PRAYER

Upon invitation of Assistant Speaker pro Tempore Lieber, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Guest Chaplain Rabbi Mona Alfi:

In the book of Proverbs, Chapter 31, the question is raised: “A woman of valor who can find? Her worth is far above rubies.” Proverbs continues to describe a woman whose good deeds extend far beyond her family, a woman whose actions reach out and impact her community. At the end of this passage we are told about this woman, “Place before her the fruit of her hands; wherever people gather, her deeds speak her praise.”

Today these chambers are a virtual treasure house. For we find in our midst not a woman of valor, but rather many righteous women from throughout our state whose deeds in their communities inspire us to stop and take notice and to learn from their examples.

However the inspiration that they offer is not just for one gender but for all people. The honor they bring to their communities is for acts of generosity, commitment, and courage that we all aspire to regardless of our gender.

So we gather today as we are taught in the book of Proverbs to do, to place before these women the fruit of their hands, and to allow their deeds to speak their praise.

Praised be the Holy One who has blessed the State of California with an abundance of citizens who dedicate themselves to the needs of the community, and whose deeds bring honor to us all. May their examples continue to guide us.—AMEN.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Assistant Speaker pro Tempore Lieber, Assembly Member Hancock then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

REPORTS

The following letter of transmittal was presented by the Chief Clerk and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

99028.4

March 8, 2005

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As required by Chapter 479, Statutes of 1999 (Chapter 479), the Bureau of State Audits (bureau) presents its final audit report concerning the procurement of a single, statewide automated child support system by the Department of Child Support Services (department) and the Franchise Tax Board (board) acting as its agent. The statute requires the bureau to monitor the evaluation and selection process for any signs of bias or favoritism.

There are two distinct components of a single, statewide automated system: the Child Support Enforcement (CSE) system and the State Disbursement Unit (SDU). The California Child Support Automation System (project) procured the first component on July 14, 2003, when the State signed a contract with the IBM Group, a business consortium led by IBM, to design, develop, and implement the CSE system, for a total of $801 million. In September 2003, we reported that during our monitoring of the negotiation sessions, nothing came to our attention that would lead us to believe that the negotiations resulted in significant changes in the contract that might violate the requirements of Chapter 479 or the solicitation document. Our limited review of the contract found that it included the major business needs areas that the CSE system must address and the compensation method agreed to by the parties did not violate the law and was within the parameters of the solicitation document. With the CSE system contract in place, the project team turned to procuring a vendor for the SDU.

This report discusses the final stages of the project team's process for selecting a vendor to provide SDU services. During our monitoring of the process used to evaluate the draft and final proposals submitted by qualified business partners to provide SDU services, the development of the feasibility study report required by the Department of Finance, and the final award of the SDU contract to the consortium led by the Bank of America, nothing came to our attention that would cause us to conclude that the project team, comprised of staff from the department and the board, deviated from its predefined process for evaluating and scoring vendors' proposals as outlined in the SDU request for proposal. Nor did we see anything to indicate any bias or favoritism toward any bidder.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE
State Auditor
