Lord, Living a life filled with Your blessings implies that we walk along the good path. One way to try to follow the good path is to avoid doing bad things. Sometimes however, taking the opposite approach works better. Instead of avoiding bad things, we should look to involve ourselves with only the good. By focusing on doing and saying only good things that are pleasing to You, our life can take on new meaning and wholeness as You intended. Bless us this morning, Lord, and guide us on the good path that leads us to You.—AMEN.
