MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following veto message from the Governor was received and ordered printed in the Journal, and Assembly Bill No. 902 ordered to the unfinished business file:

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 902

Governor's Office, Sacramento
September 9, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill No. 902 without my signature.

This bill doubles the fine for failing to comply with a specific traffic law. That law requires a motorist to slow or move away from an emergency vehicle stopped on the shoulder or median. The new fine, with penalties, would be $490 instead of $238.

No showing has been made that piling on an additional $252 will protect anybody. This enhanced amount strikes me as more punitive than deterrent.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Receipt of Bills

I acknowledge receipt this 9th day of September, 2013 at 4:55 p.m., of the following Assembly Bill without the Governor's signature, together with a statement of his objections thereto, signed by the Governor, delivered to me personally by Jacque Roberts:

Assembly Bill No. 902

SEPTEMBER 11, 2013 MEMORIAL CEREMONY
PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker Pérez, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Constantine C. Pappademos:

Lord, Twelve years ago today, all of us were shocked to learn of the brutal attacks that occurred in New York, Washington D.C., and Pennsylvania. We remember today and we ask that you grant rest to those who died, in a place of peace where there is no pain or suffering. A twisted and evil philosophy led to those attacks, Lord, but as we remember that day, we also remember that Your way is the way of peace, of love, and life. As we think back on that day, we realize that in times of distress, we have no other hope but You. O Lord of all power, have mercy on us.—AMEN.

REPORTS

The following letter of transmittal was presented by the Chief Clerk and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2012-121.2
September 10, 2013

The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the California State Auditor (state auditor) presents this audit report concerning the Department of Parks and Recreation's (department) budgeting and personnel practices. This report concludes that the department's informal processes for allocating budgets to its districts and for tracking district expenditures hampers its current efforts to budget and track expenditures at the park level. Specifically, the department provides districts with their budget allocations months after the fiscal year begins. As a result, the districts operate during the busy summer season using prior-year allocations as their budgets. However, this causes problems for districts when the allocations they ultimately receive are less than what they received in the prior year. Additionally, the department's process for tracking district expenditures generates duplicate information and is not helpful for districts to manage their allocations.

These issues, if not addressed, will negatively impact the department's current efforts to establish a process for budgeting and tracking expenditures at the park level. Despite state law requiring the department to determine whether it sustained a required budget reduction, we concluded in our February 2013 report that the department lacked the ability to comply with this law because it did not track expenditures at the park level. In June 2013 the director of the department distributed a memo describing the process the department intends to use in calculating each park's past expenditures and future costs. Although its process begins to address our concern, the department must complete and fully implement the process to calculate park unit costs to comply with the provisions of state law.

We also identified significant concerns related to some of the department's personnel processes. During our audit we identified additional instances in which the department inappropriately bought back leave. Moreover, despite the recent scrutiny over the unauthorized leave buybacks it processed in 2011, the department still has not done enough to prevent such practices from occurring again in the future. Although it disciplined four managers who were involved in the unauthorized leave buybacks, the department has not changed its processes or provided appropriate training to its staff. We also noted that although the department has established an Executive Personnel Review Committee (EPRC) to manage its staffing, it has not developed policies and procedures to govern the roles and responsibilities of the EPRC's members nor does EPRC communicate its decisions to the department director or executive office. Without better controls, training, and guidelines, the department may encounter future difficulties in its staffing and personnel actions.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE, CPA
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Water, Parks and Wildlife.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker Pérez, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Constantine C. Pappademos:

Lord, Many times, the value of a work of art comes, not so much from what it looks like, but rather who the artist was. A few splashes of paint on a canvas can be worthless, unless they were put there by Pablo Picasso. A painting gets its value from its creator. In the same way, our value doesn't come from what we look like, what we do or who we know. Our value, Lord, comes from the fact that You created us. Bless us this day as we complete our work in this Assembly and always. —AMEN.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Speaker Pérez, Assembly Member Daly then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

Bill presented by Assembly Member Buchanan.

Parliamentary Inquiry

Assembly Member Grove arose to the following parliamentary inquiry:

Is there a reason that Senate Bill No. 344 indicates that it is without reference to File when it is Item No. 37 on today's Daily File?

Reply by Speaker Pérez

The Speaker replied that as he explained prior to moving to the item, Senate Bill No. 344 was originally Item No. 37 on today's Daily File, but was subsequently amended and sent out to print and ordered back on File; since a new Daily File had not been printed since Senate Bill No. 344 was amended earlier this day, it had to be taken up without reference to File to distinguish it from the prior version of the bill.

The question being on the passage of the bill.

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT TO PRINT IN JOURNAL

Assembly Member Atkins was granted unanimous consent that the following statements of legislative intent relative to Assembly Bills Nos. 119, 270, 1409, 140, 748, 1376, 1309, and 127 be printed in the Journal:

Legislative Intent—Assembly Bill No. 119

September 12, 2013

E. Dotson Wilson
Chief Clerk of the Assembly
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Dear Mr. Wilson: As the author of Assembly Bill No. 119, I am requesting the inclusion into the Assembly Daily Journal my statement to provide clarity as to the intent and interpretation of the bill as it relates to the allowable sale of home water treatment devices.

AB 119 would modify existing law to require "approval" rather than "certification" of water treatment devices offered for sale in California that make health claims. That approval would be provided by an independent testing organization that has been accredited by the American National Standards Institute.

For those drinking water devices that received the Department of Public Health approval and certification prior to November 1, 2013, the Health and Safety Code Section 116836(b) is intended to allow those existing certificates to be in force and allow the continued sales of those certified products. Thank you for your attention to this request.

Sincerely,

LUIS A. ALEJO, Assembly Member
Thirtieth District
Chair, Committee on Environmental Safety and Toxic Materials

Legislative Intent—Assembly Bill No. 270

September 12, 2013

E. Dotson Wilson
Chief Clerk of the Assembly
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Dear Mr. Wilson: I would like to submit this letter to the Assembly Journal to clarify my intent with respect to provisions in my Assembly Bill 270 relating to the creation of a publicly available database of utility energy efficiency data.

It was not my intent to amend or alter any existing consumer privacy or other provisions of law and I do not believe Assembly Bill 270 does. My intent was to authorize and enable the California Public Utilities Commission to make available to the public certain utility energy efficiency data and information, subject to all existing utility customer privacy protections and other laws applicable to such data and information.

Sincerely,

STEVEN C. BRADFORD, Assembly Member
Sixty-second District
Chair, Committee on Utilities and Commerce

Legislative Intent—Assembly Bill No. 1409

September 12, 2013

E. Dotson Wilson
Chief Clerk of the Assembly
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Dear Mr. Wilson: I write to clarify my intent of Section 3 of Assembly Bill 1409, which states:

The commission shall neither deny nor revoke a certificate of public convenience and necessity applied for by or issued to a telephone corporation that provides retail or wholesale telecommunications services on the grounds that the telephone corporation also provides Voice over Internet Protocol service or any other unregulated service. This section does not expand the commission's existing jurisdiction over any service or affect any provision of Section 710. This section does not give any telephone corporation any new rights or powers.

It was my intent for the term "other unregulated service" to mean services provided by certificated telephone corporations consistent with the California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC) July 7, 2008 Memorandum written by Jack Leutza, Director of the CPUC Communications Division, which classifies "Enhanced Services/ Information Services" as those services that do not otherwise require a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity.

The July 7, 2008 CPUC Memorandum defines "Enhanced Services/ Information Services" as follows:

"Enhanced services" are offered over common carrier transmission facilities and employ computer processing applications that act on the format, contest, code, protocol or similar aspects of the subscriber's transmitted information; i.e. provide the subscriber additional, different, or restructured information; or involve subscriber interaction with stored information. "Information services" offer the capability for generating, acquiring, storing, transforming, processing, retrieving, utilizing, or making available information via telecommunications but does not include any use of any such capability for the management, control, or operation of a telecommunications system or the management of a telecommunications services. No CPCN is necessary to provide enhanced services or information services to the public; however, provision of these services does not eliminate the obligation for the provider to obtain a CPCN when it is also providing a telephone service.

Examples of enhanced services/information services are:

- Internet access (Broadband, dial-up, etcetera)
- Protocol conversion
- Voicemail
- Electronic messaging
- Video conferencing
- Voice "store and forward"

Thus, it is my intent for the term "other unregulated services" in Assembly Bill 1409 to apply to those services classified as "Enhanced Services/Information Services" as described above.

Sincerely,

STEVEN C. BRADFORD, Assembly Member
Sixty-second District
Chair, Committee on Utilities and Commerce

Legislative Intent—Assembly Bill No. 140

E. Dotson Wilson
Chief Clerk of the Assembly
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Mr. Wilson: My Assembly Bill 140 would codify the definition of undue influence to mean excessive persuasion that causes another person to act or refrain from acting by overcoming that person's free will and results in inequity. However, an inequitable result, without more, would not be sufficient to prove undue influence, as the intent of the elder would remain paramount. Thus, a person remains free to dispose of his property, both by testamentary device and donative transfer, even if the disposition appears unfair in the eyes of others so long as the disposition results from an exercise of that person's free will. Unfairness is therefore to be determined from the standpoint of the elder.

Assembly Bill 140 lists family members as among those with 'apparent authority'. The intent is to describe those who occupy positions of trust and who thus might more easily unduly influence an elder. The intent is not to address who might be the natural object of an elder's bounty or to draw any particular negative inference from a family member's receipt of something (whether testamentary or inter vivos) from an elder.

Respectfully submitted,

ROGER DICKINSON, Assembly Member
Seventh District

Legislative Intent—Assembly Bill No. 748

September 2, 2013

E. Dotson Wilson
Chief Clerk of the Assembly
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Mr. Wilson: In Assembly Bill 748 the phrases "tax or fee claim" and "tax or fee judgment" mean claims arising from the levy, collection or charge of a tax or fee. They do not include the distribution or allocation of those revenues between public entities.

Sincerely,

SUSAN TALAMANTES EGGMAN, Assembly Member
Thirteenth District

Legislative Intent—Assembly Bill No. 1376

September 12, 2013

E. Dotson Wilson
Chief Clerk of the Assembly
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Dear Chief Clerk Wilson: The purpose of this letter is to manifest and clarify my intent in regard to Assembly Bill (AB) 1376.

I authored AB 1376 in order to create a compliance period for medical interpreters to be certified. AB 1376 creates a one-time extension of the date of implementation to March 1, 2014 for the Division of Workers' Compensation's regulations on medical interpreters (Title 8, Sections 9795.1, 9795.1.5, 9795.1.6, 9795.3 and 9795.5). I do not intend AB 1376 to have any other impacts on regulations regarding medical interpreters in the workers' compensation system.

Additionally, by creating a compliance period and delaying the implementation of the above-discussed Division of Workers' Compensation regulations, AB 1376 delays to March 1, 2014 the authorization for an employer to decline to pay an uncertified interpreter.

Sincerely,

ROGER HERNÁNDEZ, Assembly Member
Forty-eighth District

Legislative Intent—Assembly Bill No. 1309

September 12, 2013

E. Dotson Wilson
Chief Clerk of the Assembly
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Dear Members: This letter is to clarify my intent regarding the provisions of AB 1309 and specifically those relating to the definition of a "duty day". AB 1309 establishes jurisdictional thresholds, based in part on duty day contacts with the state, for California to consider the occupational disease and cumulative injury claims of professional athletes.

The definition of a duty day requires services performed under the direction and control of the employer, which necessarily includes control over the time, place, manner and other circumstances of the employee's daily work activities. It is not my intent that all service activities satisfy the definition of a duty day simply because they are consistent with a professional athlete's contractual obligations. It is instead my intent that a qualifying duty day must also involve work activities performed under the direction and control of the professional athlete's employer.

By way of illustration, a player playing for an out-of-state minor league team, who plays a game outside of California would qualify for an out-of-state duty day, but not qualify for either a California duty day or one for a California-based team. Further, the same player who works in California during an offseason day, including training and medical rehabilitation service days, would qualify for a California duty day provided his employer exercised direction and control over those services.

Sincerely,

HENRY T. PEREA, Assembly Member
Thirty-first District

Legislative Intent—Assembly Bill No. 127

E. Dotson Wilson
Chief Clerk of the Assembly
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Dear Mr. Wilson: Assembly Bill 127 requires the State Fire Marshal to review the flammability standards for building insulation materials and to propose new flammability standards. The phrase "review the flammability standards" should not imply that the State Fire Marshal must generate new data or research. Rather, my intent in drafting the bill is for the State Fire Marshal to rely on existing information related to building materials.

Sincerely,

NANCY SKINNER, Assembly Member
Fifteenth District

Legislative Intent—Assembly Bill No. 1229

September 3, 2013

E. Dotson Wilson
Chief Clerk of the Assembly
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Dear Mr. Wilson: The intent of AB 1229 is to overturn the decision in Palmer v. City of Los Angeles, which held that the Costa-Hawkins Act extended to the rental housing provisions of inclusionary zoning ordinances.

It is not my intent, in authoring this legislation, to expand the powers of local government with respect to the application of inclusionary zoning to for-sale, owner-occupied housing. The legislation includes "owners" as well as renters to make clear that the bill creates no implication that the Legislature intended inclusionary housing programs may only be applied to rental housing. Thus, the language mentions both rental and for-sale to ensure continued clarity in the law.

In addition, it is not my intent to diminish the use of concessions and incentives by local governments in negotiating compliance with local inclusionary ordinances. The legislation does not insulate inclusionary housing ordinances from incentives and concessions because state Density Bonus law (Government Code §65915) requires all local governments to provide incentives and concessions to developers that include a specified percentage of affordable housing units in their developments, including affordable units required by inclusionary housing ordinances. See Latinos Unidos de Valle de Napa y Solano, 217

Cal. App. 4th 1160 (2013) and Home Builders Ass'n of Northern California v. City of Napa, 90 Cal. App. 4th 188 (2001). Moreover, the takings clause of the constitution also requires just compensation (Home Builders Association of Northern California v. City of Napa, 90 Cal. App. 4th 188 (2001)).

Legislative Intent—Assembly Bill No. 566

September 12, 2013

E. Dotson Wilson
Chief Clerk of the Assembly
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Dear Mr. Wilson: I respectfully submit this letter to be printed in the Assembly Journal in order to reflect the intent of Assembly Bill 566 (Stats. 2013). AB 566 was enacted to ensure that trial courts adhere to due diligence standards before privatizing court services.

AB 566 specifically exempts certain enumerated contracts from the due diligence standards set out in the bill. In particular, the legislation exempts contracts between a trial court and other government entities. This letter clarifies that this exemption is not intended to affect county-operated enhanced collection programs or other collection services carried out by a county on behalf of a court.

Thank you for noting the intent of this measure.

Sincerely,

ROBERT WIECKOWSKI, Assembly Member
Twenty-fifth District

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT TO PRINT IN JOURNAL

Assembly Member Gonzalez was granted unanimous consent that the following statement of legislative intent relative to Assembly Bill No. 1159 be printed in the Journal:

Legislative Intent—Assembly Bill No. 1159

September 12, 2013

E. Dotson Wilson
Chief Clerk of the Assembly
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Dear Mr. Wilson: I respectfully submit this letter to be printed in the Assembly Journal in order to reflect the intent of Assembly Bill 1159 (Stats. 2013). AB 1159 was enacted with measures to protect undocumented immigrants from fraud by attorneys and non-attorneys with the promises to attain a lawful status under any proposed federal act to reform immigration laws, before it is enacted by Congress.

Among other things, AB 1159 makes it unlawful for an attorney or immigration consultant to demand or accept the advance payment of any funds for services in connection with any federal immigration reform act, which has not yet become a law, that would be necessary in the preparation of an application and other related initial processes in order for an undocumented immigrant to attain a lawful status under an immigration reform act.

This prohibition would not preclude an attorney from accepting a fee for performing lawful and appropriate preliminary or preparatory work for clients, such as obtaining records and documentation, for use in applications or filings under any other immigration or other law, or for lawful and appropriate procedures or processes for determining or obtaining legal relief under other immigration or other laws. Thank you for noting the intent of this measure.

Sincerely,

LORENA GONZALEZ, Assembly Member
Eightieth District

RECESS JOURNAL NO. 13

INTERIM STUDY RECESS

Assembly Chamber, Sacramento
Thursday, September 26, 2013

Pursuant to the provisions of Joint Rule 59, the following Assembly Journal for the 2013–14 Regular Session was printed while the Assembly was in Interim Study Recess.

COMMUNICATIONS

The following communication was presented by the Speaker, and ordered printed in the Journal:

September 25, 2013

The Honorable John A. Pérez
Speaker of the Assembly
Sacramento, California

Dearest Speaker Pérez: It is indeed with mixed emotions that I submit this letter as my official resignation from the California State Assembly, representing the good people of the 54th Assembly District. My resignation shall take effect immediately upon my taking the oath of office to serve in the State Senate, representing the 26th District, on September 26, 2013.

It has been suggested by historians and such that I use this official document to chronicle my work in the Assembly. I have chosen, however, to let my work—our work, as conscientious policy makers who remain deeply committed to the well-being of ALL Californians—speak for itself:

- An on-time balanced budget that invests strategically in core services for vulnerable communities.
- Meaningful support for low-income working families and their children.
- Expansion of critical health services for those who've gone without for far too long.
- Protection of the fundamental rights of women, immigrants, workers, children, and those serving in the juvenile and adult prison system.

With that, I will simply say, PEACE OUT!

Respectfully Submitted,

HOLLY J. MITCHELL, Assembly Member
Fifty-fourth District

The following communication was presented by the Chief Clerk, and ordered printed in the Journal:

September 26, 2013

The Honorable Edmund G. Brown Jr.
Governor, State of California
State Capitol, First Floor
Sacramento, California

Dear Governor Brown: Pursuant to the Government Code and on behalf of the Speaker of the Assembly, Honorable John A. Pérez, I am forwarding a letter of resignation from Assembly Member Holly Mitchell, effective September 26, 2013.

Sincerely,

E. DOTSON WILSON
Chief Clerk

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following messages from the Governor were received and ordered printed in the Journal, and the bills ordered to the unfinished business file:

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 405

Governor's Office, Sacramento
September 28, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 405 without my signature.

This bill limits the 24/7 carpool lane controls on about 13 miles of the 134 freeway in Los Angeles to the hours of heavy commuter traffic.

Carpool lanes are especially important in Los Angeles County to reduce pollution and maximize use of freeways. We should retain the current 24/7 carpool lane control.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 527

Governor's Office, Sacramento
September 28, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 527 without my signature.

This bill requires various transparency and accountability actions of the Western Climate Initiative, Incorporated (WCI, Inc.), a multi-jurisdictional body providing services that support the State's Cap-and-Trade program. This bill is unnecessary as WCI, Inc already meets the open meeting, public records and auditing requirements of this bill.

In order to ensure continued transparency, I have signed SB 726 that will provide ongoing accountability without the risk of frivolous litigation presented by this measure.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Receipt of Bills

I acknowledge receipt this 28th day of September, 2013, at 11:35 a.m., of the following Assembly Bills without the Governor's signature, together with a statement of his objections thereto, signed by the Governor, delivered to me personally by Michael Mullaney: Assembly Bills Nos. 405 and 527.

SUE PARKER
Assistant Chief Clerk of the Assembly

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 374

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 1, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 374 without my signature.

This measure would reverse several appellate court decisions allowing judges, in eminent domain claims for loss in business goodwill, to decide facts before a jury decides on compensation. In this case, I think the appellate courts got it right. Judges are in the best position to decide whether businesses had goodwill to lose before proceeding to costly jury trials.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Receipt of Bills

I acknowledge receipt this 1st day of October, 2013, at 3:55 p.m., of the following Assembly Bill without the Governor's signature, together with a statement of his objections thereto, signed by the Governor, delivered to me personally by Michael Mullaney: Assembly Bill No. 374.

SUE PARKER
Assistant Chief Clerk of the Assembly

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 841

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 3, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 841 without my signature.

This bill would require a junk dealer or recycler to make payments for the purchase of metal materials only through checks mailed to the seller.

The theft of nonferrous metals has reached epidemic proportions not only in California, but across the United States. In an effort to combat this problem, I signed four bills last year to prevent more theft. Existing law requires that a seller wait three days before receiving payment for metal materials, a written record of the transaction, the name, driver's license number, license plate number, thumbprint of the seller, and a photograph or video of the seller and the material being sold. How much more do you need?

What's really missing today is robust enforcement of our laws. SB 485, which I have signed, shall help do that.

For these reasons I am unable to sign this bill.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 909

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 3, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 909 without my signature.

This bill requires the Department of Justice to establish the Metal Theft Task Force Program to provide grants to local law enforcement agencies and prosecutors to enforce metal theft and related recycling laws.

This bill creates a new enforcement effort without identifying a funding source. Today I signed SB 485, which does provide a funding source for greater enforcement within the existing infrastructure. More can certainly be done, but let's build on stable funding base.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Receipt of Bills

I acknowledge receipt this 3rd day of October, 2013, at 12:40 p.m., of the following Assembly Bills without the Governor's signature, together with a statement of his objections thereto, signed by the Governor, delivered to me personally by Michael Mullaney: Assembly Bills Nos. 841 and 909.

SUE PARKER
Assistant Chief Clerk of the Assembly

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 53

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 4, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 53 without my signature.

This bill requires the Governor's Office of Business and Economic Development (GO Biz) to prepare the California Economic Development Strategic Plan and a triennial report to the Legislature.

GO Biz is now implementing the state's new economic development initiative that Speaker Pérez helped make possible earlier this year. In addition, thanks to legislation authored by Speaker Pérez, GO Biz is expanding direct foreign investment, promoting export of California products, removing unnecessary government barriers for businesses, and helping large and small businesses innovate, grow, and prosper in California. For all these reasons, I don't think a study and report will bring any additional focus to our efforts.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 285

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 4, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 285 without my signature.

This bill, like SB 118, deals with the California Workforce Investment Board and various aspects of job training. Unlike SB 118, it is overly prescriptive in the way it directs the Board to provide technical assistance for entrepreneurial training and to make recommendations. I believe this unduly infringes on the Board's authority and discretion.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Receipt of Bills

I acknowledge receipt this 4th day of October, 2013, at 2:55 p.m., of the following Assembly Bills without the Governor's signature, together with a statement of his objections thereto, signed by the Governor, delivered to me personally by Michael Mullaney: Assembly Bills Nos. 53 and 285.

SUE PARKER
Assistant Chief Clerk of the Assembly

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 340

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 5, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 340 without my signature.

This bill requires the Public Utilities Commission to establish a program to encourage the use of women, people of color and disabled veteran-owned businesses for projects funded by the Electric Program Investment Charge.

This bill inadvertently contains language that would jeopardize critical renewable programs funded by this charge.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 683

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 5, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 683 without my signature.

This bill is similar to legislation I vetoed in the previous legislative session. While the state's housing situation has improved, this bill could hamper efforts on the part of distressed homeowners to refinance or sell their property. While the bill requires additional outreach to a homeowner before a lien is recorded, there is no limit on the accrual of fines until that time. Abating the ordinance violation should be the primary goal and there is already an existing process for locals to recover their costs.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 714

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 5, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 714 without my signature.

While the measure strives to do only good—namely advance research and cures for spinal cord injury—appropriating yet more state General Fund dollars to the University of California for a select purpose is not the answer.

After several years of painful cuts, last January, I proposed substantial budget increases for the University of California ($511 million over four years) with maximum flexibility for their funding, so long as they did not increase tuition. The 2013 Budget Act provided the first portion of that increased investment.

Research is a core mission of the University of California. As such, it is entirely within the university system's discretion to fund the Spinal Cord Research Program, or any other project it deems of value. For that reason, I have consistently chosen not to support special earmarks in the University of California's budget and leave it to the university—as deeply steeped in innovation and research as it is—to make funding decisions like this.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 912

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 5, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 912 without my signature.

The bill requires health plans and insurers to cover fertility preservation services when a medical treatment may cause infertility. This requirement would apply only to health coverage purchased by large employers.

Large group employers already have the ability to negotiate richer benefit packages that meet the needs of their employees. While I understand the desire to preserve fertility where possible, such coverage was not included in the essential health benefits that the Legislature passed just last year for individual and small group coverage.

Coverage that goes beyond the essential health benefits is no doubt useful and desirable for many, but we should not consider mandating additional benefits until we implement the comprehensive package of reforms that are required by the federal Affordable Care Act.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Receipt of Bills

I acknowledge receipt this 5th day of October, 2013, at 11:35 a.m., of the following Assembly Bills without the Governor's signature, together with a statement of his objections thereto, signed by the Governor, delivered to me personally by Jacque Roberts: Assembly Bills Nos. 340, 683, 714, and 912.

E. DOTSON WILSON
Chief Clerk of the Assembly

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 571

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 7, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 571 without my signature.

This bill would appropriate $5 million annually from the General Fund to the Department of Food and Agriculture to support research and programs to combat citrus disease and vectors in California.

While I am acutely aware of the devastating effects of the Asian citrus psyllid and its vector Huanglongbing, this program has mostly been funded by the citrus industry and the federal government. If the current support is inadequate, let's review our options during the budget process.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 1200

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 7, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 1200 without my signature.

This bill would allow the San Francisco Bay Regional Water Quality Control Board to authorize voluntary pilot projects to investigate the effects of overflow from agricultural ponds containing tertiary treated recycled water into the San Pablo Bay.

Instead of spending time on a multi-year pilot project to justify a permit process that does not require it, let's focus on getting more irrigators to use recycled water.

I have asked the State Water Board and the Regional Board to work with the Sonoma Valley County Sanitation District to take the necessary steps to issue a permit that would allow the discharge of treated recycled water from agricultural ponds no later than August 2014. This permit should facilitate the use of recycled water for agricultural irrigation.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 1235

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 7, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 1235 without my signature.

This bill imposes financial management training requirements on elected city, county and special district officials at potentially significant costs to the state. I believe local governments can impose appropriate financial management training without the aid of the State General Fund.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 1401

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 7, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 1401 without my signature.

Jury service, like voting, is quintessentially a prerogative and responsibility of citizenship. This bill would permit lawful permanent residents who are not citizens to serve on a jury. I don't think that's right.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Receipt of Bills

I acknowledge receipt this 7th day of October, 2013, at 12:12 p.m., of the following Assembly Bills without the Governor's signature, together with a statement of his objections thereto, signed by the Governor, delivered to me personally by Michael Mullaney: Assembly Bills Nos. 571, 1200, 1235, and 1401.

SUE PARKER
Assistant Chief Clerk of the Assembly

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 411

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 8, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 411 without my signature.

Nothing in current law prevents the Department of Health Care Services from requiring its external quality review organization to provide more detailed data by geography, race, ethnicity, or other demographic attribute.

If the department sees a need or benefit that justifies the costs of procuring this additional data, I am confident that they will procure it.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Receipt of Bills

I acknowledge receipt this 8th day of October, 2013, at 12:07 p.m., of the following Assembly Bill without the Governor's signature, together with a statement of his objections thereto, signed by the Governor, delivered to me personally by Michael Mullaney: Assembly Bill No. 411.

SUE PARKER
Assistant Chief Clerk of the Assembly

Item Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 240

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 8, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am signing Assembly Bill 240 but reducing the amount appropriated from Proposition 84 funds.

The author notes that much progress has been made in Maywood by the mutual water companies that serve the community and its partners, including the Water Replenishment District.

For these reasons I am reducing the appropriation from $7,500,000 to $1,000,000. In addition to this bill's appropriation, I also signed AB 115 that will allow the public agencies to apply on behalf of other public water systems for the benefit of the communities. The Replenishment District will have the ability to continue to partner with the companies through the existing competitive process.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Receipt of Line Item Veto

I acknowledge receipt this 8th day of October at 11:42 a.m., of the following Governor's statement of the line item veto from Assembly Bill No. 240 delivered to me personally by Michael Mullaney.

SUE PARKER
Assistant Chief Clerk of the Assembly

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 50

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 9, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

Assembly Bill 50 would provide "full-scope" health care coverage for pregnant women between 60 and 100 percent of federal poverty level, during the first and second trimesters of pregnancy, if they otherwise meet Medi-Cal eligibility requirements. Currently, pregnant women in this and higher income groups (up to 200 percent of the federal poverty level), receive all medically necessary services related to their pregnancy.

While I support this policy, I can't support this bill.

Through the 2013 Budget Act and AB 1 and SB 1 in this year's special session, we enacted a historic expansion of our state's Medi-Cal program. Many trade-offs were made in determining our ultimate policy direction. Expanding coverage options for pregnant women, however, remained unresolved.

Rather than enacting a piecemeal change, further discussion should take place on the entire category of pregnancy-only coverage, not just women between 60–100 percent of the federal poverty level.

The development of the 2014–15 budget is underway. I am directing the Department of Health Care Services to work on a more complete proposal for January.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 174

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 9, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

Assembly Bill 174 aims to establish a pilot program in Alameda County, using non-state funds to provide school-based mental health services for students impacted by trauma.

I support the efforts of the bill but am returning it without my signature, as Alameda County can establish such a program without state intervention and may even be able to use Mental Health Services Act funding to do so.

Waiting for the state to act may cause unnecessary delays in delivering valuable mental health services to students. All counties—not just Alameda— should explore potential funding options, including Mental Health Services Act funds, to tailor programs that best meet local needs.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 477

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 9, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

Assembly Bill 477 would add notaries public to the list of professionals mandated to report suspected financial abuse of elder and dependent adults.

I am not convinced that notaries, with their very limited interactions, should be placed in the position of being a mandated reporter. Others who are expressly mandated by law to report abuse typically have some level of relationship or more regular contact with the elder or dependent adult, or have some level of training in identifying abuse. For mandated reporting of financial abuse, officers and employees of financial institutions are required to report based on their access to financial information.

Notaries generally have no more than fleeting contact with individuals who request their services. If some transaction or situation should arise that gives them pause or appears suspect, notaries may already make a report without this law.

I believe that voluntary education and outreach efforts to notaries about financial abuse would better suit this class of professionals.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 888

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 9, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 888 without my signature.

This bill allows the State Bar to bring a civil action for the unlawful practice of law.

We already have adequate enforcement mechanisms and remedies to stop the unlicensed practice of law through the existing powers of the State Bar or through the authority of the Attorney General and local prosecutors to bring civil and criminal actions.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 1231

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 9, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 1231 without my signature.

This bill would require the Department of Developmental Services to inform regional centers that any appropriate health care service, including dentistry, may be provided through telehealth. The bill would additionally require the department to ask regional centers to consider using telehealth in their parent training programs and provide technical assistance on telehealth.

Everything required by this bill either can be done, or is already being done, under existing law.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Receipt of Bills

I acknowledge receipt this 9th day of October, 2013, at 12:10 p.m., of the following Assembly Bills without the Governor's signature, together with a statement of his objections thereto, signed by the Governor, delivered to me personally by Michael Mullaney: Assembly Bills Nos. 50, 174, 477, 888, and 1231.

SUE PARKER
Assistant Chief Clerk of the Assembly

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 300

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 10, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 300 without my signature.

This bill would establish an additional system for collecting and remitting fees, surcharges and taxes applicable to prepaid mobile services. These charges would be collected from prepaid customers and remitted to the Board of Equalization, while fees collected from postpaid customers would continue to be remitted directly to the Public Utilities Commission, State 911 Fund and local governments.

There is no question that the state needs an effective system for capturing local taxes related to the sale of prepaid phones. The solution, however, proposed by this bill is duplicative, complex and will result in significant and unnecessary costs to the state.

I encourage the author to partner with the local governments and State Agencies affected by these revenues and craft a bill with a more cost effective solution.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 375

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 10, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 375 without my signature.

The goal of this bill is to simplify the process for hearing and deciding teacher dismissal cases. I have listened at great length to arguments both for and against this measure. While I agree that it makes worthwhile adjustments to the dismissal process, such as lifting the summer moratorium on the filing of charges and eliminating some opportunities for delay, other changes make the process too rigid and could create new problems.

I am particularly concerned that limiting the number of depositions to five per side, regardless of the circumstances, and restricting a district's ability to amend charges even if new evidence comes to light, may do more harm than good.

I share the authors' desire to streamline the teacher discipline process, but this bill is an imperfect solution. I encourage the Legislature to continue working with stakeholders to identify changes that are balanced and reduce procedural complexities.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 622

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 10, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 622 without my signature.

Local school districts have been authorizing charters schools for over 20 years through proceedings that are both noticed and public. The new requirements contained in this bill would not, in my opinion, improve the current chartering process.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 704

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 10, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

Assembly Bill 704 would require the Emergency Medical Services Authority to adopt regulations to accept U.S. military experience and training toward the qualifications and prerequisites for emergency medical technician and paramedic certifications.

Current regulations already allow most military experience and training to count; and where there may be a discrepancy, the regulations allow an individual to petition they be accepted, or complete additional courses or training prior to testing for certification.

I strongly support efforts to adapt the skills and training veterans have acquired in the military to a civilian environment. Rather than signing this bill, however, I will direct the Emergency Medical Services Authority to act within its administrative authority to clarify the process for making prior experience count, without the cumbersome or overlong process that regulations would entail.

This will ensure that all veterans have the information they need—sooner rather than later—to apply proper credit for their military experience toward their desired certifications.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 1287

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 10, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 1287 without my signature.

This bill expands Cal Grant eligibility by allowing students who no longer meet financial eligibility requirements to put their Cal Grant award on reserve status until they become eligible. This change results in a costly expansion of the program.

While I agree that the current Cal Grant program is not perfect, I am not convinced that AB 1287 is the right solution. I remain committed to helping students succeed and see merit in reviewing the current policy. However, I am reluctant to commit limited state resources to expand the Cal Grant program in this way.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 1409

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 10, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 1409 without my signature.

Currently, the Public Utilities Commission has an open proceeding to revise the California Lifeline Program to authorize non-traditional carriers to participate in the program and receive reimbursement for services provided to customers from the lifeline fund.

The last minute amendments included in this bill would legislatively preempt the outcome of this proceeding that has taken public comment from hundreds of California citizens. While I am sensitive to the concerns of some in the cable industry about the length of time this process has taken, I prefer to give that public process a chance to be completed before I decide whether legislation of this type is needed.

One final note; I urge the Public Utilities Commission to meet with the cable industry to explore ways it can participation in the Lifeline Program with some reasonable level of oversight.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Receipt of Bills

I acknowledge receipt this 10th day of October, 2013, at 12:45 p.m., of the following Assembly Bills without the Governor's signature, together with a statement of his objections thereto, signed by the Governor, delivered to me personally by Michael Mullaney: Assembly Bills Nos. 300, 375, 622, 704, 1287, and 1409.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 12

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 11, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 12 without my signature.

Two years ago, I signed legislation that significantly revised the regulatory review process. As a result, beginning this November the Department of Finance will review the economic impact of regulations before they are published. The annual review proposed by this bill would duplicate those efforts.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 169

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 11, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 169 without my signature.

Current law restricts the sale of so-called "off roster" handguns—with several exemptions. Exemptions include sales between private parties and sales of single-shot handguns. Current law also prohibits the sale of more than five handguns per year, whether off-roster or not, except by a licensed firearms dealer.

AB 169 would close a loophole in the single-shot exemption. That makes sense.

The bill would also restrict private party off-roster sales to two per year. I do not support restricting sales in this way without evidence that such restrictions would improve public safety.

I will work with the Bureau of Firearms in the Department of Justice to ensure better tracking and enforcement to prevent individuals from violating the existing five-per-year limit.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 180

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 11, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 180 without my signature.

The State of California has among the strictest gun laws in the country. Allowing individual cities to enact their own more restrictive firearms regulations will sow confusion and uncertainty.

I am mindful of the challenges the City of Oakland faces in addressing gun violence, but this is not the right solution.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 199

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 11, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 199 without my signature.

This bill would require the state to implement a preference for agricultural products grown in California and offered by a California company. This preference would be difficult to comply with and quite onerous. Every purchase, even a single bag of apples, would be affected.

I strongly support California's agricultural industry and encourage all state-run institutions to support local farmers and businesses. In fact, state growers and processors have no trouble competing for—and winning—the state's business. Today, approximately half of all food the Department of General Services purchases for state institutions comes from California, without a preference or a mandate.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 729

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 11, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 729 without my signature.

This bill would establish an evidentiary privilege to prohibit the disclosure of confidential communications between represented employees and their union agents.

I don't believe it is appropriate to put communications with a union agent on equal footing with communications with one's spouse, priest, physician or attorney. Moreover, this bill could compromise the ability of employers to conduct investigations into workplace safety, harassment and other allegations.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 1208

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 11, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 1208 without my signature.

AB 1208 would mandate that the single, standardized application for health insurance affordability programs include questions related to race, ethnicity, primary language, disability status, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, so that applicants can voluntarily report this information beginning in 2015.

We don't need to mandate these requirements in law. The Department of Health Care Services and Covered California already have the authority to modify these types of questions on the form, and they can work constructively with stakeholders to decide what is necessary to change for 2015 and beyond.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 1290

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 11, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 1290 without my signature.

This bill adds two voting members to the 11 voting-member California Transportation Commission (Commission) and requires additional reporting on regional planning issues.

The author's intent for this bill is to ensure the state's transportation planning policy focuses on air quality and land use issues. The Governor's Reorganization Plan that went into effect July 1 of this year requires the Department of Transportation, the Department of Housing and Community Development, and the Commission to coordinate housing and transportation policies and programs. I think these changes will fully satisfy the author's objectives for this bill.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Item Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 1042

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 11, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am signing Assembly Bill 1042 but reducing the amount appropriated from the Indian Gaming Special Distribution Fund as noted below.

I am committed to providing support to local government agencies impacted by gaming but I continue to have serious concerns about the long-term solvency of the Indian Gaming Special Distribution Fund. There is a structural imbalance which needs to be addressed.

I have made a concerted effort to negotiate compacts which will begin to address the problem. Opposition, however to two recently negotiated compacts has prevented the revenue which would have been generated to benefit this special fund. This has led to a potential shortfall and subsequent pressure on the General Fund.

For these reasons I am reducing the appropriation from $13,000,000 to $9,100,000.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Receipt of Line Item Veto

I acknowledge receipt this 11th day of October at 12:20 p.m., of the Governor's statement of the line item veto from Assembly Bill No. 1042 delivered to me personally by Michael Mullaney.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 822

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 12, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 822 without my signature.

By requiring that a governing body provide an actuarial analysis and hold a public hearing for every pension-related measure that qualifies for the ballot, this bill imposes another mandate on local governments.

If a local governing body believes that an in depth fiscal analysis of a measure is needed, they can provide one—without the state telling them to do so.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 857

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 12, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 857 without my signature.

The initiative process is far from perfect and monied interests have historically manipulated it at will. Nevertheless, fixing the system is not easy.

Requiring a specific threshold of signatures to be gathered by volunteers will not stop abuses by narrow special interests—particularly if "volunteer" is defined with the broad exemptions as in this bill.

Efforts to make the system fairer and more reflective of sound government should be considered. But this measure falls short of returning to the citizen-driven system originally envisioned in 1911.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 917

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 12, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 917 without my signature.

This bill would impose additional requirements for establishing or converting to a charter school.

This bill is almost identical to AB 86, that I vetoed in 2011.

I continue to believe the existing process is tough enough.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 921

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 12, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 921 without my signature.

Among its provisions, the bill would allow any social worker to comment on any child welfare services policy, procedure and practice, or any publicly released child fatality case, with impunity.

While this bill has the best of intentions, it overreaches. The judgment of social workers should be valued, but we don't need a law to protect their opinions, and theirs alone. Social workers, like other public or private employees, already have "whistleblower" protections for illegal acts they report. Specific county policies and practices that are legal but problematic should be resolved at the county level, or through legislation as a last resort, when counties cannot do it on their own.

Social workers, the state and counties all have a duty to protect children who are abused and neglected. We should all work together in good faith to that end.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 999

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 12, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 999 without my signature.

This bill would require the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation to develop a plan to expand the availability of condoms to all California prisons.

The Department currently allows family visitors to bring condoms for the purpose of the family overnight visitation program. While expansion of the program may be warranted, the Department should evaluate and implement this expansion carefully and within its existing authority.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 1127

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 12, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 1127 without my signature.

This bill requires the Judicial Council to establish a working group to develop what are being termed "best practices" for providing interpreters in civil court proceedings and further to conduct a pilot project to implement those practices.

The Judicial Council already has authority to establish a pilot project and has two excellent advisory committees working to develop a language access plan for our courts.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 1128

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 12, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 1128 without my signature.

This bill would allow a felony to be charged if a person knowingly provides alcohol to an underage drinker, whose alcohol consumption thereafter causes injury or death.

The behavior targeted by this bill is already a misdemeanor and I am not convinced it should be made into a felony.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 302

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 13, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 302 without my signature.

This measure seeks to codify a definition of the term 'de minimus' for purposes of what level of public subsidy triggers prevailing wage requirements on an otherwise private project.

Longstanding practice has been to view the subsidy in context of the project and use 2% as a general threshold for determinations. By codifying a standard that establishes 'de minimus' as less than 1% and less than $25,000 few, if any, projects receiving public subsidies will be found to be exempt from prevailing wage requirements.

While I remain a staunch supporter of prevailing wages and the associated quality work and good paying jobs, I am concerned that this measure is too restrictive. Finally, there has been no showing that the current practice is unreasonable.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 454

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 13, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 454 without my signature.

I agree disability payments should be determined based on the lawful wages paid, or that should have been paid, to an injured worker. I am not convinced that this is not the existing practice. Further, requiring a claims administrator to make prevailing wage determinations as this measure proposes is a bad idea.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 564

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 13, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 564 without my signature.

This bill makes policy changes that are contrary to the letter and intent of current law. These changes would severely limit the state's ability to ensure that Successor Agencies fulfill their obligation to wind down redevelopment affairs in an expeditious manner.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 566

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 13, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 566 without my signature.

I agree with the author that decisions to change the way court services are provided should be carefully evaluated to ensure they are both fair and cost-effective. However, this measure goes too far. It requires California's courts to meet overly detailed and—in some cases—nearly impossible requirements when entering into or renewing certain contracts. Other provisions are unclear and will lead to confusion about what services may or may not be subject to this measure.

The courts, like many of our governmental agencies, are under tremendous funding pressure and face the challenge of doing their work at a lower cost. I am unwilling to restrict the flexibility of our courts, as specified in this bill, as they face these challenges.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 662

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 13, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 662 without my signature.

This measure would provide flexibility to cities and successor agencies around the state currently winding down their redevelopment affairs. More importantly, this bill would authorize cities to create Infrastructure Financing Districts within the boundaries of former redevelopment project areas, as well as provide additional property taxes for administrative costs to the local housing authorities currently managing stranded housing assets. Unfortunately, as currently written, the language to authorize new or amended contracts to existing enforceable obligations could result in unintended costs to the General Fund.

I applaud the author for her efforts to improve the dissolution process. Therefore, I am directing my administration to work with the author's office to make changes to the bill's language in a manner that avoids those costs. When these changes are made, I look forward to seeing the measure return to my desk for signature.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 855

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 13, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 855 without my signature.

This bill seeks to remedy the rare circumstance when the state misapplies the absent without leave statute, forcing both the state and the employee to go to court to resolve the dispute. In these cases, both the state and the employee incur both delay and significant expenses. This does not make sense.

I am directing the Government Operations Agency and CalHR, as well as all of my department heads, to reinstate an employee in the limited instances when the state has improperly dismissed that employee under Government Code 19996.2, and there are no other grounds for dismissal. CalHR should develop any required administrative or regulatory changes necessary to effectuate this change.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 994

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 13, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 994 without my signature.

This bill requires every prosecuting agency to establish a post-plea misdemeanor diversion program.

Counties can establish diversion programs under current law, and many already have excellent diversion programs that suit their local circumstances. I believe prosecutors and counties are best situated to decide whether, or what kind of, a diversion program would be appropriate.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 1113

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 13, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 1113 without my signature.

This measure expands restrictions on teenage drivers based on time of day and age.

Current law requires a teen to first obtain an instructional permit beginning at age 15½ for six months, followed by a provisional driver license for 12 months. A driver with a provisional license is prohibited both from transporting someone under the age of 20 and from driving between the hours of 11 PM and 5 AM. The statistics indicate that these restrictions have been effective in saving lives.

I understand and agree with the need to address factors that contribute to the unnecessary accidents and deaths of young Californians on our highways, and commend Assemblyman Frazier for his efforts.

Rather than imposing yet even more restrictions on a teenager's driving privilege, I am directing the Department of Motor Vehicles, California Highway Patrol, and Office of Traffic Safety to implement a teen driver training and education program to improve transportation safety for provisional drivers.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 1140

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 13, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 1140 without my signature.

This measure requires contractors on public works projects to increase workers' pay any time the state updates its prevailing wage rates. This is intended to address the circumstance where a non-union contractor is not required to adjust wages mid-project but a union contractor is subject to such adjustments pursuant to a collective bargaining agreement.

In most cases, projects are bid, awarded and completed in a relatively short period of time and this measure would have little, if any impact. Larger, long term projects are the more likely setting for the union/non-union wage differential this bill seeks to address. Unfortunately, introducing such wage adjustments as proposed by this measure is likely to lead to uncertainty in the cost of public works projects and increase costs ultimately borne by the taxpayers.

Finally, many collective bargaining agreements already address this limited circumstance by allowing wage rates to remain at the level determined by the state at the time of the bid, award or start of the contract. Given this, I do not find a statutory change warranted to address the issue raised by this measure.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 1165

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 13, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 1165 without my signature.

I share the author's concern that workplace safety risks need to be abated quickly and not delayed during the appeals process.

Unfortunately, this measure would require the creation of a separate hearing process at the Division of Occupational Safety and Health—duplicating an expedited Cal/OSHA Appeals Board process which was recently adopted.

I am directing Cal/OSHA to consult with the author to make sure the Appeals Board process is working as intended and, if necessary, to recommend any additional administrative or regulatory actions that may be needed.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 1229

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 13, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 1229 without my signature.

This bill would supersede the holding of Palmer v. City of Los Angeles and allow local governments to require inclusionary housing in new residential development projects.

As Mayor of Oakland, I saw how difficult it can be to attract development to low and middle income communities. Requiring developers to include below-market units in their projects can exacerbate these challenges, even while not meaningfully increasing the amount of affordable housing in a given community.

The California Supreme Court is currently considering when a city may insist on inclusionary housing in new developments. I would like the benefit of the Supreme Court's thinking before we make adjustments in this area.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 1263

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 13, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 1263 without my signature.

The bill would require the Department of Health Care Services to establish the CommuniCal program to certify and restructure current interpreter services provided under Medi-Cal.

California has embarked on an unprecedented expansion to add more than a million people to our Medi-Cal program. Given the challenges and the many unknowns the state faces in this endeavor, I don't believe it would be wise to introduce yet another complex element.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 1373

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 13, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 1373 without my signature.

This measure is identical to the one I vetoed last year.

At that time, I outlined the information needed to properly evaluate the implications of this bill. I have not yet received that information.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Signing Messages

Governor's Message—Assembly Bill No. 327

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 7, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am signing Assembly Bill 327.

This comprehensive rate reform legislation provides the California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC) with the necessary authority to address current electricity rate inequities, protect low-income energy users and maintain robust incentives for renewable energy investments.

Specifically, the bill gives the CPUC the authority to craft a new electricity rate structure while increasing statutory discounts for qualified low-income customers. It also requires the electric utilities to develop distribution infrastructure plans to ensure that ratepayer dollars are being utilized in the most efficient way possible. Finally, the bill makes it clear that California's 33% Renewable Portfolio Standard is a floor, not a ceiling.

As the CPUC considers rules regarding grandfathering of net metering customers, I expect the Commission to ensure that customers who took service under net metering prior to reaching the statutory net metering cap on or before July 1, 2017, are protected under those rules for the expected life of their systems.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Governor's Message—Assembly Bill No. 576

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 7, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am signing Assembly Bill 576.

This bill creates the Revenue Recovery and Collaborative Enforcement Team charged with combatting the underground economy. Reducing this problem is already the focus of two other interdepartmental teams.

I am signing AB 576 today, but because it does not state specific responsibilities for who will head the team and be responsible for its work, I am instructing the Department of Industrial Relations to take the lead. The Department will ensure that the three teams work together and avoid any overlap of efforts.

I also want the Department to make recommendations to me on ways to improve our effectiveness in attacking the underground economy.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Governor's Message—Assembly Bill No. 219

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 9, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

Last year, in vetoing AB 1000, a bill that sought to provide cost-sharing parity between oral and intravenous anticancer medications, I directed my Department of Managed Health Care to work with the author to find alternative approaches to alleviating the high cost of these drugs for patients.

AB 219 achieves this by limiting co-payments or co-insurance to no more than $200 for a 30-day supply of an oral anticancer drug. This provides good value for patients of modest means.

This policy, however, is not without the potential for unintended consequences. Higher drug prices, higher premium costs, and an expectation that our state laws can solve each pricing problem that arises—these cannot be the outcome of our good intentions.

Placing a price cap for a specific class of drugs for a specific class of diseases may not be a policy for the ages. This bill, with a sunset, permits us to examine what effects—intentional or unintended—this bill may have before we embrace it for the longer term.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Governor's Message—Assembly Bill No. 955

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 10, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am signing AB 955 which establishes a voluntary pilot program allowing a handful of California community colleges to offer high demand courses during the summer and winter intersessions. This seems like a reasonable experiment.

Why deny these campuses the opportunity to offer students access and financial assistance to courses not otherwise available?

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Governor's Message—Assembly Bill No. 628

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 11, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am signing Assembly Bill 628.

This bill authorizes harbor and port districts to develop energy management plans that at a minimum include measures developed jointly with an electrical corporation, gas corporations, community choice aggregators, or a publicly-owned electric or gas utility.

In order for these plans to be truly comprehensive in reducing air emissions, enhancing energy efficiency, and promoting economic development, the ports should consult with all public and private partners including independent energy providers, demand response companies, and distributed generation companies.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Governor's Message—Assembly Bill No. 711

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 11, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am signing Assembly Bill 711.

This bill would prohibit the use of lead ammunition when taking wildlife with a firearm. It would also require the Fish and Game Commission to promulgate regulations by July 1, 2015 that phase in these requirements no later than July 1, 2019.

Lead poses a danger to wildlife. This danger has been known for a long time—in 1894 one of the founders of the wildlife conservation movement in America, George Bird Grinnell, wrote about lead poisoning in Forest and Stream, a precursor to today's Field and Stream magazine, and there is much published scientific literature from the 1950s on regarding this danger. In 1991, the US Fish and Wildlife Service banned lead in waterfowl hunting across the nation. Since 2007, California has prohibited it in the eight counties within the condor range. In fact, at least thirty other states regulate lead ammunition in some manner.

I am concerned, however, the impression left from this bill is that hunters and sportsmen and women in California are not conservationists. I know that is not the case. Hunters and anglers are the original conservationists. Since the 1930s, hunters have done more than any other community to conserve species and their habitats, and that is a lasting conservation legacy.

I am able to sign this bill because of amendments made to it that better protect the hunting community. The bill in its original form did not contain any such protections. Even though alternatives to lead ammunition exist today, it is notable that the bill took the extra precaution to authorize the Director of Fish and Wildlife to suspend the statewide ban on lead ammunition in the event that the federal government prohibits nonlead ammunition because it is considered armor piercing.

In addition, the bill: (a) allows an additional year for the California Fish and Game Commission to promulgate an implementing rule; (b) pushes back the date for full ban almost five years to July 2019 so that hunters have more time to transition; (c) requires adoption of already approved nontoxic shotgun ammunition; and, (d) permits trace amounts of lead in certified nonlead ammunition to avoid enforcement and compliance concerns.

I am directing the Department to work tirelessly with the Commission and its constituents to consider and act on any and all options for facilitating the least disruptive phase-in, including incentives for hunters to make this transition.

The risks to California's incredibly diverse wildlife are many. We must manage our state's wildlife for the use and enjoyment of all Californians. It is time to begin this transition and provide hunters with ammunition that will allow them to continue the conservation heritage of California.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Governor's Message—Assembly Bill No. 1213

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 11, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am signing Assembly Bill 1213.

This bill would prohibit commercial trapping of bobcats in areas adjacent to national and state parks, national monuments, or wildlife refuges in which trapping is currently prohibited. It would also require the Fish and Game Commission to consider whether to prohibit the trapping of bobcats in land adjacent to preserves, state conservancies, and any other public or private conservation area identified by the public for protection.

In order to ensure appropriate implementation of this Act, I am asking the Legislature to work with my Department to secure funding to survey our bobcat population. Based on this work, the Department and the Commission should consider setting population thresholds and bobcat trapping tag limitations in its upcoming rulemaking.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Governor's Message—Assembly Bill No. 1217

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 13, 2013

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

Assembly Bill 1217 would create a regulatory framework for the private homecare industry and home care aides.

Last year, I vetoed a more expansive bill, because I did not think that the time was right to create costly new regulatory burdens, given the economic uncertainty for many businesses and families in the homecare world.

I am signing AB 1217 because it strikes a better balance between consumer protection and industry regulation, and because the author's office and legislative leadership have committed to delay the bill's effective date by one year to January 1, 2016.

The delay, coupled with other clarifying changes, will give the Department of Social Services enough time to accomplish what the bill seeks to achieve, and ultimately provide for smoother implementation of these good consumer protections.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

REPORTS

The following letters of transmittal were presented by the Chief Clerk and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2013-601
September 26, 2013

The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Members of the Assembly: As authorized by Chapter 251, Statutes of 2004, the California State Auditor presents this audit report assessing high-risk issues the State and selected state agencies face. Systematically identifying and addressing high-risk issues can contribute to enhanced efficiency and effectiveness by focusing the State's resources on improving the delivery of services related to important programs or functions.

We have added the 2011 realignment of funding and responsibility between the State and local governments to the high-risk list. Realignment shifts funding and responsibility for certain criminal justice and social services programs, totaling approximately $6 billion, primarily to county governments. The State does not currently have access to robust data concerning the results of realignment. As a result, the impact of realignment cannot be fully evaluated at this time. Even so, initial data indicates that local jails may not have adequate capacity and services to handle the influx of inmates caused by realignment.

We believe the State continues to face eight other significant high-risk issues: the state budget, funding for the California State Teachers' Retirement System, funding retiree health benefits for state employees, funding for deteriorating infrastructure, ensuring a stable supply of electricity, workforce and succession planning, strengthening emergency preparedness, and providing effective oversight of the State's information technology projects. We further believe that three state agencies continue to meet our criteria for high risk as they face challenges in their day-to-day operations: the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, the California Department of Health Care Services, and the California Department of Public Health.

We will continue to monitor the risks we have identified in this report and the actions the State takes to address them. When the State's actions result in significant progress toward resolving or mitigating these risks, we will remove the high-risk designation based on our professional judgment.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE, CPA
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Accountability and Administrative Review.

California State Auditor

2013-107
October 15, 2013

The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the California State Auditor presents this audit report concerning state bank accounts that exist outside of the treasury system (outside accounts) and their oversight.

This report concludes that funds in outside accounts generally serve valid purposes, such as safeguarding money held in trust or allowing for certain benefits and efficiencies that are not available through California's Centralized Treasury System. As of June 30, 2012, the State's departments, agencies, and other entities (state agencies) had approximately $9.3 billion in nearly 1,400 outside accounts. For most of this money, state agencies have properly created and maintained the accounts. Also, the California Department of Finance (Finance), the Office of the State Treasurer (state treasurer), and the California State Controller's Office (state controller) each fulfilled its responsibility for authorizing and reporting on these outside accounts. Nonetheless, weaknesses in the control agencies' tracking of these outside accounts have created potential problems. These weaknesses include the state controller's failure to include all the state agencies that have outside accounts in its annual reporting on such agencies as well as the state treasurer's uncertainty about the existence of sufficient collateral—safeguards in the form of securities deposited at outside institutions—for all of the balances in outside accounts. The state agencies we reviewed, with the exception of the California Department of Forestry and Fire Protection (Cal Fire), properly created and generally have adequate controls related to their outside accounts. However, as discussed in the report, we found that it is still possible for an agency to bypass state rules and its own policies.

Cal Fire had $3.7 million in settlement payments for the cost of fire suppression and investigation (cost recovery revenues) deposited into an outside account—the Wildland Fire and Investigation Training and Equipment Fund (Wildland Fire Fund)—that was neither authorized by statute nor approved by Finance. Further, it did not subject the money in this outside account to its own internal controls, nor did it adequately track or monitor the account's revenues. As a result, this portion of Cal Fire's cost recovery revenue was not subject to Cal Fire's normal internal controls or to oversight by the control agencies or the Legislature, leaving Cal Fire open to possible misuse of these revenues.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE, CPA
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Banking and Finance.

California State Auditor

2013-102
October 31, 2013

The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the California State Auditor (state auditor) presents this audit report concerning the Employment Development Department's (department) services to help veterans find employment.

The report concludes that the department has consistently failed to meet certain goals the U.S. Department of Labor (Labor) established to assist veterans with finding employment. In April 2013 Labor notified the department of multiple lapses in program accountability and reported that the department did not meet key performance measures for the veterans program. In fact, Labor indicated that California is among the lowest performing states when measuring the rate at which veterans participating in the department's programs find jobs. We also determined that while the department routinely reports performance data to Labor, it does not make programmatic decisions based on how veterans fare in obtaining employment compared to nonveterans. Furthermore, the department does not have a formal data collection process to track goals the department established in its five-year plan for the Jobs for Veterans State Grant. Overall, we noted that the department's approach to managing its veterans programs has been to focus on complying with federal grant management requirements instead of finding ways to use its existing data to identify opportunities to improve services to veterans.

We also determined that the poor quality of the data California uses to report information to Labor on participants in its workforce development system, and the methodology the department uses to collate those data call into question the validity of California's performance statistics. The department uses its Base Wage File to report on the rate at which veterans find and retain employment and their average earnings. However, in analyzing information in the Base Wage File, we identified more than 1,400 instances where a single Social Security number was associated with 10 or more names. We noted one instance where one Social Security number was associated with 162 different names. In addition to raising concern about the validity of California's performance statistics, the existence of different names associated with one Social Security number is a possible indicator of identity theft. Yet, according to the department it does not investigate errors in this file until individuals apply for unemployment benefits.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE, CPA
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Labor and Employment.

Dear Chief Clerk: I am writing this letter to reinforce the intent of a letter sent to State Controller John Chiang in June regarding the 5.3% pay raise for California Legislators.

In addition to declining the 5.3% pay increase approved by the California Citizens Compensation Commission, which took effect December 2nd, I want to make it clear that I also want to decline the accompanying increase for in-session per diem.

My understanding is that the per diem rate will be increased from $141.86 to $163.00, and I would like my per diem maintained at the $141.86/day rate. Thank you for your attention on this matter.

Godspeed,

REPORTS

California State Auditor
Investigative Report I2011-0837
October 17, 2013

The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Members of the Assembly: Pursuant to the California Whistleblower Protection Act, the California State Auditor presents this investigative report concerning the wasteful and improper contracting practices of a veterans home administrator under the California Department of Veterans Affairs (Veterans Affairs). The administrator's actions in executing two specific contracts demonstrated her disregard for state contracting rules and the importance of using funds reserved specifically for veterans in a prudent manner.

This report concludes that the veterans home administrator wasted $652,919 in state-managed funds when she entered into two contracts on behalf of the home. The first contract was for the construction and operation of an adventure park featuring seven zip lines on almost 200 acres of state property. This contract cost the State $228,612 to terminate after Veterans Affairs' top management learned about it and halted construction. The second contract was for the operation of a café and tavern at the home, which did not comply with state contracting requirements and needlessly cost $424,307 over nearly a two-year period, even though the café and tavern could have been operated by another entity at little to no cost to the home.

The contracts were a product of the administrator neglecting her duty to evaluate whether the contracts complied with state contracting requirements, constituted a prudent use of the home's resources, and served the best interests of the residents of the home. We also found that the administrator's former supervisor, a member of Veterans Affairs' executive staff, neglected his duty to monitor the facilities of the home and oversee the administrator's activities.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE, CPA
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Veterans Affairs.

2013-103

The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the California State Auditor (state auditor) presents this audit report concerning the reporting and identification of persons with mental illness who are prohibited from owning or possessing a firearm.

This report concludes that the Department of Justice (Justice) has not sufficiently reached out to superior courts (courts) or mental health facilities to remind them of firearm prohibition reporting requirements in state law. We surveyed 34 courts that did not appear to be submitting firearm prohibition reports to Justice's mental health unit from 2010 through 2012 and learned that most of them were unaware of the reporting requirements. Those courts who were able to do so indicated that they had not reported about 2,300 mental health determinations to Justice over the three-year period. We also visited three courts that did report information—Los Angeles, San Bernardino, and Santa Clara—and found these courts did not report all required mental health determinations to Justice. Further, Justice was not aware of and has not reached out to all mental health facilities in the State that were approved to treat reportable individuals.

Justice needs to improve its controls over processing the information about persons with mental illness that it receives from reporting entities. For example, we found that some key staff decisions, such as determining that a specific individual is not an armed prohibited person, are not subject to supervisory review once staff complete training. In fact, three of eight such decisions we reviewed were incorrect, and the lack of supervisory review may have contributed to these incorrect decisions. Similarly, decisions to delete prohibition information in the Mental Health Firearms Prohibition System do not require supervisory review.

In May 2013 the governor signed into law a $24 million appropriation to provide additional support to Justice's effort to confiscate firearms from individuals it has identified as armed prohibited persons. As of July 2013 Justice reported that more than 20,800 persons were still deemed to be armed prohibited persons for a variety of reasons not limited to mental health, and these persons had not had their firearms confiscated. Justice has begun the process of hiring additional enforcement agents. However, because Justice uses the information it receives from courts and mental health facilities to identify persons who are prohibited from possessing a firearm, Justice must improve its outreach to these entities and strengthen its management of the information it does receive to ensure it does all it can to protect the public.

Respectfully submitted,

California State Auditor

2013-101
November 21, 2013

The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the California State Auditor (state auditor) presents this audit report concerning the administration of the Salton Sea Restoration Fund (Restoration Fund). The Salton Sea is the State's largest inland lake and serves as an important fishery and wildlife habitat. However, beginning in 2003, a series of agreements, known collectively as the Quantification Settlement Agreement (QSA), between the State, local water agencies, and other entities require, among other things, a water transfer that has reduced the amount of water that flows into the sea. Legislation enacted in 2003 to facilitate the implementation of the QSA, also establishes the State's broad goals for restoring the Salton Sea and established the Restoration Fund.

This report concludes that under the QSA, the State has agreed to assume sole responsibility for payment of the costs for environmental mitigation requirements in excess of the first $133 million (in 2003 dollars), an amount that the QSA requires three local water agencies to pay for this purpose. Although no formal analysis has been conducted, it is roughly estimated that the water agencies could exhaust most of their mitigation contributions as early as 2025, at which time any State financial obligations will commence. However, to date the State has not performed an estimate of these costs. To address restoration of the Salton Sea, the Legislature required the secretary of the California Natural Resources Agency (Resources Agency) to propose alternatives for restoring the Salton Sea. Although the Resources Agency identified various alternatives in 2007, none of them have been fully funded which may be due to the high costs of the alternatives presented—ranging from $2.3 billion to $8.9 billion to construct.

Absent restoration efforts, experts agree that the negative impacts on the Salton Sea will be significant. In fiscal year 2013–14, the Legislature provided funding to the Resources Agency to coordinate with a local entity to create a feasibility study to, among other things, develop feasible alternatives for inclusion in a restoration plan and to develop funding options to achieve restoration goals. However, the provisions governing the feasibility study do not impose a specific deadline for completing the study, do not fully prioritize the steps that must be taken in order to achieve the State's broad restoration goals, and do not require the identification of restoration activities that could lessen the State's future mitigation costs. By performing restoration activities now that are also designed to reduce the need to undertake mitigation activities in the future, the State could potentially decrease its future mitigation costs. Further, the Resources Agency has taken an incremental approach to restoring the Salton Sea and over the last several years has worked with the California Department of Fish and Wildlife and the California Department of Water Resources on planning a project that calls for the restoration of 3,770 acres of the sea—a small fraction of the hundreds of thousands of acres the sea comprises—at an estimated cost of $132 million.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE, CPA
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Water, Parks and Wildlife.

California State Auditor

2013-604
December 3, 2013

The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Members of the Assembly: As authorized by California Government Code, Section 8546.5, the California State Auditor (state auditor) presents this report designating education as a high-risk issue in California. The State is responsible for educating over 6 million students in the kindergarten through 12th grade (K–12) levels and over 2 million higher education students. Despite California spending $42 billion of the $88 billion in State General Fund expenditures on education for fiscal year 2011–12, this investment has not produced the desired outcomes.

This report concludes that recent changes in education have created potential challenges associated with economy, efficiency, and effectiveness. California recently changed the way it allocates funds for K–12 education. This new funding approach—called the local control funding formula (funding formula)—is intended to simplify how local educational agencies (LEAs) are funded and provide them with more control over how they spend the funds. The State intends to invest $25 billion in new funding to fully implement the funding formula by fiscal year 2020–21, but reaching that level of funding will require significant and sustained growth in the State's revenues. In addition, California adopted the common core state standards (common core), which change the way teachers educate K–12 students. Although proponents believe common core promises to better prepare K–12 students for college and the workforce, its implementation poses significant challenges including the need for professional development for teachers; changes to curriculum, instructional materials, and student assessments; and increased investments in technology. Implementing common core is costly: in fiscal year 2013–14 the State committed $1.25 billion to help LEAs offset their costs, but LEAs will certainly incur additional costs.

Further, California's public universities are facing challenges associated with funding and access to education. For example, after years of uncertain funding, the University of California (UC) and the California State University (CSU) systems continue to seek a stable and predictable funding stream. Also, due to budget constraints, students seeking to attend a California public university may face several barriers to accessing this education—the UC and CSU systems have raised tuition to curb enrollment growth and the California Community College system has increased class sizes and cut courses and programs.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE, CPA
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Higher Education.

California State Auditor

2012-113

The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the California State Auditor (state auditor) presents this audit report concerning extended education at the California State University (CSU). Extended education courses and programs are self-supported and are typically paid for by students or third parties, such as employers. We examined extended education at the CSU's Office of the Chancellor (Chancellor's Office) and three of the 23 campuses: CSU Long Beach, CSU Sacramento, and San José State University (San José State). This report concludes that although state law and executive orders issued by the Chancellor's Office prohibit campuses from supplanting state-supported courses with self-supported courses during the regular academic year, they do not define the word supplant. It is not clear whether the state law and executive orders intended to prohibit a campus from replacing all state-supported sections of a course that it would normally offer during the regular academic year with self-supported versions of the same course, or whether replacing some of the sections of that course with self-supported versions would also violate the prohibition. Using a narrower definition, we identified 26 courses where potential supplanting may have occurred. Using a broader definition, we identified 914 instances when the number of state-supported sections of a course declined and the number of self-supported sections for the same course increased from one year to the next.

Contrary to the CSU student fee policy, the three campuses did not always prepare statements of revenues and expenditures when setting fees for extended education programs. Also, two of the three campuses raised student fees using unjustified methodologies. Further, the Chancellor's Office can improve its oversight of extended education fees by reviewing each campus's inventory of fees to determine their appropriateness. Until it does so, the Chancellor's Office cannot identify extended education fees that may be more than adequate to cover the costs of courses and programs. Finally, campuses need to improve their oversight of extended education expenditures. Because of insufficient documentation, we were unable to conclude that 10 of the 41 extended education transactions we tested were reasonable, allowable, or related to the support and development of extended education instructional programs.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORTS

The following letter of transmittal was presented by the Chief Clerk and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2013-302 & 2013-303
December 19, 2013

The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Members of the Assembly: As required by California Public Contract Code, Section 19210, the California State Auditor (state auditor) presents this audit report on certain entities' implementation of the California Judicial Branch Contract Law (judicial contract law). As required by the judicial contract law, the Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) maintains the Judicial Branch Contracting Manual (judicial contracting manual) and issues a semiannual report on procurement activities by the judicial branch. In February 2012, on behalf of the Judicial Council of California—the policy-making body of the California courts—the AOC began submitting the semiannual reports to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee and the state auditor using data from two information systems.

This report concludes that, based on our review of selected controls over the two information systems, pervasive deficiencies exist. The weaknesses we identified could compromise the security and availability of the AOC's and superior courts' information systems, which contain sensitive information such as court case management records and human resources data. Further, we determined that there is an unacceptably high risk that data the AOC and the superior courts use on a daily basis could lead to an incorrect or improper conclusion. In addition to these data system issues, shortcomings in the semiannual report's format have resulted in a report that is of limited usefulness to decision makers and other users. For example, the most recent report spanned 795 pages, but the AOC provided it in a format where the data cannot be readily sorted or filtered. Consequently, users cannot easily identify high-risk payment transactions, contracts, contract amendments, and other information that might be of interest. We believe that it is possible to present the report in an electronic format that allows users to quickly and effectively locate certain information. Further, we believe the AOC should include additional information in the semiannual reports, such as the history of each contract amended during the reporting period.

In addition, the report finds that the AOC, as well as eight other judicial branch entities (judicial entities), generally complied with the judicial contract law's requirements and with the provisions of the judicial contracting manual, but they need to improve certain practices and ensure that staff dealing with procurements are trained in the proper procedures and documentation process. For example, our review found that some of these entities did not consistently procure goods and services using a competitive process. Four of the judicial entities we reviewed could not demonstrate that they competitively procured goods or services totaling approximately $154,000 in five of the 15 instances we reviewed for which competition was required. Moreover, the AOC and the judicial entities did not properly document their justifications for using sole-source procurements rather than a competitive process in nine instances totaling $1.6 million.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE, CPA
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following budget message from the Governor was received and ordered printed in the Journal:

Governor's Office, Sacramento
January 9, 2014

To the Members of the Senate and the Assembly of the California Legislature:

With a decade of intractable deficits behind us, California is poised to take advantage of the recovering economy and the tens of thousands of jobs now being created each month. Each of you can be rightfully proud of the role you played in helping to make this happen. In 2012, of course, the voters completed our task by approving Proposition 30 and its seven years of increased tax revenues.

The 2014–15 Budget continues our investment in schools by providing $10 billion this year alone to give California students a much better chance to succeed. The Budget also provides new money for our colleges and universities with a focus on getting students their degrees in a timely manner. It also funds the expansion of health care coverage to millions of Californians and avoids the early release of serious and violent offenders, while taking important steps to reduce future crime.

Given the vagaries of the business cycle, and particularly the volatility of capital gains income, we must be ever vigilant in the commitment of public funds. In addition, past budgetary borrowing, unfunded retirement obligations, bond costs, and deferred maintenance have created a mountain of long-term liabilities that totals hundreds of billions of dollars. In the face of such liabilities, our current budget surplus is rather modest. That is why wisdom and prudence should be the order of the day.

With respect,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Budget Receipt

I acknowledge receipt this 9th day of January 2014 at 11:04 a.m., of the budget for the 2014–15 fiscal year, together with an explanatory message delivered to me personally by Jacque Roberts.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Campos, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Member Isadore Hall, III, of the 64th Assembly District:

Lord, Thank You for blessing us this day with health, with hope, and with unity. We thank You for the opportunity to stand before You and the people of this great state in honoring one of our nation's greatest sons, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Thank You, Lord, for our shared history and our shared commitment to protect and defend all Californians.

Lord, I was standing in a family friend's kitchen this weekend, and upon their wall was a faded picture of a modest wedding ceremony from the middle half of the last century. The picture showed the young parents of my close friends standing, not in a grand hall, but in what appeared to be someone's living room. Their faces filled with love, in spite of the unrest and uncertainty of the times they lived in. To the left was the profile of the wedding's officiant, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. The picture struck me because it showed a side of Dr. King that few history books will ever record.

Today, we remember Dr. King as a man cast in stone for the ages, a man who started a non-violent revolution that opened the doors of opportunity for millions that had been put down, shut out, and sent away. Yet Dr. King was also a man grounded in the most simple and unifying of emotions—love.

That picture, taken at a time of great unrest for our nation, showed that even in the most trying of times, Dr. King saw great hope in unifying a young couple through the eternal power of love. For that I am thankful, Lord. For that I am grateful, Lord. For that, we stand today and remember, and work to fill our lives with love through these trying times.

In Your name we pray.—AMEN.

State of the State Address
January 22, 2014

I am here today to report on the state of our state, choosing to ignore those who say that Article 5 of our Constitution, which requires the governor to report to the Legislature, is outdated; that you can't report on the condition of our state from Sacramento because California is too spread out and too diverse. It occurred to me that these critics—who have long recited our state's decline—perhaps have nothing to say in the face of California's comeback—except, ''please, don't report it.'' Well, I'm going to report it, and what a comeback it is: A million new jobs since 2010, a budgetary surplus in the billions and a minimum wage rising to $10 an hour!

This year, Californians have a lot to be proud of. For a decade, budget instability was the order of the day. A lethal combination of national recessions, improvident tax cuts and too much spending created a financial sink hole that defied every effort to climb out. But three years later, here we are—with state spending and revenues solidly balanced, and more to come.

For that, I thank all of you—for your courageous and dedicated legislative work. It is truly impressive. I also want to thank the members of my administration who have worked so hard to help make all this happen. But above all else, I think we should thank the voters of California. In 2010, through Proposition 25, they established a majority vote for passage of the state budget. That ended the gridlock. Then, in 2012, they approved the temporary tax increases of Proposition 30. These two initiatives, together with the recovering economy and the tough decisions you took, made all the difference.

But we are not out of the woods and we certainly are not out of the drought. Life is uncertainty, the climate is changing—not for the better—and the business cycle and the stock market are historically volatile, with good years followed by bad, with painful regularity.

And while we know our revenues will fluctuate up and down, our long-term liabilities are enormous and ever growing. Let me list some of them: Over $100 billion for pensions owed to state workers, teachers and judges; tens of billions needed to cover retiree health care; and $65 billion needed to maintain and keep our roads, buildings and other infrastructure in sound repair. We also must account for future risks that could negatively affect our budgets like congressional decisions, natural disasters and the uncertain costs of the Affordable Care Act.

So we can't go back to ''business as usual.'' Boom and bust is our lot and we must follow the ancient advice, recounted in the Book of Genesis, that Joseph gave to the Pharaoh: Put away your surplus during the years of great plenty so you will be ready for the lean years which are sure to follow.

Most governors and legislatures—in modern times—have forgotten this advice. This time we won't do that. We will pay down our debts and remember the lessons of history. The American philosopher, George Santayana, famously said: ''Those who cannot remember the past are condemned to repeat it.'' To help us keep our fiscal realities in mind, I have some playing cards with a chart from this year's budget summary that shows our last 15 budgets. It's not pretty. So I decided to put a picture of Sutter on the other side to keep our spirits up. It will make you smile but also help us not forget.

Fiscal discipline is not the enemy of our democracy but its fundamental predicate. To avoid the mistakes of the past we must spend with great prudence and we must establish a solid rainy day fund, locked into the Constitution.

In 2004, the people voted for a rainy day fund which was found to be unworkable. In 2010, you created another rainy day fund, now scheduled for the November Election. But this latest effort doesn't give the state the option to pay off debt, doesn't deal with the ups and downs of Proposition 98 and doesn't account for spikes in capital gains. So let's fix these flaws before going to the voters. This is work that must be accomplished in the next few months.

Last year, I spoke of the principle of subsidiarity, a rather clunky word that nevertheless points to a profoundly important principle, namely that in our federal system there are separate layers of government, each with its own distinct responsibilities. The Oxford English Dictionary defines subsidiarity as the idea that a ''central authority should have a subsidiary function, performing only those tasks which cannot be performed effectively at a more immediate or local level.''

No better example of this can be found than in your enactment last year of the Local Control Funding Formula. This was a major breakthrough in the way funds are allocated to California's schools so that our laws explicitly recognize the difficult problems faced by low-income families and those whose first language is other than English. As a result, those with less are going to receive more and that is good for all of us.

But something else is at work in this Local Control Funding Formula. Instead of prescriptive commands issued from headquarters here in Sacramento, more general goals have been established for each local school to attain, each in its own way. This puts the responsibility where it has to be: In the classroom and at the local district. With six million students, there is no way the state can micromanage teaching and learning in all the schools from El Centro to Eureka—and we should not even try!

Last week, 324 people from across the state traveled to Sacramento to speak to the State Board of Education about the merits of this new law and the regulations which should be adopted under it. Principals, teachers, students, parents, religious groups and lawyers, all came forward to express their views. Now that shows interest and real commitment! But their work is just beginning. Each local district now has to put into practice what the Local Control Funding Formula has made possible. That, together with new Common Core standards for math and English, will be a major challenge for teachers and local administrators. But they are the ones who can make it work and I have every confidence they will.

In a similar vein, in the field of public safety, we have changed historic practices in our prison system and transferred significant responsibilities to local authorities. The Federal courts, backed up by the United States Supreme Court, have ordered major reductions in our prison population and dramatic improvements in the medical and mental health programs that the state makes available. In response, we have transferred the supervision of tens of thousands of lower level offenders from the state to our 58 counties. This realignment is bold and far reaching, but necessary under the circumstances. And local law enforcement has risen to the occasion.

Our prisons are pioneering new programs and treatments—and so are the counties. Last week, I visited the Lerdo Jail just north of Bakersfield and sat in on some classes. It was moving to hear the men's stories and the struggles they encounter. It was also inspiring to see the enthusiasm of Sheriff Donny Youngblood and his efforts under realignment to work with probation, the district attorney, local judges and the police to try new ways to deter crime and help offenders straighten out their lives.

Of course there are issues with realignment, but together—with our local partners—we are facing them. We have plenty of work ahead of us, including building more capacity at the state and county level and becoming more effective with those who suffer mental illness or who are drug addicted. But we are on the right track.

In all this, your legislative work—particularly funding—is crucial but we should never lose sight of the reality that life is local and that so many things we try to do here in the State Capitol can only be handled by local representatives and leaders. They deal not with the abstractions of law but with the flesh and blood reality of everyday life. That's a lesson I learned firsthand as mayor of Oakland.

Among all our uncertainties, weather is one of the most basic. We can't control it. We can only live with it, and now we have to live with a very serious drought of uncertain duration.

Right now, it is imperative that we do everything possible to mitigate the effects of the drought. I have convened an Interagency Drought Task Force and declared a State of Emergency. We need everyone in every part of the state to conserve water. We need regulators to rebalance water rules and enable voluntary transfers of water and we must prepare for forest fires. As the State Water Action Plan lays out, water recycling, expanded storage and serious groundwater management must all be part of the mix. So too must be investments in safe drinking water, particularly in disadvantaged communities. We also need wetlands and watershed restoration and further progress on the Bay Delta Conservation Plan.

It is a tall order.

But it is what we must do to get through this drought and prepare for the next.

We do not know how much our current problem derives from the build-up of heat-trapping gasses, but we can take this drought as a stark warning of things to come. The United Nations Panel on Climate Change says—with 95 percent confidence—that human beings are changing our climate. This means more droughts and more extreme weather events, and, in California, more forest fires and less snow pack.

As you know, of all the states, and even of most of the countries of the world, California is the leader in dealing with climate change. From AB 32, to our building and appliance efficiency standards, our renewable portfolio standard and our support of electric vehicles, California is leading the way. Nevertheless, in terms of greenhouse gases, our biggest challenge remains the amount of gasoline Californians use. Each year, our motor vehicles use more than 14 billion gallons of gasoline to travel over 330 billion miles. To put those numbers in perspective, the sun is 93 million miles away. Reducing our oil consumption, two thirds of which is imported by ships and tank cars, will take time, breakthrough technologies and steadfast commitment. It will also require that the countries which burn the most fossil fuel join with us. We've started building those partnerships with other states and countries like China. We will go to Mexico next. California can't do this alone.

In so many other ways, California is a pioneer. We have 25 percent of the nation's foreign born and we are the first state in modern times to have a plurality of families of Latino origin. So it's not surprising that California is the state where immigrants can not only dream—they can drive.

We are also the state of innovation, of Silicon Valley and more venture capital investment than any other state—by far.

We're on our way to a million electric vehicles and we're building the nation's only high-speed rail.

We're expanding health care coverage to millions more. And, California is the nation's leader in developing medical and scientific advances that will cure diseases and lower costs. We have six of America's twelve top-performing metropolitan areas in biotechnology: San Diego, San Jose, San Francisco, Oakland, Los Angeles and Orange County. Last year, we created a tax credit to help innovators, in these regions and beyond, hire and expand in California. Four out of the world's twenty leading academic bioscience institutions are located here in California: UCSF and Berkeley, UCLA, Stanford and UC San Diego. Just as California has led the way with stem cell research, so too can we pioneer the new field of precision medicine which uses genomics, medical devices, computer sciences and other fields to treat individual patients, instead of broad populations.

Yes, California is a leader in so many ways. But, the dangers and difficulties we face can never be taken lightly. We still have too many struggling families, too much debt, and too many unknowns when it comes to our climate. Overcoming these challenges will test our vision, our discipline and our ability to persevere. But overcome them we will and as we do, we will build for the future, not steal from it.

REPORTS

The following letter of transmittal was presented by the Chief Clerk and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2013-111

The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the California State Auditor (state auditor) presents this audit report concerning the finances and compensation practices of the University of California Los Angeles (UCLA) and the University of California San Francisco (UCSF) medical centers.

This report concludes that UCLA and UCSF medical centers experienced positive financial growth from fiscal years 2008–09 through 2012–13. UCLA Medical Center's net position, or net assets, increased from $1.3 billion to $1.9 billion and UCSF Medical Center's grew from $761 million to $1.3 billion. During this period, the medical centers transferred money each year to their campuses' schools of medicine to provide financial support for strategic programs and faculty physicians at the respective schools of medicine. The amounts of the transfers rose over the five-year period, nearly doubling at UCSF

Medical Center and nearly tripling at UCLA Medical Center. While these transfers appeared to be for valid purposes, we found there was too little transparency regarding the purposes of the transfers. Without more information about these transfers, university leaders, legislators, and other stakeholders lack useful information about each medical center's financial situation.

In addition, we found that UCLA and UCSF medical centers complied with applicable policies for approving compensation increases, but that they generally provided their executives higher total compensation than did their counterparts at the University of California's (university) other medical centers. We also found that although UCLA and UCSF medical centers experienced changes in staffing levels, key measures of patient-care quality at the medical centers remained stable. Moreover, patient satisfaction improved at both medical centers during these years. Further, although these two medical centers reported less charity care from fiscal years 2008–09 through 2011–12 than did the other university medical centers, they met the State's limited requirements concerning charity care.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE, CPA
State Auditor

Above report transmitted to the Committee on Health.

February 3, 2014

E. Dotson Wilson
Chief Clerk of the Assembly
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Dear Mr. Wilson: On January 31, 2014, the Asian & Pacific Islander Legislative Caucus recognizes the Lunar New Year. This marks the beginning of the holiday, as many Asian & Pacific Islander American (APIA) communities around the world celebrate the Year of the Horse.

California is home to 5.5 million APIAs, and Lunar New Year is predominantly celebrated by the Chinese, Korean, and Southeast Asian American residents of California. Each community has their own unique traditions they carry out in observance of the holiday. Generally, residents view the holiday as a time to renew family ties and to start the year off with a clean slate.

In some cultures, legend states that Buddha promised gifts of peace, happiness, and long life to all animals that came to honor him. To thank the animals for their loyalty, Buddha created a calendar of twelve years, dedicating one year to each animal. People born in the Year of the Horse tend to be independent, perceptive, artistic, and patient.

The celebration of Lunar New Year in California illustrates the state's rich cultural diversity and commitment to racial, religious, and cultural tolerance.

Sincerely,

PAUL FONG, Assembly Member
Twenty-eighth District
API Legislative Caucus, Chair

O Creator of All, Thinking that we're always right or always better than others prevents us from learning anything from You. Self-righteousness is dangerous. Help us instead, Lord, to focus our attention on repentance and humility, for You have said, ''Everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but he who humbles himself will be exalted.''—AMEN.

REPORTS

The following letter of transmittal was presented by the Chief Clerk and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2013-115

The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California 95814

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the California State Auditor (state auditor) presents this audit report concerning the California Disabled Veteran Business Enterprise (DVBE) program.

This report concludes that the DVBE program would be strengthened by more meaningful performance standards and better guidance from the California departments of General Services (General Services) and Veterans Affairs (CalVet). State law requires state agencies and departments that award contracts for goods or services (awarding departments) to meet or exceed a statewide participation goal for DVBE firms of not less than 3 percent of the overall dollar amounts expended each year (3 percent goal). However, state law also requires awarding departments to report their level of DVBE participation based on amounts awarded—not paid—to DVBE firms. The use of the different terms expended and awarded raises significant questions as to whether the State is measuring the DVBE program's performance appropriately. Given that the goal of the program is to have DVBE firms financially benefit from doing business with the State, and given that DVBE firms only benefit when they are actually paid for their goods and services, reporting the DVBE program's performance based on amounts actually paid to DVBEs is a more appropriate measure.

Our report also found that reporting DVBE performance based on amounts paid—which can be corroborated and verified through accounting records—could also improve the consistency and reliability of the information the Legislature and public use to evaluate the DVBE program. During the audit, we visited five awarding departments to evaluate the documentation used to support their reported DVBE participation data. All five departments could not fully support the amounts reported, and four of the five had significant errors. In some cases, departments failed to maintain supporting records or manually counted their DVBE data incorrectly, such as double-counting DVBE contracts or taking credit for working with firms who were not DVBEs. The departments we visited also used different methodologies for reporting their DVBE data, thus limiting the public's ability to compare the performance of different awarding departments. Following our review, some of these awarding departments resubmitted their DVBE data to General Services, resulting in the elimination of millions of dollars in overstated or unsupported DVBE participation data. We also noted that relatively few DVBE firms seem to benefit from the program. In fiscal year 2012–13 there were roughly 1,400 DVBE firms, yet only 256 DVBEs (nearly 19 percent) did business with the State and only 30 DVBE firms accounted for 83 percent of the total amount the State awarded to DVBE businesses. Finally, we believe CalVet should take a more active role in promoting DVBE contracting opportunities. Our report recommends ways the Legislature might further promote a broader-base of DVBE participation.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE, CPA
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Veterans Affairs.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Assistant Speaker pro Tempore Mullin the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Constantine C. Pappademos:

Lord, The most difficult thing in life is learning how to love. Loving others, doing something for them without expecting anything in return, is more difficult than running a big corporation, conducting a political campaign, or winning the Super Bowl. It is so difficult because in order to love, we first have to learn to forgive. Lord, keep us from holding grudges, and help us to love more completely and forgive more easily.—AMEN.

REPORTS

The following letter of transmittal was presented by the Chief Clerk and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2013-116

The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the California State Auditor presents this audit report concerning Los Angeles County's (Los Angeles) management of Measure B funds. Measure B was approved by voters in November 2002 to maintain and expand Los Angeles's trauma system, ensure the continued availability of emergency medical services, and respond effectively to biological terrorism. The Board of Supervisors for the County of Los Angeles (board) allocates these funds primarily to reimburse the 14 trauma centers—two county-operated and 12 non-county-operated trauma centers—within Los Angeles's trauma system for treatment of patients who are unable to pay for their care and who have no third-party insurance coverage.

This report concludes that without a comprehensive assessment of its trauma system, Los Angeles cannot demonstrate that it has used Measure B funds to address the most pressing trauma needs and has fulfilled the intent of the measure by expanding trauma services countywide. Since voters approved the measure in 2002, existing trauma centers remain far removed from some geographical areas of the county (underserved areas), requiring Los Angeles to use helicopters to transport some trauma patients from those areas, including East San Gabriel Valley. Although Los Angeles's Emergency Medical Services Agency (EMS)—the county entity responsible for overseeing the trauma system—conducts periodic performance evaluations of individual trauma centers, it has not conducted a comprehensive assessment that would allow it to demonstrate whether its trauma system is meeting the needs of all areas and populations in the county. Additionally, the board has not reassessed its approach to allocating Measure B funds in roughly a decade, hindering its ability to demonstrate that it has fulfilled the intent of the measure, which, according to board documents, includes assisting hospitals in underserved areas become trauma centers. After voters approved Measure B, the board established a Measure B Oversight Committee (oversight committee), which has since disbanded. We believe that reinstating the oversight committee could provide the board with a key advisory body to review its allocation approach.

Further, although the board initially funded helicopter transport of trauma patients from underserved areas as an interim solution to establishing trauma centers in these areas, it has apparently adopted this as a permanent solution. As a result, we expected EMS to have monitored, assessed, and reported consistently on the adequacy and effectiveness of these helicopter transport services; however, we found that it has not done so. Lastly, shortly after the passage of Measure B,

Los Angeles undertook some formalized efforts to designate a hospital as a trauma center in East San Gabriel Valley. Since that time, Los Angeles has made only minimal attempts to do so and if it does not increase and formalize its efforts, it may miss the opportunity to designate a trauma center in this underserved area.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE, CPA
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Health.

STATEMENT OF ASSEMBLY EXPENDITURES PRINTED IN JOURNAL

The following Statement of Assembly Expenditures was ordered printed in the Journal:

The Honorable John A. Pérez
Speaker of the Assembly
State Capitol, Room 219
Sacramento, California

Dear Mr. Speaker: Transmitted herewith is the annual report of Assembly expenses. It includes the total expenditures by Member, committee, leadership office, service operation, and overhead according to various categories for the 12-month period ending November 30, 2013. Every expenditure made from the Assembly Operating Fund during this period is accounted for. Additionally, the report includes an itemization, by Member, of per diem expenditures from the General Fund during the same period of time.

It is important to note that this report is compiled on a cash basis. Therefore, the cost of goods and services incurred by a Member during the preceding reporting period but paid for during the current period is included. Furthermore, some goods and services which were received toward the end of this reporting period were not paid for until the beginning of the December 2013–November 2014 reporting period and are, therefore, not included in this expenditure report.

The following indicates the types of expenditures which are included within each classification:

Staff Salary: This includes the salaries paid to all employees in the Member's district office as well as those employees who work in the Member's Capitol office, provided they are not committee or leadership office personnel. The salaries of the latter group of employees are included in the specific detail report for each of the respective committee and leadership offices.

All Assembly personnel are classified according to job descriptions approved by the Assembly Rules Committee. The committee has established specific salary ranges for each of the classifications. The salary within a range for a specific employee reflects a combination of years of service in his or her position and his or her own job performance since the amount of annual merit salary increases is based on evaluations of each employee's work. Thus, a Member whose office staff includes employees with substantial Assembly seniority, and/or outstanding records of service, will have a higher total expenditure for salaries than will a Member who employs more junior personnel.

Member Travel and Per Diem: Separate totals are shown for in-state travel and out-of-state travel. Most in-state travel expenditures are for attendance at interim committee hearings. Out-of-state travel expenditures are generally for participation in conferences dealing with an issue area pertinent to the legislative specialty of the Member or are for investigative trips.

Staff Travel: This category includes the expenditures incurred for the Capitol and district staff traveling for legislative business. It also includes mileage reimbursements to district office personnel. The staff travel expenditures reported by committee are generally costs incurred in connection with interim committee hearings which are generally held away from Sacramento for the convenience of citizens who wish to provide testimony to the committees.

Car Maintenance: The costs reported in this category will vary significantly because of the variance in the number of miles driven by the Members. Members in large-sized districts and Members who represent districts wherein air travel between the Capitol and the district is not practical tend to utilize their cars more than other Members. Accordingly, the maintenance costs of such cars are likely to be higher than for others.

Gas and Oil: Expenditures in this category are for gasoline and oil supplied to cars and private aircraft for legislative business. These costs, too, vary for the same reasons as those affecting car maintenance.

Car Rental, Staff and Member: This expenditure category includes the use of state-owned pool cars and commercial rental cars by both the Member and his/her staff in the course of legislative business.

This category, as listed in the Support Services section of the report, includes, in addition to car rental, the costs of gas, oil, and maintenance for cars utilized by the office of the Sergeant at Arms.

District Office Rent, Maintenance, and Utilities: Each Member is entitled to rent an office within the district he/she represents so that constituents may have direct access to their legislators. In some of the larger districts, two or three offices are sometimes authorized. Accordingly, Members representing districts in high-rent metropolitan areas or Members representing large districts requiring more than one office will be reported with higher expenditures in this category than will other Members. Costs included in this expenditure item are rent, utilities (except telephone), janitorial service, and incidental maintenance costs.

Telephone and Telegraph: All telephone charges (except some equipment installation charges) are reported in this expenditure category. Included are the charges for district office telephones, Capitol telephones, and mobile telephones. Members who will likely have higher charges than many of their colleagues are those representing districts which are either far from the Capitol, or in regions which cover large geographic areas.

Postage: The category includes the total amount expended for postage except for the postage utilized in the mailing of legislative mailings authorized under provisions of Proposition 73 of June 1988.

Communications: The costs included in this expenditure category are primarily for handling and mailing of legislative mailings authorized under provisions of Proposition 73 of June 1988.

Furniture and Equipment: This category includes the purchase, rental, and maintenance of certain furniture and equipment items utilized in the Capitol and district offices of the Members. It does not include the purchase of items which will, during the course of their usefulness, be utilized by a number of Members during succeeding years. Expenditures for items of that description are reported in the Furniture and Equipment category as General Overhead Expenditures.

Office Supplies: Stationery items, other printing costs charged to the Assembly Operating Fund, general office supplies, and related miscellaneous supplies utilized in the Members' Capitol and district offices are reported in this expenditure category.

Subscriptions and Publications: Each Member is authorized to subscribe to the newspapers generally circulated within his/her district and to certain metropolitan daily newspapers. Members representing districts which include many cities and towns will frequently have higher expenditures in this category than will Members representing relatively compact areas. Expenditures for subscriptions and publications incurred by the committees and leadership offices are reported separately. Each committee is authorized to purchase relevant books and to subscribe to periodicals specializing in the subject matter of the committee for which the expenditure is made.

Miscellaneous Services: Most of the expenditures shown in the Miscellaneous Services category for the Members are for services such as telephone answering services in district offices and newspaper clipping services. Included in this category for the committee reports are such items as witness expenses, meeting expenses, data-processing costs, and other miscellaneous services.

A number of operational costs incurred by the Assembly are not directly attributable to any of the Members, committees, leadership offices, or support services. Such expenditures are classified as General Overhead and are reported according to the following categories:

Miscellaneous Salaries: Accrued vacation payments made to terminating employees, and salaries paid to employees on extended sick leave are reported in this category.

Employee Benefits: This expenditure category includes the Assembly's contribution to the OASDI (social security) fund, the Public Employees' Retirement System, various health, dental, vision, and life insurance premiums, the Compensation Insurance Fund, unemployment and disability insurance, and any other benefits approved by the Assembly Rules Committee.

Building, Rent, Maintenance, and Utilities: Reported in this expenditure category are construction and remodeling costs and the rent, maintenance, and utilities for offices (other than Members' individual district offices) utilized and paid for by the Assembly outside the Capitol.

Telephone: This listing is for the cost of telephone equipment installation in all Assembly offices.

Furniture and Equipment: The expenditure indicated in this category is for the purchase, rental, and maintenance of furniture and equipment not reported elsewhere in the report. Most furniture and equipment are considered a capital investment which will be used, through the years, by a number of different Members or other offices and can therefore not be appropriately reported as an expense on behalf of any particular Member or office.

Office Supplies: The amount shown in this expenditure category represents office supplies which were purchased by the Assembly for the use of Members and other offices but which were not distributed to any such offices before the end of this reporting period.

Annotated Codes and Law Books: Each Member's office and certain other Assembly offices are furnished with Annotated California Codes and certain other law books. The cost of these books is considered a capital expenditure in the same manner as many furniture and equipment items, and is therefore reported in this General Overhead category.

Meeting Expenses: This expenditure category includes certain costs incurred by the Assembly relative to the conduct of Assembly Sessions and Joint Sessions of the Legislature which cannot be readily charged to any other expenditure category, rental costs for some meeting rooms, and some conference registration fees.

Freight, Moving, and Delivery: This expenditure category includes costs incurred for the transport of furniture, supplies, and other items which are not chargeable to any particular office.

Other Miscellaneous Services: The major expenditures reported in this category are for the costs of photography services related to official Assembly publications, vehicle liability insurance, and organization memberships.

Study Contracts: From time to time the Assembly finds it practical to contract with individuals, firms, universities, and other governmental agencies in order to expand its research capability with respect to specific projects. The costs reported in this category are for payments made under such contracts during this period.

The next report of Assembly expenditures will be for the period between December 1, 2013, and November 30, 2014.

Sincerely,

RICHARD S. GORDON
Chair of the Assembly Committee on Rules

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Campos, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Constantine C. Pappademos:

Lord, The two words that most of us would probably use to describe our lives are ''too busy.'' With emails, errands, and work, we are in a state of perpetual motion—often too busy for You, Lord, and our spiritual life. Scripture is always calling us to slow down so that we can turn to You. Help us to say ''no'' to the non-essential demands on our time and to simplify our schedules to leave us more time for You. —AMEN.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Speaker pro Tempore Campos, Assembly Member Quirk-Silva then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

REPORTS

The following letter of transmittal was presented by the Chief Clerk and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2013-046
February 27, 2014

The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Members of the Assembly: As required by Chapter 20, Statutes of 2013, the California State Auditor presents this audit report concerning local education agencies' (LEAs) uses of their cafeteria funds in operating their child nutrition programs and the California Department of Education's (CDE) oversight of those funds.

This report concludes that from fiscal years 2010–11 through 2012–13, each of the 18 LEAs we visited used all or most of their cafeteria funds for allowable purposes. Specifically, of $32 million in cafeteria fund expenditures we tested, $31 million was for expenditures that were necessary and reasonable for the operation or improvement of the child nutrition programs and complied with federal administrative requirements. Of the $1 million in unallowable expenditures, nearly half were for facility costs that four LEAs should not have charged to their cafeteria funds. We also identified five LEAs that charged more than $171,000 in interest charges to their cafeteria funds, despite a federal regulation prohibiting such charges, and seven LEAs that inappropriately charged more than $94,000 in utilities and other support costs. In addition, 14 of the LEAs had payroll expenditures that lacked federally required documentation, resulting in unallowable charges to their cafeteria funds. The most common reason LEAs cited for these unallowable expenditures was a lack of awareness of program requirements.

Further, LEAs did not always meet certain requirements concerning their financial resources. For example, nine LEAs we visited had net cash resources in their cafeteria funds that exceeded the federal limit of an amount equal to three months' average expenditures. In addition, 10 LEAs did not maintain sufficient records to determine whether their food sales using cafeteria funds—such as vending machines or catering—that were unrelated to meals served in the child nutrition programs generated the minimum amount of revenue required by a federal regulation. As a result, these LEAs cannot determine if their cafeteria funds are subsidizing those nonprogram activities.

Finally, before fiscal year 2013–14, CDE reviewed certain aspects of the child nutrition programs but it was not expressly required to review LEAs' cafeteria fund expenditures to determine if they were allowable. However, in fiscal year 2013–14, CDE started implementing new federal guidelines that require it to examine the cafeteria fund expenditures of LEAs that meet certain risk criteria. These reviews will provide CDE with some assurance that LEAs are spending cafeteria funds appropriately.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE, CPA
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Education.

SPECIAL COMMITTEE MEETINGS

By unanimous consent, the following committee was permitted to meet:

Joint Legislative Audit Committee, on Wednesday, March 12, 2014, at 1:30 p.m., in Room 126.

REPORTS

The following letter of transmittal was presented by the Chief Clerk and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2013-109
March 4, 2014

The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the California State Auditor presents this audit report concerning the California Public Utilities Commission's (commission) oversight of utility balancing accounts of entities it regulates.

This report concludes that the commission lacks adequate processes to provide sufficient oversight of utility balancing accounts to protect ratepayers from unfair rate increases. State law directs the commission, whenever it authorizes any rate change that includes costs passed on to customers, to require utilities to establish a balancing account. A balancing account is a tracking mechanism used to ensure that a utility recoups from ratepayers costs the commission has authorized and that ratepayers do not pay more than they should. If a balancing account has a balance—indicating an over- or under-collection from ratepayers—the utility will generally seek periodically to adjust future rates to either refund or recoup the balance. State law requires the commission to review semiannually certain balancing accounts; however, it does not otherwise require the commission to review all balancing accounts. Currently, the commission only reviews some balancing accounts when a utility requests to incorporate the balance in that account into future rates as a surcharge or a credit. This practice does not ensure that the commission adequately reviews balancing accounts to protect ratepayers from unreasonable rates. Although the commission relies on the Office of Ratepayer Advocates (Ratepayer Advocates)—an independent office within the commission—to review energy utility balancing accounts, this reliance is misplaced because Ratepayer Advocates is not required to review all energy utility balancing accounts. Ratepayer Advocates primarily focuses on balancing accounts that energy utilities include in formal proceedings, which resulted in it reviewing only 58 percent of the value of large energy utilities' balancing accounts active during 2009 through 2011. It did not review other balancing accounts with a value of $37.6 billion during this period.

Given that balancing accounts directly affect rates that a utility charges ratepayers and given the broad authority the commission has to inspect and audit utilities' books, accounts, and records, we believe that the commission should use a systematic process that ensures a review of all those balancing accounts that can have the most impact on ratepayers. However, the commission lacks the necessary information, such as the size of a balancing account and the last time it was reviewed, to determine which balancing accounts it should review. In addition to not providing adequate oversight over balancing accounts, the commission has not always complied with a requirement to audit utilities' books and records according to the schedule prescribed by state law. Also, for over three decades, it has not provided the results of these audits to the California State Board of Equalization (Equalization) for tax assessment purposes, as required by state law. Although Equalization believes that this requirement is no longer appropriate, neither Equalization nor the commission has sought to change the law.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE, CPA
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Utilities and Commerce.

Cooley	Hagman	Patterson	Mr. Speaker

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Campos, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Constantine C. Pappademos:

Lord, Lately, many of us are concerned that we haven't been getting enough rain and that drought conditions could be in store for us if things don't change. Likewise, spiritually, we need water, too. We need to refresh our hearts and minds, just like we need water in our bodies and all around us. During the day, when we feel upset or stressed out, help us Lord, to satisfy our inner thirst by turning to You. Help us to stay strong and to find peace, for You can bring rest to our soul, and refreshment.—AMEN.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Speaker pro Tempore Campos, Assembly Member Garcia then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

REPORTS

The following letter of transmittal was presented by the Chief Clerk and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2013-036
March 6, 2014

The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Members of the Assembly: As required by Chapter 858, Statutes of 2003, the California State Auditor presents this audit report concerning the allocation and use of moneys from the Indian Gaming Special Distribution Fund (distribution fund).

This report, our third review of the allocation and expenditure of grants from the distribution fund, concludes that the Indian gaming local community benefit committees (benefit committees) did not always comply with state laws for distribution fund grants they awarded. Specifically, our review of 12 grants at four counties—Butte, Lake, Riverside, and San Diego—found that the benefit committees awarded seven grants totaling nearly $1.7 million in fiscal years 2010–11 through 2012–13 without sufficient documentation to demonstrate that the grant applicant's project mitigated the effect of Indian gaming, or the requested funding did not represent the proportionate share of costs attributable to casino impacts. Additionally, the benefit committee in Butte County incorrectly awarded the county $57,500 that it should have awarded to the city of Oroville under law, according to the nexus criteria, a test of geographic proximity that defines the minimum grant amounts that qualified local governments are entitled to receive. We also found that the benefit committees in Butte and Lake counties do not have a process to verify that grant recipients appropriately used interest earned on grant funds to mitigate casino impacts. Further, Butte County's benefit committee has not yet established a conflict-of-interest code, even though it was advised by the Fair Political Practices Commission in 2007 that it was required to do so. Moreover, we noted that members of benefit committees or other designated filers in the four counties failed to file 19 statements of economic interests, and filed another 11 statements that were late or incomplete.

Similar to our previous two reports, we noted that the balance of the distribution fund continues to decline. Specifically, the expenditures and transfers out of the distribution fund exceed the revenues into the fund annually and as a result the fund may be nearly depleted by the end of fiscal year 2014–15. Finally, we noted that there is no state agency responsible for providing oversight or technical assistance to the benefit committees who administer the distribution fund grant program. However, designating a state agency, such as the California Gambling Control Commission or the Department of Justice to provide oversight could improve benefit committees' compliance with state laws for administering the mitigation grant program.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE, CPA
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Governmental Organization.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Campos, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Member Shirley N. Weber, of the 79th Assembly District:

Lord, Some 3,000 years ago, you posed a question in Proverbs 31:10 "Who can find a virtuous woman?" because her price is far above rubies.

Because of our limited vision, Father, you gave us a road map of who we should be looking for. You told us she is business-minded and resourceful, she is filled with wisdom and kindness. As a master planner, she prepares her family and the community for the worst of calamities so that we may always be prepared. Additionally, she is an advocate for the poor and improves conditions in her community. Consequently, in Proverbs, you tell us that her children rise up and call her blessed, her significant others trust in her judgment, and even the city leaders and politicians who sit at the city gates acknowledge her worth.

Some 3,000 years ago, we were asked "Can we find this virtuous woman? Can we find those bridges that many of us have crossed over; can we find these women who are impervious and indestructible? Can we find the phenomenal women who hold up the skies of our community?"

Today in this house, we boldly answer the question—Who can find the virtuous women?—by saying "we can," and we did, in the women that we honor today.

May we be ever mindful and grateful for the tremendous contributions these women have made in making California the strong state that we love.—And the people affirmed by saying AMEN.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Speaker pro Tempore Campos, Assembly Member Conway then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

REPORTS

The following letter of transmittal was presented by the Chief Clerk and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2013-043
February 25, 2014

The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Members of the Assembly: Senate Bill 853 (Chapter 717, Statutes of 2010) requires the California State Auditor (state auditor) to monitor the transfer of operational responsibility for the California Medicaid Management Information System (CA-MMIS) to Affiliated Computer Services, a Xerox company, and the subsequent design, development, and implementation of a replacement system. This letter reports on the status of Xerox's implementation of a replacement for CA-MMIS, which will be called Health Enterprise.

On April 19, 2012, we reported on our oversight activities for the first time. We reported that Xerox had successfully assumed responsibility for operating CA-MMIS and had begun processing the State's California Medical Assistance Program (Medi-Cal) claims in September 2011 after two delays. We also reported that Xerox was in the preliminary stages of developing Health Enterprise.

At the time of our last letter report, the California Department of Health Care Services (Health Care Services) was also engaged in informal discussions with Xerox over costs associated with the second delay in Xerox's assumption of operational responsibility for CA-MMIS. We reported that Health Care Services had previously denied Xerox's claim for costs it asserted it incurred or expected to incur due to alleged scope changes and schedule delays related to its takeover of CA-MMIS. In May 2013 Health Care Services informed us it had settled this claim. According to the assistant deputy director of Health Care Services' CA-MMIS division (assistant deputy director), Health Care Services agreed to pay $13 million of the $71 million included in Xerox's final claim. He explained that Health Care Services agreed to pay Xerox $13 million for actual costs it reasonably incurred for project-related equipment, software, and services, but that Health Care Services did not agree to pay Xerox's claim of nearly $44 million for takeover delays.

We recently observed that the implementation of Health Enterprise has been delayed partly because project teams were not following the original software development approach, and turnover of key Xerox staff appears to have exacerbated this problem. Because of these delays, Health Care Services has not yet paid Xerox for any of its work on Health Enterprise. In addition, California's delays in implementing a replacement for CA-MMIS are similar to some other states' experiences with Xerox implementing similar systems. Leaders of the Health Enterprise project also recently announced that the project team would be transitioning to a new software development approach. Finally, certain controls over access to the existing CA-MMIS are not operating effectively.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE, CPA
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Health.

ADJOURNMENT

At 3 p.m., the Assembly adjourned until 7 a.m., Wednesday, March 12, 2014.

Lord, One of the easiest things to do in life is to fall into a spirit of negativity. But as children of God, we see things differently—we see how beautiful things can be. The beauty of having faith in You, Lord, is that it fills us with a sense of holiness, and Godliness, and joy. Through faith in You, children are nurtured, the elderly are comforted, and we are all strengthened. Lord, bless us with this type of faith.—AMEN.

California State Auditor
Investigative Report I2012-0651
March 13, 2014

The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Members of the Assembly: Pursuant to the California Whistleblower Protection Act, the California State Auditor presents this investigative report concerning inefficiency at the Employment Development Department (EDD). EDD officials failed to take advantage of a federal program that would have allowed the State to collect hundreds of millions of dollars.

This report concludes that EDD failed to participate in a key aspect of the federal Treasury Offset Program (Offset Program) that would have allowed it to collect an estimated $516 million owed to the State in unemployment benefit overpayments between February 2011 and September 2014. In January 2011 the U.S. Department of the Treasury adopted regulations that expanded the Offset Program and allowed states to use it to collect unemployment benefit overpayments by intercepting individuals' federal tax refunds and other federal payments. Although other states chose to participate in the expanded program from 2011 through 2013 with great success, EDD, acting on behalf of California, chose not to participate because it concluded that it did not have sufficient resources to make the information technology modifications necessary to participate in the program. EDD officials reached this conclusion even though in 2012 they initially estimated that they could make the modifications at a cost of a little more than $322,800, compared to their own projection of recovering more than $100 million during the first year of program participation.

After being contacted by our investigators regarding EDD's lack of participation in the expanded program, EDD officials developed a plan for participating in the Offset Program to collect unemployment benefit overpayments by May 2014. However, in February 2014, EDD reported that it would not complete the information technology modifications necessary to participate in the expanded program until September 2014.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE, CPA
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Labor and Employment.

PRAYER

Lord, As we begin our work this day, we pause to celebrate Irish American Heritage Month.

Saint Patrick came to Ireland in the fifth century. It was a pagan country. When he ended his earthly life some thirty years later, the faith in You, Lord, was established in every corner. And so, to honor Saint Patrick this morning, we offer this traditional Irish prayer:

Lord, Give us
For every storm a rainbow,
For every tear, a smile,
For every care, a promise,
And a blessing in each trial.

For every problem that life sends,
A faithful friend to share,
For every sigh, a sweet song,
And an answer for each prayer.
AMEN.

ADDRESS BY SPEAKER-ELECT TONI ATKINS

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Thank you, all of you, for this honor and for the trust and confidence you've placed in me. I appreciate the thoughtful comments of my colleagues and I will work hard to live up to those words.

With appreciation and pride, I acknowledge you, Mr. Speaker, for your leadership and hard work these last 4 years. Going from all night budget sessions and a $60 billion dollar deficit to the surplus of today couldn't have happened without your vision, leadership and political wisdom. We owe you our gratitude.

I want to also acknowledge our Minority Leader, Connie Conway, who frankly, has worked incredibly hard on behalf of her Caucus.

Together, our two leaders, Ms. Conway and Speaker Pérez, have set a respectful tone in this house, despite political and policy differences, that we would do well to emulate going forward. Thank you both.

We all want to be successful—Republicans and Democrats alike. We EACH came to this Chamber with the desire to serve our communities, our constituents, and to make a difference for California. We came from very diverse backgrounds, different political persuasions that run the spectrum of beliefs, and with our own life experiences that help give purpose and meaning to what we hope to accomplish. I believe in that endeavor for each one of us and I will strive my hardest every day to be mindful of that as we have individual and collective discussions that sometimes aren't easy or simple, or that rise to the level of serious disagreements (and that's just on the Democratic side!).

I have learned in my time in the Assembly and in my quest for the Speakership how much I truly and deeply respect each of you, this institution, and the job before us.

California is a nation-State. We have important and critical issues before us:

- Our water crisis and our overall water plan and infrastructure.
- Improving our education system.
- Addressing our prison overcrowding.
- A continued focus on budget stabilization and fiscal responsibility.
- How to retain, create, and sustain good paying jobs for our citizens.
- Continued refinement and implementation of Covered California.
- Protecting California's unique environment and natural resources.
- Addressing our pension obligations.
- A renewed focus on income disparity and protecting our middle class as well as looking out for our most vulnerable Californians.
- And if I can add my own personal concern: reducing homelessness and providing more affordable housing, including for our State's growing population of Veterans.

We have challenges, but what a wonderful opportunity we have been given to serve. And, what a critical moment in Our State's History, as we push forward to restore California's reputation as a model of good governance. I look forward to traveling with you on this path we are so fortunate to share. Let's rise to this challenge together.

Thank you!!

Members of the Assembly: As required by Chapter 310, Statutes of 2009, the California State Auditor (state auditor) presents this audit report concerning the effectiveness and efficiency of the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education's (bureau) operations.

This report concludes that the bureau has consistently failed to meet its responsibility to protect the public's interests. In fact, many of the State's long-standing problems with regulating private postsecondary educational institutions still persist today, four years after the bureau was established to fill the regulatory void left by the sunset of its predecessor. For example, the bureau had more than 1,100 license applications outstanding as of June 2013, some of which had been outstanding for more than three years. In addition, the bureau has struggled to proactively identify and effectively sanction unlicensed institutions. The bureau has performed only 456 announced compliance inspections since January 1, 2010, even though state law would suggest it might be responsible for performing an average of about 500 announced inspections per year. Moreover, the bureau failed to identify violations during the announced inspections that it did perform.

The bureau also failed to appropriately respond to complaints against institutions, even when students' safety was allegedly at risk. The bureau's data indicates that it had almost 780 complaints outstanding as of October 2013, and that 546 of these had been outstanding more than 180 days. Further, the bureau did not ensure that institutions provide students with accurate information that they can use for making enrollment decisions. For example, we visited five institutions and found that each institution either had errors or could not substantiate their student performance data, including job placement rates. The bureau conducted inspections for three of the five institutions but did not identify the discrepancies we found. We also noted weaknesses in the bureau's management of the Student Tuition Recovery Fund because, as of July 2013, roughly half of the 915 claims it received from fiscal years 2008–09 through 2012–13 were still outstanding.

The bureau is currently undergoing a sunset review and will cease to exist on January 1, 2015, unless the Legislature determines that it should continue its operations. We believe the Legislature has several options it can consider when deciding how best to regulate private postsecondary education in the future, including allowing the bureau to continue in its current form with significantly more assistance and oversight from the California Department of Consumer Affairs (Consumer Affairs), reducing the bureau's responsibilities by reassigning some of them to other entities that Consumer Affairs oversees, or transferring all of the bureau's powers and duties from the director of Consumer Affairs to another state entity or entities.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE, CPA
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Higher Education.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Campos, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Constantine C. Pappademos:

O Heavenly Creator, Some people are not very comfortable with You, because they're not very comfortable being answerable to a Creator. They don't like the idea of being held accountable to an ultimate authority. Yet, when we know that You are love (1 John 4:16), knowing that we're being loved by our Creator can be very persuasive. Help us to realize, Lord, that life's problems are not only intellectual problems, many times they stem from a lack of love for You and others.—AMEN.

Lord, When we say,"I don't really need God to help me run my life, I've got it all figured out, or I can look it up on the internet" . . . You will step back and let us do it on our own. A lot of times, we think of dependency in a negative light, but dependency on You, Lord, is not a weakness, it's a strength. It helps us to step into Your power. Grant us a spirit of humility and grant us strength when we turn to You.—AMEN.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Campos, the following prayer was offered by Guest Chaplain Father Mesrop Ash, of St. John's Armenian Church in San Francisco:

Almighty Lord, Gathered here today in the State Capitol are individuals elected by their peers to serve the people of California. By God's will, may they have the strength and fortitude to be good stewards of the land and people that they have been entrusted with.

Today, we are joined in offering our sincere prayers for the souls of the victims of the first genocide of the 20th Century, perpetrated by the Ottoman Empire against the Armenian people.

You God, are a lover of Mankind and the hope of the just. We acknowledge today that unpunished crimes beget further crimes. As the Armenian Genocide remains unacknowledged by the descendents of its perpetrators, we remember with lamenting hearts the victims of the subsequent genocides, which have plagued humanity throughout the 20th Century: the Holocaust, Cambodia, Rwanda, and the Sudan.

Through the elected servants present here today, Lord, we give thanks for the defenders of justice who courageously stand boldly proclaiming the truth of the past, for the sake of humanity. The Californians they represent, and especially the Armenian-Americans, render all due respect to the Great State of California and its leaders in their efforts to uphold the sanctity of human life by solemnly commemorating the 99th Anniversary of the Armenian Genocide.

As we quickly approach the centennial anniversary of the Armenian Genocide, we are painfully aware that while a century has passed since the forebearers of the Armenian people faced intolerable hate-fueled cruelty, much of humanity still remains subject to the ways of violent and unjust men.

We offer our prayers, oh Lord, for all of those who continue to suffer in the throes of the fog of war and conflict. We especially remember the communities of Aleppo and Kessab in Syria, where the Armenians sought refuge from genocide almost 100 years ago, and today have become the battlegrounds of a bloody Civil War, thereby displacing thousands of innocent families. Remember them as we ask for justice and peace through prayer today.

As the Universe testifies to the beauty of Your Creation, so we pray that this moment and the proclamation of the State of California testify to the truth of history.

It is our ultimate prayer that we should all, through the love and grace of God, find the strength to engage both our history and future with sincere boldness and brave honesty.—AMEN.

REPORTS

The following letter of transmittal was presented by the Chief Clerk and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2013-110
April 8, 2014

The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the California State Auditor presents this audit report concerning the policies and procedures the child welfare services (CWS) agencies of Butte, Orange, and San Francisco counties follow when considering whether to remove children from their homes. This report concludes that these agencies must provide better protection for abused and neglected children. Specifically, although all three agencies require the use of standardized safety and risk assessments, the agencies' social workers frequently did not prepare these assessments in a timely manner or at all, and the information used in these assessments was often inaccurate. This led to flawed evaluations of safety, risk, and needed services and, at times, led to poor decisions related to child safety. Additionally, when their initial attempts to make in-person contact with children to investigate reports of child maltreatment were unsuccessful, social workers did not consistently follow up in a reasonable time frame—sometimes waiting weeks before attempting to see the child again. Further, when social workers decided to leave a child in a home that presented a safety threat, they often did not establish a credible safety plan to mitigate that threat. In addition, social workers at times allowed the child to be placed or remain in a temporary living situation without performing any history check on the temporary caregivers and, in a few instances, these individuals were later found to be unfit to supervise the child. When the county CWS agencies we visited did formally remove a child, they did not always perform required background checks before a subsequent placement.

State laws and regulations provide county CWS agencies with broad discretion in determining when to involve law enforcement in investigations and in removing children from their homes. As such, we noted that the three CWS agencies we visited have adopted divergent approaches to coordinating with law enforcement. Although each county's practices reflect the flexibility given to CWS agencies, we found instances where coordination and communication between local law enforcement and the county CWS agencies could have been better.

To varying degrees, each of the three county CWS agencies we visited needs to improve its practices. Even so, for most of the items we reviewed, the Orange County CWS agency appeared to perform better than the other two CWS agencies, and had better management processes. Given the relationship we observed between the strength of management processes and county CWS agencies' performance, we believe the California Department of Social Services—as the state agency responsible for overseeing the CWS system—should encourage and monitor the establishment of the key management processes of policy development and quality assurance at all 58 counties.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE, CPA
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Human Services.
