Point of Order

Assembly Member Calderon arose to the following point of order:

It is customary, that when you are referring to the other Members that aren't part of your party, that you say, "my colleagues on the other side of the aisle." Our usage and custom are not to differentiate between Democrat or Republican. This is a respectful Body where we respect everybody's ideas, so I ask that when we are addressing Members from the other party we respectfully say, as is tradition on this Floor that we refer to them as, "the colleagues on the other side of the aisle."

Ruling by Speaker pro Tempore Mullin

Speaker pro Tempore Mullin ruled the point of order well-taken with regard to the civility and respect on the Floor of the Assembly.

Point of Order

Assembly Member Calderon arose to the following point of order:

Again, within keeping to the traditions of this Body that we have always followed, I ask that the Member respect that tradition. However, I also ask that the Member speak to the merits of the bill.

Ruling by Speaker pro Tempore Mullin

The Speaker pro Tempore stated that I did rule previously on the point of order and it continues to be well-taken. I also rule that your additional point of order is well-taken. We are going to refrain from comments beyond the scope of the bill before the Body.

The question being on the passage of the bill.
