PRAYER

Upon invitation of Assistant Speaker pro Tempore Celeste Rodriguez, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Member Harabedian, of the 41st Assembly District:

Let us take a moment to reflect.

Today, we honor the generations of Asian American and Pacific Islander Californians whose courage, culture, and contributions have shaped the story of this state—not as guests, but as builders of its very foundation. We remember those who came before us—who crossed oceans and borders carrying their families, their traditions, and their dreams. Many were met with closed doors and heavy burdens, yet still they built. They resisted. They endured.

Their stories are not side notes in California’s history—they are central chapters. And their legacy reminds us that progress is never given. It is earned, often at great cost, and passed down with hope. For those who came before. For those standing now. For those rising still—we give thanks.

May we be worthy of that legacy. May we lead with humility, listen with intention, and legislate with courage. May we confront injustice not just with words, but with action. And may this chamber always be a place where every community sees itself reflected in the laws we pass and the future we shape.—AMEN.
