PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Ward, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Member Eloise Gómez Reyes, of the 50th Assembly District:

Heavenly Father, Thank You for blessing us with another day and another opportunity to serve. I ask that You continue to bless this chamber with health and prosperity and that You continue to give us the strength to do the work that we do. Continue to guide us through our service with clarity, understanding, and kindness.

Help us to remember our purpose and the reasons we are gathered here today. Today before You we have activists, athletes, musicians, writers, entertainers, journalists, lawmakers, and public servants, here to celebrate the spirit you instill in Your people.

Nothing is possible without You, and as You have blessed us with our careers, accomplishments, awards, and countless recognitions, please center our hearts and minds around our collective impact, our duty to give back, and our calling to step up as leaders. In the words of Civil Rights Icon Dolores Huerta, “A leader is a person that does the work. It’s a personal choice for people who choose to put in their time and their commitment to do the work. It’s a personal choice.”

I pray that we all, with Your guidance, make the personal choice to recognize our role in leadership and act with strength and grace to serve the people of California with the gifts You have blessed each of us with. We must always remember the importance of living a life grounded in doing good.

To quote, “Love must be sincere. Hate what is evil; cling onto what is good; be devoted to one another in love. Honor one another above yourselves. Never be lacking in zeal, but keep your spiritual fervor, serving the Lord. Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer. Share with the Lord’s people who are in need. Practice hospitality.”

In closing, may we serve with love, devotion, and zeal.—AMEN.
