Lord, Today, we hear much about the importance of maintaining a life free from stress and avoiding any tension within us. Yet, the tension between leading a Godly life and submitting to the evils of this world can be productive and useful. It can be the source of a powerful impulse to work toward continual self-improvement. Help us, Lord, to always maintain a certain tension inside, not between false values, but a good tension of desiring to be with You always.—AMEN.
