PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Lowenthal, the following prayer was offered by Reverend Patti Oshita:

This past Monday, I returned to my hometown of Fowler to attend the funeral for Jane Nagata. She was 95 years old, and she was my late Mother's best friend. Growing up, her three children, Brian, Kevin and Colleen, were best friends with my sister, brother and me. The Temple was overflowing. Friends traveled from out of state and even from Japan, to be there. It was a great tribute to her and a nostalgic community reunion. Many of us had not seen each other in decades.

Family and friends commented, that "she lived a full life." But a full life is not a life full of happiness. "In her 95 years, my Auntie Jane experienced the 'fullness of life.'" She lived the full spectrum of life. Auntie Jane knew the happiness of love in her marriage to Uncle Tom but also knew the profound losses of her husband of 60 years in 2014, and her son, Kevin to cancer, in 2021. In her lifetime, she knew the meaning of joy and pain, fulfillment and despair. She lived through a time of hatred so deep, her family home was burned to the ground, leaving them no place to return to after being released from forced incarceration during the war. She knew what it was to live in fear, and she felt the safe embrace of acceptance, when her husband, Tom was elected Mayor of Fowler in the 1970s.

Auntie Jane knew what it meant to start over again with nothing, just doing the best you can. And I know that her life, in many ways, mirrored the hardships and joys of my parents' generation.

In attending Auntie's service, I found myself going home not just physically. I returned to the memories of my childhood, revisited my roots and reconnected with people whose entire families remain a part of who I am. Let's not wait too long to go home, to reconnect with the people whose lives have given meaning to our own. Let's let them know that they've made a difference. And if home is too far, let's hold them in our hearts and thank them with our deep gratitude, as I am, right this very moment.

Namo Amida Butsu—With kindness and gratitude beyond words.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Speaker pro Tempore Lowenthal, Assembly Member Jeff Gonzalez then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.
