deadly weapon, the firearm or other deadly weapon may be disposed of as provided in Section 12028.

(j) The law enforcement agency, or the individual law enforcement officer, shall not be liable for any act in the good faith exercise of this section.

SEC. 4. Section 1 of this act shall not become operative if Assembly Bill 3034 of the 1993–94 Regular Session is chaptered and amends Section 6385 of the Family Code, regardless of the order of chaptering. In that event, it is the intent of the Legislature that Section 6385 of the Family Code, as amended by Assembly Bill 3034 shall become effective and operative.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for those costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

Moreover, no reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code for other costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) and any other provisions of law for those other costs.

CHAPTER 872

An act to amend Sections 6381, 6383, and 6385 of, and to repeal and add Section 6380 of the Family Code, and to amend Section 12028.5 of the Penal Code, relating to domestic violence, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6380 of the Family Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 6380 is added to the Family Code, to read:

6380. (a) Each county, with the approval of the Department of Justice, shall, by July 1, 1996, develop a procedure, using existing systems, for the electronic transmission of data, as described in subdivision (b), to the Department of Justice. The data shall be electronically transmitted through the California Law Enforcement Telecommunications System (CLETS) of the Department of Justice by law enforcement personnel, or with the approval of the Department of Justice, court personnel or another appropriate agency capable of maintaining and preserving the integrity of both the CLETS and the Domestic Violence Restraining Order Registry, as described in subdivision (e). Data entry is required to be entered only once under the requirements of this section, unless the order is served at a later time. A portion of all fees payable to the Department of Justice under subdivision (e) of Section 1203.097 of the Penal Code for the entry of the information required under this section, based upon the proportion of the costs incurred by the local agency and those incurred by the Department of Justice, shall be transferred to the local agency actually providing the data.

(b) Upon the issuance of a protective order, the Department of Justice shall be immediately notified of the contents of the order and the following information:

(1) The name, race, date of birth, and other personal descriptive information of the respondent as required by a form prescribed by the Department of Justice.

(2) The names of the protected persons.

(3) The date of issuance of the order.

(4) The duration or expiration date of the order.

(5) The terms and conditions of the protective order, including stay-away, no-contact, and residency exclusion provisions of the order.

(6) The department or division number and the address of the court.

(7) Whether or not the order was served upon the respondent.

All available information shall be included; however, the inability to provide all categories of information shall not delay the entry of the information available.

(c) The information conveyed to the Department of Justice shall also indicate whether the respondent was present in court to be informed of the contents of the court order. The respondent's presence in court shall provide proof of service of notice of the terms of the protective order. The respondent's failure to appear shall also be included in the information provided to the Department of Justice.

(d) Immediately upon receipt of proof of service the clerk of the court, and immediately after service any law enforcement officer who served the protective order, shall notify the Department of Justice, by electronic transmission, of the service of the protective order, including the name of the person who served the order and, if that person is a law enforcement officer, the law enforcement agency.

(e) The Department of Justice shall maintain a Domestic Violence Protective Order Registry and shall make available to court clerks and law enforcement personnel, through computer access, all information regarding restraining orders, including criminal court protective orders issued under subdivision (g) of Section 136.2 of the Penal Code, whether or not served upon the respondent.

(f) If a court issues a modification, extension, or termination of a protective order, the transmitting agency for the county shall immediately notify the Department of Justice, by electronic transmission, of the terms of the modification, extension, or termination.

(g) The Judicial Council shall assist local courts charged with the responsibility for issuing protective orders by developing informational packets describing the general procedures for obtaining a domestic violence restraining order and indicating the appropriate Judicial Council forms, and shall include a design, which local courts shall complete, which describes local court procedures and maps to enable applicants to locate filing windows and appropriate courts. The court clerk shall provide a fee waiver form to all applicants for domestic violence protective orders. The court clerk shall provide all Judicial Council forms required by this chapter to applicants free of charge.

(h) For the purposes of this part, "electronic transmission" shall include computer access through the California Law Enforcement Telecommunications System (CLETS).

SEC. 3. Section 6381 of the Family Code is amended to read:

6381. (a) Notwithstanding Section 6380 and subject to subdivision (b), an order issued under this part is enforceable in any place in this state.

(b) An order issued under this part is not enforceable by a law enforcement agency of a political subdivision unless that law enforcement agency has received a copy of the order, or the officer enforcing the order has been shown a copy of the order or has obtained information, through the Domestic Violence Restraining Order Registry maintained by the Department of Justice, of the contents of the order, as described in subdivision (b).

(c) The data contained in the Domestic Violence Restraining Order Registry shall be deemed to be original, self-authenticating, documentary evidence of the court orders. Oral notification of the terms of the orders shall be sufficient notice for enforcement under subdivision (g) of Section 136.2 and Section 273.6 of the Penal Code.

SEC. 4. Section 6383 of the Family Code is amended to read:

6383. (a) An order issued under this part shall, on request of the petitioner, be served on the respondent, whether or not the respondent has been taken into custody, by any law enforcement officer who is present at the scene of reported domestic violence involving the parties to the proceeding.

(b) The petitioner shall provide the officer with an endorsed copy of the order and a proof of service which the officer shall complete and transmit to the issuing court.

(c) It is a rebuttable presumption that the proof of service was signed on the date of service.

(d) Upon receiving information at the scene of a domestic violence incident that a protective order has been issued under this part, or that a person who has been taken into custody is the respondent to such an order, if the protected person cannot produce a certified copy of the order, a law enforcement officer shall immediately inquire of the Department of Justice Domestic Violence Protective Order Registry to verify the existence of the order.

(e) If the law enforcement officer determines that a protective order has been issued, but not served, the officer shall immediately notify the respondent of the terms of the order. Verbal notice of the terms of the order is sufficient notice for the purposes of this section and for the purposes of Section 273.6 and subdivision (g) of Section 12021 of the Penal Code.

(f) If a report is required under Section 13730 of the Penal Code, or if no report is required, then in the daily incident log, the officer shall provide the name and assignment of the officer notifying the respondent pursuant to subdivision (e) and the case number of the order.

(g) Upon service of the order outside of the court, a law enforcement officer shall advise the respondent to go to the local court to obtain a copy of the order containing the full terms and conditions of the order.

SEC. 5. Section 6385 of the Family Code is amended to read:

6385. (a) On receipt of proof of service of a protective order, as defined in Section 6218, a local law enforcement agency or the court shall immediately notify the Department of Justice, by electronic transmission, regarding the following information:

(1) The name, race, date of birth, and other personal descriptive information of the respondent as required by a form prescribed by the Department of Justice.

(2) The names of the protected persons.

(3) The date of issuance of the order.

(4) The duration or expiration date of the order.

(5) The terms and conditions of the stay-away provisions of the order.

(6) The department or division number and the telephone number of the court.

(b) Proof of service of the protective order is not required for the purposes of this section if the order indicates on its face that both parties were personally present at the hearing where the order was issued and that, for the purpose of Section 6384, no proof of service is required, or if the order was served by a law enforcement officer pursuant to Section 6383.

(c) The failure of the petitioner to provide the Department of Justice with the personal descriptive information regarding the person restrained does not invalidate the protective order.

(d) There is no civil liability on the part of, and no cause of action arises against, an employee of a local law enforcement agency, a court, or the Department of Justice, acting within the scope of employment, if a person described in subdivision (g) of Section 12021 of the Penal Code unlawfully purchases or receives or attempts to purchase or receive a firearm and a person is injured by that firearm or a person who is otherwise entitled to receive a firearm is denied a firearm and either wrongful action is due to a failure of a court to provide the notification provided for in this chapter.

SEC. 6. Section 12028.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12028.5. (a) As used in this section, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) "Abuse" means intentionally or recklessly causing or attempting to cause bodily injury, or placing another person in reasonable apprehension of imminent serious bodily injury to himself, herself, or another.

(2) "Family violence" has the same meaning as domestic violence as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 13700, and also includes any abuse perpetrated against a family or household member.

(3) "Family or household member" means a spouse, former spouse, parent, child, any person related by consanguinity or affinity within the second degree, or any person who regularly resides or who regularly resided in the household.

The presumption applies that the male parent is the father of any child of the female pursuant to the Uniform Parentage Act (Part 3 (commencing with Section 7600) of Division 12 of the Family Code).

(4) "Deadly weapon" means any weapon, the possession or concealed carrying of which is prohibited by Section 12020.

(b) A sheriff, undersheriff, deputy sheriff, marshal, deputy marshal, or police officer of a city, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 830.1, a member of the California Highway Patrol, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 830.2, a member of the University of California Police Department, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 830.2, an officer listed in Section 830.6 while acting in the course and scope of his or her employment as a peace officer, a member of a California State University Police Department, as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 830.2, a peace officer of the Department of Parks and Recreation, as defined in subdivision (g) of Section 830.2, a peace officer, as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 830.31, and a peace officer, as defined in Section 830.5, who is at the scene of a family violence incident involving a threat to human life or a physical assault, may take temporary custody of any firearm or other deadly weapon in plain sight or discovered pursuant to a consensual search as necessary for the protection of the peace officer or other persons present. Upon taking custody of a firearm or other deadly weapon, the officer shall give the owner or person who possessed the firearm a receipt. The receipt shall describe the firearm or other deadly weapon and list any identification or serial number on the firearm. The receipt shall indicate where the firearm or other deadly weapon can be recovered and the date after which the owner or possessor can recover the firearm or other deadly weapon. No firearm or other deadly weapon shall be held less than 48 hours. Except as provided in subdivision (e), if a firearm or other deadly weapon is not retained for use as evidence related to criminal charges brought as a result of the family violence incident or is not retained because it was illegally possessed, the firearm or other deadly weapon shall be made available to the owner or person who was in lawful possession 48 hours after the seizure or as soon thereafter as possible, but no later than 72 hours after the seizure. In any civil action or proceeding for the return of firearms or ammunition or other deadly weapon seized by any state or local law enforcement agency and not returned within 72 hours following the initial seizure, except as provided in subdivision (c), the court shall allow reasonable attorney's fees to the prevailing party.

(c) Any firearm or other deadly weapon which has been taken into custody that has been stolen shall be restored to the lawful owner, as soon as its use for evidence has been served, upon his or her identification of the firearm or other deadly weapon and proof of ownership.

(d) Any firearm or other deadly weapon taken into custody and held by a police, university police, or sheriff's department or by a marshal's office, by a member of the California Highway Patrol, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 830.2, by a peace officer of the Department of Parks and Recreation, as defined in subdivision (g) of Section 830.2, by a peace officer, as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 830.31, or by a peace officer, as defined in Section 830.5, for longer than 12 months and not recovered by the owner or person who has lawful possession at the time it was taken into custody, shall be considered a nuisance and sold or destroyed as provided in subdivision (c) of Section 12028. Firearms or other deadly weapons not recovered within 12 months due to an extended hearing process as provided in subdivision (i), are not subject to destruction until the court issues a decision, and then only if the court does not order the return of the firearm or other deadly weapon to the owner.

(e) In those cases where a law enforcement agency has reasonable cause to believe that the return of a firearm or other deadly weapon would be likely to result in endangering the victim or the person reporting the assault or threat, the agency shall advise the owner of the firearm or other deadly weapon, and within 10 days of the seizure, initiate a petition in superior court to determine if the firearm or other deadly weapon should be returned.

(f) The law enforcement agency shall inform the owner or person who had lawful possession of the firearm or other deadly weapon, at that person's last known address by registered mail, return receipt requested, that he or she has 30 days from the date of receipt of the notice to respond to the court clerk to confirm his or her desire for a hearing, and that the failure to respond shall result in a default order forfeiting the confiscated firearm or other deadly weapon. For the purposes of this subdivision, the person's last known address shall be presumed to be the address provided to the law enforcement officer by that person at the time of the family violence incident. In the event the person whose firearm or other deadly weapon was seized does not reside at the last address provided to the agency, the agency shall make a diligent, good faith effort to learn the whereabouts of the person and to comply with these notification requirements.

(g) If the person requests a hearing, the court clerk shall set a hearing no later than 30 days from receipt of that request. The court clerk shall notify the person, the law enforcement agency involved, and the district attorney of the date, time, and place of the hearing. Unless it is shown by clear and convincing evidence that the return of the firearm or other deadly weapon would result in endangering the victim or the person reporting the assault or threat, the court shall order the return of the firearm or other deadly weapon and shall award reasonable attorney's fees to the prevailing party.

(h) If the person does not request a hearing or does not otherwise respond within 30 days of the receipt of the notice, the law enforcement agency may file a petition for an order of default and may dispose of the firearm or other deadly weapon as provided in Section 12028.

(i) If, at the hearing, the court does not order the return of the firearm or other deadly weapon to the owner or person who had lawful possession, that person may petition the court for a second hearing within 12 months from the date of the initial hearing. If the owner or person who had lawful possession does not petition the court within this 12-month period for a second hearing or is unsuccessful at the second hearing in gaining return of the firearm or other deadly weapon, the firearm or other deadly weapon may be disposed of as provided in Section 12028.

(j) The law enforcement agency, or the individual law enforcement officer, shall not be liable for any act in the good faith exercise of this section.

SEC. 7. Notwithstanding subdivision (f) of Section 12076 of the Penal Code, the sum of two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) is hereby appropriated from the Dealers' Record of Sale Special Account to the Department of Justice, as follows:

(a) One hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) to modify the restraining order system to comply with the requirements of Section 6380 of the Family Code, as added by this act.

(b) One hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) to reimburse agencies entering the restraining order system during 1995.

SEC. 8. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 873

An act to amend Sections 273.6 and 12022.7 of, and to add Section 273.55 to, the Penal Code, relating to domestic violence.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 273.55 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

273.55. Any person convicted of violating Section 273.5, for acts occurring within seven years of a previous conviction under subdivision (d) of Section 243, or under Section 243.4, 244, 244.5, 245, or 273.5, if the victim of the prior offense is a person designated under subdivision (a) of Section 273.5, shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year, or by imprisonment in the state prison for two, four, or five years, or by both imprisonment and a fine of up to ten thousand dollars ($10,000). If probation is granted or the execution or imposition of a sentence is suspended for any person sentenced under this section, Section 273.56 shall apply.

SEC. 2. Section 273.6 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

273.6. (a) Any willful and knowing violation of a protective order, as defined in Section 6218 of the Family Code, or of an order issued pursuant to Section 527.6 of the Code of Civil Procedure is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year, or by both the fine and imprisonment.

(b) In the event of a violation of subdivision (a) which results in physical injury, the person shall be punished by a fine of not more than two thousand dollars ($2,000), or by imprisonment in a county jail for not less than 30 days nor more than one year, or by both the fine and imprisonment. However, if the person is imprisoned in a county jail for at least 48 hours, the court may, in the interests of justice and for reasons stated on the record, reduce or eliminate the 30-day minimum imprisonment required by this subdivision. In determining whether to reduce or eliminate the minimum imprisonment pursuant to this subdivision, the court shall consider the seriousness of the facts before the court, whether there are additional allegations of a violation of the order during the pendency of the case before the court, the probability of future violations, the safety of the victim, and whether the defendant has successfully completed or is making progress with counseling.

(c) Subdivisions (a) and (b) shall apply to the following court orders:

(1) An order enjoining any party from molesting, attacking, striking, threatening, sexually assaulting, battering, harassing, contacting repeatedly by mail with the intent to harass, or disturbing the peace of the other party, or other named family and household members.

(2) An order excluding one party from the family dwelling or from the dwelling of the other.

(3) An order enjoining a party from specified behavior which the court determined was necessary to effectuate the order under subdivision (a).

(d) A subsequent conviction for a violation of an order described in subdivision (a), occurring within seven years of a prior conviction for a violation of an order described in subdivision (a) and involving an act of violence or "a credible threat" of violence, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 139, is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not to exceed one year, or in the state prison.

(e) In the event of a subsequent conviction for a violation of an order described in subdivision (a) for an act occurring within one year of a prior conviction for a violation of an order described in subdivision (a) which results in physical injury to the same victim, the person shall be punished by a fine of not more than two thousand dollars ($2,000), or by imprisonment in a county jail for not less than six months nor more than one year, by both that fine and imprisonment, or by imprisonment in the state prison. However, if the person is imprisoned in a county jail for at least 30 days, the court may, in the interests of justice and for reasons stated in the record, reduce or eliminate the six-month minimum imprisonment required by this subdivision. In determining whether to reduce or eliminate the minimum imprisonment pursuant to this subdivision, the court shall consider the seriousness of the facts before the court, whether there are additional allegations of a violation of the order during the pendency of the case before the court, the probability of future violations, the safety of the victim, and whether the defendant has successfully completed or is making progress with counseling.

(f) The prosecuting agency of each county shall have the primary responsibility for the enforcement of orders issued pursuant to subdivisions (a), (b), (d), and (e).

(g) The court may order a person convicted under this section to undergo counseling, and, if appropriate, to complete a batterer's treatment program.

(h) If probation is granted upon conviction of a violation of subdivision (a), (b), or (c), the conditions of probation may include, in lieu of a fine, one or both of the following requirements:

(1) That the defendant make payments to a battered women's shelter, up to a maximum of one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(2) That the defendant reimburse the victim for reasonable costs of counseling and other reasonable expenses that the court finds are the direct result of the defendant's offense.

(i) For any order to pay a fine, make payments to a battered women's shelter, or pay restitution as a condition of probation under subdivision (e), the court shall make a determination of the defendant's ability to pay. In no event shall any order to make payments to a battered women's shelter be made if it would impair the ability of the defendant to pay direct restitution to the victim or court-ordered child support. Where the injury to a married person is caused in whole or in part by the criminal acts of his or her spouse in violation of this section, the community property may not be used to discharge the liability of the offending spouse for restitution to the injured spouse, required by Section 1203.04, or to a shelter for costs with regard to the injured spouse and dependents, required by this section, until all separate property of the offending spouse is exhausted.

SEC. 2.1. Section 273.6 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

273.6. (a) Any intentional and knowing violation of a protective order, as defined in Section 6218 of the Family Code, or of an order issued pursuant to Section 527.6 or 527.8 of the Code of Civil Procedure is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year, or by both the fine and imprisonment.

(b) In the event of a violation of subdivision (a) which results in physical injury, the person shall be punished by a fine of not more than two thousand dollars ($2,000), or by imprisonment in a county jail for not less than 30 days nor more than one year, or by both the fine and imprisonment. However, if the person is imprisoned in a county jail for at least 48 hours, the court may, in the interests of justice and for reasons stated on the record, reduce or eliminate the 30-day minimum imprisonment required by this subdivision. In determining whether to reduce or eliminate the minimum imprisonment pursuant to this subdivision, the court shall consider the seriousness of the facts before the court, whether there are additional allegations of a violation of the order during the pendency of the case before the court, the probability of future violations, the safety of the victim, and whether the defendant has successfully completed or is making progress with counseling.

(c) Subdivisions (a) and (b) shall apply to the following court orders:

(1) An order enjoining any party from molesting, attacking, striking, threatening, sexually assaulting, battering, harassing, contacting repeatedly by mail with the intent to harass, or disturbing the peace of the other party, or other named family and household members.

(2) An order excluding one party from the family dwelling or from the dwelling of the other.

(3) An order enjoining a party from specified behavior which the court determined was necessary to effectuate the order under subdivision (a).

(d) A subsequent conviction for a violation of an order described in subdivision (a), occurring within seven years of a prior conviction for a violation of an order described in subdivision (a) and involving an act of violence or "a credible threat" of violence, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 139, is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not to exceed one year, or in the state prison.

(e) In the event of a subsequent conviction for a violation of an order described in subdivision (a) for an act occurring within one year of a prior conviction for a violation of an order described in subdivision (a) which results in physical injury to the same victim, the person shall be punished by a fine of not more than two thousand dollars ($2,000), or by imprisonment in a county jail for not less than six months nor more than one year, by both that fine and imprisonment, or by imprisonment in the state prison. However, if the person is imprisoned in a county jail for at least 30 days, the court may, in the interests of justice and for reasons stated in the record, reduce or eliminate the six-month minimum imprisonment required by this subdivision. In determining whether to reduce or eliminate the minimum imprisonment pursuant to this subdivision, the court shall consider the seriousness of the facts before the court, whether there are additional allegations of a violation of the order during the pendency of the case before the court, the probability of future violations, the safety of the victim, and whether the defendant has successfully completed or is making progress with counseling.

(f) The prosecuting agency of each county shall have the primary responsibility for the enforcement of orders issued pursuant to subdivisions (a), (b), (d), and (e).

(g) The court may order a person convicted under this section to undergo counseling, and, if appropriate, to complete a batterer's treatment program.

(h) If probation is granted upon conviction of a violation of subdivision (a), (b), or (c), the conditions of probation may include, in lieu of a fine, one or both of the following requirements:

(1) That the defendant make payments to a battered women's shelter, up to a maximum of one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(2) That the defendant reimburse the victim for reasonable costs of counseling and other reasonable expenses that the court finds are the direct result of the defendant's offense.

(i) For any order to pay a fine, make payments to a battered women's shelter, or pay restitution as a condition of probation under subdivision (e), the court shall make a determination of the defendant's ability to pay. In no event shall any order to make payments to a battered women's shelter be made if it would impair the ability of the defendant to pay direct restitution to the victim or court ordered child support. Where the injury to a married person is caused in whole or in part by the criminal acts of his or her spouse in violation of this section, the community property may not be used to discharge the liability of the offending spouse for restitution to the injured spouse, required by Section 1203.04, or to a shelter for costs with regard to the injured spouse and dependents, required by this section, until all separate property of the offending spouse is exhausted.

SEC. 2.2. Section 273.6 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

273.6. (a) Any willful and knowing violation of a protective order, as defined in Section 6218 of the Family Code, or of an order issued pursuant to Section 527.6 of the Code of Civil Procedure is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year, or by both the fine and imprisonment.

(b) In the event of a violation of subdivision (a) which results in physical injury, the person shall be punished by a fine of not more than two thousand dollars ($2,000), or by imprisonment in a county jail for not less than 30 days nor more than one year, or by both the fine and imprisonment. However, if the person is imprisoned in a county jail for at least 48 hours, the court may, in the interests of justice and for reasons stated on the record, reduce or eliminate the 30-day minimum imprisonment required by this subdivision. In determining whether to reduce or eliminate the minimum imprisonment pursuant to this subdivision, the court shall consider the seriousness of the facts before the court, whether there are additional allegations of a violation of the order during the pendency of the case before the court, the probability of future violations, the safety of the victim, and whether the defendant has successfully completed or is making progress with counseling.

(c) Subdivisions (a) and (b) shall apply to the following court orders:

(1) An order enjoining any party from molesting, attacking, striking, threatening, sexually assaulting, battering, harassing, contacting repeatedly by mail with the intent to harass, or disturbing the peace of the other party, or other named family and household members.

(2) An order excluding one party from the family dwelling or from the dwelling of the other.

(3) An order enjoining a party from specified behavior which the court determined was necessary to effectuate the order under subdivision (a).

(d) A subsequent conviction for a violation of an order described in subdivision (a), occurring within seven years of a prior conviction for a violation of an order described in subdivision (a) and involving an act of violence or "a credible threat" of violence, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 139, is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not to exceed one year, or in the state prison.

(e) In the event of a subsequent conviction for a violation of an order described in subdivision (a) for an act occurring within one year of a prior conviction for a violation of an order described in subdivision (a) which results in physical injury to the same victim, the person shall be punished by a fine of not more than two thousand dollars ($2,000), or by imprisonment in a county jail for not less than six months nor more than one year, by both that fine and imprisonment, or by imprisonment in the state prison. However, if the person is imprisoned in a county jail for at least 30 days, the court may, in the interests of justice and for reasons stated in the record, reduce or eliminate the six-month minimum imprisonment required by this subdivision. In determining whether to reduce or eliminate the minimum imprisonment pursuant to this subdivision, the court shall consider the seriousness of the facts before the court, whether there are additional allegations of a violation of the order during the pendency of the case before the court, the probability of future violations, the safety of the victim, and whether the defendant has successfully completed or is making progress with counseling.

(f) The prosecuting agency of each county shall have the primary responsibility for the enforcement of orders issued pursuant to subdivisions (a), (b), (d), and (e).

(g) The court may order a person convicted under this section to undergo counseling, and, if appropriate, to complete a batterer's treatment program.

(h) If probation is granted upon conviction of a violation of subdivision (a), (b), or (c), the conditions of probation may include, in lieu of a fine, one or both of the following requirements:

(1) That the defendant make payments to a battered women's shelter, up to a maximum of five thousand dollars ($5,000), pursuant to Section 1203.097.

(2) That the defendant reimburse the victim for reasonable costs of counseling and other reasonable expenses that the court finds are the direct result of the defendant's offense.

(i) For any order to pay a fine, make payments to a battered women's shelter, or pay restitution as a condition of probation under subdivision (e), the court shall make a determination of the defendant's ability to pay. In no event shall any order to make payments to a battered women's shelter be made if it would impair the ability of the defendant to pay direct restitution to the victim or court ordered child support. Where the injury to a married person is caused in whole or in part by the criminal acts of his or her spouse in violation of this section, the community property may not be used to discharge the liability of the offending spouse for restitution to the injured spouse, required by Section 1203.04, or to a shelter for costs with regard to the injured spouse and dependents, required by this section, until all separate property of the offending spouse is exhausted.

SEC. 2.3. Section 273.6 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

273.6. (a) Any intentional and knowing violation of a protective order, as defined in Section 6218 of the Family Code, or of an order issued pursuant to Section 527.6 or 527.8 of the Code of Civil Procedure is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year, or by both the fine and imprisonment.

(b) In the event of a violation of subdivision (a) which results in physical injury, the person shall be punished by a fine of not more than two thousand dollars ($2,000), or by imprisonment in a county jail for not less than 30 days nor more than one year, or by both the fine and imprisonment. However, if the person is imprisoned in a county jail for at least 48 hours, the court may, in the interests of justice and for reasons stated on the record, reduce or eliminate the 30-day minimum imprisonment required by this subdivision. In determining whether to reduce or eliminate the minimum imprisonment pursuant to this subdivision, the court shall consider the seriousness of the facts before the court, whether there are additional allegations of a violation of the order during the pendency of the case before the court, the probability of future violations, the safety of the victim, and whether the defendant has successfully completed or is making progress with counseling.

(c) Subdivisions (a) and (b) shall apply to the following court orders:

(1) An order enjoining any party from molesting, attacking, striking, threatening, sexually assaulting, battering, harassing, contacting repeatedly by mail with the intent to harass, or disturbing the peace of the other party, or other named family and household members.

(2) An order excluding one party from the family dwelling or from the dwelling of the other.

(3) An order enjoining a party from specified behavior which the court determined was necessary to effectuate the order under subdivision (a).

(d) A subsequent conviction for a violation of an order described in subdivision (a), occurring within seven years of a prior conviction for a violation of an order described in subdivision (a) and involving an act of violence or "a credible threat" of violence, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 139, is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not to exceed one year, or in the state prison.

(e) In the event of a subsequent conviction for a violation of an order described in subdivision (a) for an act occurring within one year of a prior conviction for a violation of an order described in subdivision (a) which results in physical injury to the same victim, the person shall be punished by a fine of not more than two thousand dollars ($2,000), or by imprisonment in a county jail for not less than six months nor more than one year, by both that fine and imprisonment, or by imprisonment in the state prison. However, if the person is imprisoned in a county jail for at least 30 days, the court may, in the interests of justice and for reasons stated in the record, reduce or eliminate the six-month minimum imprisonment required by this subdivision. In determining whether to reduce or eliminate the minimum imprisonment pursuant to this subdivision, the court shall consider the seriousness of the facts before the court, whether there are additional allegations of a violation of the order during the pendency of the case before the court, the probability of future violations, the safety of the victim, and whether the defendant has successfully completed or is making progress with counseling.

(f) The prosecuting agency of each county shall have the primary responsibility for the enforcement of orders issued pursuant to subdivisions (a), (b), (d), and (e).

(g) The court may order a person convicted under this section to undergo counseling, and, if appropriate, to complete a batterer's treatment program.

(h) If probation is granted upon conviction of a violation of subdivision (a), (b), or (c), the conditions of probation may include, in lieu of a fine, one or both of the following requirements:

(1) That the defendant make payments to a battered women's shelter, up to a maximum of five thousand dollars ($5,000), pursuant to Section 1203.097.

(2) That the defendant reimburse the victim for reasonable costs of counseling and other reasonable expenses that the court finds are the direct result of the defendant's offense.

(i) For any order to pay a fine, make payments to a battered women's shelter, or pay restitution as a condition of probation under subdivision (e), the court shall make a determination of the defendant's ability to pay. In no event shall any order to make payments to a battered women's shelter be made if it would impair the ability of the defendant to pay direct restitution to the victim or court ordered child support. Where the injury to a married person is caused in whole or in part by the criminal acts of his or her spouse in violation of this section, the community property may not be used to discharge the liability of the offending spouse for restitution to the injured spouse, required by Section 1203.04, or to a shelter for costs with regard to the injured spouse and dependents, required by this section, until all separate property of the offending spouse is exhausted.

SEC. 3. Section 12022.7 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12022.7. (a) Any person who, with the intent to inflict the injury, personally inflicts great bodily injury on any person other than an accomplice in the commission or attempted commission of a felony shall, in addition and consecutive to the punishment prescribed for the felony or attempted felony of which he or she has been convicted, be punished by an additional term of three years, unless infliction of great bodily injury is an element of the offense of which he or she is convicted.

(b) Any person found to have inflicted great bodily injury pursuant to subdivision (a) which causes the victim to become comatose due to brain injury or to suffer paralysis, as defined in Section 12022.9, of a permanent nature, shall be punished by an additional and consecutive term of five years.

(c) Any person who, with the intent to inflict the injury, personally inflicts great bodily injury on another person who is 70 years of age or older other than an accomplice in the commission or attempted commission of a felony shall, in addition and consecutive to the punishment prescribed for the felony or attempted felony of which he or she has been convicted, be punished by an additional term of five years, unless infliction of great bodily injury is an element of the offense of which he or she is convicted.

(d) Any person who personally inflicts great bodily injury under circumstances involving domestic violence in the commission or attempted commission of a felony shall, in addition and consecutive to the punishment prescribed for the felony or attempted felony of which he or she has been convicted, be punished by an additional term of three, four, or five years. The court shall order imposition of the middle term unless there are circumstances in aggravation or mitigation. The court shall state its reasons for its enhancement choice on the record at the time of sentencing. As used in this section, "domestic violence" has the meaning provided in subdivision (b) of Section 13700.

(e) As used in this section, "great bodily injury" means a significant or substantial physical injury.

(f) This section shall not apply to murder or manslaughter or a violation of Section 451 or 452. The additional term provided in this section shall not be imposed unless the fact of great bodily injury is charged in the accusatory pleading and admitted or found to be true by the trier of fact.

(g) The court shall impose the additional terms of imprisonment under either subdivision (a), (b), or (c), but may not impose more than one of those terms for the same offense.

SEC. 4. The Legislature recommends that the Judicial Council revise Rule 421 of the California Rules of Court before June 1, 1995, to add provisions relating to circumstances in aggravation, as follows:

(a) Facts relating to the crime, whether or not charged or chargeable as enhancements, including the facts that:

(1) The crime involved great violence, great bodily harm, threat of great bodily harm, or other acts disclosing a high degree of cruelty, viciousness, or callousness.

(2) The defendant was armed with or used a weapon at the time of the commission of the crime.

(3) The victim was particularly vulnerable.

(4) The defendant induced others to participate in the commission of the crime or occupied a position of leadership or dominance of other participants in its commission.

(5) The defendant induced a minor to commit or assist in the commission of the crime.

(6) The defendant threatened witnesses, unlawfully prevented or dissuaded witnesses from testifying, suborned perjury, or in any other way illegally interfered with the judicial process.

(7) The defendant was convicted of other crimes for which consecutive sentences could have been imposed but for which concurrent sentences are being imposed.

(8) The manner in which the crime was carried out indicates planning, sophistication, or professionalism.

(9) The crime involved an attempted or actual taking or damage of great monetary value.

(10) The crime involved a large quantity of contraband.

(11) The defendant took advantage of a position of trust or confidence to commit the offense.

(12) There was a temporary restraining order, injunction, or other court order in effect, protecting the victim of the crime from the defendant.

(b) Facts relating to the defendant, including the facts that:

(1) The defendant has engaged in violent conduct which indicates a serious danger to society.

(2) The defendant's prior convictions as an adult or sustained petitions in juvenile delinquency proceedings are numerous or of increasing seriousness.

(3) The defendant has served a prior prison term.

(4) The defendant was on probation or parole when the crime was committed.

(5) The defendant's prior performance on probation or parole was unsatisfactory.

(6) The defendant was subject to a temporary restraining order which protected the victim of the crime from the defendant.

SEC. 5. (a) Section 2.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 273.6 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 68 of the First Extraordinary Session. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective, (2) each bill amends Section 273.6 of the Penal Code, (3) AB 93 of the First Extraordinary Session is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 68, in which case, Sections 2, 2.2, and 2.3 of this bill shall not become operative.

(b) Section 2.2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 273.6 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 93. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective, (2) each bill amends Section 273.6 of the Penal Code, (3) AB 68 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 93, in which case Sections 2, 2.1, and 2.3 of this bill shall not become operative.

(c) Section 2.3 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 273.6 of the Penal Code proposed by this bill, AB 68, and AB 93. It shall only become operative if (1) all three bills are enacted and become effective, (2) all three bills amend Section 273.6 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 68 and AB 93, in which case Sections 2, 2.1, and 2.2 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 874

An act to add Section 311.1 to the Penal Code, relating to child pornography.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 311.1 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

311.1. (a) Every person who knowingly sends or causes to be sent, or brings or causes to be brought, into this state for sale or distribution, or in this state possesses, prepares, publishes, produces, develops, duplicates, or prints, with intent to distribute or to exhibit to, or to exchange with, others, or who offers to distribute, distributes, or exhibits to, or exchanges with, others, any obscene matter, knowing that the matter depicts a person under the age of 18 years personally engaging in or personally simulating sexual conduct, as defined in Section 311.4, shall be punished either by imprisonment in the county jail for up to one year, by a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both the fine and imprisonment, or by imprisonment in the state prison, by a fine not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or by the fine and imprisonment.

(b) This section does not apply to the activities of law enforcement and prosecuting agencies in the investigation and prosecution of criminal offenses or to legitimate medical, scientific, or educational activities, or to lawful conduct between spouses.

(c) This section does not apply to matter which depicts a child under the age of 18, which child is legally emancipated, including lawful conduct between spouses when one or both are under the age of 18.

(d) It does not constitute a violation of this section for a telephone corporation, as defined by Section 234 of the Public Utilities Code, to carry or transmit messages described in this chapter or perform related activities in providing telephone services.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 875

An act to add Section 13000 to the Penal Code, relating to the Department of Justice.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13000 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

13000. (a) All statewide automated fingerprint identification systems shall be maintained by the Department of Justice. For purposes of this section, "automated fingerprint identification system" means electronic comparison of fingerprints to a data base of known persons.

(b) Any state agency is exempted from this section if the agency's director finds that the automated identification system needed to meet programmatic requirements is less costly than an identical system available through an interagency agreement with the Department of Justice, or is not provided by the Department of Justice.

(c) Information contained in these systems shall be released to state agencies only on a need-to-know basis pursuant to any of the following:

(1) Statutory authorization to the extent permitted by federal law.

(2) A court order or decision that requires release of the information.

(3) An interagency agreement with the Department of Justice to develop and operate a system.

(d) The department may charge a fee to be paid by the agency for the actual cost of supporting the service.

CHAPTER 876

An act to amend Section 13823.6 of, and to add Section 13885.15 to, the Penal Code, and to amend Section 1 of Chapter 561 of the Statutes of 1992, relating to sexual assaults of children.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13823.6 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

13823.6. The office may secure grants, donations, or other funding for the purpose of funding a statewide unit on sexual assault of children, to be known as the Special Unit on Child Exploitation and Assault, which shall be established and administered by the Department of Justice. The Department of Justice may cooperate with other law enforcement agencies to benefit from the expertise of those agencies in this area.

SEC. 2. Section 13885.15 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

13885.15. (a) The special agent teams established pursuant to Section 13885.1 shall also take a proactive role in the investigation and prosecution of preferential child molesters and sexual exploiters.

(b) For purposes of this section, "preferential child molester" means a person whose primary sex drive is directed toward children. A preferential child molester is distinguished from a situational child molester, who will use children sexually in times of stress because of a lack of impulse control or as a result of circumstances.

SEC. 3. Section 1 of Chapter 561 of the Statutes of 1992 is amended to read:

Section 1. (a) The Legislature finds and declares each of the following:

(1) Organized preferential child molesters and sexual exploiters with national and international connections operate in California.

(2) A preferential child molester and sexual exploiter is a person whose sexual preference is that of children.

(3) Runaways and disadvantaged children are targets for exploitation by preferential child molesters and sexual exploiters.

(4) The average preferential child molester and sexual exploiter molests 70 children in a lifetime.

(5) Organized preferential child molesters and sexual exploiters are a statewide problem and investigation of these organizations requires the ability of law enforcement to cross normal jurisdictional boundaries.

"Preferential child molester" is defined as a person whose primary sex drive is directed toward children. A preferential child molester is distinguished from a situational child molester, who will use children sexually in times of stress because of a lack of impulse control or as a result of circumstances.

(b) The Legislature further finds and declares that for various reasons, including lack of training, expertise, coordination, and priority, organized preferential child molesters and sexual exploiters are not investigated or prosecuted to the fullest extent possible by local and state law enforcement agencies.

(c) The Department of Justice shall create and administer a statewide unit to be known as the Special Unit on Child Exploitation and Assault, to take a proactive role in the investigation and prosecution of preferential child molesters and sexual exploiters.

SEC. 4. Section 2 of this bill, which adds Section 13885.15 to the Penal Code, shall become operative only if Senate Bill 12 of the 1993–94 First Extraordinary Session is chaptered and becomes effective on or before January 1, 1995, in which case Sections 1 and 3 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 877

An act to add Section 14201.5 to the Penal Code, relating to the Missing and Exploited Children's Recovery Network.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that the State of California accounts for 10 percent of the nation's kidnappings. It is widely recognized that there is a significantly higher chance of harm to those children who are abducted by a nonfamily member and that the safe return of a child most often occurs within the first 72 hours.

Furthermore, there is a substantial cost to the state when the search for a missing child is ongoing. Additionally, it is believed that the expeditious distribution of photographs and materials concerning a kidnapping would aid in the timely recovery of victims.

In recognizing that the swift dissemination of information regarding a missing child is crucial in the recovery of missing children, the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children has developed the Missing and Exploited Children Information Network. This network has the technology to provide law enforcement, volunteer groups, and the media with quick access to data and still video images of missing children that are vital in recovering missing children.

As the California clearinghouse for the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children, the Department of Justice should also have the capability to use this technology that could prove critical in the recovery of missing children.

SEC. 2. Section 14201.5 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

14201.5. (a) The Attorney General shall establish within the Department of Justice the Missing and Exploited Children's Recovery Network by July 31, 1995.

(b) This network shall consist of an automated computerized system that shall have the capability to electronically transmit to all state and local law enforcement agencies, and all cooperating news media services, either by facsimile or computer modem, a missing child poster that includes the name, personal description data, and picture of the missing child. The information contained in this poster shall include, but not be limited to, the child's date of birth, color of eyes and hair, sex, height, weight, race, the time and date he or she was reported missing, the reporting agency, including contact person at reporting agency if known, and any other data pertinent to the purpose of locating missing persons.

(c) The Department of Justice shall work in cooperation with the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children to develop and implement a network that can electronically interface with the National Missing and Exploited Children's Network.

(d) The Attorney General shall implement this network within existing Department of Justice resources.

CHAPTER 878

An act to add Section 269 to the Penal Code, relating to sex offenses.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 269 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

269. (a) Any person who commits any of the following acts upon a child who is under 14 years of age and 10 or more years younger than the person is guilty of aggravated sexual assault of a child:

(1) A violation of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 261.

(2) A violation of Section 264.1.

(3) Sodomy, in violation of Section 286, when committed by force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person.

(4) Oral copulation, in violation of Section 288a, when committed by force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person.

(5) A violation of subdivision (a) of Section 289.

(b) Any person who violates this section is guilty of a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for 15 years to life.

CHAPTER 879

An act to amend Sections 7508, 16649.80, 20215, 68504, 68543.5, 68543.7, and 71180.5 of, to add Sections 22754.16 and 22816.31 to, to add Chapter 11.5 (commencing with Section 75500) to Title 8 of, and to repeal Section 75110 of, the Government Code, relating to judges' retirement, and making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7508 of the Government Code is amended to read:

7508. A retired member of a state retirement system, other than the University of California Retirement System, the Judges' Retirement System, the Judges' Retirement System II, and the State Teachers' Retirement System, may, notwithstanding Section 9359.12, serve on a public board or commission and be entitled to receive for that service, per diem compensation for every day or portion thereof of actual attendance at meetings of the board or commission or any committee thereof, and necessary traveling expenses incurred in connection with the performance of his or her official duties, without loss or interruption of benefits provided by the system, so long as the service does not exceed a total of 50 meeting days.

This section shall not apply to service as a member of a board or commission the annual salary for which is prescribed by Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 11550) of Division 3 of Title 2.

SEC. 2. Section 16649.80 of the Government Code is amended to read:

16649.80. The definitions in this section shall govern the construction and interpretation of this chapter.

(a) "Investment" or "invest" means the commitment of funds or other assets to a business firm, including a loan or other extension of credit made to that firm, or security given for the other assets to that business enterprise, or the beneficial ownership or control of a share or interest in that business firm, or of a bond or other debt instrument issued by that business firm.

(b) "Business firm" means any foreign or domestic organization, association, corporation, partnership, venture, or other entity, its subsidiary, or affiliate which exists for profitmaking purposes or to otherwise secure economic advantage, other than a financial institution.

(c) "Financial institution" means any foreign or domestic bank, bank holding company, savings and loan association, or credit union, or any foreign or domestic insurance company, brokerage firm, securities firm, investment company, mortgage banking company, finance company, personal property broker, mortgage loan broker, or consumer credit company, or any affiliate or subsidiary thereof.

(d) "Business arrangements" means projects, ventures, undertakings, contractual relations, or other efforts requiring ongoing or periodic performance by either or both parties.

(e) "Discriminatory business practices" means business arrangements that are prohibited by Sections 16721 and 16721.5 of the Business and Professions Code.

(f) "State trust moneys" means funds administered by the Public Employees' Retirement Fund, the Legislators' Retirement Fund, the State Teachers' Retirement Fund, the Judges' Retirement Fund, the Judges' Retirement System II Fund, the Volunteer Firefighter Fund, the General Fund portion of the University of California Retirement Fund, and any funds invested pursuant to this part.

(g) "State trust fund" means the Public Employees' Retirement Fund, the Legislators' Retirement Fund, the State Teachers' Retirement Fund, the Judges' Retirement Fund, the Judges' Retirement System II Fund, the Volunteer Firefighter Fund, and any investment fund created by this part.

(h) "State moneys" means all money, bonds, and securities in possession of or collected by any state agency.

(i) "Compliance with the Arab League's economic boycott of Israel" means taking any action, with respect to the boycott of Israel by Arab countries, which is prohibited by the United States Export Administration Act of 1979.

SEC. 3. Section 20215 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20215. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the board may establish a program utilizing the retirement fund to assist system members, through financing, to obtain homes in this state.

For the purpose of this section, the term "member" means any person who is receiving, or is entitled to receive, a retirement allowance funded by this system, the Legislators' Retirement System, the Judges' Retirement System, or the Judges' Retirement System II, notwithstanding any vesting requirement and without regard to present eligibility to retire.

The board shall adopt regulations governing the program which shall, among other things, provide:

(a) That home loans be made available to members for the purchase of single-family dwellings, two-family dwellings, three-family dwellings, four-family dwellings, single-family cooperative apartments, and single-family condominiums.

(b) That private lending institutions in this state shall originate and service its home loans pursuant to agreements entered into between those institutions and the board.

(c) That the recipients of the loans occupy the homes as their permanent residences in accord with rules and regulations established by the board.

(d) That its home loans shall be available only for the purchase or refinancing of homes in this state and that under no condition shall a member have more than one outstanding loan.

(e) That the amount and length of the loans shall be pursuant to a schedule periodically established by the board which shall provide a loan-to-value ratio of: (1) for the first loan, except for three-family dwellings and four-family dwellings, a maximum of 95 percent of the first loan; (2) for the first loan on three-family dwellings and four-family dwellings, a maximum of 90 percent of the first loan; and (3) for each additional loan, a maximum of 80 percent of each additional loan. The portion of any loan exceeding 80 percent of value shall be insured by an admitted mortgage guaranty insurer conforming to Chapter 2A (commencing with Section 12640.01) of Part 6 of Division 2 of the Insurance Code, in an amount so that the unguaranteed portion of the loan does not exceed 75 percent of the market value of the property together with improvements thereon.

(f) That there may be prepayment penalties assessed on its loans in accordance with rules and regulations established by the board.

(g) That the criteria and terms for its loans shall provide the greatest benefit to members consistent with the financial integrity of the program and the sound investment of the retirement fund.

(h) Any other terms and conditions as the board shall deem appropriate.

(i) This section shall be known as, and may be cited as, the Dave Elder Public Employees' Retirement System Member Home Loan Program Act.

SEC. 4. Section 22754.16 is added to the Government Code, to read:

22754.16. Notwithstanding Section 22754, the term "annuitant" includes any person who receives the benefits provided by subdivision (e) of Section 75522 and the term "family member" includes a person who is the survivor of a judge and is eligible for benefits under the Judges' Retirement System II.

SEC. 5. Section 22816.31 is added to the Government Code, to read:

22816.31. Any judge who retires under the Judges' Retirement System II, pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 75522, and who has not attained the age of 65 years shall be entitled to have his or her coverage and the coverage of any family members continued upon assuming payment of the contributions otherwise required of the employer on account of his or her enrollment. Any election to continue coverage under this section shall be made within 60 days of permanent separation. The judge shall also pay an additional 2 percent of the contribution payments required to be paid by the judge to cover the administrative costs incurred by the system in administering the program provided by this section. A retired judge who cancels that coverage may not reenroll. Upon attaining the age of 65 years a retired judge who has participated in this program and has continuous and uninterrupted coverage shall be entitled to the applicable employer contribution.

SEC. 6. Section 68504 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68504. Upon receiving information of the death, removal, or resignation of any justice of the Supreme Court or of the courts of appeal, or a judge of the superior court, the Secretary of the Judicial Council shall immediately give the Controller, the Judges' Retirement System, and the Judges' Retirement System II written notice of such death, removal, or resignation.

SEC. 7. Section 68543.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68543.5. (a) Whenever a judge retired as such under the Judges' Retirement Law or the Judges' Retirement System II is assigned to serve in a trial court, the state shall pay the judge for each day of service in the court in the amount specified in Section 68543.7, without loss or interruption of retirement benefits, unless the judge waives compensation under this section. Whenever a retired judge of a justice court who is not under the Judges' Retirement Law or the Judges' Retirement System II is assigned to serve in a trial court the state shall pay the judge for each day of service in the court in the amount specified in Section 68543.7, or the compensation specified in Section 68541, whichever is greater. The compensation shall be paid by the Judicial Council out of any appropriation for extra compensation of judges assigned by the Chairperson of the Judicial Council.

If a judge retired as such under the Judges' Retirement Law is assigned to serve in a trial court, the 8-percent difference between the compensation of the retired judge while so assigned and the compensation of a judge of the court to which assigned shall be paid to the Judges' Retirement Fund.

During the period of assignment, a retired judge shall be allowed expenses for travel, board, and lodging incurred in the discharge of the assignment. When assigned to sit in the county in which he or she resides, the judge shall be allowed expenses for travel, and board incurred in the discharge of the assignment. The expenses for travel, board, and lodging shall be paid by the state under the rules adopted by the Board of Control which are applicable to officers of the state provided for in Article VI of the Constitution while traveling on official state business.

Notwithstanding the above provisions pertaining to compensation, a retired judge on senior judge status shall receive compensation from the state as provided in Sections 75028 and 75028.2, and shall be allowed expenses for travel, board, and lodging incurred in the discharge of the assignment as provided in this section.

(b) Whenever a judge retired as such under the Judges' Retirement Law or the Judges' Retirement System II is assigned to sit in a court of appeal or the Supreme Court, he or she shall be compensated while so sitting at a rate equal to 92 percent of the full compensation of a judge of the court to which he or she is assigned unless the judge waives compensation under this section. A retired judge of a justice court who is not under the Judges' Retirement Law or the Judges' Retirement System II and who is assigned to sit in a court of appeal or the Supreme Court shall be compensated while so sitting at the full compensation of a judge of the court to which he or she is assigned, or the compensation specified in Section 68541, whichever is greater. The compensation shall be chargeable for the period specified in Section 68547 the same as provided by law with respect to the compensation of a judge of the court to which he or she is assigned and the compensation is payable out of any appropriation for extra compensation of judges assigned by the Chairperson of the Judicial Council.

If the compensation is greater than the judge's retirement allowance, the state shall pay the judge the difference between the compensation and the retirement allowance. The state shall reimburse the Judges' Retirement Fund or the Judges' Retirement System II for the retirement allowance paid to the judge while sitting on assignment, except that if no allowance has been paid because the judge has taken deferred retirement, no reimbursement shall be paid to the Judges' Retirement System or the Judges' Retirement System II.

If the compensation would be less than his or her retirement allowance, the retirement allowance shall continue to be paid in lieu of the compensation. The state shall reimburse the Judges' Retirement Fund or the Judges' Retirement System II Fund in the amount of the compensation which would otherwise have been paid to the judge while sitting on assignment.

If a judge retired under the Judges' Retirement Law or the Judges' Retirement System II is assigned to sit in a court of appeal or the Supreme Court, the 8-percent difference between the compensation of the retired judge while so assigned and the compensation of a judge of the court to which assigned shall be paid to the Judges' Retirement Fund or the Judges' Retirement System II Fund.

During the period of assignment, a retired judge shall be allowed expenses for travel, board, and lodging incurred in the discharge of the assignment. When assigned to sit in the county in which he or she resides, the judge shall be allowed expenses for travel, and board incurred in the discharge of the assignment. The expenses for travel, board, and lodging shall be paid by the state under the rules adopted by the State Board of Control which are applicable to officers of the state provided for in Article VI of the Constitution while traveling on official state business.

Notwithstanding the above provisions pertaining to compensation, a retired judge on senior judge status shall receive compensation from the state as provided in Sections 75028 and 75028.2, and shall be allowed expenses for travel, board, and lodging incurred in the discharge of the assignment as provided in this section.

SEC. 8. Section 68543.7 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68543.7. Subject to funding in the Budget Act, the Chief Justice shall make available by assignment the equivalent of 50 additional full-time judges. A judge retired under the Judges' Retirement System or the Judges' Retirement System II sitting on assignment in a trial court shall be paid in the amount of 92 percent of 1/250th of the annual salary of a judge of the court to which he or she is assigned for each day of service in the court.

SEC. 9. Section 71180.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

71180.5. Upon the appointment, election, death, removal, or resignation of a judge of a municipal or justice court, the clerk or administrator of that municipal or justice court shall immediately give the Judges' Retirement System or the Judges' Retirement System II written notice thereof.

SEC. 10. Section 75110 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 11. Chapter 11.5 (commencing with Section 75500) is added to Title 8 of the Government Code, to read:

CHAPTER 11.5. JUDGES' RETIREMENT SYSTEM II

Article 1. General Provisions

75500. (a) This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Judges' Retirement System II Law.

(b) Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 75000) shall not apply to this chapter and shall not apply to judges, as defined in Section 75502.

75501. Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions and general provisions set forth in this article govern the construction of this chapter.

75502. (a) "Judge" means a justice of the Supreme Court or of a court of appeal, or a judge of a superior court, municipal court, or justice court who is first elected or appointed to judicial office on or after November 9, 1994, and is not a member of the Judges' Retirement System pursuant to Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 75000). A retired judge does not acquire status as a judge for the purposes of this chapter by reason of designation as a temporary judge of, or assignment by the Chairperson of the Judicial Council to, any of these courts.

A former member of the Judges' Retirement System under Section 75002 who withdrew his or her contributions upon leaving office, and who takes judicial office on or after November 9, 1994, becomes a member of the system existing under Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 75000) and does not become a member of the Judges' Retirement System II. No person shall be a member of the Judges' Retirement System II who is or ever has been a member of the Judges' Retirement System pursuant to Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 75000).

(b) "System" means the Judges' Retirement System II established by this chapter.

(c) "Service" means the period of time a judge received a salary and made contributions to the system by reason of holding office as a judge of any one or more of the courts of this state specified in subdivision (a), computed in years and fractions of years.

(d) "Final compensation" means the average monthly salary of a judge during the 12 months immediately preceding his or her retirement from or otherwise leaving judicial office.

(e) "Benefit factor" means the percentage used in calculating a judge's monthly retirement allowance under Section 75522.

(f) "Contributions" means the accumulated deductions from the judge's salary under Sections 75601 and 75602. References to payment to a judge of his or her contributions or to the determination of a judge's and spouse's shares in the contributions include both the contributions and interest thereon at the rates determined by the Board of Administration of the Public Employees' Retirement System.

(g) "Salary" means the compensation received by a judge as the emolument of the office of judge, but does not include any additional compensation received by reason of designation as a temporary judge or assignment by the Chairperson of the Judicial Council.

(h) "Board" means the Board of Administration of the Public Employees' Retirement System.

(i) "Fund" or "retirement fund" means the Judges' Retirement System II Fund established pursuant to Section 75600.

75505. (a) This chapter shall be administered and governed pursuant to the Public Employees' Retirement Law to the same extent and with the same effect as if those provisions are contained in this chapter, except for those provisions that provide for the payment of an allowance or other benefit and except for those provisions that conflict with any provision of this chapter.

(b) All payments from the Judges' Retirement System II Fund shall be made upon warrants drawn by the Controller upon demands by the Board of Administration of the Public Employees' Retirement System.

75506. The board shall, annually, send each judge a member statement which shall include information regarding accrued service credit, accrued monetary credits, retirement eligibility dates, and other pertinent information.

75507. Any allowance payable to a retired judge or to a surviving spouse or to an eligible surviving child that has accrued and remained unpaid at the time of the death of the judge or the death of a surviving spouse or surviving child, or any unclaimed warrant issued prior to the date of death and returned to the board, shall be paid to one of the following:

(a) The survivor entitled to an allowance payable by the board.

(b) The beneficiary designated by the surviving spouse, eligible surviving child, or retired judge if there is no eligible survivor.

(c) The estate of the deceased, if there is no one entitled to payment under subdivision (a) or (b).

75508. The surviving spouse or eligible surviving child of a deceased judge who is receiving a monthly allowance from the system, or a retired judge, if there is no spouse or eligible child, may designate a beneficiary to receive the pro rata allowance remaining payable in the month of his or her death. The designation may be made, changed, or revoked at any time, and shall be in writing and filed with the system.

Article 2. Early Retirement and Normal Retirement

75520. (a) A judge shall, monthly, accrue monetary credits equal to 18 percent of the judge's monthly salary.

(b) To the total monetary credits in each judge's account, an additional amount shall be credited monthly at a rate equal to the annual net earnings rate achieved by the Judges' Retirement System II Fund on its investments of moneys in the Judges' Retirement System II Fund during the preceding fiscal year.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) and (b), no monetary credit under subdivision (a) shall be accrued for service during a term of office that commences after the judge has attained 70 years of age.

75521. (a) A judge who leaves judicial office before accruing at least five years of service shall be paid the amount of his or her contributions to the system, and no other amount.

(b) A judge who leaves judicial office after accruing five or more years of service and who is not eligible to elect to retire under Section 75522 shall be paid the amount of his or her monetary credits determined pursuant to Section 75520, including the credits added under subdivision (b) of that section computed to the last day of the month preceding the date of distribution, and no other amount.

(c) Judges who leave office as described in subdivision (b) are "retired judges" for purposes of assignment pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 66540) of Chapter 2 of this division.

(d) After a judge has withdrawn his or her accumulated contributions or the amount of his or her monetary credits upon leaving judicial office, the service shall not count in the event he or she later becomes a judge again, until he or she pays into the Judges' Retirement System II Fund the amount withdrawn, plus interest thereon at the rate of interest then being required to be paid by members of the Public Employees' Retirement System under Section 20654 from the date of withdrawal to the date of payment.

75522. (a) A judge is eligible to retire pursuant to this section upon attaining both 65 years of age and 20 or more years of service, or upon attaining 70 years of age with a minimum of five years of service.

(b) The office of a judge who retires under this section becomes vacant on the date of the retirement.

(c) A judge who retires pursuant to this section shall, within 30 days after the effective date of the retirement, elect to receive either the benefits provided by subdivision (d) or the benefits provided by subdivision (e). Under rules adopted by the board, the time for the election may be extended in cases of illness or other hardship, but once made, the election shall be final and irrevocable.

(d) The judge may elect to receive for life a monthly retirement allowance equal to the benefit factor multiplied by the judge's final compensation multiplied by the number of years of service credit.

(1) The benefit factor for a judge eligible to retire pursuant to this section equals 3.75 percent per year of service.

(2) The retirement allowance of a judge who does not retire prior to the commencement of the term of office after the term during which he or she attains 70 years of age shall not exceed 50 percent of the judge's final compensation. This paragraph shall be made applicable only to the extent that it is not in violation of federal law.

(3) In no event shall the retirement allowance at the time of retirement exceed 75 percent of the judge's final compensation.

(e) The judge may elect to receive the amount of his or her monetary credits determined pursuant to Section 75520, including the credits added under subdivision (b) of that section computed to the last day of the month preceding the date of distribution. Under rules adopted by the board, the judge may elect to receive that amount in a single payment, or may direct that it be paid in an annuity of actuarially equivalent value for the judge's life or in one of the optional forms provided for in Section 75571.

(f) If a retired judge fails or refuses to make an election pursuant to subdivision (c) within the time allowed, he or she shall be deemed to have elected to receive a monthly retirement allowance under subdivision (d).

75523. (a) The retirement allowance of retired judges who have elected to receive a monthly allowance under subdivision (d) of Section 75522 shall be adjusted effective in January of each year after a judge has been retired under this chapter for more than six months, to reflect any increase in the cost of living occurring after January 1 of the immediately preceding fiscal year. The United States city average of the "Consumer Price Index for all Urban Consumers," as published by the United States Bureau of Statistics, shall be used as the basis for determining changes in the cost of living.

(b) No adjustment shall be made unless the cost-of-living increase equals or exceeds 1 percent. The allowance shall not be increased more than 3 percent in a single year. Increases shall be compounded.

(c) The allowance shall not be decreased as a result of the cost-of-living adjustment.

(d) The board shall provide, by rule, any details needed for the implementation of this section.

75524. Any designation as a temporary judge or any assignment by the Chairperson of the Judicial Council shall be disregarded for purposes of this chapter. For the purposes of this chapter, no person shall acquire status as a judge, nor shall any person's status as a judge be affected, by that designation or assignment.

75525. Retired judges, and beneficiaries, who are entitled to receive allowances under this chapter, may authorize deductions to be made from their retirement allowance payments, in accordance with regulations established by the board for payment of group life insurance premiums for a group life insurance plan approved by the Director of Finance.

75526. A judge who pleads guilty or no contest or is found guilty of a crime committed while holding judicial office that is punishable as a felony under California or federal law and which either involves moral turpitude under that law or was committed in the course and scope of performing the judge's duties, and the conviction becomes final shall not receive any benefits from the system, except that the amount of his or her contributions to the system shall be paid to him or her by the system.

75527. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the benefits payable to any person shall be subject to the limitations set forth in the Internal Revenue Code.

Article 3. Community Property

75550. In this article, unless the context indicates otherwise:

(a) "Member" means a judge as defined in Section 75502.

(b) "Nonmember" means the spouse or former spouse of a member, who as a result of petitioning the court for the division of community property has been awarded a distinct and separate account reflecting specific monetary credits, specific credited service, and accumulated contributions.

(c) "Court" means the court with jurisdiction over the marriage.

75551. (a) If a member's marriage is dissolved or a member and his or her spouse are legally separated while the member is an active judge, the court shall make the following determinations:

(1) The number of years of service that accrued during the marriage of the member and nonmember, down to the date of their separation.

(2) The date of the parties' separation.

(3) If the member had been a judge for fewer than five years on the date of separation, the court shall determine the member's and nonmember's shares of the judge's contributions to the fund, based on Section 2610 of the Family Code, and on the law generally applicable to property earned during marriage.

(4) If the member had been a judge for five years or more on the date of separation, the court shall determine the member's and nonmember's shares of the judge's monetary credits that have accrued pursuant to Section 75520, based on Section 2610 of the Family Code, and on the law generally applicable to property earned during marriage. The monetary credits include the credits computed pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 75520 computed to the date the court finds appropriate.

(b) The determinations made pursuant to paragraphs (1) and (2) and pursuant to paragraph (3) or (4) of subdivision (a) shall be included in the judgment of dissolution or separation. The system shall deem any portion of the judge's contributions or of the judge's monetary credits that were not allocated by the judgment to the nonmember, to be allocated to the member.

(c) Promptly after receiving a certified copy of a judgment dissolving the marriage of a member or legally separating a member and nonmember and allocating shares of the member's contributions pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (a), the fund shall pay to the nonmember the amount allocated to him or her in the judgment. The nonmember shall have no further interest in the fund.

(d) Promptly after receiving a certified copy of a judgment dissolving the marriage of a member or legally separating a member and nonmember and allocating shares of the member's monetary credits pursuant to paragraph (4) of subdivision (a), the fund shall pay to the nonmember the amount allocated to him or her in the judgment. The nonmember shall have no further interest in the fund.

(e) The amount of the payment pursuant to subdivision (c) or (d) shall be subtracted from the member's monetary credits as computed pursuant to Section 75520. Until the amount is redeposited pursuant to Section 75552, the additional credits accorded pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 75520 shall be computed on the amount so reduced.

75552. (a) After payment of a portion of the member's contributions to a nonmember pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 75551, the member may redeposit the full amount in the fund at any time before he or she retires or otherwise leaves judicial office. The redeposit shall include interest at the rate of interest then being required to be paid by members of the Public Employees' Retirement System under Section 20654 from the date of payment to the date of redeposit. A partial redeposit shall not be accepted.

(b) After payment of a portion of the member's monetary credits to a nonmember pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 75551, the member may redeposit the full amount in the fund at any time before he or she retires or otherwise leaves judicial office. The redeposit shall include interest at the greater of: (1) the rate of interest then being required to be paid by members of the Public Employees' Retirement System under Section 20654 from the date of payment to the date of redeposit; or (2) the compounded amounts that would have been credited to the member's monetary account pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 75520 had the payment not been made to the nonmember. A partial redeposit shall not be accepted.

75553. (a) If a member leaves judicial office after a nonmember has received a share of the member's contributions or a share of the member's monetary credits pursuant to Section 75551, the member's retirement fund rights shall be determined pursuant to this section.

(b) If the member has redeposited the amount paid to the nonmember, with interest, pursuant to Section 75552, the payment to the nonmember shall be ignored and the member's rights shall be determined as though the payment to the nonmember had not occurred; and subdivisions (c), (d), and (e) shall not apply.

(c) If the member leaves judicial office before accruing at least five years of service, he or she shall be paid the dollar amount of his or her contributions to the system minus the amount paid to the nonmember, and no other amount.

(d) If the member leaves office after accruing five or more years of service and either: (1) elects, pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 75522, to receive the amount of his or her monetary credits; or (2) is entitled, pursuant to subdivision (b) or (c) of Section 75521 to receive only the amount of his or her monetary credits, the member shall be paid the amount of his or her monetary credits as provided in Section 75521 or subdivision (e) of Section 75522, reduced as provided in subdivision (d) of Section 75551.

(e) If the member is eligible for retirement pursuant to Section 75522 and elects, pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 75522, to receive a monthly allowance, the judge's monthly allowance shall equal the monthly allowance that would have been payable pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 75522 based on the judge's service and salary, multiplied by a fraction equal to:

$$\frac{\text{NMS}}{\text{S}} + \frac{50\% \text{ (MS)}}{\text{S}}$$

where:

"S"	=	the member's total service
"MS"	=	the member's service while married to the nonmember prior to their separation
"NMS"	=	the member's service while not married to the nonmember

(f) If, notwithstanding paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 75551, the judgment did not specify the number of years of service that accrued during the marriage or other necessary facts, the system may make its own determination in order to make the computation in subdivision (e).

Article 4. Disability Retirement

75560. No judge shall be eligible to be retired for disability unless the judge is credited with at least five years of judicial service or unless the disability is a result of injury or disease arising out of and in the course of judicial service.

75560.1. (a) Any judge who is unable to discharge efficiently the duties of his or her office by reason of mental or physical disability that is or is likely to become permanent may, with his or her consent and with the approval of the Chief Justice or Acting Chief Justice and the Commission on Judicial Performance, be retired from office. The consent of the judge shall be made on a written application to the Commission on Judicial Performance, signed by the judge or a family member or legal representative acting on the judge's behalf. The retirement shall be effective upon approval by the designated officers, except as provided in subdivision (b). A certificate evidencing the approval shall be filed with the Secretary of State. Upon the filing of the certificate, a successor shall be appointed to fill the vacancy.

(b) Any judge who dies after executing an application evidencing his or her consent that has been received in the office of the commission and before the approval of both of the designated officers has been obtained shall be deemed to have retired on the date of his or her death if the designated officers, prior to the filling of the vacancy created by the judge's death, file with the Secretary of State their certificate of approval.

(c) No retirement under this section may be approved unless a written statement by a physician or psychiatrist that he or she has personally examined the judge applying for retirement under this section and that he or she is of the opinion that the judge is unable to discharge efficiently the duties of the judge's office by reason of a mental or physical disability that is or is likely to become permanent is presented to the persons having the responsibility to approve or disapprove the retirement.

75560.3. (a) The Commission on Judicial Performance shall annually submit to the Governor and the Legislature a report on the incidence of ordered, requested, and granted disability retirements in the preceding fiscal year.

(b) The report shall include the following:

(1) The number of years the affected judges have served as a judge on the date of receipt of the application for disability retirement and on the effective date of the disability retirement.

(2) The age of the judge on the date of receipt of the application for disability retirement and on the effective date of his or her disability retirement.

(3) The physical or mental impairment that was the basis for the application by the judge for disability retirement, for the granted disability retirement, or for the ordered disability retirement, using the following categories to describe the impairment:

(A) Orthopedic.

(B) Psychological.

(C) Cardiovascular.

(D) Internal.

(E) Neurological.

(F) Other.

(4) Any other information deemed relevant by the Commission on Judicial Performance.

75560.4. (a) A judge who retires for disability shall receive a retirement allowance in an amount equal to the lower of the following:

(1) The benefit factor under subdivision (d) of Section 75522 multiplied by the judge's final compensation on the effective date of the disability retirement multiplied by the number of years of service the judge would have been credited if the judge's service had continued to the age the judge would have first been eligible to retire under subdivision (a) of Section 75522.

(2) Sixty-five percent of the judge's final compensation on the effective date of the disability retirement.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the retirement allowance of a judge who retires for disability shall equal 65 percent of the judge's final compensation on the effective date of the disability retirement regardless of the judge's age or length of service, if the Commission on Judicial Performance determines that the disability is predominantly a result of injury arising out of and in the course of judicial service

75560.6. The Commission on Judicial Performance, in its discretion, but not more often than once every two years, may require any judge who is receiving an allowance under this article and who is under the age of 65 years to undergo medical examination. The examination shall be made by one or more physicians and surgeons, appointed by the Commission on Judicial Performance, at the place of residence of the judge or other place mutually agreed upon. Upon the basis of the examination the commission shall determine whether he or she is still incapacitated, physically or mentally, for service as a judge. If the commission determines, on the basis of the results of the medical examination, that he or she is not so incapacitated, he or she shall be a judicial officer of the state, but shall not exercise any of the powers of the justice or judge except while under assignment to a court by the Chairperson of the Judicial Council. The allowance of the judge shall cease if he or she refuses an assignment while he or she is not so incapacitated. Section 68543.5 is applicable to the judge.

75562. A judge who applies for disability retirement and against whom there is pending a criminal charge of the commission of, or who has been convicted of, a felony under California or federal law, allegedly committed or committed while holding judicial office, prior to the approval of the application:

(a) Shall be presumed not to be disabled and this presumption is a presumption affecting the burden of proof.

(b) Shall, in a disability retirement proceeding before the commission, be subject to the standard of proof of clear and convincing evidence sufficient to sustain a claim to a reasonable certainty.

(c) Shall support the application with written statements described in subdivision (c) of Section 75560.1 from each of at least two physicians or two psychiatrists.

75563. A judge against whom there is pending a disciplinary proceeding that could lead to his or her removal from office or who has been removed from office for judicial misconduct, prior to the approval of his or her application for disability retirement:

(a) Shall be presumed not to be disabled and this presumption is a presumption affecting the burden of proof.

(b) Shall, in a disability retirement proceeding before the commission, be subject to the standard of proof of clear and convincing evidence sufficient to sustain a claim to a reasonable certainty.

(c) Shall support the application with written statements described in subdivision (c) of Section 75560.1 from each of at least two physicians or two psychiatrists.

75564. A member who is defeated at an election and who either had submitted, prior to the date of the election, an application for disability retirement or submits, on or after the date of the election, an application for disability retirement:

(a) Shall be presumed not to be disabled and this presumption is a presumption affecting the burden of proof.

(b) Shall, in a disability retirement proceeding before the commission, be subject to the standard of proof of clear and convincing evidence sufficient to sustain a claim to a reasonable certainty.

(c) Shall support the application with written statements described in subdivision (c) of Section 75560.1 from each of at least two physicians or two psychiatrists.

Article 5. Payment of Benefits

75570. (a) In lieu of the retirement allowance under subdivision (d) of Section 75522 for his or her life alone, a judge who elects to retire with a monthly allowance under subdivision (d) of Section 75522 may elect, or revoke or change a previous election prior to the approval of the previous election, to have the actuarial equivalent of his or her retirement allowance as of the date of retirement applied to a lesser retirement allowance, in accordance with one of the optional settlements specified in Section 75571.

(b) That election, revocation, or change of election shall be made by a writing filed with the system prior to the making of the first payment on account of any retirement allowance.

75571. (a) Optional settlement one consists of the right to have a retirement allowance paid him or her until his or her death and if he or she dies before he or she receives the amount of his or her accumulated contributions at retirement, to have the balance at death paid to his or her surviving spouse or estate.

(b) Optional settlement two consists of the right to have a retirement allowance paid him or her until his or her death and thereafter to his or her surviving spouse for life.

(c) Optional settlement three consists of the right to have a retirement allowance paid him or her until his or her death, and thereafter to have one-half of his or her retirement allowance paid to his or her surviving spouse for life.

(d) Optional settlement four consists of such other benefits as are the actuarial equivalent of his or her retirement allowance, that he or she may select subject to the approval of the board.

Article 6. Employment of Retired Judges

75580. (a) If, after retirement for disability, a retired judge engages in the practice of law or other gainful occupation while less than 70 years of age, the retirement allowance otherwise payable to him or her shall cease permanently, except as provided in this section. If a retired judge becomes entitled to any salary for assignment to a court by the Chairperson of the Judicial Council after retirement for disability, the retirement allowance otherwise payable shall, during the time he or she is entitled to receive that salary or other compensation, be reduced by the amount of that salary or compensation.

(b) A judge who is retired for disability and is less than 70 years of age may, without loss or reduction in allowance, engage in the practice of law or any other gainful occupation other than a public office as long as the compensation earned in any month when combined with the judge's allowance does not exceed 75 percent of the salary payable to the judge holding the judicial office to which the retired judge was last elected or appointed, and the retirement allowance otherwise payable to the judge shall be reduced by the amount of any earning in excess of that amount. The judge shall report the compensation earned during each month to the board by the eighth day of the following month.

(c) Persons affected by this section shall report all compensation earned in a form and manner required by the board under penalty of perjury. The board shall have the authority to require these persons to grant the board permission to request wage information for the purposes of verifying the reported compensation earned. The Employment Development Department shall report compensation in a form and manner required by the board in accordance with Section 1798.24 of the Civil Code. The board shall reimburse the Employment Development Department for the costs that the department incurs in searching for and providing that information.

(d) When a person affected by this section reaches 70 years of age, his or her retirement allowance shall be made equal to the amount it would be if not reduced pursuant to this section, and shall not again be modified for any cause.

(e) A judge who is retired for disability pursuant to this chapter or becomes entitled to any salary for assignment to a court by the Chairperson of the Judicial Council after retirement for disability pursuant to this chapter shall not be eligible to receive service credit in another public retirement system or pursuant to this chapter or to be reinstated to this system.

(f) The Legislature reserves the right to increase or reduce the benefits prescribed by this section as it may find appropriate.

75583. (a) Any judge retired pursuant to this chapter who is appointed by the Supreme Court or any court of appeal, or division thereof, to act as a master or referee in any proceeding pending before any such court or before the Commission on Judicial Performance, shall be paid while so acting, in addition to his or her retirement allowance (taken without reduction on account of any election pursuant to Article 6 (commencing with Section 75570)) the difference, if any, between the retirement allowance and the compensation of a judge of the court from which he or she retired.

(b) When appointed to act as referee in a county other than that in which he or she resides, he or she shall also be allowed his or her necessary expenses for travel, board, and lodging incurred in the discharge of that appointment.

(c) The extra compensation and expenses, if any, shall be chargeable to the state.

Article 7. Survivor and Insurance Benefits

75590. (a) A surviving spouse of a judge who was eligible to retire pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 75522 shall, within 90 days after the judge's death, elect to receive either of the following:

(1) A monthly retirement allowance equal to one-half of the judge's benefit factor computed as stated in subdivision (d) of Section 75522 as of the date of death, multiplied by the judge's final compensation multiplied by the number of years of service credit. This allowance shall be adjusted for changes in the cost of living as provided in Section 75523.

(2) The judge's monetary credits determined pursuant to Section 75520, including the credits added under subdivision (b) of that section computed to the last day of the month preceding the date of distribution.

(b) A surviving spouse of a retired judge who elected to receive a monthly allowance under subdivision (d) of Section 75522 shall receive a monthly allowance equal to 50 percent of the deceased judge's last monthly retirement allowance. This allowance shall be adjusted for changes in the cost of living as provided in Section 75523.

75591. (a) A surviving spouse of a judge who dies before becoming eligible to retire pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 75522 shall receive the greater of one of the following:

(1) The judge's monetary credits determined pursuant to Section 75520, including the credits added under subdivision (b) of that section computed to the last day of the month preceding the date of distribution.

(2) Three times the judge's annual salary at the time of his or her death. The amount shall be paid in equal monthly installments for a period of 36 months.

(b) If there is no surviving spouse, the greater of the amounts prescribed in subdivision (a) shall be paid to the surviving children of the judge; or if none, to the judge's designated beneficiary, or if none, to the judge's estate.

75592. Each judge shall receive the same group term life insurance benefits as is granted to other constitutional officers and state managerial employees. The Administrative Office of the Courts shall administer the insurance benefit.

Article 8. Fund

75600. There is in the State Treasury, subject to the control of the board, a trust fund known as the Judges' Retirement System II Fund. The fund shall receive all assets paid into it including, without limitation, judges' contributions made pursuant to Sections 75601 and 75602 and the state's contributions made pursuant to Section 75600.5. All retirement allowances payable by law to judges to whom this chapter is applicable shall be paid from that fund. Notwithstanding Section 13340, all moneys in the fund are continuously appropriated without regard to fiscal years, for payments which shall be made upon warrants drawn by the Controller upon demands made by the board.

75600.5. (a) The Controller shall at the end of each month ascertain the aggregate amount of the annual salaries of all judges covered by the Judges' Retirement System II, and out of the General Fund he or she shall transfer monthly into the Judges' Retirement System II Fund a sum equal to 18.8 percent of one-twelfth of the aggregate amount of those salaries.

(b) As of June 30 of the first year this chapter is in effect, and annually thereafter, the board shall make an actuarial investigation into the fund's experience, the ages of member judges, and other facts necessary to determine the actuarial soundness of the fund. Based on its investigation, the board shall determine the state contribution necessary to maintain or restore the actuarial soundness of the fund, stated as a percentage of judges' salaries.

(c) The state's contribution as fixed under this chapter shall be adjusted thereafter from time to time in the annual Budget Act according to the following method. As part of the proposed budget submitted pursuant to Section 12 of Article IV of the California Constitution, the Governor shall include the contribution rate submitted by the board pursuant to subdivision (b). The Legislature shall adopt the contribution rate and authorize the appropriation in the Budget Act.

75601. Except as provided in Section 75605, the Controller shall at the end of each month deduct 8 percent from the monthly salary of each justice of the Supreme Court and of the courts of appeal and of the portion paid by the state of the monthly salary of each judge of the superior court and shall cause this amount to be paid into the Judges' Retirement System II Fund.

75602. Except as provided in Section 75605, the Controller or the auditor of each county shall deduct 8 percent from the portion paid by a county, or the Controller and the auditor, if appropriate, of the monthly salary of each judge of the superior court, municipal court, and justice court and cause this amount to be paid into the Judges' Retirement System II Fund.

75603. The Legislature reserves the right to increase the rates of contribution prescribed by Sections 75601 and 75602 in the amounts as it may find appropriate.

75604. The Legislature reserves the right to reduce any benefits applicable to any person who becomes a judge who is subject to this chapter.

75605. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the state and the county may pick up, for the sole purpose of deferring income taxes thereon, as authorized by Section 414(h)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code (26 U.S.C.A. Sec. 414(h)(2)) and Section 17501 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, all of the normal contributions required to be deducted under Sections 75601 and 75602, inclusive, and paid into the Judges' Retirement System II Fund. The payments shall be reported as employer-paid normal contributions and shall be credited to the judge's account.

(b) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the authority of the state or the county to periodically eliminate the pickup by the state of all of the normal contributions required to be paid by a judge, as authorized by this section.

(c) This section shall not affect the computation of a judge's retirement allowance pursuant to this chapter.

75606. (a) A judge who has filed a declaration of candidacy for election or reelection to any judicial office may not withdraw his or her contributions under Section 75520 until after the election. If a judge is elected or reelected to a judicial office, he or she may not withdraw the contributions until sure time as the judge has declined to accept the office or has ceased to hold the office to which he or she has been elected.

(b) A judge who has been appointed, commissioned, or nominated to any judicial office of this state may not withdraw his or her contributions under Section 75520 until the judge has declined to serve or terminated his or her service in the latter office.

75607. The board may invest the money contained in the Judges' Retirement System II Fund in the same manner and subject to the same restrictions as investments of the Public Employees' Retirement Fund.

75608. The Treasurer is the custodian of the Judges' Retirement System II Fund. At the end of each month the board shall ascertain the written notices of voluntary retirement and the written certificates of involuntary retirement that have been filed with the Judges' Retirement System II and cause warrants to be drawn upon the State Treasury in favor of each retired judge for the amount of the retirement allowance to which he or she is entitled.

75609. A retired judge or the surviving spouse of a judge, entitled to receive an allowance pursuant to this chapter, may authorize deductions to be made from the allowance, in accordance with regulations established for the payment of group insurance premiums and other premiums provided for under Section 1157, as well as shares or obligations of any regularly chartered credit union.

75610. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, all expenses of administration of this article shall be paid by appropriation from the Judges' Retirement System II Fund.

75611. If the board determines that there has been an overpayment of contributions or that any amount not required to be paid under this chapter has been paid by a judge, the board shall refund the amount of the overpayment or excess payment to the judge. So much money as may be necessary is hereby appropriated from the Judges' Retirement System II Fund to the board for the purpose of making refunds pursuant to this section.

75612. (a) The board may assess a county a reasonable amount to cover costs incurred because of the county's failure to submit reports within 30 days of the date the reports are due. The payments of the assessments shall be credited to the Judges' Retirement System II Fund.

(b) The board may charge interest on the amount of any payment due and unpaid by a county until payment is received. Interest shall be charged at a rate approximating the average rate received on moneys then being invested. The interest charged shall be deemed interest earnings in the year in which received.

75613. (a) Whenever a person entitled to payment of a member's contributions or any other benefit fails to claim the payment or cannot be located or a warrant in payment is canceled pursuant to Section 17070, the amount owed from the Judges' Retirement System II Fund shall be administered pursuant to subdivision (c).

(b) Whenever the amount of a benefit payable by this program cannot be determined because the recipient cannot be identified or information necessary to determination of the benefit to be paid cannot be ascertained, the contributions of the member on whose account the benefit is payable shall be administered pursuant to subdivision (c).

(c) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the amounts described in subdivisions (a) and (b) shall be held, or if a warrant has been drawn the warrant shall be redeposited in the fund and held for the claimant without accumulation of interest, and the redeposit shall not operate to reinstate the membership of the person with respect to whose membership the refund or benefit was payable in this system. If the proceeds, whether heretofore or hereafter redeposited, are not claimed within four years after the date of the redeposit, they shall revert to and become a part of the fund. Transfer to the fund shall be made as of the June 30 next following the expiration of the four-year period.

(d) The board may at any time after transfer of proceeds to the fund upon receipt of proper information satisfactory to it, return the proceeds to the credit of the claimant, to be administered in the manner provided under this system.

SEC. 14. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this act that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

SEC. 15. No provision of this act, unless there is a court decision to the contrary, shall be construed to affect the constitutional authority of the Legislature respecting appropriations from the General Fund.

SEC. 16. This act shall become operative on November 9, 1994.

SEC. 17. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to decrease the growth of the unfunded liability of the Judges' Retirement System and for the second tier benefits structure contained in the Judges' Retirement System II to be implemented in a timely manner, this act must take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 880

An act to amend Section 1547 of the Penal Code, relating to rewards, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1547 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1547. (a) The Governor may offer a reward of not more than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), payable out of the General Fund, for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any of the following:

(1) Any convict who has escaped from a state prison, prison camp, prison farm, or the custody of any prison officer or employee or as provided in Section 3059 or 4530.

(2) Any person who has committed, or is charged with the commission of, an offense punishable by death.

(3) Any person engaged in the robbery or hijacking of, or any attempt to rob or hijack, any person upon or in charge of, in whole or in part, any public conveyance engaged at the time in carrying passengers within this state.

(4) Any person who kills, attempts to murder either in the first or second degree, assaults with a deadly weapon, or inflicts serious bodily harm upon a peace officer or firefighter who is acting in the line of duty.

(5) Any person who has committed a crime involving the burning or bombing of public or private property, including any public hospital housed in a privately owned facility.

(6) Any person who has committed a crime involving the burning or bombing of any private hospital. A reward may be offered by the Governor in conjunction with such a crime only if a reward in conjunction with the same crime is offered by the hospital, or any other public or private donor on its behalf. The amount of the reward offered by the Governor shall not exceed the aggregate amount offered privately, or fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), whichever is less. Nothing in this paragraph shall preclude a private hospital, or any public or private donor on its behalf, from offering a reward in an amount exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000). If a person providing information for a reward under this paragraph so requests, his or her name and address shall remain confidential. This confidentiality, however, shall not preclude or obstruct the investigations of law enforcement authorities.

(7) Any person who commits a violation of Section 11413.

(8) Any person who commits a violation of Section 207.

(9) Any person who has committed a crime involving the burning or bombing of any bookstore or public or private library not subject to Section 11413. A reward may be offered by the Governor in conjunction with such a crime only if a reward in conjunction with the same crime is offered by the bookstore or library, or any other public or private donor on its behalf. The amount of the reward offered by the Governor shall not exceed the aggregate amount offered privately, or fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), whichever is less. Nothing in this paragraph shall preclude a bookstore or public or private library, or any public or private donor on its behalf, from offering a reward in an amount exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000). If a person providing information for a reward under this paragraph so requests, his or her name and address shall remain confidential. This confidentiality, however, shall not preclude or obstruct the investigations of law enforcement authorities.

(10) Any person who commits a violation of Section 454 or 463.

(11) Any person who willfully and maliciously sets fire to, or who attempts to willfully and maliciously set fire to, any property that is included within a hazardous fire area designated by the State Board of Forestry pursuant to Section 4252 of the Public Resources Code or by the Director of Forestry and Fire Protection pursuant to Section 4253 of the Public Resources Code, if the fire, or attempt to set a fire, results in death or great bodily injury to anyone, including fire protection personnel, or if the fire causes substantial structural damage.

(b) The reward shall be paid to the person giving the information, immediately upon the conviction of the person so arrested.

(c) As used in this section, "hijacking" means an unauthorized person causing, or attempting to cause, by violence or threat of violence, a public conveyance to go to an unauthorized destination.

SEC. 2. Section 1547 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1547. (a) The Governor may offer a reward of not more than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), payable out of the General Fund, for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any of the following:

(1) Any convict who has escaped from a state prison, prison camp, prison farm, or the custody of any prison officer or employee or as provided in Section 3059 or 4530.

(2) Any person who has committed, or is charged with the commission of, an offense punishable by death.

(3) Any person engaged in the robbery or hijacking of, or any attempt to rob or hijack, any person upon or in charge of, in whole or in part, any public conveyance engaged at the time in carrying passengers within this state.

(4) Any person who attempts to murder either in the first or second degree, assaults with a deadly weapon, or inflicts serious bodily harm upon a peace officer or firefighter who is acting in the line of duty.

(5) Any person who has committed a crime involving the burning or bombing of public or private property, including any public hospital housed in a privately owned facility.

(6) Any person who has committed a crime involving the burning or bombing of any private hospital. A reward may be offered by the Governor in conjunction with such a crime only if a reward in conjunction with the same crime is offered by the hospital, or any other public or private donor on its behalf. The amount of the reward offered by the Governor shall not exceed the aggregate amount offered privately, or fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), whichever is less. Nothing in this paragraph shall preclude a private hospital, or any public or private donor on its behalf, from offering a reward in an amount exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000). If a person providing information for a reward under this paragraph so requests, his or her name and address shall remain confidential. This confidentiality, however, shall not preclude or obstruct the investigations of law enforcement authorities.

(7) Any person who commits a violation of Section 11413.

(8) Any person who commits a violation of Section 207.

(9) Any person who has committed a crime involving the burning or bombing of any bookstore or public or private library not subject to Section 11413. A reward may be offered by the Governor in conjunction with such a crime only if a reward in conjunction with the same crime is offered by the bookstore or library, or any other public or private donor on its behalf. The amount of the reward offered by the Governor shall not exceed the aggregate amount offered privately, or fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), whichever is less. Nothing in this paragraph shall preclude a bookstore or public or private library, or any public or private donor on its behalf, from offering a reward in an amount exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000). If a person providing information for a reward under this paragraph so requests, his or her name and address shall remain confidential. This confidentiality, however, shall not preclude or obstruct the investigations of law enforcement authorities.

(10) Any person who commits a violation of Section 454 or 463.

(11) Any person who willfully and maliciously sets fire to, or who attempts to willfully and maliciously set fire to, any property that is included within a hazardous fire area designated by the State Board of Forestry pursuant to Section 4252 of the Public Resources Code or by the Director of Forestry and Fire Protection pursuant to Section 4253 of the Public Resources Code, if the fire, or attempt to set a fire, results in death or great bodily injury to anyone, including fire protection personnel, or if the fire causes substantial structural damage.

(b) The Governor may offer a reward of not more than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any person who kills a peace officer or firefighter who is acting in the line of duty.

(c) The reward shall be paid to the person giving the information, immediately upon the conviction of the person so arrested.

(d) As used in this section, "hijacking" means an unauthorized person causing, or attempting to cause, by violence or threat of violence, a public conveyance to go to an unauthorized destination.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 1547 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and SB 43 (1st Ex. Sess.). It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective, (2) each bill amends Section 1547 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 43 (1st Ex. Sess.). In that case, one of the following alternatives shall apply:

(A) If this bill becomes operative before SB 43 (1st Ex. Sess.), Section 1 of this bill shall be operative until the operative date of SB 43 (1st Ex. Sess.), at which time Section 2 of this bill shall become operative and Section 1 of this bill shall become inoperative.

(B) If this bill becomes operative after SB 43 (1st Ex. Sess.), Section 1547 of the Penal Code, as amended by SB 43 (1st Ex. Sess.), shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 2 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 881

An act to amend Section 19581 of, and to add Section 19583 to the Business and Professions Code, relating to horseracing.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19531 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19531. The board shall make allocations of racing weeks, including simultaneous racing between zones, as it deems appropriate. The maximum number of racing weeks that may be allocated for horseracing other than at the California Exposition and State Fair, or county or district agricultural association fairs, shall be as follows:

(a) For thoroughbred racing: 44 weeks per year in the northern zone; 42 weeks per year in the central zone; and seven weeks per year in the southern zone.

(b) For harness racing: 25 weeks per year in the northern zone.

(c) For quarter horse racing: 25 weeks per year in the northern zone.

(d) For harness racing and quarter horse racing: a total of 77 weeks per year in the combined central and southern zones.

(e) In its written application for a license, an applicant shall state the time of day, consistent with Section 19571, during which it will conduct its racing meeting, and particularly the first race starting time for the various racing days. After receiving a license, a licensee shall not change the first race starting time without securing prior approval of the board.

(f) Notwithstanding this section or any other provision in this chapter, the board shall not allocate dates to a thoroughbred association in the central zone for the purpose of conducting racing during daytime hours if a thoroughbred racing association is conducting racing in the southern zone on the same date during daytime hours.

SEC. 2. Section 19583 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

19583. Every veterinarian who treats a horse within the inclosure shall, in writing, on a form prescribed by the board, report to the official veterinarian in a manner prescribed by him or her, the name of the horse treated, the name of the trainer of the horse, the time of treatment, any medication administered to the horse, and any other information requested by the official veterinarian.

CHAPTER 882

An act to amend Sections 1203.4 and 1203.45 of the Penal Code, and to amend Sections 903 and 903.3 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to minors.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203.4. (a) In any case in which a defendant has fulfilled the conditions of probation for the entire period of probation, or has been discharged prior to the termination of the period of probation, or in any other case in which a court, in its discretion and the interests of justice, determines that a defendant should be granted the relief available under this section, the defendant shall, at any time after the termination of the period of probation, if he or she is not then serving a sentence for any offense, on probation for any offense, or charged with the commission of any offense, be permitted by the court to withdraw his or her plea of guilty or plea of nolo contendere and enter a plea of not guilty; or, if he or she has been convicted after a plea of not guilty, the court shall set aside the verdict of guilty; and, in either case, the court shall thereupon dismiss the accusations or information against the defendant and except as noted below, he or she shall thereafter be released from all penalties and disabilities resulting from the offense of which he or she has been convicted, except as provided in Section 13555 of the Vehicle Code. The probationer shall be informed, in his or her probation papers, of this right and privilege and his or her right, if any, to petition for a certificate of rehabilitation and pardon. The probationer may make the application and change of plea in person or by attorney, or by the probation officer authorized in writing; however, in any subsequent prosecution of the defendant for any other offense, the prior conviction may be pleaded and proved and shall have the same effect as if probation had not been granted or the accusation or information dismissed. The order shall state, and the probationer shall be informed, that the order does not relieve him or her of the obligation to disclose the conviction in response to any direct question contained in any questionnaire or application for public office, for licensure by any state or local agency, or for contracting with the California State Lottery.

Dismissal of an accusation or information pursuant to this section does not permit a person to own, possess, or have in his or her custody or control any firearm capable of being concealed upon the person or prevent his or her conviction under Section 12021.

This subdivision shall apply to all applications for relief under this section which are filed on or after November 23, 1970.

(b) Subdivision (a) of this section does not apply to any misdemeanor which is within the provisions of subdivision (b) of Section 42001 of the Vehicle Code, or to any infraction.

(c) A person who petitions for a change of plea or setting aside of a verdict under this section may be required to reimburse the county for the actual cost of services rendered, whether or not the petition is granted and the records are sealed or expunged, at a rate to be determined by the county board of supervisors not to exceed one hundred twenty dollars ($120), and to reimburse any city for the actual cost of services rendered, whether or not the petition is granted and the records are sealed or expunged, at a rate to be determined by the city council not to exceed one hundred twenty dollars ($120). Ability to make this reimbursement shall be determined by the court using the standards set forth in paragraph (2) of subdivision (g) of Section 987.8 and shall not be a prerequisite to a person's eligibility under this section. The court may order reimbursement in any case in which the petitioner appears to have the ability to pay, without undue hardship, all or any portion of the cost for services established pursuant to this subdivision.

(d) No relief shall be granted under this section unless the prosecuting attorney has been given 15 days' notice of the petition for relief. The probation officer shall notify the prosecuting attorney when a petition is filed, pursuant to this section.

It shall be presumed that the prosecuting attorney has received notice if proof of service is filed with the court.

(e) If, after receiving notice pursuant to subdivision (d), the prosecuting attorney fails to appear and object to a petition for dismissal, the prosecuting attorney may not move to set aside or otherwise appeal the grant of that petition.

SEC. 1.5. Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203.4. (a) In any case in which a defendant has fulfilled the conditions of probation for the entire period of probation or has been discharged prior to the termination of the period of probation, or in any other case in which a court, in its discretion and the interests of justice, determines that a defendant should be granted the relief available under this section, the defendant shall, at any time after the termination of the period of probation, if he or she is not then serving a sentence for any offense, on probation for any offense, or charged with the commission of any offense, be permitted by the court to withdraw his or her plea of guilty or plea of nolo contendere and enter a plea of not guilty; or, if he or she has been convicted after a plea of not guilty, the court shall set aside the verdict of guilty; and, in either case, the court shall thereupon dismiss the accusations or information against the defendant, and except as noted below, he or she shall thereafter be released from all penalties and disabilities resulting from the offense of which he or she has been convicted, except as provided in Section 13555 of the Vehicle Code. The probationer shall be informed, in his or her probation papers, of this right and privilege and his or her right, if any, to petition for a certificate of rehabilitation and pardon. The probationer may make the application and change of plea in person or by attorney, or by the probation officer authorized in writing; however, in any subsequent prosecution of the defendant for any other offense, the prior conviction may be pleaded and proved and shall have the same effect as if probation had not been granted or the accusation or information dismissed. The order shall state, and the probationer shall be informed, that the order does not relieve him or her of the obligation to disclose the conviction in response to any direct question contained in any questionnaire or application for public office, for licensure by any state or local agency, or for contracting with the California State Lottery.

Dismissal of an accusation or information pursuant to this section does not permit a person to own, possess, or have in his or her custody or control any firearm capable of being concealed upon the person or prevent his or her conviction under Section 12021.

This subdivision shall apply to all applications for relief under this section which are filed on or after November 23, 1970.

(b) Subdivision (a) does not apply to any misdemeanor which is within the provisions of subdivision (b) of Section 42001 of the Vehicle Code, or to any infraction.

(c) A person who petitions for a change of plea or setting aside of a verdict under this section may be required to reimburse the county for the actual cost of services rendered, whether or not the petition is granted and the records are sealed or expunged, at a rate to be determined by the county board of supervisors not to exceed one hundred twenty dollars ($120), and to reimburse any city for the actual cost of services rendered, whether or not the petition is granted and the records are sealed or expunged, at a rate to be determined by the city council not to exceed one hundred twenty dollars ($120). Ability to make this reimbursement shall be determined by the court using the standards set forth in paragraph (2) of subdivision (g) of Section 987.8 and shall not be a prerequisite to a person's eligibility under this section. The court may order reimbursement in any case in which the petitioner appears to have the ability to pay, without undue hardship, all or any portion of the cost for services established pursuant to this subdivision.

(d) No relief shall be granted under this section unless the prosecuting attorney has been given 15 days' notice of the petition for relief. The probation officer shall notify the prosecuting attorney when a petition is filed pursuant to this section.

It shall be presumed that the prosecuting attorney has received notice if proof of service is filed with the court.

(e) If, after receiving notice pursuant to subdivision (d), the prosecuting attorney fails to appear and object to a petition for dismissal, the prosecuting attorney may not move to set aside or otherwise appeal the grant of that petition.

SEC. 2. Section 1203.45 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203.45. (a) In any case in which a person was under the age of 18 years at the time of commission of a misdemeanor and is eligible for, or has previously received, the relief provided by Section 1203.4 or 1203.4a, that person, in a proceeding under Section 1203.4 or 1203.4a, or a separate proceeding, may petition the court for an order sealing the record of conviction and other official records in the case, including records of arrests resulting in the criminal proceeding and records relating to other offenses charged in the accusatory pleading, whether defendant was acquitted or charges were dismissed. If the court finds that the person was under the age of 18 at the time of the commission of the misdemeanor, and is eligible for relief under Section 1203.4 or 1203.4a or has previously received such relief, it may issue its order granting the relief prayed for. Thereafter the conviction, arrest, or other proceeding shall be deemed not to have occurred, and the petitioner may answer accordingly any question relating to their occurrence.

(b) This section applies to convictions which occurred before, as well as those which occur after, the effective date of this section.

(c) This section shall not apply to offenses for which registration is required under Section 290, to violations of Division 10 (commencing with Section 11000) of the Health and Safety Code, or to misdemeanor violations of the Vehicle Code relating to operation of a vehicle or of any local ordinance relating to operation, standing, stopping, or parking of a motor vehicle.

(d) This section does not apply to a person convicted of more than one offense, whether the second or additional convictions occurred in the same action in which the conviction as to which relief is sought occurred or in another action, except in the following cases:

(1) One of the offenses includes the other or others.

(2) The other conviction or convictions were for the following:

(A) Misdemeanor violations of Chapters 1 (commencing with Section 21000) to 9 (commencing with Section 22500), inclusive, Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 23100) or Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 23250), inclusive, of Division 11 of the Vehicle Code, other than Section 23103, 23104, 23152, 23153, or 23220.

(B) Violation of any local ordinance relating to the operation, stopping, standing, or parking of a motor vehicle.

(3) The other conviction or convictions consisted of any combination of paragraphs (1) and (2).

(e) This section shall apply in any case in which a person was under the age of 21 at the time of the commission of an offense as to which this section is made applicable if that offense was committed prior to March 7, 1973.

(f) In any action or proceeding based upon defamation, a court, upon a showing of good cause, may order any records sealed under this section to be opened and admitted into evidence. The records shall be confidential and shall be available for inspection only by the court, jury, parties, counsel for the parties, and any other person who is authorized by the court to inspect them. Upon the judgment in the action or proceeding becoming final, the court shall order the records sealed.

(g) A person who petitions for an order sealing a record under this section may be required to reimburse the county for the actual cost of services rendered, whether or not the petition is granted and the records are sealed or expunged, at a rate to be determined by the county board of supervisors not to exceed one hundred twenty dollars ($120), and to reimburse any city for the actual cost of services rendered, whether or not the petition is granted and the records are sealed or expunged, at a rate to be determined by the city council not to exceed one hundred twenty dollars ($120). Ability to make this reimbursement shall be determined by the court using the standards set forth in paragraph (2) of subdivision (g) of Section 987.8 and shall not be a prerequisite to a person's eligibility under this section. The court may order reimbursement in any case in which the petitioner appears to have the ability to pay, without undue hardship, all or any portion of the cost for services established pursuant to this subdivision.

SEC. 3. Section 903 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

903. (a) The father, mother, spouse, or other person liable for the support of a minor, the estate of that person, and the estate of the minor, shall be liable for the reasonable costs of support of the minor while the minor is placed, or detained in, or committed to, any institution or other place pursuant to Section 625 or pursuant to an order of the juvenile court. However, a county shall not levy charges for the costs of support of a minor detained pursuant to Section 625 unless, at the detention hearing, the juvenile court determines that detention of the minor should be continued, the petition for the offense for which the minor is detained is subsequently sustained, or the minor agrees to a program of supervision pursuant to Section 654. The liability of these persons and estates shall be a joint and several liability.

(b) The county shall limit the charges it seeks to impose to the reasonable costs of support of the minor and shall exclude any costs of incarceration, treatment, or supervision for the protection of society and the minor and the rehabilitation of the minor. In the event that court-ordered child support paid to the county pursuant to subdivision (a) exceeds the amount of the costs authorized by this subdivision and subdivision (a), the county shall either hold the excess in trust for the minor's future needs pursuant to Section 302.52 of Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations or, with the approval of the minor's caseworker or the probation officer, pay the excess directly to the minor.

(c) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this subdivision to protect the fiscal integrity of the county, to protect persons against whom the county seeks to impose liability from excessive charges, to ensure reasonable uniformity throughout the state in the level of liability being imposed, and to ensure that liability is imposed only on persons with the ability to pay. In evaluating a family's financial ability to pay under this section, the county shall take into consideration the family income, the necessary obligations of the family, and the number of persons dependent upon this income. Except as provided in paragraphs (1), (2), (3), and (4), "costs of support" as used in this section means only actual costs incurred by the county for food and food preparation, clothing, personal supplies, and medical expenses, not to exceed a combined maximum cost of fifteen dollars ($15) per day, except that:

(1) The maximum cost of fifteen dollars ($15) per day shall be adjusted every third year beginning January 1, 1988, to reflect the percentage change in the calendar year annual average of the California Consumer Price Index, All Urban Consumers, published by the Department of Industrial Relations, for the three-year period.

(2) No cost for medical expenses shall be imposed by the county until the county has first exhausted any eligibility the minor may have under private insurance coverage, standard or medically indigent Medi-Cal coverage, and the Robert W. Crown California Children's Services Act (Article 2 (commencing with Section 248) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code).

(3) In calculating the cost of medical expenses, the county shall not charge in excess of 100 percent of the AFDC fee for service average Medi-Cal payment for that county for that fiscal year as calculated by the State Department of Health Services; however, if a minor has extraordinary medical or dental costs that are not met under any of the coverages listed in paragraph (2), the county may impose these additional costs.

(4) For those placements of a minor subject to this section in which an AFDC–FC grant is made, the district attorney shall seek an order pursuant to Section 11350 and the statewide child support guidelines in effect in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 4720) of Title 5 of Part 5 of Division 4 of the Civil Code or Article 2 (commencing with Section 4050) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 9 of the Family Code. For purposes of determining the correct amount of support of a minor subject to this section, the rebuttable presumption set forth in subdivision (d) of Section 4721 of the Civil Code or Section 4057 of the Family Code shall be applicable.

SEC. 3.5. Section 903 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

903. (a) The father, mother, spouse, or other person liable for the support of a minor, the estate of that person, and the estate of the minor, shall be liable for the reasonable costs of support of the minor while the minor is placed, or detained in, or committed to, any institution or other place pursuant to Section 625 or pursuant to an order of the juvenile court. However, a county shall not levy charges for the costs of support of a minor detained pursuant to Section 625 unless, at the detention hearing, the juvenile court determines that detention of the minor should be continued, the petition for the offense for which the minor is detained is subsequently sustained, or the minor agrees to a program of supervision pursuant to Section 654. The liability of these persons and estates shall be a joint and several liability.

(b) The county shall limit the charges it seeks to impose to the reasonable costs of support of the minor and shall exclude any costs of incarceration, treatment, or supervision for the protection of society and the minor and the rehabilitation of the minor. In the event that court-ordered child support paid to the county pursuant to subdivision (a) exceeds the amount of the costs authorized by this subdivision and subdivision (a), the county shall either hold the excess in trust for the minor's future needs pursuant to Section 302.52 of Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations or, with the approval of the minor's caseworker or the probation officer, pay the excess directly to the minor.

(c) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this subdivision to protect the fiscal integrity of the county, to protect persons against whom the county seeks to impose liability from excessive charges, to ensure reasonable uniformity throughout the state in the level of liability being imposed, and to ensure that liability is imposed only on persons with the ability to pay. In evaluating a family's financial ability to pay under this section, the county shall take into consideration the family income, the necessary obligations of the family, and the number of persons dependent upon this income. Except as provided in paragraphs (1), (2), (3), and (4), "costs of support" as used in this section means only actual costs incurred by the county for food and food preparation, clothing, personal supplies, and medical expenses, not to exceed a combined maximum cost of fifteen dollars ($15) per day, except that:

(1) The maximum cost of fifteen dollars ($15) per day shall be adjusted every third year beginning January 1, 1988, to reflect the percentage change in the calendar year annual average of the California Consumer Price Index, All Urban Consumers, published by the Department of Industrial Relations, for the three-year period.

(2) No cost for medical expenses shall be imposed by the county until the county has first exhausted any eligibility the minor may have under private insurance coverage, standard or medically indigent Medi-Cal coverage, and the Robert W. Crown California Children's Services Act (Article 2 (commencing with Section 248) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code).

(3) In calculating the cost of medical expenses, the county shall not charge in excess of 100 percent of the AFDC fee for service average Medi-Cal payment for that county for that fiscal year as calculated by the State Department of Health Services; however, if a minor has extraordinary medical or dental costs that are not met under any of the coverages listed in paragraph (2), the county may impose these additional costs.

(4) For those placements of a minor subject to this section in which an AFDC–FC grant is made, the district attorney shall seek an order pursuant to Section 11350 and the statewide child support guideline in effect in Article 2 (commencing with Section 4050) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 9 of the Family Code. For purposes of determining the correct amount of support of a minor subject to this section, the rebuttable presumption set forth in Section 4057 of the Family Code is applicable.

SEC. 4. Section 903.3 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

903.3. (a) The father, mother, spouse, or other person liable for the support of a minor person, the person himself or herself if he or she is an adult, or the estates of those persons shall, unless indigent, be liable for the cost to the county for any investigation related to the sealing and for the sealing of any juvenile court or arrest records pursuant to Section 781 pertaining to that person. The liability of those persons and estates shall be a joint and several liability.

(b) In the event a petition is filed for an order sealing a record, the father, mother, spouse, or other person liable for the support of a minor, that person if he or she is an adult, or the estate of that person, may be required to reimburse the county for the actual cost of services rendered, whether or not the petition is granted and the records are sealed or expunged, at a rate to be determined by the county board of supervisors not to exceed one hundred twenty dollars ($120). Ability to make this reimbursement shall be determined by the court using the standards set forth in paragraph (2) of subdivision (g) of Section 987.8 and shall not be a prerequisite to a person's eligibility under this section. The court may order reimbursement in any case in which the petitioner appears to have the ability to pay, without undue hardship, all or any portion of the cost for services.

SEC. 5. Any state or local agency so qualified under federal law is authorized and encouraged to apply for federal funds available under the Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act of 1994, and, with respect to direction of those funds, should provide for maximum flexibility and local discretion in implementing programs which meet the criteria and standards set forth in the act.

SEC. 6. Section 1.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3456. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3456, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 7. Section 3.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 903 of the Welfare and Institutions Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2208. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 903 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2208, in which case Section 3 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 883

An act to amend Section 52020 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to housing.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 52020 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

52020. (a) For purposes of a home financing program authorized by this part, a city or county has the following powers and duties:

(1) To acquire, contract, and enter into advance commitments to acquire, home mortgages made or owned by lending institutions at the purchase prices and upon the other terms and conditions as shall be determined by the city or county or other person as it may designate as its agent, to make and execute contracts with lending institutions for the origination and servicing of home mortgages and to pay the reasonable value of services rendered under those contracts. Prior to executing any contract with a lending institution, a city or county shall adopt regulations establishing criteria for qualification of lending institutions eligible to originate and service home mortgages under home financing programs authorized by this part and shall, with respect to each home financing program, permit each qualified lending institution which transacts business in the city or county the opportunity to participate in the program on an equitable basis with other participating lending institutions. Two or more cities in the same county, or a county and one or more cities within the county, or two or more adjacent counties and any number of cities within those counties may enter into an agreement to join or cooperate with one another in the exercise jointly, or otherwise, of any or all of their powers for the purpose of financing home mortgages pursuant to this part with respect to property within the boundaries of any one or more of the entities.

(2) To make loans to lending institutions under terms and conditions which, in addition to other provisions as determined by the city or county, require the lending institutions to use all of the net proceeds thereof, directly or indirectly, for the making of home mortgages in an aggregate principal amount equal to the amount of the net proceeds.

(3) To establish, by rules or regulations, in resolutions relating to any issuance of bonds or in any documents relating to the issuance, standards and requirements applicable to the purchase of home mortgages or the making of loans to lending institutions as the city or county deems necessary or desirable to effectuate the purposes of this part, which may include without limitation any of the following:

(A) The time within which lending institutions are required to make commitments and disbursements for home mortgages.

(B) The location and other characteristics of homes to be financed by home mortgages.

(C) The terms and conditions of home mortgages to be acquired.

(D) The amounts and types of any insurance coverage required on homes, home mortgages and bonds.

(E) The representations and warranties of lending institutions confirming compliance with the standards and requirements.

(F) Restrictions as to interest rate and other terms of home mortgages or the return realized therefrom by lending institutions.

(G) The type and amount of collateral security to be provided to assure repayment of any loans from the city or county and to assure repayment of bonds.

(H) Any other matters related to the purchase of home mortgages or the making of loans to lending institutions as deemed relevant by the city or county.

(4) To require from each lending institution from which home mortgages are purchased or to which loans are made the submission of evidence satisfactory to the city or county of the ability and intention of the lending institution to make home mortgages, and the submission, within the time specified by the city or county for making disbursements for home mortgages, of evidence satisfactory to the city or county of the making of home mortgages and of compliance with any standards and requirements established by it.

(b) Each city or county which finances housing pursuant to this part shall designate a person or entity to administer the program.

(c) Each city or county which finances housing pursuant to this part shall adopt regulations establishing criteria for qualification of persons and families, which may differ among different cities or counties to reflect varying economic and housing conditions. In developing this criteria, factors similar to the following shall be taken into consideration:

(1) The amount of the income of the person or family that is available for housing needs.

(2) The size of the household.

(3) The costs and condition of available housing.

(4) The eligibility of the persons or families for federal housing assistance of any type.

(d) Criteria for qualification of persons and families pursuant to this section shall include a maximum household income, which maximum shall not exceed the following:

(1) One hundred twenty percent of the median household income for mortgages made for improving a home or for homes where the purchaser will be the first occupant. Upon the resale of a home for which financing was originally provided under this paragraph, the maximum income of persons and families shall also be 120 percent of the median household income.

(2) One hundred twenty percent of the median household income for mortgages where the purchaser will not be the first occupant. However, the city or county shall ensure that no less than 50 percent of the funds allocated for home mortgages where the purchaser will not be the first occupant shall be for households whose income does not exceed 80 percent of that median household income. However, the legislative body of the city or county may, by resolution, increase this income limitation to 90 percent of median household income if the legislative body finds that there are insufficient numbers of creditworthy persons whose income does not exceed 80 percent of median household income. The resolution is final and conclusive as to the findings required by this paragraph.

(3) One hundred fifty percent of the median household income for mortgages made for improving a home or for homes where the purchaser will be the first occupant in any city, the entire area of which, or in any county in which a portion of the county, is designated by the United States Department of Commerce, Economic Development Administration as a special impact area within a Title IV redevelopment area, pursuant to Section 401 of the federal Public Works and Economic Development Act of 1965, as amended, and which is eligible for Urban Development Action Grant funds under the current distress standards established for cities and counties by the Secretary of the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development pursuant to Section 119 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974, if the homes purchased or improved are situated within the boundaries of a special impact area as defined by the Economic Development Administration, and that designation is in effect on the date of sale of revenue bonds issued under this part.

As used in this subdivision, "median household income" means the highest of (A) statewide median household income, (B) countywide median household income, or (C) median family income for area as determined by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, with respect to either a standard metropolitan statistical area or an area outside of a standard metropolitan statistical area.

(e) Subdivision (d) shall not apply with respect to home finance programs funded with amounts made available by the issuance of revenue bonds that (1) for federal tax law purposes are bonds refunding qualified mortgage bonds issued before January 1, 1987, and (2) satisfy the requirements of subdivision (a) of Section 1313 of the federal Tax Reform Act of 1986. With respect to these programs, the maximum household income for qualification of persons and families pursuant to this section shall be the following:

(1) One hundred fifty percent of the median household income for mortgages made for improving a home or for homes where the purchaser will be the first occupant. Upon the resale of a home for which financing was originally provided under this paragraph, the maximum income of persons and families shall also be 150 percent of the median household income. For purposes of this paragraph, a mortgage made for improving a home includes a home improvement loan as defined in Section 143 of Title 26 of the United States Code.

(2) One hundred twenty percent of the median household income where the purchaser will not be the first occupant. However, the city or county shall ensure that no less than 20 percent of the funds allocated for home mortgages where the purchaser will not be the first occupant shall be for households whose income does not exceed 110 percent of that median household income. However, the legislative body of the city or county may, by resolution, increase this income limitation to 120 percent of the median household income if the legislative body finds that there are insufficient numbers of creditworthy persons whose income does not exceed 110 percent of the median household income. The resolution is final and conclusive as to the findings required by this paragraph. However, the finding shall not be made by the legislative body before six months from the date mortgages were first made under the program and only if participating lenders have entered into an agreement with the city, county, or city and county that lenders will advertise at least monthly the availability of funds and will forfeit one-quarter of their origination fees if they are unable to use 20 percent of the funds to make mortgages to households whose income does not exceed 110 percent of the median income.

(3) One hundred fifty percent of the median household income for mortgages made for improving a home or for homes where the purchaser will be the first occupant in any city, the entire area of which, or in any county in which a portion of the county, is designated by the United States Department of Commerce, Economic Development Administration as a special impact area within a Title IV redevelopment area, pursuant to Section 401 of the federal Public Works and Economic Development Act of 1965, as amended, and which is eligible for Urban Development Action Grant funds under the current distress standards established for cities and counties by the Secretary of the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development pursuant to Section 119 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974, if the homes purchased or improved are situated within the boundaries of a special impact area as defined by the Economic Development Administration, and that designation is in effect on the date of sale of revenue bonds issued under this part.

As used in this subdivision, "median household income" means the highest of (1) statewide median household income, (2) countywide median household income, or (3) median family income for area as determined by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, with respect to either a standard metropolitan statistical area or an area outside of a standard metropolitan statistical area.

(f) Each city or county which finances housing pursuant to this part shall require each mortgagor under the program to certify his or her intention to occupy the home for a minimum of two years after receiving a home mortgage, with appropriate exceptions in hardship cases determined by the city or county.

(g) Each city and county may do any and all things necessary to carry out the purposes and exercise the powers expressly granted by this part.

CHAPTER 884

An act to amend Sections 50825, 50827, 50832, 50833, and 50834 of, and to add Section 50832.1 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to economic development, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 50825 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50825. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this chapter to ensure that funds allocated to the state pursuant to the federal Small Cities Community Development Block Grant Program (42 U.S.C. 5306(d)), and administered by the department, be of maximum benefit in meeting the housing and economic development needs of persons and families of low or moderate income. The Legislature intends that these funds be provided to eligible cities and counties that encourage new housing developments and economic development and which need the funds to support those developments. It is the intent of the Legislature to reaffirm established state policy that each eligible city or county contribute to meeting the statewide housing goals, or contribute to meeting the state's urgent need to halt the flow of jobs out of California by working to retain and expand existing businesses and attract new businesses that provide jobs to low- and moderate-income persons and families, or do both, and that funds allocated pursuant to this chapter be distributed accordingly.

SEC. 2. Section 50827 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50827. Thirty percent of the annual allocation of federal Small Cities Community Development Block Grant funds shall be set aside for economic development projects and programs specified in Sections 50832, 50832.1, 50833, and 50834. All funds made available pursuant to the program shall, consistent with the requirements of subsection (c) of Section 5301 of Title 42 of the United States Code, be utilized to provide decent housing, a suitable living environment, and expanding economic opportunities, principally for persons and families of low or moderate income.

SEC. 3. Section 50832 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50832. (a) In order to ensure that a city or county may apply for both economic development and general program grants pursuant to this chapter in the same year, each applicant shall have a maximum grant request limitation of eight hundred thousand dollars ($800,000) per year, excluding general allocation planning and technical assistance grants and economic development allocation planning and technical assistance grants made available under Section 50833, of which a maximum of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) per year may be used for either housing or economic development applications. These limitations may be waived for the economic development allocation based upon available economic development funds after September 1 of each year. The department shall aggressively inform eligible cities and counties of the eligibility criteria and requirements under this section and in Section 50833.

(b) Except for applications specified in Section 50832.1, applications for all activities or set-asides under this section and Section 50833 shall be evaluated on a first-in, first-served basis.

(c) For all economic development applications under this section or Section 50833, including economic development assistance grants, the department shall develop project standards and rating factors which meet the minimum requirements of federal statutes, including a jobs-for-dollars test of thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000) per job created or retained. In addition to the low- and moderate-income persons or families criteria established in subdivision (b) of Section 50826 and Sections 50827 and 50828, the department shall also utilize as criteria for the economic development allocation the federal standards of "blight" and "urgent need" under this section, Section 50832.1, and Section 50833.

SEC. 4. Section 50832.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

50832.1. (a) The department is authorized to utilize specified amounts of the economic development set aside for a reservation of funds program to establish or enhance local revolving loan fund programs.

(b) To the extent that the department determines that some local communities lack capacity to apply for and administer projects under this section and Section 50832, the department may utilize federal training dollars to provide training services to those communities. In providing training, the department may contract with training entities, provide the training directly, or make stipends available for that training.

(c) Utilizing only existing Community Development Block Grant administrative funds, the department shall make every effort to assist communities unable to demonstrate compliance with federal regulations to come into compliance, which may include providing communities training in revolving loan fund administration through outside contractors.

SEC. 5. Section 50833 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50833. (a) Ten percent of the total amount of the Small Cities Block Grant Program funds set aside for economic development shall be allocated to make economic development planning and technical assistance grants to eligible small cities or counties for business attraction, retention, and expansion programs for the development of local economic development strategies, predevelopment grant feasibility studies, and downtown revitalization programs. Eligible small cities or counties may contract with public agencies or nonprofit economic development corporations and other eligible subgrantees or for profit corporations or entities to provide these services. Each applicant shall be required to provide a cash match of up to 25 percent of the total amount requested. A technical assistance grant received under this 10-percent set-aside is in addition to the city or county ceiling, under Section 50832, or its ability to apply under the economic development or general program set-asides. The maximum grants per year shall be thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000) per project. Each applicant shall not receive more than two grants per year and shall be eligible to apply each year, although no applicant shall receive grants in excess of thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000) in any one year. Funds not applied for or allocated under this section may be used for other economic development purposes under Sections 50832 and 50832.1.

(b) Ten percent of the total amount of the Small Cities Block Grant Program funds not used for economic development shall be set aside to make technical assistance grants to eligible small cities or counties for purposes including, but not limited to: inventory of housing needing rehabilitation in the district, income surveys of area residents, and any general studies of housing needs in the district. Each applicant shall be required to provide a cash match of up to 25 percent of the total amount requested. A technical assistance grant received under this 10-percent set-aside is in addition to the city or county ceiling or its ability to apply under the economic development or general program set-asides. Unexpended funds allocated under this section shall revert to the general program, but not to the economic development set-aside. The maximum grant per application shall be thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000) per project. Each applicant shall not receive more than two grants per year and shall be eligible to apply each year, although no applicant shall receive grants in excess of thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000) in any one year.

(c) If, under federal law, the 10-percent economic assistance grants and the 10-percent general program assistance grants are considered to be administrative expenditures, the department may reduce the percentages of the set-asides by up to the amount necessary to remain within the allowable limits for administrative expenditures.

(d) Two or more jurisdictions may pool their funds and make a joint application for the same project.

(e) General administrative activity planning studies shall not be counted against allocations under this section.

SEC. 6. Section 50834 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50834. (a) The department shall prepare a separate and discrete training manual and request for proposal for the economic development set-aside. Once an economic development project award is approved by the director, a contract shall be executed and funds made available as soon as possible.

(b) Any program income received by a city or county grantee, or any loan repayments made by a beneficiary to a grantee, may be utilized by the city or county grantee for any activity currently eligible under federal law and regulations, provided that the department determines that the beneficiary or grantee has complied reasonably with the terms and conditions described in the contract between the grantee and the department.

(c) Any economic development set aside of funds not encumbered for funding of a project by the end of the federal contract period shall revert to the general program and be set aside for use if approved projects for which no funds are available are pending.

(d) The department shall conditionally commit economic development allocations to projects that meet the requirements of this chapter up front, contingent upon the applicant receiving those other funding commitments necessary to complete the project.

(e) Reports on Community Development Block Grants activity shall be submitted annually by the department to the chairs of the appropriate legislative committees and to the Trade and Commerce Agency.

CHAPTER 885

An act to amend Section 1365.5 of the Civil Code, relating to common interest developments.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1365.5 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1365.5. (a) Unless the governing documents impose more stringent standards, the board of directors of the association shall do all of the following:

(1) Review a current reconciliation of the association's operating accounts on at least a quarterly basis.

(2) Review a current reconciliation of the association's reserve accounts on at least a quarterly basis.

(3) Review, on at least a quarterly basis, the current year's actual reserve revenues and expenses compared to the current year's budget.

(4) Review the latest account statements prepared by the financial institutions where the association has its operating and reserve accounts.

(5) Review an income and expense statement for the association's operating and reserve accounts on at least a quarterly basis.

(b) The signatures of at least two persons, who shall be members of the association's board of directors, or one officer who is not a member of the board of directors and a member of the board of directors, shall be required for the withdrawal of moneys from the association's reserve accounts.

(c) (1) The board of directors shall not expend funds designated as reserve funds for any purpose other than the repair, restoration, replacement, or maintenance of, or litigation involving the repair, restoration, replacement, or maintenance of, major components which the association is obligated to repair, restore, replace, or maintain and for which the reserve fund was established.

(2) However, the board may authorize the temporary transfer of money from a reserve fund to the association's general operating fund to meet short-term cash-flow requirements or other expenses, provided the board has made a written finding, recorded in the board's minutes, explaining the reasons that the transfer is needed, and describing when and how the money will be repaid to the reserve fund. The transferred funds shall be restored to the reserve fund within one year of the date of the initial transfer, except that the board may, upon making a finding supported by documentation that a temporary delay would be in the best interests of the common interest development, temporarily delay the restoration. The board shall exercise prudent fiscal management in delaying restoration of these funds and in restoring the expended funds to the reserve account, and shall, if necessary, levy a special assessment to recover the full amount of the expended funds within the time limits required by this section. This special assessment is subject to the limitation imposed by Section 1366, unless the special assessment is to pay for legal costs associated with litigation involving the repair, restoration, replacement, or maintenance of, major components which the association is obligated to repair, restore, replace, or maintain. The board may, at its discretion, extend the date the payment on the special assessment is due. Any extension shall not prevent the board from pursuing any legal remedy to enforce the collection of an unpaid special assessment.

(d) When the decision is made to use reserve funds or to temporarily transfer money from the reserve fund to pay for litigation, the association shall notify the members of the association of that decision in the next available mailing to all members pursuant to Section 5016 of the Corporations Code, and of the availability of an accounting of those expenses. Unless the governing documents impose more stringent standards, the association shall make an accounting of expenses related to the litigation on at least a quarterly basis. The accounting shall be made available for inspection by members of the association at the association's office.

(e) At least once every three years the board of directors shall cause a study of the reserve account requirements of the common interest development to be conducted if the current replacement value of the major components which the association is obligated to repair, replace, restore, or maintain is equal to or greater than one-half of the gross budget of the association for any fiscal year. The board shall review this study annually and shall consider and implement necessary adjustments to the board's analysis of the reserve account requirements as a result of that review.

The study required by this subdivision shall at a minimum include:

(1) Identification of the major components which the association is obligated to repair, replace, restore, or maintain which, as of the date of the study, have a remaining useful life of less than 30 years.

(2) Identification of the probable remaining useful life of the components identified in paragraph (1) as of the date of the study.

(3) An estimate of the cost of repair, replacement, restoration, or maintenance of the components identified in paragraph (1) during and at the end of their useful life.

(4) An estimate of the total annual contribution necessary to defray the cost to repair, replace, restore, or maintain the components identified in paragraph (1) during and at the end of their useful life, after subtracting total reserve funds as of the date of the study.

(f) As used in this section, "reserve accounts" means moneys that the association's board of directors has identified for use to defray the future repair or replacement of, or additions to, those major components which the association is obligated to maintain.

(g) As used in this section, "reserve account requirements" means the estimated funds which the association's board of directors has determined are required to be available at a specified point in time to repair, replace, or restore those major components which the association is obligated to maintain.

(h) This section does not apply to an association that does not have a "common area" as defined in Section 1351.

CHAPTER 886

An act to add Section 30056 to the Government Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 30056 is added to the Government Code, to read:

30056. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, commencing with the 1994–95 fiscal year, except as provided in subdivision (c), any county, city and county, or city, including any charter city, that funds all combined public safety services within its respective jurisdiction from existing local financial resources, in an amount for the fiscal year that is less than the base amount for that local agency, shall have its total fiscal year allocations from the Public Safety Augmentation Fund reduced by the difference between those amounts. Any amount not allocated to a county as a result of this paragraph shall be allocated to cities in that county in proportion to the total fiscal year allocations otherwise received by those cities pursuant to Section 30054, and any amount not allocated to a city or cities as a result of this paragraph shall be allocated to the county. For purposes of applying this subdivision, the amount of funding within a local jurisdiction for combined public safety services for each fiscal year shall be determined in accordance with the budget adopted by that jurisdiction for that fiscal year. For any city that is subject to a final arbitration decision, that is rendered on or before December 31, 1994, pursuant to binding labor arbitration as required by that city's charter as approved by the voters on November 4, 1980, the amount of funding for combined public safety services for the 1994–95 fiscal year shall be determined in accordance with any amended budget adopted by that city for the 1994–95 fiscal year.

(b) For the purposes of this section:

(1) "Local financial resources" means local general fund appropriations for operational expenses and allocations from the Public Safety Augmentation Fund, but shall not include any of the following amounts:

(A) Grant funds received by a county, city and county, or city, including any charter city, from any source.

(B) Revenues received by a county or city and county for the child support-related activities of the district attorney performed pursuant to Part D Subchapter 4 of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 301 et seq.).

(C) Asset forfeiture revenues received by a county, city and county, or city, including any charter city.

(D) Revenues appropriated by a county, city and county, or city, including any charter city, for capital outlay expenditures.

(E) Revenues appropriated by a county, city and county, or city, including any charter city, for one-time expenditures.

(F) Any amount that is attributable to a decrease in appropriations by a county, city and county, or city, including any charter city, for retirement costs or workers' compensation costs that do not result in a change in benefit levels.

(G) Revenues received by a county, city and county, or city, including a charter city, pursuant to a contract under which that county, city and county, or city provides public safety services for another jurisdiction.

(H) Revenues that were not appropriated by a county, city and county, or city, including any charter city, for public safety services in the base year, but are so appropriated in the current fiscal year as a result of a change of organization or reorganization that became effective pursuant to the Cortese-Knox Local Government Reorganization Act of 1985 (Part 1 (commencing with Section 56000) of Division 3 of Title 5) subsequent to the base year.

(I) Revenues received by a county or city and county pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 15200) of Part 6 of Division 3 of Title 2, or any other reimbursement by the state for homicide trial costs, including, but not limited to, Chapter 1649 of the Statutes of 1990 and its successors.

(J) Revenues derived from any source by a county, city and county, or city, including any charter city to respond to a state of emergency declared by the Governor pursuant to the California Emergency Services Act (Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 8550) of Division 1 of Title 2).

(2) "Base year" means, for each county, city and county, or city, the 1992–93 fiscal year.

(3) "Base amount for that local agency" means an amount, equal to the amount of the adopted budget for all combined public safety services within its respective jurisdiction for the base year, that is adjusted as follows:

(A) For the 1994–95 fiscal year only, that amount shall be increased or decreased in accordance with the positive or negative difference between the amount allocated for the 1994–95 fiscal year to that local agency from the Public Safety Augmentation Fund and the corresponding amount allocated to that local agency for the 1993–94 fiscal year. For purposes of this subparagraph, the amount to be allocated to the local agency from the Public Safety Augmentation Fund for the 1994–95 fiscal year shall be estimated based on the allocations to that agency determined over the first six months of that fiscal year.

(B) For the 1995–96 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, that amount shall be increased or decreased in accordance with the positive or negative difference between (i) the amount allocated to the local agency from the Public Safety Augmentation Fund in the immediately preceding fiscal year, and (ii) the corresponding amount allocated to the local agency in the next preceding fiscal year. Notwithstanding any other provision of this subparagraph, in no event shall the base amount for a local agency be less than the amount of funding for all combined public safety services within the jurisdiction of that local agency for the base year.

(4) The amount of funding for all combined public safety services within the jurisdiction of a local agency for the base year does not include any of the following amounts:

(A) Grant funds from any source expended by a county, city and county, or city, including any charter city, during the base year for public safety services.

(B) Revenues received by a county or city and county for the child support-related activities of the district attorney performed pursuant to Part D of Subchapter 4 of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 301 et seq.).

(C) Asset forfeiture revenues expended by a county, city and county, or city, including any charter city, during the base year for public safety services.

(D) Capital outlay funds expended by a county, city and county, or city, including any charter city, during the base year for public safety.

(E) Any amount expended by a city and county during the base year to fund retirement costs that are not attributable to any change in benefit levels.

(F) Any amount expended by a county, city and county, or city, including any charter city, during the base year to fund one-time expenditures for public safety services.

(G) Any amount expended during the base year by a county, city and county, or city pursuant to a contract under which that county, city and county, or city provides public safety services for another jurisdiction.

(H) Amounts expended by a county, city and county, or city, including any charter city, in the base year for public safety services that are not appropriated for similar expenditure in the current fiscal year as a result of a change of organization or reorganization that became effective pursuant to the Cortese-Knox Local Government Reorganization Act of 1985 (Part 1 (commencing with Section 56000) of Division 3 of Title 5) subsequent to the base year.

(I) Any amount expended during the base year for homicide trial costs that are reimburseable pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 15200) of Part 6 of Division 3 of Title 2 or any other program, including, but not limited to, Chapter 1649 of the Statutes of 1990 and its successors.

(J) Any amount expended during the base year to provide public safety services during a state of emergency declared by the Governor pursuant to the California Emergency Services Act (Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 8550) of Division 1 of Title 2).

(c) This section shall not be applicable to any of the following jurisdictions:

(1) With respect to a specific fiscal year, any county, city and county, or city whose legislative body has entered into a memorandum of understanding or other binding agreement on or before the adoption of the budget of the county, city, or city and county for that fiscal year with all local public safety entities that relates to those entities' respective shares of the local agency's allocation from the county's Public Safety Augmentation Fund.

(2) Any city for which the amount of the reduction calculated under Section 97.035 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is zero.

(d) Officials of a county, city and county, or city, including any charter city, shall, upon request, provide the county auditor any information that the auditor needs to make the determinations required by this section. In carrying out the requirements of this section, the auditor may, but is not required to, audit the information provided by a county, city and county, or city, including any charter city.

(e) It is the intent of the Legislature that this section shall apply to all cities, including charter cities. The Legislature finds and declares that the allocation of the Public Safety Augmentation Fund is a matter of statewide concern and is not merely a municipal affair or a matter of local interest.

SEC. 2. It is the intent of the Legislature that all funds deposited in the Public Safety Augmentation Fund be utilized for local public safety services. It is not the intent of the Legislature that local governmental entities use the base year level of funding established by this act as a basis to reduce local public safety budgets.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 887

An act relating to health care services.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) Notwithstanding subdivision (g) of Section 16952 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, unexpended funds from the Physician's Services Account for the County of Alameda established pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 16952 for the 1990–91 and 1991–92 fiscal years shall remain in the account and shall be made available for expenditure for the 1994–95 fiscal year.

(b) Expenses incurred by the County of Alameda for the development of managed care systems to increase access of indigents to physician emergency services may be reimbursed from the funds described in subdivision (a) up to a maximum of eight hundred fifty thousand dollars ($850,000), upon written agreement between the county and the local medical societies.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1996, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1996, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution due to the unique circumstances concerning the provision of physician emergency services to indigents in the County of Alameda.

CHAPTER 888

An act to amend Section 7153 of the Business and Professions Code, and to amend, repeal, and add Section 1803.2 of the Civil Code, relating to security interests.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7153 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7153. (a) It is a misdemeanor for any person to engage in the occupation of salesperson for one or more home improvement contractors within this state without having a registration issued by the registrar for each of the home improvement contractors by whom he or she is employed as a home improvement salesperson.

It is a misdemeanor for any person to engage in the occupation of salesperson of home improvement goods or services within this state without having a registration issued by the registrar.

(b) Any security interest taken by a contractor, to secure any payment for the performance of any act or conduct described in Section 7151 that occurs on or after January 1, 1995, is unenforceable if the person soliciting the act or contract was not a duly registered salesperson or was not exempt from registration pursuant to Section 7152 at the time the homeowner signs the home improvement contract solicited by the salesperson.

SEC. 2. Section 1803.2 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1803.2. Except as provided in Section 1808.3, every retail installment contract shall be contained in a single document that shall contain:

(a) The entire agreement of the parties with respect to the cost and terms of payment for the goods and services, including any promissory notes or any other evidences of indebtedness between the parties relating to the transaction.

(b) (1) At the top of the contract the words "Security Agreement" shall appear in at least 12-point bold type where a security interest in the goods is retained or a security interest on other goods or realty is obtained by the seller as security for the goods or services purchased.

(2) At the top of the contract the words "Retail Installment Contract" shall appear in at least 12-point bold type where a security interest is not retained or obtained by the seller as security for the goods or services purchased.

(3) Any contract for goods or services that provides for a security interest in real property shall also provide the following notices, written in the same language, e.g., Spanish, as used in the contract: (A) "WARNING TO BUYER: IF YOU SIGN THIS CONTRACT, YOU WILL BE PUTTING UP YOUR HOME AS SECURITY. THIS MEANS THAT YOUR HOME COULD BE SOLD WITHOUT YOUR PERMISSION AND WITHOUT ANY COURT ACTION IF YOU MISS ANY PAYMENT AS REQUIRED BY THIS CONTRACT." This notice shall be printed in at least 14-point boldface type, shall be set apart from the rest of the contract by a border, and shall appear directly below the title of the contract. (B) "STOP—BEFORE YOU SIGN, READ THE WARNING AT THE TOP OF THIS CONTRACT!" This notice shall be printed in at least 14-point boldface type and shall appear directly above the space reserved for the signature of the buyer. A security interest created in any contract described in this paragraph that does not provide the notices as required by this paragraph shall be void and unenforceable.

As used in this subdivision, the term "security interest" refers to a contractual interest in property and not to a mechanic's lien or other interest in property arising by operation of law.

(c) Where the contract includes a finance charge that is determined on the precomputed basis and provides that the unearned portion of the finance charge to be refunded upon full prepayment of the contract is to be determined by a method other than actuarial, a notice in at least 10-point bold type if the contract is printed reading as follows: "Notice to buyer: (1) Do not sign this agreement before you read it or if it contains any blank spaces to be filled in. (2) You are entitled to a completely filled-in copy of this agreement. (3) You can prepay the full amount due under this agreement at any time and obtain a partial refund of the finance charge if it is $1 or more. Because of the way the amount of this refund will be figured, the time when you prepay could increase the ultimate cost of credit under this agreement. (4) If you desire to pay off in advance the full amount due, the amount of the refund you are entitled to, if any, will be furnished upon request."

(d) Where the contract includes a finance charge that is determined on the precomputed basis and provides for the actuarial method for computing the unearned portion of the finance charge upon prepayment in full, a notice in at least 10-point bold type if the contract is printed reading as follows: "Notice to buyer: (1) Do not sign this agreement before you read it or if it contains any blank spaces to be filled in. (2) You are entitled to a completely filled-in copy of this agreement. (3) You can prepay the full amount due under this agreement at any time and obtain a partial refund of the finance charge if it is $1 or more. (4) If you desire to pay off in advance the full amount due, the amount of the refund you are entitled to, if any, will be furnished upon request."

(e) Where the contract includes a finance charge that is determined on the simple-interest basis, a notice in at least 10-point bold type if the contract is printed reading as follows: "Notice to buyer: (1) Do not sign this agreement before you read it or if it contains any blank spaces to be filled in. (2) You are entitled to a completely filled-in copy of this agreement. (3) You can prepay the full amount due under this agreement at any time. (4) If you desire to pay off in advance the full amount due, the amount which is outstanding will be furnished upon request."

(f) This section shall be operative until October 1, 1995, and on that date is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 1803.2 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

1803.2. Except as provided in Section 1808.3, every retail installment contract shall be contained in a single document that shall contain:

(a) The entire agreement of the parties with respect to the cost and terms of payment for the goods and services, including any promissory notes or any other evidences of indebtedness between the parties relating to the transaction.

(b) (1) At the top of the contract the words "Security Agreement" shall appear in at least 12-point bold type where a security interest in the goods is retained or a security interest on other goods or realty is obtained by the seller as security for the goods or services purchased.

(2) At the top of the contract the words "Retail Installment Contract" shall appear in at least 12-point bold type where a security interest is not retained or obtained by the seller as security for the goods or services purchased.

(3) Any contract for goods or services that provides for a security interest in real property shall also provide the following notice, written in the same language, e.g., Spanish, as used in the contract: "WARNING TO BUYER: IF YOU SIGN THIS CONTRACT, YOU WILL BE PUTTING UP YOUR HOME AS SECURITY. THIS MEANS THAT YOUR HOME COULD BE SOLD WITHOUT YOUR PERMISSION AND WITHOUT ANY COURT ACTION IF YOU MISS ANY PAYMENT AS REQUIRED BY THIS CONTRACT." This notice shall be printed in at least 14-point boldface type, shall be set apart from the rest of the contract by a border, and shall appear directly above the space reserved for the signature of the buyer. A security interest created in any contract described in this paragraph that does not provide the notice as required by this paragraph shall be void and unenforceable.

As used in this subdivision, the term "security interest" refers to a contractual interest in property and not to a mechanic's lien or other interest in property arising by operation of law.

(c) Where the contract includes a finance charge that is determined on the precomputed basis and provides that the unearned portion of the finance charge to be refunded upon full prepayment of the contract is to be determined by a method other than actuarial, a notice in at least 10-point bold type if the contract is printed reading as follows: "Notice to buyer: (1) Do not sign this agreement before you read it or if it contains any blank spaces to be filled in. (2) You are entitled to a completely filled-in copy of this agreement. (3) You can prepay the full amount due under this agreement at any time and obtain a partial refund of the finance charge if it is $1 or more. Because of the way the amount of this refund will be figured, the time when you prepay could increase the ultimate cost of credit under this agreement. (4) If you desire to pay off in advance the full amount due, the amount of the refund you are entitled to, if any, will be furnished upon request."

(d) Where the contract includes a finance charge that is determined on the precomputed basis and provides for the actuarial method for computing the unearned portion of the finance charge upon prepayment in full, a notice in at least 10-point bold type if the contract is printed reading as follows: "Notice to buyer: (1) Do not sign this agreement before you read it or if it contains any blank spaces to be filled in. (2) You are entitled to a completely filled-in copy of this agreement. (3) You can prepay the full amount due under this agreement at any time and obtain a partial refund of the finance charge if it is $1 or more. (4) If you desire to pay off in advance the full amount due, the amount of the refund you are entitled to, if any, will be furnished upon request."

(e) Where the contract includes a finance charge that is determined on the simple-interest basis, a notice in at least 10-point bold type if the contract is printed reading as follows: "Notice to buyer: (1) Do not sign this agreement before you read it or if it contains any blank spaces to be filled in. (2) You are entitled to a completely filled-in copy of this agreement. (3) You can prepay the full amount due under this agreement at any time. (4) If you desire to pay off in advance the full amount due, the amount which is outstanding will be furnished upon request."

(f) This section shall become operative on October 1, 1995.

CHAPTER 889

An act to amend Section 20038.5 of the Government Code, relating to state employees.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 20038.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20038.5. "Industrial" with respect to state miscellaneous members also means death or disability on or after January 1, 1993, resulting from an injury which is a direct consequence of a violent act perpetrated on his or her person by a patient or client of the State Department of Mental Health at Patton State Hospital or Atascadero State Hospital, an inmate at the Department of Mental Health Psychiatric Program at California Medical Facility at Vacaville, or a patient at any other state hospital which is deemed a forensic facility if:

(a) The member was performing his or her duties within a treatment ward at the time of the injury, or

(b) The member was not within a treatment ward but was acting within the scope of his or her employment at the hospital and is regularly and substantially as part of his or her duties in contact with the patients or clients, and

(c) The member at the time of injury was employed in a state bargaining unit for which a memorandum of understanding has been agreed to by the state employer and the recognized employee organization to become subject to this section, or

(d) The member was either excluded from the definition of state employee in subdivision (c) of Section 3513 or was a nonelected officer or employee of the executive branch of government who was not a member of the civil service.

(e) This section shall also apply to a state miscellaneous member who is an employee of the State Department of Mental Health at Metropolitan State Hospital or Napa State Hospital, provided the member meets the conditions prescribed in this section and his or her injury occurred on or after January 1, 1995.

CHAPTER 890

An act to amend Section 8880.32 of the Government Code, relating to the state lottery, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature hereby finds and declares, as follows:

Current law and practice provides that those who win large lottery prizes are paid in annual installments over a period of 20 years.

Some prizewinners, particularly elderly persons or those persons seeking to acquire a small business, may not want to wait to be paid over the course of up to 20 years.

The state should accommodate the desires of those prizewinners who wish to enjoy more of their winnings currently, as provided by this act.

SEC. 2. Section 8880.32 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8880.32. The commission shall promulgate regulations to establish a system of verifying the validity of prizes and to effect payment of the prizes, provided:

(a) For convenience of the public, lottery game retailers may be authorized by the commission to pay winners of up to six hundred dollars ($600) after performing validation procedures on their premises appropriate to the lottery game involved.

(b) No prize may be paid arising from tickets or shares that are stolen, counterfeit, altered, fraudulent, unissued, produced or issued in error, unreadable, not received or not recorded by the lottery by applicable deadlines, lacking in captions that confirm and agree with the lottery play symbols required by the lottery game involved, purchased by a minor, or not in compliance with additional specific rules and regulations and confidential validation and security tests appropriate to the particular lottery game. The lottery may pay a prize even though the actual winning ticket is not received by the lottery if the lottery validates the claim for the prize based upon substantial proof. "Substantial proof" means any evidence that would permit the lottery to use established validation procedures, as specified in lottery regulations, to validate the claim.

The commission may require that any form relating to a claim for a prize shall be signed under penalty of perjury. Any such declaration shall meet the requirements of Section 2015.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(c) No particular prize in any lottery game shall be paid more than once.

(d) The commission may specify that winners of less than twenty-five dollars ($25) claim the prizes from either the same lottery game retailer from whom the ticket or share was purchased or from the lottery itself.

(e) Players shall have the right to claim prize money for 180 days after the drawing or the end of the lottery game or play in which the prize was won. The commission may define shorter time periods for eligibility for participation in, and entry into, drawings involving entries or finalists. If a valid claim is not made for a prize directly payable by the commission or for any on-line game prize within the period applicable for that prize, the unclaimed prize money shall revert to the benefit of the public purpose described in this chapter.

(f) After the expiration of the claim period for prizes for each lottery game, the commission shall make available a detailed tabulation of the total number of tickets or shares actually sold in a lottery game and the total number of prizes of each prize denomination that were actually claimed and paid directly by the commission.

(g) The right of any person to a prize shall not be assignable, except that the payment of any prize may be paid to another person, paid to a person designated pursuant to an appropriate judicial order, or assigned as collateral for an obligation owed to another person, as provided in this subdivision.

(1) During the life of a prizewinner, the right of the prizewinner to a prize shall not be assignable, except that payment of any prize may be made to a person designated pursuant to an appropriate judicial order, or pursuant to any of the following:

(A) An assignment, executed by the winner on a form approved by, and filed with, the commission during the winner's lifetime in accordance with regulations adopted by the commission, to a trust that by its terms is revocable and that is established by the winner for the benefit of the winner as a beneficiary and governed by state law.

(B) An appropriate judicial order appointing a conservator or guardian for the protection of the winner or for adjudicating rights to, or ownership of, the prize.

(C) An assignment as collateral to a person to secure a loan pursuant to Division 9 (commencing with Section 9101) of the Commercial Code. The assignment as collateral of the right to receive payment of a prize shall be subject to all of the following:

(i) All security agreements, rights of the prizewinner, and rights of the secured creditor shall be determined pursuant to state law.

(ii) In the event of a default under the loan or security agreement, the secured creditor's rights shall be limited to receiving the regular payments made by the lottery on the prizewinner's interest until the obligation is paid in full or the prize has been paid in full, whichever occurs first. Notwithstanding Division 9 (commencing with Section 9101) of the Commercial Code, the secured creditor shall not have the right to sell or assign the prizewinner's rights to payments to itself or to any other person. This section shall not limit the secured creditor's right to sell, assign, or transfer the obligation of the debtor and related security interest to a third party.

(iii) The prizewinner and secured creditor may agree and jointly instruct the lottery to have all prizewinning payments deposited directly into an account maintained by the prizewinner at a federally insured bank located within the state. This account may be subject to the secured creditor's lien. Upon receipt of these instructions, the lottery shall continue to deposit all payments due the prizewinner into the account until the lottery receives notification from the secured creditor and prizewinner that the payments are to be made at an account maintained at another bank or that the secured creditor releases or terminates the security interest in the prizewinner's payments.

(iv) For purposes of perfecting the security interest of the secured creditor, the right of the prizewinner to receive payments is deemed to be a contract right that is perfected by the filing of a financing statement with the Secretary of State.

(v) A copy of the security agreement, an endorsed copy of the financing statement and the joint instructions to deposit the prizewinner's payments directly into a bank account, if any, shall be filed with the lottery. Notwithstanding the security interest granted a creditor, all payments shall be made payable to the prizewinner and the payments shall be sent directly to the prizewinner, except as follows:

(aa) The prizewinner's payments shall be sent directly to the bank designated pursuant to clause (iii).

(bb) The prizewinner's payments shall be sent directly to the secured creditor pursuant to an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, directing the lottery to make the payments directly to the secured creditor.

(vi) Upon the termination or release of the security interest, the secured creditor shall file an endorsed copy of the release or termination of the security interest with the lottery.

(vii) Prior to assignment of any prize as collateral to secure a loan pursuant to this subdivision, the Controller shall determine whether the prizewinner owes any obligation that is subject to offset under Article 2 (commencing with Section 12410) of Chapter 5 of Part 2 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code and shall provide notification of his or her determination to the commission and to the Secretary of State.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a prizewinner, by the act of entering into an agreement to assign any prize as collateral to secure a loan, is deemed to have waived any statutory period of limitations that otherwise would bar collection by the state of annual prize payments due after expiration of the term of the secured loan for obligations that accrue subsequent to the assignment of the prize as collateral. Any loan secured by the assignment of a lottery prize shall not apply to the last three annual prize payments from the lottery to the prizewinner and the loan shall not exceed a term of 15 years.

(viii) Any loans made to a prizewinner pursuant to this subdivision shall be exempt from the usury provisions of Article XV of the California Constitution with respect to an assignment of a lottery prize as collateral to secure a loan.

(2) Upon the death of the prizewinner, the winner's prize may be paid by any of the following methods:

(A) To the trustee of a trust established pursuant to subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1), or, if the trust has been terminated, to those beneficiaries entitled to distribution thereunder.

(B) To one or more beneficiaries designated on a form approved by the commission for that purpose, executed by the winner, filed with the commission in accordance with regulations adopted by the commission to govern those designations, and in effect upon the winner's death.

(C) In the absence of an assignment to a trust or a beneficiary designation, the winner's prize may be paid as follows:

(i) To the personal representative of the testate or intestate estate of a deceased prizewinner upon receipt by the commission of a court order and letters appointing an executor, administrator, or other personal representative of the estate of the deceased prizewinner, or pursuant to a final order of distribution.

(ii) As provided under Part 1 (commencing with Section 13000) and Part 2 (commencing with Section 13500) of Division 8 of the Probate Code.

(iii) To a person or persons designated under an appropriate judicial order adjudicating rights to the ownership of the prize.

(3) The commission may establish a reasonable fee for any expenses incurred in order to comply with this subdivision. The fee shall be deducted from the prize moneys paid pursuant to this subdivision.

(4) Upon payment of prize moneys pursuant to this subdivision, the director, the commission, and employees of the lottery and the state shall be discharged of any and all liability for the prize paid, and they shall have no duty or obligation to any person asserting another interest in, or right to receive, the prize payment.

(5) The commission shall adopt regulations necessary to implement this subdivision allowing for a limited right of prizewinners to assign their rights to prize payments and setting the reasonable fee for expenses to be recovered by the lottery. The regulations shall be consistent with and shall further the Legislature's intent that prizewinners who wish to do so should be afforded an opportunity to enjoy more of their winnings currently, as provided by Section 1 of the act that amended this section during the 1994 portion of the 1993–94 Regular Session. If the commission deems it necessary, the regulations may require, as a condition to a voluntary assignment pursuant to an appropriate judicial order, that the assignor be represented by independent legal counsel and receive independent financial and tax advice concerning the effect of the assignment.

(h) A ticket or share shall not be purchased by, and a prize shall not be paid to, a member of the commission, any officer or employee of the commission, any officer or employee of the Controller who is designated in writing by the Controller as having possible access to confidential lottery information, programs, or systems, or any spouse, child, brother, sister, or parent of that person who resides within the same household of the person. Any person who knowingly sells or purchases a ticket or share in violation of this section, or who knowingly claims or attempts to claim a prize with a ticket or share that was purchased or sold in violation of this section, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(i) No prize shall be paid to any person under the age of 18 years. Any person who knowingly claims or attempts to claim a prize with a ticket or share purchased by a person under the age of 18 years is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 3. The Legislature finds and declares that this act furthers the purposes of the California State Lottery Act of 1984.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to allow lottery prizewinners the flexibility to customize the receipt of their prizes to suit their individual and personal circumstances, it is necessary that this bill take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 891

An act to amend Section 164.55 of the Streets and Highways Code, relating to transportation.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 164.55 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

164.55. (a) The department, in cooperation with local transportation officials, shall develop guidelines to implement the intercity rail program. The guidelines shall define the criteria to identify and prioritize projects which can be implemented not later than June 30, 2001, and will provide an efficient system of intercity rail services in the state.

(b) Allocations for intercity rail projects are not required by this section to be matched by local entities.

(c) The commission shall give high priority and an appropriate level of funding to the development and enhancement of an efficient and effective intercity passenger rail system in the state.

(d) "Intercity rail" has the same meaning as the term "intercity rail passenger service" as defined in the Rail Passenger Service Act (45 U.S.C. Sec. 502(11)).

(e) Intercity rail projects eligible for funding include the following corridors:

(1) Los Angeles-San Diego.

(2) Santa Barbara-Los Angeles.

(3) Los Angeles-Fresno-San Francisco Bay area and Sacramento.

(4) San Francisco Bay area-Sacramento-Auburn.

(5) San Francisco-Santa Rosa-Eureka.

(6) Santa Barbara-San Luis Obispo County-San Jose.

(7) Los Angeles-Fullerton-Riverside-Coachella Valley-Calexico.

(f) The department shall submit the guidelines to the commission not later than July 1, 1990, and the commission shall adopt the guidelines not later than September 1, 1990.

(g) Any intercity rail corridor that was included among the corridors enumerated in subdivision (e) subsequent to the enactment of this section by Chapter 106 of the Statutes of 1989 is eligible to compete for funding, and funds that had been programmed or allocated prior to the inclusion of the additional eligible corridors need not be programmed or reallocated.

CHAPTER 892

An act to amend Section 12921.1 of the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature in codifying the Department of Insurance complaint procedure that the system adopted in regulations provide reasonable notice to insurers of the particulars of complaint resolution and not be construed to permit insurers routinely to contest the department's determinations on complaints.

SEC. 2. Section 12921.1 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

12921.1. (a) The commissioner shall establish a program on or before July 1, 1991, to investigate complaints and respond to inquiries received pursuant to Section 12921.3, to comply with Section 12921.4, and, when warranted, to bring enforcement actions against insurers. The program shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(1) A toll-free number published in telephone books throughout the state, dedicated to the handling of complaints and inquiries.

(2) Public service announcements to inform consumers of the toll-free telephone number and how to register a complaint or make an inquiry to the department.

(3) A simple, standardized complaint form designed to assure that complaints will be properly registered and tracked.

(4) Retention of records on complaints for at least three years after the complaint has been closed.

(5) Guidelines to disseminate complaint and enforcement information on individual insurers to the public, that shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(A) License status.

(B) Number and type of complaints closed within the last full calendar year, with analogous statistics from the prior two years for comparison. The proportion of those complaints determined by the department to require that corrective action be taken against the insurer, or leading to insurer compromise, or other remedy for the complainant, as compared to those which are found to be without merit. This information shall be disseminated in a fashion that will facilitate identification of meritless complaints and discourage their consideration by consumers and others interested in the records of insurers.

(C) Number and type of violations found.

(D) Number and type of enforcement actions taken.

(E) Ratio of complaints received to total policies in force, or premium dollars paid in a given line, or both. Private passenger automobile insurance ratios shall be calculated as the number of complaints received to total car years earned in the period studied.

(F) Any other information the department deems is appropriate public information regarding the complaint record of the insurer that will assist the public in selecting an insurer. However, nothing in this section shall be construed to permit disclosure of information or documents in the possession of the department to the extent that the information and those documents are protected from disclosure under any other provision of law.

(6) Procedures and average processing times for each step of complaint mediation, investigation, and enforcement. These procedures shall be consistent with those in Article 6.5 (commencing with Section 790) of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 1 for complaints within the purview of that article, consistent with those in Article 7 (commencing with Section 1858) of Chapter 9 of Part 2 of Division 1 for complaints within the purview of that article, and consistent with any other provisions of law requiring certain procedures to be followed by the department in investigating or prosecuting complaints against insurers.

(7) A list of criteria to determine which violations should be pursued through enforcement action, and enforcement guidelines that set forth appropriate penalties for violations based on the nature, severity, and frequency of the violations.

(8) Referral of complaints not within the department's jurisdiction to appropriate public and private agencies.

(9) Complaint handling goals that can be tested against surveys carried out pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 12921.4.

(10) Inclusion in its annual report to the Governor, required by Section 12922, detailed information regarding the program required by this section, that shall include, but not be limited to: a description of the operation of the complaint handling process, listing civil, criminal, and administrative actions taken pursuant to complaints received; the percentage of the department's personnel years devoted to the handling and resolution of complaints; and suggestions for legislation to improve the complaint handling apparatus and to increase the amount of enforcement action undertaken by the department pursuant to complaints if further enforcement is deemed necessary to insure proper compliance by insurers with the law.

(b) The commissioner shall promulgate a regulation that sets forth the criteria that the department shall apply to determine if a complaint is deemed to be justified prior to the public release of a complaint against a specifically named insurer.

(c) The commissioner shall provide to the insurer a description of any complaint against the insurer that the commissioner has received and has deemed to be justified at least 30 days prior to public release of a report summarizing the information required by this section. This description shall include all of the following:

(1) The name of the complainant.

(2) The date the complaint was filed.

(3) A succinct description of the facts of the complaint.

(4) A statement of the department's rationale for determining that the complaint was justified that applies the department's criteria to the facts of the complaint.

(d) An insurer shall provide to the department the name, mailing address, telephone number, and facsimile number of a person whom the insurer designates as the recipient of all notices, correspondence, and other contacts from the department concerning complaints described in this section. The insurer may change the designation at any time by providing written notice to the Consumer Services Division of the department.

(e) For the purposes of this section, notices, correspondence, and other contacts with the designated person shall be deemed contact with the insurer.

CHAPTER 893

An act to amend Section 12921.1 of the Insurance Code, relating to the Insurance Commissioner.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12921.1 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

12921.1. The commissioner shall establish a program on or before July 1, 1991, to investigate complaints and respond to inquiries received pursuant to Section 12921.3, to comply with Section 12921.4, and, when warranted, to bring enforcement actions against insurers. The program shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(a) A toll-free number published in telephone books throughout the state, dedicated to the handling of complaints and inquiries.

(b) Public service announcements to inform consumers of the toll-free telephone number and how to register a complaint or make an inquiry to the department.

(c) A simple, standardized complaint form designed to assure that complaints will be properly registered and tracked.

(d) Retention of records on complaints for at least three years after the complaint has been closed.

(e) Guidelines to disseminate complaint and enforcement information on individual insurers to the public, that shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(1) License status.

(2) Number and type of complaints closed within the last full calendar year, with analogous statistics from the prior two years for comparison. The proportion of those complaints determined by the department to require that corrective action be taken against the insurer, or leading to insurer compromise, or other remedy for the complainant, as compared to those which are found to be without merit. This information shall be disseminated in a fashion that will facilitate identification of meritless complaints and discourage their consideration by consumers and others interested in the records of insurers.

(3) Number and type of violations found.

(4) Number and type of enforcement actions taken.

(5) Ratio of complaints received to total policies in force, or premium dollars paid in a given line, or both. Private passenger automobile insurance ratios shall be calculated as the number of complaints received to total car years earned in the period studied.

(6) Any other information the department deems is appropriate public information regarding the complaint record of the insurer that will assist the public in selecting an insurer. However, nothing in this section shall be construed to permit disclosure of information or documents in the possession of the department to the extent that the information and those documents are protected from disclosure under any other provision of law.

(f) Procedures and average processing times for each step of complaint mediation, investigation, and enforcement. These procedures shall be consistent with those in Article 6.5 (commencing with Section 790) of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 1 for complaints within the purview of that article, consistent with those in Article 7 (commencing with Section 1858) of Chapter 9 of Part 2 of Division 1 for complaints within the purview of that article, and consistent with any other provisions of law requiring certain procedures to be followed by the department in investigating or prosecuting complaints against insurers.

(g) A list of criteria to determine which violations should be pursued through enforcement action, and enforcement guidelines that set forth appropriate penalties for violations based on the nature, severity, and frequency of the violations.

(h) Referral of complaints not within the department's jurisdiction to appropriate public and private agencies.

(i) Complaint handling goals that can be tested against surveys carried out pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 12921.4.

(j) Inclusion in its annual report to the Governor, required by Section 12922, detailed information regarding the program required by this section, that shall include, but not be limited to: a description of the operation of the complaint handling process, listing civil, criminal, and administrative actions taken pursuant to complaints received; the percentage of the department's personnel years devoted to the handling and resolution of complaints; and suggestions for legislation to improve the complaint handling apparatus and to increase the amount of enforcement action undertaken by the department pursuant to complaints if further enforcement is deemed necessary to insure proper compliance by insurers with the law.

SEC. 2. Section 12921.1 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

12921.1. (a) The commissioner shall establish a program on or before July 1, 1991, to investigate complaints and respond to inquiries received pursuant to Section 12921.3, to comply with Section 12921.4, and, when warranted, to bring enforcement actions against insurers. The program shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(1) A toll-free number published in telephone books throughout the state, dedicated to the handling of complaints and inquiries.

(2) Public service announcements to inform consumers of the toll-free telephone number and how to register a complaint or make an inquiry to the department.

(3) A simple, standardized complaint form designed to assure that complaints will be properly registered and tracked.

(4) Retention of records on complaints for at least three years after the complaint has been closed.

(5) Guidelines to disseminate complaint and enforcement information on individual insurers to the public, that shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(A) License status.

(B) Number and type of complaints closed within the last full calendar year, with analogous statistics from the prior two years for comparison. The proportion of those complaints determined by the department to require that corrective action be taken against the insurer, or leading to insurer compromise, or other remedy for the complainant, as compared to those that are found to be without merit. This information shall be disseminated in a fashion that will facilitate identification of meritless complaints and discourage their consideration by consumers and others interested in the records of insurers.

(C) Number and type of violations found.

(D) Number and type of enforcement actions taken.

(E) Ratio of complaints received to total policies in force, or premium dollars paid in a given line, or both.

Private passenger automobile insurance ratios shall be calculated as the number of complaints received to total car years earned in the period studied.

(F) Any other information the department deems is appropriate public information regarding the complaint record of the insurer that will assist the public in selecting an insurer. However, nothing in this section shall be construed to permit disclosure of information or documents in the possession of the department to the extent that the information and those documents are protected from disclosure under any other provision of law.

(6) Procedures and average processing times for each step of complaint mediation, investigation, and enforcement. These procedures shall be consistent with those in Article 6.5 (commencing with Section 790) of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 1 for complaints within the purview of that article, consistent with those in Article 7 (commencing with Section 1858) of Chapter 9 of Part 2 of Division 1 for complaints within the purview of that article, and consistent with any other provisions of law requiring certain procedures to be followed by the department in investigating or prosecuting complaints against insurers.

(7) A list of criteria to determine which violations should be pursued through enforcement action, and enforcement guidelines that set forth appropriate penalties for violations based on the nature, severity, and frequency of the violations.

(8) Referral of complaints not within the department's jurisdiction to appropriate public and private agencies.

(9) Complaint handling goals that can be tested against surveys carried out pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 12921.4.

(10) Inclusion in its annual report to the Governor, required by Section 12922, detailed information regarding the program required by this section, that shall include, but not be limited to: a description of the operation of the complaint handling process, listing civil, criminal, and administrative actions taken pursuant to complaints received; the percentage of the department's personnel years devoted to the handling and resolution of complaints; and suggestions for legislation to improve the complaint handling apparatus and to increase the amount of enforcement action undertaken by the department pursuant to complaints if further enforcement is deemed necessary to insure proper compliance by insurers with the law.

(b) The commissioner shall promulgate a regulation that sets forth the criteria that the department shall apply to determine if a complaint is deemed to be justified prior to the public release of a complaint against a specifically named insurer.

(c) The commissioner shall provide to the insurer a description of any complaint against the insurer that the commissioner has received and has deemed to be justified at least 30 days prior to public release of a report summarizing the information required by this section. This description shall include all of the following:

(1) The name of the complainant.

(2) The date the complaint was filed.

(3) A succinct description of the facts of the complaint.

(4) A statement of the department's rationale for determining that the complaint was justified that applies the department's criteria to the facts of the complaint.

(d) An insurer shall provide to the department the name, mailing address, telephone number, and facsimile number of a person whom the insurer designates as the recipient of all notices, correspondence, and other contacts from the department concerning complaints described in this section. The insurer may change the designation at any time by providing written notice to the Consumer Services Division of the department.

(e) For the purposes of this section, notices, correspondence, and other contacts with the designated person shall be deemed contact with the insurer.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 12921.1 of the Insurance Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2601. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 12921.1 of the Insurance Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2061, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 894

An act to amend Section 22659.5 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22659.5 of the Vehicle Code, as amended by Chapter 161 of the Statutes of 1994, is amended to read:

22659.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the County of Alameda, any city in that county, the County of Contra Costa, any city in that county, the County of San Diego, any city in that county, the County of Sacramento, any city in that county, the City and County of San Francisco, the City of Signal Hill, the City of Long Beach, and the City of Los Angeles with respect to that portion of that city situated in the San Fernando Valley statistical area, as described in subdivision (c) of Section 11093 of the Government Code, may adopt an ordinance establishing a five-year pilot program which implements procedures for declaring any motor vehicle a public nuisance when the vehicle is used in the commission of an act in violation of Section 266h or 266i of the Penal Code or subdivision (b) of Section 647 of that code, and there is a conviction of Section 266h or 266i of the Penal Code or subdivision (b) of Section 647 of that code, or a provision involving any lesser included offense to which the defendant enters a plea of guilty or nolo contendere as part of a plea agreement subsequent to the defendant having been charged with a violation of Section 266h or 266i of the Penal Code or subdivision (b) of Section 647 of that code.

(b) In addition to the authority provided by subdivision (h) of Section 22651, the ordinance may also include procedures to enjoin and abate the declared nuisance by ordering the defendant not to use the vehicle again for purposes of violating Section 266h or 266i of the Penal Code or subdivision (b) of Section 647 of that code and authorizing the temporary impoundment of the vehicle that the court has declared a nuisance if the defendant violates the order. The impoundment shall not exceed 48 hours.

(c) The only action that may be taken to enjoin and abate the declared nuisance are those actions specified in subdivision (b).

(d) Any procedures implemented pursuant to this section shall ensure that no vehicle shall be declared a nuisance if the vehicle is stolen, unless it is not possible to reasonably ascertain the identity of any owner of the vehicle.

(e) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1999, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 895

An act to amend Sections 2154, 2454.5, and 2456.1 of, and to amend, repeal, and add Section 2455 of, the Business and Professions Code, relating to osteopathic medicine, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2154 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2154. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the Osteopathic Medical Board of California shall issue an osteopathic physician's and surgeon's certificate on reciprocity to an applicant providing he or she meets the following requirements:

(a) The applicant holds an unlimited license to engage in the practice of osteopathic medicine in another state whose written licensing examination is recognized and approved by the board to be equivalent in content to that administered in California. For the purposes of this section, the board may recognize and approve as equivalent, along with other examinations, an examination prepared by the Federation of State Medical Boards if an applicant had been licensed in another state as a result of the successful completion, prior to December 31, 1993, of that examination. In lieu of a board recognized and approved state written license examination, the board may require the applicant to successfully complete a special examination in general medicine and osteopathic principles prepared by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners, or the Osteopathic Medical Board of California. The board may also utilize a special purpose examination prepared by the Federation of State Medical Boards.

(b) The board determines that no disciplinary action has been taken against the applicant by any medical licensing authority and that the applicant has not been the subject of adverse judgments or settlements resulting from the practice of medicine which the board determines constitutes evidence of a pattern of negligence or incompetence.

(c) The applicant successfully completes an oral, clinical, and practical examination, as determined by the board.

SEC. 2. Section 2454.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2454.5. In order to ensure the continuing competence of licensed osteopathic physicians and surgeons, the board shall adopt and administer standards for the continuing education of those licensees. The board shall require each licensed osteopathic physician and surgeon to demonstrate satisfaction of the continuing education requirements as a condition for the renewal of a license at intervals of not less than one year nor more than three years. Commencing January 1, 1995, the board shall require each licensed osteopathic physician and surgeon to complete a minimum of 150 hours of American Osteopathic Association continuing education hours during each three-year cycle, of which 60 hours must be completed in American Osteopathic Association Category 1 continuing education hours as a condition for renewal of an active license.

For purposes of this section, "American Osteopathic Association Category 1" means continuing education activities and programs approved for Category 1 credit by the Committee on Continuing Medical Education of the American Osteopathic Association.

SEC. 3. Section 2455 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2455. The amount of fees and refunds is that established by the following schedule for any certificate issued by the Osteopathic Medical Board of California. All other fees and refunds for any certificate issued by the Osteopathic Medical Board of California which are not prescribed in this schedule, are prescribed in Section 2456. Any and all fees received by the Osteopathic Medical Board of California shall be for the sole purpose of the operations of the board and shall not be expended for any other purpose.

(a) Each applicant for an original or reciprocity Physicians and Surgeons Certificate shall pay an application fee in a sum not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200) at the time his or her application is filed. If the applicant's credentials are insufficient, or if he or she does not take the examination, the board may retain a sum equal to the actual cost of processing the application, not to exceed one hundred fifty dollars ($150) and the remainder of the fee is returnable upon application.

(b) The oral and practical examination fee shall not exceed two hundred dollars ($200) nor be less than fifty dollars ($50).

(c) The annual tax and registration fee, unless otherwise provided, shall be set by the board on or before November 1 of each year for the ensuing calendar year at a sum as the board determines necessary to defray the expenses of administering this chapter, under the Osteopathic Act, relating to the issuance of certificates to those applicants, which sum, however, shall, not exceed three hundred dollars ($300) nor be less than twenty-five dollars ($25). Eighty percent of the annual tax and registration fee that is in excess of two hundred dollars ($200) shall be for the sole purpose of the board's enforcement activities.

(d) The board shall set an annual tax and registration fee in an amount less than that levied pursuant to subdivision (c) that shall be paid by any applicant who indicates to the board in writing that he or she does not intend to practice under the Osteopathic Act during the renewal period covered by that annual tax and registration fee.

(e) The fee for failure to pay the annual tax and registration fee shall be 50 percent of the renewal fee but not more than one hundred fifty dollars ($150). Eighty percent of the fee for failure to pay the annual tax and registration fee that is in excess of one hundred dollars ($100) shall be for the sole purpose of the board's enforcement activities.

(f) This section shall become operative on, the later of, July 1, 1994, or the effective date of this section.

(g) This section shall remain in effect only until July 1, 1999, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, that is enacted before July 1, 1999, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4. Section 2455 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

2455. The amount of fees and refunds is that established by the following schedule for any certificate issued by the Osteopathic Medical Board of California. All other fees and refunds for any certificate issued by the Osteopathic Medical Board of California which are not prescribed in this schedule, are prescribed in Section 2456. Any and all fees received by the Osteopathic Medical Board of California shall be for the sole purpose of the operation of the board and shall not be used for any other purpose.

(a) Each applicant for an original or reciprocity Physicians and Surgeons Certificate shall pay an application fee in a sum not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200) at the time his or her application is filed. If the applicant's credentials are insufficient, or if he or she does not take the examination, the board may retain a sum equal to the actual cost of processing the application, not to exceed one hundred fifty dollars ($150) and the remainder of the fee is returnable upon application.

(b) The oral and practical examination fee shall not exceed two hundred dollars ($200) nor be less than fifty dollars ($50).

(c) The annual tax and registration fee, unless otherwise provided, shall be set by the board on or before November 1 of each year for the ensuing calendar year at a sum as the board determines necessary to defray the expenses of administering this chapter, under the Osteopathic Act, relating to the issuance of certificates to those applicants, which sum, however, shall, not exceed two hundred dollars ($200) nor be less than twenty-five dollars ($25).

(d) The board shall set an annual tax and registration fee in an amount less than that levied pursuant to subdivision (c) that shall be paid by any applicant who indicates to the board in writing that he or she does not intend to practice under the Osteopathic Act during the renewal period covered by that annual tax and registration fee.

(e) The fee for failure to pay the annual tax and registration fee shall be 50 percent of the renewal fee but not more than one hundred dollars ($100).

(f) This section shall become operative on July 1, 1999.

SEC. 5. Section 2456.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2456.1. All osteopathic physician's and surgeon's certificates shall expire at 12 midnight on the last day of the birth month of the licensee during the second year of a two-year term if not renewed on or before that day.

The board shall establish by regulation procedures for the administration of a birth date renewal program, including, but not limited to, the establishment of a system of staggered license expiration dates such that a relatively equal number of licenses expire monthly.

To renew an unexpired license, the licensee shall, on or before the dates on which it would otherwise expire, apply for renewal on a form prescribed by the board and pay the prescribed renewal fee.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

The Osteopathic Medical Board of California is currently experiencing a fiscal crisis and in order to perform the enforcement and investigation functions that are vital to protecting the health and safety of the public, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 896

An act to amend Sections 65008, 65589.5, and 65852.3 of the Government Code, and to amend Sections 18214, 18215, 18217, and 18801 of, and to add Section 17021.7 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to land use.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 65008 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65008. (a) Any action pursuant to this title by any city, county, city and county, or other local governmental agency in this state is null and void if it denies to any individual or group of individuals the enjoyment of residence, landownership, tenancy, or any other land use in this state because of any of the following reasons:

(1) The race, sex, color, religion, ethnicity, national origin, ancestry, lawful occupation, or age of the individuals or group of individuals.

(2) The method of financing of any residential development of the individual or group of individuals.

(3) The intended occupancy of any residential development by persons or families of low, moderate, or middle income.

(b) No city, county, city and county, or other local governmental agency shall, in the enactment or administration of ordinances pursuant to this title, prohibit or discriminate against any residential development or emergency shelter because of the method of financing or the race, sex, color, religion, ethnicity, national origin, ancestry, lawful occupation, or age of the owners or intended occupants of the residential development or emergency shelter.

(c) (1) No city, county, city and county, or other local governmental agency shall, in the enactment or administration of ordinances pursuant to this title, prohibit or discriminate against a residential development or emergency shelter because the development or shelter is intended for occupancy by persons and families of low and moderate income, as defined in Section 50093 of the Health and Safety Code, or persons and families of middle income.

(2) For the purposes of this section, "persons and families of middle income" means persons and families whose income does not exceed 150 percent of the median income for the county in which the persons or families reside.

(d) (1) No city, county, city and county, or other local governmental agency may impose different requirements on a residential development or emergency shelter which is subsidized, financed, insured, or otherwise assisted by the federal or state governments or by a local public entity, as defined in Section 50079 of the Health and Safety Code, than those imposed on nonassisted developments, except as provided in subdivision (e).

(2) No city, county, city and county, or other local governmental agency may, because of the race, sex, color, religion, ethnicity, national origin, ancestry, lawful occupation, or age of the intended occupants, or because the development is intended for occupancy by persons and families of low, moderate, or middle income, impose different requirements on these residential developments than those imposed on developments generally, except as provided in subdivision (e).

(e) Nothing in this title shall be construed to prohibit a city, county, or city and county from extending preferential treatment to residential developments or emergency shelters assisted by the federal or state governments or by a local public entity, as defined in Section 50079 of the Health and Safety Code, or other residential developments or emergency shelters intended for occupancy by persons and families of low and moderate income, as defined in Section 50093 of the Health and Safety Code, or persons and families of middle income, or agricultural employees, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 1140.4 of the Labor Code, and their families. This preferential treatment may include, but need not be limited to, reduction or waiver of fees or changes in architectural requirements, site development and property line requirements, building setback requirements, or vehicle parking requirements which reduce development costs of these developments.

(f) "Residential development," as used in this section, means a single-family residence or a multifamily residence, including manufactured homes, as defined in Section 18007 of the Health and Safety Code.

(g) This section shall apply to chartered cities.

(h) The Legislature finds and declares that discriminatory practices which inhibit the development of housing for persons and families of low, moderate, and middle income, or emergency shelters for the homeless, are a matter of statewide concern.

SEC. 2. Section 65589.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65589.5. (a) The Legislature finds all of the following:

(1) The lack of affordable housing is a critical problem which threatens the economic, environmental, and social quality of life in California.

(2) California housing has become the most expensive in the nation. The excessive cost of the state's housing supply is partially caused by activities and policies of many local governments which limit the approval of affordable housing, increase the cost of land for affordable housing, and require that high fees and exactions be paid by producers of potentially affordable housing.

(3) Among the consequences of those actions are discrimination against low-income and minority households, lack of housing to support employment growth, imbalance in jobs and housing, reduced mobility, urban sprawl, excessive commuting, and air quality deterioration.

(4) Many local governments do not give adequate attention to the economic, environmental, and social costs of decisions which result in disapproval of affordable housing projects, reduction in density of affordable housing projects, and excessive standards for affordable housing projects.

(b) It is the policy of the state that a local government not reject or make infeasible affordable housing developments which contribute to meeting the housing need determined pursuant to this article without a thorough analysis of the economic, social, and environmental effects of the action and without meeting the provisions of subdivision (d).

(c) The Legislature also recognizes that premature and unnecessary development of agricultural lands to urban uses continues to have adverse effects on the availability of those lands for food and fiber production and on the economy of the state. Furthermore, it is the policy of the state that development should be guided away from prime agricultural lands; therefore, in implementing this section, local jurisdictions should encourage, to the maximum extent practicable, in filling existing urban areas.

(d) A local agency shall not disapprove a housing development project affordable to low- and moderate-income households or condition approval in a manner which renders the project infeasible for development for the use of low- and moderate-income households unless it finds, based upon substantial evidence, one of the following:

(1) The jurisdiction has adopted a housing element pursuant to this article and the development project is not needed for the jurisdiction to meet its share of the regional housing need of low-income or very low income housing.

(2) The development project as proposed would have a specific, adverse impact upon the public health or safety, and there is no feasible method to satisfactorily mitigate or avoid the specific adverse impact without rendering the development unaffordable to low- and moderate-income households. As used in this paragraph, a "specific, adverse impact" means a significant, unavoidable impact, as provided in written standards, policies, or conditions.

(3) The denial of the project or imposition of conditions is required in order to comply with specific state or federal law, and there is no feasible method to comply without rendering the development unaffordable to low- and moderate-income households.

(4) Approval of the development project would increase the concentration of lower income households in a neighborhood that already has a disproportionately high number of lower income households and there is no feasible method of approving the development at a different site, including those sites identified pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) of Section 65583, without rendering the development unaffordable to low- and moderate-income households.

(5) The development project is proposed on land zoned for agriculture or resource preservation which is surrounded on at least two sides by land being used for agricultural or resource preservation purposes, or which does not have adequate water or waste water facilities to serve the project.

(6) The development project is inconsistent with the jurisdiction's general plan land use designation as specified in any element of the general plan as it existed on the date the application was deemed complete, and the jurisdiction has adopted a housing element pursuant to this article.

(e) Nothing in this section shall be construed to relieve the local agency from complying with the Congestion Management Program required by Chapter 2.6 (commencing with Section 65088) of Division 1 of Title 7 or the California Coastal Act (Division 20 (commencing with Section 30000) of the Public Resources Code). Neither shall anything in this section be construed to relieve the local agency from making one or more of the findings required pursuant to Section 21081 of the Public Resources Code or otherwise complying with the California Environmental Quality Act (Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code).

(f) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit a local agency from requiring the development project to comply with written development standards, conditions, and policies appropriate to, and consistent with, meeting the quantified objectives relative to the development of housing, as required in the housing element pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 65583. Nor shall anything in this section be construed to prohibit a local agency from imposing fees and other exactions otherwise authorized by law which are essential to provide necessary public services and facilities to the development project.

(g) This section shall be applicable to charter cities, because the Legislature finds that the lack of affordable housing is a critical statewide problem.

(h) The following definitions apply for the purposes of this section:

(1) "Feasible" means capable of being accomplished in a successful manner within a reasonable period of time, taking into account economic, environmental, social, and technological factors.

(2) "Affordable to low- and moderate-income households" means at least 20 percent of the total units shall be sold or rented to lower income households, as defined in Section 50079.5 of the Health and Safety Code, and the remaining units shall be sold or rented to either lower income households or persons and families of moderate income, as defined in Section 50093 of the Health and Safety Code. Housing units targeted for lower income households shall be made available at a monthly housing cost that does not exceed 30 percent of 60 percent of area median income with adjustments for household size made in accordance with the adjustment factors on which the lower income eligibility limits are based. Housing units targeted for persons and families of moderate income shall be made available at a monthly housing cost that does not exceed 30 percent of 100 percent of area median income with adjustments for household size made in accordance with the adjustment factors on which the moderate income eligibility limits are based.

(3) "Area median income" shall mean area median income as periodically established by the Department of Housing and Community Development pursuant to Section 50093 of the Health and Safety Code. The developer shall provide sufficient legal commitments to ensure continued availability of units for the lower income households in accordance with the provisions of this subdivision for 30 years.

(4) "Neighborhood" means a planning area commonly identified as such in a community's planning documents, and identified as a neighborhood by the individuals residing and working within the neighborhood. Documentation demonstrating that the area meets the definition of neighborhood may include a map prepared for planning purposes which lists the name and boundaries of the neighborhood.

(i) If any city, county, or city and county denies approval or imposes restrictions, including a reduction of allowable densities or the percentage of a lot which may be occupied by a building or structure under the applicable planning and zoning in force at the time the application is deemed complete pursuant to Section 65943, which have a substantial adverse effect on the viability or affordability of a housing development affordable to low- and moderate-income households, and the denial of the development or the imposition of restrictions on the development is the subject of a court action which challenges the denial, then the burden of proof shall be on the local legislative body to show that its decision is consistent with the findings as described in subdivision (d).

(j) When a proposed housing development project complies with the applicable general plan, zoning, and development policies in effect at the time that the housing development project's application is determined to be complete, but the local agency proposes to disapprove the project or to approve it upon the condition that the project be developed at a lower density, the local agency shall base its decision regarding the proposed housing development project upon written findings supported by substantial evidence on the record that both of the following conditions exist:

(1) The housing development project would have a specific, adverse impact upon the public health or safety unless the project is disapproved or approved upon the condition that the project be developed at a lower density. As used in this paragraph, a "specific, adverse impact" means a significant, unavoidable impact, as provided in written standards, policies, or conditions.

(2) There is no feasible method to satisfactorily mitigate or avoid the adverse impact identified pursuant to paragraph (1), other than the disapproval of the housing development project or the approval of the project upon the condition that it be developed at a lower density.

SEC. 3. Section 65852.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65852.3. (a) A city, including a charter city, county, or city and county, shall allow the installation of manufactured homes certified under the National Manufactured Housing Construction and Safety Standards Act of 1974 (42 U.S.C. Secs. 5401 et seq.) on a foundation system, pursuant to Section 18551 of the Health and Safety Code, on lots zoned for conventional single-family residential dwellings. Except with respect to architectural requirements, a city, including a charter city, county, or city and county, shall only subject the manufactured home and the lot on which it is placed to the same development standards to which a conventional single-family residential dwelling on the same lot would be subject, including, but not limited to, building setback standards, side and rear yard requirements, standards for enclosures, access, and vehicle parking, aesthetic requirements, and minimum square footage requirements. Any architectural requirements imposed on the manufactured home structure itself, exclusive of any requirement for any and all additional enclosures, shall be limited to its roof overhang, roofing material, and siding material. These architectural requirements may be imposed on manufactured homes even if similar requirements are not imposed on conventional single-family residential dwellings. However, any architectural requirements for roofing and siding material shall not exceed those which would be required of conventional single-family dwellings constructed on the same lot. At the discretion of the local legislative body, the city or county may preclude installation of a manufactured home in zones specified in this section if more than 10 years have elapsed between the date of manufacture of the manufactured home and the date of the application for the issuance of a permit to install the manufactured home in the affected zone. In no case may a city, including a charter city, county, or city and county, apply any development standards that will have the effect of precluding manufactured homes from being installed as permanent residences.

(b) At the discretion of the local legislative body, any place, building, structure, or other object having a special character or special historical interest or value, and which is regulated by a legislative body pursuant to Section 37361, may be exempted from this section, provided the place, building, structure, or other object is listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

SEC. 4. Section 17021.7 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

17021.7. Notwithstanding subdivision (b) of Section 18214, subdivision (b) of Section 18215, and subdivision (b) of Section 18217, mobilehomes and recreational vehicles used to house agricultural employees shall be maintained in conformity with the applicable requirements of the Mobilehome Parks Act (Part 2.1 (commencing with Section 18200)).

SEC. 5. Section 18214 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18214. (a) "Mobilehome park" is any area or tract of land where two or more mobilehome lots are rented or leased, held out for rent or lease, or were formerly held out for rent or lease and later converted to a subdivision, cooperative, condominium, or other form of resident ownership, to accommodate manufactured homes or mobilehomes used for human habitation. The rental paid for a manufactured home or mobilehome shall be deemed to include rental for the lot it occupies.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), an area or tract of land zoned for agricultural purposes where two or more mobilehome lots or spaces are rented or leased, held out for rent or lease, or provided as a term or condition of employment, to accommodate manufactured homes or mobilehomes used for the purpose of housing 12 or fewer agricultural employees shall not be deemed a mobilehome park.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), an area or tract of land shall not be deemed a mobilehome park if the structures on it consist of residential structures that are rented or leased, or held out for rent or lease, if those residential structures meet both of the following requirements:

(1) The residential structures are manufactured homes constructed pursuant to the National Manufactured Housing

Construction and Safety Act of 1974 (42 U.S.C., Secs. 5401 et seq.) or mobilehomes containing two or more dwelling units for human habitation.

(2) Those manufactured homes or mobilehomes have been approved by a city, county, or city and county pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 17951 as an alternate which is at least the equivalent to the requirements prescribed in the California Building Standards Code or Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 17910) in performance, safety, and for the protection of life and health.

SEC. 6. Section 18215 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18215. (a) "Recreational vehicle park" is any area or tract of land, or a separate designated section within a mobilehome park, where two or more lots are rented or leased or held out for rent, or lease to owners or users of recreational vehicles or tents.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), an area or tract of land zoned for agricultural purposes where two or more lots are rented or leased, or held out for rent or lease, to owners or users of recreational vehicles or tents for the purpose of housing 12 or fewer agricultural employees, shall not be deemed a recreational vehicle park.

SEC. 7. Section 18217 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18217. (a) "Temporary recreational vehicle park" is any area or tract of land where two or more lots are rented or leased or held out for rent or lease to owners or users of recreational vehicles and which is established for one operation not to exceed 11 consecutive days, and is then removed.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), an area or tract of land zoned for agricultural purposes where two or more lots are rented or leased, or held out for rent or lease, to owners or users of recreational vehicles for the purpose of housing 12 or fewer agricultural employees, shall not be deemed a temporary recreational vehicle park.

SEC. 8. Section 18801 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18801. (a) "Manufactured housing community," as used in this part and Part 2.1 (commencing with Section 18200), means any area or tract of land where two or more manufactured home lots are rented or leased, held out for rent or lease, or were formerly held out for rent or lease and later converted to a subdivision, cooperative, condominium, or other form of resident ownership, only to accommodate the use of manufactured homes constructed pursuant to the National Manufactured Housing Construction and Safety Standards Act of 1974 (42 U.S.C. Secs. 5401 et seq.) or mobilehomes containing two or more dwelling units for human habitation. The rental paid for a manufactured home shall be deemed to include rental for the lot it occupies.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), an area or tract of land zoned for agricultural purposes where two or more manufactured home lots are rented or leased, held out for rent or lease, or provided as a term or condition of employment to accommodate manufactured homes or mobilehomes used for the purpose of housing 12 or fewer agricultural employees, shall not be deemed a manufactured housing community.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), an area or tract of land shall not be deemed a mobilehome park if the structures on it consist of residential structures that are rented or leased, or held out for rent or lease, if those residential structures meet both of the following requirements:

(1) The residential structures are manufactured homes constructed pursuant to the National Manufactured Housing Construction and Safety Standards Act of 1974 (42 U.S.C. Secs. 5401 et seq.) or mobilehomes containing two or more dwelling units for human habitation.

(2) Those manufactured homes or mobilehomes have been approved by a city, county, or city and county pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 17951 as an alternate which is at least the equivalent to the requirements prescribed in the California Building Standards Code or Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 17910) in performance, safety, and for the protection of life and health.

SEC. 9. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 897

An act to add Part 7 (commencing with Section 36600) to Division 18 of the Streets and Highways Code, relating to benefit assessments.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Part 7 (commencing with Section 36600) is added to Division 18 of the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

PART 7. PROPERTY AND BUSINESS IMPROVEMENT DISTRICT LAW OF 1994

CHAPTER 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1. Declarations

36600. This part shall be known and may be cited as the "Property and Business Improvement District Law of 1994."

36601. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) Businesses located and operating within the business districts of this state's communities are economically disadvantaged, are underutilized, and are unable to attract customers due to inadequate facilities, services, and activities in the business districts.

(b) It is in the public interest to promote the economic revitalization and physical maintenance of the business districts of its cities in order to create jobs, attract new businesses, and prevent the erosion of the business districts.

(c) It is of particular local benefit to allow cities to fund property related improvements, maintenance, and activities through the levy of assessments upon the real property that benefits from those improvements.

(d) Assessments levied for the purpose of providing improvements and promoting activities that benefit real property are not taxes for the general benefit of a city, but are assessments for the improvements and activities which confer special benefits upon the real property for which the improvement and activities are provided.

36602. The purpose of this part is to supplement previously enacted provisions of law that authorize cities to levy assessments within a business improvement area. This part does not affect or limit any other provisions of law authorizing or providing for the furnishing of improvements or activities or the raising of revenue for these purposes.

36603. Nothing in this part is intended to preempt the authority of a charter city to adopt ordinances providing for a different method of levying assessments for similar or additional purposes from those set forth in this part. A property and business improvement district created pursuant to this part is expressly exempt from the provisions of the Special Assessment Investigation, Limitation and Majority Protest Act of 1931 (Division 4 (commencing with Section 2800)).

36604. This part is intended to be construed liberally and, if any provision is held invalid, the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect. Assessments levied under this part are not special taxes.

Article 2. Definitions

36605. "Advisory board" means the advisory board or commission appointed by the city council pursuant to Section 36631.

36606. "Assessment" means a levy for the purpose of acquiring, constructing, installing, or maintaining improvements and promoting activities which will benefit the properties located within a property and business improvement district.

36607. "Business" means all types of businesses and includes financial institutions and professions.

36608. "City" means a city, county, city and county, or an agency or entity created pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 6500) of Chapter 5 of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, the public member agencies of which includes only cities, counties, or a city and county.

36609. "City council" means the city council of a city or the board of supervisors of a county, or the agency, commission, or board created pursuant to a joint powers agreement and which is a city within the meaning of this part.

36610. "Improvement" means the acquisition, construction, installation, or maintenance of any tangible property with an estimated useful life of five years or more including, but not limited to, the following:

(a) Parking facilities.

(b) Benches, booths, kiosks, display cases, pedestrian shelters and signs.

(c) Trash receptacles and public restrooms.

(d) Lighting and heating facilities.

(e) Decorations.

(f) Parks.

(g) Fountains.

(h) Planting areas.

(i) Closing, opening, widening, or narrowing of existing streets.

(j) Facilities or equipment, or both, to enhance security of persons and property within the area.

(k) Ramps, sidewalks, plazas, and pedestrian malls.

(l) Rehabilitation or removal of existing structures.

36611. "Property and business improvement district," or "district," means a property and business improvement district established pursuant to this part.

36612. "Property" means real property situated within a district.

36613. "Activities" means, but is not limited to, all of the following:

(a) Promotion of public events which benefit businesses or real property in the district.

(b) Furnishing of music in any public place within the district.

(c) Promotion of tourism within the district.

(d) Marketing and economic development, including retail retention and recruitment.

(e) Providing security, sanitation, graffiti removal, street and sidewalk cleaning, and other municipal services supplemental to those normally provided by the municipality.

(f) Activities which benefit businesses and real property located in the district.

36614. "Management district plan" or "plan" means a proposal as defined in Section 36622.

36615. "Property owner" or "owner" means any person shown as the owner of land on the last equalized assessment roll or otherwise known to be the owner of land by the city council. The city council has no obligation to obtain other information as to the ownership of land, and its determination of ownership shall be final and conclusive for the purposes of this part. A public agency is not a property owner of land for purposes of this part without the express consent of the agency.

36616. "Tenant" means an occupant pursuant to a lease of commercial space or a dwelling unit, other than an owner.

Article 3. Prior Law

36617. This part provides an alternative method of financing certain improvements and activities. The provisions of this part shall not affect or limit any other provisions of law authorizing or providing for the furnishing of improvements or activities or the raising of revenue for these purposes. Every improvement area established pursuant to the Parking and Business Improvement Area Law of 1989 (Part 6 (commencing with Section 36500) of this division) is valid and effective and is unaffected by this part.

CHAPTER 2. ESTABLISHMENT

36620. A property and business improvement district may be established as provided in this chapter.

36621. Upon the written petition, signed and acknowledged, of the property owners in the proposed district who will pay more than 50 percent of the assessments proposed to be levied, the city council may initiate proceedings to form a district by the adoption of a resolution expressing its intention to form a district. The amount of assessment attributable to property owned by the same property owner which is in excess of 40 percent of the amount of all assessments proposed to be levied, shall not be included in determining whether the petition is signed by property owners who will pay more than 50 percent of the total amount of assessments proposed to be levied. The petition of property owners shall include the management district plan. The resolution of intention shall contain all of the following:

(a) The management district plan.

(b) A time and place for a public hearing on the establishment of the property and business improvement district and the levy of assessments, which shall not be held more than 60 days after the adoption of the resolution of intention.

36622. The management district plan shall contain all of the following:

(a) A map of the district in sufficient detail to locate each parcel of property within the district.

(b) The name of the proposed district.

(c) A description of the boundaries of the district, including the boundaries of any benefit zones, proposed for establishment or extension in a manner sufficient to identify the lands included. Under no circumstances shall the boundaries of a proposed district overlap with the boundaries of another existing district created pursuant to this part. Nothing in this part prohibits the boundaries of a district created pursuant to this part to overlap with other assessment districts established pursuant to other provisions of law including, but not limited to, the Parking and Business Improvement Area Law of 1989.

(d) The improvements and activities proposed for each year of operation of the district and the maximum cost thereof.

(e) The total annual amount proposed to be expended for improvements, maintenance and operations in each year of operation of the district.

(f) The proposed source or sources of financing including the proposed method and basis of levying the assessment in sufficient detail to allow each property owner to calculate the amount of the assessment to be levied against his of her property.

(g) The time and manner of collecting the assessments.

(h) The specific number of years, to a maximum of five, in which assessments will be levied. The management district plan may set forth specific increases in assessments for each year of operation of the district.

(i) The proposed time for implementation and completion of the management district plan.

(j) Any proposed rules and regulations to be applicable to the district.

(k) A list, by assessor's parcel number, of the properties to be benefited, and a statement of the method or methods by which the expenses of a district will be imposed upon benefited real property, in proportion to the benefit received by the property, to defray the cost thereof, including operation and maintenance. The plan may provide that all or any class or category of real property which is exempt by law from real property taxation may nevertheless be included within the boundaries of the district but shall not be subject to the assessment.

(l) Any other item or matter required to be incorporated therein by the city council.

36623. If a city council proposes to levy a new or increased benefit assessment, notice shall be given pursuant to Section 54954.6 of the Government Code. In addition, the city council shall publish the resolution of intention in a newspaper of general circulation in the city once, at least seven days before the public meeting, and shall mail the resolution of intention by first-class mail to each property owner in the district and to each local chamber of commerce and business organization known by the city council to be located within the proposed district not later than 10 days before the public meeting. Notice of all other public meetings and public hearings shall comply with both the following:

(a) The resolution of intention shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the city once, at least seven days before the public meeting; and

(b) A complete copy of the resolution of intention shall be mailed by first-class mail to each property owner in the district and each local chamber of commerce and business organization known by the city council to be located within the proposed district no later than 10 days before the public meeting.

36624. (a) At the public hearing, the city council shall hear and consider all protests against the establishment of the district, the extent of the district, or the furnishing of specified types of improvements or activities within the district. A protest may be made orally or in writing by any interested person. Any protest pertaining to the regularity or sufficiency of the proceedings shall be in writing and shall clearly set forth the irregularity or defect to which the objection is made.

(b) Every written protest shall be filed with the clerk no later than thirty days after the resolution of preliminary adoption adopted pursuant to Section 36627. The city council may waive any irregularity in the form or content of any written protest and may correct minor defects in the proceedings. A protest may be withdrawn in writing at any time before thirty days after the conclusion of the last day of public hearing.

(c) Each written protest shall contain a description of the property in which the person subscribing the protest is interested sufficient to identify the property. A written protest which does not comply with this section shall not be counted in determining a majority protest.

36625. (a) If written protests are received from the owners of real property in the district who will pay 50 percent or more of the assessments proposed to be levied and protests are not withdrawn so as to reduce the protests to less than 50 percent, no further proceedings to create the specified property and business improvement district or to levy the proposed assessment, as contained in the resolution of intention, shall be taken for a period of one year from the date of the finding of a majority protest by the city council. If the city council finds a majority protest in connection with a proposed modification pursuant to Section 36640 or 36642, then no further proceedings to establish the same or substantially similar modifications shall be taken for a period of one year from the date of the finding of a majority protest by the city council.

(b) If the majority protest is only against the furnishing of a specified type or types of improvement or activity within the district, only those types of improvements or activities shall be eliminated.

36626. (a) At the conclusion of the public hearing to establish the district, the city council may adopt, revise, change, reduce, or modify the proposed assessment or the type or types of improvements and activities to be funded with the revenues from the assessments. Proposed assessments may only be revised by reducing any or all of them. At the public hearing, the city council may only make changes in, to, or from, the boundaries of the proposed property and business improvement district that will exclude territory which will not benefit from the proposed improvements or activities. Any modifications, revisions, reductions, or changes to the proposed assessment district shall be reflected in the notice and map recorded pursuant to Section 36626.6.

(b) The city council shall not change the boundaries of the district to include any territory that will not, in its judgment, benefit by the improvement or activity. Any addition of territory to the proposed boundaries of the district may be made only upon notice to the owners of the property proposed to be added to the district, as provided in Section 36623, and upon a public hearing on the addition of territory, as provided in Section 36624.

36626.5. If the city council, following the public hearing, desires to establish the proposed property and business improvement district, and the city council has made changes pursuant to Section 36626, and the changes are not merely clerical changes or corrections, the city council shall adopt a resolution of preliminary adoption that shall contain all of the following:

(a) The management district plan.

(b) The number, date of adoption, and title of the resolution of intention.

(c) The time and place where the public hearing was held concerning the establishment of the district.

(d) A determination regarding any protests received.

(e) A statement that the properties in the district established by the resolution shall be subject to any amendments to this part.

(f) A statement that the improvements and activities to be provided in the district will be funded by the levy of the assessments. The revenue from the levy of assessments within a district shall not be used to provide improvements or activities outside the district or for any purpose other than the purposes specified in the resolution of intention, as modified by the city council at the hearing concerning establishment of the district.

(g) A finding that the property within the business and improvement area will be benefited by the improvements and activities funded by the assessments proposed to be levied.

36626.6. Following adoption of the resolution, the clerk or secretary of the local agency shall record a notice and map describing the assessment district pursuant to Division 4.5 (commencing with Section 3100). All the provisions of that Division 4.5 apply to the assessment district.

36626.7. Not earlier than 30 days after the resolution of preliminary adoption, if the city council decides to establish the proposed property and business improvement district, and if there is not a majority protest as described in Section 36625, the city council shall adopt a resolution consistent with the resolution of preliminary adoption. The adoption of the resolution and recordation of the notice and map pursuant to Section 36626.6 shall constitute the levy of an assessment in each of the fiscal years referred to in the management district plan. The resolution shall contain all of the following:

(a) The management district plan.

(b) The number, date of adoption, and title of the resolution of intention and resolution of preliminary adoption.

(c) The time and place where the public hearing was held concerning the establishment of the district.

(d) A determination regarding any protests received.

(e) A statement that a property and business improvement district has been established.

(f) A statement that the properties in the district established by the resolution shall be subject to any amendments to this part.

(g) A statement that the improvements and activities to be provided in the district will be funded by the levy of the assessments. The revenue from the levy of assessments within a district shall not be used to provide improvements or activities outside the district or for any purpose other than the purposes specified in the resolution of intention, as modified by the city council at the hearing concerning establishment of the district.

(h) A finding that the property within the property and business improvement district will be benefited by the improvements and activities funded by the assessments proposed to be levied.

36627. If the city council, following the public hearing, desires to establish the proposed property and business improvement district, and the city council has not made changes pursuant to Section 36626, or has made merely clerical changes or corrections, the city council shall adopt a resolution establishing the district. The resolution shall contain all of the information specified in subdivisions (a) to (h), inclusive, of Section 36626.7, but need not contain information about the preliminary resolution if none has been adopted.

36628. The city council may establish one or more separate benefit zones within the district based upon the degree of benefit derived from the improvements or activities to be provided within the benefit zone and may impose a different assessment within each benefit zone.

36629. All provisions of this part applicable to the establishment, modification, or disestablishment of a property and business improvement district apply to the establishment, modification, or disestablishment of benefit zones. The city council shall, to establish, modify, or disestablish a benefit zone, follow the procedure to establish, modify, or disestablish a parking and business improvement area.

36630. If a property and business improvement district expires due to the time limit set pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 36622, a new management district plan may be created and a new district established pursuant to this part.

CHAPTER 3. ASSESSMENTS

36631. (a) Within 15 days of the receipt of the written petition described in Section 36621, the city council shall appoint an advisory board which shall make a recommendation to the city council on the expenditure of revenues derived from the levy of assessments pursuant to this part, on the classification of properties, as applicable, and on the method and basis of levying the assessments. The city council may designate existing advisory boards or commissions to serve as the advisory board for the district or may create a new advisory board for that purpose. At least one member of the advisory board shall be a business licensee within the district who is not also a property owner within the district.

(b) Any advisory board appointed by the city council pursuant to subdivision (a) shall comply with the provisions of the Ralph M. Brown Act (Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 54950) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code).

36632. The collection of the assessments levied pursuant to this part shall be made at the time and in the manner set forth by the city council in the resolution establishing the management district plan described in Section 36622. The assessments may be collected at the same time and in the same manner as for the ad valorem property tax, and may provide for the same lien priority and penalties for delinquent payment.

36633. (a) The advisory board shall cause to be prepared a report for each fiscal year for which assessments are to be levied and collected to pay the costs of the improvements and activities described in the report. The report may propose changes, including, but not limited to, the boundaries of the property and business improvement district or any benefit zones within the district, the basis and method of levying the assessments, and any changes in the classification of property, if a classification is used.

(b) The report shall be filed with the clerk and shall refer to the property and business improvement district by name, specify the fiscal year to which the report applies, and, with respect to that fiscal year, shall contain all of the following information:

(1) Any proposed changes in the boundaries of the property and business improvement district or in any benefits zones within the district.

(2) The improvements and activities to be provided for that fiscal year.

(3) An estimate of the cost of providing the improvements and the activities for that fiscal year.

(4) The method and basis of levying the assessment in sufficient detail to allow each real property owner to estimate the amount of the assessment to be levied against his or her property for that fiscal year.

(5) The amount of any surplus or deficit revenues to be carried over from a previous fiscal year.

(6) The amount of any contributions to be made from sources other than assessments levied pursuant to this part.

(c) The city council may approve the report as filed by the advisory board or may modify any particular contained in the report and approve it as modified. Any modification shall be made pursuant to Sections 36640 and 36641. The city council shall not approve a change in the basis and method of levying assessments that would impair an authorized or executed contract to be paid from the revenues derived from the levy of assessments.

36634. (a) The assessments levied on real property pursuant to this part shall be levied on the basis of the estimated benefit to the real property within the property and business improvement district. The city council may classify properties for purposes of determining the benefit to property of the improvements and activities provided pursuant to this part.

(b) Properties in private residential use, or that are zoned for agricultural use, are conclusively presumed not to benefit from the improvements and service funded through these assessments, and shall not be subject to any assessment pursuant to this part.

36635. The validity of assessment levied under this part shall not be contested in any action or proceeding unless the action or proceeding is commenced within 30 days after the ordinance levying the assessment is adopted pursuant to Section 36627. Any appeal from a final judgment in an action or proceeding shall be perfected within 30 days after the entry of judgment.

36636. The city council may execute baseline service contracts that would establish levels of city services that would continue after a property and business improvement district has been formed.

CHAPTER 4. MODIFICATION OF BOUNDARIES, ASSESSMENTS, IMPROVEMENTS, OR ACTIVITIES

36640. The advisory board may, at any time, request that the city council modify the management district plan. Any modification of the management district plan shall be made pursuant to this chapter.

36641. (a) Upon the written request of the advisory board, the city council may modify the management district plan by adopting a resolution after holding hearings on the proposed modification pursuant to Sections 36623, 36624, 36625, and 36626.

(b) The city council shall adopt a resolution of intention which states the proposed modification prior to the public hearing required by this section. The public hearing shall be held not more than 60 days after the adoption of the resolution of intention. Notice of the public hearing shall be as provided in Section 36623. The public hearing shall be conducted as provided in Sections 36624, 36625, and 36626.

36642. (a) The city council may modify the improvements and activities to be funded with the revenue derived from the levy of the assessments by adopting a resolution determining to make the modifications after holding a public hearing on the proposed modifications. Notice of the public hearing and the proposed modifications shall be published as provided in Section 36623.

(b) The public hearing shall be conducted as provided in Sections 36624, 36625, and 36626.

36643. Any subsequent modification of the resolution shall be reflected in subsequent notices and maps recorded pursuant to Division 4.5 (commencing with Section 3100).

CHAPTER 5. DISESTABLISHMENT

36650. (a) Any district established or extended pursuant to the provisions of this part, where there is no indebtedness, outstanding and unpaid, incurred to accomplish any of the purposes of the district, may be disestablished by resolution by the city council in either of the following circumstances:

(1) If the city council finds there has been misappropriation of funds, malfeasance, or a violation of law in connection with the management of the district, it shall notice a hearing on disestablishment. The notice and hearing shall be held pursuant to Sections 36623 and 36624.

(2) During the operation of the district, there shall be a 30-day period each year in which assessees may request disestablishment of the district. The first such period shall begin one year after the date of establishment of the district and shall continue for 30 days. The next such 30-day period shall begin two years after the date of the establishment of the district. Each successive year of operation of the district shall have such a 30-day period. Upon the written petition of the owners of real property in the area who pay 50 percent or more of the assessments levied, the city council shall pass a resolution of intention to disestablish the district. The city council shall notice a hearing on disestablishment. The notice and hearing shall be held pursuant to Sections 36623 and 36624.

(b) The city council shall adopt a resolution of intention to disestablish the district prior to the public hearing required by this section. The resolution shall state the reason for the disestablishment, shall state the time and place of the public hearing, and shall contain a proposal to dispose of any assets acquired with the revenues of the assessments levied within the property and business improvement district. The public hearing shall be held not less than 20 or more than 30 days after the adoption of the resolution of intention. Notice of the public hearing shall be published as provided in Section 36623.

36651. (a) Upon the disestablishment of a district, any remaining revenues derived from the levy of assessments, or any revenues derived from the sale of assets acquired with the revenues, shall be refunded to the owners of the property then located and operating within the district in which assessments were levied by applying the same method and basis that was used to calculate the assessments levied in the fiscal year in which the district is disestablished.

(b) If the disestablishment occurs before an assessment is levied for the fiscal year, the method and basis that was used to calculate the assessments levied in the immediate prior fiscal year shall be used to calculate the amount of any refund. Notice of the disestablishment of a district shall be published once in a newspaper of general circulation in the city, not later than 15 days after the ordinance disestablishing the district is adopted.

CHAPTER 898

An act to add Section 715.050 to, and to add and repeal Section 1167.2 of, the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to unlawful detainer.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(a) The landlord-tenant relationship is unique. Rent may not be accepted by the owner during the pendency of an unlawful detainer action without a potential waiver of all of the owner's rights under an eviction notice. Moreover, during the pendency of unlawful detainer proceedings (1) owners are not allowed to eliminate any services provided to the tenant with the intent to cause the tenant to vacate the premises, (2) owners are not excused from making continuing real property tax, mortgage, mortgage interest, utility, insurance or maintenance payments for the premises, and (3) owners are not allowed to retake possession by self-help.

(b) Millions of dollars are lost by owners of residential rental property on a recurring annual basis and added to the rent of rent-paying tenants as the result of uncollectible unlawful detainer judgments and the delays inherent in the state's unlawful detainer system.

(c) Approximately 220,000 unlawful detainer cases are filed annually in the state, involving less than 5 percent of the state's rental units, costing millions of dollars in attorneys' fees and court costs, unnecessarily burdening court administration and taxpayers.

(d) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this prospective rent deposit pilot project is to mitigate the delays and losses in the current unlawful detainer process by requiring deposit with the court of unpaid prospective rent for the period from the date of the commencement of the unlawful detainer action to the date of the anticipated trial.

SEC. 2. Section 715.050 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

715.050. Except with respect to enforcement of a judgment for money, a writ of possession issued pursuant to a judgment for possession in an unlawful detainer action shall be enforced pursuant to this chapter without delay, notwithstanding receipt of notice of the filing by the defendant of a bankruptcy proceeding.

This section does not apply to a writ of possession issued for possession of a mobilehome or manufactured home, as those terms are defined in subdivision (a) of Section 1161a, and does not apply to a writ of possession issued for possession of real property in a mobilehome park subject to the Mobilehome Residency Law (Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 798) of Title 2 of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Civil Code), or to a manufactured housing community, as defined in Section 18801 of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 3. Section 1167.2 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

1167.2. (a) (1) There is hereby established a pilot project in at least two courts selected by the Judicial Council subject to the approval of the affected courts and the board of supervisors of each county in which the court is located. The courts shall include the El Cajon Municipal Court and a municipal court in the County of Los Angeles subject to the approval of the affected courts and the board of supervisors of each county in which the court is located.

The pilot project shall be considered successful if delays and abuses in the unlawful detainer system are reduced, due process protections are maintained for all parties, significant administrative burdens are not imposed on the courts, and four of the five following minimal standards are met:

(A) A 50 percent reduction of time from filing an unlawful detainer action to regaining possession of property in cases in which a deposit demand is made as compared to cases where no deposit demand is made.

(B) No more than 5 percent of the unlawful detainer cases are appealed in which a demand for prospective rent is made.

(C) A 40 percent reduction in total administrative and judicial time for the courts when disposing of unlawful detainer actions in which deposit demand is made as compared to cases in which no demand is made.

(D) No increase in costs to the courts in cases in which a deposit demand is made as compared to cases in which no deposit demand is made.

(E) Less than 1 percent of the unlawful detainer cases in which a deposit demand was made involved property subject to an outstanding violation.

(2) Criteria to be considered for determining the success of the pilot project shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(A) The time for disposition of unlawful detainer cases using the pretrial rent deposit procedure as compared to cases under subdivision 2 of Section 1161 from previous years for which records are available and other unlawful detainer cases in the same time period, in which a deposit is not demanded.

(B) The percentage of hearings that are contested as compared to failures of parties to appear at the hearing, the number of deposits ordered to be made after a hearing, the number of deposits actually made, and the number of occasions the court found a substantial conflict as to material fact or facts.

(C) The effect of the procedure on the ability of the parties to prepare and present a case at the hearing.

(D) Analysis of compliance with subdivision (d) using random samples that are sufficient to produce statistically valid data.

(E) Assessment by the courts as to the efficiency of the procedure, and whether there was an overall increase or decrease in the administrative burden of dealing with unlawful detainer cases.

Each court participating in the pilot project shall develop procedures to survey participants in the process and to gather data on its experience with the process. Survey participants shall include, but not be limited to, members of the judiciary, court administration, court clerks, counsel for plaintiffs and defendants, landlords, tenants, sheriffs, and marshals.

The presiding judges of participating courts shall report on the success of the pilot project to the Judicial Council on or before September 30, 1997, and the Judicial Council shall report to the Legislature on or before December 31, 1997.

(b) (1) In any action for unlawful detainer brought under subdivision (2) of Section 1161, the plaintiff may make a demand for a pretrial prospective rent deposit, provided the plaintiff has alleged in the body of the unlawful detainer complaint that no citation of a type described in subdivision (d) is outstanding as of the date the complaint is filed. The demand shall be made in the body of the unlawful detainer complaint, on the first page thereof immediately under the case number, and on the summons issued by the court.

(2) The summons and complaint shall be accompanied by a reply form. The reply form shall be prepared by the courts participating in the pilot project in consultation with each other to ensure consistency. The purpose of the form is to allow the defendant to advise the court and the plaintiff that the defendant denies the allegations of the unlawful detainer complaint and intends to appear and defend the action. The information to be contained in the form shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(A) A statement that in order for the defendant to protect his or her rights, the form should be completed and returned to the court immediately, but in no event later than five days from receipt of the summons and complaint. Delivery to the court shall be by personal delivery or by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, and postmarked within five days from receipt of the summons and complaint.

(B) A statement that failure to return the form to the court in the time and manner prescribed herein shall require the defendant to deposit with the court the prospective rent as defined in subdivision (e) by the date of the hearing in order to preserve the right to have a trial of this matter.

(C) A statement that if the defendant does not return the form to the court as prescribed herein and subsequently fails to deposit the amount of prospective rent as defined in subdivision (e) up to and including the date of the hearing, the court shall order judgment for possession of the premises to be entered in favor of the plaintiff at the pretrial hearing.

(3) Upon the filing of the proof of service of the summons and complaint for unlawful detainer containing a demand for a pretrial prospective rent deposit, the clerk of the court shall set a pretrial hearing date no less than eight nor more than 13 days from the filing of the proof of service, and give notice of that date to all parties by first-class mail if the plaintiff pays the fee required by Section 72055 of the Government Code, plus an additional sum in an amount set by the court to cover actual costs of the pilot project, including the costs of the report required by this section. The proceeds from this additional fee shall be deposited with the county treasurer and, upon appropriation, be available solely to the court and the county in which the court is located and shall be used exclusively for the support of the pilot project. Participating courts shall report to the Judicial Council on the actual costs associated with the pilot project by March 1, 1996, and make any necessary adjustments to the fees to reflect the actual costs to the court and to the county for the provision of the pilot project.

(c) (1) At the pretrial hearing, the court shall determine whether a substantial conflict exists as to a material fact or facts relevant to the unlawful detainer for purposes of requiring the defendant to deposit with the clerk of the court prospective rent as defined in subdivision (e) as a condition of continuing to trial. If at the pretrial hearing the court determines, based upon the written declarations or oral testimony of the parties, that (A) the plaintiff is the landlord of the premises, the defendant failed to pay contract rent, the defendant was properly served with a three-day notice, and the defendant failed to tender the rent or quit the premises, and (B) no substantial conflict exists as to a material fact or facts relevant to the unlawful detainer after considering any written or oral answer to the unlawful detainer complaint made by the defendant and any and all affirmative defenses offered by the defendant, and considering any oral testimony and written declarations presented by all of the parties, then the court shall have the discretion to order the defendant to deposit, with the clerk of the court, prospective rent as defined in subdivision (e). If the court orders a deposit of prospective rent and if the defendant fails to make such deposit within two court days from the date of the hearing, judgment for the plaintiff for possession of the premises shall be entered and a writ of possession for the premises shall be issued forthwith. If the defendant has not returned the reply form as described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) in the time and manner required, any deposit of prospective rent ordered by the court shall be made by the date of the hearing. If a defendant has not returned the reply form and then fails to deposit the prospective rent on the day of the hearing, judgment for the plaintiff for possession of the premises shall be entered and a writ of possession shall be issued forthwith. Upon entry of judgment for possession of the premises for the plaintiff pursuant to this subdivision, the court shall dismiss any claim for money relief without prejudice.

(2) For purposes of the pretrial hearing held pursuant to paragraph (1), the parties shall have the right to offer declarations, affidavits, and documentary evidence in addition to oral testimony of the parties, but no witnesses other than the parties may be called to testify. The court shall consult the parties to ascertain whether there is a substantial conflict as to a material fact or facts relevant to the unlawful detainer. The pretrial hearing of the case shall be informal, the object being to dispense justice promptly, fairly, and inexpensively. Except as provided in paragraph (3), for the purposes of the pilot project in Los Angeles County, no attorney may take part in the conduct of the pretrial hearing unless the attorney is appearing to maintain an action (A) by or against himself or herself, (B) by or against a partnership in which he or she is a general partner and in which all the partners are attorneys, or (C) by a corporation. If an attorney appears at the pretrial hearing to maintain an action as authorized by this paragraph, an attorney may appear for the opposing party in this action.

(3) Notwithstanding whether the defendant has returned the reply form pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), a defendant may respond to the summons and complaint with an oral answer at the pretrial hearing or by written answer, motion, or demurrer. An oral answer shall, at the discretion of the court, be reduced to a writing by the court clerk, recorded electronically, or recorded by a court reporter. The court, in issuing its decision, shall make findings as to the matters specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (c), including any defenses. The decision and findings shall be reduced to a writing. If the defendant responds to the unlawful detainer by demurrer or motion, any such motion or demurrer, which shall be filed and served pursuant to Sections 1167 and 1167.3 of the Code of Civil Procedure, shall be heard and decided at the pretrial hearing held pursuant to this section. Notwithstanding paragraph (2) of subdivision (c), in all counties attorneys may appear for parties prosecuting or contesting a demurrer or motion. Notwithstanding Section 1005, papers opposing the defendant's motion or demurrer may be filed and personally served no later than one day prior to the day appointed for the hearing. If the defendant fails to respond to the unlawful detainer by written answer, motion, demurrer, or oral answer at the pretrial hearing, the court shall order judgment for possession of the premises to be entered in favor of the plaintiff forthwith at the pretrial hearing.

(d) No deposit of prospective rent as defined in this section shall be required if the defendant has paid, or deposited with the court, all rent through the month in which the action is filed. No deposit of rent pursuant to this section shall be required if the action involves premises as to which, as of the date the complaint was filed, there was an outstanding citation issued by a state or local government agency for violations of law pertaining to health, safety, housing, building, or fire standards.

(e) "Prospective rent," for purposes of this section, means up to 15 days' prospective rent not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500). The prospective rent shall be calculated on a prorated basis utilizing a 30-day rental period and the lowest monthly rent charged for the premises during the prior six months of the defendant's occupancy. Any deposit made by the defendant pursuant to this section shall be deposited with the clerk, by cash, cashier's check, or money order made payable to the clerk. Receipt of the deposit shall be acknowledged in writing and deposited and retained by the clerk pursuant to Section 24353 of the Government Code until further order of the court. The receipt and amount of a deposit of prospective rent shall be included in the order of the court at the conclusion of the pretrial hearing.

(f) If at trial the court determines that a breach of the warranty of habitability has occurred, which is not caused by the defendant, or his or her guests or invitees, sufficient to diminish the value of the premises in an amount greater than 60 percent of the contract rent, and that the defendant had given the owner notice to repair or eliminate the breach, the court shall order the entire amount of prospective rent deposited by the defendant pursuant to this section returned to the defendant. In this case, the obligation of payment of past rent for the period covered by the eviction notice shall be extinguished. In order to remain in the premises, the defendant shall pay the reduced rent from the time of trial until the defect is cured. The rights and remedies in this paragraph are in addition to any other rights and remedies relating to the habitability of dwelling units.

(g) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) of subdivision (c), any deposit made by the defendant pursuant to this section shall be awarded to the party entitled thereto by the trial court and the defendant shall be given credit to the extent of the deposit against any money judgment ordered against the defendant in a subsequent action.

(h) This section does not apply to actions for possession of a mobilehome or manufactured home, as those terms are defined in subdivision (a) of Section 1161a, and does not apply to actions for possession of real property in a mobilehome park subject to the Mobilehome Residency Law (Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 798) of Title 2 of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Civil Code), or to a manufactured housing community, as defined in Section 18801 of the Health and Safety Code.

(i) Section 473 shall apply to this section.

(j) This section shall become operative on July 1, 1995. This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1998, and shall be repealed on January 1, 1999, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4. The Judicial Council shall adopt forms to be used for preparing the declarations of the plaintiff and defendant at the hearing held under paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) of Section 1167.2 of the Code of Civil Procedure and shall also prepare a form of summons for this type of unlawful detainer action. Failure to adopt the forms shall not prevent the implementation of that section.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 899

An act to amend Section 1626 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to blood products.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1626 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1626. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature that all health care providers who acquire blood platelets from persons engaged in the production of blood platelets take appropriate steps to secure blood platelets collected through the hemapheresis process from sources that procure blood from unpaid, volunteer donors to reduce or eliminate acquisition from paid donors. This subdivision shall not be interpreted to imply there is any difference in the safety or quality of blood platelets collected through the hemapheresis process from paid donors as compared to the safety or quality of blood platelets collected through the hemapheresis process from volunteer donors. However, nothing in this subdivision shall be interpreted as a sanctioning of the payment for blood components, other than apheresis-derived platelets, given that previous studies have demonstrated that whole blood and its derivatives obtained from paid donors are not as safe as that obtained from volunteers.

Recognizing that those blood banks currently acquiring blood platelets from compensated donors are serving an important role in meeting the demand for platelets, the Legislature intends to provide those blood banks with time to implement volunteer donor systems, as defined by the American Association of Blood Banks and the federal Food and Drug Administration. During the period set forth in subdivision (d), the Legislature intends to monitor the implementation of volunteer systems and the impact on meeting the demand for platelets. It is the intent of the Legislature that a meaningful increase in the number and percentage of volunteer donors be reflected with each report described in subdivision (f).

(b) Except as provided in subdivisions (c) and (d), on or after January 1, 1987, it shall be unlawful, in any transfusion of blood, to use any blood that was obtained from a paid donor.

(c) Subdivision (b) shall not be applicable to any transfusion of blood that was obtained from a paid donor if the physician and surgeon performing the transfusion has determined, taking into consideration the condition of the patient who is the recipient of the transfusion, that other blood of a type compatible with the blood type of the patient cannot reasonably be obtained for the transfusion.

(d) After March 15, 1987, and on or before December 31, 2001, subdivision (b) shall not apply to blood platelets secured from paid donors through the hemapheresis process if all of the following requirements are satisfied:

(1) The blood platelets are ordered by a doctor holding a valid California physician's and surgeon's certificate.

(2) The blood platelets are secured from a single donor and are sufficient to constitute a complete platelet transfusion.

(3) The donor's identification number is recorded on the platelet label and is kept in the records of the entity providing the blood platelets for a minimum of five years.

(4) The donor has been examined by a doctor holding a valid California physician's and surgeon's certificate, and a repeat donor is reexamined at least annually.

(5) The transfusion is performed in a general acute care hospital.

(6) The blood platelets are processed according to standards issued by the American Association of Blood Banks, pursuant to Section 1602.1.

(7) The donor and blood are tested in accordance with regulations issued by the State Department of Health Services.

(8) The entity providing the blood platelets is licensed by the State Department of Health Services.

(9) The information that the donor of the blood platelets was compensated is printed on the label in accordance with Section 1603.5.

(e) The Assembly Office of Research, in consultation with the department and the Legislative Analyst's office, shall conduct a national review of published materials regarding the benefits and problems of using paid donors for hemapheresis. The results of the review shall be reported to the Legislature on or before June 30, 1993.

(f) (1) Commencing in January 1996, and every year thereafter, those blood banks acquiring blood platelets from paid donors shall report all of the following information to the State Department of Health Services:

(A) The specific actions undertaken to obtain blood platelets from volunteer donors.

(B) The percentage of compensated and volunteer donors from whom blood platelets were obtained during the period covered by the report.

(C) The number of repeat donors making platelet donations during the period covered by the report.

(2) The department shall transmit the information received pursuant to this subdivision to the Senate Health and Human Services Committee and the Assembly Health Committee for review by those committees consistent with subdivision (a).

(3) Paragraph (1) of this subdivision is not intended to require the disclosure and reporting of information that would put the blood banks at a competitive disadvantage in attracting volunteer donors.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 900

An act to amend Sections 360, 361.5, 366.3, and 388 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to juveniles.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 360 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

360. After receiving and considering the evidence on the proper disposition of the case, the juvenile court may enter judgment as follows:

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if the court finds that the minor is a person described by Section 300 and the parent has advised the court that the parent is not interested in family maintenance or family reunification services, it may, in addition to or in lieu of adjudicating the minor a dependent child of the court, order a legal guardianship, appoint a legal guardian, and issue letters of guardianship, if the court determines that a guardianship is in the best interest of the minor, provided the parent and the minor agree to the guardianship, unless the minor's age or physical, emotional, or mental condition prevents the minor's meaningful response. The court shall advise the parent and the minor that no reunification services will be provided as a result of the establishment of a guardianship. The proceeding for the appointment of a guardian shall be in the juvenile court.

Any application for termination of guardianship shall be filed in juvenile court in a form as may be developed by the Judicial Council pursuant to Section 68511 of the Government Code. Section 388 shall apply to this order of guardianship.

No person shall be appointed a legal guardian under this section until an assessment as specified in subdivision (g) of Section 361.5 is read and considered by the court and reflected in the minutes of the court. The assessment shall include the following:

(1) Current search efforts for, and notification of, a noncustodial parent in the manner provided in Section 337.

(2) A review of the amount of and nature of any contact between the minor and his or her parents since the filing of the petition.

(3) An evaluation of the minor's medical, developmental, scholastic, mental, and emotional status.

(4) A preliminary assessment of the eligibility and commitment of any identified prospective guardian, particularly the caretaker, to include a social history including a screening for criminal records and prior referrals for child abuse or neglect, the capability to meet the minor's needs, and the understanding of the legal and financial rights and responsibilities of guardianship.

(5) The relationship of the minor to any identified prospective guardian, the duration and nature of the relationship, the motivation for seeking guardianship, and a statement from the minor concerning the guardianship, unless the minor's age or physical, emotional, or other condition precludes the minor's meaningful response, and if so, a description of the condition.

(6) An analysis of the likelihood that the minor would be adopted if parental rights were terminated.

The person responsible for preparing the assessment may be called and examined by any party to the guardianship proceeding.

(b) If the court finds that the minor is a person described by Section 300, it may, without adjudicating the minor a dependent child of the court, order that services be provided to keep the family together and place the minor and the minor's parent or guardian under the supervision of the probation officer for a time period consistent with Section 301.

(c) If the family subsequently is unable or unwilling to cooperate with the services being provided, the probation officer may file a petition with the juvenile court pursuant to Section 332 alleging that a previous petition has been sustained and that disposition pursuant to subdivision (b) has been ineffective in ameliorating the situation requiring the child welfare services. Upon hearing the petition, the court shall order either that the petition shall be dismissed or that a new disposition hearing shall be held pursuant to subdivision (d).

(d) If the court finds that the minor is a person described by Section 300, it may order and adjudge the minor to be a dependent child of the court.

SEC. 2. Section 361.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as amended by Chapter 57 of the Statutes of 1994, is amended to read:

361.5. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b) or upon the establishment of an order of guardianship pursuant to Section 360, whenever a minor is removed from a parent's or guardian's custody, the juvenile court shall order the probation officer to provide child welfare services to the minor and the minor's parents or guardians for the purpose of facilitating reunification of the family within a maximum time period not to exceed 12 months. The court also shall make findings pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 366. When counseling or other treatment services are ordered, the parent or guardian shall be ordered to participate in those services, unless the parent's or guardian's participation is deemed by the court to be inappropriate or potentially detrimental to the child. Services may be extended up to an additional six months if it can be shown that the objectives of the service plan can be achieved within the extended time period. Physical custody of the minor by the parents or guardians during the 18-month period shall not serve to interrupt the running of the period. If at the end of the 18-month period, a child cannot be safely returned to the care and custody of a parent or guardian without court supervision, but the child clearly desires contact with the parent or guardian, the court shall take the child's desire into account in devising a permanency plan.

Except in cases where, pursuant to subdivision (b), the court does not order reunification services, the court shall inform the parent or parents of Section 366.25 or 366.26 and shall specify that the parent's or parents' parental rights may be terminated.

(b) Reunification services need not be provided to a parent or guardian described in this subdivision when the court finds, by clear and convincing evidence, any of the following:

(1) That the whereabouts of the parent or guardian is unknown. A finding pursuant to this paragraph shall be supported by an affidavit or by proof that a reasonably diligent search has failed to locate the parent or guardian. The posting or publication of notices is not required in that search.

(2) That the parent or guardian is suffering from a mental disability that is described in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 7820) of Part 4 of Division 12 of the Family Code and that renders him or her incapable of utilizing those services.

(3) That the minor had been previously adjudicated a dependent pursuant to any subdivision of Section 300 as a result of physical or sexual abuse, that following that adjudication the minor had been removed from the custody of his or her parent or guardian pursuant to Section 361, that the minor has been returned to the custody of the parent or parents or guardian or guardians from whom the minor had been taken originally, and that the minor is being removed pursuant to Section 361, due to additional physical or sexual abuse. However, this section is not applicable if the jurisdiction of the juvenile court has been dismissed prior to the additional abuse.

(4) That the parent or guardian of the minor has been convicted of causing the death of another child through abuse or neglect.

(5) That the minor was brought within the jurisdiction of the court under subdivision (e) of Section 300 because of the conduct of that parent or guardian.

(6) That the minor has been adjudicated a dependent pursuant to any subdivision of Section 300 as a result of severe sexual abuse or the infliction of severe physical harm by a parent or guardian, as defined in this subdivision, and the court makes a factual finding that it would not benefit the child to pursue reunification services with the offending parent or guardian.

A finding of severe sexual abuse, for the purposes of this subdivision, may be based on, but is not limited to, sexual intercourse or stimulation involving genital-genital, oral-genital, anal-genital, or oral-anal contact, whether between the parent or guardian and the child, or between the child and another person or animal with the actual or implied consent of, and for the financial gain or other advantage of, the parent or guardian; or the penetration or manipulation of the child's genital organs or rectum by any animate or inanimate object, for the sexual gratification of the parent or guardian, or for the sexual gratification of another person with the actual or implied consent of, and for the financial gain or other advantage of, the parent or guardian.

A finding of the infliction of severe physical harm, for the purposes of this subdivision, may be based on, but is not limited to, deliberate and serious injury inflicted to or on a child's body by an act or omission of the parent or guardian, or of another individual or animal with the consent of the parent or guardian; deliberate and torturous confinement of the child in a closed space; or any other torturous act or omission which would be reasonably understood to cause serious emotional damage.

(7) That the minor was conceived by means of the commission of an offense listed in Section 288 or 288.5 of the Penal Code, or by an act committed outside this state which if committed in this state would constitute such an offense. This paragraph only applies to the parent who perpetrated the offense or act.

(c) In deciding whether to order reunification in any case in which this section applies, the court shall hold a dispositional hearing. The probation officer shall prepare a report which discusses whether reunification services shall be provided. When it is alleged, pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), that the parent is incapable of utilizing services due to mental disability, the court shall order reunification services unless competent evidence from mental health professionals establishes that, even with the provision of services, the parent is unlikely to be capable of adequately caring for the child within 12 months.

When paragraph (3), (4), or (5), inclusive, of subdivision (b) is applicable, the court shall not order reunification unless it finds that, based on competent testimony, those services are likely to prevent reabuse or continued neglect of the child or that failure to try reunification will be detrimental to the child because the child is closely and positively attached to that parent. The probation officer shall investigate the circumstances leading to the removal of the minor and advise the court whether there are circumstances which indicate that reunification is likely to be successful or unsuccessful and whether failure to order reunification is likely to be detrimental to the child.

The failure of the parent to respond to previous services, the fact that the child was abused while the parent was under the influence of drugs or alcohol, a past history of violent behavior, or testimony by a competent professional that the parent's behavior is unlikely to be changed by services are among the factors indicating that reunification services are unlikely to be successful. The fact that a parent or guardian is no longer living with an individual who severely abused the minor may be considered in deciding that reunification services are likely to be successful, provided that the court shall consider any pattern of behavior on the part of the parent that has exposed the child to repeated abuse.

The court shall not order reunification for a parent who perpetrated an offense or act specified in paragraph (7) of subdivision (b) unless the court finds, by clear and convincing evidence, that reunification is in the best interest of the minor.

(d) If reunification services are not ordered pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) and the whereabouts of a parent become known within six months of the out-of-home placement of the minor, the court shall order the probation officer to provide family reunification services in accordance with this subdivision. However, the time limits specified in subdivision (a) and Section 366.25 are not tolled by the parent's absence.

(e) (1) If the parent or guardian is incarcerated or institutionalized, the court shall order reasonable services unless the court determines, by clear and convincing evidence, those services would be detrimental to the minor. In determining detriment, the court shall consider the age of the child, the degree of parent-child bonding, the length of the sentence, the nature of the treatment, the nature of crime or illness, the degree of detriment to the child if services are not offered and, for minors 10 years of age or older, the minor's attitude toward the implementation of family reunification services, and any other appropriate factors. Reunification services are subject to the 18-month limitation imposed in subdivision (a). Services may include, but shall not be limited to, all of the following:

(A) Maintaining contact between parent and child through collect phone calls.

(B) Transportation services, where appropriate.

(C) Visitation services, where appropriate.

(D) Reasonable services to extended family members or foster parents providing care for the child if the services are not detrimental to the child.

An incarcerated parent may be required to attend counseling, parenting classes, or vocational training programs as part of the service plan if these programs are available.

(2) The presiding judge of the juvenile court of each county may convene representatives of the county welfare department, the sheriff's department, and other appropriate entities for the purpose of developing and entering into protocols for ensuring the notification, transportation, and presence of an incarcerated or institutionalized parent at all court hearings involving proceedings affecting the minor pursuant to Section 2625 of the Penal Code.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if the incarcerated parent is a woman seeking to participate in the community treatment program operated by the Department of Corrections pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 3410) of Title 2 of Part 3 of the Penal Code, the court shall determine whether the parent's participation in a program is in the child's best interest and whether it is suitable to meet the needs of the parent and child.

(f) If a court, pursuant to paragraph (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), or (7) of subdivision (b) or paragraph (1) of subdivision (e), does not order reunification services, it shall conduct a hearing pursuant to Section 366.25 or 366.26 within 120 days of the dispositional hearing.

However, the court shall not schedule a hearing so long as the other parent is being provided reunification services pursuant to subdivision (a). The court may continue to permit the parent to visit the minor unless it finds that visitation would be detrimental to the minor.

(g) Whenever a court orders that a hearing shall be held pursuant to Section 366.25 or 366.26 it shall direct the agency supervising the child and the licensed county adoption agency, or the State Department of Social Services when it is acting as an adoption agency in counties which are not served by a county adoption agency, to prepare an assessment which shall include:

(1) Current search efforts for an absent parent or parents.

(2) A review of the amount of and nature of any contact between the minor and his or her parents since the time of placement.

(3) An evaluation of the minor's medical, developmental, scholastic, mental, and emotional status.

(4) A preliminary assessment of the eligibility and commitment of any identified prospective adoptive parent or guardian, particularly the caretaker, to include a social history including screening for criminal records and prior referrals for child abuse or neglect, the capability to meet the minor's needs, and the understanding of the legal and financial rights and responsibilities of adoption and guardianship.

(5) The relationship of the minor to any identified prospective adoptive parent or guardian, the duration and character of the relationship, the motivation for seeking adoption or guardianship, and a statement from the minor concerning placement and the adoption or guardianship, unless the minor's age or physical, emotional, or other condition precludes his or her meaningful response, and if so, a description of the condition.

(6) An analysis of the likelihood that the minor will be adopted if parental rights are terminated.

(h) In determining whether reunification services will benefit the child pursuant to paragraph (6) of subdivision (b), the court shall consider any information it deems relevant, including the following factors:

(1) The specific act or omission comprising the severe sexual abuse or the severe physical harm inflicted on the child.

(2) The circumstances under which the abuse or harm was inflicted on the child.

(3) The severity of the emotional trauma suffered by the child.

(4) Any history of abuse of other children by the offending parent or guardian.

(5) The likelihood that the child may be safely returned to the care of the offending parent or guardian within 18 months with no continuing supervision.

(6) Whether or not the child desires to be reunified with the offending parent or guardian.

(i) The court shall read into the record the basis for a finding of severe sexual abuse or the infliction of severe physical harm under paragraph (6) of subdivision (b), and shall also specify the factual findings used to determine that the provision of reunification services to the offending parent or guardian would not benefit the child.

SEC. 3. Section 366.3 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

366.3. (a) If a juvenile court orders a permanent plan of adoption or legal guardianship pursuant to Section 360, 366.25, or 366.26, the court shall retain jurisdiction over the minor until the minor is adopted or the legal guardianship is established. The status of the minor shall be reviewed every six months to ensure that the adoption or guardianship is completed as expeditiously as possible. When the adoption of the minor has been granted, the court shall terminate its jurisdiction over the minor. The court may continue jurisdiction over the minor as a dependent minor of the juvenile court following the establishment of a legal guardianship or may terminate its dependency jurisdiction and retain jurisdiction over the minor as a ward of the guardianship established pursuant to Section 360, 366.25, or 366.26 and as authorized by Section 366.4. Following a termination of parental rights the parent or parents shall not be a party to, or receive notice of, any subsequent proceedings regarding the minor.

(b) If the court has dismissed dependency jurisdiction following the establishment of a legal guardianship, or no dependency jurisdiction attached because of the granting of a legal guardianship pursuant to Section 360, and the legal guardianship is subsequently revoked or otherwise terminated, the county department of social services or welfare department shall notify the juvenile court of this fact. The court may vacate its previous order dismissing dependency jurisdiction over the minor.

Notwithstanding Section 1601 of the Probate Code, the proceedings to terminate a guardianship which has been granted pursuant to Section 360, 366.25, or 366.26 shall be held in the juvenile court, unless the termination is due to the emancipation or adoption of the minor. If the petition to terminate guardianship is granted, the juvenile court may resume dependency jurisdiction over the minor, and may order the county department of social services or welfare department to develop a new permanent plan, which shall be presented to the court within 60 days of the termination. If no dependency jurisdiction has attached, the probation officer shall make any investigation he or she deems necessary to determine whether the minor may be within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court, as provided in Section 328.

Unless the parental rights of the child's parent or parents have been terminated, they shall be notified that the guardianship has been revoked or terminated and shall be entitled to participate in the new permanency planning hearing. The court shall try to place the minor in another permanent placement. At the hearing, the parents may be considered as custodians but the minor shall not be returned to the parent or parents unless they prove, by a preponderance of the evidence, that reunification is the best alternative for the minor. The court may, if it is in the interests of the minor, order that reunification services again be provided to the parent or parents.

(c) If the minor is in a placement other than a preadoptive home or the home of a legal guardian and jurisdiction has not been dismissed, the status of the minor shall be reviewed every six months. This review may be conducted by the court or an appropriate local agency; the court shall conduct the review upon the request of the minor's parents or guardian or of the minor and shall conduct the review 18 months after the hearing held pursuant to Section 366.26 and every 18 months thereafter. The reviewing body shall inquire about the progress being made to provide a permanent home for the minor and shall determine the appropriateness of the placement, the continuing appropriateness and extent of compliance with the permanent plan for the child, the extent of compliance with the case plan, and the adequacy of services provided to the child. The review shall also include a determination of the services needed to assist a child who is 16 years of age or older make the transition from foster care to independent living.

Each licensed foster family agency shall submit reports for each minor in its care, custody, and control to the court concerning the continuing appropriateness and extent of compliance with the minor's permanent plan, the extent of compliance with the case plan, and the type and adequacy of services provided to the minor.

Unless their parental rights have been permanently terminated, the parent or parents of the minor are entitled to receive notice of, and participate in, those hearings. It shall be presumed that continued care is in the interests of the minor, unless the parent or parents prove, by a preponderance of the evidence, that further efforts at reunification are the best alternative for the minor. In those cases, the court may order that further reunification services be provided to the parent or parents for a period not to exceed six months.

SEC. 4. Section 388 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

388. Any parent or other person having an interest in a child who is a dependent child of the juvenile court or the child himself through a properly appointed guardian may, upon grounds of change of circumstance or new evidence, petition the court in the same action in which the child was found to be a dependent child of the juvenile court or in which a guardianship was ordered pursuant to Section 360 for a hearing to change, modify, or set aside any order of court previously made or to terminate the jurisdiction of the court. The petition shall be verified and, if made by a person other than the child, shall state the petitioner's relationship to or interest in the child and shall set forth in concise language any change of circumstance or new evidence which are alleged to require such change of order or termination of jurisdiction.

If it appears that the best interests of the child may be promoted by the proposed change of order or termination of jurisdiction, the court shall order that a hearing be held and shall give prior notice, or cause prior notice to be given, to such persons and by such means as prescribed by Section 386, and, in such instances as the means of giving notice is not prescribed by such sections, then by such means as the court prescribes.

CHAPTER 901

An act to amend Section 89001 of, and to amend, repeal, and add Section 89002 of, the Education Code, relating to the California State University, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that the Trustees of the California State University, in conjunction with several agencies of the United States, and with the support of the California Legislature and the Governor, have initiated efforts to acquire property at the site of Fort Ord in Monterey County. This military installation, which is scheduled to be downsized, provides a unique opportunity for the state to develop a model for defense conversion unlike any other to be found in the entire United States.

Further, the Legislature finds and declares that the availability of the land, infrastructure, and facilities, plus the federal government's commitment to help fund the capital conversion, provides the following:

(1) A strong incentive for the state to obtain the property and facilities for a campus of the California State University adjacent to a research center for the University of California, and other property that will be used by local community colleges and at least two independent higher education institutions.

(2) A strong incentive for the California State University, in collaboration with the other educational institutions and the California Postsecondary Education Commission, to design and develop (A) a new campus with modern technological capacity sufficient to deliver educational programs to California's students in the 21st century and (B) a collaborative and cooperative "educational park" to address a variety of educational needs and interests.

(3) A strong incentive for local communities to support the conversion from defense to education as a means of replacing the economic activity that will be lost as the military operation at Fort Ord is reduced.

The Legislature further finds that the California Postsecondary Education Commission, pursuant to Section 66904 of the Education Code, has recommended approval of a new campus at Fort Ord.

Therefore, it is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act that the Trustees of the California State University are requested to take all steps necessary and desirable to develop and open a campus of the California State University at Fort Ord, to be known as the California State University, Monterey Bay.

(b) In addition, it is the intent of the Legislature that the inclusion of Monterey County in Section 89001 of the Education Code does not commit the Legislature to a General Fund appropriation for the 1994–95 fiscal year for the California State University, Monterey Bay. Instead, funding for this new campus shall be deliberated and, if necessary, appropriated as part of the annual Budget Act process.

(c) It is also the specific intent of the Legislature that nothing in this act shall be interpreted as changing California State University's existing priorities or projected state funding for continued development and planned enrollment at the California State University, San Marcos, the California State University, Ventura, the California State University, Stanislaus, including the need to expand the Stockton Center, and other campuses that should continue development and expansion.

SEC. 2. Section 89001 of the Education Code, as amended by Section 3 of Chapter 1298 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended to read:

89001. The California State University includes the institutions for higher education whose locations are listed in this section.

(a) San Jose.
(b) San Francisco.
(c) Chico.
(d) Humboldt.
(e) San Diego.
(f) Fresno.
(g) California Polytechnic State University, San Luis Obispo.

(q) San Bernardino.
(r) Dominguez Hills.
(s) Contra Costa.
(t) Kern.

(u) Redwood City.
(v) Ventura.
(w) San Marcos.
(x) Monterey County.

This section shall become inoperative on June 30, 1995, and, as of January 1, 1996, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1996, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 89001 of the Education Code, as added by Section 3.5 of Chapter 1298 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended to read:

89001. (a) The California State University includes the institutions for higher education whose locations or designations are listed in this section.

(1) San Jose.
(2) San Francisco.
(3) Chico.
(4) Humboldt.
(5) San Diego.
(6) Fresno.

(20) Kern.
(21) Redwood City.
(22) Ventura.
(23) San Marcos.
(24) The California Maritime Academy, a specialized institution.
(25) Monterey County.

(b) This section shall become operative on July 1, 1995.

SEC. 4. Section 89002 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89002. The campuses authorized in subdivisions (s), (u), (v), and (x) of Section 89001 shall commence construction only upon resolution of the trustees, approved by the California Postsecondary Education Commission.

This section shall become inoperative on June 30, 1995, and, as of January 1, 1996, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1996, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 89002 is added to the Education Code, to read:

89002. The campuses authorized in paragraphs (19), (21), (22), and (25) of subdivision (a) of Section 89001 shall commence construction only upon resolution of the trustees, approved by the California Postsecondary Education Commission.

This section shall become operative on July 1, 1995.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

The federal government intends to turn over certain property at Fort Ord in Monterey County to the State of California as early as April 1, 1994. It is, therefore, necessary to enact as soon as possible the statutory authorization for the Trustees of the California State University to designate the site at Fort Ord as a campus of the California State University, in order to facilitate the development and operation of the California State University, Monterey Bay within the timelines and parameters that may be established by the United States Government as a condition of the transfer of the property to the State of California.

CHAPTER 902

An act to add Article 12 (commencing with Section 429) to Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to health.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 12 (commencing with Section 429) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 12. Rural Health Care Transition Oversight

429. (a) The Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development, in conjunction with the State Department of Health Services, shall act as the coordinating agency to develop a strategic plan that would assist rural California to prepare for health care reform. The plan shall assist in the coordination and integration of all rural health care services on the birth to death continuum and serve as an infrastructure for rural communities to establish priorities and develop appropriate programs.

(b) The office shall designate representatives from provider groups including rural hospitals, clinics, physicians, other rural providers including psychologists, counties, beneficiaries, and other entities directly affected by the plan. The office shall convene meetings with the objectives of doing all of the following:

(1) Assessing the current status of health care in rural communities.

(2) Assembling and reviewing data related to available programs and resources for rural California.

(3) Assembling and reviewing data related to other states' strategic plans for rural communities.

(4) Reviewing and integrating the office's rural work plan, as appropriate.

(5) Making assumptions about the future of health care and developing a strategic plan based on these assumptions.

(c) The rural health care strategic plan shall address all of the following:

(1) The special needs of the elderly and of ethnic populations.

(2) Elimination of barriers in planning and coordinating health services.

(3) The lack of primary and specialty providers.

(4) Access to emergency services.

(5) The role of new technologies, including, but not limited to, telemedicine.

CHAPTER 903

An act to amend Sections 6006.5, 6073, 6452, 6479.3, 6701, 6757, 6961, 7152, 7153.5, 8951, 30155, 30461, 43102, 45102, 50108.2, and 55022 of, to amend and renumber Section 43158 of, and to add Section 6487.05 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6006.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

6006.5. "Occasional sale" includes all of the following:

(a) A sale of property not held or used by a seller in the course of activities for which he or she is required to hold a seller's permit or permits or would be required to hold a seller's permit or permits if the activities were conducted in this state, provided that the sale is not one of a series of sales sufficient in number, scope, and character to constitute an activity for which he or she is required to hold a seller's permit or would be required to hold a seller's permit if the activity were conducted in this state.

(b) Any transfer of all or substantially all the property held or used by a person in the course of those activities when after the transfer the real or ultimate ownership of the property is substantially similar to that which existed before the transfer. For the purposes of this section, stockholders, bondholders, partners, or other persons holding an ownership interest in a corporation or other entity are regarded as having the "real or ultimate ownership" of the property of the corporation or other entity.

(c) A sale of property, other than hay, by a producer of hay, provided that the sale is not one of a series of sales sufficient in number, scope, or character to constitute an activity for which the producer would be required to hold a seller's permit if the producer were not also selling hay.

SEC. 2. Section 6073 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

6073. (a) (1) When the board determines it is necessary for the efficient administration of this part, the board may require the operator of a swap meet, flea market, or special event as a prerequisite to renting or leasing space on the premises owned or controlled by that operator to a person desiring to engage in or conduct business as a seller, to obtain written evidence that the seller is the holder of a valid seller's permit issued pursuant to Section 6067, or a written statement from the seller that he or she is not offering for sale any item that is taxable under this part or is otherwise not required to hold a valid seller's permit.

(2) In providing the board with documentation required by the board pursuant to paragraph (1), an operator of a swap meet, flea market, or special event may require each person desiring to engage in or conduct business as a seller at that swap meet, flea market, or special event to provide his or her driver's license number to the operator on a form authorized by the board or under Section 6073.1.

(b) At any time as the board may specify in a written notice, but in no case more than three times in a calendar year, the board may require an operator to submit to the board a list of vendors conducting business on their premises as a seller. Each listing shall be provided to the board within 30 days after the date of the board's notice. The list shall contain the name and seller's permit number for permitholders and the name, address, and driver's license number for vendors who do not have seller's permits. Records shall be retained to the same extent as all transactions involving sales or use tax liability as provided in Section 7053.

(c) "Swap meet, flea market, or special event," as used in this section, means an activity involving a series of sales sufficient in number, scope, and character to constitute a regular course of business, or any event at which two or more persons offer tangible personal property for sale or exchange and at which a fee is charged for the privilege of displaying the property for sale or exchange or at which a fee is charged to prospective buyers for admission to the area where the property is offered or displayed for sale or exchange.

(d) Any operator of a swap meet, flea market, or special event who fails or refuses to comply with this section is subject to a penalty not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each offense.

SEC. 3. Section 6452 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

6452. (a) On or before the last day of the month following each quarterly period of three months, a return for the preceding quarterly period shall be filed with the board in the form as the board may prescribe.

(b) (1) For purposes of the sales tax, a return shall be filed by every seller and also by every person who is liable for the sales tax under this part. For purposes of the use tax, a return shall be filed by every retailer engaged in business in this state and by every person purchasing tangible personal property, the storage, use, or other consumption of which is subject to the use tax, who has not paid the use tax due to a retailer required to collect the tax. Returns shall be signed by the person required to file the return or by his or her duly authorized agent but need not be verified by oath. If a return is prepared by a paid preparer, that preparer shall enter his or her name, social security number or federal employee identification number, and business name and address in the space provided on the return. Any paid preparer who fails to provide the information specified by the preceding sentence shall be subject to a fifty dollar ($50) fine for each failure to provide that information.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1), "paid preparer" means any person who for compensation prepares, or employs one or more persons to prepare, any sales and use tax return required to be filed under this part. For purposes of this paragraph, the preparation of a substantial portion of any sales and use tax return required to be filed under this part shall be considered the equivalent of preparing that return in its entirety. A person is not a "paid preparer" as defined in this paragraph solely by reason of doing any of the following:

(A) Furnishing typing, reproduction, or other mechanical assistance.

(B) Preparing in a fiduciary capacity a return for any other person.

(c) Any retailer or other person who fails or refuses to furnish any return required to be made, or who fails or refuses to furnish a supplemental return or other data required by the board, is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable as provided in Section 7153.

SEC. 4. Section 6479.3 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

6479.3. (a) Any person whose estimated tax liability under this part averages twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) or more per month, as determined by the board pursuant to methods of calculation prescribed by the board, shall remit amounts due by an electronic funds transfer under procedures prescribed by the board. Any person who collects use tax on a voluntary basis is not required to remit amounts due by electronic funds transfer.

(b) Any person whose estimated tax liability under this part averages less than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) per month or any person who voluntarily collects use tax may elect to remit amounts due by electronic funds transfer with the approval of the board. The election shall be operative for a minimum of one year.

(c) Any person remitting amounts due pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) shall perform electronic funds transfer in compliance with the due dates set forth in Article 1 (commencing with Section 6451) and Article 1.1 (commencing with Section 6470). Payment is deemed complete on the date the electronic funds transfer is initiated, if settlement to the state's demand account occurs on or before the banking day following the date the transfer is initiated. If settlement to the state's demand account does not occur on or before the banking day following the date the transfer is initiated, payment is deemed to occur on the date settlement occurs.

(d) Any person remitting taxes by electronic funds transfer shall, on or before the due date of the remittance, file a return for the preceding reporting period in the form and manner prescribed by the board. Any person who fails to timely file the required return shall pay a penalty of 10 percent of the amount of taxes, exclusive of prepayments, with respect to the period for which the return is required.

(e) Any person required to remit taxes pursuant to this article who remits those taxes by means other than appropriate electronic funds transfer shall pay a penalty of 10 percent of the taxes incorrectly remitted.

(f) Any person who is required to remit taxes pursuant to this article, who fails to timely remit those taxes, and who is issued a deficiency determination pursuant to Section 6481 with respect to those taxes, shall, in addition to any other penalties imposed, pay a 10 percent penalty of the amount of those taxes.

(g) In determining whether a person's estimated tax liability averages twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) or more per month, the board may consider tax returns filed pursuant to this part and any other information in the board's possession.

(h) The board shall promulgate regulations pursuant to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code for purposes of implementing this section.

(i) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1995.

SEC. 5. Section 6487.05 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

6487.05. (a) Notwithstanding Section 6487, the period during which a deficiency determination may be mailed to a qualifying retailer is limited to three years after the last day of the calendar month following the quarterly period for which the amount is proposed to be determined. For purposes of this section, a "qualifying retailer" is a retailer that meets all of the following conditions:

(1) The retailer is located outside this state, and has not previously registered with the board.

(2) The retailer is engaged in business in this state, as defined in Section 6203.

(3) The retailer voluntarily registers with the board.

(4) The retailer has not been previously contacted by the board or its agents regarding the provisions of Section 6203.

(5) As determined by the board, the retailer's failure to file a return or failure to report or pay the tax or amount due required by law was due to reasonable cause and was not a result of negligence or intentional disregard of the law, or because of fraud or an intent to evade the provisions of this part.

(b) If the board or its designee finds that the retailer's failure to make a timely return or payment is due to reasonable cause and circumstances beyond the retailer's control, and occurred notwithstanding the exercise of ordinary care and the absence of willful neglect, the retailer shall be relieved of the penalties imposed pursuant to this part. Any retailer seeking relief of penalty shall file a statement under penalty of perjury setting forth the facts upon which he or she bases his or her claim for relief.

SEC. 6. Section 6701 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

6701. The board, whenever it deems it necessary to ensure compliance with this part, may require any person subject thereto, to place with it any security that the board may determine. Any security in the form of cash, government bonds, or insured deposits in banks or savings and loan institutions shall be held by the board in trust to be used solely in the manner provided by this section and Section 6815. The amount of the security shall be fixed by the board but, except as noted below, shall not be greater than twice the estimated average liability of persons filing returns for quarterly periods or three times the estimated average liability of persons required to file returns for monthly periods, determined in the manner that the board deems proper, or ten thousand dollars ($10,000), whichever amount is the lesser. In case of a person who, pursuant to Section 6070 of this part, has been given notice of hearing to show cause why his or her permit or permits should not be revoked, or a person whose permit or permits has been revoked or suspended, the amount of the security shall not be greater than three times the average liability of persons filing returns for quarterly periods or five times the average liability of persons required to file returns for monthly periods, or ten thousand dollars ($10,000), whichever amount is the lesser. The limitations herein provided apply regardless of the type of security placed with the board. The amount of the security may be increased or decreased by the board subject to the limitations herein provided. The board may sell the security at public auction if it becomes necessary to do so in order to recover any tax or any amount required to be collected, interest, or penalty due. Notice of the sale may be served upon the person who placed the security personally or by mail; if by mail, service shall be made in the manner prescribed for service of a notice of a deficiency determination and shall be addressed to the person at his or her address as it appears in the records of the board. Upon any sale any surplus above the amounts due shall be returned to the person who placed the security.

SEC. 7. Section 6757 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

6757. (a) If any person fails to pay any amount imposed under this part at the time that it becomes due and payable, the amount thereof, including penalties and interest, together with any costs in addition thereto, shall thereupon be a perfected and enforceable state tax lien. The lien is subject to Chapter 14 (commencing with Section 7150) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(b) For the purpose of this section, amounts are "due and payable" on the following dates:

(1) For amounts disclosed on a return received by the board before the date the return is delinquent, the date the return would have been delinquent;

(2) For amounts disclosed on a return filed on or after the date the return is delinquent, the date the return is received by the board;

(3) For amounts determined under Section 6536 (pertaining to jeopardy assessments), the date the notice of the board's finding is mailed or issued;

(4) For all other amounts, the date the assessment is final.

(c) The lien provided by this section shall not arise during any period that Section 362 of the United States Bankruptcy Code applies to the person against whom the lien would otherwise apply.

SEC. 8. Section 6961 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

6961. (a) The Controller may recover any refund or part thereof that is erroneously made and any credit or part thereof that is erroneously allowed in an action brought in a court of competent jurisdiction in the County of Sacramento in the name of the people of the State of California.

(b) As an alternative to subdivision (a), the board may recover any refund or part thereof that is erroneously made and any credit or part thereof that is erroneously allowed. In recovering any erroneous refunds or credits, the board, in its discretion, may issue a deficiency determination in accordance with Article 2 (commencing with Section 6481) or Article 4 (commencing with Section 6536) of Chapter 5. Except in the case of fraud, the determination shall be made within three years from the last day of the month following the quarterly period in which the board made its certification to the Controller that the amount collected was in excess of the amount legally due.

SEC. 9. Section 7152 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

7152. (a) Any person required to make, render, sign, or verify any report who makes any false or fraudulent return, with intent to defeat or evade the determination of an amount due required by law to be made is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable as provided in

Section 7153.

(b) Any person who willfully aids or assists in, or procures, counsels, or advises in, the preparation or presentation, in connection with any matter arising under this part, of a return, affidavit, claim, or other document that is fraudulent or false as to any material matter, whether or not the falsity or fraud is with the knowledge or consent of the person authorized or required to present the return, affidavit, claim, or document, is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable as provided in Section 7153.

SEC. 10. Section 7153.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

7153.5. Notwithstanding any other provision of this part, any person who violates this part with intent to defeat or evade the reporting, assessment, or payment of a tax or an amount due required by law to be made is guilty of a felony when the amount of unreported tax liability aggregates twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) or more in any 12-consecutive-month period. Each offense shall be punished by a fine of not less than five thousand dollars ($5,000) and not more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), or imprisonment for 16 months, two years, or three years, or both the fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

SEC. 11. Section 8951 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

8951. The board, whenever it deems it necessary to ensure compliance with this part or any rule or regulation adopted under this part, may require any user, vendor, or wholesaler to deposit with it any security that it may determine. Any security in the form of cash, government bonds, or insured deposits in banks and savings and loan institutions shall be held by the board in trust to be used solely in the manner provided for by this section and Section 8956. The board may sell the security at public sale if it becomes necessary so to do in order to recover any amount due under this part. Notice of the sale may be served upon the person who deposited the security personally or by mail in the manner prescribed for service of notice of a deficiency determination. Upon any sale, any surplus above the amount due shall be returned to the person who deposited the security.

SEC. 11.5. Section 8951 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

8951. The board, whenever it deems it necessary to ensure compliance with this part or any rule or regulation adopted under this part, may require any user or vendor to deposit with it any security that it may determine. Any security in the form of cash, government bonds, or insured deposits in banks and savings and loan institutions shall be held by the board in trust to be used solely in the manner provided for by this section and Section 8956. The board may sell the security at public sale if it becomes necessary in order to recover any amount due under this part. Notice of the sale may be served upon the person who deposited the security personally or by mail in the manner prescribed for service of notice of a deficiency determination. Upon any sale, any surplus above the amount due shall be returned to the person who deposited the security.

SEC. 12. Section 30155 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

30155. Every person desiring to engage in the sale of cigarettes or tobacco products as a wholesaler shall file with the board an application, in that form as the board may prescribe, for a wholesaler's license. A wholesaler shall apply for and obtain a license for each place of business at which he or she engages in the business of selling cigarettes or tobacco products as a wholesaler.

SEC. 13. Section 30461 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

30461. (a) All amounts required to be paid to the state under this part shall be paid to the board in the form of remittances payable to the State Board of Equalization. Except as provided in subdivision (b) and Section 30461.6, the board shall transmit the payments to the Treasurer to be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the Cigarette Tax Fund, which fund is hereby created.

(b) The board shall transmit amounts received from the penalty assessed pursuant to Section 30474 to the Treasurer for deposit in the General Fund.

SEC. 14. Section 43102 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

43102. The board, whenever it deems it necessary to ensure compliance with this part, may require any person subject to this part to place with it any security that the board determines to be reasonable, taking into account the circumstances of that person. Any security in the form of cash, government bonds, or insured deposits in banks or savings and loan institutions shall be held by the board in trust to be used solely in the manner provided by this section. The board may sell the security at public auction if it becomes necessary to do so in order to recover any tax or any amount required to be collected, including any interest or penalty due. Notice of the sale shall be served upon the person who placed the security personally or by mail. If service is made by mail, service shall be addressed to the person at his or her address as it appears in the records of the board. Service shall be made at least 30 days prior to the sale in the case of personal service, and at least 40 days prior to the sale in the case of service by mail. Upon any sale, any surplus above the amounts due shall be returned to the person who placed the security.

SEC. 15. Section 43158 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Chapter 852 of the Statutes of 1992, is amended and renumbered to read:

43160. Every person who is required to file the returns and make the payments specified in Section 43151, 43152.6, 43152.7, 43152.9, 43152.11, 43152.13, 43152.14, or 43153 shall, upon transfer or discontinuance of operations, file closing returns on forms prescribed by the board. The closing returns shall be due and payable on the last day of the month following the end of the quarterly period in which the transfer or discontinuance takes place.

SEC. 16. Section 45102 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

45102. The board, whenever it deems it necessary to ensure compliance with this part, may require any person subject to this part to place with it any security that the board determines to be reasonable, taking into account the circumstances of that person. Any security in the form of cash, government bonds, or insured deposits in banks or savings and loan institutions shall be held by the board in trust to be used solely in the manner provided by this section. The board may sell the security at public auction if it becomes necessary to do so in order to recover any fee or any amount required to be collected, including any interest or penalty due. Notice of the sale shall be served upon the person who placed the security personally or by mail.

If service is made by mail, the notice shall be addressed to the person at his or her address as it appears in the records of the board. Service shall be made at least 30 days prior to the sale in the case of personal service, and at least 40 days prior to the sale in the case of service by mail. Upon any sale, any surplus above the amounts due shall be returned to the person who placed the security.

SEC. 17. Section 50108.2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

50108.2. (a) The board, whenever it determines it to be necessary to ensure compliance with this part, may require any person subject to this part to place with it any security that the board determines to be reasonable, taking into account the circumstances of that person. Any security in the form of cash, government bonds, or insured deposits in banks or savings and loan institutions shall be held by the board in trust to be used solely in the manner provided by this section. The board may sell the security at a public auction if it becomes necessary to do so in order to recover any fee or any amount required to be collected, including any interest or penalty due.

(b) Notice of the sale authorized in subdivision (a) shall be served upon the person who placed the security personally or by mail. If service is made by mail, the notice shall be addressed to the person at his or her address as it appears in the records of the board. Service shall be made at least 30 days prior to the sale in the case of personal service, and at least 40 days prior to the sale in the case of service by mail. Upon any sale, any surplus above the amounts due shall be returned to the person who placed the security.

SEC. 18. Section 55022 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

55022. The board, whenever it deems necessary to ensure compliance with this part, may require any person subject to this part to place with it any security that the board determines to be reasonable, taking into account the circumstances of that person. The board may sell the security at public auction if it becomes necessary to do so in order to recover any fee or any amount required to be collected, including any interest or penalty due. Notice of the sale shall be served upon the person who placed the security personally or by mail.

If service is made by mail, the notice shall be addressed to the person at his or her address as it appears in the records of the board. Service shall be made at least 30 days prior to the sale in the case of personal service, and at least 40 days prior to the sale in the case of service by mail. Upon any sale, any surplus above the amounts due shall be returned to the person who placed the security.

SEC. 19. Section 11.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 8951 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by both this bill and SB 840. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1995, but this bill becomes operative first, (2) each bill amends Section 8951 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 840, in which case Section 8951 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Section 11 of this bill, shall remain operative only until the operative date of SB 840, at which time Section 11.5 of this bill shall become operative.

SEC. 20. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 904

An act to amend Section 3003 of the Penal Code, relating to parole.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3003 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

3003. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, an inmate who is released on parole shall be returned to the county from which he or she was committed.

For purposes of this subdivision, "county from which he or she was committed" means the county where the crime for which the inmate was convicted occurred and shall not be construed to mean the county wherein the inmate committed an offense while confined in a state prison facility or while confined for treatment in a state hospital.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), an inmate may be returned to another county in a case where that would be in the best interests of the public and of the parolee. If the Board of Prison Terms setting the conditions of parole for inmates sentenced pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1168, or the Department of Corrections setting the conditions of parole for inmates sentenced pursuant to Section 1170, decides on a return to another county, it shall place its reasons in writing in the parolee's permanent record. In making its decision, the authority may consider, among others, the following factors, giving the greatest weight to the protection of the victim and the safety of the community:

(1) The need to protect the life or safety of a victim, the parolee, a witness, or any other person.

(2) Public concern that would reduce the chance that the inmate's parole would be successfully completed.

(3) The verified existence of a work offer, or an educational or vocational training program.

(4) The last legal residence of the inmate having been in another county.

(5) The existence of family in another county with whom the inmate has maintained strong ties and whose support would increase the chance that the inmate's parole would be successfully completed.

(6) The lack of necessary outpatient treatment programs for parolees receiving treatment pursuant to Section 2960.

(c) Notwithstanding any other law, an inmate who is released on parole shall not be returned to within 35 miles of the actual residence of a victim of, or a witness to, a violent felony as defined in paragraphs (1) to (7), inclusive, of subdivision (c) of Section 667.5 and any felony in which the defendant inflicts great bodily injury on any person other than an accomplice which has been charged and proved as provided for in Section 12022.7 or 12022.9, if the victim or witness has requested additional distance in the placement of the inmate on parole, and if the Board of Prison Terms or the Department of Corrections finds that there is a need to protect the life, safety, or well-being of a victim or witness.

(d) The authority shall give consideration to the equitable distribution of parolees and the proportion of out-of-county commitments from a county compared to the number of commitments from that county when making parole decisions.

(e) An inmate may be paroled to another state pursuant to any other law.

SEC. 1.1. Section 3003 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

3003. (a) (1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a parolee who is released on parole shall be returned to the county from which he or she was committed by the Department of Corrections and the parolee shall, after January 1, 1996, participate in any transportation program developed by the Department of Corrections, as a term and condition of his or her parole.

(2) Upon a determination by the Department of Corrections that it is in the best interest of the public safety, the department shall physically transport the parolee, upon his or her release, to the county specified in paragraph (1). Until January 1, 1996, this paragraph shall only apply if this provision is made a condition of parole and the parolee accepts the condition.

(3) For purposes of this subdivision, "county from which he or she was committed" means the county where the crime for which the parolee was convicted occurred and shall not be construed to mean the county wherein the parolee committed an offense while confined in a state prison facility or while confined for treatment in a state hospital.

(4) The Department of Corrections shall develop and implement, by January 1, 1996, a cost-effective transportation program to transport each parolee to the county from which he or she was committed.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), a parolee may be returned to another county in a case where that would be in the best interests of the public and of the parolee. If the Board of Prison Terms setting the conditions of parole for parolees sentenced pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1168, or the Department of Corrections setting the conditions of parole for parolees sentenced pursuant to Section 1170, decides on a return to another county, it shall place its reasons in writing in the parolee's permanent record. In making its decision, the authority may consider, among others, the following factors, giving the greatest weight to the protection of the victim and the safety of the community:

(1) The need to protect the life or safety of a victim, the parolee, a witness, or any other person.

(2) Public concern that would reduce the chance that the parolee's parole would be successfully completed.

(3) The verified existence of a work offer, or an educational or vocational training program.

(4) The last legal residence of the parolee having been in another county.

(5) The existence of family in another county with whom the parolee has maintained strong ties and whose support would increase the chance that the inmate's parole would be successfully completed.

(6) The lack of necessary outpatient treatment programs for parolees receiving treatment pursuant to Section 2960.

(c) Notwithstanding any other law, a parolee shall not be returned to within 35 miles of the actual residence of a victim of, or a witness to, a violent felony as defined in paragraphs (1) to (7), inclusive, of subdivision (c) of Section 667.5 and any felony in which the defendant inflicts great bodily injury on any person other than an accomplice which has been charged and proved as provided for in Section 12022.7 or 12022.9, if the victim or witness has requested additional distance in the placement of the parolee on parole, and if the Board of Prison Terms or the Department of Corrections finds that there is a need to protect the life, safety, or well-being of a victim or witness.

(d) The authority shall give consideration to the equitable distribution of parolees and the proportion of out-of-county commitments from a county compared to the number of commitments from that county when making parole decisions.

(e) A parolee may be paroled to another state pursuant to any other law.

(f) Nothing in this section shall be construed as requiring or authorizing parole agents to transport prisoners or parolees from one site to any other site.

SEC. 1.2. Section 3003 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

3003. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, an inmate who is released on parole shall be returned to the county from which he or she was committed.

For purposes of this subdivision, "county from which he or she was committed" means the county where the crime for which the inmate was convicted occurred and shall not be construed to mean the county wherein the inmate committed an offense while confined in a state prison facility or while confined for treatment in a state hospital.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), an inmate may be returned to another county in a case where that would be in the best interests of the public and of the parolee. If the Board of Prison Terms setting the conditions of parole for inmates sentenced pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1168, or the Department of Corrections setting the conditions of parole for inmates sentenced pursuant to Section 1170, decides on a return to another county, it shall place its reasons in writing in the parolee's permanent record. In making its decision, the authority may consider, among others, the following factors, giving the greatest weight to the protection of the victim and the safety of the community:

(1) The need to protect the life or safety of a victim, the parolee, a witness, or any other person.

(2) Public concern that would reduce the chance that the inmate's parole would be successfully completed.

(3) The verified existence of a work offer, or an educational or vocational training program.

(4) The last legal residence of the inmate having been in another county.

(5) The existence of family in another county with whom the inmate has maintained strong ties and whose support would increase the chance that the inmate's parole would be successfully completed.

(6) The lack of necessary outpatient treatment programs for parolees receiving treatment pursuant to Section 2960.

(c) The Department of Corrections, in determining an out-of-county commitment, shall give priority to the safety of the community and any witnesses and victims.

(d) (1) The Department of Corrections shall establish a pilot project, limited to San Bernardino County, in which the following information, if available, shall be released to the local law enforcement agencies regarding a paroled inmate who is released in San Bernardino County:

(A) Last, first, and middle name.

(B) Birth date.

(C) Sex, race, height, weight, and hair and eye color.

(D) Date of parole and discharge.

(E) Registration status if the inmate is required to register as a result of a controlled substance, sex, or arson offense.

(F) California Criminal Information Number, FBI number, social security number, and driver's license number.

(G) County of commitment.

(H) A description of scars, marks, and tattoos on the inmate.

(I) Offense or offenses for which the inmate was convicted that resulted in parole in this instance.

(J) Address, including all of the following information:

(i) Street name and number. Post office box numbers are not acceptable for purposes of this subparagraph.

(ii) City and ZIP Code.

(iii) Date the address as provided pursuant to this subparagraph was last verified.

(K) Contact officer and unit, including all of the following information:

(i) Name and telephone number of each contact officer.

(ii) Contact unit type of each contact officer, such as units responsible for parole, registration, or county probation.

(2) The information required by this subdivision shall come from the parolee activity report and sex registrants file. The information obtained from each source shall be based on the same timeframe.

(3) All of the information required by this subdivision shall be provided utilizing a computer-to-computer transfer in a format usable by a desktop computer system. The transfer of this information shall be done by modem or tape transfer at least once each month.

(4) The unauthorized release or receipt of the information described in this subdivision is a violation of Section 11143.

(5) The San Bernardino County Sheriff's Department shall provide a program evaluation to the Department of Corrections at least once per month. The information shall be provided in a form available for transfer by modem or tape.

(6) The Department of Corrections shall prepare and submit to the Legislature on or before June 30, 1996, a report on the program that includes a recommendation on whether the pilot program should be expanded and an evaluation of the resources necessary to expand the program statewide.

(e) Notwithstanding any other law, an inmate who is released on parole shall not be returned to a location within 35 miles of the actual residence of a victim of, or a witness to, a violent felony as defined in paragraphs (1) to (7), inclusive, of subdivision (c) of Section 667.5 or a felony in which the defendant inflicts great bodily injury on any person other than an accomplice that has been charged and proved as provided for in Section 12022.7 or 12022.9, if the victim or witness has requested additional distance in the placement of the inmate on parole, and if the Board of Prison Terms or the Department of Corrections finds that there is a need to protect the life, safety, or well-being of a victim or witness.

(f) The authority shall give consideration to the equitable distribution of parolees and the proportion of out-of-county commitments from a county compared to the number of commitments from that county when making parole decisions.

(g) An inmate may be paroled to another state pursuant to any other law.

SEC. 1.3. Section 3003 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

3003. (a) (1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a parolee who is released on parole shall be returned to the county from which he or she was committed by the Department of Corrections and the parolee shall, after January 1, 1996, participate in any transportation program developed by the Department of Corrections, as a term and condition of his or her parole.

(2) Upon a determination by the Department of Corrections that it is in the best interest of the public safety, the department shall physically transport the parolee, upon his or her release, to the county specified in paragraph (1). SEC. 2. (a) Section 1.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 3003 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3331. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 3003 of the Penal Code, (3) AB 3 of the 1993–94 First Extraordinary Section is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 3331, in which case Sections 1, 1.2, and 1.3 of this bill shall not become operative.

(b) Section 1.2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 3003 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3 of the 1993–94 First Extraordinary Session. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective, (2) each bill amends Section 3003 of the Penal Code, (3) AB 3331 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 3, in which case one of the following alternatives shall be applicable:

(1) If this bill becomes operative before AB 3, Section 1 of this bill shall be operative until the operative date of AB 3, at which time Section 1.2 of this bill shall become operative, and Sections 1, 1.1, and 1.3 of this bill shall not become operative.

(2) If this bill becomes operative after AB 3, Section 3003 of the Penal Code, as amended by AB 3, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 1.2 of this bill shall become operative, and Sections 1, 1.1, and 1.3 of this bill shall not become operative.

(c) Section 1.3 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 3003 of the Penal Code proposed by this bill, AB 3331, and AB 3 of the 1993–94 First Extraordinary Session. It shall only become operative if (1) all three bills are enacted and become effective, (2) all three bills amend Section 3003 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3331 and AB 3, in which case one of the following alternatives shall be applicable:

(1) If this bill becomes operative before AB 3, Section 1.1 of this bill shall be operative until the operative date of AB 3, at which time Section 1.3 of this bill shall become operative, and Sections 1, 1.1, and 1.2 of this bill shall not become operative.

(2) If this bill becomes operative after AB 3, Section 3003 of the Penal Code, as amended by AB 3, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 1.3 of this bill shall become operative, and Sections 1, 1.1, and 1.2 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 905

An act to add Section 1760.8 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to youth.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1760.8 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

1760.8. (a) The Department of the Youth Authority shall annually develop a population management and facilities master plan presenting projected population and strategies for treatment and housing of wards for the succeeding five-year period. This plan shall set forth the department's strategy for bridging the gap between available bedspace and the projected ward population. This master plan shall be updated and submitted to the Legislature by January 10 of each year.

(b) The Department of the Youth Authority may contract with the Department of Corrections or the Office of Project Development and Management within the Department of General Services for professional and construction services related to the construction of facilities or renovation projects included in the Department of the Youth Authority's 1994–99 master plan for which funds are appropriated by the Legislature. The Department of the Youth Authority shall be responsible for program planning and all design decisions. The Department of Corrections or the Department of General Services shall, in consultation with the Department of the Youth Authority, ensure that all facilities are designed and constructed specifically for the needs of the youthful offender population. The Department of the Youth Authority also shall ensure that the design and construction of any facilities are consistent with the mission of the Department of the Youth Authority, which emphasizes the protection of the public from criminal activity and the rehabilitation of youthful offenders by providing education, training, and treatment services for those offenders committed by the courts. Any power, function, or jurisdiction for planning, design, and construction of facilities or renovation projects pursuant to the 1994–99 master plan that is conferred upon the Department of General Services shall be deemed to be conferred upon the Department of Corrections for purposes of this section. The Director of the Department of General Services may, upon the request of the Director of the Department of Corrections, delegate to the Department of Corrections any power, function, or jurisdiction for planning, design, and construction of any additional projects included within subsequent Department of the Youth Authority master plans.

CHAPTER 906

An act to add Section 490.5 to the Business and Professions Code, to amend Section 4055 of, and to add Section 4508 to, the Family Code, to amend Section 19271 of, and to repeal Section 19274 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, to add Section 15310 to the Vehicle Code, and to amend Section 11350.6 of, and to add Section 11475.3 to, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to family law.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 490.5 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

490.5. A board may suspend a license pursuant to Section 11350.6

of the Welfare and Institutions Code if a licensee is not in compliance with a child support order or judgment.

SEC. 1.5. Section 4055 of the Family Code is amended to read:

4055. (a) The statewide uniform guideline for determining child support orders is as follows: CS = K [HN − (H%) (TN)].

(b) (1) The components of the formula are as follows:

(A) CS = child support amount.

(B) K = amount of both parents' income to be allocated for child support as set forth in paragraph (3).

(C) HN = high earner's net monthly disposable income.

(D) H% = approximate percentage of time that the high earner has or will have primary physical responsibility for the children compared to the other parent. In cases in which parents have different time-sharing arrangements for different children, H% equals the average of the approximate percentages of time the high earner parent spends with each child.

(E) TN = total net monthly disposable income of both parties.

(2) To compute net disposable income, see Section 4059.

(3) K (amount of both parents' income allocated for child support) equals one plus H% (if H% is less than or equal to 50 percent) or two minus H% (if H% is greater than 50 percent) times the following fraction:

Total Net Disposable Income Per Month	K
$0–800	0.20 + TN/16,000
$801–6,666	0.25
$6,667–10,000	0.10 + 1,000/TN
Over $10,000	0.12 + 800/TN

For example, if H% equals 20 percent and the total monthly net disposable income of the parents is $1,000, K = (1 + 0.20) × 0.25, or 0.30. If H% equals 80 percent and the total monthly net disposable income of the parents is $1,000, K = (2 − 0.80) × 0.25, or 0.30.

(4) For more than one child, multiply CS by:

2 children	1.6
3 children	2
4 children	2.3
5 children	2.5
6 children	2.625
7 children	2.75
8 children	2.813
9 children	2.844
10 children	2.86

(5) If the amount calculated under the formula results in a positive number, the higher earner shall pay that amount to the lower earner. If the amount calculated under the formula results in a negative number, the lower earner shall pay the absolute value of that amount to the higher earner.

(6) In any default proceeding where proof is by affidavit pursuant to Section 2336, or in any proceeding for child support in which a party fails to appear after being duly noticed, H% shall be set at zero in the formula if the noncustodial parent is the higher earner or at 100 if the custodial parent is the higher earner, where there is no evidence presented demonstrating the percentage of time that the noncustodial parent has primary physical responsibility for the children.

(7) In all cases in which the net disposable income per month of the obligor is less than one thousand dollars ($1,000), the court shall rule on whether a low-income adjustment shall be made. The ruling shall be based on the facts presented to the court, the principles provided in Section 4053, and the impact of the contemplated adjustment on the respective net incomes of the obligor and the obligee. Where the court has ruled that a low-income adjustment shall be made, the child support amount otherwise determined under this section shall be reduced by an amount that is no greater than the amount calculated by multiplying the child support amount otherwise determined under this section by a fraction, the numerator of which is 1,000 minus the obligor's net disposable income per month, and the denominator of which is 1,000. If a low-income adjustment is allowed, the court shall state the reasons supporting the adjustment in writing or on the record and shall document the amount of the adjustment and the underlying facts and circumstances.

(8) Unless the court orders otherwise, the order for child support shall allocate the support amount so that the amount of support for the youngest child is the amount of support for one child, and the amount for the next youngest child is the difference between that amount and the amount for two children, with similar allocations for additional children. However, this paragraph does not apply to cases where there are different time-sharing arrangements for different children or where the court determines that the allocation would be inappropriate in the particular case.

(c) In the event a court uses a computer to calculate the child support order, the computer program shall not automatically default affirmatively or negatively on whether a low-income adjustment is to be applied. If the low-income adjustment is applied, the computer program shall not provide the amount of the low-income adjustment. Instead, the computer program shall ask the user whether or not to apply the low-income adjustment, and if answered affirmatively, the computer program shall provide the range of the adjustment permitted by paragraph (7) of subdivision (b).

SEC. 2. Section 4508 is added to the Family Code, to read:

4508. (a) This section does not apply to any child support obligor who is subject to an earnings assignment order pursuant to Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 5200).

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (a), every order or judgment to pay child support may require a child support obligor to designate an account for the purpose of paying the child support obligation by electronic funds transfer, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 6479.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code. The order or judgment may require the obligor to deposit funds in an interest-bearing account with a state or federally chartered commercial bank, a savings and loan association, or in shares of a federally insured credit union doing business in this state, and shall require the obligor to maintain funds in the account sufficient to pay the monthly child support obligation. However, if the obligor does not have such an account, the court may not require the obligor to establish an account for the purposes of this section. The court may order that each payment be electronically transferred to either the obligee's account or the district attorney's account. The obligor shall be required to notify the obligee if the depository institution or the account number is changed. No interest shall accrue on any amount subject to electronic funds transfer as long as funds are maintained in the account that are sufficient to pay the monthly child support obligation.

SEC. 3. Section 19271 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19271. (a) When a child support delinquency is reported to the State Department of Social Services pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 4700) of Part 5 of Division 9 of the Family Code, the county district attorney reporting that delinquency may, pursuant to the guidelines prescribed by the State Department of Social Services and the Franchise Tax Board for purposes of implementing this article, refer the delinquency, which may include or be limited to interest, fees, or penalties, to the Franchise Tax Board for collection. In order to manage the growth in the number of referrals that it may receive, the Franchise Tax Board may phase in the referrals as administratively necessary. By December 31, 1996, or sooner if administratively possible, all counties shall be allowed to refer delinquencies to the Franchise Tax Board in accordance with this subdivision.

(b) (1) When a delinquency is referred to the Franchise Tax Board pursuant to subdivision (a), the amount of the child support delinquency shall be collected from obligated parents by the Franchise Tax Board in any manner authorized under the law for collection of a delinquent personal income tax liability, including, but not limited to, issuance of an order and levy under Article 4 (commencing with Section 706.070) of Chapter 5 of Division 2 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure in the manner provided for earnings withholding orders for taxes. Any law providing for the collection of a delinquent personal income tax liability shall apply to delinquencies referred under this article in the same manner and with the same force and effect and to the full extent as if the language of such laws had been incorporated in full into this article, except to the extent that any provision is either inconsistent with a provision of this article or is not relevant to this article.

(2) Any compensation, fee, commission, expense, or any other fee for service incurred by the Franchise Tax Board in the collection of a child support delinquency authorized under this article shall not be an obligation of, or collected from, the obligated parent. A referred child support delinquency shall be final and due and payable to the State of California upon written notice to the obligated parent by the Franchise Tax Board.

(3) For purposes of administering this article:

(A) This chapter and Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 19501) shall apply, except as otherwise provided by this article.

(B) Any services, information, or enforcement remedies available to a district attorney or the Title IV-D agency in collecting support delinquencies or locating absent or noncustodial parents shall be available to the Franchise Tax Board for purposes of collecting child support delinquencies under this article, including, but not limited to, any information that may be disclosed by the Franchise Tax Board to the California Parent Locator Service under Section 19285.1.

(C) A request by the Franchise Tax Board for information from a financial institution shall be treated in the same manner and to the same extent as a request for information from a district attorney referring to a support order pursuant to Section 11475.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code for purposes of Chapter 20 (commencing with Section 7460) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code (relating to governmental access to financial records), notwithstanding any other provision of law which is inconsistent or contrary to this paragraph.

(D) "Earnings" may include the items described in Section 5206 of the Family Code.

(E) The amount to be withheld in an order and levy to collect child support delinquencies under Article 4 (commencing with Section 706.070) of Chapter 5 of Division 2 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure is the amount required to be withheld pursuant to an earnings withholding order for support under Section 706.052 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(c) Interest on the delinquency shall be computed pursuant to Section 685.010 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(d) In the event the collection action would cause undue financial hardship to the obligated parent, would threaten the health or welfare of the obligated parent or his or her family, or would cause undue irreparable loss to the obligated parent, the obligated parent may notify the Franchise Tax Board, which shall upon being notified refer the obligated parent to the referring county district attorney, unless the Franchise Tax Board is directed otherwise by the county district attorney for purposes of more effectively administering this article.

(e) (1) In no event shall a collection under this article be construed to be a payment of income taxes imposed under this part.

(2) In the event an obligated parent overpays a liability imposed under this part, the overpayment shall not be credited against any delinquency collected pursuant to this article. In the event an overpayment of a liability imposed under this part is offset and distributed to a referring county district attorney pursuant to Sections 12419.3 and 12419.5 of the Government Code or Section 708.740 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and thereby reduces the amount of the referred delinquency, the referring county district attorney shall immediately notify the Franchise Tax Board of that reduction, unless otherwise directed for purposes of more effectively administering this article.

(3) In no event shall the Franchise Tax Board collect under this article any delinquency referred under this article if all of the following circumstances exist:

(A) A court has ordered an obligor to make scheduled payments on a child support arrearages obligation.

(B) The obligor is in compliance with the order.

(C) The order does not provide the district attorney with authority to engage in continued or additional collection activities.

(f) Except as otherwise provided in this article, any child support delinquency referred to the Franchise Tax Board pursuant to this article shall be treated as a child support delinquency for all other purposes, and any collection action by the county district attorney or the Franchise Tax Board with respect to any delinquency referred pursuant to this article shall have the same priority against attachment, execution, assignment, or other collection action as is provided by any other provision of state law.

(g) For purposes of this article, "child support" means support of a child, spouse, or family as provided in Section 150 of the Family Code.

(h) Nothing in this article shall be construed to modify the tax intercept provisions of Article 8 (commencing with Section 708.710) of Chapter 6 of Division 2 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(i) The child support collection activities authorized by this article shall not interfere with the primary mission of the Franchise Tax Board to fairly and efficiently administer the Revenue and Taxation Code for which it is responsible.

(j) Information disclosed to the Franchise Tax Board shall be considered information disclosed by the Franchise Tax Board under the authority of Section 19285.1 and may be disseminated by the Franchise Tax Board accordingly for the purposes specified in Sections 11478 and 11478.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code (in accordance with, and to the extent permitted by, Section 11478.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code and any other state or federal law).

SEC. 3.3. Section 19274 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 3.4. Section 15310 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

15310. The department shall take action regarding the commercial driving privilege of any person when appropriate pursuant to Section 11350.6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. Such action may include, but is not limited to, the issuance of a temporary license, suspension of a license, denial of an application for renewal, or any other action authorized or required pursuant to Section 11350.6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. An administrative service fee shall be charged for each action taken pursuant to this section in an amount determined by the director to be sufficient to cover the actual costs of the suspension or termination and reinstatement of the driving privilege.

SEC. 3.6. Section 11350.6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11350.6. (a) As used in this section:

(1) "Applicant" means any person applying for issuance or renewal of a license.

(2) "Board" means any entity specified in Section 101 of the Business and Professions Code, the entities referred to in Sections 1000 and 3600 of the Business and Professions Code, the State Bar, the Department of Real Estate, and any other state commission, department, committee, examiner, or agency that issues a license, certificate, credential, or registration authorizing a person to engage in a business, occupation, or profession.

(3) "Certified list" means a list provided by the district attorney to the State Department of Social Services in which the district attorney verifies, under penalty of perjury, that the names contained therein are support obligors found to be out of compliance with a judgment or order for support in a case being enforced under Title IV-D of the Social Security Act.

(4) "Compliance with a judgment or order for support" means that, as set forth in a judgment or order for child or family support, the obligor is no more than 30 calendar days in arrears in making payments in full for current support, in making periodic payments in full, whether court-ordered or by agreement with the district attorney, on a support arrearage, or in making periodic payments in full, whether court-ordered or by agreement with the district attorney, on a judgment for reimbursement for public assistance, or has obtained a judicial finding that equitable estoppel as provided in statute or case law precludes enforcement of the order. The district attorney is authorized to use this section to enforce orders for spousal support only when the district attorney is also enforcing a related child support obligation owed to the obligee parent by the same obligor, pursuant to Sections 11475.1 and 11475.2.

(5) "License" includes membership in the State Bar, and a certificate, permit, registration, or any other authorization issued by a board that allows a person to engage in a business, occupation, or profession, or to operate a commercial motor vehicle.

(6) "Licensee" means any person holding a license, certificate, permit, registration, or other authorization issued by a board, to engage in a business, occupation, or profession, or a commercial driver's license as defined in Section 15210 of the Vehicle Code.

(b) The district attorney shall maintain a list of those persons included in a case being enforced under Title IV-D of the Social Security Act against whom a support order or judgment has been rendered by, or registered in, a court of this state, and who are not in compliance with that order or judgment. The district attorney shall submit a certified list with the names, social security numbers, and last known addresses of these persons and the name, address, and telephone number of the district attorney who certified the list to the State Department of Social Services. The district attorney shall verify, under penalty of perjury, that the persons listed are subject to an order or judgment for the payment of support and that these persons are not in compliance with the order or judgment. The district attorney shall submit to the State Department of Social Services an updated certified list on a monthly basis.

(c) The State Department of Social Services shall consolidate the certified lists received from the district attorneys and, within 30 calendar days of receipt, shall provide a copy of the consolidated list to each board which is responsible for the regulation of licenses, as specified in this section.

(d) On or before November 1, 1992, or as soon thereafter as economically feasible, as determined by the State Department of Social Services, all boards subject to this section shall implement procedures to accept and process the list provided by the State Department of Social Services, in accordance with this section.

(e) (1) Promptly after receiving the certified consolidated list from the State Department of Social Services, and prior to the issuance or renewal of a license, each board shall determine whether the applicant is on the most recent certified consolidated list provided by the State Department of Social Services. The board shall have the authority to withhold issuance or renewal of the license of any applicant on the list.

(2) If an applicant is on the list, the board shall immediately serve notice as specified in subdivision (f) on the applicant of the board's intent to withhold issuance or renewal of the license. The notice shall be made personally or by mail to the applicant's last known mailing address on file with the board. Service by mail shall be complete in accordance with Section 1013 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(A) The board shall issue a temporary license valid for a period of 150 days to any applicant whose name is on the certified list if the applicant is otherwise eligible for a license.

(B) The 150-day time period for a temporary license shall not be extended. Only one temporary license shall be issued during a regular license term and it shall coincide with the first 150 days of that license term. As this paragraph applies to commercial driver licenses, "license term" shall be deemed to be 12 months from the date the application fee is received by the Department of Motor Vehicles. A license for the full or remainder of the license term shall be issued or renewed only upon compliance with this section.

(C) In the event that a license or application for a license or the renewal of a license is denied pursuant to this section, any funds paid by the applicant or licensee shall not be refunded by the board.

(3) (A) The State Department of Social Services may, when it is economically feasible for the department and the boards to do so as determined by the department, in cases where the department is aware that certain child support obligors listed on the certified lists have been out of compliance with a judgment or order for support for more than four months, provide a supplemental list of these obligors to each board with which the department has an interagency agreement to implement this paragraph. Upon request by the department, the licenses of these obligors shall be subject to suspension, provided that the licenses would not otherwise be eligible for renewal within six months from the date of the request by the department. The board shall have the authority to suspend the license of any licensee on this supplemental list.

(B) If a licensee is on a supplemental list, the board shall immediately serve notice as specified in subdivision (f) on the licensee that his or her license will be automatically suspended 150 days after notice is served, unless compliance with this section is achieved. The notice shall be made personally or by mail to the licensee's last known mailing address on file with the board. Service by mail shall be complete in accordance with Section 1013 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(C) The 150-day notice period shall not be extended.

(D) In the event that any license is suspended pursuant to this section, any funds paid by the licensee shall not be refunded by the board.

(E) This paragraph shall not apply to licenses subject to annual renewal or annual fee.

(f) Notices shall be developed by each board in accordance with guidelines provided by the State Department of Social Services and subject to approval by the State Department of Social Services. The notice shall include the address and telephone number of the district attorney who submitted the name on the certified list, and shall emphasize the necessity of obtaining a release from that district attorney's office as a condition for the issuance, renewal, or continued valid status of a license or licenses.

(1) In the case of applicants not subject to paragraph (3) of subdivision (e), the notice shall inform the applicant that the board shall issue a temporary license, as provided in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (e), for 150 calendar days if the applicant is otherwise eligible and that upon expiration of that time period the license will be denied unless the board has received a release from the district attorney who submitted the name on the certified list.

(2) In the case of licensees named on a supplemental list, the notice shall inform the licensee that his or her license will continue in its existing status for no more than 150 calendar days from the date of mailing or service of the notice and thereafter will be suspended indefinitely unless, during the 150-day notice period, the board has received a release from the district attorney who submitted the name on the certified list. Additionally, the notice shall inform the licensee that any license suspended under this section will remain so until the expiration of the remaining license term, unless the board receives a release along with applications and fees, if applicable, to reinstate the license during the license term.

(3) The notice shall also inform the applicant that if an application is denied or a license is suspended pursuant to this section, any funds paid by the applicant or licensee shall not be refunded by the board. The State Department of Social Services shall also develop a form that the applicant shall use to request a review by the district attorney. A copy of this form shall be included with every notice sent pursuant to this subdivision.

(g) Each district attorney shall maintain review procedures consistent with this section to allow an applicant to have the underlying arrearage and any relevant defenses investigated, to provide an applicant information on the process of obtaining a modification of a support order, or to provide an applicant assistance in the establishment of a payment schedule on arrearages if the circumstances so warrant.

(h) If the applicant wishes to challenge the submission of his or her name on the certified list, the applicant shall make a timely written request for review on the form specified in subdivision (f) to the district attorney who certified the applicant's name. The district attorney shall, within 75 days of receipt of the written request, inform the applicant in writing of his or her findings upon completion of the review. The district attorney shall immediately send a release to the appropriate board and the applicant, if any of the following conditions are met:

(1) The applicant is found to be in compliance or negotiates an agreement with the district attorney for a payment schedule on arrearages or reimbursement.

(2) The applicant has submitted a request for review, but the district attorney will be unable to complete the review and send notice of his or her findings to the applicant within 75 days. This paragraph applies only if the delay in completing the review process is not the result of the applicant's failure to act in a reasonable, timely, and diligent manner upon receiving notice from the board that his or her name is on the list.

(3) The applicant has filed and served a request for judicial review pursuant to this section, but a resolution of that review will not be made within 150 days of the date of service of notice pursuant to subdivision (f). This paragraph applies only if the delay in completing the judicial review process is not the result of the applicant's failure to act in a reasonable, timely, and diligent manner upon receiving the district attorney's notice of his or her findings.

(4) The applicant has obtained a judicial finding of compliance as defined in this section.

(i) An applicant is required to act with diligence in responding to notices from the board and the district attorney with the recognition that the temporary license will lapse or the license suspension will go into effect after 150 days and that the district attorney and, where appropriate, the court must have time to act within that period. An applicant's delay in acting, without good cause, which directly results in the inability of the district attorney to complete a review of the applicant's request or the court to hear the request for judicial review within the 150-day period shall not constitute the diligence required under this section which would justify the issuance of a release.

(j) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the district attorney shall not issue a release if the applicant is not in compliance with the judgment or order for support. The district attorney shall notify the applicant in writing that the applicant may, by filing an order to show cause or notice of motion, request any or all of the following:

(1) Judicial review of the district attorney's decision not to issue a release.

(2) A judicial determination of compliance.

(3) A modification of the support judgment or order.

The notice shall also contain the name and address of the court in which the applicant shall file the order to show cause or notice of motion and inform the applicant that his or her name shall remain on the certified list if the applicant does not timely request judicial review. The applicant shall comply with all statutes and rules of court regarding orders to show cause and notices of motion.

Nothing in this section shall be deemed to limit an applicant from filing an order to show cause or notice of motion to modify a support judgment or order or to fix a payment schedule on arrearages accruing under a support judgment or order or to obtain a court finding of compliance with a judgment or order for support.

(k) The request for judicial review of the district attorney's decision shall state the grounds for which review is requested and judicial review shall be limited to those stated grounds. The court shall hold an evidentiary hearing within 20 calendar days of the filing of the request for review. Judicial review of the district attorney's decision shall be limited to a determination of each of the following issues:

(1) Whether there is a support judgment, order, or payment schedule on arrearages or reimbursement.

(2) Whether the petitioner is the obligor covered by the support judgment or order.

(3) Whether the support obligor is or is not in compliance with judgment or order of support.

(4) The extent to which the needs of the obligor, taking into account the obligor's payment history and the current circumstances of both the obligor and the obligee, warrant a conditional release as described in this subdivision.

The request for judicial review shall be served by the applicant upon the district attorney who submitted the applicant's name on the certified list within seven calendar days of the filing of the petition. The court has the authority to uphold the action, unconditionally release the license, or conditionally release the license.

If the judicial review results in a finding by the court that the obligor is in compliance with the judgment or order for support, the district attorney shall immediately send a release in accordance with subdivision (h) to the appropriate board and the applicant. If the judicial review results in a finding by the court that the needs of the obligor warrant a conditional release, the court shall make findings of fact stating the basis for the release and the payment necessary to satisfy the unrestricted issuance or renewal of the license without prejudice to a later judicial determination of the amount of support arrearages, including interest, and shall specify payment terms, compliance with which are necessary to allow the release to remain in effect.

(l) The State Department of Social Services shall prescribe release forms for use by district attorneys. When the obligor is in compliance, the district attorney shall mail to the applicant and the appropriate board a release stating that the applicant is in compliance. The receipt of a release shall serve to notify the applicant and the board that, for the purposes of this section, the applicant is in compliance with the judgment or order for support.

If the district attorney determines subsequent to the issuance of a release that the applicant is once again not in compliance with a judgment or order for support, or with the terms of repayment as described in this subdivision, the district attorney may notify the board, the obligor, and the State Department of Social Services in a format prescribed by the State Department of Social Services that the obligor is not in compliance.

The State Department of Social Services may, when it is economically feasible for the department and the boards to develop an automated process for complying with this subdivision, notify the boards in a manner prescribed by the department, that the obligor is once again not in compliance. Upon receipt of this notice, the board shall immediately notify the obligor on a form prescribed by the department that the obligor's license will be suspended on a specific date, and this date shall be no longer than 30 days from the date the form is mailed. The obligor shall be further notified that the license will remain suspended until such time a new release is issued in accordance with subdivision (h). Nothing in this section shall be deemed to limit the obligor from seeking judicial review of suspension pursuant to the procedures described in this subdivision.

(m) The State Department of Social Services may enter into interagency agreements with the state agencies that have responsibility for the administration of boards necessary to implement this section, to the extent that it is cost-effective to implement this section. These agreements shall provide for the receipt by the other state agencies and boards of federal funds to cover that portion of costs allowable in federal law and regulation and incurred by the state agencies and boards in implementing this section. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, revenue generated by a board or state agency shall be used to fund the nonfederal share of costs incurred pursuant to this section. These agreements shall provide that boards shall reimburse the State Department of Social Services for the nonfederal share of costs incurred by the department in implementing this section. The boards shall reimburse the State Department of Social Services for the nonfederal share of costs incurred pursuant to this section from moneys collected from applicants.

(n) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in order for the boards subject to this section to be reimbursed for the costs incurred in administering its provisions, the boards may, with the approval of the appropriate department director, levy on all licensees and applicants a surcharge on any fee or fees collected pursuant to law, or, alternatively, with the approval of the appropriate department director, levy on the applicants or licensees named on a certified list or supplemental list, a special fee.

(o) The process described in subdivision (h) shall constitute the sole administrative remedy for contesting the issuance of a temporary license or the denial or suspension of a license under this section. The procedures specified in the Administrative Procedure Act (Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code) shall not apply to the denial, suspension, or failure to issue or renew a license or the issuance of a temporary license pursuant to this section.

(p) In furtherance of the public policy of increasing child support enforcement and collections, on or before November 1, 1995, the State Department of Social Services shall make a report to the Legislature and the Governor based on data collected by the boards and the district attorneys in a format prescribed by the State Department of Social Services. The report shall contain all of the following:

(1) The number of delinquent obligors certified by district attorneys under this section.

(2) The number of support obligors who also were applicants or licensees subject to this section.

(3) The number of new licenses and renewals that were delayed, temporary licenses issued, and licenses suspended subject to this section and the number of new licenses and renewals granted and licenses reinstated following board receipt of releases as provided by subdivision (h) by May 1, 1995.

(4) The costs incurred in the implementation and enforcement of this section.

(q) Any board receiving an inquiry as to the licensed status of an applicant who has had a license denied or suspended under this section or has been granted a temporary license under this section shall respond only that the license was denied or suspended or the temporary license was issued pursuant to this section. Information collected pursuant to this section shall be subject to the Information Practices Act (Section 1798.76 of the Civil Code).

(r) Any rules and regulations issued pursuant to this section may be adopted as emergency regulations in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code). The adoption of these regulations shall be deemed an emergency and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, or general welfare. The regulations shall become effective immediately upon filing with the Secretary of State.

(s) The State Department of Social Services and boards, as appropriate, shall adopt regulations necessary to implement this section.

(t) The Judicial Council shall develop the forms necessary to implement this section, except as provided in subdivisions (f) and (l).

(u) The release or other use of information received by a board pursuant to this section, except as authorized by this section, is punishable as a misdemeanor.

(v) If any provision of this section or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this section which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this section are severable.

(w) All rights to administrative and judicial review afforded by this section to an applicant shall also be afforded to a licensee.

SEC. 4. Section 11475.3 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

11475.3. A district attorney who is collecting child support payments on behalf of a child and who is unable to deliver the payments to the obligee because the district attorney is unable to locate the obligee shall make all reasonable efforts to locate the obligee for a period of six months. If the district attorney is unable to locate the obligee within the six-month period, he or she shall return the undeliverable payments to the obligor, with written notice advising the obligor that (a) the return of the funds does not relieve the obligor of the support order, and (b) the obligor should consider placing the funds aside for purposes of child support in case the obligee appears and seeks collection of the undistributed amounts. No interest shall accrue on any past due child support amount for which the obligor made payment to the district attorney for six consecutive months, or on any amounts due thereafter until the obligee is located, provided that the district attorney returned the funds to the obligor because the district attorney was unable to locate the obligee and, when the obligee was located, the obligor made full payment for all past due child support amounts.

SEC. 5. Sections 1 and 3.6 of this act shall become operative on January 1, 1996.

SEC. 6. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 907

An act to add Section 261.7 to the Penal Code, relating to sex offenses.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 261.7 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

261.7. In prosecutions under Section 261, 286, 288a, or 289, in which consent is at issue, evidence that the victim suggested, requested, or otherwise communicated to the defendant that the defendant use a condom or other birth control device, without additional evidence of consent, is not sufficient to constitute consent.

CHAPTER 908

An act to amend and repeal Sections 1601, 1616.5, 1742, 2001, 2020, 2460, 2531, 2602, 2607.5, 2701, 2708, 2841, 2847, 2920, 2933, 3010, 3014.5, 3320, 3504, 3710, 3716, 3910, 3915, 4000, 4004.5, 4501, 4503, 4800, 4804.5, 4928, 4934, 4990.1, 4990.8, 5000, 5015.6, 5510, 5517, 5620, 5624, 6710, 6714, 7000.5, 7011, 7200, 7302, 7310, 7601, 7607.5, 7801, 7815.5, 8000, 8005, 8520, 8528, 8710, and 9625 of, to add Sections 101.1 and 5810 to, to add Article 4 (commencing with Section 2569) to Chapter 5.5 of, and Article 7 (commencing with Section 4989) to Chapter 13 of Division 2 of, and Article 17 (commencing with Section 18890) to Chapter 2 of Division 8 of, and to add Division 1.2 (commencing with Section 473) to, the Business and Professions Code, and to amend Sections 9148, 9148.4, and 9148.10 of, and to amend the heading of Article 8 (commencing with Section 9148) of Chapter 1.5 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 2 of, the Government Code, relating to licensed professionals, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares the following:

(a) California's multilevel, complex governmental structure today contains more than 50 categories of licensed professionals.

(b) These categories of licensed professionals include licensees, who practice with a varying degree of training, qualifications, and supervision.

(c) These categories of licensed professionals have been established without any method of periodically reviewing their necessity, effectiveness, or utility.

(d) As a result, the Legislature and residents of California cannot be assured that existing or proposed professional or occupational licensing and regulation adequately protects the public health, safety, and welfare.

SEC. 2. Section 101.1 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

101.1. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature that all existing and proposed consumer-related boards or categories of licensed professionals be subject to a review every four years to evaluate and determine whether each board has demonstrated a public need for the continued existence of that board in accordance with enumerated factors and standards as set forth in Division 1.2 (commencing with Section 473).

(b) (1) In the event that any board, as defined in Section 477, becomes inoperative and is repealed in accordance with the act that added this section, the Department of Consumer Affairs shall succeed to and is vested with all the duties, powers, purposes, responsibilities and jurisdiction of that board and its executive officer.

(2) Any provision of existing law that provides for the appointment of board members and specifies the qualifications and tenure of board members shall not be implemented and shall have no force or effect while that board is inoperative or repealed. Every reference to the inoperative or repealed board, as defined in Section 477, shall be deemed to be a reference to the department.

(3) Notwithstanding Section 107, any provision of law authorizing the appointment of an executive officer by a board subject to the review described in Division 1.2 (commencing with Section 473), or prescribing his or her duties, shall not be implemented and shall have no force or effect while the applicable board is inoperative or repealed. Any reference to the executive officer of an inoperative or repealed board shall be deemed to be a reference to the director or his or her designee.

(c) It is the intent of the Legislature that subsequent legislation to extend or repeal the inoperative date for any board shall be a separate bill for that purpose.

SEC. 5. Division 1.2 (commencing with Section 473) is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

DIVISION 1.2. LEGISLATIVE SUNSET REVIEW COMMITTEE

473. (a) There is hereby established the Joint Legislative Sunset Review Committee.

(b) The Joint Legislative Sunset Review Committee shall consist of three members appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules and three members appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly. No more than two of the three members appointed from either the Senate or the Assembly shall be from the same party. The Joint Rules Committee shall annually appoint the chairperson of the committee. The chairperson of this committee may not sit as the chairperson of either standing committee.

(c) The Joint Legislative Sunset Review Committee shall have and exercise all of the rights, duties, and powers conferred upon investigating committees and their members by the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly as they are adopted and amended from time to time, which provisions are incorporated herein and made applicable to this committee and its members.

(d) The Speaker of the Assembly and the Senate Committee on Rules may designate staff for the Joint Legislative Sunset Review Committee.

(e) The Joint Legislative Sunset Review Committee is authorized to act until January 1, 2004, at which time the committee's existence shall terminate.

473.1. This division shall apply to every board, as defined in Section 22, that is scheduled to become inoperative on July 1, 1997, July 1, 1998, or July 1, 1999, and to be repealed on either January 1, 1998, January 1, 1999, or January 1, 2000, respectively, by the act which enacted this division.

473.2. All boards to which this division applies shall, with the assistance of the Department of Consumer Affairs, prepare an analysis and submit a report to the Joint Legislative Sunset Review Committee no later than one year plus 90 days prior to the January 1st of the year during which that board shall become inoperative. The analysis and report shall include, at a minimum, all of the following:

(a) A comprehensive statement of the board's mission, goals, objectives and legal jurisdiction in protecting the health, safety, and welfare of the public.

(b) The board's enforcement priorities, complaint and enforcement data, budget expenditures with average- and median-costs per case, and case aging data specific to post and preaccusation cases at the Attorney General's office.

(c) The board's fund conditions, sources of revenues, and expenditure categories for the last four fiscal years by program component.

(d) The board's description of its licensing process including the time and costs required to implement and administer its licensing examination, ownership of the license examination, relevancy and validity of the licensing examination, and passage rate and areas of examination.

(e) The board's initiation of legislative efforts, budget change proposals, and other initiatives it has taken to improve its legislative mandate.

473.3. Prior to the termination, continuation, or reestablishment of any board or any of the board's functions, the Joint Legislative Sunset Review Committee shall, during the interim recess preceding the date upon which a board becomes inoperative, hold public hearings to receive testimony from the Director of Consumer Affairs, the board involved, and the public and regulated industry. In that hearing, each board shall have the burden of demonstrating a compelling public need for the continued existence of the board or regulatory program, and that its licensing function is the least restrictive regulation consistent with the public health, safety, and welfare.

473.4. (a) The Joint Legislative Sunset Review Committee shall evaluate and determine whether a board or regulatory program has demonstrated a public need for the continued existence of the board or regulatory program and for the degree of regulation the board or regulatory program implements based on the following factors and minimum standards of performance:

(1) Whether regulation by the board is necessary to protect the public health, safety, and welfare.

(2) Whether the basis or facts that necessitated the initial licensing or regulation of a practice or profession have changed.

(3) Whether other conditions have arisen that would warrant increased, decreased, or the same degree of regulation.

(4) If regulation of the profession or practice is necessary, whether existing statutes and regulations establish the least restrictive form of regulation consistent with the public interest, considering other available regulatory mechanisms, and whether the board rules enhance the public interest and are within the scope of legislative intent.

(5) Whether the board operates and enforces its regulatory responsibilities in the public interest and whether its regulatory mission is impeded or enhanced by existing statutes, regulations, policies, practices, or any other circumstances, including budgetary, resource, and personnel matters.

(6) Whether an analysis of board operations indicates that the board performs its statutory duties efficiently and effectively.

(7) Whether the composition of the board adequately represents the public interest and whether the board encourages public participation in its decisions rather than participation only by the industry and individuals it regulates.

(8) Whether the board and its laws or regulations stimulate or restrict competition, and the extent of the economic impact the board's regulatory practices have on the state's business and technological growth.

(9) Whether complaint, investigation, powers to intervene, and disciplinary procedures adequately protect the public and whether final dispositions of complaints, investigations, restraining orders, and disciplinary actions are in the public interest; or if it is, instead, self-serving to the profession, industry or individuals being regulated by the board.

(10) Whether the scope of practice of the regulated profession or occupation contributes to the highest utilization of personnel and whether entry requirements encourage affirmative action.

(11) Whether administrative and statutory changes are necessary to improve board operations to enhance the public interest.

(b) The Joint Legislative Sunset Review Committee shall consider alternatives to placing responsibilities and jurisdiction of the board under the Department of Consumer Affairs.

(c) Nothing in this section precludes any board from submitting other appropriate information to the Joint Legislative Sunset Review Committee.

473.5. The Joint Legislative Sunset Review Committee shall report its findings and recommendations to the department for its review, and, within 60 days of receiving the report, the department shall report its findings and recommendations, which shall incorporate the findings and recommendations of the Joint Legislative Sunset Review Committee, to the Legislature during the next year of the regular session that follows the hearings described in Section 473.3. The report shall include whether each board or function scheduled for repeal shall be terminated, continued, or reestablished, and whether its functions should be revised. If the committee or the department deems it advisable, the report may include proposed bills to carry out its recommendations.

SEC. 6. Section 1601 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

1601. There is in the Department of Consumer Affairs a Board of Dental Examiners of California in which the administration of this chapter is vested. The board consists of eight practicing dentists, one registered dental hygienist, one registered dental assistant, and four public members. The board shall be organized into standing committees dealing with examinations, enforcement, auxiliary matters, and other subjects as the board deems appropriate.

This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1998, and, as of January 1, 1999, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 1616.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

1616.5. The board may appoint a person exempt from civil service who shall be designated as an executive officer and who shall exercise the powers and perform the duties delegated by the board and vested in him or her by this chapter.

This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1998, and, as of January 1, 1999, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 7.5. Section 1742 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

1742. There is within the jurisdiction of the board a Committee on Dental Auxiliaries.

This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1998, and, as of January 1, 1999, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 8. Section 2001 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2001. There is in the Department of Consumer Affairs a Medical Board of California which consists of 19 members, seven of whom shall be public members.

The Governor shall appoint 17 members to the board, subject to confirmation by the Senate, five of whom shall be public members. The Senate Rules Committee and the Speaker of the Assembly shall each appoint a public member, and their initial appointment shall be made to fill, respectively, the first and second public member vacancies which occur on or after January 1, 1983.

This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1999, and, as of January 1, 2000, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 2000, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 9. Section 2020 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2020. The board may employ an executive director exempt from the provisions of the Civil Service Act and may also employ investigators, legal counsel, medical consultants, and other assistance as it may deem necessary to carry into effect this chapter. The board may fix the compensation to be paid for services subject to the provisions of applicable state laws and regulations and may incur other expenses as it may deem necessary. Investigators employed by the board shall be provided special training in investigating medical practice activities.

The Attorney General shall act as legal counsel for the board for any judicial and administrative proceedings and his or her services shall be a charge against it.

This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1999, and, as of January 1, 2000, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 2000, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 10. Section 2460 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2460. There is created within the jurisdiction of the Division of Allied Health Professions of the Medical Board of California the California Board of Podiatric Medicine.

This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1999, and, as of January 1, 2000, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 2000, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 11. Section 2531 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2531. There is hereby created a Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology Examining Committee under the jurisdiction of the Division of Allied Health Professions of the Medical Board of California. The committee shall consist of nine members, three of whom shall be public members.

This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1999, and, as of January 1, 2000, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 2000, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 12. Article 4 (commencing with Section 2569) is added to Chapter 5.5 of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code, to read:

Article 4. Review

2569. The powers and duties of the board, as set forth in this chapter, shall be subject to the review required by Division 1.2 (commencing with Section 473). The first review shall be performed as if this chapter were scheduled to become inoperative on July 1, 1997, and would be repealed as of January 1, 1998, as described in Section 473.1.

SEC. 13. Section 2602 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2602. There is hereby created within the jurisdiction of the Medical Board of California, a Physical Therapy Examining Committee of California, hereinafter referred to as the committee. The committee shall enforce and administer this chapter.

This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1999, and, as of January 1, 2000, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 2000, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 14. Section 2607.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2607.5. The committee may appoint a person exempt from civil service who shall be designated as an executive officer and who shall exercise the powers and perform the duties delegated by the committee and vested in him or her by this chapter.

This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1999, and, as of January 1, 2000, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 2000, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 15. Section 2701 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2701. The California Board of Nursing Education and Nurse Registration, consisting of nine members, is continued in existence in the Department of Consumer Affairs as the Board of Registered Nursing.

Within the meaning of this chapter, board, or the board, refers to the Board of Registered Nursing. Any reference in state law to the Board of Nurse Examiners of the State of California or California Board of Nursing Education and Nurse Registration shall be construed to refer to the Board of Registered Nursing.

This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1998, and, as of January 1, 1999, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 16. Section 2708 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2708. The board shall appoint an executive officer who shall perform the duties delegated by the board and who shall be responsible to it for the accomplishment of those duties.

The executive officer shall be a nurse currently licensed under this chapter and shall possess other qualifications as determined by the board.

The executive officer shall not be a member of the board.

This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1998, and, as of January 1, 1999, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 17. Section 2841 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2841. There is in the Department of Consumer Affairs a Board of Vocational Nurse and Psychiatric Technician Examiners of the State of California, consisting of 11 members.

Within the meaning of this chapter, board, or the board, refers to the Board of Vocational Nurse and Psychiatric Technician Examiners of the State of California.

This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1998, and, as of January 1, 1999, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 18. Section 2847 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2847. The board shall select an executive officer who shall perform such duties as are delegated by the board and who shall be responsible to it for the accomplishment of such duties.

The person selected to be the executive officer of the board shall be a duly licensed vocational nurse under the provisions of this chapter or a duly licensed professional nurse as defined in Section 2725 or a duly licensed psychiatric technician. The executive officer shall not be a member of the board.

With the approval of the Director of Finance, the board shall fix the salary of the executive officer.

The executive officer shall be entitled to traveling and other necessary expenses in the performance of his or her duties. He or she shall make a statement, certified before some duly authorized person, that the expenses have been actually incurred.

This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1998, and, as of January 1, 1999, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 19. Section 2920 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2920. The Board of Psychology of the Medical Board of California of the Department of Consumer Affairs shall administer this chapter. The board shall consist of eight members, three of whom shall be public members.

This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1999, and, as of January 1, 2000, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 2000, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 20. Section 2933 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2933. Except as provided by Section 159.5, the division shall employ and shall make available to the board within the limits of the funds received by the division all personnel necessary to carry out this chapter. The board may employ, exempt from the State Civil Service Act, an executive officer to the Board of Psychology. The division shall make all expenditures to carry out this chapter. The division may accept contributions to effectuate the purposes of this chapter.

This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1999, and, as of January 1, 2000, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 2000, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 21. Section 3010 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

3010. There is in the Department of Consumer Affairs a State Board of Optometry in which the enforcement of this chapter is vested. The board consists of nine members, three of whom shall be public members.

Six members of the board shall constitute a quorum.

This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1999, and, as of January 1, 2000, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 2000, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 22. Section 3014.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

3014.5. The board may appoint a person exempt from civil service who shall be designated as an executive officer and who shall exercise the powers and perform the duties delegated by the board and vested in him or her by this chapter.

This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1999, and, as of January 1, 2000, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 2000, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 23. Section 3320 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

3320. There is within the jurisdiction of the board a Hearing Aid Dispensers Examining Committee. The committee shall consist of seven members. Four members shall be public members, one of whom shall be a licensed physician and surgeon specializing in treatment of the diseases of the ear and certified by the American Board of Otolaryngology, and another public member shall be an audiologist licensed under Chapter 5.3 (commencing with Section 2530). Each public member shall be a citizen of the United States, a resident of the State of California, and of good moral character. The remaining three members shall be, and shall have been for at least five years immediately preceding their appointment, engaged exclusively in this state in the practice of fitting or selling hearing aids to persons with impaired hearing. All hearing aid dispenser members shall be persons who hold permanent and valid licenses under this chapter.

The director or his or her deputy shall be entitled to attend all meetings of the committee, except that neither shall have the power to vote nor shall be counted for quorum purposes.

This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1999, and, as of January 1, 2000, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 2000, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 24. Section 3504 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

3504. There is established a Physician Assistant Examining Committee of the Medical Board of California. The committee consists of nine members.

7200. There is in the Department of Consumer Affairs a State Board of Guide Dogs for the Blind in whom enforcement of this chapter is vested. The board shall consist of seven members appointed by the Governor. One member shall be the Director of Rehabilitation or his or her designated representative. The remaining members shall be persons who have shown a particular interest in dealing with the problems of the blind, and at least two of them shall be blind persons who use guide dogs.

This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1997, and, as of January 1, 1998, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1998, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 51. Section 7302 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7302. There is in the Department of Consumer Affairs a State Board of Barbering and Cosmetology which consists of nine members. The members of the board shall consist of five public members and four members representing the professions.

Wherever in this chapter "board" is used it refers to the State Board of Barbering and Cosmetology.

This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1997, and, as of January 1, 1998, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1998, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 52. Section 7310 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7310. (a) The board shall appoint an executive officer exempt from civil service, who shall not be a board member, who shall exercise the powers and perform the duties delegated by the board and vested in that person by this chapter.

(b) The board shall also have the authority to employ a deputy executive officer.

(c) The board's appointment of an executive officer shall be subject to confirmation by the Director of Consumer Affairs. The director may reject the board's appointment of its executive officer, or may recommend dismissal of the executive officer to the board, provided that the rejection or recommendation for dismissal be for good cause specifically stated to the board in writing.

(d) The executive officer shall employ examiners, inspectors and all other personnel as necessary to carry out this chapter. Their compensation, and all expenses incurred by the board, shall be paid exclusively from the special funds received by the board.

(e) The board shall employ through its executive officer sufficient inspectors to ensure that the health and safety of consumers is met.

(f) The board shall prescribe through its executive officer the qualifications and duties of its employees in accordance with established civil service guidelines and collective bargaining agreements.

(g) This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1997, and, as of January 1, 1998, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1998, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

8520. There is in the Department of Consumer Affairs a Structural Pest Control Board, which consists of seven members.

Subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the director by Division 1 (commencing with Section 100) of this code, the board is vested with the power to and shall administer the provisions of this chapter.

This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1998, and, as of January 1, 1999, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 60. Section 8528 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8528. With the approval of the director, the board shall appoint a registrar, fix his or her compensation and prescribe his or her duties.

The registrar is the executive officer and secretary of the board.

This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1998, and, as of January 1, 1999, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 61. Section 8710 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8710. The State Board of Registration for Professional Engineers and Land Surveyors is vested with power to administer the provisions and requirements of this chapter, and may make and enforce rules and regulations which are reasonably necessary to carry out its provisions.

This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1998, and, as of January 1, 1999, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 62. Section 9625 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9625. There is in the department a Cemetery Board which consists of six members, including four members representing the public at large.

Each appointment shall be for a four-year term expiring June 1 of the fourth year following the year in which the previous term expired.

The Governor shall appoint two of the public members and the two members qualified as provided in Section 9626 with confirmation of the Senate. The Senate Rules Committee and the Speaker of the Assembly shall each appoint a public member, and their initial appointment shall be made to fill, respectively, the first and second public member vacancies which occur on or after January 1, 1983.

This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1997, and, as of January 1, 1998, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1998, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 63. Article 17 (commencing with Section 18890) is added to Chapter 2 of Division 8 of the Business and Professions Code, to read:

Article 17. Review

18890. This chapter shall be subject to the review required by Division 1.2 (commencing with Section 473). The first review shall be performed as if this chapter, establishing the Athletic Commission, were scheduled to become inoperative on July 1, 1997, and would be repealed as of January 1, 1998, as described in Section 473.1.

SEC. 64. The heading of Article 8 (commencing with Section 9148) of Chapter 1.5 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

Article 8. Legislative Oversight of State Board Formation and Licensed Professional Practice

SEC. 65. Section 9148 of the Government Code is amended to read:

9148. Any state board proposed for creation by the Legislature on or after January 1, 1991, or any category of licensed professional proposed for creation by the Legislature on or after January 1, 1995, shall be subject to this article.

SEC. 66. Section 9148.4 of the Government Code is amended to read:

9148.4. Prior to consideration by the Legislature of legislation creating a new state board or legislation creating a new category of licensed professional, a plan for the establishment and operation of the proposed state board or new category of licensed professional shall be developed by the author or sponsor of the legislation. The plan shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(a) A description of the problem that the creation of the specific state board or new category of licensed professional would address, including the specific evidence of need for the state to address the problem.

(b) The reasons why this proposed state board or new category of licensed professional was selected to address this problem, including the full range of alternatives considered and the reason why each of these alternatives was not selected. Alternatives that shall be considered include, but are not limited to, the following:

(1) No action taken to establish a state board or create a new category of licensed professional.

(2) The use of a current state board or agency or the existence of a current category of licensed professional to address the problem, including any necessary changes to the mandate or composition of the existing state board or agency or current category of licensed professional.

(3) The various levels of regulation or administration available to address the problem.

(4) Addressing the problem by federal or local agencies.

(c) The specific public benefit or harm that would result from the establishment of the proposed state board or new category of licensed professional, the specific manner in which the proposed state board or new category of licensed professional would achieve this benefit, and the specific standards of performance which shall be used in reviewing the subsequent operation of the board or category of licensed professional.

(d) The specific source or sources of revenue and funding to be utilized by the proposed state board or new category of licensed professional in achieving its mandate.

(e) The necessary data and other information required in this section shall be provided to the Legislature with the initial legislation and forwarded to the policy committees in which the bill will be heard.

SEC. 67. Section 9148.10 of the Government Code is amended to read:

9148.10. Any state board or category of licensed professional under this article shall be subject to the following:

(a) The Joint Legislative Budget Committee shall establish criteria and review processes for the operational review of each state board or category of licensed professional. The criteria and review processes shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) An assessment of whether the initial problem or condition which led to establishment of the state board or category of licensed professional being reviewed still exists to such a degree as to require the continued existence of that agency or category of licensed professional.

(2) An assessment of other similar conditions which have arisen and the manner in which they have been addressed.

(3) An assessment of the agency's or licensing category's current and original scope of authority and functions, and the justification for any change.

(4) A full cost-benefit analysis of the state board's or licensing category's operation on a year-by-year basis since its establishment or prior review under this article.

(b) The committee shall identify all state boards or categories of licensed professionals subject to review under this article and establish a schedule for review of these state boards or categories of licensed professionals. In no case shall any state board or category of licensed professional be allowed to operate for more than eight years after the initial date of its enactment without being subject to review under this article.

SEC. 68. Section 33.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 4800 of the Business and Professions Code proposed by both this bill and SB 1821. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 4800 of the Business and Professions Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 1821, in which case Section 33 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 909

An act to amend Section 1714.1 of the Civil Code, to amend Section 53069.3 of the Government Code, to amend Sections 594, 594.4, 594.6, 594.7, 640.5, and 640.6 of the Penal Code, to amend Section 13202.6 of the Vehicle Code, and to add Article 18.5 (commencing with Section 742.10) to Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of, and to repeal Section 728 of, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to minors.

[Approved by Governor September 27, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 28, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1714.1 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1714.1. (a) Any act of willful misconduct of a minor which results in injury or death to another person or in any injury to the property of another shall be imputed to the parent or guardian having custody and control of the minor for all purposes of civil damages, and the parent or guardian having custody and control shall be jointly and severally liable with the minor for any damages resulting from the willful misconduct.

Subject to the provisions of subdivision (c), the joint and several liability of the parent or guardian having custody and control of a minor under this subdivision shall not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) for each tort of the minor, and in the case of injury to a person, imputed liability shall be further limited to medical, dental and hospital expenses incurred by the injured person, not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000). The liability imposed by this section is in addition to any liability now imposed by law.

(b) Any act of willful misconduct of a minor which results in the defacement of property of another with paint or a similar substance shall be imputed to the parent or guardian having custody and control of the minor for all purposes of civil damages, including court costs, and attorney's fees, to the prevailing party, and the parent or guardian having custody and control shall be jointly and severally liable with the minor for any damages resulting from the willful misconduct, not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), except as provided in subdivision (c), for each tort of the minor.

(c) The amounts listed in subdivisions (a) and (b) shall be adjusted every two years by the Judicial Council to reflect any increases in the cost of living in California, as indicated by the annual average of the California Consumer Price Index. The Judicial Council shall round this adjusted amount up or down to the nearest hundred dollars. On or before January 1, 1997, and on or before January 1 of each odd-numbered year thereafter, the Judicial Council shall compute and publish the amounts listed in subdivisions (a) and (b), as adjusted according to this subdivision.

(d) The maximum liability imposed by this section is the maximum liability authorized under this section at the time that the act of willful misconduct by a minor was committed.

(e) Nothing in this section shall impose liability on an insurer for a loss caused by the willful act of the insured for purposes of Section 533 of the Insurance Code. An insurer shall not be liable for the conduct imputed to a parent or guardian by this section for any amount in excess of ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

SEC. 2. Section 53069.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53069.3. A city, county, or city and county may enact an ordinance to provide for the use of city or county funds to remove graffiti or other inscribed material from public or privately owned property within that city, county, or city and county and to replace or repair public or privately owned property within that city, county, or city and county that has been defaced with graffiti or other inscribed material that cannot be removed cost effectively.

That ordinance shall authorize only the removal of the graffiti or other inscribed material itself, or, if the graffiti or other inscribed material cannot be removed cost-effectively, the repair or replacement of the portion of the property that was defaced, and not the painting, repair, or replacement of other parts of the property that were not defaced.

The removal, repair, or replacement may be performed only after a finding by the city, county, or city and county that the graffiti or other inscribed material is obnoxious, and, in the case of publicly owned property, only after securing the consent of the public entity having jurisdiction over the property, and in the case of privately owned property, only after securing the consent of the owner or possessor.

The law enforcement agency with primary jurisdiction in a city, county, or city and county which enacts an ordinance pursuant to this section may promulgate procedures for preremoval preservation of sufficient evidence of the graffiti or other inscribed material for criminal prosecutions or proceedings pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code pertaining to the person or persons who inscribed the graffiti or other material. These procedures shall be followed by the city, county, or city and county prior to or during removal of graffiti or other inscribed material.

As used in this section, "graffiti or other inscribed material" includes any unauthorized inscription, word, figure, mark, or design that is written, marked, etched, scratched, drawn, or painted on any real or personal property.

This section does not preclude the abatement of graffiti or other inscribed material as a nuisance pursuant to Section 25845 or 38773.5, or the enactment or enforcement of any criminal law with respect to nuisance.

SEC. 3. Section 594 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

594. (a) Every person who maliciously commits any of the following acts with respect to any real or personal property not his or her own, in cases other than those specified by state law, is guilty of vandalism:

(1) Defaces with graffiti or other inscribed material.

(2) Damages.

(3) Destroys.

Whenever a person violates paragraph (1) with respect to real property belonging to any public entity, as defined by Section 811.2 of the Government Code, or real property belonging to the federal government, it shall be a permissive inference that the person neither owned the property nor had the permission of the owner to deface, damage, or destroy the property.

(b) (1) If the amount of defacement, damage, or destruction is fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) or more, vandalism is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison or in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine of not more than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), or by both that fine and imprisonment.

(2) If the amount of defacement, damage, or destruction is five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more but less than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), vandalism is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, or in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or by both that fine and imprisonment.

(3) If the amount of defacement, damage, or destruction is four hundred dollars ($400) or more but less than five thousand dollars ($5,000), vandalism is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine of five thousand dollars ($5,000), or by both that fine and imprisonment.

(4) If the amount of defacement, damage, or destruction is less than four hundred dollars ($400), vandalism is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than six months, or by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that fine and imprisonment.

(c) Upon conviction of any person under this section for acts of vandalism consisting of defacing property with graffiti or other inscribed materials, the court may, in addition to any punishment imposed under subdivision (b), at the victim's option, order the defendant to clean up, repair, or replace the damaged property himself or herself, or to pay for someone else to do so.

(d) If a minor is personally unable to pay a fine levied for acts prohibited by this section, the parent of that minor shall be liable for payment of the fine. A court may waive payment of the fine or any part thereof by the parent upon a finding of good cause.

(e) As used in this section, the term "graffiti or other inscribed material" includes any unauthorized inscription, word, figure, mark, or design that is written, marked, etched, scratched, drawn, or painted on real or personal property.

SEC. 4. Section 594.4 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

594.4. (a) Any person who willfully and maliciously injects into or throws upon, or otherwise defaces, damages, destroys, or contaminates, any structure with butyric acid, or any other similar noxious or caustic chemical or substance, is guilty of a public offense, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison or in a county jail, by a fine as specified in subdivision (b), or by both that imprisonment and fine.

(b) (1) If the amount of the defacement, damage, destruction, or contamination is fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) or more, by a fine of not more than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000).

(2) If the amount of the defacement, damage, destruction, or contamination is five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more, but less than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), by a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

(3) If the amount of defacement, damage, destruction, or contamination is four hundred dollars ($400) or more, but less than five thousand dollars ($5,000), by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(4) If the amount of the defacement, damage, destruction, or contamination is less than four hundred dollars ($400), by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(c) For purposes of this section, "structure" includes any house or other building being used at the time of the offense for a dwelling or for commercial purposes.

SEC. 5. Section 594.6 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

594.6. Every person who, having been convicted previously of vandalism or affixing graffiti or other inscribed material under Section 594, 594.3, 594.4, 640.5, 640.6, or 640.7, or any combination of these offenses, on two separate occasions, and having been incarcerated pursuant to a sentence, a conditional sentence, or a grant of probation for at least one of the convictions, is subsequently convicted of vandalism under Section 594, may be ordered by the court as a condition of probation to perform community service not to exceed 300 hours over a period not to exceed 240 days during a time other than during his or her hours of school attendance or employment.

SEC. 6. Section 594.7 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

594.7. Notwithstanding subdivision (b) of Section 594, every person who, having been convicted previously of vandalism under Section 594 for maliciously defacing with graffiti or other inscribed material any real or personal property not his or her own on two separate occasions and having been incarcerated pursuant to a sentence, a conditional sentence, or a grant of probation for at least one of the convictions, is subsequently convicted of vandalism under Section 594, shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year, or in the state prison.

SEC. 7. Section 640.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

640.5. (a) Any person who defaces with graffiti or other inscribed material the interior or exterior of the facilities or vehicles of a governmental entity, as defined by Section 811.2 of the Government Code, or the interior or exterior of the facilities or vehicles of a public transportation system as defined by Section 99211 of the Public Utilities Code, or the interior or exterior of the facilities of or vehicles operated by entities subsidized by the Department of Transportation or the interior or exterior of any leased or rented facilities or vehicles for which any of the above entities incur costs of less than two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for cleanup, repair, or replacement is guilty of an infraction, punishable by a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500) and by a minimum of 24 hours of community service for a total time not to exceed 100 hours over a period not to exceed 90 days, during a time other than during his or her hours of school attendance or employment. This subdivision does not preclude application of Section 594.

(b) If the person has been convicted previously of an infraction under subdivision (a) or has a prior conviction of Section 594, 594.3, 594.4, 640.6, or 640.7, the offense is a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not to exceed six months, by a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine. As a condition of probation, the court shall order the defendant to perform a minimum of 48 hours of community service not to exceed 200 hours over a period not to exceed 180 days during a time other than during his or her hours of school attendance or employment.

(c) Every person who, having been convicted previously under this section or Section 594, 594.3, 594.4, 640.6, or 640.7, or any combination of these offenses, on two separate occasions, and having been incarcerated pursuant to a sentence, a conditional sentence, or a grant of probation for at least one of the convictions, is subsequently convicted under this section, shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail not to exceed one year. As a condition of probation, the court may order the defendant to perform community service not to exceed 300 hours over a period not to exceed 240 days during a time other than during his or her hours of school attendance or employment.

(d) (1) Upon conviction of any person under subdivision (a), the court, in addition to any punishment imposed pursuant to subdivision (a), (b), or (c), at the victim's option, may order the defendant to perform the necessary labor to clean up, repair, or replace the property damaged by that person.

(2) If a minor is personally unable to pay any fine levied for violating subdivision (a), (b), or (c), the parent or legal guardian of the minor shall be liable for payment of the fine. A court may waive payment of the fine or any part thereof by the parent or legal guardian upon a finding of good cause.

(e) Any fine levied for a violation of subdivision (a), (b), or (c) shall be credited by the county treasurer pursuant to Section 1463.29 to the governmental entity having jurisdiction over, or responsibility for, the facility or vehicle involved, to be used for removal of the graffiti or other inscribed material or replacement or repair of the property defaced by the graffiti or other inscribed material. Before crediting these fines to the appropriate governmental entity, the county may determine the administrative costs it has incurred pursuant to this section, and retain an amount equal to those costs.

Any community service which is required pursuant to subdivision (a), (b), or (c) of a person under the age of 18 years may be performed in the presence, and under the direct supervision, of the person's parent or legal guardian.

(f) As used in this section, the term "graffiti or other inscribed material" includes any unauthorized inscription, word, figure, mark, or design that is written, marked, etched, scratched, drawn, or painted on real or personal property.

SEC. 8. Section 640.6 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

640.6. (a) Except as provided in Section 640.5, any person who defaces with graffiti or other inscribed material any real or personal property not his or her own, when the amount of the defacement, damage, or destruction is less than two hundred fifty dollars ($250), is guilty of an infraction, punishable by a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500). This subdivision does not preclude application of Section 594.

In addition to the penalty set forth in this section, the court shall order the defendant to perform a minimum of 24 hours of community service not to exceed 100 hours over a period not to exceed 90 days during a time other than during his or her hours of school attendance or employment.

(b) If the person has been convicted previously of an infraction under subdivision (a) or has a prior conviction of Section 594, 594.3, 594.4, 640.5, or 640.7, the offense is a misdemeanor, punishable by not to exceed six months in a county jail, by a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine. As a condition of probation, the court shall order the defendant to perform a minimum of 48 hours of community service not to exceed 200 hours over a period not to exceed 180 days during a time other than during his or her hours of school attendance or employment.

(c) Every person who, having been convicted previously under this section or Section 594, 594.3, 594.4, 640.5, or 640.7, or any combination of these offenses, on two separate occasions, and having been incarcerated pursuant to a sentence, a conditional sentence, or a grant of probation for at least one of the convictions, is subsequently convicted under this section, shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail not to exceed one year. As a condition of probation, the court may order the defendant to perform community service not to exceed 300 hours over a period not to exceed 240 days during a time other than during his or her hours of school attendance or employment.

(d) Upon conviction of any person under subdivision (a), the court, in addition to any punishment imposed pursuant to subdivision (a), (b), or (c), at the victim's option, may order the defendant to perform the necessary labor to clean up, repair, or replace the property damaged by that person.

(e) If a minor is personally unable to pay any fine levied for violating subdivision (a), (b), or (c), the parent or legal guardian of the minor shall be liable for payment of the fine. A court may waive payment of the fine or any part thereof by the parent or legal guardian upon a finding of good cause.

Any community service which is required pursuant to subdivision (a), (b), or (c) of a person under the age of 18 years may be performed in the presence, and under the direct supervision, of the person's parent or legal guardian.

(f) As used in this section, the term "graffiti or other inscribed material" includes any unauthorized inscription, word, figure, mark, or design that is written, marked, etched, scratched, drawn, or painted on real or personal property.

SEC. 9. Section 13202.6 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

13202.6. (a) (1) For every conviction of a person for a violation of Section 594, 594.3, or 594.4 of the Penal Code, committed while the person was 13 years of age or older, the court may suspend the person's driving privilege for one year. If the person convicted does not yet have the privilege to drive, the court may order the department to delay issuing the privilege to drive for one year subsequent to the time the person becomes legally eligible to drive. However, if there is no further conviction for violating Section 594, 594.3, or 594.4 of the Penal Code in a 12-month period after the conviction, the court, upon petition of the person affected, may modify the order imposing the delay of the privilege. For each successive offense, the court shall suspend the person's driving privilege for those possessing a license or delay the eligibility for those not in possession of a license at the time of their conviction for one additional year.

(2) Any person whose driving privilege is suspended or delayed for an act involving vandalism in violation of Section 594, 594.3, or 594.4 of the Penal Code, may elect to reduce the period of suspension or delay imposed by the court by performing community service under the supervision of the probation department. The period of suspension or delay ordered under paragraph (1) shall be reduced at the rate of one day for each hour of community service performed. For purposes of this paragraph, "community service" means cleaning up graffiti from any public property, including public transit vehicles.

(3) As used in this section, the term "conviction" includes the findings in juvenile proceedings specified in Section 13105.

(b) (1) Whenever the court suspends driving privileges pursuant to subdivision (a), the court in which the conviction is had shall require all drivers' licenses held by the person to be surrendered to the court. The court shall, within 10 days following the conviction, transmit a certified abstract of the conviction, together with any drivers' licenses surrendered, to the department.

(2) Violations of restrictions imposed pursuant to this section are subject to Section 14603.

(c) When the court is considering suspending or delaying driving privileges pursuant to subdivision (a), the court shall consider if a personal or family hardship exists that requires the person to have a driver's license for his or her own, or a member of his or her family's, employment or medically related purposes.

(d) The suspension, restriction, or delay of driving privileges pursuant to this section shall be in addition to any penalty imposed upon conviction of any violation of Section 594, 594.3, or 594.4 of the Penal Code.

SEC. 10. Section 728 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed.

SEC. 11. Article 18.5 (commencing with Section 742.10) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

Article 18.5. Graffiti Removal and Damage Recovery Program

742.10. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this article to accomplish the following purposes:

(a) To assist public and private owners and possessors of property defaced by minors with graffiti or other inscribed material to recover their full damages.

(b) To safeguard the fiscal integrity of cities and counties that expend public funds to remove graffiti and other material inscribed by minors from public or private property, or to repair or replace public or private property defaced by minors with graffiti or other inscribed material, by enabling those cities and counties to recoup the full costs of that removal, repair, and replacement.

(c) To safeguard the fiscal integrity of cities and counties by enabling them to recoup the law enforcement costs of identifying and apprehending minors who deface the property of others with graffiti or other inscribed material.

(d) To minimize the costs of collecting those costs and damages.

(e) To discourage the inscription of graffiti and other material by minors by requiring the offending minors, and their parents who have the financial ability to do so, to bear the costs associated with the unlawful defacement of property with graffiti or other inscribed material.

(f) To retain in the juvenile court the discretion needed to accomplish the goal of rehabilitating minors.

742.12. (a) As used in this article, the term "graffiti or other inscribed material" includes any unauthorized inscription, word, figure, mark, or design that is written, marked, etched, scratched, drawn, or painted on real or personal property.

(b) As used in subdivision (d) of Section 742.16, the word "custody" means either legal custody or physical custody of a minor.

742.14. (a) A city, county, or city and county may elect, by ordinance, to have the probation officer of the county recoup for it, through juvenile court proceedings in accordance with Section 742.16, its costs associated with defacement by minors of its property and the property of others by graffiti or other inscribed material. That ordinance shall include the cost finding or findings specified in subdivision (b), and if the city, county, or city and county enacts an ordinance pursuant to Section 53069.3 of the Government Code, the cost findings specified in subdivision (c). These cost findings shall be reviewed at least once every three years, at which time the city, county, or city and county, by resolution, shall adopt updated cost findings in accordance with subdivisions (b) and (c). A city, county, or city and county may rescind, by ordinance, its election to have the probation officer recoup its costs pursuant to this section. Immediately after adoption, the city or county shall cause a certified copy of an ordinance adopted pursuant to this subdivision and any resolution containing updated cost findings to be forwarded to the clerk of the juvenile court in the county and to the probation officer of the county.

(b) A city, county, or city and county that adopts an ordinance pursuant to subdivision (a) shall include therein a finding or findings, to be reviewed at least once every three years, of the average costs per unit of measure incurred by the law enforcement agency with primary jurisdiction in the city, county, or city and county in identifying and apprehending a person subsequently convicted of violation of Section 594, 594.3, 594.4, 640.5, 640.6, or 640.7 of the Penal Code or a minor subsequently found to be a person described in Section 602 by reason of the commission of an act prohibited by Section 594, 594.3, 594.4, 640.5, 640.6, or 640.7 of the Penal Code. A city, county, or city and county that does not adopt an ordinance pursuant to subdivision (a) may adopt an ordinance containing the cost finding or findings described in this subdivision. Findings of costs per unit of measure may include, but are not limited to, findings of the hourly costs of employee time and of the costs per mile of operating patrol vehicles.

(c) If a city, county, or city and county enacts an ordinance pursuant to Section 53069.3 of the Government Code and enacts an ordinance pursuant to subdivision (a), the ordinance enacted pursuant to subdivision (a) shall contain findings, to be reviewed at least once every three years, of the average cost to the city, county, or city and county per unit of measure of removing graffiti and other inscribed material, and of repairing and replacing property of the types frequently defaced with graffiti or other inscribed material that cannot be removed cost effectively. A city, county, or city and county that does not adopt an ordinance pursuant to subdivision (a) may adopt an ordinance containing the cost findings described in this subdivision. Findings of costs per unit of measure may include, but are not limited to, findings of the costs per square inch of removing painted graffiti or of the costs per item of replacing items that have been etched.

(d) A school district, district, or other local public agency may elect, by formal action of its governing body, to have the probation officer of the county recoup for it, through juvenile court proceedings in accordance with Section 742.16, its costs associated with the defacement by minors of property it owns or possesses by graffiti or other inscribed material. Upon election, the school district, district, or other local public agency shall make the cost findings described in subdivision (c). These cost findings shall be reviewed at least once every three years, at which time the school district, district, or other local public agency, by formal action of its governing body, shall adopt updated cost findings in accordance with subdivision (c). A school district, district, or other local public agency may rescind, by resolution, its election to have the probation officer recoup its costs pursuant to this section. Immediately after making the election described in this subdivision and adopting initial or updated cost findings, and immediately after rescinding said election, the school district, district, or other local public agency shall cause a certified copy of a document memorializing the election, rescission, or cost findings to be forwarded to the clerk of the juvenile court in the county and to the probation officer of the county. A school district, district, or other local public agency that does not elect to have the probation officer of the county recoup its costs pursuant to Section 742.16 may adopt the cost findings described in this subdivision.

(e) A city, county, or city and county that has elected to have the probation officer of the county recoup its costs pursuant to Section 742.16 shall transmit to the probation officer, forthwith, data about its expenditure of resources in identifying and apprehending any minor about whom a petition is filed alleging that the minor is a person described by Section 602 by reason of the commission of an act prohibited by Section 594, 594.3, 594.4, 640.5, 640.6, or 640.7 of the Penal Code. That data shall be sufficient to enable the probation officer and the juvenile court to calculate the costs to the city, county, or city and county in identifying and apprehending the minor.

(f) A city, county, or other public agency that has elected to have the probation officer of the county recoup its costs pursuant to Section 742.16 and that has made cost findings pursuant to subdivisions (c) or (d) shall transmit to the probation officer, forthwith, data about its expenditure of resources to remove graffiti or other material inscribed by, or to repair or replace property defaced by, any minor about whom a petition is filed alleging that the minor is a person described by Section 602 by reason of the commission of an act prohibited by Section 594, 594.3, 594.4, 640.5, 640.6, or 640.7 of the Penal Code. That data shall be sufficient to enable the probation officer and the juvenile court to calculate the costs to the city, county, or other local agency for that removal, repair, or replacement.

(g) The probation officer of a county may establish procedures for collecting the data described in subdivision (e) and (f). These procedures may include a provision that the juvenile court may not award and the probation officer may refuse to collect costs described in this section unless the data required to be provided to the probation officer pursuant to subdivisions (e) and (f) is provided to him or her within a time certain after he or she makes a demand therefor.

742.16. (a) If a minor is found to be a person described in Section 602 by reason of the commission of an act prohibited by Section 594, 594.3, 594.4, 640.5, 640.6 or 640.7 of the Penal Code, and the court does not remove the minor from the physical custody of the parent or guardian, the court as a condition of probation, except in any case in which the court makes a finding and states on the record its reasons why that condition would be inappropriate, shall require the minor to wash, paint, repair, or replace the property defaced, damaged, or destroyed by the minor or otherwise pay restitution to the probation officer of the county for disbursement to the owner or possessor of the property or both. In any case in which the minor is not granted probation or in which the minor's cleanup, repair, or replacement of the property will not return the property to its condition before it was defaced, damaged, or destroyed, the court shall make a finding of the amount of restitution that would be required to fully compensate the owner and possessor of the property for their damages. The court shall order the minor or the minor's estate to pay that restitution to the probation officer of the county for disbursement to the owner or possessor of the property or both, to the extent the court determines that the minor or his estate have the ability to do so, except in any case in which the court makes a finding and states on the record its reasons why full restitution would be inappropriate. If full restitution is found to be inappropriate, the court, shall require the minor to perform specified community service, except in any case in which the court makes a finding and states on the record its reasons why that condition would be inappropriate.

(b) If a minor is found to be a person described in Section 602 by reason of the commission of an act prohibited by Section 594, 594.3, 594.4, 640.5, 640.6, or 640.7 of the Penal Code, and the graffiti or other material inscribed by the minor has been removed, or the property defaced by the minor has been repaired or replaced by a public entity that has elected, pursuant to Section 742.14, to have the probation officer of the county recoup its costs through proceedings in accordance with this section and has made cost findings in accordance with subdivisions (c) or (d) of Section 742.14, the court shall determine the total cost incurred by the public entity for said removal, repair, or replacement, using, if applicable, the cost findings most recently adopted by the public entity pursuant to subdivision (c) or (d) of Section 742.14. The court shall order the minor or the minor's estate to pay those costs to the probation officer of the county to the extent the court determines that the minor or the minor's estate have the ability to do so.

(c) If the minor is found to be a person described in Section 602 by reason of the commission of an act prohibited by Section 594, 594.3, 594.4, 640.5, 640.6, or 640.7 of the Penal Code and the minor was identified or apprehended by the law enforcement agency of a city or county that has elected, pursuant to Section 742.14, to have the probation officer of the county recoup its costs through proceedings in accordance with this section, the court shall determine the cost of identifying or apprehending the minor, or both, using, if applicable, the cost findings adopted by the city or county pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 742.14. The court shall order the minor or the minor's estate to pay those costs to the probation officer of the county to the extent the court determines that the minor or the minor's estate have the ability to do so.

(d) If the court determines that the minor or the minor's estate is unable to pay in full the costs and damages determined pursuant to subdivisions (a), (b), and (c), and if the minor's parent or parents have been cited into court pursuant to Section 742.18, the court shall hold a hearing to determine the liability of the minor's parent or parents pursuant to Section 1714.1 of the Civil Code for those costs and damages. Except when the court makes a finding setting forth unusual circumstances in which parental liability would not serve the interests of justice, the court shall order the minor's parent or parents to pay those costs and damages to the probation officer of the county to the extent the court determines that the parent or parents have the ability to pay, if the minor was in the custody or control of the parent or parents at the time he or she committed the act that forms the basis for the finding that the minor is a person described in Section 602. In evaluating the parent's or parents' ability to pay, the court shall take into consideration the family income, the necessary obligations of the family, and the number of persons dependent upon this income.

(e) The hearing described in subdivision (d) may be held immediately following the disposition hearing or at a later date, at the option of the court.

(f) If the amount of costs and damages sought to be recovered in the hearing pursuant to subdivision (d) is five thousand dollars ($5,000) or less, the parent or parents may not be represented by counsel and the probation officer of the county shall be represented by his or her nonattorney designee. The court shall conduct such a hearing in accordance with Sections 116.510 and 116.520 of the Code of Civil Procedure. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the court determines that a parent cannot properly present his or her defense, the court may, in its discretion, allow another individual to assist that parent. In addition, a husband or wife may appear and participate in the hearing on behalf of his or her spouse if the representative's spouse has given his or her consent and the court determines that the interest of justice would be served thereby.

(g) If the amount of costs and damages sought to be recovered in the hearing pursuant to subdivision (d) exceeds five thousand dollars ($5,000), the parent or parents may be represented by counsel of his or her or their own choosing, and the probation officer of the county shall be represented by the district attorney or an attorney or nonattorney designee of the probation officer. The parent or parents shall not be entitled to court-appointed counsel or to counsel compensated at public expense.

(h) At the hearing conducted pursuant to subdivision (d), there shall be a presumption affecting the burden of proof that the findings of the court made pursuant to subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) represent the actual damages and costs attributable to the act of the minor that forms the basis of the finding that the minor is a person described in Section 602.

(i) If the parent or parents after having been cited to appear pursuant to Section 742.18, fail to appear as ordered, the court shall order the parent or parents to pay the full amount of the costs and damages determined by the court pursuant to subdivisions (a), (b), and (c).

(j) Execution may be issued on an order issued by the court pursuant to this section in the same manner as on a judgment in a civil action, including any balance unpaid at the termination of the court's jurisdiction over the minor.

(k) At any time prior to the satisfaction of a judgment entered pursuant to this section, a person against whom the judgment was entered may petition the rendering court to modify or vacate the judgment on the showing of a change in circumstances relating to his or her ability to pay the judgment.

(l) For purposes of a hearing conducted pursuant to subdivision (d), the judge of the juvenile court shall have the jurisdiction of a judge of the municipal court, and where the amount of the demand is five thousand dollars ($5,000) or less, the judge of the juvenile court shall have the powers of a judge presiding over the small claims court.

(m) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the authority of a juvenile court to provide conditions of probation.

(n) The options available to the court pursuant to subdivisions (a), (b), (c), (d), and (k), to order payment by the minor and his or her parent or parents of less than the full costs described in subdivisions (a), (b), and (c), on grounds of financial inability or for reasons of justice, shall not be available to a municipal court in an ordinary civil proceeding pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1714.1 of the Civil Code, except that in any proceeding pursuant to either subdivision (b) of Section 1714.1 of the Civil Code or this section, the maximum amount that a parent or a minor may be ordered to pay shall not exceed twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) for each tort of the minor.

742.18. (a) If the petition alleges that the minor is the person described by Section 602 by reason of the commission of an act prohibited by Section 594, 594.3, 594.4, 640.5, 640.6, or 640.7 of the Penal Code, and the petition is sustained, the court, in addition to the notice provided in Sections 658 and 659, shall issue a citation to the minor's parent or legal guardian, ordering them to appear in the court at the time and date stated for a hearing pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 742.16.

(b) The citation shall notify the parent or legal guardian that at the hearing, he, she, or they may be ordered to pay restitution sufficient to fully compensate the owner and possessor of the property defaced by the minor for the damage caused by that defacement, the law enforcement costs of identifying and apprehending the minor, if applicable, and the costs incurred by a public entity to remove graffiti or other material inscribed by the minor, or to repair or replace the property defaced by the minor, if applicable. The citation shall set forth the provisions of Section 742.16 and shall advise the parent or parents that he, she, or they may be ordered to pay an amount not exceeding twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) for the above-referenced damages and costs. The citation shall contain a warning to the parent or parents that if he, she, or they fail to appear at the time and date stated, the court will order him, her, or them to pay in full the costs and damages caused by the act of the minor.

(c) Service of the citation shall be made on all parents or legal guardians of the minor whose names and addresses are known to the petitioner.

(d) Service of the citation shall be made at least 10 days prior to the time and date stated therein for appearance, in the manner provided by law for the service of a summons in a civil action, other than by publication.

742.20. Any moneys collected by the probation officer of the county pursuant to an order rendered pursuant to Section 742.16 shall be distributed by the county to the following persons and entities in the following priority:

(a) Restitution to the owner and possessor of the property defaced by the minor, in the amount determined by the court.

(b) After the restitution described in subdivision (a) has been paid in full, or if restitution was not ordered, the costs of removing graffiti or other material inscribed by the minor and of repairing or replacing property defaced by the minor, to the city, county, or other local public agency that incurred those costs, except that the county may deduct and retain 15 percent of the amount collected for the removal, repair, or replacement costs, or an amount equivalent to its actual costs of collection, whichever is less.

(c) After the costs and damages described in subdivisions (a) and (b) have been paid in full, or if there are no costs or damages, the law enforcement costs of identifying and apprehending the minor, to the city or county that incurred those costs, except that the county may deduct and retain 15 percent of the amount collected for those law enforcement costs, or an amount equivalent to its actual costs of collection, whichever is less.

742.22. If any provision or clause of this article or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this article which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this article are severable.

SEC. 12. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 910

An act to amend Section 53069.3 of, and to add Sections 38772, 38773.2, and 38773.6 to, the Government Code, relating to graffiti abatement.

[Approved by Governor September 27, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 28, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 38772 is added to the Government Code, to read:

38772. (a) The legislative body of a city, county, or city and county may provide for the summary abatement of any nuisance resulting from the defacement of the property of another by graffiti or any other inscribed material at the expense of a minor creating, causing, or committing the nuisance and by ordinance may make the expense of abatement of the nuisance a lien against property of the minor and a personal obligation against the minor pursuant to Section 38773.2 or 38773.6.

(b) The parent or guardian having custody and control of the minor shall be jointly and severally liable with the minor. The legislative body of a city, county, or city and county may make the expense of abatement of any nuisance resulting from the defacement by a minor of the property of another by graffiti or any other inscribed material a lien against the property of a parent or guardian having custody and control of the minor and a personal obligation against the parent or guardian having custody and control of the minor pursuant to Section 38773.2 or 38773.6.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the names and addresses of the parent or guardian having custody and control of the minor, if known, shall be reported by the probation officer of the county to the city clerk or other official designated by the legislative body of the city, county, or city and county in which the defaced property is located.

(d) As used in this section, the following terms have the following meanings:

(1) "Expense of abatement" includes, but is not limited to, court costs, attorney's fees, costs of removal of the graffiti or other inscribed material, costs of repair and replacement of defaced property, and the law enforcement costs incurred by the city, county, or city and county in identifying and apprehending the minor.

(2) "Graffiti or other inscribed material" means any unauthorized inscription, word, figure, mark, or design that is written, marked, etched, scratched, drawn, or painted on any real or personal property.

(3) "Minor" means a minor who has confessed to, admitted to, or pled guilty or nolo contendere to a violation of Section 594, 594.3, 640.5, 640.6, or 640.7 of the Penal Code, or a minor convicted by final judgment of a violation of Section 594, 594.3, 640.5, 640.6, or 640.7 of the Penal Code, or a minor declared a ward of the Juvenile Court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code by reason of the commission of an act prohibited by Section 594, 594.3, 640.5, 640.6, or 640.7 of the Penal Code.

SEC. 2. Section 38773.2 is added to the Government Code, to read:

38773.2. (a) The legislative body of a city, county, or city and county may, by ordinance, establish a procedure to collect abatement and related administrative costs incurred in the summary abatement of any nuisance resulting from the defacement by a minor of the property of another by graffiti or any other inscribed material. The ordinance shall require notice to the minor prior to the recordation of a lien on the parcel of land owned by the minor. The ordinance shall require notice to the parent or guardian having custody and control of the minor prior to the recordation of a lien on the parcel of land owned by the parent or guardian having custody and control of the minor.

(b) The notice shall be served in the same manner as a summons in a civil action pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 415.10) of Chapter 4 of Title 5 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure. If the minor, after diligent search, cannot be found, the notice may be served by posting a copy of the notice upon the property owned by the minor, in a conspicuous place, for a period of 10 days. The notice shall also be published pursuant to Section 6062 in a newspaper of general circulation that is published in the county in which the property is located. If the parent or guardian having custody and control of the minor, after diligent search, cannot be found, the notice may be served by posting a copy of the notice upon the property owned by the parent or guardian having custody and control of the minor, in a conspicuous place, for a period of 10 days. The notice shall also be published pursuant to Section 6062 in a newspaper of general circulation that is published in the county in which the property is located.

(c) A graffiti nuisance abatement lien shall be recorded in the county recorder's office in the county in which the parcel of land is located. From the date of recording, the lien shall have the force, effect, and priority of a judgment lien.

(d) A graffiti nuisance abatement lien authorized by this section shall specify the amount of the lien; the name of the agency on whose behalf the lien is imposed; the date of the abatement order; the street address, legal description, and assessor's parcel number of the parcel on which the lien is imposed; and the name and address of the recorded owner of the parcel.

(e) If the lien is discharged, released, or satisfied, either through payment or foreclosure, notice of the discharge containing the information specified in subdivision (d) shall be recorded by the governmental agency. A graffiti nuisance abatement lien and the release of the lien shall be indexed in the grantor-grantee index.

(f) A graffiti nuisance abatement lien may be satisfied through foreclosure in an action brought by the city.

(g) Notwithstanding Section 6103, Section 27383, or any other provision of law, the county recorder may impose a fee on the city, county, or city and county to reimburse the costs of processing and recording the lien and providing notice to the property owner. The city, county, or city and county may recover from the property owner any costs incurred regarding the processing and recording of the lien and providing notice to the property owner as part of its foreclosure action to enforce the lien.

(h) As used in subdivision (a), "abatement and related administrative costs" include, but are not limited to, court costs, attorney's fees, costs of removal of the graffiti or other inscribed material, costs of repair and replacement of defaced property, and the law enforcement costs incurred by the city, county, or city and county in identifying and apprehending the minor.

(i) The terms "graffiti or other inscribed material" and "minor" have the same meaning as specified in Section 38772.

SEC. 3. Section 38773.6 is added to the Government Code, to read:

38773.6. (a) As an alternative to the procedure specified in Section 38773.2, the legislative body of a city, county, or city and county may, by ordinance, establish a procedure for the abatement of any nuisance resulting from the defacement by a minor of property of another by graffiti or other inscribed material and make the abatement and related administrative costs a special assessment against a parcel of land owned by the minor or by the parent or guardian having custody and control of the minor. The assessment may be collected at the same time and in the same manner as ordinary municipal taxes are collected and shall be subject to the same penalties and the same procedure and sale in case of delinquency as provided for ordinary municipal taxes. All laws applicable to the levy, collection, and enforcement of municipal taxes shall be applicable to the special assessment. However, if any real property to which the abatement and related administrative costs relates has been transferred or conveyed to a bona fide purchaser for value, or if a lien of a bona fide encumbrancer for value has been created and attaches thereon prior to the date on which the first installment of the taxes would become delinquent, then the abatement and related administrative costs shall not result in a lien against the real property but shall instead be transferred to the unsecured roll for collection. Notices or instruments relating to the abatement proceeding or special assessment may be recorded.

(b) The terms "abatement and related administrative costs," "graffiti or other inscribed material" and "minor" have the same meaning as specified in Sections 38772 and 38773.2.

SEC. 4. Section 53069.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53069.3. (a) A city, county, or city and county may enact an ordinance to provide for the use of city or county funds to remove graffiti or other inscribed material from publicly or privately owned real or personal property located within the city, county, or city and county.

(b) The ordinance shall only authorize the removal of the graffiti or other inscribed material itself, and not the painting or repair of a more extensive area.

(c) The removal may be performed, in the case of publicly owned real or personal property, only after securing the consent of the public entity having jurisdiction over the property, and in the case of privately owned real or personal property, only after securing the consent of the owner.

(d) (1) If a city enacts an ordinance pursuant to this section, the city may also enact an ordinance to establish a procedure pursuant to Section 38772, 38773, 38773.1, 38773.2, 38773.5, or 38773.6 to recover city funds used pursuant to this section to remove graffiti or other inscribed material from publicly or privately owned real or personal property within the city.

(2) If a county enacts an ordinance pursuant to this section, the county may enact an ordinance to establish a procedure pursuant to Section 25845 to recover county funds used pursuant to this section to remove graffiti or other inscribed material from publicly or privately owned real or personal property within the county.

(3) As used in this section, "city or county funds" include, but are not limited to, court costs, attorney's fees, costs of removal of the graffiti or other inscribed material, costs of repair and replacement of defaced property, and the law enforcement costs incurred by the city or county in identifying and apprehending the person who created, caused, or committed the graffiti or other inscribed material on the publicly or privately owned permanent real or personal property within the city or county.

(e) As used in this section, "graffiti or other inscribed material" includes any unauthorized inscription, word, figure, or design that is marked, etched, scratched, drawn, or painted on any structural component of any building, structure, or other facility, regardless of the nature of the material of that structural component.

(f) This section does not preclude the abatement of graffiti or other inscribed material as a nuisance pursuant to Section 25845 or 38773.5 or the enactment or enforcement of any criminal law with respect to nuisance.

SEC. 4.5. Section 53069.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53069.3. (a) A city, county, or city and county may enact an ordinance to provide for the use of city or county funds to remove graffiti or other inscribed material from publicly or privately owned real or personal property located within the city, county, or city and county and to replace or repair public or privately owned property within that city, county, or city and county that has been defaced with graffiti or other inscribed material that cannot be removed cost effectively.

(b) The ordinance shall authorize only the removal of the graffiti or other inscribed material itself, or, if the graffiti or other inscribed material cannot be removed cost effectively, the repair or replacement of the portion of the property that was defaced, and not the painting, repair, or replacement of other parts of the property that were not defaced.

(c) (1) The removal, repair, or replacement may be performed, in the case of publicly owned real or personal property, only after securing the consent of the public entity having jurisdiction over the property, and in the case of privately owned real or personal property, only after securing the consent of the owner or possessor.

(2) The law enforcement agency with primary jurisdiction in a city, county, or city and county that enacts an ordinance pursuant to this section may promulgate procedures for preremoval preservation of sufficient evidence of the graffiti or other inscribed material for criminal prosecutions or proceedings pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code pertaining to the person or persons who inscribed the graffiti or other material. These procedures shall be followed by the city, county, or city and county prior to or during removal of graffiti or other inscribed material.

(d) (1) If a city enacts an ordinance pursuant to this section, the city may also enact an ordinance to establish a procedure pursuant to Section 38772, 38773, 38773.1, 38773.2, 38773.5, or 38773.6 to recover city funds used pursuant to this section to remove graffiti or other inscribed material from publicly or privately owned real or personal property within the city.

(2) If a county enacts an ordinance pursuant to this section, the county may enact an ordinance to establish a procedure pursuant to Section 25845 to recover county funds used pursuant to this section to remove graffiti or other inscribed material from publicly or privately owned real or personal property within the county.

(3) As used in this section, "city or county funds" include, but are not limited to, court costs, attorney's fees, costs of removal of the graffiti or other inscribed material, costs of repair and replacement of defaced property, and the law enforcement costs incurred by the city or county in identifying and apprehending the person who created, caused, or committed the graffiti or other inscribed material on the publicly or privately owned permanent real or personal property within the city or county.

(e) As used in this section, "graffiti or other inscribed material" includes any unauthorized inscription, word, figure, mark, or design that is written, marked, etched, scratched, drawn, or painted on any real or personal property.

(f) This section does not preclude the abatement of graffiti or other inscribed material as a nuisance pursuant to Section 25845 or 38773.5 or the enactment or enforcement of any criminal law with respect to nuisance.

SEC. 5. Nothing in this act supersedes or replaces the liability of a parent or guardian pursuant to Section 1714.1 of the Civil Code.

SEC. 6. Section 4.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 53069.3 of the Government Code proposed by both this bill and SB 1779. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 53069.3 of the Government Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 1779 in which case Section 4 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 7. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 911

An act to amend Section 594.2 of the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor September 27, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 28, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 594.2 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

594.2. (a) Every person who possesses a masonry or glass drill bit, a carbide drill bit, a glass cutter, a grinding stone, an awl, a chisel, a carbide scribe, an aerosol paint container, a felt tip marker, or any other marking substance with the intent to commit vandalism or graffiti, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(b) As a condition of probation for any violation of this section, the court may order the defendant to perform community service not to exceed 90 hours during a time other than his or her hours of school attendance or employment.

(c) For the purposes of this section:

(1) "Felt tip marker" means any broad-tipped marker pen with a tip exceeding three-eighths of one inch in width, or any similar implement containing an ink that is not water soluble.

(2) "Marking substance" means any substance or implement, other than aerosol paint containers and felt tip markers, that could be used to draw, spray, paint, etch, or mark.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 912

An act to amend Sections 6011, 6012, 8604, 8951, 8956, 8957, 9021, 9151, and 9351 of, to amend the heading of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 8732) of Part 3 of Division 2 of, to add Sections 60505, 60521, and 60630 to, to add Article 5 (commencing with Section 60581) to Chapter 8 of Part 31 of Division 2 of, to add Part 31 (commencing with Section 60001) to Division 2 of, to repeal Sections 8616, 8617, 8618, and 8751.6 of, to repeal Article 3 (commencing with Section 8721) of Chapter 3 of Part 3 of Division 2 of, and to repeal Article 2 (commencing with Section 8736) of Chapter 3.5 of Part 3 of Division 2 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, and making an appropriation therefor, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor September 27, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 28, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6011 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

6011. (a) "Sales price" means the total amount for which tangible personal property is sold or leased or rented, as the case may be, valued in money, whether paid in money or otherwise, without any deduction on account of any of the following:

(1) The cost of the property sold.

(2) The cost of materials used, labor or service cost, interest charged, losses, or any other expenses.

(3) The cost of transportation of the property, except as excluded by other provisions of this section.

(b) The total amount for which the property is sold or leased or rented includes all of the following:

(1) Any services that are a part of the sale.

(2) Any amount for which credit is given to the purchaser by the seller.

(3) The amount of any tax imposed by the United States upon producers and importers of gasoline and the amount of any tax imposed pursuant to Part 2 (commencing with Section 7301) of this division.

(c) "Sales price" does not include any of the following:

(1) Cash discounts allowed and taken on sales.

(2) The amount charged for property returned by customers when that entire amount is refunded either in cash or credit, but this exclusion shall not apply in any instance when the customer, in order to obtain the refund, is required to purchase other property at a price greater than the amount charged for the property that is returned. For the purpose of this section, refund or credit of the entire amount shall be deemed to be given when the purchase price less rehandling and restocking costs are refunded or credited to the customer. The amount withheld for rehandling and restocking costs may be a percentage of the sales price determined by the average cost of rehandling and restocking returned merchandise during the previous accounting cycle.

(3) The amount charged for labor or services rendered in installing or applying the property sold.

(4) (A) The amount of any tax (not including, however, any manufacturers' or importers' excise tax, except as provided in subparagraph (B)) imposed by the United States upon or with respect to retail sales whether imposed upon the retailer or the consumer.

(B) The amount of manufacturers' or importers' excise tax imposed pursuant to Section 4081 or 4091 of the Internal Revenue Code for which the purchaser certifies that he or she is entitled to either a direct refund or credit against his or her income tax for the federal excise tax paid.

(5) The amount of any tax imposed by any city, county, city and county, or rapid transit district within the State of California upon or with respect to retail sales of tangible personal property, measured by a stated percentage of sales price or gross receipts, whether imposed upon the retailer or the consumer.

(6) The amount of any tax imposed by any city, county, city and county, or rapid transit district within the State of California with respect to the storage, use or other consumption in that city, county, city and county, or rapid transit district of tangible personal property measured by a stated percentage of sales price or purchase price, whether the tax is imposed upon the retailer or the consumer.

(7) Separately stated charges for transportation from the retailer's place of business or other point from which shipment is made directly to the purchaser, but the exclusion shall not exceed a reasonable charge for transportation by facilities of the retailer or the cost to the retailer of transportation by other than facilities of the retailer. However, if the transportation is by facilities of the retailer, or the property is sold for a delivered price, this exclusion shall be applicable solely with respect to transportation which occurs after the purchase of the property is made.

(8) Charges for transporting landfill from an excavation site to a site specified by the purchaser, either if the charge is separately stated and does not exceed a reasonable charge or if the entire consideration consists of payment for transportation.

(9) The amount of any motor vehicle, mobilehome, or commercial coach fee or tax imposed by and paid the State of California that has been added to or is measured by a stated percentage of the sales or purchase price of a motor vehicle, mobilehome, or commercial coach.

(10) (A) The amount charged for intangible personal property transferred with tangible personal property in any technology transfer agreement, if the technology transfer agreement separately states a reasonable price for the tangible personal property.

(B) If the technology transfer agreement does not separately state a price for the tangible personal property, and the tangible personal property or like tangible personal property has been previously sold or leased, or offered for sale or lease, to third parties at a separate price, the price at which the tangible personal property was sold, leased, or offered to third parties shall be used to establish the retail fair market value of the tangible personal property subject to tax. The remaining amount charged under the technology transfer agreement is for the intangible personal property transferred.

(C) If the technology transfer agreement does not separately state a price for the tangible personal property, and the tangible personal property or like tangible personal property has not been previously sold or leased, or offered for sale or lease, to third parties at a separate price, the retail fair market value shall be equal to 200 percent of the cost of materials and labor used to produce the tangible personal property subject to tax. The remaining amount charged under the technology transfer agreement is for the intangible personal property transferred.

(D) For purposes of this paragraph, "technology transfer agreement" means any agreement under which a person who holds a patent or copyright interest assigns or licenses to another person the right to make and sell a product or to use a process that is subject to the patent or copyright interest.

(11) The amount of any tax imposed upon diesel fuel pursuant to Part 31 (commencing with Section 60001).

SEC. 1.5. Section 6012 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

6012. (a) "Gross receipts" mean the total amount of the sale or lease or rental price, as the case may be, of the retail sales of retailers, valued in money, whether received in money or otherwise, without any deduction on account of any of the following:

(1) The cost of the property sold. However, in accordance with any rules and regulations as the board may prescribe, a deduction may be taken if the retailer has purchased property for some other purpose than resale, has reimbursed his or her vendor for tax which the vendor is required to pay to the state or has paid the use tax with respect to the property, and has resold the property prior to making any use of the property other than retention, demonstration, or display while holding it for sale in the regular course of business. If that deduction is taken by the retailer, no refund or credit will be allowed to his or her vendor with respect to the sale of the property.

(2) The cost of the materials used, labor or service cost, interest paid, losses, or any other expense.

(3) The cost of transportation of the property, except as excluded by other provisions of this section.

(4) The amount of any tax imposed by the United States upon producers and importers of gasoline and the amount of any tax imposed pursuant to Part 2 (commencing with Section 7301) of this division.

(b) The total amount of the sale or lease or rental price includes all of the following:

(1) Any services that are a part of the sale.

(2) All receipts, cash, credits and property of any kind.

(3) Any amount for which credit is allowed by the seller to the purchaser.

(c) "Gross receipts" do not include any of the following:

(1) Cash discounts allowed and taken on sales.

(2) Sale price of property returned by customers when that entire amount is refunded either in cash or credit, but this exclusion shall not apply in any instance when the customer, in order to obtain the refund, is required to purchase other property at a price greater than the amount charged for the property that is returned. For the purpose of this section, refund or credit of the entire amount shall be deemed to be given when the purchase price less rehandling and restocking costs are refunded or credited to the customer. The amount withheld for rehandling and restocking costs may be a percentage of the sales price determined by the average cost of rehandling and restocking returned merchandise during the previous accounting cycle.

(3) The price received for labor or services used in installing or applying the property sold.

(4) (A) The amount of any tax (not including, however, any manufacturers' or importers' excise tax, except as provided in subparagraph (B)) imposed by the United States upon or with respect to retail sales whether imposed upon the retailer or the consumer.

(B) The amount of manufacturers' or importers' excise tax imposed pursuant to Section 4081 or 4091 of the Internal Revenue Code for which the purchaser certifies that he or she is entitled to either a direct refund or credit against his or her income tax for the federal excise tax paid.

(5) The amount of any tax imposed by any city, county, city and county, or rapid transit district within the State of California upon or with respect to retail sales of tangible personal property measured by a stated percentage of sales price or gross receipts whether imposed upon the retailer or the consumer.

(6) The amount of any tax imposed by any city, county, city and county, or rapid transit district within the State of California with respect to the storage, use or other consumption in that city, county, city and county, or rapid transit district of tangible personal property measured by a stated percentage of sales price or purchase price, whether the tax is imposed upon the retailer or the consumer.

(7) Separately stated charges for transportation from the retailer's place of business or other point from which shipment is made directly to the purchaser, but the exclusion shall not exceed a reasonable charge for transportation by facilities of the retailer or the cost to the retailer of transportation by other than facilities of the retailer. However, if the transportation is by facilities of the retailer, or the property is sold for a delivered price, this exclusion shall be applicable solely with respect to transportation which occurs after the sale of the property is made to the purchaser.

(8) Charges for transporting landfill from an excavation site to a site specified by the purchaser, either if the charge is separately stated and does not exceed a reasonable charge or if the entire consideration consists of payment for transportation.

(9) The amount of any motor vehicle, mobilehome, or commercial coach fee or tax imposed by and paid to the State of California that has been added to or is measured by a stated percentage of the sales or purchase price of a motor vehicle, mobilehome, or commercial coach.

(10) (A) The amount charged for intangible personal property transferred with tangible personal property in any technology transfer agreement, if the technology transfer agreement separately states a reasonable price for the tangible personal property.

(B) If the technology transfer agreement does not separately state a price for the tangible personal property, and the tangible personal property or like tangible personal property has been previously sold or leased, or offered for sale or lease, to third parties at a separate price, the price at which the tangible personal property was sold, leased, or offered to third parties shall be used to establish the retail fair market value of the tangible personal property subject to tax. The remaining amount charged under the technology transfer agreement is for the intangible personal property transferred.

(C) If the technology transfer agreement does not separately state a price for the tangible personal property, and the tangible personal property or like tangible personal property has not been previously sold or leased, or offered for sale or lease, to third parties at a separate price, the retail fair market value shall be equal to 200 percent of the cost of materials and labor used to produce the tangible personal property subject to tax. The remaining amount charged under the technology transfer agreement is for the intangible personal property transferred.

(D) For purposes of this paragraph, "technology transfer agreement" means any agreement under which a person who holds a patent or copyright interest assigns or licenses to another person the right to make and sell a product or to use a process that is subject to the patent or copyright interest.

(11) The amount of any tax imposed upon diesel fuel pursuant to Part 31 (commencing with Section 60001).

For purposes of the sales tax, if the retailers establish to the satisfaction of the board that the sales tax has been added to the total amount of the sale price and has not been absorbed by them, the total amount of the sale price shall be deemed to be the amount received exclusive of the tax imposed. Section 1656.1 of the Civil Code shall apply in determining whether or not the retailers have absorbed the sales tax.

SEC. 2. Section 8604 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

8604. "Fuel" includes any combustible gas or liquid, by whatever name the gas or liquid may be known or sold, of a kind used in an internal combustion engine for the generation of power to propel a motor vehicle on the highways, except fuel that is subject to the tax imposed by Part 2 (commencing with Section 7301) or Part 31 (commencing with Section 60001).

It does not include any combustible gas or liquid specifically manufactured and used for racing motor vehicles at a racetrack.

SEC. 3. Section 8616 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 8617 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 8618 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Article 3 (commencing with Section 8721) of Chapter 3 of Part 3 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. The heading of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 8732) of Part 3 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

CHAPTER 3.5. COLLECTION OF TAX BY VENDOR

SEC. 8. Article 2 (commencing with Section 8736) of Chapter 3.5 of Part 3 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 9. Section 8751.6 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 10. Section 8951 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

8951. The board, whenever it deems it necessary to ensure compliance with this part or any rule or regulation adopted under this part, may require any user or vendor to deposit with it that security as it may determine. Any security in the form of cash, government bonds, or insured deposits in banks and savings and loan institutions shall be held by the board in trust to be used solely in the manner provided for by this section and Section 8956. The board may sell the security at public sale if it becomes necessary in order to recover any amount due under this part. Notice of the sale may be served upon the person who deposited the security personally or by mail in the manner prescribed for service of notice of a deficiency determination. Security in the form of a bearer bond issued by the United States or the State of California that has a prevailing market price may, however, be sold by the board at private sale at a price not lower than the prevailing market price thereof. Upon any sale, any surplus above the amount due shall be returned to the person who deposited the security.

SEC. 10.5. Section 8951 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

8951. The board, whenever it deems it necessary to ensure compliance with this part or any rule or regulation adopted under this part, may require any user or vendor to deposit with it any security that it may determine. Any security in the form of cash, government bonds, or insured deposits in banks and savings and loan institutions shall be held by the board in trust to be used solely in the manner provided for by this section and Section 8956. The board may sell the security at public sale if it becomes necessary in order to recover any amount due under this part. Notice of the sale may be served upon the person who deposited the security personally or by mail in the manner prescribed for service of notice of a deficiency determination. Upon any sale, any surplus above the amount due shall be returned to the person who deposited the security.

SEC. 11. Section 8956 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

8956. If, at the time a person ceases to be a user or vendor under this part, the board holds security pursuant to Section 8951 in the form of cash, government bonds, or insured deposits in banks or savings and loan institutions, the security when applied to the account of the taxpayer shall be deemed to be a payment on account of any liability of the taxpayer to the board on the date the person ceases to be a user or vendor under this part.

SEC. 12. Section 8957 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

8957. (a) Subject to the limitations in subdivisions (b) and (c), the board may by notice of levy, served personally or by first-class mail, require all persons having in their possession, or under their control, any credits or other personal property belonging to a user, vendor, or other person liable for any amount under this part to withhold from those credits or other personal property the amount of any tax, interest, or penalties due from that user, vendor, or other person, or the amount of any liability incurred by them under this part, and to transmit the amount withheld to the board at those times as it may designate.

(b) The person served shall continue to withhold pursuant to the Notice of Levy until the amount specified in the notice, including accrued interest, has been paid in full, until the notice is withdrawn, or until one year from the date the notice is received, whichever occurs first.

(c) The amount required to be withheld is the lesser of the following:

(1) The amount due stated on the notice.

(2) The amount of each payment due or becoming due to the user, vendor, or other person liable during the period of the levy.

(d) For the purposes of this section, the term "payments" does not include earnings as that term is defined in subdivision (a) of Section 706.011 of the Code of Civil Procedure or funds in a deposit account as defined in Section 9105 of the Commercial Code. The term "payments" does include any of the following:

(1) Payments due for services of independent contractors, dividends, rents, royalties, residuals, patent rights, mineral or other natural rights.

(2) Payments or credits due or becoming due periodically as a result of an enforceable obligation to the user, vendor, or other person liable for the tax.

(3) Any other payments or credits due or becoming due the user, vendor, or other person liable as the result of written or oral contracts for services or sales whether denominated as wages, salary, commission, bonus, or otherwise.

(e) In the case of a financial institution, to be effective, the notice shall state the amount due from the taxpayer and shall be delivered or mailed to the branch or office of the financial institution where the credits or other property is held, unless another branch or office is designated by the financial institution to receive the notice.

SEC. 13. Section 9021 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

9021. If any vendor liable for any amount under this part sells out his or her business or stock of goods or quits the business, his or her successor or assigns shall withhold from the purchase price an amount sufficient to cover that amount until the former owner produces a receipt from the board showing that it has been paid or a certificate stating that no amount is due.

SEC. 14. Section 9151 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

9151. If the board determines that any amount not required to be paid under this part has been paid by any person, the board shall set forth that fact in its records and certify to the State Board of Control the amount paid in excess of the amount legally due and the person by whom the excess was paid to the board or from whom it was collected. If the State Board of Control approves, the excess amount paid or collected shall be credited on any amounts then due and payable from the person from whom the excess amount was collected or by whom it was paid under this part, and the balance shall either be refunded to the person, or his or her successors, administrators, executors, or assigns, or, if authorized by the board, deducted by the person from any amounts to become due from him or her under this part.

In the case, however, of a determination by the board that an amount not exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) was not required to be paid under this part, the board without obtaining the approval of the State Board of Control may credit the amount on any amounts then due and payable under this part from the person by whom the amount was paid and may refund the balance to the person or his or her successors, administrators, or executors.

Any overpayment of the tax by a user to a vendor who is required to collect the tax and who gives the user a receipt therefor pursuant to Section 8732 shall be credited or refunded by the state to the user.

SEC. 15. Section 9151 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

9151. If the board determines that any amount not required to be paid under this part has been paid by any person, the board shall set forth that fact in its records and certify the amount paid in excess of the amount legally due and the person by whom the excess was paid to the board or from whom it was collected. The excess amount paid or collected shall be credited on any amounts then due and payable from the person from whom the excess amount was collected or by whom it was paid under this part, and the balance shall either be refunded to the person, or his or her successors, administrators, executors, or assigns, or, if authorized by the board, deducted by the person from any amounts to become due from him or her under this part.

Any overpayment of the tax by a user to a vendor who is required to collect the tax and who gives the user a receipt therefor pursuant to Section 8732 shall be credited or refunded by the state to the user.

For any amount exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), the board's proposed determination under this section shall be available as a public record for at least 10 days prior to the effective date of the determination.

SEC. 16. Section 9351 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

9351. Any person who places or causes to be placed fuel into a receptacle on a motor vehicle from which receptacle fuel is supplied for the propulsion of the vehicle, or who acquires fuel outside this state and uses the fuel for the propulsion of a motor vehicle within this state, is guilty of a misdemeanor unless that person is a vendor and collects the tax as provided under Section 8732 or 8736 or that person is a user who holds a valid use fuel tax permit, or is excluded from that requirement under Section 8608, and uses the fuel placed in the receptacle. He or she shall be fined for each offense not less than one hundred dollars ($100) and not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or be imprisoned for not exceeding six months in the county jail, or be subject to both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

SEC. 17. Part 31 (commencing with Section 60001) is added to Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

PART 31. DIESEL FUEL TAX LAW

CHAPTER 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS AND DEFINITIONS

60001. This part is known and may be cited as the "Diesel Fuel Tax Law."

60003. "Terminal" means a diesel fuel storage and distribution facility that is supplied by pipeline or vessel, and from which diesel fuel may be removed at a rack.

60004. "Refinery" means a facility used to produce diesel fuel from crude oil, unfinished oils, natural gas liquids, or other hydrocarbons and from which diesel fuel may be removed by pipeline, by vessel, or at a rack.

60005. "Approved terminal or refinery" means a terminal or refinery that is operated, respectively, by a diesel fuel registrant that is a terminal operator, or by a diesel fuel registrant that is a refiner.

60006. "Rack" means a mechanism for delivering diesel fuel from a refinery or terminal into a truck, trailer, railroad car, or other means of nonbulk transfer.

60007. "Removal" means any physical transfer of diesel fuel, and any use of diesel fuel other than as a material in the production of diesel fuel. However, diesel fuel is not removed when it evaporates or is otherwise lost or destroyed.

60008. "Person" includes any individual, firm, copartnership, joint venture, association, corporation, estate, trust, business trust, receiver, syndicate, the United States, this state, any county, city and county, municipality, district, or other political subdivision thereof, or any other group or combination acting as a unit.

60009. "Terminal operator" includes any person that owns, operates, or otherwise controls a terminal.

60010. "Position holder" includes any person that holds the inventory position in the diesel fuel, as reflected on the records of the terminal operator. A person holds the inventory position in diesel fuel when that person has a contractual agreement with the terminal operator for the use of storage facilities and terminaling services at a terminal with respect to the diesel fuel. "Position holder" includes a terminal operator that owns diesel fuel in its terminal.

60011. "Refiner" includes any person that owns, operates, or otherwise controls a refinery.

60012. "Blender" includes any person that produces blended diesel fuel outside the bulk transfer/terminal system.

60013. "Enterer" includes any person who is the importer of record (under federal customs law) with respect to diesel fuel. If the importer of record is acting as an agent, the person for whom the agent is acting is the enterer. If there is no importer of record of diesel fuel entered into this state, the owner of the diesel fuel at the time it is brought into this state is the enterer.

60015. "Diesel fuel registrant" includes any enterer, position holder, refiner, or terminal operator, that is licensed as a supplier pursuant to Section 60131.

60016. "Highway" includes any way or place, of whatever nature, that is publicly maintained and open to the use of the public for purposes of vehicular travel.

60017. "In this state" or "in the state" means within the exterior limits of the State of California and includes all territory within these limits owned by or ceded to the United States.

60018. "Fuel tank" means any receptacle on a motor vehicle from which fuel is supplied for the operation of the motor vehicle.

60019. "Motor vehicle" includes every self-propelled vehicle operated or suitable for operation on the highway, except a vehicle used exclusively upon stationary rails or tracks.

60021. "Entry" means the importing of diesel fuel into this state. However, diesel fuel brought into this state in the fuel tank of a motor vehicle shall not be deemed to be an "entry" if not removed from the fuel tank except as used for the operation of that motor vehicle, except to the extent that diesel fuel was acquired tax free for export or a refund of tax was claimed as a result of exportation from the state from which that diesel fuel was transported into this state.

60022. "Diesel fuel" means any liquid that is commonly or commercially known or sold as a fuel that is suitable for use in a diesel-powered highway vehicle. A liquid meets this requirement if, without further processing or blending, the liquid has practical and commercial fitness for use in the engine of a diesel-powered highway vehicle.

However, a liquid does not possess this practical and commercial fitness solely by reason of its possible or rare use as a fuel in the engine of a diesel-powered highway vehicle. "Diesel fuel" does not include kerosene.

"Diesel fuel" includes any combustible liquid, by whatever name the liquid may be known or sold, when the liquid is used in an internal combustion engine for the generation of power to operate a motor vehicle licensed to operate on the highway, except fuel that is subject to the tax imposed in Part 2 (commencing with Section 7301) or Part 3 (commencing with Section 8601).

60023. "Blended diesel fuel" means any mixture of diesel fuel with respect to which tax has been imposed and any other liquid (such as kerosene) on which tax has not been imposed (other than diesel fuel dyed in accordance with United States Environmental Protection Agency or Internal Revenue Service rules).

60024. "Colorless marker" means material that does not reveal its presence until the diesel fuel into which it is introduced is subjected to a special test.

60025. "Delivery" means the placing of diesel fuel or any liquid into the fuel tank of a motor vehicle.

60026. "Diesel-powered highway vehicle" means a motor vehicle that is operated by a diesel-powered engine on a highway.

60027. "Highway vehicle operator" includes any person, except an interstate trucker, that owns, operates, or otherwise controls a diesel-powered highway vehicle and places, or causes to be placed, diesel fuel or any liquid into the fuel tank of a diesel-powered highway vehicle.

60029. "Bulk transfer" means any transfer of diesel fuel by pipeline or vessel.

60030. "Bulk transfer/terminal system" means the diesel fuel distribution system consisting of refineries, pipelines, vessels, and terminals. Diesel fuel in a refinery, pipeline, vessel, or terminal is in the bulk transfer/terminal system. Diesel fuel in the fuel tank of any engine, or in any railcar, trailer, truck, or other equipment suitable for ground transportation is not in the bulk transfer/terminal system.

60031. "Dyed diesel fuel" means diesel fuel that is dyed under United States Environmental Protection Agency or the Internal Revenue Service rules for high sulphur diesel fuel or low sulphur diesel fuel or any other requirements subsequently set by the United States Environmental Protection Agency or the Internal Revenue Service and considered destined for nontaxable, off-highway uses.

60032. "Undyed diesel fuel" means diesel fuel that is not subject to the United States Environmental Protection Agency or Internal Revenue Service diesel fuel dyeing requirements.

60033. "Supplier" includes any person who is any of the following:

(a) Blender, as defined in Section 60012.

(b) Enterer, as defined in Section 60013.

(c) Position holder, as defined in Section 60010.

(d) Refiner, as defined in Section 60011.

(e) Terminal operator, as defined in Section 60009.

(f) Throughputter, as defined in Section 60035.

60034. "End seller" means any person who sells to a highway vehicle operator, dyed diesel fuel, diesel fuel on which a claim for refund has been allowed, or any liquid on which tax has not been imposed and the diesel fuel or liquid is used in the operation of the diesel-powered highway vehicle.

60035. "Throughputter" means any person that owns diesel fuel within the bulk transfer/terminal system (other than in a terminal) or is a position holder.

60036. "Ultimate vendor" means a person that sells undyed diesel fuel to the user of the diesel fuel (the ultimate purchaser) for use on a farm for farming purposes or for use in an exempt bus operation.

60037. "Ultimate purchaser" means a person that uses diesel fuel for use on a farm for farming purposes or an exempt bus operator that uses diesel fuel in an exempt bus operation.

60038. "Registered ultimate vendor" means a person that is licensed as an ultimate vendor pursuant to Section 60151.

60039. (a) "Exempt bus operation" consists of the following:

(1) Any transit district, transit authority, or city owning and operating a local transit system itself or through a wholly owned nonprofit corporation.

(2) Any private entity providing transportation services for the transportation of people under contract or agreement, except general franchise agreements, with a public agency authorized to provide public transportation services, only for diesel fuel consumed while providing services under those contracts or agreements entered into subsequent to January 1, 1979.

(3) Any passenger stage corporation subject to the jurisdiction of the Public Utilities Commission when the motor vehicles of the passenger stage corporation are exclusively operated in urban or suburban areas or between cities in close proximity for the transportation of persons for hire, compensation, or profit. However, the exemption is not extended to any line or lines operated by the passenger stage corporation that exceed 50 miles of one-way route mileage.

(4) Any common carrier of passengers operating exclusively on any line or lines within the limits of a single city between fixed termini or over a regular route, 98 percent of whose operations, as measured by total route mileage operated, are exclusively within the limits of a single city, and who by reason thereof is not a passenger stage corporation subject to the jurisdiction of the Public Utilities Commission.

(5) Any school district, community college district, or county superintendent of schools owning, leasing, or operating buses for the purpose of transporting pupils to and from school and for other school or college activities involving pupils, including, but not limited to, field trips and athletic contests.

(6) Any private entity providing transportation services for the purposes specified in paragraph (5) under contract or agreement with a school district, community college district, or county superintendent of schools, only for diesel fuel consumed while providing services under those contracts or agreements entered into subsequent to September 30, 1984.

(b) "Exempt bus operation" as defined in subdivision (a), shall not be applicable to a charter-party carrier of passengers. The term "charter-party carrier of passengers" has the same meaning as that specified in Section 5360 of the Public Utilities Code and shall further include those transportation services described in subdivisions (a) and (e) of Section 5353 of the Public Utilities Code, if that transportation service is rendered as contract carriage and not as common carriage of passengers.

60040. "Exempt bus operator" includes any person that owns, operates, or controls an exempt bus operation.

60041. "Train operator" includes any person that owns, operates, or controls a diesel-powered train and is licensed as a railroad by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

60042. "Diesel-powered train" means any diesel-powered equipment or machinery that rides on rails, including equipment or machinery that transports passengers, freight, or a combination of both passengers and freight, and equipment or machinery that only carries freight or passengers of the operator thereof. Thus, the term includes a locomotive, work train, switching engine, and track maintenance machine.

CHAPTER 2. IMPOSITION OF TAX

60050. (a) A tax of eighteen cents ($0.18) is hereby imposed upon each gallon of diesel fuel subject to the tax in Sections 60051, 60052, and 60058.

(b) If the federal fuel tax is reduced below the rate of fifteen cents ($0.15) per gallon and federal financial allocations to this state for highway and exclusive public mass transit guideway purposes are reduced or eliminated correspondingly, the tax rate imposed by this section, on and after the date of the reduction, shall be increased by an amount so that the combined state and federal tax rate per gallon equals thirty-three cents ($0.33).

(c) If any person or entity is exempt or partially exempt from the federal fuel tax at the time of a reduction, the person or entity shall continue to be exempt under this section.

60050.1. (a) For the privilege of storing, for the purpose of removal, sales, or use, every wholesaler owning undyed diesel fuel on July 1, 1995, shall pay a tax of eighteen cents ($0.18) for each gallon of undyed diesel fuel according to the volumetric measure thereof, on which a tax has not been imposed under Part 3 (commencing with Section 8601) as in effect on June 30, 1995, and tax would have been imposed on any prior removal, entry, or sale of undyed diesel fuel had Sections 60050 to 60061, inclusive, applied to undyed diesel fuel for the period before July 1, 1995.

(b) For purposes of subdivision (a):

(1) "Storing" includes the possession in a storage facility, except an approved terminal or refinery, or a container of any kind, including the fuel tanks of motor vehicles, of undyed diesel fuel and the undyed diesel fuel purchased from and invoiced by the seller prior to July 1, 1995, and in transit on that date.

(2) "Owning" means having title to the undyed diesel fuel.

(3) "Wholesaler" means any person who sells diesel fuel in this state for resale to a retailer or to a person who is not a retailer and subsequently uses the diesel fuel and was required to be licensed under Part 3 (commencing with Section 8601) as a wholesaler as in effect on June 30, 1995.

60051. The tax specified in Section 60050 is imposed on the removal of diesel fuel in this state from a terminal if the diesel fuel is removed at the rack.

60052. The tax specified in Section 60050 is also imposed on all of the following:

(a) The removal of diesel fuel in this state from any refinery if either of the following applies:

(1) The removal is by bulk transfer and the refiner or the owner of the diesel fuel immediately before the removal is not a diesel fuel registrant.

(2) The removal is at the refinery rack.

(b) The entry of diesel fuel into this state for sale, consumption, use, or warehousing if either of the following applies:

(1) The entry is by bulk transfer and the enterer is not a diesel fuel registrant.

(2) The entry is not by bulk transfer.

(c) The removal of diesel fuel in this state to an unregistered person unless there was a prior taxable removal, entry, or sale of the diesel fuel.

(d) The removal or sale of blended diesel fuel in this state by the blender thereof. The number of gallons of blended diesel fuel subject to tax is the difference between the total number of gallons of blended diesel fuel removed or sold and the number of gallons of previously taxed diesel fuel used to produce the blended diesel fuel.

60053. Every refiner shall pay tax on the removal of diesel fuel from a refinery as provided in subdivision (a) of Section 60052.

60054. Every position holder shall pay the tax on the removal of diesel fuel from a terminal as defined under Section 60051.

60055. Any person that produces blended diesel fuel outside the bulk transfer/terminal system (the blender) shall pay tax as provided in subdivision (d) of Section 60052.

60056. The highway vehicle operator is liable for the backup tax imposed under Section 60058.

60057. The end seller of diesel fuel generally is jointly and severally liable for the backup tax imposed under Section 60058 if the end seller knows or has reason to know that the diesel fuel will be used in a diesel-powered highway vehicle.

60058. The tax specified in Section 60050 is imposed as a backup tax on the delivery in this state into the fuel tank of a diesel-powered highway vehicle of any of the following:

(a) Any diesel fuel that contains a dye.

(b) Any diesel fuel on which a claim for refund has been allowed.

(c) Any liquid on which tax has not been imposed by this part, Part 2 (commencing with Section 7301), or Part 3 (commencing with Section 8601).

60059. The terminal operator is jointly and severally liable for the tax imposed under Section 60051 if both of the following apply:

(a) The position holder with respect to the diesel fuel is a person other than the terminal operator and is not a diesel fuel registrant.

(b) The terminal operator has not met the conditions of Section 60060.

60060. A terminal operator is not liable for tax under Section 60059, if at the time of the removal, all of the following apply:

(a) The terminal operator is a diesel fuel registrant.

(b) The terminal operator has an unexpired notification certificate from the position holder as required by the Internal Revenue Service.

(c) The terminal operator has no reason to believe that any information in the certificate is false.

60061. Every enterer shall pay tax on diesel fuel imported into this state as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 60052.

60062. The terminal operator is jointly and severally liable for the tax imposed under Section 60051 if, in connection with the removal of diesel fuel that is not dyed or marked in accordance with the United States Environmental Protection Agency or Internal Revenue Service requirements, the terminal operator provides any person with any bill of lading, shipping paper, or similar document indicating that the diesel fuel is dyed or marked in accordance with the United States Environmental Protection Agency or Internal Revenue Service requirements.

CHAPTER 3. EXEMPTIONS

60100. (a) The provisions of this part requiring the payment of taxes do not apply to any of the following:

(1) The removal from a terminal or refinery of, or the entry or sale of, any diesel fuel if all of the following apply:

(A) The person otherwise liable for tax is a diesel fuel registrant.

(B) In the case of a removal from a terminal, the terminal is an approved terminal.

(C) The diesel fuel satisfies the dyeing and marking requirements of Section 60101.

(2) Any entry or removal from a terminal or refinery of taxable diesel fuel transferred in bulk to a refinery or terminal if the persons involved (including the terminal operator) are registered.

(3) The removal of diesel fuel if all of the following apply:

(A) The diesel fuel is removed by railroad car from an approved refinery and is received at an approved terminal.

(B) The refinery and the terminal are operated by the same diesel fuel registrant.

(C) The refinery is not served by pipeline (other than a pipeline for the receipt of crude oil) or vessel.

(4) Diesel fuel which, pursuant to the contract of sale, is required to be shipped and is shipped to a point outside of this state by a supplier by means of any of the following:

(A) Facilities operated by the supplier.

(B) Delivery by the supplier to a carrier, customs broker, or forwarding agent, whether hired by the purchaser or not, for shipment to the out-of-state point.

(C) Delivery by the supplier to any vessel clearing from a port of this state for a port outside of this state and actually exported from this state in the vessel.

(5) Backup tax does not apply to delivery in this state of diesel fuel into the fuel tank of a diesel-powered highway vehicle as provided in Section 60058 for any of the following:

(A) Use on a farm for farming purposes.

(B) Use in an exempt bus operation.

(C) Use in a diesel-powered highway vehicle that is operated off the highway.

(6) Diesel fuel sold by credit card certified by the United States Department of State to any consulate officer or consulate employee of a foreign government who is not engaged in any private occupation for gain within this state, who uses the diesel fuel in a motor vehicle which is registered with the United States Department of State, and whose government has done either of the following:

(A) Entered into a treaty with the United States providing for the exemption of its representatives from national, state, and municipal taxes.

(B) Granted a similar exemption to representatives of the United States.

(7) Diesel fuel sold by a supplier to a train operator for use in a diesel-powered train or for other off-highway use and the supplier has on hand an exemption certificate from the train operator.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Carrier" means a person or firm engaged in the business of transporting for compensation property owned by other persons, and includes both common and contract carriers.

(2) "Forwarding agent" means a person or firm engaged in the business of preparing property for shipment or arranging for its shipment.

60101. (a) Diesel fuel that is required to be dyed satisfies the dyeing requirement of this part if it meets the dyeing requirements of the United States Environmental Protection Agency and the Internal Revenue Service, including, but not limited to, requirements respecting type, dosage, and timing.

(b) Marking shall meet the marking requirements of the Internal Revenue Service.

60102. Notice is required with respect to dyed diesel fuel. In general, a notice stating: "DYED DIESEL FUEL, NONTAXABLE USE ONLY, PENALTY FOR TAXABLE USE" shall be:

(a) Provided by the terminal operator to any person that receives dyed diesel fuel at a terminal rack of that terminal operator.

(b) Provided by any seller of dyed diesel fuel to its buyer if the diesel fuel is located outside the bulk transfer/terminal system and is not sold from a retail pump posted in accordance with the requirements of subdivision (c).

(c) Posted by a seller on any retail pump where it sells dyed diesel fuel for use by its buyer.

60103. The form of notice required under subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 60102, shall be provided by the time of the removal or sale and shall appear on shipping papers, bills of lading, and invoices accompanying the sale or removal of the dyed diesel fuel.

60106.1. In order to issue an exemption certificate as provided in Section 60106, the train operator shall obtain a permit from the board. Every application for a permit shall be made upon a form prescribed by the board and shall set forth the name under which the applicant transacts or intends to transact business, the location of his or her place or places of business, and such other information as the board may require. The application shall be signed by the owner if a natural person; in the case of an association or partnership, by a member or partner; in the case of a corporation, by an executive officer or some person specifically authorized by the corporation to sign the application.

60106.2. If a purchaser gives a Section 60106 exemption certificate to a supplier that the diesel fuel purchased will be used in a manner or for a purpose entitling the supplier to regard the removal as exempt from the taxes as provided in paragraph (7) of subdivision (a) of Section 60100 and sells the diesel fuel or uses the diesel fuel in some other manner or for some other purpose, the purchaser shall be liable for payment of the tax under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 60050) of this part as if the purchaser were a supplier of the diesel fuel at the time of that sale or use.

60106.3. (a) Any person, including any officer or employee of a corporation, who gives a Section 60106 exemption certificate for diesel fuel that he or she knows at the time of purchase is not to be used by him or her or the corporation in the manner or for the purpose entitling the exemption for the purpose of evading payment to the supplier of the amount of the tax applicable to the transaction is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable as provided in Section 60706 or a felony punishable as provided in Section 60707.

(b) Any person, including any officer or employee of a corporation, who gives a certificate for diesel fuel pursuant to Section 60106 that he or she knows at the time of purchase is not to be used by him or her or the corporation in the manner or for the purpose entitling the exemption is liable to the state for the amount of tax that would be due if he or she had not given that certificate. In addition to the tax, the person shall be liable to the state for a penalty of 25 percent of the tax or five hundred dollars ($500), whichever is greater, for each purchase made for personal gain or to evade the payment of taxes.

60107. (a) For the privilege of purchasing diesel fuel exempt from taxes under paragraph (7) of subdivision (a) of Section 60100, each train operator must make a report to the board showing:

(1) The name and permit number of the supplier from whom it purchased undyed diesel fuel and the number of gallons of undyed diesel fuel purchased that is exempt from the tax.

(2) Any other information required by the board.

(b) Each train operator shall prepare and file with the board on forms prescribed by the board a report showing the information in subdivision (a) during each quarterly reporting period. The report shall be filed with the board on or before the last day of the calendar month following the close of the quarterly period to which it relates. To facilitate the administration of this part, the board may require the filing of these reports for other than quarterly periods.

(c) The board may revoke the train operator's permit provided for in Section 60106.1 due to the filing of inaccurate or improper reports.

CHAPTER 4. INTERSTATE TRUCKERS

Article 1. Definitions

60110. Except where the context otherwise requires, the definitions given in this chapter govern the construction of this chapter and this part.

60111. "Interstate trucker" includes any person who uses diesel fuel in the operation of a qualified motor vehicle in this state and who operates the qualified motor vehicle within and without this state or the United States.

60112. "Qualified motor vehicle" means a motor vehicle used, designed, or maintained for transportation of persons or property that (a) has two axles and a gross vehicle weight or registered gross vehicle weight exceeding 26,000 pounds or 12,000 kilograms, (b) has three or more axles regardless of weight, or (c) is used in combination, when the weight of that combination exceeds 26,000 pounds or 12,000 kilograms gross vehicle weight. "Qualified motor vehicle" does not include recreational vehicles.

60113. "Recreational vehicle" means motor vehicles such as motor homes, pickup trucks with attached campers, and buses when used exclusively for personal pleasure by an individual. In order to qualify as a recreational vehicle, the motor vehicle shall not be used in connection with any business endeavor.

60114. "Diesel vendor" means every person who sells diesel fuel in this state and places, or causes to be placed, the diesel fuel into a fuel tank of a qualified motor vehicle and at the time of sale, collects the diesel fuel tax from an interstate trucker.

Article 2. Imposition of Tax

60115. (a) For the privilege of using diesel fuel in a qualified motor vehicle in this state by interstate truckers, there is hereby imposed upon any interstate trucker for each gallon of diesel fuel used, a tax of eighteen cents ($0.18).

(b) If the federal fuel tax is reduced below the rate of fifteen cents ($0.15) per gallon and federal financial allocations to this state for highway and exclusive public mass transit guideway purposes are reduced or eliminated correspondingly, the tax rate imposed by this section, on and after the date of the reduction, shall be increased by an amount so that the combined state and federal tax rate per gallon equals thirty-three cents ($0.33).

(c) If any person or entity is exempt or partially exempt from the federal fuel tax at the time of a reduction, the person or entity shall continue to be exempt under this section.

Article 3. Licenses for Interstate Truckers

60120. Every person operating a qualified motor vehicle in interstate commerce shall apply to the board for a license on forms prescribed by the board.

60121. Before granting a license authorizing a person to engage in business as an interstate trucker, the board may require the person to file with the board security pursuant to Section 60401. The license issued to any interstate trucker is not transferable and is valid until canceled or revoked.

60122. The board may authorize the issuance of diesel fuel trip permits to holders of trip permits issued under Section 4004 of the Vehicle Code. The diesel fuel trip permit shall be valid for the same period as the trip permit issued under Section 4004 of the Vehicle Code. The fee for issuance of a diesel fuel trip permit is thirty dollars ($30). Other provisions of this article and Article 1 (commencing with Section 60201) of Chapter 6 shall not apply to the holder of a diesel fuel trip permit who uses only diesel fuel brought into this state in the fuel tank of the qualified motor vehicle and diesel fuel purchased in this state with the diesel fuel tax paid and delivered into the fuel tank of the qualified motor vehicle. Any diesel fuel tax paid to a diesel vendor for diesel fuel taken out of the state in the fuel tank of a qualified motor vehicle operated under a diesel fuel trip permit shall not be refunded to the holder of the diesel fuel trip permit, notwithstanding any other provision of this part.

The board may deny the issuance of more than one diesel fuel trip permit for any interstate trucker determined by the board to bring vehicles into this state on a regular, ongoing basis. The board shall maintain a file of all permits issued under this section for the purpose of determining the effectiveness of the program and the appropriateness of the fee. The board may enter into an interagency agreement with the Department of Motor Vehicles providing for the issuance of diesel fuel trip permits by that department.

Article 4. Administrative Provisions

60128. All of the administrative provisions of this part not inconsistent with this chapter shall be applicable to the administration of the tax imposed by Section 60115.

CHAPTER 5. LICENSES

Article 1. Licenses for Suppliers

60131. Every person, before becoming a supplier, shall apply to the board for a license authorizing the person to engage in business as a supplier. A supplier's license shall be issued only to a person who is a supplier of diesel fuel within the meaning of the word "supplier" as defined in Section 60033. It is unlawful for any person to be a supplier without first securing a license.

60132. Applications shall be made on forms prescribed, prepared, and furnished by the board.

60133. Before granting a license authorizing a person to engage in business as a supplier, the board may require the person to file with the board security pursuant to Section 60401. The license issued to any supplier is not transferable and is valid until canceled or revoked.

Article 2. License for Exempt Bus Operator

60141. Every person before becoming an exempt bus operator, shall apply for a license authorizing the person to engage in business as an exempt bus operator. A license shall be issued only to a person who is an exempt bus operator as defined in Section 60040. It is unlawful for any person to be an exempt bus operator without first securing a license.

60142. Application shall be made on forms to be prescribed, prepared, and furnished by the board.

60143. Before granting a license authorizing a person to engage in business as an exempt bus operator, the board may require the person to file with the board security pursuant to Section 60401. The license issued to any exempt bus operator is not transferable and is valid until canceled or revoked.

Article 3. License for Ultimate Vendor

60151. (a) A person shall be licensed if that person is engaged in the activity of an "ultimate vendor" of diesel fuel. It is unlawful for any person to act as an ultimate vendor without first securing a license.

(b) If a person is a supplier and an ultimate vendor, the supplier's license may cover the ultimate vendor activities.

60152. Applications shall be made on forms prescribed, prepared, and furnished by the board.

60153. The board shall license an applicant as an ultimate vendor of diesel fuel only if the board determines that the applicant meets the necessary requirements and is satisfied with the filing, deposit, payment, and claim history for all state taxes of the applicant.

Article 4. License for Highway Vehicle Operator and End Seller

60161. Every highway vehicle operator and every end seller is required to be licensed at any time they incur liability for the backup tax under Section 60058. The highway vehicle operator and end seller shall apply for a license authorizing the person to report the backup tax. A license shall be issued only to a highway vehicle operator who is subject to the backup tax in Section 60056 or to an end seller who is subject to the backup tax in Section 60057.

60162. Applications shall be made on forms prescribed, prepared, and furnished by the board.

60163. Before granting a license authorizing a person to report the backup tax as a highway vehicle operator or an end seller, the board may require the person to file with the board security pursuant to Section 60401. The license issued to any highway vehicle operator or end seller is not transferable and is valid until canceled or revoked.

Article 5. Denial of License

60171. The board may refuse to issue any license in either of the following circumstances:

(a) If the application therefor is filed by an applicant who formerly held any license under this part that, prior to the time of filing the application, has been revoked for cause by the board.

(b) If the board determines that the application therefor is not filed in good faith or made by the real person in interest.

60172. Prior to refusal specified in Section 60171, the board shall grant the applicant a hearing and shall give him or her at least 10 days' written notice of the time and place thereof.

60173. The notice specified in Section 60172 shall be addressed to the applicant at his or her address as it appears in the records of the board, and shall be given in the manner prescribed in Section 60311 for giving notice of a deficiency determination.

Article 6. Revocation of License

60180. The board may revoke the license of any person who refuses or neglects to comply with any provision of this part or any rule or regulation of the board prescribed and adopted under this part.

60181. The board may revoke any of the following licenses:

(a) Any supplier's license held by a person who does not engage in, or who discontinues, the removal, entry, or sale of diesel fuel, producing of blended diesel fuel, owning or holding inventory position of diesel fuel, or owning or operating a refinery or terminal as any of the following:

(1) A blender, as defined in Section 60012.

(2) An enterer, as defined in Section 60013.

(3) A position holder, as defined in Section 60010.

(4) A refiner, as defined in Section 60011.

(5) A terminal operator, as defined in Section 60009.

(6) A throughputter, as defined in Section 60035.

(b) Any interstate trucker's license held by a person who does not engage in, or who discontinues, using diesel fuel as an "interstate trucker" as defined in Section 60111.

(c) Any ultimate vendor's license held by a person who does not engage in, or who discontinues, selling undyed diesel fuel as an "ultimate vendor" as defined in Section 60036.

(d) Any exempt bus operator's license held by a person who does not engage in, or who discontinues, using diesel fuel as an "exempt bus operator" as defined in Section 60040.

(e) Any highway vehicle operator's or end seller's license held by a person who does not engage in, or who discontinues, the delivery of diesel fuel subject to the backup tax into fuel tanks of diesel-powered highway vehicles as a highway vehicle operator as defined in Section 60027 or as an end seller as defined in Section 60034.

60182. Prior to revoking any license, the board shall notify the licensee to show cause, within 10 days after the notice is given, why his or her license should not be revoked. The notice shall be given in the manner prescribed in Section 60311 for giving notice of a deficiency determination.

60183. The board may cancel any license issued under this part immediately upon surrender thereof, but before revoking a license, the board shall allow the person an opportunity to show cause as provided in Section 60182.

60184. Upon revocation or cancellation of the license of the person or his or her cessation of business, all diesel fuel remaining in his or her possession or ownership shall be deemed removed, entered, sold, delivered, or used and subject to jeopardy determination as provided in Section 60330 if, in the judgment of the board, it is necessary to ensure payment of the tax with respect to the removal, entry, sale, delivery, or use of the diesel fuel.

60185. Subsequent to the revocation of the license of a person, the board shall reinstate the permit when the person pays the amount of tax determined, together with interest and penalties, fully complies with this part, and pays a fee of fifty dollars ($50) to the board for reinstatement. The fee shall not be subject to refund except as provided in Section 60521.

60186. It is unlawful for any person to operate in this state after a license has been revoked.

Article 7. Licensing of Locations

60190. Every person required to be licensed by the board shall provide the board with the names and addresses of all agents operating in this state, the location of all offices or other places of business in this state, and any other information as the board may require.

CHAPTER 6. DETERMINATIONS AND PAYMENTS

Article 1. Returns and Payments

60201. Each supplier shall prepare and file with the board on forms prescribed by the board a return showing the total number of gallons of diesel fuel removed, entered, or sold by him or her within this state during each calendar month, or the monthly period ended during that calendar month as the board may authorize, the amount of tax due for the month covered by the return, and any other information as the board deems necessary for the proper administration of this part. The person shall file the return on or before the last day of the calendar month following the monthly period to which it relates, together with a remittance payable to the board for the amount of tax due for that period, less whatever amounts may have been paid theretofore for the same period because of weekly returns. To facilitate the administration of this part, the board may require the filing of the returns for other than monthly periods.

60201.1. Each person subject to the tax imposed under Section 60050.1, on or before September 30, 1995, shall prepare and file with the board, on forms prescribed by the board, a return showing the total number of gallons of undyed diesel fuel owned by the person on July 1, 1995, for which a tax has not been imposed under Part 3 (commencing with Section 8601) as in effect on June 30, 1995, the amount of the tax imposed, and any other information that the board deems necessary for the proper administration of this part.

The return shall be accompanied by a remittance payable to the board in the amount of tax due.

60202. (a) Each interstate trucker shall prepare and file with the board on forms prescribed by the board a return showing the amount of diesel fuel used during the quarterly reporting period by the interstate trucker in this state, the amount of any tax due, and any other information as the board may require for the administration of this part. The return shall be filed with the board on or before the last day of the calendar month following the close of the quarterly period to which it relates, together with a remittance payable to the board of the amount of tax due. To facilitate the administration of this part, the board may require the filing of returns for other than quarterly periods.

(b) An interstate trucker who has paid diesel fuel tax to a diesel vendor in this state shall be allowed a credit on his or her return for the tax paid to the diesel vendor.

60203. (a) Each throughputter shall prepare and make a return showing the following:

(1) The name and permit number of the operator of each terminal at which it holds an inventory position in taxable diesel fuel.

(2) Any other information required by the board.

(b) Each throughputter shall prepare and file with the board on forms prescribed by the board a return showing the information in subdivision (a) during each calendar month, or the monthly period ended during that calendar month as the board may authorize. The person shall file the return on or before the last day of the calendar month following the monthly period to which it relates. To facilitate the administration of this part, the board may require the filing of the returns for other than monthly periods.

60204. Each terminal operator shall file with the board a copy of any return required to be filed with the Internal Revenue Service pursuant to Section 48.4101-4T of Title 26 of the Code of Federal Regulations. The copy of the return shall be filed no later than 10 days after the original filing of the federal return.

60205. Each exempt bus operator shall prepare and file with the board on forms prescribed by the board a return showing the total number of gallons of diesel fuel used in the exempt bus operation by him or her within this state during each calendar month, or the monthly period ended during that calendar month as the board may authorize, the amount of tax pursuant to Section 60502.2 due for the month covered by the return, and any other information as the board deems necessary for the proper administration of this part. The person shall file the return on or before the last day of the calendar month following the monthly period to which it relates, together with a remittance payable to the board for the amount of tax due for that period. To facilitate the administration of this part, the board may require the filing of the returns for other than monthly periods.

60207. Any person who fails to file a report or return or to pay the amount of tax shown to be due by that person's return on or before the last day of the month following the reporting period to which it relates, shall pay a penalty of 10 percent of the tax or fifty dollars ($50), whichever is greater, together with interest on that tax at the modified adjusted rate per month, or fraction thereof, established pursuant to Section 6591.5, from the date on which the tax became due and payable to the state until the date of payment.

60208. The board for good cause may extend for a period not to exceed one month, the time for making any report or return or paying any tax required under this part. The extension may be granted at any time provided a request therefor is filed with the board within or prior to the period for which the extension may be granted.

Any person to whom an extension is granted shall pay, in addition to the tax, interest at the modified adjusted rate per month, or fraction thereof, established pursuant to Section 6591.5, from the date on which the tax would have been due without the extension to the date of payment.

60209. If the board finds that a person's failure to make a timely report, return, or payment is due to reasonable cause and circumstances beyond the person's control, and occurred notwithstanding the exercise of ordinary care and the absence of willful neglect, the person may be relieved of the penalty provided by Sections 60207, 60301, 60338, and 60355.

Any person seeking to be relieved of the penalty shall file with the board a statement under penalty of perjury setting forth the facts upon which he or she bases the claim for relief.

60210. (a) If the board finds that a person's failure to make a timely return or payment is due to the person's reasonable reliance on written advice from the board, the person may be relieved of the taxes imposed by this part and any penalty or interest added thereto.

(b) For purposes of this section, a person's failure to make a timely return or payment shall be considered to be due to reasonable reliance on written advice from the board, only if the board finds that all of the following conditions are satisfied:

(1) The person requested in writing that the board advise him or her whether a particular activity or transaction is subject to tax under this part. The specific facts and circumstances of the activity or transaction shall be fully described in the request.

(2) The board responded in writing to the person regarding the written request for advice, stating whether or not the described activity or transaction is subject to tax, or stating the conditions under which the activity or transaction is subject to tax.

(3) The liability for taxes applied to a particular activity or transaction that occurred before either of the following:

(A) Before the board rescinded or modified the advice so given, by sending written notice to the person of the rescinded or modified advice.

(B) Before a change in statutory or constitutional law, a change in the board's regulations, or a final decision of a court, that renders the board's earlier written advice no longer valid.

(c) Any person seeking relief under this section shall file with the board all of the following:

(1) A copy of the person's written request to the board and a copy of the board's written advice.

(2) A statement under penalty of perjury setting forth the facts on which the claim for relief is based.

(3) Any other information that the board may require.

(d) Only the person making the written request shall be entitled to rely on the board's written advice to that person.

60211. If the board finds that a person's failure to make a timely return or payment was due to a disaster, and occurred notwithstanding the exercise of ordinary care and the absence of willful neglect, the person may be relieved of the interest provided by Sections 60207, 60208, and 60302.

Any person seeking to be relieved of the interest shall file with the board a statement under penalty of perjury setting forth the facts upon which he or she bases the claim for relief.

Article 2. Determination If No Return Made

60301. If any person fails, neglects, or refuses to file the return within the time prescribed by this chapter, the board shall estimate the diesel fuel removals, entries, sales, deliveries, or use for the period for which he or she made no return within the time required. Upon the basis of this estimate, the board shall determine the tax due from the person, and shall add to the tax a penalty of 10 percent thereof. The board may make a determination for more than one period and may make one or more determinations for the same period.

60302. Each determination so made, exclusive of penalties, shall bear interest at the modified adjusted rate per month, or fraction thereof, established pursuant to Section 6591.5, from the last day of the month following the reporting period for which the amount or any portion thereof should have been returned until the date of payment.

60303. If the neglect or refusal of a person to file a return is due to fraud or intent to evade the tax, a penalty of 25 percent of the tax shall be added thereto in addition to the 10-percent penalty provided in Section 60301.

60304. Promptly after making its determination, the board shall give to the delinquent person written notice of the estimate, including tax, interest, and penalty. The notice shall be given in the manner prescribed in Section 60311 for giving notice of a deficiency determination.

Article 3. Deficiency Determinations

60310. If the board is not satisfied with the return made by any person, it may make a deficiency determination of the tax required to be paid by the person based upon information contained in the return or upon any information in the possession of the board. The board may make a determination for more than one period and may make one or more determinations for the same period. When a business is discontinued, a determination may be made at any time thereafter within the period specified in Section 60315, as to liability arising out of that business, irrespective of whether the determination is issued prior to the due date of the liability as otherwise specified in this part.

60311. The board shall give the person written notice of its determination. The notice shall be placed in a sealed envelope, with postage paid, addressed to the person at that person's address as it appears in the records of the board. The giving of notice shall be deemed complete at the time of the deposit of the notice in the United States Post Office, or a mailbox, sub-post office, substation, or mail chute or other facility maintained or provided by the United States Postal Service, without extension of time for any reason. In lieu of mailing, a notice may be served personally by delivering to the person to be served and service shall be deemed complete at the time of that delivery. Personal service to a corporation may be made by delivery of a notice to any person designated in the Code of Civil Procedure to be served for the corporation with summons and complaint in a civil action.

60312. If any part of the deficiency for which a deficiency determination is made is due to negligence or intentional disregard of this part or authorized rules and regulations, a penalty of 10 percent of the amount of the determination shall be added thereto.

60313. If any part of the deficiency for which a deficiency determination is made is due to fraud or an intent to evade the tax, a penalty of 25 percent of the amount of the determination shall be added thereto.

60314. All deficiency determinations, exclusive of penalty, shall bear interest at the modified adjusted rate per month, or fraction thereof, established pursuant to Section 6591.5, from the last day of the calendar month following the reporting period for which the amount or any portion thereof should have been returned until the date of payment.

60315. Except in the case of fraud, intent to evade this part or authorized rules and regulations, or failure to make a return, every notice of a deficiency determination shall be given to the person within three years after the last day of the calendar month following the reporting period for which the amount is proposed to be determined or within three years after the return is filed, whichever period expires later. In the case of a failure to make a return, the notice of determination shall be mailed within eight years after the date the return was due.

60316. In the case of a deficiency arising under this part during the lifetime of a decedent, a notice of deficiency determination shall be mailed within four months after written request therefor, in the form required by the board, by the fiduciary of the estate or trust or by any other person liable for the tax or any portion thereof.

60317. If before the expiration of the time prescribed in Section 60315 for the mailing of a notice of deficiency determination the taxpayer has consented in writing to the mailing of the notice after that time, the notice may be mailed at any time prior to the expiration of the period agreed upon. The period so agreed upon may be extended by subsequent agreements in writing made before the expiration of the period previously agreed upon.

Article 4. Jeopardy Determinations and Weekly Payments

60330. If the board believes that the collection of any amount of tax imposed under this part will be jeopardized by delay, it shall thereupon make a determination of the amount of tax, noting that fact upon the determination. The amount determined is immediately due and payable.

60331. If the amount of the tax, interest, and penalty specified in the jeopardy determination is not paid within 10 days after service upon the person of notice of the determination, the determination becomes final, unless a petition for redetermination is filed within 10 days, and the delinquency penalty and interest provided in Article 5 (commencing with Section 60350) shall attach to the amount specified.

60332. The person against whom a jeopardy determination is made may petition for the redetermination thereof pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 60350). That person shall, however, file the petition for redetermination with the board within 10 days after the service upon that person of notice of the determination. At the time of filing the petition for redetermination, the person shall deposit with the board that security as the board may deem necessary to ensure compliance with this part.

60333. (a) In accordance with rules and regulations as the board may prescribe, the person against whom a jeopardy determination is made may apply for an administrative hearing for one or more of the following purposes:

(1) To establish that the determination is excessive.

(2) To establish that the sale of property that may be seized after issuance of the jeopardy determination or any part thereof shall be delayed pending the administrative hearing because the sale would result in irreparable injury to the person.

(3) To request the release of all or a part of the property to the person.

(4) To request a stay of collection activities.

(b) The application shall be filed within 30 days after service of the notice of jeopardy determination and shall be in writing and state the specific factual and legal grounds upon which it is founded. No security need be posted to file the application and to obtain this hearing. However, if the person does not deposit within the 10-day period prescribed in Section 60332 that security as the board may deem necessary to ensure compliance with this part, the filing of the application shall not operate as a stay of collection activities, except sale of property seized after issuance of the jeopardy determination. Upon a showing of good cause for failure to file a timely application for administrative hearing, the board may allow a filing of the application and grant the person an administrative hearing. The filing of an application pursuant to this section shall not affect provisions of Section 60331 relating to the finality date of the determination or to penalty or interest.

60334. If the board deems it necessary in order to ensure payment to the state of the amount of taxes due from any supplier under this part, it may require the supplier to make returns and payments of taxes on a weekly basis. The supplier shall then file a return each Tuesday showing the total number of gallons of diesel fuel removed, entered or sold by him or her during the week ending the Saturday next preceding, the amount of tax due for that week, and any other information as the board deems necessary for the proper administration of this article. The return shall be accompanied by a remittance payable to the board for the amount of tax due for the period covered.

60335. A supplier required to make weekly payments is not relieved of the duty of filing the verified monthly return required by Article 1 (commencing with Section 60201).

60336. Whenever any supplier who is required to pay tax in weekly installments as provided by Section 60334 fails to make a weekly return or to pay the full amount in accordance with the terms and conditions prescribed by the board, the supplier's license may be revoked forthwith.

60337. If a supplier fails to make a weekly return or to pay any weekly installment of the tax, or any part thereof, pursuant to the requirement imposed upon the supplier under Section 60334, the full amount of the installment becomes immediately due and payable. The board shall thereupon make a jeopardy determination under Section 60330 and the board shall forthwith collect the tax due from the supplier in the manner prescribed by Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 60201) and Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 60401). All provisions of those chapters, where relevant, apply to collections required to be made under this article.

60338. If any supplier fails to pay any weekly installment of tax shown to be due by the supplier's weekly return on the Tuesday when required to be paid, a penalty of 5 percent shall be added thereto. In addition, if any weekly installment of tax remains unpaid on the last day of the calendar month following the month during which the last of the removals, entries, or sales occurred on which the weekly installment was levied, a penalty of 10 percent of the installment, exclusive of penalties, shall be added thereto.

The weekly installment shall be deemed not paid or unpaid on any particular day:

(a) If not paid prior to 5 p.m. of that day, when paid in person.

(b) If the envelope in which the remittance is enclosed bears a post office cancellation mark dated later than that day, when paid by mail.

60339. All jeopardy determinations including those made under Section 60337, exclusive of penalty, shall bear interest at the modified adjusted rate per month, or fraction thereof, established pursuant to Section 6591.5, from the last day of the month following the reporting period for which the amount or any portion thereof should have been returned until the date of payment.

60340. Any notice required by this article may be served personally or by mail in the manner prescribed for service of notice of a deficiency determination.

Article 5. Redeterminations

60350. Any person against whom a determination is made by the board under Article 2 (commencing with Section 60301) and Article 3 (commencing with Section 60310) may petition for a redetermination within 30 days after the date the notice thereof is given to him or her. If a petition for redetermination is not filed within the 30-day period, the determination becomes final at the expiration of the period.

60351. Every petition for redetermination shall be in writing and shall state the specific grounds upon which the petition is founded. The petition may be amended to state additional grounds at any time prior to the date on which the board issues its order or decision upon the petition for redetermination.

60352. If a petition for redetermination is filed within the 30-day period, the board shall reconsider the determination and, if the person has so requested in his or her petition, shall grant him or her an oral hearing and shall give 10 days' notice of the time and place of the hearing. Service of notice shall be as prescribed by Section 60173. The board may continue the hearing from time to time as may be necessary.

60353. The board may decrease or increase the amount of the determination before it becomes final, but the amount may be increased only if a claim for the increase is asserted by the board at or before the hearing. Unless the penalty imposed by Section 60303, 60313, or 60361 applies to the amount of the determination as originally made or as increased, the claim for increase must be asserted within eight years after the date the return for the period for which the increase is asserted was due.

60354. The order or decision of the board upon a petition for redetermination becomes final 30 days after the giving of notice thereof to the person as prescribed by Section 60173.

60355. All determinations made by the board under this chapter are due and payable at the time they become final. If they are not paid when due and payable, a penalty of 10 percent of the amount of the determination, exclusive of interest and penalties, shall be added thereto. Payment shall be made in the form of a remittance payable to the board and shall be filed with the board together with a copy of the notice of determination which the board shall furnish to the person for that purpose.

60356. In making a determination, the board may offset overpayments for a period or periods, together with interest on the overpayments, against underpayments for another period or periods, against penalties, and against the interest on the underpayments. The interest on the underpayments and overpayments shall be computed in the manner set forth in Sections 60314 and 60524.

Article 6. Payment by Unlicensed Persons

60360. If any person becomes a supplier, exempt bus operator, highway vehicle operator, end seller, or interstate trucker without first securing a license, the tax, and applicable penalties and interest, if any, become immediately due and payable on account of all diesel fuel removed, entered, sold, delivered, or used by him or her.

60361. The board shall forthwith ascertain as best it may the amount of the diesel fuel removed, entered, sold, delivered, or used and shall determine immediately the tax on that amount, adding to the tax a penalty of 25 percent of the amount of tax or five hundred dollars ($500), whichever is greater, and shall give the unlicensed person notice of this determination as prescribed by Section 60173. However, where the board determines that the failure to secure a license was due to reasonable cause, the penalty may be waived. Sections 60331 and 60332 shall be applicable with respect to the finality of the determination and the right of the unlicensed person to petition for a redetermination.

Any person seeking to be relieved of the penalty shall file with the board a statement under penalty of perjury setting forth the facts upon which he or she bases the claim for relief.

60362. The board shall forthwith collect the tax, penalty, and interest due from the unlicensed person by seizure and sale of property in the manner prescribed for the collection of a delinquent monthly tax.

60363. At the request of the board, the Attorney General shall commence and prosecute to final determination an action at law to collect the tax, penalty, and interest, or any part thereof, determined against an unlicensed person.

60364. In the suit, a copy of the jeopardy determination certified by the board shall be prima facie evidence that the unlicensed person is indebted to the state in the amount of the tax, penalties, and interest computed as prescribed by Section 60339.

60365. The foregoing remedies of the state are cumulative.

60366. No action taken pursuant to this article relieves the unlicensed person in any way from the penal provisions of this part.

CHAPTER 7. COLLECTION OF TAX

Article 1. Security for Tax

60401. The board, whenever it deems it necessary to ensure compliance with this part or any rule or regulation adopted under this part, may require any person to deposit with it such security as it may determine appropriate. The amount of the security shall be fixed by the board but shall not be more than four times the estimated average monthly tax liability of the person. The total amount of security may not be in excess of one million dollars ($1,000,000) when the person has established to the satisfaction of the board that this security, together with property to which the lien imposed by Section 60445 attaches, is sufficient security to ensure payment of taxes equivalent to four times the estimated average monthly tax liability of the person. The amount of the security may be increased or decreased by the board at any time. Any security in the form of cash or insured deposits in banks and savings and loan institutions shall be held by the board in trust to be used solely in the manner provided for this section and Section 60406. Any security in the form of a bond or bonds shall be duly executed by an admitted surety insurer, payable to the state, conditioned upon faithful performance of all the requirements of this part, and expressly providing for the payment of all taxes, penalties, and other obligations of the person arising out of this part.

60402. If any person is delinquent in the payment of any obligation imposed under this part, or in the event a determination has been made against a person that remains unpaid, the board may, not later than three years after the payment becomes delinquent, or within 10 years after the last recording or filing of a notice of state tax lien under Section 7171 of the Government Code, give notice thereof, personally or by first-class mail to all persons, including any officer or department of the state or any political subdivision or agency of the state, having in their possession or under their control any credits or other personal property belonging to the person, or owing any debts to the person. In the case of any state officer, department or agency, the notice shall be given to the officer, department or agency prior to the time it presents the claim of the delinquent taxpayer to the Controller.

60403. After receiving the notice, the persons so notified shall not transfer nor make any other disposition of the credits, other personal property, or debts in their possession or under their control at the time they receive the notice until the board consents to a transfer or disposition or until 60 days elapse after the receipt of the notice, whichever period expires earlier.

60404. All persons so notified shall forthwith after receipt of the notice advise the board of all credits, other personal property, or debts in their possession, under their control, or owing by them. If the notice seeks to prevent the transfer or other disposition of a deposit in a bank or other credits or personal property in the possession or under the control of a bank, the notice to be effective shall state the amount, interest and penalty due from the person and shall be delivered or mailed to the branch or office of the bank at which the deposit is carried or at which such credits or personal property is held. Notwithstanding any other provision, with respect to a deposit in a bank or other credits or personal property in the possession or under the control of a bank, the notice shall be effective with respect to an amount not in excess of two times the amount, interest and penalty due from the person.

60405. If, during the effective period of the notice to withhold, any person so notified makes any transfer or disposition of the property or debts required to be withheld, to the extent of the value of the property or the amount of the debts thus transferred or paid, he or she shall be liable to the state for any indebtedness due under this part from the person with respect to whose obligation the notice was given if solely by reason of that transfer or disposition the state is unable to recover the indebtedness of the person with respect to whose obligation the notice was given.

60406. If, at the time a person ceases to operate under this part, the board holds a security pursuant to Section 60401 in the form of cash, or insured deposits in banks or savings and loan institutions, the security when applied to the account of the taxpayer shall be deemed to be a payment on account of any liability of the taxpayer to the board on the date the person ceases to operate under this part.

60407. (a) Subject to the limitations in subdivisions (b) and (c), the board may by notice of levy, served personally or by first-class mail, require all persons having in their possession, or under their control, any credits or other personal property belonging to a person liable for any amount under this part to withhold from those credits or other personal property the amount of any tax, interest, or penalties due from that person, or the amount of any liability incurred by him or her under this part, and to transmit the amount withheld to the board at such times as it may designate.

(b) The person served shall continue to withhold pursuant to the notice of levy until the amount specified in the notice, including accrued interest, has been paid in full, until the notice is withdrawn, or until one year from the date the notice is received, whichever occurs first.

(c) The amount required to be withheld is the lesser of the following:

(1) The amount due stated on the notice.

(2) The amount of each payment due or becoming due to the person liable during the period of the levy.

(d) For the purposes of this section, "payment" does not include earnings as that term is defined in subdivision (a) of Section 706.011 of the Code of Civil Procedure or funds in a deposit account as defined in Section 9105 of the Commercial Code. "Payment" does include any of the following:

(1) Any payment due for services of an independent contractor, dividends, rents, royalties, residuals, patent rights, mineral or other natural rights.

(2) Any payment or credit due or becoming due periodically as the result of an enforceable obligation to the person liable for the tax.

(3) Any other payment or credit due or becoming due the person liable as the result of a written or oral contract for services or sales whether denominated as wages, salary, commission, bonus, or otherwise.

(e) In the case of a financial institution, to be effective, the notice shall state the amount due from the taxpayer and shall be delivered or mailed to the branch or office of the financial institution where the credits or other property is held, unless another branch or office is designated by the financial institution to receive the notice.

Article 2. Suit for Tax

60421. At any time within three years after any tax or any amount of tax required to be collected becomes due and payable and at any time within three years after the delinquency of any tax or any amount of tax required to be collected, or within the period during which a lien is in force as the result of the filing of a notice of state tax lien under Section 7171 of the Government Code, the board may bring an action in the courts of this state, of any other state, or of the United States in the name of the state to collect the amount delinquent together with penalties and interest.

60422. In the action a writ of attachment may be issued in the manner provided by Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 485.010) of Title 6.5 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure without the showing required by Section 485.010 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

60423. In the action a certificate by the board showing the delinquency shall be prima facie evidence of the levy of the tax of the delinquency of the amount of tax, interest, and penalty set forth, and of compliance by the board with all provisions of this part in relation to the computation and levy of the tax.

Article 3. Lien of Tax

60441. Notwithstanding Section 60445, the tax, interest, and penalties are a lien upon and have the effect of an execution duly levied against any qualified motor vehicle in which diesel fuel taxable under this part is used and against any personal property of the interstate trucker.

60442. The lien arising under Section 60441 attaches at the time a qualified motor vehicle is operated in this state through the use of diesel fuel taxable under this part.

60443. The lien arising under Section 60441 shall not be removed until the tax, interest, and penalties are paid or the qualified motor vehicle or other property subject to the lien is sold in payment thereof.

60444. The lien arising under Section 60441 as to the tax and interest, but exclusive of penalties, upon personal property is paramount to all private liens or encumbrances of whatever character, and to the rights of any conditional vendor or any other holder of the legal title, in or to any qualified motor vehicle that is operated in this state through the use of diesel fuel taxable under this part.

60445. (a) If any person fails to pay any amount imposed under this part at the time that it becomes due and payable, the amount thereof, including penalties and interest, together with any costs in addition thereto, shall thereupon be a perfected and enforceable state tax lien. That lien is subject to Chapter 14 (commencing with Section 7150) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(b) For the purpose of this section, amounts are "due and payable" on the following dates:

(1) For amounts disclosed on a return received by the board before the date the return is delinquent, the date the return would have been delinquent.

(2) For amounts disclosed on a return filed on or after the date the return is delinquent, the date the return is received by the board.

(3) For amounts determined under Section 60330 (pertaining to jeopardy assessments), the date the notice of the board's finding is mailed or issued.

(4) For all other amounts, the date the assessment is final.

Article 4. Warrant for Collection of Tax

60451. At any time within three years after any person is delinquent in the payment of any amount required by this part to be paid or within 10 years after the last recording or filing of a notice of state tax lien under Section 7171 of the Government Code, the board or its authorized representative may issue a warrant for the enforcement of any liens and for the collection of any amount required to be paid to the state under this part. The warrant shall be directed to any sheriff, marshal, or constable and shall have the same effect as a writ of execution. The warrant shall be levied and sale made pursuant to it in the same manner and with the same effect as a levy of and a sale pursuant to a writ of execution.

60452. The board may pay or advance to the sheriff, marshal, or constable, the same fees, commissions, and expenses for his or her services as are provided by law for similar services pursuant to a writ of execution. The board, and not the court, shall approve the fees for publication in a newspaper.

60453. The fees, commissions, and expenses are the obligation of the person required to pay any amount under this part and may be collected from him or her by virtue of the warrant or in any other manner provided in this part for the collection of the tax.

Article 5. Seizure and Sale

60461. Whenever any person is delinquent in the payment of the obligations imposed under this part, the board or its authorized representative may seize any property, real or personal, subject to the lien of the tax and thereafter sell the property, or a sufficient part of it, at public auction to pay the tax due together with any interest and penalties imposed for the delinquency and any costs incurred on account of the seizure and sale.

60462. Notice of the sale and the time and place thereof shall be given in writing at least 20 days before the date set for the sale to the delinquent person and to all persons who have an interest of record in the property seized. The notice shall be personally served or enclosed in an envelope addressed to the person at his or her last known residence or place of business in this state. If not personally served, the notice shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. The notice shall be published pursuant to Section 6063 of the Government Code, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the city in which the property or a part thereof is situated if any part thereof is situated in a city or, if not, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which the property or a part thereof is located. Notice shall also be posted in both of the following manners:

(a) One public place in the city in which the interest in property is to be sold if it is to be sold in a city or, if not to be sold in a city, one public place in the county in which the interest in the property is to be sold.

(b) One conspicuous place on the property.

The notice shall contain a description of the property to be sold, a statement of the amount due, including tax, penalties, interest, and costs, the name of the person, and the further statement that unless the amount is paid on or before the time fixed in the notice of sale, the property, or so much of it as may be necessary, will be sold in accordance with law and the notice.

60462.5. The board may seize any qualified motor vehicle subject to the lien of the tax and thereafter sell the qualified motor vehicle at private sale to pay the tax due, together with any interest and penalties imposed for the delinquency and any costs incurred on account of the seizure and sale.

60462.6. Notice of the sale shall be given in writing to the delinquent person and to all persons who have an interest of record in the qualified motor vehicle at least 10 days before the date set for the sale of the qualified motor vehicle. The notice shall be enclosed in an envelope addressed to the person at his or her last known residence or place of business and, in the case of any person who has an interest of record in the qualified motor vehicle, addressed to the person at his or her last known residence or place of business. It shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. The notice shall contain a description of the qualified motor vehicle to be sold, a statement of the amount due, interest, penalties, and costs, the name of the person, and the further statement that unless the tax due, interest, penalties, and costs are paid within 10 days the qualified motor vehicle will be sold at private sale.

60463. At any sale the board or its authorized agent shall sell the property in accordance with the law and the notice and shall deliver to the purchaser a bill of sale for the personal property and a deed for any real property sold. The bill of sale or deed vests title in the purchaser. The unsold portion of any property seized may be left at the place of sale at the risk of the taxpayer.

60464. If upon any sale the moneys received exceed the amount due to the state from the taxpayer, the board shall return the excess to the taxpayer and obtain his or her receipt. If any person having an interest in or lien upon the property files with the board prior to the sale notice of his or her interest or lien, the board shall withhold payment of any excess pending a determination of the rights of the respective parties thereto by a court of competent jurisdiction. If for any reason the receipt of the taxpayer is not available, the board shall deposit the excess moneys with the Treasurer, as trustee for the taxpayer, his or her heirs, successors, or assigns.

Article 6. Successor Withholding and Liability

60471. If any person liable for any amount under this part sells out his or her business or stock of goods or quits the business, his or her successor or assign shall withhold from the purchase price an amount sufficient to cover that amount until the former owner produces a receipt from the board showing that it has been paid or a certificate stating that no amount is due.

60472. (a) If the purchaser of a business or stock of goods fails to withhold the purchase price as required, he or she becomes personally liable for the payment of the amount required to be withheld by him or her to the extent of the purchase price valued in money.

(b) (1) Within 60 days after the latest of the dates specified in paragraph (2), the board shall either issue the certificate or mail notice to the purchaser at his or her address as it appears on the records of the board of the amount that is required to be paid as a condition of issuing the certificate.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1), the latest of the following dates shall apply:

(A) The date the board receives a written request from the purchaser for a certificate.

(B) The date the former owner's records are made available for audit.

(c) Failure of the board to mail the notice referred to in subdivision (b) shall release the purchaser from any further obligation to withhold the purchase price under this article. The time within which the obligation of the successor may be enforced shall begin to run at the time the person sells out his or her business or stock of goods or at the time that the determination against the person becomes final, whichever event occurs later.

60473. The certificate may be issued after the payment of all amounts due under this part, according to the records of the board as of the date of the certificate, or after the payment of the amounts is secured to the satisfaction of the board.

60474. The obligation of the successor shall be enforced by serving a notice of successor liability on the person. The notice shall be served in the manner prescribed for service of a notice of a deficiency determination, not later than three years after the date the board is notified of the purchase of the business or stock of goods. The successor may petition for reconsideration in the manner provided in Article 5 (commencing with Section 60350) of Chapter 6. The notice shall become final and the amount due and payable in the manner provided in that article except that no additional penalty shall apply if not paid when due and payable. This chapter, with respect to the collection of any amount required to be paid under this part, shall apply when the notice becomes final.

Article 7. Miscellaneous Provisions

60491. The remedies of the state provided for in this chapter are cumulative, and no action taken by the board constitutes an election by the state to pursue any remedy to the exclusion of any other remedy for which provision is made in this part.

CHAPTER 8. OVERPAYMENT AND REFUNDS

Article 1. Refunds on Certain Sales and Uses

60501. Persons who have paid a tax for diesel fuel used in a nontaxable use, other than on a farm for farming purposes or in an exempt bus operation, shall, except as otherwise provided in this part, be reimbursed and repaid the amount of the tax.

(a) A claim for refund with respect to diesel fuel is allowed under this section only if all of the following apply:

(1) Tax was imposed on the diesel fuel to which the claim relates.

(2) The claimant bought or produced the diesel fuel and did not sell or resell it in this state.

(3) The claimant has filed a timely claim for refund that contains the information required under subdivision (b) and the claim is supported by the original invoice showing the purchase.

(4) The diesel fuel was any of the following:

(A) Used for purposes other than operating motor vehicles upon the public highways of the state.

(B) Exported for use outside of this state. Diesel fuel carried from this state in the fuel tank of a motor vehicle is not deemed to be exported from this state unless the diesel fuel becomes subject to tax as an import under the laws of the destination state.

(C) Used in any construction equipment that is exempt from vehicle registration pursuant to the Vehicle Code, while operated within the confines and limits of a construction project.

(D) Used in the operation of a motor vehicle on any highway that is under the jurisdiction of the United States Department of Agriculture and with respect to the use of the highway the claimant pays, or contributes to, the cost of construction or maintenance thereof pursuant to an agreement with, or permission of, the United States Department of Agriculture.

(E) Used in any motor vehicle owned by any county, city and county, city, district, or other political subdivision or public agency when operated by it over any highway constructed and maintained by the United States or any department or agency thereof within a military reservation in this state. If the motor vehicle is operated both over the highway and over a public highway outside the military reservation in a continuous trip the tax shall not be refunded as to that portion of the diesel fuel used to operate the vehicle over the public highway outside the military reservation.

Nothing contained in this section shall be construed as a refund of the tax for the use of diesel fuel in any motor vehicle operated upon a public highway within a military reservation, which highway is constructed or maintained by this state or any political subdivision thereof.

As used in this section, "military reservation" includes any establishment of the United States government or any agency thereof used by the armed forces of the United States for military, air, or naval operations, including research projects.

(F) Sold by a supplier to any consulate officer or consulate employee under circumstances which would have entitled the supplier to an exemption under paragraph (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 60100 if the supplier had sold the diesel fuel directly to the consulate officer or consulate employee.

(b) Each claim for refund under this section shall contain the following information with respect to all the diesel fuel covered by the claim:

(1) The name, address, telephone number, and permit number of the person that sold the diesel fuel to the claimant and the date of the purchase.

(2) A statement by the claimant that the diesel fuel covered by the claim did not contain visible evidence of dye.

(3) A statement, which may appear on the invoice or similar document, by the person that sold the diesel fuel to the claimant that the diesel fuel sold did not contain visible evidence of dye.

(4) The total amount of diesel fuel covered by the claim.

(5) The use made of the diesel fuel covered by the claim described by reference to specific categories listed in paragraph (4) of subdivision (a).

(6) If the diesel fuel covered by the claim was exported, a statement that the claimant has the proof of exportation.

60502. (a) Any ultimate vendor who has paid a tax on diesel fuel sold to an ultimate purchaser for use on a farm for farming purposes or use in an exempt bus operation shall, except as otherwise provided in this part, be reimbursed and repaid the amount of the tax.

(b) A claim for refund with respect to diesel fuel is allowed under this section only if all of the following apply:

(1) Tax was imposed on the diesel fuel to which the claim relates.

(2) The claimant sold the diesel fuel to the ultimate purchaser for use on a farm for farming purposes or for use in an exempt bus operation.

(3) The claimant is a registered ultimate vendor.

(4) The claimant has filed a timely claim for refund that contains the information required under subdivision (c) and the claim is supported by the original invoice showing the purchase.

(c) Each claim for refund under this section shall contain the following information with respect to all the diesel fuel covered by the claim:

(1) The claimant's permit number.

(2) The name, address, telephone number, and permit number of each person that sold the diesel fuel to the claimant and the date of the purchase.

(3) The name, address, telephone number, and federal taxpayer identification number of each farmer or the permit number of each exempt bus operator that bought the diesel fuel from the claimant and the number of gallons that the claimant sold to each.

(4) A statement that the diesel fuel covered by the claim did not contain visible evidence of dye.

(5) The total amount of diesel fuel covered by the claim.

(6) A statement that the claimant has not included the amount of the tax in its sales price of the diesel fuel and has not collected the amount of tax from its buyer.

(7) A statement that the claimant has in its possession an unexpired exemption certificate described in Section 60503 and the claimant has no reason to believe any information in the certificate is false.

60502.1. No tax shall be included in the sales price or on the sales invoice by the ultimate vendor on diesel fuel sold to an ultimate purchaser.

60502.2. Notwithstanding the refund provided for by Section 60502 and the exemption provided for by subparagraph (B) of paragraph (5) of subdivision (a) of Section 60100, any exempt bus operation using diesel fuel on which the tax has been refunded under Section 60502 or exempt from tax under subparagraph (B) of paragraph (5) of subdivision (a) of Section 60100 shall, for the privilege of operating buses on state highways and freeways, make a payment equal to one cent ($0.01) for each gallon of the refunded or exempt diesel fuel used. The payments required by this subdivision shall be paid to the State Board of Equalization in the manner prescribed by the board, and the payments shall be treated as a tax for all purposes of this part.

60503. (a) The certificate to be provided to the ultimate vendor consists of a statement that is signed under penalty of perjury by a person with authority to bind the buyer. A new certificate shall be given if any information in the current certificate changes. The certificate may be included as part of any business records normally used to document a sale. The certificate expires on the earliest of the following dates:

(1) The date one year after the effective date of the certificate

(which may be not earlier than the date it is signed).

(2) The date a new certificate is provided to the seller.

(b) The certificate for a farmer is the "CERTIFICATE OF FARMER OR STATE OR LOCAL GOVERNMENT UNIT" required by the Internal Revenue Service.

(c) The certificate for an exempt bus operator is a copy of the exempt bus operator's license issued by the board.

60503.1. If a purchaser gives a Section 60503 exemption certificate to an ultimate vendor to the effect that the diesel fuel purchased will be used on a farm for farming purposes or in an exempt bus operation, and sells the diesel fuel or uses the diesel fuel in some other manner or for some other purpose, the purchaser will be liable for payment of the tax under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 60050) of this part as if the purchaser were a supplier of the diesel fuel at the time of that sale or use.

60503.2. (a) Any person, including any officer or employee of a corporation, who gives a Section 60503 exemption certificate for diesel fuel that he or she knows at the time of purchase is not to be used by him or her or the corporation on a farm for farming purposes or in an exempt bus operation, for the purpose of evading payment to the ultimate vendor of the amount of the tax applicable to the transaction, is guilty of either a misdemeanor punishable as provided in Section 60706 or a felony punishable as provided in Section 60707.

(b) Any person, including any officer or employee of a corporation, who gives an exemption certificate for diesel fuel pursuant to Section 60503 that he or she knows at the time of purchase is not to be used by him or her or the corporation on a farm for farming purposes or in an exempt bus operation, is liable to the state for the amount of tax that would be due if he or she had not given that certificate. In addition to the tax, the person shall be liable to the state for a penalty of 25 percent of the tax or five hundred dollars ($500) whichever is greater, for each purchase made for personal gain or to evade the payment of taxes.

60504. For the purpose of refund claims filed pursuant to this article, diesel fuel containing a de minimis quantity of dye shall not be considered diesel fuel containing visible evidence of dye.

60505. The board, upon the presentation of the claim and the invoice, shall cause to be paid to the claimant from the taxes collected under this part an amount equal to the taxes collected on the diesel fuel with respect to which the refund is claimed under this article, without obtaining approval of the State Board of Control for any amount not exceeding two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000). For any amount in excess of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) claimed under this article, the board shall set forth the facts of the refund in its records and certify to the State Board of Control the amount to be refunded and the person to whom the refund is due. If the State Board of Control approves, the board shall cause to be paid to the claimant the amount of the approved refund claimed under this article.

60506. In order to establish the validity of any claim, the board may, upon demand, examine the books and records of the claimant for that purpose. The failure of the claimant to accede to that demand constitutes a waiver of any right to the refund claimed on account of the transactions questioned.

60507. All applications for refund provided under this article shall be filed within three years from the date of the purchase of the diesel fuel. Any application filed after the time prescribed shall not be considered for any purpose by the board, the Treasurer, or the state.

60508. In lieu of the collection and refund of the tax on diesel fuel used by a supplier in the manner as would entitle a purchaser to claim refund under this article, credit may be given the supplier upon the supplier's tax return and the determination of the amount of the supplier's tax.

60508.1. In lieu of the collection and refund of the tax on diesel fuel sold to a consulate officer or consulate employee of a foreign government by a supplier who would be entitled to claim a refund under subdivision (a) of Section 60501, a credit may be given the supplier upon the supplier's tax return and the determination of the amount of the supplier's tax shall be in accordance with any rules and regulations that the board may prescribe.

60508.2. In lieu of the collection and refund of the tax on diesel fuel sold to an ultimate purchaser for use on a farm for farming purposes or for use in an exempt bus operation by a supplier who would be entitled to a claim for refund under Section 60502, a credit may be given the supplier upon the supplier's tax return and the determination of the amount of the supplier's tax shall be in accordance with any rules and regulations that the board may prescribe.

60509. In lieu of the collection and refund of the tax on diesel fuel exported by a supplier for use outside the state in the manner as would entitle a supplier to claim a refund under subdivision (a) of Section 60501, credit may be given the supplier upon the supplier's tax return and the determination of the amount of the supplier's tax shall be in accordance with the rules and regulations that the board may prescribe.

60510. No refund shall be granted for losses in handling, transporting, or storing diesel fuel.

60511. Interest shall be paid upon any refund of tax at the modified adjusted rate per month established pursuant to Section 6591.5 from the last day of the month following the day the diesel fuel was purchased.

The interest shall be paid to the last day of the month following the date upon which the claim is approved by the board.

No interest shall be granted on credits taken on tax returns.

Article 2. Claim for Refunds of Licensed Suppliers, Interstate Truckers, Exempt Bus Operators, Highway Vehicle Operators, and End Sellers

60521. If the board determines that any amount not required to be paid under this part has been paid by any person that is a licensed supplier, interstate trucker, exempt bus operator, highway vehicle operator, or end seller, the board shall set forth that fact in its records and certify to the State Board of Control the amount paid in excess of the amount legally due and the person by whom the excess was paid to the board or from whom it was collected. If the State Board of Control approves, the excess amount paid or collected shall be credited on any amounts then due and payable from the person from whom the excess amount was collected or by whom it was paid under this part, and the balance shall either be refunded to the person, or his or her successors, administrators, executors, or assigns, or, if authorized by the board, deducted by the person from any amounts to become due from him or her under this part.

However, in the case of a determination by the board that an amount not exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) was not required to be paid under this part, the board without obtaining the approval of the State Board of Control, may credit the amount on any amounts then due and payable under this part from the person by whom the amount was paid and may refund the balance to the person or his or her successors, administrators, or executors.

60522. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), no refund under Section 60521 shall be approved by the board after three years from the last day of the month following the reporting period for which the overpayment was made, or, with respect to determinations made under Article 2 (commencing with Section 60301), Article 3 (commencing with Section 60310), or Article 4 (commencing with Section 60330) of Chapter 6, after six months from the date the determinations became final, or after six months from the date of overpayment, whichever period expires the later, unless a claim therefor is filed with the board within that period. No credit shall be approved by the board after the expiration of the period unless a claim for credit is filed with the board within that period or unless the claim relates to a period for which a waiver has been given pursuant to Section 60317.

(b) A refund may be approved by the board for any period for which a waiver is given under Section 60317 if a claim therefor is filed with the board before the expiration of the period agreed upon.

60523. The claim shall be in writing and shall state the specific grounds upon which it is founded.

60524. Interest shall be paid upon any overpayment of any amount of tax at the modified adjusted rate per month established pursuant to Section 6591.5 from the last day of the month following the reporting period during which the overpayment is made. In addition, a refund or credit shall be made of any interest imposed upon the claimant with respect to the amount being refunded or credited.

The interest shall be paid as follows:

(a) In the case of a refund, to the last day of the month following the date upon which the person making the overpayment, if he or she has not already filed a claim, is notified by the board that a claim may be filed or the date upon which the claim is approved by the board, whichever date is the earlier.

(b) In the case of a credit, to the same date as that to which interest is computed on the tax or amount against which the credit is applied.

60525. If the board determines that any overpayment has been made intentionally or by reason of carelessness, it shall not allow any interest thereon.

Article 3. Suit for Refund

60541. No injunction or writ of mandate or other legal or equitable process shall issue in any suit, action, or proceeding in any court against this state or against any officer of the state to prevent or enjoin the collection under this part of any tax or other amounts required to be collected or to prevent or enjoin the revocation of any permit issued under this part or any other action whereby it is sought to enforce the payment of any tax or other amounts required to be paid.

60542. No suit or proceeding shall be maintained in any court for the recovery of any amount alleged to have been erroneously or illegally assessed or collected unless a claim for refund or credit has been duly filed.

60543. Within 90 days after the mailing of the notice of the board's action upon a claim for refund or credit, the claimant may bring an action against the board on the grounds set forth in the claim in a court of competent jurisdiction in the County of Sacramento for the recovery of the whole or any part of the amount with respect to which the claim has been disallowed.

60544. If the board fails to mail notice of action on a claim within six months after the claim is filed, the claimant may, prior to the mailing of notice by the board, consider the claim disallowed and bring an action against the board on the grounds set forth in the claim for recovery of the whole or any part of the amount claimed as an overpayment.

60545. Failure to bring suit or action within the time specified in this article constitutes a waiver of all demands against the state on account of any alleged overpayment.

60546. If judgment is rendered for the plaintiff, the amount of the judgment shall first be credited on any amounts due from the plaintiff under this part, Part 2 (commencing with Section 7301), and Part 3 (commencing with Section 8601), and the balance of the judgment shall be refunded to the plaintiff.

60547. In any judgment, interest shall be allowed at the modified adjusted rate per annum established pursuant to Section 6591.5 upon the amount found to have been illegally collected from the date of payment thereof to the date of allowance of credit on account of the judgment or to a date preceding the date of the refund warrant by not more than 30 days, the date to be determined by the board.

60548. A judgment shall not be rendered in favor of the plaintiff in any action brought against the board to recover any amount paid when the action is brought by or in the name of an assignee of the person paying the tax or by any person other than the person who paid the tax.

Article 4. Recovery of Erroneous Refunds

60561. (a) The board may recover any refund or part thereof that is erroneously made and any credit or part thereof that is erroneously allowed in an action brought in a court of competent jurisdiction in the County of Sacramento in the name of the people of the State of California.

(b) As an alternative to subdivision (a) in recovering the erroneous refunds or credits, the board, in its discretion, may issue a deficiency determination in accordance with Article 3 (commencing with Section 60310) or Article 4 (commencing with Section 60330) of Chapter 6. Except in the case of fraud, the determination shall be made within three years from the last day of the month following the reporting period in which the board certifies that the amount collected was in excess of the amount legally due.

Article 5. Cancellations

60581. If any amount in excess of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) has been illegally determined either by the person filing the return or by the board, the board shall set forth that fact in its records and certify to the State Board of Control the amount determined to be in excess of the amount legally due and the person against whom the determination was made. If the State Board of Control approves, it shall authorize the cancellation of the amount upon the records of the board. If an amount not exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) has been illegally determined either by the person filing a return or by the board, the board, without certifying this fact to the State Board of Control, shall authorize the cancellation of the amount upon the records of the board.

CHAPTER 9. ADMINISTRATION

Article 1. Administration

60601. The board shall enforce this part and may prescribe, adopt, and enforce rules and regulations relating to the administration and enforcement of this part. The board may prescribe the extent to which any ruling or regulation shall be applied without retroactive effect.

60602. The board may employ attorneys, accountants, auditors, investigators, and other expert and clerical assistance necessary for the efficient administration of this part.

60603. (a) Officers or employees of the state, upon presenting appropriate credentials and a written notice to the owner, operator, or agent in charge, are authorized to enter any place and to conduct inspections in accordance with paragraphs (1) to (6), inclusive.

(1) Inspections shall be performed in a reasonable manner and at times that are reasonable under the circumstances, taking into consideration the normal business hours of the place to be entered.

(2) Inspections may be at any place at which taxable diesel fuel is (or may be) produced or stored or at any inspection site where evidence of activities involving evasion may be discovered. These places may include, but are not limited to, any terminal, any diesel fuel storage facility that is not a terminal, any retail diesel fuel facility, or any designated inspection site.

(3) A designated inspection site is any state highway inspection station, weigh station, agricultural inspection station, mobile station, or other location designated by the Internal Revenue Service to be used as a diesel fuel inspection site. A designated inspection site shall be identified as a diesel fuel inspection site.

(4) Officers or employees may physically inspect, examine, or otherwise search any tank, reservoir, or other container that can or may be used for the production, storage, or transportation of diesel fuel, diesel fuel dyes, or diesel fuel markers. Inspection may also be made of any equipment used for, or in connection with, production, storage, or transportation of diesel fuel, diesel fuel dyes, or diesel fuel markers. This includes any equipment used for the dyeing or marking of diesel fuel. This includes the books and records kept to determine tax liability.

(5) Officers or employees may detain any vehicle, train, or vessel for the purpose of inspecting its fuel tanks and storage tanks. Detainment will be either on the premises under inspection or at a designated inspection site. Detainment may continue for a reasonable period of time as is necessary to determine the amount and composition of the diesel fuel.

(6) Officers or employees may take and remove samples of diesel fuel in reasonable quantities as necessary to determine its composition.

(b) Any person that refuses to allow an inspection may be fined one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each refusal. This penalty is in addition to any other penalty or tax that may be imposed upon that person or any other person liable for tax or penalty.

60604. Every interstate trucker, supplier, exempt bus operator, ultimate vendor, highway vehicle operator, train operator, and every person dealing in, removing, transporting, or storing diesel fuel in this state shall keep those records, receipts, invoices, and other pertinent papers with respect thereto in that form as the board may require. Failure to maintain records will constitute a misdemeanor punishable as provided in Section 60706.

60605. (a) Each terminal operator shall keep the following information with respect to each rack removal of diesel fuel at each terminal it operates:

(1) The bill of lading or other shipping document.

(2) The record of whether the diesel fuel was dyed in accordance with the United States Environmental Protection Agency or Internal Revenue Service requirements.

(3) The volume and date of the removal.

(4) The identity of the position holder or position holder's customer.

(5) Any other information required by the Internal Revenue Service pursuant to Section 48.4101-3T of Title 26 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(b) The terminal operator shall maintain the information described in this section at the terminal from which the removal occurred for at least three months after the removal to which it relates.

60606. The board or its authorized representative may examine the books, records, and equipment of any interstate trucker, supplier, exempt bus operator, ultimate vendor, highway vehicle operator, train operator, or person dealing in, removing, transporting, or storing diesel fuel and may investigate the character of the disposition that the interstate trucker, supplier, exempt bus operator, ultimate vendor, highway vehicle operator, train operator, or person makes of the diesel fuel in order to ascertain whether all taxes due under this part are being properly reported and paid.

60607. As this state is the source of petroleum products for other states, if the examination or investigation necessitates collaboration or conference with motor vehicle fuel tax officials of other states, at places inside or outside this state, the collaboration or conference is declared to be a necessary function in the administration of this part.

60608. Upon request from the officials to whom is entrusted the enforcement of the motor fuel tax law of another government, the board may furnish to those officials the information in the possession of the board that is deemed essential to the enforcement of the motor fuel tax laws.

Any information so furnished shall not be used for any purpose other than that for which it was furnished.

60609. It is unlawful for the board or any person having an administrative duty under this part to make known in any manner whatever the business affairs, operations, or information obtained by an investigation of records and equipment of any person visited or examined in the discharge of official duty, or the amount or source of income, profits, losses, expenditures, or any particular thereof set forth or disclosed in any return, or to permit any return or copy thereof or any book containing any abstract or particulars thereof to be seen or examined by any person except to another government as outlined in Section 60608. Information respecting the tax due from a person may be furnished, however, to any person owning or having an interest in a qualified motor vehicle or property subject to the lien of the tax. The Governor may, by general or special order, authorize examination by other state officers, by tax officers of another state, by the federal government, if a reciprocal arrangement exists, or by any other person of the records maintained by the board under this part. The information so obtained pursuant to the order of the Governor shall not be made public except to the extent and in the manner that the order may authorize that it be made public. Successors, receivers, trustees, executors, administrators, assignees, and guarantors, if directly interested, may be given information as to the items included in the measure and amounts of any unpaid tax or amounts of tax required to be collected, interest, and penalties.

60610. A certificate by the board or an employee of the board stating that a notice required by this part was given by mailing or personal service shall be prima facie evidence in any administrative or judicial proceeding of the fact and regularity of the mailing or personal service in accordance with any requirement of this part for the giving of a notice. Unless otherwise specifically required, any notice provided by this part to be mailed or served may be given either by mailing or by personal service in the manner provided for giving notice of a deficiency determination.

Article 2. The California Taxpayers' Bill of Rights

60621. The board shall administer this article. Unless the context indicates otherwise, the provisions of this article shall apply to this part.

60622. (a) The board shall establish the position of the Taxpayers' Rights Advocate. The advocate or his or her designee shall be responsible for facilitating resolution of taxpayer complaints and problems, including any taxpayer complaints regarding unsatisfactory treatment of taxpayers by board employees, and staying actions where taxpayers have suffered or will suffer irreparable loss as the result of those actions. Applicable statutes of limitation shall be tolled during the pendency of a stay. Any penalties and interest that would otherwise accrue shall not be affected by the granting of a stay.

(b) The advocate shall report directly to the executive officer of the board.

60623. (a) The board shall develop and implement an education and information program directed at, but not limited to, all of the following groups:

(1) Taxpayers newly registered with the board.

(2) Board audit and compliance staff.

(b) The education and information program shall include all of the following:

(1) A program of written communication with newly registered taxpayers explaining in simplified terms their duties and responsibilities.

(2) Participation in seminars and similar programs organized by federal, state, and local agencies.

(3) Revision of taxpayer educational materials currently produced by the board that explain the most common areas of taxpayer nonconformance in simplified terms.

(4) Implementation of a continuing education program for audit personnel to include the application of new legislation to taxpayer activities and areas of recurrent taxpayer noncompliance or inconsistency of administration.

(c) Electronic media used pursuant to this section shall not represent the voice, picture, or name of members of the board or of the Controller.

60624. The board shall conduct an annual hearing before the full board where industry representatives and individual taxpayers are allowed to present their proposals on changes to the Diesel Fuel Tax Law which may further improve voluntary compliance and the relationship between taxpayers and government.

60625. The board shall prepare and publish brief but comprehensive statements in simple and nontechnical language that explain procedures, remedies, and the rights and obligations of the board and taxpayers. As appropriate, statements shall be provided to taxpayers with the initial notice of audit, the notice of proposed additional taxes, any subsequent notice of tax due, or other substantive notices. Additionally, the board shall include this language for statements in the annual tax information bulletins that are mailed to taxpayers.

60626. (a) The total amount of revenue collected or assessed pursuant to this part shall not be used for any of the following:

(1) To evaluate individual officers or employees.

(2) To impose or suggest production quotas or goals, other than quotas or goals with respect to accounts receivable.

(b) The board shall certify in its annual report submitted pursuant to Section 15616 of the Government Code that revenue collected or assessed is not used in a manner prohibited by subdivision (a).

(c) Nothing in this section shall prohibit the setting of goals and the evaluation of performance with respect to productivity and the efficient use of time.

60627. The board shall develop and implement a program that will evaluate an individual employee's or officer's performance with respect to his or her contact with taxpayers. The development and implementation of the program shall be coordinated with the Taxpayers' Rights Advocate.

60628. The board shall, in cooperation with the Taxpayers' Rights Advocate, and other interested taxpayer-oriented groups, develop a plan to reduce the time required to resolve petitions for redetermination and claims for refunds. The plan shall include determination of standard timeframes and special review of cases that take more time than the appropriate standard timeframe.

60629. Procedures of the board, relating to appeals staff review conferences before a staff attorney or supervising tax auditor independent of the assessing department, shall include all of the following:

(a) Any conference shall be held at a reasonable time at a board office that is convenient to the taxpayer.

(b) The conference may be recorded only if prior notice is given to the taxpayer and the taxpayer is entitled to receive a copy of the recording.

(c) The taxpayer shall be informed prior to any conference that he or she has a right to have present at the conference his or her attorney, accountant, or other designated agent.

60630. (a) Every taxpayer is entitled to be reimbursed for any reasonable fees and expenses related to a hearing before the board if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The taxpayer files a claim for the fee and expenses with the State Board of Control.

(2) The board, in its sole discretion, finds that the action taken by the board staff was unreasonable.

(3) The board makes a recommendation to the State Board of Control that the taxpayer be awarded a specific amount of fees and expenses related to the hearing, which shall be determined by the board.

(4) The State Board of Control concurs with the recommendation and orders the board to provide reimbursement of fees and expenses to the taxpayer.

(b) To determine whether the board staff has been unreasonable, the board shall consider whether the taxpayer has established that the position of the board staff was not substantially justified.

(c) The amount of reimbursed fees and expenses shall be limited to the following:

(1) Fees and expenses incurred after the date of filing petitions for redetermination and claims for refund.

(2) If the board finds that the staff was unreasonable with respect to certain issues but reasonable with respect to other issues, the amount of reimbursed fees and expenses shall be limited to those that relate to the issues where the staff was unreasonable.

60631. (a) An officer or employee of the board acting in connection with any law administered by the board shall not knowingly authorize, require, or conduct any investigation of, or surveillance over, any person for non-tax-administration-related purposes.

(b) Any person violating subdivision (a) shall be subject to disciplinary action in accordance with the State Civil Service Act, including dismissal from office or discharge from employment.

(c) This section shall not apply with respect to any otherwise lawful investigation concerning organized crime activities.

(d) The provisions of this section are not intended to prohibit, restrict, or prevent the exchange of information where the person is being investigated for multiple violations which include diesel fuel tax violations.

(e) For the purposes of this section:

(1) "Investigation" means any oral or written inquiry directed to any person, organization, or governmental agency.

(2) "Surveillance" means the monitoring of persons, places, or events by means of electronic interception, overt or covert observations, or photography, and the use of informants.

60632. (a) The board shall release any levy or notice to withhold issued pursuant to this part on any property in the event the expense of the sale process exceeds the liability for which the levy is made.

(b) The board shall not sell any seized property until it has first notified the taxpayer in writing of the exemptions from levy under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 703.010) of Title 9 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(c) This section shall not apply to the seizure of any property as a result of a jeopardy assessment.

60633. Exemptions from levy under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 703.010) of Title 9 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall be adjusted for purposes of enforcing the collection of debts under this part to reflect changes in the California Consumer Price Index whenever the change is more than 5 percent higher than any previous adjustment.

60634. For the purposes of this part only, the board shall not revoke or suspend a person's license pursuant to Section 60180 or 60181 unless the board has mailed a notice preliminary to revocation or suspension that indicates that the taxpayer will be suspended by a date certain pursuant to that section. The notice preliminary to suspension shall be mailed to the taxpayer at least 60 days before the date certain.

60635. (a) If any officer or employee of the board recklessly disregards board-published procedures, a taxpayer aggrieved by that action or omission may bring an action for damages against the State of California in superior court.

(b) In any action brought under subdivision (a), upon finding of liability on the part of the State of California, the state shall be liable to the plaintiff in an amount equal to the sum of all of the following:

(1) Actual and direct monetary damages sustained by the plaintiff as a result of the actions or omissions.

(2) Reasonable litigation costs, including any of the following:

(A) Reasonable court costs.

(B) Prevailing market rates for the kind or quality of services furnished in connection with any of the following:

(i) The reasonable expenses of expert witnesses in connection with the civil proceeding, except that no expert witness shall be compensated at a rate in excess of the highest rate of compensation for expert witnesses paid by the State of California.

(ii) The reasonable cost of any study, analysis, engineering report, test, or project that is found by the court to be necessary for the preparation of the party's case.

(iii) Reasonable fees paid or incurred for the services of attorneys in connection with the civil proceeding, except that those fees shall not be in excess of seventy-five dollars ($75) per hour unless the court determines that an increase in the cost of living or a special factor, such as the limited availability of qualified attorneys for the proceeding, justifies a higher rate.

(c) In the awarding of damages under subdivision (b), the court shall take into consideration the negligence or omissions, if any, on the part of the plaintiff which contributed to the damages.

(d) Whenever it appears to the court that the taxpayer's position in the proceeding brought under subdivision (a) is frivolous, the court may impose a penalty against the plaintiff in an amount not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000). A penalty so imposed shall be paid upon notice and demand from the board and shall be collected as a tax imposed under this part.

CHAPTER 10. DISTRIBUTION OF PROCEEDS

60651. The board shall transmit all money received by it under this part, except the amounts of overpayment of the fees required by Section 60185, to the Treasurer to be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the Motor Vehicle Fuel Account in the Transportation Tax Fund. The board shall at the same time furnish copies of the schedules covering the transmittals to the Controller.

60652. Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, all moneys deposited in the account under this part are hereby continuously appropriated, without regard to fiscal years, as follows:

(a) To pay the refunds authorized in this part.

(b) The balance shall be transferred to the Highway Users Tax Account in the Transportation Tax Fund as provided in this chapter.

60653. The Controller shall make the transfers to the Highway Users Tax Account in the Transportation Tax Fund pursuant to Section 60652 at the same time as the transfers of moneys received under the Motor Vehicle Fuel License Tax Law are made.

60654. Any costs to the board to carry out any duties imposed upon it by this part shall be paid, upon appropriation by the Legislature, from the moneys deposited in the account under this part.

CHAPTER 11. VIOLATIONS

60701. It is unlawful for any person, firm, association, or corporation, or any officer or agent thereof, through false statement, trick or device, or otherwise, to do any of the following:

(a) Obtain diesel fuel for export and fail to export it, or cause it not to be exported.

(b) Divert diesel fuel, or cause it to be diverted, from interstate or foreign transit begun in this state.

(c) Return diesel fuel to this state and sell or use it, or cause it to be used or sold in this state, without complying with the provisions of this part and without notifying the supplier from whom the diesel fuel was originally purchased of that act.

Any person violating any provision of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable as provided in Section 60706.

Each shipment illegally diverted or illegally returned constitutes a separate offense. The unit of each shipment is the cargo of one vessel, one railroad car load, one automobile truck load, one truck and trailer load, one drum, one case, or one can.

60702. It is unlawful for any supplier or other person to conspire with any person, firm, association, or corporation, or any officer or agent thereof, to withhold diesel fuel from export, or to divert it from interstate or foreign transit begun in this state, or to return it to this state for sale or use so as to avoid any of the taxes imposed by this part.

Each shipment illegally diverted or illegally returned constitutes a separate offense. The unit of each shipment is the cargo of one vessel, one railroad car load, one automobile truck load, one truck and trailer load, one drum, one barrel, one case, or one can.

Any person violating any provision of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable as provided in Section 60706.

60703. Any person who acquires diesel fuel outside this state and uses the diesel fuel for the operation of a qualified motor vehicle within and without this state or the United States, is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable as provided in Section 60706 unless that person is an interstate trucker who holds a valid diesel fuel tax license or diesel fuel trip permit as defined in Sections 60120 and 60122.

60704. Any person who makes, issues or signs a false or fraudulent claim for refund under this part is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable as provided in Section 60706.

60705. (a) Any person required to make, render, sign, or verify any return or report who makes any false or fraudulent return or report with intent to defeat or evade the determination of an amount due required by law to be made is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable as provided in Section 60706.

(b) Any person who willfully aids or assists in, or procures, counsels, or advises in the preparation or presentation under, or in connection with any matter arising under this part, of a return, affidavit, claim, or other document which is fraudulent or is false as to any material matter, whether or not the falsity or fraud is with knowledge or consent of the person authorized or required to present the return, affidavit, claim, or document is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable as provided in Section 60706.

60706. Any violation of this part, except as otherwise provided, is a misdemeanor. Each offense shall be punished by a fine of not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) nor more than five thousand dollars ($5,000), or by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding six months, or by both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

60707. Notwithstanding any other provision of this part, any person who willfully evades or attempts in any manner to evade or defeat the payment of the tax imposed by this part is guilty of a felony when the amount of tax liability aggregates twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) or more in any 12-consecutive-month period. Each offense shall be punished by a fine of not less than five thousand dollars ($5,000) and not more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), or imprisonment for 16 months, or two, or three years, or both the fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

60708. Any prosecution for violation of any of the penal provisions of this part shall be instituted within three years after the commission of the offense, or within two years after the violation is discovered, whichever is later.

60709. (a) Any person who willfully evades or attempts to evade or defeat the payment of the taxes imposed by this part is subject to a penalty. He or she shall for each offense be subject to a penalty of ten dollars ($10) for every gallon of diesel fuel involved or one thousand dollars ($1,000), whichever is greater. The penalty shall be increased for subsequent violations by multiplying the penalty amount by the number of prior violations. The penalty applies in any of the following circumstances:

(1) If any dyed diesel fuel is sold or held for sale by any person for any use that the person knows or has reason to know is not a nontaxable use of the diesel fuel.

(2) If any dyed diesel fuel is held for use or used by any person for a use other than a nontaxable use and that person knew, or had reason to know, that the diesel fuel was so dyed.

(3) If any person willfully alters, or attempts to alter, the strength or composition of any dye or marker in any dyed diesel fuel.

(b) Any business entity, and each officer, employee, or agent of the entity, who willfully participated in any act giving rise to the penalty is jointly and severally liable for the penalty.

SEC. 18. Section 60505 is added to Article 1 (commencing with Section 60501) of Chapter 8 of Part 31 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

60505. The board, upon the presentation of the claim and the invoice, shall cause to be paid to the claimant from the taxes collected under this part an amount equal to the taxes collected on the diesel fuel with respect to which the refund is claimed under this article.

SEC. 19. Section 60521 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

60521. If the board determines that any amount not required to be paid under this part has been paid by any person that is a licensed supplier, interstate trucker, exempt bus operator, highway vehicle operator, or end seller, the board shall set forth that fact in its records and certify the amount paid in excess of the amount legally due and the person by whom the excess was paid to the board or from whom it was collected. The excess amount paid or collected shall be credited on any amounts then due and payable from the person from whom the excess amount was collected or by whom it was paid under this part, and the balance shall either be refunded to the person, or his or her successors, administrators, executors, or assigns, or, if authorized by the board, deducted by the person from any amounts to become due from him or her under this part.

For any amount exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), the board's proposed determination under this section shall be available as a public record for at least 10 days prior to the effective date of the determination.

SEC. 20. Article 5 (commencing with Section 60581) is added to Chapter 8 of Part 31 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

Article 5. Cancellations

60581. If any amount has been illegally determined either by the person filing the return or by the board, the board shall set forth that fact in its records and certify the amount determined to be in excess of the amount legally due and the person against whom the determination was made.

For any amount exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), the board's proposed determination under this section shall be available as a public record for at least 10 days prior to the effective date of the determination.

SEC. 21. Section 60630 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

60630. (a) Every taxpayer is entitled to be reimbursed for any reasonable fees and expenses related to a hearing before the board if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The taxpayer files a claim for the fee and expenses with the board.

(2) The board, in its sole discretion, finds that the action taken by the board staff was unreasonable.

(3) The board decides that the taxpayer shall be awarded a specific amount of fees and expenses related to the hearing, which shall be determined by the board.

(b) To determine whether the board staff has been unreasonable, the board shall consider whether the taxpayer has established that the position of the board staff was not substantially justified.

(c) The amount of reimbursed fees and expenses shall be limited to the following:

(1) Fees and expenses incurred after the date of filing petitions for redetermination and claims for refund.

(2) If the board finds that the staff was unreasonable with respect to certain issues but reasonable with respect to other issues, the amount of reimbursed fees and expenses shall be limited to those that relate to the issues where the staff was unreasonable.

(d) The board's proposed award under this section shall be available as a public record for at least 10 days prior to the effective date of the award.

SEC. 22. For purposes of Part 31 (commencing with Section 60001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, the State Board of Equalization shall do both of the following:

(a) Conduct an analysis of the use of clear diesel fuel acquired by exempt users and without tax (such as by farmers and school bus operators) and report to the Legislature by October 1, 1996, on the extent to which clear diesel fuel acquired with a tax exemption is used for nonexempt purposes.

(b) Evaluate the administrative costs and potential revenue impacts of making the use of other fuels, such as kerosene and transmix, in an internal combustion engine for the generation of power to propel a motor vehicle on the highways, subject to Part 31 (commencing with Section 60001), and report its findings to the Legislature by January 1, 1996.

SEC. 23. Sections 15, 18, 19, 20, and 21 of this act shall become operative only if Assembly Bill 3069 of the 1993–94 Regular Session is chaptered, in which case Section 14 of this act, and Sections 60505, 60521, and 60630 of, and Article 5 (commencing with Section 60581) of Chapter 8 of Part 31 of Division 2 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Section 17 of this act, shall not become operative.

SEC. 24. Section 10.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 8951 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by this bill and SB 1733. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 8951 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 1733, in which case Section 8951 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by SB 1733, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 10.5 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 10 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 25. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 26. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. However, unless otherwise specifically provided, the provisions of this act shall become operative on July 1, 1995.

CHAPTER 913

An act to amend Section 7091 of, and to add Sections 7073.02, 7075.5, and 7088.5 to, the Government Code, relating to economic development.

[Approved by Governor September 27, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 28, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7073.02 is added to the Government Code, to read:

7073.02. Program and other incentives for purposes of subdivision (e) of Section 7073, may include the use of tax allocation bonds, special assessment bonds, bonds under the Mello-Roos Community Facilities Act of 1982, industrial development bonds, revenue bonds, private activity bonds, housing bonds, Marks-Roos bonds, certificates of participation, hospital bonds, redevelopment bonds, and school bonds, including all special provisions provided for under federal tax law for enterprise zone bonds.

SEC. 2. Section 7075.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

7075.5. The limitations in Section 91503 on the allowable uses of proceeds of bonds issued pursuant to Title 10 (commencing with Section 91500) shall not apply to bonds issued on behalf of any enterprise zone or portion of any enterprise zone.

SEC. 3. Section 7088.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

7088.5. The limitations in Section 91503 on the allowable uses of proceeds of bonds issued pursuant to Title 10 (commencing with Section 91500) shall not apply to bonds issued on behalf of any targeted economic development area or neighborhood economic development area or portion of any area.

SEC. 4. Section 7091 of the Government Code is amended to read:

7091. (a) Notwithstanding the bonding limitation specified in Section 91573, the California Industrial Development Financing Advisory Commission shall authorize an annual maximum amount of qualifying bonds of seventy-five million dollars ($75,000,000).

(b) Notwithstanding Section 91503, the bonding authorization contained in subdivision (a) shall be used for providing funds to qualified businesses within designated program areas or any business which is located within an enterprise zone which is designated under any other provision of state law. However, any portion of the annual maximum amount specified in subdivision (a) which in any year is not used for the purpose specified in this subdivision may be used in the next succeeding year for the purpose of any program administered by the California Industrial Development Financing Advisory Commission.

(c) The annual maximum bonding authority specified in subdivision (a) is exclusive of, and in addition to, the maximum bonding authority specified in Section 91573.

CHAPTER 914

An act to amend Sections 25144.6 and 25205.14 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous waste.

[Approved by Governor September 27, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 28, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25144.6 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25144.6. (a) As used in this section, "reusable soiled textile materials" means textile items, including, but not limited to, shop towels, uniforms, gloves, and linens and towels which may become soiled with hazardous waste during commercial or industrial use, and are made reusable by laundering or comparable methods of cleaning.

(b) Reusable soiled textile materials which meet all of the following requirements are exempt from Section 25205.5 and from Article 6 (commencing with Section 25160) and Article 6.5 (commencing with Section 25167.1):

(1) The materials or the management of the materials are not otherwise regulated by the Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to the federal act.

(2) The materials are not used to clean up or control a spill or release that is required to be reported to any state or federal agency.

(3) No hazardous waste has been added after the materials' original use.

(4) No free liquids, as defined by Section 22-66260.10 of Title 26 of the California Code of Regulations, are released during transportation or storage of the materials.

(5) The facility laundering or cleaning the materials maintains records of the date, type, and quantities by piecework or weight of the materials collected and laundered.

(6) The facility laundering or cleaning the materials prepares a contingency plan which specifies procedures for handling both onsite and offsite emergencies involving the materials, and employees are trained in the execution of the plan.

(c) Notwithstanding Sections 25201 and 25245, a facility laundering or using comparable methods of cleaning reusable soiled textile materials and performing the pretreatment necessary to remove metals and organics from the wastewater that results from the wash process is not required to obtain a hazardous waste facilities permit or other grant of authorization, and is exempt from the requirements of Article 12 (commencing with Section 25245), if the facility meets all of the following requirements:

(1) Management procedures are in place to ensure that the reusable soiled textile materials are managed in accordance with all the requirements specified in subdivision (b).

(2) The waste wash water conveyances and containers are constructed of materials to ensure that they are impervious under the conditions of use, and are visually inspected at least twice a year to ensure that waste wash water is not leaking into the underlying soil. A facility which is in compliance with this paragraph is not subject to the requirements of Section 22-66264.193 of Title 26 of the California Code of Regulations.

(3) The sludge collected from the washing process is managed in accordance with this chapter.

(4) The facility has a training program in place that ensures that the facility personnel are able to safely and properly handle and clean the reusable soiled textile materials and to respond effectively to emergencies by familiarizing them with emergency procedures, equipment, and systems.

(5) The facility is in compliance with the requirements of paragraphs (2) to (6), inclusive, and paragraphs (8) and (10), of subdivision (d) of Section 25201.5.

(6) The facility submits a notification to the department in accordance with paragraph (7) of subdivision (d) of Section 25201.5 on or before April 1, 1994, submits the fee required pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 25205.14 for the 1994 reporting period on that date, and pays the fee required by that section for subsequent reporting periods of operation when billed by the department or the State Board of Equalization.

(d) This section does not affect the application of Section 25143.2 to reusable soiled textile materials.

SEC. 2. Section 25205.14 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25205.14. (a) The owner or operator of a facility or transportable treatment unit operating pursuant to a permit-by-rule shall pay a fee to the board per facility or transportable treatment unit for each reporting period, or portion thereof. The fee for the 1993 reporting period shall be one thousand one hundred forty dollars ($1,140). Thereafter, the fee shall be adjusted annually by the board to reflect increases and decreases in the cost of living, as measured by the United States Department of Labor or a successor agency. The owner or operator of a facility or transportable treatment unit operating pursuant to a permit-by-rule shall also pay a fee in the amount of 50 percent of the fee specified in this subdivision for each notification required by Sections 22-67450.2 and 22-67450.3 of Title 26 of the California Code of Regulations, as those sections read on January 1, 1993. The reporting period shall begin January 1 of each calendar year. On or before January 31 of each calendar year, the department shall notify the board of all known owners or operators operating pursuant to a permit-by-rule. The department shall also notify the board of any owner or operator authorized to operate pursuant to a permit-by-rule within 60 days from the date of authorization.

(b) A generator operating under a grant of conditional authorization pursuant to Section 25200.3 shall pay a fee to the board per facility for each reporting period, or portion thereof. The fee for the 1993 reporting period shall be one thousand one hundred forty dollars ($1,140). Thereafter, the fee shall be adjusted annually by the board to reflect increases and decreases in the cost of living, as measured by the United States Department of Labor or a successor agency. A generator shall also pay a fee in the amount of 50 percent of the fee specified in this subdivision for each notification amendment required by subdivision (l) of Section 25200.3. The reporting period shall begin January 1 of each calendar year. On or before January 31 of each calendar year, the department shall notify the board of all known generators operating under a grant of conditional authorization pursuant to Section 25200.3. The department shall also notify the board of any generator authorized to operate under a grant of conditional authorization within 60 days from the date of authorization.

(c) A generator performing treatment conditionally exempted pursuant to Section 25144.6 or subdivision (a) or (c) of Section 25201.5 shall pay one hundred dollars ($100) to the board per facility for the operating period, or portion thereof, and fifty dollars ($50) for every reporting period thereafter. The reporting period shall begin January 1 of each calendar year. On or before January 31 of each calendar year, the department shall notify the board of all known facilities performing treatment conditionally exempted pursuant to subdivision (a) or (c) of Section 25201.5. The department shall also notify the board of any generator who notifies the department that the generator is conducting a conditionally exempt treatment operation within 60 days of the receipt of that notification.

(d) The fees imposed pursuant to this section shall be paid in accordance with Part 22 (commencing with Section 43001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(e) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a), (b), and (c), the fees for the 1993 reporting period for facilities operating fixed treatment units pursuant to a permit-by-rule, for generators operating under a grant of conditional authorization pursuant to Section 25200.3, and for generators performing treatment conditionally exempted pursuant to subdivision (a) or (c) of Section 25201.5 shall be remitted to the department at the time that the notifications required by Sections 25200.3, 25201.5, and 25205.13 are submitted to the department.

CHAPTER 915

An act to amend Section 40002 of, to repeal Sections 39058.3 and 39058.5 of, to repeal Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 41100) of Part 3 of Division 26 of, the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Section 1 of Chapter 1201 of the Statutes of 1991, relating to air pollution.

[Approved by Governor September 27, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 28, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 39058.3 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 39058.5 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 40002 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

40002. (a) There is continued in existence and shall be, in every county, a county district, unless the entire county is included within the bay district, the Mojave Desert district, the south coast district, the San Joaquin Valley Air Quality Management District, if that district is created, a regional district, or a unified district.

(b) If only a part of the county is included within the bay district, the south coast district, the Mojave Desert district, the San Joaquin Valley Air Quality Management District, if that district is created, a regional district, or a unified district, there is in that part of the county not included within any of those districts a county district, for which different air quality rules and regulations may be required.

SEC. 4. Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 41100) of Part 3 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 1 of Chapter 1201 of the Statutes of 1991, as amended by Chapter 765 of the Statutes of 1992, is amended to read:

Section 1. (a) The San Joaquin Valley Unified Air Pollution Control District formed by the Counties of Fresno, Kern, Kings, Madera, Merced, San Joaquin, Stanislaus, and Tulare pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 40150) of Part 3 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code, and consisting of the Counties of Fresno, Kings, Madera, Merced, San Joaquin, Stanislaus, and Tulare, and that portion of the County of Kern that is within the San Joaquin Valley Air Basin, is a single integrated agency with all staff under one centralized management structure that is able to implement programs on a basinwide basis, and has all of the following:

(1) An individual air pollution control officer who is responsible for the issuance of all permits by the unified district.

(2) A single budget for the unified district with resources allocated based on the program needs of the San Joaquin Valley Air Basin.

(3) A uniform fee structure.

(4) Three hearing boards established pursuant to Section 40800 of the Health and Safety Code. One hearing board shall serve the northern region, one shall serve the central region, and one shall serve the southern region, as defined by the unified district board. Identical policies governing the operation of each hearing board shall be established by the unified district board and shall be binding upon each hearing board.

(5) A citizen's advisory committee.

(b) Rules and regulations adopted by the San Joaquin Valley Unified Air Pollution Control District are binding on all counties within the unified district. The unified district shall enforce all permits issued by the unified district and all permits issued by the individual county districts prior to formation of the unified district. The unified district shall review, revise, adopt, and implement any air pollution control plans required within the San Joaquin Valley Air Basin by state and federal law.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the San Joaquin Valley Unified Air Pollution Control District shall be governed by a district board composed of 11 members, appointed as follows:

(1) Eight members, one of whom shall be appointed by each of the Counties of Fresno, Kern, Kings, Madera, Merced, San Joaquin, Stanislaus, and Tulare. The board of supervisors of each of those counties shall, by majority vote, appoint one of its members to serve as a member of the district governing board.

(2) Three city members appointed by the cities within the territory of the unified district. There shall not be more than one city member selected from one county. One city member shall be selected from the northern region, one from the central region, and one from the southern region of the district. Of the three city members, one shall be from a city having a population of less than 20,000, one shall be from a city having a population of not less than 20,000 and not more than 50,000, and one shall be from a city having a population of more than 50,000.

(d) (1) The San Joaquin Valley Air Quality Management District is hereby created, operative pursuant to paragraph (5). The valley district shall consist of the Counties of Fresno, Kings, Madera, Merced, San Joaquin, Stanislaus, and Tulare, and that portion of the County of Kern that is within the San Joaquin Valley Air Basin.

(2) The valley district shall assume all of the authority, responsibilities, obligations, functions, and duties of the San Joaquin Valley Unified District, if the unified district ceases to exist, and shall assume the former unified district's membership on the state board in accordance with subdivision (c) of Section 39510 of the Health and Safety Code.

(3) The valley district shall have all of the powers, duties, and functions of an air quality management district. The valley district shall meet all of the requirements specified in paragraphs (1) to (6), inclusive, of subdivision (a) and shall be governed by a district board appointed as specified in subdivision (c).

(4) The valley district shall enforce all of the rules and regulations adopted, and permits issued, by the former unified district. Those rules and regulations may be amended or repealed, and those permits may be modified or revoked, by the valley district.

(5) This subdivision shall only become operative if the San Joaquin Valley Unified Air Pollution Control District ceases to exist, and shall, in that event, become operative on the date that the unified district ceases to exist.

CHAPTER 916

An act to amend Sections 1611, 10201, 10206, and 10214.5 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to job training, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 27, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 28, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1611 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1611. Money in the Employment Training Fund shall be expended only for the purposes of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 10200) of Part 1 of Division 3, and for the costs of administering this article and Section 976.6, except:

(a) With the approval of the Legislature, the fund or contributions to it may be used to pay interest charged on federal loans to the Unemployment Fund.

(b) Commencing with allocations made to the Employment Training Panel in the 1992–93 fiscal year, any moneys allocated to the panel in a fiscal year that are not encumbered by the panel in that fiscal year, shall revert to the Unemployment Insurance Fund.

(c) Commencing with the 1994–95 fiscal year, and for each fiscal year thereafter, to the extent that interest is earned on the money in the Employment Training Fund, that interest shall be used to fund up to 50 percent of the costs of the State-Local Cooperative Labor Market Information Program established pursuant to Section 10533, but in an amount not to exceed three million one hundred thousand dollars ($3,100,000).

(d) It is the intent of the Legislature that the panel shall closely monitor program performance and expenditures for employment training programs administered by the panel, and that the panel shall expeditiously disencumber funds that are not needed for employment training program completion. Commencing with the 1992–93 fiscal year, those moneys that are disencumbered during the fiscal year that are not reencumbered during the same fiscal year shall revert to the Unemployment Insurance Fund.

SEC. 2. Section 10201 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

10201. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Employer" means any employer subject to Part 1 (commencing with Section 100) of Division 1, except any public entity, or any nonprofit organization which has elected an alternate method of financing its liability for unemployment insurance compensation benefits pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 801), or Article 6 (commencing with Section 821) of Chapter 3.

Any public entity or nonprofit organization that has elected an alternate method of financing its liability for unemployment insurance compensation benefits pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 801), or Article 6 (commencing with Section 821) of Chapter 3, shall be deemed to be an employer only for purposes of placement of new hire trainees who received training as an incidental part of a training project designed to meet the needs of one or more private sector employers.

(b) "Eligible participant" means any person who, prior to beginning training or employment pursuant to this chapter, is any of the following:

(1) Unemployed and has established an unemployment insurance claim in this state, or has exhausted eligibility for unemployment insurance benefits from this state within the previous 24 months.

(2) Employed for a minimum of 90 days, but is determined by the panel to be likely to be displaced and therefore claiming unemployment insurance benefits because of reductions in overall employment within a business, elimination of the person's current job, or a substantial change in the skills required to remain employed due to technological change or other factors, or if employed for less than 90 days, met the conditions of paragraph (1) at the time of hire, or had received a notice of layoff from the prior employer. In making a finding of eligibility under this paragraph, the panel shall require the employer or contractor to provide, at the option of the employer or the contractor, either of the following:

(A) Certification of the specific facts that threaten the continued employment of the trainee, and a plan for assuring with reasonable certainty that the training being proposed will contribute to the long-term job security of the trainee. The plan shall include, but not be limited to, a general description, with respect to the facility at which the trainee is employed, of other actions planned by the employer, such as technological changes, additional training, management adjustments, and organizational changes, for the purposes of enhancing the effectiveness of the proposed training. The plan shall also include a statement of how the employer plans to sustain the commitment to workplace training after the contract ends, and how the training will affect the productivity and employment security of the workforce. The panel may modify the specific requirements of this subparagraph as they apply to employers or contractors proposing projects that involve training for a significant number of small employers in the same project.

(B) Evidence that the workers proposed to receive retraining have been given written notice that their employment will be terminated within two years of the date the application is presented to the panel.

(3) Employed for a minimum of 90 days, but who is determined by the panel to be in need of training in order to facilitate an employer's adaptation to a high performance workplace or diversification of the production of goods or services in order to meet the productivity goals and competitive needs of the employer's operation, or if employed for less than 90 days, met the conditions of paragraph (1) at the time of hire or had received a notice of layoff from the prior employer. In making a finding of eligibility under this paragraph, the panel shall require an employer or contractor to submit evidence of change, or plans to change, to a high performance or diversified workplace and a statement of how the employer plans to sustain the commitment to workplace training after the contract ends and how the training will affect the productivity and employment security of the workforce. For purposes of this subdivision, "high performance workplace" means a workplace that invests in the training of frontline workers, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 10200, to equip these workers with problem solving and decisionmaking skills that result in increased productivity.

(4) Employed, but who is determined by the panel to be qualified to be trained or retrained in skills for which there is a demonstrable shortage and in a field where new employment opportunities will be created for other persons defined in paragraph (1) if this retraining takes place. In making a finding of eligibility under this paragraph, the panel shall require the employer or contractor to provide a job for at least one unemployed person for each person retrained.

(c) "Panel" means the Employment Training Panel created by Section 10202.

(d) "Fund" means the Employment Training Fund created by Section 1610.

(e) "Department" means the Employment Development Department.

(f) "Training agency" means any private training entity or local educational agency.

(g) "Job" means employment on a basis customarily considered full time for the occupation and industry. The employment shall have definite career potential and a substantial likelihood of providing long-term job security. Furthermore, the employment shall provide earnings, upon completion of the employment requirement specified in subdivision (f) of Section 10209, equal to 50 percent, in the case of new hire training, or 60 percent, in the case of retraining, of the state or regional average hourly wage. However, in no case shall the employment result in earnings of less than 45 percent of the state average hourly wage for new hire training and 55 percent of the state average hourly wage for retraining. The panel may consider the dollar value of health benefits that are voluntarily paid for by an employer when computing earnings to meet the minimum wage requirements.

(h) "Private industry council" means an entity established pursuant to Section 15030.

(i) "New hire training" means employment training, including job-related literacy training, for persons who, at the start of training, are unemployed.

(j) "Retraining" means employment related skill and literacy training for persons who are employed prior to commencement of training and will continue to be employed by the same employer for at least 90 days following completion of training.

(k) "Trainee" means an eligible participant.

(l) "State average hourly wage" means the average weekly wage paid by employers to employees covered by unemployment insurance, as reported to the Employment Development Department for the four calendar quarters ending June 30 of the preceding calendar year, divided by 40 hours.

SEC. 3. Section 10206 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

10206. (a) The panel may allocate money in the fund for any of the following purposes:

(1) Reimbursement of reasonable training costs and administrative costs incurred by contractors. In making a determination of costs to be reimbursed under this paragraph, the panel may allocate funds in accordance with any of the following methods:

(A) For purposes of providing simplified fixed-fee performance contracts, a flat rate per hour for categories of training that are substantially similar with respect to content, methodology, and duration, as determined by the panel, not to exceed the reasonable and normal costs for the training. The panel shall periodically adjust the standardized rates established pursuant to this paragraph to reflect changes in training costs.

(B) A complete review of the proposal and its costs, including a budget listing the planned costs of training, including personnel, fringe benefits, equipment, supplies, fees for consulting or administrative services, and other costs attributable to training; the services provided by subcontractors; the length and complexity of the training; the method of training; the wages and occupations following training; whether the trainees are new hires or retrainees; and the cost of similar training that the panel has funded previously. The cost of program administration shall not exceed 15 percent of the training costs under this paragraph, except that for new hire training the panel may fund administrative costs of up to 25 percent of the training cost.

(C) The panel may modify the specific requirements of this paragraph as they apply to employers or contractors proposing projects that involve training for a significant number of small employers in the same project.

(2) Costs of program administration incurred under this chapter. These costs shall be reviewed annually by the Department of Finance and the Legislature and determined through the normal budgetary process.

The panel's administrative costs, exclusive of the cost of administering Section 976.6, shall not exceed 15 percent of the amount annually available for expenditure by the panel. Expenditures for marketing, research, and evaluations provided under contract to the panel under paragraph (1) that otherwise would have been provided directly by the panel shall not be included in this limitation.

(3) Service related to the purposes of this chapter provided by the Small Business Development Centers pursuant to an interagency agreement with the Trade and Commerce Agency.

(b) For all training contracts, the panel shall establish requirements for in-kind contributions by either the contractor or the employer that reflect a substantial commitment on the part of the contractor or the employer to the value of the training. In developing these requirements, the panel shall take into account the ability of the contractor or the employer, because of size or financial condition, to make any contribution, and the ability of the Employment Training Fund to meet the demand for training authorized by this chapter. Contributions shall be evaluated against plans required in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 10201 to sustain a commitment to workplace training after the contract ends. In developing policies regarding in-kind contributions, the panel shall hold public hearings.

(c) In order to encourage successful new hire training, the panel shall develop a new hire cost reimbursement system. The new hire cost reimbursement system shall recognize the additional risk attendant to new hire training if the contractor successfully meets at least 60 percent of the training and placement goals of a new hire contract. The reimbursement system authorized by this subdivision shall discourage excessive overenrollment at the beginning of the contract, and shall not provide reimbursements if the training and placement goals are achieved primarily through modification of the original contract. The new hire cost reimbursement system provided for in this subdivision shall remain in effect only until December 31, 1995.

SEC. 4. Section 10214.5 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

10214.5. (a) The panel may allocate up to 20 percent of the annually available training funds for the purpose of funding special employment training projects for the purposes of any of the following:

(1) Supporting retraining for frontline workers, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 10200, in occupations that pay 100 percent of the state or regional average hourly wage when a business is difficult to serve under the panel's standard project format; provided that the employment may not result in earnings of less than 95 percent of the state average hourly wage.

(2) Encouraging the development of new industries, including the electric and clean fuel vehicle industry and other advanced transportation technology industries, that contribute to high-skilled employment and economic vitality in California.

(3) Supporting efforts that address the training and employment of workers affected by defense industry cutbacks and military base closures.

(4) Stabilizing employment in fields where there is a demonstrated deficit of trained employees and clear career advancement opportunities.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, participants in these projects need not meet the same eligibility criteria as outlined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 10200 and subdivision (b) of Section 10201. In addition, the panel may allocate funds under this section for the development of training materials and training programs that contribute to the development of new industries in the state.

(b) The panel may allocate up to 15 percent of the funds specified in subdivision (a) for job-related vocational and literacy skills training and the employment of individuals with barriers to full-time, stable employment. These barriers may include, but shall not be limited to, language, basic skills, and occupational literacy barriers to employment. These individuals shall meet the eligibility criteria specified in subdivision (b) of Section 10201. Preference shall be given to contractors that can provide trainees with the comprehensive services necessary to successfully complete training, overcome barriers, secure gainful employment, and become self-sufficient. The panel may waive, if necessary, the eligibility criteria outlined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 10200, the minimum wage requirements pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 10201, and the employment retention provisions specified in subdivision (f) of Section 10209 and instead require that the trainee has been retained in employment for a minimum of 90 days out of 120 consecutive days after the end of training with no more than three employers. In addition, the panel may allocate funds under this subdivision for reasonable child care and transportation costs for trainees.

(c) The panel shall adopt minimum standards for consideration of proposals to be funded pursuant to this section.

(d) The panel may not delegate its authority to approve contracts written pursuant to this section.

(e) It is the intent of the Legislature in providing the authority for these projects that the panel allocate these funds in a manner consistent with the objectives of this chapter as provided in Section 10200.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure immediate funding of specified special employment training projects provided for in this act, it is necessary that the act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 917

An act to add Article 2.98 (commencing with Section 14094) to Chapter 7 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to public social services, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 27, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 28, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that the California Children's Services Program serves a special population of children and successfully utilizes managed care principles in the delivery of care to children. Any managed care plan or pilot project should utilize and build upon these models.

SEC. 2. Article 2.98 (commencing with Section 14094) is added to Chapter 7 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

Article 2.98. California Children's Services Program and Medi-Cal Managed Care Contracts

14094. For purposes of this article "CCS" means California Children's Services.

14094.1. (a) The director shall investigate and to the extent feasible require any managed care contractor serving children with conditions eligible under the CCS program, to maintain and follow standards of care established by the program, including use of paneled providers and CCS approved special care centers and to follow treatment plans approved by the program, including specified services and providers of services. If there are insufficient paneled providers willing to enter into contracts with the managed care contractor, the program shall seek to establish new paneled providers willing to contract. If a paneled provider cannot be found, the managed care contractor shall seek program approval to use a specific nonpaneled provider with appropriate qualifications.

(b) The director shall investigate and to the extent feasible require any managed care contractor serving children with conditions eligible under the CCS program, to report expenditures and savings separately for CCS covered services and CCS eligible children.

(c) (1) If the managed care contractor is paid according to a capitated or risk-based payment methodology, there shall be a separate actuarially sound rate for CCS eligible children.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), a managed care pilot project may, if approval is obtained from the state CCS program director, utilize an alternative rate structure for CCS eligible children.

14094.2. (a) This article is not intended, and shall not be interpreted, to permit any reduction in benefits or eligibility levels under the CCS program. Any medically necessary service not available under the managed care contracts authorized under this article shall remain the responsibility of the state and county.

(b) In order to ensure that CCS benefits are provided to enrollees with a CCS eligible condition according to CCS program standards, there shall be oversight by the state and local CCS program agencies for both services covered and not covered by the managed care contract.

14094.3. (a) Notwithstanding this article or Section 14093.05 or 14094.1, CCS covered services shall not be incorporated into any Medi-Cal managed care contract entered into after August 1, 1994, pursuant to Article 2.7 (commencing with Section 14087.3), Article 2.8 (commencing with Section 14087.5), Article 2.9 (commencing with Section 14088), Article 2.91 (commencing with Section 14089), Article 2.95 (commencing with Section 14092); or either Article 2 (commencing with Section 14200), or Article 7 (commencing with Section 14490) of Chapter 8, until three years after the effective date of the contract.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, providers serving children under the CCS program who are enrolled with a Medi-Cal managed care contractor but who are not enrolled in a pilot project pursuant to subdivision (c) shall continue to submit billing for CCS covered services on a fee-for-service basis until CCS covered services are incorporated into the Medi-Cal managed care contracts described in subdivision (a).
