PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Keeley, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rabbi Mona Alfi:

It is easy to get distracted by the routine of every day life and get caught up with what might seem fleeting, unimportant, or simply mundane. It is human to desire to make something that is permanent and enduring, to find some way to connect with the world in a deeper and lasting fashion. Warren Walker spoke of the desire within each of us to experience what is real and what is sustaining. He wrote:

There is deep-seated in the make-up of the ordinary person a craving for flowers that do not fade and pleasures that do not pass away. Deep down inside of every human being there is a desire for the genuine—the lasting quality of real life.

May the Holy One of Blessing grant us the ability to experience every day with a sense of wonder, and to find moments of transcendence where we can encounter what is Divine and Eternal. May we be blessed to see the beauty that is sometimes hidden in our day to day lives and may we know the lasting quality of real life. May this be God's will.—AMEN.
