April 21, 2014

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: The State Auditor's Office presents its Independent Auditor's Report on the State of California's basic financial statements for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2013. These financial statements are presented on a basis in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). The financial statements show that the State's General Fund had revenues and other financing sources that were approximately $8.5 billion more than expenditures and other financing uses. The General Fund ended the fiscal year with a fund deficit of approximately $14.3 billion. The GAAP basis government-wide statements include all liabilities owed by the State while the budgetary basis statements used to report on the State's budget do not reflect all liabilities.

We conducted the audit to comply with the California Government Code, Section 8546.4.

Respectfully submitted,

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker Pérez, the following prayer was offered by Guest Chaplain Rabbi Susan Leider, Senior Rabbi of the Congregation Kol Shofar in Tiburon:

In Budapest, Hungary, there is a silvery willow tree, a traditional symbol of mourning. On each leaf of the silvery tree, there is one name of a man, a woman, a boy or a girl who was murdered in the Holocaust. This tree is placed in a courtyard in the Raoul Wallenberg Memorial Park in Budapest.

Raoul Wallenberg was a Swedish diplomat who saved many Jews in the Holocaust. Like the light on the silver leaves of that tree, he was a ray of light in a world of darkness, and his acts of courage saved many lives.

O, God, Ruler of the Universe, like Raoul Wallenberg, we strive to bring light into the world. Today, we gather to remember the souls of our brothers and sisters—men, women, and children who were slaughtered and who have gone on to their eternal home. May our solemn assembly now in these chambers be our sacred way to remember them and to cause the memory of their lives to live on forever.

Although we ask, “Can there be light in darkness? Can there be any light in the world?”, we know that our answer must be filled with light, a decisive response of life. Like the leaves on the silver memorial tree in Budapest, our acts can bring light to the world, even when there is darkness. You are the Assembly men and women who labor on behalf of the citizens of the State of California to bring light to the entire United States and to the world.

May the words of our mouths and the meditations of our hearts be acceptable to You, our Rock and our Redeemer. May the One who brings peace to God’s universe bring peace to us, to all of Israel, and to all who dwell on Earth.—Let us say, AMEN.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Speaker Pérez, Assembly Member Achadjian then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

May His great Name grow exalted and sanctified (Cong: Amen.)
in the world that He created as He willed.

May He give reign to His kingship in your lifetimes and in your days,
and in the lifetimes of the entire Family of Israel, swiftly and soon. Now say:
(Amen. May His great Name be blessed forever and ever.)
Blessed, praised, glorified, exalted, extolled, mighty, upraised, and lauded be the Name of the Holy One.
Amen

May there be abundant peace from Heaven and life upon us and upon all Israel. Now say:
Amen

He Who makes peace in His heights, may He make peace, upon us and upon all Israel. Now say:
Amen

EL MALEI RACHAMIM

God, full of mercy, who dwells in the heights, provide a sure rest upon the Divine Presence's wings,
within the range of the holy and the pure,
whose shining resemble the sky's,
all the souls of the six million Jews,
victims of the European Holocaust, who were murdered, slaughtered, burnt and exterminated for the Sanctification of the Name, by the German Nazi assassins and their helpers from the rest of the peoples.

Therefore, the Master of Mercy will protect them forever,
from behind the hiding of his wings,
and will tie their souls with the rope of life.
The Everlasting is their heritage,
the Garden of Eden shall be their resting room,
and they shall rest peacefully upon their lying place,
they will stand for their fate in the end of days,
and let us say: AMEN.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Campos, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Member Ken Cooley, of the 8th Assembly District:

O God Most High, With due solemnity, we assemble this day to end a week we opened by a Day of Remembrance for the vile evils visited upon your Children—our brothers and sisters—in the Shoa. We grieve for those lost, but thank you for those you preserved, those who passed through that trial to forge new lives with a hope no terror could extinguish.

On this day, on this Floor, we recall the ancient record of how once before you heard the plight of your people and called forth a Champion on their behalf, your servant Moses, by the marvel of a burning bush that, while aflame, was neither consumed nor destroyed.

In the same way, help us each to resolve to be Champions and Liberators for others so that they can move past hardship to hope. Like the burning bush of old, make us aflame with deep conviction, yet unconsumed. Grant us the wisdom and humility to live as firebrands, yet without burning down this precious House, nor sundering our friendship and collegiality, so in that marvel of wholesome democracy, those we represent may feel hope for their lives and for the future of our great State of California.—AMEN.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Speaker pro Tempore Campos, Assembly Member Jones then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

SPEAKER PÉREZ DELIVERED KEYNOTE ADDRESS

Speaker pro Tempore Campos presented the Honorable John A. Pérez, Speaker of the Assembly to the assemblage, whereupon he delivered the keynote address to the Members of the Assembly and Latino Spirit Award Honorees, and without objection, the Speaker's address was printed in the Journal as follows:

Members, today we celebrate the 13th annual Latino Spirit Awards, presented to distinguished members of the Latino Community who have added to the richness and vibrancy of California life. We celebrate their accomplishments in fields as diverse as entertainment to the judiciary.

We have traditionally held this ceremony in close proximity to Cinco de Mayo, and today we are fortunate to present these awards on Cinco de Mayo itself. That lends today's commemoration an added poignancy. As we are well aware, Cinco de Mayo commemorates the victory of Mexican forces over a vastly superior French army during the Battle of Puebla. And while that is certainly a moment of pride for Mexico and people of proud Mexican heritage, we recognize that Cinco de Mayo, much like St. Patrick's Day, is a uniquely American holiday.

Traditionally, this holiday is observed in Puebla, where the battle was fought, without much note in the rest of Mexico. Yet, throughout California, celebrations have been held all weekend, in communities stretching from the Oregon Border to San Diego, and certainly in every other state of the Union.

In all of those celebrations, we celebrate the pride that Mexican-Americans feel towards our heritage. That is unmistakable. But like St. Patrick's Day, or Chinese New Year, we are also celebrating our national heritage as Americans—our long and proud tradition of being a nation that is defined not by geography, not by ethnography, but by a powerful belief in inclusion and opportunity, and equality for every person.

Today's ceremony is not just a celebration of Latino Heritage—it is a celebration of the rich diversity woven into our very national fabric. It is celebration of those three cherished words which define our nation—e pluribus unum. These three words speak so powerfully to the American Experience—to the notion that anyone, no matter who they are, or where they come from, can have the same opportunities to succeed in life and make the most of their potential.

That spirit is so vividly displayed by today's honorees. Each of them have made enormous contributions to our state—from iconic work in films, music and athletics, to groundbreaking work in political organizing, elective office, and fighting for justice. Each of today's honorees carry with them the spirit of pride in their Latino heritage, and the spirit of inclusion that makes California such a unique and celebrated place in the world.

Today's celebration reflects the gains we have made as a community, certainly, but they also reflect the spirit of democracy that we all cherish.

This is the 13th time the Legislative Latino Caucus has presented these awards in its 41-year history, and the Caucus itself is an expression of that spirit of inclusion and opportunity.

For 41 years, our caucus has served as a voice for Latinos in government. We are not a monolith. There is a great deal of diversity—of culture, background, history, and worldview. That diversity is our strength, because it serves to remind us of the common bonds we all share as proud Latinos, proud Californians, and proud Americans.

1962 was a seminal year in the history of this Chamber, as Phil Soto and John Moreno became the first Latinos elected to the Legislature in the modern era. They would be followed by a successive and growing number of Latinos, as our state came to embrace the diversity that has defined us from the moment of our admission into the Union. One decade following the election of the first Latinos to this Chamber, five more followed, and formed the Latino Legislative Caucus. That was a powerful moment for our community, and a profound moment for California.

Latinos had served in government before, certainly—Romualdo Pacheco had served as Governor in the 19th century, and from Rita Hayworth to Dolores del Río, Latinos had occupied some of the most prominent positions in California's most iconic industry. But the founding of the Latino Caucus was a symbol that a state so inextricably linked with the Latino Community, a state where generations of Latinos had called home—and most importantly—a state that has, from its founding days, portended the future of the country. The voices of the Latino community would be given expression.

It was the famous Greek philosopher Aristotle who said that “if liberty and equality are to be attained in democracy, they are best achieved when all alike participate in government to the utmost.” Not just democracy in the political sense—but democracy in all of the institutions which shape our society. We see that spirit so clearly in our honorees, and in every community across California.

In the 41 years since five Assembly Members came together to form our caucus, we have grown and thrived—from the election of the first Latina in 1982, to the election of the first openly gay Latino in 2008, our caucus continues to reflect the great diversity of California life. We have seen our ranks swell to 86 members over the course of those 41 years, with 24 members serving under this dome today.

California is stronger, more prosperous, more united, and far richer in spirit because of the celebration of inclusion and diversity that today's ceremony represents. The Latino Caucus and our sister caucuses have institutionalized a voice for everyone in government, and ensured that our government reflects the hopes and aspirations of every person in our state. That ultimately strengthens all of us, and that is a powerful legacy of the work of so many trailblazers from our history. That is a powerful symbol of the spirit of inclusion and acceptance that the Latino Caucus represents, and reflects on the broader spirit of inclusion and diversity that forms the foundation of the California Dream. We see that spirit in the faces of the members of the caucus. We see that spirit in the ranks of our honorees, and we see that spirit throughout the year as we celebrate those moments of pride—and yes, of sorrow—from so many different cultures, whether it's Cinco de Mayo, our commemorations of the Holocaust and Armenian Genocide, Black History Month, or Chinese New Year. Those celebrations, like our commemoration of the Latino Spirit Awards, are ultimately celebrations of California, because in observing each of them, we do not observe our differences, but rather our commonalities. These are the ties that bind us together as Californians.

Today, we celebrate a moment from the history of Mexico. We celebrate the pride of Latino Californians. But ultimately, today is a celebration of that simple and powerful concept: e pluribus unum.

CLOSING REMARKS

Speaker pro Tempore Campos, on behalf of the Chair, Vice Chair, and Members of the Legislative Latino Caucus and Speaker Pérez, thanked today's honorees, guests, and the Members of the Assembly for their participation in the Assembly's observance of Cinco de Mayo Week and the Latino Spirit Awards.

Loving God, We give You thanks and praise for gathering us together as we witness the swearing in of our newly elected Assembly Speaker, Toni Atkins.

We ask for Your spirit of wisdom and discernment to guide and empower our new Speaker as Ms. Atkins continues to create outreach in building positive relationships and constructive resolution to differences of thought and direction, thereby promoting growth and hope, even during challenging times, for the common good of all.

May these blessings, which we request and celebrate today, continue to promote a spirit of collaboration among all elected state and city officials, community leaders and agencies. Guide us all as we seek to create employment opportunities, economic development, commitment to public safety, expanded access to healthcare, and improved quality of education for our youth and those seeking a higher level of education.

Strengthen us through respectful skills of leadership, by example, that we live what we preach and teach, that all may see in us people who care, who have compassion, people who can forgive and heal, people who celebrate all who call California home, regardless of race, creed, immigration status, or sexual orientation.

Bless us all as we strive to work together for the future of our state, our families, and our communities, improving the quality of life for all. We praise and thank You, who lives now and forever.—AMEN.

ADDRESS BY SPEAKER PÉREZ

Members and guests, today marks the beginning of another auspicious chapter in the history of this chamber. For only the third time in our state's history, we will look to this Rostrum with pride to address Madame Speaker. For only the second time in the history of our nation, a lesbian has been entrusted with the office of Speaker. And for the first time, the people of San Diego can look proudly to one of their own as California's Speaker. But there is certainly someone here today for whom this moment is especially proud—Jennifer LeSar. Many of us have been privileged to come to know her, and I have been privileged to work with her. We all look forward to her new role in the Assembly family.

This is a proud moment for our state, one that speaks to the diversity and spirit of inclusion that California prides itself on. Every woman in California can look to our new Speaker and know that every moment of her service will be devoted to their hopes and aspirations, that she is a Speaker who has dedicated her life to improving their health and well-being, and that she has fought for policies that respect their dignity and champion their intrinsic rights.

Every member of the LGBT community can look to our new Speaker and know that when those great questions of public policy are debated, one of their own has a seat at the table—that our new Speaker understands the challenges we face and will work tirelessly to continue making progress to build an inclusive and welcoming society for every member of our community.

Every veteran who has served our state and our nation with pride and distinction, whose enormous sacrifices have been matched only by the sacrifices of the families they've left behind on deployments, can look to this Assembly and know that its new Speaker admires their service, respects the contributions they have made, and will live up to our basic obligation as citizens to welcome them home with all the opportunities they deserve.

And every person who has ever come to our state seeking new opportunities to make the most of their potential can look to our new Speaker as the latest embodiment of the California Dream—someone who grew up in modest circumstances in West Virginia, who came to our state in search of opportunities for a better life, and found those opportunities in California—will look with pride towards the Speaker who has traveled that same journey, and will renew the California Dream for the next generation.

We know that we have made much progress in restoring opportunities for every citizen. We have worked tirelessly to put California's fiscal house in order and inject new vigor and energy into our job market. We have worked to roll back a decade of fee increases that have made the cost of higher education a tremendous burden to bear for middle-class families, and we have given the hardest working Californians a long-overdue raise that will improve their quality of life. We have worked to expand access to healthcare for millions of our citizens, and we have enacted groundbreaking laws to respect the basic human dignity of every one of our citizens. But we know we have much more work to do.

And we know that Speaker Atkins will continue to lead us forward in confronting head-on, the great challenges that remain, with a spirit of devotion and service worthy of the people of the greatest state in the Union. She has served as our Majority Leader with poise and distinction. She has earned the respect and admiration of every member of this Chamber. Her lifetime of service, as a Legislative Staffer and a member of the San Diego City Council, has shown her strength and decisiveness as a leader—strength and decisiveness that became a source of healing for San Diego during her time as Acting Mayor. She stepped into that role in the midst of a crisis, but her steadfast leadership brought that great city together, and restored faith and trust in its government. Her strength, her decisiveness, and her compassion have inspired the respect of the People of San Diego and all of us, as her colleagues, during her service as a Member of this Assembly. We all know that Speaker Atkins will lead the Assembly to new heights as our leader. Every moment of her service will be devoted to building on the progress we have made, strengthening the trust of the people, and creating new opportunities for Californians to thrive.

We will be led by our new Speaker, whose track record of service is one of consistent strength, honor and vision to meet the great challenges of our day. I will be proud to have the opportunity to be the first to address her as Madame Speaker.

APPOINTMENT OF SELECT COMMITTEE ON ESCORT

Pursuant to the election of Toni G. Atkins to the Office of Speaker of the Assembly on March 17, 2014, Speaker Pérez appointed Republican Leader Conway and Assembly Members Ammiano, Campos, Chesbro, Garcia, and Maienschein as a Select Committee on Escort to escort Speaker-elect Atkins, her spouse Jennifer LeSar, and their nephew Thomas Phillips to the Rostrum.

OATH OF OFFICE ADMINISTERED

At 2 p.m., Speaker-elect Toni G. Atkins appeared at the bar of the Assembly and took and subscribed to the following oath of office administered by the Honorable Karen Bass, United States Representative. Thomas Phillips, nephew of Speaker-elect Atkins and her spouse Jennifer LeSar, held the LeSar family Bible during the administration of the oath of office.

OATH

for the Office of Speaker of the California State Assembly 2013–14 Regular Session

I, Toni G. Atkins, do solemnly swear that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of California against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of California; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties upon which I am about to enter.

TONI G. ATKINS

Subscribed and sworn to before me,
this 12th day of May
A.D. 2014

THE HONORABLE DAVID M. RUBIN
Judge, Superior Court of San Diego County

PRESENTATION OF SPEAKER OF THE CALIFORNIA STATE ASSEMBLY
TONI G. ATKINS

Speaker Emeritus Pérez then presented the 69th Speaker of the California State Assembly, Hon. Toni G. Atkins, whereupon she addressed the assemblage.

ADDRESS BY SPEAKER ATKINS

Good afternoon! To all our guests today, and my Assembly colleagues, I thank you for the honor of your presence in our Chamber.

Governor Brown, Lt. Governor Newsom, President Pro-Tem Steinberg, Chief Justice Cantil-Sakauye and all the Constitutional Officers who've joined us—welcome. And thank you so much for taking time to be here. I know these are busy days for you all.

I'd like to give a special acknowledgement to a former member of this house who will be leaving office at the end of this year, Secretary of State Debra Bowen. Thank you for your service in this house and to our state.

To the former Speakers of the People's House who are with us today, we are thrilled by your presence, your histories and your stories. You have served during the best of times and the hardest of times. I hope to call on you for guidance, and since we have moved out of the recession, I won't even have to call you collect.

To the ceremony participants today—Sacramento Valley Veterans, who presented the Colors; Jamie Palmer, who did such a great job with the anthem; the Faith Fellowship Community Church Choir; and my dear friend, Father Henry Rodriguez—thank you all for making this day special for me and my family.

To the Consuls General who are here, thank you for coming. I look forward to working with you to increase the personal and economic ties between California and the great nations you represent.

I also want to thank my staff, the Speaker's staff and the Speaker's Office of Member Services for all your work leading up to and including today.

Senator Kehoe—a heartfelt thanks for your generous comments, and for your mentorship and friendship over the years. Most of all, thank you for giving me the first opportunity to serve. You set me on the path towards this moment.

Congresswoman and Speaker Bass—I cannot tell you what it means to me that you would be here to administer my Oath of Office. Your guidance and support mean so much—it's a historic moment and a huge honor to have the First Democratic Woman Speaker swear in the Second Democratic Woman Speaker. Thank you!

I'm fortunate that so many of my long-time friends and family, and just a whole plane-load of San Diegans, are here to share in this day—my twin sister, Tenia Phillips and my nephew, Thomas Phillips. My parents-in-law, Dr. Jack LeSar and Kate LeSar, and my brother-in-law, Peter LeSar, who came all the way from Panama. My college advisor/early mentor, Dr. Stephen Fisher, and his wife and my friend, Nancy Garretson are here. It was Dr. Fisher who told me 30 years ago to "Imagine the world you want to live in and then work to create it." Steve, I hope you see how seriously I took that lesson to heart. My college friend Pam Kestner is here. She is working in the Virginia Governor's cabinet to end homelessness in our home state. Along with Dr. Fisher we started the first feminist studies course 30 years ago at Emory & Henry College.

Of course, the absence today of my own parents, Betty and Jim Atkins, is hard for me to dwell on without emotion. By now you've heard my personal story, and people seem to think my early life was hard. Their lives were much harder—and way too short—having lived the hard lives of blue collar workers without health coverage, lower wages than they deserved, no sick leave, and certainly substandard housing. And yet, they instilled in me a desire to learn and, particularly, to read, despite their own limited educations. They gave me the work ethic that I truly believe led me to today. I'm so grateful to them, and I'm sorry they didn't get to see the successes of their kids and grandkids.

Today—Tenia, Thomas, Jack and Kate, Peter, Steve and Nancy, Chris, Pam, and all my friends—you are my family, and I thank you for being here when my parents couldn't physically be present. Given that today is actually a City Council day in San Diego, I'm truly honored that our Mayor, Kevin Faulconer, and my good friend Councilmember David Alvarez, are here today representing our great city. On behalf of myself and Assemblymember Maienschein, I want to thank our San Diego City Council Class of 2000 who are here today—we were all sworn in together—Congressman Scott Peters, and Jim Madaffer.

To all the incredible San Diegans who are here, too many to name individually, today is a day to be proud. Forty years ago we had a Senate President pro Tem. Twenty years ago, we had a Governor. And today we complete the Triple Crown for America's Finest City as we gain a Speaker of the Assembly.

I want to humbly thank my colleagues—Democrats and Republicans—for allowing me the privilege to serve as your Speaker. I promise to work hard and to work with you every single day to live up to this honor.

I want to say how much I've enjoyed working as Majority Leader alongside my counterpart in the Republican Caucus, Curt Hagman. He plays a mean Wii guitar, and he knows the House Rules as well as anyone here, with the exception of our incredible Chief Clerk, Dotson Wilson. Curt, thank you for the relationship we've built.

I said it in March on this floor, and it bears repeating—Republican Leader Connie Conway is a class act, hands down. To have the opportunity to serve as Speaker alongside her is something I am definitely looking forward to. And take note, this will be the first time in the history of our state that either House of the Legislature has had two women leaders. We intend to do a few things! So pay attention.

OK, this may seem an odd place in the speech to finally acknowledge my spouse. But it is at this moment that I want to assure her that—unlike our wedding, where I thanked every single attendee—I am, save for one, done with the 'thank-yous'. Jennifer, I give you my most sincere appreciation for your support, love, friendship, and advice, and for taking this journey with me. I'm truly blessed to have you in my life and as my spouse.

Now for that last thank you.

Mr. Speaker—John A. Pérez, 68th Speaker of the California Assembly—we in this house, we in this state, owe you a huge debt of gratitude. I want to add my personal thanks for your leadership. I have watched you closely these last three years, inspired by your thoughtfulness in assessing and solving problems—something I'm not sure many people witness up close—your intelligence, your courage and your controlled patience as you wait for many of us to catch up. I truly appreciate how incredibly easy this transition has been. To those here who know you best, they will not be surprised to hear that I basically now have an extensive manual for “How to be Speaker” beautifully prepared and appropriately branded.

Speaker Karen Bass said the day you were sworn in, “He will be a phenomenal leader!” How right she was! And Mr. Speaker, you said that day, “After a period of time, when it’s my turn to hand over the gavel, I want to be able to look back and say we delivered. We put California back to work, we fixed the budget system . . .” A transparent budget process, the implementation of Covered California, the Middle Class Scholarship, a vigorous focus on Veterans, support for women in leadership positions, and on and on. Well, Mr. Speaker, you can absolutely say we delivered. And what’s more, you are leaving a lasting imprint on the Assembly. Thank you!

Colleagues, I am prepared, ready, and eager to step up and lead this house. And as I look out at you now, I know that we are all here to do the people’s business. It means something to each one of us.

Following in the tradition of Speaker Pérez, I highlighted some special individuals for the banners in the rotunda.

Pearl S. Buck—the first American woman to win a Nobel Prize for Literature. She grew up in a different time and a different part of Appalachia, and though she traveled the world, she remained connected to her home.

Theodore Geisel—Dr. Seuss—a man who created fantastic worlds, and who chose to live in one of the best worlds of all, La Jolla, which I am proud to represent.

Barbara Jordan—Congressmember and Civil Rights leader, who, 40 years ago this summer in a time of crisis, became one of the Constitution’s strongest defenders—even while being denied equal protection under the law.

And Harriet Tubman—one of the bravest of the “conductors” on the Underground Railroad, a railroad with many stops throughout the region I grew up in. Harriet Tubman once said, “Every great dream begins with a dreamer. Always remember, you have within you the strength, the patience, and the passion to reach for the stars and to change the world.” I know some days it’s hard to remember to be dreamers.

In the midst of the daily grind of obligations, the schedule, the “to-do” list, the phone calls and meetings, committees, bill presentations, and politics, we can get distanced from the inspirations that brought us here to serve. But there are moments when we remember. When we reflect. When we recharge. Transition brings us the opportunity to reassess, to take stock, to recommit ourselves to a higher purpose. Now I realize, I may be feeling that today a bit more than others. But I hope not. I want you with me. I need you with me. Today, in my mind, is about the collective we and what we can accomplish for California. In preparing for today, I took the time to read the remarks of previous Speakers who outlined their hopes and dreams for what they wanted for our great state. I wondered what new profound thing I could possibly add to this thread of an ongoing California dialogue. And I realized most of the messages are the same—packaged differently, articulately presented, but really the same.

We want to restore the Golden State that provided our kids the best education and good jobs. We want to ensure that the California Dream is alive and well for everyone in our state, and for everyone who, like me, comes here to achieve their dream. We want the Golden State to be the gold standard that others strive towards. For the last decade, and especially in light of the Great Recession, we've had to work our way back, and California has finally turned the corner.

We are still the 8th largest economy in the world—and Members, regardless of how it may be misrepresented, we aren't really in competition with Texas. We are in competition with Brazil and Italy and France. We are a $2 trillion economy. We are the number one state for venture capital. We have 3.4 million small businesses that provide more than half the jobs in California. And last year we enacted 18 new business-friendly laws that will help business owners by removing regulatory burdens, restoring some investment tax breaks, and by creating the Made in California program. I might add, proudly, that Forbes recently ranked San Diego as the best large American city in which to start a business. San Francisco and San Jose were also in the top 10.

Our budget has a surplus and our credit rating is up. In January, Standard & Poor's changed California's credit outlook from positive to stable and more recently they've written a favorable report about our Rainy Day Fund proposal as a model. But we can always do better. Somewhere between Pollyanna and Chicken Little, there's a lot of room to roll up our sleeves and work to make sure California's business climate is strong, and that our state's quality of life is equally strong.

In making those efforts, we cannot forget that too many Californians have not made it out of the Recession. It's still a real fact of life for them, every day.

We have an opportunity starting this week—as we receive our Governor's May Budget Revision and as we get even deeper into the work of hammering out a final budget—to take our state forward into the next year with a budget that works to continue the economic recovery in our state. We must work to ensure stability, and that includes an adequate reserve for those rainy days when the economy again takes a downward dive. And yet we must realize that where we have our greatest challenge is, at the same time, expanding opportunity and lifting up the most vulnerable who've suffered a great deal and need us not to forget them now.

While we had to make difficult decisions during the Recession, they have been holding on with white knuckles and with so much at stake. Their dreams were put on hold, or spread out over a longer time frame. Sadly, I think some even relinquished their dreams. We can't let that happen, we can't let their dreams die. Trust me, in so many ways that would be bad for California.

That's why we must continue on the path of rebuilding the foundation of our educational system, re-investing in K–12, our UC and CSU systems, and our Community Colleges. Let me just say how excited I am to now serve as a Regent and Trustee for the UC and CSU systems—which include many of the best schools our country has to offer. And I am committed to working with you to increase access to these great universities for all Californians.

Keeping in mind fiscal efficiency and cost, we must also collectively work with our Senate colleagues and our Governor on how to reach even earlier into the lives of our most precious asset, our children, to offer expanded preschool opportunities and to strengthen kindergarten participation. As Pearl S. Buck said, “If our American way of life fails the child, it fails us all.” Numerous economists will tell you, the best way to grow our economy is to invest in our children and in the education of our people. And in doing so, we support, sustain, and protect vital industries and jobs for our state. We must make it a priority to prepare our young people and adults to be in the best position to help expand our Bio-Tech, Life Sciences and High Tech industries.

In addition to expanded access to our colleges and universities, we need to recognize and take every opportunity to work in partnership with our community colleges and Labor on apprenticeship programs that lead to good quality jobs and careers that rebuild our infrastructure, including affordable housing for our citizens. We should celebrate the fact that California does, in fact, feed the country and the world, creating a multi-billion dollar industry that provides jobs and helps sustain our overall economy.

As we discuss and plan our overall water infrastructure needs, we understand how vital it is that we protect our agricultural industry here in California, and at the same time protect our environmental and natural resources. It will take a serious balancing act to accomplish these goals, which many times seem to be in conflict, but I know we can and must figure this out. That is our charge, and together, we will succeed.

We must continue to work towards full health coverage for all Californians. A healthy people can only make for a healthy state! I applaud the tenacity of Covered California and the Department of Health Care Services for staying focused as we continue to improve our systems and make the promise of health care real for the first time for so many people. We should be proud that over three million Californians are enrolled in health coverage because of the Affordable Care Act. As we expand coverage through Medi-Cal and private insurance, we must ensure that we have the medical professionals to provide services, otherwise there really isn’t access to healthcare. And we need to ensure that providers are paid what it costs for the service.

We should take great pride in recognizing that over two million Veterans call California home, and we must do everything we can to assist veterans in their successful transition when they come home and return to civilian life. This Legislature stepped up, and with our Governor, approved additional resources to reduce the backlog and time it was taking for our Veterans to get the benefits they have earned. We must continue those efforts.

Sadly, more than 25% of the homeless Veterans in this country also call the streets of California home. That is unacceptable. President Obama wants to end veterans’ homelessness by December 2015. California has to be a leader in that effort. We have a ways to go, but California has taken steps to address that issue with the passage of AB 639 by Speaker Pérez and getting that on the ballot for June. I would certainly add here that I have a commitment to providing more affordable housing and reducing homelessness for Veterans, but I also care deeply about reducing homelessness for all Californians. More than 135,000 people are living on our streets, in our parks and canyons, and along the freeway exit ramps of this great state. That is unacceptable.

So, if I have a personal priority—it is reducing homelessness and making sure we have affordable housing, not just to house the homeless, but for working Californians as well. Building affordable housing, and housing in general, creates jobs for California. Let's support a win-win solution of housing people and creating jobs.

As Barbara Jordan said, "The imperative is to define what is right and do it." Members and guests, I would like to conclude by acknowledging a few more people who are here with us today. See, Jennifer—you knew I wouldn't be able to help myself.

With us today are David Camacho and Rosa Olascoaga. David and Rosa are residents of City Heights, and they attend Reality Changers, a scholarship program headquartered in a place where fewer than 3% of adults have college diplomas. They are here with the Founder and CEO of Reality Changers, Christopher Yanov. I am happy to say that thanks to their academic success and community service, David and Rosa will soon both be first-generation college students. David and Rosa—and all of our Davids and Rosas who live in each of our districts—are the reasons we're here. To build the future. To make the Golden State shine. To help shape what happens to our communities and our state. To care about each other and our neighbors.

And to quote Dr. Seuss, who was quite a reality changer himself, "Unless someone like you cares a whole awful lot, nothing is going to get better. It's not."

Thank you for caring, Members, and thank you for this privilege!

Dear Senators Steinberg and Huff, and Assembly Members Atkins and Conway:

The Legislative Analyst will be forwarded a copy for analysis, and the Secretary of the Senate and the Clerk of the Assembly will be forwarded copies to make them noted as available for review in the daily journals.

The above mentioned tentative agreement and summary can also be found by going to the following link:

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following message from the Governor was received and ordered printed in the Journal:

Governor's Message—Assembly Bill No. 1035

Governor's Office, Sacramento

May 13, 2014

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

Last year, in vetoing AB 1373, I expressed concern in enacting legislation prior to the availability of more research and fiscal data on the risks of death from cancer and other job related diseases on firefighters. The results of the National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health study on mortality and cancer incidence on US firefighters are now available for review and provide better data on the fiscal impacts of this bill. Importantly, a review of this data anticipates that fewer than 20 cases a year throughout the state would be affected if the provisions only apply to diseases diagnosed during active service.

Therefore, I am signing AB 1035 to extend the time period to file a claim for workers' compensation benefits from 240 weeks to 420 weeks after date of injury, and to require a claim to be filed within one year after the date of death. The bill has been drafted to apply only if the date of injury is during active service, as defined in Section 5412 of the Labor Code, and also contains a sunset date to allow us to examine additional data collected by the Division of Workers' Compensation before reauthorizing the statute.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Lord, Spiritual blindness may not be recognized by the Americans with Disabilities Act, but it is a reality with which many people suffer nonetheless. When things go our way, help us to see that it may not be just a coincidence or simple luck. There may be invisible forces in play, like Your blessings and Your grace. Lord, grant us spiritual vision and the ability to see that when we trust You in every area of our life, we will grow in Your grace and knowledge (2 Peter 3:18).—AMEN.

REPORTS

The following letters of transmittal were presented by the Chief Clerk and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2013-002
May 27, 2014

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly:

As required by California Government Code, Section 8543 et seq., the California State Auditor (state auditor) presents this audit report concerning the review of the State of California's internal controls and compliance with federal laws and regulations for the year ended June 30, 2013. The state auditor contracted with KPMG LLP (KPMG) to perform this review for fiscal year 2012–13.

This report concludes that the State did not materially comply with certain requirements for 10 of the 30 federal programs or clusters of programs (federal programs) KPMG audited. Additionally, although KPMG concluded that the State materially complied with requirements for the remaining federal programs it audited, KPMG reported various instances of noncompliance relating to those programs. Further, the State continues to experience certain deficiencies in its accounting and administrative practices that affect its internal controls over compliance with federal requirements. Deficiencies in the State's internal control system could adversely affect its ability to administer federal programs in compliance with applicable requirements.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE, CPA
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Accountability and Administrative Review.

California State Auditor

2013-001.1
May 27, 2014

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly:

As required by California Government Code, Section 8543 et seq., the State Auditor's Office presents its audit report concerning our review of the State of California's internal controls and compliance with state regulations for the year ended June 30, 2013.

This report concludes that the State continues to experience certain deficiencies in its accounting and administrative practices that affect its internal controls over financial reporting and compliance with state laws. We identified four deficiencies in internal control over financial reporting that we consider to be material weaknesses, and one other deficiency that we consider to be significant. Additionally, we identified an instance of noncompliance that is required to be reported under Government Auditing Standards. Deficiencies in the State's internal control system could adversely affect its ability to provide accurate financial information.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN F. COLLINS II, CPA
Deputy State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Accountability and Administrative Review.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Campos, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Constantine C. Pappademos:

Lord, A common message we hear in our world today is that the key to happiness and fulfillment is to collect as much stuff as we can, or to have everything happen exactly the way we want it. But the goal for us who believe in You, is to keep our focus on You, to know You, trust You, and be obedient to You. Help us, Lord, to learn to be satisfied with what we have and to avoid the tendency to want more of everything. Indeed, giving to others is more blessed than receiving, for it allows us to focus more on Godly things, simple things, and good things.—AMEN.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Campos, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Constantine C. Pappademos:

Lord, A boat can be surrounded by water in the middle of the ocean, but there's no problem unless the boat starts taking on the water. If the boat allows the ocean to come inside, before long, it will sink. Lord, we have frustration, stress, and worry all around us, but You live on the inside of us. Help us, Lord, to stand against the storms of life and to hold our faith in You within us forever.—AMEN.

California State Auditor

2014-008

June 12, 2014

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: The California State Auditor presents this audit report of the State Treasurer's Office statement of securities accountability as of December 31, 2013.

The statement of securities accountability presents securities owned by or pledged to the State directly, and securities held for safekeeping. The State Treasurer's Office is responsible for the safekeeping of all securities held in the treasury or other depositories. It is not responsible for securities owned by or pledged to the University of California, or for securities in other depositories owned by or pledged to the Public Employees' Retirement System, the State Teachers' Retirement System, the Legislators' Retirement System, or the Judges' Retirement System. The statement is prepared solely for purposes of accountability. The dollar amounts represent various values, including par value or face value, original principal value, and current outstanding principal balances. They do not represent cost or market value and should not be used to determine the value of investments owned by, or pledged to, the State. We found that the statement presents fairly the securities accountability of the State Treasurer's Office as of December 31, 2013.

We conducted this audit to comply with the California Government Code, Section 13299.1.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN F. COLLINS II, CPA

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Campos, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Constantine C. Pappademos:

Lord, You cannot really help us, even if You wanted to, unless we acquire a positive way of thinking. The reason is because You are love and, as Paul said in his letter to the Corinthians, “love is not irritable or resentful.” (1 Corinthians 13:5) Lord, protect us against negative thoughts ever penetrating our soul. For when we, under all circumstances, are able to have positive thoughts, we will be winners in life and life for us will be a constant celebration.—AMEN.

Upon request of Speaker pro Tempore Campos, Assembly Member Gomez then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

Lord, Small children and babies love to mimic our every sound and action. To them, it's a fun game, but internally, they are learning by watching and copying everything we do. So many people end up today, imitating what they see in the world, on TV, in the news, and in magazines. But Scripture tells us to be imitators of You and to follow Your example of love. Lord, help us to change by imitating You more and to receive Your results of peace and joy, and Your blessings all the days of our lives.—AMEN.

REPORTS

The following letter of transmittal was presented by the Chief Clerk and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2013-130
June 17, 2014

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the California State Auditor (state auditor) presents this audit report concerning the California Public Utilities Commission's (commission) Transportation Enforcement Branch's (branch) efforts to regulate passenger carriers, as well as its use of fees it collects from these carriers.

This report concludes that the branch does not adequately ensure that passenger carriers comply with state law. Specifically, we found that the branch has not established formal policies and procedures for staff to follow when addressing complaints against passenger carriers, and it does not ensure that staff resolve these complaints in a timely or adequate manner. Without formal guidance, investigators have not always ensured that passenger carriers comply with critical safety requirements. In addition, when the branch's investigators have issued citations to passenger carriers, the citations have been for amounts much lower than state law allows.

We also determined that the commission fails to perform periodic reviews of passenger carrier fee payments, which are based on a percentage of revenues, to ensure that the State receives the appropriate amount of fees. Further, because the commission's accounting staff do not compare the amount it collects from passenger carriers to the amount spent regulating those carriers, the commission cannot ensure that it spends passenger carrier fees only on regulating those carriers, and risks being unable to support the validity of its fees if payers challenge them. Additionally, although the fiscal year 2007–08 budget authorized the commission to hire five additional investigators to enforce statutes concerning passenger carriers operating at the State's airports, the branch is not using those staff for airport enforcement.

The main reason for the deficiencies we found is a lack of effective program leadership. Specifically, branch management has not established program goals or performance measures to guide its oversight efforts. In addition, the branch does not ensure investigators receive adequate training related to their duties. One of the key reasons for the lack of program oversight and training is turnover and vacancies in key branch management positions. Without major improvements to its management processes, we question the branch's ability to resolve its current deficiencies and to implement the expanded oversight required by recent legislation, as well as a recent initiative requiring the branch to regulate other types of passenger carriers.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE, CPA
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Utilities and Commerce.

REPORTS

The following letter of transmittal was presented by the Chief Clerk and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2013-120
June 19, 2014

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the California State Auditor (state auditor) presents this audit report concerning female inmate sterilizations occurring between fiscal years 2005–06 and 2012–13. The California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (Corrections) oversees the inmate population of the State's 33 adult prisons, four of which housed substantially all women. However, for much of our audit period, Corrections' role in providing inmates with medical care was not significant. California Correctional Health Care Services (Receiver's Office) played the more substantial role under the direction of a federal court-appointed receiver who took control of prison medical care in 2006 and will retain control until the court finds Corrections can maintain a constitutionally adequate prison medical care system.

This report concludes that during our eight-year audit period, 144 female inmates were sterilized by a procedure known as bilateral tubal ligation, a surgery generally performed for the sole purpose of sterilization. State regulations impose informed consent requirements that must be met before a woman can be sterilized; however, Corrections and the Receiver's Office sometimes failed to ensure that inmates' consent for sterilization was lawfully obtained. Overall, we noted that 39 inmates were sterilized following deficiencies in the informed consent process. For 27 of the 39 inmates, the physician performing the procedure or an alternate physician failed to sign the inmate's consent form certifying that the inmate appeared mentally competent and understood the lasting effects of the procedure. For 18 of the 39 inmates, we noted potential violations of the waiting period between when the inmate consented to the procedure and when the sterilization surgery actually took place. Finally, among these 39 inmates were six who were sterilized following violations of both these requirements. Although neither Corrections nor the Receiver's Office's employees actually performed the sterilization procedures, we concluded that they had a responsibility to ensure that the informed consent requirements were followed in those instances in which their employees obtained inmates' consent, which was the case for at least 19 of the 39 inmates.

Our audit also noted that prison medical staff infrequently requested approval to sterilize inmates, and when they did so, it was not always clear that these requests were approved. However, since January 2010, medical claims data from the Receiver's Office show that the number of female inmates who have undergone bilateral tubal ligations and other medical procedures that may result in sterilization has greatly decreased.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE, CPA
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Public Safety.

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT TO PRINT IN JOURNAL

Assembly Member Weber was granted unanimous consent that the following communication relative to Juneteenth Independence Day 2014 be printed in the Journal:

June 19, 2014

E. Dotson Wilson

Chief Clerk of the Assembly

State Capitol, Room 3196

Sacramento, California

Dear Mr. Wilson: On June 19, 2014, as a Member of the California State Assembly, I would like to recognize Juneteenth Independence Day in the Assembly Journal.

Juneteenth Independence Day is a national celebration that commemorates the abolishment of slavery in the United States of America. California is one of 44 states to recognize Juneteenth as either a state holiday or special day of observance.

President Abraham Lincoln issued the Emancipation Proclamation on September 22, 1862, which would later go into effect on January 1, 1863. Despite the fact that it declared slaves to be free, many southern states that made up the Confederate States of America would not comply with the proclamation, including Texas, most notably.

Union General Gordon Granger and 2,000 federal troops made it to the island of Galveston, Texas on June 18, 1865, on a mission to take possession of the state and enforce the emancipation of its slaves. On June 19, the General read "General Order No. 3" which further declared that "The people of Texas were informed that, in accordance with the proclamation from the Executive of the United States, all slaves are free." Former slaves rejoiced in the streets and Juneteenth celebrations began in Texas the following year.

The celebration of Juneteenth provides Californians with the opportunity to reflect on our recent history, appreciate the struggles of our ancestors, and honor their labor with our daily efforts as we seek to provide the highest quality of life possible for all Californians.

Sincerely,

SHIRLEY N. WEBER, Assembly Member
Seventy-ninth District

MEMBER PERMITTED TO ADDRESS THE BODY

Assembly Member Weber was granted unanimous consent to address the Body relative to Juneteenth Independence Day 2014.

REPORTS

California State Auditor

2013-124
June 24, 2014

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the California State Auditor presents this audit report concerning sexual harassment and sexual violence at certain California universities. Sexual harassment and sexual violence against university students is an issue of critical importance and prohibited by law. Our audit focused on four universities: the University of California, Berkeley; the University of California, Los Angeles; California State University, Chico; and San Diego State University.

This report concludes that the universities do not ensure that all faculty and staff are sufficiently trained on responding to and reporting student incidents of sexual harassment and sexual violence. Although staff involved in key roles of the incident-reporting process receive adequate training, certain other employees who are likely to be the first point of contact, such as resident advisors and athletic coaches, do not. By not ensuring that employees are sufficiently trained on responding to and reporting incidents of sexual harassment and sexual violence, the universities risk having their employees mishandle student reports of the incidents. In addition, the universities must do more to appropriately educate students on sexual harassment and sexual violence. The universities should ensure that incoming students receive this education near the time that they arrive on campus, as they may be the most vulnerable to experiencing an incident of sexual harassment or sexual violence in their first weeks on campus. The universities should also provide periodic refresher training, at least annually, to all continuing students. Further, universities should ensure that the content of the education on sexual violence covers all topics outlined in statute.

None of the four universities consistently complied with requirements in state law for distribution of policies to inform students and university employees of how to appropriately respond to and handle incidents of sexual violence and sexual harassment. Further, the universities did not post their policies in certain prominent locations on campus where they might be seen by large numbers of students, such as residence halls and other university housing and athletic facilities. Although state law does not specifically require posting the policies in these key locations, they could serve as critical places to inform and remind students of the policies.

Each university we reviewed has an adequate overall process for responding to incidents of sexual harassment and sexual violence; however, the universities need to improve these processes in some key areas. The universities should do more to demonstrate that students who may have experienced sexual harassment or sexual violence are informed of their reporting options and what to expect regarding the universities' subsequent actions. The universities also need to better inform students who file a complaint of the status of the investigation and the eventual outcome. Finally, the universities need to evaluate summary data related to incidents of sexual harassment and sexual violence. Evaluation of these data would allow the universities to identify trends, which could then inform their outreach and protection efforts.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE, CPA
State Auditor

REPORTS

The following letter of transmittal was presented by the Chief Clerk and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2013-123
June 26, 2014

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the California State Auditor (state auditor) presents this audit report concerning the accreditation process of California’s community colleges. This report concludes that inconsistent application of the accreditation process and a lack of transparency in that process, are weakening the accreditation of California’s community colleges. In July 2013 the commission notified the City College of San Francisco (CCSF) of its decision to terminate the college’s accreditation after allowing it only one year to come into compliance with accreditation standards. However, the commission could have taken a less severe course. In comparison, between January 2009 and January 2014, the commission allowed 15 institutions to take two years to comply with accreditation standards and allowed another six institutions to take up to five years to come into compliance. Further, according to federal regulations, the commission has the ability to extend CCSF’s time period beyond the one year it provided or even the two-year maximum for good cause. In January 2014 the San Francisco Superior Court granted a request for an injunction preventing the commission from terminating the college’s accreditation pending further court order or the outcome of a lawsuit filed by the city attorney of San Francisco. A trial is currently scheduled for October 2014, and the injunction does not prohibit the commission from reversing its decision to terminate CCSF’s accreditation.

The commission's decision regarding CCSF's accreditation raises concerns about its reasoning for taking such a severe action. Although the commission's policies describe its obligation to provide transparency in accreditation, the commission conducts its most significant decision making regarding an institution's accreditation status in closed sessions. A significant minority—38 percent—of college executives responding to a survey we conducted also felt the commission's decision-making process was not adequately transparent. Some suggested opening the process to the public, while others suggested allowing the college executive to be present for the deliberations on his or her institution. Further, although institutions are allowed to appeal a commission decision to terminate accreditation, the appeal process does not provide an institution with a definitive right to introduce new evidence as part of its appeal and such a limitation could be detrimental to an institution that has made progress in addressing deficiencies in the time following the commission's termination decision. We also found that the commission sanctions—an action taken when an institution has not met the commission's standards—California's community colleges at a significantly higher rate than any of the six other regional accreditors in the nation. Although the commission is the only entity currently authorized to accredit California's community colleges, options exist that could allow for greater choice, provided the State modifies its regulations to allow for additional accreditors. Finally, the California Community Colleges Chancellor's Office could improve its monitoring of community colleges to identify institutions that might be at risk of receiving a sanction—or worse—from the commission.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE, CPA
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Higher Education.

REPORTS

The following letter of transmittal was presented by the Chief Clerk and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2013-126
July 8, 2014

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee (committee), the California State Auditor presents this audit report concerning the rates charged by four water utilities in the Antelope Valley (valley). Specifically, we were asked to audit the rates that three government-owned utilities (public utilities)—Los Angeles County Waterworks, District 40 (LA District 40), Palmdale Water District, Quartz Hill Water District (Quartz Hill)—and one investor-owned utility (investor utility), California Water Service Company (Cal Water) charge their respective customers. In addition, the committee requested that we identify and evaluate significant factors contributing to each water utility's rates.

This report concludes that water rates differ considerably among the four water utilities and that various cost factors affect the water rates that each of them charges. For example, investor utilities incur costs that public utilities do not, including property and franchise taxes. In addition, each utility has access to different revenue sources, with public utilities receiving revenues in addition to monthly water rates, primarily property taxes, which help them cover their costs and contribute to lower rates. A utility's sources of water also contribute to cost variations.

Our review also found that all four utilities increased their water rates between 2011 and 2013 and the utilities were generally able to substantiate reasons for their increases. Furthermore, processes are in place to protect consumers from unreasonable rate increases, which each water utility could demonstrate it followed, with some exceptions for Quartz Hill and LA District 40. However, the requirements for notice under Proposition 218 could be clarified by the Legislature to provide further guidance to public utilities. In addition, a constitutional provision under that same law allowing parcel owners to protest a rate increase is unlikely to prohibit increased rates because it requires that a majority of parcel owners submit a written request.

Finally, the utilities attested to a variety of cost saving efforts to keep their water rates reasonable, but were not always able to demonstrate that these efforts generated any quantifiable cost savings to their customers. Additionally, Cal Water offers two rate assistance programs to qualified customers in the valley while the three other utilities do not currently offer rate assistance programs or discounts to their customers' monthly water bills.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE, CPA
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Utilities and Commerce.

MESSAGES FROM THE ACTING GOVERNOR

The following message from the Acting Governor was received and ordered printed in the Journal:

A PROCLAMATION

In 1987 Jess Jessop first incorporated what would ultimately become Lambda Archives of San Diego using materials that he and Doug Moore had collected. In the intervening 27 years Lambda Archives of San Diego has become one of the nation's premier resources regarding LGBT history and culture.

The mission of Lambda Archives of San Diego is to collect, preserve, and teach the history of lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender people in the San Diego and Northern Baja California region.

The Lambda Archives of San Diego collections include both recent materials, such as items related to protesting Proposition 8, and items dating back to the 1930s, documenting the growth and evolution of San Diego's dynamic LGBT community. The Lambda Archives of San Diego collections have proven invaluable in educating and empowering the community and in providing source material for researchers. Lambda Archives of San Diego also provides educational displays and exhibits for San Diego Pride, the San Diego Public Library, local colleges and universities and other community organizations.

Because they play such a vital role in preserving the history of the LGBT community so we have a guide to help us in building the future, I congratulate Lambda Archives of San Diego on 27 years of valuable service, urge all Californians to help celebrate the 27th anniversary of Lambda Archives of San Diego, and wish them many more years of success.

NOW THEREFORE I, TONI G. ATKINS, Acting Governor of the State of California, do hereby officially commemorate the 27th anniversary of Lambda Archives of San Diego.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand
and caused the Great Seal of the State of California
to be affixed this 30th day of July, 2014.

TONI G. ATKINS
Acting Governor of California

ATTEST:

DEBRA BOWEN
Secretary of State

A PROCLAMATION

In July 1982 Tony Gwynn began his Major League Baseball career with the San Diego Padres. He played his entire career with the team, once stating, "One of the things I'm proudest about is that I played for one team. My baseball card looks awesome because it has San Diego all the way down. I grew up in an environment where that kind of stuff was important."

In his 20 years with the Padres, Tony Gwynn had 3,141 hits and a .338 batting average. He represented the Padres in the All-Star Game 15 times and was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2007.

Over the course of his career Tony Gwynn earned the affectionate nickname "Mr. Padre." The Padres retired his jersey, No. 19, in 2004.

After retiring from baseball, Tony Gwynn became head baseball coach for his alma mater, San Diego State University, where he shared his love of the game with a new generation. "I love being on the field, coaching kids and bus rides," he said. "I am made to be a college coach. And it's all right here in my hometown."

In addition to his formidable skills on the field, Tony Gwynn was also admired for his kindness and graciousness and for his exuberant personality.

Tony Gwynn and his wife Alicia established the Tony Gwynn Foundation, which helps fund many organizations supporting children. Tony Gwynn was also active in the Padres Scholars program, which provides college scholarships to middle school students who go on to graduate high school.

On June 16, 2014 Tony Gwynn passed away at the too-young age of 54. On June 26, 2014, more than 23,000 fans attended a memorial for Tony Gwynn at Petco Park.

Today, when the sights and sounds of the game he loved still fill the summer air, I ask all Californians to join in honoring the memory of someone whose talent, sportsmanship and humanity represent the very best of our state. As one sports journalist recently wrote, the late, great and thoroughly decent Tony Gwynn will never stop being honored and that's exactly how it should be.

NOW THEREFORE I, TONI G. ATKINS, Acting Governor of the State of California, do hereby proclaim July 30, 2014, as "Tony Gwynn Day."

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand
and caused the Great Seal of the State of California
to be affixed this 30th day of July, 2014.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following veto messages from the Governor were received and ordered printed in the Journal:

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 1890

Governor's Office, Sacramento
July 18, 2014

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 1890 without my signature.

This bill would make it illegal for any person to use the title of "athletic trainer" unless that person goes to college, gets a bachelor degree and meets various other certification requirements.

These conditions impose unnecessary burdens on athletic trainers without sufficient evidence that they are really needed.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 2419

Governor's Office, Sacramento
July 18, 2014

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 2419 without my signature.

This bill would authorize management employees in the County of Los Angeles and the City of Los Angeles to establish an agency shop arrangement, an arrangement that is not permissible under the labor law that governs state employees.

Granting agency shop to managers, as required by this bill, goes against sound labor-management relations that should require a clear separation between managers and rank and file employees.

Last year, I vetoed SB 765 for similar reasons.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Receipt of Bills

I acknowledge receipt this 18th day of July, 2014, at 10:20 a.m., of the following Assembly Bills without the Governor's signature, together with a statement of his objections thereto, signed by the Governor, delivered to me personally by Jacque Roberts:

Assembly Bills Nos. 1890 and 2419.

SUE PARKER
Assistant Chief Clerk of the Assembly

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 1503

Governor's Office, Sacramento
July 21, 2014

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 1503 without my signature.

This bill would require the state to enter into a long-term lease with a specific non-profit organization for the construction and operation of a museum on the property of Folsom State Prison. Current law already allows the state to enter into shorter leases without specifying the lessee.

Rather than forcing the state to allow a little-known, non-governmental entity to use public property for up to 50 years, I would prefer that supporters pursue the existing authority provided in statute.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Receipt of Bills

I acknowledge receipt this 21st day of July, 2014, at 11:35 a.m., of the following Assembly Bill without the Governor's signature, together with a statement of his objections thereto, signed by the Governor, delivered to me personally by Jacque Roberts:

Assembly Bill No. 1503.

REPORTS

The following letter of transmittal was presented by the Chief Clerk and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2013-122
August 7, 2014

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the California State Auditor (state auditor) presents this audit report concerning whether the California Department of Toxic Substances Control (department) has an effective process for recovering costs from responsible parties for cleanup and oversight actions the department takes in response to hazardous waste and substance contamination.

This report concludes that long-standing shortcomings with the department's recovery of costs have resulted in millions of dollars in unbilled and billed but uncollected cleanup costs (outstanding costs) dating back to 1987. Specifically, the department has acknowledged problems with inadequate procedures, incomplete documentation, and misclassification of certain sites in its database. These issues are so pervasive that the department has not yet determined the exact amount it may be able to recover. The department's spreadsheet for tracking projects with outstanding costs as of March 2014 shows that it has over 1,600 projects totaling almost $194 million in outstanding costs, of which nearly $142 million was unbilled and almost $52 million was billed but uncollected. The department has created a work plan to conduct a comprehensive evaluation of its outstanding costs and has made progress in resolving the accuracy of the information related to its outstanding costs. However, according to a senior staff counsel, the department is currently evaluating whether to revise its work plan to extend the target completion dates for some of its evaluative tasks until June 2016. Furthermore, the department may not be able to recover all of its outstanding costs due to several factors, such as when the federal and state statutes of limitations (statute of limitations) for cost recovery have expired on projects. The department's preliminary determinations indicated that the statute of limitations has expired for 76 projects with a total of $13.4 million in outstanding costs, which the department may not recover.

In November 2013 the department established updated cost recovery procedures in accordance with its work plan goals. However, we found several areas in which the department could better maximize its cost recovery efforts. Specifically, the department still lacks processes for tracking and monitoring the statute of limitations on contaminated sites and for tracking the progress and resolution of its settlement agreements.

Further, the department uses various methods to facilitate its recovery of cleanup costs associated with contaminated sites, such as entering into payment plans with the responsible parties or working with the California Office of the Attorney General to pursue litigation. However, the department has not consistently used some of these methods to ensure that it maximizes the recovery of costs from responsible parties. For example, the department has not always consistently issued collection letters to responsible parties that are delinquent in their payments or recorded liens on the properties of responsible parties.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE, CPA
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Environmental Safety and Toxic Materials.
