PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Keeley, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rabbi Mona Alfi:

A former President of Yale University, Alfred Whitney Griswold, gave this advice on living a life of integrity:

Self-respect comes to us when we are alone, in quiet moments, in quiet places, when we suddenly realize that, knowing the good, we have done it; knowing the beautiful, we have served it; knowing the truth, we have spoken it.

The measure of a person is found not in the titles we bear, or the families we are born into, rather it is in our capacity to define our own character in the midst of challenges. It is not simply in how we see the world, but in how we interact with it, that is how our character is measured.

May it be the will of the Creator that in those quiet moments of reflection, we will be able to look at our actions with satisfaction and pride, knowing that we have done the good, served the beautiful, and spoken the truth. May this be God's will.—AMEN.

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT TO PRINT IN JOURNAL

Upon request of Assembly Member Firebaugh, Assembly Member Calderon was granted unanimous consent that the following statement of legislative intent be printed in the Journal:

Legislative Intent—Assembly Bill No. 1087

May 10, 2002

The Honorable Herb Wesson Jr.
Speaker of the Assembly
State Capitol
Sacramento, California

Dear Mr. Speaker,

This letter is being sent for publication in the journal. The purpose of this letter is to clarify the intent of Assembly Bill 1087, relating to the certification of electricians.

It is not the author's intent under AB 1087 for electrical education and training gained through apprenticeship programs approved by the federal Bureau of Apprenticeship and Training could not be used to meet the requirements for certification under Labor Code Section 3099.

The language contained in Labor Code Section 3099.2 (d) in the April 30, 2002 amended version of AB 1087, makes clear that apprentices participating in federally approved programs may work as electricians without first obtaining certification and that these apprentices may take the certification examination when they are within one year of graduation and, upon passing the examination and completing the apprenticeship programs, be certified.

Section 3099.2 (d) reads:

“Notwithstanding subdivision (a), certification is not required for registered apprentices performing electrical work as part of an apprenticeship program approved under this chapter, a federal Bureau of Apprenticeship Training program, or a state apprenticeship program authorized by the federal Bureau of Apprenticeship Training. An apprentice who is within one year of completion of his or her term of apprenticeship shall be permitted to take the certification examination and, upon passing the examination, shall be certified immediately upon completion of the term of apprenticeship.”
[Emphases supplied.]

Indeed, AB 1087 treats apprentices in federally approved apprenticeship programs identically to apprentices in California-approved apprenticeship programs. There is no discrimination whatsoever against apprentices in federally approved programs.

Another provision added by AB 1087 (Labor Code Section 3099.4) also provides that any person may work as an uncertified electrician without enrolling in an apprenticeship program if the person has completed or is enrolled in an approved curriculum of classroom instruction. Once the approved curriculum of instruction is completed, moreover, the person may take the certification examination.

In short, the intent of AB 1087 is to provide a wide variety of avenues by which individuals may acquire the classroom instruction and on-the-job experience leading to certification as competent journeyman electricians.

I hope this will dispel any of the confusion that may have arisen when this measure was heard in Assembly Labor and Employment Committee on May 9, 2002.

Sincerely,

THOMAS M. CALDERON, Assembly Member
Fifty-eighth District
