PRAYER

Upon invitation of Acting Speaker Bauer-Kahan, the following prayer was offered by Reverend Bob Oshita:

Our nation lost an iconic champion for Civil Rights last Tuesday, February 17th. Rev. Jesse Jackson dedicated his life to human rights and representing the marginalized. I admired his courage and respected his commitment. But, when I read about the health adversity that took his life, I dropped tears.

At the age of 84, he died of a rare neurological disease called PSP, Progressive Supranuclear Palsy. I lost my mother when she was 84, also from that same rare neurological disease, Progressive Supranuclear Palsy.

This disease has no definitive cause. And in the 21 years since my mother's passing, there continues to be no cure. Once diagnosed, all attempts at treatment stop and we watch helplessly, as the devastating stages develop.

Knowing this disease well, I know that Rev. Jackson went from cane to walker to wheelchair in a relatively short period of time. Balance was an issue and falling was a major risk. As the neural-muscular functions deteriorated, one of the last things to go was the swallowing reflex. Even a sip of thickened water would cause aspiration. My tears were from knowing too well, what Rev. Jackson and his family endured, and I held them all close to my heart. Although we have never met, we are a unique family of those who know this rare disease, Progressive Supranuclear Palsy.

There are historic people we may admire and respect. But it is when we truly feel that, "I know your journey," that we connect with our shared humanity. Even greater than our deepest empathy, is to know, without doubt, that we are all truly one; I know your pain, for it has been my pain, your joy, for it has been my joy. . . your hopes and fears have also been mine. When we embrace the humanity of others as family, our hearts become one, and kindness and caring flow effortlessly from our hearts to theirs.

Namo Amida Butsu—Let us try to live with kindness and caring beyond words.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Acting Speaker Bauer-Kahan, Assembly Member Blanca Rubio then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.
