PRAYER

Upon invitation of Assistant Speaker pro Tempore Bauer-Kahan, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Patti Oshita:

Please join me in a moment of Valentine reflection.

When I was first dating Bob in Los Angeles almost 40 years ago, I worked for an Aerospace company called TRW. On one of our early dates, he picked me up right after work.

We went to a theatre in the Crenshaw area that was showing, “Zatoichi, the Blind Swordsman.” Fans of Zatoichi, know that in each of his many movies, he would eat like his meals were few and far between. It might be a bowl of rice, and often it was a huge rice ball (what we call onigiri). Zatoichi ate with such enthusiasm that rice would collect all over his face. It always looked so delicious.

I recall we went to the early showing because it was right after work, and I was getting hungry. But it was early in our dating, and I was looking forward to the movie.

I remember well that in the first eating scene, Zatoichi was gobbling down this huge onigiri-rice ball. It was then that Bob leaned over and said to me, “Boy that sure looks good.” I agreed. Then he asked, “Do you want an onigiri?” I said, “Oh yea.” Then he reached into his jacket pocket and pulled out two onigiri and handed one to me.

It was even more delicious watching Zatoichi eating his onigiri as we devoured ours. That was a memorable date because that evening, I said those three little words to Bob for the very first time. When he handed me the onigiri, I looked at him and said, “You’re so weird.”

I think that may have been one of the first moments I thought, “It might be interesting to be with this strange man.” And four decades later, I am still grateful for the laughter we continue to share, for laughter, I’ve come to feel, is essential to love.

—Namo Amida Butsu, with kindness and gratitude beyond words.
