We are thankful for the privilege of representing of such a vast, diverse group of constituents. We ask that our hearts will turn to You to seek Thy guidance in the impactful decisions placed before us. We ask for help in being mindful of those who deserve compassion, love and support. We pray that the decisions we make will be motivated by achieving the common benefit to our public at large. We pray for our state and our country, that our people will be more motivated to seek common ground than to engage in contentious, hurtful discourse. Help us to tolerate differences instead of belittling them. Please bless this gathering here on the California State Assembly floor, that we will be mindful of the trust placed in us, that our actions will be consistent with building trust with those who are responsible for sending us here.

This is our prayer.—AMEN.
