PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Mullin, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Patti Oshita:

Please join me in a moment of reflection.

A reminder that we are just four days from Valentine's Day. February 14th has become a day that is dedicated, especially, to romantic love. But as we often share with our single friends of any age, "We must be very careful in our romantic pursuits, for the person we marry, will be the only person we will get to choose in our family. We cannot choose our parents, our siblings, or our children. We can only choose our spouse; and they will impact on every part of our lives. So, we must choose with our wisdom eyes open."

When it comes to choosing someone to be with, Maya Angelou gave sage advice. She wisely shared, "Never make someone a priority when all you are to them is an option." Wisdom, like love, needs no explanation. We just feel it to be true—and we nod and smile. I will always be grateful for the wisdom and love in my life.

—Namo Amida Butsu, with kindness and gratitude beyond words.
