God of all, Whose mercy is everlasting to everlasting and whose grace is sufficient, even in the most trying of times, and who is our present help in troubled times, make Your presence known and hear our cry so that when our hearts are overwhelmed we can find solace in Your protecting hand.

Give strength that we may endure, provision that needs may be met, peace for the sake of calm and civility, protection for the vulnerable, healing for the sick, and above all render Your Spirit of love for all to find comfort in.

We hold onto Your Word that You will never leave nor forsake and that You are faithful and just. Shine Your light in a way that the edges of the dark clouds currently over us may glisten with rays of hope. It may be night today, but through You we know that joy will come in the morning. Breathe Your breath of life upon us that we may see in this present crisis Your sustaining power.

Give us the knowledge needed to face what is before us, wisdom to provide guidance, and the compassion to encourage and lift the spirits of those most in need. Let all glory, honor, and praise belong to You.—
AMEN.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following message from the Governor was received and ordered printed in the Journal:

Governor's Office, Sacramento
March 16, 2020

To the Members of the California State Senate and the California State Assembly:

Our state, our nation, and our world are facing a challenge unprecedented in modern times. The COVID-19 pandemic compels us all to find new ways of coming together, even as we must also seek out new ways of staying apart.

Recognizing the magnitude of this moment, on March 4, 2020, I proclaimed a state of emergency in California. In so doing, I found that the conditions set forth in Government Code, section 8558(b), had been met. Moreover, I hereby find that the declared state of emergency constitutes a state of emergency within the meaning of Article XIII B, section 3, subdivision (c), paragraph (2) of the California Constitution.

The California Constitution generally provides—in Article IV, section 8, subdivision (b), paragraph (2)—that “no bill may be passed or ultimately become a statute” unless it has been “printed, distributed to the members, and published on the Internet, in its final form, for at least 72 hours before the vote.” The Constitution further provides, however, that this 72-hour notice period “may be waived” if the Governor submits to the Legislature “a written statement that dispensing with this notice period for that bill is necessary to address a state of emergency . . . that has been declared by the Governor” within the meaning of Article XIII B, section 3, subdivision (c), paragraph (2).

Today I write to you to state the obvious: we must rise to the challenge facing our state with every tool at our disposal and without a second of delay. We cannot hesitate to meet this moment.

Accordingly, I submit to you this written statement that, to address the state of emergency I have declared, it is necessary to dispense with the 72-hour notice period set forth in Article IV, section 8, subdivision (b), paragraph (2) of the California Constitution, as to the following legislation:

AB 89
AB 117
SB 89
SB 117

In addition to addressing the state of emergency I proclaimed in connection with COVID-19 on March 4, 2020, this legislation also addresses the 2018 Camp Fire, for which a state of emergency was proclaimed on November 8, 2018.

I look forward to working with you in the weeks, days and hours ahead as we conduct the urgent business of our state.

Sincerely,

GAVIN NEWSOM

Statement Receipt

I acknowledge receipt this 16th day of March 2020, at 2:19 p.m., of a statement by the Governor, regarding dispensing of the notice period to address a state of emergency, delivered to me personally by Samuel Miller.
