PRAYER

Upon invitation of Assistant Speaker pro Tempore Thomson, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rabbi Mona Alfi:

It is human to want to discover “the meaning of life.” Most traditions have stories of disciples inquiring of their great teachers to share with them true enlightenment. There is a Zen teaching that addresses this question:

As he lay dying, the Master rose up to impart a last word to his grieving disciples. I will tell you, he said, one of my greatest discoveries. Till I was twenty I cared little for what people thought of me. Then, for many years, I worried endlessly about what people thought of me. One day, I suddenly understood that they hardly ever thought of me at all! This is Enlightenment: not to become divine; not to become a saint; only this; to become awake.

To be “awake” is to see when you look, to hear when you listen, and to be present in all that you do. We achieve enlightenment when we allow ourselves to live in the moment rather than to reside within our fears.

May the Holy One of Blessing enable us to live our days in fullness, awake to the possibilities around us and within us. May this be God’s will.—AMEN.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Assistant Speaker pro Tempore Thomson, Assembly Member Pescetti then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.
