Thank You for the privilege to stand here to offer this prayer as we celebrate Black History Month with the California Legislature.

We thank Thee for the contributions that African-Americans have made to world history. Be they in innovation, political advocacy, commerce, law, medicine, the sciences, or any field of human endeavor.

We thank You for the Tuskegee Airmen who broke down the barriers of inequality in the United States Armed Forces that led to opportunities, not only in our military services, but so many other areas that are afforded to our children today.

As we honor the legacy of the Tuskegee Airmen and of Black Americans, let us be reminded that this, the People's House, is a place for the advancement of justice, the security of peace, and the furthering of hope.

And all who found agreement said, "Amen!"
