PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Lowenthal, the following prayer was offered by Reverend Patti Oshita:

I'd like to share one of my monthly notes to our infant grand nephew . . . Happy 9th month birthday little one! And welcome to your first spring season! Your Uncle Bob loves the spring and summer. Your Auntie Patti loves the autumn and winter. I guess that's a way of saying, every season of the year has its own charm and is wonderful. And this is your first spring season!

The days and months will quickly pass; the seasons change and the years will go by. Soon you will take for granted the seasons, thinking they are an endless cycle. We all have done that. But how many springs will be ours to enjoy? However many, that number is limited. This awareness will grow in meaning the older you become. For your uncle and auntie, this is especially meaningful because we are old. We know that the seasons we now enjoy have always been limited; and so, we do our best to just enjoy them all.

I remember your great grandpa (my father), looking around the dining room when our whole family gathered for a Thanksgiving feast. Your dad was maybe 7 years old at the time. Great grandpa looked so content. Then I heard him quietly say, "Now is the best time, just because we are all together." Your great grandpa knew that anytime we can be together with family is a moment to cherish.

We wish you a long, full life little one! And we hope you learn to appreciate every season, holding close the people you love while you have them.

Love,

Your Auntie Patti

Let us all appreciate every season and hold close the people we love while we have them.

Namo Amida Butsu—Let us try to live with kindness and gratitude beyond words.

The following letter of transmittal was presented by the Chief Clerk and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2025-117
April 16, 2026

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 319
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As directed by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, my office conducted an audit of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR), the Franchise Tax Board (FTB), the California Victim Compensation Board (CalVCB), and the local collection entities of three counties—Kern, San Diego, and Contra Costa—regarding their administration of victim restitution programs. In general, we determined that state and local entities have implemented inconsistent processes that reduce the effectiveness of victim restitution.

We identified multiple instances in which the state and local entities involved in the victim restitution process lacked coordinated and consistent practices. For example, because many local collection entities did not coordinate effectively with CDCR, CDCR is unable to disburse restitution to victims for 60 percent of the restitution order payments it collected. We also found that state and local collection entities did not consistently refer delinquent debt to FTB for collection, potentially depriving victims of their restitution payments. Additionally, although state law requires that restitution orders include the payment of interest to victims, we found that some courts had frequently omitted interest from the orders they imposed or acted on differing interpretations of the law. As a result, victims might receive and individuals might owe different amounts of restitution depending on the county in which the case was heard. Finally, we noted that the entities we reviewed collected less than 11 percent of the restitution for which they were responsible from fiscal years 2014–15 through 2024–25, in part because individuals who owed restitution may lack the financial means to pay their debts.

Our report identifies recommendations to the Legislature including steps it could take to strengthen data collection and reporting, clarify how interest should apply to restitution orders, improve the consistency and efficiency of restitution collection, and facilitate coordination among involved entities.

Respectfully submitted,

GRANT PARKS
California State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Public Safety.
