PRAYER

Upon invitation of Acting Speaker Bauer-Kahan, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Member Natasha Johnson, of the 63rd Assembly District:

Gracious God, we pause at the opening of this day to acknowledge our dependence upon Your wisdom and guidance. We give thanks for the opportunity to serve the people of California, and for the trust placed in us as we gather in this chamber.

Today, as we recognize California's Women of the Year, we express gratitude for the remarkable women who have gone before us—trailblazers, visionaries, and change-makers who broke barriers, expanded opportunity, and opened doors for others.

Among them we recall those honored in the Scriptures, including Sarah, the matriarch of nations; Queen Esther, who risked her life in the halls of government to protect her people; and Mary, revered by billions for her character and for giving birth to and raising Jesus of Nazareth.

We give thanks as well for the women who strengthen our communities across this state today: leaders and mentors, mothers and daughters, neighbors and coworkers, educators and caregivers, public servants, and first responders. Many serve quietly, yet their wisdom, compassion, and dedication shape families, communities, and the future of our state and nation. We honor them today.

We also recognize the women who serve here in this Assembly, in our State Senate, in statewide positions, and as dedicated staff. Grant to us in this chamber now wisdom to discern what is right, humility to listen well, and courage to pursue the common good. May our deliberations be guided by respect for one another, integrity in our decisions, and a sincere desire to serve the people of California faithfully. May our efforts contribute to the flourishing, safety, and wellbeing of all who call this Golden State home.

We ask this in Your mighty name, and for me personally, in Jesus' name I pray.—AMEN.
