In the name of God, the most gracious, the most merciful.
Almighty God, We are amazed at the many blessings You have given to us as a people. You love us so much that we are moved to call ourselves “One Nation under God.” We know, however, that we are blessed so that we can be a reflection of Your love in this world. You made us a mighty Nation. May we always be gentle enough to lift up the fallen and ready always to protect those who are unable to defend themselves. You made us a bountiful Nation. May we always share those blessings with the hungry, the homeless, those unable to care for themselves.—Ameen.
