PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Ward, the following prayer was offered by Guest Chaplain, the very Reverend Father Smpad Saboundjian of the Western Prelacy of the Armenian Apostolic Church of America:

Heavenly Father, We offer You thanks and praise for granting us this day to join our dear friends at the State Capitol to collectively commemorate Armenian Genocide Remembrance Day.

As we somberly remember the one and one-half million victims who were martyred in 1915 for their faith and nation, we also remember the countless innocent lives taken in similar atrocities throughout history. With our united efforts, our unwavering resolve, and the strength of our united voices and prayers, we can make justice certain to prevail. Only then can the souls of our martyrs truly rest in peace.

We thank our elected officials for faithfully and courageously standing by our side in our common fight for human rights, dignity, and justice for all mankind, and for taking this time each year to pay homage to the sacred memory of our martyrs. May You bless them with many years of health and continued success in their meritorious service to the prosperity of this great state we are all proud to call our home.

Lord, grant us the vigor to continue our path undeterred, and the strength to overcome obstacles and accomplish our ultimate goals. Grant wisdom to world leaders and to us so that we may at all times think, speak, and do that which is good and just in Your eyes. Save us from evil thoughts, words, and deeds and have mercy upon us all.

We thank You for Your abundant blessings and gifts of love and mercy. May the souls of our faithful departed, through Your mercy, rest in peace.—AMEN.
