PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Ward, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Member Josh Hoover, of the 7th Assembly District:

Heavenly Father, We thank You for blessing us with the opportunity to represent our constituents and our communities. We pray that You help us serve with humility, always seeking first to understand and treating each other the way we wish to be treated.

The responsibility we have been entrusted with in this Chamber is not lost on us. We pray that You give us wisdom as we work together to solve our state's greatest challenges. Above all else, we ask that You help us to love one another as You first loved us, and that this love would wash over our nation and overcome any force that attempts to divide us.

Despite our differences, we are unified in our desire to leave this world a better place than when we found it. We ask that Your will be done in our pursuit of this goal.

We pray these things in Your name.—AMEN.
