PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Lowenthal, the following prayer was offered by Reverend Patti Oshita:

Bob and I have, at times, wished we could live our lives over again. We know that if we could, we would try to live our lives even better. We would especially cherish our moments together with family and friends that are no longer with us. We wish we could hold them close again and truly thank them for the countless ways that they enriched our lives; we would let them know how much we appreciated their guidance and support . . . and love.

We also wish we could relive moments that we look back on as “our mistakes”; those moments when we were unable to take the high-road, or we could not see the “big picture” of things. At times, how we wish, that we could relive our lives again.

But there is no reset button in life. Instead, the best we can do, is for us to learn from our past, and begin to try to live each day as best we can.

We are taught in our tradition that each of us lives two lives. The second one begins when we realize that we have only one life. Let us try to begin right now—to live each day well. If we try to live each day well, we cannot help, but in time, look back on a life well lived.

Namo Amida Butsu—Let us try to live our lives with kindness and gratitude beyond words.
