PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Lowenthal, the following prayer was offered by Reverend Patti Oshita:

The story of America would be hollow without the stories of immigrants. The immigrant story is a part of what America is today. Seeking the opportunity to pursue the dream of a better life, immigrants came to America. All too often they had to face and overcome obstacles of language, culture and prejudice. But armed with courage, hope and determination, our immigrant communities persevered. They planted roots in the soil of America and they endured whatever adversities came their way. Their deep hope was that the generations to follow would have more opportunities to seek a better life.

During Irish-American Heritage Month, we especially honor and celebrate the Irish-American journey, for their story is not separate from the story of America. Three of the 56 signers of the Declaration of Independence were actually born in Ireland. The threads of the Irish immigrants, and all immigrants, are woven deep into the fabric of what we know to be America today.

When our Wisdom Eyes open and we see that we are all a part of One Humanity, then kindness will flow effortlessly from our hearts.

Namo Amida Butsu—Let us try to live with kindness and gratitude beyond words.
