PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Lowenthal, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Member Corey A. Jackson, of the 60th Assembly District:

An African proverb tells us that people who lack the knowledge of their past are like a tree without roots. So, in the spirit of remembrance, we pour this libation. We pour to honor the past, so that we may learn from it. We pour to honor the importance of family. We raise our cup to God to show our reverence for the original source of our lives. We use cool water to freshen the road our ancestors travel to be here with us today. We use cool water as a symbol of the continuity of life, to purify and to nourish our souls. We pour to celebrate us sharing this sacred space together.

It is said that through others, we are somebody. Through this ceremony, we broaden our family circle, remember our heritage and recall those who gave us life. We call upon our ancestors—our mothers, grandmothers and great grandmothers, our fathers, grandfathers and our great grandfathers, uncles, aunts and cousins—the foundations of our families, immortalized in our thoughts.

We call upon our elders, whose wisdom we seek in all endeavors. Our friends whom we are blessed to have in our lives, our parents who guided us along the road to adulthood. We call upon family who have passed over and could not be here today. We ask that they be with us in our thoughts.

Therefore we cast our libations to the North, to the South, to the East and to the West. This is a time we call out to our ancestors, our unsung heroes in our own lives. And as we do so and we hear their names, we respond with the African word Ase!

We will take the time to call out an ancestor that you would like to recognize today.

And as we have called out the names of those who have meant so much to us in our own lives and who continue to be in our thoughts and our hearts today, let us live our lives in such a way and treat others in such a way so that when others may gather and it is their time to call out a name, that we may be blessed to be called out amongst them. Let us all say Ase—Ase.
