PRAYER

Upon invitation of Acting Speaker Achadjian, the following prayer was offered by Guest Chaplain, his Eminence Archbishop Moushegh Mardirossian, Prelate of the Western Prelacy of the Armenian Apostolic Church of America:

Lord Almighty, We thank You for the blessing of this day as we have gathered once again here, at the California State Capitol, to join this esteemed group of legislators and fellow citizens to honor the memory of the 1.5 million victims of the Armenian Genocide on this centennial year commemoration.

As our history continues to be denied and refuted by modern-day Turkey and its allies, we are grateful for friends and supporters such as those in the California State Legislature, who designate this time each year to pay tribute to our martyrs and raise awareness of the truth of the Armenian Genocide and our just cause. May You bless them abundantly for their righteous stance and lead them to continued successes in their commendable service toward the prosperity of our beloved home state.

Today we remember and pray also for the souls of all victims of genocide. And for those subjected to similar atrocities today, we pray for their safety and wellbeing. May there come a time when all the peoples of the world can live amongst one another in peace, as brothers and sisters of one and the same human family.

Lord, on this historic 100th anniversary of the Armenian Genocide, we turn to You for strength, perseverance, and patience as we continue our struggle for universal recognition and justice. We owe it to our martyrs to keep their legacy alive, and we owe it to all victims and survivors of genocide, so that history does not keep repeating itself.

May the memory of our faithful departed remain ever-blessed. May Your blessing and protection be upon the leadership, armed forces, and citizenry of this great land we are proud to call home, and may You keep us in peace under Your loving care and mercy.— AMEN.
