REPORTS

The following letter of transmittal was presented by the Speaker and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2022-030
April 14, 2022

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 319
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: The State Bar of California (State Bar) is responsible for protecting the public from attorneys who fail to fulfill their professional duties, and it works to meet this obligation by administering a disciplinary system that investigates and prosecutes complaints. However, our audit of the State Bar found that it failed to effectively deter or prevent some attorneys from repeatedly violating professional standards.

We found that the State Bar prematurely closed some cases that warranted further investigation and potential discipline. We reviewed files for one attorney who was the subject of 165 complaints over seven years, many of which the State Bar dismissed outright or closed after sending private letters to the attorney. Although the volume of complaints against the attorney has increased over time, the State Bar has imposed no discipline, and the attorney maintains an active license. The State Bar dismisses about 10 percent of all complaints using nonpublic measures such as private letters, which did not deter some attorneys we reviewed from continuing to engage in similar misconduct.

The State Bar failed to adequately investigate some attorneys, despite lengthy patterns of complaints against them. In one example, it closed multiple complaints alleging that an attorney failed to pay clients their settlement funds. When the State Bar finally examined the attorney's bank records, it found that the attorney had misappropriated nearly $41,000 from several clients. In another example, the State Bar closed 87 complaints spanning 20 years before it sought disbarment of an attorney due to a federal conviction for money laundering. Had the State Bar taken the pattern of complaints into account when deciding whether to request additional evidence, it might have discovered the misconduct sooner and mitigated harm to clients.

Finally, the State Bar has not consistently identified or addressed the conflicts of interest that exist between its own staff members and the attorneys they investigate. In more than one-third of the cases we reviewed, the State Bar did not document its consideration of conflicts before it closed these cases.

To remedy these weaknesses, the State Bar needs to make significant improvements to the safeguards that help ensure its staff conduct thorough investigations, and the Legislature should take additional steps to ensure the State Bar's compliance with its revised policies and procedures.

Respectfully submitted,

MICHAEL S. TILDEN, CPA
Acting California State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Judiciary.
