PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Mullin, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Bob Oshita:

Please join me in a moment of reflection.

The story of America would be hollow without the stories of immigrants. The immigrant story is a part of what America is today. Seeking the opportunity to pursue the dream of a better life, immigrants came to America. All too often they had to face and overcome obstacles of language, culture, and prejudice. But armed with courage, hope, and determination, our immigrant communities persevered. They planted roots in American soil and they endured whatever adversities came their way—with the hope that the generations to follow would have more opportunities to seek a better life.

During Irish American Heritage Month, we especially honor and celebrate the Irish American Story—for their story is never separate from the story of America. The threads of the Irish immigrants, and all immigrants, are woven deep into the fabric of what we know to be America today.

When our Wisdom Eyes open and we embrace our shared human experience, kindness will emerge effortlessly from our hearts.

—Namo Amida Butsu, with kindness and gratitude beyond words.
