Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Mullin, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Member Joaquin Arambula of the 31st Assembly District:

Dear Heavenly Father, Today, let us think about the power of compassion. It is with a joyful heart that I share good news: we now are extending full Medi-Cal coverage to adults 50 years of age and older, regardless of immigration status.

In our Golden State, all are welcome at God's table. Let grace and understanding guide us as we strive to improve the lives of ALL who call our Golden State home—who only want happiness and comfort for themselves and their loved ones. And let that same benevolence guide our colleagues at the federal level to pass immigration reform—this would be a true affirmation that ALL people deserve dignity and respect.

In our Golden State, we proudly stand as a beacon of hope for so many people seeking opportunity in the greatest state in our Nation. Here, we celebrate the rich diversity of our people and their dreams. Here, we look forward to a brighter future that embraces everyone. Here, we honor humanity in all its glory.

In our Lord's name, we pray.—AMEN.
