Compassionate and Gracious God, All authority is yours.

You hold the universe within your hands and all of us within your loving embrace.

You touch the hearts of rich and poor alike,

You speak to the powerful and the powerless.

We ask your blessings upon the women who are leaders in this State and especially the women who are members of the State Assembly.

Grant that these women who are called to leadership may genuinely serve the people of this State.

May they continually search for policies and make decisions that will be for the good of all.

Give them vision to see far into the issues of this State, courage to uphold what they believe is right, and integrity in their motives.

Grant that they may bring to this work compassionate hearts and open minds so that they may always see, behind the budget and programs, the faces of the men, women and children they serve.

Be their security in times of anxiety and their inspiration in times of opportunity. By their plans and actions may they be co-creators with You, that your kingdom may come and your will be done.

We pray this in your Holy Name.—AMEN.
