PRAYER

Upon invitation of Assistant Speaker pro Tempore Kehoe, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rabbi Mona Alfi:

In President John F. Kennedy's inaugural address, he offered these inspiring words: "With a good conscience our only sure reward, with history the final judge of our deeds, let us go forth to lead the land we love."

Just as these moving words could apply to any president as they began their term, they also speak to the nature of the calling, which beckons all who serve in government.

This weekend our country stops to remember the men who have served our nation as President. These individuals brought to this job diverse biographies, temperaments and visions. Yet, regardless of party affiliation or political ideology, we recognize that each man stepped forward to serve and to lead the country that they loved. We honor the hope and humanity that has distinguished the American Presidency and continues to grace our nation's history.

May it be the will of the Creator that we never take for granted those who serve this country, and the freedom and democracy that we have been blessed with. May this be God's will.—AMEN.
