PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Lowenthal, the following prayer was offered by Reverend Patti Oshita:

The Winter Olympics and the Super Bowl made this quite a weekend for games.

Throughout history, our human cultures have loved their games. Whether card games or board games or games requiring physical prowess. Humanity has long created and loved their games. I think that is because, within the games, we feel the momentary comfort of certainty. In our games the rules are clearly defined. The players and spectators know well what is fair and what is foul. The boundaries too are clearly marked, and we know what is out of bounds. We know the value of a royal flush, a touchdown, or a goal.

Unlike the games we enjoy watching or playing, in living life, we often do not know what the rules are or if there are boundaries. There are no assessments of flagrant fouls or unnecessary roughness. In life, what we thought were rules may suddenly not apply. That's why I feel we find a sense of comfort in our games.

Most importantly, unlike our games, in life, we never know when we are in the 9th inning or the 4th quarter. In life, we are not often given a "two-minute warning." Unlike the games we watch or play, in living life, we never know when our season will end. And too often, we fool ourselves into believing our season will be infinitely long. And when we do this, we begin to live each day taking for granted the time we have.

All the players in yesterday's Super Bowl, and all the competitors in these Winter Olympic Games, they know that they must be at their best; not tomorrow, not next season or in the next Olympics. The time to be at your best is right now.

It is a great mistake, to not be trying our best to be as genuine as we can. Because in real life, it is always the 9th inning. Every day, we are in the 4th quarter. Every moment can be Game/Set and Match. Knowing the value of each moment, let us live with appreciation, and with awareness to make the most of each day.

Namo Amida Butsu—Let us try to live with kindness and gratitude beyond words.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Speaker pro Tempore Lowenthal, Assembly Member Krell then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

MOTION TO DISPENSE WITH READING OF THE JOURNAL

Further reading of the Journal of the previous legislative day was dispensed with on motion of Assembly Member Aguiar-Curry, seconded by Assembly Member Sanchez.
