PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Keeley, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rabbi Mona Alfi:

The political commentator, George Will, once observed that “The business of America is not business. Neither is it war. The business of America is justice and securing the blessings of liberty.”

As we enter into the Memorial Day weekend we are reminded of the personal sacrifices made by so many. We remember the courage and bravery that has ensured for us the twin blessings of justice and liberty.

When we participate in the democratic process, we honor the memories of those who have died so that we can be free.

May it be the will of the Creator that we never fail to recognize the bravery of those who came before us and may we always honor their memory by celebrating the noble legacy of freedom and democracy that they have bequeathed to us. May this be God’s will.—AMEN.
