STATUTES OF CALIFORNIA

AND DIGESTS OF MEASURES

Constitution of 1879 as Amended

Measures Submitted to Vote of Electors, Primary Election, June 7, 1994
and General Election, November 8, 1994

General Laws, Amendments to the Codes, Resolutions, and Constitutional Amendments passed by the California Legislature

1993–94 Regular Session
1993–94 First Extraordinary Session

Compiled by BION M. GREGORY

and expulsion policy of the school and the governing board of the school district or the county superintendent of schools, as appropriate.

SEC. 13. It is the intent of the Legislature that federal funds appropriated to school districts for school safety purposes be used to offset any costs to school districts imposed by Section 5 of this bill.

SEC. 14. Section 6.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 48915 of the Education Code proposed by both this bill and SB 1645. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 48915 of the Education Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 1645, in which case Section 6 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 15. This act shall not become operative unless Senate Bill 1645 of the 1993-94 Regular Session is enacted and becomes operative, in which case this act shall become operative on August 1, 1995.

SEC. 16. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Section 626.9 of the Penal Code, relating to gun-free school zones.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 626.9 of the Penal Code is amended to read:
626.9. (a) This section shall be known, and may be cited, as the Gun-Free School Zone Act of 1995.

(b) Any person who possesses a firearm in a place that the person knows, or reasonably should know, is a school zone, as defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (e), unless it is with the written permission of the school district superintendent, his or her designee, or equivalent school authority, shall be punished as specified in

(c) Subdivision (b) shall not apply to the possession of a firearm under any of the following circumstances:

(1) Within a place of residence or place of business or on private property, if the place of residence, place of business, or private property is not part of the school grounds and the possession of the firearm is otherwise lawful.

(2) The firearm is an unloaded pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed on the person and is in a locked container or within the locked trunk of a motor vehicle.

This section shall not prohibit or limit the otherwise lawful transportation of any other firearm, other than a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed on the person, in a motor vehicle in accordance with state law.

(3) When the person possessing the firearm reasonably believes that he or she is in grave danger because of circumstances forming the basis of a current restraining order issued by a court against another person or persons who has or have been found to pose a threat to his or her life or safety. This subdivision may not apply when the circumstances involve a mutual restraining order issued pursuant to Division 10 (commencing with Section 6200) of the Family Code absent a factual finding of a specific threat to the person's life or safety. Upon a trial for violating subdivision (b), the trier of a fact shall determine whether the defendant was acting out of a reasonable belief that he or she was in grave danger.

(d) Except as provided in subdivision (b), it shall be unlawful for any person with reckless disregard for the safety of another, to discharge, or attempt to discharge, a firearm in a school zone, as defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (e).

The prohibition of this subdivision shall not apply to the discharge of a firearm to the extent that the conditions of paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) are satisfied.

(1) "School zone" means an area in, or on the grounds of, a public or private school providing instruction in kindergarten or grades 1 to 12, inclusive, and within a distance of 1,000 feet from the grounds of the public or private school.

(2) "Firearm" has the same meaning as that term is given in Section 12001.

(3) "Locked container" has the same meaning as that term is given in subdivision (c) of Section 12026.1.

(4) "Concealed firearm" has the same meaning as that term is given in Sections 12025 and 12026.1.

(f) Any person who violates subdivision (b) shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or five years.

(g) Any person who violates subdivision (d) shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for three, five, or seven years.

(h) Any person who brings or possesses a loaded firearm upon the grounds of any university or college campus, including the University of California, the California State University, the California Community Colleges, or any private university or college, unless it is with the written permission of the university or college president, his or her designee, or equivalent university or college authority, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or four years.

(i) Any person who brings or possesses a firearm upon the grounds of any university or college campus, including the University of California, the California State University, the California Community Colleges, or any private university or college, unless it is with the written permission of the university or college president, his or her designee, or equivalent university or college authority, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for one, two, or three years.

(j) For purposes of this section, a firearm shall be deemed to be loaded when there is an unexpended cartridge or shell, consisting of a case which holds a charge of powder and a bullet or shot, in, or attached in any manner to, the firearm, including, but not limited to, in the firing chamber, magazine, or clip thereof attached to the firearm. A muzzle-loader firearm shall be deemed to be loaded when it is capped or primed and has a powder charge and ball or shot in the barrel or cylinder.

(k) This section shall not require that notice be posted regarding the proscribed conduct.

(l) This section shall not apply to a duly appointed peace officer as defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2, a full-time paid peace officer of another state or the federal government who is carrying out official duties while in California, any person summoned by any of these officers to assist in making arrests or preserving the peace while he or she is actually engaged in assisting the officer, a member of the military forces of this state or of the United States who is engaged in the performance of his or her duties, a person holding a valid license to carry the firearm pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 12050) of Chapter 1 of Title 2 of Part 4, or an armored vehicle guard, engaged in the performance of his or her duties, as defined in subdivision (e) of Section 7521 of the Business and Professions Code.

(m) This section shall not apply to a retired peace officer or security guard authorized to carry a loaded firearm pursuant to Section 12031.

(n) This section shall not apply to an existing shooting range at a public or private school or university or college campus.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to add Sections 48911.1 and 48911.2 to the Education Code, relating to pupils.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature that school districts and county offices of education may establish in-house suspension programs pursuant to Section 48911.1 of the Education Code as an educational and disciplinary alternative to off-campus suspensions.

In-house suspension programs may be funded by school districts and county offices of education as part of a School Safety Incentive Program implemented pursuant to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 48460) of Part 27 of the Education Code.

SEC. 2. Section 48911.1 is added to the Education Code, to read:

48911.1. (a) A pupil suspended from a school for any of the reasons enumerated in Sections 48900 and 48900.2 may be assigned, by the principal or the principal's designee, to a supervised suspension classroom for the entire period of suspension if the pupil poses no imminent danger or threat to the campus, pupils, or staff, or if an action to expel the pupil has not been initiated.

(b) Pupils assigned to a supervised suspension classroom shall be separated from other pupils at the schoolsite for the period of suspension in a separate classroom, building, or site for pupils under suspension.

(c) School districts may continue to claim apportionments for each pupil assigned to and attending a supervised suspension classroom provided as follows:

(1) The supervised suspension classroom is staffed as otherwise provided by law.

(2) Each pupil has access to appropriate counseling services.

(3) The supervised suspension classroom promotes completion of schoolwork and tests missed by the pupil during the suspension.

(4) Each pupil is responsible for contacting his or her teacher or teachers to receive assignments to be completed while the pupil is assigned to the supervised suspension classroom. The teacher shall provide all assignments and tests that the pupil will miss while suspended. If no classroom work is assigned, the person supervising the suspension classroom shall assign schoolwork.

(d) At the time a pupil is assigned to a supervised suspension classroom, a school employee shall notify, in person or by telephone, the pupil's parent or guardian. Whenever a pupil is assigned to a supervised suspension classroom for longer than one class period, a school employee shall notify, in writing, the pupil's parent or guardian.

(e) This section does not place any limitation on a school district's ability to transfer a pupil to an opportunity school or class or a continuation education school or class.

(f) Apportionments claimed by a school district for pupils assigned to supervised suspension shall be used specifically to mitigate the cost of implementing this section.

SEC. 3. Section 48911.2 is added to the Education Code, to read:

48911.2. (a) If the number of pupils suspended from school during the prior school year exceeded 30 percent of the school's enrollment, the school should consider doing at least one of the following:

(1) Implement the supervised suspension program described in Section 48911.1.

(2) Implement an alternative to the school's off-campus suspension program, which involves a progressive discipline approach that occurs during the schoolday on campus, using any of the following activities:

(A) Conferences between the school staff, parents, and pupils.

(B) Referral to the school counselor, psychologist, child welfare attendance personnel, or other school support service staff.

(C) Detention.

(D) Study teams, guidance teams, resource panel teams, or other assessment-related teams.

(b) At the end of the academic year, the school may report to the district superintendent in charge of school support services, or other comparable administrator if that position does not exist, on the rate of reduction in the school's off-campus suspensions and the plan or activities used to comply with subdivision (a).

(c) It is the intent of the Legislature to encourage schools that choose to implement this section to examine alternatives to off-campus suspensions that lead to resolution of pupil misconduct without sending pupils off campus. Schools that use this section should not be precluded from suspending pupils to an off-campus site.

An act to add Section 48900.4 to the Education Code, relating to pupils.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

SECTION 1. Section 48900.4 is added to the Education Code, to read:

48900.4. In addition to the grounds specified in Sections 48900 and 48900.2, a pupil enrolled in any of grades 4 to 12, inclusive, may be suspended from school or recommended for expulsion if the superintendent or the principal of the school in which the pupil is enrolled determines that the pupil has intentionally engaged in harassment, threats, or intimidation, directed against a pupil or group of pupils, that is sufficiently severe or pervasive to have the actual and reasonably expected effect of materially disrupting classwork, creating substantial disorder, and invading the rights of that pupil or group of pupils by creating an intimidating or hostile educational environment.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Section 827 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to juveniles.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 827 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

827. (a) Except as provided in Section 828, a petition filed in any juvenile court proceeding, reports of the probation officer, and all other documents filed in that case or made available to the probation officer in making his or her report, or to the judge, referee or other hearing officer, and thereafter retained by the probation officer, judge, referee, or other hearing officer, may be inspected only by court personnel, the district attorney, a city attorney or city prosecutor authorized to prosecute criminal or juvenile cases under state law, the minor who is the subject of the proceeding, his or her parents or guardian, the attorneys for the parties, and any other person who may be designated by court order of the judge of the juvenile court upon filing a petition therefor. Child protective agencies, as defined in Section 11165.9 of the Penal Code, also shall be entitled to inspect these documents upon the filing of a declaration under penalty of perjury stating that access to these documents is necessary and relevant in connection with and in the course of a criminal investigation or a proceeding brought to declare a person a dependent child or ward of the juvenile court.

Any records or reports relating to a matter within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court prepared by or released by the court, a probation department, or the county department of social services, any portion of those records or reports, and information relating to the contents of those records or reports, shall not be disseminated by the receiving agencies to any persons or agencies, other than those persons or agencies authorized to receive documents pursuant to this section. Further, any of those records or reports, any portion of those records or reports, and information relating to the contents of those records or reports, shall not be made attachments to any other documents without the prior approval of the presiding judge of the juvenile court, unless they are used in connection with and in the course of a criminal investigation or a proceeding brought to declare a person a dependent child or ward of the juvenile court.

(b) (1) While the Legislature reaffirms its belief that juvenile court records, in general, should be confidential, it is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this subdivision to provide for a limited exception to juvenile court record confidentiality to promote more effective communication among juvenile courts, law enforcement agencies, and schools to ensure the rehabilitation of juvenile criminal offenders as well as to lessen the potential for drug use, violence, and other forms of delinquency.

(2) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), written notice that a minor enrolled in a public school, kindergarten to grade 12, inclusive, has been found by a court of competent jurisdiction to have committed any felony, or any misdemeanor involving curfew, gambling, alcohol, drugs, tobacco products, carrying of weapons, assault or battery, larceny, vandalism, or graffiti shall be provided by the court, within seven days, to the superintendent of the school district of attendance. Written notice shall include only the offense found to have been committed by the minor and the disposition of the minor's case. This notice shall be expeditiously transmitted by the district superintendent to the principal at the school of attendance. The principal shall expeditiously disseminate the information to those counselors directly supervising or reporting on the behavior or progress of the minor. In addition, the principal may disseminate the information to any teacher or administrator directly supervising or reporting on the behavior or progress of the minor whom the principal believes needs the information to work with the pupil in an appropriate fashion, to avoid being needlessly vulnerable or to protect other persons from needless vulnerability. Any information received by a teacher, counselor, or administrator under this subdivision shall be received in confidence for the limited purpose of rehabilitating the minor and protecting students and staff, and shall not be further disseminated by the teacher, counselor, or administrator, except insofar as communication with the juvenile, his or her parents or guardians, law enforcement personnel, and the juvenile's probation officer is necessary to effectuate the juvenile's rehabilitation or to protect students and staff. An intentional violation of the confidentiality provisions of this section is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500).

(3) If a minor is removed from public school as a result of the court's finding described in subdivision (b), the district superintendent shall maintain the information in a confidential file and shall defer transmittal of the information received from the court until the minor is returned to public school. If the minor is returned to a school district other than the one from which the minor came, the parole or probation officer having jurisdiction over the minor shall so notify the superintendent of the last district of attendance, who shall transmit the notice received from the court to the superintendent of the new district of attendance.

(c) Each probation report filed with the court concerning a minor whose record is subject to dissemination pursuant to subdivision (b) shall include on the face sheet the school at which the minor is currently enrolled. The county superintendent shall provide the court with a listing of all of the schools within each school district, within the county, along with the name and mailing address of each district superintendent.

(d) Each notice sent by the court pursuant to subdivision (b) shall be stamped with the instruction: "Unlawful Dissemination of This Information Is A Misdemeanor." Any information received from the court shall be kept in a separate confidential file at the school of attendance and shall be transferred to the minor's subsequent schools of attendance and maintained until the minor graduates from high school, is released from juvenile court jurisdiction, or reaches the age of 18, whichever occurs first. After that time the confidential record shall be destroyed. At any time after the date by which a record required to be destroyed by this section should have been destroyed, the minor or his or her parent or guardian shall have the right to make a written request to the principal of the school that the minor's school records be reviewed to ensure that the record has been destroyed. Upon completion of any requested review and no later than 30 days after the request for the review was received, the principal or his or her designee shall respond in writing to the written request and either shall confirm that the record has been destroyed or, if the record has not been destroyed, shall explain why destruction has not yet occurred.

(e) Except as provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), no liability shall attach to any person who transmits or fails to transmit any notice or information required under subdivision (b).

SEC. 2. Section 827 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

827. (a) Except as provided in Section 828, a petition filed in any juvenile court proceeding, reports of the probation officer, and all other documents filed in that case or made available to the probation officer in making his or her report, or to the judge, referee, or other hearing officer, and thereafter retained by the probation officer, judge, referee, or other hearing officer, may be inspected only by court personnel, the district attorney, a city attorney or city prosecutor authorized to prosecute criminal or juvenile cases under state law, the minor who is the subject of the proceeding, his or her parents or guardian, the attorneys for the parties, and judges, referees, other hearing officers, probation officers and law enforcement officers who are actively participating in criminal or juvenile proceedings involving the minor, the superintendent or designee of the school district where the minor is enrolled or attending school, members of the child protective agencies as defined in Section 11165.9 of the Penal Code, members of children's multidisciplinary teams, persons or agencies providing treatment or supervision of the minor, and any other person who may be designated by court order of the judge of the juvenile court upon filing a petition therefor.

Any records or reports relating to a matter within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court prepared by or released by the court, a probation department, or the county department of social services, any portion of those records or reports, and information relating to the contents of those records or reports, shall not be disseminated by the receiving agencies to any persons or agencies, other than those persons or agencies authorized to receive documents pursuant to this section. Further, any of those records or reports, any portion of those records or reports, and information relating to the contents of those records or reports, shall not be made attachments to any other documents without the prior approval of the presiding judge of the juvenile court, unless they are used in connection with and in the course of a criminal investigation or a proceeding brought to declare a person a dependent child or ward of the juvenile court.

(b) (1) While the Legislature reaffirms its belief that juvenile court records, in general, should be confidential, it is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this subdivision to provide for a limited exception to juvenile court record confidentiality to promote more effective communication among juvenile courts, law enforcement agencies, and schools to ensure the rehabilitation of juvenile criminal offenders as well as to lessen the potential for drug use, violence, and other forms of delinquency.

(2) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), written notice that a minor enrolled in a public school, kindergarten to grade 12, inclusive, has been found by a court of competent jurisdiction to have committed any felony or any misdemeanor involving curfew, gambling, alcohol, drugs, tobacco products, carrying of weapons, assault or battery, larceny, vandalism, or graffiti shall be provided by the court, within seven days, to the superintendent of the school district of attendance. Written notice shall include only the offense found to have been committed by the minor and the disposition of the minor's case. This notice shall be expeditiously transmitted by the district superintendent to the principal at the school of attendance. The principal shall expeditiously disseminate the information to those counselors directly supervising or reporting on the behavior or progress of the minor. In addition, the principal may disseminate the information to any teacher or administrator directly supervising or reporting on the behavior or progress of the minor whom the principal believes needs the information to work with the pupil in an appropriate fashion, to avoid being needlessly vulnerable or to protect other persons from needless vulnerability. Any information received by a teacher, counselor, or administrator under this subdivision shall be received in confidence for the limited purpose of rehabilitating the minor and protecting students and staff, and shall not be further disseminated by the teacher, counselor, or administrator, except insofar as communication with the juvenile, his or her parents or guardians, law enforcement personnel, and the juvenile's probation officer is necessary to effectuate the juvenile's rehabilitation or to protect students and staff. An intentional violation of the confidentiality provisions of this section is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500).

(3) If a minor is removed from public school as a result of the court's finding described in subdivision (b), the district superintendent shall maintain the information in a confidential file and shall defer transmittal of the information received from the court until the minor is returned to public school. If the minor is returned to a school district other than the one from which the minor came, the parole or probation officer having jurisdiction over the minor shall so notify the superintendent of the last district of attendance, who shall transmit the notice received from the court to the superintendent of the new district of attendance.

(c) Each probation report filed with the court concerning a minor whose record is subject to dissemination pursuant to subdivision (b) shall include on the face sheet the school at which the minor is currently enrolled. The county superintendent shall provide the court with a listing of all of the schools within each school district, within the county, along with the name and mailing address of each district superintendent.

(d) Each notice sent by the court pursuant to subdivision (b) shall be stamped with the instruction: "Unlawful Dissemination Of This Information Is A Misdemeanor." Any information received from the court shall be kept in a separate confidential file at the school of attendance and shall be transferred to the minor's subsequent schools of attendance and maintained until the minor graduates from high school, is released from juvenile court jurisdiction, or reaches the age of 18, whichever occurs first. After that time the confidential record shall be destroyed. Any information received from the court shall be destroyed by school authorities 12 months after its receipt from the court or 12 months after the minor returns to public school, whichever occurs last. At any time after the date by which a record required to be destroyed by this section should have been destroyed, the minor or his or her parent or guardian shall have the right to make a written request to the principal of the school that the minor's school records be reviewed to ensure that the record has been destroyed. Upon completion of any requested review and no later than 30 days after the request for the review was received, the principal or his or her designee shall respond in writing to the written request and either shall confirm that the record has been destroyed or, if the record has not been destroyed, shall explain why destruction has not yet occurred.

Except as provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), no liability shall attach to any person who transmits or fails to transmit any notice or information required under subdivision (b).

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 827 of the Welfare and Institutions Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3309. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 827 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3309, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to add Section 204.5 to, and to repeal and add Section 827 of, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to juveniles.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 204.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

204.5. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the name of a minor may be disclosed to the public if the minor is 14 years of age or older and found by the juvenile court to be a person described in Section 602 as a result of a sustained petition for the commission of any of the offenses listed in Section 667.5 of the Penal Code, or in subdivision (c) of Section 1192.7 of the Penal Code.

SEC. 2. Section 827 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 827 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

827. (a) Except as provided in Section 828, a petition filed in any juvenile court proceeding, reports of the probation officer, and all other documents filed in that case or made available to the probation officer in making his or her report, or to the judge, referee, or other hearing officer, and thereafter retained by the probation officer, judge, referee, or other hearing officer, may be inspected only by court personnel, the district attorney, a city attorney or city prosecutor authorized to prosecute criminal or juvenile cases under state law, the minor who is the subject of the proceeding, his or her parents or guardian, the attorneys for the parties, and judges, referees, other hearing officers, probation officers and law enforcement officers who are actively participating in criminal or juvenile proceedings involving the minor, the superintendent or designee of the school district where the minor is enrolled or attending school, members of the child protective agencies as defined in Section 11165.9 of the Penal Code, members of children's multidisciplinary teams, persons or agencies providing treatment or supervision of the minor, and any other person who may be designated by court order of the judge of the juvenile court upon filing a petition therefor.

Any records or reports relating to a matter within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court prepared by or released by the court, a probation department, or the county department of social services, any portion of those records or reports, and information relating to the contents of those records or reports, shall not be disseminated by the receiving agencies to any persons or agencies, other than those persons or agencies authorized to receive documents pursuant to this section. Further, any of those records or reports, any portion of those records or reports, and information relating to the contents of those records or reports, shall not be made attachments to any other documents without the prior approval of the presiding judge of the juvenile court, unless they are used in connection with and in the course of a criminal investigation or a proceeding brought to declare a person a dependent child or ward of the juvenile court.

(b) (1) While the Legislature reaffirms its belief that juvenile court records, in general, should be confidential, it is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this subdivision to provide for a limited exception to juvenile court record confidentiality to promote more effective communication among juvenile courts, law enforcement agencies, and schools to ensure the rehabilitation of juvenile criminal offenders as well as to lessen the potential for drug use, violence, and other forms of delinquency.

(2) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), written notice that a minor enrolled in a public school, kindergarten to grade 12, inclusive, has been found by a court of competent jurisdiction to have committed any felony or any misdemeanor involving curfew, gambling, alcohol, drugs, tobacco products, carrying of weapons, assault or battery, larceny, vandalism, or graffiti shall be provided by the court, within seven days, to the superintendent of the school district of attendance. Written notice shall include only the offense found to have been committed by the minor and the disposition of the minor's case. This notice shall be expeditiously transmitted by the district superintendent to the principal at the school of attendance. The principal shall expeditiously disseminate the information to those counselors directly supervising or reporting on the behavior or progress of the minor. In addition, the principal may disseminate the information to any teacher or administrator directly supervising or reporting on the behavior or progress of the minor whom the principal believes needs the information to work with the pupil in an appropriate fashion, to avoid being needlessly vulnerable or to protect other persons from needless vulnerability. Any information received by a teacher, counselor, or administrator under this subdivision shall be received in confidence for the limited purpose of rehabilitating the minor and protecting students and staff, and shall not be further disseminated by the teacher, counselor, or administrator, except insofar as communication with the juvenile, his or her parents or guardians, law enforcement personnel, and the juvenile's probation officer is necessary to effectuate the juvenile's rehabilitation or to protect students and staff. An intentional violation of the confidentiality provisions of this section is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500).

court until the minor is returned to public school. If the minor is returned to a school district other than the one from which the minor came, the parole or probation officer having jurisdiction over the minor shall so notify the superintendent of the last district of attendance, who shall transmit the notice received from the court to the superintendent of the new district of attendance.

(c) Each probation report filed with the court concerning a minor whose record is subject to dissemination pursuant to subdivision (b) shall include on the face sheet the school at which the minor is currently enrolled. The county superintendent shall provide the court with a listing of all of the schools within each school district, within the county, along with the name and mailing address of each district superintendent.

(d) Each notice sent by the court pursuant to subdivision (b) shall be stamped with the instruction: "Unlawful Dissemination Of This Information Is A Misdemeanor." Any information received from the court shall be kept in a separate confidential file at the school of attendance and shall be transferred to the minor's subsequent schools of attendance and maintained until the minor graduates from high school, is released from juvenile court jurisdiction, or reaches the age of 18, whichever occurs first. After that time the confidential record shall be destroyed. At any time after the date by which a record required to be destroyed by this section should have been destroyed, the minor or his or her parent or guardian shall have the right to make a written request to the principal of the school that the minor's school records be reviewed to ensure that the record has been destroyed. Upon completion of any requested review and no later than 30 days after the request for the review was received, the principal or his or her designee shall respond in writing to the written request and either shall confirm that the record has been destroyed or, if the record has not been destroyed, shall explain why destruction has not yet occurred. Except as provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), no liability shall attach to any person who transmits or fails to transmit any notice or information required under subdivision (b).

SEC. 4. Section 827 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

827. (a) Except as provided in Section 828, a petition filed in any juvenile court proceeding, reports of the probation officer, and all other documents filed in that case or made available to the probation officer in making his or her report, or to the judge, referee, or other hearing officer, and thereafter retained by the probation officer, judge, referee, or other hearing officer, may be inspected only by court personnel, the district attorney, a city attorney or city prosecutor authorized to prosecute criminal or juvenile cases under state law, the minor who is the subject of the proceeding, his or her parents or guardian, the attorneys for the parties, and judges, referees, other hearing officers, probation officers and law enforcement officers who are actively participating in criminal or juvenile proceedings involving the minor, the superintendent or designee of the school district where the minor is enrolled or attending school, members of the child protective agencies as defined in Section 11165.9 of the Penal Code, members of children's multidisciplinary teams, persons or agencies providing treatment or supervision of the minor, and any other person who may be designated by court order of the judge of the juvenile court upon filing a petition therefor.

Any records or reports relating to a matter within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court prepared by or released by the court, a probation department, or the county department of social services, any portion of those records or reports, and information relating to the contents of those records or reports, shall not be disseminated by the receiving agencies to any persons or agencies, other than those persons or agencies authorized to receive documents pursuant to this section. Further, any of those records or reports, any portion of those records or reports, and information relating to the contents of those records or reports, shall not be made attachments to any other documents without the prior approval of the presiding judge of the juvenile court, unless they are used in connection with and in the course of a criminal investigation or a proceeding brought to declare a person a dependent child or ward of the juvenile court.

(b) (1) While the Legislature reaffirms its belief that juvenile court records, in general, should be confidential, it is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this subdivision to provide for a limited exception to juvenile court record confidentiality to promote more effective communication among juvenile courts, law enforcement agencies, and schools to ensure the rehabilitation of juvenile criminal offenders as well as to lessen the potential for drug use, violence, and other forms of delinquency.

(2) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), written notice that a minor enrolled in a public school, kindergarten to grade 12, inclusive, has been found by a court of competent jurisdiction to have committed any felony or any misdemeanor involving curfew, gambling, alcohol, drugs, tobacco products, carrying of weapons, assault or battery, larceny, vandalism, or graffiti shall be provided by the court, within seven days, to the superintendent of the school district of attendance. Written notice shall include only the offense found to have been committed by the minor and the disposition of the minor's case. This notice shall be expeditiously transmitted by the district superintendent to the principal at the school of attendance. The principal shall expeditiously disseminate the information to those counselors directly supervising or reporting on the behavior or progress of the minor. In addition, the principal may disseminate the information to any teacher or administrator directly supervising or reporting on the behavior or progress of the minor whom the principal believes needs the information to work with the pupil in an appropriate fashion, to avoid being needlessly vulnerable or to protect other persons from needless vulnerability. Any information received by a teacher, counselor, or administrator under this subdivision shall be received in confidence for the limited purpose of rehabilitating the minor and protecting students and staff, and shall not be further disseminated by the teacher, counselor, or administrator, except insofar as communication with the juvenile, his or her parents or guardians, law enforcement personnel, and the juvenile's probation officer is necessary to effectuate the juvenile's rehabilitation or to protect students and staff. An intentional violation of the confidentiality provisions of this section is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500).

(3) If a minor is removed from public school as a result of the court's finding described in subdivision (b), the superintendent shall maintain the information in a confidential file and shall defer transmittal of the information received from the court until the minor is returned to public school. If the minor is returned to a school district other than the one from which the minor came, the parole or probation officer having jurisdiction over the minor shall so notify the superintendent of the last district of attendance, who shall transmit the notice received from the court to the superintendent of the new district of attendance.

(c) Each probation report filed with the court concerning a minor whose record is subject to dissemination pursuant to subdivision (b) shall include on the face sheet the school at which the minor is currently enrolled. The county superintendent shall provide the court with a listing of all of the schools within each school district, within the county, along with the name and mailing address of each district superintendent.

(d) Each notice sent by the court pursuant to subdivision (b) shall be stamped with the instruction: "Unlawful Dissemination Of This Information Is A Misdemeanor." Any information received from the court shall be kept in a separate confidential file at the school of attendance and shall be transferred to the minor's subsequent schools of attendance and maintained until the minor graduates from high school, is released from juvenile court jurisdiction, or reaches the age of 18, whichever occurs first. After that time the confidential record shall be destroyed. Any information received from the court shall be destroyed by school authorities 12 months after its receipt from the court or 12 months after the minor returns to public school, whichever occurs last. At any time after the date by which a record required to be destroyed by this section should have been destroyed, the minor or his or her parent or guardian shall have the right to make a written request to the principal of the school that the minor's school records be reviewed to ensure that the record has been destroyed. Upon completion of any requested review and no later than 30 days after the request for the review was received, the principal or his or her designee shall respond in writing to the written request and either shall confirm that the record has been destroyed or, if the record has not been destroyed, shall explain why destruction has not yet occurred.

Except as provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), no liability shall attach to any person who transmits or fails to transmit any notice or information required under subdivision (b).

SEC. 5. Section 4 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 827 of the Welfare and Institutions Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3053. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 827 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3053, in which case Sections 2 and 3 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

However, notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains other costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to add Section 626.85 to the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 626.85 is added to the Penal Code, to read:
626.85. (a) Any specified drug offender who, at any time, comes into any school building or upon any school ground, or adjacent street, sidewalk, or public way, unless the person is a parent or guardian of a child attending that school and his or her presence is during any school activity, or is a student at the school and his or her presence is during any school activity, or has prior written permission for the entry from the chief administrative officer of that school, is guilty of a misdemeanor if he or she does any of the

(1) Remains there after being asked to leave by the chief administrative officer of that school or his or her designated representative, or by a person employed as a member of a security or police department of a school district pursuant to Section 39670 of the Education Code, or a city police officer, sheriff, California Highway Patrol officer, or California State Police officer.

(2) Reenters or comes upon that place within seven days of being asked to leave by a person specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a).

(3) Has otherwise established a continued pattern of unauthorized entry.

The provisions of this section shall not be utilized to impinge upon the lawful exercise of constitutionally protected rights of freedom of speech or assembly, or to prohibit any lawful act, including picketing, strikes, or collective bargaining.

(b) Punishment for violation of this section shall be as follows:

(1) Upon a first conviction by a fine of not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not more than six months, or by both fine and imprisonment.

(2) If the defendant has been previously convicted once of a violation of any offense defined in this chapter or Section 415.5, by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not less than 10 days or more than six months, or by both imprisonment and a fine of not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), and shall not be released on probation, parole, or any other basis until he or she has served not less than 10 days.

(3) If the defendant has been previously convicted two or more times of a violation of any offense defined in this chapter or Section 415.5, by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not less than 90 days or more than six months, or by both imprisonment and a fine of not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), and shall not be released on probation, parole, or any other basis until he or she has served not less than 90 days.

(c) As used in this section:

(1) "Specified drug offender" means any person who, within the immediately preceding three years, has a felony or misdemeanor conviction of either:

(A) Unlawful sale, or possession for sale, of any controlled substance, as defined in Section 11007 of the Health and Safety Code.

(B) Unlawful use, possession, or being under the influence of any controlled substance, as defined in Section 11007 of the Health and Safety Code, where that conviction was based on conduct which occurred, wholly or partly, in any school building or upon any school ground, or adjacent street, sidewalk, or public way.

(2) "Continued pattern of unauthorized entry" means that on at least two prior occasions in the same calendar year the defendant came into any school building or upon any school ground, or adjacent street, sidewalk, or public way, and the defendant was asked to leave by a person specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a).

(3) "School" means any preschool or school having any of grades kindergarten to 12, inclusive.

(4) "School activity" means and includes any school session, any extracurricular activity or event sponsored by or participated in by the school, and the 30-minute periods immediately preceding and following any such session, activity, or event.

(d) When a person is directed to leave pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), the person directing him or her to leave shall inform the person that if he or she reenters the place he or she will be guilty of a crime.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to add Section 35021.1 to the Education Code, relating to school volunteers.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

SECTION 1. Section 35021.1 is added to the Education Code, to read:

35021.1. A school district or county office of education may request that a local law enforcement agency conduct an automated records check of a prospective nonteaching volunteer aide in order to ascertain whether the prospective nonteaching volunteer aide has been convicted of any sex offense as defined in Section 44010. A plea or verdict of guilty, a finding of guilt by a court in a trial without jury, or a conviction following a plea of nolo contendere shall be deemed to be a conviction within the meaning of this section. If the local law enforcement agency agrees to provide that automated records check, the results therefrom shall be returned to the requesting district or county office of education within 72 hours of the written request. A local law enforcement agency may charge a fee to the requesting agency not to exceed the actual expense to the law enforcement agency.

An act to add and repeal Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 32230) to Chapter 2 of Part 19 of the Education Code, relating to schools, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature hereby finds the following:

(1) According to the National Crime Study, approximately 3,000,000 crimes occur on or near school campuses each year. This translates into 16,000 crimes per school day or one crime every six seconds.

(2) According to Federal Bureau of Investigation statistics, more than 11,000 people died nationwide between 1980 and 1989 as a result of homicides committed by high school age youths using firearms, cutting instruments, or blunt objects.

(3) On California school campuses in the 1988–89 school year, the number of assaults increased by 16 percent from the previous year to 69,191. Armed assaults increased 25 percent to 1,830. From September 1986 to September 1990, there were 29 gun-related incidents resulting in 16 deaths and 45 injuries.

(4) Gun violence is on the rise in schools all over the United States. According to the Centers for Disease Control, one pupil in five reports carrying a weapon of some type and about one pupil in 20 reports carrying a gun.

(5) According to a study by the National Institute of Education, each month nearly 5,200 of the nation's 1,000,000 secondary school teachers are physically attacked on school grounds. Of these teachers, approximately 1,000 suffer serious injuries which require medical attention. In addition, each month approximately 130,000 teachers are burglarized and approximately 6,000 are robbed.

(b) The Legislature hereby declares the following:

(1) Many schools in California are in need of security and preventive programs in order to provide a safe school environment. School districts have reported an increasing number of serious incidents of violence on school campuses. The violence has adversely affected the educational environment on school campuses so that teachers are unable to teach and pupils are unable to learn.

(2) School districts have been unable to adequately fund their school safety programs and, therefore, are forced to use a greater amount of their general fund to pay for school security.

(3) The Legislature recognizes its responsibility to assist school districts in correcting safety problems in those schools where they exist and to prevent these problems from arising at all other schools.

SEC. 2. Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 32230) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 19 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 3.5. Conflict Resolution and School Violence Reduction Program

32230. It is the intent of the Legislature that schools receiving grants pursuant to this article accomplish the following goals:

(a) Teach pupils techniques for resolving conflicts without resorting to the use of violence.

(b) Train school staff and administrators to support and promote conflict resolution and mediation techniques for resolving conflicts between or among pupils.

(c) Reduce the incidents of violence at the schoolsite.

(d) Provide pupils with after school programs as positive alternatives to delinquent behavior.

32231. (a) The Conflict Resolution and School Violence Reduction Program is hereby established. This statewide grant program shall be coordinated through county offices of education to provide grants to schools for conflict resolution projects. Each county office of education shall do all of the following:

(1) No later than February 1, 1995, and no later than February 1 of each succeeding year through the 1996-97 school year, notify the Superintendent of Public Instruction of the intent of the county office of education to participate in the grant program.

(2) Notify schools within the jurisdiction of the county office of education of the availability of, and the process to be followed in applying for, grants under the grant program.

(3) Identify successful conflict resolution projects and techniques and incorporate those techniques into the criteria for review and selection of requests for proposals for grants.

(b) (1) If a county office of education chooses not to participate individually in the grant program, or if funding available through the grant program to an individual county office of education would be insufficient to conduct a conflict resolution project in accordance with the requirements of this article, several county offices of education may form a consortium to participate in the grant program and shall be subject to this article to the same extent as an individual county office of education.

(2) If a county office of education chooses not to participate in the grant program either individually or as part of a consortium, that portion of funding that the county office would have received for the grant program shall be distributed on a pro rata basis to participating county offices of education.

32233. (a) No later than March 1, 1995, and no later than March 1 of each succeeding year through the 1996–1997 school year, a county office of education that has notified the Superintendent of Public Instruction of its intent to participate in the grant program shall develop requests for proposals, pursuant to which that county office of education shall select grant recipients from schools within the jurisdiction of the county office of education.

(b) A participating county office of education shall give first priority to applicants for grants that submit proposals containing a component to train teams of school staff, administrators, and pupils who will ensure continuation of training in conflict resolution techniques after funding from the grant has ceased. A participating county office of education shall select any school within the jurisdiction of that county office of education to be a grant recipient based upon the following criteria:

(1) It demonstrates that violence at the schoolsite is a substantial and continuing problem for pupils and staff.

(2) It proposes ongoing training for pupils, school staff, and administrators in conflict resolution through the use of mediation.

(3) It proposes to expand existing after school opportunities as an alternative to delinquent behavior.

(4) The school staff and administrators at the school agree to participate in conflict mediation training.

(5) It submits a proposal in which monetary and in-kind support in addition to the funds provided through a grant is identified to promote the success of a conflict resolution project.

(6) It develops a plan, and demonstrates the ability, to share the successful components of its conflict resolution and school violence reduction program with other schools and school districts.

(c) Grant recipients shall be selected and notified no later than May 1, 1995, and no later than May 1 of each succeeding year through the 1996–97 school year.

32234. Conflict resolution projects funded pursuant to grants under this article shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(a) A component to teach pupils the skills necessary to reduce violence, including communication skills, anger management, bias reduction, and mediation skills.

(b) A component to train school staff and administrators to implement and support conflict resolution techniques.

(c) A component to make training in conflict resolution techniques available to parents or guardians of pupils or to community-based organizations that support the school.

32235. (a) There is hereby established in the General Fund a School Safety Account, which is hereby continuously appropriated for purposes of this article. Funds made available pursuant to Section 11489 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Chapter 314 of the Statutes of 1994, shall be deposited in the School Safety Account. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall allocate funds in the

(1) For the 1995-96 fiscal year, an amount not to exceed five million dollars ($5,000,000) for distribution in accordance with subdivision (b) to participating county offices of education for purposes of awarding grants pursuant to this article.

(3) An amount not to exceed one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) for the contract for the evaluation to be conducted pursuant to Section 32237.

(b) The superintendent shall retain 2 percent of the money to be allocated to county offices of education for the purposes specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (d), and shall distribute the funds specified in paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (a) as follows:

(1) Divide the total funds available for distribution pursuant to paragraph (1) and (2) of subdivision (a) in each applicable fiscal year by the total statewide number of units of average daily attendance for kindergarten and grades 1 to 12, inclusive, for the applicable fiscal year.

(2) Multiply the amount specified in paragraph (1) of this subdivision by the total number of units of average daily attendance generated by schools within the jurisdiction of the participating county offices of education for the applicable fiscal year.

(3) Distribute the product specified in paragraph (2) of this subdivision to each participating county office of education.

(c) The superintendent may allocate funds to any consortium of county offices of education participating in the grant program pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 32230. The amount allocated to the consortium shall be the total amount that would have been distributed to each individual county office of education in the consortium in the applicable fiscal year pursuant to subdivision (b) had that office received a grant on an individual basis.

(d) (1) Any participating county office of education or consortium of county offices of education may utilize no more than 5 percent of the funds received by that county office of education or consortium pursuant to this section for expenses associated with the implementation of the grant program.

(2) The State Department of Education may utilize no more than 2 percent of the funds appropriated from the School Safety Account for the purposes of this article for evaluation of the Conflict Resolution and School Violence Reduction Program and for the dissemination of information regarding successful programs that are developed and implemented by participating county offices of education to other county offices of education.

32237. (a) The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall contract for an ongoing independent evaluation of the effectiveness of conflict resolution projects funded by grants pursuant to this article. The evaluation shall determine the effectiveness of each project based upon all of the following criteria:

(1) A reduction in incidents of school violence at the schoolsite where the conflict resolution project is conducted.

(2) A reduction in the number of suspensions or expulsions of pupils for violent behavior at the schoolsite where the conflict resolution project is conducted.

(3) A comparison of incidents of school violence with schools of similar size and pupils of similar socioeconomic background as the schoolsite where the conflict resolution project is conducted.

(b) On or before June 1, 1996, the superintendent shall submit to the Legislature an interim evaluation report and on or before June 1, 1997, the superintendent shall submit to the Legislature a final evaluation report, both of which shall be based on the ongoing evaluation made pursuant to subdivision (a).

32239. This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1998, and shall have no force or effect on and after that date, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1998, deletes or extends that date.

An act to amend Sections 48260, 48260.5, and 48264 of, and to add Section 48264.5 to, the Education Code, to amend Section 13202.7 of the Vehicle Code, and to amend Sections 601 and 601.2 of, and to repeal Section 601.1 of, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to truancy.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

SECTION 1. Section 48260 of the Education Code is amended to read:

48260. Any pupil subject to compulsory full-time education or to compulsory continuation education who is absent from school without valid excuse three days in one school year or tardy without valid excuse in excess of 30 minutes on each of more than three days in one school year is a truant and shall be reported to the attendance supervisor or to the superintendent of the school district.

SEC. 2. Section 48260.5 of the Education Code is amended to read:

48260.5. Upon a pupil's initial classification as a truant, the school district shall notify the pupil's parent or guardian, by first-class mail or other reasonable means, of the following:

(a) That the pupil is truant.

(b) That the parent or guardian is obligated to compel the attendance of the pupil at school.

(c) That parents or guardians who fail to meet this obligation may be guilty of an infraction and subject to prosecution pursuant to Article 6 (commencing with Section 48290) of Chapter 2 of Part 27.

(d) That alternative educational programs are available in the district.

(e) That the parent or guardian has the right to meet with appropriate school personnel to discuss solutions to the pupil's truancy.

(f) That the pupil may be subject to prosecution under Section 48264.

(g) That the pupil may be subject to suspension, restriction, or delay of the pupil's driving privilege pursuant to Section 13202.7 of the Vehicle Code.

(h) That it is recommended that the parent or guardian accompany the pupil to school and attend classes with the pupil for one day.

SEC. 3. Section 48264 of the Education Code is amended to read: 48264. The attendance supervisor or his or her designee, a peace officer, a school administrator or his or her designee, or a probation officer may arrest or assume temporary custody, during school hours, of any minor subject to compulsory full-time education or to compulsory continuation education found away from his or her home and who is absent from school without valid excuse within the county, city, or city and county, or school district.

SEC. 4. Section 48264.5 is added to the Education Code, to read: 48264.5. Any minor who is a truant pursuant to Section 48260 is subject to the following:

(a) Upon the first truancy, the pupil may be personally given a written warning by any peace officer specified in Section 830.1 of the Penal Code. A record of the written warning may be kept at the school for a period of not less than two years, or until the pupil graduates, or transfers, from that school. If the pupil transfers, the record may be forwarded to any school receiving the pupil's school records. A record of the written warning may be maintained by the law enforcement agency in accordance with that law enforcement agency's policies and procedures.

(b) Upon the second truancy within the same school year, the pupil may be assigned by the school to an afterschool or weekend study program located within the same county as the pupil's school. If the pupil fails to successfully complete the assigned study program, the pupil shall be subject to subdivision (c).

(c) Upon the third truancy within the same school year, the pupil may be referred to, and required to attend, an attendance review board or a truancy mediation program pursuant to Section 48263 or pursuant to Section 601.3 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. If the district does not have a truancy mediation program, the pupil may be required to attend a comparable program deemed acceptable by the school district's attendance supervisor. If the pupil does not successfully complete the truancy mediation program or other similar program, the pupil shall be subject to subdivision (d).

(d) Upon the fourth truancy within the same school year, the pupil shall be classified a habitual truant, as defined in Section 48262, and shall be within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court which may adjudge such pupil to be a ward of the court pursuant to Section 601 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. If the pupil is adjudged a ward of the court, the pupil shall be required to do one or more of the following:

(1) Performance at court-approved community services sponsored by either a public or private nonprofit agency for not less than 20 hours but not more than 40 hours over a period not to exceed 90 days, during a time other than the pupil's hours of school attendance or employment. The probation officer shall report to the court the failure of the pupil to comply with this paragraph.

(2) Payment of a fine by the pupil of not more than one hundred dollars ($100) for which a parent or guardian of the pupil may be jointly liable.

(3) Attendance of a court-approved truancy prevention program.

(4) Suspension or revocation of driving privileges pursuant to Section 13202.7 of the Vehicle Code. This subdivision shall apply only to a pupil who has attended a school attendance review board program, a program operated by a probation department acting as a school attendance review board, or a truancy mediation program pursuant to subdivision (c).

SEC. 5. Section 13202.7 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

13202.7. (a) Any minor under the age of 18 years, but 13 years of age or older, who is an habitual truant within the meaning of Section 48262 of the Education Code, or who is adjudged by the juvenile court to be a ward of the court under subdivision (b) of Section 601 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, may have his or her driving privilege suspended for one year by the court. If the minor does not yet have the privilege to drive, the court may order the department to delay issuing the privilege to drive for one year subsequent to the time the person becomes legally eligible to drive. However, if there is no further truancy in the 12-month period, the court, upon petition of the person affected, may modify the order imposing the delay of the driving privilege. For each successive time the minor is found to be an habitual truant, the court may suspend the minor's driving privilege for a minor possessing a driver's license, or delay the eligibility for the driving privilege for those not in possession of a driver's license, for one additional year.

(b) Whenever the juvenile court suspends a minor's driving privilege pursuant to subdivision (a), the court may require all driver's licenses held by the minor to be surrendered to the court. The court shall, within 10 days following the surrender of the license, transmit a certified abstract of the findings, together with any driver's licenses surrendered, to the department.

(c) When the juvenile court is considering suspending or delaying a minor's driving privilege pursuant to subdivision (a), the court shall consider whether a personal or family hardship exists that requires the minor to have a driver's license for his or her own, or a member of his or her family's, employment or for medically related purposes.

(d) The suspension, restriction, or delay of a minor's driving privilege pursuant to this section shall be in addition to any other penalty imposed by law on the minor.

SEC. 6. Section 601 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

601. (a) Any person under the age of 18 years who persistently or habitually refuses to obey the reasonable and proper orders or directions of his or her parents, guardian, or custodian, or who is beyond the control of that person, or who is under the age of 18 years when he or she violated any ordinance of any city or county of this state establishing a curfew based solely on age is within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court which may adjudge the minor to be a ward of the court.

(b) If a minor has four or more trancies within one school year as defined in Section 48260 of the Education Code or a school attendance review board determines that the available public and private services are insufficient or inappropriate to correct the habitual truancy of the minor, or to correct the minor's persistent or habitual refusal to obey the reasonable and proper orders or directions of school authorities, or if the minor fails to respond to directives of a school attendance review board or to services provided, the minor is then within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court which may adjudge the minor to be a ward of the court. However, it is the intent of the Legislature that no minor who is adjudged a ward of the court pursuant solely to this subdivision shall be removed from the custody of the parent or guardian except during school hours.

(c) To the extent practically feasible, a minor who is adjudged a ward of the court pursuant to this section shall not be permitted to come into or remain in contact with any minor ordered to participate in a truancy program, or the equivalent thereof, pursuant to Section 602.

(d) Any peace officer or school administrator may issue a notice to appear to a minor who is within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court pursuant to this section.

SEC. 8. Section 601.2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

601.2. In the event that a parent or guardian or person in charge of a minor described in Section 48264.5 of the Education Code fails to respond to directives of the school attendance review board or to services offered on behalf of the minor, the school attendance review board shall direct that the minor be referred to the probation department or to the county welfare department under Section 300, and the school attendance review board may require the school district to file a complaint against the parent, guardian, or other person in charge of such minor as provided in Section 48291 or Section 48454 of the Education Code.

SEC. 9. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 48260.6, 48263, and 48263.5 of the Education Code, and to amend Sections 601 and 601.3 of, and to amend and repeal Section 601.1 of, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to juveniles.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 48260.6 of the Education Code is amended to read:

48260.6. (a) In any county which has not established a county school attendance review board pursuant to Section 48321, the school district may notify the district attorney or the probation officer, or both, of the county in which the school district is located, by first-class mail or other reasonable means, of the following if the district attorney or the probation officer has elected to participate in the truancy mediation program described in subdivision (d):

(1) The name of each pupil who has been classified as a truant.
(2) The name and address of the parent or guardian of each pupil who has been classified as a truant.

(b) The school district may also notify the district attorney or the probation officer, or both, as to whether the pupil continues to be classified as a truant after the parents have been notified pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 48260.5.

(c) In any county which has not established a county school attendance review board, the district attorney or the probation officer of the county in which the school district is located may notify the parents or guardians of every truant, by first-class mail or other reasonable means, that they may be subject to prosecution pursuant to Article 6 (commencing with Section 48290) of Chapter 2 of Part 27 for failure to compel the attendance of the pupil at school.

(d) If the district attorney or the probation officer, or both, are notified by a school district that a child continues to be classified as a truant after the parents or guardians have been notified pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 48260.5, the district attorney or the probation officer in any county which has not established a county school attendance review board may request the parents or guardians and the child to attend a meeting in the district attorney's office or at the probation department pursuant to Section 601.3 of the Welfare and Institutions Code to discuss the possible legal consequences of the child's truancy. Notice of the meeting shall be given pursuant to Section 601.3 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

SEC. 2. Section 48263 of the Education Code is amended to read:

48263. If any minor pupil in any district of a county is an habitual truant, or is irregular in attendance at school, as defined in this article, or is habitually insubordinate or disorderly during attendance at school, the pupil may be referred to a school attendance review board or to the probation department for services if the probation department has elected to receive these referrals. The supervisor of attendance, or any other persons the governing board of the school district or county may designate, making the referral shall notify the minor and parents or guardians of the minor, in writing, of the name and address of the board or probation department to which the matter has been referred and of the reason for the referral. The notice shall indicate that the pupil and parents or guardians of the pupil will be required, along with the referring person, to meet with the school attendance review board or probation officer to consider a proper disposition of the referral.

If the school attendance review board or probation officer determines that available community services can resolve the problem of the truant or insubordinate pupil, then the board or probation officer shall direct the pupil or the pupil's parents or guardians, or both, to make use of those community services. The school attendance review board or probation officer may require, at any time that it determines proper, the pupil or parents or guardians of the pupil, or both, to furnish satisfactory evidence of participation in the available community services.

If the school attendance review board or probation officer determines that available community services cannot resolve the problem of the truant or insubordinate pupil or if the pupil or the parents or guardians of the pupil, or both, have failed to respond to directives of the school attendance review board or probation officer or to services provided, the school attendance review board may, pursuant to Section 48263.5, notify the district attorney or the probation officer, or both, of the county in which the school district is located, or the probation officer may, pursuant to Section 48263.5, notify the district attorney, if the district attorney or the probation officer has elected to participate in the truancy mediation program described in that section. If the district attorney or the probation officer has not elected to participate in the truancy mediation program described in Section 48263.5, the school attendance review board or probation officer may direct the county superintendent of schools to, and, thereupon, the county superintendent of schools shall, request a petition on behalf of the pupil in the juvenile court of the county. Upon presentation of a petition on behalf of a pupil, the juvenile court of the county shall hear all evidence relating to the petition. The school attendance review board or the probation officer shall submit to the juvenile court documentation of efforts to secure attendance as well as its recommendations on what action the juvenile court shall take in order to bring about a proper disposition of the case.

In any county which has not established a school attendance review board, if the school district determines that available community resources cannot resolve the problem of the truant or insubordinate pupil, or if the pupil or the pupil's parents or guardians, or both, have failed to respond to the directives of the school district or the services provided, the school district, pursuant to Section 48260.6, may notify the district attorney or the probation officer, or both, of the county in which the school district is located, if the district attorney or the probation officer has elected to participate in the truancy mediation program described in Section 48260.6.

SEC. 3. Section 48263.5 of the Education Code is amended to read:

48263.5. (a) In any county which has established a county school attendance review board pursuant to Section 48321, the school attendance review board may notify the district attorney or the probation officer, or both, of the county in which the school district is located, or the probation officer may notify the district attorney, by first-class mail or other reasonable means, of the following if the district attorney or the probation officer has elected to participate in the truancy mediation program described in subdivision (b):

(1) The name of each pupil who has been classified as a truant and concerning whom the school attendance review board or the probation officer has determined:

(A) That available community services cannot resolve the truancy or insubordination problem.

(B) That the pupil or the parents or guardians of the pupil, or both, have failed to respond to directives of the school attendance review board or probation officer or to services provided.

(2) The name and address of the parent or guardian of each pupil described in paragraph (1).

(b) Upon receipt of notification provided pursuant to subdivision (a), the district attorney or the probation officer may notify the parents or guardians of each pupil concerning whom notification has been received, by first-class mail or other reasonable means, that they may be subject to prosecution pursuant to Article 6 (commencing with Section 48290) of Chapter 2 of Part 27 for failure to compel the attendance of the pupil at school. The district attorney or the probation officer may also request the parents or guardians and the child to attend a meeting in the district attorney's office or at the probation department pursuant to Section 601.3 of the Welfare and Institutions Code to discuss the possible legal consequences of the child's truancy. Notice of the meeting shall be given pursuant to Section 601.3 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

601. (a) Any person under the age of 18 years who persistently or habitually refuses to obey the reasonable and proper orders or directions of his or her parents, guardian, or custodian, or who is beyond the control of that person, or who is under the age of 18 years when he or she violated any ordinance of any city or county of this state establishing a curfew based solely on age is within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court which may adjudge the minor to be a ward of the court.

(b) If a school attendance review board or probation officer determines that the available public and private services are insufficient or inappropriate to correct the habitual truancy of the minor, or to correct the minor's persistent or habitual refusal to obey the reasonable and proper orders or directions of school authorities, or if the minor fails to respond to directives of a school attendance review board or probation officer or to services provided, the minor is then within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court which may adjudge the minor to be a ward of the court; provided, that it is the intent of the Legislature that no minor who is adjudged a ward of the court pursuant solely to this subdivision shall be removed from the custody of the parent or guardian except during school hours.

SEC. 4.1. Section 601 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

601. (a) Any person under the age of 18 years who persistently or habitually refuses to obey the reasonable and proper orders or directions of his or her parents, guardian, or custodian, or who is beyond the control of that person, or who is under the age of 18 years when he or she violated any ordinance of any city or county of this state establishing a curfew based solely on age is within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court which may adjudge the minor to be a ward of the court.

(b) If a minor has four or more trancies within one school year as defined in Section 48260 of the Education Code, and a school attendance review board or probation officer determines that the available public and private services are insufficient or inappropriate to correct the habitual truancy of the minor, or to correct the minor's persistent or habitual refusal to obey the reasonable and proper orders or directions of school authorities, or if the minor fails to respond to directives of a school attendance review board or probation officer or to services provided, the minor is then within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court which may adjudge the minor to be a ward of the court; provided, that it is the intent of the Legislature that no minor who is adjudged a ward of the court pursuant solely to this subdivision shall be removed from the custody of the parent or guardian except during school hours.

(c) To the extent practically feasible, a minor who is adjudged a ward of the court pursuant to this section shall not be permitted to come into or remain in contact with any minor ordered to participate in a truancy program, or the equivalent thereof, pursuant to Section 602.

(d) Any peace officer or school administrator may issue a notice to appear to a minor who is within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court pursuant to this section.

SEC. 4.2. Section 601 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

601. (a) Any person under the age of 18 years who persistently or habitually refuses to obey the reasonable and proper orders or directions of his or her parents, guardian, or custodian, or who is beyond the control of that person, or who is under the age of 18 years when he or she violated any ordinance of any city or county of this state establishing a curfew based solely on age is within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court which may adjudge the minor to be a ward of the court.

(b) If a minor has four or more truanancies within one school year as defined in Section 48260 of the Education Code or a school attendance review board or probation officer determines that the available public and private services are insufficient or inappropriate to correct the habitual truancy of the minor, or to correct the minor's persistent or habitual refusal to obey the reasonable and proper orders or directions of school authorities, or if the minor fails to respond to directives of a school attendance review board or probation officer or to services provided, the minor is then within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court which may adjudge the minor to be a ward of the court. However, it is the intent of the Legislature that no minor who is adjudged a ward of the court pursuant solely to this subdivision shall be removed from the custody of the parent or guardian except during school hours.

(c) To the extent practically feasible, a minor who is adjudged a ward of the court pursuant to this section shall not be permitted to come into or remain in contact with any minor ordered to participate in a truancy program, or the equivalent thereof, pursuant to Section 602.

(d) Any peace officer or school administrator may issue a notice to appear to a minor who is within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court pursuant to this section.

601.1. (a) Any person under the age of 18 years who persistently or habitually refuses to obey the reasonable and proper orders or directions of school authorities, and is thus beyond the control of those authorities, or who is a habitual truant from school within the meaning of any law of this state, shall, prior to any referral to the juvenile court of the county, be referred to a school attendance review board or to the probation department pursuant to Section 48263 of the Education Code, or to a truancy mediation program pursuant to Section 601.3 of this code, or to both a school attendance review board or the probation department and a truancy mediation program if that program has been established in the county.

(b) In addition to any other orders authorized by law, when, after an initial referral as required by subdivision (a), a minor is adjudged a ward of the court on the ground that he or she is a person described in Section 601 by reason of habitual truancy, the court may order the minor to participate in a specified community service or educational program sponsored by either a public or private agency. The minor's participation in the program shall be limited to nonschool hours. The court may order the probation officer to pick up and deliver the minor to the program designated by the court on the days that the minor is ordered to participate in the program.

To the extent practically feasible, such a minor shall not be permitted to come or remain in contact with minors ordered to participate in the program as a result of conduct described in Section 602. In no case may the court order that the minor be detained in any program overnight.

SEC. 6. Section 601.3 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

601.3. (a) If the district attorney or the probation officer receives notice from the school district pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 48260.6 of the Education Code that a minor continues to be classified as a truant after the parents or guardians have been notified pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 48260.5 of the Education Code, or if the district attorney or the probation officer receives notice from the school attendance review board, or the district attorney receives notice from the probation officer, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 48263.5 of the Education Code that a minor continues to be classified as a truant after review and counseling by the school attendance review board or probation officer, the district attorney or the probation officer, or both, may request the parents or guardians and the child to attend a meeting in the district attorney's office or at the probation department to discuss the possible legal consequences of the minor's truancy.

(b) Notice of a meeting to be held pursuant to this section shall contain all of the following:

(1) The name and address of the person to whom the notice is directed.

- (2) The date, time, and place of the meeting.
- (3) The name of the minor classified as a truant.
- (4) The section pursuant to which the meeting is requested.
- (5) Notice that the district attorney may file a criminal complaint against the parents or guardians pursuant to Section 48293 of the Education Code for failure to compel the attendance of the minor at school.

(c) Notice of a meeting to be held pursuant to this section shall be served at least five days prior to the meeting on each person required to attend the meeting. Service shall be made personally or by certified mail with return receipt requested.

(d) At the commencement of the meeting authorized by this section, the district attorney or the probation officer shall advise the parents or guardians and the child that any statements they make could be used against them in subsequent court proceedings.

(e) Upon completion of the meeting authorized by this section, the probation officer or the district attorney, after consultation with the probation officer, may file a petition pursuant to Section 601 if the district attorney or the probation officer determines that available community resources cannot resolve the truancy problem, or if the pupil or the parents or guardians of the pupil, or both, have failed to respond to services provided or to the directives of the school, the school attendance review board, the probation officer, or the district attorney.

(f) The truancy mediation program authorized by this section may be established by the district attorney or by the probation officer. The district attorney and the probation officer shall coordinate their efforts and shall cooperate in determining which office is best able to operate a truancy mediation program in their county pursuant to this section.

SEC. 7. (a) Section 4.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 601 of the Welfare and Institutions Code proposed by both this bill and AB 55 of the First Extraordinary Session of the Legislature. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective, (2) each bill amends Section 601 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, (3) SB 1728 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 55, in which case one of the following alternatives shall be applicable:

(A) If this bill becomes operative before AB 55, Section 4 of this bill shall be operative until the operative date of AB 55, at which time Section 4.1 of this bill shall become operative.

(B) If this bill becomes operative after AB 55, Section 601 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as amended by AB 55, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 4.1 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 4 of this bill shall not become operative.

(b) Section 4.2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 601 of the Welfare and Institutions Code proposed by both this bill and SB 1728. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 601 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, (3) AB 55 of the First Extraordinary Session of the Legislature is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after SB 1728 in which case Sections 4, and 4.1 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 8. Section 5.5 of this bill shall only become operative if this bill and either SB 1728, or AB 55 of the First Extraordinary Session of the Legislature, or all three bills, are enacted and this bill is enacted last, in which case Section 5 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 9. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Section 97.09 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to property tax revenue allocations.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 97.09 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

97.09. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, in the County of Santa Cruz, the auditor shall, for the 1993-94, 1994-95, 1995-96, and 1996-97 fiscal years, inclusive, only, deposit those property tax revenues that would otherwise be allocated to enterprise special districts in a Supplemental Allocation Fund. The county board of supervisors shall allocate moneys in the fund for the 1993-94, 1994-95, 1995-96, and 1996-97 fiscal years, inclusive, only to either enterprise special districts or the County Library Fund.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares that a special law is necessary and that a general law cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution because of the unique impacts being suffered by the County of Santa Cruz in providing essential local library services as a result of the application of property tax revenue allocation requirements.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to add Title 2.96 (commencing with Section 1812.620) to Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, relating to sales.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Title 2.96 (commencing with Section 1812.620) is added to Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, to read:

TITLE 2.96. CALIFORNIA RENTAL-PURCHASE ACT

1812.620. This title shall be known and may be cited as the Karnette Rental-Purchase Act.

1812.621. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that consumers enter into rental-purchase contracts that do not adequately disclose the actual terms and cost of the transaction or the consumer's liability for certain breaches of the contract, and that contain unfair provisions, including unfair terms related to fees and charges, the exercise or the termination of purchase option rights, property loss and damage, and the repair or replacement of improperly functioning rental property.

It is, therefore, the intent of the Legislature in enacting this title to ensure that consumers are protected from misrepresentations and unfair dealings by ensuring that consumers are adequately informed of all relevant terms, including the cash price, periodic payments, total purchase price, and other applicable charges or fees, before they enter into rental-purchase contracts.

It is further the intent of the Legislature to (a) prohibit unfair or unconscionable conduct toward consumers in connection with rental-purchase transactions, (b) prohibit unfair contract terms, including unreasonable charges, (c) prevent the forfeiture of contract rights by consumers, (d) provide a right of reinstatement and a reasonable formula for the exercise of purchase option rights under a rental-purchase contract, (e) provide reasonable requirements for the servicing, repair, and replacement of improperly functioning rental property, and (f) cover rental-purchase transactions under existing laws, including laws governing debt collection, cosigners, home solicitation contracts, and warranties. This title shall be liberally construed to achieve its remedial objectives.

(a) "Advertisement" means a commercial message in any medium that directly or indirectly solicits or promotes one or more specific rental-purchase transactions, excluding instore merchandising aids. This definition does not limit or alter the application of other laws, including Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 17200) of Part 2 and Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 17500) of Part 3, of Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code, to rental-purchase transactions.

(b) "Consumer" means a natural person or persons who rent or lease personal property from a lessor pursuant to a rental-purchase agreement or to whom a lessor offers personal property for use pursuant to a rental-purchase agreement.

(c) "Lessor" means any person or entity that provides or offers to provide personal property for use by consumers pursuant to a rental-purchase agreement.

(d) "Rental-purchase agreement," except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, means an agreement between a lessor and a consumer pursuant to which the lessor rents or leases, for valuable consideration, personal property for use by a consumer for personal, family, or household purposes for an initial term not exceeding four months that may be renewed or otherwise extended, if under the terms of the agreement the consumer acquires an option or other legally enforceable right to become owner of the property. A rental-purchase agreement is a lease subject to Title 1.5 (commencing with Section 1750) and Title 1.7 (commencing with Section 1790).

"Rental-purchase agreement" shall not be construed to be, nor be governed by, and shall not apply to, any of the following:

- (1) A retail installment sale, as defined in Section 1802.5.
- (2) A retail installment contract, as defined in Section 1802.6.
- (3) A retail installment account, as defined in Section 1802.7.
- (4) A lease or agreement that constitutes a security interest, as defined in Section 1201 of the Commercial Code.
- (5) A consumer credit contract, as defined in Section 1799.90.

(e) "Cash price" means the price at which retail sellers are selling and retail buyers are buying the same or similar property for cash in the same trade area in which the lessor's place of business is located. Cash price may be evidenced as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 1812.644.

(f) "Cost of rental" means the difference between the total of all periodic payments necessary to acquire ownership under the rental-purchase agreement and the cash price of the rental property that is subject to the rental-purchase agreement.

(g) "Fee" means any payment, charge, fee, cost, or expense, however denominated, other than a rental payment.

1812.623. (a) Every rental-purchase agreement shall be contained in a single document which shall set forth all of the agreements of the lessor and the consumer with respect to the rights and obligations of each party. Every rental-purchase agreement shall be written in at least 10-point type in the same language as principally used in any oral sales presentation or negotiations leading to the execution of the agreement, and shall clearly and conspicuously disclose all of the following:

(1) The names of the lessor and the consumer, the lessor's business address and telephone number, the consumer's address, the date on which the agreement is executed, and a description of the property sufficient to identify it.

(2) Whether the property subject to the rental-purchase agreement is new or used. If the property is new, the lessor shall disclose the model year or, if the model year is not known by the lessor, the date of the lessor's acquisition of the property. If the property is used, the age or the model year shall be disclosed if known by the lessor.

(3) The minimum period for which the consumer is obligated under the rental-purchase agreement; the duration of the rental-purchase agreement if all regularly scheduled periodic payments are made, designated as the "rental period"; and the amount of each periodic payment.

(4) The total number and the total amount of periodic payments necessary to acquire ownership of the property if the renter makes all regularly scheduled periodic payments.

(5) The cash price of the property subject to the rental purchase agreement.

(6) The cost of rental.

(7) The amount and purpose of any other payment or fee permitted by this title in addition to those specified pursuant to paragraphs (3) and (4), including any late payment fee.

(8) A statement that the total number and dollar amount of payments necessary to acquire ownership of the rental property disclosed under paragraph (4) does not include other fees permitted by this title, such as late payment fees, and that the consumer should read the rental-purchase agreement for an explanation of any applicable additional fees.

(9) Whether the consumer is liable for loss or damage to the rental property and, if so, the maximum amount for which the consumer may be liable as provided in subdivision (a) of Section 1812.627.

(10) The following notice:

You are renting this property. You will not own it until you make all of the regularly scheduled payments or you use the early purchase option.

You do not have the right to keep the property if you do not make required payments or do not use the early purchase option. If you miss a payment, the lessor can repossess the property, but, you may have the right to the return of the same or similar property.

See the contract for an explanation of your rights.

(11) A description of the consumer's right to acquire ownership of the property before the end of the rental period as provided in subdivision (a) of Section 1812.632.

(12) A description of the consumer's reinstatement rights as provided in Section 1812.631.

(13) If warranty coverage is transferable to a consumer who acquires ownership of the property, a statement that the unexpired portion of all warranties provided by the manufacturer, distributor, or seller of the property that is the subject of the rental-purchase agreement will be transferred by the lessor to the consumer at the time the consumer acquires ownership of the property from the lessor.

(14) A description of the lessor's obligation to maintain the rental property and to repair or replace rental property that is not operating properly, as provided in Section 1812.633.

(b) (1) The disclosures required by paragraphs (3), (4), (9), and (10) of subdivision (a) shall be printed in at least 10-point boldface type or capital letters if typed and shall be grouped together in a box formed by a heavy line in the following form:

TOTAL OF PAYMENTS $ You must pay this amount to own the property if you make all the regular payments. You can buy the property for less under the early purchase option.	COST OF RENTAL $ Amount over cash price you will pay if you make all regular payments.	CASH PRICE $ Property available at this price for cash from retailers in this area.

(c) The disclosures required by paragraphs (3), (4), (9), and (10) of subdivision (a) shall be grouped together in a box formed by a heavy line in the form prescribed in subdivision (b) and shall be clearly and conspicuously placed on a tag or sticker affixed to the property available for rental-purchase. If the property available for rental-purchase is not displayed at the lessor's place of business but appears in a photograph or catalog shown to consumers, a tag or sticker shall be affixed to the photograph of the property or catalog shown to consumers or shall be given to consumers. The disclosure required by paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) also shall be clearly and conspicuously placed on the tag or sticker.

(d) All disclosures required by this section shall be printed or typed in a color or shade that clearly contrasts with the background.

1812.624. (a) No rental-purchase agreement or any document that the lessor requests the consumer to sign shall contain any provision by which:

(1) A power of attorney is given to confess judgment in this state or to appoint the lessor, its agents, or its successors in interest as the consumer's agent in the collection of payments or the repossession of the rental property.

(2) The consumer authorizes the lessor or its agent to commit any breach of the peace in repossessing the rental property or to enter the consumer's dwelling or other premises without obtaining the consumer's consent at the time of entry.

(3) The consumer agrees to purchase from the lessor insurance or a liability waiver against loss or damage to the rental property.

(4) The consumer waives or agrees to waive any defense, counterclaim, or right the consumer may have against the lessor, its agent, or its successor in interest.

(5) The consumer is required to pay any fee in connection with reinstatement except as provided in Section 1812.631.

(6) The consumer is required to pay a fee in connection with the pickup of the property or the termination or rescission of the rental-purchase agreement.

(7) The consumer is required to pay any fee permitted by the rental-purchase agreement and this title that is not reasonable and actually incurred by the lessor. The lessor has the burden of proof to establish that a fee was reasonable and was an actual cost incurred by the lessor.

(8) The consumer is required to pay a downpayment, more than one advance periodic rental payment, or any other payment except a security deposit permitted under Section 1812.625.

(9) Except to the extent permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 1812.627, the consumer waives any rights under Sections 1928 or 1929.

(10) The consumer grants a security interest in any property.

(11) The consumer's liability for loss or damage to the property which is the subject of the rental-purchase agreement may exceed the maximum described in subdivision (a) of Section 1812.627.

(12) Except under the circumstances authorized by subdivision (a) of Section 1812.632, the consumer is obligated to make any balloon payment. A "balloon payment" is any payment for the purchase or use of the rental property which is more than the regularly scheduled periodic payment amount.

(13) The consumer is required to pay a late payment fee that is not permitted under Section 1812.626.

(14) The consumer is required to pay both a late payment fee and a fee for the lessor's collection of a past due payment at the consumer's home or other location.

(15) The consumer waives or offers to waive any right or remedy against the lessor, its agents, or its successors in interest for any violation of this title or any other illegal act. This subdivision does not apply to a document executed in connection with the bona fide settlement, compromise, or release of a specific disputed claim.

(16) The lessor, its agents, or its successors in interest may commence any judicial action against the consumer in a county or judicial district other than the county or judicial district in which (1) the rental-purchase agreement was signed or (2) the consumer resides at the time the action is commenced.

(17) The amount stated as the cash price for any item of used personal property exceeds the cash price for the same or similar item of new personal property.

(b) Any provision in a rental-purchase agreement that is prohibited by this title shall be void and unenforceable and a violation of this title. A rental-purchase agreement which contains any provision that is prohibited by this title is voidable by the consumer.

1812.625. (a) The lessor may require the consumer to pay a security deposit, however denominated, in an amount not to exceed the equivalent of one month's rental only for the purpose of satisfying any lawful claim by the lessor, up to the maximum described in subdivision (a) of Section 1812.627, for those amounts reasonably necessary to pay for the loss of the property or the repair of damage, exclusive of reasonable wear and tear.

(b) Within two weeks after the lessor has taken possession of the property from the consumer, the lessor shall deliver to the consumer the amount of the security deposit less the amount, if any, deducted for loss or repair as permitted by this title. If any amount is deducted, the lessor shall also deliver to the consumer at that time a copy of an itemized statement indicating the amount of the security deposit, the amount deducted for loss or repair, and a detailed statement of the basis for the deduction. Delivery may be made by personal delivery or by first-class mail, postage prepaid.

1812.626. (a) The lessor may assess a late payment fee if the late payment fee is specified in the rental-purchase agreement and is permitted by this section.

(b) No fee shall be assessed for a payment which is less than three days late if the rental-purchase agreement specifies weekly periodic payments.

(c) No fee shall be assessed for a payment which is less than 7 days late if the rental-purchase agreement specifies longer than weekly periodic payments.

(d) The lessor may assess more than one late fee for a particular late payment if the total of all fees assessed for that late payment does not exceed the maximum provided in subdivision (e). If the maximum total late payment fee has been imposed for a particular payment, no additional late payment fee may be imposed for that payment.

(e) The total of all fees for a late payment shall not exceed the lesser of 5 percent of the payment or five dollars ($5), except that a minimum total fee of two dollars ($2) may be required.

1812.627. (a) The consumer's liability for loss or damage to the property which is the subject of the rental-purchase agreement shall in no event exceed the lesser of (1) the fair market value at the time of the loss or damage or (2) the amount that would be necessary for the renter to exercise the purchase option provided in subdivision (a) of Section 1812.632.

(b) A lessor and a consumer may agree that the consumer may be liable for loss only up to the maximum amount described in subdivision (a) and only for one of the following:

(1) Loss caused by the consumer's negligent, reckless, or intentional acts.

(2) Loss caused by the theft of the property subject to the rental-purchase agreement unless one of the following is applicable:

(A) There is evidence of a burglary of the premises in which the property is located, such as physical evidence or an official report filed by the consumer with the police or other law enforcement agency.

(B) The consumer establishes by the preponderance of the evidence that the consumer has not committed or aided or abetted in the commission of the theft of the property.

1812.628. (a) In addition to the circumstances described in subdivision (a) of Section 1689.5, a rental-purchase agreement regardless of the amount involved shall be deemed a home solicitation contract or offer if the rental-purchase agreement has an initial term that exceeds one week and was made at other than appropriate trade premises, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 1689.5.

(b) In addition to any other right of cancellation, a consumer has the right to cancel a rental-purchase agreement, without penalty or obligation if the consumer has not taken possession of the property.

1812.629. (a) Upon the request of the consumer, the lessor shall provide the information as required by subdivision (b) of Section 1812.623 in an exemplar of the rental-purchase agreement covering the property specified by the consumer and shall provide the consumer with a copy of the proposed rental-purchase agreement prior to its execution. The consumer may take this copy from the lessor's premises.

(b) The lessor shall not obtain the consumer's signature to a rental-purchase agreement if it contains blank spaces to be filled in after it has been signed.

(c) A copy of the fully completed rental-purchase agreement and all other documents which the lessor requests the consumer to sign shall be given to the consumer at the time they are signed. The rental-purchase agreement shall not be enforceable against the consumer until the consumer has received a signed copy.

(d) The lessor shall deliver to the consumer a written receipt for each payment made by the consumer.

1812.630. (a) (1) Any advertisement of a rental-purchase agreement that states the amount of any payment shall clearly and conspicuously disclose all of the following in the same language used in the advertisement:

(A) That the agreement advertised is a rental-purchase agreement.

(B) That the property is used if that is the case.

(C) That ownership is not acquired until all of the payments necessary to acquire ownership have been made.

(D) The total amount and number of periodic payments necessary to acquire ownership.

(2) If more than one item is advertised in one print advertisement, the lessor may comply with paragraph (1) by clearly and conspicuously including in the advertisement a table or schedule sufficient in detail to permit determination of the total amount and number of periodic payments necessary to acquire ownership of the items advertised having the highest and lowest total amount of periodic payments necessary to acquire ownership.

(b) A lessor who advertises "no credit check" or otherwise states or implies that no inquiry will be made of a consumer's credit history or creditworthiness shall not (1) make any inquiry or request a consumer to complete any document concerning the consumer's assets or credit history, (2) obtain a consumer credit report as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 1785.3, or (3) obtain an investigative consumer report as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 1786.2.

1812.631. (a) A consumer may be deemed in default under the rental-purchase agreement if either of the following applies:

(1) The rental-purchase agreement requires weekly periodic rental payments and the consumer has not made a payment by the end of the seventh day after its due date.

(2) The rental-purchase agreement requires rental payments in periodic intervals longer than one week and the consumer has not made a payment by the end of the 10th day after its due date.

(b) A consumer who is in default under a rental-purchase agreement requiring weekly periodic rental payments may reinstate the rental-purchase agreement, without losing any rights or options under that agreement, by paying all past due payments, including late payment fees, by the end of the seventh day after the due date of the payment in default if the consumer retains possession of the property and within one year after the due date of the payment in default if the consumer returns or tenders the property to the lessor, unless the lessor permits the consumer to retain the property during this period.

(c) A consumer who is in default under a rental-purchase agreement requiring rental payments in periodic intervals longer than one week may reinstate the rental-purchase agreement, without losing any rights or options under that agreement, by paying all past due payments, including late payment fees, by the end of the 10th day after the due date of the payment in default if the consumer retains possession of the property and within one year after the due date of the payment in default if the consumer returns or tenders the property to the lessor, unless the lessor permits the consumer to retain the property during this period.

(d) Upon reinstatement, the lessor shall provide the consumer with the same rental property, if available, or substitute property of the same brand, if available, and comparable quality, age, condition, and warranty coverage. If substitute property is provided, the lessor shall provide the lessee with the disclosures required in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 1812.623.

(e) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), a lessor shall not deny a consumer the right of reinstatement provided in this section.

(2) This section does not apply to a consumer who has (A) stolen or unlawfully disposed of the property, (B) damaged the property as the result of the consumer's intentional, willful, wanton, or reckless conduct, or (C) defaulted in making payments as described in subdivision (a) on three consecutive occasions.

(3) If the lessor denies a consumer the right to reinstate pursuant to paragraph (2), the lessor has the burden of proof to establish that the denial was in good faith and was permitted under paragraph (2).

1812.632. (a) The consumer has the right to acquire ownership of the property at any time after the initial payment by tendering to the lessor all past due payments and fees and an amount equal to the cash price stated in the rental-purchase agreement multiplied by a fraction that has as its numerator the number of periodic payments remaining under the agreement and that has as its denominator the total number of periodic payments.

(b) (1) The lessor shall provide the consumer with a written statement in the manner set forth in paragraph (2) below that clearly states (A) the total amount the consumer would have to pay to acquire ownership of the rental property if the consumer makes all regularly scheduled payments remaining under the rental-purchase agreement and (B) the total amount the consumer would have to pay to acquire ownership of that property pursuant to subdivision (a).

(2) The statement required by paragraph (1) shall be personally delivered or sent by first-class mail to the consumer within seven days after (A) the date the consumer requests information about the amount required to purchase the rental property and (B) the date the consumer has made one-half of the total number of periodic payments required to acquire ownership of the rental property. The statement shall not be accompanied by any other written information including solicitations for other rental-purchase agreements.

(c) (1) Subject to paragraph (2), if any consumer who has signed the rental-purchase agreement has experienced an interruption or reduction of 25 percent or more of income due to involuntary job loss, involuntary reduced employment, illness, pregnancy, or disability after one-half or more of the total amount of the periodic payments necessary to acquire ownership under the agreement has been paid, the lessor shall reduce the amount of each periodic rental payment by (A) the percentage of the reduction in the consumer's income or (B) 50 percent, whichever is less, for the period during which the consumer's income is interrupted or reduced. If payments are reduced, the total dollar amount of payments necessary to acquire ownership shall not be increased, and the rights and duties of the lessor and the consumer shall not otherwise be affected. When the consumer's income is restored, the lessor may increase the amount of rental payments, but in no event shall rental payments exceed the originally scheduled amount of rental payments.

(2) Paragraph (1) applies only after the consumer provides to the lessor some evidence of the amount and cause of the interruption or reduction of income.

1812.633. (a) The lessor shall maintain the property subject to the rental-purchase agreement in good working order while the agreement is in effect without charging any fee to the consumer in addition to the regularly scheduled rental payments set forth in the rental-purchase agreement.

(b) By the end of the second business day following the day on which the lessor received notice from the consumer that the property is not operating properly, the lessor shall repair or replace the property without any fee to the consumer in addition to the regularly scheduled rental payments set forth in the rental-purchase agreement.

(c) If a repair or replacement cannot be immediately effected, the lessor shall temporarily substitute property of comparable quality and condition while repairs are being effected. If repairs cannot be completed to the reasonable satisfaction of the consumer within 30 days after the lessor receives notice from the consumer or within a longer period voluntarily agreed to by the consumer, the lessor shall permanently replace the property.

(d) All replacement property shall be the same brand, if available, and comparable in quality, age, condition, and warranty coverage to the replaced property. If the same brand is not available, the brand of the replacement property shall be agreeable to the consumer.

(e) All of the consumer's and lessor's rights and obligations under the rental-purchase agreement and this title that applied to the property originally subject to the rental-purchase agreement shall apply to any replacement property.

(f) The consumer shall not be charged, or held liable for, any rental fee for any period of time during which the property that is the subject of the rental-purchase agreement or any property substituted for it pursuant to this section is not in good working order.

(g) This section does not apply to the repair of damage resulting from the consumer's intentional, willful, wanton, reckless, or negligent conduct. If the lessor does not comply with this section because of this subdivision, the lessor has the burden of proof to establish that noncompliance was justified and in good faith.

(h) A lessor shall not deliver to a consumer any property which the lessor knows or has reason to know is defective.

1812.634. When the lessor transfers ownership of the rental property, the lessor shall also transfer to the consumer the unexpired portion of any transferable warranties provided by the manufacturer, distributor, or seller of the rental property, and these warranties shall apply as if the consumer were the original purchaser of the goods.

1812.635. (a) A lessor shall not sell, or offer for sale, a service contract for the rental property if that service contract provides any coverage while the rental-purchase agreement is in effect.

(b) A lessor may sell, or offer for sale, a service contract providing coverage for the rental property after the consumer acquires ownership of that property, if both of the following conditions are satisfied:

(1) The lessor does not sell, or offer to sell, the service contract before (A) the consumer pays at least one-half of the total number of periodic payments necessary to acquire ownership of the property or (B) the consumer acquires ownership of the property, as provided in Section 1812.632, whichever occurs first.

(2) The lessor clearly and conspicuously indicates to the consumer in writing before the consumer's purchase of the service contract that the purchase is optional.

(c) If the consumer chooses to purchase a service contract before the expiration of the rental-purchase agreement and defaults or otherwise does not make all payments necessary to acquire ownership within the rental period specified in the agreement, the lessor shall refund all consideration paid for the service contract to the consumer within two weeks after the lessor has received the consumer's last rental payment. This subdivision does not limit or alter any of the consumer's cancellation or refund rights under the service contract or under other provisions of law.

(d) "Service contract" has the meaning set forth in subdivision (o) of Section 1791.

1812.636. (a) A consumer damaged by a violation of this title by a lessor is entitled to recover all of the following:

(2) Twenty-five percent of an amount equal to the total amount of payments required to obtain ownership if all payments were made under the rental-purchase agreement, but not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(3) The consumer's reasonable attorney's fees and court costs.

(4) Exemplary damages, in the amount the court deems proper, for intentional or willful violations of this title.

(5) Equitable relief as the court deems proper.

(b) Where more than one consumer is a party to a rental-purchase agreement, the limitations of subdivision (a) shall apply to all those consumers in the aggregate, and no more than one recovery shall be permitted for each violation.

1812.637. (a) A lessor is not liable for a violation of this title if, before the 30th calendar day after the date the lessor discovers a bona fide error and before an action under this title is filed or written notice of the error is received by the lessor from the consumer, the lessor gives the consumer written notice of the error. "Bona fide error," as used in this section, means a violation that was not intentional and resulted from a bona fide error notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adapted to avoid that error. Examples of a bona fide error include clerical errors, calculation errors, errors due to unintentionally improper computer programming or data entry, and printing errors, but does not include an error of legal judgment with respect to a lessor's obligations under this title.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), if the lessor notifies the consumer of a bona fide error the correction of which would increase the amount of any payment, the lessor may not collect the amount of the increase, and the consumer may enforce the rental-purchase agreement as initially written.

1812.638. (a) A lessor shall not engage in any unfair, unlawful, or deceptive conduct, or make any untrue or misleading statement in connection with the collection of any payment owed by a consumer or the repossession of any property or attempt to collect or collect any payment in a manner that would be unlawful to collect a debt pursuant to Title 1.6C (commencing with Section 1788).

(b) All of the following apply to any communication by a lessor with any person other than the consumer for the purpose of acquiring information about the location of a consumer or of any rental property:

(1) The lessor shall identify itself and state that the lessor is confirming or correcting location information concerning the consumer.

(2) The lessor shall not communicate with any person more than once unless requested to do so by the person or unless the lessor reasonably believes that the earlier response is erroneous or incomplete and that the person now has correct or complete location information.

(3) The lessor shall not communicate by postcard.

(4) The lessor shall not use any language or symbol on any envelope or in the contents of any communication that indicates that the communication relates to the collection of any payment or the recovery or repossession of rental property.

(5) The lessor shall not communicate with any person other than the consumer's attorney, after the lessor knows the consumer is represented by an attorney with regard to the rental-purchase agreement and has knowledge of, or can readily ascertain, the attorney's name and address, unless the attorney fails to respond within a reasonable period of time to communication from the lessor or unless the attorney consents to direct communication with the consumer.

(c) Without the prior consent of the consumer given directly to the lessor or the express permission of a court of competent jurisdiction, a lessor shall not communicate with a consumer in connection with the collection of any payment or the recovery or repossession of rental property at any of the following:

(1) The consumer's place of employment.

(2) Any unusual time or place or a time or place known or that should be known to be inconvenient to the consumer. In the absence of knowledge of circumstances to the contrary, a lessor shall assume that the convenient time for communicating with a consumer is after 8 a.m. and before 9 p.m., local time at the consumer's location.

(d) A lessor shall not communicate, in connection with the rental-purchase agreement, with any person other than the consumer, the consumer's attorney, or the lessor's attorney, except to the extent the communication is any of the following:

(1) Reasonably necessary to acquire location information concerning the consumer or the rental property, as provided in subdivision (b).

(2) Upon the prior consent of the consumer given directly to the lessor.

(3) Upon the express permission of a court of competent jurisdiction.

(4) Reasonably necessary to effectuate a postjudgment judicial remedy.

(e) If a consumer notifies the lessor in writing that the consumer wishes the lessor to cease further communication with the consumer, the lessor shall not communicate further with the consumer with respect to the rental-purchase agreement, except for any of the following:

(1) To advise the consumer that the lessor's further efforts are being terminated.

(2) To notify the consumer that the lessor may invoke specified remedies allowable by law which are ordinarily invoked by the lessor.

(3) Where necessary to effectuate any postjudgment remedy.

(f) A lessor shall not harass, oppress, or abuse any person in connection with a rental-purchase agreement, including engaging in any of the following conduct:

(1) Using or threatening the use of violence or any criminal means to harm the physical person, reputation, or property of any person.

(2) Using obscene, profane, or abusive language.

(3) Causing a telephone to ring, or engaging any person in telephone conversation repeatedly or continuously with intent to annoy, abuse, or harass any person.

(4) Placing telephone calls without disclosure of the caller's identity.

1812.639. A lessor shall not engage in any unfair, unlawful, or deceptive conduct or make any untrue or misleading statement in connection with a rental-purchase agreement, including any violation of this title.

1812.640. A lessor shall not report any late payment, default, or repossession to a consumer credit reporting agency, as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 1785.3, or to an investigative consumer reporting agency, as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 1786.2 if the lessor (a) advertises "no credit check" or otherwise states or implies that no inquiry will be made of a consumer's credit history or creditworthiness or (b) does not obtain a consumer credit report or investigative consumer report on a consumer before entering into a rental-purchase agreement with that consumer.

1812.641. (a) A lessor shall not send any solicitation or other promotional material to a person identified by the consumer as a reference to verify the consumer's income, assets, credit history, or residence unless all of the following occur:

(1) The lessor clearly discloses in the rental-purchase agreement or application that (A) the lessor may send solicitations or other promotional material to references provided by the consumer unless the consumer objects and (B) the consumer has the right to object without incurring any additional rental charge or fee or any loss of contractual rights.

(2) A space on the rental-purchase agreement or application adjacent to the disclosure described in paragraph (1) is provided for the consumer to indicate the consumer's approval or disapproval of the lessor's sending solicitations or other promotional material.

(3) The consumer affirmatively indicates approval.

(4) The lessor does not vary any term required to be disclosed pursuant to Section 1812.623 depending on whether the consumer approves or disapproves of the lessor's sending of solicitations or other promotional material to references.

(b) The first solicitation or other promotional material directed to a person whom the consumer has identified as a reference shall clearly offer the reference the opportunity, without cost, to instruct the lessor to refrain from sending further solicitations or other promotional material to the reference. If so instructed, the lessor shall not send any further solicitations or other promotional material to the reference and shall remove the reference's name and address from the lessor's mailing list.

(c) This section shall not apply to solicitations or other promotional material sent generally to people solely on the basis of demographic, geographic, or postal zip code criteria and without regard to whether the people have been identified as references by consumers.

1812.642. A lessor shall not discriminate against a prospective consumer on any ground that would be a prohibited basis for a creditor to discriminate against an applicant for credit as provided in the Equal Credit Opportunity Act (15 U.S.C. Sec. 1691 et seq.) and Regulation B (12 C.F.R. Part 202) as if they applied to a rental-purchase agreement. Nothing in this section shall be construed in any manner to mean that a rental-purchase agreement is a credit transaction.

1812.643. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), a lessor who obtains the signature of more than one person on a rental-purchase agreement shall deliver the notice set forth in subdivision (c) to each person before that person signs the agreement.

(b) This section does not apply if the persons signing the agreement are married to each other or in fact receive possession of the property described in the agreement.

(c) The notice required by this section is as follows:

If you sign this contract, you will have the same responsibility for the property and the same obligation to make payments that every renter has.

If any renter does not pay, you may have to pay the full amount owed, including late fees, and you may have to pay for certain loss or damage to the property.

The lessor may collect from you without first trying to collect from any other renter. The lessor can use the same collection methods against you that can be used against any renter, such as suing you or garnishing your wages.

This notice is not the contract that makes you responsible.

Before you sign, be sure you can afford to pay if you have to, and that you want to accept this responsibility.”

(d) The notice required by subdivision (c) shall be printed in at least 10-point boldface type in English and Spanish. If the rental-purchase agreement is required to be written in a language other than English or Spanish, the notice shall be written in English and, in addition or in lieu of Spanish, in that other language.

(e) If the notice set forth in subdivision (c) is included with the text of the rental-purchase agreement, the notice shall appear immediately above or adjacent to the disclosures required by subdivision (b) of Section 1812.623. If the notice is not included with the text of the agreement, the notice shall be on a separate sheet which shall not contain any other text except as is necessary to identify the lessor and agreement to which the notice refers and to provide for the date and the person's acknowledgment of receipt.

(f) The lessor shall give each person entitled to notice under this section a copy of the completed rental-purchase agreement before obtaining that person's signature.

(g) If a person entitled to receive notice and a copy of the rental-purchase agreement under this section does not receive the notice or agreement in the manner required, that person has no liability in connection with the rental-purchase transaction.

1812.644. (a) A lessor shall maintain records that establish that the price disclosed as the cash price in a rental-purchase agreement is the cash price as defined in subdivision (e) of Section 1812.622. A copy of each rental-purchase agreement and of the records required by this subdivision shall be maintained for two years following the termination of the agreement.

(b) Evidence of the cash price of new rental property may include the following:

(1) Published prices or advertisements by retailers of similar products selling in the same trade area in which the lessor's business is located, if the prices were published or disseminated within the 90-day period preceding the date of the rental-purchase agreement.

(2) An amount equal to twice the documented actual cost, including freight charges, of the rental property to the lessor from a wholesaler, distributor, or manufacturer.

(3) The manufacturer's suggested retail price for a home appliance, as defined in subdivision (r) of Section 1791, or a home electronic product, as defined in subdivision (s) of Section 1791. Manufacturer's suggested retail price may not be utilized as evidence of the cash price of any other type of rental property.

(c) Upon the written request of the Attorney General, any district attorney or city attorney, or the Director of the Department of Consumer Affairs, a lessor shall provide copies of the records described in this section.

(d) If a lessor willfully discloses a cash price in a rental-purchase agreement that exceeds the cash price of the property as defined in subdivision (e) of Section 1812.622, the rental purchase agreement is void, the consumer shall retain the property without any obligation, and the lessor shall refund to the consumer all amounts

1812.645. An action on a rental-purchase agreement shall be tried in the county in which the rental-purchase agreement was signed or the consumer resides at the time the action is commenced.

1812.646. Any waiver or modification of the provisions of this title by the consumer or lessor shall be void and unenforceable as contrary to public policy.

1812.647. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this title is guilty of a misdemeanor.

1812.648. The rights, remedies, and penalties established by this title are cumulative to the rights, remedies, or penalties established under other laws.

1812.649. If any provision of this title or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the title that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this title are severable.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 19863, 19871, and 19872 of the Government Code, relating to state employees.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

SECTION 1. Section 19863 of the Government Code is amended to read:

19863. (a) Except as provided in Article 4 (commencing with Section 19869), a state officer or employee who is or may be entitled to temporary disability indemnity under Division 4 (commencing with Section 3200) or Division 4.5 (commencing with Section 6100) of the Labor Code shall receive any accumulated sick leave, or accumulated compensable overtime, or accumulated vacation, or accumulated annual leave for the absence. The appointing power shall decrease the charge of sick leave, or compensable overtime, or vacation, or annual leave in the amount of temporary disability payment received so that the state officer or employee shall not receive payment in excess of full salary or wage.

If a state officer or employee does not wish to use his or her accumulated sick leave, or accumulated compensable overtime, or accumulated vacation, or accumulated annual leave, he or she shall notify his or her appointing power within 15 days after the injury is reported to the appointing power. After the 15 days his or her accumulations shall be used until the date he or she notifies the appointing power in writing that he or she no longer wishes to use the accumulations. When computing sick leave, or overtime, or vacation, or annual leave under this section the employee shall be given credit for any holidays that occur during the period of absence hereunder.

He or she is nevertheless entitled to medical, surgical, and hospital treatment as provided in the Labor Code. When his or her accumulated sick leave, or overtime, or vacation, or annual leave, or all, are exhausted, he or she is still entitled to receive disability indemnity.

(b) State officers and employees who are covered by Article 4 (commencing with Section 19869) shall be entitled to industrial and temporary disability benefits only as provided by that article.

(c) If the provisions of this section are in conflict with the provisions of a memorandum of understanding reached pursuant to Section 3517.5, the memorandum of understanding shall be controlling without further legislative action, except that if the provisions of a memorandum of understanding require the expenditure of funds, the provisions shall not become effective unless approved by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act.

SEC. 2. Section 19871 of the Government Code is amended to read:

19871. (a) Except as provided in Section 19871.2, when a state officer or employee is temporarily disabled by illness or injury arising out of and in the course of state employment, he or she shall become entitled, regardless of his or her period of service, to receive industrial disability leave and payments for a period not exceeding 52 weeks within two years from the first day of disability. These payments shall be in the amount of the employees full pay less withholding based on his or her exemptions in effect on the date of his or her disability for federal income taxes, state income taxes, and social security taxes not to exceed 22 working days of disability subject to Section 19875. Thereafter, the payment shall be two-thirds of full pay. Payments will be additionally adjusted to offset disability benefits, excluding those disability benefits payable from the State Teachers' Retirement System, the employee may receive from other employer-subsidized programs, except that no adjustment will be made for benefits to which the employee's family is entitled up to a maximum of three-quarters of full pay. Contributions to the Public Employees' Retirement System or the State Teachers' Retirement System shall be deducted in the amount based on full pay. Discretionary deductions of the employee including those for coverage under a state health benefits plan in which the employee is enrolled shall continue to be deducted unless canceled by the employee. State employer contribution to the Public Employees' Retirement System and state employer normal retirement contributions to the State Teachers' Retirement System shall be made on the basis of full pay and the state contribution pursuant to Sections 22825.1 and 22826 because of the employee's enrollment in a health benefits plan shall continue.

(b) If the provisions of this section are in conflict with the provisions of a memorandum of understanding reached pursuant to Section 3517.5, the memorandum of understanding shall be controlling without further legislative action, except that if such provisions of a memorandum of understanding require the expenditure of funds, the provisions shall not become effective unless approved by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act.

SEC. 3. Section 19872 of the Government Code is amended to read:

19872. (a) The disabled employee shall not receive temporary disability indemnity or sick leave or annual leave with pay for any period for which he or she receives industrial disability leave.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), an employee may elect to supplement industrial disability leave payments from the 23rd workday with accrued leave credits including annual leave, vacation, sick leave, or compensatory time off (CTO) in an amount necessary to approximate the employee's full net pay. Partial supplementation shall be allowed, but fractions of less than one hour shall not be permitted. Once the level of supplementation is selected, it may be decreased to accommodate a declining leave balance but it may not be increased. Reductions to supplementation amounts shall be made on a prospective basis only. The department may adopt rules for the administration and enforcement of this subdivision.

(c) If the provisions of this section are in conflict with the provisions of a memorandum of understanding reached pursuant to Section 3517.5, the memorandum of understanding shall be controlling without further legislative action, except that if such provisions of a memorandum of understanding require the expenditure of funds, the provisions shall not become effective unless approved by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act.

An act to amend Sections 23954.5, 24044.5, 24048, 24072.2, 24079, and 25503.9 of, to amend and renumber Section 25511 of, to amend, repeal, and add Section 25503.28 of, to repeal Section 25503.20 of, and to repeal Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 24749) of Division 9 of, the Business and Professions Code, relating to alcoholic beverages.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

SECTION 1. Section 23954.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

23954.5. (a) An applicant for an original on-sale general license shall, at the time of filing the application for the license, accompany the application with a fee as determined by the department pursuant to subdivision (b) of this section. At the time of filing an application for a license, an applicant for an original on-sale general license for seasonal business shall accompany the application with a fee as determined by the department pursuant to subdivision (b) of this section. An applicant for an original on-sale beer and wine license shall accompany the application with a fee of three hundred dollars ($300). An applicant for an original on-sale beer license shall accompany the application with a fee of two hundred dollars ($200). An applicant for an original off-sale general license shall, at the time of filing the application for the license, accompany the application with a fee as determined by the department pursuant to subdivision (b) of this section. An applicant for an original off-sale beer and wine license or an original license not specified in this section, shall accompany the application with a fee of one hundred dollars ($100).

(b) The fee for an original on-sale general license or an original off-sale general license shall be twelve thousand dollars ($12,000).

(c) All money collected from the fees provided for in this section shall be in the Alcohol Beverage Control Fund as provided in Section 25761.

SEC. 2. Section 24044.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

24044.5. (a) The department, in its discretion, may issue an interim retail permit to an applicant for any retail license to operate the premises during the period an application for a license at the premises is pending and when all of the following conditions exist:

(1) The application has been protested pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 24011).

(2) The department has made a determination based upon its investigation that the license should be issued.

(3) The applicant for the interim retail permit has filed with the department an application for issuance of a license at the premises to himself or herself.

(4) The application for the interim retail permit is accompanied by a fee of one hundred dollars ($100).

(b) An interim retail permit issued by the department pursuant to this section shall be for a period not to exceed 120 days. An interim retail permit may be extended at the discretion of the department for additional 120-day periods as necessary upon payment of an additional fee of one hundred dollars ($100) and upon compliance with all conditions required by this section. Any interim retail permit issued by the department shall be automatically canceled when a final determination made by the department regarding the protests becomes effective or when the application for the retail license is withdrawn, whichever occurs first. An interim retail permit is a conditional permit and authorizes the holder thereof to sell alcoholic beverages as would be permitted to be sold under the privileges of the license for which the application has been filed with the department. Any conditions for which the applicant has petitioned pursuant to Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 23800) of Chapter 5 shall apply to any interim retail permit issued by the department.

(c) Purchase of beer and wine by the holder of an interim retail permit shall be made only upon payment before or at the time of delivery in currency or by check. Purchase of distilled spirits by the holder of an interim retail permit shall be made only upon payment before or at the time of delivery in currency or by certified check. However, the holder of an interim retail permit, who also holds one or more retail licenses and is operating under the retail license or licenses in addition to the interim retail permit, and who is not delinquent under the provisions of Section 25509 as to any retail license under which he or she operates, may purchase alcoholic beverages on credit under the interim retail permit.

(d) All checks received by a seller for beer or wine purchased by the holder of an interim retail permit shall be deposited not later than the second business day following the date the beer or wine is delivered.

A check dishonored on presentation shall not be deemed payment. The receipt by the seller or his or her agent in good faith from a holder of a temporary permit of a check dishonored on presentation shall not be cause for disciplinary action against the seller.

(e) Issuance of the license for which the holder of an interim retail permit has filed an application shall not be approved by the department until the holder of the interim retail permit has filed with the department a statement executed under penalty of perjury that all current obligations have been discharged, and that all outstanding checks issued by him or her in payment for alcoholic beverages will be honored on presentation.

(f) It shall not be a violation of this section or grounds for disciplinary action for any licensee to extend credit to the holder of an interim retail permit or to receive payment from the permittee in a manner other than authorized herein unless the seller has knowledge of the fact that the purchaser was operating under an interim retail permit. Knowledge of the fact may be established by evidence, including, but not limited to, evidence that, at the time of receipt of payment or the extension of credit, the premises operated under an interim retail permit were posted with the notice required by Section 23985, or the holder of the interim retail permit has recorded notice as required by Section 24073, or the holder of the interim retail permit has published notice as required by Section 23986, or the holder of the interim retail permit has recorded and published notice pursuant to Division 6 (commencing with Section 6101) of the Commercial Code.

(g) Refusal by the department to issue or extend an interim retail permit shall not entitle the applicant to petition for the permit pursuant to Section 24011, or to a hearing pursuant to Section 24012. Articles 2 (commencing with Section 23985) and 3 (commencing with Section 24011) shall not apply to interim retail permits.

(h) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the department may, in its discretion, cancel or suspend summarily at any time an interim retail permit if the department determines that good cause for the cancellation or suspension exists. Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 24300) shall not apply to interim retail permits.

(i) Application for an interim retail permit shall be on any form the department shall prescribe. If an application for an interim retail permit is withdrawn before issuance or is refused by the department, the fee that accompanied the application shall be refunded in full, and Section 23959 shall not apply. Fees received by the department for issuance of interim retail permits shall be deposited in the Alcohol Beverage Control Fund as provided in Section 25761.

SEC. 3. Section 24048 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

24048. Every license, other than a temporary license or a daily on-sale general license issued pursuant to Section 24045.1, is renewable unless the license has been revoked if the renewal application is made and the fee therefor is paid. All licenses expire at 12 midnight on the last day of the month posted on the license. All licenses issued shall be renewed as follows:

(a) On or before the first of the month preceding the month posted on the license, the department shall mail to each licensee at his or her licensed premises, or at any other mailing address that the licensee has designated, an application to renew the license.

(b) The application to renew the license may be filed before the license expires upon payment of the annual fee set forth in Section 23320.

(c) For 60 days after the license expires, the license may be renewed upon payment of the annual renewal fee set forth in Section 23320 plus a penalty fee that shall be equal to 50 percent of the annual fee.

(d) Unless otherwise terminated, or unless renewed pursuant to subdivision (b) or (c) of this section, a license that is in effect on the month posted on the license continues in effect through 2 a.m. of the 60th day following the month posted on the license, at which time it is automatically canceled.

(e) On or before the 10th day preceding the cancellation of a license, the department shall mail a notice of cancellation to each licensee who has not either filed an application to renew his or her license or notified the department of his or her intent not to do so. Failure to mail the renewal application in accordance with subdivision (a) or to mail the notice provided in this subdivision shall not continue the right to a license.

(f) A license that has been canceled pursuant to subdivision (d) of this section may be reinstated during the 30 days immediately following cancellation upon payment by cashier's check or money order of the annual renewal fee set forth in Section 23320 plus a penalty fee that shall be equal to 100 percent of the annual fee. A license that has been canceled pursuant to subdivision (d) of this section and that has not been reinstated within 30 days pursuant to this subdivision is automatically revoked on the 31st day after the license has been canceled.

(g) No renewal application shall be deemed filed within the meaning of this section unless the document itself has been actually delivered to, and the required renewal fee has been paid at, any office of the department during office hours, or unless both the document and fee have been filed and remitted pursuant to Section 11003 of the Government Code.

SEC. 4. Section 24072.2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

24072.2. Any person who has an on-sale license issued for a bona fide public eating place may exchange his or her license for a similar license for public premises, as defined in Section 23039, and any person who has such a license issued for public premises may exchange his or her license for a similar license for a bona fide public eating place. The exchange may be made at the time of renewal of the license sought to be exchanged, and not more than once between renewal periods, upon the approval of the department, the payment of an exchange fee of one hundred dollars ($100), and compliance with the provisions of this division relating to the issuance of an original license. All money collected from the fee provided for in this section shall be deposited directly in the Alcohol Beverage Control Fund as provided in Section 25761.

SEC. 5. Section 24079 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

24079. (a) The purchase price or consideration that may be paid by a transferee or received by a transferor of an on-sale general license or off-sale general license originally issued on or after June 1, 1961, shall not exceed six thousand dollars ($6,000), except that after a period of five years from the date of the original issuance of the license there shall be no restriction as to the purchase price or consideration that may be paid by a transferee or received by a transferor.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), any original on-sale general license or any original off-sale general license for which a fee in excess of twelve thousand dollars ($12,000) has been paid pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 23954.5 may not be transferred for one year following its initial issuance. After one year, this license may be transferred and there shall be no restriction as to the purchase price or consideration that may be paid by a transferee or received by a transferor.

(c) Any original on-sale general license or any original off-sale general license for which an original fee of twelve thousand dollars ($12,000) was paid shall not be transferred for a purchase price in excess of twelve thousand dollars ($12,000) for two years following its initial issuance. After two years, this license may be transferred and there shall be no restriction as to the purchase price or consideration that may be paid by a transferee or received by a transferor.

SEC. 6. Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 24749) of Division 9 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 25503.9 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

25503.9. Nothing in this division prohibits a winegrower from giving or selling wine, a beer manufacturer from giving or selling beer, a distilled spirits manufacturer or a distilled spirits manufacturer's agent from giving or selling distilled spirits, or a licensed importer from giving or selling beer, wine, or distilled spirits at prices other than those contained in schedules filed with the department, to any of the following:

(a) A nonprofit charitable corporation or association exempt from payment of income taxes under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 of the United States and Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 23701) of Part 11 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(b) A nonprofit incorporated trade association that is exempt from payment of income taxes under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 of the United States and Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 23701) of Part 11 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and the members of which trade association are licensed under this division. However, the wine, beer, and distilled spirits shall be used solely for a convention or meeting of the nonprofit incorporated trade association.

(c) A nonprofit corporation or association that is exempt from payment of income taxes under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 of the United States and is defined as a tax exempt organization under Section 23701a, 23701d, 23701e, 23701f, or 23701r of the Revenue and Taxation Code. Wine, beer, and distilled spirits given or sold by a winegrower, beer manufacturer, distilled spirits manufacturer, distilled spirits manufacturer's agent, or licensed importer pursuant to this subdivision may be furnished only in connection with public service or fundraising activities including picnics, parades, fairs, amateur sporting events, agricultural exhibitions, or similar events.

SEC. 9. Section 25503.28 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

25503.28. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, the holder of no more than six on-sale licenses, or any officer, director, employee, or agent of that licensee, or the holder of no more than one on-sale license and one off-sale general license in a county of the 39th class only, or any officer, director, employee, or agent of that licensee, may own a licensed beer manufacturer holding a license pursuant to paragraph (a) of subdivision (1) of Section 23320, and may serve on the board of directors and as an officer or employee of a licensed beer manufacturer.

(b) An on-sale licensee specified in subdivision (a) shall purchase no alcoholic beverages for sale in this state other than from a wholesale or winegrower licensee, except for any alcoholic beverages manufactured by the licensed beer manufacturer at a single location contiguous or adjacent to the premises of the on-sale licensee.

(c) The Legislature finds that it is necessary and proper to require a separation between manufacturing interests, wholesale interests, and retail interests in the production and distribution of alcoholic beverages in order to prevent suppliers from dominating local markets through vertical integration and to prevent excessive sales of alcoholic beverages produced by overly aggressive marketing techniques. The Legislature further finds that the exception established by this section to the general prohibition against tied interests must be limited to its expressed terms so as not to undermine the general prohibition, and intends that this section be construed accordingly.

(d) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1998, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 10. Section 25503.28 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

25503.28. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, the holder of no more than six on-sale licenses, or any officer, director, employee, or agent of that licensee, may own a licensed beer manufacturer holding a license pursuant to paragraph (a) of subdivision (1) of Section 23320, and may serve on the board of directors and as an officer or employee of a licensed beer

(b) An on-sale licensee specified in subdivision (a) shall purchase no alcoholic beverages for sale in this state other than from a wholesale or winegrower licensee, except for any alcoholic beverages manufactured by the licensed beer manufacturer at a single location contiguous or adjacent to the premises of the on-sale licensee.

(c) The Legislature finds that it is necessary and proper to require a separation between manufacturing interests, wholesale interests, and retail interests in the production and distribution of alcoholic beverages in order to prevent suppliers from dominating local markets through vertical integration and to prevent excessive sales of alcoholic beverages produced by overly aggressive marketing techniques. The Legislature further finds that the exception established by this section to the general prohibition against tied interests must be limited to its expressed terms so as not to undermine the general prohibition, and intends that this section be construed accordingly.

SEC. 11. Section 25511 of the Business and Professions Code, as added by Section 1 of Chapter 907 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended and renumbered to read:

25512. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, any licensee or officer, director, employee, or agent of a licensee that holds no more than eight on-sale licenses may also hold not more than 16.67 percent of the stock of a corporation that holds beer manufacturer licenses issued pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 23320 that are located in Sacramento, Placer, El Dorado, Marin, or Napa County, and may serve on the board of directors and as an officer or employee of that corporate licensed beer manufacturer.

(b) An on-sale licensee specified in subdivision (a) shall purchase no alcoholic beverages for sale in this state other than from a licensed wholesaler or winegrower.

(c) In enacting this section, the Legislature finds that it is necessary and proper to require a separation between manufacturing interests, wholesale interests, and retail interests in the production and distribution of alcoholic beverages in order to prevent suppliers from dominating local markets through vertical integration and to prevent excessive sales of alcoholic beverages produced by overly aggressive marketing techniques. The Legislature further finds that the exception established by this section to the general prohibition against tied-house interests must be limited to its expressed terms so as not to undermine the general prohibition, and intends that this section be construed accordingly.

An act to amend Sections 12300 and 12301.6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to public social services.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12300 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

12300. (a) The purpose of this article is to provide in every county in a manner consistent with this chapter and the annual Budget Act those supportive services identified in this section to aged, blind, or disabled persons, as defined under this chapter, who are unable to perform the services themselves and who cannot safely remain in their homes or abodes of their own choosing unless these services are provided.

(b) Supportive services shall include domestic services and services related to domestic services, heavy cleaning, personal care services, accompaniment by a provider when needed during necessary travel to health-related appointments or to alternative resource sites, yard hazard abatement, protective supervision, teaching and demonstration directed at reducing the need for other supportive services, and paramedical services which make it possible for the recipient to establish and maintain an independent living arrangement.

(c) Personal care services shall mean all of the following:

- (1) Assistance with ambulation.
- (2) Bathing, oral hygiene, and grooming.
- (3) Dressing.
- (4) Care and assistance with prosthetic devices.
- (5) Bowel, bladder, and menstrual care.
- (6) Repositioning, skin care, range of motion exercises, and transfers.
- (7) Feeding and assurance of adequate fluid intake.
- (8) Respiration.
- (9) Assistance with self-administration of medications.

(d) Where supportive services are provided by a person having the legal duty pursuant to the Civil Code to provide for the care of his or her child who is the recipient, the provider of supportive services shall receive remuneration for the services only when the provider leaves full-time employment or is prevented from obtaining full-time employment because no other suitable provider is available and where the inability of the provider to provide supportive services may result in inappropriate placement or inadequate care.

These providers shall be paid only for the following:

- (1) Services related to domestic services.
- (2) Personal care services.
- (3) Accompaniment by a provider when needed during necessary travel to health-related appointments or to alternative resource sites.
- (4) Protective supervision only as needed because of the functional limitations of the child.
- (5) Paramedical services.
- (e) To encourage maximum voluntary services, so as to reduce governmental costs, respite care shall also be provided. Respite care is temporary or periodic service for eligible recipients to relieve persons who are providing care without compensation.
- (f) A person who is eligible to receive a personal care service or an ancillary service provided pursuant to Section 14132.95 shall not be eligible to receive that same service pursuant to this article.
- (g) (1) All services provided pursuant to this article shall be equal in amount, scope, and duration to the same services provided pursuant to Section 14132.95, including any adjustments that may be made to those services pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 14132.95.
- (2) Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, the rate of reimbursement for in-home supportive services provided through any mode of service shall not exceed the rate or reimbursement established under subdivision (j) of Section 14132.95 for the same mode of service unless otherwise provided in the annual Budget Act.
- (3) Any recipient receiving services under both Section 14132.95 and this article shall receive no more than 283 hours of service per month, combined, and any recipient of services under this article shall receive no more than the applicable maximum specified in Section 12303.4.

SEC. 2. Section 12300 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

12300. (a) The purpose of this article is to provide in every county in a manner consistent with this chapter and the annual Budget Act those supportive services identified in this section to aged, blind, or disabled persons, as defined under this chapter, who are unable to perform the services themselves and who cannot safely remain in their homes or abodes of their own choosing unless these services are provided.

(b) Supportive services shall include domestic services and services related to domestic services, heavy cleaning, personal care services, accompaniment by a provider when needed during necessary travel to health-related appointments or to alternative resource sites, yard hazard abatement, protective supervision, teaching and demonstration directed at reducing the need for other supportive services, and paramedical services which make it possible for the recipient to establish and maintain an independent living arrangement.

- (c) Personal care services shall mean all of the following:
 - (1) Assistance with ambulation.

- (2) Bathing, oral hygiene, and grooming.
- (3) Dressing.
- (4) Care and assistance with prosthetic devices.
- (5) Bowel, bladder, and menstrual care.
- (6) Repositioning, skin care, range of motion exercises, and transfers.

(7) Feeding and assurance of adequate fluid intake.

(9) Assistance with self-administration of medications.

(d) Where supportive services are provided by a person having the legal duty pursuant to the Family Code to provide for the care of his or her child who is the recipient, the provider of supportive services shall receive remuneration for the services only when the provider leaves full-time employment or is prevented from obtaining full-time employment because no other suitable provider is available and where the inability of the provider to provide supportive services may result in inappropriate placement or inadequate care.

These providers shall be paid only for the following:

(1) Services related to domestic services.

(2) Personal care services.

(3) Accompaniment by a provider when needed during necessary travel to health-related appointments or to alternative resource sites.

(4) Protective supervision only as needed because of the functional limitations of the child.

(5) Paramedical services.

(e) To encourage maximum voluntary services, so as to reduce governmental costs, respite care shall also be provided. Respite care is temporary or periodic service for eligible recipients to relieve persons who are providing care without compensation.

(f) A person who is eligible to receive a personal care service or an ancillary service provided pursuant to Section 14132.95 shall not be eligible to receive that same service pursuant to this article.

(g) (1) All services provided pursuant to this article shall be equal in amount, scope, and duration to the same services provided pursuant to Section 14132.95, including any adjustments that may be made to those services pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 14132.95.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, the rate of reimbursement for in-home supportive services provided through any mode of service shall not exceed the rate or reimbursement established under subdivision (j) of Section 14132.95 for the same mode of service unless otherwise provided in the annual Budget Act.

(3) Any recipient receiving services under both Section 14132.95 and this article shall receive no more than 283 hours of service per month, combined, and any recipient of services under this article shall receive no more than the applicable maximum specified in Section 12303.4.

SEC. 3. Section 12301.6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is

12301.6. (a) Notwithstanding Sections 12302 and 12302.1, a county board of supervisors may, at its option, elect to do either of the following:

(1) Contract with a nonprofit consortium to provide for the delivery of in-home supportive services.

(2) Establish, by ordinance, a public authority to provide for the delivery of in-home supportive services.

(b) (1) To the extent that a county elects to establish a public authority pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), the enabling ordinance shall specify the membership of the governing body of the public authority, the qualifications for individual members, the manner of appointment, selection, or removal of members, how long they shall serve, and other matters as the board of supervisors deems necessary for the operation of the public authority.

(2) A public authority established pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) shall be both of the following:

(A) An entity separate from the county, and shall be required to file the statement required by Section 53051 of the Government Code.

(B) A corporate public body, exercising public and essential governmental functions and that has all powers necessary or convenient to carry out the delivery of in-home supportive services, including the power to contract for services pursuant to Sections 12302 and 12302.1. Employees of the public authority shall not be employees of the county for any purpose.

(3) (A) As an alternative, the enabling ordinance may designate the board of supervisors as the governing body of the public authority.

(B) Any enabling ordinance that designates the board of supervisors as the governing body of the public authority shall also specify that no fewer than 50 percent of the membership of the advisory committee shall be individuals who are current or past users of personal assistance services paid for through public or private funds or recipients of services under this article.

(C) If the enabling ordinance designates the board of supervisors as the governing body of the public authority, it shall also require the appointment of an advisory committee of not more than 11 individuals who shall be designated in accordance with subparagraph (B).

(D) Prior to making designations of committee members pursuant to subparagraph (C), or governing body members in accordance with paragraph (4), the board of supervisors shall solicit recommendations of qualified members of either the governing body of the public authority or of any advisory committee through a fair and open process that includes the provision of reasonable, written notice to, and a reasonable response time by, members of the general public and interested persons and organizations.

(4) If the enabling ordinance does not designate the board of supervisors as the governing body of the public authority, the enabling ordinance shall require the membership of the governing body to meet the requirements of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (3).

(c) (1) Any public authority created pursuant to this section shall be deemed to be the employer of in-home supportive services personnel referred to recipients under paragraph (3) of subdivision (d) within the meaning of Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 3500) of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code. Recipients shall retain the right to select, terminate, and direct the work of any in-home supportive services personnel providing services to them.

(2) (A) Any nonprofit consortium contracting with a county pursuant to this section shall be deemed to be the employer of in-home supportive services personnel referred to recipients pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (d) for the purposes of collective bargaining over wages, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment.

(B) Recipients shall retain the right to select, terminate, and direct the work of any in-home supportive services personnel providing services for them.

(d) Any nonprofit consortium contracting with a county pursuant to this section or any public authority established pursuant to this section shall provide for all of the following functions under this article, but shall not be limited to those functions:

(1) The provision of assistance to recipients in finding in-home supportive services personnel through the establishment of a registry.

(2) Investigation of the qualifications and background of potential personnel.

(3) Establishment of a referral system under which in-home supportive services personnel shall be referred to recipients.

(4) Providing for training for providers and recipients.

(5) Performing any other functions related to the delivery of in-home supportive services.

(6) Ensuring that the requirements of the personal care option pursuant to Subchapter 19 (commencing with Section 1396) of Chapter 7 of Title 42 of the United States Code are met.

(e) (1) Any nonprofit consortium contracting with a county pursuant to this section or any public authority created pursuant to this section shall be deemed not to be the employer of in-home supportive services personnel referred to recipients under this section for purposes of liability due to the negligence or intentional torts of the in-home supportive services personnel.

(2) In no case shall a nonprofit consortium contracting with a county pursuant to this section or any public authority created pursuant to this section be held liable for action or omission of any in-home supportive services personnel whom the nonprofit consortium or public authority did not list on its registry or otherwise refer to a recipient.

(3) Counties and the state shall be immune from any liability resulting from their implementation of this section in the administration of the In-Home Supportive Services program. Any obligation of the public authority or consortium pursuant to this section, whether statutory, contractual, or otherwise, shall be the obligation solely of the public authority or nonprofit consortium, and shall not be the obligation of the county or state.

(f) Any nonprofit consortium contracting with a county pursuant to this section shall ensure that it has a governing body that complies with the requirements of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) or an advisory committee that complies with subparagraphs (B) and (C) of paragraph (3) of subdivision (b).

(g) Recipients of services under this section may elect in-home supportive services personnel who are not referred to them by the public authority or nonprofit consortium. Those personnel shall be referred to the public authority or nonprofit consortium for the purposes of wages, benefits, and other terms and conditions of employment.

(h) Nothing in this section shall be construed to alter, require the alteration of, or interfere with the state payroll system and other provisions of Section 12302.2 for individual providers of in-home supportive services, or to affect the state's responsibility with respect to unemployment insurance, or workers' compensation for providers of in-home supportive services.

(i) To the extent permitted by federal law, personal care option funds, obtained pursuant to Subchapter 19 (commencing with Section 1396) of Chapter 7 of Title 42 of the United States Code, along with matching funds using the state and county sharing ratio established in subdivision (c) of Section 12306, or any other funds that are obtained pursuant to Subchapter 19 (commencing with Section 1396) of Chapter 7 of Title 42 of the United States Code, may be used to establish and operate an entity authorized by this section.

(j) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the county, in exercising its option to establish a public authority, shall not be subject to competitive bidding requirements. However, contracts entered into by either the county, a public authority, or a nonprofit consortium pursuant to this section shall be subject to competitive bidding as otherwise required by law.

(k) (1) The department may adopt regulations implementing this section as emergency regulations in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. For the purposes of the Administrative Procedures Act, the adoption of the regulations shall be deemed an emergency and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, or general welfare. Notwithstanding Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, these emergency regulations shall not be subject to the review and approval of the Office of Administrative Law.

(2) Notwithstanding subdivision (h) of Section 11364.1 and Section 11349.6 of the Government Code, the department shall transmit these regulations directly to the Secretary of State for filing. The regulations shall become effective immediately upon filing by the Secretary of State.

(3) Except as otherwise provided for by Section 10554, the Office of Administrative Law shall provide for the printing and publication of these regulations in the California Code of Regulations. Notwithstanding Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, these regulations shall not be repealed by the Office of Administrative Law and shall remain in effect until revised or repealed by the department.

(l) (1) In the event that a county elects to form a nonprofit consortium or public authority pursuant to subdivision (a) before the State Department of Health Services has obtained all necessary federal approvals pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (j) of Section 14132.95, all of the following shall apply:

(A) Subdivision (c) shall apply only to those matters that do not require federal approval.

(B) The second sentence of subdivision (g) shall not be operative.

(C) The nonprofit consortium or public authority shall not provide services other than those specified in paragraphs (1), (2), (3), (4), and (5) of subdivision (d).

(2) Paragraph (1) shall become inoperative when the State Department of Health Services has obtained all necessary federal approvals pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (j) of Section 14132.95.

SEC. 4. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 12300 of the Welfare and Institutions Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2208. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 12300 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2208, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

An act to amend Sections 69845 and 69845.5 of, to add Chapter 1.4 (commencing with Section 68150) to Title 8 of, and to repeal Sections 69503, 69503.1, 69503.2, 69503.3, 69503.5, 69504.6, 69844.5, 71007, 71007.1, and 71008 of, the Government Code, relating to courts.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 1.4 (commencing with Section 68150) is added to Title 8 of the Government Code, to read:

CHAPTER 1.4. MANAGEMENT OF TRIAL COURT RECORDS

68150. (a) Trial court records may be preserved in any form of communication or representation, including optical, electronic, magnetic, micrographic, or photographic media or other technology capable of accurately producing or reproducing the original record according to minimum standards or guidelines for the preservation and reproduction of the medium adopted by the American National Standards Institute or the Association for Information and Image Management.

Specifications for electronic recordings made as the official record of the oral proceedings shall be governed by the California Rules of Court.

(b) No additions, deletions, or changes shall be made to the content of the record. The records shall be indexed for convenient access.

(c) A copy of the record preserved or reproduced according to subdivisions (a) and (b) shall be deemed the original court record and may be certified as a correct copy of the original record.

(d) A court record preserved or reproduced in accordance with subdivisions (a) and (b) shall be stored in a manner and in a place that reasonably assures its preservation against loss, theft, defacement, or destruction for the prescribed retention period under Section 68152. A duplicate backup copy of a court record preserved on a medium other than paper shall not be required for electronic recordings made as the official record of the oral proceedings unless otherwise specified in the California Rules of Court.

(e) The court record that was reproduced in accordance with subdivisions (a) and (b) may be disposed of in accordance with the procedure under Section 68153, unless it is subject to subdivision (f).

(f) The following court records may be preserved or reproduced under subdivisions (a) and (b) but shall also be preserved on paper, microfilm, or in another form of archival communication or representation approved by and in accordance with archival standards recommended by the American National Standards Institute for the duration of the record's retention period:

(1) The comprehensive historical and sample superior court records preserved for research under the California Rules of Court.

(2) Court records that are preserved permanently.

Court records that must be preserved longer than 10 years but not permanently may be reproduced on media other than paper or microfilm using technology authorized under subdivisions (a) and (b). However the records shall be reproduced before the expiration of their estimated lifespan for the medium in which they are stored as specified in subdivision (g).

(g) Instructions for access to data stored on a medium other than paper shall be documented. Each court shall conduct a periodic review of the media in which the court records are stored to assure that the storage medium is not obsolete and that current technology is capable of accessing and reproducing the records. The court shall reproduce records before the expiration of their estimated lifespan for the medium in which they are stored according to minimum standards and guidelines for the preservation and reproduction of the medium adopted by the American National Standards Institute or the Association for Information and Image Management.

(h) Court records preserved or reproduced under subdivisions (a) and (b) shall be made reasonably accessible to all members of the public for viewing and duplication as would the paper records. Reasonable provision shall be made for duplicating the records at cost. Cost shall consist of all costs associated with duplicating the records as determined by the court.

68151. The following definitions apply to this chapter:

(a) "Court record" shall consist of the following:

(2) Administrative records, depositions, exhibits, transcripts, including preliminary hearing transcripts, and tapes of electronically recorded proceedings filed, lodged, or maintained in connection with the case, unless disposed of earlier in the case pursuant to law.

(3) Other records listed under subdivision (j) of Section 68152.

(b) "Notice of destruction and no transfer" means that the clerk has given notice of destruction of the superior court records open to public inspection, and that there is no request and order for transfer of the records as provided in the California Rules of Court.

(c) "Final disposition of the case" means that an acquittal, dismissal, or order of judgment has been entered in the case or proceeding, the judgment has become final, and no postjudgment motions or appeals are pending in the case or for the reviewing court upon the mailing of notice of the issuance of the remittitur.

In a criminal prosecution, the order of judgment shall mean imposition of sentence, entry of an appealable order (including, but not limited to, an order granting probation, commitment of a defendant for insanity, or commitment of a defendant as a narcotics addict appealable under Section 1237 of the Penal Code), or forfeiture of bail without issuance of a bench warrant or calendaring of other proceedings.

(d) "Retain permanently" means that the original court records shall never be transferred or destroyed.

68152. The trial court clerk may destroy court records under Section 68153 after notice of destruction and if there is no request and order for transfer of the records, except the comprehensive historical and sample superior court records preserved for research under the California Rules of Court, when the following times have expired after final disposition of the case in the categories listed:

- (a) Adoption: retain permanently.
- (b) Change of name: retain permanently.
- (c) Other civil actions and proceedings, as follows:
 - (1) Except as otherwise specified: 10 years.
 - (2) Where a party appears by a guardian ad litem: 10 years after termination of the court's jurisdiction.
 - (3) Domestic violence: same period as duration of the restraining or other orders and any renewals, then retain the restraining or other orders as a judgment; 60 days after expiration of the temporary protective or temporary restraining order.
 - (4) Eminent domain: retain permanently.
 - (5) Family law, except as otherwise specified: 30 years.
 - (6) Harassment: same period as duration of the injunction and any renewals, then retain the injunction as a judgment; 60 days after expiration of the temporary restraining order.
 - (7) Mental health (Lanterman-Petris-Short Act): 30 years.
 - (8) Paternity: retain permanently.
 - (9) Petition, except as otherwise specified: 10 years.
 - (10) Real property other than unlawful detainer: retain permanently if the action affects title or an interest in real property.
 - (11) Small claims: 10 years.
 - (12) Unlawful detainer: one year if judgment is for possession of the premises; 10 years if judgment is for money.
- (d) Notwithstanding subdivision (c), any civil case in the trial court:
 - (1) Involuntarily dismissed by the court for delay in prosecution or failure to comply with state or local rules: one year.
 - (2) Voluntarily dismissed by a party without entry of judgment: one year.

Notation of the dismissal shall be made on the civil index of cases or on a separate dismissal index.

- (e) Criminal.
 - (1) Capital felony (murder with special circumstances where the prosecution seeks the death penalty): retain permanently. If the charge is disposed of by acquittal or a sentence less than death, the case shall be reclassified.
 - (2) Felony, except as otherwise specified: 75 years.
 - (3) Felony, except capital felony, with court records from the initial complaint through the preliminary hearing or plea and for which the case file does not include final sentencing or other final disposition of the case because the case was bound over to the superior court: five years.
 - (4) Misdemeanor, except as otherwise specified: five years.

(5) Misdemeanor alleging a violation of the Vehicle Code, except as otherwise specified: three years.

(6) Misdemeanor alleging a violation of Section 23103, 23152, or 23153 of the Vehicle Code: seven years.

(7) Misdemeanor alleging a violation of Section 14601, 14601.1, 20002, 23104, or 23109 of the Vehicle Code: five years.

(8) Misdemeanor alleging a marijuana violation under subdivision (b), (c), (d), or (e) of Section 11357 of the Health and Safety Code, or subdivision (b) of Section 11360 of the Health and Safety Code in accordance with the procedure set forth in Section 11361.5 of the Health and Safety Code: records shall be destroyed two years from the date of conviction or from the date of arrest if no conviction.

(9) Misdemeanor, infraction, or civil action alleging a violation of the regulation and licensing of dogs under Sections 30951 to 30956, inclusive, of the Food and Agricultural Code or violation of any other local ordinance: three years.

(10) Infraction, except as otherwise specified: three years.

(11) Parking infractions, including alleged violations under the stopping, standing, and parking provisions set forth in Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 22500) of Division 11 of the Vehicle Code: two years.

(f) Habeas corpus: same period as period for retention of the records in the underlying case category.

(g) Juvenile.

(1) Dependent (Section 300 of the Welfare and Institutions Code): upon reaching age 28 or on written request shall be released to the juvenile five years after jurisdiction over the person has terminated under subdivision (a) of Section 826 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. Sealed records shall be destroyed upon court order five years after the records have been sealed pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 389 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(2) Ward (Section 601 of the Welfare and Institutions Code): upon reaching age 21 or on written request shall be released to the juvenile five years after jurisdiction over the person has terminated under subdivision (a) of Section 826 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. Sealed records shall be destroyed upon court order five years after the records have been sealed under subdivision (d) of Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(3) Ward (Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code): upon reaching age 38 under subdivision (a) of Section 826 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. Sealed records shall be destroyed upon court order when the subject of the record reaches the age of 38 under subdivision (d) of Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(4) Traffic and some nontraffic misdemeanors and infractions (Section 601 of the Welfare and Institutions Code): upon reaching age 21 or five years after jurisdiction over the person has terminated under subdivision (c) of Section 826 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. May be microfilmed or photocopied.

(5) Marijuana misdemeanor under subdivision (e) of Section 11357 of the Health and Safety Code in accordance with procedures specified in subdivision (a) of Section 11361.5 of the Health and Safety Code: upon reaching age 18 the records shall be destroyed.

(h) Probate.

(1) Conservatorship: 10 years after decree of termination.

(2) Guardianship: 10 years after the age of 18.

(3) Probate, including probated wills, except as otherwise specified: retain permanently.

(i) Court records of the appellate department of the trial court: five years.

(j) Other records.

(1) Applications in forma pauperis: same period as period for retention of the records in the underlying case category.

(2) Arrest warrant: same period as period for retention of the records in the underlying case category.

(3) Bench warrant: same period as period for retention of the records in the underlying case category.

(4) Bond: three years after exoneration and release.

(5) Coroner's inquest report: same period as period for retention of the records in the underlying case category; if no case, then permanent.

(6) Court orders not associated with an underlying case, such as orders for destruction of court records for telephone taps, or to destroy drugs, and other miscellaneous court orders: three years.

(7) Court reporter notes: 10 years after the notes have been taken in criminal and juvenile proceedings and five years after the notes have been taken in all other proceedings, except notes reporting proceedings in capital felony cases (murder with special circumstances where the prosecution seeks the death penalty and the sentence is death), including notes reporting the preliminary hearing, which shall be retained permanently, unless the Supreme Court on request of the court clerk authorizes the destruction.

(8) Electronic recordings made as the official record of the oral proceedings under the California Rules of Court: any time in infraction and misdemeanor proceedings, 10 years in all other criminal proceedings, and five years in all other proceedings.

(9) Electronic recordings not made as the official record of the oral proceedings under the California Rules of Court: any time either before or after final disposition.

(10) Index, except as otherwise specified: retain permanently.

(11) Index for cases alleging traffic violations: same period as period for retention of the records in the underlying case category.

(12) Judgments within the jurisdiction of the superior court: retain permanently.

(13) Judgments within the jurisdiction of the municipal and justice court: same period as period for retention of the records in the underlying case category.

(14) Minutes: same period as period for retention of the records

(15) Naturalization index: retain permanently.

(16) Ninety-day evaluation (under Section 1203.03 of the Penal Code): same period as period for retention of the records in the underlying case category, or period for completion or termination of probation, whichever is longer.

(17) Register of actions or docket: same period as period for retention of the records in the underlying case category, but in no event less than 10 years for civil cases.

(18) Search warrant: 10 years, except search warrants issued in connection with a capital felony case defined in paragraph (7), which shall be retained permanently.

(k) Retention of any of the court records under this section shall be extended as follows:

(1) By order of the court on its own motion, or on application of a party or any interested member of the public for good cause shown and on such terms as are just. No fee shall be charged for making the application.

(2) Upon application and order for renewal of the judgment to the extended time for enforcing the judgment.

68153. Upon order of the presiding judge of the court, court records open to public inspection and not ordered transferred under the procedures in the California Rules of Court, confidential records, and sealed records that are ready for destruction under Section 68152 may be destroyed. Destruction shall be by shredding, burial, burning, erasure, obliteration, recycling, or other method approved by the court, except confidential and sealed records, which shall not be buried or recycled unless the text of the records is first obliterated.

Notation of the date of destruction shall be made on the index of cases or on a separate destruction index. A list of the court records destroyed within the jurisdiction of the superior court shall be provided to the Judicial Council in accordance with the California Rules of Court.

SEC. 8. Section 69844.5 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 9. Section 69845 of the Government Code is amended to read:

69845. The clerk of the superior court may keep a register of actions in which shall be entered the title of each cause, with the date of its commencement and a memorandum of every subsequent proceeding in the action with its date.

SEC. 10. Section 69845.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

69845.5. In lieu of maintaining a register of actions as described in Section 69845, the clerk of the superior court may maintain a register of actions by preserving all the court records filed, lodged, or maintained in connection with the case.

SEC. 13. Section 71008 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 14. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 548, 549, 801.5, and 803 of the Penal Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

SECTION 1. Section 548 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

548. (a) Every person who willfully injures, destroys, secretes, abandons, or disposes of any property which at the time is insured against loss or damage by theft, or embezzlement, or any casualty with intent to defraud or prejudice the insurer, whether the property is the property or in the possession of such person or any other person, is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or five years and by a fine not exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000).

For purposes of this section, "casualty" does not include fire.

(b) Any person who violates subdivision (a) and who has a prior conviction of the offense set forth in that subdivision, in Section 550 of this code, or in former Section 556 or former Section 1871.1 of the Insurance Code, shall receive a two-year enhancement for each prior conviction in addition to the sentence provided under subdivision (a). The existence of any fact which would subject a person to a penalty enhancement shall be alleged in the information or indictment and either admitted by the defendant in open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury.

SEC. 2. Section 549 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

549. Any firm, corporation, partnership, or association, or any person acting in his or her individual capacity, or in his or her capacity as a public or private employee, who solicits, accepts, or refers any business to or from any individual or entity with the knowledge that, or with reckless disregard for whether, the individual or entity for or from whom the solicitation or referral is made, or the individual or entity who is solicited or referred, intends to violate Section 550 of this code or Section 1871.4 of the Insurance Code is guilty of a crime, punishable upon a first conviction by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, two years, or three years, or by a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or by both that fine and imprisonment. A second or subsequent conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison.

SEC. 3. Section 801.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

801.5. Notwithstanding Section 801 or any other provision of law, prosecution for a violation of Section 550 of this code or former Section 1871.1, or Section 1871.4, of the Insurance Code shall be commenced within three years after discovery of the commission of the offense.

SEC. 4. Section 803 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

803. (a) Except as provided in this section, a limitation of time prescribed in this chapter is not tolled or extended for any reason.

(b) No time during which prosecution of the same person for the same conduct is pending in a court of this state is a part of a limitation of time prescribed in this chapter.

(c) A limitation of time prescribed in this chapter does not commence to run until discovery of an offense described in this subdivision. This subdivision applies to an offense punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, a material element of which is fraud or breach of a fiduciary obligation or the basis of which is misconduct in office by a public officer, employee, or appointee, including, but not limited to, the following offenses:

(1) Grand theft of any type, forgery, falsification of public records, or acceptance of a bribe by a public official or a public employee.

(2) A violation of Section 72, 118, 118a, 132, or 134.

(3) A violation of Section 25540, of any type, or Section 25541 of the Corporations Code.

(4) A violation of Section 1090 or 27443 of the Government Code.

(5) Felony welfare fraud or Medi-Cal fraud in violation of Section 11483 or 14107 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(6) Felony insurance fraud in violation of Section 548 or 550 of this code or former Section 1871.1, or Section 1871.4, of the Insurance Code.

(7) A violation of Section 580, 581, 582, 583, or 584 of the Business and Professions Code.

(8) A violation of Section 22430 of the Business and Professions Code.

(9) A violation of Section 10690 of the Health and Safety Code.

(d) If the defendant is out of the state when or after the offense is committed, the prosecution may be commenced as provided in Section 804 within the limitations of time prescribed by this chapter, and no time up to a maximum of three years during which the defendant is not within the state shall be a part of those limitations.

(e) A limitation of time prescribed in this chapter does not commence to run until the offense has been discovered, or could have reasonably been discovered, with regard to offenses under Division 7 (commencing with Section 13000) of the Water Code, under Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 25100) of, Chapter 6.7 (commencing with Section 25280) of, or Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300) of, Division 20 of, or Part 4 (commencing with Section 41500) of Division 26 of, the Health and Safety Code, or under Section 386.

(f) Notwithstanding any other limitation of time described in this section, a criminal complaint may be filed within one year of the date of a report to a responsible adult or agency by a child under 18 years of age that the child is a victim of a crime described in Section 261, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, 289, or 289.5.

For purposes of this subdivision, a “responsible adult” or “agency” means a person or agency required to report pursuant to Section 11166. This subdivision shall apply only if both of the following occur:

(1) The limitation period specified in Section 800 or 801 has expired.

(2) The defendant has committed at least one violation of Section 261, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, 289, or 289.5 against the same victim within the limitation period specified for that crime in either Section 800 or 801.

(g) Notwithstanding any other limitation of time described in this section, a criminal complaint may be filed within one year of the date of a report to a law enforcement agency by a person of any age alleging that he or she, while under the age of 18 years, was the victim of a crime described in Section 261, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, 289, or 289.5. This subdivision shall apply only if both of the following occur:

(1) The limitation period specified in Section 800 or 801 has expired.

(2) The crime involved substantial sexual conduct, as described in subdivision (b) of Section 1203.066, excluding masturbation which is not mutual, and there is independent evidence that clearly and convincingly corroborates the victim’s allegation. No evidence may be used to corroborate the victim’s allegation which would otherwise be inadmissible during trial. Independent evidence shall not include the opinions of mental health professionals.

An act to amend Sections 1700.25 and 1700.40 of the Labor Code, relating to talent agencies.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

SECTION 1. Section 1700.25 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

1700.25. (a) A licensee who receives any payment of funds on behalf of an artist shall immediately deposit that amount in a trust fund account maintained by him or her in a bank or other recognized depository. The funds, less the licensee's commission, shall be disbursed to the artist within 30 days after receipt. However, notwithstanding the preceding sentence, the licensee may retain the funds beyond 30 days of receipt in either of the following circumstances:

(1) To the extent necessary to offset an obligation of the artist to the talent agency that is then due and owing.

(2) When the funds are the subject of a controversy pending before the Labor Commissioner under Section 1700.44 concerning a fee alleged to be owed by the artist to the licensee.

(b) A separate record shall be maintained of all funds received on behalf of an artist and the record shall further indicate the disposition of the funds.

(c) If disputed by the artist and the dispute is referred to the Labor Commissioner, the failure of a licensee to disburse funds to an artist within 30 days of receipt shall constitute a "controversy" within the meaning of Section 1700.44.

(d) Any funds specified in subdivision (a) that are the subject of a controversy pending before the Labor Commissioner under Section 1700.44 shall be retained in the trust fund account specified in subdivision (a) and shall not be used by the licensee for any purpose until the controversy is determined by the Labor Commissioner or settled by the parties.

(e) If the Labor Commissioner finds, in proceedings under Section 1700.44, that the licensee's failure to disburse funds to an artist within the time required by subdivision (a) was a willful violation, the Labor Commissioner may, in addition to other relief under Section 1700.44, order the following:

(1) Award reasonable attorney's fees to the prevailing artist.

(2) Award interest to the prevailing artist on the funds wrongfully withheld at the rate of 10 percent per annum during the period of the violation.

(f) Nothing in subdivision (c), (d), or (e) shall be deemed to supersede Section 1700.45 or to affect the enforceability of a contractual arbitration provision meeting the criteria of Section 1700.45.

SEC. 2. Section 1700.40 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

1700.40. (a) No talent agency shall collect a registration fee. In the event that a talent agency shall collect from an artist a fee or expenses for obtaining employment for the artist, and the artist shall fail to procure the employment, or the artist shall fail to be paid for the employment, the talent agency shall, upon demand therefor, repay to the artist the fee and expenses so collected. Unless repayment thereof is made within 48 hours after demand therefor, the talent agency shall pay to the artist an additional sum equal to the amount of the fee.

(b) No talent agency may refer an artist to any person, firm, or corporation in which the talent agency has a direct or indirect financial interest for other services to be rendered to the artist, including, but not limited to, photography, audition tapes, demonstration reels or similar materials, business management, personal management, coaching, dramatic school, casting or talent brochures, agency-client directories, or other printing.

(c) No talent agency may accept any referral fee or similar compensation from any person, association, or corporation providing services of any type expressly set forth in subdivision (b) to an artist under contract with the talent agency.

An act to amend Sections 14105.98 and 14163 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to Medi-Cal, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

14105.98. (a) The following definitions shall apply for purposes of this section:

(1) "Disproportionate share list" means an annual list of disproportionate share hospitals that provide acute inpatient services issued by the department for purposes of this section.

(2) "Fund" means the Medi-Cal Inpatient Payment Adjustment Fund, created pursuant to Section 14163.

(3) "Eligible hospital" means a hospital included on a disproportionate share list, which is eligible to receive payment adjustments under this section with respect to a particular state fiscal year.

(4) "Hospital" means a health facility that is licensed pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code to provide acute inpatient hospital services, and includes all components of the facility.

(5) "Payment adjustment" or "payment adjustment amount" means an amount paid under this section for acute inpatient hospital services provided by a disproportionate share hospital.

(6) "Payment adjustment year" means the particular state fiscal year with respect to which payments are to be made to eligible hospitals under this section.

(7) "Payment adjustment program" means the system of Medi-Cal payment adjustments for acute inpatient hospital services established by this section.

(8) "Annualized Medi-Cal inpatient paid days" means the total number of Medi-Cal acute inpatient hospital days, regardless of dates of service, for which payment was made by or on behalf of the department to a hospital, under present or previous ownership, during the most recent calendar year ending prior to the beginning of a particular payment adjustment year, including all Medi-Cal acute inpatient covered days of care for hospitals which are paid on a different basis than per diem payments.

(9) "Low-income utilization rate" means a percentage rate determined by the department in accordance with the requirements of Section 1396r-4(b)(3) of Title 42 of the United States Code, and included on a disproportionate share list.

(10) "Low-income number" means a hospital's low-income utilization rate rounded down to the nearest whole number, and included on a disproportionate share list.

(11) "1991 Peer Grouping Report" means the final report issued by the department dated May 1991, entitled "Hospital Peer Grouping."

(12) "Major teaching hospital" means a hospital that meets the definition of a university teaching hospital, major nonuniversity teaching hospital, or large teaching emphasis hospital as set forth on page 51 of the 1991 Peer Grouping Report.

(13) "Children's hospital" means a hospital that meets the definition of a children's hospital-state defined, as set forth on page 53 of the 1991 Peer Grouping Report, or which is listed in subdivision (a), or subdivisions (c) to (g), inclusive, of Section 16996.

(14) "Acute psychiatric hospital" means a hospital that meets the definition of an acute psychiatric hospital, a combination psychiatric/alcohol-drug rehabilitation hospital, or a psychiatric health facility, to the extent the facility is licensed to provide acute inpatient hospital service, as set forth on page 52 of the 1991 Peer Grouping Report.

(15) "Alcohol-drug rehabilitation hospital" means a hospital that meets the definition of an alcohol-drug rehabilitation hospital as set forth on page 52 of the 1991 Peer Grouping Report.

licensed provider of basic emergency services as described in Sections 70411 to 70419, inclusive, of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, or that is a licensed provider of comprehensive emergency medical services as described in Sections 70451 to 70459, inclusive, of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations.

(17) "Medi-Cal day of acute inpatient hospital service" means any acute inpatient day of service attributable to patients who, for those days, were eligible for medical assistance under the California state plan, including any day of service that is reimbursed on a basis other than per diem payments.

(18) "Total per diem composite amount" means, for each eligible hospital for a particular payment adjustment year, the total of the various per diem payment adjustment amounts to be paid to the hospital for each eligible day as calculated under subdivision (g), (h), (i), or (j).

(19) "Supplemental lump-sum payment adjustment" means a lump-sum amount paid under this section for acute inpatient hospital services provided by a disproportionate share hospital.

(20) "Projected total payment adjustment amount" means, for each eligible hospital for a particular payment adjustment year, the amount calculated by the department as the projected maximum total amount the hospital is expected to receive under the payment adjustment program for the particular payment adjustment year (including all per diem payment adjustment amounts and any applicable supplemental lump-sum payment adjustments).

(21) "To align the program with the federal allotment" means to modify the size of the payment adjustment program to be as close as reasonably feasible to, but not to exceed, the estimated or actual maximum state disproportionate share hospital allotment for the particular federal fiscal year for California under Section 1396r-4(f) of Title 42 of the United States Code.

(b) For each fiscal year commencing with 1991-92, there shall be Medi-Cal payment adjustment amounts paid to hospitals pursuant to this section. The amount of payments made and the eligible hospitals for each payment adjustment year shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of this section. The payments are intended to support health care services rendered by disproportionate share hospitals.

(c) For each fiscal year commencing with 1991-92, the department shall issue a disproportionate share list. The list shall be developed in accordance with subdivisions (e) and (f), and shall serve as a basis for payments under this section for the particular payment adjustment year. In developing the list, the department may, to the extent practicable, utilize applicable data which is consistent with analysis compiled or developed by the California Medical Assistance Commission.

(d) (1) Except as otherwise provided by this section, the payment adjustment amounts under this section shall be distributed as a supplement to, and concurrent with, payments on all billings for Medi-Cal acute inpatient hospital services that are paid through Medi-Cal claims payment systems on or after July 1, 1991. In connection with those billings, the department shall pay payment adjustment amounts in accordance with subdivision (g), (h), (i), or (j), as applicable, to any hospital qualifying under subdivision (e). In addition, the department shall pay to each of those hospitals any supplemental lump-sum payment adjustment amounts payable under subdivisions (u), (v), (w), and (y), and shall adjust payment amounts in accordance with other applicable provisions of this section. The nonfederal share of all payment adjustment amounts shall be funded by amounts from the fund. The department shall obtain federal matching funds for the payment adjustment program through customary Medi-Cal accounting procedures.

(2) As a limitation to paragraph (1), all payment adjustment amounts under this section, which are due with respect to billings paid through Medi-Cal claims payment systems on or after July 1, 1991, shall be suspended until the time federal approval is first obtained for the payment adjustment program as part of the Medi-Cal program. For purposes of this paragraph, federal approval requires both (i) approval by appropriate federal agencies of an amendment to the Medi-Cal State Plan, as referred to in subdivision (o), and (ii) confirmation by appropriate federal agencies regarding the availability of federal financial participation for the payment adjustment program at a level of at least 40 percent of the percentage of federal financial participation that is normally applicable for Medi-Cal expenditures for acute inpatient hospital services. At the time federal approval is first obtained, the department shall proceed pursuant to subparagraphs (A) and (B) in connection with the suspended payment adjustment amounts.

(A) Except as provided by subdivision (l), or by any other subdivision of this section, any payment adjustment amounts which were suspended shall, within 60 days, be paid for all those billings paid through Medi-Cal claims payment systems during periods of time, on or after July 1, 1991, for which federal approval is first effective for the payment adjustment program.

(B) Payment adjustment amounts shall not be paid in connection with any Medi-Cal billings which were paid through Medi-Cal claims payment systems during any period of time for which federal approval is not effective for the payment adjustment program.

(3) As a limitation to paragraph (1), the amendments to this section enacted during calendar year 1993 shall not be implemented until the department has obtained any approvals that are necessary under federal law. Until such time as all necessary federal approvals are obtained, the payment adjustment program shall continue as though no amendments had been enacted during calendar year 1993. At such time as all necessary federal approvals have been obtained, the amendments enacted during calendar year 1993, shall be implemented effective as of the earliest effective date permissible under federal law.

(4) As a limitation to paragraph (1), amendments to this section enacted during calendar year 1994 shall not be implemented until the department has obtained any approvals that are necessary under federal law. Until all necessary federal approvals are obtained, the payment adjustment program shall continue as though no amendments had been enacted during calendar year 1994. When all necessary federal approvals have been obtained, the amendments enacted during calendar year 1994 shall be implemented effective as of the earliest effective date permissible under federal law. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, on or after the date that federal approval is obtained the payments made prior to that date with respect to the 1994–95 payment adjustment year or subsequent payment adjustment years shall be deemed nonfinal payments for purposes of this section and Section 14163. Any of those amounts paid or payable prior to that date shall then be compared to the payments that would have been made pursuant to the program changes as approved by the federal government for all periods of time permissible under federal law, and the difference, if any, shall be paid or recouped by the department, as appropriate.

(e) To qualify for payment adjustment amounts under this section, a hospital shall have been included on the disproportionate share list for the particular payment adjustment year. The list shall consist of those hospitals which satisfy both of the following requirements:

(1) The hospital shall meet the federal requirements for disproportionate share status set forth in subsection (d) of Section 1396r-4 of Title 42 of the United States Code.

(2) Either of the following shall apply:

(A) The hospital's medicaid inpatient utilization rate, as defined in Section 1396r-4(b) (2) of Title 42 of the United States Code, shall be at least one standard deviation above the mean medicaid inpatient utilization rate for hospitals receiving medicaid payments in the state.

(B) The hospital's low-income utilization rate shall exceed 25 percent.

(f) (1) For the 1991–92 payment adjustment year, a disproportionate share list shall be issued by the department no later than 65 days after the enactment of this section. For subsequent payment adjustment years, a tentative listing shall be prepared by the department at least 60 days before the beginning of the particular payment adjustment year, and a disproportionate share list shall be issued no later than five days after the beginning of the particular payment adjustment year. All state agencies shall take all necessary steps to supply the most recent data available to the department to meet these deadlines. The Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development shall provide to the department quarterly access to the edited and unedited confidential patient discharge data files for all Medi-Cal eligible patients. The department shall maintain the confidentiality of that data to the same extent as is required of the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development. In addition, the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development shall provide to the department no later than March 1 of each year, the data specified by the department, as the data existed on the statewide data base file as of February 1 of each year (except that for the 1991-92 payment adjustment year, the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development shall provide data as it existed on the statewide data base file as of August 30, 1991), from all of the following:

(A) Hospital annual disclosure reports, filed with the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development pursuant to Section 443.31 of the Health and Safety Code, for hospital fiscal years which ended during the calendar year ending 13 months prior to the applicable February 1.

(B) Annual reports of hospitals, filed with the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development pursuant to Section 439.2 of the Health and Safety Code, for the calendar year ending 13 months prior to the applicable February 1.

(C) Hospital patient discharge data reports, filed with the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 443.31 of the Health and Safety Code, for the calendar year ending 13 months prior to the applicable February 1.

(D) Any other materials on file with the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development.

(2) The disproportionate share list shall show all of the following:

(A) The name and license number of the hospital.

(B) Expressed as a percentage, the hospital's Medi-Cal utilization rate and low-income utilization rate as referred to in paragraph (2) of subdivision (e). The department shall determine these rates in accordance with paragraph (4).

(C) Based on the hospital's low-income utilization rate, the hospital's low-income number.

(4) To determine a hospital's Medi-Cal inpatient utilization rate and low-income utilization rate for purposes of disproportionate share lists, the department shall utilize the same methodology, formulae, and data sources as set forth in connection with interim determinations in Attachment 4.19-A of the Medi-Cal State Plan (effective on or about July 1, 1990), except that the following shall apply:

(A) The calculations shall not be interim, but shall be final for purposes of this section.

(B) To the extent permitted by federal law, the payment adjustment amounts provided to hospitals pursuant to this section shall not be included for any purpose in the calculations and determinations made pursuant to this section.

(C) Any other variation otherwise required by this section or by federal law.

(D) The data utilized by the department shall relate to the hospital under present and previous ownership. When there has been a change of ownership, a change in the location of the main hospital facility, or a material change in patient admission patterns during the twenty-four months immediately prior to the payment adjustment year, and the change has resulted in a diminution of access for Medi-Cal inpatients at the hospital, all as determined by the department, the department shall, to the extent permitted by federal law, utilize current data that are reflective of the diminution of access, even if the data are not annual data.

(E) Unless expressly provided otherwise by this section, the hospital's low-income utilization rate shall be based on the most recent annual data available from annual hospital reports existing on the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development data base file as of February 1 of each year.

(F) (i) If, for the 1994-95 payment adjustment year or subsequent payment adjustment years, some or all of the annual data elements available to the department from hospital reports filed with the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development for purposes of computing hospital low-income utilization rates are different than in prior years due to changes in data reporting requirements of the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development or changes in other state health care programs, the department shall take such steps as are necessary to obtain from hospitals appropriate data in order to clarify the annual data filed with the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development. This shall be done by the department in order to ensure that low-income utilization rates are determined in a manner as equivalent as possible to the approach and methodology used for the 1991-92 payment adjustment year.

(ii) The efforts of the department to obtain and apply data for the purposes described in clause (i) shall include a survey to collect, from one or more hospitals, any data necessary to calculate the low-income utilization rates in accordance with clause (i). The purpose for the survey shall be to clarify the data already included by hospitals in their annual reports submitted to the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development. The data requested by the department in the survey may include, among other things, information regarding the manner in which payments made to hospitals under this section were reported by the hospitals to the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development. The data requested may also include information regarding the manner in which hospitals reported figures relating to charity care, bad debts, and amounts received in connection with state or local indigent care programs.

(iii) In connection with any survey conducted under clause (ii), the department may require that hospitals submit responses in accordance with a deadline established by the department, and that the responses be supported by a verification of a hospital representative. Should any hospital not respond on a timely basis in accordance with protocols established by the department, the department shall utilize prior year data, adjusted by the department in its discretion, to calculate the hospital's low-income utilization rate.

(G) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, all payment adjustment amounts, including per diem payment adjustment amounts and supplemental lump-sum payment adjustments, paid or payable to a hospital under this section, shall be recorded on an accrual basis of accounting in reports filed by the hospital with the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development or the department.

(5) For purposes of payment adjustment amounts under this section, each disproportionate share list shall be considered complete when issued by the department pursuant to paragraph (1). Nothing on a disproportionate share list, once issued by the department, shall be modified for any reason, other than mathematical or typographical errors or omissions on the part of the department or the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development in preparation of the list.

(g) For each Medi-Cal day of acute inpatient hospital service paid by or on behalf of the department during a payment adjustment year, regardless of dates of service, to a hospital on the applicable disproportionate share list, where that hospital, on the first day of the payment adjustment year, is a major teaching hospital, the hospital shall be paid the sum of all of the following amounts, except as limited by other applicable provisions of this section:

(1) A minimum payment adjustment of three hundred dollars ($300).

(2) The sum of the following amounts, minus three hundred dollars ($300):

(A) A ninety dollar ($90) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 25 percent to 29 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(B) A seventy dollar ($70) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 30 percent to 34 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(C) A fifty dollar ($50) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 35 percent to 44 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(D) A thirty dollar ($30) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 45 percent to 64 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(E) A ten dollar ($10) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 65 percent to 80 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(3) If the sum calculated under paragraph (2) is less than zero, it shall be disregarded for payment purposes.

(h) For each Medi-Cal day of acute inpatient hospital service paid by or on behalf of the department during a payment adjustment year, regardless of dates of service, to a hospital on the applicable disproportionate share list, where that hospital, on the first day of the payment adjustment year, is a children's hospital, the hospital shall be paid the sum of four hundred fifty dollars ($450), except as limited by other applicable provisions of this section.

(i) For each Medi-Cal day of acute inpatient hospital service paid by or on behalf of the department during a payment adjustment year, regardless of dates of service, to a hospital on the applicable disproportionate share list, where that hospital, on the first day of the payment adjustment year, is an acute psychiatric hospital or an alcohol-drug rehabilitation hospital, the hospital shall be paid the sum of all of the following amounts, except as limited by other applicable provisions of this section:

(1) A minimum payment adjustment of fifty dollars ($50).

(2) The sum of the following amounts, minus fifty dollars ($50):

(A) A ten dollar ($10) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 25 to 29 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(B) A seven dollar ($7) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 30 to 34 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(C) A five dollar ($5) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 35 to 44 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(D) A two dollar ($2) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 45 to 64 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(3) If the sum calculated under paragraph (2) is less than zero, it shall be disregarded for payment purposes.

(j) For each Medi-Cal day of acute inpatient hospital service paid by or on behalf of the department during a payment adjustment year, regardless of dates of service, to a hospital on the applicable disproportionate share list, where that hospital does not meet the criteria for receiving payments under subdivision (g), (h), or (i) above, the hospital shall be paid the sum of all of the following amounts, except as limited by other applicable provisions of this section:

(1) A minimum payment adjustment of one hundred dollars ($100).

(2) If the hospital is an emergency services hospital at the time the payment adjustment is paid, a two hundred dollar ($200) payment adjustment.

(3) The sum of the following amounts minus one hundred dollars ($100), and minus an additional two hundred dollars ($200) if the hospital is an emergency services hospital at the time the payment adjustment is paid:

(A) A forty dollar ($40) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 25 percent to 29 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(B) A thirty-five dollar ($35) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 30 percent to 34 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(C) A thirty dollar ($30) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 35 percent to 44 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(D) A twenty dollar ($20) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 45 percent to 64 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(E) A fifteen dollar ($15) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 65 percent to 80 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(4) If the sum calculated under paragraph (3) is less than zero, it shall be disregarded for payment purposes.

(k) (1) For any particular payment adjustment year, no hospital may qualify for payments under more than one subdivision among subdivisions (g), (h), (i), and (j). If any hospital qualifies under more than one subdivision, the department shall determine which subdivision shall apply for payments.

(2) For each payment adjustment year beginning with 1992-93, the total applicable per diem payment adjustment amount calculated for each eligible hospital pursuant to subdivision (g), (h), (i), or (j) shall be adjusted by a percentage identical to the percentage increase in transfer amounts that the department has authorized for use pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (h) of Section 14163 for the particular fiscal year.

(3) If an eligible hospital ordinarily is paid by or on behalf of the department for Medi-Cal acute inpatient hospital services based on a payment methodology other than per diem payments, the eligible hospital shall receive payment adjustment amounts under subdivision (g), (h), (i), or (j) of this section based on its approved Medi-Cal days of acute inpatient hospital care, in the same fashion as all other eligible hospitals under this section.

(l) (1) (A) In determining Medi-Cal days of service for purposes of payment adjustments under this section, the department shall recognize all acute inpatient hospital days of service required to be taken into account under federal law.

(B) For the 1992-93 payment year, the department may consider the Medi-Cal days of service provided by the qualifying hospitals for Medi-Cal patients covered by the prepaid health plans contracting directly with the Medi-Cal program in achieving their maximum payments.

(C) For 1993-94 and subsequent payment years, the department may consider the Medi-Cal days of service provided by hospitals for Medi-Cal patients covered by the prepaid health plans contracting directly with the Medi-Cal program in determining the Medi-Cal utilization rate and the maximum days of payment. Additionally, the department may consider the days of service provided by the qualifying hospitals for Medi-Cal patients covered by the prepaid health plans contracting directly with the Medi-Cal program in achieving their maximum payments in those payment years.

(D) In order to meet the requirements of subparagraph (C), the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development shall provide to the department quarterly access to all data elements on the edited and unedited confidential patient discharge data files, including Social Security account numbers. The department shall match these data with the department's Medi-Cal Eligibility Data System files to extract any data necessary to meet the requirements of subparagraph (C). The department shall maintain the confidentiality of all patient discharge data to the same extent as is required of the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), there shall be, for each eligible hospital, a maximum limit on the number of Medi-Cal acute inpatient hospital days for which payment adjustment amounts may be paid under this section with respect to each payment adjustment year. The maximum limit shall be that number of days that equals 80 percent of the eligible hospital's annualized Medi-Cal inpatient paid days, as determined from all Medi-Cal paid claims records available through April 1 preceding the beginning of the payment adjustment year.

(m) No payment rate for any service rendered by any hospital under the Medi-Cal selective provider contracting program shall be reduced as a result of this section.

(n) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, to the extent consistent with federal law, and except as provided by this section, no maximum payment limit shall be placed on the amount of Medi-Cal payment adjustments which may be made to disproportionate share hospitals. The payments made to disproportionate share hospitals pursuant to this section and Section 14105.99 shall not cause any other amounts paid or payable to a hospital to be deemed in excess of any applicable maximum payment limit.

(o) The department shall promptly seek any necessary federal approvals in order to implement this section, including any amendments. Pursuant to Section 1396r-4 of Title 42 of the United States Code, and related federal medicaid statutes and regulations, payment adjustment systems for inpatient hospital services rendered by disproportionate share hospitals shall be included in a state's medicaid plan. Therefore, the department shall, prior to the end of the calendar quarter during which this section is enacted or amended, submit for federal approval an amendment to the Medi-Cal State Plan in connection with the payment adjustment program.

(p) (1) The department shall compute, prior to the beginning of each payment adjustment year, the projected size of the payment adjustment program for the particular payment adjustment year. To do so, the department shall determine the projected total payment adjustment amount for each eligible hospital, and shall add these amounts together to determine the projected total size of the program. To the extent this projected total figure for the program exceeds the portion of the maximum state disproportionate share hospital allotment for California under federal law that the department anticipates will be available for the period in question, the department shall reduce the total per diem composite amounts of the various eligible hospitals in the fashion described below so that the allotment in question will not be exceeded.

(2) As an initial step, all total per diem composite amounts for the entire payment adjustment year shall be reduced proportionately not to exceed 2 percent of each total per diem composite amount.

(3) If the reductions authorized by paragraph (2) are insufficient to align the program with the federal allotment for California, then, to the extent permitted by federal law, the following shall apply:

(A) The adjusted total per diem composite amounts, as calculated under paragraph (2), shall remain in effect for each eligible hospital whose low-income number is 30 percent or more.

(B) The adjusted total per diem composite amounts, as calculated under paragraph (2), for all other eligible hospitals shall be further reduced proportionately to align the program with the federal allotment, but in no event to a level that is less than 65 percent of the total per diem composite amount that would have been payable to the eligible hospital had no reductions taken place.

(4) If the steps set forth in paragraph (3) are not permissible under federal law, or are not adequate to align the program with the federal allotment, the adjusted total per diem composite amounts for all eligible hospitals for the entire payment adjustment year shall be further reduced proportionately to align the program with the federal allotment, but in no event to a level that would result in adjusted total per diem composite amounts that are less than 65 percent of the total per diem composite amounts that would have been payable had no reductions taken place.

(5) When all eligible hospitals have been reduced to the 65-percent level set forth in paragraphs (3) and (4), the adjusted total per diem composite amounts for all eligible hospitals shall be further reduced proportionately as necessary to align the program with the federal allotment.

(q) (1) If it is necessary to apply the provisions of paragraph (3) of subdivision (p) at any time, the department shall, as soon as practicable, evaluate why the insufficiency arose and identify the projected occurrence and duration of any future insufficiencies.

(2) If the department determines as a result of the evaluations under paragraph (1) that (A) implementation of paragraph (3) of subdivision (p) will likely be necessary to resolve additional insufficiencies for the current payment adjustment year or the next payment adjustment year; and (B) that the level of federal financial participation realized by the payment adjustment program, for the current payment adjustment year as a whole, will be less than 30 percent of the percentage of federal financial participation that normally is applicable for Medi-Cal expenditures for acute inpatient hospital services, and that the level of federal financial participation for the payment adjustment program is expected to continue to remain below that 30 percent level for the next payment adjustment year as a whole, the department shall, as soon as practicable, implement paragraphs (3) and (4).

(3) If the department determines that the circumstances described in paragraph (2) are present, the payment adjustment program shall be terminated, effective as of the earliest date permissible under federal law. In that event, all installment payments to the fund which are already due pursuant to Section 14163 at the time of the department's determination shall remain due, and shall be collected by the Controller. However, installment payments which are not yet due at that time shall not become due.

(4) Within 90 days after the termination of the payment adjustment program, as referred to in paragraph (3), or as soon as practicable, the department shall determine whether any amounts remain in the fund which are not needed to pay prior payment adjustment amounts under this section. If remaining amounts exist in the fund, they shall be refunded to transferor entities on a pro rata basis, within 45 days after the date of the department's

(r) (1) The state shall be held harmless from any federal disallowance resulting from payments made under this section, and from payments made to hospitals based on transfers accepted by the department under Section 14164. Any hospital that has received payments under this section, or based on transfers accepted by the department under Section 14164, shall be liable for any audit exception or federal disallowance only with respect to the payments made to that hospital. The department shall recoup from a hospital the amount of any audit exception or federal disallowance in the manner authorized by applicable laws and regulations.

(2) If any payment adjustment that has been paid, or that is otherwise payable under this section, exceeds the federal hospital-specific limitation under Section 1396r-4(g) of Title 42 of the United States Code, the department shall withhold or recoup the payment adjustment amount that exceeds the limitation. The nonfederal component of the amount withheld or recouped shall be redeposited in, or shall remain in, the fund, as applicable, until used for the purposes described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (j) of Section 14163.

(s) (1) The department may utilize existing administrative appeal procedures for purposes of any appealable matter that arises under the payment adjustment program. The matters that may be appealed shall be limited to those related to the following:

(A) Paragraph (5) of subdivision (f).

(B) State audit disallowances of amounts paid to hospitals under the payment adjustment program.

(2) Calculations which are final pursuant to paragraph (4) or (5) of subdivision (f) or the procedures or data on which those calculations are based, shall not be appealed.

(t) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), the department shall take all appropriate steps permitted by law and the Medi-Cal State Plan to ensure the following for all years of the payment adjustment program:

(A) That well baby (nursery) days and acute administrative days are included in the payment adjustment program in the same fashion as all other Medi-Cal days of acute inpatient hospital service.

(B) That, to the same extent as any other Medi-Cal days of acute inpatient hospital service, well baby (nursery) days and acute administrative days are included as payable days under the payment adjustment program and in the total of annualized Medi-Cal inpatient paid days.

(C) That, if pursuant to paragraph (2), any well baby (nursery) days or acute administrative days are not included in the payment adjustment program for payment purposes for any parts of the 1992-93 or 1993-94 payment adjustment years, all such days are nevertheless included in the total of annualized Medi-Cal inpatient paid days for all purposes under the payment adjustment program, unless otherwise barred by paragraph (2).

(2) In no event shall paragraph (1) be implemented in a fashion that is inconsistent with federal medicaid law or the Medi-Cal State Plan.

(u) (1) For the 1993-94 payment adjustment year, each eligible hospital shall also be eligible to receive a supplemental lump-sum payment adjustment, which shall be payable as a result of the hospital being included on the disproportionate share list as of September 30, 1993. For purposes of federal medicaid rules, including Section 447.297(d) of Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations, the supplemental payment adjustments shall be applicable to the federal fiscal year that ends on September 30, 1993.

(2) The availability of supplemental payment adjustments under this subdivision shall be determined as follows:

(A) The final maximum state disproportionate share hospital allotment for California under the provisions of applicable federal medicaid rules shall be identified for the 1993 federal fiscal year. This final allotment is two billion one hundred ninety-one million four hundred fifty-one thousand dollars ($2,191,451,000), as specified at page 43186 of Volume 58 of the Federal Register.

(B) The total amount of all per diem payment adjustment amounts under this section, whether paid or payable, that are applicable to the 1993 federal fiscal year shall be determined. The applicability of the per diem payment adjustment amounts to the 1993 federal fiscal year shall be determined in accordance with federal medicaid rules, including Sections 447.297(d)(3) and 447.298 of Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(3) The amount of the supplemental lump-sum payment adjustment to each eligible hospital shall be computed as follows:

(A) The projected total of all per diem payment adjustment amounts payable to each particular eligible hospital under this section for the 1993-94 payment adjustment year shall be determined. For each hospital, this figure shall be identical to the figure used for the same hospital in the calculations regarding transfer amounts under subdivision (h) of Section 14163 for the 1993-94 state fiscal year.

(B) The projected totals for all eligible hospitals determined under subparagraph (A) shall be added together to determine an aggregate total of all projected per diem payment adjustments for 1993-94 payment adjustment year. This figure shall be identical to the aggregate figure for all hospitals used in the calculations regarding transfer amounts under subdivision (h) of Section 14163 for the 1993-94 state fiscal year.

(E) The product as so determined for each eligible hospital under subparagraph (D) shall be the supplemental lump-sum payment adjustment amount payable to the particular hospital.

(4) The department shall make partial payments of the supplemental lump-sum payment adjustments to eligible hospitals on or before January 1, 1994. The department shall make final calculations regarding the supplemental lump-sum payments based on data available as of March 1, 1994, and shall distribute the final payments promptly thereafter.

(5) The department shall implement this subdivision only to the extent consistent with federal medicaid law and the Medi-Cal State Plan, and only to the extent that the department determines that federal financial participation is available. In doing so, the department shall comply with any procedures instituted by the Health Care Financing Administration in connection with Sections 447.297(d)(3) and 447.298 of Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(v) (1) For the 1993-94 payment adjustment year, each eligible hospital that remains in operation as of June 30, 1994, shall also be eligible to receive a supplemental lump-sum payment adjustment, which shall be payable as a result of the hospital being a disproportionate share hospital in operation as of that date.

(2) The availability of supplemental lump-sum payment adjustments under this subdivision shall be determined by the department as follows:

(A) The final maximum state disproportionate share hospital allotment for California under the provisions of applicable federal medicaid rules shall be identified for the 1994 federal fiscal year. This final allotment is two billion one hundred ninety-one million four hundred fifty-one thousand dollars ($2,191,451,000), as specified on page 22676 of Volume 59 of the Federal Register.

(B) The total amount of all per diem payment adjustment amounts under this section, whether paid or payable, that are applicable to the period October 1, 1993, through June 30, 1994, shall be determined. The applicability of the per diem payment adjustment amounts to this period of time shall be determined in accordance with federal medicaid rules, including Sections 447.297(d)(3) and 447.298 of Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(3) The amount of the supplemental lump-sum payment adjustment to each hospital shall be computed as follows:

(A) The projected total of all other payment adjustment amounts payable to each particular hospital under this section applicable to the 1993–94 payment adjustment year shall be determined. For each hospital, this figure shall be identical to the sum of the figures used for the same hospital in the calculations regarding transfer amounts under subdivision (h) of Section 14163 for the 1993–94 state fiscal year, not including the supplemental lump-sum payments described in this subdivision.

(B) The projected totals for all hospitals determined under subparagraph (A) shall be added together to determine an aggregate total. This aggregate total shall be identical to the aggregate figure for all hospitals used in the calculations regarding transfer amounts under subdivision (h) of Section 14163 for the 1993–94 state fiscal year, not including the supplemental lump-sum payments described in this subdivision.

(E) The product determined under subparagraph (D) for each hospital shall be the supplemental lump-sum payment adjustment amount payable to the particular hospital, which shall be payable because the facility is a disproportionate share hospital in operation as of June 30, 1994.

(4) The department shall make interim and final payments of the supplemental lump-sum payment adjustments to hospitals on or before October 31, 1994.

(5) The department shall implement this subdivision only to the extent consistent with federal medicaid law and the Medi-Cal State Plan, and only to the extent that the department determines that federal financial participation is available. In doing so, the department shall comply with any procedures instituted by the Health Care Financing Administration in connection with Sections 447.297(d)(3) and 447.298 of Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(w) (1) For the 1994–95 payment adjustment year, each eligible hospital that remains in operation as of June 30, 1995, shall also be eligible to receive a supplemental lump-sum payment adjustment, which shall be payable as a result of the hospital being a disproportionate share hospital in operation as of that date.

(2) The availability of supplemental lump-sum payment adjustments under this subdivision shall be determined by the department as follows:

medicaid rules shall be identified for the 1995 federal fiscal year.

(B) The total amount of all per diem payment adjustment amounts under this section, whether paid or payable, that are applicable to the period October 1, 1994, through June 30, 1995, shall be determined. The applicability of the per diem payment adjustment amounts to this period of time shall be determined in accordance with federal medicaid rules, including Sections 447.297(d)(3) and 447.298 of Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(3) The amount of the supplemental lump-sum payment adjustment to each hospital shall be computed as follows:

(A) The projected total of all other payment adjustment amounts payable to each particular hospital under this section applicable to the 1994-95 payment adjustment year shall be determined. For each hospital, this figure shall be identical to the sum of the figures used for the same hospital in the calculations regarding transfer amounts under subdivision (h) of Section 14163 for the 1994-95 state fiscal year, not including the supplemental lump-sum payments described in this subdivision.

(B) The projected totals for all hospitals determined under subparagraph (A) shall be added together to determine an aggregate total. This aggregate total shall be identical to the aggregate figure for all hospitals used in the calculations regarding transfer amounts under subdivision (h) of Section 14163 for the 1994-95 state fiscal year, not including the supplemental lump-sum payments described in this subdivision.

(E) The product as so determined under subparagraph (D) for each hospital shall be the supplemental lump-sum payment adjustment amount payable to the particular hospital, which shall be payable because the facility is a disproportionate share hospital in operation as of June 30, 1995.

(4) The department shall make interim and final payments of the supplemental lump-sum payment adjustments to hospitals on or before October 31, 1995.

(5) The department shall implement this subdivision only to the extent consistent with federal medicaid law and the Medi-Cal State Plan, and only to the extent that the department determines that federal financial participation is available. In doing so, the department shall comply with any procedures instituted by the Health Care Financing Administration in connection with Sections 447.297(d)(3) and 447.298 of Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(x) (1) With respect to per diem payment adjustments otherwise payable in connection with the period of July 1 through September 30 of the 1994-95 payment adjustment year, payment adjustment amounts shall be adjusted as described in paragraph (2).

(2) No per diem payment adjustment amounts shall be payable in connection with the period of July 1 through September 30 of the 1994-95 payment adjustment year. The Medi-Cal days of acute inpatient hospital service paid by or on behalf of the department that otherwise would have given rise to payment adjustment amounts with respect to this period of time shall not count toward the maximum limit set forth in paragraph (2) of subdivision (l).

(y) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, except subdivision (z), the payment adjustment program for the 1995-96 payment adjustment year shall be structured as set forth below.

(1) (A) The department shall, in the manner used for prior years, compute the projected total payment adjustment amounts for all eligible hospitals, by determining for each eligible hospital its total per diem composite amount and multiplying that figure by 80 percent of the hospital's annualized Medi-Cal inpatient paid days.

(B) The products of the calculations under subparagraph (A) for all eligible hospitals shall be added together. The sum of all these figures shall be the unadjusted projected total payment adjustment program for the 1995-96 payment adjustment year.

(2) The remaining amount available as part of the state disproportionate share hospital allotment for California under applicable federal rules for July 1995 through September 1995 (as part of the 1995 federal fiscal year) shall be recognized as being zero.

(3) The department shall estimate what the state disproportionate share hospital allotment for California will be for the 1996 federal fiscal year under applicable federal rules. The estimate shall not exceed the allotment that was applicable for California for the 1995 federal fiscal year.

(4) The estimate identified by the department under paragraph (3) shall be reduced by subtracting the total amount of the supplemental lump-sum payments paid or payable under subdivisions (v) and (w).

(5) The remainder determined under paragraph (4) shall be added to the amount determined under paragraph (2). The total of those two amounts shall be the maximum size of the payment adjustment program for the 1995-96 payment adjustment year.

(6) The total per diem composite amount computed for each eligible hospital under subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) shall be reduced so the payment adjustment program for the 1995-96 payment adjustment year does not exceed the amount computed under paragraph (5). The reductions shall occur as follows:

(A) The department shall reduce the total per diem composite amount for each eligible hospital by multiplying the amount by an identical percentage. The percentage figure to be used for this purpose shall be that percentage that is derived by dividing the amount determined under paragraph (5) by the unadjusted projected total payment adjustment program amount determined under subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1).

(B) The percentage figure derived under subparagraph (A) shall be applied to the total per diem composite amount for each eligible hospital, yielding an adjusted total per diem composite amount for each hospital for the 1995-96 payment adjustment year.

(C) The adjusted total per diem composite amount determined under subparagraph (B) for each eligible hospital shall be multiplied by 80 percent of the hospital's annualized Medi-Cal inpatient paid days, yielding an adjusted projected total payment adjustment amount for the hospital for the 1995-96 payment adjustment year.

(D) The adjusted figures computed for all eligible hospitals under subparagraph (C) shall be added together, yielding the adjusted maximum size of the payment adjustment program for the 1995-96 payment adjustment year, which shall equal the figure computed under paragraph (5).

(7) The adjusted maximum amount of the payment adjustment program for the 1995-96 payment adjustment year as determined under subparagraph (D) of paragraph (6), and the adjusted projected total payment adjustment amount for each eligible hospital, as determined under subparagraph (C) of paragraph (6), shall be distributed as follows:

(A) No per diem payment adjustment amounts shall be payable in connection with the period of July 1 through September 30 of the 1995-96 payment adjustment year. The Medi-Cal days of acute inpatient hospital service paid by or on behalf of the department that otherwise would have given rise to payment adjustment amounts with respect to this period of time shall not count toward the maximum limit set forth in paragraph (2) of subdivision (l).

(B) For all eligible hospitals, the adjusted per diem composite amounts (as determined under subparagraph (B) of paragraph (6)) shall be the amounts payable with respect to the period of October 1 through June 30 of the 1995-96 payment adjustment year, subject to the applicable provisions of subdivision (z).

(8) For the 1995-96 payment adjustment year, each eligible hospital that remains in operation as of June 30, 1996, shall also be eligible to receive a supplemental lump-sum payment adjustment, which shall be payable as a result of the facility being a disproportionate share hospital in operation as of that date. The availability of supplemental lump-sum payment adjustments under this paragraph shall be determined by the department as follows:

(A) The adjusted projected total payment adjustment amount for each hospital, as determined under subparagraph (C) of paragraph (6), shall be identified.

(B) The total amount of all per diem payment adjustment amounts under this section, whether paid or payable, that are applicable to the period July 1, 1995, through June 30, 1996, shall be determined for each hospital, taking into account subparagraph (A) of paragraph (7). The applicability of the per diem payment adjustment amounts to this period of time shall be determined in accordance with federal medicaid rules, including Sections 447.297(d)(3) and 447.298 of Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(C) The amount determined under subparagraph (B) for each hospital shall be subtracted from the amount identified under subparagraph (A) for each hospital. If the remainder is a positive figure for the particular hospital, the supplemental lump-sum payment adjustment for the hospital shall be the positive remainder amount, which shall be payable because the facility is a disproportionate share hospital in operation as of June 30, 1996.

(D) The department shall make interim and final payments of the supplemental lump-sum payment adjustments to hospitals on or before September 30, 1996.

(E) The department shall implement this subdivision only to the extent consistent with federal medicaid law and the Medi-Cal State Plan, and only to the extent that the department determines that federal financial participation is available. In doing so, the department shall comply with any procedures instituted by the Health Care Financing Administration in connection with Sections 447.297(d)(3) and 447.298 of Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(z) (1) (A) Notwithstanding any other provision of law (except for subparagraph (B)), all Medi-Cal days of acute inpatient hospital service paid by or on behalf of the department that give rise to payment adjustment amounts with respect to the period October 1, 1994, through June 30, 1995, shall be treated as involving 1.4 days for purposes of payment adjustments with respect to this period of time. As a result, each per diem payment adjustment amount otherwise payable to the hospital in connection with these days shall be increased by 40 percent. The Medi-Cal days in question shall be treated as involving 1.4 days toward the maximum limit set forth in paragraph (2) of subdivision (l). The Medi-Cal days in question shall be treated as involving 1.0 days for purposes of determining the hospital's annualized Medi-Cal inpatient paid days for the next applicable payment adjustment year.

(B) For the 1994-95 payment adjustment year, no eligible hospital shall receive total payment adjustments, including per diem payment adjustment amounts and any supplemental lump-sum payment adjustment amounts, in excess of the projected total payment adjustment amounts that were computed or recomputed, as applicable, for the hospital by the department with respect to the 1994-95 payment adjustment year. For each hospital, this maximum figure shall not exceed the sum of the following two components:

(i) The final figure computed by the department as the hospital's total per diem composite amount (including any applicable adjustments under subdivision (p)), multiplied by 80 percent of the hospital's annualized Medi-Cal inpatient paid days.

(ii) The amount calculated by the department as the hospital's pro rata share (based on the figures for all hospitals computed under clause (i)) of the remainder determined by subtracting (I) the sum of the figures computed for all hospitals under clause (i) from (II) the final maximum state disproportionate share hospital allotment for California under applicable federal rules for the 1995 federal fiscal year.

(2) (A) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, except for subparagraph (B), all Medi-Cal days of acute inpatient hospital service paid by or on behalf of the department that give rise to payment adjustment amounts with respect to the period October 1, 1995, through June 30, 1996, shall be treated as involving 1.4 days for purposes of payment adjustments with respect to this period of time. As a result, each per diem payment adjustment amount otherwise payable to the hospital in connection with these days shall be increased by 40 percent. The Medi-Cal days in question shall be treated as involving 1.4 days toward the maximum limit set forth in paragraph (2) of subdivision (l). The Medi-Cal days in question shall be treated as involving 1.0 days for purposes of determining the hospital's annualized Medi-Cal inpatient paid days for the next applicable payment adjustment year.

(B) For the 1995-96 payment adjustment year, no eligible hospital shall receive total payment adjustments, including per diem payment adjustment amounts and any supplemental lump-sum payment adjustment amounts, in excess of the adjusted projected total payment adjustment amount that was computed for the hospital for the 1995-96 payment adjustment year under subparagraph (C) of paragraph (6) of subdivision (y).

(C) Any payment adjustment amount that otherwise would be payable to a hospital, but that is barred by subparagraph (A), shall be withheld or recouped by the department and distributed on a descending pro rata basis as part of the supplemental lump-sum distribution described in paragraph (8) of subdivision (y) to those hospitals that have not reached their maximum figures as described in subparagraph (B).

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, to the extent necessary or appropriate to implement and administer the amendments to this section enacted during the 1994 calendar year, the department may utilize an approach involving interim payments, with reconciliation to final payments within a reasonable time.

SEC. 2. Section 14163 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14163. (a) For purposes of this section, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) "Public entity" means a county, a city, a city and county, the University of California, a local hospital district, a local health authority, or any other political subdivision of the state.

(2) "Hospital" means a health facility that is licensed pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code to provide acute inpatient hospital services, and includes all components of the facility.

(3) "Disproportionate share hospital" means a hospital providing acute inpatient services to Medi-Cal beneficiaries that meets the criteria for disproportionate share status relating to acute inpatient services set forth in Section 14105.98.

(4) "Disproportionate share list" means the annual list of disproportionate share hospitals for acute inpatient services issued by the department pursuant to Section 14105.98.

(5) "Fund" means the Medi-Cal Inpatient Payment Adjustment Fund.

(6) "Eligible hospital" means, for a particular state fiscal year, a hospital on the disproportionate share list that is eligible to receive payment adjustment amounts under Section 14105.98 with respect to that state fiscal year.

(7) "Transfer year" means the particular state fiscal year during which, or with respect to which, public entities are required by this section to make an intergovernmental transfer of funds to the Controller.

(8) "Transferor entity" means a public entity that, with respect to a particular transfer year, is required by this section to make an intergovernmental transfer of funds to the Controller.

(9) "Transfer amount" means an amount of intergovernmental transfer of funds that this section requires for a particular transferor entity with respect to a particular transfer year.

(10) "Intergovernmental transfer" means a transfer of funds from a public entity to the state, that is local government financial participation in Medi-Cal pursuant to the terms of this section.

(11) "Licensee" means an entity that has been issued a license to operate a hospital by the department.

(12) "Annualized Medi-Cal inpatient paid days" means the total number of Medi-Cal acute inpatient hospital days, regardless of dates of service, for which payment was made by or on behalf of the department to a hospital, under present or previous ownership, during the most recent calendar year ending prior to the beginning of a particular transfer year, including all Medi-Cal acute inpatient covered days of care for hospitals that are paid on a different basis

(13) "Medi-Cal acute inpatient hospital day" means any acute inpatient day of service attributable to patients who, for those days, were eligible for medical assistance under the California state plan, including any day of service that is reimbursed on a basis other than per diem payments.

(b) The Medi-Cal Inpatient Payment Adjustment Fund is hereby created in the State Treasury. Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, the fund shall be continuously appropriated to, and under the administrative control of, the department for the purposes specified in subdivision (d). The fund shall consist of the following:

(1) Transfer amounts collected by the Controller under this section, whether submitted by transferor entities pursuant to subdivision (i) or obtained by offset pursuant to subdivision (j).

(2) Any other intergovernmental transfers deposited in the fund, as permitted by Section 14164.

(3) Any interest that accrues with respect to amounts in the fund.

(c) Moneys in the fund, which shall not consist of any state general funds, shall be used as the source for the nonfederal share of payments to hospitals pursuant to Section 14105.98. Moneys shall be allocated from the fund by the department and matched by federal funds in accordance with customary Medi-Cal accounting procedures, and used to make payments pursuant to Section 14105.98.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in Section 14105.98 or in any provision of law appropriating a specified sum of money to the department for administering this section and Section 14105.98, moneys in the fund shall be used only for the following:

(1) Payments to hospitals pursuant to Section 14105.98.

(2) Except for the amount transferred pursuant to paragraph (3), transfers to the Health Care Deposit Fund in the amount of two hundred thirty-nine million seven hundred fifty-seven thousand six hundred ninety dollars ($239,757,690), for the 1994-95 fiscal year and for each fiscal year thereafter. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the amount specified in this paragraph shall be in addition to any amounts transferred to the Health Care Deposit Fund arising from changes of any kind attributable to payment adjustment years prior to the 1993-94 payment adjustment year. These transfers from the fund shall be made in six equal monthly installments to the Medi-Cal local assistance appropriation item (Item 4260-101-001 of the annual Budget Act) in support of Medi-Cal expenditures. The first installment shall accrue in October of each transfer year, and all other installments shall accrue monthly thereafter from November through March.

(3) In the 1993-94 fiscal year, in addition to the amount transferred as specified in paragraph (2), fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000) shall also be transferred to the Medi-Cal local assistance appropriation item (Item 4260-101-001) of the Budget Act of 1993.

(e) For the 1991-92 state fiscal year, the department shall determine, no later than 70 days after the enactment of this section, the transferor entities for the 1991-92 transfer year. To make this determination, the department shall utilize the disproportionate share list for the 1991-92 fiscal year, which shall be issued by the department no later than 65 days after the enactment of this section, pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (f) of Section 14105.98. The department shall identify each eligible hospital on the list for which a public entity is the licensee as of July 1, 1991. The public entity that is the licensee of each identified eligible hospital shall be a transferor entity for the 1991-92 transfer year.

(f) The department shall determine, no later than 70 days after the enactment of this section, the transfer amounts for the 1991-92 transfer year.

(1) The eligible hospitals for 1991-92 shall be identified. For each hospital, the applicable total per diem payment adjustment amount under Section 14105.98 for the 1991-92 transfer year shall be computed. This amount shall be multiplied by 80 percent of the eligible hospital's annualized Medi-Cal inpatient paid days as determined from all Medi-Cal paid claims records available through April 1, 1991. The products of these calculations for all eligible hospitals shall be added together to determine an aggregate sum for the 1991-92 transfer year.

(3) The aggregate sum determined under paragraph (1) shall be divided by the aggregate sum determined under paragraph (2), yielding a factor to be utilized in paragraph (4).

(4) The factor determined in paragraph (3) shall be multiplied by the amount determined for each hospital under paragraph (2). The product of this calculation for each hospital in paragraph (2) shall be divided by 1.771, yielding a transfer amount for the particular transferor entity for the transfer year, except as provided by paragraph (5).

(5) Only for the transfer year with respect to which the payment adjustment program set forth in Section 14105.98 first gains federal approval, a reduction in the transfer amount determined pursuant to paragraph (4) shall be applicable under the following circumstances:

(A) To determine any such reduction, the transfer amount determined pursuant to paragraph (4) shall first be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days of the transfer year for which federal approval is effective and the denominator of which is 365.

(B) If the product of the calculation under subparagraph (A) is 80 percent or more of the transfer amount determined under paragraph (4), no reduction of the transfer amount determined under paragraph (4) shall apply.

(C) If the product of the calculation under subparagraph (A) is less than 80 percent of the transfer amount determined under paragraph (4), a reduction shall apply to the transfer amount determined under paragraph (4). The reduction shall be that particular amount which is equal to the difference between (i) the transfer amount determined under paragraph (4) and (ii) the amount calculated under subparagraph (A) divided by 80 percent.

(D) Any reduction of a transfer amount applicable under subparagraph (C) shall be spread equally among the installments referred to in subdivision (i).

(g) For the 1991-92 transfer year, the department shall notify each transferor entity in writing of its applicable transfer amount or amounts no later than 70 days after the enactment of this section, which amount or amounts shall be subject to adjustment pursuant to subdivisions (f) and (i).

(h) For the 1992-93 transfer year and subsequent transfer years, transfer amounts shall be determined in the same procedural manner as set forth in subdivision (f), except:

(1) The department shall use all of the following:

(A) The disproportionate share list applicable to the particular transfer year to determine the eligible hospitals.

(B) The payment adjustment amounts calculated under Section 14105.98 for the particular transfer year. These amounts shall take into account any projected or actual increases or decreases in the size of the payment adjustment program as are required under Section 14105.98 for the particular year in question. Subject to the installment schedule in paragraph (5) of subdivision (i) regarding transfer amounts, the department may issue interim, revised, and supplemental transfer requests as necessary and appropriate to address changes in payment adjustment levels that occur under Section 14105.98. All transfer requests, or adjustments thereto, issued to transferor entities by the department shall meet the requirements set forth in subparagraph (E) of paragraph (5) of subdivision (i).

(C) Data regarding annualized Medi-Cal inpatient paid days for the most recent calendar year ending prior to the beginning of the particular transfer year, as determined from all Medi-Cal paid claims records available through April 1 preceding the particular transfer year.

(D) The status of public entities as licensees of eligible hospitals as of July 1 of the particular transfer year.

(E) The transfer amounts calculated by the department may be increased or decreased by a percentage amount consistent with the Medi-Cal State Plan.

(2) For the 1993-94 transfer year and subsequent transfer years, transfer amounts shall be increased on a pro rata basis for each transferor entity for the particular transfer year in the amounts necessary to fund the nonfederal share of the total supplemental lump-sum payment adjustment amounts that arise under Section 14105.98. For purposes of this paragraph, the supplemental lump-sum payment adjustment amounts shall be deemed to arise for the particular transfer year as of the date specified in Section 14105.98. Transfer amounts to fund the nonfederal share of the payments shall be paid by the transferor entities for the particular transfer year within 20 days after the department notifies the transferor entity in writing of the additional transfer amount to be paid.

(3) The department shall prepare preliminary analyses and calculations regarding potential transfer amounts, and potential transferor entities shall be notified by the department of estimated transfer amounts as soon as reasonably feasible regarding any particular transfer year. Written notices of transfer amounts shall be issued by the department as soon as possible with respect to each transfer year. All state agencies shall take all necessary steps in order to supply applicable data to the department to accomplish these tasks. The Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development shall provide to the department quarterly access to the edited and unedited confidential patient discharge data files for all Medi-Cal eligible patients. The department shall maintain the confidentiality of that data to the same extent as is required of the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development. In addition, the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development shall provide to the department, not later than March 1 of each year, the data specified by the department, as the data existed on the statewide data base file as of February 1 of each year, from all of the following:

(A) Hospital annual disclosure reports, filed with the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development pursuant to Section 443.31 of the Health and Safety Code, for hospital fiscal years that ended during the calendar year ending 13 months prior to the applicable February 1.

(B) Annual reports of hospitals, filed with the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development pursuant to Section 439.2 of the Health and Safety Code, for the calendar year ending 13 months prior to the applicable February 1.

(C) Hospital patient discharge data reports, filed with the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 443.31 of the Health and Safety Code, for the calendar year ending 13 months prior to the applicable February 1.

(D) Any other materials on file with the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development.

(4) For the 1993-94 transfer year and subsequent transfer years, the divisor to be used for purposes of the calculation referred to in paragraph (4) of subdivision (f) shall be determined by the department. The divisor shall be calculated to ensure that the appropriate amount of transfers from transferor entities are received into the fund to satisfy the requirements of Section 14105.98 for the particular transfer year. For the 1993-94 transfer year, the divisor shall be 1.742.

(5) For the 1993-94 fiscal year, the transfer amount that would otherwise be required from the University of California shall be increased by fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000).

(6) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the total amount of transfers required from the transferor entities for any particular transfer year shall not exceed the sum of the following:

(A) The amount needed to fund the nonfederal share of all payment adjustment amounts applicable to the particular payment adjustment year as calculated under Section 14105.98. Included in the calculations for this purpose shall be any decreases in the program as a whole, and for individual hospitals, that arise due to the provisions of Section 1396r-4(f) of Title 42 of the United States Code.

(B) The amount needed to fund the transfers to the Health Care Deposit Fund, as referred to in paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (d).

(7) Except as provided in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (j), any amounts in the fund that are not expended, or estimated to be required for expenditure, under Section 14105.98 with respect to a particular transfer year shall be returned on a pro rata basis to the transferor entities for the particular transfer year within 120 days after the department determines that the funds are not needed for an expenditure in connection with the particular transfer year.

(i) (1) For the 1991-92 transfer year, each transferor entity shall pay its transfer amount or amounts to the Controller, for deposit in the fund, in eight equal installments. Except as provided below, the first installment shall accrue on July 25, 1991, and all other installments shall accrue on the 5th day of each month thereafter from August through February.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), no installment shall be payable to the Controller until that date which is 20 days after the department notifies the transferor entity in writing that the payment adjustment program set forth in Section 14105.98 has first gained federal approval as part of the Medi-Cal program. For purposes of this paragraph, federal approval requires both (i) approval by appropriate federal agencies of an amendment to the Medi-Cal State Plan, as referred to in subdivision (o) of Section 14105.98, and (ii) confirmation by appropriate federal agencies regarding the availability of federal financial participation for the payment adjustment program set forth in Section 14105.98 at a level of at least 40 percent of the percentage of federal financial participation that is normally applicable for Medi-Cal expenditures for acute inpatient hospital services.

(3) If any installment that would otherwise be payable under paragraph (1) is not paid because of the provisions of paragraph (2), then subparagraphs (A) and (B) shall be followed when federal approval is gained.

(A) All installments that were deferred based on the provisions of paragraph (2) shall be paid no later than 20 days after the department notifies the transferor entity in writing that federal approval has been gained, in an amount consistent with subparagraph (B).

(B) The installments paid pursuant to subparagraph (A) shall be paid in full, subject to an adjustment in amount pursuant to paragraph (5) of subdivision (f).

(4) All installments for the 1991-92 transfer year that arise in months after federal approval is gained shall be paid by the 5th day of the month or 20 days after the department notifies the transferor entity in writing that federal approval has been gained, whichever is later. These installments shall be subject to an adjustment in amount pursuant to paragraph (5) of subdivision (f).

(5) (A) Except as provided in subparagraphs (B) and (C), for the 1992-93 transfer year and subsequent transfer years, each transferor entity shall pay its transfer amount or amounts to the Controller, for deposit in the fund, in eight equal installments. The first installment shall be payable on July 10 of each transfer year. All other installments shall be payable on the 5th day of each month thereafter from August through February.

(B) For the 1994-95 transfer year, each transferor entity shall pay its transfer amount or amounts to the Controller, for deposit in the fund, in five equal installments. The first installment shall be payable on October 5, 1994. The next four installments shall be payable on the fifth day of each month thereafter from November through February.

(C) For the 1995-96 transfer year, each transferor entity shall pay its transfer amount or amounts to the Controller, for deposit in the fund, in five equal installments. The first installment shall be payable on October 5, 1995. The next four installments shall be payable on the fifth day of each month thereafter from November through February.

(D) Except as otherwise specifically provided, subparagraphs (A) to (C), inclusive, shall not apply to increases in transfer amounts described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (h) or to additional transfer amounts described in subdivision (o).

(E) All requests for transfer payments, or adjustments thereto, issued by the department shall be in writing and shall include (i) an explanation of the basis for the particular transfer request or transfer activity, (ii) a summary description of program funding status for the particular transfer year, and (iii) the general calculations used by the department in connection with the particular transfer request or transfer activity.

(6) A transferor entity may use any of the following funds for purposes of meeting its transfer obligations under this section:

(A) General funds of the transferor entity.

(B) Any other funds permitted by law to be used for these purposes, except that a transferor entity shall not submit to the Controller any federal funds unless those federal funds are authorized by federal law to be used to match other federal funds. In addition, no private donated funds from any health care provider, or from any person or organization affiliated with such a health care provider, shall be channeled through a transferor entity or any other public entity to the fund. The transferor entity shall be responsible for determining that funds transferred meet the requirements of this subparagraph.

(j) (1) If a transferor entity does not submit any transfer amount within the time period specified in this section, the Controller shall offset immediately the amount owed against any funds which otherwise would be payable by the state to the transferor entity. The Controller, however, shall not impose an offset against any particular funds payable to the transferor entity where the offset would violate state or federal law.

(2) Where a withhold or a recoupment occurs pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (2) of subdivision (r) of Section 14105.98, the nonfederal portion of the amount in question shall remain in the fund, or shall be redeposited in the fund by the department, as applicable. The department shall then proceed as follows:

(A) If the withhold or recoupment was imposed with respect to a hospital whose licensee was a transferor entity for the particular state fiscal year to which the withhold or recoupment related, the nonfederal portion of the amount withheld or recouped shall serve as a credit for the particular transferor entity against an equal amount of transfer obligations under this section, to be applied whenever the transfer obligations next arise. Should no such transfer obligation arise within 180 days, the department shall return the funds in question to the particular transferor entity within 30 days thereafter.

(B) For other situations, the withheld or recouped nonfederal portion shall be subject to paragraph (7) of subdivision (h).

(k) All amounts received by the Controller pursuant to subdivision (i), paragraph (2) of subdivision (h), or subdivision (o), or offset by the Controller pursuant to subdivision (j), shall immediately be deposited in the fund.

(l) For purposes of this section, the disproportionate share list utilized by the department for a particular transfer year shall be identical to the disproportionate share list utilized by the department for the same state fiscal year for purposes of Section 14105.98. Nothing on a disproportionate share list, once issued by the department, shall be modified for any reason other than mathematical or typographical errors or omissions on the part of the department or the Office of Statewide Health Planning and

(m) Neither the intergovernmental transfers required by this section, nor any elective transfer made pursuant to Section 14164, shall create, lead to, or expand the health care funding or service obligations for current or future years for any transferor entity, except as required of the state by this section or as may be required by federal law, in which case the state shall be held harmless by the transferor entities on a pro rata basis.

(n) No amount submitted to the Controller pursuant to subdivision (i), paragraph (2) of subdivision (h), or subdivision (o), or offset by the Controller pursuant to subdivision (j), shall be claimed or recognized as an allowable element of cost in Medi-Cal cost reports submitted to the department.

(o) Whenever additional transfer amounts are required to fund the nonfederal share of payment adjustment amounts under Section 14105.98 that are distributed after the close of the particular payment adjustment year to which the payment adjustment amounts apply, the additional transfer amounts shall be paid by the parties who were the transferor entities for the particular transfer year that was concurrent with the particular payment adjustment year. The additional transfer amounts shall be calculated under the formula that was in effect during the particular transfer year. For transfer years prior to the 1993-94 transfer year, the percentage of the additional transfer amounts available for transfer to the Health Care Deposit Fund under subdivision (d) shall be the percentage that was in effect during the particular transfer year. These additional transfer amounts shall be paid by transferor entities within 20 days after the department notifies the transferor entity in writing of the additional transfer amount to be paid.

(p) (1) Ten million dollars ($10,000,000) of the amount transferred from the Medi-Cal Inpatient Payment Adjustment Fund to the Health Care Deposit Fund due to amounts transferred attributable to years prior to the 1993-94 fiscal year is hereby appropriated without regard to fiscal years to the State Department of Health Services to be used to support the development of managed care programs under the department's plan to expand Medi-Cal managed care.

(2) These funds shall be used by the department for both of the following purposes: (A) distributions to counties or other local entities that contract with the department to receive those funds to offset a portion of the costs of forming the local initiative entity, and (B) distributions to local initiative entities that contract with the department to receive those funds to offset a portion of the costs of developing the local initiative health delivery system in accordance with the department's plan to expand Medi-Cal managed care.

(3) Entities contracting with the department for any portion of the ten million dollars ($10,000,000) shall meet the objectives of the department's plan to expand Medi-Cal managed care with regard to traditional and safety net providers.

(4) Entities contracting with the department for any portion of the ten million dollars ($10,000,000) may be authorized under those contracts to utilize their funds to provide for reimbursement of the costs of local organizations and entities incurred in participating in the development and operation of a local initiative.

(5) To the full extent permitted by state and federal law, these funds shall be distributed by the department for expenditure at the local level in a manner that qualifies for federal financial participation under the medicaid program.

SEC. 3. Section 5 of Chapter 120 of the Statutes of 1994 is amended to read:

Sec. 5. The State Department of Health Services shall take steps as are necessary to have published, on or before June 29, 1994, any public notices that are appropriate or required under federal or California law in order to ensure a federal medicaid effective date prior to July 1, 1994, for the provisions of this act. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the State Department of Health Services may arrange for the publication of any notice through a private vendor, on a bid or nonbid basis, on an exclusive or nonexclusive basis, without review or approval by any other department, agency, or instrumentality of the state. The costs of publishing any notice through a private vendor shall be recovered by the State Department of Health Services from the Medi-Cal Inpatient Payment Adjustment Fund.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure sufficient funding for disproportionate share providers in the Medi-Cal program to enable them to provide sufficient access to Medi-Cal benefits as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

An act to amend Section 3214 of the Labor Code, relating to workers' compensation, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3214 of the Labor Code is amended to read:
3214. (a) The Department of Corrections and the Department of the Youth Authority shall, in conjunction with all recognized employee representative associations, develop policy and implement the workers' compensation early intervention program by December 31, 1989, for all department employees who sustain an injury. The program shall include, but not be limited to, counseling by an authorized independent early intervention counselor and the services of an agreed medical panel to assist in timely decisions regarding compensability. Costs of services through early intervention shall be borne by the departments.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature to reduce all costs associated with the delivery of workers' compensation benefits, in balance with the need to ensure timely and adequate benefits to the injured worker. Toward this goal the workers' compensation early intervention program was established in the Department of Corrections and the Department of the Youth Authority. The fundamental concept of the program is to settle disputes rather than to litigate them. This is a worthwhile concept in terms of cost control for the employer and timely receipt of benefits for the worker. To ascertain the effectiveness of the program is crucial in helping guide policy in this arena.

The Department of Corrections and the Department of the Youth Authority, with the State Department of Mental Health serving as a control group, shall, in conjunction with the State Compensation Insurance Fund, develop a plan to accomplish an audit of the program to be administered by the Bureau of State Audits. Additionally, the Department of Personnel Administration and major employee representative organizations shall be consulted and updated on the audit plan, as fully and completely as possible.

In developing an audit plan, the Department of Corrections, the Department of the Youth Authority, the State Department of Mental Health, and the State Compensation Insurance Fund shall identify the data needed to determine whether or not the program satisfies the following objectives:

- (1) Saves money in the long and short term.
- (2) Improves the speed at which injured workers receive workers' compensation benefits.
- (3) Affects the number of injuries reported on the Cal-OSHA logs.
- (4) Affects the total number of injuries.
- (5) Affects the elapsed days between the date of injury and the date benefits are provided.
- (6) Affects the number of disability injuries.
- (7) Reduces the number of lost work days.
- (8) Increases the number of employees returning to work from work-related injuries.
- (9) Affects the level of vocational rehabilitation referrals.
- (10) Is cost-effective.
- (11) Reduces the number and cost of medical-legal consultations.
- (12) Reduces the total cost of finalized claims.
- (13) Affects the rate of industrial disability retirements.
- (14) Affects backup costs for industrial injuries.
- (15) Affects industrial disability retirement costs.

The audit plan shall identify data currently being collected which will be used to address the objectives sought by the audit. Furthermore, the plan shall identify information currently unavailable but needed for the audit. The audit plan shall recommend changes to be instituted in the current data collection systems used by the departments to collect all data needed to accomplish the audit.

The audit plan shall be submitted to the Bureau of State Audits for critique and recommendations no later than March 30, 1995. The Department of Corrections, the Department of the Youth Authority, the State Department of Mental Health, and the State Compensation Insurance Fund shall incorporate the Bureau of State Audits recommendations of the audit plan into their data gathering practices.

Throughout this process the Department of Corrections, the Department of the Youth Authority, the Department of Mental Health, and State Compensation Insurance Fund shall provide all data necessary to accomplish the audit required by this subdivision. Costs of gathering all data shall be borne by the individual departments and the State Compensation Insurance Fund.

The Bureau of State Audits shall conduct, complete, and issue its report to the Legislature no later than December 31, 1997.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide adequate time for preparation of the required audit to the Legislature, the employer, and the bargaining agent, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

An act to add and repeal Section 68075.1 of the Education Code, relating to postsecondary education.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 68075.1 is added to the Education Code, to read:

68075.1. (a) Notwithstanding Section 68075, a student who is a member of the armed forces of the United States stationed in this state on active duty, except a member of the armed forces assigned for educational purposes to state-supported institutions of higher education, is entitled to resident classification at any campus of the California Community Colleges.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2000, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 2000, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Section 19707 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19707 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19707. The place of trial for the offenses enumerated in this chapter shall be in the county of residence or principal place of business of the defendant or defendants at the time of commission of the offense. However, if the defendant or defendants had no residence or principal place of business in this state at the time of commission of the offense, the trial shall be held in the County of Sacramento.

In a criminal case charging a defendant or defendants with committing an offense enumerated in this chapter, the place of trial may be as set forth in this section or as provided for in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 777) of Title 3 of Part 2 of the Penal Code.

An act to add and repeal Section 35700.5 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 35700.5 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

35700.5. (a) The Department of Transportation, upon adoption of an ordinance or resolution that is in conformance with the provisions of this section by both the City of Long Beach and the City of Los Angeles, may issue a special permit to the operator of a vehicle, combination of vehicles, or mobile equipment, permitting the operation and movement of the vehicle, combination, or equipment, and its load, on the 3.66-mile portion of State Route 47 and State Route 103 known as the Terminal Island Freeway, between Willow Street in the City of Long Beach and Terminal Island in the City of Long Beach and the City of Los Angeles, and on the 2.1-mile portion of State Highway Route 1 that is between Blinn Avenue in the City of Los Angeles and Harbor Avenue in the City of Long Beach, if the vehicle, combination, or equipment meets all of the following criteria:

(1) The vehicle, combination of vehicles, or mobile equipment is used to transport intermodal cargo containers that are moving in international commerce.

(2) The vehicle, combination of vehicles, or mobile equipment, in combination with its load, has a maximum gross weight in excess of the maximum gross weight limit of vehicles and loads specified in this chapter, but does not exceed 95,000 pounds gross vehicle weight.

(3) (A) The vehicle, combination of vehicles, or mobile equipment conforms to the axle weight limits specified in Section 35550.

(B) The vehicle, combination of vehicles, or mobile equipment conforms to the axle weight limits in Section 35551, except as specified in subparagraph (C).

(C) Vehicles, combinations of vehicles, or mobile equipment that impose more than 80,000 pounds total gross weight on the highway by any group of two or more consecutive axles, exceed 60 feet in length between the extremes of any group of two or more consecutive axles, or have more than six axles shall conform to weight limits that shall be determined by the Department of Transportation.

(b) The permit issued by the Department of Transportation shall be required to authorize the operation or movement of a vehicle, combination of vehicles, or mobile equipment described in subdivision (a). The permit shall not authorize the movement of hazardous materials or hazardous wastes, as those terms are defined by local, state, and federal law. The following criteria shall be included in the application for the permit:

(1) A description of the loads and vehicles to be operated under the permit.

(2) An agreement wherein each applicant agrees to be responsible for all injuries to persons and for all damage to real or personal property of the state and others directly caused by or resulting from the operation of the applicant's vehicles or combination of vehicles under the conditions of the permit. The applicant shall agree to hold harmless and indemnify the state and all its agents for all costs or claims arising out of or caused by the movement of vehicles or combination of vehicles under the conditions of the permit.

(3) The applicant shall provide proof of financial responsibility that covers the movement of the shipment as described in subdivision (a). The insurance shall meet the minimum requirements established by law.

(4) An agreement to carry a copy of the permit in the vehicle at all times and furnish the copy upon request of an employee of the Department of the California Highway Patrol or the Department of Transportation.

(5) An agreement to place an indicia, developed by the Department of Transportation, in consultation with the Department of the California Highway Patrol, upon the vehicle identifying it as a vehicle possibly operating under this section. The indicia shall be displayed in the lower right area of the front windshield of the power unit. The Department of Transportation may charge a fee to cover the cost of producing and issuing this indicia.

(c) The permit issued pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be valid for one year. The permit may be cancelled by the Department of Transportation for any of the following reasons:

(1) The failure of the applicant to maintain any of the conditions required pursuant to subdivision (b).

(2) The failure of the applicant to maintain a satisfactory rating, as required by Section 34501.12.

(3) A determination by the Department of Transportation that there is sufficient cause to cancel the permit because the continued movement of the applicant's vehicles under the permit would jeopardize the safety of the motorists on the roadway or result in undue damage to the highways listed in this section.

(d) The Department of Transportation may charge a fee to cover the cost of issuing a permit pursuant to subdivision (a).

(e) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1998, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted on or before January 1, 1998, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that this act, which is applicable only to the City of Long Beach and the City of Los Angeles, is necessary because of the following facts, which are unique to the port facilities on Terminal Island:

(1) The Terminal Island Freeway is the only access route to the port facilities on Terminal Island.

(2) Because the Terminal Island Freeway is a state highway, it is subject to the maximum gross weight limits of vehicles and loads set by state law.

(b) The Legislature further finds and declares that it is reasonable to provide an extremely limited exception for the approximately 5.7-mile route of state highways specified in this act to accommodate the movement of cargo containers between the port facilities on Terminal Island and immediately adjacent off-port staging and warehousing areas.

(c) The Legislature, therefore, declares that a general law cannot be made applicable to alleviate the problem of denial of access to the port facilities on Terminal Island and that the enactment of this special law is necessary to ensure that vehicles and loads that exceed the state-imposed weight limits have access to those port facilities.

An act to amend Section 18986.46 of, and to repeal Section 18986.45 of, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to public social services.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18986.45 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 18986.46 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

18986.46. (a) Notwithstanding any provision of state law governing the disclosure of information and records, persons who are trained, qualified, and assigned by their respective agencies to serve on children's multidisciplinary services teams within integrated children's services programs may disclose to one another information and view records on a child or the child's family. Information disclosed or records viewed by members of the team shall be limited to relevant information or records necessary to formulate an integrated services plan or to deliver services to children and their families.

(b) If the members of a multidisciplinary services team within an integrated children's services program require records held by other team members, copies may be provided subject to the limitations in subdivision (c). Requests for copies shall be limited to the records necessary to formulate an integrated services plan, or to deliver services to children and their families.

(c) (1) Members of a multidisciplinary services team within an integrated children's services program who receive information or records on children and their families shall be allowed to establish and maintain a common data base for the purpose of planning and delivering services. The data base may contain demographic data and data on the level of individual involvement for the children. A memorandum of understanding shall be established that specifies what types of information may be shared and for what purposes.

(2) The release of copies of mental health records, physical health records, and drug or alcohol records may take place only after the team has received a form permitting release of records on the child or the child's family, signed by the child, to the extent the records were generated as a result of health care services to which the child has the power to consent under state law, or, to the extent that the records have not been generated by the provision of these health care services, by the child's parent, guardian, or legal representative, including the court which has jurisdiction over those children who are wards or dependents of the court.

(e) The sharing of information permitted under subdivision (b) shall be governed by memoranda of understanding between the agencies represented on the multidisciplinary team. These memoranda shall specify the types of information that may be shared without a signed release form, in accordance with subdivision (c), and the process to be used to ensure that current confidentiality requirements, as described in subdivision (f), are met.

(f) Every member of the children's multidisciplinary services team who receives information or records on children and families served in the integrated children's services program shall be under the same privacy and confidentiality obligations and subject to the same confidentiality penalties as the person disclosing or providing the information or records. The information or records obtained shall be maintained in a manner that ensures the maximum protection of privacy and confidentiality rights.

(g) This section shall not be construed to restrict guarantees of confidentiality provided under federal law.

(h) Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect the authority of a health care provider to disclose medical information pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) of Section 56.10 of the Civil Code.

An act to amend Sections 11342, 11343.1, 11344, 11344.1, 11346, 11346.1, 11346.4, 11346.5, 11346.8, 11347.3, 11349, 11349.1, 11349.5, 11349.6, 11350, 11350.3, and 11351 of, to amend and renumber Sections 11342.02, 11342.3, 11349.10 and 11349.11 of, to add Sections 11340.5, 11340.6, 11340.7, 11346.3, 11346.9, and 11357 to, to repeal Sections 11340.15, 11342.01, 11342.5, 11346.51, 11346.52, 11346.53, 11346.55, 11346.7, 11347, 11347.1, and 11347.5 of, to repeal and add Sections 11343.2, 11343.4, and 11346.2 of, to amend the heading of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of, to amend the headings of Article 5 (commencing with Section 11346) and Article 6 (commencing with Section 11349) of Chapter 3.5 of, to amend and renumber the heading of Article 7 (commencing with Section 11350) of Chapter 3.5 of, to add Article 7 (commencing with Section 11349.7) to Chapter 3.5 of, to add a heading to Article 9 (commencing with Section 11351) of Chapter 3.5 of, Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of, the Government Code, relating to administrative regulations.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that this act reorganizes Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code and is a restatement of, rather than an substantive change in, existing law.

SEC. 2. The heading of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

CHAPTER 3.5. ADMINISTRATIVE REGULATIONS AND RULEMAKING

SEC. 3. Section 11340.15 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 11340.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

11340.5. (a) No state agency shall issue, utilize, enforce, or attempt to enforce any guideline, criterion, bulletin, manual, instruction, order, standard of general application, or other rule, which is a regulation as defined in subdivision (g) of Section 11342, unless the guideline, criterion, bulletin, manual, instruction, order, standard of general application, or other rule has been adopted as a regulation and filed with the Secretary of State pursuant to this chapter.

(b) If the office is notified of, or on its own, learns of the issuance, enforcement of, or use of, an agency guideline, criterion, bulletin, manual, instruction, order, standard of general application, or other rule that has not been adopted as a regulation and filed with the Secretary of State pursuant to this chapter, the office may issue a determination as to whether the guideline, criterion, bulletin, manual, instruction, order, standard of general application, or other rule, is a regulation as defined in subdivision (g) of Section 11342.

(c) The office shall do all of the following:

(1) File its determination upon issuance with the Secretary of State.

(2) Make its determination known to the agency, the Governor, and the Legislature.

(3) Publish its determination in the California Regulatory Notice Register within 15 days of the date of issuance.

(4) Make its determination available to the public and the courts.

(d) Any interested person may obtain judicial review of a given determination by filing a written petition requesting that the determination of the office be modified or set aside. A petition shall be filed with the court within 30 days of the date the determination is published.

(e) A determination issued by the office pursuant to this section shall not be considered by a court, or by an administrative agency in an adjudicatory proceeding if all of the following occurs:

(1) The court or administrative agency proceeding involves the party that sought the determination from the office.

(2) The proceeding began prior to the party's request for the office's determination.

(3) At issue in the proceeding is the question of whether the guideline, criterion, bulletin, manual, instruction, order, standard of general application, or other rule that is the legal basis for the adjudicatory action is a regulation as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 11342.

SEC. 5. Section 11340.6 is added to the Government Code, to read:

11340.6. Except where the right to petition for adoption of a regulation is restricted by statute to a designated group or where the form of procedure for such a petition is otherwise prescribed by statute, any interested person may petition a state agency requesting the adoption, amendment, or repeal of a regulation as provided in Article 5 (commencing with Section 11346). This petition shall state the following clearly and concisely:

(a) The substance or nature of the regulation, amendment, or repeal requested.

(b) The reason for the request.

(c) Reference to the authority of the state agency to take the action requested.

SEC. 6. Section 11340.7 is added to the Government Code, to read:

11340.7. (a) Upon receipt of a petition requesting the adoption, amendment, or repeal of a regulation pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 11346), a state agency shall notify the petitioner in writing of the receipt and shall within 30 days deny the petition indicating why the agency has reached its decision on the merits of the petition in writing or schedule the matter for public hearing in accordance with the notice and hearing requirements of that article.

(b) A state agency may grant or deny the petition in part, and may grant any other relief or take any other action as it may determine to be warranted by the petition and shall notify the petitioner in writing of this action.

(c) Any interested person may request a reconsideration of any part or all of a decision of any agency on any petition submitted. The request shall be submitted in accordance with Section 11340.6 and include the reason or reasons why an agency should reconsider its previous decision no later than 60 days after the date of the decision involved. The agency's reconsideration of any matter relating to a petition shall be subject to subdivision (a).

(d) Any decision of a state agency denying in whole or in part or granting in whole or in part a petition requesting the adoption, amendment, or repeal of a regulation pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 11346) shall be in writing and shall be transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for publication in the California Regulatory Notice Register at the earliest practicable date. The decision shall identify the agency, the party submitting the petition, the provisions of the California Code of Regulations requested to be affected, reference to authority to take the action requested, the reasons supporting the agency determination, an agency contact person, and the right of interested persons to obtain a copy of the petition from the agency.

11342. In this chapter, unless otherwise specifically indicated, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Agency" and "state agency" do not include an agency in the judicial or legislative departments of the state government.

(b) "Office" means the Office of Administrative Law.

(c) "Order of repeal" means any resolution, order or other official act of a state agency that expressly repeals a regulation in whole or in part.

(d) "Performance standard" means a regulation that describes an objective with the criteria stated for achieving the objective.

(e) "Plain English" means language that can be interpreted by a person who has no more than an eighth grade level of proficiency in English.

(f) "Prescriptive standard" means a regulation that specifies the sole means of compliance with a performance standard by specific actions, measurements, or other quantifiable means.

(g) "Regulation" means every rule, regulation, order, or standard of general application or the amendment, supplement, or revision of any rule, regulation, order, or standard adopted by any state agency to implement, interpret, or make specific the law enforced or administered by it, or to govern its procedure, except one that relates only to the internal management of the state agency. "Regulation" does not mean or include legal rulings of counsel issued by the Franchise Tax Board or State Board of Equalization, or any form prescribed by a state agency or any instructions relating to the use of the form, but this provision is not a limitation upon any requirement that a regulation be adopted pursuant to this part when one is needed to implement the law under which the form is issued.

(h) (1) "Small business" means a business activity in agriculture, general construction, special trade construction, retail trade, wholesale trade, services, transportation and warehousing, manufacturing, generation and transmission of electric power, or a health care facility, unless excluded in paragraph (2), that is both of the following:

(B) Not dominant in its field of operation.

(2) "Small business" does not include the following professional business activities:

(A) A financial institution including a bank, a trust, a savings and loan association, a thrift institution, a consumer finance company, a commercial finance company, an industrial finance company, a credit union, a mortgage and investment banker, a securities broker-dealer, or an investment adviser.

(B) An insurance company, either stock or mutual.

(C) A mineral, oil, or gas broker; a subdivider or developer.

(D) A landscape architect, an architect, or a building designer.

(E) An entity organized as a nonprofit institution.

(F) An entertainment activity or production, including a motion picture, a stage performance, a television or radio station, or a production company.

(G) A utility, a water company, or a power transmission company generating and transmitting more than 4.5 million kilowatt hours annually.

(H) A petroleum producer, a natural gas producer, a refiner, or a pipeline.

(i) Agriculture, one million dollars ($1,000,000).

(ii) General construction, nine million five hundred thousand dollars ($9,500,000).

(iii) Special trade construction, five million dollars ($5,000,000).

(iv) Retail trade, two million dollars ($2,000,000).

(v) Wholesale trade, nine million five hundred thousand dollars ($9,500,000).

(vi) Services, two million dollars ($2,000,000).

(vii) Transportation and warehousing, one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000).

(J) A manufacturing enterprise exceeding 250 employees.

(K) A health care facility exceeding 150 beds or one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000) in annual gross receipts.

SEC. 9. Section 11342.02 of the Government Code is amended and renumbered to read:

11344.9. (a) Whenever the term "California Administrative Code" appears in law, official legal paper, or legal publication, it means the "California Code of Regulations."

(b) Whenever the term "California Administrative Notice Register" appears in any law, official legal paper, or legal publication, it means the "California Regulatory Notice Register."

(c) Whenever the term "California Administrative Code Supplement" appears in any law, official legal paper, or legal publication, it means the "California Regulatory Code Supplement."

SEC. 10. Section 11342.3 of the Government Code is amended and renumbered to read:

11359. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), on and after January 1, 1982, no new regulation, or the amendment or repeal of any regulation, which regulation is intended to promote fire and panic safety or provide fire protection and prevention, including fire suppression systems, equipment, or alarm regulation, is valid or effective unless it is submitted by, or approved in writing by, the State Fire Marshal before transmittal to the Secretary of State or the Office of Administrative Law.

(b) Approval of the State Fire Marshal is not required if the regulation is expressly required to be at least as effective as federal standards published in the Federal Register pursuant to Section 6 of the Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970 (P.L. 91-596) within the time period specified by federal law and as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 142.4 of the Labor Code, and as approved by the Occupational Safety and Health Administration of the United States Department of Labor as meeting the requirements of subdivision (a) of Section 142.3 of the Labor Code, unless the regulation is determined by the State Fire Marshal to be less effective in promoting fire and panic safety than regulations adopted by the State Fire Marshal.

SEC. 11. Section 11342.5 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 12. Section 11343.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11343.1. (a) All regulations transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for filing with the Secretary of State shall conform to the style prescribed by the office.

(b) Regulations approved by the office shall bear an endorsement by the office affixed to the certified copy which is filed with the Secretary of State.

SEC. 13. Section 11343.2 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 14. Section 11343.2 is added to the Government Code, to read:

11343.2. The Secretary of State shall endorse on the certified copy of each regulation or order of repeal filed with or delivered to him or her, the time and date of filing and shall maintain a permanent file of the certified copies of regulations and orders of repeal for public inspection.

No fee shall be charged by any state officer or public official for the performance of any official act in connection with the certification or filing of regulations pursuant to this article.

SEC. 16. Section 11343.4 is added to the Government Code, to read:

11343.4. A regulation or an order of repeal required to be filed with the Secretary of State shall become effective on the 30th day after the date of filing unless:

(a) Otherwise specifically provided by the statute pursuant to which the regulation or order of repeal was adopted, in which event it becomes effective on the day prescribed by this statute.

(b) It is a regulation adopted under Section 8054 or 3373 of the Financial Code, in which event it shall become effective upon filing or upon any later date specified by the state agency in a written instrument filed with, or as part of, the regulation or order of repeal.

(c) A later date is prescribed by the state agency in a written instrument filed with, or as part of, the regulation or order of repeal.

(d) The agency makes a written request to the office demonstrating good cause for an earlier effective date, in which case the office may prescribe an earlier date.

11344. The office shall do all of the following:

(a) Provide for the official compilation, printing, and publication of adoption, amendment, or repeal of regulations, which shall be known as the California Code of Regulations.

(b) Provide for the compilation, printing, and publication of weekly updates of the California Code of Regulations. This publication shall be known as the California Regulatory Code Supplement and shall contain amendments to the code.

(c) Provide for the publication dates and manner and form in which regulations shall be printed and distributed and ensure that regulations are available in printed form at the earliest practicable date after filing with the Secretary of State.

(d) Ensure that each regulation is printed together with a reference to the statutory authority pursuant to which it was enacted and the specific statute or other provision of law which the regulation is implementing, interpreting, or making specific.

11344.1. The office shall do all of the following:

(a) Provide for the publication of the California Regulatory Notice Register, which shall be an official publication of the State of California and which shall contain the following:

(1) Notices of proposed action prepared by regulatory agencies, subject to the notice requirements of this chapter, and which have been approved by the office.

(2) A summary of all regulations filed with the Secretary of State in the previous week.

(3) All regulation decisions issued in the previous week detailing the reasons for disapproval of a regulation, the reasons for not filing an emergency regulation, and the reasons for repealing an emergency regulation. The California Regulatory Notice Register shall also include a quarterly index of regulation decisions.

(4) The Governor's action in reviewing the disapprovals of the office, the decisions to repeal, the agency's request for review, the office's response thereto, and the decisions of the Governor's office, as required by Section 11349.7.

(5) Determinations issued pursuant to Section 11340.5.

(b) Establish the publication dates and manner and form in which the California Regulatory Notice Register shall be prepared and published and ensure that it is published and distributed in a timely manner to the presiding officer and rules committee of each house of the Legislature and to all subscribers.

SEC. 19. The heading of Article 5 (commencing with Section 11346) of Chapter 3.5 of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

Article 5. Public Participation: Procedure for Adoption of Regulations

SEC. 20. Section 11346 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11346. It is the purpose of this chapter to establish basic minimum procedural requirements for the adoption, amendment, or repeal of administrative regulations. Except as provided in Section 11346.1, the provisions of this chapter are applicable to the exercise of any quasi-legislative power conferred by any statute heretofore or hereafter enacted, but nothing in this chapter repeals or diminishes additional requirements imposed by any statute. This chapter shall not be superseded or modified by any subsequent legislation except to the extent that the legislation shall do so expressly.

11346.1. (a) This article does not apply to any regulation not required to be filed with the Secretary of State under this chapter, and only this section and Sections 11343.4 and 11349.6 apply to an emergency regulation adopted pursuant to subdivision (b), or to any regulation adopted under Section 8054 or 3373 of the Financial Code.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (c), if a state agency makes a finding that the adoption of a regulation or order of repeal is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety or general welfare, the regulation or order of repeal may be adopted as an emergency regulation or order of repeal.

Any finding of an emergency shall include a written statement which contains the information required by paragraphs (2) to (6), inclusive, of subdivision (a) of Section 11346.5 and a description of the specific facts showing the need for immediate action. The enactment of an urgency statute shall not, in and of itself, constitute a need for immediate action.

The statement and the regulation or order of repeal shall be filed immediately with the office.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no emergency regulation that is a building standard, as defined in Section 18909 of the Health and Safety Code, shall be filed, nor shall the building standard be effective, unless the building standards are submitted to the State Building Standards Commission, and are approved and filed pursuant to Sections 18937 and 18938 of the Health and Safety Code.

(d) The emergency regulation or order of repeal shall become effective upon filing or upon any later date specified by the state agency in a written instrument filed with, or as a part of, the regulation or order of repeal.

(e) No regulation, amendment, or order of repeal adopted as an emergency regulatory action shall remain in effect more than 120 days unless the adopting agency has complied with Sections 11346.2 to 11346.9, inclusive, prior to the adoption of the emergency regulatory action, or has, within the 120-day period, completed the regulation adoption process by formally adopting the emergency regulation, amendment, or order of repeal or any amendments thereto, pursuant to this chapter. The adopting agency, prior to the expiration of the 120-day period, shall transmit to the office for filing with the Secretary of State the adopted regulation, amendment, or order of repeal, the rulemaking file, and a certification that either Sections 11346.2 to 11346.9, inclusive, were complied with prior to the emergency regulatory action, or that there was compliance with this section within the 120-day period.

(f) In the event an emergency amendment or order of repeal is filed and the adopting agency fails to comply with subdivision (e), the regulation as it existed prior to the emergency amendment or order of repeal shall thereupon become effective and after notice to the adopting agency by the office shall be reprinted in the California Code of Regulations.

(g) In the event a regulation is originally adopted and filed as an emergency and the adopting agency fails to comply with subdivision (e), this failure shall constitute a repeal thereof and after notice to the adopting agency by the office, shall be deleted.

(h) A regulation originally adopted as an emergency regulation, or an emergency regulation substantially equivalent thereto that is readopted as an emergency regulation, shall not be filed with the Secretary of State as an emergency regulation except with the express prior approval of the director of the office.

SEC. 23. Section 11346.2 is added to the Government Code, to read:

11346.2. Every agency subject to this chapter shall prepare, submit to the office with the notice of the proposed action as described in Section 11346.5, and make available to the public upon request, all of the following:

(a) A copy of the express terms of the proposed regulation.

(1) The agency shall draft the regulation in plain, straightforward language, avoiding technical terms as much as possible, and using a coherent and easily readable style. If the regulation affects small business, the agency shall draft the regulation in plain English, as defined in subdivision (e) of Section 11342. However, if it is not feasible to draft the regulation in plain English due to the technical nature of the regulation, the agency shall prepare a noncontrolling plain English summary of the regulation.

(2) The agency shall include a notation following the express terms of each regulation listing the specific statutes or other provisions of law authorizing the adoption of the regulation and listing the specific statutes or other provisions of law being implemented, interpreted, or made specific by the regulation.

(3) The agency shall use underline or italics to indicate additions to, and strikeout to indicate deletions from, the California Code of Regulations.

(b) An initial statement of reasons for proposing the adoption, amendment, or repeal of a regulation. This statement of reasons shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) A description of the public problem, administrative requirement, or other condition or circumstance that each adoption, amendment, or repeal is intended to address.

(2) A statement of the specific purpose of each adoption, amendment, or repeal and the rationale for the determination by the agency that each adoption, amendment, or repeal is reasonably necessary to carry out the purpose for which it is proposed. Where the adoption or amendment of a regulation would mandate the use of specific technologies or equipment, a statement of the reasons why the agency believes these mandates or prescriptive standards are required.

(3) An identification of each technical, theoretical, and empirical study, report, or similar document, if any, upon which the agency relies in proposing the adoption, amendment, or repeal of a regulation.

(4) (A) A description of the alternatives to the regulation considered by the agency and the agency's reasons for rejecting those alternatives. In the case of a regulation that would mandate the use of specific technologies or equipment or prescribe specific actions or procedures, the imposition of performance standards shall be considered as an alternative.

(B) A description of any alternatives the agency has identified that would lessen any adverse impact on small business. It is not the intent of this paragraph to require the agency to artificially construct alternatives or to justify why it has not identified alternatives.

(5) Facts, evidence, documents, testimony, or other evidence upon which the agency relies to support a finding that the action will not have a significant adverse economic impact on business.

(6) A department, board, or commission within the Environmental Protection Agency, the Resources Agency, or the Office of the State Fire Marshal shall describe its efforts, in connection with a proposed rulemaking action, to avoid unnecessary duplication or conflicts with federal regulations contained in the Code of Federal Regulations addressing the same issues. These agencies may adopt regulations different from federal regulations contained in the Code of Federal Regulations addressing the same issues upon a finding of one or more of the following justifications:

(A) The differing state regulations are authorized by law.

(B) The cost of differing state regulations is justified by the benefit to human health, public safety, public welfare, or the environment.

(c) A state agency that adopts or amends a regulation mandated by federal law or regulations, the provisions of which are identical to a previously adopted or amended federal regulation, shall be deemed to have complied with this section if a statement to the effect that a federally mandated regulation or amendment to a regulation is being proposed, together with a citation to where an explanation of the provisions of the regulation can be found, is included in the notice of proposed adoption or amendment prepared pursuant to Section 11346.5. However, the agency shall comply fully with this chapter with respect to any provisions in the regulation that the agency proposes to adopt or amend that are different from the corresponding provisions of the federal regulation.

SEC. 24. Section 11346.3 is added to the Government Code, to read:

11346.3. (a) State agencies proposing to adopt or amend any administrative regulation shall assess the potential for adverse economic impact on California business enterprises and individuals, avoiding the imposition of unnecessary or unreasonable regulations or reporting, recordkeeping, or compliance requirements. For purposes of this subdivision assessing the potential for adverse economic impact shall require agencies, when adopting new regulations or reviewing or amending existing regulations, to adhere to the following requirements, to the extent that these requirements do not conflict with other state or federal laws:

(1) The regulations shall be based on adequate information concerning the need for, and consequences of, proposed governmental action.

(2) The state agency, prior to submitting regulations to the office, shall consider the impact on business when initiating, processing, and adopting regulations with consideration of industries affected including the ability of California businesses to compete with businesses in other states. For purposes of evaluating the impact on the ability of California businesses to compete with businesses in other states, an agency shall consider, but not be limited to, information supplied by interested parties.

It is not the intent of this section to impose additional criteria on agencies, above that which exists in current law, in assessing adverse economic impact on California business enterprises, but only to assure that the assessment is made early in the process of initiation and development of proposed regulations or amendments to regulations.

(b) (1) All state agencies proposing to adopt or amend any administrative regulations shall assess whether and to what extent it will affect the following:

(A) The creation or elimination of jobs within the State of California.

(B) The creation of new businesses or the elimination of existing businesses within the State of California.

(C) The expansion of businesses currently doing business within the State of California.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision, "state agency" shall include every state office, officer, department, division, bureau, board, and commission, whether created by the Constitution, statute, or initiative, but shall not include the courts, an agency in the judicial or legislative branch of state government, the University of California, the Hastings College of the Law, or the Fair Political Practices Commission.

(3) Information required from state agencies for the purpose of completing the assessment may come from existing state publications.

(c) No administrative regulation adopted on or after January 1, 1993, that requires a report shall apply to businesses, unless the state agency adopting the regulation makes a finding that it is necessary for the health, safety, or welfare of the people of the state that the regulation apply to businesses.

SEC. 25. Section 11346.4 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11346.4. (a) At least 45 days prior to the hearing and close of the public comment period on the adoption, amendment, or repeal of a regulation, notice of the proposed action shall be:

(1) Mailed to every person who has filed a request for notice of regulatory actions with the state agency.

(2) In cases in which the state agency is within a state department, mailed or delivered to the director of the department.

(3) Mailed to a representative number of small business enterprises or their representatives which have been identified as being affected by the proposed action.

(4) When appropriate in the judgment of the state agency, mailed to any person or group of persons whom the agency believes to be interested in the proposed action and published in the form and manner as the state agency shall prescribe.

(5) Published in the California Regulatory Notice Register as prepared by the office for each state agency's notice of regulatory action.

(b) The effective period of a notice issued pursuant to this section shall not exceed one year from the date thereof. If the adoption, amendment, or repeal of a regulation proposed in the notice is not completed and transmitted to the office within the period of one year, a notice of the proposed action shall again be issued pursuant to this article.

(c) Once the adoption, amendment, or repeal is completed and approved by the office, no further adoption, amendment, or repeal to the noticed regulation shall be made without subsequent notice being given.

(d) The office may refuse to publish a notice submitted to it if the agency has failed to comply with this article.

(e) The office shall make the California Regulatory Notice Register available to the public and state agencies at a nominal cost that is consistent with a policy of encouraging the widest possible notice distribution to interested persons.

(f) Where the form or manner of notice is prescribed by statute in any particular case, in addition to filing and mailing notice as required by this section, the notice shall be published, posted, mailed, filed, or otherwise publicized as prescribed by that statute. The failure to mail notice to any person as provided in this section shall not invalidate any action taken by a state agency pursuant to this article.

11346.5. (a) The notice of proposed adoption, amendment, or repeal of a regulation shall include the following:

(1) A statement of the time, place, and nature of proceedings for adoption, amendment, or repeal of the regulation.

(2) Reference to the authority under which the regulation is proposed and a reference to the particular code sections or other provisions of law that are being implemented, interpreted, or made specific.

(3) An informative digest containing a concise and clear summary of existing laws and regulations, if any, related directly to the proposed action and the effect of the proposed action. The informative digest shall be drafted in a format similar to the Legislative Counsel's digest on legislative bills.

(A) If the proposed action differs substantially from an existing comparable federal regulation or statute, the informative digest shall also include a brief description of the significant differences and the full citation of the federal regulations or statutes.

(B) If the proposed action affects small business, the informative digest shall also include a plain English policy statement overview explaining the broad objectives of the regulation and, if appropriate,

(4) Any other matters as are prescribed by statute applicable to the specific state agency or to any specific regulation or class of regulations.

(5) A determination as to whether the regulation imposes a mandate on local agencies or school districts and, if so, whether the mandate requires state reimbursement pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4.

(6) An estimate, prepared in accordance with instructions adopted by the Department of Finance, of the cost or savings to any state agency, the cost to any local agency or school district that is required to be reimbursed under Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4, other nondiscretionary cost or savings imposed on local agencies, and the cost or savings in federal funding to the state.

For purposes of this paragraph, "cost or savings" means additional costs or savings, both direct and indirect, that a public agency necessarily incurs in reasonable compliance with regulations.

(7) If a state agency, in proposing to adopt or amend any administrative regulation, determines that the action may have a significant adverse economic impact on business, including the ability of California businesses to compete with businesses in other states, it shall include the following information in the notice of proposed action:

(A) Identification of the types of businesses that would be affected.

(B) A description of the projected reporting, recordkeeping, and other compliance requirements that would result from the proposed action.

(C) The following statement: "The (name of agency) finds that the (adoption/amendment) of this regulation may have a significant adverse economic impact on businesses, including the ability of California businesses to compete with businesses in other states. The (name of agency) (has/has not) considered proposed alternatives that would lessen any adverse economic impact on business and invites you to submit proposals. Submissions may include the following considerations:

(i) The establishment of differing compliance or reporting requirements or timetables that take into account the resources available to businesses.

(ii) Consolidation or simplification of compliance and reporting requirements for businesses.

(iii) The use of performance standards rather than prescriptive standards.

(iv) Exemption or partial exemption from the regulatory requirements for businesses."

(8) If a state agency, in adopting or amending any administrative regulation, determines that the action will not have a significant adverse economic impact on business, including the ability of California businesses to compete with businesses in other states, it shall make a declaration to that effect in the notice of proposed action. In making this determination, the agency shall provide in the record facts, evidence, documents, testimony, or other evidence upon which the agency relies to support that finding.

An agency's determination and declaration that a proposed regulation may have or will not have a significant, adverse impact on businesses, including the ability of California businesses to compete with businesses in other states, shall not be grounds for the office to refuse to publish the notice of proposed action.

(9) A statement of the potential cost impact of the proposed action on private persons or businesses directly affected, as considered by the agency during the regulatory development process.

For purposes of this paragraph, "cost impact" means the reasonable range of costs, or a description of the type and extent of costs, direct or indirect, that a representative private person or business necessarily incurs in reasonable compliance with the proposed action.

(10) A statement of the results of the assessment required by subdivision (b) of Section 11346.3.

(11) A statement that the action would have a significant effect on housing costs, if a state agency, in adopting, amending, or repealing any administrative regulation, determines that the action would have an effect. In addition, the agency officer designated in paragraph (13), shall make available to the public, upon request, the agency's evaluation, if any, of the effect of the proposed regulatory action on housing costs.

(12) A statement that the adopting agency must determine that no alternative considered by the agency would be more effective in carrying out the purpose for which the action is proposed or would be as effective and less burdensome to affected private persons than the proposed action.

(13) The name and telephone number of the agency officer to whom inquiries concerning the proposed administrative action may be directed.

(14) The date by which comments submitted in writing must be received to present statements, arguments, or contentions in writing relating to the proposed action in order for them to be considered by the state agency before it adopts, amends, or repeals a regulation.

(15) Reference to the fact that the agency proposing the action has prepared a statement of the reasons for the proposed action, has available all the information upon which its proposal is based, and has available the express terms of the proposed action, pursuant to subdivision (b).

(16) A statement that if a public hearing is not scheduled, any interested person or his or her duly authorized representative may request, no later than 15 days prior to the close of the written comment period, a public hearing pursuant to Section 11346.8.

(17) A statement indicating that the full text of a regulation changed pursuant to Section 11346.8 will be available for at least 15 days prior to the date on which the agency adopts, amends, or repeals the resulting regulation.

(b) The agency officer designated in paragraph (13) of subdivision (a) shall make available to the public upon request the express terms of the proposed action. The officer shall also make available to the public upon request the location of public records, including reports, documentation, and other materials, related to the proposed action.

(c) This section shall not be construed in any manner that results in the invalidation of a regulation because of the alleged inadequacy of the notice content or the summary or cost estimates, or the alleged inadequacy or inaccuracy of the housing cost estimates, if there has been substantial compliance with those requirements.

SEC. 31. Section 11346.7 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 32. Section 11346.8 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11346.8. (a) If a public hearing is held, statements, arguments, or contentions, either oral or in writing, or both, shall be permitted. If a public hearing is not scheduled, the state agency shall, consistent with Section 11346.4, afford any interested person or his or her duly authorized representative, the opportunity to present statements, arguments or contentions in writing. In addition, a public hearing shall be held if, no later than 15 days prior to the close of the written comment period, an interested person or his or her duly authorized representative submits in writing to the state agency, a request to hold a public hearing. The state agency shall, to the extent practicable, provide notice of the time, date, and place of the hearing by mailing the notice to every person who has filed a request for notice thereby with the state agency. The state agency shall consider all relevant matter presented to it before adopting, amending, or repealing any regulation.

(b) In any hearing under this section, the state agency or its duly authorized representative shall have authority to administer oaths or affirmations. An agency may continue or postpone a hearing from time to time to the time and at the place as it determines. If a hearing is continued or postponed, the state agency shall provide notice to the public as to when it will be resumed or rescheduled.

(c) No state agency may adopt, amend, or repeal a regulation which has been changed from that which was originally made available to the public pursuant to Section 11346.5, unless the change is (1) nonsubstantial or solely grammatical in nature, or (2) sufficiently related to the original text that the public was adequately placed on notice that the change could result from the originally proposed regulatory action. If a sufficiently related change is made, the full text of the resulting adoption, amendment, or repeal, with the change clearly indicated, shall be made available to the public for at least 15 days before the agency adopts, amends, or repeals the resulting regulation. Any written comments received regarding the change must be responded to in the final statement of reasons required by Section 11346.9.

(d) No state agency shall add any material to the record of the rulemaking proceeding after the close of the public hearing or comment period, unless adequate provision is made for public comment on that matter.

11346.9. Every agency subject to this chapter shall do the following:

(a) Prepare and submit to the office with the adopted regulation a final statement of reasons that shall include all of the following:

(1) An update of the information contained in the initial statement of reasons. If the update identifies any data or any technical, theoretical or empirical study, report, or similar document on which the agency is relying in proposing the adoption or amendment of a regulation that was not identified in the initial statement of reasons, or which was otherwise not identified or made available for public review prior to the close of the public comment period, the agency shall comply with subdivision (d) of Section 11346.8.

(2) A determination as to whether the regulation imposes a mandate on local agencies or school districts. If the determination is that the regulation does contain a local mandate, the agency shall state whether the mandate is reimbursable pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4. If the agency finds that the mandate is not reimbursable, it shall state the reasons for that finding.

(3) A summary of each objection or recommendation made regarding the specific adoption, amendment, or repeal proposed, together with an explanation of how the proposed action has been changed to accommodate each objection or recommendation, or the reasons for making no change. This requirement applies only to objections or recommendations specifically directed at the agency's proposed action or to the procedures followed by the agency in proposing or adopting the action.

(4) A determination with supporting information that no alternative considered by the agency would be more effective in carrying out the purpose for which the regulation is proposed or would be as effective and less burdensome to affected private persons than the adopted regulation.

(5) An explanation setting forth the reasons for rejecting any proposed alternatives that would lessen the adverse economic impact on small businesses.

(b) Prepare and submit to the office with the adopted regulation an updated informative digest containing a clear and concise summary of the immediately preceding laws and regulations, if any, relating directly to the adopted, amended, or repealed regulation and the effect of the adopted, amended, or repealed regulation. The informative digest shall be drafted in a format similar to the Legislative Counsel's Digest on legislative bills.

(c) A state agency that adopts or amends a regulation mandated by federal law or regulations, the provisions of which are identical to a previously adopted or amended federal regulation, shall be deemed to have complied with this section if a statement to the effect that a federally mandated regulation or amendment to a regulation is being proposed, together with a citation to where an explanation of the provisions of the regulation can be found, is included in the notice of proposed adoption or amendment prepared pursuant to Section 11346.5. However, the agency shall comply fully with this chapter with respect to any provisions in the regulation which the agency proposes to adopt or amend that are different from the corresponding provisions of the federal regulation.

SEC. 35. Section 11347.1 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 36. Section 11347.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11347.3. (a) Every agency shall maintain a file of each rulemaking that shall be deemed to be the record for that rulemaking proceeding. The file shall include:

(1) Copies of any petitions received from interested persons proposing the adoption, amendment, or repeal of the regulation, and a copy of any decision provided for by subdivision (d) of Section 11340.7, which grants a petition in whole or in part.

(2) All published notices of proposed adoption, amendment, or repeal of the regulation, and an updated informative digest, the initial statement of reasons, and the final statement of reasons.

(3) The determination, together with the supporting data required by paragraph (5) of subdivision (a) of Section 11346.5.

(4) The determination, together with the supporting data required by paragraph (8) of subdivision (a) of Section 11346.5.

(5) The estimate, together with the supporting data and calculations, required by paragraph (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 11346.5.

(6) All data and other factual information, any studies or reports, and written comments submitted to the agency in connection with the adoption, amendment, or repeal of the regulation.

(7) All data and other factual information, technical, theoretical, and empirical studies or reports, if any, on which the agency is relying in the adoption, amendment, or repeal of a regulation, including any cost impact estimates as required by Section 11346.3.

(8) A transcript, recording, or minutes of any public hearing connected with the adoption, amendment, or repeal of the regulation.

(9) The date on which the agency made available to the public for 15 days prior to the adoption, amendment, or repeal of the regulation the full text as required by subdivision (c) of Section 11346.8 if the agency made changes to the regulation noticed to the public.

(10) The text of regulations as originally proposed and the modified text of regulations, if any, that were made available to the public prior to adoption.

(11) Any other information, statement, report, or data that the agency is required by law to consider or prepare in connection with the adoption, amendment, or repeal of a regulation.

(12) An index or table of contents that identifies each item contained in the rulemaking file. The index or table of contents shall include an affidavit or a declaration under penalty of perjury in the form specified by Section 2015.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure by the agency official who has compiled the rulemaking file, specifying the date upon which the record was closed, and that the file or the copy, if submitted, is complete.

(b) Every agency shall submit to the office with the adopted regulation, the rulemaking file or a complete copy of the rulemaking file.

(c) The agency file of the rulemaking proceeding shall be made available by the agency to the public, and to the courts in connection with the review of the regulation.

SEC. 37. Section 11347.5 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 38. The heading of Article 6 (commencing with Section 11349) of Chapter 3.5 of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

Article 6. Review of Proposed Regulations

11349. The following definitions govern the interpretation of this chapter:

(a) "Necessity" means the record of the rulemaking proceeding demonstrates by substantial evidence the need for a regulation taking into account the totality of the record. For purposes of this standard, evidence includes, but is not limited to, facts, studies, and expert opinion.

(b) "Authority" means the provision of law which permits or obligates the agency to adopt, amend, or repeal a regulation.

(c) "Clarity" means written or displayed so that the meaning of regulations will be easily understood by those persons directly affected by them.

(d) "Consistency" means being in harmony with, and not in conflict with or contradictory to, existing statutes, court decisions, or other provisions of law.

(e) "Reference" means the statute, court decision, or other provision of law which the agency implements, interprets, or makes specific by adopting, amending, or repealing a regulation.

(f) "Nonduplication" means that a regulation does not serve the same purpose as a state or federal statute or another regulation. This standard requires that an agency proposing to amend or adopt a regulation must identify any state or federal statute or regulation which is overlapped or duplicated by the proposed regulation and justify any overlap or duplication. This standard is not intended to prohibit state agencies from printing relevant portions of enabling legislation in regulations when the duplication is necessary to satisfy the clarity standard in paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 11349.1. This standard is intended to prevent the indiscriminate incorporation of statutory language in a regulation.

SEC. 40. Section 11349.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11349.1. (a) The office shall review all regulations adopted pursuant to the procedure specified in Article 5 (commencing with Section 11346) and submitted to it for publication in the California Regulatory Code Supplement and for transmittal to the Secretary of State and make determinations using all of the following standards:

- (1) Necessity.
- (2) Authority.
- (3) Clarity.
- (4) Consistency.
- (5) Reference.
- (6) Nonduplication.

In reviewing regulations pursuant to this section, the office shall restrict its review to the regulation and the record of the rulemaking proceeding. The office shall approve the regulation or order of repeal if it complies with the standards set forth in this section and with this chapter.

(b) In reviewing proposed regulations for the criteria in subdivision (a), the office may consider the clarity of the proposed regulation in the context of related regulations already in existence.

(c) The office shall adopt regulations governing the procedures it uses in reviewing regulations submitted to it. The regulations shall provide for an orderly review and shall specify the methods, standards, presumptions, and principles the office uses, and the limitations it observes, in reviewing regulations to establish compliance with the standards specified in subdivision (a). The regulations adopted by the office shall ensure that it does not substitute its judgment for that of the rulemaking agency as expressed in the substantive content of adopted regulations.

(d) The office shall return any regulation subject to this chapter to the adopting agency if any of the following occur:

(1) The adopting agency has not prepared the estimate required by paragraph (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 11346.5 and has not included the data used and calculations made and the summary report of the estimate in the file of the rulemaking.

(2) The agency has not complied with Section 11346.3.

(3) The adopting agency has prepared the estimate required by paragraph (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 11346.5, the estimate indicates that the regulation will result in a cost to local agencies or school districts that is required to be reimbursed under Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4, and the adopting agency fails to do any of the following:

(A) Cite an item in the Budget Act for the fiscal year in which the regulation will go into effect as the source from which the Controller may pay the claims of local agencies or school districts.

(B) Cite an accompanying bill appropriating funds as the source from which the Controller may pay the claims of local agencies or school districts.

(C) Attach a letter or other documentation from the Department of Finance which states that the Department of Finance has approved a request by the agency that funds be included in the Budget Bill for the next following fiscal year to reimburse local agencies or school districts for the costs mandated by the regulation.

(D) Attach a letter or other documentation from the Department of Finance which states that the Department of Finance has authorized the augmentation of the amount available for expenditure under the agency's appropriation in the Budget Act which is for reimbursement pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 to local agencies or school districts from the unencumbered balances of other appropriations in the Budget Act and that this augmentation is sufficient to reimburse local agencies or school districts for their costs mandated by the regulation.

(e) The office shall notify the Department of Finance of all regulations returned pursuant to subdivision (d).

(f) The office shall return a rulemaking file to the submitting agency if the file does not comply with subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 11347.3. Within three state working days of the receipt of a rulemaking file, the office shall notify the submitting agency of any deficiency identified. If no notice of deficiency is mailed to the adopting agency within that time, a rulemaking file shall be deemed submitted as of the date of its original receipt by the office. A rulemaking file shall not be deemed submitted until each deficiency identified under this subdivision has been corrected.

This subdivision shall not limit the review of regulations under this article, including, but not limited to, the conformity of rulemaking files to subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 11347.3.

SEC. 41. Section 11349.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11349.5. (a) To initiate a review of a decision by the office, the agency shall file a written Request for Review with the Governor's Legal Affairs Secretary within 10 days of receipt of the written opinion provided by the office pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 11349.3. The Request for Review shall include a complete statement as to why the agency believes the decision is incorrect and should be overruled. Along with the Request for Review, the agency shall submit all of the following:

(1) The office's written decision detailing the reasons for disapproval required by subdivision (b) of Section 11349.3.

(2) Copies of all regulations, notices, statements, and other documents which were submitted to the office.

(b) A copy of the agency's Request for Review shall be delivered to the office on the same day it is delivered to the Governor's office. The office shall file its written response to the agency's request with the Governor's Legal Affairs Secretary within 10 days and deliver a copy of its response to the agency on the same day it is delivered to the Governor's office.

(c) The Governor's office shall provide the requesting agency and the office with a written decision within 15 days of receipt of the response by the office to the agency's Request for Review. Upon receipt of the decision, the office shall publish in the California Regulatory Notice Register the agency's Request for Review, the office's response thereto, and the decision of the Governor's office.

(d) The time requirements set by subdivisions (a) and (b) may be shortened by the Governor's office for good cause.

(e) The Governor may overrule the decision of the office disapproving a proposed regulation, an order repealing an emergency regulation adopted pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 11346.1, or a decision refusing to allow the readoption of an emergency regulation pursuant to subdivision (k) of Section 11346.1. In that event, the office shall immediately transmit the regulation to the Secretary of State for filing.

(f) Upon overruling the decision of the office, the Governor shall immediately transmit to the Committees on Rules of both houses of the Legislature a statement of his or her reasons for overruling the decision of the office, along with copies of the adopting agency's initial statement of reasons issued pursuant to Section 11346.2 and the office's statement regarding the disapproval of a regulation issued pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 11349.3. The Governor's action and the reasons therefor shall be published in the California Regulatory Notice Register.

SEC. 42. Section 11349.6 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11349.6. (a) In the event the adopting agency has complied with Sections 11346.2 to 11346.9, inclusive, prior to the adoption of the regulation as an emergency, the office shall approve or disapprove the regulation in accordance with this article.

(b) Emergency regulations adopted pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 11346.1 shall be reviewed by the office within 10 calendar days after their submittal to the office. The office shall not file the emergency regulations with the Secretary of State if it determines that the regulation is not necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, or general welfare, or if it determines that the regulation fails to meet the standards set forth in Section 11349.1, or if it determines the agency failed to comply with subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 11346.1.

(c) If the office considers any information not submitted to it by the rulemaking agency when determining whether to file emergency regulations, the office shall provide the rulemaking agency with an opportunity to rebut or comment upon that information.

(d) Within 30 days of the filing of a certificate of compliance, the office shall review the regulation and hearing record and approve or order the repeal of an emergency regulation if it determines that the regulation fails to meet the standards set forth in Section 11349.1, or if it determines that the agency failed to comply with this chapter.

SEC. 43. Article 7 (commencing with Section 11349.7) is added to Chapter 3.5 of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, to read:

Article 7. Review of Existing Regulations

11349.7. The office, at the request of any standing, select, or joint committee of the Legislature, shall initiate a priority review of any regulation, group of regulations, or series of regulations that the committee believes does not meet the standards set forth in Section 11349.1.

The office shall notify interested persons and shall publish notice in the California Regulatory Notice Register that a priority review has been requested, shall consider the written comments submitted by interested persons, the information contained in the rulemaking record, if any, and shall complete each priority review made pursuant to this section within 90 calendar days of the receipt of the committee's written request. During the period of any priority review made pursuant to this section, all information available to the office relating to the priority review shall be made available to the public. In the event that the office determines that a regulation does not meet the standards set forth in Section 11349.1, it shall order the adopting agency to show cause why the regulation should not be repealed and shall proceed to seek repeal of the regulation as provided by this section in accordance with the following:

(a) In the event it determines that any of the regulations subject to the review do not meet the standards set forth in Section 11349.1, the office shall within 15 days of the determination order the adopting agency to show cause why the regulation should not be repealed. In issuing the order, the office shall specify in writing the reasons for its determination that the regulation does not meet the standards set forth in Section 11349.1. The reasons for its determination shall be made available to the public. The office shall also publish its order and the reasons therefor in the California Regulatory Notice Register. In the case of a regulation for which no, or inadequate, information relating to its necessity can be furnished by the adopting agency, the order shall specify the information which the office requires to make its determination.

(b) No later than 60 days following receipt of an order to show cause why a regulation should not be repealed, the agency shall respond in writing to the office. Upon written application by the agency, the office may extend the time for an additional 30 days.

(c) The office shall review and consider all information submitted by the agency in a timely response to the order to show cause why the regulation should not be repealed, and determine whether the regulation meets the standards set forth in Section 11349.1. The office shall make this determination within 60 days of receipt of an agency's response to the order to show cause. If the office does not make a determination within 60 days of receipt of an agency's response to the order to show cause, the regulation shall be deemed to meet the standards set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 11349.1. In making this determination, the office shall also review any written comments submitted to it by the public within 30 days of the publication of the order to show cause in the California Regulatory Notice Register. During the period of review and consideration, the information available to the office relating to each regulation for which the office has issued an order to show cause shall be made available to the public. The office shall notify the adopting agency within two working days of the receipt of information submitted by the public regarding a regulation for which an order to show cause has been issued. If the office determines that a regulation fails to meet the standards, it shall prepare a statement specifying the reasons for its determination. The statement shall be delivered to the adopting agency, the Legislature, and the Governor and shall be made available to the public and the courts. Thirty days after delivery of the statement required by this subdivision the office shall prepare an order of repeal of the regulation and shall transmit it to the Secretary of State for filing.

(d) The Governor, within 30 days after the office has delivered the statement specifying the reasons for its decision to repeal, as required by subdivision (c), may overrule the decision of the office ordering the repeal of a regulation. The regulation shall then remain in full force and effect. Notice of the Governor's action and the reasons therefor shall be published in the California Regulatory Notice Register.

The Governor shall transmit to the rules committee of each house of the Legislature a statement of reasons for overruling the decision of the office, plus any other information that may be requested by either of the rules committees.

(e) In the event that the office orders the repeal of a regulation, it shall publish the order and the reasons therefor in the California Regulatory Notice Register.

SEC. 44. Section 11349.10 of the Government Code is amended and renumbered to read:

11349.8. (a) If the office is notified of, or on its own becomes aware of, an existing regulation in the California Code of Regulations for which the statutory authority has been repealed or becomes ineffective or inoperative by its own terms, the office shall order the adopting agency to show cause why the regulation should not be repealed for lack of statutory authority and shall notify the Legislature in writing of this order. In issuing the order, the office shall specify in writing the reasons for issuance of the order. "Agency," for purposes of this section and Section 11349.9, refers to the agency that adopted the regulation and, if applicable, the agency that is responsible for administering the regulation in issue.

(b) The agency may, within 30 days after receipt of the written notification, submit in writing to the office any citations, legal arguments, or other information opposing the repeal, including public comments during this period. This section shall not apply where the agency demonstrates in its response that any of the following conditions exists:

(1) The statute or section thereof is simultaneously repealed and substantially reenacted through a single piece of legislation, or where subsequent legislation evinces a specific legislative intent to reenact the substance of the statute or section. When a regulation cites more than one specific statute or section as reference or authority for the adoption of a regulation, and one or more of the statutes or sections are repealed or become ineffective or inoperative, then the only provisions of the regulation which remain in effect shall be those for which the remaining statutes or sections provide specific or general authority.

(2) The statute is temporarily repealed, or rendered ineffective or inoperative by a provision of law which is effective only for a limited period, in which case any regulation described in subdivision (a) is thereby also temporarily repealed, rendered ineffective, or inoperative during that limited period. Any regulation so affected shall have the same force and effect upon the expiration of the limited period during which the provision of law was effective as if that temporary provision had not been enacted.

(3) The statute or section of a statute being repealed, or becoming ineffective or inoperative by its own terms, is to remain in full force and effect as regards events occurring prior to the date of repeal or ineffectiveness, in which case any regulation adopted to implement or interpret that statute shall likewise be deemed to remain in full force and effect in regards to those same events.

(c) This section shall not be construed to deprive any person or public agency of any substantial right which would have existed prior to, or hereafter exists subsequent to, the effective date of this section.

(d) Thirty days after receipt of the agency's opposition material, or the close of the 30-day agency and public response period if no response is submitted, the office shall do one of the following:

(1) Inform the agency and the Legislature in writing that the office has withdrawn its order to show cause.

(2) Issue a written notice to the agency specifying the reasons for the repeal and its intent to file a Notice of Repeal of the invalid regulation with the Secretary of State. Within seven calendar days of the filing of the Notice of Repeal, the office shall provide the agency, the Governor, and the Legislature with a written decision detailing the reasons for the repeal and a copy of the Notice of Repeal, and publish the office's written decision in the California Regulatory Notice Register.

(e) The office shall order the removal of the repealed regulation from the California Code of Regulations within 30 days after filing the Notice of Repeal, if the agency has not appealed the office's decision, or upon receipt of notification of the Governor's decision upholding the office's decision, if an appeal has been filed pursuant to Section 11349.9.

SEC. 45. Section 11349.11 of the Government Code is amended and renumbered to read:

11349.9. (a) To initiate a review of the office's Notice of Repeal pursuant to Section 11349.8, the agency shall appeal the office's decision by filing a written Request for Review with the Governor's Legal Affairs Secretary within 10 days of receipt of the Notice of Repeal and written decision provided for by paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) of Section 11349.8. The Request for Review shall include a complete statement as to why the agency believes the decision is incorrect and should be overruled. Along with the Request for Review, the agency shall submit all of the following:

(1) The offices' written opinion detailing the reasons for repeal required by paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) of Section 11349.8.

(2) Copies of all statements and other documents which were submitted to the office.

(b) A copy of the agency's Request for Review shall be delivered to the office on the same day it is delivered to the Governor's office. The office shall file its written response to the agency's request with the Governor's Legal Affairs Secretary within 10 days, and deliver a copy of its response to the agency on the same day it is delivered to the Governor's office.

(c) The Governor's office shall provide the requesting agency and the office with a written decision within 15 days of receipt of the response by the office to the agency's Request for Review. Upon receipt of the decision, the office shall publish in the California Regulatory Notice Register the agency's Request for Review, the office's response thereto, and the decision of the Governor's office.

(d) The time requirements set by subdivisions (a) and (b) may be shortened by the Governor's office for good cause.

(e) In the event the Governor overrules the decision of the office, the office shall immediately transmit the regulation to the Secretary of State for filing.

(f) Upon overruling the decision of the office, the Governor shall transmit to the rules committees of both houses of the Legislature a statement of the reasons for overruling the decision of the office.

SEC. 46. The heading of Article 7 (commencing with Section 11350) of Chapter 3.5 of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code is amended and renumbered to read:

Article 8. Judicial Review

SEC. 47. Section 11350 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11350. (a) Any interested person may obtain a judicial declaration as to the validity of any regulation by bringing an action for declaratory relief in the superior court in accordance with the Code of Civil Procedure. The right to judicial determination shall not be affected by the failure either to petition or to seek reconsideration of a petition filed pursuant to Section 11347.1 before the agency promulgating the regulations. The regulation may be declared to be invalid for a substantial failure to comply with this chapter, or, in the case of an emergency regulation or order to repeal, upon the ground that the facts recited in the statement do not constitute an emergency within the provisions of Section 11346.1.

(b) In addition to any other ground that may exist, a regulation may be declared invalid if either of the following exists:

(1) The agency's determination that the regulation is reasonably necessary to effectuate the purpose of the statute, court decision, or other provision of law that is being implemented, interpreted, or made specific by the regulation is not supported by substantial evidence.

(2) The agency declaration pursuant to paragraph (8) of subdivision (a) of Section 11346.5 is in conflict with substantial evidence in the record.

For purposes of this section, the record shall be deemed to consist of all material maintained in the file of the rulemaking proceeding as defined in Section 11347.3.

(c) The approval of a regulation by the office or the Governor's overruling of a decision of the office disapproving a regulation shall not be considered by a court in any action for declaratory relief brought with respect to a regulation.

SEC. 48. Section 11350.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11350.3. Any interested person may obtain a judicial declaration as to the validity of a regulation which the office has disapproved or ordered repealed pursuant to Section 11349.3, 11349.6, or 11349.7 by bringing an action for declaratory relief in the superior court in accordance with the Code of Civil Procedure. The court may declare the regulation valid if it determines that the regulation meets the standards set forth in Section 11349.1 and that the agency has complied with this chapter. If the court so determines, it may order the office to immediately file the regulation with the Secretary of State.

SEC. 49. A heading is added as Article 9 (commencing with Section 11351) of Chapter 3.5 of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, to read:

Article 9. Special Procedures

SEC. 50. Section 11351 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11351. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), Article 5 (commencing with Section 11346), Article 6 (commencing with Section 11349), Article 7 (commencing with Section 11349.7), and Article 8 (commencing with Section 11350) shall not apply to the Public Utilities Commission, the Division of Worker's Compensation, or the Workers' Compensation Appeals Board, and Article 3 (commencing with Section 11343) and Article 4 (commencing with Section 11344) shall apply only to the rules of procedure of these state agencies.

(b) The Public Utilities Commission, the Division of Worker's Compensation and the Workers' Compensation Appeals Board shall comply with paragraph (5) of subdivision (a) of Section 11346.4 with respect to regulations that are required to be filed with the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 11343.

SEC. 51. Section 11357 is added to the Government Code, to read:

11357. (a) The Department of Finance shall adopt and update, as necessary, instructions for inclusion in the State Administrative Manual prescribing the methods that any agency subject to this chapter shall use in making the determination required by paragraph (5) and the estimate required by paragraph (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 11346.5. The instructions shall include, but need not be limited to, the following:

(1) Guidelines governing the types of data or assumptions, or both, that may be used, and the methods that shall be used, to calculate the estimate of the cost or savings to public agencies mandated by the regulation for which the estimate is being prepared.

(2) The types of direct or indirect costs and savings that should be taken into account in preparing the estimate.

(3) The criteria that shall be used in determining whether the cost of a regulation must be funded by the state pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution and Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4.

(4) The format the agency preparing the estimate shall follow in summarizing and reporting its estimate of the cost or savings to state and local agencies, school districts, and in federal funding of state programs that will result from the regulation.

(b) Any action by the Department of Finance to adopt and update, as necessary, instructions to any state or local agency for the preparation, development, or administration of the state budget, including any instructions included in the State Administrative Manual, shall be exempt from this chapter.

(c) The Department of Finance may review any estimate prepared pursuant to this section for content including, but not limited to, the data and assumptions used in its preparation.

CHAPTER 1040

An act to amend Section 4027.6 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to drinking water, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4027.6 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

4027.6. (a) The department may grant a variance or variances from primary drinking water standards to a public water system. Any variance granted pursuant to this subdivision shall conform to the requirements established under the federal Safe Drinking Water Act, as amended (42 U.S.C. Sec. 300g-4).

(b) (1) In addition to the authority provided in subdivision (a), at the request of any public water system, the department shall grant a variance from the primary drinking water standard adopted by the department for fluoride. A variance granted by the department pursuant to this subdivision shall prohibit fluoride levels in excess of 75 percent of the maximum contaminant level established in the national primary drinking water regulation adopted by the United States Environmental Protection Agency for fluoride, or three milligrams per liter, whichever is higher, and shall be valid for a period of up to 30 years. The department shall review each variance granted pursuant to this section at least every five years. The variance may be withdrawn upon reasonable notice by the department if the department determines that the community served by the public water system no longer accepts the fluoride level authorized in the variance or the level of fluoride authorized by the variance poses an unreasonable risk to health. In no case may a variance be granted in excess of the United States Environmental Protection Agency maximum contaminant level.

(2) The department shall grant a variance pursuant to paragraph (1) only if it determines, after conducting a public hearing in the community served by the public water system, that there is no substantial community opposition to the variance and the variance does not pose an unreasonable risk to health. The public water system shall provide written notification, approved by the department, to all customers which shall contain at least the following information:

(A) The fact that a variance has been requested.

(B) The date, time and location of the public hearing that will be conducted by the department.

(C) The level of fluoride that will be allowed by the requested variance and how this level compares to the maximum contaminant levels prescribed by the state primary drinking water standard, the federal national primary drinking water regulation, and the federal national secondary drinking water regulation.

(D) A discussion of the types of health and dental problems that may occur when the fluoride concentration exceeds the maximum contaminant levels prescribed by the state standard and the federal regulations.

(3) If, at any time after a variance has been granted pursuant to paragraph (1), substantial community concerns arise concerning the level of fluoride present in the water supplied by the public water system, the public water system shall notify the department, conduct a public hearing on the concerns expressed by the community, determine the fluoride level that is acceptable to the community, and apply to the department for an amendment to the variance which reflects that determination.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure that safe drinking water in adequate supply is available for consumers of public water systems, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

An act to add Section 4466 to the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

SECTION 1. Section 4466 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:
4466. (a) If an individual, who is the registered owner, applies in person for a copy, duplication, or substitution, as the case may be, of a certificate of ownership or license plate, he or she shall present proof of ownership of the vehicle, acceptable to the department, and a driver's license or identification card containing a picture of the licensee or cardholder issued to the registered owner by the department pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 12500) of Division 6.

(b) Subdivision (a) does not apply if an application is delivered by mail or by any other courier or delivery service, if it is submitted by or through a dealer or dismantler, or if the applicant applies in person and is a business entity.

CHAPTER 1042

An act to add Sections 857, 1764.5, 11450.10, and 11450.11 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to minors.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 857 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

857. Whenever a minor is incarcerated in a juvenile hall or other county juvenile facility for a period of at least 30 consecutive days, the facility may inform the State Department of Social Services of the name, date of birth, and social security number of the incarcerated person.

SEC. 2. Section 1764.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

1764.5. Whenever a minor is incarcerated in a Youth Authority facility for a period of at least 30 consecutive days, the Youth Authority shall inform the State Department of Social Services of the name, date of birth, social security number, and county of residence of the incarcerated person.

SEC. 3. Section 11450.10 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

11450.10. Whenever the department is informed pursuant to either Section 857 or 1764.5 that a minor is being incarcerated for a period of at least 30 consecutive days, the department shall determine whether the minor is a part of a family for whom benefits are being received pursuant to Section 11450. In any case where it is determined that a child identified pursuant to this section is a part of a family for whom aid is being received pursuant to Section 11450, the department shall notify the county welfare department in the county in which the incarcerated youth resides prior to the first day of the month following the receipt of the notification by the Youth Authority or by juvenile hall, or by the county juvenile facility.

SEC. 4. Section 11450.11 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

11450.11. Whenever a county welfare department is informed that a child who is incarcerated is also a member of a family receiving benefits pursuant to Section 11450, the county welfare department shall seek reimbursement of any overpayments pursuant to existing law and regulation.

An act to amend Section 4420 of the Government Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

4420. (a) No officer or employee of this state, or of any public agency or of any public authority, and no person acting or purporting to act on behalf of any officer, employee, or public agency or authority, except a public agency or authority created pursuant to agreement or compact with another state, shall, with respect to any public building or construction contract which is about to be or which has been competitively bid, require the bidder to make application to, or furnish financial data to, or to obtain or procure any surety bond or contract of insurance specified in connection with the contract, or specified by any law, ordinance, or regulation, from, a particular surety or insurance company, agent, or broker.

(b) No officer or employee, or person, firm, or corporation acting or purporting to act on behalf of any officer or employee, shall negotiate, make application for, obtain, or procure any such surety bond or contract of insurance (except contracts of insurance for builder's risk or owner's protective liability) which can be obtained or procured by the bidder, contractor, or subcontractor.

(c) Subdivision (b) shall not apply to the construction of any exclusive public mass transit guideway project in any county with a population exceeding 6,000,000, or in the County of Santa Clara or the City and County of San Francisco; to any exclusive public mass transit guideway project undertaken by either the San Francisco Bay Area Rapid Transit District or the Sacramento Regional Transit District; to any airport expansion project undertaken at the San Francisco International Airport; to any water, waste water, or reclamation project undertaken by a public agency serving a population exceeding 250,000; to any exclusive public water storage or conveyance facility undertaken by a metropolitan water district that was organized under the Metropolitan Water District Act, Chapter 209 of the Statutes of 1969, as amended; to any county medical center within San Bernardino County or Riverside County; to any construction project undertaken by the harbor departments of the City of Los Angeles and the City of Long Beach, or any joint powers authority formed by the City of Los Angeles and the City of Long Beach, for the purpose of improving the Alameda Corridor; to any construction or renovation project undertaken by the Foothill/Eastern or San Joaquin Hills Transportation Corridor

Agencies in Orange County; or to construction or renovation of additions to any county medical center located within Santa Clara County.

(d) As used in this section, "public agency" means any city, county, city and county, district, municipal or public corporation, or any agency or instrumentality thereof.

An act to amend Section 14608 of, and to add and repeal Section 19080.4 of, the Government Code, and to amend Section 10302.5 of the Public Contract Code, relating to state operations.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

14608. Whenever any statute requires by the use of the word or words "approve," "approval," "authorize," or "authorization," the director of the department to approve or authorize any act or transaction, the approval or authorization shall be deemed to have been given only if given in writing by the director, the deputy director, or by some other officer or employee of the department acting pursuant to written authority of the director. The term "in writing" includes a secured electronic signature, whereby an electronically produced document may be signed electronically by the authorized signatory who possesses a secured electronic password available only to the signatory or his or her designee.

SEC. 2. Section 19080.4 is added to the Government Code, to read:

19080.4. (a) The board may authorize limited-term appointments to be extended for up to two years beyond the limits specified in Section 19080.3 when the extension is needed to complete construction projects still in progress.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2000, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 2000, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Section 10302.5 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

10302.5. All product specifications that the Department of General Services or any other state agency prepares for goods for any contract entered into by any state agency for the purchase of goods under Section 10295 are not subject to the review and adoption procedure under Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 1045

An act to amend Section 3200 of the Food and Agricultural Code, and to add Section 6516.9 to the Government Code, relating to fairs and expositions, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3200 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

3200. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, all funds appropriated for California fairs and expositions pursuant to Sections 19622, 19627, 19627.1, and subdivision (c) of Section 19627.2 of the Business and Professions Code for the 1994–95 fiscal year shall not be utilized for the purposes specified in those sections but shall, instead, be utilized for the purposes specified in Section 19630 of the Business and Professions Code, and may be allocated by the Secretary of Food and Agriculture to all state designated fairs as defined by Section 19418 of the Business and Professions Code, for the purposes specified in Section 19630.

SEC. 2. Section 6516.9 is added to the Government Code, to read:

6516.9. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a joint powers agency provided for by a joint powers agreement pursuant to this article, the members of which may conduct agricultural, livestock, industrial, cultural, or other types of fairs and exhibitions, may establish and administer risk pooling arrangements for the payment of general liability losses incurred by nonprofit corporations conducting or benefiting agricultural, livestock, industrial, cultural, or other types of fairs and exhibitions, and by nonprofit corporations or auxiliary organizations operating facilities, programs, or events at public schools, the California Community Colleges, the California State University, or the University of California. The joint powers agency may provide the nonprofit corporations with any services provided to the agency's members. Aggregate payments made under each risk pooling arrangement shall not exceed the amount available in the pool established for that arrangement. The joint powers agency may establish and administer as many separate risk pooling arrangements as it deems desirable. A general liability risk pooling arrangement established pursuant to this section may also provide for the payment of losses incurred by special events users, lessees, and licensees of facilities operated by nonprofit corporations, auxiliary organizations, public schools, community colleges, the California State University, or the University of California and for the payment of losses incurred by participants and exhibitors in programs sponsored by those entities.

An act to amend Section 3260 of the Civil Code, relating to works of improvement.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

SECTION 1. Section 3260 of the Civil Code is amended to read:
3260. (a) This section is applicable with respect to all contracts entered into on or after July 1, 1991, relating to the construction of any private work of improvement. However, the amendments made to this section during the 1992 portion of the 1991–92 Regular Session of the Legislature are applicable only with respect to contracts entered into on or after January 1, 1993, relating to the construction of any private work of improvement. Moreover, the amendments made to this section during the 1993 portion of the 1993–94 Regular Session of the Legislature are applicable only with respect to contracts entered into on or after January 1, 1994, relating to the construction of any private work of improvement.

(b) The retention proceeds withheld from any payment by the owner from the original contractor, or by the original contractor from any subcontractor, shall be subject to this section.

(c) Within 45 days after the date of completion, the retention withheld by the owner shall be released. "Date of completion," for purposes of this section, means any of the following:

(1) The date of issuance of any certificate of occupancy covering the work by the public agency issuing the building permit.

(2) The date of completion indicated on a valid notice of completion recorded pursuant to Section 3093.

(3) The date of completion as defined in Section 3086.

However, release of retentions withheld for any portion of the work of improvement which ultimately will become the property of a public agency, may be conditioned upon the acceptance of the work by the public agency. In the event of a dispute between the owner and the original contractor, the owner may withhold from the final payment an amount not to exceed 150 percent of the disputed amount.

(d) Subject to subdivision (e), within 10 days from the time that all or any portion of the retention proceeds are received by the original contractor, the original contractor shall pay each of its subcontractors from whom retention has been withheld, each subcontractor's share of the retention received. However, if a retention payment received by the original contractor is specifically designated for a particular subcontractor, payment of the retention shall be made to the designated subcontractor, if the payment is consistent with the terms of the subcontract.

(e) If a bona fide dispute exists between a subcontractor and the original contractor, the original contractor may withhold from that subcontractor with whom the dispute exists its portion of the retention proceeds. The amount withheld from the retention payment shall not exceed 150 percent of the estimated value of the disputed amount.

(f) Within 10 days of receipt of written notice by the owner from the original contractor or by the original contractor from the subcontractor, as the case may be, that any work in dispute has been completed in accordance with the terms of the contract, the owner or original contractor shall advise the notifying party of the acceptance or rejection of the disputed work. Within 10 days of acceptance of the disputed work, the owner or original contractor, as the case may be, shall release the retained portion of the retention proceeds.

(g) In the event that retention payments are not made within the time periods required by this section, the owner or original contractor withholding the unpaid amounts shall be subject to a charge of 2 percent per month on the improperly withheld amount, in lieu of any interest otherwise due. Additionally, in any action for the collection of funds wrongfully withheld, the prevailing party shall be entitled to his or her attorney's fees and costs.

(h) It shall be against public policy for any party to require any other party to waive any provision of this section.

(i) This section shall not be construed to apply to retentions withheld by a lender in accordance with the construction loan agreement.

An act to amend Section 9002 of the Fish and Game Code, relating to commercial fishing.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 9002 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

9002. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b), (c), and (d), it is unlawful to willfully or recklessly disturb, move, or damage any trap that belongs to another person and that is marked with a buoy identification number pursuant to Section 9006.

(b) A person, who has been issued a general trap permit under Section 9001 and has it in his or her possession, may pull or raise a trap marked with a buoy, if the buoy is marked with a buoy identification number pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 9006. A person pulling or raising a trap marked with a buoy identification number, other than his or her own buoy identification number, shall have written permission in his or her possession from the other person who holds the buoy identification number that is marked on the buoy.

(c) Subdivision (a) does not apply to employees of the department while engaged in the performance of official duties.

(d) (1) Subdivision (a) does not apply to publicly employed safety personnel, including, but not limited to, lifeguards, marine safety officers, harbor patrol officers, and peace officers, who, while engaged in the performance of their official duties, may remove a trap, buoy, or line located in or near breaking surf or adjacent to a public beach if they believe that the trap poses a public safety hazard. If any of those persons remove a trap, a buoy, or a trap or buoy line, any captured marine life shall be immediately returned to the ocean.

(2) Any person described in this subdivision who removes a trap and any attachments thereto identified by a buoy identification number shall make an attempt to contact the person whose permit or license number is marked on the buoy by personal contact, by telephone, by recorded message left on a telephone answering machine, by regular United States Postal Service, or by other means, advising where the property is located. Those persons shall have no responsibility to secure the trap or attachments against loss or damage.

(3) Employees of the department may disclose the name, address, and buoy identification numbers of currently permitted or licensed persons to representatives of public safety agencies described in this subdivision to assist in the return of traps and attachments to their proper owners or operators.

(4) If the person whose permit or license number is marked on the buoy has been notified pursuant to this subdivision but has not retrieved the trap within seven days of notification, or if that person cannot be identified within seven days after the trap has been removed, the trap may be discarded.

(5) This subdivision does not create any duty on any state or local agency to remove or move a trap, line, or buoy that may endanger the public safety and does not create any liability pursuant to Part 2 (commencing with Section 814) of Division 3.6 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

An act to amend Sections 77442 and 77481.5 of, to add Section 42951 to, and to add and repeal Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 48000) of Division 17 of, the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to agriculture, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 42951 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

42951. (a) It is unlawful for any person to adulterate any solution or chemical or to alter any instrument or any other device provided to an enforcing officer for use in determining compliance with this division or the regulations adopted pursuant to this division.

(b) A violation of this section is a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) or more than three thousand dollars ($3,000), by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than six months, or by both that fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 2. Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 48000) is added to Division 17 of the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

CHAPTER 11. NAVEL AND VALENCIA ORANGES

48000. The handling and marketing of navel and Valencia oranges is affected with the public interest. The provisions of this chapter are enacted for the protection of the industry and for the purposes of protecting the health and general welfare of the people of this state. Assessments established by this chapter shall be expended exclusively for the purpose of administering an inspection program in the counties specified in subdivision (d) of Section 48002 pertaining to standards for orange maturity and freeze damage as provided by statute or regulation. The inspection in these counties shall be conducted by the county agricultural commissioner pursuant to a memorandum of understanding between the department and the commissioners.

48001. (a) There is in the department the Navel and Valencia Orange Advisory Committee, which shall oversee the implementation of the inspection program.

(b) The committee shall be composed of five producers and three handlers. Four of the producer members shall be engaged in the production of navel or Valencia oranges in the San Joaquin Valley, and two of those four members shall be engaged in production in Tulare County. The three handler members shall have their principal place of business located in one of the counties specified in subdivision (d) of Section 48002. Two of the three handlers shall be located in the San Joaquin Valley and one shall be located in southern California.

(c) The committee shall be appointed by the secretary from nominations submitted to the secretary by members of the navel orange and Valencia orange industries group.

(d) Committee members may be compensated for reasonable expenses actually incurred in the performance of their duties, as determined by the committee and concurred in by the secretary.

(e) The committee shall meet at the request of the secretary, the committee chairperson, or upon the request of three committee members.

(f) The committee shall appoint a chairperson, one or more vice chairpersons, a secretary, and any other officers it deems necessary.

(g) The committee shall develop and make recommendations to the secretary on all matters regarding the implementation of this chapter including:

(1) Procedures for implementing an inspection program that shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(i) The minimum number of inspections to be conducted, and the duration of each inspection period.

(ii) The minimum number of samples to be taken.

(iii) Statistical analysis of compliance levels and determination of acceptable level of compliance.

(iv) Documentation of inspection data including the number of inspectors, number of inspections performed, and budget information relating to expenses of personnel, mileage, and overhead costs.

(v) Monitoring and postevaluation of program effectiveness by the secretary.

(vi) Development of a single memorandum of understanding between the department and all of the county agricultural commissioners for the counties specified in subdivision (d) of Section 48002.

(2) Determinations as to which counties have met the inspection requirements.

(h) The secretary shall accept the recommendations of the committee if he or she determines that the recommendations are practicable and in the interest of the industry and the public. The secretary shall provide the committee within 30 days of receipt of the recommendations with a written statement of reasons if he or she does not accept any of the recommendations.

48002. (a) In addition to any other assessment, fees, or charges that may be required pursuant to this code, producers of navel oranges and Valencia oranges that are grown in this state and prepared for fresh market in the counties specified in subdivision (d) shall pay an assessment that shall not exceed 7 mills ($0.007) per carton for navel oranges and 2½ mills ($0.0025) per carton for Valencia oranges through the 1996 marketing season. Thereafter, the assessment shall not exceed 9 mills ($.009) per carton for navel oranges and 4 mills ($.004) per carton for Valencia oranges. The assessment shall be:

(1) Based on the number of cartons shipped.

(2) Used to reimburse agricultural commissioners, pursuant to a memorandum of understanding between the department and the commissioners, in the counties specified in subdivision (d) who meet the requirements of the inspection program as determined by the committee and concurred in by the secretary.

(3) Collected from the producer by the first handler. For the purposes of this chapter, "producer" means a grower of navel oranges or Valencia oranges and "handler" means a person or entity who receives navel oranges or Valencia oranges from a producer and who prepares the oranges for fresh market. If a producer prepares the oranges for market, the producer shall be deemed the handler.

(4) Remitted to the department by the first handler, along with an assessment form, at the end of each month during the marketing season.

(5) Deposited in the Department of Food and Agriculture Fund or, upon the recommendation of the committee, deposited in accordance with Section 227 or Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 230) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 1.

(b) In no case shall:

(1) The total amount reimbursed to all counties exceed the total amount collected from the producers in all counties.

(2) The reimbursement to any county exceed the amount approved by the committee and concurred in by the secretary.

(c) If the inspection program is terminated and there are insufficient funds to cover the cost of terminating the inspection program, the assessment shall continue until all those costs are recovered.

(d) Assessments collected pursuant to this chapter are for the purpose of conducting an inspection program in the Counties of Fresno, Kern, Madera, Orange, Riverside, San Bernardino, Santa Clara, Tulare, and Ventura. A producer shall not be required to pay assessments unless the county agricultural commissioners of those counties provide an inspection program in accordance with this chapter, unless otherwise recommended by the committee and approved by the secretary. A county agricultural commissioner shall not be required to provide an inspection program.

48003. (a) Upon establishment of an inspection program, any handler who does not file the required assessment report and assessments by the 10th day of the month following the month for which the assessment is payable shall pay a penalty of 10 percent of the assessment owed and, in addition, 1½ percent interest per month on the unpaid balance.

(b) Upon establishment of an inspection program, it shall be unlawful for any handler to refuse to collect the assessments or remit the assessments and the proper forms required by this chapter.

48004. This chapter shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1998, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1998, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Section 77442 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

77442. A quorum of the commission is a majority of the voting producer members, a majority of the voting shipper members, and a majority of the voting processor members on the commission. Except as provided in Sections 77481.5 and 77503, the vote of a majority of members present at a meeting at which there is a quorum shall constitute an act of the commission.

SEC. 4. Section 77481.5 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

77481.5. An assessment established by the commission shall require a favorable vote of not less than two-thirds of the voting producer members, a majority of the voting shipper members, and a majority of the voting processor members on the commission.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure continued funding of a citrus inspection program that the counties are no longer able to provide at the earliest time possible, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

An act to amend Sections 704, 704.1, 1088, 1095, 1110, 1111, 1111.5, 1112.5, 1113.1, 1114, 1115, 1116, 1126, 1127, 1128, 1132, 1703, 1852, 2117, 2117.5, 2121, 2123, 13002, 13021, 13021.5, 13050, 13051, 13053, 13054, 13056, 13057, and 13058 of, and to add Section 1117 to, the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to unemployment insurance, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 704 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

704. The director shall not approve an election under Section 701, 702, 702.1, 702.5, 703, 708, or 708.5 if he or she finds that any of the following conditions exist:

(a) The self-employed individual is currently unable to perform his or her regular and customary work due to injury or illness.

(b) The employing unit or self-employed individual is not normally and continuously engaged in a regular trade, business, or occupation.

(c) The employing unit or self-employed individual intends to discontinue the regular trade, business or occupation within eight calendar quarters.

(d) The regular trade, business, or occupation of the employing unit or self-employed individual is seasonal in its operations.

(e) The major portion of the self-employed individual's remuneration is not derived from his or her trade, business, or occupation.

(f) The self-employed individual is unable to provide a copy of his or her Internal Revenue Service Schedule SE as reported on or before April 15 of the preceding year showing a net profit of at least four thousand six hundred dollars ($4,600) or to certify to an average net profit of at least one thousand one hundred fifty dollars ($1,150) per quarter since becoming self-employed or for the preceding four quarters, whichever period is less.

(g) The employing unit or self-employed individual has failed to make a return or report, or to pay contributions within the time required by this division and there is an unpaid amount of contributions owing by the employing unit or self-employed individual.

(h) (1) A prior elective coverage agreement entered into pursuant to Section 708 or 708.5 has been terminated by the department under Section 704.1 or by means of a written application for termination as required by this division, and the individual has not completed a waiting period of 18 consecutive months from the date of termination.

(2) The waiting period for reinstatement to the elective coverage program may be waived for any individual who becomes eligible for coverage after being terminated under paragraph (1), (2), (4), or (5) of subdivision (a) of Section 704.1, upon receipt by the department of an application for coverage to be effective the first day of the quarter in which the application is received.

(i) The employing unit or any officer or agent of or person having charge of the affairs of the employing unit, or the self-employed individual has been convicted within the preceding eight consecutive calendar quarters of any violation under Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 2101). For the purposes of this subdivision, a plea or verdict of guilty or a conviction following a plea of nolo contendere is deemed to be a conviction irrespective of whether an order granting probation or other order is made suspending the imposition of the sentence or whether sentence is imposed but execution thereof is suspended.

(j) For purposes of this section, Internal Revenue Service Schedule SE is defined as Internal Revenue Service Form 1040 Schedule SE, or in the case of statutory employees under the Internal Revenue Code, it shall be defined as Internal Revenue Service Form 1040 Schedule C, or the California Income Tax Return, when accompanied by Internal Revenue Service Form W-2.

SEC. 2. Section 704.1 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

704.1. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, the director may terminate any elective coverage agreement under this article if he or she finds that any of the following conditions exist:

(1) The employing unit or self-employed individual is not normally and continuously engaged in a regular trade, business, or occupation.

(2) The employing unit or self-employed individual has discontinued the regular trade, business, or occupation.

(3) The regular trade, business, or occupation of the employing unit or self-employed individual is seasonal in its operations.

This paragraph shall not apply to any public entity.

(4) The major portion of the self-employed individual's remuneration is not derived from his or her trade, business, or occupation.

(5) The self-employed individual reports a net profit of less than four thousand six hundred dollars ($4,600) on his or her Internal Revenue Service Schedule SE for a third consecutive year.

(6) The employing unit or self-employed individual has failed to make a return or report, or to pay contributions within the time required by this division and there is an unpaid amount of contributions owing by the employing unit or self-employed individual, except when the elective coverage agreement has been in effect for less than two complete calendar years.

(7) The employing unit or self-employed individual, or a representative thereof, is found by the director to have filed a false statement in order to be considered eligible for elective coverage.

(8) The employing unit or any officer or agent of or person having charge of the affairs of the employing unit, or the self-employed individual is convicted of any violation pursuant to Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 2101). For the purposes of this paragraph, a plea or verdict of guilty or a conviction following a plea of nolo contendere is deemed to be a conviction irrespective of whether an order granting probation or other order is made suspending the imposition of the sentence or whether sentence is imposed but execution thereof is suspended.

(b) The director shall give to the employing unit, or to the self-employed individual, a written notice pursuant to Section 1206 of the director's termination of the elective coverage agreement under this section. The date of termination may be the end of the calendar quarter immediately preceding the existence of any condition specified in subdivision (a), or the end of any subsequent calendar quarter thereafter, as determined by the director.

Any termination of elective coverage shall not affect the liability of the employing unit or self-employed individual for any contributions due, owing, and unpaid to the department.

(c) Sections 1222, 1223, and 1224 shall apply to matters arising under this section.

(d) For purposes of this section, Internal Revenue Service Schedule SE is defined as Internal Revenue Service Form 1040 Schedule SE, or in the case of statutory employees under the Internal Revenue Code, it shall be defined as Internal Revenue Service Form 1040 Schedule C, or the California Income Tax Return, when accompanied by Internal Revenue Service Form W-2.

SEC. 3. Section 1088 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1088. (a) (1) Each employer shall file with the director within the time required by subdivision (a) or (d) of Section 1110 for payment of employer contributions, a report of contributions and a report of wages paid to his or her workers in the form and containing any information as the director prescribes. An electronic funds transfer of contributions pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 1110 shall satisfy the requirement for a report of contributions. The report of wages shall include individual amounts required to be withheld under Section 13020.

(2) In order to enhance efforts to reduce tax fraud and to reduce the personal income tax reporting burden, effective January 1, 1997, the report of wages shall also include the full first name of the employee and total wages, as defined in Section 13009, paid to each employee. This paragraph shall apply to reports of wages for the 1997 calendar year and after.

(b) Each employer shall file with the director within the time required by subdivision (b) or (d) of Section 1110 for payment of worker contributions, a report of contributions containing the employer's business name, address, and account number, the total amount of worker contributions due, and any other information as the director shall prescribe. The director shall prescribe the form for the report of contributions. An electronic funds transfer of contributions pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 1110 shall satisfy the requirement for a report of contributions.

(c) In addition to the report of contributions and report of wages required by employers under subdivision (a), an individual who has elected coverage under subdivision (a) of Section 708 is also required to file a separate report of contributions, subject to Part 2 (commencing with Section 2601).

(d) Any employer making an election under subdivision (d) of Section 1110 shall submit the report of wages described in subdivision (a), within the time required for submitting employer contributions under subdivision (a) of Section 1110.

(e) In addition to the report of contributions and report of wages described in subdivision (a), each employer shall file with the director an annual reconciliation return showing the total amount of wages, employer contributions required under Sections 976 and 976.6, worker contributions required under Section 984, the amounts required to be withheld under Section 13020, and any other information as the director shall prescribe. This annual reconciliation return shall be due on the first day of January following the close of the prior calendar year and shall become delinquent if not filed on or before the last day of that month.

This subdivision shall not apply to individuals electing coverage under Section 708 or 708.5 or employers electing financing under Section 821.

(f) For purposes of making a report of wages under subdivision (a), employers who are required under Section 6011 of the Internal Revenue Code and authorized regulations thereunder to file magnetic media returns, shall, within 90 days of becoming subject to this requirement, do one of the following:

(1) Submit a magnetic media format to the department for approval, and upon receiving approval from the department, submit any subsequent reports of wages on magnetic media.

(2) Establish to the satisfaction of the director that there is a lack of automation, a severe economic hardship, a current exemption from submitting magnetic media information returns for federal purposes, or other good cause for not complying with the provisions of this subdivision. Approved waivers shall be valid for six months or longer, at the discretion of the director.

(g) The Franchise Tax Board shall be allowed access to the information filed with the department pursuant to this section.

(h) If an employer demonstrates that an undue hardship would be imposed, the director may authorize an exemption from the requirement in subdivision (a) to report individual amounts withheld under Section 13020 and the requirement in subdivision (e) to file the annual reconciliation return for the 1995 calendar year only. Any request for exemption must be filed on or before January 15, 1995. Upon approval of a request for exemption under this subdivision, the employer shall file quarterly returns and reports of wages in the manner and method prescribed by the director for the 1995 calendar year only.

SEC. 4. Section 1095 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1095. The director shall permit the use of any information in his or her possession to the extent necessary for any of the following purposes:

- (a) To properly present a claim for benefits.
- (b) To acquaint a worker or his or her authorized agent with his or her existing or prospective right to benefits.
- (c) To furnish an employer or his or her authorized agent with information to enable him or her to fully discharge his or her obligations or safeguard his or her rights under this division or Division 3 (commencing with Section 9000). This subdivision, as it relates to Division 3 (commencing with Section 9000), applies only to subdivision (j) of this section.
- (d) To enable an employer to receive a reduction in contribution rate.
- (e) To enable the Director of Social Services or his or her representatives or the Director of Health Services or his or her representatives, subject to federal law, to verify or determine the eligibility or entitlement of an applicant for, or a recipient of, public social services provided pursuant to the Welfare and Institutions Code, and directly connected with, and limited to, the administration of public social services.
- (f) To enable county administrators of general relief or assistance, or their representatives, to determine entitlement to locally provided general relief or assistance, where the determination is directly connected with, and limited to, the administration of general relief or assistance.
- (g) To enable county district attorneys, or their representatives, to seek criminal, civil, or administrative remedies in connection with the unlawful application for, or receipt of, relief provided under Division 9 (commencing with Section 10000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.
- (h) To enable the director or his or her representative to carry out his or her responsibilities under this code.
- (i) To enable county departments of collection or their representatives to determine entitlement to medical assistance services rendered pursuant to Part 5 (commencing with Section 17000) of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and, when appropriate, to enable collection for the county's expenditures for these medical assistance services.
- (j) To furnish an employer, or his or her authorized agent, with information including, but not limited to, the applicant's or recipient's name, social security number, address, employable skills, and job placement in order to enable him or her to fully discharge his or her obligations or safeguard his or her rights under the elements of a joint union, management, and Employment Development Department agreement as are deemed necessary to assist displaced workers to obtain new employment under the provisions of Chapter 2.9 (commencing with Section 9970) of Part 1 of Division 3 and related provisions of Division 3 (commencing with Section 9000). The information shall be limited to any information gathered under these divisions by the department and authorized for release by the labor organization which shall act as an agent for the affected workers under terms of the agreement and shall participate in defining the information release provisions.

(k) To provide any law enforcement agency with the name, address, telephone number, birth date, social security number, physical description, and names and addresses of present and past employers, of any victim, suspect, missing person, potential witness, or person for whom a felony arrest warrant has been issued, when a request for this information is made by any investigator or peace officer as defined by Sections 830.1 and 830.2 of the Penal Code and designated by the head of the law enforcement agency and who requests this information in the course of and as a part of an investigation into the commission of a crime where there is a reasonable suspicion that the crime is a felony and that the information would lead to relevant evidence. The information provided pursuant to this subdivision shall be provided to the extent permitted by federal law and regulations, and to the extent the information is available and accessible within the constraints and configurations of existing department records. Any person who receives any information under this subdivision shall make a written report of the information to the law enforcement agency that employs him or her, for filing under the normal procedures of that agency. Any officer or employee of the department who discloses information in violation of this subdivision is guilty of a misdemeanor. Any person who obtains information in violation of this subdivision is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(1) This subdivision shall not be construed to authorize the release of a general list identifying individuals applying for or receiving benefits to any law enforcement agency.

(2) The department shall maintain records pursuant to this subdivision only for periods required under regulations or statutes enacted for the administration of its programs.

(3) This subdivision shall not be construed as limiting the information provided to law enforcement agencies to that pertaining only to applicants for, or recipients of, benefits.

(4) The department shall notify all applicants for benefits that release of confidential information from their records will not be protected should there be a felony arrest warrant issued against the applicant or in the event of an investigation by a law enforcement agency into the commission of a felony.

(l) Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize or permit the use of information obtained in the administration of this code by any private collection agency.

(m) To provide the State Teachers' Retirement System, pursuant to Section 22242 of the Education Code, with information relating to the earnings of any person who is receiving a disability allowance, or disability retirement allowance, from the State Teachers' Retirement System. The earnings information shall be released to the Teachers' Retirement Board only upon written request from the board specifying that the person is receiving a disability allowance or disability retirement allowance from the system. The request may be made by the chief executive officer of the system or by an employee of the system so authorized and identified by name and title by the chief executive officer in writing.

(n) To provide the Public Employees' Retirement System, pursuant to Section 20143 of the Government Code, with information relating to the earnings of any person who is receiving a disability retirement allowance from the Public Employees' Retirement System. The earnings information shall be released to the Board of Administration of the system only upon written request from the board specifying that the person is receiving a disability retirement allowance from the system. The request may be made by the executive officer of the system or by an employee of the system so authorized and identified by name and title by the executive officer in writing.

(o) To provide the University of California Retirement System with information in its possession relating to the earnings of any person who has applied for or is receiving disability income from the system. The earnings information shall be disclosed only upon written request from the system specifying that the person has applied for or is receiving disability income from the system. The request may be made by the chief administrative officer of the system or by an employee so authorized and identified by name and title by the chief administrative officer in writing. The system shall notify applicants for and recipients of disability income that earnings information from the department's records will be released upon the system's request. The information obtained pursuant to this subdivision shall be used or disclosed by the system only to determine or to verify entitlement to, or continuing eligibility for, disability income. The system shall reimburse the department for all reasonable administrative expenses incurred pursuant to this subdivision.

(p) To enable the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement in the Department of Industrial Relations to seek criminal, civil, or administrative remedies in connection with the failure to pay, or the unlawful payment of, wages pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 200) of Part 1 of Division 2 of, and Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1720) of Part 7 of Division 2 of, the Labor Code. The Division of Labor Standards Enforcement shall reimburse the department for all reasonable administrative expenses incurred pursuant to this subdivision.

(q) To enable the federal Department of Health and Human Services, Office of Child Support Enforcement, Federal Parent Locator Service, to administer its child support enforcement programs under Title IV of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 651 et seq.).

(r) To provide county probation departments with wage and claim information in its possession that will assist those departments in the location of victims of crime who, by state mandate or court order, are entitled to restitution that has been, or can be recovered, and to assist in the collection of money owed to the county or the state by any person who has been directed by state mandate or court order to pay restitution, fines, penalties, assessments, or fees as a result of a violation of law. Information provided about victims of crime shall be limited to data necessary to assist in locating them. The county shall reimburse the department for all reasonable administrative expenses incurred pursuant to this subdivision. Except as provided by Section 1463.007 of the Penal Code, any officer or employee of the department who discloses information in violation of this subdivision is guilty of a misdemeanor. Except as provided by Section 1463.007 of the Penal Code, any person who obtains information in violation of this subdivision is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(s) To provide the Student Aid Commission with information concerning any individuals who are delinquent or in default on guaranteed student loans or who owe repayment of funds received through other financial assistance programs administered by the commission. The information obtained pursuant to this subdivision shall be utilized by the commission exclusively to enable the collection of defaulted loans and other funds owed, pursuant to the authority granted in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 69500) of Part 42 of the Education Code and Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 30000) of Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations. The information released by the director for the purposes of this subdivision shall not include any employment, wage, or other information concerning any person who is receiving unemployment insurance benefits. The information shall be released to the commission only upon written request from the director of the commission or by an employee so authorized and identified by name and title by the director. The commission shall reimburse the department for all reasonable administrative expenses incurred pursuant to this subdivision.

(t) To provide an authorized governmental agency with any or all relevant information that relates to any specific workers' compensation insurance fraud investigation. The information shall be provided to the extent permitted by federal law and regulations. For the purposes of this subdivision, "authorized governmental agency" means the district attorney of any county, the office of the Attorney General, the Department of Industrial Relations, and the Department of Insurance. An authorized governmental agency may disclose this information to the State Bar, the Medical Board of California, or any other licensing board or department whose licensee is the subject of a workers' compensation insurance fraud investigation. This subdivision shall not prevent any authorized governmental agency from reporting to any board or department the suspected misconduct of any licensee of that body. The Department of Insurance or Department of Industrial Relations shall reimburse the department for all reasonable administrative expenses incurred relative to a request that it submits pursuant to this subdivision. Relevant information may include, but is not limited to, all of the following:

(1) Copies of unemployment and disability insurance application and claim forms and copies of any supporting medical records, documentation, and records pertaining thereto.

(2) Copies of returns or reports filed by an employer pursuant to Section 1088 and copies of supporting documentation.

(3) Copies of benefit payment checks issued to claimants.

(4) Copies of any documentation that specifically identifies the claimant by social security number, residence address, or telephone number.

(u) To provide employment tax information to the tax officials of Mexico, if a reciprocal agreement exists. For purposes of this subdivision, "reciprocal agreement" means a formal agreement to exchange information between national taxing officials of Mexico and taxing authorities of the State Board of Equalization, the Franchise Tax Board, and the Employment Development Department. Furthermore, the reciprocal agreement shall be limited to the exchange of information which is essential for tax administration purposes only. Taxing authorities of the State of California shall be granted tax information only on California residents. Taxing authorities of Mexico shall be granted tax information only on Mexican nationals.

(v) Wages as defined by Section 13009 and amounts required to be deducted and withheld under Section 13020 shall not be disclosed except as provided in Article 2 (commencing with Section 19542) of Chapter 7 of Part 10.2 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

SEC. 5. Section 1110 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1110. (a) Employer contributions required under Sections 976 and 976.6, the amount of benefits received by any individual pursuant to this part that is deducted from an award or settlement made by the employer under the provisions of Section 1382, and, except as provided by subdivision (b) of this section, worker contributions required under Section 984 are due and payable on the first day of the calendar month following the close of each calendar quarter and shall become delinquent if not paid on or before the last day of that month.

(b) Workers' contributions required under Section 984 are due and payable at the same time and by the same method as amounts required to be withheld under Section 13020 are paid to the department pursuant to Section 13021, regardless of the amount of accumulated unpaid liability for workers' contributions.

(c) Employer contributions submitted pursuant to Section 976.5 shall be paid on or before the last working day of March of the calendar year to which the reduced contribution rate would be applicable. Any employer whose eligibility for an unemployment insurance contribution rate determination is redetermined to make that employer eligible to submit voluntary unemployment insurance contributions in accordance with Section 976.5, may submit a voluntary unemployment insurance contribution within 30 days of the date of notification of the redetermination.

(d) Except as provided in subdivision (e), any employer described in Sections 682 and 684 may elect to report and pay employer contributions required under Sections 976 and 976.6, and worker contributions required under Section 984, annually. All contributions are due and payable on the first day of January following the close of the prior calendar year and shall become delinquent if not paid on or before the last day of that month. For purposes of this subdivision, the election shall be effective on the first day of the calendar month following the close of the calendar quarter in which the election was approved by the department. An election under this subdivision shall not be approved if the employer has an outstanding return or report delinquency on the records of the department, or an unpaid amount owed to the department, that is not the subject of a timely petition for reassessment pending before the appeals board at the time the election is filed.

(e) Any employer described in Sections 682 and 684 who pays more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) in wages annually, shall not be entitled to the election allowed in subdivision (d). If at any time during the year the total wages paid by an employer electing to file under subdivision (d) exceeds twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), the election shall be terminated at the close of that calendar quarter. In addition to the report of wages due for that quarter, the employer shall file a return and pay any contributions due for that portion of the year during which the election was in effect, and shall pay contributions in accordance with subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) for the remainder of that year.

(f) Contributions due pursuant to this section may be submitted by electronic funds transfer, as defined in Section 13021.5. Contributions submitted by electronic funds transfer shall be deemed complete in accordance with paragraph (4) of subdivision (e) of Section 13021.

SEC. 6. Section 1111 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1111. The director for good cause may extend for not to exceed 60 days the time for making a return or report or paying without penalty any amount required to be paid under this division. Any employer to whom an extension is granted and who pays the amount required within the period for which the extension is granted shall pay, in addition to the contributions, interest at the adjusted annual rate and by the method established pursuant to Section 19521 of the Revenue and Taxation Code from the date on which the payment would have been delinquent without the extension until the date of payment.

SEC. 7. Section 1111.5 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1111.5. If the Governor declares a state of emergency, the director may extend the time requirements for filing returns or reports pursuant to Section 1088 and the time requirement for payment of employer and worker contributions pursuant to Section 1110. The extension granted by the director pursuant to this section shall apply only to employers prevented by the conditions giving rise to the state of emergency from timely filing their returns or reports, or from timely payment of the taxes due.

SEC. 8. Section 1112.5 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1112.5. (a) Any employer who without good cause fails to file the reports required by subdivision (a) of Section 1088 and subdivision (a) of Section 13021 within 60 days of the time required under subdivision (a) of Section 1110 shall pay a penalty of 10 percent of the amount of contributions and personal income tax withholding required by this report. This penalty shall be in addition to the penalties required by Sections 1112 and 1126.

(b) For purposes of subdivision (a), the amount of contributions and personal income tax required by the report of contributions shall be reduced by the amount of any contributions and personal income tax paid on or before the prescribed payment dates.

SEC. 9. Section 1113.1 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1113.1. An employer who, through an error caused by excusable neglect, makes an underpayment of the amount due on a monthly report of contributions pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1088 shall not be liable for penalty or interest under Sections 1112, 1113, 1127 or 1129 if proper adjustment is made at the time of the filing of the quarterly report of contributions for the same calendar quarter under subdivision (a) of Section 1088 and an explanation of the error is attached to the report.

SEC. 10. Section 1114 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1114. (a) Any employer who, without good cause, fails to file within 15 days after service by the director of notice pursuant to Section 1206 of a specific written demand therefor, a report of wages of each of his or her workers required by this division, shall pay in addition to other amounts required, for each unreported wage item a penalty of ten dollars ($10).

(b) Any employer required by this division to file a report of wages of each of his or her workers on magnetic media as prescribed by subdivision (f) of Section 1088, who, without good cause, instead files a report of wages on paper or in another form, shall pay in addition to other amounts required, for each wage item a penalty of ten dollars ($10).

SEC. 11. Section 1115 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1115. (a) If the director finds that the collection of any contributions will be jeopardized in any case where an employing unit is insolvent, or is delinquent in a substantial amount of contributions due under this division, or is about to discontinue business at any of its known places of business, or the business is of a temporary or seasonal nature, the director may, upon giving the employing unit 10 days' notice pursuant to Section 1206:

(1) Require payment of contributions with respect to wages paid from the beginning date of the calendar quarter in which notice is given to the date designated in the notice.

(2) Require payment of contributions for reporting periods less than calendar quarters.

(b) As used in this section "reporting period" means that period less than a calendar quarter which is established by the director.

(c) Contributions required under subdivision (a)(1) of this section are due and payable on the date designated in the notice and shall become delinquent if not paid within 10 days of the due date.

(d) Contributions required under subdivision (a)(2) of this section are due and payable on the first day of the reporting period following the close of each reporting period and shall become delinquent if not paid within 10 days of the due date.

(e) The employing unit shall file within the time required for payment of contributions under this section a report or return as required by Section 1088, in the form and containing the information that the director prescribes.

SEC. 12. Section 1116 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1116. (a) (1) Every employing unit except a domestic or foreign corporation shall, within 10 days of quitting business, file with the director final returns and reports of its workers, in the form and containing the information that the director prescribes.

(2) Every domestic corporation shall, within 10 days of quitting business or within 10 days of the commencement of proceedings to windup its affairs and voluntarily dissolve, whichever expires earlier, file with the director final returns and reports of its workers, in the form and containing the information that the director prescribes.

(3) Every foreign corporation shall, within 10 days of quitting business or within 10 days of the surrender of its right to engage in business of this state in accordance with Section 2112 and subdivision (d) of Section 2114 of the Corporations Code, whichever expires the earlier, file with the director final returns and reports of its workers, in the form and containing the information that the director prescribes.

(4) As used in this section, "quitting business" does not include any change in the form or membership of an employing unit if before and after the change 50 percent or more of the control of management is held by the same individual, or is held by an individual before death and after the individual's death by the individual's estate or heirs.

(b) Contributions with respect to returns and reports required under subdivision (a) are due and payable on the first day of the applicable 10-day period established pursuant to subdivision (a) and shall become delinquent if not paid within 10 days of the due date.

(c) The director for good cause may extend for not to exceed 30 days the time for making returns and reports or paying without penalty or interest any amount required to be paid under this section.

SEC. 13. Section 1117 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Code, to read:

1117. If any employer fails to file the annual reconciliation return described in subdivision (e) of Section 1088 or subdivision (j) of Section 13021 on or before 30 days after notice has been given to the employer of his or her failure to file, unless the failure is due to good cause, the employer, in addition to any other penalties imposed by this code, shall pay a penalty of one thousand dollars ($1,000), or 5 percent of the employer and worker contributions required to be reconciled by subdivision (e) of Section 1088, whichever is less.

SEC. 14. Section 1126 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1126. If any employing unit fails to make a return or report as required under this division, the director shall make an estimate based upon any information in his or her possession or that may come into his or her possession of the amount of wages paid for employment in the period or periods for which no return or report was filed and upon the basis of the estimate shall compute and assess the amounts of employer and worker contributions payable by the employing unit, adding thereto a penalty of 10 percent of the amount of contributions.

SEC. 15. Section 1127 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1127. If the director is not satisfied with any return or report made by any employing unit of the amount of employer or worker contributions, he or she may compute the amount required to be paid upon the basis of facts contained in the return or reports or may make an estimate upon the basis of any information in his or her possession or that may come into his or her possession and make an assessment of the amount of the deficiency. If any part of the deficiency is due to negligence or intentional disregard of this division or authorized regulations, a penalty of 10 percent of the amount of the deficiency shall be added to the assessment.

SEC. 16. Section 1128 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1128. If the failure of the employing unit to file a return or report within the time required by this division and authorized regulations or if any part of the deficiency for which an assessment is made is due to fraud or an intent to evade this division or authorized regulations, a penalty of 50 percent of the amount of contributions assessed shall be added to the assessment. This penalty is in addition to the penalties provided pursuant to Sections 1126 and 1127.

1132. Except in the case of failure without good cause to file a return or report, fraud or intent to evade any provision of this division or authorized regulations, every notice of assessment shall be made within three years after the last day of the month following the close of the calendar quarter during which the contribution liability included in the assessment accrued or within three years after the deficient return or report is filed, or was due, whichever period expires the later. An employing unit may waive this limitation period or may consent to its extension.

In case of failure without good cause to file a return or report, every notice of assessment shall be made within eight years after the last day of the month following the close of the calendar quarter during which the contribution liability included in the assessment accrued. An employing unit may waive this limitation period or may consent to its extension.

SEC. 18. Section 1703 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1703. (a) If any employing unit or other person fails to pay any amount imposed under this division at the time that it becomes due and payable, the amount thereof, including penalties and interest, together with any costs, shall be a perfected and enforceable state tax lien. This lien is subject to Chapter 14 (commencing with Section 7150) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(b) For purposes of this section, amounts are "due and payable" on the following dates:

(1) For amounts disclosed on a return or report received by the director, the date of the notice by the director to the taxpayer of the amount due.

(2) For penalties imposed pursuant to Sections 1112.5, 1114, and 13052.5, the date of the notice by the director to the taxpayer of the amount due.

(3) For any amounts reestablished under Section 1875, the date of the written notice of rescission provided under subdivision (c) of that section.

(4) For all other amounts, the date the assessment is final.

(c) The lien provided by this section shall not arise during any period that Section 362 of the United States Bankruptcy Code applies to the employing unit or other person against whom the lien would otherwise apply.

SEC. 19. Section 1852 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1852. In addition to any other tax administration and collection procedures authorized in this division, the director may bring an action in the courts of this or any other state or of the United States, in the name of the State of California, to administer the provisions of, and to collect the amount of any delinquent contributions or taxes, together with penalties and interest, due under this code. No such action shall be commenced later than:

(a) Three years after the date on which any amount due on a return or report filed by an employing unit or on an assessment made by the director becomes delinquent.

(b) Ten years after:

(1) The date on which a judgment is last entered under Article 5 of this chapter.

(2) The date on which a notice of state tax lien is last recorded or filed under Section 7171 of the Government Code.

SEC. 20. Section 2117 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

2117. Any person who, with or without intent to evade any requirement of this code or any lawful requirement of the department under this code, fails to file any return or report, or to supply any information required by this code or who, with or without like intent, makes, renders, signs, or verifies any false or fraudulent return, report, or statement, or supplies any false or fraudulent information, is liable for a civil penalty of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), and is also guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction, be fined an amount not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000), or be imprisoned for not more than one year, or both the fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 21. Section 2117.5 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

2117.5. Any person who, within the time required by this code, willfully fails to file any return or report, or to supply any information with intent to evade any tax imposed by this code, or who, willfully and with like intent, makes, renders, signs, or verifies any false or fraudulent return, report, or statement or supplies any false or fraudulent information, is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed one year, or in the state prison, or by a fine of not more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), or by both the fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court.

2121. Any person who willfully aids or assists in, or procures, counsels, or advises the preparation or presentation under, or in connection with any matter arising under, this code, of a return, report, affidavit, claim, or other document that is fraudulent or is false as to any material matter, whether or not the falsity or fraud is with the knowledge or consent of the person authorized or required to present the return, affidavit, claim, or document is in violation of this chapter.

SEC. 23. Section 2123 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

2123. The certificate of the department to the effect that a return or report has not been filed or that information has not been supplied as required by Division 6 (commencing with Section 13000) is prima facie evidence that the return or report has not been filed or that the information has not been supplied.

SEC. 24. Section 13002 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

13002. The following provisions of this code shall apply to any amount required to be deducted, reported, and paid to the department under this division:

(1) Sections 301, 305, 306, 310, 311, 312, 317, and 318, relating to general administrative powers of the department.

(2) Sections 403 to 413, inclusive, Section 1336, and Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 1951) of Part 1 of Division 1, relating to appeals and hearing procedures.

(3) Sections 1110.6, 1111, 1112, 1113, 1113.1, 1114, 1115, 1116, and 1117 relating to the making of returns or the payment of reported contributions.

(4) Article 8 (commencing with Section 1126) of Chapter 4 of Part 1 of Division 1, relating to assessments.

(5) Article 9 (commencing with Section 1176), except Section 1176, of Chapter 4 of Part 1 of Division 1, relating to refunds and overpayments.

(6) Article 10 (commencing with Section 1206) of Chapter 4 of Part 1 of Division 1, relating to notice.

(7) Article 11 (commencing with Section 1221) of Chapter 4 of Part 1 of Division 1, relating to administrative appellate review.

(8) Article 12 (commencing with Section 1241) of Chapter 4 of Part 1 of Division 1, relating to judicial review.

(9) Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 1701) of Part 1 of Division 1, relating to collections.

(10) Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 2101) of Part 1 of Division 1, relating to violations.

SEC. 25. Section 13021 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

13021. (a) Every employer required to withhold any tax under Section 13020 shall for each calendar quarter, whether or not wages or payments are paid in the quarter, file a withholding report and a report of wages in a form prescribed by the department, and pay over the taxes so required to be withheld. The report of wages shall include individual amounts required to be withheld under Section 13020. Except as provided in subdivisions (c) and (d) of this section, the employer shall file a withholding report and remit the total amount of income taxes withheld during the calendar quarter on or before the last day of the month following the close of the calendar quarter.

(b) Every employer electing to file a single annual return under subdivision (d) of Section 1110 shall report and pay any taxes withheld under Section 13020 on an annual basis within the time specified in subdivision (d) of Section 1110.

(c) (1) Effective January 1, 1995, whenever an employer is required, for federal income tax purposes, to remit the total amount of withheld federal income tax in accordance with Section 6302 of the Internal Revenue Code and regulations thereunder, and the accumulated amount of state income tax withheld is more than five hundred dollars ($500), the employer shall remit the total amount of income tax withheld for state income tax purposes within the number of banking days as specified for withheld federal income taxes by Section 6302 of the Internal Revenue Code, and regulations thereunder.

(2) Effective January 1, 1996, the five hundred dollar ($500) amount referred to in paragraph (1) shall be adjusted annually as follows, based on the annual average rate of interest earned on the Pooled Money Investment Fund as of June 30 in the prior fiscal year:

Average Rate of Interest

Greater than or equal to 9 percent:	$ 75
Less than 9 percent, but greater than or equal to 7 percent:	250
Less than 7 percent, but greater than or equal to 4 percent:	400
Less than 4 percent:	500

(d) (1) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) and (c), for calendar years beginning prior to January 1, 1995, if in the 12-month period ending June 30 of the prior year the cumulative average payment made pursuant to this division or Section 1110, for eighth-monthly periods, as defined under Section 6302 of the Internal Revenue Code and regulations thereunder, was fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) or more, the employer shall remit the total amount of income tax withheld within three banking days following the close of each eighth-monthly period, as defined by Section 6302 of the Internal Revenue Code and regulations thereunder. For purposes of this subdivision, payment shall be made by electronic funds transfer in accordance with Section 13021.5, for one calendar year beginning on January 1. Payment is deemed complete on the date the electronic funds transfer is initiated, if settlement to the state's demand account occurs on or before the banking day following the date the transfer is initiated. If settlement to the state's demand account does not occur on or before the banking day following the date the transfer is initiated, payment is deemed complete on the date settlement occurs. The department shall, on or before October 31 of the prior year, notify all employers required to make payment by electronic funds transfer of these requirements.

(2) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) and (c), for calendar years beginning on or after January 1, 1995, if in the 12-month period ending June 30 of the prior year, the cumulative average payment made pursuant to this division or Section 1110 for any deposit periods, as defined under Section 6302 of the Internal Revenue Code and regulations thereunder, was twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) or more, the employer shall remit the total amount of income tax withheld within the number of banking days as specified for federal income taxes by Section 6302 of the Internal Revenue Code and regulations thereunder. For purposes of this subdivision, payment shall be made by electronic funds transfer in accordance with Section 13021.5, for one calendar year beginning on January 1. Payment is deemed complete on the date the electronic funds transfer is initiated, if settlement to the state's demand account occurs on or before the banking day following the date the transfer is initiated. If settlement to the state's demand account does not occur on or before the banking day following the date the transfer is initiated, payment is deemed complete on the date settlement occurs. The department shall, on or before October 31 of the prior year, notify all employers required by this paragraph to make payments by electronic funds transfer of these requirements.

(3) Notwithstanding paragraph (2), effective January 1, 1995, electronic funds transfer payments that are subject to the one-day deposit rule, as defined by Section 6302 of the Internal Revenue Code and regulations thereunder, shall be deemed timely if the payment settles to the state's demand account within three banking days after the date the employer meets the threshold for the one-day deposit rule.

(4) Any taxpayer required to remit payments pursuant to paragraphs (1) and (2) may request from the department a waiver of those requirements. The department may grant a waiver only if it determines that the particular amounts paid in excess of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) or twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), as stated in paragraphs (1) and (2), respectively, were the result of an unprecedented occurrence for that employer, and were not representative of the employer's cumulative average payment in prior years.

(5) Any state agency required to remit payments pursuant to paragraphs (1) and (2) may request a waiver of those requirements from the department. The department may grant a waiver if it determines that there will not be a negative impact on the interest earnings of the General Fund. If there is a negative impact to the General Fund, the department may grant a waiver if the requesting state agency follows procedures designated by the department to mitigate the impact to the General Fund.

(e) Any employer not required to make payment pursuant to subdivision (d) of this section may elect to make payment by electronic funds transfer in accordance with Section 13021.5 under the following conditions:

(1) The election shall be made in a form, and shall contain information, as prescribed by the director, and shall be subject to approval by the department.

(2) If approved, the election shall be effective on the date specified in the notification to the employer of approval.

(3) The election shall be operative from the date specified in the notification of approval, and shall continue in effect until terminated by the employer or the department.

(4) Funds remitted by electronic funds transfer pursuant to this subdivision shall be deemed complete in accordance with subdivision (d) or as deemed appropriate by the director to encourage use of this payment method.

(f) Notwithstanding Section 1112, no interest or penalties shall be assessed against any employer who remits at least 95 percent of the amount required by subdivision (c) or (d), provided that the failure to remit the full amount is not willful and any remaining amount due is paid with the next payment. The director may allow any employer to submit the amounts due from multiple locations upon a showing that those submissions are necessary to comply with the provisions of subdivision (c) or (d).

(g) The department may, if it believes that action is necessary, require any employer to make the report required by this section and pay to it the tax deducted and withheld at any time, or from time to time but no less frequently than provided for in subdivision (a).

(h) Any employer required to withhold any tax and who is not required to make payment under subdivision (c) shall remit the total amount of income tax withheld during each month of each calendar quarter, on or before the 15th day of the subsequent month if the income tax withheld for any of the three months or, cumulatively for two or more months, is three hundred fifty dollars ($350) or more.

(i) For purposes of subdivisions (a), (c), and (h), payment is deemed complete when it is placed in a properly addressed envelope, bearing the correct postage, and it is deposited in the United States mail.

(j) In addition to the withholding report and report of wages described in subdivision (a), each employer shall file with the director an annual reconciliation return showing the amount required to be withheld under Section 13020, and any other information the director shall prescribe. This annual reconciliation return shall be due on the first day of January following the close of the prior calendar year and shall become delinquent if not filed on or before the last day of that month.

(k) If an employer demonstrates that an undue hardship would be imposed, the director may authorize an exemption from the requirement in subdivision (a) to report individual amounts withheld under Section 13020 and the requirement in subdivision (j) to file the annual reconciliation return for the 1995 calendar year only. Any request for exemption must be filed on or before January 15, 1995. Upon approval of a request for exemption under this subdivision, the employer shall file quarterly returns reporting the amount withheld under Section 13020, the statement required to be furnished under Section 13050, and the annual return required by Section 13053, for the 1995 calendar year only.

13021.5. (a) "Electronic funds transfer" means any transfer of funds, other than a transaction originated by check, draft, or similar paper instrument, that is initiated through an electronic terminal, telephonic instrument, or computer or magnetic tape, so as to order, instruct, or authorize a financial institution to debit or credit an account. Electronic funds transfers shall be accomplished by an automated clearinghouse debit, an automated clearinghouse credit, Fedwire, or by other specific electronic funds transfer methods approved in advance by the department.

(b) "Automated clearinghouse" means any federal reserve bank, or an organization established in agreement with the National Automated Clearing House Association, that operates as a clearinghouse for transmitting or receiving entries between banks and/or bank accounts and which authorizes an electronic transfer of funds between those banks or bank accounts.

(c) "Automated clearinghouse debit" means a transaction in which the state, through its designated depository bank, originates an automated clearinghouse transaction debiting the employer's bank account and crediting the state's bank account for the amount of tax. Banking costs incurred for the automated clearinghouse debit transaction shall be paid by the state.

(d) "Automated clearinghouse credit" means an automated clearinghouse transaction in which the employer through its own bank, originates an entry crediting the state's bank account and debiting its own bank account. Banking costs incurred for the automated clearinghouse credit transaction charged to the employer and to the state shall be paid by the employer.

(e) "Fedwire" means any transaction originated by the employer and utilizing the national electronic payment system to transfer funds through the federal reserve banks, pursuant to which the employer debits its own bank account and credits the state's bank account. Electronic funds transfer payments may be made by Fedwire only if prior approval is obtained from the department and payment cannot, for good cause, be made pursuant to subdivision (a). Banking costs incurred for the Fedwire transaction charged to the employer and to the state shall be paid by the employer.

(f) "Banking day" means any day other than a Saturday, Sunday, or banking holiday as recognized by the Federal Reserve System.

(g) "Settlement date" means the date on which an exchange of funds with respect to an entry is reflected on the books of the Federal Reserve Bank.

(h) For the purposes of Section 13021, the "cumulative average payment" means the cumulative dollar amount of deposits divided by the number of payments submitted during a given period. For the purposes of this section, the "cumulative average payment" may also be defined as a single annual deposit, when only one payment is made during the 12-month period ending June 30.

SEC. 27. Section 13050 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

13050. (a) Every employer or person required to deduct and withhold from an employee a tax under Section 986, 3260, or 13020, or who would have been required to deduct and withhold a tax under Section 13020 (determined without regard to Section 13025) if the employee had claimed no more than one withholding exemption, shall furnish to each employee in respect of the remuneration paid by the person to the employee during the calendar year, on or before January 31 of the succeeding year, or, if his or her employment is terminated before the close of the calendar year, on the day on which the last payment of remuneration is made, a written statement showing all of the following:

- (1) The name of the person.
- (2) The name of the employee, and his or her social security or identifying number if wages have been paid.
- (3) The total amount of wages, except that in the case of tips received by an employee in the course of his or her employment, the amounts required shall include only those tips included in statements furnished to the employer pursuant to Section 13055.
- (4) The total amount deducted and withheld as tax under Section 13020.
- (5) The total amount of worker contributions paid by the employee pursuant to Section 986.
- (6) The total amount of worker contributions paid by the employee pursuant to Section 3260.
- (7) The total amount of elective deferrals (within the meaning of Section 402(g)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code) and compensation deferred pursuant to Section 457 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) The statement required to be furnished pursuant to this section in respect of any remuneration shall be furnished at other times, shall contain other information, and shall be in a form, as the department may by authorized regulations prescribe.

(c) (1) A duplicate of any statement made pursuant to this section and in accordance with authorized regulations prescribed by the department shall, when required by the regulations, be filed with the department.

(2) Effective January 1, 1995, this subdivision shall apply only to those employers exempted under subdivision (h) of Section 1088 or subdivision (k) of Section 13021 from the requirements to report individual amounts withheld on the report of wages and to file the annual reconciliation return for the 1995 calendar year only. This subdivision shall remain in effect only until March 1, 1996, and on that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute that is enacted before March 1, 1996, deletes or extends that date.

(d) If, during any calendar year, any person makes a payment of third-party sick pay to an employee, that person shall, on or before January 15 of the succeeding year, furnish a written statement to the employer in respect of whom the payment was made showing all of the following:

- (1) The name and, if there is withholding under this division, the social security number of that employee.

(2) The total amount of the third-party sick pay paid to that employee during the calendar year.

(3) The total amount, if any, deducted and withheld from that sick pay under this division. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the term "third-party sick pay" means any sick pay, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 13028.6, which does not constitute wages for purposes of this division, determined without regard to subdivision (a) of Section 13028.6.

(A) The reporting requirements of subdivision (a) with respect to any payments shall, with respect to those payments, be in lieu of the requirements of subdivision (a) and of Section 18637 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(B) For purposes of Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 2101) of Part 1 of Division 1, the statements required to be furnished by this subdivision shall be treated as statements required under this section to be furnished to employees.

(C) Every employer who receives a statement under this subdivision with respect to sick pay paid to any employee during any calendar year shall, on or before January 31 of the succeeding year, furnish a written statement to that employee showing all of the following:

(i) The information shown on the statement furnished under this subdivision.

(ii) If any portion of the sick pay is excludable from gross income pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 17131) of Chapter 3 of Part 10 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, the portion that is not so excludable and the portion that is so excludable. To the extent practicable, the information required under the preceding sentence shall be furnished on or with the statement, if any, required under subdivision (a).

(e) The Franchise Tax Board shall be allowed access to the information filed with the department pursuant to this section.

SEC. 28. Section 13051 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

13051. (a) (1) If a person or employer fails to file a statement of the aggregate amount of payments to another person required by subdivision (c) of Section 13050, unless the failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect, the person or employer shall pay ten dollars ($10) for each failure but the total amount imposed on the delinquent person or employer for all failures during any calendar year shall not exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

(2) If one or more failures to which paragraph (1) applies are due to intentional disregard of the filing requirement, then with respect to those failures, all of the following shall apply:

(A) The penalty imposed under paragraph (1) shall not be less than an amount equal to 2 percent of the aggregate amount of the items required to be reported.

(B) The ten thousand dollar ($10,000) limitation under paragraph

(1) shall not be applicable.

(3) The penalty shall be assessed and collected in the same manner as the tax.

(b) The amendments to this section made by the 1981–82 Regular Session of the Legislature shall apply to statements required to be furnished after December 31, 1981.

(c) The amendments to this section made by the 1983–84 Regular Session of the Legislature shall apply to statements required to be furnished after December 31, 1983.

(d) Effective January 1, 1995, this section shall apply only to those employers exempted under subdivision (h) of Section 1088 or subdivision (k) of Section 13021 from the requirement to report individual amounts withheld on the report of wages and to file the annual reconciliation return for the 1995 calendar year only. This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1996, and on that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute that is enacted before January 1, 1996, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 29. Section 13053 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

13053. (a) Every employer shall file an annual return with the department, on forms prescribed by the department, reporting the total tax withheld for the year pursuant to Section 13020 at the time prescribed by the director. The employer shall include with the return, in a manner prescribed by the director, duplicates of the statements required pursuant to Section 13050.

(b) Effective January 1, 1995, this section shall apply only to those employers exempted under subdivision (h) of Section 1088 or subdivision (k) of Section 13021 from the requirement to report individual amounts withheld on the report of wages and to file the annual reconciliation return for the 1995 calendar year only. This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1996, and on that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute that is enacted before January 1, 1996, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 30. Section 13054 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

13054. (a) If an employer fails to file the annual report of compensation paid and taxes withheld, required under Section 13053, on or before 30 days after notice has been given to the employer of his or her failure to file, unless the failure is due to reasonable cause, the employer, in addition to any other penalties imposed by this division and Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) and Part 10.2 (commencing with Section 18401) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, shall pay a penalty of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) or 100 percent of the tax amount required to be reported by Section 13053, whichever is less. The penalty shall be assessed and collected in the same manner as the tax.

(b) Effective January 1, 1995, this section shall apply only to those employers exempted under subdivision (h) of Section 1088 or subdivision (k) of Section 13021 from the requirement to report individual amounts withheld on the report of wages and to file the annual reconciliation return for the 1995 calendar year only. This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1996, and on that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute that is enacted before January 1, 1996, deletes or extends that date.

13056. (a) When required by authorized regulations prescribed by the department:

(1) Any person or employer required under the authority of this division to make a return, report, statement, or other document shall include in the return, report, statement, or other document the identifying number as may be prescribed for securing proper identification of the person.

(2) Any person with respect to whom a return, report, statement, or other document is required under the authority of this division to be made by another person shall furnish to the other person the identifying number as may be prescribed for securing his or her proper identification.

(3) Any person or employer required under the authority of this division to make a return, report, statement, or other document with respect to another person shall request from the other person, and shall include in the return, report, statement, or other document, the identifying number as may be prescribed for securing proper identification of the other person.

(b) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), a return or report of any person with respect to his or her liability for tax, or any statement or other document in support thereof, shall not be considered for purposes of paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (a) as a return, report, statement, or other document with respect to another person.

(2) For purposes of paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (a), a return or report of an estate or trust with respect to its liability for tax, and any statement or other document in support thereof, shall be considered as a return, report, statement, or other document with respect to each beneficiary of the estate or trust.

(c) For purposes of this section, the department is authorized to require the information that may be necessary to assign an identifying number to any person.

SEC. 32. Section 13057 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

13057. (a) If any person who is required by regulations prescribed under Section 13056 to provide a required identifying number fails without good cause to comply with that requirement at the time prescribed by the regulations, the person shall pay a penalty of five dollars ($5) for each failure:

(1) To include his or her identifying number in any return, report, statement, or other document.

(2) To furnish his or her identifying number to another person.

(3) To include in any return, report, statement, or other document made with respect to another person the identifying number of the other person.

(4) To furnish any other agency's taxpayer identification number.

(b) The penalty under this section shall be assessed and collected in the same manner as the tax.

SEC. 33. Section 13058 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

13058. Except as otherwise provided by the department, any return, report, statement, or other document required to be made under any provision of this division or authorized regulations shall contain, or be verified by, a written declaration that it is made under the penalty of perjury. The returns, reports, and all other returns, reports, statements, or other documents or copies thereof required by this division, shall be in the form as the department may from time to time prescribe, and shall be filed with the department. The department shall prepare blank forms for the returns, reports, declarations, statements, or other documents and shall distribute them throughout the state and furnish them upon application. Failure to receive or secure the form does not relieve any employer or person from making any return, report, statement, or other document required.

SEC. 34. The Employment Development Department shall, upon appropriation in the annual Budget Act, allocate resources from any savings that may be realized by this act to tax collection activities sufficient to recover any lost interest earnings to the General Fund that may be caused by this act.

An act to amend Sections 1026, 1375, 1380, and 2121 of, and to add Section 1144 to, the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to unemployment insurance.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1026 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1026. (a) The director shall maintain a separate reserve account for each employer, and shall credit each reserve account with all the contributions paid on his or her behalf.

(b) Unemployment compensation benefits paid to an unemployed individual during any benefit year shall be charged against the reserve account of his or her employer during his or her base period. If the individual performed services in employment for more than one employer during his or her base period, unemployment compensation benefits paid to him or her shall be charged against the respective reserve accounts of the employers in the proportion that the total wages paid to the individual in employment for each employer bears to the total wages paid to the individual in employment for all employers during the base period.

(c) The director shall credit the interest earned by the Unemployment Fund to each positive reserve employer account in proportion to the amount the account bears to the total of all positive reserve accounts.

(d) Except as provided by Sections 803 and 821, in proportion to the amount each employer's taxable wages bears to the total of all employers' taxable wages, the director shall credit to each employer reserve account all of the following:

(1) Benefit overpayments collected in the four quarters prior to the computation date.

(2) Positive balances in reserve accounts canceled pursuant to Section 1029.

(3) Other nontax income.

(e) Except as provided by Sections 803 and 821, in the same proportion as provided in subdivision (d), the director shall charge to each employer reserve account all of the following:

(1) The increase in the total of all negative reserve account balances as computed by subtracting the total of all negative reserve account balances on July 31 of each year prior to the cancellations required by Section 1027.5 from the total of all negative reserve account balances on the prior July 31 after the cancellations required by Section 1027.5, except as provided by Section 1144.

(2) Benefit overpayments established in the four quarters prior to the computation date.

(3) Benefits not charged to employer reserve accounts pursuant to Section 1032, 1032.5, 1034, 1035, 1036, 1335, 1338, or 1380.

(4) Other items of expense and benefit charges not included in active employer reserve accounts.

SEC. 2. Section 1144 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Code, to read:

1144. (a) Any employer who induces, solicits, or coerces an employee to file a false or fraudulent claim for benefits shall be assessed a penalty in an amount equal to 100 percent of the liability established under Sections 1375 and 1375.1 against the employee. Amounts collected under this section shall be deposited in the fund from which the overpayment was made and as prescribed in Section 1375.1, in the following order of priority:

(1) First to the fund from which the overpayment was made, up to the total amount of the benefit overpayment liability assessed against the employee under Section 1375.

(2) Second to the Benefit Audit Fund, up to the total amount assessed against the employee under Section 1375.1.

(b) The reserve account of any employer who is assessed under this section shall not be relieved of the charges for benefits related to the fraudulent claim.

SEC. 3. Section 1375 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1375. Any person who is overpaid any amount of benefits under this part is liable for the amount overpaid unless any of the following is applicable:

(a) (1) The overpayment was not due to fraud, misrepresentation or willful nondisclosure on the part of the recipient, and (2) the overpayment was received without fault on the part of the recipient, and its recovery would be against equity and good conscience.

(b) The person who received the overpayment cooperates with the department in an investigation that results in the assessment of a penalty under Section 1144 or the prosecution or other action taken to impose a penalty pursuant to Section 2121.

(c) The department determines that it is in the interest of justice to waive all or part of the liability established under this section because the overpayment was a direct result of inducement, solicitation, or coercion on the part of the employer.

1380. No person shall be liable for the amount of benefits received where the benefits were paid pursuant to an administrative law judge's decision which affirmed an initial determination or in accordance with a final decision of the appeals board, regardless of any further appeal. An employer's experience rating account shall not be charged with any benefits erroneously or unlawfully paid, except as provided in Section 1026 or 1144.

SEC. 5. Section 2121 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

2121. Any person who willfully aids or assists in, or procures, counsels, advises, or coerces anyone in the preparation or presentation under, or in connection with any matter arising under, this code, of a return, report, affidavit, claim, or other document, that is fraudulent or is false as to any material matter, whether or not the falsity or fraud is with the knowledge or consent of the person authorized or required to present the return, report, affidavit, claim, or document is in violation of this chapter.

An act to add Section 25360.3 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous substances.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25360.3 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25360.3. (a) For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the following meaning:

(1) "Easement" means a conservation easement, as defined in Section 815.1 of the Civil Code.

(2) "Environmental assessment" means an investigation of real property, conducted by an independent qualified environmental consultant, to discover the presence or likely presence of a release or a threat of a release of a hazardous substance at, on, to, or from the real property. An environmental assessment shall include, but is not limited to, an investigation of the historical use of the real property, any prior releases, records, consultant reports and regulatory agency correspondence, a visual survey of the real property, and, if warranted, sampling and analytical testing.

(3) "Owner" means either of the following:

(A) An independent special district, as defined in Section 56044 of the Government Code.

(B) An entity or organization that holds an easement.

(4) "Property" means either of the following:

(A) Real property acquired by a special district by means of a gift or donation for which an environmental assessment was completed prior to the transfer or conveyance of the real property to the special district.

(B) An easement for which an environmental assessment was completed prior to the transfer or conveyance of the easement to an entity or organization authorized to accept the easement pursuant to Section 815.3 of the Civil Code.

(b) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, if an environmental assessment of property discovers no evidence of the presence or likely presence of a release or a threat of a release of a hazardous substance, and a hazardous substance release is subsequently discovered on, to, or from that property, the owner of that property is entitled to a rebuttable presumption, affecting the burden of producing evidence, that the owner is not a liable person or responsible party for purposes of this chapter. An owner is entitled to this presumption whether the action is brought by the state or by a private party seeking contribution or indemnification.

(2) In an action brought against an owner of property to recover costs or expenditures incurred from the state account or the Hazardous Substance Cleanup Fund pursuant to this chapter in response to a hazardous substance release, the presumption may be rebutted if it is established by a preponderance of the evidence that the facts upon which the department made the certification pursuant to paragraph (1), (2), (3), or (4) of subdivision (c) are true.

(c) An action for recovery of costs or expenditures incurred from the state account or the Hazardous Substance Cleanup Fund pursuant to this chapter in response to a hazardous substance release shall not be brought against an owner of property unless the department first certifies that, as found by the department, one of the following situations applies:

(1) The hazardous substance release occurred on or after the date that the owner acquired the property.

(2) The hazardous substance release occurred before the date that the owner acquired the property and, at the time of the acquisition, the owner knew, or had reason to know, of the hazardous substance release.

(3) The environmental assessment applicable to the property was not properly carried out, was fraudulently completed, or involves the negligent or intentional nondisclosure of information.

(4) The hazardous substance release was discovered on or after the date of acquisition and the owner failed to exercise due care with respect to the release, taking into consideration the characteristics of the hazardous substance in light of all relevant facts and circumstances.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, this section governs liability pursuant to this chapter for an owner of property, as defined in subdivision (a).

(e) This section is applicable only to property which is acquired by the owner on or after January 1, 1995.

CHAPTER 1052

An act to amend Sections 19517, 19581, and 19582 of, and to add Section 19582.5 to, the Business and Professions Code, relating to horseracing.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19517 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19517. (a) The board, upon due consideration, may overrule any steward's decision other than a decision to disqualify a horse due to a foul or a riding or a driving infraction in a race, if a preponderance of the evidence indicates any of the following:

- (1) The steward mistakenly interpreted the law.
- (2) New evidence of a convincing nature is produced.
- (3) The best interests of racing and the state may be better served.

(b) However, any decision pertaining to the finish of a race, as used for purposes of parimutuel fund distribution to winning ticketholders, may not be overruled. Furthermore, any decision pertaining to the distribution of purses may be changed only if a claim is made in writing to the board by one of the involved owners or trainers, and a preponderance of the evidence clearly indicates to the board that one or more of the grounds for protest, as outlined in regulations adopted by the board, has been substantiated. The chairperson of the board may issue a stay of execution pending appeal from a steward's decision if the facts justify the action.

SEC. 1.5. Section 19581 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19581. No substance of any kind shall be administered by any means to a horse after it has been entered to race in a horserace, unless the board has, by regulation, specifically authorized the use of the substance and the quantity and composition thereof. The board may require that the official veterinarian approve, in writing, the administration of those substances in accordance with the regulations of the board. Any medication or equipment used to dispense medication that is located within the inclosure is subject to search and inspection at the request of any board official.

SEC. 2. Section 19582 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19582. (a) Violations of Section 19581, as determined by the board, are punishable as set forth in regulations adopted by the board. The board shall classify violations of Section 19581 based upon each class of prohibited drug substances, prior violations within the previous three years, and prior violations within the violator's lifetime. The board may provide for suspensions for not more than three years except as provided in subdivision (b), monetary penalties of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000), and disqualification from purses. The punishment for second and subsequent violations of Section 19581 shall be greater than for first violations for violations of each class of prohibited drug substances.

(b) A third violation of Section 19581 during the lifetime of the licensee, determined by the board to be at a class I or class II level, shall result in the permanent revocation of the person's license.

(c) Any person whose license is suspended or revoked pursuant to this section shall not be entitled to receive any material benefit or remuneration in any capacity or from any business activity permitted or allowed by the license during any period of its suspension or revocation.

(d) The penalties provided by this section are in addition to any other civil, criminal, and administrative penalties or sanctions provided by law, and do not supplant, but are cumulative to, other

SEC. 2. Section 19582.5 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

19582.5. The board may adopt regulations that prohibit the entry in a race of a horse that tests positive for a drug substance in violation of Section 19581. Upon a finding of a prohibited drug substance in an official test sample, a horse may be summarily disqualified from the race in connection with which the drug sample was taken. Upon the disqualification of a horse pursuant to these regulations, any purse, prize, award, or record for that race shall be forfeited.

An act to amend Section 11202 of, and to add Section 11216.2 to, the Vehicle Code, relating to traffic schools.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that individuals who are deaf and hard-of-hearing may require the services of a sign language interpreter or other communication aids in order to obtain access to traffic violator schools. The Legislature further finds and declares that the expense of a sign language interpreter can be high in relation to the direct costs otherwise incurred in providing instruction to these individuals. Therefore, the Legislature encourages all licensed traffic violator schools to pool their resources in order to help defray the costs of providing sign language interpreter services and other communicative aids, as appropriate, for the deaf and hard-of-hearing students.

SEC. 2. Section 11202 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read: 11202. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (c), a traffic violator school owner shall meet all of the following criteria before a license may be issued for the traffic violator school:

(1) Maintain an established place of business in this state which is open to the public. No office or place of business of a traffic violator school, including any traffic violator school branch or classroom location, may be situated within 500 feet of any court of law, unless the owner was established at the location on or before July 1, 1984.

(2) Conform to standards established by regulation of the department. In adopting the standards, the department shall consider those practices and instructional programs which may reasonably foster the knowledge, skills, and judgment necessary for compliance with traffic laws. The standards may include, but are not limited to, school personnel, equipment, curriculum, procedures for the testing and evaluation of students, recordkeeping, and business

(3) Procure and file with the department a bond of two thousand dollars ($2,000) executed by an admitted surety and conditioned upon the applicant not practicing any fraud or making any fraudulent representation which will cause a monetary loss to a person taking instruction from the applicant or to the state or any local authority.

(4) Have a classroom approved by the department and the proper equipment necessary for giving instruction to traffic violators.

(5) Have a lesson plan approved by the department and provide not less than the minimum instructional time specified in the plan. An approved lesson plan shall provide a minimum of 400 minutes of instruction, except that a lesson plan for instructing persons under the age of 18 may provide a minimum of 600 minutes of instruction.

(6) (A) Execute and file with the department an instrument designating the director as agent of the applicant for service of process, as provided in this paragraph, in any action commenced against the applicant arising out of any claim for damages suffered by any person by the applicant's violation of any provision of this code committed in relation to the specifications of the applicant's traffic violator school or any condition of the bond required by paragraph (3).

(B) The applicant shall stipulate in the instrument that any process directed to the applicant, when personal service cannot be made in this state after due diligence, may be served instead upon the director or, in the director's absence from the department's principal offices, upon any employee in charge of the office of the director, and this substituted service is of the same effect as personal service on the applicant. The instrument shall further stipulate that the agency created by the designation shall continue during the period covered by the license issued pursuant to this section and so long thereafter as the applicant may be made to answer in damages for a violation of this code for which the surety may be made liable or any condition of the bond.

(C) The instrument designating the director as agent for service of process shall be acknowledged by the applicant before a notary public.

(D) If the director or an employee of the department, in lieu of the director, is served with a summons and complaint on behalf of the licensee, one copy of the summons and complaint shall be left with the director or in the director's office in Sacramento or mailed to the office of the director in Sacramento. A fee of five dollars ($5) shall also be paid to the director or employee at the time of service of the copy of the summons and complaint, or shall be included with a summons and complaint served by mail.

(E) The service on the director or department employee pursuant to this paragraph is sufficient service on the licensee if a notice of the service and a copy of the summons and complaint is, on the same day as the service or mailing of the summons and complaint, sent by registered mail by the plaintiff or his or her attorney to the licensee. A copy of the summons and complaint shall also be mailed by the plaintiff or plaintiff's attorney to the surety on the licensee's bond at the address of the surety given in the bond, postpaid and registered with request for return receipt.

(F) The director shall keep a record of all processes served pursuant to this paragraph showing the day and hour of service, and shall retain the documents served in the department's files.

(G) If the licensee is served with process by service upon the director or a department employee in lieu of the director, the licensee has 30 days after that service within which to answer any complaint or other pleading filed in the cause. For purposes of venue, if the licensee is served with process by service upon the director or a department employee in lieu of the director, the service is considered to have been made upon the licensee in the county in which the licensee has or last had his or her established place of business.

(7) Meet the requirements of Section 11202.5 and subdivision (b) of Section 11208, relating to traffic violator school operators, if the owner is also the operator of the traffic violator school. If the owner is not the operator of the traffic violator school, the owner shall designate an operator who shall meet the requirements of Section 11202.5.

(8) Provide the department with a written assurance that the school will comply with the applicable provisions of Subchapter II or III of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 12101, et seq.), and any other federal and state laws prohibiting discrimination against individuals with disabilities. Compliance may include providing sign language interpreters or other accommodations for students with disabilities.

(b) The qualifying requirements specified in subdivision (a) shall be met within one year from the date of application for a license, or a new application and fee is required.

(c) Paragraphs (3) and (6) of subdivision (a) do not apply to public schools or other public agencies, which shall also not be required to post a cash deposit pursuant to Section 11203.

(d) Paragraph (7) of subdivision (a) does not apply to public schools or other public educational institutions.

(e) A notice approved by the department shall be posted in every traffic violator school, branch, and classroom location stating that any person involved in the offering of, or soliciting for, a completion certificate for attendance at a traffic violator school program in which the person does not attend or does not complete the minimum amount of instruction time provided by subdivision (a) may be guilty of violating Section 134 of the Penal Code.

SEC. 3. Section 11216.2 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

11216.2. Any license issued to the owner or operator of a traffic violator school under this chapter shall be automatically suspended for 30 days by the department if the department has been notified that more than one final determination has been made that the traffic violator school has violated a student's rights under the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 12101, et seq.) or any other federal or state law prohibiting discrimination against individuals with disabilities. The final determination shall be made by a federal or state court of competent jurisdiction or an appropriate federal or state administrative agency, including, but not limited to, the Department of Fair Employment and Housing, or any combination thereof.

(b) For the purpose of this subdivision, "final determination" means that no further appeal of a determination can be taken to any court because the time period for the appeal has expired.

(c) If the traffic violator school subject to suspension under this section is operated by a traffic school operator licensed pursuant to Section 11202.5 who is operating other traffic schools, the licenses of the owners of those traffic schools operated by that traffic school operator shall also be suspended for the 30-day period.

CHAPTER 1054

An act to amend Section 25144 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous waste.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature hereby finds and declares all of the following:

(a) The exemption provided by subdivision (c) of Section 25144 of the Health and Safety Code involves the recovery of oil from various process streams and waste waters by physical separation. The recovered oil is combined with normal process streams for further processing within the refinery.

(b) The recovery of oil from oil-bearing materials at petroleum refineries and related offsite locations and the subsequent beneficial use of the oil to produce fuel or other refined products should be encouraged, since it maximizes the amount of useful products produced per barrel refined. The exemption provided by subdivision (c) of Section 25144 of the Health and Safety Code from hazardous waste requirements will encourage the recovery of materials for return to the manufacturing process, thereby facilitating waste minimization.

(c) The exemption provided by subdivision (c) of Section 25144 of the Health and Safety Code is consistent with the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 6901 et seq.). In addition, the oil recovery units exempted under subdivision (c) of Section 25144 of the Health and Safety Code are subject to regulation by the California regional water quality control boards, which are authorized to take actions to abate releases from those units and to otherwise ensure that any further releases from the units do not recur.

SEC. 2. Section 25144 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25144. (a) For purposes of this section, the following terms have the following meaning:

(1) "Oil" means crude oil, or any fraction thereof, which is liquid at 60 degrees Fahrenheit and 14.7 pounds per square inch absolute pressure. "Oil" does not include any of the following, unless it is exempt from regulation under paragraph (1) of subdivision (g) of Section 279.10 or paragraph (5) of subdivision (g) of Section 279.10 of Part 279 of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations:

(A) Spent lubricating fluids which have been removed from an engine crankcase, transmission, gearbox, or differential of an automobile, bus, truck, vessel, heavy equipment, or machinery powered by an internal combustion engine.

(B) Spent industrial oils, including compressor, turbine, and bearing oil, hydraulic oil, metal-working oil, refrigeration oil, and railroad drainings.

(2) "Oil-bearing materials" means any liquid or semisolid material containing oil, partially refined petroleum products, or petroleum products. Soil from remediation projects is not oil-bearing material for purposes of subdivision (c).

(3) "Oil recovery operations" means the physical separation of oil from oil-bearing materials by means of gravity separation, centrifugation, filter pressing, or other dewatering processes, with or without the addition of heat, chemical flocculants, air, or natural gas to enhance separation.

(4) "Petroleum refinery" means an establishment that has the Standard Industrial Classification Code 2911 and which is not subject to the permit requirements for the recycling of used oil imposed pursuant to Article 9 (commencing with Section 25200).

(b) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), a biological process on the property of the producer treating oil, its products, and water, which meets the definition of a non-RCRA waste, and which produces an effluent that is continuously discharged to navigable waters in compliance with a permit issued pursuant to Section 402 of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act (33 U.S.C. Sec. 1342), is exempt from this chapter.

(2) Residues produced in the treatment process and subsequently removed that conform to any criterion adopted pursuant to Section 25141 are not exempt.

(c) To the extent consistent with the applicable provisions of the federal act, units, including associated piping, that are part of a system used for the recovery of oil from oil-bearing materials, and the associated storage of oil-bearing materials and the recovered oil, are exempt from this chapter, if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The oil recovery operations are conducted at a petroleum refinery, or at another facility owned or operated by the corporate entity that owns or operates the refinery, or a corporate parent or subsidiary of the corporate entity.

(2) The oil-bearing materials are generated at the refinery or at another facility owned or operated by the corporate entity that owns or operates the refinery, or a corporate parent or subsidiary of the corporate entity.

(3) The recovered oil is combined with normal process streams at the petroleum refinery to produce fuel or other refined petroleum products.

(4) The recovered oil is not stored in a surface impoundment or accumulated speculatively at the refinery or at an offsite facility.

(5) Any residual materials removed from a unit that is exempt under this subdivision are managed in accordance with all other applicable laws.

(6) The oil-bearing materials are excluded from classification as a waste pursuant to, or otherwise meet the requirements for an exemption under, Section 25143.2, notwithstanding subparagraph (C) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 25143.2, or Section 25143.9 or 25143.10.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to add Section 731.2 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to juveniles.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 731.2 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

731.2. (a) The Department of the Youth Authority and Fresno County may enter into a partnership for the establishment and maintenance of a pilot program juvenile boot camp similar to the program described in Section 731.6, but developed primarily by the county with the Department of the Youth Authority and the county sharing the costs equally, except as specified in subdivision (b).

(b) Under the partnership, the Department of the Youth Authority shall bear all the costs of retrofitting a facility, which is to be provided by the county at county expense.

(c) The implementation of this pilot program shall be contingent upon the appropriation of funds to the Department of the Youth Authority for the pilot program in either the Budget Act of 1996 or subsequent legislation.

CHAPTER 1056

An act to amend Section 4059 of the Family Code, relating to family law.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4059 of the Family Code is amended to read:
4059. The annual net disposable income of each parent shall be computed by deducting from his or her annual gross income the actual amounts attributable to the following items or other items permitted under this article:

(a) The state and federal income tax liability resulting from the parties' taxable income. Federal and state income tax deductions shall bear an accurate relationship to the tax status of the parties (that is, single, married, married filing separately, or head of household) and number of dependents. State and federal income taxes shall be those actually payable (not necessarily current withholding) after considering appropriate filing status, all available exclusions, deductions, and credits. Unless the parties stipulate otherwise, the tax effects of spousal support shall not be considered in determining the net disposable income of the parties for determining child support, but shall be considered in determining spousal support consistent with Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 4330) of Part 3.

(b) Deductions attributed to the employee's contribution or the self-employed worker's contribution pursuant to the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (FICA), or an amount not to exceed that allowed under FICA for persons not subject to FICA, provided that the deducted amount is used to secure retirement or disability benefits for the parent.

(c) Deductions for mandatory union dues and retirement benefits, provided that they are required as a condition of employment.

(d) Deductions for health insurance or health plan premiums for the parent and for any children the parent has an obligation to support and deductions for state disability insurance premiums.

(e) Any child or spousal support actually being paid by the parent pursuant to a court order, to or for the benefit of any person who is not a subject of the order to be established by the court. In the absence of a court order, any child support actually being paid, not to exceed the amount established by the guideline, for natural or adopted children of the parent not residing in that parent's home, who are not the subject of the order to be established by the court, and of whom the parent has a duty of support. Unless the parent proves payment of the support, no deduction shall be allowed under this subdivision.

(f) Job-related expenses, if allowed by the court after consideration of whether the expenses are necessary, the benefit to the employee, and any other relevant facts.

(g) A deduction for hardship, as defined by Sections 4070 to 4073, inclusive, and applicable published appellate court decisions. The amount of the hardship shall not be deducted from the amount of child support, but shall be deducted from the income of the party to whom it applies. In applying any hardship under paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 4071, the court shall seek to provide equity between competing child support orders. The Judicial Council shall develop a formula for calculating the maximum hardship deduction and shall submit it to the Legislature for its consideration on or before July 1, 1995.

An act to add and repeal Section 18901.5 of the Government Code, relating to the State Personnel Board.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18901.5 is added to the Government Code to read:

18901.5. (a) Notwithstanding subdivision (a) of Section 18901, the board may authorize the retention of eligibles on an employment list for up to six years based on the following factors:

(1) The number of names remaining on the list in relation to the anticipated number of vacancies.

(2) The qualifications of the eligibles.

(3) The gender, ethnic, and disability composition of the eligibles remaining on the list.

(4) The lack of unreasonable denial of a competitive opportunity for potential applicants.

(5) The availability of alternative appointment options.

(6) The modifications that have been made in the duties, responsibilities, and qualifications in the class specifications since the establishment of the eligible list.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1996, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1996, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 1058

An act to amend Section 21080.10 of the Public Resources Code, relating to environmental quality.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

21080.10. This division does not apply to any of the following:

(a) An extension of time, granted pursuant to Section 65361 of the Government Code, for the preparation and adoption of one or more elements of a city or county general plan.

(b) Actions taken by the Department of Housing and Community Development or the California Housing Finance Agency to provide financial assistance or insurance for the development and construction of residential housing for persons and families of low or moderate income, as defined in Section 50093 of the Health and Safety Code, if the project which is the subject of the application for financial assistance or insurance will be reviewed pursuant to this division by another public agency.

(c) (1) Any development project which consists of the construction, conversion, or use of residential housing for agricultural employees, as defined in paragraph (2), that is affordable to lower-income households, as defined in Section 50079.5 of the Health and Safety Code, if there is no public financial assistance for the development project and the developer of the development project provides sufficient legal commitments to the appropriate local agency to ensure the continued availability and use of the housing units for lower-income households for a period of at least 15 years, or any development project that consists of the construction, conversion, or use of residential housing for agricultural employees, as defined in paragraph (2) that is affordable to low- and moderate-income households, as defined in paragraph (2) of subdivision (h) of Section 65589.5 of the Government Code, if there is public financial assistance for the development project and the developer of the development project provides sufficient legal commitments to the appropriate local agency to ensure the continued availability and use of the housing units for low- and moderate-income households for a period of at least 15 years, if either type of development project meets all of the following requirements:

(A) (i) If the development project is proposed for an urbanized area, it is located on a project site which is adjacent, on at least two sides, to land that has been developed, and consists of not more than 45 units, or is housing for a total of 45 or fewer agricultural employees if the housing consists of dormitories, barracks, or other group living facilities.

(ii) If the development project is proposed for a nonurbanized area, it is located on a project site zoned for general agricultural use, and consists of not more than 20 units, or is housing for a total of 20 or fewer agricultural workers if the housing consists of dormitories, barracks, or other group living facilities.

(B) The development project is consistent with the jurisdiction's general plan as it existed on the date that the application was deemed complete.

(C) The development project is consistent with the zoning designation, as specified in the zoning ordinance as it existed on the date that the application was deemed complete, unless the zoning is inconsistent with the general plan because the local agency has not rezoned the property to bring it into conformity with the general plan.

(D) The development project site is not more than five acres in area, except that a project site located in an area with a population density of at least 1,000 persons per square mile shall not be more than two acres in area.

(E) The development project site can be adequately served by utilities.

(F) The development project site has no value as a wildlife habitat.

(G) The development project site is not included on any list of facilities and sites compiled pursuant to Section 65962.5 of the Government Code.

(H) The development project will not involve the demolition of, or any substantial adverse change, in any structure that is listed, or is determined to be eligible for listing, in the California Register of Historic Resources.

(2) As used in paragraph (1), "residential housing for agricultural employees" means housing accommodations for an agricultural employee, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 1140.4 of the Labor Code.

(3) As used paragraph (1), "urbanized area" means either of the following:

(A) An area with a population density of at least 1,000 persons per square mile.

(B) An area with a population density of less than 1,000 persons per square mile that is identified as an urban area in a general plan adopted by a local government, and was not designated, on the date that the application was deemed complete, as an area reserved for future urban growth.

(4) This division shall apply to any development project described in this subdivision if a public agency which is carrying out or approving the development project determines that there is a reasonable possibility that the project, if completed, would have a significant effect on the environment due to unusual circumstances, or that the cumulative impact of successive projects of the same type in the same area over time would be significant.

SEC. 2. It is the intent of the Legislature that by 1997 the Office of Planning and Research include in its annual survey questions relating to the impact of the exemption to the California Environmental Quality Act (Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code) for specified types of agricultural employee housing that is provided pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 21080.10 of the Public Resources Code, as amended by Section 1 of this act, on lead agencies that are considering the approval of agricultural employee housing development projects. It is the intent of the Legislature that the survey include questions relating to the ability of the lead agency to address potential adverse environmental effects that may result from the proposed development, the conversion of agricultural lands to urban uses, the ability of the lead agency to impose conditions on the proposed project, the time necessary for the lead agency to consider and act on the proposed project, and an estimate of the time necessary for the lead agency to consider and act on the development project if subdivision (c) of Section 21080.10 of the Public Resources Code were not in effect.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to add Article 10 (commencing with Section 591) to Chapter 3 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to agriculture, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 10 (commencing with Section 591) is added to Chapter 3 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

Article 10. Agricultural Chemical Reduction Pilot Demonstration Projects

591. The Legislature hereby finds and declares all of the following:

(a) There is a need for a pilot demonstration project to demonstrate and expand the use of integrated farming systems that have been proven to decrease the use of farm chemicals.

(b) For the purposes of the pilot demonstration project, these farming systems provide fertility and pest control through integration of the following elements:

(1) Relying on biological and cultural control to protect crops from pest outbreaks.

(2) Creating on-farm habitats that harbor populations of beneficial insects and mites.

(3) Using cover crops to provide some or all of the nitrogen needed by the crop plants.

(4) Directing overall attention to soil building practices.

(5) Reducing the reliance upon chemicals.

(c) Farmers who are accomplished in managing biologically integrated farming systems are often willing and able to act as mentors for other farmers who wish to reduce their use of agricultural chemicals.

592. (a) The Legislature hereby requests the University of California to establish a program of pilot demonstration projects designed to provide extension services, training, and financial incentives for participating farmers to reduce their use of chemicals for agricultural production.

(b) If the program is established by the University of California, it is the intent of the Legislature that all of the following occur:

(1) The program should consist of up to five pilot demonstration projects, each project involving a different commodity or cropping system and each located in a different county.

(2) The program should be designed to extend integrated farming systems through the proven technique of farmer-to-farmer communication, with technical support provided by farm advisers, scientists, and pest control advisers.

(3) The structure of each pilot demonstration project should be patterned, to the degree feasible, after the successful Biologically Integrated Orchard Systems (BIOS) program coordinated by the Community Alliance with Family Farmers in Merced County.

(4) Pilot demonstration projects should be selected through a competitive process that supports the goals specified in Section 591. The proposals for the projects selected should demonstrate the applicant's experience in the farming systems described in subdivision (b) of Section 591, should contain documented financial and technical support, and should provide for a breadth of private sector cost sharing.

(5) Funding for the program should consist of a combination of federal, state, and private sector funds. If the program is established by the University of California, the Department of Pesticide Regulation shall provide fiscal oversight and shall allocate all program funds received, less 2 percent for administrative costs, to the University of California for purposes of implementing the program of pilot demonstration projects.

593. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature that the University of California establish a program advisory review board consisting of 13 members, appointed by the President of the University of California, or his or her designee, as follows:

(1) Ten members who are knowledgeable regarding the farming systems described in subdivision (b) of Section 591, as follows:

(A) Two representatives from the University of California.

(B) Two representatives from relevant federal agencies.

(C) Three growers.

(D) Two representatives of nonprofit organizations.

(E) One licensed pest control adviser.

(2) One member from each of the following:

(A) The Department of Pesticide Regulation.

(B) The Department of Food and Agriculture.

(C) The Pest Management Advisory Committee. This member shall be a public member who is not a government employee.

(b) The members of the review board shall serve without compensation but shall be paid necessary and proper expenses incurred in the performance of official duties.

594. It is the intent of the Legislature that the Regents of the University of California select an appropriate program whose director, in consultation with the program advisory review board, shall perform the following duties:

(a) Develop policies and procedures to guide the implementation of the pilot demonstration projects. These policies and procedures shall include, but shall not be limited to, a mechanism for monitoring and summarizing pesticide and fertilizer use for each project with an assessment of overall reductions in pesticides and fertilizer use on each project.

(b) Develop and issue requests for proposals for the pilot demonstration projects.

(c) Review and select the proposals to be funded.

(d) Annually review pilot demonstration projects and determine which projects shall be renewed.

595. The Pest Management Advisory Committee of the Department of Pesticide Regulation and the Department of Food and Agriculture shall provide the program advisory review board with a list of cropping systems that would benefit from the pilot demonstration projects. The board shall consider this list when it deliberates regarding which proposals to recommend for funding.

596. The contract for a pilot project shall be for a period of three years and shall be evaluated annually by the director of the program and the program advisory review board. The evaluation shall be based on an annual report submitted by the pilot project supervisor that documents changes in agricultural practices, agrichemical use, crop yields, and monitoring data involved in the pilot project. Funding for subsequent years of the contract shall be contingent upon adequate progress in those documented criteria, as determined by the director with the advice of the board, and continued grower participation in the pilot project.

597. Not later than January 1, 1997, and biennially thereafter, the University of California shall report to the Pest Management Advisory Committee, appropriate policy and fiscal committees of the Legislature, and, upon request, any Members of the Legislature on the status of each of the pilot demonstration projects. The report shall include, but shall not be limited to, an analysis of the monitoring activities, summary and assessment data on pesticide and fertilizer use on each pilot demonstration project, and an analysis of the success of each project in meeting the standards for integrated farming systems set forth in this article.

598. All moneys allocated by the Department of Pesticide Regulation to the University of California for facilitating this program shall be used for the following purposes:

(a) Contracting with pilot demonstration project supervisors. No member of the program advisory review board shall participate in such a project.

(b) Rebates to project participants for materials used to implement the alternative systems composing the pilot demonstration projects, and assistance with purchasing or leasing equipment.

(c) The University of California's administrative costs, which shall not exceed 10 percent of the total costs of the pilot demonstration projects.

599. This article shall become operative only (a) upon the adoption of a resolution by the Regents of the University of California by April 1, 1995, as specified in Section 600 and (b) upon a determination by the university that sufficient funding is available to carry out the purposes of this article.

600. No provision of this article shall apply to the University of California unless the regents of the university, by resolution, make that provision applicable. No new pilot demonstration projects shall be commenced on or after December 31, 2001. Until all funds available for the projects are encumbered, the University of California may continue to use available funds for projects that it commenced prior to December 31, 2001.

SEC. 2. (a) The sum of two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) is hereby appropriated from the Food Safety Account in the Department of Pesticide Regulation Fund to the Department of Pesticide Regulation for allocation to the University of California for expenditure for the purposes of Article 10 (commencing with Section 591) of Chapter 3 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Food and Agricultural Code.

(b) If Article 10 (commencing with Section 591) of Chapter 3 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Food and Agricultural Code does not become operative as specified in Section 599 of the Food and Agricultural Code by April 1, 1995, the moneys appropriated pursuant to subdivision (a) shall revert to the Food Safety Account in the Department of Pesticide Regulation Fund.

An act to amend Section 4035 of the Business and Professions Code, and to add Section 1261.5 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to pharmacy.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4035 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4035. Pharmacy is an area, place, or premises in which the profession of pharmacy is practiced and where prescriptions are compounded. "Pharmacy" includes, but is not limited to, any area, place, or premises described in a permit issued by the board by reference to plans filed with and approved by the board wherein controlled substances or dangerous drugs or dangerous devices, as they are herein defined, are stored, possessed, prepared, manufactured, derived, compounded, or repackaged, and from which the controlled substances or dangerous drugs or dangerous devices are furnished, sold, or dispensed at retail.

"Pharmacy" shall not include any area in a facility licensed by the State Department of Health Services where floor supplies, ward supplies, operating room supplies, or emergency room supplies of drugs or dangerous devices are stored or possessed solely for treatment of patients registered for treatment in the facility or for treatment of patients receiving emergency care in the facility.

“Controlled substances or dangerous drugs or dangerous devices” as used in this section shall include, but is not limited to, all controlled substances, drugs, or devices that are included within one or more of the following classifications:

(a) Drugs or devices bearing the legend, “Caution, federal law prohibits dispensing without prescription,” or words of similar import.

(b) Controlled substances as defined in Division 10 (commencing with Section 11000) of the Health and Safety Code.

(c) Drugs or devices enumerated in Section 4211.

(d) Hypodermic syringes and needles, or other drugs or devices, the sale of which is restricted by law to a registered pharmacist.

Neither this section nor any other provision of law shall be construed as prohibiting a pharmacy from furnishing a prescription drug or device to a licensed health facility for storage in a secured emergency pharmaceutical supplies container maintained within the facility in accordance with facility regulations of the State Department of Health Services set forth in Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations and the requirements set forth in Section 1261.5 of the Health and Safety Code. These emergency supplies shall be approved by the facility’s patient care policy committee or pharmaceutical service committee and shall be readily available to each nursing station. Section 1261.5 of the Health and Safety Code limits the number of oral dosage form or suppository form drugs in these emergency supplies to 24.

SEC. 2. Section 1261.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1261.5. Notwithstanding Section 72377 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, the number of oral dosage form or suppository form drugs provided by a pharmacy to a health facility licensed pursuant to subdivision (c), (d), or both (c) and (d), of Section 1250 for storage in a secured emergency supplies container, pursuant to Section 4035 of the Business and Professions Code, shall be limited to 24. The State Department of Health Services may limit the number of doses of each drug available to not more than four doses of any separate drug dosage form in each emergency supply.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to add Section 3296 to the Civil Code, relating to punitive damages.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3296 is added to the Civil Code, to read:
3296. (a) Whenever a judgment for punitive damages is entered against an insurer or health care service plan licensed pursuant to Chapter 2.2 (commencing with Section 1340) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, the plaintiff in the action shall, within 10 days of entry of judgment, provide all of the following to the Commissioner of the Department of Insurance or the Commissioner of Corporations, whichever commissioner has regulatory jurisdiction over the insurer or health care service plan:

- (1) A copy of the judgment.
- (2) A brief recitation of the facts of the case.
- (3) Copies of relevant pleadings, as determined by the plaintiff.

(b) The willful failure to comply with this section may, at the discretion of the trial court, result in the imposition of sanctions against the plaintiff or his or her attorney.

(c) This section shall apply to all judgments entered on or after January 1, 1995.

(d) "Insurer," for purposes of this section, means any person or entity transacting any of the classes of insurance described in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 100) of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Insurance Code.

An act to amend Section 128.5 of, to amend, repeal, and add Section 446 of, to add Section 128.6 to, to add and repeal Section 128.7 of, and to repeal Section 447 of, the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to civil procedure.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 128.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

128.5. (a) Every trial court may order a party, the party's attorney, or both to pay any reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred by another party as a result of bad-faith actions or tactics that are frivolous or solely intended to cause unnecessary delay. This section also applies to judicial arbitration proceedings under Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 1141.10) of Title 3 of Part 3.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Actions or tactics" include, but are not limited to, the making or opposing of motions or the filing and service of a complaint or cross-complaint only if the actions or tactics arise from a complaint filed, or a proceeding initiated, on or before December 31, 1994. The mere filing of a complaint without service thereof on an opposing party does not constitute "actions or tactics" for purposes of this section.

(2) "Frivolous" means (A) totally and completely without merit or (B) for the sole purpose of harassing an opposing party.

(c) Expenses pursuant to this section shall not be imposed except on notice contained in a party's moving or responding papers; or the court's own motion, after notice and opportunity to be heard. An order imposing expenses shall be in writing and shall recite in detail the conduct or circumstances justifying the order.

(d) In addition to any award pursuant to this section for conduct described in subdivision (a), the court may assess punitive damages against the plaintiff upon a determination by the court that the plaintiff's action was an action maintained by a person convicted of a felony against the person's victim, or the victim's heirs, relatives, estate, or personal representative, for injuries arising from the acts for which the person was convicted of a felony, and that the plaintiff is guilty of fraud, oppression, or malice in maintaining the action.

(e) The liability imposed by this section is in addition to any other liability imposed by law for acts or omissions within the purview of this section.

SEC. 2. Section 128.6 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

128.6. (a) Every trial court may order a party, the party's attorney, or both to pay any reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred by another party as a result of bad-faith actions or tactics that are frivolous or solely intended to cause unnecessary delay. This section also applies to judicial arbitration proceedings under Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 1141.10) of Title 3 of Part 3.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Actions or tactics" include, but are not limited to, the making or opposing of motions or the filing and service of a complaint or cross-complaint. The mere filing of a complaint without service thereof on an opposing party does not constitute "actions or tactics" for purposes of this section.

(2) "Frivolous" means (A) totally and completely without merit or (B) for the sole purpose of harassing an opposing party.

(c) Expenses pursuant to this section shall not be imposed except on notice contained in a party's moving or responding papers; or the court's own motion, after notice and opportunity to be heard. An order imposing expenses shall be in writing and shall recite in detail the conduct or circumstances justifying the order.

(d) In addition to any award pursuant to this section for conduct described in subdivision (a), the court may assess punitive damages against the plaintiff upon a determination by the court that the plaintiff's action was an action maintained by a person convicted of a felony against the person's victim, or the victim's heirs, relatives, estate, or personal representative, for injuries arising from the acts for which the person was convicted of a felony, and that the plaintiff is guilty of fraud, oppression, or malice in maintaining the action.

(e) The liability imposed by this section is in addition to any other liability imposed by law for acts or omissions within the purview of this section.

(f) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1999, unless a statute that becomes effective on or before this date extends or deletes the repeal date of Section 128.7.

SEC. 3. Section 128.7 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

128.7. (a) Every pleading, petition, written notice of motion, or other similar paper shall be signed by at least one attorney of record in the attorney's individual name, or, if the party is not represented by an attorney, shall be signed by the party. Each paper shall state the signer's address and telephone number, if any. Except when otherwise provided by law, pleadings need not be verified or accompanied by affidavit. An unsigned paper shall be stricken unless omission of the signature is corrected promptly after being called to the attention of the attorney or party.

(b) By presenting to the court, whether by signing, filing, submitting, or later advocating, a pleading, petition, written notice of motion, or other similar paper, an attorney or unrepresented party is certifying that to the best of the person's knowledge, information, and belief, formed after an inquiry reasonable under the circumstances, all of the following conditions are met:

(1) It is not being presented primarily for an improper purpose, such as to harass or to cause unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of litigation.

(2) The claims, defenses, and other legal contentions therein are warranted by existing law or by a nonfrivolous argument for the extension, modification, or reversal of existing law or the establishment of new law.

(3) The allegations and other factual contentions have evidentiary support or, if specifically so identified, are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation or discovery.

(4) The denials of factual contentions are warranted on the evidence or, if specifically so identified, are reasonably based on a lack of information or belief.

(c) If, after notice and a reasonable opportunity to respond, the court determines that subdivision (b) has been violated, the court may, subject to the conditions stated below, impose an appropriate sanction upon the attorneys, law firms, or parties that have violated subdivision (b) or are responsible for the violation. In determining what sanctions, if any, should be ordered, the court shall consider whether a party seeking sanctions has exercised due diligence.

(1) A motion for sanctions under this section shall be made separately from other motions or requests and shall describe the specific conduct alleged to violate subdivision (b). Notice of motion shall be served as provided in Section 1010, but shall not be filed with or presented to the court unless, within 30 days after service of the motion, or such other period as the court may prescribe, the challenged paper, claim, defense, contention, allegation, or denial is not withdrawn or appropriately corrected. If warranted, the court may award to the party prevailing on the motion the reasonable expenses and attorney's fees incurred in presenting or opposing the motion. Absent exceptional circumstances, a law firm shall be held jointly responsible for violations committed by its partners, associates, and employees.

(2) On its own motion, the court may enter an order describing the specific conduct that appears to violate subdivision (b) and directing an attorney, law firm, or party to show cause why it has not violated subdivision (b), unless, within 30 days of service of the order to show cause, the challenged paper, claim, defense, contention, allegation, or denial is withdrawn or appropriately corrected.

(d) A sanction imposed for violation of subdivision (b) shall be limited to what is sufficient to deter repetition of this conduct or comparable conduct by others similarly situated. Subject to the limitations in paragraphs (1) and (2), the sanction may consist of, or include, directives of a nonmonetary nature, an order to pay a penalty into court, or, if imposed on motion and warranted for effective deterrence, an order directing payment to the movant of some or all of the reasonable attorney's fees and other expenses incurred as a direct result of the violation.

(1) Monetary sanctions may not be awarded against a represented party for a violation of paragraph (2) of subdivision (b).

(2) Monetary sanctions may not be awarded on the court's motion unless the court issues its order to show cause before a voluntary dismissal or settlement of the claims made by or against the party that is, or whose attorneys are, to be sanctioned.

(e) When imposing sanctions, the court shall describe the conduct determined to constitute a violation of this section and explain the basis for the sanction imposed.

(f) In addition to any award pursuant to this section for conduct described in subdivision (b), the court may assess punitive damages against the plaintiff upon a determination by the court that the plaintiff's action was an action maintained by a person convicted of a felony against the person's victim, or the victim's heirs, relatives, estate, or personal representative, for injuries arising from the acts for which the person was convicted of a felony, and that the plaintiff is guilty of fraud, oppression, or malice in maintaining the action.

(g) This section shall not apply to disclosures and discovery requests, responses, objections, and motions.

(h) A motion for sanctions brought by a party or a party's attorney primarily for an improper purpose, such as to harass or to cause unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of litigation, shall itself be subject to a motion for sanctions. It is the intent of the Legislature that courts shall vigorously use its sanctions authority to deter such improper conduct or comparable conduct by others similarly situated.

(i) This section shall apply to a complaint or petition filed on or after January 1, 1995, and any other pleading, written notice of motion, or other similar paper filed in such a matter.

(j) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1999, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, that is enacted before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4. Section 446 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

446. (a) When the state, any county thereof, city, school district, district, public agency, or public corporation, or any officer of the state, or of any county thereof, city, school district, district, public agency, or public corporation, in his or her official capacity, is plaintiff, the answer shall be verified, unless an admission of the truth of the complaint might subject the party to a criminal prosecution, or, unless a county thereof, city, school district, district, public agency, or public corporation, or an officer of the state, or of any county, city, school district, district, public agency, or public corporation, in his or her official capacity, is defendant. When the complaint is verified, the answer shall be verified. In all cases of a verification of a pleading, the affidavit of the party shall state that the same is true of his own knowledge, except as to the matters which are therein stated on his or her information or belief, and as to those matters that he or she believes it to be true; and where a pleading is verified, it shall be by the affidavit of a party, unless the parties are absent from the county where the attorney has his or her office, or from some cause unable to verify it, or the facts are within the knowledge of his or her attorney or other person verifying the same. When the pleading is verified by the attorney, or any other person except one of the parties, he or she shall set forth in the affidavit the reasons why it is not made by one of the parties.

When a corporation is a party, the verification may be made by any officer thereof. When the state, any county thereof, city, school district, district, public agency, or public corporation, or an officer of the state, or of any county thereof, city, school district, district, public agency, or public corporation, in his or her official capacity is plaintiff, the complaint need not be verified; and if the state, any county thereof, city, school district, district, public agency, or public corporation, or an officer of such state, county, city, school district, district, public agency, or public corporation, in his or her official capacity is defendant, its or his or her answer need not be verified.

When the verification is made by the attorney for the reason that the parties are absent from the county where he or she has his or her office, or from some other cause are unable to verify it, or when the verification is made on behalf of a corporation or public agency by any officer thereof, the attorney's or officer's affidavit shall state that he or she has read the pleading and that he or she is informed and believes the matters therein to be true and on that ground alleges that the matters stated therein are true. However, in those cases the pleadings shall not otherwise be considered as an affidavit or declaration establishing the facts therein alleged.

A person verifying a pleading need not swear to the truth or his or her belief in the truth of the matters stated therein but may, instead, assert the truth or his or her belief in the truth of those matters "under penalty of perjury."

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1999, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 5. Section 446 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

446. (a) Every pleading shall be subscribed by the party or his or her attorney. When the state, any county thereof, city, school district, district, public agency, or public corporation, or any officer of the state, or of any county thereof, city, school district, district, public agency, or public corporation, in his or her official capacity, is plaintiff, the answer shall be verified, unless an admission of the truth of the complaint might subject the party to a criminal prosecution, or, unless a county thereof, city, school district, district, public agency, or public corporation, or an officer of the state, or of any county, city, school district, district, public agency, or public corporation, in his or her official capacity, is defendant. When the complaint is verified, the answer shall be verified. In all cases of a verification of a pleading, the affidavit of the party shall state that the same is true of his own knowledge, except as to the matters which are therein stated on his or her information or belief, and as to those matters that he or she believes it to be true; and where a pleading is verified, it shall be by the affidavit of a party, unless the parties are absent from the county where the attorney has his or her office, or from some cause unable to verify it, or the facts are within the knowledge of his or her attorney or other person verifying the same. When the pleading is verified by the attorney, or any other person except one of the parties, he or she shall set forth in the affidavit the reasons why it is not made by one of the parties.

When a corporation is a party, the verification may be made by any officer thereof. When the state, any county thereof, city, school district, district, public agency, or public corporation, or an officer of the state, or of any county thereof, city, school district, district, public agency, or public corporation, in his or her official capacity is plaintiff, the complaint need not be verified; and if the state, any county thereof, city, school district, district, public agency, or public corporation, or an officer of such state, county, city, school district, district, public agency, or public corporation, in his or her official capacity is defendant, its or his or her answer need not be verified.

When the verification is made by the attorney for the reason that the parties are absent from the county where he or she has his or her office, or from some other cause are unable to verify it, or when the verification is made on behalf of a corporation or public agency by any officer thereof, the attorney's or officer's affidavit shall state that he or she has read the pleading and that he or she is informed and believes the matters therein to be true and on that ground alleges that the matters stated therein are true. However, in those cases the pleadings shall not otherwise be considered as an affidavit or declaration establishing the facts therein alleged.

A person verifying a pleading need not swear to the truth or his or her belief in the truth of the matters stated therein but may, instead, assert the truth or his or her belief in the truth of those matters "under penalty of perjury."

(b) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1999, unless a statute that becomes effective on or before this date extends or deletes the repeal date of Section 446, as amended by Assembly Bill 3594 of the 1993-94 Regular Session.

SEC. 6. Section 447 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 7. On January 1, 1998, the Judicial Council shall provide a report to the Legislature that details the number of sanctions motions filed, the types of cases and the frequency to which those types of cases are subjected to a sanctions motion, the numbers of pleadings, motions, or similar papers withdrawn or corrected within the 30-day period for withdrawal or correction, the numbers of sanctions motions granted and denied, and the forms of sanctions imposed when sanctions are assessed.

An act to amend Sections 443.30 and 443.31 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to health facilities.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 443.30 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

443.30. (a) Effective January 1, 1986, the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development shall be the single state agency designated to collect the following health facility or clinic data for use by all state agencies:

- (1) That data required by the office pursuant to Section 439.2.
- (2) That data required in the Medi-Cal cost reports pursuant to Section 14170 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.
- (3) Those data items formerly required by the California Health Facilities Commission that are listed in Sections 443.31 and 443.32. Information collected pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 443.31 shall be made available to the State Department of Health Services. The state department shall ensure that the patient's rights to confidentiality shall not be violated in any manner. The state department shall comply with all applicable policies and requirements involving review and oversight by the State Committee for the Protection of Human Subjects.

(b) The office shall consolidate any and all of the reports listed under this section or Sections 443.31 and 443.32, to the extent feasible, to minimize the reporting burdens on hospitals. Provided, however, that the office shall neither add nor delete data items from the Hospital Discharge Abstract Data Record or the quarterly reports without prior authorizing legislation, unless specifically required by federal law or regulation or judicial decision.

SEC. 2. Section 443.31 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

443.31. Every organization that operates, conducts, or maintains a health facility and the officers thereof, shall make and file with the office, at the times as the office shall require, all of the following reports on forms specified by the office that shall be in accord where applicable with the systems of accounting and uniform reporting required by this part, except the reports required pursuant to subdivision (g) shall be limited to hospitals:

(a) A balance sheet detailing the assets, liabilities, and net worth of the health facility at the end of its fiscal year.

(b) A statement of income, expenses, and operating surplus or deficit for the annual fiscal period, and a statement of ancillary utilization and patient census.

(c) A statement detailing patient revenue by payer, including, but not limited to, Medicare, Medi-Cal, and other payers, and revenue center except that hospitals authorized to report as a group pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 443.34 are not required to report revenue by revenue center.

(d) A statement of cash-flows, including, but not limited to, ongoing and new capital expenditures and depreciation.

(e) A statement reporting the information required in subdivisions (a), (b), (c), and (d) for each separately licensed health facility operated, conducted, or maintained by the reporting organization, except those hospitals authorized to report as a group pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 443.34.

(f) The office shall consult with the County Hospital Committee of the California Hospital Association, the County Supervisors

Association of California, and the California Association of Public Hospitals to improve the accuracy of indigent care revenue reporting and shall present legislative or regulatory recommendations for such improvements by March 30, 1985.

- (1) Date of birth.
- (2) Sex.
- (3) Race.
- (4) ZIP Code.
- (5) Patient social security number, if it is contained in the patient's medical record.
- (6) Prehospital care and resuscitation, if any, including all of the following:
 - (A) "Do not resuscitate" (DNR) order at admission.
 - (B) "Do not resuscitate" (DNR) order after admission.
- (7) Admission date.
- (8) Source of admission.
- (9) Type of admission.
- (10) Discharge date.
- (11) Principal diagnosis and whether the condition was present at admission.
- (12) Other diagnoses and whether the conditions were present at admission.
- (13) External cause of injury.
- (14) Principal procedure and date.
- (15) Other procedures and dates.
- (16) Total charges.
- (17) Disposition of patient.
- (18) Expected source of payment.

(h) No person reporting data pursuant to this section shall be liable for damages in any action based on the use or misuse of patient-identifiable data that has been mailed or otherwise transmitted to the office pursuant to the requirements of subdivision (g).

A hospital or its designee shall semiannually file the Hospital Discharge Abstract Data Record not later than six months after the end of each semiannually period, commencing six months after January 1, 1986. A hospital may submit the Hospital Discharge Abstract Data Record in a computer tape format, and a hospital shall use coding from the International Classification of Diseases in reporting diagnoses and procedures.

An act to amend Sections 316, 500, 502, 503, 506, and 25116 of the Corporations Code, relating to corporations.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 316 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

316. (a) Subject to the provisions of Section 309, directors of a corporation who approve any of the following corporate actions shall be jointly and severally liable to the corporation for the benefit of all of the creditors or shareholders entitled to institute an action under subdivision (c):

(1) The making of any distribution to its shareholders to the extent that it is contrary to the provisions of Sections 500 to 503, inclusive.

(2) The distribution of assets to shareholders after institution of dissolution proceedings of the corporation, without paying or adequately providing for all known liabilities of the corporation, excluding any claims not filed by creditors within the time limit set by the court in a notice given to creditors under Chapters 18 (commencing with Section 1800), 19 (commencing with Section 1900) and 20 (commencing with Section 2000).

(3) The making of any loan or guaranty contrary to Section 315.

(b) A director who is present at a meeting of the board, or any committee thereof, at which action specified in subdivision (a) is taken and who abstains from voting shall be considered to have approved the action.

(c) Suit may be brought in the name of the corporation to enforce the liability (1) under paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) against any or all directors liable by the persons entitled to sue under subdivision (b) of Section 506, (2) under paragraph (2) or (3) of subdivision (a) against any or all directors liable by any one or more creditors of the corporation whose debts or claims arose prior to the time of any of the corporate actions specified in paragraph (2) or (3) of subdivision (a) and who have not consented to the corporate action, whether or not they have reduced their claims to judgment, or (3) under paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) against any or all directors liable by any one or more holders of shares outstanding at the time of any corporate action specified in paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) who have not consented to the corporate action, without regard to the provisions of Section 800.

(d) The damages recoverable from a director under this section shall be the amount of the illegal distribution (or if the illegal distribution consists of property, the fair market value of that property at the time of the illegal distribution) plus interest thereon from the date of the distribution at the legal rate on judgments until paid, together with all reasonably incurred costs of appraisal or other valuation, if any, of that property or loss suffered by the corporation as a result of the illegal loan or guaranty, as the case may be, but not exceeding the liabilities of the corporation owed to nonconsenting creditors at the time of the violation and the injury suffered by nonconsenting shareholders, as the case may be.

(e) Any director sued under this section may implead all other directors liable and may compel contribution, either in that action or in an independent action against directors not joined in that action.

(f) Directors liable under this section shall also be entitled to be subrogated to the rights of the corporation:

(1) With respect to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), against shareholders who received the distribution.

(2) With respect to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), against shareholders who received the distribution of assets.

(3) With respect to paragraph (3) of subdivision (a), against the person who received the loan or guaranty. Any director sued under this section may file a cross-complaint against the person or persons who are liable to the director as a result of the subrogation provided for in this subdivision or may proceed against them in an independent action.

SEC. 2. Section 500 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

500. Neither a corporation nor any of its subsidiaries shall make any distribution to the corporation's shareholders (Section 166) except as follows:

(a) The distribution may be made if the amount of the retained earnings of the corporation immediately prior thereto equals or exceeds the amount of the proposed distribution.

(b) The distribution may be made if immediately after giving effect thereto:

(1) The sum of the assets of the corporation (exclusive of goodwill, capitalized research and development expenses and deferred charges) would be at least equal to $1\frac{1}{4}$ times its liabilities (not including deferred taxes, deferred income and other deferred credits); and

(2) The current assets of the corporation would be at least equal to its current liabilities or, if the average of the earnings of the corporation before taxes on income and before interest expense for the two preceding fiscal years was less than the average of the interest expense of the corporation for those fiscal years, at least equal to $1\frac{1}{4}$ times its current liabilities; provided, however, that in determining the amount of the assets of the corporation profits derived from an exchange of assets shall not be included unless the assets received are currently realizable in cash; and provided, further, that for the purpose of this subdivision "current assets" may include net amounts which the board has determined in good faith may reasonably be expected to be received from customers during the 12-month period used in calculating current liabilities pursuant to existing contractual relationships obligating those customers to make fixed or periodic payments during the term of the contract or, in the case of public utilities, pursuant to service connections with customers, after in each case giving effect to future costs not then included in current liabilities but reasonably expected to be incurred by the corporation in performing those contracts or providing service to utility customers. Paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) is not applicable to a corporation which does not classify its assets into current and fixed under generally accepted accounting principles.

(c) The amount of any distribution payable in property shall, for the purposes of this chapter, be determined on the basis of the value at which the property is carried on the corporation's financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

(d) For the purpose of applying this section to a distribution by a corporation of cash or property in payment by the corporation in connection with the purchase of its shares, there shall be added to retained earnings all amounts that had been previously deducted therefrom with respect to obligations incurred in connection with the corporation's repurchase of its shares and reflected on the corporation's balance sheet, but not in excess of the principal of the obligations that remain unpaid immediately prior to the distribution. In addition, there shall be deducted from liabilities all amounts that had been previously added thereto with respect to the obligations incurred in connection with the corporation's repurchase of its shares and reflected on the corporation's balance sheet, but not in excess of the principal of the obligations that will remain unpaid after the distribution, provided that no addition to retained earnings or deduction from liabilities under this subdivision shall occur on account of any obligation that is a distribution to the corporation's shareholders (Section 166) at the time the obligation is incurred.

(e) This section does not apply to a corporation licensed as a broker-dealer under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 25210) of Part 3 of Division 1 of Title 4, if immediately after giving effect to any distribution the corporation is in compliance with the net capital rules of the Commissioner of Corporations and the Securities and Exchange Commission.

SEC. 3. Section 502 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

502. Neither a corporation nor any of its subsidiaries shall make any distribution to the corporation's shareholders (Section 166) on any shares of its stock of any class or series that are junior to outstanding shares of any other class or series with respect to distribution of assets on liquidation if, after giving effect thereto, the excess of its assets (exclusive of goodwill, capitalized research and development expenses and deferred charges) over its liabilities (not including deferred taxes, deferred income and other deferred credits) would be less than the liquidation preference of all shares having a preference on liquidation over the class or series to which the distribution is made; provided, however, that for the purpose of applying this section to a distribution by a corporation of cash or property in payment by the corporation in connection with the purchase of its shares, there shall be deducted from liabilities all amounts that had been previously added thereto with respect to obligations incurred in connection with the corporation's repurchase of its shares and reflected on the corporation's balance sheet, but not in excess of the principal of the obligations that will remain unpaid after the distribution; provided, further, that no deduction from liabilities shall occur on account of any obligation that is a distribution to the corporation's shareholders (Section 166) at the time the obligation is incurred.

SEC. 4. Section 503 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

503. Neither a corporation nor any of its subsidiaries shall make any distribution to the corporation's shareholders (Section 166) on any shares of its stock of any class or series that are junior to outstanding shares of any other class or series with respect to payment of dividends unless the amount of the retained earnings of the corporation immediately prior thereto equals or exceeds the amount of the proposed distribution plus the aggregate amount of the cumulative dividends in arrears on all shares having a preference with respect to payment of dividends over the class or series to which the distribution is made; provided, however, that for the purpose of applying this section to a distribution by a corporation of cash or property in payment by the corporation in connection with the purchase of its shares, there shall be added to retained earnings all amounts that had been previously deducted therefrom with respect to obligations incurred in connection with the corporation's repurchase of its shares and reflected on the corporation's balance sheet, but not in excess of the principal of the obligations that remain unpaid immediately prior to the distribution; provided, further, that no addition to retained earnings shall occur on account of any obligation that is a distribution to the corporation's shareholders (Section 166) at the time the obligation is incurred.

SEC. 5. Section 506 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

506. (a) Any shareholder who receives any distribution prohibited by this chapter with knowledge of facts indicating the impropriety thereof is liable to the corporation for the benefit of all of the creditors or shareholders entitled to institute an action under subdivision (b) for the amount so received by the shareholder with interest thereon at the legal rate on judgments until paid, but not exceeding the liabilities of the corporation owed to nonconsenting creditors at the time of the violation and the injury suffered by nonconsenting shareholders, as the case may be. For purposes of this chapter, in the event that any shareholder receives any distribution of the corporation's property that is prohibited by this chapter, the shareholder receiving that illegal distribution shall be liable to the corporation for an amount equal to the fair market value of the property at the time of the illegal distribution plus interest thereon from the date of the distribution at the legal rate on judgments until paid, together with all reasonably incurred costs of appraisal or other valuation, if any, of that property, but not exceeding the liabilities of the corporation owed to nonconsenting creditors at the time of the violation and the injury suffered by nonconsenting shareholders, as the case may be.

(b) Suit may be brought in the name of the corporation to enforce the liability (1) to creditors arising under subdivision (a) for a violation of Section 500 or 501 against any or all shareholders liable by any one or more creditors of the corporation whose debts or claims arose prior to the time of the distribution to shareholders and who have not consented thereto, whether or not they have reduced their claims to judgment, or (2) to shareholders arising under subdivision (a) for a violation of Section 502 or 503 against any or all shareholders liable by any one or more holders of preferred shares outstanding at the time of the distribution who have not consented thereto, without regard to the provisions of Section 800.

(c) Any shareholder sued under this section may implead all other shareholders liable under this section and may compel contribution, either in that action or in an independent action against shareholders not joined in that action.

(d) Nothing contained in this section affects any liability which any shareholder may have under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 3439) of Title 2 of Part 2 of Division 4 of the Civil Code.

SEC. 6. Section 25116 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

25116. An evidence of indebtedness issued pursuant to a qualification under this chapter or Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 25120), and its purchaser, shall be exempt from the usury provisions of the Constitution, subject to compliance by the issuer and purchaser with the terms and requirements that may be imposed by the commissioner as a condition of the qualification. This section creates and authorizes a class of persons pursuant to Section 1 of Article XV of the Constitution.

An act to add Sections 53060.1, 53208.5, and 53217.5 to the Government Code, relating to public officers.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

53060.1. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section, to provide a uniform limit on the retirement benefits for the members of the legislative bodies of all political subdivisions of the state, including charter cities and charter counties. The Legislature finds and declares that uneven, conflicting, and inconsistent retirement benefits for legislative bodies distort the statewide system of intergovernmental finance. The Legislature further finds and declares that the inequities caused by these problems extend beyond the boundaries of individual public agencies.

Therefore, the Legislature finds and declares that these problems are not merely municipal affairs or matters of local interest and that they are truly matters of statewide concern that require the direct attention of the state government. In providing a uniform limit on the retirement benefits for the legislative bodies of all political subdivisions of the state, the Legislature has provided a solution to a statewide problem that is greater than local in its effect.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the retirement benefits of any member of a legislative body of any city, including a charter city, county, including a charter county, city and county, special district, school district, or any other political subdivision of the state shall be no greater than that received by nonsafety employees of that public agency. In the case of agencies with different benefit structures, the benefits of members of the legislative body shall not be greater than the most generous schedule of benefits being received by any category of nonsafety employees.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, members of the legislative body of a city, including a charter city, county, including a charter county, city and county, special district, school district, or any other political subdivision of the state shall not be eligible to accrue multiple retirement benefits greater than the most generous schedule of benefits being received by any category of nonsafety employees from two or more public agencies for concurrent service except in the case of a member who serves as a regular full-time employee in a separate public agency.

(d) This section shall be applicable to any member of a legislative body whose first service commences on and after January 1, 1995.

SEC. 2. Section 53208.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

53208.5. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section, to provide a uniform limit on the health and welfare benefits for the members of the legislative bodies of all political subdivisions of the state, including charter cities and charter counties. The Legislature finds and declares that uneven, conflicting, and inconsistent health and welfare benefits for legislative bodies distort the statewide system of intergovernmental finance. The Legislature further finds and declares that the inequities caused by these problems extend beyond the boundaries of individual public agencies.

they are truly matters of statewide concern that require the direct attention of the state government. In providing a uniform limit on the health and welfare benefits for the legislative bodies of all political subdivisions of the state, the Legislature has provided a solution to a statewide problem that is greater than local in its effect.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the health and welfare benefits of any member of a legislative body of any city, including a charter city, county, including a charter county, city and county, special district, school district, or any other political subdivision of the state shall be no greater than that received by nonsafety employees of that public agency. In the case of agencies with different benefit structures, the benefits of members of the legislative body shall not be greater than the most generous schedule of benefits being received by any category of nonsafety employees.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, members of the legislative body of a city, including a charter city, county, including a charter county, city and county, special district, school district, or any other political subdivision of the state shall not be eligible to accrue multiple health and welfare benefits greater than the most generous schedule of benefits being received by any category of nonsafety employees from two or more public agencies for concurrent service except in the case of a member who serves as a regular full-time employee in a separate public agency.

(d) This section shall be applicable to any member of a legislative body whose first service commences on and after January 1, 1995.

SEC. 3. Section 53217.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

53217.5. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section, to provide a uniform limit on the pension trust benefits for the members of the legislative bodies of all political subdivisions of the state, including charter cities and charter counties. The Legislature finds and declares that uneven, conflicting, and inconsistent pension trust benefits for legislative bodies distort the statewide system of intergovernmental finance. The Legislature further finds and declares that the inequities caused by these problems extend beyond the boundaries of individual public agencies.

Therefore, the Legislature finds and declares that these problems are not merely municipal affairs or matters of local interest and that they are truly matters of statewide concern that require the direct attention of the state government. In providing a uniform limit on the pension trust benefits for the legislative bodies of all political subdivisions of the state, the Legislature has provided a solution to a statewide problem that is greater than local in its effect.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the pension trust benefits of any member of a legislative body of any city, including a charter city, county, including a charter county, city and county, special district, school district, or any other political subdivision of the state shall be no greater than that received by nonsafety employees of that public agency. In the case of agencies with different benefit structures, the benefits of members of the legislative body shall not be greater than the most generous schedule of benefits being received by any category of nonsafety employees.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, members of the legislative body of a city, including a charter city, county, including a charter county, city and county, special district, school district, or any other political subdivision of the state shall not be eligible to accrue multiple pension trust benefits greater than the most generous schedule of benefits being received by any category of nonsafety employees from two or more public agencies for concurrent service except in the case of a member who serves as a regular full-time employee in a separate public agency.

(d) This section shall be applicable to any member of a legislative body whose first service commences on and after January 1, 1995.

An act to amend Section 1163 of the Harbors and Navigation Code, relating to pilots, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1163 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1163. (a) (1) (A) Each retired pilot and inland pilot, who has completed 25 full years of service as a pilot or inland pilot, or both, shall receive, as a target monthly pension, an amount that is initially equal to 46 percent of an amount which is an average of the highest three of the last five years of audited annual average net income per pilot, prior to the pilot's or inland pilot's retirement, divided by 12, which initial target monthly pension amount shall be subject to periodic adjustment pursuant to Section 1167. Pilots or inland pilots with other than 25 full years of service as a pilot or inland pilot, or both, shall receive a monthly pension in an amount that is determined by multiplying the above calculated target monthly pension by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the number of full years of service that the pilot or inland pilot has rendered and the denominator of which shall be 25 years, which initial monthly pension amount shall be subject to periodic adjustment pursuant to Section 1167.

(B) Each disabled pilot or inland pilot shall receive as an initial target monthly pension an amount that is based on 46 percent of the greater of the following, which amount shall be subject to periodic adjustment pursuant to Section 1167:

(i) An amount that is the average of the highest three of the last five years of audited annual average net income per pilot divided by 12 and multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the number of full years of service that the pilot or inland pilot has rendered and the denominator of which shall be 25 years.

(ii) The audited annual average net income per pilot, for the last year prior to the pilot's or inland pilot's disability, divided by 12 and multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the number of full years of service that the pilot or inland pilot has rendered and the denominator of which shall be 25 years.

(C) Each pilot who retired before January 1, 1985, shall receive as an initial target monthly pension an amount that is one hundred seventy-eight dollars ($178) multiplied by the number of full years of service he or she performed as a pilot licensed under this division, which amount shall be subject to periodic adjustment pursuant to Section 1167.

(D) Each pilot who retired on or after January 1, 1985, or each inland pilot who retired after January 1, 1993, shall receive as an initial target monthly pension an amount that is the greater of the following, which amount shall be subject to periodic adjustment pursuant to Section 1167:

(i) An amount that is calculated by multiplying one hundred seventy-eight dollars ($178) by the number of full years of service the pilot or inland pilot performed as a pilot or inland pilot licensed under this division.

(ii) An amount that is 46 percent of the average of the highest three of the last five years of audited annual average net income per pilot, prior to the pilot's or inland pilot's retirement, divided by 12 and multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the pilot's or inland pilot's actual number of full years of service and the denominator of which is 25 years.

(2) A pilot or inland pilot who retires or becomes disabled shall not begin to receive a pension until the beginning of the benefit payment period next following the date on which the pilot or inland pilot retires or becomes disabled.

(3) A pilot or inland pilot shall not receive any benefits pursuant to the pension plan in any benefit payment period unless the pilot's or inland pilot's resignation as an active pilot or inland pilot specifying a proposed date of retirement was submitted, in writing, to the board, prior to November if the pilot's or inland pilot's retirement is to be effective the first day of the following January, prior to February if the pilot's or inland pilot's retirement is to be effective the first day of the following April, prior to May if the pilot's or inland pilot's retirement is to be effective the first day of the following July, or prior to August if the pilot's or inland pilot's retirement is to be effective the first day of the following October. The pilot's or inland pilot's resignation as an active pilot or inland pilot shall become effective on either January 1, April 1, July 1, or October 1, as specified in the written resignation.

(4) If a retired or disabled pilot or inland pilot who is receiving a pension dies without a surviving spouse, the pilot's or inland pilot's successor in interest shall receive the monthly pension for the remainder of the benefit payment period within which the death occurs, after which time the monthly pension shall cease.

(2) If a retired or disabled pilot or inland pilot who was receiving a pension dies, the surviving spouse shall continue to receive the full amount of the monthly pension to which the deceased pilot or inland pilot was entitled for the balance of the benefit payment period within which the death occurs, after which the surviving spouse shall receive the amount specified in paragraph (1).

(3) If a surviving spouse receiving a pension dies, the surviving spouse's successor in interest shall receive the monthly pension for the remainder of the benefit payment period within which the death occurs, after which time the monthly pension shall cease.

(c) For the purpose of the computations described in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), six months or more of service by a pilot or inland pilot shall be considered a full year.

(d) Except as provided otherwise in this section and paragraph (4) of subdivision (e) of Section 1164, monthly pension amounts payable pursuant to this section to retired pilots and inland pilots and to their surviving spouses are payable for the life of that retired pilot, inland pilot, or spouse.

(e) To determine an inland pilot's full years of service under this chapter, any periods of service that an inland pilot has performed as a pilot shall be added to any service time performed as an inland pilot after January 1, 1993.

(f) In calculating the benefits of a retired or disabled pilot who was issued an original pilot's license in 1985 and who was not thereafter issued an inland pilot's license, or in calculating the benefits of the widow of such a pilot who is deceased, the number of years of service used in the calculation shall be the greater of the following:

(i) The actual number of full years of service the pilot has rendered.

(ii) Ten years.

An act to amend Sections 5080.17 and 5080.32 of, and to add Sections 5080.23 and 5080.26 to, the Public Resources Code, relating to the state park system, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting Sections 2, 3, and 4 of this act to provide a greater opportunity for persons or entities to participate in the request for proposal process for concession contracts for units of the state park system.

SEC. 2. Section 5080.17 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

5080.17. (a) Every contract awarded pursuant to the bidding requirements of this article, pursuant to the request for proposal process specified in Section 5080.23, or negotiated or renegotiated pursuant to Section 5080.16, shall be submitted to the Attorney General for approval for legal sufficiency and to the Director of General Services for approval pursuant to Section 11005.2 of the Government Code, the requirements of which are the only requirements applicable to the approval of contracts entered into pursuant to this article. The concession contract is not binding on the state until approved by the Attorney General and the Director of General Services.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 11005.2 of the Government Code and subdivision (a) of this section, the approval of a concession contract by the Director of General Services shall not be required unless the concession contract authorizes occupancy of a unit of the state park system for a period of more than one year.

SEC. 3. Section 5080.23 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

5080.23. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, with respect to concession contracts entered into on and after October 1, 1994, if the director determines that it is in the best interests of the state, the director may, upon giving notice to the State Park and Recreation Commission, in lieu of the process for awarding contracts otherwise prescribed in this article, award contracts authorizing occupancy of any portion of the state park system for a period of more than two years to the best responsible person or entity submitting a proposal for a concession contract.

(b) For any concession contract authorizing occupancy by the concessionaire for a period of more than two years of any portion of the state park system that is entered into pursuant to this section, the department shall prepare a request for proposal, which shall include the terms and conditions of the concession sufficient to enable a person or entity to submit a proposal for the operation of the concession on the basis of the best benefit to the state. Proposals shall be completed only on the basis of the request for proposal.

(c) Any concession contract entered into pursuant to this section which is expected to involve a total investment or gross sales in excess of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) shall comply with the requirements for entry into contract that are set forth in Section 5080.20.

(d) For purposes of this section, "best responsible person or entity submitting a proposal" means the person or entity submitting a proposal, as determined by specific standards established by the department, that will operate the concession in the best interests of the state and the public.

SEC. 4. Section 5080.26 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

5080.26. (a) Notwithstanding Sections 11080 and 11081 of the Government Code, public notice of a request for proposal shall be given to persons or entities for the purpose of soliciting proposals for any concession contract authorizing the occupancy of property in the state park system for a period of more than two years that is entered into pursuant to Section 5080.23, as follows:

(1) The department shall advertise the notice through appropriate public media to the extent that the department determines is sufficient to provide adequate coverage.

(2) The department shall publish an advertisement for a proposal at least once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the concession is to operate and in a major daily newspaper in the closest metropolitan area.

(3) If the director determines that, in view of the type of concession involved, the public interest would be best served by the solicitation of proposals from out-of-state persons or entities, the director shall give such additional notice as the director finds is best suited to attract proposals from out-of-state persons or entities.

(b) The published notice shall state where forms for proposals may be obtained, the time and place for the receipt and review of proposals, and shall describe, in general terms, the concession to be operated.

SEC. 4. Section 5080.32 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

5080.32. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), revenues received from lands subject to an operating agreement entered into pursuant to this article shall be available to the department only for the care, maintenance, operation, administration, improvement, or development of the unit of the state park system in which the lands from which the revenues were derived are located and any recreational trail providing access to those lands.

(b) (1) As to operating agreements that are in force on September 30, 1994, if a local agency operates more than one unit of the state park system under the operating agreement, revenues received in excess of the care, maintenance, operation, administration, improvement, or development of one unit may be utilized for those purposes at other units of the state park system operated by the local agency.

(2) As to operating agreements entered into, renewed, or renegotiated on and after October 1, 1994, revenues received from lands subject to an operating agreement in excess of the cost, maintenance, operation, administration, improvement, or development of those lands, as determined by the department, shall be available to the department, upon appropriation by the Legislature in the Budget Act, for expenditure for support of the department.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to protect the interests of California's residents in preserving the state's park system by increasing revenues, as soon as possible, to the Department of Parks and Recreation, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

An act to add Section 5070 to the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(1) The American Heritage Rodeo Foundation is a tax-exempt, nonprofit organization created to educate the public about, and to advance positive images of, the ethnic American West.

(2) The foundation has sponsored numerous educational exhibitions and special events, including the "Juneteenth" celebration of the emancipation proclamation, the American Heritage Invitational Rodeo, and symposiums on the buffalo soldier.

(3) The foundation also is involved in collecting, preserving, and exhibiting artifacts of California and the American West and in researching and promoting the participation and influence of various cultures in California's history.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature, in enacting Section 5070 of the Vehicle Code, to provide a means to make funds available to the American Heritage Rodeo Foundation so that it may continue and expand its valuable research, educational, and promotional work on the diverse history of California and the American West.

SEC. 2. Section 5070 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

5070. (a) The department, in consultation with the American Heritage Rodeo Foundation, shall design and make available for issuance pursuant to Section 5060 special interest license plates depicting a significant historical feature of California or the American West and may be issued in a combination of numbers or letters, or both, as requested by the applicant for the plates. Any person described in Section 5101 may, upon payment of the additional fees set forth in subdivision (b), apply for and be issued a set of special interest license plates.

(b) In addition to the regular fees for an original registration or renewal of registration, the following additional fees shall be paid for the issuance, renewal, retention, or transfer of the special interest license plates authorized pursuant to this section:

- (1) For the original issuance of the plates, fifty dollars ($50).
- (2) For a renewal of registration of the plates or the retention of the plates if renewal is not required, forty dollars ($40).
- (3) For transfer of the plates to another vehicle, fifteen dollars ($15).
- (4) For each substitute replacement plate, thirty-five dollars ($35).
- (5) In addition, for the issuance of an environmental license plate, as defined in Section 5103, the additional fees prescribed in Sections 5106 and 5108, which shall be deposited in the Environmental License Plate Fund.

(c) Except as provided in paragraph (5) of subdivision (b), all fees collected under this section shall, after deduction of the department's costs in administering this section, be deposited in the American Heritage Rodeo Foundation License Plate Account, which is hereby created in the General Fund. The funds in the account shall be used by the American Heritage Rodeo Foundation, upon appropriation by the Legislature, to educate the public about the ethnic American West and to preserve important cultural and historical artifacts and features of California and the American West.

An act to amend Sections 31, 32, 1625, 1626, 1749, 1749.3, and 1750 of, to add Section 1749.02 to, and to add and repeal Section 1631.1 of, the Insurance Code, relating to insurance, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 31 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

31. "Insurance agent" means a person authorized, by and on behalf of an insurer, to transact all classes of insurance other than life insurance.

An insurance agent is also authorized to transact 24-hour care coverage, as defined in Section 1749.02.

SEC. 1.5. Section 32 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

32. A life agent means an insurance agent authorized, by and on behalf of a life, disability or life and disability insurer, to transact life, disability or life and disability insurance.

A life agent may be authorized to transact 24-hour care coverage, as defined in Section 1749.02, pursuant to the requirements of subdivision (b) of Section 1749 or subdivision (h) of Section 1749.3.

SEC. 2. Section 1625 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1625. A fire and casualty licensee is a person authorized to act as an insurance agent, broker, or solicitor, and a fire and casualty broker-agent license is a license so to act.

A fire and casualty licensee is also authorized to transact 24-hour care coverage, as defined in Section 1749.02.

SEC. 3. Section 1626 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1626. A life licensee is a person authorized by and on behalf of a life, disability, or life and disability insurer to transact life, disability, or life and disability insurance, and a life agent license is a license so to act.

A life licensee is also authorized to transact 24-hour care coverage, as defined in Section 1749.02, pursuant to the requirements of subdivision (b) of Section 1749 or subdivision (h) of Section 1749.3.

SEC. 3.5. Section 1631.1 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

1631.1. The department shall establish a task force to be comprised of representatives of consumer groups, trade associations representing insurers, property and casualty broker-agents, life agents, and agents selling health insurance to make recommendations to the Legislature by July 1, 1995, on the creation of a single license for insurance agents and brokers.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1996, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1996, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4. Section 1749 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1749. On and after January 1, 1992, the department shall require all new applicants for license as a fire and casualty broker-agent or as a life agent to meet prelicensing education standards as follows:

(a) Require a minimum of 40 hours of prelicensing classroom study as a prerequisite to qualification for a fire and casualty broker-agent license. The curriculum for satisfying this requirement shall be approved by the curriculum board and submitted to the commissioner for final approval. Any additions to the minimum requirements provided by this section shall be approved by the curriculum board pursuant to Section 1749.1 and certified by the department.

(b) Require a minimum of 40 hours of prelicensing classroom study as a prerequisite for qualification for a life agent license. The curriculum for satisfying this requirement shall be approved by the curriculum board and submitted to the commissioner for final approval. Any additions to the minimum requirements provided by this section shall be approved by the curriculum board pursuant to Section 1749.1 and certified by the department. Beginning on January 1, 1995, this curriculum shall also include instruction in workers' compensation and general principles of employers' liability.

(c) In addition to the 40 hours prelicensing education required to qualify for a license as a broker-agent or life agent, the department shall require 12 hours of study on ethics and this code. Where an applicant seeks a license for both the broker-agent license and the life license, the applicant shall only be required to complete one 12-hour course on ethics and this code. The curriculum for satisfying this requirement shall be approved by the curriculum board and submitted to the commissioner for final approval.

(d) An applicant for a life agent license or a fire and casualty broker-agent license who is currently licensed as such in another state and who has completed 40 hours of prelicensing education as a requirement for licensing in that state shall be required to complete only the course of study on ethics and the Insurance Code, as required by Section 1749. Additionally, any applicant for such a license holding one or more of the designations specified in subdivisions (a) to (e), inclusive, of Section 1749.4 shall be exempted from any requirement for courses in general insurance that would otherwise be a condition of issuance of the license.

SEC. 5. Section 1749.02 is added to the Insurance Code, to read: 1749.02. "Twenty-four hour coverage" is the joint issuance of a workers' compensation policy with a disability insurance policy, health care service plan contract, or other medical insurance coverage for nonoccupational injuries and illnesses. This product shall not include a life insurance policy.

SEC. 6. Section 1749.3 of the Insurance Code is amended to read: 1749.3. An individual licensed as either a life agent or a fire and casualty broker-agent, but not as both, shall complete those courses, programs of instruction, or seminars approved by the commissioner for the type of license held. The minimum number of hours required is as follows:

(a) During each of the first four 12-month periods following the date of original issue, a minimum of 25 hours.

(b) Any licensee who has held a license prior to the effective date of this section, or who has complied with subdivision (a), shall satisfactorily complete 30 hours of instruction prior to renewal of the license. These hours of instruction may be completed at any time prior to renewal of the license.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), those licensees whose licenses expire in 1993 shall be required to satisfactorily complete 15 hours of continuing education prior to the 1993 license renewal.

(d) An individual whose license expires in 1992 shall not be required to show compliance with the requirements of subdivisions (a) and (b) until the next license renewal date.

(e) An individual licensed as both a fire and casualty broker-agent and as a life agent shall satisfy the requirements of this section by demonstrating completion of the courses, programs of instruction, or seminars approved by the commissioner for either license.

(f) Nothing in this section shall preclude an individual from taking courses, programs of instruction, or seminars approved by the commissioner and accumulating credits for completion thereof prior to the application of this section to the individual's license.

(g) A licensee who is employed by a licensed automobile dealer to offer only collision coverage, involuntary unemployment insurance, or credit life and disability insurance products shall not be required to meet the requirements of this section until the license renewal date next following December 31, 1993.

(h) Any life agent who wishes to sell 24-hour care coverage, as defined in Section 1749.02, shall complete a course, program of instruction, or seminar of an approved continuing education provider on workers' compensation and general principles of employer liability, which shall be completed by examination approved by the commissioner as part of the continuing education course, program of instruction, or seminar prior to selling this coverage. The required number of instruction hours shall be equal to but no greater than that required by the curriculum board for the prelicensing requirements of a fire and casualty broker-agent on these subjects. This requirement shall be part of, and not in addition to, the continuing education requirement of this section. The department shall complete this curriculum approval within 60 days of the effective date of the amendments to this section made at the 1994 portion of the 1993-94 Regular Session and shall approve any examinations within 20 days of receipt. If the department does not complete the curriculum and examination approval by the date required by this section, life agents may sell 24-hour care coverage, as defined in Section 1626, commencing on that date. However, once the department approves the curriculum and examination, life agents shall complete them within 90 days of their approval in order to continue selling 24-hour care coverage, as defined in Section 1749.02. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to allow a life agent to satisfy the obligations set forth in this section by other than a proctored examination administered or approved by the

SEC. 7. Section 1750 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1750. The commissioner shall require in advance as a fee for filing application for the hereinafter designated licenses, renewals thereof, or changes in outstanding licenses, an amount calculated as set forth herein. The fee is determined by multiplying the number of license years in the period of the license applied for or the remaining period of an existing license counting any initial fractional license year of that period as one year for that purpose, as follows:

- (a) Fire and casualty broker-agent, fifty-six dollars ($56).
- (b) Life agent, resident, fifty-six dollars ($56).
- (c) Life agent, nonresident, fifty-six dollars ($56).

SEC. 8. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to permit insurance agents to sell a 24-hour medical care policy as soon as possible that lowers the cost of workers' compensation and health insurance coverage for employers in California, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

An act to add Section 4011.2 to the Penal Code, relating to inmate medical costs.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4011.2 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

4011.2. (a) Notwithstanding Section 4011.1, a sheriff, chief or director of correction, or chief of police is authorized to charge a fee in the amount of three dollars ($3) for each inmate-initiated medical visit of an inmate confined in a county or city jail.

(b) The fee shall be charged to the inmate's personal account at the facility. If the inmate has no money in his or her personal account, there shall be no charge for the medical visit.

(c) An inmate shall not be denied medical care because of a lack of funds in his or her personal account at the facility.

(d) The medical provider may waive the fee for any inmate-initiated treatment and shall waive the fee in any life-threatening or emergency situation, defined as those health services required for alleviation of severe pain or for immediate diagnosis and treatment of unforeseen medical conditions that if not immediately diagnosed and treated could lead to disability or death.

(e) Followup medical visits at the direction of the medical staff shall not be charged to the inmate.

(f) All moneys received by a sheriff, chief or director of correction, or chief of police pursuant to this section shall be transferred to the county or city general fund.

An act relating to small business, and making an appropriation therefor.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) Notwithstanding Article 5 (commencing with Section 14030) of Chapter 1 of Part 5 of Division 3 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code or any other provision of law, the Secretary of Trade and Commerce shall use one hundred forty-five thousand dollars ($145,000) of the revenues transferred to the Small Business Expansion Fund pursuant to paragraph (10) of subdivision (a) of Section 7102 of the Revenue and Taxation Code for the purposes of contracting with SAFE-BIDCO for the establishment of a small business development corporation expansion center on the north coast of California to serve the northern area of the County of Mendocino and the Counties of Del Norte and Humboldt.

(b) The one hundred forty-five thousand dollars ($145,000) allocated by this act shall be used to fund the operation of the SAFE-BIDCO expansion center in Eureka for two years.

An act to amend Section 1250.9 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to health facilities, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1250.9 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1250.9. (a) The Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development shall conduct a demonstration project to evaluate the accommodation of postsurgical care patients for periods not exceeding two days, except that the attending physician and surgeon may require that the stay be extended to no more than three days.

(b) (1) The demonstration project shall operate for a period not to exceed six years, for no more than 12 project sites, one of which shall be located in Fresno County. However, the demonstration project shall be extended an additional three years, to September 30, 1997, only for those project sites that were approved by the office and operational prior to January 1, 1994.

(2) Any of the 12 project sites may be distinct parts of health facilities, or any of those sites may be physically freestanding from health facilities. None of the project sites that are designated as distinct parts of health facilities, shall be located in the service area of any one of the six freestanding project sites. None of the project sites that are designated as distinct parts of health facilities shall have a service area that overlaps with any one or more service areas of the freestanding pilot sites. For the purposes of this section, service area shall be defined by the office.

(c) (1) The office shall establish standards for participation, commensurate with the needs of postsurgical care patients requiring temporary nursing services following outpatient surgical procedures.

(2) In preparing the standards for participation, the office may, as appropriate, consult with the state department and with a technical advisory committee which may be appointed by the Director of the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development. The committee shall have no more than eight members, all of whom shall be experts in health care, as determined by the director of the office. One of the members of the committee shall, as determined by the director of the office, have specific expertise in the area of pediatric surgery and recovery care.

(3) If a technical advisory committee is established by the director of the office, members of the committee shall be reimbursed for any actual and necessary expenses incurred in connection with their duties as members of the committee.

(d) Not later than six months prior to the conclusion of the demonstration project, the office shall submit an evaluation of the demonstration project to the Legislature on the effectiveness and safety of the demonstration project in providing recovery services to patients receiving outpatient surgical services. The office, as part of the evaluation, shall include recommendations regarding the establishment of a new license category or amendment of existing licensing standards.

(e) The office shall establish and administer the demonstration project in facilities with no more than 20 beds which continuously meet the standards of skilled nursing facilities licensed under subdivision (c) of Section 1250, except that the office may, as appropriate and unless a danger to patients would be created, eliminate or modify the standards. This section shall not prohibit general acute care hospitals from participating in the demonstration project. The office may waive those building standards applicable to a project site which is a distinct part of a health facility which are inappropriate, as determined by the office, to the demonstration project. Notwithstanding health facility licensing regulations contained in Division 5 (commencing with Section 70001) of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, a project site which is a distinct part of a health facility shall comply with all standards for participation established by the office and with all regulations adopted by the office to implement this section. A project site which is a distinct part of a health facility shall not, for the duration of the pilot project, be subject to Division 5 (commencing with Section 70001) of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations which conflict, as determined by the office, with the demonstration project standards or regulations.

(f) The department shall issue a facility identification number to each facility selected for participation in the demonstration project.

(g) Persons who wish to establish recovery care programs shall make application to the office for inclusion in the pilot program. Applications shall be made on forms provided by the office and shall contain sufficient information determined as necessary by the office.

(h) As a condition of participation in the pilot program, each applicant shall agree to provide statistical data and patient information that the office deems necessary for effective evaluation. It is the intent of the Legislature that the office shall develop procedures to assure the confidentiality of patient information and shall only disclose patient information, including name identification, as is necessary pursuant to this section or any other law.

(i) Any authorized officer, employee, or agent of the office or the state department may, upon presentation of proper identification, enter and inspect any building or premises and any records, including patient records, of a pilot project participant at any reasonable time to review compliance with, or to prevent any violation of, this section or the regulations and standards adopted thereunder.

(j) The office may suspend or withdraw approval of any or all pilot projects with notice, but without hearing if it determines that patient safety is being jeopardized.

(k) The office may charge applicants and participants in the program a reasonable fee to cover its actual cost of administering the pilot program and the cost of any committee created under this section.

(l) The office may contract with a medical consultant or other advisers as necessary, as determined by the office. Due to the necessity to expedite the demonstration project and its extremely specialized nature, the contracts shall be exempt from Section 10373 of the Public Contract Code, and shall be considered sole-source contracts.

(m) The office may adopt emergency regulations to implement this section in accordance with Section 11346.1 of the Government Code, except that the regulations shall be exempt from the requirements of subdivisions (e), (f), and (g) of that section. The regulations shall be deemed an emergency for the purposes of Section 11346.1.

Applications to establish any of the four project sites authorized by the amendments made to this section during the 1987-88 Regular Session of the California Legislature shall be considered by the office from among the applications submitted to it in response to its initial request for proposal process.

(n) Any administrative opinion, decision, waiver, permit, or finding issued by the office prior to July 1, 1990, with respect to any of the demonstration projects approved by the office prior to July 1, 1990, shall automatically be extended by the office to remain fully effective as long as the demonstration projects are required to operate pursuant to this section.

(o) The office shall not grant approval to a postsurgical recovery care facility, as defined in Section 97500.111 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, which is freestanding, as defined in Section 97500.49 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, to begin operation as a participating demonstration project if it is located in the County of Solano.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to prevent the closure of postsurgical centers which provide necessary health care, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

An act to add Sections 317.5 and 317.6 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to minors.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 317.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

317.5. (a) All parties who are represented by counsel at dependency proceedings shall be entitled to competent counsel.

(b) Each minor who is the subject of a dependency proceeding is a party to that proceeding.

SEC. 2. Section 317.6 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

317.6. (a) On or before January 1, 1996, the Judicial Council shall, after consulting with representatives from the State Bar of California, county counsels, district attorneys, public defenders, county welfare directors, and children's advocacy groups, adopt rules of court regarding the appointment of competent counsel in dependency proceedings, including, but not limited to, the following:

- (1) The screening and appointment of competent counsel.
- (2) Establishing minimum standards of experience and education necessary to qualify as competent counsel to represent a party in dependency proceedings.
- (3) Procedures for handling client complaints regarding attorney performance, including measures to inform clients of the complaint process.
- (4) Procedures for informing the court of any interests of the minor which may need to be protected in other proceedings.

(b) On or before July 1, 1996, each superior court shall, after consulting with representatives from the State Bar of California, the local offices of the county counsel, district attorney, public defender, county welfare department, and children's advocacy groups, adopt local rules of court regarding the conduct of dependency proceedings that address items such as procedures and timeframes for the presentation of contested issues and witness lists to eliminate unnecessary delays in dependency hearings.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Section 21672 of, and to add Section 17539.35 to, the Business and Professions Code, and to add Section 319.3 to the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17539.35 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

17539.35. No person shall advertise, offer, or operate any contest, as defined in subdivision (e) of Section 17539.3, in which any prize, including any money, property, service, or other matter of value, may be awarded or transferred if the opportunity to win that prize is conditioned on a minimum number of entries or contest participants.

SEC. 2. Section 21672 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

21672. (a) Any person, or agent thereof, who knowingly manufactures, produces, or distributes unlicensed or counterfeit sports trading cards with the intent to deceive, injure, or defraud another, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Any person, or agent thereof, who violates this subdivision shall do both of the following:

(1) Refund to the buyer the full amount paid for the unlicensed or counterfeit sports trading card or the full retail value of any nonmonetary consideration received in exchange for the unlicensed or counterfeit sports trading card, or both.

(2) Be liable to the buyer for a civil penalty not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each violation. Each card sold represents a separate and distinct violation.

(b) Any person who knowingly sells a cut, unlicensed sports trading card that has been produced by cutting the card from a publication in which unlicensed sports trading cards are bound, without disclosing the source and the means of producing the card, with the intent to deceive, injure, or defraud another, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Any person who violates this subdivision shall do both of the following:

(1) Refund to the buyer the full consideration paid or furnished for the cut, unlicensed sports trading card.

(2) Be liable to the buyer for a civil penalty not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each violation. Each card sold represents a separate and distinct violation.

This provision does not apply to a sports trading card that is excluded from the definition of "unlicensed sports trading card" pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 21670 of the Business and Professions Code by reason of being bound in a publication.

SEC. 3. Section 319.3 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

319.3. (a) In addition to Section 319, a lottery also shall include a grab bag game which is a scheme whereby, for the disposal or distribution of sports trading cards by chance, a person pays valuable consideration to purchase a sports trading card grab bag with the understanding that the purchaser has a chance to win a designated prize or prizes listed by the seller as being contained in one or more, but not all, of the grab bags.

(b) For purposes of this section, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) "Sports trading card grab bag" means a sealed package which contains one or more sports trading cards that have been removed from the manufacturer's original packaging. A "sports trading card grab bag" does not include a sweepstakes, or procedure for the distribution of any sports trading card of value by lot or by chance, which is not unlawful under other provisions of law.

(2) "Sports trading card" means any card produced for use in commerce that contains a company name or logo, or both, and an image, representation, or facsimile of one or more players or other team member or members in any pose, and that is produced pursuant to an appropriate licensing agreement.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 66453, 66455, 66455.1, and 66455.7 of the Government Code, relating to subdivisions.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

66453. (a) A local agency may make recommendations concerning proposed subdivisions in any adjoining city, or in any adjoining unincorporated territory provided that the proposed subdivisions are within three miles of the exterior boundary of the requesting local agency. A local agency wishing to make recommendations concerning proposed subdivisions shall file with the local agency having jurisdiction over the subdivisions a map indicating the territory for which it wishes to make recommendations. The local agency having jurisdiction shall issue a receipt for the territorial map.

(b) Within five days of a tentative map application being determined to be complete pursuant to Section 65943 for a proposed subdivision located, in whole or in part, within the territory outlined on the territorial map, the local agency shall transmit one copy of the proposed tentative map to the requesting local agency.

(c) Within 15 days of receiving a copy of a proposed subdivision map, the requesting local agency may submit recommendations to the local agency having jurisdiction. The local agency having jurisdiction shall consider these recommendations before acting on the tentative map.

SEC. 2. Section 66455 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66455. (a) The Department of Transportation may file with the legislative body of any local agency having jurisdiction, a map or an amended map of any territory within one mile on either or both sides of any state highway routing if the department believes the subdivision would have an effect upon an existing or a future state highway in that territory, the route of which has been adopted by the California Transportation Commission. The local agency having jurisdiction shall issue a receipt for the territorial map.

(b) Within five days of a tentative map application being determined to be complete pursuant to Section 65943 for a proposed subdivision located, in whole or in part, within the territory outlined on the territorial map, the local agency shall transmit one copy of the proposed tentative map to the district office of the department in which the proposed subdivision is located.

(c) Within 15 days after receiving a copy of the proposed subdivision map, the department may make recommendations to the local agency regarding the effect of the proposed subdivision upon the highway or highway route. The local agency shall consider these recommendations before acting on the tentative map.

66455.1. (a) The Department of Water Resources may file with the legislative body of any local agency having jurisdiction, a map or amended map of any territory within one mile on either or both sides of any facility of the State Water Resources Development System, if the department believes a proposed subdivision may have an effect upon any existing or planned future facility of the State Water Resources Development System in that territory. The local agency having jurisdiction shall issue a receipt for the territorial map.

(b) Within five days of a tentative map application being determined to be complete pursuant to Section 65943 for a proposed subdivision located, in whole or in part, within the territory outlined on the territorial map, the local agency shall transmit one copy of the proposed tentative map to the office of the department nearest the subdivision, unless the department specifies a different office on the territorial map filed with the local agency.

(c) Within 15 days after receiving a copy of a proposed subdivision map, the department may make recommendations to the local agency regarding the effect of the proposed subdivision upon the State Water Resources Development System or proposed additions to the system. The local agency having jurisdiction shall consider any recommendations before acting on the tentative map.

66455.7. (a) Within five days of a tentative map application being determined to be complete pursuant to Section 65943, the local agency shall send a notice of this determination to the governing board of any elementary school, high school, or unified school district within the boundaries of which the subdivision is proposed to be located. The notice shall identify information about the location of the proposed subdivision, the number of units, density, and any other information which would be relevant to the affected school district.

(b) Within 15 days after receiving the notice, the school district may make recommendations to the local agency regarding the effect of the proposed subdivision upon the school district. If the school district fails to respond within 15 days, the failure to respond shall be deemed approval of the proposed subdivision. The local agency having jurisdiction shall consider any recommendations before acting on the tentative subdivision map.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 1033, 1034, and 10506 of, and to add Section 10506.4 to, the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1033 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1033. (a) Claims allowed in a proceeding under this article shall be given preference in the following order:

- (1) Expense of administration.
- (2) Unpaid charges due under the provisions of Section 736.
- (3) Taxes due to the State of California.
- (4) Claims having preference by the laws of the United States and by laws of this state.
- (5) All claims of the California Insurance Guarantee Association or the California Life and Health Insurance Guaranty Association, and associations or entities performing a similar function in other states, together with claims for refund of unearned premiums and all claims of policyholders of an insolvent insurer that are not covered claims.

Claims excluded by paragraphs (3) (except claims for refund of unearned premiums), (4), (5), (7), and (8) of subdivision (c) of Section 1063.1, subdivisions (h) and (i) of Section 1063.2, and paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 1067.02, shall be excluded from this priority.

(6) All other claims.

(b) (1) Every claim allowed under a separate account policy, contract, or agreement providing, in effect, that the assets allocated to the separate account shall not be chargeable with liabilities arising out of any other business of the insurer, shall be satisfied out of the assets properly allocated to and maintained in the separate account, excluding amounts allocated or transferred to the separate account by the insurer pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 10506, equal to the reserves maintained in the separate account for the policies, contracts, or agreements. No liabilities of the insurer arising out of any other business of the insurer shall be satisfied from assets properly allocated to and maintained in a separate account except (1) from amounts allocated or transferred to the separate account pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 10506 and (2) from any assets allocated to the separate account which exceed the reserves under the separate account policies, contracts, or agreements. For the purposes of this subdivision, "separate account policies, contracts, or agreements" shall mean any policies, contracts, or agreements that provide for separate accounts as contemplated by Section 10506, 10506.3, 10506.4, or 10541. Any valid and allowed claim against the general account for contractual benefits under an obligation authorized by Section 10506.4 shall be included as a claim within paragraph (5) of subdivision (a).

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, to the extent that any assets of a life insurer, other than those assets properly allocated to, and maintained in, a separate account, have been used to fund or pay any expenses, taxes, or policyholder benefits that are attributable to a separate account policy, contract, or agreement which should have been paid by a separate account prior to the commencement of delinquency proceedings, then upon the commencement of delinquency proceedings, the separate accounts which benefited from this payment or funding shall first be used to repay or reimburse the company's general assets or account for any unreimbursed net sums due at the commencement of delinquency proceedings prior to the application of the separate account assets to the satisfaction of liabilities of the corresponding separate account policies, contracts, and agreements.

(c) Upon the issuance of an order appointing a conservator or liquidator for any person under the provisions of either Section 1011 or 1016 or both these sections, the lien of taxes due to the State of California imposed by Article 4 (commencing with Section 12491) of Chapter 4 of Part 7 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code shall become subordinate to the reasonable administrative expenses of the proceeding under the order.

SEC. 2. Section 1034 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1034. After the issuance of an order of liquidation under Section 1016, any of the following transactions occurring within four months prior to the application for the order shall be voidable by the commissioner if the transaction has the effect of giving to or enabling any creditor of the person to obtain a preference over any other creditor of the same class, or a greater percentage of his or her debt than any other creditor of the same class:

- (a) A transfer of property of the person.
- (b) The creation of a lien on the property of the person.
- (c) The suffering of a judgment against the person.
- (d) The transfers or other payments by the person pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 10506 in support of guarantees contemplated by Section 10506.4.

SEC. 3. Section 10506 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10506. (a) Any domestic life insurance company may, after adoption of a resolution by its board of directors, allocate to one or more separate accounts, in accordance with the terms of a written agreement, any amounts which are paid to the company in connection with a pension, retirement, retirement medical benefits, or profit-sharing plan, or program for one or more persons, or with an individual or group variable life insurance policy, and which are to be, or may be, applied in payment or in making provision for payment of proceeds or benefits under the company's policies, contracts, or agreements of retirement benefits, and other benefits incidental thereto, in fixed or variable dollar amounts, or both. The income, if any, and gains or losses, realized or unrealized, on each account shall be credited to or charged against the amount allocated to the account in accordance with the agreement, without regard to the other income, gains or losses of the company. The amounts allocated to the accounts and accumulations thereon, by any life insurance company shall be invested and reinvested as specified in the policy, contract, or agreement without regard to any requirements or limitations prescribed by the laws of this state governing the investments of insurance companies, provided that the amounts allocated to separate accounts for which the insurer has issued guarantees of benefits as to dollar amount and duration or of funds as to all or part of the principal amount thereof or stated rate of interest, and the accumulations thereon pursuant to Section 10506.4, shall be invested in the types of investments permitted to life insurance companies for investments held in the insurer's general account as described in Article 3 (commencing with Section 1170), Article 4 (commencing with Section 1190), and Article 4.6 (commencing with Section 1211) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 1 (excluding Section 1212 thereof), except that the approved method of operations and applicable policy, contract, or agreement provisions shall govern the amount of these investments held in the separate account. However, with regard to variable life insurance separate accounts and accumulations thereon, the separate accounts shall have sufficient net investment income and readily marketable assets to meet anticipated obligations under policies funded by the account. The limitations contained in Sections 1192.4 and 1198 are not applicable to these investments. These investments shall not be included in determining the propriety of other investments of the company. The liability of the company with respect thereto, but only to the extent prescribed in the agreement, shall be shown on the statement of the company in the manner prescribed by the commissioner. Amounts allocated by an insurance company to separate accounts in the exercise of the power granted by this section shall be owned by the company, but shall not be chargeable with liabilities arising out of any other business the company may conduct except and to the extent provided in the policy, contract, or agreement. The company shall not hold itself out to be a trustee in respect to these amounts.

(b) In addition to amounts otherwise allocated to separate accounts, a domestic life insurer may allocate to the account or accounts amounts which otherwise would be subject to investment in accordance with Article 4 (commencing with Section 1190) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 1. The aggregate of these additional amounts shall not, however, exceed 1 percent of its admitted assets as of the preceding December 31, or 5 percent of the excess of its admitted assets over its liabilities and required reserves as of the preceding December 31, whichever is the smaller. The company shall be entitled to withdraw at any time, in whole or in part, its participation in any separate account to which funds have been allocated as provided in this subdivision and to receive, upon withdrawal, its proportionate share of the value of the assets of the separate account at the time of withdrawal.

(c) In addition to the allocations to separate accounts provided for in subdivision (a) of this section, a domestic insurer may, at the request of a policyholder or contractholder or the beneficiary of a policy or contract, allocate to any such separate account or accounts death payments, proceeds of matured endowments, dividends, or surrender values.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in Section 10506.4, or with the approval of the commissioner, and under such conditions as to investments and other matters as he or she may prescribe, which shall recognize the guaranteed nature of the benefits provided, reserves for (1) benefits guaranteed as to dollar amount and duration and (2) funds guaranteed as to principal amount or stated rate of interest, shall not be maintained in a separate account that, as provided under applicable policy, contract, or agreement, is or is not chargeable with liabilities arising out of any other business the company may conduct.

(e) Unless otherwise approved by the commissioner, assets allocated to a separate account shall be valued at their market value, or at amortized cost if it approximates market value within the limits and constraints imposed by the United States Securities and Exchange Commission, on the date of valuation, or, if there is no readily available market, then as provided under the terms of the contract or the rules or other written agreement applicable to the separate account. Unless otherwise approved by the commissioner, the portion of any of the assets of the separate account equal to the company's reserve liability with regard to the guaranteed benefits and funds referred to in subdivision (d) shall be valued in accordance with the rules otherwise applicable to the company's assets.

(f) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (f), a sale, exchange, or other transfer of assets may not be made by a company between any of its separate accounts, or between any other of its investment accounts and one or more of its separate accounts unless, in case of a transfer into a separate account, the transfer is made solely to establish the account or to support the operation of the contracts with respect to the separate account to which the transfer is made, and unless the transfer, whether into or from a separate account is made (1) by a transfer of cash, or (2) by a transfer of securities having a readily determinable market value, and the transfer of securities is approved by the commissioner. The commissioner may approve other transfers among the accounts if, in his or her opinion, the transfer would not be inequitable.

(2) Transfers from an insurer's general account to one or more of its separate accounts to establish and maintain reserves for the guarantees authorized by Section 10506.4 shall only be made in cash in accordance with methods of operations approved pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 10506.4. A transfer shall not operate to increase the amounts permitted to be allocated by an insurer to the separate accounts pursuant to this subdivision or by subdivision (b) of Section 10506, and the provisions of that subdivision shall not limit these transfers.

(g) Any domestic life insurance company which establishes one or more separate accounts pursuant to this section may provide for special voting rights and procedures for participants in the separate account relating to investment policy, investment advisory services, and selection of certified public accountants in relation to the administration of the assets in any the separate account. The voting rights shall be in addition to, and shall not affect, voting rights of mutual insurers.

(h) The purpose and intent of this section is to permit the issuance and delivery of policies or contracts, in connection with a pension, retirement, retirement medical benefits, or profit-sharing plan, or program for one or more persons, or policies of variable life insurance, providing for the payment of benefits in fixed or variable amounts, or both, and the establishment of separate accounts by domestic companies for the administration of and investments under these agreements. To protect the public and policyholders located in this state from hazardous operation by domestic and foreign companies, and to further the purpose and provision of this section, no domestic or foreign life insurance company shall undertake the issuance of any contract providing for variable benefits until the company has satisfied the commissioner that its condition or method of operation in connection with the issuance of these contracts shall not be such as would render its operation hazardous to the public or its policyholders in this state and, in the case of a foreign or alien insurer, that it meets the conditions prescribed in Section 716, for the issuance of a certificate of authority. In determining the qualification of a company requesting authority to issue contracts providing for variable benefits within this state the commissioner shall consider among other things, (1) the history of the company; (2) the character, responsibility, and general fitness of the officers and directors of the company; (3) the regulation of a foreign company by its state of domicile; (4) the adequacy of the investment management which the company is providing; and (5) the company's arrangements for the supervision of the marketing of the contracts. The commissioner may make reasonable rules and regulations as he or she considers necessary, proper, and advisable concerning the issuance and delivery of these policies and contracts and the payment of benefits thereunder and the manner in which the separate accounts shall be administered and which types of policies and contracts, if any, shall be subject to his or her approval prior to issue.

However, no company may provide variable benefits in its contracts unless it is an admitted insurer having and maintaining a combined capital and surplus of at least ten million dollars ($10,000,000).

(i) (1) Any contract providing benefits payable in variable amounts delivered or issued for delivery in this state on or after the effective date of the amendments to this section enacted at the 1971 Regular Session of the Legislature shall contain a statement of the essential features of the procedures to be followed by an insurance company in determining the dollar amount of these variable benefits. Any contract under which the benefits vary to reflect investment experience, including a group contract and any certificate in evidence of variable benefits issued thereunder, shall state that the dollar amount shall so vary, and shall contain on its first page a statement to the effect that the benefits thereunder are on a variable basis. Except for Article 3a (commencing with Section 10159.1) of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 2, in the case of a variable life insurance policy, and except as otherwise provided in this section, all pertinent provisions of this code shall apply to separate accounts and contracts relating thereto. Any variable life insurance contract, delivered or issued for delivery in this state on or after the effective date of the amendments to this section enacted at the 1992 Regular Session of the Legislature, shall contain such nonforfeiture provisions as are appropriate to such a contract.

(2) The reserve liability for variable contracts shall be established in accordance with actuarial procedures that recognize the variable nature of the benefits provided and any mortality guarantees.

(j) No insurer shall issue anywhere any group variable life insurance policy for which the master contractholder or any covered party is an individual residing in this state or is a corporation, association, trust, or other legal entity that is either domiciled in or has its principal place of business in this state, unless the insurer has become qualified to issue variable life insurance policies and its group master policy form together with all forms of certificates or notices thereunder have been approved by the commissioner. Group variable life insurance policies shall be issued only to groups referred to in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 10200) of Part 2 of Division 2.

SEC. 4. Section 10506.4 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

10506.4. (a) An admitted life insurer that is financially qualified pursuant to subdivision (b) and complies with the provisions of this section and those of Section 10506 that expressly refer to this section or are not inconsistent with it, may guarantee, pursuant to an approved policy, contract, or agreement, the value of the assets allocated to a separate account, which as provided under the applicable policy, contract, or agreement is not chargeable with liabilities arising out of any other business the company may conduct, or the investment results thereof, or the income thereon, or the benefits payable pursuant to the approved policy, contract, or agreement, and may transfer to the separate account cash to maintain its reserves for those guarantees pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (f) of Section 10506. The general account of the insurer shall be paid reasonable and sufficient compensation not less frequently than quarterly, for risks and other expenses incurred, from any separate account that receives a guarantee authorized by this section.

(b) For the purposes of this section “approved policy, contract, or agreement” means a policy, contract, or agreement, the form of which has been approved by the commissioner, for issue or marketing in this state, and which in addition to meeting the requirements of all pertinent provisions of this code, meets the requirements of one, and only one, of the following paragraphs:

(1) A policy, contract, or agreement meets the requirements of this paragraph if it satisfies and is expected to satisfy over the full life of the policy, contract, or agreement all of the following conditions:

(A) The weighted asset valuation reserve factor for the assets held in the separate account pursuant to the terms of the policy, contract, or agreement shall not exceed 2 percent.

(B) Guarantees of interest which extend beyond 14 months at any time shall be no greater than 3 percent per annum.

(C) Any reserves required because the contract value is less than the reserves required for the policy, contract, or agreement shall be maintained in a separate identified segment of the insurer’s general account or otherwise segregated within the general account, or be held in a separate account all of the assets of which shall also be chargeable with liabilities arising out of other business of the insurer.

(D) In the event the policy, contract, or agreement provides for withdrawals (other than those resulting from an election by a participant under a pension, retirement, retirement medical benefit, or profit-sharing plan) of amounts prior to the conversion date, if any, such withdrawals shall be made in either of the following manners:

(i) In a lump sum in an amount not to exceed the market value.

(ii) In one or more contract value installments the present value of which is equal to or less than the market value of the aggregate withdrawal.

(2) A policy, contract, or agreement meets the requirements of this paragraph if it satisfies and is expected to satisfy over the full life of the policy, contract, or agreement all of the following conditions:

(A) The weighted asset valuation reserve factor for the assets held in the separate account pursuant to the terms of the policy, contract, or agreement shall not exceed 4 percent.

(B) The market value of the assets held in the separate account plus any reserves described in subparagraph (C) shall exceed the current aggregate liabilities determined by discounting the guaranteed benefit liability cash-flows at the rate of 105 percent of the then current yields as quoted on United States Government issued securities having substantially similar maturities by the following applicable amount:

(i) For assets consisting of debt instruments, an amount equal to the asset valuation reserve "maximum reserve factor," provided, however, that such factor shall be reduced by 50 percent for the purpose of this calculation if the difference in durations of the assets and liabilities (as confirmed in the actuarial statement referred to in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) are one year or less.

(ii) For assets which are not debt instruments, 20 percent.

(C) Any reserves required because the contract value is less than the reserves required for the policy, contract, or agreement shall be maintained in a separate identified segment of the insurer's general account or otherwise segregated within the general account, or be held in a separate account all of the assets of which shall also be chargeable with liabilities arising out of other business of the insurer.

(D) In the event the policy, contract, or agreement provides for withdrawals (other than those resulting from an election by a participant under a pension, retirement, retirement medical benefit, or profit-sharing plan) of amounts prior to the conversion date, if any, such withdrawals shall be made in either of the following manners:

(i) In a lump sum in an amount not to exceed the market value.

(ii) In one or more contract value installments the present value of which is equal to or less than the market value of the aggregate

(3) A policy, contract, or agreement meets the requirements of this paragraph if it satisfies and is expected to satisfy over the full life of the policy, contract, or agreement all of the following conditions:

(A) The guarantees contained in the policy, contract, or agreement applicable to the value of the assets held in the separate account by the insurer shall be based upon a publicly available interest rate series or an index of the aggregate market value of a group of publicly traded financial instruments, such interest rate series or index to be specified in the policy, contract, or agreement.

(B) Assets held in the separate account and the accumulations thereon shall be invested in accordance with the requirements of subdivision (a) of Section 10506 applicable to policies, contracts, or agreements governed by this section and shall comply with all of the following:

(i) Interest-bearing bonds, notes, or other obligations shall be publicly traded or meet applicable requirements of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission enabling such securities to be publicly traded.

(ii) Investments in capital stock shall be traded on an exchange regulated by the United States Securities and Exchange Commission, and investments in any futures contracts with respect thereto shall be traded on an exchange regulated under the Commodities Exchange Act (Title 7, United States Code).

(iii) Issuers of interest-bearing obligations held in the separate account must be rated by an independent nationally recognized financial rating agency approved by the commissioner or by the Securities Valuation Office of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners.

(iv) With respect to any investments in shares of investment companies registered under the federal Investment Company Act of 1940 (15 U.S.C. Sec. 80a-1 et seq.) the assets of such entity must qualify as investments directly allowed for separate accounts pursuant to the requirements of subdivision (a) of Section 10506 applicable to policies, contracts, or agreements governed by this section.

(v) The type, quality, industry diversification, prepayment characteristics, expected duration, and other factors pertaining to investments shall be set forth in the approved method of operations which shall contain a demonstration satisfactory to the commissioner that such investments are likely to achieve the performance of the applicable index or interest rate series.

(C) The period between the commencement date of the guaranty of the value of the assets held in the separate account and the conversion date, if any, shall not exceed five years.

(D) Any reserves required because the contract value is less than the reserves required for the policy, contract, or agreement shall be maintained in a separate identified segment of the insurer's general account or otherwise segregated within the general account, or be held in a separate account all of the assets of which shall also be chargeable with liabilities arising out of other business of the insurer.

(E) In the event the policy, contract, or agreement provides for withdrawals (other than those resulting from an election by a participant under a pension, retirement, retirement medical benefit, or profit-sharing plan) of amounts prior to the conversion date, if any, such withdrawals shall be made in either of the following manners:

(i) In a lump sum in an amount not to exceed the market value.

(ii) In one or more contract value installments the present value of which is equal to or less than the market value of the aggregate withdrawal.

(4) For the purposes of this section, "conversion date" means the date, if any, specified in the policy, contract, or agreement upon which the assets held pursuant to it shall be converted or applied to the purchase of annuities or returned to the owner of the policy, contract, or agreement, or its designee.

(5) For the purposes of this section, the "asset valuation reserve factor" for each asset will be determined by the application of the asset valuation reserve factor, "maximum reserve factor," as contained in the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC) Life, Accident and Health Annual Statement Instructions (Instructions) and Valuation of Securities Manual, or if not contained therein, an asset valuation reserve factor of 20 percent shall be assigned. To determine the weighted asset valuation reserve factor, the asset valuation reserve factor shall be applied to the market value of each asset.

(6) For the purposes of this section, "market value" means the policy, contract, or agreement's proportionate share of the actual market value of the separate account at the time of withdrawal or if the determination of market value is by formula, the formula shall be set forth in the policy, contract, or agreement and shall be designed to closely match actual market value.

(c) No admitted life insurer may issue or market in this state, nor may any domestic life insurer issue or market anywhere, a policy, contract, or agreement, or coverage thereunder by certificate or otherwise, which contains the guarantees referred to in subdivision (a) unless both of the following apply:

(1) It has received from the commissioner authority to issue policies or contracts providing for the payment of variable benefits pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 10506.

(2) The commissioner has determined after application by the insurer in the form and content as the commissioner may require, review of the insurer's applicable proposed method of operations relating to policies, contracts, or agreements containing the guarantees authorized by subdivision (a), payment of fees specified in Section 736 and consideration of the matters set forth in subdivision (h) of Section 10506, that the insurer is financially qualified to issue policies, contracts, or agreements which contain the guarantees referred to in subdivision (a) including by meeting or exceeding the financial standards in subdivision (d).

(d) (1) No admitted life insurer that has been financially qualified pursuant to subdivision (c) may issue or market or continue to issue or market in this state, nor may any domestic life insurer issue or market anywhere or continue to issue or market anywhere, policies, contracts, or agreements, or coverage thereunder by certificate or otherwise, providing the guarantees referred to in subdivision (a) unless all of the following apply:

(A) It has at least one billion dollars ($1,000,000,000) of admitted assets or at least one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000) of aggregate capital and surplus.

(B) It annually complies with the requirement to furnish an actuarial statement in addition to the statement required by Section 10489.15, which actuarial statement is in form and substance satisfactory to the commissioner, and states that, after taking into account risk charges payable from the assets of the separate account with respect to the guarantee, the assets in the separate account, together with any reserves in excess of the contract value, make good and sufficient provision for the liabilities of the insurer with respect thereto, and further states that the pricing of any general account guarantees and other fees for administration paid to the general account are reasonable and sufficient, which opinion shall be accompanied by a memorandum, also in form and substance satisfactory to the commissioner, of the qualified actuary describing the calculations made in support of the opinion and assumptions used in the calculations.

(C) Its ratio of aggregate capital and surplus to its aggregate liabilities is not lower than 75 percent of such ratio as of the December 31 prior to its receiving financial qualification from the commissioner except as allowed under paragraph (4) of subdivision (d).

For the purposes of this section, "capital and surplus" includes capital and surplus plus the asset valuation reserve and one-half of the liability for dividends, all as reflected on the most recent financial statement on file with the commissioner. "Liabilities" means the total liabilities as reflected on such financial statement excluding therefrom liabilities for policies, contracts, and agreements issued in connection with separate accounts, liabilities in connection with contracts issued pursuant to this section and excluding both of the following:

- (i) The liability for any asset valuation reserve.
- (ii) One-half the liability for dividends.

(2) If the commissioner, following notice to the insurer and a hearing, determines that an insurer which has received financial qualification pursuant to subdivision (c) no longer maintains the financial strength needed to initially receive such qualification, the commissioner may issue an order requiring the insurer to cease issuing new policies, contracts, or agreements providing for guarantees contemplated by subdivision (a).

(3) In the event an insurer which has received financial qualification pursuant to subdivision (c) determines that it does not meet the requirements of subdivision (d), it shall promptly comply with paragraph (2) as if an order had been issued by the commissioner after notice and hearing, and within 45 days, notify the commissioner in writing at the place designated by the commissioner that it has ceased to meet the requirements specified in such written notice.

(4) In the event the insurer thereafter meets or exceeds all of the requirements of subdivision (d), it may notify the commissioner at the place designated by the commissioner, in writing, and upon the passage of 45 days following receipt by the commissioner of such notice, may resume issuing policies, contracts, or agreements that provide for guarantees contemplated by subdivision (a) as long as it meets the requirements of subdivision (d), provided, however, that if the insurer believes that the resumption of the issuance of the policies, contracts, or agreements that provide for the guarantees contemplated by subdivision (a) would not be hazardous to its policyholders or the citizens of California even though it does not meet the requirements specified in subparagraph (C) of paragraph (1), the insurer shall include in such notice a demonstration that the issuance of policies, contracts, or agreements containing the guarantees referred to in subdivision (a) is not hazardous to its policyholders or the citizens of California. Within the 45-day period, the commissioner may issue an order containing the requirements of paragraph (2) if, in the commissioner's opinion, any of the requirements of subdivision (d) are not met, or resumption would violate any provision of this code or, such resumption may be hazardous to the insurer, policyholders, creditors, or the public. The failure to issue an order within 45 days shall not be deemed an approval of such activities. The order shall specify the grounds upon which the commissioner is basing the order. The insurer may, within 10 days of the order, request a hearing. The hearing shall be a private hearing and shall commence not less than 10 days, nor more than 20 days, after the request for hearing is served on the commissioner.

(e) Policies, contracts, and agreements containing guarantees referred to in subdivision (a), that are not otherwise subject to filing under applicable law and regulation, shall be filed, before being marketed or issued in this state, by the insurer with the commissioner. If the commissioner finds that the policies, contracts, or agreements submitted pursuant to subdivision (a) contemplate practices that are unfair or unreasonable or otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of this code, he or she may disapprove of the forms of policies, contracts, or agreements specifying in what regard such policies, contracts, or agreements are unfair or unreasonable or otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of this code.

(f) The commissioner may issue a bulletin setting forth reasonable requirements for insurers issuing policies, contracts, or agreements containing guarantees referred to in subdivision (a) relating to all of the following:

(1) The reserves to be maintained by insurers for those policies, contracts, or agreements.

(2) The accounting and reporting of funds credited under those policies, contracts, or agreements.

(3) The disclosure of information to be given to holders and prospective holders of those policies, contracts, or agreements.

(4) The qualification of persons selling those policies, contracts, or agreements on behalf of the insurers.

(5) The filing of those policies, contracts, or agreements with the commissioner.

(6) Such other matters relating to those policies, contracts, and agreements as the commissioner considers necessary, proper, and advisable that are not inconsistent with this section.

The bulletin authorized by this subdivision shall have the same force and effect, and may be enforced by the commissioner to the same extent and degree, as regulations issued by the commissioner until such time as the commissioner issues additional or amended regulations.

(g) The authority granted in this section is in addition to the authority granted to life insurers by other provisions of this code and the requirements of this section shall not contravene such authority. No policy, contract, or agreement that constitutes investment return assurance pursuant to Section 10203.10 or Section 10507 may be issued pursuant to this section.

(h) Guarantees authorized by this section may only be made in connection with policies, contracts, or agreements issued to an owner which is not a natural person, and is an "accredited investor" as defined in Regulation D-Rules Governing the Limited Offer and Sale of Securities Without Registration Under the Securities Act of 1933, 17 Code of Federal Regulations Section 230.501 et seq., as promulgated by the United States Securities and Exchange Commission, in transactions where the aggregate single premium or deposit for all policies, contracts, or agreements (excluding certificates issued under a group or master policy) issued to the owner containing guarantees authorized by this section is at least one million dollars ($1,000,000). Notwithstanding the foregoing, an insurer may issue policies, contracts, or agreements qualifying under paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) above, to a pension, retirement, or retirement medical benefit or profit-sharing plan reasonably expected to receive contributions in excess of two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) within the first 12 months following issuance of the policy, contract, or agreement and which has more than 10 participants. Policies, contracts, or agreements providing coverage in this state, by certificate or otherwise, that contain guarantees authorized by this section issued on a group basis shall be issued only to groups referred to in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 10200) of Part 2 of Division 2.

SEC. 5. The provisions of Section 10506.4 of the Insurance Code do not affect the classification, rights, remedies, privileges, or priorities in a delinquency proceeding of the holders, owners, or beneficiaries of, or any other person claiming any interest in, any policy, contract, or agreement which was issued by any life insurer for which an order under Section 1011 of the Insurance Code was issued prior to the effective date of the act.

An act to amend Sections 5070, 5070.7, 5134, and 5152 of, and to add Section 5152.1 to, the Business and Professions Code, relating to accountants.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

5070. Permits to engage in the practice of public accountancy in this state shall be issued by the board only to holders of the certificate of certified public accountant issued under this chapter and to those partnerships, corporations, and other persons who, upon application approved by the board, are registered with the board under this chapter. All applicants for registration shall furnish satisfactory evidence that the applicant is entitled to registration and shall pay the fee as provided in Article 8 (commencing with Section 5130). Every partnership, corporation, and other person to whom a permit is issued after December 31, 1962, shall, in addition to any other fee which may be payable, pay the initial permit fee provided in Article 8 (commencing with Section 5130).

Each partnership, corporation, and other person issued a permit by the board to practice as a certified public accountant or as a public accountant shall be furnished with a suitable certificate evidencing such registration.

SEC. 2. Section 5070.7 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5070.7. (a) A permit that is not renewed within five years following its expiration may not be renewed, restored, or reinstated thereafter, and the certificate of the holder of the permit shall be canceled immediately upon expiration of the five-year period, except as provided in subdivision (e).

(b) A partnership or corporation whose certificate has been canceled by operation of this section may obtain a new certificate and permit only if it again meets the requirements set forth in this chapter relating to registration and pays the registration fee and initial permit fee.

(c) A certified public accountant whose certificate is canceled by operation of this section may apply for and obtain a new certificate and permit if the applicant:

(1) Is not subject to denial of a certificate and permit under Section 480.

(2) Pays all of the fees that would be required of him or her if he or she were then applying for the certificate and permit for the first time.

(3) Takes and passes the examination which would be required of him or her if he or she were then applying for the certificate for the first time. The examination may be waived in any case in which the applicant establishes to the satisfaction of the board that, with due regard for the public interest, he or she is qualified to engage in practice as a certified public accountant.

(d) The board may, by appropriate regulation, provide for the waiver or refund of all or any part of the application fee in those cases in which a certificate is issued without an examination under this section.

(e) Revoked permits may not be renewed, but may be reinstated by the board, without regard to the length of time that has elapsed since the permit was revoked, and with conditions and restrictions as the board shall determine.

5134. The amount of fees prescribed by this chapter is as follows:

(a) The fee to be charged to each applicant for the certified public accountant examination shall be fixed by the board at an amount to equal the actual cost to the board of the purchase or development of the written examination, plus the estimated cost to the board of administering the written examination and shall not exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250). The board may charge a reexamination fee equal to the actual cost to the board of the purchase or development of the written examination or any of its component parts, plus the estimated cost to the board of administering the written examination and not to exceed fifty dollars ($50) for each part that is subject to reexamination.

(b) The fee to be charged to out-of-state candidates for the certified public accountant examination shall be fixed by the board at an amount equal to the estimated cost to the board of administering the examination and shall not exceed one hundred fifty dollars ($150) per candidate.

(c) The application fee to be charged to each applicant for issuance of a certified public accountant certificate shall be fixed by the board at an amount equal to the estimated administrative cost to the board of processing and issuing the certificate and shall not exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

(d) The application fee to be charged to each applicant for issuance of a certified public accountant certificate by waiver of examination shall be fixed by the board at an amount equal to the estimated administrative cost to the board of processing and issuing the certificate and shall not exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

(e) The fee to be charged to each applicant for registration shall be fixed by the board and shall not exceed one hundred fifty dollars ($150).

(f) The board shall fix the biennial renewal fee so that, together with the estimated amount from revenue other than that generated by subdivisions (a) to (d), inclusive, the reserve balance in the board's contingent fund shall be equal to approximately three months of annual authorized expenditures. Any increase in the renewal fee made after July 1, 1990, shall be effective upon a determination by the board, by regulation adopted pursuant to subdivision (k), that additional moneys are required to fund authorized expenditures other than those specified in subdivisions (a) to (d), inclusive, and maintain the board's contingent fund reserve balance equal to three months of estimated annual authorized expenditures in the fiscal year in which the expenditures will occur. The biennial fee for the renewal of each of the permits to engage in the practice of public accountancy specified in Section 5070 shall not exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

(g) The delinquency fee shall be 50 percent of the accrued renewal fee.

(h) The initial permit fee is an amount equal to the renewal fee in effect on the last regular renewal date before the date on which the permit is issued, except that, if the permit is issued one year or less before it will expire, then the initial permit fee is an amount equal to 50 percent of the renewal fee in effect on the last regular renewal date before the date on which the permit is issued. The board may, by regulation, provide for the waiver or refund of the initial permit fee where the permit is issued less than 45 days before the date on which it will expire.

(i) The fee to be charged for filing of sponsor agreements for continuing education courses shall be fixed by the board at not more than one hundred dollars ($100). Universities, colleges, or other four-year institutions of learning accredited by a regional or national accrediting agency or association included in a list of those agencies or associations published by the United States Commissioner of Education under the requirements of Section 253 of the Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act of 1952, known as Public Law 550 of the 82nd Congress, as amended, are exempted from the payment of this filing fee.

(j) The actual and estimated costs referred to in this section shall be calculated every two years using a survey of all costs attributable to the applicable subdivision.

(k) Upon the effective date of this section the board shall fix the fees in accordance with the limits of this section and, on and after July 1, 1990, any increase in any fee fixed by the board shall be pursuant to regulation duly adopted by the board in accordance with the limits of this section.

(l) Fees collected pursuant to subdivisions (a) to (d), inclusive, shall be fixed by the board in amounts necessary to recover the actual costs of providing the service for which the fee is assessed, as projected for the fiscal year commencing on the date the fees become effective.

(m) The application fee to be charged to each applicant for issuance of a retired certified public accountant seal or a retired public accountant seal pursuant to Section 5070.1 shall be fixed by the board at an amount equal to the estimated administrative cost to the board of processing and issuing the seal and shall not exceed one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125).

SEC. 4. Section 5152 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5152. Each accountancy corporation shall file with the board at the times the board may require a report containing information pertaining to qualification and compliance with the statutes, rules and regulations of the board as the board may determine. All reports shall be signed and verified by an officer of the corporation.

SEC. 5. Section 5152.1 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

5152.1. Each accountancy corporation shall renew its permit to practice biennially and shall pay the renewal fee fixed by the board in accordance with Section 5134.

CHAPTER 1078

An act to amend Section 40453 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to air pollution.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 40453 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

40453. (a) By July 1, 1991, and every three years thereafter, the south coast district board shall contract with an independent auditor to conduct a performance audit that will assess all of the following:

(1) Whether the objectives of proposed, new, or ongoing programs established by the Legislature or another authorizing body, are being, or will be, achieved.

(2) The effectiveness of the individual programs and activities of the south coast district.

(3) Whether the south coast district has complied with the laws, rules, and regulations applicable to the program.

(4) Whether there exist alternatives for carrying out the south coast district program that might yield desired results more effectively and efficiently, albeit at lower or higher cost.

(b) The performance audit shall include an assessment of policies, procedures, and productivity, as feasible, and shall make recommendations for changes that would enable the south coast district to meet its statutory mandates in a cost-effective manner.

(c) Prior to entering into a contract pursuant to subdivision (a), the district shall draft a request for proposals to be issued to qualified independent firms, which shall be reviewed by the Legislative Analyst prior to issuance.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to add Division 1.1 (commencing with Section 4000) to the Financial Code, relating to financial institutions.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Division 1.1 (commencing with Section 4000) is added to the Financial Code, to read:

DIVISION 1.1. THE SETTING OF FEES IN CONSUMER CREDIT AGREEMENTS AND RELATED CONSUMER PROTECTIONS

4000. (a) For purposes of this division, the following terms have the following meanings:

(1) "Charge cardholder" and "charge card issuer" have the meaning defined in Section 1748.21 of the Civil Code and "charge card" means those cards defined in subdivision (a) of Section 1748.21 of the Civil Code and upon which the full balance is due and payable in each billing cycle.

(2) "Consumer" means a natural person.

(3) "Consumer credit agreement" means any written instrument providing for an extension of unsecured open-end credit for personal, family, or household purposes, that governs the relationship between a supervised financial organization and one or more consumers.

(4) "Charge card agreement" means the written instrument that creates and governs the relationship between a charge card issuer and one or more consumers.

(5) "Minimum payment" means that amount of money recited on a billing statement for an open-end credit account that must be received by the supervised financial institution by a specified due date.

(6) "Open-end credit" has the meaning set forth in Section 226.2(a)(20) of Regulation Z.

(7) "Regulation Z" means any rule, regulation, or interpretation promulgated by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System under the federal Truth in Lending Act, as amended (15 U.S.C. Sec. 1601 et seq.), and any interpretation or approval issued by an official or employee of the Federal Reserve System duly authorized by the board under the Truth in Lending Act, as amended, to issue interpretations or approvals.

(8) "Security interest" has the meaning set forth in Section 226.2(a)(25) of Regulation Z.

(9) "Supervised financial organization" means a state or federally regulated bank, savings association, savings bank, or credit union, or a subsidiary of any of the above.

(10) "Unsecured" means that the supervised financial organization is not granted a security interest in personal or real property under the consumer credit agreement.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the definitions contained in this section shall control transactions governed by this division.

4001. (a) A supervised financial organization or charge card issuer may not charge more than any of the following amounts:

(1) If set forth in the consumer credit or charge card agreement, one of the following fees:

(A) Seven dollars ($7) with respect to any monthly billing cycle as a late payment charge on the minimum payment due that is not paid within five days after the date the payment is due.

(B) Ten dollars ($10) with respect to any monthly billing cycle as a late payment charge on the minimum payment due that is not paid within 10 days after the date the payment is due.

(C) Fifteen dollars ($15) with respect to any monthly billing cycle as a late payment charge on the minimum payment due that is not paid within 15 days after the date the payment is due.

(2) In lieu of the fee permitted by paragraph (1), if the consumer has already incurred two late payment fees during the preceding 12-month period, the fee charged may be no more than ten dollars ($10) with respect to any monthly billing cycle as a late payment charge on the minimum payment due that is not paid within five days after the date the payment is due.

(3) Ten dollars ($10) with respect to any charge that causes the outstanding balance to exceed the credit limit by five hundred dollars ($500) or 120 percent, whichever is less. No overlimit fee may be charged unless the charge causes the outstanding balance to exceed the credit limit by five hundred dollars ($500) or 120 percent, whichever is less. Not more than one overlimit charge may be assessed with respect to any monthly billing cycle.

(b) In addition to imposing a fee for any late payment or overlimit as authorized by subdivision (a), a supervised financial organization may assess a finance charge at the rates set forth in the consumer credit agreement on the outstanding balance, which may include any late payment or overlimit fee charged on a prior billing statement.

(c) Whenever a consumer fails to make a minimum payment on or before the due date specified in the billing statement, plus the applicable late payment grace period, a late payment fee may be assessed by the supervised financial organization or charge card issuer. A supervised financial organization or charge card issuer may impose no more than one late payment fee with respect to any monthly billing cycle. All payments by the consumer shall be applied by a supervised financial organization to satisfaction of scheduled payments in the order that they become due. A charge card issuer shall apply all payments made by the consumer to satisfaction of unpaid amounts in the order that they become due.

(d) A supervised financial organization shall provide a minimum number of days between the monthly billing statement date and the date upon which the minimum payment is due, exclusive of the applicable late payment grace period provided for in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), and a charge card issuer shall provide a minimum number of days between the monthly billing statement date and the date upon which the applicable late payment grace period provided for in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) begins to run, of at least:

(1) Twenty-three days, on an average basis over a calendar year or other consecutive 12-month period, for any organization or issuer charging the fee authorized by subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a).

(2) Twenty days, on an average basis over a calendar year or other consecutive 12-month period, for any organization or issuer charging the fee authorized by subparagraph (B) or (C) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a).

(e) (1) The applicable late payment grace period and fee shall be disclosed in the consumer credit agreement. The late payment grace period shall be disclosed in the consumer credit or charge card agreement but need not be disclosed in any monthly or other billing statement. The amount and conditions for imposition of any fee for overlimit activity shall also be disclosed in the consumer credit or charge card agreement.

(2) If a consumer credit or charge card agreement contains a provision for a late payment fee or overlimit fee, each monthly or other billing statement shall disclose the amount of the late payment and overlimit fee and the date the minimum payment is due.

An act to add Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 4161) to Chapter 6 of Part 3 of Division 3 of the Food and Agricultural Code, and to amend Section 6546 of the Government Code, relating to district agricultural associations, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 4161) is added to Chapter 6 of Part 3 of Division 3 of the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

Article 3.5. 25th District Agricultural Association

4161. (a) The 25th District Agricultural Association may enter into a joint powers agreement pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 6500) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code with the City of Napa for the purpose of establishing and operating a Napa Center for Wine, Food, and the Arts facility. In addition to those powers specifically authorized to be exercised by Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 6500) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, the joint powers agency may accept the donation of, acquire, own, or lease, real property, and may plan, finance by the sale of revenue bonds, construct, equip, and furnish the facility, and parking facilities, and any betterments, improvements, and facilities related thereto, including a bridge to provide access to the facility across the Napa River. The joint powers agency may make and enter into contracts and employ agents and employees. The joint powers agency may manage, maintain, and operate the facility, or may enter into management contracts for the operation of the facility.

(b) The state is not liable for any debt incurred by the joint powers agency in the event of any default on revenue bonds issued by the agency. This disclaimer shall be deemed a provision of the joint powers agreement.

4162. The 25th District Agricultural Association may accept the donation of any real property suitable for the location of the Napa Center of Wine, Food, and the Arts facility, and may lease the property to the joint powers agency.

SEC. 2. Section 6546 of the Government Code is amended to read:

6546. In addition to other powers, any agency, commission, or board provided for by a joint powers agreement pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 6500) may issue revenue bonds pursuant to this article to pay the cost and expenses of acquiring or constructing a project or conducting a program for any or all of the following purposes:

(a) An exhibition building or other place for holding fairs or exhibitions for the display of agricultural, livestock, industrial, or other products, including movable equipment, entertainment facilities, and other facilities to be used in conjunction with holding a fair or exposition in several locations including those projects and facilities specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 19606.1 of the Business and Professions Code, that project and facility authorized by Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 4161) of Chapter 6 of Part 3 of Division 3 of the Food and Agricultural Code, and for those purposes specified in an agreement pursuant to Section 6516 of the Government Code.

(b) A coliseum, a stadium, a sports arena or sports pavilion or other building for holding sports events, athletic contests, contests of skill, exhibitions, spectacles, and other public meetings.

(c) Any other public buildings, including, but not limited to, general administrative facilities of a city, county, city and county, special district, or authority.

(d) A regional or local public park, recreational area, or recreational center, and all facilities and improvements related thereto.

(e) A facility for the generation or transmission of electrical energy for public or private uses and all rights, properties, and improvements necessary therefor, including fuel and water facilities and resources. As used in this chapter, "transmission of electric energy" does not include the final distribution of electric energy to the consumer.

(f) A facility for the disposal, treatment, or conversion to energy and reusable materials of solid or hazardous waste or toxic substances.

(g) Facilities for the production, storage, transmission, or treatment of water or waste water.

(h) Local streets, roads, and bridges.

(i) Bridges and major thoroughfares construction pursuant to Sections 50029 and 66484.3.

(j) Mass transit facilities or vehicles.

(k) Publicly owned or operated commercial or general aviation airports and airport-related facilities.

(l) Police or fire stations.

(m) Public works facilities, including corporation yards.

(n) Public health facilities owned or operated by a city, county, city and county, special district, or authority.

(o) Criminal justice facilities, including court buildings, jails, juvenile halls, and juvenile detention facilities.

(q) Publicly owned or operated parking garages.

(r) Low-income housing projects owned or operated by a city, county, city and county, or housing authority.

(s) Public improvements authorized in a project area created pursuant to the Community Redevelopment Law, Part 1 (commencing with Section 33000) of Division 24 of the Health and Safety Code.

(t) Public improvements authorized pursuant to the Improvement Act of 1911, Division 7 (commencing with Section 5000) of the Streets and Highways Code, the Improvement Bond Act of 1915, Division 10 (commencing with Section 8500) of the Streets and Highways Code, the Municipal Improvement Act of 1913, Division 12 (commencing with Section 10000) of the Streets and Highways Code, and the Mello-Roos Community Facilities Act of 1982, Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 53311) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5.

(u) Telecommunication systems or service, including, but not limited to, the installation, provision, or maintenance of that system or service.

(v) Programs, facilities, rights, properties, and improvements for the management, conservation, reuse, or recycling of electric capacity or energy, natural gas, water, waste water, or recycled water, including demand side or load management and other programs and facilities designed to reduce the demand for, or permit or promote the efficient use of, those resources.

“Programs,” for the purpose of this subdivision, shall include activities only to the extent the costs thereof may be charged to a capital account under applicable generally accepted accounting principles or are of a type required to be charged to a capital account by entities subject to regulation by the Public Utilities Commission or other regulatory body of the state.

(w) Equipment necessary to support the above-listed facilities or necessary to deliver public services therefrom, including, but not limited to, telecommunications equipment, computers, and service vehicles.

Bonds may be issued pursuant to this article if the joint powers entity, or its individual parties which contract pursuant to Section 6547.5, 6547.6, or 6547.7 to make payments to be applied to the payment of the indebtedness, have the power to acquire, construct, maintain, or operate one or more of the projects specified in this section.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

This project is critical to the economic and social livelihood of the North Bay Area, and is ready to proceed. Therefore, it is necessary that this enabling legislation take effect immediately.

An act to amend Section 1812.5095 of the Civil Code, relating to employment.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1812.5095 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1812.5095. (a) For purposes of this section, the term "employment agency" means an employment agency, as defined in paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 1812.501, or a domestic agency, as defined in subdivision (h) of Section 1812.501.

(b) An employment agency is not the employer of a domestic worker for whom it procures, offers, refers, provides, or attempts to provide work, if all of the following factors characterize the nature of the relationship between the employment agency and the domestic worker for whom the agency procures, offers, refers, provides, or attempts to provide domestic work:

(1) There is a signed contract or agreement between the employment agency and the domestic worker that contains, at a minimum, provisions that specify all of the following:

(A) That the employment agency shall assist the domestic worker in securing work.

(B) How the employment agency's referral fee shall be paid.

(C) That the domestic worker is free to sign an agreement with other employment agencies and to perform domestic work for persons not referred by the employment agency.

(2) The domestic worker informs the employment agency of any restrictions on hours, location, conditions, or type of work he or she will accept and the domestic worker is free to select or reject any work opportunity procured, offered, referred, or provided by the employment agency.

(3) The domestic worker is free to renegotiate with the person hiring him or her the amount proposed to be paid for the work.

(4) The domestic worker does not receive any training from the employment agency with respect to the performance of domestic work. However, an employment agency may provide a voluntary orientation session in which the relationship between the employment agency and the domestic worker, including the employment agency's administrative and operating procedures, and the provisions of the contract or agreement between the employment agency and the domestic worker are explained.

(5) The domestic worker performs domestic work without any direction, control, or supervision exercised by the employment agency with respect to the manner and means of performing the domestic work. An employment agency shall not be deemed to be exercising direction, control, or supervision when it takes any of the following actions:

(A) Informs the domestic worker about the services to be provided and the conditions of work specified by the person seeking to hire a domestic worker.

(B) Contacts the person who has hired the domestic worker to determine whether that person is satisfied with the agency's referral service.

(C) Informs the domestic worker of the time during which new referrals are available.

(D) Requests the domestic worker to inform the employment agency if the domestic worker is unable to perform the work accepted.

(6) The employment agency does not provide tools, supplies, or equipment necessary to perform the domestic work.

(7) The domestic worker is not obligated to pay the employment agency's referral fee, and the employment agency is not obligated to pay the domestic worker if the person for whom the services were performed fails or refuses to pay for the domestic work.

(8) Payments for domestic services are made directly to either the domestic worker or to the employment agency. Payments made directly to the employment agency shall be deposited into a trust account until payment can be made to the domestic worker.

(9) The relationship between a domestic worker and the person for whom the domestic worker performs services may only be terminated by either of those parties and not by the employment agency that referred the domestic worker. However, an employment agency may decline to make additional referrals to a particular domestic worker, and the domestic worker may decline to accept a particular referral.

(d) An employment agency referring a domestic worker to a job shall inform that domestic worker, in writing, on or before the signing of the contract pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b), that the domestic worker may be obligated to obtain business permits or licenses, where required by any state or local law, ordinance, or regulation, and that he or she is not eligible for unemployment insurance, state disability insurance, social security, or workers' compensation benefits through an employment agency complying with subdivision (b). The employment agency referring a domestic worker shall also inform that domestic worker, if the domestic worker is self-employed, that he or she is required to pay self-employment tax, state tax, and federal income taxes.

(e) An employment agency referring a domestic worker to a job shall verify the worker's legal status or authorization to work prior to providing referral services in accordance with procedures established under federal law.

(f) An employment agency referring a domestic worker to a job shall orally communicate to the person seeking domestic services the disclosure set forth below prior to the referral of the domestic worker the following disclosure statement:

“(Name of agency) is not the employer of the domestic worker it referred to you. Depending on your arrangement with the domestic worker, you may have employer responsibilities.”

Within three business days after the employment agency refers a domestic worker to the person seeking domestic services, the following statement printed in not less than 10-point type shall be mailed to the person seeking domestic services:

“(Name of agency) is not the employer of the domestic worker it referred to you. The domestic worker may be your employee or an independent contractor depending on the relationship you have with him or her. If you direct and control the manner and means by which the domestic worker performs his or her work you may have employer responsibilities, including employment taxes and workers’ compensation, under state and federal law. For additional information contact your local Employment Development Department and the Internal Revenue Service.”

(g) An employment agency referring a domestic worker to a job shall not specify that a worker is self-employed or an independent contractor in any notice, advertisement, or brochure provided to either the worker or the customer.

(h) Every employment agency referring a domestic worker to a job and who is not the employer of the domestic worker being referred, shall in any paid telephone directory advertisement or any other promotional literature or advertising distributed or placed by such an employment agency, on or after January 1, 1995, insert the following statement, in no less than 6-point type which shall be in print which contrasts with the background of the advertisement so as to be easily legible:

(i) An employment agency may not refer, in its advertising, soliciting, or other presentments to the public, to any bond required to be filed pursuant to this chapter.

(j) An employment agency may not refer, in its advertising, soliciting, or other presentments to the public, to any licensure acquired by the agency.

(k) Any violation of this section with the intent to directly or indirectly mislead the public on the nature of services provided by an employment agency shall constitute unfair competition which includes any unlawful, unfair, or fraudulent business acts or practices and unfair, deceptive, untrue, or misleading advertising. Any person or entity that engages in unfair competition shall be liable for a civil penalty not to exceed two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) for each violation.

An act to add and repeal Article 4.7 (commencing with Section 742.20) to Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 1 of, the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 4.7 (commencing with Section 742.20) is added to Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 1 of the Insurance Code, to read:

Article 4.7. Multiple Employer Welfare Arrangements

742.20. The Legislature finds and declares the following:

(a) An alternative to insurance programs, health care maintenance organizations, and panel provider organizations was established by Congress in 1974 through the Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA). Among the various employee benefit programs established and governed by ERISA are multiple employer welfare arrangements (MEWA), which are subject as well to state regulatory and fiscal standards not inconsistent with ERISA. MEWAs permit employer members of trade associations to create trust funds for the purpose of offering and providing health care benefits to their employees. MEWAs can be created as fully insured or self-funded or partially self-funded benefit programs.

(b) The Legislature recognizes that some MEWAs provide an alternative mechanism to traditional health insurance for small employers. It is the intent of the Legislature to ensure the financial integrity of those MEWA programs that are already in existence by requiring self-funded or partially self-funded MEWAs to obtain a certificate of compliance from the Department of Insurance. In order for the Department of Insurance to grant a certificate of compliance, the MEWA must adhere to standards set forth in this act which are not inconsistent with the provisions of ERISA. Further, it is the intent of the Legislature to provide the Department of Insurance with the authority to levy monetary penalties and to revoke certificates of compliance from MEWAs that violate the provisions of this act.

(c) The Legislature has passed significant reforms in the area of small group health insurance. This article, in no manner, circumvents these reforms nor is it intended to be a precedent to do so. Therefore, the small group reform legislation applies to MEWAs to the extent it is not inconsistent with ERISA.

(d) The provisions of this article are consistent with and authorized by ERISA, which confers upon the states limited authority to regulate MEWAs.

742.21. "Multiple employer welfare arrangement" as used in this article has the same meaning as that contained in Section 1002(40) (A) of Title 29 of the United States Code. "Employee welfare benefit plan," as used in this article, has the same meaning as that contained in Section 1002(1) of Title 29 of the United States Code. A multiple employer welfare arrangement shall comply with the criteria set forth for an employee welfare benefit plan in order to qualify to obtain a certificate of compliance.

742.215. As used in this article, "self-funded" means a multiple employer welfare arrangement that undertook at all times and for a continuous period of five years to reimburse health benefit costs incurred by covered persons pursuant to the benefits and coverages provided by their plan exclusively from plan assets. "Partially self-funded" means a multiple employer welfare arrangement that undertook at all times and for a continuous period of five years to reimburse health benefit costs incurred by covered persons pursuant to the benefits and coverages provided by their plan exclusively from plan assets, provided, however, that these benefits are reimbursable to the multiple employer welfare arrangement by stop loss insurance only to the extent that the benefits exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) per claim.

742.22. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this article to allow a self-funded or partially self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangement to meet the requirements for a certificate of compliance to do business in California. If the self-funded or partially self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangement obtains and maintains a certificate of compliance under these sections, it shall not be considered an unauthorized insurer.

742.23. (a) After December 31, 1995, a self-funded or partially self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangement shall not provide any benefits for any resident of this state without first obtaining a certificate of compliance pursuant to this article, provided, however, that if the commissioner has not issued or denied an application for a certificate of compliance within 180 calendar days of the date of the filing of the completed application, the commissioner shall not take any action against the applicant solely on the basis that the department has not granted the certificate of compliance.

(b) The department may take regulatory action against a MEWA pursuant to all applicable provisions of this code during the period beginning on the effective date of this act and ending on the date on which the MEWA is certified under this article, at which time the provisions of this article shall apply.

742.24. To be eligible for a certificate of compliance, a self-funded or partially self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangement shall meet all of the following requirements:

(a) Be nonprofit.

(b) Be established and maintained by a trade association, industry association, professional association, or by any other business group or association of any kind that has a constitution or bylaws specifically stating its purpose, and have been organized and maintained in good faith with at least 200 paid members and operated actively for a continuous period of five years, for purposes other than that of obtaining or providing health care coverage benefits to its members. An association is a California mutual benefit corporation comprised of a group of individuals or employers who associate based solely on participation in a specified profession or industry, accepting for membership any individual or employer meeting its membership criteria, which do not condition membership directly or indirectly on the health or claims history of any person, and which uses membership dues solely for and in consideration of the membership and membership benefits.

(c) Be organized and maintained in good faith with at least 2,000 employees and 50 paid employer members and operated actively for a continuous period of five years.

(d) Have been operating in compliance with ERISA on a self-funded or partially self-funded basis for a continuous period of five years pursuant to a trust agreement by a board of trustees that shall have complete fiscal control over the multiple employer welfare arrangement, and that shall be responsible for all operations of the multiple employer welfare arrangement. The trustees shall be selected by vote of the participating employers and shall be owners, partners, officers, directors, or employees of one or more employers participating in the multiple employer welfare arrangement. A trustee may not be an owner, officer, or employee of the insurer, administrator, or service company providing insurance or insurance-related services to the association. The trustees shall have authority to approve applications of association members for participation in the multiple employer welfare arrangement and to contract with an authorized administrator or service company to administer the day-to-day affairs of the multiple employer welfare arrangement.

(e) Benefits shall be offered only to association members.

(f) Benefits may be offered only through life agents, as defined in Section 1622, licensed in the state whose names, addresses, and telephone numbers have been filed with the commissioner as licensed life agents for the multiple employer welfare arrangement.

(g) Be operated in accordance with sound actuarial principles and conform to the requirements of Section 742.31.

(h) File an application with the department for a certificate of compliance no later than June 30, 1995.

(i) The multiple employer welfare arrangement shall at all times maintain aggregate stop loss insurance providing the arrangement with coverage with an attachment point which is not greater than 125 percent of annual expected claims. The commissioner may, by regulation, define "expected claims" for purposes of this subdivision and provide for adjustments in the amount of the percentage in specified circumstances in which the arrangement specifically provides for and maintains reserves in accordance with sound actuarial principles as provided in Section 742.31.

(j) The multiple employer welfare arrangement shall establish and maintain specific stop loss insurance providing the arrangement with coverage with an attachment point which is not greater than 5 percent of annual expected claims. The commissioner may, by regulation, define "expected claims" for purposes of this subdivision and provide for adjustments in the amount of that percentage as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this subdivision determined by sound actuarial principles as provided in Section 742.31.

(k) The multiple employer welfare arrangement shall establish and maintain appropriate loss and loss adjustment reserves determined by sound actuarial principles as provided in Section 742.31.

(l) The association has within its own organization adequate facilities and competent personnel to serve the multiple employer welfare arrangement, or has contracted with a licensed third-party administrator to provide those services.

(m) The association has established a procedure for handling claims for benefits in the event of the dissolution of the multiple employer welfare arrangement.

(n) On and after January 1, 1995, in addition to the requirements of this article, maintain a surplus of not less than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000); provided, however, that this amount be increased as follows: four hundred thousand dollars ($400,000) by January 1, 1996; five hundred fifty thousand dollars ($550,000) by January 1, 1997; seven hundred thousand dollars ($700,000) by January 1, 1998, if this article is still in effect; eight hundred fifty thousand dollars ($850,000) by January 1, 1999, if this article is still in effect; and one million dollars ($1,000,000) by January 1, 2000, if this article is still in effect.

(o) Submit all proposed rate levels to the department for informational purposes no later than 45 days prior to their implementation. The proposed rates shall contain an aggregate benefit structure which has a loss ratio experience of not less than 80 percent. The loss ratio experience shall be calculated as claims paid during the contract period plus a reasonable estimate of claims liability for the contract period at the end of the current year divided by contributions paid or collected for the contract period minus unearned contributions at the end of the current year.

(p) Comply with the investment requirements of Article 3 (commencing with Section 1170) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 1 and Section 1192.5.

742.25. In determining the qualification of a multiple employer welfare arrangement, the commissioner will consider, among other things:

- (a) The history of the multiple employer welfare arrangement.
- (b) The competency, character, integrity, responsibility, and general fitness of the management and administration.

(c) Financial stability.

(d) Whether claims were promptly and fairly adjusted and are promptly and fully paid in accordance with the law and the terms of the plan.

(e) Fairness and honesty of methods of doing business.

(f) Hazard to covered employees or creditors.

742.26. The multiple employer welfare arrangement shall issue to each covered employee a certificate evidencing coverage and a summary plan description of benefits and coverages provided. This evidence of the benefits and coverage provided shall contain the following statement: "The benefits and coverages described herein are provided through a trust fund established and funded by the _____ Plan, sponsored by the _____ Association. The trust is a self-funded plan established under ERISA (29 U.S.C. 1001 et seq.). This is not an insurance contract and the plan and trust is not acting as, or deemed to be an insurance company."

742.27. The department shall have the authority to revoke a certificate of compliance to any self-funded or partially self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangement if the department determines any of the following:

(a) The multiple employer welfare arrangement has failed, after written request by the commissioner, to remove or discharge any officer, director, trustee, or other employee who has been convicted of any crime involving fraud, dishonesty, or moral turpitude.

(b) The multiple employer welfare arrangement has unreasonably failed or refused to furnish any report or statement or has unreasonably refused the department access to its books or records as required by this article.

(c) The multiple employer welfare arrangement has failed for an unreasonable period to pay any judgment rendered against it by a court or other applicable regulatory agency or body.

(d) The multiple employer welfare arrangement is conducting business fraudulently or is not meeting its contractual obligations in good faith.

(e) The multiple employer welfare arrangement fails to comply with the provisions of Section 790.03.

(f) The multiple employer welfare arrangement fails to comply with Chapter 14 (commencing with Section 10700) of Part 2 of Division 2.

(g) The multiple employer welfare arrangement fails to comply with Article 3.1 (commencing with Section 1357) of Chapter 2.2 of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code.

(h) The multiple employer welfare arrangement fails to establish, or at all times maintain, compliance with the requirements of this article, or other laws made applicable to the multiple employer welfare arrangement by this article.

742.28. A self-funded or partially self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangement authorized by this article shall be limited to providing the following benefits:

(a) Medical, dental, optical, surgical, or other hospital care benefits.

(b) Benefits in the event of sickness, accident, or disability.

(c) Flexible benefits under Section 125 of the Internal Revenue Code. These benefits shall not include loss from liability imposed by law upon employers to compensate employees and their dependents for injury sustained by the employees arising out of and in the course of the employment, irrespective of negligence or the fault of either party.

742.29. An association seeking to establish an employee welfare benefit plan by the use of a self-funded or partially self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangement shall apply for a certificate of compliance on a form prescribed by the commissioner. The application shall be completed and submitted to the commissioner along with all of the following:

(a) Copies of all articles, bylaws, agreements, or other documents or instruments describing the rights and obligations of the employers, employees, and beneficiaries of the association with respect to the multiple employer welfare arrangement.

(b) Current audited financial statements of the association and the multiple employer welfare arrangement, and Internal Revenue Service Form number 5500 for the last five years.

(c) Proof of a fidelity bond in an amount equal to 10 percent of the funds handled annually by the multiple employer welfare arrangement. In no case may the amount of the bond be less than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) nor more than five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000).

(d) A fiduciary liability policy with limits of not less than five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000).

(e) A statement showing in full detail the benefit plan upon which the association has established and maintained the multiple employer welfare arrangement.

(f) A copy of all contracts or other instruments that it makes with or issues to the association members, together with a copy of its plan description and the printed material which was used in enrolling members during 1993 and 1994.

(g) Proof of aggregate and specific stop loss insurance with an insurer licensed to do business in this state.

(h) A copy of all contracts or other instruments that were used with administrators and producers during 1993 and 1994.

(i) Biographical affidavits for the trustees, plan administrators of the multiple employer welfare arrangement, officers and directors of the association, other persons acting in a fiduciary capacity and any third-party administrators performing services on behalf of the multiple employer welfare arrangement.

742.30. The commissioner shall not issue a certificate of compliance to a self-funded or partially self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangement unless the employers participating in the multiple employer welfare arrangement are members of a bona fide trade, industrial, or professional association as described in subdivision (b) of Section 742.24.

742.31. Each self-funded or partially self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangement transacting business in the state shall file all of the following with the commissioner:

(a) Within four months and 15 days after the end of each fiscal year, financial statements audited by a certified public accountant, and an actuarial opinion rendered by a qualified actuary. The opinion shall be based on standards adopted from time to time by the Actuarial Standards Board and on any additional standards that the commissioner may, by regulation, prescribe. For the purposes of this section, "qualified actuary" means a member in good standing of the American Academy of Actuaries who meets the requirements set forth in regulations of the commissioner. The qualified actuary shall be liable for damages to any person caused by his or her negligence or other tortious conduct.

(b) Within 60 days after the end of each fiscal quarter, unaudited financial statements, affirmed by an appropriate officer or agent of the multiple employer welfare arrangement.

(c) Within 60 days after the end of each fiscal quarter, a report certifying that the multiple employer welfare arrangement maintains cash or liquid assets in a claim reserve account sufficient to meet its contractual obligations and that it maintains a policy of aggregate and specific stop loss insurance.

742.32. The commissioner or any persons designated by the commissioner shall have the power to examine the affairs of any self-funded or partially self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangement and the association which established and maintains it, and for that purpose shall have access to all books, records, and documents that relate to the business of the multiple employer welfare arrangement, and may examine under oath its trustees, officers, agents, and employees in relation to the affairs, transactions, and condition of the multiple employer welfare arrangement.

742.33. Books, records, and documents pertaining to the business of the multiple employer welfare arrangement shall be maintained by the administrator for a period of five years. "Administrator," as used in this section, has the same meaning as that contained in Section 1002(16) (CA) of Title 29 of the United States Code.

742.34. (a) The following notice shall be provided to employers and employees who obtain coverage from a multiple employer welfare arrangement:

NOTICE

(A) THE MULTIPLE EMPLOYER WELFARE ARRANGEMENT IS NOT AN INSURANCE COMPANY AND DOES NOT PARTICIPATE IN ANY OF THE GUARANTEE

FUNDS CREATED BY CALIFORNIA LAW. THEREFORE, THESE FUNDS WILL NOT PAY YOUR CLAIMS OR PROTECT YOUR ASSETS IF A MULTIPLE EMPLOYER WELFARE ARRANGEMENT BECOMES INSOLVENT AND IS UNABLE TO MAKE PAYMENTS AS PROMISED.

(B) THE HEALTH CARE BENEFITS THAT YOU HAVE PURCHASED OR ARE APPLYING TO PURCHASE ARE BEING ISSUED BY A MULTIPLE EMPLOYER WELFARE ARRANGEMENT THAT IS LICENSED BY THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA.

(C) FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION ABOUT THE MULTIPLE EMPLOYER WELFARE ARRANGEMENT YOU SHOULD ASK QUESTIONS OF YOUR TRUST ADMINISTRATOR OR YOU MAY CONTACT THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF INSURANCE AT _____.

(b) Each multiple employer welfare arrangement should include the department's current "800" consumer service telephone number in the blank provided in paragraph (C) of this notice.

742.35. The department may conduct an examination of the financial condition of a self-funded or partially self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangement, and if it determines that the multiple employer welfare arrangement's financial condition does not comply with the requirements of this article, the department may apply any remedies authorized by this code.

742.36. Subject to the annual fee provisions of Section 742.39, every certificate of compliance shall be for an indefinite term and shall expire with the expiration or termination of the existence of the holder thereof. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, whenever the commissioner shall determine, after notice and hearing, that any person to whom the certificate has been issued is in arrears to the state or to any county or city in the state for fees, licenses, taxes, assessments, fines, or penalties, accrued on business transacted in the state, or is otherwise in default for failure to comply with any of the laws of this state regarding the governmental control of the person by the state, the commissioner may order the certificate holder to comply with those requirements within 30 days of that determination. If the certificate of compliance holder fails to comply within that period, the certificate of compliance may then be revoked, unless the commissioner's order is stayed by a court of appropriate jurisdiction.

742.37. (a) The commissioner may suspend the certificate of compliance of a holder thereof for not exceeding one year whenever he or she finds, after proper hearing following notice, that the person engages in any of the following practices:

- (1) Conducting its business fraudulently.
- (2) Not carrying out its contracts in good faith.
- (3) Habitually and as a matter of ordinary practice and custom compelling claimants under policies, or liability judgment creditors of the certificate of compliance holder, to either accept less than the amount due under the terms of its contracts or resort to litigation against the certificate of compliance holder to secure the payment of the amount due.

(b) The order of suspension shall prescribe the period of each suspension.

742.38. The commissioner, in any proceeding under Section 742.37 for any of the violations specified in that section, may by alternative order permit the holder of that certificate of compliance to elect in writing to pay a specified money penalty, within a specified time, in lieu of the suspension of its certificate of compliance. If the holder so elects, the sum of money specified shall be paid to the commissioner for use of the state, and shall not exceed fifty-five thousand dollars ($55,000). If the holder so electing fails to pay the specified sum within the specified time, the commissioner shall, unless his or her order is stayed, put in effect the alternatives specified in his or her order.

All money received by the commissioner pursuant to this section shall, when appropriated for that purpose by the Legislature, be available for expenditure by the commissioner in accordance with law in administration and enforcement of this code and other insurance laws.

The authority vested in the commissioner by this section shall be additional to and not in lieu of any other authority to enforce any penalties, fines or forfeitures, denials, suspensions, restrictions, or revocations of certificates of compliance unless otherwise authorized by law.

742.39. The commissioner shall require the payment of three thousand five hundred dollars ($3,500) in advance as a fee for filing an application for each certificate of compliance. Notwithstanding Section 742.36, each holder of a certificate of compliance of indefinite term shall owe and pay an annual fee of two hundred eighty-three dollars ($283) in advance on account of the certificate until final expiration. In addition, each holder of a certificate of compliance of indefinite term shall owe and pay an annual fee of two hundred eighty-one dollars ($281) for filing of financial information. These fees shall be for annual periods commencing on July 1 of each year and ending on June 30 of each year, and shall be due on each March 1 and be delinquent on and after April 1.

742.40. A multiple employer welfare arrangement shall offer health care coverage benefits to any new eligible person and his or her dependents under terms and conditions no less favorable to those offered to their employers' existing employees and their dependents, if the newly eligible person had health care benefit coverage with either the same or a different multiple employer welfare arrangement within 31 days. The new coverage shall comply with existing eligibility rules of the multiple employer welfare arrangement.

742.41. All employer groups who have health care coverage benefits provided by a multiple employer welfare arrangement for their employees and their dependents, regardless of individual condition or history of that employee and their dependents, shall continue to provide coverage thereunder pursuant to the terms and conditions of their multiple employer welfare arrangement, subject to only cancellation for nonpayment of contribution, or in the event of the termination of the multiple employer welfare arrangement.

742.42. The provisions of this code governing domestic incorporated insurers, their business, and their contracts shall, so far as applicable and not inconsistent, govern multiple employer welfare arrangements subject to this article and the business and contracts of these multiple employer welfare arrangements, except that these multiple employer welfare arrangements, their business, and their contracts shall not be subject to Article 14.7 (commencing with Section 1067) of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 1. There shall be a rebuttable presumption that any provision of this code is applicable to multiple employer welfare arrangements.

742.425. The provisions of this article shall not apply to multiple employer welfare arrangements as defined in Section 1144(b) (6) (D) of Title 29 of the United States Code.

742.43. The commissioner may adopt reasonable rules and regulations for the implementation and administration of this article.

742.44. This article shall remain in effect until January 1, 1998, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute that is enacted before that date deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 1083

An act to amend Sections 328 and 352 of, and to add Sections 328.5 and 352.1 to, the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to prisoners.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) Since 1988, the number of civil lawsuits filed against the state by inmates incarcerated with the Department of Corrections has outpaced the increase in California's prison population.

(b) Civil lawsuits make up approximately 55 percent of all lawsuits brought against the state by inmates incarcerated in California prisons.

(c) In the 1991-92 fiscal year, the state was billed for over 40,000 hours in attorney's fees in defending the state against civil lawsuits brought against the state by inmates.

(d) Aside from civil lawsuits brought against the state, employees of the Department of Corrections are subject to an alarming number of lawsuits brought by inmates.

(e) A large and disproportionate number of the civil law suits brought against the state and employees of the Department of Corrections are frivolous, and without grounds.

(f) It is in the best interest of the state to curtail the number of frivolous lawsuits filed by persons incarcerated with the Department of Corrections.

(g) By enacting this legislation, the Legislature intends to limit the ability to bring lawsuits by prisoners when the facts that give rise to the lawsuit are old, and difficult to prove or disprove.

SEC. 2. Section 328 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

328. If a person entitled to commence an action for the recovery of real property, or for the recovery of the possession thereof, or to make any entry or defense founded on the title to real property, or to rents or services out of the property, is at the time title first descends or accrues either under the age of majority or insane, the time, not exceeding 20 years, during which the disability continues is not deemed any portion of the time in this chapter limited for the commencement of the action, or the making of the entry or defense, but the action may be commenced, or entry or defense made, within the period of five years after the disability shall cease, or after the death of the person entitled, who shall die under the disability; but the action shall not be commenced, or entry or defense made, after that period.

SEC. 3. Section 328.5 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

328.5. If a person entitled to commence an action for the recovery of real property, or for the recovery of the possession thereof, or to make any entry or defense founded on the title to real property, or to rents or services out of the property, is, at the time the title first descends or accrues, imprisoned on a criminal charge, or in execution upon conviction of a criminal offense, for a term less than life, the time, not exceeding two years, during which imprisonment continues is not deemed any portion of the time in this chapter limited for the commencement of the action, or the making of the entry or defense, but the action may be commenced, or entry or defense made, within the period of five years after the imprisonment ceases, or after the death of the person entitled, who dies while imprisoned; but the action shall not be commenced, or entry or defense made, after that period.

SEC. 4. Section 352 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

352. (a) If a person entitled to bring an action, mentioned in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 335) is, at the time the cause of action accrued either under the age of majority or insane, the time of the disability is not part of the time limited for the commencement of the action.

(b) This section does not apply to an action against a public entity or public employee upon a cause of action for which a claim is required to be presented in accordance with Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 900) or Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 910) of Part 3, or Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 950) of Part 4, of Division 3.6 of Title 1 of the Government Code. This subdivision shall not apply to any claim presented to a public entity prior to January 1, 1971.

SEC. 5. Section 352.1 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

352.1. (a) If a person entitled to bring an action, mentioned in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 335), is, at the time the cause of action accrued, imprisoned on a criminal charge, or in execution under the sentence of a criminal court for a term less than for life, the time of that disability is not a part of the time limited for the commencement of the action, not to exceed two years.

(b) This section does not apply to an action against a public entity or public employee upon a cause of action for which a claim is required to be presented in accordance with Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 900) or Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 910) of Part 3, or Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 950) of Part 4, of Division 3.6 of Title 1 of the Government Code. This subdivision shall not apply to any claim presented to a public entity prior to January 1, 1971.

(c) This section does not apply to an action, other than an action to recover damages or that portion of an action that is for the recovery of damages, relating to the conditions of confinement, including an action brought by that person pursuant to Section 1983 of Title 42 of the United States Code.

An act to add Section 7514.1 to the Government Code, relating to governmental investments.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7514.1 is added to the Government Code, to read:

7514.1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law except Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 16649.80) of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2, any state or local public retirement system may invest, subject to and consistent with the standard for prudent investment set forth in Section 17 of Article XVI of the California Constitution, and the state and any political subdivision of the state may invest its assets in rated bonds, notes, or other obligations issued, assumed, or unconditionally guaranteed by the African Development Bank, the Asian Development Bank, the Caribbean Development Bank, the Inter-American Bank, the International Finance Corporation, the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development, the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development, and any other international financial institution that has met the payments of similar bonds, notes, or other obligations when due and in which the United States is a member.

An act to add Section 933.06 to the Penal Code, relating to grand juries.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 933.06 is added to the Penal Code, to read:
933.06. (a) Notwithstanding Sections 916 and 940, in a county having a population of 20,000 or less, a final report may be adopted and submitted pursuant to Section 933 with the concurrence of a least 10 grand jurors if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The grand jury consisting of 19 persons has been impaneled pursuant to law, and the membership is reduced from 19 to fewer than 12.

(2) The vacancies have not been filled pursuant to Section 908.1 within 30 days from the time that the clerk of the superior court is given written notice that the vacancy has occurred.

(3) A final report has not been submitted by the grand jury pursuant to Section 933.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 933, no responsible officers, agencies, or departments shall be required to comment on a final report submitted pursuant to this section.

CHAPTER 1086

An act to repeal and amend Sections 1026.2 and 1603 of the Penal Code, relating to criminal procedure.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1026.2 of the Penal Code, as amended by Section 1 of Chapter 1141 of the Statutes of 1993, is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 1026.2 of the Penal Code, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 1141 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended to read:

1026.2. (a) An application for the release of a person who has been committed to a state hospital or other treatment facility, as provided in Section 1026, upon the ground that sanity has been restored, may be made to the superior court of the county from which the commitment was made, either by the person, or by the medical director of the state hospital or other treatment facility to which the person is committed or by the community program director where the person is on outpatient status under Title 15 (commencing with Section 1600). The court shall give notice of the hearing date to the prosecuting attorney, the community program director or a designee, and the medical director or person in charge of the facility providing treatment to the committed person at least 15 judicial days in advance of the hearing date.

(b) Pending the hearing, the medical director or person in charge of the facility in which the person is confined shall prepare a summary of the person's programs of treatment and shall forward the summary to the community program director or a designee and to the court. The community program director or a designee shall review the summary and shall designate a facility within a reasonable distance from the court in which the person may be detained pending the hearing on the application for release. The facility so designated shall continue the program of treatment, shall provide adequate security, and shall, to the greatest extent possible, minimize interference with the person's program of treatment.

(c) A designated facility need not be approved for 72-hour treatment and evaluation pursuant to the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act (Part 1 (commencing with Section 5000) of Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code). However, a county jail may not be designated unless the services specified in subdivision (b) are provided and accommodations are provided which ensure both the safety of the person and the safety of the general population of the jail. If there is evidence that the treatment program is not being complied with or accommodations have not been provided which ensure both the safety of the committed person and the safety of the general population of the jail, the court shall order the person transferred to an appropriate facility or make any other appropriate order, including continuance of the proceedings.

(d) No hearing upon the application shall be allowed until the person committed has been confined or placed on outpatient status for a period of not less than 180 days from the date of the order of commitment.

(e) The court shall hold a hearing to determine whether the person applying for restoration of sanity would be a danger to the health and safety of others, due to mental defect, disease, or disorder, if under supervision and treatment in the community. If the court at the hearing determines the applicant will not be a danger to the health and safety of others, due to mental defect, disease, or disorder, while under supervision and treatment in the community, the court shall order the applicant placed with an appropriate forensic conditional release program for one year. All or a substantial portion of the program shall include outpatient supervision and treatment. The court shall retain jurisdiction. The court at the end of the one year, shall have a trial to determine if sanity has been restored, which means the applicant is no longer a danger to the health and safety of others, due to mental defect, disease, or disorder. The court shall not determine whether the applicant has been restored to sanity until the applicant has completed the one year in the appropriate forensic conditional release program, unless the community program director sooner makes a recommendation for restoration of sanity and unconditional release as described in subdivision (h). The court shall notify the persons required to be notified in subdivision (a) of the hearing date.

(f) If the applicant is on parole or outpatient status and has been on it for one year or longer, then it is deemed that the applicant has completed the required one year in an appropriate forensic conditional release program and the court shall, if all other applicable provisions of law have been met, hold the trial on restoration of sanity as provided for in this section.

(g) Before placing an applicant in an appropriate forensic conditional release program, the community program director shall submit to the court a written recommendation as to what forensic conditional release program is the most appropriate for supervising and treating the applicant. If the court does not accept the community program director's recommendation, the court shall specify the reason or reasons for its order on the court record. Sections 1605 to 1610, inclusive, shall be applicable to the person placed in the forensic conditional release program unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(h) If the court determines that the person should be transferred to an appropriate forensic conditional release program, the community program director or a designee shall make the necessary placement arrangements, and, within 21 days after receiving notice of the court finding, the person shall be placed in the community in accordance with the treatment and supervision plan, unless good cause for not doing so is made known to the court.

During the one year of supervision and treatment, if the community program director is of the opinion that the person is no longer a danger to the health and safety of others due to a mental defect, disease, or disorder, the community program director shall submit a report of his or her opinion and recommendations to the committing court, the prosecuting attorney, and the attorney for the person. The court shall then set and hold a trial to determine whether restoration of sanity and unconditional release should be granted. The trial shall be conducted in the same manner as is required at the end of one full year of supervision and treatment.

(i) If at the trial for restoration of sanity the court rules adversely to the applicant, the court may place the applicant on outpatient status, pursuant to Title 15 (commencing with Section 1600) of Part 2, unless the applicant does not meet all of the requirements of Section 1603.

(j) If the court denies the application to place the person in an appropriate forensic conditional release program or if restoration of sanity is denied, no new application may be filed by the person until one year has elapsed from the date of the denial.

(k) In any hearing authorized by this section, the applicant shall have the burden of proof by a preponderance of the evidence.

(l) If the application for the release is not made by the medical director of the state hospital or other treatment facility to which the person is committed or by the community program director where the person is on outpatient status under Title 15 (commencing with Section 1600), no action on the application shall be taken by the court without first obtaining the written recommendation of the medical director of the state hospital or other treatment facility or of the community program director where the person is on outpatient status under Title 15 (commencing with Section 1600).

SEC. 3. Section 1603 of the Penal Code, as amended by Section 3 of Chapter 1141 of the Statutes of 1993, is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 1603 of the Penal Code, as amended by Section 4 of Chapter 1141 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended to read:

1603. (a) Any person subject to subdivision (a) of Section 1601 may be placed on outpatient status if all of the following conditions are satisfied:

(1) The director of the state hospital or other treatment facility to which the person has been committed advises the committing court that the defendant would no longer be a danger to the health and safety of others, including himself or herself, while under supervision and treatment in the community, and will benefit from that status.

(2) The community program director advises the court that the defendant will benefit from that status, and identifies an appropriate program of supervision and treatment.

(3) After actual notice to the prosecutor and defense counsel, and to the victim or next of kin of the victim of the offense for which the person was committed where a request for the notice has been filed with the court, and after a hearing in court, the court specifically approves the recommendation and plan for outpatient status pursuant to Section 1604. The burden shall be on the victim or next of kin to the victim to keep the court apprised of the party's current mailing address.

In any case in which the victim or next of kin to the victim has filed a request for notice with the director of the state hospital or other treatment facility, he or she shall be notified by the director at the inception of any program in which the committed person would be allowed any type of day release unattended by the staff of the facility.

(b) The community program director shall prepare and submit the evaluation and the treatment plan specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) to the court within 30 calendar days after notification by the court to do so.

(c) Any evaluations and recommendations pursuant to paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (a) shall include review and consideration of complete, available information regarding the circumstances of the criminal offense and the person's prior criminal history.

SEC. 5. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to add Section 22825.4 to the Government Code, and to add Section 4142.1 to the Public Resources Code, relating to the Public Employees' Medical and Hospital Care Act.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22825.4 is added to the Government Code, to read:

22825.4. (a) Notwithstanding subdivisions (f) and (g) of Section 22825.3, for the purposes of meeting the vesting requirements of Section 22825.2 or 22825.3, employees of the Cities of Rubidoux and Coachella who become employees of the state as a result of the state's assuming, on or before December 31, 1990, firefighting functions for the city shall be credited with each complete year of service with the city, as if that service had been with the state. The department shall identify those employees and provide the corresponding service credit information to the Public Employees' Retirement System.

(b) No employee whose firefighting function was transferred to the state after December 31, 1990, shall receive credit toward postretirement health benefits vesting unless the former employer agrees to reimburse the state for the costs of that credit in accordance with subdivisions (f) and (g) of Section 22825.3.

SEC. 2. Section 4142.1 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

4142.1. Whenever a county, city, or district considers entering into a cooperative agreement pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 4142 under which the state would assume personnel from the county, city, or district, the county, city or district shall, prior to the execution of the cooperative agreement, give written notice to each affected employee of how the transfer of functions would affect his or her health benefits upon his or her retirement.

CHAPTER 1088

An act to amend Section 1569.193 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to residential care facilities for the elderly.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1569.193 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1569.193. (a) When a licensee dies, an adult relative, or other nonrelated adult, who has control of the property may be designated as the responsible party to continue operation of the facility if the following conditions are met:

(1) The licensee has filed a notarized written statement with the department designating the responsible party in the event of death, and the licensee has submitted the following information to the department:

(A) A notarized statement, signed by the designee acknowledging acceptance of designation as responsible party.

(B) A declaration signed by the designee under penalty of perjury regarding any prior criminal convictions.

(2) The department receives notification of the death during the next normal workday and is informed of the designee's intent to continue operating the facility as a residential care facility for the

(3) The designee files an application for licensure pursuant to Section 1569.15 within 20 working days of the date of death, shows evidence satisfactory to the department that he or she has the ability to operate the facility, and provides evidence of the licensee's death.

(b) (1) If the designee decides not to apply for licensure, he or she shall notify the department of that decision within five working days of the licensee's death. If the designee decides not to apply, the department shall assist the designee in the development and implementation of a relocation plan.

(2) If the designee decides to apply for licensure, the department shall decide within 60 days after the application is submitted whether to issue a provisional license pursuant to Section 1569.21. A provisional license shall be granted only if the department is satisfied that the conditions specified in subdivision (a) have been met and that the health and safety of the residents of the facility will not be jeopardized.

(c) If the designee complies with this section, he or she shall not be considered to be operating an unlicensed facility while the department decides whether to grant the provisional license.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Section 5782.27 of the Public Resources Code, and to amend Sections 3 and 8 of, and to add Sections 36 and 37 to, the Sonoma County Flood Control and Water Conservation District Act (Chapter 994 of the Statutes of 1949), relating to water.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5782.27 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

5782.27. (a) In addition to the powers which may be exercised pursuant to this chapter, the Camp Meeker Recreation and Park District may exercise the powers of a county water district as set forth in Article 1 (commencing with Section 31000) to Article 5 (commencing with Section 31080), inclusive, of Part 5 of Division 12 of the Water Code, Part 6 (commencing with Section 31300) of Division 12 of the Water Code, and Part 7 (commencing with Section 31650) of Division 12 of the Water Code.

(b) The powers granted to the Camp Meeker Recreation and Park District by this section may be exercised by the district only if the authority to exercise these powers is approved by the local agency formation commission.

SEC. 2. Section 3 of the Sonoma County Flood Control and Water Conservation District Act (Chapter 994 of the Statutes of 1949) is amended to read:

Sec. 3. The purposes of this act are to provide, to the extent that the board may deem expedient or economical for water conservation, the control, treatment, reuse, and disposition of floodwater, storm water, wastewater, and other waters of the district, and the generating of electric energy, and to that end the district is hereby created to be a body corporate and politic and as such shall have power:

(a) To have perpetual succession.

(b) To sue and be sued in the name of the district in all actions and proceedings in all courts and tribunals of competent jurisdiction.

(c) To adopt a seal and alter it at pleasure.

(d) To obtain by grant, purchase, gift, devise or lease; to hold, use, enjoy, sell, and contract to sell, lease, or dispose of real, personal and mixed property of every kind, within or outside the district, necessary, expedient, or advantageous to the full exercise and economic enjoyment of its purposes.

(e) To acquire and contract to acquire by purchase, dedication, donation, or other lawful means in the name of the district from private persons, public and private corporations, associations, agencies or districts, lands, rights-of-way, easements, privileges, material, and property of every kind within or outside the district, to do all work and to acquire, construct, maintain, and operate any and all works and improvements within or outside the district, and to make, execute, carry out, and enforce all contracts of every character, necessary, convenient, incidental, useful, or proper to carry out any of the purposes of this act, and to complete, extend, add to, repair, or otherwise improve any works or improvements acquired by it as herein authorized.

(g) To compel by injunction or other lawful means the owner or owners of any bridge, trestle, wire line, viaduct, embankment, or other structure which shall be intersected, traversed, or crossed by any channel, ditch, bed of any stream, waterway, conduit, or canal so to construct or alter the same as to offer a minimum of obstruction to the free flow of water through or along any such channel, ditch, bed of any stream, waterway, conduit, or canal, and whenever necessary in the case of existing works or structures, to compel the removal or alteration thereof for such purpose or purposes. All costs of relocating or otherwise changing any portion of a state highway shall be paid from funds available for rights-of-way for flood control purposes and not from funds appropriated for state highway purposes. All costs of relocating or otherwise changing any portion of a county highway shall be paid from funds available for rights-of-way for flood control purposes, unless the county road commissioner recommends to the board of supervisors that the cost of relocating a particular county highway should be paid from funds appropriated for county highway purposes, and the board of supervisors, upon that recommendation, finds that the relocating of the highway is of general benefit to the county.

(h) To construct, maintain, repair, and operate all levees, bulkheads, walls of rock or other material, pumps, dams, channels, conduits, pipes, ditches, canals, reservoirs, tunnels, drains, poles, posts, wires, lamps, powerplants, railroads, dredgers and all other auxiliary, incidental, necessary or convenient agencies, work or improvements that may be required to carry out, facilitate, repair, maintain, and complete the same.

(i) To incur indebtedness, and to issue bonds in the manner herein provided and to provide for the issuance of warrants of the district in payment of district obligations and the registration of any warrants not paid for want of funds and the rate of interest the warrants shall bear after registration and until payment.

(j) To cause assessments to be levied and collected for the purpose of paying any obligations of the district in the manner hereinafter provided.

(k) To appoint and employ engineers, attorneys, assistants, and other employees as may be necessary and fix their compensation, including, if it deem advisable, a clerk, superintendent of work, assessor, treasurer, and collector, define their powers and duties, and fix and determine the amount of bond required of each appointee and pay the premium on each bond; which officers and employees and each of them shall serve at the pleasure of the board.

The board shall have the power to combine any two or more offices in its discretion.

(l) To make transfers of money from the general fund of the district to any special fund and to create and administer special funds as may seem advisable, and to abolish same; to create and administer revolving funds to facilitate and assist in the carrying on and completing of acquisitions, works, and improvements provided for herein, and to abolish same; and to do any and all things necessary or incidental to the accomplishment of the things which are permitted to be done under this act.

(m) To make and enter into contracts with the United States, the State of California, any political subdivision, county, municipality, district, agency, or mandatory of the State of California or of the United States and any department, board, bureau, or commission of the State of California or the United States, or any person, firm, association, or corporation, jointly or severally, for the acquisition of property or rights or the construction, maintenance, and operation in whole or in part of any or all works and improvements provided in this act.

(n) To lease or rent to or from any of the parties named in subdivision (m) any property or rights necessary, in the opinion of the board, to accomplish or carry out any of the work or improvement or the maintenance thereof herein provided and under terms and conditions agreed to by the parties.

(o) To receive and accept any and all contributions in labor, material, or money from any of the parties named in subdivision (m) of this section, to be applied to the work or improvement herein provided for.

(p) To construct, purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire works, and to purchase, lease, appropriate, or otherwise acquire surface waters and water rights, useful or necessary to make use of water for any purposes authorized by this act.

(q) To control flood and storm waters within the district and the flood and storm waters of streams outside the district, which flow into the district; to construct any and all necessary drains or any other works and do any and every lawful act necessary to be done that the lands and other property within the district may be drained and protected from the effects of water, to maintain, repair, improve, or protect any drains or other works which are deemed necessary, to do any and all works necessary for the drainage of the lands of the district, to locate and acquire land needed for rights-of-way, including drains, canals, sloughs, water gates, embankments and watercourses, and to construct works necessary to provide drains, canals, sloughs, water gates, embankments and watercourses, and to provide the materials for the construction; to conserve waters by storage in surface reservoirs, to divert and transport waters for beneficial uses within the district; to do any act necessary to furnish sufficient water in the district for any present or future beneficial use, to sell water for the benefit of the district, conserve water for future use, and appropriate, acquire, and conserve water and water rights for any useful purpose, to operate works and exercise water rights, property rights, and privileges useful or necessary to convey, supply, sell, or make use of water for any purpose authorized herein, to supply, provide, and transport water for recreational purposes within or outside the district; to release waters from surface reservoirs to replenish and augment the supply of waters in natural underground reservoirs and otherwise to reduce the waste of water and to protect life and property from floods within the district; to do any and every lawful act necessary to be done that sufficient water may be available for any present or future beneficial use or uses of the lands or inhabitants within the district, including, but not limited to, irrigation, domestic, fire protection, municipal, commercial, industrial, and all other beneficial uses; and to fix rates and charges for such purposes, all revenues received from the collection of the rates and charges as fixed to be used as follows: (1) to pay interest on a bonded debt; (2) so far as possible, provide a fund for the payment of the principal of the bonded debt as it becomes due; (3) pay the operating expenses of the district; (4) pay repairs and depreciation of works owned or operated by the district.

(r) To cooperate and contract with the United States under the Federal Reclamation Act of 1902 and all acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto or any other act of Congress heretofore or hereafter enacted permitting cooperation or contract for the purposes of construction of works, whether for irrigation, drainage, or flood control, or for the acquisition, purchase, extension, operation, or maintenance of such works, or for a water supply for any purposes, or for the assumption as principal or guarantor of indebtedness to the United States, or for carrying out any of the purposes of the district, and to carry out and perform the terms of any contract made; and for these purposes the district shall have in addition to the powers specifically set forth in this act, all powers, rights, and privileges possessed by irrigation districts as set forth in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23175) of Part 6 of Division 11 of the Water Code, not inconsistent with this act.

(s) (1) To prescribe, revise, and collect rates or other charges for the services and facilities furnished by it, and may pledge, place a charge upon, contribute or otherwise make available, as security or additional security for the payment of any revenue bonds issued by the district, any and all revenues received or receivable from any services or facilities furnished by it.

(2) The district may provide that charges for any services or facilities shall be collected together with, and not separately from, the charges for other revenues or facilities rendered by it, and that all charges shall be billed upon the same bill and collected as one item. If all or part of a bill is not paid, the district may discontinue any or all services or facilities for which the bill is rendered.

(3) The district may provide for the collection of charges. Remedies for their collection and enforcement are cumulative and may be pursued alternatively or consecutively as the district determines.

(4) The district may provide for a basic penalty of not more than 10 percent for nonpayment of the charges within the time and in the manner prescribed by it, and in addition may provide for a penalty of not exceeding one-half of 1 percent per month for nonpayment of the charges and basic penalty. It may provide for collection of the penalties herein provided for.

(t) (1) To acquire, construct, own, operate, or maintain, a sanitation system, a sewer system, or both, or any other system or enterprise used or useful in the collection, treatment, disposal, or reuse of sewage, water, wastewater, or storm water, and to provide sanitation services and fix, levy, and collect charges and benefit assessments in connection therewith in accordance with this act or with any other provision of law authorizing the imposition of these charges and assessments.

(2) "Sanitation services" include, but are not limited to, the administration, planning, design, engineering, acquisition, construction, improvement, maintenance, operation, replacement, and repair of facilities used or useful for the purposes set forth in paragraph (1) and any acquisition or lease of equipment, land, easements, and rights-of-way necessary to own and operate those facilities, and payment of salaries and benefits to personnel necessary to operate those facilities.

(u) To contract with any public or private entity to provide sanitation services, including, but not limited to, the authority to operate and maintain any facility owned or operated by that entity.

(v) To exercise, with regard to sewage, wastewater, or storm water, any authority that the district has with regard to other waters, subject to compliance with applicable laws regulating the use and discharge of such waters.

SEC. 3. Section 8 of the Sonoma County Flood Control and Water Conservation District Act (Chapter 994 of the Statutes of 1949) is amended to read:

Sec. 8. (a) Claims for money or damages against the district are governed by Part 3 (commencing with Section 900) and Part 4 (commencing with Section 940) of Division 3.6 of Title 1 of the Government Code, except as provided therein. Claims not governed thereby or by other statutes, or by ordinances or regulations authorized by law and expressly applicable to those claims, shall be prepared and presented to the governing body, and all claims shall be audited and paid, in the same manner and with the same effect as are similar claims against the county.

(b) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, to the extent that any judgment or claim against the district is based upon a cause of action arising from the performance or nonperformance of the responsibilities or activities of a zone, any payment upon the claim or judgment shall be made exclusively from the funds of the zone and shall not be made from the general funds of the district or from the funds of any other zone.

(2) This subdivision does not apply to any cause of action arising prior to January 1, 1995.

(3) This subdivision applies only to causes of action governed by Part 3 (commencing with Section 900) and Part 4 (commencing with Section 940) of Division 3.6 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

SEC. 4. Section 36 is added to the Sonoma County Flood Control and Water Conservation District Act (Chapter 994 of the Statutes of 1949), to read:

Sec. 36. (a) Whenever the board determines that it is in the public interest to provide sanitation services within a specified area, the board may form a sanitation zone within that area in the same manner as a county board of supervisors forms a county service area pursuant to Chapter 2.2 (commencing with Section 25210.1) of Part 2 of Division 2 of Title 3 of the Government Code. No proceedings for formation of a zone may be instituted until the approval of the Sonoma County Local Agency Formation Commission is obtained pursuant to the Cortese-Knox Local Government Reorganization Act of 1985 (Division 1 (commencing with Section 56000) of Title 6 of the Government Code). The board may thereafter dissolve or modify the boundaries of any such zone in accordance with that act.

(b) In addition to any other authority granted to the board by this act, the board has the same authority with regard to the governance, administration, and operation of sanitation zones formed pursuant to this act as may be exercised by both of the following:

(1) A county board of supervisors acting as the governing body of a county service area pursuant to Chapter 2.2 (commencing with Section 25210.1) of Part 2 of Division 2 of Title 3 of the Government Code.

(2) The board of directors of a county sanitation district pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 4700) of Part 3 of Division 5 of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 5. Section 37 is added to the Sonoma County Flood Control and Water Conservation District Act (Chapter 994 of the Statutes of 1949), to read:

Sec. 37. (a) Notwithstanding Section 36, the Sonoma County Local Agency Formation Commission shall, within 60 days from the date of the receipt of a resolution of application from the Sonoma County Board of Supervisors, determine whether the dissolution of zones and the creation of successor zones described in subdivision (c) are subject to approval by that commission pursuant to the Cortese-Knox Local Government Reorganization Act of 1985 (Division 1 (commencing with Section 56000) of Title 6 of the Government Code).

(b) If the commission determines that the dissolution and creation of zones described in subdivision (c) are subject to its approval, the reorganization shall be subject to the Cortese-Knox Local Government Reorganization Act of 1985.

(c) If the commission determines that the dissolution and creation of zones described in this subdivision are not subject to commission approval, both of the following paragraphs shall apply:

(1) All of the following zones of Sonoma County Service Area No. 41 are dissolved:

- (A) County Sanitation Zone Sears Point.
- (B) County Sanitation Zone Graton.
- (C) County Sanitation Zone One Sea Ranch.
- (D) County Sanitation Zone Airport-Larkfield-Wikiup.
- (E) County Sanitation Zone Penngrove.
- (F) County Sanitation Zone Geyserville.

(2) All of the following sanitation zones are created within the district:

- (A) District Sanitation Zone Sears Point. The boundaries of this sanitation zone shall be those of its predecessor zone, County Sanitation Zone Sears Point.

(B) District Sanitation Zone Graton. The boundaries of this sanitation zone shall be those of its predecessor zone, County Sanitation Zone Graton.

(C) District Sanitation Zone One Sea Ranch. The boundaries of this sanitation zone shall be those of its predecessor zone, County Sanitation Zone One Sea Ranch.

(D) District Sanitation Zone Airport-Larkfield-Wikiup. The boundaries of this sanitation zone shall be those of its predecessor zone, County Sanitation Zone Airport-Larkfield-Wikiup.

(E) District Sanitation Zone Penngrove. The boundaries of this sanitation zone shall be those of its predecessor zone, County Sanitation Zone Penngrove.

(F) District Sanitation Zone Geyserville. The boundaries of this sanitation zone shall be those of its predecessor zone, County Sanitation Zone Geyserville.

(d) All of the following requirements shall apply if paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (c) apply:

(1) The district, on behalf of the sanitation zones created pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (c), is the successor in interest to all rights, duties, and obligations of the County of Sonoma, acting on behalf of the predecessor zones of Sonoma County Service Area No. 41, including, but not limited to, all rights, duties, and obligations relating to the enforcement, performance, or payment of outstanding bonds or other contracts and obligations of the predecessor zones.

(2) Any and all moneys or funds, including moneys due but uncollected, and any other obligations of the County of Sonoma held for or on behalf of the predecessor zones, shall be transferred to the district to be held for or on behalf of the successor sanitation zones.

(3) Any and all property, real or personal, held by the County of Sonoma for or on behalf of the predecessor zones shall be transferred to the district to be held by the district for or on behalf of the successor sanitation zones.

(4) Any and all resources and assets of the County of Sonoma held for or on behalf of the predecessor zones shall be transferred to the district to be held for or on behalf of the successor sanitation zones.

(5) Any property tax revenue received by the County of Sonoma for or on behalf of the predecessor zones shall be transferred to the district and allocated to the successor sanitation zones.

(6) The ordinances of the County of Sonoma adopted for the purpose of providing sanitation services within the sanitation zones created pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) shall apply within the service areas of the district sanitation zones, as applicable, and shall remain in effect as district ordinances until the district amends or repeals those ordinances.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1090

An act to amend Section 5001.6 of the Public Resources Code, relating to the state park system.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5001.6 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

5001.6. (a) Notwithstanding Section 5001.95, units of the state park system may be located within, and be a part of, a state seashore. However, any such unit shall be managed in accordance with its classification as provided in Section 5019.62.

(b) The following state seashores are hereby established consisting of appropriate coastal lands described in this subdivision together with those other lands that may, from time to time, be acquired by the state as an addition to these state seashores:

(1) Del Norte State Seashore, consisting of lands lying between Pyramid Point and Point Saint George, particularly lands to assure public access to, and scenic protection of, Pyramid Point; beach and dune lands, water-bottom and shoreline lands at Lake Earl, including Lake Talawa, all within Del Norte County.

(2) Clem Miller State Seashore, consisting of lands extending from the mouth of the Eel River to Pudding Creek at Fort Bragg, and including lands at Bear Harbor, Usal Creek, Cottoneva Creek, shore and upland additions to Westport-Union Landing State Beach, DeHaven Creek uplands, Ten Mile River estuary, and MacKerricher State Park, all within Humboldt and Mendocino Counties.

(4) Sonoma Coast State Seashore, consisting of lands extending from the Gualala River to Bodega Head, and including the Kruse Rhododendron State Reserve, Salt Point State Park, Fort Ross State Historic Park, and Sonoma Coast State Beach, all within Sonoma

County.

(5) Año Nuevo State Seashore, consisting of lands extending from Pillar Point to the City of Santa Cruz, and including the San Mateo Coast State Beaches, Año Nuevo State Reserve, Big Basin Redwoods State Park, and Natural Bridges State Beach, all within San Mateo and Santa Cruz Counties.

(6) San Luis Obispo State Seashore, consisting of lands extending from Cayucos to Lion's Head and including Cayucos State Beach, Morro Strand State Beach, Atascadero State Beach, Morro Bay State Park, Montana de Oro State Park, Avila State Beach, Pismo State Beach, Pismo Dunes State Vehicular Recreation Area and Point Sal State Beach, all within San Luis Obispo and Santa Barbara Counties.

(7) Santa Barbara Coast State Seashore, consisting of lands extending from Gaviota to Las Llagas Canyon, and including Gaviota State Park, Refugio State Beach, and El Capitan State Beach, all within Santa Barbara County.

(8) Point Mugu State Seashore, consisting of lands extending from Ormond Beach to San Nicholas Canyon, and including Mugu Lagoon, Point Mugu State Park, and Leo Carrillo State Beach, all within Ventura and Los Angeles Counties.

(9) Capistrano Coast State Seashore, consisting of lands extending from Newport Beach to San Mateo Point, and including Corona Del Mar State Beach, Irvine Coast, Doheny State Beach, and San Clemente State Beach, all within Orange County.

(10) (A) San Diego Coast State Seashore, consisting of lands extending from San Onofre State Beach to La Jolla, and including San Onofre State Beach, Carlsbad State Beach, Robert C. Frazee State Beach, South Carlsbad State Beach, Leucadia State Beach, Moonlight State Beach, San Elijo State Beach, Cardiff State Beach, Torrey Pines State Beach, and Torrey Pines State Reserve, all within San Diego County.

(B) That section of Carlsbad State Beach within the San Diego Coast State Seashore which is located north of Agua-Hedionda Lagoon is hereby renamed Robert C. Frazee State Beach.

(c) The department shall determine the precise boundaries of each state seashore, may revise those boundaries from time to time, shall identify additional lands appropriate for inclusion in state seashores, and shall recommend land acquisitions for the establishment of additional state seashores or as additions to existing state seashores to the Governor and to the Legislature for inclusion in the annual Budget Bill.

(d) Section 5019.62 shall not apply to lands lying within the boundaries of state seashores established pursuant to this section until those lands have been acquired by the state and designated as state park system lands that are a part of a state seashore.

SEC. 2. Section 5001.6 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

5001.6. (a) Notwithstanding Section 5001.95, units of the state park system may be located within, and be a part of, a state seashore.

However, any such unit shall be managed in accordance with its classification as provided in Section 5019.62.

(b) The following state seashores are hereby established consisting of appropriate coastal lands described in this subdivision together with any other lands that may, from time to time, be acquired by the state as an addition to these state seashores:

(1) Del Norte State Seashore, consisting of lands lying between Pyramid Point and Point Saint George, particularly lands to assure public access to, and scenic protection of, Pyramid Point; beach and dune lands, water-bottom and shoreline lands at Lake Earl, including Lake Talawa, all within Del Norte County.

(2) Clem Miller State Seashore, consisting of lands extending from the mouth of the Eel River to Pudding Creek at Fort Bragg, and including lands at Bear Harbor, Usal Creek, Cottoneva Creek, shore and upland additions to Westport-Union Landing State Beach, DeHaven Creek uplands, Ten Mile River estuary, and MacKerricher State Park, all within Humboldt and Mendocino Counties.

(3) Mendocino Coast State Seashore, consisting of lands extending from Jughandle Creek to the Gualala River, and including the Pygmy Forest Ecological Staircase, Russian Gulch State Park, Mendocino Headlands State Park, Van Damme State Park, Greenwood Creek Beach, Bowling Ball Beach and the Gualala River shoreline and estuary, all within Mendocino County.

(4) Sonoma Coast State Seashore, consisting of lands extending from the Gualala River to Bodega Head, and including the Kruse Rhododendron State Reserve, Salt Point State Park, Fort Ross State Historic Park, and Sonoma Coast State Beach, all within Sonoma County.

(5) Año Nuevo State Seashore, consisting of lands extending from Pillar Point to the City of Santa Cruz, and including the San Mateo Coast State Beaches, Año Nuevo State Reserve, Big Basin Redwoods State Park, and Natural Bridges State Beach, all within San Mateo and Santa Cruz Counties.

(6) (A) Monterey Bay State Seashore, consisting of lands extending from Natural Bridges State Beach south to Point Joe, including Lighthouse Fields, Twin Lakes, New Brighton State Beach, Seacliff, Manresa, Sunset, Zmudowski, Moss Landing, Salinas River, Marina, Monterey, and Asilomar, all within Santa Cruz and Monterey Counties.

(B) The department may establish a recreational trail system within the boundaries of the Monterey Bay State Seashore which is to be dedicated as the Sam Farr Recreational Trail System.

(7) San Luis Obispo State Seashore, consisting of lands extending from Cayucos to Lion's Head and including Cayucos State Beach, Morro Strand State Beach, Atascadero State Beach, Morro Bay State Park, Montana de Oro State Park, Avila State Beach, Pismo State Beach, Pismo Dunes State Vehicular Recreation Area and Point Sal State Beach, all within San Luis Obispo and Santa Barbara Counties.

(8) Santa Barbara Coast State Seashore, consisting of lands extending from Gaviota to Las Llagas Canyon, and including Gaviota State Park, Refugio State Beach, and El Capitan State Beach, all within Santa Barbara County.

(9) Point Mugu State Seashore, consisting of lands extending from Ormond Beach to San Nicholas Canyon, and including Mugu Lagoon, Point Mugu State Park, and Leo Carrillo State Beach, all within Ventura and Los Angeles Counties.

(10) Capistrano Coast State Seashore, consisting of lands extending from Newport Beach to San Mateo Point, and including Corona Del Mar State Beach, Irvine Coast, Doheny State Beach, and San Clemente State Beach, all within Orange County.

(11) (A) San Diego Coast State Seashore, consisting of lands extending from San Onofre State Beach to La Jolla, and including San Onofre State Beach, Carlsbad State Beach, Robert C. Frazee State Beach, South Carlsbad State Beach, Leucadia State Beach, Moonlight State Beach, San Elijo State Beach, Cardiff State Beach, Torrey Pines State Beach, and Torrey Pines State Reserve, all within San Diego County.

(B) That section of Carlsbad State Beach within the San Diego Coast State Seashore which is located north of Agua-Hedionda Lagoon is hereby renamed Robert C. Frazee State Beach.

(c) The department shall determine the precise boundaries of each state seashore, may revise those boundaries from time to time, shall identify additional lands appropriate for inclusion in state seashores, and shall recommend land acquisitions for the establishment of additional state seashores or as additions to existing state seashores to the Governor and to the Legislature for inclusion in the annual Budget Bill.

(d) Section 5019.62 shall not apply to lands lying within the boundaries of state seashores established pursuant to this section until such lands have been acquired by the state and designated as state park system lands which are a part of a state seashore.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 5001.6 of the Public Resources Code proposed by both this bill and SB 1668. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 5001.6 of the Public Resources Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 1668, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

An act relating to security guards.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that the primary purpose of regulating and licensing armed security guards in this state is to protect the public from the unnecessary and improper use of force. The Legislature further finds and declares all of the following:

(a) The increasing crime and violence confronting California's citizens, private businesses, and law enforcement officials have strained the ability of the security guard industry and the individual armed security guard to confront criminal activity while avoiding the need to use force.

(b) The Department of Consumer Affairs reports that, during fiscal years 1989 to 1994, inclusive, there have been over 400 shootings by licensed armed security guards in this state.

(c) Licensed armed security guards are using and will continue to use deadly force in the face of criminal situations.

(d) Existing laws and regulations relating to the licensing and regulation of armed security guards are inadequate and do not adequately protect the public health, safety, and welfare.

(e) It is the intent of the Legislature that armed security guards should not be required to meet the same rigor of standards required of peace officers.

SEC. 2. The Bureau of Security and Investigative Services, with the technical assistance of the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training, shall develop minimum selection, competence, and training standards for armed security guards and implement those standards through regulations no later than January 1, 1996. In developing these minimum standards, the bureau also shall seek the advice of the security guard industry and other interested and affected parties. The minimum standards shall be developed by the bureau no later than July 1, 1995. The minimum standards to be considered for adoption shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(a) Training and statewide policy standards in the use of force and weaponry, with particular emphasis on methods for preventing the need to use force.

(b) Selection standards, including the use of appropriate psychological testing methods to screen out any applicants with psychological disorders.

(c) Minimum educational standards.

(d) Criminal, arrest, and previous employment history and preemployment investigation standards.

(e) Recertification standards to ensure continued competency, including an appropriate phase-in period.

CHAPTER 1092

An act to add Section 11622.5 to the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11622.5 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

11622.5. The plan shall provide for effective dates for coverage consistent with all of the following:

(a) Except as provided in this section, in no event shall coverage be effective prior to the date and time of execution of the application forms. Except as specifically provided by this section, postage meter postmarks shall not be recognized by the plan as establishing effective dates.

(b) (1) Beginning July 1, 1995, when the applicant requires that coverage be effective at the date and time the application forms are completed and executed, the effective date and time shall be established using an electronic effective date procedure established by the plan provided that the plan allows for a grace period of one hour to allow the producer of record to transmit the completed application.

(2) The manager of the plan shall establish and maintain a toll-free telephone number as part of the electronic effective date procedure. The manager shall maintain sufficient capacity to service, in a timely manner, applications received by means of the electronic effective date procedure.

(3) The electronic effective date procedure shall be available only to producers of record who are certified by the plan.

(c) Coverage for vehicles shall become effective at the date and time the application forms are completed and executed if and only if all of the following requirements are met:

(1) The producer of record and the applicant certify under penalty of perjury on the application the date and time that the application forms were completed and executed.

(2) The producer of record uses the electronic effective date procedure adopted pursuant to subdivision (b) and inserts the reference number or other required verification code on the application.

(3) The application forms and required deposit are mailed to the plan manager no later than two working days, as reflected by the United States Postal Service postmark on the envelope enclosing the application, following the date the application forms are completed and executed.

(4) The application is transmitted through the plan's electronic effective date procedure within one hour of the completion and execution of the application.

(d) If the application is made without using the electronic effective date procedure, coverage shall be effective as of 12:01 a.m. on the date following receipt of the application in the plan office unless a later date is requested.

(e) If the applicant desires coverage on a date later than that which would otherwise be fixed pursuant to this section, the applicant shall indicate that date and the plan manager shall fix the effective date of coverage as of 12:01 a.m. on the desired date of coverage. However, no date shall be later than 45 days after the date of application.

(f) The effective date for coverage for an additional vehicle to be added to an in-force policy or for other coverage to be added to an in-force policy shall not be subject to the requirements of this section, but shall be governed by the terms of the policy and other applicable laws and regulations.

(g) In order to provide evidence of a requested effective date, the producer of record shall maintain appropriate records of all risks for which he or she has designated the time and date of coverage. That evidence shall be in the form of completed applications, eligibility certification forms, a mail log, a check copy, a check register, a receipt, and other records created contemporaneously with the application, and shall permit inspection or photocopying of those records by the plan manager or the assigned insurer. The inspection or photocopying shall be limited to situations where the effective date is an issue.

(h) Where the plan's electronic effective date procedure is disrupted due to failure of transmission or receiving equipment due to fire, earthquake, explosion, civil unrest, or similar disaster or emergency, the producer of record may bind coverage up to one day prior to the time the application forms and required deposit are mailed to the plan manager, as established by the United States Postal Service postmark on the envelope in which the application was enclosed.

(i) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, where the producer of record discovers a material error in an application, the producer of record shall be authorized to rescind coverage bound for a period up to 24 hours after the date and time established pursuant to the plan's electronic effective date procedure.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 69051, 75007, 75027.5, 75035, 75051, 75058, 75060, 75089, 75094, 75131.3, 75132, 75133, 75134, 75135, 75136, 75172, 75173, and 75176 of, to repeal Sections 75037 and 75058.5 of, and to repeal and add Section 75030 of, the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to agriculture.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 69051 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

69051. The powers and duties of the commission, subject to Sections 69032 and 69033, shall include, but are not limited to, all of the following powers and duties:

(a) To adopt and, from time to time, alter, rescind, modify, and amend all proper and necessary bylaws, rules, regulations, and orders for carrying out this chapter, including rules for appeals from any bylaw, rule, regulation, or order of the commission. The adoption, alteration, rescission, modification, or amendment of any bylaw, rule, regulation, or order implementing the brand-credit advertising program authorized pursuant to subdivision (i) is subject to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(b) To administer and enforce this chapter, and to do and perform all acts and exercise all powers incidental to, or in connection with, or determined reasonably necessary for, the proper or advisable effectuation of the purposes of this chapter.

(c) To appoint its own officers, including a chairperson, one or more vice chairpersons, and any other officers as it determines necessary. The officers have the powers and duties delegated to them by the commission.

(d) To employ a manager to serve at the pleasure of the commission as president and chief executive officer of the commission, and other personnel, including legal counsel, that are necessary to carry out this chapter. The commission may retain a management firm or the staff from any board, commission, or committee of the state to perform the functions prescribed by this subdivision under the control of the commission. If the manager engages in any conduct which the secretary determines is not in the public interest or which is in violation of this chapter, the secretary shall notify the commission of the conduct and request that corrective and, if appropriate, disciplinary action be taken by the commission. If the commission fails or refuses to correct the situation or to take disciplinary action satisfactory to the secretary, the secretary may suspend or discharge the manager.

(e) To fix the compensation for all employees of the commission.

(f) To appoint committees composed of both members and nonmembers of the commission, such as a processor advisory committee, to advise the commission in carrying out this chapter.

(g) To establish offices and incur expenses, invest funds in the permissible investments as specified in Section 58939, enter into any and all contracts and agreements, and create liabilities and borrow funds in advance of receipt of assessments as may be necessary, in the opinion of the commission, for the proper administration and enforcement of this chapter and the performance of its duties.

(h) To keep accurate books, records, and accounts of all of its dealings, which books, records, and accounts shall be subject to an annual audit by an auditing firm selected by the commission with the concurrence of the secretary. The audit shall be made a part of an annual report to all producers of pistachios, copies of which shall also be submitted to the Legislature and the department. In addition, the secretary may, as he or she determines necessary, conduct or cause to be conducted a fiscal and compliance audit of the commission. The Department of Finance may audit books, records, and accounts of the commission at any time.

(i) To promote the sale of pistachios by advertising and other promotional means, including cost-sharing advertising of pistachios or other complementary products and brand-credit advertising, for the purpose of maintaining and expanding present markets and creating new and larger intrastate, interstate, and foreign markets for pistachios, and to educate and instruct the public with respect to the uses, healthful properties, and nutritional value of pistachios. Any decision to implement a brand-credit advertising program shall be ratified by a vote of producers conducted pursuant to Section 69062.

(j) To educate and instruct the wholesale and retail trade with respect to proper methods of handling and selling pistachios, make market surveys and analyses, and present facts to, and negotiate with, state, federal, and foreign agencies on matters which affect the marketing of pistachios.

(k) To make, in the name of the commission, contracts to render service in formulating and conducting plans and programs, and any other contracts or agreements as the commission may determine necessary for the promotion of the sale of pistachios.

(l) To conduct and contract with others to conduct scientific research, including the study, analysis, dissemination, and accumulation of information obtained from the research or elsewhere, respecting cultural and production practices, and marketing and distribution of pistachios. In connection with the research, the commission may accept contributions of, or match, private, state, or federal funds that may be available for these purposes, and employ or make contributions of funds to other persons or state or federal agencies conducting the research.

(m) To publish and distribute, without charge, a bulletin or other communication for dissemination of information relating to the pistachio industry to producers and processors.

(n) To establish an assessment rate to defray operating costs of the commission. Any assessment rate established pursuant to this chapter may be modified in accordance with Section 69081.

(o) To establish an annual budget according to accepted accounting practices. The budget shall be concurred in by the secretary prior to disbursement of funds, except for disbursements made pursuant to subdivision (e).

(p) To submit to the secretary, for his or her concurrence, an annual statement of contemplated activities authorized under this chapter, including advertising, promotion, marketing research, and production research.

(q) To administer any governmental program establishing quality standards for the pistachio industry upon request of an authorized agent of a governmental agency.

SEC. 1.5. Section 75007 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75007. The benefits conferred by the activities authorized pursuant to this chapter extend to those segments of the egg industry doing business within this state. Insofar as out-of-state handlers benefit from the programs and activities authorized in accordance with this chapter, they may be obligated to bear their fair share of the burden and shall comply with this chapter.

SEC. 2. Section 75027.5 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75027.5. (a) "Egg products" means eggs that are not sold or used for consumption in shell egg form and that have been processed into a nonshell form.

(b) For purposes of this section, "processed" means cut, diced, sliced, peeled, seasoned, salted, sugared, preserved, frozen, dried, liquified, strained, pasteurized, separated into yolks and whites (whether or not in natural proportions), or blended or mixed with not more than 25 percent nonegg substances or ingredients.

(c) Food products that contain less than 75 percent egg substances, or that historically have not been considered egg products, shall not be considered an "egg product" for purposes of this section.

SEC. 3. Section 75030 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 75030 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

75030. (a) "Handler" means any person who engages in the operation of marketing eggs or egg products in California that he or she has produced, purchased, or acquired from another person, or that he or she is marketing on behalf of another person, whether as owner, agent, employee, broker, or otherwise. When the handler is a corporation, all of the directors and officers of the corporation in their capacity as individuals shall be included, and any liability for failure to collect or make payment of assessments for which a corporate handler may be subject pursuant to this chapter shall include identical liability upon each individual director or officer of the corporation. "Handler" does not include a retailer, except a retailer who purchases or acquires eggs or egg products from any producer, handler, or broker that were not previously subject to assessment by the commission.

(b) Reference to "handler" in this chapter, except for Article 3 (commencing with Section 75051), Article 5 (commencing with Section 75111), subdivision (a) of Section 75132, and Article 8 (commencing with Section 75171), but not including Sections 75175 and 75176, includes California handlers and out-of-state handlers, unless otherwise specified.

SEC. 5. Section 75035 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75035. "Producer" means any person who is engaged in the business of producing, or causing to be produced, eggs or egg products for market.

SEC. 6. Section 75037 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 75051 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75051. There is in the state government the California Egg Commission. The commission shall be composed of eight handler members, of which four shall be elected by and from handlers from District 1, three shall be elected by and from handlers from District 2, and one at-large handler shall be elected who exclusively handles eggs or egg products produced outside of California, and one public member.

SEC. 8. Section 75058 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75058. (a) Three alternate handler members, one from each district and one who exclusively handles eggs or egg products produced outside of California, shall be elected in the same manner as the handler members.

(b) Under procedures established by the commission, any alternate handler member may serve in place of any absent handler member on the commission regardless of whether the alternate handler was chosen from the district the absent handler member represents and shall have all the rights, privileges, and powers of the handler member when serving on the commission.

(c) In the event of death, removal, resignation, or disqualification of a handler member, the alternate handler shall act as a handler member on the commission until a qualified successor is elected.

SEC. 9. Section 75058.5 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 10. Section 75060 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75060. (a) Any handler member or his or her alternate shall be an individual, partner, or employee of a handler who has a financial interest in handling eggs or egg products for market. Not more than two handler members on the commission and not more than one handler member in any district shall be employed by or represent the same corporation, firm, partnership, association, or business organization.

(b) Handler members and alternates shall meet the requirements of this section during their entire term of office.

SEC. 11. Section 75089 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75089. (a) The commission shall keep accurate books, records, and accounts of all of its dealings, which books, records, and accounts are subject to an annual audit by an auditing firm selected by the commission with the concurrence of the secretary. The audit shall be made a part of an annual report to all handlers and producers, copies of which shall also be submitted to the Legislature and the department.

(b) In addition, the secretary may, as he or she determines it to be necessary, conduct or cause to be conducted a fiscal and compliance audit of the commission.

SEC. 12. Section 75094 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75094. The commission may publish and distribute, without charge, bulletins or other communications for dissemination of information relating to commission activities and other related matters to producers and handlers.

SEC. 13. Section 75131.3 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75131.3. The assessment established pursuant to Section 75131 may be collected from out-of-state handlers in accordance with procedures established by the commission on eggs or egg products marketed in this state.

SEC. 14. Section 75132 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75132. (a) This chapter does not apply to any person who handles not more than 26,000 cases of eggs per year, or the equivalent thereof, and to secondary handlers. Unless the commission determines otherwise, direct sales to customers on the premises of the handler in less than one case lots shall not be included in computing the number of cases handled per year and shall not be subject to assessment by the commission. However, the handler shall file an affidavit with the commission stating the basis for exemption from this chapter. The commission shall then determine whether the exemption should be approved.

(b) This chapter does not apply to any out-of-state handler who handles not more than 26,000 cases of eggs per year, or the equivalent thereof. However, upon the implementation of Section 75131.3, the commission may require the out-of-state handlers to file an affidavit with the commission stating the basis for exemption from this chapter. The commission shall then determine whether the exemption should be approved.

SEC. 15. Section 75133 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75133. Every handler, and any person required to be registered pursuant to Section 75135.5, shall keep a complete and accurate record of all eggs and egg products handled or marketed by him or her. These records shall be in the form and contain the information prescribed by the commission. The records shall be retained for a period of five years and shall be submitted for inspection at any reasonable time upon written demand of the commission or its duly authorized agent.

SEC. 16. Section 75134 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75134. (a) All proprietary information obtained by the commission or the secretary from handlers is confidential and shall not be disclosed except when required by court order in a judicial proceeding involving this chapter.

(b) Information on volume shipments, product value, and any other related information that is required for reports to governmental agencies; financial reports to the commission or aggregate sales and inventory information; and any other information that the commission requires that gives only totals, but excludes individual handler information, may be disclosed by the commission.

SEC. 17. Section 75135 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75135. Assessments shall be levied upon the handler for all eggs and egg products handled by him or her that were not previously assessed by the commission. The handler of eggs and egg products being assessed shall be a trustee of the assessment funds until they are paid to the commission at the time and in the manner prescribed by the commission.

SEC. 18. Section 75136 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75136. Every handler is personally liable for the payment of the assessments. Any handler who fails to file records as prescribed by the commission or pay any assessment within the time required by the commission, shall pay to the commission a penalty of 10 percent of the amount of the assessment determined to be due and, in addition, 2 percent interest per month on the unpaid balance.

SEC. 19. Section 75172 of the Food and Agricultural Code is

75172. (a) Following a favorable referendum conducted prior to December 31, 1989, a referendum shall be conducted by the commission every fifth year thereafter between January 1st and December 31st, following procedures provided in this article, unless a referendum is conducted as the result of a petition filed pursuant to Section 75173. In that case, the referendum shall be every fifth year following the industry-petitioned referendum.

(b) A favorable vote under this section shall be found if the secretary determines from the referendum that a majority of the handlers eligible to vote in the referendum voted in favor of continuing the operations of this chapter, or that the handlers so voting marketed a majority or more of the volume of eggs or egg products marketed in the preceding season by all of the handlers who voted in the referendum.

(c) If the secretary finds that a favorable vote has been given, he or she shall so certify and this chapter shall remain operative. If the secretary finds that a favorable vote has not been given, he or she shall so certify and declare the operation of this chapter and the commission suspended upon the expiration of the then current marketing season. Thereupon, the operations of the commission shall be concluded and funds distributed in the manner provided in Section 75175.

(d) No bond or security is required for a referendum conducted pursuant to this section.

SEC. 20. Section 75173 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75173. (a) Upon a finding by a two-thirds vote of the commission that the operation of this chapter has not tended to effectuate its declared purposes, the commission may recommend to the secretary that the operation of this chapter be suspended. However, the suspension shall not become effective until the expiration of the current marketing season.

(b) The secretary shall, upon receipt of this recommendation, or may, after a public hearing to review a petition filed with him or her requesting the suspension, signed by 20 percent of the total number of handlers by number who marketed not less than 20 percent of the volume of eggs and egg products marketed in the immediately preceding marketing season, conduct a referendum among the handlers to determine if the operation of the commission shall be suspended. However, the secretary shall not hold a referendum as a result of the petition unless the petitioner shows by a preponderance of the evidence that the operation of this chapter has not tended to effectuate its declared purpose.

(c) The secretary shall establish a referendum period, which shall not be less than 10 or more than 60 days in duration. The secretary may prescribe additional procedures as may be necessary to conduct the referendum. At the close of the established referendum period, the secretary shall tabulate the ballots filed during the period.

(d) If at least 40 percent of the total number of handlers from the list established by the secretary participated in the referendum, the secretary shall suspend the operation of this chapter, if he or she finds either one of the following:

(1) Sixty-five percent or more of the total number of handlers who voted in the referendum voted in favor of suspension, and the handlers so voting marketed a majority or more of the volume of eggs and egg products marketed in the preceding marketing season by all of the handlers who voted in the referendum.

(2) A majority of the total number of handlers who voted in the referendum voted in favor of suspension, and the handlers so voting marketed 65 percent or more of the volume of eggs and egg products marketed in the preceding season by all of the handlers who voted in the referendum.

SEC. 21. Section 75176 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75176. Upon suspension of the operation of this chapter and of the commission, the commission shall mail a copy of the notice of suspension to all handlers affected by the suspension whose names and addresses are on file.

CHAPTER 1094

An act to amend Sections 12420.2 and 20215.5 of the Government Code, relating to public employees, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12420.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

12420.2. The Controller may purchase annuity contracts for permanent employees of the State Department of Education, Department of the Youth Authority, Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges, Department of Corrections, State Department of Mental Health, California Maritime Academy, Commission for Teacher Credentialing, State Department of Developmental Services, California State Library, California Postsecondary Education Commission, Private Postsecondary Vocational Education Council, Department of Consumer Affairs, Board of Vocational Nurse and Psychiatric Technician Examiners, and the Board of Registered Nursing, and shall reduce the salary of each employee for whom an annuity contract is purchased by the amount of the cost thereof provided that all of the following conditions are met:

(a) The annuity contract is under an annuity plan which meets the requirements of subdivision (b) of Section 403 of the Internal Revenue Code and Section 17512 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(b) The employee makes application to the Controller for the purchase and reduction of salary.

(c) All provisions of the Insurance Code applicable to the purchase of those annuities are satisfied.

SEC. 2. Section 20215.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20215.5. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature that the provisions of this section be available to assist members in obtaining homes in this state. The Legislature intends that home loans made pursuant to Section 20215 and this section shall be secured primarily by the property acquired except as authorized pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) and shall not exceed the fair market value of the property acquired.

(b) The board shall include in any program established pursuant to Section 20215 a procedure whereby a member may obtain 100 percent financing for the purchase of a single-family dwelling unit in accordance with the following criteria:

(1) The member shall obtain one loan with a loan-to-value ratio not to exceed 95 percent secured by the purchased home and a second personal loan with a loan-to-value ratio not to exceed 5 percent secured by a portion of the accumulated contributions and vested accrued benefits in the member's individual account.

(2) The loan secured by the purchased home shall be consistent with the loan-to-value ratios specified in the schedules established pursuant to Section 20215.

(3) The amount of any loan on a single family dwelling unit shall not exceed 95 percent of the median value of those dwellings in the county in which the dwelling is located or two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000), whichever is the greater amount. The amount shall be increased annually by the increase in the consumer price index, as defined in Section 21221. In no event, shall the loan amount exceed three hundred fifty thousand dollars ($350,000).

(4) In no event may the personal loan secured by the accumulated contributions and vested accrued benefits in the member's individual account exceed 50 percent of the current value amount of the accumulated contributions.

(5) The pledge of security under this section shall remain in effect until the loan is paid in full.

(c) In the event of a default on the personal loan secured by the member's contributions as authorized by this section, the board may deduct an amount from the member's contributions on deposit and adjust the member's accrued benefit, up to the amount pledged as security, prior to making any disbursement of retirement benefits.

(d) The secured personal loan permitted under this section shall be made available only to currently employed members who meet such eligibility criteria as the board deems advisable.

(e) If the member is married at the time the home is purchased with a personal loan secured by the member's contributions as authorized by this section, then the member's spouse shall agree in writing to the pledge of security, as to his or her community interest in the amount pledged regardless of whether title to the home is in joint tenancy.

(f) The pledge of security under this section shall take binding effect, notwithstanding Section 21201. In the event of default, the accumulated contributions in the member's account shall be reduced as necessary to recover any outstanding loan balance, not to exceed the pledged amount.

(g) Appropriate administrative costs of implementing this section shall be paid by the members utilizing this section. Those costs may be included in the loan amount.

(h) Appropriate interest rates shall be periodically reviewed and adjusted to provide loans to members consistent with the financial integrity of the member home loan program and the sound and prudent investment of the retirement fund.

(i) The amendments to this section during the 1993-94 Regular Session of the Legislature shall be deemed to have become operative on November 1, 1993.

(j) The board shall administer this section under such other terms and conditions as it deems appropriate and in keeping with the investment standard set forth in Section 20205.8. The board may adopt procedural guidelines as necessary for its administration of this section and to assure compliance with applicable state and federal laws.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to make the annuity and housing programs available to public employees in time for them to benefit from the current housing market conditions and in order to increase home sales to stimulate the California economy, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

An act to amend Section 1505 of the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Sections 4475, 4476, 4477, 4478, and 4535 of, and to add Sections 4689.1, 4689.2, 4689.3, 4689.4, 4689.5, and 4689.6 to, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to developmental services, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1505 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1505. This chapter does not apply to any of the following:

- (a) Any health facility, as defined by Section 1250.
- (b) Any clinic, as defined by Section 1202.
- (c) Any juvenile placement facility approved by the California Youth Authority or any juvenile hall operated by a county.
- (d) Any place in which a juvenile is judicially placed pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 727 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.
- (e) Any child day care facility, as defined in Section 1596.750.
- (f) Any facility conducted by and for the adherents of any well-recognized church or religious denomination for the purpose of providing facilities for the care or treatment of the sick who depend upon prayer or spiritual means for healing in the practice of the religion of the church or denomination.
- (g) Any school dormitory or similar facility determined by the department.
- (h) Any house, institution, hotel, homeless shelter, or other similar place that supplies board and room only, or room only, or board only, provided that no resident thereof requires any element of care as determined by the director.
- (i) Recovery houses or other similar facilities providing group living arrangements for persons recovering from alcoholism or drug addiction where the facility provides no care or supervision.
- (j) Any alcoholism or drug abuse recovery or treatment facility as defined by Section 11834.11.
- (k) Any arrangement for the receiving and care of persons by a relative or any arrangement for the receiving and care of persons from only one family by a close friend of the parent, guardian, or conservator, if the arrangement is not for financial profit and occurs only occasionally and irregularly, as defined by regulations of the state department.
- (l) Any supported living arrangement for individuals with developmental disabilities as defined in Section 4689 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.
- (m) (1) Any family home agency or family home, as defined in Section 4689.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, that is vendored by the State Department of Developmental Services and that does either of the following:

(A) As a family home approved by a family home agency, provides 24-hour care for one or two adults with developmental disabilities in the residence of the family home provider or providers and the family home provider or providers' family, and the provider is not licensed by the State Department of Social Services or the State Department of Health Services or certified by a licensee of the State Department of Social Services or the State Department of Health Services.

(B) As a family home agency, engages in recruiting, approving, and providing support to family homes.

(2) No part of this subdivision shall be construed as establishing by implication either a family home agency or family home licensing category.

(n) Any similar facility determined by the director.

SEC. 2. Section 4475 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

4475. (a) Each developmental center under the jurisdiction of the State Department of Developmental Services shall have a developmental center advisory board of eight members appointed by the Governor from a list of nominations submitted to him or her by the boards of supervisors of counties within each developmental center's designated service area. If a state hospital and developmental center provides services for both persons with mental disorders and persons with developmental disabilities, there shall be a separate advisory board for the program provided the persons with mental disorders and a separate board for the program provided the persons with developmental disabilities. To the extent feasible, an advisory board serving a developmental center for persons with developmental disabilities shall consist of two relatives of persons with developmental disabilities who are residents in that developmental center, three representatives of professional disciplines who are not employees of the state developmental center system, but who are serving persons with developmental disabilities, two representatives of the general public who have demonstrated an interest in services to persons with developmental disabilities, and one current or former resident of a state developmental center.

(b) Each appointment to the advisory board shall be for the term of three years, except that an appointment to fill a vacancy shall be for the unexpired term only. No person shall be appointed to serve more than a maximum of two terms as a member of the board.

SEC. 3. Section 4476 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

4476. No person shall be eligible for appointment to a developmental center advisory board if he or she is a Member of the Legislature or an elective state officer, and if that person becomes a Member of the Legislature or an elective state officer after his or her appointment his or her office shall be vacated and a new appointment made. If any appointee fails to attend three consecutive regular meetings of the board, unless he or she is ill or absent from the state, his or her office becomes vacant, and the board, by resolution, shall so declare, and shall transmit a certified copy of that resolution to the Governor immediately.

SEC. 4. Section 4477 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

4477. The advisory boards of the several state developmental centers are advisory to the State Department of Developmental Services and the Legislature with power of visitation and advice with respect to the conduct of the developmental centers and coordination with community mental health programs or regional programs for persons with developmental disabilities. The members of the boards shall serve without compensation other than necessary expenses incurred in the performance of duty. They shall organize and elect a chairperson. They shall meet at least once every three months and at any other times they are called by the chairperson, by the medical director, by the head of the department, or by a majority of the board. No expenses shall be allowed except in connection with meetings so held. The advisory board or boards of each developmental center or state hospital and developmental center may make a written report on its activities.

SEC. 5. Section 4478 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

4478. (a) The chairperson of an advisory board advising a developmental center shall meet annually with the developmental center director, the regional center directors, and the area board chairpersons representing areas within the developmental center's service area, as defined in Division 4.5 (commencing with Section 4500).

(b) The chairpersons shall be allowed necessary expenses incurred in attending these meetings.

(c) It is the intent of the Legislature that the department assist the development of annual regional meetings required by this section.

SEC. 6. Section 4535 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

4535. (a) The state council shall meet at least six times each year, and, on call of its chairperson, as often as necessary to fulfill its duties. All meetings and records of the state council shall be open to the public.

(b) The state council shall, by majority vote of the voting members, elect its own chairperson and vice chairperson who shall have full voting rights on all state council actions, from among the 10 appointed members, described in subdivision (a) of Section 4521, and shall establish any committees it deems necessary or desirable. The chairperson shall appoint all members of committees of the state council.

(c) The state council may appoint technical advisory consultants and may establish committees composed of professional persons serving persons with developmental disabilities as necessary for technical assistance. The state council may call upon representatives of all agencies receiving state funds for assistance and information, and may invite persons with developmental disabilities, their parents or guardians or conservators, professionals, or members of the general public to participate on state council committees.

SEC. 7. Section 4689.1 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

4689.1. (a) The Legislature declares that it places a high priority on providing opportunities for adults with developmental disabilities to live with families approved by family home agencies and to receive services and supports in those settings as determined by the individual program plan.

(b) For purposes of this section, "family home" means a home that is owned, leased, or rented by, and is the family residence of, the family home provider or providers, and in which services and supports are provided to a maximum of two adults with developmental disabilities regardless of their degree of disability, and who do not require continuous skilled nursing care.

(c) For purposes of this section, "family home agency" means a private not-for-profit agency that is vended to do all of the following:

- (1) Recruit, approve, train, and monitor family home providers.
- (2) Provide social services and in-home support to family home providers.
- (3) Assist adults with developmental disabilities in moving into approved family homes.

(d) For purposes of ensuring that regional centers may secure high quality services that provide supports in natural settings and promote inclusion and meaningful participation in community life for adults with developmental disabilities, the department shall promulgate regulations for family home agencies and family homes that shall include, but not be limited to, standards and requirements related to all of the following:

(1) Selection criteria for regional centers to apply in vending family home agencies, including, but not limited to, all of the following:

- (A) The need for service.
- (B) The experience of the agency or key personnel in providing the same or comparable services.
- (C) The reasonableness of the agency's overhead.
- (D) The capability of the regional center to monitor and evaluate the vendor.

(2) Vendorization.

(3) Operation of family home agencies, including, but not limited to, all of the following:

- (A) Recruitment.
- (B) Approval of family homes.

(C) Qualifications, training, and monitoring of family home providers.

(D) Assistance to consumers in moving into approved family homes.

(E) The range of services and supports to be provided.

(F) Family home agency staffing levels, qualifications, and training.

(4) Program design.

(5) Program and consumer records.

(6) Family homes.

(7) (A) Rates of payment for family home agencies and approved family home providers. In developing the rates pursuant to regulation, the department may require family home agencies and family homes to submit program cost or other information, as determined by the department.

(B) Regional center reimbursement to family home agencies shall not exceed rates for similar individuals when residing in other types of out-of-home care established pursuant to Section 4681.1.

(C) The department shall review the appropriateness of the rates paid to family home agencies and report its findings to the Legislature no later than December 31, 1996.

(8) The department and regional center's monitoring and evaluation of the family home agency and approved homes, which shall be designed to ensure that services do all of the following:

(A) Conform to applicable laws and regulations and provide for the consumer's health and well-being.

(B) Assist the consumer in understanding and exercising his or her individual rights.

(C) Are consistent with the family home agency's program design and the consumer's individual program plan.

(D) Maximize the consumer's opportunities to have choices in where he or she lives, works, and socializes.

(E) Provide a supportive family home environment, available to the consumer 24 hours a day, that is clean, comfortable, and accommodating to the consumer's cultural preferences, values, and lifestyle.

(F) Are satisfactory to the consumer, as indicated by the consumer's quality of life as assessed by the consumer, his or her family, and if appointed, conservator, or significant others, or all of these, as well as by evaluation of outcomes relative to individual program plan objectives.

(9) Monthly monitoring visits by family home agency social service staff to approved family homes.

(10) Procedures whereby the regional center and the department may enforce applicable provisions of law and regulation, investigate allegations of abuse or neglect, and impose sanctions on family home agencies and approved family homes, including, but not limited to, all of the following:

(A) Requiring movement of a consumer from a family home under specified circumstances.

(B) Termination of approval of a family home.

(C) Termination of the family home agency's vendorization.

(11) Appeal procedures.

(f) Each adult with developmental disabilities placed in a family home shall have the rights specified in this division, including, but not limited to, the rights specified in Section 4503.

(g) Prior to placement in a family home of an adult with developmental disabilities who has a conservator, consent of the conservator shall be obtained.

(h) The adoption of any emergency regulations to implement this section that are filed with the Office of Administrative Law within one year of the date on which the act that added this section took effect shall be deemed to be an emergency and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, or general welfare.

SEC. 8. Section 4689.2 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

4689.2. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to require the filing of fingerprints of those individuals whose contact with consumers receiving services and supports from family home agencies, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 4689.1, and family homes, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 4689.1, may pose a risk to the consumers' health and safety.

(b) As part of the vendor approval process for family home agencies and family homes, the State Department of Developmental Services shall secure from the Department of Justice a full criminal history to determine whether the applicant or any other person specified in subdivision (c) has ever been convicted of, or arrested for, a crime other than a minor traffic violation. If it is found that the applicant, or any other person specified in subdivision (c), has been convicted of, or is awaiting trial for, a crime other than a minor traffic violation, the vendor application shall be denied, unless the director grants an exemption pursuant to subdivision (f). If no criminal record information has been recorded, the Department of Justice shall provide the applicant and the State Department of Developmental Services with a statement of that fact.

(c) In addition to the applicant, this section shall be applicable to criminal convictions of the following persons:

(1) Adults responsible for administration or direct supervision of staff.

(2) Any adult other than a consumer residing in the family home.

(3) Any adult who provides assistance to the consumer in dressing, grooming, bathing, or personal hygiene.

(4) Any staff person, employee, consultant, or volunteer who has frequent and routine contact with the consumer. In determining who has frequent contact, any consultant or volunteer shall be exempt unless the volunteer is used to replace or supplement staff or family home personnel in providing services or supports, or both, to consumers. In determining who has routine contact, staff and employees under direct onsite supervision of the family home agency and who are not providing direct services and supports or who have only occasional or intermittent contact with consumers shall be exempt.

(5) The executive director of the entity applying for vendorization or other person serving in like capacity.

(6) Officers of the governing body of the applicant, or other persons with a financial interest in the applicant, as determined necessary by the department by regulation. The criteria used in the development of these regulations shall be based on the person's capability to exercise substantial influence over the operation of the family home agency or family home.

(d) (1) Subsequent to vendorization, any person specified in subdivision (c) and not exempted from fingerprinting shall, as a condition to employment, residence, or presence in a family home agency or a family home, be fingerprinted and sign a declaration under penalty of perjury regarding any prior criminal convictions. The vendor shall submit these fingerprints to the Department of Justice not later than four calendar days following employment, residence, or initial presence in the family home agency or family home. These fingerprints shall be on a card provided by the State Department of Developmental Services for the purpose of obtaining a permanent set of fingerprints. If fingerprints are not submitted to the Department of Justice, as required in this section, that failure shall result in a sanction and the fingerprints shall then be submitted to the State Department of Developmental Services for processing. Upon request of the vendor, who shall enclose a self-addressed stamped postcard for this purpose, the Department of Justice shall verify receipt of the fingerprints.

(2) Within 30 calendar days of the receipt of the fingerprints, the Department of Justice shall notify the State Department of Developmental Services of the criminal record information, as provided in subdivision (b). If no criminal record information has been recorded, the Department of Justice shall provide the vendor and the State Department of Developmental Services with a statement of that fact within 15 calendar days of receipt of the fingerprints. If new fingerprints are required for processing, the Department of Justice shall, within 15 calendar days from the date of receipt of the fingerprints, notify the vendor that the fingerprints were illegible.

(3) (A) Except for persons specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (c), the vendor shall endeavor to ascertain the previous employment history of persons required to be fingerprinted under this subdivision. If it is determined by the State Department of Developmental Services, on the basis of the fingerprints submitted to the Department of Justice, that the person has been convicted of, or is awaiting trial for, a sex offense against a minor, or has been convicted for an offense specified in Section 243.4, 273a, 273d, or subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 368 of the Penal Code, or has been convicted of a felony, the State Department of Developmental Services shall notify the vendor to act immediately to terminate the person's employment, remove the person from the family home, or bar the person from entering the family home. The State Department of Developmental Services may subsequently grant an exemption pursuant to subdivision (f).

(B) If the conviction or arrest was for another crime, except a minor traffic violation, the vendor shall, upon notification by the State Department of Developmental Services, act immediately to do either of the following:

(i) Terminate the person's employment, remove the person from the family home, or bar the person from entering the family home.

(ii) Seek an exemption pursuant to subdivision (f). The State Department of Developmental Services shall determine if the person shall be permitted to remain in the family home until a decision on the exemption is rendered.

(e) For purposes of this section or any other provision of this chapter, a conviction means a plea or verdict of guilty or a conviction following a plea of nolo contendere. Any action that the State Department of Developmental Services is permitted to take following the establishment of a conviction may be taken when the time for appeal has elapsed, or the judgment of conviction has been affirmed on appeal or when an order granting probation is made suspending the imposition of sentence, notwithstanding a subsequent order pursuant to Sections 1203.4 and 1203.4a of the Penal Code permitting the person to withdraw his or her plea of guilty, or dismissing the accusation, information, or indictment. For purposes of this section or any other provision of this chapter, the record of a conviction, or a copy thereof certified by the clerk of the court or by a judge of the court in which the conviction occurred, shall be conclusive evidence of the conviction. For purposes of this section or any other provision of this chapter, the arrest disposition report certified by the Department of Justice, or documents admissible in a criminal action pursuant to Section 969b of the Penal Code, shall be prima facie evidence of the conviction, notwithstanding any other provision of law prohibiting the admission of these documents in a civil or administrative action.

(f) After review of the record, the Director of Developmental Services may grant an exemption from denial of vendor approval pursuant to subdivision (b), or for employment in a family home agency or family home of residence or presence in a family home as specified in subdivision (c), if the director has substantial and convincing evidence to support a reasonable belief that the applicant and the person convicted of the crime, if other than the applicant, are of such good character as to justify vendor approval or granting an exemption for purposes of subdivision (c). Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, no exemption shall be granted if the conviction was for an offense specified in Section 220, 243.4, 264.1, paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 273a, Section 273d, 288, 289, or subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 368 of the Penal Code, or for another crime against an individual specified in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5 of the Penal Code. The director may grant an exemption if the employee, prospective employee, or other person identified in subdivision (c) who was convicted of a crime against an individual in paragraph (1), (2), (7), or (8) of subdivision (c) of Section 667.5 of the Penal Code, has been rehabilitated as provided in Section 4852.03 of the Penal Code and has maintained the conduct required in Section 4852.05 of the Penal Code for at least 10 years and has the recommendation of the district attorney representing the employee's county of residence, or if the employee, prospective employee, or other persons identified in subdivision (c) has received a certificate of rehabilitation pursuant to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 4852.01) of Title 6 of Part 3 of the Penal Code.

(g) For purposes of compliance with this section, the department may permit an individual to transfer a current criminal record clearance, as described in subdivision (b), from one family home agency or family home to another, as long as the criminal record clearance has been processed through the State Department of Developmental Services.

(h) If a family home agency or a family home is required by law to deny employment or to terminate employment of any employee based on written notification from the state department pursuant to subdivision (c) the family home agency or the family home shall not incur civil liability or unemployment insurance liability as a result of that denial or termination.

SEC. 9. Section 4689.3 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

4689.3. (a) A family home agency shall not place an adult with developmental disabilities in a family home until the family home agency has received a criminal record clearance from the State Department of Developmental Services pursuant to Section 4689.2, except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c).

(b) Any peace officer, or other category of person approved by the department subject to criminal record clearance as a condition of employment, and who has submitted fingerprints and executed a declaration regarding criminal convictions, may receive an adult with developmental disabilities in placement pending the receipt of a criminal record clearance when the family home has met all other requirements for vendor approval.

(c) Any person currently approved as a vendor pursuant to this chapter by the department when the family home has met all other requirements, and who has submitted fingerprints and executed a declaration regarding criminal convictions, may receive, or continue, an adult with developmental disabilities in placement pending the receipt of a criminal record clearance.

SEC. 10. Section 4689.4 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

4689.4. The State Department of Developmental Services may deny an application for vendorization or terminate vendorization as a family home agency or family home upon the grounds that the applicant for vendorization, the vendor, or any other person mentioned in Section 4689.2 has been convicted at any time of a crime, except a minor traffic violation.

SEC. 11. Section 4689.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

4689.5. (a) Proceeding for the termination, or denial of vendorization as a family home agency or family home pursuant to Section 4689.4 shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and the State Department of Developmental Services shall have all the powers granted by Chapter 5. In the event of conflict between this section and Chapter 5, Chapter 5 shall prevail.

(b) In all proceedings conducted in accordance with this section, the standard of proof to be applied shall be a preponderance of the evidence.

(c) The hearing shall be held within 90 calendar days after receipt of the notice of defense, unless a continuance of the hearing is granted by the department or the administrative law judge. When the matter has been set for hearing, only the administrative law judge may grant a continuance of the hearing. The administrative law judge may grant a continuance of the hearing, but only upon finding the existence of one or more of the following:

(1) The death or incapacitating illness of a party, a representative or attorney of a party, a witness to an essential fact, or of the parent, child, or member of the household of that person, when it is not feasible to substitute another representative, attorney, or witness because of the proximity of the hearing date.

(2) Lack of notice of hearing as provided in Section 11509 of the Government Code.

(3) A material change in the status of the case where a change in the parties or pleadings requires postponement, or an executed settlement or stipulated findings of fact obviate the need for hearing. A partial amendment of the pleadings shall not be good cause for continuance to the extent that the unamended portion of the pleadings is ready to be heard.

(4) A stipulation for continuance signed by all parties or their authorized representatives that is communicated with the request for continuance to the administrative law judge no later than 25 business days before the hearing.

(5) The substitution of the representative or attorney of a party upon showing that the substitution is required.

(6) The unavailability of a party, representative, or attorney of a party, or witness to an essential fact due to a conflicting and required appearance in a judicial matter if when the hearing date was set, the person did not know and could neither anticipate nor at any time avoid the conflict, and the conflict with request for continuance is immediately communicated to the administrative law judge.

(7) The unavailability of a party, a representative or attorney of a party, or a material witness due to an unavoidable emergency.

(8) Failure by a party to comply with a timely discovery request if the continuance request is made by the party who requested the discovery.

(d) Notwithstanding Section 11510 of the Government Code, witnesses subpoenaed at the request of the department for a hearing conducted pursuant to this section who attend a hearing may be paid by the department witness fees and mileage as provided by Section 68093 of the Government Code. In addition, the department may pay actual, necessary, and reasonable expenses in an amount not to exceed the per diem allowance payable to a nonrepresented state employee on travel status. The department may pay witness expenses pursuant to this section in advance of the hearing.

SEC. 12. Section 4689.6 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

4689.6. (a) The State Department of Developmental Services may prohibit a vendor from employing, or continuing the employment of, or allowing in a family home, or allowing contact with any adult with a developmental disability placed in a family home by, any employee or prospective employee, who has been denied an exemption to work or to be present in a facility, when that person has been convicted of a crime, except a minor traffic violation.

(b) The employee or prospective employee, and the vendor shall be given written notice of the basis of the department's action and of the employee's or prospective employee's right to a hearing. The notice shall be served either by personal service or by registered mail. Within 15 days after the department serves the notice, the employee or prospective employee may file with the department a written request for a hearing. If the employee or prospective employee fails to file a written request for a hearing within the prescribed time, the department's action shall be final.

(2) If the department requires the immediate exclusion of an employee or prospective employee from a family home agency or family home, the department shall serve an order of immediate exclusion upon the employee or prospective employee that shall notify the employee or prospective employee of the basis of the department's action and of the employee's or prospective employee's right to a hearing.

(3) Within 15 days after the department serves an order of immediate exclusion, the employee or prospective employee may file a written request for a hearing with the department. The department's action shall be final if the employee or prospective employee does not file a request for a hearing within the prescribed time. The department shall do the following upon receipt of a written request for a hearing:

(A) Within 80 days of receipt of the request for a hearing, serve an accusation upon the employee or prospective employee.

(B) Within 60 days of receipt of a notice of defense by the employee or prospective employee pursuant to Section 11506 of the Government Code, conduct a hearing on the statement of issues.

(4) An order of immediate exclusion of the employee or prospective employee from the family home agency or family home shall remain in effect until the hearing is completed and the director has made a final determination on the merits. However, the order of immediate exclusion shall be deemed vacated if the director fails to make a final determination on the merits within 60 days after the original hearing has been completed.

(d) An employee or prospective employee who files a written request for a hearing with the department pursuant to this section shall, as part of the written request, provide his or her current mailing address. The employee or prospective employee shall subsequently notify the department in writing of any change in mailing address, until the hearing process has been completed or terminated.

(e) Hearings held pursuant to this section shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. The standard of proof shall be the preponderance of the evidence and the burden of proof shall be on the department.

(f) The department may institute or continue a disciplinary proceeding against an employee or prospective employee upon any ground provided by this section, or enter an order prohibiting the employee's or prospective employee's employment or presence in the family home agency or family home or otherwise take disciplinary action against the employee or prospective employee, notwithstanding any resignation, withdrawal of employment application, or change of duties by the employee or prospective employee, or any discharge, failure to hire, or reassignment of the employee or prospective employee by the vendor.

(g) A vendor's failure to comply with the department's prohibition of employment or presence in the family home agency or family home shall be grounds for disciplining the vendor pursuant to Section 4689.4.

SEC. 13. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 14. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

The adult family home agency is a necessary community placement option. In order to serve adults with developmental disabilities in small family homes at the earliest possible time, and thus provide sufficient access to care for persons with developmental disabilities, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

An act to amend Sections 5701, 5801, 5810, 5812, and 17605.05 of, and to repeal Section 14115.8 of, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to mental health, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5701 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

5701. (a) To achieve equity of funding, available funding for local mental health programs beyond the funding provided pursuant to Section 17601 shall be distributed to cities, counties, and cities and counties pursuant to the procedures described in subdivision (c) of Section 17606.05.

(b) Funding provided pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution, funding provided pursuant to subdivision (c), and funding provided for future pilot projects shall be exempt from the requirements of subdivision (a).

(c) Effective in the 1994-95 fiscal year and each year thereafter:

(1) The State Department of Mental Health shall annually identify from mental health block grant funds provided by the federal government, the maximum amount that federal law and regulation permit to be allocated to counties and cities and counties pursuant to this subdivision. This section shall apply to any federal mental health block grant funds in excess of the following:

(A) The amount allocated to counties and cities and counties from the alcohol, drug abuse, and mental health block grant in the 1991-92 fiscal year.

(B) Funds for departmental support.

(C) Amounts awarded to counties and cities and counties for children's systems of care programs pursuant to Part 4 (commencing with Section 5850).

(D) Amounts allocated to small counties for the development of alternatives to state hospitalization in the 1993-94 fiscal year.

(E) Amounts appropriated by the Legislature for the purposes of this part.

(2) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), annually the State Department of Mental Health shall allocate to counties and cities and counties the funds identified in paragraph (1), not to exceed forty million dollars ($40,000,000) in any year. The allocations shall be proportional to each county's and each city and county's percentage of the forty million dollars ($40,000,000) in Cigarette and Tobacco Products Surtax funds that were allocated to local mental health programs in the 1991-92 fiscal year.

(3) Monthly, the Controller shall allocate funds from the Vehicle License Collection Account of the Local Revenue Fund to counties and cities and counties for mental health services. Allocations shall be made to each county or city and county in the same percentages as described in paragraph (2), until the total of the funds allocated to all counties in each year pursuant to paragraph (2) and this paragraph reaches forty million dollars ($40,000,000).

(4) Funds allocated to counties and cities and counties pursuant to paragraphs (2) and (3) shall not be subject to Section 17606.05.

(5) Funds that are available for allocation in any year in excess of the forty million dollar ($40,000,000) limits described in paragraph (2) or (3) shall be deposited into the Mental Health Subaccount of the Local Revenue Fund.

(6) Nothing in this section is intended to, nor shall it, change the base allocation of any city, county, or city and county as provided in Section 17601.

SEC. 2. Section 5801 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

5801. (a) The State Department of Mental Health shall contract with one or more counties for at least one, but not more than three, county demonstration projects to develop and implement the model adult and senior county interagency mental health service system beginning July 1, 1989, and ending December 31, 1996.

(b) The State Department of Mental Health shall adopt as part of its overall mission for the proposed demonstration projects the development of community-based, county interagency systems of mental health care for seriously mentally disordered adults and seniors that result in the highest benefit to the client, family, and community while ensuring that the public sector meets its legal responsibility and fiscal liability at the lowest possible cost. The underlying philosophy for these systems of care includes the following:

(1) Mental health care is a basic human service, no less so than food and shelter programs, adult protective services, medical care, education, or vocational training.

(2) Seriously mentally disordered adults and seniors are citizens of a community with all the rights, privileges, opportunities, and responsibilities accorded other citizens.

(3) Seriously mentally disordered adults and seniors usually have multiple disorders and disabling conditions and should have the highest priority for mental health services.

(4) Seriously mentally disordered adults and seniors should have an interagency network of services with multiple points of access and be assigned a single person or team to be responsible for all treatment, case management, and community support services.

(5) The client should be fully informed and volunteer for all treatment provided, unless danger to self or others or grave disability requires temporary involuntary treatment.

(6) Clients and families should directly participate in making decisions about services and resource allocations that affect their lives.

(7) People in local communities are the most knowledgeable regarding their particular environments, issues, service gaps and strengths, and opportunities.

(8) State and county government agencies each have responsibilities and fiscal liabilities for seriously mentally disordered adults and seniors.

(9) Mental health services should be responsive to the unique needs, among the seriously mentally disordered, of minority and ethnic groups, elderly persons, and people with multiple disorders.

(10) For the majority of seriously mentally disordered adults and seniors, treatment is best provided in the client's natural setting in the community. Treatment, case management, and community support services should be designed to prevent inappropriate removal from the natural environment to more restrictive and costly placements.

(11) Mental health systems of care shall have measurable goals and be fully accountable by providing measures of client outcomes and cost of services.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), if the Director of Mental Health determines prior to June 30, 1993, that a project is unsuccessful pursuant to the client and cost outcomes specified in Section 5834, the department may terminate the contract as of that date.

SEC. 3. Section 5810 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

5810. (a) The State Department of Mental Health shall establish at least two, but not more than six, pilot integrated service agencies for the seriously mentally disordered beginning July 1, 1989, and ending December 31, 1996, hereafter referred to in this part as pilot agencies.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), if the Director of Mental Health determines prior to June 30, 1993, that a project is unsuccessful pursuant to the client and cost outcomes specified in Section 5834, the department may terminate the agency as of that date. If one or more of the projects continues beyond June 30, 1993, the director may continue the independent evaluation of client and cost outcomes of these projects.

SEC. 4. Section 5812 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

5812. (a) Any public or private agency, organization, or corporation, including a county, may respond to the request for proposals and be considered as a contractor to operate a pilot agency. Two or more counties, agencies, organizations, or corporations may respond jointly. A pilot agency or its satellite shall be located within a reasonable distance to its members.

(b) The director shall award contracts effective July 1, 1989, to implement the pilot agencies. Each contract shall ensure that the number of persons in the pilot agencies remain constant and that the population served meets the criteria established in this part. No pilot agency shall serve more than 200 clients or fewer than 100 clients.

(c) (1) Contracts entered into pursuant to this part shall start July 1, 1989, and end December 31, 1996.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), if the Director of Mental Health determines prior to June 30, 1993, that a project is unsuccessful, the department may terminate the contract as of that date.

SEC. 5. Section 14115.8 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 17605.05 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

17605.05. (a) For the 1992-93 fiscal year and fiscal years thereafter, after satisfying the obligations set forth in Section 17605, the Controller shall deposit into the Base Restoration Subaccount of the Sales Tax Growth Account of the Local Revenue Fund, the remainder of those revenues deposited in the Sales Tax Growth Account of the Local Revenue Fund, up to a cumulative amount, that, in conjunction with local matching funds pursuant to Section 17608.15, is sufficient to fund the difference between two billion two hundred fourteen million four hundred ten thousand two hundred sixty dollars ($2,214,410,260), less the amount allocated pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 17605, and actual amounts distributed for the 1991-92 fiscal year pursuant to this chapter.

(b) On or before the 27th day of each month, the Controller shall allocate to the appropriate accounts in the local health and welfare trust fund the amounts deposited and remaining unexpended and unreserved on the 15th day of the month in the Base Restoration Subaccount of the Sales Tax Growth Account pursuant to a schedule developed by the Department of Finance, in consultation with the appropriate state departments and the California State Association of Counties, based on each county's, city's, and city and county's share of the funds determined pursuant to subdivision (a), including the adjustment made for individual counties and cities and counties that received funds allocated pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 17605.

SEC. 7. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that federal mental health block grant funds may be distributed in the most efficient and timely manner possible for the 1994-95 fiscal year, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

An act to amend Sections 11735 and 11737 of the Insurance Code, and to amend Sections 53, 54.5, 55, 56, 119, 133, 138.2, 138.5, 3205, 3205.5, 3206, 4409, 4638, 4643, 4645, 4647, 4702, 5450, 5451, 5453, and 5454 of, and to repeal Section 5452 of, the Labor Code, relating to workers' compensation.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11735 of the Insurance Code, as added by Chapter 228 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended to read:

11735. (a) Every insurer shall file with the commissioner all rates, rating plans, and supplementary rate information which are to be used in this state. The rates and supplementary information shall be filed not later than 30 days prior to the effective date. If the commissioner finds, after a hearing, that an insurer's rates require closer supervision because of the insurer's financial condition, as determined pursuant to Section 11733, the insurer shall file with the commissioner at least 30 days before the effective date, all of those rates and the supplementary rate information and supporting information as prescribed by the commissioner. Upon application by the filer, the commissioner may authorize an earlier effective date.

(b) Rates filed pursuant to this section shall be filed in the form and manner prescribed by the commissioner. All rates, supplementary information and any supporting information for rates filed under this article shall, as soon as filed, be open to public inspection at any reasonable time. Copies may be obtained by any person on request and upon payment of a reasonable charge.

(c) Upon the written application of the insurer and insured, stating its reasons therefor, filed with the commissioner, a rate in excess of that provided by a filing otherwise applicable may be used on any specific risk.

(d) Notwithstanding Section 679.70, no rating organization may issue nor may any insurer use any classification system or rate, as applied or used, that violates Section 679.71 or 679.72 or that violates the Unruh Civil Rights Act which shall also include any arbitrary economic discrimination by an insurer as a prohibited basis of discrimination.

SEC. 1.5. Section 11737 of the Insurance Code, as amended by Section 7 of Chapter 1242 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended to read:

11737. (a) The commissioner may disapprove a rate if the insurer fails to comply with the filing requirements under Section 11735.

(b) If the commissioner believes that rates may violate any of the requirements of this article, he or she shall call a hearing prior to any disapproval. The commissioner shall disapprove a rate if he or she finds that the rate would, if continued in use, tend to impair or threaten the solvency of an insurer or tend to create a monopoly in the market pursuant to Section 11732.

(c) Every insurer or rating organization shall provide within this state reasonable means whereby any person aggrieved by the application of its filings may be heard on written request to review the manner in which the rating system has been applied in connection with the insurance afforded or offered. If the insurer or rating organization fails to grant or reject the request within 30 days, the applicant may proceed in the same manner as if the application had been rejected. Any party affected by the action of the insurer or rating organization on the request may, within 30 days after written notice of the action, appeal to the commissioner who, after a hearing held upon not less than 10 days' written notice to the appellant and to the insurer or rating organization, may affirm, modify, or reverse such action.

(d) If the commissioner disapproves a rate, the commissioner shall issue an order specifying in what respects it fails to meet the requirements of this article and stating when within a reasonable period thereafter such rate shall be discontinued for any policy issued or renewed after a date specified in the order. The order shall be issued within 30 days after the close of the hearing or within such reasonable time extension as the commissioner may fix. The order may include a provision for premium adjustment for the period after the effective date of the order for policies in effect on that date.

(e) Whenever an insurer has no legally effective rates as a result of the commissioner's disapproval of rates or other act, the commissioner shall on request of the insurer specify interim rates for the insurer that are adequate to protect the interests of all parties and may order that a specified portion of the premiums be placed in an escrow account approved by him or her. When new rates become legally effective, the commissioner shall order the escrowed funds or any overcharge in the interim rates to be distributed appropriately, except that refunds of less than ten dollars ($10) per policyholder shall not be required.

SEC. 2. Section 53 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

53. Whenever in Section 1001 or in Part 1 (commencing with Section 11000) of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code "head of the department" or similar designation occurs, the same shall, for the purposes of this code, mean the director, except that in respect to matters which by the express provisions of this code are committed to or retained under the jurisdiction of the Division of Workers' Compensation, the State Compensation Insurance Fund, the Occupational Safety and Health Standards Board, the Occupational Safety and Health Appeals Board, or the Industrial Welfare Commission the designation shall mean the Division of Workers' Compensation, the Administrative Director of the Division of Workers' Compensation, the Workers' Compensation Appeals Board, the State Compensation Insurance Fund, the Occupational Safety and Health Standards Board, the Occupational Safety and Health Appeals Board, or the Industrial Welfare Commission, as the case may be.

SEC. 3. Section 54.5 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

54.5. The director may appoint an attorney and assistants licensed to practice law in this state. In the absence of an appointment, the attorney for the Division of Workers' Compensation shall also perform legal services for the department as the Director of Industrial Relations may direct.

SEC. 4. Section 55 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

55. For the purpose of administration the director shall organize the department subject to the approval of the Governor, in the manner he deems necessary properly to segregate and conduct the work of the department. Notwithstanding any provision in this code to the contrary, the director may require any division in the department to assist in the enforcement of any or all laws within the jurisdiction of the department. Except as provided in Section 18930 of the Health and Safety Code, the director may, in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 11371), Part 1, Division 3, Title 2 of the Government Code, make rules and regulations that are reasonably necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter and to effectuate its purposes. The provisions of this section, however, shall not apply to the Division of Workers' Compensation or the State Compensation Insurance Fund, except as to any power or jurisdiction within those divisions as may have been specifically conferred upon the director by law.

SEC. 5. Section 56 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

56. The work of the department shall be divided into at least six divisions known as the Division of Workers' Compensation, the Division of Occupational Safety and Health, the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement, the Division of Labor Statistics and Research, the Division of Apprenticeship Standards, and the State Compensation Insurance Fund.

SEC. 6. Section 119 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

119. The attorney shall:

(a) Represent and appear for the state and the Division of Workers' Compensation and the appeals board in all actions and proceedings arising under any provision of this code administered by the division or under any order or act of the division or the appeals board and, if directed so to do, intervene, if possible, in any action or proceeding in which any such question is involved.

(b) Commence, prosecute, and expedite the final determination of all actions or proceedings, directed or authorized by the administrative director or the appeals board.

(c) Advise the administrative director and the appeals board and each member thereof, upon request, in regard to the jurisdiction, powers or duties of the administrative director, the appeals board and each member thereof.

(d) Generally perform the duties and services as attorney to the Division of Workers' Compensation and the appeals board which are required of him or her.

SEC. 7. Section 133 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

133. The Division of Workers' Compensation, including the administrative director and the appeals board, shall have power and jurisdiction to do all things necessary or convenient in the exercise of any power or jurisdiction conferred upon it under this code.

SEC. 8. Section 138.2 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

138.2. The headquarters of the Division of Workers' Compensation shall be based at and operated from a centrally located city.

The administrative director shall have an office in that city with suitable rooms, necessary office furniture, stationery and supplies, and may rent quarters in other places for the purpose of establishing branch or service offices, and for that purpose may provide those offices with necessary furniture, stationery and supplies.

The administrative director shall provide suitable rooms, with necessary office furniture, stationery and supplies for the appeals board at the centrally located city where said board shall be based at and operate from, and may rent quarters in other places for the purpose of establishing branch or service offices for said appeals board, and for that purpose may provide those offices with necessary furniture, stationery and supplies.

All meetings held by the administrative director shall be open and public. Notice thereof shall be published in papers of general circulation not more than 30 days and not less than 10 days prior to each meeting in Sacramento, San Francisco, Fresno, Los Angeles and San Diego. Written notice of all meetings shall be given to all persons who request in writing directed to the administrative director that they be given notice.

SEC. 9. Section 138.5 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

138.5. The Division of Workers' Compensation shall cooperate in the enforcement of child support obligations. At the request of the Director of Social Services, the administrative director shall assist in providing to the State Department of Social Services information concerning persons who are receiving permanent disability benefits or who have filed an application for adjudication of a claim which the Director of Social Services determines is necessary to carry out its responsibilities pursuant to Section 11478.6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

The process of sharing information with regard to applicants for and recipients of permanent disability benefits required by this section shall be known as the Workers' Compensation Notification Project.

3205. "Division" means the Division of Workers' Compensation.

SEC. 11. Section 3205.5 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

3205.5. "Appeals board" means the Workers' Compensation Appeals Board of the Division of Workers' Compensation.

SEC. 12. Section 3206 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

3206. "Administrative director" means the Director of the Division of Workers' Compensation.

SEC. 13. Section 4409 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

4409. The Director of Industrial Relations, or his or her representative, shall assign investigative and claims adjustment services respecting matters concerning Asbestos Workers' Account cases. Those assignments may be made within the department, including the Division of Workers' Compensation, and excluding the State Compensation Insurance Fund.

SEC. 14. Section 4638 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

4638. (a) If the employee is determined to be a qualified injured worker, and the employer notifies the injured worker, pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) of Section 4636 that the employer will be unable to provide modified or alternative work to that injured worker, the qualified rehabilitation representative and the employee, jointly, shall develop an agreed-upon vocational rehabilitation plan pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 4635.

Vocational rehabilitation plans which utilize an employee's transferable skills and experience shall be preferable to plans that propose training for an occupation in which the employee has no skills or experience.

An insured employer in whose employment the injury occurred shall receive a refund, payable in the same manner as a return of a standard insurance premium, from the insurer that provided the security for the payment of compensation on the date of injury when the employer, pursuant to Section 4644, returns the qualified injured worker to modified or alternative work at the employer's place of employment for 12 consecutive months. The refund shall be equal to the standard premium computed on the wages paid by the employer to the qualified injured worker during the 12-month period and shall be calculated as follows: multiply the workers' compensation insurance premium rate times the wages reported for workers' compensation insurance for the qualified injured worker during that 12-month period. For this calculation, the workers' compensation insurance rate shall be the insurance premium rate or rates per one hundred dollars ($100) of payroll which were applicable to the payroll reported for the qualified injured worker during that 12-month period, modified by the experience modification factor or factors, if any, which were applicable to the employer during that 12-month period. During and after the 12-month period, the qualified injured worker shall be protected against discrimination pursuant to Section 132a.

(b) Within 90 days after determination of the employee's vocational feasibility, the employer shall do either of the following:

(1) Submit a vocational rehabilitation plan agreed to by the employee to the administrative director's vocational rehabilitation unit for review and approval when required pursuant to Section 139.5.

(2) Request the administrative director's vocational rehabilitation unit to resolve any dispute concerning the provision of vocational rehabilitation services.

SEC. 15. Section 4643 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

4643. If the employee unreasonably fails to cooperate in the provision of vocational rehabilitation services, unreasonably fails to cooperate in the development or implementation of a vocational rehabilitation plan, or unreasonably fails to cooperate in completing an approved vocational rehabilitation plan, the employee shall not be entitled to receive that portion of the maintenance allowance payable under paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) of Section 139.5 for the period of unreasonable failure. The employer shall provide the employee with written notice of the employer's intention to withhold payment, the reasons therefor, and the employee's right to object thereto within 10 days of the date the notice was received or served.

If the employee objects to the employer's stated intention to withhold payment, the administrative director's vocational rehabilitation unit shall conduct an expedited conference to determine if the employee is entitled to receive the payments. A copy of the determination shall be served by certified mail on the employee and employer within 10 days of the employee's objection. The employer shall continue payment of that portion of the maintenance allowance due under paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) of Section 139.5 until receipt of the determination.

SEC. 16. Section 4645 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

4645. (a) (1) For unrepresented employees, all disputed matters regarding the provision of vocational rehabilitation services shall be submitted initially to the administrative director's vocational rehabilitation unit for its recommendation except as otherwise provided in this section.

(2) For represented employees, all disputed matters shall be submitted to arbitration pursuant to Part 3.5 (commencing with Section 5270), except as otherwise provided in this section and

(b) Where the question of entitlement to vocational rehabilitation services is first raised before a workers' compensation judge and there are good faith issues which, if resolved against the employee, would defeat his or her right to all compensation, the judge shall determine the issues and, if appropriate, refer the question of entitlement to vocational rehabilitation services to the administrative director's vocational rehabilitation unit or arbitration for recommendation.

(c) Where the question of entitlement to vocational rehabilitation services is first raised before a workers' compensation judge and there are no issues which would bar the employee's right to compensation, the judge shall refer the question of entitlement to the vocational rehabilitation services to the administrative director's vocational rehabilitation unit or arbitration for recommendations before entering a finding, decision, or award on the issue of vocational rehabilitation.

(d) Any determination or recommendation of the administrative director's vocational rehabilitation unit or by the arbitrator shall be binding unless a petition is filed with the appeals board within 20 days after service of the determination or recommendation. Nothing in this section shall affect an employee's rights pursuant to Sections 5405.5, 5410, and 5803.

SEC. 17. Section 4647 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

4647. The administrative director shall appoint an advisory committee to assist the administrative director's vocational rehabilitation unit in recommending forms, procedures, and rules and regulations consistent with the effective administration of this article. Members of the advisory committee shall include two representatives each of employees, employers, insurers, and providers of vocational rehabilitation services.

SEC. 18. Section 4702 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

4702. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section and Sections 4553, 4554, 4557, and 4558, the death benefit in cases of total dependency shall be as follows:

(1) In the case of two total dependents and regardless of the number of partial dependents, ninety-five thousand dollars ($95,000), for injuries occurring on and after January 1, 1991, one hundred fifteen thousand dollars ($115,000), for injuries occurring on or after July 1, 1994, one hundred thirty-five thousand dollars ($135,000), and for injuries occurring on or after July 1, 1996, one hundred forty-five thousand dollars ($145,000).

(2) In the case of one total dependent and one or more partial dependents, seventy thousand dollars ($70,000), or for injuries occurring on and after January 1, 1991, ninety-five thousand dollars ($95,000), for injuries occurring on or after July 1, 1994, one hundred fifteen thousand dollars ($115,000), and for injuries occurring on or after July 1, 1996, one hundred twenty-five thousand dollars ($125,000), plus four times the amount annually devoted to the support of the partial dependents, but not more than a total of ninety-five thousand dollars ($95,000), for injuries occurring on and after January 1, 1991, one hundred fifteen thousand dollars ($115,000), for injuries occurring on or after July 1, 1994, one hundred twenty-five thousand dollars ($125,000), and for injuries occurring on or after July 1, 1996, one hundred forty-five thousand dollars ($145,000).

(3) In the case of one total dependent and no partial dependents, seventy thousand dollars ($70,000), for injuries occurring on and after January 1, 1991, ninety-five thousand dollars ($95,000), for injuries occurring on or after July 1, 1994, one hundred fifteen thousand dollars ($115,000), and for injuries occurring on or after July 1, 1996, one hundred twenty-five thousand dollars ($125,000).

(4) In the case of no total dependents and one or more partial dependents, four times the amount annually devoted to the support of the partial dependents, but not more than seventy thousand dollars ($70,000), for injuries occurring on and after January 1, 1991, a total of ninety-five thousand dollars ($95,000), for injuries occurring on or after July 1, 1994, one hundred fifteen thousand dollars ($115,000), and for injuries occurring on or after July 1, 1996, one hundred twenty-five thousand dollars ($125,000).

(5) In the case of three or more total dependents and regardless of the number of partial dependents, one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) for injuries occurring on and after July 1, 1994, and one hundred sixty thousand dollars ($160,000) on or after July 1, 1996.

(b) The death benefit in all cases shall be paid in installments in the same manner and amounts as temporary total disability indemnity would have to be made to the employee, unless the appeals board otherwise orders. However, no payment shall be made at a weekly rate of less than two hundred twenty-four dollars ($224).

(c) Disability indemnity shall not be deducted from the death benefit and shall be paid in addition to the death benefit when the injury resulting in death occurs after September 30, 1949.

(d) All rights under this section existing prior to January 1, 1990, shall be continued in force.

SEC. 19. Section 5450 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

5450. The Division of Workers' Compensation shall make available to employees, employers and other interested parties information, assistance, and advice to assure the proper and timely furnishing of benefits and to assist in the resolution of disputes on an informal basis.

SEC. 20. Section 5451 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

5451. Any party may consult with, or seek the advice of, an information and assistance officer within the Division of Workers' Compensation as designated by the administrative director. If no application is filed, if the employee is not represented, or upon agreement of the parties, the information and assistance officer shall consider the contentions of the parties and may refer the matter to the appropriate bureau or unit within the Division of Workers'

Compensation for review and recommendations. The information and assistance officer shall advise the employer and the employee of their rights, benefits, and obligations under this division. Upon making a referral, the information and assistance officer shall arrange for a copy of any pertinent material submitted to be served upon the parties or their representatives, if any. The procedures to be followed by the information and assistance officer shall be governed by the rules and regulations of the administrative director adopted after public hearings.

SEC. 21. Section 5452 of the Labor Code is repealed.

SEC. 22. Section 5453 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

5453. After consideration of the information submitted, including the reports of any bureau or unit within the Division of Workers' Compensation which have been received, the information and assistance officer shall make a recommendation which shall be served on the parties or their representatives, if any.

SEC. 23. Section 5454 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

5454. Submission of any matter to an information and assistance officer of the Division of Workers' Compensation shall toll any applicable statute of limitations for the period that the matter is under consideration by the information and assistance officer, and for 60 days following the issuance of his or her recommendation.

CHAPTER 1098

An act to amend Sections 2317 and 2356 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to medicine.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2317 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2317. If a person, not a regular employee of the board, is hired, under contract, or retained under any other arrangement, paid or unpaid, to provide expertise to the Division of Medical Quality or to the California Board of Podiatric Medicine in the evaluation of the conduct of a licensee, and that person is named as a defendant in an action for defamation, malicious prosecution, or any other civil cause of action directly resulting from opinions rendered, statements made, or testimony given to, or on behalf of, the division or committee or its representatives, the board shall provide for representation required to defend the defendant in that civil action. The board shall be liable for any judgment rendered against that person, except that the board shall not be liable for any punitive damages award. If the plaintiff prevails in a claim for punitive damages, the defendant shall be liable to the board for the full costs incurred in providing representation to the defendant. The Attorney General shall be utilized in those actions as provided in Section 2020.

SEC. 2. Section 2356 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2356. The board shall provide for the representation and indemnification of any persons making reports to a committee or the board under this article in any action in accordance with Section 2317.

An act to amend Section 1170.1 of, and to add and repeal Section 667.83 of, the Penal Code, relating to sentencing.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 667.83 is added to the Penal Code, to read:
667.83. (a) When a person is convicted of a felony violation of Section 207, 261, 264.1, 273a, 273d, 286, 288a, or 289 committed against a child under the age of 18 years or a violation of Section 288 committed against a child of the age designated in that statute, where the offense was committed as part of a ceremony, rite, or any similar observance, the person shall be punished by an additional term of three years in addition and consecutive to that violation.

(b) For purposes of this section, a "ceremony, rite, or any similar observance" shall mean any of the following:

(1) Actual or simulated torture, mutilation, or sacrifice of any mammal.

(2) Forced ingestion, or external application of human or animal urine, feces, flesh, blood, or bones.

(3) Placement of a living child into a coffin, open grave, or other confined area containing animal remains or a human corpse or remains.

(c) This section shall not apply to:

(1) Lawful agricultural, animal husbandry, food preparation, or wild game hunting and fishing practices and specifically the branding or identification of livestock.

(2) The lawful medical practice of circumcision or any ceremony related thereto.

(3) Any state or federally approved, licensed, or funded research project.

(d) The enhancement charged in violation of subdivision (a) shall be proven by the testimony of two witnesses, or of one witness and corroborating circumstances.

(e) The following provisions govern the imposition of this enhancement:

(1) Only one enhancement shall be imposed per victim per incident.

(2) If there are two or more victims, one enhancement may be imposed per victim per incident.

(f) The Department of Justice shall submit to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1998, a report compiling data from the Department of Justice form 8715 containing information relating to this section that has been reported into the Department of Justice automated criminal history system and is available on the longitudinal file.

(g) Persons responsible for the completion of the Department of Justice form 8715 shall submit the form to the Attorney General in a timely manner. In addition, those persons shall record all cases in which enhancements are charged under this section and the disposition of those cases.

(h) This section shall not be construed to infringe in any way upon the rights and practices of legitimate religions.

(i) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1999, and as of that date is repealed unless a later enacted statute, that is enacted before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 1170.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1170.1. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (c) and subject to Section 654, when any person is convicted of two or more felonies, whether in the same proceeding or court or in different proceedings or courts, and whether by judgment rendered by the same or by a different court, and a consecutive term of imprisonment is imposed under Sections 669 and 1170, the aggregate term of imprisonment for all these convictions shall be the sum of the principal term, the subordinate term, and any additional term imposed pursuant to Section 667, 667.5, 667.6, or 12022.1, and pursuant to Section 11370.2 of the Health and Safety Code. The principal term shall consist of the greatest term of imprisonment imposed by the court for any of the crimes, including any enhancements imposed pursuant to Section 667.15, 667.8, 667.83, 667.85, 12022, 12022.2, 12022.3, 12022.4, 12022.5, 12022.55, 12022.6, 12022.7, 12022.75, 12022.8, or 12022.9 and an enhancement imposed pursuant to Section 11370.4 or 11379.8 of the Health and Safety Code. The subordinate term for each consecutive offense which is not a "violent felony" as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5 shall consist of one-third of the middle term of imprisonment prescribed for each other felony conviction for an offense that is not a violent felony for which a consecutive term of imprisonment is imposed, and shall exclude any enhancements. In no case shall the total of subordinate terms for these consecutive offenses which are not "violent felonies" as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5 exceed five years. The subordinate term for each consecutive offense which is a "violent felony" as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5, including those offenses described in paragraph (8), (9), or (17) of subdivision (c) of Section 667.5, shall consist of one-third of the middle term of imprisonment prescribed for each other felony conviction for an offense that is a violent felony for which a consecutive term of imprisonment is imposed, and shall include one-third of any enhancements imposed pursuant to Section 667.15, 667.8, 667.83, 667.85, 12022, 12022.2, 12022.4, 12022.5, 12022.55, 12022.7, 12022.75, or 12022.9.

(b) (1) When a consecutive term of imprisonment is imposed under Sections 669 and 1170 for two or more convictions for kidnapping, as defined in Section 207, involving separate victims or the same victim on separate occasions, the aggregate term shall be calculated as provided in subdivision (a), except that the subordinate term for each subsequent kidnapping conviction shall consist of the middle term for each kidnapping conviction for which a consecutive term of imprisonment is imposed and shall include one-third of any enhancements imposed pursuant to Section 667.8, 667.83, 667.85, 12022, 12022.2, 12022.4, 12022.5, 12022.55, 12022.7, 12022.75, or 12022.9. The five-year limitation on the total of subordinate terms provided in subdivision (a) shall not apply to subordinate terms for second and subsequent convictions of kidnapping, as defined in Section 207, involving separate victims or the same victim on separate occasions.

(2) As used in this subdivision, "separate occasion" means the defendant committed a second violation of Section 207 involving the same victim after at least 24 hours elapsed following his or her release of the victim.

(c) In the case of any person convicted of one or more felonies committed while the person is confined in a state prison, or is subject to reimprisonment for escape from custody and the law either requires the terms to be served consecutively or the court imposes consecutive terms, the term of imprisonment for all the convictions which the person is required to serve consecutively shall commence from the time the person would otherwise have been released from prison. If the new offenses are consecutive with each other, the principal and subordinate terms shall be calculated as provided in subdivision (a), except that the total of subordinate terms may exceed five years. This subdivision shall be applicable in cases of convictions of more than one offense in different proceedings, and convictions of more than one offense in the same or different proceedings.

(d) When the court imposes a prison sentence for a felony pursuant to Section 1170 the court shall also impose the additional terms provided in Sections 667, 667.15, 667.5, 667.8, 667.83, 667.85, 12022, 12022.1, 12022.2, 12022.4, 12022.5, 12022.55, 12022.6, 12022.7, 12022.75, and 12022.9, and the additional terms provided in Section 11370.2, 11370.4, or 11379.8 of the Health and Safety Code, unless the additional punishment therefor is stricken pursuant to subdivision (h). The court shall also impose any other additional term which the court determines in its discretion or as required by law shall run consecutive to the term imposed under Section 1170. In considering the imposition of the additional term, the court shall apply the sentencing rules of the Judicial Council.

(e) When two or more enhancements under Sections 12022, 12022.4, 12022.5, 12022.55, 12022.7, and 12022.9 may be imposed for any single offense, only the greatest enhancement shall apply. However, in cases of lewd or lascivious acts upon or with a child under the age of 14 years accomplished by means of force or fear, as described in Section 288, kidnapping, as defined in Section 207, sexual battery, as defined in Section 243.4, penetration of a genital or anal opening by a foreign object, as defined in Section 289, oral copulation, sodomy, robbery, carjacking, rape or burglary, or attempted lewd or lascivious acts upon or with a child under the age of 14 years accomplished by means of force or fear, kidnapping, sexual battery, penetration of a genital or anal opening by a foreign object, oral copulation, sodomy, robbery, carjacking, rape, murder, or burglary the court may impose both (1) one enhancement for weapons as provided in either Section 12022, 12022.4, or subdivision (a) of, or paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of, Section 12022.5 and (2) one enhancement for great bodily injury as provided in either Section 12022.7 or 12022.9.

(f) The enhancements provided in Sections 667, 667.15, 667.5, 667.6, 667.8, 667.83, 667.85, 12022, 12022.1, 12022.2, 12022.3, 12022.4, 12022.5, 12022.55, 12022.6, 12022.7, 12022.75, 12022.8, and 12022.9, and in Section 11370.2, 11370.4, or 11379.8 of the Health and Safety Code, shall be pleaded and proven as provided by law.

(g) (1) The term of imprisonment shall not exceed twice the number of years imposed by the trial court as the base term pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1170, unless the defendant stands convicted of a "violent felony" as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5, or a consecutive sentence is being imposed pursuant to subdivision (b) or (c) of this section, or an enhancement is imposed pursuant to Section 667, 667.15, 667.5, 667.8, 667.83, 667.85, 12022, 12022.2, 12022.4, 12022.5, 12022.55, 12022.6, 12022.7, 12022.75, or 12022.9, or an enhancement is being imposed pursuant to Section 11370.2, 11370.4, or 11379.8 of the Health and Safety Code, or the defendant stands convicted of felony escape from an institution in which he or she is lawfully confined.

(2) The term of imprisonment shall not exceed twice the number of years imposed by the trial court as the base term pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1170 unless an enhancement is imposed pursuant to Section 12022.1 and both the primary and secondary offenses specified in Section 12022.1 are serious felonies as specified in subdivision (c) of Section 1192.7.

(h) Notwithstanding any other law, the court may strike the additional punishment for the enhancements provided in Sections 667.15, 667.5, 667.8, 667.83, 667.85, 12022, 12022.1, 12022.2, 12022.4, 12022.6, 12022.7, 12022.75, and 12022.9, or the enhancements provided in Section 11370.2, 11370.4, or 11379.8 of the Health and Safety Code, if it determines that there are circumstances in mitigation of the additional punishment and states on the record its reasons for striking the additional punishment.

(i) For any violation of paragraph (2) or (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, Section 264.1, subdivision (b) of Section 288, subdivision (a) of Section 289, or sodomy or oral copulation by force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person as provided in Section 286 or 288a, the number of enhancements which may be imposed shall not be limited, regardless of whether the enhancements are pursuant to this or some other section of law. Each of the enhancements shall be a full and separately served enhancement and shall not be merged with any term or with any other enhancement.

An act to amend Section 31461.1 of the Government Code, relating to public retirement systems.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

31461.1. (a) This section applies only to a county of the first class, as defined by Section 28020, as amended by Chapter 1204 of the Statutes of 1971, and Section 28022, as amended by Chapter 43 of the Statutes of 1961.

(b) Notwithstanding Sections 31460 and Section 31461, neither "compensation" nor "compensation earnable" shall include any of the following: cafeteria or flexible benefit plan contributions, transportation allowances, car allowances, or security allowances, as enumerated in a resolution adopted pursuant to subdivision (c).

(c) Except as provided in subdivision (d), this section shall not be operative until the board of supervisors, by resolution adopted by a majority vote, makes this section operative with respect to any employee who becomes a member after the effective date of the resolution .

(d) Regardless of whether it has acted pursuant to subdivision (c), at any time the board of supervisors, by separate resolution adopted by a majority vote, may make this section operative with respect to any member not represented by a certified employee organization who makes an irrevocable election to become subject to this section.

(e) Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect any determination made by the board of retirement, pursuant to Section 31461, prior to the effective date of this section.

(f) Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect the validity of any memorandum of understanding or similar agreement that has been executed prior to the effective date of this section.

CHAPTER 1101

An act to amend Sections 27315 and 27360 of, to amend the heading of Article 3.3 (commencing with Section 27360) of Chapter 5 of Division 12 of, and to add Section 27360.5 to, the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 27315 of the Vehicle Code, as amended by Section 1 of Chapter 122 of the Statutes of 1992, is amended to read:

27315. (a) The Legislature finds that a mandatory seatbelt law will contribute to reducing highway deaths and injuries by encouraging greater usage of existing manual seatbelts, that automatic crash protection systems which require no action by vehicle occupants offer the best hope of reducing deaths and injuries, and that encouraging the use of manual safety belts is only a partial remedy for addressing this major cause of death and injury. The Legislature declares that the enactment of this section is intended to be compatible with support for federal safety standards requiring automatic crash protection systems and should not be used in any manner to rescind federal requirements for installation of automatic restraints in new cars.

(b) This section shall be known and may be cited as the Private Passenger Motor Vehicle Safety Act.

(c) As used in this section, "private passenger motor vehicle" means any passenger vehicle and any motortruck of less than 6,001 pounds unladen weight, but "private passenger motor vehicle" does not include a motorcycle.

(d) (1) No person shall operate a private passenger motor vehicle on a highway unless that person and all passengers 16 years of age or over are properly restrained by a safety belt. This paragraph shall not apply to the operator of a taxicab, as defined in Section 27908, when the taxicab is driven on a city street. The safety belt requirement established by this paragraph is the minimum safety standard applicable to employees being transported in a private passenger motor vehicle. This paragraph does not preempt any more stringent or restrictive standards imposed by the Labor Code or any other state or federal regulation regarding the transportation of employees in a private passenger motor vehicle.

(2) The operator of a limousine for hire or the operator of an authorized emergency vehicle, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 165, shall not operate the limousine for hire or authorized emergency vehicle unless the operator and any passengers, four years of age or over and weighing 40 pounds or more, in the front seat are properly restrained by a safety belt.

(3) The operator of a taxicab shall not operate the taxicab unless any passengers, four years of age and over and weighing 40 pounds or more, in the front seat are properly restrained by a safety belt.

(e) No person 16 years of age or over shall be a passenger in a private passenger motor vehicle on a highway unless that person is properly restrained by a safety belt.

(f) Every owner of a private passenger motor vehicle, including every owner or operator of a taxicab, as defined in Section 27908, or a limousine for hire, operated on a highway shall maintain safety belts in good working order for the use of occupants of the vehicle. The safety belts shall conform to motor vehicle safety standards established by the United States Department of Transportation. This subdivision does not, however, require installation or maintenance of safety belts where not required by the laws of the United States applicable to the vehicle at the time of its initial sale.

(g) This section does not apply to a passenger or operator with a physically disabling condition or medical condition which would prevent appropriate restraint in a safety belt, if the condition is duly certified by a licensed physician and surgeon or by a licensed chiropractor who shall state the nature of the condition, as well as the reason the restraint is inappropriate. This section also does not apply to a peace officer, as defined in Section 830 of the Penal Code, when in an authorized emergency vehicle as defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 165, or to any passenger in any seat behind the front seat of an authorized emergency vehicle as defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 165 operated by the peace officer, unless required by the agency employing the peace officer.

(h) Notwithstanding subdivision (a) of Section 42001, any violation of subdivision (d), (e), or (f) is an infraction punishable by a fine, including all penalty assessments and court costs imposed on the convicted person, of not more than twenty dollars ($20) for a first offense, and a fine, including all penalty assessments and court costs imposed on the convicted person, of not more than fifty dollars ($50) for each subsequent offense. In lieu of the fine and any penalty assessment or court costs, the court, pursuant to Section 42005, may order that a person convicted of a first offense attend a school for traffic violators or a driving school in which the proper use of safety belts is demonstrated.

(i) For any violation of subdivision (d), (e), or (f), in addition to the fines provided for pursuant to subdivision (h) and the penalty assessments provided for pursuant to Section 1464 of the Penal Code, an additional penalty assessment of two dollars ($2) shall be levied for any first offense, and an additional penalty assessment of five dollars ($5) shall be levied for any subsequent offense.

All moneys collected pursuant to this subdivision shall be utilized in accordance with Section 1464 of the Penal Code.

(j) In any civil action, a violation of subdivision (d), (e), or (f) or information of a violation of subdivision (h) shall not establish negligence as a matter of law or negligence per se for comparative fault purposes, but negligence may be proven as a fact without regard to the violation.

(k) If the United States Secretary of Transportation fails to adopt safety standards for manual safety belt systems by September 1, 1989, no private passenger motor vehicle manufactured after that date for sale or sold in this state shall be registered unless it contains a manual safety belt system which meets the performance standards applicable to automatic crash protection devices adopted by the Secretary of Transportation pursuant to Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standard No. 208 (49 C.F.R. 571.208) as in effect on January 1, 1985.

(l) Each private passenger motor vehicle offered for original sale in this state which has been manufactured on or after September 1, 1989, shall comply with the automatic restraint requirements of Section S4.1.2.1 of Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standard No. 208 (49 C.F.R. 571.208), as published in Volume 49 of the Federal Register, No. 138, page 29009. Any automobile manufacturer who sells or delivers a private passenger motor vehicle subject to the requirements of this subdivision, and fails to comply with this subdivision, shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500) for each sale or delivery of a noncomplying private passenger motor vehicle.

(m) Compliance with subdivision (k) or (l) by a manufacturer shall be made by self-certification in the same manner as self-certification is accomplished under federal law.

(n) This section does not apply to a person actually engaged in delivery of newspapers to customers along the person's route if the person is properly restrained by a safety belt prior to commencing and subsequent to completing delivery on the route.

(o) This section does not apply to a person actually engaged in collection and delivery activities as a rural delivery carrier for the United States Postal Service if the person is properly restrained by a safety belt prior to stopping at the first box and subsequent to stopping at the last box on the route.

(p) Subdivisions (d), (e), (f), (g), and (h) shall become inoperative immediately upon the date that the United States Secretary of Transportation, or his or her delegate, determines to rescind the portion of the Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standard No. 208 (49 C.F.R. 571.208) which requires the installation of automatic restraints in new private passenger motor vehicles, except that those subdivisions shall not become inoperative if the secretary's decision to rescind that Standard No. 208 is not based, in any respect, on the enactment or continued operation of those subdivisions.

and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1996, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 27315 of the Vehicle Code, as added by Section 2 of Chapter 122 of the Statutes of 1992, is amended to read:

27315. (a) The Legislature finds that a mandatory seatbelt law will contribute to reducing highway deaths and injuries by encouraging greater usage of existing manual seatbelts, that automatic crash protection systems which require no action by vehicle occupants offer the best hope of reducing deaths and injuries, and that encouraging the use of manual safety belts is only a partial remedy for addressing this major cause of death and injury. The Legislature declares that the enactment of this section is intended to be compatible with support for federal safety standards requiring automatic crash protection systems and should not be used in any manner to rescind federal requirements for installation of automatic restraints in new cars.

(b) This section shall be known and may be cited as the Private Passenger Motor Vehicle Safety Act.

(c) As used in this section, "private passenger motor vehicle" means any passenger vehicle and any motortruck of less than 6,001 pounds unladen weight, but "private passenger motor vehicle" does not include a motorcycle.

(d) (1) No person shall operate a private passenger motor vehicle on a highway unless that person and all passengers 16 years of age or over are properly restrained by a safety belt. This paragraph does not apply to the operator of a taxicab, as defined in Section 27908, when the taxicab is driven on a city street. The safety belt requirement established by this paragraph is the minimum safety standard applicable to employees being transported in a private passenger motor vehicle. This paragraph does not preempt any more stringent or restrictive standards imposed by the Labor Code or any other state or federal regulation regarding the transportation of employees in a private passenger motor vehicle.

(2) The operator of a limousine for hire or the operator of an authorized emergency vehicle, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 165, shall not operate the limousine for hire or authorized emergency vehicle unless the operator and any passengers four years of age or over and weighing 40 pounds or more, in the front seat are properly restrained by a safety belt.

(3) The operator of a taxicab shall not operate the taxicab unless any passengers four years of age or over and weighing 40 pounds or more, in the front seat are properly restrained by a safety belt.

(e) No person 16 years of age or over shall be a passenger in a private passenger motor vehicle on a highway unless that person is properly restrained by a safety belt.

(f) Every owner of a private passenger motor vehicle, including every owner or operator of a taxicab, as defined in Section 27908, or a limousine for hire, operated on a highway shall maintain safety belts in good working order for the use of occupants of the vehicle.

The safety belts shall conform to motor vehicle safety standards established by the United States Department of Transportation. This subdivision does not, however, require installation or maintenance of safety belts where not required by the laws of the United States applicable to the vehicle at the time of its initial sale.

(g) This section does not apply to a passenger or operator with a physically disabling condition or medical condition which would prevent appropriate restraint in a safety belt, if the condition is duly certified by a licensed physician and surgeon or by a licensed chiropractor who shall state the nature of the condition, as well as the reason the restraint is inappropriate. This section also does not apply to a peace officer, as defined in Section 830 of the Penal Code, when in an authorized emergency vehicle as defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 165, or to any passenger in any seat behind the front seat of an authorized emergency vehicle as defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 165 operated by the peace officer, unless required by the agency employing the peace officer.

(h) Notwithstanding subdivision (a) of Section 42001, any violation of subdivision (d), (e), or (f) is an infraction punishable by a fine, including all penalty assessments and court costs imposed on the convicted person, of not more than twenty dollars ($20) for a first offense, and a fine, including all penalty assessments and court costs imposed on the convicted person, of not more than fifty dollars ($50) for each subsequent offense. In lieu of the fine and any penalty assessment or court costs, the court, pursuant to Section 42005, may order that a person convicted of a first offense attend a school for traffic violators or a driving school in which the proper use of safety belts is demonstrated.

(i) For any violation of subdivision (d), (e), or (f), in addition to the fines provided for pursuant to subdivision (h) and the penalty assessments provided for pursuant to Section 1464 of the Penal Code, an additional penalty assessment of two dollars ($2) shall be levied for any first offense, and an additional penalty assessment of five dollars ($5) shall be levied for any subsequent offense.

All moneys collected pursuant to this subdivision shall be utilized in accordance with Section 1464 of the Penal Code.

(j) In any civil action, a violation of subdivision (d), (e), or (f) or information of a violation of subdivision (h) shall not establish negligence as a matter of law or negligence per se for comparative fault purposes, but negligence may be proven as a fact without regard to the violation.

(k) Notwithstanding Section 40300 or any other provision of law, a peace officer shall not stop or seize a person for a violation of subdivision (d), (e), or (f), nor arrest or issue a notice to appear or notice to correct for a violation of those subdivisions if the officer has no other cause to stop or seize the person other than a violation of subdivision (d), (e), or (f).

(l) If the United States Secretary of Transportation fails to adopt safety standards for manual safety belt systems by September 1, 1989, no private passenger motor vehicle manufactured after that date for sale or sold in this state shall be registered unless it contains a manual safety belt system which meets the performance standards applicable to automatic crash protection devices adopted by the Secretary of Transportation pursuant to Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standard No. 208 (49 C.F.R. 571.208) as in effect on January 1, 1985.

(m) Each private passenger motor vehicle offered for original sale in this state which has been manufactured on or after September 1, 1989, shall comply with the automatic restraint requirements of Section S4.1.2.1 of Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standard No. 208 (49 C.F.R. 571.208), as published in Volume 49 of the Federal Register, No. 138, page 29009. Any automobile manufacturer who sells or delivers a private passenger motor vehicle subject to the requirements of this subdivision, and fails to comply with this subdivision, shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500) for each sale or delivery of a noncomplying private passenger motor vehicle.

(n) Compliance with subdivision (l) or (m) by a manufacturer shall be made by self-certification in the same manner as self-certification is accomplished under federal law.

(o) This section does not apply to a person actually engaged in delivery of newspapers to customers along the person's route if the person is properly restrained by a safety belt prior to commencing and subsequent to completing delivery on the route.

(p) This section does not apply to a person actually engaged in collection and delivery activities as a rural delivery carrier for the United States Postal Service if the person is properly restrained by a safety belt prior to stopping at the first box and subsequent to stopping at the last box on the route.

(q) Subdivisions (d), (e), (f), (g), and (h) shall become inoperative immediately upon the date that the United States Secretary of Transportation, or his or her delegate, determines to rescind the portion of the Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standard No. 208 (49 C.F.R. 571.208) which requires the installation of automatic restraints in new private passenger motor vehicles, except that those subdivisions shall not become inoperative if the secretary's decision to rescind that Standard No. 208 is not based, in any respect, on the enactment or continued operation of those subdivisions.

(r) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1996.

SEC. 3. Article 3.3 (commencing with Section 27360) of Chapter 5 of Division 12 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

Article 3.3. Child Safety Belt and Passenger Restraint Requirements

SEC. 4. Section 27360 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:
27360. (a) No parent or legal guardian, when present in a passenger vehicle or motortruck of less than 6,001 pounds unladen weight, shall permit his or her child or ward under the age of four years, regardless of weight, or weighing less than 40 pounds, regardless of age, to be transported upon a highway in the motor vehicle without providing and properly using, for each such child or ward, a child passenger restraint system meeting applicable federal motor vehicle safety standards.

(b) No driver shall transport on a highway any child under four years of age, regardless of weight, or weighing less than 40 pounds, regardless of age, in a passenger vehicle or motortruck of less than 6,001 pounds unladen weight without providing and properly securing the child in a child passenger restraint system meeting applicable federal motor vehicle safety standards. This subdivision does not apply to a driver if the parent or legal guardian of the child is also present in the vehicle and is not the driver.

(c) (1) A first offense under this section is punishable by a fine of one hundred dollars ($100), except that the court may waive the fine if the defendant establishes to the satisfaction of the court that he or she is economically disadvantaged and the court, instead, refers the defendant to a child passenger restraint low-cost purchase or loaner program. If the fine is waived, the court shall nevertheless report the conviction to the department pursuant to Section 1803.

(2) A second or subsequent offense under this section is punishable by a fine of one hundred dollars ($100), no part of which may be waived by the court.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the fines collected for a violation of this section shall be allocated as follows:

(1) Sixty percent to local health departments in the county where the violation occurred, to be used for a child passenger restraint low-cost purchase or loaner program which shall include, but not be limited to, education on the proper installation and use of a child passenger restraint system. The county may contract for the implementation of the program.

Local health departments shall report on an ongoing basis to the Office of Traffic Safety in the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency whenever a child passenger restraint low-cost purchase or loaner program is developed or funded pursuant to subdivision (d). The Office of Traffic Safety shall prepare and distribute to the counties a listing of all child passenger restraint low-cost purchase or loaner programs in the state. Each county shall forward the listing to the courts and county hospitals in that county.

(2) Fifteen percent to the county for the administration of the program.

(3) Twenty-five percent to the city, to be deposited in its general fund except that, if the violation occurred in an unincorporated area, this amount shall be allocated to the county for purposes of paragraph (1).

SEC. 5. Section 27360.5 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

27360.5. (a) No parent or legal guardian, when present in a private passenger motor vehicle as defined in Section 27315, shall permit his or her child or ward who is four years of age or older but less than 16 years of age and weighs more than 40 pounds to be transported upon a highway in the motor vehicle without providing and properly using, for each child or ward, a safety belt meeting applicable federal motor vehicle safety standards.

(b) No driver shall transport on a highway any child who is four years of age or older but less than 16 years of age and weighs more than 40 pounds in a private passenger motor vehicle, as defined in Section 27315, without providing and properly using a safety belt meeting applicable federal motor vehicle safety standards. This subdivision does not apply to a driver if the parent or legal guardian of the child is also present in the vehicle and is not the driver.

(c) (1) A first offense under this section is punishable by a fine of fifty dollars ($50).

(2) A second or subsequent offense under this section is punishable by a fine of one hundred dollars ($100).

SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to add Section 647a to the Penal Code, relating to peace officers.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 647a is added to the Penal Code, to read:
647a. (a) Any peace officer, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 830.1 or Section 830.31, 830.32, or 830.33, may transport any person, as quickly as is feasible, to the nearest homeless shelter, if the officer inquires whether the person desires the transportation, and the person does not object to the transportation. Any officer exercising due care and precaution shall not be liable for any damages or injury incurred during transportation.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, this section shall become operative in a county only if the board of supervisors adopts the provisions of this section by ordinance. The ordinance shall include a provision requiring peace officers to determine the availability of space at the nearest homeless shelter prior to transporting any person.

CHAPTER 1103

An act to add Section 29532.1 to, to add Title 7.91 (commencing with Section 67910), Title 7.92 (commencing with Section 67920), and Title 7.93 (commencing with Section 67930), to, and to repeal Sections 29535.1, 29535.2, and 29535.3 of, the Government Code, relating to transportation.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 29532.1 is added to the Government Code, to read:

29532.1. Pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 29532, each of the following entities is designated the transportation planning agency for its respective area:

(a) The Metropolitan Transportation Commission created by Title 7.1 (commencing with Section 66500).

(b) The Tahoe Regional Planning Agency created by interstate compact and ratified by Title 7.4 (commencing with Section 66800).

(c) The Placer County Transportation Planning Agency created by Title 7.91 (commencing with Section 67910).

(d) The Nevada County Transportation Planning Agency created by Title 7.92 (commencing with Section 67920).

(e) The Transportation Agency of Monterey County created pursuant to Title 7.93 (commencing with Section 67930).

SEC. 2. Section 29535.1 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 29535.2 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 29535.3 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Title 7.91 (commencing with Section 67910) is added to the Government Code, to read:

TITLE 7.91. PLACER COUNTY TRANSPORTATION PLANNING AGENCY

67910. The Placer County Transportation Planning Agency is hereby created, as a local area planning agency, and not as a part of the executive branch of the state government, to provide regional transportation planning for the area of Placer County, exclusive of the Tahoe Basin, as that term is defined in Section 66800. The agency may be known by any other name it chooses.

67911. The agency shall be composed of three members appointed by the county board of supervisors and one member appointed by the city council of each incorporated city in the county. The appointing authority, for each regular member it appoints, may appoint an alternate member to serve in place of the regular member when the regular member is absent or disqualified from participating in a meeting of the agency.

SEC. 6. Title 7.92 (commencing with Section 67920) is added to the Government Code, to read:

TITLE 7.92. NEVADA COUNTY TRANSPORTATION PLANNING AGENCY

67920. (a) The Nevada County Transportation Planning Agency is hereby created, as a local area planning agency, and not as a part of the executive branch of the state government, to provide regional transportation planning for the area of Nevada County. The agency may be known by any other name it chooses and is the legal successor to the Nevada County Transportation Commission for all purposes.

(b) The governing body shall be composed of four members appointed by the county board of supervisors, and one member appointed by the city council of each incorporated city in the county.

(c) The appointing authority, for each regular member it appoints, may appoint an alternate member to serve in place of the regular member when the regular member is absent or disqualified from participating in a meeting of the agency.

SEC. 7. Title 7.93 (commencing with Section 67930) is added to the Government Code, to read:

TITLE 7.93. TRANSPORTATION AGENCY OF MONTEREY COUNTY

67930. (a) The Transportation Agency of Monterey County is hereby created, as a local area agency and not as a part of the executive branch of the state government, to provide regional transportation planning and development for the area of Monterey County. The agency may be known by any other name it chooses.

(b) The governing body shall be composed of the members of the county board of supervisors and one member appointed by the city council of each incorporated city in the county. A member of the board of supervisors and a city council appointing a member may each designate up to two alternate members to act in the place of the regular member.

67931. (a) The agency is the legal successor to the Monterey County Transportation Commission for all purposes, including those set forth in Part 11.5 (commencing with Section 99600) of Division 10 of the Public Utilities Code, and particularly Section 99638.

(b) The agency has all of the powers expressed or implied, necessary to carry out the intent of that Part 1.5, including the power of eminent domain and the power to preserve, acquire, construct, or improve any to the following:

- (1) Rights-of-way for rail purposes.
 - (2) Rail terminals and stations.
 - (3) Rolling stock, including locomotives, passenger cars, and related rail equipment and facilities.
 - (4) Grade separation and other improvements along rail rights-of-way for rail purposes.
 - (5) Rail maintenance facilities.
 - (6) Other capital facilities deemed necessary for a rail service, including soundwalls.
- (c) The agency may contract for the operation of rail service in Monterey County and for connections with rail service in adjacent and neighboring counties and cities.

CHAPTER 1104

An act to amend Sections 25200.10 and 25200.11 of the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Section 21151.1 of the Public Resources Code, relating to hazardous waste.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature hereby finds and declares all of the following:

(1) The grant of interim status to a hazardous waste treatment, storage, or disposal facility is intended to represent a temporary authorization to allow existing facilities to continue operation until the time when a final hazardous waste facilities permit granted pursuant to federal and state law can be issued.

(2) California has several commercial multiuser facilities which have been allowed to operate under a grant of interim status for many years, and that have made little apparent progress towards fulfillment of the requirements necessary to achieve a final hazardous waste facilities permit. That situation represents a potential abuse of the interim status authority, potentially weakens the protection of public health, safety, and the environment, and fosters inequities in the environmental services marketplace in California.

(3) A uniform approach to the enforcement of state and federal laws regarding facility permitting is essential to ensure adequate protection of public health, safety, and the environment, and to create a regulatory environment in which all companies operating hazardous waste management facilities compete on an equal basis.

(4) It is appropriate and necessary to require the Department of Toxic Substances Control to address the permitting of interim status facilities as a top priority.

SEC. 2. Section 25200.10 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25200.10. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (d) and (e), the department shall require, and any permit issued by the department shall require, corrective action for all releases of hazardous waste or constituents from a solid waste management unit or a hazardous waste management unit at a facility engaged in hazardous waste management, regardless of the time at which waste was released at the facility. Any corrective action required pursuant to this section shall require that corrective action be taken beyond the facility boundary where necessary to protect human health or the environment, unless the owner or operator demonstrates to the satisfaction of the department that despite the owner's or operator's best efforts, the owner or operator is unable to obtain the necessary permission to undertake this action. When corrective action cannot be completed prior to issuance of the permit, the permit shall contain schedules of compliance for corrective action and assurances of financial responsibility for completing the corrective action.

(b) This section does not limit the department's authority to require corrective action pursuant to Section 25187.

(c) For purposes of this section, "facility" means the entire site that is under the control of the owner or operator seeking a hazardous waste facilities permit.

(d) This section does not apply to a permit issued to a public agency or person for the operation of a temporary household hazardous waste collection facility pursuant to Article 10.8 (commencing with Section 25218).

(e) The corrective action required by subdivision (a) does not apply to a generator who treats hazardous waste pursuant to subdivision (a) or (c) of Section 25201.5. This subdivision does not limit the department's authority or the authority of a local health officer authorized pursuant to Section 25187.7 to order corrective action pursuant to Section 25187.

(f) Pursuant to Article 8 (commencing with Section 25180), the department shall require any offsite facility which was granted interim status pursuant to Section 25200.5 prior to January 1, 1992, and which is not subject to Section 25201.6 to perform a Phase I environment pursuant to Section 25200.14.

SEC. 3. Section 25200.11 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25200.11. (a) On or before July 1, 1993, the department shall take final action on each application for a hazardous waste facilities permit to be issued pursuant to Section 25200 for an offsite hazardous waste facility which is not subject to the time limits specified in Section 25200.7 and which has been operating under a grant of interim status pursuant to Section 25200.5 prior to January 1, 1992, if the permit application was submitted to the department before

January 1, 1992. In taking final action pursuant to this section, the department shall either issue the hazardous waste facilities permit or make a final denial of the application. The department may extend final action for one year upon its determination that the permit application is complete and that more time is needed for review and evaluation of the application.

(b) On July 1, 1992, interim status granted for any existing offsite hazardous waste facility which is not subject to the time limits specified in Section 25200.7 shall be terminated, unless the department received an application for a final hazardous waste facilities permit pursuant to Section 25200 on or before June 30, 1992.

(c) Except for facilities subject to Section 25201.6, for any offsite facility, which facility or portion of facility was first granted interim status pursuant to Section 25200.5 on or after January 1, 1992, the department shall provide public notice for a permit determination to issue or deny a hazardous waste facilities permit for the facility, including a permit modification to incorporate a portion of a facility operating under a grant of interim status, not later than the following dates:

(1) For interim status which was first granted on or after January 1, 1992, but prior to January 1, 1994, not more than four years from the date that interim status was first granted.

(2) For interim status which was first granted on or after January 1, 1994, but prior to January 1, 1996, not more than three years from the date that interim status was first granted.

(3) For interim status which was granted on or after January 1, 1996, not more than two years from the date that interim status was first granted.

(d) For purposes of complying with this section, any change in the owner or operator of the hazardous waste facility shall not affect the applicability of this section with respect to permit determinations required for the facility, including a permit modification to incorporate a portion of the facility operating under a grant of interim status.

(e) Not later than March 1, 1995, the department shall prepare a status report and workplan describing its efforts in permitting and regulating offsite facilities operating under a grant of interim status pursuant to Section 25200.5, including permit modifications to incorporate a portion of a facility operating under a grant of interim status, except those facilities subject to Section 25201.6. The status report and workplan shall be made available to the public and updated semiannually by March 1 and September 1 of each year, and shall include the following elements:

(1) A listing of all offsite facilities, or portions of facilities, operating under a grant of interim status, the date upon which the grant of interim status was first made, the schedule for making a permit determination, and a description of the department's resources that are committed to permitting, regulating, and overseeing interim status activities at these facilities.

(2) A status report on enforcement and other regulatory activities that have been taken by the department to ensure that these facilities are operating in compliance with the interim status authority granted by the department pursuant to this chapter.

SEC. 4. Section 21151.1 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

21151.1. (a) Notwithstanding paragraph (6) of subdivision (b) of Section 21080, or Section 21080.5 or 21084, or any other provision of law, except as provided in this section, a lead agency shall prepare or cause to be prepared by contract, and certify the completion of, an environmental impact report or, if appropriate, a modification, addendum, or supplement to an existing environmental impact report, for any project involving any of the following:

(1) (A) The burning of municipal wastes, hazardous waste, or refuse-derived fuel, including, but not limited to, tires, if the project is either of the following:

(i) The construction of a new facility.

(ii) The expansion of an existing facility which burns hazardous waste which would increase its permitted capacity by more than 10 percent.

(B) This paragraph does not apply to any project exclusively burning hazardous waste, for which a final determination under Section 21080.1 has been made prior to July 14, 1989.

(2) The initial issuance of a hazardous waste facilities permit to a land disposal facility, as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 25199.1 of the Health and Safety Code.

(3) The initial issuance of a hazardous waste facilities permit pursuant to Section 25200 of the Health and Safety Code to an offsite large treatment facility, as defined pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 25205.1 of the Health and Safety Code.

(b) For purposes of clause (ii) of subparagraph (A) of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), the amount of expansion of an existing facility shall be calculated by comparing the proposed facility capacity with whichever of the following is applicable:

(1) The facility capacity authorized in the facility's hazardous waste facilities permit pursuant to Section 25200 of the Health and Safety Code or its grant of interim status pursuant to Section 25200.5 of the Health and Safety Code, or the facility capacity authorized in any state or local agency permit allowing the construction or operation of a facility for the burning of hazardous waste, granted before January 1, 1990.

(2) The facility capacity authorized in the facility's original hazardous waste facilities permit, grant of interim status, or any state or local agency permit allowing the construction or operation of a facility for the burning of hazardous waste, granted on or after January 1, 1990.

(c) For purposes of paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (a), the initial issuance of a hazardous waste facilities permit does not include the issuance of a closure or postclosure permit pursuant to Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 25100) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code.

(d) Paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) does not apply to any project which does any of the following:

(1) Exclusively burns digester gas produced from manure or any other solid or semisolid animal waste.

(2) Exclusively burns methane gas produced from a disposal site, as defined in Section 40122, which is used only for the disposal of solid waste, as defined in Section 40191.

(3) Exclusively burns forest, agricultural, wood, or other biomass wastes.

(4) Exclusively burns hazardous waste in an incineration unit which is transportable and which is either at a site for not longer than three years or is part of a remedial or removal action. For purposes of this paragraph, "transportable" means any equipment which performs a "treatment" as defined in Section 66216 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, and which is transported on a vehicle as defined in Section 66230 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations.

(5) Exclusively burns refinery waste in a flare on the site of generation.

(6) Exclusively burns in a flare methane gas produced at a municipal sewage treatment plant.

(7) Exclusively burns hazardous waste, or exclusively burns hazardous waste as a supplemental fuel, as part of a research, development, or demonstration project which, consistent with federal regulations implementing the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, as amended (42 U.S.C. Sec. 6901 et seq.), has been determined to be innovative and experimental by the Department of Toxic Substances Control and which is limited in type and quantity of waste to that necessary to determine the efficacy and performance capabilities of the technology or process; provided, however, that any facility which operated as a research, development, or demonstration project and for which an application is thereafter submitted for a hazardous waste facility permit for operation other than as a research, development, or demonstration project shall be considered a new facility for the burning of hazardous waste and shall be subject to subdivision (a) of Section 21151.1.

(8) Exclusively burns soils contaminated only with petroleum fuels or the vapors from these soils.

(9) Exclusively treats less than 3,000 pounds of hazardous waste per day in a thermal processing unit operated in the absence of open flame, and submits a worst-case health risk assessment of the technology to the Department of Toxic Substances Control for review and distribution to the interested public. This assessment shall be prepared in accordance with guidelines set forth in the Air Toxics Assessment Manual of the California Air Pollution Control

Officers Association.

(10) Exclusively burns less than 1,200 pounds per day of medical waste, as defined in Section 25023.2 of the Health and Safety Code, on hospital sites.

(11) Exclusively burns chemicals and fuels as part of firefighter training.

(12) Exclusively conducts open burns of explosives subject to the requirements of the air pollution control district or air quality management district and in compliance with OSHA and Cal-OSHA regulations.

(13) Exclusively conducts onsite burning of less than 3,000 pounds per day of fumes directly from a manufacturing or commercial process.

(14) Exclusively conducts onsite burning of hazardous waste in an industrial furnace that recovers hydrogen chloride from the flue gas if the hydrogen chloride is subsequently sold, distributed in commerce, or used in a manufacturing process at the site where the hydrogen chloride is recovered, and the burning is in compliance with the requirements of the air pollution control district or air quality management district and the Department of Toxic Substances Control.

(e) Paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) does not apply to any project for which the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission has assumed jurisdiction under Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 25500) of Division 15.

(f) Paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (a) shall not apply if the facility only manages hazardous waste which is identified or listed pursuant to Section 25140 or 25141 on or after January 1, 1992, but not before that date, or only conducts activities which are regulated pursuant to Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 25100) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code on or after January 1, 1992, but not before that date.

(g) This section does not exempt any project from any other requirement of this division.

(h) For purposes of this section, offsite facility means a facility that serves more than one generator of hazardous waste.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 89501, 89504, and 89506 of the Government Code, relating to the Political Reform Act of 1974.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 89501 of the Government Code, as amended by Chapter 36 of the Statutes of 1994, is amended to read:

89501. (a) No local elected officeholder, candidate for local elected office, elected, appointed, or candidate for, member of the governing board of a special district, or designated employee of a local government agency shall accept any honorarium, as defined in subdivisions (b), (c), and (e) of Section 89502.

(b) No local elected officeholder, candidate for local elected office, elected, appointed, or candidate for, member of the governing board of a special district, or designated employee of a local government agency shall accept any gifts, from any single source, which is in excess of two hundred fifty dollars ($250), in any calendar year, except reimbursement for actual travel expenses and reasonable subsistence in connection therewith. The commission shall adjust this gift limitation to make it equal to the prevailing gift limitation amount applicable to elected state officers in effect on January 1, 1995, and thereafter shall adjust this gift limit at the same time and in the same amount as the gift limit applicable to elected state officers is adjusted pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 89504.

(c) This section shall not limit or prohibit payments, advances, or reimbursements for travel and related lodging and subsistence authorized by Section 89506.

(d) A person shall be deemed a candidate for purposes of this section when a statement of organization is filed by the committee controlled by the person, when a declaration of intent is filed by the person, or when a declaration of candidacy is filed by the person, whichever event occurs first. A person shall not be deemed a candidate for purposes of this section after he or she is sworn into the elective office, after the person has terminated his or her campaign statement filing obligation pursuant to Section 84214, or after certification of the election results if the person lost and did not establish a committee.

SEC. 2. Section 89504 of the Government Code is amended to read:

89504. (a) No elected state officer or candidate for elected state office shall accept gifts from any single source in any calendar year with a total value of more than two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

(b) This section shall not prohibit or limit the following:

(1) Payments, advances, or reimbursements for travel and related lodging and subsistence permitted by Section 89506.

(2) Wedding gifts and gifts exchanged between individuals on birthdays, holidays, and other similar occasions, provided that the gifts exchanged are not substantially disproportionate in value.

(c) For purposes of this section, "elected state officer" includes the Insurance Commissioner.

(d) The gift limitation amounts in this section shall be adjusted biennially by the commission to reflect changes in the Consumer Price Index, rounded to the nearest ten dollars ($10).

(e) The limitations in this section are in addition to the limitations on gifts in Section 86203.

(f) A person shall be deemed a candidate for purposes of this section when a statement of organization is filed by the committee controlled by the person, when a declaration of intent is filed by the person, or when a declaration of candidacy is filed by the person, whichever event occurs first. A person shall not be deemed a candidate for purposes of this section after he or she is sworn into the elective office, after the person has terminated his or her campaign statement filing obligation pursuant to Section 84214, or after certification of the election results if the person lost and did not establish a committee.

SEC. 3. Section 89506 of the Government Code is amended to read:

89506. (a) Payments, advances, or reimbursements, for travel, including actual transportation and related lodging and subsistence which is reasonably related to a legislative or governmental purpose, or to an issue of state, national, or international public policy, are not prohibited or limited by this chapter if either of the following apply:

(1) The travel is in connection with a speech given by the elected state officer, local elected officeholder, candidate for elected state office or local elected office, member of a state board or commission, or designated employee of a state agency, the lodging and subsistence expenses are limited to the day immediately preceding, the day of, and the day immediately following the speech, and the travel is within the United States.

(2) The travel is provided by a government, a governmental agency, a foreign government, a governmental authority, a bona fide public or private educational institution, as defined in Section 203 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, a nonprofit charitable or religious organization which is exempt from taxation under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or by a person domiciled outside the United States which substantially satisfies the requirements for tax-exempt status under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) Gifts of travel not described in subdivision (a) are subject to the limits in Sections 89504 and 89505.

(c) Subdivision (a) applies only to travel which is reported on the recipient's statement of economic interests.

(d) For purposes of this section, a gift of travel does not include any of the following:

(1) Travel which is paid for from campaign funds, as permitted by Article 4 (commencing with Section 89510), or which is a contribution.

(2) Travel which is provided by the agency of a local elected officeholder, an elected state officer, member of a state board or commission, or a designated employee.

(3) Travel which is reasonably necessary in connection with a bona fide business, trade, or profession and which satisfies the criteria for federal income tax deduction for business expenses in Sections 162 and 274 of the Internal Revenue Code, unless the sole or predominant activity of the business, trade, or profession is making speeches.

(4) Travel which is excluded from the definition of a gift by any other provision of this title.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 5. The Legislature finds and declares that the provisions of this act further the purposes of the Political Reform Act of 1974 within the meaning of subdivision (a) of Section 81012 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 1106

An act to amend Section 13967 of the Government Code, to amend Sections 1202.4 and 1203.04 of the Penal Code, and to amend Sections 729.6 and 731.1 of, and to repeal and add Section 730.6 of, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to crime, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(a) Section 28(b) of Article I of the California Constitution secures the right to restitution for "all persons who suffer losses as a result of criminal activity."

(b) Restitution is recognized to have a rehabilitative effect on criminals.

(c) Restitution is recognized as a deterrent to future criminality.

(d) The right of persons to receive restitution for losses suffered as a result of criminal activity shall be secured as provided in this act.

SEC. 2. Section 13967 of the Government Code is amended to read:

13967. Notwithstanding Section 13340, the proceeds in the Restitution Fund are hereby continuously appropriated to the board for the purpose of indemnifying persons filing claims pursuant to this article. However, the funds appropriated pursuant to this section for administrative costs of the State Board of Control shall be subject to annual review through the state budget process.

SEC. 3. Section 1202.4 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1202.4. (a) (1) It is the intent of the Legislature that a victim of crime who incurs any economic loss as a result of the commission of a crime shall receive restitution directly from any defendant convicted of that crime.

(2) Upon a person being convicted of any crime in the State of California, the court shall order the defendant to pay a fine in the form of a penalty assessment in accordance with Section 1464.

(3) The court, in addition to any other penalty provided or imposed under the law, shall order the defendant to pay both of the following:

(A) A restitution fine in accordance with subdivision (b).

(B) Restitution to the victim or victims, if any, in accordance with subdivision (f).

(b) In every case where a person is convicted of a crime, the court shall impose a separate and additional restitution fine. The restitution fine shall be set at the discretion of the court and commensurate with the seriousness of the offense, but shall not be less than two hundred dollars ($200), and not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) if the person is convicted of a felony, and shall not be less than one hundred dollars ($100), and not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) if the person is convicted of a misdemeanor.

(c) The restitution fine shall be in addition to any other penalty or fine imposed and shall be ordered regardless of the defendant's present ability to pay. However, if the court finds that there are compelling and extraordinary reasons, the court may waive imposition of the fine. When the waiver is granted, the court shall state on the record all reasons supporting the waiver. Except as provided in this subdivision and subdivision (f), under no circumstances shall the court fail to impose the separate and additional restitution fine required by this section. This fine shall not be subject to penalty assessments as provided in Section 1464.

(d) In setting the amount of the fine pursuant to subdivision (b) in excess of the two hundred dollar ($200) or one hundred dollar ($100) minimum, the court shall consider any relevant factors including, but not limited to, the defendant's ability to pay, the seriousness and gravity of the offense and the circumstances of its commission, any economic gain derived by the defendant as a result of the crime, and the extent to which any other person suffered any losses as a result of the crime. Those losses may include pecuniary losses to the victim or his or her dependents as well as intangible losses, such as psychological harm caused by the crime. Consideration of a defendant's ability to pay may include his or her future earning capacity. A defendant shall bear the burden of demonstrating lack of his or her ability to pay. Express findings by the court as to the factors bearing on the amount of the fine shall not be required.

(e) Except as provided in subdivision (f), the fine imposed pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Restitution Fund in the State Treasury.

(f) In every case in which a victim has suffered economic loss as a result of the defendant's conduct, and the defendant is denied probation, in lieu of imposing all or a portion of the restitution fine pursuant to subdivision (b), the court shall require that the defendant make restitution to the victim or victims. Payments made pursuant to this subdivision shall be made to the Restitution Fund to the extent that the person has received assistance pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 13959) of Chapter 5 of Part 4 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(g) Restitution ordered pursuant to subdivision (f) shall be imposed in the amount of the losses, as determined. The court shall order full restitution unless it finds clear and compelling reasons for not doing so, and states them on the record. Restitution shall, to the extent possible, be of a dollar amount that is sufficient to fully reimburse the victim or victims, for every determined economic loss incurred as the result of the defendant's criminal conduct, including all of the following:

(1) Full or partial payment for the value of stolen or damaged property. The value of stolen or damaged property shall be the replacement cost of like property, or the actual cost of repairing the property when repair is possible.

(2) Medical expenses.

(3) Wages or profits lost due to injury incurred by the victim, and if the victim is a minor, wages or profits lost by the minor's parent, parents, guardian, or guardians, while caring for the injured minor.

(4) Wages or profits lost by the victim, and if the victim is a minor, wages or profits lost by the minor's parent, parents, guardian, or guardians, due to time spent as a witness or in assisting the police or prosecution.

(h) A restitution order imposed pursuant to subdivision (f) shall identify the losses to which it pertains, and shall be enforceable as a civil judgment. The making of a restitution order pursuant to subdivision (f) shall not affect the right of a victim to recovery from the Restitution Fund in the manner provided elsewhere, except to the extent that restitution is actually collected pursuant to the order. Restitution collected pursuant to this subdivision shall be credited to any other judgments for the same losses obtained against the defendant arising out of the crime for which the defendant was convicted.

(i) If the conviction is for felony violation of Section 288, restitution may be ordered pursuant to subdivision (f) regardless of whether or not the defendant is denied probation and the court may order that the restitution be paid to the victim to cover noneconomic losses, including, but not limited to, psychological harm.

(j) For any order of restitution made pursuant to subdivision (f), the defendant shall have the right to a hearing before the judge to dispute the determination made regarding the amount of restitution.

(k) For purposes of this section, "victim" shall include the immediate surviving family of the actual victim.

(l) At its discretion, the board of supervisors of any county may impose a fee to cover the actual administrative cost of collecting the restitution fine, not to exceed 10 percent of the amount ordered to be paid, to be added to the restitution fine and included in the order of the court, the proceeds of which shall be deposited in the general fund of the county.

(m) In any case in which the defendant is ordered to pay restitution as a condition of probation, the order to pay the restitution fine, or portion thereof, may be stayed pending the successful completion of probation, and thereafter the stay shall become permanent.

(n) If the restitution fine has been stayed pending successful completion of probation, upon revocation of probation and imposition of sentence the stay shall be lifted. The amount of restitution fine shall be offset by any restitution payments actually made as a condition of probation. Nothing in this section authorizes the stay of an order of restitution to the victim.

(o) The provisions of Section 13966.01 of the Government Code shall apply to restitution imposed pursuant to this section.

(p) Nothing in this section shall prevent a court from ordering restitution to any corporation, business trust, estate, trust, partnership, association, joint venture, government, governmental subdivision, agency, or instrumentality, or any other legal or commercial entity when that entity is a direct victim of a crime.

SEC. 4. Section 1203.04 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203.04. (a) (1) It is the intent of the Legislature that a victim of crime who incurs any economic loss as a result of the commission of a crime shall receive restitution directly from any defendant convicted of that crime.

(2) In every case where a person is convicted of a crime and is granted probation, the court shall require, as a condition of probation, that the person make restitution as follows:

(A) To the victim, if the crime involved a victim. Payments shall be made to the Restitution Fund to the extent the victim has received assistance pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 13959) of Chapter 5 of Part 4 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(B) To the Restitution Fund, if the crime did not involve a victim.

(b) If the court finds, and states its reasons for the finding on the record, that there are compelling and extraordinary reasons why restitution should not be required as provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), the court shall require, as a condition of probation, that the person perform specified community service.

(c) The court may avoid imposing the requirement of community service as a condition of probation only if it finds, and states its reasons for the finding on the record, that there are compelling and extraordinary reasons not to require community service in addition to its finding as to why restitution pursuant to subdivision (a) should not be required.

(d) Restitution ordered pursuant to subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) shall be imposed in the amount of the losses, as determined. The court shall order full restitution unless it finds clear and compelling reasons for not doing so, and states them on the record. Restitution shall, to the extent possible, be of a dollar amount that is sufficient to fully reimburse all persons, for all determined economic losses incurred as the result of the defendant's criminal conduct, including all of the following:

(1) Full or partial payment for the value of stolen or damaged property. The value of stolen or damaged property shall be the replacement cost of like property, or the actual cost of repairing the property when repair is possible.

(2) Medical expenses.

(3) Wages or profits lost due to injury incurred by the victim, and if the victim is a minor, wages or profits lost by the minor's parent, parents, guardian, or guardians, while caring for the injured minor.

(4) Wages or profits lost by the victim, and if the victim is a minor, wages or profits lost by the minor's parent, parents, guardian, or guardians, due to time spent as a witness or in assisting the police or prosecution.

(e) A restitution order imposed pursuant to subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) shall identify the losses to which it pertains, and shall be enforceable as a civil judgment. The making of a restitution order pursuant to this subdivision shall not affect the right of a victim to recovery from the Restitution Fund in the manner provided elsewhere, except to the extent that restitution is actually collected pursuant to the order. Restitution collected pursuant to this subdivision shall be credited to any other judgments for the same losses obtained against the defendant arising out of the crime for which the defendant was convicted.

(f) For purposes of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), the amount of restitution to be paid to the Restitution Fund shall be set at the discretion of the court and commensurate with the seriousness of the offense; but shall not be less than two hundred dollars ($200), and shall not exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000) if the person is convicted of a felony; and shall not be less than one hundred dollars ($100), and not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) if the person is convicted of a misdemeanor. The defendant's ability to pay shall be a factor in determining the amount of the fine. Except as provided in subdivision (b), the amount of the fine shall in no case be less than two hundred dollars ($200) if the person is convicted of a felony, or less than one hundred dollars ($100) if the person is convicted of a misdemeanor.

(g) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the authority of the court to grant or deny probation or provide conditions of probation.

(h) For the purposes of this section, the following shall apply:

(1) "Probation" includes a "conditional sentence" as that term is defined in subdivision (a) of Section 1203.

(2) "Victim" shall include the immediate surviving family of the actual victim.

(i) When the court orders the defendant to pay restitution pursuant to this section, the court shall, if applicable, also order an income deduction pursuant to Section 13967.2 of the Government Code.

(j) Nothing in this section shall prevent a court from ordering restitution to any corporation, business trust, estate, trust, partnership, association, joint venture, government, governmental subdivision, agency, or instrumentality, or any other legal or commercial entity when that entity is a direct victim of a crime.

SEC. 5. Section 729.6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

729.6. (a) (1) It is the intent of the Legislature that a victim of conduct for which a minor is found to be a person described in Section 602 who incurs any economic loss as a result of the minor's conduct shall receive restitution directly from that minor.

(2) If a minor is found to be a person described in Section 602, the court shall require as a condition of probation, that the minor make restitution as follows:

(A) To the victim, if the offense involved a victim. Payments shall be made to the Restitution Fund to the extent that the victim has received assistance pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 13959) of Chapter 5 of Part 4 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(B) To the Restitution Fund, if the offense did not involve a victim.

(b) If the court finds, and states its reasons for the finding on the record, that there are compelling and extraordinary reasons why restitution should not be required as provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), the court shall require, as a condition of probation, that the minor perform specified community services.

(c) The court may avoid imposing the requirement of community service as a condition of probation only if it finds, and states its reasons for the finding on the record, that there are compelling and extraordinary reasons not to require community service in addition to its finding as to why restitution pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) should not be required.

(d) Restitution ordered pursuant to subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) shall be imposed in the amount of the losses, as determined. The court shall order full restitution unless it finds clear and compelling reasons for not doing so, and states them on the record. A restitution order pursuant to this subdivision shall, to the extent possible, be of a dollar amount that is sufficient to fully reimburse all persons, for all determined economic losses incurred as the result of the minor's conduct for which the minor was found to be a person described in Section 602, including all of the following:

(1) Full or partial payment for the value of stolen or damaged property. The value of stolen or damaged property shall be the replacement cost of like property, or the actual cost of repairing the property when repair is possible.

(2) Medical expenses.

(3) Wages or profits lost due to injury incurred by the victim, and if the victim is a minor, wages or profits lost by the minor's parent, parents, guardian, or guardians, while caring for the injured minor.

(4) Wages or profits lost by the victim, and if the victim is a minor, wages or profits lost by the minor's parent, parents, guardian, or guardians, due to time spent as a witness or in assisting the police or prosecution.

(e) A restitution order imposed pursuant to subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) shall identify the losses to which it pertains, and shall be enforceable as a civil judgment. The making of a restitution order pursuant to this subdivision shall not affect the right of a victim to recovery from the Restitution Fund in the manner provided elsewhere, except to the extent that restitution is actually collected pursuant to the order. Restitution collected pursuant to this subdivision shall be credited to any other judgments for the same losses obtained against the minor arising out of the offense for which the minor was found to be a person described in Section 602.

(f) For purposes of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), the amount of restitution to be paid to the Restitution Fund shall be set at the discretion of the court and commensurate with the seriousness of the offense; but shall not be less than one hundred dollars ($100), and shall not exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) if the person is found to have committed a felony; and shall not exceed one hundred dollars ($100) if the person is found to have committed a misdemeanor.

(g) (1) In determining the amount of the fine pursuant to subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), the court shall consider any relevant factors including, but not limited to, the minor's ability to pay, the seriousness and gravity of the offense and the circumstances of its commission, any economic gain derived by the minor as a result of the offense, and the extent to which others suffered losses as a result of the offense. The losses may include pecuniary losses to the victim or his or her dependents as well as intangible losses such as psychological harm caused by the offense.

(2) The consideration of a minor's ability to pay may include his or her future earning capacity. A minor shall bear the burden of demonstrating a lack of his or her ability to pay.

(h) Express findings by the court as to the factors bearing on the amount of the fine shall not be required.

(i) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the authority of the court to grant or deny probation or provide conditions of probation.

(j) For the purposes of this section, "victim" shall include the immediate surviving family of the actual victim.

(k) Nothing in this section shall prevent a court from ordering restitution to any corporation, business trust, estate, trust, partnership, association, joint venture, government, governmental subdivision, agency, or instrumentality, or any other legal or commercial entity when that entity is a direct victim of an offense.

SEC. 6. Section 730.6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 730.6 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

730.6. (a) (1) It is the intent of the Legislature that a victim of conduct for which a minor is found to be a person described in Section 602 who incurs any economic loss as a result of the minor's conduct shall receive restitution directly from that minor.

(2) Upon a minor being found to be a person described in Section 602, the court shall consider levying a fine in accordance with Section 730.5. In addition, the court shall order the minor to pay, in addition to any other penalty provided or imposed under the law, both of the following:

(A) A restitution fine in accordance with subdivision (b).

(B) Restitution to the victim or victims, if any, in accordance with subdivision (h) or Section 729.6 or 731.1.

(b) In every case where a minor is found to be a person described in Section 602, the court shall impose a separate and additional restitution fine. The restitution fine shall be set at the discretion of the court and commensurate with the seriousness of the offense as follows:

(1) If the minor is found to be a person described in Section 602 by reason of the commission of one or more felony offenses, the restitution fine shall not be less than one hundred dollars ($100) and not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(2) If the minor is found to be a person described in Section 602 by reason of the commission of one or more misdemeanor offenses, the restitution fine shall not exceed one hundred dollars ($100).

(c) The restitution fine shall be in addition to any other disposition or fine imposed and shall be imposed regardless of the minor's present ability to pay. This fine shall be deposited in the Restitution Fund, the proceeds of which shall be distributed pursuant to Section 13967 of the Government Code.

(d) (1) In setting the amount of the fine pursuant to subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), the court shall consider any relevant factors including, but not limited to, the minor's ability to pay, the seriousness and gravity of the offense and the circumstances of its commission, any economic gain derived by the minor as a result of the offense, and the extent to which others suffered losses as a result of the offense. The losses may include pecuniary losses to the victim or his or her dependents as well as intangible losses such as psychological harm caused by the offense.

(2) The consideration of a minor's ability to pay may include his or her future earning capacity. A minor shall bear the burden of demonstrating a lack of his or her ability to pay.

(e) Express findings of the court as to the factors bearing on the amount of the fine shall not be required.

(f) Except as provided in subdivision (g), under no circumstances shall the court fail to impose the separate and additional restitution fine required by subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a). This fine shall not be subject to penalty assessments pursuant to Section 1464 of the Penal Code.

(g) In a case in which the minor is a person described in Section 602 by reason of having committed a felony offense, if the court finds that there are compelling and extraordinary reasons, the court may waive imposition of the restitution fine required by subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a). When a waiver is granted, the court shall state on the record all reasons supporting the waiver.

(h) Restitution ordered pursuant to subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) shall be imposed in the amount of the losses, as determined. The court shall order full restitution unless it finds clear and compelling reasons for not doing so, and states them on the record. A restitution order pursuant to subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), to the extent possible, shall be of a dollar amount sufficient to fully reimburse the victim or victims for all determined economic losses incurred as the result of the minor's conduct for which the minor was found to be a person described in Section 602, including all of the following:

(1) Full or partial payment for the value of stolen or damaged property. The value of stolen or damaged property shall be the replacement cost of like property, or the actual cost of repairing the property when repair is possible.

(2) Medical expenses.

(3) Wages or profits lost due to injury incurred by the victim, and if the victim is a minor, wages or profits lost by the minor's parent, parents, guardian, or guardians, while caring for the injured minor.

(4) Wages or profits lost by the victim, and if the victim is a minor, wages or profits lost by the minor's parent, parents, guardian, or guardians, due to time spent as a witness or in assisting the police or prosecution.

(i) A restitution order imposed pursuant to subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) shall identify the losses to which it pertains, and shall be enforceable as a civil judgment. The making of a restitution order pursuant to this subdivision shall not affect the right of a victim to recovery from the Restitution Fund in the manner provided elsewhere, except to the extent that restitution is actually collected pursuant to the order. Restitution collected pursuant to this subdivision shall be credited to any other judgments for the same losses obtained against the minor arising out of the offense for which the minor was found to be a person described in Section 602.

(j) For purposes of this section, "victim" shall include the immediate surviving family of the actual victim.

(k) Nothing in this section shall prevent a court from ordering restitution to any corporation, business trust, estate, trust, partnership, association, joint venture, government, governmental subdivision, agency, or instrumentality, or any other legal or commercial entity when that entity is a direct victim of an offense.

(l) In any case in which the minor is ordered to pay restitution as a condition of probation, the order to pay the restitution fine required by subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) may be stayed pending the successful completion of probation, and thereafter the stay shall become permanent.

(m) If the restitution fine required by subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) has been stayed pending successful completion of probation, upon revocation of probation and imposition of sentence, the stay shall be lifted. The amount of the restitution fine shall be offset by any restitution payments actually made as a condition of probation. However, probation shall not be revoked for failure of a person to make restitution pursuant to Section 729.6 as a condition of probation unless the court determines that the person has willfully failed to pay or failed to make sufficient bona fide efforts to legally acquire the resources to pay.

(n) At its discretion, the board of supervisors of any county may impose a fee to cover the actual administrative cost of collecting the restitution fine, not to exceed 10 percent of the amount ordered to be paid, to be added to the restitution fine and included in the order of the court, the proceeds of which shall be deposited in the general fund of the county.

SEC. 8. Section 731.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

731.1. (a) (1) It is the intent of the Legislature that a victim of conduct for which a minor is found to be a person described in Section 602 who incurs any economic loss as a result of the minor's conduct shall receive restitution directly from that minor.

(2) When a minor is committed to the Department of the Youth Authority, in lieu of imposing all or a portion of the restitution fine required by Section 730.6, the court shall order restitution to be paid to the victim or victims, if any.

(b) Restitution ordered pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be imposed in the amount of the losses, as determined. The court shall order full restitution unless it finds clear and compelling reasons for not doing so, and states them on the record. A restitution order pursuant to subdivision (a) shall, to the extent possible, be of a dollar amount that is sufficient to fully reimburse all persons, for all determined economic losses incurred as the result of the minor's conduct for which the minor was found to be a person described in Section 602, including all of the following:

(1) Full or partial payment for the value of stolen or damaged property. The value of stolen or damaged property shall be the replacement cost of like property, or the actual cost of repairing the property when repair is possible.

(2) Medical expenses.

(3) Wages or profits lost due to injury incurred by the victim, and if the victim is a minor, wages or profits lost by the minor's parent, parents, guardian, or guardians, while caring for the injured minor.

(4) Wages or profits lost by the victim, and if the victim is a minor, wages or profits lost by the minor's parent, parents, guardian, or guardians, due to time spent as a witness or in assisting the police or prosecution.

(c) A restitution order imposed pursuant to subdivision (a) shall identify the losses to which it pertains and shall be enforceable as a civil judgment. The making of a restitution order pursuant to this subdivision shall not affect the right of a victim to recovery from the Restitution Fund in the manner provided elsewhere, except to the extent that restitution is actually collected pursuant to the order. Restitution collected pursuant to this subdivision shall be credited to any other judgments for the same losses obtained against the minor arising out of the offense for which the minor was found to be a person described in Section 602.

(d) For the purposes of this section, "victim" shall include the immediate surviving family of the actual victim.

(e) Nothing in this section shall prevent a court from ordering restitution to any corporation, business trust, estate, trust, partnership, association, joint venture, government, governmental subdivision, agency, or instrumentality, or any other legal or commercial entity when that entity is a direct victim of an offense.

SEC. 9. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to create financial stability for, and to establish procedures to derive a greater level of savings in connection with, the Restitution Fund as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1107

An act to amend Section 25364.1 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous substances.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25364.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25364.1. (a) For purposes of this section, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) "Affiliate" means any entity which directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, the responsible party owner. For purposes of this paragraph, "control" means the possession, direct or indirect, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of an entity, or ownership of shares or interests in the entity possessing more than 50 percent of the voting power.

(2) "Qualified independent consultant" means either a geologist who is registered pursuant to Section 7850 of the Business and Professions Code or a professional engineer who is registered pursuant to Section 6762 of the Business and Professions Code.

(3) "Responsible party owner" means the owner of all or part of the site on January 1, 1993, or if all or a part of the site is transferred to a joint venture formed for purposes of development of the site, the owner of the site immediately prior to that transfer.

(4) "Site" means the site of the former Kaiser Steel Corporation steel mill located near the City of Fontana.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, except as provided in subdivisions (c) and (e), the director may release from liability under this chapter or Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 25100), and from liability for any claims of the state for recovery of response costs under the federal act, any of the following persons, with regard to a removal or remedial action at the site:

(1) Any person who provides financing for all, or a substantial part of, the costs of performing a removal or remedial action at the site pursuant to a remedial action plan prepared by a qualified independent consultant and issued by the department pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 25356.1, except that the release from liability shall not release the person providing this financing from liability for any hazardous substance release or threatened release resulting from that person's exercise of decisionmaking control over the performance of the removal or remedial action while the responsible party owner remains in possession of the site.

(2) Any person who enters into an agreement with the responsible party owner to provide development services for the development of all, or a part of, the site, including a developer, who becomes a partner in a joint venture partnership with the responsible party owner, if the joint venture is formed for purposes of the development of the site and legal title to the site is transferred by the responsible party owner to the joint venture. If a release from liability is granted to a developer pursuant to this paragraph and the legal title to the site is transferred by the responsible party owner to a joint venture between the developer and the responsible party owner of the site, the responsible party owner shall not be relieved of liability under this chapter.

(3) Any person who acquires an ownership or leasehold interest in all or a part of the site after performance of the removal or remedial action specified in the remedial action plan for the site, or part of the site, has been completed to the satisfaction of the department.

(c) A release from liability shall not be granted pursuant to subdivision (b) unless all of the following conditions are met:

(1) A responsible party owner has entered into a stipulated settlement of an order issued by the department pursuant to Section 25187, 25355.5, or 25358.3 to perform the removal or remedial action at the site in accordance with the remedial action plan and has arranged financing, contingent only upon obtaining releases from potential liability pursuant to subdivision (b), for the costs of performing the removal or remedial action.

(2) A responsible party owner agrees to pay all applicable oversight fees required by Section 25343 and to pay any additional costs that are recoverable pursuant to Section 25360.

(3) No person to be released from liability pursuant to subdivision (b) is a responsible party or an affiliate of a responsible party, with respect to any hazardous substance release existing at the site at the time the release from liability is granted.

(4) The stipulated settlement requires the responsible party owner to provide irrevocable financial assurances for full performance of the remedial action plan. The financial assurances may consist of one or more of the financial assurance instruments described in Section 66264.143 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations. Upon the approval of the department, the forms of these instruments may be revised as appropriate to apply to the costs of performing the removal or remedial action specified in the remedial action plan.

(5) The director finds that the release from liability to be granted will promote the purposes and goals of this chapter and encourage private investment in property that is in need of remediation.

(d) The site may be subdivided to create subdivided parcels of land, pursuant to the Subdivision Map Act (Division 2 (commencing with Section 66410) of Title 7 of the Government Code), in order to facilitate removal or remedial action at the site, secure financing for removal or remedial action, or secure financing for development which would generate funds for removal or remedial action at the site.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a release from liability granted pursuant to subdivision (b) shall not extend to any of the following:

(1) Any person who was a responsible party for a hazardous substance release existing at the site before the release from liability was granted, and any entity which is an affiliate of such a responsible party.

(2) Any contractor who prepares the remedial action plan or performs the removal or remedial action provided for in the remedial action plan.

(3) Any person who obtains a release pursuant to subdivision (b) by fraud or negligent or intentional nondisclosure or misrepresentation.

(4) Any liability for a release or threatened release of a hazardous substance first deposited at the site by a person released from liability pursuant to subdivision (b) after the release from liability is granted.

(f) Any release from liability granted by the director pursuant to this section shall contain the following provision: "If, for any reason, the responsible party does not complete the removal or remedial action, this release does not extend to any subsequent actions or activities performed by the released party that exacerbate the conditions at the site."

CHAPTER 1108

An act to amend Sections 10232, 10232.1, 10249.11, 10249.2, 10249.3, 10249.6, 11018.12, and 11022 of, to add Sections 10249.91 and 10249.92 to, and to repeal Sections 10249.5 and 11029 of, the Business and Professions Code, relating to real estate brokers, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10232 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

10232. (a) Except as otherwise expressly provided, the provisions of Sections 10232.2 and 10232.25 are applicable to every real estate broker who intends or reasonably expects in any successive 12 months to do any of the following:

(1) Negotiate any combination of 20 or more of the following transactions pursuant to subdivision (d) or (e) of Section 10131 or Section 10131.1 in an aggregate amount of more than two million dollars ($2,000,000):

(A) Loans secured directly or collaterally by liens on real property or on business opportunities as agent for another or others.

(B) Sales or exchanges of real property sales contracts or promissory notes secured directly or collaterally by liens on real property or on business opportunities as agent for another or others.

(C) Sales or exchanges of real property sales contracts or promissory notes secured directly or collaterally by liens on real property as the owner of those notes or contracts.

(2) Make collections of payments in an aggregate amount of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) or more on behalf of owners of promissory notes secured directly or collaterally by liens on real property, owners of real property sales contracts, or both.

(3) Make collections of payments in an aggregate amount of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) or more on behalf of obligors of promissory notes secured directly or collaterally by liens on real property, lenders of real property sales contracts, or both.

Persons under common management, direction or control in conducting the activities enumerated above shall be considered as one person for the purpose of applying the above criteria.

(b) The negotiation of any combination of five or more new loans and sales or exchanges of existing promissory notes and real property sales contracts of an aggregate amount of more than five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) in any three successive months or any combination of 10 or more new loans and sales or exchanges of existing promissory notes and real property sales contracts of an aggregate amount of more than one million dollars ($1,000,000) in any successive six months shall create a rebuttable presumption that the broker intends to negotiate new loans and sales and exchanges of an aggregate amount that will meet the criteria of subdivision (a).

(c) In determining the applicability of Sections 10232.2 and 10232.25, loans or sales negotiated by a broker, or for which a broker collects payments or provides other servicing for the owner of the note or contract, shall not be counted in determining whether the broker meets the criteria of subdivisions (a) and (b) if any of the following apply:

(1) The lender or purchaser is any of the following:

(A) The Federal National Mortgage Association, the Government National Mortgage Association, the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, the Federal Housing Administration, and the Veteran's Administration.

(B) Any bank or subsidiary thereof, bank holding company or subsidiary thereof, trust company, savings bank or savings and loan association or subsidiary thereof, savings bank or savings association holding company or subsidiary thereof, credit union, industrial bank or industrial loan company, commercial finance lender, personal property broker, consumer finance lender, or insurance company doing business under the authority of, and in accordance with, the laws of this state, any other state, or of the United States relating to banks, trust companies, savings banks or savings associations, credit unions, industrial banks or industrial loan companies, commercial finance lenders, or insurance companies, as evidenced by a license, certificate, or charter issued by the United States or any state, district, territory, or commonwealth of the United States.

(C) Trustees of a pension, profit sharing, or welfare fund, if the pension, profit sharing, or welfare fund has a net worth of not less than fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000).

(D) Any corporation with outstanding securities registered under Section 12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or any wholly owned subsidiary of that corporation.

(E) Any syndication or other combination of any of the entities specified in subparagraph (A), (B), (C), or (D) which is organized to purchase the promissory note.

(F) The California Housing Finance Agency or any local housing finance agency organized under the Health and Safety Code.

(G) A licensed real estate broker selling all or part of the loan, the note, or the contract to a lender or purchaser specified in subparagraphs (A) through (F) of this subdivision.

(2) The loan or sale is negotiated, or the loan or contract is being serviced for the owner, under authority of a permit issued pursuant to the provisions of Article 6 (commencing with Section 10237) or applicable provisions of the Corporate Securities Law of 1968 (Section 25000 and following of the Corporations Code).

(d) If two or more real estate brokers who are not under common management, direction, or control, cooperate in the negotiation of a loan or the sale or exchange of a promissory note or real property sales contract and share in the compensation for their services, the dollar amount of the transaction shall be allocated according to the ratio that the compensation received by each broker bears to the total compensation received by all brokers for their services in negotiating the loan or sale or exchange.

(e) A real estate broker who on the effective date of this section satisfies the criteria of subdivision (a) or (b) shall, within 30 days thereafter, notify the Department of Real Estate in writing of that fact. A broker who first meets any of the criteria of subdivision (a) or (b) after January 1, 1982, shall notify the department in writing within 30 days after that determination is made.

SEC. 2. Section 10232.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

10232.1. (a) A real estate broker, prior to the use of any proposed advertisement in connection with the conduct of activities described in subdivisions (d) and (e) of Section 10131 and Section 10131.1, may submit a true copy thereof to the Department of Real Estate for approval. The submission shall be accompanied by a fee of not more than forty dollars ($40). The commissioner shall by regulation prescribe the amount of the fee. If disapproval of the proposed advertisement is not communicated by the department to the broker within 15 calendar days after receipt of the copy of the proposed advertisement by the department, the proposed advertisement shall be deemed approved, but the department shall not be estopped from disapproving a later publication or other use of the same, or similar advertising.

The commissioner shall adopt regulations pertaining to the submittal and clearance of such advertising and establishing criteria for approval to insure that the public will be protected against false or misleading representations.

Except as provided in subdivision (b), "advertisement" includes dissemination in any newspaper, circular, form letter, brochure or similar publication, display, sign, radio broadcast or telecast, which concerns (1) the use, terms, rates, conditions, or the amount of any loan or sale referred to in subdivisions (d) and (e) of Section 10131 or Section 10131.1 or (2) the security, solvency, or stability of any person carrying on the activities described in those sections.

(b) "Advertisement" does not include a letter or brochure which is:

(1) Restricted in distribution to other real estate brokers and to persons for whom the broker has previously acted as agent in arranging a loan secured by real property or in the purchase, sale, or exchange of a deed of trust or real property sales contract; and

(2) Restricted in content to the identification and a description of the terms of loans, mortgages, deeds of trust, and real property sales contracts offered for funding or purchase through the broker as agent.

(c) Subdivision (a) is not applicable to advertising that is used exclusively in connection with an offering authorized by permit issued pursuant to the provisions of Article 6 (commencing with Section 10237) or applicable provisions of the Corporate Securities Law of 1968 (Section 25000 and following of the Corporations Code).

(d) All advertising approvals shall be for a period of five years after the date of approval. The approval period applies to all advertising, including that which was previously submitted on a mandatory basis.

SEC. 3. Section 10249.11 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

10249.11. (a) "Improved out-of-state residential subdivision," as used in this article, means a subdivision, other than a time-share project as defined in Sections 11003.5 and 11004.5, in which all lots or parcels to be offered for residential use will be sold or leased, or offered for sale or lease, with all improvements completed that are necessary to occupancy after addition of a completed residential structure, or with the structure already completed, or with financial arrangements for those improvements determined to be adequate by the city or other appropriate governmental jurisdiction.

(b) "Improved out-of-state time-share project," as used in this article, means a time-share project as defined in Sections 11003.5 and 11004.5, other than a qualified resort vacation club as defined in Section 10260, in which all time-share interests to be offered for residential use will be sold or offered for sale with all improvements completed that are necessary to occupancy, or with financial arrangements for the completion of those improvements determined to be adequate by the commissioner.

SEC. 4. Section 10249.2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

10249.2. (a) The sale or lease, or the offering for sale or lease, of lots or parcels in a subdivision situated outside of this state shall be governed by Article 6 (commencing with Section 10237) and by Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 11000) of Part 2, insofar as applicable, except that:

(1) Sections 10237.6, 10237.7, 10237.8, and 10238.4 shall not be applicable to an improved out-of-state residential subdivision, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 10249.11.

(2) Sections 10237.6, 10237.8, and 10238.4 shall not be applicable to an improved out-of-state time-share project, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 10249.11.

(3) Section 10237.6 shall not be applicable to a qualified resort vacation club, as defined in Section 10260.

(4) The provisions of Article 6 (commencing with Section 10237) shall not be applicable to a subdivision described in Section 11010.3.

(b) The commissioner shall apply the provisions of Sections 11018 and 11018.5, after taking into consideration the differences in the applicable laws of the various states with respect to subdivisions, to afford substantially the same level of public protection to purchasers of an interest in an improved out-of-state residential subdivision or an improved out-of-state time-share project as is afforded to purchasers of subdivision interests situated within this state.

(c) The commissioner may adopt regulations reasonably necessary to enforce this article.

SEC. 5. Section 10249.3 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

10249.3. (a) The Real Estate Commissioner may by regulation prescribe filing fees in connection with applications to the Department of Real Estate pursuant to the provisions of this article which are lower than the maximum fees specified in subdivision (b) if the commissioner determines that the lower fees are sufficient to offset the costs and expenses incurred in the administration of this article. The commissioner shall hold at least one hearing each calendar year to determine if lower fees than those specified in subdivision (b) should be prescribed.

(b) The filing fee for an application for a permit to be issued under authority of this article shall not exceed the following for each subdivision or phase of the subdivision in which interests are to be offered for sale or lease:

(1) An application for an original permit: One thousand seven hundred dollars ($1,700) plus ten dollars ($10) for each subdivision interest to be offered.

(2) An application for a renewal permit: Six hundred dollars ($600) plus ten dollars ($10) for each subdivision interest to be offered which was not permitted to be offered under the permit to be renewed.

(3) An application for an amended permit: Five hundred dollars ($500) plus ten dollars ($10) for each subdivision interest to be offered under the amended permit for which a fee has not previously been paid.

(4) An application for a preliminary permit: Five hundred dollars ($500).

(c) All fees collected by the Department of Real Estate under authority of this article shall be deposited into the Real Estate Fund under Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 10450) of Part 1. All fees received by the department pursuant to the provisions of this article shall be deemed earned upon receipt. No part of any fee is refundable unless the commissioner determines that it was paid as a result of mistake or inadvertence.

SEC. 6. Section 10249.5 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 10249.6 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

10249.6. (a) The commissioner may issue a preliminary permit for an improved out-of-state residential subdivision upon receipt of a substantially complete application for the subdivision. The preliminary permit shall issue on the same basis and conditions upon which the department issues preliminary public reports on subdivisions situated within the state.

(b) The commissioner may issue a conditional permit for an improved out-of-state residential subdivision. The conditional permit shall be issued on the same basis and conditions upon which the commissioner may issue conditional public reports for subdivisions located within the state.

SEC. 8. Section 10249.91 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

10249.91. The term of any final permit issued pursuant to this article shall be one year, unless the commissioner by regulation prescribes a longer term. No permit shall be issued for a term longer than one year unless the developer or subdivider is required to submit to the commissioner annual reports containing information the commissioner may require by regulation.

SEC. 9. Section 10249.92 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

10249.92. Every nonresident applicant for a permit pursuant to the provisions of this article shall, along with the application, file with the commissioner an irrevocable consent stating that if in any action commenced against the applicant in this state personal service of process upon the applicant cannot be made after the exercise of due diligence, a valid service may thereupon be made upon the applicant by delivering the process to the Secretary of State.

Insofar as possible, the provisions of Section 1018 of the Code of Civil Procedure relating to service of process on the Secretary of State are applicable to this section.

SEC. 10. Section 11018.12 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

11018.12. (a) The commissioner may issue a conditional public report for a subdivision specified in Section 11004.5 if the requirements of subdivision (e) are met, all deficiencies and substantive inadequacies in the documents that are required to make an application for a final public report for the subdivision substantially complete have been corrected, the material elements of the setup of the offering to be made under the authority of the conditional public report have been established, and all requirements for issuance of a public report set forth in the regulations of the commissioner have been satisfied except for one or more of the following requirements, as applicable:

- (1) A final map has not been recorded.
- (2) A condominium plan pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 1351 of the Civil Code has not been recorded.
- (3) A declaration of covenants, conditions, and restrictions pursuant to Section 1353 of the Civil Code has not been recorded.
- (4) A declaration of annexation has not been recorded.
- (5) A recorded subordination of existing liens to the declaration of covenants, conditions, and restrictions or declaration of annexation or escrow instructions to effect recordation prior to the first sale are lacking.
- (6) Filed articles of incorporation are lacking.
- (7) A current preliminary report of a licensed title insurance company issued after filing of the final map and recording of the declaration covering all subdivision interests to be included in the public report has not been provided.
- (8) Other requirements the commissioner determines are likely to be timely satisfied by the applicant, notwithstanding the fact that the failure to meet these requirements makes the application qualitatively incomplete.

(b) The commissioner may issue a conditional public report for a subdivision not referred to or specified in Section 11000.1, 11000.5, or 11004.5 if the requirements of subdivision (e) are met, all deficiencies and substantive inadequacies in the documents that are required to make an application for a final public report for the subdivision substantially complete have been corrected, the material elements of the setup of the offering to be made under the authority of the conditional public report have been established, and all requirements for issuance of a public report set forth in the regulations of the commissioner have been satisfied except for one or more of the following requirements, as applicable:

- (1) A final map has not been recorded.
- (2) A declaration of covenants, conditions, and restrictions has not been recorded.
- (3) A current preliminary report of a licensed title insurance company issued after filing of the final map and recording of the declaration covering all subdivision interests to be included in the public report has not been provided.

(4) Other requirements the commissioner determines are likely to be timely satisfied by the applicant, notwithstanding the fact that the failure to meet these requirements makes the application qualitatively incomplete.

(c) A decision by the commissioner to not issue a conditional public report shall be noticed in writing to the applicant within five business days and that notice shall specifically state the reasons why the report is not being issued.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 11018.2, a person may sell or lease, or offer for sale or lease, lots or parcels in a subdivision pursuant to a conditional public report if, as a condition of the sale or lease or offer for sale or lease, delivery of legal title or other interest contracted for will not take place until issuance of a public report and provided that the requirements of subdivision (e) are met.

(e) (1) Evidence shall be supplied that all purchase money will be deposited in compliance with subdivision (a) of Section 11013.2 or subdivision (a) of Section 11013.4, and in the case of a subdivision referred to in subdivision (a), evidence is given of compliance with paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 11018.5.

(2) A description of the nature of the transaction shall be supplied.

(3) Provision shall be made for the return of the entire sum of money paid or advanced by the purchaser if a subdivision public report has not been issued within six months of the date of issuance of the conditional public report or the purchaser is dissatisfied with the public report because of a change pursuant to Section 11012.

(f) A subdivider, principal, or his or her agent shall provide a prospective purchaser a copy of the conditional public report and a written statement including all of the following:

(1) Specification of the information required for issuance of a public report.

(2) Specification of the information required in the public report which is not available in the conditional public report, along with a statement of the reasons why that information is not available at the time of issuance of the conditional public report.

(3) A statement that no person acting as a principal or agent shall sell or lease or offer for sale or lease lots or parcels in a subdivision for which a conditional public report has been issued except as provided in this article.

(4) Specification of the requirements of subdivision (e).

(g) The prospective purchaser shall sign a receipt that he or she has received and has read the conditional public report and the written statement provided pursuant to subdivision (f).

(h) The term of a conditional public report shall not exceed six months, and may be renewed for one additional term of six months if the commissioner determines that the requirements for issuance of a public report are likely to be satisfied during the renewal term.

SEC. 11. Section 11022 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

11022. (a) It is unlawful for an owner, subdivider, agent or employee of a subdivision or other person, with intent directly or indirectly to sell or lease subdivided lands or lots or parcels therein, to authorize, use, direct, or aid in the publication, distribution, or circularization of an advertisement, radio broadcast, or telecast concerning subdivided lands, that contains a statement, pictorial representation, or sketch that is false or misleading.

(b) An owner, subdivider, agent, or employee of an owner or subdivider may, prior to the use, publication, distribution, or circulation of any advertisement concerning subdivided lands, submit the same to the department for approval. The submission shall be accompanied by a fee of not more than seventy-five dollars ($75). The commissioner shall prescribe by regulation the amount of the fee.

If disapproval of the proposed advertisement is not communicated by the department to the owner, subdivider, agent, or employee within 15 calendar days after receipt of the copy of the proposed advertisement, the advertisement shall be deemed approved, but the department shall not be estopped from disapproving a later distribution, circulation, or use of the same or similar advertising.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed to hold the publisher or employee of any newspaper, or any job printer, or any broadcaster, or telecaster, or any magazine publisher, or any of the employees thereof, liable for any publication herein referred to unless the publisher, employee, or printer has actual knowledge of the falsity thereof or has an interest either as an owner or agent in the subdivided lands so advertised.

SEC. 12. Section 11029 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

An act to amend Section 8842 of, and to add Section 5653.8 to, the Fish and Game Code, relating to fish and game, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5653.8 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

5653.8. For purposes of Sections 5653, 5653.1, 5653.2, and 5653.3, "person" does not include a partnership, corporation, or other type of association.

SEC. 2. Section 5653.8 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

5653.8. For purposes of Sections 5653 and 5653.3, "person" does not include a partnership, corporation, or other type of association.

SEC. 3. Section 8842 of the Fish and Game Code, as amended by Section 1 of Chapter 1104 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended to read:

8842. (a) Trawl nets of a design prescribed by the commission may be used or possessed to take shrimp or prawns under a revocable, nontransferable permit issued by the department under regulations that the commission shall prescribe that are not inconsistent with this section. A permit is valid, unless revoked or canceled, from April 1 to March 31 of the next succeeding calendar year. A permit issued under this section for the permit year beginning on April 1, 1994, and thereafter, may be issued pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) to the owner of a vessel registered pursuant to Section 7881, as designated in the application for the permit. That permit shall authorize the use of that designated vessel for the purpose of using trawl nets to take shrimp or prawns pursuant to this section.

Sections 8831, 8833, 8835, and 8836 do not apply to trawl nets used or possessed under a permit issued pursuant to this section.

(b) When fishing for pink shrimp (Pandalus jordani) under a permit issued pursuant to this section, it is unlawful to possess in excess of 1,500 pounds of incidentally taken fish per calendar day of a fishing trip, except Pacific whiting, shortbelly rockfish, and arrowtooth flounder that may be taken in any amount. Not more than 150 pounds of California halibut shall be possessed or landed when fishing under a permit issued pursuant to this section. When fishing for ridgeback prawn and spotted prawn under a permit issued pursuant to this section, it is unlawful to possess in excess of 1,000 pounds of incidentally taken fish per trip, except for sea cucumbers that may be taken in any amount.

(c) (1) For the 1994-95 permit year, a pink shrimp permit shall be issued only to those applicants who meet one of the following criteria:

(A) Possessed a permit issued under this section, or any regulations adopted pursuant to this section, during the 1993-94 permit year or for any permit year prior to the 1993-94 permit year.

(B) Is the registered owner of a vessel that landed pink shrimp on or before March 31, 1994. If a vessel owner applies for a permit pursuant to this subparagraph, he or she shall specify the vessel he or she will use in the operations authorized by the permit. Landings used to qualify for permits shall have been reported to the department pursuant to Section 8043.

(2) Beginning with the 1995-96 permit year, a pink shrimp permit shall be issued only to applicants who possessed a valid pink shrimp permit in the immediately preceding permit year.

(d) The fee for the permit to take pink shrimp shall be two hundred eighty-five dollars ($285).

(e) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1997, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1997, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4. The Legislature finds and declares that the Department of Fish and Game has interpreted the permit eligibility provisions enacted by subdivision (c) of Section 8842 of the Fish and Game Code, as amended by Section 1 of Chapter 1104 of the Statutes of 1993, to apply commencing with the 1994-95 permit year, consistent with the intent of the Legislature. The Legislature hereby validates that interpretation.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 6. Section 1 of this act shall become operative only if (a) this bill and AB 399 are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1995, and (b) AB 399 adds Sections 5653.1 and 5653.2 to the Fish and Game Code, in which case Section 2 of this act shall not become operative.

SEC. 7. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to clarify certain provisions of law relating to vacuum and suction dredging and to revise certain provisions of law relating to the taking of shrimp as soon as possible, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

An act to amend Section 311 of, and to add Section 311.5 to, the Public Utilities Code, relating to the Public Utilities Commission.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 311 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

311. (a) The commission, each commissioner, the executive director, and the assistant executive directors may administer oaths, certify to all official acts, and issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of papers, waybills, books, accounts, documents, and testimony in any inquiry, investigation, hearing, or proceeding in any part of the state.

(b) The administrative law judges may administer oaths, examine witnesses, issue subpoenas, and receive evidence, under rules that the commission adopts. The commission, upon scheduling hearings and specifying the scope of issues to be heard in any proceeding involving an electrical, gas, telephone, railroad, or water corporation, or a highway carrier, shall assign an administrative law judge to preside over the hearings, either sitting alone or assisting the commissioner or commissioners who will hear the case.

(c) The evidence in any hearing shall be taken by the administrative law judge designated for that purpose. The administrative law judge may receive and exclude evidence offered in the hearing in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure of the commission.

(d) The administrative law judge shall prepare and file an opinion setting forth recommendations, findings, and conclusions. The opinion of the administrative law judge is the proposed decision and a part of the public record in the proceeding. The proposed decision of the administrative law judge shall be filed with the commission and served upon all parties to the action or proceeding without undue delay, not later than 90 days after the matter has been submitted for decision. The commission shall issue its decision not sooner than 30 days following filing and service of the proposed decision by the administrative law judge, except that the 30-day period may be reduced or waived by the commission in an unforeseen emergency situation or upon the stipulation of all parties to the proceeding. The commission may, in issuing its decision, adopt, modify, or set aside the proposed decision or any part of the decision. Every finding, opinion, and order made in the proposed decision and approved or confirmed by the commission shall, upon that approval or confirmation, be the finding, opinion, and order of the commission.

(e) Beginning January 1, 1995, any item appearing on the commission's public agenda as an alternate item to an administrative law judge's proposed decision shall be served upon all parties to the proceeding without undue delay and shall be subject to public review and comment before it may be voted upon. For purposes of this subdivision "alternate" means either a substantive revision to a proposed decision that materially changes the resolution of a contested issue or any substantive addition to findings of fact, conclusions of law, or ordering paragraphs. The commission shall adopt rules by October 1, 1995, that provide for the time and manner of review and comment and the rescheduling of the item on a subsequent public agenda. The commission's rules may provide that the time and manner of review and comment on an alternate item may be reduced or waived by the commission in an unforeseen emergency situation.

(f) The commission may specify that the administrative law judge assigned to a proceeding involving an electrical, gas, telephone, railroad, or water corporation, or a highway carrier, initiated by customer or subscriber complaint need not prepare, file, and serve an opinion, unless the commission finds that to do so is required in the public interest in a particular case.

SEC. 2. Section 311.5 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

311.5. Prior to commencement of any meeting at which commissioners vote on items on the public agenda the commission shall make available to the public copies of the agenda, and upon request, any agenda item documents that are proposed to be considered by the commission for action or decision at a commission meeting.

An act to amend Section 17780 of, and to add Section 17705.15 to, the Education Code, relating to school facilities, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17705.15 is added to the Education Code, to read:

17705.15. The board may provide a loan to any school district from the proceeds of the sale of bonds pursuant to the School Facilities Bond Act of 1992 (Chapter 21.2 (commencing with Section 17640)), and the 1992 School Facilities Bond Act (Chapter 21.25 (commencing with Section 17645)), to provide aid for school districts in accordance with this chapter, when those proceeds are available in the State School Building Lease-Purchase Fund. In order to provide a loan, both of the following conditions shall be met:

(a) The amount of the loan shall not exceed the amount set forth in legislation enacted that specifies the loan amount.

(b) The loan shall be repaid pursuant to a schedule set forth in legislation enacted that specifies a loan repayment schedule.

SEC. 2. Section 17780 of the Education Code is amended to read:

17780. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, whenever moneys transferred to the General Fund each year from (1) moneys deposited in the Public School Building Loan Fund pursuant to Section 15735, and (2) moneys deposited in the State School Building Aid Fund pursuant to Section 16080, are in excess of the amounts required to reimburse the General Fund on account of principal and interest due and payable for that fiscal year on all school building aid bonds outstanding against the state, an amount equal to such excess is appropriated from the General Fund for purposes of the Leroy F. Greene State School Building Lease-Purchase Law of 1976 (Chapter 22 (commencing with Section 17700)) and Section 39619. The Controller shall transfer, as directed by the State Allocation Board, such appropriated amount to the State School Building Lease-Purchase Fund and to the State School Deferred Maintenance Fund, which is hereby established.

(b) In addition to the amount transferred pursuant to subdivision (a), the Controller shall transfer annually from the General Fund to the State School Deferred Maintenance Fund an amount equal to any amount transferred to or deposited in the General Fund as a result of repayment of any loan made by the board pursuant to Section 17705.15.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, the State School Deferred Maintenance Fund is continuously appropriated for the purposes for which it is established.

SEC. 3. (a) Pursuant to Section 17705.15 of the Education Code, the State Allocation Board may provide a loan to the Colfax Elementary School District, for purposes of its school construction project (Application Number 22-66795-00-03), in the amount of four hundred forty-eight thousand six hundred dollars ($448,600), which shall be repaid in full pursuant to this section. The board shall not reduce or forgive this loan.

(b) Commencing with the 1994-95 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter through the 2013-14 fiscal year, the Controller shall, as debt service, including interest, on the loan made to the Colfax Elementary School District pursuant to this section, reduce the apportionment under Section 42238 of the Education Code made to the Colfax Elementary School District by the amount of thirty-six thousand dollars ($36,000).

(c) The Controller shall transfer the amount of the annual reduction set forth in subdivision (b) to the General Fund, if the appropriation under Section 14002 of the Education Code is not operative for that fiscal year.

(d) This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 2014, and, as of January 1, 2015, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 2015, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 4. (a) In addition to the loan specified in Section 3 of this act, the State Allocation Board may provide an additional loan pursuant to Section 17705.15 of the Education Code to the Colfax Elementary School District, for purposes of its school construction project (Application Number 22-66795-00-03), in the amount of two hundred twenty-five thousand dollars ($225,000), which shall be repaid in full pursuant to this section. The board shall not reduce or forgive this loan.

(b) Any funds received by the Colfax Elementary School District from the proceeds from the sale of the former schoolsite of the Colfax Elementary School shall be transferred to the Controller for deposit by the Controller in the General Fund within 30 days of receipt by the school district of those proceeds and shall reduce the loan repayment amount specified in subdivision (a) by the amount deposited in the General Fund. If the purchaser of the schoolsite is in default on any payment and in accordance with the terms of that sale, the Colfax Elementary School District shall enter into an agreement to sell the schoolsite and any proceeds of that sale shall be transferred to the Controller for deposit in the General Fund in accordance with this section.

(c) (1) If the amount of proceeds from any sale of the schoolsite pursuant to subdivision (b) is insufficient to repay in full the amount of the loan made pursuant to subdivision (a), the Controller shall increase the annual reduction of the apportionment to the Colfax Elementary School District as specified in Section 3 of this act by the amount of the difference between the proceeds of the sale pursuant to this section and the amount of the loan made pursuant to this section. The Controller shall transfer the amount of the increase in the annual reduction to the General Fund made pursuant to this paragraph, if the appropriation under Section 14002 of the Education Code is not operative for that fiscal year.

(2) The amount of the annual increase in the reduction specified in paragraph (1) shall be calculated to ensure full payment of the difference plus 5 percent interest amortized through June 30, 2014.

SEC. 5. The Controller shall establish a process for the Colfax Elementary School District to pay a supplemental amount in any fiscal year on the loan made pursuant to Section 3 of this act. The Controller shall reschedule the annual reductions made pursuant to Section 3 of this act if the Colfax Elementary School District pays more than thirty-six thousand dollars ($36,000) in any fiscal year.

SEC. 6. In repayment of any other funds provided to the Colfax Elementary School District by the State Allocation Board for purposes of the school district's school construction project (Application Number 22-66795-00-03), the school district shall transfer to the Controller for deposit by the Controller in the General Fund the proceeds of any settlement or judgment received by the school district from litigation related to that school construction project. The school district may retain from the amount of any settlement or judgment an amount to pay any attorney's fees and costs incurred by the school district plus 10 percent of the settlement or judgment.

SEC. 7. (a) The annual reduction in apportionment to the Colfax Elementary School District made in accordance with subdivision (b) of Section 3 and paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) of Section 4, if applicable, of this act shall be deemed to be an allocation to a school district for purposes of subdivision (b) of Section 8 of Article XVI of the California Constitution and for purposes of Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 41200) of Part 24 of the Education Code.

(b) For purposes of subdivision (b) of Section 42238 of the Education Code, the base revenue limit for the school district for the 1995-96 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter through the 2013-14 fiscal year shall be determined as if the base revenue limit for the school district had been determined for the prior fiscal year without being reduced pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 3 and paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) of Section 4, if applicable, of this act.

(c) This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 2014, and, as of January 1, 2015, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 2015, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 8. Due to the unique circumstances relating to the Colfax Elementary School District, the Legislature finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution.

SEC. 9. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the programs specified in this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 10. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

The Colfax Elementary School District has unfunded school construction costs in excess of 175 percent of the annual operating budget of the school district and will become fiscally insolvent unless this act takes effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1112

An act to amend Section 25200.8 of the Health and Safety Code, and to amend the heading of Division 34 (commencing with Section 71000) of, to add the heading of Part 1 (commencing with Section 71000) to Division 34 of, and to add Part 2 (commencing with Section 71050) to Division 34 of, the Public Resources Code, relating to environmental protection.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25200.8 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25200.8. Any applicant for a final hazardous waste facilities permit pursuant to Section 25200 who receives a notice of deficiency from the department concerning the permit application shall submit the information specified in the notice of deficiency by the date specified in the notice of deficiency or by a later alternative date approved by the department. The department may initiate an enforcement action pursuant to Section 25187 against any hazardous waste facilities permit applicant who does not provide the information specified in the notice of deficiency by the date specified in the notice of deficiency or by a later alternative date approved by the department. If an applicant does not respond to three or more of these notices of deficiency regarding the same or different deficiencies or responds with substantially incomplete or substantially unsatisfactory information on three or more occasions, the department shall, pursuant to regulations adopted by the department, initiate proceedings to deny the permit application. This section does not limit the department's authority to take action concerning the permit application before sending three notices of deficiency.

SEC. 2. The heading of Division 34 (commencing with Section 71000) of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

DIVISION 34. ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION

SEC. 3. The heading of Part 1 (commencing with Section 71000) is added to Division 34 of the Public Resources Code, to read:

PART 1. PERMITS

SEC. 4. Part 2 (commencing with Section 71050) is added to Division 34 of the Public Resources Code, to read:

PART 2. ENVIRONMENTAL DATA REPORTING

CHAPTER 1. LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS AND DECLARATIONS

71050. The Legislature hereby finds and declares all of the following:

(a) Environmental data is currently required by, and submitted to, a variety of public agencies with jurisdiction at the state, regional, and local levels of government. The same information is often submitted by the regulated community to different public agencies, almost always on one or more paper forms. Since a different format is now required for each such report, data items are required to be reformatted one or more additional times at a cost of time and money that brings no accompanying environmental benefit.

(b) The blizzard of incoming paper reports often exceeds the capacity of a public agency to digest the information. In some cases, the public agency cannot look at or evaluate all of the data received on paper. That problem of data utility is aggravated further by the current wasteful and error-laden practice of retyping data from paper forms into the public agency's computer data base.

(c) In many cases, reported data originates in a computer data base maintained by the company submitting the report. The retyping of data by the public agency could be completely eliminated if business entities were permitted to submit the data in a single electronic format which every public agency could then use. That standard approach would permit both business entities and public agencies to save time and money that is now spent in reformatting, reentering, and reediting data. The data would also be available more quickly to any member of the public interested in using the data.

(d) Business entities already use common, standardized electronic data formats and protocols to exchange commercial and technical information on materials to be transported and used in manufacturing. That application of electronic data interchange is an important factor in determining the competitiveness of business entities in this state. The imposition by government of barriers to, or multiple incompatible data format requirements on, those existing electronic interchanges impairs the competitiveness of business entities without bringing any accompanying environmental benefit.

(e) It is the policy of the state, for environmental and hazardous materials reporting purposes, to employ nonproprietary electronic data formats and transmission protocols that already function effectively for ongoing commercial and industrial data exchanges between business entities and across different computer operating systems instead of expending public funds to develop public agency-specific formats and protocols.

CHAPTER 2. DEFINITIONS

71053. "Advisory committee" means the Environmental Data Management Advisory Committee established pursuant to Section 71064.

71054. "Agency" means the California Environmental Protection Agency.

71055. "Secretary" means the Secretary for Environmental Protection.

CHAPTER 3. DATA MANAGEMENT

71060. The secretary shall develop and adopt information technology standards by which public agencies and regulated business entities and the other members of the regulated community may use computers and other information technology to specify, request, report, collect, communicate, process, display, disseminate, or otherwise utilize data for environmental data reporting requirements that are imposed in the course of granting permits or other authorizations to operate issued pursuant to specified provisions of state and federal law and regulations.

71061. The secretary shall establish a standardized electronic format and protocol for the exchange of electronic data for the purpose of meeting environmental data reporting or other usage requirements that are imposed in the course of granting permits or other authorizations to operate pursuant to all of the following laws and regulations adopted pursuant to those laws:

(a) Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 25100), Chapter 6.7 (commencing with Section 25280), and Chapter 6.95 (commencing with Section 25500) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code.

(b) Article 1 (commencing with Section 42300) of Chapter 4 of Part 4 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code.

(c) Division 7 (commencing with Section 13000) of the Water Code.

(d) The Solid Waste Disposal Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 6901 et seq.).

(e) The Emergency Planning and Community Right-to-Know Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 11001 et seq.).

(f) Any other law relating to environmental protection, including, but not limited to, hazardous waste, substances, and materials, as determined by the secretary.

71062. The secretary shall identify the environmental data reporting or usage requirements imposed pursuant to the laws listed in Section 71061 and reflect those requirements in the elements of the standardized electronic format and protocol, develop a data dictionary that describes the characteristics of each format element and its relationship to each environmental data reporting or usage requirement, and develop evaluation criteria by which the successful use of the standardized electronic format and protocol may be measured.

71063. (a) The proposed standardized electronic format and protocol required by Section 71061 and the alternative signature techniques required by Section 71066 shall be tested in the Counties of Santa Clara and San Mateo as a pilot program, for a period determined by the secretary, and at the initiative of business entity report submitters who have organized to implement electronic data interchange among themselves for other business purposes and who wish to employ the same technology for exchanging environmental data. Any of the participating business entities located within those counties who are required to comply with the environmental data reporting requirements imposed pursuant to the laws listed in Section 71061, may comply by submitting the data in the prescribed standardized electronic format.

(b) The secretary shall meet the requirements of Section 71063 using resources contributed exclusively by business participants. The secretary may accept and use computer hardware, software, and support services furnished by the industry or business participants at their own cost in order for the agency to participate in the pilot program. No public funds shall be encumbered in order to conduct, or pay for, any part of the pilot program originally undertaken or provided by any business participant. The brands of products employed shall not be identified in public, nor shall their use be deemed an endorsement of any particular brand or proprietary approach to electronic data interchange.

71064. (a) There is in the agency the Environmental Data Management Advisory Committee. The advisory committee shall consist of not more than seven members appointed by the secretary. The secretary shall select members who represent business, government, and environmental groups, and who have proven expertise and current knowledge in the field of electronic data exchange.

(b) The advisory committee shall commence to function by March 1, 1995. The advisory committee shall advise the secretary on the quickest, most effective, and least expensive alternative systems of electronic standards for formatting data.

(c) On or before July 1, 1996, the advisory committee shall submit a report to the secretary which describes the pilot program conducted pursuant to Section 71063. This report shall include, but is not limited to, an analysis of the costs and benefits of the format, protocol, and signature techniques used in the pilot program, a discussion of the results obtained by using the evaluation criteria developed pursuant to Section 71062, and a discussion of the implications for statewide implementation of the program.

(d) The meetings of the advisory committee shall be open to the public and shall provide an opportunity for the public to be heard on matters considered by the advisory committee.

71065. To the fullest extent practicable to public agencies and business entities, the secretary, in close consultation with the advisory committee, shall ensure that the standardized electronic format and protocol established pursuant to Section 71061 meets all of the following criteria:

(a) The format and protocol conforms with, or is compatible with, data interchange formats and protocols already in use in the regulated community for moving data from computer to computer, so that the format and pilot program may be implemented promptly, without the need for research and development into untried formats and protocols.

(b) The format and protocol works independently of the type of computer hardware, software, operating system, data storage device, and telecommunications equipment employed by prospective senders and receivers.

(c) The format and protocol accommodates the addition of new or revised data element specifications without requiring users to make costly modifications to the hardware or software that they employ to submit electronic data.

71067. Public agencies shall continue their current data auditing practices, and shall work with data submitters to correct all kinds of data error encountered. The pilot program shall require that each participant maintain an audit trail as part of the evaluation criteria so that inspectors and other evaluators may ensure that the data submitted comport with the data received along the electronic link.

CHAPTER 1113

An act to add Section 1853.97 to the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1853.97 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

1853.97. Automobile liability insurance and automobile physical damage insurance may, at the option of the insurer, be considered a single line for rate filing purposes.

CHAPTER 1114

An act to amend Sections 7502.2 and 7510.2 of the Business and Professions Code, to amend Sections 22005, 22465.5, 24005, and 24465.5 of the Financial Code, and to amend Sections 26751 and 41612 of the Government Code, relating to reposseors.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7502.2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7502.2. (a) Any financial institution that knowingly engages a nonexempt unlicensed person to repossess personal property on its behalf is guilty of a misdemeanor, and is punishable by a fine of five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(b) A proceeding to impose the fine specified in subdivision (a) may be brought in any court of competent jurisdiction in the name of the people of the State of California by the Attorney General or by any district attorney or city attorney, or with the consent of the district attorney, by the city prosecutor in any city or city and county having a full-time city prosecutor, for the jurisdiction in which the violation occurred. If the action is brought by a district attorney, the penalty collected shall be paid to the treasurer of the county in which the judgment is entered. If the action is brought by a city attorney or city prosecutor, one-half of the penalty collected shall be paid to the treasurer of the city in which the judgment was entered and one-half to the treasurer of the county in which the judgment was entered. If the action is brought by the Attorney General, all of the penalty collected shall be deposited in the Private Investigator Fund.

SEC. 2. Section 7510.2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7510.2. (a) Any licensee, or any officer, partner, employee, or manager of a licensee, who is found by the director to have committed any acts prohibited by Section 7510.1, resulting in revocation of a license, shall dispose of any financial interest in any repossession agency required to be licensed by this act within 90 days of the effective date of the revocation, or at a later date, approved in writing by the director, not to exceed 180 days.

(b) No licensee, or any officer, partner, employee, or manager of a licensee, who is found by the director to have committed any acts prohibited by Section 7510.1, shall, during the period of suspension or revocation, acquire any financial interest in any repossession agency required to be licensed by this act.

(c) The requirements and prohibitions of this section shall also apply to any immediate family member of a licensee, or officer, partner, employee, or manager of a licensee, if the family member actively participated in the management or operation of the repossession agency whose license was revoked.

(d) Any immediate family member of a licensee, or officer, partner, employee, or manager of a licensee, not subject to subdivision (c), shall dispose of all financial interest in the repossession agency of the licensee whose license was revoked, within the time period required in subdivision (a).

(e) Any financial interest transferred for the purpose of avoiding the prohibitions of this section shall be deemed a financial interest of the transferor.

(f) As used in this section, "financial interest" includes, but is not limited to, any type of ownership interest, debt, loan, lease, compensation, remuneration, discount, rebate, refund, dividend, distribution, subsidy, or other form of direct or indirect payment, whether in money or otherwise.

(g) As used in this section, "immediate family" includes one's spouse, children, parents, siblings, and spouses of one's children or siblings.

SEC. 3. Section 22005 of the Financial Code is amended to read: 22005. "Charges" do not include any of the following:

(a) Commissions received as a licensed insurance agent or broker in connection with insurance written as provided in Section 22458.

(b) Amounts not in excess of the amounts specified in subdivision (c) of Section 3068 of the Civil Code paid to holders of possessory liens, imposed pursuant to Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 3067) of Title 14 of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, to release motor vehicles which secure loans subject to this division.

(c) Court costs, excluding attorney's fees, incurred in a suit and recovered against a debtor who defaults on his or her loan.

(d) Fees paid to a licensee for the privilege of participating in an open-end credit program, which fees are to cover administrative costs and are imposed upon executing the open-end loan agreement and on annual renewal dates or anniversary dates thereafter.

(e) Amounts received by a licensee from a seller, from whom the borrower obtains money, goods, labor, or services on credit, in connection with a transaction under an open-end credit program which are paid or deducted from the loan proceeds paid to the seller at the direction of the borrower and which are an obligation of the seller to the licensee for the privilege of allowing the seller to participate in the licensee's open-end credit program. Amounts received by a licensee from a seller pursuant to this subdivision may not exceed 6 percent of the loan proceeds paid to the seller at the direction of the borrower.

(f) Actual fees not exceeding three hundred dollars ($300) paid in connection with the repossession of a motor vehicle to repossession agencies licensed pursuant to Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 7500) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code provided the licensee complies with Sections 22465 and 22465.5, and actual fees paid to a licensee in conformity with Sections 26751 and 41612 of the Government Code in an amount not exceeding the amount specified in those sections of the Government Code.

(g) Moneys paid to, and commissions and benefits received by, a licensee for the sale of goods, services, or insurance, whether or not the sale is in connection with a loan, that the buyer by a separately signed authorization acknowledges is optional, if sale of the goods, services, or insurance has been authorized pursuant to Section 22404.

SEC. 4. Section 22465.5 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

22465.5. (a) This section applies to a loan secured in whole or in part by a lien on a motor vehicle as defined by subdivision (k) of Section 2981 of the Civil Code.

(b) In the absence of default in the performance of any of the borrower's obligations under the loan, the licensee may not accelerate the maturity of any part or all of the amount due thereunder or repossess the motor vehicle.

(c) If, after default by the borrower, the licensee repossesses or voluntarily accepts surrender of the motor vehicle, any person liable on the loan shall have a right to reinstate the loan and the licensee shall not accelerate the maturity of any part or all of the loan prior to the expiration of the right to reinstate, unless the licensee reasonably and in good faith determines that:

(1) The borrower or any other person liable on the loan by omission or commission intentionally provided false or misleading information of material importance on his or her credit application.

(2) The borrower or any other person liable on the loan in order to avoid repossession has concealed the motor vehicle or removed it from the state.

(3) The borrower or any other person liable on the loan has committed or threatens to commit acts of destruction, or has failed to take care of the motor vehicle in a reasonable manner, so that the motor vehicle has or may become substantially impaired in value.

(d) Exercise of the right to reinstate the loan shall be limited to once in any 12-month period and twice during the term of the loan.

(e) The provisions of this subdivision shall govern the method by which a loan shall be reinstated with respect to curing events of default which were a ground for repossession or occurred subsequent to repossession.

(1) Where the default is the result of the borrower's failure to make any payment due under the loan, the borrower or any other person liable on the loan shall make the defaulted payments and pay any applicable delinquency charges.

(2) Where the default is the result of the borrower's failure to keep and maintain the motor vehicle free from all encumbrances and liens of every kind, the borrower or any other person liable on the loan shall either satisfy all the encumbrances and liens or, in the event the licensee satisfies the encumbrances and liens, the borrower or any other person liable on the loan shall reimburse the licensee for all reasonable costs and expenses incurred therefor.

(3) Where the default is the result of the borrower's failure to keep and maintain insurance on the motor vehicle, the borrower or any other person liable on the loan shall either obtain the insurance or, in the event the licensee has obtained the insurance, the borrower or any other person liable on the loan shall reimburse the licensee for premiums paid and all reasonable costs and expenses incurred therefor.

(4) Where the default is the result of the borrower's failure to perform any other obligation under the loan, unless the licensee has made a good faith determination that the default is so substantial as to be incurable, the borrower or any other person liable on the loan shall reimburse the licensee for all reasonable costs and expenses incurred therefor.

(5) Additionally, the borrower or any other person liable on the loan shall reimburse the licensee for actual fees in an amount not exceeding the amount specified in subdivision (f) of Section 22005 paid in connection with the repossession of a motor vehicle to a repossession agency licensed pursuant to Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 7500) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, and actual fees in conformity with Sections 26751 and 41612 of the Government Code in an amount not exceeding the amount specified in those sections of the Government Code.

(f) If the licensee denies the right to reinstatement under subdivision (c) or paragraph (4) of subdivision (e), the licensee shall have the burden of proof that the denial was justified in that it was reasonable and made in good faith. If the licensee fails to sustain the burden of proof, the licensee shall not be entitled to a deficiency.

SEC. 5. Section 24005 of the Financial Code is amended to read: 24005. "Charges" do not include any of the following:

(a) Commissions received as a licensed insurance agent or broker in connection with insurance written as provided in Section 24458.

(b) Amounts not in excess of the amounts specified in subdivision (c) of Section 3068 of the Civil Code paid to holders of possessory liens, imposed pursuant to Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 3067) of Title 14 of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, to release motor vehicles which secure loans subject to this division.

(c) Court costs, excluding attorney's fees, incurred in a suit and recovered against a debtor who defaults on his or her loan.

(d) Fees paid to a licensee for the privilege of participating in an open-end credit program, which fees are to cover administrative costs and are imposed upon executing the open-end loan agreement and on annual renewal dates or anniversary dates thereafter.

(e) Amounts received by a licensee from a seller, from whom the borrower obtains money, goods, labor, or services on credit, in connection with a transaction under an open-end credit program which are paid or deducted from the loan proceeds paid to the seller at the direction of the borrower and which are an obligation of the seller to the licensee for the privilege of allowing the seller to participate in the licensee's open-end credit program. Amounts received by a licensee from a seller pursuant to this subdivision may not exceed 6 percent of the loan proceeds paid to the seller at the direction of the borrower.

(f) Actual fees not exceeding three hundred dollars ($300) paid in connection with the repossession of a motor vehicle to repossession agencies licensed pursuant to Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 7500) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code provided the licensee complies with Sections 24465 and 24465.5, and actual fees paid to a licensee in conformity with Sections 26751 and 41612 of the Government Code in an amount not exceeding the amount specified in those sections of the Government Code.

(g) Moneys paid to, and commissions and benefits received by, a licensee for the sale of goods, services, or insurance, whether or not the sale is in connection with a loan, that the buyer by a separately signed authorization acknowledges is optional, if sale of the goods, services, or insurance has been authorized pursuant to Section 24404.

SEC. 6. Section 24465.5 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

24465.5. (a) This section applies to a loan secured in whole or in part by a lien on a motor vehicle as defined by subdivision (k) of Section 2981 of the Civil Code.

(b) In the absence of default in the performance of any of the borrower's obligations under the loan, the licensee may not accelerate the maturity of any part or all of the amount due thereunder or repossess the motor vehicle.

(c) If, after default by the borrower, the licensee repossesses or voluntarily accepts surrender of the motor vehicle, any person liable on the loan shall have a right to reinstate the loan and the licensee shall not accelerate the maturity of any part or all of the loan prior to the expiration of the right to reinstate, unless the licensee reasonably and in good faith determines that:

(1) The borrower or any other person liable on the loan by omission or commission intentionally provided false or misleading information of material importance on his or her credit application.

(2) The borrower or any other person liable on the loan in order to avoid repossession has concealed the motor vehicle or removed it from the state.

(3) The borrower or any other person liable on the loan has committed or threatens to commit acts of destruction, or has failed to take care of the motor vehicle in a reasonable manner, so that the motor vehicle has or may become substantially impaired in value.

(d) Exercise of the right to reinstate the loan shall be limited to once in any 12-month period and twice during the term of the loan.

(e) The provisions of this subdivision shall govern the method by which a loan shall be reinstated with respect to curing events of default which were a ground for repossession or occurred subsequent to repossession.

(1) Where the default is the result of the borrower's failure to make any payment due under the loan, the borrower or any other person liable on the loan shall make the defaulted payments and pay any applicable delinquency charges.

(2) Where the default is the result of the borrower's failure to keep and maintain the motor vehicle free from all encumbrances and liens of every kind, the borrower or any other person liable on the loan shall either satisfy all the encumbrances and liens or, in the event the licensee satisfies the encumbrances and liens, the borrower or any other person liable on the loan shall reimburse the licensee for all reasonable costs and expenses incurred therefor.

(3) Where the default is the result of the borrower's failure to keep and maintain insurance on the motor vehicle, the borrower or any other person liable on the loan shall either obtain the insurance or, in the event the licensee has obtained the insurance, the borrower or any other person liable on the loan shall reimburse the licensee for premiums paid and all reasonable costs and expenses incurred therefor.

(4) Where the default is the result of the borrower's failure to perform any other obligation under the loan, unless the licensee has made a good faith determination that the default is so substantial as to be incurable, the borrower or any other person liable on the loan shall reimburse the licensee for all reasonable costs and expenses incurred therefor.

(5) Additionally, the borrower or any other person liable on the loan shall reimburse the licensee for actual fees in an amount not exceeding the amount specified in subdivision (f) of Section 24005 paid in connection with the repossession of a motor vehicle to a repossession agency licensed pursuant to Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 7500) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, and actual fees in conformity with Sections 26751 and 41612 of the Government Code in an amount not exceeding the amount specified in those sections of the Government Code.

(f) If the licensee denies the right to reinstatement under subdivision (c) or paragraph (4) of subdivision (e), the licensee shall have the burden of proof that the denial was justified in that it was reasonable and made in good faith. If the licensee fails to sustain the burden of proof, the licensee shall not be entitled to a deficiency.

SEC. 7. Section 26751 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26751. After possession is taken of any vehicle by or on behalf of any legal owner thereof under the terms of a security agreement or lease agreement, the debtor shall pay the sheriff a fee of fifteen dollars ($15) for the receipt and filing of the report of repossession pursuant to Section 28 of the Vehicle Code before the vehicle may be redeemed by the debtor. Except as provided herein, any person in possession of the vehicle shall not release it to the debtor without first obtaining proof of payment of the fee to the sheriff. At the request of the debtor, a person in possession of the vehicle, or the legal owner, may also release the vehicle to the debtor provided the debtor pays the fifteen dollar ($15) fee, plus an administrative fee not to exceed five dollars ($5), to the person in possession or the legal owner, who shall transmit the fifteen dollar ($15) fee to the sheriff within three business days. The failure to transmit the fee within three business days shall subject the person in possession or legal owner receiving the fee from the debtor to a fine of fifty dollars ($50). The proof of payment, or a copy thereof, shall be retained by the party releasing possession to the debtor for the period required by law, and the party releasing possession shall provide a copy of the proof of payment to the debtor upon request of the debtor.

SEC. 8. Section 41612 of the Government Code is amended to read:

41612. After possession is taken of any vehicle by or on behalf of any legal owner thereof under the terms of a security agreement or lease agreement, the debtor shall pay the chief of police or a parking authority operated by a city and county a fee of fifteen dollars ($15) for the receipt and filing of the report of repossession pursuant to Section 28 of the Vehicle Code before the vehicle may be redeemed by the debtor. Except as provided herein, any person in possession of the vehicle shall not release it to the debtor without first obtaining proof of payment of the fee to the chief of police or parking authority. At the request of the debtor, a person in possession of the vehicle, or the legal owner, may also release the vehicle to the debtor provided the debtor pays the fifteen dollar ($15) fee, plus an administrative fee not to exceed five dollars ($5), to the person in possession or the legal owner who shall transmit the fifteen dollar ($15) fee to the chief of police or parking authority within three business days. Failure to transmit the fee within three business days shall subject the person in possession or the legal owner receiving the fee from the debtor to a fine of fifty dollars ($50). The proof of payment, or a copy thereof, shall be retained by the party releasing possession to the debtor for the period required by law, and the party releasing possession shall provide a copy of the proof of payment to the debtor upon request of the debtor.

SEC. 9. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to repeal Division 10 (commencing with Section 24000) and Division 11 (commencing with Section 26000) of, and to repeal and add Division 9 (commencing with Section 22000) of, the Financial Code, relating to financial institutions.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Division 9 (commencing with Section 22000) of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Division 9 (commencing with Section 22000) is added to the Financial Code, to read:

DIVISION 9. CALIFORNIA FINANCE LENDERS LAW

CHAPTER 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1. Definitions

22000. This division is known and may be cited as the "California Finance Lenders Law."

22001. This division shall be liberally construed and applied to promote its underlying purposes and policies, which are:

(a) To ensure an adequate supply of credit to borrowers in this state.

(b) To simplify, clarify, and modernize the law governing loans made by finance lenders.

(c) To foster competition among finance lenders.

(d) To protect borrowers against unfair practices by some lenders, having due regard for the interests of legitimate and scrupulous lenders.

(e) To permit and encourage the development of fair and economically sound lending practices.

(f) To encourage and foster a sound economic climate in this state.

22002. To accomplish its underlying purposes and policies, this division creates a class of exempt persons pursuant to Section 1 of Article XV of the California Constitution.

It is the intent of the Legislature to preserve existing exemptions under Section 1 of Article XV of the Constitution and statutory law for (a) personal property brokers formerly regulated by the Personal Property Brokers Law; (b) lenders formerly regulated by the Consumer Finance Lenders Law; and (c) lenders formerly regulated by the Commercial Finance Lenders Law; and no finding that any provision of this division is invalid with respect to a particular lender or class of lenders shall affect the enforceability of this division with respect to any of the foregoing classifications of lenders, which shall in all events continue to be exempted by this division.

22003. Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions given in this article govern the construction of this division.

22004. "Broker" includes any person who is engaged in the business of negotiating or performing any act as broker in connection with loans made by a finance lender.

22005. "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of Corporations.

22006. As used in this division, the terms "security interest," "accounts," "chattel paper," "documents," "general intangibles," "goods," and "instruments" are as defined in the Uniform Commercial Code.

22007. "Licensee" means any finance lender or broker who receives a license in accordance with this division.

22009. "Finance lender" includes any person who is engaged in the business of making consumer loans or making commercial loans. The business of making consumer loans or commercial loans may include lending money and taking, in the name of the lender, or in any other name, in whole or in part, as security for a loan, any contract or obligation involving the forfeiture of rights in or to personal property, the use and possession of which property is retained by other than the mortgagee or lender, or any lien on, assignment of, or power of attorney relative to wages, salary, earnings, income, or commission.

It is the intent of the Legislature that the definition of finance lender shall be interpreted to include a personal property broker as referenced in Section 1 of Article XV of the California Constitution.

22010. "Finance lender" and "broker" do not include employees regularly employed at the location specified in the license of the finance lender or broker, except that an employee, when acting within the scope of his or her employment, shall be exempt from any other law from which his or her employer is exempt.

22011. A "regulatory ceiling provision" is a statement in a section or subdivision that specifies an original bona fide principal loan amount at or above which that section or subdivision does not apply to a loan.

Article 2. Exemptions

22050. (a) This division does not apply to any person doing business under any law of this state or of the United States relating to banks, trust companies, savings and loan associations, industrial loan companies, credit unions, small business investment companies, California business and industrial development corporations, or licensed pawnbrokers.

(b) This division does not apply to a broker-dealer acting pursuant to a certificate, then in effect, issued pursuant to Section 25211 of the Corporations Code.

(c) This division does not apply to a college or university making a loan for the purpose of permitting a person to pursue a program or course of study leading to a degree or certificate.

22051. This division does not apply to the following:

(a) Any nonprofit cooperative association organized under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 54001) of Division 20 of the Food and Agricultural Code that loans or advances money in connection with any activity mentioned in that chapter.

(b) Any corporation, association, syndicate, joint stock company, or partnership engaged exclusively in the business of marketing agricultural, horticultural, viticultural, dairy, livestock, poultry, or bee products on a cooperative nonprofit basis that loans or advances money to its members or in connection with those businesses.

(c) Any corporation securing money or credit from any federal intermediate credit bank organized and existing pursuant to the provisions of an act of Congress entitled "Agricultural Credits Act of 1923" that loans or advances money or credit so secured.

(d) Any corporation created pursuant to the provisions of Part 5 (commencing with Section 14000) of Division 3 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code.

22052. This division does not apply to any loan of credit made by a person not licensed under this division pursuant to a plan having all of the following characteristics:

(a) Credit cards issued pursuant to a written application and to the plan whereby the organization issuing the cards can acquire those obligations that its members in good standing incur with those persons with whom the organization has entered into written agreements setting forth the plan, and where the obligations are incurred pursuant to those agreements; or whereby the organization issuing the cards can extend credit to its members.

(b) The fee for the credit cards is designed to cover the administrative costs of the plan and is imposed upon the issuance of the card and on annual renewal dates thereafter.

(c) Any charges, discounts, or fees resulting from the acquisition of the charges is paid to the organization issuing the credit cards by the persons, corporations, or associations with whom the organization has entered into written agreements.

22053. In any proceeding under this law, the burden of proving an exemption is upon the person claiming it.

22054. This division does not apply to bona fide conditional contracts of sale involving the disposition of personal property when these forms of sales agreements are not used for the purpose of evading this division.

22055. This division does not apply to premium financing as defined in Section 18563.

22056. This division does not apply to the Department of Commerce.

22057. This division does not apply to any loan that is made or arranged by any person licensed as a real estate broker by the state and secured by a lien on real property, or to any licensed real estate broker when making such a loan. A licensed real estate broker may make a loan secured by a lien on real property for sale to a finance lender or arrange for a loan secured by a lien on real property to be made by a finance lender without obtaining a license under this division.

22058. This division does not apply to any cemetery broker licensed under the Cemetery Act (Chapter 19 (commencing with Section 9600) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code).

22059. A license to act as a broker under this division does not authorize the licensee to negotiate or perform any act as a broker in connection with loans made or to be made by a lender not licensed as a finance lender under this division.

Article 3. Licensing

22100. No person shall engage in the business of a finance lender or broker without obtaining a license from the commissioner.

22101. An application for a license under this division shall be in the form and contain the information that the commissioner may by rule require and shall be filed upon payment of the fee specified in Section 22103. A license issued pursuant to an application filed under this section shall be designated a master license.

22102. (a) A person licensed pursuant to an application filed under Section 22101 may conduct business under this division, either directly or through one or more subsidiary corporations, at the locations that are authorized by the commissioner pursuant to this section. An application to establish a location pursuant to this section shall be in the form and contain the information that the commissioner may by rule require, and shall be filed upon payment of the fee specified in Section 22103. A license issued pursuant to an application filed under this section shall be designated a subsidiary license.

(b) On approval of an application filed pursuant to this section, the commissioner shall issue an original license endorsed to authorize the conduct of business at the location specified in the application.

(c) For the purpose of this section, "subsidiary corporation" means a corporation that is wholly owned by a licensee.

(d) This section does not apply to changes in the address or location of a location previously authorized or licensed under this section.

22103. At the time of filing the application, the applicant shall pay to the commissioner the sum of one hundred dollars ($100) as a fee for investigating the application and two hundred dollars ($200) as an application fee. The investigation fee and application fee are not refundable if an application is denied or withdrawn.

22105. Upon the filing of an application pursuant to Section 22101 or 22102 and the payment of the fees, the commissioner shall investigate the applicant, and its general partners and persons owning or controlling, directly or indirectly, 10 percent or more of the outstanding interests if the applicant is a partnership, and its officers, directors, and persons owning or controlling, directly or indirectly, 10 percent or more of the outstanding equity securities if the applicant is a corporation, trust, or association, including an unincorporated organization. If the commissioner determines that the applicant has satisfied this division and does not find facts constituting reasons for denial as specified in Section 22109, the commissioner shall issue and deliver a license to the applicant to engage in business in accordance with this division.

22106. (a) The license shall state the name of the licensee, and if the licensee is a partnership, the names of its general partners, and if a corporation or an association, the date and place of its incorporation or organization, and the address of the licensee's principal business location. On the approval and licensing of a location pursuant to Section 22102, the commissioner shall issue an original license endorsed to show the address of the authorized location and, if applicable, the name of the subsidiary corporation licensed to operate the location. The license shall state whether the licensee is licensed as a finance lender or a broker.

(b) A license for a business location outside this state may be issued if the licensee agrees in writing in the license application to do, at the option of the applicant, one of the following:

(1) Make the licensee's books, accounts, papers, records, and files available to the commissioner or the commissioner's representatives in this state.

(2) Pay the reasonable expenses for travel, meals, and lodging of the commissioner or the commissioner's representatives incurred during any investigation or examination made at the licensee's location outside this state.

A licensee located outside this state is not required to maintain books and records regarding licensed loans separate from those for other loans if the licensed loans can be readily identified.

22107. (a) Each licensee shall pay to the commissioner its pro rata share of all costs and expenses reasonably incurred in the administration of this division, as estimated by the commissioner, for the ensuing year and any deficit actually incurred or anticipated in the administration of the program in the year in which the assessment is made. The pro rata share shall be the proportion that a licensee's gross income bears to the aggregate gross income of all licensees as shown by the annual financial reports to the commissioner, for the costs and expenses remaining after the amount assessed pursuant to subdivision (c).

(b) On or before the 30th day of May in each year, the commissioner shall notify each licensee by mail of the amount assessed and levied against it and that amount shall be paid within 20 days thereafter. If payment is not made within 20 days, the commissioner shall assess and collect a penalty, in addition to the assessment, of 1 percent of the assessment for each month or part of a month that the payment is delayed or withheld.

(c) In the levying and collection of the assessment, a licensee shall neither be assessed for nor be permitted to pay less than two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per licensed location per year.

(d) If a licensee fails to pay the assessment on or before the 30th day of June following the day upon which payment is due, the commissioner may by order summarily suspend or revoke the certificate issued to the licensee. If, after an order is made, a request for hearing is filed in writing within 30 days, and a hearing is not held within 60 days thereafter, the order is deemed rescinded as of its effective date. During any period when its certificate is revoked or suspended, a licensee shall not conduct business pursuant to this division except as may be permitted by order of the commissioner. However, the revocation, suspension, or surrender of a certificate shall not affect the powers of the commissioner as provided in this division.

22108. The commissioner may by regulation require licensees to file, at the times that he or she may specify, the information that he or she may reasonably require regarding any changes in the information provided in any application filed pursuant to this division.

22109. (a) Upon reasonable notice and opportunity to be heard, the commissioner may deny the application for any of the following reasons:

(1) A false statement of a material fact has been made in the application.

(2) Any officer, director, general partner, or person owning or controlling, directly or indirectly, 10 percent or more of the outstanding interests or equity securities of the applicant has, within the last 10 years (A) been convicted of or pleaded nolo contendere to a crime, or (B) committed any act involving dishonesty, fraud, or deceit, if the crime or act is substantially related to the qualifications, functions, or duties of a person engaged in business in accordance with this division.

(3) The applicant or any officer, director, general partner, or person owing or controlling, directly or indirectly, 10 percent or more of the outstanding interests or equity securities of the applicant has violated any provision of this division or the rules thereunder or any similar regulatory scheme of a foreign jurisdiction.

(b) The application shall be considered withdrawn within the meaning of this section if the applicant fails to respond to a written notification of a deficiency in the application within 90 days of the date of the notification.

(c) The commissioner shall, within 60 days from the filing of a full and complete application for a license with the fees, either issue a license or file a statement of issues prepared in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

22110. The proceedings for a denial of a license shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and the commissioner has all the powers granted therein.

22111. All money paid or collected under this division shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the State Corporations Fund. The administration of this division shall be supported out of the State Corporations Fund.

Article 4. Regulations

22150. The commissioner may make general rules and regulations and specific rulings, demands, and findings for the enforcement of this division, in addition to, and within the general purposes of, this division.

22151. (a) A license, along with any currently effective order of the commissioner approving a different name pursuant to Section 22155, shall be conspicuously posted in the place of business authorized by the license.

(b) A license is not transferable or assignable. A license issued to a partnership or a limited partnership is not transferred or assigned within the meaning of this section by the death, withdrawal, or admission of a partner, general partner, or limited partner, unless the death, withdrawal, or admission dissolves the partnership to which the license was issued.

22152. A licensee shall maintain only one place of business under a duplicate or original license issued pursuant to Section 22102. The commissioner may issue more than one license to the same licensee upon compliance with all the provisions of this division governing an original issuance of a license.

22153. (a) If a licensee desires to change its place of business to a street address other than that designated in its license, the licensee shall give written notice to the commissioner on a form provided by the commissioner at least 10 days prior to the change. The commissioner shall then provide a written approval of the change and the date of the approval.

(b) If notice is not given at least 10 days prior to the change, as required by subdivision (a), the commissioner may assess a civil penalty on the licensee not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500).

22154. No licensee shall conduct the business of making loans under this division within any office, room, or place of business in which any other business is solicited or engaged in, or in association or conjunction therewith, except as is authorized in writing by the commissioner upon the commissioner's finding that the character of the other business is such that the granting of the authority would not facilitate evasions of this division or of the rules and regulations made pursuant to this division. An authorization once granted remains in effect until revoked by the commissioner.

22155. No licensee shall transact the business licensed or make any loan provided for by this division under any other name or at any other place of business than that named in the license except pursuant to a currently effective written order of the commissioner authorizing the other name or other place of business. The commissioner's order, while effective, shall be deemed to amend the original license issued pursuant to Section 22106.

22156. Licensees shall keep and use in their business, books, accounts, and records which will enable the commissioner to determine if the licensee is complying with the provisions of this division and with the rules and regulations made by the commissioner. On any loan secured by real property in which loan proceeds were disbursed to an independent escrowholder, the licensee shall retain records and documents as set forth by rules of the commissioner adopted pursuant to Section 22150. Upon request of the commissioner, licensees shall file an authorization for disclosure to the commissioner of financial records of the licensed business pursuant to Section 7473 of the Government Code.

22159. (a) Each licensee shall file an annual report with the commissioner, on or before the 15th day of March, giving the relevant information that the commissioner reasonably requires concerning the business and operations conducted by the licensee within the state during the preceding calendar year for each licensed place of business. The individual annual reports filed pursuant to this section shall be made available to the public for inspection. The report shall be made under oath and in the form prescribed by the commissioner.

(b) A licensee shall make other special reports that may be required by the commissioner.

22160. The commissioner shall make and file annually with the Department of Corporations as a public record a composite of the annual reports and any comments on the reports that he or she deems to be in the public interest.

22161. No person shall advertise, print, display, publish, distribute, or broadcast, or cause or permit to be advertised, printed, displayed, published, distributed, or broadcast in any manner, any statement or representation with regard to the business subject to the provisions of this division, including the rates, terms, or conditions for making or negotiating loans, that is false, misleading, or deceptive, or that omits material information that is necessary to make the statements not false, misleading, or deceptive, or in the case of a licensee, that refers to the supervision of the business by the state or any department or official of the state.

22164. If any person engaged in the business regulated by this division refers in any advertising to rates of interest, charges, or cost of loans, the commissioner shall require that the rates, charges, or costs are stated fully and clearly in the manner that he or she deems necessary to give adequate information to prospective borrowers. If the rates or costs advertised do not apply to loans of all classes made or negotiated by the person, this fact shall be clearly indicated in the advertisement.

22165. No advertising copy shall be used after its use has been disapproved by the commissioner and the licensee is notified in writing of the disapproval.

22166. The commissioner may require licensees to maintain a file of all advertising copy for a period of 90 days from the date of its use. The file shall be available to the commissioner upon request.

22167. A licensed finance lender may act as a broker as defined in Section 22004 at its licensed place of business without obtaining an additional license as a broker under this division provided the licensee has notified the commissioner of the action in writing.

CHAPTER 2. CONSUMER LOANS

Article 1. Definitions

22200. "Charges" include the aggregate interest, fees, bonuses, commissions, brokerage, discounts, expenses, and other forms of costs charged, contracted for, or received by a licensee or any other person in connection with the investigating, arranging, negotiating, procuring, guaranteeing, making, servicing, collecting, and enforcing of a loan or forbearance of money, credit, goods, or things in action, or any other service rendered.

22201. "Charges" include any profit or advantage of any kind that a licensee may contract for, collect, receive, or obtain by a collateral sale, purchase, or agreement, in connection with negotiating, arranging, making, or otherwise in connection with any loan.

22202. "Charges" do not include any of the following:

(a) Commissions received as a licensed insurance agent or broker in connection with insurance written as provided in Section 22313.

(b) Amounts not in excess of the amounts specified in subdivision (c) of Section 3068 of the Civil Code paid to holders of possessory liens, imposed pursuant to Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 3067) of Title 14 of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, to release motor vehicles that secure loans subject to this division.

(c) Court costs, excluding attorney's fees, incurred in a suit and recovered against a debtor who defaults on his or her loan.

(d) Fees paid to a licensee for the privilege of participating in an open-end credit program, which fees are to cover administrative costs and are imposed upon executing the open-end loan agreement and on annual renewal dates or anniversary dates thereafter.

(e) Amounts received by a licensee from a seller, from whom the borrower obtains money, goods, labor, or services on credit, in connection with a transaction under an open-end credit program that are paid or deducted from the loan proceeds paid to the seller at the direction of the borrower and which are an obligation of the seller to the licensee for the privilege of allowing the seller to participate in the licensee's open-end credit program. Amounts received by a licensee from a seller pursuant to this subdivision may not exceed 6 percent of the loan proceeds paid to the seller at the direction of the borrower.

(f) Actual fees not exceeding three hundred dollars ($300) paid in connection with the repossession of a motor vehicle to repossession agencies licensed pursuant to Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 7500) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code provided that the licensee complies with Sections 22328 and 22329, and actual fees paid to a licensee in conformity with Sections 26751 and 41612 of the Government Code in an amount not exceeding the amount specified in those sections of the Government Code.

(g) Moneys paid to, and commissions and benefits received by, a licensee for the sale of goods, services, or insurance, whether or not the sale is in connection with a loan, that the buyer by a separately signed authorization acknowledges is optional, if sale of the goods, services, or insurance has been authorized pursuant to Section 22154.

22203. "Consumer loan" means a loan, whether secured by either real or personal property, or both, or unsecured, the proceeds of which are intended by the borrower for use primarily for personal, family, or household purposes. For purposes of determining whether a loan is a consumer loan, the lender may rely on any written statement of intended purposes signed by the borrower. The statement may be a separate statement signed by the borrower, or may be contained in a loan application or other document signed by the borrower. The lender shall not be required to ascertain that the proceeds of the loan are used in accordance with the statement of intended purposes. Nothing in this section shall authorize the taking of real property as security if the principal of the loan amount is less than five thousand dollars ($5,000).

22204. (a) In addition to the definition of consumer loan in Section 22203, a "consumer loan" also means a loan of a principal amount of less than five thousand dollars ($5,000), the proceeds of which are intended by the borrower for use primarily for other than personal, family, or household purposes.

For purposes of determining whether a loan is or is not a consumer loan, the lender may rely on any written statement of intended purposes signed by the borrower. The statement may be a separate statement signed by the borrower or may be contained in a loan application or other document signed by the borrower. The lender shall not be required to ascertain that the proceeds of the loan are used in accordance with the statement of intended purposes.

(b) A consumer loan under this section is a loan secured in the manner provided for in this division if it is secured, in whole or in part, by any lien on, security interest in, assignment of, or power of attorney relative to income arising from the operation of a business by the borrower, such as accounts, and chattel paper, including the right to payment for accounts or chattel paper sold by the borrower prior to or contemporaneously with the making of the loan.

22250. (a) The following sections do not apply to any loan of a bona fide principal amount of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or more, or to a duly licensed finance lender in connection with any such loan or loans, if the provisions of this section are not used for the purpose of evading this division: Sections 22154, 22155, 22307, 22313, 22314, 22315, and 22752, and the sections enumerated in subdivision (b).

(b) The following sections do not apply to any loan of a bona fide principal amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more, or to a duly licensed finance lender in connection with any such loan or loans, if the provisions of this section are not used for the purpose of evading this division: Sections 22201, 22202, 22300, and 22306, subdivision (a) of Section 22307, and Sections 22309, 22322, 22323, 22325, 22326, 22327, 22334, 22400, and 22751.

22251. Any section that refers to this section does not apply to any loan of the bona fide principal amount specified in the regulatory ceiling provision of that section or more if that provision is not used for the purpose of evading this division. In determining under Section 22250, 22303, or 22304 or any section that refers to this section whether a loan is a loan of a bona fide principal amount of the amount specified in that section or more and whether the regulatory ceiling provision of that section is used for the purpose of evading this division, the following principles apply:

(a) If a borrower applies for a loan in a principal amount of less than the specified amount and a loan to that borrower of a principal amount of the specified amount or more if made by a licensed finance lender, no adequate economic reason for the increase in the size of the loan exists, and by prearrangement or understanding between the borrower and the licensee a substantial payment is to be made upon the loan with the effect of reducing the principal amount of the loan to less than the specified amount within a short time after the making of the loan other than by reason of a requirement that the loan be paid in substantially equal periodical installments, then the loan shall not be deemed to be a loan of the bona fide principal amount of the specified amount or more and the regulatory ceiling provisions shall be deemed to be used for the purpose of evading this division unless the loan complies with the other provisions of the section that includes the regulatory ceiling provisions.

(b) If a loan made by a licensed finance lender is in a principal amount of the specified amount or more, the fact that the transaction is in the form of a sale of accounts, chattel paper, goods, or instruments or a lease of goods, or in the form of an advance on the purchase price of any of the foregoing, shall not be deemed to affect the loan or the bona fides of the amount thereof or to indicate that the regulatory ceiling provisions are used for the purpose of evading this division.

Article 3. Loan Regulations

22300. No licensee shall directly or indirectly charge, contract for, or receive any interest or charge of any nature unless a loan is made.

22301. (a) No licensee shall directly or indirectly charge, contract for, or receive any interest or charge of any nature with respect to a loan of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more unless the loan is made.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), whenever a loan of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more is not consummated because of the borrower's failure to disclose outstanding liens or other information essential to making the loan or solely because of the borrower's failure to complete the loan in accordance with the loan application, a licensee may charge, contract for, and receive an amount equal to the actual expenses incurred by the licensee in connection with the preparation for the loan.

22302. (a) Section 1670.5 of the Civil Code applies to the provisions of a loan contract that is subject to this division.

(b) A loan found to be unconscionable pursuant to Section 1670.5 of the Civil Code shall be deemed to be in violation of this division and subject to the remedies specified in this division.

22303. Every licensee who lends any sum of money may contract for and receive charges at a rate not exceeding the sum of the following:

(a) Two and one-half percent per month on that part of the unpaid principal balance of any loan up to, including, but not in excess of two hundred twenty-five dollars ($225).

(b) Two percent per month on that portion of the unpaid principal balance in excess of two hundred twenty-five dollars ($225) up to, including, but not in excess of nine hundred dollars ($900).

(c) One and one-half percent per month on that part of the unpaid principal balance in excess of nine hundred dollars ($900) up to, including, but not in excess of one thousand six hundred fifty dollars ($1,650).

(d) One percent per month on any remainder of such unpaid balance in excess of one thousand six hundred fifty dollars ($1,650).

This section does not apply to any loan of a bona fide principal amount of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) or more as determined in accordance with Section 22251.

22304. As an alternative to the charges authorized by Section 22303, a licensee may contract for and receive charges at the greater of the following:

(a) A rate not exceeding 1.6 percent per month on the unpaid principal balance.

(b) A rate not exceeding five-sixths of 1 percent per month plus a percentage per month equal to one-twelfth of the annual rate prevailing on the 25th day of the second month of the quarter preceding the quarter in which the loan is made, as established by the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco, on advances to member banks under Sections 13 and 13a of the Federal Reserve Act, as now in effect or hereafter from time to time amended, or if there is no such single determinable rate for advances, the closest counterpart of this rate as shall be determined by the Superintendent of Banks of the State of California. Charges shall be calculated on the unpaid principal balance.

This section does not apply to any loan of a bona fide principal amount of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) or more as determined in accordance with Section 22251.

22305. In addition to the charges authorized by Section 22303 or 22304, a licensee may contract for and receive an administrative fee, which shall be fully earned immediately upon making the loan, with respect to a loan of a principal amount of not more than two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) at a rate not in excess of 5 percent of the principal amount or fifty dollars ($50), whichever is less. No administrative fee may be contracted for or received in connection with the refinancing of a loan unless at least one year has elapsed since the receipt of a previous administrative fee paid by the borrower. Only one administrative fee may be contracted for or received until the loan has been repaid in full.

22306. No amount in excess of that allowed by this article shall be directly or indirectly charged, contracted for, or received by any person, and the total charges of the finance lender and broker and any other person in the aggregate shall not exceed the maximum rate provided for in this article.

(b) The loan contract shall provide for payment of the aggregate amount contracted to be paid in substantially equal periodical installments, the first of which shall be due not less than 15 days nor more than one month and 15 days from the date the loan is made. This subdivision shall not apply to a loan made to a graduate student at an accredited college or university while the student is actively pursuing a study program leading to a postbaccalaureate degree, or to a student loan made by an eligible lender under the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended (20 U.S.C. Sec. 1070 et seq.), or to a student loan made pursuant to the Public Health Service Act, as amended (42 U.S.C. Sec. 294 et seq.).

(c) This section shall not apply to open-end loans.

22309. Except as provided in Section 22305 and Article 4 (commencing with Section 22400), no charges on loans made pursuant to this division shall be paid, deducted, or received in advance, or compounded. However, if part or all of the consideration for a new loan contract is the unpaid balance of a prior loan, the principal amount payable under the new loan contract may include any unpaid interest that has accrued on the prior loan. The unpaid principal balance of a precomputed loan is the balance due after refund or credit of unearned interest as provided in Section 22400. At the time of making the loan, the licensee shall deliver to the borrower, or, at the direction of the borrower, deliver to another person, an amount equal to the face value of the loan and the note evidencing the loan.

22310. (a) Except for a rebate or refund pursuant to any administrative, civil, or criminal action, or any act of the commissioner, a rebate or refund required to be made upon payment in full of a loan pursuant to this division need not be made if the aggregate of all rebates or refunds required in connection with a loan is less than one dollar ($1).

22311. No person in connection with or incidental to the making of any loan regulated by this division may require the borrower to contract for purchase, or agree to purchase, any other thing in connection with the loan. A policy of insurance of the type specified in Section 22313 and credit life and disability insurance is not prohibited by this section. A policy of insurance of the type defined by subdivision (a) of Section 12640.02 of the Insurance Code shall not be deemed to be a collateral sale, purchase, or agreement within the terms of this section or of Section 22201 or 22312.

22312. No person in connection with or incidental to the making of a loan shall require the borrower to enter into any collateral sales agreements or contracts, other than the contract of pledge, assignment, or mortgage or personal property, or if otherwise permitted by this division, the deed of trust, mortgage, or lien on real property, by the borrower to the lender as security for the repayment of the loan and charges on the loan. Insurance of the type specified in Section 22313, credit life insurance, and credit disability insurance are not prohibited by this section.

22313. Insurance on tangible personal or real property offered as security shall not be deemed to be a collateral sale, purchase, or agreement within the terms of Section 22201, 22311, or 22312, when all the following requirements are met:

(a) The insurance is sold at standard rates through licensed insurance brokers or agents.

(b) The policy is written to cover the property that is offered as security for a loan.

(c) The property is reasonably insured against loss for a reasonable term, which may be up to the term of the loan.

(d) The policy relating to personal property is made payable to the borrower or any member of his or her family even though the customary mortgagee clause is attached or the mortgagee is a coassured.

(e) Except in the case of purchase money encumbrances, the amount of title insurance shall not exceed the principal amount of the loan that is secured by a deed of trust, mortgage, or lien on the real property that is the subject of the policy of title insurance.

(f) The policy of title insurance insures the lender or is made payable jointly to the lender and the borrower as their interests may

(g) Title insurance is placed through a title insurance company, duly authorized to do business in the state in which the real property is located, at rates comparable to rates being used by other title insurance companies duly authorized to do business in that state.

(h) Title insurance is placed in connection with the renewal or extension of a loan only when the additional cash advance is at least one thousand dollars ($1,000).

This section does not apply to any loan of a bona fide principal amount of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or more, or to a duly licensed finance lender in connection with any such loan or loans as determined in accordance with Section 22251.

22314. (a) Credit insurance shall not be deemed to be a collateral sale, purchase, or agreement within the terms of Section 22201, 22311, or 22312 when the insurance is provided in accordance with the provisions of the Insurance Code and this section. As used in this division:

(1) "Credit insurance" means credit life, disability, and loss-of-income insurance, or any combination of these coverages.

(2) "Credit life insurance" and "credit disability insurance" have the same meanings as defined in Section 779.2 of the Insurance Code.

(3) "Credit loss-of-income insurance" means insurance issued to provide indemnity for payments becoming due on a specific loan or other credit transaction while the debtor is involuntarily unemployed, as defined in the policy.

(b) A licensee may provide credit insurance with the borrower's consent, the form to be approved by the Insurance Commissioner, and a copy, together with evidence of its approval by the Insurance Commissioner, to be filed with the commissioner, and in an amount not in excess of the amount of the indebtedness, and, with respect to credit life or disability insurance, may collect from the borrower an amount not in excess of that permitted by subdivision (h).

(c) If the loan is prepaid in full by cash, a new loan, refinancing, or otherwise (except by that insurance) before the final installment date, the borrower shall receive a rebate of that amount computed in accordance with the formula approved by the Insurance Commissioner pursuant to Section 779.14 of the Insurance Code.

(d) When charges for the loan are precomputed in accordance with Section 22400, any permitted deferment charge may be computed on the combined total of the precomputed charge and the credit insurance charge. Only one deferment charge may be collected in connection with any loan contract, irrespective of the number of borrowers, and only one borrower need be insured. The amount of the deferment charge may be deducted from the principal of the loan.

(e) If life or disability insurance is provided, and if the insured borrower dies or becomes disabled during the term of the loan contract, the insurance shall be sufficient to pay the total amount due on the loan, excluding unearned charges, outstanding on the date of death, or all amounts that become due on the loan during the period of disability, as the case may be, without any exception, reservation, or limitation, subject, however, to the provisions of Section 22315.

(f) Any credit insurance provided shall be in force as soon as the loan is made. A licensee shall not require credit insurance as a condition of making a loan.

(g) If a borrower procures credit insurance by or through a licensee, the statement required by Section 22338 shall disclose the cost of the credit insurance to the borrower, and the licensee shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the borrower a copy of the policy, certificate, or other evidence thereof, within a reasonable time. In the event a licensee provides credit disability or loss-of-income insurance pursuant to this division, the licensee shall also deliver an understandable written statement to the borrower detailing the conditions under which the borrower will be entitled to make a claim under the insurance policy and the procedure to be followed in making the claim. This statement shall be first approved by the Insurance Commissioner.

(h) The amount charged to the borrower for credit life or disability insurance shall not exceed in the case of credit life insurance fifty cents ($0.50) per year per one hundred dollars ($100) of indebtedness (and in the same proportion for longer or shorter maturities and larger or smaller amounts) or the amount established by or pursuant to Section 779.36 of the Insurance Code, whichever is less, or, in the case of credit disability insurance, the amount established by or pursuant to Section 779.36 of the Insurance Code.

(i) Nothing in this article shall prevent a licensee from selling insurance as other business if authorized by Section 22154.

This section does not apply to any loan of a bona fide principal amount of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or more, or to a duly licensed finance lender in connection with any such loan or loans as determined in accordance with Section 22251.

22315. (a) Credit disability insurance written pursuant to Section 22314 shall not provide indemnity against the risk that the borrower will become disabled for a period of less than 14 days. The insurance may provide indemnity for any single period of continuous disability of 14 days or longer, after which the risk may become compensable. The insurance may be offered with retroactive coverage to an earlier date based upon the disability having continued for a period stated in the policy, but if insurance with retroactive coverage is offered, it shall also be offered without retroactive coverage, and the premium rate for each coverage shall be separately stated in writing to the borrower.

(b) If insurance with retroactive coverage is provided, the coverage shall provide for a prorated payment based upon the fraction of the month during which the insured is disabled, provided that the insured is continuously disabled during the waiting period set forth in the policy. If insurance without retroactive coverage is provided, the coverage shall provide for a prorated payment based upon the fraction of the month during which the insured is disabled, after first excluding the elimination period set forth in the policy. For the purpose of this subdivision, a month is any period of 30 consecutive days.

(c) Credit disability insurance, if made available by a licensee, shall be available on a monthly or annual premium basis, and the premium by the month shall not exceed a pro rata relationship to the annual premium. Credit disability insurance need not be offered for a period less than the term of the loan to which it is applicable, and no credit disability insurance shall be written for a period in excess of the term of the loan to which it is applicable.

(d) The monthly disability benefit payable with respect to an open-end loan shall not exceed the monthly payment computed pursuant to Section 22453 on the outstanding balance at the time disability is incurred.

This section does not apply to any loan of a bona fide principal amount of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or more, as determined in accordance with Section 22251.

22316. A licensee may collect the cost of a lot book report purchased in lieu of the title insurance provided for in Section 22313. The cost is not included in charges as defined in this division or in determining the maximum charges that may be made under this article.

22317. On any loan made that is secured by real property, an appraisal fee not to exceed the actual cost of the appraisal may be charged by the licensee if a written appraisal is provided to the licensee by a qualified appraiser. Only one fee for appraising the same real property may be collected unless the borrower has obtained a new or additional loan and more than one year has elapsed since the prior appraisal. The fee is not included in charges as defined in this division or in determining the maximum charges that may be made under this article.

22318. On any loan made that is secured by real property, an escrow fee of a reasonable amount may be charged. The fee shall be considered reasonable when paid to a company licensed to do business under the Escrow Law (Division 6 (commencing with Section 17000)), or any person exempted by the Escrow Law, provided that the fees are comparable to fees charged by escrow companies authorized to do business in this state. The fee is not included in charges defined in this division in determining the applicable maximum charges that may be made under this article.

22319. On any loan that is secured by real property, the fee to be paid to the trustee for reconveyance of the trust deed may be collected by the licensee for transmittal to the trustee. The fee is not included in charges defined in this division or in determining the applicable maximum charges that may be made under this article.

22320. With respect to a loan under this division, a fee not to exceed fifteen dollars ($15) for the return by a depository institution of a dishonored check, negotiable order of withdrawal, or share draft may be charged and collected by the licensee. The fee is not included in charges defined in this division or in determining the applicable maximum charges that may be made under this article.

22321. If credit loss-of-income insurance is provided pursuant to this division, it shall be subject to the following conditions:

(a) The insurance shall provide indemnity in accordance with the terms of the policy after any single period of continuous unemployment of 45 days or less as determined by the policy, after which benefits shall commence. The insurance may be offered with retroactive coverage to an earlier date based upon unemployment having continued for the period stated in the policy.

(b) The statement required by Section 22337 shall include disclosure of the term of the coverage, the conditions of coverage, the benefits to be paid, and the exclusions from coverage.

(c) The borrower shall sign a certificate of voluntary acceptance of any credit loss-of-income insurance purchased. The certificate shall state in boldface type that is larger than the type used in the loan contract that purchase of the insurance is not a necessary condition of receiving the loan, and that the insurance may be canceled by the borrower at any time within 15 days after it goes into effect. If the borrower cancels the insurance within 15 days, a full refund shall be made of the premium paid.

(d) The minimum benefit shall be payment up to the agreed amount on not less than four benefit payments, as stated in the policy, which accrue during a covered period of unemployment, except that during the first 60 days after inception of the policy, the minimum benefit may be payment up to the agreed amount of one-half the number of benefit payments, as stated in the policy, which accrue during a covered period of unemployment. The maximum benefits shall be established in the contract of insurance.

(e) If combination credit disability and credit loss-of-income coverage is offered, credit disability and credit loss-of-income coverage shall also be offered separately.

(f) Benefits may not be denied because the insured cannot establish a valid claim for unemployment compensation benefits under Part 1 (commencing with Section 100) of Division 1 of the Unemployment Insurance Code solely because the former employer was not required to contribute to the State Unemployment Fund.

(g) If insurance with retroactive coverage is provided, the coverage shall provide for a prorated payment based upon the fraction of the month during which the insured is unemployed, provided that the insured is continuously unemployed during the waiting period set forth in the policy. If insurance without retroactive coverage is provided, the coverage shall provide for a prorated payment based upon the fraction of the month during which the insured is unemployed, after first excluding the elimination period set forth in the policy. For the purpose of this subdivision, a month is any period of 30 consecutive days.

(h) When unemployment continues for a number of months equal to or greater than the maximum number of benefit payments stated in the policy, the final payment shall be equal to the difference between a benefit payment and the initial prorated payment.

(i) As used in this section, "benefit payment" means payment of an amount equal to a loan repayment installment or a maximum amount established in the contract of insurance, whichever is less.

(j) The minimum benefit payment offered may not be less than the amount of a loan repayment installment unless the borrower or borrowers have two or more sources of income. If the maximum benefit payment offered is less than the amount of a loan repayment installment, the borrower shall also be offered coverage in which the maximum benefit payment is equal to the amount of a loan repayment installment.

This section does not apply to any loan of a bona fide principal amount of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or more, or to a duly licensed finance lender in connection with any such loan or loans as determined in accordance with Section 22251.

22322. A loan lawfully made outside the state may be enforced in this state as to the unpaid principal balance of the loan together with the interest, consideration, brokerage, and all other charges, to the extent of but not to exceed the unpaid principal balance and the aggregate amount of interest, consideration, brokerage, and all other charges permitted by this division in connection with a loan of the same amount made within this state.

22323. Any person who collects or attempts to collect in this state the unpaid principal balance of a loan made outside the state and a greater aggregate amount of interest, consideration, brokerage, and all other charges in connection with the loan than is permitted by this division in connection with a loan of the same amount made within this state, is subject to the provisions of this division.

22324. Any person who contracts for or negotiates in this state a loan to be made outside the state for the purpose of evading or avoiding the provisions of this division is subject to the provisions of this division.

22325. Every licensee shall display prominently in each licensed place of business a full and accurate schedule of the charges to be made and the method of computing the charges. The schedule is subject to the approval of the commissioner.

22326. No person, except as authorized by this division, shall directly or indirectly charge, contract for, or receive any interest, discount, or consideration greater than the lender would be permitted by law to charge if he or she were not a licensee hereunder, upon the loan, use, or forbearance of money, goods, or things in action, or upon the loan, use, or sale of credit. This section applies to any person, who by any device, subterfuge, or pretense charges, contracts for, or receives greater interest, consideration, or charges than is authorized by this division for any loan, use, or forbearance of money, goods, or things in action or for any loan, use, or sale of credit.

22327. No licensee shall knowingly induce any borrower to split up or divide any loan with any other licensee. No licensee shall induce or permit any borrower to be or to become obligated directly or indirectly, or both, under more than one contract of loan at the same time with the same licensee for the purpose or with the result of obtaining a higher rate of charge than would otherwise be permitted by this article, except as otherwise required by the federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act (15 U.S.C. Sec. 1691 et seq.; P.L. 93-495) and Regulation B promulgated by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (12 C.F.R. 202 et seq.). For the purpose of this section, "borrower" includes any husband and wife, whether jointly or severally obligated.

22328. (a) This section applies to a loan secured in whole or in part by a lien on a motor vehicle as defined by subdivision (k) of Section 2981 of the Civil Code.

(b) Any provision in any loan contract to the contrary notwithstanding, at least 15 days' written notice of intent to dispose of a repossessed or surrendered motor vehicle must be given to all persons liable on the loan. The notice shall be personally served or shall be sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, or first-class mail, postage prepaid, directed to the last known address of the persons liable on the loan. Except as otherwise provided in Section 2983.8 of the Civil Code, those persons shall be liable for any deficiency after disposition of the repossessed or surrendered motor vehicle only if the notice prescribed by this section is given within 60 days of repossession or surrender and does all of the following:

(1) States that those persons shall have a right to redeem the motor vehicle by paying in full the indebtedness evidenced by the loan note until the expiration of 15 days from the date of giving or mailing the notice, provides an itemization of the loan balance and of any costs and fees authorized by this division, and states the computation or estimate of the amount of any credit for unearned finance charges or canceled insurance as of the date of the notice.

(2) States either that there is a conditional right to reinstate the loan until the expiration of 15 days from the date of giving or mailing the notice and all the conditions precedent thereto or that there is no right of reinstatement and provides a statement of reasons therefor.

(3) States that, upon written request, the licensee shall extend for an additional 10 days the redemption period or, if entitled to the conditional right of reinstatement, both the redemption and reinstatement periods. The licensee shall provide the proper form for applying for these extensions with the substance of the form being limited to the extension request, spaces for the requesting party to sign and date the form, and instructions that it must be personally served or sent by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, to a person or office and address designated by the licensee and received before the expiration of the initial redemption and reinstatement periods.

(4) Discloses the place at which the motor vehicle will be returned to the persons liable on the loan upon redemption or reinstatement.

(5) Designates the name and address of the person or office to whom payment shall be made.

(6) States the licensee's intent to dispose of the motor vehicle upon the expiration of 15 days from the date of giving or mailing the notice, or if by mail and either the place of deposit in the mail or the place of address is outside of this state, the period shall be 20 days instead of 15 days, and further, that upon written request to extend the redemption period and any applicable reinstatement period for 10 days, the licensee shall, without further notice, extend the period accordingly.

(7) Informs the persons liable on the loan that, upon written request, the licensee shall furnish a written accounting regarding the disposition of the motor vehicle as provided for in subdivision (c). The licensee shall advise them that the request must be personally served or sent by first-class mail, postage prepaid, or certified mail, return receipt requested, to a person or office and address designated by the licensee.

(8) Includes a notice, in at least 10-point bold type if the notice is printed, reading as follows:

“NOTICE: YOU MAY BE SUBJECT TO SUIT AND LIABILITY IF THE AMOUNT OBTAINED UPON DISPOSITION OF THE VEHICLE IS INSUFFICIENT TO PAY THE LOAN BALANCE AND ANY OTHER AMOUNTS DUE.”

(c) Unless automatically provided to the borrower within 45 days after the disposition of the motor vehicle, the licensee shall provide a written accounting regarding the disposition to any person liable on the loan within 45 days after their written request, if the request is made within one year after the disposition. The accounting shall itemize:

(1) The gross proceeds of the disposition.

(2) The reasonable and necessary costs and fees authorized by this division incurred in repossessing the motor vehicle.

(3) The satisfaction of indebtedness secured by any subordinate lien or encumbrance on the motor vehicle if written notification of demand therefor is received before distribution of the proceeds is completed. If requested by the licensee, the holder of a subordinate lien or encumbrance shall seasonably furnish reasonable proof of its interest, and unless it does so, the seller or holder need not comply with its demand.

(d) In all sales that result in a surplus, the licensee shall furnish an accounting as provided in subdivision (c) whether or not requested by the borrower. The surplus shall be returned to the borrower within 45 days after the sale is conducted.

22329. (a) This section applies to a loan secured in whole or in part by a lien on a motor vehicle as defined by subdivision (k) of Section 2981 of the Civil Code.

(b) In the absence of default in the performance of any of the borrower's obligations under the loan, the licensee may not accelerate the maturity of any part or all of the amount due thereunder or repossess the motor vehicle.

(c) If, after default by the borrower, the licensee repossesses or voluntarily accepts surrender of the motor vehicle, any person liable on the loan shall have a right to reinstate the loan and the licensee shall not accelerate the maturity of any part or all of the loan prior to the expiration of the right to reinstate, unless the licensee reasonably and in good faith determines that:

(1) The borrower or any other person liable on the loan by omission or commission intentionally provided false or misleading information of material importance on his or her credit application.

(2) The borrower or any other person liable on the loan has concealed the motor vehicle or removed it from the state in order to avoid repossession.

(3) The borrower or any other person liable on the loan has committed or threatens to commit acts of destruction, or has failed to take care of the motor vehicle in a reasonable manner, so that the motor vehicle has or may become substantially impaired in value.

(d) Exercise of the right to reinstate the loan shall be limited to once in any 12-month period and twice during the term of the loan.

(e) The provisions of this subdivision shall govern the method by which a loan shall be reinstated with respect to curing events of default that were grounds for repossession or that occurred subsequent to repossession.

(1) Where the default is the result of the borrower's failure to make any payment due under the loan, the borrower or any other person liable on the loan shall make the defaulted payments and pay any applicable delinquency charges.

(2) Where the default is the result of the borrower's failure to keep and maintain the motor vehicle free from all encumbrances and liens of every kind, the borrower or any person liable on the loan shall either satisfy all the encumbrances and liens or, in the event the licensee satisfies the encumbrances and liens, the borrower or any other person liable on the loan shall reimburse the licensee for all reasonable costs and expenses incurred therefor.

(3) Where the default is the result of the borrower's failure to keep and maintain insurance on the motor vehicle, the borrower or any other person liable on the loan shall either obtain the insurance or, in the event the licensee has obtained the insurance, the borrower or any other person liable on the loan shall reimburse the licensee for premiums paid and all reasonable costs and expenses incurred therefor.

(4) Where the default is the result of the borrower's failure to perform any other obligation under the loan, unless the licensee has made a good faith determination that the default is so substantial as to be incurable, the borrower or any other person liable on the loan shall reimburse the licensee for all reasonable costs and expenses incurred therefor.

(5) Additionally, the borrower or any other person liable on the loan shall reimburse the licensee for actual fees in an amount not exceeding the amount specified in subdivision (f) of Section 22202 paid in connection with the repossession of a motor vehicle to a repossession agency licensed pursuant to Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 7500) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, and actual fees in conformity with Sections 26751 and 41612 of the Government Code in an amount not exceeding the amount specified in those sections of the Government Code.

(f) If the licensee denies the right to reinstatement under subdivision (c) or paragraph (4) of subdivision (e), the licensee shall have the burden of proof that the denial was justified in that it was reasonable and made in good faith. If the licensee fails to sustain the burden of proof, the licensee shall not be entitled to a deficiency.

22330. No licensee shall take a deed of trust, mortgage, or lien upon real property as security for any loan of a principal amount of less than five thousand dollars ($5,000) made under this division, except any lien as is created by law upon the recording of an abstract of judgment.

22331. No licensee shall take any confession of judgment or any power of attorney, except a power of attorney taken to effectuate the transfer of the ownership of any motor vehicle or mobilehome at the time of making the loan.

22332. No licensee shall take any note or promise to pay that does not accurately disclose the actual amount of the loan, the time for which it is made, and the agreed rate of charge or the annual percentage rate pursuant to Regulation Z promulgated by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

22334. No licensee shall enter into any contract for a loan that provides for a scheduled repayment of principal over more than the maximum terms set forth below opposite the respective size of loans.

Principal amount of loan	Maximum term
Less than $500	24 months and 15 days
$500 but less than $1,500	36 months and 15 days
$1,500 but less than $3,000	48 months and 15 days
$3,000 but less than $5,000	60 months and 15 days

This section does not apply to open-end loans, or to a student loan made by an eligible lender under the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended (20 U.S.C. Sec. 1070 et seq.), or to a student loan made pursuant to the Public Health Service Act, as amended (42 U.S.C. Sec. 294 et seq.).

22335. The payment by any person in money, credit, goods, or things in action as consideration for any sale or assignment of, or order for, the payment of wages, salary, commissions, or other compensation for services, whether earned or to be earned, is, for the purposes of regulation under this division, a loan secured by the assignment. The amount by which the assigned compensation exceeds the amount of the consideration actually paid is interest and charges upon or for the loan, calculated from the date of payment to the date the compensation is payable.

This section shall not be construed as modifying or affecting existing statutes governing wage assignments in the state, or as authorizing those assignments.

22336. This article does not prohibit any licensee from contracting for, collecting, or receiving the following:

(a) The statutory fee paid by the licensee to any public officer for acknowledging, filing, recording, or releasing in any public office any instrument securing the loan or executed in connection with the loan.

(b) Premiums paid by the licensee of the kind and to the extent described in paragraph (2) of subsection (e) of Section 226.4 of Regulation Z promulgated by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (12 C.F.R. 226).

These amounts are not included in determining the maximum charges which may be made under this article.

22337. Each licensed finance lender shall:

(a) Deliver or cause to be delivered to the borrower, or any one thereof, at the time the loan is made, a statement showing in clear and distinct terms the name, address, and license number of the finance lender and the broker, if any. The statement shall show the date, amount, and maturity of the loan contract, how and when repayable, the nature of the security for the loan, if any, and the agreed rate of charge or the annual percentage rate pursuant to Regulation Z promulgated by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (12 C.F.R. 226).

(b) Obtain from the borrower a signed statement as to whether any person has performed any act as a broker in connection with the making of the loan. If the statement discloses that a broker or other person has participated, then the finance lender shall obtain a full statement of all sums paid or payable to the broker or other person. The finance lender shall keep these statements for a period of two years from and after the date the loan has been paid in full, or has matured according to its terms, or has been charged off.

(c) Permit payment to be made in advance in any amount on any contract of loan at any time. The licensee may apply the payment first to any agreed prepayment penalty, then to all charges due, including charges at the agreed rate or rates up to the date of payment, not to exceed the applicable maximum rate permitted by this article.

(d) Deliver or cause to be delivered to the person making any cash payment, or to the person who requests a receipt at the time of making any payment, at the time payment is made on account of any loan, a plain and complete receipt showing the total amount received and identifying the loan contract upon which the payment is applied.

(e) Upon repayment of any loan in full, release all security for the loan, endorse and return any certificate of ownership, and cancel or plainly mark "paid" and return to the borrower or person making final payment, any note, mortgage, security agreement, trust deed, assignment, or order signed by the borrower, except those documents that are a part of the court record in any action, or that have been delivered to a third person for the purpose of carrying out their terms, or a security agreement that secures any other indebtedness of a borrower to the licensee. When a trust deed on real property has been taken as security for a loan that has been subsequently paid in full, a duly executed request for reconveyance shall be delivered to the trustor or trustee for the purpose of recording a reconveyance. A termination statement, furnished to the borrower as provided for in Section 9404 of the Commercial Code, shall be deemed a release of the security when a financing statement has been filed pursuant to Section 9401 of the Commercial Code.

(f) Deliver or cause to be delivered to the potential borrower, or any one thereof, at the time the licensee first requires or accepts any signed instrument or the payment of any fee, a statement showing in clear and distinct terms the name, address, and license number of the finance lender and the broker, if any.

22338. Each licensed broker shall:

(a) Deliver to the borrower, or any one thereof, at the time the final negotiation or arrangement is made, a statement showing in clear and distinct terms the name, address, and license number of the broker and the finance lender. The statement shall show the date, amount, and terms of the agreement with the broker, and all amounts paid or to be paid to the broker and to any person other than the finance lender.

(b) Deliver to the finance lender making the loan a copy of the statement referred to and described in subdivision (a).

(c) Deliver to the person making any payment to the broker to be retained by the broker, a plain and complete receipt for each payment made, at the time it is made, showing the total amount received, and identifying the brokerage agreement and the loan contract upon which the payment is applied. If the payment is made by a person other than the finance lender, a copy of the receipt shall be delivered to the finance lender.

(d) When the borrower pays the loan in full, ensure that the finance lender fully complies with subdivision (e) of Section 22337.

(e) Deliver to the potential borrower or borrowers, at the time the licensee first requires or accepts any signed instrument or the payment of any fee, a statement showing in clear and distinct terms the name, address, and license number of the broker and finance lender.

22339. Nothing contained in this article shall be construed to deny to any licensee hereunder the right of taking and using a security agreement that, in addition to securing an original obligation, may secure the repayment of sums that may be advanced to, or expenditures that may be made at the direction of, the borrower subsequent to the execution of the security agreement and prior to the satisfaction thereof.

22340. (a) A licensee may sell promissory notes evidencing the obligation to repay loans made by the licensee pursuant to this division or evidencing the obligation to repay loans purchased from and made by another licensee pursuant to this division to institutional investors, and may make agreements with institutional investors for the collection of payments or the performance of services with respect to those notes.

(b) For the purpose of this section, "institutional investor" means the following:

(1) The United States or any state, district, territory, or commonwealth thereof, or any city, county, city and county, public district, public authority, public corporation, public entity, or political subdivision of a state, district, territory, or commonwealth of the United States, or any agency or other instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing.

(2) Any bank, trust company, savings bank or savings and loan association, credit union, industrial bank or industrial loan company, finance lender, or insurance company doing business under the authority of and in accordance with a license, certificate, or charter issued by the United States or any state, district, territory, or commonwealth of the United States.

(3) Trustees of pension, profit sharing, or welfare funds, if the pension, profit sharing, or welfare fund has a net worth of not less than fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000), except pension, profit sharing, or welfare funds of a licensee or its affiliate, self-employed individual retirement plans, or individual retirement accounts.

(4) Any corporation with outstanding securities registered under Section 12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or any wholly owned subsidiary of that corporation; provided, however, that the purchaser represents that it is purchasing for its own account for investment and not with a view to or for sale in connection with any distribution of the promissory note.

(5) Any syndication or other combination of any of the foregoing that is organized to purchase the promissory note.

(c) In the absence of agreement to the contrary by the licensee and the institutional investor, all payments received from the collection of payments shall be deposited and maintained in a trust account, and shall be disbursed from the trust account only in accordance with the instructions of the owner of the promissory note.

22341. (a) No licensee may make a loan to refinance a retail installment contract subject to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1801) of Title 2 of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, that is held by the licensee, its subsidiaries, or affiliates, unless all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The buyer has been making installment payments required by the retail installment contract for a period of not less than 90 days. The retail installment contract has a term of not less than 180 days and does not provide for any scheduled installment that is more than twice the amount of any other scheduled installment.

(2) The loan provides for additional proceeds other than for insurance in an amount not less than the outstanding principal balance of the retail installment contract and provides for payment in full of the retail installment contract.

(3) The licensee shall not take a security interest in real property that is the principal residence of the borrower unless the loan has a principal amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more and the following notice written in the same language, for example, Spanish, as used in the loan documents, is incorporated into the statement used to comply with Section 22338:

“WARNING TO BORROWER: IF YOU ACCEPT THIS LOAN YOU WILL BE PUTTING UP YOUR HOME AS SECURITY. THIS MEANS THAT YOUR HOME COULD BE SOLD WITHOUT YOUR PERMISSION AND WITHOUT ANY COURT ACTION IF YOU MISS ANY PAYMENT AS REQUIRED BY THIS LOAN.”

This notice shall be printed in not less than 14-point bold type, shall be set apart from the rest of the statement by a border, and shall appear directly above a signature block which shall be signed by the borrower. A security interest described in this paragraph that is taken without prior notice and the borrower’s signature, as required by this paragraph, shall be void and unenforceable.

(4) The licensee shall not sell, attempt to sell, or agree to sell any goods or services to the borrower, other than credit insurance as defined in Section 22314 and insurance required by the licensee to protect its security interest, until the loan has been in effect for at least 30 days. The amount of insurance required by the licensee to protect its security interest shall not exceed the lesser of the principal amount of the loan or the replacement value of the security as determined by the insurer.

(5) A licensee that is an assignee of the retail installment contract shall continue to be subject under the loan to all equities and defenses of the borrower against the seller arising out of the sale, notwithstanding an agreement to the contrary.

(6) The loan shall not provide for any scheduled installment that is more than twice the amount of any other scheduled installment. This paragraph does not apply to a loan of a bona fide principal amount of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or more.

(7) If a loan of a bona fide principal amount of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or more provides for any scheduled installment that is more than twice the amount of any other scheduled installment, the loan shall contain the following provision:

“The payment schedule contained in this loan requires that you make a balloon payment of $_____ (amount of balloon payment) which is a payment of more than double the amount of the regular payments. You have an absolute right to obtain a new payment schedule if you default in the payment of any balloon payment.”

If the borrower defaults in the payment of any balloon payment, the borrower shall be given an absolute right to obtain a new payment schedule. Unless agreed to by the borrower, the installment amounts under the new schedule shall not be substantially greater than the average of the preceding installments.

(b) A loan made pursuant to this section shall be subject to this division and not to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1801) of Title 2 of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code.

(c) An action by any licensee or borrower on a loan made pursuant to this section shall be tried in the county in which the loan was signed by the borrower, in the county in which the borrower resided at the time the loan was entered into, or in the county in which the borrower resides at the commencement of the action.

(d) Paragraphs (6) and (7) of subdivision (a) do not apply to open-end loans.

(e) A security interest provided by any retail installment contract in violation of subdivision (b) of Section 1804.3 of the Civil Code shall not serve as consideration in whole or in part for a loan made under this section, notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary.

Article 4. Charges On Scheduled Balances

22400. This article applies only to loan contracts payable in substantially equal and consecutive monthly installments of principal and charges combined, the first of which is due not less than 15 days nor more than one month and 15 days from the date the loan is made. In lieu of computing charges and applying payments as provided in Section 22307, a licensee may precompute charges and apply payments as follows:

(a) The total charges which would be earned if the contract were repaid exactly according to its terms, at the monthly rate stated in the contract, may be precomputed when the loan is made and added to the principal of the loan. For the purpose of computation, a month shall be that period of time from any date in one month to the corresponding date in the next month, and if there is no corresponding date, then to the last day of the next month. The principal amount of the loan shall be its face value as referred to in

Section 22309. Every payment may be applied to the combined total of principal and precomputed charges until the contract is fully paid. The acceptance of payment of charges on loans made under the provisions of this article shall not be deemed to constitute payment deduction or receipt thereof in advance nor compounding under Section 22309. Precomputed charges shall be subject to the following adjustments:

(1) The portion of the precomputed charge applicable to any particular monthly installment period shall bear the same ratio to the total precomputed charge, excluding any adjustment made for a first period of more than one month, as the balance scheduled to be outstanding during that monthly period bears to the sum of all monthly balances scheduled originally by the loan contract.

(2) If the loan contract is paid in full by cash, a new loan, refinancing, or otherwise, the borrower shall receive a rebate of that portion of the precomputed charge that is the difference between the total precomputed charge and the charges at the contract rate computed in accordance with the provisions of Section 22307 or 22308. The tender, by the borrower or at his or her request, of an amount equal to the unpaid balance, less the required rebate, must be accepted by the licensee in full payment of the contract.

(3) If three or more, but not all, installments are prepaid in full at any one time, all of the prior charges for the loan shall be recalculated and all subsequent charges for the remaining term of the loan shall be recalculated by applying each payment first to charges and the remainder to principal in accordance with the provisions of Section 22307 or 22308.

(4) If the payment date of all wholly unpaid installments on which no default charge has been collected is deferred one or more full months and the contract so provides, the licensee may charge and collect a deferment charge. The deferment charge shall not exceed the portion of the precomputed charge applicable prior to deferment, to the first deferred monthly installment period multiplied by the number of months the maturity of the contract is deferred. The number of months shall not exceed the number of full installments that are in default on the date of deferment or that may become due within 15 days of that date. When a deferment charge is made, no portion of the precomputed charge shall apply to the installment periods in which no installment payment is required by reason of the deferment. In computing any default charge or required rebate, the portion of the precomputed charge applicable to each deferred balance and installment period following the deferment period and prior to the deferred maturity shall remain the same as that applicable to the balances and periods under the original loan contract. The charge may be collected at the time of deferment or at any time thereafter. Any payment received at the time of deferment may be applied first to the deferment charge and the remainder, if any, applied to the unpaid balance of the contract. However, if the payment is sufficient to pay, in addition to the appropriate deferment charge, any installment that is in default and the applicable default charge, it shall be first so applied and any such installment shall not be deferred nor subject to the deferment charge.

(5) In the event of default of more than 10 days in the payment of one-half or more of any scheduled installment, the licensee may charge and collect a default charge not exceeding an amount equal to the portion of the precomputed charge applicable to the final installment period. The charge may not be collected more than once for the same default and may be collected at the time of the default or at any time thereafter. If the default charge is deducted from any payment received after default occurs, and the deduction results in the default of a subsequent installment, no charge may be made for the resulting default.

(6) A borrower and licensee may agree that the first installment due date may be not more than 15 days more than one month and the amount of the installment may be increased by one-thirtieth of the portion of the precomputed charge applicable to a first installment of one month for each extra day.

(b) The statement to be given to the borrower as provided in subdivision (a) of Section 22337 and the contract shall disclose in addition to other required information the principal amount of the loan exclusive of charges and the basis for computing the refund of precomputed charges in case of prepayment in full or acceleration of maturity and for computing default and deferment charges. The delivery of a receipt of each payment showing the total amount of each payment complies with subdivision (d) of Section 22337.

(c) If the maturity of the contract when the charges are precomputed is accelerated for any reason, the licensee shall make the same refund or credit as would be required if the contract was paid in full on the date of acceleration. The unpaid balance shall be treated as the unpaid principal balance, and thereafter the unpaid balance of the contract shall bear charges at the agreed rate of charge if the loan contract so provides.

22401. With respect to precomputed loans, licensees shall be subject only to, comply only with, and derive authority only from Sections 22400 and 22402, notwithstanding any other provision of law that is not within this division.

22402. When charges on a loan of an original bona fide principal amount of five thousand ($5,000) or more have been precomputed in a manner similar to that provided in Section 22400, and the loan is prepaid in full by cash, a new loan, refinancing, or otherwise, or the maturity of the loan contract is accelerated for any reason, the borrower shall receive a rebate or credit of that portion of the precomputed charge that is the difference between the total precomputed charge and the charges at the contract rate computed in accordance with the provisions of Section 22307 or 22308, or on the basis of 12 equal months of 30 days each, on the assumption that all payments were received by the licensee on their respective due dates. This section does not apply to charges paid by the borrower to the lender or others, such as charges computed as a percentage of the loan, that are fully earned upon making the loan, or to charges agreed to be paid by the borrower upon prepayment of a loan secured by a lien upon real property.

Article 5. Open-End Loan Programs

22450. As used in this division, "open-end credit program" means a licensee's plan for making open-end loans pursuant to a loan agreement that sets forth the terms and conditions governing the use of the open-end credit program, expressly states that the loan is made pursuant to this article, and provides that:

(a) The borrower may use the open-end credit program to obtain money, goods, labor, or services on credit. The licensee makes open-end loans to the borrower for the purpose of paying money to or at the direction of the borrower or paying obligations that the borrower creates through use of the open-end credit program.

(b) The amount of each advance and the charges and other permitted costs are debited to an account.

(c) The charges are computed from time to time on the unpaid balances of the borrower's account, excluding from the computation any unpaid charges other than permitted fees, costs, and expenses.

(d) The borrower has the privilege of paying the account in full at any time.

22451. If an open-end credit program is not primarily for the purpose of purchasing or leasing goods or services from the licensee, then all credit extended through use of the program, including transactions that involve the purchase or lease of goods or services from the licensee, shall be subject to this division.

22452. Subject to the written approval of the commissioner of the licensee's plan of business for making open-end loans as not being misleading or deceptive and subject to regulations the commissioner may adopt with respect to open-end loans under Section 22150, a licensee may make open-end loans pursuant to this article and may contract for and receive thereon charges as set forth in Sections 22303, 22304, and 22308. These charges may be calculated on an amount not exceeding the greater of:

(a) The actual daily unpaid balances of the open-end account in the billing cycle for which the charge is made, in which case one-thirtieth of the monthly rate may be charged for each day the unpaid balance is outstanding.

(b) The average daily unpaid balance of the open-end account in the billing cycle for which the charge is made, which is the sum of the amount unpaid each day during that cycle divided by the number of days in that cycle. The amount unpaid on a day is determined by adding to any balance unpaid as of the beginning of that day all advances and other debits and deducting all payments and other credits made or received as of that day. The billing cycle shall be monthly. A billing cycle is monthly if the closing date of the cycle is the same date each month or does not vary by more than four days from the regular date.

This section does not apply to any open-end loan of a bona fide principal amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more as determined in accordance with Section 22467.

22453. The minimum monthly payment shall be determined by either of the following:

(b) The amount calculated by multiplying the unpaid balance at the end of each billing cycle by a percent agreed upon by the borrower and the licensee, which shall be no less than 5 percent.

This section does not apply to any open-end loan of a bona fide principal amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more as determined in accordance with Section 22467.

22454. On open-end loans, the licensee may contract for and receive the fees, costs, and expenses permitted on other loans, including those permitted by subdivisions (a), (b), (c), and (d) of Section 22313 and subdivision (d) of Section 22314, except that the charge for credit insurance under Section 22314 shall be on a monthly basis and shall be actuarially consistent with the premium rate for the same coverage.

This section does not apply to any open-end loan of a bona fide principal amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more as determined in accordance with Section 22467.

22455. (a) In lieu of subdivisions (b), (c), (d), (e), and (f) of Section 22314, with respect to open-end loans, a licensee may provide credit insurance with the borrower's consent, in a form to be approved by the Insurance Commissioner, in an amount not in excess of the amount of the indebtedness. For credit life or disability insurance, the licensee may collect from the borrower an amount established pursuant to Section 779.36 of the Insurance Code.

(b) If life insurance is provided, and if the insured borrower dies during the term of the loan contract, the insurance shall be sufficient to pay the total amount due on the loan outstanding on the date of his or her death, without any exception, reservation, or limitation.

(c) If disability insurance is provided, and if the insured borrower becomes disabled during the term of the loan contract, the insurance shall be sufficient to pay all amounts attributable to the loan balance at the time of commencement of disability that subsequently become due on the loan thereafter during the period of disability, in accordance with subdivision (d) of Section 22315, without any exception, reservation, or limitation.

(d) If loss-of-income insurance is provided, and if the insured borrower becomes unemployed during the term of the loan contract, the insurance shall be sufficient to pay all amounts attributable to the loan balance at the time of commencement of unemployment in accordance with subdivision (d) of Section 22321 without any exception, reservation, or limitation.

(e) Any credit insurance that is provided shall be in force as soon as the loan is made or coverage is agreed upon, whichever is later. No credit insurance written in connection with an open-end loan shall be canceled by the lender because of delinquency of the borrower in the making of the minimum payments thereon unless one or more of the payments is past due for a period of 90 days or more, and the lender shall advance to the insurer the amounts required to keep the insurance in force during that period, which amounts may be debited to the borrower's account.

This section does not apply to any open-end loan of a bona fide principal amount of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or more as determined in accordance with Section 22467.

22456. Section 22309 shall apply to open-end loans with the following variations:

(a) To comply with Section 22309, in the case of open-end loan advances directly to the borrower, the licensee shall deliver to the borrower, at the time of each loan advance, an amount equal to the face value of the advance.

(b) To comply with Section 22309, in the case of an open-end loan advance in the form of a payment by the licensee to a person from whom a borrower obtained money, goods, labor, or services, the licensee shall deliver to that person the amounts necessary to fulfill the borrower's obligation to that person under the transaction.

This section does not apply to any open-end loan of a bona fide principal amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more as determined in accordance with Section 22467.

22457. In lieu of Section 22332, the open-end loan agreement shall contain the name, address, and license number of the finance lender and shall disclose the nature of the security taken, the method of determining the minimum payments that will be required to repay the initial advance and any subsequent advances on the loan, and the agreed rate of charge.

22458. In lieu of subdivision (a) of Section 22337, with respect to open-end loans, except in the case of an account that the licensee deems to be uncollectible, or for which delinquency collection procedures have been instituted, the licensee shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the borrower, or any one thereof, for each billing cycle at the end of which there is an outstanding balance in the account, or to which a finance charge is imposed, a statement setting forth the outstanding balance in the account at the beginning of the billing cycle, the date and amount of any subsequent loan advance during the period, the amounts and dates of crediting to the account during the billing cycle that payments are credited, the amount of any finance charge debited to the account during the billing cycle, the annual percentage rate of finance charge determined under Regulation Z promulgated by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (12 C.F.R. 226), the balance on which the finance charge was computed, the closing date of the billing cycle, the outstanding balance on that date, and the minimum monthly payment required in the absence of any additional advance. If there has been any change in the nature of the security for the loan since the next preceding advance, the statement shall contain or be accompanied by a statement of the nature of the security for the loan after that change.

22459. Subdivision (e) of Section 22337 shall not apply to an open-end loan that has no balance outstanding if the open-end loan agreement continues in effect.

22461. Subdivision (a) of Section 22151, Sections 22154 and 22325, and subdivision (b) of Section 22337 shall not apply to a licensee with respect to advances made through an open-end credit program.

22462. The payment of fees for participation in an open-end credit program, the acceptance by a borrower of the form of the licensee's program, and the borrower's agreement to the licensee's program shall not be deemed to be a collateral sale, purchase, or agreement within the terms of Section 22201, 22311, or 22312.

22463. Nothing in this article limits the authority of the commissioner to disapprove advertising with respect to open-end loans pursuant to Section 22165.

22464. This article does not apply to loans other than open-end loans.

This section does not apply to any open-end loan of a bona fide principal amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more as determined in accordance with Section 22467.

22465. Section 22400 does not apply to open-end loans.

22466. An open-end loan is in compliance with Section 22330 if it is an open-end loan of a bona fide principal amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more as determined in accordance with Section 22467.

22467. (a) Any section that refers to this section or that is subject to Section 22251 does not apply to any open-end loan of the bona fide principal amount specified in the regulatory ceiling provision of that section or more, or to a duly licensed finance lender in connection with any such loan if that provision is not used for the purpose of evading this division.

(b) In determining whether an open-end loan is an open-end loan of a bona fide principal amount specified in any section in this division or more and whether the regulatory ceiling provision of that section is used for the purpose of evading this division, the open-end loan shall be deemed to be for that amount or more if both the following criteria are met:

(1) The line of credit is equal to or more than the specified amount.

(2) The initial advance was equal to or more than the specified amount.

(c) A subsequent advance of money of less than the specified amount pursuant to the open-end loan agreement between a borrower and a licensed finance lender shall be deemed to be a loan of a principal amount of the specified amount if the criteria of paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (b) have been met, even though the actual unpaid balance after the advance or at any other time is less than the specified amount.

CHAPTER 3. COMMERCIAL LOANS

Article 1. Definitions

22500. "Charges" include the aggregate interest, fees, bonuses, commissions, brokerage, discounts, expenses, and other forms of costs charged, contracted for, or received by a licensee or any other person in connection with the investigating, arranging, negotiating, procuring, guaranteeing, making, servicing, collecting, and enforcing of a loan or forbearance of money, credit, goods, or things in action, or any other service rendered.

22501. "Charges" do not include commissions received as a licensed insurance agent or broker.

22502. "Commercial loan" means a loan of a principal amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more, or any loan under an open-end credit program, whether secured by either real or personal property, or both, or unsecured, the proceeds of which are intended by the borrower for use primarily for other than personal, family, or household purposes.

For purposes of determining whether a loan is a commercial loan, the lender may rely on any written statement of intended purposes signed by the borrower. The statement may be a separate statement signed by the borrower or may be contained in a loan application or other document signed by the borrower. The lender shall not be required to ascertain that the proceeds of the loan are used in accordance with the statement of intended purposes.

Article 2. Exemptions

22550. Sections 22152, 22154, 22155, 22163, and 22164 do not apply to any commercial loan of a bona fide principal amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more, or to a duly licensed finance lender in connection with any such loan or loans, if the provisions of this section are not used for the purpose of evading this division.

22551. In determining whether a loan is a loan of a bona fide principal amount of the specified amount or more, the following principles shall apply:

(a) If a borrower applies for a loan in a principal amount of less than the specified amount and a loan to that borrower of a principal amount of the specified amount or more is made by a licensed finance lender, no adequate economic reason for the increase in the size of the loan exists, and by prearrangement or understanding between the borrower and the licensee a substantial payment is to be made upon the loan with the effect of reducing the principal amount of the loan to less than the specified amount within a short time after the making of the loan other than by reason of a requirement that the loan be paid in substantially equal periodical installments, then the loan shall not be deemed to be a loan of the bona fide principal amount of the specified amount or more.

(b) A subsequent advance of money of less than the specified amount pursuant to a revolving or open-end loan agreement or similar agreement between a borrower and a licensed finance lender which gives the borrower the right to draw upon all or any part of the line of credit, or a loan agreement providing for the making of advances to the borrower from time to time up to an aggregate maximum amount which gives the borrower the right to draw all or any part of the total amount, shall be deemed to be a loan of a principal amount of the specified amount or more if the line of credit or the aggregate maximum amount is the specified amount or more and the initial advance was the specified amount or more even though the actual unpaid balance after the advance or at any other time is less than the specified amount.

(c) If a loan made by a licensed finance lender has a principal amount of the specified amount or more, the fact that the transaction is in the form of a sale of accounts, chattel paper, goods, or instruments, or a lease of goods, or in the form of an advance on the purchase price of any of the foregoing, shall not be deemed to affect the bona fides of the amount thereof.

(d) For the purposes of this section, "the specified amount" means five thousand dollars ($5,000).

Article 3. Loan Regulations

22600. (a) A licensee may sell promissory notes evidencing the obligation to repay loans made by the licensee pursuant to this division or evidencing the obligation to repay loans purchased from and made by another licensee pursuant to this division to institutional investors, and may make agreements with institutional investors for the collection of payments or the performance of services with respect to those notes.

(b) For the purposes of this section, "institutional investor" means the following:

(1) The United States or any state, district, territory, or commonwealth thereof, or any city, county, city and county, public district, public authority, public corporation, public entity, or political subdivision of a state, district, territory, or commonwealth of the United States, or any agency or other instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing.

(2) Any bank, trust company, savings bank or savings and loan association, credit union, industrial bank or industrial loan company, finance lender, or insurance company doing business under the authority of and in accordance with a license, certificate, or charter issued by the United States or any state, district, territory, or commonwealth of the United States.

(3) Trustees of pension, profit sharing, or welfare funds, if the pension, profit sharing, or welfare fund has a net worth of not less than fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000), except pension, profit sharing, or welfare funds of a licensee or its affiliate, self-employed individual retirements plans, or individual retirement accounts.

(4) Any corporation with outstanding securities registered under Section 12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or any wholly owned subsidiary of that corporation; provided, however, that the purchaser represents that it is purchasing for its own account for investment and not with a view to or for sale in connection with any distribution of the promissory note.

(5) Any syndication or other combination of any of the foregoing that is organized to purchase the promissory note.

(c) In the absence of agreement to the contrary by the licensee and the institutional investor, all payments received from the collection of payments shall be deposited and maintained in a trust account, and shall be disbursed from the trust account only in accordance with the instructions of the owner of the promissory note.

22601. With respect to a loan under this division, a fee not to exceed fifteen dollars ($15) for the return by a depository institution of a dishonored check, negotiable order of withdrawal, or share draft may be charged and collected by the licensee. The fee is not included in charges as defined in this division.

Article 4. Open-End Credit Programs

22650. As used in this division, "open-end credit program" means a licensee's plan for making open-end loans pursuant to a loan agreement that sets forth the terms and conditions governing the use of the open-end credit program, expressly states that the loan is made pursuant to this article, and provides that:

(a) The borrower may use the open-end credit program to obtain money, goods, labor, or services or credit, and the licensee makes open-end loans to the borrower for the purpose of paying money to, or at the direction of, the borrower or paying obligations that the borrower creates through use of the open-end credit program.

(b) The amount of each advance and the charges and other permitted costs are debited to an account.

(c) The charges are computed from time to time on the unpaid balances of the borrower's account excluding from the computation any unpaid charges other than permitted fees, costs, and expenses.

(d) The borrower has the privilege of paying the account in full at any time.

CHAPTER 4. REVOCATION AND PENALTIES

Article 1. Revocation and Suspension of License

22700. (a) Licenses issued under this division remain in effect until they are surrendered, revoked, or suspended.

(b) Surrender of a license becomes effective 30 days after receipt of an application to surrender the license or within a shorter period of time that the commissioner may determine, unless a revocation or suspension proceeding is pending when the application is filed or a proceeding to revoke or suspend or to impose conditions upon the surrender is instituted within 30 days after the application is filed. If a proceeding is pending or instituted, surrender of a license becomes effective at the time and upon the conditions that the commissioner determines.

22701. For the purpose of discovering violations of this division or securing information required by him or her in the administration and enforcement of this division, the commissioner may at any time investigate the loans and business, and examine the books, accounts, records, and files used in the business, of every person engaged in the business of a finance lender or broker, whether the person acts or claims to act as principal or agent, or under or without the authority of this division. For the purpose of examination, the commissioner and his or her representatives shall have free access to the offices and places of business, books, accounts, papers, records, files, safes, and vaults of all these persons.

22702. In making any examination or investigation, the commissioner may, for a reasonable time not to exceed 30 days, take possession of the books, records, accounts, and other papers pertaining to the business. The commissioner may place a keeper in exclusive charge and custody of the books, records, accounts, and other papers in the office or place where they are usually kept. During possession, no person shall remove or attempt to remove any of the books, accounts, papers, records, files, safes, and vaults, or any part thereof, except in compliance with a court order or written consent of the commissioner.

22703. The officers, employees, partners, directors, and stockholders may inspect and examine the books, accounts, papers, records, files, safes, and vaults while they are in the custody of the commissioner. Employees may make entries in these documents reflecting current operations or transactions.

22704. The power of investigation and examination by the commissioner is not terminated by the surrender, suspension, or revocation of any license issued by him or her.

22705. Whenever the commissioner deems it necessary for the general welfare of the public, he or she has continuous authority to exercise the powers set forth in this division whether or not an application for a license has been filed with the commissioner, any license has been issued, or if issued, has been suspended or revoked.

22706. The commissioner may require the attendance of witnesses and examine under oath all persons whose testimony he or she requires relative to loans or business regulated by this division or to the subject matter of any examination, investigation, or hearing.

22707. (a) The cost of each examination of a licensee or a person subject to this division shall be paid to the commissioner by the licensee or person examined, and the commissioner may maintain an action for the recovery of the cost in any court of competent jurisdiction. In determining the cost of an examination, the commissioner may use the estimated average hourly cost for all persons performing examinations of licensees or other persons subject to this division for the fiscal year.

(b) For the purpose of this section only, no person other than a licensee shall be deemed to be a person subject to this division until the person is determined to be a person subject to this division by an administrative hearing in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code or by a judicial hearing in any court of competent jurisdiction.

22708. After an examination, investigation, or hearing under this division, if the commissioner deems it of public interest or advantage, he or she may certify a record to the proper prosecuting official of the city, county, or city and county in which the act complained of, examined, or investigated occurred.

22709. The commissioner may require the production for examination in this state of all books, records, and supporting data used by the licensee in the preparation of reports to the commissioner. The books, records, and supporting data shall be made available for examination by the commissioner in this state within 10 days after a written demand.

22710. The commissioner may upon three days' notice and a hearing, suspend any license for a period not exceeding 30 days, pending investigation.

22711. Any licensee may surrender any license by delivering to the commissioner written notice that the licensee surrenders that license. Surrender of the license does not affect the licensee's civil or criminal liability for acts committed prior to surrender of the license.

22712. Whenever, in the opinion of the commissioner, any person is engaged in business as a broker or finance lender, as defined in this division, without a license from the commissioner, or any licensee is violating any provision of this division, the commissioner may order that person or licensee to desist and to refrain from engaging in the business or further violating this division. If, after the order is made, a written request for a hearing is filed and no hearing is held within 30 days thereafter, the order is rescinded.

22713. (a) Whenever the commissioner believes from evidence satisfactory to the commissioner that any person has violated or is about to violate a provision of this division, or a provision of any order, license, decision, demand, requirement, or any regulation adopted pursuant to this division, the commissioner may, in the commissioner's discretion, bring an action, or the commissioner may request the Attorney General to bring an action in the name of the people of the State of California, against that person to enjoin that person from continuing that violation or doing any act in furtherance of the violation. Upon a proper showing, a permanent or preliminary injunction, restraining order, or writ of mandate shall be granted and other ancillary relief may be granted as appropriate.

(b) If the commissioner determines that it is in the public interest, the commissioner may include in any action authorized by subdivision (a) a claim for ancillary relief, including, but not limited to, a claim for restitution, disgorgement, or damages on behalf of the persons injured by the act or practice constituting the subject matter of the action. The court shall have jurisdiction to award additional relief.

(c) Any person who willfully violates any provisions of this division, or who willfully violates any rule or order adopted pursuant to this division, shall be liable for a civil penalty not to exceed two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) for each violation, which shall be assessed and recovered in a civil action brought in the name of the people of the State of California by the commissioner in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(d) As applied to the penalties for acts in violation of this division, the remedies provided by this section and by other sections of this division are not exclusive, and may be sought and employed in any combination to enforce the provisions of this division.

22714. (a) The commissioner shall suspend or revoke any license, upon notice and reasonable opportunity to be heard, if the commissioner finds any of the following:

(1) The licensee has failed to comply with any demand, ruling, or requirement of the commissioner made pursuant to and within the authority of this division.

(2) The licensee has violated any provision of this division or any rule or regulation made by the commissioner under and within the authority of this division.

(3) A fact or condition exists that, if it had existed at the time of the original application for the license, reasonably would have warranted the commissioner in refusing to issue the license originally.

(4) There has been repeated failure by the finance lender, when making or negotiating loans, to take into consideration in determining the size and duration of loans, the financial ability of the borrower to repay the loan in the time and manner provided in the loan contract, or to refinance the loan at maturity.

(b) A master license may not be suspended or revoked pursuant to this section as a result of any action or failure to act by a subsidiary licensee unless grounds exist for the suspension or revocation of the master license pursuant to this section. An order suspending or revoking a license or imposing sanctions against a licensee shall not affect other licensed locations unless expressly stated in the order.

22715. The commissioner may by order summarily suspend or revoke the license of any licensee if that person fails to file the report required by Section 22159 within 10 days after notice by the commissioner that the report is due and not filed. If, after an order is made, a request for hearing is filed in writing within 30 days and the hearing is not held within 60 days thereafter, the order is deemed rescinded as of its effective date.

22716. The revocation, suspension, expiration, or surrender of any license does not impair or affect the obligation of any preexisting lawful contract between the licensee and any borrower.

22717. Except in cases in which the time for setting the hearing is shortened as provided in this division, the proceedings under this article shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and in all cases the commissioner has all the powers granted therein.

22718. Every order, decision, license, or other official act of the commissioner is subject to judicial review in accordance with law.

Article 2. Consumer Loan Penalties

22750. (a) If any amount other than, or in excess of, the charges permitted by this division is willfully charged, contracted for, or received, the contract of loan is void, and no person has any right to collect or receive any principal, charges, or recompense in connection with the transaction.

(b) If any provision of this division is willfully violated in the making or collection of a loan, the contract of loan is void, and no person has any right to collect or receive any principal, charges, or recompense in connection with the transaction.

22751. (a) If any amount other than or in excess of the charges permitted by this division is charged or contracted for, or received, for any reason other than a willful act of the licensee, the licensee shall forfeit all interest and charges on the loan and may collect or receive only the principal amount of the loan.

(b) Subdivision (a) shall not apply to an error in computation if (1) the licensee shows by a preponderance of evidence that the violation was not intentional and resulted from a bona fide error notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adapted to avoid any such error, and (2) within 60 days of discovering the error the licensee notifies the borrower of the error and makes whatever adjustments in the account are necessary to correct the error.

22752. (a) If any provision of this division is violated in the making or collection of a loan, for any reason other than a willful act of the licensee, the licensee shall forfeit all interest and charges on the loan and may collect or receive only the principal amount of the loan.

22753. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this division or who willfully violates any rule or order adopted pursuant to this division, shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000), by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year or in the state prison, or by both that fine and imprisonment. However, no person may be imprisoned for the violation of any rule or order unless he or she had knowledge of the rule or order. Conviction under this section shall not preclude the commissioner from exercising the authority in Section 22713.

22754. No provision imposing liability under this division, including the provisions of subdivision (a) of Section 22751 and subdivision (a) of Section 22752, shall apply to any act done or omitted in good faith in conformity with any written general rule, regulation, or specific ruling of the commissioner, notwithstanding that after the act or omission has occurred, the written general rule, regulation, or specific ruling is amended, rescinded, or determined by judicial or other authority to be invalid for any reason.

Article 3. Commercial Loan Penalties

22780. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this division, or who willfully violates any rule or order adopted pursuant to this division, shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000), by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year or in the state prison, or by both that fine and imprisonment. However, no person may be imprisoned for the violation of any rule or order unless he or she had knowledge of the rule or order. Conviction under this section shall not preclude the commissioner from exercising the authority provided in Section 22713.

SEC. 3. Division 10 (commencing with Section 24000) of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Division 11 (commencing with Section 26000) of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Except for Sections 22107 and 22159 of the Financial Code, this act shall become operative on July 1, 1995. Sections 22107 and 22159 of the Financial Code shall become operative on January 1, 1995. Persons licensed under Division 9 (commencing with Section 22000), Division 10 (commencing with Section 24000), or Division 11 (commencing with Section 26000) of the Financial Code prior to July 1, 1995, shall pay the assessment pursuant to the provisions of and as set forth in Section 22107 of the Financial Code for the 1995-96 fiscal year based on the annual report for 1994 which shall be filed pursuant to Section 22159 of the Financial Code. The commissioner shall issue a finance lender or broker license to a licensee under Division 9 (commencing with Section 22000), Division 10 (commencing with Section 24000), or Division 11 (commencing with Section 26000) of the Financial Code upon receiving payment of the assessment for the 1995-96 fiscal year and any additional information the commissioner may require to demonstrate compliance with the provisions of this act.

SEC. 6. Notwithstanding any provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act, any adoption, amendment, or repeal of existing regulations under Division 9 (commencing with Section 22000), Division 10 (commencing with Section 24000), or Division 11 (commencing with Section 26000) of the Financial Code for the purpose of conforming the existing regulations to the provisions of this act shall be considered changes without regulatory effect under Section 100 of Title 1 of the California Code of Regulations. The Office of Administrative Law shall, immediately upon receipt of the regulations adopted by the Commissioner of Corporations, file the regulations with the Secretary of State for immediate effectiveness.

SEC. 7. The regulations adopted by the Commissioner of Corporations may contain those classifications, differentiations, and other provisions, and may provide for those adjustments and exceptions for any class of transactions that in the judgment of the commissioner are necessary or proper to effectuate provisions of this act and the intent of the Legislature to create reasonable classifications, including, but not limited to, varying regulation of commercial and consumer loans.

SEC. 8. Any loan made under Division 9 (commencing with Section 22000), Division 10 (commencing with Section 24000), or Division 11 (commencing with Section 26000) of the Financial Code, prior to July 1, 1995, shall be subject to, and enforced to the extent valid, under the applicable division as of the date made, as if that law were not repealed. With respect to loans made under those laws, any reference herein to "finance lender" shall be deemed to refer to the lender or person holding those loans under the provisions and authority of those laws.

SEC. 9. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act that references in any statute of this state, other than in Division 9

(commencing with Section 22000) of the Financial Code, as added by this act, to personal property brokers, whether by that name, by citation of the Personal Property Brokers Law, by citation to Division 9 (commencing with Section 22000), or otherwise, to consumer finance lenders whether by that name, by citation of the Consumer Finance Lenders Law, by citation to Division 10 (commencing with Section 24000), or otherwise, or to commercial finance lenders, whether by that name, by citation of the Commercial Finance Lenders Law, by citation to Division 11 (commencing with Section 26000), or otherwise, shall be deemed to refer to licensees under the California Finance Lenders Law (Division 9 (commencing with Section 22000) of the Financial Code), as added by this act.

SEC. 10. The Legislature finds that the regulation of consumer and commercial loans would be enhanced by consolidating into one licensing law the existing regulation of personal property brokers, consumer finance lenders, and commercial finance lenders. It is the intent of the Legislature that this act shall not affect the validity of any existing loans and this act shall be interpreted as a consolidation of the authority previously granted to each type of lender. The Legislature finds that varying treatment of each type of lender, as provided in this act, is proper and that it is reasonable to allow free-market competition and to provide consumer protections with respect to the terms of the specified transactions. It is the intent of the Legislature that all previous judicial precedents upholding the regulation of these lenders continue to apply as the constitutional basis of this act.

An act to amend Section 1253 of, and to add Article 2.2 (commencing with Section 1300) to Chapter 5 of Part 1 of Division 1 of, the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to unemployment insurance, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1253 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1253. An unemployed individual is eligible to receive unemployment compensation benefits with respect to any week only if the director finds that:

(a) A claim for benefits with respect to that week has been made in accordance with authorized regulations.

(b) He or she has registered for work, and thereafter continued to report, at a public employment office or any other place as the director may approve. Either or both of the requirements of this subdivision may be waived or altered by authorized regulation as to partially employed individuals attached to regular jobs.

(c) He or she was able to work and available for work for that week.

(d) He has been unemployed for a waiting period of one week as defined in Section 1254, unless this waiting period has been waived pursuant to Section 8571 of the Government Code.

(e) He or she conducted a search for suitable work in accordance with specific and reasonable instructions of a public employment office.

(f) He or she participated as required by the director in reemployment activities, such as orientation and assessment if the individual has been identified pursuant to an automated profiling system as likely to exhaust regular unemployment benefits unless the individual has shown good cause for failure to participate.

SEC. 2. Article 2.2 (commencing with Section 1300) is added to Chapter 5 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, to read:

Article 2.2. Self-Employment Assistance Program

1300. The Legislature finds that the traditional system of unemployment compensation is primarily designed to provide income support for workers who are temporarily laid off or expect to be unemployed for only a short time. However, increasing numbers of workers are losing their jobs permanently due to rapid technological change, elimination of trade barriers, and similar causes. These workers need additional tools besides the basic income maintenance provided by the unemployment compensation system in order to reenter the workforce. For some of those workers, access to a self-employment program would be the best path for them to do so. Accordingly, it is the purpose of this article to authorize the payment of unemployment compensation benefits, and to provide appropriate training and support services, for eligible dislocated workers who wish to become self-employed in their transition back into the workforce.

1301. As used in this article:

(a) "Self-Employment Assistance Program" means a program that enables an unemployed individual approved under this article to engage in self-employment activities on a full-time basis that will lead to establishing a business and becoming self-employed.

(b) "Self-employment assistance activities" means activities approved by the director in which an individual identified through a worker profiling system as likely to exhaust regular benefits participates for the purpose of establishing a business and becoming self-employed. These may include, but are not limited to, entrepreneurial training, business counseling, and technical assistance.

(c) "Self-employment assistance allowance" means an allowance payable in lieu of regular benefits and from the Unemployment Fund established under Section 1521 to an individual participating in self-employment assistance activities who meets the requirements of this article.

(d) "Regular benefits" means benefits payable to an individual under this part, including benefits payable to federal civilian employees and to ex-service members pursuant to Chapter 85 (commencing with Section 8501) of Title 5 of the United States Code, other than additional and extended benefits.

(e) "Full-time basis" shall have the meaning contained in regulations prescribed by the director.

1302. The weekly allowance payable under this article to an individual shall be equal to the weekly benefit amount for regular benefits otherwise payable under Article 2 (commencing with Section 1275). The sum of (a) allowance payable under this section and (b) regular benefits paid under this part with respect to any benefit year shall not exceed the maximum benefit amount as established by Section 1281 with respect to that benefit year.

1303. The allowance described in Section 1302 shall be payable to an individual at the same interval, on the same terms, and subject to the same conditions as regular benefits under this part, except as follows:

(a) The requirements relating to availability for work, active search for work, and refusal to accept work shall not apply to any week that the individual is in training or engaged in self-employment activities as approved by this article.

(b) Income earned by an individual while engaged in self-employment activities as approved under this article shall not be construed to be wages or compensation for personal services under this division, and benefits payable under this division shall not be denied or reduced because of those payments.

(c) An individual who fails to participate in self-employment assistance activities or who fails to actively engage on a full-time basis in activities, which may include training, relating to the establishment of a business and becoming self-employed shall be disqualified for the week the failure occurs.

1304. An individual is eligible to participate in the self-employment assistance program if he or she meets all of the following conditions:

(a) Is eligible to receive regular unemployment insurance under state law.

(b) Has been identified pursuant to an automated profiling system as likely to exhaust regular unemployment compensation.

(c) Has been approved for participation in the Self-Employment Assistance Program by the director.

(d) Participates in entrepreneurial training, business counseling, and technical assistance as required by the director.

(e) Is engaged on a full-time basis in activities related to establishing a business and becoming self-employed.

1305. The aggregate number of individuals receiving the allowance under this article at any time shall not exceed 5 percent of the number of individuals receiving regular benefits. The director shall, through regulations, prescribe those actions necessary to ensure the requirements of this section are met.

1306. Self-employment assistance program allowances paid under this section shall be charged to employers as provided under provisions of this part relating to the charging of regular benefits. Costs of administering the self-employment assistance allowances are payable from grants received by the department for the administration of California's unemployment insurance law under Title III of the Social Security Act. Costs of providing self-employment assistance program services, such as business training, business counseling, and technical assistance are payable from Job Training Partnership Act funds and other federal grants.

1307. An individual is prohibited from participating in the self-employment assistance program if his or her prior employer is the primary user of the new business services. No employer shall coerce an employee into participating in the self-employment assistance program.

1308. The provisions of this article shall apply to weeks beginning after the effective date of this article or weeks beginning after any plan required by the United States Department of Labor is approved by the United States Department of Labor, whichever date is later. Immediately upon enactment of this article, the director shall develop such a plan and seek approval from the United States Department of Labor.

The authority provided by this section shall terminate as of the week ending December 5, 1998.

An act to add and repeal Section 106 of the Labor Code, to amend Section 19566 of, to amend and renumber Section 19531 of, and to add Article 6 (commencing with Section 19290) to Chapter 5 of Part 10.2 of Division 2 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, and to amend Section 1128 of, and to add Section 1126.1 to, and to add and repeal Section 329 of, the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to the economy.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 106 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

106. (a) The Labor Commissioner may authorize an employee of any of the agencies that participate in the Joint Enforcement Strike Force on the Underground Economy, as defined in Section 329 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, to issue citations pursuant to Sections 226.4 and 1022 and issue and serve a penalty assessment order pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 3722.

(b) No employees shall issue citations or penalty assessment orders pursuant to this section unless they have been specifically designated, authorized, and trained by the Labor Commissioner for this purpose. Appeals of all citations or penalty assessment orders shall follow the procedures prescribed in Section 226.5, 1023, or 3725, whichever is applicable.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2000, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 2000, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Article 6 (commencing with Section 19290) is added to Chapter 5 of Part 10.2 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

Article 6. Collections for the Department of Industrial Relations

19290. (a) The Department of Industrial Relations shall enter into an agreement with the Franchise Tax Board that transfers responsibility from the department to the Franchise Tax Board for the collection of delinquent fees, wages, penalties, and costs, and any interest thereon, effective July 1, 1995. Under the agreement, the Franchise Tax Board shall collect unsatisfied judgments that are issued pursuant to Sections 98.2, 226.5, 1023, 1289, 2681, and 6650 of the Labor Code. The agreement shall also provide for the collection of delinquent debts that result from a final determination by the department after the exhaustion of appeal remedies pursuant to Sections 98.3, 210, 1174.5, 1193.6, 1194, 1194.2, 1197.1, 1197.5, 1771, 1774, 3722, 7314, 7350, 7721, and 7904 of the Labor Code. The agreement shall specify the terms under which fees, wages, penalties, and costs, and any interest thereon, become subject to collection by the Franchise Tax Board.

The agreement may also provide for reimbursement to the Franchise Tax Board on the basis of a percentage of the amount of revenue realized as a result of the Franchise Tax Board's services, provided that the amount of any reimbursement shall not exceed the actual costs of collection, including court costs and reasonable attorney's fees. Wherever possible the collection costs shall be borne by the judgment debtor. Any fee for the recovery of wages shall not be paid by the workers. The department shall adopt rules and regulations to provide for a reasonable fee to cover actual collection costs. The Franchise Tax Board shall be entitled to court costs and reasonable attorney's fees as a judgment creditor under subdivision (i) of Section 98.2 of the Labor Code.

(b) Upon written notice to the obligor from the Franchise Tax Board, any amount referred to the Franchise Tax Board under subdivision (a) and any interest thereon, including any interest on the amount referred under subdivision (a) that accrued prior to the date of referral and any fee imposed to cover collection costs as provided under subdivision (a), shall be treated as final and due and payable to the State of California, and shall be collected from the obligor by the Franchise Tax Board in any manner authorized under the law for collection of a delinquent personal income tax liability, including, but not limited to, issuance of an order and levy under Article 4 (commencing with Section 706.070) of Chapter 5 of Division 2 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, in the manner provided for earnings withholding orders for taxes.

(c) (1) Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), this part, Part 10.7 (commencing with Section 21001), and Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001) shall apply to amounts referred under this article in the same manner and with the same force and effect and to the full extent as if the language of those laws had been incorporated in full into this article, except to the extent that any provision is either inconsistent with this article or is not relevant to this article.

(2) Any information, information sources, or enforcement remedies and capabilities available to the agency referring the amount due described in subdivision (a), shall be available to the Franchise Tax Board to be used in conjunction with, or independent of, the information, information sources, or remedies and capabilities available to the Franchise Tax Board for purposes of administering Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), this part, Part 10.7 (commencing with Section 21001), or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001).

(d) The activities required to implement and administer this part shall not interfere with the primary mission of the Franchise Tax Board to administer Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) and Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001).

(e) For amounts referred for collection under subdivision (a), interest shall accrue at the greater of the rate applicable to the amount due being collected or the rate provided under Section 19521. When notice of the amount due includes interest and is mailed to the obligor, and the amount is paid within 10 days after the date of notice, interest shall not be imposed for the period after the date of notice.

(f) In no event shall a collection under this article be construed as a payment of income taxes imposed under Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001).

SEC. 3. Section 19531 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Chapter 878 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended and renumbered to read:

19532. In the event a debtor has more than one debt being collected by the Franchise Tax Board and the amount collected by the Franchise Tax Board is insufficient to satisfy the total amount owing, the amount collected shall be applied in the following priority:

(a) Payment of any taxes, additions to tax, penalties, interest, fees, or other amounts due and payable under Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001), or this part.

(b) Payment of any debts referred for collection under Article 5 (commencing with Section 19271) of Chapter 5.

(c) Payment of delinquent wages collected pursuant to the Labor Code.

(d) Payment of delinquencies collected under Section 10878.

(e) Payment of delinquent penalties collected for the Department of Industrial Relations pursuant to the Labor Code.

(f) Payment of delinquent fees collected for the Department of Industrial Relations pursuant to the Labor Code.

SEC. 3.5. Section 19531 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Chapter 878 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended and renumbered to read:

19532. In the event a debtor has more than one debt being collected by the Franchise Tax Board and the amount collected by the Franchise Tax Board is insufficient to satisfy the total amount owing, the amount collected shall be applied in the following priority:

(a) Payment of any taxes, additions to tax, penalties, interest, fees, or other amounts due and payable under Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001), or this part.

(b) Payment of any debts referred for collection under Article 5 (commencing with Section 19271) of Chapter 5.

(c) Payment of delinquent wages collected pursuant to the Labor Code.

(d) Payment of delinquencies collected under Section 10878.

(e) Payment of any amounts due which are referred for collection under Article 6 (commencing with Section 19280) of Chapter 5.

(f) Payment of delinquent penalties collected for the Department of Industrial Relations pursuant to the Labor Code.

(g) Payment of delinquent fees collected for the Department of Industrial Relations pursuant to the Labor Code.

SEC. 4. Section 19566 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19566. Any information provided to or secured by the Franchise Tax Board for purposes of administering Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001) may be used by the Franchise Tax Board for purposes of administering Section 10878 or Article 6 (commencing with Section 19290) of Chapter 5.

SEC. 5. Section 329 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Code, to read:

329. (a) The director, or his or her designee, shall serve as Chairperson of the Joint Enforcement Strike Force on the Underground Economy provided for in Executive Order W-66-93.

The strike force shall include, but not be limited to, representatives of the Employment Development Department, the Department of Consumer Affairs, the Department of Industrial Relations, and the Office of Criminal Justice Planning. Other agencies that are not part of the administration, such as the Franchise Tax Board, the State Board of Equalization, and the Department of Justice, are encouraged to participate in the strike force.

(b) The strike force shall have the following duties:

(1) To facilitate and encourage the development and sharing of information by the participating agencies necessary to combat the underground economy.

(2) To improve the coordination of activities among the participating agencies.

(3) To develop methods to pool, focus, and target the enforcement resources of the participating agencies in order to deter tax evasion and maximize recoveries from blatant tax evaders and violators of cash-pay reporting laws.

(4) To reduce enforcement costs wherever possible by eliminating duplicative audits and investigations.

(c) In addition, the strike force shall be empowered to:

(1) Form joint enforcement teams when appropriate to utilize the collective investigative and enforcement capabilities of the participating members.

(2) Establish committees and rules of procedure to carry out the activities of the strike force.

(3) To solicit the cooperation and participation of district attorneys and other state and local agencies in carrying out the objectives of the strike force.

(4) Establish procedures for soliciting referrals from the public, including, but not limited to, an advertised telephone hotline.

(5) Develop procedures for improved information sharing among the participating agencies, such as shared automated information data base systems, the use of a common business identification number, and a centralized debt collection system.

(6) Develop procedures to permit the participating agencies to use more efficient and effective civil sanctions in lieu of criminal actions wherever possible.

(7) Evaluate, based on its activities, the need for any statutory change to do any of the following:

(A) Eliminate barriers to interagency information sharing.

(B) Improve the ability of the participating agencies to audit, investigate, and prosecute tax and cash-pay violations.

(C) Deter violations and improve voluntary compliance.

(D) Eliminate duplication and improve cooperation among the participating agencies.

(E) Establish sharable information data bases.

(F) Establish a common business identification number for use by participating agencies.

(G) Establish centralized, automated debt collection services for the participating agencies.

(H) Strengthen civil penalty procedures to allow the strike force to emphasize civil rather than criminal penalties wherever possible.

(d) The strike force shall report to the Governor and the Legislature annually during the period of its existence, commencing February 1, 1995, regarding its activities.

The report shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) The number of cases of blatant violations and noncompliance with tax and cash-pay laws identified, audited, investigated, or prosecuted through civil action or referred for criminal prosecution.

(2) Actions taken by the strike force to publicize its activities.

(3) Efforts made by the strike force to establish an advertised telephone hotline for receiving referrals from the public.

(4) Procedures for improving information sharing among the agencies represented on the strike force.

(5) Steps taken by the strike force to improve cooperation among participating agencies, reduce duplication of effort, and improve voluntary compliance.

(6) Recommendations for any statutory changes needed to accomplish the goals described in paragraph (7) of subdivision (c).

(e) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2000, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 2000, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 6. Section 1126.1 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Code, to read:

1126.1. (a) If any employing unit fails to register with the department as required under Section 1086, and the failure is due to intentional disregard or intent to evade this division or authorized regulations, a penalty of one hundred dollars ($100) per nonreported employee shall be added to an assessment issued in accordance with Section 1126.

(b) For purposes of this section, the number of nonreported employees shall be defined as the highest number of employees determined by the department to have been engaged by the employer during any single calendar quarter included in the assessment under Section 1126.

SEC. 7. Section 1128 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1128. (a) If the failure of the employing unit to file a return or report within the time required by this division and authorized regulations or if any part of the deficiency for which an assessment is made is due to fraud or an intent to evade this division or authorized regulations, a penalty of 50 percent of the amount of contributions assessed shall be added to the assessment. This penalty is in addition to the penalties provided pursuant to Sections 1126 and 1127.

(b) An additional penalty of 50 percent of the amount of contributions assessed shall be added to any assessment that includes a penalty under subdivision (a), if the employer paid wages and failed to provide information returns as required under Section 13050 of this code or Section 18637 or 18638 of the Revenue and Taxation Code. This penalty shall be in addition to any penalties under Section 1126 or 1127.

SEC. 8. The Franchise Tax Board shall report the results of the program authorized by this act to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1997. The report shall include any recommendations for legislation that would be necessary for the Franchise Tax Board to more effectively administer that program.

SEC. 9. Section 3.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 19531 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3343. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends and renumbers Section 19531 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3343, in which case Section 3 of this bill shall not become operative.

An act to amend Section 730 of the Business and Professions Code, and to amend Sections 139.2, 3209.3, 3761, 4600.5, 4643, 5401, 5500, and 5502 of the Labor Code, relating to workers' compensation.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 730 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

730. Any person licensed under this division or under any initiative act referred to in this division shall not perform any medical evaluation for which the evaluator is required to be certified as a qualified medical evaluator pursuant to Section 139.2 of the Labor Code without having first obtained that certification. No person shall be in violation of this section if the person is certified as a qualified medical evaluator at the time of assignment to a three-member panel under subdivision (h) of Section 139.2 of the Labor Code or, if the injured worker is represented, if the person is certified as a qualified medical evaluator at the time the injured worker is referred for a medical evaluation. A violation of this section constitutes unprofessional conduct and grounds for disciplinary action.

SEC. 2. Section 139.2 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

139.2. (a) The Industrial Medical Council shall appoint qualified medical evaluators in each of the respective specialties as required for the evaluation of medical issues. The appointments shall be for two-year terms.

(b) The council shall appoint as qualified medical evaluators physicians, as defined in Section 3209.3, who are licensed to practice in this state and who demonstrate that they meet each of the following requirements:

(1) Pass an examination written and administered by the Industrial Medical Council for the purpose of demonstrating competence in evaluating medical issues in the workers' compensation system. The council shall administer the first examination on or before July 1, 1994. Physicians qualified immediately before the first examination is administered shall pass an examination by November 1, 1994, to meet this requirement. Any physician applying for appointment after July 1, 1994, shall pass an examination prior to his or her appointment as a qualified medical evaluator. Physicians are not required to pass an additional examination for reappointment. For preparation of the first examination, a panel of not more than 40 experts, appointed by the Industrial Medical Council, representing the physician specialties required to take the qualified medical evaluator examination, shall assist the council in determining the knowledge, skills, and abilities required by the qualified medical evaluator, writing items for the examination, and conducting pretest and posttest reviews of the items. This panel of experts shall be exempt from the requirement of having to pass the examination to be appointed as a qualified medical evaluator. This panel of experts shall include: current or past council members, or both, representatives from the professional associations of those physician specialties required for the evaluation of medical issues, or physicians deemed to be well qualified in the evaluation of medical issues and having a minimum of 10 years in practice, five years of workers' compensation evaluation, and having served as an agreed medical evaluator at least eight times in the previous 12 months.

(2) Devote at least one-third of total practice time to providing direct medical treatment, or has served as an agreed medical evaluator on eight or more occasions in the 12 months prior to applying to be a qualified medical evaluator.

(3) Meet one of the following requirements:

(A) Is board certified or board qualified, within a time period specified by the council, not to exceed seven years from the time the physician is first board qualified, in his or her specialty by an appropriate board recognized by the council. For a physician with an M.D. or D.O. degree, "board certified" refers to specialty boards recognized by the Medical Board of California or the Osteopathic Medical Board of California and "board qualified" means the physician meets at least one of the following requirements:

(i) Is eligible to sit for the certifying examination of a board recognized by the Medical Board of California or the Osteopathic Medical Board of California.

(ii) Has completed postgraduate training in his or her specialty at an institution recognized by the ACGME or the osteopathic equivalent.

(iii) Declares under penalty of perjury to the council that he or she wrote 100 or more ratable medical-legal evaluation reports and served as an agreed medical evaluator on 25 or more occasions during each calendar year since 1989.

(iv) Has qualifications that the Medical Board of California and the council both deem to be equivalent or superior to board certification in a specialty.

No physician who failed a specialty certifying examination after 1985 may be certified as a qualified medical evaluator in that specialty, until the physician subsequently passes the certifying examination.

(B) If a chiropractor, is certified in California workers' compensation evaluation by an appropriate California professional chiropractic association or accredited California college recognized by the council, or, if a psychologist, meets one of the following requirements:

(i) Is board certified in clinical psychology by a board recognized by the council.

(ii) Holds a doctoral degree in psychology, or a doctoral degree deemed equivalent for licensure by the Board of Psychology pursuant to Section 2914 of the Business and Professions Code, from a university or professional school recognized by the council and has not less than five years' postdoctoral experience in the diagnosis and treatment of emotional and mental disorders.

(iii) Has not less than five years' postdoctoral experience in the diagnosis and treatment of emotional and mental disorders, and has served as an agreed medical evaluator on eight or more occasions prior to January 1, 1990.

(C) Served as an agreed medical evaluator on eight or more occasions prior to January 1, 1970.

(4) Does not have a conflict of interest as determined under the regulations promulgated by the administrative director pursuant to subdivision (o).

(5) Meets any additional medical or professional standards adopted pursuant to paragraph (6) of subdivision (j).

(c) The council shall promulgate standards for appointment of physicians who are retired or who hold teaching positions who are exceptionally well qualified to serve as a qualified medical evaluator even though they do not otherwise qualify under paragraph (1) of subdivision (b). In no event shall a physician whose full-time practice is limited to the forensic evaluation of disability be appointed as a qualified medical evaluator under this subdivision.

(d) The qualified medical evaluator, upon request, shall be reappointed if he or she meets the qualifications for appointment and meets all of the following criteria:

(1) Has completed all medical evaluations within a reasonable time after assignment.

(2) Has not had more than five of his or her evaluations which were considered by a workers' compensation judge at a contested hearing rejected by the judge or the appeals board pursuant to this section during the most recent two-year period during which the physician served as a qualified medical evaluator. If the judge or the appeals board rejects the qualified medical evaluator's report on the basis that it fails to meet the minimum standards for those reports established by the Industrial Medical Council or the appeals board, the judge or the appeals board, as the case may be, shall make a specific finding to that effect, and shall give notice to the medical evaluator and to the Industrial Medical Council. Any rejection shall not be counted as one of the five qualifying rejections until the specific finding has become final and time for appeal has expired.

(3) Has completed within the previous 24 months at least 12 hours of continuing education in impairment evaluation or workers' compensation-related medical dispute evaluation approved by the Industrial Medical Council.

(4) Has not been terminated, suspended, placed on probation, or otherwise disciplined by the council during his or her most recent term as a qualified medical evaluator.

If the evaluator does not meet any one of these criteria, the Industrial Medical Council may in its discretion reappoint or deny reappointment according to regulations promulgated by the council. In no event may a physician who does not currently meet the requirements for initial appointment or who has been terminated under subdivision (e) be reappointed.

(e) Except as provided in subdivision (k), the evaluator shall not be terminated during his or her term of office unless his or her licensing authority has suspended, revoked, or terminated his or her license to practice in California.

(f) The Industrial Medical Council shall furnish a physician, upon request, a written statement of its reasons for termination of or for denying appointment or reappointment as a qualified medical evaluator. Upon receipt of a specific response to the statement of reasons, the Industrial Medical Council shall review its decision not to appoint or reappoint the physician or to terminate the physician and shall notify the physician of its final decision within 60 days after receipt of the physician's response.

(g) The council shall establish agreements with qualified medical evaluators to assure the expeditious evaluation of cases assigned to them for comprehensive medical evaluations.

(h) When the injured worker is not represented by an attorney, the medical director appointed pursuant to Section 122, shall assign three-member panels of qualified medical evaluators within five working days after receiving a request for a panel. If a panel is not assigned within 15 working days, the employee shall have the right to obtain a medical evaluation from any qualified medical evaluator of his or her choice. The medical director shall use a random selection method for assigning panels of qualified medical evaluators. The medical director shall select evaluators who are specialists of the type selected by the employee. The medical director shall advise the employee that he or she should consult with his or her treating physician prior to deciding which type of specialist to request. The Industrial Medical Council shall promulgate a form which shall notify the employee of the physicians selected for his or her panel. The form shall include, for each physician on the panel, the physician's name, address, telephone number, specialty, number of years in practice, and a brief description of his or her education and training, and shall advise the employee that he or she is entitled to receive transportation expenses and temporary disability for each day necessary for the examination. The form shall also state in a clear and conspicuous location and type: "You have the right to consult with an information and assistance officer at no cost to you prior to selecting the doctor to prepare your evaluation, or you may consult with an attorney. If your claim eventually goes to court, the judge will consider the evaluation prepared by the doctor you select to decide your claim." When compiling the list of evaluators from which to select randomly, the medical director shall include all qualified medical evaluators who do not have a conflict of interest in the case, as defined by regulations adopted pursuant to subdivision (o) of the appropriate specialty type as recognized by an appropriate, recognized board within the general geographic area of the employee's residence, and shall have no authority to exclude qualified medical evaluators based on any other criteria. When the medical director determines that an employee has requested an evaluation by a type of specialist which is appropriate for the employee's injury, but there are not enough qualified medical evaluators of that type within the general geographic area of the employee's residence to establish a three-member panel, the medical director shall include sufficient qualified medical evaluators from other geographic areas and the employer shall pay all necessary travel costs incurred in the event the employee selects an evaluator from another geographic area.

(i) The medical director appointed pursuant to Section 122, shall continuously review the quality of comprehensive medical evaluations and reports prepared by agreed and qualified medical evaluators and the timeliness with which evaluation reports are prepared and submitted. The review shall include, but not be limited to, a review of a random sample of reports submitted to the division, and a review of all reports alleged to be inaccurate or incomplete by a party to a case for which the evaluation was prepared. The medical director shall submit to the administrative director an annual report summarizing the results of the continuous review of medical evaluations and reports prepared by agreed and qualified medical evaluators and make recommendations for the improvement of the system of medical evaluations and determinations.

(j) After public hearing pursuant to Section 5307.4, the council shall promulgate rules and regulations concerning the following medical issues:

(1) Standards governing the timeframes within which medical evaluations shall be prepared and submitted by agreed and qualified medical evaluators. The timeframe for initial medical evaluations to be prepared and submitted shall be no more than 30 days after the evaluator has seen the employee or otherwise commenced the medical evaluation procedure. The council shall develop a written policy governing the provision of extensions of the 30-day period in cases where the evaluator has not received test results or consulting physician's evaluations in time to meet the 30-day deadline. The council shall develop timeframes governing availability of qualified medical evaluators for unrepresented employees under Section 4061. These timeframes shall give the employee the right to the addition of a new evaluator to his or her panel, selected at random, for each evaluator not available to see the employee within a specified period of time, but shall also permit the employee to waive this right for a specified period of time thereafter.

(2) Procedures to be followed by all physicians in evaluating the existence and extent of permanent impairment and limitations resulting from an injury. In order to produce complete, accurate, uniform, and replicable evaluations, the procedures shall require that an evaluation of anatomical loss, functional loss, and the presence of physical complaints be supported, to the extent feasible, by medical findings based on standardized examinations and testing techniques generally accepted by the medical community.

(3) Procedures governing the determination of any disputed medical issues.

(4) Procedures to be used in determining the compensability of psychiatric injury. The procedures shall be in accordance with Section 3208.3 and shall require that the diagnosis of a mental disorder be expressed using the terminology and criteria of the American Psychiatric Association's Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders, Third Edition-Revised, or the terminology and diagnostic criteria of other psychiatric diagnostic manuals generally approved and accepted nationally by practitioners in the field of psychiatric medicine.

(5) Guidelines for the range of time normally required to perform the following:

(A) A medical-legal evaluation that has not been defined and valued pursuant to Section 5307.6. However, the council may recommend guidelines for evaluations that have been defined and valued pursuant to Section 5307.6 for the purpose of governing the appointment, reappointment, and discipline of qualified medical evaluators. The guidelines shall establish minimum times for patient contact in the conduct of the evaluations, and shall be consistent with regulations adopted pursuant to Section 5307.6.

(B) Any treatment procedures that have not been defined and valued pursuant to Section 5307.1.

(C) Any other evaluation procedure requested by the administrative director, the Insurance Commissioner, or the council itself.

If, without good cause, the council fails to adopt the guidelines required by subparagraph (A) or (B) by March 31, 1994, or fails, without good cause, to adopt a guideline pursuant to subparagraph (C) within six months after a request by the administrative director or the Insurance Commissioner, then the administrative director shall have the authority to adopt the guideline.

(6) Any additional medical or professional standards which a medical evaluator shall meet as a condition of appointment, reappointment, or maintenance in the status of a medical evaluator.

(k) The Industrial Medical Council may, in its discretion, suspend or terminate the privilege of a physician to serve as a qualified medical evaluator if the council, after hearing pursuant to subdivision (l), determines, based on substantial evidence, that a qualified medical evaluator:

(1) Has violated any material statutory or administrative duty.

(2) Has failed to follow the medical procedures or qualifications established by the council pursuant to paragraph (2), (3), (4), or (5) of subdivision (j).

(3) Has failed to comply with the timeframe standards established by the council pursuant to subdivision (j).

(4) Has failed to meet the requirements of subdivision (b) or (c).

(5) Has prepared medical-legal evaluations that fail to meet the minimum standards for those reports established by the Industrial Medical Council or the appeals board.

(l) The council shall cite the qualified medical evaluator for a violation listed in subdivision (k) and shall set a hearing on the alleged violation within 30 days of service of the citation on the qualified medical evaluator. In addition to the authority to terminate or suspend the qualified medical evaluator upon finding a violation listed in subdivision (k), the council may, in its discretion, place a qualified medical evaluator on probation subject to appropriate conditions, including ordering continuing education or training. The council shall report to the appropriate licensing board the name of any qualified medical evaluator who is disciplined pursuant to this subdivision.

(m) The council shall terminate from the list of medical evaluators any physician where licensure has been terminated by the relevant licensing board, or who has been convicted of a misdemeanor or felony related to the conduct of his or her medical practice, or of a crime of moral turpitude. The council shall suspend or terminate as a medical evaluator any physician who has been suspended or placed on probation by the relevant licensing board.

(n) Each qualified medical evaluator shall pay a fee, as determined by the Industrial Medical Council, for appointment or reappointment. Any qualified medical evaluator appointed prior to January 1, 1993, shall also pay the same fee as specified herein. These fees shall be based on a sliding scale as established by the council. All revenues from fees paid under this subdivision shall be deposited into the Industrial Medicine Fund, which is hereby created for the administration of the Industrial Medical Council. Moneys paid into the Industrial Medicine Fund for the activities of the Industrial Medical Council shall not be used by any other department or agency or for any purpose other than administration of the council. The funds provided to the council from the Industrial Medicine Fund shall not supplant any funds appropriated to the council from the Workers' Compensation Administration Revolving Fund, the General Fund, or any other governmental source. Any future annual appropriation to the council from the Workers' Compensation Administration Revolving Fund, the General Fund, or any other governmental source shall not be less than the amount appropriated or provided during the 1991-92 fiscal year.

(o) An evaluator may not request or accept any compensation or other thing of value from any source that does or could create a conflict with his or her duties as an evaluator under this code. The administrative director, after consultation with the council and the Commission on Health and Safety and Workers' Compensation, shall adopt regulations to implement this subdivision on or before July 1, 1994.

SEC. 3. Section 3209.3 of the Labor Code, as amended by Section 1 of Chapter 824 of the Statutes of 1992, is amended to read:

3209.3. (a) "Physician" includes physicians and surgeons holding an M.D. or D.O. degree, psychologists, acupuncturists, optometrists, dentists, podiatrists, and chiropractic practitioners licensed by California state law and within the scope of their practice as defined by California state law.

(b) "Psychologist" means a licensed psychologist with a doctoral degree in psychology, or a doctoral degree deemed equivalent for licensure by the Board of Psychology pursuant to Section 2914 of the Business and Professions Code, and who either has at least two years of clinical experience in a recognized health setting, or has met the standards of the National Register of the Health Service Providers in Psychology.

(c) When treatment or evaluation for an injury is provided by a psychologist, provision shall be made for appropriate medical collaboration when requested by the employer or the insurer.

(d) "Acupuncturist" means a person who holds an acupuncturist's certificate issued pursuant to Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 4925) of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code.

(e) Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize acupuncturists to determine disability for the purposes of Article 3 (commencing with Section 4650) of Chapter 2 of Part 2, or under Section 2708 of the Unemployment Insurance Code.

(f) The administrative director shall evaluate the participation of acupuncturists in the medical treatment of workers' compensation cases and shall report his or her findings to the Legislature on or before December 31, 1995.

(g) This section shall remain in effect until January 1, 1997, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 3209.3 of the Labor Code, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 824 of the Statutes of 1992, is amended to read:

3209.3. (a) "Physician" includes physicians and surgeons holding an M.D. or D.O. degree, psychologists, optometrists, dentists, podiatrists, and chiropractic practitioners licensed by California state law and within the scope of their practice as defined by California state law.

(b) "Psychologist" means a licensed psychologist with a doctoral degree in psychology, or a doctoral degree deemed equivalent for licensure by the Board of Psychology pursuant to Section 2914 of the Business and Professions Code, and who either has at least two years of clinical experience in a recognized health setting, or has met the standards of the National Register of the Health Service Providers in Psychology.

(c) When treatment or evaluation for an injury is provided by a psychologist, provision shall be made for appropriate medical collaboration when requested by the employer or the insurer.

(d) This section shall be operative on January 1, 1997.

SEC. 5. Section 3761 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

3761. (a) An insurer securing an employer's liability under this division shall notify the employer, within 15 days, of each claim for indemnity filed against the employer directly with the insurer if the employer has not timely provided to the insurer a report of occupational injury or occupational illness pursuant to Section 6409.1. The insurer shall furnish an employer who has not filed this report with an opportunity to provide to the insurer, prior to the expiration of the 90-day period specified in Section 5402, all relevant information available to the employer concerning the claim.

(b) An employer shall promptly notify its insurer in writing at any time during the pendency of a claim when the employer has actual knowledge of any facts which would tend to disprove any aspect of the employee's claim. When an employer notifies its insurer in writing that, in the employer's opinion, no compensation is payable to an employee, at the employer's written request, to the appeals board, the appeals board may approve a compromise and release agreement, or stipulation, that provides compensation to the employee only where there is proof of service upon the employer by the insurer, to the employer's last known address, not less than 15 days prior to the appeals board action, of notice of the time and place of the hearing at which the compromise and release agreement or stipulation is to be approved. The insurer shall file proof of this service with the appeals board.

Failure by the insurer to provide the required notice shall not prohibit the board from approving a compromise and release agreement, or stipulation; however, the board shall order the insurer to pay reasonable expenses as provided in Section 5813.

(c) In establishing a reserve pursuant to a claim that affects premiums against an employer, an insurer shall provide the employer, upon request, a written report of the reserve amount established. The written report shall include, at a minimum, the following:

- (1) Estimated medical-legal costs.
- (2) Estimated vocational rehabilitation costs, if any.
- (3) Itemization of all other estimated expenses to be paid from the reserve.

(d) When an employer properly provides notification to its insurer pursuant to subdivision (b), and the appeals board thereafter determines that no compensation is payable under this division, the insurer shall reimburse the employer for any premium paid solely due to the inclusion of the successfully challenged payments in the calculation of the employer's experience modification. The employee shall not be required to refund the challenged payment.

SEC. 6. Section 4600.5 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

4600.5. (a) Any health care service plan licensed pursuant to the Knox-Keene Health Care Service Plan Act, a disability insurer licensed by the Department of Insurance, or any entity, including, but not limited to, workers' compensation insurers and third-party administrators authorized as a workers' compensation health care provider organization by the Commissioner of Corporations, may make written application to the administrative director to become certified as a health care organization to provide health care to injured employees for injuries and diseases compensable under this article.

(b) Each application for certification shall be accompanied by a reasonable fee prescribed by the administrative director. A certificate is valid for such period as the director may prescribe unless sooner revoked or suspended.

(c) If the health care organization is a health care service plan licensed pursuant to the Knox-Keene Health Care Service Plan Act, the administrative director shall certify the plan to provide health care pursuant to Section 4600.3 if the director finds that the plan is in good standing with the Department of Corporations and meets the following additional requirements:

(1) Proposes to provide all medical and health care services that may be required by this article.

(2) Provides a program involving cooperative efforts by the employees, the employer, and the health plan to promote workplace health and safety, consultative and other services, and early return to work for injured employees.

(3) Proposes a timely and accurate method to meet the requirements set forth by the administrative director for all carriers of workers' compensation coverage to report necessary information regarding medical and health care service cost and utilization, rates of return to work, average time in medical treatment, and other measures as determined by the administrative director to enable the director to determine the effectiveness of the plan.

(4) Agrees to provide the administrative director with information, reports, and records prepared and submitted to the Department of Corporations in compliance with the Knox-Keene Health Care Service Plan Act, relating to financial solvency, provider accessibility, peer review, utilization review, and quality assurance, upon request, if the administrative director determines the information is necessary to verify that the plan is providing medical treatment to injured employees in compliance with the requirements of this code.

Disclosure of peer review proceedings and records to the administrative director shall not alter the status of the proceedings or records as privileged and confidential communications pursuant to Sections 1370 and 1370.1 of the Health and Safety Code.

(5) Demonstrates the capability to provide occupational medicine and related disciplines.

(6) Complies with any other requirement the administrative director determines is necessary to provide medical services to injured employees consistent with the intent of this article, including, but not limited to, a written patient grievance policy.

(d) If the health care organization is a disability insurer licensed by the Department of Insurance, the administrative director shall certify the plan to provide health care pursuant to Section 4600.3 if the director finds that the plan is in good standing with the Department of Insurance and in compliance with subdivision (d) of Section 10133 and Section 10133.5 of the Insurance Code, and meets the following additional requirements:

(1) Proposes to provide all medical and health care services that may be required by this article.

(2) Provides a program involving cooperative efforts by the employees, the employer, and the health plan to promote workplace health and safety, consultative and other services, and early return to work for injured employees.

(3) Proposes a timely and accurate method to meet the requirements set forth by the administrative director for all carriers of workers' compensation coverage to report necessary information regarding medical and health care service cost and utilization, rates of return to work, average time in medical treatment, and other measures as determined by the administrative director to enable the director to determine the effectiveness of the plan.

(4) Agrees to provide the administrative director with information, reports, and records prepared and submitted to the Department of Insurance in compliance with the Insurance Code relating to financial solvency, provider accessibility, peer review, utilization review, and quality assurance, upon request, if the administrative director determines the information is necessary to verify that the plan is providing medical treatment to injured employees consistent with the intent of this article.

Disclosure of peer review proceedings and records to the administrative director shall not alter the status of the proceedings or records as privileged and confidential communications pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 10133 of the Insurance Code.

(5) Demonstrates the capability to provide occupational medicine and related disciplines.

(6) Complies with any other requirement the administrative director determines is necessary to provide medical services to injured employees consistent with the intent of this article, including, but not limited to, a written patient grievance policy.

(e) If the health care organization is a workers' compensation health care provider organization authorized by the Department of Corporations, the administrative director shall certify the plan to provide health care pursuant to Section 4600.3 if the director finds that the plan is in good standing with the Department of Corporations, and it meets the following additional requirements:

(1) Proposes to provide all medical and health care services that may be required by this article.

(2) Provides a program involving cooperative efforts by the employees, the employer, and the health plan to promote workplace health and safety, consultative and other services, and early return to work for injured employees.

(3) Proposes a timely and accurate method to meet the requirements set forth by the administrative director for all carriers of workers' compensation coverage to report necessary information regarding medical and health care service cost and utilization, rates of return to work, average time in medical treatment, and other measures as determined by the administrative director to enable the director to determine the effectiveness of the plan.

(4) Agrees to provide the administrative director with information, reports, and records prepared and submitted to the Department of Corporations in compliance with Section 54 and Part 3.2 (commencing with Section 5150) relating to financial solvency, provider accessibility, peer review, utilization review, and quality assurance, upon request, if the administrative director determines the information is necessary to verify that the plan is providing medical treatment to injured employees consistent with the intent of this article.

Disclosure of peer review proceedings and records to the administrative director shall not alter the status of the proceedings or records as privileged and confidential communications pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 10133 of the Insurance Code.

(5) Demonstrates the capability to provide occupational medicine and related disciplines.

(6) Complies with any other requirement the administrative director determines is necessary to provide medical services to injured employees consistent with the intent of this article, including, but not limited to, a written patient grievance policy.

(f) The provisions of this section shall not affect the confidentiality or admission in evidence of a claimant's medical treatment records.

(g) Charges for services arranged for or provided by health care service plans certified by this section and which are paid on a capitated basis shall not be subject to the schedules adopted by the administrative director pursuant to Section 5307.1.

(h) Nothing in this section shall be construed to expand or constrict any requirements imposed by law on a health care service plan or insurer when operating as other than a health care organization pursuant to this section.

(i) In consultation with interested parties, including the Department of Corporations and the Department of Insurance, the administrative director shall adopt rules necessary to carry out this section.

(j) The administrative director shall refuse to certify or may revoke or suspend the certification of any health care organization under this section if the director finds that:

(1) The plan for providing medical treatment fails to meet the requirements of this section.

(2) A health care service plan licensed by the Department of Corporations, a workers' compensation health care provider organization authorized by the Department of Corporations, or a carrier licensed by the Department of Insurance is not in good standing with its licensing agency.

(3) Services under the plan are not being provided in accordance with the terms of a certified plan.

(k) (1) When an injured employee requests chiropractic treatment for work-related injuries, the health care organization shall provide the injured worker with access to the services of a chiropractor pursuant to guidelines for chiropractic care established by paragraph (2). Within five working days of the employee's request to see a chiropractor, the health care organization and any person or entity who directs the kind or manner of health care services for the plan shall refer an injured employee to an affiliated chiropractor for work-related injuries that are within the guidelines for chiropractic care established by paragraph (2). Chiropractic care rendered in accordance with guidelines for chiropractic care established pursuant to paragraph (2) shall be provided by duly licensed chiropractors affiliated with the plan.

(2) The health care organization shall establish guidelines for chiropractic care in consultation with affiliated chiropractors who are participants in the health care organization's utilization review process for chiropractic care, which may include qualified medical evaluators knowledgeable in the treatment of chiropractic conditions. The guidelines for chiropractic care shall, at a minimum, explicitly require the referral of any injured employee who so requests to an affiliated chiropractor for the evaluation or treatment, or both of neuromusculoskeletal conditions.

(3) Whenever a dispute concerning the appropriateness or necessity of chiropractic care for work-related injuries arises, the dispute shall be resolved by the health care organization's utilization review process for chiropractic care in accordance with the health care organization's guidelines for chiropractic care established by paragraph (2).

Chiropractic utilization review for work-related injuries shall be conducted in accordance with the health care organization's approved quality assurance standards and utilization review process for chiropractic care. Chiropractors affiliated with the plan shall have access to the health care organization's provider appeals process and, in the case of chiropractic care for work-related injuries, the review shall include review by a chiropractor affiliated with the health care organization, as determined by the health care organization.

(4) The health care organization shall inform employees of the procedures for processing and resolving grievances, including those related to chiropractic care, including the location and telephone number where grievances may be submitted.

(5) All guidelines for chiropractic care and utilization review shall be consistent with the standards of this code that require care to cure or relieve the effects of the industrial injury.

(l) Individually identifiable medical information on patients submitted to the division shall not be subject to the Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code).

SEC. 7. Section 4643 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

4643. If the employee unreasonably fails to cooperate in the provision of vocational rehabilitation services, unreasonably fails to cooperate in the development or implementation of a vocational rehabilitation plan, or unreasonably fails to cooperate in completing an approved vocational rehabilitation plan, the employee shall not be entitled to receive that portion of the maintenance allowance payable under paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) of Section 139.5 for the period of unreasonable failure. The employer shall provide the employee with written notice of the employer's intention to withhold payment, the reasons therefor, and the employee's right to object thereto within 10 days of the date the notice was received or served.

If the employee objects to the employer's stated intention to withhold payment, the administrative director shall conduct an expedited conference to determine if the employee is entitled to receive the payments. A copy of the determination shall be served on the employee and employer within 10 days of the employee's objection. The employer shall continue payment of that portion of the maintenance allowance due under paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) of Section 139.5 until receipt of the determination.

SEC. 8. Section 5401 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

5401. (a) Within one working day of receiving notice or knowledge of injury under Section 5400 or 5402, which injury results in lost time beyond the date of injury or which results in medical treatment beyond first aid, the employer shall provide, personally or by first-class mail, a claim form and a notice of potential eligibility for benefits under this division to the injured employee, or in the case of death, to his or her dependents. As used in this subdivision, "first aid" means any one-time treatment of minor scratches, cuts, burns, splinters, or other minor industrial injury. "Minor industrial injury" shall not include serious exposure to a hazardous substance as defined in subdivision (i) of Section 6302. The claim form shall request the injured employee's name and address, social security number, the time and address where the injury occurred, and the nature of and part of the body affected by the injury. The notice shall include a description of the procedures and assistance available to the employee on his or her own behalf, the procedure to be used to commence proceedings for the collection of compensation for the purposes of this chapter, the telephone number of the division's information and assistance services, and a statement that the employee has a right to consult an attorney or information and assistance officer, or both, for assistance. Claims forms shall be available at district offices of the Employment Development Department and the division. Claims forms may be made available to the employee from any other source.

(b) The completed claim form shall be filed with the employer by the injured employee, or, in the case of death, by a dependent of the injured employee, or by an agent of the employee or dependent. Except as provided in subdivision (c), a claim form is deemed filed when it is personally delivered to the employer or received by the employer by first-class or certified mail. A dated copy of the completed form shall be provided by the employer to the employer's insurer and to the employee, dependent, or agent who filed the claim form.

(c) The claim form shall be filed with the employer prior to the injured employee's entitlement to late payment supplements under subdivision (d) of Section 4650, or prior to the injured employee's request for a medical evaluation under Section 4060, 4061, or 4062. Filing of the claim form with the employer shall toll, for injuries occurring on or after January 1, 1994, the time limitations set forth in Sections 5405 and 5406 until the claim is denied by the employer or the injury becomes presumptively compensable pursuant to Section 5402. For purposes of this subdivision, a claim form is deemed filed when it is personally delivered to the employer or mailed to the employer by first-class or certified mail.

SEC. 9. Section 5500 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

5500. No pleadings other than the application and answer shall be required. Both shall be in writing and shall conform to forms prescribed by the appeals board in its rules of practice and procedure, simply but clearly and completely delineating all relevant matters of agreement and all issues of disagreement within the jurisdiction of the appeals board, and providing for the furnishing of any additional information as the appeals board may properly determine necessary to expedite its hearing and determination of the claim.

The amendment of this section made during the 1993 portion of the 1993–94 Regular Session shall apply to all applications filed on or after January 1, 1994.

Notwithstanding Section 5401, except where a claim form has been filed for an injury occurring on or after January 1, 1990, and before January 1, 1994, the filing of an application for adjudication and not the filing of a claim form shall establish the jurisdiction of the appeals board and shall commence proceedings before the appeals board for the collection of benefits.

SEC. 10. Section 5502 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

5502. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (d), the hearing shall be held not less than 10 days, and not more than 60 days, after the date a declaration of readiness to proceed, on a form prescribed by the Workers' Compensation Appeals Board, is filed. Where a claim form has been filed for an injury occurring on or after January 1, 1990, and before January 1, 1994, an application for adjudication shall accompany the declaration of readiness to proceed.

(b) The administrative director shall establish a priority calendar for issues requiring an expedited hearing and decision. A hearing shall be held and a determination as to the rights of the parties shall be made and filed within 30 days after the declaration of readiness to proceed is filed if the issues in dispute are any of the following:

(1) The employee's entitlement to medical treatment pursuant to Section 4600.

(2) The employee's entitlement to, or the amount of, temporary disability indemnity payments.

(3) The employee's entitlement to vocational rehabilitation services, or the termination of an employer's liability to provide these services to an employee.

(4) The employee's entitlement to compensation from one or more responsible employers when two or more employers dispute liability as among themselves.

(5) Any other issues requiring an expedited hearing and determination as prescribed in rules and regulations of the administrative director.

(c) The administrative director shall report quarterly to the Governor and to the Legislature concerning the frequency and types of issues which are not heard and decided within the period prescribed in this section and the reasons therefor.

(d) (1) In all cases, a mandatory settlement conference shall be conducted not less than 10 days, and not more than 30 days, after the filing of a declaration of readiness to proceed. If the dispute is not resolved, the regular hearing shall be held within 75 days after the declaration of readiness to proceed is filed.

(2) The settlement conference shall be conducted by a workers' compensation judge or by a referee who is eligible to be a workers' compensation judge or eligible to be an arbitrator under Section 5270.5. At the mandatory settlement conference, the referee or workers' compensation judge shall have the authority to resolve the dispute, including the authority to approve a compromise and release or issue a stipulated finding and award, and if the dispute cannot be resolved, to frame the issues and stipulations for trial. The appeals board shall adopt any regulations needed to implement this subdivision. The presiding workers' compensation judge shall supervise settlement conference referees in the performance of their judicial functions under this subdivision.

(3) If the claim is not resolved at the mandatory settlement conference, the parties shall file a pretrial conference statement noting the specific issues in dispute, each party's proposed permanent disability rating, and listing the exhibits, and disclosing witnesses. Discovery shall close on the date of the mandatory settlement conference. Evidence not disclosed or obtained thereafter shall not be admissible unless the proponent of the evidence can demonstrate that it was not available or could not have been discovered by the exercise of due diligence prior to the settlement conference.

(e) In cases involving the Director of the Department of Industrial Relations in his or her capacity as administrator of the Uninsured Employers Fund, this section shall not apply unless proof of service, as specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) of Section 3716 has been filed with the appeals board and provided to the Director of Industrial Relations, valid jurisdiction has been established over the employer, and the fund has been joined.

(f) Except as provided in subdivision (a) and in Section 4065, the provisions of this section shall apply irrespective of the date of injury.

CHAPTER 1119

An act to amend Section 2056 of, and to add Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 510) to Chapter 1 of Division 2 of, the Business and Professions Code, relating to healing arts.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 510) is added to Chapter 1 of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code, to read:

Article 1.5. Advocacy for Appropriate Health Care

510. (a) The purpose of this section is to provide protection against retaliation for health care practitioners who advocate for appropriate health care for their patients pursuant to Wickline v. State of California 192 Cal. App. 3d 1630.

(b) It is the public policy of the State of California that a health care practitioner be encouraged to advocate for appropriate health care for his or her patients. For purposes of this section, "to advocate for appropriate health care" means to appeal a payer's decision to deny payment for a service pursuant to the reasonable grievance or appeal procedure established by a medical group, independent practice association, preferred provider organization, foundation, hospital medical staff and governing body, or payer, or to protest a decision, policy, or practice that the health care practitioner, consistent with that degree of learning and skill ordinarily possessed by reputable health care practitioners with the same license or certification and practicing according to the applicable legal standard of care, reasonably believes impairs the health care practitioner's ability to provide appropriate health care to his or her patients.

(c) The application and rendering by any individual, partnership, corporation, or other organization of a decision to terminate an employment or other contractual relationship with or otherwise penalize a health care practitioner principally for advocating for appropriate health care consistent with that degree of learning and skill ordinarily possessed by reputable health care practitioners with the same license or certification and practicing according to the applicable legal standard of care violates the public policy of this state.

(d) This section shall not be construed to prohibit a payer from making a determination not to pay for a particular medical treatment or service, or the services of a type of health care practitioner, or to prohibit a medical group, independent practice association, preferred provider organization, foundation, hospital medical staff, hospital governing body acting pursuant to Section 809.05, or payer from enforcing reasonable peer review or utilization review protocols or determining whether a health care practitioner has complied with those protocols.

(e) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), appropriate health care in a hospital licensed pursuant to Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code shall be defined by the appropriate hospital committee and approved by the hospital medical staff and the governing body, consistent with that degree of learning and skill ordinarily possessed by reputable health care practitioners with the same license or certification and practicing according to the applicable legal standard of care.

(2) To the extent the issue is under the jurisdiction of the medical staff and its committees, appropriate health care in a hospital licensed pursuant to Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code shall be defined by the hospital medical staff and approved by the governing body, consistent with that degree of learning and skill ordinarily possessed by reputable health care practitioners with the same license or certification and practicing according to the applicable legal standard of care.

(f) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the governing body of a hospital from taking disciplinary actions against a health care practitioner as authorized by Sections 809.05, 809.4, and 809.5.

(g) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the appropriate licensing authority from taking disciplinary actions against a health care practitioner.

(h) For purposes of this section, "health care practitioner" means a person who is described in subdivision (f) of Section 900 and who is either (1) a licentiate as defined in Section 805, or (2) a party to a contract with a payer whose decision, policy, or practice is subject to the advocacy described in subdivision (b), or (3) an individual designated in a contract with a payer whose decision, policy, or practice is subject to the advocacy described in subdivision (b), where the individual is granted the right to appeal denials of payment or authorization for treatment under the contract.

(i) Nothing in this section shall be construed to revise or expand the scope of practice of any health care practitioner, or to revise or expand the types of health care practitioners who are authorized to obtain medical staff privileges or to submit claims for reimbursement to payers.

(j) The protections afforded health care practitioners by this section shall be in addition to the protections available under any other law of this state.

SEC. 2. Section 2056 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2056. (a) The purpose of this section is to provide protection against retaliation for physicians who advocate for medically appropriate health care for their patients pursuant to Wickline v. State of California 192 Cal. App. 3d 1630.

(b) It is the public policy of the State of California that a physician and surgeon be encouraged to advocate for medically appropriate health care for his or her patients. For purposes of this section, "to advocate for medically appropriate health care" means to appeal a payor's decision to deny payment for a service pursuant to the reasonable grievance or appeal procedure established by a medical group, independent practice association, preferred provider organization, foundation, hospital medical staff and governing body, or payer, or to protest a decision, policy, or practice that the physician, consistent with that degree of learning and skill ordinarily possessed by reputable physicians practicing according to the applicable legal standard of care, reasonably believes impairs the physician's ability to provide medically appropriate health care to his or her patients.

(c) The application and rendering by any person of a decision to terminate an employment or other contractual relationship with or otherwise penalize a physician and surgeon principally for advocating for medically appropriate health care consistent with that degree of learning and skill ordinarily possessed by reputable physicians practicing according to the applicable legal standard of care violates the public policy of this state.

(d) This section shall not be construed to prohibit a payer from making a determination not to pay for a particular medical treatment or service, or to prohibit a medical group, independent practice association, preferred provider organization, foundation, hospital medical staff, hospital governing body acting pursuant to Section 809.05, or payer from enforcing reasonable peer review or utilization review protocols or determining whether a physician has complied with those protocols.

(e) Medically appropriate health care in a hospital licensed pursuant to Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code shall be defined by the hospital medical staff and approved by the governing body, consistent with that degree of learning and skill ordinarily possessed by reputable physicians practicing according to the applicable legal standard of care.

(f) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the governing body of a hospital from taking disciplinary actions against a physician and surgeon as authorized by Sections 809.05, 809.4, and 809.5.

(g) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the Medical Board of California from taking disciplinary actions against a physician and surgeon under Article 12 (commencing with Section 2220).

(h) For purposes of this section, "person" has the same meaning as set forth in Section 2032.

CHAPTER 1120

An act to amend Sections 3924 and 3940 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to nursing home administrators, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3924 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

3924. (a) Every holder of a nursing home administrator's license shall reregister biennially, on dates specified by the board, by making application for reregistration. In the event that the license of an individual is not reregistered within three years from the date of expiration, and all accrued and unpaid renewal fees and penalty fees required by this chapter are not paid, the license shall lapse and that individual shall again apply for licensing and meet all requirements of this chapter as for a new applicant.

(b) A condition of reregistration shall be the presentation of proof by the licensee that he or she has attended the number of classroom hours of approved continuing educational programs, classes, seminars, or proceedings required by the regulations promulgated by the board, at least 25 percent of which shall be in the area of aging and patient care. The board, at its discretion, may except from continuing education requirements, the licensees who for reasons of health, military service, or other good cause cannot meet those requirements. Each such waiver granted shall be for the current reregistration period only.

(c) A licensee may reregister pursuant to this chapter, although he or she may not currently be actively engaged in nursing home administration.

SEC. 2. Section 3940 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

3940. The fees prescribed by this chapter shall be set by the board in accordance with the following schedule:

(a) The application fee for reviewing an applicant's eligibility to take the examination shall be twenty-five dollars ($25).

(b) The application fee for persons applying for licensure under Section 3925 shall be fifty dollars ($50).

(c) The application fee for the administrator-in-training program shall be not more than one hundred dollars ($100).

(d) The examination fee shall be the actual cost to the board for purchasing, grading, and administering the examination, as established by regulation. The examination fees shall be not more than the following:

(1) Two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for an automated national examination, or one hundred seventy-five dollars ($175) for a written national examination.

(2) One hundred ninety dollars ($190) for an automated state examination or one hundred forty dollars ($140) for a written state examination.

(e) The fee for an initial license shall be not more than one hundred ninety dollars ($190).

(f) The renewal fee for an active license shall be not more than one hundred ninety dollars ($190).

(g) The delinquency fee shall be twenty-five dollars ($25).

(h) The renewal fee for an inactive license shall be not more than one hundred ninety dollars ($190).

(i) The duplicate license fee shall be twenty-five dollars ($25).

(j) The fee for endorsement of credentials to another licensing authority of another state shall be twenty-five dollars ($25).

(k) The preceptor certification fee shall be not more than twenty-five dollars ($25) for each three-year period.

(l) The biennial fee for approval of a continuing education provider shall be not more than one hundred fifty dollars ($150).

(m) The biennial fee for approval of a continuing education course shall be not more than fifteen dollars ($15).

The board shall establish the fees, within the limits prescribed in this section, in the amounts it determines are reasonably necessary to provide sufficient funds to carry out the purpose of this chapter. It is the intent of the board to charge only those fees necessary to implement the board's statutory mandate for licensing and enforcement consistent with Section 128.5. The board shall make every effort to reduce the renewal fee, provided that the reduction shall not impede the board's ability to carry out its statutory duties as set forth in Section 3916.

An act to amend Sections 1570.2 and 1575.2 of, and to repeal Section 1423.5 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to care facilities.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1423.5 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 1570.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1570.2. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that there exists a pattern of overutilization of long-term institutional care for elderly persons, and that there is an urgent need to establish and to continue a community-based system of quality adult day health care which will enable elderly persons to maintain maximum independence. While recognizing that there continues to be a substantial need for facilities providing custodial care, overreliance on this type of care has proven to be a costly panacea in both financial and human terms, often traumatic, and destructive of continuing family relationships and the capacity for independent living.

It is, therefore, the intent of the Legislature in enacting this chapter and related provisions to provide for the development of policies and programs that will accomplish the following:

(a) Assure that elderly persons are not institutionalized inappropriately or prematurely.

(b) Provide a viable alternative to institutionalization for those elderly persons who are capable of living at home with the aid of appropriate health care or rehabilitative and social services.

(c) Establish adult day health centers in the community for this purpose, that will be easily accessible to all participants, including the economically disadvantaged elderly person, and that will provide outpatient health, rehabilitative, and social services necessary to permit the participants to maintain personal independence and lead meaningful lives.

(d) Include the services of adult day health centers as a benefit under the Medi-Cal Act, that shall be an initial and integral part in the development of an overall plan for a coordinated, comprehensive continuum of optional long-term care services based upon appropriate need.

(e) Establish a rural alternative adult day health care program designed to meet the special needs and requirements of rural areas to enable the implementation of subdivisions (a) through (d), inclusive, for all Californians in need of those services.

(f) Ensure that all laws, regulations, and procedures governing adult day health care be enforced equitably regardless of organizational sponsorship and that all program flexibility provisions be administered equitably.

(g) Support the role of the Adult Day Health Care Planning Council in ensuring accountability to the community and approving equitable distribution of adult day health care centers including the definition of service areas.

SEC. 3. Section 1575.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1575.2. An applicant for initial licensure as an adult day health center shall file with the state department, pursuant to its regulations, an application on forms furnished by the department, that shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(a) Evidence satisfactory to the state department that the applicant, its directors, officers, and the person designated to manage the day-to-day affairs of the proposed adult day health center are of reputable and responsible character.

(b) Evidence satisfactory to the state department of the ability of the applicant to comply with the provisions of this chapter and of rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto by the state department.

(c) Any other information as may be required by the state department for the proper administration and enforcement of this chapter.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 1247.6 and 1300 of, and to add and repeal Sections 1247.63, 1247.64, 1247.66, and 1247.95 of, the Business and Professions Code, relating to hemodialysis.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1247.6 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

1247.6. (a) Rather than conduct a training and testing program, a hemodialysis clinic or unit may employ hemodialysis technicians who meet one or more of the following requirements:

(1) Are certified by the department as having been certified by the Board of Nephrology Examination for Nurses and Technicians (BONENT).

(2) Are certified by the department as having completed a department-approved training and testing program in a hemodialysis clinic or unit.

(3) Are certified by the department as being graduates of a local training and testing program operated by an accredited college or accredited university. As used in this article, accredited has the same meaning as defined in subdivision (g) of Section 94302 of the Education Code.

(4) Are certified by the department as hemodialysis technicians on or before the effective date of regulations adopted pursuant to Section 1247.4.

(b) A hemodialysis clinic or unit that conducts a training and testing program pursuant to Section 1247.5 also may employ persons described in subdivision (a).

(c) This article does not apply to home dialysis patients, or patient helpers not employed by the licensed facility, who have undergone a home dialysis training program operated by a licensed clinic or hospital as defined in Sections 1204 and 1250 of the Health and Safety Code and have been certified by the medical director of the facility as being competent to perform home dialysis treatment.

SEC. 2. Section 1247.63 is added to the Business and Professions Code, immediately after Section 1247.6, to read:

1247.63. (a) Certification of a hemodialysis technician issued by the department pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 1247.6 shall be valid for four years.

(b) Those hemodialysis technicians certified by the department or the Board of Nephrology Examination for Nurses and Technicians (BONENT) before January 1, 1995, shall, before January 1, 1996, apply to renew their certification, or in the case of those technicians certified by the Board of Nephrology Examination for Nurses and Technicians (BONENT) obtain department certification, by submitting the fee required by subdivision (n) of Section 1300 and proof of previous certification. The department shall automatically renew the certification of those hemodialysis technicians who were certified before January 1, 1995, and who apply for renewal pursuant to this subdivision.

(c) For renewals occurring on or after January 1, 1996, a hemodialysis technician applying for renewal of his or her certification shall submit proof that he or she has obtained 30 hours of in-service training or continuing education in dialysis care or general health care as a requirement for the renewal of his or her certification.

(d) This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1999, and, as of January 1, 2000, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 2000, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 1247.64 is added to the Business and Professions Code, immediately after Section 1247.63, to read:

1247.64. A hemodialysis technician may obtain the in-service training or continuing education required by subdivision (c) of Section 1247.63 from one or more of the following sources:

(a) Health-related courses offered by accredited postsecondary institutions.

(b) Health-related courses offered by continuing education providers approved by the California Board of Registered Nursing.

(c) Health-related courses offered by recognized health associations if the department determines the courses to be acceptable.

(d) Health-related, employer-sponsored in-service training or continuing education programs.

(e) This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1999, and, as of January 1, 2000, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 2000, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 1247.66 is added to the Business and Professions Code, immediately after Section 1247.64, to read:

1247.66. (a) The department may deny, suspend, or revoke the certification of a hemodialysis technician if it finds that the hemodialysis technician is not in compliance with this article, or any regulations adopted by the department to administer this article.

(b) The department may deny, suspend, or revoke the certification of a hemodialysis technician for any of the following causes:

(1) Unprofessional conduct, which includes incompetence or gross negligence in carrying out his or her usual functions.

(2) Procuring a certificate by fraud, misrepresentation, or mistake.

(3) Making or giving any false statement or information in conjunction with the application for issuance or renewal of a certificate.

(4) Conviction of a crime substantially related to the qualifications, functions, and duties of a hemodialysis technician in which event the record of the conviction shall be conclusive evidence thereof.

(c) In addition to other acts constituting unprofessional conduct within the meaning of this article, all of the following constitute unprofessional conduct:

(1) Conviction for, or use of, any narcotic drug, as defined in Division 10 (commencing with Section 11000) of the Health and Safety Code, or any dangerous drug, as defined in Article 7 (commencing with Section 4211) of Chapter 9, or alcoholic beverages, to an extent or in a manner dangerous or injurious to the hemodialysis technician or any other person, or the public, to the extent that this use impairs the ability to conduct, with safety to the public, the practice of a hemodialysis technician.

(2) Abuse, whether verbal, physical, or mental, of a patient in any setting where health care is being rendered.

(d) Proceedings to deny, suspend, or revoke a certification under this article shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(e) This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1999, and, as of January 1, 2000, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 2000, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 4.5. Section 1247.95 is added to the Business and Professions Code, immediately following Section 1247.9, to read:

1247.95. (a) Certification of hemodialysis technicians shall be subject to the review of the Joint Legislative Sunset Review Committee as described in Division 1.2 (commencing with Section 473).

(b) The department shall submit the report required by Section 473.2, in accordance with the time limits set forth in that section, as if this article were scheduled to become inoperative on July 1, 1999, and would be repealed as of January 1, 2000, as described in Section 473.1.

(c) This section shall only become operative if Senate Bill 2036 is enacted during the 1993-94 Regular Session, adds Division 1.2 (commencing with Section 473), and becomes effective on or before January 1, 1995.

(d) This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1999, and, as of January 1, 2000, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 2000, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 1300 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

1300. The amount of application and license fees under this chapter shall be as follows:

(a) The application fee for a histocompatibility laboratory director's, clinical laboratory bioanalyst's, clinical chemist's, clinical microbiologist's, or clinical laboratory toxicologist's license is thirty-eight dollars ($38). This fee shall be sixty-three dollars ($63) commencing on July 1, 1983.

(b) The annual renewal fee for a histocompatibility laboratory director's, clinical laboratory bioanalyst's, clinical chemist's, clinical microbiologist's, or clinical laboratory toxicologist's license is thirty-eight dollars ($38). This fee shall be sixty-three dollars ($63) commencing on July 1, 1983.

(c) The application fee for a clinical laboratory technologist's or limited technologist's license is twenty-three dollars ($23). This fee shall be thirty-eight dollars ($38) commencing on July 1, 1983.

(d) The application and annual renewal fee for a cytotechnologist's license shall be fifty dollars ($50) commencing on January 1, 1991.

(e) The annual renewal fee for a clinical laboratory technologist's or limited technologist's license is fifteen dollars ($15). This fee shall be twenty-five dollars ($25) commencing on July 1, 1983.

(f) The application fee for a clinical laboratory license is six hundred dollars ($600); provided, however, that when the applicant is the state or any agency or official thereof, or a district, city, county, or city and county, or an official thereof, no fee shall be required.

(g) The annual renewal fee for a clinical laboratory license is five hundred fifty-seven dollars ($557); provided, however, that when the applicant is the state or any agency or official thereof, or a district, city, county, or city and county, or official thereof, no fee shall be required.

(h) In addition, clinical laboratories providing cytology services shall pay an annual fee which shall be set by the department in an amount needed to meet but not exceed the department's costs of proficiency testing and special site surveys for these laboratories, and which shall be based upon the volume of cytologic slides examined by a laboratory. If the amount collected is less than or exceeds the amount needed for these purposes, the amount of fees collected from those laboratories in the following year shall be adjusted accordingly.

(i) The application fee for a trainee's license is eight dollars ($8). This fee shall be thirteen dollars ($13) commencing on July 1, 1983.

(j) The annual renewal fee for a trainee's license is five dollars ($5). This fee shall be eight dollars ($8) commencing on July 1, 1983.

(k) The application fee for a duplicate license is three dollars ($3). This fee shall be five dollars ($5) commencing on July 1, 1983.

(l) The delinquency fee is equal to the annual renewal fee.

(m) The director may establish a fee for examinations required under this chapter. The fee shall not exceed the total cost to the department in conducting the examination.

(n) The certification and renewal fees for hemodialysis technicians certified under subdivision (a) of Section 1247.6 shall be fifty dollars ($50). This subdivision shall become inoperative on July 1, 1999, and shall have no effect after that date.

CHAPTER 1123

An act to amend Section 17537.2 of, to add Section 17538.8 to, and to add and repeal Article 2.6 (commencing with Section 17550) and Article 2.7 (commencing with Section 17550.35) of Chapter 1 of Part 3 of Division 7 of, the Business and Professions Code, relating to travel.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17537.2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

17537.2. The following, when used as part of an advertising plan or program defined in Section 17537.1, are deceptive and constitute unfair trade practices:

(a) When, in order to utilize the incentive, the recipient is requested to pay any money to any person or entity named or referred to in the offer, or to purchase, rent, or otherwise pay that person or entity for any product or service including a deposit, whether returnable or not, whether payment is for an item, a service, shipping, handling, insurance or payment for anything.

Notwithstanding the preceding paragraph, when the offered incentive is a certificate or coupon redeemable for transportation, accommodations, recreation, vacation, entertainment, or like services, the offer may place a condition on the use of the incentive which requires the recipient to pay directly to the transportation company, the accommodation, recreation, vacation or entertainment facility, or similar direct provider of like services, a refundable deposit, not to exceed fifty dollars ($50), to reserve space availability or admission, only if the deposit shall be returned in United States dollars immediately upon the recipient's arrival at the location of the provider to whom the recipient paid the deposit. If the incentive is such a certificate or coupon, and if government-imposed taxes directly related to the service being provided are not included in the incentive, the offer itself, in close proximity to the description of the incentive which is evidenced by the certificate or coupon, shall disclose those government-imposed taxes which will be the recipient's responsibility and the approximate dollar amount of those taxes. A deposit from the recipient may be collected to cover the cost of those government-imposed taxes.

(b) Stating or implying in the offer that the recipient is one of a selected group to receive a particular incentive or one or more of a group of incentives, without clearly and conspicuously disclosing in close proximity to the statement or implied statement of selection the total number of persons in that select group or the odds of receiving the incentive or incentives. Statements of selection which require such disclosure include such phrases as "you are a finalist," "we are sending this to a limited number of people," "either you or another named person has won the major prize," "if you do not respond, your incentive will be given to someone else."

(c) Stating or implying in the offer that the recipient is likely to receive one or more of the offered incentives because other named people have already received other named incentives, unless the offer clearly and conspicuously discloses in close proximity to the statement the recipient's odds of receiving the identified incentive.

(d) When the solicitation states or implies that the recipient is likely to receive an incentive which has a normal retail price which is higher than that of another named incentive unless that statement is true. For purposes of this section, a list of incentives implies that the incentives are in descending or ascending order of value unless the solicitation clearly and conspicuously negates the implication in close proximity to the list.

(e) Describing an incentive or incentives in an untrue or misleading manner. Untrue or misleading descriptions include those which imply that the incentive being offered is of greater fair market value or of a different kind or nature than a recipient would be led to believe from a reasonable reading of the offer, or which lists the recipient's name in close proximity to a specific incentive unless the offer clearly and conspicuously discloses immediately next to or immediately under or above the recipient's name the recipient's odds of receiving the specific incentive.

(f) Subdivision (a) shall not apply to an incentive constituting an opportunity to stay at a hotel or other resort accommodations at a discount from the standard rate for the hotel or resort accommodations, if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The fee to utilize the incentive and the requirement, if any, to attend a sales presentation are clearly and conspicuously disclosed in close proximity to the description of the offered incentive.

(2) A statement appears in close proximity to the description of the offered incentive and in substantially the following form: The recipient is responsible for payment of any government-imposed taxes directly related to the service being provided and any personal expenses incurred when utilizing this offer.

(3) The accommodations to be occupied by the recipient of the incentive are within a 20-mile radius of the property on which the accommodations offered for sale are located or, if not within that radius, the accommodations offered for sale are managed and operated by the same person as, an affiliate (as defined in Section 150 of the Corporations Code) of, or a franchisee (as defined in Section 20002) of, the manager and operator of the accommodations to be occupied, and the manager and operator of the accommodations offered for sale or the manager and operator of the accommodations to be occupied is an issuer or subsidiary of an issuer that has a security listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. and the exchange or interdealer quotation system has been certified by rule or order of the Commissioner of Corporations under subdivision (o) of Section 25100 of the Corporations Code. A subsidiary of an issuer that qualifies under this paragraph does not itself qualify under this paragraph unless not less than 60 percent of the voting power of its shares is owned by the qualifying issuer or issuers.

(4) If the incentive is offered in conjunction with any additional incentive or incentives or as one or more of a group of incentives, the offer of such additional incentive or incentives shall comply with Section 17537.1 and the following:

(A) The additional incentive or incentives are typically and customarily included in a vacation package and may include, but not be limited to, transportation, dining, entertainment, or recreation.

(B) The fee and additional requirements, if any, to use the additional incentive or incentives are clearly and conspicuously disclosed in close proximity to the description of the offer of them.

SEC. 1.5. Section 17538.8 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

17538.8. Any advertisement that offers free or discounted transportation or certificates to obtain transportation and that requires the consumer to purchase accommodations through or from a particular source, or any advertisement that offers free or discounted accommodations or certificates to obtain accommodations and that requires the consumer to purchase transportation through or from a particular source, shall set forth in close proximity to each reference to free or discounted transportation or accommodations, in a size and prominence no less than the largest print in the reference, the total price that shall be paid by the consumer for the combination of transportation and accommodations. If the advertisement is oral, the total price shall immediately precede or follow each description of the free or discounted transportation or accommodations.

SEC. 2. Article 2.6 (commencing with Section 17550) is added to Chapter 1 of Part 3 of Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code, to read:

Article 2.6. Sellers of Travel

17550. The Legislature finds and declares that certain advertising, sales, and business practices of sellers of travel have worked financial hardship upon the people of this state; that the travel business has a significant impact upon the economy and well-being of this state and its people; that problems have arisen that are peculiar to sellers of travel business; and that the public welfare requires regulation of sellers of travel in order to eliminate unfair advertising, sales, and business practices; to establish standards that will safeguard the people against financial hardship; to encourage competition, fair dealing, and prosperity in the travel business; and to provide certain and reliable funding for the seller of travel registration program and enforcement by the office of the Attorney General of this article.

It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this article that the Department of Justice, to the extent that resources are available, work together with representatives of the affected business community to develop sample forms that will, to the maximum extent possible, enable sellers of travel to comply with the requirement to provide to persons making payment the information required by subdivision (c) and subdivisions (e) to (l), inclusive, of Section 17550.13, in a manner that is simplified, efficient, and nonduplicative, and in a manner that recognizes the particular burdens and situations that may exist for small sellers of travel in their efforts to comply with the provisions of that section.

17550.1. "Seller of travel" means a person who sells, provides, furnishes, contracts for, arranges, or advertises that he or she can or may arrange, or has arranged, wholesale or retail air or sea transportation either separately or in conjunction with other travel services. Seller of travel does not include: (a) an air carrier, (b) an ocean carrier, (c) a hotel, motel, or similar lodging establishment where in the course of selling, providing, furnishing, contracting for, or arranging transient lodging accommodations and related services for its registered guests, it (1) also arranges for transportation, and (2) does not directly or indirectly receive any money or other valuable consideration for arranging or providing that transportation, or (d) any person or organization certified under Part 5 (commencing with Section 12140) of Division 2 of the Insurance Code, except such a person or organization shall comply with the registration and fee provisions of Sections 17550.20 and 17550.21 for each location at which air or sea transportation is sold either separately or in conjunction with other travel services.

17550.2. "Advertise" means to make any representation in the solicitation of air or sea transportation, and includes communication with other members of the same partnership, corporation, joint venture, association, organization, group, or other entity.

17550.3. "Passenger" is a person on whose behalf money or other consideration has been given or is to be given to another, including another member of the same partnership, corporation, joint venture, association, organization, group, or other entity, for travel by air or sea.

17550.4. An air carrier is a transporter by air of persons that operates under a certificate of convenience and necessity issued by the United States Department of Transportation.

17550.5. "Ticket or voucher" means a writing that is itself good and sufficient to obtain the entire air or ocean transportation, or travel services, for which the passenger has contracted.

17550.7. "Participant in the Travel Consumer Restitution Fund" is a registered seller of travel with its principal place of business in California, who does business with persons located in California, or is a registered seller of travel that does business in California, from one or more locations in California, and that meets the requirements of paragraph (16) of subdivision (e) of Section 17511.1.

17550.8. "Provider" means the person or entity who actually provides any transportation or travel services.

17550.9. "Travel services" includes, but is not limited to, lodging, transfers, tours, car rental, or other travel-related services, however denominated, including, but not limited to, travel certificates, registration fees, and processing fees. "Travel services" does not include travel services rendered by providers of lodging such as a hotel, motel, or similar lodging establishment where the provider of lodging supplies only that service.

17550.10. "Travel certificate" means a writing that represents the holder is entitled to air or sea transportation or lodging, to a discount or reduced price for that transportation or lodging, or to purchase that transportation or lodging from a specified source, whether or not the holder is required to pay additional money or fulfill any requirements in order to utilize the certificate.

17550.11. (a) "Adequate bond" means a bond executed by an admitted surety insurer in an amount at all times no less than at least equal to the amount required to be held in a trust account pursuant to Section 17550.15 by any seller of travel in conjunction with such transportation, for the benefit of every passenger who sustains a monetary loss as a result of any violation of this article by a seller of travel or any failure by a seller of travel or by any official, agent, or employee of the seller of travel acting in the course or scope of his or her employment or agency. A seller of travel filing the bond shall maintain the bond in force in the proper amount as a condition of continuing to engage in business. The admitted surety insurer issuing the bond shall provide 30 days' written notice prior to cancellation or termination of the bond to the seller of travel filing the bond and the office of the Attorney General, Consumer Law Section. Cancellation of the bond shall not limit or exonerate the surety insurer from claims against the bond arising during the period it was in force.

(b) No passenger may recover upon the bond a sum greater than that which the passenger paid to the seller of travel, provided that this limitation shall not restrict a passenger from recovering sums greater than those paid to the seller of travel from sources other than the bond.

17550.12. A seller of travel shall not advertise that air or sea transportation is or may be available unless he or she has, prior to the advertisement, contracted for the transportation advertised with the air carrier or sea carrier.

17550.13. A seller of travel shall not receive any money or other valuable consideration in payment for air or sea transportation or other travel services offered by the seller of travel in conjunction with that transportation unless at the time of the receipt the seller of travel furnishes to the person making that payment written materials conspicuously setting forth the following information:

(a) The name and business address and telephone number of the seller of travel.

(b) The amount paid, the date of the payment, the purpose of the payment made, and an itemized statement of the balance due, if any.

(c) The name of the provider with whom the seller of travel has contracted to provide the transportation, and the date, time, and place of each departure, or the circumstances under which the date, time, and place of departure will be determined.

(d) The conditions, if any, upon which the contract between the seller of travel and the provider of transportation may be canceled, and the rights and obligations of all parties in the event of cancellation. Sellers of travel are not required to disclose air carrier's standard contract of carriage conditions. There is no violation of this subdivision if (1) compliance was rendered impossible as a direct result of an unforeseen condition beyond the control of the seller of travel and (2) if the seller of travel obtains from each passenger written acknowledgment of receiving, prior to taking any payment, a clear and conspicuous disclosure that the provider of transportation has not provided to the seller of travel the conditions, if any, upon which the transportation may be canceled and the rights and obligations of all parties in the event of any cancellation.

(e) The conditions, if any, upon which the contract between the seller of travel and the passenger may be canceled, and the rights and obligations of all parties in the event of cancellation.

(f) A clear and conspicuous statement that upon cancellation of the transportation or travel services, where the passenger is not at fault and has not canceled in violation of the terms and conditions, if any, of the contract for transportation or travel services, all sums paid to the seller of travel for services not performed in accordance with the contract between the seller of travel and the passenger will be, unless the passenger otherwise advises the seller of travel in writing, promptly refunded by the seller of travel to the passenger or the party who contracted for the passenger.

(g) If the seller of travel is required by this article to have a trust account or bond, a clear and conspicuous disclosure of the existence of the trust account or of the issuer and amount of the bond.

(h) If the seller of travel is a participant in the Travel Consumer Restitution Fund, a clear and conspicuous notice of the passenger's right to make a claim on that fund. The notice shall include a description of the losses covered, the method for making a claim, the time limit within which the claim shall be made, and the amount which may be claimed.

(i) If the seller of travel is a participant in a Consumer Protection Deposit Plan that meets the criteria set forth in subdivision (b) of Section 17550.16, a clear and conspicuous notice of the passenger's right to make a claim on the plan. That notice shall include a description of the losses covered, the method for making a claim, the time limit within which the claim shall be made, and the amount which may be claimed.

(j) If the seller of travel is a participant in a Consumer Protection Escrow Plan that meets the criteria set forth in subdivision (c) of Section 17550.16, a clear and conspicuous notice of the passenger's right to make a claim on the plan. That notice shall include a description of the losses covered, the method for making a claim, the time limit within which the claim shall be made, and the amount that may be claimed.

(k) If the seller of travel is not a participant, a clear and conspicuous disclosure that the seller of travel is not a participant in the Travel Consumer Restitution Fund. That disclosure shall be made both orally and in writing.

(l) If the seller of travel has its principal place of business in California and the passenger is located outside California, a clear and conspicuous disclosure that the transaction is not covered by the Travel Consumer Restitution Fund. That disclosure shall be made both orally and in writing.

17550.14. (a) In the event the transportation or travel services contracted for is not provided by a seller of travel and unless the passenger otherwise advises the seller of travel in writing, the seller of travel shall promptly return to the passenger all moneys paid for services not performed and goods not delivered in accordance with the contract. Where the seller of travel has dispersed the passenger's funds pursuant to paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) of subdivision (c) of Section 17550.15, the seller of travel may instead provide to the passenger a written statement accompanied by bank records establishing that the passenger's funds were dispersed as required by those provisions. A seller of travel who is exempt from the requirements of Section 17550.15 pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 17550.16 and who has disbursed the passenger's funds pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 17550.16 may comply with this subdivision by maintaining and providing to the passenger a copy of the current, approved registration of the seller of travel to whom the funds were disbursed, which registration shall note that the registered seller of travel either has a trust account in compliance with Section 17550.15, or is exempt from the requirements of Section 17550.15 pursuant to subdivision (b) or (c) of Section 17550.16.

(b) Any material misrepresentation shall be deemed to be a violation of this article and cancellation necessitating the refund as required by subdivision (a).

17550.15. (a) This section applies to a seller of travel as defined in Section 17550.1.

(b) The seller of travel shall deposit directly into a trust account in a federally insured bank, savings and loan association, or credit union 100 percent of all sums received from any person or entity, including, but not limited to, those payments made in cash, by credit card, or any other method of payment, for air or sea transportation for any person, or for any other travel services offered by the seller of travel in conjunction with that transportation, and any refunds made by carriers or providers of travel services. This subdivision does not require that a seller of travel establish a separate trust account for each transaction.

(c) The seller of travel shall not in any manner encumber the corpus of the trust account and shall not withdraw money therefrom except as follows:

(1) In partial or full payment to the carrier for transportation, or to the provider of travel services, for the services or transportation contracted for by the passenger.

(2) In partial or full payment to the carrier or provider of travel services if payment is made by wire transfer directly to an account of the Airlines Reporting Corporation, or by check or draft paid to the Airlines Reporting Corporation for the transportation or services contracted for by the passenger.

(3) Upon delivery of all tickets or vouchers necessary for the passenger to obtain from the carrier or provider of travel services the transportation or services contracted for by the passenger, at which time the seller of travel may withdraw the portion of the sum paid by the passenger that is due the seller of travel from the transportation provider or provider of travel services that issued the tickets or vouchers, as compensation for sale of the transportation or travel services to that passenger. Tickets or vouchers shall be deemed delivered if personally delivered, turned over to an independent third-party delivery service for regular delivery to the passenger at the address designated by the passenger on the next business day, or deposited in the United States mail with first-class postage prepaid.

(4) Upon full payment to the provider of transportation or travel services, to the trust account identified in the registration of the seller of travel to whom the funds are paid, or to a registered seller of travel whose registration states that the registered seller of travel is exempt pursuant to subdivision (b) or (c) of Section 17550.16 from the requirements of this section, of the total amount that is required by the provider of transportation or travel services or registered seller of travel in order to provide the transportation or services contracted for by the passenger, at which time the seller of travel may withdraw the portion of the sum paid by the passenger which is due the seller of travel from the transportation provider or provider of travel services to which full payment was made, as compensation for sale of the transportation or travel services to that

(5) To make refunds to the passenger.

(d) Subdivision (c) shall not prevent payment of the interest earned on the trust account to the seller of travel.

(e) The seller of travel shall serve as trustee of the trust accounts required by this article. If the person is an individual, or managing partner or partners, or the chief executive officer of the corporation, they shall be the trustee. The trustee may designate in writing that an officer or employee may manage the trust account if that officer or employee is under the trustee's supervision and control, and the original of that writing is on file with the Attorney General's office.

(f) (1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, all trust accounts required by this article shall be maintained at a branch of a federally insured bank, savings and loan association, or credit union.

(2) The seller of travel shall file with the Attorney General an irrevocable agreement in writing allowing the Attorney General, a district attorney, or their representatives, upon written request, to examine and obtain copies of all records related to the trust account wherever those records may be, including, but not limited to, those records maintained by the financial institution where the trust account is maintained. The statement shall indicate that the authorization remains in effect as long as the financial institution or other custodian of records retains records concerning the accounts.

(g) Every seller of travel has a fiduciary responsibility with respect to all sums received for transportation or travel services.

(h) The following are deemed to be held in trust for passengers:

(1) All sums received by the seller of travel for transportation or travel services whether or not required to be deposited in an actual trust account and regardless of whether any of these sums were required to be deposited or actually were deposited in a trust account.

(2) All property with which any of the sums described in paragraph (1) has been commingled if any of these sums cannot be identified because of the commingling.

(i) Upon any judicially ordered distribution of any money or property required to be held in trust and after all expenses of distribution approved by the court have been paid, every passenger has a claim on the trust for payments made for transportation and other travel services not provided. Unless a passenger can identify his or her funds in the trust within the time established by the court, each passenger shall receive a proportional share based on the amount paid.

(j) The seller of travel is not required to comply with the direct deposit requirement set forth in subdivision (b) if all of the following apply:

(1) The payment is made by credit card.

(2) The seller of travel does not deposit, negotiate, or factor the credit card charge or otherwise seek or obtain payment of the credit card charge or the crediting of the amount of the credit card charge to any account over which the seller of travel has any control.

(3) (A) If the charge includes transportation, the carrier that is to provide the transportation processes the credit card charge.

(B) If the charge is only for services, the provider of services processes the credit card charge.

(k) In lieu of the trust account required by this article, an adequate bond as set forth in Section 17550.11 may be maintained by the seller of travel. Prior to the advertisement of transportation or services, or both, by the seller of travel, the seller of travel shall file a copy of that bond with the Attorney General.

17550.16. (a) A seller of travel is exempt from the requirements of Section 17550.15 for all transactions in which the seller of travel is in compliance with paragraphs (1) to (6), inclusive, or with paragraph (7).

(1) The seller of travel sells, provides, furnishes, contracts for, or arranges air or sea transportation in transactions with persons in California, only from locations in California, and the air or sea transportation or travel services are to be furnished by (A) a registered seller of travel that is in compliance with this article and Article 2.7 (commencing with Section 17550.35) or (B) an air or sea carrier.

(2) The seller of travel forwards the passenger's funds, without offsetting or reducing the amount forwarded by any amounts due or claimed in connection with any other transaction, to (A) the provider of the transportation or travel services; (B) the Airlines Reporting Corporation; (C) the trust account identified in the registration of the seller of travel to whom the funds are forwarded; or (D) a registered seller of travel whose registration states that the registered seller is exempt pursuant to subdivision (b) or (c) from the requirements of Section 17550.15; and the seller of travel who forwards funds pursuant to subparagraph (C) or (D) obtains and keeps a copy of the registration referred to in subparagraph (C) or (D).

(3) The seller of travel is an officially appointed agent in good standing of the Airlines Reporting Corporation; and the air transportation, if any, is sold to the passenger pursuant to that agency appointment.

(4) The seller of travel has been in business under the same ownership for a period of three years, unless acquired or formed by a registered seller of travel that has been in business under the same ownership for a period of three years. For the purposes of this paragraph, the following shall not constitute a change in ownership:

(A) Any structural change involving a change in the type of entity, such as from a corporation to a partnership, and not involving the addition of any new, underlying ownership interest.

(B) The deletion of any owner or ownership interest.

(5) The seller of travel sells only at retail directly to the general public and not through any other seller of travel air or sea transportation and travel services to be furnished by other, unrelated providers.

(6) The seller of travel is in compliance with the requirements of Section 17550.20 and Article 2.7 (commencing with Section 17550.35). Any seller of travel seeking to qualify for this exemption shall provide all information necessary for the Attorney General or his or her delegate to determine that the seller of travel meets the criteria set forth in paragraphs (1) to (6), inclusive.

(7) A seller of travel in a transaction where the air or sea transportation or travel services are furnished by a business entity that (A) is located and providing transportation or travel services outside of the United States and (B) is not in compliance with the provisions of this article, is exempt from the requirements of Section 17550.15 for that transaction if the seller of travel obtains each passenger's written acknowledgment of receiving, prior to making any payment, a clear, conspicuous, and complete written disclosure that the provider of transportation or travel services is not in compliance with the Seller of Travel Law and the transaction is not covered by the Travel Consumer Restitution Fund, and of the attendant risks and consequences thereof.

(8) If the Attorney General or his or her delegate finds pursuant to Section 17550.52 that Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation has failed or ceased to operate, a seller of travel who was a participant in the Travel Consumer Restitution Fund shall no longer be exempt from compliance with the requirements of Section 17550.15 and 17550.17.

If Article 2.7 (commencing with Section 17550.35) should cease to operate for any reason, including, but not limited to, repeal pursuant to Section 17550.59, no seller of travel shall be exempt from compliance with the requirements of Sections 17550.15 and 17550.17 unless in compliance with subdivision (b) or (c).

(b) A seller of travel who is a participant, with respect to all sales of air or sea transportation and travel services, in a Consumer Protection Deposit Plan that meets the criteria of paragraphs (1) to (3), inclusive, and who complies with paragraph (4) need not comply with Section 17550.15.

(1) The plan is operated and administered by an entity who demonstrates to the satisfaction of the Attorney General or his or her delegate that the operating and administering entity is competent and reliable, and that the plan will achieve fully the purposes and objectives of this article. Each approved plan shall include provisions requiring that each participating seller of travel (A) has been engaged in business as a seller of travel in the United States under the same ownership for not less than three years, unless acquired or formed by a seller of travel already participating and in good standing in the plan, and (B) has deposited with the administrator of the plan a minimum of one million dollars ($1,000,000) in security in the form of a bond, letter of credit, or certificate of deposit, which security shall be (i) in favor solely of the plan; (ii) held by the plan pursuant to the terms of the plan; (iii) used solely to refund passenger payments or deposits or to complete tours; and (iv) payable solely in the event that (I) the seller of travel fails to refund passenger payments or deposits due as a result of the bankruptcy, insolvency, or cessation of operations of the seller of travel or after the cancellation or material failure by the seller of travel to complete performance of the passenger's transportation or travel services, or (II) the seller of travel fails to replace the security with another meeting the criteria set forth in subparagraph (B) no later than 30 days prior to its expiration.

(2) Claims filed against the Consumer Protection Deposit Plan are decided within 45 days of receipt and paid within 30 days of decision.

(3) The Consumer Protection Deposit Plan has been reviewed and approved in writing by the Attorney General or his or her delegate as meeting the criteria set forth above, including a finding that the plan will effectuate the purposes of this article. Should the approved plan cease to provide the consumer protections set forth in paragraph (1), the Attorney General or his or her delegate shall revoke his or her approval forthwith. Upon that revocation, the seller of travel shall no longer be exempt from compliance with the requirements of Sections 17550.15 and 17550.17.

(4) Any participant in a Consumer Protection Deposit Plan seeking to qualify for this exemption shall provide all information necessary for the Attorney General or his or her delegate to determine (A) that the Consumer Protection Deposit Plan in which the seller of travel is a participant meets the criteria set forth in paragraphs (1), (2), and (3), (B) that the seller of travel is a participant in full compliance with the terms and conditions of an approved consumer protection deposit plan, and (C) provide a written agreement from the authorized representative of the Consumer Protection Deposit Plan in which the plan administrator agrees to give the office of the Attorney General, Consumer Law Section immediate written and telephonic notice in the event of termination of the seller of travel's participation in the plan.

(c) A seller of travel who utilizes for all transactions a Consumer Protection Escrow Plan which meets the criteria of paragraphs (1) to (6), inclusive, and who complies with paragraph (7) is exempt from the requirements of Section 17550.15.

(1) The plan is operated and administered as escrow holder by a federally insured bank that demonstrates to the Attorney General or his or her delegate that the manner in which it will administer the plan will be consistent with the purposes of this article. Each approved escrow plan shall include provisions requiring that all air tickets sold by participants in the plan be issued through the Airlines Reporting Corporation.

(2) All funds delivered to the escrow holder, by cash, check, charge card, or otherwise, are held and disbursed by the escrow holder for the benefit of, and to protect the interests of, the passenger.

(3) All funds are separately accounted for by booking number and passenger name.

(4) Claims filed against the escrow plan are decided within 45 days of receipt and paid within 30 days of decision.

(5) All passenger funds are to be delivered to the escrow holder as required by Section 17550.15.

(6) The Consumer Protection Escrow Plan has been reviewed and approved in writing by the Attorney General or his or her delegate as meeting the criteria set forth herein, including a finding that the plan will effectuate the purposes and objectives of this article. Should the approved plan cease to provide the consumer protections set forth in paragraphs (1) to (5), inclusive, the Attorney General or his or her delegate shall revoke his or her approval of the plan forthwith. Upon that revocation, the seller of travel shall no longer be exempt from compliance with the requirements of Sections 17550.15 and 17550.17.

(7) Any participant in a consumer protection plan seeking to qualify for this exemption shall provide all information necessary for the Attorney General or his or her delegate to determine (A) that the Consumer Protection Escrow Plan in which the seller of travel is a participant meets the criteria set forth in paragraphs (1) to (6), inclusive, (B) that the seller of travel is a participant in full compliance with the terms and conditions of an approved consumer protection escrow plan, and (C) provide a written agreement from the authorized representative of the Consumer Protection Escrow Plan in which the plan administrator agrees to give the office of the Attorney General, Consumer Law Section, immediate written and telephonic notice in the event of termination of the seller of travel's participation in the plan.

17550.17. (a) This section does not apply to sellers of travel who are exempt from the requirements of Section 17550.15 pursuant to Section 17550.16.

(b) Upon payment in full by the passenger for air or sea transportation and any related services with a credit card or with cash, the seller of travel shall issue and deliver the ticket or voucher to the passenger or his or her designated agent within 72 hours.

(c) Upon payment in full by the passenger for air or sea transportation and any related services with a check, the seller of travel shall issue and deliver the ticket or voucher to the passenger or his or her designated agent within 72 hours of the earlier of the following:

(1) The time the passenger's payment is credited to the seller of travel's account.

(2) The expiration of the maximum hold period specified in Section 10.190405 of Title 10 of the California Code of Regulations.

(d) Tickets, vouchers, or receipts shall be deemed to have been delivered if they have been turned over to an independent third-party delivery service or the United States Postal Service for regular delivery.

(e) Where the seller of travel is unable to issue tickets or vouchers upon payment as set forth in subdivisions (b) and (c), the seller of travel may comply with this section by either: (1) forwarding to the air or sea carrier, or provider of travel services the portion of the sum paid by the passenger that is required by the air or sea carrier or provider of travel services from the seller of travel in order to provide the transportation or services purchased by that passenger; the seller of travel may not offset or reduce the amount forwarded by any amounts due or claimed in connection with any other transaction, or (2) complying with Sections 17550.13, 17550.14, and 17550.15.

(f) There is no violation of this section if (1) compliance with this section was rendered impossible as a direct result of an unforeseen condition beyond the control of the seller of travel, and, (2) the seller of travel complied with this section or made restitution to the passenger within 30 days after the transportation or travel services contracted for by the passenger were not provided.

(g) For purposes of this section, "72 hours" means three business days as defined in Section 9 of the Civil Code.

17550.18. (a) If any provision of this article or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the article which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this article are severable.

(b) In a criminal action, a seller of travel has the burden of producing evidence to establish any exception to the provisions of this chapter; and in a civil action, a seller of travel has the burden of proof to establish any exception to the provisions of this chapter.

(c) Any action or proceeding to attack, review, set aside, void, change, or annul any decision, determination, or finding of the Attorney General or his or her delegate pursuant to Article 2.6 (commencing with Section 17550) or Article 2.7 (commencing with Section 17550.35) shall be in accordance with the provisions of Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

In such action or proceeding, the inquiry shall extend only to whether there was a prejudicial abuse of discretion. Abuse of discretion shall be found by the court only if the decision, determination, or finding was not supported by substantial evidence in light of the entire written record before the Attorney General or his or her delegate at the time the decision, determination, or finding was made. The record before the court shall be the same written record upon which the Attorney General or his or her delegate acted.

17550.19. In addition to any civil penalties provided in this division, violation of this article is punishable as follows:

(a) As a misdemeanor by a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000), by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year, or by both that fine and imprisonment for each violation.

(b) In addition, any violation of Section 17550.14 where money or real or personal property received or obtained by a seller of travel for transportation or travel services from any and all persons aggregates one thousand dollars ($1,000) or more in any consecutive 12-month period, or the payment or payments by or on behalf of any one passenger exceeds in the aggregate four hundred dollars ($400) in any 12-month period, is punishable either as a misdemeanor or as a felony by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years, by a fine of not more than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), or by both that fine and imprisonment for each violation.

(c) In addition, any intentional use for any purpose of a false seller of travel registration number, with intent to defraud, by an unregistered seller of travel is punishable as a misdemeanor or felony as provided in this section.

(d) Any violation of Section 17550.15 shall be a misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in this section. Every act in violation of Section 17550.15 may be prosecuted as a separate and distinct violation and consecutive sentences may be imposed for each violation.

(e) Sellers of travel shall also comply with Sections 17537, 17537.1, and 17537.2 of the Business and Professions Code and all other applicable laws. This section shall not be construed to preclude the applicability of any other provision of the criminal law of this state that applies or may apply to any transaction.

17550.20. (a) Not less than 10 days prior to doing business in this state, a seller of travel shall register with the office of the Attorney General by filing with the Consumer Law Section the information required by Section 17550.21 and a filing fee of one hundred dollars ($100) for each location from which the seller of travel conducts business. A late fee of five dollars ($5) per day, up to a maximum of five hundred dollars ($500), shall be paid for each day after the time specified by this section until the filing fee and the information required by Section 17550.21 are received. No registration shall be issued or approved until the late fee has been paid. A seller of travel shall be deemed to do business in this state if the seller of travel solicits business from locations in this state or solicits prospective purchasers who are located in this state.

(b) Registration shall be valid for one year from the effective date thereof shown on the registration issued by the office of the Attorney General and may be annually renewed by making the filing required by Section 17550.21 and paying a filing fee of one hundred dollars ($100) for each location from which the seller of travel conducts business. A late fee of five dollars ($5) per day, up to a maximum of five hundred dollars ($500), shall be paid for each day after the time specified by this section until the filing fee and the information required by Section 17550.21 are received. No registration shall be renewed until the late fee has been paid.

(c) Whenever, prior to expiration of a seller of travel's annual registration, there is a material change in the information required by Section 17550.21, the seller of travel shall, within 10 days, file an addendum updating the information with the Consumer Law Section of the office of the Attorney General.

(d) The office of the Attorney General shall suspend the registration of any seller of travel who (1) fails to make any payment required pursuant to Article 2.7 (commencing with Section 17550.35) or (2) submits a check in payment of a registration fee or late fee required by this section that is not honored by the institution on which it is drawn. The registration of the seller of travel shall be suspended until all such payments due have been collected.

(e) The Attorney General may, at his or her discretion and subject to supervision by the Attorney General or his or her delegate, contract out all or any part of the processing of registrations required by this section.

(f) This section does not apply to an individual, natural person who meets all of the following conditions:

(1) Has a written contract with a registered seller of travel to act on that registered seller of travel's behalf in offering or selling air or sea transportation and other travel goods or services in connection with the transportation.

(2) Acts only on behalf of a registered seller of travel with whom the person has a written contract in the offer or sale to a passenger of air or sea transportation and other goods or services in connection with the transportation and sells no other air or sea transportation or travel services to that passenger.

(3) Provides air or sea transportation or travel services that are offered or sold pursuant to the official agency appointment of the registered seller of travel with whom the person has a written contract.

(4) Does not receive any consideration for air or sea transportation or other travel services from the passenger.

(5) Requires the passenger to pay all consideration for air or sea transportation or other travel services directly to the air carrier or ocean carrier or to the registered seller of travel.

17550.21. Each filing pursuant to Section 17550.20 shall contain the following information:

(a) The name or names of the seller of travel, including the name under which the seller of travel is doing or intends to do business, if different from the name of the seller of travel.

(b) The seller of travel's business form and place of organization and, if operating under a fictitious business name, the location where the fictitious name has been registered.

(c) The complete street address or addresses of all locations from which the seller of travel will be conducting business, including, but not limited to, locations at which telephone calls will be received from, or made to, passengers or other sellers of travel. The statement shall designate which location is the principal place of business.

(d) The complete business and residential address, the business telephone number, the driver's license number and state of issuance or equivalent personal identification, and the date of birth of each owner and principal of the seller of travel. "Owner" means a person who owns or controls 10 percent or more of the equity of, or otherwise has claim to 10 percent or more of the net income of, a seller of travel. "Principal" means an owner, an officer of a corporation, a general partner of a partnership, or a sole proprietor of a sole proprietorship.

(e) A statement as to whether any owner or principal has had entered against him or her any judgment, including a stipulated judgment, order, made a plea of nolo contendere, or been convicted of any criminal violation. The statement shall identify the person, the court or administrative agency rendering the judgment, order, or conviction, the docket number of the matter, and the date of the judgment, order, or conviction, and where the judgment, order, or record of conviction is filed. This subdivision does not require disclosure of marital dissolution, child support, or child custody proceedings.

(f) A copy of the travel certificates, if any, that are or will be sold, marketed, or distributed to any person or entity by the seller of travel.

(g) The seller of travel shall file with the Attorney General a signed and dated statement indicating (1) the account number of each trust account required by this article, (2) the name and address of each financial institution at which the seller of travel maintains a trust account required by this article, (3) any registration number issued to the seller of travel by the Airline Reporting Corporation or the International Association of Travel Agents Network, and (4) a consent form consenting to the Attorney General, a district attorney, or their representatives obtaining directly from the Airlines Reporting Corporation, International Association of Travel Agents Network, a seller of transportation, provider of transportation, or provider of travel services any information related to an investigation of a seller of travel's compliance with this section. The consent form shall be provided by the Attorney General. If a bond is maintained in lieu of the trust account, a copy of that bond shall be filed with the Attorney General.

(h) A statement signed by each owner and principal granting permission to the office of the Attorney General to obtain from any financial institution or credit union at which any trust account required by Section 17550.15 is maintained, information relating to that trust account, as set forth in paragraph (2) of subdivision (f) of Section 17550.15.

(i) The information required by this section shall be verified by a declaration signed by each owner and principal of the seller of travel, or in the case of a registered seller of travel that does business in California, from one or more locations in California, and that meets the requirements of paragraph (16) of subdivision (e) of Section 17511.1, by a duly authorized officer of the corporation, under penalty of perjury pursuant to the laws of the State of California. The declaration shall specify the date and location of signing.

17550.22. No registration application shall be accepted for filing if it is incomplete or contains false information.

17550.23. (a) A registration application for a seller of travel with its principal place of business in California, who does business with persons located in California, shall be accompanied by written certification from the Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation indicating that the seller of travel is in compliance with Article 2.7 (commencing with Section 17550.35).

(b) A registration application for a seller of travel who does not or intends not to comply with the requirements of Section 17550.15 because such seller of travel claims to meet the requirements of subdivision (b) of Section 17550.16 shall be accompanied by evidence that the seller of travel is a participant in a Consumer Protection Deposit Plan that meets the criteria set forth in subdivision (b) of Section 17550.16.

(c) A registration application for a seller of travel who does not or intends not to comply with the requirements of Section 17550.15 because such seller of travel claims to meet the requirements of subdivision (c) of Section 17550.16 shall be accompanied by evidence that the seller of travel is a participant in a Consumer Protection Escrow Plan that meets the criteria set forth in subdivision (c) of Section 17550.16.

17550.24. (a) The Attorney General or his or her delegate shall issue a separate registration number to each registrant whose registration is accepted. That registration number shall be valid for the period specified in subdivision (b) of Section 17550.20, unless revoked or suspended by the Attorney General or his or her delegate. Grounds for suspension or revocation include material misrepresentation in a registration application, or a failure to amend a registration as provided in subdivision (c) of Section 17550.20.

(b) Any registration issued to a seller of travel who is required to comply with the provisions of Section 17550.15 shall set forth the number and location of the required trust account.

(c) Any registration issued to a seller of travel who has complied with the requirements of subdivision (b) of Section 17550.23 shall state that the seller of travel claims an exemption from the requirements of Section 17550.15 pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 17550.16.

(d) Any registration issued to a seller of travel who has complied with the requirements of subdivision (c) of Section 17550.23 shall state that the seller of travel claims an exemption from the requirements of Section 17550.15 pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 17550.16.

(e) A registered seller of travel shall provide a copy of its current registration upon request to any other registered seller of travel from whom it receives passenger funds in payment for transportation or travel services.

(f) The registration number of the seller of travel shall be clearly and conspicuously displayed on all advertising materials offering for sale or soliciting the purchase of any air or sea transportation or travel services, including, but not limited to, any writings, or promotional materials of any kind which are advertised, displayed, or disseminated in any manner to any persons in California, or from California to any person elsewhere. A registered seller of travel that does business in California from one or more locations in California and that meets the requirements of paragraph (16) of subdivision (e) of Section 17511.1 shall display its registration number only on advertising materials that are produced or placed by its business locations within California or that make reference to specific business locations offering air or sea transportation or travel services. Wherever seller of travel, registered seller of travel, or similar terms are used in any advertising materials, they shall be accompanied by a statement which discloses, at least as prominently, that "registration as a seller of travel does not constitute approval by the State of California."

17550.25. (a) All sellers of travel who are participants shall comply with Article 2.7 (commencing with Section 17550.35) prior to engaging in those sales.

(b) Any seller of travel that is not a participant who is doing business with persons located in California shall make a clear and conspicuous disclosure, both orally and in writing, that the seller of travel is not a participant in the Travel Consumer Restitution Fund. Any seller of travel doing business from any location in California with persons located outside California shall make a clear and conspicuous disclosure, both orally and in writing, that the transaction is not covered by the Travel Consumer Restitution Fund. Any seller of travel required by the provisions of this article to have a trust account or bond shall make a clear and conspicuous disclosure of the existence of the trust account or of the issuer and amount of the bond.

17550.30. (a) The Travel Seller Fund is hereby created in the State Treasury. All fees, including late fees, collected pursuant to this article shall be deposited in the fund, and the money in the fund may be expended only for the purposes specified in this article.

(b) All money paid into the State Treasury and credited to the Travel Seller Fund shall be used by the Department of Justice in carrying out and enforcing the provisions of this article, including, but not limited to, the payment of salaries of Department of Justice personnel, contractors, or consultants.

17550.32. The initial filing of information and payment of fees required by subdivision (a) of Section 17550.20 shall be received by the office of the Attorney General no later than:

(a) June 1, 1995, for all sellers of travel whose principal place of business is located in any of the following counties: Alameda, Marin, Monterey, Orange, San Francisco, San Mateo, Santa Barbara, Santa Clara, Santa Cruz, Sonoma, and Ventura.

(b) September 1, 1995, for all sellers of travel whose principal place of business is located in Los Angeles County.

(c) December 1, 1995, for all sellers of travel whose principal place of business is located anywhere other than in the counties set forth in subdivisions (a) and (b).

(d) Compliance with this section shall constitute compliance with Section 17540.15.

17550.33. This article shall become operative January 1, 1996, except that Sections 17550.1, 17550.2, 17550.3, 17550.4, 17550.5, 17550.6, 17550.7, 17550.8, 17550.9, 17550.10, 17550.18, 17550.19, 17550.20, 17550.21, 17550.22, 17550.23, 17550.24, 17550.30, and 17550.32 shall become operative January 1, 1995.

17440.34. This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1999, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Article 2.7 (commencing with Section 17550.35) is added to Chapter 1 of Part 3 of Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code, to read:

Article 2.7. Travel Consumer Restitution Plan

17550.35. "Restitution corporation" means the Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation.

17550.36. "Participant," as used in this article, means a seller of travel, as defined in Section 17550.7, who is registered pursuant to Section 17550.20.

17550.37. "Person aggrieved," as used in this article, means a passenger, as defined in Section 17550.3, located in California at the time of sale, who has sustained a loss as a result of the failure of a seller of travel to refund passenger payments due as a result of the bankruptcy, insolvency, cessation of operations, or material failure to provide the transportation or travel services contracted for by the passenger. "Loss," as used herein, shall be limited to losses that are incurred after December 31, 1995, in a transaction with a seller of travel who, at the time of sale, was a participant in the Travel Consumer Restitution Fund and was registered pursuant to Section 17550.20. "Person aggrieved" shall not mean or include a passenger in a transaction where the air or sea transportation or travel services are furnished by a business entity that (a) is located and providing transportation or travel services outside of the United States and (b) is not in compliance with Article 2.6 (commencing with Section 17550).

17550.38. (a) It shall be the purpose of the Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation to provide restitution to a person aggrieved, subject to the limitations set forth in this article.

(b) The restitution shall be paid from the Travel Consumer Restitution Fund established by the Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation.

(c) The Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation shall be authorized to request legal counsel and advice from the office of the Attorney General.

17550.39. (a) Participants shall maintain a corporation under the Nonprofit Mutual Benefit Corporation Law (Part 3 (commencing with Section 7110) of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code) operating under the name "Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation."

(b) The State of California and any of its officers, agents, or employees shall not be liable in any manner for any act or omission of Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation, its directors, officers, agents, or employees.

17550.40. Each participant is required to comply with the provisions of this article and shall abide by the rules and decisions of the Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation adopted in accordance with this article.

17550.41. (a) The Board of Directors of the Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation shall be composed of six directors, as follows:

(1) One public consumer representative member appointed by the Director of the Department of Consumer Affairs.

(2) One employee of the Department of Justice, assigned by the office of the Attorney General, who shall serve as an ex officio, nonvoting member.

(3) Four directors who are participants in the Travel Consumer Restitution Fund.

(b) The director appointed pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) shall be appointed within 90 days of the effective date of this section. The initial director shall serve a term of two years expiring 24 months after the effective date of this section. Thereafter, appointments shall be for two-year terms.

(c) (1) The initial directors appointed pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) shall be participants, selected by the California Coalition of Travel Organizations. The initial directors shall be appointed by February 1, 1995, and shall be selected to serve terms expiring on May 1, 1996.

(2) Subsequent participant directors shall be elected by a balloting of all participants in the Travel Consumer Restitution Fund and shall be elected to serve two-year terms. The elections shall be conducted by the Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation in February of each year, beginning February 1996. The two directors elected in February 1996 who receive the highest number of votes shall be elected to two-year terms, and the two who receive the next highest number of votes shall be elected to one-year terms. The four directors elected in February 1996 shall take office on May 1, 1996.

(3) The Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation shall, by July 1, 1995, adopt bylaw provisions setting forth procedures for the nomination and election of the four participant directors on and subsequent to February 1, 1996, consistent with this section.

(4) A director who does not qualify to be a participant or who otherwise becomes unable to serve shall not continue to serve as director. The board of the Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation shall adopt rules setting forth the procedures to determine that a director is no longer able to serve as a director, and for the board to elect a successor to serve as director until the next election.

17550.42. The fiscal year of the Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation shall commence on July 1 of each year.

(b) All participants registering in 1995 or applying for registration in 1995 shall pay to the Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation an initial, one-time twenty-five dollar ($25) assessment per location from which the participant does business in the state in order to provide additional funding for the operations of the corporation, as those operations are authorized by the corporation's board of directors.

(c) The Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation shall establish a restitution fund for the payment of claims. All claims shall be paid from the restitution fund.

(1) The restitution fund shall be in the form of a trust account maintained in the State of California with a federally insured bank which shall be selected by the board of directors of the Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation and shall be approved by the office of the Attorney General. The board of directors of the Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation or its delegate shall serve as trustee.

(2) The restitution fund shall meet the following criteria:

(A) The trustee shall deposit all restitution funds received directly into the trust account.

(B) The trustee shall maintain a separate accounting for disbursements and collections on account of claims against each participant. Quarterly reports shall be provided to the office of the Attorney General, Consumer Law Section.

(C) The trustee shall disburse funds from the trust as directed by the Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation pursuant to Section 17550.47, directly to a person aggrieved or as provided in Section 17550.47.

(D) The trustee may only invest the operations fund and trust funds in any of the securities described in subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 16430 of the Government Code.

17550.44. (a) The Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation shall bill and collect from each participant an annual assessment that in the aggregate shall consist of assessments for the operations fund and the restitution fund. For each participant, the annual renewal date of the assessment shall be 30 days prior to the initial and annual renewal date for registration pursuant to Section 17550.20. A late fee of five dollars ($5) per day, up to a maximum of five hundred dollars ($500), shall be paid for each day after the time specified in this section until the assessment is received by the Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation.

(b) The annual assessment for the operations fund and the restitution fund shall be determined no later than January 15 of each year for the next fiscal year. The annual assessment for the operations fund shall not exceed twenty-five dollars ($25) per year for each location in the state from which a participant does business. The assessment shall include all costs and expenses of operation as budgeted by the board of directors for the next fiscal year. The annual assessment for the restitution fund shall not exceed two hundred dollars ($200) per year in order to return the level of the restitution fund to an expected balance of one million six hundred thousand dollars ($1,600,000). Each participant's assessment shall be determined pro rata based upon the ratio of the number of locations in the state from which the participant does business to the total number of locations for all registered participants as of the preceding December 15.

(c) If, on May 1 or October 15 of any year, commencing on January 1, 1996, the balance in the restitution fund is less than one million two hundred thousand dollars ($1,200,000), the corporation shall make an emergency assessment of participants, not more than twice per year, up to a maximum amount of two hundred dollars ($200) per year for each location in the state from which the participant does business, for deposit in the trust account to return the level of the restitution fund to an expected balance of one million six hundred thousand dollars ($1,600,000). The board of directors shall adopt rules for the notification of emergency assessments.

(d) The Travel Consumer Restitution Fund shall report to the office of the Attorney General each levy of assessment within 10 business days after the levy.

17550.45. (a) If any assessment is not paid within 60 days of the due date, then the corporation shall notify the office of the Attorney General, which shall forthwith suspend the registration of the participant who has not paid. The corporation shall provide a copy of this notification to the participant.

(b) The Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation or any entity set forth in Section 17204 may bring an action at law or in equity against a participant to recover any unpaid assessment.

(c) The Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation shall be awarded costs and reasonable attorney's fees if it prevails in any action against a participant pursuant to subdivision (b). Those costs and attorney's fees shall be awarded as an item of costs, as provided for in paragraph (10) of subdivision (a) and paragraph (5) of subdivision (c) of Section 1033.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

17550.46. (a) The Attorney General or his or her delegate shall approve any claim form which shall be provided to a person aggrieved by the Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation to be submitted by a person aggrieved in order to obtain payment from the restitution fund. The claim form shall require the person aggrieved to provide the corporation with information which is sufficient to decide whether payment is to be made to that person. The information must include all of the following:

(1) The name, address, and telephone number of the person aggrieved.

(2) The amount paid by the person aggrieved to the participant.

(3) The date each payment was made and the form of each payment.

(4) All written agreements, correspondence, or other documentation related to the transaction and to the transportation or contracted travel services which were not provided.

(5) Identification of the transportation or contracted travel services which were not provided.

(6) Description of any payment or reimbursement or alternative transportation or travel services received by the person aggrieved for the transportation or contracted travel services which were not provided.

(b) If any required information is unavailable to the person aggrieved, the person must so state in the claim form, explaining why the information is unavailable.

(c) The person aggrieved who submits a claim form shall sign the form stating, under penalty of perjury pursuant to the laws of the State of California, that the information contained in the form is true and correct.

17550.47. (a) (1) Any person aggrieved who suffers a loss may file a claim with the Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation. Except as provided in paragraph (2), the claim must be filed within 60 days of the date upon which the person aggrieved becomes aware, or should have become aware, of the loss.

(2) Any person aggrieved who did not receive the notice required by subdivision (h) of Section 17550.13 shall have until 60 days after receiving a notice setting forth the information required by subdivision (h) of Section 17550.13, or 60 days after the date upon which the person aggrieved becomes aware, or should have become aware, of the loss, whichever is later, within which to file a claim.

(3) In no event shall a person aggrieved have more than one year after the scheduled date of completion of travel within which to file a claim with the Travel Consumer Restitution Fund.

(b) A person aggrieved may recover from the Travel Consumer Restitution Fund an amount of no more than fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) per person aggrieved not to exceed the amount paid to the participant for transportation or travel services. The person aggrieved shall not be entitled to receive attorney's fees in connection with a filed claim, except as provided in this section, on appeal.

(c) All claims are to be decided on the written record before the corporation, with no hearing to be held. The record shall consist of a fully executed and complete claim, any other documentation submitted by the claimant, and any documents or reports submitted by staff or the designated representative of the office of the Attorney General. Claims are to be decided within 45 days of receipt unless the designated representative of the office of the Attorney General requests a continuance to obtain and submit information. A claim not decided timely shall be deemed granted.

(d) Whenever the Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation denies a claim in whole or in part, it shall provide to the claimant a written statement of decision setting forth the factual and legal basis for the denial.

(e) A claimant may request reconsideration of an adverse decision of the Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation by mailing a written request within 20 days of the date a notice of denial and statement of decision was mailed to the claimant.

(f) The Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation shall decide the request for reconsideration within 30 days of receipt of the request, and if the decision is a denial in whole or in part, it shall provide to the claimant a written statement of decision setting forth the factual and legal basis for the decision. No appeal may be taken pursuant to subdivision (g) until reconsideration has been requested and decided. The claimant shall not be entitled to any attorney's fees incurred in connection with presentation of a claim or request for reconsideration.

(g) A claimant may only seek review of the denial of a claim by filing a notice of appeal after having served the notice by mail on the Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation. The notice of appeal shall be filed and served on the Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation not later than 30 days after a written statement of decision on a request for reconsideration has been mailed to the claimant. The notice of appeal from a decision of the Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation shall be filed with the clerk of the superior court either in the county in which the principal place of business of the Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation is located, or in the county in which the claimant was a resident at the time the claimant purchased the transportation or travel services in dispute.

(h) The claimant shall pay the same filing fee as is required for appeals from small claims court. The Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation shall file with the clerk of the superior court the record before the corporation within 30 days of the day the notice of appeal was served on the Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation.

(i) Upon the filing of the record the clerk of the court shall schedule a hearing for the earliest available time and shall mail written notice of the hearing at least 14 days prior to the time set for the hearing.

(j) The hearing on appeal shall be limited to the record before the Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation and any relevant evidence which could not have been with reasonable diligence submitted previously to the corporation. The reviewing court shall apply a preponderance of the evidence standard of review. The pretrial discovery procedures described in subdivision (a) of Section 2019 of the Code of Civil Procedure are not permitted, there is no right to trial by jury, no tentative decision or statement of decision is required, and the decision of the superior court after a hearing on appeal is final and not appealable. No money may be claimed from or paid by the Travel Consumer Restitution Fund except in accordance with the provisions and procedures set forth in this article. No provision herein shall limit or otherwise affect those remedies as may be available against persons or entities other than the Travel Consumer Restitution Fund.

(k) If the claimant prevails in whole or in part in an appeal, the claimant shall be entitled to attorney's fees and costs actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the appeal, those fees and costs not to exceed the amount awarded by the reviewing court.

(l) Any claim awarded by the corporation shall be paid promptly by the trustee of the restitution fund when the time for appeal has passed or the right to an appeal is waived in writing by the claimant. Any judgment on appeal shall be paid promptly by the trustee of the restitution fund. If there should be insufficient funds to pay a claim when otherwise due, claims shall be paid in the order received. If the Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation ceases to operate pursuant to the terms of Section 17550.52, any remaining trust funds shall be allocated on a pro rata basis to claims accruing prior to the corporation ceasing to operate.

(m) A claim shall require a majority of at least three affirmative votes for denial, otherwise it shall be deemed granted.

17550.48. Any person aggrieved who recovers from the fund shall assign to the Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation all rights of recovery, to a maximum of the amount received from the Travel Consumer Restitution Fund, against any person or organization from which the person aggrieved received any payment as compensation for any loss for which restitution was paid from the Travel Consumer Restitution Fund. The person aggrieved shall execute and deliver to the corporation instruments and papers and perform any other acts necessary to carry out this section. The corporation shall have the authority and discretion to determine whether or not to seek recovery.

17550.49. If the Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation directs that payment be made from the restitution fund in any amount in response to a claim against a participant, the corporation shall inform the office of the Attorney General, which shall revoke the registration of the participant, upon the date the notice is received that payment has been directed to be made from the fund. The seller of travel, including the sole proprietor if the entity is a sole proprietorship, the general partners if the entity is a partnership, or the officers, directors, and stockholders holding more than 10 percent of the stock if the entity is a corporation, shall not be eligible to reregister to do business as a seller of travel until the fund is repaid in full, plus interest at the rate of 9 percent per year, the amount paid from the fund on the account of the seller of travel, together with all expenses incurred by the trustee in connection with the claim.

17550.50. There shall be no personal liability on the part of and no cause of action of any nature shall arise against the Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation or the directors, officers, employees, or agents of the Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation on any decision to deny a claim for payment from the restitution fund.

17550.51. The Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation shall not be liable for any consequential damages, or for any punitive damages, in connection with the performance of its restitution function.

17550.52. The Attorney General or his or her delegate may determine that the Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation has failed or ceased to operate upon a finding that any one of the following has occurred with respect to the corporation:

- (a) Was not created.
- (b) Has been dissolved.
- (c) Has ceased to operate.
- (d) Is insolvent or bankrupt.
- (e) Has failed to pay its operating costs.
- (f) Has failed to pay any claim or judgment in a timely manner.
- (g) Has violated its articles of incorporation or any law of this state.
- (h) Has invested its funds in violation of this article.
- (i) Has not levied assessments as required by this article.
- (j) Has not diligently decided upon a claim made by a person aggrieved.
- (k) Has violated any section of this article.
- (l) Has neglected or refused to submit its books, papers, and affairs to the inspection of the office of the Attorney General.

17550.53. (a) The Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation shall have independent authority to investigate claims filed by persons aggrieved pursuant to Section 17550.47.

(b) The corporation, upon the request of the office of the Attorney General, may participate in an examination or investigation of the books and records of a participant for the purpose of evaluating a claim related to that seller of travel. There shall be no liability on the part of, and no cause of action of any nature shall arise against, the State of California or any of its employees, agents, or representatives for the release of any information furnished to the Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation pursuant to this subdivision.

(c) With the written consent of a majority of its directors, the corporation, in order to fulfill its obligations under this article, may appoint an independent certified public accountant or public accountant or hire or appoint a specialized committee or employees to conduct an examination or investigation authorized by this section. Any reports as a result thereof shall be furnished to the office of the Attorney General.

(d) To assist the corporation in evaluating a claim related to a participant, the participant shall provide or make available for inspection by the corporation those books, accounts, bank account records, and files which are necessary for the corporation to evaluate the claim.

(e) The corporation, any participant, an agent of the corporation or any person other than a law enforcement agency who uses information obtained under this section for any purpose not authorized in this article or Article 2.6 (commencing with Section 17550) is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(f) Costs and expenses for any examination under this section shall be paid for by the participant if a claim directly related to that seller of travel has been approved and payment has been made to a person aggrieved. The corporation may maintain an action for recovery of these examination costs and expenses in any court of competent jurisdiction, and shall recover its reasonable costs and attorney's fees as an item of costs, as provided for in paragraph (10) of subdivision (a) and paragraph (5) of subdivision (c) of Section 1033.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

17550.54. (a) The Secretary of State shall not file articles for the incorporation of the Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation or an amendment to the articles unless the office of the Attorney General has issued written approval of the articles or amendment.

(b) The Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation shall not adopt any bylaws or amendments thereto without the written consent of the office of the Attorney General. If the office of the Attorney General does not approve or disapprove any bylaws or amendments within 60 days of receipt, such bylaws or amendments shall be deemed to be approved.

17550.55. No provision of the Insurance Code shall apply to the Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation.

17550.56. The operation of the Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation shall at all times be subject to the examination and review of the office of the Attorney General and its duly designated representatives. The office of the Attorney General and its duly designated representatives may at any time investigate the affairs and examine the books, accounts, record, and files used by the corporation. The office of the Attorney General and its duly designated representatives shall have free access to the offices, books, accounts, papers, records, files, safes, and vaults of the corporation.

17550.57. If the Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation is dissolved or if the Attorney General or his or her delegate makes a determination pursuant to Section 17550.52 that the corporation has failed or ceased to operate, the net assets after settling all liabilities shall be distributed pro rata based upon the ratio of the number of locations in the state from which the participant does business to the total number of locations for all registered participants.

17550.58. All costs and expenses incurred by the Department of Justice in the administration of this article shall be paid to the department by the Travel Consumer Restitution Corporation. The department may institute an action for the recovery of costs and expenses incurred in the administration of this article in any court of competent jurisdiction.

17540.59. This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1999, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3.5. Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 17540) of Chapter 1 of Part 3 of Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code shall remain in effect until January 1, 1996, and as of that date shall become inoperative, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1996, deletes or extends that date. However, Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 17540) of Chapter 1 of Part 3 of Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code shall again become operative on January 1, 1999, unless the repeal date of Article 2.6 (commencing with Section 17550) and Article 2.7 (commencing with Section 17550.35) of Chapter 1 of Part 3 of Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code proposed by this bill has been extended beyond that date, in which case, Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 17540) of Chapter 1 of Part 3 of Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code shall again become operative on the date that both Article 2.6 (commencing with Section 17550) and Article 2.7 (commencing with Section 17550.35) of Chapter 1 of Part 3 of Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code are repealed.

SEC. 4. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature that, during 1995, each section of the Travel Promoters Law (Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 17540) of Chapter 1 of Part 3 of Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code) be in effect except as provided in subdivisions (c) and (d).

(b) It is also the intent of the Legislature that the new registration requirements imposed by the Seller of Travel Law (Article 2.6 (commencing with Section 17550) of Chapter 1 of Part 3 of Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code) be phased in during 1995 by means of the phasein process set forth in this act, and that the penalties, definitions, and funding sections enacted by this act be used for implementation, interpretation, and enforcement during the Seller of Travel Law registration phasein period of January 1, 1995, to January 1, 1996.

(c) During 1995, compliance with the requirements of the registration section of the Travel Promoters Law (Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 17540) of Chapter 1 of Part 3 of Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code) may be achieved by complying with the registration provisions of the Seller of Travel Law (Article 2.6 (commencing with Section 17550) of Chapter 1 of Part 3 of Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code), as set forth in Section 17550.20 of the Business and Professions Code. For those required to register under the Seller of Travel Law during 1995, registration under the Travel Promoters Law shall not constitute compliance.

(d) Further, it is the intent of the Legislature that, during 1995, any violations of the Seller of Travel Law registration requirements or improper use of a registration number be punished as a violation of Section 17550.19 of the Business and Professions Code. Any violation of the Travel Promoters Law shall, until January 1, 1996, be punished under that law, and, on and after January 1, 1996, any violation of the Seller of Travel law shall be punished as provided in Section 17550.19 of the Business and Professions Code.

SEC. 4.5. The Attorney General shall report to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1998. The report shall contain information and statistics appropriate and relative to protecting the public's welfare through the programs contained in this act, including the sellers of travel registration program, the Travel Consumer Registration Corporation, and the Travel Consumer Restitution Fund. The report shall include statistics as to the number of registrants, disciplinary actions, budget information, claims against the fund, the condition of the fund, and any other information the Attorney General deems necessary in order to make recommendations to the Legislature.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to add Sections 18205, 18206, and 18207 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to public social services.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18205 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

18205. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, at the request of a county, after public hearing by the county, the department may extend an experimental project for in-home supportive services established pursuant to Section 18204 for an additional period of time as long as the total duration of the project does not exceed five years. The extension shall be established by formal order of the director and shall be subject to all other requirements and conditions of the initial order establishing the project pursuant to Section 18204.

(b) In the case of a project subject to subdivision (a) that is conducted pursuant to a contract between a private provider and a county, the contract may be renewed for one or more additional terms provided the combined duration of the initial and extended contract terms does not exceed five years. A new rate of reimbursement may be negotiated consistent with the level of available funding.

SEC. 2. Section 18206 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

18206. (a) The director shall specify performance and quality assurance standards to be included in any experimental project for in-home supportive services undertaken pursuant to Section 18204 or extended pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 18205.

(b) In the case of a project subject to subdivision (a) of Section 18205 that is conducted pursuant to a contract between a private provider and a county, the standards shall assure delivery of all required services at the time the services are needed, including weekends and nights; establish proper screening, training, and supervision of persons providing direct services; and institute frequent periodic quality control audits and utilization review of all services. These standards shall not be subject to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(c) Quality control audits and utilization review shall be performed by entities that are independent of the county and the private contractor. The reports of the quality control audits and utilization review, excluding client confidential information, shall be made available to the public. The cost of those quality control audits and utilization review shall be considered as part of the county administrative costs for the managed contract.

(d) (1) One year after the effective date of any project for in-home supportive services established pursuant to Section 18204 or after the date of extension pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 18205, the Auditor General shall commission a study to review the performance of that project. Any independent reviewer designated in an existing contract may be commissioned to perform the study.

(2) The study shall be submitted to the Legislature and the Governor not later than two years after the effective date of the project or of the extension approved pursuant to this section, as the case may be. The study shall give special attention to both of the following:

(A) The health and welfare of the recipients under the project, including the degree to which all required services have been delivered, out-of-home placement rates, prompt response to recipient complaints, and any other issue the director deems relevant.

(B) The cost implications of the project, estimating the potential for ongoing savings, if any.

(3) The study may include a fiscal audit of the contract.

(4) The report shall make recommendations to the Legislature and the Governor for any changes to the project that would further assure the well-being of recipients and the most efficient delivery of required services.

(e) Projects subject to Section 18204 relating to in-home supportive services and subject to this section shall, to the greatest extent possible, permit recipients to select their own qualified provider of care and set their own service schedule.

SEC. 3. Section 1827 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

18207. Sections 18205 and 18206 shall apply only to experimental projects for in-home supportive services established pursuant to Section 18204 that were in existence on July 1, 1994.

CHAPTER 1125

An act to add Section 12414.30 to the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12414.30 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

12414.30. (a) When constituting an offer to issue an owner's policy of title insurance, a preliminary report shall incorporate the following statement, in bold print on front of the preliminary report:

“Please read the exceptions shown or referred to below and the exceptions and exclusions set forth in Exhibit A of this report carefully. The exceptions and exclusions are meant to provide you with notice of matters which are not covered under the terms of the title insurance policy and should be carefully considered.

It is important to note that this preliminary report is not a written representation as to the condition of title and may not list all liens, defects, and encumbrances affecting title to the land.”

(b) Upon request, a title insurance company may provide coverage against loss or damage under the terms, conditions, and stipulations of the title insurance policy for any monetary lien set forth in the preliminary report.

(c) This section does not modify any of the provisions of Section 12340.11.

CHAPTER 1126

An act to amend Sections 56000.5, 56001, and 56345 of, and to add Section 56026.2 to, the Education Code, relating to special education, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 56000.5 of the Education Code is amended to read:

56000.5. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that:

(1) Pupils with low-incidence disabilities, as a group, make up less than 1 percent of the total statewide enrollment for kindergarten through grade 12.

(2) Pupils with low-incidence disabilities require highly specialized services, equipment, and materials.

(b) The Legislature further finds and declares that:

(1) Deafness involves the most basic of human needs—the ability to communicate with other human beings. Many hard-of-hearing and deaf children use an appropriate communication mode, sign language, which may be their primary language, while others express and receive language orally and aurally, with or without visual signs or cues. Still others, typically young hard-of-hearing and deaf children, lack any significant language skills. It is essential for the well-being and growth of hard-of-hearing and deaf children that educational programs recognize the unique nature of deafness and ensure that all hard-of-hearing and deaf children have appropriate, ongoing, and fully accessible educational opportunities.

(2) It is essential that hard-of-hearing and deaf children, like all children, have an education in which their unique communication mode is respected, utilized, and developed to an appropriate level of proficiency.

(3) It is essential that hard-of-hearing and deaf children have an education in which special education teachers, psychologists, speech therapists, assessors, administrators, and other special education personnel understand the unique nature of deafness and are specifically trained to work with hard-of-hearing and deaf pupils. It is essential that hard-of-hearing and deaf children have an education in which their special education teachers are proficient in the primary language mode of those children.

(4) It is essential that hard-of-hearing and deaf children, like all children, have an education with a sufficient number of language mode peers with whom they can communicate directly and who are of the same, or approximately the same, age and ability level.

(5) It is essential that hard-of-hearing and deaf children have an education in which their parents and, where appropriate, hard-of-hearing and deaf people are involved in determining the extent, content, and purpose of programs.

(6) Hard-of-hearing and deaf children would benefit from an education in which they are exposed to hard-of-hearing and deaf role models.

(7) It is essential that hard-of-hearing and deaf children, like all children, have programs in which they have direct and appropriate access to all components of the educational process, including, but not limited to, recess, lunch, and extracurricular social and athletic activities.

(8) It is essential that hard-of-hearing and deaf children, like all children, have programs in which their unique vocational needs are provided for, including appropriate research, curricula, programs, staff, and outreach.

(9) Each hard-of-hearing and deaf child should have a determination of the least restrictive educational environment that takes into consideration these legislative findings and declarations.

(10) Given their unique communication needs, hard-of-hearing and deaf children would benefit from the development and implementation of regional programs for children with low-incidence disabilities.

SEC. 2. Section 56001 of the Education Code is amended to read: 56001. It is the intent of the Legislature that special education programs provide all of the following:

(a) Each individual with exceptional needs is assured an education appropriate to his or her needs in publicly supported programs through completion of his or her prescribed course of study or until the time that he or she has met proficiency standards prescribed pursuant to Sections 51215 and 51216.

(b) By June 30, 1991, early educational opportunities shall be available to all children between the ages of three and five years who require special education and services.

(c) Early educational opportunities shall be made available to children younger than three years of age pursuant to Chapter 4.4 (commencing with Section 56425), appropriate sections of this part, and the California Early Intervention Service Act, Title 14 (commencing with Section 95000) of the Government Code.

(d) Any child younger than three years, potentially eligible for special education, shall be afforded the protections provided pursuant to the California Early Intervention Services Act, Title 14 (commencing with Section 95000) of the Government Code and Section 1480 of Title 20 of the United States Code and implementing regulations.

(e) Each individual with exceptional needs shall have his or her educational goals, objectives, and special education and related services specified in a written individualized education program.

(f) Education programs are provided under an approved local plan for special education that sets forth the elements of the programs in accordance with this part. This plan for special education shall be developed cooperatively with input from the community advisory committee and appropriate representation from special and regular teachers and administrators selected by the groups they represent to ensure effective participation and communication.

(g) Individuals with exceptional needs are offered special assistance programs that promote maximum interaction with the general school population in a manner that is appropriate to the needs of both, taking into consideration, for hard-of-hearing or deaf children, the individual's needs for a sufficient number of age and language mode peers and for special education teachers who are proficient in the individual's primary language mode.

(h) Pupils be transferred out of special education programs when special education services are no longer needed.

(i) The unnecessary use of labels is avoided in providing special education and related services for individuals with exceptional needs.

(j) Procedures and materials for assessment and placement of individuals with exceptional needs shall be selected and administered so as not to be racially, culturally, or sexually discriminatory. No single assessment instrument shall be the sole criterion for determining placement of a pupil. The procedures and materials for assessment and placement shall be in the individual's mode of communication. Procedures and materials for use with pupils of limited English proficiency, as defined in subdivision (m) of Section 52163, shall be in the individual's primary language. All assessment materials and procedures shall be selected and administered pursuant to Section 56320.

(k) Educational programs are coordinated with other public and private agencies, including preschools, child development programs, nonpublic nonsectarian schools, regional occupational centers and programs, and postsecondary and adult programs for individuals with exceptional needs.

(l) Psychological and health services for individuals with exceptional needs shall be available to each schoolsite.

(m) Continuous evaluation of the effectiveness of these special education programs by the school district, special education local plan area, or county office shall be made to ensure the highest quality educational offerings.

(n) Appropriate qualified staff are employed, consistent with credentialing requirements, to fulfill the responsibilities of the local plan and positive efforts are made to employ qualified handicapped individuals.

(o) Regular and special education personnel are adequately prepared to provide educational instruction and services to individuals with exceptional needs.

(p) This section shall remain in effect only until California terminates its participation in special education programs for individuals with exceptional needs between the ages of three and five years, pursuant to Section 56448, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 2.5. Section 56001 of the Education Code is amended to read:

56001. It is the intent of the Legislature that special education programs provide all of the following:

(a) Each individual with exceptional needs is assured an education appropriate to his or her needs in publicly supported programs through completion of his or her prescribed course of study or until the time that he or she has met proficiency standards prescribed pursuant to Sections 51215 and 51216.

(b) Early educational opportunities are available to all children between the ages of three and four years and nine months who require intensive special education and services.

(c) Early educational opportunities shall be made available to children younger than three years of age pursuant to Chapter 4.4 (commencing with Section 56425), appropriate sections of this part, and the California Early Intervention Service Act, Title 14 (commencing with Section 95000) of the Government Code.

(d) Any child younger than three years, potentially eligible for special education shall be afforded the protections provided pursuant to the California Early Intervention Services Act, Title 14 (commencing with Section 95000) of the Government Code and Section 1480 of Title 20 of the United States Code and implementing regulations.

(e) Each individual with exceptional needs shall have his or her educational goals, objectives, and special education and related services specified in a written individualized education program.

(f) Education programs are provided under an approved local plan for special education that sets forth the elements of the programs in accordance with the provisions of this part. This plan for special education shall be developed cooperatively with input from the community advisory committee and appropriate representation from special and regular teachers and administrators selected by the groups they represent to ensure effective participation and communication.

(g) Individuals with exceptional needs are offered special assistance programs that promote maximum interaction with the general school population in a manner which is appropriate to the needs of both, taking into consideration, for hard-of-hearing or deaf children, the individual's needs for a sufficient number of age and language mode peers and for special education teachers who are proficient in the individual's primary language mode.

(h) Pupils be transferred out of special education programs when special education services are no longer needed.

(i) The unnecessary use of labels is avoided in providing special education and related services for individuals with exceptional needs.

(j) Procedures and materials for assessment and placement of individuals with exceptional needs shall be selected and administered so as not to be racially, culturally, or sexually discriminatory. No single assessment instrument shall be the sole criterion for determining placement of a pupil. The procedures and materials for assessment and placement shall be in the individual's mode of communication. Procedures and materials for use with pupils of limited-English proficiency as defined in subdivision (m) of Section 52163, shall be in the individual's primary language. All assessment materials and procedures shall be selected and administered pursuant to Section 56320.

(k) Educational programs are coordinated with other public and private agencies, including preschools, child development programs, nonpublic, nonsectarian schools, regional occupational centers and programs, and postsecondary and adult programs for individuals with exceptional needs.

(l) Psychological and health services for individuals with exceptional needs shall be available to each schoolsite.

(m) Continuous evaluation of the effectiveness of these special education programs by the school district, special education local plan area, or county office shall be made to ensure the highest quality educational offerings.

(n) Appropriate qualified staff are employed, consistent with credentialing requirements, to fulfill the responsibilities of the local plan and positive efforts are made to employ qualified handicapped individuals.

(o) Regular and special education personnel are adequately prepared to provide educational instruction and services to individuals with exceptional needs.

(p) This section shall become operative on the date that California terminates its participation in special education programs for individuals with exceptional needs between the ages of three and five years, pursuant to Section 56448.

SEC. 3. Section 56026.2 is added to the Education Code, to read:
56026.2. "Language mode" means the method of communication used by hard-of-hearing and deaf children that may include the use of sign language to send or receive messages or the use of spoken language, with or without visual signs or cues.

SEC. 4. Section 56345 of the Education Code is amended to read:
56345. (a) The individualized education program is a written statement determined in a meeting of the individualized education program team and shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

- (1) The present levels of the pupil's educational performance.
- (2) The annual goals, including short-term instructional objectives.

(3) The specific special educational instruction and related services required by the pupil.

(4) The extent to which the pupil will be able to participate in regular educational programs.

(5) The projected date for initiation and the anticipated duration of the programs and services included in the individualized education program.

(6) Appropriate objective criteria, evaluation procedures, and schedules for determining, on at least an annual basis, whether the short-term instructional objectives are being achieved.

(b) When appropriate, the individualized education program shall also include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) Prevocational career education for pupils in kindergarten and grades 1 to 6, inclusive, or pupils of comparable chronological age.

(2) Vocational education, career education or work experience education, or any combination thereof, in preparation for remunerative employment, including independent living skill training for pupils in grades 7 to 12, inclusive, or comparable chronological age, who require differential proficiency standards pursuant to Section 51215.

(3) For pupils in grades 7 to 12, inclusive, any alternative means and modes necessary for the pupil to complete the district's prescribed course of study and to meet or exceed proficiency standards for graduation in accordance with Section 51215.

(4) For individuals whose primary language is other than English, linguistically appropriate goals, objectives, programs and services.

(5) Extended school year services when needed, as determined by the individualized education program team.

(6) Provision for the transition into the regular class program if the pupil is to be transferred from a special class or center, or nonpublic, nonsectarian school into a regular class in a public school for any part of the schoolday, including the following:

(A) A description of activities provided to integrate the pupil into the regular education program. The description shall indicate the nature of each activity, and the time spent on the activity each day or week.

(B) A description of the activities provided to support the transition of pupils from the special education program into the regular education program.

(7) For pupils with low-incidence disabilities, specialized services, materials, and equipment, consistent with guidelines established pursuant to Section 56136.

(c) It is the intent of the Legislature in requiring individualized education programs that the district, special education local plan area, or county office is responsible for providing the services delineated in the individualized education program. However, the Legislature recognizes that some pupils may not meet or exceed the growth projected in the annual goals and objectives of the pupil's individualized education program.

(d) Pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 51215, a pupil's individualized education program shall also include the determination of the individualized education program team as to whether differential proficiency standards shall be developed for the pupil. If differential proficiency standards are to be developed, the individualized education program shall include these standards.

(e) Consistent with Section 56000.5, it is the intent of the Legislature that, in making a determination of what constitutes an appropriate education to meet the unique needs of a deaf or hard-of-hearing pupil in the least restrictive environment, the individualized education program team shall consider the related services and program options that provide the pupil with an equal opportunity for communication access. The individualized education program team shall specifically discuss the communication needs of the pupil, consistent with the guidelines adopted pursuant to Section 56136 and Page 49274 of Volume 57 of the Federal Register, including all of the following:

(1) The pupil's primary language mode and language, which may include the use of spoken language with or without visual cues, or the use of sign language, or a combination of both.

(2) The availability of a sufficient number of age, cognitive, and language peers of similar abilities which may be met by consolidating services into a local plan areawide program or providing placement pursuant to Section 56361.

(3) Appropriate, direct, and ongoing language access to special education teachers and other specialists who are proficient in the pupil's primary language mode and language consistent with existing law regarding teacher training requirements.

(4) Services necessary to ensure communication-accessible academic instructions, school services, and extracurricular activities consistent with the Vocational Rehabilitation Act of 1973 as set forth in Section 794 of Title 29 of the United States Code and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 as set forth in Section 12000 and following of Title 42 of the United States Code.

(f) No General Fund money made available to school districts or local agencies may be used for any additional responsibilities and services associated with paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (e), including the training of special education teachers and other specialists, even if those additional responsibilities or services are required pursuant to a judicial or state agency determination. Those responsibilities and services shall only be funded by a local educational agency as follows:

(1) The costs of those activities shall be funded from existing programs and funding sources.

(2) Those activities shall be supported by the resources otherwise made available to those programs.

(3) Those activities shall be consistent with the provisions of Sections 56240 to 56243, inclusive.

(g) It is the intent of the Legislature that the communication skills of teachers who work with hard-of-hearing and deaf children be improved, however, nothing in this section shall be construed to remove the local educational agency's discretionary authority in regard to in-service activities.

SEC. 5. By amending Sections 56000.5, 56001, and 56345 of the Education Code by Sections 1, 2, 2.5, and 4 of this act, and by adding Section 56026.2 to the Education Code by Section 3, it is the intent of the Legislature to ensure that state law complies with the requirements of federal law under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (20 U.S.C. Sec. 1400 et seq.).

SEC. 6. The changes made to Section 56000.5, 56001, and 56345 of the Education Code by Sections 1, 2, 2.5, and 4 and the provisions of Section 56026.2, as added to the Education Code by Section 3, shall be implemented only to the extent that funds are specifically appropriated for that purpose in the annual Budget Act. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 7. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure that all pupils have an education that they can understand provided to them in a setting in which they communicate, which is an essential aspect of education in this state, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

An act to add Section 15364.6.1 to the Government Code, relating to economic development.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 15364.6.1 is added to the Government Code, to read:

15364.6.1. The California World Trade Commission, in consultation with the California Offices of Trade and Investment in Tokyo, Taipei, and Hong Kong, shall at least biennially conduct a California Pacific Rim Conference beginning in 1995, for the purpose of advancing California's awareness and knowledge of, and commitment and relationship with, and success in engaging in, economic development partnerships in the Pacific Rim.

The location of the conference shall alternate between northern and southern California and may on occasion be located in another Pacific Rim nation, as selected by the World Trade Commission, provided that sufficient funds are available for that purpose. The conference shall include business, political, and academic leaders of each of the Pacific Rim nations, and bring them together with business, political, academic, and labor leaders in California.

The agenda of the California Pacific Rim Conference shall be designed to enable the participants to engage in dialogue, in order to educate each other about how the state and each of the Pacific Rim nations can more effectively and successfully collaborate in Pacific Rim economic development, including investment and trade and commerce.

The California Pacific Rim Conference shall be funded in part through private contributions to the California World Trade Commission, made specifically for the purpose of supporting the California Pacific Rim Conference. In order to recoup all necessary costs of conducting the conference, the World Trade Commission may charge conference participants or members of the general public who attend the conference a reasonable and appropriate fee for participation in, or attendance at, the conference.

Upon the completion of the first California Pacific Rim Conference, the California World Trade Commission shall submit a brief report to the Legislature assessing the effectiveness and success of the conference and making recommendations to improve future conferences.

CHAPTER 1128

An act to add Section 7572.55 to the Government Code, and to amend Section 727.1 of, and to add Section 362.2 to, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to foster care.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7572.55 is added to the Government Code, to read:

7572.55. (a) Residential placements for a child with a disability who is seriously emotionally disturbed may be made out-of-state only after in-state alternatives have been considered and are found not to meet the child's needs and only when the requirements of Section 7572.5, and subdivision (e) of Section 56365 of the Education Code have been met. The local education agency shall document the alternatives to out-of-state residential placement that were considered and the reasons why they were rejected.

(b) Out-of-state placements shall be made only in a privately operated school certified by the California Department of Education.

(c) A plan shall be developed for using less restrictive alternatives and in-state alternatives as soon as they become available, unless it is in the best educational interest of the child to remain in the out-of-state school. If the child is a ward or dependent of the court, this plan shall be documented in the record.

SEC. 2. Section 362.2 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

362.2. It is the intent of the Legislature that if a placement out-of-home is necessary pursuant to an individualized education program, that this placement be as near the child's home as possible, unless it is not in the best interest of the child. When the court determines that it is the best interest of the child to be placed out-of-state, the court shall read into the record that in-state alternatives have been explored and that they cannot meet the needs of the child, and the court shall state on the record the reasons for the out-of-state placement.

SEC. 3. Section 727.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

727.1. (a) Unless otherwise authorized by law, the court may not order the placement of a minor who is adjudged a ward of the court on the basis that he or she is a person described by either Section 601 or 602 in a private residential facility or program that provides 24-hour supervision, outside of the state, unless the court finds, in its order of placement, that both of the following conditions are met:

(1) In-state facilities or programs have been determined to be unavailable or inadequate to meet the needs of the minor.

(2) The out-of-state residential facility or program is licensed for the placement of minors by an agency of the state or states in which the minor will be placed or operates under and is inspected pursuant to standards comparable to those developed by the Youth Authority for similar facilities or programs.

(b) The court shall review each of these placements for compliance with the requirements of subdivision (a) at least once a year.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Section 84200 of the Government Code, relating to the Political Reform Act of 1974.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 84200 of the Government Code is amended to read:

84200. (a) Except as provided in paragraphs (1), (2), and (3), elected officers, candidates, and committees pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 82013 shall file semiannual statements each year no later than July 31 for the period ending June 30, and no later than January 31 for the period ending December 31.

(1) A candidate who, during the past six months has filed a declaration pursuant to Section 84206 shall not be required to file a semiannual statement for that six-month period.

(2) Elected officers whose salaries are less than one hundred dollars ($100) a month, judges, judicial candidates, and their controlled committees shall not file semiannual statements pursuant to this subdivision for any six-month period in which they have not made or received any contributions or made any expenditures.

(3) A judge who is not listed on the ballot for reelection to, or recall from, any elective office during a calendar year shall not file semiannual statements pursuant to this subdivision for any six-month period in that year if both of the following apply:

(A) The judge has not received any contributions.

(B) The only expenditures made by the judge during the calendar year are contributions from the judge's personal funds to other candidates or committees totaling less than one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(b) All committees pursuant to subdivision (b) or (c) of Section 82013 shall file campaign statements each year no later than July 31 for the period ending June 30, and no later than January 31 for the period ending December 31, if they have made contributions or independent expenditures, including payments to a slate mailer organization, during the six-month period before the closing date of the statements.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 3. The Legislature finds and declares that the provisions of this act further the purposes of the Political Reform Act of 1974 within the meaning of subdivision (a) of Section 81012 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 1130

An act relating to banking.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that the nation has suffered a shortage of credit, termed a credit crunch, from banks and savings and loans and that the credit crunch has had a significant deleterious impact on the national economy in general and the California economy in particular. The Legislature further finds and declares that, among borrowers, small businesses seem to be having the most difficulty gaining credit and their problems are particularly severe because of their reliance on banks. The problems of small businesses are especially important because of their important role in providing employment.

SEC. 2. The California Research Bureau of the California State Library shall conduct a study of factors affecting credit for small businesses. The bureau shall make a report to the Legislature on or before July 1, 1995. The report shall contain, at least, the following:

(a) A description of the problem in California. The bureau shall seek input from affected small businesses in reporting on the description of the problem in California.

(b) The effect of financial institution laws and regulations, including those of the state and federal government, on small business loans.

(c) The status and impact of changes to the Community Reinvestment Act (12 U.S.C. Sec. 2901 et seq.) regulations.

(d) The status and impact of the federal community banking proposal.

(e) Possible options for addressing the problem at both the state and federal level. This section shall include options that have been considered and adopted by other states.

(f) The study shall consider a review of other relevant studies including those of the General Accounting Office, Small Business Administration, and the Federal Financial Institutions Advisory Council.

The bureau shall consult with small businesses, financial institutions regulating agencies, and other research organizations.

CHAPTER 1131

An act to amend Sections 11735 and 11750.3 of, and to add Section 11736.5 to, the Insurance Code, relating to workers' compensation insurance.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11735 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11735. (a) Every insurer shall file with the commissioner all rates, rating plans, and supplementary rate information which are to be used in this state. The rates and supplementary information shall be filed not later than 30 days prior to the effective date. If the commissioner finds, after a hearing, that an insurer's rates require closer supervision because of the insurer's financial condition, as determined pursuant to Section 11733, the insurer shall file with the commissioner at least 30 days before the effective date, all of those rates and the supplementary rate information and supporting information as prescribed by the commissioner. Upon application by the filer, the commissioner may authorize an earlier effective date.

(b) Rates filed pursuant to this section shall be filed in the form and manner prescribed by the commissioner. All rates, supplementary information and any supporting information for rates filed under this article shall, as soon as filed, be open to public inspection at any reasonable time. Copies may be obtained by any person on request and upon payment of a reasonable charge.

(c) Upon the written application of the insurer and insured, stating its reasons therefor, filed with the commissioner, a rate in excess of that provided by a filing otherwise applicable may be used on any specific risk.

(d) Notwithstanding Section 679.70, no rating organization may issue nor may any insurer use any classification system or rate, as applied or used, that violates Section 679.71 or 679.72 or that violates the Unruh Civil Rights Act which shall also include any arbitrary economic discrimination by an insurer as a prohibited basis of discrimination.

(e) Notwithstanding Sections 11657 to 11660, inclusive, a rating plan or supplementary rate information filed with the commissioner for purposes of offering deductibles to policyholders for all or part of benefits payable under the policy shall be deemed complete if the filing contains the following:

(1) A copy of the deductible endorsement that is to be attached to the policy to effectuate deductible coverage.

(2) Endorsement language that protects the rights of injured workers and ensures that benefits are paid by the insurer without regard to any deductible. The endorsement shall specify that the nonpayment of deductible amounts by the policyholder shall not relieve the insurer from payment of compensation for injuries sustained by the employee during the period of time the endorsed policy was in effect. The endorsement shall provide that deductible policies for workers' compensation insurance coverage shall not be terminated retroactively for nonpayment of deductible amounts.

(3) The endorsement shall provide that notwithstanding the deductible, the insurer shall pay all the obligations of the employer for workers' compensation benefits for injuries occurring during the policy period. Payment by the insurer of any amounts within the deductible shall be treated as an advancement of funds by the insurer to the employer and shall create a legal obligation for reimbursements, and may be secured by appropriate security.

(4) The endorsement shall specify whether loss adjustment expenses are to be treated as advancements within the deductible to be reimbursed by the employer.

(5) An explanation of premium reductions reflecting the type and level of the deductible will be clearly set forth for the policyholder.

(6) The filing shall provide that premium reductions for deductibles are determined before application of any experience modification, premium surcharge, or premium discount, and the premium reductions reflect the type and level of deductible consistent with accepted actuarial standards.

(7) The filing shall provide that nonpayment of deductible amounts by the insured employer to its insurer, or failure to comply with any security-related terms of the policy, shall be treated under the policy in the same manner as payment or nonpayment of premium pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 676.8.

(f) The insurer shall report and record losses subject to the deductible as losses for purposes of ratemaking and application of the experience rating plan on the same bases as losses under policies providing first dollar coverage.

SEC. 1.5. Section 11735 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11735. (a) Every insurer shall file with the commissioner all rates, rating plans, and supplementary rate information which are to be used in this state. The rates and supplementary information shall be filed not later than 30 days prior to the effective date. If the commissioner finds, after a hearing, that an insurer's rates require closer supervision because of the insurer's financial condition, as determined pursuant to Section 11733, the insurer shall file with the commissioner at least 30 days before the effective date, all of those rates and the supplementary rate information and supporting information as prescribed by the commissioner. Upon application by the filer, the commissioner may authorize an earlier effective date.

(b) Rates filed pursuant to this section shall be filed in the form and manner prescribed by the commissioner. All rates, supplementary information and any supporting information for rates filed under this article shall, as soon as filed, be open to public inspection at any reasonable time. Copies may be obtained by any person on request and upon payment of a reasonable charge.

(c) Upon the written application of the insurer and insured, stating its reasons therefor, filed with the commissioner, a rate in excess of that provided by a filing otherwise applicable may be used on any specific risk.

(d) Notwithstanding Section 679.70, no rating organization may issue nor may any insurer use any classification system or rate, as applied or used, that violates Section 679.71 or 679.72 or that violates the Unruh Civil Rights Act.

(e) Notwithstanding Sections 11657 to 11660, inclusive, a rating plan or supplementary rate information filed with the commissioner for purposes of offering deductibles to policyholders for all or part of benefits payable under the policy shall be deemed complete if the filing contains the following:

(1) A copy of the deductible endorsement that is to be attached to the policy to effectuate deductible coverage.

(2) Endorsement language that protects the rights of injured workers and ensures that benefits are paid by the insurer without regard to any deductible. The endorsement shall specify that the nonpayment of deductible amounts by the policyholder shall not relieve the insurer from payment of compensation for injuries sustained by the employee during the period of time the endorsed policy was in effect. The endorsement shall provide that deductible policies for workers' compensation insurance coverage shall not be terminated retroactively for nonpayment of deductible amounts.

(3) The endorsement shall provide that notwithstanding the deductible, the insurer shall pay all the obligations of the employer for workers' compensation benefits for injuries occurring during the policy period. Payment by the insurer of any amounts within the deductible shall be treated as an advancement of funds by the insurer to the employer and shall create a legal obligation for reimbursements, and may be secured by appropriate security.

(4) The endorsement shall specify whether loss adjustment expenses are to be treated as advancements within the deductible to be reimbursed by the employer.

(5) An explanation of premium reductions reflecting the type and level of the deductible will be clearly set forth for the policyholder.

(6) The filing shall provide that premium reductions for deductibles are determined before application of any experience modification, premium surcharge, or premium discount, and the premium reductions reflect the type and level of deductible consistent with accepted actuarial standards.

(7) The filing shall provide that nonpayment of deductible amounts by the insured employer to its insurer, or failure to comply with any security-related terms of the policy, shall be treated under the policy in the same manner as payment or nonpayment of premium pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 676.8.

(f) The insurer shall report and record losses subject to the deductible as losses for purposes of ratemaking and application of the experience rating plan on the same bases as losses under policies providing first dollar coverage.

SEC. 2. Section 11736.5 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

11736.5. (a) The commissioner shall establish, by regulation, those forms of collateral or security that an insurer may designate to secure the deductible amount of any policy of workers' compensation insurance and the establishment of reserves and recognition of receivables for insurers writing workers' compensation deductible policies.

The commissioner, by order, exempt from the requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act, shall establish those forms of security or collateral that the insurer may designate to secure the deductible amount of any policy of workers' compensation insurance that provides for a deductible and the establishment of reserves and recognition of receivables for insurers writing workers' compensation deductible policies. This authority shall expire if regulations required by subdivision (a) are not drafted and filed with the Office of Administrative Law by December 31, 1995; if the regulations are filed with the Office of Administrative Law by December 31, 1995, this authority shall expire December 31, 1996, or upon filing of the regulations with the Secretary of State, whichever is earlier.

SEC. 3. Section 11750.3 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11750.3. A rating organization may be organized pursuant to this article and maintained in this state for the following purposes:

(a) To provide reliable statistics and rating information with respect to workers' compensation insurance and employer's liability insurance incidental thereto and written in connection therewith.

(b) To collect and tabulate information and statistics for the purpose of developing pure premium rates to be submitted to the commissioner for issuance or approval.

(c) To formulate rules and regulations in connection with pure premium rates and the administration of classifications and rating systems.

(d) To inspect risks for classification or rate purposes and to furnish to the insurer and upon request of the employer and after notice to the insurer, to furnish to the employer full information concerning the rates applicable to the employer's insurance.

(e) To examine policies, daily reports, endorsements or other evidences of insurance for the purpose of ascertaining whether they comply with the provisions of law and to make reasonable rules governing their submission. A rating organization may develop loss data on behalf of its members to assist members in developing plans pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 11735 and other loss sensitive plans.

(f) Within one year after expiration of any workers' compensation insurance policy, to initiate test audits of insured employer's payrolls and insurer's audits of those payrolls to check the accuracy and reliability thereof, and to examine all records relative thereto and premises of insured employers.

(g) To exchange information and experience data with rating organizations, advisory organizations, and insurers in this and other states, with respect to ratemaking.

(h) To become a member or subscriber of any lawfully authorized ratemaking or advisory organization whenever membership in the organization is necessary or helpful to the rating organization.

(i) To perform all acts necessary, incidental, or convenient to carry out the foregoing purposes or the provisions of this chapter relating to rating organizations.

SEC. 4. Section 1.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 11735 of the Insurance Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3682. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 11735 of the Insurance Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3682, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1132

An act to amend Section 22500 of, and to add Sections 22502.1, 22502.2, and 22502.3 to, the Business and Professions Code, relating to ticket sellers, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22500 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

22500. (a) A ticket seller shall have a permanent business address from which tickets may only be sold and that address shall be included in any advertisement or solicitation, and shall be duly licensed as may be required by any local jurisdiction.

(b) A violation of this section shall constitute a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding six months, or by fine not exceeding two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500), or by both.

(c) Any person who engages, has engaged, or proposes to engage in a violation of this section shall be liable for a civil penalty not to exceed two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) for each violation, which may be assessed and recovered in a civil action brought in the name of the people of the State of California by the Attorney General, or a district attorney, or a city attorney of a city having a population in excess of 750,000, and, with the consent of the district attorney, by a city prosecutor in any city, county, or city and county having a full-time prosecutor in any court of competent jurisdiction. Payment of the civil penalty shall be made pursuant to the provisions of subdivision (b) of Section 17206. For the purposes of this section, each ticket sold or offered for sale in violation of this section shall constitute a separate violation. The remedies provided by this section are cumulative to each other and to the remedies or penalties available under all other laws of this state.

SEC. 2. Section 22502.1 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

22502.1. It shall be unlawful for a ticket seller to contract for the sale of tickets or accept consideration for payment in full or for a deposit for the sale of tickets unless the ticket seller meets one or more of the following requirements:

(a) The ticket seller has the ticket in his or her possession.

(b) The ticket seller has a written contract to obtain the offered ticket at a certain price from a person in possession of the ticket or from a person who has a contractual right to obtain the ticket from the primary contractor.

(c) The ticket seller informs the purchaser orally at the time of the contract or receipt of consideration, whichever is earlier, and in writing within two business days, that the seller does not have possession of the tickets, has no contract to obtain the offered ticket at a certain price from a person in possession of the ticket or from a person who has a contractual right to obtain the ticket from the primary contractor, and may not be able to supply the ticket at the contracted price or range of prices.

Nothing in this section shall prohibit a ticket seller from accepting a deposit from a prospective purchaser as part of an agreement that the ticket seller will make best efforts to obtain a ticket at a specified price or price range and within a specified time, provided that the ticket seller informs the purchaser orally at the time of the contract or receipt of consideration, whichever is earlier, and in writing within two days, of the terms of the deposit agreement, and includes in the oral and written notice the disclosures otherwise required by this section.

SEC. 3. Section 22502.2 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

22502.2. It shall be unlawful for a ticket seller to represent that he or she can deliver or cause to be delivered a ticket at a specific price or within a specific price range and to fail to deliver within a reasonable time or by a contracted time the tickets at or below the price stated or within the range of prices stated.

SEC. 4. Section 22502.3 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

22502.3. In addition to other remedies, a ticket seller who violates Section 22502.1 or 22502.2 and fails to supply a ticket at or below a contracted price or within a contracted price range shall be civilly liable to the ticket purchaser for two times the contracted price of the ticket, in addition to any sum expended by the purchaser in nonrefundable expenses for attending or attempting to attend the event in good faith reliance on seat or space availability, and reasonable attorney's fees and court costs.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs that may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

The travel and tourism industry is an integral component of the California economy. Sporting and entertainment events help draw travelers to the state. As host to several 1994 World Cup games, including the finals to be played at the Rose Bowl, it is necessary that the consumer protections found in this act be in force prior to commencement of the games.

CHAPTER 1133

An act to amend Sections 14601, 14601.1, 14601.2, and 14601.3 of, and to add Sections 1664, 1806.1, 9255.3, 13106, 13551.1, 14607.4, 14607.6, 14607.8, and 14908 to, the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. This act shall be known as the Safe Streets Act of 1994.

SEC. 2. Section 1664 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

1664. The department shall publicize the Safe Streets Act of 1994 when mailing vehicle registrations, driver's licenses, and driver's license suspension and revocation notices, and in other educational materials made available by the department.

SEC. 3. Section 1806.1 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

1806.1. If a person has entered into a stipulated vehicle release agreement pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) of Section 14607.6, the department shall maintain a record of that fact for seven years from the date the person signed the agreement.

SEC. 4. Section 9255.3 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

9255.3. Notwithstanding Section 9255, any vehicle transferred pursuant to Section 14607.6 shall be subject to a title transfer fee equal to the department's actual cost of processing that transfer.

SEC. 5. Section 13106 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

13106. (a) When the privilege of a person to operate a motor vehicle is suspended or revoked, the department shall notify the person by certified mail, return receipt requested, of the action taken and of the effective date thereof, except for those persons personally given notice by the department or a court, by a peace officer pursuant to Section 23137 or 23158.5, or otherwise pursuant to this code. It shall be conclusively presumed that a person has knowledge of the suspension or revocation if notice has been sent by certified mail by the department pursuant to this section to the most recent address reported by the person to the department pursuant to Section 14600, and the return receipt has been signed and returned to the department. It is the responsibility of every licenseholder to report changes of address to the department pursuant to Section 14600.

(b) (1) In the event the certified mail is not delivered, the department shall attempt to provide personal service by using a process server for service of any person whose driving privilege was suspended or revoked for a conviction of a violation of Section 23103, 23104, 23152, or 23153, or for any reason listed in subdivision (a) or (c) of Section 12806, or for negligent or incompetent operation of a vehicle pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 12809 or Section 12810.

(2) The only purpose of this subdivision is to provide an additional deterrent to unlawful driving.

(c) At the time of license reinstatement, the department shall recover, through fees authorized pursuant to Section 14906, an amount equal to its total costs of providing notices pursuant to this section.

SEC. 6. Section 13551.1 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

13551.1. (a) Every notice of suspension or revocation given pursuant to Section 13106 shall include a demand for surrender to the department within 15 days of the effective date of the suspension or revocation, as specified in the notice, of all driver's licenses held by that person. The notice shall also state the reinstatement penalty fee required pursuant to Section 14908 in the event the person is eligible for future reinstatement.

(b) A person described in subdivision (a) shall surrender all driver's licenses to the department within the 15-day period.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 40000.1, failure to comply with this section is not an infraction.

SEC. 7. Section 14601 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

14601. (a) No person shall drive a motor vehicle at any time when that person's driving privilege is suspended or revoked for reckless driving in violation of Section 23103 or 23104, any reason listed in subdivision (a) or (c) of Section 12806 authorizing the department to refuse to issue a license, negligent or incompetent operation of a motor vehicle as prescribed in subdivision (e) of Section 12809, or negligent operation as prescribed in Section 12810, if the person so driving has knowledge of the suspension or revocation. Knowledge shall be conclusively presumed if mailed notice has been given by the department to the person pursuant to Section 13106. The presumption established by this subdivision is a presumption affecting the burden of proof.

(b) Any person convicted under this section shall be punished as follows:

(1) Upon a first conviction, by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than five days or more than six months and by fine of not less than three hundred dollars ($300) or more than one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(2) If the offense occurred within five years of a prior offense which resulted in a conviction of a violation of this section or Section 14601.1, 14601.2, or 14601.5, by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than 10 days or more than one year and by fine of not less than five hundred dollars ($500) or more than two thousand dollars ($2,000).

(c) If the offense occurred within five years of a prior offense which resulted in a conviction of a violation of this section or Section 14601.1, 14601.2, or 14601.5, and is granted probation, the court shall impose as a condition of probation that the person be confined in the county jail for at least 10 days.

(d) Nothing in this section prohibits a person from driving a motor vehicle, which is owned or utilized by the person's employer, during the course of employment on private property which is owned or utilized by the employer, except an off street parking facility as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 12500.

SEC. 8. Section 14601.1 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

14601.1. (a) No person shall drive a motor vehicle when his or her driving privilege is suspended or revoked for any reason other than those listed in Section 14601, 14601.2, or 14601.5, if the person so driving has knowledge of the suspension or revocation. Knowledge shall be conclusively presumed if mailed notice has been given by the department to the person pursuant to Section 13106. The presumption established by this subdivision is a presumption affecting the burden of proof.

(b) Any person convicted under this section shall be punished as follows:

(1) Upon a first conviction, by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months or by a fine of not less than three hundred dollars ($300) or more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that fine and imprisonment.

(2) If the offense occurred within five years of a prior offense which resulted in a conviction of a violation of this section or Section 14601, 14601.2, or 14601.5, by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than five days or more than one year and by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars ($500) or more than two thousand dollars ($2,000).

(c) Nothing in this section prohibits a person from driving a motor vehicle, which is owned or utilized by the person's employer, during the course of employment on private property which is owned or utilized by the employer, except an offstreet parking facility as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 12500.

14601.2. (a) No person shall drive a motor vehicle at any time when that person's driving privilege is suspended or revoked for a conviction of a violation of Section 23152 or 23153, if the person so driving has knowledge of the suspension or revocation.

(b) Except in full compliance with the restriction, no person shall drive a motor vehicle at any time when that person's driving privilege is restricted pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 23152) of Chapter 12 of Division 11, if the person so driving has knowledge of the restriction.

(c) Knowledge of suspension or revocation of the driving privilege shall be conclusively presumed if mailed notice has been given by the department to the person pursuant to Section 13106.

Knowledge of restriction of the driving privilege shall be presumed if notice has been given by the court to the person. The presumption established by this subdivision is a presumption affecting the burden of proof.

(d) Any person convicted of a violation of this section shall be punished as follows:

(1) Upon a first conviction, by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than 10 days or more than six months and by a fine of not less than three hundred dollars ($300) or more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), unless the person has been designated an habitual traffic offender under subdivision (b) of Section 23170 or subdivision (b) of Section 23175, in which case the person shall, in addition, be sentenced as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 14601.3.

(2) If the offense occurred within five years of a prior offense which resulted in a conviction of a violation of this section or Section 14601, 14601.1, or 14601.5, by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than 30 days or more than one year and by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars ($500) or more than two thousand dollars ($2,000), unless the person has been designated an habitual traffic offender under subdivision (b) of Section 23170 or subdivision (b) of Section 23175, in which case the person shall, in addition, be sentenced as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 14601.3.

(e) If any person is convicted of a first offense under this section and is granted probation, the court shall impose as a condition of probation that the person be confined in the county jail for at least 10 days.

(f) If the offense occurred within five years of a prior offense which resulted in a conviction of a violation of this section or Section 14601, 14601.1, or 14601.5 and is granted probation, the court shall impose as a condition of probation that the person be confined in the county jail for at least 30 days.

(g) If any person is convicted of a second or subsequent offense which results in a conviction of this section within seven years, but over five years, of a prior offense which resulted in a conviction of a violation of this section or Section 14601, 14601.1, or 14601.5 and is granted probation, the court shall impose as a condition of probation that the person be confined in the county jail for at least 10 days.

(h) Nothing in this section prohibits a person who is participating in, or has completed, an alcohol or drug rehabilitation program from driving a motor vehicle, which is owned or utilized by the person's employer, during the course of employment on private property which is owned or utilized by the employer, except an offstreet parking facility as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 12500.

SEC. 10. Section 14601.3 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

14601.3. (a) It is unlawful for a person whose driving privilege has been suspended or revoked to accumulate a driving record history which results from driving during the period of suspension or revocation. A person who violates this subdivision is designated an habitual traffic offender.

For purposes of this section, a driving record history means any of the following, if the driving occurred during any period of suspension or revocation:

(1) Two or more convictions within a 12-month period of an offense given a violation point count of two pursuant to Section 12810.

(2) Three or more convictions within a 12-month period of an offense given a violation point count of one pursuant to Section 12810.

(3) Three or more accidents within a 12-month period that are subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16000.

(4) Any combination of convictions or accidents, as specified in paragraphs (1) to (3), inclusive, which results during any 12-month period in a violation point count of three or more pursuant to Section 12810.

(b) Knowledge of suspension or revocation of the driving privilege shall be conclusively presumed if mailed notice has been given by the department to the person pursuant to Section 13106. The presumption established by this subdivision is a presumption affecting the burden of proof.

(c) The department, within 30 days of receipt of a duly certified abstract of the record of any court or accident report which results in a person being designated an habitual traffic offender, may execute and transmit by mail a notice of that designation to the office of the district attorney having jurisdiction over the location of the person's last known address as contained in the department's records.

(d) (1) The district attorney, within 30 days of receiving the notice required in subdivision (c), shall inform the department of whether or not the person will be prosecuted for being an habitual traffic offender.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, any habitual traffic offender designated under subdivision (b) of Section 23170 or subdivision (b) of Section 23175 who is convicted of violating Section 14601.2 shall be sentenced as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (e).

(e) Any person convicted under this section of being an habitual traffic offender shall be punished as follows:

(1) Upon a first conviction, by imprisonment in the county jail for 30 days and by a fine of one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(2) Upon a second or any subsequent offense within seven years of a prior conviction under this section, by imprisonment in the county jail for 180 days and by a fine of two thousand dollars ($2,000).

(3) Any habitual traffic offender designated under Section 193.7 of the Penal Code or under subdivision (b) of Section 23170, subdivision (b) of Section 23175, or subdivision (b) of Section 23190 who is convicted of a violation of Section 14601.2 shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for 180 days and by a fine of two thousand dollars ($2,000). The penalty in this paragraph shall be consecutive to that imposed for the violation of any other law.

SEC. 11. Section 14607.4 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read: 14607.4. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) Driving a motor vehicle on the public streets and highways is a privilege, not a right.

(b) Of all drivers involved in fatal accidents, more than 20 percent are not licensed to drive. A driver with a suspended license is four times as likely to be involved in a fatal accident as a properly licensed driver.

(c) At any given time, it is estimated by the Department of Motor Vehicles that of some 20 million driver's licenses issued to Californians, 720,000 are suspended or revoked. Furthermore, 1,000,000 persons are estimated to be driving without ever having been licensed at all.

(d) Over 4,000 persons are killed in traffic accidents in California annually, and another 330,000 persons suffer injuries.

(e) Californians who comply with the law are frequently victims of traffic accidents caused by unlicensed drivers. These innocent victims suffer considerable pain and property loss at the hands of people who flaunt the law. The Department of Motor Vehicles estimates that 75 percent of all drivers whose driving privilege has been withdrawn continue to drive regardless of the law.

(f) It is necessary and appropriate to take additional steps to prevent unlicensed drivers from driving, including the civil forfeiture of vehicles used by unlicensed drivers. The state has a critical interest in enforcing its traffic laws and in keeping unlicensed drivers from illegally driving. Seizing the vehicles used by unlicensed drivers serves a significant governmental and public interest, namely the protection of the health, safety, and welfare of Californians from the harm of unlicensed drivers, who are involved in a disproportionate number of traffic incidents, and the avoidance of the associated destruction and damage to lives and property.

(g) The Safe Streets Act of 1994 is consistent with the due process requirements of the United States Constitution and the holding of the Supreme Court of the United States in Calero-Toledo v. Pearson Yacht Leasing Co., 40 L. Ed. 2d 452.

SEC. 12. Section 14607.6 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

14607.6. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, and except as provided in this section, a motor vehicle is subject to forfeiture as a nuisance if it is driven on a highway in this state by a driver with a suspended or revoked license, or by an unlicensed driver, who is a registered owner of the vehicle at the time of impoundment and has a previous misdemeanor conviction for a violation of subdivision (a) of Section 12500 or Section 14601, 14601.1, 14601.2, 14601.3, 14601.4, or 14601.5.

(b) A peace officer shall not stop a vehicle for the sole reason of determining whether the driver is properly licensed.

(c) (1) If a driver is unable to produce a valid driver's license on the demand of a peace officer enforcing the provisions of this code, as required by subdivision (b) of Section 12951, the vehicle shall be impounded regardless of ownership, unless the peace officer is reasonably able, by other means, to verify that the driver is properly licensed. Prior to impounding a vehicle, a peace officer shall attempt to verify the license status of a driver who claims to be properly licensed but is unable to produce the license on demand of the peace officer.

(2) A peace officer shall not impound a vehicle pursuant to this subdivision if the license of the driver expired within the preceding 30 days and the driver would otherwise have been properly licensed.

(3) A peace officer may exercise discretion in a situation where the driver without a valid license is an employee driving a vehicle registered to the employer in the course of employment. A peace officer may also exercise discretion in a situation where the driver without a valid license is the employee of a bona fide business establishment or is a person otherwise controlled by such an establishment and it reasonably appears that an owner of the vehicle, or an agent of the owner, relinquished possession of the vehicle to the business establishment solely for servicing or parking of the vehicle or other reasonably similar situations, and where the vehicle was not to be driven except as directly necessary to accomplish that business purpose. In this event, if the vehicle can be returned to or be retrieved by the business establishment or registered owner, the peace officer may release and not impound the vehicle.

(4) A registered or legal owner of record at the time of impoundment may request a hearing to determine the validity of the impoundment pursuant to subdivision (n).

(5) If the driver of a vehicle impounded pursuant to this subdivision was not a registered owner of the vehicle at the time of impoundment, or if the driver of the vehicle was a registered owner of the vehicle at the time of impoundment but the driver does not have a previous conviction for a violation of subdivision (a) of Section 12500 or Section 14601, 14601.1, 14601.2, 14601.3, 14601.4, or 14601.5, the vehicle shall be released pursuant to this code and is not subject to forfeiture.

(d) (1) This subdivision applies only if the driver of the vehicle is a registered owner of the vehicle at the time of impoundment. Except as provided in paragraph (5) of subdivision (c), if the driver of a vehicle impounded pursuant to subdivision (c) was a registered owner of the vehicle at the time of impoundment, the impounding agency shall authorize release of the vehicle if, within three days of impoundment, the driver of the vehicle at the time of impoundment presents his or her valid driver's license, including a valid temporary California driver's license or permit, to the impounding agency. The vehicle shall then be released to a registered owner of record at the time of impoundment, or an agent of that owner authorized in writing, upon payment of towing and storage charges related to the impoundment, and any administrative charges authorized by Section 22850.5, providing that the person claiming the vehicle is properly licensed and the vehicle is properly registered. A vehicle impounded pursuant to the circumstances described in paragraph (3) of subdivision (c) shall be released to a registered owner whether or not the driver of the vehicle at the time of impoundment presents a valid driver's license.

(2) If there is a community property interest in the vehicle impounded pursuant to subdivision (c), owned at the time of impoundment by a person other than the driver, and the vehicle is the only vehicle available to the driver's immediate family that may be operated with a class C driver's license, the vehicle shall be released to a registered owner or to the community property interest owner upon compliance with all of the following requirements:

(A) The registered owner or the community property interest owner requests release of the vehicle and the owner of the community property interest submits proof of that interest.

(B) The registered owner or the community property interest owner submits proof that he or she, or an authorized driver, is properly licensed and that the impounded vehicle is properly registered pursuant to this code.

(C) All towing and storage charges related to the impoundment and any administrative charges authorized pursuant to Section 22850.5 are paid.

(D) The registered owner or the community property interest owner signs a stipulated vehicle release agreement, as described in paragraph (3), in consideration for the nonforfeiture of the vehicle. This requirement applies only if the driver requests release of the vehicle.

(3) A stipulated vehicle release agreement shall provide for the consent of the signator to the automatic future forfeiture and transfer of title to the state of any vehicle registered to that person, if the vehicle is driven by a driver with a suspended or revoked license, or by an unlicensed driver. The agreement shall be in effect for only as long as it is noted on a driving record maintained by the department pursuant to Section 1806.1.

(4) The stipulated vehicle release agreement described in paragraph (3) shall be reported by the impounding agency to the department not later than 10 days after the day the agreement is signed.

(5) No vehicle shall be released pursuant to paragraph (2) if the driving record of a registered owner indicates that a prior stipulated vehicle release agreement was signed by that person.

(e) (1) The impounding agency, in the case of a vehicle that has not been redeemed pursuant to subdivision (d), or that has not been otherwise released, shall promptly ascertain from the department the names and addresses of all legal and registered owners of the vehicle.

(2) The impounding agency, within two days of impoundment, shall send a notice by certified mail, return receipt requested, to all legal and registered owners of the vehicle, at the addresses obtained from the department, informing them that the vehicle is subject to forfeiture and will be sold or otherwise disposed of pursuant to this section. The notice shall also include instructions for filing a claim with the district attorney, and the time limits for filing a claim. The notice shall also inform any legal owner of its right to conduct the sale pursuant to subdivision (g). If a registered owner was personally served at the time of impoundment with a notice containing all the information required to be provided by this paragraph, no further notice is required to be sent to a registered owner. However, a notice shall still be sent to the legal owners of the vehicle, if any.

(3) If no claims are filed and served within 15 days after the mailing of the notice in paragraph (2), or if no claims are filed and served within five days of personal service of the notice specified in paragraph (2), when no other mailed notice is required pursuant to paragraph (2), the district attorney shall prepare a written declaration of forfeiture of the vehicle to the state. A written declaration of forfeiture signed by the district attorney under this subdivision shall be deemed to provide good and sufficient title to the forfeited vehicle. A copy of the declaration shall be provided on request to any person informed of the pending forfeiture pursuant to paragraph (2). A claim that is filed and is later withdrawn by the claimant shall be deemed not to have been filed.

(4) If a claim is timely filed and served, then the district attorney shall file a petition of forfeiture with the appropriate justice, juvenile, or municipal court within 10 days of the receipt of the claim. The district attorney shall establish an expedited hearing date in accordance with instructions from the court, and the court shall hear the matter without delay. The court filing fee, not to exceed fifty dollars ($50), shall be paid by the claimant, but shall be reimbursed by the impounding agency if the claimant prevails. To the extent practicable, the civil and criminal cases shall be heard at the same time in an expedited, consolidated proceeding.

(5) The burden of proof in the civil case shall be on the prosecuting agency, by a preponderance of the evidence. All questions that may arise shall be decided and all other proceedings shall be conducted as in an ordinary civil action. A judgment of forfeiture does not require as a condition precedent the conviction of a defendant of an offense which made the vehicle subject to forfeiture. The filing of a claim within the time limits specified in paragraph (3) is considered a jurisdictional prerequisite for the availing of the action authorized by that paragraph.

(6) All right, title, and interest in the vehicle shall vest in the state upon commission of the act giving rise to the forfeiture.

(f) Any vehicle impounded that is not redeemed pursuant to subdivision (d) and is subsequently forfeited pursuant to this section shall be sold once an order of forfeiture is issued by the district attorney of the county of the impounding agency or a court, as the case may be, pursuant to subdivision (e).

(g) Any legal owner who in the regular course of business conducts sales of repossessed or surrendered motor vehicles may take possession and conduct the sale of the forfeited vehicle if it notifies the agency impounding the vehicle of its intent to conduct the sale within 15 days of the mailing of the notice pursuant to subdivision (e). Sale of the vehicle after forfeiture pursuant to this subdivision may be conducted at the time, in the manner, and on the notice usually given by the legal owner for the sale of repossessed or surrendered vehicles. The proceeds of any sale conducted by the legal owner shall be disposed of as provided in subdivision (i).

(h) If the legal owner does not notify the agency impounding the vehicle of its intent to conduct the sale as provided in subdivision (g), the agency shall offer the forfeited vehicle for sale at public auction within 60 days of receiving title to the vehicle. Low value vehicles shall be disposed of pursuant to subdivision (k).

(i) The proceeds of a sale of a forfeited vehicle shall be disposed of in the following priority:

(1) To satisfy the towing and storage costs following impoundment, the costs of providing notice pursuant to subdivision (e), the costs of sale, and the unfunded costs of judicial proceedings, if any.

(2) To the legal owner in an amount to satisfy the indebtedness owed to the legal owner remaining as of the date of sale, including accrued interest or finance charges and delinquency charges, providing that the principal indebtedness was incurred prior to the date of impoundment.

(3) To the holder of any subordinate lien or encumbrance on the vehicle, other than a registered or legal owner, to satisfy any indebtedness so secured if written notification of demand is received before distribution of the proceeds is completed. The holder of a subordinate lien or encumbrance, if requested, shall furnish reasonable proof of its interest and, unless it does so upon request, is not entitled to distribution pursuant to this paragraph.

(4) To any other person, other than a registered or legal owner, who can reasonably establish an interest in the vehicle, including a community property interest, to the extent of his or her provable interest, if written notification is received before distribution of the proceeds is completed.

(5) Of the remaining proceeds, funds shall be made available to pay any local agency and court costs, that are reasonably related to the implementation of this section, that remain unsatisfied.

(6) Of the remaining proceeds, half shall be transferred to the Controller for deposit in the Vehicle Inspection and Repair Fund for the high-polluter repair assistance and removal program created by Article 9 (commencing with Section 44090) of Chapter 5 of Part 5 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code, and half shall be transferred to the general fund of the city or county of the impounding agency, or the city or county where the impoundment occurred. A portion of the local funds may be used to establish a reward fund for persons coming forward with information leading to the arrest and conviction of hit and run drivers and to publicize the availability of the reward fund.

(j) The person conducting the sale shall disburse the proceeds of the sale as provided in subdivision (i) and shall provide a written accounting regarding the disposition to the impounding agency and, on request, to any person entitled to or claiming a share of the proceeds, within 15 days after the sale is conducted.

(k) If the vehicle to be sold pursuant to this section is not of the type that can readily be sold to the public generally, the vehicle shall be conveyed to a licensed dismantler or donated to an eleemosynary institution. License plates shall be removed from any vehicle conveyed to a dismantler pursuant to this subdivision.

(l) No vehicle shall be sold pursuant to this section if the impounding agency determines the vehicle to have been stolen. In this event, the vehicle may be claimed by the registered owner at any time after impoundment, providing the vehicle registration is current and the registered owner has no outstanding traffic violations or parking penalties on his or her driving record or on the registration record of any vehicle registered to the person. If the identity of the legal and registered owners of the vehicle cannot be reasonably ascertained, the vehicle may be sold.

(m) Any owner of a vehicle who suffers any loss due to the impoundment or forfeiture of any vehicle pursuant to this section may recover the amount of the loss from the unlicensed, suspended, or revoked driver. If possession of a vehicle has been tendered to a business establishment in good faith, and an unlicensed driver employed or otherwise directed by the business establishment is the cause of the impoundment of the vehicle, a registered owner of the impounded vehicle may recover damages for the loss of use of the vehicle from the business establishment.

(n) (1) The impounding agency, if requested to do so not later than 10 days after the date the vehicle was impounded, shall provide the opportunity for a poststorage hearing to determine the validity of the storage to the persons who were the registered and legal owners of the vehicle at the time of impoundment, except that the hearing shall be requested within three days after the date the vehicle was impounded if personal service was provided to a registered owner pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (e) and no mailed notice is required.

(2) The poststorage hearing shall be conducted not later than two days after the date it was requested. The impounding agency may authorize its own officer or employee to conduct the hearing if the hearing officer is not the same person who directed the storage of the vehicle. Failure of either the registered or legal owner to request a hearing as provided in paragraph (1) or to attend a scheduled hearing shall satisfy the poststorage hearing requirement.

(3) The agency employing the person who directed the storage is responsible for the costs incurred for towing and storage if it is determined that the driver at the time of impoundment had a valid driver's license.

(o) As used in this section, "days" means workdays not including weekends and holidays.

(p) Charges for towing and storage for any vehicle impounded pursuant to this section shall not exceed the normal towing and storage rates for other vehicle towing and storage conducted by the impounding agency in the normal course of business.

(q) The Judicial Council and the Department of Justice may prescribe standard forms and procedures for implementation of this section to be used by all jurisdictions throughout the state.

(r) The impounding agency may act as the agent of the state in carrying out this section.

(s) No vehicle shall be impounded pursuant to this section if the driver has a valid license but the license is for a class of vehicle other than the vehicle operated by the driver.

(t) This section does not apply to vehicles subject to Sections 14608 and 14609, if there has been compliance with the procedures in those sections.

SEC. 13. Section 14607.8 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

14607.8. Upon a first misdemeanor conviction of a violation of subdivision (a) of Section 12500 or Section 14601, 14601.1, 14601.2, 14601.3, 14601.4, or 14601.5, the court shall inform the defendant that, pursuant to Section 14607.6, a motor vehicle is subject to forfeiture as a nuisance if it is driven on a highway in this state by a driver with a suspended or revoked license, or by an unlicensed driver, who is a registered owner of the vehicle and has a previous misdemeanor conviction for a violation of subdivision (a) of Section 12500 or Section 14601, 14601.1, 14601.2, 14601.3, 14601.4, or 14601.5.

SEC. 14. Section 14908 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

14908. If a person fails to surrender his or her license to the department as required by Section 13351.1, the department shall set and charge a license reinstatement penalty fee, as determined by the department, in addition to any fees that may be required by Section 14904, 14905, or 14906, as the case may be. The fee shall be waived if the person returns to the department an acknowledgment of the license suspension or revocation along with a statement that the license has been previously surrendered to a court or peace officer, or that provides any other reasonable explanation.

SEC. 15. Nothing in this act shall be deemed either to authorize a city, county, or city and county to enact an ordinance or resolution, or to preempt or preclude a city, county, or city and county from enacting an ordinance or resolution, that provides for administrative sanctions involving impoundment of vehicles used in the commission of the offense of driving with a suspended or revoked license or without a license.

SEC. 16. Sections 5 to 10, inclusive, of this act shall become operative on June 30, 1995.

SEC. 17. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for those costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

Moreover, no reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code for other costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) and any other provisions of law for those other costs. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to add Sections 21100.5, 21100.6, and 21562.5 to the Water Code, relating to water.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 21100.5 is added to the Water Code, to read:
21100.5. (a) This section applies to the Stratford Irrigation District.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 21100, the board of directors of the district may adopt a resolution that authorizes a person who meets the landownership requirement of Section 21100 and resides in Kings County to be a director of the district.

(c) Notwithstanding the adoption of a resolution pursuant to subdivision (b), the registered voters in the district may request, in writing, that all of the directors who are appointed or elected subsequent to the receipt of the request be required to meet all of the requirements of Section 21100. The request shall be submitted to the directors.

(d) If the directors determine that at least 25 percent of the registered voters in the district have signed the request submitted pursuant to subdivision (c), all of the directors who are appointed or elected subsequent to the receipt of the request shall meet all of the requirements of Section 21100.

SEC. 2. Section 21100.6 is added to the Water Code, to read:

21100.6. (a) This section applies to the Byron-Bethany Irrigation

District.

(b) (1) Notwithstanding Section 21100, the board of directors of the district may adopt a resolution that authorizes a person who meets the landownership requirement of Section 21100 and resides in the County of Alameda, Contra Costa, or San Joaquin to be a director of the district.

(2) Notwithstanding the adoption of a resolution pursuant to paragraph (1), the registered voters in the district may request, in writing, that all of the directors who are elected subsequent to the receipt of the request be required to meet all of the requirements of Section 21100. The request shall be submitted to the directors.

(3) If the directors determine that at least 25 percent of the registered voters in the district have signed the request submitted pursuant to paragraph (2), all of the directors who are elected subsequent to the receipt of the request shall meet all of the requirements of Section 21100.

(c) Notwithstanding Sections 21552, 21553, and 21554, the board of directors of the district may adopt a resolution that requires the election of directors by division. The proposed division boundaries shall be made available upon request and at the public hearing described in subdivision (d). Division boundaries shall be established pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 21605) of Chapter 1 of Part 4.

(d) (1) Before considering the adoption of a resolution pursuant to subdivision (b) or (c), the board of directors shall provide at least 45 days' notice of the public hearing at which the board proposes to act on the resolution. The notice of the public hearing shall be given by placing a display advertisement of at least one-eighth page in a newspaper of general circulation for three weeks pursuant to Section 6063 of the Government Code and by first-class mailing to each voter, postage prepaid, in the United States mail and shall be deemed given when so deposited. The public hearing shall be held at least 45 days after the mailing pursuant to this subdivision. The envelope or the cover of the mailing shall include the name of the local agency and the return address of the sender. This mailed notice shall be in at least 10-point type and be given to all registered voters in the district.

(2) The notice required by paragraph (1) shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(A) A statement that the board of directors will consider a resolution authorizing a person who only meets the landownership requirement of Section 21100 to be a director of the district, or a statement that the board of directors will consider a resolution that requires the election of directors by division.

(B) The address to which registered voters may mail a protest against the adoption of a resolution pursuant to subdivision (b) or (c).

(C) The phone number and address of an individual that interested persons may contact to receive additional information about the resolution.

(D) A statement that a protest by 10 percent of the registered voters will prevent the adoption of the resolution by the board of directors and that the board of directors are prohibited from considering the adoption of such a resolution for at least four years.

(E) The date, time, and location of the public hearing.

(e) (1) Prior to the public hearing, any voter may submit to the board of directors a written protest against the adoption of a proposed resolution pursuant to subdivision (b) or (c). The protest shall be in writing and shall identify the registered voter.

(2) If the board of directors finds that the protest made by the registered voters in the district represents more than 10 percent of the total number of registered voters in the district, and the protests are not withdrawn so as to reduce the percentage to less than 10 percent, the board of directors shall not adopt the resolution and shall not consider the adoption of such a resolution for at least four years.

(f) A resolution shall not be adopted pursuant to subdivision (b) or (c) less than 180 days before a general district election.

SEC. 3. Section 21562.5 is added to the Water Code, to read:

21562.5. (a) This section applies to the Alta Irrigation District.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 21550, the board of directors of the district may adopt a resolution that increases the number of directors and the divisions from which they are elected from five to seven in accordance with this section.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 21383, if the number of district directors is increased from five to seven pursuant to this section, the number of directors required to constitute a quorum of the board and to concur on all questions, except a motion to adjourn or a motion to adjourn to a stated time, is four.

(d) The board of directors shall, by resolution, adjust the boundaries of any divisions pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 35200) of Division 19 of the Elections Code.

(e) (1) Before considering the adoption of a resolution pursuant to subdivision (b), the board of directors shall provide at least 45 days notice of the public hearing at which the board proposes to act on the resolution. The notice of the public hearing shall be provided by placing a display advertisement of at least one-eighth page in a newspaper of general circulation in each county and incorporated city in which territory of the district is located for three weeks pursuant to Section 6063 of the Government Code. The public hearing shall be held at least 45 days after the first publication of the notice.

(2) The notice required by paragraph (1) shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(A) A statement that the board of directors will consider a resolution to change from five to seven the number of directors of the district and the divisions from which they are elected.

(B) The phone number and address of an individual that interested persons may contact to receive additional information about the resolution.

(C) The date, time, and location of the public hearing.

(D) Notice that the resolution will be effective for the district elections occurring at least 180 days after adoption of the resolution unless a petition protesting the resolution containing the signatures of not less than 10 percent of the qualified registered voters of the district is filed with the secretary of the district within 30 days from the date of the adoption of the resolution in the same manner and subject to the same requirements as are set forth in Sections 3754, 3755, and 3755.5 of the Elections Code, except that all elections referred to in those sections and officers of the county mentioned in those sections shall be construed to refer to general or special district elections and to comparable officers of the district; and the heading of the proposed referendum shall be in substantially the following form: "Referendum Against a Resolution Passed by the Board of Directors of the Alta Irrigation District Changing From Five to Seven the Number of Directors of the District and the Divisions From Which They Are Elected."

(f) This section shall become operative only if Assembly Bill 2536 of the 1993-94 Regular Session is enacted and becomes operative.

SEC. 4. Section 21562.5 is added to the Water Code, to read:

21562.5. (a) This section applies to the Alta Irrigation District.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 21550, the board of directors of the district may adopt a resolution that increases the number of directors and the divisions from which they are elected from five to seven in accordance with this section.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 21383, if the number of district directors is increased from five to seven pursuant to this section, the number of directors required to constitute a quorum of the board and to concur on all questions, except a motion to adjourn or a motion to adjourn to a stated time, is four.

(d) (1) The board of directors shall, by resolution, adjust the boundaries of any divisions so that the divisions are, as far as practicable, equal in population and comply with the applicable provisions of Section 1973 of Title 42 of the United States Code, as amended. In establishing the boundaries of the district, the board may give consideration to all of the following factors:

(A) Topography.
 (B) Geography.
 (C) Cohesiveness, contiguity, integrity, and compactness of territory.

(D) Community of interest of the district.

(2) The resolution requires the vote of not less than a majority of the directors for adoption.

(3) At the time of, or after, any annexation of territory to the district, the board of directors shall designate, by resolution, the division of which the annexed territory shall be a part.

(4) No change in division boundaries may be made within 180 days preceding the election of any director.

(5) (A) A change in division boundaries shall not affect the term of office of any director.

(B) If division boundaries are adjusted, the director of the division whose boundaries have been adjusted, shall continue to be the director of the division bearing the number of his or her division as formerly comprised until the office becomes vacant by means of term expiration or otherwise, whether or not the director is a resident within the boundaries of the division as adjusted.

(6) The successor to the office in a division whose boundaries have been adjusted shall be a resident and voter of that division.

(7) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit or restrict the district from adjusting the boundaries of any divisions whenever the governing body of the district determines that a sufficient change in population has occurred that makes it desirable in the opinion of the governing body to adjust the boundaries of any divisions, or whenever any territory is added to or excluded from the district.

(e) (1) Before considering the adoption of a resolution pursuant to subdivision (b), the board of directors shall provide at least 45 days notice of the public hearing at which the board proposes to act on the resolution. The notice of the public hearing shall be provided by placing a display advertisement of at least one-eighth page in a newspaper of general circulation in each county and incorporated city in which territory of the district is located for three weeks pursuant to Section 6063 of the Government Code. The public hearing shall be held at least 45 days after the first publication of the notice.

(2) The notice required by paragraph (1) shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(A) A statement that the board of directors will consider a resolution to change from five to seven the number of directors of the district and the divisions from which they are elected.

(B) The phone number and address of an individual that interested persons may contact to receive additional information about the resolution.

(C) The date, time, and location of the public hearing.

(D) Notice that the resolution will be effective for the next district elections occurring at least 180 days after adoption of the resolution unless a petition protesting the resolution containing the signatures of not less than 10 percent of the registered qualified voters of the district is filed with the secretary of the district within 30 days from the date of the adoption of the resolution in the same manner and subject to the same requirements as are set forth in Sections 3754, 3755, and 3755.5 of the Elections Code, except that all elections referred to in those sections and officers of the county mentioned in those sections shall be construed to refer to general or special district elections and to comparable officers of the district; and the heading of the proposed referendum shall be in substantially the following form: "Referendum Against a Resolution Passed by the Board of Directors of the Alta Irrigation District Changing From Five to Seven the Number of Directors of the District and the Divisions From Which They Are Elected.”

(f) This section shall become operative only if Assembly Bill 2536 of the 1993–94 Regular Session is not enacted or does not become operative.

SEC. 5. The Legislature finds and declares that Section 1 of this act, which is applicable only to the Stratford Irrigation District, is necessary because a substantial portion of the land included within the district is owned by persons residing in Kings County, but not necessarily within the district, who are concerned with the affairs and support of the district. It is, therefore, hereby declared that a general law cannot be made applicable to the district in accordance with Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution, and that the enactment of this special law is necessary for the solution of problems existing within the district.

SEC. 6. The Legislature finds and declares that Section 2 of this act, which is applicable only to the Byron-Bethany Irrigation District, is necessary because a substantial portion of the land included within the district is owned by persons residing in prescribed counties, but not necessarily within the district, who are concerned with the affairs and support of the district. It is, therefore, hereby declared that a general law cannot be made applicable to the district in accordance with Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution, and that the enactment of this special law is necessary for the solution of problems existing within the district.

SEC. 7. The Legislature finds and declares that Sections 3 and 4 of this act which are applicable only to the Alta Irrigation District are necessary to ensure compliance with the preclearance provisions of the federal Voting Rights Act and to provide for more effective representation for its urban residents. It is, therefore, hereby declared that a general law cannot be made applicable to the district in accordance with Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution, and that the enactment of this special law is necessary for the solution of problems existing within the district.

An act to amend Sections 30 and 7091 of, to add Sections 7103 and 7104 to, and to add Article 12 (commencing with Section 7190) to Chapter 9 of Division 3 of, the Business and Professions Code, relating to licensees.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 30 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

30. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any board, as defined in Section 22, and the State Bar and the Department of Real Estate shall at the time of issuance or renewal of the license require that any licensee provide its federal employer identification number if the licensee is a partnership or his or her social security number for all others.

(b) Any licensee failing to provide the federal identification number or social security number shall be reported by the licensing board to the Franchise Tax Board and, if failing to provide after notification pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 19276 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, shall be subject to the penalty provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 19276 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(c) In addition to the penalty specified in subdivision (b), a licensing board may not process any application for an original license or for renewal of a license unless the applicant or licensee provides its federal employer identification number or social security number where requested on the application.

(d) A licensing board shall, upon request of the Franchise Tax Board, furnish to the Franchise Tax Board the following information with respect to every licensee:

- (1) Name.
- (2) Address or addresses of record.
- (3) Federal employer identification number if the entity is a partnership or social security number for all others.
- (4) Type of license.
- (5) Effective date of license or renewal.
- (6) Expiration date of license.
- (7) Whether license is active or inactive, if known.
- (8) Whether license is new or renewal.

(e) For the purposes of this section:

(1) "Licensee" means any entity, other than a corporation, authorized by a license, certificate, registration, or other means to engage in a business or profession regulated by this code or referred to in Section 1000 or 3600.

(2) "License" includes a certificate, registration, or any other authorization needed to engage in a business or profession regulated by this code or referred to in Section 1000 or 3600.

(3) "Licensing board" means any board, as defined in Section 22, the State Bar, and the Department of Real Estate.

(f) The reports required under this section shall be filed on magnetic media or in other machine-readable form, according to standards furnished by the Franchise Tax Board.

(g) Licensing boards shall provide to the Franchise Tax Board the information required by this section at a time that the Franchise Tax Board may require.

(h) Notwithstanding Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, the social security number and federal employer identification number furnished pursuant to this section shall not be deemed to be a public record and shall not be open to the public for inspection.

(i) Any deputy, agent, clerk, officer, or employee of any licensing board described in subdivision (a), or any former officer or employee or other individual who in the course of his or her employment or duty has or has had access to the information required to be furnished under this section, may not disclose or make known in any manner that information, except as provided in this section to the Franchise Tax Board or as provided in subdivision (k).

(j) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to utilize the social security account number or federal employer identification number for the purpose of establishing the identification of persons affected by state tax laws and for purposes of compliance with Section 11350.6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code and, to that end, the information furnished pursuant to this section shall be used exclusively for those purposes.

(k) If the board utilizes a national examination to issue a license, and if a reciprocity agreement or comity exists between the State of California and the state requesting release of the social security number, any deputy, agent, clerk, officer, or employee of any licensing board described in subdivision (a) may release a social security number to an examination or licensing entity, only for the purpose of verification of licensure or examination status.

SEC. 2. Section 7091 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7091. (a) A complaint against a licensee alleging commission of any patent acts or omissions that may be grounds for legal action shall be filed in writing with the registrar within four years after the act or omission alleged as the ground for the disciplinary action. An accusation or citation against a licensee shall be filed within four years after the patent act or omission alleged as the ground for disciplinary action or within 18 months from the date of the filing of the complaint with the registrar, whichever is later, except that with respect to an accusation alleging a violation of Section 7112, the accusation may be filed within two years after the discovery by the registrar or by the board of the alleged facts constituting the fraud or misrepresentation prohibited by the section.

(b) A complaint against a licensee alleging commission of any latent acts or omissions that may be grounds for legal action pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 7109 regarding structural defects, as defined by regulation, shall be filed in writing with the registrar within 10 years after the act or omission alleged as the ground for the disciplinary action. An accusation and citation against a licensee shall be filed within 10 years after the latent act or omission alleged as the ground for disciplinary action or within 18 months from the date of the filing of the complaint with the registrar, whichever is later, except that with respect to an accusation alleging a violation of Section 7112, the accusation may be filed within two years after the discovery by the registrar or by the board of the alleged facts constituting the fraud or misrepresentation prohibited by Section 7112. As used in this section "latent act or omission" means an act or omission that is not apparent by reasonable inspection.

(c) An accusation regarding an alleged breach of an express, written warranty for a period in excess of the time periods specified in subdivisions (a) and (b) issued by the contractor shall be filed within the duration of that warranty.

(d) The proceedings under this article shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and the registrar shall have all the powers granted therein.

(e) Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect the liability of a surety or the period of limitations prescribed by law for the commencement of actions against a surety or cash deposit.

(f) The board shall adopt regulations to define the term "structural defect" for purposes of this section by December 31, 1995.

SEC. 3. Section 7103 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

7103. The revocation, suspension, or other disciplinary action of a license to act as a contractor by another state shall constitute grounds for disciplinary action in this state if the individual is a licensee, or applies for a license, in this state. A certified copy of the revocation, suspension, or other disciplinary action by the other state is conclusive evidence of that action.

SEC. 4. Section 7104 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

7104. When the board resolves a complaint, the board shall notify the complainant in writing of its action and the reasons for taking that action. The board shall provide the same notice in writing to the contractor provided that the contractor is licensed and the notification would not jeopardize an action or investigation that involves the contractor.

SEC. 5. Article 12 (commencing with Section 7190) is added to Chapter 9 of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, to read:

Article 12. Prohibitions

7190. (a) The name or position of a public official may not be used in an advertisement or any promotional material by a person licensed under this chapter, without the written authorization of the public official. A printed advertisement or promotional material that uses the name or position of a public official with that public official's written authorization, shall also include a disclaimer in at least 10-point roman boldface type, that shall be in a color or print which contrasts with the background so as to be easily legible, and set apart from any other printed matter. The disclaimer shall consist of a statement that reads "The name of (specify name of public official) does not imply that (specify name of public official) endorses this product or service in (his or her) official capacity and does not imply an endorsement by any governmental entity." If the advertisement is broadcast, this statement shall be read in a clearly audible tone of voice.

(b) For purposes of this section, "public official" means a member, officer, employee, or consultant of a local government agency, as defined in Section 82041 of the Government Code, or state agency, as defined in Section 82049 of the Government Code.

7191. (a) If a contract for work on residential property with four or fewer units contains a provision for arbitration of a dispute between the principals in the transaction, the provision shall be clearly titled "ARBITRATION OF DISPUTES."

If a provision for arbitration is included in a printed contract, it shall be set out in at least 10-point roman boldface type or in contrasting red print in at least 8-point roman boldface type, and if the provision is included in a typed contract, it shall be set out in capital letters.

(b) Immediately before the line or space provided for the parties to indicate their assent or nonassent to the arbitration provision described in subdivision (a), and immediately following that arbitration provision, the following shall appear:

"NOTICE: BY INITIALING IN THE SPACE BELOW YOU ARE AGREEING TO HAVE ANY DISPUTE ARISING OUT OF THE MATTERS INCLUDED IN THE 'ARBITRATION OF DISPUTES' PROVISION DECIDED BY NEUTRAL ARBITRATION AS PROVIDED BY CALIFORNIA LAW AND YOU ARE GIVING UP ANY RIGHTS YOU MIGHT POSSESS TO HAVE THE DISPUTE LITIGATED IN A COURT OR JURY TRIAL. BY INITIALING IN THE SPACE BELOW YOU ARE GIVING UP YOUR JUDICIAL RIGHTS TO DISCOVERY AND APPEAL, UNLESS THOSE RIGHTS ARE SPECIFICALLY INCLUDED IN THE 'ARBITRATION OF DISPUTES' PROVISION. IF YOU REFUSE TO SUBMIT TO ARBITRATION AFTER AGREEING TO THIS PROVISION, YOU MAY BE COMPELLED TO ARBITRATE UNDER THE AUTHORITY OF THE BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONS CODE OR OTHER APPLICABLE LAWS. YOUR AGREEMENT TO THIS ARBITRATION PROVISION IS VOLUNTARY." "WE HAVE READ AND UNDERSTAND THE FOREGOING AND AGREE TO SUBMIT DISPUTES ARISING OUT OF THE MATTERS INCLUDED IN THE 'ARBITRATION OF DISPUTES' PROVISION TO NEUTRAL ARBITRATION."

If the above provision is included in a printed contract, it shall be set out either in at least 10-point roman boldface type or in contrasting red print in at least 8-point roman boldface type, and if the provision is included in a typed contract, it shall be set out in capital letters.

(c) A provision for arbitration of a dispute between a principal in a contract for work on a residential property with four or fewer units that does not comply with this section may not be enforceable against any person other than the licensee.

(d) This section does not limit the board's authority to investigate complaints or to discipline a licensee for violations of this code.

An act relating to the Political Reform Act of 1974.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature that a system be developed to permit persons required to file reports under the Political Reform Act of 1974 to file all reports electronically or by computer diskette and that this information be made available to the public by on-line public access computer networks.

(b) With respect to all reports required to be filed with the Secretary of State under the Political Reform Act of 1974, the Secretary of State shall study the options for a computerized system through which these reports would be filed, maintained, and made available to the public.

(c) In conducting the study required by this section, the Secretary of State shall do both of the following:

(1) Consider the potential costs of the computerized system under consideration to the office of the Secretary of State, to local officials, and to persons required to file the reports under study.

(2) Create, and be assisted by, an advisory committee composed of technical experts, persons required to file the reports under study, and local officials.

(3) Determine whether similar information required by local agencies may be centralized into a single electronic filing system within the office of the Secretary of State.

(d) The Secretary of State shall report in writing to the Legislature no later than January 1, 1996, on the results of the study required by this section.

CHAPTER 1137

An act to add Section 12173 to the Government Code, relating to elections.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that:

The informed exercise of the voting right is the citizen's best assurance of a responsive government.

Advances in communications and information processing technology dramatically improve the accessibility of information. Those advances should be utilized to better inform voters by making better information about candidates and issues more easily and conveniently available.

The Secretary of State has a responsibility to provide citizens with useful information on statewide candidates and ballot initiatives. Currently that information is provided only in printed form.

SEC. 2. Section 12173 is added to the Government Code, to read: 12173. The Secretary of State's office shall develop a program to utilize modern communications and information processing technology to enhance the availability and accessibility of information on statewide candidates and ballot initiatives. This includes making information available on line as well as through other information processing technology.

The Secretary of State shall report to the Legislature on the scope and cost of the program by June 30, 1995.

An act relating to health services, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) Notwithstanding Section 16990 and paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 16990.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, for the 1994-95 fiscal year, the State Department of Health Services and a county with a population over seven million, in computing the level of net county cost for the 1994-95 fiscal year to determine compliance with the financial maintenance of effort provisions of Section 16990 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall exclude from allowable revenues an amount determined by the county, but no more than one hundred ten million dollars ($110,000,000) in allowable revenues the county actually receives through disproportionate share hospital payment adjustments for the 1994-95 fiscal year made pursuant to Section 14105.98 of the Welfare and Institutions Code to the extent permitted by federal law, provided the county complies with the following provisions:

(1) The county complies with Sections 17608.10 and 17608.15 of the Welfare and Institutions Code pertaining to deposits of funds in the health account of its local health and welfare trust fund.

(2) The county shall take no action to reduce or curtail health or mental health care services and shall take no action to reduce health and mental health care services within the county's department of health services in the 1994-95 fiscal year below the levels that existed in the 1992-93 fiscal year.

(b) (1) For purposes of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), curtailments and reductions shall include the following:

(A) A closure or reduction in the numbers or capacity of county clinics, hospitals, or other health care facilities or mental health facilities maintained by the county's department of health services.

(B) A significant reduction in total staffing of all county health and mental health facilities within the county's department of health services.

(C) A change in the eligibility standards for health care services that results in a reduction in the number of eligible beneficiaries. A reduction described in this subparagraph does not prevent changes in verification methods otherwise permitted by law.

(D) A reduction in the level or scope of benefits provided.

(2) Curtailments and reductions specified in paragraph (1) shall not include reductions brought about by strike, natural disaster, a reduction in patient demand, or other factor beyond the control of the county, so long as staffing and service levels are restored to their 1992-93 levels as soon as possible.

(c) (1) The county shall provide on a monthly basis, during the 1994-95 fiscal year, to the State Department of Health Services all of the following data relating to each facility operated by the county department of health services:

(A) Total number of employees, to the extent available.

(B) The number of full-time equivalent employees, to the extent available.

(C) The number of inpatient days.

(D) The number of outpatient visits by emergency room at each hospital, outpatient clinic at each hospital, comprehensive health center, and public health center.

(E) The number of budgeted beds.

(F) The number of emergency room visits.

(G) Patient workload reports, providing inpatient, outpatient, and birth statistics.

(H) Inpatient/outpatient workload summary, including the source documents used to prepare said summary.

(I) The Chief Administrative Office Position Status Summary Report.

(J) Enhanced Chief Administrative Office Position Status Summary Report, providing information in addition to that set forth in the Chief Administrative Office Position Status Summary Report beginning in January 1, 1995.

(2) The county shall continue to collect or maintain on a monthly basis for services provided during the 1994-95 fiscal year all of the following data, to the extent the data is collected or maintained as of July 1, 1994, relating to each emergency room at each hospital, outpatient clinic at each hospital, comprehensive health center, and public health center operated by the county department of health services:

(A) Waiting time to obtain a scheduled appointment.

(B) Routine waiting times for patients to be treated by a provider.

(C) Routine waiting time for patients in the emergency room to be treated by a provider.

(D) Routine waiting time for patients in the emergency room who require hospitalization to be admitted to the hospital.

(3) Data required pursuant to paragraph (1) shall be provided to the State Department of Health Services as soon as it becomes available. The county shall also provide to the State Department of Health Services comparable baseline data and such other information as the department may require to verify compliance with this section.

(4) Where possible, the county shall utilize existing reporting formats to provide the data required pursuant to paragraph (1).

(5) The data submitted pursuant to this subdivision shall be used only for the purposes of this section, and shall not affect any current or future reporting requirements pertaining to the distribution of funds from the Cigarette and Tobacco Products Surtax Fund, revenues distributed to counties under the realignment of state and local programs pursuant to Chapters 89 and 97 of the Statutes of 1991, or any other revenue distributed to counties for county health services.

(6) The State Department of Health Services shall make the data submitted pursuant to paragraph (1) available to any interested party upon request, and it shall become a public record.

(d) (1) The State Department of Health Services shall, in the course of its routine monitoring activities, review the county's compliance with this section, on a quarterly basis, as soon as the data is provided for each quarter of the 1994-95 fiscal year.

(2) (A) If the State Department of Health Services determines that there has been a reduction in overall service levels in violation of this section, the county shall, within 15 days of receipt of the department's determination, submit a plan of correction to the department. The department shall immediately review the county's plan of correction and approve or disapprove the plan within 15 days of receipt.

(B) If the State Department of Health Services is unable to negotiate an acceptable plan of correction with the county, or the county does not immediately and fully implement the plan, the State Department of Health Services may withhold further payment of funds to the county under Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 16940) of Part 4.7 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code until such time as the county complies with paragraph (2) of subdivision (a).

(e) This section shall not limit the right of the county to forego funding from the Cigarette and Tobacco Products Surtax Fund for the California Health Care for the Indigent Program, provided for pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 16940) of Part 4.7 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, to withdraw from the California Health Care for the Indigent Program pursuant to the provisions of its program contract with the State Department of Health Services.

(f) This section is not intended to alter the requirements of Sections 10000, 17000, and 17001 of the Welfare and Institutions Code or to affect efforts to implement mental health managed care.

(g) If the county fails to comply with paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (a), the State Department of Health Services shall include the revenues in the computation of net county costs in determining financial maintenance of effort that would otherwise have been excluded pursuant to subdivision (a) and shall recover funds pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 16990 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(h) For the 1994-95 fiscal year, notwithstanding any other provision of law, if the county meets the requirements of subdivisions (a), (b), (c), and (d) of this section and the requirements of Section 17608.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and if the county receives more than six hundred million dollars ($600,000,000) in revenues generated by the county's department of health services for Medi-Cal administrative services under Sections 14132.44 and 14132.47 of the Welfare and Institutions Code or any similar, predecessor, or derivative authority relating to Medi-Cal reimbursement for local agency administrative costs for services provided from July 1, 1992, through June 30, 1995, or an amount determined in accordance with subdivision (i) of this section, up to one hundred twenty-eight million dollars ($128,000,000) of the amount over six hundred million dollars ($600,000,000) as adjusted by subdivision (i), but not more than the amount of revenue received by the county for Medi-Cal administrative services as set forth in this subdivision, shall be deemed county general purpose revenues for all purposes, and shall not be considered revenue for any calculation of net county cost.

(i) To the extent that the county actually realizes increased funding or realizes cost savings for the support of its department of health services beyond the levels reflected in the budget for the 1994-95 fiscal year adopted by the county board of supervisors on or about July 14, 1994, the six hundred million dollar ($600,000,000) threshold in subdivision (h) may be decreased by up to an equivalent amount as determined by the county board of supervisors.

(j) To the extent that the county's 1994-95 contribution to the retirement system on behalf of its department of health services decreases below the amount of 1993-94 contribution and to the extent that the savings are not utilized to reduce the threshold pursuant to subdivision (i), an amount of disproportionate share hospital revenues equivalent to that savings shall be set aside pursuant to Section 16990.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code to mitigate any county department of health services budget shortfalls in the 1995-96 fiscal year.

(k) To the extent that the county realizes federal revenues from emergency assistance funds pursuant to Title IV-A of the Social Security Act to reimburse costs incurred by its department of health services and to the extent that the increase in funding is not utilized to reduce the threshold pursuant to subdivision (i), an amount of disproportionate share hospital revenues equivalent to the amount of the emergency assistance revenues actually realized shall be set aside pursuant to Section 16990.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code to mitigate any county department of health services budget shortfalls in the 1995-96 fiscal year.

(l) Beginning in the 1995-96 fiscal year, contingent upon and to the extent that general purpose revenues become available as a result of (1) a county-enacted tax increase based on authority granted subsequent to the enactment of this measure, (2) state or locally-imposed taxes or fees enacted after July 1, 1994, (3) a state- or locally-legislated expansion in the base or increase in the rate of taxation and fee assessment above those in effect July 1, 1994, (exclusive of the property tax base), and (4) new sources of revenue not allocated in the county budget for the 1994-95 fiscal year, the county shall appropriate a portion of these additional revenues to the county department of health services in an amount which, over successive fiscal years, and in conjunction with funds identified pursuant to subdivision (j), equals the amount of funding deemed to be county general purpose revenues by the county pursuant to subdivision (h).

(m) As a condition of the authority to designate county general purpose revenues pursuant to subdivision (h), the county shall make no health and mental health care curtailments within the county's department of health services and shall take no action to reduce health and mental health care services as defined in subdivision (b) within the county's department of health services in the 1994-95 fiscal year below the levels that existed in the 1992-93 fiscal year, and the county shall provide and maintain data in accordance with subdivision (c) for services provided during the 1994-95 fiscal year.

(n) Except as otherwise provided, this section shall be operative only until July 1, 1996.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this section pursuant to Section 6 of Article XII B of the California Constitution because the provisions are voluntary on the part of the county.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to permit the allocation of, and avoid the recoupment of Cigarette and Tobacco Products Surtax revenues and other revenues intended for the provision of needed health and mental health services by local agencies in the 1994-95 fiscal year, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1139

An act to amend Sections 86117, 90001, and 90002 of the Government Code, relating to the Political Reform Act of 1974.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 86117 of the Government Code is amended to read:

86117. (a) Reports required by Sections 86114 and 86116 shall be filed during the month following each calendar quarter. The period covered shall be from the first day of January of each new biennial legislative session through the last day of the calendar quarter prior to the month during which the report is filed, except as specified in subdivision (b), and except that the period covered shall not include any information reported in previous reports filed by the same person. When total amounts are required to be reported, totals shall be stated both for the period covered by the statement and for the entire legislative session to date.

(b) The period covered by the first report a person is required to file pursuant to Sections 86114 and 86116 shall begin with the first day of the calendar quarter in which the filer first registered or qualified. On the first report a person is required to file, the total amount shall be stated for the entire calendar quarter covered by the first report.

SEC. 2. Section 90001 of the Government Code is amended to read:

90001. Audits and investigations shall be made pursuant to Section 90000 with respect to the reports and statements of:

(a) Each lobbying firm and each lobbyist employer who employs one or more lobbyists shall be subject to an audit on a random basis with these lobbying firms or lobbyist employers having a 25-percent chance of being audited. When a lobbying firm or lobbyist employer is audited, the individual lobbyists who are employed by the lobbying firm or the lobbyist employer shall also be audited.

(b) Each statewide, Supreme Court, court of appeal, or Board of Equalization candidate in a direct primary or general election for whom it is determined that twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) or more in contributions have been raised or twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) or more in expenditures have been made, whether by the candidate or by a committee or committees controlled by the candidate or whose participation in the direct primary or general election is primarily in support of his or her candidacy. Each statewide candidate whose contributions and expenditures are less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) shall be subject to an audit on a random basis of 10 percent of the number of such candidates.

(c) Each candidate for the Legislature or superior court judge in a direct primary or general election shall be subject to audit by random selection if it is determined that fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) or more in contributions have been received or fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) or more in expenditures have been made, whether by the candidate or by a committee or committees controlled by the candidate or primarily supporting his or her candidacy. Random selection shall be made of 25 percent of the Senate districts, 25 percent of the Assembly districts and 25 percent of the judicial offices contested in an election year.

(d) Each candidate for the Legislature in a special primary or special runoff election for whom it is determined that fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) or more in contributions have been raised or fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) or more in expenditures have been made, whether by the candidate or by a committee or committees controlled by the candidate or primarily supporting his or her candidacy.

(e) Each controlled committee of any candidate who is being audited pursuant to subdivision (b), (c), or (d).

(f) Each committee, other than a committee specified in subdivision (c) of Section 82013, primarily supporting or opposing a candidate who is being audited pursuant to subdivision (b), (c), or (d) if it is determined that the committee has expended more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

(g) Each committee, other than a committee specified in subdivision (c) of Section 82013, whose participation is primarily in support of or in opposition to a state measure or state measures if it is determined that the committee has expended more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) on such measure or measures.

(h) Each committee, other than a committee defined in subdivision (c) of Section 82013, a controlled committee or a committee primarily supporting or opposing a state candidate or measure, if it is determined that the committee has raised or expended more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) supporting or opposing state candidates or state measures during any calendar year, except that if the commission determines from an audit report that a committee is in substantial compliance with the provisions of the act, the committee thereafter shall be subject to an audit on a random basis with each such committee having a 25-percent chance of being audited.

(i) With respect to local candidates and their controlled committees, the commission shall promulgate regulations which provide a method of selection for these audits.

(j) In accordance with subdivisions (a), (b), (c), and (h), the Fair Political Practices Commission shall select by lot the persons or districts to be audited on a random basis. For campaign audits the selection shall be made in public after the last date for filing the first report or statement following the general or special election for which the candidate ran, or following the election at which the measure was adopted or defeated. For lobbying firm and lobbyist employer audits, the selection shall be made in public in February of odd-numbered years.

SEC. 3. Section 90002 of the Government Code is amended to read:

90002. (a) Audits and investigations of lobbying firms and lobbyist employers shall be performed on a biennial basis and shall cover reports filed during a period of two years.

(b) If a lobbying firm or lobbyist employer keeps a separate account for all receipts and payments for which reporting is required by this chapter, the requirement of an audit under subdivision (a) of Section 90001 shall be satisfied by an audit of that account and the supporting documentation required to be maintained by Section 86110.

(c) No audit or investigation of any candidate, controlled committee, or committee primarily supporting or opposing a candidate or a measure in connection with a report or statement required by Chapter 4 of this title, shall begin until after the last date for filing the first report or statement following the general, runoff or special election for the office for which the candidate ran, or following the election at which the measure was adopted or defeated, except that audits and investigations of statewide candidates, their controlled committees, and committees primarily supporting or opposing those statewide candidates who were defeated in the primary election and who are not required to file statements for the general election may begin after the last date for filing the first report or statement following the primary election. When the campaign statements or reports of a candidate, controlled committee, or a committee primarily supporting or opposing a candidate are audited and investigated pursuant to Section 90001, the audit and investigation shall cover all campaign statements and reports filed for the primary and general or special or runoff elections and any previous campaign statement or report filed pursuant to Section 84200 or 84200.5 since the last election for that office, but shall exclude any statements or reports which have previously been audited pursuant to Section 90001 or 90003. When the campaign statements or reports of a committee primarily supporting or opposing a measure are audited and investigated, the audit and investigation shall cover all campaign statements and reports from the beginning date of the first campaign statement filed by the committee in connection with the measure. For all other committees, the audit and investigation shall cover all campaign statements filed during the previous two calendar years.

SEC. 4. The Legislature finds and declares that the provisions of this act further the purposes of the Political Reform Act of 1974 within the meaning of subdivision (a) of Section 81012 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 1140

An act to amend Section 4057.5 of, and to add Section 5230.5 to, the Family Code, relating to family law.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4057.5 of the Family Code is amended to read:

4057.5. (a) (1) The income of the obligor parent's subsequent spouse or nonmarital partner shall not be considered when determining or modifying child support, except in an extraordinary case where excluding that income would lead to extreme and severe hardship to any child subject to the child support award, in which case the court shall also consider whether including that income would lead to extreme and severe hardship to any child supported by the obligor or by the obligor's subsequent spouse or nonmarital partner.

(2) The income of the obligee parent's subsequent spouse or nonmarital partner shall not be considered when determining or modifying child support, except in an extraordinary case where excluding that income would lead to extreme and severe hardship to any child subject to the child support award, in which case the court shall also consider whether including that income would lead to extreme and severe hardship to any child supported by the obligee or by the obligee's subsequent spouse or nonmarital partner.

(b) For purposes of this section, an extraordinary case may include a parent who voluntarily or intentionally quits work or reduces income, or who intentionally remains unemployed or underemployed and relies on a subsequent spouse's income.

(c) If any portion of the income of either parent's subsequent spouse or nonmarital partner is allowed to be considered pursuant to this section, discovery for the purposes of determining income shall be based on W2 and 1099 income tax forms, except where the court determines that application would be unjust or inappropriate.

(d) If any portion of the income of either parent's subsequent spouse or nonmarital partner is allowed to be considered pursuant to this section, the court shall allow a hardship deduction based on the minimum living expenses for one or more stepchildren of the party subject to the order. In allowing a hardship deduction, a court shall comply with Sections 4070, 4071, 4072, and 4073.

(e) The enactment of this section constitutes cause to bring an action for modification of a child support order entered prior to the operative date of this section.

SEC. 2. Section 5230.5 is added to the Family Code, to read:

5230.5. Any obligee alleging arrearages in child support shall specify the amount thereof under penalty of perjury.

SEC. 3. It is the intent of the Legislature that the restrictions specified in Section 4075.5 of the Family Code on the use of a subsequent spouse or nonmarital partner's income is not subject to court standardization, but is subject to judgment on a case-by-case basis. It is also the intent of the Legislature that Section 4075.5 of the Family Code prohibit the establishment or use of any formula or local court guideline devised to determine when consideration of a subsequent spouse or nonmarital partner's income is relevant.

CHAPTER 1141

An act to amend Section 1241 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to clinical laboratories.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1241 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

1241. This chapter applies to all clinical laboratories in California except those owned and operated by:

(a) The United States of America, or any department, agency, or official thereof acting in his or her official capacity.

(b) An individual licensed physician and surgeon or podiatrist, or a partnership or professional corporation of five or fewer physicians and surgeons or podiatrists, that performs clinical laboratory tests or examinations only for the patients of that individual physician and surgeon, podiatrist, partnership, or professional corporation. If direct or indirect referred work is received from any source, all provisions of this chapter shall apply. This subdivision shall become inoperative when the United States Department of Health and Human Services exempts state-licensed or state-registered laboratories from the requirements of the Clinical Laboratory Improvement Amendment of 1988 (P.L. 100-578) pursuant to subsection (p) of Section 263a of Title 42 of the United States Code and Section 493.513 of Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations, and the State Director of Health Services determines that this exemption has been granted. The director shall execute and retain a written declaration stating that the conditions requiring this subdivision to become inoperative have occurred.

(c) An academic institution accredited by an accrediting agency approved by the department when clinical laboratory procedures are performed for teaching or research purposes only, if the results of any examinations performed in such laboratories are not used in the diagnosis or treatment of disease.

(d) The Department of Corrections, except that after July 1, 1979, such exception shall not apply to any clinical laboratory of the Department of Corrections which conducts biomedical or behavioral research pursuant to Title 2.1 (commencing with Section 3500) of Part 3 of the Penal Code.

(e) The California Youth Authority.

(f) A nonprofit corporation or association, which contracts with or employs individual licensed physicians and surgeons or podiatrists to render medical care and the operations of which are directly funded at least 80 percent by the United States government, for laboratory work performed on the patients of such physicians and surgeons or podiatrists and under the supervision of such physicians and surgeons or podiatrists. If direct or indirect referred work is received from any source, all provisions of this chapter shall apply.

(g) A primary care clinic specified in subdivision (a) of Section 1204 of the Health and Safety Code, which contracts with or employs individual licensed physicians and surgeons or podiatrists to render medical care for laboratory work performed on the patients of such physicians and surgeons or podiatrists. If direct or indirect referred work is received from any source, all provisions of this chapter shall apply.

CHAPTER 1142

An act to amend Section 7349 of, and to add Section 7395.1 to, the Business and Professions Code, relating to cosmetology.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7349 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7349. It is unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation to hire, employ, or allow to be employed, or permit to work, in or about an establishment, any person who performs or practices any occupation regulated under this chapter and is not duly licensed by the board, except that a licensed cosmetology establishment may utilize a student extern, as described in Section 7395.1.

Any person violating this section is subject to citation and fine pursuant to Section 7406 and is also guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 2. Section 7395.1 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

7395.1. (a) A student who is enrolled in a school of cosmetology approved by the Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education in a course approved by the board may, upon completion of a minimum of 60 percent of the clock hours required for graduation in the course, work as an unpaid extern in a cosmetology establishment participating in the educational program of the school of cosmetology.

(b) A person working as an extern shall receive clock hour credit toward graduation, but that credit shall not exceed eight hours per week and shall not exceed 10 percent of the total clock hours required for completion of the course.

(c) The externship program shall be conducted in cosmetology establishments meeting all of the following criteria:

(1) The establishment is licensed by the board.

(2) The establishment has a minimum of four licensees working at the establishment, including employees and owners or managers.

(3) All licensees at the establishment are in good standing with the board.

(4) Licensees working at the establishment work for salaries or commissions rather than on a space rental basis.

(5) No more than one extern shall work in an establishment for every four licensees working in the establishment. No regularly employed licensee shall be displaced or have his or her work hours reduced or altered to accommodate the placement of an extern in an establishment. Prior to placement of the extern, the establishment shall agree in writing sent to the school and to all affected licensees that no reduction or alteration of any licensee's current work schedule shall occur. This shall not prevent a licensee from voluntarily reducing or altering his or her work schedule.

(6) Externs shall wear conspicuous school identification at all times while working in the establishment, and shall carry a school laminated identification, that includes a picture, in a form approved by the board.

(d) (1) A school participating in the externship program shall provide the participating establishment and the extern with a syllabus containing applicable information specified in Section 73880 of Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations. The extern, the school, and the establishment shall agree to the terms of and sign the syllabus prior to the extern beginning work at the establishment. No less than 90 percent of the responsibilities and duties of the extern shall consist of the acts included within the practice of cosmetology as defined in Section 7316.

(2) The establishment shall consult with the assigning school regarding the extern's progress during the unpaid externship. The owner or manager of the establishment shall monitor and report on the student's progress to the school on a regular basis, with assistance from supervising licensees.

(3) A participating school shall assess the extern's learning outcome from the externship program. The school shall maintain accurate records of the extern's educational experience in the externship program and records that indicate how the extern's learning outcome translates into course credit.

(e) Participation in an externship program made available by a school shall be voluntary, may be terminated by the student at any time, and shall not be a prerequisite for graduation.

(f) The cosmetology establishment that chooses to utilize the extern is liable for the extern's general liability insurance, as well as cosmetology malpractice liability insurance, and shall furnish proof to the participating school that the establishment is covered by both forms of liability insurance and that the extern is covered under that insurance.

(g) (1) It is the purpose of the externship program authorized by this section to provide students with skills, knowledge, and attitudes necessary to acquire employment in the field for which they are being trained, and to extend formalized classroom instruction.

(2) Instruction shall be based on skills, knowledge, attitudes, and performance levels in the area of cosmetology for which the instruction is conducted.

(3) An extern may perform only acts listed within the definition of the practice of cosmetology as provided in Section 7316, if a licensee directly supervises those acts, except that an extern may not use or apply chemical treatments unless the extern has received appropriate training in application of those treatments from an approved cosmetology school. An extern may work on a paying client only in an assisting capacity and only with the direct and immediate supervision of a licensee.

(4) The extern shall not perform any work in a manner that would violate law.

CHAPTER 1143

An act to amend Section 1797.98a of, and to add and repeal Section 1797.98h of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to emergency medical services.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1797.98a of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1797.98a. Each county may establish an emergency medical services fund, upon adoption of a resolution by the board of supervisors. The money in the fund shall be available for the reimbursements required by this chapter. The fund shall be administered by each county, except that a county electing to have the state administer its medically indigent services program may also elect to have its emergency medical services fund administered by the state. Costs of administering the fund shall be reimbursed by the fund, up to 10 percent of the amount of the fund. All interest earned on moneys in the fund shall be deposited in the fund for disbursement as specified in this section. The fund shall be utilized to reimburse physicians and surgeons and hospitals for patients who do not make payment for emergency medical services and for other emergency medical services purposes as determined by each county. Fifty-eight percent of the balance of the money in the fund after costs of administration shall be distributed to physicians and surgeons for emergency services provided by all physicians and surgeons, except those physicians and surgeons employed by county hospitals, in general acute care hospitals that provide basic or comprehensive emergency services up to the time the patient is stabilized, 25 percent of the balance of the fund after costs of administration shall be distributed only to hospitals providing disproportionate trauma and emergency medical care services, and 17 percent of the balance of the fund after costs of administration shall be distributed for other emergency medical services purposes as determined by each county, including, but not limited to, the funding of regional poison control centers. The source of the money in the fund shall be the penalty assessment made for this purpose, as provided in Section 1465 of the Penal Code.

SEC. 2. Section 1797.98h is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1797.98h. (a) Notwithstanding Section 1797.98a, upon a finding by the county board of supervisors of the Counties of Del Norte, Humboldt, Lake, Marin, Mendocino, Napa, or Yuba, that prior year unexpended and unencumbered funds exist within the county's emergency medical services fund, the board of supervisors may without regard to the formula in Section 1797.98a, by four-fifths vote, authorize expenditure of those prior year unexpended and unencumbered funds for the purposes of funding the county's share of the poison control. Expenditures of the prior year unexpended and unencumbered funds for purposes other than poison control shall only be made pursuant to a written agreement as specified pursuant to subdivision (c). A county board of supervisors may make this finding only if the county has done all of the following:

- (1) Established an emergency medical services fund.
- (2) Established a reasonable mechanism for physicians and surgeons and hospitals to receive reimbursements.
- (3) Reimbursed physicians and surgeons and hospitals at a level equal to or greater than the level of reimbursement in effect as of July 1, 1994.

(b) For the purposes of this section, "prior year unexpended and unencumbered funds" means any funds that exist within the county's emergency medical services fund at the end of the fiscal year after subtracting both of the following:

- (1) Any claims for services provided in the prior fiscal year that are submitted to the fund within 60 days of the end of the prior fiscal year.

- (2) An amount encumbered to pay for estimated claims incurred during the prior fiscal year, but for which no claim for reimbursement has been submitted within 60 days of the end of the prior fiscal year.

(c) Any prior year unexpended and unencumbered funds authorized for expenditure pursuant to this section for purposes other than poison control may be expended only pursuant to a written agreement among the county, the principal medical society representing physicians and surgeons in the county, and the principal association representing hospitals in the county. The written agreement shall specify the amount of prior year unexpended and unencumbered funds to be expended for purposes other than poison control and the emergency medical services purposes for which the funds are to be expended.

(d) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2000, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 2000, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Due to the unique circumstances concerning the geographic conditions and population profiles of the areas described in Section 1797.98h of the Health and Safety Code, it is necessary that the specific emergency medical services funding concerns of these areas be given special consideration, and the Legislature finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1144

An act to add Section 1373.621 to the Health and Safety Code, to add Sections 10116.5 and 11512.03 to the Insurance Code, and to add Section 2807.5 to the Labor Code, relating to health coverage.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1373.621 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1373.621. Except for a specialized health care service plan, every health care service plan contract that is issued, amended, delivered, or renewed in this state on or after January 1, 1995, which provides hospital, medical, or surgical expense coverage under an employer-sponsored group plan shall provide that an employer subject to Section 4980B of Title 26 of the United States Code may further continue benefits as required under Section 2807.5 of the Labor Code for any former employee and his or her spouse if the employee has worked for the employer for at least the five prior years and is over 60 years of age on the date employment ends. For purposes of subdivision (a) of Section 2807.5 of the Labor Code, the "applicable current group rate" means the total premiums charged by the health care service plan for coverage for the group, divided by the relevant number of covered persons.

SEC. 2. Section 10116.5 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

10116.5. Every policy of disability insurance that is issued, amended, delivered, or renewed on or after January 1, 1995, that provides hospital, medical, or surgical expense coverage under an employer-sponsored group plan shall provide that an employer subject to Section 4980B of Title 26 of the United States Code may further continue benefits as required under Section 2807.5 of the Labor Code for any former employee and his or her spouse if the employee has worked for the employer for at least the five prior years and is over 60 years of age on the date employment ends.

SEC. 3. Section 11512.03 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

11512.03. Every nonprofit hospital service plan contract that is issued, amended, delivered, or renewed in this state on or after January 1, 1995, that provides hospital, medical, or surgical expense coverage under an employer-sponsored group plan shall provide that an employer subject to Section 4980B of Title 26 of the United States Code may further continue benefits as required under Section 2807.5 of the Labor Code for any former employee and his or her spouse if the employee has worked for the employer for at least the five prior years and is over 60 years of age on the date employment ends.

SEC. 4. Section 2807.5 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

2807.5. (a) Any employer, whether private or public, that provides hospital, medical, or surgical expense coverage that a former employee may continue under Section 4980B of Title 26 of the United States Code, as added by the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985 (Public Law 99-272) and as may be later amended (hereafter "COBRA"), shall provide for an additional continuation of benefits to the former employee under this section. In the event a former employee who has worked for the employer for at least the prior five years and who is 60 years of age or older on the date employment ends is entitled to and so elects to continue benefits under COBRA for himself or herself and for any spouse, the employee or spouse may further continue benefits beyond the date coverage under COBRA ends, as set forth in subdivision (b). Except as otherwise specified in this section, continuation shall be under the same terms and conditions as if the continuation under COBRA had remained in force. For the employee or spouse, continuation following the end of COBRA is subject to payment of premiums to the employer at the time the group premium is due. The rate for continuation coverage under this section shall not exceed 213 percent of the applicable current group rate. Individuals ineligible for COBRA are not entitled to continuation benefits under this section.

(b) The employer shall notify the former employee of the availability of continuation benefits under this section at least 90 calendar days prior to the date continuation coverage under COBRA is scheduled to end. To continue health care coverage pursuant to this section, the individual shall elect to do so by notifying the employer in writing within 30 calendar days prior to the date continuation coverage under COBRA is scheduled to end.

(c) The continuation shall end automatically on the earlier of (1) the date the individual reaches age 65, (2) the date the employer ceases to maintain any group health plan (including successor plans), (3) the date the individual is covered under any group health plan not maintained by the employer, regardless of whether that coverage is less valuable, (4) the date the individual becomes entitled to Medicare under Title VIII of the Social Security Act, or (5) for a spouse, five years from the date employment ended.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 25356, 25402.2, 25402.8, 25501, 25517, 25518, 25524.1, 25524.2, 25605.5, 25608, 25687.7, and 25902 of, to repeal Sections 25137, 25216.4, 25309.5, 25406, 25501.3, 25501.5, 25502.5, 25524.25, 25524.3, 25536, 25606, 25607, 25940, and 25941 of, to repeal Chapter 4.7 (commencing with Section 25370) of, to repeal Chapter 5.5 (commencing with Section 25450) of, to repeal Chapter 5.7 (commencing with Section 25470) of, to repeal Chapter 7.1 (commencing with Section 25620) of, to repeal Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 25650) of, and to repeal Chapter 7.6 (commencing with Section 25675) of, Division 15 of, the Public Resources Code, relating to energy resources.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25137 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 25216.4 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 25309.5 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 25356 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25356. (a) The commission shall, utilizing its own staff and other support staff having expertise and experience in, or with, the petroleum industry, gather, analyze, and interpret the information submitted to it pursuant to Section 25354 and other information relating to the supply and price of petroleum products, with particular emphasis on motor vehicle fuels, including, but not limited to, all of the following:

(1) The nature, cause, and extent of any petroleum or petroleum products shortage or condition affecting supply.

(2) The economic and environmental impacts of any petroleum and petroleum product shortage or condition affecting supply.

(3) Petroleum or petroleum product demand and supply forecasting methodologies utilized by the petroleum industry in California.

(4) The prices, with particular emphasis on retail motor fuel prices, and any significant changes in prices charged by the petroleum industry for petroleum or petroleum products sold in California and the reasons for those changes.

(5) The profits, both before and after taxes, of the industry as a whole and of major firms within it, including a comparison with other major industry groups and major firms within them as to profits, return on equity and capital, and price-earnings ratio.

(6) The emerging trends relating to supply, demand, and conservation of petroleum and petroleum products.

(7) The nature and extent of efforts of the petroleum industry to expand refinery capacity and to make acquisitions of additional supplies of petroleum and petroleum products, including activities relative to the exploration, development, and extraction of resources within the state.

(8) The development of a petroleum and petroleum products information system in a manner which will enable the state to take action to meet and mitigate any petroleum or petroleum products shortage or condition affecting supply.

(b) The commission shall analyze the impacts of state and federal policies and regulations upon the supply and pricing of petroleum products.

SEC. 5. Chapter 4.7 (commencing with Section 25370) of Division 15 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 25402.2 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25402.2. Any standard adopted by the commission pursuant to Sections 25402 and 25402.1, which is a building standard as defined in Section 25488.5, shall be submitted to the State Building Standards Commission for approval pursuant to, and is governed by, the State Building Standards Law (Part 2.5 (commencing with Section 18901) of Division 13 of the Health and Safety Code). Building standards adopted by the commission and published in the State Building Standards Code shall be enforced as provided in Sections 25402 and 25402.1.

SEC. 7. Section 25402.8 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25402.8. When assessing new building standards for residential and nonresidential buildings relating to the conservation of energy, the commission shall include in its deliberations the impact that those standards would have on indoor air pollution problems.

SEC. 8. Section 25406 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

SEC. 9. Chapter 5.5 (commencing with Section 25450) of Division 15 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

SEC. 9.5. Chapter 5.7 (commencing with Section 25470) of Division 15 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

SEC. 10. Section 25501 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25501. This chapter does not apply to any site and related facility: for which the Public Utilities Commission has issued a certificate of public convenience and necessity or which any municipal utility has approved before the effective date of this division.

SEC. 11. Section 25501.3 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

SEC. 12. Section 25501.5 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

SEC. 13. Section 25502.5 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

SEC. 14. Section 25517 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25517. Except as provided in Section 25501, no construction of any thermal powerplant or electric transmission line shall be commenced by any electric utility without first obtaining certification as prescribed in this division. Any onsite improvements not qualifying as construction may be required to be restored as determined by the commission to be necessary to protect the environment, if certification is denied.

SEC. 15. Section 25518 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25518. The Public Utilities Commission shall issue no certificate of public convenience and necessity for a site or related electrical facilities unless the utility has obtained a certificate from the commission.

SEC. 16. Section 25524.1 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25524.1. (a) Except for the existing Diablo Canyon Units 1 and 2 owned by Pacific Gas and Electric Company and San Onofre Units 2 and 3 owned by Southern California Edison Company and San Diego Gas and Electric Company, no nuclear fission thermal powerplant requiring the reprocessing of fuel rods, including any to which this chapter does not otherwise apply, excepting any having a vested right as defined in this section, shall be permitted land use in the state or, where applicable, certified by the commission until both of the following conditions are met:

(1) The commission finds that the United States through its authorized agency has identified and approved, and there exists a technology for the construction and operation of, nuclear fuel rod reprocessing plants.

(2) The commission has reported its findings and the reasons therefor pursuant to paragraph (1) to the Legislature. That report shall be assigned to the appropriate policy committees for review. The commission may proceed to certify nuclear fission thermal powerplants 100 legislative days after reporting its findings unless within those 100 legislative days either house of the Legislature adopts by a majority vote of its members a resolution disaffirming the findings of the commission made pursuant to paragraph (1).

(3) A resolution of disaffirmance shall set forth the reasons for the action and shall provide, to the extent possible, guidance to the commission as to an appropriate method of bringing the commission's findings into conformance with paragraph (1).

(4) If a disaffirming resolution is adopted, the commission shall reexamine its original findings consistent with matters raised in the resolution. On conclusion of its reexamination, the commission shall transmit its findings in writing, with the reasons therefor, to the Legislature.

(5) If the findings are that the conditions of paragraph (1) have been met, the commission may proceed to certify nuclear fission thermal powerplants 100 legislative days after reporting its findings to the Legislature unless within those 100 legislative days both houses of the Legislature act by statute to declare the findings null and void and takes appropriate action.

(6) To allow sufficient time for the Legislature to act, the reports of findings of the commission shall be submitted to the Legislature at least six calendar months prior to the adjournment of the Legislature sine die.

(b) The commission shall further find on a case-by-case basis that facilities with adequate capacity to reprocess nuclear fuel rods from a certified nuclear facility or to store that fuel if that storage is approved by an authorized agency of the United States are in actual operation or will be in operation at the time that the nuclear facility requires reprocessing or storage; provided, however, that the storage of fuel is in an offsite location to the extent necessary to provide continuous onsite full core reserve storage capacity.

(c) The commission shall continue to receive and process notices of intention and applications for certification pursuant to this division, but shall not issue a decision pursuant to Section 25523 granting a certificate until the requirements of this section have been met. All other permits, licenses, approvals, or authorizations for the entry or use of the land, including orders of court, which may be required may be processed and granted by the governmental entity concerned, but construction work to install permanent equipment or structures shall not commence until the requirements of this section have been met.

SEC. 17. Section 25524.2 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25524.2. Except for the existing Diablo Canyon Units 1 and 2 owned by Pacific Gas and Electric Company and San Onofre Units 2 and 3 owned by Southern California Edison Company and San Diego Gas and Electric Company, no nuclear fission thermal powerplant, including any to which this chapter does not otherwise apply, but excepting those exempted herein, shall be permitted land use in the state, or where applicable, be certified by the commission until both of the following conditions have been met:

(a) The commission finds that there has been developed and that the United States through its authorized agency has approved and there exists a demonstrated technology or means for the disposal of high-level nuclear waste.

(b) (1) The commission has reported its findings and the reasons therefor pursuant to paragraph (a) to the Legislature. That report shall be assigned to the appropriate policy committees for review. The commission may proceed to certify nuclear fission thermal powerplants 100 legislative days after reporting its findings unless within those 100 legislative days either house of the Legislature adopts by a majority vote of its members a resolution disaffirming the findings of the commission made pursuant to subdivision (a).

(2) A resolution of disaffirmance shall set forth the reasons for the action and shall provide, to the extent possible, guidance to the commission as to an appropriate method of bringing the commission's findings into conformance with subdivision (a).

(3) If a disaffirming resolution is adopted, the commission shall reexamine its original findings consistent with matters raised in the resolution. On conclusion of its reexamination, the commission shall transmit its findings in writing, with the reasons therefor, to the Legislature.

(4) If the findings are that the conditions of subdivision (a) have been met, the commission may proceed to certify nuclear fission thermal powerplants 100 legislative days after reporting its findings to the Legislature unless within those 100 legislative days both houses of the Legislature act by statute to declare the findings null and void and take appropriate action.

(5) To allow sufficient time for the Legislature to act, the reports of findings of the commission shall be submitted to the Legislature at least six calendar months prior to the adjournment of the Legislature sine die.

(c) As used in subdivision (a), "technology or means for the disposal of high-level nuclear waste" means a method for the permanent and terminal disposition of high-level nuclear waste. Nothing in this section requires that facilities for the application of that technology or means be available at the time that the commission makes its findings. That disposition of high-level nuclear waste does not preclude the possibility of an approved process for retrieval of the waste.

(d) The commission shall continue to receive and process notices of intention and applications for certification pursuant to this division but shall not issue a decision pursuant to Section 25523 granting a certificate until the requirements of this section have been met. All other permits, licenses, approvals, or authorizations for the entry or use of the land, including orders of court, which may be required may be processed and granted by the governmental entity concerned, but construction work to install permanent equipment or structures shall not commence until the requirements of this section have been met.

SEC. 18. Section 25524.25 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

SEC. 19. Section 25524.3 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

SEC. 20. Section 25536 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

SEC. 21. Section 25605.5 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25605.5. Standards adopted by the commission pursuant to Section 25605, which are building standards as defined in Section 25488.5, shall be submitted to the State Building Standards Commission for approval pursuant to, and are governed by, the State Building Standards Law (Part 2.5 (commencing with Section 18901) of Division 13 of the Health and Safety Code). Building standards adopted by the commission and published in the State Building Standards Code shall comply with, and be enforced as provided in, Section 25605.

SEC. 22. Section 25606 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

SEC. 23. Section 25607 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

SEC. 24. Section 25608 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25608. The commission shall confer with officials of federal agencies, including the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, the National Institute of Standards and Technology, the Department of Energy, and the Department of Housing and Urban Development, to coordinate the adoption of regulations pursuant to Sections 25603 and 25605.

SEC. 25. Chapter 7.1 (commencing with Section 25620) of Division 15 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

SEC. 26. Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 25650) of Division 15 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

SEC. 27. Chapter 7.6 (commencing with Section 25675) of Division 15 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

SEC. 28. Section 25687.7 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25687.7. No projects that are eligible for funding under Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 3800) of Division 3 shall be eligible for funding under this chapter.

SEC. 29. Section 25902 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25902. Any evaluations in the reports required by Section 25309 and any findings and determinations on the notice of intent pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 25500) shall not be construed as a final evaluation, finding, or determination by the commission and a court action may not be brought to review any such evaluation, finding, or determination.

SEC. 30. Section 25940 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

SEC. 31. Section 25941 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

An act to amend Sections 65088.1, 65089, and 65089.2 of, to amend and renumber Sections 65089.4, 65089.5, 65089.6, and 65089.7 of, to add Sections 65089.3, 65089.4, and 65089.9 to, and to repeal Section 65089.3 of, the Government Code, relating to transportation.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 65088.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65088.1. As used in this chapter the following terms have the following meanings:

(a) Unless the context requires otherwise, "regional agency" means the agency responsible for preparation of the regional transportation improvement program.

(b) Unless the context requires otherwise, "agency" means the agency responsible for the preparation and adoption of the congestion management program.

(c) "Commission" means the California Transportation Commission.

(d) "Department" means the Department of Transportation.

(e) "Local jurisdiction" means a city, a county, or a city and county.

(f) "Parking cash-out program" means an employer-funded program under which an employer offers to provide a cash allowance to an employee equivalent to the parking subsidy that the employer would otherwise pay to provide the employee with a parking space. "Parking subsidy" means the difference between the out-of-pocket amount paid by an employer on a regular basis in order to secure the availability of an employee parking space not owned by the employer and the price, if any, charged to an employee for use of that space.

A parking cash-out program may include a requirement that employee participants certify that they will comply with guidelines established by the employer designed to avoid neighborhood parking problems, with a provision that employees not complying with the guidelines will no longer be eligible for the parking cash-out program.

(g) "Urbanized area" has the same meaning as is defined in the 1990 federal census for urbanized areas of more than 50,000 population.

(h) "Interregional travel" means any trips that originate outside the boundary of the agency. A "trip" means a one-direction vehicle movement. The origin of any trip is the starting point of that trip. A roundtrip consists of two individual trips.

(i) "Multimodal" means the utilization of all available modes of travel that enhance the movement of people and goods, including, but not limited to, highway, transit, nonmotorized and demand management strategies including, but not limited to, telecommuting. The availability and practicality of specific multimodal systems, projects, and strategies varies by county and region in accordance with the size and complexity of different urbanized areas.

(j) "Level of service standard" is a threshold that defines a deficiency on the congestion management program highway and roadway system which requires the preparation of a deficiency plan. It is the intent of the Legislature that the agency shall use all elements of the program to implement strategies and actions that avoid the creation of deficiencies and to improve multimodal mobility.

(k) "Performance measure" is an analytical planning tool that is used to quantitatively evaluate transportation improvements and to assist in determining effective implementation actions, considering all modes and strategies. Use of a performance measure as part of the program does not trigger the requirement for the preparation of deficiency plans.

SEC. 2. Section 65089 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65089. (a) A congestion management program shall be developed, adopted, and updated biennially, consistent with the schedule for adopting and updating the regional transportation improvement program, for every county that includes an urbanized area, and shall include every city and the county. The program shall be adopted at a noticed public hearing of the agency. The program shall be developed in consultation with, and with the cooperation of, the transportation planning agency, regional transportation providers, local governments, the department, and the air pollution control district or the air quality management district, either by the county transportation commission, or by another public agency, as designated by resolutions adopted by the county board of supervisors and the city councils of a majority of the cities representing a majority of the population in the incorporated area of the county.

(b) The program shall contain all of the following elements:

(1) (A) Traffic level of service standards established for a system of highways and roadways designated by the agency. The highway and roadway system shall include at a minimum all state highways and principal arterials. No highway or roadway designated as a part of the system shall be removed from the system. All new state highways and principal arterials shall be designated as part of the system. Level of service (LOS) shall be measured by Circular 212, (or by the most recent version of the Highway Capacity Manual), or by a uniform methodology adopted by the agency which is consistent with the Highway Capacity Manual. The determination as to whether an alternative method is consistent with the Highway Capacity Manual shall be made by the regional agency, except that the department shall make this determination instead if either (i) the regional agency is also the agency, as those terms are defined in Section 65088.1, or (ii) the department is responsible for preparing the regional transportation improvement plan for the county.

(B) In no case shall the LOS standards established be below the level of service E or the current level, whichever is farthest from level of service A. When the level of service on a segment or at an intersection fails to attain the established level of service standard, a deficiency plan shall be adopted pursuant to Section 65089.4.

(2) A performance element that includes performance measures to evaluate current and future multimodal system performance for the movement of people and goods. At a minimum, these performance measures shall incorporate highway and roadway system performance, and measures established for the frequency and routing of public transit, and for the coordination of transit service provided by separate operators. These performance measures shall support mobility, air quality, land use, and economic objectives, and shall be used in the development of the capital improvement program required pursuant to paragraph (5), deficiency plans required pursuant to Section 65089.4, and the land use analysis program required pursuant to paragraph (4).

(3) (A) A trip reduction and travel demand element that promotes alternative transportation methods, including, but not limited to, carpools, vanpools, transit, bicycles, and park-and-ride lots; improvements in the balance between jobs and housing; and other strategies, including, but not limited to, flexible work hours, telecommuting, and parking management programs. The agency shall consider parking cash-out programs during the development and update of the trip reduction and travel demand element.

(B) The agency and respective air pollution control district or air quality management district shall coordinate the development of trip reduction responsibilities and shall avoid duplication of responsibilities between agencies. A multiple site employer, as specified in paragraph (4) of subdivision (e) of Section 40717 of the Health and Safety Code, shall have the option of complying with a district employer trip reduction rule, or a similar rule proposed pursuant to a federal implementation plan, and reporting directly to the district or a responsible federal or state agency. A multiple site employer that exercises this option shall be exempt from any employer-based trip reduction requirement imposed pursuant to the trip reduction and travel demand element.

(C) Except for paragraph (B), nothing in this section prevents a local jurisdiction from adopting transportation demand management measures that include or exceed the requirements established by the agency or by the air pollution control district or air quality management district.

(4) A program to analyze the impacts of land use decisions made by local jurisdictions on regional transportation systems, including an estimate of the costs associated with mitigating those impacts. This program shall measure, to the extent possible, the impact to the transportation system using the performance measures described in paragraph (2). In no case shall the program include an estimate of the costs of mitigating the impacts of interregional travel. The program shall provide credit for local public and private contributions to improvements to regional transportation systems. However, in the case of toll road facilities, credit shall only be allowed for local public and private contributions which are unreimbursed from toll revenues or other state or federal sources. The agency shall calculate the amount of the credit to be provided. The program defined under this section may require implementation through the requirements and analysis of the California Environmental Quality Act, in order to avoid duplication.

(5) A seven-year capital improvement program, developed using the performance measures described in paragraph (2) to determine effective projects that maintain or improve the performance of the multimodal system for the movement of people and goods, to mitigate regional transportation impacts identified pursuant to paragraph (4). The program shall conform to transportation-related vehicle emission air quality mitigation measures, and include any project that will increase the capacity of the multimodal system. It is the intent of the Legislature that, when roadway projects are identified in the program, consideration be given for maintaining bicycle access and safety at a level comparable to that which existed prior to the improvement or alternation. The capital improvement program may also include safety, maintenance, and rehabilitation projects that do not enhance the capacity of the system but are necessary to preserve the investment in existing facilities.

(c) The agency, in consultation with the regional agency, cities, and the county, shall develop a uniform data base on traffic impacts for use in a countywide transportation computer model and shall approve transportation computer models of specific areas within the county that will be used by local jurisdictions to determine the quantitative impacts of development on the circulation system that are based on the countywide model and standardized modeling assumptions and conventions. The computer models shall be consistent with the modeling methodology adopted by the regional planning agency. The data bases used in the models shall be consistent with the data bases used by the regional planning agency. Where the regional agency has jurisdiction over two or more counties, the data bases used by the agency shall be consistent with the data bases used by the regional agency.

(d) (1) The city or county in which a commercial development will implement a parking cash-out program which is included in a congestion management program pursuant to subdivision (b), or in a deficiency plan pursuant to Section 65089.4, shall grant to that development an appropriate reduction in the parking requirements otherwise in effect for new commercial development.

(2) At the request of an existing commercial development that has implemented a parking cash-out program, the city or county shall grant an appropriate reduction in the parking requirements otherwise applicable based on the demonstrated reduced need for parking, and the space no longer needed for parking purposes may be used for other appropriate purposes.

(e) Pursuant to the federal Intermodal Surface Transportation Efficiency Act of 1991 and regulations adopted pursuant to the act, the department shall submit a request to the Federal Highway Administration Division Administrator to accept the congestion management program in lieu of development of a new congestion management system otherwise required by the act.

SEC. 3. Section 65089.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65089.2. (a) Congestion management programs shall be submitted to the regional agency. The regional agency shall evaluate the consistency between the program and the regional transportation plans required pursuant to Section 65080. In the case of a multicounty regional transportation planning agency, that agency shall evaluate the consistency and compatibility of the programs within the region.

(b) The regional agency, upon finding that the program is consistent, shall incorporate the program into the regional transportation improvement program as provided for in Section 65082. If the regional agency finds the program is inconsistent, it may exclude any project in the congestion management program from inclusion in the regional transportation improvement program.

(c) (1) The regional agency shall not program any surface transportation program funds and congestion mitigation and air quality funds pursuant to Section 182.6 and 182.7 of the Streets and Highways Code in a county unless a congestion management program has been adopted by December 31, 1992, as required pursuant to Section 65089. No surface transportation program funds or congestion mitigation and air quality funds shall be programmed for a project in a local jurisdiction that has been found to be in nonconformance with a congestion management program pursuant to Section 65089.5 unless the agency finds that the project is of regional significance.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, upon the designation of an urbanized area, pursuant to the 1990 federal census or a subsequent federal census, within a county which previously did not include an urbanized area, a congestion management program as required pursuant to Section 65089 shall be adopted within a period of 18 months after designation by the Governor.

(d) (1) It is the intent of the Legislature that the regional agency, when its boundaries include areas in more than one county, should resolve inconsistencies and mediate disputes which arise between agencies related to congestion management programs adopted for those areas.

(2) It is the further intent of the Legislature that disputes which may arise between regional agencies, or agencies which are not within the boundaries of a multicounty regional transportation planning agency, should be mediated and resolved by the Secretary of Business, Housing and Transportation Agency, or an employee of that agency designated by the secretary, in consultation with the air pollution control district or air quality management district within whose boundaries the regional agency or agencies are located.

(e) At the request of the agency, a local jurisdiction that owns, or is responsible for operation of, a trip-generating facility in another county shall participate in the congestion management program of the county where the facility is located. If a dispute arises involving a local jurisdiction, the agency may request the regional agency to mediate the dispute through procedures pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 65089.2. Failure to resolve the dispute does not invalidate the congestion management program.

SEC. 4. Section 65089.3 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 65089.3 is added to the Government Code, to read:

(a) Consistency with levels of service standards, except as provided in Section 65089.4.

(b) Adoption and implementation of a trip reduction and travel demand ordinance.

(c) Adoption and implementation of a program to analyze the impacts of land use decisions, including the estimate of the costs associated with mitigating these impacts.

(d) Adoption and implementation of a deficiency plan pursuant to Section 65089.4 when highway and roadway level of service standards are not maintained on portions of the designated system.

SEC. 6. Section 65089.4 of the Government Code is amended and renumbered to read:

65089.5. (a) If, pursuant to the monitoring provided for in Section 65089.3, the agency determines, following a noticed public hearing, that a city or county is not conforming with the requirements of the congestion management program, the agency shall notify the city or county in writing of the specific areas of nonconformance. If, within 90 days of the receipt of the written notice of nonconformance, the city or county has not come into conformance with the congestion management program, the governing body of the agency shall make a finding of nonconformance and shall submit the finding to the commission and to the Controller.

(b) (1) Upon receiving notice from the agency of nonconformance, the Controller shall withhold apportionments of funds required to be apportioned to that nonconforming city or county by Section 2105 of the Streets and Highways Code.

(2) If, within the 12-month period following the receipt of a notice of nonconformance, the Controller is notified by the agency that the city or county is in conformance, the Controller shall allocate the apportionments withheld pursuant to this section to the city or county.

(3) If the Controller is not notified by the agency that the city or county is in conformance pursuant to paragraph (2), the Controller shall allocate the apportionments withheld pursuant to this section to the agency.

(c) The agency shall use funds apportioned under this section for projects of regional significance which are included in the capital improvement program required by paragraph (5) of subdivision (b) of Section 65089, or in a deficiency plan which has been adopted by the agency. The agency shall not use these funds for administration or planning purposes.

SEC. 7. Section 65089.4 is added to the Government Code, to read:

65089.4. (a) A local jurisdiction shall prepare a deficiency plan when highway or roadway level of service standards are not maintained on segments or intersections of the designated system. The deficiency plan shall be adopted by the city or county at a noticed public hearing.

(b) The agency shall calculate the impacts subject to exclusion pursuant to subdivision (f) of this section, after consultation with the regional agency, the department, and the local air quality management district or air pollution control district. If the calculated traffic level of service following exclusion of these impacts is consistent with the level of service standard, the agency shall make a finding at a publicly noticed meeting that no deficiency plan is required and so notify the affected local jurisdiction.

(c) The agency shall be responsible for preparing and adopting procedures for local deficiency plan development and implementation responsibilities, consistent with the requirements of this section. The deficiency plan shall include all of the following:

(1) An analysis of the cause of the deficiency. This analysis shall include the following:

(A) Identification of the cause of the deficiency.

(B) Identification of the impacts of those local jurisdictions within the jurisdiction of the agency that contribute to the deficiency. These impacts shall be identified only if the calculated traffic level of service following exclusion of impacts pursuant to subdivision (f) indicates that the level of service standard has not been maintained, and shall be limited to impacts not subject to exclusion.

(2) A list of improvements necessary for the deficient segment or intersection to maintain the minimum level of service otherwise required and the estimated costs of the improvements.

(3) A list of improvements, programs, or actions, and estimates of costs, that will (A) measurably improve multimodal performance, using measures defined in paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 65089, and (B) contribute to significant improvements in air quality, such as improved public transit service and facilities, improved nonmotorized transportation facilities, high occupancy vehicle facilities, parking cash-out programs, and transportation control measures. The air quality management district or the air pollution control district shall establish and periodically revise a list of approved improvements, programs, and actions that meet the scope of this paragraph. If an improvement, program, or action on the approved list has not been fully implemented, it shall be deemed to contribute to significant improvements in air quality. If an improvement, program, or action is not on the approved list, it shall not be implemented unless approved by the local air quality management district or air pollution control district.

(4) An action plan, consistent with the provisions of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 66000), that shall be implemented, consisting of improvements identified in paragraph (2), or improvements, programs, or actions identified in paragraph (3), that are found by the agency to be in the interest of the public health, safety, and welfare. The action plan shall include a specific implementation schedule. The action plan shall include implementation strategies for those jurisdictions that have contributed to the cause of the deficiency in accordance with the agency's deficiency plan procedures. The action plan need not mitigate the impacts of any exclusions identified in subdivision (f). Action plan strategies shall identify the most effective implementation strategies for improving current and future system performance.

(d) A local jurisdiction shall forward its adopted deficiency plan to the agency within 12 months of the identification of a deficiency. The agency shall hold a noticed public hearing within 60 days of receiving the deficiency plan. Following that hearing, the agency shall either accept or reject the deficiency plan in its entirety, but the agency may not modify the deficiency plan. If the agency rejects the plan, it shall notify the local jurisdiction of the reasons for that rejection, and the local jurisdiction shall submit a revised plan within 90 days addressing the agency's concerns. Failure of a local jurisdiction to comply with the schedule and requirements of this section shall be considered to be nonconformance for the purposes of Section 65089.5.

(e) The agency shall incorporate into its deficiency plan procedures, a methodology for determining if deficiency impacts are caused by more than one local jurisdiction within the boundaries of the agency.

(1) If, according to the agency's methodology, it is determined that more than one local jurisdiction is responsible for causing a deficient segment or intersection, all responsible local jurisdictions shall participate in the development of a deficiency plan to be adopted by all participating local jurisdictions.

(2) The local jurisdiction in which the deficiency occurs shall have lead responsibility for developing the deficiency plan and for coordinating with other impacting local jurisdictions. If a local jurisdiction responsible for participating in a multi-jurisdictional deficiency plan does not adopt the deficiency plan in accordance with the schedule and requirements of paragraph (a) of this section, that jurisdiction shall be considered in nonconformance with the program for purposes of Section 65089.5.

(3) The agency shall establish a conflict resolution process for addressing conflicts or disputes between local jurisdictions in meeting the multi-jurisdictional deficiency plan responsibilities of this section.

(f) The analysis of the cause of the deficiency prepared pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) shall exclude the following:

(1) Interregional travel.

(2) Construction, rehabilitation, or maintenance of facilities that impact the system.

(3) Freeway ramp metering.

(4) Traffic signal coordination by the state or multi-jurisdictional agencies.

(5) Traffic generated by the provision of low-income and very low income housing.

(6) (A) Traffic generated by high-density residential development located within one-fourth mile of a fixed rail passenger station, and

(B) Traffic generated by any mixed use development located within one-fourth mile of a fixed rail passenger station, if more than half of the land area, or floor area, of the mixed use development is used for high density residential housing, as determined by the agency.

(g) For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the following meanings:

(1) "High density" means residential density development which contains a minimum of 24 dwelling units per acre and a minimum density per acre which is equal to or greater than 120 percent of the maximum residential density allowed under the local general plan and zoning ordinance. A project providing a minimum of 75 dwelling units per acre shall automatically be considered high density.

(2) "Mixed use development" means development which integrates compatible commercial or retail uses, or both, with residential uses, and which, due to the proximity of job locations, shopping opportunities, and residences, will discourage new trip generation.

SEC. 8. Section 65089.5 of the Government Code is amended and renumbered to read:

65089.6. Failure to complete or implement a congestion management program shall not give rise to a cause of action against a city or county for failing to conform with its general plan, unless the city or county incorporates the congestion management program into the circulation element of its general plan.

SEC. 9. Section 65089.6 of the Government Code is amended and renumbered to read:

65089.7. A proposed development specified in a development agreement entered into prior to July 10, 1989, shall not be subject to any action taken to comply with this chapter, except actions required to be taken with respect to the trip reduction and travel demand element of a congestion management program pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 65089.

SEC. 10. Section 65089.7 of the Government Code is amended and renumbered to read:

65089.8. (a) Buildings and structures that were damaged or destroyed in Los Angeles County as a result of the civil unrest during the state of emergency declared by the Governor on April 29, 1992, are not subject to the requirements of this chapter when permission is sought to repair or rebuild. This section does not exempt buildings or structures from any other requirement of the local jurisdiction otherwise applicable.

(b) This section shall become inoperative on June 1, 1995, and as of January 1, 1996, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1996, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 11. Section 65089.9 is added to the Government Code, to read:

65089.9. The study steering committee established pursuant to Section 6 of Chapter 444 of the Statutes of 1992 may designate at least two congestion management agencies to participate in a demonstration study comparing multimodal performance standards to highway level of service standards. The department shall make available, from existing resources, fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) from the Transportation Planning and Development Account in the State Transportation Fund to fund each of the demonstration projects. The designated agencies shall submit a report to the Legislature not later than June 30, 1997, regarding the findings of each demonstration project.

CHAPTER 1147

An act to amend Sections 48610.5, 48623, 48632, 48651, 48660, 48661, 48670, and 48674 of, to add Sections 48625, 48644, 48671.5, and 48695 to, to repeal Sections 3471 and 3472 of, and to amend, repeal, and add Section 48650 of, the Public Resources Code, relating to oil recycling, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3471 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 3472 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 48610.5 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

48610.5. "Bulk oil" means oil which is in nonpackaged form in containers larger than 55 gallons. "Bulk oil" does not include oil sold in 55 gallon containers or oil sold in an amount less than 55 gallons, regardless of container type.

SEC. 4. Section 48623 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

48623. "Used oil hauler" means a hazardous waste hauler registered pursuant to Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 25100) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code who transports used oil to a used oil recycling facility certified pursuant to Article 7 (commencing with Section 48660), to a used oil storage facility, to a used oil transfer facility, or to an out-of-state recycling facility registered with the Environmental Protection Agency and operated in substantial compliance with applicable regulatory standards of the state in which the recycling facility is located.

SEC. 5. Section 48625 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

48625. The following terms have the following meaning:

(a) "Used oil storage facility" has the same meaning as defined in subdivision (g) of Section 25250.1 of the Health and Safety Code.

(b) "Used oil transfer facility" has the same meaning as defined in subdivision (h) of Section 25250.1 of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 6. Section 48632 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

48632. The board may issue grants or loans pursuant to Section 48631 for only the following purposes:

(a) To local governments for providing opportunities for used lubricating oil collection, which are in addition to those included in the local used oil collection programs adopted pursuant to Article 10 (commencing with Section 48690).

(b) To nonprofit entities for projects, which may include one or more of the following programs or activities:

(1) Establishing used lubricating oil collection centers.

(2) Providing containers and other materials and supplies that the public can utilize in an environmentally sound manner to store used lubricating oil for pickup or return to a used oil collection center.

(3) Obtaining equipment and establishing procedures to comply with federal, state, and local law regarding the collection, handling, and storage of used oil.

(c) Research, testing, and demonstration projects to develop collection technologies and uses for recycled or used oil.

SEC. 7. Section 48644 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

48644. The board shall maintain access to a toll-free telephone number which is to be used for the purpose of informing callers of the following:

(a) The permissible methods of recycling or disposing of used oil.

(b) Specific establishments located in the area of the caller that have notified the board that they accept used oil.

SEC. 8. Section 48650 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

48650. (a) Beginning October 1, 1992, every oil manufacturer shall pay to the board, on or before the last day of the month following each quarter, an amount equal to four cents ($0.04) for every quart, or sixteen cents ($0.16) for every gallon, of lubricating oil sold or transferred in the state, or imported into the state for use in the state in that quarter. Except as provided in subdivision (b), no payment is required for oil which meets any of the following:

(1) Oil for which a payment has already been made to the board pursuant to this section.

(2) Oil exported or sold for export from the state.

(3) Oil sold for use in vessels operated in interstate or foreign commerce.

(4) Oil imported into the state in the engine crankcase, transmission, gear box, or differential of an automobile, bus, truck, vessel, plane, train, or heavy equipment or machinery.

(5) Bulk oil imported into, transferred in, or sold in the state to a motor carrier, as defined in Section 408 of the Vehicle Code, and used in a vehicle designated in subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 34500 of the Vehicle Code.

(6) The oil handled by the oil manufacturer otherwise subject to payment pursuant to this subdivision has a total volume of 500 gallons or less for each quarter.

(b) If oil exempted from payment pursuant to subdivision (a) is subsequently sold or transferred for use, or is used, in this state, and the use does not qualify for exemption pursuant to subdivision (a), the entity which sells, transfers, or uses the oil for a purpose which is not exempt from payment, shall make the payment specified in subdivision (a).

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2000, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 2000, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 9. Section 48650 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

48650. (a) Beginning October 1, 1992, every oil manufacturer shall pay to the board, on or before the last day of the month following each quarter, an amount equal to four cents ($0.04) for every quart, or sixteen cents ($0.16) for every gallon, of lubricating oil sold or transferred in the state, or imported into the state for use in the state in that quarter. Except as provided in subdivision (b), no payment is required for oil which meets any of the following:

(1) Oil for which a payment has already been made to the board pursuant to this section.

(2) Oil exported or sold for export from the state.

(3) Oil sold for use in vessels operated in interstate or foreign commerce.

(4) Oil imported into the state in the engine crankcase, transmission, gear box, or differential of an automobile, bus, truck, vessel, plane, train, or heavy equipment or machinery.

(5) Bulk oil imported into, transferred in, or sold in the state to a motor carrier, as defined in Section 408 of the Vehicle Code, and used in a vehicle designated in subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 34500 of the Vehicle Code.

(6) The oil handled by the oil manufacturer otherwise subject to payment pursuant to this subdivision has a volume of five gallons or less.

(b) If oil exempted from payment pursuant to subdivision (a) is subsequently sold or transferred for use, or is used, in this state, and the use does not qualify for exemption pursuant to subdivision (a), the entity which sells, transfers, or uses the oil for a purpose which is not exempt from payment, shall make the payment specified in subdivision (a).

(c) This section shall become operative on January 1, 2000.

SEC. 10. Section 48651 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

48651. (a) The board shall pay a recycling incentive to every industrial generator, curbside collection program, and certified used oil collection center, for used lubricating oil collected from the public, or generated by the certified used oil collection center or the industrial generator, after April 1, 1993, and transported by a used oil hauler to the facilities specified in Section 48623.

(b) The board shall pay a recycling incentive to an electric utility, as defined in Section 25108, for used lubricating oil generated after April 1, 1993, and used by the electric utility for electrical generation if the utility's use of the used lubricating oil meets the requirements of subparagraph (C) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) of Section 25143.2 of the Health and Safety Code and the used oil complies with the standards for recycled oil established in subdivision (c) of Section 25250.1 of the Health and Safety Code.

(c) A person or entity that generates used industrial oil or a used oil storage facility or a used oil transfer facility that accepts used oil shall cause that oil to be transported by a used oil hauler to a certified oil recycling facility or an out-of-state recycling facility registered with the Environmental Protection Agency and operating in substantial compliance with applicable regulatory standards of the state in which the recycling facility is located.

SEC. 11. Section 48660 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

48660. (a) No used oil collection center shall be eligible for the payment of recycling incentives until the board has certified that the center is in compliance with the requirements specified in subdivision (b). Before certification, the board may require the center to submit any information that the board determines is necessary to find that the center is in compliance with those requirements. Used oil collection centers shall reapply for certification every two years. The board may cancel the certification of a center if the board finds, after a public hearing, that the center is not or has not been in compliance with the requirements contained in subdivision (b). The board may withhold the payment of recycling incentives for used oil collected by a center if the board finds that the center was not in compliance with the requirements contained in subdivision (b) during the time in which the used oil was collected.

(b) In order to be eligible for certification by the board and the payment of recycling incentives, the used oil collection center shall do all of the following:

(1) (A) Accept used lubricating oil from the public at no charge during the hours between 8 a.m. and 8 p.m. that the entity operating as the center is open for business.

(B) The board may approve alternative hours for oil acceptance by an individual collection center if either of the following conditions are met:

(i) The center accepts oil for 12 continuous hours daily.

(ii) The collection center demonstrates that compliance with the requirements of Section 280.42 of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations prevents the collection center from complying with subparagraph (A).

(2) Pay to any person an amount equal to the recycling incentive which the center will receive for used lubricating oil brought to the center in containers by the person. Nothing in this chapter prohibits any person from donating used lubricating oil to a collection center. With the exception of used oil collection centers that generate used oil by servicing motor vehicles, the recycling incentive may be in the form of a credit that may be applied toward the purchase of goods or services offered by the collection center, as determined by the board.

(3) Provide information to the board for informing the public of the center's acceptance of used lubricating oil.

(4) Provide notice to the public, through onsite signs and periodic advertising in local media, of the center's acceptance of used lubricating oil from the public. Onsite signs shall be of a design specified by the board and shall be at least two feet by three in size, easily readable from a public street, and shall include the words "Used Oil Collection Center—Recycling Incentive Paid for Used Lubricating Oil in Containers During Business Hours from Members of the Public Who Change Their Own Oil." A used oil collection center which does not accept oil from the public during all of its business hours, but meets the requirements of paragraph (1), shall indicate on that sign the hours when used oil is accepted at no charge from the public and these hours shall be posted instead of the words "Business Hours." Where local zoning ordinances prevent signs of a size consistent with this section, an onsite sign shall be of the maximum allowable size.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), a used oil collection center shall not accept more than 20 gallons of used lubricating oil, in containers not larger than five gallons, from a person each day, and may refuse to accept used lubricating oil which has been contaminated in a manner other than that which would occur through normal use.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), no collection center shall knowingly accept used oil for which a payment has not been made pursuant to Section 48650.

SEC. 12. Section 48661 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

48661. (a) On and after July 1, 1992, the department shall annually inspect used oil recycling facilities.

(b) Within 135 days following inspection, the department shall submit a report to the board, describing all of the following:

(1) Any violations of Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 25100) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code.

(2) Any corrective actions ordered or agreed to by the department.

(3) Progress by the facility in correcting violations identified in previous inspections.

(c) In the report required by subdivision (b), the department shall specifically state whether any of the following occurred:

(1) The department has identified violations of subdivision (c) of Section 25250.1 of the Health and Safety Code regarding achievement of minimum standards of purity for recycled oil.

(2) The department has identified violations of regulations requiring financial responsibility assurance for liability, closure, and postclosure obligations.

(3) Where prior contamination has been identified, the facility has an approved corrective action plan and has not been found to be in violation of its requirements.

(4) The department has identified violations that meet the criteria for class 1 violations, as defined in Section 66260.10 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations.

SEC. 13. Section 48670 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

48670. To be eligible for payment of a recycling incentive, an industrial generator of used lubricating oil, a used oil collection center, or a curbside collection program shall report to the board, for each quarter, the amount of lubricating oil purchased and the amount of used lubricating oil that is transported to a certified used oil recycling facility, or to a used oil storage facility or to a used oil transfer facility, or that is transported to an out-of-state recycling facility registered with the Environmental Protection Agency and operating in substantial compliance with the applicable regulatory standards of the state in which the facility is located, or that is used to generate electricity pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 48651. The reports shall be submitted on or before the 45th day following each quarter, in the form and manner which the board may prescribe, and shall include copies of manifests or modified manifest receipts from used oil haulers. The board may delegate to the executive officer the authority to accept reports submitted after the 45th day and to reduce, eliminate, or approve the amount of incentive fee to be paid due to the late submission of the report. The board may provide, by regulation, for a longer reporting period for industrial generators that generate less than 1,000 gallons of used oil annually.

SEC. 14. Section 48671.5 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

48671.5. The manufacturer of every container that contains lubricating oils or industrial oils, and which is intended for sale to consumers in California, shall do either of the following:

(a) Label the containers in at least seven-point typeface as follows:

“Used oil is generally classified as a hazardous waste in California. Do not dispose of used oil in garbage, sewers, or the ground. To find out how to properly recycle used oil in your area, call (800) _____.”

The toll-free telephone number on the label shall be the number maintained by the board pursuant to Section 48644.

(b) Provide signs or other written material to retailers appropriate for informing consumers of the information that would otherwise be contained in the label set forth in paragraph (a).

SEC. 15. Section 48674 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

48674. After receiving a block grant pursuant to paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 48653, each local government shall submit a report to the board, on or before the date specified by the board, which includes any amendments to the local used oil collection program adopted pursuant to Section 48690, a description of all measures taken to implement the program, and a description of how the block grant was expended.

SEC. 16. Section 48695 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

48695. (a) The board may, on or before July 1, 1995, establish a pilot program for recycling used oil filters. Any pilot program established pursuant to this section shall develop opportunities for the public to voluntarily dispose of used oil filters and be eligible for an incentive fee of four cents ($.04) upon disposal.

(b) The board shall operate any pilot program established pursuant to this section from July 1, 1995, until July 1, 1997. The board shall, in conducting any pilot program established pursuant to this section, solicit voluntary participation by certified used oil collection centers and curbside collection programs, operate the program in specific geographic areas selected by the board, and pay a recycling incentive fee to every participating curbside collection program or certified used oil collection center for used oil filters collected from the public and transferred to a metal reclaimer for the purpose of recycling.

(c) The board shall, on or before November 1, 1997, prepare a report on the success or failure of any pilot program established pursuant to this section and include recommendations for legislation, if warranted, for a used oil filter recycling program. The board shall make the report available to the Governor, the appropriate policy and fiscal committees of the Legislature, and, upon request, to Members of the Legislature.

(d) The department shall not expend more than one hundred twenty thousand dollars ($120,000) annually during each year of the two-year pilot program for purposes of conducting the program.

(e) If a statewide oil filter recycling program is enacted by the Legislature prior to July 1, 1997, the board shall terminate the pilot program and prepare the final report within six months of the enactment of the oil filter recycling program.

SEC. 17. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1148

An act to amend Section 2080 of, and to add Section 2081.5 to, the Fish and Game Code, relating to endangered species, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2080 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

2080. No person shall import into this state, export out of this state, or take, possess, purchase, or sell within this state, any species, or any part or product thereof, that the commission determines to be an endangered species or a threatened species, or attempt any of those acts, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the Native Plant Protection Act (Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 1900) of this code), or the California Desert Native Plants Act (Division 23 (commencing with Section 80001) of the Food and Agricultural Code).

SEC. 2. Section 2081.5 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

2081.5. If an ongoing surface mining operation has been issued a permit pursuant to Section 2770 of the Public Resources Code by the lead agency, as defined in Section 2728 of the Public Resources Code, is in compliance with the permit with regard to matters relating to plants, and is in compliance with any memorandum of understanding with the department for any of the purposes specified in Section 2081 of this code, the following provisions shall apply:

(a) The surface mining operator is not liable for criminal prosecution pursuant to this code for any take of a threatened or endangered plant species that is incidental to the surface mining operation.

(b) If a plant species that exists on the private property of the surface mining operator is added to the list of threatened species or endangered species pursuant to this chapter after the date that the operator was issued the permit, or if a plant species on the list of threatened species or endangered species adopted pursuant to this chapter is newly discovered on the private property of the operator after that date, the department shall notify the operator by mail within 14 days of the addition to the list or knowledge of the new discovery by the department. Within 30 days from the date of the notification, the department shall meet with the operator to discuss an interim and permanent plan for the protection of the newly added or newly discovered plant species. Within 60 days of the initial meeting with the operator, the department shall issue reasonable and feasible interim management measures required to protect the newly added or newly discovered plant species that take into account the economic impact on the surface mining operation. The department shall work with the operator to develop and finalize a reasonable memorandum of understanding for one of the purposes specified in Section 2081 for the protection of the newly added or newly discovered plant species as expeditiously as possible. Both the interim management measures and the final memorandum of understanding shall, to the extent feasible, avoid interference with ongoing surface mining operations. The department shall send a copy of the final memorandum of understanding to the lead agency that issued the permit to the operator for the lead agency's information.

(c) The surface mining operator shall pay a fee to the department in the amount the department determines is necessary to pay the department's actual costs incurred in preparing interim management measures and developing and finalizing a memorandum of understanding for the protection of the newly added or newly discovered plant species. The fees shall be deposited in the Endangered and Rare Fish, Wildlife, and Plant Species Conservation and Enhancement Account in the Fish and Game Preservation Fund and, notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, are continuously appropriated to the department for purposes of implementing this section.

An act to amend Sections 4461, 4463, 22507.8, 22511.5, 22511.55, 22511.56, 22511.6, 22511.7, 22511.8, 42001.5, and 42002.5 of, and to add Section 22511.59 to, the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature intends that the Department of Motor Vehicles do all of the following:

(a) Publicize the availability of temporary placards for travelers who are disabled persons by utilizing appropriate channels and venues within and among the disabled community, the motor vehicle rental industry, the California State Automobile Association, travel agents, and community visitors' bureaus.

(b) Work cooperatively with the motor vehicle rental industry to expedite the issuance of the temporary placards through the mail, including, but not limited to, distributing applications for the temporary placards through motor vehicle rental agencies.

(c) Promptly process all applications from disabled persons for the temporary placards.

SEC. 2. Section 4461 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

4461. (a) No person shall lend any certificate of ownership, registration card, license plate, special plate, validation tab, or permit issued to him or her if the person desiring to borrow it would not be entitled to its use, nor shall any person knowingly permit its use by one not entitled to it.

(b) No person to whom a disabled person placard has been issued shall lend the placard to any other person, nor shall any disabled person knowingly permit the use of the placard by one not entitled to it. A person to whom a disabled person placard has been issued may permit another person to use the placard only while in the presence or reasonable proximity of the disabled person for the purpose of transporting the disabled person. A violation of this subdivision is a misdemeanor.

(c) Except for the purpose of transporting disabled persons as specified in subdivision (b), no person shall display any disabled person placard that was not issued to him or her or that has been canceled or revoked pursuant to Section 22511.6. A violation of this subdivision is a misdemeanor.

(d) For the purposes of subdivisions (b) and (c), "disabled person placard" means a placard issued pursuant to Section 22511.55 or 22511.59.

SEC. 3. Section 4463 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

4463. (a) Every person who, with intent to prejudice, damage, or defraud, commits any of the following acts is guilty of a felony and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, two or three years, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year:

(1) Alters, forges, counterfeits, or falsifies any certificate of ownership, registration card, certificate, license, license plate, device issued pursuant to Section 4853, special plate, or permit provided for by this code or any comparable certificate of ownership, registration card, certificate, license, license plate, device comparable to that issued pursuant to Section 4853, special plate, or permit provided for by any foreign jurisdiction, or alters, forges, counterfeits, or falsifies any such document, device, or plate with intent to represent it as issued by the department, or alters, forges, counterfeits, or falsifies with fraudulent intent any endorsement of transfer on a certificate of ownership or other document evidencing ownership, or with fraudulent intent displays or causes or permits to be displayed or have in his or her possession any blank, incomplete, canceled, suspended, revoked, altered, forged, counterfeit, or false certificate of ownership, registration card, certificate, license, license plate, device issued pursuant to Section 4853, special plate, or permit.

(2) Utters, publishes, passes, or attempts to pass, as true and genuine, any false, altered, forged, or counterfeited matter listed in subdivision (a) knowing it to be false, altered, forged, or counterfeited.

(b) Every person who, with intent to prejudice, damage, or defraud, commits any of the following acts is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for six months or by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars ($500) or more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that fine and imprisonment, which penalty shall not be suspended:

(1) Forges, counterfeits, or falsifies any disabled person placard or any comparable placard relating to parking privileges for disabled persons provided for by any foreign jurisdiction, or forges, counterfeits, or falsifies any disabled person placard with intent to represent it as issued by the department.

(2) Passes, or attempts to pass, as true and genuine, any false, forged, or counterfeit disabled person placard knowing it to be false, forged, or counterfeited.

(3) Acquires, possesses, sells, or offers for sale a genuine or counterfeit disabled person placard.

(c) Every person who, with fraudulent intent, displays or causes or permits to be displayed any forged, counterfeit, or false disabled person placard, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for six months or by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars ($500) or more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that fine and imprisonment, which penalty shall not be suspended.

(d) No person shall lend any disabled person placard issued to him or her, nor shall any person knowingly permit its use by one not entitled to it. A disabled person placard holder may permit another person to use the placard for the purpose of transporting the disabled person for whom the placard was issued. A violation of this subdivision is a misdemeanor.

(e) For purposes of subdivision (b), (c), or (d), "disabled person placard" means a placard issued pursuant to Section 22511.55 or 22511.59.

SEC. 4. Section 22507.8 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

22507.8. (a) It is unlawful for any person to park or leave standing any vehicle in a stall or space designated for disabled persons and disabled veterans pursuant to Section 22511.7 or 22511.8, unless the vehicle displays either a special identification license plate issued pursuant to Section 5007 or a distinguishing placard issued pursuant to Section 22511.55 or 22511.59.

(b) It is unlawful for any person to obstruct, block, or otherwise bar access to those parking stalls or spaces except as provided in subdivision (a).

(c) It is unlawful for any person to park or leave standing any vehicle, including a vehicle displaying a special identification license plate issued pursuant to Section 5007 or a distinguishing placard issued pursuant to Section 22511.55 or 22511.59, in either of the following places:

(1) On the lines marking the boundaries of a parking stall or space designated for disabled persons or disabled veterans.

(2) In any area of the pavement within a parking lot or parking facility that is marked by crosshatched lines and is thereby designated for the loading and unloading of vehicles pursuant to any local ordinance.

(d) Subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) apply to all offstreet parking facilities owned or operated by the state, and to all offstreet parking facilities owned or operated by a local authority. Subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) also apply to any privately owned and maintained offstreet parking facility.

SEC. 5. Section 22511.5 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

22511.5. (a) (1) Any disabled person or disabled veteran displaying special identification license plates issued under Section 5007 or a distinguishing placard issued under Section 22511.55 or 22511.59 shall be allowed to park for unlimited periods in any of the following zones:

(A) In any restricted zone described in paragraph (5) of subdivision (a) of Section 21458 or on streets upon which preferential parking privileges and height limits have been given pursuant to Section 22507.

(B) In any parking zone that is restricted as to the length of time parking is permitted as indicated by a sign erected pursuant to a local ordinance.

(2) Any disabled person or disabled veteran shall be allowed to park in any metered parking space without being required to pay any parking meter fees.

(3) This subdivision does not apply to any zone for which state law or ordinance absolutely prohibits stopping, parking, or standing of all vehicles, or which the law or ordinance reserves for special types of vehicles, or to the parking of any vehicle that is involved in the operation of a street vending business.

(b) Any disabled person or disabled veteran shall be allowed to park a vehicle displaying a special identification disabled person license plate or placard issued by a foreign jurisdiction with the same parking privileges authorized in this code for any vehicle displaying a special identification license plate or a distinguishing placard issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles.

22511.55. (a) (1) Any disabled person or disabled veteran may apply to the department for the issuance of a distinguishing placard. The placard may be used in lieu of the special identification license plate or plates issued under Section 5007 for parking purposes described in Section 22511.5 when suspended from the rear view mirror or, if there is no rear view mirror, when displayed on the dashboard of a vehicle. It is the intent of the Legislature to encourage the use of these distinguishing placards because they provide law enforcement officers with a more readily recognizable symbol for distinguishing vehicles qualified for the parking privilege. The placard shall be the size and color determined by the department, shall bear the International Symbol of Access adopted pursuant to Section 3 of Public Law 100-641, commonly known as the "wheelchair symbol." The department shall incorporate instructions for the lawful use of a placard, and a summary of the penalties for the unlawful use of a placard, into the identification card issued to the placard owner.

(2) (A) The department may establish procedures for the issuance and renewal of the placards. The placards shall have a fixed expiration date of June 30 every two years. Whenever any application for a placard is submitted to the department on or after January 1 of the year of expiration, the fee shall be for the current and subsequent renewal period.

(B) As used in this section, "year" means the period between the inclusive dates of July 1 through June 30.

(C) Prior to the end of each year, the department shall, for the most current three years available, compare its record of disability placards issued against the records of the Bureau of Vital Statistics of the State Department of Health Services, or its successor, and withhold any renewal notices that otherwise would have been sent, for any placard holders identified as deceased.

(3) The fee for an original application or renewal application is six dollars ($6).

(4) Except as provided in paragraph (5), no person is eligible for more than one placard at any time.

(5) Organizations and agencies involved in the transportation of disabled persons or disabled veterans may apply for a placard for each vehicle used for the purpose of transporting disabled persons or disabled veterans.

(b) Prior to issuing any disabled person or disabled veteran a distinguishing placard, the department may require the applicant to submit a certificate signed by the physician or surgeon substantiating the disability. The disability of any person who has lost, or has lost use of, one or more lower extremities or both hands, or who has significant limitation in the use of lower extremities, may also be certified by a licensed chiropractor. The blindness of any applicant shall be certified by a licensed physician or surgeon who specializes in diseases of the eye or a licensed optometrist.

(c) (1) Any person who has been issued a distinguishing placard pursuant to subdivision (a) may apply to the department for a substitute placard without recertification of eligibility, if that placard has been lost or stolen.

(2) The fee for a substitute placard issued pursuant to paragraph (1) is six dollars ($6).

(d) The distinguishing placard shall be returned to the department not later than 60 days after the death of the disabled person or disabled veteran to whom to placard was issued.

SEC. 7. Section 22511.56 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read: 22511.56. Any person using a distinguishing placard issued pursuant to Section 22511.55 or 22511.59 for parking as permitted by Section 22511.5 shall, upon request of any peace officer or person authorized to enforce parking laws, ordinances, or regulations, present identification and evidence of the issuance of that placard to that person.

(b) Failure to present the requested identification and evidence of the issuance of that placard shall be a rebuttable presumption that the placard is being misused and that the associated vehicle has been parked in violation of the provisions of Section 22507.8.

(c) In addition to any other applicable penalty for the misuse of a placard, the officer or parking enforcement person may confiscate a placard being used for parking purposes that benefit any person other than the person to whom the placard was issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles. A placard lawfully used by a person transporting a disabled person pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 4461 shall not be confiscated.

SEC. 8. Section 22511.59 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read: 22511.59. (a) Upon receipt of the applications and documents required by subdivisions (b), (c), or (d), the department shall issue a temporary distinguishing placard bearing the International Symbol of Access adopted pursuant to Section 3 of Public Law 100-641 commonly known as the "wheelchair symbol." During the period for which it is valid, the temporary distinguishing placard may be used for the parking purposes described in Section 22511.5 in the same manner as a distinguishing placard issued pursuant to Section 22511.55.

(b) (1) Any person who is temporarily disabled for a period of not more than six months may apply to the department for the issuance of the temporary distinguishing placard described in subdivision (a).

(2) Prior to issuing a placard pursuant to this subdivision, the department shall require the applicant to submit a certificate signed by a physician or surgeon, substantiating the temporary disability and stating the date upon which the disability is expected to terminate.

(3) A placard issued pursuant to this subdivision shall expire not later than 180 days from the date of issuance or upon the expected termination date of the disability, as stated on the certificate required by paragraph (2), whichever is less.

(c) (1) Any disabled person or disabled veteran who is not a resident of this state and plans to travel within the state may apply to the department for the issuance of the temporary distinguishing placard described in subdivision (a).

(2) Prior to issuing a placard pursuant to this subdivision, the department shall require the applicant to submit certification of the disability, as described in subdivision (b) of Section 22511.55.

(3) A placard issued pursuant to this subdivision shall expire not later than 90 days from the date of issuance.

(d) (1) Any disabled person or disabled veteran who has been issued either a distinguishing placard pursuant to Section 22511.55 or special identification license plates pursuant to Section 5007, but not both, may apply to the department for the issuance of the temporary distinguishing placard for the purpose of travel described in subdivision (a).

(2) Prior to issuing a placard pursuant to this subdivision, the department shall require the applicant to submit either the number identifying the distinguishing placard issued pursuant to Section 22511.55 or the number on the special identification license plates.

(3) A placard issued pursuant to this subdivision shall expire not later than 30 days from the date of issuance.

(e) The fee for a placard issued pursuant to this section is six dollars ($6).

SEC. 9. Section 22511.6 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

22511.6. (a) The Department of Motor Vehicles may cancel or revoke a distinguishing placard issued pursuant to Section 22511.55 or 22511.59 in any of the following events:

(1) When the department is satisfied that the placard was fraudulently obtained or erroneously issued.

(2) When the department determines that the required fee has not been paid and the fee is not paid upon reasonable notice and demand.

(3) When the placard could have been refused when last issued or renewed.

(4) When the department determines that the owner of the placard has committed any offense described in Section 4461 or 4463, involving the placard to be canceled or revoked.

(5) When the department determines that the owner of the placard is deceased.

(b) Whenever the Department of Motor Vehicles cancels or revokes a distinguishing placard, the owner or person in possession of the placard shall immediately return the placard to the department.

SEC. 10. Section 22511.7 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

22511.7. In addition to Section 22511.8 for offstreet parking, a local authority may, by ordinance or resolution, designate parking spaces for the exclusive use of any vehicle which displays either a special identification license plate issued pursuant to Section 5007 or a distinguishing placard issued pursuant to Section 22511.55 or 22511.59. Whenever a local authority so designates a parking space, it shall be indicated by blue paint on the curb or edge of the paved portion of the street adjacent to the space. In addition to blue paint, the space shall also be indicated by signs or other suitable means. In areas where snow or ice may obscure the blue paint, a clearly visible sign appropriately designating the space is sufficient for purposes of this section.

This section does not restrict the privilege granted to disabled persons and disabled veterans by Section 22511.5.

SEC. 11. Section 22511.8 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

22511.8. (a) Any local authority, by ordinance or resolution, and any person in lawful possession of an offstreet parking facility may designate stalls or spaces in an offstreet parking facility owned or operated by the local authority or person for the exclusive use of any vehicle which displays either a special identification license plate issued pursuant to Section 5007 or a distinguishing placard issued pursuant to Section 22511.55 or 22511.59. The designation shall be made by posting a sign as described in paragraph (1), and by either of the markings described in paragraph (2) or (3):

(1) By posting immediately adjacent to, and visible from, each stall or space, a sign consisting of a profile view of a wheelchair with occupant in white on a blue background.

(2) By outlining or painting the stall or space in blue and outlining on the ground in the stall or space in white or suitable contrasting color a profile view depicting a wheelchair with occupant.

(3) By outlining a profile view of a wheelchair with occupant in white on a blue background, of the same dimensions as in paragraph (2). The profile view shall be located so that it is visible to a traffic enforcement officer when a vehicle is properly parked in the space.

(b) If posted in accordance with subdivision (d) or (e), the owner or person in lawful possession of a privately owned or operated offstreet parking facility, after notifying the police or sheriff's department, may cause the removal of a vehicle from a stall or space designated pursuant to subdivision (a) in the facility to the nearest public garage unless a special identification license plate issued pursuant to Section 5007 or distinguishing placard issued pursuant to Section 22511.55 or 22511.59 is displayed on the vehicle.

(c) If posted in accordance with subdivision (d), the local authority owning or operating an offstreet parking facility, after notifying the police or sheriff's department, may cause the removal of a vehicle from a stall or space designated pursuant to subdivision (a) in the facility to the nearest public garage unless a special identification license plate issued pursuant to Section 5007 or a distinguishing placard issued pursuant to Section 22511.55 or 22511.59 is displayed on the vehicle.

(d) Except as provided in Section 22511.9, the posting required for an offstreet parking facility owned or operated either privately or by a local authority shall consist of a sign not less than 17 by 22 inches in size with lettering not less than one inch in height which clearly and conspicuously states the following: "Unauthorized vehicles not displaying distinguishing placards or license plates issued for physically handicapped persons will be towed away at owner's expense. Towed vehicles may be reclaimed at _____ or by telephoning

(Address)

_____"
(Telephone number of local law enforcement agency)

The sign shall be posted in either of the following locations:

- (1) Immediately adjacent to, and visible from, the stall or space.
- (2) In a conspicuous place at each entrance to the offstreet parking facility.

(e) If the parking facility is privately owned and public parking is prohibited by the posting of a sign meeting the requirements of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 22658, the requirements of subdivision (b) may be met by the posting of a sign immediately adjacent to, and visible from, each stall or space indicating that a vehicle not meeting the requirements of subdivision (a) will be removed at the owner's expense and containing the telephone number of the local traffic law enforcement agency.

(f) This section does not restrict the privilege granted to disabled persons and disabled veterans by Section 22511.5.

SEC. 12. Section 42001.5 of the Vehicle Code, as amended by Chapter 221 of the Statutes of 1994, is amended to read:

42001.5. Every person convicted of an infraction for a violation of subdivision (i) or (l) of Section 22500, Section 22507.8, or Section 22522, shall be punished by a fine of not less than two hundred fifty dollars ($250). No part of any fine imposed shall be suspended, except the court may suspend that portion of the fine above one hundred dollars ($100) for a violation of subdivision (i) or (l) of Section 22500 or of Section 22522, and the court may suspend the imposition of the fine for a conviction for a violation of Section 22507.8 if the person convicted possessed at the time of the offense, but failed to display, a valid distinguishing license plate or placard issued pursuant to Section 22511.5, a valid special identification license plate issued pursuant to Section 5007, or a distinguishing placard issued pursuant to Section 22511.55 or 22511.59. The fine may be paid in installments if the court determines that the defendant is unable to pay the entire amount in one payment.

SEC. 13. Section 42002.5 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

42002.5. Notwithstanding Section 42002, every person convicted of a violation of Section 10852 or 10853 involving a vehicle that has been modified for the use of a disabled veteran or any other disabled person and that displays a special identification license plate issued pursuant to Section 5007 or a distinguishing placard issued pursuant to Section 22511.55 or 22511.59, if those facts are known or should reasonably have been known to the person, shall be punished by a fine of not more than two thousand dollars ($2,000) or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or by both the fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 14. The sum of one hundred seventy-four thousand dollars ($174,000) is hereby appropriated from the Motor Vehicle Account in the State Transportation Fund to the Department of Motor Vehicles for expenditure in the 1994–1995 fiscal year for the purpose of implementing Sections 1 to 12, inclusive, of this act.

An act to amend Sections 41791.5 and 41820.5 of the Public Resources Code, relating to solid waste, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 41791.5 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

41791.5. (a) (1) Notwithstanding Section 41791, and except as provided in subdivision (b), each city, county, and regional agency shall submit its source reduction and recycling element and its nondisposal facility element to the board in accordance with the following schedule:

(A) For any jurisdiction with less than eight years of remaining disposal site capacity, the source reduction and recycling element and the nondisposal facility element shall be submitted on or before April 30, 1994.

(B) For any jurisdiction with eight or more years, but less than 15 years, of remaining disposal site capacity, the source reduction and recycling element and the nondisposal facility element shall be submitted on or before August 31, 1994.

(C) For any jurisdiction with 15 or more years of remaining disposal site capacity, the source reduction and recycling element and the nondisposal facility element shall be submitted on or before December 31, 1994.

(2) For purposes of this section, "remaining disposal site capacity" means capacity remaining as of January 1, 1990. For each jurisdiction, disposal site capacity shall be deemed to be the countywide permitted disposal site capacity.

(3) Notwithstanding Section 41791, a county or regional agency that has adopted a countywide or regional agency integrated waste management plan may submit the plan and its elements to the board for review and approval pursuant to the schedule set forth in paragraph (1).

(b) A city which is incorporated after January 1, 1990, shall submit a source reduction and recycling element, a household hazardous waste element, and a nondisposal facility element to the board for approval within 18 months from the date that the city was incorporated or within 18 months of the effective date of this section, whichever is later.

SEC. 2. Section 41820.5 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

41820.5. (a) In addition to its authority under Section 41820, the board may, after a public hearing, grant a time extension from the diversion requirements of Section 41780 to a city if both of the following conditions exist:

(1) The city was incorporated pursuant to Division 3 (commencing with Section 56000) of Title 5 of the Government Code after January 1, 1990.

(2) The county within which the city is located did not include provisions in its franchises which ensured that the now incorporated area would comply with the diversion requirements of Section 41780.

(b) The board may authorize a city which meets the requirements of subdivision (a) to submit a source reduction and recycling element which includes an implementation schedule that shows both of the following:

(1) For the initial element, the city shall divert 25 percent of all solid waste from landfill or transformation facilities within three years from the date on which the board approves the element, through source reduction, recycling, and composting activities.

(2) For the first revision of the element, the city shall divert 50 percent of all solid waste from landfill or transformation facilities within eight years from the date on which the board approves the element, through source reduction, recycling, and composting activities.

SEC. 3. This act is a urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide clarity to the regulated community, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1151

An act to amend Sections 25200.1.5, 25200.2, 25201.4, 25205.14, 25404, and 25404.5 of, and to add Sections 25187.9 and 25123.4 to, the Health and Safety Code, and to repeal Section 43152.15 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to hazardous waste.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25123.4 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25123.4. "Transportable hazardous waste treatment unit" or "transportable treatment unit" means mobile equipment which performs treatment, is transported onto a facility to perform treatment, and is not permanently stationed at a single facility.

SEC. 2. Section 25187.9 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25187.9. (a) The department shall establish a program to delegate the authority to enforce this chapter administratively in San Diego County to a certified unified program agency in San Diego County who requests that delegation and who meets the eligibility requirements adopted pursuant to subdivision (a). The department shall delegate that authority by means of an agreement negotiated between the department and the certified unified program agency. A delegation agreement shall delegate only the authority granted to the department by Sections 25187 and 25189.2, but shall not delegate the authority specified in subdivision (c) or the authority to issue an order that takes effect upon issuance based upon a finding of imminent and substantial endangerment pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 25187. The delegated authority may be exercised by the certified unified program agency to take enforcement action against violations committed by transporters, facilities deemed to hold a permit-by-rule pursuant to the regulations adopted by the department, and generators, including, but not limited to, generators conducting treatment pursuant to the regulations adopted by the department, generators conducting treatment conditionally authorized pursuant to Section 25200.3, and generators conducting treatment conditionally exempted pursuant to subdivision (a) or (c) of Section 25201.5.

(b) The department shall provide ongoing coordination and regular evaluation of the certified unified program agency authorized pursuant to this section. The certified unified program agency shall annually submit a summary report to the department on the status of orders issued under the authority of that delegation agreement. The department shall adopt regulations defining the criteria for eligibility for the certified unified program agency to receive a delegation of authority pursuant to this section and other procedures necessary to implement this section. The department may rescind the delegation of authority if the certified unified program agency does not maintain eligibility for authorization under these regulations. The regulations shall include, but are not limited to, a requirement that the certified unified program agency consult with the district attorney for the county on the development of policies to be followed by the certified unified program agency in exercising the authority delegated pursuant to this section and the minimum training required for the staff of the certified unified program agency. The regulations shall also include provisions to ensure that a person shall not be subject to an order issued by the department and by the certified unified program agency for the same act, violation, or failure to act. The regulations shall also include a requirement that the certified unified program agency have the ability to represent itself in administrative appeal hearings. The regulations shall also include provisions to ensure that the enforcement authority delegated to the certified unified program agency will be exercised consistently throughout the state.

(c) The delegation of authority made pursuant to subdivision (a) shall not include jurisdiction over a hazardous waste facility that is authorized under a hazardous waste facilities permit issued by the department pursuant to Section 25200 or that has been granted interim status pursuant to Section 25200.5. An agreement made pursuant to this section that delegates enforcement authority to the certified unified program agency shall specify the facilities located within the agency's jurisdiction that are not included within the agreement.

(d) A local health officer or designated local public officer that, prior to January 1, 1995, has been delegated authority by the department to enforce this chapter in San Diego County pursuant to Section 25187.7 shall, notwithstanding any change made to this section by the act adding this section, continue to have all authority that was delegated to that officer, and the delegation shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with Section 25187.7.

(e) Nothing in this section limits the application or effect of Section 25187.8.

(f) The department shall annually determine the total ongoing, necessary, and reasonable costs of coordinating and evaluating the program authorized by this section and shall maintain detailed cost records sufficient to substantiate the total annual costs. The department shall annually submit to the Secretary for Environmental Protection an itemized cost report as verification of the total annual costs, which shall be included by the secretary in the surcharge which the secretary is required to adjust pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 25404.5.

(g) For purposes of this section, "certified unified program agency" means a county, city, or local agency certified to implement the unified program pursuant to Chapter 6.11 (commencing with Section 25404) in San Diego County.

SEC. 3. Section 25200.1.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25200.1.5. (a) The department may establish an administrative process to certify hazardous waste environmental technologies that it determines will not pose a significant potential hazard to the public health and safety or to the environment if they are used under specified operating conditions and can be operated without specialized training and with minimal maintenance. Hazardous waste environmental technologies which may be certified shall include, but not are not limited to, hazardous waste management technologies, site mitigation technologies, and waste minimization and pollution prevention technologies. The certification process shall not be used for hazardous waste incineration technologies. The certification shall include all of the following:

(1) A statement of the technical specifications applicable to the technology.

(2) A determination of the composition of the hazardous wastes or chemical constituents for which the technology can appropriately be used.

(3) An estimate of the efficacy and efficiency of the technology in regard to the hazardous wastes or chemical constituents for which it is certified.

(4) A specification of the minimal operational standards the technology is required to meet to ensure that the certified technology is managed properly and used safely.

(b) An applicant for certification of a hazardous waste environmental technology shall provide the department with any information required by the department to make a determination on the application for certification.

(c) The department's proposed decision on an application for certification of a hazardous waste environmental technology shall be published in the California Regulatory Notice Register and shall be subject to a 30-day comment period. The department's final decision on an application for certification of a hazardous waste environmental technology shall become effective not sooner than 30 days after publication of the final decision in the California Regulatory Notice Register.

(d) The department may decertify a hazardous waste environmental technology if it determines, on the basis of any information, that the hazardous waste environmental technology may pose a significant potential hazard to the public health and safety or to the environment. The department may decertify a hazardous waste environmental technology in accordance with the procedure set forth in subdivision (c).

(e) The department's decision on an application for certification under this section is exempt from the requirements of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340), Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 11370), and Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and shall not be subject to the review and approval of the Office of Administrative Law.

(f) Based on the determination made by the department pursuant to subdivision (a), other local and state government permitting authorities may take this certification process into consideration when making their permitting decisions.

(g) (1) The department shall place appropriate conditions on any certification granted pursuant to this section. Those conditions may include, but are not limited to, all of the following:

(A) Limits on the types, volume, and concentration of waste streams that may be employed with the technology.

(B) Operating requirements.

(C) Monitoring requirements.

(2) Any technology certified by the department pursuant to this section may be eligible for authorization pursuant to permit-by-rule or conditional authorization pursuant to Section 25200.3, or conditional exemption pursuant to Section 25201.5, only if the department determines that the use of that technology to handle the waste stream or streams is demonstrated to be as safe and as effective as the processes that are subject to regulation pursuant to permit-by-rule or conditional authorization pursuant to Section 25200.3 or conditional exemption pursuant to Section 25201.5. A certified technology determined to be eligible for authorization pursuant to permit-by-rule shall, in addition to any conditions placed on the certification pursuant to paragraph (1), operate in accordance with all conditions of the certification and permit-by-rule.

(3) In determining the placement of a technology certified pursuant to this section for operation pursuant to permit-by-rule or pursuant to a grant of conditional authorization under Section 25200.3 or conditional exemption under Section 25201.5, the department shall, to the extent information is available, consider all the following factors in making its determination:

(A) The hazardous waste streams that are treated using the treatment methods and the hazards to health or safety or the environment posed by those hazardous wastes and their hazardous constituents.

(B) The complexity of the treatment method, the degree of difficulty in carrying it out, and the technology that is used to carry it out.

(C) Chemical or physical hazards that are associated with the use of the treatment process and the degree to which these hazards are similar to, or differ from, the chemical or physical hazards that are associated with the production processes that are carried out in the facilities that produce the hazardous waste that is treated using the treatment methods.

(D) The levels of specialized operator training, equipment maintenance, and monitoring that are required to ensure the safety of the treatment method and its effectiveness in treating particular hazardous waste streams.

(E) The types of accidents that may occur during the treatment of particular types of hazardous waste streams, the likely consequences of those accidents, and the actual accident history associated with use of the treatment method.

(h) The department shall charge fees to review and certify environmental technologies pursuant to this section that are sufficient to recover the actual costs of the department in reviewing and approving the technology.

(i) The department shall implement a program to continually monitor and oversee manufacturers and users of technologies certified pursuant to this section, in order to ensure that the certified technologies are operating in a manner which is not hazardous to human health and safety or to the environment.

(j) The department shall adopt regulations to implement the certification process.

SEC. 4. Section 25200.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25200.2. (a) The department shall develop a permitting process for transportable hazardous waste treatment units for treating waste in accordance with the requirements of the federal act and with the requirements of this chapter for hazardous wastes which are not otherwise subject to the federal act.

(b) The operator of a transportable hazardous waste treatment unit shall pay the same annual fee as facilities authorized to operate pursuant to a permit-by-rule specified in subdivision (a) of Section 25205.14. The operator of a unit is exempt from paying the facility fee specified in Section 25205.2 for any year or reporting period during which the unit was operating for any activity authorized under permit, except as specified in subdivision (b) of Section 25205.12.

(c) A transportable hazardous waste treatment unit operating pursuant to a hazardous waste facilities permit or pursuant to the department's regulations for operation under a permit-by-rule may operate at a facility for a period not to exceed one year. If the owner or operator of the transportable hazardous waste treatment unit shows cause, the department may authorize up to two extensions of this period, of six months duration, during which the transportable hazardous waste treatment unit may operate at the facility, if the department reviews the justification for the extension request after the first six-month period.

SEC. 5. Section 25201.4 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25201.4. (a) The department shall establish a program in the jurisdictions which do not have a local hazardous waste generator inspection program to inspect generators pursuant to subdivision (b) for compliance with the requirements of Sections 25200.3 and 25201.5, and with the requirements concerning operation under a permit-by-rule, including the regulations adopted by the department pursuant to those sections.

(b) (1) A certified unified program agency may, as part of an existing hazardous waste generator inspection program, develop a local program to inspect facilities performing treatment pursuant to permit-by-rule, generators authorized pursuant to Section 25200.3, and generators performing treatment conditionally exempted pursuant to subdivision (a) or (c) of Section 25201.5, for compliance with the requirements of applicable statutes and regulations.

(2) Any program operated by a certified unified program agency pursuant to this section shall be conducted in accordance with the standards adopted by the department pursuant to subdivision (c).

(3) Any program operated by a certified unified program agency pursuant to this section shall, at a minimum, ensure that within two years of the date that a person notifies the local agency that it is conducting treatment activities pursuant to permit-by-rule, or under Section 25200.3 or 25201.5, a site inspection shall be conducted at the facility, including verification of compliance with applicable generator requirements, container standards, and administrative and recordkeeping requirements, and that a compliance inspection shall be conducted at the facility to verify compliance with all applicable requirements every two years thereafter. Initial verification inspections which are conducted prior to the department's adoption of standards pursuant to subdivision (c) shall not be required to be conducted in accordance with those standards.

(4) The department's inspection program shall be designed to ensure that within two years of the date that a person notifies the department that it is conducting treatment activities pursuant to permit-by-rule, or Section 25200.3 or 25201.5, a site inspection shall be conducted at the facility, including verification of compliance with applicable generator requirements, container standards, administrative and recordkeeping requirements, and that a compliance inspection shall be conducted at the facility to verify compliance with all applicable requirements every two years thereafter. Initial verification inspections which are conducted prior to the department's adoption of standards pursuant to subdivision (c) shall not be required to be conducted in accordance with those standards.

(5) The certified unified program agencies operating a program pursuant to this section may assess inspection fees to the persons conducting treatment under a grant of authorization pursuant to Section 25200.3, conditionally exempt pursuant to subdivision (a) or (c) of Section 25201.5, or under a permit-by-rule, to cover the costs of the local program. In accordance with subdivision (a) of Section 25404.5, persons paying the inspection fees shall not be required to pay fees pursuant to Section 25205.14.

(c) The department shall, upon consultation with certified unified program agencies, adopt regulations establishing standards which provide criteria for the implementation of a local inspection program to inspect facilities or transportable treatment units operating pursuant to permit-by-rule, generators conditionally authorized pursuant to Section 25200.3, and generators conditionally exempted pursuant to subdivision (a) or (c) of Section 25201.5. These standards shall include, but not be limited to, qualification standards, inspection and enforcement standards, and reporting criteria. The development and publication of these standards is not subject to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(d) For purposes of this section, "certified unified program agency" means a county, city, or local agency certified to implement the unified program pursuant to Chapter 6.11 (commencing with Section 25404).

SEC. 6. Section 25205.14 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25205.14. (a) Except as provided in Section 25404.5, the owner or operator of a facility or transportable treatment unit operating pursuant to a permit-by-rule shall pay a fee to the board per facility or transportable treatment unit for each reporting period, or portion thereof. The fee for the 1993 reporting period shall be one thousand one hundred forty dollars ($1,140). Thereafter, the fee shall be adjusted annually by the board to reflect increases and decreases in the cost of living, as measured by the United States Department of Labor or a successor agency. The owner or operator of a facility or transportable treatment unit operating pursuant to a permit-by-rule shall also pay a fee in the amount of 50 percent of the fee specified in this subdivision for each modification of the notification required by Sections 67450.2 and 67450.3 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, as those sections read on January 1, 1995, or as those sections may subsequently be amended. The reporting period shall begin January 1 of each calendar year. On or before January 31 of each calendar year, the department shall notify the board of all known owners or operators operating pursuant to a permit-by-rule. The department shall also notify the board of any owner or operator authorized to operate under conditional authorization or pursuant to a permit-by-rule within 60 days after being authorized.

(b) Except as provided in Section 25404.5, a generator operating under a grant of conditional authorization pursuant to Section 25200.3 shall pay a fee to the board per facility for each reporting period, or portion thereof. The fee for the 1993 reporting period shall be one thousand one hundred forty dollars ($1,140). Thereafter, the fee shall be adjusted annually by the board to reflect increases and decreases in the cost of living, as measured by the United States Department of Labor or a successor agency. A generator shall also pay a fee in the amount of 50 percent of the fee specified in the subdivision for each notification amendment required by subdivision (l) of Section 25200.3. The reporting period shall begin January 1 of each calendar year. On or before January 31 of each calendar year, the department shall notify the board of all known generators operating pursuant to a grant of conditional authorization under Section 25200.3. The department shall also notify the board of any generator authorized to operate under conditional authorization within 60 days of the receipt of notification.

(c) Except as provided in Section 25404.5, a generator performing treatment conditionally exempted pursuant to Section 25144.6 or subdivision (a) or (c) of Section 25201.5 shall pay one hundred dollars ($100) to the board per facility for the operating period, or portion thereof, and fifty dollars ($50) every reporting period thereafter. The reporting period shall begin January 1 of each calendar year. On or before January 31 of each calendar year, the department shall notify the board of all known facilities performing treatment conditionally exempted by subdivision (a) or (c) of Section 25201.5. The department shall also notify the board of any generator who notifies the department that the generator is conducting a conditionally exempt treatment operation within 60 days of the receipt of the notification.

(d) The fees imposed pursuant to this section shall be paid in accordance with Part 22 (commencing with Section 43001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(e) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a), (b), and (c), the fees for the 1993 reporting period for facilities operating permit-by-rule fixed treatment units or for generators conditionally authorized to operate pursuant to Section 25200.3 or performing treatment conditionally exempted pursuant to Section 25201.5 shall be remitted to the department at the time the notifications required by Sections 25200.3, 25201.5, and 25202.13 are submitted to the department.

SEC. 7. Section 25404 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25404. (a) For purposes of this chapter, "secretary" means the Secretary for Environmental Protection.

(b) On or before January 1, 1996, the secretary shall adopt implementing regulations and implement a unified hazardous waste and hazardous materials management regulatory program, which shall be known as the unified program, after holding an appropriate number of public hearings throughout the state. The unified program shall be developed in close consultation with the director, the Director of the Office of Emergency Services, the State Fire Marshal, the executive officers and chairpersons of the State Water Resources Control Board and the California regional water quality control boards, the local health officers, local fire services, and other appropriate officers of interested local agencies, and affected businesses and interested members of the public, including environmental organizations.

(c) The unified program shall consolidate the administration of the following requirements, and shall, to the maximum extent feasible within statutory constraints, ensure the coordination and consistency of any regulations adopted pursuant to those requirements:

(1) The requirements of Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 25100) applicable to hazardous waste generators, hazardous waste generators conducting treatment conditionally authorized pursuant to Section 25200.3, hazardous waste generators conducting treatment exempted pursuant to Section 25201.5, and facilities deemed to hold a permit-by-rule pursuant to the regulations adopted by the department, except for the corrective action and phase I environmental assessment requirements of Sections 25200.10 and 25200.14. A certified unified program agency may enforce the requirements of Sections 25200.10 and 25200.14 pursuant to regulations adopted by the secretary.

(2) The requirement of subdivision (c) of Section 25270.5 for owners and operators of aboveground storage tanks to prepare a spill prevention control and countermeasure plan.

(3) The requirements of Chapter 6.7 (commencing with Section 25280) concerning underground storage tanks, except for the requirements of Section 25297.1 related to the abatement of unauthorized releases of hazardous substances from underground storage tanks, and the requirements of any underground storage tank ordinance adopted by a city or county. A certified unified program agency may oversee the abatement of unauthorized releases of hazardous substances from underground storage tanks pursuant to Section 25297.1.

(4) The requirements of Article 1 (commencing with Section 25501) of Chapter 6.95 concerning hazardous material release response plans and inventories.

(5) The requirements of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25531) of Chapter 6.95, concerning acutely hazardous materials.

(6) The requirements of paragraph (c) of Section 80.103 of the Uniform Fire Code, as adopted by the State Fire Marshal pursuant to Section 13143.9 of the Health and Safety Code, concerning hazardous material management plans and inventories, and, to the extent determined to be appropriate by the State Fire Marshal, the requirements of paragraph (b) of Section 80.103 of the Uniform Fire Code related to permits for the handling, use, and storage of hazardous materials.

(d) To the maximum extent feasible within statutory constraints, the secretary shall consolidate, coordinate, and make consistent these requirements of the unified program with other requirements imposed by other federal, state, regional, or local agencies upon facilities regulated by the unified program.

SEC. 8. Section 25404.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25404.5. (a) (1) Each certified unified program agency shall institute a single fee system, which shall replace the fees levied pursuant to Section 25205.14 on hazardous waste generators conditionally authorized to conduct treatment pursuant to Section 25200.3, conditionally exempted pursuant to subdivision (a) or (c) of Section 25201.5, and facilities deemed to hold a permit-by-rule pursuant to the regulations adopted by the Department of Toxic Substances Control, and which shall also replace any fees levied by a local agency pursuant to Sections 25143.10, 25287, 25513, and 25535.2, or any other fee levied by a local agency specifically to fund the implementation of the provisions specified in subdivision (c) of Section 25404. Notwithstanding Sections 25143.10, 25205.14, 25287, 25513, and 25535.2, a person who complies with the certified unified program agency's "single fee system" fee shall not be required to pay any fee levied pursuant to those sections.

(2) The governing body of the certified unified program agency shall establish the amount to be paid by each person regulated by the unified program under the single fee system at a level sufficient to pay the necessary and reasonable costs incurred by the certified unified program agency and by any participating agency pursuant to the requirements of paragraph (4) of subdivision (d) of Section 25404.3.

(3) The fee system may also be designed to recover the necessary and reasonable costs incurred by the certified unified program agency, or a participating agency pursuant to the requirements of paragraph (4) of subdivision (d) of Section 25404.3, in administering provisions other than those specified in subdivision (c) of Section 25404, if the implementation and enforcement of those provisions has been incorporated as part of the unified program by the certified unified program agency pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 25404.2, and if the single fee system replaces any fees levied as of January 1, 1994, to fund the implementation of those additional provisions.

(4) The amount to be paid by a person regulated by the unified program may be adjusted to account for the differing costs of administering the unified program with respect to that person's regulated activities.

(b) The single fee system instituted by each certified unified program agency shall include an assessment on each person regulated by the unified program of a surcharge, the amount of which shall be determined by the secretary annually, to cover the necessary and reasonable costs of state agencies in carrying out their responsibilities under this chapter. The secretary may adjust the amount of the surcharge to be collected by different certified unified program agencies to reflect the different costs incurred by the state in supervising the implementation of the unified program in different jurisdictions. The certified unified program agency may itemize the amount of the surcharge on any bill, invoice, or return which the agency sends to a person regulated by the unified program. Each certified unified program agency shall transmit all surcharge revenues collected to the secretary within 45 days after receipt of the revenues pursuant to subdivision (a). The surcharge shall be deposited in the Unified Program Account, which is hereby created in the General Fund and which may be expended, upon appropriation by the Legislature, to any state agency for the purposes of implementing this chapter.

(c) Each certified unified program agency and the secretary shall, before the institution of the single fee system and the assessment of the surcharge, implement a fee accountability program designed to encourage more efficient and cost-effective operation of the program for which the single fee and surcharge are assessed. The fee accountability programs shall include those elements of the requirements of the plan adopted pursuant to Section 25206 which the secretary determines are appropriate.

SEC. 9. Section 43152.15 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 10. The Legislature hereby finds that a general statute, within the meaning of subdivision (b) of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution, cannot be made applicable to Section 25187.9 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Section 2 of this act, because of the unique circumstances that exist with regard to the enforcement of hazardous waste regulations in San Diego County, and that, therefore, that special statute is necessary.

SEC. 11. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 24011 and 57092 of, and to add Sections 6546.5 and 56131.5 to, the Government Code, and to add Sections 9504.5, 9600.5, and 9600.6 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to local government.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the Omnibus Local Government Act of 1994.

The Legislature finds and declares that operating costs can be decreased by reducing the number of separate bills affecting related topics by consolidating these bills into a single measure. Therefore, in enacting this act, it is the intent of the Legislature to consolidate several minor, noncontroversial statutory changes relating to public agencies into a single measure.

SEC. 2. Section 6546.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

6546.5. For purposes of an agency, commission, or board that is authorized pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 6546 to issue revenue bonds for facilities for the production, storage, transmission, or treatment of water or waste water, that authority includes the authority to issue revenue bonds for facilities to remove hazardous substances, pollutants, or contaminants from that water.

SEC. 3. Section 24011 of the Government Code is amended to read:

24011. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 24009:

(a) The boards of supervisors of Madera County, Mendocino County, Trinity County, and Lake County may, by ordinance, provide that the public administrator shall be appointed by the board.

(b) The boards of supervisors of Madera County, Mendocino County, Trinity County, and Lake County may appoint the same person to the offices of public administrator, veteran service officer, and public guardian.

(c) The boards of supervisors of Madera County, Mendocino County, Trinity County, and Lake County may separate the consolidated offices of district attorney and public administrator at any time in order to make the appointments permitted by this section. Upon approval by the board of supervisors, the officer elected to these offices at any time may resign, or decline to qualify for, the office of public administrator without resigning from, or declining to qualify for, the office of district attorney.

SEC. 4. Section 56131.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

56131.5. Upon the filing of an application for the formation of, annexation to, consolidation of, or dissolution of a local hospital district created pursuant to Division 23 (commencing with Section 32000) of the Health and Safety Code or of an application for a reorganization including any of those changes of organization or the initiation by the commission of any of those changes of organization or any reorganization including any of those changes of organization, the commission shall notify all state agencies that have oversight or regulatory responsibility over, or a contractual relationship with, the local hospital district that is the subject of the proposed change of organization or reorganization, of its receipt of the application or the initiation by the commission of the proposed change of organization or reorganization and the proposal, including, but not limited to, the following:

(a) The State Department of Health Services, including, but not limited to, Licensing and Certification and the Medi-Cal Division.

(b) The Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development, including, but not limited to, the Cal-Mortgage Loan Insurance Division.

(c) The California Health Facilities Financing Authority.

(d) The California Medical Assistance Commission.

A state agency shall have 60 days from the date of receipt of notification by the commission to comment on the proposal. The commission shall consider all comments received from any state agency in making its decision.

SEC. 5. Section 57092 of the Government Code is amended to read:

57092. (a) Notwithstanding Sections 57081, 57083, 57087, 57087.5, or 57089, for any proposal that was initiated by the commission pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 56375, the conducting authority shall order the change of organization or reorganization subject to confirmation by the voters if the conducting authority finds either of the following:

(1) In the case of inhabited territory, that a petition requesting that the proposal be submitted to confirmation by the voters has been signed by either of the following:

(A) At least 10 percent of the number of landowners within any affected district within the affected territory who own at least 10 percent of the assessed value of land within the territory.

(B) At least 10 percent of the voters entitled to vote as a result of residing within, or owning land within, any affected district within the affected territory.

(2) In the case of a landowner-voter district, that the territory is uninhabited and a petition requesting that the proposal be submitted to confirmation by the voters has been signed by at least 10 percent of the number of landowners within any affected district within the affected territory, owning at least 10 percent of the assessed value of land within the territory.

(b) The petition shall be filed with the conducting authority within 30 days after the public hearing required pursuant to this chapter has been held. If a petition has been filed, the conducting authority shall approve the proposal subject to confirmation by the voters.

SEC. 6. Section 9504.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

9504.5. "Private mausoleum or columbarium" shall be a freestanding structure which:

(a) Is constructed for use by the members of any one group, and not for the sale of space therein to any other person.

(b) Does not contain crypts for the interment of more than 12 uncremated human remains, and a columbarium, niches for the interment of not more than 20 cremated human remains.

(c) Is not constructed for occupancy by any person except in the course of making an interment.

SEC. 7. Section 9600.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

9600.5. The Cemetery Board may, in addition to the construction methods and standards allowed in this chapter, adopt regulations for the construction of private mausoleums or private columbariums, which at a minimum, include the following:

(a) Standards for design and construction for seismic load

(b) Methods of construction, including solid granite construction.

(c) Methods of sealing to prevent leakage from crypts.

(d) Ventilation of crypts.

(e) Types of incombustible materials which may be used in construction.

SEC. 8. Section 9600.6 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

9600.6. Private mausoleums or columbariums may be constructed in conformance with the methods and standards set forth in this chapter or in conformance with the construction methods and standards as adopted by the Cemetery Board.

SEC. 9. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

CHAPTER 1153

An act to amend Section 11123 of, and to add Section 11125.3 to, the Government Code, relating to open meetings.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11123 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11123. (a) All meetings of a state body shall be open and public and all persons shall be permitted to attend any meeting of a state body except as otherwise provided in this article.

(b) (1) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prohibit a state body from holding an open or closed meeting by teleconference if the convening at one location of a quorum of the state body is difficult or impossible, subject to all of the following:

(A) The teleconferencing meeting shall comply with all requirements of this article applicable to other meetings.

(B) The portion of the teleconferenced meeting that is required to be open to the public shall be audible to the public at the location specified in the notice of the meeting.

(C) Each teleconference location shall be identified in the notice of the meeting and shall be accessible to the public.

(D) All votes taken during a teleconferenced meeting shall be by rollcall.

(E) The portion of the teleconferenced meeting that is closed to the public may not include the consideration of any agenda item being heard pursuant to Section 11125.5 of the Government Code.

(F) At least one member of the state body shall be physically present at the location specified in the notice of the meeting.

(2) For the purposes of this subdivision, "teleconference" means a conference of individuals in different locations, connected by electronic means, through either audio or video, or both.

(3) This subdivision shall not be operative and shall have no effect on and after January 1, 1998.

SEC. 2. Section 11125.3 is added to the Government Code, to read:

11125.3. (a) Notwithstanding Section 11125, a state body may take action on items of business not appearing on the posted agenda under any of the conditions stated below:

(1) Upon a determination by a majority vote of the state body that an emergency situation exists, as defined in Section 11125.5.

(2) Upon a determination by a two-thirds vote of the state body, or, if less than two-thirds of the members are present, a unanimous vote of those members present, that there exists a need to take immediate action and that the need for action came to the attention of the state body subsequent to the agenda being posted as specified in Section 11125.

(b) Notice of the additional item to be considered shall be provided to each member of the state body and to all parties that have requested notice of its meetings as soon as is practicable after a determination of the need to consider the item is made, but shall be delivered in a manner that allows it to be received by the members and by newspapers of general circulation and radio or television stations at least 48 hours before the time of the meeting specified in the notice. Notice shall be made available to newspapers of general circulation and radio or television stations by providing that notice to all national press wire services. Notice shall be provided to the general public by placing it on appropriate electronic bulletin boards or other appropriate mechanisms, whenever the state body has the electronic capability necessary to do so.

An act to amend Sections 25143.2, 25143.9, 25250.1, 25250.5, 25250.8, 25250.12, 25250.17, and 25250.19 of, and to add Section 25250.13 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous waste.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25143.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25143.2. (a) Recyclable materials are subject to the requirements of this chapter and the regulations adopted by the department to implement this chapter which apply to hazardous wastes, unless the department issues a variance pursuant to Section 25143, or except as provided otherwise in subdivision (b), (c), or (d) or the regulations adopted by the department pursuant to Sections 25150 and 25151. For the purposes of this section, recyclable material does not include infectious waste.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subdivisions (e), (f), and (g), recyclable material which is managed in accordance with Section 25143.9 and is or will be recycled by any of the following methods shall be excluded from classification as a waste:

(1) Used or reused as an ingredient in an industrial process to make a product, if the material is not being reclaimed.

(2) Used or reused as a safe and effective substitute for commercial products, if the material is not being reclaimed.

(3) Returned to the original process from which the material was generated, without first being reclaimed, if the material is returned as a substitute for raw material feedstock, and the process uses raw materials as principal feedstocks.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (e), any recyclable material may be recycled at a facility which is not authorized by the department pursuant to the applicable hazardous waste facilities permit requirements of Article 9 (commencing with Section 25200) if either of the following requirements is met:

(1) The material is a petroleum refinery waste containing oil which is converted into petroleum coke at the same facility at which the waste was generated, unless the resulting coke product would be identified as a hazardous waste under this chapter. A waste subject to this paragraph is exempt from this chapter to the same extent the waste is exempt from subsections (q), (r), and (s) of Section 6924 of Title 42 of the United States Code.

(2) The material meets all of the following conditions:

(A) The material is recycled and used at the same facility at which the material was generated.

(B) The material is recycled within 90 days of its generation.

(C) The material is managed in accordance with all applicable requirements for generators of hazardous wastes under this chapter and regulations adopted by the department.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in subdivisions (e), (f), (g), and (h), recyclable material which meets the definition of a non-RCRA hazardous waste in Section 25117.9, is managed in accordance with Section 25143.9, and meets or will meet any of the following requirements is excluded from classification as a waste:

(1) The material can be shown to be recycled and used at the site where the material was generated.

(2) The material qualifies as one or more of the following:

(A) The material is a product, which has been processed from a hazardous waste, or which has been handled, at a facility authorized by the department pursuant to the facility permit requirements of Article 9 (commencing with Section 25200) to process or handle the material, if the product meets both of the following conditions:

(i) The product does not contain constituents, other than those for which the material is being recycled which render the material hazardous under regulations adopted pursuant to Sections 25140 and 25141.

(ii) The product is used, or distributed or sold for use, in a manner for which the product is commonly used.

(B) The material is a petroleum refinery waste containing oil which is converted into petroleum coke at the same facility at which the waste was generated, unless the resulting coke product would be identified as a hazardous waste under this chapter.

(C) The material is oily waste, used oil, or spent nonhalogenated solvent which is managed by the owner or operator of a refinery which is processing primarily crude oil and which is not subject to permit requirements for recycling of used oil, or a public utility, or a corporate subsidiary, corporate parent, or subsidiary of the same corporate parent of the refinery or public utility, and which meets all of the following requirements:

(i) The material is either burned in an industrial boiler, an industrial furnace, an incinerator, or a utility boiler which complies with all applicable federal and state laws, or is recombined with normal process streams to produce a fuel.

(ii) The material is managed at the site where it was generated; managed at another site owned or operated by the generator, a corporate subsidiary of the generator, a subsidiary of the same entity of which the generator is a subsidiary, or the corporate parent of the generator; or, if the material is generated in the course of oil or gas exploration or production, managed by an unrelated refinery receiving the waste through a common pipeline.

(iii) The material does not contain constituents other than those for which the material is being recycled which render the material hazardous under regulations adopted pursuant to Sections 25140 and 25141, unless the material is an oily waste, other than used oil, and those constituents are to be removed at the refinery prior to the use of the material.

(D) The material is a fuel which is removed from a fuel tank, is either contaminated with water or by nonhazardous debris, of not more than 2 percent by weight, including, but not limited to, rust or sand, or a fuel unintentionally mixed with an unused petroleum product, and is transferred to, and processed into a fuel at, a refinery which processes primarily crude oil.

(3) The material is transported between locations operated by the same person who generated the material, if the material is recycled at the last location operated by that person and all of the conditions of clauses (i) to (vi), inclusive, of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (4) are met. If requested by the department or by any law enforcement official, a person handling material subject to this paragraph shall, within 15 days of the request, supply documentation to show that the requirements of this paragraph have been satisfied.

(4) (A) The material is transferred between locations operated by the same person who generated the material, if the material is to be recycled at an authorized offsite hazardous waste facility and if all of the following conditions are met:

(i) The material is transferred by employees of that person in vehicles under the control of that person or by a registered hazardous waste hauler under contract to that person.

(ii) The material is not handled at any interim location.

(iii) The material is not held at any publicly accessible interim location for more than four hours unless required by other provisions of law.

(iv) The material is managed in compliance with the requirements of this chapter and the regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter prior to the initial transportation of the material and after the receipt of the material at the last location operated by that person. Upon receipt of the material at the last location operated by that person, the material shall be deemed to have been generated at that location.

(v) All of the following information is maintained in an operating log at the last location operated by that person:

(I) The name and address of each generator location contributing material to each shipment received.

(II) The quantity and type of material contributed by each generator to each shipment of material.

(III) The destination and intended disposition of all material shipped offsite or received.

(IV) The date of each shipment received or sent offsite.

The log shall be kept for at least three years after receipt of the material at that location.

(vi) If requested by the department, or by any law enforcement official, a person handling material subject to this paragraph shall, within 15 days of the request, supply documentation to show that the requirements of this paragraph have been satisfied.

(B) For purposes of paragraph (3) and subparagraph (A) of paragraph (4), "person" also includes corporate subsidiary, corporate parent, or subsidiary of the same corporate parent.

(C) Persons which are a corporate subsidiary, corporate parent, or subsidiary of the same corporate parent, and which manage recyclable materials under paragraph (3) or subparagraph (A) of paragraph (4), are jointly and severally liable for any activities excluded from regulation pursuant to this section.

(5) The material is used or reused as an ingredient in an industrial process to make a product, if the material is not being treated before introduction to that process except by one or more of the following procedures, and if any discharges to air from the following procedures do not contain constituents which are hazardous wastes pursuant to the department's regulations and comply with applicable air pollution control laws:

- (A) Filtering.
- (B) Screening.
- (C) Sorting.
- (D) Sieving.
- (E) Grinding.

(F) Physical or gravity separation, without the addition of external heat or any chemicals.

- (G) pH adjustment.
- (H) Viscosity adjustment.

(6) The material is used or reused as a safe and effective substitute for commercial products, if the material is not being treated except by one or more of the following procedures, and if any discharges to air from the following procedures do not contain constituents which are hazardous wastes pursuant to the department's regulations and comply with applicable air pollution control laws:

- (A) Filtering.
- (B) Screening.
- (C) Sorting.
- (D) Sieving.
- (E) Grinding.

(F) Physical or gravity separation, without the addition of external heat or any chemicals.

- (G) pH adjustment.
- (H) Viscosity adjustment.

(7) The material is a chlorofluorocarbon or hydrochlorofluorocarbon compound or a combination of chlorofluorocarbon or hydrochlorofluorocarbon compounds, is being reused or recycled, and is used in heat transfer equipment, including, but not limited to, mobile air conditioning systems, mobile refrigeration, and commercial and industrial air conditioning and refrigeration systems, used in fire extinguishing products, or contained within foam products.

(e) Notwithstanding subdivisions (b), (c), and (d), all of the following recyclable materials are hazardous wastes and subject to full regulation under this chapter, even if the recycling involves use, reuse, or return to the original process as described in subdivision (b), or even if the recycling involves activities or materials described in subdivisions (c) and (d):

(1) Materials which are a RCRA hazardous waste, as defined in Section 25120.2, used in a manner constituting disposal, or used to produce products that are applied to the land including, but not limited to, materials used to produce a fertilizer, soil amendment, agricultural mineral, or an auxiliary soil and plant substance.

(2) Materials which are a non-RCRA hazardous waste, as defined in Section 25117.9, and used in a manner constituting disposal or used to produce products that are applied to the land as a fertilizer, soil amendment, agricultural mineral, or an auxiliary soil and plant substance. The department may adopt regulations to exclude materials from regulation pursuant to this paragraph.

(3) Materials burned for energy recovery, used to produce a fuel, or contained in fuels, except materials exempted under paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) or excluded under subparagraph (B), (C), or (D) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (d).

(4) Materials accumulated speculatively.

(5) Materials determined to be inherently wastelike pursuant to regulations adopted by the department.

(6) Used or spent etchants, stripping solutions, and plating solutions, which are transported to an offsite facility operated by a person other than the generator and which are either of the following:

(A) The etchants or solutions are no longer fit for their originally purchased or manufactured purpose.

(B) If the etchants or solutions are reused, the generator and the user cannot document that they are used for their originally purchased or manufactured purpose without prior treatment.

(7) Used oil, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 25250.1, unless one of the following applies:

(A) The used oil is excluded under subparagraph (B) or (C) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (d), paragraph (4) of subdivision (d), subdivision (e) of Section 25250.1, Section 25250.2, or Section 25250.3, and is managed in accordance with the applicable requirements of Part 279 (commencing with Section 279.1) of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(B) The used oil is used or reused on the site where it was generated or is excluded under paragraph (3) of subdivision (d), and is managed in accordance with the applicable requirements of Part 279 (commencing with Section 279.1) of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations, and is not any of the following:

(i) Used in a manner constituting disposal or used to produce a product that is applied to land.

(ii) Burned for energy recovery or used to produce a fuel, unless the used oil is excluded under subparagraph (B) or (C) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (d).

(iii) Accumulated speculatively.

(iv) Determined to be inherently wastelike pursuant to regulations adopted by the department.

(f) (1) Any person who manages a recyclable material under a claim that the material qualifies for exclusion or exemption pursuant to this section shall provide, upon request, to the department, the Environmental Protection Agency, or any local agency or official authorized to bring an action as provided in Section 25180, all of the following information:

(A) The name, street and mailing address, and telephone number of the owner or operator of any facility that manages the material.

(B) Any other information related to that person's management of the material requested by the department, the Environmental Protection Agency, or the authorized local agency or official.

(2) Any person claiming an exclusion or an exemption shall maintain adequate records to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the requesting agency or official that there is a known market or disposition for the material, and that the requirements of any exemption or exclusion pursuant to this section are met.

(3) For purposes of determining that the conditions for exclusion from classification as a waste pursuant to this section are met, any person, facility, site, or vehicle engaged in the management of a material under a claim that the material is excluded from classification as a waste pursuant to this section shall be subject to Section 25185.

(g) For purposes of Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300), recyclable materials excluded from classification as a waste pursuant to this section are not excluded from the definition of hazardous substances in subdivision (g) of Section 25316.

(h) Used oil that fails to qualify for exclusion pursuant to subdivision (d), solely because the used oil is a RCRA hazardous waste, may be managed pursuant to subdivision (d) if the used oil is also managed in accordance with the applicable requirements of Part 279 (commencing with Section 279.1) of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

SEC. 2. Section 25143.9 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25143.9. A recyclable material shall not be excluded from classification as a waste pursuant to subdivision (b) or (d) of Section 25143.2, unless all of the following requirements are met:

(a) If the material is held in a container or tank, the container or tank is labeled, marked, and placarded in accordance with the department's hazardous waste labeling, marking, and placarding requirements which are applicable to generators, except that the container or tank shall be labeled or marked clearly with the words "Excluded Recyclable Material" instead of the words "Hazardous Waste," and manifest document numbers are not applicable. If the material is used oil, the containers, aboveground tanks, and fill pipes used to transfer oil into underground storage tanks shall also be labeled or clearly marked with the words "Used Oil".

(b) The owner or operator of the business location where the material is located has a business plan that meets the requirements of Section 25504, including, but not limited to, emergency response plans and procedures, as described in subdivision (b) of Section 25504, which specifically address the material or that meet the department's emergency response and contingency requirements which are applicable to generators of hazardous waste.

(c) The material shall be stored and handled in accordance with all local ordinances and codes, including, but not limited to, fire codes, governing the storage and handling of the hazardous material. If a local jurisdiction does not have an ordinance or code regulating the storage of the material, including, but not limited to, an ordinance or code requiring secondary containment for hazardous material storage areas, the material shall be stored in tanks, waste piles, or containers meeting the department's interim status regulations establishing design standards applicable to tanks, waste piles, or containers storing hazardous waste.

(d) If the material is being exported to a foreign country, the person exporting the material shall meet the requirements of Section 25162.1.

SEC. 3. Section 25250.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25250.1. (a) As used in this article, the following terms have the following meaning:

(1) (A) "Used oil" means any oil that has been refined from crude oil, or any synthetic oil, that has been used, and, as a result of use or as a consequence of extended storage, or spillage, has been contaminated with physical or chemical impurities. Examples of used oil are spent lubricating fluids which have been removed from an engine crankcase, transmission, gearbox, or differential of an automobile, bus, truck, vessel, plane, heavy equipment, or machinery powered by an internal combustion engine; industrial oils, including compressor, turbine, and bearing oil; hydraulic oil; metal-working oil; refrigeration oil; and railroad drainings.

(B) "Used oil" does not include any of the following:

(i) Oil which has a flashpoint below 100° F or which has been mixed with hazardous waste, other than minimal amounts of vehicle fuel.

(ii) Waste water, the discharge of which is subject to regulation under either Section 307 (b) or 402 of the Clean Water Act, including waste waters at facilities which have eliminated the discharge of waste water, contaminated with de minimis quantities of used oil. For purposes of this subparagraph, "de minimis quantities of used oil" are small spills, leaks, or drippings from pumps, machinery, pipes, and other similar equipment during normal operations, or small amounts of oil lost to the waste water treatment system during washing or draining operations. This exception shall not apply if the used oil is discarded as a result of abnormal manufacturing operations resulting in substantial leaks, spills, or other releases or to used oil recovered from waste waters.

(iii) Used oil re-refining distillation bottoms that are used as feedstock to manufacture asphalt products.

(iv) Oil which contains polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs) at a concentration of 5 ppm or greater.

(v) Oil containing more than 1000 ppm total halogens. That oil shall be presumed to be a hazardous waste because it has been mixed with halogenated hazardous waste listed in Subpart D (commencing with Section 261.30) of Part 261 of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations. Persons may rebut that presumption by demonstrating that the used oil does not contain hazardous waste.

(2) "Board" means the California Integrated Waste Management Board.

(3) (A) "Recycled oil" means any oil, produced from used oil, which has been prepared for reuse and which achieves minimum standards of purity, in liquid form, as established by the department. This subdivision does not apply to oil which is to be disposed or used in a manner constituting disposal. The following standards of purity are in effect for recycled oil unless the department, by regulation, establishes more stringent standards, and are the only allowed exceptions to the criteria adopted pursuant to Section 25141:

(i) Flashpoint: minimum standards set by the American Society for Testing and Materials for the recycled products. However, recycled oil to be burned for energy recovery shall have a minimum flashpoint of 100° F.

(ii) Total lead: 50 mg/kg or less.

(iii) Total arsenic: 5 mg/kg or less.

(iv) Total chromium: 10 mg/kg or less.

(v) Total cadmium: 2 mg/kg or less.

(vi) Total halogens: 3000 mg/kg or less. However, recycled oil shall be demonstrated by testing to contain not more than 1000 mg/kg total halogens listed in Appendix VIII of Part 261 (commencing with Section 261.1) of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(vii) Total polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs): 2 mg/kg or less.

(B) Compliance with the specifications of subparagraph (A) shall not be met by blending or diluting used oil with crude or virgin oil and shall be determined in accordance with the procedures for identification and listing of hazardous waste adopted in regulations by the department. Persons authorized by the department to recycle oil shall maintain records of volumes and characteristics of incoming used oil and outgoing recycled oil and documentation concerning the recycling technology utilized to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the department or other enforcement agencies that the recycling has been achieved in compliance with this subdivision.

(4) "Used oil recycling facility" means a facility which reprocesses or rerefines used oil.

(5) "Used oil storage facility" means a storage facility, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 25123.3, which stores used oil.

(6) "Used oil transfer facility" means a transfer facility, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 25123.3, that either stores used oil for periods greater than 144 hours or that transfers used oil from one container to another.

(b) (1) Unless otherwise specified, used oil which meets all of the following conditions is not subject to regulation by the department:

(A) The used oil meets the standards set forth in paragraph (3) of subdivision (a).

(B) The used oil is not hazardous pursuant to the criteria adopted pursuant to Section 25141 of constituents other than those listed in paragraph (3) of subdivision (a).

(C) The used oil is not mixed with any waste listed as a hazardous waste in Part 261 (commencing with Section 261.1) of Chapter 1 of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(2) Used oil recycling facilities that are the first to claim that the used oil meets the requirements specified in paragraph (1) shall maintain an operating log and copies of certification forms as specified in Section 25250.19. Any person who generates used oil, and who claims that the oil is exempt from regulation pursuant to this subdivision, shall notify the department, in writing, of that claim and shall comply with the testing and recordkeeping requirements of Section 25250.19 prior to its reuse. In any action to enforce this article, the burden is on the generator, transporter, or recycling facility, whichever first claimed that the used oil meets the standards and criteria, and on the user of the used oil to prove that the oil meets those standards and criteria.

SEC. 4. Section 25250.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25250.5. (a) The disposal of used oil by discharge to sewers, drainage systems, surface water or groundwater, watercourses, or marine waters; by incineration or burning as fuel; or by deposit on land, is prohibited, unless authorized under other provisions of law.

(b) The use of used oil or recycled oil as a dust suppressant or insect or weed control agent is prohibited unless allowed under another applicable law, but only to the extent that use as a dust suppressant or insect or weed control agent is consistent with the federal act.

SEC. 5. Section 25250.8 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25250.8. Used oil shall be manifested under either one of the following procedures:

(a) The procedures prescribed by Sections 25160 and 25161.

(b) The following modified manifesting procedure, which may be used only by a registered hazardous waste hauler and shall be used only with the consent of the generator:

(1) A separate manifest shall be completed by each vehicle driver, with respect to each transport vehicle operated by that driver for each date.

(2) The hauler shall complete both the generator's and the hauler's sections of the manifest using the hauler's name, Environmental Protection Agency identification number, terminal address, and phone number. The hauler's section shall be completed prior to commencing each day's used oil collections. The driver shall sign and date the generator's and hauler's sections of the manifest.

(3) The hauler shall attach to the front of the manifest legible receipts for each quantity of used oil that is received from a generator. The receipts shall be used to determine the total volume of used oil in the vehicle. After the used oil is delivered, the receipts shall be affixed to the hauler's copy of the manifest. The hauler shall leave a copy of the receipt with the generator of the used oil. The generator shall retain each receipt for at least three years.

(4) All copies of each receipt shall contain all of the following information:

(A) The name, address, Environmental Protection Agency identification number, and telephone number of the generator, and the signature of the generator or the generator's representative.

(B) The date of the shipment.

(C) The state manifest number.

(D) The volume of the used oil received and its proper shipping description, including the hazardous class and identification number, if applicable.

(E) The name and the address of the permitted facility to which the used oil will be transported.

(F) The hauler's name, address, and Environmental Protection Agency identification number.

(G) The driver's signature.

(5) The hauler shall enter the total volume of used oil transported on the manifest at the change of each date, change of driver, change of transport vehicle, or upon the last delivery of used oil to the designated facility. The total volume shall be the cumulative amount of used oil collected from the generators listed on the individual receipts.

(6) The hauler shall submit the generator copy of the manifest to the department within 30 days of each shipment.

(7) The hauler shall retain a copy of the manifest and all receipts for each manifest for three years.

(8) The hauler shall submit all copies of the manifest to the designated facility. A representative of the designated facility which receives the used oil shall sign and date the manifest, return two copies to the hauler, retain one copy, and send the original to the department within 30 days.

(9) All other manifesting requirements of Sections 25160 and 25161 shall be complied with unless specifically exempted under this subdivision.

SEC. 6. Section 25250.12 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25250.12. Used oil generated during maintenance operations may be transferred from its point of generation to the maintenance person's place of business, other than a residence, for the purpose of consolidation in a tank or container, without meeting the requirements of Sections 25160, 25163, and 25201, if the material is to be recycled at an authorized offsite hazardous waste facility and if all the following conditions are met:

(a) The generator transports the used oil in a vehicle owned by the generator or owned by an employee of the generator.

(b) Not more than 55 gallons are transferred in the vehicle at any one time.

(c) The used oil is managed in accordance with all laws concerning storage and handling of hazardous wastes upon consolidation at the maintenance person's place of business.

(d) The used oil is deemed to be generated at the point of consolidation upon consolidation.

SEC. 7. Section 25250.13 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25250.13. Notwithstanding any provision of this chapter, a transfer facility that accepts used oil and holds the oil for more than 24 hours, but less than 144 hours, and does not handle the used oil, other than the transfer of packaged or containerized used oil from one vehicle to another, shall comply with the requirements for used oil transfer facilities that are specified in Subpart E (commencing with Section 279.40) of Part 279 of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

SEC. 8. Section 25250.17 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25250.17. (a) Unless the facility meets the requirements of Section 25250.11, each used oil recycling, storage, or transfer facility shall submit a report, on or before March 1 of each even-numbered year, to the department, on a form provided by the department, containing all of the following information:

(1) The total volume of used oil possessed at the beginning and end of the preceding calendar year.

(2) The total volume of used oil received during the preceding calendar year.

(3) The total volume of used oil recycled during the preceding calendar year, itemized as follows:

(A) Prepared for reuse as a petroleum product.

(B) Consumed in the process of preparing for reuse, including wastes generated.

(C) Prepared for reuse other than as a petroleum product, specifying each type of other use.

(D) Not recycled but transported offsite.

(E) The manner in which the used oil is processed or re-refined, including the specific processes used, if applicable.

(4) Any other information which the department may require.

(b) The department may utilize reports collected by other governmental agencies to obtain the information required by this section.

SEC. 9. Section 25250.19 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25250.19. (a) A used oil recycler shall test all recycled oil, prior to transportation from the recycling facility, pursuant to applicable methods in the Environmental Protection Agency Document No. Solid Waste 846 or any equivalent alternative method approved or required by the department, and shall ensure and certify the oil as being in compliance with the standards specified in paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 25250.1. Records of tests performed and a copy of each form completed pursuant to Section 25250.18 shall be maintained for three years and are subject to audit and verification by the department or the board. The department shall perform an audit and verification on a periodic basis. The department may charge a reasonable fee for this activity.

(b) A generator claiming that used oil is exempted from regulation pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 25250.1 shall ensure that all used oil for which the exemption is claimed has been tested and certified as being in compliance with the standards specified in subdivision (b) of Section 25250.1, prior to transportation from the generator location. Records of tests performed and a copy of each form completed pursuant to Section 25250.18 shall be maintained for three years and are subject to audit and verification by the department or the board.

(c) Used oil recyclers identified in subdivision (a) and generators identified in subdivision (b) shall record in an operating log and retain for three years the information specified in paragraphs (1) to (5), inclusive, of subdivision (a) of Section 25250.18 on each shipment of recycled or exempted oil.

(d) Operating logs required in subdivision (c) are subject to audit and verification by the department or the board.

SEC. 10. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1155

An act to amend Sections 29735, 29760, and 29763.8 of, and to add Section 29761.5 to, the Public Resources Code, relating to the Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 29735 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

29735. There is hereby created the Delta Protection Commission consisting of 19 members as follows:

(a) One member of the board of supervisors of each of the five counties within the delta whose supervisorial district is within the primary zone shall be appointed by the board of supervisors of the county.

(b) Three elected city council members shall be selected and appointed by city selection committees, from regional and area councils of government, one in each of the following areas:

(1) One from the north delta, consisting of the Counties of Yolo and Sacramento.

(2) One from the south delta, consisting of the County of San Joaquin.

(3) One from the west delta, consisting of the Counties of Contra Costa and Solano.

(c) (1) One member each from the board of directors of five different reclamation districts which are located within the primary zone who are residents of the delta, and who are elected by the trustees of reclamations districts within the following areas:

(A) Two members from the area of the North Delta Water Agency as described in Section 9.1 of the North Delta Water Agency Act (Chapter 283 of the Statutes of 1973), provided at least one member is also a member of the Delta Citizens Municipal Advisory Council.

(B) One member from the west delta consisting of the area of Contra Costa County within the delta.

(C) One member from the area of the Central Delta Water Agency as described in Section 9.1 of the Central Delta Water Agency Act (Chapter 1133 of the Statutes of 1973).

(D) One member from the area of the South Delta Water Agency as described in Section 9.1 of the South Delta Water Agency Act (Chapter 1089 of the Statutes of 1973).

(2) Each reclamation district may nominate one director to be a member. The member from an area shall be selected from among the nominees by a majority vote of the reclamation districts in that area. For purposes of this section, each reclamation district shall have one vote. The north delta area shall conduct separate votes to select each of its two members.

(d) The Director of Parks and Recreation or the director's sole designee.

(e) The Director of Fish and Game or the director's sole designee.

(f) The Director of Food and Agriculture or the director's sole designee.

(g) The executive officer of the State Lands Commission or the executive officer's sole designee.

(h) The Director of Boating and Waterways or the director's sole designee.

(i) The Director of Water Resources or the director's sole designee.

SEC. 2. Section 29760 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

29760. (a) Not later than October 1, 1994, the commission shall prepare and adopt, by a majority vote of the membership of the commission, and thereafter review and maintain, a comprehensive long-term resource management plan for land uses within the primary zone of the delta. The regional plan shall consist of the map of the primary zone and text or texts setting forth a description of the needs and goals for the delta and a statement of the policies, standards, and elements of the regional plan.

(b) The regional plan shall meet the following requirements:

(1) Protect and preserve the cultural values and economic vitality that reflect the history, natural heritage, and human resources of the delta.

(2) Conserve and protect the quality of renewable resources.

(3) Preserve and protect agricultural viability.

(4) Restore, improve, and manage levee systems by promoting strategies, including, but not limited to, methods and procedures which advance the adoption and implementation of coordinated and uniform standards among governmental agencies for the maintenance, repair, and construction of both public and private levees.

(5) Preserve and protect delta dependent fisheries and their habitat.

(6) Preserve and protect riparian and wetlands habitat, and promote and encourage a net increase in both the acreage and values of those resources on public lands and through voluntary cooperative arrangements with private property owners.

(7) Preserve and protect the water quality of the delta, both for instream purposes and for human use and consumption.

(8) Preserve and protect open-space and outdoor recreational opportunities.

(9) Preserve and protect private property interests from trespassing and vandalism.

(10) Preserve and protect opportunities for controlled public access and use of public lands and waterways consistent with the protection of natural resources and private property interests.

(11) Preserve, protect, and maintain navigation.

(12) Protect the delta from any development that results in any significant loss of habitat or agricultural land.

(13) Promote strategies for the funding, acquisition, and maintenance of voluntary cooperative arrangements, such as conservation easements, between property owners and conservation groups that protect wildlife habitat and agricultural land, while not impairing the integrity of levees.

(14) Permit water reservoir and habitat development that is compatible with other uses.

(c) The regional plan shall not supersede the authority of local governments over areas within the secondary zone.

(d) In order to facilitate, in part, the requirements of paragraphs (8), (9), (10), and (11) of subdivision (b), the commission shall include in the regional plan, in consultation with all law enforcement agencies having jurisdiction in the delta, a strategy for the implementation of a coordinated marine patrol system throughout the delta which will improve law enforcement and coordinate the use of resources by all jurisdictions to ensure an adequate level of public safety. The strategic plan shall identify resources to implement that coordination. The commission shall have no authority to abrogate the existing authority of any law enforcement agency.

(e) To the extent that any of the requirements specified in this section are in conflict, nothing in this division shall deny the right of the landowner to continue the agricultural use of the land.

SEC. 3. Section 29761.5 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

29761.5. Not later than January 7, 1995, the commission shall transmit copies of the regional plan to the Governor. Copies of the regional plan shall be made available, upon request, to Members of the Legislature.

SEC. 4. Section 29763.8 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

29763.8. A local government shall adopt its proposed general plan amendments within 120 days after their approval by the commission.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to allow sufficient time for the Delta Protection Commission to prepare and adopt, in the most thorough and effective manner possible, a comprehensive long-term resource management plan for land uses within the primary zone of the delta, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1156

An act to add Section 454.9 to the Public Utilities Code, relating to public utilities, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 454.9 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

454.9. (a) The commission shall authorize public utilities to establish catastrophic event memorandum accounts and to record in those accounts the costs of the following:

- (1) Restoring utility services to customers.
- (2) Repairing, replacing, or restoring damaged utility facilities.
- (3) Complying with governmental agency orders in connection with events declared disasters by competent state or federal authorities.

(b) The costs, including capital costs, recorded in the accounts set forth in subdivision (a) shall be recoverable in rates following a request by the affected utility, a commission finding of their reasonableness, and approval by the commission. The commission shall hold expedited proceedings in response to utility applications to recover costs associated with catastrophic events.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure that the Public Utilities Commission acts immediately to approve all reasonable utility requests to restore utility services impaired by the Northridge earthquake so as to protect the public health and welfare, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1157

An act to amend Sections 12655 and 12656 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to weights and measures.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12655 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

12655. It is the intent of the Legislature to encourage the unit pricing of all canned, bottled, and packaged foods, packaged produce, and bakery goods; paper, plastic, wood, and metal products packaged in counts greater than 10; rolled paper, plastic, and metal products; canned, bottled, and packaged domestic, laundry and household cleansing, finishing, waxing, and polishing products; drug and first aid products canned, packaged, or bottled in counts greater than 10; and frozen fruits and vegetables, offered by merchants in their places of business for sale at retail to the public. The Legislature finds that unit pricing, the price per ounce, per pound, per gallon, or the metric equivalent thereof, or per 100 square feet, or per 100 count, for which those items are offered for sale at retail, effectively informs the consumer of the comparative prices and values of commodities, and is thus useful for the formulation of intelligent consumer choices. Reconstituted fluid ounce is the preferred unit of measure for unit pricing of powdered and concentrated infant formula.

SEC. 2. Section 12656 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

12656. The department, in cooperation with the retail food industry, shall adopt a standardized format for unit pricing that shall be available to a retailer upon request. The format shall include, but not be limited to, an identification of the item, including the brand name, the total price of the item, the volume, weight, or number of units of which the item is composed, and the price per unit. For infant formula, unit price information may be expressed based on the reconstituted volume.

CHAPTER 1158

An act to amend Sections 51291, 51292, 51293, and 51295 of, and to add Section 51290.5 to, the Government Code, relating to land conservation.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 51290.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

51290.5. As used in this chapter "public improvement" means facilities or interests in real property owned by a public agency or person as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 51291.

SEC. 2. Section 51291 of the Government Code is amended to read:

51291. (a) As used in this section, Section 51292, and Section 51295 "public agency" means the state, or any department or agency thereof, and any county, city, school district, or other local public district, agency, or entity; and "person" means any person authorized to acquire property by eminent domain.

(b) Whenever it appears that land within an agricultural preserve may be required by a public agency or person for a public use, the public agency or person shall advise the Director of Conservation and the local governing body responsible for the administration of the preserve of the intention to consider the location of a public improvement within the preserve. In accordance with Section 51290, the notice shall include an explanation of the preliminary consideration of Section 51292, and give a general description, in text or by diagram, of the agricultural preserve land proposed for acquisition, and a copy of any applicable contract created under this chapter. The Director of Conservation shall forward to the Director of Food and Agriculture a copy of any material received from the public agency or person relating to the proposed acquisition.

Within 30 days thereafter the Director of Conservation and the local governing body shall forward to the public agency or person concerned their comments with respect to the effect of the location of the public improvement on the land within the agricultural preserve and those comments shall be considered by the public agency or person. In preparing those comments, the Director of Conservation shall consider issues related to agricultural land use, including, but not limited to, matters related to the effects of the proposal on the conversion of adjacent or nearby agricultural land to nonagricultural uses, and shall consult with, and incorporate the comments of, the Director of Food and Agriculture on any other matters related to agricultural operations. Failure of any public agency or person to comply with the requirements of this section shall not invalidate any action by the agency or person to locate a public improvement within an agricultural preserve. However, the failure by any person or any public agency other than a state agency to comply with the requirements of this section shall be admissible in evidence in any litigation for the acquisition of that land or involving the allocation of funds or the construction of the public improvement. This subdivision does not apply to the erection, construction, alteration, or maintenance of gas, electric, water, or communication utility facilities within an agricultural preserve if that preserve was established after submission of the location of those facilities to the city or county for review or approval.

(c) When land in an agricultural preserve is acquired by a public entity, within 10 working days the public entity shall notify the Director of Conservation. The notice shall include a general explanation of the decision, and the findings made pursuant to Section 51292. If different from that previously provided pursuant to subdivision (b), the notice shall also include a general description, in text or by diagram, of the agricultural preserve land acquired, and a copy of any applicable contract created under this chapter.

(d) If, after giving the notice required under subdivisions (b) and (c) and before the project is completed within an agricultural preserve, the public agency or person proposes any significant change in the public improvement, it shall give notice of the changes to the Director of Conservation and the local governing body responsible for the administration of the preserve. Within 30 days thereafter, the Director of Conservation and the local governing body may forward to the public agency or person their comments with respect to the effect of the change to the public improvement on the land within the preserve and the compliance of the changed public improvements with this article. Those comments shall be considered by the public agency or person, if available within the time limits set by this subdivision.

(e) If the notices and findings required by this section and Section 51292 are given and contained within documents prepared pursuant to the California Environmental Quality Act (Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code) those documents may be used to meet the notification and findings requirements of this section and Section 51292, as long as they are provided no later than the times set forth in this section.

Any action or proceeding regarding notices or findings required by this article filed by the Director of Conservation or the local governing body administering the agricultural preserve shall be governed by Section 51294.

SEC. 3. Section 51292 of the Government Code is amended to read:

51292. No public agency or person shall locate a public improvement within an agricultural preserve unless the following findings are made:

(a) The location is not based primarily on a consideration of the lower cost of acquiring land in an agricultural preserve.

(b) If the land is prime agricultural land covered under a contract pursuant to this chapter for any public improvement, that there is no other land within or outside the preserve on which it is reasonably feasible to locate the public improvement.

SEC. 4. Section 51293 of the Government Code is amended to read:

51293. Section 51292 shall not apply to:

(a) The location or construction of improvements where the board or council administering the agricultural preserve approves or agrees to the location thereof, except when the acquiring agency and administering agency are the same entity.

(b) The acquisition of easements within a preserve by the board or council administering the preserve.

(c) The location or construction of any public utility improvement which has been approved by the Public Utilities Commission.

(d) The acquisition of either (1) temporary construction easements for public utility improvements, or (2) an interest in real property for underground public utility improvements. This subdivision shall apply only where the surface of the land subject to the acquisition is returned to the condition and use that immediately predated the construction of the public improvement, and when the construction of the public utility improvement will not significantly impair agricultural use of the affected contracted parcel or parcels.

(e) The location or construction of the following types of improvements, which are hereby determined to be compatible with or to enhance land within an agricultural preserve:

(1) Flood control works, including channel rectification and alteration.

(2) Public works required for fish and wildlife enhancement and preservation.

(3) Improvements for the primary benefit of the lands within the preserve.

(f) Improvements for which the site or route has been specified by the Legislature in a manner that makes it impossible to avoid the acquisition of land under contract.

(g) All state highways on routes as described in Sections 301 to 622, inclusive, of the Streets and Highways Code, as those sections read on October 1, 1965.

(h) All facilities which are part of the State Water Facilities as described in subdivision (d) of Section 12934 of the Water Code, except facilities under paragraph (6) of subdivision (d) of that section.

(i) Land upon which condemnation proceedings have been commenced prior to October 1, 1965.

(j) The acquisition of a fee interest or conservation easement for a term of at least 10 years, in order to restrict the land to agricultural or open space uses as defined by subdivisions (b) and (o) of Section 51201.

SEC. 5. Section 51295 of the Government Code is amended to read:

51295. When any action in eminent domain for the condemnation of the fee title of an entire parcel of land subject to a contract is filed or when that land is acquired in lieu of eminent domain for a public improvement by a public agency or person or whenever there is any action or acquisition by the federal government or any person, instrumentality or agency acting under authority or power of the federal government, the contract shall be deemed null and void as to the land actually being condemned or so acquired as of the date the action is filed and for the purposes of establishing the value of the land, the contract shall be deemed never to have existed.

Upon the termination of the proceeding, the contract shall be null and void for all land actually taken or acquired.

When an action to condemn or acquire less than all of a parcel of land subject to a contract is commenced, the contract shall be deemed null and void as to the land actually condemned or acquired and shall be disregarded in the valuation process only as to the land actually being taken, unless the remaining land subject to contract will be adversely affected by the condemnation, in which case the value of that damage shall be computed without regard to the contract.

When an action to condemn or acquire an interest which is less than the fee title of an entire parcel or any portion thereof, of land subject to a contract is commenced, the contract shall be deemed null and void as to that interest and for the purpose of establishing the value of that interest only shall be deemed never to have existed, unless the remaining interests in any of the land subject to the contract will be adversely affected, in which case the value of that damage shall be computed without regard to the contract.

The land actually taken shall be removed from the contract. Under no circumstances shall land be removed that is not actually taken for a public improvement, except that when only a portion of the land or less than a fee interest in the land is taken or acquired, the contract may be canceled with respect to the remaining portion or interest upon petition of either party and pursuant to the provisions of Article 5 (commencing with Section 51280).

For the purposes of this section, a finding by the board or council that no authorized use may be made of the land if the contract is continued on the remaining portion or interest in the land may satisfy the requirements of subdivision (a) of Section 51282.

If, after acquisition, the acquiring public agency determines that it will not for any reason actually locate on that land or any part thereof, the public improvement for which the land was acquired, before returning the land to private ownership the public agency shall give written notice to the Director of Conservation and the local governing body responsible for the administration of the preserve and the land shall be reenrolled in a contract, or encumbered by an enforceable deed restriction with terms at least as restrictive as those provided by this chapter. The duration of the restriction shall be determined by subtracting the length of time the land was held by the acquiring public agency or person from the number of years that remained on the original contract at the time of acquisition.

An act to amend Sections 25201.6, 25205.2, 25205.4, 25205.7, and 25205.12 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous waste.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25201.6 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25201.6. (a) For purposes of this section and Section 25205.2, the following terms have the following meaning:

(1) "Series A standardized permit" means a permit issued to a facility that meets one of the following conditions:

(A) The total influent volume of liquid hazardous waste treated is greater than 50,000 gallons per calendar month.

(B) The total volume of solid hazardous waste treated is greater than 100,000 pounds per calendar month.

(C) Where both liquid and solid hazardous wastes are being treated, either the total volume of liquid waste treated exceeds the volume specified in subparagraph (A), or the total volume of solid hazardous waste treated exceeds the volume specified in subparagraph (B).

(D) The total facility storage design capacity is greater than 500,000 gallons for liquid hazardous waste.

(E) The total facility storage design capacity is greater than 500 tons for solid hazardous waste.

(F) Where both liquid and solid hazardous waste are being stored, the total volume of liquid waste stored exceeds the volume specified in subparagraph (D), or the total volume of solid hazardous waste stored exceeds the volume specified in subparagraph (E).

(G) A volume of liquid or solid hazardous waste is stored at the facility for more than one calendar year.

(2) "Series B standardized permit" means a permit issued to a facility that does not store liquid or solid hazardous waste of any period of more than one calendar year, and that meets one of the following conditions:

(A) The total influent volume of liquid hazardous waste treated is greater than 5,000 gallons but less than 50,000 gallons per calendar month.

(B) The total volume of solid hazardous waste treated is greater than 10,000 pounds but less than 100,000 pounds per calendar month.

(C) Where both liquid and solid hazardous wastes are being treated, the total volume of liquid hazardous waste treated does not exceed the volume specified in subparagraph (A), and the volume of solid hazardous waste treated does not exceed the volume specified in subparagraph (B).

(D) The total facility storage design capacity is greater than 50,000 gallons but less than 500,000 gallons for liquid hazardous waste.

(E) The total facility storage design capacity is greater than 100,000 pounds but less than 500 tons for solid hazardous waste.

(F) Where both liquid and solid hazardous wastes are being stored, the total volume of liquid hazardous waste stored does not exceed the volume specified in subparagraph (D), and the total volume of solid hazardous waste stored does not exceed the volume specified in subparagraph (E).

(3) "Series C standardized permit" means a permit issued to a facility that does not store liquid or solid hazardous waste for any period for more than one calendar year, that, except as provided in subparagraph (G), does not treat or store reactive, ignitable or extremely hazardous waste, that does not conduct thermal treatment of hazardous waste, with the exception of evaporation, and meets one of the following conditions:

(A) The total influent volume of liquid hazardous waste treated does not exceed 5,000 gallons per calendar month.

(B) The total volume of solid hazardous waste treated does not exceed 10,000 pounds per calendar month.

(C) Where both liquid and solid hazardous wastes are being treated, the total volume of liquid hazardous waste treated does not exceed the volume specified in subparagraph (A), and the total volume of solid hazardous wastes treated does not exceed the volume specified in subparagraph (B).

(D) The total facility storage design capacity does not exceed

50,000 gallons for liquid hazardous waste.

(E) The total facility storage design capacity does not exceed 100,000 pounds for solid hazardous waste.

(F) Where both liquid and solid hazardous wastes are being stored, the total volume of liquid hazardous waste stored does not exceed the volume specified in subparagraph (D) and the total volume of solid hazardous waste stored does not exceed the volume specified in subparagraph (E).

(G) Notwithstanding any other provision of this paragraph, a permanent household hazardous waste collection facility operating pursuant to a series C standardized permit may store and bulk reactive, ignitable, and extremely hazardous waste.

(b) The department shall adopt regulations specifying standardized hazardous waste facilities permit application forms that may be completed by an offsite non-RCRA series A, B, or C treatment, storage, or treatment and storage facility, in lieu of other hazardous waste facilities permit application procedures set forth in regulations. The department shall not issue permits under this section to specific classes of facilities unless the department finds that doing so will not create a competitive disadvantage to a member or members of that class which were in compliance with the permitting requirements which were in effect on September 1, 1992.

(c) The regulations adopted pursuant to subdivision (b) shall include all of the following:

(1) Require that the standardized permit notification be submitted to the department on or before October 1, 1993, for facilities existing on or before September 1, 1992, except for facilities specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (g). The standardized permit notification shall include, at a minimum, the information required for a Part A application as described in Section 66270.13 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations.

(2) Require that the standardized permit application be submitted to the department within six months of the submittal of the standardized permit notification, except that a facility that submits a notification prior to October 1, 1993, may submit a permit application on or before April 1, 1994. The standardized permit application shall require, at a minimum, that the following information be submitted to the department for review prior to the final permit determination:

(A) A description of the treatment and storage activities to be covered by the permit, including the type and volumes of waste, the treatment process, equipment description, and design capacity.

(B) A copy of the closure plan as required by paragraph (13) of subdivision (b) of Section 66270.14 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations.

(C) A description of the corrective action program, as required by Section 25200.10.

(D) Financial responsibility documents specified in paragraph (17) of subdivision (b) of Section 66270.14 of Title 22 of the California

Code of Regulations.

(E) A copy of the topographical map as specified in paragraph (18) of subdivision (b) of Section 66270.14 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations.

(F) A description of the individual container, and tank and containment system, and of the engineer's certification, as specified in Sections 66270.15 and 66270.16 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations.

(G) Documentation of compliance, if applicable, with the requirements of Article 8.7 (commencing with Section 25199).

(3) Require that a facility operating pursuant to a standardized permit comply with the liability assurance requirements in Section 25200.1.

(4) Specify which of the remaining elements of the permit application as described in subdivision (b) of Section 66270.14 of the California Code of Regulations shall be the subject of a certification of compliance by the applicant.

(5) Establish a procedure for imposing an administrative penalty pursuant to Section 25187, in addition to any other penalties provided by this chapter, upon an owner or operator of an offsite non-RCRA treatment or storage facility who does not submit a standardized permit notification to the department on or before October 1, 1993, pursuant to paragraph (1), or, on or before March 1, 1995, for facilities subject to paragraph (2) of subdivision (g), and who continues to operate the facility without obtaining a hazardous waste facilities permit or other grant of authorization from the department after October 1, 1993. In determining the amount of the administrative penalty to be assessed, the regulations shall require the amount to be based upon the economic benefit gained by that owner or operator as a result of failing to comply with this section.

(6) Require that a facility operating pursuant to a standardized permit comply, at a minimum, with the interim status facility operating requirements specified in the regulations adopted by the department, except that the regulations adopted pursuant to this section may specify financial assurance amounts necessary to adequately respond to damage claims at levels that are less than those required for interim status facilities if the department determines that lower financial assurance levels are appropriate.

(d) (1) Any regulations adopted pursuant to this section may be adopted as emergency regulations in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(2) On and before January 1, 1995, the adoption of the regulations pursuant to paragraph (1) is an emergency and shall be considered by the Office of Administrative Law as necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, and general welfare.

(e) The department shall take final action on each standardized permit application within 18 months after the application is submitted to the department. The department may not grant a permit under this section unless the department has determined the adequacy of the material submitted with the application and has conducted an inspection of the facility and determined all of the following:

(1) The treatment process is an effective method of treating the waste, as described in the permit application.

(2) The corrective action plan is appropriate for the facility.

(3) The financial assurance is sufficient for the facility.

(f) Interim status shall not be granted to a facility which does not submit a standardized permit notification on or before October 1, 1993, unless the facility is subject to paragraph (2) of subdivision (g). Interim status shall be revoked if the permit application is not submitted within six months of the permit notification. Interim status granted to any facility pursuant to this section and Sections 25200.5 and 25200.9 shall terminate upon a final permit determination or October 1, 1995, whichever date is earlier. An offsite non-RCRA treatment, storage, or treatment and storage facility operating pursuant to interim status which applies for a permit pursuant to this section shall pay fees to the department in an amount equal to the fees established by subdivision (e) of Section 25205.4 for the same size and type of facility.

(g) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), a facility treating used oil or solvents, or which engages in incineration, thermal destruction, or any land disposal activity, is not eligible for a standardized permit pursuant to this section.

(2) (A) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), an offsite facility treating solvents is eligible for a standardized permit pursuant to this section if all of the following conditions are met:

(i) The facility exclusively treats solvent wastes, and is not required to obtain a permit pursuant to the federal act.

(ii) The solvent wastes that the facility treats are only the types of solvents generated from dry cleaning operations.

(iii) Ninety percent or more of the solvents that the facility receives are from dry cleaning operations.

(iv) Ninety percent or more of the solvents that the facility receives are recycled and sold by the facility, excluding recycling for energy recovery, provided that the facility does not produce more than 15,000 gallons per month of recycled solvents.

(B) A facility that is eligible for a standardized permit pursuant to this paragraph is also eligible for the fee exemption provided in subdivision (d) of Section 25205.12 for any year or reporting period prior to January 1, 1995, if the owner or operator complies with the notification and application requirements of this section on or before March 1, 1995.

(C) A facility treating solvents pursuant to this paragraph shall clearly label all recycled solvents as recycled prior to subsequent sale or distribution.

(D) Notwithstanding that a facility eligible for a standardized permit pursuant to this paragraph meets the eligibility requirements for a Series C standardized permit specified in paragraph (3) of subdivision (a), the facility shall obtain and meet the requirements for a Series B standardized permit specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a).

(E) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, for purposes of this paragraph, if the recycled material is to be used for dry cleaning, "recycled" means the removal of water and inhibitors from waste solvent and the production of dry cleaning solvent with an appropriate inhibitor for dry cleaning use. The removal of inhibitors is not required if all of the solvents received by the facility that are recycled for dry cleaning use are from dry cleaners.

(h) Offsite non-RCRA treatment facilities operating pursuant to this section shall comply with Article 4 (commencing with Section 66270.40) of Chapter 20 of Division 4.5 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations.

(i) (1) The department shall require an owner or operator applying for a standardized permit to complete and file a phase I environmental assessment with the application. However, if a RCRA facility assessment has been performed by the department, the assessment shall be deemed to satisfy the requirement of this subdivision to complete and file a phase I environmental assessment, and the facility shall not be required to submit a phase I environmental assessment with its application.

(2) (A) For purposes of this subdivision, the phase I environmental assessment shall include a preliminary site assessment, as described in subdivision (b) of Section 25200.14, except that the phase I environmental assessment shall also include a certification, signed, except as provided in subparagraph (B), by the owner, and also by the operator if the operator is not the owner, of the facility and an independent professional engineer, geologist, or environmental assessor registered in the state.

(B) Notwithstanding subparagraph (A), the certification for a permanent household waste collection facility may be signed by any professional engineer, geologist, or environmental assessor registered in the state, including, but not limited to, such a person employed by the governmental entity, but if the facility owner is not a governmental entity, the engineer, geologist, or assessor signing the certification shall not be employed by, or be an agent of, the facility owner.

(3) The certification specified in paragraph (2) shall state whether evidence of a release of hazardous waste or hazardous constituents has been found.

(4) If evidence of a release has been found, the facility shall complete a detailed site assessment to determine the nature and extent of any contamination resulting from the release and shall submit a corrective action plan to the department, within one year of submittal of the standardized permit application.

(j) The department shall establish an inspection program to identify, inspect, and bring into compliance any non-RCRA treatment, storage, or treatment and storage facility which is operating without a permit or other grant of authorization from the department for that treatment or storage activity.

(k) An offsite non-RCRA treatment, storage, or treatment and storage facility authorized to operate pursuant to a hazardous waste facilities permit issued pursuant to Section 25200 may operate pursuant to a series A, B, or C standardized permit by completing the appropriate permit modification procedure specified in the regulations for such a modification.

(l) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the permit modification fee imposed pursuant to subdivision (i) of Section 25205.7 for a modification made pursuant to subdivision (k) shall be the appropriate class 1, 2, or 3 standardized permit modification fee specified in subdivision (i) of Section 25205.7.

SEC. 2. Section 25205.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25205.2. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (c) and (h), in addition to the fees specified in Section 25174.1, each operator of a facility shall pay a facility fee for each reporting period, or any portion thereof, to the board based on the size and type of the facility, as specified in Section 25205.4. On or before January 31 of each calendar year, the department annually shall notify the board of all known facility operators by facility type and size. The department shall also notify the board of any operator issued a permit or grant of interim status within 30 days after a permit or grant of interim status is issued to the operator. The fee specified in this section does not apply to facilities operating pursuant to a permit-by-rule, as specified in Section 25205.12.

(b) The board shall deposit all fees collected pursuant to subdivision (a) in the Hazardous Waste Control Account in the General Fund. The fees so deposited may be expended by the department, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for the purposes specified in subdivision (b) of Section 25174.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), a person who is issued a variance by the department from the requirement of obtaining a hazardous waste facilities permit or grant of interim status is not subject to the fee, for any reporting period following the reporting period in which the variance was granted by the department.

(d) Operators subject to facility fee liability pursuant to this section shall pay the following amounts:

(1) The operator shall pay the applicable facility fee for each reporting period in which the facility actually engaged in the treatment, storage, or disposal of hazardous waste.

(2) The operator shall pay the applicable facility fee for one additional reporting period immediately following the final reporting period in which the facility actually engaged in that treatment or storage. For the 1994 reporting period and thereafter, the facility's size for that additional reporting period shall be deemed to be the largest size at which the facility has ever been subject to the fee. If the department previously approved a unit or portion of the facility for a variance, closure, or permit-by-rule, the facility's size for that reporting period shall be deemed to be its largest size since the department granted the approval.

(3) The operator of a disposal facility shall pay twice the applicable facility fee for one additional reporting period immediately following the final reporting period in which the facility actually engaged in disposal of hazardous waste.

(4) For the 1994 reporting period and thereafter, a facility shall not be deemed to have stopped treating, storing, or disposing of hazardous waste unless it has actually ceased that activity and has notified the department of its intent to close.

(5) If the reporting period which immediately followed the final reporting period in which a facility actually engaged in the treatment, storage, or disposal of the hazardous waste was the six-month period from July 1, 1991, through December 31, 1991, the operator shall be subject to twice the fee otherwise applicable to that operator for that reporting period under paragraphs (2) and (3).

(e) No facility shall be subject to a facility fee for treatment, storage, or disposal, if that activity took place before July 1, 1986, and if the fee for the activity was not paid prior to January 1, 1994.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a person who ceased actual treatment, storage, or disposal of hazardous waste, whether generated onsite or received from offsite, before July 1, 1986, and who paid facility fees for any reporting period after that date pursuant to a decision of the Board of Equalization and who filed a claim for refund of those fees on or before January 1, 1994, shall be entitled to a refund of those amounts.

(g) Facility operators who treated, stored, or disposed of hazardous waste on or after July 1, 1986, shall be subject to the provisions of this section which were in effect prior to January 1, 1994, as to payments which their operators made prior to January 1, 1994. The operators shall be subject to subdivision (d) as to any other liability for the facility fee.

(h) A treatment facility is not subject to the facility fee established pursuant to this section, if the facility engages in treatment exclusively to accomplish a removal or remedial action or a corrective action in accordance with an order issued by the Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to the federal act or in accordance with an order issued by the department pursuant to Section 25187, if the facility was put in operation solely for purposes of complying with that order. The department shall instead assess a fee for that facility for the actual time spent by the department for the inspection and oversight of that facility. The department shall base the fee on the department's work standards and shall assess the fee on an hourly basis.

(i) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), a facility operating pursuant to a standardized permit or a grant of interim status, as specified in Section 25201.6, is exempt from the annual facility fee imposed by this section for a period of time equal to the number of years that the facility lawfully operated prior to September 21, 1993, pursuant to a hazardous waste facilities permit or other grant of authorization and paid facility fees for the operation of the facility pursuant to this section.

SEC. 3. Section 25205.4 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25205.4. (a) The base rate for the facility fee imposed by Section 25205.2 for the 1991-92 fiscal year is the base rate for the 1991 reporting period, as established pursuant to this section as it read on June 30, 1991. Commencing with the 1992 reporting period, and for each reporting period thereafter, the board shall adjust the base rate annually to reflect increases or decreases in the cost of living measured by the Consumer Price Index issued by the United States Department of Labor or by a successor agency of the federal government.

(b) The determination of the facility fee pursuant to this section, including the redetermination of the base rate, is exempt from Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(c) Except as provided in subdivision (e), in computing the facility fees, all of the following shall apply:

(1) The fee to be paid by a ministorage facility shall equal 25 percent of the base facility rate.

(2) The fee to be paid by a small storage facility shall equal the base facility rate.

(3) The fee to be paid by a large storage facility shall equal twice the base facility rate.

(4) The fee to be paid by a minitreatment facility shall equal 50 percent of the base facility rate.

(5) The fee to be paid by a small treatment facility shall equal twice the base facility rate.

(6) The fee to be paid by a large treatment facility shall equal three times the base facility rate.

(7) The fee to be paid by a disposal facility until closure is approved shall equal 10 times the base facility rate.

(8) The fee to be paid by a facility with a postclosure permit shall be seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500) annually for a small facility, fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) annually for a medium facility, and twenty-two thousand five hundred dollars ($22,500) for a large facility during the first five years of the postclosure period. The fee to be paid by a facility with a postclosure permit during the remaining years of the postclosure care period shall be four thousand dollars ($4,000) annually for a small facility, eight thousand dollars ($8,000) annually for a medium facility, and thirteen thousand five hundred dollars ($13,500) annually for a large facility.

(d) If a facility falls into more than one category listed in either subdivision (c) or (e), or any combination thereof, or multiple operations under a single hazardous waste facilities permit or grant of interim status fall into more than one category listed in either subdivision (c) or (e), or any combination thereof, the facility operator shall pay only the rate for the facility category which is the highest rate.

(e) Notwithstanding subdivision (c), the facility fee for a facility operating under a standardized permit shall be as follows:

(1) The fee to be paid for a facility operating pursuant to a series A standardized permit shall be fifteen thousand three hundred seventy-three dollars ($15,373).

(2) The fee to be paid for a facility operating pursuant to a series B standardized permit shall be seven thousand two hundred five dollars ($7,205).

(3) Except as specified in paragraph (4), the fee to be paid for a facility operating pursuant to a series C standardized permit shall be six thousand fifty-one dollars ($6,051).

(4) The fee for a facility operating pursuant to a series C standardized permit is three thousand twenty-five dollars ($3,025) if the facility meets all of the following conditions:

(A) The facility treats not more than 1,500 gallons of liquid hazardous waste and not more than 3,000 pounds of solid hazardous waste in any calendar month.

(B) The total facility storage capacity does not exceed 15,000 gallons of liquid hazardous waste and 30,000 pounds of solid hazardous waste.

(C) If the facility both treats and stores hazardous waste, the facility does not exceed the volume limitations specified in subparagraphs (A) and (B) for each individual activity.

(f) The fee imposed pursuant to this section shall be paid in accordance with Part 22 (commencing with Section 43001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

SEC. 4. Section 25205.7 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Chapter 65 of the Statutes of 1994, is amended to read:

25205.7. (a) The board shall assess a fee for any application for a new hazardous waste facilities permit, a permit for a hazardous waste facility which would manage extremely hazardous waste, a variance, or a permit modification issued by the department pursuant to this chapter or the regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter. The fee shall be nonrefundable, even if the application is withdrawn or the permit, variance, or modification is denied. The department shall provide the board with any information which is necessary to assess fees pursuant to this section. The fee shall be collected in accordance with Part 22 (commencing with Section 43001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and deposited into the Hazardous Waste Control Account. A person who submits a single application for a facility that falls within more than one fee category shall pay only the higher fee.

(b) (1) The amounts stated in this section shall be base rates for the 1989-90 fiscal year for all facilities, other than those operating pursuant to a standardized permit, as specified in Section 25201.6. For all facilities operating pursuant to a standardized permit, the amounts stated in this section shall be the base rates for the 1993-94 fiscal year. Thereafter the fees shall be adjusted annually to reflect increases or decreases in the cost of living, as measured by the Consumer Price Index for the United States, as reported by the Department of Labor or a successor agency of the United States government.

(2) The board shall pay a refund of the portion of the fee that was paid for the 1993-94 fiscal year, in excess of the amounts specified in this section, to an owner or operator of a facility operating pursuant to a standardized permit pursuant to Section 25201.6 who paid fees in excess of the amounts specified in this section for that fiscal year.

(3) The fee shall be assessed upon application to the department. For a facility operating pursuant to interim status, the submittal of the application shall be the submittal of the Part B application in accordance with regulations adopted by the department. A person who submits an application for renewal of any existing permit shall pay an amount equal to the fee that would have been assessed had the person requested the same changes in a modification application, but not less than one-half the fee required for a new permit.

(c) A person submitting a hazardous waste facilities permit application for a land disposal facility shall pay eighty-three thousand dollars ($83,000) for a small facility, one hundred seventy-seven thousand dollars ($177,000) for a medium facility, and three hundred four thousand dollars ($304,000) for a large facility.

(d) A person submitting a hazardous waste facilities permit application for any incinerator shall pay fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) for a small facility, one hundred six thousand dollars ($106,000) for a medium facility, and one hundred eighty-two thousand dollars ($182,000) for a large facility.

(e) (1) Except as provided in paragraphs (2) and (3), a person submitting a hazardous waste facility permit application for a storage facility, a treatment facility, or a storage and treatment facility shall pay seventeen thousand dollars ($17,000) for a small facility, thirty-one thousand dollars ($31,000) for a medium facility, and sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) for a large facility.

(2) A person submitting an application for a standardized permit for a storage facility, a treatment facility, or a storage and treatment facility, as specified in Section 25201.6, shall pay thirty thousand fifty-one dollars ($30,051) for a series A standardized permit, eighteen thousand seven hundred sixty-two dollars ($18,762) for a series B standardized permit, and five thousand dollars ($5,000) for a series C standardized permit. The board shall assess these fees based upon the classifications specified in subdivision (a) of Section 25201.6.

(3) In addition to the fees specified in paragraph (2), the board shall assess a fee equal to the department's costs in reviewing and overseeing any corrective action program described in the application for a standardized permit pursuant to subparagraph (C) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 25201.6, and in reviewing and overseeing any corrective action work undertaken at the facility pursuant to that corrective action program.

(f) A person submitting a hazardous waste facilities permit application for a transportable treatment unit shall pay thirteen thousand dollars ($13,000) for a small unit, thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) for a medium unit, and sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) for a large unit.

(g) (1) (A) A person submitting a request for a variance shall pay three thousand dollars ($3,000) for a variance from any hazardous waste storage requirements imposed by this chapter, three hundred dollars ($300) for a variance issued pursuant to Section 25179.8, three hundred dollars ($300) for a variance to allow the use of a test method or analytical method which is an alternative to the methods prescribed by regulation for use in classifying a waste, eight hundred dollars ($800) for a variance from the requirements for hazardous waste haulers imposed by this chapter.

(B) A person submitting a request for a variance not listed in subparagraph (A) shall pay eight thousand dollars ($8,000), unless the applicant is a small business and the department determines in its discretion that payment of this fee would cause financial or other unreasonable hardship to the applicant. If that finding is made, the department may assess the applicant up to 50 percent of the standard fee. For the purposes of this subparagraph, "small business" means a business which is independently owned and operated, has 25 employees or less, and has a gross annual income which does not exceed two million dollars ($2,000,000).

(C) If the variance application requests a variance from more than one specific statute or regulation, a separate fee may be assessed for each statute or regulation from which the variance is requested.

(2) If the variance contains no significant changes from a variance previously issued to the same owner or operator, the fee shall be 25 percent of the amount otherwise provided for by this section. A change is a significant change if, had it been made to a permit, it would have been a class 2 or class 3 modification, as specified in subdivision (h).

(3) Any variance granted pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 66260.21) of Chapter 10 of Division 4.5 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations is not subject to a fee under this section.

(h) (1) A person who applies for one or more class 1 permit modifications shall pay a fee of five hundred dollars ($500) for each unit directly impacted by the modification, up to a maximum of one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500) for each application.

(2) A person who applies for one or more class 2 permit modifications shall pay a fee equal to 20 percent of the fee for a new permit for that facility for each unit directly impacted by the modifications, up to a maximum of 40 percent for each application, except that each person who applies for one or more class 2 permit modifications for a land disposal facility or an incinerator shall pay a fee equal to 15 percent of the fee for a new permit for that facility for each unit directly impacted by the modifications, up to a maximum of 30 percent for each application.

(3) A person who applies for one or more class 3 permit modifications shall pay a fee equal to 40 percent of the fee for a new permit for that facility for each unit directly impacted by the modifications, up to a maximum of 80 percent for each application, except that a person who applies for one or more class 3 permit modifications for a land disposal facility shall pay a fee equal to 30 percent of the fee for a new permit for that facility for each unit directly impacted by the modifications, up to a maximum of 60 percent for each modification.

(4) No facility which is exempted from fees imposed by this article pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 25205.3, nor any operator who is subject to paragraph (2) or (3) of subdivision (d) of Section 25205.2, shall be subject to any fee pursuant to this section for a permit modification resulting from a revision of the facility's or operator's closure plan.

(i) (1) Permits for postclosure shall be required for hazardous waste facilities if hazardous wastes remain after closure which will not be subject to the requirements of any other hazardous waste facilities permit issued by the department at the time of postclosure permit approval.

(2) A person submitting a hazardous waste facilities permit application for a postclosure permit shall pay a fee of eight thousand dollars ($8,000) for a small facility, eighteen thousand dollars ($18,000) for a medium facility, and thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) for a large facility.

(3) For purposes of this subdivision and paragraph (8) of subdivision (c) of Section 25205.4, and notwithstanding subdivision (j), any facility or unit is "small" if 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds) or less of hazardous waste remain after closure, "medium" if more than 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds), but less than 1,000 tons of hazardous waste remain after closure, and "large" if 1,000 or more tons of hazardous waste remain after closure.

(j) For purposes of this section, and notwithstanding Section 25205.1, any facility or unit is "small" if it manages 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds) or less of hazardous waste during any one month of the state's current fiscal year, "medium" if it manages more than 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds), but less than 1,000 tons, of hazardous waste during any one month of the state's current fiscal year, and "large" if it manages 1,000 or more tons of hazardous waste during any one month of the state's current fiscal year.

(k) The fees assessed pursuant to this section do not apply to any permit or variance to operate a research, development, and demonstration facility, if the duration of the permit or variance is not longer than one year, unless the permit or variance is renewed pursuant to the regulations adopted by the department. For purposes of this section, a "research, development, and demonstration facility" is a facility which proposes to utilize an innovative and experimental hazardous waste treatment technology or process for which regulations prescribing permit standards have not been adopted.

(l) The fees assessed pursuant to this section do not apply to any of the following:

(1) Any variance issued to a public agency to transport wastes for purposes of operating a household hazardous waste collection facility, or to transport waste from a household hazardous waste collection facility, which receives household hazardous waste or hazardous waste from conditionally exempted small quantity generators pursuant to Article 10.8 (commencing with Section 25218).

(2) A permanent household hazardous waste collection facility.

(3) Any variance issued to a public agency to conduct a collection program for agricultural wastes.

(m) Except as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (e), the department shall not assess any fees for the department's costs in reviewing and overseeing a corrective action taken in conjunction with a hazardous waste facility permit application.

(n) The fees assessed pursuant to subdivision (h) do not apply to any government agency for hazardous wastes which result when the government agency, or its contractor, investigates, removes, or remedies a release of hazardous waste caused by another person.

(o) Any person producing or transporting extremely hazardous waste shall pay a fee to the department of two hundred dollars ($200) per calendar year, in addition to any other fee imposed by this section. The fee shall be collected by the department annually.

SEC. 5. Section 25205.12 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25205.12. (a) The owner of a hazardous waste facility authorized by the department to operate pursuant to a permit-by-rule, authorized under a grant of conditional authorization pursuant to Section 25200.3, exempted pursuant to subdivision (a) or (c) of Section 25201.5, or exempted pursuant to Section 25144.6 is exempt from the facility fee specified in Section 25205.2 for any activities authorized by the permit-by-rule, under a grant of conditional authorization pursuant to Section 25200.3, exempted pursuant to subdivision (a) or (c) of Section 25201.5, or exempted pursuant to Section 25144.6 at that facility for any year or reporting period during which the facility is operating.

(b) The retroactive portion of the facility fee exemption provided by subdivision (a) does not apply to any facility which was authorized by the department to operate on or before June 1, 1991, for any fees paid or billed prior to September 1, 1992.

(c) The operator of a hazardous waste facility authorized by the department to clean and recycle excavated underground storage tanks is exempt from the facility fee specified in Section 25205.2 with regard to these activities conducted before January 1, 1994, and these activities conducted after that date, until the effective date of a regulation adopted by the department governing the statewide requirements for the issuance of a permit for tank cleaning and recycling facilities.

(d) The operator of a hazardous waste facility operating pursuant to a standardized permit or a grant of interim status, as specified in Section 25201.6, is exempt from the facility fee specified in Sections 25205.2 and 25205.4 for any year or reporting period prior to January 1, 1993, during which the facility operated, if the hazardous waste treatment or storage activity was conducted prior to January 1, 1993, and the owner or operator is in compliance with the notification and application requirements of Section 25201.6, as amended in the 1993-94 Regular Session of the Legislature, or as amended thereafter, and either of the following circumstances apply:

(1) The owner or operator was not authorized by the department before July 1, 1993, to conduct the eligible treatment or storage activity.

(2) The owner or operator did not pay a hazardous waste facility fee, as specified in Section 25205.2, for that year or reporting period prior to July 1, 1993, for the facility that is the subject of the standardized permit.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 25180 and 25185 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous waste.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25180 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25180. (a) The standards in this chapter and the regulations adopted by the department to implement this chapter shall be enforced by the department, any local health officer, or any local public officer, as designated by the director.

(b) (1) In addition to the persons specified in subdivision (a), any traffic officer, as defined by Section 625 of the Vehicle Code, and any peace officer specified in Section 830.1 of the Penal Code, may enforce Section 25160, subdivisions (a) and (e) of Section 25163, subdivision (b) of Section 25169.1, and Sections 25250.8, 25250.18, 25250.19, and 25250.23. Traffic officers and peace officers are authorized representatives of the department for purposes of enforcing the provisions set forth in this subdivision.

(2) A peace officer specified in subdivision (a) of Section 830.37 of the Penal Code may, upon approval of the local district attorney, enforce the standards in this chapter and regulations adopted by the department to implement this chapter. A peace officer authorized to enforce those standards and regulations pursuant to this paragraph shall perform these duties in coordination with the appropriate local health officer or director of environmental health and shall complete a training program which is equivalent to that required by the department for local health officers or local public officers designated by the director pursuant to subdivision (a).

(c) Local health officers, or their representatives, or both, shall enforce the regulations adopted by the department pursuant to Section 25157.3.

(d) Notwithstanding any limitations in subdivision (b), a member of the California Highway Patrol may enforce Sections 25185, 25189, 25189.2, 25189.5, 25191, and 25195, and Article 6 (commencing with Section 25160) and Article 6.5 (commencing with Section 25167.1), as those provisions relate to the transportation of hazardous waste.

(e) In enforcing this chapter, including, but not limited to, the issuance of orders imposing administrative penalties, the referral of violations to prosecutors for civil or criminal prosecution, the settlement of cases, and the adoption of enforcement policies and standards related to those matters, the department shall exercise its enforcement authority in such a manner that generators, transporters, and operators of storage, treatment, transfer, and disposal facilities are treated equally and consistently with regard to the same types of violations.

SEC. 2. Section 25185 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25185. (a) In order to carry out the purposes of this chapter, any authorized representative of the department or of the local health officer may, at any reasonable hour of the day, or as authorized pursuant to Title 13 (commencing with Section 1822.50) of Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure, do any of the following:

(1) Enter and inspect a factory, plant, construction site, disposal site, transfer facility, or any establishment or any other place or environment where hazardous wastes are stored, handled, processed, disposed of, or being treated to recover resources.

(2) Carry out any sampling activities necessary to carry out this chapter, including obtaining samples from any individual or taking samples from the property of any person or from any vehicle in which any authorized representative of the department or a local health officer reasonably believes has transported or is transporting hazardous waste. However, upon request, split samples shall be given to the person from whom, or from whose property or vehicle, the samples were obtained.

(3) Stop and inspect any vehicle reasonably suspected of transporting hazardous wastes when accompanied by a uniformed peace officer in a clearly marked vehicle.

(4) Inspect and copy any records, reports, test results, or other information required to carry out this chapter.

(5) Photograph any waste, waste container, waste container label, vehicle, waste treatment process, waste disposal site, or condition constituting a violation of law found during an inspection.

(b) During the inspection, the inspector shall comply with all reasonable security, safety, and sanitation measures. In addition, the inspector shall comply with reasonable precautionary measures specified by the operator.

(c) (1) At the conclusion of the inspection, the inspector shall deliver to the operator of the facility or site a written summary of all violations alleged by the inspector. The inspector shall, prior to leaving the facility or site, deliver the written summary to the operator and shall discuss any questions or observations that the operator might have concerning the inspection.

(2) (A) The inspector shall prepare an inspection report which shall fully detail all observations made at the facility or site, all alleged violations, the factual basis for alleging those violations, and any corrective actions that should be taken by the operator of the facility or site. The inspector shall provide a copy of the inspection report to the operator within five days from the date of the preparation of the inspection report, and, in any event, not later than 65 days from the date of the inspection. The inspection report shall include all pertinent information, including, but not limited to, documents, photographs, and sampling results concerning the alleged violations. The department shall provide this information to the operator with the inspection report, including all photographs taken by the department in the course of the inspection and all laboratory results obtained as a result of the inspection. If sampling or laboratory results are not available at the time that the inspection report is prepared, that fact shall be contained in the report. Those results shall be provided to the operator within 10 working days of their receipt by the department.

(B) The time period required by subparagraph (A) may be extended as a result of a natural disaster, inspector illness, or other circumstances beyond the control of the department, if the department so notifies the operator within 70 days from the date of the inspection and provides the inspection report to the operator in a timely manner after the reason for the delay is ended.

(C) Information from the inspection report, or the report itself, may be withheld by the department if necessary to a criminal investigation or other ongoing investigation in which the department determines, in writing, that disclosure of the information will result in a substantial probability of destruction of evidence, intimidation of witnesses, or other obstruction of justice.

(D) The department shall, at the operator's request, discuss the inspection report with the operator and shall, upon the request of the operator, review the inspection report and determine whether the operator's responses and documented or proposed corrective actions would be sufficient to comply with this chapter, or if any allegation of a violation is unwarranted.

(3) The operator of the site or facility which receives an inspection report pursuant to paragraph (2) shall submit a written response to the department within 60 days of receipt of the inspection report, or within a shorter time as the department may reasonably require, which shall include a statement documenting corrective actions taken by the operator or proposing corrective actions which will be taken by the operator, for purposes of compliance with this chapter, or disputing the existence of the violation. Upon receiving the written response from the operator, the department shall, upon the request of the operator, meet and confer with the operator regarding any questions, concerns, or comments that the operator may have concerning the inspection report. The department shall, within 30 working days from the date of receipt of a response which documents or proposes corrective action, or which disputes the existence of a violation, determine whether the corrective actions documented or proposed to be taken by the operator, if implemented as stated or proposed, will achieve compliance with this chapter, or whether a violation is still alleged, as applicable, and shall submit a written copy of that determination to the operator, in the form of a report of violation or other appropriate document. If the department fails to make the determination and submit a copy of the determination within 30 working days from the date of receipt of the operator's response, the department may not seek penalties for continuing violations or any alleged new violations caused by the corrective actions taken by the operator, until the department submits the determination to the operator and provides the operator with a reasonable time in which to make necessary operational modifications which differ from those proposed to the department.

(d) Whenever information, including, but not limited to, documents, photographs, and sampling results, has been gathered pursuant to subdivision (a), the department shall comply with all procedures established pursuant to Section 25173 and shall notify the person whose facility was inspected prior to public disclosure of the information, and, upon request of that person, shall submit a copy of any information to that person for the purpose of determining whether trade secret information, as defined in Section 25173, or facility security would be revealed by the information. "Public disclosure," as used in this section, shall not include review of the information by a court of competent jurisdiction or an administrative law judge. That review may be conducted in camera at the discretion of the court or judge.

(e) "Local health officer," as used in this section, means county health officers, city health officers, and district health officers, as defined in this code.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1161

An act to amend Section 4046 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to pharmacy.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4046 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4046. (a) In recognition of and consistent with the decisions of the appellate courts of this state, the Legislature hereby declares the practice of pharmacy to be a profession.

(b) Pharmacy practice is a dynamic patient-oriented health service that applies a scientific body of knowledge to improve and promote patient health by means of appropriate drug use and drug-related therapy.

(c) Neither this chapter nor any other provision of law shall be construed to prohibit a registered pharmacist from:

(1) Furnishing to a prescriber a reasonable quantity of compounded medication for prescriber office use.

(2) Transmitting to another registered pharmacist a valid prescription.

(3) Administering, orally or topically, drugs and biologicals pursuant to a prescriber's order.

(4) Performing the following procedures or functions in a licensed health care facility in accordance with policies, procedures, or protocols developed by health professionals, including physicians and surgeons, pharmacists, and registered nurses, with the concurrence of the facility administrator:

(A) Ordering or performing routine drug therapy related patient assessment procedures including temperature, pulse, and respiration.

(B) Ordering drug therapy related laboratory tests.

(C) Administering drugs and biologicals by injection pursuant to a prescriber's order (the administration of immunizations under the supervision of a prescriber may also be performed outside of a licensed health care facility).

(D) Initiating or adjusting the drug regimen of a patient pursuant to an order or authorization made by the patient's prescriber and in accordance with the policies, procedures, or protocols of the licensed health care facility.

As used in this paragraph, "licensed health care facility" means a facility licensed pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 1250) of Chapter 2 of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code or a facility, as defined in Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code, operated by a health care service plan licensed pursuant to Chapter 2.2 (commencing with Section 1340) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code.

(5) (A) Performing the following procedures or functions as part of the care provided by a health care facility, a licensed clinic in which there is physician oversight, or a provider who contracts with a licensed health care service plan with regard to the care or services provided to the enrollees of that health care service plan, in accordance with policies, procedures, or protocols of that facility, licensed clinic, or health care service plan developed by health professionals, including physicians and surgeons, pharmacists, and registered nurses, that, at a minimum shall require that the medical records of the patient be available to both the patient's prescriber and the licensed pharmacist, and that the procedures to be performed by the licensed pharmacist relate to a condition for which the patient has first seen a physician and surgeon:

(i) Ordering or performing routine drug therapy related patient assessment procedures including temperature, pulse, and respiration.

(ii) Ordering drug therapy related laboratory tests.

(iii) Administering drugs and biologicals by injection pursuant to a prescriber's order (the administration of immunizations under the supervision of a prescriber may also be performed outside of a health care facility).

(iv) Adjusting the drug regimen of a patient pursuant to a specific written order or authorization made by the patient's prescriber for the individual patient, and in accordance with the policies, procedures, or protocols of the health care facility, licensed clinic, or health care service plan. Adjusting the drug regimen does not include substituting or selecting a different drug, except as authorized by Section 4047.6.

(B) Notwithstanding this paragraph, a patient's prescriber may prohibit by written instruction, any adjustment or change in the patient's drug regimen by the pharmacist.

(C) As used in this paragraph only, "health care facility" means a facility, other than a facility licensed under Division 2 (commencing with Section 1200) of the Health and Safety Code, that is owned or operated by a health care service plan licensed pursuant to Chapter 2.2 (commencing with Section 1340) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, or by an organization under common ownership or control of the health care service plan; and "licensed clinic" means a clinic licensed pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 1200) of Chapter 1 of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code.

(D) The policies, procedures, or protocols referred to in this paragraph shall require that the pharmacist function as part of a multidisciplinary group that includes physicians and surgeons and direct care registered nurses. The multidisciplinary group shall determine the appropriate participation of the pharmacist and the direct care registered nurse.

(6) Manufacturing, measuring, fitting to the patient, or selling and repairing, legend medical devices or furnishing instructions to the patient or the patient's representative concerning the use of those devices.

(d) Prior to performing any procedure authorized by paragraph (4) of subdivision (c), a registered pharmacist shall have received appropriate training as prescribed in the policies and procedures of the licensed health care facility. Prior to performing any procedure authorized by paragraph (5) of subdivision (c), a registered pharmacist shall have either (1) successfully completed clinical residency training or (2) demonstrated clinical experience in direct patient care delivery.

(e) Nothing contained in this section shall affect the requirements of existing law relating to maintaining the confidentiality of medical records.

(f) Nothing contained in this section shall affect the requirements of existing law relating to the licensing of a health care facility.

SEC. 2. Section 4046 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4046. (a) In recognition of and consistent with the decisions of the appellate courts of this state, the Legislature hereby declares the practice of pharmacy to be a profession.

(b) Pharmacy practice is a dynamic patient-oriented health service that applies a scientific body of knowledge to improve and promote patient health by means of appropriate drug use and drug-related therapy.

(c) Neither this chapter nor any other provision of law shall be construed to prohibit a registered pharmacist from:

(1) Furnishing to a prescriber a reasonable quantity of compounded medication for prescriber office use.

(2) Transmitting to another registered pharmacist a valid prescription.

(3) Administering, orally or topically, drugs and biologicals pursuant to a prescriber's order.

(4) Performing the following procedures or functions in a licensed health care facility in accordance with policies, procedures, or protocols developed by health professionals, including physicians and surgeons, pharmacists, and registered nurses, with the concurrence of the facility administrator:

(A) Ordering or performing routine drug therapy related patient assessment procedures including temperature, pulse, and respiration.

(B) Ordering drug therapy related laboratory tests.

(C) Administering drugs and biologicals by injection pursuant to a prescriber's order (the administration of immunizations under the supervision of a prescriber may also be performed outside of a licensed health care facility).

(D) Initiating or adjusting the drug regimen of a patient pursuant to an order or authorization made by the patient's prescriber and in accordance with the policies, procedures, or protocols of the licensed health care facility.

As used in this paragraph, "licensed health care facility" means a facility licensed pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 1250) of Chapter 2 of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code or a facility, as defined in Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code, operated by a health care service plan licensed pursuant to Chapter 2.2 (commencing with Section 1340) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code.

(5) (A) Performing the following procedures or functions as part of the care provided by a health care facility, a licensed clinic in which there is physician oversight, a home health agency, or a provider who contracts with a licensed health care service plan with regard to the care or services provided to the enrollees of that health care service plan, in accordance with policies, procedures, or protocols of that facility, licensed clinic, home health agency, or health care service plan developed by health professionals, including physicians and surgeons, pharmacists, and registered nurses, that, at a minimum shall require that the medical records of the patient be available to both the patient's prescriber and the licensed pharmacist, and that the procedures to be performed by the licensed pharmacist relate to a condition for which the patient has first seen a physician and surgeon:

(i) Ordering or performing routine drug therapy related patient assessment procedures including temperature, pulse, and respiration.

(ii) Ordering drug therapy related laboratory tests.

(iii) Administering drugs and biologicals by injection pursuant to a prescriber's order, except as part of the care provided by a home health agency (the administration of immunizations under the supervision of a prescriber may also be performed outside of a health care facility).

(iv) Adjusting the drug regimen of a patient pursuant to a specific written order or authorization made by the patient's prescriber for the individual patient, and in accordance with the policies, procedures, or protocols of the health care facility, licensed clinic, home health agency, or health care service plan. Adjusting the drug regimen does not include substituting or selecting a different drug, except as authorized by Section 4047.6.

(B) Notwithstanding this paragraph, a patient's prescriber may prohibit by written instruction, any adjustment or change in the patient's drug regimen by the pharmacist.

(C) As used in this paragraph only, "health care facility" means a facility, other than a facility licensed under Division 2 (commencing with Section 1200) of the Health and Safety Code, that is owned or operated by a health care service plan licensed pursuant to Chapter 2.2 (commencing with Section 1340) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, or by an organization under common ownership or control of the health care service plan; "licensed clinic" means a clinic licensed pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 1200) of Chapter 1 of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code; and "home health agency" means a home health agency licensed pursuant to Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 1725) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code.

(D) The policies, procedures, or protocols referred to in this paragraph shall require that the pharmacist function as part of a multidisciplinary group that includes physicians and surgeons and direct care registered nurses. The multidisciplinary group shall determine the appropriate participation of the pharmacist and the direct care registered nurse.

(6) Manufacturing, measuring, fitting to the patient, or selling and repairing, legend medical devices or furnishing instructions to the patient or the patient's representative concerning the use of those devices.

(d) Prior to performing any procedure authorized by paragraph (4) of subdivision (c), a registered pharmacist shall have received appropriate training as prescribed in the policies and procedures of the licensed health care facility. Prior to performing any procedure authorized by paragraph (5) of subdivision (c), a registered pharmacist shall have either (1) successfully completed clinical residency training or (2) demonstrated clinical experience in direct patient care delivery.

(e) Nothing contained in this section shall affect the requirements of existing law relating to maintaining the confidentiality of medical records.

(f) Nothing contained in this section shall affect the requirements of existing law relating to the licensing of a health care facility.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 4046 of the Business and Professions Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3173. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 4046 of the Business and Professions Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3173, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1162

An act to amend Section 40913 of, and to add Section 40709.7 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to air pollution.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 40709.7 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

40709.7. (a) For the purposes of this section, "military base" means a military base that is designated for closure or downward realignment pursuant to the Defense Base Closure and Realignment Act of 1988 (P.L. 100-526) or the Defense Base Closure and Realignment Act of 1990 (10 U.S.C. Sec. 2687 et seq.).

(b) For the purposes of this section, "base reuse authority" means the authority recognized pursuant to Section 65050 of the Government Code, as added by Assembly Bill 3755 of the 1993-94 Regular Session. If Assembly Bill 3755 is not enacted or does not recognize the authority, "base reuse authority" means the entity which shall be designated for purposes of this section by the California Defense Conversion Council established pursuant to Section 15346.3 of the Government Code.

(c) An appropriate entity of the federal government may apply to the district for emission reduction credits that result from reduced emissions from a military base by June 1, 1995, or within 180 days of the reduction in emissions, whichever occurs later, if the federal government is eligible under district regulations to file and receive emission reduction credits on December 31, 1994.

(d) Not later than July 1, 1995, or six months from the date that the base closure or realignment decision becomes final, whichever occurs last, the district shall request and attempt to obtain all records maintained by a military base that are necessary to quantify emission reductions, including, but not limited to, records on the operation of any equipment which emits air contaminants, provided that the district either waives the payment of direct costs to obtain the records or enters into an agreement with the appropriate entity of the federal government or the base reuse authority for the payment of the direct costs to obtain the records. The district shall maintain these records.

(e) (1) A base reuse authority may apply to a district, under the emission reductions banking system established pursuant to Section 40709, for any reductions in emissions related to the termination or reduction of operations at the military base under its jurisdiction.

(2) The district shall quantify and bank the emission reductions for a closing or realigning military base within 180 days of a request by a base reuse authority and payment of any applicable fees, if one of the following events has occurred:

(A) The federal government agrees in writing to allow the base reuse authority to apply for and receive the emission reduction credits.

(B) The time period for the federal government to apply for emission reduction credits pursuant to subdivision (c) has expired and the federal government has not applied for the credits.

(C) The base reuse authority has, pursuant to other legal means, obtained the authority to acquire the emission reduction credits.

(f) The district shall permanently retire the emission reduction credits obtained pursuant to this section by 5 percent to improve air quality.

(g) The baseline for quantifying emission reductions shall be the date that the base closure or realignment decision becomes final. The two-year period ending on the date that the base closure or realignment decision was made shall be used to determine average emissions from the military base unless this two-year period is not representative of normal operations, in which case an alternative, consecutive, two-year period which is within the five years prior to the baseline date may be used, as determined by the district.

(h) After registration, certification, or other approval of the emission reductions by a district air pollution control officer pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 40709 and this section, the base reuse authority shall be deemed the owner of the emissions source for purposes of the issuance of a certificate pursuant to Section 40710. Upon receipt of the certificate, or other approval, the base reuse authority may use, sell, or otherwise dispose of the emission reduction credits as determined by the base reuse authority, provided that the credits may only be used for base reuse within the jurisdiction of the district.

SEC. 2. Section 40913 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

40913. (a) Each district plan shall be designed to achieve and maintain the state standards by the earliest practicable date, as determined by the district and subject to the approval of the state board, and in consideration of all relevant factors, including, but not limited to, the following:

(1) Present and projected maximum ambient pollutant concentration.

(2) Distribution and frequency of violations.

(3) Transport contributions.

(4) Projected emission increases based on industrial, vehicular, or population growth.

(5) Emission inventory characteristics.

(6) Anticipated effectiveness of available and potential control measures.

(7) Emission reductions occurring in, or expected to occur in, the district.

(8) In districts where military bases have closed or are scheduled for closure, the reuse plans for the closing base.

(b) Each district plan shall be based upon a determination by the district board that the plan is a cost-effective strategy to achieve attainment of the state standards by the earliest practicable date.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 44559, 44559.1, 44559.2, and 44559.4 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to the California Pollution Control Financing Authority Act.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 44559 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44559. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that small businesses engaged in manufacturing or other operations are responsible for a significant amount of environmental emissions in the state, but are less able than larger businesses to afford the investment in new equipment or process modifications needed to comply with environmental regulations, both with regard to controlling emissions and preventing the creation of pollutants, contaminants, or waste products. Additionally, small businesses faced with financial pressures will be likely to reduce expenditures to achieve environmental compliance. Better access to capital will allow small businesses to more easily comply with environmental mandates, to the benefit of all the residents of the state.

(b) The Legislature also finds and declares that it is in the best interest of the state to expand the Capital Access Loan Program for small business. Small businesses have difficulty gaining access to capital for startup and expansion purposes. Small businesses owned by minorities and women have special capital access difficulties. In addition, small businesses operating in areas affected by military base closures are disadvantaged by limited access to capital. The Legislature finds that improving access to capital for these small businesses will spur investment, create jobs, expand economic opportunities, assist in the recovery of communities affected by defense and aerospace losses, and help sustain and strengthen economic recovery in California.

SEC. 2. Section 44559.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44559.1. As used in this article, unless the context requires otherwise:

(a) "Authority" means the California Pollution Control Financing Authority.

(b) "California Capital Access Fund" means a fund created within the authority to be used for purposes of the program.

(c) "Executive director" means the Executive Director of the California Pollution Control Financing Authority.

(d) "Financial institution" means a federal or state-chartered bank, savings association, credit union, or a consortium of these entities.

(e) "Loss reserve account" means an account in the State Treasury or any financial institution that is established and maintained by the authority for the benefit of a financial institution participating in the Capital Access Loan Program established pursuant to this article for the purpose of the following:

(1) Depositing all required fees paid by the participating financial institution and the qualified business.

(2) Depositing contributions made by the state and, if applicable, the federal government or other sources.

(3) Covering losses on enrolled qualified loans sustained by the participating financial institution by disbursing funds accumulated in the loss reserve account.

(f) "Participating financial institution" means a financial institution that has been approved by the authority to enroll qualified loans in the program and has agreed to all terms and conditions set forth in this article and as may be required by any applicable federal law providing matching funding.

(g) "Passive real estate ownership" means ownership of real estate for the purpose of deriving income from speculation, trade, or rental, but does not include any of the following:

(1) The ownership of that portion of real estate being used or intended to be used for the operation of the business of the owner of the real estate.

(2) The ownership of real estate for the purpose of construction or renovation, until the completion of the construction or renovation phase.

(h) "Program" means the Capital Access Loan Program created pursuant to this article.

(i) "Qualified business" means a small business concern that meets both of the following criteria:

(1) It is a corporation, partnership, cooperative, or other entity, whether that entity is a nonprofit entity or an entity established for profit, that is authorized to conduct business in the state.

(2) It has its primary business location within the boundaries of the state.

(j) "Qualified loan" means a loan or a portion of a loan made by a participating financial institution to a qualified business for any business activity that has its primary economic effect in California. A qualified loan may be made in the form of a line of credit, in which case the amount of the loan enrolled shall be considered to be the maximum amount that can be drawn against the line of credit. A qualified loan made under the program may be made with such interest rates, fees, and other terms and conditions as agreed upon by the participating financial institution and the borrower. "Qualified loan" does not include any of the following:

(1) A loan for the construction or purchase of residential housing.

(2) A loan to finance passive real estate ownership.

(3) A loan for the refinancing of an existing loan when and to the extent that the outstanding balance is not increased.

(4) A loan, the proceeds of which will be used in any manner that could cause the interest on any bonds previously issued by the authority to become subject to federal income tax.

(k) "Severely affected community" means any area classified as an enterprise zone pursuant to the Enterprise Zone Act (Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code), any area, as designated by the executive director, contiguous to the boundaries of a military base designated for closure pursuant to Public Law 101-150, as amended, and any other comparable economically distressed geographic area so designated by the executive director from time to time.

(l) "Small Business Assistance Fund" means a fund created within the authority that may only be used to pay the authority's contribution to a loss reserve account for a qualified small business that has operations that affect the environment.

(m) "Small business concern" has the same meaning as in Section 3 of the Small Business Act (15 U.S.C. Sec. 631 et seq.), or as otherwise provided in regulations of the authority.

SEC. 3. Section 44559.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44559.2. (a) The authority may contract with any financial institution for the purpose of allowing the financial institution to participate in the Capital Access Loan Program established by this article.

(b) For purposes of this section, the authority may contract with participating financial institutions and shall utilize a standard form of contract that is reviewed and approved by the Department of General Services. The standard form of contract shall provide for all of the following:

(1) The creation of a loss reserve account by the authority for the benefit of the financial institution.

(2) The financial institution, qualified business, and the authority will deposit moneys to the credit of the institution's loss reserve account when the financial institution makes a qualified loan to a qualified business.

(3) The liability of the state and the authority to the financial institution under the contract is limited to the amount of money credited to the loss reserve account of the institution.

(4) The financial institution shall provide the information that the authority may require, including financial information that is identifiable with, or identifiable from the financial records of a particular customer who is the recipient of a qualified loan. In addition to any other information that the authority may require, the financial institution shall provide the complete Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) code for the qualified business and information that provides the precise geographic location of both the qualified business and the borrower, if different.

(5) The financial institution will file a report with the executive director setting out a full description of the board of directors, including size, race, ethnicity, and gender.

(6) The participating financial institution will require each borrower, prior to receiving a loan under the program, to sign a written representation to the participating financial institution that the borrower has no legal, beneficial, or equitable interest in the nonrefundable premium charges or any other funds credited to the loss reserve account established by the authority for the participating financial institution.

(7) Other terms that the authority may require for purposes of this article.

(8) Any qualified business loan under the program that receives matching contributions from the Small Business Assistance Fund shall be to a business that has operations that affect the environment of the state by producing air, water, solid waste, or hazardous waste products or emissions, or otherwise affects the environment.

(c) A financial institution is not subject to laws restricting the disclosure of financial information when the financial institution provides information to the authority as required by paragraph (4) of subdivision (b).

(d) A credit union operating pursuant to a certificate issued under the California Credit Union Law (Division 5 (commencing with Section 14000) of the Financial Code) may participate in the Capital Access Loan Program established pursuant to this article only to the extent participation is in compliance with the California Credit Union Law. Nothing in this article shall be construed to limit the authority of the Commissioner of Corporations to regulate credit unions subject to the commissioner's jurisdiction under the California Credit Union Law.

(e) Any individual, company, corporation, institution, utility, government agency, or other entity, including any consortium of these persons or entities, whether public or private, may participate in the Capital Access Loan Program established pursuant to this article by depositing funds in the California Capital Access Fund under those terms and conditions as may be deemed appropriate by the authority.

SEC. 4. Section 44559.4 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44559.4. (a) When a financial institution participates in the Capital Access Loan Program established pursuant to this article, if the financial institution decides to enroll a qualified loan under the program in order to obtain the protection against loss provided by its loss reserve account, the financial institution shall notify the authority in writing on a form prescribed by the authority, within 10 days after the date on which the loan is made, of all of the following:

- (1) The disbursement of the loan.
- (2) The dollar amount of the loan enrolled.
- (3) The interest rate applicable to and the term of the loan.
- (4) The amount of the agreed upon premium.

(b) The financial institution may make a qualified loan to be enrolled under the program to an individual, or to a partnership or trust wholly owned or controlled by an individual, for the purpose of financing property that will be leased to a qualified business that is wholly owned by that individual. In that case, the property shall be treated as meeting the requirements of paragraph (1) of subdivision (f) of Section 44559.1.

(c) When making a qualified loan that will be enrolled under the program, the participating financial institution shall require the qualified business to which the loan is made to pay a fee of not less than 2 percent of the principal amount of the loan, but not more than 3½ percent of such principal amount. The financial institution shall also pay a fee in an amount equal to the fee paid by the borrower. The financial institution shall deliver the fees collected under this subdivision to the authority for deposit in the loss reserve account for the institution. The financial institution may recover from the borrower the cost of its payments to the loss reserve account through the financing of the loan, upon the agreement of the financial institution and the borrower.

(d) When depositing fees collected under subdivision (c) to the credit of the loss reserve account for a participating financial institution, the authority shall do the following:

(1) If no matching funds are available under a federal capital access program or other source, the authority shall transfer to the loss reserve account an amount that is not less than the total amount of the combined fees paid by the borrower and the participating financial institution. However, if the qualified business is located within a severely affected community, the authority shall transfer to the loss reserve account an amount equal to 150 percent of the total amount of the fees paid by the borrower and the participating financial institution.

(2) If matching funds are available under a federal capital access program or other source, the authority shall transfer, on an immediate or deferred basis, to the loss reserve account the amount required by that federal program or other source. However, the total amount deposited into the loss reserve account shall not be less than the amount which would have been deposited in the absence of matching funds.

An act to amend Sections 50199.10, 50199.12, 50199.13, 50199.14, 50199.15, 50199.18, 50199.20, and 50199.22 of, to amend and renumber Sections 50176, 50185, 50195, 50199.5, 50199.6, 50199.7, 50199.8, and 50199.9 of, to amend and renumber the heading of Article 2 (commencing with Section 50175) of Chapter 3.5 of Part 1 of Division 31 of, to amend and renumber the heading of Article 4 (commencing with Section 50197) of Chapter 3.5 of Part 1 of Division 31 of, to add Section 50900.1 to, to repeal Sections 50177, 50186, 50187, 50188, 50189, 50190, 50190.1, 50191, 50191.5, 50192, 50193, 50193.5, 50194, 50196, 50197, and 50199.19 of, to repeal Article 1 (commencing with Section 50171) of Chapter 3.5 of Part 1 of Division 31 of, and to repeal the heading of Article 3 (commencing with Section 50185) of Chapter 3.5 of Part 1 of Division 31 of, the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Sections 12206, 17058, and 23610.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to housing.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 1 (commencing with Section 50171) of Chapter 3.5 of Part 1 of Division 31 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. The heading of Article 2 (commencing with Section 50175) of Chapter 3.5 of Part 1 of Division 31 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

Article 1. Definitions and General Provisions

SEC. 3. Section 50176 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

50172. As used in this chapter, the following terms have the following meanings:

(a) "Certificate credit rate" means the rate of the credit allowed by this chapter which is specified in the mortgage credit certificate.

(b) "Certified indebtedness amount" means the amount of indebtedness which meets both of the following criteria:

(1) Is incurred by the taxpayer for any of the following purposes:

(A) To acquire the principal residence of the taxpayer.

(B) As a qualified home improvement loan, as defined by Section 103A(l)(6) of Title 26 of the United States Code, on that residence.

SEC. 19. Section 50195 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

50199.9. (a) The committee shall establish and charge fees which it determines are reasonably sufficient to cover all of the costs of the committee in carrying out its responsibilities under this chapter and Chapter 3.6 (commencing with Section 50199.4). The Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Fee Account in the General Fund is hereby renamed the Tax Credit Allocation Fee Account. The fees shall be deposited by the committee in the Tax Credit Allocation Fee Account and shall be available, upon appropriation by the Legislature, to the committee for the purpose of covering all of those costs, except that fees may be shared, in an amount determined by the committee, with any state or local agency that assists the committee in performing its duties.

(b) Funds deposited in the Tax Credit Allocation Fee Account are continuously appropriated without regard to fiscal year for purposes of sharing with state and local agencies pursuant to subdivision (a).

(c) Until the time that sufficient fee revenue is received by the committee, the committee may borrow any money as may be required for the purpose of meeting necessary expenses of the operation of the committee, not to exceed the amount appropriated. Any loan made to the committee pursuant to this subdivision shall be repayable solely from moneys appropriated to the committee from the Tax Credit Allocation Fee Account and shall not constitute a general obligation for which the faith and credit of the state are pledged.

(d) There shall be established a subaccount within the Tax Credit Allocation Fee Account named the Occupancy Compliance Monitoring Account.

(e) Fees collected for the purpose of paying the costs of monitoring projects with allocations of tax credits for compliance with federal and state law, as required by Section 42(m) of the federal Internal Revenue Code, and Section 50199.15, shall be deposited in the Occupancy Compliance Monitoring Account to be used solely for this purpose. Any performance deposits forfeited to the committee shall be deposited in the Occupancy Compliance Monitoring Account.

SEC. 23. Section 50199.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

50199.2. Any issuer that establishes a mortgage credit certificate program may charge a fee which is reasonably sufficient to cover the costs of administering that program.

SEC. 24. Section 50199.6 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

50199.4. The Legislature hereby finds and declares all of the following:

(a) The federal Tax Reform Act of 1986 (Public Law 99-514) and subsequent amendments to the Internal Revenue Code, including, but not limited to, the federal Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1989, establishes a low-income housing tax credit to stimulate the production and rehabilitation of shelter for lower income individuals and families.

(b) The federal law allows credit of approximately 9 percent each year over a 10-year or 15-year period for expenses for new construction and rehabilitation of each qualifying low-income unit. A credit of approximately 4 percent each year over a 10-year or 15-year period is provided for the expenses of the acquisition of an existing building generally not placed in service within the last 10 years, and the construction and rehabilitation of each qualifying low-income unit financed with tax-exempt bonds or certain other federal subsidies.

(c) The federal law limits the low-income housing tax credits that can be annually allocated by each state. This credit authorization is to be allocated by the state housing credit agency. Not less than 10 percent of that amount is required to be set aside for projects involving nonprofit organizations.

(d) Federal law requires a plan for allocation of credit among projects, including selection criteria to be used to determine housing priorities that are appropriate to local conditions.

(e) Federal law requires that the credit dollar amount allocated to a project not exceed the amount necessary for the financial feasibility of the project and its viability as a qualified low-income housing project throughout the credit period. This analysis shall include a determination of the reasonableness of developmental and operational costs.

(f) The credit agency is required to perform certain other functions under federal tax law to ensure the availability of the credits and to ensure compliance with federal tax law.

(g) It is necessary to designate the state housing credit agency and to establish an allocation system for the low-income housing credit.

SEC. 25. Section 50199.7 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

50199.5. The Legislature hereby finds and declares all of the following:

(a) Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code has been modified by the federal Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1989 to require that the housing credit agency establish a qualified allocation plan which sets forth selection criteria to be used to determine housing priorities that are appropriate to local conditions, and which gives preference in allocating housing credit dollar amounts to projects serving the lowest income tenants and projects obligated to serve low-income tenants for the longest periods.

(b) The qualified allocation plan shall encompass and incorporate the criteria and requirements set forth in Section 50199.14.

(c) Certain provisions of the California Tax Credit should be modified to conform to the changes to the federal low-income housing tax credit.

(d) The Tax Credit Allocation Committee should, to the extent possible, allocate the California low-income housing tax credit using the same criteria and requirements used in allocating the federal tax credit.

(e) The public interest is best served by the dissemination of information regarding the low-income housing tax credit program to all areas of the state, with special efforts in rural areas, to ensure greater knowledge and participation in the program.

SEC. 26. Section 50199.8 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

50199.6. (a) This chapter is enacted to implement the low-income housing tax credit established by Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code (26 U.S.C. Sec. 42) as it may be amended from time to time.

(b) To the extent that any provision of this chapter is held to be inconsistent with, or repugnant to, federal law, the provision shall be given effect in accordance with its terms to the greatest extent possible and consistent with the federal law and inconsistency shall have no effect on the remaining provisions of this chapter.

SEC. 27. Section 50199.9 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

50199.7. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Committee" means the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee, which is renamed the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee. All references to "committee" shall mean the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee.

(b) "Housing credit" means the tax credit for low-income rental housing provided under Section 42 of the federal Internal Revenue Code (26 U.S.C. Sec. 42).

(c) "Housing credit applicant" means any owner, sponsor, or developer of a qualifying low-income building or project who applies to the committee for either of the following:

(1) An allocation of a portion of the current state housing credit ceiling.

(2) A reservation of a portion of the anticipated state housing credit ceiling of a subsequent year.

(d) "Housing credit ceiling" means the amount specified in Section 42(h)(3)(C) of the federal Internal Revenue Code. (26 U.S.C. Sec. 42(h)(3)(C)).

(e) "Qualified low-income building" or "project" has the meaning specified in Section 42(c)(2) of the federal Internal Revenue Code (26 U.S.C. Sec. 42(c)(2)).

SEC. 28. Section 50199.10 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50199.10. (a) For purposes of allocating low-income housing credits, the committee is hereby designated as this state's only housing credit agency for purposes of Section 42(h) of the federal Internal Revenue Code (26 U.S.C. Sec. 42(h)). The committee shall annually determine and shall allocate the state ceiling in accordance with this chapter and in conformity with federal law. The committee shall determine the housing credit ceiling as soon as possible following the effective date of this chapter and thereafter following the commencement of each calendar year. The committee shall undertake any and all responsibilities of housing credit agencies under Section 42 of Title 26 of the United States Code, including entering into regulatory agreements relating to projects that are granted awards.

(b) The committee shall develop and provide application forms for use by housing credit applicants. The committee shall adopt uniform procedures for submission and review of applications of housing credit applicants, including fees to defray the committee's costs in administering this chapter. In the committee's discretion, the fees shall be charged to a housing credit applicant as a condition of submitting an application or as a condition of receiving an allocation or reservation of the state's current or anticipated housing credit ceiling, or both.

(c) In addition to allocating the current housing credit ceiling, the committee may reserve a portion of the state's anticipated housing credit ceiling for a subsequent year for a housing credit applicant.

(d) As a condition to making an allocation of the housing credit ceiling or a reservation of the anticipated housing credit ceiling for a subsequent year, the committee may require the housing credit applicant receiving the allocation or reservation to deposit with the committee an amount of money as a good-faith undertaking. The committee shall adopt policies for determining when deposits will be required, prescribing procedures for return of deposits, and specifying the circumstances under which the deposits will be forfeited in whole or in part for failure to timely utilize the allocation or reservation provided to the housing credit applicant.

(e) (1) The committee may make any allocation or reservation of the state's housing credit ceiling to a housing credit applicant subject to terms and conditions in furtherance of the purposes of this part. The committee may condition an allocation or reservation on the execution of a contract between the housing credit applicant and the committee requiring the housing credit applicant to comply with all the terms of Section 42 of the federal Internal Revenue Code, any applicable state laws, and any additional requirements the committee deems necessary or appropriate to serve the purposes of this chapter, and providing for legal action to obtain specific performance or monetary damages for breach of contract.

(2) No allocations or reservations shall be made pursuant to this subdivision with respect to projects that do not meet the requirements of the qualified allocation plan, and no allocations or reservations shall be made in amounts that do not meet the requirements of paragraph (2) of subsection (m) of Section 42 of Title 26 of the United States Code.

SEC. 29. Section 50199.12 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50199.12. The committee shall adopt and supply forms for eliciting information for purposes of this chapter from housing credit applicants. Housing credit applicants shall provide the committee with any information requested by the committee in performing its duties and responsibilities under this chapter.

SEC. 30. Section 50199.13 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50199.13. Except as specified in the application and as approved by the committee at initial reservation, no allocation or reservation of the housing credit ceiling under this chapter may be transferred by the housing credit applicant, unless the specific, written approval of the committee is obtained prior to the proposed transfer. Any transfer of an allocation or reservation shall be in writing and shall be subject to terms and conditions established by the committee.

SEC. 31. Section 50199.14 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50199.14. (a) The committee shall allocate the housing credit on a regular basis consisting of two or more periods in each calendar year during which applications may be filed and considered. The committee shall establish application filing deadlines, the maximum percentage of federal and state low-income housing tax credit ceiling that may be allocated by the committee in that period, and the approximate date on which allocations shall be made. If the enactment of federal or state law, or the adoption of rules or regulations, or other similar events prevent the use of two allocation periods, the committee may reduce the number of periods and adjust the filing deadlines, maximum percentage of credit allocated, and the allocation dates.

(b) The committee shall adopt a qualified allocation plan, as provided in paragraph (1) of subsection (m) of Section 42 of Title 26 of the United States Code. In adopting this plan, the committee shall comply with the provisions of subparagraphs (B) and (C) of paragraph (1) of subsection (m) of Section 42 of Title 26 of the United States Code.

(c) In order to promote the provision of affordable low-income housing within and throughout the state, the committee shall allocate housing credits in accordance with the qualified allocation plan and regulations, which shall include the following provisions:

(1) All housing credit applicants shall demonstrate at the time the application is filed with the committee, that the project meets the following threshold requirements:

(A) The housing credit applicant shall demonstrate there is a need and demand for low-income housing in the community or region for which it is proposed.

(B) The project's proposed financing, including tax credit proceeds, shall be sufficient to complete the project and that the proposed operating income shall be adequate to operate the project for the extended use period.

(C) The project shall have enforceable financing commitments, either construction or permanent financing, for at least 50 percent of the total estimated financing of the project.

(D) The housing credit applicant shall have and maintain control of the site for the project.

(E) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate that the project complies with all applicable local land use and zoning ordinances.

(F) The housing credit applicant shall demonstrate that the project development team has the experience and the financial capacity to ensure project completion and operation for the extended use period.

(G) The housing credit applicant shall demonstrate the amount of tax credit that is necessary for the financial feasibility of the project and its viability as a qualified low-income housing project throughout the extended use period, taking into account operating expenses, supportable debt service, reserves, funds set aside for rental subsidies, and required equity, and a development fee that does not exceed a specified percentage of the eligible basis of the project prior to inclusion of the development fee in the basis, as determined by the committee.

(2) The committee shall give a preference to those projects satisfying all of the threshold requirements of paragraph (1) if:

(A) The project serves the lowest income tenants at rents affordable to those tenants; and

(B) The project is obligated to serve qualified tenants for the longest period.

(3) In addition to the provisions of paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (c), the committee shall use the following criteria in allocating housing credits:

(A) Projects serving large families in which a substantial number, as defined by the committee, of all residential units are comprised of low-income units with three and more bedrooms.

(B) Projects providing single room occupancy units serving very low income tenants.

(C) Existing projects that are "at risk of conversion," as defined by paragraph (4) of subdivision (c) of Section 17058 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(D) Projects for which a public agency provides direct or indirect long-term financial support for at least 15 percent of the total project development costs or projects for which the owner's equity constitutes at least 30 percent of the total project development costs.

(E) Projects that provide tenant amenities not generally available to residents of low-income housing projects.

(d) For purposes of allocating credits pursuant to this section, the committee shall not give preference to any project by virtue of the date of submission of its application, except to break a tie when two or more of the projects have the same rating.

(e) The committee shall allocate credits to a project under this section prior to allocating credit to that project under Sections 12206, 17058, and 23610.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(f) The committee shall allocate credits to a project only if the housing sponsor enters into a regulatory agreement that provides for an "extended use period" as defined in subparagraph (D) of paragraph (6) of subsection (h) of Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code, which shall terminate on the date specified in the regulatory agreement or the date the project is acquired in foreclosure, including any instrument in lieu of foreclosure, whichever occurs first, and subclause (II) of subparagraph (E) of clause (i) of paragraph (6) of subsection (h) of Section 42 shall not apply.

SEC. 32. Section 50199.15 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50199.15. (a) The committee shall annually submit to the Legislature by April 1 of each year a report specifying, with respect to its activities under this chapter during the previous calendar year, (1) the total amount of low-income housing credits allocated by the committee, (2) the total number of units assisted by the credit that are, or are to be, occupied by households whose income is 60 percent or less of area median gross income, (3) the amount of the credit allocated to each project, the other financing available to the project, and the number of units that are, or are to be, therein occupied by households whose income is 60 percent or less of area median gross income, and (4) sufficient information to identify the project.

(b) The committee shall also include in its annual report to the Legislature, an aggregation of the information which shall be submitted annually by housing sponsors for all projects which have received an allocation in previous years, specifying all of the following:

- (1) Information sufficient to identify the project.
- (2) The total number of units in the project.
- (3) The total number of units assisted by the credit that are required to be occupied by households whose income is 60 percent or less of the area median gross income as a condition of receiving a tax credit.
- (4) The total number of units assisted by the credit that are occupied by households whose income is 60 percent or less of the area median gross income.

(c) The committee shall also include in its annual report to the Legislature, any recommendations for improvement in the low-income housing tax credit.

SEC. 33. Section 50199.18 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50199.18. This chapter shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2000, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 2000, deletes or extends that date. However, repeal of this chapter shall not invalidate or in any way affect the duration of any previously allocated low-income tax credits.

SEC. 34. Section 50199.19 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 35. Section 50199.20 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50199.20. (a) Not less than 20 percent of the federal ceiling on low-income housing tax credits shall be set aside for allocation to rural areas as defined in Section 50199.21. Any amount of credit set aside for rural areas remaining after the ranking of credits in the final cycle of any calendar year shall be available for allocation to any eligible project.

(b) Up to 2 percent of the low-income housing tax credit available under this chapter and Sections 12206, 17058, and 23610.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code may be set aside for small developments as determined by the committee. Any amount of credit set aside for small developments remaining after the ranking of projects in the final cycle of any calendar year shall be available for allocation to any eligible project.

SEC. 36. Section 50199.22 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50199.22. (a) Upon being informed that information, supplied by a housing credit applicant, or any person acting on behalf of a housing credit applicant, pursuant to this chapter or Section 12206, 17058, or 23610.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, is false or is no longer true, upon finding that false information has been submitted or the information submitted is no longer true.

(b) Appropriate action, which the committee may pursue upon finding that false information or information that is no longer true is submitted in connection with a housing credit application, includes the following:

(1) Requiring the submission of certified, notarized, or third-party documents in support of the application.

(2) Rejecting the application.

(3) Cancelling a reservation of housing credits.

(4) Bringing a judicial action to enjoin the use of the federal housing credit and the state tax credit authorized by Sections 12206, 17058, and 23610.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(5) Disqualifying the housing credit applicant, its principals, and any person acting on behalf of the housing credit applicant from filing applications with the committee for a one-year period.

(6) Reporting promptly, in writing, to the Internal Revenue Service and the Franchise Tax Board, any noncompliance with federal and state requirements or misrepresentations the committee finds were made by the housing credit applicant or any person acting on behalf of a housing credit applicant, pursuant to subdivision (a).

SEC. 37. Section 50900.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

50900.1. All statutory references to the California Housing Finance Agency are hereby deemed to refer to the California Housing and Infrastructure Finance Agency.

SEC. 38. Section 12206 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

12206. (a) (1) There shall be allowed as a credit against the "tax" (as defined by Section 12201) a state low-income housing tax credit in an amount equal to the amount determined in subdivision (c), computed in accordance with Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(2) "Taxpayer," for purposes of this section, means the sole owner in the case of a C corporation, the partners in the case of a partnership, and the shareholders in the case of an S corporation.

(3) "Housing sponsor," for purposes of this section, means the sole owner in the case of a C corporation, the partnership in the case of a partnership, and the S corporation in the case of an S corporation.

(b) (1) The amount of the credit allocated to any housing sponsor shall be authorized by the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee, or any successor thereof, based on a project's need for the credit for economic feasibility in accordance with the requirements of this section.

(A) The low-income housing project shall be located in California and shall meet either of the following requirements:

(i) The project's housing sponsor shall have been allocated by the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee a credit for federal income tax purposes under Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(ii) It shall qualify for a credit under Section 42(h) (4) (B) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(B) The California Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall not require fees for the credit under this section in addition to those fees required for applications for the tax credit pursuant to Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code. The committee may require a fee if the application for the credit under this section is submitted in a calendar year after the year the application is submitted for the federal tax credit.

(2) (A) The California Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall certify to the housing sponsor the amount of tax credit under this section allocated to the housing sponsor for each credit period.

(B) In the case of a partnership or an S corporation, the housing sponsor shall provide a copy of the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee certification to the taxpayer.

(C) The taxpayer shall attach a copy of the certification to any return upon which a tax credit is claimed under this section.

(D) In the case of a failure to attach a copy of the certification for the year to the return in which a tax credit is claimed under this section, no credit under this section shall be allowed for that year until a copy of that certification is provided.

(E) All elections made by the taxpayer pursuant to Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply to this section.

(F) No credit shall be allocated under this section to buildings located in a difficult development area or a qualified census tract as defined in Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code for which the eligible basis of a new building or the rehabilitation expenditure of an existing building is 130 percent of that amount pursuant to Section 42(d) (5) (C) of the Internal Revenue Code, unless the committee reduces the amount of federal credit, with the approval of the applicant, so that the combined amount of federal and state credit shall not exceed the total credit allowable pursuant to this section and Section 42(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, computed without regard to Section 42(d) (5) (C) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) Section 42(b) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) In the case of any qualified low-income building that receives an allocation after 1989 and is a new building not federally subsidized, the term "applicable percentage" means the following:

(A) For each of the first three years, the percentage prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury for new buildings that are not federally subsidized for the taxable year, determined in accordance with the requirements of Section 42(b) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, in lieu of the percentage prescribed in Section 42(b) (1) (A) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(B) For the fourth year, the difference between 30 percent and the sum of the applicable percentages for the first three years.

(2) In the case of any qualified low-income building that receives an allocation after 1989 and that is a new building that is federally subsidized or that is an existing building that is "at risk of conversion," the term "applicable percentage" means the following:

(A) For each of the first three years, the percentage prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury for new buildings that are federally subsidized for the taxable year.

(B) For the fourth year, the difference between 13 percent and the sum of the applicable percentages for the first three years.

(3) For purposes of this section, the term "at risk of conversion," with respect to an existing building means a building that satisfies all of the following criteria:

(A) The building is presently owned by a housing sponsor other than a qualified nonprofit organization.

(B) The building is a federally assisted building for which the low-income use restrictions will terminate or the mortgage on the building is eligible for incentives under Subtitle 13 of the Emergency Low Income Housing Assistance Act of 1987 or under Section 502(c) of the Housing Act of 1949, anytime in the two calendar years after the year of application to the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee, and the purchaser has received preliminary approval from the applicable federal agency for a maximum level of incentives through a plan of action.

(C) The person acquiring the building enters into a regulatory agreement that requires the building to be operated in accordance with the requirements of this section for a period equal to the greater of 55 years or the life of the building.

(D) The building satisfies the requirements of Section 42(e) of the Internal Revenue Code regarding rehabilitation expenditures, except that the provisions of Section 42(e) (3) (A) (ii) (I) shall not apply.

(d) The term "qualified low-income housing project" as defined in Section 42(c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified by adding the following requirements:

(1) The taxpayer shall be entitled to receive a cash distribution from the operations of the project, after funding required reserves, which, at the election of the taxpayer, is equal to:

(A) An amount not to exceed 8 percent of the lesser of:

(i) The owner equity which shall include the amount of the capital contributions actually paid to the housing sponsor and shall not include any amounts until they are paid on an investor note; or

(ii) Twenty percent of the adjusted basis of the building as of the close of the first income year of the credit period; or

(B) The amount of the cash-flow from those units in the building that are not low-income units. For purposes of computing cash-flow under this subparagraph, operating costs shall be allocated to the low-income units using the "floor space fraction," as defined in Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(C) Any amount allowed to be distributed under subparagraph

(A) that is not available for distribution during the first five years of the compliance period may accumulate and be distributed any time during the first 15 years of the compliance period but not thereafter.

(2) The limitation on return shall apply in the aggregate to the partners if the housing sponsor is a partnership and in the aggregate to the shareholders if the housing sponsor is an S corporation.

(3) The housing sponsor shall apply any cash available for distribution in excess of the amount eligible to be distributed under paragraph (1) to reduce the rent on rent-restricted units or to increase the number of rent-restricted units subject to the tests of Section 42(g) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(e) The provisions of Section 42(f) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) The term "credit period" as defined in Section 42(f) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified by substituting "four income years" for "10 taxable years."

(2) The special rule for the first taxable year of the credit period under Section 42(f) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not apply to the tax credit under this section.

(3) Section 42(f) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to read:

If, as of the close of any income year in the compliance period, after the first year of the credit period, the qualified basis of any building exceeds the qualified basis of that building as of the close of the first year of the credit period, the housing sponsor, to the extent of its tax credit allocation, shall be eligible for a credit on the excess in an amount equal to the applicable percentage determined pursuant to subdivision (c) for the four-year period beginning with the later of the income years in which the increase in qualified basis occurs.

(f) The provisions of Section 42(h) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) Section 42(h) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be applicable and instead the following provisions shall be applicable:

The total amount for the four-year credit period of the housing credit dollars allocated in a calendar year to any building shall reduce the aggregate housing credit dollar amount of the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee for the calendar year in which the allocation is made.

(2) Paragraphs (3), (4), (5), (6) (E) (i) (II), (6) (F), (6) (G), (6) (I), (7), and (8) of Section 42(h) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be applicable.

(g) The aggregate housing credit dollar amount that may be allocated annually by the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee pursuant to this section, Section 17058, and Section 23610.5 shall be an amount equal to the sum of the following:

- (1) Thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000).
- (2) The unused housing credit ceiling, if any, for the preceding calendar years; and
- (3) The amount of housing credit ceiling returned in the calendar year. For purposes of this paragraph, the amount of housing credit dollar amount returned in the calendar year equals the housing credit dollar amount previously allocated to any project that does not become a qualified low-income housing project within the period required by this section or to any project with respect to which an allocation is canceled by mutual consent of the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee and the allocation recipient.

(h) The term "compliance period" as defined in Section 42(i) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to mean, with respect to any building, the period of 30-consecutive income years beginning with the first income year of the credit period with respect thereto.

(i) (1) Section 42(j) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be applicable and the provisions in paragraph (2) shall be substituted in its place.

(2) The requirements of this section shall be set forth in a regulatory agreement between the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee and the housing sponsor, which agreement shall be subordinated, when required, to any lien or encumbrance of any banks or other institutional lenders to the project. The regulatory agreement entered into pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 50199.14 of the Health and Safety Code, shall apply, providing the agreement includes all of the following provisions:

(A) A term not less than the compliance period.

(B) A requirement that the agreement be filed in the official records of the county in which the qualified low-income housing project is located.

(C) A provision stating which state and local agencies can enforce the regulatory agreement in the event the housing sponsor fails to satisfy any of the requirements of this section.

(D) A provision that the regulatory agreement shall be deemed a contract enforceable by tenants as third-party beneficiaries thereto and which allows individuals, whether prospective, present, or former occupants of the building, who meet the income limitation applicable to the building, the right to enforce the regulatory agreement in any state court.

(E) A provision incorporating the requirements of Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code as modified by this section.

(F) A requirement that the housing sponsor notify the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee or its designee and the local agency that can enforce the regulatory agreement if there is a determination by the Internal Revenue Service that the project is not in compliance with Section 42(g) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(G) A requirement that the housing sponsor, as security for the performance of the housing sponsor's obligations under the regulatory agreement, assign the housing sponsor's interest in rents that it receives from the project, provided that until there is a default under the regulatory agreement, the housing sponsor is entitled to collect and retain the rents.

(H) The remedies available in the event of a default under the regulatory agreement that is not cured within a reasonable cure period, include, but are not limited to, allowing any of the parties designated to enforce the regulatory agreement to collect all rents with respect to the project; taking possession of the project and operating the project in accordance with the regulatory agreement until the enforcer determines the housing sponsor is in a position to operate the project in accordance with the regulatory agreement; applying to any court for specific performance; securing the appointment of a receiver to operate the project; or any other relief as may be appropriate.

(j) (1) The committee shall allocate the housing credit on a regular basis consisting of two or more periods in each calendar year during which applications may be filed and considered. The committee shall establish application filing deadlines, the maximum percentage of federal and state low-income housing tax credit ceiling which may be allocated by the committee in that period, and the approximate date on which allocations shall be made. If the enactment of federal or state law, the adoption of rules or regulations, or other similar events prevent the use of two allocation periods, the committee may reduce the number of periods and adjust the filing deadlines, maximum percentage of credit allocated, and the allocation dates.

(2) The committee shall adopt a qualified allocation plan, as provided in Section 42(m)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code. In adopting this plan, the committee shall comply with the provisions of Sections 42(m)(1)(B) and 42(m)(1)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) Notwithstanding Section 42(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall allocate housing credits in accordance with the qualified allocation plan and regulations, which shall include the following provisions:

(A) All housing sponsors, as defined by paragraph (3) of subdivision (a), shall demonstrate at the time the application is filed with the committee that the project meets the following threshold requirements:

(i) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate there is a need and demand for low-income housing in the community or region for which it is proposed.

(ii) The project's proposed financing, including tax credit proceeds, shall be sufficient to complete the project and that the proposed operating income shall be adequate to operate the project for the extended use period.

(iii) The project shall have enforceable financing commitments, either construction or permanent financing, for at least 50 percent of the total estimated financing of the project.

(iv) The housing sponsor shall have and maintain control of the site for the project.

(v) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate that the project complies with all applicable local land use and zoning ordinances.

(vi) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate that the project development team has the experience and the financial capacity to ensure project completion and operation for the extended use period.

(vii) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate the amount of tax credit that is necessary for the financial feasibility of the project and its viability as a qualified low-income housing project throughout the extended use period, taking into account operating expenses, a supportable debt service, reserves, funds set aside for rental subsidies, and required equity, and a development fee that does not exceed a specified percentage of the eligible basis of the project prior to inclusion of the development fee in the eligible basis, as determined by the committee.

(B) The committee shall give a preference to those projects satisfying all of the threshold requirements of subparagraph (A) if:

(i) The project serves the lowest income tenants at rents affordable to those tenants; and

(ii) The project is obligated to serve qualified tenants for the longest period.

(C) In addition to the provisions of subparagraphs (A) and (B), the committee shall use the following criteria in allocating housing credits:

(i) Projects serving large families in which a substantial number, as defined by the committee, of all residential units is comprised of low-income units with three and more bedrooms.

(ii) Projects providing single room occupancy units serving very low income tenants.

(iii) Existing projects that are "at risk of conversion," as defined by paragraph (4) of subdivision (c).

(iv) Projects for which a public agency provides direct or indirect long-term financial support for at least 15 percent of the total project development costs or projects for which the owner's equity constitutes at least 30 percent of the total project development costs.

(v) Projects that provide tenant amenities not generally available to residents of low-income housing projects.

(4) For purposes of allocating credits pursuant to this section, the committee shall not give preference to any project by virtue of the date of submission of its application except to break a tie when two or more of the projects have an equal rating.

(k) Section 42(l) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

The term "secretary" shall be replaced by the term "California Franchise Tax Board."

(l) In the case where the state credit allowed under this section exceeds the "tax," the excess may be carried over to reduce the "tax" in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary, until the credit has been exhausted.

(m) The provisions of Section 11407(a) of Public Law 101-508, relating to the effective date of the extension of the low-income housing credit, shall apply to calendar years after 1993.

(n) The provisions of Section 11407(c) of Public Law 101-508, relating to election to accelerate credit, shall not apply.

(o) This section shall remain in effect for as long as Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to low-income housing credits, remains in effect.

SEC. 39. Section 17058 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17058. (a) (1) There shall be allowed as a credit against the amount of net tax (as defined in Section 17039) a state low-income housing credit in an amount equal to the amount determined in subdivision (c), computed in accordance with the provisions of Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(2) "Taxpayer" for purposes of this section means the sole owner in the case of an individual, the partners in the case of a partnership, and the shareholders in the case of an S corporation.

(3) "Housing sponsor" for purposes of this section means the sole owner in the case of an individual, the partnership in the case of a partnership, and the S corporation in the case of an S corporation.

(b) (1) The amount of the credit allocated to any housing sponsor shall be authorized by the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee, or any successor thereof, based on a project's need for the credit for economic feasibility in accordance with the requirements of this section.

(A) The low-income housing project shall be located in California and shall meet either of the following requirements:

(i) The project's housing sponsor shall have been allocated by the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee a credit for federal income tax purposes under Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(ii) It shall qualify for a credit under Section 42(h)(4)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(B) The California Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall not require fees for the credit under this section in addition to those fees required for applications for the tax credit pursuant to Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code. The committee may require a fee if the application for the credit under this section is submitted in a calendar year after the year the application is submitted for the federal tax credit.

(2) (A) The California Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall certify to the housing sponsor the amount of tax credit under this section allocated to the housing sponsor for each credit period.

(B) In the case of a partnership or an S corporation, the housing sponsor shall provide a copy of the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee certification to the taxpayer.

(C) The taxpayer shall, upon request, provide a copy of the certification to the Franchise Tax Board.

(D) All elections made by the taxpayer pursuant to Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply to this section.

(E) For buildings located in designated difficult development areas or qualified census tracts as defined in Section 42(d)(5)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code, credits may be allocated under this section in the amounts prescribed in subdivision (c), provided that the amount of credit allocated under Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code is computed on 100 percent of the qualified basis of the building.

(c) Section 42(b) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) In the case of any qualified low-income building placed in service by the housing sponsor during 1987, the term "applicable percentage" means 9 percent for each of the first three years and 3 percent for the fourth year for new buildings (whether or not the building is federally subsidized) and for existing buildings.

(2) In the case of any qualified low-income building that receives an allocation after 1989 and is a new building not federally subsidized, the term "applicable percentage" means the following:

(A) For each of the first three years, the percentage prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury for new buildings that are not federally subsidized for the taxable year, determined in accordance with the requirements of Section 42(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, in lieu of the percentage prescribed in Section 42(b)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(B) For the fourth year, the difference between 30 percent and the sum of the applicable percentages for the first three years.

(3) In the case of any qualified low-income building that receives an allocation after 1989 and that is a new building that is federally subsidized or that is an existing building that is "at risk of conversion," the term "applicable percentage" means the following:

(A) For each of the first three years, the percentage prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury for new buildings that are federally subsidized for the taxable year.

(B) For the fourth year, the difference between 13 percent and the sum of the applicable percentages for the first three years.

(4) For purposes of this section, the term "at risk of conversion," with respect to an existing building means a building that satisfies all of the following criteria:

(A) The building is presently owned by a housing sponsor other than a qualified nonprofit organization.

(B) The building is a federally assisted building for which the low-income use restrictions will terminate or the building is eligible for incentives under Subtitle 13 of the Emergency Low Income Housing Preservation Act of 1987 or under Section 502(c) of the Housing Act of 1949, anytime in the two calendar years after the year of application to the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee, and the purchaser has received preliminary approval from the applicable federal agency for a maximum level of incentives through a plan of action.

(C) The person acquiring the building enters into a regulatory agreement that requires the building to be operated in accordance with the requirements of this section for a period equal to the greater of 55 years or the life of the building.

(D) The building satisfies the requirements of Section 42(e) of the Internal Revenue Code regarding rehabilitation expenditures, except that the provisions of Section 42(e) (3) (A) (ii) (I) shall not apply.

(d) The term "qualified low-income housing project" as defined in Section 42(c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified by adding the following requirements:

(1) The taxpayer shall be entitled to receive a cash distribution from the operations of the project, after funding required reserves, that, at the election of the taxpayer, is equal to:

(A) An amount not to exceed 8 percent of the lesser of:

(i) The owner equity that shall include the amount of the capital contributions actually paid to the housing sponsor and shall not include any amounts until they are paid on an investor note; or

(ii) Twenty percent of the adjusted basis of the building as of the close of the first taxable year of the credit period; or

(B) The amount of the cash-flow from those units in the building that are not low-income units. For purposes of computing cash-flow under this subparagraph, operating costs shall be allocated to the low-income units using the "floor space fraction," as defined in Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(C) Any amount allowed to be distributed under subparagraph (A) that is not available for distribution during the first five years of the compliance period may be accumulated and distributed any time during the first 15 years of the compliance period but not thereafter.

(2) The limitation on return shall apply in the aggregate to the partners if the housing sponsor is a partnership and in the aggregate to the shareholders if the housing sponsor is an S corporation.

(3) The housing sponsor shall apply any cash available for distribution in excess of the amount eligible to be distributed under paragraph (1) to reduce the rent on rent-restricted units or to increase the number of rent-restricted units subject to the tests of Section 42(g) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(e) The provisions of Section 42(f) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) The term "credit period" as defined in Section 42(f) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified by substituting "four taxable years" for "10 taxable years."

(2) The special rule for the first taxable year of the credit period under Section 42(f) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not apply to the tax credit under this section.

(3) Section 42(f) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to read:

If, as of the close of any taxable year in the compliance period, after the first year of the credit period, the qualified basis of any building exceeds the qualified basis of that building as of the close of the first year of the credit period, the housing sponsor, to the extent of its tax credit allocation, shall be eligible for a credit on the excess in an amount equal to the applicable percentage determined pursuant to subdivision (c) for the four-year period beginning with the taxable year in which the increase in qualified basis occurs.

(f) The provisions of Section 42(h) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) Section 42(h)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be applicable and instead the following provisions shall be applicable:

The total amount for the four-year period of the housing credit dollars allocated in a calendar year to any building shall reduce the aggregate housing credit dollar amount of the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee for the calendar year in which the allocation is made.

(2) Paragraphs (3), (4), (5), (6)(E)(i)(II), (6)(F), (6)(G), (6)(I), (7), and (8) of Section 42(h) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be applicable to this section.

(g) The aggregate housing credit dollar amount which may be allocated annually by the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee pursuant to this section, Section 12206, and Section 23610.5 shall be an amount equal to the sum of the following:

(1) Thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000).

(2) The unused housing credit ceiling, if any, for the preceding calendar years; and

(3) The amount of housing credit ceiling returned in the calendar year. For purposes of this paragraph, the amount of housing credit dollar amount returned in the calendar year equals the housing credit dollar amount previously allocated to any project that does not become a qualified low-income housing project within the period required by this section or to any project with respect to which an allocation is canceled by mutual consent of the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee and the allocation recipient.

(h) The term "compliance period" as defined in Section 42(i)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to mean, with respect to any building, the period of 30 consecutive taxable years beginning with the first taxable year of the credit period with respect thereto.

(i) Section 42(j) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be applicable and the following requirements of this section shall be set forth in a regulatory agreement between the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee and the housing sponsor, which agreement shall be subordinated, when required, to any lien or encumbrance of any banks or other institutional lenders to the project. The regulatory agreement entered into pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 50199.14 of the Health and Safety Code shall apply, providing the agreement includes all of the following provisions:

(1) A term not less than the compliance period.

(2) A requirement that the agreement be filed in the official records of the county in which the qualified low-income housing project is located.

(3) A provision stating which state and local agencies can enforce the regulatory agreement in the event the housing sponsor fails to satisfy any of the requirements of this section.

(4) A provision that the regulatory agreement shall be deemed a contract enforceable by tenants as third-party beneficiaries thereto and which allows individuals, whether prospective, present, or former occupants of the building, who meet the income limitation applicable to the building, the right to enforce the regulatory agreement in any state court.

(5) A provision incorporating the requirements of Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code as modified by this section.

(6) A requirement that the housing sponsor notify the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee or its designee if there is a determination by the Internal Revenue Service that the project is not in compliance with Section 42(g) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(7) A requirement that the housing sponsor, as security for the performance of the housing sponsor's obligations under the regulatory agreement, assign the housing sponsor's interest in rents that it receives from the project, provided that until there is a default under the regulatory agreement, the housing sponsor is entitled to collect and retain the rents.

(8) The remedies available in the event of a default under the regulatory agreement that is not cured within a reasonable cure period, include, but are not limited to, allowing any of the parties designated to enforce the regulatory agreement to collect all rents with respect to the project; taking possession of the project and operating the project in accordance with the regulatory agreement until the enforcer determines the housing sponsor is in a position to operate the project in accordance with the regulatory agreement; applying to any court for specific performance; securing the appointment of a receiver to operate the project; or any other relief as may be appropriate.

(j) (1) The committee shall allocate the housing credit on a regular basis consisting of two or more periods in each calendar year during which applications may be filed and considered. The committee shall establish application filing deadlines, the maximum percentage of federal and state low-income housing tax credit ceiling that may be allocated by the committee in that period, and the approximate date on which allocations shall be made. If the enactment of federal or state law, the adoption of rules or regulations or other similar events prevent the use of two allocation periods, the committee may reduce the number of periods and adjust the filing deadlines, maximum percentage of credit allocated, and the allocation dates.

(2) The committee shall adopt a qualified allocation plan, as provided in Section 42(m)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code. In adopting this plan, the committee shall comply with the provisions of Sections 42(m)(1)(B) and 42(m)(1)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) Notwithstanding Section 42(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall allocate housing credits in accordance with the qualified allocation plan and regulations, which shall include the following provisions:

(A) All housing sponsors, as defined by paragraph (3) of subdivision (a), shall demonstrate at the time the application is filed with the committee that the project meets the following threshold requirements:

(i) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate there is a need and demand for low-income housing in the community or region for which it is proposed.

(ii) The project's proposed financing, including tax credit proceeds, shall be sufficient to complete the project and that the proposed operating income shall be adequate to operate the project for the extended use period.

(iii) The project shall have enforceable financing commitments, either construction or permanent financing, for at least 50 percent of the total estimated financing of the project.

(iv) The housing sponsor shall have and maintain control of the site for the project.

(v) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate that the project complies with all applicable local land use and zoning ordinances.

(vi) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate that the project development team has the experience and the financial capacity to ensure project completion and operation for the extended use period.

(vii) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate the amount of tax credit that is necessary for the financial feasibility of the project and its viability as a qualified low-income housing project throughout the extended use period, taking into account operating expenses, a supportable debt service, reserves, funds set aside for rental subsidies, and required equity, and a development fee that does not exceed a specified percentage of the eligible basis of the project prior to inclusion of the development fee in the eligible basis, as determined by the committee.

(B) The committee shall give a preference to those projects satisfying all of the threshold requirements of subparagraph (A) if:

(i) The project serves the lowest income tenants at rents affordable to those tenants; and

(ii) The project is obligated to serve qualified tenants for the longest period.

(C) In addition to the provisions of subparagraphs (A) and (B), the committee shall use the following criteria in allocating housing credits:

(i) Projects serving large families in which a substantial number, as defined by the committee of all residential units is comprised of low-income units with three and more bedrooms.

(ii) Projects providing single room occupancy units serving very low-income tenants.

(iii) Existing projects that are "at risk of conversion," as defined by paragraph (4) of subdivision (c).

(iv) Projects for which a public agency provides direct or indirect long-term financial support for at least 15 percent of the total project development costs or projects for which the owner's equity constitutes at least 30 percent of the total project development costs.

(v) Projects that provide tenant amenities not generally available to residents of low-income housing projects.

(4) For purposes of allocating credits pursuant to this section, the committee shall not give preference to any project by virtue of the date of submission of its application.

(k) Section 42(l) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

The term "secretary" shall be replaced by the term "California Franchise Tax Board."

(l) In the case where the credit allowed under this section exceeds the net tax, the excess credit may be carried over to reduce the net tax in the following year, and succeeding taxable years, if necessary, until the credit has been exhausted.

(m) A project that received an allocation of a 1989 federal housing credit dollar amount shall be eligible to receive an allocation of a 1990 state housing credit dollar amount, subject to all of the following conditions:

(1) The project was not placed in service prior to 1990.

(2) To the extent the amendments made to this section by the Statutes of 1990 conflict with any provisions existing in this section prior to those amendments, the prior provisions of law shall prevail.

(3) Notwithstanding paragraph (2), a project applying for an allocation under this subdivision shall be subject to the requirements of paragraph (3) of subdivision (j).

(n) The credit period with respect to an allocation of credit in 1989 by the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee of which any amount is attributable to unallocated credit from 1987 or 1988 shall not begin until after December 31, 1989.

(o) The provisions of Section 11407(a) of Public Law 101-508, relating to the effective date of the extension of the low-income housing credit, shall apply to calendar years after 1989.

(p) The provisions of Section 11407(c) of Public Law 101-508, relating to election to accelerate credit, shall not apply.

(q) Any unused credit may continue to be carried forward, as provided in subdivision (l), until the credit has been exhausted.

This section shall remain in effect on and after December 1, 1990, for as long as Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code pertaining to low-income housing credits remains in effect.

(r) The amendments to this section by the act adding this subdivision shall apply only to taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1994.

SEC. 40. Section 23610.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23610.5. (a) (1) There shall be allowed as a credit against the "tax" (as defined by Section 23036) a state low-income housing tax credit in an amount equal to the amount determined in subdivision (c), computed in accordance with Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(2) "Taxpayer," for purposes of this section, means the sole owner in the case of a C corporation, the partners in the case of a partnership, and the shareholders in the case of an S corporation.

(3) "Housing sponsor," for purposes of this section, means the sole owner in the case of a C corporation, the partnership in the case of a partnership, and the S corporation in the case of an S corporation.

(b) (1) The amount of the credit allocated to any housing sponsor shall be authorized by the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee, or any successor thereof, based on a project's need for the credit for economic feasibility in accordance with the requirements of this section.

(A) The low-income housing project shall be located in California and shall meet either of the following requirements:

(i) The project's housing sponsor shall have been allocated by the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee a credit for federal income tax purposes under Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(ii) It shall qualify for a credit under Section 42(h) (4) (B) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(B) The California Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall not require fees for the credit under this section in addition to those fees required for applications for the tax credit pursuant to Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code. The committee may require a fee if the application for the credit under this section is submitted in a calendar year after the year the application is submitted for the federal tax credit.

(2) (A) The California Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall certify to the housing sponsor the amount of tax credit under this section allocated to the housing sponsor for each credit period.

(B) In the case of a partnership or an S corporation, the housing sponsor shall provide a copy of the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee certification to the taxpayer.

(C) The taxpayer shall, upon request, provide a copy of the certification to the Franchise Tax Board.

(D) All elections made by the taxpayer pursuant to Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply to this section.

(E) For buildings located in designated difficult development areas or qualified census tracts as defined in Section 42(d) (5) (C) of the Internal Revenue Code, credits may be allocated under this section in the amounts prescribed in subdivision (c), provided that the amount of credit allocated under Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code is computed on 100 percent of the qualified basis of the building.

(c) Section 42(b) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) In the case of any qualified low-income building placed in service by the housing sponsor during 1987, the term "applicable percentage" means 9 percent for each of the first three years and 3 percent for the fourth year for new buildings (whether or not the building is federally subsidized) and for existing buildings.

(2) In the case of any qualified low-income building that receives an allocation after 1989 and is a new building not federally subsidized, the term "applicable percentage" means the following:

(A) For each of the first three years, the percentage prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury for new buildings that are not federally subsidized for the taxable year, determined in accordance with the requirements of Section 42(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, in lieu of the percentage prescribed in Section 42(b)(1)(A).

(B) For the fourth year, the difference between 30 percent and the sum of the applicable percentages for the first three years.

(3) In the case of any qualified low-income building that receives an allocation after 1989 and that is a new building that is federally subsidized or that is an existing building that is "at risk of conversion," the term "applicable percentage" means the following:

(A) For each of the first three years, the percentage prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury for new buildings that are federally subsidized for the taxable year.

(B) For the fourth year, the difference between 13 percent and the sum of the applicable percentages for the first three years.

(4) For purposes of this section, the term "at risk of conversion," with respect to an existing building means a building that satisfies all of the following criteria:

(A) The building is presently owned by a housing sponsor other than a qualified nonprofit organization.

(B) The building is a federally assisted building for which the low-income use restrictions will terminate or the building is eligible for prepayment under Subtitle 13 of the Emergency Low Income Housing Assistance Act of 1987 or under Section 502(c) of the Housing Act of 1949, anytime in the two calendar years after the year of application to the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee, and the purchaser has received preliminary approval from the applicable federal agency for a maximum level of incentives through a plan of action.

(C) The person acquiring the building enters into a regulatory agreement that requires the building to be operated in accordance with the requirements of this section for a period equal to the greater of 55 years or the life of the building.

(D) The building satisfies the requirements of Section 42(e) of the Internal Revenue Code regarding rehabilitation expenditures, except that the provisions of Section 42(e)(3)(A)(ii)(I) shall not apply.

(d) The term "qualified low-income housing project" as defined in Section 42(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified by adding the following requirements:

(1) The taxpayer shall be entitled to receive a cash distribution from the operations of the project, after funding required reserves, which, at the election of the taxpayer, is equal to:

(A) An amount not to exceed 8 percent of the lesser of:

(i) The owner equity that shall include the amount of the capital contributions actually paid to the housing sponsor and shall not include any amounts until they are paid on an investor note; or

(ii) Twenty percent of the adjusted basis of the building as of the close of the first income year of the credit period; or

(B) The amount of the cash-flow from those units in the building that are not low-income units. For purposes of computing cash-flow under this subparagraph, operating costs shall be allocated to the low-income units using the "floor space fraction," as defined in Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(C) Any amount allowed to be distributed under subparagraph (A) that is not available for distribution during the first five years of the compliance period may accumulate and be distributed any time during the first 15 years of the compliance period but not thereafter.

(2) The limitation on return shall apply in the aggregate to the partners if the housing sponsor is a partnership and in the aggregate to the shareholders if the housing sponsor is an S corporation.

(3) The housing sponsor shall apply any cash available for distribution in excess of the amount eligible to be distributed under paragraph (1) to reduce the rent on rent-restricted units or to increase the number of rent-restricted units subject to the tests of Section 42(g) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(e) The provisions of Section 42(f) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) The term "credit period" as defined in Section 42(f) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified by substituting "four income years" for "10 taxable years."

(2) The special rule for the first taxable year of the credit period under Section 42(f) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not apply to the tax credit under this section.

(3) Section 42(f) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to read:

If, as of the close of any income year in the compliance period, after the first year of the credit period, the qualified basis of any building exceeds the qualified basis of that building as of the close of the first year of the credit period, the housing sponsor, to the extent of its tax credit allocation, shall be eligible for a credit on the excess in an amount equal to the applicable percentage determined pursuant to subdivision (c) for the four-year period beginning with the later of the income years in which the increase in qualified basis occurs.

(f) The provisions of Section 42(h) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) Section 42(h) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be applicable and instead the following provisions shall be applicable: The total amount for the four-year credit period of the housing credit dollars allocated in a calendar year to any building shall reduce the aggregate housing credit dollar amount of the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee for the calendar year in which the allocation is made.

(2) Paragraphs (3), (4), (5), (6) (E) (i) (II), (6) (F), (6) (G), (6) (I), (7), and (8) of Section 42(h) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be applicable.

(g) The aggregate housing credit dollar amount which may be allocated annually by the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee pursuant to this section, Section 12206, and Section 17058 shall be an amount equal to the sum of the following:

(1) Thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000).

(2) The unused housing credit ceiling, if any, for the preceding calendar years; and

(3) The amount of housing credit ceiling returned in the calendar year. For purposes of this paragraph, the amount of housing credit dollar amount returned in the calendar year equals the housing credit dollar amount previously allocated to any project that does not become a qualified low-income housing project within the period required by this section or to any project with respect to which an allocation is canceled by mutual consent of the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee and the allocation recipient.

(h) The term "compliance period" as defined in Section 42(i) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to mean, with respect to any building, the period of 30-consecutive income years beginning with the first income year of the credit period with respect thereto.

(i) Section 42(j) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be applicable and the following shall be substituted in its place:

(1) The requirements of this section shall be set forth in a regulatory agreement between the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee and the housing sponsor, and this agreement shall be subordinated, when required, to any lien or encumbrance of any banks or other institutional lenders to the project. The regulatory agreement entered into pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 50199.14 of the Health and Safety Code, shall apply, providing the agreement includes all of the following provisions:

(A) A term not less than the compliance period.

(B) A requirement that the agreement be filed in the official records of the county in which the qualified low-income housing project is located.

(C) A provision stating which state and local agencies can enforce the regulatory agreement in the event the housing sponsor fails to satisfy any of the requirements of this section.

(D) A provision that the regulatory agreement shall be deemed a contract enforceable by tenants as third-party beneficiaries thereto, and which allows individuals, whether prospective, present, or former occupants of the building, who meet the income limitation applicable to the building, the right to enforce the regulatory agreement in any state court.

(E) A provision incorporating the requirements of Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code as modified by this section.

(F) A requirement that the housing sponsor notify the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee or its designee if there is a determination by the Internal Revenue Service that the project is not in compliance with Section 42(g) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(G) A requirement that the housing sponsor, as security for the performance of the housing sponsor's obligations under the regulatory agreement, assign the housing sponsor's interest in rents that it receives from the project, provided that until there is a default under the regulatory agreement, the housing sponsor is entitled to collect and retain the rents.

(H) The remedies available in the event of a default under the regulatory agreement that is not cured within a reasonable cure period, include, but are not limited to, allowing any of the parties designated to enforce the regulatory agreement to collect all rents with respect to the project; taking possession of the project and operating the project in accordance with the regulatory agreement until the enforcer determines the housing sponsor is in a position to operate the project in accordance with the regulatory agreement; applying to any court for specific performance; securing the appointment of a receiver to operate the project; or any other relief as may be appropriate.

(j) (1) The committee shall allocate the housing credit on a regular basis consisting of two or more periods in each calendar year during which applications may be filed and considered. The committee shall establish application filing deadlines, the maximum percentage of federal and state low-income housing tax credit ceiling that may be allocated by the committee in that period, and the approximate date on which allocations shall be made. If the enactment of federal or state law, the adoption of rules or regulations, or other similar events prevent the use of two allocation periods, the committee may reduce the number of periods and adjust the filing deadlines, maximum percentage of credit allocated, and the allocation dates.

(2) The committee shall adopt a qualified allocation plan, as provided in Section 42(m)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code. In adopting this plan, the committee shall comply with the provisions of Sections 42(m)(1)(B) and 42(m)(1)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) Notwithstanding Section 42(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall allocate housing credits in accordance with the qualified allocation plan and regulations, which shall include the following provisions:

(A) All housing sponsors, as defined by paragraph (3) of subdivision (a), shall demonstrate at the time the application is filed with the committee that the project meets the following threshold requirements:

(i) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate there is a need for low-income housing in the community or region for which it is proposed.

(ii) The project's proposed financing, including tax credit proceeds, shall be sufficient to complete the project and shall be adequate to operate the project for the extended use period.

(iii) The project shall have enforceable financing commitments, either construction or permanent financing, for at least 50 percent of the total estimated financing of the project.

(iv) The housing sponsor shall have and maintain control of the site for the project.

(v) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate that the project complies with all applicable local land use and zoning ordinances.

(vi) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate that the project development team has the experience and the financial capacity to ensure project completion and operation for the extended use period.

(vii) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate the amount of tax credit that is necessary for the financial feasibility of the project and its viability as a qualified low-income housing project throughout the extended use period, taking into account operating expenses, a supportable debt service, reserves, funds set aside for rental subsidies, and required equity, and a development fee that does not exceed a specified percentage of the eligible basis of the project prior to inclusion of the development fee in the eligible basis, as determined by the committee.

(B) The committee shall give a preference to those projects satisfying all of the threshold requirements of subparagraph (A) if:

(i) The project serves the lowest income tenants at rents affordable to those tenants; and

(ii) The project is obligated to serve qualified tenants for the longest period.

(C) In addition to the provisions of subparagraphs (A) and (B), the committee shall use the following criteria in allocating housing credits:

(i) Projects serving large families in which a substantial number, as defined by the committee of all residential units is comprised of low-income units with three and more bedrooms.

(ii) Projects providing single room occupancy units serving very low income tenants.

(iii) Existing projects that are "at risk of conversion," as defined by paragraph (4) of subdivision (c).

(iv) Projects for which a public agency provides direct or indirect long-term financial support for at least 15 percent of the total project development costs or projects for which the owner's equity constitutes at least 30 percent of the total project development costs.

(v) Projects that provide tenant amenities not generally available to residents of low-income housing projects.

(4) For purposes of allocating credits pursuant to this section, the committee shall not give preference to any project by virtue of the date of submission of its application except to break a tie when two or more of the projects have an equal rating.

(5) Not less than 20 percent of the low-income housing tax credits available annually under this section, Section 12206, and Section 17058 shall be set aside for allocation to rural areas as defined in Section 50199.21 of the Health and Safety Code. Any amount of credit set aside for rural areas remaining on or after October 31 of any calendar year shall be available for allocation to any eligible project. No amount of credit set aside for rural areas shall be considered available for any eligible project so long as there are eligible rural applications pending on October 31.

(k) Section 42(l) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

The term "secretary" shall be replaced by the term "California Franchise Tax Board."

(l) In the case where the state credit allowed under this section exceeds the "tax," the excess may be carried over to reduce the "tax" in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary, until the credit has been exhausted.

(m) A project that received an allocation of a 1989 federal housing credit dollar amount shall be eligible to receive an allocation of a 1990 state housing credit dollar amount, subject to all of the following conditions:

(1) The project was not placed in service prior to 1990.

(2) To the extent the amendments made to this section by the Statutes of 1990 conflict with any provisions existing in this section prior to those amendments, the prior provisions of law shall prevail.

(3) Notwithstanding paragraph (2), a project applying for an allocation under this subdivision shall be subject to the requirements of paragraph (3) of subdivision (j).

(n) The credit period with respect to an allocation of credit in 1989 by the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee of which any amount is attributable to unallocated credit from 1987 or 1988 shall not begin until after December 31, 1989.

(o) The provisions of Section 11407(a) of Public Law 101-508, relating to the effective date of the extension of the low-income housing credit, shall apply to calendar years after 1989.

(p) The provisions of Section 11407(c) of Public Law 101-508, relating to election to accelerate credit, shall not apply.

(q) (1) A bank or corporation may elect to assign any portion of any credit allowed under this section to one or more affiliated banks or corporations for each income year in which the credit is allowed. For purposes of this subdivision, "affiliated bank or corporation" has the meaning provided in subdivision (b) of Section 25110, as that section was amended by Chapter 881 of the Statutes of 1993, as of the last date of the income year in which the credit is allowed, except that "100 percent" is substituted for "more than 50 percent" wherever it appears in the section, as that section was amended by Chapter 881 of the Statutes of 1993, and "voting common stock" is substituted for "voting stock" wherever it appears in the section, as that section was amended by Chapter 881 of the Statutes of 1993.

(2) The election provided in paragraph (1):

(A) May be based on any method selected by the corporation that originally receives the credit.

(B) Shall be irrevocable for the income year the credit is allowed, once made.

(C) May be changed for any subsequent year if the election to make the assignment is expressly shown on each of the returns of the affiliated banks or corporations that assign and receive the credits.

(r) Any unused credit may continue to be carried forward, as provided in subdivision (k), until the credit has been exhausted.

This section shall remain in effect on or after December 1, 1990, for as long as Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code, pertaining to low-income housing credits, remains in effect.

(s) The amendments to this section by the act enacting this subdivision shall apply only to income years beginning on or after January 1, 1994, except that paragraph (1) of subdivision (q), as amended, shall apply to income years beginning on or after January 1, 1993.

SEC. 41. Section 37 of this act shall become operative only if Chapter 94 of the Statutes of 1994 becomes operative.

CHAPTER 1165

An act to add Title 7.86 (commencing with Section 67800) to the Government Code, relating to military base reuse, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Title 7.86 (commencing with Section 67800) is added to the Government Code, to read:

TITLE 7.86. THE MILITARY BASE REUSE AUTHORITY ACT

CHAPTER 1. TITLE AND DECLARATIONS

67800. This title shall be known and may be cited as the Military Base Reuse Authority Act.

67801. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) It is in the best interest of the state to facilitate the transfer and reuse of property and infrastructure comprising military bases designated for closure by the federal government in the most expeditious manner.

(b) The disruption caused by the closure of any military base on the civilian economy and the people of the surrounding communities should be minimized.

(c) The state should facilitate the reuse and development of the military base in ways that enhance the economy and quality of life of the communities surrounding the base.

(d) Any reuse and development of the military base should to the maximum extent possible maintain and protect the unique environmental resources of the state.

(e) The objectives set forth above are most likely to be achieved if an effective governmental structure exists to plan for, finance, and carry out the transfer and reuse of the base in a cooperative, coordinated, balanced, and decisive manner.

CHAPTER 2. GENERAL PROVISIONS

67810. Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions contained in this chapter govern the construction of this title.

(a) "Authority" means a military base reuse authority.

(b) "Basewide facility" means a public capital facility that, in the judgment of the board, is important to the overall reuse of the base, and has significance beyond any single city or the unincorporated area of a county.

(c) "Board" means the governing board of the authority, as specified in Section 67820.

(d) "Authority reuse plan" means the plan for the future use of the military base pursuant to Section 67830.

(e) "Local facility" means a public capital facility that, in the judgment of the board, is important primarily within a single city or the unincorporated area of the county.

(f) "Legislative body" means the city council of a city or the board of supervisors of a county.

(g) "Member agency" means any of the counties and cities serving on the board of the authority.

(h) "Public capital facilities" means all public capital facilities described in the authority reuse plan, including, but not limited to, roads, freeways, ramps, air transportation facilities and freight hauling and handling facilities, sewage and water conveyance and treatment facilities, school library and other educational facilities, and recreational facilities, that could most efficiently and conveniently be planned, negotiated, financed, or constructed by the authority to further the integrated future use of the military base.

(i) "Redevelopment authority," for the purposes of federal law concerning the transfer of property at the military base, means the authority.

67811. Counties and cities located wholly or partly within the boundaries of a military base may establish an authority with the powers and duties set forth in this title upon the adoption of resolutions favoring the establishment of the authority by the governing bodies of those counties and cities that would appoint a majority of the voting membership of the board of the authority as prescribed by Section 67820.

67812. The authority is a public corporation of the State of California that is independent of the agencies from which its board is appointed. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the powers and duties of the authority are those granted or imposed by this title. The Legislature finds and declares that the planning, financing, and management of the reuse of military bases is a matter of statewide importance, and that the powers and duties granted to the authority by this title shall prevail over those of any local entity, including any city or county, whether formed under the general laws of the State of California or pursuant to a charter, and any joint powers authority.

67813. The purpose of the authority is to plan for, finance, and manage the transition of the military base from military to civilian use.

CHAPTER 3. ORGANIZATION

67820. (a) The authority shall be formed if two-thirds of the legislative bodies listed in subdivision (b) adopt resolutions calling for the formation of the authority.

(b) The authority shall be governed by a board of directors composed of the following:

(1) One member from each city in whose sphere of influence the boundaries of the military base lie.

(2) One member from each county within which the boundaries of the military base lie.

(c) Each legislative body may appoint one alternate for each of its positions on the board, and each alternate shall have all the rights and authority of a board member when serving in that board member's place.

(d) Each board member and each alternate shall be a member of the legislative body making the appointment, except that alternates appointed by the county board of supervisors shall be residents of the county. Board members and alternates shall serve at the pleasure of the legislative body making the appointment.

67821. The board may appoint or remove ex officio nonvoting members at its pleasure.

67822. The board shall provide by resolution the dates on which and the time and place at which regular meetings of the board shall be held. A copy of each resolution establishing the date, time, and place of a regular meeting shall be filed with the secretary of the board and the clerk or secretary of the legislative body of each of the members. The board shall comply with the provisions of the Ralph M. Brown Act (Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 54950) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5).

67823. (a) The board shall adopt rules and regulations for the conduct of its meetings and activities.

(b) The board's rules and regulations may expand the board of directors to include one representative from each city that abuts the boundaries of the military base. The board's rules and regulations shall include the vote required for the board to take action pursuant to this section, and may provide for weighted voting for some or all actions based on factors including, but not limited to, an agency's acreage, assessed valuation, or population within the boundaries of the military base.

67824. The secretary of the board shall maintain minutes of the meetings of the board and, as soon as possible after each meeting, shall cause a copy of the minutes to be forwarded to each member of the board.

67825. A majority of the members of the board shall constitute a quorum and may act for the authority.

67826. A resolution, ordinance, or other action of the board shall not be approved or adopted sooner than 72 hours after its introduction, unless approved by unanimous vote of all members present at the time of consideration. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, any action taken by the board shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of the appointed members of the board.

67827. The members of the board shall serve without compensation.

67828. The board shall elect from its own members a chair and a vice chair at the first board meeting held each year. Each shall serve a term of one year and may be reelected.

67829. The board shall determine the qualifications of, and shall appoint and fix the salary of, the executive officer of the agency, and shall employ or contract with other staff or consultants as may be necessary to execute the powers and function provided for under this title, including, but not limited to, attorneys, financing consultants, planners, accountants, engineers, architects, contractors, appraisers, and other consultants and advisers.

67830. The chief administrative officer or city manager of each member agency, or his or her designee, shall serve on an administrative committee to the board to provide advice, analysis, and recommendations to the board as the board may request from time to time.

67831. The board may, at its pleasure, appoint an additional advisory committee or committees to provide the board with options, critique, analysis, and other information as it finds useful, and may provide mechanisms through which any such committee may report to the board.

CHAPTER 4. POWERS AND DUTIES

67840. (a) The board shall prepare, adopt, review, revise from time to time, and maintain a plan, that complies with Section 65302 and federal requirements, for the future use and development of the territory occupied by the military base, and a five-year capital improvement program prepared and adopted pursuant to Section 65403 that indicates basewide facilities and local facilities. The adopted plan shall be the official local plan for the reuse of the base for all public purposes, including all discussions with federal agencies, and for purposes of planning, design, and funding by all state agencies.

(b) The authority reuse plan may provide for development to occur in phases, with criteria concerning public facility development and other factors that must be satisfied within each time phase.

(c) In preparing, adopting, reviewing, and revising the reuse plan, the board shall be consistent with approved coastal plans, air quality plans, water quality plans, spheres of influence, and other countywide or regional plans required by federal or state law, other than local general plans, including any amendments subsequent to the enactment of this title, and shall consider related local general plans.

67840.1. After the board has adopted a reuse plan, each county or city with territory occupied by the base shall submit to the board its general plan or amended general plan, which shall be required to satisfy both of the following:

(a) The plan is submitted pursuant to a resolution adopted by the county or city, after a noticed public hearing, that certified that the portion of the general plan or amended general plan applicable to the territory of the base is intended to be carried out in a manner fully in conformity with this title.

(b) The plan contains, in accordance with guidelines established by the board, materials sufficient for a thorough and complete review.

67840.2. (a) The board shall, within 90 days after the submittal, after a noticed public hearing, either certify or refuse to certify, in whole or in part, the portion of the general plan or amended general plan applicable to the territory of the base.

(b) Where a general plan or amended general plan is refused certification, in whole or in part, the board shall provide a written explanation and may suggest modifications, that, if adopted and transmitted to the board by the county or a city, will allow the amended general plan to be deemed certified upon confirmation by the executive officer of the board. The county or a city may elect to meet the board's refusal of certification in a manner other than as suggested by the board and may then resubmit its revised general plan to the board. If the county or a city requests that the board not recommend or suggest modifications that, if made, will result in certification, the board shall refuse certification with the required findings.

(c) The board shall approve and certify the portions of a general plan or amended general plan applicable to the territory of the base, or any amendments thereto, if the board finds that the portions of the general plan or amended general plan applicable to the territory of the base meet the requirements of this title, and are consistent with the reuse plan.

67840.3. (a) Within 30 days after the certification of a general plan or amended general plan, or any portion thereof, the board shall, after consultation with the county or a city, establish a date for that county or city to submit the zoning ordinances, zoning district maps, and, where necessary, other implementing actions applicable to the territory of the base.

(b) If the county or a city fails to meet the schedule established pursuant to subdivision (a), the board may waive the deadlines for board action on submitted zoning ordinances, zoning district maps, and, where necessary, other implementing actions, as set forth in Section 67840.4.

67840.4. (a) A county and cities to which subdivision (a) of Section 67840.1 applies shall submit to the board the zoning ordinances, zoning district maps, and, where necessary, other implementing actions applicable to the territory of the base that are required pursuant to this title.

(b) The board may only reject zoning ordinances, zoning district maps, or other implementing actions on the grounds that they do not conform with, or are inadequate to carry out, the certified general plan applicable to the territory of the base. If the board rejects the zoning ordinances, zoning district maps, or other implementing actions applicable to the territory of the base, it shall give written notice of the rejection specifying the provisions of the general plan with which the rejected zoning ordinances do not conform or that it finds will not be adequately carried out, together with its reasons for the action taken.

(c) The board may suggest modifications in the rejected zoning ordinances, zoning district maps, or other implementing actions, that, if adopted by the county or cities and transmitted to the board, shall be deemed approved upon confirmation by the executive officer of the board.

(d) The county or cities may elect to meet the board's rejection in a manner other than as suggested by the board and may then resubmit its revised zoning ordinances, zoning district maps, and other implementing actions to the board.

67840.5. (a) Except for appeals to the board, as provided in Section 67840.7, after the portion of a general plan applicable to the base has been certified and all implementing actions within the area affected have become effective, the development review authority shall be exercised by the respective county or city over any development proposed within the area to which the general plan applies.

(b) Subdivision (a) shall not apply to any development proposed or undertaken on any tidelands, submerged lands, or on public trust lands, whether filled or unfilled, lying within the coastal zone.

67840.6. After the board has certified a general plan or an amended general plan, any amendments to that certified plan that are applicable to the territory of the base shall take effect only upon certification in the same manner as for the initially certified plan, as provided in this title.

67840.7. (a) After the board has adopted a reuse plan pursuant to this title, any revision or other change to that plan that only affects territory lying within the jurisdiction of one member agency may only be adopted by the board if one of the following conditions is satisfied:

(1) The revision or other change was initiated by resolution adopted by the legislative body of the affected member agency and approved by at least a simple majority affirmative vote of the board.

(2) The revision or other change was initiated by the board or any entity other than the affected member agency and approved by at least a two-thirds affirmative vote of the board.

(b) (1) No local agency shall permit, approve, or otherwise allow any development or other change of use within the area of the base that is not consistent with the plan as adopted or revised pursuant to this title. The board may adopt regulations to ensure compliance with the provisions of this title. No local agency shall permit, approve, or otherwise allow any development or other change of use within the area of the base that is outside the jurisdiction of that local agency.

(2) Subject to the consistency determinations required pursuant to this title, each member agency with jurisdiction lying within the area of the military base may plan for, zone, and issue or deny building permits and other development approvals within that area. Actions of the member agency pursuant to this subdivision may be reviewed by the board at its own initiative, or may be appealed to the board.

67841. The board may negotiate and enter into appropriate agreements with the United States or any of its agencies or departments for the purpose of determining the disposition, reuse, or conservation of the property or facilities within the area of the military base.

67842. (a) The board shall be the principal local public agent for the acquisition, lease disposition, and sale of real property and facilities within the territory of the military base, and is the state-designated agency for receipt of title to federal property, including property transferred pursuant to the "Pryor Amendment," except as otherwise provided in this section. The board has the authority to acquire, lease, sell, or otherwise dispose of real property and facilities within the territory of the military base.

(b) The board may mediate and resolve conflicts between local agencies concerning the uses of federal land to be transferred for public benefit purposes, or for other uses. The board shall have primary local responsibility for complying with the provisions of the federal Stewart B. McKinney Homeless Assistance Act (Public Law 100-77) related to low-income housing in the area of the base.

(c) The board may take title to property within the area of the base that is either turned over to the board by the federal government at no cost or that is purchased by the board. The board may sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of this property at full market value or at less than full market value in order to facilitate the rapid and successful transition of the base to civilian use. In any transaction involving the transfer of federal property, the board shall fully honor all conditions, requirements, and understandings with the federal government with respect to the use and disposal of that property. In the sale, lease, or disposition of real property, the board shall follow those procedures and make those determinations that are required of redevelopment agencies pursuant to Article 11 (commencing with Section 33430) of Chapter 4 of Part 1 of Division 24 of the Health and Safety Code.

(d) The provisions of this title shall not preclude negotiations between the federal government and any local telecommunication, water, gas, electric, or cable provider for the transfer to any such utility or provider of federally-owned distribution systems and related facilities serving the military base.

67843. (a) The board shall identify those public capital facilities described in the authority reuse plan, that could most efficiently or conveniently be planned, negotiated, financed, or constructed by the board to further the integrated future use of the base. The board shall undertake to plan for and arrange the provision of those facilities, including arranging for their financing and construction. The board shall have authority to plan, design, construct, and finance these public capital facilities, or to delegate any of those powers to one or more member agencies.

(b) The board may seek state and federal grants and loans or other assistance to help fund these public facilities.

(c) The board may, in any year, levy assessments, reassessments, or special taxes and issue bonds to finance basewide facilities in accordance with, and pursuant to, any of the following:

(1) The Improvement Act of 1911 (Division 7 (commencing with Section 5000) of the Streets and Highways Code).

(2) The Improvement Bond Act of 1915 (Division 10 (commencing with Section 8500) of the Streets and Highways Code).

(3) The Municipal Improvement Act of 1913 (Division 12 (commencing with Section 10000) of the Streets and Highways Code).

(4) The Benefit Assessment Act of 1982 (Chapter 6.4 (commencing with Section 54703)).

(5) The Landscape and Lighting Act of 1972 (Part 2 (commencing with Section 22500) of Division 15 of the Streets and Highways Code).

(6) The Integrated Financing District Act (Chapter 1.5 (commencing with Section 53175) of Division 2 of Title 5).

(7) The Mello-Roos Community Facilities Act of 1982 (Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 53311) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title

(8) The Infrastructure Financing District Act (Chapter 2.8 (commencing with Section 53395) of Division 2 of Title 5).

(9) The Marks-Roos Local Bond Pooling Act of 1985 (Article 4 (commencing with Section 6584) of Chapter 5 of Division 7 of Title 1).

(10) The Revenue Bond Act of 1941 (Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 54300) of Division 2 of Title 5).

(11) Fire suppression assessments levied pursuant to Article 3.6 (commencing with Section 50078) of Chapter 1 of Part 1 of Division 1 of Title 5.

(12) Habitat maintenance assessments levied pursuant to Article 3.1 (commencing with Section 50060) of Chapter 1 of Part 1 of Division 1 of Title 5.

(d) The board may levy development fees on development projects within the area of the base. Any development fees shall comply with the requirements of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 66000) of Division 1 of Title 5. No local agency shall issue any building permit for any development within the area of the military base until the board has certified that all development fees that it has levied with respect to the development project have been paid or otherwise satisfied.

(e) The board may receive funds from the California Infrastructure and Economic Development Bank pursuant to Division 1 (commencing with Section 63000) of Title 6.7.

67844. The board may enter into contracts and agreements as necessary to mitigate any impacts of the reuse of the military base.

67845. The board may study, evaluate, and recommend cleanup of toxic and explosive substances within the area of the base to the federal government, including the Department of Defense, and the State of California, if it determines that doing so is in the best interests of the communities surrounding the military base area.

67846. The board shall aggressively pursue all possible federal funding for the transfer, cleanup, and reuse of the local military base, including funding to pay for the costs of public capital facilities and funding to attract and encourage the development of private businesses and public universities and other public facilities within the area of the base. The board may also pursue and accept federal and state funding to pay part of the expenses of operating the authority.

67847. The board may take other action that is necessary or convenient to ensure the rapid and successful conversion of the area of the military base to civilian use in a way that provides maximum benefits to the communities of the area and the State of California.

CHAPTER 5. FUNDING

67850. In addition to any funds received from federal and state agencies for the expenses of operating the authority, the board may receive contributions from agencies represented on the board. Each agency represented by a board member shall contribute to the authority, on or before August of each fiscal year, a sum to be determined by the board for each board member that the agency appoints. For purposes of this section, the term "public agency" does not include any elected official of the federal or state government.

67851. The board and the member agencies may provide by contract for the transfer to the board or between member agencies of revenues available from sales tax, property tax, or other sources in order to help finance the cost of paying for services or capital facilities to serve or enhance the development of military bases. The contract or contracts may provide for the transfer of funds to member agencies with responsibility for providing services or facilities within the area of military bases for a specified number of years, and for the repayment of those funds in later years with interest, or for repayment in the form of an equity interest in property, sales, or other tax revenues that may be payable as a result of development occurring within the area of the military base. Any such contract shall be effective only upon approval by the board and the member agencies involved.

CHAPTER 6. PLEDGE

67860. The State of California does hereby pledge to and agree with the holders of any bonds issued, and with any public or private entity with which the board has entered into a contract or an agreement, pursuant to the provisions of this title, that the state will not alter or change the structure, organization, programs, or powers hereby vested in the board until those bonds are fully met or discharged and until the board has fully met or discharged its obligations pursuant to those agreements or contracts. However, nothing in this title shall preclude an alteration or change if, and when, adequate provision shall have been made by law for the protection from impairment of the contracts represented by those bonds or contracts or agreements, and the right to so alter or change is hereby reserved. The board is authorized to include this pledge and undertaking of the state in its bonds and contracts or agreements.

CHAPTER 7. DISSOLUTION

67870. The authority shall cease to exist when the board determines that 80 percent of the territory of the military base that is designated for development or reuse in the plan prepared pursuant to this title has been developed or reused in a manner consistent with the reuse plan, or in any case not later than June 30, 20 years after the creation of the authority. The local agency formation commission or commissions of the county or counties that are member agencies shall provide for the orderly dissolution of the authority, including ensuring that all contracts, agreements, and pledges to pay or repay money entered into by the authority are honored and properly administered, and that all assets of the authority are appropriately transferred.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to minimize the disruptive effects that the closure of military bases will have on the civilian economy and the people of the surrounding military base area, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

An act to amend Sections 67811 and 67820 of, and to add Section 67848 to, the Government Code, to amend Sections 97.5, 4702, 4703, and 4703.2 of, and to add Sections 97.032 and 97.033 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, and to add Section 1.7 to the San Bernardino County Flood Control Act (Chapter 73 of the Statutes of 1939), relating to local government, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State September 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 67811 of the Government Code, as added by Assembly Bill 3759 of the 1993-94 Regular Session, is amended to read:

67811. Counties and cities may establish an authority with the powers and duties set forth in this title upon the adoption of resolutions pursuant to Section 67820.

SEC. 2. Section 67820 of the Government Code, as added by Assembly Bill 3759 of the 1993-94 Regular Session, is amended to read:

67820. (a) The authority shall be formed if two-thirds of the legislative bodies listed in subdivision (b) with two-thirds of the territory over all or a portion of the boundaries of the military base and with responsibility for complying with Division 1 (commencing with Section 65000) of Title 7 adopt resolutions calling for the formation of the authority.

(b) The authority shall be governed by a board of directors composed of the following:

(1) One member from each city with a sphere of influence over all or a portion of the boundaries of the military base.

(2) One member from each county with territory over all or a portion of the boundaries of the military base.

(3) One member from each city with territory over all or a portion of the boundaries of the military base.

(c) Each legislative body may appoint one alternate for each of its positions on the board, and each alternate shall have all the rights and authority of a board member when serving in that board member's place.

(d) Each board member and each alternate shall be a member of the legislative body making the appointment, except that alternates appointed by the county board of supervisors shall be residents of the county. Board members and alternates shall serve at the pleasure of the legislative body making the appointment.

(e) Notwithstanding subdivision (a) or (b), any local agency that does not adopt a resolution favoring establishment of the authority shall not be required to:

(1) Appoint a voting member to the board.

(2) Contribute to the authority pursuant to Section 67850 if it does not appoint a voting member to the board.

(3) Serve on an administrative committee pursuant to Section 67830 if it does not appoint a voting member to the board.

SEC. 3. Section 67848 is added to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 76840) of Title 7.86 of the Government Code, as added by Assembly Bill 3759 of the 1993-94 Regular Session, to read:

67848. (a) The board is encouraged to look first to contracting with, and providing funding to, the California Conservation Corps for the purpose of carrying out conservation and environmental projects, including, but not limited to, the cleanup of low hazardous toxic materials.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature that the California Conservation Corps be considered a resource for the board for carrying out conservation and environmental projects, including, but not limited to, the cleanup of low hazardous toxic materials, because of the training and safety requirements associated with those activities and the established, cost-effective program and infrastructure that the corps can provide through its own resources, or in partnership with local corps or public or private entities, for the hiring, training, and personal development of those young adults in local communities that carry out meaningful conservation and environmental projects.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed to preclude the board from utilizing the resources of local residents to the greatest extent possible in carrying out conservation and environmental projects.

SEC. 4. Section 97.032 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

97.032. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, for the 1994-95 fiscal year, the amount of the revenue allocation reduction with respect to a qualified county that is attributable to the reduction determined for that county for the 1993-94 fiscal year pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 97.035 shall be reduced by the amounts of any increased revenues, allocated in the 1994-95 fiscal year in that county to a "qualifying school entity" as defined in paragraph (5) of subdivision (a) of Section 97.035, that would not have been so allocated but for that county being a qualified county. For purposes of this section, a "qualified county" means a county or city or county that has first implemented for the 1994-95 fiscal year the alternative procedure for the distribution of property tax levies that is authorized by Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 4701) of Part 8.

SEC. 5. Section 97.033 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

97.033. Notwithstanding any contrary provision in paragraph (4) of subdivision (d) of Section 97.035, for the County of Marin only, commencing with the 1993-94 fiscal year, if, after making the allocations pursuant to paragraph (2) as required by paragraph (4), the auditor determines that each community college district located entirely within that county is an excess school tax entity as defined in Section 95.1, the auditor shall then apply any remaining funds to reduce the amounts of those reductions calculated pursuant to this section with respect to the county, cities, and special districts in proportion to the amount of the reduction otherwise calculated under this section for each of those agencies.

SEC. 6. Section 97.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

97.5. Except as otherwise provided in Section 97.51 or 97.52, for the purpose of apportioning property tax revenues each fiscal year:

(a) The amount of property tax revenue allocated pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 96 or subdivision (a) of Section 97, modified by any adjustments made pursuant to Section 99 or 99.4, and subdivision (e) of Section 98, shall be combined to compute the total amount of property tax revenue allocated to the jurisdiction with respect to the tax rate area.

(b) The total amount of property tax revenue allocated to each jurisdiction with respect to all tax rate areas as determined pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be added to compute a total amount of property tax revenue for a jurisdiction in all tax rate areas.

(c) Each amount determined pursuant to subdivision (b) shall be divided by the total of all such amounts computed. The quotient determined shall be used to apportion actual property tax collections and shall be known as the "property tax apportionment factors."

(d) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, for the 1990-91 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, the auditor shall divide the sum of the amounts calculated with respect to each jurisdiction or community redevelopment agency pursuant to Sections 97, 98.6, and 98.9, and Section 33670 of the Health and Safety Code, by the countywide total of those calculated amounts. The resulting ratio shall be known as the "administrative cost apportionment factor" and shall be multiplied by the sum of the property tax administrative costs incurred in the immediately preceding fiscal year by the assessor, tax collector, and auditor to determine the fiscal year property tax administrative costs proportionately attributable to each jurisdiction or community redevelopment agency. For purposes of this paragraph, property tax administrative costs shall also include applicable administrative overhead costs allowed by the federal Office of Management and Budget Circular A-87 standards, but shall not include any amount reimbursed pursuant to Sections 75.60 and 98.6, or include any amount in excess of the amounts reimbursable pursuant to Section 75.60, unless a county meets the conditions of paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 75.60. However, no amount of funds appropriated to counties for purposes of property tax administration in Item 9100-102-001 of the Budget Act of 1994 or any subsequent Budget Act shall result in any deduction from those property tax administrative costs that are eligible for reimbursement pursuant to this subdivision.

(2) Each proportionate share of property tax administrative costs determined pursuant to paragraph (1), except for those proportionate shares determined with respect to a school entity, shall be deducted from the property tax revenue allocation of the relevant jurisdiction or community redevelopment agency, and shall be added to the property tax revenue allocation of the county. For purposes of applying this paragraph for the 1990-91 fiscal year, each proportionate share of property tax administrative costs shall be deducted from those amounts allocated to the relevant jurisdiction or community redevelopment agency after January 1, 1991.

(3) Reductions made pursuant to this subdivision to property tax revenue allocations shall be made without regard to Section 907 of the Government Code.

(4) Any additional amounts of property tax revenue allocated to the county pursuant to this subdivision shall be used only to fund costs incurred by the county in assessing and collecting property taxes, and in allocating property tax revenues, and shall constitute charges for those services, not exceeding the actual and reasonable costs incurred by the county in performing those services.

(5) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this subdivision to recognize that since the adoption of Article XIII A of the California Constitution by the voters, county governments have borne an unfair and disproportionate part of the financial burden of assessing, collecting, and allocating property tax revenues for other jurisdictions and for redevelopment agencies. The Legislature finds and declares that this subdivision is intended to fairly apportion the burden of collecting property tax revenues and is not a reallocation of property tax revenue shares or a transfer of any financial or program responsibility.

(6) Commencing with the 1992-93 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, this subdivision shall supersede and replace subdivisions (e), (f), and (g) of Section 97, as that section read on January 1, 1992, as authority for a county to recover property tax administrative costs.
