PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Mullin, the following prayer was offered by Guest Chaplain Reverend Father Yeghishe Ksachikyan of the St. James Armenian Apostolic Church, Sacramento:

All loving God, we bow our heads to you in gratitude and ask for your blessing upon all, especially for the men and women of this chamber. As each of us fulfills our duties of replenishing the earth with divine love, we plead for Your wisdom and guidance. Help us to patiently serve the communities entrusted to us and to be able to instill in people's lives a life filled with hope and trust towards one another. Strengthen us to have the courage to always do what is right and just.

Today we honor the martyrs of the Armenian Genocide whose lives were stolen one hundred and four years ago by the Ottoman government. Again and again we are distraught, our hearts are broken, but we are hopeful in the face of injustice and denial. The task of raising awareness and educating has fallen into our own hands so that current and future generations will not have to experience genocides. The lost lives of the Armenian Genocide and all other genocides cannot be brought back, but hopefully the way we live our lives and the choices we make will be a fragment of what they dreamed to see as they fell under the scorching heat of the desert.

We pray that you bless the Members of this Assembly and Senate in order that they may act in accordance to Your will as they pursue what is noble and just. Guide and protect them in their quest to serve humanity with humility and grace, now and forever.—AMEN.
