PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Keeley, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rabbi Mona Alfi:

Sir Arthur Eddington posed both a question and an answer for us to ponder.

What is the ultimate truth about ourselves? Various answers suggest themselves. We are bits of stellar matter gone wrong. We are physical machinery-puppets that strut and laugh and die. But there is one inescapable answer. We are that which asks the question. Whatever else there may be in our nature, responsibility of truth is one of its attributes.

“We are that which asks the question.” This goes to the essence of what it means to be human. We have an insatiable desire to know. But what becomes critical is not only asking the question, but doing something with the answers that we receive, and not turning away from the truth when it is revealed to us. We can not be satisfied with simply asking the questions that need to be asked. It is essential if we wish to elevate ourselves spiritually, or our community in actuality, to take action, to participate, to do.

May the Holy One of Blessing spur our hearts to ask the difficult questions, and may we never be hesitant in acting on what we know to be true in our hearts. May this be God’s will.—AMEN.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Speaker pro Tempore Keeley, Assembly Member Corbett then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.
