PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Keeley, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rabbi Mona Alfi:

Today the Jewish community observes Yom HaShoah—Holocaust Memorial Day. On this day we set aside time not only to remember our own tragedy, but to remind the world that racism, homophobia, fear of strangers, political intolerance, and bigotry in its many shapes and forms still exists in every nation.

The Nobel Prize winner and Holocaust survivor, Elie Weisel, warns us that one of the most powerful lessons that we can learn from the Holocaust is that “Indifference . . . is not only a sin, it is a punishment.” When we are silent in the face of hatred, we not only fail God, we condemn ourselves.

May it be the will of the Creator that we allow our eyes to see the suffering of others, use our voices to cry out against injustice, and commit our strength to create a more tolerant and compassionate world.—AMEN.
