PRAYER

In observance of the Day of Remembrance for Japanese Americans interned during World War II, Speaker pro Tempore Keeley invited Rev. Bob Oshita, of the Buddhist Church of Sacramento to offer the morning prayer.

Honored members of the California State Assembly . . .

It is a pleasure to join with you this morning . . . in observing this very special Day of Remembrance; for in remembering the mistakes of our past . . . we quietly reaffirm our convictions to “do the right thing” in living today.

In opening our gathering today, please join me in a moment of meditative hope and reflection.

In the Busy-ness of our well scheduled days . . . we often fail to appreciate the day . . . the moment . . . that is now.

If we were to suddenly learn that we had only weeks to live . . . what value would we then give to each day . . . each hour. However long our lives may be . . . each day is a treasure, never to come again. With this in mind, let us receive and live each day as a cherished gift . . . let us receive gratefully and live wisely . . . the gift that is today.

We close our meditation, with a Buddhist expression of gratitude beyond words, we call, Onembutsu.

NamoAmidaButsu.
