PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Mullin, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Member Sydney Kamlager-Dove, of the 54th Assembly District:

Over the weekend, I took my stepdaughter to visit her friend in the hospital. Angel was recovering from a blood transfusion. She is 14, recently lost 20 pounds, and has been diagnosed with Lupus.

It is scary to see a young life struggle to walk, need help with her balance, and re-learn her faculties. It is even scarier to wonder how you would cope if she were your child.

Angel is a young life whose health is on the ropes. She is learning to live with a new disease, while her mother learns to find new faith in her God, and new sources of strength to both shield and support her young daughter.

Lord, I pray for Angel and Melanie.

Let us pray for all who are negotiating an illness, a loneliness, or a loss. Let us also pray for those who battle fear—fear of living life to the fullest, of living in someone else’s shadow, of not meeting unspoken or unreal expectations, or just fear of living life in one’s truth. Why, Lord? Because it is too short and too precious to be experienced in isolation, without love and while afraid.

Sometimes we act as if the enemy is the truth, but oftentimes the enemy is our fear. Lord, let us not be afraid. Let us not be afraid to hear from all perspectives so that we can shield and support those who live in and depend on California.

Let us pray for the housed and homeless. Let us pray for charter schools and public schools. Let us pray for landlords and tenants. Let us pray for healthcare providers and patients. Let us pray for law enforcement and the communities they serve.

Let us pray that we are able to find the strength to live life off the ropes. That we are able to find the balance to walk through life with our faculties and in our faith. And that we are able to find the grace to love the life that we are given and the life that we share with others.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG
