PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Keeley, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rabbi Mona Alfi:

In a world that seems to be increasingly engulfed by fear and conflict, and a distrust of those who come from different backgrounds than oneself, it is worth contemplating the words of Indira Ghandi. She observed that "Mankind will endure when the world appreciates the logic of diversity."

The strength that truly drives a community forward is found in the unique qualities of its members. Appreciating diversity is not merely about the philosophy of tolerance. It is about hearing the beautiful sound of the individual notes that come together not in dissonance but, rather, to form a wondrous and powerful symphony.

May the Holy One of Blessing help us to recognize that which is remarkable and worthy in all of humanity, and to have patience in that which we do not readily understand. May this be God's will.—AMEN.
