Almighty God, Source of all that is good, be with us today. These Assembly Members gather here as representatives of the people, honored by such a call to service, but also fully aware of the great responsibility it demands. Grant them the insight to discern what is in the best interest of all people, the wisdom to choose what is good, moral, and just, and the courage to do what is necessary, even in the face of adversity, misunderstanding, and opposition. Help them to grasp the nobility of their calling to serve in the arena of politics as they face the challenge of making possible the growth of our state in virtue, integrity, and prosperity. May all that is accomplished today reflect a true spirit of justice, compassion, and concern and real dedication to the well-being of all people of our beloved state.—Ameen.
