Almighty God, on this day of remembrance for the Armenian Genocide Martyrs, we pause to honor the lives lost and the enduring spirit of a people who faced unimaginable suffering. May their courage and resilience inspire us to stand against injustice wherever it may arise, and to speak truth with clarity and conviction. Bless the members of this Assembly and their loved ones. Grant us the wisdom to lead our communities with sincerity, integrity, and a steadfast commitment to justice. May our words and actions reflect fairness, compassion, and a dedication to the dignity of every human life.

Let the unwavering faith and courage of the Genocide Martyrs guide us to live with conviction, to serve one another with humility, and to act with compassion in all that we do. Remove all barriers so that we may see clearly, recognize where change is needed, and respond with courage and wisdom. May our service be whole, our hearts steadfast, and our efforts guided by the principles of justice and mercy.

Today, as we remember the Armenian Genocide, we honor not only those who perished but also the survivors and their descendants, whose perseverance teaches us the power of hope, the strength of memory, and the necessity of bearing witness. May their legacy inspire all of us to work tirelessly for peace, human dignity, and the protection of all communities against hatred and oppression.—AMEN.
