PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Keeley, the following prayer was offered by Rev. Kelvin Sauls, Pastor of Downs Memorial United Methodist Church, in Oakland:

Let us pause. It was Martin Luther King, Jr., who said that we all are inextricably linked towards the same destiny formed in this mutual garment that we are heading to. And as to this day honor the spirit that he is here with us to celebrate and uphold human dignity when we celebrate Black History.

On this day when we unite for a common destiny, we would like to celebrate the spirits of those that have gone on before us, both dead and alive—Willie Brown, Maxine Waters, Rosa Parks, Thurgood Marshall, and the many who because of their hard work, we today unite towards a history and a destiny to uphold human dignity.

And so, we pause to celebrate that spirit. We pause to celebrate ourselves, for we know that Black History is essentially American History and as we celebrate this history, we claim our future together. And so now, a spirit of compassion, love and joy come now and permeate our lives as we deliberate and discuss that which will affect all of human kind that we are responsible for.

Guide us now and strengthen us as we continue to do and be what we ought to do and be—that is to uphold and celebrate human dignity.

We thank You for this opportunity of Black History. Most of all we thank You for the opportunity to influence and determine our destiny.—AMEN.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Speaker pro Tempore Keeley, Assembly Member Wright then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.
