PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Mullin, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Patti Oshita:

Please join me in a moment of reflection.

Two weeks ago, our Uncle Tosh Fukuda (who will be 102 years old in May), fell and broke his femur. At his advanced age, he underwent a partial hip replacement surgery. We continue to be with him daily and he is now in rehab, impressing his therapists with his resilience and determination.

When one lives to such an advanced age, people often say, “He’s lived a full life, or she’s lived a full life.” But a full life is not a life full of happiness and fulfillment. A full life is to have lived the full spectrum of life’s experiences. It is to have lived knowing great joy, fulfillment, and love, but also knowing deep sadness, frustration, and loss. A full life is one that has seen the cycle of life begin and end, again and again, like the ever-changing seasons.

Although very few are able to live to be 102, we can all still live a full life. We need only embrace each new day, trying in ways great and small, to touch the world around us with caring and kindness. We may not be able to live 102 years, but we can try to make a meaningful difference with the time we have.

The unforgettable tennis champion, Arthur Ashe, did just this. He touched the world around him, in ways great and small, with caring and kindness. Of life, he once said, “The best way to judge a life is to ask yourself, ‘Did I make the best use of the time I had?’” Arthur Ashe said that he wanted to be remembered for more than just his athletic accomplishments. He lived his 49 years with caring purpose, and his legacy of inspiration has answered his question regarding life.

Let us also make the best use of the time we have to make a meaningful difference in the world.

—Namo Amida Butsu, with kindness and gratitude beyond words.
