PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Mullin, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Bob Oshita:

Please join me in a moment of reflection.

Today is the spring equinox. This day marks the fulcrum of our transition from the cold of winter toward the heat of summer. In some cultures, it is considered an ideal time to contemplate the nature of life. During the equinox, it is not too hot and not too cold, not too wet and not too dry. Over the last 3 months, the long winter nights have slowly grown shorter; and on the equinox, the day and night are of equal length.

As we experience the natural world in comfortable harmony and balance, we reflect again on the harmony and balance we each seek in our lives. Daily reflection helps us to maintain our sense of balance and harmony as we live through the inevitable changes and transitions of life.

—Namo Amida Butsu, with kindness and gratitude beyond words.
