COMMUNICATIONS

May 24, 2024

Sue Parker

*Chief Clerk of the Assembly
State Capitol, Room 319
Sacramento, California*

Dear Ms. Parker: It has been an honor and a privilege to serve the people of the Central Valley in the Assembly. At every turn, I supported the tremendous work being done by our friends and neighbors—growing our food, powering our economy, and supporting our military operations at Naval Air Weapons Station China Lake and Edwards Air Force Base.

Together, we have fought for common sense policies to curb the high cost of living, rein in state spending to protect precious tax dollars and demand transparency from our state government.

As I continue to serve our community in Washington, DC as their congressman, I respectfully submit my resignation as State Assemblyman of the 32nd Assembly District. My resignation is effective today.

There are many challenges ahead. I, along with every member of the Assembly, work hard each and every day to represent our constituents, and there is still more work to be done. I am grateful to have served alongside my colleagues as we strive to make California a better place to live and work.

Sincerely,

VINCE FONG, Assemblyman
Thirty-second District
