PRAYER

Roger Babson, a 20th century economist observed that: "Property may be destroyed and money may lose its purchasing power; but, character, health, knowledge and good judgment will always be in demand under all conditions."

Too often the essential and enduring wealth that is within our reach slips from our grasp in our pursuit of material gain. Fortunes can be won or lost. Yet, who we are, not what we have, will ultimately sustain us.

May the Holy One of Blessing bestow upon us the true wealth that life has to offer, the blessings of wisdom, character, health, and friendship. May this be God's will.—AMEN.

STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT—ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 1913

Pursuant to unanimous consent granted on Monday, May 13, 2002, the following statement of legislative intent was printed in the Journal:

May 13, 2002

*Speaker Herb Wesson
State Capitol, Room 219
Sacramento, California*

RE: AB 1913 (Lowenthal) Coastal Commission Recordings:
Prospective Nature of Bill

Dear Mr. Speaker: I have authored AB 1913 to give the California Coastal Commission the authority to record against the property of an owner who has violated the California Coastal Act. The bill provides due process for the property owner and expedites rescission of the recording once the violation has been resolved. It also provides constructive notice to potential purchasers of the property that there is a pending violation.

During the course of the legislative process, there has been some confusion about whether the provisions of AB 1913 could be applied to violations occurring prior to its effective date. Legislative Counsel has informed me that it would be unconstitutional to apply the provisions of AB 1913 retroactively. It is for this reason that I submit this letter to you now, expressing my intent that the provisions of AB 1913 are prospective only. The bill is not intended to apply to any violation prior to its operative date.

Thank you for printing this letter in the Assembly Journal on the same date as the Assembly Floor vote on AB 1913.

Sincerely,

ALAN LOWENTHAL, Assembly Member
Fifty-fourth District
